ASCAP on Target

ASCAP is moving forward on several important fronts. One has to do with the encouragement of new writers-and a story in this issue outlines what is being done to give this segment of the membership a larger economic stake in performances.

In addition, the Society is blueprinting sharply increased activity in two vitally important areas of the music-record business. These are the country and r&b fields. In connection with this it may be noted that ASCAP has already become a principle donor to the Country Music Association's Hall of Fame and Museum.

These moves by the Society reflect the fact that ASCAP, more than ever, is becoming attuned to the total music business. This attitude reflects credit on the administration of President Stanley Adams and the vision of the board of directors.

We feel that the Society's present attitudes, as briefly stated above, must result in greater competition in the music field-with ultimate benefits to the copyright owners.

in Jacksonville, Fla., and Dallas, points to a full-scale expansion program for the Steen operation.

The distribution firms include Dumont Record Distributors and Bay State Record Distributors, both of Boston, and Eastern Record Distributors, Hartford, Conn. Steen exchanged Recordwagon stock for the stock in each of the distributing firms. Each of the distributors will continue to operate his own wing as a separate entity, retaining its old corporate name, and each will serve on the Recordwagon board of directors.

Recordwagon's new board now includes, in addition to the company's president and his wife, Lee Steen, the heads of the merged distributorships: Dumont Distributing's Don Dumont, Bay State's Robert Levinson, and Eastern Record Distributors' Richard Godlewski. The board also includes Lawrence Goldberg, Recordwagon's vice-president in charge of sales.

Today Is the Golden Age for The 'True' Indie Producer-TRO

NEW YORK-The challenge and opportunity for the independent publisher is greater today than ever, according to Howard S. Richmond, head of the Richmond Organization, and Al Brackman, general manager,

Cap. Maps Separate Unit Helmed by Venet

By ELIOT TIEGEL

LOS ANGELES—In what may become a unique production association, Capitol and Nick Venet are completing plans for the pop music producer to return to the label and operate a separate department for the development of top 40 product.

Alan Livingston, Capitol's president, confirmed that he had been discussing the hiring of Venet, who formerly worked for the company for two and a half years. Venet will meet with Voyle Gilmore, Capitol's a&r director, this week to complete plans for the new operation which would be patterned on the Kama Sutra-MGM Records set-up.

Venet would be a Capitol employee but outside the normal a&r department and the head of a separate staff expressly created to specialize in rock 'n' roll, contemporary trend music. The thinking is for Venet to hire his own staff of independent producers and writers. The new wing would be located outside the Capitol Tower.

Livingston called this a "packaging operation— packaging writers, groups and sounds." Venet's wing would deal with amateurs and unknowns, Livingston added, in "nosing around" to keep abreast of current trends and development.

This summation by the TRO executive comes at a time when the firm has just signed a $1 million lease for expanded space, and while the domestic and international annual gross of the TRO-Essex group has hit the $3 million mark.

Richmond defines the proper function of the independent publisher today as being "the business arm of the writer." Richmond points out that there are all types of publishers: "There is the custodial publisher, who is really a collection agent; there is baker-publisher; the gimmick publisher, the user-publisher and the artist publisher. Each of these serves a function, but it is a limited one. The publisher who most truly realizes the opportunity today is the one whose main emphasis is publishing—one who is not in the publishing field merely as a sideline."

Triples Space

Richmond started his publishing operation 17 years ago, paying $45 per month rent and using a rented phonograph. The new quarters at the Coliseum Building will contain 7,500 square feet of space-triple the present quarters-and will have the most modern tools needed in the industry. These will include (1) Music rooms for writers, with tape machine-phonograph playback equipment; (2) central audio speaker system piped into the professional and executive offices for collective hearing of new material in individual offices; (3) executive conference room with recording equipment to play back conference ideas, programs; (4) dubbing room for duplicates of acetates-tape demoswith a "library file" of new songs; (5) "instant demo machines" in each professional office so that when a new song is played a duplicate copy is made simultaneously for the artist; (6) the entire operation will have the advantage of the latest electronic data processing equipment. Richmond pioneered in the use of

Cap. Stock Set-Up Bared by Pickwick

By FRED KIRBY

NEW YORK-Details of a stock option plan and distribution agreement with Capitol Records were revealed last Thursday (25) at the annual stockholders meeting of Pickwick International. The Capitol agreements, not previously disclosed, were in a package whereby Pickwick obtained the right's to Capitol's noncurrent catalog for release on the Pickwick-33 and Hilltop budget labels for a 10-year period.

In addition to the licensing agreement, which was announced after the July 18 agreement between the two manufacturers, Capitol also obtained options to purchase up to 25 per cent of Pickwick's stock during the 10-year period. Capitol purchased $165,000 of debentures at an interest rate of 51/2 per cent a year from Pickwick for the 10-year period.

The agreements with Capitol were approved 232,432-875 by the stockholders, who also endorsed a five-for-four stock split, 245,208-250. The licensing arrangement also included provisions for most of the product to be released on tape CARtridges. Cy Leslie, president of Pickwick International, who explained that the Pickwick-33 logo will include "By Arrangement Capitol Records" for the material involved, told the stockholders that another arrangement called for some Capitol disks to be distributed at the usual $1.89 Pickwick list as the "Capitol Pickwick Series." He said three pressings could not be produced under the Pickwick-33 label because of contractual arrangements between Capitol and the artists involved. Sinatra LP

The first Pickwick Series LP featuring Frank Sinatra is being released along with about 25 pressings of Capitol material under the Pickwick label. Included are 15 classical disks with such artists as William Steinberg and the Pittsburgh Symphony, Nathan Milstein, Vladimir Golschmann and the St. Louis Symphony, Rudolf Firkusny, and Leonard Pennario, pop albums with Judy Garland, Tennessee Ernie Ford, Les Baxter, Nat Cole, Ray Anthony and Al Martino, and Hilltop titles with the Louvin Brothers, Faron Young and Jody Miller.

Leslie also told the stockholders Pickwick would soon enter the musical instrument field by distributing electric guitars and also would set up its own distribution organization for the New York area. Among the major new activities for the firm this past year were the entry of the firm into publishing with Barmour Music in Nashville and the entry into the tape cartridge field with 4 and 8-track product.

Leslie said cartridges were a growing market although its full impact had not yet reached the consumers. He estimated the number of playbacks in consumers' hands would jump from the present 300,000 to 1 million for 8-track and from 650,000 to 850,000 for 4-track about Christmas time, He mentioned

Disney Launchig Own Label in Europe; Cuts EMI License Ties

By DON WEDGE

LONDON—The Walt Disney Music Division is launching its own record operation in Europe. It starts with the British debut Oct. 21 on the Disneyland label. Disney contracts with both record manufacturer and music publisher licensees in several European Territories expire Dec.

A new record deal will be set up for Germany, the Scandinavian countries and Holland. As in Britain, present licensees are EMI firms. Deals will be concluded in the next month as Jim-

Ploughboy Rides A Merry Pace

NEW YORK - "The Merry Ploughboy," which has been creating a stir in Canada, is now getting play and distribution in the United States via two versions. One is by the Abbey singers, heard here on the Hanna-Barbera label, which purchased the master from the Canadian label, Arc Records. Another version, first issued by the Carlton Show Band on the Castle label in Canada, has been acquired for distribution here by Larry Uttal's Mala label.

The song first created excitement in Canada as a result of a commercial for Carling Beer. The agency for Carling has since applied to Melody Trails (The Richmond Organization) for more extensive use of the commercial throughout Canada. Original publisher is Coda Music, Ltd., in England, a member of the Essex Music Group, which is affiliated with TRO. my Johnson, Disney Music Division president, swings around the Continent with his European executive, Frank Weintrop. They will also settle new publishing plans, including the opening of Disney firms in some countries.

For Britain, however, Disney Music will continue with Chappell. EMI Records will distribute the Disney label in Britain, although the U.S. firm retains the right additionally to distribute its own product. EMI will not press or otherwise be associated with them.

First Disneyland releases, due in Britain during October, 11 weeks before the present EMI-Disney pact ends, follows amicable negotiations for Disney to get partial early release. Printing of booklets for Story Teller releases will probably be in England, Translations will be made for the appropriate continental countries. The British program will be boosted by a twiceweekly 30-minuate network TV series bought by Redifusion, starting Sept. 27.

Industry Impresario

Sid Bernstein presented the Beatles Tuesday night (23) at New York's Shea Stadium and, undoubtedly, the Beatles were the only ones who profited financially from the venture. Though the gross was $292,000, the Beatles reaped a heavy slice of this and Shea Stadium doesn't come at a budget price; nor do an abundance of police and other overheads of such a giant promotion. Bernstein's office calculates that the show was "maybe just a break-even thing." Bernstein's promotion of the Beatles last year failed to earn him any great amount.

He recently confided that the Young Rascals, whom he manages, had brought him in much more in earnings. Yet, he bargained for the Beatles again this year—in spite of the headaches and the worries-and did a tremendous job. There were other acts on the show, the Beatles did their half-hour plus, and still the 45,000 kids who attended the giant spectacular were home by 11 p.m. The show business work and the record world owes a tribute to Bernstein for attempting—and succeeding—such a massive rock 'n' roll venture; it is outstanding proof of the popular acceptance of today's record industry. Obviously, the kids (since the screams drowned out most of the music) were there for the excitement and. obviously, since the financial rewards were not that great, Bernstein enjoys selling excitement.

ASCAP Reshuffles Distribution To Give New Writers More $$

NEW YORK—ASCAP is revamping its distribution so that new writers will get more performance money. Stanley Adams, ASCAP president, explained that changes included multiplying performance credits, permitting writers to change their payment arrangements without losing credits, and payments for non-ASCAP members and material licensed by another group, such as BMI, provided the material becomes a part of the ASCAP repertory.

Adams explained that young writers still could start out by being paid for performances during the year, one of the two options previously open. However, if a writer after three of four years, wants to switch to the other system, averaging royalties over several years, the first years will be counted in the average.

Under the new payment formula, the ASCAP survey for the quarter ending nine months previously would be used to determine the first quarter's payments for new members. This figure would be multiplied by four so the writer would be paid for a full year. Works licensed by another organization would be used as a basis for payment provided that the works become part of the ASCAP repertory.

Another change provides for payments to writers who are not members of the Society for performances of material in the ASCAP repertory. Under this system, ASCAP will log performances of compositions first published by an ASCAP publisher member after Jan. 1, 1966, and written by a non-member, either alone or in collaboration with an ASCAP member, and pay both members and nonmember writers provided that the Society is the only licensing organization for the works in the United States.

Dixon's Label Now Dynamo

NEW YORK-Luther Dixon's new Detroit-based record label will be known as Dynamo Records. The label, distributed by Musicor Records, had originally been called Cheetah Records.

However, the Cheetah discotheque in New York had announced an arrangement with Audio Fidelity Records (Billboard, Aug. 27), with AF using the Cheetah logo on a special line. The name change was made to avoid confusion between the two labels.

Dynamo has already cut two singles by Inez Foxx and a new group, the Pigeons.

Adams explained, "With these proposals, ASCAP hopes to accomplish three objectives: first, to give all possible aid, encouragement and financial assitance to new talents who wish to enter the songwriting profession; second, to keep songwriting as a profession alive and independent; and third, to build an American musical repertory equal to the stature of our nation."

ASCAP also is making two other changes in its rules on crediting of performances, one of which would provide additional credit for performances as themes at the opening or closing of musical or variety program on TV, where the performance is given on-camera and is the principal focus of audience attention. This would include performances by vocalists, instrumentalists or dancers. The other change would formalize an increase in background music credit announced in February from 20 to 25 per cent of a use credit for three minutes of music.

A hearing is scheduled before Chief Judge Sylvester J. Ryan of the Federal District Court in New York on Sept. 12 for approval of the changes, which are described in a 44page booklet, which was mailed to all ASCAP members last

CBS Records Register a 27% Sales Increase for 6 Months

NEW YORK — CBS Records —which includes Columbia. Date, Epic-Okeh, the CBS Records Legacy Collection, Masterworks Audio Products, April-Blackwood Music, Columbia Special Products and Columbia Record Productions — reported a sales increase of 27 per cent for the first six months of 1966 as compared with the corresponding period last year.

Clive J. Davis, vice-president and general manager, cited the strong showing made by Columbia Records in the pop singles field, based largely on the sales performances of Bob Dylan, the Cyrkle, Simon and Garfunkel, Paul Revere and the Raiders and the Byrds. He added that Columbia sold more singles in June than it did in any other month in the label's history.

Davis said, "The entire record industry has had a tremendous year. Our goal has been to outpace this growth and be in the forefront of the boom. This we have done. We are now confident that 1966 will be the biggest year in our history and, in fact, will constitute the largest annual volume of business by any record company in the history of the record in-

On the pop album scene, Andy Williams and Barbra Streisand were the leaders, with strong support from Tony Bennett, Eydie Gorme, Robert Goulet, Jerry Vale, the New Christy Minstrels, Ray Conniff, and also Johnny Cash, the country singer who's making it pop.

In country, strong showings by Johnny Cash, Marty Robbins, Little Jimmy Dickens, Carl Smith, Ray Price, Claude King, Jimmy Dean and the Statler Brothers moved the label ahead in that category.

Three Broadway cast albums have been winners this year-"Sweet Charity," "Mame" and "The Mad Show." The Masterworks Series gained with the "Sound of Genius" campaign, Rudolph Serkin Month in April, the tribute to the late Bruno Walter, and performances by the Philadelphia, New York and Cleveland Orchestras.

Columbia's entry into the 8-track cartridge field, after two years of research and development, is off the ground.

Date Records, the pop singles line, scored its first chart record with "Stop!—Get a Ticket," with the Clefs of Lavender Hill.

Epic-Okeh Sales Up Epic-Okeh sales rose 23 per cent in the first six months, paced by the Dave Clark Five, the Yardbirds and Bobby Vinton. Epic signed Donovan in June. It also acquired the catalog rights to Suraphon, a Czechoslovakian label, and bowed a medium-priced classical line, Crossroads Records. Pacing Okeh sales were Walter Jackson, Major Lance, Ted Taylor and the Vibrations.

"John Fitzgerald Kennedy . . . As We Remember Him," on CBS Records Legacy Collection, won a Grammy award for "Best Spoken Word or Drama Recording."

Masterworks Audio Products, which covers radios, phonographs, tape recorders and components, were up 41 per cent, with a 47 per cent increase in the number of dealers.

Recording facilities in Hollywood and Nashville were expanded, and new engineering research and development facilities were opened June 21 in Milford, Conn.

'ACTION' STARTS OCT. 3

Liberty Int'l Ready to Roll Cameras on Country Film

HOLLYWOOD-Liberty International Productions here begins shooting Oct. 3 on a fulllength country music movie-"What Am I Bid." The big budget film will be in wide screen and in color. Producer is Wendell Niles Jr. The movie, reportedly the first country music film with an original score, will star LeRoy Van Dyke, Al Hirt, Tex Ritter, Faron Young and Johnny Sea, in leading acting and singing roles. Feminine lead is Chris Noel.

Gene Nash, manager of Van Dyke and Sea, wrote both the score and the script for the movie. He will also direct the film. Nash is noted for writing and producing the "Big Wide Wonderful World of Country Music" musical production that was a highlight of last year's Country Music Association convention in Nashville. He is writing and producing a similar show for advertising executives and others in Los Angeles Sept. 13. The song, "Big Wide Wonderful World of Country Music" was written by Nash for last year's event and it will be featured in the movie along with 11 other tunes of his. Nash has set up a music publishing firm -Gene Nash Music-for handling the copyrights.

The movie will cost more than $500,000 to produce. Ernie Freeman, who arranged Frank Sinatra's "Strangers in the Night," will be arrangerconductor for the film.

Release date for the movie is

Freberg Is Back Killing Dragons

By ELIOT TIEGEL

LOS ANGELES—Stan Freberg is returning to commercial recordings, after a five-year self-imposed hiatus, to prove that humor and advertising are compatible.

The 39-year-old humorist, whose battle with Madison Avenue earns him over $50,000 a year for creating funny commercials, has decided to retrench his advertising activities to concentrate on satirical rec-

Freberg's project is a series of albums for Capitol which he has designated "pay radio." The series is titled "Freberg Underground," with the first LP set for Sept. 6 release.

The albums are a half-hour radio show, complete with actors, sound effects, an orchestra and chorus and a live "studio" audience. Freberg believes the recording medium is the only existing means for producing satire.

He says network radio shows no longer offer a vehicle to reach the masses with satire.

Freberg calls the series "audio programs" and he en-

CMA, WSM NOT WITH PAGEANT

THREE ENGINEERING CONTRACTOR OF THE PROPERTY O

NASHVILLE — The Country Music Association and WSM radio officials last week denied any connection with an organization known as the Miss Country Music America Pageant. Bill Denny, president of the CMA and head of Cedarwood Music, said the pageant had contacted both the CMA and WSM and had been turned down. The pageant organization has been notified not to use the name of CMA and WSM or claim affiliation, Denny said. Bill Williams of WSM issued a similar statement. The pageant reportedly seeks $100 from radio stations as a fee for the station entering a girl in the contest.

visions people going to their record stores to buy the latest chapters. In fact, the first LP's closing remarks, replete with old radio cliches, includes the expletive to listen again same time, same phonograph for the next album.

One of the LP's routines, "The Flackman and Regan," was released as a single last week in San Francisco with KSFO banning the disk after one play. Other stations in the Bay Area have aired the monolog, with Capitol now shipping the disk to other cities. San Francisco received advance copies when someone in the branch there accidently mailed them out ahead of the release date.

Freberg has been under contract to Capitol since 1949. His last album was "Stan Freberg Presents the United States of America, Volume I" released in 1961. Several additional volumes had been planned, but the project was shelved when Broadway producer David Merrick entered into and out of negotiations with Freberg to produce the album as a musical.

Suddenly the talks are on again, Freberg said last week. "Now we're seriously talking about producing the show for the fall season and I'm going to New York next week to talk with Merrick. If the play comes out in January, I'm faced with the dilemma of releasing an original cast album on top of Volumes 2 and 3.

Freberg hopes to record an album for the "Underground" series every other month. If he's doing the Broadway bit, he'll cut the LP's in the East.

He has already written his second "Underground" LP and hopes to have it recorded within a month. He recalls that when he began his satirical singles for Capitol, he stood alone in this field. But he did have run-ins with the label's legal department. If not for his friendship with Jack Webb, then the star of "Dragnet" on TV, he could never had cut his "St. George and the Dragon" disk. Freberg says Capitol has a different attitude now which allows him greater freedom.

Pincus to Work TV, Film Deals On Europe Trip

NEW YORK-Lee Pincus, overseas manager of the Gil Pincus-Ambassador Group, will arrive in London this week to lay the groundwork for extensive European exploitation of television and motion picture scores recently acquired by the group. Also he will acquire European songs for the American Market.

Overseas exposure of the music from the upcoming NBC-TV "Tarzan" series will be one of the primary aims of the trip. The latest European songs to be exploited in the ULSL by the group include "Our Concerto," recorded by Joe Harnell, and the score from the MGMdistributed movie, "Marco the Magnificent." Columbia will release the original soundtrack and the title single, "Somewhere," by Jerry Vale.

The Gil Pincus Group is the original publisher of the current French hit, "Qu'elle Est Belle," by Mireille Mathieu on Barclay. The song is set for Italian and German recordings.

CMA and 20 Coast Stations To Stage 'Hoedown' Sept. 13

LOS ANGELES—The Country Music Association of Nashville and 20 affiliated country music radio stations based on the West Coast have teamed up to present a luncheon and country music spectacular Sept. 13 here at the Coconut Grove.

The show, "Big, Wide, Wonderful World of Country Music," was written and produced by Gene Nash. It stars LeRoy Van Dyke and His Auctioneers and Auctionettes, Dottie West, Johnny Sea, and there will be a special guest appearance by Minnie Pearl.

The show is being presented to acquaint key advertising executives and representatives, product sponsors, and motion picture and TV executives with the recent growth of country music. Dan McKinnon of KSON, San Diego, has headed the CMA committee for the affair, assisted by Dick Schofield of KFOX, Long Beach, and Ken Nelson, country a&r producer at Capitol Records.

More than 600 persons are expected to see the 45-minute show. Among the stations sponsoring the project are KSAY, KEEN, KEAP, KUZZ, KIEV, KWOW, KGBS, KFOX, KSON, KCKC, KWJJ, KAYO, KHAT, KRDS, KSOP, KHOS, KLAK, KHEY, KMOP and KTOO.

Amy-Mala-Bell Bows New Design

NEW YORK — Amy-Mala-Bell will launch a new label design for all three of its record labels. This new image, said President Larry Uttal, is part of a world-wide drive to establish stronger the firm's corporate image. The new design is effective Tuesday (1).

Within a month, all Canadian product, including all of the subsidiary labels of the firm, will be released on the Bell Records label. Distributor will be Quality Records, which previously issued the product on its own label. After Jan. 1, all Amy-Mala-Bell product will be release world-wide on the Bell label. Before, the firm's product was issued world-wide on EMI's Stateside Records. EMI will continue to handle distribution for the world Bell label.

The campaign is geared to further the Bell Records image around the world. Uttal said, "I think we're strong enough now. We have enough artists, record producers, and hit records under our belt. Once our world image is established, it will help us get more new artists and labels. We haven't had enough going for us before this." Subsidiary labels handled by the company in the U.S. will remain unchanged; Amy-Mala-

Bell distributes and promotes more than 25 different subsidiary labels.

Distrib Deal

Uttal just signed a distribution agreement with Dimitri Villard of Washington for Jet Set Records. First release under the new deal will be Eldridge Holmes with "Gone, Gone, Gone," to be followed soon by a Sam and Bill record. The group has just signed with Jet Uttal also signed a long-term contract with Marshall Sehorn and Allan Touissaint of New Orleans for producing records by Lee Dorsey, whose current hit "Working in the Coal Mine" on Amy Records is No. 8 this week on Billboard's Hot 100 chart.

Jubilee Plans Comedy Club

NEW YORK - Jubilee Industries is beginning a Comedy Record Club, which will distribute comedy disks of all labels through the mails. While the new club will handle all types of comedy material, it will be especially designed for adults, according to Elliot Blaine, executive vice-president of Jubilee, who is directing the operation.

Mailings will be sent out this month to the more than 140,000 members of the Knockers Up Club, which was formed through application blanks included in Rusty Warren's "Knockers Up" album on Jubilee Records. Blaine, who said details are still to be being worked out for the comedy club, explained that an initial fee would be good for a lifetime membership.

Members will not be required to buy any minimum number of disks, although a selection from Jubilee's "Life of the Party" catalog will be sent each member. Blaine estimated that record discounts would run about 35 per cent. A newsletter also will go to members. Blaine, who estimated that new memberships in the Knockers Up Club averaged about 140 a day, said an extensive advertising campaign also will be utilized for the Comedy Record Club.

Justice Dept. Position Is Unjust, Angry ASCAP Charges at Probe

WASHINGTON - A Justice Department spokesman's argument against copyright fees for community antenna systems as an unnecessary extension of author "monopoly" and an unjust "toll" against CATV use, brought scathing counter-argument from ASCAP counsel Herman Finkelstein here last week.

Testimony by an acting assistant attorney general, Edwin Zimmerman, was also dubbed "contradictory" by acting chairman Sen. Quentin Burdick (D.-N. D.) during a Senate copyrights subcommittee hearings on the CATV issue in copyright law revision. The hearing was the second and last by the Senate group on the House copyrights subcommittee plan to grade CATV copyright liability according to impact on the copyright owner's market. exempting only local fill-in service (Billboard Aug. 13, 1966).

Antitrust spokesman Zimmerman said there should be no copyright liability at all for community antenna systems, which pick up TV programming free, and wire it into subscribers' homes for a monthly fee. The antitrusters fear that networks and large copyright holders in movie and program production could use leverage of high copyright fees to control or take over the antenna systems for themselves. Justice feels that blanket copyright liability for CATV would interfere with FCC regulation of the cable service.

Justice Department spokesman's interpretation of the copyright law produced shock in the hearing room. Zimmerman said the "toll" imposed by the law is mean only as an incentive" to creation of the work, and payment must be "fairly assessed," on the basis of public use. The law limits the author's "monopoly" over his property.

Applying this to the CATV issue, Justice figures that television viewers have already paid program copyright costs indirectly through buys of sponsors' products. Broadcasters and sponsors should pay slightly higher rates to copyright owners, if necessary, to cover CATV-enlarged audiences. In this way, Justice thinks CATV can get a free ride in copyright exemption "without injury" to the copyright owners.

Creative Broadcasting Enters Premium Field

LOS ANGELES — Creative Sound Productions is entering the premium business, in an expansion move out of the strict sacred field. President Bob Cotterell said he has concluded sales deals with several budget labels to purchase their product for use as premiums.

Cotterell plans offering catalog-type premiums in the religious, pop music, children's stories and adult Bible lesson fields. Among the lines he may draw from are Pickwick/33, Alshire Presents, Sunset, Somerset, Supreme Recordings, Word, Crown, Design, Grand Prix, Happy Time, Hilltop, Grand Disc, Cricket, Instant Learning, Sword, Console and Gospel Singtime.

Included in the artists are a number previously recording for Capitol who are now being released on Pickwick/33, notably Frank Sinatra and Nat Cole.

Since its inception one and a half years ago, Creative Sound, a religious specialty house, has maintained a custom disk operation. This newest move is seen by Cotterell as an "added source of distribution" in an area that's hardly been tapped. Cotterell reports negotiations with a drug and furniture chain for premium business. He has several options available in creating premium packages: either offering an account the already completed LP by the artist or to select tunes from several LP's for packaging in one album.

30G Toward Rothfeld Fete

NEW YORK — The dinnerdance honoring E. J. Korvette's David Rothfeld being staged by the Music Industry Division of the United Jewish Appeal has raised $30,000 toward its $100,000 goal. The Music Industry Division's committee reponsible for the Oct. 24 event met last week to review its plans.

Eric Bernay, the committee chairman, revealed a list of firms which have made contributions: These include Columbia Records, Columbia Records Special Products, Columbia Custom and Engineering, CBS Record Club, Epic Records, Amy-Mala, Walco, Decca, Vanguard, RCA Vitcor, Warner Bros. Reprise, Musicor, Kapp, Atlantic, London MGM, Capitol, Scepter-Wand, Fiesta, SESAC, Ambassador, Elektra and Sam Goody.

Big 3 to Move

NEW YORK — The Big 3 Music Corp. (Robbins-Feist-Miller), which recently scored with moves in the pop field, international and talent, will move to new quarters here shortly after Labor Day. The publishing firm will occupy offices at the recently completed MGM Building at 1350 Avenue of the Americas.

Merco, Stern Bros. In Licensing Deal

GARDEN CITY, N. Y. -Merco Enterprises, Inc., has signed a long-term licensing agreement with Stern Brothers to operate the record departments in Stern's Paramus, N. J.; Paterson, N. J.; Preakness, N. J., and Manhattan department stores. Jack Grossman, Merco president, said the licenses brought the number of leased departments currently operated by Merco to 34. The rack jobber also services about 100 retail record departments, 40 "junior" departments in variety stores, and college book stores in 24 States.

Executive Turntable

Mickey Kapp, executive vicepresident of Kapp Records, has resigned and will announce his plans shortly. Elsewhere on the Kapp front, Herb Gordon has been named promotion man for the Delaware Valley, working out of Philadelphia. He will report to Gene Armond, national promotion manager.

Billy James has resigned as a Columbia Records artists relations manager in Hollywood to become Elektra Records new Coast director handling artist development and publicity. He opens offices Monday (29) at 6290 Sunset Boulevard.

Marilyn Reiss has been appointed permanent director of West Coast operations for the Merrick Co. with offices in Los Angeles. Miss Reiss, who had operated out of the firm's New York office before beginning as head of the public relations company in Los Angeles on June 1, previously held executive posts with Robers and Cowan, CBS-TV, Arthur P. Jacobs and Walt Disney Studios.

Harvey H. Cowen was named to the new position of assistant advertising manager of MGM Records. He will report to Jack Maher, company's ad director. Cowen joins MGM from an advertising agency specializing in product promotion on network TV. Before that Cowen was local promotion manager for Columbia Records, held a similar berth with Mercury Records, and was a song plugger for Music Publishers Holding Corp.

Joe Lombardi has left the personal management firm of Tush-Lombardi Associates; senior partner Paul Tush has set up Paul Tush Artists Personal Management to handle the previous firm's clients.

Ernie Altschuler, executive a&r producer with Columbia Records, is leaving to join RCA Victor Records in an executive capacity.

Walt Heebner has joined Muntz Stereopak in its music duplicating department. The former Autostereo executive will also function as liaison with record companies.

Harry Anger is RCA Victor's new manager of popular advertising and display, succeeding Harold (Hank) Greer who has been promoted to manager of advertising and sales promotion services for the Radio Corp. of America. Anger will report to George L Parkhill, manager of advertising and promotion for Victor. Before joining Victor, Anger was creative director of Spencer Advertising Co. and previously worked with Warner Brothers Records, MGM Records and Victor.

Bea Marx has been promoted to publicity director of Fredana Management. She has worked with Fredana for four years as executive assistant to Fred Weintraub, president of the firm.

Gene Block has left Warner Bros.-Reprise Records. He was national sales manager. Previously he was Western regional sales chief for Columbia. He is currently investigating new affiliations. His chores will be handled by current WB personnel with no replacement being sought immediately.

Donald McAfee, composer, has been named assistant editor at the Bourne Co. He will work with Ralph Satz, editor in chief, in preparing for publication new, original works by American composers.

LAS VEGAS STRIP GLOWS WITH LOT OF DISK TALENT

LAS VEGAS—Some of the leading singers in the record industry are currently playing the famed Strip here to the delight of a heavy summer tourist trade.

The record boys seem to have hit town all at once.

At the Riviera, Vic Damone has been highly successful playing in the hotel's lounge. He is doing three shows a night and sings such favorites as "Marie," "On the Street Where You Live," "When You Are Alone" and "More."

Down the street is Buddy Greco, in the lounge at the Sands Hotel for the next four weeks. In his opening night show he included such big record sellers as "Lady Is a Tramp," "This Could Be the Start of Something Big" and "Around the World."

In the main showroom at the Sands is Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gorme.

Bobby Darin opened Aug. 18 at the Flamingo, and singing star John Gary closed there the night before. Darin, always a big favorite here, sang "Don't Rain on My Parade," "Quarter to Nine," "Artificial Flowers," and, of course, "Mack the Knife." He also did a medley of his top-selling records.

EDP equipment years ago, for the purpose of computing writer's royalties; now the use of this equipment is being expanded to cover the firm's entire international operation.

"What we are doing," Brackman noted, "is providing ourselves with every conceivable tool. For instance, our professional men have miniature transistor phonographs so that they can play material for artists anywhere — in restaurants, hotel rooms, etc."

"Today," Richmond added, "the publisher who serves as a mere custodian of the copyright does not meet the definition of a true publisher. He is merely fulfilling a non-creative segment of the total publisher function. The true publisher must be an extension of the writer. TRO is in business to function as an arm of the writer in all ways: to help him economically, to encourage him and keep up his morale, to effect proper marriage of lyricist and melodist, to give full exploitation to his works — and finally to effect 'writer continuity,' or the development of a writer over a long period."

Richmond and Brackman feel that in today's music business, a song's lyric is important. "Pub-a song's lyric is important. "Publishers usually judge a finished song. We seek to develop lyric writers as part of our writer workshop."

Examples are TRO's Gene Lees and Fran Landesman. The former is a novelist and critic, and Landesman, too, is a writer. "By perseverance," says Richmond, "we build writers and get continuity from them . . . the kind of continuity one has with Antonio Jobim or a Charles Aznavour, or Anthony Newley and Leslie Bricusse."

Another phase of TRO's operation is the building of song repertoires for artists. "This is a key way to start the life of a song and get it exposed, and we do it all over the world," Richmond stated.

The more independent publishers there are, the better for the music industry, provided they are publishers in the broad sense, he said, and added: "Good competition is welcomed; it promotes traffic in stores and it opens new markets all over the world."

TRO recently opened new offices in London and it operates a fully staffed office in France and Australia. These are all geared to the needs of the writer. An upcoming development will be the creation of a TRO office at Palm Springs, complete with writers' workshop facilities.

"Our job today," said Richmond, "is communications—communications with the writer and with the world markets."

While noting that Pickwick had agreements with 14 record companies, he said the Capitol agreement meant, "We unquestionably have the finest catalog available at under $2." He added, "We're exceeded only by RCA Camden. But we're breathing hard on their necks and expect to surpass them soon. . . . I think we have a long way to go with Capitol. Kingston 3 Hails Campus Dates

By ELIOT TIEGEL

LOS ANGELES — "If it wasn't for college concerts we'd be dead!" asserted composer John Stewart, a member of the Kingston Trio.

The trio has great respect for college gigs. The trio helped pave the collegiate trail for top-dollar performers.

"Colleges want more concerts," Stewart added, "They're making money on these things." While the Trio is cognizant of the growing sweep for rock 'n' roll dances among collegians, they nonetheless feel that the undergraduate area is very much their balliwick, "We'd be silly to get off the college circuit," added Nick Reynolds. "It's a ready market; the best audience for us. The students are very responsive. And they're old enough to understand what's going on."

Ten years ago when the group moved out of its own undergraduate status to become professional singers, it had no idea of the path that would unfurl for its brand of folk singing. After their first major single smash, "Tom Dooley" inundated the airwaves in 1958, they played 285 consecutive concerts.

Groove," Velvet Howard Roberts' newest album on the Verve label (Verve V-8662), is the finest example thus far of the tremendous range and extremely sensitive touch of this fine musician. For this set, Howard has surrounded himself with the best sidemen in the business. And the entire package comes off as a swinging tribute to the man's great skills, "Indian Summer," "An Orchid for Miss Sterling," the rhythmic "The Innocents" and a huge-sounding "Polka Dots and Moonbeams" are among the 9 great cuts. Howard Roberts is one of the creative guitarists who has selected Epiphone as his instrument. Its excellent response and quality craftsmanship make it a quitar that a swinging professional like Howard Roberts can take for granted. Epiphone-choice of artists who can hear the difference.

(Advertisement)

Today, their schedule is preened to from 30 to 50 college dates. Financial solvency allows freedom of selections.

The Trio says it has gone through three generations of college kids. "The kids today are aware; they bother to listen to the lyrics and don't take anything at face value," Reynolds continued, "Collegians won't get stampeded into fads."

In traveling all over the country, the Kingstons (add Bob Shane as the third member) have found a disconcertingly uncomfortable attitude in the South. "There's an element there which feels we're liberal folk singers," Stewart explained. A clause in their contract forbids discrimination in seating or ticket sales, "So they know right away where it's at," Stewart s n a p p e d. "There's a certain look and cool there that we don't find in Northern colleges. The fraternity boys have a 'cut 'em down, Harvery' attitude. The facade of the Confederacy is crumbling and they won't let go."

Stewart amplifies this reaction by saying that the Southern students aren't bad, it's just that there's an uneasiness found among a group of young people.

When the trio signed with Decca over a year ago, part of the stipulation was that Universal TV wouldn't develop a property for the boys, "We did a pilot," Reynolds revealed, "but it didn't come off. We're not very good on TV. We get up tight without an audience."

During a recent Lake Tahoe stint, the Trio recorded the ingredients for their forthcoming de luxe anniversary LP. When released it will mark their 29th LP, including 24 in the Capitol catalog.

Sandler & Young: 2 Click in a Slick Act

NEW YORK-Tony Sandler and Ralph Young are personable performers whose current starring engagement at the Plaza's Persian Room augurs well for important showcasings on the nightclub and television circuits. The boys have a slick and smooth in-person act that runs without a flaw for almost 60 minutes, making it a delight to listen to and watch. If they've been able to transfer some of these qualities to their debut Capitol album, which is scheduled for a release in a few weeks, their future on records will be assured, too.

The Capitol LP, titled "Side by Side," is a tipoff to the basic pattern of their performance which puts the stress on melodies sung in counterpoint. Their harmonizing technique is fresh and imaginative and full of vocal twists and humorous designs that work. Their i m p r e s s i o n of "Hello, Dolly!" for example, as done by many nationalities, is full of musical fun and solid songmanship. Sandler, a Belgian, is a multi-lingual singer who leads the way in a divertissement of songs done in French, Italian and G e r m a n, while Young, who is funny in his fractured foreign, holds down the English front.

Their repertoire is all-encompassing but they haven't taken on more than they can handle. They know just what they're doing all the time and they do it extremely well.

Beatlemania Turns To 'Beatle-waneia'

NEW YORK — There were certain unmistakable signs at Shea Stadium Tuesday night (23) that the phenomenal popularity enjoyed by the Beatles has begun to wane. Although their 35-minute concert netted them a whopping $189,000, the Liverpool moppets drew only 45,000 fans compared with the capacity crowd of 55,000 that jammed the ball park for last year's show.

Perhaps a more significant omen came from being able to understand some of the lyrics to the group's 11 songs, including "Yesterday," "I Need Someone" and "Paperback Writer." In their previous appearances, the din of hysterical, teen-age girls drowned out all sound emanating from the highly amplified speakers.

Another indication that the Capitol Records stars are declining in popularity was the reaction, or lack of reaction, of the screaming Beatlemaniacs. In contrast to last year's concert, when the teeners in the lower boxes stormed the stage en masse, only a score of hysteria-clutched fans braved the bolstered police lines (upward of 400 on the field).

It's doubtful that recent statements from John Lennon, concerning the status of Christianity in the world today, caused a dip in attendance. It is more likely that the mop-tops have saturated the market.

Whatever the reason, it seems that the Beatles have begun the long, slow downward journey, even though their concerts will attract thousands and their rec(Continued on page 18)

Tamla-Motowners Go to Town

NEW YORK — The Tamla-Motown sound continues to delight and excite the teen dance set. In a sellout performance at the Forest Hills Music Festival Saturday night (20) the label's mainstays, the Supremes, Temptations and Stevie Wonder headlined a fast-paced, wellproduced program that captivated the enthusiastic crowd.

The Temptations, a well-disciplined quintet of song-anddance men, launched the concert with a barrage of their former hits, including "Why You Wanna Make Me Blue," "The Girl's All Right With Me," "My Girl," "My Baby," and "Ain't Too Proud to Beg." Dressed in white from head to toe, the talented boys were an impressive sight as they synchrodanced and sang 12 of their

Gordy Records singles, highlighted by their latest chart hit, "Beauty In Only Skin Deep."

Following the quintet, a rough task for any performer, was Stevic Wonder, the blind, young singer with the Ray Charles style. Wonder displayed his many talents (drums, piano, harmonica) along with his vocal ability, as he sang his smash hit "Uptight," the civil rights protest tune, "Blowin' in the Wind," his latest chart - buster, and finished with the audience-participation song, "La La La La

After intermission the concert's headliners, billed as the "No. 1 Female Singing Group in the U. S.," topped off the show with their typically smooth act, featuring their own top 10 hits, "Baby Love," "Stop in the Name of Love," "My World Is Empty Without You" and their current smash, "You Can't Hurry Love." The Supremes, top act in the Motown stable. also sang a bossa-nova version of "More," and a comedy routine built around "Queen of the House."

The crowd of 14,000 exuberant fans served as a strong vote of confidence for the Tamla-Motown empire and president Berry Gordy. HERB WOOD

Gary Draws a Full House In 17-Tune Card at Grove

LOS ANGELES—John Gary gave a mature, polished performance in his Cocoanut Grove opening Thursday (18).

The host of his own summer TV series on CBS drew a full house of partisans who responded to all tunes. Gary's ability in handling ballads and medium-tempo songs was showcased in a 17-tune act.

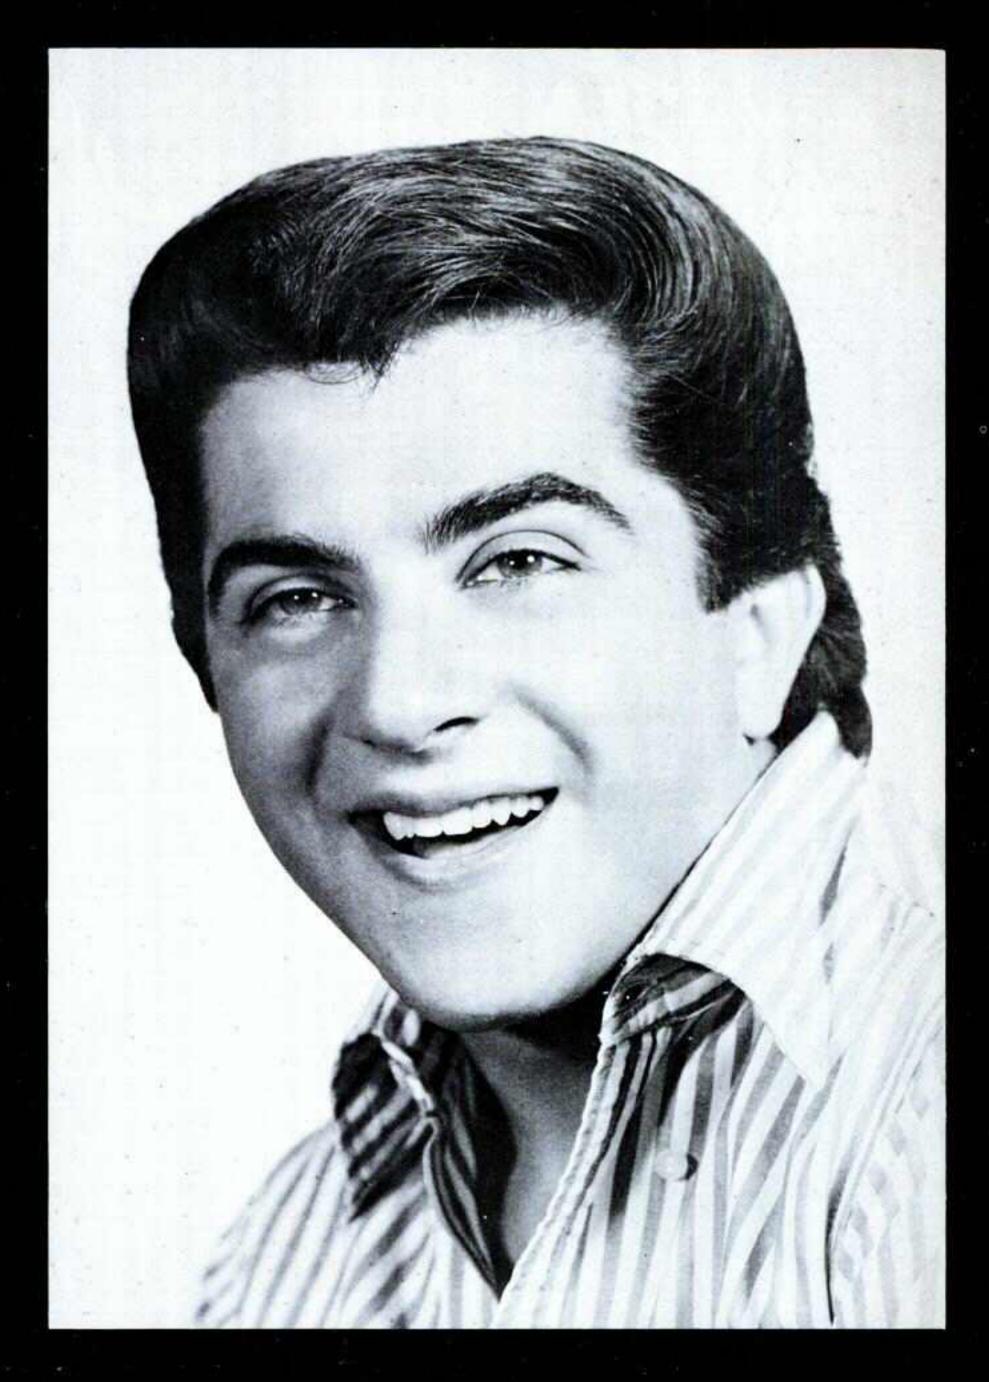

His show consisted of casual patter, a smattering of humor and imitations and a style reminiscent of Perry Como's. Gary's voice carries echoes of the late Buddy Clark, but the emotion and drive are all his, notably on "What Now My Love?" "Prisoner of Love" and "Sound of Music." On the last-named tune, he was accompanied by the Jimmy Joyce Singers from his TV show, seated ringside, who broke into song.

Dick Stabile's 18-piece house band, conducted by Gary's pianist John Price, offered the backing for all the tunes, save "Music." Singer utilized the unusual approach of walking to the corners of the large room with a transistorized mike to allow backscaters a closeup peak. The spotlights barely picked him up, but the action was an appreciated surprise.

Booking is Gary's second in a year and, as a result of the TV exposure and RCA Victor disks, portends good box office.

Upbeat Season Ends At Municipal Opera

this year's Municipal Opera season, which ended a 12-week run this week (Aug. 27), exceeded last year's by about 12,000 despite a 13-week season last year.

Incomplete figures put attendance this year at about 760,-000 compared with 747,402 in 1965. "We gave them shows they wanted to see, even if they had been done before-some many times," said William Zalken, manager of the outdoor theater in its 48th season.

Biggest draw was "Oklahoma," with Robert Horton as lead. It attracted 82,157, fourth greatest draw in the opera's history. "Having Horton helped the box office," Zalken said. "How much is hard to say. 'Oklahoma!' always draws big."

Eddie Albert in "The Music Man" placed second with 73,433 in the second week of its twoweek run; with 59,429 in the first week, the Meredith Willson musical attracted 132,862, not too far off the record 137,613 attracted by "My Fair Lady" in 1964.

Attendance at "Bye Bye Birdie" was 8,000 greater than in 1962. Zalken attributed this to the use of a local rock 'n' roll combo, Bob Kuban and the In-Men, "who really brought out the teen-agers."

ords will continue to gross millions for some time.

Other groups that shared a slice of the $292,000 gross, and a much smaller share of the crowd's enthusiasm, were the Cyrkle, the Remains, the Ronettes and Bobby Hebb. The WMCA Good Guys, Murray the K, "Cousin Brucie" Morrow and Hal Jackson handled the emcee chores for producer Sid Bern-HERB WOOD stein.

The Beatles appearance in Boston, (18) created only wild enthusiasm for 20,000 youngsters and left next day $60,000 richer. Attendance of 30,000 was hoped for. It is reported that Frank Connelly, impresario of the big Framingham Carosel Theater, who staged the show, took in a gross of from $125,000 to $160,000. Tickets were scaled at $4.75 and $5.75.

The more than 350 State and local police kept the crowd orderly, had little trouble in handling the few recalcitrants who jumped fences and got onto the vast infield where the stage was set up. Local deejays tried to calm the crowd, but in this modern trend, the audience wanted to be the show.

The Remains performed in a nasal imitation of the Beatles; Bobby Hebb and the Cyrkle went on to the thunderous rumble and good - natured screams of the crowd. Then three slim girls in gold lame

Taylor Charms At Living Room

NEW YORK—Faron Taylor opened at the Living Room, Monday (22) with charm and warmth.

The Columbia Records recording artists captured the audience from her first number with a soft style that crescendoed into a powerhouse finale. That's the way each of Miss Taylor's numbers was sung-an easy opening building steadily to a forceful finish. Miss Taylor was trying to please and she certainly succeeded.

Miss Taylor's material included show tunes, standards, and Easy Listening, up-tempo pop music. Backed by a threeman band, she scored sharply with a medley consisting of "Reach Out for Me," "Must Be a Reason" and "Rescue Me." The show's highlight was a dynamic rendition of "The Masquerade Is Over."

Detroit Dealers Play Down Chart Value in Sound-Alike Market

By RAY BRACK and PAUL ZAKARAS

DETROIT-While local record merchandisers claim that area radio "Top 40 charts" are highly innaccurate, they say that they are able to live with the situation because no one in the Motor City market uses radio charts as a buying guide.

This lack of direct chart influence on record sales, according to dealers, is due to the relatively high number of competing Big Beat radio stations in the area-all offering slightly different formats and none having a clearly dominant influence as taste-maker in the Detroit pop market.

Sam Press, co-owner of the Ross Music Shops in Detroit, said that "There are actually three influential rock stationstwo here and one in Windsor, Canada, competing for the kids' attention, plus two very strong r&b stations. You have to remember that because of Mo-

WALT BOWING AUDIENCE PLAN

TAMPA, Fla. - WALT has initiated a guaranteed audience project. Aimed primarily at advertisers, the station's "SMD" plan (Sales Messages Delivered) vows a Pulse rating of 6 or a weekly cumulative listening audience of 35,000 different homes, said station president Robert Leonard.

town, r&b is a stronger product here than it might be in other markets. So what you have is kids constantly switching dials between all these stations and not being dominated by any of them. A 'Keener' (WKNR) chart might have some of the most popular songs in the area on it but it will invariably be late in listing a big English hit which the kids have been hearing on CKLW of Windsor, and will likewise be late in listing a hot r&b number that has been exposed by one of the other stations."

"What this means," he said, "is that teen-agers choose the best of several stations. For this reason we don't have to buy according to anybody's chart. The independent dealers in this town wait until they start getting requests before they will order anything-except something by a very hot artist."

Asked if his customers would not seek out a competitor who already had the hits in stock, Press said: "The racks are even slower in getting current singles out-we can move faster than our competition."

Not Used as Guide

Lou Salesin, a 35-year veteran of the business who owns Munford Music Shop, said that he also does not use "radio charts as buying guides. I must ignore WKNR and the other lists; they are innaccurate for a number of reasons. Some of these innaccuracies could be eliminated—and I would like to see that happen, just for the principle of the thing."

Sol Margolis, owner of the Ross Music Stores, told Billboard: "I only order what I get calls for, plus a minimum of new releases by established artists. To my knowledge, no Detroit dealer uses radio charts as any kind of a buying guide. We know better than to trust what those sheets say."

Another dealer, who did not wish to be identified, said that "you simply cannot believe what the radio charts list. The trouble is that there are too many pop records being released. I think the manufacturers are working on some sort of percentage planning. They just keep churning the records out, hoping that

WEAM Again Grabs Singles Ring

WASHINGTON — What the record industry needs-as well as the radio industry—is more people like Bob Crewe and the Beatles. "We need more people -artists as well as record producers-who do things different, because nothing stimulates our business like excitement," said Steve Wade, an air personality and music director of WEAM, the 5,000-watt Hot 100 format station here. Crewe and the Beatles, he noted, are always coming up with something fresh in their work. Crewe produces the 4 Seasons, among others.

WEAM for the second year in a row has come out on top here as the major influence on sales of singles records-indication of a vast teen and young adult audience. Billboard's latest Radio Response Rating survey of the market, ninth largest radio market in the nation, showed the station No. 1 with 39 per cent of the votes, leading WPGC's 34 per cent. Last year, WEAM crept into first place for the first time, but by only one percentage point.

Voting in the survey were the people whose living depends on record sales - record dealers, distributors, record one-stop operators, and local and national record company executives. All feel that the ability of a station to influence record sales is an indication of the station's ability to influence sales of other prod-

Harry H. Averill, vice-president and general manager, sets the music programming policy for the station; the man who carries it out is Wade. Wade. who's responsible for selecting the records played on the station, pointed out that the station's success is based largely on teamwork with all personalities contributing.

Program Pattern

WEAM uses aprogramming pattern calling for two up-beat tunes, one down-beat. Each record is slotted by Wade who feels that the "over-all pop sound of today seems to be soft. You can't rely on the old Elvis Presley, and the Rolling Stones. I think some of the hard rock tunes are making it today only because of the need stations have for up-beat tunes; some of the hard rock records aren't as good as they used to be. Stevie Wonder and the Supremes are softer today, too."

He said that an estimated 23 per cent of the station's audience is teens, but the "bulk of our audience is undoubtedly among young adults." WEAM aims its programming at a "thinking, buying" audience.

Records are selected for airplay at WEAM, Wade said, on "the way it sort of grabs you. I never put a record on the playlist unless I've heard it halfa-dozen times and I try to listen to every record at least once. Too, I don't play a record just because I like it. You're not playing records to entertain yourself, but your listeners."

WEAM tries to keep aheador abreast-of the record market, but Wade often finds he's on and off a record before the rest of the nation. The pick record of the week is played every other hour for two weeks except during the midnight to 6 a.m. period when it's played every hour. The station feels this gives the pick adequate exposure and if it's going to make it, it'll make it during that time.

Every record on the playlist -40 records, plus five instrumentals, and one pick of the week - is turned over about every three or four hours. But the list is flexible; the station will add a good record immediately. "So many stations have a long list, but never play many of the records on it; we play them all," Wade said.

A 'Liberal' Format Helps WOL to the Top

By CLAUDE HALL

WASHINGTON — "Who are we to say Negroes don't like the Beatles," said Rudy Runnels, music director of the powerhouse r&b station here. WOL is the No. 1 station in audience ratings in the metropolitan area and Billboard's latest Radio Response Rating survey shows the station as predominently the major influence on sales of r&b records-No. 1 with a heavy majority of 61 per cent of the votes. A year ago the station, which had just switched from good music, ranked as the second station influence on r&b record sales.

Part of the station's success undoubtedly rests on the fact that it has a liberal programming policy and plays such artists as the Beatles, Sonny & Cher, the Lovin' Spoonful, Tony Bennett and Frank Sinatrawhen their records reach the top 10 of the charts. This policy definitely works, as the station's ratings show. It has also broadened the base of sales of the city's major r&b retail dealers, said Runnels. "Waxie Maxie is stocking records now that he (Continued on page 26)

THE RADIO RESPONSE RATINGS of stations and individual air personalities have been determined by survey of local and national record promotion personnel, distributors and record manufacturers. Not a popularity poll, the ratings are strictly on the comparative ability of the stations and air personalities to influence their listeners to purchase the singles and albums played on the air. The ratings likewise point up the importance of music of all types in building audiences and creating the framework conducive to influencing the listener to purchase other products and services advertised on radio stations.

never carried before. So is Frank Manthos, owner of the Soul Shack, a retail outlet so big it's like a supermarket for records."

Runnels was named the No. 1 air personality influencing r&b record sales by Billboard's RRR survey; he had 37 per cent of the votes. Voting were the men whose living depends on these sales—record dealers, distributors, one-stop operators, and national and local record company executives. "And I'm not even a personality deejay," Runnels said. "I don't know what to say. All I can do is announce the record and the time." But this fits right in with the station's "modern" r&b format, which it more or less pioneered. The policy is "less talk," said Runnels. "If deejays can't say it in 10 seconds or less, they shouldn't say it." Too, the record formula, Runnels said, give the audience the sense of hearing the new tunes, but neither the new nor the old tunes too often. The station has anywhere from 40-80 records on its playlist; it doesn't restrict itself.

One of the contributing factors to the station's success in the market is that it's big on news, big on social events, and tries to make listeners feel they're a part of the station. A special "Soundoff Line" feature each half-hour monitored by five electronic secretaries, allows personal gripes of listeners to be aired. In addition, there's a guest deejay line and once-anhour the station airs the voice of a listener making a request and plays that request.

R&b stations across the nation are doing well, felt Runnels, "especially those r&b station who've upgraded their programming to top 40 type programming. Personality r&b radio is fast becoming a part of the past."

The station is launching jazz programming on its FM facility in the near future and hopes are to eventually broadcast completely in stereo.

Bonn Govt. Taking Neutral Road In Network-Artist Society Strife

By OMER ANDERSON

BONN — The Bonn government has declined to intervene in the dispute between the West German radio network and the performing artists society over royalties for disk music programming.

The government's intervention is being sought on the grounds that two groups stand to lose most from the present deadlock which are not a party to the royalty rhubarb and have no representation at the negotiations: radio listeners and the record companies.

Listener representatives have demanded government intervention on the ground that radio in Germany is organized as a "public service" activity and, hence, is regulated by the government. Listeners pay 50 cents monthly listening fee, and listener representatives claim the current contretempts threatens to cheat the listener.

Record companies have a more subtle involvement. They depend on radio programming of disk music to promote record sales, especially of pop music. Much of the phenomenal growth of the German record industry since the war is credited to radio exposure of disk music.

Radio Importance

Aside from the economics of the matter, overt advertising is no substitute for radio disk music programming. Sales and listener studies clearly show that in Germany radio exposure is the main force in building disk sales.

Were disk programming to be abandoned entirely or even severely curtailed by the West German radio network—the Arbeitsgemeinchaft der oeffentlich rechtlichen Rundfunkanstalten der Bundesrepublik Deutschland (ARD) — Germany's disk program would be sorely hit.

The Bonn government contends, however, that the dispute has still to move to the crisis stage.

The performing artists—the Gesellschaft zur Verwertung von Leistungsschutzrechten (GLV)—is demanding a tenfold increase in disk music royalties from the ARD. This would amount to about $6,000,000 annually and would be in addition to the $20,000,000 annually which ARD already pays to GEMA, the German ASCAP organiza-

ARD, which is a federation of regional networks organized as a national quasi-public corporation, has answered the GVL's demands with the threat to eliminate disk music programs entirely and rely instead on live music and tapes from its archives and non-GVL sources.

The GVL has been laughing off this threat, but now ARD is moving to put it into force.

North German Radio, the largest of the ARD's regional affiliates, has cut back disk programming 10 per cent, substituting, for example, for Frank Sinatra, a local (live) singer, Addi Muenster, celebrated in North Germany for his rendition of "Hummel, Hummel mit Hunor." NDR claims listeners are writing in to say that "Addi sounds better in German ears than Frank ever did."

Hessische (Hessian) Rundfunk has eliminated "for the duration" its popular disk program "Teens-Twens-Pop Time," "aether leicht gewellit" and "Wir bitten zum Beat." Instead, the station is playing vintage (but beyond GVL control) foxtrots.

West German Radio (covering the Ruhr area and Bonn-Cologne) has banished "Platten-plauderei," "Schlager (Hit tune) Report," and "Siskothek-Bummel. Some of the air time thus vacated has been assigned to Willy Schneider, a staff singer and folk tune artist celebrated for his "Einmal am Rhein," a sort of poor man's version of "Home on the Range."

Sender Freies Berlin has cut phonograph music from 80 to eight hours of disk music weekly; the Bavarian Radio network from 70 to seven hours weekly; and Radio Saar has announced that beginning Sept. 1 it will eliminate phonograph music entirely except for commercials, which are broadcast in clusters on short programs twice daily.

Mex. Cap. Bubbles With New Projects

By KEVIN M. KELLEGHAN

MEXICO CITY — A major prime time TV show, a contest for new talent, and nationwide sales representation in the U. S. are the major projects for the first months of Discos Capitol de Mexico's second year of business. The company got a birth-day present too, an increase in capital.

The firm celebrated its first anniversary by announcing that a new live half-hour TV show will be beamed to Mexico's estimated 10,000,000 viewers.

Kick-off program may include the Beach Boys, who are signed for a TV appearance "soon." The Outsiders and Nancy Wilson will be invited.

Capitol de Mexico plans to buy a half hour from Telesistema Mexicano, nation's largest network, then sell spots to sponsors. The company will supervise production by "an expert from the television station."

The contest for new talent debuts Oct. 1 in Guadalajara, also on TV. The purpose is to discover new talent exclusively among university students in that city. Scheduled as a pilot, the contest will go national in January if it works regionally.

The idea isn't new in Latin America. It worked six years ago in Brazil, general manager Andre Midani points out, and out of the youth of that nation came the bossa-nova beat. The situation in Mexico is different. Of the three basic elements of any country's music—lyrics, rhythm and melody—Mexico's lyric offerings are perhaps the weakest.

Composers have been saying the same thing for 20 years, (Continued on page 36)

E. Germany to Roll Out Red Carpet For Pop Music at the Leipzig Fair

BERLIN — Communist East Germany is arranging an unprecedented display of pop music for its famous autumn trade fair at Leipzig Sept. 4 to 11.

Fair officials said about 2,500 pop titles would be on display from 75 countries. Erich Koestner, chief of the Leipzig fair's entertainment products division, explained, "We can't guarantee that all of the 2,500 records would qualify for Billboard's 'Hot 100' listings, but we are trying to assemble records which are popular in countries all over the world. There is no question that the record exhibits at Leipzig this year will be the biggest ever."

Fair officials reported that about 35 major Western record companies will exhibit at Leipzig. This large turnout is a tribute to the fact that Western pop is now officially recognized, if not encouraged, in East Germany. East Germany has come to concede that music is an important facet of the world export trade, and that pop is a prime export commodity along will classical. East Germany is rolling out the red carpet for records at Leipzig this year not only to promote the disk trade but also to help sell its record players and hi-fi equipment. This is the fastest growing segment of the East German electronics industry in response to the East German government's new policy of encouraging con-

To Show Strides

East Germany will use the Leipzig fair, the big East-West trade meeting ground in Europe, to dramatize the strides made by the East German disk industry.

East Germany's disk business is State-controlled, with all production and sales are rising rapidly. In 1965, East Germany produced 12 million records compared with 5 million in 1959, of which pop accounted for 3 million and classical 9

Classical Product

East Germany is now producing standout classical product alone and in co-operation with West German record companies. For example, Eterna's releases of Bach's "Weihnachtsoratorium," Handel's "Jahreszeiten" and Mozart's "Entfuehrung aus dem Scrail" have found a large world export market.

VEB Deutsche Schallplatten has developed lucrative sales for Cuban music and for Eastern European folk music. The East Germans have become Fidel Castro's principal music sales outlet in Europe.

In the last year, East Germany has made efforts to sell its music in the West as part of East-West trade package deals. These deals include East German music along with East German optics and electronics in trade pacts with Western countries such as France, England, Holland and Sweden.

At the same time, the market for Western music has been expanding in East Germany. Authorities have dropped outright opposition to Western pop and they have even begun to give cautious encouragement to the playing of evergreens.

LAUNCHING THE 1, 2, 5 campaign to popularize singles in France are Les Princesses, who record for Pierre Berjot's ELY label.

Singles Attack Launched Vs. EP Market in France

PARIS—A new offensive to popularize singles and break the EP stranglehold on the French market is being mounted by independent producer Pierre Berjot.

Berjot is promoting his campaign on a 1, 2, 5 formula; one disk, two songs, 5 francs ($1), and believes that EP's should be completely eliminated from the French market.

"We have decided to try to force the issue by manufacturing only single records," Berjot said. "We feel it is completely unpractical for a producer to have to record four songs at a time when only one of them is likely to get radio exposure. The three others represent a waste of time, talent and money.

"Also, young people, who form the largest group of record buyers, are likely, in my view, to spend 5 francs on a single much more readily than double the amount on a EP, especially when they are probably only interested in one song."

In addition to releasing singles of Les Princesses and Rolande Poyla on his own Ely label, Berjot has also persuaded Philips to put out the first disk of American-born singer Dean Cooper as a single.

Dial-a-Disk, British Style, Buzzes Along

LONDON—Britain's government-controlled telephone service is planning to continue a Dial-a-Disc service in Leeds, Yorkshire, in October after a successful four-week trial there during July. The service is run during the evenings on a line normally reserved for callers wanting to know the latest score in international cricket matches.

Each day a different record from the top positions on the week's charts is played continuously. In the July trial 176,000 persons used Dial-a-Disc.

If the second experiment is equally successful, the disk service may be supplied by other phone exchanges across Britain.

Britain's only privately run exchange at Hull, Yorkshire, has operated a similar business for 12 years. Called Teledisc, the Hull service plays one record all week and is sponsored by a local record store. The first week in August it pulled in 19,000 callers for the Beatles' "Yellow Submarine."

Newsstand Records in Milan Making Stores Fighting Mad

MILAN—A new invasion of the pop record market with a 93/4-inch LP (33 rpm) offering six best-selling tunes for 80 cents on newsstands is rubbing record shops the wrong way.

Previous protests have concerned the many disks, both shellac and plastic, now available through news dealers. Most successful of these has been Fratelli Fabbri's "The Great Musicians," with biweekly re-

CASELLI LEADS WITH PERDONO

ROME — Festivalbar competition on the nation's jukeboxes has already broken all previous records as it goes into its final month with Caterina Caselli, CGD, leading by a comfortable margin with her song "Perdono." Following in order are Little Tony, Durium, "Ridera"; Petula Clark, SAAR-Vogue, "L'Amore E Il Vento" (who was winner in 1965 with Italian version of "Downtown"); Wilma Goich, Ricordi, "L'Uomo Di Ieri," and Sascha Distel, EMI-Voce del Padrone, with "Signor Cannibals." Winners will be featured on special TV program Sept. 15.

leases of classical LP's at 90 cents, and the long-running weekly series, "The Story of Music." Other installment books have included records, and one cross-word weekly regularly offers plastic records.

The records have been part of periodicals which claimed the records were incidental to and illustrative of texts. The new release, "Sonorama Per Tutti," which is labeled "No. 1" with no indication of frequency of issue, features the six top-ranking songs of the competition known as A Record for the Summer, sponsored by RAI-Radiotelevision Italiana, and the Italian Phonograph Record Association. The record has been prepared by Compagnia Internazionale Discografica and Edizioni Musicale Arlecchino and features an orchestra called I Falchi.

Discos Universales Registers Sales Hike

MEXICO CITY—Discos Universales, S. A. announced this year's first period sales was $384,000, up 25 per cent over the same period in 1965. Company revealed at least 10 per cent of that 25 per cent increase was in jazz sales, mostly on the Verve label, with this city the top market.

Polydor Bows Marmalade, A New Label

LONDON — Germany's Deutsche Grammophon U.K. subsidiary, Polydor, is launching a new label called Marmalade. First release is a single, "We Love the Pirates," by new group, the Roaring 60's. The lyrics on the record, produced by the independent Carter-Lewis team responsible for several U.K. hits, urge the government to abandon its plans to ban the off-shore commercial radio stations.

The disk most likely will get plenty of airplay from the eight pirate radio stations afloat around Britain's coast. Label head Georgia Gomelsky hopes that the pirate promotion will put Marmalade in the charts first shot.

First Two LP's on 'Light Music' Are Out in Norway

OSLO — The Association of Norwegian Light and Film Music Composers and Songwriters (NOPA), in collaboration with the Norwegian Broadcasting Corporation (NRK) and Philips, is currently releasing worldwide the first two LP's in the series, "Light Music From Norway."

In addition to the funds that have been accumulated by NOPA over a period of years for this purpose, the Norwegian Broadcasting Corp. has given a grant to make these recordings possible. In addition to the recordings made by NRK's own orchestra, the series will consist of recordings of brass band music, an a cappella choir, a choir with orchestral accompaniment, and instrumental solo and small ensembles.

The head of the Norwegian Information Service in New York, Jon Embretsen, will arrange for the records to be distributed to some 200 commercial radio and TV stations in the U. S.

Rivers' Disk, Club Tie-In MEXICO CITY—"The Gold Records," a special selection of Johnny Rivers' top hits, will be released next month here coinciding with the singer's appearance at the El Patio night-club Friday (2). A single with "Muddy Water," and "Every Day I Have to Cry" will be released with Rivers singing the songs in Spanish. The "Disco de Oro" will include "Memphis, "Maybellina," "Seventh Dun," "Secret Agent Man" and Rivers' big current Aztec hit, "Susy Q," as well as six others.

Celantano Is Hit By Tax Charge

MILAN—Adriano Celantano, top Italian vocalist, and his disk empire which includes Clan Celenantano and other labels and the C and C Distribution Co., have been charged with evasion of taxes on income of $3 million by national and local tax authoriries.

A Swinging Record-Buying Bonn Spends 150 Mil Yearly

BONN — Government consumer surveys disclose a swinging market in West Germany for phonograph records; about 70 per cent of all record buying is done by those under 40, and teen-agers make up the biggest market for hit tunes.

The Germans spend around $150,000,000 annually for records. Women buy more records than men. Women make up 52.8 per cent of the West German population, but they buy about 60 per cent of all phonograph records.

About 40 per cent of all German households now have a record player, thanks to the German boom. And some 1,000,000 persons buy phonograph records regularly, although they have no phonograph record player at home. They buy the disks for gifts and/or to play on friends' record players.

Fifty per cent of German disk buying is done between October and January. Hit tunes sell the year-round and particularly singles. But LPs, pop as well as classical, sell better in the autumn and winter. In the spring, the German disk buyer's fancy turns to pop singles.

Big families buy pop in preference to classical, and single persons with their own households buy mostly classical. This means, according to the surveys, that disk firms should angle sales promotion toward family units for pop, and toward bachelor households for classical.

Berliners buy the most phonograph records per capita and residents of Lower Saxony the fewest. In Wurttemberg - Baden, the solid Swabians buy the most classical of any population group in Germany, but in Schleswig-Holstein the reverse in true, with pop sales running ahead of any other German province.

Original Score LP Is Issued On Italian Western Cartoon

MILAN — The first Italian western cartoon "West and Soda" was released last winter and was a box-office success. In conjunction with the movie release, Carosello issued an album including the original score penned by Giampiero Boneschi and published by sister concern Curci. A Milanese factory marketed a puppet series made of cloth with all leading characters who appeared in the movie.

"West and Soda" will be screened in the Scandinavian countries, Belgium, Holland, Spain, France, Germany, Canada, South America and in the U. S., this fall.

Carosello has just released its album to Polydor for Germany, Benelux and the Scandinavian countries, to Belter for Spain, to Disc-Jockey for Argentine and to Rozenblit for Brazil.

Irish Showbands Hoping for Breakthrough on the Hot 100

DUBLIN—Apart from crashing the British best sellers, the foremost ambition of every Irish showband is to have a disk on the Hot 100.

This month, there's a possibility that one of the country's top 10 units will visit the U. S. for a three-month stay, mainly for recording purposes.

Field Day for Gal Singles at Cantastampa

SAN BENEDETTO AL TRONTO, Italy—Distaff singers had their day with songs and the press in the third Cantastampa. They presented 21 tunes by name composers, with lyrics by journalists specializing in the pop music field.

Rita Pavone was guest of honor Tuesday (23) on occasion of her 21st birthday. The only male participation in the program was by an English group, the Rokes, who work in Italy and currently top the Italian best-selling lists. Participating artists come from every major Italian label.

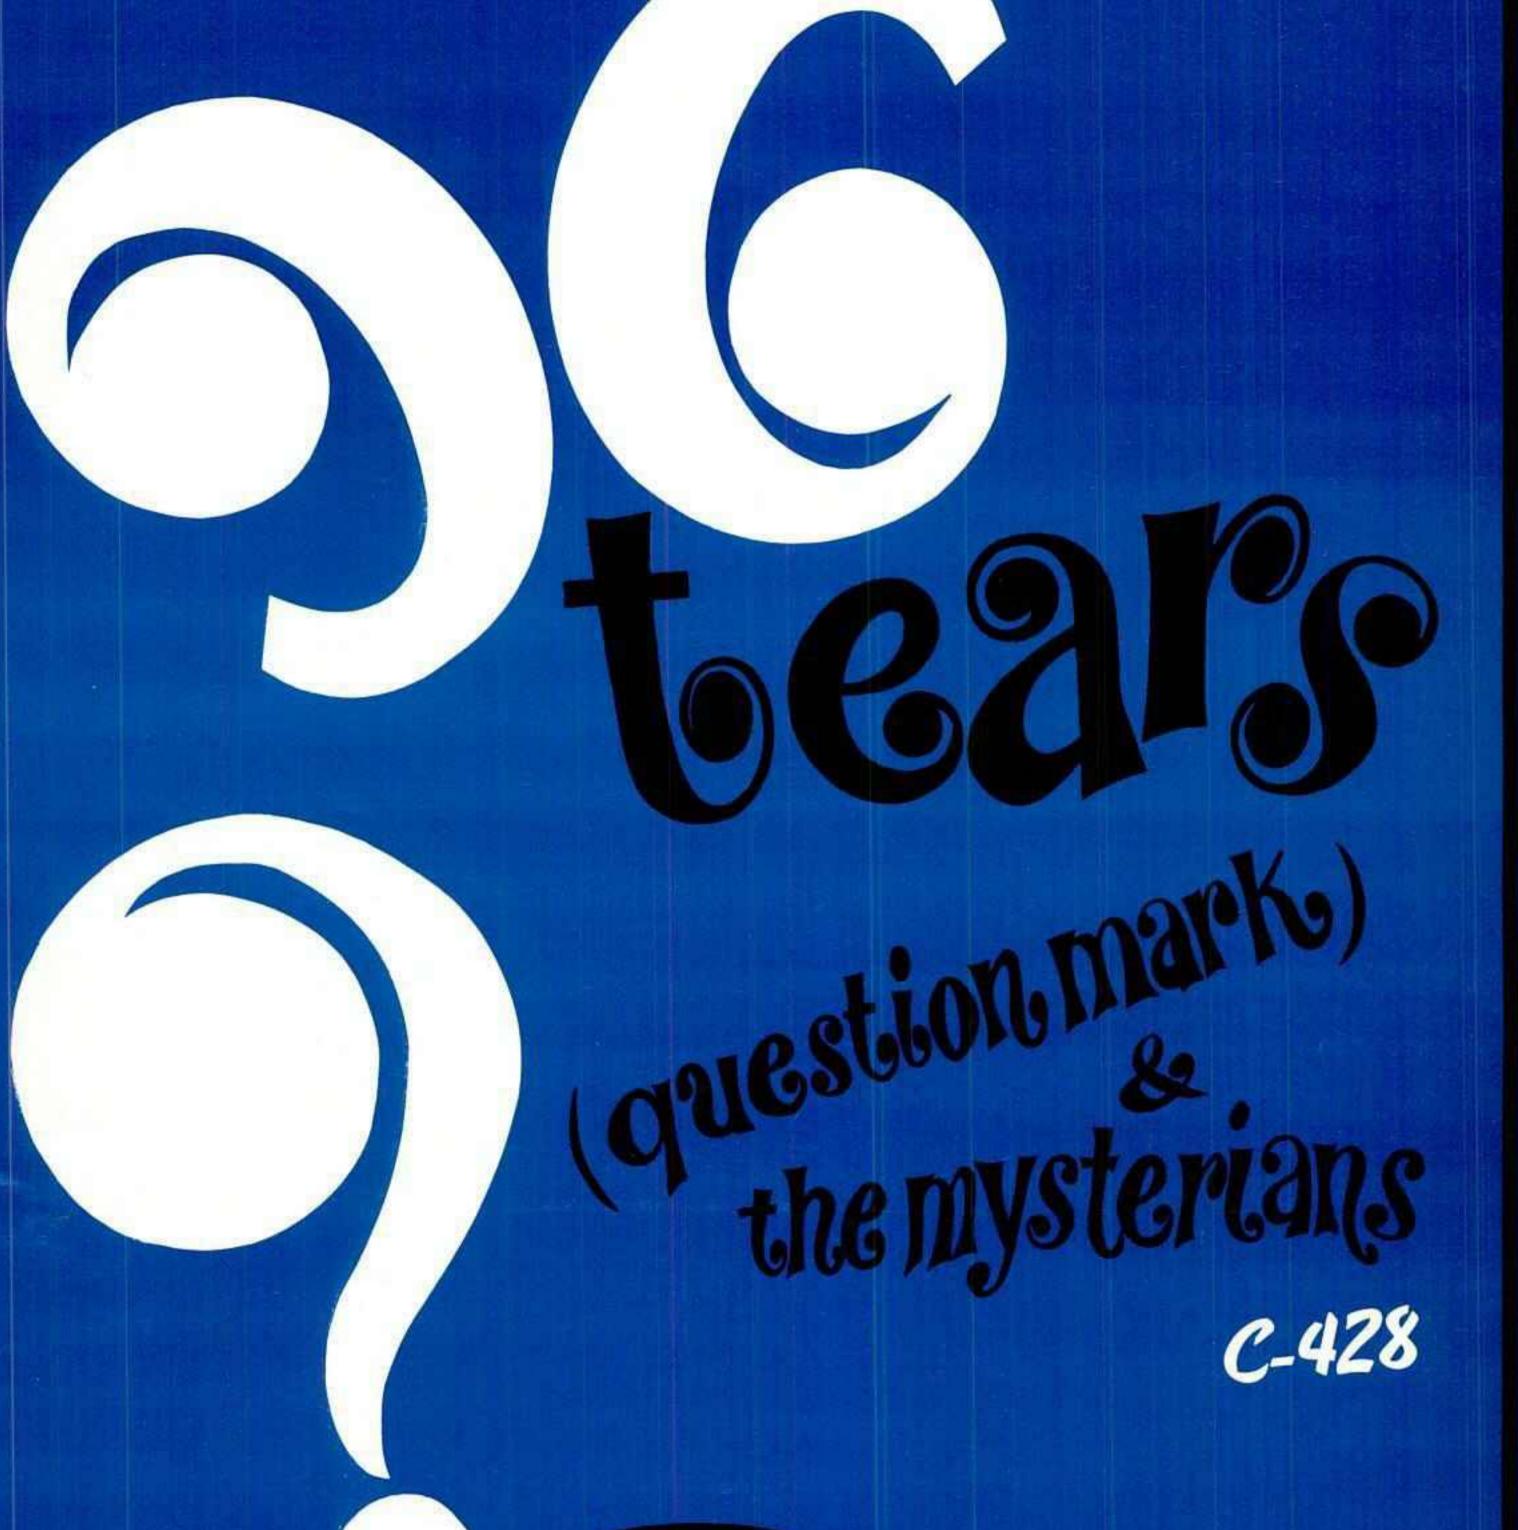

Maestro Enrico Simonetti conducted the 18-piece all-male orchestra; the event was organized by Sandrino Delti Ponci of Il Resto Del Carlino of Bologna at the Teatro Calabresi here. Another showband with the Hot 100 firmly in mind is the Drifters, who, with lead singer Joe Dolan, have had five singles on an EP in the Irish chart. Manager Seamus Casey is mailing copies of their new disk, "Pretty Brown Eyes," to American disk jockeys in the hope of getting some exposure.

Casey feels it is essential to use original material and ideas to make the breakthrough. "Showbands don't mean anything in the U. S. right now because hardly any of their records have been released there.

Karin Kent tok over No. 1 on the Dutch charts with "Dans Je De Hele Nacht Met Mij" (Dance the Whole Night With Me) on Decca, which was composed by Burt Bacharach. She originally sang the number at the Nnokke Song Festival in Belgium. Decca's Netherlands marketing organization, the Phonogram Co., expects the record to pass the 100,000 mark. . . . Philips is releasing a series of recordings during September by I Musici with five Vivaldi concertos and an album featuring Quartetto Italiano, with four of Haydn's popular string quartets.

The Dutch Swing College, jazz group, is scoring strongly with a single coupling, "East St. Louis Toodle-Oo" and "From Monday On," culled from an earlier album. . . . Through Phonogram here, Mercury has issued a Faron Young album, "The Best of Jim Reeves," and the Clebanoff orchestra album, "Country Music for People Who Don't Like Country Music." . . . Popular British group the Troggs have their first EP out on Fontana here with "Wild Thing" as the lead track. . . . Liberty's Julie London will not appear at the Dutch disk festival Oct. 1 as scheduled. French singer Richard Antony will substitute.

Dutch Capitol chief Roel Kruize announced release of the single "God Only Knows" by the Beach Boys, who are a hot group here.

. . Zither player Anton Karas includes the "Third Man Theme" on his new CBS album here.

Liberty vice-president Bob Skaff married U. S. model Victoria Hilbert at a London register office Tuesday (16). Mrs. Paul Anka and her sister Mrs. Margaret Dreyfus were ceremony witnesses. Before the wedding, Skaff was having talks with EMI and looking at independent material here for Liberty to put out in America. . . . United Artists Music Co. has bought a 50 per cent stake in Orbit Music, the publishing company run by independent producer Shel Talmy here. Noel Rogers, head of UA's publishing operation here, said:

Irish Showbands

"Any bands that undertake annual tours are usually confined to playing the Irish ball-room circuit. Showbands are getting far more international-minded and their primary objective is to register in Britain or in the States," he said.

ANGELICA MARIA and Alberto Vasquez hold the "Kanguro Radio Mil as last year's most from Mexico City radio station Radio Mil as last year's most-popular recording artists for youth. Both are Musart artists. Angelica Maria's latest LP is "Volume Seven." Vazquez's latest LP includes "Strangers in the Night" and "Shadow of Your Smile."

"The deal will mean a considerable expansion in Orbit's activities in coming months."

Top British group the Who have their first new single on the independent Reaction label for six months. Titles are "I'm a Boy" and "In the City." The group's record career was delayed by a legal hassle over their recording contract. . . Rival companies Decca and EMI each listed Darrell Banks' Hot 100 single "Open the Door to Your Heart" for release here. Decca has now conceded the disk to EMI. The mixup occurred, says Decca, because each company negotiated with different executives of the Revilot label in the U.S.

Decca's Emarald label rushed tapes to the U. S. Parrot label of an Irish-made disk "Star of Athenry." Originally titled "Flaming Star," the record tells the story of a U. S. soldier killed in Vietnam. The soldier emigrated to America from Athenry in Ireland. Parrot is now mulling release of the disk by Brian Coll and the Plattermen, reports the group's manager.

Tony Renis, who formerly switched from Italian EMI to CGD, has now signed with RCA Italiana. Hhis first release is "Ci Sono Cose Piu Grandi" (There Are Bigger Things) b/w "La Ragazza Di Liverpool" (The Girl From Liverpool). Renis won the San Remo Festival with "Quando, Winners Quando," in 1962. . . . of the Fifth Festa Degli Sconosciuti (Feast of the Unknown Ones), held at Ariccia, Rome, were Titti Bianchi and Ketty Gangi (female singer series), Emilio Roy and Carmelo Pagano (male singer series), I Condors and Gli Ignoti (combo series) and James litti and Baldoni (singer-composer series). They will immediately record for the new RCA Italiana's label. Titti Bianchi, Carmelo Pagano and Emilio Roy will also participate in the Festival of Roses, in October, to be filmed by the Italian TV company.

Ricordi issued the first album by the Equipe '84 with the company, including "Bang, Bang," "Auschwitz" and 10 tunes penned by the group members. Also Ricordi issued the second Italian LP by the Yardbirds, under the R-International label. . . . Durium assigned the English version of Little Tony's "Ridera," "Let Her Go," recorded in England under Tony Hatch's direction, to CBS. "Ridera" passed the 250,000 sales mark, here. . . . "John Brown" (Glory, Glory, Allelujah) by the Marcellos Ferial, sold 160,000 copies, according to Durium's statement. . . . "Le Ragazze Semplici" (The Simple Girls), co-published by Edizioni California and Edizioni Esedra, was recorded and introduced by French singer Marise Nicolaj, making the first color transmission by French TV from Saint Tropez.

Italian EMI booked two weekly programs with Radio Monte Carlo. Each program will run for 15 minutes, one to be aired on Tuesday, "I Successi Della Settimana (Hits of the Week), and one on Saturdays, "Un Juke-Boxe Per I Giovani (A Jukebox for the Younger Ones). Radio Monte Carlo's signal can be heard in Northern and Central Italy. . . . Robertino, Curci-Carosello, will take part in the Song Festival of Zurich with the song "Un Dollaro D'Amore (One Dollar of Love). . . . Clan Records will issue the first 10 albums from the Russian MK classical catalog by Oct. 1. Two series, one regular and one budget, are expected. Sale prices are still unknown. . . . Saar released "But You're Mine" b/w "You Don't Love Me" by Sonny and Cher, on Atco. Also, Saar marketed the first Italian single by new Vogue's star Michel Polnareff. "Una Bambolina Che Fa No, No" (A Doll Who Says No. No) b/w "La Lezione Del Capellone" (The Long-haired One's Lesson). . . Fred Bongusto, Fonit-Cetra, recorded four titles for the Festival of Paris, including the "Un Disco Per L'Estate" (A Record for the Summer) radio contest winner "Prima C'Eri Tu." Bongusto will promote these songs via the French television by Oct. 1. . . . Claudio Villa, Fonit-Cetra, is back from his 45day tour in the U.S.S.R. Phonogram issued Louis Armstrong's "Mame," backed by "When the Saints Go Marchin' In," under the Mercury label. . . . Also Phonogram released "Sally Goes Around the Roses" by the Ikettes and a beat album "Op-Latina," performed by various top European combos, both under the Polydor label.

"Il Ragazzo Della Via Gluck," Adriano Celentano's San Remo hit which according to Clan's statement sold 500,000 copies, was recorded in English by Celentano, under the title, "Tar and Cement."
This tune backed with another Celentano's hit, "La Festa" (The Feast), will be released in England and the U. S. Clan did not disclose the name of the involved British and American companies as yet.
Clan's artists participated in the filmed TV show "20 minutes with the Clan," to be aired by Oct. 1.

Ricky Maiocchi, leader of the combo I Camaleonti (the Chamaleons), Kansas Records, switched to CBS Italiana. . . . The Italian version of Cher's "Bang. Bang" was also recorded by Milena, Clan Records. Milena's first record was issued one year ago without disclosing her name (she was introduced as The Clan's Girl), and sold some 100.000 copies, thanks to heavy publicity. . . . Don Backy and Ico Cerruti. Clan. will participate in the Festival of Roses with "Come Adriano" (Like Adriano) and "La Volpe" (The Fox). Backy will also take part in the Festival of Zurich with the same tune, in late October.... Decca Italiana issued an album series dedicated to orchestra conductor Herbert von Karajan and the Philarmonic Orchestra of Vienna, including pieces by Verdi, J. Strauss, Adam, Brahms, Dvorak, Grieg, Tchaikovski, Mozart, Haydn, R. Strauss. ... Renata Mauro, GTA, will compete in the forthcoming Festival of Naples with "Stu' poco e'bbene" (This Small Piece of Love), penned by Memo Remigi, published by D'Anzi (Curci Group). . . . Domenico Modugno will participate in the Festival of Naples, and his song, "Sole Malato" (Sick Sun), published by Curci, will probably be performed by Peppino Di Capri, Carisch, and Mario Abbate, Vis Records. with different words. Perhaps a student has something new to say and, if he does, he may need a new melody to say it with. Mexicans couldn't have better rhythms, and some of their melodies have become universal favorites.

Capitol's Dick Rising has been the force behind the new 50-man national sales force representing Latin America product. Concentration will be in centers with large Spanish-speaking populations. Capitol International salesmen are already out beating the Spanish-language bushes, can deliver from a complete stock of Mexican articles in U. S. storerooms now.

Capitol has 32 national artists. Rock accounts for 14 per cent of sales, general Latin for 20 per cent and Ranchero is a low 3 per cent. Strongest group is Los Yaki. American m sic accounts for 22 per cent of Capitol de Mexico's sales, classical takes a healthy 16 per cent, while European represents 30 per cent of the total. The Beatles lead the bunch with 21 per cent of that segment, followed by the Beach Boys in the foreign area.

The company sent tapes for four LP's to be pressed and released in U. S. under the Capitol label. They include Gabriella, sophisticated jazz; Mariachi de Oro y Plata; Maria Bravo, who's a slow seller locally but does well in Germany, Holland and Japan, and Lucho Gatica, who's big everywhere.

Capitol's capital will be raised to $800,000 before December. The percentage of increase of sales for second semester 1966 over the first was close to 100 per cent.

Tone Danielsen, a girl who first appeared in a Norwegian film this winter, has an LP on Nor-Disc. She does original Norwegian folk songs. . . . An all-girl quartet the Dandy Girls debut on the Manu label with "Heitan og hatan." The group will tour Germany this fall. . . . Sweden Music in Stockholm has the publishing rights for "Strangers in the Night."

The Beatles' latest single, "Yellow Submarine" on Parlophone label here, made No. 3 on the Norwegian Hit Parade. Their LP "Revolver," on same label, managed 15 on the singles charts. . . . Norsk Phonogram is issuing four CBS LP's, by the Brothers Four, Barbra Streisand, Andy Williams and Bob Dylan.

Per Gunnar Jensen, head of disk firm Manu, has started his own orchestra and will issue two singles on his ow label. . . . Norwegian singing star Grynet Molvig, now a free-lance recording artist, will star in the Swedish film "The Princess." as directed by Abe Falck.

The Vanguards, one of Norway's most well-known pop groups, will release their first LP on the Triola label shortly, and the same label also issues an LP with the Public Enemies on Sept. 15. . . Arne Bendiksen's "Det blir ingen sommer" has been recorded by Kirsti Sparboe on the Triola label. . . . The Starlights of Oslo, a Nor-Disc recording group, is out with the single record, "I'm Just a Tramp," on the Polydor label

Robert J. Stone Associates has acquired Canadian rights to the new Current label with its first release, "I'm Normal" by the Emperor's Friends, released on the Sparton label following its appearance as a Billboard breakout single. Stone has also acquired Canadian and world rights to the same company's PPI label. Future releases are likely to be on the Stone label in Canada. . . . Arc Sound president Phil Anderson flew to Ireland to sign the Abbey Tavern Singers to a long-term world-wide recording contract, following the success of their "Off to Dublin in the Green" single, originally the soundtrack for a beer commercial. Anderson rushed the group to a Dublin studio to record and LP for immediate release. Hanna-Barbera in the U. S. is expected to release the album, after good initial reaction to the single in the States.

Robert Boa is now record sales representative of Sparton Records' Montreal branch, after seven years with the company in customer relations, stocking and auditing. . . . New promotion man at Apex Records in Toronto is Dave Elliot, drummer with a local group, the Twilights. Following their big success in Canada, Arc's singing satirists, the Brothers-in-Law, are going into sessions for an LP specially for the U. S. market, to include their upcoming single, "America the Ugly" and such other titles as "Peyton Place." . . . First record dedicated to Canada's centennial in 1967 is already on the market, on Rodeo's Caprice label. It's "Centennial Hymn," performed in English on one side and French on the other, by the Chorale de L'Amitie, a girls choir from Sherbrooke, Que.

Al Hirt's new RCA Victor single, "Strawberry Jam," also scheduled for inclusion in his next album, is a composition of Canadian trumpeter Johnny Cowell. Hirt has also recorded another Cowell tune, "His Girl," for release later. . . . Quality Records is rushing out A&M's first album by Sergio Mendes and his group, following great audience reaction to their appearance with Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass at the O'Keefe Centre in Toronto in mid-August.

Toronto's reputation as a major jazz center is reaffirmed with the reopening in mid-August of the Town, new name for the completely renovated Town Tavern, with Jackie Cain and Roy Kral, and the launching of a name jazz policy at the Plaza Room of the Park Plaza Hotel with the Junior Mance Trio. The Colonial Tavern continues its staunch jazz policy with Earl (Fatha) Hines in for a month until Sept. 17. Upcoming at the Town are Teddy Wilson, Joe Williams, Clark Terry, Bobby Hackett and June Christy, and the Plaza Room promises Jimmy and Marion McPartland, the Wynton Kelly Trio and the Ruby Braff Quartet. DOUBLE SHOT

The Mariachi Brass. World-Pacific WP 1852 (M); WPS 21852

Combining the popular brass sounds of today with the jazz feel of Chet Baker performing recent pop hits, this package should meet with the sales success of the initial "Taste of Tequila" album. Standouts include "Red Rubber Ball" and "Green Grass."

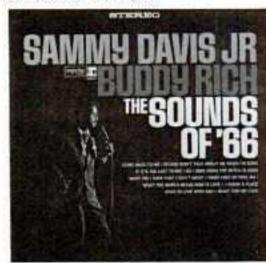

POP SPOTLIGHT

THE NEW SOUNDS OF THE FABULOUS KING SISTERS Warner Bros. W 1647 (M); WS 1647 (S)

Sure to get much airplay on easy listening stations, the King Sisters have a strong chart contender here. This smooth, up-beat package includes both standards and pop tunes such as "Sweet Georgia Brown," "Don't Go to Strangers," "Call Me" and "Goin' Out of My Head."

POP SPOTLIGHT

THE SOUNDS OF '66

Sammy Davis Jr./Buddy Rich. Reprise R 6214 (M); RS 6214

Sammy has done it again. This time he teams up with the Buddy Rich Orchestra to record live a package of popular material designed to skyrocket to the top of the

ALBUM REVIEW POLICY

Every album sent to Billboard for review is heard by Billboard's Review Panel, and its sales potential is rated within its category of music. Full reviews are presented for Spotlight Picks or Special Merit Picks, and all other LP's are listed under their respective categories.

POP SPOTLIGHT

THEY'RE COMING TO TAKE ME AWAY, HA-HAAA!

Napoleon XIV. Warner Bros. W 1661 (M); WS 1661 (S)

The same ingredients that made "They're Coming to Take Me Away, Ha-Haaa," the top summer novelty smash, are found in the nutty, cleverly written material in the LP. Such Booky cuts as "Photogenic, Schizo-phrenic You," "Marching Off to Bedlume" and "I Live in a Split Level Head" have enough teen appeal to make this a best-

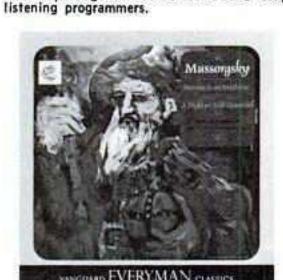

POP SPOTLIGHT "IN"-CITEMENT

The Pair. Liberty LRP 3461 (M); LST 7461 (S)

Exciting duo, vocalist and bassist, offer their third "live" album recorded at "The Mecca" in Buena Park, Calif. The boys' unique sound sheds new musical light on standards such as "A Wonderful Day Like Today, "Summertime," "Goin' Out of My Head" and the recent B'way musical (On a Clear Day) tune "Come Bask to Me". Ex-Clear Day) tune, "Come Back to Me." Ex-cellent package for conservative and easy-

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT

MUSSORGSKY: PICTURES AT AN EXHIBITION/A NIGHT ON BALD MOUNTAIN

Vienna State Opera Chorus (Golschmann). Vanguard Everyman SRV 210 (M); SRV 210

Here's an excellent coupling of Mussorgsky works which should find favor in the budg-et field. With Golschmann leading "Pic-tures" is a vivid, colorful work. "Moun-tain" gets a grand-scale, penetrating treatment which produces excitement on a big

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT

THE LIGHT MUSIC OF SHOSTAKOVICH

Andre Kostelanetz and His Orchestra. Columbia ML 6267

(M); MS 6267 (S)
This is the sort of light, frothy, melodic fare that sells as well in the pop market as it does among classical buyers. Shostakovich's waltzes, polkas and folk music are delightful, and the Kostelanetz orches-tra plays with first-class musicianship.

BACH: LUTE SUITES NOS. 1 AND 2

Julian Bream. RCA Victor LM 2896 (M); LSC 2896 (S)

Bream plays these two Bach suites with such delicacy and poetic feeling that this music, originally intended for the lute, will make even the purists sit up and listen. Whatever the section, whatever the move-ment, Bream's skill shines through.

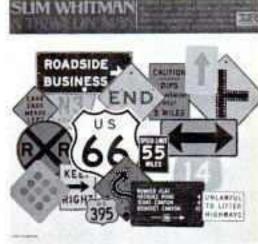

SPOTLIGHT

MOZART: CORONATION MASS Pro Musica Symphony, Vienna/Vienna Oratorio Choir. Turnabout TV 4063 (M); TV 340635 (S)

A quartet of well-known singers makes this reissue a good bet for sales. The performances under Jascha Horenstein of the "Coro-nation Mass" and the B-side "Vesperae Solemnes de Confessore" rate high. Soloists are Wilma Lipp, Christa Ludwig, Murray Dickle and Walter Berry.

COUNTRY SPOTLIGHT

A TRAVELIN' MAN

Slim Whitman, Imperial LP 9313 (M); LP 12313 (S) With the Jordanaires providing the choral background, Whitman offers a package of solid songs including the recent hit "Behind the Tear," the pop smash "I'll Never Find Another You" and Fats Domino's great "Blueberry Hill."

JAZZ SPOTLIGHT

Jimmy McGriff. Solid State SS 18001 (S)

McGriff's organ with a big band that lifts the lid off the immediate world! A truly swinging album. Great treatments of Hefti's "Lil Darlin" and "Splanky," Manny Al-bam's "Slow But Sure" and York's "Every Day." Beautifully executed in both the musical and electronic departments.

INTERNATIONAL SPOTLIGHT BRAZILIANCE!

Marcos Valle. Warner Bros. W 1654 (M); WS 1654 (S)

Marcos Valle is a young Brazilian composer in the tradition of Gilberto and Jobim. He's also an imaginative guitarist. The 12 selections on the album, mostly in the cool jazz idiom, are all Valle's compositions. Any one of them could make it in the U. S.

GENE PITNEY — COLD LIGHT OF DAY (Prod. Pitney & Kahn) (Writer: Colburn) (Cassandra, BMI)—THE BOSS'S DAUGHTER (Prod. Pitney & Kahn) (Writers: Weiss-English) (Hellos, BMI)—A two sided powerhouse from Pitney. First side is a driving production ballad while the flip is an off-beat, infectious rhythm number with top chart possibilities.

Pick of the Week

(IN THE) COLD LIGHT OF DAY (2:41) [Helios, BMI—Weiss, English]

THE BOSS'S DAUGHTER (2:44) [Cassandra, BMI—Colburn]
GENE PITNEY (Musicor 1200)

Gene Pitney should speedily add another link to his unbroken hitchain on the basis of this commercial new Musicor stand labeled "(In The) Cold Light Of Day." The side is a slow starting but effectively-building dramatic affair about a duo who met at the wrong time to make a go of their relationship. "The Boss's Daughter" is a rhythmic, pulsating, dual-track blueser.

SPECIAL MERIT PICKS

SVBX 561 (S)

Special Merit Picks are new releases of outstanding merit which deserve exposure and which could have commercial success within their respective categories of music.

SHOW BOAT

ORIGINAL CAST SPECIAL

MERIT

Music Theater of Lincoln Center, RCA Victor LOC 1126 (M); LSO 1126 (S)

This recording is far superior in production to the four previous original cast albums. Constance Towers portrays a vivid Julie, singing "Bill"; Barbara Cook, Stephen Douglass and David Wayne shine. A special salute to William Warfield.

POP SPECIAL MERIT

THE INTI: ATE VALENTE

Caterina Valente, London LL 3473 (M); PS 473 (S)

The international favorite offers a package of romantic-flavored ballads from such great composers as Mancini, Porter, Styne, Jobim and Bonfa. Miss Valente's intimate vocal stylings are particularly outstanding on "Moon River," "Watch What Happens," "People" and "O Canso."

POP SPECIAL MERIT

CAIOLA ROMANTICO

Al Caiola. United Artists UAL 3527 (A); UAS 6527 (S)

This is a tasteful blend of Latin American and U. S. standards, with Al Caiola's talented guitar work backed by 15 strings and a couple of Latin drums. The mood is subdued and romantic; it's superior dance and general relaxing music.

POP SPECIAL MERIT

JAMIE AND THE J. SILVIA SINGERS

ABC ABC 562 (M); ABCS 562 (S)

A touch of the style reminiscent of the Ray Charles Singers, combined with the clearness of Jamie's voice, adds up to a sales bull's-eye for Jamie and the J. Silvia Singers in their debut on the ABC label. The group's material ranges from Lennon and McCartney's "Yesterday" to "It Was a Lover and His Lass" (words by William Shakespeare, music by Dick Hyman).

POP SPECIAL MERIT

YOU'RE GONNA HEAR FROM ME

Don Ho. Reprise R 6219 (M); RS 6219

Don Ho, a big seller in Honolulu and among buyers of Hawaiian-oriented music, sings pop material like "Yesterday,"
"You're Gonna Hear From Me," "What Now My Love" and "These Boots Are Made for Walkin"."

COUNTRY SPECIAL MERIT

NO LOVE AT ALL

Johnny Tillotson. MGM E 4395 (M); SE 4395 (S)

The Tillotson style shines through this package as he puts together an album destined to climb the country charts quickly. Each of the 12 songs stands out by itself, but "No Love at All," "Cold, Cold Heart" and "Then You Can Tell Me Goodbye," are exceptional.

LOW PRICE CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT

J. S. BACH: THE SIX BRANDENBURG CONCERTOS

Chamber Orchestra of The Vienna State Opera (Prohaska). Vanguard Everyman SRV 171/2 (M); SRV 171/2 SD (S)

This two-record set was one of the finest pressings of the familiar Brandenburgs. Reissued on a low-price label, the package is a real bargain. The original baroque in strumentation continues to delight.

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT

NEW MUSIC FOR THE PIANO Robert Helps. RCA Victor LM 7042 (M); LSC 7042 (S)

This is an ambitious and certainly different project, bringing together 24 contemporary composers in a variety of multi-colored styles. Represented here are Morton Gould, Arthur Berger, Mel Powell and Milton Babbitt, to mention a few. Pianist Robert Helps adds his subtle, deft touch to a solid two-record set.

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT

HAYDN: STRING QUARTET, VOL. IV Dekany Quartet. Vox VBX 61 (M);

Some fine individual performances make this three-record set a package well worth having. Playing with deep feeling, the Quartet also impresses as an ensemble who achieve mood and flavor in ample doses. Quite a bargain.

CLASSICAL SPECIAL MERIT

ART OF THE BAROQUE ORCHESTRA, VOL. 2; MUSIC OF BACH AND HANDEL

The London Baroque Ensemble (Haas). Vanguard Everyman SRV 199 (M); SRV 199 SD (S)

Another artistically successful recording in Vanguard's series on the Baroque Orch. which should also pay off saleswise. The ensemble gives the works a brisk, sensitive reading, pleasing to the ear. Haas turns in a grand job as conductor, keeping the movements tight and concise.

LOW PRICE CLASSICAL

SPECIAL MERIT VIVALDI: LA FIDA NINFA (ABRIDGED)

Chamber Orchestra/Members of the Opera, Milan (Monterosso). Turnabout TV 4066 (M); TV 34066S (S)

Chamber orchestra and members of the Milan Opera present a novelty in a Vivaldi opera, a part of the baroque composer's output not as familiar as his chamber music and instrumental pieces. Raffaello Monterosso directs the competent soloists and orchestra with genuine appreciation for the work. The complete opera was released previously on the parent Vox label.

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT

SEARCH FOR THE NEW LAND

Lee Morgan. Blue Note 4169 (M)

A good program of Morgan originals. Morgan (trumpet) is admirably aided by Wayne Shorter (tenor sax), Grant Green (guitar) and fine rhythm. The title tune, "Mr. Kenyatta" and "Melancholee" are three of the top swingers.

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT

GOT A GOOD THING GOIN'

Big John Patton. Blue Note 4229 (M)

Backed by Grant Green, organist John Patton develops his material in a manner that is palatable to the pop-oriented listener as well as the ardent jazz fan. He lends strong melodic and rhythmic lines to his originals and interprets pop songs such as "Ain't That Peculiar" in his own style without varying sharply from the original.

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT

FLUTE BY-LAWS

Hubert Laws. Atlantic 1452 (M); SD 1452 (S)

Latin-Jazz-R & B-Pop! A startling combination that swings from strong roots. Laws' flute brings a lyric zest to some great originals; "Bloodshot," "Let Her Go" and the driving "Miedo." A most appealing

JAZZ SPECIAL MERIT

GETTIN' AROUND

Dexter Gordon. Blue Note 4204 (M)

Dexter Gordon plays tenor sax, cool and hot. His improvisations on "Heartaches" will stack up with the best of them. And the support of Billy Hutcherson on vibes, Barry Harris on piano, Bob Cranshaw on bass and Billy Higgins on drums is A-1 all the way.

INTERNATIONAL SPECIAL MERIT

EL MUNDO LATINO DE YOMO TORO

ABC ABC 565 (M); ABCS 565 (S)

A sparkling instrumental package that should score strongly with all lovers of Latin quitar music as well as those with a Latin background. In addition to Yomo Turo's fine instrumentation, four vocals are in-terspersed throughout the album.

The Israeli female singer, Ilana Rovina, gained popularity in France's Festival de la Rose. Vogue has just released an EP comprising four songs in French sung by Miss Rovina. Among them is the festival song, "Est ce que tu sais?" ("Don't You Know?"). . . . In the Hed Arzi Studios, preparations are being completed for the release of a set of two albums called "Bull Session." The records will include some favorite songs of the Palmach (underground movement from the period before Israel's establishment). Some of the best Israeli singers will participate in this recording, among them are the Yarkon Trio, Yaffa Yarkoni, Shai K. Ophir, Aric Lavie, Hedva & David, and Shoshana Damari. The orchestra will be conducted by Shimeon Cohen. . . . Zeev Lewin, director of Hed Arzi, returned from a visit to America, where he talked with Decca, Vanguard, ABC, MGM and Mercury which his company represents in Israel. Seraphim to Accent Artists; 60 Releases Planned for Year

By ELIOT TIEGEL

LOS ANGELES—Angel Records unveils its $2.49 mono and stereo Seraphim line Sept. 6, which spotlights artists, with an initial release of 20 albums. (See Billboard Review.)

The new classical line (Billboard, Aug. 6) will have a uniform appearance, emphasizing the artist first and repertoire second. By achieving co-operation with artists for reduced royalty rates, by watching distribution costs and by simplified two-color printing, the company believes it has found the key to presenting first-rate classical material in budget form.

Brown Meggs, Capitol's marketing director, who will be selecting the repertoire for the line with his staff, said 60 albums would be released during the initial year from such sources as Angel deletions, early Capitol Classics deletions and EMI deletions and previously unavailable titles.

Of the first 20 releases, seven are available in stereo. Seraphim will avoid reproducing mono performances in stereo to retain the original flavor of the artistry.

Name Power

The emphasis on name power is evident by a large photo of the performer on the front jacket. The repertoire is prominently displayed along with a quote explaining why the artist is celebrated for this particular performance. Each LP will offer full liner information and texts for vocal packages.

In the first release are eight albums previously unavailable in the U. S. "Functions of the line," according to Meggs, "are the introduction of new artists and the release of historical performances." One such new solo artist is Swiss soprano Edith Mathis; one such previously unreleased performance is "The Marriage of Figaro" sung in German, and featuring Hilde Gueden, Walter Berry and Anneliese Rothenberger. The oldest recording in the release is a 1941 "Alpine Symphony" with the composer, Richard Strauss, conducting the Bavarian State Orchestra.

Approximately 90 per cent of future releases will be in stereo, noted Meggs, who called the line a marketing function in that all releases are specifically created to reactivate material lying dormant in the vaults which today could not be sold at a normal price.

"This is not an a&r function," Meggs said, "because nothing is being recorded. We are figuring out ways to place already-recorded products back on the market."

Seraphim's Initial 20 LP's Have Gems Galore

By FRED KIRBY

NEW YORK - Angel Records has come up with a blockbuster in its initial 20-title Seraphim budget release, which will be out next Tuesday (6). A glittering array of some of the century's greatest recording names give outstanding performances. Just the line-up is enough to whet consumers' appetites: Kirsten Flagstad, Dame Myra Hess, Sir Thomas Beecham, Tulio Serafin, Jussi Bjoerling, Wilhelm Furtwaengler, Elizabeth Schwartzkopf, Richard Strauss, Boris Christoff, Otto Klemperer, Paul Hindemith, Victoria de los Angeles, Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau, Emil Gilels, and many more.

The release also offers fine new performances by Swiss soprano Edith Mathis in nine Handel songs and in Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro," a

Other opera sets are Beecham's memorable version of Puccini's "La Boheme" and Seraphim's bright conducting of Donizetti's "L'Elisir d'Amore." The "Boheme" offers a truly all-star cast with Bjoerling, Miss de los Angeles, Lucine Amara, Robert Merrill, Giorgio Tozzi, John Reardon and Fernando Corena and they come through brilliantly. In "L'Elisir," a stereo package, the fine crew of Donizetti soloists, Rosanna Carteri, Luigi Alva, Giuseppe Taddei and Rolando Panerai, contribute to a vivid performance.

Fort Worth in Federal Program

FORT WORTH - The Fort Worth Symphony will take part in Project Muse, a music education program for elementary and secondary school children under a Federal grant of more than $340,000. The program consists of a series of secturedemonstration-concerts by the orchestra, which will be divided into string quartet, woodwind quintet and brass quintet ensemble. The orchestra will visit each of 142 schools in a ninecounty area surrounding Fort Worth. The program also will include 18 concerts by the full orchestra. Ezra Rachlin, musical director and conductor of the Fort Worth Symphony, is music director of Project Muse with Robert Alexander, manager of the orchestra, assistant project director.

Utah Symphony To Debut in NY

NEW YORK — The Utah Symphony will debut in New York at Carnegie Hall Friday (9), before leaving for a fourweek European tour, which will include performances in Greece, Yugoslavia, Germany, Vienna and England. Two performances at the opening of the new Fine Arts Auditorium at the University of New Mexico will conclude the tour.

Pianist Grant Johannesen will be soloist at the Carnegie Hall program, which will be presented under the patronage of Vice-President Hubert Humphrey. The program will consist of Bernstein's overture to "Candide," Vaughn Williams' "Symphony No. 6," Prokofiev's "Piano Concerto No. 3" and Stravinsky's "Firebird Suite." Other tour soloists besides Johannesen will be pianist Gina Bachauer and violinist David Oistrakh.

Wagner Music Is Out; Israel Unit

TEL AVIV—The Israel Philharmonic Orchestra will not play Wagner's works in the coming concert seasons. The orchestra will tour Australia, New Zealand and Hong Kong.

The orchestra's management had decided to lift the ban on Wagner's and Strauss' works. Both composers were identified with the Nazi era. The original ban was protested, and was followed by a proposal by the Deputy Minister of Education to avoid programming the works as previously decided. The 107-piece orchestra will be conducted by Zubin Mehta, Antal Dorati and Eliahu Inbal while on tour.

PACKAGE REVIEW

Baroque Records' Issues Have Quality of Sound, Performance

NEW YORK—Highlights of the current 12-title Baroque Records release are Beethoven's "Mass in C," Gluck's one-act comic opera "Le Mariage du Diable," and disks by Soviet artists Emil Gilels, Leonid Kogan and the Beethoven Player Quartet. The label also lives up to its name with about half of the selections from the baroque period.

The Beethoven Mass receives a stirring performance from the Dresden Cathedral Choir and Orchestra directed by Dr. Kurt Bauer. The rare Gluck one-acter, subtitled "The Reformed Drunkard" with its plot akin to Verdi's "Falstaff," is presented delightfully by soloists and orchestra of Le Festival de Musique d'Autrefois conducted by Claude Boyer.

Probably the most interesting selection in this release is Kogan's expert playing of Tikhon Khrennikov's "Violin Concerto," a piece written for him. The topflight artist handles the tricky first and third movements brilliantly and also demonstrates his familiarity with the work in the more-lyric second movement. Kudos also should be given the fine playing of the Leningrad Philharmonic, conducted by Kurt Sanderling, who also handled that assignment at the concerto's world premiere with Kogan. The second side offers a precise version of Mozart's "Violin Concerto No. 3 in G."

Kyril Kondrashin leads the Leningrad behind Gilels' outstanding reading of the familiar Tchaikovsky "Second Concerto in G." The Beethoven Quartet lives up to its excellent reputation with the dissonances and be a u t i e s of Shostakovitch's "String Quartets 7 and 8."

Two Canadian artists, harpsichordist Kenneth Gilbert and violinist Steven Staryk, zip through an LP of four Bach sonatas like the baroque experts they are. Their virtuosity shines. Three sets by the Mozart Society Players feature baroque works, with the baroque master Telemann appearing on all three and also on a skillful wind recording, with the indefatigable flutist Jean-Pierre Rampal ably partnered by Mario Duchenes on both recorder and flute. Other composers represented on this pressing are Bodins, Matteson, Finger and Kuhlau.

In the Mozart Society group are an LP of concertos by Lentz, Telemann and Handel; orchestral works by Johann Stamitz, Carl Stamitz, Boccherini and Telemann entitled "Early Symphonies," and trios and quartets by Bach, Alessandro Scarlatti and Telemann. In addition to these competent baroque sets, the ensemble offers a pairing of Wanhal's "Symphony in G Minor" and Mozart's "Symphony No. 25." Rounding out the re-lease is Dussek's "Concerto in B-Flat for Two Pianos and Orchestra" which is handled well by pianists Michael and Anna Galpern, and the Pro Musica Orchestra and Adolphe Schwartz. Festival Records has released Brenda Lee's latest Decca album, "Ten Golden Years." A special pack has gone out to all radio stations which include a recorded open-end interview by Brenda Lee (complete with script) produced in the U. S., especially for Australian radio. . . . Radio Station 2GB Sydney, according to latest ratings, is the No. 1 station in New South Wales with it's middle-of-the-road programs, Station 2UE, second and 2UW, third. Both GB and UE feature middle-of-the-road material; UW is strictly r&b. ATA Records, a comparatively new label being distributed by Festival Records for the Col Joye Enterprises, has recently hit the Australian charts with a number of hot singles. Sandy Scott, 22-year-old singer, has a winner in "Wallpaper Roses," and Judy Stone is hitting with her "Born a Women." . . . Myrna Lorrie's "Just Count the Tears" b/w "Your Special Day" is released by W & G this week. Leased through CBS London, the Ivy recording by Herbie's People of "You Never Know" was issued this week by W & G. This is the second single by Herbie's People to be released in Australia by W & G. . . . With the opening of the film "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf," the Australian Record Company has rush-released the two-record set starring Richard Burton and Elizabeth Taylor. . EMI has scheduled the Beatles' latest album, "Revolver," for re-lease Sept. 29. . . . Tape recordings are becoming more popular here, and EMI has made a special release of both American and English material. Some of the tapes include the "Mary Poppins" soundtrack, "Mantovani Magic" and "The Most of the Animals."

The Beatles' single on Parlophone, "Yellow Submarine," and Roy Orbison's MGM single on London Records, "Too Soon to Know," was scheduled for release Aug. 25. GEORGE HILDER

Seraphim had to nappen.

Angel answers the need for low-priced albums of supreme quality.

Albums in the new Seraphim series are indeed to the collector: $2.49* stereo and mono. "Angels of the highest order." They feature:

☐ the finest, most celebrated of Angel's earlier releases.

☐ brand-new stereo recordings never before issued in America.

☐ significant works of all periods interpreted by leading artists of yesterday, today and tomorrow.

historical performances never to be equalled, including fabulous opera casts that can never again be assembled.

☐ improved monophonic sound for older recordings, without the artificial gimmickry of false stereo, and with no loss of artistic values.

stereo and monophonic pressings made to the same exacting technical standards as the higher-priced Angel label-yet at modest cost

The first twenty Seraphim releases are illustrated on this page. Many more great recordings will follow. *(optional with dealer)

400,000 at Philharmonic

NEW YORK - The New York Philharmonic drew nearly 400,000 persons in 12 free concerts in New York parks this summer, a drop from last year's 462,500. Poor weather was blamed, but the Philharmonic plans a third summer park season next year.

Top crowds were 75,000 at the July 26 opening at Sheep Meadow in Central Park, up from last year's high of 72,500; 50,000 at Brooklyn's Prospect Park on July 29, higher than last year's 48,000 record; 25,000 at the Bronx Botanical Garden on Aug. 4, compared with 22,000, last year's top, and 40,000 at Crocheron Park in Queens, where last year's high was 30,000.

The Philharmonic gave 186 concerts during the year, ending with the Aug. 20 concert at Cloves Lake Park on Staten Island. Of the total, 115 were regular subscription concerts, 24 were "Promenades" after the regular season, and 10 were Stravinsky Festival performances. Special concerts for youth, out-of-town concerts and benefits rounded out the list. Of the total, Leonard Bernstein, music director, led 67; Lukas Foss, 22; William Steinberg, 17; George Szell, 15, and Thomas Schippers, 15.

Norway Trophy To Reeves' Disk

OSLO-A tune never issued as a single gave Norway's most beloved American artist Jim Reeves his 16th record trophy here.

The song is "Four Walls," which has been issued on the RCA Victor label only on EP and LP. This week the record was awarded the Norwegian silver disk for 25,000 sales.

Jim Reeves is the only artist who has gained the Norwegian Platina disk, which he got for the 100,000 sales of "I Love You Because." No record in-Norway has sold as many copies. Reeves has sold more than half a million records in Norway, a fantastic amount in this little country where the silver disks are issued less than six times a year.

Dinu Lipatti and conductor Guido Cantelli. Lipatti gives a remarkably controlled reading of Chopin's "Concerto No. 1 in E Minor." Perhaps some sections could be more dynamic, but the beauty and restraint of the slow second movement approaches perfection. Cantelli breathes life into two warhorses, Mendelssohn's "Symphony No. 4 in A (Italian)" and Schubert's "Symphony No. 8 in B Minor (Unfinished)."

Two never - before - released gems are Strauss conducting the Bavarian State Orchestra in his own sweeping "Alpensinfonie (Alpine Symphony)" and Beecham leading the Royal Philharmonic and French National Radio Orchestras in "The Inimitable Sir Thomas," a topnotch stereo collection of unusually short pieces by Sibelius, Delius, Dvorak, Grieg and Faure.

in B-Flat Major (Funeral March)" and Shostakovitch's "Three Preludes and Fugues" with refinement and Dame Myra Hess displays some of the style that made her world famous, in Schumann's "Piano Concerto" and "Etudes Symphoniques." Another famous pianist is Solomon, who plays Beethoven's "Concerto No. 1" and "Sonata No. 27" in stereo. Pianist Gerald Moore contributes a lighter touch in his famous "The Unashamed Accompanist" with its delightful narration. Rudolf Firkusny rounds out the piano stars by combining with violinist William Primrose in two Brahms' sonatas sensitively played.

Klemperer leads the Philharmonia Orchestra, the same group backing up Dame Myra and on the Cantelli disk, in glowing performances of Brahms' "Variations on a Theme by Haydn" and Hindemith's "Nobilissima Visione." Hindemith leads the Philharmonia in a stereo pressing of his "Concert Music for Strings and Brass" and "Symphony in B-Flat for Concert Band."

Vocalists are not ignored, as Seraphim restores to the catalog Schwarzkopf's glowing treatments of Mozart's "Exsultate, Jubilate" and Bach's "Jauchzet Gott in Allen Landen," a first American release in stereo of Fischer-Diskau in arias from six Verdi operas, and Christoff's highly expressive voice in Moussorgsky's "Songs and Dances of Death" and other songs. The Gerain Jones Singers present Bach's "Magnificat" and Purcell's "Music for the Funeral of Queen Mary" with a quartet of soloists consisting of Ilse Wolf, Helen Watts, Richard Lewis and Thomas Hemsley. Highlight

But the highlight of this starstudded release is an LP of selections from Wagner's "Die Goetterdaemmerung," conducted by Furtwaengler. On one side he leads the Vienna Philharmonic in a passionate and powerful performance of "Siegfried's Rhine Journey & Fu-neral March." The other side with the Philharmonia has the brilliant voice of Madame Flagstad in a stirring "Immolation Scene."

Angel also has taken a wise course in spotlighting its artists on its album covers rather than going for imaginative designs. For the selling point of this new line apparently will be its outstanding collection of artists. The mono disks, through improved techniques, come over well on stereo equipment. The decision not to rechannel for stereo also was a wise one.

Gatlin Trio Swinging In Gospel Music Field

FORT WORTH—The Smitty Gatlin Trio is now in full swing in the Gospel music field. Gatlin, who is known for 10 years' service as manager and lead singer for the Oak Ridge Quartet, resigned his position there and is now minister of music at the First Baptist Church in Fort Worth, Tex.

The Smitty Gatlin Trio was organized in conjunction with the church music program. The trio sings in most of the services at the historic church and during the week work personal appearance dates throughout the country. With the facilities afforded by modern air travel, they will be able to work out as far as 1,000 miles from Fort Worth and still be back in their home church for Sunday services. Negotiations are now in progress for the purchase of a private plane for their tours and a large majority of their dates will be reached by either their own plane or commercial airplane.

Although organized only six weeks ago, they have recorded one long-play album and will cut the second in the next 10 days. They record exclusively for the Skylite label.

They have done a series of Unusual in their presentation is the fact that all three men play instruments as they sing. On stage all their numbers will be done with full instrumental accompaniment.

Bill Baize is a very powerful dynamic first tenor and plays guitar and bass. Bill Monroe is the pianist and baritone and also plays bass, guitar and organ. Gatlin will furnish guitar, and bass accompaniment for the group.

PROFILE

THE LEWIS FAMILY is rapidly becoming one of the most sought-after country-gospel groups in America. They cover thousands of miles each year in their bus making appearances from coast to coast.

THE LEWIS FAMILY

By BOB GREEN

The Lewis Family is fast becoming one of the nation's favorite country-gospel groups. The members of this family group, which is the largest family of singers and musicians in the field, are Roy (Pop) Lewis; his three sons, Wallace, Talmadge, Little Roy, and his three daughters, Miggie, Polly and Janis. "Mom" Lewis also travels with the family and she is in charge of bookings.

The Lewis Family has been singing as a group for 15 years. They are in their 13th consecutive year with WJBF-TV, Augusta, Ga., and are currently seen each Sunday from 12 to 1 in full color. They also have Sunday programs on the following stations, some in color: KTVE, El Dorado, Ark. (12 till 1); WWAY-TV, Wilmington, N. C. (8 till 9 a.m.); WMCT-TV, Memphis, Tenn. (7:30 to 8:30 a.m.); WJTV, Jackson, Miss., and WSPA-TV, Spartanburg, S. C. (3 till 4 p.m.), on Saturdays. Two of the stations, WJBF and KTVE, also carry half-hour programs of the Lewis Family each

On stage the Lewis Family program consists of a variety of gospel songs, hymns and spirituals, presented in forms from solos to quintets. Their program usually lasts three hours.

The Lewis Family records for Starday and their record sales are increasing each year. At the present they have nine LP albums available.

DON BALDWIN, left, and Neil Enloe, right, Paradise Publishers owners, last week announced the signing of Clinton and Fretta Vanzant, seated, to an exclusive writing contract. The writing team has had numerous songs recorded by top gospel groups.

HOWARD GOODMAN, SEATED, and the Happy Goodman Family, are obviously pleased to re-sign with Don Light Talent Agency. Light, third from right, announced that the fast-rising Goodmans have signed for another year beginning October.

PPX Completes Cameo-P'kway, DDG Deals

NEW YORK - PPX Enterprises, budget LP producer, has concluded deals with Cameo-Parkway Records to release Wyncote budget line, and with Deutsche Grammophon to provide the German firm with a minimum of 72 singles a year. The Cameo-Parkway agreement is the second with PPX in the past six months for Wyncote product and calls for 30 additional units consisting of 24 children's albums, four Christmas LP's, a pressing of flamenco music and another with the spirit of Mexican mariachi trumpets.

In addition to the Deutsche Grammophon pact, the PPX international division has negoiated a leasing arrangement with CBS Records in Mexico for two albums, one of waltzes and one of bossa nova material. Ricky Mason, whose disks are produced through PPX, has been signed for an album lease deal with Atlantic Records.

2 FM Stations For Louisville

LOUISVILLE—Two new FM stereo stations will begin broadcasting this week in the Louisville area.

The new stations are WSAC-FM of Fort Knox, scheduled to be on the air Sept. 1, and WHAS-FM which is expected to begin broadcasting in Louisville on Sept. 7.

The Fort Knox outlet will follow an Easy Listening music format with little talk and no rock 'n' roll. WHAS-FM plans to program serious and concerttype music, but will also air talk albums and Broadway cast albums. WHAS even plans to broadcast serious music in the early morning hours, but it'll be of a "zesty" sound.

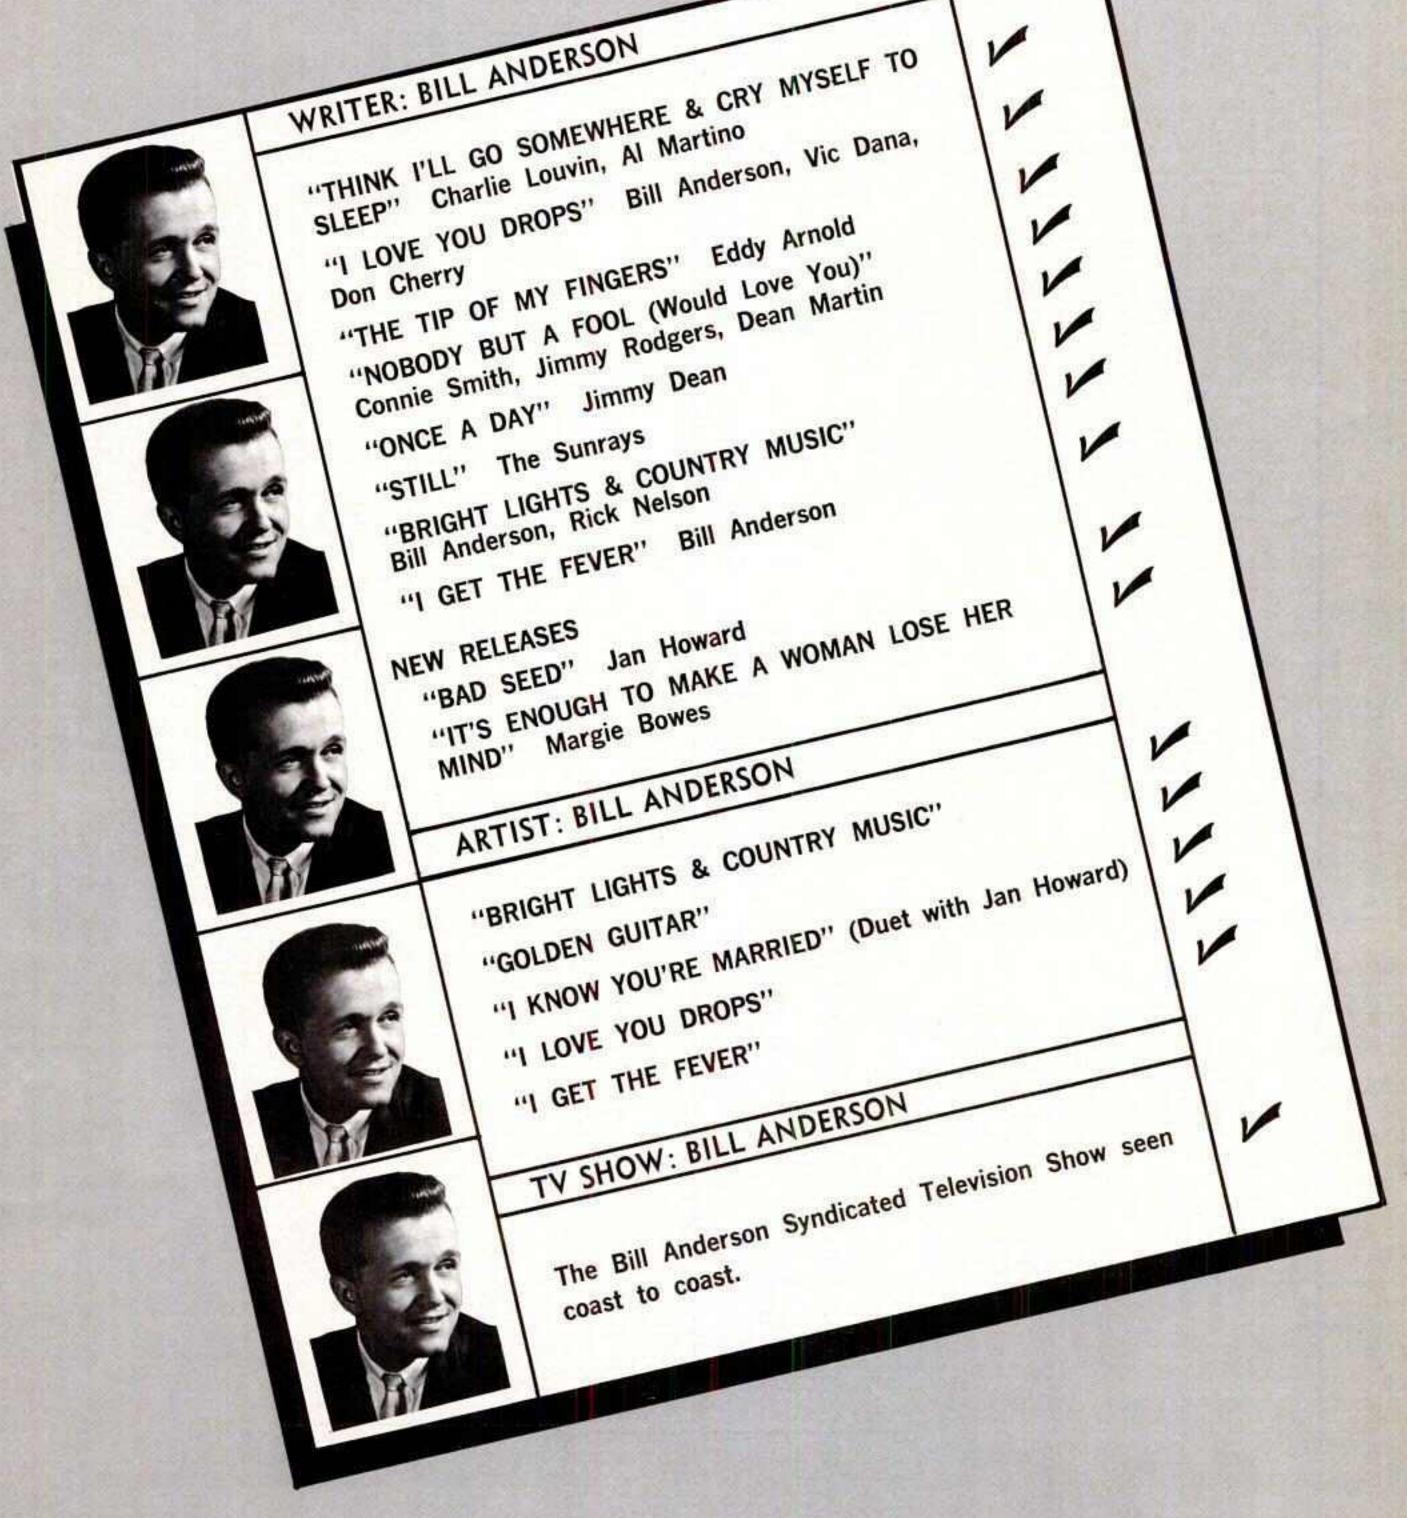

The new Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum.

BALK TO ATTEND SEMINAR COURTESY OF THE ITCC

NEW YORK-Frank Balk, owner of Balk & Son, Carroll, Ia., has won ITCC's drawing for free registration to Billboard Forum's Tape Cartridge Conference to be held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago Aug. 29-30.

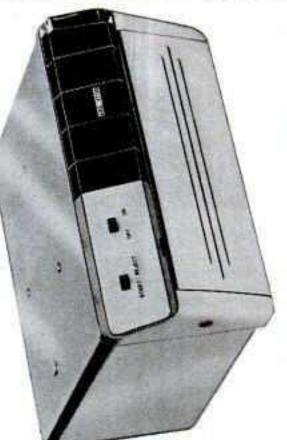

In addition, ITCC will arrange all transportation for Balk and present him with 100 tape cartridges free. Balk's name was drawn from a drum containing cards filled out by dealers at the Music

Show held recently in Chicago.

Balk, who has been a dealer since 1923, refers to his shop as a small department store. He carries a comprehensive stock of records and small hi-fi equipment along with guitars and other instruments, clothing and camera equipment. Balk sells the Norelco line of tape CARtridge players and the Philips reel-to-reel cartridges. He will stock 4 and 8-track continuous-loop cartridges and playback units

Stereodyne to Produce All Motown Items

TROY, Mich.-Motown Records has announced that Stereodyne, Inc., will produce all tape CARtridge products for the company.

Stereodyne is a new duplicating company formed by Dick Krause, its president, and Andre Blay, vice-president and general manager. Both men previously worked for Lear Jet when the company, under the guidance of Bill Lear, developed the 8track system.

Stereodyne is housed in a newly built, 12,000-square-foot building erected especially for tape cartridge duplication. It can produce 20,000 tape cartridges a day. The company is geared to duplicate both 4 and 8-track continuous loop cartridges.

The company not only provides the tape cartridges, but also shipping containers, point-of-sale material and warehouse facilities. Andre Blay says it is currently working on obtaining its own national distribution setup enabling smaller record companies to distribute their products through Stereodyne.

Muntz, WB Talk 'Dead'

LOS ANGELES—Talks between Muntz Stereopak and Warner Bros. Records are off. Carl Muntz said that talks with Gulf and Western which previously had been negotiating for the purchase of his company, were also dead.

Aura Sonics Signs

LOS ANGELES—Aura Sonics has signed Pan American in Denver, Dulaney's in Oklahoma City, and Tape Tronics in Seattle as distributors for its 4 and 8-track CARtridges.

NEW TRIO—Larry Finley, left, president of International Tape Cartridge Corp. with his two Coast representatives, Norm Goodwin and Clarie Junge and newly arrived stock. Goodwin's newly opened company, West Coast Tape Cartridge Corp., is ITCC's Coast warehouse-shipping

Decca Into 4-Track Field With 11 Items

NEW YORK — Decca Records has entered the 4 - track tape CARtridge field with an initial 11-tape release on the Decca and Coral labels. The company earlier this year put out its first 8-track cartridges and so far has released 71 eighttrack cartridges from the Decca, Coral and Brunswick catalogs.

Sydney N. Goldberg, vicepresident and general sales manager of Decca Distributing Corp., explained that an aggressive merchandising program on dealer and consumer levels would support the 4-track release. The first 4-track product includes tapes by Brenda Lee, Pete Fountain, Bert Kaempfert, Earl Grant, Carmen Cavallaro, the Dukes of Dixieland, Lenny Dee, Wayne King, the Surfaries, Guy Lombardo, and a package called "America's Greatest Music Makers," which contains selections by different artists.

Goldberg explained, "We are proud of the fact that we were among the first in the release of 8-track product and continue to be among the leading companies with this type of merchandise. At the same time we also recognize the growing market potential for 4-track product, and feel certain that Decca, Coral and Brunswick will be a major supplier of these tapes with a regular schedule of releases.

Tape Units On '67 Models By Am. Motors

DETROIT — American Motors will offer an 8-track continuous loop take CARtridge unit as optional equipment in its 1967 models, according to reliable sources here.

A spokesman for the company said he could not release information on the playback unit until the company unveils the new models. However, reports indicate that the unit will be made by the Motorola Corp. The player will be available as an accessory in the Ambassador, Marlin and Rebel series. The Rambler American is reported not to have the playback unit available. Rambler's entry into the cartridge field has been regarded as eminent since the other three automobile companies have indicated either officially or unofficially that the cartridge system will be available in 1967. Ford Motor Co., the only company to offer factory-installed players on its 1966 lines, has revealed that it has sold some 70,000 units during the car year. This figure does not in-clude the number of dealer-installed, hook-on units bought. Chrysler has offered an attachment unit on the 1966 cars. Reports indicate that the Chevrolet division of General Motors will offer an 8-track continuous loop player in the fall. Spokesmen for the company will not comment on the report. However, the Delco division is said to be in production on the unit.

by Larry Finley

In last week's column we mentioned that we would announce three new labels this week which would be added to the giant ITCC catalog.

We are embarrassed to find that the editorial staff of BILLBOARD had "scooped" us last week by releasing the story on the very next page. Not only did they "scoop" us, but their story carried an additional two labels which we were going to tell you about this week.

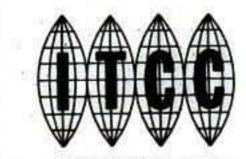

We have entered into a long-term contract with Larry Utall of Bell Records, which gives ITCC the duplication and distribution rights to five labels: AMY, MALA, BELL, DYNOVOICE and NEW VOICE. These additional names now bring the total number of record labels in our catalog to 70, an all-time high in the music business.

From these labels we are rushing into immediate release on both 4 and 8-track cartridges such great teenage favorites as: "Mitch Ryder and The Detroit Wheels," "The Toys," "Lee Dorsey and The Syndicate of Sound," "The Viscounts" and "Georgia Gibbs."

ITCC will continue to constantly add to its catalog to enable its distributors to offer the greatest variety of artists and selections available in the tape cartridge field.

The ITCC production facilities enabled us to release 23 new titles in 8 track and 20 new titles in 4 track last week. At our present rate of production, we will be able to offer our distributors 425 titles in 8 track and 1400 titles in 4 track by mid-September. The increase in our production facilities, as well as the acquisition of new labels, is further proof in our confidence in the tape cartridge industry.

If you are a dealer who wants to offer your customers the world's largest catalog of 4 and 8-track stereo tape cartridges, please contact your nearest ITCC distributor.

PRODUCT TRENDS

WideRangeofAccessories Available to Disk Dealer

CHICAGO — Record dealers attending the recent NAMM convention and Music Show here, saw an unprecedented number of "accessory" items—products which broaden a dealer's inventory base without taking him out of his field.

Included in this category are such necessities as record racks, cartridges and needles, headphones, sheet music and learning aids, microphones, guitar strings, covers for musical instruments, amplifiers, cords and various other products. The following is a list, by product type, of the firms which exhibited accessories at the Music Show:

Published Music and Learning Aids. Published music, much of it aimed at the youth market, is enjoying a remarkable comeback after a long period of declining sales. Several firms are publishing various "How To" books in connection with the handling and playing of musical instruments and in providing of other types of music instruction.

Music Sales Corp. of New York city serves as shipping agent for a number of music publishers. Product ranges from music study books and simplified song books to jazz and classical works. Music Sales representatives at the Music Show told Billboard the firm is definitely interested in marketing its product through record dealers.

Mel Bay Publications, Kirk-wood, Mo., has a series of "How To" books which start with fundamental introduction to music and proceed through many complex levels of instruction. The firm's guitar series, for example, starts with rudimentary training then proceeds through stages such as: "Rocking Rhythm for Junior Guitarists," "Classical Guitar Methods," "Fun With Folk Songs," "The Chet Atkins Style," and the "Jazz Guitar."

Oak Publications of New York, and Cole Publications of Chicago, also have several popular series of "How To" books, some of them packaged along with "How To" phonograph records.

Record Racks. Record racks of various styles and sizes—some of them ingenious space-saving devices for the phonograph record buyer — were shown by the Wall Tube and Metal Products Co. of Newport, Tenn., and the Record Tree Co. of Philadelphia, Pa.

Cartridges and Needles. Two leading firms, Empire Scientific Corp., Garden City, N. Y., and Pfansthiel Corp. of Waukegan, Ill., displayed full lines of this replacement product which is perhaps the most common accessory in a record store.

Microphones and Headphones. Three top headphone manufacturers who exhibited products at the Music Show were Koss Electronics of Milwaukee, Wis., maker of the Beatlephones; Telex Corp. of Minneapolis, Minn., and Shure Bros. of Evanston, Ill. Koss and Shure Bros. also showed microphones along with Aiwa, Vox, and Chicago Music Sales.

Amplifiers and Amplifier Accessories. These items are available from practically all guitar manufacturers and importers. Some of the leading displays of this product group were seen at the Amberg, Chicago Music Sales and WMI Corp. booths of the Music Show.

Musical Instrument Accessories. These include a host of products—but record dealer interest in this area is quite limited. Covers for guitars and other instruments were shown by HEADPHONES were most common accessory shown at the recent NAMM Music Show. Besides being used with musical instruments, stereo headphones are gaining popularity as record player accessories. Most new players, including those of RCA (above), are equipped with jacks for headphones.

Dealers Confer With NAMM

CHICAGO — A special phonograph record group of the National Association of Music Merchants met here last week to work out the general outlines of a plan to attract record dealers to NAMM.

The meeting, organized by William R. Gard, executive director of the association, and S. H. Galperin Jr., of Charleston, W. Va., who is a member of NAMM's board of directors and chairman of the group's Phonograph Record Committee, centered its discussion on three topics:

-Informing record dealers of NAMM's current activities.

—Providing additional services—and slanting some of the current services—more to the record retailer's interest.

—Publicizing its activities to record dealers for the purpose of attracting them into joining the association.

In listing services presently available to members, Gard included: advertising assistance; direct mail circular service: conferences and conventions; cost of doing business studies; a simplified, uniform accounting guide; government activities (including efforts to obtain complete excise tax refunds for dealers); a group insurance plan for large and small firms alike; general information service; monthly newsletters; operating manuals on subjects of credit, collections, advertising, merchandising and sales promotion; professional consultation assistance; sales training publications; seasonal promotions (including stickers, tags, bags and wrapping paper for Christmas and similar occasions); and special bulletins to keep members informed of important developments in business and government which affect the music business and require swift action.

Additional services aimed at record dealers that were suggested at the meeting included: seeking of industry-wide adoption of the "compatible" monostereo LP record that Philips has recently introduced in this country; holding a marketing conference for record dealers on the first day of the 1967 Music Show, as well as a Continental breakfast with talks by industry leaders on key phonograph record issues; adding extra phonograph record marketing figures to the association's annual merchandising manual; providing gift certificates, standardized album dividers, and a universal marking system for phonograph records; and seeking of ways to promote records -especially "a d u l t" product which is being virtually ignored in the current Top 40-oriented record market.

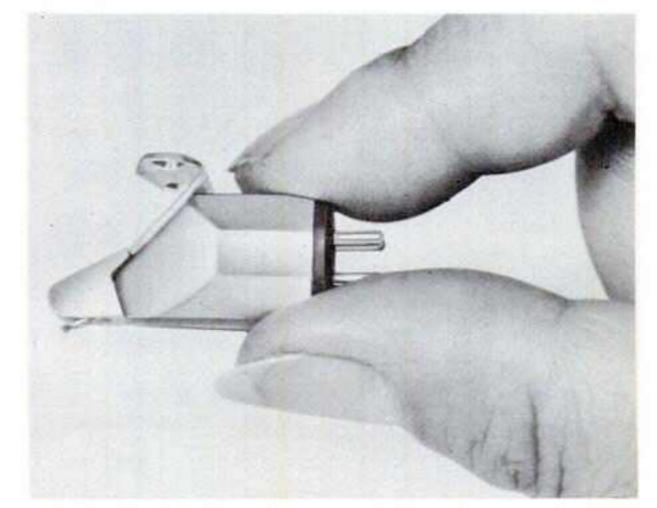

Gard agreed with dealers that NAMM has been delinquent in its attempts to publicize itself to the record trade (one image that should be shattered, he said, is that NAMM is only large dealers' organization. About half of the group's total membership, he said, fall into the lowest dues category). Gard promised that NAMM would undertake a campaign to explain itself to the nation's record retailers and to invite them to join the association.

The committee's suggestions will be presented by Gard to NAMM's board of directors. The board, according to current information, is expected

PUBLISHED MUSIC is rapidly becoming a popular consumer item. Increasing sales of published music product are related to rising musical instrument sales—especially to teens. Here, Al Gregory and Ray Barnes of Mel Bay Publications pose in front of firm's exhibition booth at the NAMM Music Show.

5 per cent or so will make money for them.

"As far as local charts are concerned," he added, "we often see a record that hasn't been shipped already on the sheet. Other times, we see stations keeping numbers on the charts long after they have stopped selling. They do this, apparently because they got on a record too late, and then refuse to admit that their influence hasn't been able to keep it a hot seller. There are many complicating factors, but the end result is innaccurate charts. All the dealers know this, and they depend on requests and their own experience in the business to tell them how to buy.

Chet Kajeski, of Martin and Snyder, one-stop in Detroit, told Billboard: "I find frequent discrepancies on the radio charts. As far as I am concerned, they hurt jukebox operators in the area. By failing to approve most of the recommendations.

Attending the meeting besides Gard and Galperin were G. W. Seiffert from Iowa City, Ia.; Henry Elsnick, Chicago; Daniel Winograd, Chicago; and M. E. Hollander, Chicago. The group was composed mainly of Midwesterners because of travel convenience.

Full details of the discussion that took place at the meeting will follow in next week's issue of Billboard.

to list, and expose on the air, what is a legitimate 'adult' hit, they can cut down play on the boxes. This happens with a record that sells very well in the area, deserves to be listed on the charts, but doesn't get listed because the stations don't feel it is in their format." Because such a record does not get the additional push of air play, its life on a jukebox is sometimes shortened.

"I don't believe," Kajeski added, "that many record dealers are affected by the charts in the Detroit area. By being innaccurate, these charts defeat their own purpose."

It enhances our centers of recreation and amusement; constructively (and inexpensively) occupies the time and attention of our children.

Bulk vending businessmen contribute to local charities, belong to civic, religious and social organizations, and frequently are active in political life.

Bulk vending has been a part of the American business scene for a long time. Thomas Adams' gum machines appeared in New York in 1888. In 1908 a vending machine manufacturing company was founded in Morris, Ill. (the Northwestern, Corp.) which today continues as a major maker of bulk vending machines.

Today, with the great increase in leisure time — and the compelling need to encourage the existence of small businessmen — it appears that the bulk vendor will play a continuing and enlarging role in our nation's future.

What Is Bulk Vending?

Bulk vending may be defined as the unselective sale of any unpackaged item of merchandise through a coin-operated machine. The sale is non-selective because the merchandise in the machine, in most cases, is identical. In all cases the merchandise is of identical value.

The merchandise may be wrapped (as is the case of a

The gum ball is the hallmark of bulk vending. Bulk vending merchandise, by its definition, is unpackaged, as opposed to packaged items such as candy bars and packs of gum, which are normally vended through large, selective machines.

Some unpackaged merchandise is irregularly shaped and might not vend easily through a coin-operated machine. This problem is overcome by encasing the vended object in a container called a "capsule." Typical items vended in capsules are toy rings, key rings, insignia, other small toys of all kinds.

Bulk Vending's Place In the Economy

An estimated $80 million worth of merchandise was sold through bulk vending machines in the U. S. during 1965. There are about 5,000 bulk vending operators in the country (many of these are part-time). The average operator has two or less employes. The average bulk vendor earned $11,863 during 1965, compared with $8,900 for the average U. S. adult filing an income tax return or the $17,000 netted by the typical operator of large, selective vending machines.

A number of manufacturers, suppliers and distributors employing thousands of persons depend on the bulk vending industry for existence. This applies to at least 50 major merchandise suppliers, 20 major machine manufacturers and 75 major distributors.

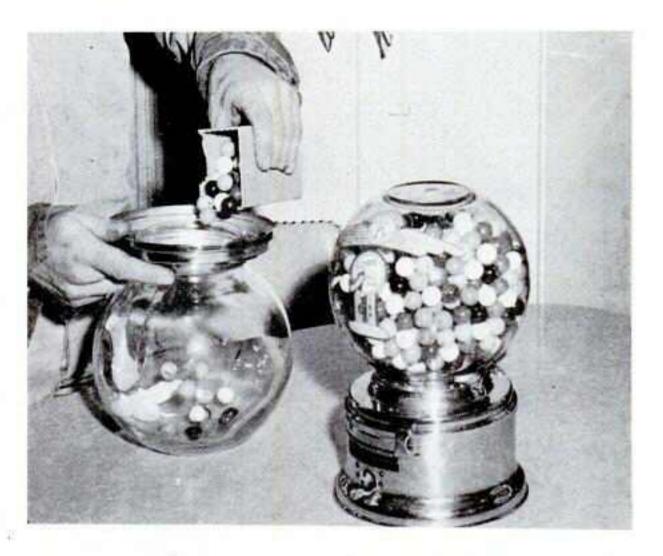

The businessman who owns, places, fills and services bulk vending machines is called an "operator." Sometimes he is called a "vendor," while the machine is called a "vender." The business, building or area in which the machine is placed for access by the buying public is called a "location." A "distributor" is a local businessman who sells bulk vending machines and products to the "operator" who places same on his "route," a term frequently used to designate all his location or his entire business.

Though bulk vending machines have been around since before the time of Christ, their real debut as a factor in retail selling came with the 20th Century. Bulk cigarets, matches, cups, peanuts and gum were among the first items vended. Since World War II, bulk vending has greatly widened in scope of merchandise. Today a vast variety of confections, nutmeats (Continued on page 67)

Nathan Rake Dies

PHILADELPHIA — Nathan Rake, 57, head of Rake Coin Machine Exchange, died Monday (15). Rake joined his father in the company after World War II. The company, founded in 1925, is one of the oldest established distributorships of bulk vending machines and supplies in the nation.

Cause of death was a heart attack. Rake is survived by his widow, Ida; his sons, Rick and Allen, his daughter-in-law, Sandy, and two grandchildren. His sons joined the firm some years ago and will continue to operate the business. They now become the third generation of the Rake family to be active in the bulk vending supply company.

Charm Makers May Revert to One Price

By HANK FOX

NEW YORK — American charm manufacturers may drop the two-price structure and revert to the system used prior to the 1940's of offering their products to both the distributor and the operator for the same price.

"We may be forced to go back to the single price system because of the prevailing conditions in our industry," George Eppy, president of Eppy Charms Co., told Billboard last week. "Certain importers are already destroying pricing. They will sell to anyone—operators, distributors, and will sell at the same price to both. They are undercutting the price considerably."

The one-price structure used up to the 1940's kept the industry in havoc, he said. "Only after the national association sought to establish the dual system did the industry enjoy prosperity," Eppy continued. "We spent millions to move the bulk machine from the small family-owned candy store to the giant supermarket in variety chains. It was the U. S. manufacturers who fought to support and finance the industry through various legal battles and to lower taxes levied on machines.

"We can't support an industry which doesn't support us," he said. "We will go directly to the operator, bypassing the distributor to survive if conditions don't change.

"There's no originality in the imported charms," says Bill Falk of Knight Toy & Novelty Co. "The importer is involved with too many lines of different products. Charms constitute only a small percentage of his volume. As a result, he can't give time to make merchandise that will move."

Paul Price, of the Paul A. Price Co., told Billboard (Aug. 27 issue) that he and other American manufacturers are being discouraged from investing in new molds and some of them are moving into fields outside the bulk vending industry.

The mainstay of operator sales has been the American charms. "Domestic manufacturers are responsible for the Batman items,

Industry Characteristics

Bulk vending is, and has historically been, an industry of small businessmen. While some few companies have grown to encompass all 50 States, most bulk vending companies can be described as "mom and pop" firms with the home frequently serving as headquarters.

And while many bulk venders are placed in locations such as large dime store and supermarkets chains, most bulk vending locations may also be characterized as small businesses. These include small neighborhood stores of all types, automobile service stations.

Bulk vending may also be called a father-son type of business. The pattern of father and son activity is most common.

Products Sold

The following is a representative sampling of products sold through bulk vending machines in the United States:

Baked beans Ball point pens Ball gum Candies Capsuled toys Picture cards Insignia Nutmeats Miniature books Rings

Wrapped gum During the past several years a staple item for many bulk venders has been a mixture of penny novelties and ball gum.

the Go-Go rings, the Scare-Ems, the Trolls, the Beatle items and all the items that have brought prosperity to the distributor and operator," Eppy said. "They are discouraging the source from which they made their money. The importer has done nothing for the industry. He has done nothing to get legislators to look favorably upon the bulk vender. He doesn't support the trade associations. He doesn't come up with any new hot items which would spur turnover. He just copies and wrecks the price structure.

"When a child buys an imported item in the machine there's nothing to make him want the rest of the set. Before the importers came in," Eppy said, "kids would never throw away the charm so they can have only the candy.

"We spent over $20,000 creating capsule molds so that the operator could vend 5 and 10cent items. We've taken plastic items and put gold and silver

New Mod Rings Aimed at Teens

NEW YORK — Mod Rings are the latest in new bulk vending products aimed for the teen market. The rings, manufactured by the Wee Original Products Co., consist of a silver or goldplated ring base on which plastic geometric shapes are mounted. George Herman, owner of the company, introduced the rings at the New York Bulk Vendors meeting last week.

Herman said that the 10-cent items are copies of rings sold in better custom jewelry stores. He indicated that the initial reaction to the showing was the best he has ever received. Within the first week, said Herman, orders have exceeded 1 million rings.

platings on them. We design and distribute merchandising aids which move the charms rapidly. The difference between the detailing on an American and an import item is like night and day. The American charm is a piece of craftsmanship: it's a class item that a child is proud to own.

"Distributors and operators don't seem to realize that union wage scales and operating costs are considerably higher in the U. S. than they are in Hong Kong," said Eppy. "Of course, a buyer wants to pay the lowest cost for an item. But when he stocks up on inferior items which he knows won't build more trade, and he knows he is strangling the source of the strongselling charms, he's only injuring himself in the long run. We will not stand by while the distributors deserts us in time of prosperity and comes running back when he sees the market going down, asking for a good item," Eppy added.

The importers cannot compete with American manufacturers on mold items and fads, according to Eppy. By the time they would send over a Batman item or Go-Go ring, the craze is over. The process of copying, shipping samples for approval and transporting the first delivery takes well over three months. Reordering will require another two months, Eppy said, since the importer will not accept a small shipment and waits for several orders to accumulate. U. S. manufacturers say they can have an item ready for delivery from the making of the molds in about four weeks and that reorder time has been cut to 48 hours.

Even when the importers learn of a new fad developing in the near future, Eppy said, they still cannot jump the gun by going into early production because they don't know if the market will materialize. Consequently, he explained, they still will be too late to be on the bandwagon in time for peak sales.

'An Extra Value'

Congratulations on your Aug. 20 issue of Billboard magazine that includes the Bluebook. You have given your subscribers an extra value.

I know a few distributors feel that a price guide is a detriment to them, but I feel that the customers are entitled to have some sort of guideline to the value of used equipment they want to turn in or buy.

Sir:

I'd like you to know how I feel about Jack Moran's Institute of Coin Machine Operations in Denver, I was graduated from the school a year ago. When I entered the school I was an $85 a week mechanic for a calculator outfit. Today I am making more than twice as much and am putting some money away in the bank for the first time in my life. I'm also driving a brand-new company car.

I had doubts about the coin machine business when I entered the school, but Jack Moran talked me into going through with the training. I'm convinced that he talked me into making the smartest move in my life.

ROWE PRESIDENT JACK HARPER: "I don't agree that the jukebox business is just a replacement business."

New Rowe Jukebox Is Video Equipped

NEW YORK-Rowe brought its international distributor family in late last week to view the first video-equipped jukebox introduced by one of the big four manufacturers.

According to Rowe president Jack Harper, the company's new 1966-1967 model phonograph unveiled at The Lambs here is available with a film projection accessory, putting Rowe in competition with Scopitone, Color-Sonics and David Rosen's

Cinejukebox. (Rosen, curiously, is a Rowe distributor. He'll exhibit his imported machine at the Music Operators of America show in October.)

A Big Rowe Rebound

By RAY BRACK

CHICAGO—The Rowe Manufacturing divi-sion of Canteen Corp. has staged a remarkable turnaround in the past five years.

In terms put to Billboard by Rowe president
Jack Harper on the eve of the company's international distributor meeting in New York, Rowe Manufacturing:

"Was running in the red five years ago.
"Is setting a pace this year that will result in a profit of $4 million."

This recovery by what is reportedly the world's No. 2 producer of jukeboxes—and one of the giants in vending machine production—is one of the biggest business rebound stories in recent years. The time span of the achievement significantly coincides with the tenure of Harper, who came to the top spot at Rowe from CocaCola when Patrick O'Malley was named president of Canteen Corp.

"This turnaround of the company does not represent a flash of genius," Harper insists. "It is the result of consolidation of the operation. We're a slimmed down organization."

Accompanying the moves toward efficiency has been what Harper called, "continuous increase in acceptance in all our products. This is general. Sales have increased in all types of equipment." (Jukebox sales, for example, jumped 15 per cent in 1964 over 1963, with more improvement last ware) provement last year.)

Late last week Rowe became the first major jukebox manufacturer to announce entry into the video-phonograph field, showing to distrib-utors in New York a jukebox model for which film projection was an optional accessory. "We

Empire Coin in 25th Year as Chicago Firm

CHICAGO - Twenty-five years ago, Gilbert K. Kitt came to Chicago and, in partnership with the late Morris Gisser, started a distributing firm called Empire Coin Machine Exchange.

"I had been an operator," Kitt recalled to Billboard, "for about six years in the Cleveland area. Early in 1941 I went to work for Gisser as a salesman. Then, after a few months, I came to Chicago and started this business."

His business, now called Empire Distributing Inc., is the distributor of Rock-Ola products as well as the game and vending lines of several other firms. "I had only two people working for me back in 1941," Kitt said. "Five years later it was a total of eight. Now we have more than 50 employees and are currently installing IBM equipment to help us with our bookkeeping.

"Incidently, my son Alan, who has been with the firm for a little over a year, will be in charge of the new bookkeeping department. I am very glad to have him with the firm, and I hope he will like this industry as well as I have."

'CAN-DO' SERIES

Location Contract Strategy—Part Two

We present the second of two articles dealing with one of the operator's most vital business tools - the location contract. Last week's article dealt with contract aims. The following article covers contract definitions and pitfalls. Sample contracts appear in this issue.-Ed.

By S. JOHN INSALATA

In mapping contract strategy the coin machine operator must cleave to clear, concise definitions and steer clear of common contract pitfalls.

Perhaps the best way to define what a contract is, is to point out what it is not. Here goes.

A CONTRACT IS NOT—

 A complete statement of all possible conditions, terms and problems connected with machine placement. Many of these things can or will be implied by the law, if it is reasonable to do so. But this tendency of some operators to include everything under the sun, and the practice of some larger locations to ask for specific mention of too many points (most of which the law would imply, anyway), leads to the following three common flaws in location contract:

1. Contracts that are too long.

2. Contracts that are contradictory (one part conflicts with another part).

Contracts that may only be used once because they fit only a particular location.

 A catch-all for your frustrations and bad experiences. There is a natural tendency to put sections into location contracts because of some unfortunate personal experience with a location. These should be covered in contracts only if they recur frequently.

 A purely legal instrument. A contract, to be sure, is a legal document. However, it is also a description of business customs and practices, and the particular business objectives, terms, etc., of the businessmen involved. Therefore, be sure your contract is a business tool and not a lawyer's exercise in legal theo-

 A complete safeguard. Good location relations are still your best safeguard to keeping locations. Well written contracts are extremely helpful, but they are not a complete safeguard to losing locations and a panacea to all location problems. They certainly are no substitute for good service!

· A club to wield against troublesome locations. A contract cannot be punitive. It cannot be written to punish locations for not agreeing with you or doing just as you wish. Such a contract is not legal. A contract merely enforces your rights and those of the location. And enforcement must be tempered with reason.

DETROIT — When veteran jukebox operator Sam Willens invited restaurant customers to try his jukebox, and backed it up with his own money, his take doubled within a couple of months and stayed at the new high level. The customers, the location owner, the help, and of course Willens were all happy with the results.

American's Imperial Shuffleboard has earned the reputation

The old machine operated at a nickel, or six for a quarter, while Willens promptly went to 10 cents, or three for a quarter. Albums still play at 50 cents, but he believes this should be changed to one side for a quarter to meet popular taste.

To popularize the new price, Willens this past spring introduced a special card, about three by six inches, with a dime inserted in a slot cut in it. The card invites the customer to "smile, relax, enjoy yourself. . . . Be our guest. Play your favorite tune on our Seeburg Stereo Music Phonograph, compliments of your host, Darrell Burton."

"This dime card has made the Country Kitchen a real hot spot for music," Willens says. "Actually I've been using this idea for years and it has always meant some increase-but nothing stable. The trouble has been that we have not been able to get the location owner or his employees to understand what we are doing for him. But here I found a merchant with understanding, and one who actively co-operates.

"It has made this a fantastic location-something a music operator just dreams of."

Will Tax Hike Force L. A. Vendors to 40c?

LOS ANGELES — Cigaret vending machine operators here are debating individually whether to hike the price of cigarets in machines after the Los Angeles city council approved a 2-cent a pack increase in the cigaret

Certain operators say that they are "seriously considering a price hike" to 40 cents per pack for machine cigarets. Most maour suggested boosts of 3 cents and 2 cents each. The passage of the tax bill came on the sixth attempt. The previous five bills were defeated either in committee hearing or city council sessions.

Although the measure must be voted on again by the council after it is prepared in ordinance form by the city attorney's office, city officials feel there is little likelihood the ordinance would be overturned. The cigaret levy is designed to take ef-

During First Quarter: Music Down; Games and Vending Up

WASHINGTON—During the first quarter of 1966, according to statistics released by the U. S. Department of Commerce, shipments of the three major varieties of new coin-operated equipment from the U.S. to Japan compared as follows with the first quarter of 1965:

Phonographs dropped in dollar volume from $298,065 to $241,329.

Dollar volume of amusement games climbed from $217,906 to $227,530.

Vending machine dollar volume jumped from $12,650 to $42,568.

First quarter 1964 figures were $228,778 worth of jukeboxes and $333,856 worth of games.

Total value of all phonographs, games and vending machines was $511,427 for the first 1966 quarter compared with $528,621 for the 1965 period.

Discover Sleeping Market In Latin-American Lands

LOS ANGELES - While many coin machine exporters concentrate on the lucrative European and Asian export markets, a handful of distributors here have uncovered a "sleeping export market" in Latin America.

A competitive American market for European and Asian business has somewhat limited the profit margin there, but the "south-of-the-border" nations remain virgin territory to West Coast exporters of new, but primarily used coin machine equipment.

While it is still profitable to export goods to Europe and Southeast Asia, exporters feel, the market there is becoming cluttered with American action. Today, exporters see a boom ahead for many Latin-American nations eager to import both coin and vending equipment.

Inflation, although always a major concern of businessmen dealing in the explosive Latin market, is not a major factor in the business boom. Puerto Rico's commercial sales, for instance, are expected to reach $7 billion by 1975. On alarming gain for a country of that postage-stamp

Exciting

Pres Struve, president of Struve Distributing Co., Los Angeles, feels the Latin-American-South American market has "exciting potential," especially in the demand for used phonographs.

"The market in Latin America has not reached a saturation point," he said, "thereby giving the area an unlimited potential for used equipment. The demand for phonographs and games is tremendous."

"Although inflation in the South America-Latin-American market is a business factor," said Marvin Miller, president of Coin Machine Service Co., Los Angeles, "we feel we are pioneering in many of the countries. If we can cut through the red tape and eliminate the economic retardation of many Latin - American nations," he said, "the coin machine market here will find a fresh source of export revenue.

'Backward business techniques have been the downfall of many small businessmen in Latin America. We can improve our business there merely by helping them modernize their marketing methods and creating a new, forward-looking competitive spirit."

Joseph S. Duarte, secretarytreasurer of Badger Sales &

Vending Co., Los Angeles, and president of Duarte International Sales Co., Los Angeles, admits the Latin - American market is potentially rich, but warns of several exporting drawbacks.

"The balance-of-payment problems which exist in Latin America has been a source of irritation to American exporters. Simply, there is little money in most Latin nations to spend on luxury items," Duarte said.

Duarte, who listed exclusive agreements with many of the Latin-American nations during the post World War II years, says inflation and stiff import duties on nonessential items (including amusement games and phonographs) have curtailed the export market.

Duarte admits the potential market in Latin America is tremendous, but obtaining market contacts there is difficult. "Brazil, for instance, has never been cracked," Duarte said, "and Peru is still active. But Argentina recently passed a law against pinball machines and has now prohibited amusement games."

He feels that if Latin Americans ever repair their economic systems (balance-of-payments) and several of the countries curb inflation, the export market to Latin America will return a rich profit to American coin machine investors.

Color-Sonics to Produce 70 Films This Year

NEW YORK-Some 70 new films will be produced over the next 12 months to further extend the current library of productions available for the Color-Sonics theater-jukebox. The new model, which was unveiled last week, is set for late August distribution.

The films will be added to the existing 200 titles. Official Films, a minority stockholder, produces the films at Paramount Studios in Hollywood. In their productions, Color-Sonics features such artists as Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass, Mary Wells, Nancy Sinatra, Julie London and Fran Jeffries, among others. The cost of the filming is budgeted to be the equivalent of one day's cost on a major motion picture production.

think video has great potential in this business,"

Harper said.

In effecting new efficiencies, Harper said, Rowe has consolidated its sales, manufacturing and European divisions. The sales department has been moved from Chicago to Whippany, N. J., "where they are housed in a facility where we already pay the rent, anyway.

"In addition," he pointed out, "having the sales people in Whippany means improved liaison between sales and engineering people with respect to matters of customer relations."

Extensive manufacturing economies have resulted from the transfer of all vending production to the Whippany plant from Grand Rapids, Mich., Harper explained. In the process, one of Rowe's two Grand Rapids facilities was sold. At present Rowe manufactures all jukeboxes and dollar bill changers in Grand Rapids.

"Five years ago our Whippany plant was running at only 60 per cent of capacity," Harper said. "Today this is much altered."

While acknowledging the pleasing aspects of the vending equipment market, Harper is adamant in the belief that the jukebox market is also expanding.

"I don't agree that the jukebox business is just a replacement business," he insisted. "I think there are great new markets for our music equipment—both jukeboxes and background music."

Harper declines to single out one area of the Rowe operation for plaudits, but it is widely recognized in the business that Rowe's moves in the area of distribution during its period of growth—its latest new appointment being Peach State Distributors, as announced here last week—have added the sales punch of some of the industry's most aggressive wholesalers.

"I have one basic philosophy," offered Harper in his typically soft-spoken manner. "The most important thing in a company is people. We've given people authority in their own areas and when they perform well we give credit where it is due."

All considered, it looked as though president Harper had some bouquets to pass out at his distributor meeting last week.

It is not supported by adequate consideration.

It is extended beyond a reasonable time.

It is combined with some other extra-legal procedure.

 Failure to allow for economic changes. Sometimes changes in the community, such as plant relocation, layoffs, urban renewal, etc., decrease location traffic. An operator must protect himself by writing enough control and latitude into the contract over the amount and type of equipment to be used in the location, the frequency of servicing and the price and types of products to be vended or music to be programmed. The words CON-TROL LATITUDE are critical. They must be retained by the operator in the contract while it assures that the operator will cater to the legitimate needs and desires of the location.

right subcommittee of the House Judiciary committee to revise esction 114 of HR 4347 (general revision of the copyright act).

The subcommittee proposal, Fred Granger, MOA executive vice-president, told Billboard, "differs from the MOA proposal as follows:

The MOA proposal is a royalty based upon purchase of records, the subcommittee proposal is a royalty based upon inventory of records in the machine. Neither of these proposals is completely acceptable to all parties involved."

The meeting between members of MOA and the performance rights societies was the first direct contact between the two groups. Earlier in the month, on Aug. 2, attorneys of MOA and the coin-operated phonograph manufacturers held an exploratory meeting with attorneys representing the societies. The attorneys felt at the time that a direct meeting between the two groups would be advisable.

"This was a very harmonious and productive meeting," Granger told Billboard. "It was an informal affair—no minutes were kept—and really we just sat down together and talked the whole day. The result was that we realized that there are some areas of agreement. We hope to develop these areas in subsequent meetings."

MIAMI TRADE HURT BY THE AIR STRIKE

New York Trade Opposing Rocky

NEW YORK — Local coin machine operators are taking an active part in the upcoming gubernatorial elections in November. Governor Rockefeller, who three times has vetoed legislation aimed at licensing the State's operators, is their target.

Bright fluorescent red bumper stickers with big black print reading "Retire Rocky" and a caricature of Rockefeller sitting in a rocking chair are being printed and passed around to operators and other interested parties. Buttons of the same color and copy accompany the stickers.

Although the State association is not taking a direct role in the campaign, it will expedite the ordering of the bumper stickers and buttons. Individual members will handle the operation. Shipments reportedly will be sent to key areas in lots of ten thousand. The announcement that the materials are being printed came just this week, but it is reported that 50,000 have already been ordered.

tion of officers and directors the group adjourned until cocktail hour in the ballroom and then attended the evening banquet. Featured speakers at the banquet were Chester P. Tinsley, director of the cigaret and soft drink division of the West Virginia tax department; Fred Granger, executive vice-president of the MOA; Richard Funk, legisative counsel of the MOA, and Raymond G. Brack, coin machine editor of Billboard magazine.

Hunt, who was elected for a one-year term, has been in the operating business since 1963 when he bought out his father's portion of Southern Distributors, an operating firm located in Welsh, W. Va. He is also a wholesaler of beer and has been in that business for more than 20 years.

"This association has been a great deal of help to me," Hunt told Billboard, "and I am proud to be serving it as an officer."

Hunt also said he is a member of the MOA and plans to attend that association's convention in Chicago later this year.

Full details of the WVMVA convention will appear in next week's issue of Billboard.

came a necessity, so has the need for alert operators to start selling the two plays for a quarter idea. If they don't look to the future and start to protect it now, there won't be any future to protect.

"If an operator can find a capable serviceman today, he has to pay him two or three times the salary paid just a few short years ago," said Adair. "If an operator figures up the current cost of his vehicles, his cost of operation and maintenance, his cost of insurance and taxes, the astronomical rise over the costs in the past year or two is nothing short of amazing.

"I'm not an alarmist," he continued, "but I have been in this business long enough to recognize danger flags when I see them flying."

In recommending the increase, the Seeburg vice-president noted that his firm had been the first to advocate dime play. Seeburg distributors and Seeburg regional vice-presidents are ready and willing to work with operators in changing prices again, he said. "They have the facts and figures about the increase costs that are causing much operator concern. They can help operators inaugurate the new pricing program on a solid basis. The operator who plans ahead now will be the one that will still be in business in the years ahead."

supports the cigaret tax, said he hopes that councilmen opposing the cigaret levy "will not obstruct council action by using technicalities" to delay passage when the ordinance comes before city council.

4-Cents Per Pack

The cigaret tax, which will bring the city's levy to 4 cents per pack, was offered to the city council six times before it finally passed. The revenue measure was introduced by Councilman Edmund D. Edelman, chairman of the council's Revenue and Taxation Committee and formerly an opponent of the cigaret tax hike.

Passage of the cigaret tax was dramatic, involving a quick helicopter trip by Councilman Paul H. Lamport. The revenue measure, requiring eight votes for passage, failed in the initial try by a 7-6 favorable vote.

Then Lamport, who had been excused earlier, rushed into the council chambers to add his support. At that point, Council Marvin Braude, who had voted against the cigaret tax, switched and moved for reconsideration. The measure passed, 9-5.

Lamport, noting the vending machine representatives in the city council chambers, said, "vending machine people would raise prices a nickel and they would chuckle all the way to the bank." City Administrative Officer C. Erwin Piper estimated that the cigaret tax will yield $2.6 million annually. Voting for the cigaret tax increase on the 14th roll call were Councilmen John P. Cassidy, John Ferraro, John C. Holland, Billy G. Mills, James B. Potter Jr., Thomas D. Shepard, Edelman, Braude and and Lamport. Opponents were Ernani Bernardi, Thomas Bradley, John S. Gibson Jr., Gilbert W. Lindsay and Louis R. Nowell. Council President L. E. Timber-lake is hospitalized and unable to vote.

The increase was approved despite warnings issued by Norbert Orens, representing the tobacco industry, and John D. Kelly, executive director of the Tobacco Distributors Association. Orens predicted the council action "will result in development of a bootleg operation in Los Angeles by Mafia-type hoodlums."

unexpected increases in taxes, market fluctuations in products you use, the cost of gasoline in your trucks, labor costs-you know them all well. All these developments could necessitate modification in your location agreements. A written contract, if properly drawn, does not inhibit or prevent these modifications. Neither does it require complete renegotiation or new agreement to do so.

 Deception at the inception. Any deceit or half truth, however small, if engaged in at the time the contract is entered into could later cause the location to feel justified in breaching the agreement.

 Misunderstanding of basics. A common cause of contract conflict is the location's misunderstanding some basic part of the contract—thinking that he was to receive X when really it was Y. Often these misunderstandings are no fault of the operator. But the operator should attempt to avoid all misunderstandings by discussing major contract features with the location before the agreement is finished. Certainly such things as commissions, type and style of equipment, etc., should be discussed at length.

 Overselling. In their zeal to convince the location to agree to terms, some operators oversell. They lead the location to expect a great deal more than the operator or his equipment can actually deliver. Even though the nature of the business is quite competitive, this unintentional habit should be carefully curbed.

· Failing to say "no." Failure to politely say "no" to the location can lead to a series of expensive events for you. Many locations can be compared to small children: the more you give them the more they'll make frivolous and unnecessary requests, such as for overly expensive equipment, etc.

· Poor contract size and shape. This may seem trifling, but the size, shape, titles and type size of the contract are all much more important than most operators realize. The ideal location contract should be no more than two sides of one sheet of paper, and, if possible, should be only one side of a single sheet. The print should be large enough to be easily readable. In a growing number of states larger-sized type in contracts is being required by legislation, depending upon what the contract contains. But readable print shows the location that you have nothing to hide.

- Non-precise language. Titles in a contract influence a location's thinking. The best policy is to call a spade a spade. That is, call a contract a contract. Always use the title "Contract" of a legitimate synonym such as "Agreement." Place it at the beginning of the document. Put it in large enough print so it cannot be overlooked.
- · Dealing with the wrong person. A definite pitfall in contract strategy is the deliberate attempt to get contracts signed (Continued on page 77)

How the Jukebox and Combo Co-Exist at 'Golden Goose'

"WE'LL BE BACK AFTER A WHILE," combo leader Woody Mills tells crowd in Golden Goose, Chicago. "Go play the jukebox."

Here is the seventh article in a series under the general heading, "Making Money With Music." This week we analyze the profitable co-existence of a jukebox and a live act at one of the jumpingest locations in Chicago's Uptown area.-Ed.

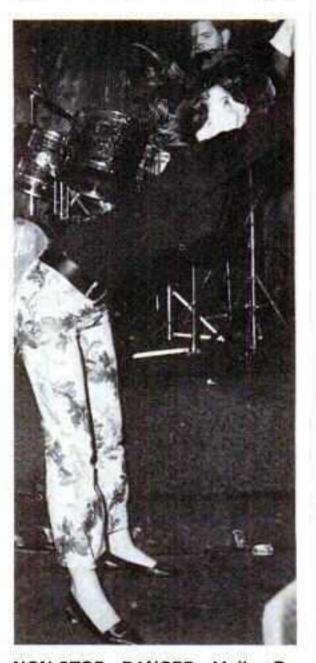

CHICAGO - The formula for profits in a specific jukebox stop may or may not be applicable to the stop down the street, across town-or to any other location you have. In one place, for example, that live act may kill your take. In another spot it could make your take.

Here's the story of a location in what Windy Citians call the "hillbilly" section of town. It's the story of happy, profitable, co-existence of jukebox and combo.

Here are the principals: the operator is Don Kimbrough, young, relatively new to the business. The jukebox is a new Rock-Ola 433 GP/Imperial. The live talent is the Woody Mills

Quartet, whose namesake is a giant of an ex-farmer from Manchester, Ky. who now plays electronic bass and mixes his country music with plenty of rock and roll. His side men are Don Hinton, Clyde Farrell and Bobby Neal. The location: The Golden Goose in Chicago's Uptown area. Clientele: largely

NON-STOP DANCER Molly Devine at the Golden Goose. The best jukebox play stimulator an operator ever had.

what sociologists call "Appalachian Whites." (Operators call them jukebox players.)

Woody and the boys held forth at the Golden Goose five nights a week for the past three

The Formula

There are the essential elements. Now, what does it add up to in terms of jukebox take? Upward of $100 weekly.

The formula is simple enough. Woody and company are on the stage for a half hour or so and off the same amount of time. When they go off, Woody an-nounces: "Be back in a while. Those requests we couldn't get to are on the jukebox." The result is uninterrupted music, alternating between quartet and jukebox.

"Yes, we plug the jukebox," said Mills, "and it helps us. People want the music going on all the time. We can't play all the time, but some of these people want to dance all the time."

It's true. There is uninterrupted dancing. Always there are a few girls on hand who seem to thrive on the dance (see photo). They grow stronger as the night progresses. They're the greatest allies an operator ever had.

"Then too," said Mills, "we tell the crowd when we're playing one of the new tunes on the jukebox. This seems to get them interested even more and they'll play it again after we've gone off."

Of course, at the Golden Goose, as at most stops, there are some guys too shy to drop a quarter in the jukebox and dance with their dates. But operator Kimbrough has this problem solved. There's a Chicago Coin shuffle alley in the spot. It does well, too.

by an employe or other person connected with the location rather than by the location owner. The result can be the location's refusal to accept the contract as binding, and the courts might agree with the location.

 Making a contract last forever. It is foolish to draw a contract that will last for too long a period of time. Conditions change. The location changes. Your operation changes. Proper provisions for periodic review and renewal of the contract is much safer for both parties. Your desire for security should not make you forget that a contract for too long a period may not be binding and may become a business burden to you. A well-drawn cancellation clause, of which you

Pin Games OK'd In Mo. Decision

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. — Norman H. Anderson, attorney general, has ruled that pinball machines which pay off in free games are not gambling devices under the Missouri liquor laws.

The attorney general noted that such machines are gambling devices under federal law, thus requiring a $250 federal gambling tax stamp.

Anderson said that a violation of State law would occur only if the licensee paid players in money or merchandise for winning on the machine, or if players gambled among themselves on the games.

Frank Steil Dies

ROSSVILLE, Tenn.—Frank N. Steil, 59, of 633 Mission Ridge Road, owner and operator of Dixie Amusement Co., died recently at a local hospital.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mamie Norma Bradford Steil, Rossville; three daughters, Mrs. Mary Ruth Robinson, Athens, Greece; Mrs. Donna Price, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Mrs. Betty Hollingsworth, Rossville; a brother, Albert Steil, Chattanooga; 15 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

jukebox and its projector accessory were not disclosed prior to the meeting. (See the full report by Hank Fox in Billboard next week.) Harper said, however, that another Rowe innovation to be unveiled to distributors would be a dollar bill acceptance attachment for its jukebox.

Its Place The Rowe entry indicates that video may find its place in the U. S. coin machine industry during the waning years of this decade. Pioneer in the field. Scopitone, got off to a stuttering start early in the decade, retrenched, came back under new leadership (A. A. Steiger of Tel-A-Sign), switched its distribution philosophy from outsiders to industry insiders (the Eddie Ginsburgs, Sol Tabbs, etc.) and now is featured in some 2,500 or so U. S. locations.

Dave Rosen and Innocenti of Italy have joined in developing a combination unit that will, in one configuration, offer the patron either a disk play or a music-film play. Rosen's distribution plans will be announced at MOA show time.

Color-Sonics, year-old amalgamation of several established companies, has shown its "compact 8mm film jukebox and is entering distribution in major markets this week. This firm is the first to go to the film cartridge. Scopitone is said to be going to cartridge magazine film soon as well, utilizing a development of the French industrial giant, Cameca, inventor of Scopitone.

The trade has been wondering whether Rowe will go 8mm cartridge as well; whether they'll offer silent film synchronization with records or full film sound;
whether name artists will be offered or whether the subjects will be purely decorative animation; and, as always, what this is all going to cost.

One thing is certain: there will

Empire Has 25th Anniversary

Looking back over the past several decades of the coin machine industry, Kitt commented that "it has shown tremendous growth in all areas, and has branched out into several new fields as well. I think it has been a good business for anyone who has wanted to put some time into it. And I believe it will continue to be good in the future.

"I am no Nostradamus," he said, "but I feel there will be enormous growth in the vending part of this business. I also believe that the music and game fields will continue to improve. Games will have a resurgence with the development of new types of machines and will become a very important factor in this business."

Kitt said he became sole owner of Empire in 1947 when he bought out his partner. The firm

Location's Receipts Multiplied By Dime's Worth of Promotion

have the further advantage of volume control, so that each customer can have the music at the level he prefers. This combination—the convenience and special features of the Consolettes and the dime cards—have built up Willens' business in a way that leaves him really enthusias-

"When the girls leave a card, many customers just put in their own quarter and ask, may we keep this card" (with the dime), seeking a reminder or souvenir," Willens says. "They are amazed. "This system has created increased business for the Country Kitchen. Customers come to Burton at the cash register and say, thanks to you and your music man for taking such an interest.

"This dime card is very superior to the usual use of red coins or other marked coins. The customer understands our business, and knows you are going to get the marked coin back. It is not a real goodwill builder anymore.

"And this is actually the same money revolving. If you put out say $20 a week it all comes back in the next week's take.

"It would probably not work constantly in a neighborhood tavern, but used occasionally it would help stimulate business there," he said.

The Country Kitchen has an excellent location close to the intersection of four major highways, including national and interstate roads, with a large volume of passing traffic. In addition there is much steady business from businessmen and others in the area, from patrons at a bar next door, and local residents, especially young people.

Owner Darrell Burton's comment is typical—"It has helped business quite a lot, including family business. I've had lots of good comments on it. That card is very nice. People are surprised, and talk about it. People return because they have been pleased by it—and I'm very happy with it."

His help agrees it means increased income for them. Says waitress Phyllis Estridge, after the Consolettes were installed and the cards introduced: "We have a lot more people who play music now than did before, especially families with kids. You give them a card and they want to play more than one.

"It probably helps our tips too — customers stay longer, maybe decide to have dessert, and they listen to the music.

"We've had a lot of compliments on it. A lot of older people, couples who wouldn't get up to play a jukebox, see it, read the titles, and play. Kids, too, with their families, will notice it and play—but wouldn't have a chance to before."

She thinks the volume control especially important. "Each customer can set it for the volume he likes—a lot of people don't like loud music when they're eating."

"There is a friendlier relation between the place and the people who come in here," says waitress Myra Brennan. "They are very surprised when they are given the dime card — and "I think we get about onethird more in tips since the table boxes were put in," she said. "I think the card teases them into playing. Then they see another number they like, and probably a few more, and play them. But they probably wouldn't have started to play if they hadn't received the card. The more they play, the more they eat, and the more the tips."

Willens sums it up, "We are creating goodwill with the normal jukebox customer, as well as with people that never played a jukebox in their lives. We are enticing the customer to play with a happy smile on his face at the same time."

WASHINGTON LI N Y1.1050

Pop LP Spotlights are those albums with sufficient sales potential, in the opinion of Billboard's Review Panel, to achieve a listing on Billboard's Top LP's charts. Spotlight winners in other categories are selected on the basis of their potential to become top sellers in their respective areas.

Righteous Brothers. Verve V 5004 (M); V6-5004 (S)

With their "Go Ahead and Cry" smash featured as the title tune, the "Brothers" should quickly garner the top spot on the LP charts with this exciting, blues-filled package. "What Now My Love," "Stagger Lee," and "Island In the Sun" are standout performances.

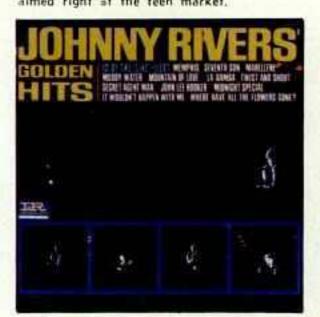

POP SPOTLIGHT

JOHNNY RIVERS' GOLDEN

Imperial LP 9324 (M); LP 12324 (S)

With such Rivers hits featured as "Seventh Son," "Secret Agent Man" and "Muddy Water," this blockbuster package can't miss. Twelve big hits under one cover and aimed right at the teen market.

POP SPOTLIGHT

YOU ASKED FOR IT!

Ferrante and Teicher. United Artists UAL 3526 (M); UAS 6526 (S)

Ferrante & Teicher stick to their successful tormula, with lush treatments of recent standards like "Strangers in the Night," "Lara's Theme" from "Doctor Zhivago" and "The Shadow of Your Smile." Ferrante & Teicher, of course, are up to their high standard at the piano.

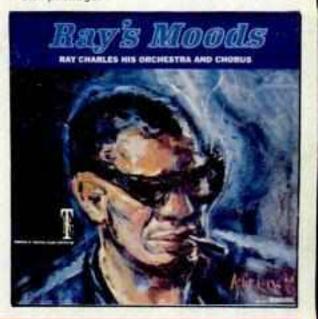

POP SPOTLIGHT

RAY'S MOODS

Ray Charles, His Ork and Chorus. ABC ABC 550 (M); ABCS 550 (S)

Charles runs the gauntlet from rhythm and blues to country music in this package cleverly. Designed to display his wide range of ability. All the singer's emotions from blues to humor, are heard on this well-produced LP. Top sales appeal in this all-new package.

POP SPOTLIGHT

LOU RAWLS SOULIN'

Capital T 2566 (M); ST 2566 (S)

The phenomenal success of his "Lou Rawls-Live" album, which was in the top 10 of the LP charts for many weeks, proved that at long last the singer had arrived. His well-deserved and hard-won popularity will have the same effect on this package of emotional, soul-rendering performances.

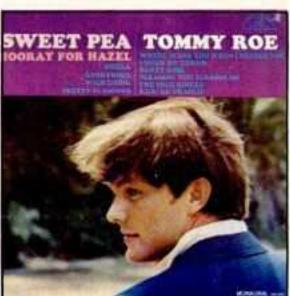

POP SPOTLIGHT

THE TROGGS: WILD THING

Atco 33-193 (M); 33-193 SD (S)

Featuring the same material and title of the Fontana album, it will be a toss-up to see which manufacturer outsells the other, as was the case of the single, "Wild Thing." Both labels will relish in top sales, already felt by the advance Fontana version.

POP SPOTLIGHT

SWEET PEA

Tommy Roe. ABC ABC 575 (M); ABCS 575 (S)

Based upon his smash single "Sweet Pea" and other pop hits which includes "Pretty Flamingo" and "Wild Thing," Roe has a sure-fire chart winner. "Hooray for Hazel" has singles possibilities. Roe's former hit "Sheila" comes off strong.

POP SPOTLIGHT

EVERYBODY LOVES SOMEBODY

Jerry Vale. Columbia CL 2530 (M); CS 9330 (S)

in the current trend of pop vocalists delving into the country music songbag. Vale offers top tunes from the Nashville scene, supported by the exceptional arrangements of Marty Manning, Most of the tunes are romantic lyric ballads such as "I Can't Stop Loving You," "I Love You Because" and "Make the World Go Away."

POP SPOTLIGHT

CLASS OF '66

Floyd Cramer, RCA Victor LPM 3650 (M); LSP 3650 (S)

On the heels of his successful "Class of "65" album last year, Cramer has come up with an equal sales winner. With that ever present country flavor, and a sprinkling of brass, a dozen numbers are well executed. Cramer expresses emotion and feeling through his piano on such pop favorites as "Soul and Inspiration," "He" and "Massage to Michael."

POP SPOTLIGHT

RAIN FOREST

Walter Wanderley, Verve V 8658 (M); V6-8658 (S)

The singles hit, "Summer Samba," featured here, has the power to pull this delightful package right up the LP chart. Additional support is provided by the sparkling arrangements of "It's Easy to Say Goodbye," "The Girl From Ipanema" and "Cail Me," which the young Brazilian organist plays superbly.

WILD IS LOVE

Margana King, Reprise R 6205

(M); RS 6205 (S)

The eloquent stylist successfully combines artistic qualities with commercial appeal and the result is a swinging salable album. Change of pace comes with an outstanding treatment of "Shadow of Your Smile" and the irresistable new ballad "You Are a Story." "Bee Bom" has singles' potential

RIGHT FROM THE HEART

Jimmy Roselli, United Artists UAL 3529 (M); UAS 6529 (S)

The reasons for Roselli's quick rise in popularity are apparent in this slightly swingin' dynamically done album. He displays a marked talent of getting inside a standard and revitalizing it, giving it a new dimension of freshness.

POP SPOTLIGHT

ALL-TIME PIANO HITS

Ronnie Aldrich and His Two Pianos. Landon SP 44081 (5)

All-time piano favorites take on a new freshness and sparkle via these exceptional performances by Britain's Aldrich. He's able to revitalize such winners as "Near You" and "Bewitched" with beauty and perfection. A fine recording, enhanced by the Phase 4 process.

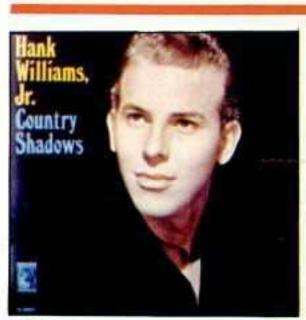

POP SPOTLIGHT

HOOCHIE COOCHE MAN

Jimmy Smith. Verve V 8667 (M): V6-8667 (S)

Only six cuts on the LP, but they're all blockbusters, blues-based rousers including the artist's hit single, "Hoocnie Cooche Man." Backed by a 25-man orchestra featuring the big names on the New York jazz scene, Smith offers two tunes from the Ray Charles bag, "One Minit Julep" and "Ain't That Just Like a Woman", plus John Lee Hooker's early hit, "Boom Boom."

COUNTRY SPOTLIGHT

COUNTRY SHADOWS Hank Williams Jr. MGM E 4391 (M); SE 4391 (S)

With his chart-climbing single "Standing in the Shadows" featured as the lead-off cut, young Williams has a strong LP chart contender for the country market. A bow to producer Jim Vienneau for exceptional production support. Williams' fans should enjoy his performances on "Truck Drivin' Man," "Pecos Jail" and "Going Steady With the Blues."

COUNTRY SPOTLIGHT

MISS BONNIE GUITAR

Dot DLP 3737 (M); DLP 25737

The country thrush features her recent singles hit, "The Green Green Grass of Home," in this album of her favorits songs. "Are You Sincere," "Guilty" and "Grey Rain Years" are all standout performances.

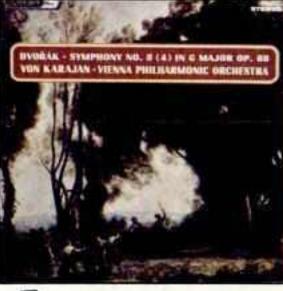

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT

BEETHOVEN: MISSA SOLEMNIS

Various Artists/New Philharmonia Orchestra and Chorus (Klemperer). Angel B 3679 (M); SB 3679 (S)

The New Philharmonia Orchestra and Chorus, and soloists Elizabeth Saderstrom, Marga Hoefgien, Waldemar Kmentt and Martti Taleva handle the difficult Beethoven music impressively.

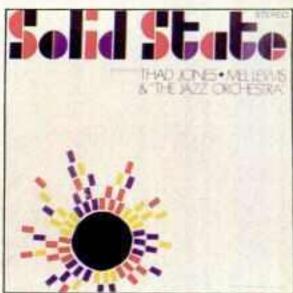

CLASSICAL SPOTLIGHT

DVORAK: SYMPHONY NO. 8 IN G MAJOR, OP. 88 Vienna Philharmonic Orch. (Von Karajan). London CM

9443 (M); CS 6443 (S)

Von Karajan lead the Vienna Philharmonic in a fine interpretation of the Dvorak "Symphony No. 8 (4) in G Major" which should prove another good seller for the popular conductor. Dvorak's romantic work is well known through performances and recordings.

JAZZ SPOTLIGHT

PRESENTING THAD JONES/ MELL LEWIS/& "THE JAZZ ORCHESTRA"

Solid State SS 18003 (S)

Jones plays fleugelhorn on this one and Mel Lewis plays drums. They are joined by a big band of some of the most accomplished jazz players around. The arrangements, compositions and execution are a jazz fan's dream come true. "Willow Weep for Me" and "Three in One" are examples of what ought to make this set move fast.
