MIKE NESMITH BLASTS MONKEES!!

Mike Nesmith, the lead Vocal Monkee, has a lot to say about the group's image. He believes that the Monkees are not given enough credit for their musical talent. Nesmith, who also plays guitar in the band, says, "We're tired of being pigeonholed as a pop group. We want to be taken seriously as musicians." He adds that the band's image of being "fuzzy, furry and cheesy" is not accurate. Nesmith insists that the Monkees are more than just a pretty face act. "We have a lot of depth and we're not afraid to show it," he says.

HIDE AND SEEK ( Somebody's image) E.M.I.

Somebody's Image have come up with a winner, and sure enough with this record, they have won the original Australian chart topping spot. Their hit single, "Hide and Seek" by Doug Van Wyk and Larry Van Wyk has been released for the first time in Australia, and what they have managed to do is show that they can play their own music very well. The song is a classic, very good and very commercial. The band has been produced by David Mackay. It will be a hit for sure!

SOMEBODY'S IMAGE HAVE MADE A FILM TO PROMOTE THEIR NEW SINGLE "HIDE AND SEEK" "LIVING IN STYLE." FOR SEVERAL DAYS THEY LIVED VERY DANGEROUSLY, IN ALLEYWAYS AND ON MOTOR BIKES, CHASING EACH OTHER IT WAS ALL VERY SPINE-CHILLING. ON THE WAY THEY COLLECTED A WHOLE HOST OF NEW FRIENDS!! (COVE RIGHT) AROUND MELBOURNE.

A ROUGH SLUM SETTING IS QUICKLY ESTABLISHED, WITH A TRIO FROM THE OUTSIDE OF TOWN.

SOME OF THE EXTRAS TOOK IT VERY SERIOUSLY.

FROM THE SLUMS, IT'S TO THE OPEN SPACES ON CYCLES CHASING THE HIDDEN MEMBERS OF THE GROUP.

SOMEBODY'S IMAGE, USUALLY CLEAN AND PRETTY, WERE MESSING UP FOR THEIR PART. RUSSEL WORKED WELL ON THE GIANT HOPSCOTCH OUTSIDE THEIR "SLUM HOUSE" IN CARLTON, MELBOURNE.

YES, IT DOES LOOK BETTER ON ONE LEG. GOOD ACTING FROM TWO BIKE BOYS PICKED UP FOR THE FILM.

ALL GOOD THINGS COME TO AN END. DON'T WORRY RUSSEL, DIDN'T REALLY GET KILLED. IT WAS ONLY FOR THE MOVIE. EVEN THOUGH SOMEONE DID PANIC AND CALL THE AMBULANCE!
