UMG Launches Digital Distribution Plan

The Universal Music Group will invest in technology that will allow it to securely sell and distribute music over the Internet. The subsidiary of the Seagram Co. is working with Sunnyvale, California-based Intertrust Technologies to develop the necessary software, independently of other music industry efforts such as the Secure Digital Music Initiative (SDMI) and The Madison Project. Intertrust is the creator of the Digibox technology, a type of technology that embeds a code within a digital music file, preventing consumers from listening to the song without paying a fee. Universal hopes that its secure technology will allow its artists to benefit from important word-of-mouth advertising and viral marketing, which will help drive album sales.

The widespread use of digital music files, such as the popular MP3 compression format and Liquid Audio, has proven to Universal that there is a large enough demand among consumers for digital music to find an amicable solution alone rather than to wait for the rest of the industry. Universal's plan is to be able to sell and distribute music online by (Continued on page 18)

Moby Puts V2 Debut in 'Play'

By Steve Ciabattoni

From his early days as a DJ in the mid-'80s, Richard Hall (a.k.a. Moby) has played a pivotal, if not subversive role, in pop music, giving an innovative voice and a human face to the dancefloor, while preaching his vibrant rave punk gospel to the masses. On Play, his first album for V2 Records, Moby takes a decidedly downtempo and historical turn. Several of the album's tracks 18 feature prominent vocal samples from recordings made by Alan Lomax of great Southern spiritual and blues singers from the early > century. "The presence of these old sounds emotion and soulfulness," says Lawrence Lui, V2's

DIRTY DOZEN BRASS BAND Buck Jump (Mammoth)

While the celebration Mardi Gras is limited to just a few weeks each year, the seasonal music of New Orleans gives off a party vibe perfect for any time. With hundreds of shows and parades under its belt, the Dirty Dozen Brass Band is a Crescent City institution; for more than 20 years, the group has been a vital element of the city's thriving music scene. Buck Jump, the ensemble's second Mammoth release, is another pot of gumbo seasoned with such time-tested ingredients as early brass band jazz and rambunctious, R&Bmarinated bebop. Undoubtedly the funkiest combo ever to wield a sousaphone, the DDBB's rump shaking grooves could even make the dead get up and boogie. Despite the presence of that big, bad, cumbersome horn, however. there's nothing remotely gimmicky about the group. The entire brass section is top-notch, effortlessly shifting from hard-hitting, traditional choruses into gnarled solos. Produced by keyboardist and occasional guest musician John Medeski, Buck Jump will surprise casual jazz-funk fans and take them on a spicy romp through the French Quarter and beyond. — Tad Hendrickson

RON SEXSMITH Whereabouts (Interscope)

II Given the subtlety of Ron Sexsmith's musical style, it's quite easy to overlook the complexity of his songwriting. His soft, unassuming voice and acoustic guitar-based arrangements suggest that he's a direct genetic offspring of the soft-rock singer-songwriters from the '60s and '70s. The poetic details that inhabit his lyrics and the warm, sad-eved melodies that carry them, however, exhibit a disarmingly beautiful grace that defies easy stereotypes. Sexsmith's third album Whereabouts, like his 1997 effort Other Songs, employs the gentle production work of Mitchell Froom and Tchad Blake, who bathe the artist's quiet pop flicker in an orange glow of elegant instrumentation. The record barely rises above a midtempo lilt, but Sexsmith's writing speaks as much about the more upbeat feelings of hope and empathy as they do the bleakest ones of sorrow and isolation. These grown-up, almost romantic observations of very simple, everyday things are framed by Sexsmith's own peculiar takes on life. His delivery is casual and his points are faintly drawn, but his way with words makes the mundane seem achingly poignant. - Colin Helms

INSANE CLOWN POSSE The Amazing Jeckel Brothers (Island)

Insane Clown Posse is one of the best and funniest novelty acts in the country. Not since the Frogs' Racially Yours tour has America seen such an evebrowraising and ironic black-face/ white-face minstrel show. Sure, ICP's lyrics are graceless celebrations of base-instinct vulgarity and Shaggy 2 Dope's nasal flow suggests a Midwestern Gilbert Gottfried, but such quibbles are beside the point. Combining the seductive. repetitive beats of commercial rap with funk-metal flash and the crass humor of hardcore-spawned yuksters (punk-era Beastie Boys, the Meatmen, Detroit's Motorbooty magazine), The Amazing Jeckel Brothers puts a conceptual vin-vs.yang, good-vs.-evil spin on the Posse's contrived but aweinspiring m.o. When Shaggy and Violent J trade fraternal rhymes, the vicious putdowns are as catchy as herpes. A couplet from the nihilistic "Fuck The World" perfectly sums up the duo's juvenile statement-of-purpose: "Don't bother tryin' to analyze these rhymes/In this song I say 'fuck' 93 times."

LEE FIELDS Let's Get A Groove On (Desco)

Veteran R&B entertainer Lee Fields wants to take you back to the days "before synthesizers, samplers, and drum machines... when it was all rough, and nasty, and genuine." In fact, the man artfully states these very intentions on the Apollo-friendly intro to Let's Get A Groove On, his latest offering of "super heavy funk." The 60-something bootymaster certainly does right by his guarantee, dishing out a brilliant collection of concentrated funkin' soul that's as nasty as a crackhouse toilet. With backing by Desco labelmates the Soul Providers — whose vintage grooves sounds like they've been electromagnetically siphoned from prime-time James Brown -Fields recalls the days when pimps were the notorious celebrities of the neighborhood and funk was an active platform for social commentary. Check his warnings on the blistering "Watch That Man," and his tales of the trials of an overbearing woman on "Hey Sallie Mae (Get Off My Feet)." But songs such as the jovial title track and the superfly instrumental "All By Myself," affirm that the majority of Let's Get A Groove On simply smokes. - Ron Hart

Matador Officially Splits With Capitol

Matador Records recently publicized the end of its deal with Capitol Records. In a mutually negotiated buyout, Matador co-founders Gerard Cosloy and Chris Lombardi will reacquire 100% of their label, of which Capitol purchased 49% in June 1996, as part of a three-to-five year joint venture and distribution deal. Matador will keep every artist on its roster, excluding Liz Phair, who will sign to Capitol. The Matador-Capitol titles, which include albums by Pavement, Jon Spencer Blues Explosion, Belle And Sebastian and Pizzicato Five, are now exclusively owned by Matador. The labels parted ways on April 1.

Chris Lombardi said in a statement: "Matador appreciates the high level of enthusiasm and expertise it has enjoyed with the Capitol team. However, as we look forward over the changing landscape of the music industry, we are excited to operate as a true independent again. With the recent consolidation of major labels, we believe that the independent community is more viable now than ever before." Nils Bernstein, the label's publicity director, told CMJ that the split would not have a galvanizing effect on the label's operation, but added that Matador would have more direct control over what media outlets and retailers receive its records, which would ultimately allow the label to better serve its bands.

The label posted its highest sales ever in 1998, helped along by releases from Cornelius, Solex, Cat Power and Belle And Sebastian. Its previous record year, 1994, benefited from high profile releases by the Blues Explosion, Pavement and Liz Phair.

Alice In Chains Box Set Almost Complete

While Alice In Chains has no plans to record a new album, a spokesperson for the band's management claims that a long-delayed box set of the group's work is almost finished. The currently untitled three-CD set will feature 40 songs, including hits, live material, B-sides, rarities, demos and two new songs that were recorded in September of last year. The new tracks represent AIC's first studio efforts in over three years.

One of the new tunes, titled "Get Born Again," may appear on a 13-song summer sampler that will precede the set. The box set may also include a long form video and an interactive CD-ROM, Hell Within. While the status of Alice In Chains remains in question, guitarist Jerry Cantrell is currently working on the follow-up to his solo debut Boggy Depot.

VIBE CEO/President Keith T. Clinkscales Resigns

Keith T. Clinkscales has resigned from his position as CEO and President of VIBE Ventures, the company that publishes both VIBE and SPIN magazines. Clinkscales, who held the position since 1993, has left to pursue a new business opportunity, the nature of which Clinkscales's publicist declined to reveal to CMJ.

Said Clinkscales: "The time I have spent at VIBE Ventures has been extremely rewarding on both a professional and personal level. I am extremely grateful to Bob Miller [President of Miller Publishing Group, which owns VIBE Ventures] and Quincy Jones, VIBE's founder, for their confidence in me....I am confident that under the direction of its accomplished management team, VIBE will continue its dynamic growth."

Indie Rock Festival To Take Place On July 4

The This Ain't No Picnic festival, featuring an allstar lineup of indie rock luminaries, will take place on July 4, at Irvine, California's Oak Canyon Ranch Park. Named after a song by legendary Los Angeles power-trio the les power-trio the Minutemen, the threestage event is scheduled to include performances by Sonic Youth, Guided By Voices, Sleater-Kinney and Sunny Day Real Estate. Other groups confirmed to play at presstime include Rocket From The Crypt, the Apples In Stereo, Superchunk, Mike Watt, Hovercraft, the Boredoms, Scarnella, the Promise Ring, Will Oldham and the Belle And Sebastian side project Looper. On naming the event after a Minuteman song, the band's former bassist Mike Watt told SonicNet, "I was really proud that they asked me if they could call it that. Maybe it will make people think of [deceased Minuteman guitarist/vocalist] D. Boon."

WHO GOT THE HOOCH?: Shootyz Groove is currently rippin' it up with its new single "L-Train" from the upcoming album High Definition (Kinetic-Reprise), due out on June 8. Gene Seeking New Label

British pop band Gene has parted ways with its U.K. label Polydor Records amid rumors that the band was dropped due to poor album sales, the NME reported. The band maintains that the split was by mutual agreement. The band, which has often been compared to the Smiths, is working on songs for its fourth album.

Gene's vocalist Martin Rossiter said, "For the past 18 months, conflicting vision of what Gene are and potentially could be have created an unworkable environment.... Now we have the chance to find out what we are really capable of."

The group is scheduled to perform at both the Reading and Leeds 99 festivals on August 27 and 28, respectively.

The Vehicle Birth Breaks Up

During a six-week national tour, Crank! recording artists the Vehicle Birth announced their breakup. The Boston punk-pop group, which formed in 1993, cited creative differences as the reason for its undoing. The five members strove to keep a low profile, rarely conducting interviews or allowing themselves to be photographed. The group released only one full-length album, 1998's Tragedy.

Orbital To Headline Summer Big Beat Tour

British electronica act Orbital will embark on a U.S. tour this summer with Lo Fidelity Allstars and Crystal Method. Although specific dates and venues for the tour have not been announced, the bands are scheduled to perform over a three-week period in July. They will likely play venues with capacities of 2,000-3,000. According to SonicNet, brothers Phil and Paul Hartnoll, the forces behind Orbital, said that the performances would have more in common

CARTIST SPOTLIGHT MAN OR ASTRO-MAN? Interview by Tad Hendrickson

For seven years now, Man Or Astro-man?, a group of aliens who crashed to Earth in 1992, has been playing surf music to cover up its potentially sinister observations of mankind. EEVIAC is the title of these outsiders' new album. It's also the name of their recent computer creation.

CM]: Greetings.

Birdstuff and Blazar: Greetings to you humble servant.

In light of the impending Y2K computer glitch, do you have any plans for New Year's?

Birdstuff: Man Or Astro-man? is oblivious to the looming catastrophes of Y2K, mainly due to the fact that we can rock 1900 just as well as the year 2000.

Did you take precautions when you constructed EEVIAC?

Birdstuff: There were some mental precautions taken, but as soon as the mainframe was built, the EEVIAC took complete control. The only thing it would not perform was the title hole-punching of the album artwork. We had to force the human lackeys at Touch & Go to apply the finishing touches by hand.

Couldn't your alien minds come up with a shorter album title than EEVIAC: Operational Index And Reference Guide, Including Other Modern Computational Devices?

Since you have now created clones, why bother with such a trivial thing as entertaining humans?

Blazar: Right now, within the current timeline, which has reached the momentous year of 1999, space is back in vogue. With Man Or Astro-man?, as well as other lesserknown entities such as Star Wars: Episode I and Futurama occupying the global stage, we shall reformat and reboot the world to EEVIAC compliance, which may or may not be entertaining for the human race. We will...Coco, what are you doing? Coco... Daisy, Daisy give me your answer true, I'm half crazy all for the love of you...

In a reversal of an earlier decision made by a Los Angeles appellate court, Marion "Suge" Knight has lost his latest bid for an early release from prison, said Victoria Pipkin, a spokeswoman for the Los Angeles Country District Attorney's Office. Knight, identified by police last month as a suspect in the March 1997 murder of Notorious B.I.G., was sent to prison in November 1996 to serve a nine-year term after a L.A. Nazareth Drummer Darrell Sweet Dies

Darrell Sweet, 51, drummer for the Scottish group Nazareth, died of a heart attack on April 30. The band was preparing to embark on the second leg of its U.S. tour in Indiana when Sweet began feeling ill. He went into cardiac arrest and was taken to New Albany Hospital where he was later pronounced dead.

Nazareth formed in 1968 and released its self-titled debut in 1971. The band's 1973 album Razamanaz featured the popular singles "Broken Down Angel" and "Bad Bad Boy." But it was 1975's Hair Of The Dog, which featured the band's biggest hit "Love Hurts" (originally penned by the Everly Brothers), that established Nazareth as a popular hard rock band in the U.S. Sweet is survived by his wife Marion, his son Michael and his daughter Maxine.

Tibetan Freedom Participants Donate Items For Online Auction

Several artists scheduled to play at the fourth Tibetan Freedom Concert have donated items to an online auction that will benefit the Milarepa Fund, the Beastie

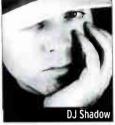

Boys-led organization responsible for the concerts. On May 28, fans can visit the Milarepa Web site (http://auction. milarepa.org/) to bid on the following keepsakes: a poster signed by Radiohead, a platinum certification for Rage Against the Machine's Evil Empire album, and a signed copy of the Beastie Boys' Skills To Pay The Bills home video.

Other autographed curios relating to Live, Mike Myers, Jane's Addiction and Pearl

Jam will be up for bidding. The most costly item is currently ticketed at $250, but prices are expected to skyrocket during the final hours of the auction. This year, the concerts will simultaneously take place on June 13 in Chicago, Amsterdam, Tokyo and Sydney. The Milarepa Fund aims to raise money for and generate awareness of Tibetan struggle against Chinese occupation.

Play It Again Sam To Distribute Mo Wax

Mo Wax, the London indie dance label that boasts the likes of Money Mark, DJ Shadow and DJ Krush, has signed a new German distribution deal with Belgian indie Play It Again Sam (PIAS). A&M Records, an affiliate of PolyGram, distributed Mo Wax worldwide until PolyGram merged with Universal. Subsequently, Mo Wax signed with the U.K. label Beggars Banquet, which inked the deal with Play It Again Sam.

Recordnews

The folks at Razor & Tie Records have compiled an impressive collection of Western Swing music for the new CD series Swing West! The first three volumes of this cowpoke anthology, Swing West! Bakersfield, Swing West! Guitar Slingers and Swing West! Western Swing, are in stores now. The records contain material by Rose Maddox, Spade Cooley, Tommy Collins, Hank Thompson, Merle Travis and the Farmer Boys, among others.

Buddha Records has released two new albums' worth of Frank Sinatra with Tommy Dorsey And His Orchestra. Learn To Croon and It's All So New! feature previously unreleased tracks by a very youthful Chairman Of The Board, performing in the 1940s on bandleader/trombonist Dorsey's weekly radio program. Each record is accompanied by a lush and informative booklet. Buddha has also pressed up A Handful Of Keys by Fats Waller And His Rhythm. This historic document revisits the only authorized live recordings made by this legendary pianist — a 1938 NBC radio broadcast and a same-year performance at the Yacht Club in New York City.

Female-fronted, loud rocking Skunk Anansie is back with a new CD single on Virgin Records. The enhanced-CD of "Charlie Big Potato" contains two additional audio tracks, as well as the video for the foctured cut. That song wi featured cut. That song will also be included on the band's forthcoming Post Orgasmic Chill.

The promo-only Relapse Records Sampler Spring 1999 is in your mailbox. This slip-jacketed CD provides an overview of the label's fiercely loud roster. Get a taste of the metal with previously released material by Neurosis, Exhumed, Today Is The Day, Amorphis and others. FThe sampler also features the exclusive tracks by Nasum and Benumb.

Dave Stewart has written an album of original music for the soundtrack to Cookie's Fortune, the latest film by director Robert Altman. The record includes dialogue taken from the black comedy, in which Glenn Close, Liv Tyler and Chris O' Donnell try to cover up a suicide by making the event seem like a murder. Stewart's thematic track titles include "Patrol Car Blues," "I Did Good Didn't I" and "Willis Is Innocent."

Neurodisc Records, a division of Priority, has

issued two new collections of hip-hop. Old School Ghetto Booty revisits the original versions of tunes from the earlier days of rap, boasting such subwoofer mind-joggers as Gucci Crew II's "The Cabbage Patch," L'Trimm's "Cars With The Boom" and Half Pint And DJ Mike's "Stomp And Grind." If you'd like to forget the history lesson, get down and do the nasty with Booty Party Ta'Go, a 14-track butt-slap of Miami bassleaning sounds by the 69 Boyz, DJ Smurf, Hot Bass Crew, A-Town Players featuring DJ Taz, and many others.

Wild-coiffed country crooner Lyle Lovett has given his fans a new live effort, Lyle Lovett And His Large Band Live In Texas. Curb Records, a division of MCA, has issued this in-concert title, which boasts 14 Lovett nuggets, among them "Wild Women Don't Get The Blues," "That's Right (You're Not From Texas)," "M-O-N-E-Y" and "I've Been To Memphis."

Sugar Hill has re-released Reflections, the 1980 RCA recording by Chet Atkins And Doc Watson. The historic collaboration between these two Smoky Mountains-born guitarists is a must for fans of flat-pickin' frenzies. The two men spent one evening selecting the songs among them, "Don't Monkey 'Round My Widder" and "You're Gonna Be Sorry" — that would appear on the LP. The liner notes to this spontaneous landmark include both Watson's and Atkins's commentary on how and why each song was chosen.

Kevin Burke, one of the most influential names in traditional Celtic music, has reemerged after a 15-year absence. A long-time active member of both Patrick Street and the Bothy Band, the Irish fiddler has gone solo for In Concert, issued on Green Linnet Records. Recorded live in Portland, Oregon, where Burke now resides, this career-spanning overview was worth the wait..

Dawson's Creek and Sabrina The Teenage Witch had their "soundtracks." It was only a matter of time, then, before a host of artists contributed music to Felicity, the latest in batty, teen-oriented television programming. Alongside the show's theme song, the Hollywood Records soundtrack release compiles ditties by Air, Joe Henry, Kate Bush, Sarah McLachlan and several others.

Shadow Records' Songs Of The Siren 2, contains previously released album tracks by the Creatures and the Doris Days. The two most notable tunes, however, are covers. Swandive takes on

R.E.M.'s "Losing My Religion" and Nonex reinterprets Nirvana's breakthrough "Smells Like Teen Spirit."

Permanent Press Recordings has released the first CD reissue of Badfinger's Airwaves. The LP, originally pressed in 1979, has been beefed up for the digital age; the disc version tacks on five bonus tracks, among them an outtake from the original Airwaves sessions. The CD booklet also makes use of otherwise unpublished photos and liner notes, courtesy of the band's Joey Molland and Joe Tansin.

Carole King is getting the royal treatment from Sony Legacy. The label has issued an expanded version of her multi-million selling 1971 album Tapestry, alongside two other titles in the King canon, Really Rosie and Greatest Hits (Songs Of Long Ago). These oldies have been re-mastered and repackaged with new photos and liner notes by James Taylor, Graham Nash, Maurice Sendak and Danny Kortchmar. Tapestry Mark II also includes a pair of previously unreleased tracks (the outtake "Out In The Cold" and a live version of "Smackwater Jack").

Capitol has released the soundtrack to David Spade's latest cinematic vehicle. Lost & Found is accompanied by an interesting and varied record of movie music; Roger Miller drawls out "King Of The Road," while Dean Martin takes it smooth for "That's Amore." In a totally incongruous moment, Deee-Lite's neodisco "Groove Is In The Heart" pulses alongside calypso by Luis Villegas.

Ticketmaster Service Fees Continue To Rise

Despite Pearl Jam's two-year battle against Ticketmaster, the nation's largest ticket vendor, the service fees charged by the company continue to rise. When Pearl Jam took up arms against the company in 1995, fees were between $3.$5 fee. Present fees are $5.$7. The company occasionally charges more, as it did for the Lauryn Hill tour. For two tickets to her Madison Square Garden show, New York City concertgoers paid $18.80 in service charges. In comparison, fees for a pair of seats to R.E.M.'s August 9 show in Los Angeles, added up to $23.80, making for a total price of $93.80 for two tickets.

To attend Woodstock '99, concert attendees will have to pay $329, $29 of which goes to Ticketmaster. But Pearl Jam's crusade may have been a lost cause, one promoter told Rolling Stone online. "Tickets are either going to sell or they're not going to sell. Fees have nothing to do with it."

Rotz Records Turns To MP3 For Promotion

Chicago-based independent distributor Rotz Records is offering free MP3 samples of its 12,000-title catalog at its Web site (www.rotz.com). Rotz's president told the Billboard Bulletin that the free MP3 files don't infringe on copyrights because the song clips are being used to promote sales of full-length albums. Each of Rotz's distributed labels have the option of not offering the MP3 samples. Among the labels that Rotz Records distributes are Epitaph, Estrus, Sympathy For The Record Industry, Honest Don's, Fat Wreck Chords, Dischord and Tooth & Nail. By June, Rotz expects to have 180,000-200,000 MP3 tracks available online.

powerful day of the year. The performers, who will be split between two stages, include Gov't Mule, moe., John Scofield, and new talents such as Deep Banana Blackout, Strangefolk and Percy Hill.

Galaxy Dance Network To Release Compilation

Slim, Underworld, James Brown and others. The network reaches two million people in southwest England, Birmingham, Manchester, and Yorkshire. It will launch another station in northeast England in early June.

Spanish Broadcasting System Purchases Interest In LaMusica.com

Spanish Broadcasting System (SBS), the country's largest Hispanic-owned radio company, has acquired an 80% stake in LaMusica.com, the Internet's largest Latin music Web site, according to Gavin. LaMusica.com, which receives over three million hits per month, features concert listings, a worldwide club directory, record reviews, videos, charts and artist interviews. SBS owns 15 radio stations across the country, including stations in Los Angeles, New York and Miami. LaMusica will also begin publishing a quarterly magazine to augment the Web site.

"The Hispanic market is booming – 26 million people with a purchasing power of $279 billion....With the purchase of LaMusica.com we are providing advertisers a new, more streamlined way to reach these consumers, while providing our own listeners with a first-class Internet service," said Raul Alarcon, Jr., President/CEO of SBS.

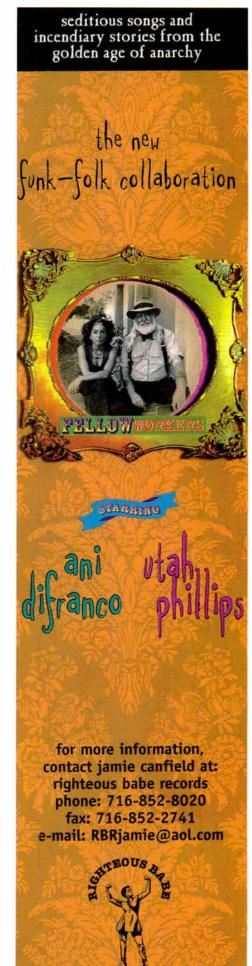

WebRadio.com Joins Arbitron Project

WebRadio.com, a new site that aggregates and broadcasts radio station programming, has joined Arbitron NewMedia, which is developing audience measurement services for Internet broadcasters, to webcast audio and video content, Webnoize reports. The Web casting alliance, dubbed InfoStream, is working to supply third-party measurements designed to help clients determine their online advertising strategies to radio stations that simulcast on the Internet, and other Internet broadcasters. Other companies working with InfoStream include Magnitude Network (www.magnitudenetwork.com), OnRadio (www.onradio.com), RadioWave.com and RealNetworks (www.real.com).

"As the use of the Internet for listening to radio programming grows, broadcasters are finding that knowing their audience is essential to their success, and is a critical factor when developing Internet advertising strategies," said WebRadio.com VP/GM Mike Weiss.

Christmas. "The demand is there, and the demand is being filled now by independent labels and illegal content," Larry Kenswil, head of ecommerce for Universal, told the New York Times.

At an $R \mathcal{C} R$ conference last June, Seagram CEO Edgar Bronfman Jr. said, "We believe that digitalization will spur increased sales. Technology holds the promise of revolutionizing the distribution of recorded music."

arrived at the scene and reportedly beat demonstrators.

ATR leader Alec Empire said, "I saw policemen attacking peaceful demonstrators, beating them with sticks without any reason. The demonstrators were holding up their hands and were rejecting violence at first....The police used tear gas before anyone started fighting back." The demonstration escalated into a riot while ATR was playing the song "Revolution Action." "It was hard to sing because of the tear gas," Empire continues. "Stones were thrown and the situation got out of control. We helped some people onto the truck who were being beaten up by the police....Then suddenly the power went off and we had to stop. The police arrested us." The band was later released.

Musicmusicmusic Inc. (www.musicmusic.com), which owns the RadioMoi Internet radio service (www.radiomoi.com). The DMCA clarified an area of ambiguity found in the Digital Performance Right In Sound Recordings Act of 1995, requiring that owners of copyrights in sound recordings also be paid royalties by Web casters for the public performance of their sound recordings and not just owners of the copyrights in the underlying compositions.

The Toronto-based RadioMoi will pay royalties to both artists and labels for music broadcast on its channels, as well as traditional performance rights royalities to ASCAP and BMI. RadioMoi is also negotiating licensing agreements with several major record labels in an effort to deliver interactive, on-demand programming.

National Director of College Radio. Two key tracks highlighting the vintage recordings "Honey" and "Run On" have been released as singles in the U.K. Videos have been shot for both titles.

Moby produced and played all the instruments on Play, which will be issued on June 1. The funky and upbeat first U.S. single "Bodyrock" is noticeably different from Moby's typical, richly orchestrated, sample-heavy fare. "I think this record is poised for across-the-board appeal," Lui adds. "The more 'out there' stations will be into the seamless blending of the old and the new, while the more mainstream stations will love the pop sensibility." Play features vocal tracks alongside lush instrumental pieces that could easily double as film scores. "The record is a fusion of many elements," says Lui. "It's both organic and electronic and it's catchy and accessible, while maintaining the level of artistic integrity we've come to expect from Moby."

CMJ New Music Monthly, Mixer, Details, Spin and MTV, among others, are scheduled to give coverage to the album. Moby is planning to tour in July with a three-piece band. A video for "Bodyrock" is also in the works.

Starting with 1979, each volume celebrates the year in music with 12 of the most important tracks as chosen by CMJ, extensive liner notes, top news headlines and the Top 25 albums of the year compiled by our music industry trade magazine, CMJ New Music Report.

Core Radio: #32 debut

Though many records this week benefit from last week's frozen charts by making huge jumps or impressive debuts, Arista's Dido is still a stand-out. Nearing the top 20 on the regular chart and appearing in the upper half of the Core chart, No Angel could prove to be a contender for top ten status or better, as college radio warms to this artist some are describing as "Sarah McLachlin with turntables."

JOAN OF ARC

Radio 200: #26 debut Core Radio: #23 debut

Though this Joan Of Arc album is titled Live In Chicago, 1999 (Jade Tree), it's not a live album at all. Instead, it's the band's latest full-length, and a surprise for fans used to hearing the band mine post-hardcore conventions. Joan Of Arc's new direction is decidedly more serene and experimental, making for an album that shows the band's potential for diversity. With a U.S. tour with Euphone beginning in June, the band's strong debuts will likely become long chart successes.

BOUNCING SOULS

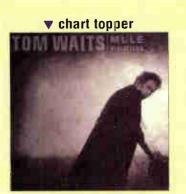

Radio 200: 184-34 Core Radio: #33 debut New Jersey's Bouncing Souls are 12 years into their career, but instead of becoming stale, the band continues to make fun, anthemic punk records like Hopeless Romantic (Epitaph). With a growing fanbase that it's built through non-stop touring, the Bouncing Souls have a stronghold on college radio punk show programmers, and the album leaps 150 positions on the Radio 200 while debuting at #33 at Core.

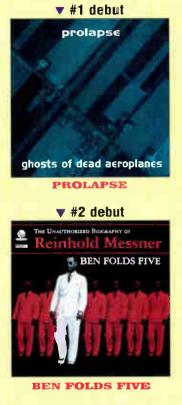

GENTLE WAVES

Radio 200: 196-40 Core Radio: #30 debut

Though only available as an import, the Gentle Waves hold special interest for many at college radio, since it's a side project of Belle & Sebastian cellist lsobel Campbell. Possessed of a girlish charm enhanced by Campbell's lilting voice, The Green Fields Of Foreverland (Jeepster (UK)) is a must-hear for diehard fans of the Scottish college radio favorites.

WEB SITE OF THE WEEK

UNDERGROUND HIP-HOP

www.undergroundhiphop.com Contact: Adam Walder 116 St. Stephen St. #201, Boston, MA 02115 Phone: 617.373.7182 Email: webmaster@undergroundhiphop.com

With audio streams from new and cutting-edge rappers and mixers, plus an archive singles of the week and some old-school clips, Underground Hip-Hop will satisfy the hungriest of hip-hoppers. Streaming radio shows include "New Joints With Scratching" featuring the worthy DJ Ry, who runs a weekly show on WMWM-FM in Salem, Massachusetts. A handful of Ry's killer mix tapes are conveniently available in the Mix Tapes section, part of UHH's online store. One of the best things about UHH is that is more than radio. The DJ Battle Clips section, which features brief but wild turntable action from Rob Swift, Mr. Sinister, DJ Juice and more, shows that UHH is hip to all aspects of what hip-hop and turntablism is all about. Also under the UHH audio banner is a little niche for old-school masters like Grandmaster Flash and Run DMC. About 10 new singles pop up on the site each week for you to check out. The UHH staff gives short reviews that don't hold back on praise or criticism, letting you know whether the rhymes are killer or the beats are bland. A chat room and a message board keep the community connected and local concert listings keep Beantown b-boys up to date.

Virgin Launches Mega-Internet Store

The long-awaited launch of Virgin's online shopping destination, www.virginmega.com, has finally come to pass. The site sells both music and videos to consumers in the United States and Canada. By the end of the year, the company plans to expand sales to the U.K., Japan and other parts of Europe. Although many industry-watchers are welcoming Virgin's muscle, some experts question whether the company has a chance to establish itself in the already over-crowded online marketplace.

Virgin head Richard Branson told the Industry Standard, "We have a site that comes alive in a way that Amazon doesn't. Our prices will be better than theirs and we have a breadth of knowledge in other areas that will also strengthen us." He went on to pronounce that Virgin has a "street cred with people who really know about music." In addition to participating in e-commerce and receiving music news, users may tune in to a 12-channel Radio Free Virgin streaming network, which is programmed by in-store DJs.

Wherehouse Launches Virtual Store

Wherehouse Entertainment, one of the largest music retailers in the U.S. has launched its online retail outlet www. wherehousemusic.com. Features of the site include custom-CD compiling services and Wherehouse Lost & Found, which allows users to gain access to the company's extensive database of used CDs. A store locator service will allow users to find nearby Wherehouse outlets. Whether or not Wherehouse, which operates roughly 600 retail outlets, can convert its retail consumer base to an online customer base remains to be seen. The company will have to compete against established sites including Amazon, CDUniverse and CDnow.com.

Liquid Audio Files IPO

Liquid Audio, Inc. (www.liquidaudio.com) has announced that it has filed a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission for an initial public offering of common stock. The three-year old company provided the Comission with an estimated offering figure of $60 million, although that number is expected to decrease during the approach of the late-June/early-Julv IPO date. Liquid's open-platform of digital delivery uses its proprietary Liquid Tracks format, as well as MP3, Dolby AC-3 and other audio formats. Although it is currently popular, the format faces stiff competition from AT&T's a2b (www.a2bmusic.com) and RealNetwork's RealJukebox (www.real.com) players.

Radio Phoenix Rises at Spinner.com

Internet radio network Spinner.com (www.spinner.com) has formed an alliance with New York-based Phoenix Media Group. The companies will launch Radio Phoenix, which gives Spinner access to Phoenix's impressive catalogue of classic rock live performances - ranging from Aerosmith to Frank Zappa — that were originally recorded for radio broadcast. The music is currently available as both a station within the Spinner radio player (at the Rare Live channel) and through a specially designed faceplate, created by Spinner for the Radio Phoenix Web site (www.radiophoenix.com). The faceplate will be programmed by Phoenix senior partner and FM Radio veteran Sam Kopper, who, having been the first program director at Boston's WBCN-FM, is considered to have been a lynchpin in the formation of the progressive rock format.

"As an independent label focusing on great past and present moments in live music, this offers a unique opportunity to continue to serve our core customer needs," said Tadd Flynn, managing partner and CEO of Phoenix Media. The Phoenix Media Group runs both the Phoenix Rising and Phoenix Gems labels.

Thomson Enters MP3 Player Market

Thomson Multimedia, which manufactures consumer electronics under the RCA brand name, has developed a portable digital music player called the Lyra. The device is smaller than a standard cell phone, and it can play up to one hour of music in various digital audio formats, among them RealAudio and MP3. The Lyra will also provide a means to let users record (or "rip") CD tracks directly into the player using RealNetwork's RealJukebox technology (www.realjukebox.com). Thomson originally co-developed the MP3 format with the Fraunhofer Institute. The company recently announced that it would acquire a 20% stake in MP3 software developer MusicMatch (www.musicmatch.com).

The two companies will make available for download a collection of songs by Bad Meets Evil, the collaboration between hip-hop phenomenon Eminem and Royce 5'9". Two Eminem tracks — "Nuttin To Do" and "Scary Movies" — are currently online, along with the song "Green And Gold," which also features the Anonymous.

In conjunction with Sarah McLachlan's upcoming live album Mirrorball and new Lilith Fair compilations, BMG-owned and operated inusic site BUGjuice (www.bugjuice.com) is featuring an exclusive McLachlan interview, live footage and the track "Possession." The RealJukebox also supports a2b and MP3 audio formats...Encoding.com (www.encoding.com) has launched a new site, MediaUpgrade.com (www. mediaupgrade.com), which allows media companies, music distributors, Web developers and others to quickly create streaming media (e.g., MP3, RealMedia and Windows Media) from non-streaming formats (e.g., AVI and WAV formats). The "Fotomat-like" service is initially being offered free of charge, but later this year, the company will instill a subscription rate, which begins at $39 for 100MB of work...Yet another player has walked onto the field of secure music downloading. Music producer and former N2K Encoded Music chief Phil Ramone has been named senior advisor to Lucent Technologies' (www.lucent.com) new Internet music download group. Working as an independent consultant, Ramone will promote Lucent's EPAC (Enhanced Perceptual Audio Coder) compression system, which squeezes down the size of a music file, while maintaining a CD-like sound quality...Sony Music, NBC and Starbucks are contributing to a $20 million investment in the popular community site TalkCity ... CD-R software makers Adaptec (www.adaptec.com) and MP3.com have entered into a partnership to jointly promote each other's products and services. The two companies will also create technology that will allow consumers to easily download MP3 music in order to burn their own CDs

...Tower Records, Launch Media, MTV Networks and WestWindMedia.com are among the newest members of the Digital Media Association (www.digmedia.org). The trade group — formed in June 1998 as a full-service trade association for companies that develop and use digital technology to perform, distribute and sell content — now has a total of 18 members. Currently, the DiMA is in negotiations with the RIAA, discussing potential performance licenses for Web casters.

KATHARINE WHALEN Katharine Whalen's Jazz Squad (Mammoth)

The high quality jazz standards on Katharine Whalen's solo debut suggests that the sweet-voiced Squirrel Nut Zipper is singing with increased confidence. Her tone phrasing have developed admirably her since somewhat Betty Boop-ish beginnings; Whalen is now capable of adding life and nuance,

as opposed to mere fun and costumed nostalgia, to certifiably classic songs. Backed by husband and fellow Zipper Jimbo Mathus, members of the Dirty Dozen Brass Band and a few of her local North Carolina pals, she gives a classy, romantic twist to softly shuffling gems such as "Just You, Just Me" and "That Old Feeling." It takes some nerve to step into "My Baby Just Cares For Me," a tune that Nina Simone defined, but Whalen's cool and coy style gives the track an irresistibly sunny, toe-tapping charm.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Suck It And See

(Pussyfoot/Palm Pictures-Rykodisc)

If sex sells, then Suck It And See should make a fortune. For this label sampler centered around the theme of pornography, techno pimp-daddy Howie B asked various acts signed to his enterprising Pussyfoot imprint to craft a tune or two. The resulting double disc of constantly titillating, often licentious electronic fare is the outcome of those artists' erotic efforts. Some of the parties in question are traditionally funky, layering lecherous guitar licks and saucy samples, sleazy grooves and Blaxploitation bass lines. The more adventurous folks let their imaginations run a tad wilder, manipulating their machines to produce an aural rendition of cyber-sex. Regardless of whether you fancy Japanese Geisha girls, phone sex, or freakier, more unmentionable pleasures, Suck It And See will take your ears from foreplay to climax. FUGAZI

Instrument (Dischord)

Instrument is not a proper new Fugazi record. It's the soundtrack to independent filmmaker Jem Cohen's artsy rockumentary about the Washington, DC-based, post-hardcore leviathans. Collecting 18 surprisingly ambient, previously unreleased Fugazi demos and practice tapes, the record primarily consists of four-track sketches that span the last ten years of the band's existence. Former straight-edge ringleader Ian MacKaye sings on only a handful of tunes, allowing listeners to focus on the music itself. While these bare-bones experiments were recorded in varying geographic locales, ranging from MacKaye's grandparents' Connecticut basement to Pirate House Studios in DC, Instrument is Fugazi's most focused attempt at mellowness and subtlety. The sweet, sad, piano-driven "I'm So Tired" stands out as the moody highlight of this quietly enveloping, unexpected release. -AmySciarretto

Fantomas (Ipecac)

Mr. Bungle's Mike Patton couldn't have launched his new Ipecac label with anything more over-the-top than the self-titled debut by Fantomas, his own avant-supergroup. Rounded out by ex-Slayer beatmeister Dave Lombardo, Melvins guitar god King Buzzo and Bungle bassist Trevor

Dunn, the q u a r t e t experiments with musical forms that would scare most Faith No More fans back to their old Scatterbrain records. Fantomas' 30

DARK FANTASTIC The Dark Fantastic (Up)

For years, Mark Pickerel has existed in the shadows of the Seattle scene — first as an early drummer in the Screaming Trees, later as a Sub Pop employee, and more recently as a founding member of Truly. Leading the Dark Fantastic, he's finally taken center stage. Given his strong vocal and instrumental presence on the band's debut, you'll wonder what took him so long. Over the course of the album, the talented songwriter proves himself a master of many trades. Pickerel leans heavily on dark and dusty Southwestern forms, but he also dabbles in Brian Wilson-esque pop, sludgy indie rock and even Gary Numan-inspired synth pop. Though he flips his styles as easily as one might flip a light switch, the singer unifies this cohesive effort with powerful sentiments and honest, moody vocals. The Dark Fantastic is an impressive debut, spearheaded by a soulful, seasoned musician.

The Green Fields Of Foreverland... (Jeepster)

Nearly every member of Belle & Sebastian is present on The Green Fields Of Foreverland..., the debut album by the Gentle Waves, the side project of B&S cellist Isobel Campbell. Though what's missing on this effort is Stuart Murdoch's irony and B&S's delic at e - b u tcharged playing, Campbell's charming girl's voice is a pleasure to listen to, and she frequently succeeds in creating moments of chilly prettiness with her piano, guitar and cello. Partially overcoming pallid instrumentation and nursery rhyme sentiments, Campbell almost fulfills the wish she sends out in the record's second track "Evensong": "You could sing along with my evensong/It might ease the drudgery." Played at the end of a hectic day, The Green Fields... offers the graceful consolation of evening prayer. — Carlene Bauer

ATOMIC FIREBALLS Torch This Place (Lava-Atlantic)

The Atomic Fireballs are not your average neo-swing outfit. The jazz-flavored Torch

This Place relies on a big band sound that evokes high-heeled Mary Janes and blackand-white wingtips dancing all over a shiny hardwood floor. The out-of-breath exuberance of the album, with its prerequisite finger-snapping, toe-tapping piano-and-saxophone melodies, is a virtual timewarp to the pinstriped, zoot-suited '40s. IDYLL SWORDS Idyll Swords (Communion)

What happens when two repenting indie rockers and a pal get busy with bowed guitars, sitars, ouds and various traditional.

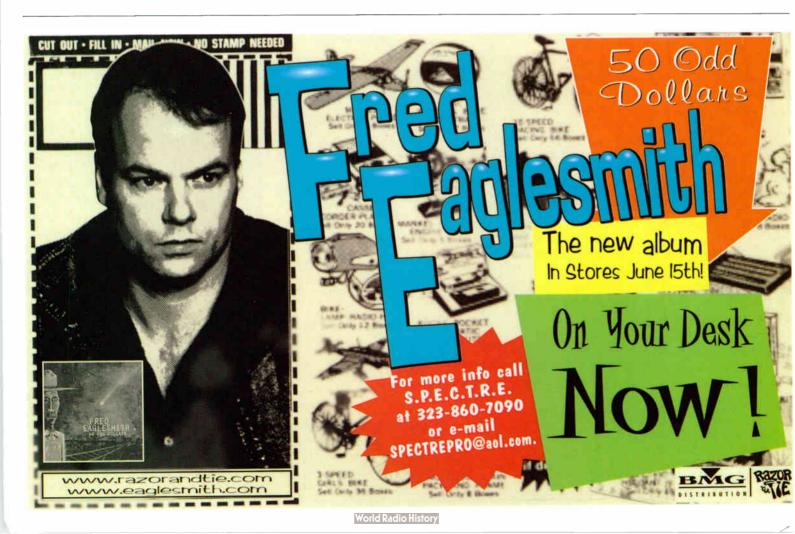

penting indie ith bowed guius traditional, non-Western instruments and ideas? Despite the p ot ential recipe for disaster, this project formed by Dave Brylawski (ex-P olvo), Chuck Johnson (Spatula) and Grant Tenille, succeeds as a beautifully reverent homage to Indo-Asian folk music, post-Fahey acoustic picking, Moorish scales and primitive American blues. The work is never dilettantish or rock-informed; its mostly instrumental vignettes burst with color, skillful playing and ethnic flavors both subtle and bold, with a refreshingly purist approach to the appropriation of ancient forms. While some tracks are of mixed descent, each geographically specific sound always retains its identity, making Idyll Swords a perfect antidote to slicker records with similarly good intentions. - Jordan N. trained vocalist Tina Root — resides on the shady side of the street, mixing traditional goth musicalities with electronic ambiance to build an artistic bridge between, say, early Siouxsie & The Banshees and Portishead. Root's bewitching vocals are enhanced by the intricately constructed songs' sinister overtones, which are modernized by space-age production flourishes and a techno-savvy mentality. HONEYGLAZED

The Trouble With Girls (Curve Of The Earth)

Though its approach may remind you of early Pixies and Girls Against Boys with a dash of T. Rex's classic glam-rock swagger, Boston's Honeyglazed arrives at a scrappy, throbbing big-rock sound that is anything but orthodox. The band is made up of three guys (two of whom are brothers) and two girls, and, unlike all the other big-rock contenders out there, Honeyglazed is 100% guitar-free. The quint et

The Bay Area quartet, Billie Joe Armstrong's long-standing side-project (established preplatinum success in 1991), sticks with the hard-hitting and straight-ahead on Shoot The Moon, and shows no signs of a sellout. The guitars are plugged-in and racing, the drums are fast and punchy, the amps are cranked, the lyrics are jaded, and Billie proves that he can still sneer with the curled lip of a street punk. FROGPOND

Safe Ride Home (C2-CRG) Frogpond's second album follows up its Art

Alexakis-produced debut, Count To Ten. Like that record, Safe Ride Home is a consistent, emotive and potent string of power-pop songs. The band, led by vocalist Heidi Phillips, churns out one infectious hook after another, without ever sounding trite or shallow. While some power-poppers write songs that eventually become interchangeable after repeated listening, Frogpond tosses in moodier tracks such as the shadowy "Sleep" or the stark, melancholy "Empty Room," lending the band an emotional edge often missing from similar acts. DRESSY BESSY

Pink Hearts Yellow Moons (Kindercore)

Dressy Bessy's Pink Hearts Yellow Moons is typical Kindercore fare, and the album's catchiness is likely to make it a new favorite among fans of the label. The Denver group's fulllength debut is a candy dish full of light, sugary pop songs that beg you to add your own la-la background vocals. Tammy Ealom, she of the clarion vocals and the catchy-but-neverchildish lyrics, is the best reason to sing along with Bessy. Apples In Stereo guitarist John Hill plays distorted guitar lines that update a baroque '60s pop feel with a cuddly '90s indie rock sensibility. NO KNIFE Fire In The City Of Automatons (Time Bomb)

No Knife is not easy to classify, which is why the band could potentially appeal to just about any fan of guitarbased rock. The quartet has a slightly mathy, but not too brainy, two-guitar approach, with chord progressions that are exciting and intelligent at the same time. The band forgoes all possible pretenses, however, turning in an album of frayed jeans-wearing, t-shirt-clad, regular-guy rock. Like most indie rock or emocore singers that have something to say, vocalist Mitch Wilson's style asserts itself with a similar sense of passion and urgency. Wilson piles on soul searching lyrics that demand your attention ("This distance won't kill me or bring you back"), or at least your kindredspirit sympathy. — Amy Sciarretto

Magical, indeed. Once again, Toby Marks (a.k.a. Banco De Gaia) marries the robotic hue of techno to the throbbing bass of dub with the organic, luminous vibes of Middle Eastern melodies, vocals and percussion to produce an album that transcends the boundaries of genres and culture. This is an arresting, enlightening, and upbeat album from an artist who remains a trendsetter, even at this later stage of his lengthy career.

MING & FS "Jive Talk/Face Down" (12") (Liquid Sky)

After appearing on Om's Deeper Concentration and Convergence compilations, this emerging Manhattan duo documents its evolving musical prowess with this stunning 12" release. "Jive Talk" opens with an assault of hip-hop lyrics over taut, steppy New York drum 'n' bass rhythms. "Face Down" stretches its bass-heavy vibes and erratic drum rolls over two tough movements.

Astralwerks Records recently signed London's Basement Jaxx. The duo — Felix

Buxton and Simon Ratcliffe — infects house music with strains of drum 'n' bass, electro, funk and disco. Overseas, the pair has generated a ton of attention with its single "Remedy," which is scheduled to be released in America on July 13. Basement Jaxx's debut full-length, also entitled Remedy, is expected to roll in like the second coming; hype rags are already saying that the record will do for house music what Roni Size's New Forms did for drum 'n' bass. The album is due out in August...Gus Gus, the innovative Icelandic collective, has lost a crucial part of its line-up. According to a statement issued by the band's label 4AD, singer/dancer Hafdis Huld, who had joined the group when she was a wee 15 years old, left Gus Gus due to "personal and musical differences." For the record, her departure has reduced the troupe's headcount to a mere eight.

Soundbombing II review. In the recommended tracks section, the song "One-Nine-Nine-Nine" was credited to the lyrical dream team of Common, Sadat X, Talib Kweli and Bahamadia. While the idea sounds phat, the current lead single for the album belongs to only Common and Sadat, while Bahamadia and Kweli appear on the track "Chaos", which most definitely gets my seal of approval as one of the hottest cuts on the platter. So, my bad. And now, your weekly Beat Box news...There might be a Smokin' Grooves Tour this summer after all, according to Rolling Stone online. Organizers of the hip-hop festival are planning a six-to-eight week run, which will begin sometime in July. Tentative participants for this year's circus include OutKast, Goodie Mob, Cool Breeze, the Roots and Eminem. How cool does that sound?...In other Slim Shady news, the CDuctive.com Web site is featuring the two Bad Meets Evil songs, recorded by the duo of Mr. Mathers and Royce. The pair's label, Game Recordings, has allowed CDuctive to use several versions of both (continued on page 39)

RUFF RYDERS

Ryde or Die Vol. 1 (Ruff Ryders-Interscope) After appearing on both DMN albums, the Ruff Ryders crew returns on this all-star collection of blazin' hip-hop and R&B. As 20-year-old producer Swizz Beatz drops monster beats from behind the decks, the 11-member rhyme cartel descends upon you from all directions with a little lyrical help from guests such as Jay-Z, Mase, Juvenile, Big Pun and Jermaine Dupri. Highlights include the southern-playalistic "Down Bottom," the silicon smooth "Jigga My Nigga" and the bangin' title cut, which is a DJ Clue-produced reviring of the EPMD classic "Headbanger."

CHARLI BALTIMORE

"Feel It" (12") (Untertainment-Epic) The first single from Charli's much-anticipated forthcoming debut Colder Than Ice features one of the dopest beats Teddy Riley ever laced to a track. "Fell It" should also prove that this girl is no pigeonhead MC. Biting the head off the mic as a rousing sample from The Wiz elevates the groove, this is Charli B. at her rawest. Also check the b-side, "Thorough Bitches." Baltimore's album drops on June 29.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Ruffhouse Records Greatest Hits (Ruffhouse/Columbia-CRG)

Over the course of the past decade, Ruffhouse Records has risen from being a small Phillybased indie label to one of the cornerstones of '90s hip-hop. This 15-track collection summarizes the imprint's prominence — from Cypress Hill's "How I Could Just Kill A Man" to the Fugees' "Killing Me Softly..." to Pace Won's outsider anthem "I Declare War." This collection gives you a perfect opportunity to toss a little '90s old school into your set.

In my 23 years as a DMF (dirty metal fuck), I've loud rock news done a lot of "damage" to myself. I've been deafened, pierced, and tattooed several times. But on Friday, April 30, I was sacrificed, to GWAR's onstage meatgrinder at the Electric Factory in Philadelphia. Prior to the show, I met with the costumed dinosaur-slayers. I chauffeured firebreathing goddess Slymenstra Hymen and new GWARrior Scroda Moon to a photo shoot. GWAR's show opened with a masturbation segment by someone dressed up as archeologist Louis Leakey, who announced that he possessed a tablet that could, if broken, signal the apocalypse. Sure enough, GWAR exploded onto the stage and smashed the tablet to smithereens. The event was a dirty, and downright decadent mess. This installment of the GWAR saga includes caricatures of a pregnant Monica Lewinsky spewing Bill Clinton's spawn, Marilyn Manson getting skinned, and various monsters being disembowled. The crowd clamored to get close to the stage, eager to be (Continued on page 38)

Bigger Than The Devil (Nuclear Blast America) It's been 14 years since the Stormtroopers Of Death's only studio album, Speak English Or Die, but the band has nonetheless maintained cult popularity. Original members Scott Ian (Anthrax's main axe man) and drummer Charlie Benante (also of Anthrax) rejoin vocalist Billy Milano and bassist Dan Lilker for this long overdue follow-up, which features 25 thrash metal tunes, some of which barely reach the twominute mark. The effect is dizzying, with lots of instantly recognizable '80s speed metal solos and a downright obscene sense of humor. No subject is safe from the quick, controversial wit of the larger-than-Lucifer S.O.D., who parody of everything from pro-lifers to Celtic Frost.

RHYTHM TRIP Return Of Da Dragon (Digital Dimension)

Rap-metal fusion bands have flooded the loud rock scene of the '90s, but Rhythm Trip has one of the most urbanized styles of the bunch. Return Of Da Dragon is comprised of down-low riffs, fat bass lines, a DJ, and a vocalist who manages to both carry soulful tunes and drop rough-andready raps (think Everlast during his House Of Pain years). These ghetto-metal grooves are so infectious that you'll be bumping and grinding your metal booty all over the dance floor.

While it's no Last Command, the '80s-inspired, sexually-themed Helldorado benefits from solid songwriting and production.

new world news

The scene was hip at a local New York movie theater, for the world premier of the new self-titled documentary about the Buena Vista Social Club.

On Monday, May 3, Bonnie Riatt, Lou Reed, Laurie Anderson, David Byrne, Mitchell Froom and Natalie Merchant were among a select group that got a peek at the film and paid their respects to BVSC producer Ry Cooder, who was also on hand to play host. Directed by Wim Wenders, the two-hour feature contains footage of the group's two live performances. The music was taped at the band's principal foreign engagements in New York and Amsterdam. Wenders also went down to Cuba last March, to interview the members of the group at home and in locations all over lovely but decaying old Havana. The movie has been outfitted with English subtitles, but like the Club's album, this work needs no linguistic clarification. The segment in which Ruben Gonzalez plays plano for a children's gymnastic class is worth the price of admission alone. The film officially opens in New York, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Miami on June 4. It will appear in about a dozen other cities on June 18, and it will open nationally throughout late June and July...The ever mercurial Paddy Moloney will take a quick break from the Chieftains tour to play a July 18 show in New York City's Central Park. The bill will also boast a host of acts signed to Moloney's Wicklow Records – Värttinä, Yat-Kha, Laurel MacDonald and Bill Laswell. In other Wicklow news, Juan Carlos Formell will release his debut for the label on June 1. Later that month, he will play select dates in California and the Northeast.

Brazilian percussionist/singer/renaissance man Carlinhos Brown is the omelette man - his music is a mixture of many different ingredients, and one of the yummiest, most nourishing musical foods around. Often drawing upon primordial and organic influences from Brazil and the Caribbean, Brown also strives for more of a polished, commercial sound that incorporates disco and rock. Following in that classic, subversive Brazilian Tropicalistas tradition, Brown's music is at its best when he playfully collects together different strains of music (disco strings, Brazilian percussion, Beatles-esque melodies) to create a stunning blend of groundbreaking music.

ANGRY SALAD Angry Salad (Blackbird-Atlantic)

Angry Salad has become well-known throughout the Northeast as a high-energy pop act with hooks that grab listeners and reel them in rapidly. Singer Bob Whalen leads the group's diverse sound, which captures Sponge's driving rock, Pavement's whimsical eclecticism and The Cure's pure, endearing melodic sense. The heavy pop of "Milkshake Song" will make even the most sedentary bottom wiggle, but brawny, beatbox drum loops and mature, clever vocals keep the song from getting lost in the teeny-bopper quagmire.

For Fans Of: The Cure, Pavement, Sponge Recommended Tracks: "Milkshake Song," "How Does It Feel To Kill," "99 Red Balloons" Contact: Adam Kurtz Phone: 212.226.5379 Fax: 212.226.3913 Email: kurtz@blackbirdusa.com Release Date: May 25 Add Date: May 10 Marketing Data: Currently touring.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Bleecker Street: Greenwich Village In The '60s (Astor Place Recordings)

Before hippies, LSD or Woodstock, the 1960s saw a rich musical culture bloom in New York City under the guise of "folk." Bob Dylan, Phil Ochs and Judy Collins sang protest songs against entrenched inequities. Using updated arrangements, contemporary performers, including Ron Sexsmith, Patty Larkin and John Gorka, make the musical and political insights of yesteryear relevant for today.

For Fans Of: Bob Dylan, Tom Rush, Simon & Garfunkel Recommended Tracks: "My Back Pages" (Marshall Crenshaw), "Pack Up Your Sorrows" (Loudon Wainwright III & Iris DeMent), "I Ain't Marchin' Anymore" (Larry Kirwan & Black 47) Contact: Vera Sheps Phone: 212.529.2600 Fax: 212.420.8216 Email: astoriainfo@aol.com Release and Add Date: May 10

CHET ATKINS & DOC WATSON Reflections (Sugar Hill)

When two of the world's most influential American traditionalists get together to perform, there's bound to be some magic. That's exactly what happened in 1979 when Atkins and Watson teamed up to record Reflections. Released for the first time on CD, this album is a golden artifact of American music and a lesson for even the most seasoned guitarist.

For Fans Of: Del McCoury, Merle Travis, Vince Gill Recommended Tracks: "Dill Pickles Rag," "Flatt Did It," "You're Gonna Be Sorry' Contact: Steve Gardner Phone: 919.489.4349 Fax: 919.489.6080 Email: radio@sugarhillrecords.com Release and Add Date: May 17

port of the release. But the performer's shyness and his participation in two forthcoming projects will delay any potential live performances until at least 2000. The former Japan frontman is currently compiling a collection of tracks recorded between 1983 and the present. He's also producing and co-writing a record by his wife, onetime Prince protégé Ingrid Chavez ... Bad news for the Dave Matthews Band: the Detroit Pistons made the NBA playoffs. Not that Matthews has anything against basketball, but the team's success has forced him to move his group's May 14 show at the Palace, in Auburn Hills, Michigan. The DMB will now perform at the venue on May 13, which will allow for an on-schedule Pistons' game against the Atlanta Hawks.

REGINA CARTER Rhythms Of The Heart (Verve)

The first lady of jazz violin (who formerly led the group Straight Ahead) is now joined by an allstar aggregation of musicians to play in a style that draws from tradition but also looks outside the jazz world for inspiration. Both Kenny Barron and Cassandra Wilson stop by, but Carter is in firm control of the proceedings, playing with assertive lyrical energy that gives these songs bite. There are equal displays of jawdropping violin chops and subtle atmospheric playing, giving the album great texture and mood.

For Fans Of: Leroy Jenkins, Charles Lloyd, Cassandra Wilson Recommended Tracks: "Oh Lady, Be Good!," "Papa Was A Rollin' Stone," "Cook's Bay" Contact: Jill Weindorf Phone: 212.424.1088 Fax: 212.424.1259 Email: jill.weindorf@umusic.com Release Date: April 13

SHELLY BERG The Will (Cars)

Oscar Peterson was a vastly influential pianist whose decades of work helped shape the sound of the each succeeding generations. Shelly Berg pays tribute to Peterson with this heartfelt, hardswinging straight-ahead set. He captures something of Peterson's eloquence and melodicism on the keys, while also establishing his own distinctive identity.

VARIOUS ARTISTS Ellingtonia: A Tribute To Duke Ellington (Justin Time)

The celebrations commemorating the 100th anniversary of Duke Ellington's birth continue with various tributes and reissues already released, and there are more on the boards for the rest of '99. Among the highlights is this largely Canadian offering, which goes a long way toward proving the durability and timelessness of Duke's music.

Saxophone colossus Sonny Rollins is the subject of not one, but two biographies currently in the works. Neither book is officially authorized, but Rollins has been cooperative with the both of the authors. Longtime Rollins friend Hugh Wyatt is putting the final touches on The Bridge, which is named after the album recorded by the musician following his 1959-1961 sabbatical. The work will focus on Rollins's life, the Harlem Renaissance and the movement's exclusion of bebop musicians. The other bio, Eric Nisenson's Open Sky: Sonny Rollins's World Of Improvisation, will arrive in stores later this year. An excerpt from the text will appear in the premier issue of Jazz One magazine, which will feature a Rollins cover image. In the piece, the saxman describes a typical performance and he elucidates his preparation methods for shows...Saxophonist Ken Vandermark is a nationwide live fixture; his Vandermark Five will hit the road yet again. The group will embark on a tour this summer, in support of its third album, Simpatico (Atavistic). Word has it that the record is the V5's most adventurous outing to date. The tour, which will roll through most burgs-of-size in the eastern half of the U.S., will run from June 10-June 25...Thelonious Monk fans watch out: Green Chimneys (RCA Victor) is former Police guitarist Andy Summers's collection of songs originally performed by the master. Summers has always been a student of his instrument, comfortable playing many different kinds of music. Therefore, cynics are advised to listen with open ears before they make their judgments. Featuring the talents of drummer Peter Erskine, bassist Dave Carpenter and a number of guests, Green Chimneys is definitely a jazz record, and it's a pretty good one at that. Police fans take note: Sting stops by to sing a version "Round Midnight."

"Nuttin' To Do" and "Scary Movies." You may also groove to the track "Green And Gold," which features Eminem and the Anonymous...Busta Rhymes has split from the R. Kelly tour, which kicked off last Thursday in Philly. Violator Management, which represents the Uniondale, New York, rapper, claimed that "the concert promoter [made] it impossible to mount a production that would have made it compatible with the kind of show Rhymes's fans have come to expect." The tour, which also boasts the live talent of Foxy Brown, Deborah Cox, Nas and Kelly Price, is scheduled to make 30 stops in North America...In addition, on Wednesday, May 5, Rhymes plead guilty in a New York City courtroom to charges of gun possession. The charges stemmed from an incident that occurred in December, when police found an unregistered, loaded .45 in the MC's ride. Busta's road manager Gerald Odom, who was with him at the time of the episode, was also arrested, for possession of da chronic. Rhymes was sentenced to five years probation, to begin on June 16. The charges against Odom were dismissed... Run-D.M.C., whose star-soaked comeback album Crown Royal will appear in stores sometime during Indian summer, was recently joined by frat-rock funksters Sugar Ray at NYC's Hit Factory studios. The groups recorded "Here We Go Again," which will appear on the Hollis crew's forthcoming effort. The track is supposedly a revision of the 1985 classic "Here We Go." Other guests slated to appear on Crown Royal include Nas, Fat Joe, Method Man and Cam'Ron...The upcoming Beatnuts album, A Musical Massacre, is equally heavy on the impressive camoes. Cheryl Pepsii Riley, Biz Markie, Common, Dead Prez, Cuban Link and others put their two cents in the mix. The 'Nuts' fifth joint for Relativity Records will most likely drop in August.

doused in buckets of fake blood and monsters' intestinal fluids. During the encore, Scroda gathered a gaggle of giggly girls for the sacrifice. I was the second offering. He tossed me over his shoulder, walked to the edge of the stage and spun me around while I kicked and tried to break free. But resistance was futile. I gave in, and I was tossed into the menacing meatgrinder. Inside, I was hosed down with "blood." My skin was stained for a day or two, but hey, it was GWAR! My submission was inevitable...Following the show. I headed north to Massachusetts for the New England Metal And Hardcore Fest. The atmosphere was similar to that of the March Metal Meltdown. Overkill and Cryptopsy played notable Saturday sets. Sam Black Church frontman Jet climbed atop a tower of amps and dove into the audience like a maniac. Eviler-than-thou Glen Benton of Deicide roared, "There will be a new Deicide album soon. It will rock. I can tell you one thing. We won't be playing fucking 'Turn The Page.'" GWAR capped off the night. During the encore, the Syndicate's Reverend David J. Ciancio utilized his official powers; he married a couple on-stage. The Scumdogs, of course, proceeded to feed the newlyweds to the meatgrinder...Despite recent success on CMI's Loud Rock chart and support from legions of hardcore kids, One King Down has split up. Certain parties were not committed to the band. Rather than replace personnel once again, the group called it a day...This summer, German pyromaniacal rockers Rammstein will release a live CD and video entitled Live Aus Berlin. The mensches will return to the Fatherland late in the season, to work on a new album...A boatload of loud rock bands have secured deals: Victory signed Toronto's emotional hardcore band Grade, KOCH captured the Scorpions, TVT inked a deal with Ignite, and Revelation reeled in Garrison and Fastbreak...Verbena celebrated a rock-hard Cinco De Mayo with Monster Magnet and Staind at Irving Plaza in New York City.

Have you caught the video for Buckcherry's "Lit Up" on MTV? Not only will you notice the performance clip's gritty electricity sticking out like a sore thumb among the sepia-toned, jokey Sugar Ray videos and cheesecake clips of boy bands, but you'll also notice something that the network usually only saves for big, bad rap artists. Those are clunky, stodgy editing silences — a good dozen of them, all told — stuck in the middle of the opening line... and the first verse... and the chorus... and anywhere else there's a mention of the naughtiness the surrounds the chorus' refrain about the joys of cocaine. "I love that," confides Buckcherry singer Josh Todd in almost hushed tones. "Love it! It's all about the forbidden fruit."

In rock 'n' roll rebellion, it certainly is. Think about it: Is there anything MTV could conceivably do to make this unapologetically hard rocking band even more irresistible to disgruntled American teenagers? Not to mention rock fans in general who, after nearly a decade of less-than-showy rock bands, will see one chorus-worth of "Lit Up" and know that the long, hard wait for a rip-roaring party band has come to an end. Though the band's self-titled debut album has been on shelves for barely a month, it's already connecting with its audience in a big way. Upward of 10,000 new Buckcherry devotees are snatching up copies every week as word of the band's all cuts/no filler record and white-hot live shows spreads like wildfire.

It's a reputation that's been on the rise since the band's formation three years ago in Los Angeles. By cutting its teeth gigging up and down the West Coast, playing just about any place that would have them, Buckcherry grew into the live juggernaut that it is today. And in the process, it built a rag-tag army of followers whose common bond is a universal desire to turn it up and turn it loose. "We get all kinds of people [at our shows]," Todd says about the band's mass appeal. "Everyone from transvestites to Korn kids to, well, just everybody. There's such a large spectrum. One time we did a show at a [club's] lesbian night. You wouldn't have believed [the reaction]! Lesbians love to rock!," he laughs. "I love lesbians. Bring them on."

Soon enough, the band's heat was drawing the industry to its Los Angeles shows, and shortly after taking a friend's recommendation that they "oughta get an attorney" to heart, they found a home at DreamWorks Records. With plenty of road-tested cuts at the ready, the band was primed to enter the studio with co-producers Terry Date and Buckcherry fan/former Sex Pistol Steve Jones. (Jones had actually become a regular at the band's gigs long before they had landed a record deal and, like much of Buckcherry's growing following, Todd says that Jones was "really happy just to see a band playing straight-up rock music.") In the studio, the goal was fairly simple: To capture the band's live power on tape, but not until the arsenal was perfected. "We spent a lot of time in pre-production and just tore apart songs and just fucked around and really made every song — with little tweakings here and there — the best that they could possibly be."

It certainly worked: Between its great tunes, unabashed decadence and killer execution, Buckcherry is an unforgettable rock 'n' roll debut. But for a band that assembled in an awfully mundane way - Todd and guitarist Keith Nelson met through a mutual friend, added bassist JB after he overheard the duo in the next practice space, then auditioned drummer Devon Glenn (second guitarist Yogi was added about a year ago) - they're an airtight unit, driven in large part by the fiery Todd as frontman. Possessed of one of those superhuman, sinewy Iggy Pop physiques and one of the strongest, raspiest hard rock voices since the days of Bon Scott ("There's a certain formula to keeping up this voice," he notes with cryptic humor), Todd is a complete livewire onstage. Though he cites influences as widely varied as The Cult's Ian Astbury, Billy Idol, Prince, the aforementioned Scott, Michael Jackson, and punk rock bands like Minor Threat and GBH, Todd's stage presence is an original mixture of angry punk, preening rock star and crazed house-party host. With the suckerpunch of the band at his back — these guys rule the songs with an iron fist onstage, perfectly reproducing every fat riff of the album's rip-roaring ferocity - Todd gives you a whole new reason to rock 'n' roll all night and party every day.

And that's, quite simply, the only point. Todd is crystal-clear on the band's mission: "You know what we want to contribute? Good times. That's it. Good times. I've heard Freddie Mercury talk about people asking him what Queen meant and all that and he was like, 'You know what? I just hope that people get to hear the record and have a great time with it. And that they come to the show and they have a great time.' And that's about it. We're not here to try and change the world, we're not here to tell you how to vote," he sighs, clearly exasperated with the ham-fisted politics of some of today's pop stars. "All we really wanna do is have fun, you know?" Sounds great to us.

Rob "Bucket" Hingley is one of the U.S. ska scene's most important names. A native of Britain, he came to New York City in the early '80s and helped found the legendary Toasters (a band he still performs with). He also established Moon Ska Records, the country's first label exclusively dedicated to ska music. Now, he sets the record straight on the music that he loves.

How did you get involved with ska?

I bought my first ska record in 1964, age nine — "My Boy Lollipop" by Millie Small. I still have it. The vinyl is as thick as a dinner plate. I grew up in Britain during the back end of the '60s. My elder brother Dave was into being a skinhead just at the time of the Trojan [Records] explosion. I used to hang out with him wearing bovver boots that were too big and getting beat up by all the older kids. It was a good time. On Friday nights they used to play ska music down at the disco at the Tavistock youth club. [There was] nothing too unusual about that since, at that time —'67-'70 — it was all over the [U.K.] charts. I remember my gran wouldn't let me watch Judge Dread on Top

Label Owner, Moon Ska Records

"If I ever had to choose between heading the label or playing in the band, it would be a no-brainer. The music business sucks. The more I learn about it, the less I like it."~

Of The Pops 'cos she said he was too rude.

Why did you start Moon Ska Records?

Moon started in 1983, as Ice-Bear Records, with the first Toasters 7". We had to put out our own records...pretty much every A&R guy in New York City laughed us out of their office. [At least] I still have my job.

Do you find it difficult being both a label owner and a band member?

In the early days of Moon, I used to be a one man army. I'd fill all the orders by day and pack all the boxes at night, when I was off tour. I'd go to bed at 4 a.m. and get back up at 6 a.m. because that's when my baby son would wake up. Things became easier when we had enough money to hire some help. People in bands got pissed off [because the label couldn't get them] some big profile, but musicians generally have no clue how the business works. Most band members expect a Brinks truck to deliver [money] to their house the minute the contract is signed. If I ever had to choose between heading the label or playing in the band, it would be a no-brainer. The music business sucks. The more I learn about it, the less I like it. The industry is full of shit. and the bands buy into it because of corporate vampires who manipulate egos.

It appears that ska, after enjoying some late-'90s popularity, is again fading from sight. Do you have a theory about why the popularity of ska seems to follow such an ebb and flow pattern?

Ebb and flow is an interesting concept. Maybe that's why people insist on adopting that fatuous wave analogy. Anyone who goes there obviously doesn't have a clue about the history of the music. For example, "Third Wave" would really have had to be "Two Tone" [chronologically], wouldn't it? Anyway, ska music has always found ways to re-invent itself for new generations, so the next time I hear somebody say ska is dead, I'm gonna kill 'em.

Were you angered in any way by the mainstream media's use of pop bands like Smash Mouth, 311 and Sugar Ray as examples of ska bands?

One of the things that propelled ska music in the '90s was the attention that it got from the mainstream media — increased awareness, MTV's willingness to air ska videos, etc. Then the music biz started bandying the word 'ska' around. Unfortunately, that label — they love labels don't they? — got applied to all sorts of bands incorrectly, such as those you mention, who we know aren't within light years of being ska bands. Ska, according to the [industry's] moguls, was [made by] any [group] who had a horn player in the band.

And what do you make of the so-called ska hybrids (ska-core, ska-punk, etc.)?

Well, the fact that some of the hybridization was actually helpful to the genre was lost in the general melee caused by big money's entry onto the scene. The platform that the hybrid groups bum-rushed came apart under the influx of money. The single-most disappointing fact of the last 20 years was the realization that most bands are only in music to be rock stars. They sold out their compadres, and quite often their fans, for the slightest chance of making it. Let's see where all those guys are next year when they haven't justified their big money deals. Whenever I hear those bands say, "well we never really were a ska band," I want to puke. Cut the crap, people.

Could you recommend a few quintessential ska albums?

The Harder They Come soundtrack, the Club Ska 67 compilation, and the first Specials and Selecter records.

Out of curiosity, how did you get the nickname Bucket?

Bucket comes from the tune "Longshot Kick De Bucket." It wasn't originally my nickname, it was actually that of a snubnosed police .38 that I used to sling back in the good old days when New York's Lower East Side was more like the Wild West. I bought it in New Orleans for $90. Anyway, [my friend] Lionel gave it the dub after I shot a beer bottle out of his hand on the way home through Tompkins Square Park after a good night at Blanche's which was the hang for the East Side crew. It was all good clean fun.
