PRESS

"Buster Poindexter" became a sensation...one can distinguish between pop music that exploits or trivializes its sources and pop music that retains a certain idiomatic integrity...an integrity of outrageousness. It has rock's momentum, its almost-out-of-control energy. It has the vitality of rock and roll. And it is entertaining."

—Robert Palmer, The New York Times

"Buster Poindexter has the hottest act in town...and in a field where most hot acts don't outlast a cold Bud, he still is."

—New York Daily News

"The party album of the year! Buster's act is timeless. He doesn't just sing with sheer exuberance and wit, he swings. 'HOT, HOT, HOT' makes you want to stick a bunch of bananas on your head."

—Rolling Stone

"Poindexter has become the resident Dennis Day of 'Saturday Night Live,' an advertising image for Amaretto and an actor with 'Miami Vice' and 'The Equalizer' appearances under his belt and forthcoming movie roles in 'Married To The Mob,' 'Candy Mountain' and 'Scrooge.'

—New York Post

"Buster busts loose! David Johansen has created a monster. The results are impressive!"

—Wayne Robbins, Newsday

"Poindexter molds an entire persona through the language of pop songs...he understands the rapture and tomfoolery ready to be set free in the music of the past 30 years so well that he has made an intimate and engaging record."

—Boston Phoenix

INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

Beyond their day-to-day job responsibilities, radio personalities often make appearances at dances, sales events and various fund raisers. In addition, schools, fraternal organizations and social groups frequently call upon not only talent, but program directors and executives in the music industry to enlighten them about the inner workings of each profession. There is a tendency on the part of some people to shy away from attending these functions. While it certainly places an additional burden on an already hectic schedule, that investment of time can be very beneficial. Their value as a public relations tool seems obvious, but it's been my experience that often you can walk away with a bit of interesting "unscientific" research. You begin to notice how many of the same questions are asked by the general public. At the same time, it's always a good idea to come prepared with your own set of questions. It's another source of input that can help broaden your perspective.

Nothing hazy about the future of THE BANGLES' latest effort. HIT FACTOR nearly doubles from 15% to 27% with adds at B94 Pittsburgh, Y104 Hattiesburg/Laurel, Y106 Orlando, AM106 Calgary, POWER 104 Houston, Z100 New York, KZZP Phoenix, POWER 105 Miami, etc. Moves into the top twenty for Jeff Ripley and Steve Cruz KZZK 27-19, Rick Walker KMGZ 28-20, J.Harvey KLAZ 25-19, Bill Thomas and Jeff Davis WPFM 27-20, etc.

Big sales and requests are rolling in for ROGER as he barrels past CHARTBOUND this week. Al Brock at WHIT Harrisburg debuts at #39, Guy Zapoleon and Todd Fisher at KZZP Phoenix jump it 15-5 noting a 15-1 tally in local sales, and Carey Edwards and Ric Sanders at KFIV/FM Modesto move it 21-15 with Ric reporting it's "selling huge quantities." Looking very strong with 39 adds.

It was nearly two months ago, October 9th to be exact, that THE CURE became our RECORD TO WATCH. It continues to pick up more believers each week, while the chart profile gets better and better. Gains include KYNO Fresno 14-8, WPHR Cleveland 20-14, WSPT Stevens Point 26-21, WXKS Boston 24-20, CKOI Montreal 25-20, KNOE Monroe 19-16, KDON Monterey/Salinas 18-14, etc.

STRYPER continues to pile up nothing but positives. Following an on again, off again start this track is back with a vengeance. HIT FACTOR is already up to 17%. WAVA Washington D.C. debuts it at #25, with Gene Baxter reporting that it became the most requested song after only five days of play. It remains his number one request item. Gene notes it's number one with teens and in middays with 18-14 females. Sharon LePere at KITY San Antonio logs it number two on the phones. Huge gains at WBCY 17-8, B97 27-17, WHHY 30-20, KZOU 7-1, KOKZ 30-21, KITY 27-19, etc.

Plenty of top ten action on MEN WITHOUT HATS who should finally get to CHARTBOUND status next week. A smash in Houston where POWER 104 moves it 8-5 and 93Q takes it 13-8. Also big at KMEL 10-8, CKOM 8-5, LG73 28-20, KCPX 8-5, KIXY 5-4, WHSB 3-1, K106 21-15, WAGQ 28-23, POWER 92 29-24, KYNO 17-9, KUBE 27-24, etc.

In two weeks BILLY IDOL is well on the way to reviving his 1982 release,

"Hot In The City." Nearly 100 reports with adds at KZLS Billings. KLYV Dubuque, Z100 Portland, KIXY San Angelo, WANS Greenville, WVKZ Schenectady/Albany, KWSS San Jose, KMOK Lewiston, KEYP Tyler, etc.

More than fifty stations are now reporting MADONNA'S album track, "Spotlight." Mark Shands at WHKW Fayette AL. charts it 21-8, Mark Kelly at KCIL Houma/New Orleans moves it 32-21, Joel Salkowitz and Steve Ellis list it 26-20 at HOT 103 New York and Bill Tanner at POWER 96 Miami debuts it at #18. HIT FACTOR is 5%.

WKXX Birmingham is having lots of success with GEORGIO. After only one week of play they move it 32-19! Other gains at WHYT 21-19, KZZP 26-22, Z93 26-24, KITY 25-22, etc. Top ten at PWR 99.7, KKSS, KYOS, etc.

Hawaii star GLENN MEDEIROS is doing very very well at KRQ Tucson. PD Clarke Ingram has moved it into power rotation with excellent response from "across the board demos." Charts 34-16 at KRQ, plus gains at WPXR 19-14, HOT I-94 19-15, POWER 92 30-26, WCIL 20-19, etc.

Dance sensation M/A/R/R/S is proving its club appeal translates to radio. Top five requests at KITY where it moves 24-20 and also doing well at KMEL 27-21, HOT 103 debut #21, KGGI 37-25, POWER 96 20-14, KZZP debut #26, POWER 104 25-18, etc. New believers are 93Q, KZZT, Z100, Y106, WCIL, KRRG, KBIU, Z93, etc.

To clarify for all our correspondents, there are two more reporting weeks left in 1987. Our final issue of the year will be December 18th, which means we will be accepting reports for the next TWO weeks.

CHICAGO'S SECOND ALL-NEWSER?

NBC SELLS WMAQ TO GROUP W

Two years after bowing out of the Chicago market, Westinghouse Broadcasting is back, acquiring WMAQ/AM from NBC for $13 million, pending FCC approval. According to Group W VP/AM Station group Warren Maurer, the station will probably adopt new calls and go head-to-head against CBS's WBBM-AM. "We just couldn't make it with what we had at the time," he says of the old WIND, now Spanish after being sold to Tichenor. "Sometimes you're better off stepping back and trying another approach." Maurer is enthusiastic about MAQ's technical plant ("maybe the best signal in America") and the market's news appetite. "Chicago has so much going for it--politics, sports, weather, traffic," he notes, adding wryly, "All the things that make daily life difficult to cope with also make news operations successful." In line to manage the new property is KODA-Houston VP/GM David Pearlman. NBC, which still owns WKQX/FM-Chicago, is trying to sell two of its seven remaining radio properties--KNBR/AM in San Francisco and WKYS/FM in Washington, D.C.

FORMS INTERNATIONAL REP FIRM

WOLMARK WANTS HIS M.C.T.

Alan Wolmark, former national promotional executive with RCA and Atlantic Records, has established an international management-artist representation company in partnership with record producer Gene Kraut. Their firm, the Music Consulting Team, will be based in New York with offices in Dusseldorf, West Germany. "Every artist needs daily representation in order to break in the United States," Wolmark says, "and virtually no label has the manpower to carefully oversee every project to its fullest. As Director of Album Promotion, I noticed a distinct void created by the rapidly expanding international aspects of our business. Very good overseas managers were letting things slip through the cracks without their daily presence." The new company is located at 107 West 25th Street, Suite 3C, New York, NY 10001, with the phone number (212) 206-6765.

K94'S SHANNYN A WINNER KKDA FINDS ITS STARS

The path to the top in Urban radio seems to lead through K94-Norfolk. That's where KKDA-Dallas ended its nationwide search for the best young talent in the format. The winner: K94 evening host Dee Shannyn, who moves to swing shift duties at K104, leaving K94 PD Thomas Lytle with the task of finding someone who can match her 20+ night time share (whomping the Quiet Storm and all other contenders). "We're going to miss her a lot," says Lytle, "but as soon as I knew she was going for the job, I told her she was a bona fide winner."

K94 has also supplied WUSL-Philadelphia with a new morning personality, as David Sanborn (no relation to the jazz artist) joins PD Dave Allan at POWER99FM. Sanborn will be paired with Brian Carter, a graduate of Baltimore's B104. "I was going to hire one or the other, and decided on both," says Allan.

Down in Big D, KKDA's Michael Spears is ecstatic about the results of his "Star Search," which drew 200 applicants. "It really paid off big time. We didn't find just one great talent--we found at least seven. Peter Arnell of WFXC in Durham was a close runner-up and we'll probably bring him in, too," Spears says. "People are always singing the blues about how they can't find talent--that's hogwash. You just have to beat the bushes."

OH SUSANNAH

To coincide with the home video debut of Susanna Hoffs' less-than-memorable "The Allnighter," Chameleon Records has released a soundtrack picture disc featuring the body, but not the voice, of Chinwag's favorite eye-rolling Bangle. Artists actually performing the music include Funky Lips, The Hard-Ons, Agent Orange and Exploding White Mice, all of whom also played at Tony Richland's recent 25th birthday party.

IMMEDIA TO PRODUCE CELEBRITY PSAs

IMMEDIA SEEKING TO MOBILIZE RADIO

Veteran Los Angeles radio personalities Jerry Longden and Damion are trying to enlist the radio and music industries in the war against social ills from drug abuse and AIDS to hunger and voter apathy. Together, they've formed Immedia, a non-profit organization that plans to produce public service information through copy and produced announcements, as well as organize national radio concerts and develop a celebrity speakers bureau.

Membership in Immedia is available free of charge to "any broadcaster, music or media professional who is interested in addressing important social issues, whether locally through their broadcast facilities, or nationally by obtaining recorded PSAs to be included on planned Immedia albums and CDs," says Longden. "We're looking for a team effort. A lot of people out there want to do something, but don't know how to go about it." Longden and Damion, who produced several well-received anti-drug radio and TV spots in the '70s, emphasize that the focus of Immedia is education, not fundraising.

"Artists are always coming to stations to be interviewed," Longden says. "All we're asking is that you take advantage of that opportunity to ask someone like a Bowie or a Bob Seger in the course of that interview to take just 20 seconds to read some copy." Stations contributing celebrity PSAs will get full credit on the albums, which will be distributed free to radio stations. Longden promises a quality product: "We are broadcasters talking to broadcasters. Our programs are designed for the radio programmer as a creative tool that ties in formatically to deliver a powerful and vital message, rather than being buried in the overnight PSA bin!"

Aside from winning an endorsement from the respected Entertainment Industries Council ("Upper-echelon Hollywood!" says Longden), Immedia's Radio Advisory Panel has attracted such nationally known figures as Scott Muni and The Real Don Steele (as well as Doctors Demento and Don Rose). For more information, contact Immedia in Burbank, CA: (818) 841-5289.

INSIDE A/C

George Harrison returns to the top of the A/C chart six and a half years since his hit "All Those Years Ago" did the same. He takes the top with the most stations and the most HEAVY rotation reports, but he's being shadowed by underdogs Dan Hill and Bourgeois Tagg, both of which have HEAVY-to-MEDIUM rotation ratios of seven to one.

Smokey Robinson can now claim three straight top ten A/C records, as "What's Too Much" has moved 20 to 10 on the chart in the past two weeks while HIT FACTOR skies 66% to 78% to 87%.

Barry Manilow has a legitimate A/C hit with "Brooklyn Blues." Two-thirds of all A/Cs are now playing it and 78% of those stations are HIT FACTORing it including KOST, KWAV, K108, KBOI, KKHT, WMYX, WMT/FM & AM, WSKY, WKCX, WJXL, WAIV, WTIC and WELI.

Eric Carmen's one-off from "Dirty Dancing," "Hungry Eyes" is sating the appetite of 110 A/C stations, with a 55% HIT FACTOR including WSNI, WEZS, WEBE, KVIC, KEZR, WRMF, B100, WKYE and WQHQ.

Roy Orbison & k.d. lang clear 100 stations and are this week's highest chart debut. Among the major market stations are WLS, KKHT, WTMJ and WTIC.

Expose debuts on the chart as well with "Seasons Change." With 93 stations in three weeks, the adds this week are KOST, KFMB, KQIP, WTRX, WMT/FM, WJON, WTUN and KSKI from its total of 40 adds.

The next big duet will be the new Donna Summer/Mickey Thomas song "Only The Fool Survives." Impressive early ears include WBLU, WGSV, WQHQ, KWEB, WAHR and WZNY.

Expect all this week's CHART-BOUND and more to debut next week as programmers begin to position their rotations for the holidays. This week's A/C RECORD TO WATCH is Tiffany's "Could've Been" will be in a big way. We've made it RECORD TO WATCH because we figure most of the 190 stations not yet playing it probably think it's like the first single, "I Think We're Alone Now." For A/Cs sake, we're glad it's not. Adds this week include, KEZR, KLKT, WHTX, WRMF, WMT/FM, WIOW, WMT/FM, KRLL and KKHT.

On the subject of Christmas records, if you are playing any new ones in full single rotation, please let us know when reporting.

REVIEWS by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

PATRICK SWAYZE She's Like The Wind (RCA)

This matinee idol will be pickin' up prime time airplay with this song. It's the third straight airplay single from the soundtrack to "Dirty Dancing."

TIMOTHY B. SCHMIT Don't Give Up (MCA)

Typical Timothy B. ballad with a positive attitude. If you tire of life in the fast lane, he's got a shoulder to cry on.

PEABO BRYSON & REGINA BELLE Without You (Elektra)

These two are together to sing about getting back together. It's a sweet, soulful Lamont Dozier ballad performed by two perfectly matched voices.

VIEW FROM THE HILL No. 1 Conversation (Capitol)

Producer Stewart Levine, who's worked for Simply Red and Culture Club has a way of making soulfully smooth ballads. This trio has been receiving some rave reviews in their native England recently, and it's just a matter of time before the word spreads.

ALTERNATIVE A CAPITAL 'A'

RANDOM THOUGHTS ON THE

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF

GAVIN ALTERNATIVE MUSIC

Assembled by Peter Standish

As long as there is a musical status quo, there will be an alternative. In the case of rock n roll, our "alternative" grew a capital "A" and developed its own institutional hallmarks—including a section of its own in the Gavin Report. Five years ago, the Gavin Report decided to add a sixth radio format to its pages, utilizing the same spirit that Bill Gavin did in reflecting the opening strains of the Everly Brothers—that is, to rely on the feedback and research of a selected few dedicated to reporting the comings and goings of their marketplace. Hence, the Gavin Alternative Section was born.

Five years later, we asked a cross section of music industry folk to comment on the past, present and future of Alternative music and radio and how it continues to pinch the remaining formats of radio in the butt. Recurring references to R.E.M. show that the format has come of age and is coming to an important crossroad. Is it the musical farm system for the major labels? Is it the bastard child of commercial radio? Is it the final bastion of free form creativity on the airwaves? Is radio pioneer Tom Donohue spinning in his grave or smiling proud? We at Gavin are very pleased with our five-year association with the exploding Alternative community. Here are selected impressions from a few of the hundreds of people qualified to speak both authoritatively and from the heart. Hopefully, this collection of thoughts and opinions will persuade you and make you aware and proud of the impact that Alternative music has made in the control rooms and the garages of America. ●

MUSIC WITH

Right now we're seeing a lot of hybrid '80s bands openly acknowledging their '70s influences. A few examples are The Cult and Led Zeppelin, Dinosaur covering Peter Frampton, and The Replacements recording a Kiss song. It's encouraging to see college students realize that Alternative music didn't begin with R.E.M. They seem to be rediscovering Alternative roots through the music of Wire, Pere Ubu and Tom Verlaine. During the next five years I like to think Alternative will be perceived as more legitimate yet at the same time I hope it will prompt some sort of rebellion.

--Karen Glauber, A&M Records

Alternative radio should try to become what '60s Album Radio was. While Album Radio heads down the road to oldies, Alternative music will go back to the basics of root rock n roll. No synths!

--John Fagot, Capitol Records

Alternative music has become a serious industry. Trades are more involved, and the record companies are taking the Alternative stations more seriously. This may sound cynical, but something in the back of my mind says all this "maturing" may be stifling the music. Radio, retail and the press are being so deluged that they can't discover artists on their own anymore. They're too busy with "label priorities." The enthusiastic energy that surrounded new music five years ago isn't quite there today. Metal seems to be the punk of the '80s.

--Graham Hatch, Frontier Records

Though my official job title is National Director of Progressive Rock Promotion, I feel that progressive music, or Alternative, if you will, could conceivably house more kinds of music than any format of radio. I'm talking about a format that could embrace all types of music from Skinny Puppy to Richard Thompson. As for the future of Alternative music, I'm hoping and praying for another Sex Pistol- ploitation. I'd like to see rock n roll shaken to its very foundation.

--Larry Levy, Capitol Records

In the past five years, Alternative music has both constricted and expanded. Over time, more and more genres have been becoming a part of Alternative music--"the musical lint ball." The more acceptable it becomes the more deranged and varied it becomes--i.g. The Butthole Surfers, Hector Zazou, Yello, and k.d. Lang.

--Faith Henschel, KCMU-Seattle

Ten years after, the Punk Revolution is still felt at radio and at the pop consumer level. The Alternative radio network has developed bands which now have huge audiences. Today we have Alternative stations that are firmly entrenched in major market ratings battles, scoring big points. Now we have superstar Alternative acts selling so far into the mainstream that Top Forty radio can't ignore the consumer interest or the great music.

--Steve Tipp, Warner Bros. Records

Alternative music has gotten much better. Much of it is due to advances in technology, and artists have been teamed up with producers that really have a clue. Alternative music has always been for those who have an advanced musical ear. It's the music that relates to the changing pace of life.

--Steve Masters, Live 105-San Francisco

It's important that Alternative music doesn't become a trend in itself. It's easy for record labels and artists to see a dollar sign in front of R.E.M. or Depeche Mode, and churn out similar records based on the fashionable Alternative sound. When college radio encourages Husker Du clones, they encourage a stereotype. The Alternative music scene can become just as stale as the classic rock format. The role of Alternative programmers and labels is to always challenge the trends. We don't need a junior version of the music business.

--Ray Farrell, SST Records

Alternative music has evolved into a major force in the music industry. Five years ago, when Album Radio was first waking up to new bands, the major labels were just starting to see the potential of their Alternative artists. Now, U2 is the most popular band in the world. The Beastie Boys have gone #1 and R.E.M. is on every Album station in the U.S. In particular, Top 40 radio has opened up to new artists, while Album Radio views them with caution. Audiences have developed to the point that last summer's Echo & the Bunnymen/New Order/Gene Loves Jezebel tour drew 200,000 people in 22 dates.

--Mark Kates, Geffen Records

Alternative music has evolved more toward the mainstream in the past five years, or perhaps it is the mainstream that has evolved more towards Alternative music. The two are definitely on an intersecting course. I can't forecast exactly where Alternative music is headed in the next five years. All I can tell you is that wherever it goes, the recording industry will follow. We always have, we always will.

--Mike Bone, Chrysalis Records

Shaking up a sometimes complacent rock music establishment is its role. Rock n roll has always needed musical rebels who were willing to try something different and improve on the past. These days it's happening through a vehicle called Alternative music.

--Dave Sholin, Gavin Top 40 Editor

American music is at a particularly pivotal point, now that R.E.M. has acquired such profound success and Reagan is leaving. I predict a serious shortage of big pop stars in the early 1990s, forcing more attention on the Alternative scene. Music will become more militant, and rock n roll will become the #1 marketing tool for food. Watch.

It's encouraging that in the last five years the framework of independent distribution has become strong enough to allow an artist to pursue his or her craft without as much regard for potential sales. Changes in music itself? That's changing every day. Much of the music I hear today wouldn't sound quite the same if it weren't for records by Minor Threat, Mission of Burma, Panther Burns or Sonic Youth. We've got an entire generation of new bands today that couldn't care less about what's on the radio or what it takes to get there. And that's fun for me.

--Gerard Cooley, Homestead Records

People are getting bored with mainstream music. The role of Alternative music is to be original and to take the chances that mainstream music doesn't take.

--Richard Butler of The Psychedelic Furs, who recorded the very first number one Gavin Alternative album

Alternative music is that, which, by its very nature does not fit in to the mainstream. The music has become more sophisticated in terms of songwriting and production expense. Because of the "moving outfield" syndrome (that which is considered left field today will very likely end up in center field tomorrow), very few artists can become mainstream sellers and still enjoy massive support at Alternative radio. The music represented on the Gavin Alternative chart is diverse, eclectic, and challenging by its very nature. This, hopefully, will always be true.

--Sean Coakley, Arista Records

Underground, commercial and college stations, and publications like Gavin with an Alternative section have had an immense impact. All you have to do is look at the success of bands like U2, Depeche Mode and the Cure. What you're seeing is the demographic that existed five years ago moving up to another demographic. Yet another demographic is developing that is equally (if not more so) craving its own music and identity. Part of the excitement, mystique and romanticism of this business today is the exciting music that exists while the mainstream becomes more oriented towards nostalgia and old music. Look at any major market. People need music that they can identify with and call their own, that's not the music of their mothers and fathers and older brothers and sisters. The future is always going to be the bands coming from this underground Alternative cutting edge situation that's looking forward and isn't content to live with another generation's music.

--Denis McNamara, PD of WLIR-Long Island for the past 10 years

Alternative music only became big business after "New Music" happened and topped the charts. The Clash went platinum. Now we see Billy Idol with the #1 song. Remember, he came from Generation X. We need an alternative to Alternative and that's what I see happening in the next five years. Alternative music stations aren't Alternative to anything except a classic rock station. Good music is going to be played on a good rock station, period. Punk and New Wave started off as a great movement, but it soon became everything it started off not being. But we won! I look at half of our playlist and it's "New Wave." This is all the stuff I could never have played on this station five years ago. Alternative has become a marketing plan to work a group. If the group is not established then everybody wants to be Alternative or Metal. If I was back programming WMBR again, I would be creating a great radio show. You have to create the fantasy that is radio and that is the true opera of the mind. Great radio is about mystery. Radio as the integration of music and fantasy is what's missing today. I see an Alternative developing to the Alternative. I think we're going to get back to some of those blues roots, more of the basic backbeat rock n roll roots. We're starting to see it now with bands like the BoDeans.

--Oedipus, WBCN-Boston

Alternative music has crawled from the depths of underground caverns and unspoken musical establishments to the ears of grandmothers everywhere. It is no longer the bastard child of record labels. In fact it has become the outlet for forerunners in music a la U2, the Psychedelic Furs, The Bangles, R.E.M., etc.

--Linda Kirishjian, Columbia Records

In '82, a lot of bands could go up to New York and play the Ritz, get in New York Rocker and make a whole lot of money and make a big splash. Now New York Rocker is gone and they can't quite make such a splash at the Ritz any more. Things have sort of tightened up a little bit. I don't think there is such a thing as a "big splash" anymore. A big discovery by a lot of teenagers is something that's been around for awhile, like The Cure or Siouxsie & the Banshees. They're not new, but there are a lot of kids who think they're new. There's got to be a change. You still see people walking around with Sid Vicious T-shirts. That seems kind of dead. I don't think anything has come along to replace it. We're ripe for a revolution of some sort.

Alternative music has now become the "Alternative Music Business." You can actually make a living in the warm confines of its walls, as long as you find the right door that will take you inside. Alternative music, though a bit tarnished through the years, is still an area of entertainment where "Money talks, but it sure as hell can't sing." DAT could be the prescription we need to shake the world up and take it for a ride. DAT will give garage and underground musicians the opportunity to put out and distribute some decent quality recordings without the high costs of studio vampires.

--Hilare Bosio,
Big Time Records

When we first started playing Alternative music, it was something that you didn't really hear in mainstream places. Now it's broadened out with Alternative music in the Top 40. The industry has changed. You see labels taking more chances on smaller bands and they have a little more knowledge about artist development. Alternative music is designed to be musically honest, to constantly re-inject new values and ideas, and not let it stagnate. It's to make sure there's a process of change. In the next few years something new is going to come up that's not covered by anyone previously. Maybe it won't even get played on college stations. It might be ethnic music.

--Peter Buck, R.E.M.

What is "Alternative"? Upper or lower case "A"? Is it rock of the '80s? It's now on Top 40 radio. Would it be New Age? It's transmitted via satellite, so that's not really Alternative. Would it be 1960s protest songs? That's what the classic rock format is. Would it be dance music? That's kind of a lifestyle thing that has some superficial qualities to it. In the past few years we've seen the death of Album Radio and the death of the consultant. From the standpoint of radio that is potentially healthy because it's shown programmers that they are the ones who need to come up with the answers. The role of Alternative music should be to entertain or to satisfy a select minority of people. The role and goal should be to challenge, undermine and intimidate the establishment musically, culturally, politically...you name it. That's what it's always been and should always be.

--Norm Winer,
WXRT-Chicago

Alternative music has changed over the past five years, in that a few of its bands, most notably R.E.M. and U2, have achieved success in the Top 40 world. The irony is that most of the bands labeled "inaccessible" still have a hard time getting their music on the airwaves. I get very frustrated seeing promising young bands being ignored by cautious program directors with their own view of what the audience wants. Every time I hear something new that excites me, I get a very hopeful feeling for the future of making music for the love of it. I'd like to hear more guitar, and songs based more on emotion, rather than just a beat and a drum machine.

--Vickie Peterson, The Bangles

Five years ago, people were just beginning to realize that Alternative music was getting played on the radio and was producing results. In the past, Alternative music had a negative or risky connotation to a program director. Now, most smart program directors across the country in Top 40, Album, and even A/C recognize its value. To sustain its relevancy, the music has become more mainstream. I see it headed right into the mainstream. KROQ is the number six station in Los Angeles. Our cume is over a million people. We have demographics of men, woman and teens. That's a phenomenon that would normally be associated with Top 40. When people say mainstream, they assume it's Top 40. Some people have the perception that KROQ is not mainstream. We are, mainly by the composition of our audience. I emphasize the teens because we're talking about the future and there's the growth. L.A. is almost ready for an all-oldies KROQ station that could do a three-share. "Classic K-ROQ." I see the mainstream coming closer to us, and us headed towards the mainstream. When that happens, the programming has to keep the perception that KROQ is Alternative.

--Rick Carroll, KROQ-Los Angeles

If you had played me albums by the Replacements, Camper Van Beethoven or Chris Isaak, five years ago I'm sure I would have loved them just as I do now. I probably would have said they would find a limited, but growing audience if you had played me this year's records by U2, the Cure, REM, Echo & the Bunnymen and told me that these would all get significant commercial radio airplay, I would have been blown away. More important, if you played me Robbie Robertson, John Cougar Mellencamp, Peter Gabriel, and Bruce Springsteen saying that these established artists would be making these kinds of musical records, I would have been incredibly impressed. The most impressive growth I see is the influence that the Alternative artists have had on the established acts. A guy like Robbie Robertson goes in and feels juiced for the first time in ten years, and I think part of it is being inspired by artists like The Edge or Bono or Sammy BoDean. A lot of Album Radio's staple artists have really been influenced by things that have come out of the Alternative marketplace. It's ironic that some Album Radio is completely missing the boat on bands that are influencing people like Robbie Robertson and Peter Gabriel.

--Jack Isquith,
Epic Records

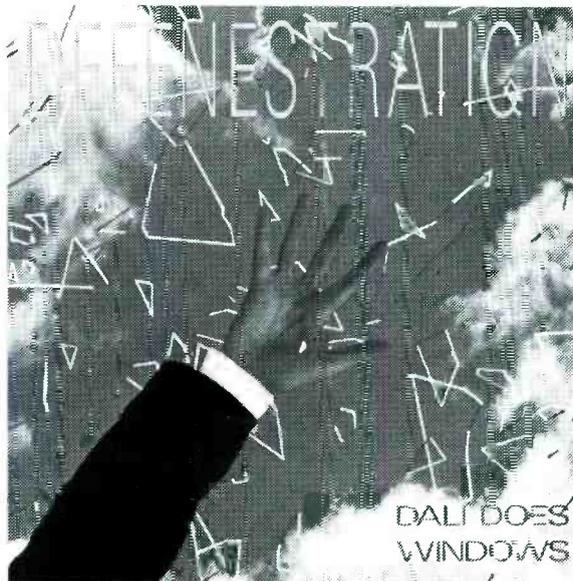

In today's radio climate, with Album and Top 40 becoming increasingly similar, Alternative radio is more important than ever in giving young bands the opportunity to be heard. We remember well the boost given U2's early albums by the Alternative radio community. That support helped make it possible for U2 to achieve their present stature. Many thanks to all of you for your continued efforts.

The particular phase of pop music evolution we're in now has almost come full circle. If the Ramones began a process that wrestled artistic control from producers and money men in favor of enthusiastic rock n rollers, 1987 finds producers and money men firmly back in the driver's seat. The revolution's infrastructure turned against itself, or at least against the ideals upon which it was founded. At the same time, it is important to recognize that something seems to have "trickled down" to the mass culture, the mainstream. I guess the world has changed enough to enable worthy groups like U2, R.E.M. and the Talking Heads to strike it rich without compromising their artistry, while it seems slightly easier for groups like Camper Van Beethoven and the Throwing Muses to get started, but only slightly easier.

--Howie Klein,
Sire Records

In the future, I hope record companies start to go back to the total development of the artist. Not just a single, 12-inch or one LP and the band disappears. We must discover the year 2000 artists right now. If it's not cultivated and nurtured by companies, it is NOT going to happen.

--Iris Dillon, Virgin Records

The music hasn't changed much, but its acceptance definitely has. People seem more open to it than before. Major labels are signing more Alternative bands than ever before, but it's still a struggle with radio. You have your core of progressive Album Radio stations who are open to new music, but to get something past there becomes difficult.

--Mary Ann Earl, Enigma Records

I've seen Alternative music get better in the sense of quality and quantity. I see this related to the success of independent label releases. Success breeds more success. Major labels take the independent labels more seriously now than five years ago. There has been a marriage of sorts between the major and independent labels. The independent label can start a record on a more Alternative level while the major label can kick in a record to become a gold status seller.

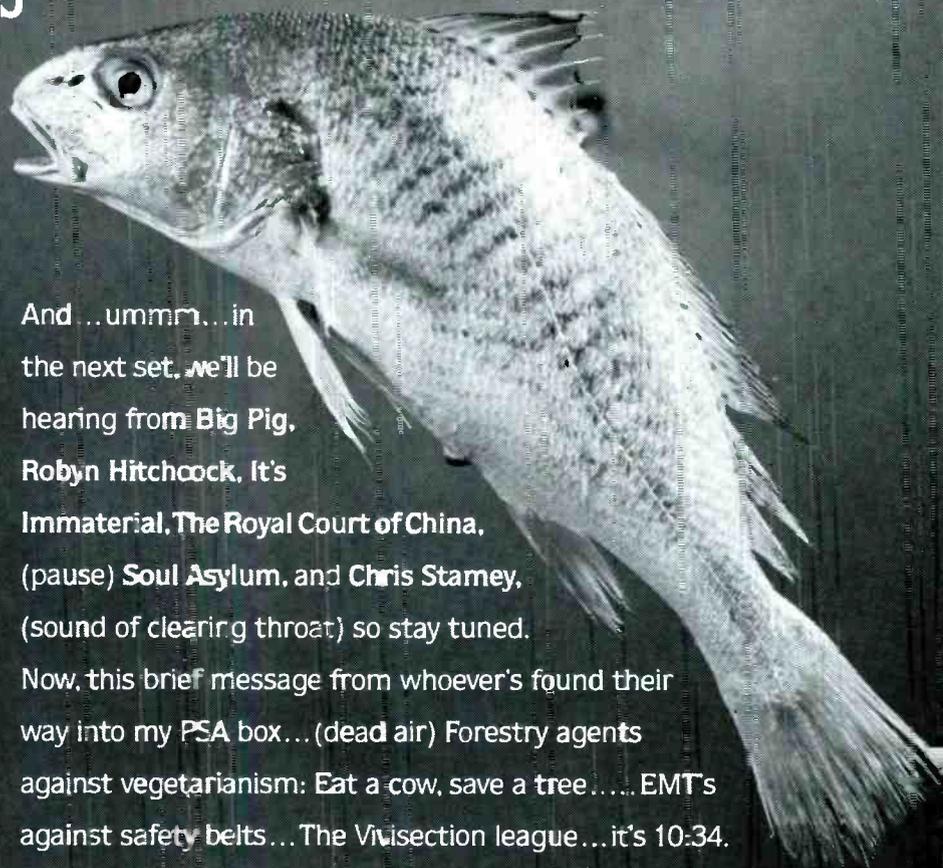

--Robyn Kravitz, One Way Inc.

With industry publications such as Gavin bringing together Alternative music reporters, they bring a structure to a non-structured area. Now we are able to chart the progress of Alternative music so that the best of that music is now given a better chance to cross over into a more mainstream area. That format will continue to expand and prove to be a major factor in selling even larger numbers of records. As Album Radio matures, reaching an ever-increasing older demo, and Top 40 continues to not only discover the new talent but to develop that talent to an even higher level, the future for the Alternative format is unlimited.

The focus has moved over the past five years from the European/UK market to the domestic scene in North America. The emergence of a devoted core of commercial Alternative radio has opened the door for many new bands on this continent. Even without Alternative airplay in some markets, we're seeing Alternative acts like Echo & the Bunnymen, New Order and Gene Loves Jezebel selling out shows. Currently, there are a glut of new bands that all sound the same and aren't really that exciting. That is a trap that Alternative should never fall into. We are the cutting edge of all music and record companies should be very careful labeling just what's Alternative and what is not. Aggressive marketing, with incentive for the public to purchase something extra special, has made the difference in breeding Canadian acts that haven't cracked the U.S. Production has evolved to such a degree that even the most basic bands now sound larger than life.

--Ivar Hamilton and Don Berns, CFNY-Toronto

We should be further along by now, but programmers and more so, their consultants, are much too conservative, cautious and reactionary. The music itself has grown up. The musicians have learned about studios and professional techniques. Yet, I still hear too many sparse, unfinished relics of the late '60s that don't inspire brilliance or confidence. I don't buy simplicity equalling passionate luminescence. I hear too many "critics' favorites" that barely would have cut it when Cream, Jimi Hendrix, the Byrds or Janis Joplin stopped us in our tracks. I'm not sure we should delegate a "role" to Alternative music. It should be incorporated, instead of singled out as Alternative. Its role has to be the branches and buds of the tree blooming and blossoming to add color and shape to the oaks, redwoods and elms which make up our musical forest.

--Lenny Bronstein, Heavy Lenny Promotions

I have noticed a steady move away from heavily keyboard-oriented techno-pop bands in favor of an "American" image with plaid shirts and jeans. There has also been a resurgence of acoustic music. After all, Woody Guthrie's music was a direct influence on Bruce Springsteen. Alternative music is nothing but a buzzword to signify a musical style, i.e. bluegrass, reggae, African, folk, jazz, rockabilly-- styles of music that must remain true to themselves to have the greatest impact on pop music.

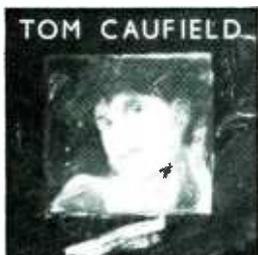

--David Einstein, WHFS-Annapolis

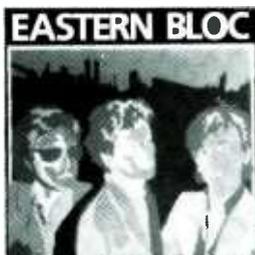

Album Radio people like Bruce McDonald (WFNX), David Sadof (KLOL), Paul Marszalek (WMAD), Scott Saalborn (WRKI), Butch Lazorchak (WVVV), Lorraine Carlso (WNEW), John Loscalzo (WRCN), and Dave Priest (WGMB) are just a few of the people who worked in college radio. These people bring an aggressive, creative approach which is the shot in the arm commercial radio needs. Radio has to look forward, not backward.

It's not Alternative music that has changed over the past five years. In one shape or form, there have always been bands like Scuffy The Cat or The Butthole Surfers or Blind Idiot God. What has changed is the acceptance of these bands in America. I don't think Alternative music has a specific "role" to play. There are bands that just make music that is not mass-marketed, least common denominator, mass-consumed music. Bands like these will live and thrive for years to come.

--Nick Cucci, Relativity Records

In the next few years, Alternative music will be a money-maker. That's why it's so important for us to keep our vision clear and our ears open. Don't let commercialism fog our senses so that we have another stagnant period like the '70s.

--Tim Hyde, PolyGram Records

The greatest change I've noticed in the Alternative music scene is the large acceptance of the music itself both by the music community and the general public. The music seems to have evolved into an actual genre that is very recognizable. Talented musicianship has been an important factor in the success of these artists. Five years ago they might have been more influenced by fad or fashion.

--Jennifer Grossberndt, EMI-Manhattan Records

In the next five years, I hope that Alternative music will embrace many types of music, including black, reggae and heavy metal, rather than emulating R.E.M. or XTC. I hope bands realize that there are no limitations. There's no reason not to embrace every form of music imaginable.

--Lori Blumenthal, IRS Records

Iwent to an R.E.M. show, and no one sat down the entire show. Everyone knew every single word of every song, and you know that didn't come from mainstream radio, despite the fact they have a hit single. Where it's headed, who knows? Maybe we're going to get a reaction to Cajun music now that the restaurant craze is over. Like regional foods, maybe regional music will come back big.

--Bill Bennett, MCA Records

Without Alternative radio, many artists would never get heard because Album Radio and Top 40 playlists are too tight.

--Fred Erlich, CBS Records

Competition by artists and labels for Alternative radio airplay has greatly increased. As the roster of principal Alternative artists continues to swell, the space available to new talent is decreasing. Alternative radio must not become as narrow and predictable as Album Radio.

--Andy Kipnes, Advanced Alternative Media

The independent label biz by and large has become a vanity press for talentless hacks everywhere. All the punks are now working in Alternative marketing departments. In fact, I'm no better. I did it too. Someone needs to stop the encouragement. Pull the plug. Blow up the pressing plants and let's start all over again. I listen to Country radio and old records more than anything else.

--Blake Gumprecht, Alligator Records

I see tremendous growth in the field of independent labels making more Alternative music available. We've also seen the major labels adding specific Alternative promotional departments. Consequently there are more people standing up and taking notice of the music.

BIO FEEDBACK

by RON FELL

DOLLY PARTON

In the mid-'60s, she signed to Monument Records and had a marginally successful single with a Curly Putnam song, "Dumb Blonde."

EUROPE

During the filming of the video for "Cherokee" in the countryside around Almeria, Spain, a brush fire accidentally consumed tens of thousands of dollars worth of video equipment.

SINEAD O'CONNOR

Prior to her debut album, "The Lion And The Cobra," this Irishwoman's only recording was a collaboration with The Edge of U2 on "The Captive" film soundtrack. Sinead has just formed a live band including former Smiths Andy Rourke and Mike Joyce. Look for a tour of the States in early '88.

CHARLIE SINGLETON

He's writing and producing for ex-Culture Club member Mickey Craig.

LITA FORD

The former Runaway is back and recording again. She's doing so for Mike Chapman's old label, Dreamland, which will be revived and distributed by RCA.

FOREIGNER

Rick Wills is the only member of the rock quartet who was not a part of the band's first album, released in March of 1977. Wills joined in time for 1979's "Head Games" album.

ROBBIE DUPREE

Born in Brooklyn, New York, as Robbie Dupuis, his biggest hit to date was "Steal Away" in the spring of 1980.

JESUS & MARY CHAIN

The band was to perform on the U.S. version of "Top Of The Pops" on CBS November 20th as "J. & M. Chain." The band protested the censorship and withdrew from the show.

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING ALTERNATIVE

The mantle of musical leadership has fallen to Alternative stations, most of them college-based and not governed by commercial considerations. Their influence keeps music fresh for all formats.

In the fall of 1960, while attending Pomona College near Los Angeles, I began four years of spending all my free time hanging around the school's 3,000-watt FM station, KSPC. It was then, as now, a student extracurricular activity—licensed to the college, but run like most campus newspapers, with a volunteer staff supervised by a committee of college personnel and students. Although the college offers no broadcast instruction, in those days some 10 percent of the student body was involved in some way with the station's operation. The result was some of the best—and worst—radio I've ever heard. It was where I first heard the music of a bizarre folk singer named Bob Dylan, the sitar of Ravi Shankar (before the Beatles discovered him), the jazz of Django Reinhardt, the blues of Sonny Terry and Brownie McGhee—all manners of pop, R&B, classical, opera. It was where I first "Played The Hits."

College radio has come a long way since then—most particularly in that it now commands an audience! While most schools maintain a semi-professional, formatted service for the general public, isolated from student input, many others run their stations similarly to KSPC, providing radio with a very needed infusion of youth-oriented ideas, both musical and otherwise. Top 40 used to serve this function, but the recent fashionability of "modal programming"— in which musical extremes are avoided, has reduced musical innovation and led to a sameness in mass appeal music. The mantle of musical leadership has fallen to Alternative stations, most of them college-based and not governed by commercial considerations. Their influence keeps music fresh for all formats. Even the "Outlaw Country" music has come to us from this source.

It certainly was no surprise to me that the Gavin Report was one of the first to incorporate this field into a mainstream music publication. Since its inception by Bill and Janet Gavin 30 years ago, it has been the innovator in reporting music values for programming. My personal congratulations to all responsible for this section and its development over the past five years.

It seems to me there is one other organization which deserves some credit for elevating the Alternative music stations—particularly noncommercial college stations—to prominence. And that is the Birch rating service. Unlike Arbitron, the industry leader, Birch prints ratings for all qualified radio stations, regardless of whether they're "commercial." Arbitron's policy is to delist any noncommercial stations that otherwise meet reporting standards, on the pretext that the ratings are used for time-buying, and time cannot be bought on such stations. The other reason, of course, is that it is possible for such stations to have bizarre up and down swings, just as it is for any station, exposing Arbitron to additional complaints from commercial stations.

Although I have taken static from general managers for saying this in the past, I have always advocated that all otherwise qualified stations broadcasting to the public should be printed in the rating books—if for no other reason than to alert commercial stations that the public may be tuning into something it likes on a noncommercial outlet. Obviously, part of the reason such successful commercial stations as LIVE105, Rick Carroll's KROQ and 91X make use of concepts developed on noncommercial Alternative stations is that Birch ratings have shown these concepts can draw an audience.

So hats off to the innovators in Alternative radio, then and now—to Peter Standish and the staff who put together the Alternative section of the Gavin Report, to those in commercial radio (some of whom have come from noncommercial stations) who have found ways of freshening mass-appeal radio with concepts that originated with Alternative stations, and to the rating service which brought the viability of these concepts on noncommercial radio to the attention of commercial radio.

And this seems a good point to repeat a suggestion I've made before. Commercial broadcasters: Not only will you find it fulfilling (and profitable) to teach broadcast courses part-time at local community colleges (in many states you need no teaching credential to do this, and in others it's simple to get, and the college will help you get it), but you will also find yourself getting fruitful new programming ideas just from interrelating with the students.●

THE CONNELLS

SAVAGE-EURHYTHMICS (RCA) Eurythmics head back to the dance floor. Starting out and blazing trails as a synthesized duo, Eurythmics then fanned out instrumentally, presenting their music in a bigger-band ensemble style. On Savage, the pair has pared down their sound considerably. Stubbornly moving in the opposite direction of the crowd, trax like "Beethoven" and the single, "I Need A Man," show Annie and David quite brazen about their dependence on electronics. Stripped away are the layers of textures and solos that gave the more recent songs a dense fullness. Whether or not they're back to "Sweet Dreams," it is, in many ways, a stark departure back to the simplicity that first endeared the concept to the New Music "in crowd." Their growing audience has proven to be open to all kinds of extremes. The European single is "Beethoven." I agree that "I Need A Man" is a more sensible American airplay target. Other trax of interest include "Shame" and "I've Got A Lover."

NEW

"DOCTOR DOCTOR"-THE RADIATORS (EPIC)
While "Like Dreamers" highlighted the Radiator's maturity, "Doctor Doctor" was still many people's true fave. As the spirit of the Allmans looms, I still detect a hint of cajun magic about to be thrown toward the mainstream. One track will never accurately peg these guys so don't forget there's an entire album that'll grow on you.

SIESTA-MILES DAVIS/MARCUS MILLER (WARNER BROS.) Miles and Marcus, the prime co-conspirators of last year's Tutu album, are back together on a soundtrack that transcends the usual instrumental background. Now the movie has some magnificent music to live up to. Film stars Ellen Barkin, Isabella Rossellini, Grace Jones, Jodie Foster and Miles' horn. Siesta precedes a full-blown Miles disc due in early '88, so look out.

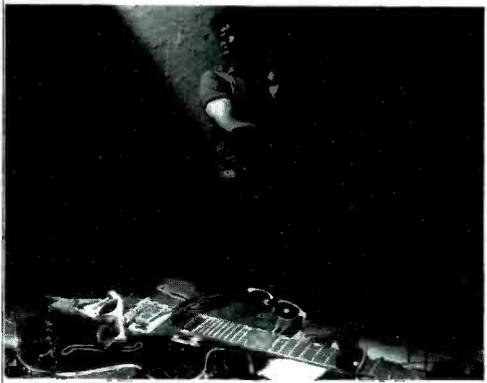

13 GHOSTS-THE BROADCASTERS (ENIGMA)
Did you know that there are only two types of rock n roll? First there's Chuck Berry and then there's everyone else. Put the Broadcasters firmly in the Chuck camp. Fans of Smithereens and the underrated Del Lords will find the raw-edged Broadcasters faithful to the type of damage four-piece guitar bands are capable of. This is New York rock crossbred with a Detroit flair for bottom-line dirt. "Down In The Trenches" and "Dangerous World" pack a good punch. 13 Ghosts is a generous portion of bluesy, boozy pub rock.

SURFING WITH THE ALIEN-JOE SATRIANI (RELATIVITY) This could be the '80s version of a Ventures or T-Bones guitar album. While Joe plays a rowdier songs than "Telstar" or "No Matter What Shape Your Stomach's In," this is instrumental inspiration for those aspiring to bang heads and influence girls. Dig the title track. This one's got more licks than America's got stamps.

INSIDE INFORMATION-FOREIGNER (ATLANTIC)
On Inside Information, Foreigner wears their commitment to Album Radio clearly on their sleeves. The prime trax are those tailored and textured outside of the realm of Top Forty's current appetite for dance music, more toward a matured rock sound. Songs like "Can't Wait," the opening "Heart Turns to Stone," the title track and "Face To Face" follow the Jones/Gramm formula of a single lyric line hook. Apparently the band went through some widely publicized personality conflicts. Perhaps they came about because Foreigner tends to work slowly, inch by inch. Inside Information was conceived and recorded in a fraction of the time Foreigner usually takes to record, giving the songs a live, riff-oriented grittiness that peacefully co-exists with the ballad work Foreigner would be foolish to abandon. Inside Information covers all the radio bases with a blend of tempos and loudness. I prefer the rockier moments.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME-STEVE ONE AND THE SHADES (SQS) While we avoid banging the home drum for the locals, there has been a breakout of remarkable talent the likes of Camper, Flying Colors, Hard Rain and now Steve One and his Shades. Steve rides a more mainstream wave and, while I'm trying hard not to use the H-U-E-Y word, I can't help comparing the song-writing and the personality skills. Call 415-443-5722 and you'll hear some ambitious songwriting which nowadays separates the "wannabees" from the "doers."

"BO RUNS WILD" a headline heralding Bo Jackson's debut as a football hobbyist.

PRIDE AND POISON. Ever since the Oakland Raiders ran out on me, call me a sore loser. Football has never been the same. However, Bo Jackson, the strike-out king of the Kansas City Royals, was the talk of the nation. Blinking-eyed football addicts like Ron O'Brien of KATS/FM or Alan White of KILO stuttered in disbelief. Not since the release of U2's Joshua Tree has one event dominated the telephone pitter patter. As I enter a deep basketball-induced depression, maybe a peek at the Bo-man may be in order. When you hear names like Jim Brown being carelessly tossed around, you gotta wonder.

AROUND THE HORN. Cyndee Maxwell of KWHL/FM called to inform us that, yes, K-Whale is nine trax deep on the Very Special Christmas Album. In addition, they're playing the hilarious Bob Rivers Christmas as well... Greg Lee's Warner Brother's Yulesville Christmas album has been pressed on red vinyl. Between the songs and the artist IDs, this is one of the best, also...It was a typical night at KTBC FM-Nacogdoches. During the all-night show, a pregnant young woman beat on the door for help. Seems her infuriated father was chasing her on horseback with a shotgun. "Never a dull moment..." lamented Kurt Naumann...With the departure of Kim Pool, who leaves WMRY as the St. Louis Reprise rep, Ted Habeck gives up his airshift to handle both PD and MD duties... During his first weeks as PD, Greg Steele is having good luck on KNOX/FM-Grand Forks with rockin' White Lion and Peter Himmelman...Rosemary Jimenez confirmed it. KLOS did actually paint the outside of their station pink in honor of Pink Floyd's sold out Los Angeles arrival. KLOS also hoisted a huge inflated pig that inspired many to dig out their cameras and video cameras and film the KLOS skyscape...We're getting shock waves from San Jose regarding this week's Record To Watch, Michael Bolton. KSJO added him in hot. "On a scale of one to ten, Bolton tested 9.15." explained officially appointed MD, Patty Martin... Among the KKCY-San Francisco adds were Cry Before Dawn's "Second Sight" as well as Sinead O'Connor and John Stewart...I thought he was kidding, but WDNS/FM's Brian Locke of Bowling Green was serious. They're playing "In A Gadda Da Vida" by Slayer (off the Less Than Zero soundtrack) in the mornings. "We're getting phones on the Slayer, Aerosmith and Poison tracks." admitted Locke. Readers, don't try this at home... After adding six trax off the Very Special Christmas Album, KILO's Alan White said, "I like the integrity of Jimmy Iovine's efforts."...Adds at KROQ (always interesting) include Sinead O'Connor, Eastern Bloc, "Manhattan Boy" by Easter on the Chameleon label and "Steve On H" by Cindy Lee Berryhill...WNEW/FM adds include U2, Flesh For Lulu, Jethro Tull, The Brandos, Tom Caufield, Michael Bolton and The Connells.

ARENA ROCKS. Ron Garrett of KRXQ was jazzed by Def Leppard's recent large hall extravaganza. Featuring hometown opener, Sacramento's Tesla, attendees reportedly got their money's worth—all $18.50 worth. "Def Leppard raised arena rock to a higher level." cited Garrett...Shred and his straight long locks leaves WFNX to do weekends at nearby WBCN... Jeffrey Damon reports The Radiators pulling #3 phones at WMVY-Martha's Vineyard... Added in medium rotation at KLAQ-El Paso was Year Zero on Chrysalis...Sky Daniels' KFOG adds include John Mellencamp's "Real Life," Springsteen's "One Step Up," Jagger's "Say You Will" and the Royal Court Of China's "It's All Changed."

THE BETTER IT SOUNDS. After a few spins, View From The Hill's "No Conversation" becomes impossibly addictive. Album Radio geared strictly toward adults should waste no time jumping on this track. Ask me my favorite song right now and this is my reply. Courtney Pine's sax solo on the outro is God-like. Courtney for President. John Fagot, the world deserves this one.

HELLO DECEMBER. One of the highlights of December's arrival is Phil Ochs' picture above the December grid on my trusty Rhino wall calender. Sean Penn's only redeeming factor is that he's an avid Phil fan. Hello December. We will publish two more Gavins in 1987 before dispensing full force into our upcoming Gavin Seminar. The last Gavin will be dated December 18th with final 1987 reports due Monday and Tuesday, December 14 & 15. We'll speak to you then. Stay well, KZ

Love and Rockets repeat as chart toppers for the fifth consecutive week as the Housemartins storm ahead, closing to within 15 chart points of #1. Sinead O'Connor continues to build momentum, increasing her points by almost 20% in one week! A debut album going #1? A rare but distinct possibility. A band sharing a similar name, The Connells, finally broke past the top ten barrier, as did the Red Hot Chili Peppers. Flesh For Lulu kicked it into high gear with great reaction noted by Mike Thomas, WMDK-Peterborough ("Our biggest climber") and Heather Young, WUSC-Columbia ("Starting to pick up"). Fetchin Bones has jumped seven positions each of the past two weeks and Chris Stamey is stronger than he appears. Camper Van Beethoven is screaming up the chart behind the support of people like Lisa Securo, WUNH-Durham, and Dennis Wygmans, WRUV-Burlington. The Reivers and Meat Puppets are coasting along the mid- section of the chart and last week's Record To Watch, O Positive, is our highest Certified debut. O Positive increased their points by 33% this week and are one of the hottest albums for Josh Rosenthal, WCDB-Albany. David Sylvian is growing on programmers like Steve Balcom, WXYC-Chapel Hill, Faith Henschel, KCMU-Seattle, Brett Greene, KUNV-Las Vegas, and Bob Showacre WHFS-Annapolis ("Boy With The Gun' reminds me of early King Crimson."). The Proclaimers finally debut after persistently building in Chartbound, with good retail action noticed by Kandy Wilkens, WXCI-Danbury. Others reporting strong listener reaction include Ivar Hamilton, CFNY-Toronto, Michelle Haunold, KBVR-Corvallis, and Adam Langley, WBNY-Buffalo. Robert Hammer KXLU-Los Angeles, and Susan Kennedy WWVU-Morgantown, are both having success with the Pixies, who debut this week.

Look for a new Pixies album in February produced by Steve Albini of Big Black fame. Peter Himmelmen and the Soup Dragons (doing well for Brad Davis, WDCR-Hanover) are the other debuts. The Nils are our Record To Watch with an impressive 50% gain of chart points in one week and a large number of adds from both college and commercial reporters. Two records in our IMPORT/INDIE section are attracting rave comments and should find their way onto our top 50 before the end of the year. Cindy Lee Berryhill is doing well for Valarie Pittman, WRAS-Atlanta ("surprising everyone"). Negativland improved their points by almost 40% and are inspiring rave reviews from Ron Phillips, WUSB--Stony Brook ("going to be #1 next week"), Eric Janssen, KDVS-Davis ("big record"), Bruce Flohr, KCPR-San Luis Obispo ("moved to #3"), and the new MD at WUOG-Athens, Margaux Tenenbaum ("Lots of calls because it's so strange"). IMPORT RECORD WATCH: Helen Urriola, WFIT-Melbourne, is having fun playing an album by the group Soda Stereo called "Signos" on CBS

International Discos. Please note that our last week for accepting reports will be December 14 & 15 and we will return in 1988 on Monday January 4th.

SPOTLIGHT LP

Le Mystere Des Voix Bulgares - Explorer Series (Elektra/Nonesuch)

A common theme throughout this week's cover story is that Alternative music is ripe for a change, or as Oedipus of WBCN-Boston says, "an alternative to the Alternative." This album of a Bulgarian female choir is a prime candidate to fill the void. This won't subtly blend in with the trees of the present Alternative forest, and that's precisely the point. Where the next movement may stem from is anyone's guess but some, like R.E.M.'s Peter Buck, think it may come from ethnic music such as this recording of Bulgarian folk music. This is certainly an adventurous and imaginative alternative (with a small "A") to the present norm of Alternative music on the airwaves.

INSIDE COUNTRY

Angela Brooks at KSCS/WBAP-Dallas/Ft.Worth was the first to tell us about a record that could be the talk of this holiday season. "Dear Mr. Jesus" is a song about child abuse sung by nine year old Sharon Batts. It's from an album titled "Shelter From The Storm" by Power Source, a church group out of Bedford, Texas. This album was first released in 1986 and there was an article about the song in the November 30th issue of USA TODAY. A portion of the sale of each album goes to fight child abuse. If you would like further information on the record, give Angela a call at 817-429-2330. She says that 80 percent of their requests are now for this song, and she's not alone. Ann Stevens at WHYL-Carlisle reports incredible requests for it, and Wayne Waters at WITL/FM-Lansing started playing it last Friday and got heavy calls for it all weekend. Doris Thompson tells us that all Stecker/Thompson consulted stations are giving the phone number of the Child Abuse Hotlines in their areas after each play.

We're sure we'll be hearing a lot more about this one.

As of December 7th, WBTU will be inhabiting new studios. Their new address is 2100 Goshen Rd., Suite 232, Ft. Wayne, Indiana, 46808, and their new phone number is 219-486-9288.

A few of our stations reported exceptionally strong response to some current album cuts. Sean Lisle at KNBA-Vallejo tells us Jo-el Sonnier's "Tear Stained Letter" is his third most requested song. Chuck Walley at WGAA-Cedartown says he's pulling in a lot of calls for Alabama's "'55".

Johnny Randolph at KTDO-Toledo says, "Requests here are unbelievable for Kathy Mattea's 'Untold Stories.'"

THE GAVIN HOLIDAY SCHEDULE: We'll be taking reports from you the weeks of December 7th and 14th, then we'll be closing our offices for the last two weeks of the year. We'll be back, raring to go, on January 4th, 1988.

Talk to you next week. The Gavin Country Crew

REVIEWS

DWIGHT YOAKAM - "Santa Claus Is Back In Town" (Reprise)
Ho Ho Ho Honey. Dwight's Christmas present to radio has been delivered early in the form of another Elvis re-make. It's Christmasy, it's Country, and it's a must for your holiday programming.

GEORGE JONES - "The Bird" (Epic)
Your listeners will get a kick out of this one. "The Possum" is back in good form with a humorous song perfect for lighter end-of-the-year playlists.

WILLIE NELSON - "Nobody There But Me" (Columbia)
Willie Nelson is one of the best songwriters in Country music, but this time around he's chosen to record a song written by one of rock music's up-and-comers. Bruce Hornsby's wistful lyrics are a perfect match for Willie's voice. This one will grow on you.

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

The "Zapp" man turns out to be not only one of the most requested tunes on the radio today, he now turns up at number one. Nice work for the rejuvenated Reprise label. ROGER has always been a star anyway, and you can't keep a good star down. The gainer coming in this week with the highest Hit Factor is NATALIE COLE's "I Live For Your Love." With 97% of our stations carrying her in heavy or medium rotation, she gets to number three on the chart. Certified and charting at number 29 is THE DEELE, drawing major phones for Shirley Williams, WKXG-Greenwood and Carla, WAMO-Pittsburgh. Looking at more debuts on the chart, our Record To Watch from November 20th, JOYCE SIMS, completely skips Chartbound and hits the chart at number 40. Last week's Record To Watch, M/A/R/R/S, is looking good for several of our stations: Melvin Jones, KRNB-Memphis, reports calls from 18-34 demos, Mike Stradford & Greg Beasley, KMJM -St. Louis, and Mark Christian & Stan Bell, K97-Memphis, say all demos are calling, while Gary Weiler, WBLZ-Cincinnati, says it's the hottest club record currently in Cincy. Peter Arnell, WFXC-Durham, reports the SALT-N-PEPA as his hottest, and Joe Bullard, WANM-Tallahassee, says the WHODINI is already generating calls from teens after one week. Looking at the strong male vocals (finally) Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, speaks up about both CHRIS JASPER, who is drawing calls from all demos, and KEITH SWEAT, getting calls from 18-34 demos. B.K.Kirkland, WIKS-New Bern, repeats he's getting calls for the same single, and Pete Rhodes, CBLS-Minneapolis, reports it's the number one requested item. Most stations are adding the "Soul Remix" of the BOY GEORGE, which is on the flip side of "The Mix" version serviced to Top 40. More and more stations are noticing it. Frenche Be, WQIM-Montgomery, is getting calls already for the soul version, or "scratch version" as he refers to it. Mickey Arnold, WRDW-Augusta, reports instant requests from adults for BETTY

WRIGHT. This week's Record To Watch, WELL RED, was somewhat of a surprise to many programmers. Listeners acceptance was immediate where played, and one by one, stations are jumping on the band's wagon. Larry Carr and Alton Palmore, WQIC/FM-Meridian, are making it their record to watch as well, based on many phone calls after just a few plays. Thanks for the calls this week. Talk to you next week.

REVIEWS

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

LACE - Since You Came Over Me (Wing/PolyGram) These ladies come out of the box like gangbusters. This release should be as strong as "My Love Is Deep" these three lovely ladies' career is one worth following. When Narada Michael Walden gets involved, people listen.

BAR-KAYS - Don't Hang Up (Mercury/PolyGram) It seems that the Bar-Kays are on a resurgence after having success with the Top 40 Urban hit "Certified True." Good beat will be a mass appeal record.

CHICO DEBARGE - Rainy Night (Motown) Change of pace for Chico DeBarge makes quite an impression on us the first listen. He's an artist with enough versatility to come back with a strong ballad loaded with emotion.

MARLON JACKSON - Baby Tonight (Capitol) Title cut from his debut album is a definite dance track. Not only will it do well as a club offering, this uptempo track indicates that Marlon's funk hasn't been tapped out.

5 YEAR SAND COUNTING

Tuesday, Nov. 24th, 1987. 5:17 a.m.: Here it came again. Once again Raymond Burr fell out of bed upstairs and made the earth move. Once again, lights came on all over the neighborhood, and L.A. newsradio took the audience away from POWER106, KIIS and KOST. Once again, we wondered if it had dared shake Johnny Carson's mansion just a few miles away, or Joe Smith's estate where his wine collection barely survived Oct. 1st. Once again the dogs raced upstairs and their frightened eyes pleaded, "We TOLD you we should move back to Baltimore." And once again, Mrs. Hollywood calmed us with a hot chocolate that tasted suspiciously strong.

All this on a morning when we were planning a little piece about a section the Gavin Report calls "Alternative." Maybe the shake was a warning from some of the weird groups in the weird section cautioning us not to even ATTEMPT to satirize their recorded works--to which we say, "How can you satirize satire?" I mean, we know for certain that Gavin's Peter Standish and his evil twin Miles, who edit the Alternative pages, have been playing some sort of cruel joke on us for five years. If you don't believe us, just go into your local record emporium and ask for a copy of the Flaming Lips or Cassandra Complex. The clerk, wanting to appear hip, will tell you they're fresh out. He really won't know what you are talking about, and we can prove it!

As an experiment, we strolled into our local Music Plus and asked for the current releases by Tender Drillbit, Jello-Mold Mother and Brainscan. The pimpled nerd working the counter grinned as if to share our cool-ness and informed us that shipments of all three bands would be arriving before Hanukkah gifts needed to be bought, and that he'd had numerous similar inquiries. Having made up all three groups, we figured we were onto something about the above-noted put-on by the Standish Brothers.

The hysterical part of their running gag are the actual reviews of some of these groups in the hallowed pages of Gavin. We might be breaking it to publisher Ron Fell right NOW that, unlike his own intellectual commentaries about REAL product, the Standish reviews are about bands which DO NOT EXIST! If you think dorky record shop clerks have been sent up by the send-up, think about THIS: Real radio stations, most of them on college campuses, buy the bit with regularity, and when they never actually SEE the product reviewed in the Alternative section, simply figure that it must be SO rare and inside that only some chosen other stations have been serviced, and they enjoy the anticipation of the stuff while continuing to play Springsteen and Prince.

By the way, in absolute seriousness, Gavin Report Alternative editors have neglected what, in our eyes, are a few of the finer real and existing Alternative LPs released in the past five years. These albums are so hot, so cool, so good, so "bad," so imported and so under the shaking ground that only Heavy Lenny Bronstein and a guy who calls himself Hey have ever HEARD of them. Nonetheless, quality should have its place in the sun and we urge you to seek them out:

NEWTON'S MOLDY FIG (Swissdisc): Known in an earlier incarnation as ABBA, these four elderly Swedes had us in hysterics with their cynical observations of life at Diane Rufer's house. Replete with sly insouciance and insouciant slyness, the graying seniors paint word pictures full of the thunder and power of a sunny Yankton morning. An underlying rage emerges in the track HOWARD ROSEN'S DREAM, as they dig into the hidden underbelly of the oddball indie. Ruthlessly exploiting Christopher Cross B-sides, an undercurrent of whimsical humor is displayed, and the guesting of ZAMFIR on pan flute lends an adventurous subtlety to WHADDYA MEAN VALERIE HARPER'S NOT JEWISH? Highly recommended, and if you think the LP's a hoot, the video will have you in a new dimension faster than you can say Quartararo!

MOSES AND MARY SHAPIRO (Gefilte): Rife with heavy-handed lighthandedness, the bible-thumping duo tops their previous effort on the now-defunct Yarmulke label. Already racking up record sales in Anchorage, the team credits their exposure to a courageous heavy rotation stance taken by KKLTV's Greg Wilkinson, who also performs background vocals on the tracks DON ANTI'S REVENGE and DANNY DAVIS VISITS THE POUND AGAIN. Synthesized stradivari serve notice that the Shapiros are not to be denied as they ask the musical question, SHEILA CHLANDA?

SPACE RABBI (Hairball): This concept piece is a 43-minute tribute to Tim Brough. The Joe Biden campaign manager's every waking minute is searingly explored, as the Rabbi utilizes bizarre chord progressions and the Stu Wright Tabernacle in haunting foreplay chants. THURSDAY WAS A VERY GOOD YEAR is a clever tribute to a bottle of Gallo chablis, and BETTY HOLLARS ISN'T BLACK? digs deep into the philosophy of a white Anglo-Saxon who listens to RUN DMC on her own time!

But wait, there's more...on second thought, there may be NO more! Raymond Burr just fell out of bed again! ●

DON'T ASK

Asking permission to try something new is usually a complete dead end. The reality is that if you ask, somebody will say no, or a committee will be formed to analyze--and ultimately strangle--your idea.

Not too long ago, a friend who is a training director in the personnel department of a large organization told me the following story:

"We'd been having a lot of trouble with our performance appraisal forms. Nobody seemed to like them. Managers saw them as just more paperwork and often irrelevant to the issues they needed to discuss with their subordinates. The non-managers saw them as another unfair means by which the company could police them.

"Traditionally, we at Personnel had put together the forms. But a couple of months ago, we asked ourselves, "Why shouldn't the people who actually use the forms help us develop them?" It seemed like a pretty radical idea, but it made a lot of sense.

"So we set up two joint management-labor committees to work with us in developing a performance appraisal form that could be used for all personnel in the organization. After all, some of the managers felt tense about working with non-managers, and some of the non-managers were gung-ho union. But we were determined to go through with it.

"It was wonderful! Not only did the two groups come up with a much better form, but the team-building that occurred in the process was invaluable."

I was very impressed. "Tell me," I inquired. "Did you get permission from your boss (the senior vice president of personnel) before you did this?"

She laughed. "Are you kidding? If I'd asked, he would have said no--or would have asked somebody else who would have said no. We decided to go for it and put the burden on someone else to try to stop us."

And that, folks, is the moral of today's column: DON'T ASK.

Do you have a good idea--an idea that could make things better for you, improve efficiency, save time and costs, reduce headaches or improve sales and revenue? Stop waiting for someone to tell you to do it.

I'm not trying to be a naive Mary Poppins here. Obviously, you should use common sense to avoid jeopardizing your job. But too often, I've seen people simply sit on great ideas. They either assume that someone in senior management will eventually figure out the same idea anyway, or they start asking if it's okay to try out the idea. Either path leads to a stone wall.

Waiting for upper management to figure things out is a real mistake. Senior managers are removed from the firing line. It's unrealistic to expect them to come up with all, or even many, new ideas. And asking permission to try something new is usually a complete dead end. The reality is that if you ask, somebody will say no, or a committee will be formed to analyze--and ultimately strangle--your idea.

I'm not sure why the "no" seems so inevitable. Your boss may be afraid of the consequences of your idea, or somebody may be threatened by your idea because his or her turf is affected. And occasionally I wonder if organizations hire professional "no-sayers" whose sole job is to liquidate and bury new ideas. It sure seems that way sometimes, doesn't it?

So don't ask. Try a little bit at a time. The quick feedback can be used to guide you to success--and small steps also enable you to recoup any losses more easily. If necessary, casually keep your boss posted as you're going along. Make it appear that what you're doing is an ordinary part of your job. (Shouldn't creativity be part of anyone's job?) If questioned, defend your idea. Remember, anything new is going to threaten somebody. And remember also: If something is deadly wrong with your idea, you'll be stopped. But why abort the entire process by asking for permission beforehand?

I think the most perceptive comment on this issue came from a hospital president--a nun--who said, "In organizations today, it's a lot easier to get forgiveness than permission."

I know you've been sitting on that idea of yours. It's great. It'll help the company. It'll help you do a better job. It'll make you feel better. You know it. So what are you waiting for?

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

EURHYTHMICS - I Need A Man (RCA) Raunchy right down to the bone. Annie Lennox lets it all out, giving one of her finest performances. As soon as this finishes playing, I'm ready to hear it again. Deserves a nomination for one of the best "grooves" of the year.

PATRICK SWAYZE - She's Like The Wind (RCA) Yes, there's more on the "Dirty Dancing" soundtrack..lots more!! For those who still haven't seen the picture, Patrick is the male lead and his appeal, the power of the scene in which the song appears and the song itself make a powerful combination.

BOY GEORGE - Live My Life (Virgin) Another soundtrack tune, this one from "Hiding Out." Though he's been through tough times the last few years, George's vocals have always been exceptional. What's been lacking is material, and writers Allee Willis and Danny Sembello seemed to have solved that problem. Better with each spin.

WA WA NEE - Stimulation (Epic) Easy to hear why this song went to number one in the band's native Australia. It demonstrates Wa Wa Nee's versatility and their talent for clever lyrics and memorable melodies.

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

EURHYTHMICS - Savage (RCA)
David A. and Annie are always out there dancing and prancing to the beat of a different drum machine. They provide an elusive, constantly moving target for reviewers and critics. Annie's modern soul vocals and David's theatric rock production are a wonderful combination. The album's lead single, I NEED A MAN, is, in my estimation, the best thing they've ever done. It's aggressive, visceral rock sung by a woman with a focused obsession for a two-legged animal. Other tracks of intrigue and airplay potential include PUT THE BLAME ON ME, I'VE GOT A LOVER (BACK IN JAPAN) and DO YOU WANT TO BREAK UP?

PEBBLES - Pebbles (MCA)
Thirteen studios and nearly as many producers and engineers can make for a great or a disastrous album. In this case, we're looking at success. The production values are effective compromises between Urban, Pop and Dance. The extra texture created by mixing and mastering makes this a classy production. Her current hit, GIRLFRIEND, can and should cross from Urban to Top 40 in due time. Equally charming are FIRST STEP, MERCEDES BOY and LOVE/HATE.
