Are We Ready For A Beavis And Butt-Head Christmas? We'd Better Be, Because Megadeth has Already Raised A Yuletide Cheer!

n the past 15 months or so, Megadeth has consistently and methodically broken down the barriers that had always separated it from the mainstream. With songs like "Symphony Of Destruction," "Foreclosure Of A Dream" and "Sweating Bullets" from its own Countdown To Extinction CD, and, earlier this year, "Angry Again" from the Last Action Hero soundtrack, Megadeth went from being persona non grata at the format to being welcomed with open arms. And now, "99 Ways To Die," from the forthcoming The Beavis And Butt-Head Experience continues the fun by grabbing a respectable 66 Rock Radio adds this week - good for #3 New Action Airplay.

Retail won't get The Beavis And Butt-Head Experience until November 23, but it is already the #13 Hot Future. When you consider the line-up of artists contributing new material (Aerosmith, Nirvana, White Zombie, Jackyl, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Anthrax and Primus, among others), and when you factor in what will certainly be an onslaught of coverage on MTV, it's no wonder the nation is a-buzzin' over this album.

In last week's cover story, we erroneously told you that Duff McKagan was the lead vocalist on Guns N' Roses' new single, "Ain't It Fun." In fact, we should have said that Axl Rose and ex-Hanoi Rocks singer Michael Monroe are sharing those duties.

Bryan Adams, Rod Stewart & Sting

"All For Love"

Whoever had the idea to bring these three voices together should win some sort of award for pure brilliance. The rough, coarse textures of Adams' and Stewart's tenors are so gorgeously offset by the silky smooth falsetto of Sting that a more perfect combination might not be found anywhere.

"All For Love," which is the theme song from the new Kiefer Sutherland/Charlie Sheen/Tim Curry "Three Musketeers" flick, will skyrocket to the top of the charts at several different formats! Hard-edged rockers won't lead the pack here, but mainstreamers with even the slightest classic base would be out of their minds not to jam these three format legends at every possible opportunity.

Paul McCartney Paul Is Live

Anyone who was in radio when Paul's Tripping The Live Fantastic CD came out knows exactly how popular that two-CD recording was. Well, Rock Radio has another such disc in Paul Is Live. Recorded on this year's "New World Tour," Paul Is Live encompasses 24 tracks, most of which were not included on either Wings Over America or on Tripping The Live Fantastic. Some of these nuggets include Beatles standards like "Drive My Car," "All My Loving," "Michelle," "Magical Mystery Tour," "Penny Lane", "We Can Work It Out" and "Paperback Writer," and the Wings favorites "My Love" and "Let Additionally, Paul and his band cover his Russian import album ("Kansas City" and "Good Rockin' Tonight") and several tunes from his 1992 release, Off The Ground. Paul Is Live, which features spoof artwork (Paul is very much alive and doesn't need burying, thanks for asking), includes two brand new songs: "A Fine

Day" and "Hotel Benidorm."

Me Roll It To You."

The Best Of Bad Company Live...

What You Hear Is What You Get

EastWest America/TAG

Somehow, a live album from Bad Company never came to fruition before now. So, rather than release a concert recording that focuses only on the Brian Howe years, The Best Of Bad Company Live... is as its name implies. Covering all the bases, from 1974's "Ready For Love" (the first single) to 1992's "How About That," this 15-song collection is truly Bad Company at its ever-lovin' best.

The Best Of Bad Company Live... was recorded partially on last year's Here Comes Trouble tour and partially at Electric Ladyland studios; the latter was aired by The Album Network last year as a special "Electric Ladyland" program.

Among the classic tracks included on this CD are "Feel Like Makin' Love," "Shooting Star," "If You Needed Somebody," "Bad Company," "Holy Water" and "Rock 'N' Roll Fantasy."

Paul Rodgers And Company

The Hendrix Set

Paul Rodgers, himself a luminary in the blues rock field, decided to spend this year paying tribute to a couple of the people who influenced him. On this latest offering from Rodgers, Jimi Hendrix is the focus of adulation.

Recorded live in Miami, Florida, on Independence Day of this year, Paul is accompanied by a crack band: Neal Schon on guitar (see this week's Designated Hitter for more on Schon), Deen Castronovo (also a Bad English alumni) and Todd Jensen on bass. With his now legendary voice, Paul Rodgers sounds incredible on these five Hendrix classics. Not to be confused with the other Hendrix tribute CD out now, Paul, Neal, Deen and Todd rip through electrically-charged versions of "Purple Haze," "Stone Free," "Manic Depression" and "Foxy Lady," while their reading of "Little Wing" is as sensual as this ballad has ever sounded. In fact, since "Little Wing" is not included on Reprise's CD, why not give this one your greatest attention?

The Band

Iericho Pvramid/Rhino

On Thanksgiving Day, 1976, The Band ended a career that had spanned a dozen years to that point. With hits like "The Weight," "Stage Fright" and "The Night They Drove Old Dixie Down," and, among others, the influential album Music From Big Pink left behind as its legacy, The Band had touched millions of fans with their loose, organic style. With The Last Waltz, Levon Helm, Rick Danko, Garth Hudson, Richard Manuel and Robbie Robertson had ushered out an era.

Now comes Jericho. Helm, Danko and Hudson, who had reunited in 1983 with pianist Richard Manuel (until his death in 1986), have augmented this lineup of The Band with guitarist Jim Weider, pianist Richard Bell and drummer Randy Ciarlante. With the familiar voices of Helm and Danko at the fore, Jericho fits like your favorite pair of old slippers.

The Band's rendition of Bruce's "Atlantic City" shot up the Power Cuts chart last week, 58-45*, and it's quickly becoming the first hit from Jericho. Beyond "Atlantic City," don't miss "Remedy," "The Caves Of Jericho," the Dylan-written "Blind Willie McTell," "Shine A Light" and "Too Soon Gone." And, included on Jericho is "Country Boy," Manuel's final recording.

Bad Religion

"Struck A Nerve"

Atlantic/TAG

Remember how R.E.M. was once considered a "college" band? Well, they were certainly allowed to cross over. The point is, Bad Religion already has a considerable following amongst the college kids who love to rock. With the success of seven albums on its own label, Bad Religion consistently pulls in up to 1,500 people at their shows. And imagine what's gonna happen now that Atlantic has signed them and re-released Recipe For Hate (initially out last June), which includes "Struck A Nerve."

A guitar-based rocker that makes total sense for Rock Radio, "Struck A Nerve" is the first track for our format by the band that originally featured Arista's Jay Ziskrout on drums.

The Big F

"Wicked Thing"

Chrysalis/ERG

You don't have to remember The Big F's first album three years ago to get into "Wicked Thing," but the friends made then will want to reacquaint themselves posthaste with Is, their second outing. This thunderous, LA-based trio is careening up the RAWk Radio chart with Is, making it worth your while to pay more than a modicum of attention to this power-packed stomper. The groove laid down by John Crawford and Rob Brill is in your face, while Mark Christian uses his guitar as a weapon of hard rockin' destruction.

"Wicked Thing" is on seven Rock Radio outlets out of the box, including KDKB, KRXQ, KNAC, KRRK, KZRR and WEZX; check it out and find out what they already know.

Sun 60

"Never Seen God"

Even without the contest Epic Records has going right now with the video for "Never Seen God," this new track from Sun 60's second album would warrant notice. The highly rhythmic feel of "Never Seen God" (courtesy of current Eleven and ex-Red Hot Chili Peppers skinsman Jack Irons) and the smooth, urgent vocal delivery of Joan Jones is complemented by the raucous guitar work of new Chili Peppers axeman David Navarro.

"Never Seen God" is not like anything else on the air these days, but if you can play 4 Non Blondes there is no reason to ignore Sun 60.

Straitjacket Fits

"If I Were You"

Arista

Forget trying to pigeonhole this New Zealand four-piece. Blow (which our exemplary retail staff picked as a Best Buy last summer) is the Fits' second US release, and from it comes this tasty bit o' swav music.

"If I Were You" is soft, sexy and tantalizingly similar to Roxy Music's Avalon period. The guitar lines are melodic and understated, while Shayne Carter's vocal delivery will definitely remind you how much Rock Radio needs music of this type to balance out the harder-edged rock that's been holding court at our format lately.

Leslie West

"Whiskey Train"

Blues Bureau/Shrapnel

One listen to the blistering opening riff of "Whiskey Train" (included on AN Rock CD TuneUp #105 and now available on Leslie's Dodgin' The Dirt) and you'll no doubt be asking why it's been so long since we've had new music from Leslie. Now four years removed from his last album, the former guitarist/vocalist of Mountain has kept busy as the one-time musical director for Howard Stern, arranger of Sam Kinison's cover of "Wild Thing" and featured soloist on four cuts on Billy Joel's new CD.

As a hero to everyone from Jeff Beck to Pete Townshend to Cry Of Love's Audley Freed, West is a guitar legend. Call Bruce Houghton for details on Leslie, at (603) 586-7171.

SY KLOPPS BLUES BAND

aNeal Schor, Foss Valory and Gregg Rolle, all ex-Journey members, Prairie (formerly of The Tubes), Norton Buffalo of the Steve Miller Band and Chip Znuff and Donnie Vie of Enuff Znuff: There, now you know a majority of the featured players in Sy Klopps' band. Sy is a blues cult hero in the San Francisco area, which is how he was able to corral this incredible lineup.

Our Designated Hitter this week is the debut album from the Sy Klopps Blues Band. "Born Under A Bad Sign," (available on our Rock CD TuneUp #107), is the focal point here. It literally sounds as fresh and as delectable as it did the first time you heard Cream's version. Also worth noting for Rock Radio on this CD of covers and new tunes are "Going To Mexico," "Jesus Just Left Chicago," "Mercury Blues," "You're So Fine" and "I Got My Eye On

We smell a major smash here, so check this one out now!

A doubledisc CD, Nightcap is unreleased studio tracks and the so-called lost Tull album, which was recorded (and then scrapped) back in 1972 The Rollins Band is in the studio now, recording its next album. Meat Loaf

"Life Is A Lemon And I Want My Money Back"

Anyone who didn't foresee the enormity of Meat Loaf's new Bat Out Of Hell II CD and its first single were not paying attention. The Top 5 Power Cuts showing and the #1 Most Requested status of "I'd Do Anything For Love" are proof enough that Rock Radio listeners are drooling over the first new Meat Loaf in years. In fact, the new CD has already cleared two million in sales, and MCA hadn't even released a second track until now!

"Life Is A Lemon..." is the first of several guitar scorchers on Bat II, and the label has provided a couple of edits so you'll have no excuse for not playing this obvious hit from Meat Loaf and Jim Steinman.

INXS

"Time" Atlantic/TAG

Where "The Gift" challenged your listeners to absorb and accept some heavy, mechanical rhythms (and many did, in fact, get totally into that cut), "Time" burns rubber from the outset. Garry Gary Beers' pounding bass line gives a tantalizing bottom end to Tim Farris' and Kirk Pengilly's driving guitar riffs. As usual, Jon Farris' drumming is explosive and Michael Hutchence's delivery is unique and accessible.

With its resemblance to previous guitar rockers from INXS, such as "Kick," "What You Need" and last year's "Heaven Sent," "Time" instantly comes off like an old friend.

Guns N' Roses

"Estranged"

Before you get all up in arms about another track from GN'R (especially in light of the out of the box success of "Ain't It Fun"), understand that you're getting "Estranged" for your own convenience. You see, the video for this monster ballad has been completed and is part three of a trilogy that began with "Don't Cry" and continued with "November Rain." MTV will be all over this clip, so anticipate your listeners calling in for "Estranged," as well as for "Ain't It Fun."

In addition to finding "Estranged" on the Use Your Illusion II CD, it is also located on AN Rock CD TuneUp #106.

John Hiatt

"Something Wild"

If you thought "Perfectly Good Guitar" kicked ass (and it did, going Top 10 on Power Cuts and generating enough heavy phonage to go Top 5 on the Most Requested chart), then wait'll you get a load of this barn burner! "Something Wild," a Hiatt-penned tune which some of you may remember from Iggy Pop's version, is a fierce shredder that, coupled with the success of "Perfectly Good Guitar," should easily make John Hiatt an automatic at Rock Radio from here on in.

As you can hear on our Rock CD TuneUp #107, Hiatt's fiery backing band gives "Something Wild" an energy that is inescapable.

Blind Melon

"Tones Of Home"

When "Tones Of Home" was initially offered to Rock Radio, there was no way of knowing just how popular Blind Melon would become. A #1 Power Cut, a #2 Most Requested track, an immensely popular video and a #2, Platinumselling album later, Blind Melon is the toast of the town - er, make that the whole damn nation!

"Tones Of Home" is more insistent, jazzier and darker than "No Rain," making it a nice contrast to its predecessor. If you played it before, go for it again - your listeners will dig it even more this time. If you avoided "Tones Of Home" previously, don't miss the boat again or you'll be left standing at the dock, wishing you'd been included in the fun.

"Drive" Reprise

Gary came straight outta left field and right into the hearts of Rock Radio listeners everywhere with his reading of "Hocus Pocus." A Top 10 Power Cut and a heavily requested track, "Hocus Pocus" was a hit any way you slice it. Now, "Drive" promises to put Hoey in the same league as Satriani, Johnson and Vai as one of the premier guitar instrumentalists in rock today.

"Drive" is such a priority for Hoey's label that it has been featured on both Rock CD TuneUp #106 and #107. So, now that you know, don't miss this electrifying workout from Gary Hoey.

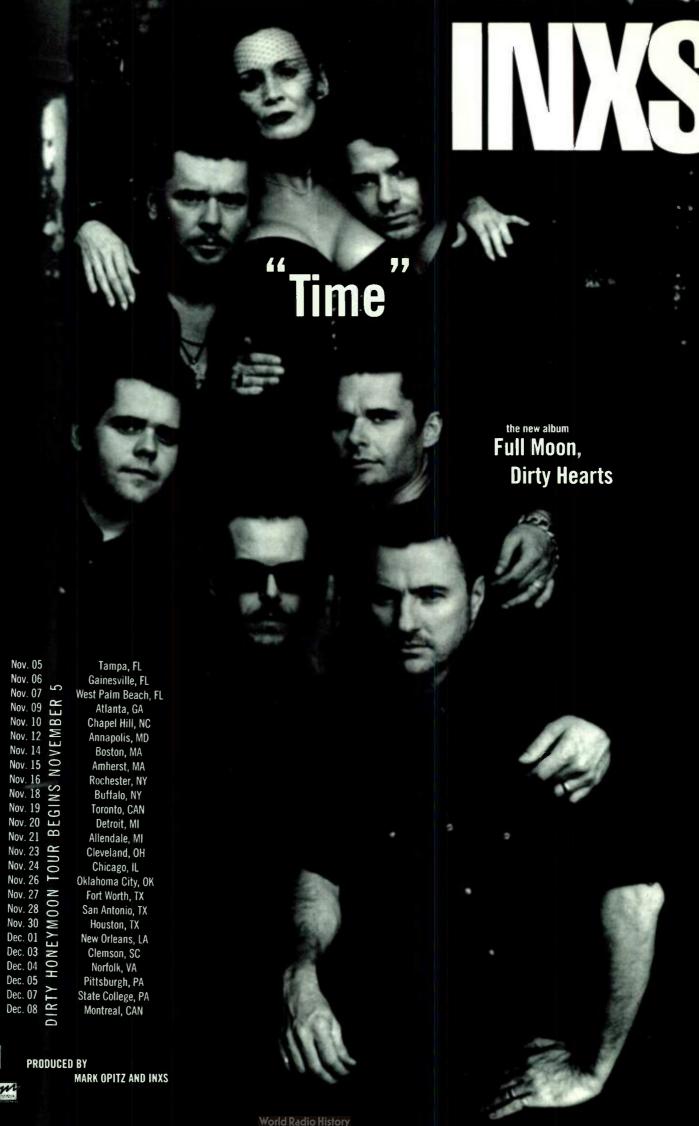

Anthrax

"Room For One More"

After "Only" and "Black Lodge," Anthrax's stock is as high as ever at Rock Radio. No longer excused as "that speed metal band," Anthrax can now be included with Metallica and Megadeth in conversations centering on metal bands that successfully crossed over to the mainstream in the past couple of years.

Dan Spitz's and Scott lan's guitar riffs on "Room For One More" are powerful and disarming, but not so fast that you should be concerned for the safety of your audience. John Bush belts out this tune, and much like Hetfield and Mustaine, gives a whole new meaning to the term "singer." This is perfect for any Rock Radio station that actually rocks.

'Stay (Faraway, So Close!)"

"Stay' is a no-brainer, an all daypart smash!'

Stephen Page, KOME

U2 comes back strong this week, picking up 83 first week adds on the latest single from Zooropa. With a large number of stations having already played "Stay" previously, it begins its second climb up the Power Cuts chart, 91-22*, and slugs a deep Homer!

Fourteen of the stations adding "Stay" go right to heavy with it, including WMMS, WIBA and WQBZ. Also new on "Stay" are WBCN, WBAB, KOME, WFBQ, KFOG, WLUP, KEGL and 73 more. And, not surprisingly, Zooropa has gone double-Platinum.

At WRXK, MD Arvette says, "'Stay' is far and away the best song on Zooropa!" KLBJ's Loris Lowe points out, "You can't lose with U2!"

Brian Kelly of WPXC notes, "The title may be a bit confusing, but this is a mainstream automatic that the audience will understand!" Also, WXKE's Rick West maintains, "'Stay' is the right song to keep the support high on Zooropa."

"When Jesus Left Birmingham"

"If I didn't control myself, I would add the whole damn album into heavy!"

Tracy Summers, WONY

This organic ballad was screaming for attention, and it gets it this week - to the tune of 68 first week adds. Following two #1 Power Cuts from Human Wheels, "When Jesus Left Birmingham" enters the chart at #32*. John also slams his third Homer! in a Human Wheels has recently been certified Platinum, so folks are clamoring for this new CD. So is Rock Radio, as WFBQ, WSHE, WMMR, KTCZ, WBCN, WLUP, WBAB and WCCC are among the leaders on this track.

WKLT's Brian Sullivan states, "Mellencamp is a rock institution. You have to add him!" At KRZZ, PD Greg Bergen says, "John has gone back to that soulful sound that worked so well on Lonesome Jubilee!"

Karen Andersen Small of WGIR explains, "'Jesus' has enough gospel flavor to set it apart, in a good way, on the air!" And WIQB's Reid Paxton comments, "One of John's real talents is his ability to continue to do different things with each new project. This is no exception!"

"You'd be stupid not to add Megadeth; you just know it is going to be a monster MTV video!"

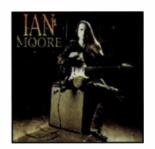

Chris James, WTPA

Megadeth's contribution to The Beavis And Butt-Head Experience iams this week. eliciting 66 out of the box adds for "99 Ways To Die." Thus, this new cut opens its Power Cuts run in the loftv position of #40*.

Already the #13 Hot Future two weeks prior to its release, The Beavis And Butt-Head Experience is gonna be enormous with kids and other followers of MTV. Megadeth kicks it off with adds at KBPI, KQRC, WWBZ, WBZX, KISW, WBAB, KEGL and KBER, among others.

KISS PD Virgil Thompson contends, "Beavis And Butt-Head and Megadeth together! What a concept! This is a kick-ass song!"

Tim Dukes, PD at WTFX. mentions, "As we expected, we're having immediate. huge phone response from our audience!" Also, WKLL PD Mimi Griswold states, "Megadeth turned it up with 'Sweating Bullets,' and now it is time to fry with '99'!"

"Ian Moore is a guy that I truly believe in! He's one of the few that can weave the blues and the new rock sound together."

Greg Bergen, KRZZ

Nothing was gonna stop 56 Rock Radio programmers from adding "Nothing" at their first opportunity. So, the follow-up to the Top 10 Power Cut "How Does It Feel" jumps on the airplay chart this week at #46*.

"Nothing" is now on more than 60 Rock Radio reporters, including new believers like KDKB, WBCN, KTXQ, WSHE, KISS, KRXQ and KLOL. Though there isn't room to print all the calls here, it is worth noting that lan gets adds from pretty much every region of the nation.

In Toledo, WIOT's Don Davis remarks, "It feels great when you have a chance to break a new artist like Ian Moore!" And Rick West of WXKE beams, "This is the most exciting project of the entire year! We believe in lan Moore all the way."

PD Dale Miller of KATP in Amarillo boasts, "lan Moore's 'Nothing' is pure Texas rock that will work for the whole US of A!"

"There is simply no rock format on which Pearl Jam's 'Daughter' won't work!"

Darrin Arriens, WRIF

The hottest rock band in America enjoys a continued grass roots movement on "Daughter," a nonemphasis track that now has 197 Rock Radio stations playing it. With 44 adds and 51 rotation increases this week (including light-to-heavy moves at KQRC, WAVF and KQRS), "Daughter" rises 16-6* on the Power Cuts chart.

At WEGR, Zeke Logan proclaims, "This album is unstoppable; I wish I had bought stock in them when they were a bar band!" WPXC's Brian Kelly points out the versatility of this cut: "After we gave our audience 'Go' all night long, we can now give them 'Daughter' all day and all night long!"

WDVE, KQRC, WEZX, WKLL, KMOD, WPYX, KRRK and WTUE are just a few of the mainstream and low-end rockers going for the new Scorps track this week.

KIOZ and three others are now reporting heavy phone action on "Creep," while WLVQ, KEGL. WMMR, KCLB, WEGR, WGCX, WIOT and KLBJ all join the party this week.

WMMR's Riki Hofberg informs us that "'Plush tested through the roof for us and I am sure 'Creep' will, too!" And, Todd McCarthy quips sarcastically, "Hey, these guys sound just like STP! You know, that band sold two million copies of their first album!"

At KSQY, Jim Kallas states, "'Found Out About You' is already starting to step out. Gin Blossoms have become a solid band for us." And KXUS PD T.K. O'Grady tells us, "After the success we had with 'Mey Jealousy,' this one is an automatic!"

GIVING THEIR HEART'S DESIRE "OUR

IT MUST BE AN AMAZING FEELING TO SUDDENLY REMEMBER WHO YOU ARE.

That's pretty much what happened for Heart about three years ago. Returning home from the Brigade tour, Ann and Nancy Wilson could not deny a looming uneasiness. Heart had sold a combined 10 million copies of their previous three albums - Heart, Bad Animals and Brigade - and yet something was indeed wrong with the picture. The self-contained unit that Heart had once been was on the verge of becoming nothing more than a hit-making conduit for outside writers.

"It wasn't because we were told not to be on our own records, it was because we were so open to the outside world, that the outside world began to overwhelm us," Ann acknowledges. Heart has been rehearsing this evening for a theater tour that gets under way in a few days. As midnight approaches, Ann is relaxed and eager to tell, for the first time, the story of how Heart began to remember who they are.

"We kind of got to a place where we'd written all we knew how to write, so any new idea was welcomed. At that point, [it was] kind of like, 'Wow! This is fun! I can be a chanteuse and interpret somebody else's song.' It was just fashion, and it was fun for a while.

"But then our old characters began to creep up again and go, 'What are we doing?! This stuff does not represent us. We don't need this hair, we don't need this cleavage, these false fingernails...we don't need all this makeup!' We just kinda came back to ourselves in a big sweep of conscience and honesty and authenticity that was undeniable."

ANN WILSON

CHARACTERS BEGAN TO CREEP UP

AGAIN AND GO, 'WHAT

ARE WE DOING?! THIS STUFF DOES NOT REPRESENT US. WE DON'T NEED THIS HAIR, WE DON'T NEED THIS CLEAVAGE, THESE FALSE

FINGERNAILS!"

To comprehend this drastic turnaround, one needs only compare Brigade with the new album, Desire Walks On. You'll find Ann and Nancy's credits on just four of the 13 songs on Brigade, but that trend is reversed on Desire Walks On. Of the 11 new songs, only three were composed entirely by outside writers. "One of the things the girls were able to do was to actually collaborate more with other writers," says Howard Leese, who, like Ann and Nancy, has recorded every one of Heart's 13 albums. "Instead of just getting a song mailed to us, if somebody had a song, or the beginnings of a song that we liked, the girls would actually meet with these people and work on the song and make it something we could put our personal stamp on and be proud of."

For the Wilson sisters, this desire to return to a more organic approach coincided nicely with a return of their muse. "At the same time, we happened to be writing several really great songs that we really love," the dark haired singer explains with a slight chuckle, perhaps a bit embarrassed by her bold statement.

"You know, when you've been doing this as many years as we have, it's not likely that you're gonna spend your whole [career] in a state of grace, with million-selling records. I mean, you go up and down, and you breath in and breath out, and wax and wane. Sometimes you write great stuff, and sometimes you don't. You need some time off, and then you come back with a vengeance, and you write great stuff.

"Also around the same time, Marie (Ann's daughter) was born, so my life changed dramatically," she continues her account. "Nancy and I got home from the road around Christmastime, and we were saying, 'Maybe we'll just be sisters and play guitars together in the living room, and that's it.'

"But two months went by and we went, 'Oh, God, where is a stage? Show us a stage,'" she laughs again, "'So we can just play!' Because we had been writing songs, and we both felt like we really had a lot to pour out, and we felt like we just wanted people to know who we truly were."

THE FIRST MANIFESTATION OF THE WILSON'S NEW ATTITUDE WAS SEEN IN THE ACOUSTIC FOURSOME KNOWN AS THE LOVEMONGERS. TOGETHER WITH FRANK COX, A FRIEND OF THEIRS FROM SEATTLE, AND LONGTIME SONGWRITING COLLABORATOR SUE ENNIS, ANN AND NANCY PERFORMED AT SEVERAL POLITICAL AND SOCIAL EVENTS IN THIS CONFIGURATION.

"That was during the Gulf War, and here in Seattle, there was a lot of anti-war feeling. It's traditionally a very anti-war city, so there was a big anti-war benefit at the Paramount Theater. The people called and asked, 'Will you consider doing an acoustic song or two?' And something made us accept.

"So, we worked out some folk songs that were very political by nature. I think we did, like, Peter, Paul And Mary's 'The Great Mandella,' and 'God On Our Side' by Bob Dylan. And people just freaked. I mean, the audience just freaked. It was so huge, and it felt so good to us, that we thought, 'Let's do this again.' So, there for a while, every benefit that came up, we accepted. Just so we could play and show our political natures, and say what we had held back for so many years.

"Nancy and I have always been political animals, but we have chosen, until now, to keep our private views separate from our albums."

On Desire Walks On, there are a number of cuts that espouse a socio-political stance. "'Rage' is a comment on social unrest and, like so many other songs, was inspired by the LA riots," Ann illustrates. "But then it kinda went on to include violence in our society, overall, which goes right down into the very core of our human psyche - our American human psyche. Kids have guns because it's cool. And because it's cool, there's an open-trigger situation for violence.

"Another song, 'Ring Them Bells,' which is a Bob Dylan song (and which features Alice In Chains' singer Layne Staley), we just love so much because it's not only about freedom of speech, but the impetus to go ahead and speak. I mean, sure we're free to speak, but if we don't use the freedom, then the freedom lies dormant.

"'Desire Walks On,'" she points out, "is more of a human politic of that which animates us, and how it goes on without our consent. So, I guess we were thinking in that mood. Where before we would've said, 'Oh no, this might bum people out, we better not include it, we have to keep it happy,' this time we just went, 'Oh, fuck that! Whatever we are thinking is what we should be saying.'"

"I DON'T THINK THERE WAS ANY CONSCIOUS MOVE TO MAKE A

MORE ROCKIN' RECORD, OTHER THAN OUR DESIRE NOT TO REPEAT

OURSELVES. WE WANTED TO PUT MORE OF OUR OWN PERSONAL

STAMP ON IT THAN WE HAD ON THE PAST FEW RECORDS."

..... Howard Leese

HEART SPENT NEARLY 10 MONTHS RECORDING DESIRE WALKS ON, BEGINNING IN APRIL OF 92 AND FINISHING UP IN JANUARY OF THIS YEAR. THE ALBUM WAS MADE IN THEIR OWN BRAND NEW STUDIOS BY ANN, NANCY, HOWARD, DENNY CARMASSI (WHO HAS SUBSEQUENTLY MOVED ON TO PLAY DRUMS WITH COVERDALE PAGE) AND BASS PLAYER SCHUYLER DEALE (HEART PARTED WAYS WITH MARK ANDES SHORTLY AFTER THE BRIGADE TOUR ENDED). IN THE APTLY DUBBED "BAD ANIMALS" IS A STATE OF THE ART COMPLEX IN SEATTLE WHICH HAS ALSO BEEN USED BY R.E.M, AND IS CURRENTLY BEING UTILIZED BY SOUNDGARDEN. WHILE DISCUSSING THE STUDIO WITH LEESE, THE EFFECT THE ROOM HAD ON THE MAKING OF DESIRE WALKS ON BECOMES APPARENT.

"It's just part of the whole, overall taking control of our artistic situation, you know? There are a myriad of advantages to working here in Seattle: The whole vibe of the Seattle scene and the way we work up here and everybody sleeping in their own homes and driving their own cars and all that stuff, just makes it more fun to go to work." As the band's unofficial historian, Howard has been working closely with some people who are putting together a highly detailed chronicle of Heart, which will be available to anyone with CD-ROM capabilities. Presumably, this bio will include info about how, with "Black On Black II," Heart enjoyed its finest opening week ever at Rock Radio.

"It was almost cool," Ann says of the song, which was considered for the Brigade CD. "Nance and I kinda kept it in the back of our minds, and when it came 'round to do this album, we thought, 'Okay, we're in charge now; let's do whatever we want. Let's put 'Black On Black' on the record."

Written by a Canadian singer/songwriter named Lisa Dalbello, "Black On Black" was first heard on the 1986 soundtrack to "9 1/2 Weeks" and later showed on Dalbello's own 1989 album, called She. The Wilson's had always liked the song, save for the lyrics. "They were the same old, kind of tired thing about Catholic church imagery and priests that molest little boys," Ann says matter of factly. "We didn't dig that part of it, so we rewrote some of the words and came back with a whole new idea for the song." Hence the amended title of "Black On Black II." "The new one addresses more the idea of how a parent's sin can create a child's sin. It's kind of a dark song, but it's very compelling, because it's inside all our souls."

If songs like "Black On Black II," "Rage" and "Desire Walks On" represent a harder edge than heard on recent Heart albums, Howard assures me there wasn't necessarily an intent to go in that direction. "I don't think there was any conscious move to make a more rockin' record, other than our desire not to repeat ourselves. We wanted to put more of our own personal stamp on it than we had on the past few records - just make it our album." The result is a disc that, while populated by several potential hit singles, is predicated on instruments such as acoustic guitar and piano, and synthesizers. Desire Walks On does, infact, have an overall air reminiscent of Dreamboat Annie.

POSSIBLY THE MOST INTANGIBLE CIRCUMSTANCE THAT INFLUENCED DESIRE WALKS ON WAS THE BURGEONING MUSIC SCENE THAT WAS VIRTUALLY ERUPTING AROUND THEM AS HEART WAS WRITING AND RECORDING THE ALBUM IN SEATTLE. THOUGH HEART'S MORE POLISHED STYLE MAY NOT SUGGEST A COMPATIBILITY WITH THE MUSIC

BEING MADE BY BANDS LIKE PEARL JAM, SOUNDGARDEN, ALICE IN CHAINS, MUDHONEY AND A SLEW OF OTHERS, THE OPPOSITE IS, IN FACT, TRUE.

"We're good friends, and we have a lot of common people," says Howard. "Like the guy who manages Pearl Jam, Kelly Curtis, came up through our organization and has known Ann and Nancy since he was a little kid. He used to manage Soundgarden and Alice In Chains, too. And we hang with all those guys."

"A lot of the parties happen here at my house," Ann tells me, "'cause my house is kind of centrally located. And when everyone's in town, it kind of turns into a crib, you know, where everybody comes. I light a bunch of fireplaces, and put a bunch of guitars around, and just let 'em go.

"I would have to say," she continues, "that we probably were influenced, Nance and I, by having jammed with, especially, Jerry Cantrell (of Alice In Chains), and Mike McCready and Jeff Ament (both of Pearl Jam). Especially Nancy, musically. The whole thing was kind of woven into a tapestry that found its way into our songs, especially 'Rage' and 'Desire Walks On.'

"'Back To Avalon,' I think, is pure Nancy Wilson, or a song like 'Anything Is Possible,' I think, is about friendship, and the feeling between two people that is so straight ahead and so 'I'm here for you, and I can help you.' It all sounds so sweet and Valentine-ish when I'm saying it to you now, but when it's between two people across the candles with guitars, it's very cool. And without getting too public about a semi-private situation, I think you can say that we all influenced each other. We all have different bands and different styles, but when people all meet, you can't help but influence each other."

AS I NEAR THE END OF MY CONVERSATIONS WITH ANN WILSON AND

HOWARD LEESE, I AM TOUCHED BY THE NEWFOUND ENTHUSIASM THEY BOTH FEEL TOWARD THE BAND THEY'VE BEEN IN TOGETHER FOR CLOSE TO TWO DECADES. ANN SUMS IT UP THIS WAY: "IT WAS ALMOST LIKE HAVING NEW SELVES, YOU KNOW? I MEAN, ALL THIS STUFF HAS HAPPENED TO US - ALL THIS TOURING AND ALL THESE RECORDS - AND SOMETIMES WE FELT LIKE WE WERE UNDER COVER, AND SOMETIMES WE FELT LIKE BURSTING OUT. AND THIS PARTICULAR TIME, I THINK WE ARE BURSTING OUT IN A WAY WE HAVEN'T DONE BEFORE, EXCEPT [WITH] DREAMBOAT ANNIE. AND I KNOW IT'S NEVER GONNA BE THE SAME AGAIN [CHUCKLING] AFTER THIS RECORD, IN THE SENSE THAT NANCY AND I HAVE THE BIT IN OUR TEETH. IT'S GONNA BE ANN AND NANCY FROM NOW ON.

"We're never gonna go back to where people tell us what's gonna sell and we do it, like little slaves. I mean, I don't wanna downplay the Heart record, the Bad Animals record and the Brigade album, because a lot of people love those, and there are things about those [albums] that I love, too. But they're clearly albums that were motivated by a commercial sense of showbiz. We took a lot of outside material, and, at the time, we felt it was right. But by the time we were doing the Brigade album, Nance and I felt sickened by it, like, 'What are we doing?' We'd settled back into our old, kinda mouthy [laughs] selves. We'd made a bunch of money and said, 'Okay, we've done that - now let's get out of this bag we're in and get back to [being] ourselves.'"

"At the very beginning, it was Nancy and I in the forefront, writing the songs and kind of just being in control. That's how it is again now, and the result is what you hear."

FRANK SINATRA Duets

"People that haven't been in a record store since vinyl was stocked are coming out for Frank."

David Dector.

Tower Stonestown

There are big records, and then there are BIG records! The release of Frank Sinatra's Duets was announced months ago, with media coverage starting as early as September. Capitol Records is billing it as "the recording event of the decade," and with all the activity that's surrounding this release, no one would dispute that claim!

The massive multifaceted marketing campaign is being carried out at retail, coffee shops, bookstores - any place that Frank fans might shop. But what's even more interesting is the fact that Capitol and Island/PLG have joined together in an agreement that finds "I've Got You Under My Skin," featuring Bono, on the cassette and CD5 format for "Stay," the first commercial single from Zooropa!

Duets hits the Hottest Sales Nationwide at #2* and debuts at #8* on the In-Store Play chart. A total of 144 MarketMakers report Top 50 chart debuts, with #1s at Rose Records (Chicago), Peaches Ent. (Miami), and Tower Records (Sherman Oaks), as well as just about every reporting account in New York and New Jersey!

TOO SHORT Get In Where Ya Fit In Jiva + 41001

"He's always sold well in the past, but this is incredible! Sales jump 4 to 2 based mostly on word of mouth."

> Hayes Carlock, Music City OS

Too Short does not lack fans, that much is obvious. His loyal base helped him tally sales of five million to date in the US alone. Get In Where Ya Fit In looks to further swell his bank account, with the word being that it grooves in all the right ways. Get In Where Ya Fit In was produced by Too Short, Ant Banks and QD III (Quincy Jones' son).

The first single, "I'm A Player," is receiving play at Rap Radio, while the video is in Box Tops rotation on The Box, where it is also among the Top 10 Most Requested clips. The video can also be seen on RFT

Get In Where Ya Fit In takes an 8 to 7* jump on the Hottest Sales Nationwide, with a total of 107 MarketMakers reporting Top 50 sales, Second-week debuts include Super Club Music Corporation (Atlanta) #5, Independent Records & Video (Colorado Springs) #2. Harmony House (Detroit) #13 and Galaxy OS (Pittsburgh) #1, while upward moves are reported by Scotts OS (Indianapolis) 3 to 1 and Tower Records (Mesa) 30 to 3.

10,000 MANIACS MTV Unplugged

"They have a very strong following and a lot of college fans. It's #1 at our college stores."

Bonita Shevlin, Record Theatre

In view of Natalie Merchant's recent announcement that she will no longer remain with 10,000 Maniacs, MTV Unplugged serves as the perfect last hurrah for the Maniacs as we know and love them. A chapter is being closed and it's the only way to go out...on top!

And don't think that the press isn't touting that fact as well! Last week, Natalie appeared on "The Late Show With David Letterman," and it seems as if you can't turn on MTV without seeing the video for the first single, "Because The Night." At Hit Radio, "Because The Night" jumps into the Top 30, while Rock Radio takes the tune into the Top 50 on Power Cuts. MTV Unplugged moves 7 to 5* at Adults Only Radio and 17 to 15* at Expand-O Radio.

MTV Unplugged treks 9 to 8* on the Hottest Sales Nationwide and 4 to 3* on the In-Store Play chart. Twenty-two more Market-Makers show Top 50 chart debuts, bringing the total number of mentions to 189, 122 of which are Top 10 or better.

KATE BUSH The Red Shoes

"She has a strong base of fans that need and want their Kate Bush! A massive, unique label promotion was a huge factor in the Top 15 debut."

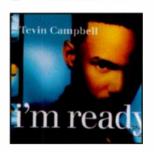

Todd Robinson, Gem City Records

Gadzooks! The Red Shoes is finally here! Ever since Peter Gabriel hosted "120 Minutes" last January, where he told people that the new Kate Bush would be out any day, requests at retail have been non-stop. The release date kept changing, thus frustrating the fans, but adding to the anticipation.

Kate Bush has not since 1979. toured although she did appear with her friend Peter Gabriel at a few Amnesty International Festival dates overseas. The fact that she doesn't tour adds to her mystique and results in her fans compiling information via computer networks, fanzines and fan clubs. Would you believe that her fans also have "Katemas" parties - yearly celebrations that take place on her birthday?

The Red Shoes bursts onto the Hottest Sales Nationwide at #19*, and it debuts at #1* on the In-Store Play chart. A total of 154 buyers report Top 50 chart debuts, including Streetside Records (St. Louis) #6 and Sound Warehouse (Dallas) #22.

TEVIN CAMPBELL I'm Ready

"Heavy, heavy video and single play kicks Tevin 44 to 12!"

Randy Coleman, Jr., BJ Music

Tevin Campbell has been singing professionally since he was a toddler. All of that early experience aside, I'm Ready is only his second full album. What's amazing is that it's jumped out of the box and onto the charts big-time, with just one setup single and video.

Produced by Babyface. Daryl Simmons, Prince and Narada Michael Walden, I'm Ready is selling to all ages and demo types. The first single, "Can We Talk," moves 2 to 1* on Urban Network's Heavy Hits Singles chart, and it is also among the Most Requested songs at the format. Hit Radio takes the single into the Top 10, while the video is in Stress rotation on MTV and Heavy rotation on BET; it's also Top 10 on the channel's "Video Soul" show.

I'm Ready soars 30 to 23* on the Hottest Sales Nationwide, with 24 more buyers reporting Top 50 chart debuts, including Super Club Music Corporation (Atlanta) #9, Record Theatre (Baltimore) #2 and Nobody Beats The Wiz (New York) #4.

Full Moon, Dirty Hearts Atlantic/TAQ • 82841

"This is different from their last album, and it looks like it's already gaining new fans for INXS."

Luann Shockley, Dingleberry's

With their 10th album, INXS have produced more than just 12 songs. Since the video medium suits them so well, they produced a video album, using many directors to shoot the clips. Over Halloween weekend, MTV ran the video album in its entirety. The first track, "The Gift," reached the Top 40 on Power Cuts and the new single, "Time," was released this week. At Expand-O Radio, Full Moon, Dirty Hearts is Top

Full Moon, Dirty Hearts debuts on the Hottest Sales Nationwide at #37*, and at #19* on the In-Store Play chart. Top 50 debuts are reported by 114 buyers, including Record & Tape Traders (Baltimore) #6, Strawberries (Boston) #29 and The Wall Inc. (Philadelphia) #30.

D.R.S. Gangsta Lean

"The single has been huge since its release - we go through about 400 copies a week!"

Cheryl Gregory, Scotts OS

Since September, the buzz on D.R.S. has been brewing. The single, "Gangsta Lean," has been receiving club play for some time. and once it was released to radio, it took off like a rocket. At Urban Radio, "Gangsta Lean" is Top 10, and at Hit Radio, the single is in the Top 40 (it's among the Top 10 Most Added). The video is in Active rotation on MTV and Heavy rotation on BET, and it's The Box's #1 Most Requested clip.

We've been taking Hot Futures reports on Gangsta Lean for some time, so the #39* debut on the Hottest Sales Nationwide is no surprise! A total of 52 MarketMakers report out of the box debuts, including Wherehouse Ent. (LA) #20, Sound Warehouse (Dallas) #16, Northern Lights (Minneapolis) #9 and Odyssey Records (Las Vegas) #12.

SHAQUILLE O'NEAL Shaq Diesel

"This solid album proves he has more than one talent!"

Sean Mahoney, Rock Cafe

Jive is real hot right now. and Shag is one of the reasons why. The label has done a tremendous set-up job, and it's reaping the benefits of round one. The marketing plan is extensive and thorough, all the way down to the release of the second single, "Shoot Pass Slam," which will be used in a Reebok commercial while the video will air two minutes before halftime during the Super Bowl on January 31, 1994! The first single, "(I Know I Got) Skil-Iz," is Top 25 at Rap Radio, while the video is in Active rotation on MTV and is in Box Tops rotation on The Box. It is also Top 10 Most Requested there.

Shaq Diesel flies 45 to 35* on the Hottest Sales Nationwide, with another 26 buyers showing Top 50 chart debuts. Upward moves are reported by Homer's (Omaha) 13 to 7 and Tracks (Indianapolis) 26 to 19.

Music From Even Cowgirls Get The Blues

"I am continually amazed how k.d. lang continues to cross barriers; from alternative to kids to grandparents!"

Bob Lee, Face The Music

Bob adds, "She has redefined country for today with the use of influences from other musical genres." It was never intended to be a new k.d. lang record, just a few songs for a soundtrack. Voila! I guess Ben Mink and k.d. just got carried away, and we couldn't be happier! Even Cowgirls Get The Blues is a very satisfying record, even if there are many instrumental tracks that go with the flow of soundtracks. The film won't be released until 1994.

With a lot of in-store play support, a nice fan buzz and plenty of press exposure, Even Cowgirls Get The Blues hits the Hottest Sales Nationwide at #50*. A total of 86 buyers show Top 50 chart debuts, including Tower Downtown (NYC) #7, HMV (Cambridge) #7, Record Revolution (Philadelphia) #17 and #9.

JACKSON BROWNE

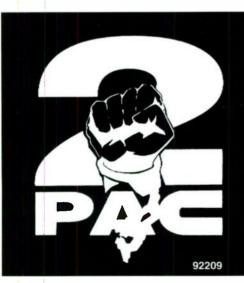

"Airplay on WTTS and instore play is creating sales, but, for the most part, people are just coming in and asking for Jackson."

John Cheney, Tracks

John adds, "The recent success of adult titles like the James Taylor record has helped get those fans back into record stores." Jackson Browne has a knack for being able to capture the human spirit and soul, and reflecting the joy and pain of life. John Lennon had that same knack. Both of them are able to look into themselves and to others and bare their souls, and that's what I'm Alive is...Jackson with his soul

The single and title track is Top 10 at Rock Radio, while Jackson is VH-1's Artist Of The Month. I'm Alive moves 17 to 16* on the Hottest Sales Nationwide, with 21 more accounts showing Top 50 chart debuts. Significant upward moves include Best Buy (Minneapolis) 49 to 13, Homer's (Omaha) 41 to 23 and Scotti's Record (New Jersey) 40 to 25.

"Bigger than The Beatles."

Jay Rosenberg,

The Wiz

That seems to be the consensus with retailers across the country, who are constantly re-stocking their bins with Pearl Jam's already multi-Platinum release, Vs.

Pearl Jam is being played at four radio formats - the disc is Top 3 at both Expand-O and RAWk Radio, while the current emphasis track, "Daughter," is starting to get play at Top 40 Radio and it is already being pounded at Rock Radio, where it is #1* on both the Most Requested Songs and Heavy Nighttime Requests charts and it soars 16-6* up Power Cuts.

That doesn't even begin to describe all of the media and press attention and the band's current live appearances. Very simply, Pearl Jam is the biggest thing out there. Vs. stays at #1* on the Hottest Sales Nationwide for a third consecutive week, as 236 MarketMakers

MEAT LOAF Bat Out Of Hell II - Back Into Hell MGA 1 19899

"WWDC airplay, massive press and video exposure put Meat Loaf in our Top 10."

Rodger Hille, Tower

For those who doubted the potential of a new Meat Loaf release in the 90s, perhaps the sales figures can speak for themselves. With sales on Bat Out Of Hell II - Back Into Hell well past the double-Platinum mark, and Mr. Loaf in the midst of a national tour, he seems ready to conquer another decade.

Meat Loaf slips to #3 on the Hottest Sales Nationwide (only to make room for another legend, Frank Sinatra), but he pulls in 183 Top 50 debuts, as well as strong upward moves at Harmony House (Detroit) 6-3 and Super Club Music Corp. (Atlanta) 5-3.

The most amazing fact however, is that all of this activity is the result of just one single (albeit a multiformat #1 smash!). Now, Meat Loaf comes back with "Life Is A Lemon And I Want My Money Back," which picks up a #80* debut on Power Cuts

SMASHING PUMPKINS

Stamese Drea

"A combination of WFNX and WBCN airplay, MTV and an 'SNL' appearance sends the Pumpkins back into our Top 10."

Mike Kaupp, Strawberries

Siamese Dream continues to gain momentum at the registers each week, thanks to a string of sold-out live performances across the country, a "Saturday Night Live" appearance and two killer singles.

Just this week, Smashing Pumpkins experienced a 4,000 plus unit increase, as well as a 12-10* hike up the Hottest Sales Nationwide, thanks to 215 total Top 50 mentions and 17 new debuts. Impressive upward moves are reported at Strawberries (Boston) 17-9, Tower (Northridge) 37-8 and Streetside (Bloomington) 11-3, to name a few.

The current single, "Today," grabs a 67-60* jump up Power Cuts, while the video continues to receive Buzz Bin rotation at MTV. In addition, the Pumpkins are still Top 10 at Expand-O Radio...is Top 40 Radio next? Keep an eye on this one through the holidays!

ALAN PARSONS Try Anything Once

"Airplay on WMMR lets the fan base know that Alan Parsons is back and turns this into a Top 5 debut!"

Larry Causak, Record Revolution

Alan Parsons has definitely returned; and his latest offering, Try Anything Once, has been embraced immediately by Rock Radio programmers across the country.

The lead-off single, "Turn It Up," flies 25-21* up Power Cuts this week, boasting airplay at more than 110 AN affiliates, while the video has just been added to The Box.

Fans have definitely been making their existence known to retailers on this one. Alan Parsons earns a 14-12* jump up the In-Store Play chart, as well as an 85-78* move up the Hottest Sales Nationwide. Seventeen additional Top 50 debuts are reported this week, including Best Buy (Minneapolis) #21, Music Millennium (Portland) #7 and Virgin Megastore (Los Angeles) #41.

THE BAND Jericho

"Fans have been waiting for years! Local play on this local Band leads to a #1 debut over tough competition."

Chris Lane, Rhythms

While it's been almost 20 years since The Band last released an album, when Rock Radio programmers got their first taste of Jericho, it was just like yesterday.

With this new lineup, the sound is fresher, but the style is definitely there on the lead-off single, "Atlantic City" (yes, Springsteen's tune), which is already being heard on 60 AN affiliates. This week, the track climbs 45-42* up Power Cuts.

Fans of The Band came out in droves in just the first week of release, sending Jericho onto the Hottest Sales Nationwide at #91*, as 52 MarketMakers report Top 50 debuts, including J&R Music (New York) #18, Atlanta CD (Atlanta) #10, Waterloo (Austin) #10 and Abbey Road OS (Santa Ana) #25, among others.

Four-Calendar Cafe

(Capitol • 99375)

BEST MCA 10926 If one could put together an album of material that captures every generation, genre and taste, and multitudes of musical and vocal talent, how would you do it? The legendary master of song, Elton John, is surely king of this domain, and he has pulled off the DUETS ultimate vision, making the ideal real! Duets is a MASTERPIECE Track after track, artist after artist, Duets will knock anyone off their high horse to acknowledge that Elton John was, is and always will be a gifted innovator in ever unfolding history popular music. Duets may well be the first album ever to strike gold at almost every radio format, with its undeniably perfect blending of talent. Rock. Hit, Adult Alternative, Alternative and Adult Contemporary, Urban, Dance and Country Radio will all be seeing massive action from this release. Elton and Kiki Dee had a #1 smash 17 years ago with "Don't Go Breaking My Heart," and it seemed only natural to release their version of Cole Porter's classic ballad. "True Love," as the first track. Elton and RuPaul tend to the 90s edition of "Don't Go Breaking My Heart" and it should prove to be a dance floor smash! The classic R&B hit "Shakey Ground," performed with Don Henley, is one funky, steamy mutha', which is heading to Rock Radio mid-November. All of the vocalists recorded their tracks live with Elton (as he traveled the globe) for Duets, and they created a special vibe that can be felt in the final mix. Others guests include k.d. lang, Little Richard, Bonnie Raitt, Leonard Cohen, Tammy Wynette, Gladys Knight, P.M. Dawn, Chris Rea, Nik Kershaw, Marcella Detroit, Paul Young and George Michael. The final track is a new song, co-written by Elton and Chris Difford, called "Duets For One," which Elton sings solo. It is just too hard to summarize the impact and enormity of this project in this space; just listen to Duets, and check the performer, producer and songwriting credits. Street date is November 23, so a word of advice - stock up, as Christmas is near and 1994 s going to be a long year for Elton John

Just when we thought that MTV was becoming the recently shot in Palm Springs. Directed by Kevin Godley (Godley and Cream), who also directed "Even Better Than The Real Thing," the video was shot the same night as Pearl Jam's Indio show, providing a surreal end of the evening for dozens of Pearl Jam fans who, after already driving through the desert, were exposed to bright lights, cameras, dinosaurs, Bono and Frank. If you can't wait till MTV airs the Bono/Frank video. U2 have signed a deal for a Thanksgiving weekend pay per view. Several programmers that we spoke with are already giving away U2 weekends replete with free pay per view, CDs and other related swag. If that's not enough U2 for you, the first commercial single released from Zooropa will be "Stay," featuring the Sinatra duet, a remix of "Lemon," two live concert recordings and a non-album track, entitled "Slow Dancing," which was originally written for Willie Nelson to perform...

Nick Heyward "Kite

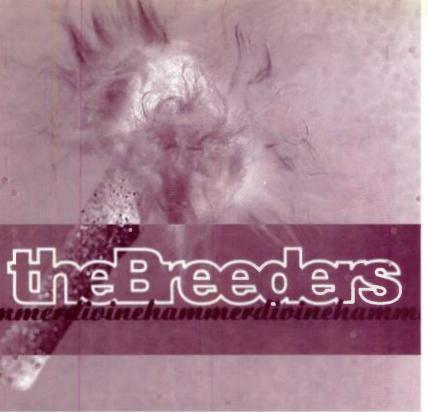

It's been five years since the world last heard from Nick Heyward, but the ex-Haircut 100 frontman is making a triumphant return with his new single, With early support coming from import play on KROQ and WDRE, among others, "Kite" is a deceptively simple pop song with remarkable appeal. Heyward's "Kite" has a fresh, basic sound that slowly ingrains itself in the listener's mind with its simple melody and easy, shuffling beat. While Heyward uses such unconventional elements as bassoon, cello and mandolin to flesh out the song, it's the guitar melody and Heyward's vocal that grab the listener and don't let go.

Les Thugs As Happy As Possible

In most people's minds, hardcore is as diametrically opposite from melody or harmony as punk rock is to the French. Well, France's uppercrust social scene received a black eye with the formation of Les Thugs ("The one truly great rock band in France,") roughly four years ago. Les Thugs serve up plenty of punk-ian aggression and frustration coupled with solid melodies and harmonic lines in their unique, pop/punk sound. As Happy As Possible, the latest and fourth overall Les Thugs album, continues down the melodic hardcore path first blazed on their 1989 Sub Pop debut, Electric Trouble (which was followed by 1990's Still Hungry and 1991's I.A.B.F.

Les Thugs have always rendered their powerpop/punk stylings at a 360 bpm pace that is reminiscent of the Ramones with more concern for melody. On

As Happy As Possible, however, Les Thugs throw in a few tempo changes, shifting into lower gear and really bringing their songwriting and harmonic abilities to the fore. "Horror Toys," with its distortion-soaked progressions, veiled vocals and undaunted rhythmic stomp, owns an eerie atmosphere illustrating the slowed down characteristic Les Thugs display periodically on As Happy As Possible. The first track, "As Happy As," is more in step with the earlier releases by the Frog-rockers, and it exudes an angered sense of loss in its furious pace and howl-along chorus. "Dreamers' Song," 'Ad Men" and "Monkey 58 Strings Sonics Fly" also display the magnetic energy heard on Les Thugs' earlier efforts, making As Happy As Possible well worth checking out. While the entire album jams like the German Army running rampant over the Maginot Line, particularly pissed-off numbers include "August," "PaPaPaPa," "You Wanna Die" and "Looking In Your Eyes."

The Breeders

"Divine Hammer" 4AD/Elektra

"Cannonball," The Breeders' first post-Pixies release, immediately captured both programmer and listener attention with its quirky nature and off-beat lyrics, but its follow-up, "Divine Hammer," works on an entirely different level. "Divine Hammer" is a much more straightforward song, with a tight, compact arrangement and a simple, easygoing groove leading the way. Topping the song's breezy sound off are the smooth, enthralling vocals of Kim Deal, who, along with her bandmates, is quickly stepping forward as one of the most exciting talents of the day. With Last Splash anchoring itself in the Top 5 and "Cannonball" bursting forth as a listener favorite, Kim Deal has quickly and forcefully shown the world she doesn't need Frank Black or The Pixies to give voice to her considerable talent.

Jane Siberry "Temple" Reprise

Jane Siberry, who was featured on our panel of songwriters in the premiere issue of VIRTUALLYALTERNATIVE, is a singer with a unique artistic voice and vision that needs to be heard. Siberry's sixth album, When I Was A Boy, is a lush collection of music that spans a wide range of moods and textures, and it has already been taken to heart by a number of Adults Only stations. Now, with the single remixes of "Temple" available, Siberry treads in still different waters, showing she is ready to break free from being pigeonholed as only an "adult" or "alternative" artist. "Temple" is the first track on When I Was A Boy, and it immediately enthralls the listener with its moody, mystical feel. On the remixes, a subtle hip-hop beat slides in behind Siberry's evocative vocals to create a fresh and exciting version that retains the emotion of Siberry's lyrics and vocals while broadening the song's appeal.

Barry Adamson

The Negro Inside Me

Barry Adamson is best known for his role as a founding member of such important bands as Magazine and The Bad Seeds. But as influential as these bands were, Adamson found the limitations of rock music too restrictive for his ever-expanding ideas and abilities. Solo since 1987, Adamson's music has either been for film soundtracks or sounded like it; it's this general feel which pervades his brilliant The Negro Inside Me. The Negro Inside Me has a fresh, vital sound that's part soundtrack and part high-energy dance groove. Adamson seamlessly blends elements of rock, jazz, funk and dance music into six tracks with an undeniably cinematic scope. The album's lead track, "The Snowball Effect" is a freewheeling groove-filled piece that features samples of Adamson's publicist scheduling interviews for him, deftly turning the mundane into a highly-charged dance track. Don't pass by The Negro Inside Me on your way to the stacks of "heavy hitters," as few albums you'll hear this fall will match the intricacies and intensity of the six cuts here.

Stone Free: A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix

Reprise

It's been 23 years and two months since Jimi Hendrix made the classic rock star exit from this stage, but his legacy is still as potent and vital (if not more so) as it was when Jimi was alive. His synthesis of musical genres (jazz, rock, R&B, blues) and cultural styles (boy scout, football player, paratrooper and substance using rock god) was, and is, wholly unique, entirely personal and influential on anybody who has picked up a guitar since his death. Stone Free: A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix reflects Jimi's universal appeal and influence in its variety of contributors, ranging from Body Count to The Cure to Clapton to Nigel Kennedy, etc., etc.. By the mere fact of their variety, the bands make Stone Free: A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix a testament to the boundary-breaking character and sound of a true musician

Stone Free: A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix was conceived by John McDermott and Eddie Kramer while the two were collaborating on "Hendrix: Setting The Record Straight." McDermott and Kramer decided that the only way to illustrate his influence on modern music was to put together a compilation of artists who influenced Jimi, who were contemporaries with him and who were influenced by him. The result, Stone Free, offers up reworkings, not exact replicas, of some of Jimi's greatest hits. The Cure's "Purple Haze" is done in Robert Smith's inimitable style, while P.M. Dawn's version of "You Got Me Floatin'" incorporates smooth hip-hop grooves and samples. Both are decidedly different renditions, compared to Jimi's originals, and they show the wide scope of his influence. Collaborations between distinctive creative identities [ie: Seal and Jeff Beck doing "Manic Depression," Slash and Paul Rodgers with the Band Of Gypsies performing "I Don't Live Today" and M.A.C.C. covering "Hey Baby (Land Of The New Rising Sun)"] grant the album a spontaneous, raw atmosphere similar to Hendrix when he was firing on all cylinders.

Stone Free: A Tribute To Jimi Hendrix is a must for all music fans, not just Jimi Hendrix devotees. Its collection of artists covers the musical spectrum, bringing new dimensions to the songs. Every track is a winner that could find play on a variety of stations.

banshee through the sonic display, which vaguely resembles Dylan-esque folk stylings, Buddy Holly-meets-Hasil Adkins rockabilly and a dash of The Violent Femmes fused together by Robert Johnson and Matt's "good" twin. 'Goin' To Hell," "Let's Get A.I.D.S." (anthem for the 90s), "Amazing Disgrace," a righteous destruction of the gospel staple, and "I'm Gonna Kill You" (the first song that truly expresses many roommate relationships) are jaw-dropping displays of plant-killing cynicism and a death-dry wit that must be heard to be believed. Get yourself a copy of the EP and start spreading the new gospel, as told by The Mysterious Matt Miller Satan's Evil Twin (not a burning bush, white salamander or pulp science-fiction hack).

Squeeze "Third Rail"

With the return of Paul Carrack and the introduction of Attractions drummer Pete Thomas, there's no doubt that Squeeze is back in full form, as the success of "Everything In The World" has already shown. Squeeze now returns with a bright and equally infectious follow-up single, "Third Rail," The songwriting work of Chris Difford and Glenn Tilbrook is in fine form on "Third Rail," with Tilbrook's jubilant vocals carrying the song's great lyrical hook, while Difford supplies a superb guitar melody that is equally catchy. Squeeze never has been a one-hit wonder, and with "Third Rail," the band shows that there is plenty to listen to on Some Fantastic Place. But for an even broader taste of Squeeze, be sure to explore the import CD5, which includes three live tracks recorded at London's Town & Country club.

The Mysterious Matt Miller Satan's Evil Twin

The Mysterious Matt Miller Satan's Evil Twin

From the pits of Hell (better known as the Heartland of America) comes the craziest purveyor of psychosis, the wildest connoisseur of the carnal, The Mysterious Matt Miller Satan's Evil Twin; one man with a guitar, a vision and quite a lot to say. Brought to you on C.R.U.D., the "label for poor people" (1935 S. Plum Grove Road, #102, Palatine, Illinois 60067), Matt's EP, a 7" record on real vinyl, is a four-song display of biting social commentary masked within the guise of psychotic and deranged ramblings and fueled by complete dissatisfaction with the world we live in. In other words, Matt may be a little skewed from the norm, but he's crazy like a fox.

Accompanied only by his acoustic guitar, Matt -Satan's Evil Twin, lest we forget - howls like a caged

Angst Wax Trax!/TVT

On Angst, KMFDM once more step to the forefront of industrial music by breaking down the narrow definition of what industrial is or is supposed to be. KMFDM's core of Sascha Konietzko and En Esch are constantly tinkering with the band's sound by introducing elements of hip-hop, house, hardcore and metal into the mix. On Angst, the result is a consistently fresh and varied sonic assault with a decidedly political bend, particularly on songs like "Glory" and "No Peace." At the forefront throughout the album is metallic, edgy guitar that drives the songs as much as the throbbing dance beats, most notably on the mile-a-minute single "A Drug Against War," which is perhaps the album's most intense and brutal track. In addition, don't miss the album's jarring opener, "Light," with its arresting blend of dance club beats and metallic guitar.

SIRE/WARNER EROS.

t is about time a movie has been made from a Tom Robbins book!

After all, he is one of the original spearhead figures of the 'Seattle scene.' Even Cowgirls Get The Blues is a magical, quirky and much-loved fable about the freedom of the spirit and yet, finding somewhere to belong. The film (whose stellar cast includes Uma Thurman, John Hurt, Lorraine Reeves, Roseanne Arnold, Buck Henry and Angie Dickinson) will be released early next year. It

Fortunately for us, we don't have to wait for the music. Multi-Grammy Award winner k.d. lang and her longtime colaborator, Ben Mink, have come up with a cool, groovy and always smooth soundtrack. What better artist than k.d. lang to breathe musical life into this film? She has defied description as her career has evolved in exciting and unexpected ways. The first taste from ECGTB is "Just Keep Me Moving" which has already found a home on many of the Adults Only stations But don't stop there, this Steely Dan-esque track is just the beginning of many swinging gems nestled in between the rather esoteric, but enjoyable incidental music. With soft crooners like "Hush Sweet Lover" and "In Perfect Dreams" to the smooth, jazzy "Lifted By Love" or the almost country swing of "Curious Soul Astray," k.d., once again, displays her vocal and songwriting gifts. As k.d., herself, comments, "I think fans are very smart, so I always try to give them something new and fresh to keep them interested." ECGTB will delight k.d.'s legions of fans and will surely garner her a vast, new audience. This richly tex-west Records President Jim Swindel selects Ritch Bloom as the label's VP/Pop Promotion. In addition to overseeing the label's marketing and pop promo efforts, Bloom will act as a liaison to the marketing and promotion staffs at Warner Bros. and Reprise, as well as the Qwest representative to industry trade publications.

Bloom Bounds To Qwest As VP/Pop Promotion

"Ritch Bloom's demeanor and character have made him an outstanding player in the promotion world," says Swindel. "We're proud to have him on our team!"

Notes Bloom, "I'm very excited about becoming a player on 'team Qwest.' Working with two of the most musical people in the business, Jim Swindel and Quincy Jones, is a dream come true."

Bloom began his career at CBS Records doing local promotion, advancing to the position of National AOR Promotion Director during his 12-year tenure at Epic and Columbia. Subsequently, he served six years with Capitol, eventually rising to VP/National Promotion before arriving at Qwest.

Maidenberg Makes Senior Director/Marketing At Mercury

Mercury Senior VP/GM Larry Stessel ups Marty Maidenberg to Senior Director/Marketing.

Regarding his decision, Stessel tells Album Network, "Marty has been an incredibly stable force in the marketing department for several years. His attention to detail and alternative ideas for marketing music in the 90s are assets to the Mercury label."

Says Maidenberg, "I'm looking forward to continuing to expand upon opportunities for the artists on my roster, as well as developing long-term strategies for Mercury. It's really exciting to be a part of the Mercury team."

Maidenberg has served in a variety of capacities at Mercury, including Manager/Product Development, Publicity Manager and, immediately prior to this promotion, Director/Product Development.

KXRK PD Mike Summers Gets His VP Stripes

XRK (X-96)/Salt Lake City President/GM Jim Facer ups PD Mike Summers to VP/Operations & Programming.

"Mike is the father of modern music in Utah," states Facer. "Even though I was the one who put the radio station together after everything fell apart at KJQN, it was Mike and me in my living room trying to figure out how we could put this station together. X-96 would not exist without him, and he needs to be rewarded for what he's done in this market."

"This move is the recognition of a job that I am already doing, for the most part," observes Summers. "Programming is but one thing here that I oversee; I've basically been managing the facility in Provo, where our studios are, for quite some time, and now, I'll have more input into how the station is sold and advertised, and I'll have more to do with the overall day-to-day operations."

Summers has served as PD of KXRK since the station's inception nearly two years ago. Prior to that, he held down the programming post at the now-defunct alternative outlet KJQN/Salt Lake City.

Wolf Now PD At KAMZ & Corporate Director/ Programming At Pinnacle Broadcasting

Greg Heitzman, VP/GM of El Paso classic rocker KAMZ, selects Mike Wolf as PD. Additionally, Wolf assumes the newly created position of Corporate Director/Programming for Pinnacle Broadcasting, overseeing the programming of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina-based classic rocker (and Howard Stern affiliate) WYAV.

Over the course of the last month, Wolf has overseen the transition of both KAMZ and WYAV as an independent program consultant. Says Wolf, "After working closely with Greg Heitzman, Pinnacle CFO Ed Ferrari and VP/Programming Scott Harris, I came to realize that this company is committed in its goal to become one of the premier broadcasting companies in the country. Its hiring of Howard Stern to do mornings showed me they were serious. I'm looking forward to the challenge of helping them realize that goal."

"Mike Wolf is just the kind of guy we wanted to tap for this job," comments Heitzman. "For the last seven years, he's been intimately involved in the success of stations who've employed the 'Howard Stern All Morning - Classic Rock All Day' format, and we're confident he'll accomplish the same results in El Paso."

Wolf previously programmed WQBK/Albany. His career history includes stops at WJFK/Washington, DC, WYSP/Philadelphia and WQFM/Milwaukee.

"We just sold a Jackson Browne CD because it was playing in the store off of In-Store CD #23!"

DANNY ELFMAN'S

3 v Rocio Lampne

ver the past decade, Danny Elfman has become known as one of the premier film music composers of our time. From his start with "The Forbidden Zone" and "Pee Wee's Big Adventure" all the way to the present box office blockbuster, Tim Burton's "The Nightmare Before Christmas," Elfman has cultivated a style of his own, one that has frequently been imitated, but never equaled.

With "Nightmare's" current success (no doubt bolstered by Elfman's manic and fantastic vocal performance as animated lead character Jack Skellington), and the imminent release of a new Oingo Boingo album (some four years after Dark At The End Of The Tunnel), we thought this would be the perfect time to catch up with Elfman (no easy task, we might add!), and find out how he continues to balance his score projects and their subsequent media commitments with the band's upcoming album.

Rocio Lampner: You and Tim Burton originally hooked up on 'Pee Wee's Big Adventure.' How did that come about, and did you and Tim connect instantly?

Danny Elfman: "It seemed like we did hit it off right away. He used to come and se Oingo Boingo, but I had never met him. When they were looking for a composer for 'Pe Wee,' he and Paul Reubens (aka Pee Wee Herman) decided they wanted to experiment and talk to some non-traditional composers. My name came up and it was kind of a shock to me. We talked and we hit it off; I told them my influences and where I came from, and went home and said 'What the hell, I'll do a demo and send it to them.'

"That demo ended up becoming the main title to 'Pee Wee's Big Adventure,' and I go hired. The amazing thing is, I almost passed it up! After I got the job, for about a day, I said 'Nah...I finally blustered my way into something I can't do. And I can't just go and screw up their movie.' But, I finally decided, 'What the hell.' I figured I'd jump in the water and eithe sink or swim. It's just that simple. It was a real crash course, but it was fantastic."

How did the whole concept of your latest project, 'The Nightmare Before Christmas,' come about?

"After 'Edward Scissorhands,' Tim told me about the idea...ironically, I had been talking with various parties for about a year about doing a musical. I'd met with several studios, and I'd even spent some time with Dr. Seuss, who was a big influence for me, about a musical that he wanted to do. That didn't happen, and Dr. Seuss died. Then Tim said, 'Here's this thing.' And I thought, 'How great. I've been wanting to do a musical.' Anything involved with Halloween is right up my alley, and the story seemed real fun. I told him, and we agreed, that if I did a musical, I wanted to do an old fashioned kind of musical. Our sensibilities were really very close, and it seemed to be something that we were in synch on. We didn't want to do a por song musical or a musical with kind of a contemporary Broadway feel...that's something I'm not really a fan of."

How did you go about creating such an operatic score, as opposed to the usual film scores, with all of the vocals, etc.?

"As the composer, I'm the last person hired on the job. I'm here as the first and the last, sort of bookends on the piece. It really took a while to figure out how to start, because there is no manual on how to begin an animated musical. We spent a couple of months where I experimented with musical ideas, and Tim, with a writer, began trying to create a first draft. And we weren't really getting anywhere. I just went and wrote the first song, and Tim said, 'Great, this is how we should do it. This makes sense, let's just keep going.' It was over two and a half years of work on this project, but the easiest part of the job was writing the 10 songs. He'd come over and I'd play him the song and we'd talk about just the next little bit of story, and as he did that, I'd already be hearing the next song. We agreed that the way we'd approach it was to start with the music and tell whatever part of the story we could in the songs. It made sense, because then we wouldn't be trying to force specific information into songs, we'd just see what happens naturally. It was very organic and very quick.

"It was one of the smoothest pieces of creation that I've ever had, because we were completely in synch. Producing the songs, finishing them, demoing them, putting on the voices, casting them, etc., was, by far, 20 times more work than writing the lyrics to the songs, which was really just fun. I remember finishing the songs and going, 'Wow, that was easy. I want to do more of these.' And at the end of the project, I was going, 'God help me, I never want to do this again as long as I live!' All of a sudden, in the middle of a really heavy film score, I often promise myself I will never do this again, because it's just so much vork. But when it's all done, the work part starts to get anesthetized and you say, I guess maybe (III do it one more time.'

"The craziest part was one all-night session that Tim and I did because we had to demo all the material to send up north. Tim was in the booth and was the record producer, and I was the entire cast. I did every voice, and in the process, I did Jack. I degran to really love Jack while I was writing the tunes and I could really relate to him. There's a lot of myself in Jack. I knew I was getting very close to the character, and singing it was really fun...when we did the demos, I said to Tim, 'There are better ingers than me, but no one's going to approach Jack's character better than I do. I have him nailed.' He agreed, and that's how it came about.

"Jack was a fun character to do. He really soars from so high to so low, and his voice gets to be used so expressively because he's so over-enthusiastic and schizophrenic. It was a really fun experience."

Vould you consider doing another character like that if the right one came along?

'Not at this point. I think Jack was an exception for me, because I was so involved in creating him that I felt a real personal alliance. I'm not interested in being an actor. This was a unique thing where I felt a real kinship with the character and I helped create the character. I'm not in any way, shape or form going to be out there looking to do voices n musicals or animated musicals! It's not a field that I have any interest in. I've always considered myself a writer first and a performer second. Creating is my joy, performing s an afterthought. I only became a performer with the band because no one else would perform my music! I only wanted to perform Jack because I got so close to him, and I got to the point where I felt that I legitimately had him down and I would do the best

Dingo Boingo is so different from your scoring work; how do you go about vorking on both of them?

'They're both completely different. I can't do them both at the same time. I nave to get into two completely different mindsets. In order to write songs, I've got to get myself in this very paced-out frame of mind. When I'm really in the songwriting mode, I can barely remember to tie my whoes. I can never find my keys, and I become the classic absent-minded professor. I'm lucky if I remember to put my pants on before I go out! It's like my mind is half blank and my antenna is up and I'm searching for some galaxy out there, for radar signals elling me what I want to write about. It's a very obscure thing. If I'm scoring, I have to have every brain cell working for me, completely, or I just can't do it. I have to be just the opposite, I have to be really focused and really concentrated to keep the complexity of the orchestral music that I've been writing in my head."

'I would say scoring a movie, I mean, a big movie, is more difficult. The kind I tend to get wrapped up into, which are these big, aggressive scores, which is what I love, I would say are about a hundred times harder than writing and recording a song with the band. On the other hand, being on tour and on stage is a lot harder in a different way han scoring. There's more pressure in a way...a different kind of pressure, because writing songs is all personal pressure. There's no one pressuring me, it's my own pressure to do something different or top myself.

"It's funny, because often when I'm in the middle of a score and I've just been sitting at the piano for 12 hours a day, I long to be on the road in front of a concert audience and just to be sweating. It's just so physical and I really long for that. But, when I'm on our, and I find myself repeating myself and doing the same songs every night and osing my voice and having to depend on this really unreliable instrument I own, I long or the simplicity of being locked to that piano and creating pure orchestral music. And I hink, what a joy not to have to wake up in the morning and worry about whether I have a voice today or not, or whether I have a cold or something. So, it seems that whichever one I'm doing, I really want to be doing the other one!"

Does that mean we will see a tour with the upcoming Boingo album?

'Inevitably there will be a Boingo tour. It's funny, because creating this album had a lot of the same beats as the creation of Jack Skellington...before I started this material, I was losing faith and really wondering whether I wanted to keep going with the band. Suddenly, this song called 'Insanity,' which was the first new song that we recorded, popped into my head and I got completely enthusiastic. It got me completely charged up again to do the new album and to get back into the studio. I just couldn't wait."

Any working titles for the album? When can we expect the record to come out?

'The record will come out in March. We actually recorded half of the album last January, and then 'Nightmare' got its serpent-like grip into me in March and wouldn't et me go until a few weeks ago. I didn't expect to lose this enormous block of time in he middle of the album. So, we're back at it now, and I hope to finish everything up by November or December, which will get us out in early March. As for a working title, I don't know. As I said, my favorite song at the moment is a song called 'Insanity.' Whether that becomes the title or not, I have no idea. I never pick the title until all of the songs are done, so I can see what I'm looking at, what it feels like."

So as far as balancing your time between the band and the scores, it's just a matter of when things come up?

I kind of work around things pretty far in advance. For film scores, I'm generally hired anywhere up to six months in advance, so I'll know that I have a score, and I try to do two scores a year, that's all. Like I've known for ages that this spring I'll be doing 'Black Beauty' for Caroline Thompson, and so I know that I will be beginning that probably in late January, for recording in March."

As far as some of the other things that you're currently involved with, tell us about 'little Demons'

"'Little Demons' is for Disney, and I'm very excited about it. I have two writers working on that. It's a story that I wrote and that I'm producing; and I've written the first five songs for it. We hope to turn in that script in another month. I have another script that I've completed called 'The World Of Jimmy Callicutt,' which I've also written five songs for. I've just finished the second draft of a ghost story [with which] I hope to make my directorial debut, called 'Julian.' That's my 1994 objective, to find a home for 'Julian.' Once I can clear myself of the Boingo album, 'Julian' will regain my full attention. It's been pretty crazy, because I'll get these projects and work on them real intensely for a full week and then boom, it'll be a year before they resurface again. Like I said, if I'd have known how much work 'Nightmare' was going to be before I started, I probably would have gone and changed my name and gotten a new address in a different country!"

How do you keep your focus over the length of a project and continue to be fresh throughout it?

"As far as 'Nightmare,' it seems like about every month to two months, I'd get pulled in to do some work on a song that would be going into production soon. The thing really became like a freight train carried down the tracks, and then it was running out of track. They would call me and say, 'Look, we're going into production in three weeks on this tune, we've got to get the finished vocals on here, we've got these changes, we've got to drop in these characters,' so all of a sudden, I'm setting up a session, I'd have to bring in these characters and these actors, get all of the finished vocals on, go mix it, send it back up to them in time for them to get it for production. It was just a constant thing. There [are] 11 songs, and spaced out in time, one of them was always coming up. I stopped and I did some scores in the middle, like 'Article 99,' 'Batman Returns' and 'Sommersby,' so there would be these periods of time where I would just say, 'I'm going to disappear for this many weeks,' and I would make sure that they had enough material. We'd know way in advance. I'd say, 'Look, I'm going to do 'Batman Returns' and this is a big one that's going to take two months, plus,' and so I'd work extra hard before it started to make sure that they had enough material to get them through two and a half months."

Are there any plans in the future for you to do any more TV themes, like 'The Simpsons,' or any commercials, like the Nike spot?

"No, those are little things that pop up now and again, and if I have a little free time or a few days free and if one of those happens to be there, I'll do it for fun. The Simpsons' was two days' worth of work, and with the Nike thing, I had a free week, and I thought it would be fun. Whenever I do a television thing, it's for fun. Like 'Tales Of The Crypt,' it's just fun because it's real quick. But, I haven't done one in a year or two. There aren't many TV things that I'd do; I'm not a TV person, it's got to be something real old fashioned or crazy or something. Not many TV themes are looking for that. 'The Simpsons' and 'Tales From The Crypt' were two exceptions to the rule. Those little things will pop up and I'll do them."

So right now you're concentrating mostly on the Boingo record?

"My sole concentration for the rest of this year is on the album, and a little bit of finishing touches on 'Little Demons' between the end of this year and the beginning of next. Then, in 1994, I have 'Julian' and 'Black Beauty,' which will carry me through the spring. Then I imagine we'll do some touring in the hope to really be focusing heavily on 'Julian' and possibly this other project. So, we'll see what happens."

spring and take it from there. By summer, I

What happens is that we can all look forward to plenty of projects to come from the mind of Danny Elfman. And, after seeing him and Oingo Boingo live again recently, and getting a taste of some seven new songs, we can promise that this new album will be well worth the wait!

ommy Nast thinks some of my comments this week make me look like a bitter, beaten cry baby. He believes the MTV attacks are old news and unnecessary, and he advised me to cut them out. But part of the reason I'm here at the Album Network is the fact that Tommy and Steve Smith afford me that freedom of expression and occasionally, they offer the rope with which I hang myself. This is how I feel. Don't blame them...blame me! Here we go...

This is my soap box. It's my vocal avenue to the music industry. And if you haven't figured it out yet, I'm not a used car salesman; nor am I a vacuous, pretentious schmuck whose sole purpose in life is to shamelessly promote whatever comes down the pipe. I'm the editor of a rock magazine whose career has expanded into other mediums but whose agenda has not changed: Keep rock alive! Get the good music to the fans, regardless of the politics, the bullshit, or whatever else tries to clog the pipeline. And those of you who think less of my motives, or question my integrity, well, you're the same bunch who still believe tip-sheet publishers can get your video on MTV.

In the past couple of months, I've seriously begun to ask the question, "What's the point?" Larry Flynt is worth somewhere between $75 and $100 million, yet I don't have one red cent of equity in RIP. My popular spot on "Headbanger's Ball" is killed and no one at the network has the courage to fess up to the act. Why? Because it was political, pure and simple. The protestations have been private and passionate, but due to MTV's universal power to intimidate, they've also been publicly silent. Hence, I was hung out to dry, alone and beaten, like Reginald Denny at the intersection of Florence and Normandie. Next, Westwood One pulls the plug on my popular (sorry) radio show. Why? Because the program was lower on the network list of priorities than Norm Pattiz's weekly yacht waxing. One of the affiliate relations reps once asked my producer what "core" meant? I was doomed from the outset. But forget about my fortunes for a minute. The real ones getting fucked here are the fans, 'cause they dug what I did on MTV and they dug my radio show. I was honestly telling them about new music and their favorite artists - and that formula, as simple as it sounds, works. But once again, where's the outrage? You can balance the label reaction to my radio ouster on the head of a pin. And what freaks me' out is, I was selling their product. In the tar pit of classic rock, I was the Jurassic RAWk monster. For the moment, I'm extinct. What's the point? Let's move on....

FRIEND TO ALL

There are so many cooks in the "Airheads" music kitchen, I'm getting lost in the smoke. What's the point?...In the new Nirvana book, "Come As You Are," Kurt Cobain accuses me of having a "butt-fetish" because of a couple goofy photos on my office wall and claims the day the band had lunch with me was a "sickening" experience. And author Michael Azzerad says that "RIP didn't support Nirvana until it practically had to." Insulting, grossly inaccurate statements. What's the point?...Consultants continue to gobble up FM radio. Tom Barnes and WRZX. Great! Here comes Midnight Oil and there goes Brother Cane. Why didn't Scott Jameson just take my 30-share playlist every week and adjust his programming accordingly? Indianapolis wants Pantera, Nine Inch Nails and White Zombie, not INXS and the Afghan Whigs. But what's the point?....

Virgin publicist Sue Sawyer - a beautiful, intelligent and delightful human being watched her house burn to the ground in the recent tragic Malibu/Calabasas fires. But Vince Neil's pad miraculously escaped the flames. What's the point?...One of RIP's veteran photographers and a friend of mine for years, Glen La Ferman, was carjacked less than a mile from my house by two Latino teenagers. He had a gun stuck into his mouth and stood helpless as they drove off in his 91 black Corvette. Less than a mile from my house! Where my three-year-old daughter plays in the yard every day! What's the point?...My angelic assistant, Denise, is suffering the loss of her grandfather who was brutally shot to death last week while sitting in his suburban, upper-middle-class back yard. I'm sick. What's the point?....

I was born and raised in Los Angeles, lived here every day of my 37 years. I don't think I like it here anymore. And I don't think I like this business anymore. I'm sorry I can't crusade how great the new releases are this week because my heart just ain't in it. In fact, the lone bright spot of my week was seeing Pearl Jam weave their concert magic in Phoenix. Alone they stand, untouchable, immovable, unpenetrated by the corporate crapolla. Vs. eclipses anything released this year. Anything. Before the show, I gave Eddie my 22-year-old original vinyl Stand Up album. Later that night, completely unbeknownst to me, Jethro Tull checked into my hotel. A sign, perhaps? "All my pieces set me free/Human devices set me free." MAYBE THERE IS A POINT...Thanks, Goldie. You're a prince in a land of few gentlemen...Friend out....P.S.: Come by the Whisky on the 15th. I'll be hosting the 700 Miles show for my friend, Bruce Flohr at RCA. A gent who, if I tried, I couldn't find a negative thing to say about him. Peace....

"Buried Dreams"

Onn Loves Is

Holy metal guitar, is this a great new album! The first track, "Buried Dreams," is just crushing. The severe guitar interplay is bludgeoning, painful fun and Carcass never lets up! The first guitar solo tears chunks out of your forehead before the dooming tremolo bar rip sets you up for the other half of the knockout punch. You'll be hearing a lot more about this monster of a band soon enough, and "Buried Dreams" is one hell of way to make an entrance.

"Believe" Wasteland

Most bands with this amount of power at their disposal aren't usually diverse and melodic. Dia can blast with the best of them, but one of their strengths is their ability to use many different tonalities to make their songs dynamic. "Believe" has a yearning, pleading lyrical bent, but the climbing guitars and power chords are nicely framed by the ringing, more sensitive guitar work that makes the song complete. This is a very strong band and this track is just one of the many reasons why

Guns N' Roses

"Ain't It Fun"

This first cut to emerge from The Spaghetti Incident? is a soulful rendition of the Dead Boys' deadpan, sick, humor-filled punk anthem. In "Ain't It Fun," they claim just about everything that isn't fun, like dying, breaking up, etc., really is. Slash's bleeding guitar work has an early Skynyrd feel to it and is a welcome musical delight when saddled up on such a perverse and enjoyable visit to the past. And an interesting side note is Axl sharing vocal duties with Michael Monroe.

For Love Not Lisa

"Softhand"

EastWest America/TAG

We still maintain here in RAWkland that For Love Not Lisa's "Softhand" is a real sleeper. First ushered to the more alternative side of life, it finally is targeted at Metal Radio, and it makes the transition well. The brief chorus of "if I could" is one of the shortest but most potent, anguished wails in recent memory, and it's matched by the burly guitars and power chords. A definite add!

Clutch

"12 Ounce Epilogue" EastWest America/TAG

Clutch seems to be pioneering a new form of sloganeering by shouting familiar and original one-liners rather than lyrically detailing a specific story. This succinct approach works well within the context of the heavy music. The Stones-like chant of "we like it" with the world famous Coca-Cola catch phrase is very clever. The original 7" recording, which serves as a B-side, is a little less focused and not as powerful, but it fairly documents the progress this band has made in such a short period of time.

Tumbleweed

Sundial

This Australian band has a lot of friends and fans Downunder who've already had a chance to discover their interesting approach. Sundial is the first music we've had a chance to check out here, and it is a refreshing new approach. With so many growlers out there it's fun to hear a band be so much more rock than pent-up punk or grunged-out frustration. There's something very distinctive about the two-guitar approach that is so favored by Aussie rock groups. Tumbleweed could be one of those bands that is attractive to both the Expand-O crowds and RAWkland, because they're just solid and real. On this EP, for Seed Records, "Acid Rain" has a more alternative leaning, while "Sundial" and "Healer" have more bite.

Earache

Why have we waited this long for someone to finally use one of the ultimate metal band names? This Earache discovery has an abrasive sonic approach that is very grating, and in a perverse way, invigorating. If you have trouble reading the handwritten album and song titles, don't feel alone. If you subscribe to the theory that this band makes annoying metal and fun noise, join the crowd. This album feels like someone keeps jabbing their stubby little fingers into your brain deeper and deeper, the louder it's played.

Man, what a week in LA-LA land! White Zombie gets their truly deserved Gold discs at a Geffen blowout, probably just a few weeks shy of their inevitable Platinum versions. Huh-huh-huh-huh am does their first show in our vicinity; as it was a camping trip away from the industry, the carpools did form, while at the shows the audience threw shoes on stage Joe Satriani was in the spotlight at the Whisky - getting the Surfing With The Alien band (Stu Hamm on bass, Jonathan Mover on drums and Phil Ashiny on the keys) back together for one scorching event. It was complete brain reduction with Joe! Too many notes for any normal brain to absorb Later that same night, Priority filled up the Roxy to make their Sam Kinison posthumous album record release party a complete success. The highlight of that evening was an all-star jam that featured the incredible guitar duo of Dweezil Zanna and Mike Keneally, which was fronted by vocalist Ahmet Zappa. Taking the signature riff or most memorable moment of a catalog full of songs, the band roared through lick after lick, line after line with amazing skill. As soon as you would recognize the melody of one song they would be long gone onto the next idea. It was great fun. I would like to see the publishing credits on that collage if indeed it does end up on a future album 🎏 Bassist supreme T.M. Stevens, last sighted in VAI, has formed a new band with veteran guitarist AI Pitrelli, who has an impressive resume 🥮 Jimi Hazel is involved in a couple of musical adventures, one of which is a resurrection of the ground-breaking and original 24-7 Spyz 🖷 Here's some good news for "prog-rock" fans: Fates Warning is real close to getting a new deal together after far too long a time away.

While in town for a "Saturday Night Live" appearance, Aerosmith dropped by the EMI Music Publishing offices. Calling what KMFDM does musically "unusual" is quite an understatement. "Bizarre and indescribable" is a much better phrase when it comes to defining the essence of this band hailing from Hamburg. Angst is the sixth album for this German quartet, and it bursts forth with "Light," a guitar driven, techno-pop gem that just screams for airplay. The second track, "A Drug Against War," will be the instigator of many a mosh pit and is definitely the heaviest RAWker here. Let's "Move On" to track 6 where we get into a dark sounding mix of weird samples and very cool guitar, which create a different vibe from much of the rest of Angst. Overall, the 10 tracks on this record cover the entire spectrum of music for today's generation, and any track would be excellent for adventurous stations and retailers. "The Problem" is choosing which track you like the best. you like the best.

White Trash has been among the most added at Metal Radio...thanks for all your support! The CD-Maxi ships to radio November 22. The band is currently on tour, so call me if you'd like to see the show. Since we are talking tours, it's a perfect time to segue into Hash, making their way across the country with Eve's Plum and Eleven. Anthrax's "Hy Pro Glo" remixed by Al Jourgensen is on your desk now. Now, on to the one release you've all been waiting for...Metallica - Live Shit: Binge & Purge - almost nine hours of live Metallica from three different concerts over the last four years. Three videos, one from the ...And Justice For All tour, recorded in Seattle, the other two are from the "black album" tour in San Diego. Three CDs or two cassettes from the Mexico City show, and if that wasn't already any Metallica fan's wet dream, we've also included in this mini-roadcase (with metal hinges and everything) a Metallica backstage pass, a "Scary Guy" stencil and a 72-pase full-color booklet.

This incredible box set was produced by James and Lars. It will be in stores November 23 and will retail for $59,98 for the CD version and $79,98 for the cassette version...pretty inexpensive, considering how much it costs just to see a show and possibly buy a T-shirt...you're getting nine hours of entertainment...you'd have to see about five movies to fill up nine hours, and two people with popcorn and a soda is about $20.00 a popjust think - you'll actually save $20 if you invest in this box set! Now that I've told you all this, I'm sure you are wondering what we are sending you...on November 17, we're shipping, via two-day Fed Ex, a 15-song, two-CD sampler, which includes music from all three shows! Questions or comments? Call me! XXOO.

Candlebox is selling great, and "You" is on 20 new stations this week; lan Moore is on over 35 stations in "Nothing"'s first week; "The Ubiquitous Mr. Lovegrove" by Dead Can Dance still needs to be listened to; Adam Sandler's "The Thanksgiving Song" will never be more appropriate than it will be in the next couple of weeks; and people in the music industry (other than the occasional artist) really shouldn't pose mude. Ught I'm out....

Jay Sisson

"Little Crazy" isn't a bad song, but Fight has got to be one of the dumbest, clunkiest names for a band I've ever heard! At least Rob didn't make the ultimate ego-error of calling his new group Halford.

Jim Del Balzo

Columbia Promotion

A little over a year ago, we released an EP from Alice In Chains called SAP. It was music written and performed by Alice with the help of some of their friends in Seattle. The result was astounding, and last time I clocked, we had around 400,000 records sold with very little airplay. We essentially serviced SAP, but didn't work it at radio. We wanted it to be something special for their fans. Earlier this year, the band planned to make another EP. We jokingly referred to it as SAP II. The plan was pretty much the same. Just release it so the Alice fans would find out about it, and we weren't ever thinking 'bout radio. Until we heard the music! The disc will be called Jar Of Flies, and it contains some of the best music the band has ever recorded. There has been some confusion that has arisen from various publications as to the release date. Jar Of Flies is not being released until early next year. At that time, you'll all get the music and you'll see why it was just too damn good to be denied.

More on the subject of Alice - it's taken a few years, but programmers are beginning to realize that patience pays off big-time for radio stations. It happens every time we release a track. It may take six, seven or even eight weeks, but eventually, all Alice tracks research like gangbusters. Ask KLOL, KISS, KUFO and several other stations where "What The Hell Have I" is still a huge researching record. "Down In A Hole" is just now beginning to hit stride, and the research is rolling in. Thanks for your support! The performance of Cry Of Love speaks for itself. The band is currently on tour with Robert Plant in the US and will go with Plant to Europe for a month. Early next year, Cry Of Love will spend time with Aerosmith. When these guys come to your town, do yourself a favor and go see them. Coming soon: Pink Floyd, Steve Perry and a great new band called Sponge.

Cindy "Power Rock" Feldman

Greetings to all! Too much music and lots of talk! I had some great conversations with Tim Skold of Shotgun Messiah, Sascha from KMFDM and Kurt from Ted this past week...very enlightening and do play their records! Fire! Fire! My phones are on fire! Pick hits at Power Rock go to 1) A band that needs no introduction-Motorhead! The new release, Bastards, is beyond cool, and I must commend and congratulate them for putting out this blockbuster on their own label. Lead track, "Burmer," scorches; this explosive song from the veteran metal masters proves once again that Motorhead is 100% pure rock! Rev up your engines, 'cause this track sizzles! 2) The Beavis & Butt-Head Experience is here, bringing us two monster hits: Megadeth's "99 Ways To Die" and White Zombie's "I Am Hell" - shining examples and an indication of how killer and heavy the full album will be. More! More! More! More! And these up and put your ears to the tweeters, 'cause these tracks are cool, and White Zombie and Megadeth rule! Huh-huh-luh!" in there, due! C-ya!

So I missed CMJ for the first time in six years...it's getting mixed reviews so far, so I'm not sure of what I really missed. What everyone else missed (except for the 25,000 or so in attendance) was the Eleven show in Indio, opening up for Pearl Jam this past weekend. Many a grungerockerwaif drove to the desert to catch this show, and they were not disappointed! Eleven performed an amazing set before the captive audience, and they're now back out with Eve's Plum for the next couple of weeks, if you haven't caught on to them yet, give us a call and we'll fill you in on tour dates, and why you should already be playing "Crash Today." In other touring news, The Dead Millemen are out (with Possum Dixon opening), playing the Midwest this week, and heading to Phoenix for the EdgeFest on the 19th. "I Dream Of Jesus," "Leggo My Ego" and "Lat's Get The Baby High" are all among the pickings from Not Richard, But Dick that are turning ears and lighting up phones right now. Ghost Of An American Airman are on the road as well, amassing a following in every town they hit (Midwest now and heading south from there), doing soon to be famous acoustic sets at the likes of The Loop, WCBR and WXLC while in the Chicago area, and WFXB in St. Louis. Ring for dates in your area: you don't want to be left out, do you?

Thanks to Tammy Skripek of Zoo for bringing Matthew Sweet by the station to chat and strum on the air before a show at Seton Hall Monday night. Jocelyn Taub of Image also gets a nod for stopping by with Baby Animals last week. Suze DeMarchi (one of my future exwives) and the guys were a lot of fun on the air, and the show later that night cooked! My favorite add of the week here at 'DHA is Big Country's "We're Not In Kansas." This is a quality song with a great sing-along chorus. Big Country has been overlooked by Rock Radio far too many times in their career. Get this song on the air! The Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies are #2 phones this week, behind Rush's "Animate," and now we're seeing calls for other songs from the album, and we're still cooking with "Shakin' The Blues." Here's a suggestion to we're still cooking with "Shakin" The Blues. He're's a suggestion to all you promo types: How often do you work PDs and MDs on records by saying, "It's in Buzz Bin on MTV," or, "It's in rotation on 'Beavis & Butt-Head'" or, "The video is killer and MTV is committed to the project"? Well, then, how about servicing us with the videos you are so gung-ho about? Let us take a look and see if they live up to the hype. Just a thought. As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you.

Just because the end of the year is coming, it doesn't mean that it's time to slow down. Caroline has some great music out there, and some great bands on tour. The Buzzcocks' new album, Trade Test Transmission, should be in your hands by now. EVERYONE should know this band, and they're better than ever. Look for them on the road throughout November and December with the Doughboys and Fudge...speaking of Fudge, look for the new album in January. Drop Nineteens were hot during the CMJ Music Marathon. They are starting a tour in late November and December in support of the new record National Coma. Be sure to listen to their sophomore release - there is NO jinx on this one. As we've said once before, some of you are missing the boat on David Gray. He will be on tour with Kirsty MacCell this month. Do not miss him again. For you Idaho fans, they'll be hitting the West Coast starting November 28 in San Francisco. Check out "Gone" and "God's Green Earth" on their debut effort, Year After Year, Last, but not least, St. Johnny is out with Codeine and Mazzy Star for the next month. Coming your way from Astralwerks: Global Cuts Vol. 1. Technomancer III. "Rock 'N Roll Peg" Pollard

And the sage of Peg's adventures continues...five shows in five days this week - and three of them were Pearl Jam! No one touches this band, and no one will! When did Jeff Ament start looking like Chris-In-The-Morning from K-BEAR in Sicely, Alaska? This band is so amazing. Let's just all hope Eddie can stand it long enough to make us a larger Pearl Jam library, (Hello - I meant that from a music lover's standpoint!) Joe Satriani's record release bash at the Whisky was a treat, too! I limoed up with a few winners and had a blast! Paw in Phoenix was pretty damn amazing, too. What a party! Thanks so much to Trish, Sarah and Tami - my rocker chick buds - for a week I'll never forget. Now, any more parties I can go to in November? Oh yeah, adds? Play Green Apple Quick Step, Dig and Gary Hoey, they all rule. Bye!

KRXQ, WBAB, WDVE, WMMR, WNEW, WIYY, KQRS, KFOG, KTCZ...we got the low end, we got the high end and we got a slew of them on the straight and narrow. It's breaking at every format (rock, alternative, hit and adult alternative, plus it's Buzz Bin at MTV). And how about Machines Of Loving Grace? It's not straight-ahead metal. It's not meat and potatoes rock 'n roll. It's not a pinhead band (sorry, Bruce and Phil). It's a great band (I've seen them and I'm not kidding) that sells records where it's getting played. I guess that means the listeners like it (thanks for the $60,000 education, dad. It helped me make that statement). WXRT, KRXQ, WKLL, WDRE, KRQQ, KEZE, KMOD, WFNX, KWOD, WHFS. Oh! Duh, now I get it. Rock and alternative. They can both play it. Look out for a band called Bad Religion. You're getting it this week.

From the company that has always consistently given us all great shit, I'm here today to give you great amounts of shit for not taking the time to listen to and carefully consider this song, "Cannonball." Namely, the 23,000-unit a week, Buzz Binned, on tour with Nirvana, critically lauded, former Top 5 radio, retail and phone grabber "Cannonball" all the above is true and taking place right now. So, flex on over to the Mount Everest-sized stack of CDs over there on the corner desk and extract "Cannonball." All together now, con gusto! PS: Not a one-listen song, I promise.

New adds for the Gin Blossoms' "Found Out About You" this week include WMMR, WKLC, WRKI, WBLM, WAQX, WOUR, KLBJ and many, many more. We also received rotation bumps at WDVE, KSHE. WQBZ, KATT and many more. We took a jump in actual detections from 36-28. Full-length album sales rapidly approaching 800,000, and major support from MTV. An established band at the format - the Gin Blossoms deliver! KRRK moves Therapy?'s "Screamager" from a light rotation into heavy. The tune is also picking up phones at KAZY and WBTZ. KISS, WRZX, KRXQ and many, many more realize that they have a solid, reactive track that will perform. Check out the video - it's a Buzz Clip on MTV. On tour now. WKLL, WAVF, WMMS, KRRK and more are out of the box supporters of Paw's "Couldn't Know." Those of you who haven't heard this song yet "Couldn't Know" how well it will work. Please listen to this track again and watch the video. Greetings, friends, from the burning depths of Southern California. If you've ever wondered what it was like in hell, book a flight now, It's been stressful; like the floods in the Midwest a few months back, the pandemonium of natural disaster has created a difficult time for all. Fortunately for us at KNAC, Long Beach is cool...although our thoughts are with our friends who have been affected. Okay, enough of the mushy ..here's what's up: Our top phone records continue to be Tool and Sepultura, Danzig is very hot and a big request record, and for Rage Against The Machine, we felt the most pure rock-oriented tune to play next was "Know Your Enemy." We threw it on a few times, and it shot right up to become one of our top phone records. "Fathom," from LA locals Greta, sounds great on-air, as does Tad's "Grease Box." We did a Joe Satriani Time Machine live listening party at The Whisky with a bunch of freebies for listeners, and a stellar performance from Joe and his band. Thanks to all involved in the arrangements for the show and backstage schmoozing. That's the poop...c-yal

It's official, The Smashing Pumpkins' album, Siamese Dream is Platinum! The Smashing Pumpkins' new single, "Today," should be on every rock station on the planet. For real hard rock stations, check out "Geek USA." Brother Cane continues its way on up the charts with "That Don't Satisfy Me." Cracker's "Low" is proving to be more active than herpes on a person who hasn't slept in two months. Radio is reporting huge phones and SoundScan has nearly doubled over the last couple of weeks. "Low" is also blowing out in call-out research. Don't ignore this great song, it fits any format of the rock variety. Wouldn't "Low" be a great segue into "I'm Eighteen" by Alice Cooper?

"Turn It Up" is proving itself to be the choice record for daytime airplay on Rock Radio! Continual upward movement in BDS and ALL track charts (21'Album Network, 28"/R&R). The current spins and rotations should be an indicator to anyone not yet playing "Turn It Up" that this has strong radio appeal. One advantage this track has over other singles out there is that it stands out amidst the overload of guitar oriented music currently consuming rock radio airwaves. The recording is so incredibly clean and precise and the music rich and textured. A repeated comment coming back from programmers is that it sounds great on the air. The stores are saying that this new album is bringing in those upper demo consumers. The album, Try Anything Once, is ranking Top 100 in over 30 markets. Alan Parsons is a classic rock artist with a proven track record: 10 Grammy nominations, eight albums Top 10 at Rock Radio, credits for his work on The Beatles' Abbey Road album and Pink Floyd's Dark Side Of The Moon, and has graced us with the success of HIT songs at multi-format formats. Play "Turn It Up."

For those of you who are unaware, we are an independent label based in Houston, Texas, whose roster includes Louisiana native guitar monster, Tab Benoit. Aside from riding several blues charts, Tab's debut album, Nice And Warm, has been backed heavily by Adult Radio, making listeners feel "So High," and resulting in sell out performances in San Francisco, Boulder and Minneapolis. With record sales pushing 50,000, features on prime time television (i.e. "Northern Exposure"), as well as sterling reviews and accolades from noted publications, (i.e. San Francisco Chronicle and Examiner, Album Network, Denver Post, Guitar Player and Guitar World, to mention a few), Tab Benoit's Nice And Warm has proven to go beyond the blues. This kind of success can lead us nowhere else but to the doors of Rock Radio with his next single, "Nice And Warm."

Well, since everyone seems to be so damn BDS happy and they don't see fit to have a monitoring station in Modesto, I thought I would give you a taste of what's not being counted on the BDS chart. Here are just our heavies and how many spins they got for the week of November 1 through the 7th: Heart's "Black On Black" - 33; Rush's "Stick It Out" - 32; Tom Petty's "Mary Jane's Last Dance" - 31; Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies' "Shakin' The Blues" - 30; Eric Clapton's "Stone Free" - 30; Lenny Kravitz's "Is There Any Love In Your Heart" - 30; Pearl Jam's "Daughter" - 29; Melissa Etheridge's "I'm The Only One" - 29; Aerosmith's "Amazing" - 28; Cry Of Love's "Bad Thing" - 27; Nirvana's "Heart-Shaped Box" - 24; Alice In Chains' "Down In A Hole" - 22.

Those are just the heavies; our mediums get between 14 and 21 plays a week, depending upon the daypart. As it was explained to me, the nearest BDS monitoring station is in Sacramento or Fresno. KDJK's signal was never meant to reach those two cities. If BDS is going to monitor Modesto/Stockton airplay for their chart, why don't they put a monitoring station in either Modesto or Stockton? The last census, taken in 1990, shows the Modesto market as the #96 metro area in the country; Stockton is probably in the 80s in metro. The 1990 census also shows that the area that KDJK's signal covers has a population of at least 1.2 million people. We're not a hick, backward-ass farm town; the Central Valley of California deserves to be treated like the thriving metro area that it is. So, BDS, how about giving us the coverage we deserve? Put a monitoring station in Modesto or Stockton and save yourself some money. Because in a few years, when this area is even bigger, it will cost more to have it done. Any help from our friends at the record labels in getting our area better service from BDS would be greatly appreciated. Why shut out a station that actually plays what they add from the BDS chart? Anyway, don't the labels pay BDS for the service? How many other markets like ours aren't being counted properly?

Highlights from CMJ 93: 5) Chain smoking to combat nerves during the Oprah Rittberg radio panel. 4) Finding a $75 charge on the bill for the mini bar in my room. 3) Monster Magnet delivering a crushing set to a sold-out CBGB's. 2) Therapy? rocking a huge crowd at The Grande (the new song, "Knives," ruled!). 1) Shooting off fireworks with Monster Magnet inside and out the window of their hotel room! Special thanks to Prue and Delaney for switching brains with me. Attention Soundgarden fans! Check out the track "Show Me" on Arista's No Alternative. Also, the new Hendrix tribute album on Reprise has a band called M.A.C.C. doing a song called "Hey Baby (Land Of The New Rising Sun)." Upon further inspection of the liner notes, you'll find that M.A.C.C. are Chris Cornell, Matt Cameron, Jeff Ament and Mike McCready for those of you scoring at home, that's Temple minus Stone! Therapy? sales take a big jump this week, as the "Screamager" buzz clip action kicks in! Great hook, sales and MTV support equals you on board "Screamager" "Couldn't Know" from Paw starts to steamroll. Will you be flattened or fattened by the success of this track? Prepare for the Superunknown.

It's always for a great cause...and all we wanted to do was to have a little fun! Then those half-necked, long-haired, guitar-slinging "metalheads" ruined it for everyone. "Metalheads" was referring to those mild-mannered Southern gentlemen of Jackyl, of all things...we're not talking Anthrax, Slayer or Metallica blazing through the night, just Jackyl on a lovely Sunday afternoon in downtown Ft. Myers. Was it the "moon" on-stage? Was it the fact that Sunday services were inaudible for a four-block range? Was it tainted because of eight arrests from a crowd of over 13,000 (including four for tree urination)?! No! Then why did the mayor ban rock concerts from Ft. Myers? Jesse James Dupree of Jackyl also wanted to know, and has since he first called and asked to speak with Mayor Wilbur. The mayor would not return his call or our call, or any calls on the subject, for that matter. However, in today's newspaper, he has re-thought the situation, and as long as the sound is kept to a low decibel, we can still have our rock 'n roll. At first, George Thorogood was also considered in the no-no pile, but the mayor has since changed his mind, because he likes George. And who doesn't?! Thanks and more thanks to both labels, ERG and Geffen, for making this thing happen. PS: Again, we collected approximately 15,000 pounds of canned food donations for area distribution.

Thank you, Julie, at WNYU (my alma mater shares your frequency, sorry), the most gracious hostess, Derrik/WMWM, Mike/WRPR, Peter/WCCR, Goz/WXPL, Steve/WYFS, Dennis/WXUT, Steve "The Tree," Bill from Aim, Bill from Foundations, Prue, Psycho, Rob at Concrete Management, Munsey and Chainsaw, two of the nicest people I know. It was great being back home, but I have one question. What the HELL happened to the VIP room at the Limelight? All I know is I get up there and I'm blinded by disco lights. And the rooms in the back? There were mirrors, but they weren't on the walls. Well, once again it was a pleasure, and don't forget, Victims Of Internal Decay, Post Mortem and EI Duce.

So, after seeing The Mothers at The Grande, in NYC, it was only fitting to rename myself for this week's comments. So, Motorhead is going over well by now. We know you can't wait for the tour to come through. For Love Not Lisa has the most intense cover, with music as powerful to go along with it; dig on this record big-time. Post Mortem fits right in with all your hard and heavy programming. Talking about hard and heavy, Stressball and Tungsten have the goods. Give both of these records a good, strong listen. Smashing Pumpkins are on the road. Tad is on the road as well. See these shows when they come to your town. Muzza Chunka heads out with Life Of Agony and The Cro-Mags soon. Talk about a brutal venue. Well, anyway, it was great to see most of you in my hood for CMJ last week. A lot of new faces, and quite a few old ones. Despite the negative waves from the Waldorf, it was okay. Yo, Jones, we still wanted to see ya here. Till next week.

The band will be coming your way with Muzza Chunka and CroMaga REAL SOON! Call us for info. Type O Negative is still and slways a top priority with a new CD single (with unreleased track) coming soon. Malevolent Creation and O.W.P. are the new ones to be working with as well, so do the right thing. Keep jammin' on Cynic, Believer, Treponem Pal and Pestilence. In true daytime drama fashion, Zip (patron saint of all Pinheads), has been snatched back from the jaws of death by famed Hollywood homewrecker Whoopi Goldberg, Goldberg, rumored to be stricken herself with terminal embarrassment due to her involvement with Ted "Uncle Remus" Danson, revived the deceased Pinhead with a controversial medical procedure known as "the human pacifier." It was at this time that the actress made public her decision to end her relationship with Danson and "begin shacking up with Zip." Danson, obviously distraught at this turn of events, has apparently discarded his current "blackface" persona and has adopted a look that includes the flaming tuft of hair and "Y-Guy" frock normally associated with the famous Pinhead. In related news, Alert Music act The Pinheads are putting the finishing touches on their highly-anticipated new extended play compact disc. Alert spokes-model Tawnie Peaks denies that the release will be titled Whoopii, Zip, Ted And Tawnie. Stay tuned.

Three days later and the CMJ fog is just starting to clear from my eyes. It was the same old craziness, but I got to hang with some cool people. "Slumber" from Die Monster Die has gotten great reaction within the first couple of days. I want everyone to jump on this band now, to prepare for their release in February. They will be playing many dates on the East Coast, so get out there and see them. Black Train Jack played at the jam-packed Continental at CMJ. I must say, the coolest part of the convention was when Johnny Vegas from The Mighty Mighty Bostones mentioned on his panel that Black Train Jack was one of his favorite new bands. Go, Johnny Vegas! They will be heading to Sepulturaville (BRAZIL, that is) to play a couple of shows. We have them, the long-awaited exclusive dates on the East Coast from Type O Negative. You don't want to miss this truly life-changing experience. Dog Eat Dog is back from their European jaunt with Bad Brains. They played a killer show with the Beatnuts the Sunday after CMJ, with a special appearance from Joey Z. from Life Of Agony.

A Retail Store

Snoop Doggy Dogg - the record of the century, but where is the release? Interscope and Atlantic Records have been talking about this release since Dr. Dre's The Chronic album went double-Platinum.

That is all the retailers have had, a lot of talk and bogus street dates. Why have they delayed this record for such a long time? Missing all the Dr. Dre hype. The record companies have been less informative about the release than Snoop has been about his involvement in all his many police problems. Now that we are getting close to another street date on the Doggy Style release, November 23, they release the video to the video outlets. They also go to radio eight weeks before the record is "supposed" to come out. Why? This record needs no hype! This record needs to be released! Record companies are always screwing up releases. Why? Retailers have never understood. Many record companies take retailers for granted. We need to work together, creating a strong force. Not needless hype. Could it be that these record company executives are constant "chronic" addicts? They must be, to HYPE the biggest record of the year. The single has been reported "bootlegged" in the major cities. Taking advantage of old hype. Let's not be surprised if this record ships double-Platinum and returns triple-Platinum. All because some stupid record executives couldn't get their crap together.

94 'HJY celebrated 12 years of rockin' Southern New England on Thursday, Rocktober 28, but, we were faced with a dilemma when planning this party. With the revival of the Providence club scene (the re-opening of the infamous Lupo's Heartbreak Hotel and the grand opening of the Strand Theater)...how do you choose between the two? Well, we figured, the hell with itl Let's just invade them both! Simple logistics alley separates the two clubs) enabled 94 'HJY to host our 12th Birthday Bash And Block Party at both venues. We sold "backstage" passes as tickets for $2.94, which got listeners into both clubs all night. The show sold-out in four hours! The Strand Theater hosted Dog Society, Gary Hoey, Baby Animals and Extreme, while at Lupo's, it was John Waita, Big Country, Matthew Sweet and The Mighty Mighty Bos-Stones! Bill, Michele and I would like to thank a number of people for their help in getting this show together: Imago's Jocelyn Taub and Ron Poore, Reprise's Andrew Govatsos and Michael Linehan, EastWest's Mark Snider and Matt Pollack, A&M's Ken Lucek and Chuck Bliziotis, Zoo's Temmy Skripek, Mercury's Don Masters and Dave Einstein, RCA's Paul Calabretta and Dave Loncao, suport from Interscope's Rodney Stevens and the invaluable efforts of Could Be Wild's Bruce Moser! Elektra Entertainment

Greetings - here is the story for the rest of the year on the Elektra front: November 15, 1993 - The Breeders' "Divine Hammer" - remixed to be more radio friendly...vocals more pronounced and clear guitar..by Fred Maher. This mix will be available to the public via the "Divine Hammer" CD-Maxi, which also features three previously unreleased Bsides. They are currently on tour with Nirvana. They are selling and they rock. Unfortunately, this shipped early - radio has it and hopefully you do, too. November 22, 1993 - Bjork's "Big Time Sensuality" - this is the track off the record that dance is most excited about, and stations that have already delved in have come back saying this is the song that really gets response. We have a new video, as incredible as "Human Behaviour," and Bjork is just a great artist. We are also releasing a 12" with "Big Time Sensuality" and "Violently Happy" (the last track that went to dance, and is doing really well). That's it for now

The new Kate Bush CD, The Red Shoes, showed up - weeks earlier than I expected. It's a wonderful album - maybe her best ever. I love "And So is Love." Other good tracks include the title song and "Constellations Of The Heart." Have you gotten into The Freddy Jones Band CD, Waiting For The Night? A versatile collection of songs that has the perfect Adult Rook Radio sound. My favorite is their rendition of "Night To Day." For a good rocker, try "Colors Of The Light." The album starts out with a bang...two songs that are getting good Adult Rock Radio play already: "Take The Time" and "One World." A fabulous debut album. Can't wait to see their live show! Chery! Wheeler has made some interesting albums in her music career, and her new album, Driving Home, has some seally fine songwriting on it. The title song gets the nod as the best song on the disc. Also, check out "Orbiting Jupiter," co-written with Janis Ian. Jonathan Edwards has his mark all over this album. For some honky-tonk blues, Solomon Burke, the king of rock and soul, returns with a new collection of songs on Certified Gold Ribbon Classics. Fun music for any radio station! Local Boulder, Colorado, music: The Samples have released their new album, The Last Drag. To my ears, "Everytime" is the best track. "Still Water" sounds really fine. You might be familiar with these from their sampler disc that was released last month. On the full disc, check out "The Streets In The Rain" and "Little Silver Ring."

Building Bridges With Van Halen

Sammy & Eddie

This year's annual Bridge School benefit concert drew several superstar performers with benefit founder Neil Young again headlining the November 6 set at the Shoreline Amphitheater outside of San Francisco.

Among the scheduled acts were Simon & Garfunkel, Bonnie Raitt, Melissa Etheridge and Ann and Nancy Wilson, but showgoers got a special surprise when Sammy Hagar and Eddie Van Halen appeared on stage!

The "Red Rocker" is no stranger to the Bridge School benefit shows, this being his third unannounced appearance (he holds the record for surprise sets), but this was the first time a member of his full-time band came along.

After performing a solo rendition of "The Love," a new, as yet unrecorded song that Van Halen debuted on their last tour, Sammy brought out Eddie, who accompanied him on the ivories for acoustic versions of "Love Walks In" and "Right Now."

Then it was time for Eddie to go solo, as he picked up an acoustic guitar and jammed out "Spanish Fly." After their 20-minute set, Eddie reappeared with none other than Simon & Garfunkel! The legendary axe master helped the famous folkies on "Sounds Of Silence."

Amazingly enough, the Bridge benefit marked the first time that Sammy and Eddie performed "unplugged." Lest we forget, Sammy and Eddie joined in the all-star finale of Neil's "Rockin' In The Free World."

For those of you not familiar with Bridge, the program was founded in 1986 to enable physically challenged, severely speech-impaired children to achieve full participation in their educations through innovative teaching approaches and cutting-edge technology, so Sammy, Eddie, Neil et al were rockin' for an excellent cause!

Just Say No To Yes?

In an unexpected turn of events, the recent release of Symphonic Music Of Yes by RCA/Victor has sparked a controversy among members of the band it celebrates!

In a press release issued late last week, Yes' frontman, Jon Anderson, airs his "serious reservations" about the new project. Anderson states, "Originally, I was to be the creative force of the project and hire the arranger, producer and orchestra. The idea of the album was to recreate classic music for the evolving fans of Yes, but I feel this project is not near the musical potential I imagined."

Apparently, Anderson was led to believe he would play a bigger part in the production of this album: "I was told I would be involved in the musical development of the album, and I am shocked and disappointed that I was not," he confirms. "This album has turned out to be a travesty of some music of which I am proud. It is totally misleading to the fans of Yes."

And Anderson's not the only one who's got a bone to pick...founding bassist Chris Squire says, "When I first heard that there would be an orchestral version of our music, I was extremely flattered. In my opinion, however, the record company seems to be trading off on the name of Yes, rather than the orchestra that performs the music. Anyone purchasing this album in the mistaken belief that it is a Yes album should not hesitate to return it."

Could it be that Jon and Chris are unhappy with the new release? Possibly! Looks like the talk of Anderson touring with a full symphony orchestra in support of the album isn't gonna be fulfilled...we'll keep you posted!

All-American Update

Hey, they sponsor our fine, fine section, so we gotta cover 'em, right?! Just kiddin', Moe! Anyway, here's the latest news from King Rubin's domain....

Los Angeles' The Freewheelers have signed with American Recordings (making them the first group to come aboard the label since it put "Def" to rest), and they'll soon begin recording their label debut, with A&R guru/ace producer George Drakoulias at the helm.

Keep an eye open for these guys, who are criss-crossing the States on a warm-up club tour as we speak - you'll be glad you did!

And in other American news, Rich Robinson of The Black Crowes (another band signed to American by Drakoulias, we remind you) tied the knot in Atlanta last week!

Rich (he's the brother with the looks, right Chris?) wed Australian model Emma Snowball (that's her real name, we swear), and Jellyfish played the reception!

Rich, here's hoping you and Emma have a real happy one!

Sharpe Dunaway with KMJX gives David Allen Ross some competition:

Q: What's the difference between a hooker, a lover and a wife?

A: The hooker says, "Faster, faster, faster." The lover says, "Slower, slower, slower." The wife says, "Blue... I think I'll paint the ceiling blue."

Metallica Puts Out Some Killer "Shit"

Do you suffer from chronic MM (Metallica Mania)? Well, you'll soon have reason to celebrate, as rock's reigning gods of thrash will release Metallica Live Shit: Binge & Purge on November 23!

Live Shit: Binge & Purge, a collection that will satisfy even the most obsessive Metallica fans (you know who you are!), will feature a deluxe "road case," which will contain three videocassettes of touring footage - over five hours of footage!

Of course, the flow of goodies doesn't stop there! There are three CDs (or two cassettes) included...total those up with the music featured on video and ya got nearly nine hours of live Metallica!

What? You want more?! Okay, you got it - a four-color booklet and a couple of special tour souvenirs: An infamous "Snakepit" pass and a stencil of the "scary guy" featured on the package's artwork.

Two of the three videos cover the band's 1992 concert in San Diego, which was part of the "black album" tour, while the third showcases the band's Seattle gig from the...And Justice For All tour of 1988/89.

The CDs/cassettes feature Metallica's most recent live recordings, taken from the band's five-night run in Mexico City this year, and you can find oldies, B-sides, covers and cult classics among the tunes - talk about some fine shit, indeed!

Wendi Cermak, on the first floor at Net 40, throws this in:
A rope walks into a bar to order a drink. The bartender says,
"Sorry...we don't serve rope here." So the rope walks out of the bar, ties himself up in a knot, tosses up his hair and walks back into the bar to order a drink. The bartender asks, "Are you the rope that was just in here?" "No," replies the rope,

On The Road Again

It's obvious that the 90s will be the decade of Jimi Hendrix; it seems that the legendary rock guitar innovator has never been more popular than now! The tribute album coming on Reprise, Paul Rodgers' live EP of Hendrix covers and MCA's box set will surely fuel an even bigger wave of Hendrix mania come Christmastime.

But record releases aren't the only things to expect this year; "Jimi Hendrix - On The Road Again" will soon hit the national circuit!

Put together by world-renowned photographer/exhibition organizer Adrian Boot, "On The Road Again" will feature interactive activities that encourage visitors to put their own spin on Hendrix's legend, all the while learning about the man that changed rock guitar forever.

For example, "The Electric Church," a sculpture with six columns (each column representing a string of a guitar), is one interactive exhibit. Participants will be able to touch one or more columns, triggering random samples of Hendrix riffs, allowing them "to play guitar like Jimi" - pretty cool!

Another display, "The Kaleidosphere," features a touch-sensitive television screen that allows viewers to involve themselves with unique moments in Hendrix's life, via live clips and a hi-fi soundtrack.

In addition to these and other interactive exhibits (a virtual reality exhibit, which will allow you to jam with a computerized Jimi is on the way!) are over 40 panels of digitally enhanced artwork and unreleased photos of the guitarist.

This exhibit, hands down, is a must-see; look for "Jimi Hendrix - On The Road Again" to hit the college tour circuit in the beginning of the new year. And if you're on the East Coast, you can catch a downsized preview of the show - it's currently in NYC, and it will be touring through the Southeast soon.

We'll keep you posted on this revolutionary new exhibit as it develops!

Elton Goes To Court

Elton John won more than $5500,000 in his libel suit against the sleazy British tabloid "The Sunday Mirror." The famed piano man brought legal action against the paper after it ran a story last December claiming he was on a "diet of death."

The story claimed that the pop superstar was sighted at a Hollywood party chewing his food, then spitting it out. John said that the article portrayed him as a "sham and a hypocrite," since he's been very public about his victories over bulimia and drug abuse.

Bo Sanders at KXUS faxed this in last week:

Q: What were River Phoenix's last words?

A: "Are you sure this is safe to mix with alcohol?"

Aerosmith, Anthrax, Jackyl, Megadeth, Primus, Red Hot Chili Peppers, and, of course, White Zombie are among the rockin' contributors to this album. And Beavis & Butt-Head, not wanting to be left out, have even contributed their vocal stylings to the disc!

"Come To Butt-Head," produced by Nile Rodgers (and written by B&B, we're told), will be their recorded debut - watch for it! And look for The Beavis & Butt-Head Experience to be released November 23...heh-heh-heh!

P.S.: Did we tell you B&B duet with Cher on "I Got You Babe"?

And now KMJX's David Allen Ross:

Q. Whar's the difference between Joe Montana and a dellat bil?

A: A dollar bill is good for four quarters.

This Story Doesn't Suck!

Way back when, we recruited a pair of greenhorn television personalities to help host our Aerosmith live tour broadcast...we knew then that Beavis & Butt-Head had what it took to become stars (excuse us while we pat ourselves on the back for a few minutes)!

Well, those two fans of music that doesn't suck have decided to move into the recording industry! Geffen will soon release The Beavis & Butt-Head Experience, a compilation album reaturing newly recorded songs by bands that bear B&B's stamp of approval.

AMC Update

As the sweeps go on, the show heats up! The hunting trip with Ted and Tad could prove deadly, especially now that Ted has the scoop on Tad's and Dixie's affair...thanks to Edmund's mistaking him for Tad!

Will Brooke become pregnant, as predicted? There are at least 20 scenarios that could develop through this predicament - what do you think will happen?

Laurel and Jack continue to be sickening; I still say they should keep her locked up! How soon before Kendall's father makes the incestuous move on her? They casted this Fields guy quite well...he makes a great dirty old man!

From Mr. Invisible we get this...:

Q: Why did the blonde snort Nutri-Sweet?

A: She thought it was diet coke.

That's it for me! I'm Tommy Nast with the Nasty Nooz.

The Nasty Nooz is written and edited by Tommy Nast and Benjamin Plotkin.
