• ROCK ROUNDUP •

by Mark Marone

WITH MANY current-based album rock stations feeling unrecognized by the industry, things were bound to come to a head, as they did last week. As market rivalries heat up between album and modern rockers sharing a lot of the same music, the onus seems to be falling on the labels to sort out the needs of the stations. KISW Seattle PD Steve Young, whose letter asking that his station be reclassified as a modern outlet touched off this furor, believes certain situations can be resolved. Show presents should only be automatic when there is clearly one station supporting an artist. If there are two stations in the market supporting an artist equally, Young says, shows should remain neutral. Young also believes that labels can level the playing field for formats by giving basic support, including getting releases to stations right away. More labels are becoming sensitive to this and other issues; for example, Warner Bros. artists, including Goo Goo Dolls and Bad Brains, are released to both album and modern rock formats simultaneously, according to the label's Dave Lombardi. Feel free to direct any comments on this or other matters to me at 212-536-5051.

ALOT TO WIN: In last week's issue you received a nominating ballot for the Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Awards, which lets you help choose this year's nominees. Previously, nominees were selected by industry panels made up of PDs, label folks, and Rock Airplay Monitor staffers, but this year, you can vote for best station, PD, music director, air personality, syndicated air personality, syndicated show, promotion director, and, in our newest category, consultant of the year. Nomination ballots must be returned by May 12. The nominees selected for this year's awards will appear on a final ballot in the July 8 issue of Billboard and the July 7 issue of Rock Airplay Monitor. The awards ceremony will be held during the Billboard/Airplay Monitor Radio Seminar Oct. 12-14 at New York's Marriott Marquis.

Records showing an increase in detections over the previous week, regardless of chart movement. A record which has been on either chart for more than 20 weeks will not receive a bullet, even if it registers an increase in detections. Airpower awarded to those records which attain 800 detections (album) or 500 detections (modern) for the first time. If two records are tied in number of plays, the record being played on more stations is placed first. Records below the top 20 are removed from the charts after 26 weeks.
