An open letter to Tom T. Hall...

Andrew M. Wickham
Director of Country Music

May 6th, 1977

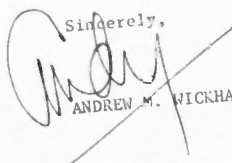

Tom T. Hall,
Fox Hollow,
Brentwood,
Tennessee.

Dear Tom,

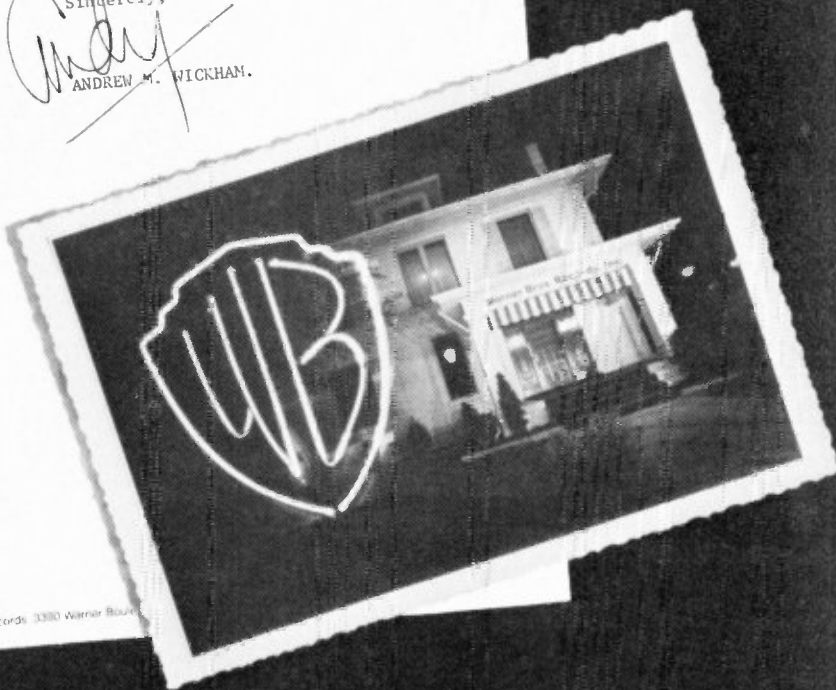

It's been almost two years since Mo and I visited you at your digs in Fox Hollow. At that time you advised us to put up a neon sign since nobody knew we were in town. We took your advice and now everybody knows!

Thank you.

Sincerely,

ANDREW M. WICKHAM.

Our Reputation Is Also Our Motto... "Quality Not Quantity"

Our reputation, like our motto, didn't just happen. We planned it. We believe the cornerstone for a business foundation is honesty, ethics and a hard day's labor for a fair price. More importantly, we believe in people. You might say we are a people company since we work on a "person to person" basis. We don't let big business stand in the way of helping our clients. We are selective, sure, but it all goes back to our motto and our reputation.

AMERICAN RADIO IS BMI TERRITORY

In 1976, BMI, the largest music licensing organization in the world once again provided American radio with most of the music it programs. In fact, nearly 60% of the music Americans listen to was written and published by many of the 47,000 writers and publishers who have entrusted their performing rights to BMI.

The American broadcasting industry first gained access to the broad variety of music it programs today when BMI was formed in 1940. Because BMI recognized long neglected creators of popular, country and western, rhythm and blues, jazz, concert, Latin, and gospel, Americans can turn their dials to all kinds of music.

Today, and for most of its 37 year-long past, BMI writers and publishers provide America with most of its hits, and radio with most of its music.

At ASCAP You Don't Have To Make a Special Deal To Get What You Deserve

ASCAP makes no distinction between writers on top and those on their way up. You don't have to be a superstar to get a "super" deal. At ASCAP everyone gets the same deal — from novice to old hand.

Perhaps that's why ASCAP's rate of growth on the country charts has been the talk of the trade.

It pays to be a country writer. Especially if you belong to ASCAP.

Artist Biographies

REX ALLEN JR.—Warner Brothers

Rex Allen Sr. set a precedent in country that his son, Rex Allen Jr., has adeptly followed. Through his recordings of such songs as "Streets Of Laredo" and "Can You Hear Those Pioneers," Allen has "put the western back in the country sound."

THE AMAZING RHYTHM ACES—ABC

Its first album, "Stacked Deck," contained two hits for the group; a pop smash "Third Rate Romance" and a country hit "Amazing Grace (Used To Be Her Favorite Song)." "Too Stuffed To Jump" is the second album effort for the Memphis musicians.

BILL ANDERSON—MCA

By the close of 1975, Bill Anderson had won 49 BMI awards as a writer and 14 trade paper awards involving 43 hit singles and 32 albums. Anderson has performed duets with Jan Howard and Mary Lou Turner. A few of his popular hits include "Where Have All Our Heroes Gone," "Po' Folks" and "Liars One, Believers Zero."

BILL ANDERSON AND MARY LOU TURNER—MCA

Their first duet effort in early 1976 produced the top 10 single "That's What Made Me Love You." Anderson and Turner immediately followed up with the No. 1 song "Sometimes." Turner tours with Anderson in his cross-country jaunts.

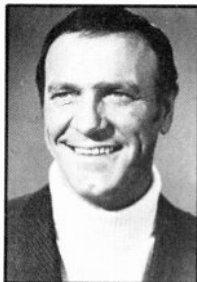

LYNN ANDERSON—Columbia

It's hard to decide whether music or horses come first in Lynn Anderson's life. She is as proud of the five national titles won by three of her horses as she is the awards she received for her million seller "I Never Promised You A Rose Garden." Having cut back on her public performances to spend more time with her family and her horses, it would seem that the horses have a slight edge.

EDDY ARNOLD—RCA

Eddy Arnold was elected to the Country Music Hall of Fame in 1966 and the following year was named CMA's entertainer of the year. In 1970 RCA awarded him for selling more than 60 million records, a total which has since topped 70 million. Some of his memorable recordings include "Make The World Go Away," "Misty Blue" and "Just A Little Lovin'."

ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL—Capitol

Revitalizing western swing, Asleep At The Wheel has carved a niche for itself in country music. The 10 member group has generated two hits with "The Letter That Johnny Walker Read" and "Bump Bounce Boogie."

MOE BANDY—Columbia

His mother played piano, his father picked guitar and his family had a score of Jimmie Rodgers and Hank Williams records. With that background what else could Moe Bandy do but pursue country music. The truth is he tried the rodeo for awhile and decided that music was better for his health, so Bandy put out his first hit on GRC "I Just Started Hatin' Cheatin' Songs Today." He now records for Columbia.

BOBBY BARE—RCA

With Bobby Bare performing is a family affair. His wife, Jeannie, and his two sons, Bobby Jr. and Shannon, frequently join him on stage and on record. His big hit with Bobby Jr. was "Daddy What If?" Another hit on the charts for six months was "Marie Laveau."

RANDY BARLOW—Gazelle

A Mercury recording contract and numerous concert bookings gave Randy Barlow his musical start. In 1974 he began to appear on the charts with "Nobody Likes To See A Big Man Cry" and "How Away The Pages" for Capitol. On the Gazelle label Barlow brought home a big hit with "Good Night My Love."

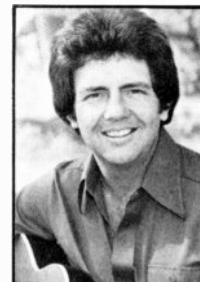

BOBBY BORCHERS—Playboy

Bobby Borchers' favorite pastime is writing songs. Having penned tunes like "Brass Buckles," "The Devil Is A Woman" and "I'm The Only Hell My Mama Ever Raised," Borchers landed a recording deal. "Whispers" rose to the number 12 spot on the charts.

TOM BRESH—Farr

Merle Travis taught Tom Bresh to play the guitar. Bresh took his knowledge and turned it into a top 10 hit with "Home Made Love." Before professionally pursuing music, Bresh worked as a stuntman falling off buildings and down stairways. Now he climbs the charts.

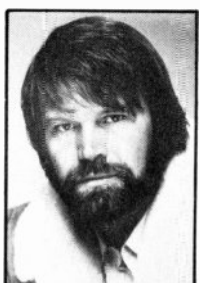

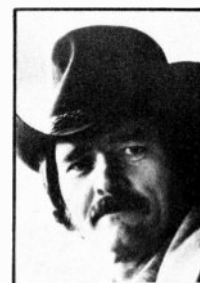

JIM ED BROWN AND HELEN CORNELIUS—RCA

Their first duet "I Don't Want To Have To Marry You" was No. 1 on the national charts. Helen Cornelius is a featured performer on the Jim Ed Brown Show and "Nashville On The Road" television show. Their second effort together "Saying Hello, Saying I Love You, Saying Goodbye" also rose to the top spot on the charts. Brown and Cornelius are accomplished solo artists.

ED BRUCE—United Artists

As a songwriter Ed Bruce has penned several hits for other artists—"The Man That Turned My Momma On" by Tanya Tucker and "Restless" by Crystal Gayle. Bruce also does many commercials for television and radio and is representing the state as "The Tennessee" promoting Tennessee's industrial development nationwide.

GLEN CAMPBELL—Capitol

Glen Campbell has starred in three movies, hosted his own television show and accumulated 13 gold records. "By The Time I Get To Phoenix," "Gentle On My Mind" and "Wichita Lineman" are a few of his earlier hits and in 1975 Campbell struck gold again with "Rhinestone Cowboy."

JOHNNY CARVER—ABC/Dot
Spending six years with other labels, Johnny Carver frequently had songs on the national charts. But it wasn't until "Yellow Ribbon" in 1973 that Carver had a No. 1 hit. "Tonight Someone's Falling in Love" reached the top five. His album "Afternoon Delight" bore the hit of the same name.

JOHNNY CASH—Columbia
In the late '50s and early '60s, Johnny Cash was a country star, but success was hard to cope with and his reliance on pills was to be his ultimate failure. However, June Carter and Dr. Nat Winston helped Cash out of his dive. His autobiography, Man In Black, relates his experiences. Cash's big hits include "A Boy Named Sue," "Sunday Morning Coming Down" and "I Walk The Line."

ROY CLARK—ABC/Dot
Pickin' and Grinnin'—The two things Roy Clark does best. His incredible sense of humor and musical virtuosity won him three entertainer of the year awards in 1973. His recording of "Yesterday When I Was Young" crossed over to MOR, taking Clark's appeal to audiences beyond country.

DAVID ALLEN COE—Columbia
Twenty years of Coe's life were spent in prison, where his experiences spawned a singer/songwriter whose songs have been recorded by some of the biggest names in the business and whose albums receive national attention, both pop and country. Some of his charting records are "You Never Even Call Me By My Name," "Longhaired Redneck" and "Lately I've Been Thinking Too Much Lately."

JESSI COLTER—Capitol
Born and raised in Phoenix, Jessi Colter got an early taste of music by playing piano and accordion at church. She married Duane Eddy and pursued a recording career. Both failed. Then she met Waylon Jennings, who married her and co-produces her records. "I'm Not Lisa" was a major pop/country crossover written by the lady herself.

RANDY CORNOR—ABC/Dot
At age 13 Randy Cornor landed a job as guitarist for Gene Watson. During his four years with Watson, Cornor mastered the pedal steel, banyo, fiddle and harmonica. Moving into the studios as a session musician, he soon got a recording contract of his own and generated heavy response to his initial ABC/Dot single "Sometimes I Talk In My Sleep."

DAVE & SUGAR—RCA
One Dave, two Sugars and plenty of harmony. Starting with "Queen Of The Silver Dollar," Dave, Vickie and Sue quickly followed up with two No. 1 singles and No. 1 album. They tour the world with Charley Pride, offering audiences their "delightfully different approach" to country.

JOHN DENVER—RCA
John Denver's music appeals to a vast audience—country, pop and easy listening. He has had several television specials, nine gold records and his platinum album, "Greatest Hits," is one of the biggest selling albums in history. Denver's tunes "Rocky Mountain High," "Take Me Home Country Roads" and "Back Home Again" helped to place him at the top of the international music scene.

BILLY "CRASH" CRADDOCK—ABC/Dot
Unsatisfied with his pop music career, Billy "Crash" Craddock returned to North Carolina and the construction business. But his desire to play the "Grand Ole Opry" brought him to Nashville and country music. "Knock Three Times" was his first single and it quickly became No. 1. At age 11 he played a broomstick for chickens and pigs in a barn. Today it's a guitar, auditoriums and satisfied fans.

MAC DAVIS—Columbia
Glen Campbell, Bobby Goldsboro, Sammy Davis Jr. and many others have recorded Mac Davis' songs. After an appearance with Nancy Sinatra, her father, Frank, came up to Davis, kissed him and said, "You killed me, country boy!" Davis has had several big hits including "Baby, Don't Get Hooked On Me" and has won several writer's awards. He was named 1975 entertainer of the year by the Academy of Country Music.

DAVE DUDLEY—United Artists
When an arm injury forced Dave Dudley from professional baseball, music was the next alternative. Working as a disk jockey and part-time singer, Dudley soon gave up radio to hit the road full time. He started his own record company and sank everything into his million selling record "Six Days On The Road."

JOHNNY DUNCAN—Columbia
His mother, Minnie, showed him how to play the guitar, and at age 12 Johnny Duncan knew that country music was his calling. Working as a disk jockey and bricklayer sustained him while he wrote songs. A Columbia executive saw Duncan performing on a Nashville television show and signed him to a record contract. Now Duncan's hits, like "Stranger," are climbing the charts.

BARBARA FAIRCHILD—Columbia
In 1972 an Atlanta disk jockey played a cut from Barbara Fairchild's "A Sweeter Love" album. The song generated requests and the deejay reported it. As a result "Teddy Bear Song" was released as a single and promptly became No. 1 on the country charts and crossed to pop. Fairchild has co-written many of her own hits and songs for other artists as well.

DONNA FARGO—Warner Brothers
Music didn't really become a force in Donna Fargo's life until a couple of years after college graduation. Stan Silver entered her life, taught her to play the guitar, criticized her songwriting and eventually produced her records. In 1972 "Happiest Girl In The Whole U.S.A." crossed the pop-country line to give Fargo a platinum album.

NARVEL FELTS—ABC/Dot
Blending soulful Memphis blues and Nashville country is Narvel Felts' specialty. Beginning in 1959 with "Honey Love," Felts put out several top ten songs for Cinnamon records. His first release on ABC/Dot, "Reconsider Me," leaped to No. 1 and won Billboard's Record of the Year for 1975.

FREDDY FENDER—ABC/Dot
Baldemar Huerta worked 20 years (three of those in jail) to become an overnight success as Freddy Fender with "Before The Next Teardrop Falls" in 1975. He followed that with "Wasted Days and Wasted Nights" and captured an assorted array of awards and honors in the industry. Freddy continues to expand his blossoming career by working on a movie about prison life, "Small Eyes."

LARRY GATLIN—Monument
His roots are country and gospel, his talents are songwriting and singing. Larry Gatlin's extraordinary abilities are coming to the forefront as he has won a songwriting award from the Nashville Songwriters Assn. International and a Grammy for country song of the year 1976, "Broken Lady." His single, "Statues Without Hearts," hit a new peak for Gatlin.

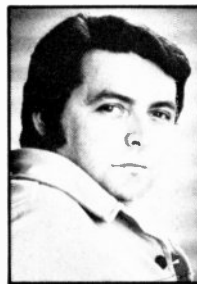

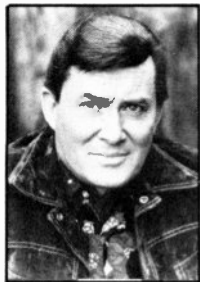

CRYSTAL GAYLE—United Artist

She grew up in music and most of her family is in music: Jay Lee Webb, Peggy Sue and Loretta Lynn are Crystal Gayle's brother and sisters. But Gayle has made it in her own right with many top charting songs such as her No. 1 record, "I'll Get Over You," and "You Never Miss A Real Good Thing." She won the 1975 Academy of Country Music award for most promising female vocalist.

DON GIBSON—ABC/Hickory

As a writer, Don Gibson has penned such standards as "I Can't Stop Loving You" and "Oh Lonesome Me." As a recording artist, he has topped the charts with "Sensuous Woman," "Touch The Morning" and "One Day At A Time." Pulling himself free of the all-too-typical trap of drugs and liquor, Gibson has come back to producing the full, creative music people have come to expect from him.

MICKEY GILLEY—Playboy

Mickey Gilley's early music career is filled with clubs and locally successful recordings. In 1974, however, the piano player found national success as "Room Full Of Roses" rose to No. 1 on the charts. Things keep happening for Gilley, as the Academy of Country Music showered him with five awards, including entertainer of the year, for his 1976 performances.

RAY GRIFF—Capitol

Over 450 of Ray Griff's songs have been recorded by other artists, including "After the Laughter" by Wayne Newton, "Better Move It On Home" by Porter and Dolly and "Morning After Baby Let Me Down" by Griff himself. Entertaining is in Griff's blood; it's his first love and he intends to actively pursue his recording and performing interests.

MERLE HAGGARD—MCA

Merle Haggard could have very well stepped out of Steinbeck's "Grapes of Wrath." His early life was plagued with hard times, but it set the stage for a songwriter and performer who can really "tell it like it is." Haggard's impressive string of hits like "Okie From Muskogee" have garnered him a special place in country music.

TOM T. HALL—Mercury

Starting off as a songwriter Tom T. Hall did very well for himself with songs like "D.J. For A Day" and "Hello Vietnam." The next step was recording his own material, but he still wrote for others, producing one chart-topping song after another. One was "Harper Valley P.T.A.," a Jeannie C. Riley smash. Now Hall himself sings his songs to the top of the charts.

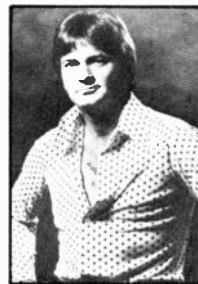

EMMYLOU HARRIS—Reprise

She played clubs, assisted Gram Parsons on his albums, even put out an album of her own on Jubilee in 1970, but Emmylou Harris had to wait until 1974 when she teamed with producer Brian Ahern and turned out the No. 1 album, "Pieces Of The Sky," before national recognition would come her way. Her next two albums, "Elite Hotel" and "Luxury Liner," have further entrenched the lady in the realms of contemporary country.

FREDDIE HART—Capitol

His wandering began at age 13 and didn't end until he met Hank Williams in Nashville in 1949. From then on Freddie Hart recorded for several labels and finally settled with Capitol. Hart has produced many hits including the million seller, "Easy Loving."

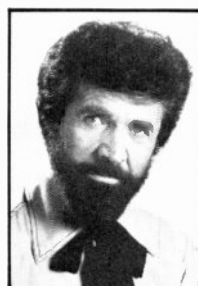

ROY HEAD—ABC/Dot

In 1958 Roy Head experienced rock'n'roll success with "Treat Her Right," which sold 3.5 million copies. More hits followed, but his band refused to continue the hectic tour schedule. Head played small clubs and eventually went back to the music he grew up with—country. "The Door I Used To Close" was a top 10 single.

DAVID HOUSTON—Gusto/Starday

In 1962 David Houston had his first No. 1 with "Mountain of Love." Four years later "Almost Persuaded" escorted Houston to the top of the national charts in the U.S. and in Europe, and provided him with two Grammys. Since that time Houston has racked up 16 major hits including "You Mean The World To Me" and "Already It's Heaven."

SONNY JAMES—Columbia

"The Southern Gentleman" had 27 No. 1 hits in a row and a multi-million selling single, "Young Love." His album, "200 Years Of Country Music," is the culmination of months of research and recording, recreating the history of country music. Sonny James works on writing, publishing, touring and producing, having produced three Marie Osmond albums including her single, "Paper Roses."

WAYLON JENNINGS—RCA

An "outlaw" by trade, Waylon Jennings successfully mixed rock and country and found an incredible audience just waiting to hear it. Starting as a deejay then moving to Buddy Holly's band, Jennings and his band the Waylors have created a place for themselves in country and pop. "Good Hearted Woman" (with Willie Nelson) and "Are Your Ready For The Country/So Good Woman" have kept Jennings at the top of the charts.

WAYLON JENNINGS AND WILLIE NELSON—RCA

"Wanted: The Outlaws" was a platinum success for four progressive country performers. Waylon Jennings and Willie Nelson's release, "Good Hearted Woman," stayed in the top spot on the country charts for three weeks and spilled over onto the pop chart as well.

GEORGE JONES—Epic

Some of the biggest artists in the country music field cite George Jones as their favorite. Having recorded over 90 albums, Jones' contribution to country is undisputed. A few of his best known tunes include "White Lightning," "A Girl I Used To Know" and "Her Name Is..."

GEORGE JONES AND TAMMY WYNETTE—Epic

This lucrative duet has produced several No. 1 hits like "The Ceremony," "Take Me" and "(We're Not) The Jet Set." Another combined effort produced a No. 1 album, "Golden Ring," and two No. 1 singles, "Golden Ring" and "Near You."

LA COSTA—Capitol

No longer known as "the sister of Tanya Tucker," La Costa has made it in her own right, establishing her talents in hit singles like "Get On My Love Train," "He Took Me For A Ride" and "Western Man." Her third album, "Lovin' Somebody," features her single "Lovin' Somebody On A Rainy Night."

DICKEY LEE—RCA

Dickey Lee was the welter weight boxing champion of Memphis, and a writer, guitarist and singer as well. In the 1960s he had a million seller with "Patches." He has also had a No. 1 country single with "Never Ending Song Of Love." Lee's music talent blossomed early as he had a local hit on Sun Records while in high school.

JOHNNY LEE—GRT
Working at Gilley's Club in Pasadena, Tex., gave Johnny Lee the musical break he needed. A locally recorded song called "Sometimes" got heavy air-play and was picked up by ABC/Dot. Later, disappointments sent Lee back to Gilley's Club where GRT found him and started the ball rolling again with "Red Sails In The Sunset."

JONI LEE—MCA

Joni achieved recognition as a recording artist upon the release of the duet, "Don't Cry Joni," with her father, Conway Twitty. Her followup single, "I'm Sorry Charlie," became a hit and established her in music. Recently married, Joni and her husband, Chris, divide their time between touring and their Hendersonville home.

JERRY LEE LEWIS—Mercury
In June of 1957, Jerry Lee Lewis was earning $100 a night. Then "Whole Lot Of Shakin' Going On" was released and Lewis began earning over $10,000 a night. "Shakin'" and "Great Balls Of Fire" both hit No. 1 on the country, pop and r&b charts simultaneously. In 1968 the Killer came back with "Another Place, Another Time," his first country hit since 1961.

MIKE LUNSFORD—Starday

With a business administration degree under his belt, Mike Lunsford moved to Nashville and began playing clubs. In a couple of years, he was signed to record for Gusto Records. Lunsford has entered the charts with such songs as "While The Feeling's Good" and "Honey Hungry."

LORETTA LYNN—MCA
"Coal Miner's Daughter"—a song, a book, a real experience for Loretta Lynn. She and husband, Mooney, began promoting her record "Honky Tonk Girl" while moving from the West Coast to Nashville. It became a hit and landed Loretta a contract with Decca (now MCA). Songs like "One's On The Way" and "You Ain't Woman Enough To Take My Man" created a highly successful career for Lynn and made her one of America's most admired women.

CLEDUS MAGGARD—Mercury
While working for an ad agency, Cledus Maggard, aka Jay Huguely, came up with the idea for "The White Knight," a huge country and pop hit. Huguely has directed plays; taught acting, comedy, voice and fencing; played the title role in Hamlet and written, produced and voiced over 200 radio and television commercials.

BARBARA MANDRELL—ABC/Dot

Her ability to play steel guitar, banjo, saxophone and electric bass in her stage show convinces audiences of Barbara Mandrell's wide range of talents. She toured with Joe Maphis in the beginning and entertained thoughts of leaving the business. But they quickly disappeared with the aid of a major record contract and consistent hits like "Midnight Oil."

C.W. McCALL—Polydor

An advertiser was looking for a new way to sell bread, and C. W. McCall was born; along with a recording career. "The Old Home Filler. Up-An'-Keep-On-A-Truckin' Cafe" single was followed by other hits in McCall's "walkin'-talkin'-singin'" style. "Convoy," his platinum, world-renown single, is now the topic of a film and of course McCall is doing the soundtrack.

RONNIE MILSAP—RCA

In spite of his blindness, Ronnie Milsap has managed to pursue his interests not only in music, but in law and electronics as well. His music career exploded in 1973 with "(All Together Now) Let's Fall Apart." Milsap's varied musical background comes through in his music, and he plans to bring in new musical elements and expand with the growing country field.

ANNE MURRAY—Capitol

Television has played an important part in the making of Anne Murray's career. Spending summers working on various tv shows and winters teaching, Murray landed a recording contract and turned out hits like "Snowbird," "Danny's Song" and "Love Song." Her hits spawned more tv appearances with Glen Campbell, Perry Como and her own special.

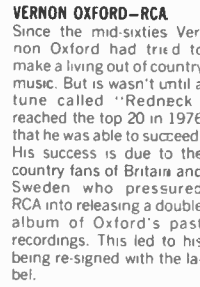

OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN—MCA
Olivia Newton-John's career bubbled under the surface in England for a few years, bursting forth in 1971 with "If Not For You." She ducked back under for two years until her 1973 Grammy winner (best country female vocalist) "Let Me Be There" brought her back to stay.

TOMMY OVERSTREET—ABC/Dot

Tommy Overstreet recalls, "One day I came home and told my wife to sell the house, we were moving to Nashville." He's got the drive and talent that it takes to make it musically. In 1970 he gained national attention with "If You Are Looking For A Fool" and hit No. 1 with "Gwen, Congratulations."

VERNON OXFORD—RCA

Since the mid-sixties Vernon Oxford had tried to make a living out of country music. But it wasn't until a tune called "Redneck" reached the top 20 in 1976 that he was able to succeed. His success is due to the country fans of Britain and Sweden who pressured RCA into releasing a double album of Oxford's past recordings. This led to his being re-signed with the label.

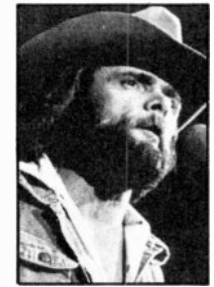

DOLLY PARTON—RCA

Dolly Parton first appeared on the "Grand Ole Opry" at age 12. Together Parton and Porter Wagoner became one of the most successful duets in Country. In 1974 Parton left Wagoner to strike out on her own and through her hit records and successful television show has proven that there is a vast potential audience waiting to discover her talents. Her songs "Jolene," "I Will Always Love You" and "Love Is Like A Butterfly" hit No. 1 and crossed to pop.

JOHN AUSTIN PAYCHECK—Epic

Sidetracked by drugs and drink, John Austin Paycheck eventually freed himself from it and began his comeback to country music. The "new" Paycheck has returned in style with tunes like "She's All I Got," "11 Months and 29 Days" and his most recent to date "Slide Off Of Your Satin Sheets."

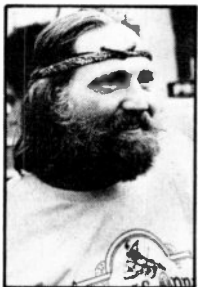

ELVIS PRESLEY—RCA

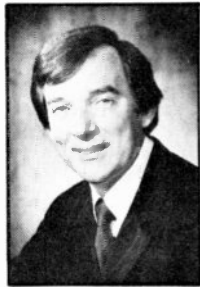

Elvis Presley's impact on the music world is undeniable. In the late '50s he entered the scene and to date has rarely failed to produce a smash. One of his most recent entries in country music was "Moody Blue/She Thinks I Still Care."

WILLIE NELSON—Columbia/Lone Star

A high quality songwriter for 20 years, Willie Nelson's songs have been recorded by pop and country artists. But Nelson refused to give up the desire to sing the songs himself. His recognition came with "Phases and Stages" and "Red Headed Stranger." Now Nelson crosses over the pop/country line, appealing to a vast audience of progressive country fans and living up to his "out-law" title.

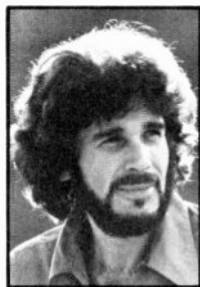

RAY PRICE—ABC/Dot

Ray Price joined the Opry in 1952 and has given country music many musical memories since. Starting with "Talk To Your Heart" and continuing with "Release Me," "I'll Be There," "Heartaches By The Number" and "Make The World Go Away," Price consistently reached the top of the charts. His album, "For The Good Times," remained on the charts for two years.

CHARLEY PRIDE—RCA

The first black performer to be recognized as a major country talent, Charley Pride has put out 25 albums, 11 of which are gold, and a long line of top charting singles including the million seller, "Kiss An Angel Good Mornin'." His musical awards are numerous. And to think he almost made baseball his career.

EDDIE RABBITT—Elektra

A proven songwriter—"Kentucky Rain" by Elvis Presley, "Pure Love" by Ronnie Milsap and countless other songs, has placed Eddie Rabbitt in the forefront of country writing. In 1973 he began recording himself and landed his Elektra contract in '74. His recordings, "Drinking My Baby (Off My Mind)"—a No. 1, and "Two Dollars In The Jukebox" have proven Rabbitt a country performer as well.

CHARLIE RICH—Epic

It took 20 years and six record labels, but the Silver Fox finally came shining forth in fine fashion with "Behind Closed Doors" and "The Most Beautiful Girl" in 1973 Charlie Rich collected nearly a dozen awards in less than two years. After 20 years of struggle, it's finally coming easy.

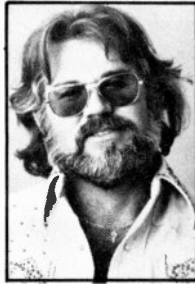

MARTY ROBBINS—Columbia

Inspired by Gene Autry, Marty Robbins began to concentrate on developing his music career. While working on radio and television shows, Columbia Records discovered and signed him. Since that time Marty has turned out some major hits such as "El Paso" and "My Woman, My Woman, My Wife" both of which garnered him a Grammy.

JOHNNY RODRIGUEZ—Mercury

From a guitarist in Tom T. Hall's Storytellers band, Johnny Rodriguez became a country music sex symbol. He has had consistent No. 1 singles. Whether singing his own compositions, "Ridin' My Thumbs To Mexico," or someone else's, like "I Just Can't Get Her Out Of My Mind," it all seems to come together for Rodriguez, who adds Latin flavor to country.

LINDA RONSTADT—Asylum

The distinctive country flavor of Linda Ronstadt's recordings has given her music wide appeal with pop and country audiences alike. Putting out three LPs with a group, The Stone Poneys, Ronstadt embarked on a solo career that has earned her three platinum albums thus far.

CAL SMITH—MCA

For several years Cal Smith traveled as emcee and featured vocalist with Ernest Tubb and the Texas Troubadour Band. Smith went out on his own with Kapp Records (now MCA) and in 1974 won CMA's single of the year award for "Country Bumkin."

MARGO SMITH—Warner Brothers

After college Margo Smith taught kindergarten, and her teaching was done by singing. If there wasn't a song appropriate for the children, she would write her own. Professionally, she started with 20th Century Records and found success, then moved to Warner Brothers in early '76 releasing her hit song, "Save Your Kisses For Me."

SAMMI SMITH—Elektra

Following the progressive vein of Kristofferson, Nelson and Newbury, Sammi Smith found that traditional country was not her style. She enjoyed a pop/country smash with Kristofferson's "Help Me Make It Through The Night." Smith has also proven herself to be an accomplished songwriter.

KENNY ROGERS—United Artists

Kenny Rogers has been working with groups all his life. In high school his group, The Scholars, had a hit with "Crazy Feeling." After a stint with the New Christy Minstrels, Rogers formed another group, The First Edition, and churned out hits like "Reuben James," "Something's Burnin'" and "Just Dropped In To See What Condition My Condition Was In." Now Rogers is on his own.

RED SOVINE—Starday

Red Sovine's first big hit was in 1965. It was a truck-driving song called "Giddy Up, Go" which was No. 1 for eight weeks. Eleven years later, in 1976, he released another "trucker" song, "Teddy Bear," that raced to the No. 1 position in five weeks. This feat won him Billboard's 1976 Artist Re-surgence of the Year award.

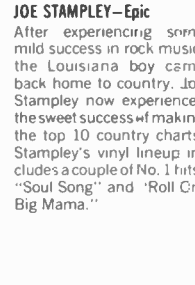

T. G. SHEPPARD—Hitsville

For 10 years T. G. Sheppard recorded and toured with various country groups, then moved into the business side of things with his own independent production and promotion company. He ran across a tune "Devil In The Bottle," that no one else wanted, so Sheppard recorded it himself for Melodyland Records. He continues to put out such product as "Solitary Man" for the same record company now known as Hitsville.

BILLIE JO SPEARS—United Artists

Her first record at age 13, "Too Old For Toys, Too Young For Boys," was shared with Bugs Bunny on the flip side. A strange beginning, but after meeting Jack Rhodes, she came to Nashville and had a country hit "Easy To Be Evil." In 1974 she teamed with UA's Larry Butler and has since had a stream of hits including "Blanket On The Ground" and "I'm Not Easy."

JOE STAMPLEY—Epic

After experiencing some mild success in rock music, the Louisiana boy came back home to country. Joe Stampley now experiences the sweet success of making the top 10 country charts. Stampley's vinyl lineup includes a couple of No. 1 hits "Soul Song" and "Roll On, Big Mama."

CONNIE SMITH—Monument

After Connie Smith met Bill Anderson, the wheels of fate began to turn and events came, leaving her with an RCA record contract. Her first release, "Once A Day," went to the No. 1 spot and stayed on the charts for 2½ months. Gospel music is now as much a part of Smith's singing career as country. She has also recorded for the Columbia record label.

KENNY STARR—MCA

Kenny Starr appeared on a show with Loretta Lynn and since then Lynn has offered Starr her assistance in securing his MCA contract and putting him on her road show. Starr's musical efforts to date include a No. 1 country single with "Blind Man In The Bleachers" and another single, "Me and the Elephant."

10 Artists

STATLER BROTHERS—Mercury

For years the Statlers have won awards as best country vocal group, and since its start professionally in 1963, have compiled a long list of hits including "Flowers On The Wall" and "Thank God, I've Got You." The group has managed to add three Grammys to its award collection.

RED STEAGALL—ABC/Dot

Red Steagall's music exemplifies the Texas swing of Bob Wills in the '30s and '40s. Playing mandolin and guitar was the therapy Steagall used to recuperate from polio at age 15. He has stepped into the top 10 with "Lone Star Beer and Bob Wills Music."

RAY STEVENS—Warner Brothers

Whether it be songwriting, performing, producing or recording, Ray Stevens has proven himself equally adept in all areas of the music profession. Diverse hits like "Everything Is Beautiful," "The Streak," "Mr. Businessman" and "Ahab The Arab" attest to his range of talent.

GARY STEWART—RCA

Songwriting seemed to be Gary Stewart's main interest, with performing treated as an afterthought. His songs were recorded by numerous country stars. Stewart's performing talents could not be hidden, however, and an RCA record contract became his, with "Out Of Hand" and "Drinkin' Thing" taking him to the top of the charts.

WYNN STEWART—Playboy

One of the first hillbillies to come out of the west coast, Wynn Stewart has proved himself as a writer with "Sing A Sad Song" and as a recording artist with "It's Such A Pretty World Today," his No. 1 single on Capitol. His Playboy release, "After The Storm" climbed to the top 10.

MEL STREET—Polydor

A native of Virginia, Mel Street wrote his first hit on GRT—"Borrowed Angel." He has followed it with other big country tunes like "Lovin' On Back Streets," "Smokey Mountain Memories" and "Devil In Your Kisses."

NAT STUCKEY—MCA

Nat Stuckey's beginning was in radio where he worked as a disk jockey for several years, then joined the cast of "Louisiana Hayride." Several of his compositions were made popular by other artists. Stuckey's recording career has produced a couple of hits with "Sweet Thang" in 1964 and "Plastic Saddle" in 1968.

CARMOL TAYLOR—Elektra

Teaming with such notables as Billy Sherrill, George Richey and Norro Wilson, Carmol Taylor has co-written songs like "My Man" by Tammy Wynette, "Get On My Love Train" by LaCosta and "Grand Tour," a George Jones No. 1 record. Taylor's own recordings of "Who Will I Be Loving Now" and "I Really Had A Ball Last Night" have placed him on the charts.

MEL TILLIS—MCA

Mel Tillis, CMA's 1976 entertainer of the year, stutters except when it comes to writing and singing hit songs. Tillis has appeared on many major television shows and in the movie, "W.W. Dixie and the Dancings." He has written several smash hits "Ruby, Don't Take Your Love To Town" and "Detroit City." Tillis is also well-known for his unique style of comedy.

TANYA TUCKER—MCA

At age nine Tanya Tucker knew she wanted to be a singer and began working on it. Her work produced a cameo role in the movie "Jeremiah Johnson," and a demo tape that put her in touch with Billy Sherrill. She released "Delta Dawn" that went to No. 1. Tucker continued to work hard recording and touring with all of her albums reaching top 10.

CONWAY TWITTY—MCA

Harold Lloyd Jenkins learned to play guitar on his father's ferryboat. Moving from preaching to rock'n'roll to promoting Twitty burgers, he finally settled with what he knows best—country. His career has yielded such hits as "Hello Darlin'" and several duets with Loretta Lynn.

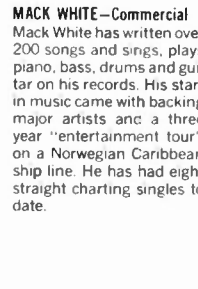

BILLY WALKER—RCA

While working with the Big D Jamboree, Billy Walker was known as "The Traveling Texan, Masked Singer of Country Songs." The "mask" gimmick worked and in 1951 Walker signed with a major label. His first No. 1 was "Charlie's Shoes" followed by "Funny How Time Slips Away" and "A Million and One."

GENE WATSON—Capitol

Country music has always been a part of Gene Watson's life. He did body work on cars during the day and played clubs at night before making the decision to go into music full time. Not a bad decision as his first hit, "Love In The Afternoon" will testify.

MACK WHITE—Commercial

Mack White has written over 200 songs and sings, plays piano, bass, drums and guitar on his records. His start in music came with backing major artists and a three year "entertainment tour" on a Norwegian Caribbean ship line. He has had eight straight charting singles to date.

DON WILLIAMS—ABC/Dot

The Pozo Seco Singers was Don Williams' three-member vocal group, singing pop, folk and country. Eventually Williams moved on to writing country songs in Nashville. Encouraged to record some of his own material, he has consistently found his way to the top of the country charts. His recognition in England is developing Williams into an international country personality.

TAMMY WYNETTE—Epic

When Tammy Wynette and Billy Sherrill got together, it's hit time. "I Don't Want To Play House," "D-I-V-O-R-C-E" and "Stand By Your Man" are only three of the long list of Wynette's popular recordings. She was the first country female to receive a gold record for her "Greatest Hits" album. She has won three Grammy and four CMA top female vocalist awards.

FARON YOUNG—Mercury

Faron Young has been recording for 25 years, during which time he has had 36 top 10 country songs. He has aided in the careers of such artists as Roger Miller, Willie Nelson and Kris Kristofferson. Young also owns the publication, Music City News. His album "The Best Of Faron Young, Volume II" contains his hit single, "(The Worst You Ever Gave Me Was) The Best I Ever Had."

First Time Around

MISSION MOUNTAIN WOOD BAND—In Without Knocking, MZWB Records DUR12. Country rock band plays a variety of songs—some a trifle old-fashioned but that's part of its charm. It has been influenced by a number of sources, from folk to such modern bands as CSN&Y to traditional western cowboy songs. The five-man group sings well together and uses restrained instrumentation.

Best cuts: "Showboat," "Sweet Maria," "Dancin' Is Dancin'.

Dealers: Band tours extensively on college circuit.

How would you like to sign the work you do?

It's a shame that most of us don't get to sign our work. Because we'd probably do it better. Just out of pride. And that could mean better products and services for everybody. So, even if you don't have to sign your work, do the kind of work you'd be proud to put your name on.

America. It only works as well as we do.

June 20, 1924

Born Chester Burton Atkins in Tennessee, he is the epitome of success . . . from an Appalachian farm boy to international acclaim as musician, composer, arranger, producer, executive, and sportsman. Long hours with his guitar resulted in a distinctive style—much copied, but unduplicated. A musician's musician, a gentleman's gentleman, his helping hand is ready to boost struggling unknowns and those less fortunate. Teacher, innovator, humanitarian, this guitarist's excellence stands as a challenge for generations to come.

PATSY CLINE

OWEN BRADLEY

PATSY CLINE

Sept. 8, 1932-March 5, 1963

Born Virginia Patterson Hensley in Virginia, Patsy will live in country music annals as one of its outstanding vocalists. Tragically, her career was cut short in its prime when she was killed in a plane crash. Her heritage of recordings is testimony to her artistic capacity . . . biggest hit, "I Fall To Pieces," which has become a standard. Catapulted to fame by an Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts appearance in 1957. Joined Grand Ole Opry 1960 . . . realization of a lifelong ambition.

(Elected 1973)

OWEN BRADLEY

Oct. 21, 1915

Renowned as a pianist and Nashville bandleader, revered as a music executive, he achieved national recognition in his roles as head of the Nashville office of Decca (now MCA) records and producer for such artists as Ernest Tubb, Red Foley, Patsy Cline, Brenda Lee, and Loretta Lynn. His honesty and integrity in business affairs secured the respect of his associates and his influence encouraged the establishment of Nashville recording studios and spurred the development of the "Music Row" area.

FRANK "PEE WEE" KING

MINNIE PEARL

FRANK "PEE WEE" KING

Feb. 18, 1914

Wisconsinite, accordionist, bandleader, acclaimed for his recordings, movie appearances, radio and tv performances. Nationally recognized as a singer and co-writer of "Bonaparte's Retreat," "Slow Poke," "Tennessee Waltz" and others. Winner of gold records, successful as a music publisher, promoter, and manager. Applauded for his assistance to other artists who have become significant country music performers.

(Elected 1974)

MINNIE PEARL

Oct. 25, 1912

Humor is the least recorded, but certainly one of the most important aspects of live country music. No one exemplifies the values of pure country comedy more than Minnie Pearl. Born Sarah Ophelia Colley, Centerville, Tenn. Educated at fashionable Ward-Belmont College. Joined the Grand Ole Opry in 1940. Her trademarks, the dimstore hat with dangling price tag and shrill "How-dee! I'm just so proud to be here," made her the first country humorist to be known and loved worldwide.

KITTY WELLS

PAUL COHEN

KITTY WELLS

Aug. 30, 1919

Born Muriel Deason in Nashville, her stage name was inspired by the folk song, "Kitty Wells." She began as a radio performer in 1936 and as a recording artist in 1949. In true country music tradition, her sincere vocal stylings convey the real feeling of the songs, be they happy or sad. Her million seller, "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels" was the first of many award-winning hits resulting in her being acclaimed the "Queen Of Country Music."

(Elected 1976)

PAUL COHEN

Nov. 10, 1908-April 1, 1971

Selling records and scouting talent in the Midwest and New York during his long association with Decca records, Paul Cohen was the first to recognize the potential of Nashville as a recording center. The disk careers of Patsy Cline, Red Foley, Webb Pierce, Red Sovine, Ernest Tubb, Kitty Wells and others were the result of his vision; also producer Owen Bradley, who gratefully acknowledges that "Paul was my teacher." He was president of the Country Music Association the year the Hall of Fame was dedicated.
