INSIDE TOP 40

by Dave Sholin

"It's gonna be great in '88"...that's the sentiment most everyone was expressing this week. A new year inevitably calls for resolving to stop those nasty habits and start some healthy new ones. It's also a perfect time for a strong dose of optimism, especially in the entertainment industry. Even with video rentals at an all-time high, box office receipts are setting records. Sure, many cars are equipped with cassette, even CD players, but they can't compete with radio for information, companionship, and.. entertainment. Technological advances continue to enhance the enjoyment of listening to music, and it's bringing baby boomers back into record stores (or should we start calling them CD boutiques)? The public's appetite for entertainment seems to grow proportionately to the choices that are offered, and it shows no sign of slowing down. Everything points to a great '88 indeed.

While we were resting over the holidays ROGER was busy zooming up playlists everywhere. Unfrozen lists always show records taking big moves, but this one is exceptionally hot. Moves of ten places or more for 100KHI 29-19, WRCK 24-13, WAVA 25-15, WLXR 27-17, 92X 20-10, KISN 21-10, Z100 (Portland) 19-8, KAKS 25-12, KYYY 33-21, etc.

CHER leaps into the top thirty with a 19% HIT FACTOR and 23 adds. Moves into the top twenty for Dena Yasner 95XXX Burlington 26-18, Jim Cook WJET Erie 24-16, Jeff Davis Panama City 24-17, Jim Oktavec WMMS Cleveland 30-20, Paul Christy and Cheryl Broz POWER 104 Houston 25-17, Charlie Fox KYA Billings 21-15, etc. New on LG73, KOZE, KDON, KSND, WIBW, WFBG, WNSL, KKXX, etc.

Another hot number for SQUEEZE who are already outdoing their last effort at this early stage. Debuts in the top thirty at EAGLE 106 Philadelphia, KWK St.Louis, POWER 105 Albuquerque, LIVE 105 San Francisco, WDBR Springfield, WPFR Terre Haute, BAM99 Montgomery, WMMY Melbourne, 106X Florence, etc. Adds include Z94 Boston, WROQ Charlotte, KUBE Seattle, KEYP Tyler, WLYQ Norwalk, etc.

Rapid growth has propelled SALT-N-PEPA right onto the TOP 40 with a staggering 40% HIT FACTOR. This unusual entry has proven to be a big winner everywhere it gets played. Barry Richards takes it number one in Fresno at B95 as does Shawn Demory at KGGI San Bernardino and Steve Wyrostok PWR 99.7 Atlanta. Giant gains at Z93 19-2, Z100 29-20, KZOU 17-6, KIXY 13-3, KRQ 22-12, KIIS 11-6, 93Q 15-4, WZIX 21-7, Y100 19-9, etc. HUGE!!

Early believers on RICK ASTLEY are now confirming the universal appeal of this big international hit. Gary Wall and Lisa Dent debut it at #21 at Q106 San Diego. Other strong debuts include KZHR #19, KKFR #15, KZZP #25, Z100 Portland #25, etc. New at FM102, KGOT, WZYQ, WCGQ, WNCI, WZOK, B93/FM, WHKW, KIIS, KUBE, etc. Climbs 25-14 at KMEL, 24-14 WXKS and 19-5 at HOT 103.

M/A/R/R/S is closing in on a CHARTBOUND slot with 27 adds getting them very close to the 100 mark. HIT FACTOR is up to 29% with both 93Q and POWER 104 Houston charting it at #7. Also big in New York at HOT 103 3-1 and Z100 20-12, in Atlanta PWR 99.7 28-11, and Z93 26-12, San Francisco KMEL 9-2 and LIVE 105 6-4, and Washington D.C. WAVA debut #18. Adds include WANS Greenville, Y100 Miami, KZFN Moscow, K106 Beaumont, KOKY Kearney, KYYY Bismarck, WCLG Morgantown, Z103 Tallahassee, etc.

Another strong week for new airplay on BOY GEORGE. This one is also very close to entering CHARTBOUND territory. New believers include WXXQ Freeport, KLYV Dubuque, KSND Eugene, KKRC Sioux Falls, XGGO Arcata/ Eureka, KIIK

Davenport, KXUS Springfield, WPST Trenton, WKPE Cape Code, WYAV Myrtle Beach, etc. Bob Harlow and Gary Weinstein debut it #30 at KATD San Jose/Los Gatos.

SWING OUT SISTER ended 1987 on a roll with 27 adds and comes back after the holidays with another 24 adds. Debuts top thirty for Jim Gillie and Scotty Johnson KKFR Phoenix. New on Q106, KWES, WKFX, WQLK, WEQR, WZIX, WNVZ, WIZM, KKAZ, etc.

In the cold cold Midwest BUSTER POINDEXTER is warming folks up at WBIZ Eau Claire, going 34-23. Darren Lee reports big request action, especially from men and women 18-24. Darren says "when it hits 40 below with the wind chill this song helps." Other moves include 17-5 KKSS, 18-14 LIVE 105, 35-27 POWER 104, 40-28 WMMS, 27-22 KRRG, etc.

Last year's final RECORD TO WATCH by GLENN MEDEIROS is now number one at KRQ Tucson and WPXR Rock Island. Debuts #20 at Y95 Dallas and moves 23-15 at POWER 92 Honolulu, 17-9 at WCIL Carbondale 34-25 KRGE Weslaco and 28-24 at KZZP Phoenix.

Keith Naftaly notes that PRINCE'S "Hot Thing" is generating tremendous response. Keith says calls are "massive." And from Boston, Jerry McKenna at WXKS is reporting Top 15 callout and top 5 requests on a song called "Saving Myself" by ERIA FACHIN. He notes the station began playing it as an import two months ago and due to response rotation has been steadily increased. Now available in the States on Critique Records.

Plenty of success stories for the COVER GIRLS on the West and East Coasts. Moves include KMGX 10-7, KSTN 28-16, Q106 17-13, KYNO 32-24, Z100 22-16, HOT 103 4-2, Y100 debut #24, WCIL debut #28, KITY 28-19, KZZP 24-19, KRQ 35-28, etc. Added at WDJX Louisville, WDEK De Kalb, WLYQ Norwalk, WPST Trenton, etc.

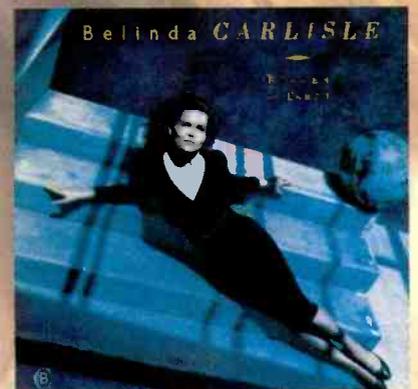

Even at this late date I find myself continuing to open holiday greeting cards. Thanks for the many warm wishes.

BACK TO THE FUTURE

Where to begin a review of 1987? It boggles the mind, scrambles the senses and would take so much space, if properly done, that you'd miss your weekly fix of Bio Feedback and Norberg. Just a few highlights then: It was the year of The New Monkees, The New Star Trek and the New MTV (no Nina or Martha), MTV survived just fine. The less said about Trek and the Monks, the better.

Fawn Hall resurrected Farah Fawcett's old hair, and one of the two ladies in Heart got fat, as did one of the two ladies in Fleetwood Mac. Videos for both groups were shot through special fat-diminishing lenses. Boy George and Madonna changed their hair numerous times, and Jessica Hahn changed her nose, chin, chest and other body parts in a plastic surgeon's office. Speaking of Jessica, '87 was the year in which more folks entered our oft-noted pantheon of People Who'll Be Famous For 15 Minutes: Tammy Faye, Jim B., Ollie North, Donna Rice, The Seven Demo Dwarfs and Keshia Knight Pulliam certainly qualify, and Tiffany is champing at the bit. Cher became a SERIOUS movie star, and Bette Davis responded to that news by stating that if she would be dead, she'd be spinning in her grave. Orson Welles DID spin.

U2 was the concert phenomenon of the year, with the ever-resilient Bono on lead. We never believed Sonny would rebound after his disastrous performance in "Airplane." Congrats!

The Gavin Report announced its third annual Seminar for Medium Pros for the Eighties, and other trades reacted by announcing THEIR seminars to take place within minutes of our concluding awards banquet. Tim Brough of WAFL and WGSV's Kerry Jackson began scrambling around for air fare funds so that Kevin McDonald and Tom Breneman can buy them drinks at ALL the conferences.

Music from days of future passed lost Buddy Rich, Fred Astaire (Yes, he WAS a great singer), Woody Herman, Rudy Vallee (and only Dave Sholin remembers HIM), Liberace and others.

Tom Selleck got married, dashing Dede Whiteside's hopes forever—or at least until the inevitable divorce. Dolly Parton lost more weight than Pee Wee Herman started out with, and Johnny Carson tied the knot again, dashing Diane Rufer's dreams until HIS next split. Sylvester Stallone's marriage was KO'd, giving new hope to Sheila Chlanda, and The Great Gleason went up to that Big Raccoon Lodge In The Sky, leaving behind a life's work of the best TV ever.

Gary Hart gave Carson and Letterman more fodder than anything since Doug "What A Rush!" Ginsburg, and Fawn was back in the news for illegally eating a banana in a D.C. subway station. Write your OWN material on that one.

The big radio story for '87 had to be the emergence of New Age music, The Wave and Wave-clone stations. Perhaps hearing the stuff is what killed the above-mentioned Buddy Rich and Woody Herman. Don't get us wrong—we recognize change. We just can't recognize the melody.

The Sunset & Vine Lakers won the NBA title again, and a team called something like The Doublemint Twins won the "World" Series. We chewed on that for a while, as did Pete Rose and Reggie Jackson.

Liz Taylor, Mary Tyler Moore, Desi Arnaz, Jr., and Liza Minelli made the Betty Ford Clinic the IN place to vacation. Sean "What, ME Ugly?" Penn preferred to spend his time in a more, shall we say, secure environment.

Chinwag went to two pages, often resulting in the chopping of this column. Our out-takes are being edited for an Xmas '88 coffee table volume. William Casey never did come back from the dead to testify, but Oral Roberts (who's okay between consenting adults) assured us he'd say hello to Bill when the Big Guy calls him home.

Major comebacks for George Harrison, Robbie Robertson and songs of Tommy James gave us personal pleasure, as did chart items by Roy Orbison and Bill Medley. Can The Orlons be waiting in the wings?

There wasn't much Sinatra music on the radio, certainly not FM radio, but, despite major surgery, the 71-year-old showed up for all his concerts and still does as nice a job, if not nicer, on George Harrison's "Something" as the Beatle himself. The Chairman has something like a 50th year of appearances scheduled for '88, and readers of this space know we've still got OUR mind set on him!

The Tenth Anniversary of Elvis' Death Media Machine pulled out all the stops, and we heard The King's music on FM, AM, Muzak and our rabbi's cassette deck this year. We acquired a bunch of Elvis videos and watched them more than a lot. Does he get better, or are we dreaming?

Not that we're rooted completely in the past. (As our good personal friend, Senator Joe Biden, once said, "Nostalgia isn't what it used to be.") We welcome the continuing heart-warming contributions of Dokken, Stryper and Whitesnake, and fully expect to see all three acts at some venue or another in the year 2001. We also have some property to show you in Sri Lanka.

Our three major items of the year?

1. Liz Taylor celebrated her 55th birthday, making her, as usual, seven years younger than our idol, Chuck Berry.
2. Diana Ross got pregnant.
3. Here in Tinseltown, we nearly had the earthquake of earthquakes. Turned out it was merely a forewarning, and a good excuse to break open a bottle of Chivas at 6:04 a.m.

The Gavin Report completed its 29th year, with big plans for their 30th anniversary and the thirty years just ahead. A major innovation will be an updating of the Birthdays column, which will begin to feature people someone, somewhere, has heard of. ●

CODY, LEACH TO PONDER 'BROADCAST ARCHITECTURE' PYRAMID FORMS THINK TANK

"This is the first time that any radio company has established an official think tank structure," said Pyramid Broadcasting CEO Rich Balsbaugh in announcing the acquisition of Leach Research of Princeton, NJ. Market researcher Owen Leach will now be teamed with former KTWV-Los Angeles PD Frank Cody in a new division of Pyramid called Cody/Leach Broadcast Architecture.

Balsbaugh says the new division will "deal with major questions that confront radio, including new ways to maximize audience size quickly, revitalize national spot business, hasten the movement of local newspaper dollars into our radio stations, and develop new programmatic approaches that will help us as we pursue station acquisitions."

Cody, who worked with Leach in developing "The Wave's" New Age/jazz format, said the new venture "satisfies my desire to pursue creativity on a full-time basis. Working with Owen Leach's vision-and-precision approach to research will be an inspiration."

Leach says he plans to work

Owen Leach

with Balsbaugh, Chief Programming Officer Sunny Joe White "and all the talented people at each station to build a highly unified team approach to problem solving. Frank Cody's special imagination and futuristic imagination will be of enormous benefit."

HILAIRE PARED BY BIG TIME

Hilaire Bosio has been laid off as Director of Radio and Video Promotion for Big Time Records. The label, currently renegotiating its distribution arrangement with RCA Records, has not named a replacement. Hilaire, former MD at KUCI-Irvine, CA, is looking for a position in promotion/artist relations. Give him a call at (714) 722-0595.

Y106 GETS NEW OM. PD BJ105 BAGS THIRD BRIAN

"It has saved us some money," jokes BJ105-Orlando VP/GM Rick Weinkauff. "Now we just keep the name 'Brian' on the PD's door." The reference is to the station's third programmer of that name in less than a year: Brian Philips has arrived from WMMS-Cleveland to replace Brian White, now at FM102-Sacramento, who showed up last May to take over when Brian Thomas went to B104-Baltimore. "We are working to become a legend in this area," says Weinkauff. "And we are looking to Brian to get us to the next plateau." If that doesn't work, he can always try Brian Bosworth.

Crosstown at at WCAT (Y106) programmer Mark McKay has moved up to Operations Manager. Replacing him as PD is Dennis Reese, evening host at Miami's WPOW (POWER96). Said McKay, "Dennis has already proven himself as one of Miami's top-rated air personalities of all time. We're convinced he'll be an equally successful program director in this very competitive market." Reese will also handle p.m. drive.

FIRST FLASH OF FALL ARBS Z100, POWER106, Q106 ON TOP

The New York Fall Arbitrons show Scott Shannon & Co. widening the gap between Z100 and POWER 95. The overall 12+ figures have Z100 in first place with a 6.0, trailed by all-news WINS with a 5.0. WWPR (formerly WPLJ) dropped to a tie for third, sharing a 4.7 with surging A/C WLTW, while Urban WRKS took fifth with a 4.6. Other movement of note saw Album Rock WXRK dropping nearly a full share, with Howard Stern's show losing 1.3 in mornings. All-sports WFAN also proved disappointing, dropping from a 2.3 last summer to a 1.2.

In Los Angeles, POWER106 zoomed nearly a full share to a 7.5, while KIIS jumped 6.5-6.9. News/Talk KABC was third with a 5.5, while A/C KOST's 4.5 took fourth. On the Album Radio front, KROQ's drop from a 4.3 to a 3.7 was paced by KLOS's 3.0-3.8 rise. Classic rocker KLSX turned in a strong 3.6, but The Wave seems to have crested. Debuting with a 2.5 last Spring, KTWV rose to a 2.7 in the Summer, only to ebb to a 2.3 in the most recent book.

Down in San Diego, the story was Q106 (KKLQ), which soared to a second-place 7.9 just two books into its Top 40 format. Easy Listening KJQY remained in its usual number one spot, with A/C B100 in third with a 7.3. Q106's success took its toll on 91X (down 5.5-4.9), while satellite-delivered New Age notched a paltry 1.5 for the former Top 40 powerhouse KSDO-FM, now KSWV.

Duck Soup Music, owned by Michael Jackson's manager, Frank DiLeo (center) has signed an exclusive administration agreement with the Espy Music Group headed by Kim Espy (right) and signed on Richard Butler (left) as Director of Nashville Operations. Duck Soup has recently acquired the publishing companies of Wishbone, Inc., of Muscle Shoals.

LIGHTS FINALLY GO DOWN AT 'THE CITY' KFCY'S FAST SWITCH TO MOR

While the FCC ponders a listener challenge to the sale of San Francisco's KFCY, the station has abruptly dropped its eclectic rock format for Big Band/MOR. Staffers got a one-hour notice before owner Olympic Broadcasting installed what it called a "broad-based, middle-of-the-road format" January 4th. Almost the entire air staff was laid off, although PD Kate Hayes will reportedly relocate to an air shift at Kansas City's KLTU when new owner Olympic takes the A/C station Top 40 as KXXX.

Left out in the cold in San Francisco are the 1,000 loyalists who formed "The Coalition to Save The City" when Olympic announced plans last year to sell the station to Jim Gabbert, owner of KOFY-AM and KOFY-TV. Ironically, Olympic cited the group's protests as a reason for dropping the format, saying, "delays in obtaining FCC approval" of the sale, meant "it would not be in the best interest of Bay Area listeners or Olympic Broadcasting to continue our music format which is producing continuing losses and has never gained a competitive audience share or meaningful advertiser support."

Gabbert, arriving back from vacation in the middle of the furor, has taken steps to prevent the removal of the station's rock library. "I didn't pay $11 million for a bunch of records by the Hi-Los and Four Freshmen," he noted. Although mum on his plans for the station, he says he will neither keep the present format nor reinstitute the old one.

FIRST U.S. RELEASES DUE IN APRIL DAT'S COMIN'

The dam may be breaking as far as digital audio tape (DAT) is concerned. GRP Records has announced plans to release seven DAT titles in Europe next month, with the U.S. rollout targeted for April. The jazz-oriented label says it hopes to have 25 additional titles out by year's end.

RADI-O-RAMA

Brett Richards is the new OM of WLYQ (Q96) and WNLK in Norwalk, CT. Mike Fitzgerald is now PD for the combo ... MD Larry Williams departs WRCK-Utica, NY, for overnights at WPKY-Rochester. Jim Reitz remains PD ... PD Larry The Duck assures us Long Island's WLIR will be back on the air within six weeks, pending FCC approval of Elton Spitzer's $4.5 million bid for WRCN's frequency. He's looking to fill some staff vacancies—T&Rs to the old 'LIR popstand at 175 Fulton Ave., Hempstead, NY 11550.

Changes at WHDQ-Claumont, NH: Dave Ashton is the new MD, replacing Ted Bilodeau, who moves to Promotion Director. The station also adds B.J. Porter to the morning crew and Jennifer Foxx from WARE-Ware, MA, as full-time swing ... Cape Cod's WKPE (CAPE104) replaces MD Steve McVie with R.J. McKay and brings back William Files as Sales Manager ... Barbara Dacy gets Asst. MD title at WMVY-Martha's Vineyard ... After more than eight years with Delmarva Broadcasting, John Wilson is leaving his morning show at WSTW-Wilmington, DE, to become golf pro at a local country club. The station welcomes news reporter Suzanne Roantree Kraus from WPOC-Baltimore ... Beth Ann McBride leaves nights at WKSI-Greensboro to be morning host/Production Director at G105 in Raleigh-Durham ... Alan Sledge joins WFOX-Atlanta as Asst. PD/midday host. He was most recently the morning news anchor at KHOW/KSYD-Denver ... Calvin Hicks moves up to MD spot at WYAV-Myrtle Beach, SC ... MD Jon Briton adds OM title at WYKS-Gainesville, FL, where Scott Hinds moves to middays and part-timer Jim Fox takes nights ... Pat O'Bryan gets PD stripes at WIQQ-Greenville, MS, as Larry King has exits.

Jack Beach, formerly with United Broadcasting, is the new VP/Programming for CR Broadcasting, owner of stations in Illinois, Tennessee, West Virginia and Michigan. He replaces broadcaster Chip Mosley, who says he's ready to put his 20 years of experience to work at a Top 40, A/C or Oldies station. "I really enjoy taking stations in turnaround situations, and have a track record of success in bringing operations back to life," he says. Chip's available at (901) 422-3216.

Mike Love is the new MD/p.m. driver at WUSL-Philadelphia. He had been handling afternoons and promotions at KMJM-St. Louis ... Former KMJQ-Houston programmer Ron Atkins has surfaced in the PD office at WOWI-Norfolk.

Michael Williams departs KPUR-Amarillo to program KZZQ crosstown ... The first of the year saw Bill Vance move up to Station Manager at KTFX-Tulsa. Allen McLaughlin and Ron Whitaker will now be co-Sales Managers ... KRZN/KMJI-Dallas promotes Barb King to National Sales Manager ... A format switch from A/C Gold to Classic Rock at KHYT-Tucson brings PD stripes to Mike Mason and MD title to Pete Michaels. The station plays nothing past '83.

Chinwag congrats to KOST-LA Music Director Liz Kiley, who adds the title of Asst. PD. The new duties means she must relinquish her 6-10 p.m. airshift, which goes to overnights Laurie Sanders ... KFRC and WLS vet Turi Ryder is now handling permanent vacation relief and weekends at KIIS-Los Angeles ... Lou Lunden is the new MD/midday talent at KCMJ/AM-Palm Springs. She arrives from KIKF-Orange County ... K100-Chico welcomes new MD Rochelle Perrault, most recently of K57-Guam ... Jim Wolcott is the new MD at KXLE-Ellenburg, WA ... Kevin Chase is the new MD at Top 40/Country combo KMOK/KRLC-Lewiston, ID. He comes from KACI-The Dalles, OR ... Frank Kennedy joins air staff at KEAG-Anchorage, while his old midday shift at KASH goes to evening host Daryl Webster.

PD/morning driver Alan Gibbs adds MD chores at WITL-Lansing, MI, where new OM John Dakins arrives from KONO-San Antonio. Also on the move in Lansing: Mark James exits WFMK to produce Rich Michaels' morning show crosstown at WVIC under the name Mark Frost ... The new officers for the Radio Broadcasters of Chicago are WLAQ VP/GM Michael Murphy, President, WOJO VP/GM Athena Sofios, Vice President, WBBM-FM VP/GM Wayne Jefferson, Secretary/Treasurer, and WFYR VP/GM Richard Rakovan, Political Action Coordinator ... Neil Todd is promoted to MD at KJEZ-Poplar Bluff, MN, replacing Kelly Ulrich.

NIPPER VIP

Allan Stein has been promoted to Vice President of Sales for RCA/A&M/Arista Distribution. He will report to division President Pete Jones, who said, "He is street-smart, product-knowledgeable, aggressive, liked and respected. On top of that, he's a workaholic. Clearly, I had to promote him before someone else did!"

Henry Hurt has been appointed Vice President, Arista Music Publishing-Nashville. He will be responsible for developing a roster of Nashville writers, as well as expanding the use of Arista copyrights.

Diana Graham has been named Vice President, International, BMG Music Publishing. The former General Manager of Chappell International will be based in London, in charge of international product acquisition.

A MATTER OF FAX

Bugged by busy signals? The Gavin Report now has its own FAX machine for the benefit of beleaguered station reporters and our beloved advertisers. Playlists, press releases, ad copy and all sorts of goodies can now be reconstituted electronically around the clock. The number is (415) 788-3517. No heavy breathers, please.

BIRTHS

Our CONGRATULATIONS to BOB TESCH, Program Director of KIXR-Ponca City, OK and his wife, PAMELA, on the birth of their daughter, MARIA ANN. Born January 2nd, weighing 9 lbs. 7 oz.

HEADQUARTERS MOVING WEST ATCO TAPS GREENBERG

Atlantic Records Chairman Ahmet Ertegun has announced the appointment of Jerry Greenberg as President of Atco Records & Custom Labels. The restructured division will be moved to Los Angeles, with A&R and Promotion representation on both coasts. Greenberg served as President of Atlantic from 1974 to 1980. Most recently, he was President of the Music Division of MGM/UA. Said Greenberg: "I am thrilled to be back with the Atlantic family."

Jerry Greenberg

Atlantic/Atco has been a part of my life for over twenty years. I am eagerly looking forward to taking the Atco & Custom Labels division to even greater heights. Being based on the West Coast opens up a host of new opportunities for Atlantic at large, while Atco's ongoing presence in New York ensures that it will continue to be a world-class label."

Atlantic has also announced the promotion of Nick Maria to the position of VP/Sales, based in New York. Maria has worked for the company for 13 years, the last seven as National Sales Manager.

INSIDE A/C

With 48 stations absent from this week's research, the chart is predictably volatile. Normally we would freeze the report of non-reporting stations, but due to the two-week hiatus, we chose instead to reflect the consensus of the 199 stations that reached us this week.

In only seven weeks, "Everywhere," Fleetwood Mac's fourth single from "Tango In The Night," has landed solely at number one on the A/C chart. With no burnout in sight, it'll be tough for hits by Natalie Cole, Carly Simon and/or Gloria Estefan & Miami Sound Machine to replace the Big Mac. Expect the top 4 to dominate for most of this month.

The Tiffany is a likely number one A/C record in the weeks to come. It's already HIT FACTORED at 71% of its 156 stations including WSB/FM, WELI, WSNI, KEZR, KKHT, WHTX and WJXL.

The Donna Summer duet with Mickey Thomas is now top twenty at A/C. Doing better than surviving the holidays, it's now HIT FACTORED at 68% of its 118 stations. Last issue's RECORD TO WATCH, Patrick Swayze dirty dances through the holidays right up to the 29th spot on the A/C chart, the highest debut of the new year.

The fastest debut of the new year goes to the hot duet from Peabo Bryson & Regina Belle as they go from nowhere to the chart while others slept. No thanks to the turkey of a movie from which it comes.

PEABO BRYSON · REGINA BELLE

WITHOUT YOU

A personal fave, Manhattan Transfer's "Soul Food To Go," debuts comfortably on the chart at #33 with a 54% HIT FACTOR front he likes of WMT/FM, KZZQ, KLZS, WWMJ, KYJC, WSKY and KHYL.

Timothy B. Schmit's new single, "Don't Give Up," debuts on the chart and is this week's fifth MOST ADDED record, thanks to WSKY, WZNY, KKOB, KWLO and J107.

Rick Astley's "Never Gonna Give You Up" debuts in our UP & COMING

He's gonna be a significant A/C act in the future. Earliest believers include KYJC, WKYE, B100, KDES, KLOK, KVIC, WSNI, WJXL and WBLU.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, England's View From The Hill, is developing slowly but surely as an excellent airplay record. Already on the lookout are WCZX, KKHT, KWAV, KKOB, KLZS and KINN.

Hope you'll note the many additions to our seminar agenda on pages 35 & 36. As you can see, the two days, February 12th & 13th, are now jammed with interesting sessions. See ya there!!

REVIEWS by Ron Fell & Diane Ruffer

THE CARS - Coming Up You (Elektra)

A song about fate and the luck of the draw. "It's never quite like in dreams" is a reality check. Clever lyrically and melodically.

STING - Be Still My Beating Heart

(A&M) Stung by the love bug, every breath he takes is paced by the pulse of a heavy heart.

GEORGE MICHAEL - Father Figure

(Columbia) An adult love song. George sings of love 'til the end of time with a blood loyalty. High fidelity for sure.

RICHARD MARX - Endless Summer

Night (EMI-Manhattan) Each of his first three singles has become more and more an A/C record and this one (his third) is right down our alley with a smooth, harmonic pop classic.

STEVIE WONDER - You Will Know

(Motown) This is definitely the song which will be most remembered when we look back on the "Characters" album years from now. It's a very enduringly paced song which couldn't be any more contrary to "Skeletons."

IONATHAN BUTLER - Take Good

Care Of Me (Jive/RCA) The Butler does it again with an adult ballad which really showcases his excellent singing voice.

BRENDA RUSSELL - Piano In The

Dark (A&M) For quite a while Brenda's been making wonderful music as a singer and as a writer. (She wrote Donna Summer's "Dinner With Gershwin") This track fronts her new solo album and creates a smooth groove for some thoughtful lyric.

MIKE POST - Theme from L.A. Law

(Polydor) The song is already familiar to many millions of our listeners and can be an instant attraction in our format.

SCHUYLER, KNOBLOCK & BICKHARDT - This Old House (MTM)

A great lyric about a warm old house with hardwood floors and wall-to-wall memories.

BRIDE OF MAILBAG

Last October 23rd, this column was devoted to a letter from my fellow columnist, Tony Richland, protesting radio's failure to back-announce records these days. Tunes are increasingly played anonymously, and it is hard for me to see a benefit either to radio or to the record industry.

I received a thoughtful response from Shannon West, Music Director of BLU-92/WBLU in Hinesville, Georgia, who also works fulltime in a record store in Jacksonville, Florida, "a market in which none of the dominant stations in any format ever tell you what they are playing," she wrote, noting:

"The amount of people coming in totally bewildered because they love a song and would like to buy it if they only knew what it was, is amazing. Since a lot of artists are one-hit wonders without recognizable voices, people have no idea where to look. Chris DeBurgh and Danny Wilson are major examples right now. Currently, (customers) think Millions Like Us is something new by the Doobie Brothers, Restless Heart is The Eagles or Alabama, Jarreau is on the Earl Klugh album...in short, grasping at straws. It won't shatter your formatics to take five seconds to tell what you're playing. They don't care about your formatics anyway. They're shopping, driving kids to the Cub Scouts or doing their jobs. It makes me look great at work, since I know the songs. It helps sales, and makes the store look good, too. But it is a dangerous trend.

"Did part of this attitude come from the idea that one had to be anti-music to be perceived as a business/bottom line-oriented programmer (as opposed to a music junkie airhead)? All is not so black and white."

Thanks to Shannon for sharing her feelings on this. I am still unable to think of a single reason why a live radio station would not identify the music it plays by title and artist. Some automated formats are not capable of announcing these, but surely that gives "RLP" (Real Live People) an edge in modern radio. If the music's any good, your listeners want to know what it is--so why not tell them? If there is a reason why not, I sure would like to hear about it from somebody. As it is, I can only conclude that a huge programming mistake has become a widely copied radio programming vogue without any rhyme or reason.

Also in the mail was a response to the comment by Rick Segers, News Director of WKAK and WALG in Albany, Georgia, who in our "Son of Mailbag" column October 9th, wrote of the short-sightedness of programmers who only read about their own formats in trade publications.

This response came from Norm Hankoff, President and General Manager of KTHO AM/FM in South Lake Tahoe, California:

"I, too, find many of the thoughts contained in the various columns of the Gavin Report invaluable. In my files, I have numerous photocopies of past writings by Moon Mullins, Jerry Boulding, Oren Harari, Harvey Mednick, Tony Richland and yourself.

"I also maintain a large collection of clippings from Broadcasting, Adweek, Radio & Records, Radio Only, Rotarian Magazine, the Wall Street Journal, Reader's Digest and others. Radio is a fast-moving business. Just keeping up is an ongoing project.

"Rick Segers put it quite well about the 'thinking radio person.' There's a wealth of good, usable information available, if only we take a moment to recognize how it relates to us and our own stations."

Thanks to Norm for his contribution--and for his suggestion for the title of this week's column. He suggested one more, which we'll save 'til the next time the mailbag arrives.

In the meantime, let me take this opportunity to once again remind you to make your comments part of this column. Write me c/o the Gavin Report or directly at the Adult Contemporary Music Research Letter, 1837 S.E. Harold St., Portland OR 97202-4932.

Last year, I did a column about a major Midwest station which was tailoring the hits to its format by editing the "abrasives" out of songs. I got a letter a while back from William Wertz of the national program syndicator Kalamusic in Kalamazoo, Michigan, revealing he has gone further and created music quite different from the original. For one New Age station, he went so far as to customize Bruce Hornsby's "The Way It Is" by splicing out Bruce Hornsby! Taking only the piano tracks and leaving out the vocal entirely, he created a musically satisfying instrumental which, when we tested for fun for our music letter, received a score high enough to recommend adding it, were it an available record. As evidence of its artistic validity, to our amazement, our panel did not notice that the vocal on this hit song was missing!

He also commented on the unfortunate failure of the nation's programmers to play a 1986 release which generated phenomenal requests at the A/C level, and which certainly might have been a potent Top 40 hit, too, in view of how other "commercial" melodies that have been big hits in the past--such as "No Matter What Shape Your Stomach's In" (Alka-Seltzer), "I'd Like To Teach The World To Sing" (Coca-Cola) and "We've Only Just Begun" (Crocker Bank). It was "Hymne" by Vangelis, from his 1979 album, Opera Sauvage, used as background music for the Gallo wine TV commercials. It sold a quarter-million albums just off one mention in Family Weekly magazine last spring (answering a "What is that tune?" question in the letters column), and has been used by TV stations as a news and PSA crawl theme. I admit that I, too, have been amazed and appalled that an offbeat hits like this can be broken by newspapers and TV while totally overlooked by the radio industry.

Which brings me to next week's subject--a speech made recently by legendary programmer Rick Sklar. ●

by RON FILL

MICHAEL JACKSON

He will produce and finance a $20 million musical film about Johnny Appleseed.

STING

Prior to forming The Police in the mid-'70s, Sting was a schoolteacher by day and jazz musician by night in his native Newcastle, England.

CURIOSITY KILLED THE CAT

One cat killed off, figuratively speaking, is composer/keyboardist Toby Anderson, who has been ousted by the band's management, reducing the quintet to a quartet.

KEITH RICHARDS

He has begun recording his solo album at a studio in Quebec, Canada.

MEN WITHOUT HATS

Their song "Pop Goes The World" is featured in the new Phoebe Cates film, "Date With An Angel."

GRANDMASTER FLASH

The original Grand Master Flash and the Furious Five (including Melle Mel and Kid Creole) have reunited and are working on a new album for Elektra Records.

ERIC CLAPTON

PolyGram is about to release a boxed set of 72 Clapton performances covering his first quarter of a century. Tracks from the Yardbirds, Blind Faith, Derek & The Dominoes, Cream and his solo career will be included.

RONNIE MILSAP

He sings the theme song to the new NBC-TV series, "J.J. Starbuck."

PAUL McCARTNEY

He has been writing songs with Elvis Costello. The songs are likely to end up on one another's next studio albums.

ANGELA WINBUSH

Her first solo album, "Sharp," is without longtime partner Rene Moore, with whom she broke up in 1986 under less than amicable terms.

BILLY VERA

Tom Dowd produced the soon-to-be-released Billy Vera album, "Retro Nuevo," for Capitol Records.

CARLY SIMON

Fifteen years ago this week, Carly's "You're So Vain" was number one in The Gavin Report.

JONI MITCHELL

Her next album, "Chalk Marks In A Rainstorm," will include vocal support from Don Henley, Peter Gabriel, Willie Nelson, Thomas Dolby and Billy Idol.

MELI'SA MORGAN

She studied music theory at New York's Juillard School of Music and later toured as a backup singer for Chaka Khan.

CLASSIC ROCK

The London Symphony Orchestra has recorded a medley of rock classics dubbed "Classic Rock Countdown."

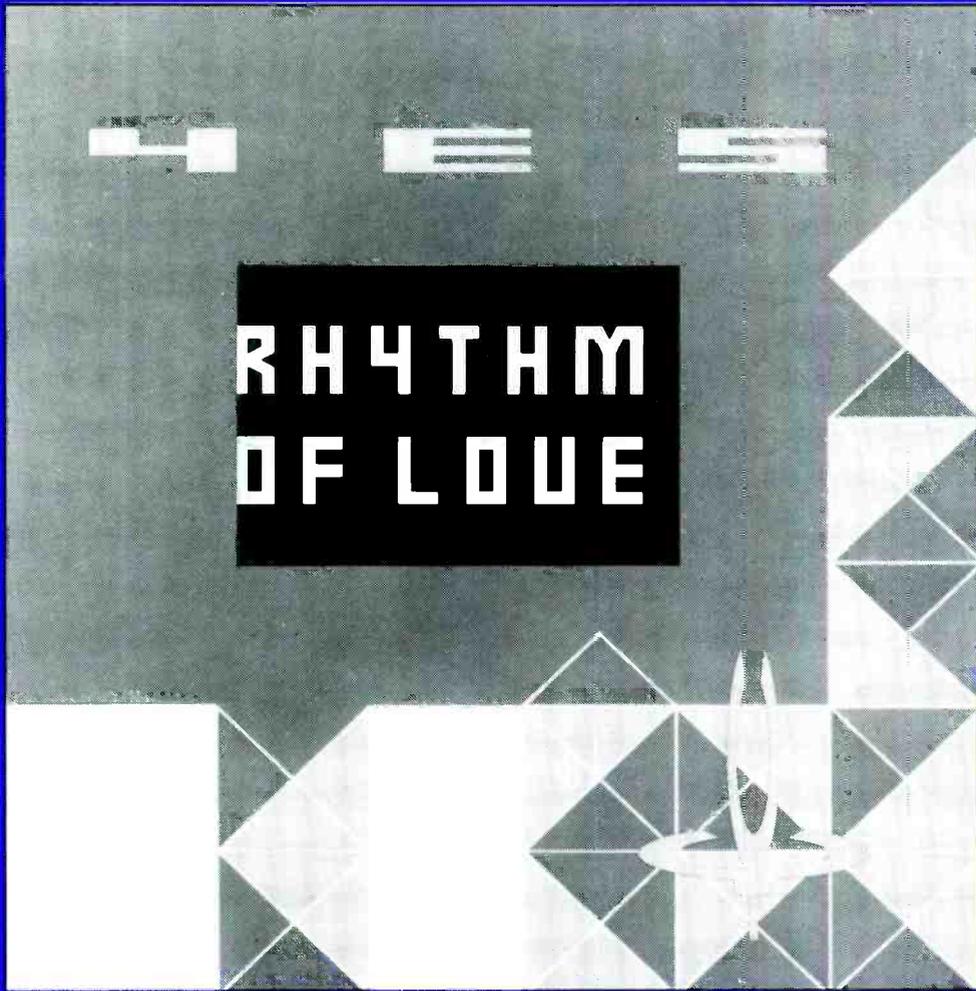

DOLLY PARTON

Twenty years ago, Dolly was a weekly participant on the Porter Wagoner TV show. They were a team for nearly eight years before she released her first self-produced solo album, "New Harvest, First Gathering."

REGINA BELLE

At the age of eight, she was playing trombone and tuba. It wasn't until she was 14 that she took up singing.

If your company's environment is so oppressive that even your small creative efforts are stopped at all times, find another job where you'll be appreciated.

HOW TO LIVE A LONGER LIFE

In my last article ("Don't Ask"), I urged all of you with those great ideas to stop waiting for permission and start implementing them. I tried to point out that organizations are generally so bureaucratic that waiting for permission is simply another way of waiting for a "no." Many of you have been sitting on really good ideas, ideas that would improve efficiency and make your work more interesting and worthwhile. As we start a new year, I'd like to talk more about that.

There is research which suggests that one of the strongest predictors of how happily you'll live--and even how long you'll live--is how satisfied you are with your job. That sounds like a strong statement, but if you think about it, it makes a lot of sense. Most of your waking hours during the week are devoted to being on the job, and to that we can add the time you spend thinking about your job, working at home, getting ready for work, getting to work, and so on. And, rightly or wrongly, your job has a very strong influence on your lifestyle, interests and friends. As other research suggests, it even has a strong influence on your emotional well-being. I think it's safe to say that your job will have an extraordinary impact on how you lead your life. Small wonder, then, that it's such a strong predictor of how long and happily you'll live.

If that's the case, we really have one of two choices: We can wait for someone else ("the boss," "management," "the company") to make things good for us at work, or we can do the best we can in creating the environment that we want to work in. There's no doubt that management's job is to create the optimal work environment for employees. Frequently, however, management is inept or myopic, and so this doesn't happen--or happens very gradually. Even under the best management, there are problems and frustrations. In short, if we're going to wait for someone to make things "good" for us, we're going to be waiting for a long time. And my experience has been that those who wait also spend a lot of time lamenting, blaming and making excuses--in short, making themselves even more frustrated, depressed and angry.

In contrast, those who won't wait don't ask for permission, either. They think of ways of doing things better, and then try them out. They take on new responsibilities without asking. They also volunteer for new or riskier ventures. They don't just do their jobs better--they literally reshape their jobs. They don't do as much lamenting, blaming and excuse-making--they don't have much time for that. Unsurprisingly, they're more satisfied, more productive--and probably live longer.

Sure, "not asking" is risky. You can lose your job. On the other hand, you're much more likely to be noticed and rewarded. Besides, you're smart enough not to rupture the system openly. It's more malleable than you think, believe me. It can be stretched a lot more than most people are willing to try.

Do it for yourself. You can make your job more interesting and worthwhile. And if your company's environment is so oppressive that even your small creative efforts are stopped at all times, find another job where you'll be appreciated. I know that sounds scary and awful, and it is. But in the long run, it's a lot more scary and awful to spend your work life lamenting and blaming. You'll be miserable. It'll spill over to contaminate your personal life, and you probably won't live as long anyway. Ultimately, you'll have to face yourself in the mirror when you retire. Will you sigh and ask, "What have I done with my life?" Will you nod bitterly and say, "Thank goodness. I've waited ten (20, 30) years to retire from that chicken outfit"?

And when you're buried six feet under the ground, do you want your tombstone to read: "Here lies John/Mary Jones. Met Budget for 30 Years"?

We can all do better than that. The New Year is here. Let's get on with it. ●

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE FAILURE

Linda Ellerbee

ON RADIO, TELEVISION AND OTHER MODERN AFFLICTIONS

by Joe Belden

Among the many ironies of Linda Ellerbee's life is that her most successful undertaking so far was a wry and chatty book about her failures in radio and television. The ascent of "And So It Goes" on the best-seller list accompanied her descent from the plush halls of network television to the shirtsleeve environment of her own independent production company.

Next fall, PBS will begin airing "Our Time," one of several projects being developed by this one-woman multi-media conglomerate. This February, she will provide the keynote address at the Gavin Seminar for Media Professionals. When we caught up with Ellerbee the week before Christmas, she was coping with life in a fourth-floor walkup sublet while her New York home was being redecorated. "Every time I get downstairs I remember something I left in the apartment," she said. Well, if anyone knows about ups and downs, it's Ellerbee.

JB: You started in radio, didn't you?

LE: Yes, back in 1964, just after the FCC ruled that FM stations could not simulcast with AM. At the time I was working for an advertising trade magazine in Chicago. They sent me out to do a story on what various radio stations were going to do with their FM stations. I got to WVON, which was the big black station--naturally owned by a white man, Leonard Chess of Chess Records. The general manager explained to me that what they were going to do was play jazz and use women as announcers because, number one, women work cheap and two, Hugh Hefner had made a lot of money exploiting women in print, so why couldn't they do it on radio? Granted it would be hard to have them take their clothes off and have it mean anything, but a sexy voice would probably sell. Then he said--and I've never forgotten it--"You have a voice that sounds like someone walking barefoot in gravel." I didn't know whether to thank him or hit him.

JB: So instead you went to work for him?

LE: He said he would pay me $85 a week. At the time I was making $65. I did a board shift, learned to cut tape and ended up writing all the commercials. I also read the news for a while on the black station, because the woman they had, who was black, had tried very hard to learn how not to sound black, whereas I, who came from Texas, still sounded black to them--and they thought that was better than being black. I worked there for several years: (puts on "radio voice") "This is WSBM-Chicago, the station with the girls and all that jazz, smack dab in the middle of your radio dial." Then I was hired by some fellows in Chicago who bought an FM station in San Jose, California, and decided they wanted the same format.

JB: And then you ended up in Alaska?

LE: I worked at one of the two radio stations in Juneau. Again, I ran the board, kept the logs, turned on the transmitter. The only innovative thing I did there was, well, there was no rock 'n' roll being played anywhere in Juneau. This was in 1970--good things were going on in rock 'n' roll. People would come back from the Lower 48 with a Rolling Stones album or Crosby, Stills & Nash. That was the only way you got to hear them. So I went to the owner of the radio station and said, "You're not programming anything from midnight to dawn on Saturday night and Sunday morning. Why don't you let us go on and play rock 'n' roll?" He thought it was the devil making me do it, but he finally agreed we could--if we sold the time. So I went out and sold the time and started the show with my own records. People in town would bring me their rock records to play on the air. We called it "Blackout" because no one else would play rock 'n' roll. I did that until I was fired because I wanted to tell the owner how to run the rest of the radio station, and also he was getting complaints about this revolutionary, awful rock 'n' roll.

JB: Corrupting the youth?

LE: You got it!

JB: Do you still listen to the radio?

LE: People are always asking what morning show I watch. I don't. I listen to NPR every morning. I listen to "All Things Considered" on NPR every afternoon. My favorite writer in broadcasting--and I include television--is Scott Simon who does the "Saturday Edition." Of course I was a huge "Prairie Home Companion" fan, and I like Noah Adams' new show. If I'm listening to music, I generally listen to classical or "Lite Rock," which my children won't even speak to me about.

JB: What do they listen to?

You have to look in the mirror every morning and ask yourself, "Do I want to do it my way or their way?" You may as well do it your way, because you'll probably get fired anyway.

Once you start to swing a little wider, the line between very good and very bad is thin, and you'll cross it sometimes. But if you don't, you're going to be grey Jell-O.

LE: God knows! Actually, both of them are actually very much into what I like to consider "my music"—the Grateful Dead, the Rolling Stones, Crosby, Stills & Nash. My son actually likes a bunch of freaks as well, but I don't know about them and I don't like them.

JB: Do you ever miss being on radio?

LE: I LOVE radio. While I was at NBC I did a radio column once a week for a number of years.

JB: There was a recent flap at NBC when two of their Washington radio correspondents said they could "kick the butts" of their TV colleagues when it came to covering stories.

LE: I would back them on that bit--you betcha. When I first came to New York working in television, I really couldn't identify the mayor in a group of six. On every story I went to it was always the radio reporter I turned to to help me out if I wanted an accurate fill. In radio, you have to be a better reporter, but I do think writing for television is far more difficult, because you're writing with an extra element. To do it well is more difficult. Appealing to the imagination using only words and sound gives you a lot more freedom than having to deal also with the picture. I also think you have to know more--you have to be a better reporter, as I said. And like every other human in the country, quite frankly, if something big blows up, I turn on the radio immediately. I even forget to turn on CNN. If you want to know what's happening, you don't go to a newspaper or television, you turn on the radio.

JB: Both radio and television news are being affected by the huge increase in buying and selling stations and even networks. "Debt service" has become the buzzword. Do you think there's anything good about the new preoccupation with the bottom-line?

LE: I can't see much good in it. Certainly in television there was a lot of fat that needed trimming, but I have no faith that they'll trim in the right places. Certainly, I haven't seen any evidence of it. About the only good thing as far as television goes is that with syndication and cable there are more places for us to work. That is not true in radio.

JB: Another common dilemma in radio and television is that they both reward and punish the "square pegs." They are pressured to be "out there" and yet often are chastised by management, and frequently fired. How do you walk that line?

LE: I think you ignore it, frankly. You have to look in the mirror every morning and ask yourself, "Do I want to do it my way or their way?" You may as well do it your way, because you'll probably get fired anyway, or they'll sell the company. There are no real rewards for mediocrity--well, actually, sometimes there are. But it comes about because there is a mass belief in broadcasting--and I include radio--that the people watching and listening are stupid. And more often than not, the people who are programming it want to talk down to them. That's where the arrogance comes in. They say, "I wouldn't watch that crap, but I know what people want." That's terrible. Why aren't we all just giving the best we can? Sure, you're going to offend somebody sometimes. But you ought to. You have to wake people up. The very good people will occasionally be very bad because they won't be in the middle. Once you start to swing a little wider, the line between very good and very bad is thin, and you'll cross it sometimes. But if you don't, you're going to be grey Jell-O.

JB: Writing an autobiography must have given you a chance to look back at the trajectory of your career...

LE: More like a roller coaster! Actually, I have failed my way to the top! (laughs)

JB: Well, from that perspective, does your career make any sense to you?

LE: It makes wonderful sense to me. It allowed me to raise my two children without a dime from anybody else. It was the greatest school in the world—I learned a trade and I love it. I have been able to spend 18 years at a trade that pays me well and that I like. That makes up for a lot of the nonsense. I have never felt that one has to go to work at one place and stay there forever. I have been lucky enough to work in many different areas and do a number of things, and since my interest is in experimenting, I've been very lucky to do a number of new programs, and to try things. The fact that "Overnight" or "Our World" were cancelled does not to me mean they were failures. The system may be a failure in the sense that if everybody doesn't like it, nobody gets it. But they were good programs and I'm proud of them.

JB: As well you should be. Tell me about what you're working on now.

LE: I've started my own company—I figured I could fail on my own as well as if I was financed by the network. We are going to produce "Our Time" for PBS starting next fall, we are talking to syndicators about a late-night show, and I'm writing a second book.

JB: You are? What's this one about?

LE: It's a murder mystery--in which I kill off everybody I've ever wanted to kill off in real life, which means certain assignment editors and at least one husband (laughs).

JB: When's that coming out?

LE: You sound like my editor! In about a year--at least.

JB: Well, I look forward to it, and to seeing you at the Gavin Seminar in February.

LE: I'm looking forward to coming. ●

Like every other human in the country, quite frankly, if something big blows up, I turn on the radio immediately.

SISTERS OF MERCY

THE SISTERS OF MERCY

BIRTH SCHOOL WORK DEATH: THE GODFATHERS (EPIC)
The Godfathers sum up life as one cruel cycle. Producer Vic Maile (Dave Edmunds, Ducks DeLuxe, Dr. Feelgood) maintains his reputation as a purveyor of raw roots-oriented rock n roll. The Godfathers use the hacksaw approach to singing and playing. Though clad in sharkskin, theirs is a working class bad-to-the-bone honesty. We especially find "Birth, School, Work, Death," "If I Only Had Time" and "Cause I Said So" hard offers to refuse.

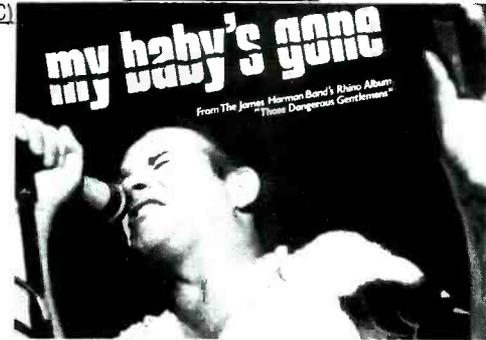

"YOU TALK TOO MUCH"-GEORGE THOROGOOD (EMI-MANHATTAN)

Yet another rough diamond. As the blues/rock format gets a workout this week, George Thorogood once again resists the temptation to get flashy. Producer Terry Manning, George and the band keep it convincing by retaining a coarse edge. Dig the "shut up" on the fade.

"PASSION"-THE WYGALS (ROUGH TRADE)

The Wygals include former ingredients of the dBs and Let's Active combined with brother and sister Wygal. The polished rocks on the cover typify the type of music you are about to experience. Though this is a Rough Trade import pressing, this is an American band, ladies and gents...and a damn great song to boot.

"MY BABY'S GONE"-JAMES HARMON (RHINO)

James Harmon is a survivor who has beaten down every highway west of the Mississippi. "My Baby's Gone" is another raw-edged rock record drawing from the Rolling Stones and the ghost of Slim Harpo. For those who remember Harmon as a rockabilly cat, this track is the next logical direction. Rock on.

"ENDLESS SUMMER NIGHTS"-RICHARD MARX (EMI-MANHATTAN)

A summer song in the middle of what could be the bitterest winter in history? Never mind. This is why I'd call Richard Marx one of the brightest new stars of 87-88. Four or five tracks into the album and Marx is still rolling full steam ahead. Ultimately it all did mean something, didn't it?

JUST LIKE PARADISE

"JUST LIKE PARADISE"-DAVID LEE ROTH (WARNER BROS.)

The closest slice to a pop piece you'll hear on Skyscraper, Roth's incredible new album. This single will be the pop companion piece to the daring material that comprises the rest of the album. Be prepared for some fine fiery ensemble playing and aggressive arrangements.

FLOODLAND-THE SISTERS OF MERCY (ELEKTRA)

Floodland is a scary collection of songs draped in black and high technology. A beautiful-sounding CD and LP, Floodland is the broken legend of Sisters Of Mercy revamped. There is much common ground between the new Sisters and the departing Mission. While Floodlands is a doomy concept engaging in massive room sound and darkness that's bigger than life, the Mission remain very much a band. Reduced to a duo, Sisters Of Mercy seem to enjoy their status as a studio unit. Is this Steely Dan in black lace? Trax: Try "Dominion," "Mother Russia," "This Corrosion" and "Flood I" for starters.

"THE KILLER MOON"-T-BONE BURNETT (COLUMBIA)

Yes, that's Jimmy Reed's guitar that T-Bone is holding. "The Killer Moon" is a Lennox tune (circa 1971 Plastic Ono) plucked from T-Bone's eccentric new album titled The Talking Animals. It is, by no means, a typical T-Bone track, as, to date, there's no such animal. But like a Plastic Ono creature, "The Killer Moon" is a threatening piece of simplicity rounding out an album that's a coat of many colors.

"DESOLATION ANGELS"-JOHN BRANNEN (APACHE)

Savannah's John Brannen conjures up his own voodoo ghosts. A storyteller and tunesmith, Brannen's LP--Mystery Street--was born out of a songwriting headjam session with producer/writer David Malloy. You'll find it makes even more sense in context to his new album and the songs that surround it. An intriguing debut we'll be watching closely. Another title copped from Kerouac.

"THE ROAD"-KINKS (MCA)

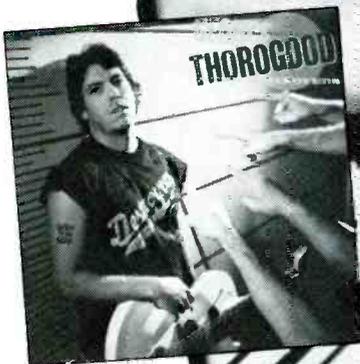

Ray Davies takes a long look in the mirror and here's what he saw. "The Road" closely intertwines the Davies brothers' voices recapping the gypsy life of rock n roll. It sure sounds like an unenviable life, but a rich one nonetheless.

"I feel great." the late great Pistol Pete Maravich

JUST THE FAX, PLEASE. Starting the New Year, you will be able to reach us via FAX with your reports, press releases, or rudimentary artwork. Phone number is 415-788-3517. Any FAX questions should be relayed to our Minister of Gavin Communication, Sheila Rene. Incidentally, here is the first Album correspondence we received. The "artist" is Bob Linder of WDHA. Correct me if I'm wrong, but it sure looks like a bottle of champagne. Bob, you missed your calling as an illustrator.

CHART TALK. As you've no doubt noticed, we've started anew in terms of chart numbers. The New Year is an excellent opportunity to wipe the slate clean when it comes to upward movement and underlines. However we did underline those artists we feel have upwardly mobile growth potential.

R.I.P. PETE MARAVICH. The news of Pete Maravich's death first came from Scott Murray of KVRE-Santa Rosa. "Didja hear Pete Maravich died? Hell, he was the reason

I wore my socks baggie at my ankles when I was a kid." WXRT's Norm Winer has now sworn off pick-up basketball games. Yet Pistol Pete was a model for us all. Prior to finding the three or four religions he was practicing, Maravich believed in UFOs. In fact, he believed so strongly that he once painted a target on his roof hoping the aliens would land and take him away. Pistol Pete, as we go about our everyday lives in music, we will miss your spirit and grand sense of theater. Yer pal, KZ.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO

pages of Mike Thomas-WMDK, Josh Rosenthal-WCDB and Dave Gottlieb-KFJC. The Godfathers are on target and appear top 10 bound with Mike Marrone-WHTG, Mike Summers-KRPN, and Brett Greene-KUNV all taking aim. Don't overlook Negativland, who produced one of 1987's most creative releases. This album is just getting going behind the support of Ron Phillips-WUSB ("the next big thing"), Doris Duwe-WTSR and Matt Potolsky-KDVS. Firehose is our Record To Watch with rapid airplay captured on WRSI, WOXY, KUSF, KXLU, WRVU, and many others expected in the coming weeks. Adam Langley-WBNY is excited over the Cashmere Jungle Lords and the cut "Mama La Bamba" ("an upbeat rhythmic song that'll make you smile"). Mark Miller-KABL is finding that two local bands, Playhouse and Circle of Eyes are making waves on his playlist. Ivar Hamilton-CFNY sez he's getting lots of requests for the Pet Shop Boys import cover version of Willie Nelson's "Always On My Mind."

Seminar update: Be sure to arrive early for the Alternative Format Conclave on Thursday Feb. 11 from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. at the Westin St. Francis in San Francisco. Latest confirmed radio attendees include Don Berns & Ivar Hamilton-CFNY, Michael Bright & Bruce McDonald-WRNX, Kandy Wilkens-WXCI, Mike Marrone-WHTG, Adam Langley-WBNY, Susan Kennedy-WWVU, Paige Bradsky-WUSC, Valarie Pittman-WRAS, Margaux Tenenbaum-WUOG, Mark Miller-KABL,

SPOTLIGHT LP

"Hungry Town"-BIG PIG (A&M-12")
Big Pig are proof that you don't have to be a syntho-pop band to make killer guitar-free alternative music. "Hungry Town" is curiously based around vocal harmonies, drums, keyboards and harmonica making an unlikely synthesis on paper but a gem in reality. Big Pig's founder and primary songwriter Oleh Witer conceptualized Big Pig's drum sound after seeing the Japanese Kodo drummers perform.

INSIDE COUNTRY

Happy New Year! 1988 is starting out with freezing temperatures in most parts of the nation, but our Gavin programmers are being fueled by a whole crop of great new product to spark up those new year playlists. This week's chart has some unusually high jumps due to the holiday break.

Rosanne Cash starts out the year at the top of the heap, and the Desert Rose Band are right on her heels with their strongest showing to date. Vicki Johnson at WAHC/FM-Appleton/Oshkosh tells us her phones were flooded over the holidays with requests for "One Step Forward."

Alabama leaps all the way from 16 to 3. Rusty Ford at WXYQ-Stevens Point, reports it as one of his most requested, and Scott Kearns at KTOQ-Rapid City, says this hot song is warming up his listeners who've been having to endure single-digit temperatures this past week. Another big mover was Merle Haggard (20-13) who continues to pull in big phones for J.C. Simon at KFMS-Las Vegas. Judy Rodman survived the holiday housecleaning crunch and is still making her way up the chart. Jim "Waiting for the Blizzard" Pruett at WAAX-Gadsden reports lots of positive reaction to Judy. George Jones remains one of the most talked about records on current playlists. Dale Eichor at KWMT-Ft.Dodge reports "The Bird" is making 7 degrees below zero temperatures bearable for his listeners, Randy Hill at KIDN-Pueblo says it remains his hottest request Greg Barrett at WFRB-Frostburg tells us it's really pulling in a lot of calls. Johnny Rodriguez' "I Didn't (Every Chance I Had)" is starting to get a lot of requests for Don Roberts at KFGO-Fargo. Tim Closson at WAXX /FM-Eau Claire says his listeners are high on the Roy Orbison/k.d.lang duet.

Ronnie McDowell's remake of Conway's "It's Only Make Believe" is our Record To Watch, and has added 24 more believers, including K92/FM, WSM /FM, WAMZ, WYGC, KRLC, KASE/FM, WMC, KLIK, etc. Johnny Randolph at KTDO -Toledo, OR, reports immediate requests on the new Mary Chapin Carpenter. Larry DeFrance at KXRA /AM-Alexandria, MN, is playing Mason Dixon's "Baby's Song" and says "This '50s doo-wop sounds like it will go all the way." Rob

Carpenter at WZYQ-Frederick, MD says initial reaction to the McCarters points to this one becoming a blockbuster.

Mark Richards at WBTU-Ft.Wayne, IN, reports they've just moved into new studios. Their new address is 2100 Goshen Rd., Suite 232, Ft.Wayne, IN 46808 and the phone number is 219-482-9288.

Talk to you next week. The Gavin Country Crew

REVIEWS

WAYLON JENNINGS - "If Ole Hank Could Only See Us Now" (MCA) This song is from the "Nashville" chapter of Waylon's Audiobiography LP. He says that he wrote this to check on Nashville's sense of humor - to see if they still have one. Be sure to check out the last line of the song. Waylon had it dedicated to Jimmy Bowen and his digital machines.

RODNEY CROWELL/ROSANNE CASH - "It's Such A Small World" (Columbia) Lovebirds Rodney and Rosie team up and trade verses on this heart-warming Country duet.
EDDIE RABBITT - "I Wanna Dance With You" (RCA) Eddie's back with his dancing shoes on.

THE JUDDS - "Turn It Loose" (RCA/Curb) Programmers have been waiting for a long time for this song to be released as a single. The Judd-ladies are at their Judd-best with this number.

SHOOTING FROM THE LIP

*A slick morning man named Goshen
Took his listeners for a cruise on the ocean.
They took their diaries on board.
His cumes and quarter-hours soared.
The trip caused complete Goshen devotion.*

What makes a good morning show? While many things contribute to making mornings work, a couple of factors seem to be part of all successful morning shows. You have to put the people and puns and prizes in place. You have to provide service information like traffic, weather, frequent time checks and news. But a great morning show usually has more than that. It has a "morning feeling." People have special needs in the morning, and a morning personality who consistently serves those needs is the Pied Piper who soon has everyone whistling his tune.

The entertainment combination that seems to work best in the morning is relevant to the music or to a basic denominator connected to local interests. A key ingredient, and one that's hard to find, is humor. People want to laugh, or at least chuckle in the morning. It's hard enough to get up and get started—anything that lightens the load is welcome.

But how is this best achieved? Is there a formula to follow? Obviously, there has to be some real show prep, and even the morning team has to work within the format structure. But it should sound completely spontaneous. That's where the "actor factor" comes in. It takes real thespian skill to make some of the planned pieces work. That's the difference between a great morning show and one that just limps along.

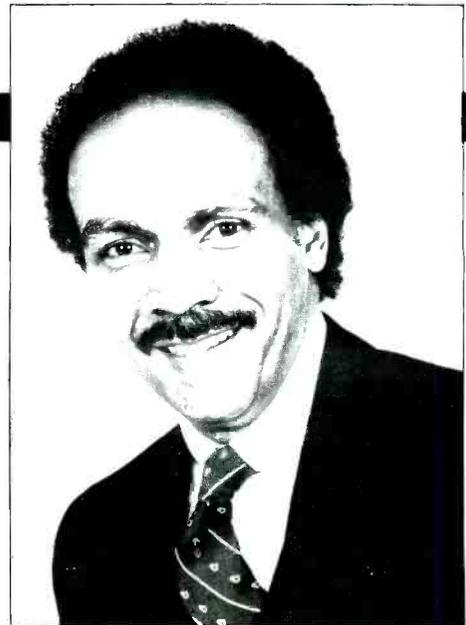

Many morning teams use trivia games and music history bits to help capture cumes. While they have a definite place in any morning show, there is a danger in using them without localization. First of all, if the presentation is not strong, they can be boring, turning what seems like a strong regular feature into a tune-out. Often, too, they miss the demographic. Your GM may tell you the target demo is 25-54, but realistically, you've got to pick up everyone available who likes urban music from 12+. If you're planning a trivia bit around something that happened before most of your core audience was born, or in another metro, you need to localize it to make it of interest to them.

The idea is to keep the information, and therefore the show, fresh and interesting. A lot of morning talents tend to take this time slot for granted. They assume it's like any other shift. They play the hits, run the contests and hope for healthy cumes. To this latter group: You can't just keep "shooting from the lip." Even the most brilliant among us will run short of material. You've probably heard morning air personalities who come to town all fired up, and literally burn out in a few months. What often happens is that the run through their "A" material, and their "B" material is so weak that the audience that has come to expect so much feels cheated. So they leave, looking for morning fulfillment on another frequency.

Show prep is an absolute necessity. Even the naturally funny, truly gifted morning people fare better when they're totally prepared. Sure, they still have time to shoot some lines off the tops of their heads, particularly in interchanges with other staffers and callers. But it's just not good enough to try to come up with a bit with the traffic woman, who's often unprepared and has no idea where the bit is going. The game is much better when everyone knows what's expected. I remember a well-known Bay Area morning man who used to brief his traffic person when he planned to do a bit, and it worked well—so well, in fact, that it made traffic mean more even to the people who were not really affected by it. The traffic report became a feature because of the way it was delivered. They referred to the Highway Patrol with hip phrases like "The Man" or "Radar Rambos," and kept the traffic personal and topical: "For those headed to the Stevie Wonder concert, better take BART." This worked so well that the traffic got its own sponsor, and both got a small raise.

If you're working the drive slot, you are a part of the mass media which greatly affects what is of interest to your listeners. And often you can develop that interest—if you plan it well. You can talk about local sports events, if you're really up on them. You can talk about the top ten movies and hot television shows like Bill Cosby's. One of Tom Joyner's strengths is that he relates so well to what most of his audience is into. That's what's made him perhaps the best, most influential urban morning man in America, and a Gavin Award winner.

People have special needs in the morning, and a morning personality who consistently serves those needs is the Pied Piper who soon has everyone whistling his tune.

Finally, yes, music is important in the mornings—but not with the priority it has in other dayparts. Even though listeners still want to hear those hits, most wake up with curious minds. They want to know what's happened since they went to bed, so a great show must have a strong information base.

Given enough time, a skilled morning communicator with a flair for humor can take over a town. Most who have are great phone jocks. Sometimes all you need is some show prep, some hit songs and a phone. A great morning jock works to set up entertaining verbal exchanges with the listeners. With the other programming elements in place, a great morning show can blowoff the competition. A good morning air talent is kind of like a chiropractor. That's a doctor who keeps a cold in your head from going into the chest...by tying a knot in your neck. ●

INSIDE URBAN RADIO

No doubt some of you may be alarmed about the major moves on this week's charts - especially the downward movers. For a tune to go from number one to number 18 is unusual, unless you note the fact that in a two or three-week time span, it would probably have gone from one to five to twelve to eighteen, for example. Same holds true for upward moving hits, but we expect those. Remember that the 30-year Gavin technique--the reason we base our charts and information on airplay rather than waiting for sales--is to provide our radio stations with up-to-the-minute projections. Our style is to forecast and project what these gains will be with some insight into next week, rather than bore you with how the records did last week. When the hits are over, the speed speed with which they descend the charts only strengthens the gaining momentum of the next hits - and that's when you want to give your listeners - future hitmakers - not yesterday's news. Last issue's Record To Watch, WALTER BEASLEY, looks like a sure shot (long time since we've used that term) for WBMX/FM-Chicago, where Daisy Davis reports many adult phones already. Also added at WOWI-Norfolk, WFKX-Jackson, KATZ/FM-St.Louis and WGCI-Chicago. Eight new releases debuted on this week's chart, so we may as well jump in with both feet and breeze through the best of the new product getting a lot of early attention. GERRY WOO is the record that Ty Bell, WYLD/FM-New Orleans, says is worth watching. Earl Boston, WFXM-Macon, reports major calls from adults for the TEMPTATIONS. Mike Christian, K-97-Memphis, says the 12-18 listeners want to hear CHICO DEBARGE. Crosstown, KRNB's Melvin Jones reports WORLD CLASS WRECKIN CRU "is still the hottest thing here on the phones." Steve Crumbley, WOWI-Norfolk, called in raving about the CRU, too. On his "Star Wars" competition, it won the first night, and then continued to win for ten nights in a row, beating all challengers! Steve says the ANGELA WINBUSH is starting to explode, and Shirley Williams, WKXG-Greenwood, and Rick Stevens, WCKX-Columbus, are getting calls. Ciao for now, Betty.

REVIEWS

By Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

STACY LATTISAW - Every Drop Of Your Love (Motown) Stacy's smooth delivery of a ballad is a nice change of pace. We enjoyed her cool tones on this ballad and when she hits those high notes, she hits them like the best of them do!

JONATHAN BUTLER - Take Good Care Of Me (Jive/RCA) Jonathan sings a ballad from the heart. This is the third single from his self-titled double album. With the track record he's established with the past two singles, ya can't miss with this one.

Rebbie JACKSON

REBBIE JACKSON - Playthings (Columbia) Rebbie is such a charmer, both in person and in her performances, that when you hear her asking you not to "call me up unless you're serious," the tendency would be to call her up! The rhythm is a moving one, and we're betting the video cooks!

THE JETS - Rocket 2 U (MCA) Keeping with the "I Do You," momentum, "Rocket" takes off the instant the needle hits the vinyl, and goes for the jugular! First listen knocked the socks off just about everyone who wandered into these hallowed halls, except the next door office neighbors, who complained complained every time the volume was cranked up!

ALEXANDER O'NEAL featuring CHERRELLE - Never Knew Love Like This (Tabu) This dynamic duo have not been heard as a team since "Saturday Love" (#26 on Gavin's 1986's Top 100's Chart.) We realize that some of the stations jumped on this early as an LP cut. Don't fret, there's still a lot of life in this song.

DAVE SHOLIN'S PERSONAL PICKS — SINGLES

GEORGE MICHAEL - Father Figure (Columbia) I found myself listening to one song over and over during the holiday break, and this was it. It's no surprise that it's also the week's most added record. His talents as singer, songwriter and producer are truly exceptional.

THE JETS - Rocket 2 U (MCA) 1988's answer to "Rock Steady." Tracking this family group's musical growth, it's easy to hear them get stronger on each release. POWERFUL!

SCARLETT & BLACK - You Don't Know (Virgin) A duo made up of Robin Hild (who wrote this wonderful tune) and Sue West, who formerly sang backup for Dr. & The Medics. Some of you no doubt heard me rave about this song months ago. It's finally here and one of the best of the batch of new year goodies.

MICHAEL BOLTON - (Sittin' On) The Dock Of The Bay (Columbia) Covering an Otis Redding song is something few artists will attempt. As stated on the picture sleeve, Velma Redding, Otis's widow, claims this is her all-time favorite version of her husband's classic. Michael and producer Jonathan Cain deserve to be very proud of this stunning effort.

STING - Be Still My Beating Heart (A&M) His winning formula is tough to beat. Never at a loss for clever lyrics, Sting just makes it seem so effortless.

RICHARD MARX - Endless Summer Nights (EMI-Manhattan) Two top five hits attest to his ability as a writer and performer. This change of pace from those songs utilizes some slick instrumentation to set the perfect mood.

ELISA FIORILLO - How Can I Forget You (Chrysalis) Jellybean's "find" steps out on her own with a hot pop/dance entry. A dazzling debut for this young singer who I think we'll be hearing a lot from in months to come.

JONATHAN BUTLER - Take Good Care Of Me (Jive/RCA) In a relatively short time Jonathan Butler's caught the attention of a lotta folks. This heartfelt ballad is delivered with an extra dose of emotion.

CROSSOVER PICK

KEITH SWEAT - I Want Her (Elektra) Besides taking a mere 11-3 jump on the URBAN CONTEMPORARY chart, he is added by Steve Kingston at Z100 New York along with Steve Rivers and Jack Silver at KIIS Los Angeles. Looks (and sounds) like it's gonna be big.

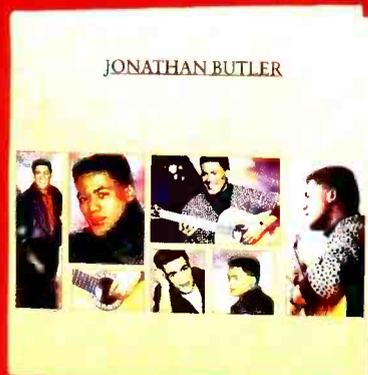

RON FELL'S PERSONAL PICKS — ALBUMS

RICK ASTLEY - Whenever You Need Somebody (RCA)

Unashamedly pop, young Rick sings to the production of Stock, Aitken and Waterman (the three hottest producers in England at the moment). His debut single, NEVER GONNA GIVE YOU UP, has already topped the European charts, and it's chartbound here. Other songs of particularly pop appeal are IT WOULD TAKE A STRONG, STRONG MAN, WHENEVER YOU NEED SOMEBODY and TOGETHER FOREVER. Astley's music is an interesting mixture of light, bright and tight arrangements supporting an obviously healthy voice with even more potential than has yet been realized on this introductory set of vinyl.

JONATHAN BUTLER

A SINGULAR TALENT.
A DOUBLE ALBUM.
A TRIPLE FORMAT BREAKTHROUGH.

He first gained prominence as a jazz artist. Now singer/songwriter/ guitarist Jonathan Butler is being accepted at R&B, CHR and AC, all at the same time, with both his music and his videos receiving wide acclaim. He's toured extensively with Whitney Houston, and made friends everywhere. Press, radio, television—everyone believes in him, but no one more than us.

From as early as the demo stage, we felt that this single would be his multi-format breakthrough.

Now watch as he proves us right.
