HIT FACTOR

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations playing a record which also have it Top 20.
ie: 100 stations playing the record — 60 stations have it in their Top 20 — Hit Factor = 60%.

INSIDE TOP 40 with DAVE SHOLIN

Special times create special memories and there was no shortage of either during our recent seminar in San Francisco. Can't say a big enough thank you to my co-hosts for the Top 40 breakout session... Buzz Bennett and Guy Zapoleon. Buzz made news at the session (see Chinwag) as well as keeping many attendees on the edge of their chairs. Look for a full-blown exclusive interview titled "Buzzy's Back" in an upcoming issue. Guy, as always, held nothing back and offered his candid feelings about what constitutes a hit record. He urged everyone not to simply follow the charts and a record's airplay tracking but rather play what the audience and market desire. The crowd applauded his comments and, judging by stats on a number of records this week, more folks may be following that advice. If those currently taking an aggressive musical stance continue to win, expect the trend to gain momentum. Thanks also to my assistants for the Second Annual Super Bowl of Rock Trivia... Jo Interrante, Sully Roddy and Rob Sisco of IS Inc. and Colleen Parr of KFRC, and, of course to Geffen Records and MJ1 Broadcasting for supplying some hot prizes. Congrats to all who played... and as Larry King would say... "Ya done good kids."

Barreling ahead on two fronts, CLUB NOUVEAU powers up to number one on this week's Urban chart as well as exploding for nearly every Top 40 reporter. Try this HIT FACTOR increase on for size... 29% to 57%!! They race into the Top Ten at Z93 Atlanta, FM104 Modesto/Stockton, KS103 San Diego, KOZE Lewiston, Z94 Boston, KDWB Minneapolis/St. Paul, Z100 New York, etc.

Grammy award winner STEVE WINWOOD appears ready to take another track from "Back To The High Life" into the Top 15. Moves 5 places or more for John Purdy OK95 (25-16), Tony Davis KVIC (30-20), Bill Richards WNCI (28-20), Bruce Stevens WBBQ (25-20), Jack Daniel WBCY (29-19), Thom Richards Q99 (28-23), Jessica Ettinger WVBR (25-15), Barry Bennett KBBZ (26-19), etc.

Took awhile for "Egyptian," THE BANGLES third single, to convince programmers it was a genuine hit. They don't seem to be having any difficulty this time around, though. Debuts in the Top Thirty at WANS Greenville, Y108 Denver, Y95 Dallas, KKEG Fayetteville, WTBX Duluth, Y100 Miami, KFIV Modesto, WKTI Milwaukee, WWHB Hampton Bays, etc.

What a start for CUTTING CREW! It's tough enough for established acts to get this kind of out-of-the-box airplay, never mind a new band. On instantly at B104, WXKS, WBEN, Q96, WLLI, KIXY, KZZK, KMEL, KATD, KPKE, WPFR, WHSB, Z93, 94Q, WLGA, B106, WROQ, WRCK, WSPK, etc.

Battling their way past the competition, LONE JUSTICE steamrolls right over CHARTBOUND to grab a position on the Top 40. Currently Top 15 with Tom Cuddy Pro/FM, Greg Lawley WDBR, Dave Weissman KZLS, Darren Taylor K-Star, Sunny Joe White WXKS, John Ford KWYR, etc. Adds at Y108, KIXK, KKXL, KKRC, WOAY, WBLU, etc.

Movie/Music collaborators JOAN JETT AND MICHAEL J. FOX have busted the airplay barrier with a long list of new believers including KMOK, KAKS, KSTN, KKBG, KNBQ, KBIU, Z94, WNYZ, Q99, WGKS, 100KHI, WKFX, WZOK, WDEK, WQUT, WJLQ, KSLY, etc.

ROBERT CRAY BAND was our January 30th Record To Watch with 33 reports. Backed by some noteworthy chart activity, they've got more than three times that number of stations. Jim Morrison and Jeff McCartney list it 13-10 at 94Q Atlanta and Jay McCall takes it 7-5 at KOZE Lewiston. Also Top Ten at KHIT Seattle, WPFR Terre Haute with adds at KCPX, WIZM, WSPT, WKLQ, WQBZ, WBPM, etc.

SHIRLEY MURDOCK is another former Record To Watch entry (Jan 16th) who's making headway. She's showing a healthy 25% HIT FACTOR, doing very well for Frank Amadeo Y100 Miami 14-7, Jim Scott KWES Odessa/Midland (13-8) Rick Gillette WHYT Detroit (8-5) etc. New on KZZP, KHIT, KTAG, KCPW, KBEQ, WVSR, WHNY, 95XXX, WBBQ, etc.

Some excellent gains for DONNA ALLEN at KCIL 23-17, WZYD 23-16, WKQB 19-14, KYOS 15-11, KSTN 22-14, KITY 24-19, etc. Added at G105, KC101, KNOE, B97, KS103, KRQ, WKXX, KHIT, KLBQ, WFTW, etc.

Last week's Record To Watch, GLEN MEDIEROS, has one story to tell... everyone who plays this entry has success with it... HIT FACTOR is now 22% and growing. Jim Nelly KXGO reports it doing well with all demos. New on KWIN, WNCI, WZKZ, WROQ, WNYZ, etc.

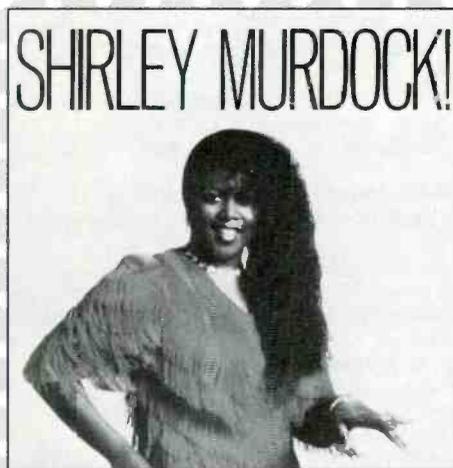

GEORGIO is beginning to take off... HIT FACTOR at 8% debuting #15 at Y100 as well as moving 28-19 at KHYT Tucson, and 22-17 KGGI San Bernardino. Added at KZHR, KDON, WCGV, KRGV, KCPI, KDWB, WXKS, Y106, KC101, etc.

Couple of sidenotes include Rick Woodell KKYS Bryan reporting the new KENNY LOGGINS as the most requested tune for the third straight week and FARRENHEIT showing up Top Ten on the phones. ●

CHINWAG

CHINWAG GOES TO A SEMINAR

Even with a 200 percent increase in pre-registration over last year, it was still hard to shake that suppose-nobody-shows-up-for-the-party feeling that needlessly haunts the back of your mind.

Yes, the Second Annual Gavin Seminar For Media Professionals was very much like having friends over at the house. The Westin St. Francis was our home and those of you who attended were our special guests. The reality really set in Thursday morning when our trusty negotiator/convention coordinator Ron Alexenburg led the Gavin Seminar team into the final hotel staff meeting scheduled for 9:30 AM. Filling the room was every manager of every department of the hotel—from the head doorman to the head chef to room service to reservations to housekeeping to security, all the way to the chief executive officer. We knew Seminar '87 was here.

Peter Standish sneak-previewed things Thursday night with an impromptu summit for College and Album Radio broadcasters. In a room that soon proved way too small, Album Radio veterans like WXRT-Chicago's Norm Winer and WLIR-Long Island's Larry The Duck shared points of interest with college programmers like WRAS-Atlanta's Jennifer Grossberndt and KCMU-Seattle's Faith Henschel. It was a time for Album Radio's heirs to hang with the format's current trendsetters.

On Friday morning, Larry King felt quite at home speaking to a radio-music contingent. His confidence and candor demonstrated why he's radio's reigning king of conversation. Relating stories of his youthful escapades with superstar pitcher Sandy Koufax, Larry unraveled his rise from the streetcorners of Brooklyn to radio's big time—interviewing the likes of Frank Sinatra. As an expert storyteller, King also understands radio life—from the elusive sexy voice on the all-night request line to the chilling feelings of insecurity when the GM says he wants to see you—after your five-hour air shift.

Immediately following the Rock Trivia extravaganza (won by Profile Records' Cory Robbins), 415 Records' Howie Klein hosted an Album/Alternative Cutting Edge Music Show before an SRO crowd. Along with Columbia Records executive Bob Sherwood-WBCN-Boston/KROQ-Pasadena GM Tony Berardin and Live105-San Francisco's Steve Masters, it was the artists who helped give the show its balance. Lindsey Buckingham consented to a rare interview/conversation. Alternative folkie Mojo Nixon mixed things up with his zany sense of aww-shucks-folks philosophy. Peter Case climbed the stage and ended the show with a live rendition of "I Shook His Hand."

Following Oren Harari's hard hitting ON Management session, the Gavin Celebrity Cocktail Party broke past the 1000 attendance mark—with stars like Bob Geldof, Joan Jett, Gregory Abbott, Nona Hendryx, REO Speedwagon, KBC Band, the Thompson Twins, Jennifer Warnes, Narada Michael Walden, Samantha Fox and many many more. Later that evening, Oz, the hotel's rooftop disco, was commandeered by CBS as a venue for a piano set by Isaac Hayes amid a spectacular 360-degree view of the city. Neighboring hospitality suites kept the partying alive well into the night.

On Saturday morning, the A/C meeting mushroomed to three times the size as last year's. More than any format, A/C folks really did get a chance to meet face to face rather than phone to phone. The band of Country attendees chose to continue their morning meeting and reconvened later that afternoon. Jerry Boulding brought together the all-stars of Urban Contemporary radio. Jerry's guests, WJLB-Detroit's James Alexander, V105-Atlanta's Ray Boyd, WRKS-New York's Tony Gray, KJLH-LA's Licla Torres, KMEL-San Francisco's Lee Michaels, K104-Dallas's Terri Avery and KIIS-LA's Steve Rivers, dissected their format and fielded some tough questions.

The Gavin Awards started as a comedy face-off between Gavin's Bob Galliani and superstar host Gary Owens. Multi-award winners included Z104-Madison, WI, K104-Dallas, KOST-LA, KIIS-LA and WLIR-Long Island along with MCA Records (5 awards), Columbia Records and Warner Brothers Records.

Y95-Dallas's Buzz Bennett (joined by co-hosts Dave Sholin and KZZP-Phoenix's Guy Zapoleon) elevated the level of consciousness at the Top 40 format meeting by comparing radio wars to the plight of the gladiator: You have to kill your opponent to survive—even though he might be your friend. It's great to see Buzz back in the biz.

RCA Records co-presented what proved to be an outstanding multi-media final event. Development of a Hit Artist used Bruce Hornsby's debut album project as a case study on how a record company signs, markets, promotes and publicizes a new artist. Also on hand was Hornsby's manager, Tim Neece, as well as the artist himself. Kudos to RCA's Don Wardell, Paul Atkinson, Ed Mascolo and Paula Batson for an unbelievable hour. Besides learning an awful lot, the crowd had a chance to ask Hornsby and crew a lot of good questions. Among the many outstanding off-campus musical events, Bill Graham Presents blew the doors off the Wolfgang's nightclub with an exclusive show featuring Eddie Money, Santana, Limited Warranty and Colin Hay. One night prior, Jullan Cope was simply astounding, and the night before featured a rousing set by Wire Train. Across town on Saturday night, Chris Isaak's set at Club DNA was absolutely captivating.

We feel this year's Gavin Seminar was a great musical as well as programming event. We feel confident that the industry will benefit greatly from this and future Gavin gatherings. We will be back in 1988, our 30th anniversary...bigger and better! See you then.

CHINWAG EXCLUSIVE!

The world may believe Garrison Keillor is pulling the plug on his "Prairie Home Companion," but Chinwag knows the real story: To attract younger listeners to public radio, Keillor is changing his name to Woebegon-D.M.C., switching to a rap format and retitling the show "Prairie Homeboy."

KISW-SEATTLE MORNING TEAM DEBUTS...IN LOS ANGELES

Puget Sound's newest wakeup crew—John Rody from KZEW-Dallas and Peter B. (ex-WLS/FM-Chicago, KOPA-Phoenix)—debuted Feb. 27 with a remote broadcast from L.A. Although the two have never met, KISW GM Beau Phillips predicts the team will be a hit. "Peter was an Album guy trapped in a Top 40 format," Phillips asserts. The station has also named Mike Jones as Music Director, moved Steve Slaton from nights to afternoons, and brought in Carla Raswyck from WBCN-Boston for evenings under new air name Carla Steele.

PYRAMID POWERS INTO CHICAGO...

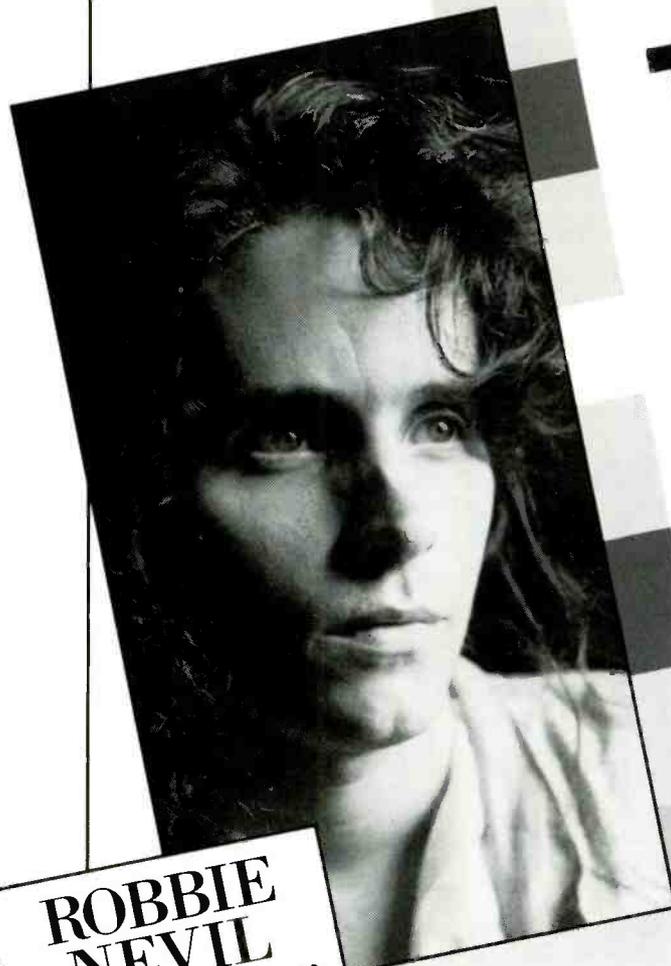

Pyramid Broadcasting, whose principals include WXKS-Boston PD Sunny Joe White, has laid out $15 million for WRXR in the Windy City. Deal was brokered by ex-Doubleday radio chief Gary Stevens, who bought the former WMET for $9.5 million in 1983 and sold it to the Shadek family for $12.5 million last April. White denies any plans to change WRXR's oldies format and says he will stay in Boston.

...AND THE BUZZ MAY BE RIGHT BEHIND

Watch out, Amerika: "Gladiator Rock" may be coming to your market. Legendary programmer Buzz Bennett and partner Mark Driscoll may soon have a chance to give the format that's scoring big for them at Y95-Dallas a tryout at stations coast-to-coast. Bennett has been named National PD for the combined Hefel-Statewide chain, and his and Driscoll's BuzzMark media analysis partnership is now part of H&G Broadcasting, as it's called. "This is a first," Bennett says. "The first time programmers have actually merged with owners. H&G's properties--which now includes WLUP-Chicago, WAPE-Jacksonville and KSSW-Honolulu--may be expanded to as many as 30 stations. Says Bennett: "It appears we may be the largest independent radio group by the end of the decade." Look for an in-depth interview with Buzz in an upcoming Gavin Report.

STORMIN' GORMAN

"Right now, I'm in discussion with my attorneys," says former WMMS-Cleveland programmer John Gorman. His "multi-year" contract at upstart Top 40 challenger WNCX ended abruptly after six months when Metropolis Broadcasting switched the station to Classic Hits. "I have no idea why," says Gorman, who left The Buzzard last August, only to see his old station soar in the Fall Arbitrons, while WNCX sagged. "We only got eight weeks of one book," Gorman says, "And the change was evidently decided on way before that came out." Gorman says he hopes to resolve his dispute with Metropolis amicably, and then may re-activate his consultancy.

95INZ COMPLETES MOVE TO ALBUM

It's official: WINZ/FM-Miami is now Album, completing an 18-month migration from Urban. MD Mark Shands says almost all the music will be on CD from now on. The station will retain its present air staff and 25-49 target demo, adding a new slogan, "The Home of Rock n Roll."

PLAY BALL!

Mark your calendars for the upcoming T.J. Martell Foundation sportsfest scheduled for April 2-4th in Los Angeles. Due to popular demand, the fifth edition of this annual fundraiser will include softball as well as bowling and golf. "Every year, more and more fanatics come out of the woodwork and we have to add another sport," sighs Atlantic Records' Judy Libow, one of the organizers. The fundraising target has also been raised. "Last year, we brought in $100,000," she says. "Now we're aiming for $150,000." The money goes towards leukemia and other cancer research.

RADI-O-RAMA:

Rita Paggert is now asst. PD at WFMX-Statesville, NC...At WPDZ-Cheraw, SC, Mitch Clark moves up to MD/middays as Jay Lewis moves on to WJMX-Florence...David Liston from Station Manager to VP/GM at WTHI-Terre Haute, IN...Elton Weathers is now Asst. PD at WHYT-Detroit...At WBLQ-Erie, PA, Stevie Collins is now PD, MD and morning driver...Tom Fricke is the new Operations Manager at WIZM-La Crosse, WI, as Kevan Kavanaugh leaves radio to pursue other interests...KIMN-Denver ND Phil Boyce moves crosstown to KPKE, replacing Phil Mueller...Congrats to Kevin "Pee Wee" Harris, departing KKYS-Bryan, TX, to join the big boys at K98-Austin. Replacing Harris is T.J. McKay...Production Director Ron Erak takes over as Program Director at KNBQ-Tacoma, WA, so Ric Hansen can devote more time to his morning show...After four years in California, Jeffrey Clarke returns to p.m. drive at KINK-Portland, declaring, "I'm glad to be returning to the land of liquid sunshine"...Frank Rippey moves to middays at KFAT-Corvallis, OR, from KZEL-Eugene.

THE BEST FROM BOTH COASTS

Rick Dees and Scott Shannon, arguably the best morning talents in the business, have each released Greatest Bits LPs. Dees calls his "The White Album," with such KIIS-Los Angeles matitudinal mayhem as "Good Lovin'" by Dr. Rude & The M. Dees, "My Panty Hose Are Too Tight" by The Moist Towelettes, and a reprise of that classic Dees ditty, "Disco Duck." It's available from Macola Records in Hollywood: (800) USA-0008. Shannon's contribution is culled from last year's antics on the Z100-New York Morning Zoo, including a visit from Robin Williams, the David Lee Roth Celebrity Restaurant and The Best of the Mets '86. Proceeds from the Zoo album will go to charity--order your copy from PO Box 7100, New York, NY 10150.

CHINWAG'S BEST WISHES FOR A SPEEDY RECOVERY to Larry King, recuperating from a mild heart attack Feb. 24. At press time, he was recuperating well. Jim Bohannon will handle his Mutual Radio talk show for the next couple of weeks. ● absolutely dominate the top of the chart as 94% of their 232 stations report HEAVY rotation.

A/C ANALYSIS

Bruce Hornsby & The Range

No stop to Luther Vandross who's 94% of the way home and 73% of his stations show him in HIGH gear.

The Starship adds 52 HEAVY rotation reports (more than doubling last week's total). It will be top three in no time.

Grammy Award winner Steve Winwood moves a solid five slots on the chart with 26 adds despite nearly 90 holdouts.

The Aretha Franklin & George Michael single, I Knew You Were Waiting (For Me), has been in our MOST ADDED box for three consecutive weeks, stacking up 145 reports during that time. Should be one of the biggest records of the winter season.

The Atlantic Starr has 86 stations in its first two weeks. Among the many are WHYN, WGBB, KCRG, KOST, WTRX, WIBA, WQHQ and KVKI.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, The Bangles' Walking Down Your Street, already has 39 stations and solid rotations from WAFL, J107, WSKY, KKCK, WDND, WLIP, KLOV, KOJM, KSKI, KVMT, KTIM/FM, KISD and KGY.

Thanks from all of us to those who attended The Gavin Seminar and especially to those who participated in the A/C format session. We spent a great deal of time on an issue raised in the '87 Seminar Directory: That the existence of our format in the future will be predicated on our ability to develop artists we can call our own, and on accelerated support from the record companies to provide us with the material.

Check Chinwag next week for information on audio tapes of the key sessions. Also, check out page 20 of this week's Gavin for the winners of the Gavin Media Professionals Awards. Out CONGRATULATIONS To all!!

R&D

RECOMMENDED FOR A/C RADIO

THE STRANGLERS

Always The Sun (Epic)

Count the number of times I say "HIT" in the A/C picks section this year. This is a response record. I've blindfolded some of the best ears to test reaction without an "artist prejudice" and it's a hit. This record is a solid A/C song, with only the band's name as a handicap. And since only six A/C stations in America announce the title and artists they play, it's a cinch. Brilliant harmonies stacked as high as the hooks in the arrangement. And yet I'll bet 80% of the pop stations won't even audition it. You, of course will be the exception.

BILLY JOEL duet with RAY CHARLES

Baby Grand (Columbia)

Billy Joel is probably our format's most consistent chart topper, and with a track like this one the streak will continue. Hard to miss when you get together with Ray Charles and record a saloon song reminiscent of Eddy Arnold's "You Don't Know Me," which was also a hit for RC in 1962. Who says they don't write 'em like they used to?

LUTHER VANDROSS and GREGORY HINES

There's Nothing Better Than Love (Epic)

A double bill of smooth talkers sing out for the best of reasons - a celebration of the romantic attitude. Luther carries the song and Gregory on his broad musical shoulders, but G.H. does prove he can sing in step with a cool song.

HIT FACTOR

Hit Factor is a percentage of stations which have it in Heavy or Medium rotation. ie: 100 stations playing the record - 60 stations have it in Heavy or Medium rotation - Hit Factor = 60%

BIO FEEDBACK

PETER GABRIEL

Peter has asked video outlets to stop airing his "Sledgehammer" and "Big Time" clips after March 31st to avoid overexposure!

KRIS KRISTOFFERSON

Way back in 1958 he won a Rhodes Scholarship to attend Oxford University where he received a degree in English.

DAVID BOWIE

"When The Wind Blows," an animated feature film about nuclear holocaust, is about to be released, with the title song recorded by David Bowie and a score by Pink Floyd's Roger Waters.

JOAN JETT

Her acting debut occurred in 1980. The film, "We're All Crazy Now," was based on the brief career of her first band, The Runaways.

JULIAN COPE

He's the former lead singer of the group Teardrop Explodes.

CHARLEY PRIDE

After decades of recording with RCA, Charley has signed with 16th Avenue Records, re-uniting him with longtime producer Jerry Bradley, now General Manager of Opryland Music Group.

EDDIE MONEY

Nine years ago this month he released his first album. It included his earliest hits, "Baby Hold On" and "Two Tickets To Paradise."

CLUB NOUVEAU

"Lean On Me" was a hit the first time for Bill Withers in the Spring of 1972.

NATALIE COLE

She has signed with Manhattan Records and will release "When I Fall In Love," a song once recorded by her father, Nat King Cole.

RUSS TAFF

He was once a member of the contemporary Christian group, The Imperials. He has won a Grammy and a Dove Award (for Male Vocalist Of The Year).

SIOUXSIE & THE BANSHEES

Siouxsie Sioux is actually Susan Dallon, a native of Chislehurst, England.

GWEN GUTHRIE

She and Larry Blackmon of Cameo were once in a band called East Coast.

WILLIE NELSON

At one time, Willie was a member of Ray Price's Cherokee Cowboy Band.

PETER, PAUL & MARY

Peter Yarrow co-wrote and produced "Torn Between Two Lovers" for Mary MacGregor in 1976.

THE SHOOTERS

Lead vocalist and keyboardist Walt Aldridge composed "My Love Is A Chemical" for the film "White Nights," featuring Gregory Hines and Mikhail Baryshnikov.

ALAN PARSONS

He was the engineer on two of the most famous albums in history, The Beatle's "Abbey Road" and Pink Floyd's "Dark Side Of The Moon."

A-HA

They opened their first tour at Expo '86 in Vancouver just six hours after doctors performed emergency surgery on lead singer Marten Harket's throat.

re-birth of the blues

by Kent Zimmerman

five years ago, things weren't looking good for blues musicians. As the guitar-oriented seventies faded, some veterans began drifting back into the obscurity they endured prior to the British blues revival of the late sixties. Worse yet, few young blues artists were coming up through the ranks to rejuvenate the medium.

Then a strange thing happened.

In the middle of the techno-pop revolution, twelve-bar, bad-to-the-bone blues and blues-based rock made a resurgence. Robert "Young Bob" Cray and his band went Top Five on the Album Radio charts, and stayed there for months. After a decade of knocking about, the Fabulous Thunderbirds are so id gold, approaching platinum. Stevie Ray Vaughan (whose brother, Jimmie, is lead guitarist for the T-Birds) has seen his popularity spread around the world. Los Lobos and the Georgia Satellites are big airplay and sales favorites.

Even more encouraging, the traditional blues infrastructure is thriving. Independent, blues-oriented labels are finding a receptive market. The classic Chess blues catalogue has been spiffed up, remastered and re-released.

"There is a pendulum that swings back and forth in support of American blues-rock or blues-based music, as opposed to a lighter, European-based pop. This is the biggest resurgence we've seen since the late sixties," says Mindy Giles of Chicago-based Alligator Records, founded in 1971 with a slogan of "Genuine Houserockin' Music."

"I play a roots music that just keeps coming back around," says Alligator artist Lonnie Mack. "It's had its high points and its low points, just like life. Alligator kept this whole scene alive and hung in there when nobody else was interested."

Mack has noticed the upswing. "A lot of young people are turned on to blues thanks to Stevie and the T-Birds and people like that. We get a wide range of age groups. It's nice to see the young people—like my kid. I've got a fourteen-year-old boy who's starting to dig on the music I grew up on."

"The downside of blues lately is the lack of recognition, and people not getting the chance to work like they need to," says Stevie Ray Vaughan. "There was a lull in the acceptance of blues. But the music's always been there. Hopefully we're doing things to get these people some recognition back."

Cray agrees: "The problem isn't capturing blues on vinyl. The problem is trying to make an album on a cheap budget. A lot of blues bands don't get a lot of money to record their records."

Cray's first taste of national exposure came as the bass player for Otis Day & the Knights in the 1980 movie "Animal House." Although Cray's appearance with John Belushi did attract attention, its impact was, in Cray's words, "a little blown out of proportion." The same year, the Cray Band released one LP in 1980 on the Tomato label (since reissued by Atlantic). After recording another LP, issued only in Japan, Cray signed with Hightone Records, a eccentric little label located in Alameda outside Oakland, California, founded by Larry Sloven, Bruce Bromberg and Dennis Walter.

Working out of Sloven's home, the three released a couple of Cray albums, Bad Influence and False Accusations, and pieced together domestic distribution and international licensing agreements. Impressively, Hightone moved 10,000 copies of Bad Influence, enough to build a respectable base of fans. The next LP was unleashed onto an international legion of hungry admirers.

"Our European following started in 1984, when Bad Influence was released independently in Belgium, Finland, Germany and England. We got a lot of airplay because people over there love lots of blues and jazz," says Cray.

One of the key licensing agreements Hightone negotiated was with Demon Records in England. Demon, run by Andrew Lauder, Jake Riviera and Elvis Costello, is one of Britain's top independent labels.

"Demon built the base that got everything going," Sloven recalls.

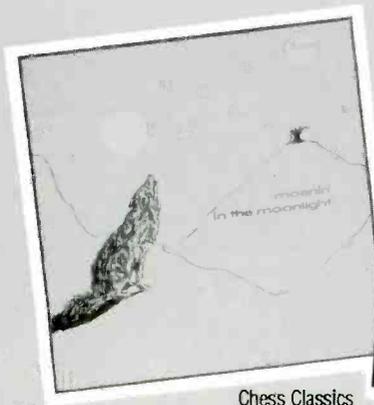

With minimal airplay in the United States, Cray found himself with a number-one independent album in the U.K. and admirers of the caliber of Keith Richards, Phil Collins, Mick Jagger and Eric Clapton.

"Haven't you seen that in many cases?" Sloven asks. "It seems that the English are always looking for the next thing from America, and the same is true in reverse."

Many American blues artists have an extensive European following. Stevie Ray Vaughan was twice invited to the prestigious Montreux Jazz Festival.

"The first time, we had a lot of fun, though we weren't sure how we were accepted. The way the hall is set up, the crowd can be as loud as you are. If there are two or three people booing, it sounds like a hundred. We thought we had gotten booted off the stage. Come to find out, there were about four people in the middle that didn't like us. I guess it was because they were sitting in front of my amp. The second time, we cut some of the stuff on this new album. There were a lot more people and it was a bit easier to deal with."

"Stevie heralded the rebirth of the so-called roots movement we see today," says Michael Caplan of Epic Records' A&R department. "Being a pyrotechnic guitar player, it was easy to get:

Chess Classics

Album Radio interested. At the time, people were searching for a new guitar hero just as Album Radio was reverting to its classic roots."

Citing acts like Gregg Allman and Georgia Satellites, Caplan admits, "We couldn't have signed acts like those five years ago."

Cray's battle was more uphill. "We worked False Accusations and got on about fifty Album stations, but it was real drudgery," Sloven recalls. Finally, critical acclaim did begin piling in, including a rave review from, of all places, Newsweek. Offers from major labels were slower to materialize.

"We started Strong Persuader in January of 1986 and didn't strike a deal with PolyGram until April," Cray remembers. "But ever since, things have gone crazy. You know, I've always had a feeling there was room for us."

PolyGram has been filling in the picture internationally by plugging up whatever distribution holes existed across Europe. Yet Hightone still enjoys its status.

"I value my independence very much," says Sloven "I don't want to be a production company for major labels. We want to make records, controlling them ourselves."

Does that have anything to do with a line in Cray's "Nothing But A Woman"--about not caring if "a boat load of lawyers just sank"?

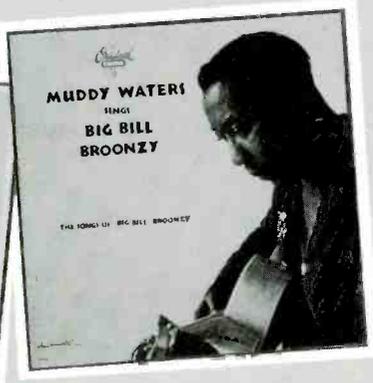

"That line seemed appropriate at the time," Cray laughs.

Another successful independent is Alligator Records, founded by Bruce Iglaur while he was working in the warehouse of Delmark Records as a shipping clerk. Iglaur decided to take the late, legendary slide boogie player Hound Dog Taylor into the recording studio. Those sessions became the first Alligator release. Additional projects by Big Walter Horton, Carey Bell, Son Seals, Fenton Robinson and Koko Taylor soon turned Alligator from a part-time hobby into a full-blown catalogue. In 1986, Alligator's best-seller was its Showdown album with Albert Collins, Johnny Copeland and Robert Cray.

"The immense popularity of Albert Collins was a major turning point," says Giles, "Bringing in some roots rock blues acts like Johnny Winter, Lonnie Mack and Roy Buchanan was also a turning point for the label."

Today, Giles describes Alligator as "fiercely aggressive, but learning and growing." As for the definition of "houserockin'," she says, "It's the spirit of the music. Hound Dog Taylor felt he rocked the blues. It's not just blues. That's too limiting. That's why we still use that phrase to describe the depth of the music. It's roots rock and lots of different kinds of blues with elements of country, gospel, rockabilly and straight-ahead rock n roll."

Collins began his association with the label in 1978. He has since become one of their most popular artists. "My career has picked up quite a lot since being with Alligator," he notes.

Chess Classics

"The Showdown album with Johnny Copeland and Robert Cray was originally going to be a Texas guitar album. I suggested Johnny Copeland, Gatemouth Brown and myself. Gatemouth was on tour. He couldn't make it, so we used Robert Cray as guest because I worked with him three years back. Johnny is from Texas.

"It didn't take too long to do the album because everyone felt each other. We all felt each other with our guitars. I felt good because we each have our own styles."

One of his strangest sessions was playing with David Bowie on the soundtrack for "Labyrinth."

"I was in Toronto when Bruce Iglaur called me to tell me that David Bowie wanted me to overdub on some soundtrack. I said, 'You gotta be kidding.' I thought he was pulling my leg. I went to New York and they were serious. Bowie and I hit it off well. He made me feel welcome. I was comfortable around him."

Last year also saw Collins playing Carnegie Hall, the Apollo Theater, and in front of the biggest audience in rock n roll history--the Live Aid Concert.

"George Thorogood asked me, 'Are you scared, man?' I said, 'Yes'. He said, 'I am, too.' I looked out and saw 100,000 people. I got shook up. I was shakin'."

Stevie Ray Vaughan's guitar leads have also shown up on some unlikely sessions.

"I was doing a session with Teena Marie when I went straight over and did a session with Jennifer Warnes ("First We Take Manhattan"). Did they use the wah-wah track? I haven't heard it yet. I was also at a party in New York. It was my birthday. A friend of mine asked if I wanted to play on a James Brown tune. It was about three in the morning. We unloaded my stuff, went over to the studio, set up and had a blast on 'Living In America.' From what I understand, there are seven different mixes and they used different pieces of it."

But for mainstream influence on his guitar playing, Stevie Ray Vaughan says, "Chess Records is my foundation."

Chess was the brainchild of two brothers, Leonard and Phil Chess. Their roster of labels--Chess, Checker, Argo, Cadet and Cadet Concept--represents the cream of blues, gospel, R&B and historic rock n roll. Their releases by Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf, Little Walter, Bo Diddley and Etta James are timeless examples of the roots of much of today's music.

Surprisingly, Chess' total output included about 25,000 masters. Over the past fifteen years, ownership of the label's tapes changed hands from the Chess brothers to GRT in 1967. After GRT folded, the tapes went to All Platinum, then to Sugar Hill. Since 1985, the distributor and owner of Chess has been MCA, which is currently and aggressively reissuing them.

"MCA has always been a catalogue-oriented company. They pride themselves on that fact. During the recession years of 1979-1981, when companies weren't selling much new product, MCA managed to turn a profit because it had accumulated vast and valuable catalogues," says Bruce Resnikoff, MCA's Director of Special Marketing and Products. "We honestly believe the release of certain classic catalogue music is every bit as important as the release of new product."

"With Chess, we were concerned about the public not having access to these recordings. So many of the masters haven't been released in the United States since their initial issue. An entire generation has missed most of this music."

Among the Chess music reissued at the low list price of $4.98 ($8.98 for doubles) are classic albums such as Howlin' Wolf's "Moanin' In The Moonlight," "Best Of Little Walter," "Bo Diddley" and "Muddy Waters Sings Big Bill Broonzy," all freshly remastered and packaged in original artwork.

"Let me stress that the low price is in no way a reflection of the quality of the pressings," says Resnikoff. "There's a temptation to get as much out there as quickly as possible for profit reasons. More important, though, we view this catalogue as something to be worked with during an entire lifetime."

Along with the classic catalogue, MCA also inherited a maze of contractual agreements that have changed hands between artists and publishers over the passage of decades.

"Obviously we can't account for what happened in the past prior to the time we owned the catalogue," Resnikoff says. "The feedback I've gotten, which is important to me, comes from surviving artists and the estates of the deceased. They are glad the catalogue is in the hands of a major record company that honors its agreements and properly accounts to publishers and artists."

"I've discussed this personally with Chuck Berry, who has received royalties. Chuck and his representatives have been very pleased, as have the publishers. This venture doesn't solely represent an effort to put money in the pockets of MCA."

"Just remember, we're still a growing company. We are not going to milk this thing to make a quick buck." ●

ROBERT CRAY-- the strong persuader

His latest album, Strong Persuader, is Robert Cray's first experience in making an album on a major-label budget. So far, the experiment is exploding. But, outside of bringing in prominent remix engineer Jeff Hendrickson to spruce up a few tracks, Strong Persuader uses the same team Robert Cray has been working with since 1978.

"I met (producers) Bruce Bromberg and Dennis Walker in 1977. We recorded together for the first time in 1978. As for the band, every change that's been made is a result of the guys leaving on their own. The horn players left because they were tired of traveling across the country. We just never replaced them or the harp player. Right now it's a real comfortable situation with only four people in the band." The lineup now includes longtime bassist Richard Cousins, keyboardist Peter Boe and drummer David Olson.

Part of Robert Cray's appeal is that, as a vocalist, he is so believable.

"There are true stories on Strong Persuader," he says. "They're all things that happened to somebody. They're stories that deal with cheating and sneaking around, things people don't like to talk about, but things that happen all the time."

Those tales of infidelity and deceit lurk behind traditional blues licks, chord changes and R&B horn lines delivered by the Memphis Horns.

"I believe in the economy of notes," says Cray. "It's like a conversation. Some people can talk, getting their point across using a lot of big words. Some people talk rough, which is like playing loud. The secret is really doing what you love and doing it for a living. I love playing guitar."

What about Eric Clapton's version of "Bad Influence"?

"I was flattered that someone cut a version of one of our songs. I like his version. He did something with it that we were told should have done when we first cut it--that is, put a beginning on it and tag it at the end. Clapton changed 'Bad Influence' into a shuffle, and I thought that was interesting." ●

STEVIE RAY VAUGHAN-- the blues' favorite son

Having shed some hard-living habits, Stevie Ray Vaughan is a new man--clear-headed, modest and likable. He is also extremely blues-literate, influenced by a myriad of legends. He rattles off a list of favorites and influences without hesitation:

"Albert King, Buddy Guy, Freddie King, B.B. King, Hubert Sumlin, Albert Collins, Johnny Guitar Watson, Earl King, Robert Cray--then there's my brother, of course. He's the biggest one there is."

His most obscure influence?

"Fol Hoopi. He's not necessarily a blues player. He was the first of the Hawaiian steel guitarists that I know of."

If his memory serves him well, the blues bug bit Stevie Ray Vaughan at the tender age of eleven.

"God, it must have been 1963. That's when Lonnie Mack came out with The Wham Of The Memphis Man. That was the very first record I ever bought. Lemme see, the first picture of (brother) Jimmie and me playing together was March of 1963. Jimmie probably brought me in contact with the blues first."

Stevie Ray followed in the footsteps of Lonnie Mack and later Johnny Winter by combining the spirit of Texas and Chicago blues with late-fifties R&B, Country and rock.

"What I play comes from blues and rhythm and blues, like Hank Ballard. A lot of Hank Ballard's guitar parts were really wild. I guess I'm influenced by that kind of rock n roll. As far as straight blues, I can play that, too."

Stevie Ray bears the scars of the physical wear and tear of his trade, having literally played his fingers down to the bone.

"A lot of times my guitar is traveling with my equipment in a different truck, which is just as well, the way we've been working so much lately. I use such heavy-gauge strings, I end up having to glue the ends of my fingers back together. The stuff I use was invented during the Korean War. It's called Instant Suture. If I tear my finger, I glue it back together by putting a patch right on the tip of my finger. Then I file it down a little bit to smooth it out. It's basically just a skin graft." ●

ALBERT COLLINS and his tasty freeze

"I originally came from Houston. My influences were T-Bone Walker, B.B. King and Guitar Slim. The biggest influence when I first started to play was John Lee Hooker and that tune, 'Boogie Chillun.' That's the first song I learned to play on my guitar. John Lee has always been my idol."

That statement puts Albert Collins somewhere between being a third and fourth generation American bluesman. Though currently on a hot streak, Albert Collins is best known for his deep-freeze guitar playing, earning him the nickname Albert "Freeze" Collins.

"A friend of mine played bass with me in the early 60's. One night we were playing in a little town called Corpus Christi. I was on my way back to Houston and it started raining. My windshield fogged up. He asked, 'Why don't you turn your DEFrost on?' I got to thinking about that and I started looking at the dashboard of my car. So I wrote a tune called 'Freeze' and then a tune called 'Defrost' and then 'Frosted.' People would say, 'We're gonna keep you in the icebox.' I had that name Albert 'Freeze' Collins. I made that my trademark."

The rise of Albert Collins stems from the fact that, as a guitarist, his roots lie in Texas blues, but his heart glows with "firepower."

"Texas blues usually consisted of adding a horn player, a reed section or an organist. Chicago blues had slide guitar players and harmonica players. We didn't have that coming out of Texas. You didn't hear too many harmonica players or slide players like Elmore James coming out of Texas."

"When I first played nightclubs, I had nine pieces in my band. I was raised around jazz musicians out of Texas. I now have seven with me since moving to the West Coast."

"I play blues and I've lived them, but I put myself in the audience's place. They come to see a show. That's why I like to use some firepower with my blues. I hear a lot of guys play blues so slow all night long. That's boring, man. If you're playing for a young audience, they wanna move. That's what I've been working on, more of a rock blues." ●

NEW Releases

The Beatles Compact Discs (Capitol)

During the last ten years, Beatlemania has shown signs of activity and reanimation. Singles were reissued, best-of records were assembled and the albums were repackaged into their original European configurations. None of these re-births compares with the excitement generated from the issue of these CDs. The first four CDs represent the first chapter of the Fab Four's indelible mark on our music. Please Please Me through A Hard Day's Night traces the original flash and exuberance, but it's Beatles For Sale that first reveals the sour effects of hit singledom and constant touring. Songs like "I'm A Loser," "Baby's In Black" and "Everybody's Trying To Be My Baby" were signs of things to come: the maturation and redefinition of rock n roll as a sounding board. Dig the original mono mixes. I'm ready for round two when the brew really gets serious

"Love Removal Machine"/"All We Need (Blues)"-The Cult (Sire)

The Cult rock like a bitch, but they always have. Their last LP ("Rain" comes to mind) featured a lot of chainsaw and ride cymbal. This two-track taste tips the balance away from paisley love songs, in a more rockin', bluesy direction. A bottom-line 60s influence is still intact. Produced by rap/metal madman Rick Rubin, The Cult put the death back into their music, recalling the scruff of their earlier recordings.

"Whatever It Takes"-The Neville Brothers (EMI America)

The Neville Brothers, New Orleans' favorite sons, have given us hours of pleasure both live and on record. Wouldn't it be great for this generation of radio/music folk to dig into their magic? This is the Neville's first step back into the 80's national limelight. The LP was produced by Jim Gaines, the man who helped sculpt Huey's studio sound. For an even more complete story, dip into the fine repackaged history of this sensational band just put out by the Rhino guys.

Repossessed-Kris Kristofferson & The Borderlords (Mercury)

After Amerika, a knee-jerk reaction is to fingertip and sneer, but the fact remains that Kris Kristofferson has just recorded his very best album since 1971's Silver Tongued Devil And I. Inside these grooves lie the true thoughts and politics of the man—not what ABC brought into our living rooms. I've admired the remarkable achievements and writings of Kristofferson ever since realizing, as a young 'un, that there lies truth beyond Led Zeppelin. If, like me, you are disenfranchised from the current crop of middleweight political candidates, then "What About Me" is your song. Repossessed is an important work of consciousness. Its spare poetry touched my heart.

"Sign 'O' The Times"-Prince (Paisley/Warner Bros.)

This Prince single first hit me after reading the lyrics on the back of last week's Gavin. Could this be the return to the essence the first made him great? The strong messages included are strong enough to cure a massive bout of overexposure.

Wham Of The Memphis Man-Lonnie Mack (Alligator)

As mentioned on page 30 by Stevie Ray Vaughan, here's your basic honest-to-goodness classic that started it all for a lot of rock/blues-aholics. How can you call yourself a rock fan if you've never heard "Chicken Pickin'"? "Be My..."-Che/Fats Comet (Upside)
"Be My...Powerstation" is one of the most unusual records you'll hear all year. WLIR and KROQ have been getting nibbles on this record from curious listeners. One listen and you'll be scratching your cranium as well. A most unusual, groundbreaking single.

Brighter Than A Thousand Suns-Killing Joke (Virgin)

One of Britain's most intense cult bands make their first concerted effort to crack America. Brighter Than A Thousand Suns is Killing Joke's clearest shot at reaching a receptive U.S. audience. Like the Furs, KJ chose to utilize Chris Kimsey, a producer whose role seems to be readying English bands for airplay without losing their edge-cutting qualities. Killing Joke are relentless and hard-hitting. Their music features elegant strains of thunder as heard on trax like "Sanity" and "Adorations." Further down the road, "Love Of The Masses" and "Wintergardens" should meet the approval of intermediate fans who navigate the Alternative horizons.

Wishes-Jon Butcher (Capitol)

Lesser folks would have given up on Jon Butcher. Wishes no doubt made a few folks glad they didn't. It is a well cultivated collection of tones and tunes. In almost every aspect, Butcher reminds me of the late great Phil Lynott. Like Lynott, Butcher's music benefits from an undertow of sly guitar work and impassioned, but controlled singing. What we have here is a righteous blend of subtlety and attitude. My faves include the excellent title track, "Wishes," alongside "Living For Tomorrow," the Mideastern "Holy Wars" and the current single, "Goodbye Saving Grace."

K. D. Lang and the Reclines (Warner Bros.)

Some of last year's best album music came from country music's rowdier side, i.e. Dwight Yoakam, Steve Earle and Randy Travis. An act that corralled our attention this week is K. D. Lang and her Reclines. K. D. has a crystal voice. The fiddle player plays like his bow is afire. Multifold highlights include "Turn Me Around," "Rose Garden," "Watch Your Step Polka" and "Three Cigarettes In An Ashtray."
"I Might Lie"-Andy Taylor (MCA)
Andy Taylor's solo career gets off to a jump with "I Might Lie." This is a hard-rockin' entry that makes it practically impossible to believe this guy once picked with Duran Duran. Raunchy stuff. KZ

My 2 Cents

Sing a song of Amerika...check it out. Four out of five Gavin Album Top Fivers are Yanks. I'm referring to chartoppers Los Lobos, the up and coming Mr. Badass Gregg Allman, the solo Lou Gramm and Santana. Santana's teaming up with Buddy Miles is going over strong with Gavin Album reporters, 25-11-5. If your lovelife is suffering, read this week's Blues story and listen up to Robert Cray's "Right Next Door." That's the track that Album Radio is taking a hard look at. It's also the track that mentions the album's title, Strong Persuader. Just below Robert is Julian Cope, who played his first American gigs recently. Julian just barely held onto his underline. Once his LP sees the light of day, expect to hear excitement over a track titled "Trampoline." So far, Paul Simon's "bubble" is yet burst. His controversial album Graceland not only snared a Grammy, but his "Boy In The Bubble" is enabling radio to play catch-up. The success of this track is enabling quite a few folks to save face after not giving the album a stronger airplay break. As for the controversy, it's hard to ignore the fact that the black musicians union voted in favor of working with Simon prior to his even starting the project. Anyway, Simon and the UN have reached an accord, so it's now water under the bridge over troubled waters. Peter Wolf is Certified, jumping an amazing 32-13. The Furs stand on the horizon of going Top Ten, 31-16-11. Crowded House just packed a couple of club dates in our area. Be careful. These men have themselves a hit single. Both the Over The Top and the Light Of Day soundtracks still continue to make healthy progress,

33-23-18 and 30-24 respectively. Cutting Crew may be dying in people's arms, but they're definitely whooping it up on our chart. Cutting Crew, alongside Peter Wolf, are our biggest jumpers, earning Certified status. This was the week for debuts--Starship, Pseudo Echo, C. S. Angels, Hipsway and Jon Butcher all took advantage of the chart's soft white underbelly... Chartbound's brightest hope includes Chris Isaak. Chris' record is getting good second week reaction. Even if it takes months, Chris Isaak's album will be a hit, hear hear. Alongside Chris, David+David and Huey Lewis & The News look like strong candidates to re-debut yet again. By the way, it wasn't Todd Rundgren who left "Dear God" off the LP. Quite the contrary. Rundgren was an early proponent of the track. Sorry. Two interesting debuts onto Chartbound include Frozen Ghost, this week's Most Added. The soundtrack to Some Kind Of Wonderful is much more than a soundtrack. It is an anthology of great new bands film director John Hughes has taken a personal interest in. The soundtrack is released on the Hughes label. Two more new faces in Chartbound include Big Dish and Love & Rocket's "Ball Of Confusion." "Ball" is a special radio remix. Congrats to all who attended our Seminar. We appreciate you. KZ

ALTERNATIVE ACTION

In 1982, when we debuted the Alternative chart in the Gavin Report the Psychedelic Furs were our first #1 record. Almost five years later, the Furs are again number one, pole-vaulting over four albums in one week. The margin is slight but the momentum is strong. The remainder of our top ten is relatively inactive, but look out for next week as 12 of the 15 following records are underlined. Thanks to all of you who attended our 2nd Annual Gavin Seminar. Check out Chinwag (page 13) for a run-down on the events that transpired last weekend. One important conclusion that came out of the Alternative format meeting was that while music selection is important, the station can make an even greater impact by paying more attention to the overall programming. It was a pleasure to listen to seasoned commercial Alternative radio people and up-and-coming college radio programmers sharing their ideas and philosophies. The most gratifying experience for me at the Seminar was the spirit of

SPOTLIGHT LP

"I'm An Adult Now"-THE PURSUIT OF HAPPINESS (TPOH-12)

The folks at CFNY in Toronto turned me onto this unrefined Canadian pop-rock band that are presently drawing maximum airplay at the station. The band's greatest strength lies in blending of lead and background vocal harmonies. "I'm An Adult Now" is outstanding, with the aforementioned vocal melodies, popping snare-drums and slicing guitar chords (a la March Violets.) The strong B-side, "She's So Young," shows a lighter side of the TPOH with vocals playing an even larger role.

Shoot The Moon-HARD RAIN (Dare)

If you're into Winter Hours or Pure Joy, you'll love Hard Rain. Lead vocalist Patrick Winningham's remarkable writing skills provide the continuity for Hard Rain's debut album, "Shoot The Moon." Winningham writes a string of songs that should creep onto the playlists of many adventurous commercial programmers. "Teri Anytime," "Barbed Wire," "What's Become Of You," and "Kingdom Come" are honest songs without any cute gimmicks. The production and mixing on this independent project is impressive throughout the album, especially on my favorite track, "No Matter What It Takes." Call Andy Scott @ 415-821-4017

NEWS DREAMS

In the September 5th Gavin Report last fall, Joe Belden wrote a special report on the Radio-Television News Directors Association meeting in Salt Lake City, entitled "Money's Too Tight For News." I saved it to think about, since in addition to my programming background, I've been a major-market newsmen, and I'm a believer that, properly done, nothing builds an audience and revenue more strongly for a music station--AM or FM--than local/regional news. I don't know if Bill Drake felt the same way, or simply developed a dynamite actuality-oriented news approach for his stations in the '60s because the FCC then mandated news content, and he wanted to make it as positive as possible. Whatever the case, the news was usually a tune-in on the stations for which he had responsibility.

Few broadcasters dropped public service announcements when they became optional--PSAs are such a great way to relate to and promote within the community. The FCC's deletion of the news requirement (at least for the time being) really represents an additional opportunity for radio stations--especially as many short-sighted music stations use deregulation to downgrade or dispose of news.

The most common justification for the decline in radio news coverage is cost. Doing local news the traditional way--with a staff of newsmen, mobile units, etc.--can be very expensive. But it doesn't have to be. As with all elements of programming, doing the work "the traditional way" is not as important as getting the results in front of the listener. Most stations with news departments have the newsmen giving the news on the air. Why? Because it "sounds big"? To whom? To your competitors! The listener doesn't care who does the news, as long as the news itself is interesting and useful. I have had great success with assigning a skilled newsmen to gather the news on a flexible schedule--and letting the DJs deliver it on the air. The flexibility allows one newsmen to be as productive as three or four might be, doing it "the traditional way." It also gives you the benefit of hiring a really accomplished journalist--perhaps someone with newspaper experience--who might not sound very good on the air.

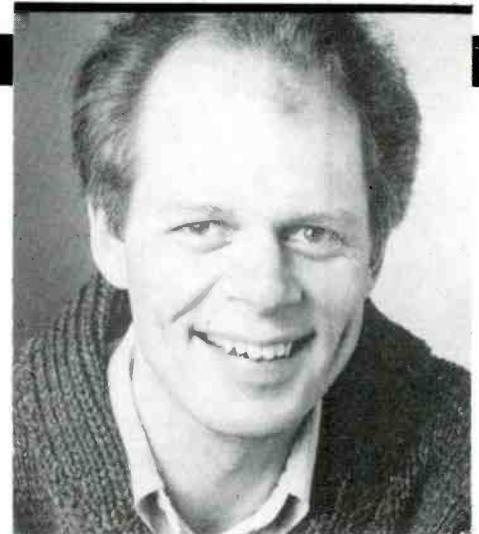

Another tradition states that newsmen must go to press conferences and civic meetings. But how can you, with a limited staff? You may discover that you can often get more and better information over the phone, taping an interview with a participant after the event is over. Even following up a story from the daily local paper can be productive, because newspapers seldom seem to pose all the questions that listeners would like to have answered. They say what happened at the meeting or press conference--but less often why, or what it means.

For stations that feel they cannot afford even one newsmen, there is a possibility of assigning some of the production time to a few regular news calls, actuality carting and lead writing. I even know of a station that has a police scanner in the programming area. Although I would not have thought that DJs could catch much of value while they're on the air, the station has found that the alert tone from the fire/rescue services allow them to catch reports of most auto accidents, which they can relay to listeners as traffic advisories with very little effort.

Another point worth discussion is whether it is really wise to limit newscasts to certain hours of the day, such as morning drive. There may be more interest in news then, but radio's immediacy allows constant updating of stories and introduction of new, breaking stories, even if just off the wire. Presenting the news at some hours and not others confuses listeners and diverts those who want news to stations that do carry it regularly. News should be presented hourly, with the length and depth varying, not the schedule.

Here's something else worth discussing: news on the hour. I suspect the main reason most stations do news on the hour is because of a study released by a news organization a few years ago suggesting that's when most people expect it. And why do most people expect it then? Because that's when most stations present it! If you want to set your station apart, schedule your news at :55--and your listeners will expect it then. You can enhance your news image by presenting better news, presenting it hourly and presenting it at a different time than your competition. ●

"The listener doesn't care who does the news, as long as the news itself is interesting and useful."

COUNTRY SUMMARY

Most of you have probably spent this week recuperating from one of last weekend's Seminars - either The Gavin Seminar For Media Professionals held here in San Francisco, or the Country Radio Seminar held in Nashville. Whichever Seminar you attended, we hope you had a wonderful time and had a safe trip home. For those of you who missed The Gavin Seminar For Media Professionals, here, as promised, are the winners of the Gavin Awards in the Country Category. The Air Talent Of The Year award went to Gerry House, KLAC-Los Angeles. Music Director Of The Year went to Joe Ladd, KIKK-Houston. The Program Director Of The Year was Bob Guerra, KZLA/KLAC-Los Angeles. The Country Station Of The Year was WUBE-Cincinnati. The Country Associate Promotion Director award went to Larry Hughes of MCA, and the Country National Promotion Director Of The Year was Doug Grau of Warner Bros. Congratulations to you all. You're quite a distinguished group.

Another group of winners that we'd like to congratulate are the Grammy winners in the Country category. Top Female Vocalist was

Reba McEntire, Top Male Vocalist was Ronnie Milsap, Top Duo Or Group was The Judds, and Country Song Of The Year was "Grandpa (Tell Me About The Good Old Days)"

The top half of our chart remains relatively stable, which indicates just how strong those records are. Last week's Certified - The Trio moves another 9 slots. Expect the Trio LP within the next few weeks. This week's Certified - The O'Kanes - register their best week yet, with a 72% Hit Factor and 6 more adds at KVBR-Brainerd, KNEW-Oakland/San Francisco, KLAC-Los Angeles, WUBE-Cincinnati, KYAK-Anchorage and WLLH-Lowell. Another good week for the Girls Next Door. Johnny Elmore at WARF-Jasper says it's one of his most requested. Conway Twitty is one of our Most Added for the second week in a row, and Dennis Edwards at KTDO-Toledo reports that his station is being flooded with "calls for Conway." Grammy winner for Best New Artist - Bruce Hornsby & The Range - makes its debut in Action Sides with 22 reports. Carl Brown at KSAN/KNEW-San Francisco/Oakland tells us that he's getting tremendous response to "Mandolin Rain", equal to any requests he's receiving for George Strait or for George Jones. Ron West at WKKN-Rockford is getting good response to O.B. McClinton's "Turn The Music On." Kurt Phillips at KMIT-Mitchell, SD is getting good phones for Kris Kristofferson. A couple of LP cuts we've heard about: Duke Hamilton at WUBE-Cincinnati has "Say When" by T. Graham Brown in a regular rotation, and Jeff Shakelford at KZMO-California, MO is getting great response to "Tell Me Something Bad About Tulsa" by Merle Haggard.

Due to instant phones from album play, MCA has re-released Patty Loveless's single "I Did", almost one year to the day it was first released.

Sick Call: R.J. Curtis at KZLA-Los Angeles was hospitalized for knee surgery on Tuesday the 24th. R.J. injured his knee while scoring the winning points in a very close basketball game last week. And Dennis Edwards at KTDO-Toledo, OR went in to the hospital on Thursday the 26th for the first of two knee operations. No bowling this week, guys, but giant get-well wishes go to you both. Talk to you next week. Lisa & Elma

BLACK HISTORY-- THE HOPE AND THE HEARTBREAK

SOMETIMES WE HAVE TO CHOOSE

Some two hundred years ago, the framers of our Constitution etched a vision of our country's destiny into a covenant that gave universal hope to those who yearned for a contract of social justice and true equality. Its ideals shone like a beacon throughout the years, igniting the passions of people in faraway lands--just as they inspired our own people in the nation where those principles were born.

The young people from various races and cultures in our audiences have grown up during a period in America's history when racial integration was not only a great goal, but almost a crusade. They, too, can make a difference--but they have to choose to make a difference, and we can influence them, by the words we say and the music we play.

Dr. Martin Luther King, whose birthday we celebrated in January, made it possible for many young blacks to become successful in mainstream America. In February, Black History Month gave us another opportunity to raise the consciousness of our listeners. Arming ourselves with information, determination and planning may be the best defense against the seemingly endless obstacles in employment and business. Access to information should be one of the goals not only of Black History Month--but every month.

Does this mean abandoning the formats that have been working so well? No, but it may mean that part of our show prep should contain items to spark the interest of some to change. In between tunes and on our news and public affairs programs, we can recall the lessons that history has taught--not only to preserve the legacy of hundreds of years of struggle, but to provide a bridge across adversity to a better life for us and future generations.

We must find ways to show that the social, economic and political progress of black Americans has been achieved, in most part, through small, incremental victories and only after decades of perseverance. And we owe it to those who have paid the price of struggling for freedom and dignity--some with their lives--not to repeat the mistakes of the past.

WHAT KIND OF FOOL?

Recently, many of our stations ran commercials for a popular flick that may have done much to fan the flames of foolishness about affirmative action--a favorite target of the foes of equal opportunity. The flick was "Soul Man," and, while it may have entertained some, it caused others to believe that a financially-strapped white student could get a full scholarship to Harvard Law School simply by pretending to be black. The film perpetuates the myth that the nation's top schools are willing to give minority applicants a "free ride." The truth is that minority undergraduate and graduate enrollment at such institutions has declined steadily over the past decade. To make matters worse, those blacks who are graduated from top schools often discover the job market does not welcome them with open arms, despite their impressive credentials.

Now, while most of us may not have much to say about the commercials placed on our air, we must be aware that there has been a vigorous campaign to influence people into thinking that minorities are being given "too much." Instead of regarding affirmative action as a just and necessary means of guaranteeing the constitutional rights of those who have been denied fair treatment and consideration, they perceive it as an unlawfully granted privilege at the expense of the rights of others.

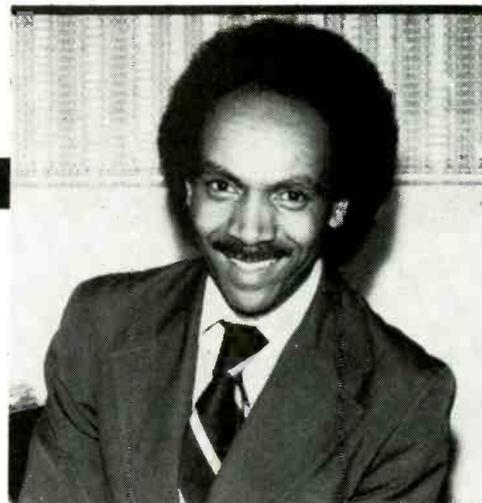

The federal government has accelerated its retreat from commitment to erasing the vestiges of discrimination. Many of our cities mirror the resurgence of racial hostility fostered by a national administration that has polluted the atmosphere for harmonious race relations. Private ambitions place thinly disguised appeals to fear and bigotry above public well-being.

Just as a healthy economic system is essential to the general well-being, a fair economic system is basic to the task of ameliorating the problems of the disadvantaged. Yet the mountainous federal debts that mortgage our future have not gone to create jobs and revive weakened industries. Too much has gone to buying military hardware and paying interest on borrowed money.

While it is true that public officials have a responsibility to create plans for economic growth, family stability, better schools and welfare reform, we, too have a role to play in the agenda of fairness. Communication and networking can work wonders to bring about the changes we seek.

Most of us know about communicating--we just need to do more of it. Networking is also an important asset. Many of us do it when we are out of work. Why not do the same thing for your listeners? How about a "Job Opportunity Hotline," sponsored by an image-conscious corporation like Coca-Cola, McDonald's, AT&T, Ford or Chrysler? Networking, in its many forms, can bring a significant advance to competitive careers, and is often a vital tool for business. However, it remains largely untapped by blacks and other minorities.

If history teaches us one thing, it is that there is no time to rest on the gains of yesterday. But, in looking back at the road already traveled, we realize that we can achieve any goal. All of us in the media, particularly in black and urban radio, should be committed to leaving a heritage for our children that they can be proud of and call on for continued inspiration. If we keep our head and hearts going in the right direction, we won't have to worry about our feet--because it's usually the detours where we stumble.

"Arming ourselves with information, determination and planning may be the best defense against the seemingly endless obstacles in employment and business. Access to information should be one of the goals not only of Black History Month--but every month."

History is to a nation what memory is to an individual. Hope is the anchor of the soul...the stimulus to action and the incentive for achievement. Together they can form ideals--sometimes beyond our reach, but never beyond our dreams. ●

THE INQUIRING PHOTOGRAPHER

Today's question:
What do you think of Miki Howard's new single, "Imagination"?

Steve B.— Dancer:
 "My partner told me about her first single, 'Come Share My Love,' which was smokin'! 'Imagination' knocked me out the first time I heard it."

Gwen M.— Keypunch Operator:
 "I'm into jazz music, so when I heard 'Imagination,' I liked it right away. Her vocal range is incredible!"

James O.— Accountant:
 "Miki Howard's album is what I play when I'm alone with someone special. 'Imagination' is by far my favorite song."

Carol H.— Asst. Producer:
 "Girlfriend was throwin' down on 'Imagination.' That song really blew me away!"

Simon G.— Chef:
 "I thought 'Come Share My Love' was great, but I love 'Imagination!' I didn't think people sang songs like that anymore."

Lisa W.— Real Estate Assessor:
 "I heard 'Imagination' on one of the quiet storm shows, and I fell in love with it. I bought the album the next day, and every cut is great!"

Reuben M.— High School Student:
 "'Come Share My Love' is the jam, but I really like 'Imagination.' It's not the kind of music I usually listen to, but, I don't know, her voice really grabbed me!"

THERE YOU HAVE IT—THE PEOPLE'S CHOICE!

What a crew!!! You guys were great! It was a thrill to see all of you not only attend the Celebrity Cocktail Party on Friday night, but show up to fill the room at the Urban Contemporary Format meeting at 10:00 AM on Saturday with your eyes in focus and your heads on straight enough to make it a great session. Thanks again to all who participated with your attendance! Our appreciation can't be expressed in mere words on this page. You're all wonderful! Instant requests for many of you for the newly added PRINCE single. Some of you surprised me and added it in your heavy rotation (sure). L.D. McCollum, XHRM-San Diego reports calls, Melvin Jones, KRNB-Memphis says he's had calls already, Tony Scott, WEKS-Atlanta reports them, Jay Riley, WNOO-Chattanooga says he's getting calls on that and the new PATRICE RUSHEN.

EYEBALL TO HIGHBALL

The Gavin Hollywood column comprehensive report on the Medium Professionals Seminar will appear in this space shortly. Our crack staff (ourselves) is working on it. What's more timely, however, is our commitment to public service, which this week centers on letting both of you know what you missed while seminar-ing with your Medium pals in San Francisco. You were so busy with Gary Owens, Larry King, Rock Trivia, The Big Awards ("I'd like to thank all the little people who made this possible..."), that you had no chance to keep up with Major News via TV or The National Enquirer. Here's what happened while you were in the St. Francis lobby buying (if you're in records) or accepting (if you're in radio) cocktails and/or highballs:

JOAN COLLINS' CASE CAME TO COURT. The 74-year-old Temptress of the Tube is suing her 19-year-old husband for divorce. HE wants alimony. SHE has her eyes on the Brat Pack...all of them! Sporting eleven pounds of eyeliner, the aging vixen flitted past the press without a word, while her teenaged spouse told newsies, "I still love Joan...but I hate Alexis."

INDIE GUY KEVIN McDONALD STOPPED OFF IN L.A. and took Mrs. Hollywood and ourselves to dinner, for which we're moderately grateful. It's just that when we asked for a menu suggestion, he recommended the Small Lettuce Salad, and then proceeded to order the Combination Filet Mignon-Lobster-Abalone Plate for himself and his lady, Jill. The check came to $198.37, of which OUR portion totalled something in the $2.98 area. Next time Kevin comes to town, we'll be tied up with Jhani Kaye.

"AMERIKA" HIT THE AIRWAVES. While you were reveling at the Country and Urban format breakouts, we watched the whole 96 hours of ABC's maxi-series. Correction: We watched the first few minutes of each episode, finding it a sensational substitute for Somnifex. But we admit the hype caused us to miss competing episodes of "Newhart," "Designing Women" and "Cheers." Our friends Larry, Darryl and Darryl taped the former for us. We'll negotiate if you care to lease.

ZAMFIR, MASTER OF THE PAN FLUTE released a new album. We saw on Joe Franklin's cable TV show, and rushed out to Tower to purchase the CD. Zamfir's done it again, with innovative versions of "Honky Tonk Woman," "In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida" and "Monday, Monday." The Tower clerk/nerd told us sales were ahead of the Springsteen package and approaching those for "Thriller." Leave us your answering machine number and we'll play you the lowlights.

IN A STUNT MANY ARE LABELING YANKTON-GATE, President Reagan sent all of Nancy's Blow Monkeys albums to that Dakota city's Big Band station. In the package was a bonus Dead Kennedy's video and a note from The First Beanpole complaining she'd been kept up too many nights listening to Ron and buddy Oliver North blasting out the walls of the Lincoln Bedroom.

TINSELTOWN ROCK LEGEND KMET changed its format to "All Sade...All the Time." Some wags are calling it Diet Pop. Station execs and Windham Hill fans are predicting the new format will "surprise a lot of people."

THE NEW KOOL & GANG LP IS OUT. We were fond of four full-fledged funk tracks, but disappointed at the omission of an extended version of "Nothing Does It Like The Bull."

MICK "DOGBREATH" BELKER of the Hill Street station is penning a training manual for big-city fuzz, with tips on growling, calling alleged perps "hairball" before reading them their rights, and exchanging matzo ball soup recipes with mothers from Brooklyn. A similar tome, Bill Cosby's "Fatherhood," hit number one on the New York Times bestseller list. The book contains advice on what it takes to be a warm and understanding pop from an actor who plays a warm and understanding pop on TV.

SAN DIEGO CAN EXPECT A MAJOR EARTHQUAKE. The seismologists/psychics who predict these things say there's a better than one-in-10 chance of one within five years. Gene Knight and Bobby Rich of B100 won't like those odds and will consider moving to YOUR market, bringing B100's numbers with them. Their numbers are big.

GAS LINES ARE EXPECTED TO RETURN, with the projection of another oil crunch. We welcome the news. Gas lines are a great way to make new and strange friends, hear the entire Rick Dees program, catch up on Enquirers and write 12 Gavin Hollywood columns in advance. Then again, maybe you won't welcome the gas lines. You send thank-you notes when we miss a week!

Speaking of weeks...have a good one. ■

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Last month, speaking before a group of Canadian business people in Vancouver, I mentioned that effective organizations treat everyone with respect "from the janitor to the executive." During a break, one manager came to chat with me and noted that my phrasing seemed to imply that a janitor's work is "low" and perhaps even unimportant. I agreed with his criticism. Even though I had been trying to make a benign point, my choice of words had a subtle, albeit unintended, bias.

Words have a great deal of impact. Think about it: We call people "superiors" and "subordinates." A manager talks about "my people." What does that imply? You may say, "Not much--big deal," but my research suggests it may be a big deal. Psychologically, our words carry a big symbolic message. If I am your "superior" and you are my "subordinate," then both you and I can easily get caught up in accepting--or fighting--the psychological message implied by those terms. What is that message? Is it that one person is better, higher, more important? In the case of "my people," is it that the manager "owns" the people who work "under" (another word!) him or her?

How about this one: "manager" and "worker." Does that imply that managers don't work? Or that workers can't manage? Accepting those messages is tantamount to accepting low productivity. What about the notion that you work "for" me, rather than "with" me. Which phrase encourages initiative and teamwork? Then there are those lovely labels we give people: "temps," "hourlies" and "nonexempts"--not exactly the kind of words to encourage team spirit. Same with "management" and "labor" or "management" and "union." I'm not suggesting we ignore legal contracts, but when we continue to think and talk in those terms, we're conceding that teamwork has lost out to an "us-versus-them" mentality.

Words are tools. That's why some very successful and profitable firms are paying careful attention to the words they use to describe people. They discourage words like those I've cited above, and they're going even further. One progressive company president recently wrote me that he is eliminating the word "employee" from the firm's vocabulary. He's personally setting an example by paying ten dollars cash to anyone overhearing him use the dreaded "E-word." He's had to fork over quite a bit of money, but he--and others--are finally getting the idea. By the way, everyone in the company is now labeled "team member." Other progressive companies call everyone "associate"--even on business cards. (Are you surprised that some of the best-run companies give everyone business cards?) And as long as we're talking about "What's in a name?" I've been impressed with the number of successful companies where everyone--regardless of title or rank--is on a first-name basis. That says something, too.

Think about the words you use. You don't have to eliminate the organizational hierarchy and chain of command (although we've found that managers who are obsessed with those things are not very effective). However, you may want to consider doing away with words and labels that demean others and reduce the feeling of "we"--the team spirit that is so essential for success in the business world.

Occasionally, I work with managers of large hospital systems. In one, a housekeeper asserted that everyone is on a first-name basis, even with physicians: "He calls me John--I call him Doctor." If we're going to start making changes in organizations, that hospital would be a good place to start. ●

"Words are tools. That's why some very successful and profitable firms are paying careful attention to the words they use to describe people."

DAVE SHOLIN'S

Personal Picks — SINGLES

CUTTING CREW - (I Just) Died In Your Arms (Virgin) Label's debut release in The States is one that'll be remembered as spectacular. Those who complain that radio doesn't give unknown bands a shot should check the out-the-box adds on this one. It's all in the grooves.

THE STRANGLERS - Always The Sun (Epic) From the moment it came blasting out of Ron's office about a month ago, it's been a favorite track of mine. All too often a group with an "unusual" name gets passed over. I hope that's not the case. Do yourself a favor and listen before you make a judgment.

BREAKFAST CLUB - Right On Track (MCA) Ever since I got a hold of an advance cassette, I've been playing it for anybody who'd listen. All the right elements are in place, including a hot name for the band. Co-writer and group member Stephen Bray helped with "Like A Virgin," "Into The Groove" and "True Blue," and now it's time to get himself on track. Producer Jimmy Iovine does it again. (Note: Local mix is the strong side.)

COREY HART - Dancin' With My Mirror (EMI America) A man never short on ideas comes up with another neat concept. Good to hear Corey pick up the tempo, all leading to a chorus that's hard to resist.

POISON - Talk Dirty To Me (Capitol) Looking for that teen record to replace The Beastie Boys? Here it is! Already pulling response in several areas.

RON FELL'S

Personal Picks — ALBUMS

CUTTING CREW - "Broadcast" (Virgin) An auspicious debut for this new label in the U.S. The lead single (I Just) Died In Your Arms, is already proving to be a popular track with Album Radio and Top 40. And, while the first cut may be the deepest, a ballad, I've Been In Love Before, will smooth out the edge created by their otherwise powerful presentation. A number of tracks, including the aforementioned, splash a dab of almost symphonic effects, such as cello on the single. The band exhibits strong, clean vocals with muscular, but not muscle-bound, arrangements.
