GILLMORE IN ATTENDANCE AT CONVENTION OF THE A. F. OF L.

Will Urge Adoption of Three Important Resolutions
Equity Seeks to Better Conditions in Theaters
Also Would Compel Managers to Guarantee Return Fare

New York, Aug. 28.—Frank Gillmore, executive secretary of the Actor's Equity Association, will leave this afternoon at 5:14 for Bangor, Me., where he will attend the state convention of the American Federation of Labor, which opens tomorrow and will continue thru the week. Mr. Gillmore will present three important resolutions and press the adoption of the same. The resolutions are as follows:

1. Declaration: Whereas, It is to the best interests of the theater, as other business enterprises, that the public be fully protected and that no misrepresentation be allowed; and,
   Whereas, Misrepresentation often causes money to be spent on actors whose names appear in the advertisements and yet are not out of the bill; and,
   Whereas, In New York City a whole organization of Labor has been formed by a new law so that the manager can advertise it on the road as an organized cast; and,
   Whereas, It is the custom of vaudeville theater, chorus and cabaret to post the actual names of the players unless the place of entertainment; and,
   Whereas, A wrong has been done both in the public and to the actor by the failure of the so-called legitimate and musical comedy managers to do the same thing; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That the New York State Federation of Labor adopts the following bill compelling all theatrical managers to continuously post and display true names of the players of each and every performance at the main entrance to the theater, also in the manager's office, and that any changes in the cast changes must be posted on a printed slip in the program or by an announcement from the stage.

The second resolution is as follows:

Whereas, In some of the theaters of the State of New York the dressing rooms where actors and actresses are

THE "PROPERTY MAN"
William Bradley Keeps Everything in Stock, From Warming Pans to Stuffed Deer

New York, Aug. 20—The William Bradley Studios at 330 West Thirty-sixth Street are an exemplification of what a man with a purpose can accomplish in a particular line of endeavor. The present owner of the studios, William Bradley, the owner of these studios, was a property man with the Rink, Harris Show. When Max Wander and Mr. Harris were one of the victims of the Saturday night property man's strike and were forced to close up their operation, Mr. Wander engaged as an opportunity to create a business of his own, and Bradley, who had worked for Mr. Wander, decided to venture on his own. The result can be seen in the Bradley Studios, which are now presenting a grand weekly show, "Sawdust and Steam," which is being played to capacity audiences.

The studio is equipped with the latest in mechanical devices, and the shows are being produced with a high degree of professionalism. The production staff includes some of the best names in the business, and the result is a show that is both entertaining and educational. STILL AT LONG BEACH
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Conlon Clarke, who arrived at the Hotel Virginia, Long Beach, early in July, for a week's vacation, are still enjoying the delights of the area. They are staying in the Long Beach Hotel, and the weather has been cooperation.

A ghost figure of Decatur must needs escape with sketchy violin and hand bell, and the cueless pieces of furniture of the Beachmen's period. A third subject and a queer-looking old ale party that probably served to occupy the hands of many cottagers at the noontide hour they were seen by a fistful half left with the caged cloth back.

"I went in at the door to see the man in the picture," says Mr. Bradley, "as with an occasional element of the movie, but, in this instance, it was the real world. It was a cheerful sight, and Mr. Richard Grand, the owner, made us feel very welcome. He showed us around and gave us a tour of the studio, and the result is a show that is both entertaining and educational. The show is presented on a weekly basis, and the schedule has already been announced for the next two months.

PITTSBURGH

Didn't Discourage Earl Carroll, Neither Did the Kidding of the Lofty Managers

New York, Aug. 30—In Pittsburgh, the stronghold of the steel king, the place where William Russell lives, and his husband, Alexander P. Moore, publishes a newspaper, it is also the home of some of the world's most successful manufacturers of steel, coal, copper, and aluminum. Nooner Brownie-jean's silver mines are visited to the home of Mr. Moore's father, and steel mills are within a few blocks of the hotel where Mr. Moore stays.

The newspaper office is in a building on the corner of Sixth and Smith streets, and it is a place where one can find a good deal of interesting information about the city. The manager of the newspaper is a man who has been in the business for many years, and he knows the city as well as any other person.

"I do not think it is necessary to go to the newspaper office to get information about the city," said Mr. Moore.

"I believe that it is more important to go to the people who live in the city, and to get the information from them."

Mr. Moore is a man who has always been interested in the city, and he has done a great deal to make it better. He has built many schools and hospitals, and he has helped to establish many organizations.

"I believe that it is important to give something back to the city," said Mr. Moore.

"I have been fortunate enough to have a good deal of money, and I believe that it is important to use it for the benefit of the city."

MUSICAL MUSINGS
by G. A. ZIEBERG

With the best compliments of the editor-in-chief we shall, from time to time, introduce a few little occasional features in this column—setting that the need for such is very urgent.

Some time ago we joined a certain show (or revue) to play various mazurkas here and there. The leader handed us a score (in triplets) which he played correctly, on written.

The result of course was a pure and unadulterated success. "There's the matter with that part?" asked the leader. "It sounded out of time." "I'm playing it at night" said the man. "Well, it seems to be in the wrong key." "That's because it's a baritone mazurka, the leader said. "Well, I gave you a baritone part! I ought to sound all right."

The result was the same as before. Something was wrong about the part. The man, "I'm sorry in the wrong key." "Sounds alike," says the leader, but I'm sure you can account for it. The part was written in the part, but not be signed written to know any thing about the matter. Another condition has been made upon the sly and said, "The explanation is simple enough. You're trying to play a B-flat instrument on an F-flat instrument, and, of course, it won't work." "That simple is on all intelligent reader knows, that the name, "bottleneck mazurka," is nothing wrong and unaccounting. It is not an F-flat instrument, not as easy for playing the various parts in the part, and was never intended for that purpose—certainly not in how by transporting. The occasional "bottleneck mazurka" in a B-flat instrument, was a simple and plays a part similar in the best part in hand—only it is written in the top line. Much confusion and misunderstanding is caused by the bottleneck mazurka in the part of instrumental mazes in creating this bottle instrument on a plane in F flat." It is not in any way a "bottleneck," and is not adapted to playing bottleneck parts in hand, nor other parts in ear.

MAGIC AND MAGICIANS

Edited by the Chicago Office of The Billboard Where Leaders and News Will Be Graciously Received

Reader will soon be in Tampa to receive his magic Magic and Magician Book, and our Society of Tampa Magic (SOTM) is planning a special meeting as a welcome to him.

Arthur F. Pinner, magician, of the Arthur E. Pinner Company, has been appointed the representative of the new world-wide distribution of magic.

Harry Houdini of Hollywood, N. Y., is an accomplished magician and a philanthropist. Houdini has been in the magic business for over 50 years.

Lawler, Talbot, and Baccus are booking their former friends in South America with their "Mystic and Mystery Tour.

Les and John have decided to tour the Pacific Time, where the magic was always a sensation. They featured their illusion "The Case of the Vanishing.

Prest, the American magician, with a company of ten men, went on the same engagement as Talbot and Baccus. So far as we know, there were no engagements for the coming season.

George H. DeLand's has recently started in on his new and successful "Magic and Mystery" entertainment. George is the "Wizard of the North Country.

Adela Johnson is being managed by the manager of the "American Magician," the presses in the past few weeks have reported that Adela has been in Washington. Adela is coming to New York.

Alexander, the man who knew Europe from August 1st, and left for California some two weeks ago, is said to be in Chicago again.

The new magazine "The Wizard," will make his debut next week. It is said to be the best of a series of pictures dealing with the magic world, and promises to be a welcome addition to any magic library.

Frank Denson is rapidly recovering from his recent illness, and is certainly putting in some work for his health while compiling the American Magic Co. Just as present Frank is baking his "Mystery of the Night Sky," his third volume, which is due out in three months. No, reader, they are newly published.

Morty Cline, is spending his vacation in his home town. Morty was very much bothering with "writings cramp" since signing contracts for "The Magic of the Mind," between Cottle and Herb Brown. We had to tell them of his "illness.

The Atlantian Magic Society, playing the New York State Fair, bought a new lease on its lease. Many of its members have been sorely missed by the absence of Alton, James, and Baccus. A young man, is also an important member of the company.

Denny's new book "Trick or Treat" is coming completion and promises many new innovations that will appeal to all classes of magic. Many new tricks, written specially for the purpose of helping to make magic more interesting.

The special meeting of magicians on Broadway, New York, last week was a success. Many of the magicians who were there said they enjoyed the meeting and hope to see it again.

H. A. Stover has informed "The Billboard" that he has been appointed the representative of the Markham Magic Company in "The Show of a Thousand Wonders," which opens in New York on the 1st of next month. Among the features are "The View," the Master Mind, and the "Miracles of the World."

MOVIES AN ANODYNE

(The Freeman)

Not to like the movies has always seemed to me a kind of silly sentiment. One cannot help but wonder what the masses of people revealed in the ordinary phonodrama, and there can be no doubt that the phonodrama has been, and will be, the staple diet of the masses.

This is the case because of the movies. More than any other form of entertainment, the movies have captured the imagination of the masses. They are the medium through which the masses express their sentiments and their ideals.

To the masses, the movies are a source of comfort and escape. They are a means of escaping from the drudgery of everyday life and of vicariously experiencing the adventures of others.

To the masses, the movies are a source of education. They are a means of learning about the world and its people, and of understanding the complexities of human nature.

To the masses, the movies are a source of inspiration. They are a means of encouraging people to work hard and to achieve their goals.

WHATS WRONG WITH THE MUSIC BUSINESS?

By E. M. WICKES

The Place of Music in English Education

SIR H. HADROWS PLEA

In a address at the annual meeting of the Manchester School for Girls, held at the Manchester Free School Hall, Dean Ransome, the Principal, made a special plea for the inclusion of music as a properly recognized part of our educational system.

The plea was based on the following considerations:

1. The importance of music as a means of culture and refinement.
2. The necessity of music for the development of the personality.
3. The educational value of music as a means of social integration.
4. The contribution of music to the moral and spiritual growth of the individual.
5. The need for a balanced education, where all subjects are given equal importance.

The plea received a warm response from the audience, who expressed their agreement with the views presented.

THE RAILROAD PLUNDERBUND

In the public at large the advance of 20 per cent in passenger rates, 15 to 20 per cent in freight rates, and 100 per cent in Pullman charges, granted at the railways by the Interstate Commerce Commission, has produced a widespread impression of new and shocking changes since the Identify Reversed Congress. Without question the public has been given the ultimate issue of this debate in the form of increased charges; but in the distribution of information of the situation to those who are paying for the improvement, the Interstate Commission has been rather sparing in its details. It is at least 160 times correct, and yet the news is not so bad as the public is led to believe by the news media. The public has been accustomed to the idea that passenger rates are being cut, and that this will be paid for by increased rates. But, after the public will feel the increased passenger rates, and the present situation will be a great deal more satisfactory to the public than the news media have been saying. The public may be more benefited by reflecting that whereas the railways employ only 20 per cent of the advance they asserted for, the owners cannot change their demands profitably.

EUGENE O’NEILL

By ALEXANDER WOOLCOTT

Behind the writing of each of his plays as "Beyond the Horizon" there is an interesting background. Truth is it came from a fact and a dream. Long ago, a story was told of a man who, when he was running away from the police, met a girl who was up to her ankles in snow and who was crying. Eugene O'Neill is the youngest son of that same man, whom I call "O'Neill."" Beyond the Horizon is his most recent play and it is a masterpiece of the genre. The story is, of course, a dream, but it is a dream that has been translated into a work of art.

INSIST ON GETTING IT

WHEN YOU ASK FOR THE BILLBOARD AT THE NEWS STAND

Nearly all the small key theatrical papers have gone to 20 cents.
As a result the news-stand operators are cutting them.
The dealer makes six cents clear on the sale of a twenty-cent paper.
This hardly makes it worth while and consequently higher postage he has to pay on The Billboard.
But it is not always sold out when he chooses to be, and, rather than lose money, he will protect himself by raising the price to 25 cents and firmly on the paper you ask for and accept nothing in its place until you have paid.
We have made a cause to hold the price of The Billboard at 25 cents.
It has not been easy to do,
As a matter of fact it has been very costly.
Also it looked almost silly for a while, especially about a month since—of course, with paper still advancing, a raise in price seemed inevitable, in which event all our efforts and the handsome gift we had incurred in vain, and we would have gotten no credit for holding off as long as we did.
But it has been held now as it will get away with it.
It is not to fall, but there are strong indications that the peak has been reached.
But there is not likely to be no increase in the price per copy.

BUT YOU HAVE TO STAND PAT WITH THE NEWSPAPER 25 CENTS A COPY.

Instead of the Billboard we both lose to the propers.

Now there is an unparalied way of getting the biggest booth, please don't get yourself in business.

MUSIC AT HOME

F. J. KELLY IN "AMERICA"

If music is really to the heart, it must be lived and practised at the heart. Nothing can really take the place of home cultivation; the secret is to observe this in the ordinary lives of the true lover unless he also seek and find music in the family circle, in his home. Just as the hand and voice performance is apt to be a mockery, just as technique without soul is vain, so the most superficial personality becomes a substitute for music in the home is a delusion, the more painful as it is executed. Instead thereof, the fact must be seconded upon that the outside concert should be considered supplementary to the music studied and continued heard in the home; for we do not from outside music being able to take the place of home music, the plain fact is that the existence of outside music, and the fact brings with it that he should be careful that the outside concert should be considered supplementary to the music heard in the family circle. Music, of course, is not a substitute for music in the home; the plain fact is that the existence of outside music, and the fact brings with it that he should be careful that the outside concert should be considered supplementary to the music heard in the family circle. Music, of course, is not a substitute for music in the home; the plain fact is that the existence of outside music, and the fact brings with it that he should be careful that the outside concert should be considered supplementary to the music studied and continued heard in the home; for so far from outside music being able to take the place of home music, the plain fact is that it assumes the existence of outside music, and in no better, for it is not a substitute for music in the home; the plain fact is that the existence of outside music, and the fact brings with it that he should be careful that the outside concert should be considered supplementary to the music heard in the family circle. August 13 at Portland, Ore., and for the next two weeks, the show was not doing as well as usual.

At 2:30 p.m. the tent was up and the show was ready to go. The last show was on Tuesday and it was not as good.

"He's" is the personification of the Atlantic Ocean, as it is the largest ocean and has the most water. It is also the most dangerous ocean for ships, as it has strong currents and storms. The Atlantic Ocean is divided into the North Atlantic and the South Atlantic, with the International Date Line running through it. The Atlantic Ocean is surrounded by the United States, Canada, Greenland, Iceland, and several other countries. It is also home to many marine animals and plants, including whales, dolphins, and coral reefs.

LEATHER AND WOOL Ring to Open MUSEUM?

WORTHAM'S WORLD'S BEST
PLAY BASEBALL PLAYER BOARD SHOWS

J. GEORGE LOOG SHOWS
Play Good Return Engagement in St. Paul

The proof that good entertainment was given is evident in the fact that the Wortham World's Best fair is scheduled to open on Monday, Aug
29, with the usual first-class entertainment.
From the opening night the fair was well attended and the various performances were enjoyed by the patrons. The fair includes a variety of events and attractions, including music, magic, and acrosobility. The fair is expected to last through the weekend, providing entertainment for all.

RING TO OPEN MUSEUM?

New York, Aug 24.—There is a rumor about the Museum of Natural History, which is to have a "ring" to open the building for the summer season. It is said that the ring is either a two-dollar coin or a large key, which will be used to open the building.

"SUPERIOR MODEL" CARRY-US-ALLS

even discount the beautiful "SPECIAL MODEL" that have proven so popular in past years. SUPERI-OR MODELS CARRY-US-ALLS are the latest in perfection, studded with hundred of gaudyedge French Flat trophies and a multitude of electric lights. C. & A. Wortham says of his "SUPERIOR MODEL." "The people from the North and South, we must see its merits, and as Mr. Wortham says, it is the most beautiful light-fitting machine any manufacturer ever made one. You should write for specfications for specific delivery."

NEW CENSORSHIP BILL PLANNED FOR MISSOURI

Organizing Committee Plots Future of the Censorship Bill

ORGANIZING IN MISSISSIPPI

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 24.—The old-line Radio Network is fighting the "Sundown Law" battle all over again and this time it is fighting to save the liberal and friendly atmosphere that has been established. It is fighting against everything except meritorious entertainment, such as news, which has been banned before the court, and even the Vesper Club has threatened to use the spectacles if they cannot get a good time in the present season, which climax the line down right.

Permitting announcements and reaffirmation on Sunday will be a big thing for these enterprises in the town, which is on the table of the Committee.
