"I played it once and had to play it again 30 minutes later because listeners wouldn't stop calling for it. This is one of the most powerful records I have heard this year."

—Michael J. Fox (APD), WPOC Baltimore

"When I got the new Diamond Rio CD, this song stuck out in a big way. Every once in a while a song comes along that I really get passionate about and 'I Believe' fits the bill. I'm so happy it's their new single, I added it early!"

—Cadillac Jack (APD), WXTU Philadelphia

"This is not merely a song, it's a truth that is very deep inside of us all. Diamond Rio has made this song one you'll never forget."

Now's Your Chance To Cast Your Vote

Unlike years where one or two stations have dominated, six country stations top the nominations in the 2003 Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards, with two nooks apiece, while a total of 26 country stations have been honored with nominations.

The awards will be handed out Feb. 8, 2003, at the Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar & Awards in Miami Beach. Your chance to vote for the stations that helped set the pace in radio this year begins on page 19. The ballot will also appear in the Nov. 23 issue of Billboard.

This year's dual nominees are KFEY (K102) Minneapolis; KPLX (the Wolf) Dallas; KZLA Los Angeles; WCGY Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; WKLB Boston; and WPOC Baltimore.

Billboard Monitor
RADIO 2003

For the first time in nearly a decade, this year's nominees were chosen by the editorial and chart staffs of the Airplay Monitor publications. The number of nominees was streamlined, with awards given in 10 formats and six categories. The two former syndication categories, which had previously distinguished among full syndicated dayparts and short-form shows, have been combined into one.

There were also changes in Monitor's industry recognition awards this year. Label of the year awards will be tied to the year-end charts that appear in Monitor's final issue of the year, dated Dec. 20. The independent promotion company of the year award remains but as an open-ended write-in category. Monitor also plans to designate four stations—one each in the country, R&B, rock, and top 40/AC worlds—as "innovators of the year," to be announced before February 2003.

Winners in all other categories will be determined by readers of Monitor and U.S. subscribers of Billboard. And in case you don't agree with our choices—it was, in every case, hard to pick only a few—we've given you the opportunity to write in your own candidate.

The Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar & Awards is set for Feb. 6-8, 2003, at Eden Roc Resort. For registration info, log on to billboard.com/events or call 646-654-4660.

CRB Forum Measures Country's Boundaries

Should country radio push the format's musical boundaries, much as CMT is doing with such eyebrow-raising choices as adding Bruce Springsteen's "Lonesome Day" video into rotation?

Some of the programmers who made up the panel at Country Radio Broadcasters' Fall Forum, held Nov. 5 in Nashville, think radio should follow the lead of CMT, which is more broadly defining what "country" is than country radio.

WUSN (US99) Chicago OM Eric Logan said his station, which has the same parent company as CMT, played Sheryl Crow's "Abilene" and Kelly Clarkson's "A Moment Like This" and "both tested hot 10." Logan said he's not on the Springsteen song—yet. (Epic/Monument plans to ship an edit of the song to country radio shortly.)

"Our belief in Chicago is that there is this myopic view of what country should be," Logan said, adding that was something WUSN would prefer to define for itself. "If you think it's important to your station to run [music] through a country funnel—and we don't—then 'Abilene' is [still] going to come back more country than what some of our superstars are doing. We're trying to widen the view of what country radio is in Chicago. [CMT] is breaking down a lot of perceived barriers. The further you push, the more opportunity there is for a mainstream act. Our goal is to be a mass-appeal station."

KPI.X (the Wolf) Dallas PD Paul Williams said if his station hadn't already staked out its niche with Texas country music, he would "get hold of bluegrass and make it my point of differentiation," much as CMT has done. Williams also played Clarkson's record and said it gave listeners "who didn't want to sit through the hip-hop on [top 40 rival] KHKS waiting for them to play it [another option]."

Moderator Charlie Cook of Westwood One broached the subject of payola by relating a story about a record being added at a station he did not name. The station promptly invoiced the record label for the add, allegedly telling the label, "We did a promotion [for this record], and we expect to be paid for it."

Logan responded, "Record companies who don't want to play those games should not play those games," a comment that elicited quiet snorts of laughter from record promoters sitting in at least one corner of the room, one of whom muttered, "Yeah, and not get your record played." Logan continued, "If Nashville is controlling the music and they want it to stop, then make it stop."

On the topic of voice-tracking, panelists agreed that having the full-time airstaff voice-track weekend shifts for an added bit of star power is more beneficial than having an unproven part-timer on the air. Williams said, "There is voice-tracking for evil and voice-tracking for good." WKDF Nashville OM Dave Kelly agreed: "I've been in situations where I'd rather voice-track than have someone who's not good enough to be on the radio."

Logan said, "Voice-tracking has a horrible reputation because so many people do it so badly. Voice-tracking done well is phenomenal. It comes down to attention to detail."

Consultant Jaye Albright added, "I'm not sure the audience cares as long as it's good."

The event, headlined "Radio Faces the Music Industry," drew nearly 300 attendees.

The View From My Seat At The CMAs

The 36th annual Country Music Assn. (CMA) Awards was king on CBS the evening of Nov. 6, topping the Nielsen ratings with an 11.0 share (approximately 17.6 million households). It also received mostly high marks at the customary post-show gatherings.

For a show that promised more than 20 performances in a full-page ad in the Nov. 6 edition of USA Today, it was an overachiever with a total of 27 music segments in three hours. Our artists all looked great and made a convincing case that country is alive and thriving.

Here's a few of the highlights from where I sat:

Best Performance: Too many great ones to single out just one, but Lee Ann Womack's abbreviated performance of "He'll Be Back" immediately transformed the house into a smoky uptown nightclub. It was 1962 all over again, and Womack washed the place in the yearning heartache of Patsy Cline. I was so swept up during the first chorus that I broke out in applause, only to realize that I was the only one clapping. I suddenly had a gnawing craving for a good Southern Comfort Manhattan.

Best Outfit: Tie between Porter Wagoner's classy black Manuel suit and the stunning red dress worn by Womack.

Funniest Moment: Host Vince Gill's additional verse to Kenny Chesney's single, "A Lot of Things Different," which expressed hilarious regret for the unfortunate horse-and-cop incident in New York with Tim McGraw.

Sins of Omission: McGraw was in the audience but did not perform. The guy has been all over the consumer press as a result of "Red Rag Top." Like the song or not, McGraw should have performed it on the show. His conspicuous absence was simply star power squandered.

Best Acceptance Speech: Tie between Martina McBride and Brooks & Dunn. McBride for her obvious humility and tearful shock after picking up the trophy for top female vocalist, and Kix Brooks for his heartfelt recognition of fellow duo of the year nominees Howard and David Bellamy. It's moments like those that perpetuate the well-known familial bond among country performers. Plus, it made great TV for the home audience.

Short-Changed: It's a perennial problem with this awards show, but the Hall of Fame segment came off looking like an afterthought again. If it's a time-budget issue, the CMA should consider discontinuing or shortening the often awkward commercial lead-in performances, then allot a portion of that time to a better historic moment.

This show rarely strikes the delicate balance between giving too much history and giving the inductees their due. It's not necessary to invite tune-out by going overboard with the artist's credentials, but for heaven's sake, incorporate more music into the segment. Otherwise, these awards should be given off the air at a special non-televised ceremony.

PANEL UPDATE: After decades on our reporting panel, we bid a fond farewell to KIKK-FM Houston, which recently flipped to smooth jazz (Country Airplay Monitor, Nov. 8). Concurrently, KKBQ Houston rejoins our panel of monitored stations (PD: Michael Cruise, MD: Christie Brooks, phone: 713-961-0093, fax: 713-622-5584). There are now 150 stations on the panel.

Radio Cites Jackson, Performances Among Highs At CMA Awards

■ by Phyllis Stark

Alan Jackson not only walked off with five awards at the Nov. 6 Country Music Assn. (CMA) Awards in Nashville, but he also earned praise and admiration from country radio for his performance and demeanor.

Asked for their comments about the show, country radio executives gave it mostly high marks for performances, entertainment value, and diversity, although some wondered about the absence of several superstars, and others felt the Hall of Fame inductees got short shrift. But for Jackson, the feedback was all positive.

"I was terribly proud of the recognition given Alan Jackson because of his song 'Where Were You (When the World Stopped Turning),' " KNIX Phoenix MD Gwen Foster says. "He deserves it. I do feel he won awards in other categories because of that song that probably should have gone to other artists. However, I wouldn't take anything away from him. We can all be very proud that Alan is a shining star in our format."

"Alan Jackson walked away with an armful, but it sure was refreshing to see and hear someone grateful and appreciative of the honors instead of making flippant or stupid wise-ass remarks," says Ken Johnson, executive producer of the Open Road Channel on XM Satellite Radio.

"Martina McBride's true emotion during her acceptance speech was similarly touching."

"Overall I thought it was an excellent show with many highlights, including Alan Jackson's genuine humility," says Bob Moody, VP of programming for Regent Communications. "Dolly Parton's performance was truly powerful and inspiring. It was a treat to see Kim Richey sing with Brooks & Dunn on her song. Keith Urban showed why he is ready to break into the 'A' artist ranks, and Shania Twain's entrance was certainly memorable."

"The performances were top-notch, and Alan Jackson was as gracious as could be in his acceptance of awards," says KIXK (the Bull) Longview, Texas, PD Gary Greenwood, who called the whole event "a hit. . . I loved the show and felt proud to be part of the country music industry."

Tim Roberts, OM for Cumulus/OHio, was disappointed that "Tim McGraw, the Dixie Chicks, and Lonestar weren't on the show." Still, he says, most of those who did perform "have had a major impact in the industry and are selling records and concert tickets. The show was a reflection of that momentum. Congrats to the CMA for showcasing the legends, the superstars, and some of the new forces in today's country world."

Clear Channel/Huntsville, Ala., OM Wes McShay says, "With all due respect to the up-and-comers of country music—and we have some good ones—the PIs that are watching the show would've loved to see Tim McGraw sing or a Dixie Chick show up, or Reba McEntire or Garth Brooks or Alabama on hand. I get the feeling that we're trying to turn the format over to a new flock of artists before those artists are ready or [before] our active listeners are ready to turn it over."

A HOST OF COMMENTS ON VINCE

Some had mixed feedback on host Vince Gill. "Gill is an adequate host, but I truly think that the time has come for a fresh face," Johnson says. "The show really needs something new in that area. His material was really pretty weak. They should borrow David Letterman's writers. Too many of Vince's comments were lame, Jay Leno-style jokes."

But Greenwood thinks "Vince Gill is, without question, the best MC for the job."

For Bill Cody, morning host at WSM-AM Nashville, "The highlight was Vince Gill's Kenny Chesney/'A Lot of Things Different' parody. The sweeter moment was George Strait rolling around in his seat laughing at Vince," Cody says. "George is so solemn. If Vince won him over, what did he do to the people at home?"

Vicki Fiorelli, marketing and promotion director for Clear Channel/Phoenix, says, "Vince Gill is a great host." Fiorelli also praised an "awesome" stage set and "lots of good music."

THE ANGRY TOBY KEITH FAN

Some were disappointed that Toby Keith walked away empty-handed, including WMZQ Washington, D.C., promotions director Wendie Vestfall, who says Keith "got robbed. 'Angry American' had a huge influence this year on country radio, plus it helped get country music back into the mainstream with all the publicity it got. His concert [tour] was huge, especially here in D.C. Alan Jackson did deserve the awards he got—I don't begrudge him that. I just would have liked to have seen both artists get credit for the outstanding songs and work they gave country music this year. Alan captured our feelings, but Toby wasn't afraid to say what we wanted to say after 9/11."

Some praised the large number of artist performances on the show, but others thought they detracted from the awards.

"The way the talent was showcased was awesome," says Teri

Lee Thomas, morning host at KTIM San Francisco. "I've never seen so much entertainment packed into an awards program and at a nice, brisk pace. . . What a refreshing change from most awards shows that feature too many 'talking heads.' The CMA Awards played more like a concert, with award segments in between."

"I was at the show, so my take on it is different than if I had watched it on TV," Foster says. "Some people I've talked to who did see it on TV mentioned, negatively, that there were a lot of performances. And in retrospect, it did seem that the acts were coming fast and furious."

Others were less concerned with the number of performances as they were with the high number of new singles being debuted on the show, a perennial PD complaint.

"Why are we playing album cuts and unfamiliar music on our awards shows?" asks McShay, who still praised the show's pace. "This is starting to happen every year, twice a year, and I just don't get it. The fans want to hear the hits."

"Overall, the awards show to me was boring," Vestfall says. "There were way too many performances being used to sell artists' current singles. The CMAs are an event. Artist performances should be memorable instead of run-of-the-mill. I don't think anybody who wasn't a big country fan stayed tuned after Shania's performance. They could have cut some performances and made the show more exciting in two hours."

THE ANGRY PORTER WAGONER FAN

The Hall of Fame segment provoked several comments. McShay says, "A little more time to the inductees into the Hall of Fame would be nice. Plus, it would be nice if they would put deserving artists into the Hall before they turn 75 or 95."

"Why don't they allow the Hall of Fame inductees to perform if they still can pull it off?" Johnson asks. "Bill Carlisle probably would not be a good candidate, but why couldn't Porter Wagoner have done a medley of some of his hits, including a couple duets with Dolly? Dolly was right there. Seems like a missed opportunity. The Rock & Roll Hall of Fame lets their folks sing if they want to. Why is country so ashamed of its heritage? Give me a break."

Johnson also wonders, "Why can't they allow the radio station winners onstage like they used to? Back when the show was only two hours long, they somehow found the time to acknowledge them onstage. All of the hits originate at radio to begin with. It deserves more than just a slide show

McGraw's 'Red Rag': 'Just Telling A Story'

In an upcoming Billboard cover story, Tim McGraw speaks about the controversy that initially surrounded his single "Red Rag Top," because it refers to abortion (Country Airplay Monitor, Sept. 27). McGraw says he didn't anticipate resistance at radio "because the song doesn't get on a soapbox . . . in any way. I don't think the song comprises your beliefs or comprises your integrity on how you feel either way on the subject. The song is a song about life and . . . as an artist, you live to find a story that is told so beautifully and with so much pain and regret at the same time. So, it never crossed my mind not to do this song."

"I'm a storyteller, and I'm just telling a story," McGraw continues. "It's an honest story."

You cannot tell a story and take a part out of the story that you don't really like. You can't take things away just because there may be something that just doesn't feel good. Not everything is pretty."

In other news, Trick Pony will embark on its first headlining tour, titled On a Mission, Nov. 14 in Sioux City, Iowa. The tour continues through the end of the year.

Trace Adkins will spend Thanksgiving performing for U.S. troops and their families in Southwest Asia as part of a USO tour that runs from Nov. 26-Dec. 1.

Danni Leigh, who recently moved from Nashville to Texas, has signed with Center Stage Booking in San Antonio for booking representation.

Billy Ray Cyrus will host the finals of the Colgate Country Showdown in January 2003 at Walt Disney World in Orlando, Fla. Six regional talent-show winners will compete for a $100,000 prize. The show will air as a one-hour syndicated TV special in April. Cyrus was a Showdown contestant early in his career.

Songs ranked by audience, computed by cross-referencing exact times of airplay with Arbitron listener data. Songs showing an increase in audience over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in audience does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. A song with a gain in audience over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining in audience or each losing in audience, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs become re-entrants and are removed from this chart in conjunction with the Country Airplay chart.

Songs are ranked by number of detections. ○ Songs showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A song will also receive a bullet if its percentage loss in detections does not exceed the percentage of monitored station downtime for the format. Airpower awarded to songs appearing in the top 20 on both the Airplay and Audience charts for the first time with increases in both detections and audience. Greatest Gainer awarded to the song with the largest increase in detections. Most Airplay Adds awarded to the song registering six or more detections at the most stations for the first time this week. A song with a gain in detections over the previous week is placed first if tied with a song with a decline over the same period. When tied songs are each gaining detections or each losing detections, the song being played on more stations is placed first. Songs below the top 20 are removed from the chart after 20 weeks.
