PM DAWN

Of The Heart, Of The Soul And Of The Cross: The Utopian Experience
(Gee Street, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St.,
New York, NY 10012)

"Playing the hits of the '60s, '70s and '80s" is a popular radio motto, but the New Jersey duo PM Dawn lives by that adage on their debut album. The group goes right through the decades, making reference to Paul Revere & The Raiders, Sly Stone, the Doobie Brothers, Spandau Ballet and Soul II Soul—somehow without losing lyrical or musical focus. Of The Heart . . . has more in common with latter-day mix-and-matchers like Definition Of Sound than just lengthy, pretentious LP titles: PM Dawn uses its knowledge of the past to forge a layered, harmonious mix of styles for the present. Prince Be and DJ Minutemix create memorable songs, belying the fact that they're based on sampled loops; the duo's juxtaposition of singing and rapping is as brilliant as its combination of religious, romantic and sexual themes. Yes, it's all been done before as separate elements, but no one has thought to take Soul II Soul beats, add dah-doo-do '60s pop harmonies and put Prince-like songwriting and imagery on top. As hip-hop disperses into a million tiny subgenres, PM Dawn has a bead on the psychedelic/soul/pop wing, with an Experience that's second to none. "Reality Used To Be A Friend Of Mine" and "Paper Doll" are good for starters but the best songs come later: "In The Presence Of Mirrors," "Set Adrift On Memory Bliss" (a reworking of Spandau Ballet's "True"), the housin' "Shake" and "The Beautiful."

PRONG

Prove You Wrong
(Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY
10101-4450)

As the title alludes, the general reaction to last winter's news of a Mike Kirkland-less Prong was less than optimistic, which just goes to show why bands should ignore their critics. With new bassist Troy Gregory (who unhappily served in Flotsam And Jetsam previously) Prong '91 is no less formidable, but the intergalactic chill of the past is replaced by a more fluid, if not quite warm, battleground of riffs and alien atmospheres. The emphasis remains on unrelenting, escalating jabs and blows that function as verses and choruses, eerie lulls split open by heavy-artillery guitars, every instrument pounding in rhythm (they even turn a nice slide guitar vicious). While their technique is derived from thrash-metal, Prong grapples more mendaciously with the ultimate skeleton-shattering chord structure, using every time change as a vantage point of attack, almost exclusively concentrating on elements of sheer force and power. With Troy's prevalent bass rumbles, the sheer sonic size of Prove You Wrong emits jarring vibrations even at low volume, and the rat-a-tat rhythms and divebomb guitars are carefully stacked to avoid denseness, the end result calculated for blunt impact yet no more off-putting than, say, Skin Yard or Bullet LaVolta. Top Cuts: the Stranglers' "(Get A) Grip (On Yourself)," the title track, "Contradictions" and "Brainwave."

A TRIBE CALLED QUEST

The Low End Theory
(Jive, 137-139 W. 25th St., New York, NY 10001/212-727-0016)

This might be the slowest rap album of all time, outsnailing De La Soul by an antenna. Q-Tip, Phife and Ali have followed up . . . Paths Of Rhythm with a blazing new path: dark, jazzy, soulful, with a FAT-assed bass sound that's deeper than the Nile. Low End celebrates the low end, mainly with excursions into mellow, thumping jazz; where Gang Starr and Stetsasonic skirted, A Tribe Called Quest has jumped in head first. "Butter" scoots across with slippery mellow tones, while "Jazz" and "Verses From The Abstract" (with Ron Carter on bass) are completely immersed in jazzy bass, brushed beats and Q-Tip's lazy, sing-songy rhymes. Lyrically, Q is in tip-top form, taking on more serious issues than before ("The Infamous Date Rape"), with an experienced dis of the music biz thrown in for good measure ("Rap Promoter," "Show Business"). Phife has an increased presence vocally, but Q-Tip proves he's the leader on "What?," a tongue-twister series of rapid rhymes that go from Arsenio to martial arts to Duke Ellington to The Honeymooners without missing a beat. Despite ATCQ's need to take on so much subject matter, the brassy, laid-back musical backdrop holds Theory together like glue; Quest has created a rap version of the "quiet storm" with some of the smartest make-out music of the year. Start your Quest with "Buggin' Out," "Check The Rhime," "Skypager" and "Scenario" (with Leaders Of The New School).

BLUR

Leisure
(Food, c/o SBK, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)

Yeah yeah yeah we've heard that irresistible psychedelic dance pop thing before, too. That may be true, but we haven't quite heard Blur before. Their more straightforward approach to these pop songs, matched by an artsy aesthetic and sheer charisma in their hooks, gives the songs on Leisure both a rebellious daring and a glamorous not-so-pop idol excitement. Forming and getting their start in and around the London area, this quartet—comprised of friends who decided to start playing together in art school—quickly went from baby band to British media darlings on the strength of their debut single "She's So High" (included here). Led by vocalist/songwriter Damon Albarn, Blur revels in the contradictory sounds of the Albarn household, and uses those sounds to churn out these hopelessly enchanting vignettes, much in the manner of the Charlatans UK or Stone Roses. Their explorations, alternating between stirring tensions and lolling melodies, give Leisure an edge that cuts deep into pop ideals and gives these songs an explosive charge. Take Leisure in: "There's No Other Way," "Come Together," "I Know," "Repetition" and the lamenting "Birthday."

GUNS N' ROSES Use Your Illusion (Volumes I and II) (Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069)

This epic is all about excess. What the fuck else would it be about? Yeah, this is excess and indulgence, given the rare chance to breathe and grow (sell several million records and you can do whatever you want), with only Slash's bluesy riffs reigning it in. It is also one of heavy metal's all-time greats, assaulting and succumbing to contradictions that are so confusing, fascinating and troubling, that if it weren't so relentlessly rocking, the first response any listener would give is this: Axl clearly needs to go on (or off) some sort of medication. This manic manic-depressive makes you feel uncomfortable because this show is real, this bruised bad boy is incredibly angry, hurt and paranoid, and he is seething and whining and spitting and what gives us the right to enjoy any of it? In the four years since Appetite for Destruction's release, they've grown into a unexpectedly disciplined band, despite their reputation as a bunch of dysfunctional fuck-ups. Led by an absolutely fantastic guitarist, Slash, who ravages Toys In The Attic better than anyone else alive and also manages to create some fresh blues of his own, Guns N' Roses is traditional heavy metal at its very finest. Here's 10 songs that most metal bands would be ecstatic to have as a greatest hits album: "Coma," "Civil War," "The Garden," "Don't Damn Me," "Right Next Door To Hell," "Locomotive," "Dead Horse," "Bad Obsession," "Dust And Bones" and "Breakdown."

bands like New Order and the Happy Mondays had signed a guitar-based pop band. And indeed, the Scottish foursome does have the sparkling melodies and airy textures of contemporaries like The High or the La's. Considering the album was produced by Lightning Seed Ian Broudie, who's also worked with Echo & The Bunnymen and Frazier Chorus, it isn't surprising that Gobbledygook goes down like candy floss with a sugar water chaser. The Wendys, however, have more in common with labelmates like Joy Division or New Order than originally construed. Vocalist Jonathan Renton bypasses the twee, little boy vocals of many of his contemporaries for a more sultry, suggestive style. Veering away from simple jangle, the grooves on Gobbledygook wax and wane like the Charlatans UK with the guitar, bass and drums filling in for the swirling organ. It's easy to get stuck in "Pulling My Fingers Off," "Half Blind," "Removal," "I Want You And I Want Your Friend" and "The Sun Is Going To Shine On Me Soon."

PALEFACE Paleface (Polydor, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Paleface has been squawking around New York for some time now, amazingly managing to equally alienate both folks on the straighter, folkie circuit and the cooler Bohemian hangouts of the Lower East Side with his manic, weirdo raving, stream-of-consciousness post-beat poet lyrics and frantically strummed/battered acoustic guitar. Some would think him a more-added version of a John S. Hall or Daniel Johnston who'd been puffing too hard on the ol' peacpipe, or a baritone Tiny Tim from the Lower East Side, but underneath the initial twangy, chirpy, strummy comparisons, one realizes that the Face probably has more in common with Lenny Bruce's depiction of the Lone Ranger in "Thank You Masked Man" than it does with any Technicolor Hollywood Western or Paul Lynde episodes of F-Troop. Kramerphiles should note that this is the first time Kramer has produced anything for a major label, so it must be worth a serious listen, and may help bring Shimmy-ness to an even wider array of newfound fans. Top Cuts: "Burn And Rob" (check out the pickin' and grinnin' "Road Mix" on the single), "Say It Like You Mean It," "Comin' Down Rollin'" and "She Was Talking To Me (Down On Ave. B)".

DON'T MEAN MAYBE Real Good Life (Doctor Dream, 841 W. Collins, Orange, CA 92667/714-997-9387)—Don't Mean Maybe's first LP, Live Sample, was encouraging enough, deftly copping Minutemen-like bursts and howls, but the production was awfully skinny and vocalist Mark Andrea wasn't anywhere near the messenger D. Boon once was. But the follow-up, Real Good Life, shows the sort of growth that's rare and gratifying, and reminds us how much fun it is to listen to a band find its voice. DMM passes on the one-minute punk jams in favor of a more expansive, rollicking, countrified sound that's similar to the Meat Puppets' work through Huevos; and Jack Endino's production (he dug these guys so much when they opened for Skin Yard, he invited them up to record) adds clarity and muscle to the sound of a band thoroughly tightened from a national tour prior to the recording of this album in April. Andrea's weathered growl is friendly and wise, his songwriting particularly impressive on "Fake I.D.," "Domesticated," "Cancel," "She Just Gets Around" and "Paul Simon Artist Or Thief," a funny jab at the folk singer's appropriation of African music and musicians.

TRANSVISION VAMP Little Magnets Versus The Bubble Of Babble (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608)—Music fans and industry moguls alike need to be reminded, on occasion, that the pop music we love and live by is only just that—pop music. Many artists try to transcend the ephemeral nature of pop by making "lasting" music, but Transvision Vamp is too smart to get caught up in that mess. Instead they capitalize on that very quality, making the glamor, sex appeal and raw rock hooks that many bands fumble with, work for them. Of course, the centerpiece is Wendy James, with her mop of blonde hair, lack of modesty, sultry, Debbie Harry-esque whine and ultra-confident feminine sensibility. Her presence in the band is backed smartly by tight playing of guitarist Nick Christian Sayer, who has been the principal Vamp songwriter since their first single, "Revolution Baby." Transvision Vamp takes the most critical elements of flash 'n trash and combine them with a sexy pop appeal that flourishes on Little Magnets Versus The Bubble Of Babble. Especially magnetic are: "(I Just Wanna) B With U," "If Looks Could Kill" and "Don't Believe The Type."

CAROLINER RAINBOW Rise Of The Common Wood-Pile (Nuf Sed, P.O. Box 591075, San Francisco, CA 94159)—This is the third LP from a San Francisco-based band that varies their name as often as they spell it (i.e. Caroliner Rainbow Hernia Milkqueen, Caroliner Rainbow Open Wound Chorale, etc). Eccentricity is not a foreign idea to this bunch. Their stage shows are elaborate productions where the many members of the band dance under black lights with fluorescent paint splashed over their bodies, displaying larger than life costumes that transform them into living statues of plaster and paper mache. On vinyl, Caroliner exhibit bravery in the pursuit of new sounds and textures, much like their citymates Helios Creed and Thinking Fellers, yet Caroliner strives for a much more intense weirdness than the others. Lurking in the erotic jungles of mingling flesh, color and lights, Caroliner reorganize your standards and bash your inhibitions in the Wood-Pile. With horns, violin, multiple drums and organ, they create their own snake dance, pulling from Japanese, country, classical, industrial and rock influences, hovering within the sparse distance between music and noise. Caroliner Rainbow is childish and fearsome, like nightmares that existed in the mind of a youth, then suddenly reappeared in adulthood.

SATISFIED?

If you don't include the blues in your alternative rotations then your listeners aren't being satisfied. Lonnie Brooks latest, "Satisfaction Guaranteed" is a killer set of songs, done up in Lonnie's Chicago-by-way-of-Louisiana style. Bayou-rockin' blues at its tastiest, Lonnie is guaranteed to get your listeners jumpin' and shakin'! Inject some fun into your rotations, add Lonnie Brooks and get satisfied!

HIS NAME IS ALIVE Home Is In Your Head (4AD (UK), c/o 4AD (US), 594 Broadway, Suite 612, New York, NY 10012/212-274-0101)—Part of Livonia's charm was its childish genius in throwing together a kitchen-sink sound assemblage that, by some blind stroke, out-wafted and out-classed the more serious pursuers of the much vaunted "ethereal" sound. Although this collection was also recorded in Warren Defever's basement, mature and experienced fingerprints mark this elaborate, statuesquely arranged string-and-sample symphony, which is just as touching as their debut, but now boasts power and intricacy as well. Karin Oliver's high-fluttering vocals are the centerpiece, presented with the aplomb of a rare bird in a cage of gilded electric and acoustic guitars and faraway banks of keyboards (bass and percussion are so sporadic as to be unnoticeable). The album is often in a state of half-slumber or soft mourning, the mincing, Victorian-mannered guitars occasionally interrupted by the rude scrape of electric feedback: we guess it's a metaphor for the true emotions lurking behind poetic turns of phrase. For skimming the surface, try "Chances Are We Are Mad," "Why People Disappear," "Dreams Are Of The Body," "Are We Still Married?" and "There's Something Between Us And He's Changing My Words."

FOLLOW FOR NOW Follow For Now (Chrysalis, 645 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022)—Follow For Now is a black rock band based in Atlanta which shares a lot in common with Living Colour and Urban Dance Squad, but that's not necessarily a fair comparison for this original outfit. This quintet desegregates musical borders on their debut, as they attempt to bridge gaps between rock, soul, rap, R&B and funk, crossing the span more often than not with their fiery delivery. David Ryan-Harris leads the band, and extols social consciousness as the principal songwriter, but he never overuses his serious face. His wide range of influences come shining through in a mostly '70s feel, especially the soul of Sly Stone and fire of Jimi Hendrix. They have fun with Public Enemy's "She Watch Channel Zero" just as easily as they sting at the anti-drug message of "Temptation," create their version of Superfly on "Fire 'N Snakes" and put down hatred and the KKK on "White Hood." FOLLOW FOR NOW is an energetic twist of sounds that's deep in musical history and has a strong direction in its literary rap-minded quest for knowledge and truth.

TRIBE Abort (Slash, P.O. Box 48888, Los Angeles, CA 90048/213-937-4660)—Boston's Tribe has followed a steady course of integrity and seriousness throughout the various demo tapes and indie releases of their first five years together, and the result in 1991 is Abort, a strident and meaningful debut that dazzles with lyrical breadth and its clear musical vision. At the forefront are Janet Lavalley's haunting, airy lead vocals; when combined with their moody, introspective musical backdrop, one might liken the Tribe to a Boston version of the Cocteau Twins, a less crotch-crazed Divinyls or—most accurately—the days of a louder, more raucous 10,000 Maniacs circa The Wishing Chair. For their Slash debut, they brought in producer Gil Norton (Pixies, Blue Aeroplanes, etc) to capture the mixture of potent rock basics and stratospheric emotive and vocal soarings of the Tribe's distinctive sound. Top Cuts: "Here At The Home," "Joyride" (featured on Certain Damage 37), "Abort," "Rescue Me," "Daddy's Home" and "Serenade."

SINGLE GUN THEORY Millions, Like Stars In My Hands, Daggers In My Heart, Wage War (Nettwerk, c/o I.R.S., 3939 Lankershim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604)—The second album from this Australian trio takes a pronounced curve toward the sensous, softer and sample-spangled trance-dance realm, with the more claustrophobic industrial clang of their debut a distant, dissolving mirage. While the percussion most prominent is from a post-modern, airily industrial perspective, blowing puffs of cool techno-smoke over frothy arrangements, the drum tracks are mostly a framework for the ornate samples garlanding the record. Pete Rivett and Kath Powers discover the East (Near, Middle and Far) all over again with their keyboards and samples of native hymns and chants and Calcutta commotion—sitar and horns float effortlessly and spiritually through canals of syrupy melody. Jacqui Hunt's slow, undulant vocals would be Cocteau-precious in more mundane atmospheres, but here are just part of the tapestry, a warbling guide through exotic, bedazzled Old World infatuations. On "Take Me Back," "Angels Over Teheran" and "I Am What I See," lavish apparitions of golden mosques and ruby-bedecked priestesses gracefully waving hundreds of arms are formed by suprisingly spare layers of samples, percussion and vocals.

DISCO INFERNO Open Doors/Closed Windows (Che, P.O. Box 653, London U.K. E18 2NX/081-530-8381)—

"This way for unknown pleasures," wrote our own Overseas columnist Martin Aston, and he struck the nail right on the head in describing the atmosphere of Disco Inferno's trout, gripping, moody, yet quiet debut. But where Joy Division was borne along at breakneck tempo by robotic dancefloor rhythms and Curtis' disparate rants, Disco Inferno paints a picture that's tranquility and serenity on the outside, but seething with emotional weight and disintegrating ennui within. It's an album awash in its own ambiguity and ambience; occasionally songs rise up out of the emotional turmoil, only to evaporate into mists or collapse under their own entropy and torpor. From the vagueness of the album's titles (depends on which way you pick the cover up), to its austere faceless cover and the music within, even down to the bizarre scrawlings in the record's runoff grooves ("Out Of Time/Out Of Mind") it's a milestone of what our Martin called "Raincoat rock minimalism," that school of moribund meditation and grey-day etherality best espoused on classic albums like Closer, Faith or Section 25's Always Now. Like the oh-so-famous JD graphic depicting a mysterious hand reaching around and pulling open a door from the inside, Open Doors/Closed Windows beckons you in even though you don't know where or why. This is the way, step inside.

LLOYD COLE Don't Get Weird On Me Babe (Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—

In an age where rappers look back and learn a thing or two from jazz cats, and middle-aged pop intellectuals take a page from the international vibe, Lloyd Cole opts to tap into the Golden Age of popular American recording. Cole has been working in Capitol's L.A. studios—the same ones where Ol' Blue Eyes himself and Nelson Riddle had some very good years. On side two (songs 7 through 12 for digital folks), Lloyd lays on the strings and piano to create a stylishly arranged work. Instead of sounding schlocky, Cole pulls it off, as he sinks into the lush mood. Even on the non-arranged first side, Cole is crooning his heart out, singing deeply, sounding like Bryan Ferry or Jim Morrison or even Elvis when the king was cranking out big fat hits like "Suspicious Minds." The stringless side features a mature Cole giving us more great pop songs with the help of Robert Quine's busy Telecaster. Best string songs: "Margo's Waltz" and "Butterfly." Best guitar songs: "Tell Your Sister" and "To The Lions."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Keys To The Crescent City (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700)—

The unfortunate tendency these days is often to pull bluesmen by the teeth out of their natural idioms, adding slick horn parts, unneeded clutter and too many darned guesting sidemen, 'til one loses the soul and sweetness in the resulting (and supposedly more commercially palatable) sideshow. Now the New Orleans Modern Masters series from Rounder presents a wonderful, rare (and almost completely overdub-less) piano summit of the highest order, no doubt at least partially inspired by the rousing Sunday show at Tipitina's Piano Night during last year's Jazz And Heritage Festival. Even big ol' Art Neville takes time off from his duties with his other Bros. for this collection of solo performances from New Orleans keyboard masters. The only problem is that here, it's Art (of all people!) who's the one that resorts to gadgetry and gimmickry rather than just opening up and playing. Still he does a wonderful turn or two on "My Children," which quite frankly makes sitting through the other three worthwhile. Also soak in superlative sets from mellow-toned Charles Brown (no cut recommendations here, every one's a killer) the incomparable Eddie Bo (likewise), and the jazzy piano stylings of Willie Tee, brother of renowned N.O. saxophonist Earl Turbinton.

SNAPDRAGONS Snapdragons (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—

The Snapdragons' lead man, Noel Rockwood, rocked out in 1969 at the Woodstock Music & Arts Festival. Well, he was only 2 at the time, but he claims it played a significant part in the way he looks at and creates his music. Luckily, after Woodstock, Noel didn't turn into a musical retro flower child; you don't have to wear elevator shoes or be naked and dropping acid to appreciate these songs—but hey, who are we to tell you how to listen to music? But, like Woodstock, Rockwood's style is kind of a free-for-all, and draws from and incorporates a mixed bag of styles. In their 11 songs, this Athens, Ohio, trio has managed to infuse snippets of country, jazz and classic acid-guitar rock with a decidedly '90s bent. While you may be able to decipher where a handful of the licks are coming from, Rockwood throws us a good lyrical curve. No standard stuff here, as his songwriting is friendly, imaginative, colorful and pleasantly on the freaky side. Best of: "Soul Is In The Country," "Black Windmills," "Tons Of Humans" and "The Shindig Song."

JACKPOT EXTRA!

DRUNKEN BOAT New Pop (EP) (First Warning, 594 Broadway, Suite 1202, New York, NY 10012/212-925-7220)—Aptly titled, this New Pop takes a rather bare-bones approach to songwriting and recording. The simultaneous rawness and easiness with which the songs flow recalls an early '80s sense of optimism, when all things in rock were being reinvented. Stylistically, the songs rely on a well-done bout of tension and release, with each song winding up to some kind of frenzied climax. Vocalist/poet Todd Colby steers the way with his insightful, angst-ridden lyrics and intonation. Like the sentiments which go into making a pop tune, these five songs are moody, dipping into the depths of melancholy ("5 Salad Days") and jumping up to an apex of excitement ("New Pop," "Hogwash").

SWERVEDRIVER Rave Down (EP) (A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)—White rock isn't usually appropriate to listen to during sex, but Swervedriver's Rave Down is a surging exception, featuring the sort of pretty fuzz and honeyed vocals that inspire true lust. This EP is a sort of "best of" culled from Swervedriver's first three import EPs, and it's a nice U.S. introduction to one of the more wonderfully derivative bands on the planet. Snatches of Sonic Youth, Dinosaur Jr. and My Bloody Valentine abound, bringing back memories and making us all the more anxious for Swervedriver's first full-length release, due this winter.

CAPTAIN CONDOMS Kinda Kool (7" EP) (Public Bath, P. O. Box 2134, Madison, WI 53701)—Here are four selections from their Bron Records CD, Super Cool, which the band flew from Tokyo to New York City to record over a year ago. If you didn't already know that Captain Condoms was from the land of the rising sun, it would be very hard to figure it out from the record—unaccented English and almost indistinguishable vocals, feedtime-ish slide guitar, Sub Pop heavy guitar power and varying tempos from Alternative Tentacles punk rock to blues groovy. This is packed with plenty of American indie rock action, plus it possesses the rockin'-outta-control and havin'-good-fun element the Japanese do so well lately.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Guitar Speak III (I.R.S., 3939 Lankershim Blvd., Universal City, CA 91604)—This compilation is worth listening to if only to be reminded that Bob Mould is a giant when it comes to building noise. "No Water In Hell" is five minutes of maddening Mould guitars ricocheting off each other at blistering speeds. Guitar compilations like this can often be geeky, but there's none of that here, due to the fine choice of artists. Unsung guitarists like former Genesis member Steve Hackett and Television's Tom Verlaine show that their relative anonymity has nothing to do with their grand talent and groundbreaking styles. There's also great stuff from former Dreg Steve Morse, Robert Fripp's crafty guitars, and Adrian Belew and his supersonic dobro.

THE THING "Weirdo Riding" (7") (Noiseville, P.O. Box 124, Yonkers, NY 10710/914-793-4276)—Strap your legs over the ultimate hog, smash the throttle into gear and ride, ride, ride down the asphalt Amazon, winding through hills and valleys. "Weirdo Riding" stomps slowly with ballsy vocals crying out commands in a non-musical fashion, as the plodding bass aimlessly rolls over itself. There's also an untraditional ballad, "Ode Too B.J.," turning over graves, building structure and strength with nary a glimmer of trad-rock architecture.

STRAWBERRY ZOTS Love Operation (EP) (Acid Test, c/o Continuum, 380 Ludlow Ave., Cranford, NJ 07016/908-709-0011) —... And we'll have fun fun fun 'til they take our zots candy away... Albuquerque, NM's Strawberry Zots take us away on their follow-up to their RCA-released Cars, Flowers, Telephones with this five-song EP of pop songs from an age long gone by. The Zots craft simple pop tunes that have a cuteness and looseness about them, as opposed to much of the psychedelia being returned to by many today. Their cover of the groovy, late-'60s Friend And Lover hit "Reach Out Of The Darkness" is the tip of this short iceberg, but don't miss the party mix of "The Girl Who Couldn't Decide."

JACKPOT!

KICKSTAND On Training Wheels (1037 Garden St. #4, Hoboken, NJ 07030)—Another music in a different toybox from Flying Saucer and ex-Flying Saucer members (with a few nyah-nyah chousings and grubby guitar licks from folks in Kicking Giant), On Training Wheels is a collection of six naptime musings that're the direct progeny from Maureen Tucker, Jad Fair, Jonathan Richman and A.A. Milne. Even the lyrics are rife with dragons and homework, as a complement to the simplistic yearnings of happyface organ beeps and finger-plinked guitars. On "Why Can't I Make You Like Me?" and "Spinning Top," Tammi and Torry Colichio come as close to being female incarnations of Jonathan Richman as possible without genetic engineering, with Jeff Fueurzeig handling vocals on "Once Around Town" in scowly Calvin Johnson style. For an idea of how tow-headed-and-grass-stained endearing these songs are, the gloomiest song, "Dying Inside," sounds like an average Pastels romp, but Kickstand doesn't really come off as cloying or cutesy very often, fortunately remembering to keep the melodies central and eminently hummable.

Jersey's YA-NE-ZNIYOO (sorry, but our typesetting equipment can't possibly reproduce the Russian or Greek or Coptic or whatever kind of type it is). They're weird—one minute they're pop, the next they're playing avant-grindcore—and they're simply not like anything else on earth (P.O. Box 789, Fairview, NJ 07022)... Looks Can Be Deceiving, Dept.: Though calling their demo tape Gun To Head Blues made us think of our ol' pal Henry Rollins screaming, sweating through his skinny black shorts while simulating his demise by his own hand in vivid picto-psychodramatic fashion, we were completely caught off guard by the hearty, beer-raisin' solid rock 'n roll buried within the four-songer from Toronto's 98DA (c/o The Alternative Management, 312 Adelaide St., W. Suite 202, Toronto, ONT, M5V 1R2/416-348-0394). Even a forbidding title like "Crackhouse In My Neighborhood" becomes immensely singable in the hands of 98DA, who wrestle with their afflictions, working them out through slippery slide guitars, a punchy rhythm section and a sardonic "who-cares" attitude that recalls Faith No More back in the early days—"Ninety-five cents? F&#ck you, I'll skate to the beach!"

JACKPOT!

GUITAR SLIM Sufferin' Mind (Specialty, c/o Fantasy, Tenth & Parker, Berkeley, CA 94710)—

Guitar Slim was probably the first wildman of rock: Flashy limousines, rolls of hundred-dollar bills, droves of nebulous employees/hangers-on, a succession of wild hairstyles and maniacal parties lasting days on end were all his forte, as was some of the most sizzling R&B ever concocted by anyone anywhere. People still talk about Slim, and the legend has kept on growing through the years. Ultimately, such talk and tall tales demand a trip into the vaults—out rolls Sufferin' Mind, an expansion of the original Specialty LP The Things That I Used To Do, but containing no less than 10 (!) bonus tracks. He was an absolute innovator in terms of the guitar—including a 100-foot guitar cord, with which he would roam the club from table to table while playing solos, often winding up out in the parking lot!—and his gritty tone and stone-crazy persona/lifestyle influenced everybody from Little Richard to Hendrix on down the line. Another bit of history in the making: Playing piano and handling the horn charts for some of Slim's sessions was a young upstart arranger by the name of Ray Charles. Musically, Guitar Slim didn't have songs per se as much as he had two speeds—a spunky, outright rocker tempo and a slow, brooding dirge, often garnished with lyrics that bordered on the verge of sounding absolutely suicidal. Sadly, Slim's candle burned too low, too fast; seemingly cursed and star-crossed like the central figure of so many of his songs, the wild life eventually caught up with him and he succumbed to pneumonia a mere four years after these recordings were made, at the young age of 32. If he had lived, there's little doubt that he would today be hailed, like Little Richard, Bo Diddley, et al, as one of the founding heroes of rock 'n roll.

DON & DEWEY Jungle Hop/LLOYD PRICE Lawdy!/FLOYD DIXON Marshall Texas Is My Home/LITTLE RICHARD The Georgia Peach (Specialty, address above)—... And still more from the hallowed Specialty vaults. It seems that the legendary Specialty A&R team of Johnny Vincent, Art Rupe and "Bumps" Blackwell could do no wrong, creating a situation at Specialty where even the least-known of talents were truly exceptional. For instance, take one glance at the title of Floyd Dixon's Marshall Texas Is My Home, and you've probably already learned more than most people know about this elusive but influential blues singer. Hailing from downhome Texas, Dixon cut for Specialty for four years and promptly disappeared like a spectre into the occluding mists of time, leaving behind a handful of haunting, searingly autobiographical sides ("Hard Living Alone," "Old Memories," "What Is Life Without A Home") that are among the best, not to mention spookiest, of the era. Likewise for the duo of Don &

FLASHBACK

Column coordinated by Craig Marks and James Lien

Dewey, who sank like a stone, but whose contributions to music lived on (like many others of their era) in the form of paleface doubles: It isn't hard to figure out where the Righteous Brothers got their million-selling soulful duo sound from, five years later. Lloyd Price's tearful "Lawdy Miss Clawdy" kicks off a set that includes (wonder of collector-creep wonders) a previously unissued alternate take of his '53 curio "Froglegs." And last, but certainly not least, the Sweet Georgia Peach himself, Little Richard, returns with a blazing nine-bonus track bonanza. If you've already got the big imitation leather-skin box set (also from Specialty), you might not need the falsetto whoops and sassy piano playing of these mere 25 hollering tracks; still, it'll do just fine for a quick fix of "Jenny Jenny," "True Fine Mama" or "Slippin' An' Slidin'."

POISON IDEA Pick Your King/Record Collectors Are Pretentious Assholes (EP)/Kings Of Punk (Taangi, P.O. Box 51, Auburndale, MA 02166/617-965-5673)—

Hardcore, as a rule, doesn't afford its practitioners an artistically long and healthy lifespan—either they become fed up with the genre's constraints and re-channel their intensities (John Brannon's move from Negative Approach to the Laughing Hyenas is a happier instance), go panting in search of the crossover pop/metal "wider audiences" (7 Seconds, Die Kreuzen, SSD, Discharge), or are swallowed up by the day-job morass (the vast majority). Poison Idea hasn't crossed over into maturity or into anything else, their style and combativeness remaining unbuffered by time—but they have been corralled into hardcore, metal or, most recently, alternative camps depending on what's in vogue. Still on a ferocious touring schedule after all these years, they sound every bit as dangerous today, a feat which escapes even the best of today's younger HC bands, and if Jerry A. is still smashing his face into microphones 10 years after Pick Your King, it's safe to say that a day job or major label deal won't be his escape hatch. Of the Portland, OR, band's early recordings, Pick Your King is an uncompromised blare, transgressing the bounds of society; it's a notch above most other early-'80s hardcore releases but pales next to '84's Record Collectors. . . . The latter holds up as a hate-document gloried in speed and flammability—with Jerry A.'s incinerator vocals and a momentum that starts at blind rage and moves up from there—standing along with the first Negative Approach EP and the Necros' Conquest. . . as a holy trinity of hardcore as self-immolation platform. Kings Of Punk is a fraction slower and meatier, and was probably first to generate the metal accusations, an unscrubbed, unfinessed, unflinchingly brutal record—it can't get any uglier and still carry a tune. "Lifestyles," "God Not God," "Cop An Attitude" and "Made To Be Broken" are all grinding unglamorous pain and no salvation, appealing to lovers of the loudest and rawest in any class.

ALBERT COLLINS The Complete Imperial Recordings (EMI, 810 Seventh Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Ice ice baby. . . While most people rightly think of Albert "Iceman" Collins as a bluesman, there's a lot more in his arsenal than just three chords, 12 bars and his trademark piercing, stinging leads. By the late '60s, Collins had been in the business of the blues long enough to move comfortably through many different styles and sounds, all of which show up on this repackaging of his '69-'70 sides for the Imperial label. There's a lot of soul, a lot of Booker T./Meters styled funk instrumentals, some anguished slow blues and, believe it or not, the guitarist from Leona, Texas, even pulls off a couple of remarkable zydeco-flavored numbers! The concept here is a good one—basically two superb late-'60s/early '70s albums sandwiching a lesser one and spread over two discs—and it returns to in-print status much of Collins' most coveted works. Our highs: the throbbing, amped-up zydeco funk of "Black Bottom Bayou" and "Swamp Sauce," the soulful brew of "Do The Sissy," "All About My Girl" and "Chatterbox" and the all-around recommended cuts like "I Need You So" and "Conversation With Collins."

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Concert For Bangla Desh (Apple, c/o Capitol, 1750 N. Vine St., Hollywood, CA 90028)—

By the early '70s, just seeing a Beatle in the flesh from inside a hundred yards was considered astounding, let alone hearing him actually play music live. There were even rumors at the time of this '71 benefit concert that the inevitable tear-filled fab reunion was secretly scheduled to take place in Madison Square Garden while thousands of the lucky looked on, but instead the world had to settle for just Ringo and George duetting on "It Don't Come Easy." (He's not bad, that Ringo). Bob Dylan—whose unannounced performance was a complete surprise to most of the 18,000 gathered in the Garden when he strolled onstage—rambles his way through a fine set of protest-era songs, bedecked in so much smeared eye makeup that he looks in the photos more like his own blue-haired great aunt than himself. And Leon Russell, bless his ol' silver-haired heart, turns in an admirable set of pumping piano and good-ole '70s-style onstage sweat. Truly majestic highs (there are at least two) include "Here Comes The Sun" breezily performed by George with most of Badfinger in tow, and the God-and-George duet of Eric Clapton's quiet but powerful presence beside Harrison's white suit and beard on "While My Guitar Gently Weeps." Surprisingly, the most embarrassing moment has nothing to do with poor Ringo at all, but occurs on what used to be side one, when the crowd applauds enthusiastically after Ravi Shankar tunes his sitar—apparently they mistook the droning and squeaking of tuning pegs for one of his legendary transcendental ragas. Historically, however, there's no denying the importance of this concert—George was notably one of the first rockers of the '60s to actually be concerned about the world around him, and even if the amount of money that ultimately made it to the Indian subcontinent ended up being disputed, it certainly wasn't diverted into the pockets of any of the concert's performers. By the end of '72, such benefits were on their way to becoming commonplace—the Stones even put together a less-publicized concert for relief to victims of Central American earthquakes in 1972—and paved the way for modern-day events like Live Aid, Ferry Aid, Farm Aid and the like.

Many of the releases reviewed in Flashback can be ordered through Midnight Records. For a free catalog, write to 255 W. 23rd St., New York, NY 10011 or phone 212-675-2768.

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/non-commercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). BOLD indicates a significant increase in airplay. #1-5: equal or upward position; #6-10: increase of at least 1; #11-20: increase of 2 or more; #21-30: 3 or more... PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

CHART TALK

Column by Craig Marks

PM Dawn: Yeah I like Spandau Ballet, so what

Hole: No noticeable tan lines

Transvision Vamp: Is a group

Smells Like #1: Stroll down our hallways, poke through the charts, overhear ticket requests—no matter which way you turn, DGC's Nirvana is the absolute top of the pops here at CMJ, and we're fairly certain we're not alone. Nevermind debuts this week at #2, and it's a near cinch that the top spot is only 7 days away. The domination doesn't end there; Nevermind is the #1 Adventure Pick, #1 Radio Breakthrough and #1 Audience Response, and "Smells Like Teen Spirit" is our Top Cut. In terms that those who attended the International Pop Underground Convention in Olympia will understand, Nirvana is definitely the cake with the most boyfriends.

Smells Like Hot Peppers: While there's not a whole lotta shakin' goin' on in the top 10, Relativity's Fudge Tunnel (14-11) and Alias' American Music Club (18-14) continue their sensational showings. Elektra's cash cow Metallica climbs 5 (20-15), labelmate Billy Bragg cracks the top 20 (26-19) and A&M's trailer Soundgarden single (#27) sets the table quite nicely. But those heavy footsteps you hear are from the Red Hot Chili Peppers, who make their Warner Bros. chart debut with "Give It Away" (#17), and whose upcoming 70-minute CD, Blood Sugar Sex Magik, will wage war on Nirvana for the #1 position.

Smells Like School's Back: With 1,008 reports this week, we seem to be back in full fall fashion. For those of you who are new to the game, please note that faxed reports are ONLY accepted on Mondays, while reports via telephone are taken Monday and Tuesday, 12-6 p.m. E.S.T.

FOCUS

September means, among other things, beautiful foliage, pennant races and billions of new records. Before you get all weighed down with the bounty crop of fall releases, try not to overlook a late summer harvest on Reprise, Sister Double Happiness. Their Heart And Mind LP is an earthy blast of soul-stirring garage rock and smart-not-sappy lyrics, and singer Gary Floyd is a troubador on a Harley, an original frontman with a voice that best compares to Joplin (Janis, not Scott). Stations wearing their Heart on their sleeve include: WNHU, WDET, WICB, WUAG, WUSC, WRSU, KALX, KCOU, KLMU, KSDT (#1), KUSF (#2) and KTSB.

Chart compiled by Lydia Anderson

ON THE CHART

After seven weeks on the chart, Metallica is still riding high, but there's three (3) indie rock records trailing closely behind. Fugazi's Steady Diet Of Nothing on Dischord jumps in cold turkey at #2—no promotion, no hype, just record sales. The album also garnered a #2 In-store rating. Bumped down one slot by Fugazi, Caroline's Smashing Pumpkins is at #3 and Sub Pop's Mudhoney is at #4. Dire Straits' new one for Warner Bros. debuts at #8 and Columbia's Ned's Atomic Dustbin moves back into the top ten at #9.

Capitol's new Smithereens album debuts at #13 and Nirvana's first single for DGC, "Smells Like Teen Spirit," enters the chart at #19. Pointblank-Charisma's John Lee Hooker album debuts this week at #23 and at #5 on the In-store chart. Other new entries this week include Geffen's Tesla (#37), Slowdive's import album on Creation (#49), which will be out domestically on SBK in November, Capitol's Garth Brooks (#56) and Caroline's Hole (#57).

The chances of Guns N' Roses rising from its #73 debut to the summit of the chart next week look pretty good, to put it mildly. Also keep on the lookout for the Red Hot Chili Peppers' first for Warners and Billy Bragg's new one on Elektra.

We're happy to announce a new addition to the Progressive Retail chart this week: a weeks-on-chart column. We expect that many of you will find this information exceedingly interesting and helpful—now you can throw away that drawer full of back issues! All questions, comments, back-stabs or praise can be directed towards your cooperative retail coordinator. (RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

News From A Loud World

Motley Crue: Tommy Lee's got the right haircut, but they're gonna need pogo lessons...

ABOUT THAT PUNK INFLUENCE...

For their August 14th surprise club gig at the Marquee in London, Motley Crue chose the unfortunate pseudonym of "The Fourskins"—"an unannounced, unrehearsed, unprofessional and ungodly-loud band." Apparently unbeknownst to the Crue, the 4-Skins were an avowedly racist, early '80s Oil punk band; at one of their 1981 gigs, the band incited a riot that resulted in the torching of several Pakistani markets in London. The ad also announced that identification was required to purchase tickets for the show—the same arrangement required for the last ever Oil show, by the Business at London's Astoria several years back. Despite all this, the Crue's gig reportedly went off without a hitch. And while we're on the subject, we'd like to compliment the boys on their inspired choice of backing musicians for their cover of the Sex Pistols' "Anarchy In The U.K.": Tommy Shaw (ex-Styx) and Jack Blades (ex-Night Ranger) of Damn Yankees.

PROUDLY ENDORSED BY...

Blitzspær has completed their first studio LP, entitled Blitzspær Saves—and the album cover artwork features a picture of Jesus wearing a Blitzspær t-shirt! (Which doubtless will make a great t-shirt on its own.) Joey Ramone sings backing vocals on one track; look for the album later this year.

A DECADE OF DECAY

To celebrate the band's tenth anniversary, Def American will release Slayer's second live LP, A Decade Of Aggression, on Oct. 22nd. Produced by Rick Rubin, the double album was recorded at three different shows: London (Oct. '90), San Bernadino, CA (March '91) and Lakeland, FL (July '91). The album will include a 24-page "souvenir tour booklet," and, as a sticker that will appear on the cover says, "Unlike most other recordings, this is Slayer completely live. No overdubbing exists on this recording."

NOT NAILED YET

Still riding the slowest-building underground buzz we've ever seen, the insane bidding war for Nine Inch Nails may finally be drawing to a head.TVT, the band's label, claims that their contract is binding, and has sent cease-and-desist letters to all labels (which is just about all of 'em) who have unleashed teams of lawyers seeking loopholes in the band's contract; some labels are even talking about buying out TVT in order to acquire the band, which has sold 300,000 units of their 1989 LP, Pretty Hate Machine, to date. Shortly after finishing the "Lollapalooza" tour, the band embarked on a headlining British tour (with a stop to open for Guns N' Roses at Wembley Arena); they've reportedly written a load of new songs, but have not yet entered the studio to lay down their second LP. Presstime rumor had the band close to a deal with Interscope, but anything could happen...

C.O.C.'s BLIND AMBITION

After a four-year vinyl hiatus, Raleigh, NC-based Corrosion Of Conformity are set to release their third LP, Blind. Recorded at Baby Monster Studios in New York and produced by John Custer with engineer Stevie McAllister, the album finds the band evolving out of the metal/hardcore crossover genre into a more retro-progressive metallic style, somewhere between Black Sabbath, MC5 and various other garage/grunge bands. The guitar team of Woody Weatherman and Pepper Keenan offer a line between technical grace and bludgeoning burl, while (comparatively) recently added vocalist Karl Agell's melodies and phrasing add untapped power to the fold. Comic book artist Bill Sienkiewicz was enlisted for the cover artwork, and the album will be released on Relativity on November 4th. Tracks include "Dance Of The Dead,"

Brazil (both deep in the Amazon jungle), not to mention a stop in the mid-Pacific island of Guam. Bassist Bill Gould directed a video for the band's song "Surprise! You're Dead!" by compiling reels of footage from his personal video camcorder filmed during the band's endless 1989-91 tours in support of The Real Thing. The video has been produced in two versions—one Gould calls "the X-rated version," which contains some "rather lurid" scenes, and the "PG version." Although plans call for the video to be taken to national music video outlets, if it is rejected, the original uncut version will be considered for release on a future FNM home video project in conjunction with the band's next LP, slated for release early next year. Gould also recently spent two weeks in Polynesia, recording the indigenous music of Samoan tribes for a planned album.

CHRONICLE OF OZ

Just Say Ozzy... Don't Blame Me is the name of a new retrospective North Carolina's Corrosion Of Conformity: devastating new LP, Blind, due on Relativity on November 4th.

"Buried," "Damned For All Time," "Eyes Of God," "Shallow Ground/Vote With A Bullet," "White Noise," "Great Purification," "Break The Circle" and "Echoes In The Wind."

FNM TO TOUR, ER, SECONDARY MARKETS

Faith No More is taking time off from recording their fourth album to do yet another tour: from August 30th through October 5th, the band will tour South America and Japan, hitting such out-of-the-way locales as Belem and Manaus,

Ozzy Osbourne video slated for release on SMV on Sept. 24th—the same day as Oz's latest studio LP, No More Tears. The 80-minute video will span Ozzy's entire career and includes vintage live Black Sabbath footage ("Fairies Wear Boots," "War Pigs," "Paranoid" and "Iron Man" culled from absolutely killer 1970 live performances in Paris and Germany, long available on bootleg) along with their 1985 reunion at Live Aid. There's also the only known existing live footage of Ozzy with Randy

GET A CLUE...

Do you come to a convention to have fun and get things done, or do you come to sit around a hotel and complain?

Although CMJ Metal Marathon is held at a hotel—where else could you put hundreds of metal-heads?—its evening festivities take place in the nightclubs of Manhattan, where you'll see the very best of Loud Rock's up-and-coming talent—and for the rest of the night, Manhattan is your oyster. Return to the hotel, roll outta' bed and attend the afternoon's discussion panels, keynote speeches, exhibition areas (with lots of free stuff) and whatever else the Metal Marathon staff can conjure to entertain you.

Isn't that a better way to do business?

CMJ Metal Marathon was the first music conference ever to focus on 'Loud Rock,' and our track record is unparalleled because we take chances instead of celebrating the status quo. Each year, our showcases, keynote addresses and discussion panels have given you loud rock's absolute cutting edge long before it became mainstream, and this year, just to add spice, the first day of the convention is Halloween!

The future of Loud Rock—and lord knows who and what else—will be at the Vista Hotel in New York City on October 30-November 2, 1991. Will you?

PAST SHOWCASE ARTISTS INCLUDE . . .

- 1987: Sacred Reich, Law And Order, Carnivore
- 1988: Wrathchild America, Cycle Sluts From Hell, Princess Pang
- 1989: Soundgarden, Sepultura, Primus, Prong, White Zombie, Blitzspeer, Last Crack, Bullet LaVolta, Wolfsbane
- 1990: King's X, Alice In Chains, Armored Saint, Corrosion Of Conformity, Mind Over Four, Coup de Grace, Non-Fiction

PAST KEYNOTE SPEAKERS INCLUDE . . .

Lemmy of Motorhead, Bruce Dickinson of Iron Maiden, Dave Mustaine and Dave Ellefson Jr. of Megadeth, and three members of Anthrax!

PAST PANELISTS INCLUDE . . .

OH YEAH! GUESS WHAT

Contrary to what was printed in our last ish, Soundgarden will be opening the West Coast leg of the Queensryche tour, and will then hit the road with Guns N' Roses... Look for Law And Order—whose second LP, Rites Of Passage, is due on MCA October 8th—to tour with Pearl Jam... Somewhat inevitably, U.F.O. has reformed yet again, this time featuring founding members Phil Mogg and Pete Way with guitarist Lawrence Archer (ex-Phil Lynott's Grand Slam) and ex-Wild Horses drummer Clive Edwards. The band is currently finishing up an album for the U.K.'s Essential Records; it's due out in January... Ex-Bad English drummer Ricky Phillips has joined the David Coverdale/Jimmy Page Experience... Metallica has recorded a version of the Anti-Nowhere League's ultra-propane "So What" for release as a B-side... Can't wait for the solo LP from ex-Loverboy vocalist Mike

Reno, which features Bad English/Journey guitarist Neal Schon... Megadeth, Jane's Addiction and Living Colour have requested that a 900-line sponsored by Budweiser stop using their music. The "Budweiser Band Notes" 900-line allows callers to sample the music of 130 bands. "Us endorsing beer is like the KKK endorsing jheri curls," said Megadeth's Dave Mustaine... Panic is on tour with Reverend, and Anacrusis will be touring with Overkill... Ex-Hanoi Rocks vocalist Michael Monroe has teamed up with ex-Billy Idol guitarist Steve Stevens to form a yet-unnamed band—Michael Wagener is slated to produce... Roadracer will reissue Sepultura's '85 EP Bestial Devastation and their '86 LP Morbid Visions on one CD next month. All tracks have been remastered, but the band warns that sound quality on Morbid Visions was at the mercy of a recording budget that "could just about buy a roof rack for your car!"... Earache U.K. has released Morbid Angel's Abominations Of Desolation, which features previously unreleased 1986 sessions including original vocalist Mike Browning (now with Nocturnus)... Gwar will be going into the studio to record their third LP—look for a February release date... The Accused has replaced Josh Sinder with ex-Date Rape drummer Devin... In case anyone noticed that the blonde guitarist touring with Ratt was not Robin Crosby, wonder no more: it's Michael Schenker, whose latest LP with MSG is due on Impact through MCA later in the year... Austria's H.P. Zinker have a new LP on the way entitled Hovering, from which Roughneck in the U.K. have extracted a single, "Our Precious Love," backed with the non-LP "Hurdles On My Way." Guitarist/vocalist Hans Platzgumer is "currently finishing off an eight-month bout of community service looking after winos and tramps at Innsbruck Railway Station," N.M.E. recently reported... The Four Horsemen hit the road with Lynyrd Skynyrd at the end of this month... Tangier has split up... Ex-Foreigner vocalist Lou Gramm has formed a band called Shadow King with ex-Dio/Whitesnake/Riverdogs guitarist Vivian Campbell. The band has completed its debut LP with producer Keith Olsen; it's due on Atlantic in October... The first major rock concert in the "new" Soviet Union will feature Metallica and AC/DC on September 29th... And finally, just when we thought some aspects of the revolution couldn't ever be televised, presstime rumor has the Butthole Surfers signing with Capitol.

ROLODEX FILE

Kraze/Maze Records has moved from one 'burb to another: their new address is 29 Willet Ave., Port Chester, NY 10573/914-934-1313... And here's a belated welcome to Gina Jones, who replaces Jackie Farry as Mike Schnapp's assistant at Epic Metal. Who loves ya, beb?

EXPOSED!

Shock! Horror! Not only is bassist Mike Kirkland out of Prong, but they've gone and hired the bass player from Flotsam And Jetsam to take his place!

Like a giant roach hauling ass across the room to escape some bug spray, or—even worse—that satanic water bug that spits the spray back in your face and laughs, Prong endures. These New York noise merchants have reared their hardened faces once again, and emerged with Prove You Wrong, an LP that does just that to those who'd pushed the band into an early grave of irrelevance.

Formed back in '86, guitarist/vocalist Tommy Victor and original bassist/vocalist Mike Kirkland recorded some primitive demos under the moniker R Ruin, before adding the talents of ex-Swans drummer Ted Parsons to form the basis of what was to be Prong. Staying generally close to home (New York City, in case ya didn't already know) and playing at CBGB's (where both Victor and Kirkland worked), the band's name spread in Europe far before most stateside folks even knew that they existed.

Recording an EP (Primitive Origins), a single, a full length LP (Force Fed, on the English-based Spigot label) and compilation tracks for everyone from New Renaissance to Pismort, Prong earned their foot in the door the hard way. It wasn't until the short-lived Relativity offshoot In-Effect licensed Force Fed in February of '89 that the buzz began to spread domestically.

After negotiations that could scramble heads at the United Nations, Prong signed with Epic and recorded their second LP, Beg To Differ. Although the album put the band on the map, fans of the band's past work were somewhat less enthusiastic. Whether the ignorant thought they had sold out, or honestly didn't agree with the effects of a "real" studio, Beg To Differ stands solid against anything of its time. And as if that wasn't a large enough brick in the face, in the preliminary stages of Prove You Wrong, relations with Kirkland were severed, and Victor and Parsons brought in Troy Gregory, formerly of progressive metallions Flotsam And Jetsam. ARGH!!! recently chatted with the bone of contention himself on doings in the forked camp.

"I think it's pretty fuckin' hilarious," Gregory giggles about the hoopla. "Because everything I saw said, 'Oh no, the guy from Flotsam is playing for Prong.' We knew that people would freak out, and we talked about that before we let it leak out that I was joining the band. But the thing is, Flotsam really wasn't my gig, it really wasn't what I was into, but of course you're only known for those things—I mean, I've been in about 65 bands and that's the only one I'm known for. You know, Tommy and Ted would know what was better for Prong better than anyone else. What can we do about that? We have a record and people are going to have to listen to it to know that it works."

Gregory's name wasn't just pulled out of a hat, as he explains. "I was real unhappy when I was on tour with Flotsam And Jetsam. Prong was opening up, and we listened to a lot of the same bands, Killing Joke, Chrome, stuff like that, we just got along really well. I liked their music a lot, I'd been into them since Force Fed, and I expressed to them a few times that I wished I was playing with them instead. After I quit Flotsam and moved back to Detroit, I formed a band that was sort of like the Cocteau Twins. The day that that thing broke up, Tommy called me up within fifteen minutes. Right when I was screaming at my mother telling her I was going to quit music and go back to college because I was so fed up with everything, Tommy just called me up and asked me if I wanted to come to New York and play in Prong."

Is that why the LP is called Prove You Wrong?

"Maybe that's one of the reasons. One of about a hundred reasons!"

Maybe another is to refute the fans who balked at Beg To Differ's big metal sound. "I really like that record," Troy says. "I think a lot of the songs were great, and of course we're still playing those songs live. As for the sound, to tell ya the truth, I liked it. For this record, we wanted to get more of a three-piece sound, something we could reproduce live without people goin'." This sounds nothing like the record. "Usually three-piece bands try to hide the fact that they're a three-piece, like you couldn't hear Mike at all on the last record."

LOUD ROCK PICKS!!!

GUNS N' ROSES Use Your Illusion I and II (Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069/213-278-9010)—Doubters, prepare to choke on your words: there are albums, and there are milestones, and there's no question which category GNR's sophomore album(s) fall into. What wasn't really mentioned during all the pre-release hoo-ha is the fact that GNR has released two double albums at once: Use Your Illusion features 30 tracks, over two-and-a-half hours of music, and—without making too many easy comparisons—has the scope of the Stones' Exile On Main Street or Zeppelin's Physical Graffiti. Although there are plenty of "rockin'" tracks to keep the fans happy, others show a depth, detail and ambition that Appetite barely suggested. Axl, Izzy and Slash are the major songwriters, and although Axl's tortured soul is all over the lyrics and he has a tendency to way overplay his Elton John and Queen influences (and his whistling!), he generally comes off like the major talent he's obviously trying hard to be. Musically, the addition of drummer Matt Sorum has brought the band to a whole new level, and quite simply, Slash is God. But most impressive of all, despite these albums' length, there's almost no filler: sure, they're occasionally too ambitious, and we could've lived without Duff's lead vocal and the two covers, but for the most part, the albums are focussed and well-paced. And if they sometimes overdo the obnoxiousness, well, Guns will be Guns. Anyway, we plug "Right Next Door To Hell," "Double Talkin' Jive," "The Garden" (featuring Alice Cooper), "Don't Damn Me," "Civil War," "Breakdown," "Locomotive" and especially "Coma." (JA)

NIRVANA Nevermind (DGC, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069-6197/213-278-9010)—If there's a band that will singlehandedly destroy the barriers between metal, alternative and commercial radio, Aberdeen, Washington's Nirvana is it. Those who were on board for Bleach, their scalding '89 Sub Pop debut, will know the devastating potential encrusted in those grooves, will know about the death-defying bidding war over this scuzzy trio, and will also probably know that they're worth every penny. Yeah, they've gotten a new, better drummer and a major label recording budget (not to mention the almighty Andy Wallace—he of Slayer fame—to mix), but what makes Nirvana so special is their ability to deliver completely irresistible hooks without toning down their bruising guitar crunch or Kurt Cobain's sandpaper vocals a jot—in other words, they'll sell a lot of records but still remain more politically correct than virtually any other band that's made the indie-major jump. A rocket-blast advancement from their debut, Nevermind upgrades songs we've heard onstage for years, igniting them past even their most frenzied and flailing live incarnations. The songs have an eyeblink more verve and flash (out of 12, three pass 3:30), the melodies lurching, hopped-up and intoxicated with speed, Cobain's vocals all scratch and strain, those guitars hungrily crammed into every gap. Anyone seeking the NEXT BIG THING, look no further. Plug "Territorial Pissings," "In Bloom," "Breed," "On A Plain," "Stay Away" and "Smells Like Teen Spirit," which does. (JA/DO)

PRONG Prove You Wrong (Epic, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450/212-445-4321)—The departure of founding bassist Mike Kirkland shortly after last year's Beg To Differ tour placed the future of these New York-based industrial/punk/metal merchants in question to everyone who'd grown to thirst for their burly sound—it seemed like virtually everyone expected and almost wanted to see them fail, just so they could be elitist and say, "Oh yeah, they used to be cool." Well, recently added bassist Troy Gregory (formerly of the Flotsam And Jetsam camp) has stepped into the empty shoes and literally lived up to this album's title, because this is quite possibly the strongest Prong release to date. Where some thought their last effort fell short of the mark production-wise, the band and producer Mark Dodson approached this one a little differently, allowing more natural guitar and drum sounds while bastardizing the bass into something best described as "ugly as a motherfucker." All of the power from their last effort is present in the new songs, but more of their earlier influences (Chrome, Killing Joke, Swans) come through in a sound that's far heavier and twice as interesting as yer average thrash LP. Also new to the sound is the title track (a twist on Zeppelin's "Celebration Day" riff through an elderly Telecaster) and the Bad Brains-ish "Brainwave" (where Gregory handles the vocals). While we're at, you should check out "Unconditional," "Hell If I Could," "Territorial Rites" and their rendition of the Stranglers' classic "(Get A) Grip (On Yourself)." (KS)

INTRUDER

GODFLESH Slavestate (Earache-Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)—Extremity will always be "in," and Godflesh has always been one to expand upon extremes. "I think [Slavestate] is one of the most extreme things we've done: an acid house rhythm, as such, and we just elaborate on it. It's a total blast," says head "Flesh" Justin, and indeed, Slavestate is a total blast of extremism. As always, the sound cuts like a razor with a deafening dose of low-end, yet the band has kept things in check by not stepping into something too processed, and "Slateman" is probably the most "melodic" song they've ever done. The multi-faceted dance rhythms and textures may make the framework slightly different, but the sound is totally Godflesh and totally heavy. Track "Perfect Skin," "Someone, Somewhere, Scorned," "Slateman" and "Wound '91." (KS)

NAPALM DEATH Death By Manipulation (Earache-Relativity, address above)—With Relativity finally catching up with Earache's European release schedule, Napalm Death combine some of the last remaining tracks previously unavailable domestically onto one disc (only their debut LP, Scum, and a handful of rarities remain unavailable). D.B.M. features their latest release, the Mass Appeal Madness

EP (two new tracks as well as two older songs re-recorded by the Harmony Corruption lineup), the entire "Suffer The Children" 12" (including the Coil-ish instrumental "Harmony Corruption," which is not available on the album of the same name), as well as 1989's six-song EP, Mentally Murdered, which was the last release from the now classic Bill Steer/Lee Dorrian/Mick Harris/Shane Embury line-up. (KS)

TESLA Psychotic Supper (Geffen, 9130 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90069/213-278-9010)—Riding high from the surprisingly successful Five-Man Acoustic Jam, Tesla once again reverses the trend with an uncompromising set of tunes that should push them well into multi-platinum arena status. "Maturity" is the key word, here: as bassist Brian Wheat says, "When we're hard, we're harder than ever before. When we're melodic, we're more melodic than ever, and when we have that classic rock sound, it's more classic than ever." There's enough variety and change in this record to satisfy both fans and newcomers, and the stand-and-fight lyrical mentality will definitely spark the fire of teen spirit—check out "Government Personnel" for a clever dose of anti-censorship. Also electrify "Change In The Weather," "Edison's Medicine," "Don't De-Rock Me" and "Time." (RJ)

NAKED SUN Naked Sun (Noise, 5 Crosby St., New York, NY 10013/212-334-9268)—Twisting and dashing in and around a sonic palette so eclectic that it'll mystify even the most "progressive" listeners, New York's Naked Sun shows two or three albums' worth of progression in the space of their debut LP—and if that sounds strange, just listen to the album! In fact, "Progressive" is the key word here, and the guitar-bass harmony, jazz-sax punctuation, smooth and soaring vocals and overall eerie and mystical qualities prevent the listener from ever guessing what's coming next. The solos go on for a bit too long and sometimes the Yes/Genesis/ELP influence is writ too large, but Naked Sun will overwhelm the progressive minds, and will even excite the most minimal mindsets. Expand your mind with "Psycho-Activate," "The Moment" and "Blackberry Saturday." (RJ/JA)

RUSH Roll The Bones (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019/212-484-8200)—After many an album and numerous tours, the legends of the '70's that pretty much defined the word "progressive metal" are back with their most impressive outing in years. The sound is surprisingly straightforward, and the band is focussing less on being technical, and paying more attention to the songwriting (which follows the usual formula of Lee and Lifeson writing the music while Peart spills out the poetics). Geddy has toned down his voice, avoiding the high-pitched squeals, and the use of a spoken/rap passage on the title track is a pleasant surprise. Likewise, the soloing flashiness of yore has been downplayed. The times are changing here, but Roll The Bones is a much more solid effort than their last couple of albums. It's been quite awhile since these influential trailblazers have had top-of-the-line success, and this one should do the trick. Welcome them back with "Dreamline," "Roll The Bones" and "Bravado." (RJ)

SHORT PLAYS

LAW AND ORDER "Plague Of Ignorance" (5") (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608/818-777-4000)—After a solid but pathetically overlooked '89 debut LP, NYC's Law And Order comes roaring back with a single that'll sprout hair on yer knuckles. A locomotive-powered riff drives the soaring chorus and topical lyrics into a track that stands proud beside anything on either new GNR LP. It's just one highlight from their forthcoming LP, Rites Of Passage. (JA)

UGLY KID JOE "Sweet Leaf/Funky Fresh Country Club" (5") (Stardog, c/o Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019/212-333-8000)—If what we hear is true, these guys told their parents that they were going to college, and then spent the money on booze and equipment—and got themselves signed in the process. The band's, um, enterprising nature comes through on this single, as well: they start off with a strong, fairly straight cover of the Sabbath chestnut before charging off into a streamlined funkathon, and then come back with a total met-ull outro. Weird, but it works. (JA)

REISSUE

SAINT VITUS Heavier Than Thou (SST, P.O. Box 1, Lawndale, CA 90260/213-430-7687)—In the beginning, there was Black Sabbath. Shortly following the weakening of Sabbath, Saint Vitus formed in L.A., and began creating certain sounds quite near and dear to the heavily distorted root of the sweet leaf. While everyone wrote the band off as nothing more than Sabbath clones at the time (and the band themselves admitted their retro fixation on the appropriately-titled Born Too Late!), the ironic thing is that they just may have been born too early. With bands like Soundgarden and Corrosion Of Conformity spreading roots in the Sabbath vein, the retro thing has become something of a progressive thing, rendering Vitus' '80s output worthy of a second, closer look. Here, SST delivers a definitive compilation of previously-released material, drawing from the band's early days ('84-'86, with vocalist Scott Reagers) and their much more potent later lineup, featuring vocalist Scott "Wino" Weinrich). Long a black sheep of the SST catalogue, this album proves Vitus to have been as far ahead of their time as any of their labelmates—track "Clear Windowpane," "Born Too Late," "Thirsty And Miserable," "Dying Inside," "H.A.A.G.," "Shooting Gallery," "War Is Our Destiny" and "Saint Vitus." (KS)

LIVE

BADLANDS (The Ritz, New York City, August 14)—When experiencing a vocal powerhouse like Ray Gillen on disc, you have to wonder whether he can pull it off in a live situation. Well, as the lights went out and Badlands opened with "High Wire," the man split several hairs on my forehead, because the tweeters could barely contain his high notes. A stunned audience stood transfixed as he belted out a fine mix of tunes from the band's debut, as well as the overlooked Voodoo Highway. Guitarist Jake E. Lee was no less phenomenal, as his post-Ozzy blues licks complimented Gillen's sonic assault perfectly. With long guitar solos becoming as painful as long drum solos, I wasn't exactly looking forward to Jake's spotlight solo, but he practically turned into another person, twisting with demonic possession and seeming most comfortable playing unaccompanied. All this and a pounding rhythm section make for a standout quartet in a crowd of over-rated power-blues bands, and there is simply no singer out there that can touch the timbre or agility of Gillen's voice. (RJ)

Jackie Farry, Relativity Records, Hollis, NY (718) 217-3600 Off to a good start: on my third day we had an armed robbery right here in lovely Hollis! Uzi's, machine guns, getaway cars, the whole nine... Relativity, a label to kill or die for. Anyway, NAPALM DEATH just completed the highly successful "New Titans" tour and by now you should have their new LP Death By Manipulation. Coming to you this week will be the Slavestate EP from GODFLESH (finally), as well as a 3-song promo CD from metal axe messiah VINNIE MOORE. Check out "Meltdown," the first single and video. It would be unwise to forget about MORBID ANGEL—they're hittin' the road next week with ENTOMBED and UNLEASHED, so call me for tickets, interviews, etc. JOHN CONNELLY THEORY, FORCED ENTRY and FUDGE TUNNEL will violate you in new and exciting ways so check them out—don't be left out of the big fun.

Brent C. Ashley, Red Decibel Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 872-0646 1. Red Decibel is now manufactured by Metal Blade Records, distributed exclusively by Caroline. 2. November 15: DROP HAMMER Mind And Body, RAPSCALLION Chameleon Drol, LIBIDO BOYZ OPGU. 3. October 29: Red Decibel and Warner Reprise Video present Video Sheet Metal Volume 2, with exclusive interviews, live footage and videos from Agony Column, Alice In Chains, Goo Goo Dolls, Gwar, Helmet, Ice-T's Body Count, Megadeth, Mind Over Four, Prong, Skin Yard, Tad and Thee Hypnotics. 4. Now available: BLOODSTAR's limited edition Death Ray vinyl 10", including "Exterminator 666... Does Not Answer" b/w "Hyperspace" with alien poster insert. 5. Still available: FAT TUESDAY's limited 7" "Joy"/"Locoweed" b/w "Rio." 6. Early '92: The second RDB album from Switzerland's BLOODSTAR, still untitled, and the full length debut from Minneapolis' Fat Tuesday. 7. As it stands: Jake Wisely, El Presidente/Red Deciman; Brent Ashley, radio and press promotions/Red Deciman II; Joedy Dougherty, retail marketing/D-man Jr. 8. Bad week to stop sniffing glue!

Cheryl Valentine, Mercury Records, New York, NY (212) 333-TILT "My hovercraft is full of eels." "If I told you 'you have a beautiful body would you hold it against me?'... We'll just call everyone "Bruce"—it'll lessen the confusion. Our five favorite Bruces are coming to explore America! Being the critically acclaimed lads that they are, everyone is urged to spectate the Bruces' explorations at your nearest dig site. Caution is advised—they may be armed with their dreaded BB guns! I sincerely hope that all of you (y'all to Mert Dunne) are prepared to join me on my quest for Ugliness nationwide. The campaign to become Ugly begins on Sept. 23 and 24: come one, come all, be UGLY! Pert near the same time as "Gettin' Ugly '91" is the release of the movie soundtrack, Harley Davidson And The Marlboro Man. It contains sneak preview tracks from Pete Willis' ROADHOUSE and Andy McCoy's SHOOTING GALLERY. Also highlighted on this various artists dealy are our North Carolina boys, COPPERHEAD, who'll sit for a spell and put away some of that illustrious moonshine with y'all. Till next week my quest is to call everyone myself and hold only two-second conversations.

Charity Kurz, Mechanic Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272 Hey guys! Lots going on here at Mechanic. TRIXTER are still out on the road with Warrant and Firehouse. They are currently in the south and heading for California. Speaking of California, BANG TANGO will be doing a show this weekend in Los Angeles with Ratt, L.A. Guns and Contraband. Thanks to Pirate Radio, KNAC and KIOZ for all the support of the show. Bang Tango's new single "Soul To Soul" is now at AOR. "Soul To Soul" is a killer track. Give it a spin. VOIVOD, Voivod, Voivod. All you progressive radio people get ready. The Angel Rat is coming. It's the new album from Voivod and it will be on your desk in October. If you would like to hear Voivod's story of the Angel Rat please contact Nancy Twomlow or me. Once upon a time...

Rita Cox, Big Chief Records, New York, NY (800) 235-BIGC Now that everyone's back from summer vacation, let's get down to the business of the best new music coming to you. DEAD HORSE will be gracing your desks very soon, and I would like to take this time to tell you that this band is going to be very large! They will also be playing CMJ Metal Marathon. You won't want to miss it! For those in the west, give me a call for info about AGONY COLUMN and Forced Entry dates. Until next time, don't ask if you don't want the answer, check out "Her-man's Head" on FOX, and don't pick your nose while on a date.

Brian Medlin, WXTB, Tampa, FL (813) 572-9808 Forget the Emmy's. Forget the Country Music Awards and by all means forget the Video Music Awards. The only real awards thing happened last week at the Ritz in downtown Tampa. I'm talkin about the 2nd Annual Tampa Bay Metal Awards! A capacity crowd packed the Ritz to witness all the fun and drink a beer or two. OBITUARY won big this year by wining best Tampa Bay Signed Band, Best Tampa Bay Death Band, Best Tampa Bay Album Release and Best Vocalist (John Tardy). Major thanks to the metal moshers who put this thing together, Keith Collins, Frank from Ace's Records, Tony and Dave from No Clubs and all the record companies who provided support. Judging by the success of this year's awards, the moshers of the Bay proved once again that, Tampa is the metal capital of the world. Until next time.

Joanne Grand, National Promotions, Special Rock Operations, RCA Records, New York, NY (212) 930-4000 I know, you're all bummin'. Summer's over, school's in session. Get rid of the bikinis and get ready for the papers, the 2x4 dorm rooms, the tests... Anyway, there's hope on the horizon, some killer bands coming out of the RCA Special Rock Operations office. BIG HOUSE should be in your hands and on your turntables, CD players, whatever! If you don't have it, call me! BULLET LAVOLTA's 3-song advance will be coming shortly. Finally, LITA FORD's 4-song sampler will be coming shortly too, so watch for it! IMPORTANT! Heather's new days are Tuesdays and Fridays, but I'm always here if you need anything. Ta-ta kiddies!

Les Wilson/Michael D. Hall, WBSU, Brockport, NY (716) 395-2580 Hi ho, hi ho, another year to go! Greetings once again from the guys that make the students at this college run for their Pepto Bismol! Now the school year has finally gotten underway and we have moved into our new pad, I can safely say that things are finally under control! You can now plague me with call after call and I can actually tell you how your bands are doing! Just got in the new OVERKILL and NUCLEAR ASSAULT. Absolutely incredible, these two bands! If you haven't tried INFECTIOUS GROOVES yet, then something's not right at your station! I would like to say "Hi!" to Sue at Metallurgy in Syracuse, NY and thank her for being a persistent pain in the ass! Keep up the good work! well, keep the goods rolling in and I'll talk with you later. Oh, by the way, office hours: early/late afternoons, M-F.

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade Records, New York, NY (212) 921-4370 ARMORED SAINT is now on the road with opening acts Last Crack and Wrathchild America. Catch them live! They will blow you away. Just ask anyone who saw them at the Fastlane in Asbury Park this past Saturday. They did a second encore for the fans, since they wouldn't leave and kept screaming "Saint, Saint!" Wow! It was quite the amazing sight. Another band that is quite amazing is PANIC. You can catch them live with Reverend starting October 2 in LA. The CD is amazing so I suggest you play it! Look for ANACRUSIS to be on the road very soon with, let's say Overkill and Mind Funk? HAUNTED GARAGE has landed on your desk. Check out a B-movie and punk/trash all together. CANNIBAL CORPSE continues to get the attention that they deserve. This is the death metal record of 1991! FATES WARNING is coming very soon. Welcome back to Loril

Michael Schnapp, Epic Records, New York, NY (212) 445-5987 I know I'm psyched! Ya see, I'm on the same mailing list as y'all, and I'm sending myself some cool music. This week two excellent CD singles came in. "No More Tears" by OZZY OSBOURNE. Wait till you see the video! Ozzy has returned and this record is very special. All 11 songs will arrive by Friday the 13th! PRONG are back and remain "Unconditional." You've all had the 5-song advance to listen to, so now you can finally play "Unconditional" and Prong your audience. SUICIDAL TENDENCIES are on break, but Mike and Robert are groovin'! I'm holding my breath till the INFECTIOUS GROOVES full CD comes out. The full tape smokes and if you want ID's from Sarsippius, fax all requests and funny drawings to (212) 445-2030 and Gina (the new voice on the phone) will fork 'em over. Gimme Ten! I did! The PEARL JAM record is called Ten. The Alive 3-song CD is getting good phones and you seem to be jammin' Pearl Jam. Look for ALICE COOPER to turn up in the stoopest of places, some so stoopeid I can't even say! MIND FUNK will tour in the end of September, as will Prong. METAL CHURCH and MOTORHEAD will also hit the highways and play soon and FIREHOUSE continue to play till the end of September. Call if you need info on JOAN JETT, DANGER DANGER, the mystery disc, BLITZSPEER or when the soup's will be back. Pea soup still rules, but can you tell me which, on Avenue A, is tastier: a coffee malted or a peanut butter malted? Tough choice!

Will Bryan, KBUT, Crested Butte, CO (303) 349-5225 So, I'm doing my "Wasted Rock Ranger" (somebody at Capitol; I need a copy of GREAT WHITE's W.W.R. on CD) show, having a good jammin' show with good phones... and out of the clear blue sky Mark of BANG TANGO rings me up on the request line. Apparently ole' Mark has some close friends in this little ski resort town who called him up in Cali to let him know that Dancin' On Coals is melting the snow caps off the Rockies. We had a cool little phone interview and topped off the show with a smokin' Bang Tango set. Thanks Mark! THE FOUR HORSEMEN remind me of the first time I did good drugs or topped my car out at 110 MPH... I knew the risks and dangers involved, but said fuck it, did it and thoroughly enjoyed myself. Great, straight ahead, no bullshit rock n' roll is The Four Horsemen. LUCY BROWN adds a good funk edge to our metal play list and airwaves. The Twin Cities' IMPALER shows us how it is done. Plain and simple, ballsy metal! Bob Mould knows they're for real. I respect everything about them. So call Ch. 83 Records (612) 484-4195, get this disc and play it for the masses! Talk hard! See ya!

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records, Burbank, CA (818) 560-5670 Beeeep. This is a test of the emergency Hollywood Metal system (gee, where have I heard this before?). For the next fifty words you will be involved in a test on Hollywood Metal. If this was a real emergency you would have instructed to play all of our records so loudly that your earlobes would burst and you would die, thus relieving you from dying in a major world catastrophe such as a flood, famine or alien polka bands from Venus taking over the planet. Being that this is a test, all you need to do is play, display and go to see THE SCREAM when they are on tour with the Bulletboys and Blackeyed Susan, keep jamming on SACRED REICH, 'cause you people are doing such a smashing job with it already. Add the new QUEEN track "The Hitman," and realize that STRYPER's greatest hits collection has two new songs and "Can't Stop The Rock" is ready and waiting for all of you lovely people. Beeeep. This has been a test of the emergency Hollywood metal system. We will now return to normal programing!

Susan Greenwood, MCA Records, Universal City, CA (818) 777-4118 Oh hil So I'm sitting here thinking of fun and exciting ways to promote my upcoming releases. I could send Bill Fischer naked to every radio station with handcuffs to force all of you to add LAW AND ORDER on September 30th. How about sending live rats out to remind all you wonderful radio people to add VOIVOD on October 7th. Or I could take a picture of Steve Prue holding up the Law And Order and Voivod CD covers, then send it to the trades because you know it will be printed (free publicity). Well, what do you think? I will take any and all suggestions. We here at MCA Records are always willing to do what ever it takes to get our records played. See ya!

Clarissa Garcia, Def American Recordings, Los Angeles, CA (213) 278-6699 WE'RE MOVING! As of Monday, September 16, Def American will be bringing sunshine to the lives of those in Burbank. Our new address will be: Def American Recordings, 3500 West Olive Avenue, Suite 1550, Burbank, CA 91505. And the new phone number is (818) 973-4545. You'll be getting change of address/ phone and fax number cards in the mail. Till then, I'll remind you that WE'RE MOVING. Oh, we'll miss the ol' Sunset Strip, but we'll be closer to Warner Bros. and Reprise, and, more important, my apartment! THE FOUR HORSE-MEN's video for "Nobody Said It Was Easy" to appear on a television near you... and... was that Temple Of The Dog playing in the background during an episode of All My Children last week? I thought so... As L.A. prepares for the move... don't tell me that you love me 'cause I'm a busy gal (thank you Frazier Smith for those immortal words). Oh, and did I tell you? WE'RE MOVING!

Michael Brandvold, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538 ROYAL TRAMPS most excellent cover of Slade's "Gudbye T Jane" was Mad Max's Z-Rock pick of the week for August 23! New stations on this great Finnish group include WUJC, WGRZ and KSJCI. VISHUSGRUV's self-titled debut is kicking it out on over 60 stations with WUJC, WGRZ, WRCT and KCLB jumping onboard! If you're looking for a great anthem then give "If It's Too Loud" a listen! You'll love it! That's all.

John "Cliff" Daub, WXJM, Harrisonburg, VA (703) 568-6878 Oh what fun the summer has been! I have returned to lovely James Madison University ready to start a new year. WXJM just finished its virgin summer, and it was like most virgin experiences...what the fuck are we doing? Actually it wasn't too bad, but please live with me and WXJM while we get everything straightened out. Really quickly, I want to thank all the people that made my summer cool. Nancy, Sebastian (ha) and all at Mechanic (yes, you too, Mandu); Mark, Vinny and Roadrunner for a cool evening of running amuck in south Manhattan; my homeboys, Brent and Jake for the fucking cool times that can't be mentioned here; the COUP DE GRACE for the kickass show and the birthday celebration afterwards at Rita's at 4 a.m.; everyone that got me into shows for free (they all rocked!); everyone that I met in New York; and last but not in the least bit, Rita Cox for giving me a place to crash and being so cool — love you, babe (finally, I get my AGONY COLUMN jacket)! Well, all you music types out there, give me a call and let's shoot the proverbial shit. This year is going to be a test for me. Bear with my new department runnings and PLEASE give me feedback as to how well it works for you, cause if it sucks, I want to fix it! Later, dudel

Missi Callazzo/Jessica Harley/Monica Riggi, Megaforce Records/Crazed Management, Manalapan, NJ (908) 972-3456 Make OVERKILL #11 The time has come to decide what we are going to do to make Overkill #11 Last year, as you all remember, we refrained from sex! We stuck by that. Now Jessica refuses to refrain. And so does Missi! But another part of the bargain is for you to play LUCY BROWN a lot. If you have not seen them live, make sure you do! They are a killer live band. The video for "Colorblind" will be making its MTV debut in the coming weeks. Besides, if the Lucy Brown record makes it in the top 10 our boss will give us each $100. If you have any suggestions as to what we can do to get them to #1, let us know! ANTHRAX will be back on the road with Public Enemy, Young Black Teenagers and Primus! Play "Parasite!" VIO-LENCE are currently working on their record with producer Michael Rosen. Look for the record in stores this November. MIND FUNK will be touring all across the nation in support of their self-titled debut. For every week that Overkill is at #1, Jessica said she would get a new tattoo! MINISTRY has a single coming on October 22. The name of the track is "Jesus Built My Hot/Rod." It was a 1969 Camarol! The song is amazingly brilliant, you'll just have to wait to hear it! Lucy Brown top 10 and Overkill #1, PLEASE MAKE IT HAPPEN!

On call again was producer Mark Dodson, who removed the gate-y drums and brought the bass up, as well as several other things. "Dodson was really great, 'cause I go through these weird mood swings in the studio—he should get a medal just for putting up with that! He had a lot of valuable input with vocal melody lines and arrangements and stuff."

The transition seems as smooth as you could possibly hope for, but does Gregory see his role in the band as a democratic one?

"Actually quite a bit," he quickly answers. "A lot of the songs were written before I joined the band, but we worked on the arrangements. Like 'Hell If I Could' was a song I had had for a while—the music for that was for the band I was in right before Prong—but Tommy and Ted came up with their own parts for it. And on 'Unconditional,' none of the words had been written and some of the arranging had to be worked on, so Tommy and I sat down and worked on it. Before, it was mostly Tommy and Ted working on things. When I joined the band, Tommy told me he wanted me to act like I'd been in the band from day one, and I told him, 'Don't worry, I will.' He did a lot of, 'What do you think of this,' and 'What should we do here?' It's not just Tommy—everyone has a lot of input, and for the next record, it will probably be even more so. Although when I heard the songs for this record, I thought they were great and if I didn't take the gig I would be an idiot.

"I play a lot different than Mike. I come from a jazz background—not like your Kenny G-type 'Let's smoke some pot, sit on the rug and get into crystals' jazz, but Mingus, Coltrane, Dolphy, guys that used to booze up all night and play the most sick dissonant jazz. I've never really been a metalhead. I liked Venom, just 'cause they sing about Satan, but I like Motorhead, early Metallica.

"I did stupid gigs in the past, you know, for money 'cause I was starving to death, but it's not like I joined this band to whore off of them for a while. I really, really like this band, I like the stuff they're doing and it's totally what I want to do."

If there was ever a record Prong could make that would break them on a respectable level without losing a drop of integrity, Prove You Wrong is it. Raw and crisp in sound, savage and angst-laden in attitude, the album lives up to every ounce of hype, and then some. Or, as Troy put it best, "It's everything I've wanted to do and it's everything that those guys wanted to do. It's a nice blend of different styles without doing what a lot of people are trying do now, which is, 'We can take all these different influences: here's a bit of this, here's a bit of that, doesn't it make us clever?' With Prong it's pretty natural. If you hear a lot of things in music that you like and it just happens to be from one end of the spectrum to the other, obviously it's going to pop up in your music and you really don't have to try—that is, if you keep yourself open and try not to target a particular market. That's what makes this record so great. The fact is, who cares who buys it just as long as somebody does, and who cares what they call us as long as someone is at least looking in our direction. Whichever direction that is..."

CMJ COUNTRY

JACKPOT!

TEXAS TORNADOS Zone Of Our Own (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—The Texas Tornados, our kind of musical supergroup, are back and ready to rock your world. Zone Of Our Own is a wonderful complement to last year's rightfully acclaimed debut; it's a hearty amalgam of Tex-Mex, R&B, conjunto and good ol' rock 'n roll. Starting with "Is Anybody Going To San Antoine," a blast of top-down summertime pop that carries Augie Meyers' trademark bouncing organ riffs, the Tornados guide you through their distinctive stylebook. There's the sensual, exotic rhythms of "Bailando"; Doug Sahm's hard-rocking guitar workout, "I'm Not That Kat Anymore"; the Freddy Fender-style bluesy ballad, "Oh Holy One"; and the Spanish conjunto workout "El Pantalón Blue Jean" displaying the accordion magic of Flaco Jimenez. A year ago it would have been hard to come up with a more unlikely foursome to challenge today's concept of country music. The Texas Tornados are more fun than a dozen hat acts, and Zone Of Our Own is one tasty jalapeno-stuffed tortilla.

SUZY BOGGUSS Aces (Capitol, 1111 16th Ave. S., Nashville, TN 37212)—Aces, the third release from Suzy Bogguss, may not be the masterpiece she has in her, but it's as close as she's come yet. Bogguss has picked a bunch of hard-hitting songs, written by such top notch writers as Nanci Griffith and Tom Russell, Cheryl Wheeler, Beth Nielson Chapman and Ian Tyson and added just the right amount of fresh-faced charm. Aces is a most enjoyable listen; it challenges and amply displays her warm, confident vocals. The fact that she gets co-producer credit (along with the ubiquitous Jimmy Bowen) should not go overlooked—not many female artists out of Nashville are given this opportunity and Bogguss makes the most of it. She gives each tune the proper framework, adding gospel-tinged organ on "Save Yourself," strummed acoustic guitars to "Outbound Plane" and sweet, lilting pedal steel to "Someday Soon." Another standout track is the one Bogguss co-wrote with husband Dan Crider, "Yellow River Road," a marvel for the economy of words used to tell a complex story that also contains a standout melody and hooky chorus.

LADIES ROOM

Here's a few releases by some worthwhile female artists. PATTY LOVELESS has a new one called Up Against My Heart (MCA, 70 Universal City Plaza, Universal City, CA 91608) that's sure to please her fans. While it doesn't break any new ground, it is chock full of inspired songs that show off Patty's sturdy vocals, surrounded by Nashville's top session players giving it their all. Check out the slinky "Jealous Bone," the Kevin Welch-penned "I Came Straight To You" and the rockin' "Waitin' For The Phone To Ring." . . . Coming from the Pacific Northwest and sounding nothing like the current rage of hair-twirling grunge rockers emanating from that region is RANCH ROMANCE. This female group's debut for Sugar Hill (P.O. Box 4040, Duke Station, Durham, NC 27706/901-489-4349), Blue Blazes, shows their skill at a wide range of styles, ranging from swing to bluegrass to blues, all done with a lot of heart. Comparisons to Wild Rose and the Dixie Chicks are not out of line, so if you're a fan of those groups check out the stellar musicianship on "Racin' Burning Bridges," "Heartaches" and the title track. . . . In a totally different vein is Tango (High Street, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Suite 1430, Burbank, CA 91505/818-972-4242) from New England folkie PATTY LARKIN. Besides being a remarkable guitarist, Larkin is an impressive songwriter equally at ease with composing pensive romantic ballads, sharp social commentary and amusing bits of fluff. While the territory she mines is similar to Shawn Colvin and Suzanne Vega, Larkin's deep, husky vocals are distinctive. Don't miss the haunting "Time Was," the playful, rhythmic "Dave's Holiday" and the stark vision presented on "Metal Drums."

SHORT SHOTS

Shut Up And Die Like An Aviator (MCA, see address above) is the live album from STEVE EARLE AND THE DUKES you've been hearing about for a while and it's a killer. Recorded a year ago in Ontario, the songs span Earle's entire career, from such early material as "The Devil's Right Hand" to tunes from last year's The Hard Way and includes cool covers of Sir Douglas Quintet's "She's About Mover" and the Rolling Stones' "Dead Flowers." The Dukes are in prime form, wound up tight and set to explode, while Earle's sarcastic onstage manner shines through. Not just for fans, this is the best live set you'll hear all year. . . . DAVID OLNEY is a songwriter who's been kicking around Nashville for almost 20 years and, like John Hiatt or Guy Clark, has become many other songwriters' favorite songwriter. Olney's latest, Roses (Philo, c/o Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge, MA 02140/617-354-0700), is an interesting mix of traditional sounds filled with fiddles, acoustic guitars, mandolin and his interesting tunes overflowing with vivid images. Give a listen to the down-home sounds of "Millionaire," along with "Rose Tattoo" and the bluesy swing of "Luckiest Man" and "Don't Keep It A Secret." . . . With Great Gonzos, MCA (address above) has compiled some of the best of one of the originators of what's been called "Texas Music," that wonderful mix of country, rock, folk, blues and whatever else is handy into a congenial whole. JERRY JEFF WALKER, along with the Lost Gonzo Band, had a string of successful albums in the mid '70s, from which these tracks are taken; although I'd recommend getting your hands on the complete LPs (newly available on CD)—especially the classic Viva Terlingua—this is as good a place as any to get a taste of what the Gonzos were up to. Jerry Jeff is perhaps best known for writing "Mr. Bojangles" and giving Guy Clark his first exposure, recording "L.A. Freeway" and "Desperados Waiting For A Train" and those are all here along with such rowdiness as "Up Against The Wall Redneck" and "London Homesick Blues." . . . Another new disc that will be a prize in any collection of country music is Rhino's (2225 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404/213-828-1980) latest on GEORGE JONES, The Best Of (1955-1967). It's 18 songs from the man who's been called the "greatest living country singer"; he's influenced everyone from Buck Owens to the Grateful Dead to Elvis Costello. It's hard to pick favorites here but don't miss "What Am I Worth," "Don't Stop The Music," "She Thinks I Still Care" and "The Race Is On."

FILLER 'UP

The fine folks at Diesel Only (100 N. 6th St., Brooklyn, NY 11211/212-674-0044) keep on pumping out those 7" records that sound great on the jukebox at your favorite truck stop or blasting from the radio while speeding down the highway. The TWANGLERS put down a steady groove and make things interesting by throwing a banjo into the mix, while singer Monica "L'il Mo" Passin warbles her best Loretta Lynn on "Two Hearts." The WORLD FAMOUS BLUE JAYS get down and dirty in their inimitable way on "Cheeseburger Deluxe," the A-side, while Jay Sherman-Godfrey gets to show off his guitar prowess on the surf-styled flip, "Cookin' With Jay." In a more subdued mood is MUMBO GUMBO. Their sprite mix of guitar, mandolin, accordion and lilting harmonies on "Summertime Love" is like a cool breeze on a sweltering day. If smoldering Southern rock is more your style give a listen to GWIL OWEN. "Messed Up Thing" and "Tennessee Hi-way Blues" are guitar rave-ups in the Georgia Satellite vein that shows Owen to be a rocker with some promise. In closing, I'd like to point out that Diesel Only is doing a great job of uncovering some of the lesser known talent in the country-roots scene. Give 'em a holler and they'll be glad to service you with these and more from their catalog.

FRESH!

PM DAWN Of The Heart, Of The Soul And Of The Cross: The Utopian Experience (Gee Street, c/o Island, 14 E. 4th St., New York, NY 10012)—

It's quickly becoming apparent that rap music is becoming everything all the soothsayers and pessimists said it wouldn't years ago. The artform is breaking out of its shackles of predictable rap, loop, bassline and becoming the main ingredient by which most other forms of music are being built (case in point: Siouxsie & The Banshees' "Kiss Them For Me" is based around Schoolly D's "P.S.K."). PM Dawn—New Jersey natives Prince Be and DJ Minutemix—has brought simple pop music to another level. Their worthy title best explains them. Of The Heart, Of The Soul: Instantly perceived by their Native Tongue delivery, their soft, breezy harmonies flow beautifully with Prince Be's soothing lyrics. Most of the songs are sung rather than rapped (check the lovely "Paper Doll"), which make their cuts feel more like pop songs. Of The Cross: PM Dawn's lyrics are spiritually based with touches of psychedelia and surrealism ("To Serenade A Rainbow")—the "Intro" states "I wanna say what's up to God." The Utopian Experience: This LP has been designed for a perfect society; it's for a colorless world where people look at the music rather than the genre it originates from. There are summer anthems like "In The Presence Of Mirrors," the Spandau Ballet-sampled "Set Adrift On Memory Bliss" with harmonies that sound like they were left off the original and the Todd Terry-produced "Shake." Plenty of cuts are similar to the first single, "A Watchers Point Of View," which boast defined grooves layered over a shimmering collection of music, vocals and an overall style that defines "cool." It's the dawning of a new musical era!

NIKKI D Daddy's Little Girl (Def Jam, c/o Columbia, P.O. Box 4450, New York, NY 10101-4450)—Yes, she is the first female rapper ever to be signed directly to the legendary Def Jam label—is that enough to sell records? To rank with her counterparts she's gotta be dope, she's gotta be hard, she's gotta have skills and most importantly, she's gotta be funky. With shouts given to Yo-Yo, MC Lyte and Queen Latifah, Nikki D (a.k.a. Nichele Strong) falls somewhere between Yo-Yo and Lyte—her lyrical delivery possesses attitude and force like Lyte ("Sunny Daze"), while speaking about issues that face many urban females (a la Yo-Yo). She proves to be an intelligent and determined MC while she's not ashamed to get frank or explicit in her approach (just listen to "Wasted P!#y" and the Sade-sampled "18 And Loves To Go"). Backing up Nikki is a reputable crew of producers that includes the Leaders Of The New School ("Monday We'll Be Together" and "The Beauty Shop"), Smooth Ice, The Large Professor and Downtown Science's Sam Sever (who does a club mix for "Lettin' Off Steam").

ON THE CHART

Talk about boring! Of the top 11 records on this week's chart, there have only been two changes. Like last week, Naughty By Nature remains at the top while everything remains the same, until you get to #8, where KRS-One's H.E.A.L. project takes a step 13-8 and Rap-A-Lot-Priority's Geto Boys fall 8-9. Poor Righteous Teachers (21-12) and A Tribe Called Quest (17-13) are running neck-and-neck up the chart, and just getting out of the blocks is MC Lyte, who makes this week's highest debut with her new LP Act

Like You Know at #22. Other newcomers to the party include Gee Street-Island's PM Dawn at #35, Critique's Posse NFX at #39 and MC 900 Ft. Jesus With DJ Zero's "Killer Inside Me" at #40. This week's Adventure Picks as chosen by our loyal reporters: 1) MC Lyte; 2) Ed O.G And Da Bulldogs; 3) H.E.A.L.; 4) A Tribe Called Quest; 5) Def Jef; 6) Naughty By Nature; 7) Resident Alien; 8) Syik Smoov; 9) Nikki D; 10) Del Tha Funkee Homosapien. (BEAT BOX REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

you'd spin them like they need to be spun. The first is a conglomeration of artists and musicians you could only imagine in your wettest dreams on MATERIAL's The Third Power (Axiom, c/o Island, see address above). Producer Bill Laswell pulls the strings on one of the most smokin' groove machines ever assembled with talent ranging from roots and reggae artists like Shabba Ranks, Sly Dunbar and Robbie Shakespeare, and the Last Poets' Jalaluddin Mansur Nuriddin, to contemporary hip-hopsters like the Jungle Brothers and one of the most killer funk rhythm sections headed by Bootsy Collins. Check out the cover of Bob Marley's "Mellow Mood" and the nasty version of "Cosmic Slop." The other Island item is VARIOUS ARTISTS Tunes From The Missing Channel. The work of Island's Bill Adler, Tunes is out to show (as stated in the title) that hip-hop is the "new rock for the '90s." Yes, this probably does include artists on other labels as well, but with a roster that includes diverse artists like PM Dawn, Dream Warriors, Stereo MC's, Disposable Heroes Of Hiphopricy and Anthrax, you've got a pretty good head start in showing the world how to break rap out of its confining label. The liner notes note that groups like DJ Jazzy Jeff and Salt-N-Pepa are pop while groups like Public Enemy and N.W.A. are rock—think hard, you'll get it.

DEF 12

DR. ALBAN "No Coke" [112 BPM] (Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—An endless electro-dance-hall reggae groove and lyrics make "No Coke" a potential club/dancefloor bomb. On the B-side, "Groove Machine" burns with Technotronic samples, live crowd cheers and a razor-sharp bassline in a frenzied combination of hip-hop and dance.

AND WE GOT...

Other singles going steady include the new remix by BRAND NUBIAN of "All For One" (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019); QUEEN MOTHER RAGE's "Mental Erection" (Cardiac, 1790 Broadway, 6th Fl., New York, NY 10019); and, so you know it's been done, M.C. PEACHES' crafty reworking of the Police classic on "Every Breath You Take (Watching You)" (East West, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019) which has got commercial hit written all over it. Peace to Pumpkin, Money Moses, Ali and the Arkansas Razorbacks! Word Out.

JACKPOT!

ASTOR PIAZZOLLA Love Tanguedia (Tropical Storm, 4100 W. Alameda Ave. #206, Toluca Lake, CA 91505)—

If this is love, beware! I'll spare you a history of this giant of the tango (see my Jackpot! in the Sept. 6 issue). This is elemental Piazzolla, performed with his Contemporary Tango Quintet, occasionally with an orchestral backing. These are raw, vibrant, often visceral pictures of romance unadorned, sexually explicit sonic portraits of life and times on the streets of Argentina. The breath of the bandoneon, the shuffling scrape of the bow on the cello, the shriek of the violin, the moan of the bass, the incessant rhythm of the piano; they speak fluently and directly of love and lust, pain and passion. "Tanguedia III" tells volumes about the sensuality of music, "Milonga Loca" about romance turning to ecstasy. This is primal tango, each instrument a character in a play with no bit parts. Each line from each member of the quintet grabs the listener, demanding its side of the story be heard. Enchantment, heartbreak and pure unadulterated sex are played out on string and reed in a pas de deux of dark and light. These recordings from 1984-87 are essential Piazzolla as he achieved both artistic and critical heights.

HAMISH MOORE AND DICK LEE

The Bees Knees (Green Linnet, 43 Beaver Brook Road, Danbury, CT 06810/203-730-0333)—I said about two years ago that the instrument of the '90s would be that musical wheeze known as the gaida, the duda, the sack o' wind from the other side of hell—the bagpipes. The bagpipes have the intensity of rock, the slides of blues, and in the right hands, a hint of the subtlety of jazz. Hamish Moore, piper and whistle blower, takes on all of these forms, as well as traditional Celtic music, with gusto. Prodded by the horns and synths of Dick Lee, the music on The Bees Knees often finds new and interesting ground, while occasionally stumbling into a tar pit of false experimentation. The opening cut is a jazz/rock experiment that works well, adding cello, bass and drums to their own breezy arsenal in a fit of skewed tempos and changes. It's the intensity of the playing that keeps it going, something that fails them on a few other cuts as they try for a more free-association style that gets bogged down in itself. Some of the biggest surprises in the set are the traditional tunes, which are played with excitement and skill, and just a hint of the earlier skewing. Mixing jazz and folk tradition is far too uncommon in the music world, but as more and more musicians from one side reach into the other, an interesting new hybrid is emerging that should prove fertile ground in the future.

SHANKAR M.R.C.S. (ECM, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019/212-333-8478)—

Someone at the company referred to this as "Shankar goes pop" but it is really only so in relation to how far out the rest of his music can get. This Indian violinist has been pushing the outside edge of traditional and experimental music for many years, working within the strict guidelines of his native music here and burning the rule books there. Originally meant to be a solo album with a drum machine, the music proved too challenging for a mere

ON THE CHART

Make room for the Itals, who move up to #1 on our charts this week, but look out, for right behind them, EEK-A-MOUSE may be ready to pounce. There seems to have been lots of juggling around amongst the various participants this week, but frankly, it looks like nothing really shocking went down amidst all the little jumps and hops and swivels. It's elsewhere on our chart that the intrigue lies, as the camera pans left to reveal Our Boys Steel Orchestra drumming in at #16. Behind them, Israel Vibration checks in at #19 with Forever, their latest offering from RAS. They're not flashy or showy, but their music is some of the best and most earnest that reggae has going for it. Check it out. (NEW WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) silicon brain, and the hands and hearts of percussionists Zakir Hussain, Vikku Vinayakram and Jon Christensen had to be employed to accompany his soulfully erratic songs. This album represents neither the deeply devotional or the deeply weird, but rather dances around the center, throwing you off guard, but never out of the circle. There is a beauty to these pieces that transcends style and a simplicity of sound that belies the complexity of emotion. The rhythms come from both Indian and European ideas, from raga to march tempo. The melody comes from somewhere either very deep within, or way out in the cosmos. For the new listener it is a great introduction to one of the masters. It is an interesting side trip for the initiated.

MAJEK FASHEK AND THE PRISONERS OF CONSCIENCE Spirit of Love (Interscope, c/o East West America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—

Majek Fashek has always skirted the edge of pop-reggae, never committing to a modern groove completely, as if he's nervous it might swallow him up. As a result, his recordings, while musically and politically devoted, were always edgy and a little unsatisfactory to my ears. So it is strange that the first album to really appeal to me is his most determinedly pop-oriented, high-tech and produced recording. My first impulse is to say that this is what Marley would sound like today, a full blown modern rock band with a message from Africa and the Caribbean to the rest of the world.

This is less a reggae album than an album of the African continuum, with soukous guitars, rock drums and reggae basslines flowing like so much water over the "genre"ic dam. It is a superb, mostly acoustic production that uses west African percussion and north African oboe lines as integral elements rather than cute additions to a "world music" sound. There are almost no tracks not to recommend, but try "Religion is Politics" for the message, "Majek Fashek In New York" for the groove and "Spirit Of Love" for inspiration. Once more, a record that is everything I normally hate becomes a favorite. Just goes to show you that critics aren't worth the longbox the music gets packed in.

EWAN NOT KIRSTY

Don't miss the revival recording of the great work of political songster EWAN MacCOLL. This man sang directly and clearly for the little man and woman—the miner, the cook, the wife and husband who are suppressed and sometimes brutally put down by the day-to-day of life in modern society. MacColl conveyed strength in adversity in the tradition of the great balladeers. Black And White (Green Linnet, address above) features longtime partner Peggy Seeger, Neill, Hamish and Kirsty MacColl and Oyster Ian Tefler. They are angry, joyous and hopeful songs. Essential.

JACKPOT!

AL DI MEOLA World Sinfonia (Tomato, c/o Mesa/Bluemoon, 209 E. Alameda Ave., #101, Burbank, CA 91502)—Grace, beauty, passion and vision coalesce into a wondrous whole on World Sinfonia, the new acoustic quartet outing from guitarist Al Di Meola. A natural progression from his three somewhat overlooked Brazilian-tinged albums of the mid-to late '80s—Cielo E Terra, Soaring Through A Dream and Tirami Su—World Sinfonia continues Di Meola's acoustic adventures south of the border. One is loathe to term World Sinfonia jazz per se (world tango is more like it), as this 10-tune, 63-minute CD abounds with tonal color, snappy percussion and spontaneity. Di Meola, who earned immediate raves as a teenager in 1974 when he joined Chick Corea's influential fusion outfit Return To Forever, updates as well as internationalizes tango music by joining forces with Argentine bandoneon (button accordion) player Dino Scluzzi, Venezuelan classical guitarist Chris Carrington, Armenian percussionist Arto Tunçboyacı and New York-based hand-percussionist Gumbo Ortiz. Choice cuts on this orchestrally evocative project include a 12 1/2-minute remake of Corea's "No Mystery" and the two-part, nearly 18-minute "Tango Suite" by Argentine bandoneon master Astor Piazzolla. Search your station's racks for Piazzolla's Tango: Zero Hour (American Clave/MCA), the 1986 Kip Hanrahan-produced masterpiece of seductive swing, which will sound beautiful alongside "Tango Suite."

TENOR GLADNESS

It's hard to deny that Sonny Rollins is "the world's finest living improviser," but for pure bravura tenor playing, GEORGE COLEMAN is, in the estimation of many, including yours truly, the keeper of the keys to the tenor kingdom. The barrel-chested Coleman, whose burning, swirling tenor has benefitted bands led by Miles Davis, Max Roach and many others in the past two-and-a-half decades, has made an album for an unspecified French label that is sure to cement his glowing reputation. No release date has been set. Big George and the label are wrangling over the money, an inside source reveals, but on the basis of an advance cassette, this date finds Coleman at the peak of his powers. With longtime pianist Harold Mabern, bassist Ray Drummond and drummer "Smiling" Billy Higgins backing him up, goading him to greater heights, one would expect no less. The saxist's circular breathing technique (which, in typically modest fashion, he has dismissed as a "circus trick") is positively breathtaking on this date. He's even perfected this technique (a simultaneous inhaling and exhaling) on the soprano, an instrument with peevish intonation. Until this session is released, we'll have to take solace in Cole-

ON THE CHART

One challenger has fallen, but there is another one to take his place. Rookie Antonio Hart slips 2-3 to allow the plugged in Chick Corea Elektric Band (4-2) to become the closest rival to eight-week chart champ David Sanborn. Perhaps there are future challengers in Verve-PG pianist Stephen Scott, who makes a grand leap into the top five (16-5) and Jackie McLean (14-7) and his sax, joining Dr. John and crew of Bluesiana II (13-8) in the top ten. Not a week for big moves, but Acoustic Alchemy (15-12) and McCoy Tyner's tribute to John Coltrane (18-16) are making their way toward the top ten. Other notable debuts include super saxman Paquito D'Rivera (#20) and the amazing six-string feats of Mike Stern (#21). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) man's lovely duet with pianist Richie Beirach, Convergence (Triloka), which also sports some nifty soprano work by the big man... Methinks Coleman (soon to be making his first tour of Japan) merits an immediate critical upgrade. Although drummer Tony Williams is said to have despised Coleman's playing when both were members of Miles Davis' quintet circa 1963-64 (according to the trumpeter's autobiography), the tenorman's performance on a newly issued import CD with the Davis quintet, Cote Blues (JMY), finds him in top form. Recorded July 26, 1963, in France, Cote Blues presents the quintet (Herbie Hancock and Ron Carter round out the band) clicking on all cylinders on such numbers as "All Blues," "Stella By Starlight" and "Seven Steps To Heaven," the latter a tour de force of circular breathing by Coleman. Cote Blues won't be easy to find, but specialty jazz shops should be able to track it down. It's worth the effort... Given his penchant for sitting-in (with everyone from the Grateful Dead to Bruce Springsteen), tenorman BRANFORD MARSALIS is more than likely to engage in a bit of jamming with Steve Coleman when the two hornmen bring their respective bands to the Joyce Theatre in Manhattan Sept. 11-15 for what's being billed as an "Extraordinary Sax Showdown." Coleman, the street-funky M-BASE altman, comes in with his Five Elements group (which has cut two CDs for Novus/RCA), and Marsalis will hook up with his regular trio mates Jeff "Tain" Watts on drums and Robert Hurst on bass. Marsalis' The Beautiful Ones Are Not Yet Born (he's a great one for titles, eh?), a trio side on Columbia with the aforesaid players, hits the streets in October, so he should be flush with new material... RICKEY FORD doesn't qualify as a youngblood, nor is he an old-timer or a parolee, so (like 80% of the musicians in jazz) he gets scant press attention these days. That's a shame. A rough-and-tumble tenorist with an advanced harmonic portfolio (as his Muse records attest), Ford has fashioned a solid working unit (as his two Candid CDs attest) with pianist Jaki Byard, bassist Milt Hinton and drummer Ben Riley that shouldn't be taken for granted. At Birdland in Gotham on Sept. 16-17, the quartet will record again for Candid and be filmed for a French documentary. Ford's association with Muse (160 W. 71st St., New York, NY 10023), moreover, continues with the newly issued Hard Groovin' on which he reverses his Candid situation (in which he's the youngest musician) by surrounding himself with younger cats. When Hard Groovin' was recorded in February 1989, Marsalis-men Watts (drums) and Hurst (bass) were already attracting attention, but pianist Geoff Keezer and trumpeter Roy Hargrove were barely out of Berklee; now, of course, Keezer and Hargrove stand atop the youngblood ranks with strong leadership dates on Blue Note and Novus, respectively. The timing of this release might make it seem that Ford, media darling in the mid-'80s and seemingly passe by the '90s, is riding the coattails of his esteemed juniors in a bid to regain his lost prominence. That is not the case. Ford, heard here on alto besides tenor, penned five tunes for the occasion to go with Keezer's "Masaman" and Fats Waller's "Jitterbug Waltz." Hard Groovin' lives up to its name, and one hopes Ford, who's been making records since the late '70s (before the neoclassical renaissance), regains the stature he's lost through no fault of his own. All along his playing has been bold, tenacious and cerebral, and that's what counts.

Hey, that new LONNIE BROOKS sure kicks some ass, doesn't it? If you haven't heard it, go raid that specialty show bin you immediately consigned it to and listen, listen, listen. Please don't limit your perception of alternative to the latest angst-ridden, grunge-laden rock music. Encourage your DJs to stretch their tastes and give your listeners the chance to hear the blues, rap, country, reggae, folk, world, jazz and any other good piece of music they aren't playing. JOHNNY HEARTSMAN is a new name to practically all of you no doubt, but this guy has been doing sessions since the 1950s for the likes of Jimmy McCracklin, Al King, Jimmy Wilson, etc. Jazzy, sophisticated blues are the order of the day for Johnny, so listen and enjoy, you won't regret it. What am I listening to lately? Glad you asked. LIVING CHICAGO BLUES (all four volumes are in heavy in my car), the new Poncho Sanchez live record (viva mambo!), Metallica (special thanks to the clerk who sold it to me), Jimmy Dawkins All For Business (Delmark reissue featuring Jimmy and Otis Rush), Bluesiana II, trombonist Ray Anderson live at Chicago Jazz Fest and the upcoming reissue from us of an inspiring, all acoustic BUDDY GUY & JUNIOR WELLS release. Later.

remember what they're really called... I'm well aware that during my tenure at Homestead Records I was never lucky enough to work with groups as talented or commercially successful as Personal Effects, the Bags or Indestructible Noise Command, but I guess Steev Riccardo just had to rub it in. I'll never know the joy of rubbing shoulders with the members of Ratt, I'll never get to attend a White Lion record release party, nor will I ever sleep with Cher. I did, however, learn how to spell my own name... Maybe those Homestead promos didn't fetch enough loot for a Big Mac, but I'm sure Steev scrounged up sufficient change in time for Happy Hour at Downtown Beirut... Just saw something on the E! channel about Steev Riccardo being arrested. Seems he was using Denny Terrio's credit cards, tough break... Taking a tip from our mentors at MTV, starting in January '92, Matador will split into three different record labels, each focusing on a particular subgenre. Matador Lite will specialize in modern adult contemporary acts, kind of like Connie Champagne or Chris Isaak, though not nearly as good (really, we'd settle for Dean Wareham). Label #2, Best Regards Records, will exclusively feature artists who record for Matador only because they are contractually obliged to (Teenage Fanclub, Royal Trux). The third label, Doormat Records, will only sign bands that sound like Pavement (though not Pavement themselves).

Greg Dubrow, Sky Records Inc., Philadelphia, PA (800) 779-0759
We here at Sky were only too pleased (!!) to find out that we had contributed to the celibacy, growing drug dependence and bad attitude of Mike Wolf, formerly of WMMR in Minneapolis. I'm sorry (maybe not) to see such a "trusted" arbiter of good taste in music turn out like that, especially anyone with an attitude that most MDs "think, eat and report uninteresting music." Glad to know who speaks for the cooler side of the universe, Mike. When I saw Mike at the CMJ, I wondered why he was leaning to one side all the time. It's obvious now that the chip on his shoulder was weighing down on him too much. . . . Once again a new school year is upon us, so please call and let us know when you return, or if your office hours have changed and we haven't been able to get hold of you. . . . To all fall returnees, you should find the debut release from Atlanta's INSANE JANE on your desk. Also there, and not to be overlooked, are new releases from THE ORB, the ODDS, TITANIC LOVE AFFAIR, POP'S COOL LOVE and WIDESPREAD PANIC. HAUNTED GARAGE should have just arrived. "Blue Sky" is the new single from BLUE HEARTS and look for them to hit the road in the fall. . . . Call me toll-free (# above) or Mike Kondo at 800-442-3142 with questions or comments. Remember, my address has NOT been changed.

Tom T., Mango/Antilles Records, New York, NY (212) 995-7800
Well, anutha summah has quickly slipped thru my vise-like grasp. . . . Did half of NMS, totally blew Lollapalooza, Metallica's Mad Square Garden listening party and Prince's secret MTV hi-roller-groupie Ritz gig; checked only one of the Brand New Heavies' many Apple shows, missed Fela and Cabaret Voltaire. Labor Day weekend was seriously slammin'. . . . ya mus-mus check out Dead Again—Hitchcock be proud! Oh yeh. . . . da muzick: SALIF KEITA's master move Amen is still du disque du choice (deal wit' "Karifa" and "N B'I Fe"), BURNING SPEAR's Jah Kingdom is maximum roots wit' no apology (cut-wize "Should I" and "Estimated Prophet" are thrillahs) and Antigua's pride-n-joy the BURNING FLAMES are funkin' the flow with their Mango debut Dig (look up "Island Girl" and "Workey Workey"). Antilles proves once again that we gots the goodz with the release of Latin trumpet legend-in-the-making CHARLIE SEPULVEDA's thermonuclear set The New Arrival, Brazilian jazz-god WAGNER TISO's sublime collection Baobab (guest star SALIF KEITA!) and trombone meister STEVE TURRE's world-class entry Right There. There is more to come but y'all just gonna have to wait! Later, gator, skip the flanger and dig the fader.

Chuck Panossian, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929
Welcome back to school, kiddies! While some of you were out these events occurred: SMASHING PUMPKINS Gish (see them at both WFNX's and WDRE's B-day bashes), SPRINGHOUSE Landfalls (see them at WDRE's B-day bash too!), YOUNG GODS Play Kurt Weill (on tour this winter), LA MUERTE Kustom Kar Kompetition, CHUCK TREECE Dream'n and GUMBALL Special Kiss. Catch up with your homework. . . . On your turntables now: HOLE's Pretty On The Inside and MONSTER MAGNET's Spine of God (not to be confused as Spinal Tap of God). Coming very soon—ACTION SWINGERS, the OVERLORDS & LORDS OF ACID. Coming very far away—THINK TREE.

RonSSTer, SST Records, Lawndale, CA (213) 430-7687

TROTSKY ICEPICK's national "God Under The Couch" tour is underway and sure to get their cunning cuts from The Ultraviolet Catastrophe sticking to your skull. . . . NO MAN's brand new heavy rock trio thang will be ripping across the states by Halloween. Meanwhile, their latest slab of sound, How The West Was Won, is shooting up the radio trail and the clip for "Wounded World" is inflicting chaos on the tubes of the world. . . . The LEAVING TRAINS have a new 7-incher due next month that will cause the Pope to pop a few veins in his head. . . . Peace, Love & Who Gives A Shit.

Jeff Lunt, Mesa/Bluemoon Recordings, Burbank, CA (818) 841-8585

Just over the Mesa and under the Bluemooon Jah lives, Ahhh. . . . We be jammin!! Mesa records be yammin da sounds ah da world. Tis a beautiful ting! Yes we be exploring the sounds of the world and with grand fashion. Alright kut the schpeel and get down to da biz; the Iron Storm is sweeping across the country. The righteous sounds of BLACK UHURU are raining upon the wanting ears of reggae fans everywhere. And yes to the omnipresent question, "where's the tour???" It be coming, look for Black Uhuru coming soon to a venue near you, sooooo. Next up, a get up, rip off your shirt and dance down the street kind a' record (you may try spinning for your fave, it may work!), I speak of Freedom Is What Everybody Needs from KOTOJA. Band leader Ken Okololo did the road thing with King Sunny Ade for a time, and features a member of Fela Kuti's horn section. Sure to put a spring in yer step. Third up, the debut release from songwriter JOHN CAPEK, Indaba (recorded in South Africa at the time Nelson Mandela was released from prison), sports influences from many parts of the globe. Check 'em out!!! And last but certainly not least, guitar god AL DI MEOLA charts new waters on his looong-awaited new release World Sinfonia. Venture if you will into the romantic world of the tango, as big Al pays tribute to Astor Piazzola. Bandononeon and acoustic guitar abound on this musical journey to parts unknown. It leaves me craving pasta and vino. Too hip!!! Lossa great music, and more to come. On the way; on the pressure front, for the first time on CD, STRUNTZ & FARAH's Mosaico; Futuro from Portugese vocalist PAULO RAMOS; and in the not-too-distant future the "Iron Storm Dub." 'Til we meet again!!!

Cindy Levine, Smash Records, Chicago, IL (312) 751-0020

How was your first taste of the MILLIONS? Sometimes it pays to play, who knows you could win the Millions. Coming soon. . . .

Margaret Parker, First Warning Records, New York, NY (212) 925-7220

Sometimes at night I find myself waiting tables at CB's (last night, for example) . . . those nights often happen to be audition night where there's no end to the hair metal bands who bring little to no crowd who buy nothing (you mean, there's a deli across the street?) . . . On these nights I find myself drawing cartoons on the back of the list of bands. Mean, mean, mean. They're all mean cartoons. If you want to see any of them give me a call at First Warning. . . . Speaking of CB's. I hope everyone caught DRUNKEN BOAT on Saturday, September 7. . . . and their CD-5 "New Pop" should be coming your way. . . . If anyone knows a castle with endless space for rent in the Lower East Side guard cats included for cheap let me know. So far all I've found is a box across the street from Hell's Angels, no pets allowed. Maybe I'll get a turtle.

Leslie Alfano, Imago Recording Company, New York, NY (212) 246-6644

I was out of touch in Dialogue land. . . . like you really missed me. It was the crazy Lolla summer, which I'm sure was a majority of your time too. The tour was brilliant!! ROLLINS BAND has got their shit together; count the days till 1992 for this one! . . . Great meetin' everyone on my travels to Cali, Beantown, Atlanta—you guys are definitely ready for Rollins!! BABY ANIMALS are still growing. Thanks to the believers who said this band has the guts (WFIT, KUNV, WUMS, KCSB, KFSR, KSJS, KJHK, WUTK, WERS, WVXU, WNHU, WRFL, WCBN, WSFX, and KBVR, WECS, and WPUR!!) . . . Enough music talk. I've said most of this on the phone anyway!! What about the world? Haven't seen much of it lately—except the bums, Port Authority—Gorby's back—it's hot, sticky—I have to go.

◆ Chris Roldan & Darrell Anderson, Misunderstood Angry Young Promo Guys, Hightone Records, Oakland, CA (510) 763-8500

New areo code!!!! Oakland is now 510, so make those changes! We want to thank all of those confused individuals who have gone through the trouble of misunderstanding our Dialogue in issue #248. It's a difficult concept to grasp, but we really think that GOOD records should get played in college radio. What separates the GOOD from the BULLSHIT? . . . That's for you to decide, but hype has nothing to do with the quality of an album. Neither does the genre of the artist. Have you noticed that the only people who bitched about our Dialogue work at labels? . . . Imagine that! Kinda wacky. . . Now, our job (soy with promo-guy-type-voice): DAVE ALVIN is taking America by storm! Fun fact #1: Dave smokes Kool cigarettes. Thanks to all stations who have the guts to play this record just because it's good.

◆ Ron Cruz, Cruz Records, Long Beach, CA (213) 430-2077
SKIN YARD's "Meet The Knuckles Tour" has just slugged the states and now they're ready to deliver some major blows to Europe. Skin Yard's new LP, 1000 Smiling Knuckles, is one of the most menacing chunks of music your station will be slammed by this fall. Prepare to fight. . . BIG DRILL CAR are in Europe spreading their new Batch album across the EC. A "Viva Fuckin' Cruz" bill at the Underworld in London featuring Big Drill Car and Skin Yard will explode on impact, Wednesday, October 16. In late October, BDC will return with tons of tales and start another Batch of North American dates in early November. . . Tony Lombardo wrote "Suburban Home" as the original bass dude of the Descendents and now he has a bunch of new Tony type tunes played with ALL on an album called New Girl, Old Story. CHEMICAL PEOPLE have their latest EP, Angels 'N' Devils, rippin' apart radio playlists with their kinky version of romance. . . Peace, Love & Tell Tale Signs.

◆ Bob Help, Promo Fag/Weasel For Worthwhile Indie Promoter, BNM Corp., Cranford, NJ (908) 709-9414

Hey Matt Calohan. . . Me and Les Scurry already kissed and made up, so why all the bad vibes from you? Awww. . . you're upset about my comments about how you only used to call people for personal copies of stuff you liked, after ignoring previous phone calls from the same. Yeah, my mom got kind of upset when I colled her out of the blue for the first time in months because I heard she had a spare copy of the Urge Overkill 7". Well, who am I to hide the truth? Also Matt. . . Indie promoters often help labels sell more records, CDs and cassettes in the REAL music business world where lots of people at lots of companies often live check to check and live or die according to whether or not they can sell another 500 copies of "cool band of the week" so they can put out "cool band of next week." But you'll begin to get the picture when you get that first music biz job, so good luck emptying ashtrays, pal. . .

You're right about one thing though: These CMJ Dialogue pages are getting pretty funny lately, aren't they?

◆ Vinny, Radio Promotion, Emergo Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Just back from a week's vacation out on the island. What a pleasure the subway was this morning, just hot and scummy enough to make you want to kill, you know. Got to see 7 Seconds the other night, original lineup plus Chris too. Crucial band for over a decade now, don't miss 'em. Big Drill Car and Seven League Boots ruled last week as well. So you know LAST CRACK is on the road as I write. Everyone that was away from music happenings for a summer break should go check these guys out, seen. Sincere, intense, truly an alternative to stock blah, R-n-R without a doubt. Tracks #4 ("My Burning Time") and #6 ("Love Craig") on their Burning Time LP are my personal faves. Check 'em out. Get ready for an onslaught of Emergo bands this fall. SENATOR FLUX's new slob rocks as does the new VENUS BEADS. We're also gonna be diving headfirst into that industrial dance kind of scene with four releases from Third Mind Records (heavies on the dance scene in England and new Roadrunner partners here in the U.S.) on October 29. Releases include SOLAR ENEMY, formerly Portion Control, and EDWARD KA-SPEL of Legendary Pink Dots fame. Interested? Give a call. Peace.

Another World from WORLD OF SKIN and the latest Swans release called White Light From The Mouth Of Infinity, he called to congratulate us. When I told him about the trouble I'd had with Faulkner and O'Connor, and the way they had disturbed me in my efforts to promote the latest from WIDESPREAD PANIC (on Capricorn), INSANE JANE's Little Green Pill (on Sky) and the FLAT DUO JETS' Go Go Harlem Baby (also on Sky), he didn't seem surprised. He asked about tour schedules, and was happy to hear that Widespread Panic was opening the Blues Traveler national tour, and told me he really dug Flat Duo Jets show in Baton Rouge. When I invited him to Atlanta to see Insane Jane in October, I think he knew my reasons were two-fold. I think he saw a review of Flan's A Good Band Is Hard To Find and sensed my concern. Just in case you haven't heard them—check out Widespread Panic, Insane Jane, Flat Duo Jets and Swans (if you can't find it, continue reading here for more details) and keep your eyes peeled for a speeding Checker cab with two old writers in it. Questions, comments and angry retorts to the above or outside of GA 1-800-3142.

if we weren't limited to reporting five cuts. There, I feel much better now.

[First, we're sorry that we can't take more than five cuts, but the problem is that many stations won't report cuts at all because they "don't program cuts," which is a flawed argument. As for the Innocence Mission comment: We know there's a thriving alternative scene in Lancaster, but how do you plug in guitars without electricity?—Ed.]

Matt Rosenberg, New York, NY (212) 475-3491

I am a writer and former WESU program director researching a possible book on college radio. I am seeking input from station personnel past and present, relating experiences such as: Conflicts/rapport with school administration, students, local citizens, religious/ethnic groups; internal dynamics of stations, including special on-air personalities, stories of interplay between different formats/DJs' interesting problems/issues that have arisen and their solutions; and, on the lighter side, any funny stories or old and embellished legends involving the station or its personnel. Humor will be a big part of this project, and any character—from air checks to promotion to station decor—will be appreciated. I promise anonymity for those who need it. Please call or write (or send tapes/photos/flyers/articles/etc.) to: 50 East 10th Street #9E, New York, NY 10003.

Chris "You Can Call Me Pete" Peterson, Music Director, KMSU, Minot, ND (701) 857-3829

Hello! This is my second Dialogue and I am just too excited. First a couple of shouts to Mark Raybin of PWL Records and Mark Bialik of WRST (I'll get that tape to you ASAP)... Second I would like to say I had the extreme honor to see STING in concert last month in Omaha. I hate to jump on the Sting bandwagon but he is just too cool. His opening acts (SPECIAL BEAT and VINX) were very interesting as well. Special Beat were just wild and crazy and Vinx has the most incredible voice. Check them out if you have a chance... I also saw VANILLA WAFER, free of course (I wouldn't pay to walk across the street and see him). Let's just say I was more entertained at the Taco Bell after the show than at it... Let's talk about KMSU. We are a young station that will play anything and everything. Including explicit rock and rap. We had our budget cut and have no funds to buy any new music so any and all help is much appreciated. Our school enrollment is setting records every quarter and after our little controversy last year I'd say most of them have listened or will listen to us in the future. Radio in Minot (with the exception of us) really sucks... The DJs pick the music they play and I report it so if you want it played, send it... If you call me and I am not here I will get back to you gar-un-tee it. Also my T-shirt size is XXL and I do appreciate that kind of brown-nosing. (Always wanted a Def Jam.) Plug, plug. Cee ya next time and keep the music evil.

Kevin Anderson, Music Director, WCWS, Wooster, OH (216) 263-2240

The slogan "Be More In Baltimore" never rang more true. The most ripping tape just crossed my desk, and I'm pleased and proud to tell you all about it. A trio of homeboys of mine, known collectively as SOUL PIT, have finally released their debut demo tape. As tempting as it is to describe it, I'll resist the urge. (Just as I did when I had my first exposure to Jane's A.) The "pitsters" have a groove on the metal, grunge, funk, rap tip that allows them a sound uniquely their own... They plan to release a single on a local studio's sampler CD (Multi-media Productions, for those in the know), and plans are also in the works to fire up an excelsior full-length LP, with the help of a more than capable local indie label. As for now, however, grab a copy of the demo tape, Better Than Mud, by writing to Soul Pit, P.O. Box 13464, Baltimore, MD 21203. Rock On!

RADIO DIALOGUE

Les Aaron, KHTK, St. Louis, MO (314) 727-0808

As of September 8, New Music Sunday, primarily an outlet for alternative music, will be extended by one hour to include the New Music Sunday World Beat Hour. The object of this extension is to further the cause of all forms of world beat music, especially reggae and to allow this exhilarating musical artform to penetrate a far larger listening audience than it has ever had the opportunity to do in the St. Louis area... For further information please contact Les Aaron as above or at KHTK, Ste., 1600, 7777 Bonhomme, St. Louis, MO 63135.

Carl D. Orr, MD, WFNM, Lancaster, PA (717) 291-4098

Actually, the way cool CARTER T-shirt was probably sent by Chrysalis. My bust. Excuuuse me. By the time this gets printed, I should have office hours set up again. Call me to find out. Response to Andrew Peterson, and everyone else who complains that college radio has become a slave to the major labels: At this station, anyway, the major criteria for music to be played and to chart is QUALITY, not size of label. If we like your record, we'll play it. If we don't we won't. It doesn't matter if it's on Atlantic, Geffen,TVT, Caroline or Marz. Yes, independents put out a lot of great music, but if I think HOUSE OF LOVE or B.A.D. II is fucking great, I'm going to play it even though every week there's another Dialogue announcing it's all a major label scam. What this leads to is New York Eye & Ear Control and LES THUGS on our playlist along with CROWDED HOUSE. I'll sit here and wait for angry rebuttals saying what an asshole I am. The new BIG DRILL CAR album stays crunchy even in milk. Yay for Lancaster's own the INNOCENCE MISSION, but they do not really come from "Amish Country" as a recent CMJ By The Numbers chart pointed out. All the Amish are moving to Ohio and Indiana, and there is actually a decent alternative scene here. Like, you have WFNM, WIXQ over at Millersville, a couple of good clubs here in town and Philadelphia, New York, Washington and Baltimore are all less than three hours away. While I'm bitching about CMJ, Mark Glaser recently asked that everyone help make the Top Cuts chart more interesting. That would be a lot easier to do

AMERICA'S Best

ATTENTION ALL MUSICIANS . . .

If you're not signed to a record label and think you oughta be, CMJ is looking for you!

America's Best Unsigned Music Talent Search is looking for the 20 most talented unsigned bands in the nation. Once we've found them, we'll put out a compilation CD featuring these groups and distribute it to key members of CMJ's worldwide network of radio, video, record, retail and press professionals, and of the 20 bands on the CD, one will be chosen "Undiscovered Artist Of The Year."

To be eligible, send a cassette of your music along with bio information to:

CMJ CONVENTION

FOCUS

Each week, CMJ Convention Focus will highlight various aspects of the CMJ Music Marathon convention, celebrating its 11th year of bringing you the best new music has to offer. Concentrating on "New Artist Discovery and Development," CMJ Music Marathon provides a forum for the exchange of ideas and the improvement of communication among alternative and college music professionals, as well as a venue to present live in performance some of today's best new artists, giving those that might otherwise go unnoticed a push toward the spotlight. CMJ Music Marathon '91 will be held in New York's World Trade Center's Vista Hotel October 30 - November 2, 1991. For more information call (516) 466-6000.

COPE KICKS OFF COLLEGE DAY

CMJ Music Marathon is proud to announce Julian Cope as its College Day Keynote Speaker for 1991. Cope has been under the skin of the music scene since his beginning as an artist in 1977, when he began playing with co-Liverpuddlians Ian McCulloch, Pete Burns, Pete Wylie and Budgie. With Wylie and Budgie, Cope formed his first official band known as NOVA-MOB (not to be mistaken for Grant Hart's Nova Mob), and also began writing songs with McCulloch.

Several songs, tiffs and months later McCulloch and Cope split, leaving Cope to form Teardrop Explodes with Gary Dwyer in 1978. The tumultuous Teardrop Explodes project resulted in many well-received recordings and several tours, and became an integral influence on the burgeoning "English sound" which began to rear its head in the early '80s.

In September 1982, Cope left Teardrop Explodes to embark on his solo career, to enhance his toy collection and to work on his interpretations of Julius Caesar. Many charted albums and much espresso later, Cope enters the '90s with a masterplan and a message.

On Cope's new double album Peggy Suicide—a meditative 83 minutes long—he eloquently expounds on the saddened state of Mother Nature and he twistedly proposes a retribution of suicide. The expansive, spacious sounds created by Cope on this album elevate this concept to a complete opus. Exercising his newly found political voice, Cope has appeared at rallies such as the Anti-Poll Tax Benefit as the character Sqwubbsy, Cope's seven-foot alter ego.

Please join this visionary as he keynotes College Day.

MORE MARATHON MODERATOR MONOLOGUES

The core of CMJ Music Marathon is the many panels that are painstakingly prepared and organized by the CMJ Music Marathon staff and the individual panel moderators. While attending the convention is always fun, it should be a learning experience as well. CMJ Music Marathon keeps its participants current with today's hot topics of the music industry.

This year, moderators have the opportunity to reach CMJ Music Marathon constituents even before the convention in October. This week's Focus column is again dedicated to the moderators' perceptions of what they feel is relevant to their topics.

A special thank you to this week's contributors. Stay tuned for more in weeks to come.

SIGNATURE SOUNDS: THE PRODUCERS

Mark Bingham, Producer, Arranger, Engineer and Artist

"Once conform, once do what others do because they do it, and a kind of lethargy steals over all the finer senses of the soul."

—Montaigne

There seems to be three basic producer food groups:

1. Ex- or current musicians
2. Ex- or current engineers
3. Hustlers

After that we have visionary types such as Hal Willner, genre specific types such as Hammond Scott and, of course, the assorted human flotsam and jetsam needed to populate scenes (folks not together enough to rate the hustler category).

Producing should be a new experience each time. If I have a signature sound, I'm certainly not aware of it. In the best of all possible worlds, one chooses who to work with/for on the basis of the individual as opposed to factors such as money, prestige and career opportunity. This assumes the music to be inspired and singular. As the saying goes, "You can always fix the music, but you can't fix the people."

Rule #1 Have a life, a career might follow

The "Producer-As-God" syndrome has been around for decades. My personal pleasure is working with people to help them reach their potential. While I could pretend—like many do—that I know what will "hit," I really don't have a clue.

Knowledge of music history, worldwide, is what gives me the strength to function well in many different roles. Nurturing the individual via finding a sense of place and relationship to the entire body of music throughout history seems a far better road than being one of the thousands attempting to second guess the marketplace. Still, if I got a call from Paula Abdul...

COLLEGE RADIO: THE GREAT ROCK N' ROLL SWINDLE

Jonathan Poneman, Sub Pop Records

Why "The Great Rock N' Roll Swindle"? Like the fabled Sex Pistols movie, college radio is old, hackneyed and more exalted than it deserves to be. Unimaginative college kids and outcast careerists commandeer the airwaves and join the fight for corporated hegemony. It's pathetic.

Wake up kids.

You can sell the airwaves to the major labels, utilizing whatever justification that'll line your wallet or balm your conscience. But do you believe these institutions give a shit about you? Do you believe that there's gonna be a music industry when our country goes bankrupt? Shouldn't college radio be used to rile, jar and sound alarms? Why is it used to lull and ultimately bore?

It is a swindle. Service to the military/industrial complex—or any annex thereof—is treachery. What's so "rock n' roll" about buying into a lie? This is for you to figure out...Maybe you can clue me in.

PUBLICITY & PRESS: THE GOOD, THE BAD & THE UGLY

Andy Schwartz, Epic Media Services

First order of business will be a change of title—this one was played out by '86 (at the latest). Possible substitutions include "Panel For Miles, Monk & Meltzer," "Lester (Bangs) Leaped In" or "The Mass Culture Mess: From Adorno To Axl." The panel will be comprised of a more-or-less equal number of publicity weasels, self-styled "journalists" and disgruntled waiters from the Shea Stadium Diamond Club. Together they'll tackle the nasty, knotty, nitty-gritty questions no other panel would even dare to ask: Who's in charge at Spin this week? Why isn't Johnny Thunders' So Alone out on CD? When can you expect a check for an article in Creem? What time is lunch and who's buying? What's really bugging Gerard Cosloy?... and much, much more!

THAT'S THE LETTER "U" AND THE NUMERAL "2"

Everyone knew it wouldn't last long. Negativland's latest offering, U2, a single which "covered" and sampled U2's "I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For," has been recalled after a lawsuit was initiated by Island Records and Warner Chappell Music, U2's publishing company. The Federal District Court of the Central District of Los Angeles issued a temporary restraining order which forced SST to recall the single, according to Eric Levine, Island's vice president of business affairs. The suit charged SST and Negativland with deceptive packaging, arguing that the single's sleeve (issued on CD, cassette and vinyl), displaying a huge letter U and numeral 2, would lead U2's fans to confuse it with actual U2 product. Levine said the suit also levelled charges of copyright infringement, stating that Negativland used Island's master recording of "I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For" without license or permission. According to SST's Ron Coleman, the restraining order came in the form of a cease and desist order which prohibits SST from marketing, selling or promoting the single. The order also required SST to send out a formal notice to all radio station programmers who received the single, asking them to stop programming the single and to return it. For details about Negativland's and U2's upcoming albums, see Record News below.

LOSERS CONVERGE ON DC

A Washington, DC, music festival, with the working title of "Lots Of Pop Losers" is scheduled for October 26 and 27. The festival was organized and sponsored by area indie rock labels Simple Machines, Slumberland and Teenbeat. Artists scheduled to appear include: Superchunk, Unrest, Tsunami, Lilys, Velocity Girl, Love Child, Sleepyhead, Small Factory, Sexual Milkshake, Flying Saucer, Linda Smith, Kicking Giant, Johnny Cohen's Love Machine, Eggs, High-Backed Chairs, Lorell and more. Admission to each of the two all-day events costs $7 and tickets will be available at the door. Singles, albums, tapes, T-shirts and posters will also be on sale at the event. For more information, contact Simple Machines at (703) 726-0680.

SWANS TO SKY

Sky Records has signed a licensing agreement with Young Gods Records, the label run by the Swans' Michael Gira. Sky Records will be re-releasing the Swans' most recent album, White Light From The Mouth Of Infinity, which had been out on Rough Trade, their 1983 album Filth and the 1987 release, World Of Skin. In November, Young God-Sky will release a compilation of various live recordings and studio out-takes from 1982-1985, entitled Body To Body, Job To Job. There are also plans for the release of a new Swans album called Love Of Life in early 1992.

THROWING MUSES SPLIT

Tanya Donnelly has amicably left the Throwing Muses to pursue a solo career as well as her work with the Breeders. Bassist Fred Abong has also parted company. Throwing Muses will remain as the core of vocalist/guitarist Kristin Hersh and drummer David Narcizo, and they'll hire studio and touring musicians as necessary. The two are presently working on a new album which will be recorded in October and is slated for release next spring. Original bassist Leslie Langston will help out in the studio, but is not returning to the band.

AUGUST RIAA CERTIFICATIONS

Singles by The KLF ("3 A.M. Eternal") on Arista and 3rd Bass ("Pop Goes The Weasel") on Def Jam-Columbia were certified gold, reaching sales of over 250,000 units apiece. With sales surpassing 500,000, N.W.A.'s Niggaz4life on Ruthless-Priority was simultaneously certified gold and platinum, while Ziggy Marley & The Melody Makers' Conscious Party on Virgin attained platinum status as well.

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Alpha International Records and PolyGram have reached a distribution agreement. All Alpha International releases, which were previously distributed by CEMA, will now be released through PGD. . . The September 20 edition of ABC's television concert show In Concert '91 will feature Fishbone, L.L. Cool J, 3rd Bass and Alice In Chains. The show was taped on August 19 at the Academy in New York.

RECORD NEWS

U2's new album, Achtung

Baby!, is due for release Nov. 19, with a dance-oriented first single, "The Fly," preceding it Oct. 14. The album is produced by Daniel Lanois, and is rumored to combine raw guitar work similar to War with the more textured sounds apparent on The Joshua Tree. . . Negativland

MIND OVER MATTERS

Pressures On College Radio Besides New Music By Glenn Gutmacher, NACB

This letter is in response to the 8/16/91 (CMJ #249) Mind Over Matters by Andrew Peterson of Moist/Baited Breath Records. I understand his frustration with some college stations that are worried about their "image" and so are not as willing to play the highly avant-garde records that his and many other indie labels represent. His attitude is based on selling his records and his stated philosophy, "college radio is . . . about great music."

However, Mr. Peterson and others like him need to see it from the college's side. Many college stations exist only at the whim of those who control very limited school budgets. As the U.S. college population declines and a tight economy continues, many stations at strapped colleges are in danger of losing funds or stopping broadcasting altogether.

That means they have to cater to the desires of those who fund them—quite often the student government that controls student activities fees. If the student body perceives the station as being too avant garde in its programming, then—as has happened countless times over the years—they will pressure the station to air more student-popular radio content (e.g., classic rock, party music).

" . . . Despite what Mr. Peterson or anyone else says, new music is not college radio's #1 goal."

Another threat is from DJs themselves. It takes a lot of volunteers to staff a radio station. With the annual turnover from graduating and transfer-out students, it is a never-ending burden to recruit new people for a station. Fortunately, at larger schools it isn't hard to get enough personnel who want to air programming that serves an alternative niche. However, especially at smaller schools, managers are hard-pressed to get enough DJs and are often forced to take whatever they can get. Many of these volunteers come from more mainstream radio backgrounds and want to play what they like. Or it may be that the station is in a sparse radio market, where no AOR or Urban station exists. Playing either of those formats is alternative there, and the station is serving a unique audience need.

Last but not least is the training mission. In their charters, many college stations are required to be training centers for students in broadcasting. They are seeking careers in media, and many communications departments have determined that a more mainstream, tight program format is better for preparing for careers in radio. Many classes utilize the college station in coursework, and time spent there is required for course credit. In those cases, alternative music and the loose on-air style that usually accompanies it doesn't help this process along much.

So while I respect Mr. Peterson's need to make a living, he needs to understand the pressures that go into keeping a college station running.

Finally, despite what Mr. Peterson or anyone else says, new music is not college radio's #1 goal. The FCC controls radio licenses, and they are the only ones with legal authority to tell a station what to do. When it comes to non-commercial stations, all the FCC says is that the station uniquely serve its audience. There are many ways a college station can fulfill needs not served by the other stations in its market—campus news and public affairs, local food and charity drives, radio drama and comedy, well-produced specials and other material on- and off-air that have nothing to do with new music. Any college station feeling unjustly pressured to air new music has my permission to forward this column.

ROBYN HITCHCOCK & THE EGYPTIANS Tramps, New York City, September 12

For a band that doesn't play that many live dates, this trio sounded like they'd been practicing rigorously for an extensive world tour, replete with set changes and dancers. At this special venue there were, however, no pyrotechnics or big show paraphernalia and no special guest photo-op jams. But, from just three people, there came a complete sound—clear, fascinating and memorable. Although Robyn Hitchcock will probably never be remembered as a textbook vocalist or a guitar guru, his quirks in front of the microphone and his twangy antics with six or 12 strings have added that priceless dimension to his work that allows his songs to be infinitely more meaningful than just catchy British pop. Watching Hitchcock twitch and growl allows you to see those still active cells of his punk mind take over and frighten us for a moment. In this hour-plus set, our chart hero Robyn played songs mostly from Perspex Island, and threw in "Balloon Man" for the die-hards. With 12-string in hand, he and the Egyptians were able to recreate the vitality, power and ambience of the album's opener, "Oceanside." For a man who some have called "eccentric," "loony" and "just plain nuts," Hitchcock certainly did not seem to lack any clarity or presence of mind whatsoever as he continues to perform some of the world's most enjoyably deviant pop.

FRONT 242 The Ritz, New York City, September 7

Industrial music seems to be everywhere these days, and Wax Trax and its hometown Chicago are at the forefront of the American movement. Leading the way overseas is the Play It Again Sam label, and its local Belgian unit Front 242, whose Epic debut thrust this trio into a limelight previously hogged by people associated with Al Jourgensen. Like Nine Inch Nails, Front 242 sets themselves apart from the usual machine gun dagger beats indigenous to industrial dance music by keeping mindful of a melody. Their hour-and-change set showcased this melody and sense of pop structure, which even included choreographed dance steps by singer Jean Luc De Meyer and backup Richard 23 (who also banged on some electronic drums every now and then). The strobe lights would not let us forget what we were there for though, as the post-apocalyptic light show proved to be a definite highlight of the evening, giving even more intensity to songs like "Headhunter" (quickly becoming an industrial standard), and "Tragedy (For You)" and "Gripped By Fear" from their latest effort Tyranny (For You). Brutality does not necessarily need to be evil, and Front 242 proved that you can be extreme, and still have a smile on your face. . . . and even a little skip to your step, too.

TEXAS TORNADOS

Comprised of Doug Sahm and Augie Meyers (ex-Sir Douglas Quintet), chart-topper Freddy Fender and accordion god Flaco Jimenez, the Texas Tornados straddle the Texican border with feet firmly rooted in both sides, concocting a potent brew of country, rock blues, conjunto and chili. The music is as hot as the Panhandle in August, as smoky as a border cantina and as refreshing as the sound of a bottlecap being flipped off the first in a series of Lone Star longnecks.
