WHITNEY WOWS THE CRITICS

"Whitney marks graduation day for the prom queen of soul. The new album showcases a Whitney Houston who sings bolder, blacker, badder. Throughout the album, the range and vocal glamour displayed offer testimony that the girl has grown up." – Time Magazine

"Relax, everybody. The first album was no fluke. You have to go back to Sinatra and Streisand to find comparisons for a pop singer emerging so young with such rare talent and style. The album is a thoroughgoing delight." – People Magazine

"A truly awesome album. You have to look long and far to find a better voice in pop music than Whitney Houston's." – Evening Sun, Baltimore, MD

"A lot of thought and care has gone into Whitney. Fortunately, a lot of voice also has gone into it and that's why it will be no letdown for the multimillions who bought the first one." – New York Daily News

Whitney

Her acclaimed second album. Includes the smash hits, "I Wanna Dance With Somebody (Who Loves Me)," "Didn't We Almost Have It All," and 9 more inspired performances.

"Whitney Houston has something for everybody. She always did. And it is, indeed, the best. Four stars, and worth the wait. Here comes 'Whitney's Greatest Hits, Volume Two.'" – The New York Post

"Unlike some of our contemporary soul singers who hide behind the music and the beat, Whitney Houston is pure voice and her follow up LP proves it. It's just as good as her first and probably even better. On the scale of 1 to 10 this LP rates 9.99." – Seattle Medium

"Whitney's virtuosity and potential are as evident as ever, and her voice has a greater richness than before. Whitney knows all the right moves – when to soar, when to whisper and, on a line like 'I like the animal way you move,' when to growl." – Newsweek

"Her voice takes us to places we know and to places we might want to forget, and to places we dream about." – Associated Press

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Go up and down the radio dial and you'll hear jocks reading liners, promoting the latest giveaway, doing a phoner and sometimes selling the music. But selling the music means more than just spotlighting a few hot titles and artists coming up in the next twenty or thirty minutes. The better you know your product and believe in it, the better you'll be able to sell it. Regular reminders to the staff about keeping the audience excited about the music, especially the newer titles, always helps. PD's or MD's should issue weekly music memos that give up-to-date information on new artists and songs. Urge your air talent to read The Gavin artist interviews, Bio-Feedback, and information in other trades', general audience publications. Listeners expect their favorite personalities to be "experts" on the music they play and give them a reason to want to hear that next new track. Seems like a good investment for programming that accounts for about 85% of your airtime.

With ABC'S song about him nearing Top Ten status, SMOKEY ROBINSON isn't far behind. His second hit of 1987 takes its best HIT FACTOR move yet, going from 29% to 55%. Noteworthy gains at WJET 23-18, B94 13-9, Z94 21-16, WMJQ 27-21, Q105 20-16, WPST 26-20, 106RTB 30-23, Z95.5 20-15, KCLD 27-20, WIZM 14-10, KKEZ 22-17, K106 22-17, Y108 27-19, KFMV 21-15, FM104 30-23, KIIS 22-15, KAGO 20-14, etc.

Adds still coming in on THE FAT BOYS AND THE BEACH BOYS. Even those who've resisted playing this summertime novelty winner admit they get phenomenal response. Though teens dominate the requests, more than a few programmers are expressing surprise about daytime calls from adults at work asking to hear it. Top five for Dan Upton and Sharon LePere KITY, Shawn Demory KGGI, Kevin Kahl and Barry Carpenter KEWB, Bill Stairs and Kevin Carter KMGX, Pat Morgan KZOR, Tony Waitekus WCIL, Rick Gillette and Mark Jackson WHYT, Bob Case Z93, Bill Sellars WYZZ, Roger Gaither WKQB/FM, etc.

A quick move from CHARTBOUND to CERTIFIED for FLEETWOOD MAC. No surprise with most Top 40 programmers echoing the belief that this is the strongest track from the LP. Over 200 reports and back to back weeks in the MOST ADDED category. Enters the Top Thirty at WYDD and B94 Pittsburgh, WLKI Angola, WIFC Wausau, KATD San Jose/Los Gatos, KGWY Gillette, KKEG Fayetteville, KLIK Davenport, WDNS Bowling Green, etc.

It's looking like three in a row for EXPOSE, who are close to going over the 200 report mark. Early believer KMEL takes it 15-11 with adds at Z94 Boston, WYAV Myrtle Beach, WAFX Bangor, 100KHI Ocean City, KKYK Little Rock, WPFR Terre Haute, KWSS San Jose, KYVA Billings, KMOK Lewiston, etc.

As expected, a fast takeoff for THE CARS. Lots of comments about how good this one sounds on the air. Adds include KIIS, KZLS, KDWZ, KIXS, 92X, BAM99, WBBQ, WDJX, KYYY, KJEZ, CKOI, KC101, FM96, WPDZ, WSPK, KQEU, KITI, KVYN, KXFM, KRQK, KHTZ, K-STAR, KNIN, KWTX, etc. Debuts #22 for Chuck Beck and Buzz Bennett at Y95 Dallas.

LEVERT, our crossover pick on July 24th, is doing just that. This former Number One URBAN CONTEMPORARY winner now has a 10% Top 40 HIT FACTOR and pulls in a great airplay week with 44 adds. Steve Kingston and Scott Shannon debut it #19 at Z100 New York with other strong chart action at PWR 99.7 31-25, B93/FM 26-19, 92X 30-17, WTNZ 31-19, Z95.5 30-21, Y106 28-23, WAVA debut #30, WAAL debut #22, etc.

Make way for KENNY G in the CHARTBOUND arena by next week. First two weeks out give him more than 100 reports with, this week's new airplay topping week number one. New on Y95 Dallas, K100 Chico, KSND

Eugene, KUBE Seattle, Z93 Atlanta, G105 Durham/Raleigh, WAIL Key West, KJQ Ogden/ Salt Lake City, KWNZ and KHTZ Reno, B94 and WYDD Pittsburgh, etc.

At this stage an 11% HIT FACTOR is very healthy for CURIOSITY KILLED THE CAT. Having early success for Dena Yasner at 95XXX 27-21, Mike O'Connor and Bob Wise WNKS/FM 28-21, Richard Sands and Steve Masters LIVE 105 4-1, Keith Naftaly and Kevin Weatherly KMEL 2-2, Mark Bolke and Dom Testa Y108 29-21, Lou Simon and Evan Lake KCPX 23-13, etc. Looks big where it gets played.

TIFFANY, last week's RECORD TO WATCH, more than doubles in total reports, with adds at Y95 Dallas, KCPW Kansas City, KFIV Modesto, KPLZ Seattle, Z104 Madison, KDWB Minneapolis, WDJX Louisville, HOT 103 New York, FM96 Valdosta, Q102 Cincinnati, WANS Greenville, 92X Columbus, KIIS Los Angeles, etc.

Though PolyGram's David Leach assures me BON JOVI'S "Edge Of A Broken Heart" will not be released as a single, it continues to do well and pull in key airplay. Debuts #15 at K104, #17 at KQID, #19 KQHT, #22 KBEQ, with adds at KZZK, WZOK, KZOU, K100, KMEL, KKXX, WKTI, WNCI, HOT 105, JLK/FM, Q102, KNOE, KCIL, etc.

Dance sensation NOEL is moving out of test rotation in several markets and pulling good response. Heads into the Top 10 at Z100 12-10, with HOT 103 holding it at number 2. Big in Miami also with POWER 96 and HOT 105 charting it #2 and Y100 #9. On at KZZP, POWER 92, HOT I-94, KITY, WXKS, BLU92, etc. New on KMEL, WRCK, KVYN, WWHB, etc.

A reminder to those who report on Mondays that we will be accepting reports Friday, September 4th, due to the Labor Day holiday.

A GIANTS SUCCESS

Hummmm-baby! Gavin's Day at Candlestick featured a see-saw win by the Giants and a great turnout by the cream of local and not-so-local industry All-Stars. Not pictured, but definitely there: Motown veteran Bruce Hix, the one attendee strong enough to hoist a beer--along with the vendor, and Kimberly Hughes, who, since becoming RCA's Northern California rep, has witnessed the Giants' pennant run. Her offices are near Candlestick, but she assures us she's working hard every day.

1) Busting humps at the 'Stick are (from left) KYUU's Annette Lai, KMEL PD Keith Naftaly, KMEL Kevin Weatherly and Gavin's Keith Zimmerman.

2) Is that "BAD" as in Michael, Big Audio or Giants? From left: Gavin's Dave Sholin, Chryalis Giants fan Jan Tiefeld, Shelley Rae Adams of KWSS-San Jose and Geffen's David Newmark.

3) Beantowners unite! Fenway fanatic/Repriser Marc Ratner, Gavin's Ron Fell, Beaner/Live105 MD Steve Masters, Gavin Red Soxer Peter Standish and Gavin stand-up comic-in-resident Bob Galliani.

5) Can you find the six glasses in this picture? From left: Capitol's "Champagne Ray" Tusken and "Progressive Harry" Levy with Gavin's Ron Fell, Chrysalis-NY's Daniel Glass and KMEL's Kevin Weatherly.

6) Tailgators Beverly Stevens from Warners, Ron Fell, Connie Lindell of KDON-Salinas and Elektra's Michelle Meisner.

7) The Duke with KWSS's Robin Kipps Silva, joined by Orioles faithful Bob Catania of Island and yet another Red Sox diehard, Joe "Veggie" Ianello from Atlantic-NYC.

8) There's one in every crowd--a Yankees fan, that is. From left: PolyGram's Becky West, KWSS's Robin Kipps Silva, Elektra's Michelle Meisner, Gavin's Kent Zimmerman, Arista-NYC lookalike Sean Coakley, KKCX's Lorraine Meyer and Arista's Jay "Zeke" Ziskrout.

9) KFIV/FM-Modesto PD Carey Edwards and MD Ric Sanders (right) with our Duke in the middle.

MIAMI'S HOT105 ALSO UP FOR GRABS? WYDD AND WRIF SOLD

Gateway Broadcasting has agreed to sell WYDD-Pittsburgh to a California-based group of religious stations, Salem Media. The deal, subject to FCC approval, includes WKPA/AM, licensed to suburban New Kensington. Salem refuses to comment on the prospects for the station's Top 40 format, but staffers believe it doesn't stand a prayer.

Detroit rocker WRIF has joined Taft Broadcasting's expanding stable of album stations. The onetime ABC O&O has spent the last few years with cash-poor Silver Star. "We have the management expertise to bring WRIF to a new level of audience delivery," said Taft Radio Group President Carl Wagner in announcing the buy. "Its Album format is one with which Taft has had a great deal of success. And, like many of our stations, WRIF has a long history of being one of the leading rock stations in the country." The only potential hangup here is whether the FCC will listen to complaints from a self-styled Decency In Broadcasting group over the Bob & Tom morning show on co-owned WFBQ-Indianapolis.

EZ Communications is reportedly asking upwards of $20 million for WHQT-Miami, which it bought for $3.6 million in 1983. HOT105 currently occupies the show position in Miami's Urban/Top 40 horserace. EZ sold WEZS-Richmond, Virginia, to Eastern Broadcasting for $16 million earlier this month, but isn't communicating about any further deals.

THE WINNERS

Dale Taylor says proudly that Y104-Hattiesburg, MS, is up from fourth to first in the latest Birches, with a 16.1 share of 12+ listeners ... Acting PD Rick Alan reports that for the first time in station history, KKEG-Fayetteville, AR, came out #1 among adults 18-34 in the Spring ARBs ... WAFB-Milford, DE, was named top Radio Station in a "Best of Delaware" poll by Delaware Today magazine. Says MD Tim Brough, "The article appeared without our knowledge of their survey. We're quite proud!"

NBC/WW1 MERGER COSTS JOBS

PINK SLIPS FLY AT 30 ROCK

"An important and historic day" is how Westwood One head Norm Pattiz described his takeover of the NBC Radio Networks. "We go forward with unique strengths forged from an alliance of a young and aggressive radio operation and the network that started an entire industry over 60 years ago." Unfortunately, as many as 50 NBC employees, most of them in news and sales, got only a golden handshake out of the deal. Among the casualties: Willard Lockridge, VP/GM of The Source youth net, whose job was taken by former network sales chief Steven Soule. NBC Radio offices in Washington and Burbank were closed and their responsibilities transferred to local Mutual Broadcasting facilities, which Westwood acquired in December, '85. NBC Radio President Randy Bongarten provided this ironic note in his official announcement: "I am sure this will be a mutually beneficial relationship."

WHBT PD DEPARTS FOR WMIL KIPPER MCGEE & DOLLY

WHBT-Milwaukee PD Kipper McGee skips crosstown to the Operations Director's chair at Sundance Communications Country powerhouse WMIL. McGee brought the expertise he gained at WZOK-Rockford and B97-New Orleans to help launch HEART-BEAT101 earlier this year, but the Racine-based Top 40 has so far failed to match its earlier performance as rocker WRKR. WMIL, meanwhile, has climbed like Paul Molitor's batting average since gaining a format monopoly last January. "This is the fastest I've ever gone from a two-share to a seven!" said McGee. "This move is a real joy. We've got young, aggressive management and an in-town owner who's committed to winning." VP/GM Brian Ongaro says McGee's Top 40 background was no hindrance. "The music, you can pick up," he says. "What Kipper brings is an attention to programming details and follow-through. Plus he has a flair for promotions." McGee's old PD spot at WHBT goes to R.J. Harris, the WYNY-New York vet who arrived to take mornings earlier this year.

The scene was RCA's first label-wide convention in more than five years, held August 20-22 at Arrowwood Convention Center in Westchester, NY. More than 120 staffers from across the country were treated to performances by Jonathan Butler, Buster Poindexter, Foster & Lloyd and several other RCA artists.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

By 1995, one out of three food dollars in the U.S. will be spent on health-oriented edibles. Market researchers Frost & Sullivan estimate low-cal craze will generate a fat $98 billion in sales, with high-fiber foods setting the pace.

While more than half of the Baby Boom generation claims to be watching their intake of sweets and fats, three out of five are overweight.

In the last decade, white bread consumption has slipped an average of three percent annually. At the same time, per-capita consumption of wheat and multi-grain breads has gone up an average of 5.1 percent annually.

Californians consume 40 percent of the country's bottled water. Texas, New York, Illinois and Maryland are next.

ALEXANDER O'NEAL

LIVING IN REAL TYME

by Betty Hollars

Five years after Prince ejected him as lead singer of a group which went on to become The Time, Alexander O'Neal is crying...all the way to the bank. With a crossover hit in "Fake" and a solo contract with Clarence Avant's Tabu Records, O'Neal is looking like one of the next big stars to emerge from the surprising musical mecca of the Twin Cities.

From the time O'Neal moved to Minneapolis in 1975, music was his life. As lead singer in several local groups, he attracted the attention of Morris Day. Day invited him to join Flyte Tyme, which he fronted until Prince arrived on the scene, appointed Day as the lead singer and shortened the group's name.

Flyte Tyme endured, however, as the name of a production company founded by legendary producers Terry Lewis and Jimmy Jam. What O'Neal calls the "Flyte Tyme family" of Minneapolis artists like Cherelle, Jellybean Johnson, Jerome Benton and Lisa Keith kept O'Neal going through a venture as a rock artist (covering Def Leppard and the Rolling Stones!) to his first big hit, a 1985 duet with Cherelle, "Saturday Love." We caught up with O'Neal in New York, shortly before he was to depart for London, and asked him about the Minneapolis mystique.

the GAVIN REPORT/August 28, 1987

BETTY HOLLARS: Were you raised in the area?

ALEXANDER O'NEAL: No. I was born and raised in Natchez. My family moved to Chicago—which we called “New Mississippi” because so many black people in Chicago are from there. I worked there on the loading docks for about a year or so and then moved to Minneapolis. I had a cousin there and called him and said I wanted to see what was happening. That night I was on a Greyhound bus. I’ve been there off and on ever since.

BH: Was it the musical scene that attracted you?

AO: Minneapolis has always been a hotbed for music. It’s a very cold place—it’s like being placed in a vacuum, with a lot of pressure. We’ve had the opportunity to expand and expound on our music, and I feel it’s our time right now. A lot of areas are like that: Ohio had The Ohio Players, The Deele, Dazz Band. There was the Motown sound out of Detroit, and Stax in Memphis. I feel this is our era, just like they had theirs, and I hope we take it as far as we can.

BH: How did you link up with Flyte Tyme?

AO: I was performing with a group called Enterprise. Morris Day was the drummer and I was lead singer. The guy who basically owned the group decided to disperse the band. We were all without jobs. Flyte Tyme was pretty much in the regrouping stages, and they contacted me to be their lead vocalist. Flyte Tyme was definitely the number-one black group in the Twin Cities—it was a great opportunity for me, because as popular as they were, they would have found somebody anyway. By the grace of God, it happened to be me!

BH: Did you know each other beforehand?

AO: We’d know of each other across the city—there’d always been friendly competition (laughs). We all came out of the chittlin’ circuit of Minneapolis, and a lot of good things have come from it. I’m proud of that.

BH: And that was when you met Jam and Lewis. How do they compare today to the guys you knew back in the mid-’70s?

AO: I don’t think success has changed them. Jam and Lewis have always been very down-to-earth people. That’s been one of the keys to their success. They don’t try to write music for any particular reason—like a crossover reason—they just write good music, and they write from the heart. They’re coping with success quite well because neither one of them has any vices—none whatsoever! I think the only vice they have is music. That certainly enables them to really be great creators. A lot of people ask when it’s going to end—“When are they going to turn out like a lot of other producers, the ones who have one sound?” Jam and Lewis can keep coming out with album after album of sounds that are different. They take from what the artist already has to offer and build on it. They’re really good brothers.

BH: I understand your album was delayed slightly because of their hectic schedule.

AO: They were working on several projects they’d already committed to before mine. I think good things come to those who wait. I didn’t want to alienate myself from the Flyte Tyme family by having another producer, when they’d already committed to doing it. I knew it would get done. It would just be a matter of time.

BH: They were winning awards all during this time, too—video awards, Grammy awards—and everyone expected them to appear at every award show.

AO: Right. I feel fortunate to have had the first album released after those guys enjoyed enormous success. I’m very thankful to have this opportunity.

BH: If you had not been able to get Jam and Lewis, were there any other producers you considered using?

AO: Quincy Jones. He’s probably number one or two on my list of innovators. He’s a phenomenal producer. I’m in the Flyte Tyme family, though. I sing the songs, I express them, and those guys write them. We have something that works—and I’m sure you’ve heard the old saying, “If it ain’t broke, don’t fix it.”

BH: We recently ran an interview with Nerada Michael Walden in which he described Jimmy Jam as the sweet, melodic contributor and Terry Lewis as the raw, athletic side of their sound. I see they’ve written almost everything on your current album, so you should know. Would you describe them that way?

AO: That's a fair analysis. What Terry brings to the group is a vocal innovation. He sings on some of the cuts on my album and does a lot of drum machine programming, a lot of bass stuff. Terry would be pretty much the rawer of the two. Jam adds the spice.

BH: Do you feel you left your mark on The Time?

AO: It was always Morris Day's project. He brought me in because he and I were very good friends. He decided to give me a break. That didn't work out through several meetings and discussions with Prince. I was very much concerned about my future. I've always been a pretty confident person and I knew it would happen for me one day. But I do understand Prince a lot more from that experience. It was very devastating and traumatic to all of a sudden to be ousted from the project, and then see the guys from Flyte Time getting the nod. I'm just glad all of that is water under the bridge right now. Everybody who came out of that particular mold are enjoying their own success in one way or another.

Sometime it takes a cold slap in the face like that to really make you live up to your true potential. It got MY attention, that's for sure!

BH: Your split was actually because you were going to be an individual rather than part of a group?

AO: That must have been my destiny. At this stage in my career. That's the way I would look at it.

BH: So there are no hard feelings?

AO: Maybe there were hard feelings on my part at that time. You can't fault guys for pursuing success in their own way. It was a very good move from a musician's point of view because musicians and vocalists have totally different paths in life. It's more difficult for a musician to get a good deal from a record company than it is for a good vocalist. I'm very confident, and sometimes people can mistake confidence for arrogance and conceit, but I felt that through that whole ordeal. It was like this: Prince did what he had to do, and I did what I had to do. Certainly I hold no hard feelings or animosity now--none whatsoever--against Prince or anyone. Those things have long since been resolved, and I feel Prince is a genius in his own time. I have the highest respect for him and I think he has the utmost respect for Alexander O'Neal.

BH: Before we touch on the new album, I want to deal a little with the past. Who were The Mystics?

AO: (laughs) The Mystics were a very popular local group in the Twin Cities. They spawned Rockie Robbins, a singer who was on the scene for a while. After he left the group, I performed with them. It was a great experience because I learned about the business aspect of the music industry, that there was more to it than just singing--way more! A guy by the name of Butch Stokes told me when I joined the group, "You're a hotdog now, but you'll learn one day when you get your own group." I never thought about that until I got my own group. Then I realized being a star is a responsibility--it's not just an option. A lot of people depend on you.

BH: And then you formed a rock and roll band?

AO: (laughs) That's right! We did tunes by Billy Squier, The Rolling Stones, Def Leppard and several other groups like that. That came about right after the Flyte Tyme went on to become The Time. I had this premonition in my head that prejudice was a real strong thing in the Minneapolis/St. Paul scene, and I wanted to see to what degree it existed. We were always barred from white clubs because we lived in a totally white environment. We would always get told we couldn't play in the clubs because our music format was not conducive. I decided to put together this rock and roll group and put all that to rest. What I really found out was that prejudice

Patty" was. We never intended to single out any particular person or group of people...but if the shoe fits, wear it!

BH: How does the song go, "You say you cut your hair but I don't see no hair on the floor"?

AO: A lot of women tend to do fake things to enhance their appearance.

BH: And to get attention?

AO: Or to get attention--I was trying to be nice! (laughs) They get tired of the hair weaves or the wigs or whatever--all of a sudden they're back to the real deal. They say they got it cut, but we say we don't see no hair on the floor. What happened? It's all "Fake."

BH: "Never Knew Love Like This," your duet with Cherrelle on the new LP, is an incredible cut.

AO: When Cherrelle and I work together, I feel like it's magic. Many things happen off the top of our heads. Jam and Lewis brought us together, along with Tabu Records and Mr. Clarence Avant. It was a truly natural thing--I enjoy working with Cherrelle, we're the best of friends. With because we have a hold on something a lot of other communities would like to have. We don't want to blow it by getting the big head (laughs). We're a very closely knit community--everybody knows everybody else in music. If you've been paying your dues and have something to offer, people come out of there and embark on the national music scene. And you go out there with the people you know

BH: Can you tell us what the next single is going to be?

AO: I wish I knew! CBS is probably going to pick the next single because they've gotten more involved with my career. I hope the next single will be "The Lovers." That's my favorite song on the album. But I remember talking to a radio guy one time, and he told me: "Just close your eyes and pick one." I'll be very pleased with whatever single they pick,

BH: Whose decision was it to make "Fake" the first single?

AO: I think it was just such an automatic. Everybody heard "Fake" and said, "That's the first single!"

BH: Clarence Avant is listed on your new album as executive producer. Can he get tough when he needs to?

AO: Well, he's wonderful, and he can get tough in a sweet way! He's constantly trying to keep me in check, not letting me get a big head. (laughs) He feels I have a great career ahead of me and I feel the same way. We disagree on certain things, but Clarence has been in the business for so long and I'm at the stage right now in my career where I've tried it my way and it didn't work. Now I try it Clarence's way. His way has been working great, and he's a great guy--period. He really cares about his artists, which is phenomenal. He's not just in it for the money. He's a very busy man, very influential and involved in many other things that have nothing to do with music. I think it's a great asset to have him involved with my career.

BH: What about London? I hear you're a favorite there. How did that happen?

AO: (laughs) I don't know. I work with a booking agent in New York, and I expressed to him that I really wanted to go to Europe. I got the opportunity to go there with Cherrelle, and she and I enjoyed a large amount of success. Last year I was voted the number-one male vocalist in the U.K., and also a gold album from the U.K. To me, the people in Britain are much more receptive and open. They don't put titles on you, and they don't format you. I've been there now a few times and I'm beginning to feel like I'm at home there.

BH: The new album's liner notes mention Jellybean Johnson and Jerome Benton. Is Jerome the character he seems to be to the public?

AO: The character he portrays is very much an energetic person. Jerome is both energetic and genuine, too. That comes out in his character. He's a very nice, very for-real, down-to-earth individual. I've existed in many of facets of life. But club owners were more into green power. It wasn't black power or white power--it was who could make the till jump. It was a great experience. I had the opportunity to take my rock and roll energy and combine it with my R&B thing, and I still harbor that today. My show on stage today is very high-energy because of it.

"Fake" was always designed to be a fun song. It's very much a dance song, but as we got farther into the project, we found the lyrical contents began to get very serious.

BH: And then 1985 brought "Saturday Love." How did that come about?

AO: (sighs) Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis! (laughs) Ironic as it may seem, I was riding my bicycle one day and stopped by the studio to chitchat. They said, "Great! We're glad you came by--this is the lead line to 'Saturday Love'--go do it!" It was very spontaneous. All my parts came pretty much straight off the top of my head. It was really great to be able to do it that way. After coming from a pretty much contrived venture, this was pretty nice.

BH: Who's the "Fake" you refer to in the current single?

AO: There was no one in mind. "Fake" was always designed to be a fun song. It's an undeniable groove--very much a dance song--but as we got farther into the project, we found the lyrical contents began to get very serious. So we backed off explaining to everyone who "Patty

"Saturday Love," she gave me a great opportunity to expand my musical career. I think we found something that worked, and we'll try to stick with it and take it as far as we can take it.

BH: How do you compare "Saturday Love" and "Never Knew Love Like This"?

AO: "Saturday Love" was a great song. One of my most rewarding feelings was that parents have told me their young kids have learned the days of the week from that song! That's kinda nice. In comparing it to "Never Knew Love Like This," I feel this new one is stronger because it's more sophisticated funk. We're looking for big things from that particular song. Hopefully, it will happen.

BH: Lisa Keith, who's on Herb Alpert's current single, also does background vocals on several cuts on your album.

AO: Lisa has been around the Minneapolis music scene for quite some time. She's pretty much an in-house background vocalist for the Flyte Tyme family. She sings on a lot of the things that come through there. She's a great vocalist, and I believe the plan is to eventually put her out on her own.

BH: I'm getting the impression that the Minneapolis music scene people take care of their own? Is it true?

AO: That's very much the case. We try to

AUDIO PROCESSING AND CLICK TUNING

I've received a letter from a future PD in Illinois asking what "audio processing" does: "I realize that different formats have different requirements. How does a flame-throwin', hot rockin' FM get the sound that jumps off the spectrum? How does the smooth, easy A/C get the crisp highs and lows? What about the use of reverb?"

Audio processing started out simply by employing level-control devices in an audio chain, and until a decade ago, the only development of this concept had been in faster, cleaner, less distortion-prone limiting and compression. Peak-switching was introduced for AM to keep the higher peak of an asymmetrical waveform on the positive side of the transmitter wave cycle, where higher modulation (to 124%) is permitted.

FM posed special problems because of the 75-microsecond pre-emphasis curve that was part of the FCC standard. As FM stations increased their modulation to sound louder, the treble boost really was hard to control without audio distortion—or overmodulation. The pioneer in audio processing was consulting engineer George Frese, still busy from his home base of Wenatchee, Washington. Nearly 30 years ago, his early efforts were incorporated into the hand-built Frese Audio Pilot—a sort of "audio computer" which even today performs some tasks that no other processing device does. They employed the first use of such common techniques today as gating, clipping, equalization, and positive-peak switching. Since then, the advent of digital devices and the work of the Orban, Aphex and CRL companies created an explosion of developments in recent years.

The purpose of audio processing is to convey the sound of the station to the listener as consistently in volume and as clearly in sound as possible. Most stations like to appear loud on the dial, which means using compression techniques—reducing the ratio between the highest and the average audio peaks with a minimum of undesired artifacts like "pumping," "squeezed" or distorted sound.

This is done not only through level control (the compressor narrows the ratio of soft sound to loud sound—"dynamic range"—and the peak limiter keeps the compressed audio from exceeding a certain level), but also through such other processes as equalization. Equalization, which works like several tone controls working on specific pieces of the audio range, can be "fixed" (set it and forget it—all sound is treated in the same way), or "dynamic"—which splits the sound into three or more "bands," and uses compression on each, so that the varying tonal balance of the transmitted sound is automatically shaped to come out with approximately the same bass, midrange clarity, and treble, regardless of how unbalanced the sound might have been going in.

Stations that want to sound strident and exciting usually drive their processing gear into a bit of distortion, or else "clip" the output—flattening the tops of the waves, and creating an "edge" of distortion. Stations that want to sound clean usually back off the processing, and allow a bit more dynamic range to minimize distortion.

Some very specialized goodies can be added to the audio chain to achieve special effects. Years ago, stations used reverb with tape loops or devices with springs, but today it is done digitally. And although I have not yet tried one, I have heard good things about the newly-improved Aphex Aural Exciter, which restores some of the normal harmonics that audio chains tend to remove. Any equipment that affects the sound of a station intentionally, and to achieve an effect, is "audio processing." And I'd like to add that with the constantly-improving quality of audio equipment, the public is becoming more and more educated to "good sound." Both AM and FM stations risk audience fatigue and shorter listening spans if the sound coming out of the radio is distorted!

I also have a letter from Michael Purdy, who writes from Seattle, where he is now working part-time as "Michael Richards" at KIXI-FM: "A short while back, I ran across an article in one of the trades about a so-called 'linear radio dial'. As I recall, it seemed so ridiculous to me at the time that I dismissed the idea, and didn't give it much thought until recently. But I got to thinking about television, and how most people probably couldn't tell you which stations are UHF and which are VHF. Suppose, over a period of time, we gradually phase out 'frequencies' in favor of simple channel numbers for radio stations?

Manufacturers could start incorporating channel numbers into the design of the radio dials, eventually leading to radios with "click stop" channel tuning, and no obvious distinction between AM and FM.

Michael feels manufacturers could start incorporating channel numbers into the design of the radio dials, eventually leading to radios with "click stop" channel tuning, and no obvious distinction between AM and FM.

It's an interesting idea, and, as it happens, the FCC has always assigned channel numbers to FM stations...and early receivers even showed them. Although they have fallen into disuse, they are still part of the FCC record of each FM station: 88.1 mHz is Channel 201; 107.9 is Channel 30. There are 100 FM channels. AM is not so tidy—there are currently 108 AM frequencies, shortly to be 118 as the FCC adds the 1610-1700 kHz band to AM within three years, and no channel numbers have ever been assigned. However they could arbitrarily start with channel 82 at 540 kHz and end at channel 200 at 1700 kHz.

An interesting subject for debate! If you have thoughts or comments, they are always welcome. Send them to me c/o the Gavin Report, or write or call me directly: c/o The Adult Contemporary Music Research Letter, 1837 SE Harold, Portland, OR 97202-4932. (503) 232-9787. ●

JOAN BAEZ MAKES A GREAT SONG EVEN GREATER

“Brothers In Arms” PGS. 3

The First Single From Joan Baez's Gold Castle LP, Recently 171 004-1

ON YOUR DESKS TODAY.

“...Ms. Baez's voice has noticeably deepened and darkened in recent years, and for the first time ever, her singing has taken on a rough, almost rock edge...One of the most consistent records of Baez's career, 'Recently' contains a spare, moving rendition of Dire Straits' pacifist hymn, 'Brothers in Arms...'”
—New York Times

“In a sense, Joan Baez's cover of 'Brothers In Arms' elevates Mark Knopfler to even a higher plane. He's rarely covered by other artists. Baez has a sneaky way of making somebody else's song sound like her own...Impressive production.”
—Gavin Report

“Although it's been a while between albums, Baez hasn't lost the soul-searching or audience-prodding that always have been her trademarks. And in her maturity, her voice retains its resilience and ability to awe.”
—St. Paul Pioneer Press Dispatch

“...An invigorating and rewarding return to form.”
—LA Times

INSIDE A/C

The top seven really dominate all else on the page. The top four, all comfortably over the 200-station mark, also have a better than nine-to-one ratio of HEAVY to other rotations. Dan Fogelberg, with a "mere" 92% HIT FACTOR, isn't lonely in airplay with a 31 station increase in HEAVY rotations on his way to a top three ranking.

Carly Simon is ripping up the chart (40 to 26 to 16) with 30 adds this week for a total of 169 in four weeks.

If you want to employ HIT FACTOR as a meaningful programming tool, you might try to include records on your playlist which get more than 50% of all Gavin A/C stations, and also show an 80% or more HIT FACTOR. If so, the latest Herb Alpert, "Making Love In The Rain" would have met the test this week with 134 stations and an 81% HIT FACTOR.

From nothing to 22 on the A/C chart in two weeks. Yes, Fleetwood Mac's "Little Lies" is headin' up to Michael and Whitney's territory with lightning speed. Most added both weeks, it's gonna cause noses to grow on the faces of those who ignore it.

Co-CERTIFIED, with Fleetwood Mac, is the Cutting Crew's "I've Been In Love Before." A 40% HIT FACTOR from its base of 114 stations is just the beginning. Adds this week include WMYX, KKOZ/FM, WHTX, WEBC/FM, KHYL/FM and WGOL/FM.

Despite their ranking stall at 34, Crowded House can easily move up five or six slots next week. The three-week HIT FACTOR trend has been 32% to 43% to 59%. Only two underlined records among the next eleven currently ahead of it.

An A/C pick on July 24th, Swing Out Sister is now charted. Adds this week came from KFMB, WMT/FM, KWEB, WJXL, KKRZ, WHYC, WJZM, WGOL/FM, KKIQ, KRLT, KEZH, WKRP, KWSI, KOJM, KORV and WMTR.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Simply Red's "Maybe Someday" is this week's fourth MOST ADDED and poised for a major chart debut next week.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, Donna Summer's "Dinner With Gershwin," was added without reservation by the following stations: WKCX, WKZX, KORV, KVMT, WNMB, WRFC, KEZR, WTRX, KOLL, WJEH, WQHQ, WILI/AM, WIZD and WKRP.

REVIEWS

by Ron Fell & Diane Ruter

JOAN BAEZ

Brothers In Arms (Gold Castle)

It took a lot of courage to cover this brilliant Mark Knopfler song, but then Joan has never come up short in that department. The record's funereal organ and Joan's brilliant reading of Knopfler's poignant words give a mere black vinyl a spiritual dimension seldom heard in this era of disposable music.

MADONNA

Causing A Commotion (Sire/Warner Bros.)

Who's that Bonita? Into a groove established from the git go by a cool bass line, the song need not rely upon the film from which it comes.

PRETENDERS

If There Was A Man (Warner Bros.)

In one of the most unusual yet engaging collaborations of the decade, Chrissie Hynde and The Pretenders join forces with arranger/conductor John Barry for what must be the love theme from "The Living Daylights," the new James Bond flick. While our format doesn't usually accommodate either The Pretenders or John Barry, the sum and substance of this one-off works for us.

MILLIONS LIKE US

Guaranteed For Life (Virgin)

A little more blue-eyed soul from Great Britain. The technique is reminiscent of the Loggins/McDonald school of production. Sounding like an already established artist is its insurance. The quality of the production assures positive payoffs.

NEW ORDER

THE LONESOME JUBILEE-JOHN COUGAR MELLENCAMP (MERCURY)

While most tend to equate small towns with narrow-mindedness and slow life, John Mellencamp's "small town-ness" has thrust him into the fast lane, both politically and idealistically. While the Scarecrow LP showed intense artistic growth (yielding hit records in the process), The Lonesome Jubilee heralds arrival. How many artists can make the same claim backed up by a vast plain of airplay? Not many. Cities are groovy. I live in one. But songs like "Check It Out," "The Real Life," "We Are The People" and "Down & Out In Paradise" contain the identical truth, love, anger, frustration and disappointment one can absorb from hundreds of small town-folk every damn week. It's a feeling some of us probably wouldn't trade for the world. The Lonesome Jubilee offers itself as a soundtrack for the striving of that psyche and mindset--the living quest of unpretentious truth.

DOOR TO DOOR-THE CARS (ELEKTRA)

The Cars hang a U-turn, driving the opposite direction of Heartbeat City. While Heartbeat was a rigid but successful departure, Door To Door sounds more like a by-product of a few weeks of sweaty band rehearsals. Playing more like a band, The Cars narrow their experimental scope towards exploring the simpler aspects of quintetism. Not that the sounds aren't state-of-the-art high tech. It's just that there seems to be more group participation with songwriter Ocasek at the creative hub of the wheel. Trax: "Leave Or Stay," "You Are The Girl," "Strap Me In," "Everything You Say" and the title track, a raucous stab at early wave and hardcore energy.

NEW Releases

"LEARNING TO FLY"-PINK FLOYD (COLUMBIA)

So this is what Pink Floyd sounds like minus the sardonic, psychological Roger Waters edge. The original idea, according to Nick Mason himself, was to "smoke out" Waters to participate. That being "negatory, amigo" what we have here is a six-legged Floydian core. No doubt, there's quite a bit of interest in the band's upcoming tour. Past airplay has pointed approvingly toward David Gilmour's talents as a vocalist and guitarist. Perhaps that is what will carry the abbreviated line-up to new heights. Yet, honestly, I believe I'll sorta miss Waters' wavering, broken, brink-of-sanity vocals on this album's remaining trax--just as I missed the opportunity of hearing Gilmour singing some of Radio KAOS's fine moments. But for now, what you see is what you get. Bring on the LP.

"I WANNA LIVE"-THE RAMONES (SIRE)

The Ramones spare us the grief of hearing one more perfectly executed guitar solo. While the guitar tones still reside in the '70s, the remaining presence of "I Wanna Live" kicking and screamingly enters the '80s with an in-your-face boom blast.

WENDY AND LISA

WENDY AND LISA (COLUMBIA)

Gloria Steinem may have donned a mini-skirt for Vanity Fair magazine, but this album proves that sisterhood is alive and well. I love the funky guitars and texture plus the mesh of ideas this work communicates. Of course, Wendy and Lisa are refugees from Prince's Revolution. Anyone who ever saw Purple Rain won't be surprised that the bond between these two produces something this engaging. A few brave souls are already hip to the single, "Waterfall." Now dig trax like "Sideshow," quieter moments like "Stay," the instrumental "White" (for all you adult album rockers) and "Blues Away." This one may fall between the cracks on the Album Radio level, but that sure doesn't mean it isn't good.

FRANKS WILD YEARS-TOM WAITS (ISLAND)

"Un operachi romantico in two acts" is the essential companion piece to Swordfish Trombone and Rain Dogs. Since watching his house and garage burn to the ground, Frank has drifted onto avant-garde territory. Shedding his Tropicana Motel persona (hell, even a hashbrown potato commercial is now using it), Tom Waits now tills the rocky soil of off-Broadway theater using a weird blend of ethnically soaked Americana. Picture him singing falsetto as he does on "Temptation." In a word (or two), Franks Wild Years is "out there."

ROMEO'S ESCAPE-DAVE ALVIN (EPIC)

Dave Alvin's version of "4th Of July" sheds even more light on that famed stairwell. In my book, it's one of this year's best songs. Romeo's Escape was produced by Steve Berlin and Mark Linett, featuring some tough playing and hoarse vocals by Dave Alvin and his new band.

"FORCE 10"-RUSH (MERCURY)

Rush has never been a band whose music I rush into, although I've always respected their abilities as players. "Force 10" was violently awaited by a staunch corps of fans--one that gets stronger with each release. It seems the more Top Forty evades them, the bigger the brontosaurus grows. Right now it's eating automobiles and Amtrak club cars. Look out for Rush! KZ

"HOURGLASS"-SQUEEZE (A&M)
Squeezing out an impressive burst of out-of-the-box airplay. In recognition of the songwriting talents of Difford and Tilbrook, Album Radio has gone out of their way to "squeeze" this band onto tight playlists. So far it's been a series of near misses. This could be the one.

INSIDE ALBUM

by Kent Zimmerman

"It strikes me they've rested far too much on the success they've already had. The kids will buy it, and will be very disappointed. This is a nothing record." -- Brian Matthew, Melody Maker, 1963, on "She Loves You" by the Beatles.

WE HAVE A NEW CHAMP. This week The Cars pulled into the number one spot, primarily on the heat of their single. Just as that single was roaring forward, out came the album, slipping in and pulling off quite a coup. The Cars go number one. Now look out for John Mellencamp.

JAGGER COMES BACK. Look for September 10 to be the day of arrival for Primitive Cool by Mick Jagger. Co-produced by Dave Stewart and Keith Diamond, Jeff Beck returns to contribute biting leads...Teresa Snider has been appointed Research Director at KBPI. That's the very same week Pete Wylie's "Sinful" was added in HOT!...Jonathan L. at KEYX/FM-Phoenix extolls the virtues of Dramarama. Along with KROQ, the station has been behind this band since the beginning. "We love 'It's Still War.'" says L...Island's John Souchack is finding it hard to cope with the timely demise of the New York Yankees.

"Steinbrenner's got a right to be mad. After all, he's paying those guys millions." Souchack's wrath then turned to the Mets. Regarding the Mets' Darryl Strawberry--"He's got an attitude problem. He's the next (Richie) Dick Allen. Look for him to play for eleven teams before leaving baseball. What a bum."

PHONES PHONES PHONES. Pamela at KRXQ/93 Rock announces Rush eclipsing Great White in the phones department...I should have remembered, but it took KILO's Alan White to remind us. Faster Pussycat got their name from the Russ Meyer flick, "Faster, Pussycat, Kill Kill Kill." The plot consisted of the well-endowed lead damsel smothering her victims to death with her bosoms. You're not likely to catch that one on the Arts & Entertainment channel.

WELCOME TO THE MACHINE. An old friend resurfaces. Welcome to a new station, KTBC/FM in Nacogdoches, TX. Contact Kurt Naumann at 409-564-3724. Address is Box 848--75961. And that's not all. There's also D. A. "The Deejay" Collins at KPGA-San Luis Obispo. Phone is 805-773-1896. Address is 333 Five Cities Drive, Pismo Beach, CA, 93449, Make them feel welcome, okay?

MELLEN CAMP MANIA. John Mellencamp's record is so good, we're considering dropping the Cougar from his name. That's how much we like it here. A variety of trax surfaced from a variety of stations. Here are some results...Ty Banks at KQWB/FM calls it "A dartboard album.

Every cut is great in its own right." They're majoring in "Rooty Toot Toot," an embarrassing track to back-announce...Kim Pool at WMRY-St. Louis (home of those dubious Cards) added "The Real Life" and "Down & Out In Paradise"...Bill Webster at WJXQ-Lansing votes for "Hotdogs And Hamburgers" and "We Are The People"...Ditto Dale Miller at the KAT in Amarillo on "We Are The People"...KNOX's Michael Right is a "Rooty Toot Toot" kind of guy...Softrockers KNXF/FM-L.A. and WMRQ-Boston both on "We Are The People"...Kevin Vargas at KWHL-Anchorage adds "Cherry Bomb" to the list.

HOLIDAZE. We will be closed on Monday, September 7th. That makes Tuesday an even crazier phone day (if that's possible). We will be on hand the previous Friday, September 4 if you choose to avoid the crunch.

MEET YOUR LOCAL CLASSIC ROCKER. Out of the pages of Adweek leaps an ad for a prominent Classic Rock station. In the spirit of Playboy and Cream, its a

Echo & The Bunnymen hold a wide 30% chart lead over their competitors. 10,000 Maniacs, Silencers and Paul Kelly continue to surge while New Order cracks the top ten. The dB's are doing exceptionally well for Mike Marrone, WHTG-Asbury Park, Brett Brooks, KUNV-Las Vegas, George Spillman KUCI-Irvine, Jill Greenfield, WDCR-Hanover, and Charlie Turner WKXE-White River Jct. R.E.M. are about to make their usual assault of the chart with their single debuting very high. Noticing instant response on "The One I Love" are Mike Summers, KRPN-Salt Lake City, Shred, WFNX-Lynn, and Larry The Duck, WLIR-Long Island. The Wild Flowers and Throwing Muses increase their chart points by almost 50%. The Wild Flowers are blooming for Kandy Wilkens, WXCI-Danbury, Steve Balcom, WXYC-Chapel Hill, Ginger Jones, KBSU-Boise and Josh Rosenthal, WCDB-Albany. Buckwheat Zydeco is still climbing steadily and attracting lots of response for Mike Thomas, WMDK-Peterborough, Faith Henschel, KCMU-Seattle, and Candy Pennetta, KVNF-Paonia. Squeeze is our second highest debut and second Most Added record this week. Opal debuts and is rocking for Michelle Haunold, KBVR-Corvallis, and Heather Young, WUSC-Columbia. Skinny Puppy (or "The Pup" as they're affectionately called) is wagging the tails of James Lien, WTUL-New Orleans, Robert Hammer, KXLU-Los Angeles and Eric Kayser, KCPR-San Luis Obispo. Tom Waits, The Dukes of Stratosphere and Screaming Trees round out the debuts. Our Record To Watch, Thelouious Monster, is drawing solid non-commercial Maximum play from KBSU, KUNV, WTUL, WUSC, KXLU, WCDB, WWVU and WUNH and improved their points by 30%. Ron Phillips, WUSB-Stony Brook, and Adam Langley, WBNY-Buffalo ("biggest jump--incredible phones"), are noticing plenty of action on the Toasters. IMPORT RECORD WATCH: Larry The Duck, WLIR-Long Island, was praising Depeche Mode's 12", "Never Let Me Down," and Icehouse's 12" "Crazy." He and Ivar Hamilton, CFNY-Toronto, were thrilled about PIL's new import single "Seattle." Ivar was also carrying on about Van Jericho's new record.

SPOTLIGHT LP

Back In Town-BOYOYO BOYS (Rounder)
A tape of South Africa's Boyoyo Boys inspired Paul Simon to pursue the source of their music in "Graceland." The Boyoyo Boys were one of South Africa's most popular bands for nearly 20 years until they broke up in 1984 (after their drummer was murdered). "Back In Town" is a natural Alternative record with its layers of complex percussion, squeaky guitar rhythms and birdlike horns. The songs are all instrumentals with occasional dialogue. My favorites include "Duba Duba," "Vezunyawo," "Maraba Start 500" and "Pulukwani Center." Call Rounder at (617) 354-0700.

A Man Ain't No Man When A Man Ain't Got No Horse, Man...-THE NEON JUDGEMENT (Bias 65)
A harsh and dark warehouse aura surrounds Neon Judgement. The haunting "Chinese Black" has a great hook backed with dramatic production that's reminiscent of the Bollock Brothers "Horror Movies." On "Kid Shylen," industrially abrasive textures meet high technology synthesizers.

profile of your average classic rock listener ("working, upscale adult"). She's a real hot tomato. She's 39, got a Ph.D. in Sociology from Yale. Reads philosophy as a hobby. Favorite recording artists? "Rolling Stones, Beatles, Yardbirds and Rascals." Likes? "Open-minded people." Maybe some open-minded person can introduce her to some music recording during this century.

GOODBYE JOHNNY MARR. Like Suzanne Vega, we too are Johnny Marr fans. Johnny was formerly the heart and soul of The Smiths, the perfect foil offsetting Morrissey's depression. So sorry to see him go...KSBT-Steamboat Springs got 20 calls in 30 seconds on the Brandos' "In My Dreams." Even if Paul Cavanagh is stretching it a bit, it's well worth checking it out.

MOVIE RECOMMENDATION. It was Monday night and...well...a Monday. I plunked down my fiver on an odd Swedish movie called My Life As A Dog. No, Iggy Pop has nothing to do with it. However, this flick rated numero uno on a recent poll of 40 critics. The critics were right for once.

Where did the director find the little boy who plays the lead role. Absolutely outstanding.

SOMETIMES THE CRITICS BLOW IT. We had to laugh at "Great Moments In Rock Criticism" in Spin Magazine. Far shorter than it could or should have been, here's a sample of Melody Maker slagging Bob Dylan's "Like A Rolling Stone": "To start with, Dylan is saddled with a horrific backing dominated by syrupy strings (?), amplified guitars and organ. The monotonous melody line and Dylan's expressionless intoning just cannot hold the interest for what seems like the longest six minutes since the invention of time. Those Dylan lyrics are another problem. He seems to be getting more and more obscure." Noticeably absent was Melody Maker's classic pan of Pink Floyd's Dark Side Of The Moon. I almost thumbed through the Gavin archives in search of the time yours truly sniveled about Phil Collins' first solo LP copying Peter Gabriel. That inspired the wrath of Atlantic's Judy Libow, who has since become one of our closest friends. Happy ending. Awwwww. Stay well. Yer pal, KZ

INSIDE COUNTRY

There's a lot of great new product coming out, and the excitement this week focused on our Country newcomers. Everyone seemed to have something good to say about the Ricky Van Shelton: Ron Scott says it's gotten the "fastest response of any record this year." He already has it in his Top 3 requests. "They're going crazy for 'Somebody Lied'" in Coastal NC says Kerry Wolfe at WRNS/FM. WMBC/FM listeners in Starkville, MS, are demanding to know "Who is that?" every time the song is played. With 41 stations on the single, it is sure to become familiar soon enough.

Jeff Dugan is "flat tearin' it up" in the Destin, FL, market, says Skip Davis at K92/FM, and the song is a number-one request for both Jeff Roberts at WRAJ-Anna, IL, and Anthony Keith at KROF-Abbeville, LA. Frank Smith at WFSR-Harlan, KY, has another newcomer, David Lynn Jones, as one of his most requested songs. Mike Dugan at KVAS-Astoria, OR, reports immediate response to Rosie Flores' "Cryin' Over You," after being on the record just one week. And finally, Steve Small at KKA-Aberdeen, SD wants everyone to "give a listen to Los Lobos." Steve was hesitant to add the song because of his older demos, but reports that "La Bamba" is going over big with young and old. Twenty stations are already playing it, including WPOC/FM and WUBE which have it in their Medium rotation.

After only three weeks, Randy Travis debuts at #31, and is Certified. Holly Dunn's "Only When I Love" also took less than a month to reach Certified status; she debuts at #39. A lot of fast movers are making their way to the chart--our top two Chartbounds, Lee Greenwood and Keith Whitley, make it to that spot after only three weeks, and Steve Wariner's "Lynda" gets into Chartbound after just two weeks. Anne Murray is this week's Record To Watch with "Anyone Can Do The Heartbreak," a well-produced song that should sound great on the radio.

Late News: Top-requested Dwight Yoakam has been asked by the Ohio Historical Society to donate something for an upcoming exhibit on famous Buckeyes; Dwight complied by giving the museum a pair of his trademark ripped jeans.

The Country Music Association has announced the five finalists for the 1987 Horizon Award: The O'Kanes, T.Graham Brown, Holly Dunn, Restless Heart and Sweethearts Of The Rodeo. Best of luck to all!

REVIEWS

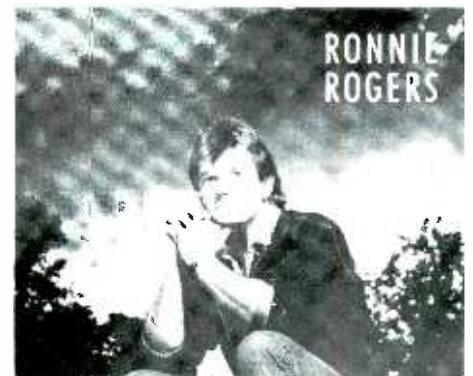

FOSTER & LLOYD

CRAZY OVER YOU

FOSTER AND LLOYD - Foster And Lloyd (RCA) Radney Foster and Bill Lloyd wrote and produced this debut album of original songs. Radney's lead vocals are distinctive, but their harmonies really shine, especially on "What Do You Want From Me This Time" and the Byrds-ish "Turn Around." Drop the needle anywhere on side one and you'll find something to please your listeners, but don't be afraid to try some of the more rockin' cuts on side two. Steve Earle has already paved the way for American Roots music on Country radio, and "Texas in 1880" is a perfect example of this kind of shuffle. Check out: "The Part I Know By Heart," "You Can Come Cryin' To Me," "Token Of Love," and "Sure Thing."

RONNIE ROGERS - "Good Timin' Shoes" (MTM) Rogers, who wrote Alabama's "Dixieland/Delight," gives us a romantic good-time song taken from his upcoming album, "Tough Times Don't Last." From the opening "hey honey," to the last plucks of the mandolin, Ronnie's smooth vocals make you want to turn down the lights and turn up the radio.

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

First, our heartfelt congratulations to Skip Miller on his recent promotion at Motown Records! (See story in Chinwag) Couldn't (finally) happen to a nicer guy! Speaking of nice guys, MICHAEL JACKSON retains his number one slot another week. The real battle is between number two and number three. Who will win out next? LISA LISA AND CULT JAM (without FULL FORCE) or FORCE MD'S? Did someone say, "May the force be with you"?

MADAME X is having a great week on both the charts and the phones. Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, sez all demos are calling, Randy Sterling, KGBC-Galveston, says its one of his hottest to date, and Jay Holidae, WEAL-Greensboro, reports it's in his top requests. Both Certified's are getting good response on phones: DONNA SUMMER across-the-board listeners for Licia Torres, KJLH-Los Angeles, and RAY PARKER JR. "is an all-out smash," says Ray Boyd, V103-Atlanta. JODY WATLEY is getting a good look this week: "New single mix is a nice one," says Danny Harris, KDKO-Denver.

WINANS make Chartbound, as well as making the lines hot for Mickey Arnold, WRDW-Augusta. Kermit Crockett, WWWS/FM-Saginaw, reports that the STEPHANIE MILLS is "on fire" there. Gary Weiler, WBLZ-Cincinnati, says a record to keep an eye on is the NEW CHOICE. Other believers adding it this week are WJTT, KQXL, KNON, WDUR, WWWS/FM, WGOK, WXOK. Pam Wells, K97-Memphis, and Ron Davis, WQIS-Laurel Hattiesburg, have it in light rotation.

Our R-T-W, KENNY G with LENNY WILLIAMS "Don't Make Me Wait" is also "the record to watch out for," according to Steve Crumbley, WOWI-Norfolk and WPDQ-Jacksonville-- both stations are getting immediate calls for it. Kelly Karson, WTLC-Indianapolis, told us he's getting lots of requests for it, too. Looks like the newest hot contender is the BAR-KAYS "Certified True." Says Frank Barrow, KRIZ-Seattle: "Could be the record of the year." Jeffrey Charles, WZAK-Cleveland, reports, "It's a hot one!" Jay Riley, WNOO-Chattanooga, makes it his record to check out, and also Gary Young, WLUM-

Milwaukee.

Pam Wells, K97-Memphis, makes the PRETTY POISON "a serious record" to and Mad Hatter, WGOK-Mobile, repeats that the CONTROLLERS is getting good phones, while the RAY PARKER JR. is one of the fastest movers he's seen in a while. A big Seattle record will be the LACE single, according to Frank Barrow, KRIZ. Pete Rhodes, CBLS-Minneapolis, names the TAJA SEVELLE as his key tune of the week. Thanks. Betty

REVIEWS

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

DONNA ALLEN - Sweet Somebody (21/Atlantic) Once again Donna Allen has the right ingredients for a nice single. Two of the nicest surprises on this cut are the blend of horn string accompaniment that give it a great touch.

ANGELA WINBUSH - Angel (Mercury/PolyGram) After a long sabbatical from the music charts, the ANGELA side of the former Rene & Angela arrives this week to make an impact. Looks like she's packed to stay.

SOFT TOUCH - Please Please Me (Pow Wow) Driving uptempo beat should please your audience. Produced by Tim Greene, the multi-faceted music director at WZFX-Fayetteville, NC.

BAR-KAYS - Certified True (Mercury/PolyGram) If your station had pretty good luck with Cameo's "Word Up," you might give this one a spin. Whether you test it or rotate it in the heavy stack, you'll no doubt come up with a Gavin "Certified" winner.

RENEE ALDRICH - Just Begun To Love You (Jam Packed) Sounds like a contender for the next opening on your chart for a female vocalist. She can hold her own with the competition. Check it out - it caught our attention right away.

known him for so long--twelve or thirteen years--he's like a brother to me. He can be mellow, but he's not as outgoing as the character. What the people pick up from Jerome's character is totally from the heart. It's 150 percent from the heart. BH: You arrange some of the tunes here on this album, too. Did that skill come after arriving in Minneapolis? AO: Yes, that was after, but I think that's one of my strongest attributes. I hear so many different things and I'm glad to have the chance to be a part of the projects. I also write. I have tons of songs, but "No song before its time." BH: When you were a small boy, did you picture yourself doing what you're doing now? AO: (laughs) Oh, no! I was going to be a professional athlete. It was my whole life. I played football in high school and went to college on an athletic scholarship. I went to college as a means of pursuing a professional career in football, instead of going for an education, which should have been first. It wasn't, and consequently I quit. I learned from that experience. I knew once I found my niche in life, I'd never be a quitter. It happened to be music, and, excluding the fact that it's my livelihood, I think it's my calling also. I feel God had a master plan for me, and that's why I'm here today. BH: But do you watch football in your spare time? AO: I'm a total fanatic! I live in Minneapolis but my favorite team would probably be the Los Angeles Raiders! But I have to be a Viking fan--I live there, right? A lot of the Vikings are very close friends of mine. BH: What about future plans? AO: I'd like to get into acting. I have this one lifetime dream, and that's to play Otis Redding in his life story. Otis Redding was always my idol. I am so intrigued with the fact that he was a crossover artist before the word existed. He could take the uptempo material and really rock and roll--but he could also melt your heart with the ballads. "Sittin' On The Dock Of The Bay" was so incredible. It would just really make my life if I could do the Otis Redding Story. ●

SLIM DOWN THOSE FAT FIRMS!

It doesn't matter how great the company's leadership is. If it has ten layers of management, nothing's going to happen.

Remember the "telephone game" we used to play as kids? One person would whisper a short story to another, who would then whisper it to another, and so on until the last person heard it. And remember how hilarious it was when the last person told the story because it was absolutely nothing like the first story?

I was reminded of the "telephone game" recently when I read that General Motors had 18 layers of management. Eighteen layers! Can you imagine how slow and ponderous an organization would be with that many layers of management? How distorted communication becomes as it goes up and down the chain of command? The overhead involved in supporting bureaucrat after bureaucrat, middle manager on top of middle manager, who does little but push paper from one desk (or layer) to another? No wonder GM has been losing money and market share steadily. No wonder it can't respond quickly and efficiently to changes in the marketplace. No wonder morale is sinking there.

I don't want to pick on General Motors. This "layer" disease is common to many organizations. In fact, during the late 1970s and early 1980s, when Toyota and Nissan were making huge inroads into the U.S. car market, they had half to a third of the layers that Ford did.

Organizations have become fat. They've loaded themselves with layers of management. And many researchers have come to similar conclusions: It doesn't matter how great the company's leadership is. If it has ten layers of management, nothing's going to happen. It can't. Imagine a six-foot, 350-pound man. No matter how innovative or motivated he is, he won't be able to keep up with the leaner, fletcher competition.

One consulting and research firm investigated effective and less effective organizations, and found that the better ones (in terms of investment) had an average of four fewer layers of management than the less effective ones.

Does your organization have too many layers of management? Probably. I say this because after having visited many organizations over the past few years, I have yet to find any that have too few layers. The natural tendency of firms, even small ones, is to add a supervisor, or "manager", to any problem area.

I've seen small firms of 50 people in one site that have up to five layers of management. Toyota has five layers! Nucor Steel, a billion-dollar, profitable firm spread over several states, has four layers! Dana Corporation, a multi-state manufacturing concern, was doing terribly until it started to trim down. Dana went from eleven layers to five, and in the process turned itself around to become number two in the Fortune 500 firms in return on capital. The chairman of Dana was asked: "Why five layers?" He responded, "Because it's better than six, and not as good as four." They're working on it, though.

"If we strip down the layers, how will the work get done?" you may ask. Good question. Answer: Train people to do the work and stop appointing cops to monitor their behavior. We've seen firm after firm, office after office, which finally got the idea that intense training of people, plus a large measure of trust and sharing of authority and information, yields a workforce which can take care of itself and be far more innovative and flexible in the process.

That's why, at Worthington Industries and Johnsonville Sausage, workers themselves do production planning, inventory control, quality control, scheduling, budgeting, hiring and operations control. They're trained and they're trusted. Management is there to support them, not to breathe down their necks. And that helps explain why those two firms have remarkable records in terms of return on shareholder equity and market share growth.

The contrast is all too great. I worked with an engineering firm which had two layers. After the three senior partners saw a decline in quality and an increase in turnover, they asked me if they should hire a "professional manager."

"That's the worst possible thing you could do," I said. "You'd be adding an unnecessary layer of management, increasing your overhead, stifling communication and innovation, and worst of all, you wouldn't even be addressing the root problems. Those engineers are competent. If quality is poor and they're quitting, you'd better find out why and address it. Don't delegate the mess to a new layer."

Does this mean that a new layer of management must never be added? Of course not. There's a time and place for everything. The reason I'm so insistent on this issue is that most firms lean too far in the opposite direction. They'd rather add than train and trust. They get fat. They get slow. They get sick.

Let me leave you with an opinion which seems to enrage my MBA students. Do we really need "foremen" or "supervisors" or "office managers?" I say no. Based on my experiences with successful firms which have thoroughly developed their employees, who in turn pick "team leaders," I can assure you that job titles like "supervisors" are going to be seen less and less in the future.

So start analyzing your organization. Start losing weight. Reassign "fat" people to useful revenue-enhancing jobs. Cut the fat, and you'll start cutting down on a lot of other problems. It works that way with our bodies. It works that way with our businesses. ●

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

MADONNA - Causing A Commotion (Sire/Warner Bros.) Her string of consecutive Top 40 hits is approaching a modern day record. I think it's safe to add this Madonna, Stephen "Breakfast Club" Bray collaboration to the list.

BILLY IDOL - Mony Mony (Chrysalis) Yes folks...it was bound to happen, the Tommy James Revival is under way just ask anyone who's played this track over the last few years (Guy Zapoleon, Todd Fisher, Matt Hudson, among others) and they'll tell you about the huge response it receives.

LOS LOBOS - C'mon Let's Go (Slash/Warner Bros.) I'll never forget my first trip to Disneyland in 1958 and hearing this song come on the radio. Steve Kelsey at WFBG-Altoona, PA, reminded me that the McCoys revived it in 1966. Thanks to multi-talented Los Lobos for turning a new generation on to the great rock 'n' roll of Ritchie Valens.

JOHN WAITE - Don't Lose Any Sleep (EMI America) No doubt "Missing You" inspired this effort, which is a compliment in itself. John works his magic and energy into yet another terrific tune written by the prolific Diane Warren.

PRETENDERS - If There Was A Man (Warner Bros.) Chrissie Hynde mellows out on this beauty, singing as usual with emotional sincerity. A love song with a haunting mood that is bound to have an effect on those who hear it on the radio or in the James Bond film, "The Living Daylights."

WAWANEE - Sugar Free (Epic) Pronounced "Wah-Wah-Nee" this Australian contingent is certain to make the club circuit all over North America. AHHH, the sweet sound of success.

BONNIE HAYES - Some Guys (Chrysalis) Bonnie's built quite a following over the years in Northern California as Bonnie Hayes and The Wild Combo. Shedding that trademark and image she delivers a powerful pop effort. Writing ability must run in the Hayes family, as Bonnie's brother Chris has also written his share of winners with a guy named Huey Lewis.

TONIO K. - I'm Supposed To Have Sex With You (Chrysalis) An off the wall entry from the soundtrack of "Summer School." Could it be that George Michael has cleared the path for the three letter word? If so, this hot dance track with a beat reminiscent of K.C. and The Sunshine Band, should have a chance.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

JOHN COUGAR MELLENCAMP - The Lonesome Jubilee (Mercury/PolyGram) Having risen like a lotus from the mudwrestling and food fights of his party animal days, J.C. has become a born-again thumper of the Good Book. Liner notes draw from Ecclesiastes, while his lyrics shed tears the size of water balloons for the personal and societal misfortunes doled out by devils at work. Mellencamp's punch is spiked with accordion, tambourine, melodica, banjo and dulcimer without forsaking his medium--a rock and a hard place. He may never graduate from the School of Hard Knocks, but he's thoughtfully shed his sophomore attitude. It's blue-collar and no-collar heartland rock 'n' roll. The lead single, PAPER IN FIRE, is the album's ash-kicker, but it isn't until his open letter to the Prez, DOWN AND OUT IN PARADISE, that the thoughts begin to smoke out real emotions.
