Publisher's PageTHE GREATNESS OF HUMILITY

A very positive aura of love for one's fellow man filled the room at the Al Jefferson Testimonial Dinner held recently in the Nation's Capitol. All of the participants dedicated the entire evening to an unbroken outpouring of praise for Baltimore-Washington's own 35-year radio/record industry veteran upon the bittersweet occasion of his retirement.

And what a night it was! The grand master of ceremonies, Jack "The Rapper" Gibson, was in rare form as he carried the evening's festivities along at a smooth-as-velvet pace. Of course, the Rapper managed to throw the honoree a few of his own distinctive curves. But it was all in the spirit of camaraderie born of decades of working together as pioneers in black radio.

That the Al Jefferson Testimonial was well attended by the radio and record industry is a classic understatement documented by the photo highlights inside this issue. Everybody was there and, to be sure, those who were not had very good reasons and sent the requisite telegrams.

Special kudos are in order for the Testimonial Committee/Chairpersons who coordinated this labor of love so flawlessly: Linda Gray, Cathy Hughes, Zeke Zanders, Ruben Rodriguez, Vida Smith, Wanda Hayes, Joyce Heider and all those who worked with them toward its success.

The most memorable moment of a truly outstanding evening, however, came as former proteges and colleagues alike spoke eloquently and with heartfelt sincerity of Al Jefferson the teacher... the communicator... the creator. But most of all, they spoke of the humility of the man. No one could ever remember having heard "Mr. J." raise his voice even during the trying times of his life -- including his many illnesses and those of his beloved wife. Kenny Gamble aptly summarized these sentiments when he said that what he would most like to take from the affair was simple, "the humility of Al Jefferson."

Ditto, Kenny. Too often in the peaks and valleys of this crazy business of ours, we succumb either to the highs of ego-tripping or the depths of despair. But our special mentor has by his own example demonstrated to all of us the most basic lesson of survival in this industry, as in life itself: that we should not take ourselves or our problems too seriously. From humility there comes real strength -- and ultimately, the greatness embodied in a man of Al Jefferson's caliber.

So while we say a reluctant farewell to Al as he gracefully bows out from active participation in the industry, we know that his legacy will always be there to guide and inspire.

God bless...

Re: "Loose Ends"

Dear Sidney:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Black Radio programmers for giving "Loose Ends" the rotation it deserves.

It's not very often that a new act tops the Black music chart in BRE, Cashbox, Billboard and R&R. The fact that the group is from England reinforces the belief that Black music is universal.

Black Radio, Jheryl Busby and the MCA promotion staff validated my decision to sign the group.

Thanks again!

Respectfully yours,

A MESSAGE FROM
T.C. THOMPKINS

Throughout the unsettling events of the last weeks, I was honored to learn just how many true friends I had in radio. I greatly appreciate and will always remember the support that has been shown to me during this transition in my career.

I was fortunate enough to enjoy some very outstanding and productive years with Epic Records--made possible in no small part by your contributions.

The circumstances, however, have now allowed me to dedicate my time to pursuing another endeavor which happens to be something I have been interested in for quite some time.

I am pleased to announce that I have formed two companies: R. P. Consulting, which is now working with Sade and Top Cat Music, which presently has four acts signed. The company is also negotiating with major labels to secure a distribution deal.

I am looking forward to putting my first Top Cat record on the streets soon. So I'll be seeing you back at radio!

Again, thanks for your support through the years. And P.S., I'm doing just fine.

DISTRIBUTION

New York: Philadelphia International Records, a legendary name in the annals of black popular music, has signed a long-term agreement for exclusive distribution and promotion with Manhattan Records, a division of Capitol Industries. The pact was announced by Bhaskar Menon, Chairman and Chief Executive of EMI Music and Capitol Industries, and Bruce Lundvall, President of Manhattan Records, at the conclusion of negotiations with Kenneth Gamble and Leon Huff, founders and Chief Executives of Philadelphia International Records.

Remarkd Menon, "I am absolutely delighted at the alliance between Manhattan and Philadelphia International. We regard Kenny and Leon as exceptional talents and are most excited and honored to form this association with them and their distinguished roster of artists."

Commenting on the new merger, Kenny Gamble noted that it reunited the Gamble-Huff team with Bruce Lundvall, among others, with whom they had formerly worked during their highly successful association with CBS. Gamble added that Menon has pledged "the full support of his entire organization, as well as his personal commitment, to the success of this union."

An August release is scheduled for a new album by the O'Jays, Love Fever, the first under the new agreement.

Los Angeles: The Beverly Wilshire Hotel was the scene of a tribute to Outstanding Women in Entertainment hosted by Susan Taylor, Editor-in-Chief of Essence Magazine and Terri Williams, PR Director. The event was co-sponsored by Coca-Cola and M&M Products in conjunction with Essence's 15th Anniversary celebration.

Among those honored was Katherine Jackson who was cited for her "nurturing spirit" as the mother of a family of celebrated performers. All of the Jackson clan turned out in force to share in the tribute to their mother, with the exception of Michael and Jermaine who were out of the country.

Daughters Rebbie, LaToya and Janet, as well as Tito and Carol, Jackie and Enid were all on hand for the Essence event.

The award, a beautiful sculpture depicting a woman whose extended arms form a victory sign, was accepted by an obviously moved Katherine Jackson, who said that she had just done "what comes naturally."

Other honorees included Phyllis Tucker Vinson, VP of Children's Programming for NBC Entertainment; and keynote speaker Alyce Carew, President of Rainbow TV Works.

RAP RECORD AIDS
MISSING CHILDREN EFFORT

Baton Rouge: In an effort to raise the consciousness of young people about the dangers of child abduction, a new record produced by two Baton Rouge-based deejays, collectively known as "Reality," has debuted on Royal Shield Records.

Aptly titled "Missing Kids" and featuring the popular rap format, the record generated more than 200 phone calls from young listeners when it received initial airplay on local station WTKL. In subsequent weeks, national interest and response to the vital message of the record have continued to build.

According to Homer J. Sheeler, President of Royal Shield, 25 percent of the profits from the sale of the record will be donated to Childkeyppers International, one of the most active child recovery organizations in the country. A poster with photos of 15 missing children will be included in the commercial package and promotional copies will be distributed to Chilkeyppers chapters throughout the country.

For more information, contact Royal Shield Productions at (504) 383-8671.

JOAN LOGUE-HENRY,
V.P. CORPORATE UNITY
BROADCASTING:
COMMUNICATIONS
OPPORTUNITY FOR CIVIC ACTION

Logue-Henry is fulfilling a role she believes crucial, vital to the survival and advancement of black people in this country.

"Having done some advance p.r. work for political candidates," she said recently, "it became apparent to me how important the media is and the power it can have over our lives.

"My experiences have also shown me how important radio is to black people.

"Although churches and community newspapers remain an important source of information about local events," she continued, "you put something on radio and it can be heard all over in seconds, inform people on either side of the country.

"With black people having limited access to television," she further said, "radio is one of our best tools to get information to a large number of black people. No other medium can do that."

For the last nine plus years, Logue-Henry has been employed at Unity, coming to the company first as the director of public relations for the National Black Network (NBN).

NBN serves more than 100 affiliates nationwide with potential to reach 75% of the country's black population. It is but one of Uni-ty's multi-media properties and operations.

The job grew, and eventually she began to handle public relations and promotional projects for special projects.

She became responsible for developing the network's image in the press, formulating public information strategies, corporate relations and other promotional activity.

In her current position, which she's held for the past two years, Logue-Henry has added to her plethora of responsibilities keeping tabs on important legislation pertaining to the broadcast industry and administrative proceedings of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC).

She's perhaps best known for her co-founding of the World Institute of Black Communications, Inc., Unity's non-profit organization established in 1978 to broaden opportunities in the communications industry for Afro-Americans.

The most visible program sponsored by WIBC is the annual CEBA Awards, which honors those members of the marketing and advertising industry who have shown innovation and excellence in communicating messages to the large consumer audience that is black America.

Logue-Henry's background is as diverse as the many hats she now wears at Unity.

In addition to working as sales consultant for KLM Royal Dutch Airlines, she was an educator and administrative intern with the Yonkers Board of Education.

If that's not enough, she was also statewide coordinator of the women's division for the Howard Samuels for Governor campaign. She performed advance publicity work on the presidential campaign by Democratic Sen. Morris Udall.

In keeping with her thirst to contribute to the community, Logue-Henry has also served as a board member of the Westchester Civil Liberties Union and the Nigerian-American Society. She's also been a New York State delegate to the convention of the National Women's Political Caucus and a delegate to the White House Conference on Small Business.

Commenting on how her current activity is but a continuum of her previous civic contributions, Logue-Henry said, "Communications, providing information people want and need, is a civic duty.

"Reflecting the interests of your company and the people it serves is indeed an important job."

THE POINTER SISTERS: IN "CONTACT" AND ON TOP

by Gary Jackson

"The cream always rises to the top." That's an axiom that has held true in many phases of life - but nowhere does it ring louder or clearer than with the music industry and one group of superb vocalists in particular - The Pointer Sisters: Ruth, Anita and June. Since 1973, when the Pointers released their first album, they have experienced the usual peaks and valleys that accompany any music career. But if you can point to one circumstance that literally forced the hands of fate to cause their career to truly skyrocket, then that has to be the musical "contact" of the Pointer Sisters and their exclusive producer since 1978, Richard Perry.

"Contact" just so happens to be the name of the Pointer Sisters' newest album on the RCA label -- following the triple-platinum success of 1984's "Break Out," which saw the Pointers gather armsful of awards and accolades.

For instance: "Break Out" contained four Top-Ten hits, including "Jump (For My Love)," "Automatic," and two singles that had new life breathed into them: "I'm So Excited," a semi-hit several years ago that became a smash in 1984, and "Neutron Dance," a song that wasn't projected to make any kind of noise until it became the anthem for Eddie Murphy's blockbuster movie, "Beverly Hills Cop." Add to those songs a solid black radio hit called "I Need You," and you have one of the strongest sides ever committed to vinyl.

Recognition in the music industry was quite overwhelming as the Pointers walked away with Grammys for Best Vocals by a Pop Group ("Jump") and Best Vocal Arrangement ("Automatic"). The Sisters also copped top honors for Best Black Video Group and Best Black Recording Group at the American Music Awards at the beginning of 1985.

To get back to the pivotal point of the Pointer Sisters' success story, Richard Perry is perhaps the most natural producer to work with such a group since George Martin produced all of those smash albums by one highly acknowledged supergroup - the Beatles. A complete empathy with the parameters of a group is needed for the chemistry to come together. Fortunately, Richard Perry has, in the Pointer Sisters, a group whose vocal flexibility knows no boundaries. Their highly charged vocals add excitement to even the most mundane arrangements.

A background steeped in the rich tradition of gospel music -- compliments of their father, the late Reverend Elton Pointer -- helped to empower the Pointer Sisters to tackle any musical assignment fearlessly. Their father tried to distract the Sisters from blues and jazz: 'the devil's music.' Only thing that kept the Reverend from succeeding was the fact that he picked a bad (from the church's point of view) location to have children, that is, the music-rich environs of the Bay Area of Oakland, San Francisco and Berkeley, California.

The Bay Area had a cornucopia of groups such as Tower of Power, the Jefferson Airplane, Santana, the Grateful Dead, Elvin Bishop and more, all of whom played at the now legendary Fillmore West. Most of these groups had heard of the vocal prowess of the Pointer Sisters and often used them as backup vocalists for both live and studio sessions. It was only a matter of time before someone would commit the Pointer Sisters to vinyl, and that came in 1973.

Blue Thumb Records signed

the group and released a self-titled album to an avalanche of accolades that touted the group as the best thing to happen to vocals since Edison invented the phonograph. Those claims were substantiated by the fact that the first two Pointer Sisters albums went gold and one of the songs, "Fairy Tale," from the second album, "That's A Plenty," won a Grammy for Best Country Vocal Tune. The song, incidentally, was written by Anita and Bonnie Pointer, thus showing that the Sisters had a flair with the pen, too.

The direction of music favored by the Pointers by the Blue Thumb producers gravitated primarily toward jazz and scat vocal forms, with a slight dip into country. After several years of the same thing, the Pointer Sisters found themselves on a musical treadmill going nowhere. Their forays into nostalgia continued to impress a devoted, but small, listenership that was not enough to support four sisters who also had their own families to feed and clothe. The breaking point came in 1978 when Bonnie split from the group to try her hand at a solo career.

1978 was also the fortuitous year when the Three P's came together: Perry, Pointers and Planet Records. The Pointers were the first group signed to the label, which has since been absorbed by RCA. Such a phenomenally successful marriage as that between Richard Perry and the Pointers could only have been made in music heaven.

Since that time, the Pointers have enjoyed critical and popular acclaim with such hits as "Fire," "Happiness," "He's So Shy," and "Slow Hand." Richard Perry has wisely selected material for the Pointer Sisters from a diverse group of songwriters, including Bruce Springsteen, James Ingram, Barry Mann & Cynthia Weil and an assortment of newer talent such as Richard Page, Andy Goldmark, Steve George and others, thus insuring a consistently fresh approach with each album and song.

An important key to Richard Perry's production success is his intuitive ability to keep up with the latest trends in music, from the newest in technological equipment to what's happening on the streets. He has also wisely retained the gospel tradition that started the Pointer Sisters on the road to success. Equally significant is Perry's decision to spread the lead vocal chores evenly throughout the album -- assigning three songs apiece to Ruth, Anita and June. Thus, "Contact" is simply an extension of what got the Pointers to the top and what will keep them there.

"Pound, Pound, Pound" is a teasingly playful cut sung by June, who wants more than a call on the phone. "Back In My Arms" is a powerful vocal rendition by Ruth, with strong production throughout. "Burn Down the Night" features raunchy vocals by Anita, complemented by a smoking sax solo. "Bodies and Souls" reflects the tempo of the streets with its 'scratch' intro that flows smoothly into a semi-calypto feel. It must

PALO ALTO/TBA RECORDS PREPARE HOLIDAY RELEASES: SIGN WITH FOREIGN TERRITORIES

It is prudent to prepare for the high holidays in early winter during the searing heat of late summer.

That's exactly what Palo Alto/Tba Records is doing, according to label president Dr. Herb Wong.

The executive recently completed recording volume II of his tentatively titled "More Mistletoe Magic," featuring artists such as Dianne Reeves performing "Christmas Waltz." Also planned are Christmas improv entries by artists such as Chico Freeman, McCoy Tyner, Phil Woods, and vocal group Rare Silk which features the stylings of Shelia Jordon, Bobbe Norris with Larry Dunlap.

Wong noted that "This is the first time we have four vocal attractions" on one LP.

Last year, Volume I of the holiday album featured singer Meredith d' Ambrosia accompanied by pianist Hank Jones.

Volume I also featured the Elvin Jones Quintet, Free Flight, the Larry Vuckovich Sextet, the Full Faith and Credit Big Band, the Richie Cole Quintet, the Mal Waldron Quartet and the Les de Merle Sextet.

The holiday LPs are the outgrowth of Wong's annual six-hour Christmas special on KJAZ-FM in San Francisco, where he has been an air personality for nearly 20 years.

"After the first album, we received a lot of mail requesting additional, fresh material," he said, adding, "With this volume, we're seeking different musical environments and interpretive styles."

The LP and cassette will carry an $8.98 suggested list.

In other news from the label, Palo Alto/Tba also has signed exclusive distribution pacts for Canada, Mexico and the Philippines, and has also renewed an arrangement in Japan.

The label's director of sales, Don Lupo, commenting on the pacts, said that the agreements are part of an aggressive effort to strengthen international distribution this year based on the company's strong sales performances with product by George Howard, Maynard Ferguson, Rare Silk, David Diggs, McCoy Tyner and Victor Feldman's Generation Band.

Bobby Weiss and his One

World of Music company, Palo Alto's exclusive international representative, arranged the licensing pacts.

Starting Aug. 1, the new Canadian distributor is A&M Records Canada Ltd. The company's president, Gerry la Coursiere, signed the deal with PA for manufacturing and distribution of LPs, cassettes and compact discs when they become available for the company later this year.

That same day is the start of a renewed Japanese agreement with Victor Music International, a division of Japan Victor Co. The same deal applies for this territory.

Two deals that have just gone into effect are with Discos Real in Mexico and Ivory Records Corp. in the Philippines.

Mupo said that pacts in Mexico and the Philippines mark the first time such agreements have been entered in those territories.

Other territories currently selling PA product include Singapore, Hong Kong, New Zealand, Australia, Manila, Malaysia, Thailand, the UK and in Europe.

Under negotiation currently are licensing agreements with Israel, Nigeria, and Ghana.

be a killer when performed live because of its highly festive mood.

The title cut, "Contact," features staccato background vocals that propel Ruth's husky vocals to raging heights of urgency. Then there's the first single release, "Dare Me." It combines pop sensibilities with a streetwise funk bottom. It's a strong and straightforward song sung with emotional toughness by June (Baby Sister.) A very powerful song. Wrapping up "Contact" is "Freedom," a step away from the rollicking fun that permeates the album.

It's a somber tune that pleads for a lover's attention. A simple yet effective statement on the need for communication in a relationship.

The Pointer Sisters have successfully followed one powerful album ("Break Out") with another equally powerful one ("Contact"). Surely, there must lie more Grammy and American Music awards in the future for the Pointer Sisters and Richard Perry - a winning combination that is certainly in "contact" with contemporary musical tastes and trends -- and on top because of it.

Airwaves

Now that Ken Webb has officially returned to WBLS with Chuck Leonard taking his spot at WRKS and Pat Evans has become the official PD at WKTU, the NY market is about to settle down for the next ratings period although the rumors still persist regarding a new station with an urban format entering the contest since the format change of KTU.

WYLD-FM, rated number 1 in that market again, is proud to promote radio man Lee Clear to their new general sales manager for both AM and FM. Lee was formerly an account executive there and had held previous key radio positions.

WEA starts its fall push with a "Back To School Campaign" in conjunction with Tower Records in California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada, Hawaii, New York and Washington, D.C. Themed "Rock It Back To School," the promotion will feature sale prices on all WEA product and a consumer sweepstakes offering a complete home entertainment center as grand prize and Apple computers.

Additionally the LA branch of WEA and Show Industries have a cross-promotion through Music Plus themed "Take Off This Summer" offering sales on WEA product and a sweepstakes grand prize of a Volkswagen GTI.

For those of you who talk to our reporters Carolyn (r) and Marsha (l) weekly and don't yet know who they are, they are shown above with Billy Ocean on his visit to BRE offices. Now, make sure we know what you look like by sending in your pictures.

CHOCOLATE CITY'S GO-GO MUSIC...

impresario and TTED records president MAXX KIDD (see photo) is busier than ever these days producing, managing, directing and promulgating the highly publicized next domestic music industry craze - Go-Go Music!!

Following a recent fact-finding trip to Go-Go City, preceded by hours of researching the black subculture dance music and two days observing Kidd and his army of workers, bands performing, followers and enthusiasts in action, it appears there ain't no stoppin' the Go-Go movement in sight. All of the ingredients of success are in place and indicate that Go-Go Music is destined for worldwide fame and fortune.

"I believe black music is spiritual. That's why Go-Go Music is happening... and blacks that have refused to take part in it thus far will be more than glad to do so once it becomes stylish by way of Mr. Charlie bringing it through his way with his incredible marketing arms and advertising strength and dollars. In Europe, Go-Go is already big and it's only a matter of time before it takes over here," Kidd said.

The release of "Good to Go," an Island Trading Company feature film scheduled for a Sept. 1 national debut, features TTED Go-Go Bands: Chuck Brown and the Soul Searchers, Experience Unlimited (EU), Redds and The Boys (see photo), and Trouble Funk. The film promises to capture the essence of what makes Go-Go such a phenomenon with its fans - from eight to fifty. ART GARFUNKEL portrays a local reporter who blames Go-Go music for a teen's murder and rape. Later, he realizes his mistake and becomes an advocate for the Go-Go movement.

Other labelmates not in the movie include: MASS EXTENSION, YUGGIE (the only female Go-Go group), and HOT, COLD SWEAT.

While in Go-Go City, I observed literally thousands of pre-teens, teens and young adults at several clubs one evening that book Go-Go acts. I must say it was a little scary at first to see so many people packed in each club, dancing to the Go-Go beat, as though they were mesmerized by the multi-percussive, polyrhythmic funk, cowbells and staccato-jabbing r&b horn lines.

Unlike the Hip-Hop movement (where many major labels exercised a wait-and-see posture before getting involved with rap music), the Go-Go movement has attracted major label interest - although the music has not become a national phenomenon to date. Shortly after Island Records chief Chris Blackwell signed seven TTED acts to Atlantic (distributors of Island and its independent offshoot, 4th & Broadway Records) and announced plans to film a Go-Go movie, several major labels jumped on the Go-Go bandwagon and signed other Go-Go artists right out of Chocolate City.

With millions of dollars invested to date in Go-Go music, perhaps as the old Brook Benton hit suggests, 'it's just a matter of time' before Go-Go starts bustin' loose nationally and becomes a commercial success. I would not want to bet against Go-Go becoming the next dance music craze. What about you black deejays and retailers?

At press time, MAXX KIDD stated: "TTED Records will not be distributed by Island Records as originally planned. Presently, we are shopping and talking to other major labels. WEA will probably distribute our product."

NEW YORK MATCH

Reliable sources say a new urban pop station is coming to the Big Apple soon, with former WBLS PD, the legendary FRANKIE CROCKER, slated for the PD slot. Inner City Broadcasting chairman PERCY SUTTON reportedly has put together a 1.2 billion bid for Capital Cities TV stations in Detroit (WXYZ), Buffalo (WKEW-TV), and Tampa (WFTS-TV.) The objective is to give minorities a toehold in the TV business, even if it means giving up the lucrative WLIB-AM and WBLS-FM to help raise venture capital. An East Coast pressing plant pioneer is scheduled to open offices in the Apple in the near future. (Stay tuned...)

MISSING PERSONS DEPARTMENT: Has anyone seen former record executives PARIS ELEY (Columbia), TOMMY YOUNG (PolyGram), and BILL STATON (RCA)???

Black radio pioneer KAE WILLIAMS is set to take over Steve Turner's 11AM-2PM on-air slot at WHAT-AM beginning Aug. 5. Turner will remain aboard as the MD.

Pop Arts prexy LAWRENCE GOODMAN flew to London recently to shop for an international licensing deal for

ROXANNE SHANTE with entertainment lawyer Jonathan Black... Reports circulating out of the Apple say UTFO's label, Select Records, and

Pop Art Records are at it again... this time over the titles "Bite Me" and "Bite Me, Too."

Jazz Concert Review

ERNIE WATTS REIGNS AT PALACE COURT

It's evident that saxophone artist Ernie Watts is comfortable in a variety of settings. Because of his extensive work in the studio with artists ranging from Quincy Jones to The Rolling Stones, his character would seemingly be pervasive.

His concert tour with the Stones in 1982 and his winning a Grammy Award for "Best Jazz Instrumental" for his interpretation of "Chariots of Fire," gave him a new presence in the public eye.

Watts' recent appearances with artists like the Brazilian composer, Mayuto, have done little to change public and industry perception that this is a man of many faces.

His current Qwest Records LP, "Musician," gives Ernie Watts new dimension, as did his live sets recently at the Palace Court room in Hollywood.

The full flourishing sound heard on the album was limited by the size of the room and the lack of strings, but that circumstance allowed Watts to showcase more of his horn, especially on the moving "Where the Spirit Lives."

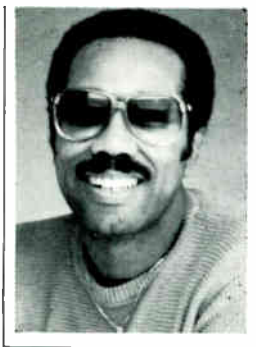

Watts was at once lyrical and rhythmic on this song, which was reflective, urgent, yet hopeful.

The live performance is a relatively new setting for Watts, so instead of relying heavily on stage presence, the hornman let songs like "Rock Camping" and "Red Dress" physically involve the audience.

The eclectic Watts is a technician who undoubtedly is more comfortable playing than performing. But as his music moves further from the instrumental cubbyhole of jazz to the open air of pop settings, Watts will have to turn on more stage juice.

The vocals of Phil Perry on "Music Prayer for Peace" and "Don't You Know" were crisp and emotive. Other veteran sessionmen, such as drummer John Robinson, Nathan East on bass and Don Grusin on keyboards played like they were happy to be out of the padded confines of the recording studio. The happy result was a royal set fronted by Ernie Watts at the Palace Court.

Pan Pacific Park in Los Angeles was a hubbub of activity over the weekend. Superphotog Eddie Wolfie ran to the park to do back-to-back photo shoots. Caught in his camera lens were two brand new groups headed for stardom. First up, Eddie captured the youthful group X-PUTZ (known at home as Rodney Potts, Ray Myrie and Garnell Johnson.) This trio's first release on MCA Records is due out just as soon as Master Mixer Louil Silas, Jr. does his thing. The song is an "invitation to all the young ladies of the world" said the group with a smile - its title is "Come Work My Body."

Next up, Eddie joined the crowd who gathered to listen to the classic and contemporary harmonies of the group SIZZLE (they are a/k/a Herb Harold, Derrick McLaughlin and Darryl Bradley) -- they sang as Eddie snapped away.

Both Sizzle and X-Purtz were tickled that Stevie Wonder's make-up artist fixed them up for the cameras. Her name is Val Williams.

Right after Eddie wrapped, he dashed back to the ANDRE! CYMONE shoot he'd begun earlier in the day. Eddie confided that the POINTER SISTERS video is really going to be a surprise and very exciting.

Another bright star to watch for is someone millions have seen. STEPHANIE SPRUILL has trotted the globe with JULIO IGLESIAS for the past several seasons. At the moment, she is in the studio and what she comes up with should be as hot as she is.

It was moving to see the televised replay of the renaming of a street in Indianola, MS to "B.B. King Boulevard." Time was when Indianola was not a place to visit if you didn't know which side of the tracks was which. It's good to see a great 'Music Man' like B.B. bridge that gap. And speaking of the renaming of streets, Detroit will honor Aretha Franklin's late father by renaming a street in that city, "Rev. Cecil Franklin Blvd."

Those license plates that Arista is distributing stamped "Zoomin'" couldn't be more accurate. Zooming up the charts and out of the stores is exactly what Aretha's record is doing; it's so sweet to see the Queen right back where she belongs on the charts. We miss her when she's absent from our lives.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK: What ever happened to Jimmy "Bo" Horne? Rumor is he's in the studio...

Tour, will embark August 27 as the opening act for the North American Tour of Wham. Catch their video "Live From the Ritz" on MTV.

Motown's Bob Jones is assisting along with Sam Harris in a "Commitment to Life: AIDS project Los Angeles" scheduled for September 19 at the Century Plaza Hotel in LA to raise money for AIDS research.

Have you caught the new Millie Jackson/Elton John video? It seems Elton works very well with Ms. Millie and is furthering his duets to include one with Sister Sledge and WHAM.

Billy Bass has exited from B&B Productions to start with a new label called Conceited Records. The first scheduled release is by a sultry singer who more than lives up to her name Lushus Daim. Watch out!!

Richard Perry is in the studio with Jeffrey Osborne...Sez Richard: "I have all the material and it's just a matter of laying it down." He's also producing several cuts on the new Patti LaBelle LP for MCA.

Tony DuPuis is scheduled to tour Texas with Spyro Gyra and then California with Pat Metheny.

Phyllis Hyman guest sings on the forthcoming Joe Sample of the Crusaders solo album entitled Oasis due the end of July on MCA.

Tina Turner gone country? She's gone pop, rock, R&B, why not? Playback Records out of Nashville is releasing an LP of country tunes.

Michael Jackson and a host of luminaries from George Lucas to Francis Ford Coppola join with Disney Productions to produce "Captain Eo" a twelve minute (costing approximately a million a minute) production with Michael playing Captain Eo in a special 3-D presentation. The special Jackson soundtrack will be heard in the Lucasfilm sound and premier at Disneyworld's Epcot Center in Orlando and at Anaheim's new Tomorrowland.

Chaka Khan is currently working on the theme for the flick "White Night" although she currently has the release "Can't Stop The Street" from the soon to be released (October) rap movie Krush Groove which will feature Kurtis Blow.

Kareem Jabbar, anticipating his retirement after next season, has been talking with A&M Records regarding a label deal for jazz which Kareem wants to pursue.

Even though Eddie Murphy's scheduled Paramount movie release for this summer has been scratched, he is scheduled to start a property called "Golden Child" for release next summer in which he plays a detective trying to locate locate lost children.
