Soundtracks to Urban Films Like Thin Line... Fatten Bottom Line Inside: Boyz & Men Form Label At Sony

VOL. LIX, NO. 24 FEBRUARY 24, 1996

Cover Story

Urban Film Soundtracks

The success of the soundtrack to the film Waiting To Exhale has firmly proven what many insiders have known all along, that soundtracks to films appealing to an urban audience can attract phat dollars, help cross-promote a film and broaden the appeal of the recording artists on the soundtrack—both established acts and newcomers. At Warner Bros. Records, a pair of film/soundtrack projects—New Line Cinema's Thin Line Between Love And Hate and 20th Century Fox's Girl 6 by Spike Lee—have the company excited about the bottom line and artist development potential. Cash Box urban editor Gil Robertson IV takes a look.

Boyz Label Stonecreek Flows To Sony Music

WITH A FIRM EYE ON THE FUTURE, the four members of Boyz II Men—the Motown Records act that has blackened the company's bottom line in recent years, has formed Stonecreek Recordings and entered a distribution and production deal at Sony Music Entertainment. While the much-lauded and awarded Philadelphia-based R&B vocal group is expected to sign artists to its label and produce acts already signed to Sony Music record companies, the Boyz are likely to continue recording for the PolyGram-owned Motown. The group's next album is not due until 1997, and other albums are also slated for release through Motown.

Stonecreek, which will be funded and distributed by Sony, will be headquartered at Boyz II Men's recording facility newly-opened in the City of Brotherly Love. Artists signed to Stonecreekwill be marketed and promoted through Sony's Columbia Records, Epic Records and associated labels depending on the direction and genre sensibilities of each act.

While making its most indelible public mark as performers, Boyz II Men have had a hand in producing, writing and arranging much of the material on their two multi-platinum albums for Motown—Cooleyhighharmony and II.

They are expected to deploy these skills in the creative development of acts signed to Stonecreek, in addition to overseeing A&R and marketing activities, and also produce various Sony Music acts.

Sandy Jones has been hired to serve as general manager of Stonecreek. she comes to her new job from a sales and marketing post at Luke Records, which she left last September, and also held similar jobs at Virgin Records and Motown.

Sony Music's president/CEO, Thomas D. Mottola, and the Boyz quartet of nathan Morris, Michael McCary, Shawn Stockman and Wanya Morris, announced the joint venture during a press conference in New York City.

"We're extremely excited about the opportunity to work with Tommy Mottola and all the labels at Sony Music," Nathan Morris commented. "This new label, with the backing of Sony's marketing and distribution teams, is the perfect vehicle for us to bring our creative talents to the forefront while also providing a home for gifted artists."

Mottola, praising Boyz II Men for standard bearers of excellance, commented: "For me, this is one of the most exciting artist development projects that I've been privileged to be involved with."

The custom label deal, was reportedly first offered to Motown, which declined under then-president Jheryl Busby.

Piracy In Spotlight

THE RECORDING INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA (RIAA), has been putting the pressure on music piracy in courtrooms and in the field where it's happening lately.

RIAA member company FonoVisa, won an appeal in a copyright/trademark infringement case that established that swap meet and flea market owners could be held contributorily or vicariously liable for the sale of counterfeit recordings by vendors on the owners' premises. The appeal of FonoVisa v. Cherry Auction, et al was decided January 25, 1996, in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. In addition, an amicus brief that was filed jointly by the RIAA and the International Anti-Counterfeiting Coalition, contained many of the arguments upheld by the appellate court.

According to the RIAA, the case is significant because it has broad implications for individuals who may not necessarily be directly infringing on an owner's rights under copyright and trademark law, but who are in a position to control vendor conduct. The case is also significant because it held that a swap meet owner can be materially contributorily liable by providing the vendor an environment and market in which the sale of counterfeit recordings can flourish.

The appellate court also reaffirmed the Hard Rock Cafe decision that held that actual knowledge is not necessary for contributory trademark infringement. Contributory liability can be imposed if the swap meet owner had reason

■ Warner/Chappell Music, Inc. has named Ellen Moraskie vp of its new U.S. Latin music division. Moraskie will oversee the firm's Latin office in Miami and be responsible for development and control of the company's talent in this genre throughout the U.S. She comes to Warner/Chappell from Sony Music Publishing. Gary Baddeley has been named vp/gm for Robbins Entertainment L.L.C.. As the first major executive appointment for the company, a joint venture with BMG Entertainment North America, Baddeley will oversee business affairs, manufacturing, distribution and general administration, and also work with label chief Corv Robbins in creative development of the label. Baddeley comes to his new job from the entertainment law firm of Philips Nizer Benjamin Krim & Ballon L.L.P. Michael S. Williams has been hired as the new chief financial officer for the Recording Industry Assn. of America, the music industry trade association. He comes to his new job from the post of director of finance for Pomona Valley Hospital Medical Center, where he spent six years. Wendy Schlesinger has been promoted to sr. director, market development, country music marketing and merchandising, for BMG Distribution. She will work closely with BMG's labels and marketing field staff in creating and implementing marketing and sales promotions for country and mainstream acts. She will play a similar role merchandising. Schlesinger most recently was director of mainstream and country marketing for BMG. Loose Cannon Records has appointed Greg "English" Jones manager of field promotions making him responsible for serving as a liaison between the label and both Island Records and PGD to develop and implement promotion activities and grass roots campaigns for the label's artist roster. Prior to joining Loose Cannon, Jones was Northeast regional manager of urban radio/street promotion for Scotti Bros. Records. He has held similar positions with other major and independent labels. Susie Penley has been promoted to manager of print advertising for Poly-Gram Holding, Inc. Her new post makes her responsible for print advertising campaigns for the PolyGram family, including media planning and purchasing and maintaining uniform rate and frequency structures.

Thrasher

Penley has been with PolyGram for seven years, beginning with PolyGram Classics & Jazz, and for the last two years serving as media planner with PolyGram Holding. Virgin Records has announced a trio of appointments. Eric Thrasher has been named sr. director of R&B field operations. In his new post, Thrasher will be responsible for supervising daily activities of the label's R&B field staff while coordinating national promotion efforts. Thrasher joins the company after more than two years at Reprise Records where he most recently held the post of vp of black music. He also boasts a six-year tenure at Motown Records. Brenda Walker has been named director of A&R for Virgin, where she will now be responsible for seeking and developing new talent in all genres of music, and also guiding projects by artists already on the roster. Walker most recently served as director of product management for the label since September, 1994. She held a similar role at Perspective Records. And Cindy Greer has been named West Coast director of publicity, a job that will require her to plan and implement press campaigns for a wide range of artists on the Virgin, Noo Trybe and Pointblank rosters. Greer joins the company after most recently serving as marketing director for WFOX-FM/Atlanta, GA. Arista Records has announced two appointments. Ari Martin has been named assoc. director of artist development for the company, and now will develop and execute marketing campaigns for new and developing artists. Prior to his appointment, Martin served as product manager for Epic Records. Catrin Walz has been named Arista's director of travel management, and will be accountable for all travel requirements, including monitoring travel related expenses as well as office services on the West Coast. Prior to the new post, Walz was director of office services at the label's New York headquarters.

EAST COAST

Let's Have Ace Party! Jimmy Angel, '50's teen idol and earthly link to the stars in Rock and Roll Heaven via music the way it was in the beginning, has been signed to make his magic for Ace Records. No stranger himself to the sweet sounds of the pioneer rockers, Ace Records owner and founder Johnny Vincent personally inked the rockin' warbling Angel to the company. Shown here at the signing are (I-r): Jimmy Angel and Johnny Vincent.

WHAT EXACTLY DOES THAT MEAN?: It only takes a small spark to start a full scale bidding war in these volatile times for music. and it appears that the matches are out when it comes to the Philadelphia-based band The Interpreters. The trio has marked out a territory that is fully entrenched in the Britpop phenom. The Jam, Buzzcocks, Wire, The Clash and mid-60's British Invasion are all easily heard in the band's songs that are fully fueled and ready to burn. The erowd at the Khyber Pass on Friday the 9th was set for blast-off when the uniformly clad group assembled. Within only a few short spurts the heads were bobbing and hands came together with gusto. One could almost smell a whiff of fish and chips in the air as the super-tight set belied the fact that the band has only played out a handful of times. But there in the audience was one New York-based A&R person and with calls coming in from a number of majors, it appears that The Interpreters is definitely in-play. Who the group will be translating for is now the question.

A STRONG SUCKING SOUND: Another band from the City of Brotherly Love that has started to get some attention is Vibrohux. The quintet has a flare for the theatrical as well as the sonic, which was readily apparent at its show on the 10th at the Knitting Factory. Headed by the Pennsylvania music scene stalwart J.T. who charged the intro to the group's two pieces with some psycho-psychedelic witticisms that mirrored the playing. Starting out soft, both songs built to a hypnotizing crescendo which could well have gone on for a longer time without complaint from the crowd. The group has already self-released a couple LPs and will have its latest album, music for the other head, out on the Siltbreeze label on March 26th.

SO THAT'S WHERE THEY WERE: If there was one show that just screamed "Industry!" in the last few weeks it was Warner Bros'. Son Volt at the Bottom Line as that club celebrated its 22nd anniversary. The Missouri country roots rockers have become the apples of many different eyes as a block-long line waited in the ice cold weather outside to get standing room in a space that was not much warmer. With "alternative" celebs such as J. Mascis of Elektra's Dinosaur Jr. and The Lemonheads' Evan Dando of Atlantic in the crowd joining a long table of VH-lers and a separate one full of MTV employees, who included newsperson Tabitha Soren (not to mention a sizable sprinkling of big name journalists floating around), the schmoozing was quite substantial. The show's listenership was expanded as it was broadeast live by WNEW 102.7. Son Volt rose to the occasion and delivered the goods intact for all to enjoy.

REFLECTING THE MORE WITH-IT list of this year's Grammy nominees, the first batch of announced Grammy performers represent some of last year's brightest and most successful new talent. Included in that list are two of this year's Best New Artist nominces, Canadian superstar Alanis Morissette and last year's best-selling act, Hootie And The Blow-fish. Morissete is tied with Mariah Carey for the most nominations, with six apiece. Fittingly, Carey will also appear on the show, performing with Boyz II Men the first ever live TV version of the two charttopper's recent number one duet, "One Sweet Day." Joining the aforementioned artists are rapper Coolio, TLC and critically acelaimed country star Dwight Yoakam.

While there are some more established names, in Chris Isaak, Vanessa Williams and Gloria Estefan, among the initial presenters, the new blood is well represented by 2Pac Shakur and Friends' star Lisa Kudrow. TV will once again play an important part of this year's telecast, as comedian Tim Allen of Home Improvement fame joins the list of presenters and Ellen DeGeneres will host this year's awards ceremony. Confirming that is NARAS President/CEO Michael Greene, who

Confirming that is NARAS President/CEO Michael Greene, who commented, "....It is quite fitting that we have Ellen DeGeneres (Ellen) hosting the 38th Annual Grammy Awards telecast in that so many of the major categories are dominated by a host of great, new, talented women. This year we have also invited an unprecedented number of film and television personalties to make presentations on the telecast, promising to make this year's show filled with surprises and star power."

This year's awards ceremony will once again emanate from Los Angeles' Shrine Auditorium. The show will air on February 28 on the CBS Television Network from 8-11 p.m. (ET/PT).

THE COOLEST OF ALL OF LAST YEAR'S Grammy related events was MTV's "Rock The Vote Benefit." Held last year at the Palace, the event was an enjoyable schmooze-fest with many top industry folks there and an important message. This year's benefit, to be held on February 27, the night before the Grammys, at the House Of Blues promises to be more of the same.

This year's honorees of the Patrick Lippert Award, which recognizes individuals who inspire young people to become politically aware and active, are the very busy Hootie & The Blowfish and rapper Chuck D. Previous recipients have been Pearl Jam, R.E.M. and Queen Latifah.

IN AWARDS NEWS OF A DIFFERENT NATURE, the abovementioned House of Blues (notice how incestuous the column is this week) recently played host to the America Online music awards. 450,000 people cast their votes in a six-day period for winners in 51 categories. While the awards reflected the more mainstream winners, including Hootië, Alanis and Coolio, distinguishing it from other awards shows were the categories envering Internet-related fields. The winners there were The Grateful Dead Forum for Best General Cybersite; Best Alternative Cybersite, Red Hot Chili Peppers Page (address, http://www.wbr.com/chilipeppers); Best Rap Cybersite. Urban Soundtracks Fatten Big Picture

Gil L. Robertson IV

Labels look to increase the fortunes of established artists and introduce new acts through soundtracks, which serve to expose them to music buyers and filmgoers.

THE HOT BUZZ IN URBAN MUSIC today is about the phenomenal across the board success of soundtrack releases. At radio, retail and video, soundtrack releases translate into big money. One needs only to look at the popularity of previous soundtracks like Friday, Dead Presidents and the recent Waiting to Exhale smash to know that these projects are virtual cash cows for their record labels. Although it's clear that soundtrack releases generate great business with consumers, they also place additional demands on the labels that release them.''Essentially when working a soundtrack recording, the record label is in fact promoting the film that it is associated with, as well. It's like something of a marriage between the two, and as you know some marriages work well while others fail miserably,'' says Thornell Jones a product development executive at Motown Records.

Although in principal everyone knows that both soundtrack and film should be worked together, that's not always the case. Take for example the great success that last summer's soundtrack to The Show enjoyed. While the soundtrack captured platinum sales, the film itself bombed at the box office. Conversely a film's success can sometimes fail to generate strong sells for the accompanying album release. Case in point is the soundtrack release for the film Panther. While that film grossed solid returns at the box office, the glossy and big budgeted Mercury Records' soundtrack failed to reach the sales expectations for the label.

"Although the track record for soundtrack recordings is a bit spotty, when such a record succeeds, it really goes over the top. For example the music that is currently selling well at my store are soundtrack recordings," adds Royce Fortune, owner of Fortune Music in Inglewood, CA. "Waiting To Exhale is doing enormous business, and Dead Presidents, Don't Be A Menace and even the Friday soundtracks are still bringing them in as well."

For the artists, being on a successful soundtrack can really make the difference in a career. While both Whitney Houston and the Artist Formerly Known As Prince were already established music stars, it could be argued that their appearance on the soundtrack recordings to The Bodyguard and Purple Rain added an extra dimension to their careers. "In terms of breaking a music artist big time nothing works as well as having them appear on a soundtrack. If the movie hits and the track that the artist performs on becomes a hit, then what you have is an artist who has broken big with both film and movie consumers, which generally translates into a major break through for any artist." adds Jones.

Warner Bros. Records certainly believes that premise, which is why the label has included a number of their new signees on its upcoming New Line Cinema release Thin Line Between Love and Hate soundtrack. Featuring music from established artists like Tevin Campbell, H-Town, the Luniz, Ganjah K., and Smooth, the album also includes tracks from new comers like the L.B.C. Crew, Sandra St. Victor, Eric Benét and Something For The People. "We feel privileged to release the soundtrack to this very funny film and also introduce some of our new artists through it," says Bart Phillps, sr. director of marketing for Warner Bros. "Introducing our artists through this sound-track will allow us to tap into two different markets, thereby exposing them to the biggest audience possible."

According to Phillips, Warner plans to go all out to establish the record in the urban market before embarking on an aggressive crossover campaign. At present, plans are underway to cross promote the soundtrack through various contests and promotional activities utilizing radio, retail, video and television. "We will take advantage of the fact that Martin Lawrence is a highly-popular TV star by holding contests in selected cities that will generate an interest in the music and the film. One of the promotions being planned involves the winners being brought to Los Angeles to spend the day with Lawrence. Video and CD giveaways will also take place at various club locales across the country. In the video to the title track that we are about to shoot, several of the stars from the film will appear which should further enhance interest in the project. Also we plan several listening parties in key regions where radio and retailers will have the chance to hear the product and meet the artists involved."

Warner Records is also releasing the upcoming soundtrack to the Spike Lee film for 20th Century Fox, Girl 6, featuring the music of the Artist Formally Known As Prince. Phillips says about this project that the label plans to aggressively tackle both urban and Top 40 formats. "Because the soundtrack to Girl 6 entirely features the music of the Artist Formally Known As Prince we plan to target first his core fan base before moving on to a wider audience. Our promotion team will work closely with radio and retailers to ensure that the release receives the maximum placement and exposure possible. In both cases we will work closely with the promotion, marketing and publicity staffs at the film studios who are releasing the films to ensure that all of us are working together."

Over at Noo Trybe, that label plans to release the soundtrack to the Orion film Original Gangstas. Featuring the music of the label's hot roster of rap/hip-hop all-stars like The Geto Boys, Luniz, Ice T, and several hot newcomers, the Original Gangsta soundtrack promises to create a sensation when it's released on April 9. According to Carmonique Roberts, at Noo Trybe, the label is gearing up its promotional staffs to create a strong street presence for the album. Radio, retail and clubs that cater to the hip-hop/rap community will be strongly targeted and the label is working closely with specialized print and video channels to insure awareness about the picture and the music. Additionally, the label plans to work very closely with Orion Pictures in its cross promotion campaign."Because several of our artists are making their film debut with this movie we plan to work exceptionally close with the staff at Orion to make sure that both companies reach our target demographic audience. Also planned are several contests with both radio, The Box, and B.E.T., as well as several in-store and radio appearances with the artists involved.

With the three million units sold by the Waiting To Exhale soundtrack and the platinum success generated by the Dead Presidents, Friday and The Show soundtracks, it looks as if the music industry's continued interest in soundtrack recordings is still moving on an upward slant.

ALBUM REVIEWS By Gil L. Robertson IV & Michael Hill

JODY WATLEY: Greatest Hits (MCA D11400) Producers: Various

It's always a charge to get that rare album where every song is a special treat. One such project is the greatest hits collection by Jody Watley. Girlfriend certainly knows how to make people move as she demonstrates on track after track of this album. From "Are You Looking For A New Love," on to her last hit "Friends," the merriment never stops. The special remix of "It's Still A Thrill'' alone will keep you on your feet all night long. There has always been something appealing about Watley, the way she continues to evolve and challenges herself assures a listener of her intent to make us feel good. Special note to retailers: stock up on this one because it's destined to dance it's way out the door. (GR)

ROGER SMITH: My Colors (Nefertiti N21691) Producer: Roger Smith

This is a funky smooth jazz album that makes all the right moves to enable its listeners to be swept away and put at ease. Roger Smith is a fabulous musician and offers up a selection of tracks that should expand his following. He is supported well by an excellent array of musicians and featured vocalist who together give the album the right seductive vibe it needs to really hit home. A variety of urban formats will love this record. It is one of those rare finds that you'll want to listen to again and again. Standout tracks: "Miss Wiggle," "Only We Know," "Elly Mae," 'Serenade You." (GR)

MR. DOCTOR: Stripin' Bioccstyle (P2-53975) Producers: Various

Mr. Doctor's album starts out with some hard hitting gangster style rap that is synonymous with the bay area sound. On this album he tries to tell his tale of hard times, rough streets and playing bitches and hoes. "Bloccstyle," and "Fill Em Up," are two of the best tracks on this album. These songs show that he has a sure feel for the streets he portrays on his album. After these two phat tracks this Brother Lynch Hung produced album fails to deliver hit after hit. There are some good singles on this album, it is just that they are sporatic and do not deliver the spark that keeps a person sitting on the edge of their seat. The phattest track on this album is the only track that Brother Lynch did not produce. "No Bitches," is definitely a keeper. The other standout tracks are "40oz & Chronic Dice," and "Da Real Deal." That calcultes to five singles to salvage a slightly left album. (MH)

PICK OF THE WEEK

BRAND NEW HEAV-IES: Excursions (CDP 3553525) Producers: Various

No other urban group on the marketplace can compete with this group in the area of alternative soul. This alburn of B-tracks could in fact compete very well with most group's collection of first run material. As usual the vocals and musical execution are great, offering a seductive ride into a soulful groove that you'll never want to return from. This mostly mid-tempo project will for certain garner wide support on selected urban, A/C and pop formats. Standout tracks: "Mind Trips," "Dream On Dreamer," "Country Funkin'," "Worlds Keep Spinning." ' (GR)

THE RHYME

Artists and filmmakers celebrate the Gold certification of the Tales From The Hood soundtrack. Executive produced by Larry Robinson, the chart-topping sound-track for MCA Records united some of the biggest names on the hip hop scene for the project, including Wu-Tang Clan, Scartace, Domino, Ol' Dirty Bastard, NME &

Grench The Mean 1, Havoc & Prodeje, MC Eigt, Gravediggaz, Bokie Loc, The Click and N.G.N. Directed and co-written by Rusty Cundleff, Tales From The Hood was produced by Savoy Pictures, 40 Acres & A Mule Alm works and Undertakers Inc. Pictured are (I-r): Spice 1, E-40, Rusty Cundieff, Larry Robinson, Brian Sampson, B-Legit, and Chaz Haye.

THE GETO BOYS TO RELEASE LONG-AWAITED REUNION AL-BUM: The Geto Boys, the controversial Houston-based rap group will release its long-awaited reunion album this spring. Led off by the stirring remake of the War classic "The World Is A Geto," the 13-track LP marks the first time that Willie D has recorded with the platinum selling group in five years. Scarface and Bushwick Bill round out the threesome

NOO TRYBE TO RELEASE SOUNDTRACK FOR ORIGINAL GANG-STAS: Featuring music by the Geto Boys, Luniz, Ice T, and others, the Original Gangstas soundtrack will be available in stores on April 9. The Orion Pictures release is slated for a May 10 opening. A hard-hitting urban drama. Orginal Gangstas and its soundtrack are generating a rapidly growing buzz. The album boasts tracks from nine gold and platinum-selling artists alongside an array of new talent. An action packed all-star film, Original Gangstas showcases emerging new talent alongside '70s film icons, Jim Brown, Pam Grier, Ron O' Neal, Paul Winfield, Richard Roundtree and Isabel Sanford. Hot newcomers Christopher Duncan and rappers Dru Down. The Luniz and Shyheim make their film debuts as well.

Urban Single Reviews

By Michael Hill

■ THE CONSCIOUS DAUGHTERS : "Gamers" (Priority DPRO 50904)

CMG and The Special One have released the first single from their sophomore album. "Gamers," the single and title track of the new album lets the world know that TCD is in full effect. The track is funky and well in line with what's happening on the West Coast, and TCD are spitting out some platinum lyrics that are just as hard as any male rappers. This single has nine mixes to hopefully appeal to every person's attitude, but the Radio Edit, The Rick Rock Eerie Attic Remix and the T-Mor Basement Remix are the phattest of the three. Look out, foois, because TCD don't seem in the mood to make friends.

5TH WARD BOYZ: "Situations" (Rap-A-Lot DPRO 11083)

The arrival of the 5th Ward Boyz has been much anticipated since the group's Rap-A-Lot labelmates, The Geto Boys, hit the scene. In a style that is familiar of the Houston area, these boys spit out their country-tinged, descriptive lyrics about life on the streets ala "Mind Playing Tricks On Me." These boys are a pleasant surprise and well worth the wait.

HAMI: "I'm The One You Slept On" (Underworld DRPD 10296)

With Capitol Records' lackluster support for Hami's debut, The Funky Descendant. Hami is back and he must be pissed, because this new single was taken straight to the street. Do not expect the same sound that you heard on the album. This up and coming super-producer tweaked and freaked this single until it became some deep do-wah-ditty. There is also a bonus track called "Parlayin'," which really shows Hami's street prowess. Additionally you will find three mixes, on which his boys, Lovesick and Kaos Brought co-wrote and performed.

BAD RELIGION: "A Walk" (Atlantic 6613-2)

The lead single from the seminal punk band's forthcoming album The Gray Race finds the quintet once again rocking out at maximum speed. A frantically paced punk number, the consistent delivery of the vocals at the band's breakneck pace gives the track the vocal feel of a rap song. Though the group's most recent album wasn't the breakthrough everyone anticipated, one should still expect massive Modern Rock support for this track.

BILLY MANN: "Turn Down The World" (DV8/A&M Records 00064)

A soulful acoustic tune, "Turn Down The World" wears its heart on its sleeve. However, thanks to Mann's obvious sincerity and strong vocals, the song manages to avoid becoming too cliche. Mann offers nothing groundbreaking here, but his heartfelt singing should attract at least a few Triple A stations looking for something new.

THE CORRS: "The Right Time" (143 Records/Lava 6645)

Everybody's favorite singing Irish family follows up its top 10 debut single, "Runaway," with this perky pop tune. Produced by hitmaker David Foster, "The Right Time" offers highly accesible vocals in front of a friendly Ace of Base type melody. A guaranteed hit at CHR, "The Right Time" could lift the Corrs to the next level of pop stardom.

DON HENLEY: "You Don't Know Me At All" (Geffen 4844)

The other new track from Henley's recent greatest hits collection starts off, "I woke up with an attitude this morning" and goes from there. A venomous rock tune about the end of a relationship set against a monotonous, driving beat, "You Don't Know Me At All" qualifies as the baby boomers' "You Oughta Know." Highlighted by the line, "You should've killed me, you always looked so good in black," this is the kind of passion the Eagles' album needed.

k.d. LANG: "Sexuality" (Warner Bros. 8050)

Without question, one of the most underappreciated albums of last year was k.d. Lang's sultry and stunning All You Can Eat. The latest single from the collection finds the '90s master of the torch song at her seductive best. A hypnotic neartechno beat underlies the potent whisper of Lang's always dynamic vocals. In addition, Lang and producer/co-songwriter Ben Mink's arrangement masterfully rises and falls at just the right times. A sure-hit at Triple A and CHR, "Sexuality" could cross over to Top 40 and Adult Contemporary as well. One of music's most respected

■ JACKSON BROWNE: Looking East (Elektra 61867-2)

While many of Browne's peers, including Lou Reed, Neil Young and Bruce Springsteen have grown in new directions and continued to add to their storied reputations, other acts from that era have been unable to adapt in recent years. The lyrical beauty that Jackson Browne exhibited from his debut through 1980's Hold Out album seemed to indicate he has the talent to follow the lead of the former group. However, the inconsistency of his recent work has put him much closer to the latter category. On his latest effort, Looking East, Browne teeters perilously between the two hemispheres. He shows some of his old lyrical clarity on the moving "Baby How Long," but on the preachy "Information Wars," Browne talks into his recent pattern of beating listeners over the head with his political zeal. Somewhere in between is the touching Spanish sounds of "Nino," the trolicking "I'm The Cat" and the sweet guitar sounds of "Some Bridges." Not as vital a work as Springsteen's The Ghost Of Tom Joad or as sad as Bob Seger's last album, the best thing that can be said about Looking East is that it doesn't write Browne off yet.

SPACEHOG: Resident Allen (Sire 61834-2)

This New York quartet has turned strong radio support for the lead single, "In The Meantime," into a growing buzz. The band's debut album mixes a goofy '70s vibe with slightly off-center hooks and more than adequate guitar-driven songs. A natural for college success, Spacehog has everything in the right place for a run at serious cool-cult band status. Among the record's tastiest cuts are the Bowieinspired, cosmic stylings of "Candyman," the distorted jazz sounds of "Never Coming Down (Part 1)" and the fast-paced "Cruel To Be Kind."

THE GOOPS: Lucky (Kinetic/Reprise 46138-2)

If Blondie ever met Nena (of "99 Red Balloons" fame) at 78, it would sound like the endearing high-energy rock of this quartet's debut album. Fronted by the rapidfire vocals of Elanor Whitledge, the Goops don't try and impress anyone with versatility or musicianship. With the exception of the Morphine-like closer, "Cut The Rug," the rest of the 12-song, 34-minute disc stays on a one-note course. Power pop at its most basic, Lucky is a winning debut that isn't going to win any awards. However, on tracks like "I Want You," "Matchhead" and "You Wish" the Goops are going to win over a lot of fans. Expect major AOR and Modern Rock support behind this infectious debut.

DAN BAIRD: Buffalo Nickel (American 43037-2)

The biggest success Dan Baird enjoyed with his former band, the Georgia Satellites, was with the playful "Keep Your Hands To Yourself." A southern-tried rocker with the spirit of a novelty tune, the song was a staple at AOR more years ago than I care to remember. Now, on his second solo album, produced by noted rock-meister Brendan O'Brien, Baird combines those elements with a strong guitar base to create a record that should bring him closer than ever to his breakthrough. Baird jumps out of the gate strong with "Younger Face," but it's on the CCR feeling of "Cumberland River" that Buffalo Nickel really hits its stride. Also of note is the grinding blues sound of "Hell To Pay." With a big boost from word-of-mouth, expect the energetic Buffalo Nickel to build a strong fan base for for Baird.

GIN BLOSSOMS: Congratulations, I'm Sorry (A&M Records 0469-2)

The Tempe, AZ band follows up its smash debut, New Miserable Experience with an album that's remarkably similar melodically, given the unfortunate suicide of former guitarist and principal songwriter Doug Hopkins. Somehow, the hit formula that led to massive radio airplay for songs such as "Hey Jealousy" and "Until I Fall Away" remains intact on the group's new 13-song disc. The record's first single, "Follow You Down," has already made its mark at every format from CHR to AOR. Though members of the Gin Blossoms write the poppiest songs this side of the Monkees, New Miserable Experience had a bittersweet feeling about it. On tracks like "My Car," "Day Joe" and everything but the 14-second organ piece, "7th Inning Stretch," the mood is jovial and completely lighthearted. What made the band's debut stick out was the contradiction between the music and attitude, without that, Congratulations, I'm Sorry becomes just another pop record. Granted, one destined for platinum success.

PICK OF THE WEEK

MIKE JOHNSON: Year Of Mondays (Tag/Altantic 92669-2)

Besides the fact that Johnson used to be a member of Dinosaur Jr., it makes sense that j. Mascis, presently of Dinosaur. Jr, would appear on Johnson's stunning Tag/Atlantic debut. Mascis is an unabashed Nick Drake fan. And on his new solo album, Johnson combines elements of Drake, and another of music's all-time great songwriters, Leonard Cohen, with the haunting gothic vocals of Nick Cave. Add in majestic string arrangements, courtesy of the Sabee String Quartet, and the end result is an album that toys with greatness on several instances, and reaches the loftiest plateaus of music on the beautiful, tragic and epic "Eclipse." Aptly titled, Year Of Mondays searches the depths of darkness throughout, particularly on "Another Side," the heartbreaking 'Hold The Reins' and the multi-faceted closing track, "Overdrive." Obviously, too much of a talent to be constricted to one genre, Johnson explores more accessible Dinosaur Jr.-type riffs on the upbeat "One Way Out" and "Circle." Simply brilliant, Year Of Mondays is a songwriting gem destined to be a classic in the world of college music.

GRUPO NICHE: Etnia (SDI, 81719) Producer: Jairo Varela. TROPI-CAL/SALSA.

Grupo Niche currently reigns as one of the more popular Salsa groups in Colombia. They are also a longtime favorite throughout the U.S. and Latin America. Their current album, Etnia, (Ethnic Group) reveals a more eclectic approach by the group's lead vocalist/producer, Jairo Varela. There's the cumbia, "La Canoa Ranchaa," at the start with a merengue ending the album. This album is Gold formula Niche at its best.

DAVE VALENTIN: Primitive Passions.(TropiJazz, 82001) Producer: Dave Valentin. LATIN JAZZ.

Latin jazz flautist, Dave Valentin, unleashes more of his unique and diversified style on Primitive Passions. From his opening self-penned number, "San Juan," to the Brazilian-flavored "Samba For Denise," Valentin pours his creative soul into each of the 10 numbers on the album. This is a great production by one of the gifted geniuses of this genre. The Puerto Rican artist is also the musical director of Tito Puente's Tropijazz Golden Latin Jazz All-Stars.

SANDRA TORRES: La Otra (Sony Tropical, 81684) Producer: Jaime Querol, TROPICAL/MERENGUE.

Merengue queen, Sandra Torres, offers some well-picked material on her latest album. La Otra. Each of the ten numbers provide Torres with the ability to project her mastery of the merengue sound. Fans will be very pleased with this impeccably produced album by Jaime Querol.

TRINIA MEDINA: Trinia Medina (SDI, 81566) Producer: Angel "Cucco" Peña, TROPICAL/SALSA.

Once in a while, you will come across an artist's work that is hard to put down. The debut album by Venezuelan singer, Trinia Medina, definitely falls in that elite category. From the Carlos Paez composition, "Hablando Sola," Medina soars and keeps on soaring. The listener is taken on a delightful, as well as emotional, ride from beginning to end. A special treat is the duet song, in fact, has hit-bound potential. Not bad for the petite Trinia Medina who has an amazingly majestic voice.

THE LATIN LOWDOWN

A DIFFERENT BREED: MARC ANTHONY. He exploded on the Salsa scene four years ago with his first Salsa album Otra Nota. In a recent interview, the young singer and movie actor spoke candidly about his origins and meteoric rise to fame as an emerging Salsa mega-star. "It really began when I was with a friend of mine and we were driving around in her car. We came to a stop, popped in this cassette, and said listen to this," he explained. Marc Anthony's life was to change forever after that encounter. He sat there mesmerized by the Juan Gabriel composition of "Hasta Que Te Conoci." He played it over and over. "It was then that I knew what I had to do. I wanted to record that song more than anything in the world. I didn't care about what it would cost, or with whom I was going to record it with ... " His agent, David Maldonado, and Ralph Mercado offered Marc Anthony that opportunity. It was to be the younger singer's first Salsa album under the auspices of RMM's Soho Latino label. The album went on to become Double Platinum. Yet, with success came a price. "My friends would say...are you okay? Take care of yourself...then they would see you up on a movie screen ... they'd hear that you're nominated for a Grammy... then they'd hear that you're singing the national anthem at the Grand Prix," Marc Anthony recalled. "New York, I can't explain it, but I've cried...and I'm totally not ashamed (of that)...I've cried with them...have grown with them through rumours...through my breakup with my girlfriend with whom I have daughter with...... His friends would tell him not to worry about it, but he still would. Marc Anthony's experiences while growing up played a vital role in determining where he wanted to go as an artist.

Says Marc Anthony, "It has to be real. I've never lied (while I'm) on stage. Whether I just broke up with my baby's mother or not having seen my daughter in a month and a half because I'm on tour. I'm in pieces, but you put all that in your back pocket and say, 'hey, it's your turn to be the clown.' I was born to do this...I have to make them smile."

On Labor Day weekend at New York's Madison Square Garden last year. Marc Anthony not only brought a chuckle to the faces of his many fans, but he brought them all to their dancing feet as well. "It was the most intense feeling I have ever had in front of an audience," described the singer. Marc Anthony received the unanimous approval of the tens of thousands of fans present that night. The response was undisputedly the most resounding of any performer's at the concert.

Yet, Marc Anthony refuses to rest on his laurels. He has gone on to a burgeoning movie career with four major motion pictures under his belt: Carlito's Way, Hackers, Big Night, and the soon-to-be-released, The Substitute with Tom Berenger and Louie Guzman. "I play the bad guy," reveals Marc Anthony. "Bad things are happening everywhere." In other words, he had a great time with his role.

Future projects? Marc Anthony definitely enjoys his present dual career One can immediately detect the young artist's immense creative sensibility and innate ability to perform almost spontaneously. This is readily dismissed by the humble side of Marc Anthony. Marc Anthony only wishes to share his artistic vision with the world. Public response confirms the incredible level of attractability between the star and his legions of fans.

His second album, Todo A Su Tiempo, has already hit the Triple Platinum sales mark. It's also been nominated for a Grammy Award in the tropical music category. Marc Anthony will actually be competing with fellow la-bel-mate, Celia Cruz for her tropical music work, the Willie Chirino produced album, Irrepetible.

Marc Anthony recognizes no boundaries when it comes to his art. He recorded a duet with the top Tejano group La Mafia and is on their their latest album Un Millon De Rosas. Much is in store from the consummate personality known as Marc Anthony. It's just a matter of time.

CMH Celebrates 20 Years

By Wendy Newcomer

CMH Records: (I-r): Baret Dorian, vp; David Haerle, pres.; and Diana Collette, art dir.

THE AVERAGE LIFE SPAN FOR AN INDE-PENDENT LA-BEL often lasts only as long as its lone one-hit-wonder group remains popular. Once the public loses its taste for the flavor of the month, the record company loses its place in the music business. Fortunately there are a few indie labels that break the rules and manage to survive through those critical times and flourish among the majors. One such label is CMH Records, home of bluegrass and traditional music for over 20 years.

CMH Records was founded in 1975 by veteran record executive Martin C. Haerle and Arthur "Guitar Boogie" Smith (Smith is probably best known for composing the bluegrass standard "Dueling Banjos") for the purpose of bringing bluegrass music to the American public. In fact, the label's first project was 200 Years Of American Heritage In Song, a 100-song boxed set which chronicled the country's rural music from the colonial days through modern country music. Almost 21 years later, CMH continues to release the works of legendary bluegrass artists.

When Haerle passed away in 1990 his son David took over the label's operations. As president of a successful indie label, Haerle attributes the longevity of CMH to his father and Smith, who ingeniously signed to the roster bluegrass legends including The Osborne Brothers, Jim & Jesse, Lester Flatt and Grandpa Jones. "Here was a label that was not just gonna record things and see what happened but really saw the potential in bluegrass music, especially at that time, and were gonna be quite aggressive about exposing it to new markets," he says. "They just hit the ground running with extensive, historical albums by those artists using the more modern studio recording techniques. My father was very much a marketer. I think he was able to get bluegrass in an awful lot of locations in terms of retail and mail order and record clubs. That may have given him and the company an advantage."

Converting new bluegrass fans still seems to be the main focus for CMH Records. Haerle mentions a recent Pickin' On series which included a project called Pickin' On The Eagles. With an album comprised entirely of instrumental "bluegrass" versions of Eagles hits, Haerle hopes to win over consumers through familiar means. "We've taken the hottest bluegrass and traditional country pickers...and we've tackled these other genres of music. And I think that's maybe made it accessible to more than just dichard bluegrass fans," he says.

Building on his father's business principles, Haerle covers all bases when it comes to marketing the label. "We try and have products for everyone." he explains. This kind of saturation runs the gamut from a line for truck stops to expensive boxed sets for select businesses who cater to those well-versed in bluegrass. As for the more expensive product line, Haerle says it also serves the buyer who is "interested in exploring the genres of music that they may be unfamiliar with and they're okay spending the money for a boxed set that may contain a hundred songs and extensive historical information."

"We try and develop projects for every outlet that's available in America and have something for them. That's pretty much our approach," Haerle says. Supporting this approach is CMH's distribution network, which includes regional independent distributors such as the Navarre Corporation, Rock Bottom, DNA, Select O Hits, Record Depot and Action Music Sales. The label also uses the major rack jobbers, Handleman and Anderson

Indie Album Reviews

By Karen Sidlow & M.R. Martinez

ALTERNATE FAITH: Out Of Nowhere (Abrasive 32606)

Alternate Faith may sound like tame words, but the fuel that inspired this band's tag is truly fierce. Consistently prominent throughout the 10-track debut release is a sense of physical and emotional survival and strength. Songs like "Beirut," "Walls Of Greed" and "Falling In Hate," are just a few examples of the brutally honest tales lead vocalist/guitarist Faith tells. While hiding in a shelter in Beirut during the late 1970s, Faith attempted to theraputically communicate the unpleasantries around her by penning songs. Instead of dwelling on her hardships, Faith celebrates her life on Out Of Nowhere. While Faith doesn't wish anyone else to experience her tragic situation, she does acknowledge the changes it sparked in her soul. Reminding us there is good and bad in every experience. (KS)

SHIV: Flayed And Ashamed (Thirsty Ear 57020)

Meet new noise orchestrators Shiv. This trio, made up of three 23-year-old New Englanders, has just released its debut album. This threesome has already bombarded the Midwest and criss-crossed the rest of the States with live shows supporting various 7 inch singles. The album contains 13 short, but fiesty, tunes and took form at Amphetamine Reptile Studios in Minneapolis, Minnesota with Tim Mac at the board. Starting off the slightly more than 30-minute release is the thick sounding "Unsatisfaction" followed by 11 steadily flowing tunes that quickly lead to the disc-closer "High-Neckin"." This release, one that has been tagged "a mini-masterpiece and minor miracle," is plainly a clever premiere for three gwys who spent their most impressionable years surviving the Republican-led 1980s. (KS)

CAL BENNETT: A Stolen Moment (Groove Time Jazz GTJ 2004)

Saxophonist Bennett provides a knowing touch to some contemporary flavor on this record. Although he opens the album with a cover of the Jimmy Jam & Terry Lewis hit "Sensitivity," Bennett pens most of the tracks including his collaboration with Fishbone guitarist/keyboardist John Bigham, "Everyday" (also featuring Brand New Heavies vocalist N'Dea Davenport). Bigham and the saxophonist also come together ably on the track "Festival (Baby Jerome's Jam)." Plying some of the same waters as Najee (although largely more energetic), George Howard (although working with all saxes), Bennett can easily find room on the airwaves where contemporary, progressive and jazzy music is played. Other standout tracks include "Dutch Cargo" and "Dreamin" Out Loud." (MRM)

■ VARIOUS ARTISTS: Minneapolis Does Denver (October 89303)

The title of this release stems from a brilliant idea: Round up several diverse bands from Minneapolis and have them each put their spin on a tune from mellow-rocker John Denver. The result being Minneapolis Does Denver, an 18 track release that would make the man himself throw his cowboy hat high into the air. Some of the not-so-well-known artists who put their personal touch on Denver notable's are The Honeydogs, The Delilahs and Fat Tuesday. Despite the fact the BIRDCAGE RECORDING ARTIST, STAN RIDEGWAY who also happens to be the former singer/songwriter/master-mind of incomparable band Wall Of Voodoo, has just released his fourth full-length solo album, Black Diamond. Ridgeway calls the new record "different from anything" he's ever written and goes on to say it's "the most personal record" he's made so far. In the near future Ridgeway and his five-piece band will hit the road with tour dates in the U.S. as well as Europe...Memphis, TN-based Ardent Records just released Hell's Half Acre, the debut disc from North Carolina band Jolene. In October of 1995 the band put out a six-song, self-titled EP that highlighted its "roots-rock," or, if you prefer, "alternative-country" sound. Also from Ardent, look for Alex Chilton's long lost solo album 1970m which is set to be in-store the beginning of April...Scamp Records, a subsidiary of Caroline Records, is pleased to announce the release of Miss Calypso, writer Maya Angelou's 1957 album. This recent re-issue was recorded in November of 1956 at the height of Angelou's nightclub singing career, and marks the first time Miss Calypso will be available on compact disc...

LORIN ROWAN, a talent that began his career in his pre-teen years, has just released My Father's Son through Black Dahlia Music. Rowan's current album, produced by Dick Olsher and mastered by Doug Sax, is made up of 11 tracks and officially marks Rowan's solo debut record. Prior to this collection, Rowan worked with his brothers and his past collabortions resulted in releases on Columbia Records and Elektra/Asylum. To obtain more information about My Father's Son contact Lesley Olsher at 505.672.0333...Soul Classics, an imprint of Ichiban Records, has just announced release of more classic soul and rhythm & blues titles that have been digitally remastered. Now available are titles such as Cause 1 Love You from Lenny Williams, The Dramatics' The ABC Years 1974-1980, Never, Never Leave Me by Mary Wells, The Royalettes' It's Gonna Take A Miracle and She Didn't Know from Dee Dee Warwick. In March, look for releases by Z.Z. Hill and Denise LaSalle to be issued...

TEXAS-BASED LABEL, DEJADISC recently put out the self-titled debut album from Austin quartet the Rainravens. This CD only release features 11 tunes that successfully balance sounds from such genres as pop, folk, rock and country. Rainravens is available through The REP Company, as is all of Dejadisc's product...Putumayo World Music, another label whose audio releases are distributed through The REP Company, has received nothingbut-positive response from its recent compilations Women Of The World: Celtic and Women Of The World: International, both of which came out late last year. More eclectic collections, currently in-store, include World Dance Party, Shelter: The Best Of Contemporary Singer/Songwriters, World Vocal, Contemporary Folk and World Instrumental. To celebrate the company's 20th anniversary, three albums representing the past and present sounds of Africa will be released in the Spring, as well as, Utopia, a collection of "cool clothing from countries where they know what hot means."...California-based Frontier Records is proud to unleash 10% Weird from Australian act The Meanies. 10% Weird marks the foursome's first U.S. full-length release and consists of over a dozen tunes. Songs featured on the album include "Grand-mother's Dead," "Redneck Door" and "Corpse In Love." Some say The Meanies claim to fame was opening for Pearl Jam's 1995 Australian tour. But personally, band member Ringo's "incredible fascination with sewer systems" is even more of a stimulating fact.

Merchandisers, to ensure their product's availability. "We have arrangements with the record clubs directly. And we usually deal directly with mail order companies," Haerle says. "So it's kind of a potpourri setup, but that's how we do it."

Ironically, the label that purports to uphold traditional music is based in Los Angeles (which by some accounts is several planets away from the Bluegrass State). Haerle uses this geographical oddity to his advantage—in the past couple of years, CMH Records has been establishing a relationship with the television and film industry. Among the label's more notable musical placements are in the Patsy Cline film "Sweet Dreams" and television shows such as "The Oprah Winfrey Show" and "Late Night With David Letterman." Most recently, CMH released the soundtrack to the award-winning "High Lonesome—The Story Of Bluegrass Music," a film Haerle considers "the best film that's ever been made on bluegrass music."

Television and films notwithstanding, Haerle prefers to go it alone rather than be governed by industry trends. "I always hear that the majors are more focused toward launching maybe 10 projects, spending a lot of money and then one will really hit big and carry the rest," Haerle says. "We're trying to make a profit and do well with each release."

When asked if it is a good time to be an independent label, Haerle enthusiastically affirms. "I can't speak for independent labels in general, but our experience has been that if we try and think of things that are catchy to us and make sense...and have a certain quality, we have found that we can make a go with an awful lot of items," he says. "So I think it is a good time, at least from our perspective. And of course, we're in a niche market and I think there are some tremendous advantages to being in a niche market."

After more than two decades of "making a go" of the music industry, Haerle's formula for success is still a mystery. "We do not operate with much of a vision. Or a business plan," he laughs. "We are gonna try and stay flexible. We're gonna try and stay creative and continue the associations with the great artists that we've been associated with over the years. And play it by ear."

participating acts aren't household names, not yet at least, the tunes they kicked out are. Classic songs featured on the release include "Leaving On A Jet Plane," "Take Me Home, Country Roads," "Rocky Mountain High" and "Thank G-d I'm a Country Boy." Minneapolis Does Denver... Get it? PICKS OF THE WEEK

HIROKO KOKUBU: Moments (JVC ADV-2054-2)

A plush soundscape that sweeps the listener into a daydreamy state but also permits a visceral, foot-patting response is the benchmark of Hiroko's new album, her second for the label. The lady's acoustic piano work is at once introspective, yet communicative; it is melodically and harmonically rich, yet rhythmically immediate. This 14-track distillation of the Japanese artist's favorite compositions performed the last eight years covers an eclectic range of jazz with classical and Brazilian-tinges. Familiar Brazilian artists such as Oscar Castro-Neves (who co-produced three tracks with Akira Taguchi), Paulinho Da Costa and Ivan Linns provide authentic support to this sound. Linns, in fact, supplies lyrics and a vocal rendering on the loving track

"Passarada." While Hiroko's penchant for presenting evocative, colorful textures is evident on the opening track, "Night In Capri," she shows that she can bring the funk on the cover of Sting's "Englishman in New York," featuring guest flautist Masami Nakagawa. She makes "Someday In Paradise" sound downright homey. (MRM)

JOLENE: Hell's Half Acre (Ardent 7-1512)

Once this quintet agreed on a suitable name (culled from a Dolly Parton tune), it put out a self-titled EP that perked the ears of many critics, followed by the recently released Hell's Half Acre, the quintet's full-length debut offering. The album of 14 tunes, produced by Jeff Powell (Bob Dylan, Afghan Whigs), highlights Jolene's rootsy country-rock music with instruments like the banjo, mandolin and steel guitar drawing special attention. The songs are sprinkled with melodies and story-telling lyrics, with tunes such as "I Failed Me Again" and "I Read What You Write Today" especially standing out. Adding to Jolene's sincere original material, also featured on the disc is a complimentary cover of "Isadora Duncan," originally recorded by Vic Chesnutt. Jolene lead singer/guitarist/songwriter John Cooke calls Chesnutt "utterly amazing... one of the best storyteller type songwriters in existence," and Cooke seems to be gradually earning that honorable description as well. to know that vendors were selling counterfeits.

Outside the courtroom, a January 30 raid led to confiscation of approximately 6,000 alleged counterfeit Indian music cassettes and 800 alleged counterfeit Indian music CDs. Officials also found evidence of video piracy, confiscating 8,000 alleged counterfeit Indian videos and 25 video recorders. Members of the Suffolk County, New York prosecutors detective squad executed the raid at 70A Nancy St. in West Babylon, NY.

Arrested was Ijaz Shaikh of Bayshore, Long Island, who was charged with Failure to Disclose the Origin of a Recording in the first degree, a felony punishable by up to four years in prison.

And Japan found itself on the hot end of U.S. Trade Representative Mickey Kantor's stick earlier this month when he initiated a case against that country challenging its failure to protect pre-1971 sound recordings. This is the first case the United States has presented to the World Trade Organization concerning intellectual property. The specific issue is whether Japan, or any other country, has discretion under the TRIPS Agreement to limit the retroactive protection extended to pre-existing sound recordings to less than 50 years.

Members of the U.S. recording industry appearing with Ambassador Kantor at the announcement of the Initiative included Motown Record Company chairman Clarence Avant, RCA Records Label, U.S. president Robert Jamieson and former Doors member Ray Manzarek. RIAA chairman/CEO Jay Berman also attended.

The Enclave is the name of the new full-service record company to be headed by Tom Zutaut as president/CEO. The name was selected to reflect the label's philosophy and purpose as a safe haven for artists where they will be supported in a nurturing and congenial environment. The Enclave will be based in New York, distributed by Cema Distribution in the U.S. and Virgin International in all other territories. Pictured at the announcement are (1-r): Ken Berry, chairman/CEO, Virgin Music Group; Zutaut; Charles Koppelman, chairman/CEO, EMI-Capitol Music Group N.A.; and Terri Santisi, exec vp/GM, EMI-CMG N.A.

News In Brief

POTTS SWIMS TO ISLAND: Simon Potts, after two years of farming fruit on Hawaii's island of Kauai, has given up the gentlemanly pursuit of earthen growth to join Island Entertainment and nourish music talent again. The former Capitol Records A&R head will build the roster of songwriters and artists for the company and will be based in Los Angeles.

MTV EURO & BMG AGREE: MTV Networks Europe and BMG Entertainment International have forged an overall licensing agreement for exhibition of BMGE Int'l videos on MTV in Europe, Africa and the Middle East, announced Arnold Bahlmann, BMG European sr. vp and Peter Einstein MTV Euro president.

The deal is inclusive of all BMG-owned short-form videos. Commercial terms of the arrangement were not disclosed.

POLYGRAM-NASHVILLE CHANGES: In an effort to create greater efficiencies in its expanding U.S. music operations, PolyGram is implementing changes in the reporting structure of its two Nashville-based country music labels, Mercury/Nashville and Polydor/Nashville, effective immediately announced PolyGram president/CEO Alain Levy.

Mercury/Nashville's president now will report to the president of Mercury so that the Mercury Group will now cover pop music and country music as part of its activities. At the same time, Polydor/Nashville will be renamed A&M Nashville and its president will report to the president of A&M in L.A.

Castle Rock's City Hall: Study of Corruption

John Cusack and Al Pacino are City Hall habitués.

THERE'S AN OLD TRUISM—A snake's poison from the head down. Same's true in politics.

Well, same's true in business... any organization... any place where there's a few bucks to be gained in this world!

That's undoubtedly true in all city halls, and, as in this cinematic City Hall, the soft, hidden underbelly usually slithers along, protected, in the shadow of respectability. That truth, that message, is here in City Hall, even if, perhaps, it wasn't supposed to be. The fact that that comes through is the best thing about the film. Sometimes, even truth has a way of sneaking out.

Maybe someone overlooked it.

Another old saying: Too many cooks spoil the stew. Well, let's paraphrase that: Too many scribes spoil the stewry. Ken Lipper, Paul Schrader, Nicholas Pileggi, and Bo Goldman are writer-credited here. That's a helluva cinemascribe city council, out of which came some wonderful verbal moments and some highminded, thought-provoking lines-"'It costs too much to kill our children in the streets"-and I'm sure there were more left in File 13. There are many good things about City Hall, being a complete, filling, entity simply doesn't happen to be one of them. I liked it, but I didn't like it as much as I'd have liked to like it.

Director Harold Becker allows the moments to play the piece rather than molding them into a path.

We get to see the operations, driven by egos secondary only to the amounts of money each can push around; the ambition, tempered by corruption controlling soft-witted "I can do more good if I pretend to be in bed with them and go along with this'' attitude of originally ideal-oriented politicos. And, we get to see the disappointment settle in as "the people" for whom all this in-fighting is supposed to be for once again get used as pawns, as stepping stones by the powerful. The only ones who walk away truly free and untouched are those truly corrupt who have no ambition to "serve the public," who only serve themselves. The heartbreaking shooting of the five-year old at the film's opening puts a bitter, angry taste in an audience's mouth and soul that's difficult to shake and is compounded when the Mayor uses the funeral to massage his own conscience.

John Cusack tells the tale as a career political aide from Louisiana who has hitched his wagon to star New York Mayor Al Pacino. A street shooting kills a five-year old, a cop and a mob family-connected drug pusher, possessor of the shadowy probation that ultimately unravels the superstructure which brings the politicos and their dreams down; from the shunted off probation officer through a ward boss, judge, to mayor. Cusack closes the tale with his own idealistic run for office, a pastiche from which we're supposed to derive the hope for a single-honest-voice-in-the-wilderness. But let's not forget that his roots are from, as he says, "Huey P. Long territory," the seat and grandfather of current deal-making-with-a-spin politics. It's business as usual, folks.

There are some wonderful performances. Watch Tony Franciosa as the mob boss closely. This should open up an entirely new career for him. Pacino gets top billing because of his obvious stature and he's solid when the fractured focus looks his way, but it's Cusack's character who's at the center of the swirl here and who carries the film. Bridget Fonda is simply a device to galvanize Cusack's character into action, and she's pretty. Danny Aiello turns in a likeable, fully-rounded character. Martin Landau and David Paymer are also solid.

Producers are Edward R. Pressman, Lipper, Charles Mulvehill and Becker.

20th's Broken Arrow Flies A Bit Wobbly

A BROKEN ARROW, in official militaristic code-parlance, refers to a missing nuclear weapon. Here, the broken arrow is caused by synapses shorted out through the arrogance of a B3 Stealth Bomber pilot, played by John Travolta, when he attempts the theft of a pair of them and crashes the billion dollar aircraft.

Travolta's the star along with Christian Slater and the two of them are enough to guarantee some $ubstantial opening numbers. But let's not forget that the director of this is everybody's action-director's director, John Woo, jumping out with his biggest budget to date. Graham Yost has written some effective humor into the proceedings, which include enough firepower to quell Bosnia for about a decade; destruction of three helicopters of varying size; train crash; B3 Bomber crash; couple truck's crash and/or burn; an underground nuclear explosion complete with desert crater and ripple effect; several gasoline barrell explosions; three hand grenade explosions; and one knife is pulled. Fistfights? Well, that's a staple. You have to start somewhere...don't you?

Story: B3 Stealth pilot Travolta, unhinged because he's been passed over for promotion for lesser lights, has a plot with moneyman Bob Gunton to steal two nuclear weapons. He recruits a couple drones, Howie Long and a stunt man who doesn't last as long as Long to ground assist, but doesn't mention anything to straight-arrow co-pilot/buddy Christian Slater. When the nukes are dropped and the bird killed, Slater survives and is duty-bound to come after his superior. The chase is on, and since the Western half of the U.S. is still here, we know who won.

Getting there is half the fun. Woo lets up on the action for only half-breaths. He is adept at taking you where you know he's going to take you, but then opening the incision into a vein you weren't aware of. These sudden twists are what have made Woo so popular with action audiences; that and the fact that he overdoes all action into cartoon-and beyond status both visually and aurally—Woo is the perfect director for digital sound systems. He's also always more concerned with the immediate gratification of a gag than with how a character survives the action. He simply ignores plausibility when he needs to get to another point. Well, it works for him.

He has some top-flight acting talent in Travolta, Slater, Gunton, Samantha Mathis valiantly hanging in to keep it from being just another good-ol-boy piece. Delroy Lindo, Frank Whaley, Vondie Curtis-Hall, Jack Thompson and others provide breathing room and what little exposition is needed in war room-like set-pieces. Woo's not the best director with actors. Travolta probably wanted an actioner for his resumé during this resurgence; and while he's not bad, he's not totally believable. He plays at the character rather than becomes the character. Here we get glimpses of the actor acting—having tremendous fun and enjoyment, but "acting." Slater manages a better transition. Mathis struggles. Long's a good football player. Gunton's strong and, as yet, unappreciated but very interesting to watch as he continues reaching for that role.

Hans Zimmer's music adds tremendously to the action and suspense and Peter Levy's photography keeps you focused on action, Action, ACTION! Kudos to editors John Wright, Steve Mirkovich and Joe Hutshing.

Mark Gordon and Bill Badalato produced; Allison Lyon Segan co-produced; Christopher Godsick and Dwight Little exec produced.

Disney/Henson's Muppet Treasure Fun

Sailing the Hispaniola with The Muppets, Tim Curry and young Kevin Bishop to Treasure Island.

IT MIGHT NOT BE QUITE what Robert Louis Stevenson had in mind when he penned his classic Treasure Island years ago, but if he'd have known of Walt Disney and Jim Henson he could have seen it coming.

The script by Jerry Juhl & Kirk R. Thatcher and James V. Hart keeps Stevenson's basic story line, and that's an interesting way of introducing youngsters to this classic tale, but retain wide latitude to allow the Henson crew and director Brian Henson to stamp it with that group's unmistakable signature.

The gang's all here: Kermit the Frog as Captain Smollet; Miss Piggy, in a stretch and the most drastic change, as Benjamina Gunn and lost love interest of "Smollie." There's a lot of sword clanging swashbuckling and Tim Curry has a blast as Long John Silver.

Hans Zimmer contributes a fine score and Barry Mann & Cynthia Weil have come up with seven tunes, in addition to "Love Power" by Ziggy Marley & the Melody Makers and "I Want To Take You Higher" by Sylvester Stewart.

Young Kevin Bishop is introduced here in the role of Jim Hawkins and makes an impressive debut while Billy Connolly has great fun as a drunken Billy Bones. And there's all the madness you might expect from the Muppets in various and sundry roles.

Henson keeps the action moving well for the adult and young adult crowd but it's tough to keep the under fivers in their seats. This will undoubtedly be a terrific home video sales item in about six months.

Martin G. Baker and Brian Henson produced. Frank Oz, in addition to three voices, served as exec producer.

ALLIGATOR RECORDS' MARC RIPKIN reports the company is releasing its 25th Anniversary Collection and it will hit the stores on the second of April. The history of Alligator will contain cuts from KoKo Taylor, Lonnie Brooks, and a cut from Hound Dog Taylor's previously unreleased album Showdown. Also on the same collection will be an unreleased live track from Roy Buchanan. Ripkin also reports that there will be an Alligator showcase held at Antone's in Austin, TX, March 16th, as an integral part of the South By Southwest Music Event.... Cash Box thanks Mr. Doug Deutsch, LA media man and John Ferris, owner of Smokin' Johnnie's in the Valley for their courtesy during an excellent performance by Chicago-based Howard and the White Boys. The band was cookin' and so was the food. Care was well taken by Ed Brzowski and some very lovely waitresses. Thanks again ya'all....Ray Charles will be appearing at the Mirage Grand Ballroom in Las Vegas on March 13th. The huge corporate show will be produced by James Cantale for ESI Productions. Minkya, JC.... Finally, the much-touted film, Heaven's Prisoners is being released with Code Blue holding the exciting soundtrack which includes performances by Albert King, Junior Wells, The Hoax, Stevie Ray Vaughn and B.B. King. I hear from Will Stubbs at Code Blue that the film is equally as good as the soundtrack. Barbara Shaw is also excited about the release of the Bo Diddley 40th Anniversary Commemorative Album which she says will be sporting such players as Keith Richards, Ron Wood, Richie Sambora, Jimmy Vaughn, Johnny Johnson, Billy Boy Arnold and The Shirelles. Produced by Mike Vernon, this CD contains all newly-recorded works and sounds as though it may really work for the folks at Code Blue.... The folks at Motown have finally opened their vault and come forth with three CD's of vintage blues. Mostly previously unreleased, these exceptional pieces of product promise to help keep the Motown coffers filled with much needed cash flow. The CD's, recorded in the early 60's and 70's, were canned due to the fact the label, at that time, was into what they considered bigger selling and more timely product. But they're finding, along with a whole bunch of other folks, that the roots of American music die hard. Sixty-four tracks, 49 never before issued on CD, 15 never before heard, are part of this trio. Amos Millburn, the famous chicken shack bluesman, performs the original version of "One Scotch, One Bourbon, One Beer," lately made famous by George Thoro-good. Then Luther Allison grinds out "Dust My Broom" and "Night Life" on the release The Motown Years, along with 15 other fine performances. Lastly, The CD Blue Evolution, containing the work of Mabel John (Little Willie John's sister) and Singin' Sammy Ward, rounds up a wonderful find from the halls of Motown....Carol Phillips from House Of Blues Music came by Cash Box and left a bunch of pre-releases including The Gales Brothers and Jimmy Ripp, both scheduled to be released March 26th. Carol also reports that Paul Black and the Flip Kings and the John Mooney CDs will be out April 30th. Just as Ms. Phillips was leaving she happened to mention there was going to be a housewarming party for the new label sometime in the near future. Hope to see you there, Carol...This week. we at Cash Box were happy to find that there is a program to help folks that actually works. Several years ago, William "Smitty" Smith, a dear friend of many in the music industry here in Hollywood, had a stroke which left him incapable of playing and making a living as he had for so many years. Smitty was subsisting on a diet of black beans and rice before a friend brought him a package from the NARAS MusiCares Program. Supported by the members of NARAS and outside donations, the MusiCares Program provides Financial Assistance Grants, a National Insurance Plan, a Directory of Human Resources and Referral Services plus many other benefits. Cash Box salutes NARAS and its many members for another job "well done"....See ya'll in two weeks.

JIMMY WITHERSPOON: Live at the Mint (On The Spot-82137-2) Producers: Robben Ford and Walter New

There must come a time in everyone's life when the indomitable will takes over and there's nothing left except pure heart and soul. Such is the case with this CD of the great Jimmy Witherspoon. The huge heart of this man is laid open for everyone to see, without remorse or negativity and with a great sense of humor. The test of a truly great man is how he plays his cards at the end of the game. Well, the "Spoon" is holding a Royal Flush on this CD from On The Spot Records. Recorded live at the Mint Lounge in Los Angeles on July 27, 1995 "Spoon" is well backed by tasty Robben Ford on guitar, Russell Ferrante on keys, Roscoe Beck on bass and Tom Brechtlein on drums. "Spoon" solidly exhibits that what makes a performer truly great is his ability to take a song and make it his own. Jimmy says it all on the opening cut, "Goin' Down Slow," and then he opens up your heart with a truly marvelous rendition of "What A Wonderful World." Every cut is a jewel, and for any blues fan this album is a collector's item, for there may not be many more from the "Master of Cool," the great Jimmy Witherspoon.

BOBBY RUSH: It's Alright (Ronn RCD-8012) Producer: B. Rush

This reviewer first heard of Bobby Rush in the mid-'70s via a record called "Bow Legged Woman And A Knock-Kneed Man Part 1 & 2." A jock on one of the R&B stations played the record and the funk stunk up Detroit. Damn...What a groove! Ronn Records has just re-released this outstanding piece of work along with some other cuts that are equally as down and dirty, notably the Elmore James/Jimmy Reed compositions of "Dust My Broom/Baby What You Want Me To Do" with a little "24 Hours A Day" thrown in for good measure. Bobby plays harp, guitar, some bass parts and sings all lead vocals. The background vocalists aren't listed. Bobby says that "Cash McCall played guitar with me and a guy by the last name of Jennings played the drums, he was from Rambler Lewis' band but I can't remember his first name." Well remember this...the southern markets will love this record and this spring should see Bobby Rush out there doing his "Thang" one more time. Check out "I Am Still Waiting" and all three versions of "It's Alright."

RONNIE EARL AND THE BROADCASTERS: Grateful Heart: Blues And Ballads (Bullseye-9565-A) Producer: No Listing

Ronnie Earl displays a unique style and passion on this CD of melodic and jazzy blues compositions. Since this is an advance CD there is not a lot of information on writers etc. Earl knows when to make a change from a square wave to a silky smooth tone in an instant, and certainly is in touch with all the EFX in current style; but beyond all that, when it comes down to it, what makes a player of any instrument above average is his choice of notes. Ronnie Earl, one can easily hear, is very selective. Excellently supported by The Broadcasters with Rod Carey on bass guitar and drummer Per Hanson locking in the pocket, then spiced by the marvelous B3 and piano work of Bruce Katz with the time-honored master of the tenor sax, David "Fathead" Newman completing the consort. So, if you've just come home from a hard day and you want to mellow out, listen to this flawless CD. Each cut flows to the other in a seamlessly smooth stream. Excellent for jazz, AC and AAA programming.

CHINESE TAKEOUT: Just before senior U.S. trade officials arrived in Beijing, the Chinese officials destroyed publicly, thousands of pirate CDs. China has increased its seizure of counterfeit CDs and computer discs in a renewed fight against piracy following its agreement with the U.S. last year which averted trade sanctions. However, U.S. officials complain that while China is making progress on the local retail level, the export sector shows very little sign of coming under control.

All together, in 1995, Swedish groups earned more than $100 million worldwide, making Sweden third in world music sales, ranking behind the U.S. and the UK, and ahead of France and Germany.

IT'S ALL IN THE NUMBERS: The British Phonographic Industry awards a Silver disk for sales over 60,000, and there is no equivalent disk in the U.S. For a Gold, the Brits need 100,000 while the U.S. requires 500,000 and when we get to Platinum, it's 300,000 for the UK and 1 million for the U.S. The UK also has a Double Platinum for sales over 1.2 million. With a strong last quarter in 1995, the BPT reports 65 Silver singles, 23 Gold and eight Platinum, up from 1994's 48, 14 and 6. Also recorded was one Multi Platinum, same as in 1994. 1995 had 256 Silver albums, 176 Gold and 62 Platinum and 73 Multi Platinum compared to 1994's 225 Silver, 165 Gold and 67 Platinum plus 55 Multi Platinums. The Multi Platinum 1995 single was Robson & Jerome's "I Believe" and their album, Robson & Jerome hit 1.8 million.

AFTER THE FRENCH COME THE IRISH: As previously reported France now requires 40% of all songs on the radio be sung in the French language. Now the Irish are on the carpet for having a 30% quota. The difference is, according to Mario Monti, European Commissioner for the Internal Market, is that while anyone singing French can come in under France's 40% quota, the Irish law says their 30% must be recorded, performed or composed by Irish Artists. This is clearly discriminatory according to Monti. However, the Irish Ministry of Arts, Culture and the Gaeltacht says they have no intention of changing the law.

GIMME MY MONEY: Ireland's Competition Authority has ruled that the Irish Music Rights Organization is legally collecting music royalties from hotels, pubs and discos. Cinema groups, music promoters and the Vintners Federation of Ireland (pub owners) argued that IMRO's collection of royalties on behalf of its members was anti-competitive. IMRO now plans to step up its efforts to collect more than £1 million in outstanding royalty payments.

IFPI AND THE PIRATES: The International Federation of the Phonographic Industry, citing recent statistics, said that Italy has the fifth largest pirate music business in the world and accounts for almost half of all counterfeit recordings sold in the EU. IFPI is hoping their new office in Milan will fight the trend wherein one third of all CDs sold in Italy are pirate product.

SEXY OLDIES: At least that's how classical music is being sold in the UK. With sexy covers and suggestive titles the market is being flooded with compilations like Classic Climaxes and Out Classics which proclaim loudly they contain seductive tunes by the world's greatest composers. A successful classic album sells 10,000 while the compilations sell up to 100,000. And buying these records are not the usual long-haired type of old, but the 25- to 45-year olds who are attracted by the covers and the promise of easy listening, with a touch of a classical snob appeal. These sexy compilations have started a trend that now includes albums for stress, driving and even gardening. In the last five years, the market has gone from almost zero to command up to 40% of the classical market. To fight back, the 'legit' classics are dropping country scenes and old musicians and tired composers faces and joining the race with covers that look like they come from Playboy or Cosmopolitan.

THAT'S THE TICKET: Ireland's Department of Enterprise is investigating handling charges on credit card ticket bookings. Current charges run from $3.00 to $4.00 per ticket and most venues accept only cash at their boxoffices. Consumer sources complain the charges are way out of line for something that takes a fraction of a second to process. New laws are being considered to either eliminate the booking charges or else have the booking fee costs listed in advertisement for an event.

I DON'T GIVE A PLUGGED PLUG: BBC's Radio One in the UK had more than 20 million listeners. But since then, commercial radio has come in and BBC1's numbers have dropped to around 13 million. However, it still remains the most popular radio station in Europe. And of major importance to record companies and promotion men is the faet the station is very open to new groups. So, getting on their playlist is very important and the pluggers are out there working overtime. Every Friday BBC's producers' meeting decides which records will make it to their playlist. And to open up the process, this month a couple of pluggers were invited to sit in at the weekly meetings. It isn't known how long this experiment will continue.

ELVIS—WIN AND LOSE: The UK Patent Office has ruled that the Elvis Presley trademark belongs exclusively to the Elvis Presley Enterprises. However, London's Sid Shaw will be able to continue to distribute his King of Rock products under his 18-year old banner, Elvisly Yours.

IT'S THE HORSES: Britain's horsemen are up in arms against casinos. While Britain is investigating changing its laws to permit more casinos with higher jackpots and easier membership rules, racetrack owners are citing U.S. figures that show that where a casino opens racing revenues decline almost 40%.

WATCH THAT SLUG: The European Vending Machine Association has asked that when the new Euro coins come in they be made of a size and shape that will be forgery proof. The Euro currency is expected by 2002 if the monetary union goes ahead as planned.

TOP 10 SINGLES IN THE UK: Hanging onto nje is Babylon Zoo's "Spaceman" while moving up to dy is 3T's "Anything." Also moving up is The Bluestone's "Slight Return" now on tre and new on the charts is Lighthouse Family's "Lifted" which is kater. Another newcomer is fitta James' "I Just Want To Make Love To You" on pese joined by newcomer Joan Osborne's "One Of Us" at gjashte and East 17's "Dc U Still" on shtate while moving from below the ten spot is Technohead's "I Wanna Be A Hippy" on tete. Cher's "One By One" moves down to nente and George Michaels' "Jesus To A Child" rounds out the charts at dhjete.

The top UK Album is Oasis' What's The Story Morning Glory.

Top of the film boxoffice in the UK is Entertainment's Seven.

In Europe, Coolio's "Gangsta's Paradise" is the top single leading in Austria. Croatia, France and Switzerland. Babylon Zoo's "Spaceman" comes on top in Denmark, Finland, Ireland, Norway and Sweden. Robert Miles' "Children" takes the pasta in Italy and George Michaels' "Jesus To A Child" is the top dish in Spain. Madonna's "You'll See" is seen in Latvia while Germany comes in with Everything But The Girl's "Missing" on top.

In the European album field, Gloria Estefan's Abriendo Puertas tops in Spain. Queen's Made In Heaven in Austria and Celine Dion's D'Eux in France.

SHENANDOAH: "All Over But The Shoutin'" (Capitol DPRO-10319)

"All Over But The Shoutin" is a high-energy number from the band's upcoming album Now And Then that is just begging for a line dance to be created in its honor. Marty Raybon's mercurial execution and a driving beat should get this often overlooked group some club attention.

SHANIA TWAIN: "You Win My Love" (Mercury MNCD-110)

Single Reviews By Wendy Newcomer

The fifth single from The Woman In Me is more turbo-charged country from an album that has been mined for gold (and platinum and multi-platinum). Twain's exuberant vocal rendering saves the song from its goofy lyrics to yield another sure-fire success.

TOBY KEITH: "Does That Blue Moon Ever Shine On You" (Polydor 314-531-192-2/4)

Over the past couple of years, Toby Keith has slowly but surely gained a foothold in the business with a few hit songs. What Keith lacks in flash he more than makes up for in the substance of his songwriting and warm Okie vibrato. "Blue Moon" is a finely-crafted winner.

Inanci griffith with the crickets)

NANCI GRIFFITH (WITH THE CRICKETS): "Well...All Right" (Decca DRN5P-3597)

Griffith's "Mona Lisa" approach to "Well...All Right" deserves a brand of near-perfection-somehow she manages to be both impassive and passionate when singing the ultimate teen angst tale. Backed by The Crickets, Griffith handles Holly with loving care.

PICK OF THE WEEK

BRYAN WHITE: "I'm Not Supposed To Love You Anymore" (Asylum APCD-9468)

If you listen closely to this one you might pick up on the following subliminal messages-- "Number one," "Smash," "Hit song," etc. Mention is always made of White's youth when discussing his amazing ability to get inside a song; yet no one could put as much experience and feeling into this sad ballad as he does.

Another Sellout For Fan Fair

By Wendy Newcomer

FOR THE SIXTH CONSECUTIVE YEAR, Music City USA's hottest (literally and figuratively) event is an advance sellout. Sponsored by the Country Music Association and the Grand Ole Opry, Fan Fair 1996 will feature 30 hours of concerts from country music's newest and best-known artists. The week-long festival, which is celebrating its 25th year, will be held June 10-15 at the Tennessee State Fairgrounds and will kick off with the Grand Masters Fiddling Championship at Opryland USA.

"The popularity of Fan Fair continues to be an indication of the excitement surrounding country music and its artists," said Ed Benson, exec. dir. of the CMA. Benson pointed out that the early sell-out occurred even though the Fan Fair artist lineup has yet to be announced. "This validates the dedication and love country music fans have for this unique event," he added.

Registrations for Fan Fair are handled by the Grand Ole Opry and go on sale the first business day of each new year. "We are excited to be part of an event that generates such enthusiasm year after year," said Hal Durham, Grand Ole Opry president. "No other event can compare when it comes to the number of country music artists involved and the abundance of live performances and personal contact with artists available to ticket holders for this event."

As always, the $90 registration fee for Fan Fair includes: 10 live stage shows; admission to the exhibit halls where artists meet fans and sign autographs; tickets to the Opryland USA theme park, the Country Music Hall of Fame and the Ryman Auditorium; and two meals provided by the Odessa Chuck Wagon Gang. Net proceeds from Fan Fair go into a special fund used by CMA to advance the growth and popularity of country music.

Country Dance Music Awards Bow Noms

TIM MCGRAW, SHANIA TWAIN AND TRACY BYRD share the honor of three nominations each for the third annual Country Dance Music Awards show to be held April 10 at the Wildhorse Saloon in Nashville and hosted by Tim Rushlow, lead singer for Little Texas.

Over 1000 country dance instructors and DJs across the nation were polled to select this year's nominees. The winners are determined via a customer balloting campaign from over 350 participating dance clubs nationwide. Co-sponsors of the '96 campaign are Jack Daniels and Wrangler, Inc.

Wynn Jackson, president and founder of Country Club Enterprizes, stated, "1995 was another great year for country dance music. The 30,000 ballots received last year showed what active consumers frequent these clubs."

Jackson announced the following nominees: Favorite Dance Song of 1995: "I Like It, I Love It," Tim McGraw; "Old Enough To Know Better," Wade Hayes; "Should've Asked Her Faster," Ty England; "Sold," John Michael Montgomery; "Trouble," Mark Chesnutt; "Whose Bed Have Your Boots Been Under," Shania Twain.

Favorite Dance Album of 1995: All I Want, Tim McGraw; John Michael Montgoinery, John Michael Montgomery; Love Lessons, Tracy Byrd; Music For All Occasions, The Mavericks; Old Enough To Know Better. Wade Hayes; The Woman In Me, Shania Twain.

Favorite Extended Country Dance Remix of 1995: "Anyway The Wind Blows," Brother Phelps; "Bubba Hyde," Diamond Rio; "Don't Ask Me No Questions/What's Your Name," Travis Tritt/Steve Earle; "I Like It, I Love It," Tim McGraw; "Rodeo Rock," Jimmy Collins; "Walkin' To Jerusalem," Tracy Byrd.

Favorite New Dance Step of 1995: Baby Once I Get You (Scooter Lee's "Baby Once I Get You'); Cotton County Queen (Ron Wallace's "Cotton County Queen'); Fever (Jeff Moore's "Fever"); The Honk (Dallas County Line's "The Honk"); J-Walk (Tracy Byrd's "Walkin' To Jerusalem"); West Side Shuffle (Shania Twain's "If You're Not In It For Love...").

Powerful On The Playlist

Leading the Cash Box Positive Country singles chart for the third week is the The Manuel Family Band with "Look Who's Laughing Now" on the Manuel label. Moving up to the #2 position is "Long Walk Home" by MidSouth. Up one more to #3 is Ronny McKinley and "Bull By The Horns." "Till They Know How Much You Care" by Wilcox & Pardoe moves up two more to #4, and Susie Luchsinger falls to #5 with "You're It." Lisa Daggs with "The Gift" moves up two spots this week to #6. David Patillo's "When The World Runs Out Of Parties" once again holds on to the #7 position. "Goin' To" by Brian Barrett breaks into the Top 10 at #8. Rivers & Owens drops down to #9 with "Not Livin' That Way No More," and finally, the Fox Brothers finish off the Top 10 with "Squares."

LOOKING AHEAD

Singles that are still gaining ground at radio this week include: Lori Loza with "O Me Of Little Faith," "Lake Of Fire" by Jeff McKee, and "The Mind Of Christ" by Ricky Skaggs.

Christian country duo Wilcox & Pardoe are pictured with Rich Tiner (center), Morningstar Radio Network vice president of programming. Recently, Morningstar's "High Country" began conducting a Wilcox & Pardoe "Win It Before You Can Buy It" contest.

What's New In Equipment...

CHICAGO—Antique Apparatus recently debuted the latest model in the Rock-Ola "Rocket" series of jukeboxes. It's the "Convertible Rocket" and it can be utilized as a complete floor model or, with a few minor adjustments, a wall mounted machine. Great looking cosmetics...Bally's new WHODUN-NIT? pin presents an interesting storyline and an abundance of theme-connected scoring features for players of all skill levels. No mystery about its appeal!...Sega Pinball, in its new Cut The Cheese pin. offers a light-hearted, connical theme, lots of fun for every age group, the incentive of winning tickets, eye-catching cabinetry—and even a motorized potty!...Fabtek has a new kit on the market called "Battle Balls," where players try to connect four balls, all of the same color, which stack up on top of each other. A chain reaction comes at the climax when the balls start popping all over the place...The theme is basketball, the game is Atari's Hoop It Up. Players try to score a single, double or triple basket, with bonus points awarded for every triple slam. A sports announcer details the action and there's music, too!

NDA's Team Dart Tourney April 29 - May 4

CHICAGO—The National Dart Association's upcoming eleventh annual Team Dart Tournament will see an estimated $170,000 in prizes, marking the largest purse in the history of Team Dart.

An estimated 4,000 dart players, representing 43 states and at least eight foreign countries are expected to compete. There will be three new events introduced this year: Ladies Master's Team Cricket, Ladies Master's 301 Team and Mixed Couples Cricket.

Players will compete on over 180 dart games including Arachnid's Galaxy, Merit's Scorpion and Valley's Cougar.

Sponsors of Team Dart XI are: AMOA, Arachnid, Inc. of Rockford, IL, Merit Industries of Bensalem, PA and Valley Recreation of Bay City, MI.

This year's tournament will be staged at the Sahara Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada during the period of April 29 through May 4.

Further information may be obtained by contacting the National Dart Association, 5613 W. 74th St., Indianapolis, IN 46278-1753 or phoning Mike Smythe at 1-800- 808-9884.

CHANGE OF VENUE NEXT YEAR

Due to the tremendous growth of the Team Dart series, the NDA board of directors voted approval to relocate to the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas. Thus, the 1997, 1998 and 1999 tournaments have been booked into the Riviera which has considerably more space to accommodate the increased number of participants.

Arachnid's BullShooter XI Underway

CHICAGO—The season for national dart competition finals is fast approaching.

The noted Arachnid BullShooter XI tour, launched last September, has already concluded a major portion of qualifying matches throughout the country.

The finals are scheduled for May 24-27 at the Hyatt Regency O'Hare in Chicago where the $100,000 World Challenge of Champions will take place.
