KRISTIN HERSH

When Throwing Muses signed with 4AD Records in 1986, they were the first American band to record for the exclusive British label. Kristin Hersh and co-songwriter/vocalist Tanya Donnelly together made restless, dark-clouded guitar pop marked by quirky rhythms, unusual chord progressions and Hersh's characteristic warbling croon. These days, Donnelly is topping charts with her own band Belly, Kim Deal of Muse's neighbors the Pixies is finding success with the Breeders, and Kristin Hersh has released her first solo album, Hips And Makers, with a full Throwing Muses electric record just completed.

Hersh chose to record the album in an acoustic setting. She explains: "The body of work [on Hips And Makers] didn't really come until I developed a genuine respect for acoustic sounds. I love their energy. It's a very physical way to approach a sound picture using strings and air and muscles the way we do with our own voices, and you don't have to treat that very much...you don't have to fake anything. It's raw and it's beautiful at the same time."

Hersh's songs with Throwing Muses have always been revelatory, revealing the fears and dreams present in her stark lyrics. Solo, Hersh infuses her songs with her own personality to an even larger extent. "I always said it was evil to express yourself in music," she says. "I think I tried to look objectively at this record and see my pictures splattered all over it. It's like a photo album or a diary and I still wonder how appropriate it is to publish something like that. I don't agree with the idea that music should be about anyone in particular, especially if you're calling yourself a songwriter. You should know how to put up and listen to the songs."

Not only was the acoustic experience something totally new and different, it gave Hersh the chance to work with different instruments. "I had written all these cello parts. I thought the cello was like a lead bass instrument...it had these near highs, growly lows and no upper-mids. It was just like my voice, and it was fighting with my voice on 'Your Ghost'...[The song] just wasn't happening," Hersh reveals. R.E.M.'s Michael Stipe had heard some of Hersh's demos and offered some possible solutions. "I kinda stopped listening to what he was saying," Hersh continues, "and just heard the sound of his voice in one ear and 'Your Ghost' in the other, and it sounded great. So I made him sing on it and he solved all my problems."

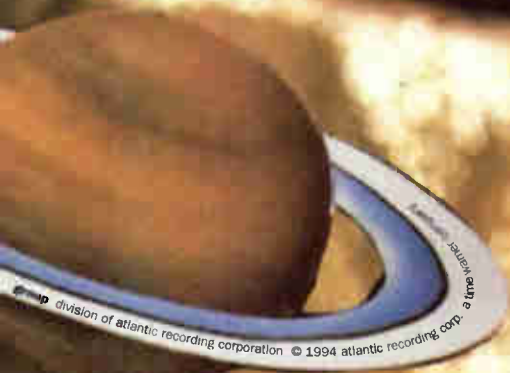

The fear of the vulnerability suggested by a solo setting was another potentially dangerous obstacle. "'Hips And Makers' is an important finishing touch. It told me something I didn't know before about how safe it is to take the ride if you're just gonna end up stuck in your body in the end anyway...That's where all the highs come from and you always come back from the lows. I didn't want to put 'The Letter' on the record because I thought it was too dark. After I heard 'Hips And Makers' I thought, well, it's okay to take the ride. You know how high the highs are if you're that far down. We get scared because it feels dangerous."

Another scary prospect for Hersh was having her name on the front cover. "That was something I hadn't considered," she confides. "It's so easy to call music Throwing Muses. It doesn't have anything to do with people. There's nothing you can write on the record but your name if you make it. I wish I could've thought of a band name for me...It just looks like 'Here she is. Buy her. 10 bucks.'" —Andy Ribbins

Essential New Music

SARAH McLACHLAN Fumbling Towards Ecstasy (Nettwerk, c/o Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Since her 1988 debut Touch, 26-year-old singer/songwriter Sarah McLachlan has been writing songs with maturity and grace well beyond her years. On Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, the Halifax, Nova Scotia, native continues her growth, creating a record that rings with the wisdom of her intimate explorations of life's fears, dreams, loves, hopes and strengths. Whereas her two prior studio albums found inspiration in despair, Fumbling Towards Ecstasy focuses its revelations on lighter, sometimes more whimsical emotions ("Ice Cream"), building tension with happiness and courage, and tempered with caution rather than languishing in isolation. The songs on Fumbling Towards Ecstasy are candid pictures of genuine emotions, delivered with a sincerity that makes us feel as if it could be our anxiety or our passion that is bared for all to see. No matter how the connection is made, it is still McLachlan's sterling, multi-octave voice that sends the shiver down your spine, her chilling performances on "Good Enough," "Wait" and "Elsewhere" delivered with the sparseness of accompaniment. Other tracks, like the lead-off "Possession" and "Circle," feature an almost hip-hop beat, while "Hold On" shows a broader global concern, inspired by the documentary A Promise Kept, a story of a woman whose fiancé was dying of AIDS. —Andy Skibins

JAMES BLOOD ULMER Blues Preacher (DIW, c/o Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—The odd thing about James Blood Ulmer's output is how dense it sounds. Even when he and his band are kicking back and grooving, every moment is filled with raw vocal asides, multiple drum fills, intricate basslines, and, of course, Blood Ulmer's distinctively fragmentary guitar playing. Where others play guitar like they're writing in cursive, Blood Ulmer plays like he's taking shorthand, cramming his solos with showers of breaks, chord-bends and jittery tone-series. Blues Preacher, his first American album in almost seven years, is nearly all that the title implies: "It's like putting music to a Baptist minister's sermon," he explains. It's also been in the works for quite a while—many of the songs here date back as far as 1980. This time out, Ulmer doesn't let his guitar freak out quite as much as on earlier records like America—Do You Remember The Love? Rather, Blues Preacher represents a consolidation and review of the styles he's employed to date, including rock ("Let Me Take You Home" has some convincing feedback-harmonics), funk ("Who Let The Cat Out Of The Bag"), and modern R&B (the alarmingly keyboard-laden "Angel"). No matter what he's playing, though, when Blood's on a roll, you instantly remember why he's the father of black rock as we know it today.

SOLSONICS Jazz in the Present Tense (Chrysalis, c/o EMI Records Group, 1290 Ave. of the Americas, New York, NY 10104)—Of all the new groups falling under the aegis of acid jazz, from the bop/pop/hip-hop line treaded by the likes of US 3, Guru's Jazzmatazz and Digable Planets to soulful incarnations like the Brand New Heavies, D-Influence and Young Disciples, all but a very few take to jazz as a means rather than an end. While the fusion of hip-hop and jazz has resulted in some excellent hip-hop and even drawn some considerable jazz talent—Miles Davis, Greg Osby, Branford Marsalis and Donald Byrd as the list grows—no band has so confidently arranged its multitude of pop music influences into distinctly jazz forms. Enter Solsonics, whose Jazz in the Present Tense endeavors to be exactly that. This record swings and bops, gliding on smooth soul vocals and Afro-Cuban rhythms, couching its scats and solos within reggae's sanguine cool. Still, the songs are not notable for the sum of their influences, but for their ingenuity and artistry. "Blood Brother," for example, draws obvious inspiration from soul classics like the Dramatics' "What You See Is What You Get" and the Undisputed Truth's "Smiling Faces," but layers the melody over jazz rhythms, reggae guitar lines and Latin percussion. Solsonics stake new ground completely outside popular jazz's twin poles of Sunday-brunch alto sax and conservatory neo-classicism, encompassing a world of ideas into a singular, brilliant sound. Also: the title track, "Inside Is A Stride," "Monturo Funk" and "Red Clay." —Scott Frampton LOTION Full Isaac (spinART, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798/212-343-9644)—Upon first listen, Full Isaac comes across as a coherent and competent guitar-pop record, a pleasurable listening experience, certainly, but nothing much more. Repeated listenings reveal the album's strengths: a refreshingly pure sense of tunefulness and honesty. Comparisons can be drawn to American luminaries such as Buffalo Tom and R.E.M. or dreamier sounds of Anglican descent, but Lotion really stands on its own as a testament, both to its influences and to its effortless pop sensibility. Having churned out a few singles with Shimmy/Kokopop's Kramer in the past, this New York quartet finds itself guided by the production talents of Ultra Vivid Scene's Kurt Ralske on its full-length debut.

The resulting songs provide a warm rush of refined pop, rich with the shimmer and ring of guitar melody and yearning vocal stretches that swell with beauty and mournful reflection. In fact, this fuzzy glow tends to disguise the fact that Lotion is more than just lilting; at its best it soars and rocks with all the head-on drive of its more acclaimed "alternapop" contemporaries. "Pajamas" displays the band's ability to weave jagged leads around fluid vocal sweeps; "Around," with its gentle acoustic strum, is downright pretty; and the quiet desperation of "Head" only sets itself up to be knocked down by dynamic bursts. Better still are "She Is Weird City" and "Love Theme From Santo Gold," perfectly crafted pieces of engaging harmony and blissful melancholy.

ORB Live '93 (Island, 400 Lafayette St., New York, NY 10003/310-276-4500)—At a rare New York performance last year, the Orb mesmerized a sold-out crowd for four solid hours—quite an accomplishment considering that the show didn't start until 1:30 a.m. and that the audience was packed with annoying underage ravers in eye-straining attire. For the majority of fans that weren't fortunate enough to catch the spectacle, Live '93 is almost as good—even better in some respects. Without the distractions of sweaty teens in day-glo colors and extravagant light displays, which become tiresome after 30 minutes or so anyway, the record allows the listener to bond more effectively with the mind-altering dub-scapes, and at any hour deemed appropriate. This live release was recorded in Glastonbury, Copenhagen and Tokyo, with loose and experimental song arrangements that are markedly different from the forms in which they originally appeared. As a result, Live '93 stands as an innovative, expansive piece of work on its own. Only three of the 12 songs are under nine minutes long, allowing the rhythms to flow and stretch endlessly. At two hours and twenty minutes, the album is even more surreal and hallucinogenic than the cosmic UForb. The cover art for Live '93, depicting a stuffed, bug-eyed sheep flying over three factory towers, is a direct allusion to Pink Floyd's Animals—a fitting image. The Orb is to the '90s what Pink Floyd was in its prime—a sweeping super-nova in a largely stagnant galaxy.

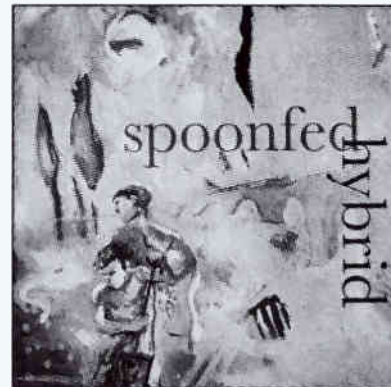

—Jon Wiederhorn

GREEN DAY Dookie (Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Green Day has been the pride of the East Bay scene for quite a few years, and the band's plunge into major labeldom comes after two successful LPs on Lookout! and enough touring to support a travel agency. Where some bands feebly use their first major-label budget to hide a sloppy sound with studio theatrics, Green Day uses it to make its strongest, most palatable and most immediate album to date (after Kerplunk!'s meager $1,000 pricetag, it must've seemed like the band was using My Bloody Valentine's studio budget!). Billie Joe's vocals and Mike Dirnt's backing vocals are crisper, making their sing-along choruses stronger than ever, and Billie's adrenalin-pumped power chords jump right out of the mix—like the Ramones, Green Day happily eschews ego-boosting guitar maneuvers in favor of a crunchier, more explicit sound. And that's why GD taps so directly into our present (or dormant) post-teen angst: because its appeal is so direct, so visceral and so damn fun. This band makes punk rock that's more obvious than pedantic, tackling issues like girl trouble and identity crises with the same intensity as that which Fugazi tackles individual and social responsibility. What's Dookie?: "Burnout," "Longview," "Pulling Teeth," "Basket Case" and "Coming Clean."

SPOONFED HYBRID Spoonfed Hybrid (Guernica (UK), c/o 4AD, 8533 Melrose Ave., Ste. B, Los Angeles, CA 90069/310-289-8770)—Spoonfed Hybrid is not so much a band as it is a creative collaboration between former Pale Saints leader Ian Masters and multi-instrumentalist Chris Trout. Quietly ambitious and simply beautiful, Spoonfed Hybrid leaves behind the showers of affected guitars the Pale Saints were fond of in favor of such credited instruments as queasy cello, ersatz machine voice, bamboo flute and two finger prog rock extravaganza. Despite such lofty instrument credits, art rock leanings and song titles like "Somehow Some Other Life," Spoonfed Hybrid is surprisingly unpretentious, resulting in pieces that are inventive and surprising rather than faux avant garde. Piano, strings and assorted ticking percussion decorate the majority of the LP, Masters' sweet alto voice adding more beauty to songs like "1936" and "Lynched." The standout track, "Naturally Occurring Anchors," features an ingenious production trick as several disparate guitars and guitar sounds are edited together to form one catchy chord progression.

—Steve Ciabattani

OTHER TWO The Other Two & You (Qwest, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510/818-953-3750)—Now that New Order has gone on a long and potentially permanent vacation, its members can concentrate full-time on their other bands. Bernard Sumner has Electronic, Peter Hook has Revenge, and the other two, well, they're the Other Two. Originally conceived as a one-shot musical project (1991's single "Tasty Fish," included here), the duo of Stephen Morris and Gillian Gilbert recorded this album well over a year ago, but its release was pushed back in favor of New Order's Republic. The Other Two & You isn't a deep album, but it is a charming one. Gilbert's voice is as light and as sweet as an Aero candy bar—it's a pity it was never used on a New Order record—and the combination of bubbling polyrhythmic synths and occasional close-miked guitars pleasantly evokes the Other Two's other band as well. Four of the 10 songs are instrumentals (notably the creepy "Night Voice"), which gives the album even more of a tossed-off feeling. The vocal songs, although they sound equally ephemeral at first, have satiny, thoughtfully crocheted hooks: Brit-electro fans will find themselves humming the rippling "Movin' On" and "Tasty Fish" (a "Bizarre Love Triangle" sound-alike) in the shower for many months to come. Others from the Others: "Selfish," "Innocence" and the techno-tinged instrumental "Ninth Configuration." —Douglas Wolk

VIC CHESNUTT Drunk (Texas Hotel, 712 Wilshire Blvd., No. 151, Santa Monica, CA 90401/310-823-7159)—Georgian singer/songwriter Vic Chesnutt gets compared to everyone from Dylan to beat legend Charles Bukowski. Perhaps that's due to his creaky voice and rusty folk arrangements along with his bent lyrical sense. The dozen songs on Drunk show that those comparisons only sketch out reference points to describe Vic Chesnutt. Everything about the delivery of his songs sounds unrehearsed. Like rock savant Daniel Johnston, Chesnutt seems to find the melodies to accompany his battered chords as he goes along, his meek voice rising and falling when the mood is right, falling out of tune to reveal either sadness or a really good joke or both. His lyrics are captivating and confounding, sometimes blunt and other times eloquent; on "Supernatural," he says "Built a king on compliments, charisma and advertisements/still they see him shimmer ephemeral." Haunting, goofy and endlessly fascinating, Chesnutt's songs keep you guessing, often forcing you to hum along as if you were guiding his voice to stay in tune and in time. You'll want to make comparisons to other oddly poetic songwriters, but few, if any, will have the same weird charm that comes from Vic Chesnutt. —Steve Ciabattini

KEVN KINNEY Down Out Law (Mammoth, Carr Mill, 2nd Fl., Carrboro, NC 27510/919-932-1882)—Kevn Kinney has a sensitive side which he gets to explore with his solo work away from his role as leader of hard rocking Drivin' N' Cryin'. When his band took a break towards the end of 1993, he went to Memphis to record his second guitar/vocal effort, Down Out Law. Kinney has produced a dazzling work packed with brutal, riveting portraits of dispirited souls and those on the barren side of life. His reedy vocals are unmistakable, lending his songs a poignant air. Each tune is an epistle in the style of Woody Guthrie and Bob Dylan at their dark, storytelling best. This is especially true with the sarcastic tone of "Shindig With The Lord" and a brooding paean to the plight of POW/MIAs and their loved ones, "Tell Him Something For Me." Yet Down Out Law is more than just another latter day folk album. The grunge electric guitar of "Eye Of The Hurricane," the acoustic John Lee Hooker boogie/blues of "Chattahoochie Coochie Man" and the brief beat jazz rap, "A Haight Street Beatnik Kerouacian Ripoff In E," add welcome, unassuming contrast to the record, while also demonstrating the full range of Kinney's significant songwriting talents. —Jim Caligiuri

Rather than filling the spaces, (Incunabula) prefers to let them slide, the brief stirrings of noise the only melodic, rather than rhythmic, input. This is another in the Artificial Intelligence series, releases concentrating on sound and mood rather than song. WADE Wade (Spirit, P.O. Box 170195, San Francisco, CA 94117-0195/415-252-1139)—Wade made a big splash with its first two singles, which introduced a San Francisco-based quartet with tangible and cerebral links to Bay Area mood sculptors American Music Club, Red House Painters and Toiling Midgets. On Wade's debut LP, Mary Redfield's pastoral violin playing infuses each song with warmth and knowing character, never falling into a drippy revamped-roots sound. It's largely this sound that's earned Wade comparisons to Ocean Rain-era Echo & The Bunnymen, and for all the best reasons. Redfield swaps lead vocal duties with bassist Eve Bekker, the voices of both women offering strong personality and an earthy, somewhat mysterious vigor. The album received a sweeping and empathetic production job from Tom Mallon (AMC, Toiling Midgets) and Damien Rasmussen (Grotus), and the result evokes the breathtaking array of tones found in an Ansel Adams photograph. The vibrant, soaring "Barely Human" and the LP's rousing opener "I Swear To God" were both remixed from Wade's earlier singles; the lengthy "Mr. Formaldehyde" and "Ebb Tide" fill their allotted spaces with the attention to detail of the Red House Painters, but with more volume and oomph.

TORI AMOS Under The Pink (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—After hits like "Crucify" and "Silent All These Years," Tori Amos found herself suddenly vaulted into the mainstream, giving her tremendous power as one of the few non-R&B female artists that lots of people actually listen to. And while, thankfully, most of her newfound fans won't remember 1987's Y

Kant Tori Read, there are probably very few who will ever forget her latest, Under The Pink. A serious maturation as an artist (Little Earthquakes was a good album, while Under The Pink has the markings of a great one), this is a bold step forward for an artist who desperately needed such a leap to leave all the shallow Kate Bush comparisons behind. While Kate Bush bathes her songs in a wash of lavish production, cloaking them in a swirling instrumental haze, Amos' second album strips down the sound to mostly just piano, subdued drums and lighter timbres, focusing attention on the words and the sound of her voice more than anything else, which is her greatest strength. Under The Pink is as adventurous an "alternative" album as any released by a major label this year; try "God," "Cornflake Girl," "Pretty Good Year" and "Past The Mission."

released in years. Burnside is a Mississippi bluesman, the real deal, a chugging, slugging blues locomotive who's also a lucid improvisational songwriter in the tradition of John Lee Hooker or Lightnin' Hopkins. Like the Hook, Burnside is one of those natural bluesmen who takes his time and does what he wants: rather than locking into the usual, pat 12-bar format, it might take him 11, 10, 13 or even 16 bars to turn a line around and get to a change in chords, but it always sounds right, and it always holds together. The rhythm section (Calvin Jackson on drums, Dwayne Burnside on bass and Kenny Brown on second guitar) keeps stride with Burnside by telepathically sensing what he's going to do before he does it, filling the band/Burnside segments with a seat-of-the-pants excitement that's palpable. Produced by journalist Robert Palmer on-site at fellow Fat Possum artist Junior Kimbrough's celebrated juke joint in Chulahoma, MS, Too Bad Jim is as raw and deep a dose of blues power as we've heard in many a full moon. other's records, echoing each other's sound, and giving each other shout-outs. For Casual, the Hieroglyphics posse means more than somebody to yell "We in the house!" at appropriate moments. It means that he's got a bunch of full-fledged collaborators on Fear Itself, including Domino (who produced most of the album) and Del The Funkyhomapien (who takes a couple of memorable verses). It also means that most of these tracks have well-defined Hieroglyphic parameters: lots of internal rhyme, odd metrical inflections, tracks built on very short loops, choruses of one phrase repeated eight times and a general avoidance of gangsta narrative in favor of old-fashioned boasting (best phrase: "soul like the '88 Olympics"), although some of these tracks leave us wishing that "bitch" didn't rhyme with so many things. Mostly, the effect on Casual of being part of Hieroglyphics is that Fear Itself often sounds like one big party, especially on "Who's It On" and short, goofy tracks like "That Bullshit." Nothing to fear from: "This Is How We Rip Shit," "Chained Minds" and "You Flunked."

CHARLIE HUNTER TRIO Charlie Hunter Trio (Prawn Song, c/o Mammoth, address above)—On the West Coast, centered around the funk/acid-jazz hub of San Francisco, there's a lot of young instrumental players coming up and a lot of great music going down; that's why Les Claypool of Primus has reactivated the group's original Prawn Song label, and opened the doors of its From The Corn studios to an impressive roster of young musicians from the burgeoning SF scene. One of the first out the gate is jazz plectrist Charlie Hunter and his band, which includes saxist Dave Ellis and drummer Jay Lane. The CHT runs through its paces on its debut, roaming all over the map with ease and poise: think Ronny Jordan jamming with Courtney Pine and Bernard Purdie, covering songs off their favorite CTI and Groove Merchant LPs of the '70s, and you'll begin to get the idea. These days it may be snowy and cold on the East Coast, tremulous on the West and chilly in the heartland, but the breezy, warm, laid-back, San Fran jazz-funk of Charlie Hunter is immediately calming and relaxing, giving the feeling of a leisurely Saturday afternoon stroll down the hill on Haight Street for a cappuccino and a stop at Groove Merchant Records. Top chops: "Live Oak," "20, 30, 40, 50, 60, Dead," "Faffer Time" and Hunter's eloquent, Stanley Jordan-ish solo reworking of Charles Mingus' "Fables Of Faubus."

GLEE CLUB Mine (4AD, address above)—Though several have used the moniker, this Glee Club used to be part of an Irish group called Swinging Swine, and has now ventured out as a duo. Lyricist Joanne Loughman and guitar/violinist Hugh O'Carroll started their Glee Club out of frustration with previous bands, yet they've produced a sound without a hint of frustration audible. The two (additional music furnished by a drummer and a bassist) display their influences vividly, the music recalling the Cocteau Twins/Dead Can Dance axis: swirling guitars and primitive drums paired with strong feminine vocals. The angelic tone of Loughman's vocal style has the intense drive of fellow Irishwoman Sinead O'Connor and the dreamy pitch of Cocteau's Elizabeth Fraser. Artful and often melancholy, the Glee Club's debut LP Mine concocts a blend of delicacy and strength with its mournful melodies. The most blitheful of songs: "Bad Child's Dolly," "Remember The Years," "Free To Believe" and "Need."

HAIR & SKIN TRADING COMPANY Over Valence (Beggars Banquet, 274 Madison Ave., Ste. 804, New York, NY 10016/212-889-9595)

Like Stereolab (whose Laetitia Sadier provides backing vocals on the single "Go Round"), the Hair & Skin Trading Company is less interested in song structures than in setting up grooves and textures and seeing where they lead. It's not until the fourth track, "Loa," that we hit something that sounds like a conventional song. On the groove end, the band's firepower comes from bassist Neil MacKay and drummer John Wills, whose time in Loop gave them years of training in playing a two-chord (or one-chord) riff over and over and sounding like they mean it. The band's textures are mostly provided by guitarist Nigel Webb, who somehow makes every track feel different. What he does near the end of "Carrier Wave," for example, probably only involves stepping on a pedal, but it sounds like a mountain ripping itself off the surface of the planet. The title of "Static" is as in "not kinetic"—it's a drumless, instrumental drone that progresses incrementally—but the real static is on "Lock Up," a brief sliver of 4-track-mangling distortion (the following track "Take Control II" also uses overmodulation as a musical tool, but for a much quieter effect). Also positively ionic: the Joy Division-y drone "On Again Off Again," and the album's centerpiece, an adrenalized thrashout called "Machine Gun (O.V.)."

LEVELLERS Levellers (China, c/o Elektra, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)

Named after a radical political party during the English Civil War in the 1640s, England's Levellers follow the ideals of equality and freedom that their namesake professed within a delicate framework of Celtic, acoustic and electric sounds. With a violin as a lead instrument and passionate, angry lyrical topics putting forth a serious message, the Levellers become a throwback to folk music's greatest protest bands, delivering strong idealism in a musical setting that makes us want to listen deeper. The follow-up to 1992's U.S. debut Levelling The Land (the band's 1990 import-only debut A Weapon Called The Word was issued stateside in '92 as well), Levellers shows the quintet not wasting any time in getting started. "Warning" opens the album with a wailing air-raid siren, before a barrage of bass, horns and violin lifts the track into its stamped firestorm of chaos. The relaxed-tempo and forceful harmonies of the militantly-strummed "Is This Art?," the more innocent pop structure behind the power chord-driven "100 Years Of Solitude" and bagpipe-enhanced "Julie," the dub-like, percussion-heavy "This Garden" and the traditional fire of "Dirty Davey" all rage with nationalistic overtones, but carry more global implications.

NEERDOWELLS/JUDY & THE LOADIES Gift Of Knowledge (Lookout!, P.O. Box 11374, Berkeley, CA 94701/415-841-9042)

Thirty-four tracks and an intermission are split between the Neerdownells and Judy & The Loadies, two bands that don't seem to be of this decade. The Neerdownells play a sophisticated brand of garage rock, well suited for drag racing and surf parties. The band sounds like the Untamed Youth and looks like the Coctails, writing narcissistic tunes like "We're Hot Lookin'," choosing cover tunes such as "Tallahassee Lassie" and borrowing riffs from Dick Dale. An instrumental intermission leads into the works of counterparts Judy & The Loadies. Judy gleefully leads her group of boys through tinkley tunes meant for shuffle step dancing. Silly titles dominate the band's repertoire of harmonies to which you may twirl your dance partner, including "Don't Make Fun Of The Man I Am," "Soap Soap Soap" and "I Wanna Leave My Brain To Science." Gift Of Knowledge is overflowing with the energy of youngsters once upon a Saturday night, bringing a different tone to the angry grunge youth of today.

zmann and Einstürzende Neubauten's Blixa Geld, and the story carried by spoken dialogue, including intermittent announcements by British DJ Peel, playing himself. The music shifts gracefully from taut orchestral licks to the pulpy crush-grind of Krötzmann's guitar to Neubauten-y industrial minimalism, and beyond (Yvonne Ducksworth, as Francesca del Rimini, gets a brief, haunting a capta solo). There are plenty of witty touches, both verbal and musical: the inhabitants of Hell's fourth circle, eternally rolling stones, are introduced to a strangely familiar Temptations tune. And Peel especially is in fine form, blithely mentioning James Joyce and Marcel Duchamp's presence in the "First Circle of Hell" with the same voice he uses to announce the new That Petrol Emotion record.
Radio Inferno is best played on the radio in chunks of several tracks (there are 34, most under 10 minutes), but do take the time to listen to it in its entirety: it's an eye-opening reinterpretation of the Inferno, executed immaculately. —Douglas Wolk

Electra 2000 (Cargo, 3058 N.
 Dearborn Ave., Chicago, IL 60618/312-5683)—As the face of alternative music changes to reflect the interests and backgrounds of a new audience, many young bands are deriving influence from an entirely different school of sound. No longer are U2, R.E.M. and Hüsker Dü the bastions of rock. Groups are now as likely to seek inspiration from younger bands like Nirvana, Smashing Pumpkins, Helmet and the Breeders. Which brings us to Hum. Crawling out from Urbana, Illinois, this five-piece quartet seems to have sprung out of an intense obsession with Smashing Pumpkins. Not that it lacks depth or drive, but if, as they say, imitation is the sincerest form of flattery, Billy Corgan ought to be pleased as punch. Hum's fuzz-tone guitars and understated vocal melodies are sharp and ear-catching, and its grasp of youthful frustration, not to mention its musical skill, is commendable.

Electra 2000 churns and surges in rolling waves, not merely tapping, but creatively expanding upon a current trend of moody musical expression. Hum along to "Iron Clad Lou," "Pewter," "Scraper" and "Winder." And don't miss the eight-minute calliope melody from Monty Python And The Holy Grail that closes off the record. —Jon Wiederhorn

FURY IN THE SLAUGHTERHOUSE Mono (RCA, 1540 Broadway, New York, NY 10036)—If you haven't yet heard the sounds emanating from Fury In The Slaughterhouse, we can now pleasantly inform you that you may leave your earplugs at home while perusing its contents.
 Although the band's moniker might suggest that this is the latest from some Californian speed-metal band, Fury In The Slaughterhouse is, actually, an inventive sextet hailing from Germany that explores territory as disparate as the folksy acoustic-rock of Athens, Georgia ("Radio Orchid"), and the guitarladen strumming aggression typical of groove pop-rocksters such as INXS or the Soup Dragons ("Money Rules"). While influences from a multitu-tude of latter-day bands are much in evidence, a persistent but subtle thematic homage is paid to the roots of classic rock in various forms throughout the album. John Bonham is credited in the liner notes for the drum sample on "When I'm Dead And Gone," which takes the brutal beat of "When The Levee Breaks" for an inventive twist, taking off with its opening drum roll and then splash-landing directly into the mandolin-ornamented ballad. Mono's opener, "The Brainsong," raises the noise floor from dead CD silence to the relative warmth of the snare and pop of vinyl (a medium to which the album is dedicated). Beware the rotating knives while listening to: the Seattle-tweaked "Waiting For Paradise"

 "Every Generation Got Its Own Disease" and the melancholy "In Your Room." —Aaron Cla

RICHARD BUCKNER Richard Buckner (Cathy Noyes, c/o Chelsea Music, 127 Carl St., San Francisco, CA 94117/415-566-8675)— Discovering Richard Buckner, a singer/songwriter so talented his tape made us double-check the envelope looking for an Austin return address. Though far from being hollowly hyped, he was described by our San Francisco source as "the second best singer/songwriter in San Francisco," the first implicitly being Mark Eitzel. (To carry the San Francisco metaphor a little further, it's clearly another case of the city's embarrassment of riches, a bit like last year's case of Steve Young playing backup to Joe Montana.) Buckner plays solo on this demo (although he also fronts a band) and his songs are deftly crafted, simply-strummed and quite earnest; rather than follow Eitzel's stumbling, rambling lead, Buckner's actually a more gloomy, moody Richard Thompson-ish persona, perhaps dressed in regulation-issue San Francisco boots and flannel. His is a world filled with tales of drunkards, lost lovers and tortured souls, all told in a weary, worldly voice that delivers even lines that could seem almost maudlin or cornball with the ring of truth. When he sings "Honey, I want you in the worst way/The way we used to be," it's a tricky phrase full of subtle meaning, revealing that viewing a fading relationship in hindsight often inspires less than 20/20 vision. Like Richard Thompson, he's a troubador of our angst-ridden era: "Twenty Two"'s tune conjures all the folkish mystique of a centuries-old madrigal, but its horrific situation depicts a particularly modern anguish. Gripping indeed—if he got up and played this stuff in a typical coffee house, one gets the feeling that conversations and clinking spoons would grind to a spooky, eerie hush. Recommended:

 "Desire," "Cradle To Angel," "Blue And Wonder,"
 "Sister" and "The Worst Way." —James Lien

 ing from a nearly country tune to a Yo La Tengo gathering of instruments (banjo; accordion, violin, notes, it seems the songs are written by the two singers, a virtual vocal odd couple whose writing styles mesh better than their vocal tones. The hood-

VARIOUS ARTISTS Alternative NRG (Hollywood, 500 S. Buena Vista St., Burbank, CA 91521)—More important than the eclectic grouping of artists appearing on this collection of unique live recordings is the motivation behind the effort to capture these performances. The brainchild of Greenpeace, Alternative NRG collects 16 live tracks from artists such as Annie Lennox, the Jesus And Mary Chain, Disposable Heroes of Hiphoprisy and L7, who together hope to draw attention to the development and usage of renewable, non-polluting energy alternatives. This is not just another fundraising album, however, but a direct example of the execution of ideals set forth in the CD's extensive educational/informational liner notes. The album was recorded and mixed entirely using solar power generated by "Cyrus," a 28-foot aluminum box trailer outfitted with an extensive array of solar collection modules. So if some of these recordings sound amazingly warm to you, it might not be just your imagination.

BECK A Western Harvest Field By Moonlight (EP) (Fingerpaint, 853 N. Alta Vista #9, Los Angeles, CA 90046/213-939-4289)—Could this really be the same Beck that currently has a hit with the twangy, bouncy single "Loser"? While radio stations race to be the first on the block to add "Loser," Fingerpaint has issued its second release in this 10" vinyl EP, a tasteful, homemade confection of 12 surprisingly different songs. The mellow opener "Totally Confused" features the sweet voices of That Dog, while "Blackfire Choked Our Death" is a Ween-like blues number. Beck plays with a twisted rudimentary synth-pop sound on the different versions of "Feel Like A Piece Of Shit," but "Lampshade" is another dip into soulful harmonica-'n'-pickin' strum rock. We haven't yet heard the whole of Mellow Gold, Beck's major-label debut for DGC, but we imagine this EP's intimate selection of home-recorded ditties represents the soon-to-be-major-popstar's darker underbelly.

GUIDED BY VOICES/JENNY MAE LEFFEL "If We Wait"/"Red Chair" (7") (Anyway, 118 E. Patterson Ave., Columbus, OH 43202/614-268-1457)—The continually prolific Guided By Voices has bombarded eager ears with several new singles on different labels (perhaps the group caught the bug from fellow Ohioans, New Bomb Turks). "If We Wait" slows down the hooks found on Vampire On Titus to a near-love song pace, Robert Pollard bellowing beneath the 4-track feedback. With each new release, Pollard's songs continue to impress. Holding the dreamy tone, Jenny Mae Leffel (part of Columbus, Ohio's Vibraltux) captures a keyboard sound from somewhere in the '80s, perfect for "Red Chair"—a making-out-on-the-couch-song if ever we've heard one.

—Dawn Sutter

BAILTER SPACE B•E•I•P (EP) (Matador, 676 Broadway, 4th Fl., New York, NY 10012/212-995-5882)—New Zealand's masters of sonic bliss have relocated to the (currently) frigid metropolis of New York City, and this EP represents some of the trio's first new recordings since the transcontinental move. While Bailter Space went back into the studio to remix the nerve-rattling "E I P" and the sultry title cut from last year's Robot World LP, "X" and "Projects" are two new gems from opposite poles of Bailter Space's rich sound. Where the vocals strain to be heard over a mechanically rhythmic workout on "Projects," the band constructs a fiery pop song in "X": the vocals sink to a suggestive whisper and the rhythm section swells around the song's gauzy melody, adding up to one of the band's most memorable moments to date.

—Lydia Anderson

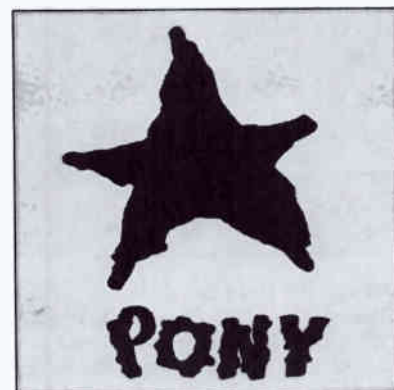

AZALIA SNAIL Fiery Skies (7" EP) (Dark Beloved Cloud, 5-16 47th Road #3L, Long Island City, NY 11101/718-784-7708)—Azalia Snail has the distinct ability to utilize cacophonous guitars and percussions to capture an overall ethereal quality. Among the five songs on this see-thru vinyl there's not a lyric to be found. Snail strums, plucks and drums simultaneously, letting entropy lead the way. Along the path of chaos, the guitar sounds brush together, creating a beautifully wistful scene.

—Dawn Sutter

SPARE SNARE "As A Matter Of Fact" (7") (Prospective, P.O. Box 6425, Minneapolis, MN 55406)—Originally released in an edition of 110 copies on the Scots label Chute, "As A Matter Of Fact" is a 4-track home-recording showcase for Jan Burnett, who is Spare Snare all by himself. For the catchy pop songs they are, both sides are awfully unnerving, filled with out-of-tune keyboard hooks, rudimentarily thwacked drums and cranky, distorted lo-fi guitar. Every sound, no matter how cartoonish, is grimy and distant, like bubble gum that's fallen in the dirt. The flip, "Super Slinky," is constructed with a bunch of loops that sound like they were taped off a TV speaker, including a bouncy, crackling bassline, with prickly guitar and vocals overlaid.

—Douglas Walk

PONY Pony (7" EP) (Ah.Um, 433 Wythe #4A, Brooklyn, NY 11211)—After building its own studio last summer, Brooklyn trio Pony settled down to record these four spirited songs with producer Bob Weston. Each song on this debut release has the impending energy burst of a live wire just inches from a bomb, bringing to mind the intensity of T&G bands like Flour and Mule, especially on the aptly named "Chicago." Pony's tightly wound rhythm section whips its guitar sound into shape on "Soft Johnny," a peel of melodic yelps attempting to tread water over tumultuous conditions. On "Michael," the vocals ring more melodically and the song's epicenter is more tuneful. Pony warps and bends its guitar sound to impressive effect on "Driving Miss Danger." The band is currently polishing up its debut album for Homestead, but don't miss out on this snappily packaged set while you're waiting.

—Lydia Anderson

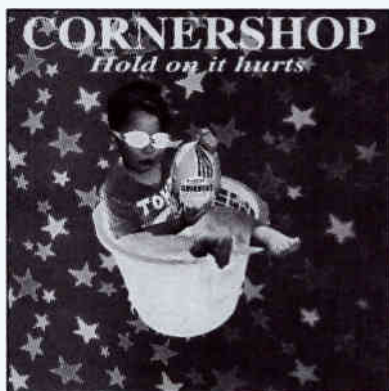

CATERPILLAR "Bus 6" (7") (Neck, P.O. Box 30193, Wilmington, DE 19805-7193)—After an introductory spin of this single we assumed that Caterpillar must be named after those yellow, hulking digging machines found lurking near construction sites rather than the cute little fuzzy creature that first comes to mind. Refueled and ready after its split single with Superchunk, this Philadelphia band plows through "Bus 6," a loud, thorny blast of rock noise and disgruntled vocals. "Whiskey Priest" carries equal bulk, with the weightless appeal of lines like "Take the on from a lion and you've got a li/li, li, li, li, li." Don't take Caterpillar too seriously; after all, it is only a machine.

—Colin Helms

VARIOUS ARTISTS AK79 (Propellor, c/o Flying Nun (NZ), P.O. Box 677, Auckland, New Zealand/649-377-4607)—Originally issued 14 years ago as a much shorter album on Kiwi label Ripper Records, AK79 is a chronicle of the state of punk rock in Auckland in 1979. This new edition has 13 extra songs, many previously unreleased. Its consistently high quality for a scene-survey would be remarkable if its bands were from anywhere else. A lot of this is interesting for historical reasons (the spoken-of-in-hushed-whispers Toy Love, represented here by three fully mean-spirited tracks, later evolved into Tall Dwarfs; Ronnie Recent of the Scavengers is now known as Brendan Perry of Dead Can Dance). Even more of it is interesting for musical reasons. Proud Scum, Suburban Reptiles and Spelling Mistakes are all pretty great. Best of all are the punk-rock names of the participants. You just don't see people calling themselves John Atrocity, Des Truction, John No-one or Mike Lesbian any more.

JACKPOT!

CORNERSHOP Hold On, It Hurts (Wiiija, 130 Talbot Road, London W11, England/071-229-8541)—A contemporary and peer of Huggy Bear and other U.K. Riot Grrrl-wise scenesters, Cornershop is a leading protagonist on the newly politicized punk nouveau/noise tip. Notorious for daring to play without technical proficiency—"What do you expect us to do," stropped one member, "wait five years until we can play our instruments?"—but even more so for the fact that half the band (the brothers Singh) is of Asian descent, the quartet has made a definite mark with three EPs and the Elvis Sex-Change compilation. Its debut album should make a more lasting impression, achieving maturity on several different levels, and not just because the band can now play to more measurable effect. If the quartet is still in thrall to punk's penchant for one-chord wonderment, it gives frayed melody/noise a '90s-style multicultural spin and thus a truly contemporary backdrop to slug against. Consequently, Hold On, It Hurts is as much made up of the thinking-classes world of Brit-Asian author Hanif Kuriishi (as in The Buddah Of Surburbia) as it is the fuzzbox ramshacklemania of early Jesus And Mary Chain, with a surfeit of ideas unfurling a cultural and youthful slice of reportage rather than just another slice of one-dimensional rock rebel noise. Variation is the key; "Readers' Wives" is a giddy electro-guitar fusion, "Counteraction" is trad Asian music, "Where D'u Get Your Information" a punky shakedown, "Tera Mera Pyar" a spoken word, filmic travelogue, "Born Disco Died Heavy Metal" a flamethrowing rant, "Kalluri's Radio" a popsicle with added sitar distortion and "You Always Said My Language Would Get Me Into Trouble" a layered dreamnoiseathon that wouldn't shame Sonic Youth. It will shame those, however, who claim the members of Cornershop are fingers-and-thumbs shamsters on any level, only notorious for the color of their skin, because it's near impossible to miss their attributes—witty, literate, self-assured and different, and keepers of one of pop's most sacrosanct motivations—carpe diem, "seize the day."

FEATUREMAN Hoo-Hah (P.O. Box 927, London W3 6YB, England/081-993-8634)—Featureman's debut album arrives without any live reputation or anything print-wise preceding it. The London-based, cabaret suit-wearing quartet claims its influences include the Kinks, Duane Eddy, the Ventures and Eddy Cochran, but on top of this group's twangular pliability and sly airs and graces is a more modern-conventional, pared-back guitar-pop chassis, derived from the Smiths or Go-Betweens with some of the sinewy, suburban 'pub-rock' stylishness of mid-'70s Britain—Kilburn & The High Road, Doctor Feelgood, et al. Inside this neatly contained, frugging frame, Heilco Van Der Ploeg, or Featureman to his friends, sings succinctly and seductively, in a mid-level, tousled voice, of shopping, boy/girl-friends, sex, haircuts and low-life, with titles like

OVER SEAS

"Beatric...I Said," "When I Keep A Secret, I Keep A Secret" and "The Ballad Of Hary Bowles," but also "Fashion" and "Sweat" and "Clive." Hoo-Hah doesn't rewrite the book, but it is mildly addictive, reassuringly applicable and earmarked by an earnest, not-trying-too-hard cool. Have a hoo-hah.

DIVERSION Tomorrow (Newt, c/o N.E.W.S. PR, 5 Rupert Court, London W1V 7FP, England/071-437-4497)—Another new name (one EP to date, no reputation), another guitar-pop excursion that will bring rapid smiles to the legs of pure-pop aesthetes. Jam Tomorrow is a pretty interesting, revealing, ironic title, given that the Northampton trio has adapted The Jam's pop formulae to its own ends, sticking to the tried-and-tested New Wave power-pop axis: spangly, steely guitar runs, a drumbox, jack-in-the-box tempos, boisterous schoolyard voices, la-la harmonies. Skinny-tie, juvenile, post-mod pop all round, then. Recommended: "101," "Sheep," "Careful" and "Disney."

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

Rather than make up something worth reporting—I'm on holiday in New Zealand when you read this, so there is nothing else worth reporting—you really need to know about is the surfeit of singles, some very recent, others a little buried but all washed up at the backside of 1993. More importantly, all are still readily available...When they emerged, Manic Street Preachers were initially fish out of water, politi-punks in a shoegazing/dream-pop wallow. Their influence, on the Huggy Bear/Cornershop axis and the new punk-pop-mod division, is undeniable. This time next year, S•M•A•S•H could be a leading practitioner in the latter section: the group's origins in Welwyn Garden City, one of the soulless greenbelt New Towns outside London, is too classic to be true. Its second 7" single, "Shame"/"Lady Love Your Cunt" (the title comes from a Germaine Greer anthology, The Mad Lady's Underclothes) are both strong examples of Punk Nouveau, scissor-kicking, urchin-stroppy buzzpop with a low-fi production but plenty of heartburn. "Lady..." especially has a pronounced, soulful mania that lingers long after the needle has lifted, with beguiling lyrics (the title doesn't crop up anywhere) that take the pro-feminist line. It's almost worthy of comparison to the golden pop snarls that was the Maniacs' debut EP New Art Riot—but the promise is definitely there. As I said, this time next year (Le Disques De Popcor, c/o Hall Or Nothing, 8 Poplar Mews, Uxbridge Road, London W12 7JS, U.K./081-740-6288)...The REVENANTS' Horse Of A Different Colour was one of 1994's better debuts, a harmonious, intoxicating slice of heart-rendering Byrds/R.E.M. guitar-rock. "Marry Money" is their new single and it shimmers with a clear "Chestnut Mare" (the horse connections continue) aura, albeit at a more cantering pace, with inch-perfect chord changes. "I Remember Us" doesn't deviate from the formula; "Capercaillie" is a re-recorded, acoustic version of the album cut, now sung by Ryan in an ultra-melancholic vein; "Horse Of A Different Colour" (not on the album) is an equally lump-throated instrumental (Hunter S, P.O. Box 3373, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4, Ireland/call Savage & Best PR, 071-284-192)...For those of us who haven't been keeping up with BJORK's series of remixes, well, here's another. "Big Time

Sensuality" comes in seven different mixes on one CD, but for less religious disconiks, there is also a straightforward four-track CD comprising the album track plus two self-produced, Icelandic-vocal tracks, "Sidsasta Eg" (Björk nestling up against some softly undulating Durutti Column-style guitar) and "Gloria" (placid flute instrumental), and, best of all, a drastic remix of "Come To Me" by Björk's favorite collective of the year, Black Dog Productions, where violins haunt in the background, behind a pronounced table rhythm, other Eastern colorizations and Björk's own slippery torching magic (One Little Indian, 250 York Road, London SW11, U.K./071-924-1661)...A trio from Austria, SAN SECOURS has released Avec, a four-track EP of impulsive, taut guitar-core, at a tangent to Meat Puppets desert-metal pyromania. "Don't Ask Why" is slow and treacly, dominated by a brooding sobriety, "Is There Anyone" more agitated, with Ameri-hardcore terms 'n' roll, guitar 'n' drums dynamics (the band terms it 'Hardcore Jazz'), while "Foreign Days" and "Time To Meet You" fall between the two, mood- and music-wise. Four tracks of palpable, nervous tension that only need a proper production to secure wider recognition (Sans Secours, Plueddemanng. 75, A-8010, Graz, Austria/316-473546)...The Midlands-based ELIZABETH JANE was recently singled out in a Melody Maker 'State Of The Nation' regionalrawl. The band's debut Great Scot EP isn't so much a 'future now' scenario as a 'future past,' with an accomplished revival of psych-tinged, '60s-baroque guitar-pop: choppy guitars, efflorescent guitars, backwards guitars, chiming guitars, lots of guitars, in fact, and aching, minstrel melodies in a Steppes/Lord John, Bomp!-label vein (Chinchilla, 77 Hagley Road, Stourbridge, West Midlands DY8, U.K./021-631-3829)...BEATNIK FILMSTARS' Lap Dog Kiss is a four-track 7" EP that fluctuates from classic fuzz-pop to fuzzy dislocation: "Charlie Batman" and "8 Sq. Ft. Six" are the conventional pair, working around melody; "Totally Lost Completely" and "Ill Book No 3" are like The Fall hitting a wall of musique concrete, all frayed wires and guitar rubble (La-Di-Da, 57 Davigdor Road, Hove, East Sussex BN3, U.K./0273-770699)...Oh dear, another info-less release. The DOSTOYEV-SKYS are Welsh, they have a four-track EP Radio Friendly, comprising two versions ('radio friendly' and 'full version') of the title track, a dreamy tract that compares to Liberty Horses or the Bible—literate, sensitive AOR weaving (Blood, 193 Landsdowne Road, Canton, Cardiff CF5 1UQ, U.K.)...CHINA DRUM's three-tracker comprises "Simple," "On My Way" and the acoustic "Meaning," the former two pelting through the verses, stubbing their toes on the throttling chorus while keeping their pop-consciousness high. All akin to a schoolboy crush on Hüsker Dü; definitely recommended (China Drum, The Heritage, Ovingham, Prudhoe, Northumberland NE42 U.K./0661-832250)...Dublin quintet SACK's debut EP is Dilettanti, four tracks of ringing, driven, noise-fringed indie-pop. The press release mentions the Smiths, Julian Cope, Pulp and the Undertones—I can't hear any of the above, bar Cope's loping, loopy sense of melody, but it's the awkwardest grab-bag of comparisons anyway. Isn't this reviewing game a game? (Lemon, 172 Arlington Road, London NW1 U.K.).

MEAT PUPPETS

Those of us who've been around the biz a few years remember when the Meat Puppets were an upstart young band on SST, the label that ruled indie-rock without question. Well, now on their ninth album some baker's dozen years later, Arizona's Meat Puppets have just released their second major-label album, Too High To Die, and if the hard work and timing that paid off for Soul Asylum is any barometer, then maybe the fickle public is now ready for this trio's brand of sun-drenched, blues-laced rock 'n roll. College radio certainly is: Too High To Die can't get high enough, leaping an astounding 132-33 in its second week on the chart, led by a #20 showing in the South regional. A move up to the #1 Adventure Pick is an indication of things to come, as KAUR, KBCC (#1), KGLT (#1), KUNI, KVSC, KWTR, WHRV, WLOZ, WORT, WQUB, WUSM (#1), WUTZ, WVGS (#1), WWHR and WWSP ring in with top 10 reports, leading the way for 56 out of 371 top 35 reports this week.

PROGRESSIVE RETAIL

Chart compiled by Dawn Sutter

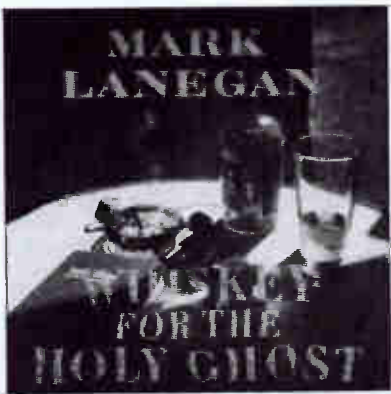

ON THE CHART

Virgin's Smashing Pumpkins prove their staying power this week, as the band holds onto its #1 position. Also hanging tight are Elektra's Breeders, who remain strong at #2. DGC's Counting Crows threaten to upset the on-going battle for the top positions, as they jump 5-3. Blue Note-Capitol's US 3 warms up to a nice cozy #6 as Capitol's Crowded House, which debuted at #10 last week, moves up to #8.

Making progress just outside the top 10: MCA's Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers (13-11), Fontana-Mercury's James (29-12), Epic Soundtrax's Philadelphia soundtrack (19-13), RCA's Cowboy Junkies (17-15) and Arista's Crash Test Dummies (35-20).

This year's first large group of debuts bombards the chart: a new EP from Columbia's Alice In Chains (#14), a 7" by Touch And Go's Jesus Lizard (#22), the EP from Bongload-DGC's Beck (#31), Drag City's re-issue of Royal Trux's first album (#64), a 10" from Tupelo/Boner's Steel Pole Bath Tub (#74) and new albums from Matador-Atlantic's Unsane (#29), Sub Pop's Mark Lanegan (#30), RCA's ZZ Top (#35), Atlantic's King's X (#36), Next Plateau/London-PLG's Salt-N-Pepa (#65) and Dr. Strange's Voodoo Glow Skulls (#66). RETAIL FOCUS

MARK LANEGAN

Whiskey For The Holy Ghost, the long-awaited second album (nearly three years in the making) from Screaming Trees vocalist/songwriter Mark Lanegan, makes its way into the retail world this week with a strong debut at #30 and a #1 In-store ranking. Players making an appearance with Lanegan and his collaborator, Mike Johnson, include celebs from Dinosaur Jr., Mudhoney and Tad. Beyond the stardom of this record, its strength lies in its unrelenting melancholy and liquor-drenched blues, all carried by Lanegan's soulfully powerful voice.

FOR PHINEAS

Harold Mabern's words, like his piano lines, are rich, dynamic, well-spaced and never more animated than when he discusses his hometown of Memphis, Tennessee, and its proud piano legacy. Invariably, that topic begins and ends with Phineas Newborn, Jr. Mabern marvels at the surpassing artistry of his late friend, who died in 1990, leaving behind glorious recordings for a number of labels. In discussing the passion and profundity of Memphis' most percussive jazz pianist, the New York-based Mabern's tone veers rapidly from astonishment to anger. "Phineas could put his right hand in his pocket, and play with his left hand. When you let a genius like this die in poverty, with no gigs and no money, something is grossly wrong! When they ignored him, I knew there was no hope for me," Mabern told CMJ a few years ago.

Thankfully, Mabern was wrong. His career is again on the ascendant following his critically lauded Straight Street (DIW/Columbia). On the way are two more Mabern CDs on DIW, including The Leading Man (due this spring), which showcases Big Hands, as his friends call him, in solo, duo, trio and quartet settings. In addition, Newborn's music and memory will be exalted via a newly released all-star recording and a month-long tour of the Midwest (Feb. 3-Mar. 6) by the Phineas Newborn, Jr. Project, a four-piano summit featuring Mabern, James Williams, Mulgrew Miller and Geoff Keezer plus rhythm section (bassist Christian McBride and drummer Tony Reedus). A few weeks ago, in advance of the tour, DIW/Columbia issued The Key Players by the abovenamed musicians performing under the banner of the Contemporary Piano Ensemble. An earlier recording by the same pianists, For Pianos (Sic), For Phineas (Japan only), found the keyboardists performing individually on separate selections; on one track, Duke Ellington's "It Don't Mean A Thing," the four took turns on the same keyboard. Williams, who produced The Key Players, takes that idea to its logical conclusion on the new DIW CD by having all four pianists (five counting Donald Brown, who appears on a few selections and will also play selected cities on the tour) playing together most of the time.

Mabern (the senior member of the group), Williams, Miller and Brown are nominally Memphians, either raised in or associated with the musically fertile city. Keezer, the 23-year-old phenom and onetime Jazz Messenger—as were Williams, Miller and Brown—hails from Eau Claire, Wisconsin. Keezer's own latest DIW entry, Other Spheres (Japan only; no planned U.S. release), is his most wide-ranging offering to date. Other Spheres features Keezer's fullest instrumentation to date. Among his sidemen are trumpeter Bill Mobley, reedmen Billy Pierce and Bill Easley, vibist Steve Nelson and guitarist Peter Bernstein, an exceptional, fast-rising player whose debut CD for the Dutch Criss Cross label, Somethin's Burnin', is highly recommended. In addition, Keezer

As we just about reach full-strength, we find a lot of new releases finding their way onto the chart. At the top, Blue Note-Capitol's Cassandra Wilson (3-1) regains the #1 spot she held two weeks ago, adding up to her second total week on top of the heap. 4th & B'Way-Island's Ronny Jordan (6-2) likewise matches his highest previous peak, while JVC's Ernie Watts scorches through the top 10 (13-3). Justice's Stefan Karlsson leaps into the top 10 as well (19-9)—but this is where the fun starts. Five re-entries and six new entries give the bottom half of the chart a completely different look, the former led by Gramavision's Medeski, Martin & Wood (#13), Epic's Stanley Clarke (#14) and Warner Bros.' Fourplay (#15, with 21 weeks on the chart). Among the debuts this week are Mad-Kat's Kitty Margolis (#17), Atlantic's Cyrus Chestnut (#20), Blue Note-Capitol's Steve Masakowski (#21) and DIW-Columbia's Contemporary Piano Ensemble (#22). (JAZZ REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS) includes his first-ever vocal track, "We Are Dancing," with words by Connie Bryson and singing by her daughter, Jeanie, whose second Telarc disc is on the way and whose singular vocals enliven the forthcoming Billie Holiday tribute CD on Columbia by trumpeter Terence Blanchard.

All five pianists contribute to the repertoire on The Key Players, and performing together—on a rotating basis on carefully arranged material—they meld to magical effect. Miller's "P.N.J.," written for and taking Newborn's initials, is especially cogent. Reedus, the New Jersey-based stickman who has strong ties to Memphis and a very venturesome musical mind (his Incognito for Enja is a cerebral-yet-swingful delight), admits to being "knocked out" by the late Newborn because the pianist "had a pile of chops but he swung." Continues Reedus, "Many cats with that kind of facility aren't exactly the hardest swingers. But Phineas had that facility, and could swing you into bad health."

Mabern can hardly contain his excitement about The Key Players and the impending tour. "This is a piano-choir kind of thing, completely orchestrated," he explains. "This record involved a lot of rehearsal, and I consider it a masterpiece. We all are playing together, at the same time, and it was very challenging. We all had specific parts to play, but it was hard because the music was coming in at the last moment, being faxed from different places, and we had to jump right on it." For the tour—unfortunately, there are no stops in the New York area, where Miller, Mabern,

Williams and Keezer perform frequently with their own individual bands—the musicians "are preparing as if for a championship fight," Mabern states, "and there will be heavy competition on-stage, but without any animosity." Yamaha will furnish four matching grand pianos, including technicians and a moving crew, for the entire tour.

"Every aspect of music," Mabern goes on, "will be covered—from Stravinsky to Booker T & The MGs. There's no one-handed pianist on this tour. Everybody's two-handed and everybody can play solo, play fast, play a ballad. I'm gonna have my hands full," he says of the friendly but fierce competition he expects from his counterparts, "but that'll inspire me to greater heights. It's like Charlie Parker and [pianist Art] Tatum used to say, without animosity: 'If you think you can play, bring your best stuff on up here.'"

"We're gonna pull out all the stops on tour," Mabern promises. "When people hear us play, even if they didn't know about Phineas, they're going to say, 'Wow! Phineas must've been great if these guys play so well.' We're gonna play so much piano, the people might not be able to take it!"

DOPE!

YAGGFU FRONT "Action Packed Adventure!" (Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—From its cinematic preview in the opening "Fanfare & Previews," the debut by Yaggfur Front is similar to watching a cartoon marathon on a lazy Saturday morning. With no rules, direction or plan, this North Carolina threesome of Spin 4th, D'Ranged & Damaged and Jingle Bel has no regional standards to live up to, allowing its supermarket of loose-fitting and playfully boyish string of verbal charms to create refreshing sensations. Roll the silliness of Black Sheep, Madkap, De La Soul and Leaders Of The New School together, retain the spontaneous rhyme schemes, and you'll begin to get the picture. While attending several colleges in North Carolina, the three honed their individual lyrical skills on the air at WKNC while tinkering with instruments like bass, piano and brass, which can be heard scattered throughout the album's deep, satisfying grooves. Self-producing "Action Packed Adventure!," Yaggfur patches together jazz and funk flavors (check "Hold 'Em Back (What's The Meaning?)") in a dusky, Diamond D.-like fashion while challenging listeners to decipher their bugged storylines ("Slappin' Suckas Silly"), swirling chatter ("Where'd You Get Your Bo Bos?") and statements on relationships (the trippy "Fruitless Moot"). Still, Yaggfur Front is mostly about letting imaginations run wild, hoping to move a few heads along the way, and the group's brand of hip-hop doesn't make any premature claims, its artistry remaining intelligible and unpretentious. While most group's declare lyrical supremacy, Yaggfur Front's three members would probably chuckle under their breath and say, "Yeah, we're alright." Action packed cuts: "Trooper 101," "Busted Loop," "Left Field" and the silky "Frontline."

ED O.G. & DA BULLDOGS Roxbury 02119 (Chemistry Ltd., c/o Mercury, address above)—Tonight's episode of Beverly Hills 90210 has been cancelled so we can bring you this newly-created show whose cast is not tooling around town in a BMW or grieving because Brenda's boyfriend forgot their six-week anniversary. Tonight's episode of Roxbury 02119 is filmed in the ghetto, where urban decay persists and people are desperate and frustrated. It's a place where surviving another day is better than any graduation gift from daddy's inflated bank account. Its star is a young, street-schooled kid named Ed O.G. who, along with his Bulldogs (T-Nyne, Gee Man and DJ Cruz), strolls through his hood in Massachusetts rapping about what it takes to survive, tossing around metaphor-filled verses (blending street-wise lyrics within a storyline on "Love Comes And Goes") and frank, occasionally puzzling, ego-boasting ("You couldn't be hard if you were a bottle of liquor"). Ed flexes a confidence which enables his rhymes to come free of the frivolous pap that tends to lull listeners to sleep. Handling five of the album's 12 tracks is Diamond D., who assembles a potent mixture of unshakable jeep

ON THE CHART

Since November of 1993, Jive's A Tribe Called Quest (1-1) has held down the top spot, thwarting the advances of groups like Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg (6-2), Quest labelmate KRS-One (3-3), Loud-RCA's Wu-Tang Clan (2-5) and EastWest America's Das EFX (5-6) in weeks past. Quest's latest challenge will probably come from Chrysalis-ERG's Gang Starr, which moves its single up 16-14. Columbia's Nas moves "It Ain't Hard To Tell" from 19-15, and Salt-N-Pepa power up 20-17. Besides the 10 re-entries on this week's chart, we have new entries from Hoppoh-Columbia's Kurious at #24 and Uptown-MCA's R&B studs Jodeci, debuting Diary Of A Mad Band at #29. In a meaningless aside, here's indisputable evidence that the whole "Whoop!" craze is over and we can get back to business: Tag Team chimed in this week at #201, while 95 South came in dead last at #206—8...9...10...You're out! This week's Adventure Picks: 1) Wu-Tang Clan; 2) Casual; 3) Gang Starr; 4) Ice Cube; 5) A Tribe Called Quest; 6) UMC's; 7) Snoop Doggy Dogg; 8) Domino; 9) US 3; 10) Das EFX. Leaving time to satisfy primitive desires, Roxbury 02119 freaks the funk on "Skinny Dip (Got It Goin' On)," finishing as a no-frills, straight-up hip-hop recording which reminds us that if you come correct, there's no way you can lose. Tori Spelling has been seen bumping "Streets Of The Ghetto," "Busted," "I'm Laughin'" and "Less Than Zero."

VARIOUS ARTISTS Big Blunts: A Collection Of Classic Reggae Weed Anthems (Tommy Boy, 902 Broadway, 13th Fl., New York, NY 10010/212-388-8300)—Nowadays, with hip-hop artists speaking so openly about their dependency on and the benefits of the almighty hemp weed, affixing the pot leaf logo onto everything from shirts to caps to album covers, speaking in favor of marijuana is about as in vogue as Timberland boots. While the rastafarian and hip-hop communities will forever fight for legalization and revere the weed as a religious icon, Tommy Boy has dug at the root, exploring some of reggae's most blunted anthems and showing lesser-educated hip-hop fans that singers were singing about the devil's weed long before Cypress Hill delivered "Stoned Is The Way Of The Walk" or Dr. Dre released The Chronic. hop's emissary B-Real raps on DJ Muggs' remake of Wayne Smith's 1985 song "Under Mi Sleng Teng," and the original is also included in the package. While rappers often use reefer as a prop to authenticate their rebellious, hardcore nature, reggae tends to celebrate and surrender to its powers. On U-Roy's "Chalice In The Palace," he invisions sneaking into Buckingham Palace to burn one with the Queen, while on Lone Rangers' "Jamaican Weed," Tony Rebel's "The Herb" and Frankie Paul's "Pass The Kushempeng," the effects of the high can joyously be felt. Also be sure to take on the Mighty Diamonds 1981 hit "Pass The Kutchie," which was later made into a Top 40 hit by Musical Youth.

SALT-N-PEPA "Whatta Man" [92 BPM] (Next Plateau/London, c/o PLG, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—If you've been wondering if Salt-N-Pepa would be able to follow up the success of "Shoop," Very Necessary's second single, "Whatta Man," should not only equal, but surpass the high marks of its predecessor. With guest vocals from MTV queens En Vogue and the sweet, sing-a-long soul of its chorus (the remix is handled by longtime producer Herby "Luvbug" Azur), this cut is one of the most irresistible and sassy jams of the year.

WHATTA JAM

If you're still sitting around waiting for 1994's bombs to drop, you owe it to yourself to go back and check the new mixes of "If That Was Your Boyfriend (He Wasn't Last Night)" [112 BPM] from ME'SHELL NDEGEOCELLO's grossly-overlooked debut Plantation Lullabies (Maverick/Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91505). With a healthy five new mixes, this soulful statement is tailored several ways by Li'l Louis for high dancefloor enjoyment. From the house-styled "Mad Sex Mix" to A-Plus' (Souls Of Mischief) "Existential Meditation On The Probability Of You Kissing My Mind Mix" (what?), many moods are exquisitely represented here... Listen closely to NAS' "It Ain't Hard To Tell" [96 BPM] (Columbia, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211), produced by Large Professor, and you'll hear the pop-injections of the melody to Michael Jackson's "Human Nature." But on the surface all you hear are the precise jabs and body blows of Nas (formerly Nasty Nas), who makes this one of the sweetest ruffneck jams of the month... Also just released is the second single from SNOOP DOGGY DOGG entitled "Gin And Juice" (Death Row/Interscope, c/o Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019), which I'm sure will help sell another bazillion records. Word to Tyesh (Columbia), Barry Wade (ONN), Carmelita (Delicious Vinyl), Reyne (Live) and EMZ (Interscope). Word out.

WORD IS...

The Grammy Awards are still over a month away, and they're already giving me a putrid feeling deep down in my gut. Not to dis him, but SIR MIX-A-LOT has been nominated for a Grammy in the Best Rap Solo Performance category for the single "Just Da Pimpin' In Me" from Seattle...The Dark Side. Excuse me? What was the name of that song again? I don't remember that one. Was

ON THE CHART

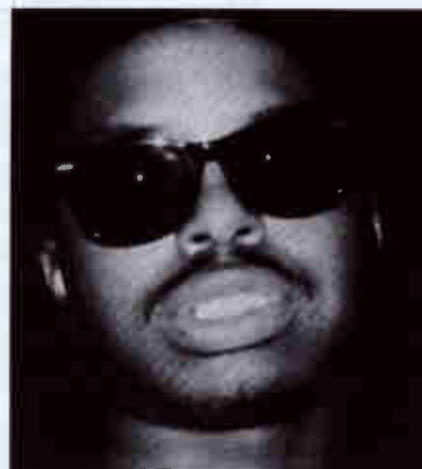

We're sorry about the absence of a retail chart last week. You see, I had to return to the Egyptian pyramids for a bit of soul searching and rejuvenation. I am happy to say that I am feeling much better after that most enlightening detour. Death Row/Interscope-Atlantic's Snoop Doggy Dogg is spending his sixth week at the top of the heap, while Priority's Ice Cube—who was struggling for awhile—pushes his way up 4-2. While much of the top 10 shuffles around, we welcome in shiny new debuts from Scarface-Priority's Conscious Daughters at #14, Black Power's Herm: Trying To Survive In The Ghetto at #17, Wild Pitch-ERG's UMC's at #19, Blue Note-Capitol's US 3 at #22, Chemistry Ltd.-Mercury's Ed O.G & Da Bulldogs at #23 and Bryant-Ichiban's AWOL at #25. (BEAT BOX RETAIL REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

it a hit? How many copies did it sell? Also, First Priority-Atlantic's MC LYTE has been nominated in the same category for her gold single "Ruffneck"... Carmelita Sanchez has taken a post at Delicious Vinyl, where she is working with Colin Sutton in the college promotions department. She can be reached at 213-465-2700... After hearing about WU-TANG CLAN's Method Man signing a solo deal with Def Jam, other members have signed solo deals of their own. The GENIUS has signed a deal with Geffen, and PRINCE RAKEEM has teamed with his group the GRAVE DIGGAS and signed a deal with Gee Street-Island. Despite so many individual ventures, Wu-Tang Clan is still a group.

BLOWIN' UP

DOMINO Domino (Outburst/RAL, c/o Chaos, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211) Radio Chart Position: #11—To many, it's quite a surprise to see that it has taken five weeks (too many for some) for Domino to get his debut album to the doorstep of the top 10. Especially considering the album contains one of the most infectious cuts of the year in "Getto Jam," he's pals with Snoop Doggy Dogg, and his calm, cool and collected brand of rhyming seems to be the delivery of choice right now. Still, in the last four weeks Domino has seen his album rocket from #38 on January 4 to #11 this week. As the #8

Adventure Pick, Domino charts on 21 out of 98 radio reports while also ranking #8 on the retail chart. Do yourself a favor and get with the program like these hip stations who are reporting Domino top five: CHUO, CKCU, KLBC (#1), KTXT, KUPS, WAIC, WGAC, WSBU, WUEV, WUTK and WXUT.

JACKPOT!

GEORGIE PORGIE

GEORGIE PORGIE "All Because Of Me" (double 12") (Vibe Music, 2566 W. Argyle, Chicago, IL 60625/312-271-9924)—The Chicago renaissance is apparent both in the vocal house revival and the resurgence of stark underground tracks. Along with Curtis Jones' Cajual stable, the Vibe label is revitalizing the vocal house tradition. Formed from the ashes of Steve "Silk" Hurley's I.D. organization (also home to DJ World), which fell on hard times last year, Vibe is home to the highly skilled production team of Maurice Joshua, E-Smoove and Terry Hunter, who've created their share of monster house jams since the late '80s. A glance at the writing credits for the boundlessly energetic "All Because Of Me" reveals the name of Byron Stingly, a member of the legendary Ten City, one of the most influential vocal house outfits in Chicago's history. A collection of such luminaries is unlikely to result in a lackluster record, and this particular one is indispensable. The "Maurice's Club" mix is a fiery pressure cooker, with a bubbling, rubbery bassline and rollercoaster synth lines, while NY Northcott stalwart Tommy Musto contributes the soulful "Sub-Urban" mix. Aaron Smith and Terry Hunter's "UBQ's Down-underground" mix is the most futuristic, with its pared-down percussion and rolling drum program. This is a double pack of lightning reflexes and grooves by the quart.

CHICAGO TO MIAMI TO NEW YORK

A look at this week's records reveals that we are indeed living in a house nation, and a music that began on the south side of Chicago circa 1985 still exerts an astonishing influence on contemporary dance tracks. Starting in Chicago, the producer who created Sagat's huge "Fuk Dat" has returned with a little scorcher called The Slamm Project EP. Produced by Jump "Chico" Slamm, who has a way with basslines that is truly remarkable, this is a rambunctious set of tracks with a strong jazz bent. The A-side's "Mecca" has a slippery groove and leaping drum pattern with dizzying horn splashes, while "Jazzical" has an even jazzier, midtempo flavor. Four tracks of gold from a producer to watch (Cajual, 1228 N. North Branch #218, Chicago, IL/312-642-8756)...We mentioned the revival of Vinylmania's in-house label in last week's column and the first release from the Vinylmania Jazz label is T.U.B.A.'s oddly-titled "Theme From The Underground Bowling Alley," which has one of the most infectious jazz house grooves. The "Dirty Jazz" mix and the "Trip" mix are the most engaging. ON THE CHART

There's little movement on the chart this week, although one new entry comes in the form of 21st Circuitry's Death Rave 2000 compilation (#23). Elsewhere, Sven Vath leaps eight places (13-5) and Mic Mac's OM full-length jets into the top 10 (24-8). We have a couple of re-entries this week: Bjork at #16 and Psykosonik at #17. And who'd've guessed two years ago that the Frankfurt Harthouse label would have two compilations in an American chart, but here they are: WHITE LBL5-American's The Point Of No Return at #15 and Moonshine's Harthouse America a re-entry at #25. This week's compilation count: 10 out of 25. Carmine St., New York, NY/Fax:212-463-9586)... Southern Florida has established itself as a house force in the last year and a half, with labels such as Murk, Vibe, Miami Soul, Angel Eyes, Nitebeat and ESA. The latest single from Ralph Falcon's Miami Soul label is the monstrous "Reaching" by DISCIPLINE featuring Bobby Pruit. Murk label fans will know of Pruit's commanding vocal abilities from his earlier single, "Tried So Hard," produced by Falcon and Gaetan. Falcon recruited Pruit for this project, and what a good idea that was. This is a humming, thumping dancefloor projectile that won't sit still, and the vocals are spinechilling. This is another fine example of the real Miami bass (Miami Soul/305-529-1739)... The production team of Juan Bartel and Alex Arzeno has now released its second project, "Need A Little Love" by SOUTH BEACH DANCE ALLIANCE. I'm sure you've read enough about Miami's South Beach in The Face and Details to last you a lifetime, but this piece of wax really cooks. Though these two may have their roots in freestyle, they've taken the early '80s electro influences of New Order and the British house style of D.O.P. and come up with a powerful dancefloor incendiary device. The mix of merit is the "Deep Mix," with its jagged synth intro and polyrhythmic arrangement. Look, get past the artwork and this track is explosive (Angel Eyes, 9900 NW 80th Pl., Hialeah Gardens, FL 33016).

PLUS, ALSO, TOO

English producer Luke Slater's work has matured to a great extent over the last 18 months, and his latest project proves it. The ambitious "Cosmopolitan For The Cosmos" double-12" by CLEMENTINE is a far-reaching, clear eyed look into the future of electronic dance music. As he made clear in a recent interview, Slater is not going to compromise his music for commercial interests, but his music is aimed for the dancefloor as well as the armchair technocrat. If we had a series of tracks this imaginative every week, the "techno" scene would not be in such sorry shape right now. The racing "Breaking Point" and "Syn-Son" look to the 21st century as much as the Detroit scene of the mid '80s. The mysterious, melodic "Cryptic Symphony" (co-produced with Cleveland's Dan Curtin) stands as the collection's central point, a vast electronic epic (Djax, P.O. Box 2408, 5600 CK Eindhoven, Netherlands/040-450434).

JACKPOT

COURT MUSICIANS At The Court Of The Chera King (Water Lily Acoustics, P.O. Box 91448, Santa Barbara, CA 93190/805-968-8188)—If you were charmed by Ry Cooder and V.M. Bhatt's Meeting By The River last year and awed by the wordless wonders of Sheila Chandra, then this album is a must. The Court Musicians are as "multi-cultural" as you can get, with musicians from classical western and Indian backgrounds joined by bluegrass dobro players, a former violinist for Shadowfax and Middle Eastern drummers. The album was the musical child of Kavi Alexander, who wanted to bring together a diverse group to play music in homage to the golden age of the southwestern Indian region of Kerala, known as a cultural crossroads for Europe, Africa and Asia. In two days of unrehearsed recording, eight artists improvised a sound poem of amazing breadth. Hindustani singing meshes seamlessly with Stephen Foster on a slide guitar; cello drifts among the thumb piano and vocals. The music ranges from the dramatic to the peacefully sublime. Jewish, Christian and Hindu tonalities all coexist harmoniously, and popular western sounds creep in everywhere. The spontaneity of the performances sets them apart, and as an added bonus, At The Court Of The Chera King is recorded in Water Lily's typically perfect way.

ALDOUSH & THE HUMAN EXCHANGE The Child Within (X Dot 25, 1240 Powell St., Emeryville, CA 94608/510-601-8600)—For real musical fusions to work, the artist needs a firm footing in all the styles he hopes to pull together. Aldoush Alpanian has it, and approaches his music from a unique perspective. Born and raised in Iran, he took interest in the guitar and Western popular music. It was only after he left the country in 1978, and then returned in 1987 for a visit, that he began to really understand the music of his own country. His explorations with the Human Exchange reveal a lot of insight and creativity. The rich textures of his native Persian music are blended with jazz, rock and popular American forms without ever being consumed by them. These are lively and vibrant pieces, a far cry from the new age mire that normally envelops such music. Percussion, reeds, fretless bass and a light-handed synth support his guitar, tanbour and vocals. The band is talented, punchy, even witty at times, in its approach to Aldoush's music.

ANNA-KAISA LIEDES Kuuttaren Korut (Olarin, PL 20, 02211 Espoo, Finland/fax: 358-0-804346)—The Finns continue to explore and expand the music of their roots. If you found the instrumental approach of Maria Kalaniemi's new album on Green Linnet exciting, then you should make the effort to get this album. Singer Liedes has gone digging for old songs from Ostrobothnia, Karelia and Ingria, and with the help of folks like Kalaniemi and her band, has forged a new music that captures the old spirit and

Well, Hassan Hakmoun And Zahar's reign at #1 had to end (1-3), as RealWorld-Caroline labelmate Geoffrey Oryema recaptures the top honors once again (2-1). But the big mover this week is Mango's Tougher Than Tough compilation, which soars 6-2, and the never-ending saga of the Wailers, whose "reunion" album The Never Ending Waiters moves 10-4. Other big gainers: Heartbeat's Starlights reissue (22-6), World Circuit-Rounder's Oumou Sangare (12-7), the Skatalites (13-9) and Luaka Bop-WB's Djur Djura (24-14). As the last of our stations return from the holidays, several older records return to the lower portion of our chart: Burning Spear's Living Dub Volume Two (#17), Black Uhuru's Mystical Truth Dub (#19), Tony Rebel (#20) and Henry Kaiser & David Lindley's A World Out Of Time Vol. 2 (#25). As always, when reporting, try to make sure you have titles and labels handy, give us album titles rather than single titles (especially for compilations like Cool Runnings, Tougher Than Tough and The Shack) and specify which release you're playing by a particular artist if there's more than one out. (WORLD MUSIC REPORTS PRINTED AFTER TOP 35 REPORTS)

then expands it with Finnish folk, gypsy jazz, pygmy vocal percussions and Tanzanian pluck. Her voice is a joy, the arrangements sparse and edgy, the music both earthy and surreal. Once again, my belief is confirmed: only by knowing the deepest roots of her own culture can an artist hope to make truly creative "world music."

KODO The Best Of Kodo (Tristar Music, 550 Madison Ave., New York, NY 10022-3211)—These masters of the dramatic Japanese music of the taiko drums have toured the world for over a decade, inspiring awe in their international audiences with the percussive power and vocal might of their music. These recordings, recordings made between 1988 and 1992, exhibit their musical energy and skill.

MADDY PRIOR Year (Park (UK), c/o No Problem Productions, 570 Jersey Ave., Jersey City, NJ 07302/201-222-0020)—Best known as the founding member and lead singer of Steeleye Span, Maddy Prior has also had a wide-ranging solo career, from the traditional folk of the Silly Sisters' albums to the hard-driving pop of her own bands. Year is an album that brings her many influences together, in a folksy, gentle pop exploration of the changes of the seasons. Her strong, evocative voice is in full effect, and she has written the lion's share of the songs this time out, augmenting the traditional elements. Notable tracks: "Red And Green," a powerful song for voices, piano and drums; a synth-laden version of a classic Steeleye song, "Boys Of Bedlam," done as a dark Brecht theater piece; and an equally dark, modern retelling of the ballad of Lord Randall, "What Had You For Supper."

WILCOX'S TUVAMANIA!

Frequent New World Music guest editorialist Brent Wilcox, an independent radio producer with programs at KOTR and KCBX in California, returns with a look at the Tuvan connection in southern California.

I first heard Tuvan throat-singing on a PBS Nova episode about Richard Feynmann's lifelong desire to visit the country (a South Siberian region once part of the U.S.S.R., adjacent to Mongolia). I was instantly fascinated by it, and spent several years trying to track down recordings. I only succeeded recently, and then mostly with field recordings that were of more academic than casual listening interest. Now there's a new studio recording by throat-singing ensemble HUUN-HUUR-TU titled 60 Horses In My Herd: Old Songs And Tunes Of Tuva (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763), with another Tuvan disc due soon from RealWorld.

I was especially excited when Huun-Huur-Tu played at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo a couple weeks ago. It's a recently-formed ensemble, separate from the state-operated and sponsored music scene that still dominates Tuva. Traditionally, the music has been performed by specialists in a single style, and by solo performers. So a four-piece group (or five, in concert) exploring both old traditions and new ideas

is a little out of place back home in Tuva. But they did well here!

KOTR (San Luis Obispo, CA) experienced something close to Tuvamania for a week (our GM was really into it; he'd seen a PBS show about the music), and the concert sold out, not bad for San Luis Obispo, where world music shows are drawing better and better audiences. It started a little dryly, as manager/ethnomusicologist Ted Levin introduced short examples of two- and three-note harmonic singing, briefly explaining the techniques used. It was informative, but I began to wonder if there was going to be a quiz. Had I come to a concert, or signed up for his class? Once the group started playing full songs, and the introductions were reduced to the level of "This next song is about a horse," the performances began to shine.

What was initially an interesting novelty (bi-phonal singing, where one singer produces two notes, a sound unlike any other) became a strange and powerfully emotive tool. Accompanied by bowed and plucked stringed instruments and a little percussion, two or more singers often provided multiple harmonies (and an occasional reindeer imitation), and the results were alternately catchy, hypnotic and deeply-moving.

The group's disc on Shanachie captures its music perfectly. Of particular note are "Tuvan Internationale," an old folk song rewritten during the Soviet era, and the jaunty "Song Of The Caravan Drivers," which the liner notes explain was recorded "In Honor of Frank Zappa, who loves this song."

CRUCIAL!

JIMMY CLIFF Live 93 (Lagoon (France), c/o ROIR, 611 Broadway, Ste. 411, New York, NY 10012/212-477-0563)—Even today, years after he blazed an indelible image onto the psyche of the reggae world with his performance in the film The Harder They Come, Jimmy Cliff is still a force to be reckoned with. Since those early days, he's taken his early recognition and used it to forge an unparalleled, artistically triumphant career that has turned Cliff into an international superstar. Over the years, he has built musically on his deep reggae roots and transmuted his music into a global, far-reaching multi-stylistic vision that's unparalleled in reggae. In the wake of his hit from the Cool Runnings soundtrack, a breathtaking remake of Johnny Nash's "I Can See Clearly Now," Cliff is hard at work on a new album due later this year, but the stunning Live 93 will no doubt keep the fans satisfied until the new domestic product arrives. In a sense, it sort of sets the stage for Cliff's upcoming work by putting his past into a context: more than a straight Inner Circle/Black Uhuru-style retrospective of old recordings, this live set spotlights how vital an artist he is. Live 93 is closer to his reggae roots than his last studio album on JRS, as Cliff delivers heartfelt renditions of many of his classics, including "Many Rivers To Cross," "Limbo," "Africa," "Justice" and 12 more.

YELLOWMAN A Man You Want (Shanachie, 37 E. Clinton St., Newton, NJ 07860/201-579-7763)—Rarely has there been an entertainer like Yellowman, who overcame adversity to become one of Jamaica's best-loved DJs in a meteoric rise to fame and infamy in the early '80s. The '90s dancehall revolution has generally not been kind to the originators and innovators of the form, the very ones who paved the way for the explosion that rules today. But in the face of such adversity, where fickle fans toss out yesterday's hit stars like leftover Chinese food, some dancehall pioneers are making music that challenges the new faces as much as it entertains. And so, Yellowman returns with an album that puts his instantly-identifiable toasting style in a more up-to-date context: fortunately, the Black Scorpio production sounds current and vital, not thin or under-budget like a lot of other "comebacks." Top cuts include "Greatest Gift," "Help," "Deliver Us" and the title track, with only "Flowers" striking a dud note. When Yellowman complains about every DJ sounding the same ("Copy Cat"), rattling off a litany of barbed criticisms and commentaries on today's reigning dancehall kings, he's got a point: back in the old days, Yellowman forged his name and popularity precisely because he didn't sound like anyone else, something that today's hip-hop-produced stars have lost. In many ways, he's right, and just as hip-hop crews give props to Grandmaster Flash and Run-DMC, today's dancehall fans and artists who weren't around when Yellowman first wowed the crowds at Sunsplash should listen up to words from one of dancehall's pioneers.

VARIOUS ARTISTS The Shack (BIB, P.O. Box 441606, Somerville, MA 02144/617-734-8980)—It's funny, and more than a little strange, how over a decade after ska music was totally finished in Jamaica, it was picked up by English kids in zoot suits half a world away and given a new life. Well, ska is still alive and well, even today, as a vibrant scene still draws huge crowds and sells a decent amount of records. The great success of the recent Skatalites reunion album and tour proves there's renewed interest in ska, even among a younger generation of fans who missed the first revival in the early '80s. This "State Of The Ska" compilation satisfies the public's craving for new sounds with 21 tracks from almost as many artists. Among the smorgasbord of selections: the Nutty Boys (who sound more like the Flying Lizards or the Germanic techno trio Trio than they do a ska band), the lighter, more authentic sounds of Hepcat and Loonie Tunes, the Fishbone-ish free-for-all of See No Evil, and strong tracks from Maroon Town and Ruder Than You. The newer names and unknowns are mixed in with tracks from longtime ska staples such as Bim Skala Bim, the Toasters and the great Laurel Aitken, whose contribution, "Rude Boy Dream," stands out as one of the compilation's truly transcendental moments. And for those in the biz, this compilation includes contact addresses for all the bands listed, from England, the U.S. and even Germany, listing the original album sources for many of the licensed tracks as well.

DIO

Strange Highways (Warner Bros., 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Who ever thought good things would come from Dio's departure from Black Sabbath? Not us, that's for sure. Cynically, we pictured the elfin vocalist on the phone calling his crusty old buddies, trying to reform the once-mighty Dio. Fortunately, he was able to hook-up with drummer extraordinaire Vinnie Appice, but it seems guitarist Vivian Campbell and bassist Jimmy Bain had prior commitments. So Ronnie did the next best thing: he tracked down ex-Dokken bassist Jeff Pilson and six-string whiz-kid Tracy G., and wrote 11 of his best songs to date. Strange Highways doesn't just take over where Lock Up The Wolves left off six years ago, it propels Dio into the stark, street-lethal '90s with a ferocious roar. Forsaking laborious melodrama in favor of instant pounding intensity, Dio has made a record that stands up in sound and structure to any new metal disc. Tracy G., assists quite admirably with crunchy, original riffing and mind-reeling solos, reminding us of a young Randy Rhoads, while producer Mike Fraser ensures every tone cuts cleanly with state-of-the-art recording techniques including samples and overdubs. Break out your old dusty Dungeons And Dragons manuals from the closet and travel the twisted roads of "Jesus Mary & The Holy Ghost," "Strange Highways," "Evolution" and "Blood From A Stone."

To Spite The Gland That Breeds (Earache, 295 Lafayette St., Ste. 915, New York, NY 10012/212-343-9090)—Napalm Death and Sick Of It All members working together? This is hardcore! Or is it industrial metal? Like Meathook Seed, Blood From The Soul links the brainstems of two superpowers without sounding too much like either one, interfacing with cyber-waves of computerized noise in the process. Playing bass and guitar is the inimitable Shane Embury, who began the project over two years ago in an effort to escape the speed metal blur of Napalm Death and experiment with the latest technology. Last year he recruited SOIA vocalist Lou Koller, whom he met on the New Titans On The Block tour, and the two started laying down vocal tracks. To Spite The Gland That Breeds mutilates with the brutal efficiency of a meat grinder, mixing modern electronics with primal rage. The guitars rip and shred in continuous torrents and the vocals bark and howl in response like a man being crushed and overcome by the weight and intensity of an emotionless machine. Unlike a number of industrial bands that use the drum machine like a metronome, Blood From The Soul lays down complex, multi-faceted beats that might sound like live drumming if the patterns weren't so unflinchingly precise. With so many Earache pioneers delving into the unlimited domain of electronic sound, the future of English industrial grindcore looks promising indeed. Plug into "Painted Life," "To Spite," "Blood From The Soul" and "Nature's Hole."

DEMENTED TED Promises Impure

(Pavement Music, 17 W 703 A Butterfield Road, Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181/708-916-1155)—While many death metal bands write and record songs quickly in order to capture a sense of immediacy, Demented Ted (an homage to Ted Bundy, perhaps, or maybe Ted Kennedy?) takes its sweet time. Guitarist Ken Cutler claims the group usually spends a month on each song, and it shows. The band's music is seamless, stitched together so tightly that even the rippling vocals and razor-sharp guitars can't tear the songs apart. Seeking inspiration from sources including Carcass, Sepultura, Morbid Angel and Slayer, Demented Ted creates dense, pulverizing melodies imbued with a sense of impending doom. Promises Impure, the band's debut LP following a pair of well-received demos, is as mature and well-constructed as many group's third and fourth records, holding up the attack impressively from cut to cut. Vocalist Ron Janis sings in harsh, raspy tones without resorting to digital effects, and Cutler slings his axe with a hunger and determination recalling Slayer's first album. Although there are many tempo changes on Promises Impure, they generally flow together cleanly, preventing the awkward, plunging sensation many lesser death metal bands leave us with. And while rhythm shifts are abundant as well, they don't detract from the catchiness or heaviness of the release. Induce dementia with "Existence Lies Beneath," "Liquid Remains" and "Geneticide."

—Jon Wiederhorn

TRIBES WITH KNIVES

You May Safely Graze (Red Decibel, 2541 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis, MN 55404/612-871-8525)—In an earlier incarnation, Tribes With Knives was a gloomy blend of metal and goth rock, a sort of Cure-meets-Black Sabbath with a drum machine. These days the band has cut back on some of the goth elements in favor of leaden heaviness, and hooked up with a real live drummer. In addition to giving the songs a more organic sound, drummer Philip Besgrove lends the band further diversity with a wide range of tribal, pop and hard rock beats. You May Safely Graze is an inherently atmospheric record tinged with psychedelic flavors and melodic textures that bring to mind an unlikely meeting of The Cult, The Cure and early Judas Priest. Songs like "Cold," "Swan" and "Fur" are densely layered with thick, fuzzy guitar tones, ghostly arpeggios and ethereal vocals. It's this very dichotomy that makes Tribes With Knives so appealing. Instead of aiming for a specific sound, the band broaches a broad sonic spectrum, displaying a love for metal without hiding its interest in other forms of music ranging in heaviness from Killing Joke to Pink Floyd to Joy Division. "Daytime" creates an oppressive air with chugging metal guitars, harmonized vocals and rolling drums, "Bedrooms Of Worry" brings on sensations of suicidal dread by slashing hollow guitars with crunching riffs and "Saddle" pits defeated vocals and marching drums over Metallica-style crunch.

GAMMA RAY

Insanity And Genius (Futurist, 6 Greene St., New York, NY 10013/212-226-7272)—Insanity And Genius, Gamma Ray's third full-length album and the follow-up to Sigh No More, finds the German-bred band inching further away from its Helloween roots, adding two new members and taking over production duties in its own studio. At once anthemic, majestic and barbarous, the opening attack, "Tribute To The Past," is pretty representative of the rest of the disc, compressing chiseled musical precision into a raging metal format. Lead vocalist Ralph Scheepers' wide vibrato wailings are a sizzling fusion of the intonations of Rob Halford and James Young. When riding the tidal waves of steel forged by guitarist Dirk Schlachter, whose meat-slicer-clean licks sometimes carry the melodic, harmonized tones of Steve Morse, the results are stunning. While the first tracks on the album focus heavily on panoramic choruses, Insanity And Genius later (and more lengthy) epics, such as "18 Years," camp beside more fluid landscapes of drifting power chords. The might've-been ballad "Heal Me" injects a near-operatic, cartoonish break reminiscent of Pink Floyd's "The Trial" between threatening riffs. Walk the fine line with "Insanity & Genius," "The Cave Principle" and the mighty "Last Before The Storm."

SHORT PLAYS

JAWBOX

"FF=66" (5") (Atlantic, 75 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10019)—Throwing indie credibility and other inclusive trappings to the wind, D.C. punk veteran Jawbox makes the leap from Dischord to the major leagues, keeping its integrity and vitality fully intact. Taken from the forthcoming For Your Own Special Sweetheart, this three-song sampler is rife with Jawbox's trademark anthemic guitar volleys and tightly controlled time changes. "FF=66" is potent enough—a dissonant blast of tension and melody, "Cruel Swing" takes crunching staccato rhythms and winding guitars to furious extremes and "Jackpot Plus!" (no relation to our Jackpot Extra! we assure you) charges head-on with taut bass and scathing riff sweeps.

EX-IDOLS

Pill Popper (EP) (Relativity, 187-07 Henderson Ave., Hollis, NY 11423/718-217-3600)—The Ex-Idols are an LA-based quartet that melds the influences of three-chord buzz-punk and glam-core metal into a machine-gun discharge of adrenaline and arrogance. On its debut EP, Pill Popper, the band is short, quick and to the point with only two of four songs clocking in at over two minutes. The title track owes as much to '70s arena-rock as it does to punk metal, while the other three songs stick close to fast 'n' furious guitar flurries, gut-pounding screams and hailstorm drumming.

DIALOGUE

John Nugent, Relapse/Nuclear Blast America Records, Millersville, PA (717) 397-9221

The staff at Relapse would like to thank a few people before we continue. Thanks to Jill and Stacy at Red Light Records for the opportunity to see in person that one beer can indeed fuck you up! Also, thanks for passing out in our hotel room closet so we would not have to walk on you during the party! Boy, you girls know how to party? Please!! Thanks to Rayshele from Century Media for the humorous story about demons shaking the door at the office. Thank God there are no earthquakes in Pennsylvania and thanks to chicks that dig chicks. My number is in the book! For all of you that were not at the Michigan Death Fest, you should be shot. A Relapse fuck you goes out to St. Andrew's Hall for trying to take our profits. The new PUNGENT STENCH is right around the corner. This one is BIG! Also, Relapse/NBA is exploring new realms of musical interest with bands like NONOYESNO, LOVE LIKE BLOOD, PEOPLE and RED LORRY YELLOW LORRY. Stay tuned. Play SINISTER! Play CORPORATE DEATH. Play MACABRE. Play DEAD WORLD. And play EXIT-13 so I won't have to hunt you down. Everyone call!

Jill Castellano, Red Light Records, Des Plaines, IL (708) 297-6538

My vow of silence has finally been lifted! Here goes...The gang here at Red Light Enterprises is very pleased and excited to welcome SKATENIGS and the PLEASURE ELITE to our roster of artists!! For more info. call me. Also, we have VICTIMS OF INTERNAL DECAY and POST MORTEM, both of which are doing great. Keep up the support. We are going to continue concentrating on these bands for a long time to come. In February look out for COVEN, then in March we have GUTTED and OPPRESSOR. I can't wait, I can't wait! We're getting interviews started now, so if you want one, call me. Oh! Thanks for all of my birthday calls. Very kind of you! Also, if you get a call from Jeannie or Darren, call 'em back. They are my two new interns, and they are helping to update my computer and keep the communication going. Thanks. I guess that's all for now. Bye!

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic Records, New York, NY (212) 275-2135

I'm cleansed, man! Aside from spending the past three days in temperatures in the -30s on a mountain in Vermont, I was also freed of all my sins by a priest in white. He told me, "The way to lift the soul is to force upon 10 innocent people the new UNSAFE CD." So when I tied down those 10 random people and drilled songs like "Body Bomb," "Road Trip" and "Trench" into their heads over and over and over again, the following happened... Three people screamed in agony until exhaustion set in and they fell unconscious. Four people managed to free themselves, and in a berserk rage, fled my household threatening my manhood, and the last person (who I am very much convinced loved the record) reacted so violently that he imploded into nothing...In the long run, I got my cleansing and managed to score 10 new fans for Unsane, each of whom promised to buy the band's new record Total Destruction. But I haven't been able to find that priest again...

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing, Ltd., Valley Stream, NY (516) 825-5549

This is great, just as things are starting up again a quake hits L.A. Butt-Head said it all: "This sucks." The BLACK SABBATH, MOTORHEAD and MORBID ANGEL show should still be on. Add Black Sabbath this week. We also have tickets for you, so if I missed you, just call. Also, add For Love Not Lisa's "Slip Slide Melting" this week. The next track is a bit more heavy than the first. TUNGSTEN and STRESSBALL fit the dark side of things. Dig on both records, your listeners will love you. Next week add "Leafy Incline" from TAD. We have more coming your way in February. I'll see you later.

Bill Mierzewski, National Metal Rep., Sony Music, New York, NY (212) 833-8873

SEPULTURA will be hitting the road in February. Look for dates near you. The new single is "Refuse/Resist." Make sure to check out the non-LP B-side. The add date is Feb. 7. By now all of you should be playing CARCASS' Heartwork full-length. Look for a tour to follow. FIGHT is currently touring with Voivod. The band's new single is "Immortal Sin." Make sure to check out the re-mixes. The add date is Jan. 31. By now everyone should have ENTOMBED's Wolverine Blues LP. Thanks to all who took the time to interview the band. Look for tour information soon. PRONG's current single is "Snap Your Fingers, Snap Your Neck." Look for Prong on tour with OBSESSED and White Zombie. ALICE IN CHAINS' vinyl. Enuf said! Look for the Obsessed and STOMPBOX in mid-February.

Greg Derbas, Pavement Music, Oakbrook Terrace, IL (708) 916-1155

Can you say Pantera tour? Yes it has happened. CROWBAR is going out with Pantera starting April 7 in Philadelphia. We're looking at 5,000-seaters in major cities across the country. You'll have tour dates as soon as I do. Check out the second single "Existence Is Punishment." It's time for a number-one record. Crowbar deserves it. TUNGSTEN and STRESSBALL phoners are available now. Call for details. Stressball just finished up the video for the single "Dust." DEMENTED TED will be on your desk this week. The add date is Feb. 7. Big tour coming up soon, so keep your eyes peeled for the details.

Mark "Sunshine" Abramson, Roadrunner Records, New York, NY (212) 219-0077

So, here it is! The big announcement! Starting on Jan. 31, I will be joined in the metal radio department by the incredible Marni Halpern! We'll be figuring you all out and dividing everyone up as soon as she gets here...Stay tuned for more fun and excitement! SEPULTURA! TYPE O NEGATIVE! LIFE OF AGONY! "Territory!" "Christian Woman!" "Through And Through!" Brazill! Brooklyn! Brooklyn! Brooklyn! Max Cavallera! Peter Steele! Keith Caputo! Touring! Touring! Touring! Touring! Top priority! Top priority! Top priority! Huge band (next big thing)! Not a grunter (not over either)! Solid up-and-comer! Taking over the world by force! Too brilliant to be ignored! Too cool to diss! As you wander your way through your lives, whether you are happy or not, there is one thing you must always keep in mind that will keep you sane and on the straight and narrow: It's a Roadrunner world and you're all just living in it. 1994 is the year of the Roadrunner — Beep, beep! Soundgarden, Cannibal Corpse, Unsane, Pungent Stench, Alice In Chains. ■

In an effort to keep more in touch with the underworld of metal, Argh!!! would like to encourage unsigned bands to send in their demos or self-financed albums for possible review. Please send all materials including group bio to:

ENIGMA
"Return To Innocence"
(Virgin, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—Few videos are as pointedly thematic as "Return To Innocence." Set in the Provincial countryside, the clip begins with an old man gently pulling a pear from its stem. The video's lulling soft, golden tones soon turn surreal, however, as the footage begins to run backwards. The pears leap from the ground back to their branches, waves curl back into the sea and shimmering droplets of water gravitate back to a shaking dog. The effect of the video is less like the backward narrative of Martin Amis' groundbreaking novel "Time's Arrow" than a literal return to innocence. The metaphors are pretty clear throughout: a couple steps back over the threshold of a honeymoon suite, symbolically stepping back to a time of virginity; a swinging scythe returns grain to the land, back to the innocence of the land; and a lipstick slowly removes the painted-on color from a young girl's lips, pulling her back to a lingering childhood. The video is so beautiful throughout, however, the trickery of the backward-running footage and obviousness of a unicorn cavorting through the high grass fades away as you slip into the grace and luster of its images.—Scott Frampton

SMASHING PUMPKINS
"Disarm"
(Virgin, 1790 Broadway, New York, NY 10019)—Those of us here who had seen the Smashing Pumpkins play live before all this major-label-alternative-bidding-war-next-big-thing-spin was out on the Chicago group knew this band had the stuff to make great records. "Disarm" shows its latest Siamese Dream to be more than just a great rock record. So confident is the band in its songs that it was able to pull off this great track without concentrating on what is thought to be the Pumpkins' strong point, Billy Corgan's guitar playing. Cellos, violins and tympani drums decorate this decidedly non-rock track to expose a depth and artistry the Pumpkins otherwise express with noisier apparel. The sharply focused black and white clip floats the band over shingled (seemingly European) rooftops and touches back down to earth for a few color shots of a young boy and a man making his way slowly, if at all, down a dark tunnel. While many people would rather the Pumpkins stick to their guns as it were, "Disarm" shows that all alternative rock bands are not one-sided.—Steve Ciabattini

KRISTEN HIRSH "Your Ghost"

(4AD/Sire, c/o Reprise, 3300 Warner Blvd., Burbank, CA 91510)—Anyone familiar with Boston's now-defunct Throwing Muses will never forget the chilling, icy delivery of lead vocalist Kristen Hersh. Her stream-of-consciousness lyrical renderings coupled with the Muses' own occasionally jarring arrangements created a unique sound that gained them much notoriety. With the long-awaited release of Hersh's debut solo album, Hips And Makers, arrives "Your Ghost," an ethereal, meditative track and sharply lit monochromatic dreamworld video featuring an appearance by Michael Stipe. His wavering, emotional harmony scours Hersh's near-deadpan delivery as the duo sings together while projected images flash over their bodies. A lonely, droning cello creeps in slowly and softly as Hersh wanders through a wheatfield in a shimmering white dress, casting long shadows in the grass. Exhibiting a kind of "orchestrated minimalism," "Your Ghost" should prove refreshingly melodic to those who may have felt locked-out by the Muses' eclectic song constructions. —Aaron Clow ▼

REDD KROSS "Lady In The Front Row"

(Mercury, 825 Eighth Ave., New York, NY 10019)—Man, Redd Kross were '70s back before it was cool to be '70s. They were '70s back in the '70s. "Lady In The Front Row" is a terrific mindwarp from the world's greatest proto-retro band, a little bit rock 'n' roll and, um, a little bit more rock 'n' roll. Not only that, but the glitter all over the background is in the exact same color that Peter Frampton was wearing on the cover of Frampton Comes Alive! Aside from the fancy split-screen effects (and the people fawning over wax statues of Rodney Dangerfield and Elizabeth Taylor), the video could have come straight off one of those really vintage episodes of American Bandstand. And the music! The McDonald boys' voices seem to have been recorded on a microphone inside a milk bottle filled with water,

VISIONSTAIN "Someone Else's Yard"

(Silverdish, P.O. Box 612, Brockport, NY 14420/716-328-3848)—With the thousands upon thousands of videos that cross our desks each week here at VMJ, we are occasionally blessed with a video that is so groundbreaking, so technically innovative that we are forced drop everything as the future of visual arts unveils itself before our eyes. Well, the new Visionstain video ain't it, but that's the whole point. Without any pretension or painfully overdone artistry, "Someone Else's Yard" is a carefree, raw and yet honest reflection of the band's music. Cheap special effects abound here, placing the emphasis on homemade aesthetics rather than any mainstream video standard. The clip's picture quality looks like it was recorded on eighth generation videotape: juvenile chroma-key and negative image effects are applied to interspersed candid footage shot on the streets of New York city. Although this may sound like the makings of a bad video, it surprisingly comes across as a gritty D.I.Y. statement and an effective accompaniment to the trio's cynical brand of garage rock. The song's chorus says it all: "Shit is always deeper in someone else's yard". —Colin Helms ▼

STICK
"No Groovy"
(Arista, 6 W. 57th St., New York, NY 10019)—Perhaps you'd expect something a little folkier to come from a band from Kansas. Not so with "No Groovy." This energetic new video from midwestern noismakers Stick takes you into the mosh pit and out on the farm for some good new-fashioned driving rock. We'll be the first to admit that we're a little gun shy when it comes to these hybrid bands mixing metal with...well, anything. But quite frankly, Stick seems to have its ears in the right place. On its current CD Heavy Bag the band mixes things up pretty well. "No Groovy" shows the results of four guys playing together and moving the sound forward, with a little metal and a little shuffling funk underneath. With the same intensity, and a rare rock commodity called musicianship, Stick excites its crowd with dynamics recalling the Mighty Mighty Bosstones jamming with Rage Against The Machine (who wouldn't pay to see that?). "No Groovy" delivers a sound that's been lacking both on the air and video waves.

MAD FLAVA
"Bump Ya Head"
(Profile, 6430 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028/213-467-0151)—For lack of a better explanation, this is a cool video. By means of some pretty dandy special effects, the members of Mad Flava are suspended in mid air, enabling them to float around the video. We won't make any guesses as to what really makes the band float (its new album has a song called "I Like To Smoke Weed And Listen 2 Hip Hop"). What really makes this video fly (yes, both definitions of fly apply) is the killer acoustic bass riff at the beginning and the masterful scratching throughout. The "DJ Version" of "Bump Ya Head" gives time to some expert turntable action as we witness Sheik's "Good Times" spun together with Busta Rhyme's bit in A Tribe Called Quest's "Scenario." As far as the state of white boy rap is concerned, Mad Flava easily removes the rancid flava left in our minds and eyes from N.K.O.T.B. Our prediction: Mad Flava will be one of the biggest acts of the spring.

RECORD COMPANY

Tor Elting, Flying Fish Records, Chicago, IL (800) FYI-FISH

Music Trivia: What visionary record label was founded in 1974 to alleviate America's true need for authentic roots music? Answer: Flying Fish! That's right people. Flying Fish, nationally and internationally renowned for providing the best in folk, bluegrass, blues and other roots music, turns 20 years old this year—and are we going to bash! More on that later...Right now I'd like to take the time to thank everybody who has contributed to our success for the past 20 years, especially radio and retail personnel and our fans. What a long strange trip it has been, indeed! This past year has proved to be one of our biggest ever with major successes by CHRIS SMITHER (Happier Blue), SATAN & ADAM (Mother Mojo), CHRIS DANIELS & THE KINGS (Is My Love Enough) and the AUSTIN LOUNGE LIZARDS (Paint Me On Velvet). Both Smither and the Lizards were pick favorites in Playboy magazine and they all displayed significant action on leading triple-A and blues charts. Breaking at the end of '93 and into '94 we have Latin jazz masters BOBBY SANABRIA & ASCENSION (New York City Ache), and those grandmother-terrorizing octogenarians the HACKBERRY RAMBLERS (Cajun Boogie). This spritely group has been playing their rollicking blend of cajun and zydeco swing since 1933 with enough energy to make even the most hardcore thrash rockers bow their heads in shame. If you haven't received any of these releases or have any other questions about them or Flying Fish, feel free to give us a call.

Steve Pilon, Long Play Records, Atlanta, GA (404) 681-4915

Happy new year everybody! So far this year my apartment has been burgled. I've gone two weeks without heat, and had a pipe burst and flooded half of my apartment. Now the heat is fixed, sort of, but it won't turn off and now it's about 90 degrees in here. I went to a voodoo lady and asked her to remove the jinx. I don't know if it worked or not yet, but I do seem to be getting really good parking spaces everywhere I go. Well worth the five bucks I forked out, if you ask me. So anyway, what about music? Yep, we've already released our first record for 1994. It's by the OPAL FOXX QUARTET, and it's called The Love That Won't Shut Up. It was produced by Michael Stipe and sounds sort of like a mix of Tom Waits and American Music Club. But don't be fooled by the name—this quartet is actually a 10-member band. The music has a murky blues-based feel to it, with a deep, dark melancholic groove. Slightly off-kilter, like a tipsy Delta minstrel, thoroughly unexpected and totally unforgettable. Yes, I absolutely love this album, and if you don't like it, well, you're wrong. That's all there is to it! Call me if you haven't gotten your copy yet, and I'll tell you all about the other things we've got cookin' here at Long Play. Long live Yo La Tengo! See Ya!

Anne Gleeson, Break Thru Promotion & Marketing, San Francisco, CA (415) 626-7611

How about a free plug for Fontana? Bug your PGD or Mercury rep for the "Show Me Mary" single from the Catherine Wheel 'cause there's a cover of "Wish You Were Here" on it that I can't stop playing. Anyway, I will be calling West Coast stations very shortly about a local band that we're about to give a jump-start. Please watch for the Everyone Knows... CD by PUMP MOTHER and listen ASAP—the band is getting ready for a college-oriented tour and we need your support! And it's heavy music month here at Break Thru—DANZIG, GRETA, ROCKET FROM THE CRYPT, DIG. But to round it out, please check out NICK HEYWARD, the INDIANS, E and the MEAT PUPPETS. Finally, I am really and truly looking forward to seeing you all during Gavin and partaking in a little good, old-fashioned debauchery in my own backyard. See you soon.

Nick Bull, RCA Records, Los Angeles, CA (800) 888-1722

In a time where there's no way to listen to all of the music that's out there, I'm going to ask you to listen to some of ours. First of all, thanks for all of your support with the COWBOY JUNKIES record. The tour starts in early March, and they will be coming to a town near you. Have you listened to "The Post"? It's a Dinosaur Jr. song, so please listen. You'll be getting the full LP from the German outfit FURY IN THE SLAUGHTERHOUSE, of course you're going to listen to it and let me know what you think. The new Winona Ryder movie, entitled Reality Bites, has a great little soundtrack coming out next month, featuring such great artists as JULIANA HATFIELD, LENNY KRAVITZ, POSIES, WORLD PARTY and ME PHI ME. Call me for more info. or just to chat. Cheers to all.

Kerry Murphy, Radio Promotions, Slash Records, Los Angeles, CA (213) 937-4660

There's nothing comparable to ringing in a new year with your head in the gutter. Crouching over the curb, staring at the pavement has a certain charm to it. It got me thinking...I don't really remember what about, but it got me thinking nonetheless. There are many things on the ever-glorious Slash horizon this year. We have a new FAILURE CD coming out in early March (the 8th). Prepare yourself, because I'll be pestering the living shit out of each and every one of you. Something you're looking forward to, I'm sure. Coinciding with their release, Failure will be touring with Tool. We're releasing a CD by David and Louie of LOS LOBOS with Mitchell Froom and Tchad Blake (also on March 8) called LATIN PLAYBOYS. (No, it's not the new Gerardo CD...) It's nice and eclectic, and will appeal to those of you who are into psychedelic-jazzy-arty-cool-as-hit type of thing. Other stuff to squeal with glee over: a new L7 in spring, a new GRANT LEE BUFFALO (probably) in fall, and many calls from me.

Sheri Sinclair, Energy Records, New York, NY (800) 235-5678

How are you all? Welcome back. Hope everyone had a great little vacation. Starting the New Year off right! Check out SOULS AT ZERO's new single "Grey World." Also, as an added bonus on the disc, a cover of Bad Brains' "I Against I." Souls are on tour—1/25 Salt Lake City, UT; 1/27 Reno, NV; 1/28 San Francisco, CA; 1/29 Orangevale, CA; 1/31 Portland, OR; 2/2 Westminster, CA;

2/3 San Diego, CA; 2/4 Hollywood, CA; 2/5 Phoenix, AZ; 2/6 Tucson, AZ; 2/7 Colorado; 2/9 Denver, CO. Call if you need tix or would just like to chat...

Warning: hockey pucks, balls and other objects frequently leave the playing surface and may cause injury. I ate my fruit and carrot juice today. I have a new method of daily awareness...details soon. Next, Entombed: huge as the new Want Ads team. Steph's office favorite is Low, Dan Mackta will tell you about it...lots of great music to listen to on Virgin...SHONEN KNIFE! Rock Animals!... How about building your own acoustic guitars, write and play slide blues-meets-folk dusted with soul and dipped in hip-hop flavor...enter 23-year-old dreaded BEN HARPER. Open your brain and mind...and search for musical truth. Coming soon...ENIGMA. (Yikes!...a safe sex manual should be included.) Please be alert. No alcohol, drugs, weapons, food, bottles or cans allowed. No smoking in arena and other areas as designated by management. Coming soon: 1-800 # in NYC! See you at Gavin? Yes? No? Let us know. Love our artists, and love yourself. Breaking as we speak, with our amazing college base: SMASHING PUMPKINS and CRACKER! Thanks...let's do the same for VERVE in 1994...Caroliner Rainbow tool

The Cage, Capitol Records, Hollywood, CA (800) 342-8842

As we step into 1994, we must look back at the great year we had in 1993. Thank you College Radio for all of your support with the BUTTHOLE SURFERS, RADIOHEAD, SCHOOL OF FISH, BLIND MELON and I MOTHER EARTH, MAZZY STAR, CONCRETE BLOND and the COCTEAU TWINS continue to receive support from College Radio, and will be touring around the country in the next couple of months. Contact your Capitol "Cage" rep for tickets. Speaking of Mazzy Star, Chris Joy from KBVR won the Mazzy Star contest, and has ordered 20 CDs from the Capitol catalog. Congratulations Chris! Enjoy! 1993 has proven that Capitol Records is about quality music, not just hype. In 1994 we continue with more fantastic music; new releases from CROWDED HOUSE and RICHARD THOMPSON will kick things off. Other interesting news, on the Grand Royal tip, LUSCIOUS JACKSON are currently in the studio recording a follow-up LP to their very successful In Search Of Manny EP. The new BEASTIE BOYS record is almost finished, look for more news on this release in the coming months. Speaking of the Beastie Boys, Some Old Bullshit is coming soon, make sure to talk to your Capitol "Cage" rep regarding all of these releases. Revolution records will be releasing a new BIG CHIEF and a new TRULY LP in 94. Keep your eyes out for a Richard Thompson tribute record this year as well. We have established an 800 number so that you can reach Capitol anytime. Use it. We're here for you!

Darren Marani, Futurist Records, New York, NY (212) 226-7272

I hope you all had a great holiday vacation. Now it's back to tests, papers, homework, boring professors and annoying record people hounding your every move. Isn't life grand! By now you should have all added the BROTHER EYE FCC EP. If you don't have it, call me. It features an edited version of "Slide" and a live track, recorded at WFMU. If you don't have it, call me. MURDER INC. and WIG HAT are picking up at most college stations. Don't be left out, play them! Hey Valentine, want a cigarette yet?

Edie Lundeen, Alt. Promo Chick, Metal Blade Records, Simi Valley, CA (805) 522-9111

Holidays, holidays, holidays...What a scary time of year and thank God it is over! Now that we are all back and functioning, I thought I should write and inform you of what has been happening in my life. I have been getting very excited about the new alternative music releases that Metal Blade has coming out in the very near future! First on the list is Arizona's one and only, BEATS THE HELL OUT OF ME! Beats...Me fuses punk and modern rock into a powerful wall of sound that is guaranteed to blow you away! This will be on its way to you in the beginning of February. Be on the look out for the full CD. You should have already received their 7" single that includes Beats...Me's own cover of Public Enemy's "By The Time I Get To Arizona." Later on in March, we have new full-length albums coming from GWAR and SKREW. For you industrial fans, this Skrew album should be put in the CD player the day you get it! No wonder why I have been totally pumped lately! End note: I think that each and every one of you should check out Machines Of Loving Grace when they tour in your area! They are fucking incredible! Take care!

Hey, Happy New Year. It's a bit late, but my sentiments are heartfelt. Hopefully, you have all had your share of the chart-toppers and are ready to move on to some new music. Something to check out is Incredibly Strange Music Volume 1. It sounds familiar you say? You have probably seen or heard about the Re/Search book of the same name. Now you can enjoy some of the same hard-to-find classics mentioned in the book on convenient CD form. Because this collection is aimed towards the vinyl lover, all the pops, scratches and clicks from the original recordings have been left on. These 13 tracks are some of the oddest recordings ever made and are sure to be a hit at any party. Highlights include RAJPUT & THE SEPOY's version of "Up, Up and Away" and the SCRAMBLERS' "Mister Hot Rod."...Something that has been getting loads of office play here is Archers of Loaf Icky Mettle. In the house Swillman Dalton Ross turned me on to that one. Good job!...Speaking of Swill, next time you put in a Caroline order, ask your sales rep to throw in some free copies. The past issue featured our beloved BUZZCOCKS plus features with Unrest, Boo Trundle and Nine Iron...And while you're unloading Siamese Dream, let's not forget Gish, still the greatest SMASHING PUMPKINS album out there.

Craig Elliott, Music Director, CJSR, Edmonton, AB, Canada (403) 492-5244 SHELLAC. Holy fuck, man.

Amy Caldwell, Music Director, WARP, Potsdam, NY (315) 267-2511
Does anyone understand how the FCC can get away with obvious procrastination? Oh, I forgot, it's a part of our wonderful Federal Gov't! Anyway, as we fret at WARP over our license, we have been playing some ever-so-cool music. Personal faves: RED HOUSE PAINTERS, RISE ROBOTS RISE, (it's funky—TORI AMOS' sis?), FRONT 242, SUBDUING MARA, COURSE OF EMPIRE. We, however sad as it sounds, are receiving music and info from a select few (whom I already annoyed!). Help! We are in Cowtown, USA, a void in the northernmost arctic tip of NYS. We have no culture (except watching drunken brawls), nothing to do, and have no means of finding out all of the great new music out there. We especially need touring info. Montreal, QUE, and Ottawa, ONT, are not lengthy treks to see killer shows! Thank God we have CMJ! Well, if you are feeling sympathetic (or cool), get in touch with me. The phone and fax lines are waiting now on Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 1-3 p.m. EST. We're in for a warped '94!

Steve Peterson Operations Manager/ Program Director, WLNZ, Lansing, MI (517) 483-1710

The big day is near! WLNZ will be making the big jump from cable FM to broadcast FM beginning February 11. We will be operating on 89.7 FM at 100 watts reaching into the Lansing/East Lansing radio market. The station will be keeping the WLNZ call letters, which we have been using on our cable station for the last year or so since switching from WLCC. This undertaking has been going on almost 20 years as the college has finally gotten its first broadcast radio station! I personally want to thank all the record reps for servicing our cable station over the years and being very supportive of our new venture. WLNZ will be kicking off our new station with a big party celebration at our auditorium on the campus. Some local groups will be playing with the possibility (keeping our fingers crossed) of some national acts. Thanks again to all the fine people who have helped WLNZ/WLCC over the years—it has been appreciated! (There are so many to thank I could not possibly name you all here in this letter.) We look forward to a great 1994 and the years to come. Stop by and see us if your in the area. See you around the dial!

Kevin Curnow, Program Director, WXAV, Chicago, IL (312) 779-9858
Brrrrr! Can you say cold? While California quakes, we here in Chicago continue to freeze at record rates. -75 degree wind chill? This was not in the brochure. Thank goodness there's loads of great music on the radio here at 88X. Lately, we're warming our ears with: PEGBOY, JAW-BOX, EN ESCH, TOM WAITS and RAMONES during the days and new BLACK SABBATH (!), MOTORHEAD, MUZZA CHUNKA and SEPULTURA at night. We're also cooking up some killer local action with new releases from SPIES WHO SURF and HIP DEEP TRILOGY. Looking forward to that new RED RED MEAT release. (Attn Sub Pop: please find it in your mailing-list to send us a copy. Thanks!) Stacey is our "local program host," so call her on Thursday afternoons to catch up on the southside music scene. Bless the space heaters, pass the electric socks and turn up the tunes!
