INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

If the quality of the product translates into sales, more folks than ever should be giving the gift of music this holiday season. Album, cassette and CD giveaways on radio help spur sales and listener interest, but a number of shoppers will be entering strange territory when they walk through the doors of their local record outlet. Go in and watch as many customers seem to walk around in a daze, attempting to buy something that'll please someone in their family or a friend. This is where radio can step in and help, by offering information to vast majority of the public who are unfamiliar with what's hot on the record scene and most important, who the music is most likely to appeal to. If you position yourself as the music leader in the market, it's logical that you should also have all the answers when it comes to handing advice to those who need it. Great for image and your listeners will appreciate the help.

GEORGE HARRISON'S long absence from the music scene certainly hasn't hampered his ability to fly up the chart. One look at the HIT FACTOR increase of 24% to 56% and it's obvious this entry is headed top five. Leaps ahead for Bill Shannon K104 Erie 22-14, Reggie Blackwell and John Causby WBCY Charlotte 21-13, Bill Richards WNCI Columbus 18-11, Jeff Davis KLYV Dubuque 30-19, Gary Waldron KISN Salt Lake City 29-19, Gary Wall and Lisa Dent Q106 San Diego 27-21, etc.

Longtime believers are getting confirmation of PRETTY POISON'S Top 40 potency. Number one at KMGX and KYNO Fresno, KRQK Lompoc/Santa Maria, KWXX Hilo, KKSS Albuquerque, KBIU Lake Charles, and top three at WTIC Hartford, WXKS Boston, WKXX Birmingham, PWR 99.7 Atlanta, KZOR Hobbs, KRRG Laredo, B95 Fresno, KDON Monterey/Salinas, KMEL San Francisco, KWSS San Jose, etc.

Blow-out week for THE BANGLES, who score another 46 adds, easily taking them way over the 200 report level. Moves right into the top thirty at WAVA, WKRM, WHKW, FM96, KFMY, KYA, FM104, KYNG, KDUX, KQIX, Y95, KWTX, KKRC, KDWZ, etc. Very strong initial response reported by well over half of those reporting it this week.

Airplay continues to increase for the KANE GANG. Thirty-six adds including WROQ Charlotte, WJET Erie, WMJQ Buffalo, CKOI Montreal, KKYK Little Rock, KIIK Davenport, KDWB Minneapolis/St.Paul, WQID Biloxi, Y108 Denver, KYA Billings, KCPX Salt Lake City, WFBG Altoona, WAFX Bangor, WYKS Gainesville, etc.

All indications are for a steady warming trend this winter for ICEHOUSE. HIT FACTOR is at 8% with top thirty debuts for Kelly O'Shea and Mike Cushman KKEZ, Rick James WZKX, Mike O'Connor and Bob Wise WNKS, "Hitman" 100KHI, Roger Christian WMJQ Buffalo, etc. Gains at KSND Eugene 19-12, LIVE 105 San Francisco 13-11, WZOK Rockford 28-22, etc.

Looks like "Dirty Dancing" is spawning another winner...ERIC CARMEN. Debuts #30 at KUBE Seattle, #26 KKTX Longview, #30 Q105 Tampa, #30 WYHT Mansfield, etc. New on KPLZ, KMOK, KZLS, B97, WSPK, B94, Z103, WTNZ, KYYY, KWTX, Y108, KSTN, KKAZ, KGRO, etc.

A growing number of convincing success stories for MEN WITHOUT HATS. An 18% HIT FACTOR with moves into the top twenty at WMMS Cleveland, WJZQ Kenosha, WCIL Carbondale, KWIN Stockton, etc. Impressive gains at KIXY 13-9, POWER 104 18-13, 93Q debut #24, KCPX 13-9, KATD 4-3, CKOC Saskatoon 19-14, etc. Added at Z100 Portland, KWSS San Jose, KITY San Antonio, WBNQ Bloomington, WBBQ Augusta, etc.

Last week they were RECORD TO WATCH. this week STRYPER nearly doubles in total reports with 46 adds. Clarke Ingram at KRQ Tucson describes the phone action as "massive." Like most everyone who's playing it, Clarke says the calls began the first night it was played when it showed number seven in requests after one spin. Since then it's consistently been in the top three on the phones. Video play on MTV has definitely made an impact in bringing this one back. Added by Dene Hallam KCPW, Mark St.John and Gene Baxter WAVA, Jim Schaefer and John Austin WPXR, etc.

Quick take-off for ROGER, who should easily top 100 reports by next week. A 9% HIT FACTOR with power gains at FM102 Sacramento 24-15, KMEL San Francisco 11-6, KZZP Phoenix debut #24, WHKW Fayette 30-20, debut #30 WNVZ Norfolk, 16-11 B95 and 25-15 KMGX Fresno, etc. 33 adds including Z94, WXKS, BAM99, Z93, WBCY, WNCI, WHYT, WXXQ, Y95, KOY, Y108, KPLZ, KUBE, KZZU, etc. By the way, check out the LP and hear ROGER'S version of the classic "Papa's Got a Brand New Bag."

Kevin Weatherly and Keith Naftaly keep SALT-N-PEPA at number one in San Francisco at KMEL. They've been playing it heavily for weeks and now it's finally getting Top 40 attention. HIT FACTOR is 23% with gains at HOT I-94 27-8 ("Number one requests by at least a three to one margin."), POWER 106 debut #18, WKXX 15-10. etc. New on KZOU, POWER 104, KFXX, KITY, KIXY, WHTY, etc.

Two very solid weeks of new airplay for DAN HILL. Dan Murray at WAGQ Athens, GA, is among those who are seeing the same "Can't We Try" trend developing, with calls increasing from women 18 to 30. Added at WNYZ Utica, WIQQ Greenville, KQCR Cedar Rapids, POWER 104 Houston, KSTN Stockton, K104 Erie, etc.

Though there are no plans for single release soon, stations are adding the song "Spotlight" from MADONNA'S "You Can Dance" album. New on HOT 103, KMEL, KKFR, JLK/FM, KCIL, POWER 96, KCPW, WHKW, etc. Top five request at KIIS Los Angeles.

Many artists have sampled the good and bad aspects of success, but few as emphatically as Natalie Cole. Ten years after losing her father, Nat "King" Cole, to lung cancer, she released her own debut album, Inseparable, when she was twenty-five, winning three Grammy awards, and starring in her own TV special.

After marrying producer Marvin Yancey and having a son, Robbie, she released six albums, all certified gold or platinum. Her next three LPs were less successful, and she ended her seven-year association with Capitol with The Natalie Cole Collection in 1981. That same year, she checked herself into a rehabilitation clinic for cocaine addiction.

Eight months later, she re-entered the entertainment limelight, released another album, and assured interviewers she was drug-free. She wasn't, and after suffering a nervous breakdown, she asked her mother to take control of her finances before she did too much damage to herself. She went into another drug clinic for six months, then released the aptly titled, but unsuccessful Dangerous LP. In 1985, her ex-husband died of a heart attack at the age of 34, leaving her with a nine-year old son to raise by herself.

Now things are beginning to look up for Cole. Everlasting, her debut album for Manhattan Records, has yielded a smash. The first single, "Jump Start," a Reggie Calloway production, skyrocketed to the top of the Urban Contemporary charts before crossing over to Top 40.

Dennis Lambert lent his experienced touch to her current release, "I Live For Your Love," a slow, passionate ballad that shows the versatility of Nat Cole's daughter.

Natalie Cole's Everlasting Spirit

By Betty Hollars

Who
saying

Betty Hollars: You originally wanted to be a doctor?

Natalie Cole: I started off wanting to study internal medicine and gradually I moved over to child psychology. I've always wanted to work with people.

BH: "I Live For Your Love" is such a passionate ballad, and your delivery and style are unnerving. What do you feel when you sing it?

NC: I have to put myself into a different kind of attitude. It's somewhat spiritual to me. When we were recording it, I remember thinking to myself, "How many women really have that kind of a relationship where they would really live or die for that person?" In this day and age, there really aren't too many of those. If there are some people out there who can relate to that, I think it would be very special.

BH: You've had more rebounds than Wilt Chamberlain. Is there a new Natalie Cole? Are your goals and aspirations different now than when you first started out in this business?

NC: My approach is different. I'm making my own personal statement with every song I sing. Before, I got caught up in what was happening in the musical trends. I can't totally ignore that because of the business I'm in, but I don't have to be a total victim to it any more. I'm concentrating on holding on to my individuality. I try to love everything I do, whereas before I was doing a lot on remote control. I don't want to be a clone. I don't want to follow what everyone else is doing. When I was recording this album (Everlasting), I was saying, "God! Please let radio like these songs!" You never have any idea what they are going to do.

BH: You feel your strength is the ballad, yet "Jump Start" was up-tempo.

NC: For this first single I felt, along with Manhattan Records, that "Jump Start" was the perfect choice. I was very anxious to come with it because I thought it was a great summer song. There was so much energy to the tune when it was finished, that was what we wanted radio to hear. Even the video--there's no statement, no deep meaning. It's just a "Have a good time" song.

BH: When (Capitol's) Joe Smith introduced you at the BRE conference, Joe Bullard of WANM in Tallahassee was singing "Jump Start My Heart" before your name was even announced. Everyone else around him joined in, even though the single hadn't been officially released yet.

NC: It's been great to have a big hit right off and the publicity has been great. Radio did like it.

BH: On the new album, you do one of your father's tunes, "When I Fall In Love." Is there an album planned of your father's songs for you? Or did you have to fight to get even this one on the album?

NC: Not at all. There's absolutely an album coming. We're trying to get it in the works for next year. It's going to be at least a double album. For this particular selection, I wanted to set a precedent for the forthcoming project. I wanted to open the door and feel the people out--feel radio out--and see how they reacted. When the album comes out, I don't know how many of them will be contemporized like "When I Fall In Love." That was a very flexible song, where a lot of my father's songs are not.

BH: What about the way you did "Unforgettable" in live performances, where you sing over the recorded tracks of your father's songs? Can we expect some of this on the album?

NC: We could do that a couple of times. I've been doing it in my live shows where I do a tribute to my dad, about ten minutes long, and it's great.

BH: What did your father think of rock and roll?

NC: He didn't like it--did not like it at all--he was offended!

BH: Where did the nickname "King" come from?

NC: That was a name used back in the '40s when he first started. His first group was called Shorty Nadine. I think that was after his first wife. Then the second trio was called the King Cole Trio. I have pictures and my mom has pictures in the mid-'40s of him with a little crown. They would paint him with a little crown kind of tipped off to the side of his head. Even then, he was the king. I think the nursery rhyme, Old King Cole, made it really easy to remember--and he carried it with him. A lot of people thought it was part of his name.

BH: Did your father ever discuss fighting prejudice with you in his battles to get his songs on the radio?

NC: No, I was much too young--I had no idea what I was getting myself into!

BH: If you had your father to turn to today for advice, what do you think he would tell you?

NC: Oh, boy! One thing he would advocate would be to be myself. I think he would be glad I don't feel I have to sing the types of song that everyone else is singing, because that was one thing that stood out about him. He wanted to go his own way, he picked songs he liked, and there was no similarity between his songs and other people's songs. That was something he was very adamant about. I guess that part I got from him, he would have advised longevity. Pick songs that will last, rather than picking songs for the moment.

BH: He certainly did that with his "Christmas Song."

NC: That's right. He was the "king" of longevity on that tune. He was a balladeer in the rare form, in the sincerest form of the word. There aren't many who believed in the ballads like he did. It was almost like he'd been there because of the way he sang those lyrics.

BH: You've described yourself in interviews as having a deep-rooted lack of self-esteem. Now you have a son who is a concern of yours--how are you dealing with it?

NC: Sometimes I feel I play a small part in that whole thing because I pump him up as much as I can and I try to be a good example to him. He is with me now a lot, and because he's an only child he may have a little less of a problem with it than I did. That may have had something to do with it. I'm not sure, but I'm leaning toward that fact because he's the apple of my eye! He's not a spoiled brat by any means, but he certainly gets all the attention. When he walks with me into a room, he feels really good to be with me, and can get very upset with me if I forget to introduce him. If I don't, sometimes on his own, he'll walk up and say "And I'm her son!" So I'm not sure yet if he has a problem with self-esteem--it doesn't sound like it, does it?

BH: Not at all. Do you have advice for people like yourself who are in a constant limelight, whose fans expect them to be perfect and at their best at all times?

NC: There's a sense of self that *was recording this album, I was

"God! Please let radio like these songs!"*

NATALIE COLE

you have to have and without that, you're headed for trouble like I had. I didn't have that, and consequently it did get me into trouble. When you start believing your own fantasy, you need to surround yourself with people who love you whether you ever sing another note or not! And that's hard to find! Hopefully you'll find it in your family, in those who knew you before you ever started singing. They will keep you grounded. Then, when it comes to working with business people, your management, your musicians, your crew, your entourage, these people you live with on a daily basis, especially when you're on the road, they will also have a sense of who you are. You're their friend as well as their employer. A lot of times being a woman and being the boss is not easy. Since I still have that people-pleasing thing in me, sometimes I come down too much. That allows people to take advantage of you. You have to keep the separation but at the same time allow yourself to be human. Allow yourself to make mistakes. You're always going to be criticized! You're either going to be too nice or not nice enough. The expectations are very high and the criticisms are numerous. And when the people who expect you to be perfect meet you, God forbid if they meet you on a bad day! You're supposed to be smiling all the time. You can't, but again, that honesty about yourself, it kind of prevades within the circle of folks that work with you. Whether it's radio people who meet you, or the general public, or people in business, just be human. I've met a lot of people who have said, "I didn't expect you to be so nice."

BH: You've dealt with the deaths of the two men in your life—losing your father at such a young age, and then your child's father when he was only 34 years old. Can you tell us maybe one thing that stands out in your mind as helping you get through both of those tragic events?

NC: When I think of those two people in particular, I have nothing but fond memories. So that tells me that the time I spent with them was quality time. I think that the only thing that has kept me from losing it totally is the Lord and the people in my life who have suffered and taken on that burden with me. They have lent their love and their support during those rough times. Our family was torn apart terribly by my father's death. We're just now beginning to come back in the fold with one another. My mother was deeply affected by it, I was deeply affected by it. Then I had my own personal problems—that didn't help. When I was starting to see some daylight, I lost my husband. Only because I'm the one in the public eye, does it look like I'm carrying it all. I'm not carrying this by myself by any means. I have quite a little batch of cheerleaders! (laughs) They are people who say, "You're the spokesman. You've got to carry the crown now as graciously as possible, as gracefully as possible." If it wasn't for them, I couldn't do it.

BH: On the new album, is "More Than The Stars" the first thing you've written?

NC: No, I've written several things dating back to the third album, "Unpredictable." I wrote two on that one and two on the next one. Sporadically, I do write things. There was an album called Don't Look Back that my husband and I wrote together, which was really fun to do. I'm going to start doing more—I say this every interview—but I am determined to do it.

BH: Do you have to be in the mood, or have an event happen in your life to sit down and write a song?

NC: Not for me! I don't have a routine. I don't consider myself a writer yet because I don't put aside a time during the day to write. I'm not writing here at home, I'm writing out on the road. "More Than The Stars" was written on the road with my cousin Eddie Cole. It started in my hotel room, in, of all places, in Australia. The song is six years old! I find that I'm more motivated when I'm working BH: What about duets? "We're The Best Of Friends" with Peabo Bryson back in 1979 was the last one we've heard from you. Do you have any coming up?

NC: I did have the opportunity recently to do a duet with Ray Parker Jr. called "Over You." I think the next single he has out might be this duet, it's a Burt Bacharach tune. That's the first since Peabo Bryson. My album was really completed when we did this song, and by the time it was put together, it ended up on his album. I could be a two-edged sword. My song is out now and the duet will come out, so it's going to be interesting to see if it helps my song or hurts his song, or if they both do well.

BH: Reggie Calloway produced "Jump Start." How did you hook up with the Calloway guys?

NC: We would run into each other every now and then on the road when he was still with Midnight Star, and he had expressed, just in conversation, an interest in writing something for me. Apparently he and Jerry Griffith, who does A&R at Manhattan, were talking a good six months to a year before I ever went to the label of Reggie doing something for one of their artists. He called up when I signed with the label and asked to do a song. He came out from Cincinnati to L.A. and played just the chorus for "Jump Start"—that's all he had. Jerry and I looked at each other and said, "Oh, we like it." The song was actually being put together while we were recording it. It took about three weeks.

BH: I saw your TV show, "The Natalie Cole Special." If you were to take up acting to add to your list of accomplishments, would you lean toward drama or comedy, or would you go the inevitable route of a Broadway musical?

NC: I like comedy. I'm really good at playing the straight man. This was actually told to me when Chuck Berry and I did a presentation at an award show and he was totally acting up and crazy. I was not expecting it, we were all dressed up and he was acting the fool, and I was flabbergasted. It came off like it was planned! It was the Image Awards and it was not televised that year, but a woman came up to me who was a casting director for comedy, and said, "If you ever decide to leave your singing career behind, call me. You are the funniest straight man of all time!" I look at Thelma Hawkins and Mel Carter, they play off of each other, and I can do that. Or Maude, you know, Beatrice Arthur—I love her role, I'd love to do her part. She's very sarcastic, she plays down everything she does, and she's hysterical!

BH: "Flabbergasted"—one New York critic wrote after your Avery Fisher Hall performance in '86, "Her staying power left the audience flabbergasted!"

NC: I've never heard about that one.

BH: What do you think it is you do to the audiences?

NC: My mom was in the audience that night. I have been fortunate in that most of my reviews have been more favorable than not. Through the years, they have been very nice to me. "Flabbergasted" is a new word, though, because, the particular performance that night was George Benson and I. The first half we did our own material and the second half was a tribute to my father. It was a special night for me. Maybe I turned on a little more than I usually do. I

Steve Perun, new at the reins of Miami's Y100, has lured back Kid Curry to take nights. Curry has been at B104-Baltimore for the past three years. His previous Miami gigs include 195 and Y100 in the Bill Tanner era. "Bill's been trying to get him back for two years," says Steve. Retorts Tanner, now crosstown at POWER96: "Since they have no jocks with any name recognition in the market, they obviously had to do something."

Morning man Rick Healy is now PD, MD & chief bottle washer at KEWB-Redding, CA. The station adds midday host Alison Miller and News Director Dave Kelin ... "No, I'm not vegging out at a New Age station—in fact, quite the opposite," reports Bonnie Simmons, now weekendng at SF's LIVE105 and weekday-ing at Hightone Records. "I guess...I'm a promotion person," she says. Say high at the sound of the tone: (415) 521-8357.

Midday guy Joel Muller adds MD title at KROW-Reno ... Amarillo's KATP makes a U-turn in its format switch to Top 40. Still rocking, the station has brought over PD Tim Butler from AM sister KPUR (now simulcasting), while Jim Kelly moves up to MD ... With The Daytona Group's acquisition of KEYX-Phoenix, Jonathan L. (Rosen) has once again departed. Jeff Parets is now Asst. PD/MD ... Jimmy "The Saint" Christopher has been defrocked as PD at KISS-San Antonio. He's available at (512) 558-4905 ... Over at B93-Austin, PD Lisa Tonacci is no longer available. On Nov. 19th, she married morning man Mike Butts in an on-the-air ceremony.

Rick Arner moves up to PD at KTRS-Casper, WY. He will retain his midday shift and Sports Director duties ... At KVNF-Paonia, CO, a saddle-sore Denise Dodge returns from a 4 1/2-month horseback trek to resume her MD duties. Candy Pennetta remains as Asst. MD ... Mel Myers is interim PD'ing at Tulsa's Z104.5, following the departure of Brent Alberts for WQFM in Milwaukee ... Olympic Broadcasting has agreed to buy KLTY-Liberty, MO, and plans to move its stick to downtown Kansas City ... Darren Lee is the new MD at WBIZ-Eau Claire, WI ... Clint Logan is now Asst. MD at WVJC-Mt. Carmel, IL.

DEES EYES NFL'S BALLS PIGSKIN ROUNDUP

Is the NFL chintzy for not allowing fans a chance to keep footballs that go into the stands during games? Rick Dees thinks so. The KIIS-Los Angeles morning guy has offered to buy any footballs that go astray during Rams and Raiders games so fans can take them home, just like home runs and foul balls in baseball games. He's also leant his support to a "Drop The Nets" campaign during field goal and PA attempts to get the NFL to let go of its balls.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, KEYJ-Abilene PD Kelly Jay has his own hot issue—"Bring Back The Scabs." Like many Lone Star staters, he's mighty disappointed in the Cowboys' post-strike performance. His bumper stickers are available by calling (915) 672-5796 or (915) 676-9271.

HOELZLE NEW ASSOCIATE COUNTRY EDITOR

Assiduous Gavin Report masthead readers will note that our Country Music researcher, Cyndi Hoelzle, has been promoted to Associate Editor of that department. She'll be assisting our new Country Music Editor, Lisa Smith, who comments, "Why can't she have an easy-to-pronounce name like me?" Cyndi has been working as a researcher here for the last four years and plans to celebrate her promotion by refusing to return Tony Richland's phone calls.

Cincinnati to take the PD/OM job at WBVE. His shift goes to SIX PD Eric Marshall, who drafts Sports Director Duncan Stewart as Asst. Program Manager, in charge of full-service WSIX/AM ... PD Bob O'Connor has announced the following line up for Chicago's New Age WNUA: Art Wallis, mornings; Gwen St. John, middays; Tom Hamilton, afternoons; Rose Nadolsky, nights; Bo Cockran, overnights. continued on page 19

FREEZE-OUT IN CALGARY ABC FLEXES OLYMPIC MUSCLE

Intrepid radio reporters who brave Alberta's snows to cover the Winter Olympic Games in Calgary this February may find themselves out in the cold. As it did at the 1984 Summer Games in Los Angeles, ABC Radio is claiming the sole rights to live coverage. ABC news executive Bob Benson says non-ABC reporters will be subject to the so-called "3-3-3 Rule"—three reports daily, no more than three minutes long and no less than three hours apart.

HARRY CHAPIN TO BE HONORED DEC. 7TH THE HOLIDAY SPIRIT OF GIVING

In case you haven't been to the local mall lately, let us inform you that the Christmas Season has been under way for some weeks now. The good news is that the holiday spirit is also in evidence in the radio and music industries. Some highlights:

The late singer/songwriter Harry Chapin will be honored with a Congressional Gold Medal, civilian equivalent of the Medal of Honor, on December 7th. Chapin, who died in a 1981 car accident, was one of the backers of World Hunger Year. The ceremony, on the 45th anniversary of his birth, will include a Carnegie Hall tribute by Bruce Springsteen, Carly Simon, Pat Benatar, Kenny Rogers, Sen. Edward Kennedy and others. Dunhill Compact Classics is also planning two special CD releases of Chapin material, with a portion of the proceeds to benefit the World Hunger Program. Says Dunhill CD President Marshall Blonstein: "We have always held the greatest respect for Harry Chapin as a songwriter and performer, and equally as a human being with strong concern for his fellow man. It is a privilege having the opportunity to help make Harry's music accessible on compact disc at this time." Blonstein is also asking radio stations across the country to join together at 2:30 p.m. EST on December 7th for a simultaneous broadcast of one of Chapin's last song's, "Remember The Music." For more information, contact Blonstein or Pattie Lundy at Dunhill Compact Classics: (818) 993-8822.

On Friday, November 13th, based on a recommendation from KIIS/FM GM Lynn Powell-Anderson, the Gannett Foundation made a $100,000 donation to victims of the October 1st Los Angeles earthquake.

Tommy Boy Records is releasing "A.F.R.I.C.A.," an anti-apartheid rap record featuring the group Stetsasonic, the Rev. Jesse Jackson and Nigerian drummer Olatunji. All royalties from the sale of the record will be donated to The Africa Fund for humanitarian relief work in the frontline states bordering South Africa. More on the project from Laura Hynes: (212) 722-2211.

On November 21st, acts ranging from Los Lobos and Robert Cray to Jethro Tull and James Taylor are to perform free on the "Children of the Americas Hunger-thon" organized by Graham Nash for UNICEF. The four-hour radio event will raise money to aid children in developing countries. Among the first contributors: Bruce Springsteen, who chunked in ten grand.

Steve Massie has been appointed Manager, Country Marketing, Midwest Region for CBS Records/Nashville. Massie had been running his own company, Team One Promotions, in Chicago. He will report to Joe Casey, VP/Promotion, CBS Records/Nashville.

With the release of the new George Thorogood and the Destroyers LP, Rounder Records has ended its relationship with EMI-Manhattan. The two companies may pursue future joint projects, but are under no obligation to do so. Rounder is currently negotiating with CBS Records for the release of The Dirty Dozen Brass Band, from its Modern New Orleans Master Series.

After 13 years with Capitol and EMI, Ken Benson is departing at the end of November. He's available at (800) 231-7453--within California, (213) 461-9141.

Stephen Powers has been named President of Los Angeles-based Chameleon Records. He served previously as manager of Pop A&R for Capitol Records in Hollywood, where he signed such acts as Billy Vera, Fetchin' Bones, The Reivers and Duane Eddy. He says his priorities with Chameleon are "aggressive acquisition of new talent, increased marketing and promotion."

RCA Records has named Jeanne Mattiussi National Director of Video Development and Production. She's spent the last four years as West Coast Director of Artist and Video Development at Columbia Records. She will report to RCA VP/Communications Dennis Fine, who said, "We are indeed fortunate to have someone this talented and knowledgeable join us."

EMI-Manhattan Records has named Peter Ritchie as its Manager of Product Management. The South African native had been the label's London-based Director of European Promotion.

DELTA BLUES

VIDEO ALERT

For your consideration: Columbus, Mississippi, a town where MTV is only a myth. A town where the cable operator believes music videos to be the devil's work. A town where WZIX/FM's Bob O'Dell and Keith Miller are trying to prove that you can't stop the music. They've launched their own show on the local ABC-TV affiliate--"Dancebusters--The Videos." The dauntless duo is in dire need of videos from all sources. Their address: PO Box 1247, Highway 82 West, Columbus, MS 39701.

At WJLK-Asbury Park, NJ, morning personality Tim Downs is now P.D. and p.m. driver Ziggy is MD, as Captain Jack comes crosstown from WJRZ to take nights ... Author Stephen King has put his WZON-Bangor on the block. A change of its Album Radio format is due.

CJFM-Montreal copped two honors at Canada's National Music Industry Awards: Susan Davis was named A/C PD of the Year and Henry Van Den Hoogen A/C MD of the Year. C'wag c'grats to both.

NET FEEDS

Richie Rosenfeld joined MJI Broadcasting as line producer of "Country Today." He had been Production Manager for the United Stations Radio Network in New York.

Tom Cuddy has been named VP/Entertainment Programming for the ABC Radio Networks. He had been PD/OM at Top 40 WPRO-AM/FM in Providence, an ABC/Cap Cities O&O. ABC Radio has also appointed Margaret Belden as Account Executive. She comes from Christal Radio, and with a name like that, should go far.

ALL OSGOOD, ALL THE TIME CBS SWEETENS AFFILIATE LURE

CBS Radio is giving affiliates two things they've been demanding: local spot availabilities in net newscasts and more Charles Osgood. In January, Osgood's current single daily three-minute report will be replaced by four four-minute "Osgood Files" every morning. Osgood will give up anchoring the hourly newscasts at 7 and 9 a.m. Also, for the first time, local stations will be able to sell spots in CBS network newscasts and features. The net is also expanding its supplementary Newsfeed service, adding a full-time producer to act as liaison between affiliates and correspondents to set up customized reports and interviews. CBS Radio VP/GM Robert Kipperman says the changes "will do a great deal to competitively position our stations in their markets, while at the same time giving them the opportunity to use the high-caliber CBS Radio Network programming to its fullest."

H-E-E-E-R-E'S IVA... ICEHOUSE TV

Move over, Doc Severinsen. The guest list for Johnny Carson's show next Wednesday includes Icehouse. Early-to-bed types can catch up with them on the cover of next week's Gavin.

INSIDE A/C

Bill Medley & Jennifer Warnes take number one with a 99% HIT FACTOR four and a half months since its release as a tease for the movie "Dirty Dancing." Both song and film have done quite well, thank you.

Bourgeois Tagg gains only two points in ranking despite an increase of 47 HEAVY rotation reports and 11 adds.

Dan Hill is about to turn top ten again. He's cleared 200 A/C stations in the past six weeks and will HIT FACTOR in the 90's next week.

HIT FACTOR fans and Whitney Houston fans will admire the latter's profile in the former. Whitney's five-week stats are 168 stations and an 86% HIT FACTOR.

Restless Heart has moved from 36 to 26 to 18 in the past two weeks while an equally hot record, Smokey Robinson's "What's Too Much," similarly leaps 38 to 28 to 20. Both have single-digit futures in no time.

Though John Cougar Mellencamp has been a bit of a foreigner to A/C radio in recent months, his new single, "Cherry Bomb," is 72 stations strong and more than half are HIT FACTORing. Check out these calls: B100, WHTX, WSNI, KIMN, KGW, WMT/FM and WLS.

The Temptations are about to chart with "I Wonder Who She's Seeing Now." Among the early A/C'ers who can't resist the Temptations are KKLV/FM, KFMB, WBLU, KKRB, 3WM, WALG, KHYL/FM and KGY.

Eleven adds on Supertramp, last week's RECORD TO WATCH. New this week are WGOL/FM, KNOX, KHOZ, WIHN, KVSF, KLOV, KUBC, KHTN, KRLT, KVVN/FM and KASY.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, Jude Cole's "You Were In My Heart," shows a 40% HIT FACTOR with solid rotation from solid stations such as WSKY, KLZS, KWAV, KKRB and KYJC.

The Housemartins a capella remake of the Isley, Jasper, Isleys' "Caravan Of Love" debuts in UP & COMING this week. Among the tenants are WALG, WGSV, WSKY, WJON, WFMJ, KVIC, WKCX, WZLQ and WAFL.

Note: This week The Gavin Report will be going to press a day early due to the Thanksgiving holiday. We'd appreciate your reports on Monday if at all possible or Tuesday morning at the latest.

REVIEWS

by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN
Tunnel Of Love (Columbia)

The title track from his new album has been a programmer's favorite and is now released as the new single. It's a song of potential thrills which come from a ride into the unknown.

DAVID RUFFIN & EDDIE KENDRICKS
I Couldn't Believe It (RCA)

These former Temptations call upon their musical roots for a soul poppin' good time. Sounds like the famous James Jamerson Motown bass line.

Tiffany

TIFFANY
Could've Been (MCA)

She's growing up fast. This mature ballad will prove she's no one-hit wonder.

DOLLY PARTON
River Unbroken (Columbia)

It has been a few years since Dolly has had a song to access pop radio. This one, her debut for Columbia Records, should center with A/C radio while some Top 40 and a given number of Country fans buy into the new sound.

LEE RITENOUR
Turn The Heat Up (GRP)

Lee's slick guitar with Eric Tagg and Phil Perry vocals will force you to turn the volume up. Could be an immediate add for our progressive A/Cs but even a conservative A/C should have ears for this one.

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK

I'd like to share with you an inspiring note that a new employee wrote to her colleagues at Southwest General Hospital in Cleveland:

"Sometime or another we all have been the 'new kid on the block.' This time it was my turn as the 'new employee.' But to my amazement, all the butterflies stopped fluttering as I began to meet the new faces at Southwest General Hospital.

"Each smile softened the jittering nerves. I was bubbling inside...Oh, and you know the uneasiness when you have to fill out all those forms—all those little squares to check and lines to complete. I was sure my fingers would not cooperate, knowing the anxiety I was experiencing. Of course, the courteous smiles and gracious personnel led me right through.

"Now with mop in hand, cleaning profoundly, I looked at the distinguished gentleman coming down the corridor. 'Hello,' he greeted me humbly. To myself, I thought, 'I like it here—I might be the new employee, but I've been accepted.'

"After orientation, most of the topsy-turvy settled, I want to say hats off to all of Southwest General for making the 'new employee' welcome. And to that distinguished gentleman—Thanks, Mr. L.J. Schurmeier. If I had known I had been greeted by the President of Southwest General Hospital, I might have spilled my mop water that day!"

Shirley Barker, the author of that letter, is a housekeeper at Southwest General Hospital, and I think her words are a lesson for all of us.

How do you treat new employees—managers as well as non-managers? Do you go out of the way to make them feel welcome? Do you inquire as to their problems and questions? Do you help them cope with the paperwork and bureaucracy? Do you tell them "how things really work around here"—that is, what they can do and whom they should see to get things done quickly and efficiently?

Or are they just left to fend for themselves?

"Not my responsibility," some might say. I could argue against that from an ethical standpoint, but I also believe there are compelling business reasons for helping the new kid on the block, regardless of whether you're that "kid's" peer or superior.

For one thing, work in firms today is increasingly teamwork. The more quickly you can integrate the new employee into the team, the more productive your team will be, and the more satisfied you're going to be. Secondly, some recent research indicates that effective managers create informal "networks" with people at all levels throughout the organizations. These networks provide the manager with resources, support and help (and vice versa, of course). The networks are vital for skirting the bureaucracy in order to get things done quickly and efficiently. The new kid on the block will remember your helpful overtures and will no doubt repay them in kind. Why not create a new network with the new employee, regardless of the department he or she is in? Do it for your own self-interest, if nothing else.

If you're a senior manager, going out of your way to help a Shirley Barker is a wonderfully symbolic statement about the kind of shop you're running, and don't think other employees won't notice. Making sure that all new employees go through a comprehensive and supportive orientation program is another good idea. A good orientation program should educate the new employee about the organization and its history, why it's special and unique and what its strategic distinction is. The orientation process should also explain the new employee's job and how it fits into the department and organization as a whole. A good orientation program should inspire the new employee to be proud of working in your organization. Most orientation programs are too brief, too narrow (a few basic policies and formal personnel issues) and not particularly "warm."

I would also recommend that new employees can be useful "consultants" for senior managers. New employees come into your organization with fresh perspectives. Why not make it a point to ask them some questions after they've been on the job for a couple of weeks? For example:

"What's it like to work here?"

"From your perspective, what could we do better around here?"

"Have we fulfilled your expectations of this job?"

"Do the things you have learned in the orientation program jibe with what you

Work in firms today is increasingly teamwork. The more quickly you can integrate the new employee into the team, the more productive your team will be.

actually experience on the job?"

If you're a senior manager in a small group, talk to each new "consultant" individually. If you have a larger shop, pick people randomly, or hold periodic focus groups. Don't rely solely on questionnaires. They won't give you the kind of feedback you get from face-to-face encounters. Those face-to-face encounters also make an important symbolic statement to the new employees.

So make that new kid feel welcome. You'll all benefit. Besides, one day that new kid may be you. Wouldn't you like to be treated the same way? ●

THIS IS NOT A TEST

In some parts of the country, winter has already arrived in force. If a local or regional emergency strikes, is your station prepared to activate the EBS (Emergency Broadcast System)? EBS is not just for wartime conditions, you know. Many stations activate it every year, when a severe storm, earthquake, conflagration, flood or other life-threatening condition occurs, and emergency information is needed by the people of the area.

To activate the system, it is merely necessary to announce that you are doing so, stating why, and sound the EBS tone. The tone burst (about 27 seconds long) alerts any other stations that may be monitoring you by turning on an automatic receiver and putting your programming on a speaker. Various emergency agencies have such receivers--as do some private citizens, although I don't understand why consumers can buy an inexpensive weather radio with this feature at Radio Shack, but not AM and FM receivers equipped in this way. It seems to me a feature of great potential value, particularly in tornado areas where an emergency can arise within minutes or even seconds.

So...is your staff informed as to the procedure in calling an EBS situation? Are scripts and carts available for this purpose? A station can handle an emergency without calling an EBS situation, and can continue running ads if it wishes, but is not freed from various FCC rules as is the case when the condition is called.

The FCC regulations most often broken in an EBS situation are those limits on AM daytimers, or those with very weak nighttime signals. This may be done legally for as long as the EBS situation is in effect, but no commercials can be run during EBS operation by any station. EBS operation must be fully logged, and as soon as the condition is terminated, a full explanation must be sent to the FCC with all details of the operation. Any station may, on its own authority, declare an EBS condition, and commence operations under EBS provisions, but if the reason is frivolous, the station faces a certain reprimand and fine. The FCC will usually not second-guess a station's judgment, if there appears to have been good reason, even when subsequent events do not seem to justify it.

In the event of a national war-oriented EBS system, of course, your news teletype will bring you the news. The sealed envelope of code words from the FCC, when checked by date against the code words on the teletype message, will verify or cancel the alert message. Stations are expected to go immediately to EBS operation and stand by for word from the president--although when an authentic national EBS alert was mistakenly called 15 years ago (somebody at NORAD put on the wrong teletype tape), most stations ignored it. Be aware that even if the message is a mistake, if it checks out as authentic using the authenticator words in the envelope, you are expected to go to EBS operation immediately. Is your staff aware of the envelope? Do they know where it is and how to use it? We hope and pray we'll never need it, but it's there for a purpose. Knowing and responding correctly to the EBS requirements is a mandatory duty of every station, and your license is on the line if you don't!

Getting back to the very real possibility that your station may be called on for EBS service during a local or regional natural disaster, are you and your staff familiar with how the regional EBS network is set up? Although FM and TV stations are able to provide EBS service to the public if needed, in the official plan, at least a few of these stations have an important secondary role--as audio relay for AM stations operating in a regional emergency. These networks are set up for each state or region, with every station supposedly aware of not only what station to monitor for the weekly EBS test (reception of which must be logged), but also what FM or TV station to monitor for this network feed. Each station is mandated to have equipment sufficient to receive the designated network relay system and to put it on the air immediately if needed. Is your station able to do that? If not, you risk a fine--and public censure if you prove inadequate in a crunch.

If your station does come through for the public in an emergency, you will enjoy ratings and business results that no money could buy for years to come. You have a lot to lose if you and your staff are not ready when the time comes!●

EBS is not just for wartime conditions. Many stations activate it every year, when a severe storm, earthquake, conflagration, flood or other life-threatening condition occurs, and emergency information is needed by the people of the area.

HOLLYWOOD

by Tony Richland

Joe Belden, a big shot at the Gavin Report, suggested that this week's column have something to do with Thanksgiving (a holiday created by companies which manufacture instant stuffing mix). We tried to tell Joe there was nothing to say about this advertising agency celebration, but he insisted.

Personally, we don't like Thanksgiving. It always seems to arrive on a Thursday, and most people, companies and radio stations have the idea that the Friday following is part of the "festivities." What that means is that a self-respecting promotion person can't get anyone on the phone, and we have to hope our records get added by accident.

Nonetheless, we researched this unneeded day off and learned that it has something to do with the Pilgrims. Until we cracked our Webster's Unabridged, we thought "pilgrim" was something John Wayne called people in the movies. Turns out the word means "Any member of the band of English Puritans who founded Plymouth Colony in 1620." Frankly, that interested us because we think we've read about an alternative band called English Puritans right here in the Gavin Report. They're on Geffen, but Geffen doesn't know it. Another definition of "pilgrim" is "A traveler to a shrine or holy place." That could describe a Virgin local guy visiting KEGL on Monday morning and attempting to see John Roberts.

We've decided to honor this holiday and celebrate it in the traditional manner, boring or not. Our wife, operating on an extremely limited budget, has purchased 15 pounds of pressed and formed imitation turkey meat shaped to resemble Oprah Winfrey. The family can't wait for the carving. We've already stored ten cans of generic simulated cranberry sauce, and our kids have been busy injecting the stuff with plenty of mouth-watering MSG.

Yeah, we'll be in the spirit and have set our alarm so we can be up in time to watch the tedious Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade, when Ed McMahon tries to inject some life into the dreary procession of balloons shaped like Annette Funicello as they plod their way down Fifth Avenue.

After dinner, which will be capped off with a nausea-inducing Mrs. Paul's Combination Fish Stick Medley and Pumpkin Pie, the family will settle down to watch our tapes of scab football. The kids will repair to their bedroom VCR where "Last Tango In Paris" and "Debbie Does Yankton" should keep them occupied for the night.

Perhaps we should examine just what Thanksgiving is really all about: Apparently, the above-noted Pilgrims arrived in the States—there were only about 13 of them—some time back in what we call "the old days" (that's even before Matty Singer and Juggy Gayles). Most of them arrived on Delta, which explains why they were late for dinner. After much conversation about shortening the procedure by purchasing Stouffer's Instant Frozen Turkey Dinners, the decision was made to cook the feast from scratch. Unfortunately, most of the scratch was in their luggage, which had been misdirected to Cleveland (a particularly interesting development, since Cleveland hadn't been invented yet). A number of Pilgrims thought roast eagle would make a nice dinner, and that the turkey could be ceremoniously enshrined as the National Bird. There was a mixup, and the rest is history.

Pilgrim Eric Norberg The First came up with a super idea. Said the first Nor-guy: "Let's open some surplus cans of these tasteless and boring sweet potatoes and serve them with the main course. After all, they're orange." Looks were exchanged, but no one had the courage to question the intellectual Eric as to why that was significant.

The first Thanksgiving was a roaring success. Fat Boys CDs had the pointed-hat crowd in a lively state of mind, and one tipsy Pilgrim was heard to mutter, "I may sleep in, even if I miss the Morning Zoo."

Pilgrim-ette Liz Kiley urged the group to get on with it so's not to miss the Thanksgiving Day White Sale at Rachel's Country Store and Emporium just down the street in a neighborhood called Rhode Island. Liz and her buddies Bonnie Knox, Nancy Fox and J.J. Steele were specifically interested in the latest Priscilla Alden designer jeans, each pair featuring the imprint of Miles Standish's profile on the right cheek. The jeans were normally marked at $14—but for YOU, $13.95. And so the holiday became part of the American Tradition, causing newly traditional airport gridlock and Friday morning Alka-Seltzer overkill.

Perhaps we should give our personal thanks for some of the things we're personally thankful for:

1. We're thankful that we (and SOME of our friends) weren't buried alive on the Oct. 1st Hollywood show biz earthquake.
2. We're thankful to Ron Fell for allowing us to get our Plymouth Rocks off each week in this space.
3. We're thankful that our Exile On Main Street LP isn't warped.
4. We're thankful to be alive and reasonably well in these days, and that we're blessed with a killer wife and two killer daughters. Come to think of it, maybe Thanksgiving has a point after all...

BIO FEEDBACK

by RON FELL

ANITA POINTER

Despite releasing her first solo album, "Love For What It Is," this month, she's quick to deny rumors of a Pointer Sisters break-up. Anita has been singing professionally with her sisters since 1969 and doesn't plan on quitting.

DOC POWELL

He met Luther Vandross when they both were in the band Change during the late '70s. Since then, Doc has played guitar on all of Luther's albums and tours.

THE JAMAICA BOYS

Their name refers to Jamaica, Long Island. The band's Mark Stevens is the younger brother of Chaka Khan.

TOWER OF POWER

The group was originally called the Motowns, even though they are from Oakland, California.

GLADYS KNIGHT

In 1952, she appeared on Ted Mack's Original Amateur Hour. She won $2,000 for her performance of Nat King Cole's "Too Young."

SIEDAH GARRETT

Her first solo album will be produced by Rod Temperton and released in early 1988.

ROBBIE ROBERTSON

November 24th marks the 11th anniversary of the Last Waltz concert of The Band. This final concert took place at San Francisco's Winterland on Thanksgiving Day, 1976.

LINDA RONSTADT

She's producing an album for guitarist David Lindley.

LOU REED

He has left RCA Records for a walk on the wild side, uh, Sire Records that is.

THERESA

Her latest single, "Sweet Memories," is produced by Denzil Foster and Thomas McElroy of Club Nouveau fame.

AZTEC CAMERA

In 1980, Rodney Frame formed the original Aztec Camera in Glasgow, Scotland, when he was just 16.

ROGER

Roger Troutman was born and raised in Hamilton, Ohio. Some of his earlier musical experiences came working with legends Sly Stone and George Clinton.

THE REIVERS

The Reivers, (pronounced REE-vers) formerly released records under the name Zeitgeist. This Austin, Texas, band took their present name from William Faulkner's novel.

TALKING HEADS

Harper & Row has just published "What The Songs Look Like," a graphic interpretation of Talking Heads songs as seen by 61 modern artists. Meanwhile, Heads Chris Frantz and Tina Weymouth are slated to produce an album by Ziggy Marley, son of Bob.

CHRISTOPHER CROSS

He's recording a new album, with Christine McVie and Michael McDonald adding some background vocals.

PINK FLOYD

Capitol Records says Pink Floyd's "Dark Side Of The Moon" album, released in February of 1973, still sells an average of 20,000 copies a month.

YES

Trevor Rabin is a native of South Africa who emigrated in 1978 and now lives in Hollywood.

PROMOTIONS

SPOTLIGHT PROMOTION OF THE WEEK

POWER 99FM DOES THE JOB

On September 29th, Power 99FM threw a party at Philadelphia's Port of History Museum on Penn's Landing to honor 100 young people between the ages of 14 and 21 with the Phil-a-Job Incentive Award. The award was for outstanding work in the Philadelphia area during the summer of 1987. Power 99FM was a supporter of Phil-a-Job, the city's youth employment program, which found jobs for more than 20,000 young people throughout the city this past summer. Some of those who made it work are (left to right) Power 99FM promotion director Marc Rayfield, Private Industry Council President David Lacey, Power 99FM GM Bruce Holberg, and staffers Loraine Ballard Morrill and Mike Love.

KS104 GOES WITH THE FLOE ►

Denver's new Top 40, KS104, proved that ice can be very nice, with an ice sculpture of the station's call letters, seven feet high and 17 feet long. The station enticed visitors to Denver's outdoor "Taste Of Colorado" festival to guess when the 10,000-pound sculpture would melt. The winner received a trip to Las Vegas.

ROLL ON ▲

The WXYQ-Stevens Point, WI, Wheel-A-Thon helped raise more than $3,500 to build a handicapped fitness course at a local nursing home. The wheelchair rally wound two miles through downtown Stevens Point. WXYQ's afternoon drive personality Dean Goulet is shown here giving midday talent Michelle Brooks a friendly push.

"XX" BENEFIT CONCERT RAISES $10,000 TO FIGHT MD ►

WXXP-Pittsburgh staffers proudly present local Muscular Dystrophy Association poster child Billy Ammond with a $10,000 check. The station raised the money when nearly 4,000 WXXP listeners attended a music benefit featuring Echo & The Bunnymen, New Order and Gene Loves Jezebel. After the concert, Peter Hook of New Order, along with the rest of the band, presented Billy with a check for an additional $5,000. Standing (left to right) XX morning team Phil Kizyc & Paul Cramer, Pittsburgh brewing rep Lou Lineman. Seated (left to right)

XX Promotion Director Maureen Cassidy, XX air personality Darrin Smith, poster child Billy Ammond, and XX air personalities Cris Winter and Deb Brady.

A VERY SPECIAL CHRISTMAS

A VERY SPECIAL CHRISTMAS (A&M)

Here's a Christmas record that feels like a roller coaster ride. I know you're just getting over Halloween and getting around to Thanksgiving, but this one the Cecil B. DeMille of Christmas records. The likes of Bon Jovi, John Mellencamp, Eurythmics, Bob Seger, Bryan Adams, Whitney Houston, Madonna, Alison Moyet, Stevie Nicks, Bruce Springsteen, The Pretenders, U2, Sting and Run DMC are awash in holly, sleigh bells and Christmas spirit. A side benefit is that all proceeds from this all-star bash go to the Special Olympics. Highlights include RUN DMC rapping Christmas style. Bob Seger "pa-rum-pa-pum-pumping" is a hoot as well. You can't lose with this package. The New York Times called it the best Christmas album in 25 years. I'd rank this one up there with Father Phil Spector's classic package.

CHARACTERS-STEVIE WONDER (MOTOWN)

Stevie's still on a stone cold digital groove. His new album, Characters, still has a sense of the old ultra-violence when it comes to songs like "Dark 'N' Lovely" and "Cryin' Through The Night." Instrumentally, he's still playing solitaire inside his electronic solitude. Elsewhere on this new album, Stevie Wonder explores Synclavier, using techniques of happy and anguished melody. His world seems to be a tight inner circle of one man's ideas. And while sometimes one would welcome a little more input from the outer world, it's still fascinating to hear music from this mind. Obviously technology has a role in making such a talent completely self-contained, but do remember that it's the human touch that Stevie Wonder has on the end of his fingertips that sets him apart from a hundred producers with the same hard and software.

O POSITIVE

Buster POINDEXTER

BUSTER POINDEXTER (RCA)

It's a mad cabaret road show. It's a fond rehashing of some rare R&B chestnuts. It's the most inventive use of pompadour ("an arrangement of man's hair in which it is brushed up high from the forehead") of 1987-88. Buster and his band are the current toast of the Big Apple. Working up from the smallest of clubs, Buster now only plays the nitty joints where sometimes the crowds are so thick, you're selected for admittance based on the fit of your cummerbund. All across the country, R&B cover orchestras represent a big draw on the nightclub scene. Buster Poindexter and his Banshees of Blue are way beyond cheap Motown covers. The arrangements are tight and professional, doubly suitable for radio and bar mitzvahs. Treat yourself to something beyond the same ole eighties crunch rock. Wasn't that the ex-NY Doll David Johansen trying to crash the gig at the Ritz? He was left out in the cold because now Buster rules.

"SAY YOU WILL"-FOREIGNER (ATLANTIC)

Though they are commonly Album Radio associated, Foreigner has been a favorite singles band of mine. "Say You Will" does nothing to dispel that status. It is true to the high-crafted standards Mick Jones has been known for. With virtually all the big name projects already out there, Foreigner should slice through with even wider impact.

PIERCE TURNER

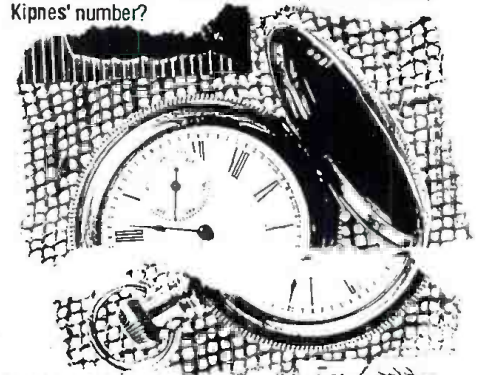

"WICKLOW HILLS"-PIERCE TURNER (BEGGARS BANQUET/RCA)

A taste from an intriguing solo album by Pierce Turner of the Major Thinkers. Turner, a transplanted Irishman now living in New York, once released an odd funk ditty that caught the ear of street corner break dancers and, of all people, Cyndi Lauper. Since, Cyndi has become a star while Turner has put together his record co-produced by Philip Glass. There's even a cover of The The's "Uncertain Smile." "Wicklow Hills" is a shuffle-beat "up" debut from an album that sounds even better with every roll of the tape. Unusual and satisfying.

CLOUD FACTORY-O POSITIVE (LINK)

"Talk About Love" is grabbing number one requests at WFNX according to Bruce McDonald. We are fans of the Positives from their Throbbing Lobster days. As guitars strum along hypnotically, the overall groove is power texture. O Positive is an inventive guitar band. This five song EP is a nice update as to what the band is currently into. Call Link at 212-334-9556. Hey, isn't that Andy Kipnes' number?

THIS IS SOCA (SIRE)

So this is Soca, which I assume stands for South Caribbean or something like that. Like the opening track asks, "Are you ready for a brand new discovery?" Calypso has been rocking the islands since the jazz era began. However this collection (comprising one disc by David Rudder with Charles Roots and a sampler by other artists) is a modernization of the music form. Rudder is a spectacular singer with the drive and voice quality of Jimmy Cliff. Horn lines blast, guitar licks flow while the percussion resembles a new modern beat. Bands like the Talking Heads have been borrowing grooves like this with much success. Calypso, reggae, ska, juju and other third world ingredients are a welcome addition to the current United States music melting pot. A live tour of this material could be one of the events of the year. A song like "Journvert Music" has some sweet chord changes, but "Calypso Music" is the grand introduction.

LONG LIVE THE NEW FLESH-FLESH FOR LULU (CAPITOL)

"Postcards To Paradise" is a microcosm of this band's appeal. While they are a modern image band, they are quite capable of rocking it. Keep a watch on this young band.

by Kent Zimmerman

"U2 Star May Have To Scrub Buses" San Francisco Chronicle Headline Nov. 17, 1987

U2 CAN SCRUB BUSES. A lot of folks have asked about the U2/Graffiti incident that's been blown a little out of proportion. It all started with a free concert performed November 10 in San Francisco in front of the Vaillancourt Fountain in Justin Herman Plaza. During the course of their 50 minute set, Bono Hewson spray-painted "Stop The Traffic, Rock 'N' Roll" on the side of the fountain/sculpture erected by Toronto artist Armand Vaillancourt. This action incensed San Francisco Mayor Dianne Feinstein, who has headed up a 24 month anti-graffiti program. Subsequently a misdemeanor citation was served to Bono on the eve of their Oakland Stadium performances. U2's next move was to present the artist, Armand Vaillancourt onstage. Armed with a roller and paint, Vaillancourt "altered" U2's Joshua Tree motif stage with an array of graffiti. Bono's contention was that his original act was an artistic statement rather than an act of vandalism. Unfortunately he was unaware of how pervasive a problem graffiti is to those who ride public transportation. A hearing has been scheduled for early December. Bono was the 346th person cited this year on graffiti vandalism charges. If found guilty, he could be subject to either a $500 fine or wind up scrubbing buses where the streets have no names.

WELCOME TO THE MACHINE.

Sometimes we think that maybe it's the air or something to do with the water supply. For instance, the Rocky Mountain region has some of the most progressive, original radio in the country. The same seems to be true of the Northeast. Just added is WRSI-FM in Greenfield, MA. Jim Olsen is the PD/MD and he does a hell of a job assembling a playlist of good music and interesting possibilities. Plus, he's just down the road from WKXE-White River Junction, VT and WNCS-Montpelier. "In fact, WKXE and our station are both 95.3 on the dial. Folks passing through listening to WKXE segue right into us without missing a beat." Address is Box 910, 01302. Give Jim a call at 413-774-2321. He joins our proud list of correspondents.

LEAVING TRAINS. Ken Benson is departing the reorganized EMI-Manhattan Los Angeles headquarters after 13 years with the Capitol/EMI organization. Formerly an underpaid Detroit disc jockey, Benson's low key flair will be missed when the next Kate Bush album is released on whatever label she inks with. Ken will be at EMI until the end of November. Give him a buzz at 800-231-7453. After that, he'll be at 213-461-9141. He's looking for the right opportunity... Jonathan L. a.k.a. Jonathan Rosen has left KEYX-Phoenix after "musical changes and differences due to change of ownership." Jonathan is a talented guy who hosted the longest consecutive running

New Music show (outside of Rodney Bingenheimer) in the United States. Before that, Jonathan published the magazine, Newsreel for eleven years. Jonathan is looking for a radio station or record label that wants to stay current and is looking toward the future. He can easily adapt his skills to any type of Album Radio station interested in a fresh talent. The mild-mannered Rosen can be reached at 602-967-6278. "Virgin Vinyl is very important to me," stated Rosen contemplating his future.

IT'S A NEW RECORD. George Harrison broke a Gavin Report record by being the number one Most Added album for three weeks in a row. He's got his mind set on number one, a tough push since Sting and Robbie Robertson are just as headstrong at one and two, respectively.

SEAN COAKLEY. Arista's Mr. LP has a strange sense of self-promotion. Affixed to a photocopy of his face was a list of obscene baseball salaries. Sample: NY Mets' Gary Carter, $2,098,571 per year. Meanwhile the weeping sound you hear is Coakley and yours truly commiserating over the still-young NBA season. Coakley's Cleveland Cavs are looking miserable (though they just beat the Celtics) while the Golden State Warriors are playing like a junior varsity team. "I've decided to head South for spring training in February. When is the Gavin Seminar again?" That Coakley--he's a kiddier.

Stay well. Yer pal, KZ.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

by Peter Standish

Love & Rockets repeat as Alternative champions, but the Screaming Blue Messiahs close to within 15% chart points and certainly have a shot at #1. The Housemartins continue to climb and Bryan Ferry & The Alarm re-ignite, sporting significant gains. But once again, the most talked about album is Sinead O'Conner's. Let there be no doubt that this artist is for real. It's very seldom that a debut album breaks the top 10 and she's drawing raves from: Jim Keller, KJET-Seattle, James Lien, WTUL-New Orleans ("getting lots of calls"), Ivar Hamilton, CFNY-Toronto ("tremendous calls"), Kandy Wilkens, WXCI-Danbury, and Brian Davis, WDCR-Hanover. Probably the most competitive area on the chart is between the top 10 and early 20's. Look for some stalled records on the low end to pick up steam and for more debuts in the coming weeks. Last week's Record To Watch, Game Theory transforms into the highest Certified debut and Adam Langley, WBNY-Buffalo, remarking "I love it. It's quite a big step for them." Aztec Camera, Grapes Of Wrath, Celibate Rifles, the Meat Puppets and Ry Cooder round out our debuts. Camper Van Beethoven's last independent album is off to a quick start, pulling intense non-commercial play. A few albums that just missed Chartbound should make the cut next week including Cry Before Dawn, David Sylvian, Soup Dragons, Buster Poindexter and Chris & Cosy. AROUND THE HORN: Sorry to lose KBSU-Boise whose Alternative programming essentially doesn't exist anymore. Also, Bill McLaughlin at KUSF-San Francisco, will be stepping down as Music Director at the station. Former WUSC-Columbia, SC, MD/PD John Van Citters called this week. He's alive and well and living in Florida working for Capitol EMI-Manhattan as a Customer Service Rep. Give John a shout at (305) 572-0066.

SPOTLIGHT LP

The Best Kisser In The World.
MAX EIDER (Big Time)

A few years ago it looked like the sophisticated acoustic jazz flavored rock of the Woodentops, Everything But The Girl, The Jazz Butcher et al. was going to take the Alternative scene by storm. Like any trend, it wasn't the avalanche its advocates touted, nor a mere snowflake as its critics retorted. Jazz Butcher exile Max Eider obviously has an appreciation for musical subtlety, on cuts like "It Has To Be You" and "Raking Up Leaves." But some- where inside him lives a raging character, not unlike John Belushi in Animal House when he smashed the acoustic guitar over the wimp's head. Tracks like "Rosemary," "My Other Life," "Quiet Lives" and "Let Somebody Down" are torrid examples of the fireball that exists inside him.

Escape From Noise.
NEGATIVLAND (SSD)

I remember almost driving off the road from so much laughter when I first heard Negativland's demo tape on KUSF two years ago. I was struck by their cynical and funny lyrics about suburban life backed by high-tech synthesized sounds. Negativland create a theater of the mind with their modern tales, almost like the Firesign Theatre meets Laurie Anderson produced by Trevor Horn. The first track, "Announcement," is a hilarious spoof of the over-researching by radio programmers, and the cuts "Michael Jackson" & "Escape From Noise" continue the music industry theme. "Sycamore" is a parody of real estate developments, and "You Don't Even Live Here" takes a surreal look at grass-roots community protests. "The Playboy Channel" and "Christianity Is Stupid" are other entertaining songs, and the imaginative "Time Zones" is my favorite with it's Soviet Union theme presented in a radio talk-show format. Definitely one of 1987's most adventurous projects. I'd love to see a live multimedia performance of the album.

INSIDE COUNTRY

All you programmers who predicted it were right - K.T.Oslin has her first #1 with "Do Ya'." Other strong contenders inside the top ten are Kenny Rogers, Hank Williams Jr. (major requests for Angela Brooks, WBAP /KSCS-FM-Dallas), Dan Seals, Exile and Ronnie Milsap. Don Dana is getting great requests for Michael Johnson. Restless Heart's "Wheels" is the #1 request for a record-breaking eighth week for Johnny Randolph at KTDO-Toledo, OR. Rosanne Cash jumps 10 points. Greg Cole at WPOC/FM-Baltimore and Don Kyper at WACO-Waco call it a smash in their markets. Last week's Certified, Foster & Lloyd's "Sure Thing", jumps from 36 to 29. It's a "sure hit" for Tom Aldrich at KVDB-Sioux Center, Daryl Webster at KASH-Anchorage and Ken Adams at KVBR-Brainerd. Kevin Severson at WHTL-Whitehall, WI, tells us, "My listeners love this new Juice Newton record. They think it's her best in a long time and it's by far my most requested record." Merle Haggard's "Twinkle Twinkle Lucky Star" is generating a lot of comments again this week. John Henderson at KWTO/AM-Springfield, MO, says, "He's getting a lot of calls - I think his star is burnin'." Anthony Keith at KROF-Abbeville tells us "Lucky Haggard is #1 with requests and sales. The stores can't keep it in stock." B. Mitchell at WKJN-Baton Rouge, says "The Hag's got rhythm. This one's great."

This week's Record To Watch, Schuyler, Knobloch, Bickhardt, is pulling at a lot of listeners heartstrings and picking up 48 more adds, including WQBE/FM, KBMO, KORD, KATK/FM, KYXE, KVCK, WWIC, WLAT, KIDN, WVM, etc. Rick Robinson at WEYY-Talladega says "The good ol' boys here love Johnny Cash's "W. Lee O'Daniel." Skip Davis at K92/FM-Destin says "This is Charley Pride's best effort since 1982. We're getting lots of calls in just three days of airplay."

REVIEWS

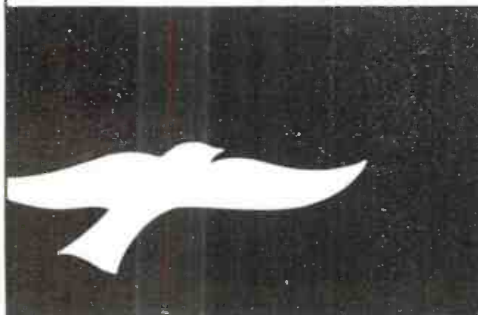

RANDY TRAVIS -

"Too Gone, Too Long" (Warner Bros.)

This cut off of Randy's last LP has been one of our most reported album cuts for 24 weeks -- and listeners are still asking for more.

LYNRYD SKYNYRD -

"When You Got Good Friends" (MCA)

Their new LP, Legend, contains previously unreleased material by the original members of the band. This cut is tailor made for Country radio, giving tribute to the likes of Bob Wills, Willie Nelson, Waylon Jennings, Merle Haggard, the Marshall Tucker Band and the Charlie Daniels Band.

SAWYER BROWN - "This Missin' You Heart Of Mine" (Capitol/Curb)

The Brown boys come through singin' pure Country. Great tune, great harmonies -- they won't be missin' with this one.

This column is dedicated to the "virgin programmers"—those who are programming for the very first time, who may just have moved up from assistant PD or music director.

While there are many differences among stations, markets and people, there are some basics to consider when taking on the responsibilities of programming for the first time. Rule number one is that, whether or not you retain an air shift, you are now an integral part of the management team. And as such, you have to be more responsive to whatever goals the general manager and/or owners have set.

I've said it here before, and you've probably heard it from many different sources: Winning radio stations are those that respond best to their community of listeners. The only difference is how they choose to reach those goals.

Some rules of thumb: If you're new in the market, don't immediately make major changes. Spend the first few weeks getting to know the market and the people—including the people at the radio station—as well as you can. This doesn't mean you can't change the music and put on the newest hits, or change the dated copy and one-liners. It simply means that before making any major moves, be certain you're "stepping on solid ground."

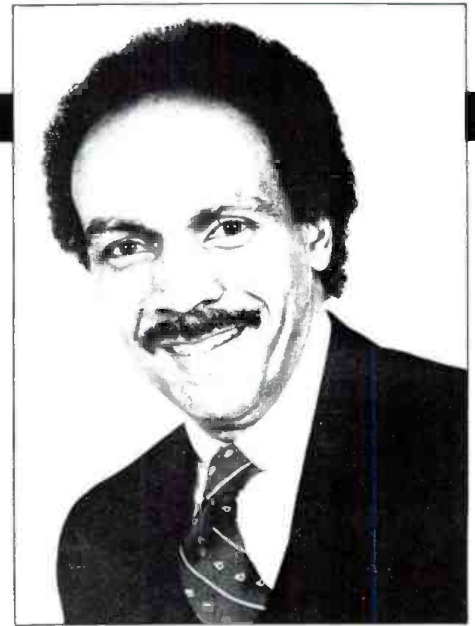

To find out about important local events that your target audience might be interested in, spend some time at the library going through newspaper microfilms. At the same time, try to get a feel for events that have happened in the recent past. Free up some time to visit the local chamber of commerce for useful statistical data. We used to call it "getting into the street." Naturally you want to set up a strong rapport with local record shops and promoters. In the past, working with a station's affiliated ad agency, I have also set up as many as 1,500 personal interviews with listeners. I ask about their musical preferences, their favorite personalities and features, and station awareness—kind of a preliminary focus group. If there is time, make arrangements to visit Arbitron in Laurel to get key ZIP codes translated into corresponding telephone exchanges. The latter are extremely useful in dial-out contests and promotions.

Armed with this fresh information, you will be able to set up four or five focus groups. Based in part on what these focus groups tell you, you can make some determinations regarding music, features, personalities—even contests. In one major market, we found a majority of our adult listeners wanted more hits, more often, both library and current. Since we pretty much knew what the current hits were, we went into the library aspect of the research and found that, as in so many formats, the obvious power golds and recurrences had been overplayed. If we hadn't taken the time to research this information, we could have played some burned-out songs that might have hurt the station from an image standpoint.

When you're a new programmer, it is vital not to make any avoidable errors—those errors that can be eliminated by research and planning. Musical choices can be determined through a number of techniques, including focus groups, store calls and in-person interviews. I tend not to trust request lines because they tend to reflect only the taste of the most active listeners—usually females, teens and sub-teens—and not of your core audience. Call-outs, properly done, are much better. Proper call-outs require at least four dedicated phone lines. They should not be the station's business phones, and certainly not the contest lines. Most stations don't want to go to this expense—and you may not either. But it's important to know how it should be done! You should involve your interns, with one paid intern in charge as group leader. Call-out research is essential and should be part of the budget you set up for the new fiscal year.

Once you have established the station's musical base, you might want to keep it sounding fresh by experimenting with other compatible musical styles. In the case of the urban format, there's jazz, reggae and even some new age music.

Naturally, you must daypart, anyone who's not dayparting in 1987 is looking to take a back seat in the ratings. As a young programmer, you should establish a policy and stick to it. Look at all dayparts—weekdays and weekends. What is the audience make-up? Schedule and program accordingly. The record promoters may object, but they'll respect you, especially if you take some time to explain what you are looking for, and let them help you with certain contests and promotions.

Next week, we'll take a look at why contests and promotions deserve your attention.●

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

Be sure to read the Tommy Boy press bulletin that accompanies your copy of "A.F.R.I.C.A.," an anti-apartheid rap record/music video by Brooklyn-based rap group Stetsasonic that features the Rev. Jesse Jackson and Nigerian drummer Olatunji. Release date is November 20th. More information is in this week's Chinwag, page 17. Monica Lynch and the people at Tommy Boy are to be congratulated for their hard work on this project--with a nationally coordinated radio broadcast and press conference set for Tuesday, November 24th.

No budes in the top three: STEVIE, E.W.& F. and ROGER. With the short work week coming up, they may hold steady for a third week, too. ROGER is logging the most requests: Mad Hatter, WGOK-Mobile, is getting calls for him, along with the L.L. MONDAY; Ty Bell, new PD at WYLD/FM-New Orleans, is also reporting calls for ROGER, STEVIE, and E.W.& F.

Former Record To Watch, MICHAEL COOPER, had a winner of a week: Pam Wells, KACE-Los Angeles, checked in with her first report from La La Land, reporting huge phones for MICHAEL COOPER, WELL RED and CHRIS JASPER, first week on the air. Steve Crumbley, WOWI-Norfolk, reported his personal favorite as the MICHAEL COOPER. He says the former CON FUNK SHUN member has a good following in his market. Daryl Moore, KXZZ-Lake Charles, reports on the GERALD ALBRIGHT: "Instant phones!" Cy Young, WQQK/FM-Nashville, wants us to listen to his sleeper cut of the week: "You Will Know" on Stevie Wonder's album. He's also getting calls already for CHRIS JASPER'S "Superbad," which he says "Is!" This week's Record To Watch, JOYCE SIMS, took off for B.K. Kirkland, WIKS-New Bern, who already has it in high rotation. Tony Lype, WZFX-Fayetteville, reports it's his record to watch, as do Mikki Spencer, WKIE-Richmond, and Broadway Joe, KOKY-Little Rock. Greg Beasley, KMJM-St.Louis, reports the WELL RED is well received by his listeners. Tune in next week for more, and be sure to check out the beginnings of our agenda for the upcoming Seminar in February--it'll be a killer!

SUPER BAD

CHRIS JASPER - Superbad (CBS Associated) No longer the middle man in Isley/Jasper/Isley, Chris Jasper is out on his own, and he's "Superbad." Check the words out on this tune, they should be inspiring for teens.

GO

HIROSHIMA - Go (Epic) The title track from Hiroshima's latest album. Guest lead vocal chants Yes' lead singer Jon Anderson, as the rest of Hiroshima sing back up in Japanese. George Duke helped produce the album, so that Urban flare is evident.

M|A|R|R|S

M|A|R|R|S - Pump Up The Volume (4th & Broadway/Island) If you need some uptempo funk and pop dance groovin' fill for your ballad-laden playlist, dress it up or pump it up and let the volume speak for itself.

LAKESIDE - Still Feeling Good (Solar) His voice feels good and the sentimental message of "Still Feeling Good" will get to the heart of the matter with those listeners you want to reach.

DANA DANE - This Be The Def Beat (Profile) Scratchmaster Dana takes the best of the Def world and puts his now famous novelty twist to a Jackson "Enjoy Yourself." And you will when you hear it.

can't think of any secret to what I do onstage other than that I give my everything. I know that at the rare times I get to be in an audience, I want to be sung to and not at. I am concentrating on getting your attention and not having to get all in your face to do it! If I can do that, then I know I've got you in the palm of my hand and I'm not going to let go! I can feel when I've got the audience where I want them and there's a presence that I might have on stage after all this time, I'm not exactly sure. I'm aware of the audience and at the same time I'm not. I'm drawing them into what I'm doing, it's fifty-fifty—I tell them, "This is your show," I get on their case! That might have something to do with staying power—giving of yourself, being really into what you're doing. The most amazing thing about my career, that after having done "This Will Be" 3,985 times, I can still do it with the fervor that it was originally done with.

BH: What about a tour?

NC: We have been bidding our time and letting the album do as much as it can before I get out there, because we really want to do some great dates and make a nice impact.

BH: Kids who see Nancy Reagan out on the road saying "Say No To Drugs" might feel, "Don't knock it if you haven't tried it." I was wondering if you feel it would make more of an impact if a Betty Ford or a Natalie Cole went out there and talked to these impressionable kids?

NC: I think to get to the root of the evil, it certainly would make a better impact if they were dealing with someone who's been there. Then they would know that person knew what they were talking about. They're not dumb kids, they're very critical. I was involved in Nancy Reagan's program with Genesis, which is a rehab house back in Washington. I talked to those kids and we could really relate. They looked at me and couldn't believe that I had been there. But that's the irony of it all! You can come back. You can make a beautiful recovery if you go for it lock, stock, and barrel. I think that it does make more of an impression.

BH: What about the other kids, those who haven't started taking drugs but think that, even if they do get hooked, they can always kick it like you did? What do you tell them?

NC: It starts off with their self-esteem. They won't even want to try it if they feel good about themselves. We, as parents, and media-writers, producers, filmmakers, entertainers—we need to start making some films about people who have low self-esteem and the trouble it gets them into! Write songs about this kind of thing, because kids that feel good about themselves won't want to be bothered. That's really it in a nutshell. You try to tell them to live one way, and then you're doing something else. You try to bring up your kids one way, and then television and film and literature show them something entirely different. There's a lot of confusion, so we're the only anchor they have. Unfortunately, being in the position that myself and other entertainers are in, we can get a word or message through better than parents sometimes. It's a shame, but it's a reality and we can use it to our advantage, and to their advantage. ■

1988 GAVIN SEMINAR AGENDA TWO DAYS OF INFORMATIONAL EXPLORATORY WORKSHOPS

Westin St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13

KEYNOTE ADDRESS by LINDA ELLERBEE

URBAN CONTEMPORARY: RATINGS AND REVENUE—ARE YOU GETTING YOUR FAIR SHARE?

A touch of rawhide in the plush world of network television anchors, Linda Ellerbee has brightened the tube--while sometimes bismaying her corporate superiors. Learn what this Texas maverick has found out through the ups and downs of big-buck media. ●

Do you really know what's available in your market? Are you getting the ratings and the dollars that complement the numbers? Programming and sales people will be on hand. ●

THE INEVITABLE TOP 40 AND URBAN/CONTEMPORARY FACE-OFF!

MARKETING COUNTRY

HOSTED BY LEE MICHAELS, OPERATIONS MANAGER OF WBMX CHICAGO

Building cumes and client lists. Discussions will include promotions, music rotations, using consultants and learning how news can raise community profile. ●

Does Urban radio break the music while Top Forty takes the bows and the booty? How do these volatile formats co-exist on the same dial? It's the Clash of the Titans as radio and music representatives of both formats have it out in an uncontrolled controlled environment "refereed" by Lee Michaels. ●

ADULT/CONTEMPORARY: THE FIRST 15 YEARS AND THE NEXT GENERATION

HOSTED BY THE GAVIN REPORT'S RON FELL AND DIANE RUFER

Who listens to Adult Contemporary radio--and why? America's most listened-to format is finding new ways and is refining old ways to capture the contemporary adult. No two stations do it the same. We'll talk about the variety of winning alternatives. ●

THE THIRD ANNUAL CUTTING EDGE SHOW

starring SIRE RECORDS VICE PRESIDENT/ GENERAL MANAGER HOWIE KLEIN

The Gavin Album and Alternative section presents a unique overview of music and artistry and how it relates to Album, Alternative...and, well, all formats of radio! Look for surprise artists, radio, retail and record industry guests who look at our business from their own unusual perspective. ●

MANAGEMENT TECHNIQUES SPOTLIGHT:

THREE RADIO/MUSIC CASE STUDIES

Three representatives of the radio/music industry--a radio station general manager, a program director and a record promotion VP--share their methods of managing people and creating successful organizations. How do some of our industry success stories solve problems and generate high team morale? ●

STATE-OF-THE-ART PRODUCTION ON A STATE-OF-THE-ECONOMY BUDGET

HOSTED BY MARK DRISCOLL, BOBBY OCEAN and RON HUMMEL

Great production doesn't have to cost a fortune. Let the latest technology and production ideas push your control room into the 1990's. This will be a simplified, hands-on guide toward advancing technology and technique into your production room without busting your budget. ●

Is the phrase, "All the hits, all the time" outdated? Dayparting, emphasis on certain types of music and target audience will be the focus. Key programmers representing various Top Forty factions will discuss and interact with the audience. ●

THE GAVIN CELEBRITY COCKTAIL PARTY

Artists and music and radio folks take over the St. Francis Grand Ballroom. Additional tickets available in advance and at the door. ●

THE GAVIN MEDIA PROFESSIONALS ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS BANQUET

The best in the business are honored as the Gavin Report celebrates thirty years of publication. In addition to honoring this year's award winners, we will be honoring the very first recipient of the Bill Gavin Humanitarian Award. ●

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

TIFFANY - Could've Been (MCA) Here's the song that's been written up in "INSIDE TOP 40" for the past two weeks due to instant reaction at Z95 Chicago and KCPX Salt Lake City. Producer George Tobin draws every ounce of emotion out of the vocal and instrumentation in this track. I don't say this often, but here's an out and out smash. Already on Z100, Z93, WPST, PRO/FM, KZZP, B93/FM, Z100 (Portland), 92X, with lots more to follow.

FOREIGNER - Say You Will (Atlantic) Easily their finest pop effort since 1981, when they topped the chart with "Urgent" and "Waiting For A Girl Like You." Lou Gramm is in perfect form on this smooth rocker, sure to please a wide cross section of the audience.

VIEW FROM THE HILL - No Conversation (Capitol) Here's one of those hooks that grabs hold and just don't let go. Story line deals with an unfaithful lover who's asking to be given another chance. An age-old story told in a wonderful new way. Beautiful melody and tremendous chorus from a band that I think we'll be hearing a lot about in the future.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN - Tunnel Of Love (Columbia) He's holdin' the ticket that's good for a ride up the Top 40 just about anytime the mood strikes. The Boss man sets the mood and delivers thrills and chills in his now classic style.

BILLY IDOL - Hot In The City (Chrysalis) Deserved to be a much bigger hit when it was first released in 1982. Now that Billy's got everyone's attention, maybe it will.

DAVID RUFFIN AND EDDIE KENDRICK - I Couldn't Believe It (RCA) Just couldn't resist the temptation to write about this hot entry. Took nearly a 10-point jump on this week's URBAN CONTEMPORARY chart and is picking up such Top 40 believers as Kid Leo at WMMS Cleveland. Sure to appeal to the "Big Chill" generation.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

STEVIE WONDER - Characters (Motown)

Stevie's one of the true geniuses of popular music, the way Willie Mays caught fly balls. Wonder is a craftsman who's occupied with the power and process of popular music. Equally comfortable in the mixes of cultural rallies and love letters, Stevie can excite and/or agitate the listener with his talent for composition and performance. The lead single, SKELETONS, has bones to pick with the unconscionable. DARK 'N' LOVELY decries the prejudice and other insensitivities suffered by black Africans. The album's opener, YOU WILL KNOW, and its closer, FREE, have idyllic lyric content which call upon inner and heavenly spirit to unbuckle life's shackles.

"SHOWDOWN AT BIG SKY"

ROBBIE ROBERTSON'S SELF-TITLED ALBUM IS QUITE SIMPLY
THE BEST ALBUM OF THE YEAR!!!"

Michael Fink - Los Angeles Herald Examiner

"ROBBIE ROBERTSON" DEFINITELY RANKS
AS ONE OF THE BEST ALBUMS OF 1987.

GO OUT AND GET A COPY IMMEDIATELY — YOUR EARS DESERVE THIS KIND OF MAGIC."

Steve Geatt - Billboard

"THE ALBUM IS A LYRICAL AND MUSICAL MASTERPIECE."

Michael Goldberg - Rolling Stone

"ROBBIE ROBERTSON'S LONG-AWAITED FIRST
SOLO ALBUM IS A BONA-FIDE MASTER STROKE."

Steve Morse - Boston Globe

"THE SOARING, LYRICAL
SHOWDOWN AT BIG SKY'

IS STRONGLY REMINISCENT OF THE BAND'S BEST YEARS."

Robert Palmer - New York Times
