NEWS TO US

ISSUE 896 About This Issue:

We usually reserve this space for a more wise-crackin' News To Us, but wanted to let you know about what's happening in this special issue, as well as future issues. As you can tell by our cover, we're highlighting the most-played/most-sold albums of 2004. In addition, we've included seven pages of argument-inducing lists! Thanks to those who sent in a Top 10. We enjoyed ripping on your lists!

While we look back at 2004, it's also important (if not more so) to look ahead to 2005. With artists like Arcade Fire (our "told ya so" band of the year), Modest Mouse (in forest below), Shins and Death Cab all breaking through in 2004, we're hella pumped that better music is elbowing its way into the mainstream. (If Bright Eyes isn't on the cover of our 2005 wrap-up, we'll eat an entire magazine... free CD included). There are a few artists we didn't mention in this first quarter bonanza, but don't worry. Look for features on other Q1 upstarts like Sage Francis, Brazilian Girls, Buck 65, Dalek, Grand National, High On Fire, Mando Diao, Robbers On High Street, Crooked Fingers and more in the next issue of CMJ New Music Monthly.

CMJ In 2005: In response to your requests, we're committing significant resources in 2005 towards www.cmj.com to ensure that you get better information faster—when, where and how you want it.

In February we expect to go live with the first set of improvements to our online home, featuring new searches and report-generating capability that will provide our readers with up-to-the-minute information during each weekly reporting period.

That will set the stage for a spring roll-out of the initial phases of my.cmj.com, a daily, state-of-the-art, customizable, real-time online suite of products that will ultimately revolutionize the way the emerging artist world will discover, dissect, debate, promote and market the world's best new music—all the while enabling you to digitally audition the music you're reading about on demand.

As we gear up to "Go Daily"—don't fret, reports and charts will stay weekly—we will continue to publish CMJ New Music Report Alert weekly in a pdf format online at www.cmj.com. However, effective with this issue, only bi-weekly, even-numbered issues of the magazine will be distributed in print. And once my.cmj.com is in full gear, we'll begin to phase in a whole new look and approach to CMJ New Music Report to truly maximize our coverage of the most important new artists, trends, industry professionals and organizations in the context of a print medium.

Combine all of this with the 25th anniversary CMJ Music Marathon in New York City this fall and our first-ever collaboration with the Rock And Roll Hall Of Fame And Museum for the CMJ/Rock Hall Music Fest in Cleveland June 8-11 and... whew!... 2005 is shaping up to be an incredibly exciting year.

Thanks for your input and support to date. We encourage all of you to communicate your thoughts, ideas, concerns and suggestions regarding our new and improved functionality and content, as well as everything else going on in your world and ours.

Rolodex Update: After three and a half years, the CMJ Network's Chief Operating Officer, Jay B. Ziskrout, has exited his position in order to focus on the development of his consulting firm, Sonic Vista, Inc. In this new position, Ziskrout will be consulting with CMJ on several projects and initiatives, including my.cmj.com. Sonic Vista is dedicated to providing consulting and management services in entertainment, marketing, media, recreation and technology. The company's initial clients also include BG Communications and Rock River/Websound. Contact Ziskrout at: jziskrout@sonicvista.com or log on to www.sonicvista.com.

Is this the M.I.A. Ted Leo was singing about? Not sure, but we're singing her praises as one to watch in 2005.

(We're Hot For Winter)

BIG BUSINESS

Head For The Shallow (Hydra Head)

Thuggish Seattle avant-metal browbeaters Big Business export mostly low-end pummel, ham-fisted rhythmic sucker punches (drums and bass only) and wry Killing Joke-y vocals. This abrasive duo sets out to fill the Loud Rock radio void left by unambitious nü metal mooks with some primal, proto-metal bass-bashing... and we think they will get ground-floor results. After all, this Big Business is way too indie-minded to succumb to executive pressure; the only bottom line that interests them is one they can push you over.

WEB: www.hydrahead.com

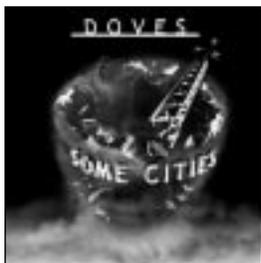

ATTN: Jucifer worshipers, Motörhead speed freaks, corporate sellouts

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: Jan. 25 / Feb. 8

RADIO: Justin Gressley, justin@aaminc.com

KEY TRACKS: "White Pizzaz," "O.G.," "Easter Romantic," "Off Off Broadway"

OF NOTE: Singer/bassist Jared Warren previously pushed sub-sonic air in Karp, and drummer Coady Willis cut his teeth in Seattle rawk institution Murder City Devils (and post-MCD project Dead Low Tide).

DOVES

Some Cities (Capitol)

On their third (and thankfully trimmer) full-length, Some Cities, Manchester's Doves solidify their reputation as masterful composers as well as songwriters. Mixing urban storytelling with expansive soundscapes, these offspring of the legendary Mancunian club scene bring electronic and dance sensibilities to rock music with practiced aplomb. From the spare and doleful "Shadows Of Salford" to "Black And White Town," a pop dance-along of theme-song proportions, Some Cities finds the Doves simultaneously pared away and teeming with emotion.

WEB: www.doves.net

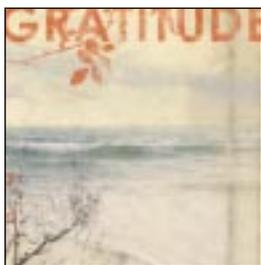

ATTN: Those too cool for Coldplay

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: March 1 / Feb. 15

RADIO: Jeff Ballard, jeff.ballard@capitolrecords.com

KEY TRACKS: "Black And White Town," "Walk In Fire," "Shadows Of Salford"

OF NOTE: Doves recorded Some Cities in Liverpool, Loch Ness and elsewhere, including a disused Scottish monastery, which was used for "Ambition."

GRATITUDE

Gratitude (Atlantic)

Jonah Matranga (of emo-metal heroes Far and solo-sensitivo heartthrob Onlinedrawing) and Mark Weinberg (of San Fran alt-rockers Crumb and Softer) have been pals for over a decade. While sporadically contributing to one another's various projects, it wasn't until winter 2003 that the two started writing and recording demos that would become Gratitude's debut, a 12-song collection of emotional pop devoid of emo-pop pretense. The sincerity of Matranga's vocals and the infectiousness Weinberg's slick pop riffs make the band's debut their most epic, catchy and cathartic work to date.

WEB: www.gritudemusic.com

ATTN: Jimmy Eat World fans just now discovering Samiam... and vice-versa

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: March 8

RADIO: Jon Landman, jon@thesyn.com

KEY TRACKS: "This Is The Part," "Another Division St.," "Last"

OF NOTE: Gratitude recorded their debut at Cello Studios with Jim Scott (Wilco, Tom Petty, Red Hot Chili Peppers).

KASABIAN

Kasabian (RCA)

Named after one of Charles Manson's cult conspirators, U.K. synth-poppers Kasabian (also Armenian for 'butcher') play sliced, diced and measured Macintosh rock; that is, the band rocks it then promptly remixes it. Singer Tom Meighan exaggerates Bono's fly Fly mystique to David Cronenberg-like effect, adding a creepy, introspective sheen to hook-laden, digitally processed backbeats. Kasabian's closest stateside competition is faux-Brit, neo-wave disciples Killers, but Kasabian's got the advantage when it comes to ambience and authentic English swagger.

WEB: www.kasabian.co.uk

ATTN: Fans of U2 and the Killers (both the band and the Manson disciples)

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: March 8 / at radio

RADIO: Todd Blumenfeld, todd.blumenfeld@bmg.com

KEY TRACKS: "I.D.," "Test Transmission," "Processed Beats"

OF NOTE: Kasabian was recently nominated for three BRIT awards (part of a U.K.-televised charity award show), including Best British Group, Best British Rock Act and Best Live Act.

LEMON JELLY

LJ '64-'95 (XL-Beggars Group)

Cooled-out electronic bizzaros Lemon Jelly, a.k.a. Fred Deakin and Nick Franglen, pillage their record collections to draw up their second full-length album, which centers around pop, punk, and R&B samples spanning from 1964 to 1995. The thus-titled '64-'95 is a vibrant drone of downtempo beats and upbeat motifs, showcasing simplistic, sunshiny phrases like "I wanna be with you!" Formed in the UK in 1997, Lemon Jelly think of their music as visceral "artifacts," each album "as gorgeous and precious and collectable as possible."

WEB: www.lemonjelly.ky

ATTN: People in car commercials

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: January 25 / at radio

RADIO: Fred Navarette, fred.navarette@beggars.com

KEY TRACKS: "88 Aka Come Down On Me," "95 Aka Make Things Right," "76 Aka Stay With You"

OF NOTE: Limited-edition DVD available.

LITTLE BARRIE

Little Barrie [EP] (Artemis)

Frontman Barrie Cadogan (yes, he's little) busts out a brand of hook-filled, soulful Brit rock we haven't heard done right since the La's (or even the Jam) that left us wanting more. This meaty-yet-lo-fi introduction is loaded with crisp guitars and vocal hooks that show a deep love of vintage American soul, Muscle Shoals style (Imagine the British Midlands version of North Mississippi All-Stars?). Plus, how can you not like a band who idolizes fellow Artemis artist Hubert Sumlin, who played with Howlin' Wolf.

WEB: www.artemisrecords.com

ATTN: Brit Blues Brothers, funky white boys, classic rockers

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: February 22

RADIO: Geoff Aneberg, geoff@artemisrecords.com

KEY TRACKS: "Free Salute," "Be The One," "Mud Sticks"

OF NOTE: Full-length and tour to follow in the late spring. Tracks produced by Edwyn Collins.

M.I.A.

Arular (XL-Beggars Group)

The hype machine don't stop here. This debut from London-born, Sri Lanka-raised party-hopper Maya Arulpragasam, a.k.a. M.I.A., is a Planet Rockin' Frankenstein's monster that leaves no stone unturned and no ass unmoved. Her fire-starter MC style is practically all hooks and quotables (even when it's "ya ya hey" gabber-wocky), and an array of producers injects Arular with a completely indescribable mush of worldly influences: dancehall, favela, grime, glitch, hip-hop, electro and Doc Buzzard. Unavoidable.

WEB: www.miauk.com

ATTN: Anyone with a pulse, dizzy rascals

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: Feb. 22 / Feb. 15

RADIO: Fred Navarette, fred.navarette@beggars.com

KEY TRACKS: "Galang," "Sunshowers," hell, anything

OF NOTE: Producers on Arular include ex-Pulper Steve Mackey and Richard X, making music The New Yorker says could be "the sound of a carnival, or a riot."

ONE BE LO

S.O.N.O.G.R.A.M. (Fat Beats)

One of Michigan's finest, One Be Lo (from criminally slept-on crew Binary Star) comes funky fresh for '05 with S.O.N.O.G.R.A.M., an album as heavy with rhymes and rhythms as it is with acronyms. The jazzy production, orchestrated by Be Lo and his partner, Decompoze, is the perfect accompaniment for Lo's quick-witted and quick-tongued lyricism—which is refreshingly more focused on addressing the ills of the world than explaining how ill he is. Packed with thump as well as substance, the album is entertaining and edifying.

WEB: www.subterraneousrecords.com

ATTN: Fans of Mos Def, Boogie Down Productions and edutainers of all variety.

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: Feb. 8

RADIO: Ethan Holben, ethan@fatbeats.com

KEY TRACKS: "enecS eht no kcaB," "The Ghetto," "Decepticons," "Follow My Lead"

OF NOTE: The 12" for first single, "Decepticons," features remix by soul brother Pete Rock.

PAINT IT BLACK

Paradise (Jade Tree)

Hardcore punk speedfreaks Paint It Black packed 17 songs into 18 minutes on their debut, CVA. Though nearly all of Paradise's 14 tracks are twice as long, their second full-length is no less furious. The band takes the extra time to reflect further on these troubled times and to emphasize that a line can't be drawn between the personal and the political. Meanwhile, producer J. Robbins (Jets To Brazil, Promise Ring, Hey Mercedes) lends a nimble hand to help Dr. Dan and crew blend emotional urgency with manic Black-Flag-era thrash.

WEB: www.paintitblack.info

ATTN: Stage-diving PhD candidates

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: March 8

RADIO: Justin Gressley, justin@aaminc.com

KEY TRACKS: "The Pharmacist," "Memorial Day," "Burn The Hive"

OF NOTE: Paint It Black features ex-members of Lifetime and Good Riddance.

PIGEON JOHN

Sings The Blues! (Basement)

Pigeon John is the hip-hop Jonathan Richman—a plainspoken anti-hero awkwardly walking through identity crises and the owner of both a lonely heart and a sublime sense of melody. This former L.A. Symphony sing-rhymer is a perpetual sadsack who gets dissed by girls for acting white, who doesn't care when only two people come to a show and who seems to fight all his battles through self-deprecating humor. Could be this year's Slug... or this year's Dashboard.

WEB: www.pigeonjohn.com

ATTN: Post-modern lovers, folks that think Atmosphere are too "hard."

RELEASE DATE / ADD DATE: March 8

RADIO: Trevor, trevor@scorepress.com

KEY TRACKS: "Identity Crisis (In Like Flynn Remix)," "Upside Down Rotten," "Sleeping Giants"

OF NOTE: Sings The Blues! features guest appearances from Living Legends' Grouch and Eligh, Good Lifer Abstract Rude and L.A. Symphony's Flynn.

J-Menace

L RECORDS PRESENTS

J-MENACE

YOURS TRULY

J-Menace a hip-hop artist of his finest in his forthcoming CD. The hard-hitting, hip-hop album is with soul or fan effect as it is delivered with melodies, sassiness and style. The collaboration is a straightforward rap track, deep, and harmonizing the raw energy and indelible spirit of dealing with life's ups and downs. The track is vicious but tame. J-Menace exhibits his position in hip-hop, able to rock with fury while producing music with undeniable flavor that definitely assaults the musical mediocrity.

THE MOLE STORY

IT ALL BEGAN IN 2002. FOUR SANTA BARBARA SANITATION WORKERS SET OUT TO TOUR THE WORLD BY WAY OF THEIR CHEVY VAN.

THEY MADE IT TO THE EAST COAST AND REALIZED THAT THEY SUCKED ...

THE BAND IS MOLE. MAJOR LABEL A&R CAME CALLING A YEAR LATER, BUT WHEN THEY WOULDN'T GRANT A PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION DEAL (AS OPPOSED TO THE STANDARD WE OWN YOU, NOW BEND OVER), MOLE DECIDED TO DO IT THEIR WAY...INDIE. WITH THAT BOLD MOVE CAME CREATIVE INSPIRATION. GUITARIST RAY BADNESS TELLS IT: "IN 2003, I DECIDED TO TRACK AN ENTIRE RECORD USING ALL 6 OF MY MARSHALL STACKS. IT WAS SO LOUD, I COULDN'T HEAR THE ENGINEER IN THE CONTROL ROOM. HE HAD TO CALL ME ON MY CELL PHONE, WHICH WAS SET TO VIBRATE, JUST TO GET ME TO STOP THE TAKE. IN FACT, ORANGE WHIP RECORDING STUDIOS HAD TO BUILD A SECOND CONTROL ROOM JUST TO PROVIDE ENOUGH SOUND INSULATION FOR THOM & ANGUS TO WORK. WE STILL OWE MARK CASTLEMAN $42000 FOR THAT. ANYWAY, THE 6 MARSHALL STACKS VIBRATED THE WHOLE PLACE, FREQUENTLY CRASHING THE HARD DRIVES ON THE COMPUTER. AFTER 2 MONTHS, WE DITCHED THE DIGITAL CRAP AND WENT WITH ANALOG TAPE ON A 48 TRACK AMPX.

Check out Our Products:

Tons of stuff!

When you listen to that record,
you can hear all 6 Marshall tracks

at the same time..."

The road to fan-dom was rocky for Mole.

IN 2002 THEY REHEARSED IN AN UNDERGROUND SEWER. ACCORDING TO THEM, IT STUNK LIKE HELL, BUT WAS FREE. THERE WAS NO OTHER PLACE THAT THE SELF PROCLAIMED LOUDEST BAND IN CA COULD PLAY. MAN-O-WAR HAD NOTHING ON THESE GUYS. IT IS RUMORED THAT GENE SIMMONS OF KISS WAS INTERESTED IN THE BAND. APPARENTLY, HIS INTEREST FADED WHEN MOLE FAILED TO BRING ENOUGH CHICKS TO HIS HOTEL ROOM. HE IS RUMORED TO HAVE SAID THAT MOLE SHOULD FOCUS ON MEETING GIRLS RATHER THAN MEETING IN THE SEWER. IF SO, HE WAS PROBABLY RIGHT. WHILE WE DON'T KNOW IF THIS WILL BE THE LAST MOLE RECORD, WE DO KNOW THAT THEY'RE TUNING UP THE CHEVY VAN AND MIGHT BE COMING TO YOUR LOCAL SEWER.

"...Very rarely am I lucky enough to come across a band with as much power and bursting with emotion as Soular... you can pick up touches of early 'Radiohead' and the sublime 'Muse' and you can just tell that sometime in the not too distant future these boys will be appearing alongside those formentioned bands at the world's greatest music festivals. I, for, one will be there in the front row watching!"

HART OF THE MATTER

Trying to come up with some globally overarching truth capturing the spirit of 2004 as a shadow for an equally grand, over-reaching prediction about 2005 is a burden and conceit not only reserved for writers. Be encouraged and beware of those whose place in the industry hangs on predicting beyond next month.

But let's not be jaded either. Indie retail, the oft-times hero and victim of our weekly news over the years, has found ways of adapting, thriving and circumventing its less artist-friendly foes. Indie retail has always been the place where artists develop, and indies have reasserted their hold on that unique talent in the last year. They're more relevant than they've ever been in recent memory.

Take for example their reaction to the big-box exclusive – a hot topic over the last few years that has seen its fair share of official proclamations, declarations (from coalitions and non-members alike) and offenders (from U2 to Good Charlotte). We at CMJ Retail have certainly published our own fair share of outcry and have gladly handed folks soapboxes to step upon and speak out. But indies have done more than just speak out. Their protest has become more organized, more sophisticated. Working directly with artist managers, artists and forward-thinking label sales staffs, they've cornered a different market—the special product.

Target can keep its bonus SpongeBob tracks and Good Charlotte pluses; for the boxes it's primarily a matter of peddling more. For indies it's about giving fans something new, something live, something rare. Look no further than Mars Volta and My Morning Jacket (and that's only a pair from the Ms). These special products are designed to serve a more artist-development and fan-friendly purpose than “more.” The spirit of the big-box exclusive isn't to develop an artist's career but to max it out.

The indies' attempt to regain some of the market ceded to loss-leader practices, and other merchant schemes is giving fans something discernibly better than “more” and is serving both the store and the artist by creating a new breed of fan—one who expects quality and is being given a unique place to find it.

Best Buy is currently in a buying freeze; rumor has it, they shot far lower than the growth percentage they promised and predicted. But talk to Rand Foster (Fingerprints, LINCX, CIMS): business is up. Talk to Karl Jr. (Looney Tunes, CIMS): “Looney Tunes is up almost 10 percent.” Talk to Eric Levin (Criminal Records, A.I.M.S.): “We were up a healthy percentage... a great beginning for our rockin' 15th year.” And these are just a few of many.

There's plenty of bad news for people who love bad news. Look forward to working with you all this year.

It's funny how many ways you can fold and staple a piece of card stock. I like to think it as origami gone mad.

The flock at Illinois retailer Crow's Nest has been forced to changed perches more than once since their last CMJ profile (Sept. 2002, issue 778), but the gang always manages to hover high above adversity. When the chain closed its two metro Chicago outlets (due to post-9/11 economics), they acquired Chi-town staple Rock Records (formerly Rolling Stone). With over 30 years experience, Crow's Nest has no problem doing whatever it takes to bounce back and stay back—including a price-matching program ("If they don't come in with that ad, they'll just go to Best Buy," says store manager Todd Hupe) and a trusty customer payback program that delivers gift cards to the nest's good eggs.

Q&A with Todd Hupe, store manager, Crow's Nest

What local press affects sales most?

For Crow's Nest we have the Herald News in Joliet, Illinois. For Rock we have the Chicago Tribune and Sun-Times. For both we have the Illinois Entertainer and The Onion, and our weekly email newsletter which now stands at around 1,000 subscribers.

What radio station affects sales most?

Chicago has many stations, but our key sales probably come from WXRT, WKSC, WGCI, WBBM, WNUA, WKQX and WTMX.

Do you have in-stores?

We haven't had an in-store for a while, but we are capable and we do have a PA.

What's your fondest in-store memory?

Well, the biggest was Jimmy Eat World, but my favorite was when we had Jack Johnson in the afternoon and O.A.R. in the evening on the same day. I was doing the marketing and promotions for the company at that time, and it was quite a lot of logistical work to pull off two huge in-stores in the same day. But seeing over 1,000 happy fans made it worth it.

What are your most effective programs and promotions?

Listening stations throughout the store are very effective. We also sell off window space at Rock Records for 4'x7' banners.

What types of non-traditional promotions have worked best?

We do coupons in our email newsletter and trade coupons with a local pizza place.

What makes your displays different from other stores?

I have a degree in graphic design, so the window banners at Rock turn out pretty nice... in my opinion anyway. I also have good merchandisers at the store level that I taught the art of three-dimensional displays. It's funny how many ways you can fold and staple a piece of card stock. I like to think of it as origami gone mad.

What's the most disappointing retail trend you've seen lately?

Predatory pricing by mass retailers. It's a shame that [big boxes] use that tactic to draw in customers. For them it's not their lifeblood.

How do you maintain your profit margin?

By carrying a great line of other items: T-shirts, accessories and so on that we can sell cheaply [to stave off] the Hot Topics of the world.

What record changed your life?

Early on, the Beatles' Sgt. Pepper's. Later on, for personal reasons, Coldplay's Parachutes.

What's the best concert you've attended?

I'll go with Pink Floyd at Soldier Field in '94.

What would you be doing if you weren't selling records?

Obviously, I finally finished my degree so by some stretch if I wasn't doing what I do, I'd be doing some design work out there. In my wife's opinion, that's what I should be doing anyway, she's always smiling when she says it. So, I think I'm safe for the moment.

UNDER THE RADAR

This week in Under The Radar we want to draw special attention to those albums that are either making important moves on CMJ Retail charts or are just about to. We'll also throw in a few notes on what, why and how things are beginning to pop.

TOM WAITS

Real Gone
(Anti) Catalog No. 86678
Tormented rock icon Tom Waits had a stellar 2004 with the stripped-down-and-screetchy Real Gone (debuting at No. 1*) in October, and it won't be gone soon. The scratch-scratch leaps from 63* to 56*. Rank jumps at Aron's (Los Angeles), House Of Guitars (Rochester, NY), Magnolia Thunderpussy (Columbus) and more. Top 10s: Criminal (Atlanta), Let It Be (Minneapolis), Record Emporium (Chicago), more. Top 30s: M-Theory (San Diego), ear X-tacy (Louisville), Easy Street (Seattle), more.
Current Top 100 Chart Position: 56*

DRESDEN DOLLS

Dresden Dolls
(Eight Foot) Catalog No. 82832
Boston Krautophile duo Dresden Dolls have performed an impressive retail blitzkrieg, jumping from No. 78* to 61*, no doubt a credit to their Chicago-via-Broadway take on songwriting. Rank jumps at M-Theory (San Diego), Bull Moose (Portland, ME), Zia (Tempe), Amoeba (Hollywood), Newbury (Brighton, MA) and Magnolia Thunderpussy (Columbus). Top 10s: Electric Fetus (Minneapolis), Kief's (Lawrence) and Down In The Valley (Golden Valley, MN). Top 30s: Lou's (Encinitas, CA), Schoolkids (Cary, NC), more.
Current Top 100 Chart Position: 61*

DONAVON FRANKENREITER/ JACK JOHNSON/G. LOVE

Some Live Songs
(Brushfire) Catalog No. 0001
Despite drops at Disc Exchange (Knoxville, TN), Record Exchange (Boise) and Newbury (Brighton, MA), this live collection from three leading frat-house heroes jumped from No. 79* to 68*. Rank jumps: CD Central (Lexington, KY) and Easy Street (Seattle). Top 10s: Lou's (Encinitas, CA), Mad Platter (Riverside, CA), Park Ave. (Winter Park, FL), more. Top 30s: Vintage Vinyl (St. Louis), Vinyl Fever (Tallahassee, FL), Record Exchange (Greensboro, NC), more.
Current Top 100 Chart Position: 68*

NEKO CASE

The Tigers Have Spoken
(Anti) Catalog No. 86740
The Velvet Retail Underground And Neko saw an impressive No. 14* debut in November (the customers have spoken, apparently), and her latest continues to jump, moving from No. 80* to 71*. Rank jumps at Jackpot (Portland, OR), Electric Fetus (Minneapolis), Criminal (Atlanta), Stinkweeds (Tempe), Waterloo (Austin, TX), Amoeba (Berkeley), more. Top 10s: Easy Street (Seattle), Kief's (Lawrence), Record Time (Ferndale, MI), more.
Current Top 100 Chart Position: 71*
