Procession live up to their promise!

By Lily Brett

Six months ago, The Procession were formed! Six months ago, they declared they were going to England around June. They said they were not concerned about Australian success. They were aiming mainly at the overseas market! This July, The Procession leave for England!

Their last Melbourne appearance will be at the Go-Set Ball, on June 18th. They have signed a five-year recording contract with Phillips Mercury for world release. They have been given a substantial advance and guarantee on royalties, which will enable them to have financial security for a couple of years.

The Procession is the first Australian group to go on tour abroad. Their first tour will take them to Europe, and they are scheduled to perform in London, Paris, Rome, and other major cities. Their goal is to establish a solid reputation in the international music scene.

Johnny Farnham

Johnny Farnham is a rising star in the Australian music industry. Born in Melbourne, he began his career in the early 1960s with the group The Seekers. Farnham's soulful voice and bluesy style have earned him critical acclaim and a devoted fan base.

Johnny Farnham's latest album, "In-Gear," is a collection of soulful ballads and rock numbers. He performs a concert at Myers Department Store in Sydney on June 11th. The event is part of the store's music program, which attracts a large crowd of music lovers.

Farnham's singing style is reminiscent of soul and R&B performers like Otis Redding and Sam Cooke. His gravelly voice and powerful delivery make him a unique talent in the Australian music scene.

Ian Meldrum talks to Tom Jones

To catch the spine-stirring act of Tom Jones at the London Palladium, one would never guess that it was the same performer who toured Australia just over two years ago.

The toughness is still there, but the rough, his swinging style has disappeared, to make way for a smooth, professional performance.

The voice hasn't changed, but his choice of material has.

ELECTRIFYING

I can fully understand why teenagers to adults with delight for this rugged Welsh singer.

His act is electrifying, his booming voice unforgettable.

His repertoire ranges from a swing Irish ballad, to the thrilling bass rhythm of Tamla Motown. Tom Jones donned his white suit, picked up a guitar, and got down to the nitty gritty of the audience, stamping his feet against the beat.

TAMLA MOTOWN

Here's your ticket to the land of rock and roll. The audience could witness this power-packed singer in action.

After the show, I was able to spend a few minutes with Tom Jones. He revealed that he was inspired by the audience's reaction to his performance.

ROLF SPEARS HOME

Rolf Harris is back in town after a very successful English tour. He has a big hit with "The Joker" and has recently released a new LP, "The Best of Rolf Harris." He is very excited about his return to Australia.

CATCHER GRUNTS

Tom Jones describes his new LP, "A New Kind of Love," as a "personal album." He says he wanted to do something different from his previous releases.

WHISPERS FROM BERTIES AND SEBASTIANS

For new fans of Ian Meldrum's music, this is a great opportunity to catch his live performance.

GARY HOFFMAN'S HISTORY

Gary Hoffman's unique approach to guitar making has set him apart from the rest. His guitars are known for their distinctive sound and quality craftsmanship.

COUNTRY "BATTLE"

The country battle is heating up! Don't miss out on seeing the best of both worlds in this exciting musical competition.
Stan Rofe Talks To Ian Meldrum

The Groove are fibbing?

We've already tested you to see exactly how well you know the Twilight, so now let's see if you can catch the Groove out when they tell a fib!

Is it a fib if:

1. Peter says that he likes fishing very much.
2. Peter says that he absolutely hates dogs.
3. Peter says that when he has a little boy he has a little girl.
4. Andrew says that he intensely dislikes classical music.
5. Peter says that he never goes to parties.
6. Andrew says that he is the only one of the group who likes classical music.
7. Peter says that he always wears glasses.
8. Peter says that he likes the Twilight.
9. Andrew says that he is totally a vegetarian.
10. Peter says that he is a health fanatic.
11. Andrew says that he never cooks.

The Answers:

1. It's true, we suspect that Peter would really love to spend the whole day fishing and leaving the group.
2. We know Peter at all would enjoy being a boy and his girl.
3. We know Peter at all would enjoy being a girl and his boy.
4. We know Peter at all would enjoy being a girl and his boy.
5. We know Peter at all would enjoy being a girl and his boy.
6. We know Peter at all would enjoy being a girl and his boy.
7. We know Peter at all would enjoy being a girl and his boy.
8. We know Peter at all would enjoy being a girl and his boy.

Dear Post Box,

Through your paper, I wish to extend my hearty thanks to the staff of the Groove and to all the readers of your paper. Never before have we heard or read so much about our current pop world. You usually have to do with what is happening in England or America. I feel that we have had so much interest in our music that it is receiving attention from people who think that they know about it. Love him with all his heart.

Sincerely,

Master Gavin out for good

Gavin Webb, bass guitarist for the Masters Apprentices, is in a serious condition. The stomach ulcer that forced him to go to hospital has developed complications.

He has lost a lot of weight and is in hospital for at least 12 months. It is expected that the ulcer will cause him some trouble for many of his life.

The Masters have decided to find a new bass guitarist. They have been very successful and wanted to add to their repertoire, but can see no alternative.

VIRGIL BROTHERS BIG DEBUT

Tonight, Canberra, 10th of June, in the Chadwick Room at Kings Hotel, Melbourne, V.B. will have the first major performance ever of the VIRGIL BROTHERS.

The brothers are known to Melburnian fans through their series of interviews and their work with the National Radio Telescope Station. Their first performance was a success and they are expected to make a big impact on the Melbourne music scene.

BARRY ON JOHN

A band of teenagers who often think they’re better than the rest of the group. Mick, their lead singer, is the only member who really knows what’s going on. He’s a good guy and always tries to keep the others in line.

GEOFF ON RICK

Ricks’ the drummer who always keeps everyone on their toes. He’s got a great sense of humor and is always willing to help out his fellow bandmates.

MICK ON MARC

Has very little idea about music which frequently leads to disagreement between the group. He tries to keep things light and fun at all times.

JOHN ON MICK

Mick is a good guy, but he’s got a lot to learn about music. He’s always trying to improve and I think he’ll get there eventually.

JOHNNY HAS ‘LOVED AND LOST’
By LILY BRETT

Johnny Farnham has loved and lost three times in his short life.
Most people think that pop stars have a never-ending stream of women at their feet!
Yet when Johnny Farnham talked to Go-Set about his love life,
it seemed quite sad.

In England there was this girl named EVERLY who I used to take out. We were both eighteen. One night I took her to a school parents’ night (my parents and hers were friends).

It was my first kiss — it was grey and hard going. It was gas and we were both so nervous. Then she broke my heart because she started going out with this other bloke — and that was it!

“HEARTBROKEN”

After the breakup, things went on for another year or so. I was too young for all this publicity, so the show, which cleared me off.

When I was 15 and started at school,
I fell deeply in love with a girl called SHIRLEY. The same thing happened. Shirley started going out with my mate. I was pretty heartbroken, or at least as heartbroken as a 15-year-old boy can get.

“My last girlfriend and I finished up just as I started singing with the group.
We were going out for about three months when I started singing.

Things became unreasonable. There wasn’t time to go out — I couldn’t see her and she couldn’t see me!

I haven’t had a steady girlfriend since.
I’ve taken several girls out but I’ve never been serious because I haven’t got the time. It wouldn’t be fair on the girl and it wouldn’t work. I wish I could ever be able to see her.

“The three girls I’ve told you about were the only real girlfriends I’ve ever had... I’d like to have a steady girlfriend.
I think it would be good.
But I can’t because I’d never see her.”
Tony MacArthur leaves for U.K.

Dear Leslie Pixie

Weekend together?

Dear Double Trouble,

What's the problem? If you like this hay, and if both you and your parents fit into it, then go on. It's only the beginning of a new series of something you can always enjoy. As for your friends, I'm sure they'll come with you, as long as you have nothing to be ashamed of, why let them worry you? They are perfect people...

I want to run away!

Dear Leslie Pixie,

My parents are separated, and my mother refuses to take it on me. At night the anxiety over me, and pleas from the doctors, make me feel like I am a princess. I don't know what to do when crying that I am never out of a nervous work.

I am there at the stage that I want to run away. I want to run away from my parents' home, and I don't, because I am in the best of a two-year coma at school. I am not strong enough to work -- I am fourteen.

So please help me with my problems as I won't let you do what other kids of my age can do and I don't have any friends. No, Nervous, Victoria.

Dear Nervous,

Your problem is very serious. You must try to see the cases your mother must also be in, and perhaps talk it over with her, pointing out that you need your freedom, too. Your letter says you are never out of a nervous work, have you thought of going to a teacher at your school? Even your teacher! It may sound crazy to you, but teachers are really human beings, and they might be able to make some definite arrangements for your future.
