ALEJANDRO ESCOVEDO/TRUE BELIEVERS

Few bands, if any, get a second shot. A band pays its dues, takes its chances and, more often than not, gets dropped by its label and breaks up. That's exactly what happened to the guitar army from Austin known as the True Believers in the mid-'80s. The band was formed by brothers Alejandro and Javier Escovedo; once they were joined by John Dee Graham, who, like them, was a songwriter/guitarist, the True Believers became a live act known for blowing the roof off any venue that would have them. Their eponymous debut, released in 1986 on Rounder/EMI America, was a strong, critically lauded effort produced by Jim Dickinson. They followed it up by intense touring, which increased their fan base tremendously. The band was on a roll that won it a large recording budget for their next release.

Then the headaches began. The label insisted on hiring Jeff Glixman, who had worked his magic with the Georgia Satellites, as producer for the second record. The recording sessions were loaded with all kinds of trouble and resulted in the departure of original bassist Denny DeGorio and drummer Kevin Foley. The album was completed to the satisfaction of all involved, but it was never released. The group was dropped along with several other acts after a change in management at EMI. They continued to tour and dazzle audiences, but they were in debt. Lacking a record deal and beset by internal conflicts, the True Believers broke up.

In a recent conversation with Alejandro Escovedo, he revealed the band's final period to be an intense, turbulent time, but one he recalls with affection. He's excited because, with the help of the folks at Rykodisc, the public will finally get to hear the True Believers on CD. The new release, Hard Road, unites the band's debut and the unreleased second record. He credits Ryko Sales Manager Jim Bradt with being the driving force behind the release. Bradt was a huge True Believers fan who had struck up a relationship with Escovedo through their mutual love for Mott The Hoople. "I really had no idea that they were pursuing it like that," Escovedo says. "The band had no rights to the tapes and I believed that we owed them a whole lot of money. But I'm really, really excited that it's finally coming out."

To commemorate the release of Hard Road, the True Believers will make their first appearance since 1987 at the South By Southwest Conference in Austin this month. When asked if we can expect a full tour, Escovedo demurs, "No, it's just a one-shot deal."

This is understandable, coming from someone who's currently one of Austin's favorite musicians and songwriters. He won Musician Of The Year at last year's Austin Music Awards, while his solo records, 1992's Gravity and 1993's Thirteen Years, have won national critical acclaim. Both feature instrumentation that's radically different from the True Believers' standard rock band line-up.

Escovedo has always experimented with unconventional sounds in his solo work. "When I first started, it was mandolin and banjos. Then it grew into the Orchestra, which was more percussive and sometimes used pedal steel, tuba and violin," he says. The Orchestra was a rotating band of musicians that, at times, could number 12 or more, and was not made for touring. The solution was to take a string trio on the road. "I always felt that it would be cool to have John Cale as a reference. I wanted to perform with strings in a rock format and have it be just as powerful as an electric guitar." Thirteen Years features a string quartet throughout, and Escovedo claims that he now "consciously tries to write songs with the string section in mind." The results are novel, commanding and literate.

ON THE COVER JACKPOT!

Essential New Music

SOUNDGARDEN Superunknown (A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood CA 90028)—It's immediately apparent after listening to Superunknown, Soundgarden's fourth long-player, that the actual Seattle sculptural site that gave the band its name will no doubt become a sacred site, a mecca for metal fans on a par with Stonehenge, the New York City house on the cover of Physical Graffiti, or even Jim Morrison's final resting place. It's as if covering "Into The Void" on the B-side of its last single from 1992's Badmotorfinger was enough to wrench the group once and for all out of the shadow of Sabbath—while Superunknown has more than its share of crushing riffs and dramatic crescendos, it also wields a subtlety and might that only the best Seattle-metal bands have mastered. It's as if Soundgarden has taken the best parts of Temple Of The Dog and its own previous music, and moved into new realms, to where even the most cynical and jaded of listeners can only agree that Soundgarden is one of the most annihilating, shredding bands in whatever's left of hard rock these days. "Head Down" and

"Black Hole Sun" (our pick for the one that will put them over the top) sound like nothing the band's ever done, reaching further and grasping for more than virtually any other band of its ilk. Perhaps not since Metallica resculpted itself on its all-black opus has an "alternative" metal band rewritten itself so completely: to hear what we mean, check out "Spoonman," "My Wave," the title track and "Half."

—James Lien

FAILURE Magnified (Slash, P.O. Box 48888, Los Angeles, CA 90048-0888/213-932-4660)—Hey, it's okay not to like yourself, it's even kind of hip. Just ask Kurt Cobain and Billy Corgan, both of whom have made lucrative careers out of self-loathing. So is it any wonder that in the post-recession, post-hope era we're in, slackers are making way for failures? Adopting a "world-as-a-whipping-post" aesthetic, Failure bluntly and succinctly latches onto the many insecurities and fears that can lead to an inferiority complex. The band's last album, the Steve Albini-produced Comfort, vented its choler in a raging arena of screams and power chords, primitively lashing back at the vehicles responsible for making Failure feel less than worthy. Magnified, the follow-up, is far more mature and intelligent, voicing the band's discomfort through tense guitar lines and weary vocal melodies. Simultaneously lazy and aggressive, the record is sparked by a dry-mouthed energy that pushes the songs forward. Magnified doesn't ignite, it smolders, burning with steady heat as opposed to searing flames. The rhythms don't bite or slash, they rub and scour, abrading like sandpaper on raw flesh. There's an unmistakable sense of regret and remorse through songs like "Moth" and "Undone," but there's also a feeling of anxiety and alertness, as if the band is looking over its shoulder to avoid yet another humiliation. Pick your punishment.

—Jon Wiederhorn

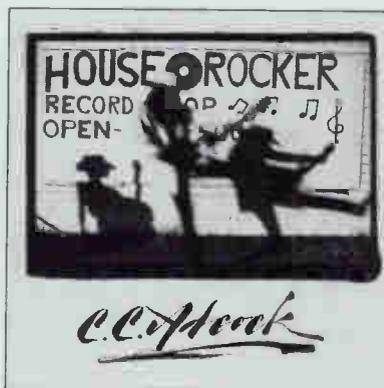

LATIN PLAYBOYS Latin Playboys (Slash, c/o Warner Bros. 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505)—After Los Lobos' 1992 LP Kiko, band member David Hidalgo continued to write, unable to stem the creative flow. Making demos at home with no intention of making a record, his crude sonic sketches (too odd for the Lobos) became the centerpiece of Latin Playboys. When Hidalgo sent the tapes to songwriting partner Louie Perez, Perez was inspired to pen lyrics akin to Hidalgo's loose, impressionistic music. Longtime producer Mitchell Froom (Latin Playbo #3) heard the tapes and wanted to put it all together somehow. Enter Playbo #4, engineer Tchad Blake, who grafted his field recordings of an Indian wedding band, open marketplaces, machinery and even laughter from Perez's grandmother onto the tapes. The slapdash approach to recording vocals and additional instrumentation over Hidalgo's lo-fi demos added to the album's manic playfulness—it was thrown together before anyone could even say avant garde. The result is more than just a redefinition of Los Lobos; Latin Playboys offers a radically informal approach to recorded music by obliterating the gap between the genesis of music and its eventual recording. By opting for raw creativity, innocence and immediacy over professional gloss, Latin Playboys is cousin to the childlike paintings of Paul Klee, where brutally simple elements add up to captivating and memorable art. Muy brilliant: "10 Believers," "Mira," "Chinese Surprise," "New Zandu," "Lagoon" and "Gone." —Steve Ciabattone

C.C. ADCOCK C.C. Adcock (Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10012/310-276-4500)—You left New Orleans in the afternoon, and now you're driving to hell or to Houston on the highway, through the swamps, straight into the blackest, darkest night you've ever seen. Suddenly out of the mists and moss, a reddish yellow lantern glows; pulling up the gravel drive, you park your weatherbeaten Ford and step into a rural roadhouse from another time. Inside, the band is cooking, smoking, like no other live music you've ever heard. The band's led by a tall guitar player, who extends a hand in between sets. He's C.C. Adcock, who's logged in countless hours on the road playing with Bo Diddley, Buckwheat Zydeco and others. For all the miles and stages, for all the various styles of music that he's blasted out of his battered Twin Reverb, he carries all of these influences and more into his own music, and as such he's heir to a great Louisiana legacy of pure jukejoint music, from zydeco to swamp pop, a tradition that includes men like Slim Harpo, Prince La La, and even Clifton Chenier. It's music for fun after a hard day (or night) of work, music for dancing and drinking—if it doesn't make folks want to push the chairs and tables off to the side, then it ain't no good. In a very promising way, Adcock comes off a little bit like Dr. John, a near-fictional character whose music is an amalgamation of several different strains and styles fused into one thick cultural gumbo. Taste: "Couchemal," "Cindy Lou," Arthur Alexander's "Sally Sue Brown" and "Done Most Everything."

SAM PHILLIPS Martinis & Bikinis (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210)—Perhaps the greatest challenge to any singer/songwriter is to craft an album that not only fully exposes each song's personality and uniqueness but also conveys a sense of connectedness and identity as part of a collection. Martinis & Bikinis, the third outing from Sam Phillips, is that rare animal. While Phillips' locked-solid, occasionally eerie harmonies and tender, exquisite melodies have always been (and still are) the prime component of her sound, for Martinis & Bikinis she's opted for a more sparse and organic musical texture than she has before. Indeed, after a first listen, it may seem as if Sam and hubby/producer T Bone Burnett have recently uncovered a slew of old, musty Beatles and Byrds albums they found cluttering up their attic—there are enough extreme left-right pans and roomy, raw guitars to delight any dinosaur rocker. Despite the album's psychedellic influences, however, there is not a wasted note, needless effect or unnecessary overdub, allowing the songs themselves to breathe deeply in their own freedom, spirituality and timeless diversity. Check out the stark minimalism of "Black Sky," which borrows equally from Pink Floyd and Primus, the staggered, Beatlesque strummings of "Sign Posts" and the driving, rhythmic intoxication of "The Same Rain." —Aaron Clow

KILDOZER Uncompromising War On Art Under The Dictatorship Of The Proletariat (Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25520, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—After more than four years between albums, Killdozer is back, and it's as if somebody just opened a window and let in the fresh spring air, or dropped a comfortingly familiar 20-ton weight through the roof. It doesn't necessarily sound possible for a huge, crunching, gristly mass of heavy rock to come off as whimsical, but that's exactly what Killdozer does. What you have to listen closely to U.W.A.U.D.P. to notice is just how funny rubble-voiced bassist/singer Michael Gerald is, snarling invective about Wal-Mart, growling about sharing joints with cops or grinding through a (barely) straight-faced cover of Rick James' "Hot And Nasty," as Paul Zagoras' guitar wanks merrily away. It all comes together

best on "Knuckles The Dog (Who Helps People)," a sidesplitting Walt Disney Magic Hour narrative pinned to the floor by a hellaciously slow, low-end, mega-distorted bassline. Complain about how slowly the band plays, and it'll probably slow things down even more (down to, say, the lurch-thud of "Peach Pie," a litany of hysterically soccharin endearments), just to annoy you. Yeah, Killdozer moves slowly. That's what heavy things do. Uncompromised: "The Pig Was Cool," "Final Market" and "N.A.F.T.A. = Another Trick Of The Capitalist Running Dogs." —Douglas Walk

GRAYS Ro Sham Bo (Epic, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Ex-Jellyfish guitarist Jason Falkner and multi-instrumentalist Jon Brion (who produced and played on Aimee Mann's solo debut) lead California's Grays into the pop world. Ro Sham Bo is successful because it rests more on the whopping talent of Falkner and Brion than on the Badfinger/Big Star/Beatles feelings it stirs up. Though "Everybody's World" lifts a bass line and theme from Magical Mystery Tour, the Grays never overtly summon Sgt. Pepper's ghost or venture into the elaborate side of the genre a la Queen or Jellyfish. Like the Posies, the band seems interested in making smart guitar pop for the '90s, and Ro Sham Bo is just that, a record with more talent and teeth than the usual pop knock-offs that wow the generations raised on Frampton and the Eagles. Where the term "hook" suggests merely a portion of a song, these 13 songs are made of sterner stuff, with connective tissue of real value and melodic gift in between all those "hooks." Call it Beatles-esque if you must, but here's some of the best pop you'll hear all year: "Very Best Years," "Same Thing," "Oh Well Maybe," "Nothing" and "Both Belong," a song that should get attention from all formats. —Steve Ciabattini

BREADWINNER The Burner (Merge, P.O. Box 1235, Chapel Hill, NC 27514/919-929-0711)—With only a few singles on Merge and the occasional compilation slot to prove itself, Breadwinner attracted quite a bit of attention in its short lifespan. The band's now defunct, but its somewhat sporadic string of releases has finally been collected together on The Burner, along with three previously unreleased songs. Like fellow instrumentalists Don Caballero, Breadwinner manages to effortlessly traverse invigorating sonic terrains without the time-honored tradition of a vocalist. Instead, the trio gives as much reign to the bass and drums as it does to the guitar, allowing a tense game of tug o' war to erupt within each song. This game, however, is controlled with mathematical precision, each side counting off sharp time changes and frenetic riff structures like veteran C.P.A.s. The tight-skinned drum smack and urgent guitar gyrations on songs like "Tourette's" and "Kisses Men On The Mouth On The Mountain" are almost mechanical in their insistency, forming craggy rhythmic landscapes out of the compact lurch and thrust. Without the obvious distraction of a wailing vocalist, Breadwinner is free to apply the fine sonic details that would typically be lost under the presence of a voice, knotting the three instruments into distinct shapes and grooves of rigorous strength. Other winners: "Mac's Oranges," "Prescott (Homecut)" and "Exploder."

MUTABARUKA Melanin Man (Shanachie, 37 East Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763)—Like Linton Kwesi Johnson, Mutabaruka uses his poetic skills in front of a reggae band, expounding on political and societal issues. Unlike Johnson, however, Mutabaruka's music is much poppier, the bright tones and clear melodies belying his messages on oppression and rewritten history. It is somewhat against type that while he's speaking on the abuses white supremacy has wrought, you're humming the very catchy melody, but there's nothing that says that protest music can't make a joyful noise. While some of his poems get needlessly pedantic ("Columbus Ghost"), most times he is both vehement and well-spoken in his thesis, the best example being "People's Court Part II," which pits a prosecutor (Mutabaruka) against "Mr. Religious Belief" and his henchman, "Mr. Denomination." The criticisms the prosecutor brings up have a basis in history and are more than a self-righteous dogmatist expounding on his own equally biased beliefs. Mutabaruka is a poet of simple expression, one whose ideas are stated clearly both in music and in lyric. —Megan McLaughlin

SPORE Giant (Taangl, P.O. Box 51, Auburndale, MA 02166/617-965-5673)—Giant pretty much lives up to its name: loud, menacing and massive enough to crush a small village, Spore's full-length debut is all about its "sound." When we say "sound," we're referring to the big, thick bottom-heavy and dissonant guitar wallop that allows this Giant to stomp and crush with such authority. But don't let all this emphasis on sound deter you from exploring the rest of what this Boston quartet has to offer. With a few dynamic twists, the occasional snagging phrase or half-chorus and some ragged vocal interplay, this full low-bore noise flattens and fills the width of the album, not only with a huge musical presence, but some colorful droplets of melody and character. The bass is an almost lurking counter-line to the lead, creeping through the thick guitar tangle with moody temperament, while Mona's dead-pan vocals fumble across Aya's (no last names for these two) scratchy scream. Lines like "God knows where to stick his finger" fuel the meaty flurry with Spore's rip-roaring cynicism, as tightly-wound as the heavy-handed drumming and fierce guitar flurries. "Black Nail" drives home with rumbling chord stops and breaks; "Paradise" is heated with tiny note tweaks and rough guitars; and "Crazy Summer" exemplifies the thorny, needle-pinned-in-the-red overload of guitar/bass fuzz that strong-arms Spore's corrosive sound.

DAISYCUTTER Truck Fist (Rockville, 150 W. 28th St., Room 501, New York, NY 10001/212-675-0922)—Daisycutter is much more powerfully incisive than the delicate implications of its moniker. The full-length Truck Fist follows last year's EP Shithammer Deluxe, and finds the band as loud as one could imagine a six-piece could get. Daisycutter is all about angst-ridden growls, grinding guitars and just enough stop-and-start rhythms to keep the bodies in motion—imagine a two-men-enter/one-man-leaves showdown between Monster Magnet (no surprise—the old guitar player left to play with Monster Magnet) and the Unsane. On this debut album, psychedelic distortion wrestles with metal-edged punk rock, a fervid argument which ends bluntly in stubborn, angry noise. The songs have a limited range, concentrating in the eardrum jarring genre, with the exception of "Syrup," a Led Zeppelin-esque instrumental showcasing the work of acoustic guitarist Kim Rausch. Move out of the way of the Truck Fist and play: "Trowel," "Negative Stone Warp," "Truck Fist" or "Pig In A Can."

—Dawn Sutter

ORCHIDS Striving For The Lazy Perfection (Sarah, c/o Widely Distributed, 1412 W. Touhy, Chicago, IL 60626/312-585-2890)—The Orchids have been one of U.K. indie label Sarah's more appreciated and better known bands: the Scots' numerous singles, EPs and debut LP (1991's Unholy Soul) received good press, and 1991's Penetration EP, produced by One Dove's Ian Carmichael, revealed the group's interest in contemporary electronics. Striving For The Lazy Perfection, the Orchids' sophomore LP, continues their work with Carmichael, whose facility with electronics sinks effortlessly into the band's crisply crafted songs rather than standing out as a fashion-conscious afterthought. The bubblegummy, Saint Etienne-like "A Kind Of Eden," featuring the vocals of sweet-lipped Pauline Hynds, is an eloquent white soul primer. The Orchids' use of Vanna White's voice on "A Living Ken And Barbie" ("You could literally lay on the street for I would say two hours and never get hit by a car," muses Vanna of her hometown) recalls the Orb's Rickie Lee Jones exposé on "Little Fluffy Clouds," though at this later date it's not quite as spring-fresh. The country-lite "Welcome To My Curious Heart," highlighted by a wispy piano break, exposes another crucial, song-conscious aspect of the band. Also kick back with the lulling synth sounds of "Obsession No. 1," the almost-dub (think Fellow Travellers) of "I Was Just Dreaming" and the poppy title cut.

—Lydia Anderson

CRADLE OF THORNS Feed-Us (Triple X, P.O. Box 862529, Los Angeles, CA 90086-2529/213-221-2204)—Sextet Cradle Of Thorns grows and thrives in the hot, dry environment of Bakersfield, CA. The first full-length album from this eccentric West Coast group, Feed-Us, is a hybrid species of dramatic metal and fierce industrial; combining the undecipherable snarls of an Eddie Vedder, the funky rhythms of a Rage Against The Machine ("Ignore-Your-Race") and the grinding guitars of Tool, all smoothed over with an experimental flair. The band is headed by a couple, Ty Elam and Tamera Slayton, whose antagonistic vocals help to build the tension, his raw growls bandying with her perfect pretty notes. Musically and lyrically, Cradle

SMALL BALL PAUL You In Flames (Thirsty Ear, 274 Madison Ave., Ste. 804, New York, NY 10016/212-889-9595)—Small Ball Paul may come from America’s heartland (St. Louis), but the opening power chords on “The Shed” prove that You In Flames will be anything but corn-fed, Middle America-pleasing, family values-oriented rock. Small Ball Paul rages with all the angers and frustrations of youth in a stagnant Midwest, blazing behind heaving rhythms and volatile, crunching guitars in this study of power chord riffs and the channeling of vengeance into an articulate frenzy of energy. Produced by Lou Giordano (Sugar, Eleventh Dream Day) at Boston’s Fort Apache Studios, Small Ball Paul’s full-length debut (following a four-song EP of last summer and two St. Louis-local 7”s in 1992) is an aggressive effort, fueled by its emotions that continually kick you straight in the gut as it covers its darkly-tinged terrain. Like Dinosaur Jr., Small Ball Paul is able to express its lowly images without the shadow of pretense, using its dense, manic electricity to create these anthems for a disenchanting generation. Burning: “Like Swallows,” “The Quiet Lady,” “Left In IL (Stay),” “Sunflowers” and “Drip.”

BRUCE COCKBURN Dart To The Heart (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—Over the course of his 25-year and now 22-album career, Canadian singer/songwriter Bruce Cockburn (pronounced Co-Burn) has consistently and bluntly laid his sharp views on the line, eloquently detailing cruelty and political corruption where he sees it with his intricate guitar playing and warm, commanding voice. Dart To The Heart finds the troubador in an album filled with love songs and more personal concerns, not pensively skipping through this territory, but relating spontaneous emotions, like the feelings that sneak up on you and hit hard and deep. In both emotional and intense acoustic folk ballads and unabashed, bluesy electric rockers, Cockburn conveys all aspects of love: its turmoil and its wounds, its grace and its pleasure. Produced by

T Bone Burnett, and featuring pedal steel guitarist Greg Leisz (k.d. lang), keyboardist Richard Bell (The Band) and bassist Jerry Scheff (Elvises Presley and Costello), Dart To The Heart aims for the bullseye with strong imagery, worldly perspectives and enthusiastic resolve, creating a sugar-free and intelligent atmosphere with all heart. JENNYANYKIND Etc. (No. 6, P.O. Box 3306, New York, NY 10185-0028)—

Another in the already-lengthy line of nifty North Carolina bands, Jennyanykind is a powerful, if reserved, trance-rock trio. That is, listening to the band feels like a trance state; unlike some of its more riff-based brethren, Jennyanykind never sounds like it's already tranced out before it starts playing. The songs are way too intricate for that. Although a few of these songs (notably "Garden") climax in paraphrases of "Interstellar Overdrive," the band's formative songwriting influences appear to be more along the lines of the Pebbles albums and Jimi Hendrix's "1983." "Windchimes" could be a great lost '60s punk single if the band didn't play so darn well; "Shiny Shiny" has sweet, biting guitar lines crisscrossing its gentle surface. Strange instrumentation, like the kazoo in "The Way It Goes," is subdued beneath the slight echo that covers the whole album like a silk sheet. Etc. is carefully sequenced as an album: Four brief, instrumental "Etc." interludes bookend and punctuate the song sequence, and lyrics recur from song to song. It's easiest to listen to as a unit, but if you're playing it on the radio, start with "Windchimes" (a single last summer) or "Below The Chifforobe," with its memorable pause-and-leap instrumental phrasing.

JACKPOT!

ROLLOVER Rollover (801 N. McKinley Road, Lake Forest, IL 60045/708-234-8076)—A coupla years ago a demo from Illinois' Rollover generated a blip of interest on this page; now, the band is back, and we're sufficiently awed by the progress manifested on its first full-length CD, that they've been upped to certifiable Futures infamy. There's only one problem: the first song is the disc's worst, driven by a dreadful wah-wah and a sluggish tempo. Once the band gets past that small hurdle, however, Rollover is a primo rock-and-roll outfit, as evidenced on "Burning Time," "Say A Prayer" and "Everything Keeps Rolling" (apparently not a group theme song, unfortunately). "Burning Time" sounds like Neil Young jamming with the Steve Miller Band (no easy feat!), while "Give It Up" features the gruff, laconic, weary throat of singer Louie Zagoras (yeah, we admit it, we like the sound of his name almost as much as we like his voice). It's a pure American sound, and right now we're thinking Neil Young, Soul Asylum, Buffalo Tom—hell, if the band had been around four or five years ago, it woulda fit in perfectly covering "Drive Back" on The Bridge. (And if it had taken the '70s Neil/Joe Walsh influence a little further, and maybe even played a little less lead guitar, digging more into the tone-oriented ooze and throb, they'd definitely have it made.) Most tread the '70s influence essentially as a pose, a clever look-at-me wink and nod, where some influences are cool and others aren't; a band like Rollover doesn't give a damn whether hipsters are into the same records, it just makes the music it likes, a noble trait it shares with a hearty few, celebrated bands such as Big Chief, the Replacements and the Von Ryan Express.

F.Y.I.

The Boston suburb of Somerville, MA, has been home to more than one rock band over the years; in fact, it's become a virtual breeding ground for bands springing from the large population of 20-somethings in transition, people with too much time on their hands and no idea of what they want to do with their lives. DOLORES HAZE (there may be more than one band bearing this name) is another bond from this Boston 'burb (c/o Eve Hars, 109 College Ave., Somerville, MA 02144/617-628-9459). The trio sits on the rock continuum somewhere between the Bangles and Eve's Plum, playing sensible pop with punky female vocals and aggressive guitars. The rhythms are basic, leaving the sole guitar as its defining and characteristic instrument, which proves a heavy load for just one guitarist to bear. Peppy rhythms and simplistic songs don't necessarily differentiate Dolores Haze from many other groups in its genre, but the songwriting itself is ear-catching, especially when the band's songs are infused with energetic hooks and lyrics such as those on "State Of Freak" or ethereal pieces like "Doing Ophelias."

TASMIN ARCHER Shipbuilding (EP) (SBK, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, 42nd Fl., New York, NY 10104)—An acoustic version of "Sleeping Satellite," three live tracks and four Elvis Costello covers make up this EP. "Shipbuilding" stands toe-to-toe with the original, as well as the memorable version by Robert Wyatt. While Archer's cover of "Deep Dark Truthful Mirror" lacks the debauched nature of the original, she rebounds on "All Grown Up," her voice and piano doing more justice to the tune than Elvis' ornate version. If Elvis can write a whole LP for Wendy James, this EP suggests he should take a day or two to crank out an LP for the more capable Archer as well. —Steve Ciabattani

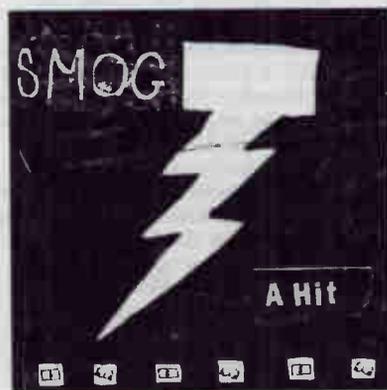

MULE Wrung (1/4 Stick, c/o Touch And Go, P.O. Box 25342, Chicago, IL 60625/312-463-8316)—When Detroit's Mule comes into conversations, its name is quickly followed by phrases like "displaced Southerners" and "urban hillbillies," appropriate descriptions for the band's Johnny Cash brand of punk rock. Since last year's knock-us-on-our-ass debut album, the band has undergone a few changes, most noticeably the loss of shit-kicking drummer Jim Kimball (ex-Laughing Hyenas) and the addition of a more manic, scattered songwriting style. The dueling haggard howls of P.W. Long and Kevin Munroe still sound as if the two have been smoking and drinking since they left the womb, but the songs have become quirkiest, introducing an erratic edge to what used to be predictable rhythm rolls. Still bucking and kicking: "The Rope And The Cuckold" and "Search Light." —Dawn Sutter

FRENTE! Labour Of Love (EP) (White (Australia), c/o Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl., Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882)—Squeezing seven songs into 14-and-a-half minutes, Labour Of Love from Melbourne, Australia's Frente! is a striking, bare-bones display of acoustic pop music. Led by the wail-like vocals of Angie

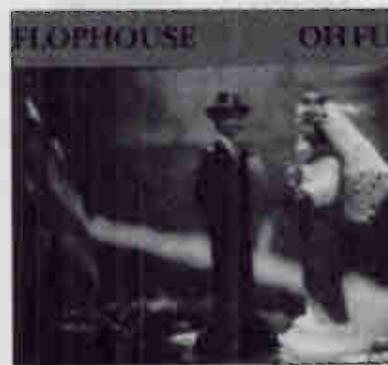

Hart, who displays a similar naive charm to that of the Sundays' Harriet Wheeler, Frente! blends innocence and a blithe spirit into its almost jazzy compositions and simple, convincing melodies, using taps and snaps as percussion to support its sparseness. The seductive take on Chris Knox's "Not Given Lightly" shows the band at its most brilliant. The recorder-enhanced title track, "Testimony" and a cover of New Order's "Bizarre Love Triangle" will keep us satisfied until the band's full-length debut, Marvin: The Album, is issued stateside later this year. —Andy Skibins

GASTR DEL SOL 20 Songs Less (7") (Teen Beat, P.O. Box 3265, Arlington, VA 22203/703-358-9382)—20 songs less than what? Than none at all, maybe. Both sides of this single are music without songs: untitled pieces, constructed from solo experimental pieces by each of Gastr Del Sol's members, edited together, superimposed, run through fragmenters and disconnectors, and stuck on vinyl. David Grubbs' distinctive acoustic guitar lines can be heard at the beginning of the first side and throughout the second, but the bulk of the record is strange sounds, unfinished noises, children playing, electronic tones and unidentifiable vibrations. And silence—lots of silence. A sigh near the end is the only vocal. It's a unique and oddly peaceful record. —Douglas Wolk

SMOG "A Hit" (7") (Drag City, P.O. Box 476867, Chicago, IL 60647/312-445-1015)—There is an art to recording on a 4-track, and Bill Callahan is the Van Gogh of low-fi. The 7" follow up to last year's Caesar LP, "A Hit" is colored with scratchy feedback and low guitar tones which lack the tinny quality that low-fi usually delivers. The subject is typical of the self-deprecating loner theme endemic to the genre—"I'll never be a rock 'n' roll saint/I'll never be a Bowie, I'll never be an Eno/I'll only be a Gary Numan." The B-side, "Wine Stained Lips," is a slow, beautiful duet with Cindy Dall, and sets a contemplative, just-my-guitar-and-my-drink mood using random background strums and plucks. —Dawn Sutter

FLOPHOUSE Oh Fuck (EP) (Stickshift, 63 Pitt St. #5R, New York, NY 10002/212-260-3389)—San Francisco's Flophouse has released two full-lengths (both on Heyday), with a small but very vocal group of supporters behind the band. This latest four-track release nestles the band's folksy roots into the background, allowing Flophouse's crisp pop hooks and jubilant rhythms to shine. "Huggery Muggery" recalls a Feelies-like mood without stirring up that band's VU-inspired sheen, and a sweeping organ backs up the title cut (which incidentally features no cuss words). The light-hearted nature of the

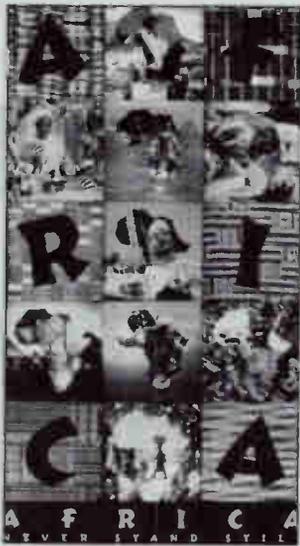

EP culminates in "Duophonic Unreality," highlighted by lots of piano and some goofy treated guitars and vocals. —Lydia Anderson

MAGIC HOUR "Heads Down" (7") (Twisted Village, c/o Forced Exposure, P.O. Box 9102, Waltham, MA 02254/617-562-0507)—Connecticut experimental guitar wizards Crystallized Movements recently disbanded, leaving free-thinking axe-wielders Wayne Rogers and Kate Biggar without a band to call their own. Enter Damon Krukowski and Naomi Yang, Galaxie 500's rhythm section before that band called it a day, and Damon and Naomi struck out on their own. The Magic Hour's debut release presents one song divided over two sides, allowing "Heads Down" to stretch, sprawl and reach towards new dimensions. Vocals and predictable song structures are kept to a minimum; Damon and Naomi's warm, plodding rhythms bolster (rather than impede) Wayne and Kate's poetically waxing guitars, and the whole mess erupts into a surprisingly dynamic and accomplished piece. —Lydia Anderson

BOYRACER AUL 36X EP (7" EP) (Slumberland, P.O. Box 14731, Berkeley, CA 94701/510-654-6124)—Wow! A 7" single with six songs, what more could you ask for? Even better, an English band with a penchant for playing spunky Amer-indie styled punk rock. Actually the indie/punk thing only happens on three songs, one of which is barely a minute long ("Sex") and features such epiphanies as "I never wanted anything else from you/You're overrated." The other three include a fuzzy guitar instrumental ("Sunshine And Violence") and a whirring noise-out closing track ("Short Change Revisited"). The remaining song, "Stabbed," is the EP's centerpiece, a gleaming pop gem complete with a dour English vocal, lilting backing vocals and prickly guitar hooks. —Colin Helms

VARIOUS ARTISTS Abridged Perversion (Shrimper, P.O. Box 1837, Upland, CA 91785-1837)—The mostly cassette-only label Shrimper has been documenting California's Inland Empire scene for years. Abridged Perversion is a compilation of material that appeared on earlier Shrimper cassette and 7" compilations. A few of these artists (Nothing Painted Blue, Sentriddoh, Bugskull) are familiar from their other releases; most aren't, but of the more than 30 groups and individuals with tracks here, at least 25 are plenty interesting. Some are recognizable as songs (like the Mountain Goats' rollicking sing-along "The Window Song" and Franklin Bruno's slyly nasty "Clean Needle"), and others are simply weird sound experiments or spoken-word pieces accompanied by noise or music. The only unifying element is a devotion to offhandedness, low fidelity and tape hiss—the compilation was mastered on a chrome cassette. Dive in deeply, and you're sure to come up with something you like. —Douglas Wolk

VARIOUS ARTISTS Africa Never Stand Still (Ellipsis Arts, 20 Lumber Road, Roslyn, NY 11576-9894/800-788-6670) [cat. no. 3300]—Presenting one of the most ambitious concepts to pop up on the Flashback page in some time: a lavish, three-CD box set that more or less attempts to chronicle the history of African music over the last two and a half decades. Amazing? You bet. It's a strident and ambitious set, sort of along the lines of Mango's acclaimed Tougher Than Tough set last year, which used the various-artist CD box format to chronicle a history of the Jamaican musical milieu. Only Africa's a whole lot bigger than that tiny island and there's a whole lot more musical ground to cover, yet Africa Never Stand Still very nearly does it all. Whether you were collecting crackly Ghanaian highlife 78s back in the '50s, or stirred to the first arriving sounds of juju from King Sunny Adé in the early '80s, or whether you just got into it a little bit last year through somebody like Ali Farka Toure, there is much joy to be found here. Of course, this set's almost insanely broad reach, covering thousands of square miles, dozens of countries and literally millions of people, insures that something somewhere is going to get overlooked, but quarreling about what should have or shouldn't have been there seems petty and small-minded in the face of such abundance and richness. It's the little things that matter, like not forgetting Morocco and the North of Africa: so often when people think "Africa" they lose sight of how many vastly different and musically rich cultures the continent actually contains. Likewise, we were equally pleased to find more traditional acoustic selections to represent Senegalese vocal master Baaba Maal, rather than his more fusionary electronic work of late. Our only real complaint is a reverse one: the exterior packaging doesn't really inform the consumer of what's within, except for quippy little blurbs like "Hip-swiveling Kwassa Kwassa by Kanda Bongo Man" or "Luo Benga Guitar Music From Kenya." Let the titles and artists speak for themselves! Enquiring minds deserve to know all the treasures in store for themselves before they buy! And in case someone from Ellipsis Arts is reading, we'll reveal the next thing on our wish list: We think there's at least three CDs-worth out there in Brazil... —James Lien

FLASHBACK

215-832-0844—Whenever anyone accused Sun Ra of being too weird, his reaction was to get even weirder. Long before the end of his substantial career, his music was impossible to confuse with anyone else's, and it just got farther and farther away from the jazz mainstream and into the depths of the Saturnian keyboardist/bandleader's mind. Evidence's latest batch of Ra reissues is utterly idiosyncratic but never offputting. For anyone who hasn't previously heard this wild, long-out-of-print material, it's a revelation. Angels And Demons At Play, recorded in 1956 and 1960, and Fate In A Pleasant Mood, a document of Ra's 1960 Chicago band, are the most straightforward of the bunch; although they both have Ra's trademark clattering polyrhythms and peculiar horn charts, they have a handful of pieces that are recognizable as jazz of their time. The Nubians Of Plutonia and especially When Sun Comes Out (previously a very rare album) are transitional records. Nubians' arrangements are odder and giddier than earlier records (including a few of the keyboard-and-percussion improvisations of which there were later many more); Out is the most "out" record the group had made up to that point, with less distinct themes and wilder improvisation, although a few familiar pieces do show up ("We Travel The Spaceways," "Calling Planet Earth"). 1965's The Magic City has two of Ra's greatest pieces. "The Shadow World" is a wild, intricate composition that became a standard for his band, but the highlight of the album—and of this set of reissues—is the 27-minute title track, a 12-person free improvisation that sounds like it was summoned whole from the beyond. Ra's band (notably tenor saxist John Gilmore, bassist Ronnie Boykins and multi-instrumentalist Marshall Allen) was legendarily loyal to him, and years of playing together gave its members the ability to improvise together with psychic precision. "The Magic City"—named after the slogan that Birmingham, Alabama used—is preternaturally ordered and never descends into randomness or pointless blowing. Instead, it's full of silences, call-and-response sections, places where most of the players step back and let duos and trios happen. It operates on its own internal logic, and reveals a little more of that logic with every listening.

Atlantis, recorded in the late '60s, is also centered on a lengthy, improvisational title track, this time with a 15-piece band. "Atlantis" is half program music about the fall of a continent and half pure wildness, and a bit more chaotic than "The Magic City." Ra presciently plays electronic keyboards throughout, and the piece ends in a group chant of "Sun Ra and his band from outer space have entertained you here." Can't beat that. The other half of the album is made up of peculiar percussion-and-keyboard pieces, with Ra playing gasping, dizzy clavinet over multiple hand-drum lines. In the light of early-'70s soul (by Bill Withers, Stevie Wonder and the like) that used similar instrumentation, this sounds like some sort of bizarrely aphasical funk. Very weird and very much ahead of its time.

The last of the bunch, the soundtrack to Space Is The Place (a not-so-hot documentary/science fiction film about Ra and his Arkestra, from 1972), has never appeared as an album before. It's a nice overview of early-'70s Ra, with live standards ("Outer Spaceways Incorporated," an 18-minute take on "Blackman/Love In Outer Space") appearing in tandem with improvisations and brief showers of percussion. It's also a tour de force for vocalist June Tyson, who holds together some of the looser numbers with her sweet, soulful chants. Word is that the next batch of Evidence reissues will include two CDs worth of the complete Sun Ra singles. Start preparing yourself now. —Douglass Wolk

WAILERS The Boys From Tacoma: Anthology 1961-1969 (Etiquette, 5503 Roosevelt Way Northeast, Seattle, WA 98105/206-524-1020) [cat. no. 012693]—No, not those Wailers! (How ya gonna do the Limbo Twist or the Zig Zag to reggae?) We're talkin' the Pacific Northwest, U.S. of A., mid-1960s. Twenty years before Sub Pop garnered all that attention, there was something going on out there in Washington and Oregon; only instead of stringy-haired punks in flannel gassed on beer, it was neatly-groomed frat guys in orlon gassed on beer. That's where these Wailers, along with scenemates the Sonics, Paul Revere And The Raiders and the Kingsmen, were comin' from. Despite the tough competition, the Wailers ruled their turf back in the day: They released records on their own label (Etiquette) and recorded "Louie Louie" well before the Kingsmen. Even Paul Revere and Co., early on, aspired to be as big as the reigning local rock kings. Cutting their teeth on the local teen-dance scene, the Wailers were well versed in whatever it took to keep the kids at the Union Hall moving. As a result, The Boys From Tacoma's 27 songs cover an incredibly diverse mix of rock 'n' roll styles popular in the '60s. Despite the fact that they were exceptional musicians, the Wailers were arguably at their best writing and playing simple, fuzzed-out, vicious punk, the dumber the better. "Out Of Our Tree," "Hang Up" and several others included here are bona-fide classics that put the Wailers in the same class as premier '60s morons like Nobody's Children and the Standells. Don't let the cardigan sweaters and J.C. Penney slacks fool you, these guys were punks! But big-time rock 'n' roll's a tough game, and the Wailers never got the lucky break they so deserved. Perhaps if they had been as shamelessly crass as the Raiders they would have been more successful; had they been fully out of their minds on beer and pills, they might have become as legendary as the Sonics. As it stands, The Boys From Tacoma is an impressive body of work, one that defines rock 'n' roll in a different, simpler era—before it was spoiled by self-consciousness and dominated by kill-joys who take themselves way too seriously. —Steven McGuirl

CMJ RADIO TOP 150

Chart information is based on combined airplay of reporting commercial and college/noncommercial radio stations. Statistics are compiled from point totals tabulated from positions (1-35) of artists on airplay reports, then multiplied by station code factor (based upon programming, market size and market impact). ▲ indicates a significant increase in airplay, #1-5 equal or upward position #6-10, increase of at least 1 #11-20, increase of 2 or more, #21-30 3 or more. PEAK column represents highest chart position to date.

BEN HARPER

With thousands of artists attempting to get attention, many bands opt for gimmicks, while labels deplete their vast promotional budgets in an effort to be the one that catches the interest of the flighty public. So where does a humble, young singer/songwriter who plays soulful acoustic music on homemade guitars fit in? His point is that he doesn't necessarily need to be a part of that game, as long as he can write his meaningful songs, and have the chance to be heard by at least one person. His debut, Welcome To The Cruel World (Virgin), is full of Harper's intimate song-style, ambitiously taking on important matters of both a personal and universal nature, with simple instrumentation and smooth, unjaded vocals doing the talking. Welcome To The Cruel World jumps 80-45 in its third week on the chart, led by Harper's native West which lands the album at #17. Of the 482 top 35 reports, 58 stations chart the album, led by top 10 reports by KASB, KBUT, KGLT, KLBC, KNAB, KPCC, KPUR, KRCC, KSLU (MO), KUNI, KVSC, KYMC, WDET, WFUV, WNKU, WSOE and WYSO.

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

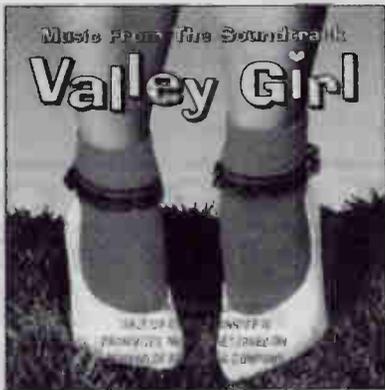

ON THE CHART

The month of March roars in like a lion, and on the chart, Atlantic's Tori Amos holds fiercely onto the number one spot, fighting off Matador's Pavement (2-2), which threatens to move up. Columbia's Alice In Chains moves up (4-3) with its new EP, as does Charisma's Enigma (5-4). Virgin's Smashing Pumpkins, which battled so long at the #1 spot, experience another surge (9-6), while Arista's Crash Test Dummies (10-9) inch up the top ten. RCA's Reality Bites soundtrack bounds up from 18-10, proving that the nation truly is fascinated with the twenty-something generation.

Beck's new full-length on DGC debuts at #18, winning the title of #1 Breakthrough, which banks on the popularity of the Loser EP. Nothing/TVT-Interscope's Nine Inch Nails rip up the charts, debuting at #25. NME glamour boys Suede debut at #31 with a new import 5" on Nude. Other newcomers on the scene this week: Rhino's Valley Girl soundtrack (#31), Warner Bros.' A Tribute To Curtis Mayfield (#44), Teen Beat's Eggs (#50) and Rhino's NRBQ (#57).

Flying high as kites on the chart this week: Blue Note-Capitol's US 3 (14-11), Rykodisc's Morphine (27-19), Matador's Liz Phair (26-21), American's Danzig (39-35), Zoo's Tool (52-36), Matador-Atlantic's Yo La Tengo (71-38) and Sub Pop's Spinanes (67-39). RETAIL FOCUS

VALLEY GIRL

Eleven years after the release of the movie, a soundtrack to 1983's sleeper classic Valley Girl hits the charts, a #37 debut this week and the #4 Breakthrough. The movie was based on the ever-popular themes of teenage culture and forbidden love. In his major motion picture debut, Nicolas Cage played the boy from the wrong side of the tracks, counterpart to the rich bitch from the San Fernando Valley, the valley girl herself. The movie is a historical reference point, dated by fashion, language (Valley speak) and music. Rhino has combined the original short LP with other songs from the movie, which were unavailable previously due to licensing problems. Bringing back '80s memories are songs such as Men At Work's "Who Can It Be Now?", Josie Cotton's "Johnny, Are You Queer?", Psychedelic Furs' "Love My Way," the Plimsouls' "A Million Miles Away" and Modern English's "I Melt With You." Tripencicular, like, um...gag me with a spoon, fer-sur.

BITES O' THE APPLE

It's official! Pianist JACKY TERRASSON, winner of the most recent Thelonious Monk International Piano Competition (which set off a bidding war of sorts for his signature on a recording deal), has inked with Blue Note. Terms of the deal and details about his label debut were not forthcoming. If you're not hip to this highly regarded pianist, check out his work as a sideman with altoist Jesse Davis (Concord) and Art Taylor's Waiters (Polygram). And, if you can find it, score a copy of Terrasson's inaugural under his own name, What's New, a sizzling quartet date (with saxist Antoine Roney on the front line) for the French Jazz aux Remparts label...Tenorman RALPH MOORE, quiet of late on the recording front as a leader (following earlier sides for Criss Cross and Landmark), is back in the bins, thankfully, with Who It Is You Are, a sterling showcase for his deep-bodied tone, on Savoy (c/o Denon, 135 W. 50th St., #1915, New York, NY 10020/212-581-2550). The astutely swingful, seldom glib Moore—heard to fine advantage on recent CDs by Kenny Barron (Other Places on Verve) and Eastern Rebellion (MusicMasters)—exults in the company of pianist Benny Green, bassist Peter Washington and that most resourceful of rhythmic alchemists, drummer Billy Higgins. Highlights of this recommended 70-minute session include the liltily mellow "Recado Bossa Nova," Green's "Testifyin'" (title track for one of the pianist's Blue Note sides) and Lee Morgan's "Delightful Deggy." Call up and get it...Speaking of tenormen, my current fave, JOE LOVANO, brings his new band into the Village Vanguard for a week starting Mar. 8. One might reasonably expect Joe Lo to bring into the Vanguard the same group featured on his new Tenor Legacy CD for Blue Note (Joshua Redman, tenor; Mulgrew Miller, piano; Christian McBride, bass; Lewis Nash, drums; Don Alias, percussion). But one has learned to expect the unexpected from the venturesome saxman, which is why the cognoscenti deem him the post-modern standard-bearer of the '90s. Lovano's new pianoless group, which will be recorded at the Vanguard for a future live album on Blue Note, is unlikely to disappoint, what with trumpeter Tom Harrell, bassist Anthony Cox and Billy Hart in the fold. As for Tenor Legacy, this could be the recording—melodic, hard-driving, sharp-focused—that convinces the jazz public at large what the critics have been saying for several years—Joe's the jam...Redman, Lovano's pal since they teamed up in pianist Don Grolnick's band a while back, is preparing to document his own new working band for Warners. The chordal anchor in the band, pianist Brad Mehldau, bears watching on the basis of his exemplary work on guitarist Peter Bernstein's terrific debut on Criss Cross, Something's Burnin'... Trumpeter Harrell, incidentally, brings his formidable technique and brassy alacrity to several numbers on the forthcoming debut CD by the reedman, whose work as a sideman in Big Apple

ON THE CHART

After slipping last week, JVC's Ernie Watts regains the #1 spot this week (2-1), his fourth time at the top, powered by #1 reports from KALA, KEOL, KSCU, KTEQ, WDPS, WEOS, WHUS and WUEV. Novus-RCA's Roy Hargrove & Antonio Hart set themselves up for a run at the top (5-3), while Atlantic's Modern Jazz Quartet debuts with a vengeance, moving A Celebration into the chart at #5. Prawn Song-Mammoth's Charlie Hunter Trio continues to turn some heads, inching into the top 10 in its third week on the chart (11-10). Two tribute albums mark our other two new entries this week: Novus-RCA's Mitchell Forman plays in tribute to Bill Evans (#19), while Milestone's Riverside Reunion Band pays honor to Thelonious Monk, as well as Wes Montgomery and Cannonball Adderly (#25). Keep the reports coming, we hit 119 this week. (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

bop and salsa circles (including Dizzy Gillespie's band) hasn't gone unnoticed, fulfills the promise on the Bobby Watson-produced The Departure, due April 12 on Columbia. Sanchez's six originals, supplemented by numbers from Gillespie ("Woody'n' You"), Jimmy Heath ("CJ") and Danilo Perez (the pianist on the date), exhibit his firm tone and, more important, his rhythmic ingenuity...The Lovano-Redman entente on Tenor Legacy isn't Blue Note's only superstar summit. Coming Mar. 22 is a feast for fusion-guitar fans—I Can See Your House From Here by co-leaders JOHN SCOFIELD and PAT METHENY...BYRON STRIPLING, a commanding trumpeter in his early 30s, hasn't exactly turned back the clock. But his take on the decade corresponding to his age, in particular the strut and swagger of '30s Louis Armstrong, has set him apart from most of his contemporaries, whose historical reach extends back only to early-'50s Miles Davis. Stripling leads his quartet into a newly opened midtown jazzspot, Iridium, Mar. 8-12. More riveting than retro—he's recorded with Sonny Rollins and Jack McDuff, the American Jazz Orchestra and the GRP All-Star Big Band—Stripling is a trumpeter on the move...If jazz and blues aren't one and the same (as some maintain), they're part and parcel. It'll be interesting to see how the Carnegie Hall Jazz Band, under the direction of Jon Faddis, affirms this symbiosis on "The Blues In Jazz," a Mar. 31 concert at the esteemed venue. The program is expected to feature pieces by Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Jimmie Lunceford, Benny Goodman and Woody Herman. Guest performers

Jimmy Smith (organ), Stanley Turrentine (tenor), Mark Whitfield (guitar) and singers Carrie Smith and Jimmy Witherspoon seem well-suited to an event that should succeed if swing takes precedence over semantics and genre hair-splitting...Preparations continue apace for the April 6 celebration of Verve Records' 50th anniversary, "Carnegie Hall Salutes The Jazz Masters: Verve Records at 50," which is shaping up as a monumental happening. It was Verve founder Norman Granz's jam-style concert series, Jazz at the Philharmonic, and not Verve itself (which Granz began in 1957), that began in 1944. But, technicalities aside, this Carnegie Hall extravaganza looms as a hot ticket, indeed, with the confirmed participation of such giants as J.J. Johnson, Antonio Carlos Jobim, Betty Carter, Hank Jones and Kenny Burrell, among many others. Verve's latest signees—Herbie Hancock (a co-host), wunderkind bassist Christian McBride and trumpet whiz-kids Roy Hargrove and Nicholas Payton—will also be on hand. On Mar. 22 Verve will reissue Jazz At The Philharmonic: The Original Concert (from 1944). A four-CD compilation, The Verve Story 1944-1994, is also expected soon.

HARD 2 OBTAIN Ism & Blues (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

—Between Joey Buttafuoco and serial-killer Joel Rifkind, Long Island, New York has had its share of bad publicity over the past year. Often overlooked is the amount of hip-hop royalty that L.I. has produced—from Eric B. & Rakim and EPMD to Public Enemy. Taste, DL and DJ Six Seven (named after his height) of Hard 2 Obtain fall neatly into the freaky freestyle bin of artists who hardly need a rhythm to kick their trunkload of inventive, school-yard lingo developed by years of personal observation into ambiguous, but digestible lyrics. Ism & Blues does little more than give the listener a picture of their block and surrounding neighborhoods, but they do it with the sharp-witted metaphorical quickness ("I'm out like Amy Fisher to a jail cell"), and frat-like wordplay of neighbors like Leaders Of The New School, but finish it off with a harder attitude. Hard 2 Obtain goes from giving shout-outs to their mothers on "Bust Me Down" to the cut "Heels Without Souls," aimed at exposing the senseless acts of hard-heads who bruise rap's image. With powerful production from Stimulated Dummies and DJ Nastee, beats are as plentiful as a rainforest, enhanced by small nuggets of soul, jazz and funk. Two members of their 12 Block Massive Crew (Artifacts and Raquel) trade rhymes on "A Lil Sumthing," while the sing-a-long choruses of "L.I. Groove" and "Ghetto Diamond" round out this ambitious effort. This line sums it up best: "I like to bend 'em, then I break 'em/then I rough 'em, then I shake 'em/eat 'em up mmm goody, like a sloppy side of Steak Ums." L.I. in effect on: "Jokers World," "Babble On," "Local Hero" and "Gaining Pounds."

ON THE CHART

As Grammy fever spreads across our humble dwelling here in Great Neck, future Grammy nominees A Tribe Called Quest keeps a safe distance from Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (3-2), which moves past Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr (2-4), and stays one-up on Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (4-3) (we hear Dogg is looking to pass a beat down to Garry Shandling). Fighting his way back into the top 10 is Elektra's resident Hieroglyphic, Del The Funkyhomosapien (11-8), while the only other real significant moves come further down the chart, where Elektra's Leaders Of The New School (19-15) get back in session, and P.R.O.Division/RAL-Chaos' Terminator X And The Godfathers Of Threatt re-enter the chart at #22 after a one-week hiatus. Debuting this week are Wild Pitch-ERG's UMC's (#30), Giant-WB's Hammer (#34), Ruffhouse-Columbia's Schooly D (#38) and Tommy Boy's Big Blunts compilation at #40. This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Casual; 2) Da King & I; 3) Das EFX; 4) Quinton; 5) A Tribe Called Quest; 6) Kurious; 7) Wu-Tang Clan; 8) Yaggyu Front; 9) Nas; 10) Snoop Doggy Dogg. hip-hop matured from a "passing fad" to reaching a level—thanks to groups like Run-D.M.C., the Fat Boys and L.L. Cool J—where it was, at the very least, acknowledged as a viable music form. Rappers were not just kings clad in Gucci, Adidas and fat rope chains; they became the ministers of urban youth's messages, describing real stories taken from America's ghettos and street corners. But, more than any other music, rap was the ruler of a crowd, best evidenced by the freestyle raps of "La-Di-Da-Di" by Doug E. Fresh & MC Ricky D and "The Show" by Doug E. Fresh & The Get Fresh Crew. The undisputed kings were Run-D.M.C. who, on the verge of the landmark Raising Hell, won crowds over with "Here We Go (Live At The Funhouse)" and the bass-rocking "Together Forever (Krush-Groove 4) (Live At Hollis Park '84)," a cut which inspired the "Miami Bass" sound. Roxanne Shante and The Real Roxanne—two of the more limited artists of the day, and long-time foes—are preserved here on "Runaway," "Romeo (Part 1)" and "Bite This," while former greats like UTFO ("Leader Of The Pack") and Whodini ("Freaks Come Out At Night") give us two dated, yet still worthy, classics. If parts five and six ever make it, we can look forward to the late '80's, when it was controversy (2 Live Crew), pop crossovers (Young MC), hardcore (Ice-T, N.W.A., Schoolly D) and the birth of political/conscious rap represented by Public Enemy and BDP that captured a nation. We can't wait, but until then, kick it back old school with parts 3 & 4.

SHADZ OF LINGO A View To A Kill (EMI, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Coming from the Kris Kross/Arrested Development-dominated city of Atlanta (although originally from Virginia), Shadz Of Lingo (Lingo, Kolorado and DJ Rocco) may not be exactly what the hip-hop community needs right now: they fall into the smug, self-congratulating sector of hip-hop which already suffers from faceless mediocrity. Like other crews whose moniker contains an "of" (i.e. Lords Of The Underground, Trends Of Culture, Leaders Of The New School), Shadz Of Lingo takes a firm grasp on the microphone and wrap roughneck lyrics with a dark, suffocating effect. Routine disregard of others and menacing scoffs are inherent characteristics of the group's disposition. While the crew is skilled enough to let their verbal styles wander, they mostly tread water inhabited by groups like Onyx, Cypress Hill ("Wherez Da Steel" and "Psychopathic Interlude") while stretching to achieve dirty dancehall on "Different Stylez" and "Always Stylin." The 10-ton funk found on "Mad Flavaz" features Erick Sermon (who featured SOL on his album) tossing a rhyme or two, and he produces it as well. Handling the faders is Diamond D., Dallas Austin and Solid Production (Lifers Group, Eazy-E) who pour a deep foundation of jazzy, noise-filled beats that provide ample allowance for a swift verse or a hardcore threat. Duck down on: "Ill & Get Clowned," "View To A Kill" and "Don't Test Da Skillz."

DEF12

C*SWING "Killin' Ya Softly" (108 BPM) (Peace, c/o New Breed, 460 W. 24th St., Suite 11C, New York, NY 10011/212-229-9416)—More bounce to the ounce is the key phrase on this C*Swing jam taken from the upcoming compilation, The Party Pack. From the label best known for its blistering Fat Jazzy Grooves compilations, C*Swing (whose cut "Hoodlum" was on volume six) and his Mo' Bounce Squad are represented here by the dogging vocal stunts of the Madhatter. With a booming hip-hop rhythm and a minimal amount of sampling, the end result is sharp and unuddled, making for a perfect party hit. The "Ingnorant Mix" is sweetened by the R&B vocals of Elaine Vassell, and the blunted "Nappy Headz Anthem" is added in for good measure.

Put a stamp on it and send it to Glen "T-Bag" Sansone at CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Rd., Suite 400, Great Neck, NY 11021-2301.

WORD IS...

After two releases on Network-I.R.S. (Welcome To My Dream and Hell With The Lid Off), Dallas-based rapper MC 900 FT. JESUS (a.k.a. Mark Griffin) has inked a new deal with Rick Rubin's American Recordings. His new album Loony Tunes will be released later this spring and features guest musician VERNON REID (Living Colour) on a remake of Curtis Mayfield's

ON THE CHART

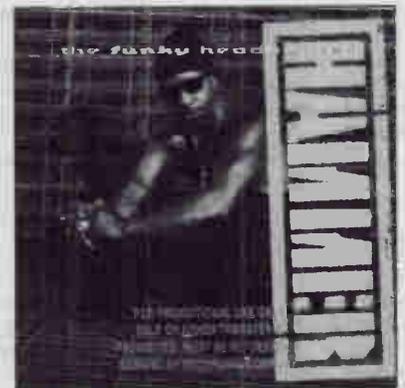

There's still no end in sight to the reign of Oeath Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (1-1), who leads a top four which remains unchanged this week. Stepping up in the top 10 is Motown's Queen Latifah (7-5), Rap-A-Lot's 2 Low, whose Funky Lil Brother reaches new heights at #6, and Scarface-Priority's Conscious Daughters, which moves its Ear To The Street from 10-7. While some of the gleam wears off releases by Next Plateau/London-PLG's Salt-N-Pepa (5-8) and EastWest America's Das EFX (6-9), action continues to improve for Luke's 2 Live Crew (13-10), Chemistry Ltd.-Mercury's Ed O.G. & Da Bulldogs (17-11) and Ruthless-Relativity's Eazy-E (14-12). Also in the works at American is the debut album from KWEST THE MADD LAD entitled This Is My First Album also due this spring...The full-length album from the BEATNUTS is due to drop May 24 and is tentatively titled Street Level...Ruthless is also getting set to release the debut single from STEFFON (a Cali-native) called "Frost Bit" on April 26, followed by the album Trippin' Wit No Luggage in early June. Similar to the consecutive album releases by Guns N Roses, EAZY-E's two-volume Straight From Tha Muthaphuckin' Streetz Of Compton: Vol. 1 & 2 will mark the first time a rap artist release two albums at the same time. BLOWIN' UP

HAMMER The Funky Headhunter (Giant, c/o Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505) Radio Chart Position: #34—I wake in a cold sweat only to see my worst nightmare become a reality—Hammer is hardcore! Do we place a bounty on this, the third mutation of one of the most maligned artists in rap, or do we listen first and cast our opinion at the polls? A voice at the outset of The Funky Headhunter calls him "a true player...a king of the mack daddy...the ultimate O.G." We'd just like to know where this O.G. has been hiding for the past three albums?

Or can it be that he's attempting to sanitize one of the most extreme and uninhibited forms of rap to spoon-feed to his impressionable, pimple-ridden fanbase? Beware, the jack-of-all-trades and master of disguise is stepping into the hardcore arena—the same arena inhabited by bangers like Dr. Dre, Snoop Doggy Dogg and Spice 1—to seize his O.G. propers. While debuting at #34 this week (second to the UMC's), Hammer nails down 8 of 139 radio reports. Sorry, don't mean to be so hard, we still think he's a nifty dancer. Stations beating the Hammer: KEPC, KZUM (#1), WDPS, WKDT, WRMC, WSBU, WSUW and WWSU in Dayton, OH.

KHALED N'ssi N'ssi (Cohiba, c/o Mango, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—The now maturing Algerian cheb hits his stride on this new album. Rai being what it is, it is no surprise to find that the influences range far and wide on N'ssi N'ssi. In addition to the punkish mix of organ and drum machine in the original recipe, producers Don Was and Phillipe Eidel add two distinct, personal spices to the mix. Eidel's approach is to make a hyper-modern Persian sound, full of strings (real and imagined), ouds and reeds; a sort of Om Kalthum-goes-'90s that hangs tight to the Arab and African tones. "Alech Taadi" adds a little salsa flavor, with Khaled's accordion popping over the strings. Was takes the more bizarre approach, fusing some heavy bass-driven funk with the Afro-Arabic grooves, lots of horns and not an unfair share of humor. "Serbi Serbi" cracks the album open with a lush horn over an earthy drum mix of darbouka and silicon. Smooth and romantic, the song slithers along dreamily, with a pedal steel, of all things, adding yet another layer of froth to the cocktail. Khaled's voice has matured, as well. He's more assured and less strident, but none of the edge is missing. There's also a track recorded at Real World's studios in Box, U.K., that features Michael Brook on guitar and Screamin' Hank Mustapha on violin. Maybe a 3 Khaled 3 record is next?

N'ssi N'ssi is definitely going to have its detractors. It's impure; it's over-produced at times; it strives to find an "international" sound. But the world keeps turning, and the idea of purity in rai is patently absurd, given its modern lineage. Khaled and his co-conspirators have always looked far and wide, from the streets of Algiers to the night clubs of Paris, for inspiration and color. This album continues that search, and it's a fun ride, so why not take it.

ASSORTED CREMES

Compilations of contemporary music are the marital aids of the music industry: they're nice to have when the real thing isn't available. Usually they are quick and somewhat satisfying, but they never really carry you where you want to go. Fortunately, there are some exceptions, and the latest set from Ellipsis Arts (20 Lumber Road, Roslyn, NY 11576/800-788-6670) is one of them. Africa Never Stand Still, the third set compiled for the label by Brooke Wentz, is somewhat safe, but still presents as solid an overview of the current African pop scene as you can get on three CDs. While anyone can quibble about what's not here, I can't think of many complaints about what is here. Zimbabwe's Stella Chiwese offers her pop-mbira grooves, Tarika Sammy plays its Malagasy folk, and both Kanda Bongo Man and Loketo's soukous are choice cuts. It's an all-star cast of who's hot and in the American eye these days: Thomas Mapfumo, Oumou Sangare, Youssou N'Dour, Baaba Maal, Papa Wemba, Ali Farka Toure and Ladysmith Black Mambazo. But

ON THE CHART

Just as it was hard to deny the strength of Mango's Tougher Than Tough box set (which is still hanging out, moving 14-9 this week), it'll be hard to deny the power of Ellipsis Arts' stunning three CD collection Africa Never Stand Still, which debuts this week at #6. At #1, Tommy Boy's Big Blunts compilation extends its lead in its second week at the top, with Green Linnet's Tarika Sammy (3-2) and Mango-Island's Khaled (4-3) the closest competitors, while Heartbeat's Starlights make a surprising run for the top five by leaping 13-4. Our only other two debuts occur much farther down the chart: EarthBeat-WB's Reggae On The River Part 1 (#23) and world music travellers Material, which just nicks the chart at #25. Just out of the chart but warranting mention: Tony Rebel Meets Garnett Silk, JPP, the Mojo Rock Steady compilation and Terror Fabulous. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS).

with a few exceptions, this set has songs and artists that are readily available to the curious listener. If you're already a longtime fan, this set has little to offer that you don't already know. As an introductory gift to a friend, or as a handy piece of programming material, you can't miss. Wentz has taken the roots route, and has created a pleasurable collection of Africa's best known talents...The MIGHTY DUKE and LORD KITCHENER both reappear on Ice Records this month, with a new one from the Duke and yet another compilation of early hits from the "King Of Calypso" (Ice, 2447 Linden Lane, Silver Springs, MD 20910/301-588-2869). Mask is the kind of record that can make you forget how hung up on technology soca has become. Despite the synth licks and the static drum machines, the Mighty Duke (a.k.a. Kelvin Pope) roars through a set of tunes that is what calypso is supposed to be about: sex, love, politics and dancing, along with various combinations of these essential ingredients. "The World Today" sums it all up in its suave attitude and potent message. In 12 tracks, Klassic Kitchener Volume 1 offers the historical overview from the undisputed ruler of Trinidad. It includes the oh-so-schmaltzy "When A Man Is Poor," the cryptic "Chinese Never Had A VJ Day," as well as classic calypso hits like "Cricket Champions" and, of course, "Nora." "If You're Brown" is his take on the American blues classic about race relations. With a touch of the old pre-jazz sweet bands and an irresistible Caribbean beat, Kitch is still King...If you need more, Rounder's latest stack of plastic includes Calypso Calaloo (Rounder, 1 Camp St., Cambridge MA 02140/617-354-0700). It ranges from a 1922 piano roll by Lionel Belasco, part calypso, part barrelhouse, to Lord Invader's raw and spicy "Rum And Coca Cola," spared the white-wash of the more popular northern versions. Also priceless is Duke Of Iron's tribute to the showbiz gossip columnist "Walter Winchell"...Even more charming is Shine Eye Gal: Brukndon Calypso From Belize (Corason, c/o Rounder, address above). Most of the album is duets by Mrs. Jennifer Middleton and Mrs. Debbie Perriott, accompanied by Mrs. Perriott's husband on guitar. Hearing the rhythm stripped down to its bare minimum is refreshing and even a little surprising. The rest of the record is scratch bands, including a track by the inimitable Mr. Wilfred Peters and his Boom And Chime Band. Just right...I'll end with my annual plea. If you want me to hear your music, you have to send it to ME! Below is my address. Use it. I can't review a CD or tape you mail to New York, Sheboygan or Timbuktu.

Peace.

HARDFLOOR

HARDFLOOR "Into The Nature" (12")
(Planet Earth, 6634 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-468-9494)—

German hard trance practitioner Hardfloor has gained an enormous audience in the U.S. since its second single, "Hardtrance Acperience" on Sven Vath's Harthouse label, arrived last year. This group's knack for building suspense and taut basslines rent by piercing acid sequences was borne out on the epic TB Resuscitation LP, which was released on the Moonshine label. Now, Moonshine's founders have split and Planet Earth Recordings has emerged, with the Harthouse catalog intact—and just in time for Hardfloor's crazed new single, "Into The Nature." Even if you got your fill of this track while listening to the full-length, the exquisite remixes here make this a mandatory acquisition. Hardfloor rounded up some of the most gifted acid pranksters on the planet to whip this track into shape. Richie Hawtin's rumbling, lengthy "South Of Detroit" mix takes the most severe elements of the original and condenses them into a moody, dark exercise resulting in one of Hawtin's finest re-workings to date. The immensely underrated Tim Van Leyden (a.k.a. Like A Tim) from Holland's DJAX stable applies his freakish, grimy acid patterns to brutal effect with a mix about as minimally angst-ridden as you're gonna get. Overdrive and Influence stalwarts DJ Tom and Norman add a hard melodic touch to "Into The Nature" and Hardfloor's own remix is a visceral delight. This EP is essential contemporary techno.

ON THE CHART

Look for the Orb's live record to enjoy a lengthy stint in the #1 position, and don't look for the Aphex Twin's Sire-WB debut 5" (this week at #2) to drop out of the top five in the near future, at least not until the full-length arrives. This week's highest new entry belongs to one Trent Reznor, with the long-awaited full-length project from Nine Inch Nails for Nothing/TVT-Interscope (#15). Bill Laswell and co.'s venerable Material make its RPM debut with its new Axiom record (#17), while Wax Traxers' Sister Machine Gun returns with a 5", debuting at #22. Making the furthest jump this week (17-5) is Moonshine's Dave Seaman-mixed compilation of tracks from the British Stress label. This week's compilation count is the lowest in the chart's life: six. HARD-TECH ROUNDUP

'More techno!' some of you cry. Well, if the new effort by Dave Clarke won't quiet you down, I don't know what will. Clarke is fast becoming one of the most highly respected U.K. techno producers since his majestic reworking of Aphrohead's "These Lite" became the underground sleeper hit of the fall. He's outdone himself with the "Protective Custody" 12" from the new Red series. The title track has a muted, punchy breakbeat spliced with roaring keyboards, while the exemplary "Zeno Zero" has a ranging 909 drum pattern wound tight with rushing, gated synth edits. Clarke is without a doubt a producer to watch (Bush, Ducie House, Ducie St., Manchester, M1 2JW U.K./061-237-9499)...The latest 10" EP from Thomas Heckmann's Drax/Trope acid label series is the full-bore acid maelstrom Doors Of Perception by PHOSPHENE, which just blows the doors off every hard German acid record of the past six months. Heckmann is a sombre fellow, but apparently when he gets into his analog studio, his restraint goes to the dogs and the result is twisters like this. Based around a five-note "hook," this heavily kick-drummed track has an intensity that is unimaginable until you actually listen to it at inordinate volumes. If you feel that hardcore techno is all faceless aggression, check this out (Trope, Frankfurt, Germany/Fax: 61-31-364-121).

MIDWEST MANIA

Raymond Barney's Dance Mania label can do no wrong right now. The latest addition to its catalog is the riproaring Basement Traxx, a six-track EP featuring the talents of Robert Armani, Paul Johnson and Mark Bernard. These three cannot, for the life of them, make a bad record. Make no mistake, this is whiplash Chicago electronics pared down to the bone, riding rhythms that are indefatigable. The superb "Wet Floor" moves like a rollercoaster, casting off sparks at each perilous turn, and Johnson's remix of the track is a leaping, diving, endlessly energetic affair that'll stop for nothing. And there are three more releases coming in the next week from this Chicago stable. Get ready (Dance Mania, c/o Barney's, 3400 W. Ogden, Chicago, IL 60623/312-521-6300).

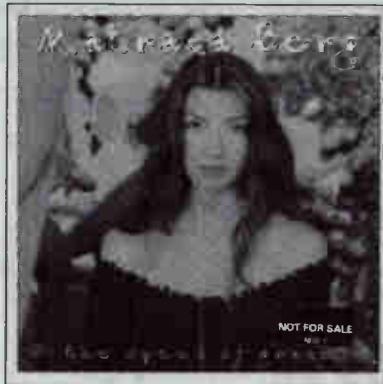

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

The presently trendy disco revival has resulted in innumerable tepid outings from vapid scenesters

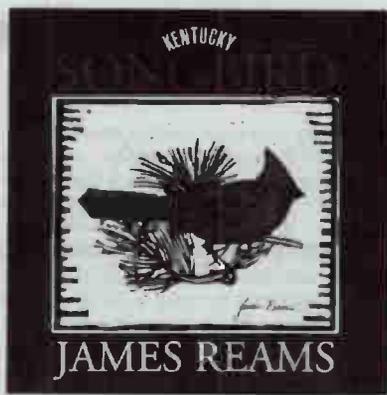

(many of whom may have never listened to the music). One of the sterling exceptions is the Azuli crew, based around London's Black Market dance store. You've heard this bunches praises sung in many quarters, and its latest Disco Elements Vol. III by SENSORY PRODUCTIONS will only bring further accolades. The group's passion for disco's roots means it can take a vocal or keyboard sample and build a thumping groove around it, never compromising its integrity. "Girl, I'm A Free Man" has a bassline so taut and rubbery, it'll turn a hardwood floor into a trampoline, while the tickling funk-bass slaps of "Feel The Body Heat" have an almost live crispness. Azuli won't release a record a month, but when it does put out an EP, it is of peerless quality (Azuli, 25 D'arblay St., London W1 U.K./071-287-1932).

JACKPOT!

MATRACA BERG The Speed Of Grace (RCA, 1540 Broadway, Times Sq., New York, NY 10036)—Always someone who has despised categories, Matraca (ma-TREY-sah) Berg probably won't like the fact that I'm calling The Speed Of Grace "country." The big difference between this record and her first, 1991's Lying To The Moon, is that her previous LP was recorded in and marketed by Nashville, while the new one was recorded in Los Angeles and is being worked by the big boys on the Coasts. Yet Berg's musical sensibilities continue to reflect her Music City background. Her lilting cover of Dolly Parton's "Jolene" and the bluesy classic "Come To Momma" are as country as anything recorded by Wynonna, for example. Her original material continues to impress. The gospel-inflected "Down To The River" and the sensual funk of "Tall Drink Of Water" prove Berg's got a soulful side, while "Slow Poison" flows with a passionate throb. As a whole, The Speed Of Grace doesn't fall easily into any slot, but there's no denying that it's a stirring effort from one of today's best songwriters.

JAMES REAMS Kentucky Songbird (Leghorn Music, 44 Prospect Park West, Dept. 5-C, Brooklyn, NY 11215/718-788-2048)—This is the kind of record that I just love. It comes unhyped and unsolicited from an artist that's unknown to almost everyone and proceeds to blow me away. James Reams is the authentic article: originally from Kentucky, he's now settled in New York City. Kentucky Songbird, his debut, is a hand-painted postcard from the past. Through Reams' live performances and as a permanent part of the Bluegrass Oldtime Museum in Owensboro, KY, he actively helps to keep traditional American music alive. If Kentucky Songbird is any indication, his valiant effort has paid off with splendid results. With the help of Tom Paley, one of the original New Lost City Ramblers, as well as Bill Christophersen and John Herald of the Greenbrair Boys, Reams performs 15 songs in an old-time style, yet makes them sound as fresh as the day they were composed.

SHORT SHOTS

One of the hottest records to come out of Nashville in a long time is the self-titled debut from RICK TREVINO (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211). A young Texan with a deep, hiccupping voice and stone country band, Trevino and producer Steve Buckingham have come up with a solid set of swing and honky tonk. Although he's not a writer himself, his taste in songwriters is fine, with Marty Stuart, Bill Anderson and Kostas represented. Highlights include the rowdy sing-along "She Just Left Me Lounge," the rocking "Honky Tonk Crowd" and the twangy "Life Can Turn On A Dime"...New Rose is a French label that releases a ton of music by American artists that are generally under-appreciated on this side of the ocean. ROIR (611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563) has been making these records available as imports for quite some time now, and the latest set of releases includes Honky Tonk Man from rockabilly great CHARLIE FEATHERS. Recorded in Memphis in 1988, it's a set of classics like "Blue Suede Shoes," "Roll Over Beethoven" and "That's All Right Mama," delivered in his distinctive style that's a little bit country and a lot rock 'n' roll...Conjunto fans and those who appreciate all things Tex-Mex are sure to love Cancones De Mi Padre (Songs Of My Father), the second release from SANTIAGO JIMENEZ, JR. (Watermelon, P.O. Box 402088, Austin, TX 78704/512-458-6275). Jimenez, Sr. is recognized as the most influential of all conjunto players from the 1930s and '40s, and his son pays loving tribute to his music on this very traditional set. Fans of the Bad Livers should be interested to know that Mark Ruben of the Livers also plays bass with Santiago, Jr. and wrote the informative liner notes for this record as well...Is it just a coincidence that JOE HENRY's Fireman's Wedding EP (Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl., Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882) and UNCLE TUPELO's The Long Cut + Five Live (Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505) came out at the same time? Both contain some great live music, especially Henry's down-home version of Merle Travis' "Dark As A Dungeon," featuring duet-ing vocals from Billy Bragg, and Uncle Tupelo's screaming take on Creedence Clearwater Revival's "Suzy Q" with members of the Bottlerockets. No complaints. Just wondering...I'm a sucker for big band swing and blues, especially when it features wailing horns, some hot guitar and a soulful singer. That's exactly what you get with COLIN JAMES AND THE LITTLE BIG BAND (Virgin, 338 N. Foothill Road, Beverly Hills, CA 90210), a tasty slab of that rock 'n' boogie that never seems to go out of style. Tracks like "Satellite," "Cadillac (Baby)," "Breakin' Up The House" and "Train Kept A Rollin'" are guaranteed to get your hips shaking.

IN THE NEWS

Warner Bros. will be releasing the second IRIS DEMENT record, titled My Life, in early April. She once again worked with producer Jim Rooney, so don't expect too many surprises...TISH HINO-JOSA will have her first for Warners, called Destiny's Gate, out in May...RODNEY CROWELL's first record for MCA, called Let The Picture Paint Itself, is also due in May and features a duet with Patty Loveless. Crowell is back working with Tony Brown. Their last project together was Crowell's career-breaking Diamonds & Dirt...ANI DI FRANCO will release Out Of Range, a collection of all new material, on her own Righteous label in late March. This follows up her recent Like I Said CD, a re-recording of old songs...Also due in late March is a collaboration between ALEJANDRO ESCOVEDO, WALTER SALAS-HUMARA (of the Silos) and MICHAEL HALL called the SETTERS, from Austin's Watermelon label...Jim Beam is once again sponsoring its Country Music Talent Search. The company's looking for unsigned country music artists for a "battle of the bands" competition that will be held in Nashville this October. For more information send a legal sized, self-addressed stamped envelope to Jim Beam Country Music Talent Search Contest, P.O. Box 5008, Ronks, PA 17573...Recommended reading: the article on country music and country radio in the March issue of Musician magazine. In a related note, after three great records that were "too country" for country radio, KELLY WILLIS has been dropped by MCA.

ON THE ACOUSTIC SIDE

Staten Island, NY, is not a hotbed for musical activity. However, it is the home to PROFESSOR AND MARYANN, a duo comprised of Ken Rockwood, who writes the songs, sings and plays guitar, and Danielle Brancaccio, who possesses an otherworldly voice. Their debut, Fairy Tale (Bar/None, P.O. Box 1704, Hoboken, NJ 07030/201-795-9424), is an ethereal combination of folk, jazz and poetry that's utterly charming. Songs like "Thief," "The Only Cool Spot In Town" and "There Goes My Baby" possess an undeniable cool, making this record an unexpected triumph...Although they've been around in one incarnation or another since 1975, NORTHERN LIGHTS continue to grow, working both the traditional and progressive side of bluegrass. Wrong Highway Blues (Flying Fish, 1304 Schubert, Chicago, IL 60614/312-528-5455) showcases their unique style and sly sense of humor. The jazzy "Sunny Side Of Blue," the clever riffs and shrewd wordplay of "Living Without You" and the hot picking and bright harmonies of the title track are prime examples of what Northern Lights do best...The latest from LEO KOTKE, Peculiaroso (Private Music, 220 E. 23rd St., New York, NY 10010/212-684-2533), is more of the finely wrought, yet slightly twisted music he's become known for. Kotke and producer Rickie Lee Jones do a great job of mixing his at times introspective, at times jaunty instrumentals ("Peg Leg," "World Made To Order") with a few choice covers ("Wonderland By Night," "Twilight Time") and a couple of his vocal excursions. Don't miss the gently devious "Turning Into Randolph Scott (Humid Child)," which features background vocals from Jones and Syd Straw.

Horizons is a column about country music for people who don't like country music. Send music for review and cash for my much needed trip to Texas to my attention care of CMJ, 11 Middle Neck Road, Ste. 400, Great Neck, NY 11021.

ARGH!!! IT'S THE LOUD ROCK REPORT

SOUNDGARDEN

Superunknown

(A&M, 1416 N. LaBrea Ave., Hollywood, CA 90028)

After years of denying its metal roots, Soundgarden has done the unthinkable—put its proverbial money where its mouth is. First Chris Cornell cut his Sampson-length hair, an act we can hardly condone since he now looks like a caring and sensitive art-student, the kind of guy that likes Alan Alda movies and says, "Bless you" every time someone sneezes. Even more shocking, though, is the band's revamped sound. Gone are the dense, down-tuned rhythms, which reminded us of steel girders sinking in a swamp, not to mention the crunching, boot-to-the-teeth guitars that reminded us of Sabbath at its best. These days Soundgarden sounds like it wants to be a (gasp) classic rock band in the tradition of Led Zeppelin, only without John Bonham's classic rock drumming. Superunknown vibrates in a mystical domain of bluesy guitar bends and high, melodramatic vocals, shimmying through each track with serpentine grace. Much of the percussion is syncopated or otherwise unconventional, and more than a few guitar licks undulate like loose telephone cables, lending the songs an earthy psychedelic feel. Perhaps Soundgarden deserves credit for steering away from its patented "Seattle" sound, and towards a more ambitious direction. After all, you can only play songs like "Big Dumb Sex" and "Outshined" for so long before you hunger for something different. Enter the Super realm of the Unknown with "Spoonman," "Let Me Drown" and "Black Hole Sun." —Jon Wiederhorn

DAISYCUTTER

Truck Fist

(Rockville, 150 W. 28th St. Room 501, New York, NY 10001/212-675-0922)

There's a workman banging on the wall next door with a hammer. The weather report just called for another foot of snow and the city is on red alert from a rare, deadly virus spread from mice excrement. The pounding in our heads threatens to overshadowing the noise of the hammer, and still the banging continues. As the first crashing chords of "Truck Fist" slam our feeble brains, everything becomes clear as broken crystal. We decide that the personal and societal structures we build around us are just flimsy fences against the chaos and turmoil of the outside world, and a band like Daisycutter acts as a gate, granting the curious a glimpse of the disarray without exposing them to the dangers that lurk beyond. Listening to Truck Fist is similar to visiting a sociopath ward: There seems to be logic, but it's skewed and twisted. It seethes with rancor and resentment, brims with insanity and brilliance. The vocals on the record are low and distorted, and the guitars are layered and processed to create a sense of dissolution, a sensation of coming apart at the seams. Songs like "Break" and "Liquid Tape" have a slightly wiggly feel, but that's incidental. Daisycutter isn't about escapism or self-discovery, it's about coping with the shit that surrounds us and glimpsing at the insanity that's yet to come. Heavy-handed (or fisted) stuff. Smear mouse droppings in your hair and bury your head in the snow to "Your Disease," "Way Gone" and "Pig In A Can." —Jon Wiederhorn

Moistboyz (EP)

(Grand Royal, P.O. Box 26689, Los Angeles, CA 90026/213-663-3000)

Since this is Dean Ween's other band, most folks might foolishly assume otherwise, but the Moistboyz who absolutely steal the show on several tracks. What kind of a ghoul writes a lyric like "1.0 (Fuck No)," the greatest (and only, we're guessing) rallying call for driving sauced since ZZ Top did "Arrested For Driving While Blind" back in the salad days of '76? Heller is the real thing, a genuine creep, and if you have a sense of humor, or absolutely no taste, you'll love him like we do. On "U Blow," the records best track, he lashes out at the sad state of rock, screaming in a voice that oozes hate and bad vibes to the current crop of oblivion-bound losers: "Just another band, you blow/Just another song I know/Oh, and away you go!" Until things improve, this is our rock 'n' roll anthem. Cut math class and check out the above, plus "Carjack" and "Superseeker MD50." —Steven McGuirl

LUCY'S FUR COAT

Jaundice

(Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)

Depending on how you use the word, Jaundice can describe either a physical condition where the skin, eyes and urine become abnormally yellow, or an emotional condition where envy creates a disposition of prejudice and bitterness. This may not be appropriate though, since Lucy's Fur Coat is neither bitter nor particularly yellow. As for its urine, you'll have to ask someone else. For the most part, Jaundice is a foot-stompin', head-noddin' hard rock disc full of poppy breaks and great backup vocals. The record has a loose, spirited feel, leaving us with the impression that the band members probably have a great time in the studio. The live feel of the recordings is a pretty good indication that Lucy's Fur Coat can deliver the goods in concert as well. While the band doesn't really pull off anything groundbreaking, it has the kind of sound that should appeal to Sonic Temple-era Cult fans. Riff-o-rama guitars and pounding 4/4 rhythms are the keys here. All Lucy's Fur Coat needs is the approval of Beavis And Butt-head along with a killer video (hey, it worked for Tool), and the bounties of stardom may well shower down from the skies (but ain't that the story with a lot of bands). As for Lucy, we can only guess where she is, but if someone finds her fur coat (the yellow one, of course), please return it to the usual address. —Brian Ives

SHORT PLAYS

THE OBSESSED

"Streetside" (5")

(Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)

—Praised by a wide range of hard rock luminaries including Henry Rollins, Fugazi, Pantera and White Zombie, the Obsessed is the grandfather of neo-Sabbath sludge rock. Now signed to Columbia after many arduous years in indieland, the band is set to achieve the type of notoriety it deserves. Its upcoming album "The Church Within" will bring you to your knees, but in the meantime, what your palate with "Streetside," which lumbers and stomps with drunken finesse, and "Blind Lightning," a slower, more foreboding number which highlights Wino's fuzzy guitar crunch. Criminally ignored for too long, the time is now for the Obsessed to take over. —Jon Wiederhorn

CREEPER

Hardware

(184 Ellis Hollow Circle, Ithaca, NY 14850/607-277-6321)

—Just over a year ago, Creeper hit our metal charts for 18 weeks straight, peaking at number 32 with its self-released, self-titled CD, which sold 1,000 units without label support. What this band is doing without a label contract in its bony hands completely confounds us, both because of the band's relative success and its musical appeal. Hardware is a crisp, crunchy feast of grind and groove, attacking with six new songs that lay conventional metal notions to waste. Not that Creeper is that different structurally from any other unsigned band, it's just so much better. Songs like "Do Tell" and "Say High" are garnished with subtle industrial touches that make them stand out, and even the more conventional cuts are craftier and more punchy than many signed bands. —Jon Wiederhorn

In an effort to keep more in touch with the underworld of metal, Argh!!! would like to encourage unsigned bands to send in their demos or self-financed albums for possible review. Please send all materials including group bio to:

DIALOGUE

Jay Hughen, A&M Records, Hollywood, CA (213) 856-7139

You are now wise to the ways of the Super-unknown. To reach its next plateau you must continue to jam "Spoonman!" The foundation for a massive SOUNDGARDEN project starts now and begins with you. Do the right thing! The question mark impacted with an exclamation point!?! THERAPY? cannot and will not be denied with the strong and streamlined Troublegum! "Knives" leads the way while "Die Laughing," "Nowhere" and "Hellbilly" churn and chug along. Keep up the good work with the new DAMN THE MACHINE material. Results of the jacket/autographed CD giveaway next week. New in stores...the rock radio playing card series! Complete with the "just traded" subset Card #1 of the series is a beautiful foil-stamped hologram of the "most-popular-man-in-San-Francisco-even-though-he's-in-LA".

Jesse Lombardi, Century Media/Lonely Planet, Los Angeles, CA (310) 396-0064

WARGASM is kicking ass with number three most added and top 40 debuts. This is a strong record, so play it. GRAVE pulls number three most added and UNLEASHED takes the number four most added spot. Expect strong debuts next week. SPUDMONSTERS are a great band. If you dig DRI then get on this puppy. Unleashed Across The Open Sea is pulling Top 30, don't drop this record just because I sent you a live bootleg. STILLBORN, INTRICATE, MERCYLESS and COMECON are all getting great responses, but many of you still need to listen to these records. EYEHATEGOD is on tour with BUZZOVEN as we speak. Unleashed is coming with Broken Hope and Demented Ted, so beware. PSYCHOSIS and SUN should be landing as we speak. SAMAE has a godly release coming soon. The ASPHYX master tape just came in. Radio interviews are available. Retail and in-stores are available. Too many records, and not enough time in Hawaii.

Michael Rittberg, VP Marketing & Promotion, Metal Blade Records, Tarzana, CA (805) 522-9111

The ORGANIZATION continues to gain support every week. Its '90s style hard rock that deserves your attention. "Free Burning" is a great lead track to start. You can catch the band on its headline tour across the country. If you don't have a copy of the Organization or you need another copy, please give me a call. Coming in the next few weeks is the new record from GWAR. MTV aired the video for "Jack The World" this past week on Headbanger's Ball. Coming soon: new records from CANNIBAL CORPSE and SKREW. As always, if you need anything call me. Also, it was great seeing everyone at the Gavin convention.

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

So, I missed my comments last week. Ya know, I was trying to finish up just about everything so I could get out of here. The Gavin convention was way cool this year. Many parties and hip things going on. So now I heard some of you don't dig on the DIO record. Do children like lollipops? You love this Dio record. MOTORHEAD is doing what they do best, giving the fans hell, so just do it. BLACK SABBATH, MORBID ANGEL and Motorhead are in your face, that's live on stage. We know the ticket problem is bad, but everybody wants to see this tour. Bear with us for now till we clear things up. FOR LOVE NOT LISA is still picking up stations. You need to listen to "Rocket Ride" in a big way. Just like TAD, both of these records have something you need, awesome music. MUZZA CHUNKA's tour is picking up more stations and more fans. If you have not seen them live, go check them out. Give the record its fair due. By the way, many thanks to Rob and Sheila at Gavin, you rock. Mitchell Bros. anybody? You know you love that. Best of luck to Mike Rittberg, Mike Schnapp, Bill Fisher and Mike Marone. Way to go dudes.

Linnea Nan, Warner/Reprise Metal, Burbank, CA (818) 953-3692

Sheila—Thanks for a successful Gavin Rocks! Extra thumbs up to Ronnie James and Bobby Biohazard. Special thanks to Psycho and Ron Quintana (KUSF) for keeping me up all night. DIO phones are everywhere! Take note all you COR types! Touring, touring, touring! CANDLEBOX will go out with Eleven, then again with Rush! GREEN APPLE QUICK STEP is out now with Fishbone, and STRIP MIND still charging with the Organization and Muzza Chunka. They wind down March 13 at the RIP party. MORBID ANGEL is gaining new converts on the road with Motorhead and Black Sabbath! Yes, yes, yes. A new Metal World News is on its way soon! Add ALTERED STATE on March 8. You have the track, "Darkness Visible." Spend some time with this and allow your listeners to spend time with it! The band is amazing and shouldn't be overlooked! Call us for more info! Also, don't be the "Last In Line" for Dio phoners. Call us and we'll set you up.

Therese Mahler, Earache Records, New York, NY (212) 343-9090

As a physically and emotionally abused intern enslaved to Dan Mitchell, I am forced, once again, to write for Dan, since his laziness keeps him busy. As I sit here, curled up in a corner, nervously trying to think of what's happening at Earache, I can hear Dan's demonic laugh as his whip cracks against Sean's back in the next room. Poor Sean. He contributes so much and is never appreciated. I know my beating will be next, so I'll be brief... 1) SLEEP finishes off the Hawkwind tour this week. 2) PITCHSHIFTER, LAWNMOWER DETH, OLD SCORN and BLOOD FROM THE SOUL. 4) DISGUST's Brutality Of War will be released on April 26. 5) Call the Earache Retail Department if you need P.O.P. or promos. Please help us. Every record sold spares us a lash from Dan's cruel whip.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

I must say the future looks bright...GODSPEED, SURGERY, RUST, PANTERA and JOHN...When you hear these records, your limbs will explode!

Jill Castellano, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538

OK, We've got COVEN adds—agh! I mean radio impact date, this week. You know what to do. Have you seen the premiere issue of Sex, Tattoos and Rock N Roll? A beautiful, all-color new tattoo mag featuring the best tats in R N' Roll. Our own SKATENIGS are featured as well as Butthole

Surfers, Eyehategod, Morbid Angel and my good buds, the now defunct Spread Eagle and many more. Check it out! Skatenigs will also have a track on the QUAKE ROCK '94 compilation. A GUTTED record release party is planned for late March. These guys are fucking great. Just ask the thousand or so kids they blew away at the Michigan Death Fest last month. Wait till you hear the new Gutted and OPPRESSOR. They are both brilliant and most importantly original. O-r-i-g-i-n-a-l. You'll find yourself running around the station poking your eyes out and eating them! Really, trust me, it happened to an intern we used to have here. Anyway, I have an assistant named Jeannie doing calls now. She is taking the C&K stations and I'm taking all you. So you'll be hearing from us. Keep pounding out the VICTIMS OF INTERNAL DECAY. Bye, bye.

STICK is on the road with Type O and Life O! You must make a point to Go-O! Stick is gonna play LA La land for the first time on March 19! All sorts of dates throughout the country are happening. The stint the band just finished with Raging Slab was incredibly successful and the feedback I've gotten from radio people has been amazing! Mike Williams/WMH and Steve Cain/WMPG were totally blown away by Stick's performance in Portland, ME. Add to that a most impressed local club person bringing the band back to headline at his club, numerous spins on Headbanger's Ball and you've got one of the hottest new bands today. There is absolutely no reason for you not to play "No Groovy" or any songs off of Heavy Bag. And while you're at it, when you see Stick live or do an interview with the band, tell them I asked you to ask them about the barn. Another band on the road, who, incidentally blew away yet another radio guy (Ron Michaels/WRZR) is MUZZA CHUNKA. They're out with the Organization and Strip Mind and will be doing a few more Midwest dates as well as the Southwest. Call me for tickets and interviews for both bands. No matter what you do, Muzza Chunka and Stick better be on your metal show playlists because they've been touring and doing interviews and people want to hear them and I want you to play them. So, what have we learned today? Simple: Play "No Groovy" from Stick's Heavy Bag and "Float" from Muzza Chunka's Fishy Pants. Play it. Looove it. Sing it. Do it. seeyalaterbye.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbridge Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

DEMENTED TED—how can you not be on this record. They're brutal sound is kicking ass at stations all over the country. Interviews will be available soon. Get 'em while you can because they will be on the road for seven weeks starting in April with Unleashed and Broken Hope. Did you get a copy of the tour dates? The CROWBAR and Pantera tour is just around the corner. This is the way they were meant to be seen, in front of thousands of screaming fans. Only selected dates, hopefully you're one of the lucky ones. STRESSBALL are mentally preparing for their onslaught with Genitorturers this April. They're currently available for phoners, so let me know. Tour dates will be on the way any day now. If you need anything, call me!

"Prison Sex"
 (Zoo, 6363 Sunset Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90028)—With the astounding critical success of Tool's last video, "Sober," it's not surprising that "Prison Sex" finds a return to the same peculiar wire-frame animation found in Nightmare Before Christmas. While "Prison Sex" is every bit as disturbing and unsettling as "Sober," it is not nearly as graphic as its title might suggest. The clip focuses mainly on a small, marbled figurine with one wandering eye and a cracked face scouring the walls of his cell (which is actually a drawer in a gigantic room of drawers), looking for an escape. The simmering undercurrent of violence and oppression in the video begins to boil to the surface almost at the onset. A large, humanoid creature, clad from head to toe in black leather, captures, methodically dissects and examines the smaller, helpless figurine. It probes the creature's eyeless socket, gently breaks its cracked face and tears pages out of its diary. Although one might believe the use of animated subjects would desensitize the viewer to the action taking place, we can assure you that "Prison Sex" is a brilliantly effective exposition on brutality and exploitation.

MOTLEY CRÜE

"Hooligan's Holiday"
 (Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—We're with you: before this video we didn't give an umlaut about what was going on with Motley Crüe, but "Hooligan's Holiday" is a welcome surprise from a band that has been overwhelmingly dissed in the past. From the clever, yet subtle references to Clockwork Orange to the fierce editing of multimedia images to a great track, everything in this video adds up to a success. And when was the last time you saw a new lead singer adding something to a band, rather than just making them suck, making you wish for the old singer. New vocalist John Corabi helps bring the band into this decade, shedding glam, redressing the Crüe in a hyper-kinetic outfit of interactive metal. If Aerosmith can go underground to resurface as a new and viable beast, Motley Crüe has a chance again with "Hooligan's Holiday," a whopping indication that the band has plenty of life left, if not a brand new one.

SEAWEED
"Kid Candy"
 (Sub Pop, P.O. Box 20645, Seattle, WA 98102/206 441-8441)—It's nice to see that the musicians of the Northwest have a social conscience too. Following in the footsteps of Soul Asylum's moving and very successful "Runaway Train" video, Seaweed has turned its attention to the pressing urban issue of runaway bicycles. "Over 5 zillion bikes are stolen each year," the opening screen informs us. The video goes on to show us snapshots of a couple of the victims ("missing since February" is the caption beneath a defenseless young Schwinn five-speed), as well as footage of the dastardly thieves at work (shearing bike-chains open, attaching baby dolls and flares to stolen bikes) and, oh yeah, Seaweed. The band jumps up and down, yells its fun anthem, and tosses its hair around a field, a video arcade, and a few other places. "Kid Candy" may be a parody of a more famous video, but it's pretty darn effective, and often wildly funny in its own right. The images don't have much to do with the song (aside from some on-the-beat quick-cutting), but they're effective enough on their own that the video has drawn us back to watch it again and again. —Douglas Wolk ▼

"Alison"
 (Creation/SBK, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Slowdive's soft wash of guitar sounds and quiet, haunting vocals have inevitably lumped it in with the many other "shoegazers" from across the ocean, steeping its songs in the dreary imagery of England's cold and rainy world. The video for "Alison" allows the band to break from these trappings, revealing an uncharacteristic obsession with America. This obsession takes the form of a young femme fatale in New York City whose free-spirited meanderings lead her down St. Marks Place, wine-soaked gatherings and other avenues of self-indulgent fun. Interspersed among the girl's adventures are black and white images of Slowdive's dour faces as they actually lift their eyes from the floor momentarily to sing towards the camera. With the band's slow yet gorgeous, wash of sound as its soundtrack, this clip pieces the girl's hazy lifestyle into an almost psychedelic portrait, splitting the screen into bits of her whirling image and grainy silhouettes of the group like a Peter Max poster. —Colin Helms

SARAH McLACHLAN
"Possession"
 (Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Sarah McLachlan has more than good looks going for her. As a songwriter, she has the gift of being both poetic and wickedly straightforward, resulting in a rare, refreshing blend of artistry and intimacy. "Possession," her first video from her recent LP Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, avoids the visual cliches usually given to artists like McLachlan (that is, any woman who writes songs with the word "I" in them). Instead of showing this Canadian chanteuse in a haze of clouds, or spinning in slow motion in fields of heather with castle ruins in the distance, McLachlan's feet are on the ground in a concert hall with her band behind her. She opts to create any visual magic with her eyes, those enchanting dark, seductive pools that call men to drink and forever be lost in...sorry, what were we talking about. Oh yeah, "Possession" shows McLachlan to be a woman in charge of the music and not lost in some swirling goo of effects. The direct, though cleverly staged, approach to "Possession" may help people get to know that there's a woman behind that sweet voice, and may help folks concentrate on the song and not the image. —Steve Ciabattone ▼

"Whipping Boy"
 (American, 3500 W. Olive Ave., Ste. 1550, Burbank, CA 91505)—A song title like "Whipping Boy" makes perfect sense if you've ever seen Barkmarket live, or more importantly, witnessed the convulsive, almost destructive, stage demeanor of that band's lead singer, Dave Sardy. There's just something about the intensity of the performance shots in "Whipping Boy" that make the majority of alternametal crossovers look like a bunch of cookie-selling girl scouts in comparison. "Whipping Boy" employs glaring spotlights for live footage and a washed-out bleak tone for the supporting visuals. The counter story (featuring the tortured whipping boy) is not terribly lively, giving a pathetic and helpless portrait of the scrawny lead character, whose main action is tossing and turning in bed while being restrained. In contrast, Barkmarket's performance seems frighteningly chaotic, though the band's performance needs little contrast to make it seem so.

BRAND NEW HEAVIES
"Dream On Dreamer"
 (EastWest America, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—The latest video from this band of British/American/white/black musicians is an uplifting message of hope, focusing on the ability to imagine things, even though "life gets in the way." Filmed entirely in a warm sepia tone, the clip's two storylines—the band playing in the desert and a dreadlocked boy seeing images in puddles that aren't really there—come together in the end when the stunning and charismatic lead singer, N'Dea Davenport (last seen and heard on Guru's Jazzmatazz) appears dressed in a white caftan and leads the boy down a stone step into a cave. The song is a basic mid-tempo R&B tune whose hook is silky and poignant, echoing the message of the lyric. Brand New Heavies appear set to tackle the mainstream crossover audience, and songs like "Dream On Dreamer" are up to the challenge.

GUEST DIALOGUE

Alice Cohen of Die Monster Die, Roadrunner Recording Artist

As a kid I decided I wanted to make music, and that's the only thing I ever learned how to do. Living in NYC, I see incredible music on subway platforms: a woman hammering rapid-fire 16th notes on a xylophone for nickels; an old fiddle playing Appalachian music blends with the white-noise screech of the leaving train. Music is sound and sound surrounds. The sound of garbage trucks dumping trash. Car radios blasting thumping bass. People making music to feed themselves. Sometimes feeding their bellies, sometimes their souls. The music business is indeed a business and bands do become products, not unlike a new brand of cereal. But I don't feel sorry for millionaire rock stars who complain about the falseness or alienation of their newfound position. Because those people playing music in the subways—they may never make it out of the subway. In ancient Egypt, the bands that played for Pharaohs were all women. Women musicians have been around for eons, so don't insult us by assuming that women in bands—or angry, aggressive women—are something new or surprising. Music is by and for everyone: male/female/all ages and races. It unites. Music is a need. Music feeds. Sometimes, it can be draining. Being in a band is like being married to three other people at once. Bands that stay together for years deserve a medal for that feat alone. But, making someone feel something through your music is the only reward that really matters.

RECORD COMPANY

Dan Mackta, AutoTonic, New York, NY (212) 260-3389

"Shut yer stinkin' trap," the sock puppet said. I of course consigned him to the laundry basket. He had been listening to I Could Live In Hope, the new album by LOW. Eat it now. They're touring too so get out your lawnchairs. Also sure to cause confusion amongst the button-eye set is the debut album by JENNYANYKIND, Etc., which is being released on NYC's No. 6 Records, home of many artists. They too are a hard touring trio with an attitude (HTTWAA). Another three-some on the autoTonic roster (mmmm...) is San Francisco's FLOPHOUSE. Check out the new EP Oh Fuck on Stickshift (no cusses lyric-wise whatsoever, by the way). For the bath oil fanatic, we've got Whirlpool, the third SOME VELVET SIDE-WALK album. Out on K real soon. Hazy, gauzed-over shot of the horizon, distant—LP's from CRAY-ON and the GRIFTERS. My advice—hear Flying Saucer Attack (new self released import LP called Keep Vinyl Alive), Heavy Vegetable (bad name, good band), Eggs new blockbuster and the Refrigerator album on 18 Wheeler (and their new 7" on Ajax while you're at it).

Lulu Cohen/Bruce Rones, Pipeline Records, Hicksville, NY (516) 681-2125

SUNSHOT is still sizzling and bubbling. They're like a stream of darting dazzling satellites! Listen to cut one, "Nasties," and cut five, "Babydoll"! MARTIN NEWELL/ANDY PARTRIDGE are two happy jolly mates! They are currently working on another record due out this fall! On the pop/rock/R&B end, we will bring you the UPTOWN HORNS this March. The record is an upbeat authentic R&B/blues bonanza. It features songs by Keith Richards and Peter Wolf, Albert Collins, Ben Houston, and more. Get ready, the ride is about to begin!

Jon Clark, Ringing Ear Records, Newmarket, NH (603) 659-7516

Thanks to all who have been playing the DOC HOPPER and SINKHOLE albums, especially those who have been nice enough to call or send playlists. If you're playing our stuff but not making your Top 35, please let us know so we can be sure to keep your station on future mailing lists...BUG-JUICE heads to the studio February 28 to record their debut full-length, and Sinkhole will record a new 7" in a one-day session March 12. Hopefully, we'll have these out before the end of the semester. Sinkhole goes out for a mini-tour in March: the 18th and 19th at Shooters in Erie, PA (19th is all-ages), the 20th at Freakin' Pizza in Columbus, OH (subject to change), the 21st at the Decade in Pittsburgh, and then back to Boston for an all-ages matinee March 27 with Jawbreaker and the Queens. Give me a call for more information, or if you use E-mail, my address is jwcl@kepler.unh.edu. Later.

Sharon Joffe, Arista Records, New York, NY (800) 627-4782 ext. 2144

I guess I had a good time at Gavin if my office called to see where I was at 11:30 this morning when I should have been at work already. Oops. Insert the usual post-convention schmooze words here, I won't waste my time...I've had quite a few responses to the SPIRITUALIZED contest that's in my newsletter, though not all 50 CDs have been snatched up yet. So if you think my newsletter is just a bunch of promo-hype drivel, think again and read it if you like Spiritualized. Even Scott Carter reads it (and sent his entry in!) and he's your favorite promo person. CHAPTERHOUSE will have wrapped up a very successful tour by the time you read this. Thanks to all that made it out to the shows and did interviews. I stumbled upon a few more GLOBAL COMMUNICATION CDs (the ambient version of Blood Music) if you're still interested. SARAH McLACHLAN

Fumbling Towards Ecstasy has received incredible response from you college radio types (fuck you Chris White, and thanks for the T-shirt!). She's on tour with the Devlins across the amber waves of grain and even through those purple mountains, too. Do make it a point to see her in your area. It's truly amazing. STICK is touring and will be in L.A. on 19 March, as well as other dates throughout the country. Call for fix and in's. Same goes for MUZZA CHUNKA—on the road through March. Decent tunes I'm digging: St. Johnny, new Coil, Teenage Fanclub, Jawbox and this bizarre CD called Scanner. seeyalater-bee.

Mike Kondo, Sky/Naked Language/Ichiban Records, Atlanta, GA (800) 966-4244

To clear up some confusion, some stations may be getting calls from Lindsay from Naked Language about the FLESHTONES and FIVE-EIGHT (whose new CD Weirdo you should have listened to by now). Even though Five-Eight is on Sky Records. Naked Language and Sky are both owned and distributed by Ichiban, so they are just different imprint labels under one company. Makes sense? Sure does to me...Thanks to all the stations who have been playing the Fleshtones CD Beautiful Light. I'm sure your listeners are very happy. The title track is a great cut, and watch for the video shortly. Pete Buck, Michael Stipe and Mike Mills are all over this record. Check it out if you haven't yet...Five-Eight's Weirdo is another great well-rounded collection of moving ballads, punk angst and melodic pop tunes. The band will be touring shortly, so see them live. Tunes to listen to: "Mystery James," "Karaoke" and "You Never Look In My Eyes."

Keith Moran, Radio Promotions, Restless Records, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-2423

Out now: AMINIATURE, SMUT, GIANT SAND, CRAIN and SWAINS. Out now for techno shows: PSYCHICK WARRIORS OV GAIA, EXQUISITE CORPSE and Swains remix vinyl. Out now for singer/songwriter shows: DUANE JARVIS and MARLEE MacLEOD. If you don't have 'em, call for 'em now. Coming soon: SISTER PSYCHIC, LUNG and MARVIN. In the near future: ZUZU'S PETALS, GOD'S FAVORITE BAND, ZEN PARADOX, GREEN MACHINE and FAUNA. Watch for AMiniature dates with Seam and Silkworm, while Crain will be with Ed Hall, Unwound and a few dates with Unsane. Remember, I love you as if you were my own son or daughter, plus I would give you the keys to the car on Friday night.

Paul Ellis, Alternative Marketing Mogul, Delicious Vinyl Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 465-2700

Kick out the jams muthafuckers, the brothers and sister are back! The BRAND NEW HEAVIES with N'Dea Davenport on vocals return with Brother Sister, which should be in your hands as you read this. A collection of live jams to kick start your party and groove you out of this atmosphere. The Brand New Heavies—funk 'n' soul, live 'n' direct for the '90s. For more info, contact me or Pete Rosenblum at EastWest at (212) 275-2860.

Tom Gates/Frank, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

Thanks to everyone who is supporting DIE MONSTER DIE (you know who you are!). DMD will hit the road for three weeks in March on the East Coast...dates will be in soon. Giveaways are available, and we are setting up phone interviews with Alice on March 1. We love this band!...NAILBOMB, the side project of Mac from SEPULTURA and Alex from Fudge Tunnel, will arrive at your station this week. This is 100% hate-filled music that just rages. Songs include "Waisting Away," "24 Hour Bullshit," "Shit Pinata" and "Vai Toma No Cu." Check it out...On the other side of the musical spectrum is the second release from the MOON SEVEN TIMES. 7=49 will be out in March—call if you would like an advance tape...Brand new Roadrunner signing BUZZOVEN (an insane live band) will be playing the following cities in Feb. and March: Albuquerque, Phoenix, San Diego, Los Angeles, Berkeley, San Francisco, San Jose and Eugene, OR. Call us for exact dates and guest list information. Also keep your eyes peeled for the TYPE O NEGATIVE tour, which is scheduled to swing through Detroit, Cincinnati, Columbus, Cleveland, Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City, Los Angeles and Salt Lake City...On the way: BLACK TRAIN JACK and FRONT LINE ASSEMBLY.

Mike Wolf, Amphetamine Reptile Promo Fuck, Minneapolis, MN (612) 874-7047

Now at your radio station: Clusterfuck '94, a compilation of old and new material from CHOKEBORE, TODAY IS THE DAY and GUZZARD commemorating (and funding) their current European tour. Coming next: HAMMER-HEAD Into The Vortex. Completely dominant anti-matter explosions and how they sound in outer space is an underlying theme (I think). Great cover to boot. Also soon and on a much different note is the debut full-length by the CROWS, who are from Seattle and feature a couple of former members of the U-Men. If you put Beefheart, the Ventures and the U-Men in a blender, then you'd have a bloody mess and a lot of explaining to do. But musically it might give you some idea what the Crows sound like. In the "Too-good-to-give-away-for-free" department, we have the rebirth of the Dope, Guns & Fucking In The Streets singles. Volume 8 has exclusive (and blistering) tracks from SUPERCHUNK, JAWBOX, GUZZARD and GODHEADSILO. Please don't call up asking why you didn't get one, as about three people in North America will be getting free copies. Volumes 9-11 will be coming out soon (with bands like the BOREDOMS, BREEDERS, BALTER SPACE, TODAY IS THE DAY, ROCKET FROM THE CRYPT, Chokebore, BARKMARKET, CRAIN and others) and then we'll have a full-length with all four singles. Further down the pipe: JANITOR JOE LP and another video comp. Radio stations and video outlets looking to get promos, please send me playlists and info.

Chuck P. & John Perrone, Caroline Records, New York, NY (212) 989-2929
Well now that Gavin is over, it is time for Caroline to start kicking into high gear...The first new thing you will be getting from us is Hex by BARK PSYCHOSIS. Some of you have the import single of "A Street Scene," check it out. If you dig Verve and the Cocteau Twins, you will not want to pass up this mesmerizing record... Next up, Astralwerks gives you Barramundi—An Introduction To A Cooler World featuring JAYDEE and TRANSFORMER 2. If you are into Astralwerks' Excursions In Ambience series, this is most certainly for you...The sophomore release from Richmond, VA, sweethearts, FUDGE is just down the road. It's called Southside Speedway...Also, a new band from Portland, OR, PEACH, will have their debut record out in April called Siesta...Back and better than ever is the new one from ADRIAN BELEW, Here, and it is a treat to all...To use that great cliché "the next big thing from England" is Astralwerks' latest signing SEEFEEEL. Quique (pronounced "keek") will be their U.S. debut. Get ready for the cross of My Bloody Valentine and the Future Sounds of London... RealWorld has some great stuff coming your way including new one's from NUSRAT FATEH ALI KHAN and SHEILA CHANDRA...Still kicking: Re/Search: Incredibly Strange Music Vol. 1. How can any record with PERREY & KINGSOLEY and FRED LOWERY miss! You tell me! Lots o' stuff and more to come. This year has just begun.

Gary Downs, Alias Records, Burbank, CA (818) 566-1034
Hats off! Tori Amos makes it to #1 on the CMJ 150. Who would have thought that a Tonight Show appearance could generate so much college airplay. Counting Crows and the Cowboy Junkies are hot on her trail. Radio puzzler...which comes first, "Buzz Bin" or college radio airplay. Careful on that limb folks. Please trade in that

Alice In Chains EP for a Neutral Milk Hotel 7" so it can rest a little easier. PICASSO TRIGGER's ;Fire In The Hole! is out 2/21. THRONEBERRY's Sangria will tear your heart out. SMALL 23 has an EP coming out in March. ARCHERS OF LOAF will finally cross the Mississippi River westward. Buy them a beer, I'm sure they'd accept. Call if you need anything.

Chris White, College Promotions, Elektra Entertainment, New York, NY (212) 275-4123

Congrats to Idaho's favorite son and second chief export, Timothy "Don't scrub yourself up" Cook, who has managed to escape his indie-rock shackles. He will be sorely missed, but ultimately accepting his rightful place as heir of the Cook family chain of bioenergetic self-help centers back in Boise will not only prove to be more profitable than his previous position as C/Z Records chief custodial engineer and maladjusted cosmetician but make his grandmother very proud. In other non-related insanity: best experiences of '94 (so far) involving loud volumes 1. Effective inter-office repulsion of the new Pearl Jam by blasting the brilliant 1977 Gary Wilson record You Think You Really Know Me; 2. Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan blaring nightly at the corner Gaserteria; 3. Grifters' new material live at Maxwells; 4. "Cannonball" booming outta jeeps on Steinway in Astoria...By now, TH FAITH HEALERS' new record, Imaginary Friend, should have penetrated the thickest of skulls and been appropriately pedestalled to facilitate easy-access worship. Call me if you are confused. Tour dates with the BREEDERS to be announced very soon. Thanks for your continued support of the fiercely individualistic and blisteringly energetic second full-length from British phenoms the LEVELLERS. Don't miss them on tour with COMPULSION, Elektra's latest anti-somnambulant, starting April 7. LUNA's new release Bewitched on 3/1. It features guest guitar appearances from Sterling Morrison of Velvet Underground fame, as well as the return of Mercury Rev's Grasshopper. Look out for Luna springtime dates supporting the Cocteau Twins.

Scott Perry and Will Simon, Beggars Banquet/Thirsty Ear Recordings, New York, NY (800) 866-2313

Pull out the cowboy hat, we have some mighty fine bands performing at SXSW this year! Those of you heading to Austin need to experience our bands the way they should be experienced—live. Look for RADIAL SPANGLE, QUEEN SARAH SATURDAY and SMALL BALL PAUL to fuck shit up on stage. Since you should now have Small Ball Paul's debut You In Flames, lemme tell ya: these guys are ferocious. Try "Like Swallows" or "Left In IL." Don't hurt yourself...Can anyone name the novel from which ROLLERSKATE SKINNY got their name? Here's a hint: this novel was John Lennon's killer's favorite book. Scooby snack to the first correct caller... HAIR & SKIN TRADING CO. are flattered to know that their CD Over Valence is making people rethink the notion of song structure. Hold on to all of your protruding parts because it's time for another Cort and Brian's Penis Report. I will start by saying that Brian did quite well in the Olympics this year. You might have seen him in the Penis Pole Vault. He got the gold and the world record height of 42'7". I, on the other hand (in the other hand?), have been down on my luck. I've been looking for a part-time (hand) job, but all I was able to find was "hoseman" for the fire department. My schlong is getting a little sore and stretched out... Now for our shameless A&M plug. THERAPY?/SOUNDGARDEN—trippendicular. We have jumped all over SARAH McLACHLAN (it was pretty fun too), and the new MATERIAL ISSUE. I also need to tell you to chart the shit out of THE VOICE. Good '80s sound. You should also be doing the lambada with FURY IN THE SLAUGHTERHOUSE. I wish that I could mention everything that's in our Top 35. Rotation is looking orgasmic right now, as a matter of fact, Brian just creamed all over the charting sheet.

Kevin Curnow, Program Director, WXAV, Chicago, IL (312) 779-9858

Three cheers for our "new" music director at WXAV, Ernie Torres. Ernie has been helping me listen to the "tons" of music that has been arriving in the station lately, note: PRAXIS, PLASTIK-MAN and Mysterious Encounters comp. While I've been busy listening to GROOVE SPOON, CHARLIE MUSSELWHITE and the RAMONES (of course!). By the way, Ernie is in the office every Wednesday from noon until 5 p.m...Went and experienced NIK TURNER at Lounge Ax the other night. Incredible. Thanks to Adam at Sub Pop for the superb help on the RED RED MEAT CD! It was well worth the wait! And how about that new PEGBOY CD? It rips and it's only four songs long! That's cool though, because it leaves lots of time for us to play the new MEAT PUPPETS, SHONEN KNIFE, THERAPY? and NAKED CITY. Whoa-nellie!

Jay Swing, Rap Director, CTR, Vancouver, BC, Canada (604) 822-3017

As the new rap director here at CTR I want to take a minute out of your day to let you know what I am about. I am about hip-hop, period. There is an overwhelming demand for rap music in Vancouver, but unfortunately there is little opportunity to hear it. That's where CTR comes into play. At CTR we want to play rap. We have five different weekly rap shows that cover all aspects of hip-hop. I guess what I am trying to say is that if you have a rap artist that you want to get played on the radio, then you should give me a call. You can get a hold of me on Thursdays between 11:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. Pacific Time. I look forward to hearing from you. I'm out. (For all other types of music, call the music director, Justin Leigh at the same number!)

Mik Davis, WUSM, Hattiesburg, MS (601) 266-4287

Hello, all of you avid Dialogue readers of the world. I am writing this urgent communique to let everyone know that we are still operating WUSM-FM, but things are quite bad now. So please bear with me in the desperate times while we forge ahead. First of all, we are under new management now—and we are suffering from a serious case of growing pains. My alternative programming has undergone dramatic changes, but we are still running, and will be running as long as I am here. Of course this has a price, so I must humbly apologize to all of you who have called me, I am trying to dig myself out. But the simple fact is I am working seven nights a week, late hours—so I have set aside time for you from 11 a.m. until 2 p.m. CST to take and answer calls. In this state of affairs, I am asking for all of the information I can get: tour dates, interviews, giveaways, and any way to steer clear of the selections which are not FCC-friendly. Plus we have a fax now, so call the station number first, and then they will turn the fax machine on. Hot hot hot: BECK, MELVINS, MK ULTRA, ELECTROLUX, the GRAYS, UNREST, JEFF BUCKLEY, LOW, ALL.

Don Jehlen, Station Manager, WNYK, Nyack, NY (914) 358-1718

Greeting from the baptized flame thrower of sonic dissonance better known as WNYK. I would like to update all princes and princesses of promotion that we have a new music director. Her name is Judita Beder and she's very cool. Did you notice a tingle down your spine as you said her name? Well anyway, you can reach Judita (there's that tingle again) on Tuesdays 3:00-5:30 p.m. at (914) 358-1710 ext. 510, or leave a message on the main line and she'll call you back, really she will. Kenny Mitchell is still handling Beat Box reports. Currently playing heavy on WNYK: KING'S X, the DENTISTS, POOR OLD LU, BILLY PILGRIM and GREENBERRY WOODS. New releases we're looking forward to: VIGILANTES OF LOVE, SAM PHILLIPS and the SEVENTY SEVENS. Now go make the necessary changes in your rolodex and remember my psychic phone line is always open—no charge Dionne!

Joe Cannon, MD, WVFI, Notre Dam, IN (219) 631-6888

OK, first off, all you ninnies are completely missing out if you're not playing all the great, great music the labels Gern Blandsten and Allied Recordings are putting out. Gern Blandsten is known for intelligent, intense punk and hardcore music. Get on your little annoying hipster knees and beg them to send you NATIVE NOD, GARDEN VARIETY and MEREL. Allied Recordings is whatever John Yates feels like putting out. Run to get down with J. CHURCH (incredible melodic punk from S.F.), FRICION (incredible melodic HC from Chicago) and the Music For The Proletariat comp. If you don't know about this stuff, that's OK. If you don't get hip to this stuff now that I've gone to the trouble of telling you, you just might be stupid. Both these labels are consistently fine. Finally, let me plug my own little podunk label, Rent To Own Records. Our first vinyl release (EMILY, Finer Time 7" EP) will be arriving at better radio stations soon, call for details, or just to shoot the shit, or e-mail me at joseph.e.cannon.4@nd.edu. Other beautiful things are LOTION, WOLVERTON BROS., PELT, GRIFTERS, HUGGY BEAR, EDEL, JACK POTENTIAL, SINKHOLE, SILKWORM, BABE THE BLUE OX, DOC HOPPER, ASTOR PIAZZOLLA and STAR PIMP. (P.S. the Readers Poll was a fucking joke, but at least Tim Cook got his proper props.) Thanks for putting up with my ranting, now eat your dinner.

Mary Koma, Dance and Alternative Music Director, WVUM, Coral Gables, FL (305) 284-3131

Greetings! If you want to know what's going on at WVUM, please contact me on Monday 4:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.—if that's inconvenient, please call whenever and leave a message. Or e-mail me if you can. I check my mail every day and it's so much easier! My address is marykoma@cybernet.sce.fau.edu. If any of you RPM reporters want to contact me (voice or e-mail) and talk endlessly about dance music, please do so! This is my last semester of college and I have a million things going on at once, so I now have a very wonderful assistant music director, Maile, a k a Miles; some of you might already know her. If you didn't know, WVUM did have a power increase last year, from 365 watts to 1500 watts and what a difference it has made. Another thing about WVUM you may not have known about: we have three dance shows now, Mary's House (underground dance), The Outlands (techno/alternative/ambient) and Decadent Dance (techno/club hits). Please keep that in mind if you service any of the above genres of music. Hello to Rob from WRVU and Johnny (Les) from WUSC. Thanks going out to Sheri at Moonshine, Brian at Sony, Chuck and Stephanie at Virgin, and Sivan and Adam at TVT. Ultra cool: OM, ROSE CHRONI- CLES, COCTEAU TWINS, GLEE CLUB, MEDICINE, the OTHER TWO, Stress compilation, SEALAND POETS, ORB and STAR PIMP!

Brent Wilcox, Producer of Night Land, KOTR, Cambria, CA, and WorldWind and Cryptomusicology, KCBX, San Luis Obispo, CA (805) 927-1953

Okay, just got back from Gavinating...Still great—BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE, OYSTERBAND, MEAT PUPPETS, the LEVELLERS, RICHARD THOMPSON, CROWDED HOUSE, RISE ROBOTS RISE (play 'em!), MATERIAL, TORI AMOS, HAIR & SKIN TRADING CO., KRISTIN HERSH, THAT DOG, OPAL FOXX and especially the GLEE CLUB...And am I wrong, or are the SEALAND POETS being unfairly overlooked by the promo folks? It's a great disc, work it! New on the horizon—the ORB, DURUTTI COLUMN, FRENTE, DOWNY MILDEW, TEL BASTA, MICK VRANICH, ENIGMA (still ersatz DEAD CAN DANCE with some BILL LASWELL mixed in this time), and despite their overly-cute name, PROFESSOR AND MARYANN is fun. In other genres, KHALED's latest is hot, so is TARIKA SAMMY, OUMOU SANGARE, new/old VARTINA, MARIA KALANIEMI and a couple incarnations of KIP HANRAHAN. And it took a four-hour drive, but I finally tracked down the latest DUB SYNDICATE, AFRICAN HEAD CHARGE and ANTON FIER discs. I've been on a "classic minimalism" binge with reissued PHILIP GLASS and TONY CONRAD & FAUST discs, and striking a newer note with KENNETH NEWBY, MEREDITH MONK, new FRED FRITH and CHARLES HAYWARD discs. My favorite hobby at Gavin was counterprogramming the video-request channel with all the odd and alternative videos I could find on the menu...I pulled off an hour-long block Friday night before it went back to commercial rap. Anyway, write me at Box 1554, Cambria, CA 93428. E-mail me at brent.wilcox@genie.geis.com. Fax me at (805) 927-0384.

Of the split, guitarist Mark Robinson says "I just hope the fans enjoyed the live shows, and our records left a good feeling in everyone's heart." Robinson will continue to run the Teen Beat label.

THE MONTH IN REVIEW

PAVEMENT

Crooked Rain, Crooked Rain
(Matador)

"Both arty and artful, Pavement reveals everything and nothing all at the same time...Like your all-time favorite albums, Crooked Rain, Crooked Rain asks more questions than it ultimately answers, which is only one of the hallmarks designating it a great album."

NINE INCH NAILS

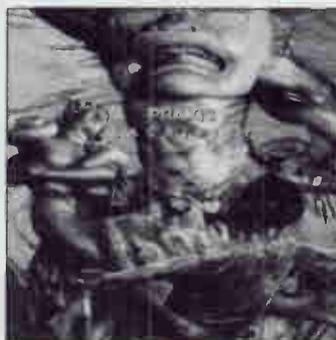

The Downward Spiral
(Nothing/TVT-Interscope)

"The years since Pretty Hate Machine haven't cooled Trent Reznor's fury, either lyrically or musically. Some of the lyrics, in fact, are the blackest, most flesh-loathing stuff heard on a record since the early days of Swans...The best parts of the album, though, are where Reznor pushes his industrial-pop envelope further than he has before."

PRAXIS

Sacrifist
(Subharmonic)

"But what sets Sacrifist apart from other genre-jumping noise-fests is its humor and musical wit: not only does it shred speakers, but its gargling histrionics and mutational sound also wink slyly at an industrial genre that too often takes itself far too seriously."

ELVIS COSTELLO

Brutal Youth
(Warner Bros.)

"In a way, Brutal Youth is Costello's Harvest Moon and Ragged Glory rolled into one: an artist reaching back to do what he does best, opting for spite over sentiment in almost every case...If Brutal Youth were a "come-back" record, it would have sounded tamer, more MTV Unplugged, but Elvis is still interested in shaking things up even in a mid-tempo ballad."
