POLLACK CHAIRMAN/CEO HADGES NAMED PMG PRESIDENT

The Pollack Media Group has re-shuffled their executive structure, with company founder Jeff Pollack assuming the position of Chairman/CEO. Former Senior Programming Advisor Tommy Hadges will be the company's President.

Hadges has been with Pollack four years, and in that time has helped it grow into one of the largest consultancies in the world. The group works with over 90 radio stations in eight countries, and with several syndicators. It is the parent company to Country consultancy Pollack Media Nashville.

Aside from his years at Pollack, Hadges is known as a radio leader from his days with legendary progressive rocker WBCN in Boston, Album Rock station WCOZ, also in Boston, and immediately before he came to work with Pollack was Program Director of KLOS in Los Angeles.

TAYLOR-WGCI PART COMPANY

Former WGCI-Chicago PD Sonny Taylor exited the station last Friday, February 24.

"It's a mystery to me," said Taylor of the station's opting not to renew his contract. "I was not concerned with our new competitor (WAVZ) because I felt that they would carve their own niche. We were so strong I knew that our core audience would remain intact."

WGCI GM Marv Dyson would only say that Taylor "was let go Friday, primarily due to declining ratings."

Taylor has no immediate plans. "All I want to do is program," he said. Barbara Prieto is interim PD at WGCI.

APPOINTMENTS AT MCA

MCA Senior Vice President of Promotion Steve Meyer has announced the following appointments:

John Hey joins the company as Senior Vice President of Promotion. He comes to the label from EMI where he was National

A HIGH GOODBYE

Jim Gillie, recently out at KKFR-Phoenix, is looking at his departure from an optimistic standpoint. "Basically, there's not a lot I can discuss at this time," he said. "But I'm glad to say that the station's trend just went up .7, so it's good to have left on an upward note."

Meanwhile, back at the station, Ron Haney has taken over as PD. "This is going to sound like your everyday quote," he said, "but I'm excited because of the market. It's going to be a fun, exciting battle." KKFR has also hired Mr. Don Kelly to consult the station.

Gillie is available and taking calls. He can be reached at 602-443-1884.

GLASS TO SBK

All signs point to Daniel Glass leaving his post as Chrysalis VP, Promotion to join SBK Entertainment in a high-level capacity. Chrysalis executives did not comment, but SBK chief Charles Koppelman did say "Danny is still an employee at Chrysalis, but you'll know he's working for us when you see him with a tan!"

Album Promotion Director, and was instrumental in the album radio success of artists Richard Marx, David Bowie and the J. Geils Band.

Executive VP/GM Richard Palmese sees Hey's arrival at MCA as a "tangible demonstration of our commitment to Album Radio and to rock and roll...John will be invaluable in introducing and developing those artists at rock radio."

Randy Hock has been promoted to the position Vice President of Promotion, East Coast. Hock's most recent success was helping establish Steve Earle as a force in Album Radio. He will remain based out of the company's New York office.

KNX-FM BECOMES OLDIES 93, KODJ

The speculation about KNX/FM-Los Angeles dropping its calls and becoming KODJ will be a reality by the end of this week (3/4).

As we go to press the transition is beginning, with interim air personalities identifying themselves by futuristic codes that include morning personality 46S, mid day personality K9 and evening personality B9. But by the time you read this the station will be back in time and programming oldies.

Although unconfirmed, personalities joining the station will be Dean Goss from KRTH and Mark Rivers from B104. Afternoon personality Rich Field has re-signed with the station, and has secured a multi-year contract.

"I can't give you specifics until next week," said Program Director Kurt Kelly, "but I will say that when we looked at the big picture we felt that this is a sound business decision. This is the right move for the market, considering how it's going to be sizing up. CBS is committed to win." "When all is said and done," he concluded, "there will be one oldies station in Los Angeles."

The Gavin Family extends our sincere condolences to the family and friends of KICW-Wickenburg, AZ's Willard Lochridge who lost his son in a gun-related accident. Donations can be sent to Save The Children in Westport, CT.

IT'S A SMALL WORLD AFTER ALL AUF WIEDE SEHEN SCOTT LOCKWOOD

KFI/KOST Production Director Scott Lockwood has left the station to become a programming consultant for Neue Welle, GmbH, Neurnberg, West Germany. It marks the first time an American broadcaster will be employed in such a capacity in West Germany.

Neue Welle runs several private stations under the name Charivari. Neurnberg is the company's flagship, with sister outlets in Munich, Regensburg and Wuerzburg. The stations are all Adult Contemporary, and Lockwood plans to create a well-defined format and sound for CHOOSE IT OR LOSE IT!

KWSS-San Jose, CA is following the lead of their sister KZZP-Phoenix and has begun stirring up the South Bay with a "Choose It Or Lose It!" policy.

Listeners are urged to call in 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to give records a pass or fail rating. When a particular record gets a disapproval rate of 75%, KWSS' morning team Kelly & Kline "get rid of" the record. The Beach Boys' "Kokomo" had the dubious distinction of being blown up on Monday morning (2/27).

"Listeners can vote on any record we play," said Acting PD Barry Beck. "But just because we blow a record up doesn't mean we'll never play the song again. If the listeners call with overwhelming requests to reinstate a title, we'll test it again."

Beck says that so far "Choose It or Lose It" is a smash. "One shift had over 1,000 calls. We're averaging 7-8,000 calls a day. They had 70,000 calls in one week at KZZP!"

The special Choose It... phone lines are handled by operators who keep track of each and every yea or nay to each and every song. "We're not using our FAX," said Beck, "but, believe it or not, people have FAXed me things, and I didn't even give out the phone number. People are calling the regular request lines to vote, because they can't get through on the Choose it... lines."

Got a song you can't stand to hear?...

the stations. He will hold the title of Program Director at Charivari/Neurnberg.

Lockwood sees Europe becoming a world leader in format radio, and believes that West Germany will begin the trend. "They are poised to win and hungry for success. Private radio...is a global business now..." Gerd Penninger of Neue Welle sees the hiring of an American a key ingredient to the success of German radio. "We felt hiring an American familiar with A/C was possible, but not probable...I'm confident that he'll (Lockwood) help us build great stations blending classic American techniques with traditional German customs."

POST SEMINAR HIGHLIGHTS: EAST MEETS AND BEATS WEST. Alternative radio and record folks smile for the camera after the First Annual East vs West Softball Game sponsored by the Gavin Report, A&M Records and Gavin College Station of the Year, KUSF.

BAT 'ER UP! Not sure whether they should be batting or fielding are (l-r) WICB's Josh Rosenthal, Profile's Chris LaSalle and CMJ's Dave Margulies.

Geffen General Manager Al Coury (l) and A&R Visionary Tom Zoutat tell about the success of the label's metal phenomenon Guns N' Roses. ▲

Axl Rose of Guns N' Roses discusses his band's rise to the top. ►

JONZ APPOINTED

Chris Jonz has been appointed National Promotion Director/Jazz & Progressive Music for Warner Bros. Records. Jonz comes to Warner Bros. from the Christopher Company, which he headed and had as clients Island, Columbia, Arista, Profile and Motown Records as well as artists and a trade publication. His impressive resume also includes a stint working as business advisor to Stevie Wonder.

VP/Jazz & Progressive Music Harold Childs said "Chris... will be an invaluable addition to our entire jazz and progressive music effort here at Warner Bros. Records."

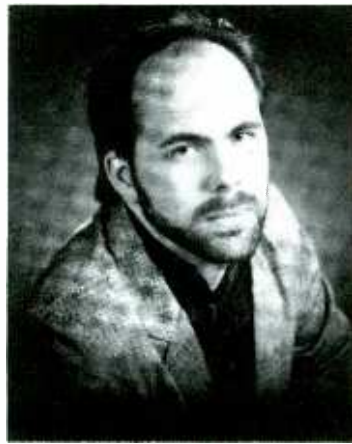

THE CHANGING FACE OF CHAMELEON

Chameleon Music Group President and newly-appointed Chief Operating Officer Stephen Powers has joined with producer Chuck Plotkin and Dan Pritzker to buy the company from Richard Foos and Bob Marin. Plotkin will be the company's A&R Consultant and non-exclusive Staff Producer. Also involved in the acquisition will be L.A. entertainment attorney Owen Sloane, who will sit on the Board of Directors.

The Capitol Records-distributed CMG enjoyed a considerable growth spurt in the past 18 months. Thirty-Five new albums and 70 reissued titles were released from a catalogue of distributed labels that include Vee-Jay, Sierra and Mountain Railroad. Powers has been President of the label since September of 1987 and has launched his own pop label, Dali Records, which

RICHARDS MOVES TO DENVER

Former KMGX-Fresno, CA Program Director Ken Richards has landed in Colorado Springs as PD at KIKX. VP/GM Barbara Beddors said that Ken is "the type of leader that's able to combine the collective efforts of the entire staff to form a powerful force that's unstoppable."

For his part, Ken expressed admiration for his new VP/GM by saying "...Barbara is another reason why this opportunity is a programmer's ideal situation."

In addition to KMGX, Richards programmed Q106 in Killeen/Temple, TX.

is marketed by CMG. Plotkin is well known for co-producing all of Bruce Springsteen's albums, and has worked with Bob Dylan and Bette Midler.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Image—it's an important factor in electing politicians and creating or disintegrating the careers of entertainers. The subject of an artists' image and how it affects a PD's decision-making process when adding new music was another issue covered during the Top 40 discussion at our recent seminar. Distinguishing between audience research, the programmers own perception of a performer's appeal, and each individual release is a necessity. Though sometimes difficult, a selection should be first judged on its merits as a song which, initially, is all listeners have to go by. Currently, the most glaring example is an import that's finding its way onto some key stations—and its by DONNY OSMOND! KZZP's Michelle Santoso was the first to call and tell me about the tremendous reaction it's receiving. It went on the station's "Make It Or Break It" and pulled 57 "Make It's" against 1 "Break It." It's been number one in requests since then. The chain of events for Donny's first record in over ten years started when Jessica Ettinger, MD at WPLJ New York, got an unlabeled cassette from a woman in New Jersey who, according to Jessica, is a "psycho fan of Donny Osmond." That was in October of last year and two months later the same fan sent another letter with a CD single she got from a friend in England. It eventually went on the station with no artist identification and the station announced that the "mystery artist will reveal himself," in the meantime, the song was on the top five request list every night. After Donny went on-the-air and took credit as the artist, calls kept pouring in with listeners asking where they could buy a copy. So far no word on a label deal in the States, but besides KZZP adding it, it charts #27 at WNCI Columbus where it was number one on the phones when they started playing it two weeks ago. Also added at KWSS San Jose and on KHSS Walla Walla. At X100 San Francisco Gene Baxter says it won his nightly challenge three nights in a row as a "mystery artist" and since he's begun to identify it as Donny he's received nothing but positive calls. I've just heard "Soldier Of Love" and it sounds HOT!!

ROXETTE hits the top ten after debuting on the chart a mere three weeks ago! Rapid growth makes this the first record to become the HOT entry for three consecutive weeks.

Plenty of hot moves on FINE YOUNG CANNIBALS who go to number one at KNIN Wichita Falls with their HIT FACTOR doubling from 14% to 28%. Gail Henning at WDEK DeKalb, IL says "sales are really kicking in" and moves it 27-17. Also doing great at WPFM Panama City 15-10 ("big phone record"), KKMGM Pueblo/Colorado Springs 13-5, WCIL Carbondale debut #19, etc.

A six-point gain, 22-16, sends MILLI VANILLI flying into the top twenty at B94 Pittsburgh. Also picking up speed at Z100 17-11, WBEC/FM 24-10, WLNC 22-17, EAGLE 106 18-14, BAM99 27-18, KWYR 23-

14, Z103 25-17, WKSM 21-13, Y100 14-10, 93Q 15-9, POWER 104 16-8, KUBE 20-8, X102 26-20 plus number ones at KMEL, B95, K100, KMGX, KYNO, KXFM, KHSN and KSTN.

A few months ago, it took KARYN WHITE's debut solo effort to get off the ground but her follow-up, "Superwoman," is happening fast! HIT FACTOR increases 14% to 23% with top ten numbers already at WHYT, Y100, FM102, WOVV, Z100, 102QQ, WIOQ, etc. New on WMJQ, CKOI, KYYY, WKLQ, WFMI, WAZI, WJKC, Y94 and POWER 105.

A top thirty debut for DINO at WAVA, 92X and Y108. Strong gains at KZZP 28-21, WTIC/FM 26-19, WAIL 27-17, WJLK/K94 21-16, HOT97 25-21, WCIL 27-23, KCIL 25-20, POWER 106 21-16, etc. Top Ten for Z100 Portland 10-8, KXFM 7-5, FM102 7-5, KROY 7-6, KWSS 9-7, KMGX 10-7, KKQV 5-4, KQID 11-9 and KMEL 3-2, where PD Keith Naftaly says, "It's a SMASH!"

JOHNNY KEMP moves into a CHARTBOUND position with another 31 adds including KDON, BAM99, KDWZ, KBQ, WIBW, KBBZ and WCGQ. Dom Testa debuts it #23 at Y108 Denver and Kevin Chase at KMOK Lewiston says it's "top five on the phones after two weeks with a very strong sales picture already" and debuts it at #29.

Nothing cold about the sizzling hot start for the new TONE LOC. At WHYT Detroit MD Mark Jackson reports it's number one requests after one week of play and calls are "not strictly teens;" they debut it at #23. Also blowing out the phones at WQIO 38-24, WZWZ debut #39, KMGX 28-18, B97 debut #28, KWSS 31-23, WFMF debut #21, etc.

In the continuing saga of TOMMY PAGE, more programmers come to the party each week. Rich Anhorn, MD at KWSS San Jose, remembers testing it back on Thanksgiving and now debuts it at #30 predicting "it'll be top ten." New on POWER 104 Houston, Y106 Orlando and WTBX Duluth. Number one again at KCPX and Y95. John Raymond jumps it 27-16 at KIXY San Angelo.

K100 Chico was one of the first stations on "Straight Up" and they've already got PAULA ABDUL's latest charted top twenty going 13-12. Also top thirty at KMEL, B97, HOT 97.7 and KZZP. Adds include POWER99, KC101, WHHY, WQUT, WBBQ, Q105, WNVZ, WTIC/FM, CKXY, POWER 106, 93Q, KITY, KCPW, KZOU, KLYV, KROY and KS104.

They had people going wild at the Gavin Seminar a few weeks ago and now LOVE & MONEY are on the move in several regions. Jay McCall gives them a huge 10-point jump at KOZE 16-6. Moves into the top twenty at KXXR Kansas City 21-17 and SLY/96 San Luis Obispo 21-16. New on WBBQ, K106, KZEV, WIFC, WLHQ, etc.

It looks like explosion time for THE BELLE STARS who scored big with new airplay at KCPW Kansas City, Z104 Madison, Y100 Miami, KSND Eugene, KZZP Phoenix, Q105 Tampa, WSPK Poughkeepsie, WHYT Detroit, POWER99 Atlanta, WTIC/FM Hartford and Z100 Portland. Debuts top thirty at KOY #30, KUBE #29 and Z100 #23! Gary Cummings at KZFN Moscow, ID moves it 33-25 and says it's #7 on the phones with "across-the-board demos."

Also on the film front, BETTE MIDLER is generating a lot of interest with her new song from the soundtrack of the movie "Beaches." Top twenty for Jim Cook at WJET Erie 22-18 along with 94Q and POWER99 Atlanta who list it #18 and #15 respectively. Added at K104, WHSB, WCGQ, KSND, Q96, KGWY, KFFM, KGOT, KEWB, WLBC, WHDQ and KHHT.

Steve Ocean at Y106 Orlando moves KAREL FIALKA 23-18 and comments that sales are beginning to reflect the tremendous request activity he's been getting. He reports it at number six on the phones overall and it's the most requested 25+ song he's got. In the Midwest, Jim Roads MD at K96 Richmond, IN says his top request item is the re-release of GREGG ALLMAN and TERRI RICE's "In You (I Found Me)" on Vision Records.

a real human being, whether they can see them or not, they are on the wrong track. 4) Learning how to edit yourself. Probably the biggest mistake even experienced "personalities" make is "running off at the mouth." Some stations, over the years, have attempted to control this problem by setting time limits on breaks—even having a time shutoff on the mike circuit! This is nonsense. How long is too long? A solid hour might not be too long if everything said is relevant and compelling. Fifteen seconds is too long for something dumb, boring and unnecessary.

Here are two rules which, if followed, eliminate this problem:

First: Know what the point is of anything you say on the air. Second: Get to the point as directly as possible. Anything else is a waste of the listener's time. (A top personality should never have a problem ending a comment or "bit" cleanly; when you hear someone on the air searching for a way to "get out" of what they were saying, you are hearing someone who didn't know the point of the remark when they started talking.)

These comments have been directed to air people. Now, a comment for Program Directors: It used to be you couldn't consider hiring a beginner till they'd seasoned themselves with some previous experience. Nowadays, I often find that the "seasoned professionals" are the ones who have the colorless content and the artificial delivery, from the "read the cards and play the records" years since the last great personality era. Conversely, I tend to find it's the beginners who have the potential nowadays, because unlike the old days, they don't enter the profession in awe of the personalities they grew up listening to, and take for granted the presentation of themselves as mere human beings on the air—and nothing superior!!

So, to the programmers looking for fresh new talent, I suggest not overlooking today's broadcast students particularly students from the few really superior broadcast programs and professional schools around the country. If you hire one, you'll get a dedicated and motivated employee in the bargain!●

BORED

READ THIS STUFF!!

We can't believe that it's March—MARCH! Didn't we just finish our Christmas and Hanukkah shopping for Dave Sholin? Can the NBA playoffs be just around the corner? Is it just about time for Tommy Lasorda again? Is time going faster than it used to, or is it just that there's no change of seasons here in Hollywood? Can the Grammys be over already? Are the weekends coming up faster than they used to? What's going on? It can't possibly be because we're getting older—hell, it was just the other day that we graduated from high school with Tiffany. It must be the ozone layer, the greenhouse effect, or the tightening of playlists. All we know is that the years are passing faster than the months used to, and there's a lot we haven't accomplished.

Maybe this particular time of year makes us antsy. Consider this: it's the worst possible time of year for sports nuts. Football long gone. The Super Bowl's a boring memory and the oafs who play the "sport" aren't even thinking about next year; hockey and the NBA are in the dog days. No one cares about these draggy weeks of the regular season, and the playoffs are still eons away; baseball hasn't reared its tobacco-spitting head, and it'll be awhile before the obnoxious cry, "Let's Go Mets" comes grating through the tube.

The Grammys are over, and with them the careers of many of the winners. Hell, even the American Music Awards—whatever they are—is history.

It's too cold for barbecues, too rainy for picnics, and once you've seen the "The Naked Gun" there's nothing at the movies except the usual ten or twelve Danny DeVito buddy flicks.

TV stinks more than ever, but with the February sweeps a distant memory, we're not even getting the more provocative offerings from that DYING medium.

Mike and Robin and Sean and Madonna stories are boring, as is Dan Quayle material, which tends to make Carson and Leno monologues sound like stuff we heard in 1968. With Mr. Thousand Points of Light settled in the White House there's absolutely nothing juicy on the political scene. Why, we actually miss not having that ditsy little Dukakis to kick around anymore.

Even memories of the Gavin Seminar seem fuzzy, and the war stories emanating from the lobby are getting tired and old.

So, there's nothing to do, see, talk about or think about. This has forced us into coming up with something to relieve the doldrums. We've taken to watching golf tournaments on TV and that should give you an idea of what desperation can do. We've learned that golf is actually included in the sports section! This substitute for Sominex has about as much to do with sports as watching Boy George apply makeup. A bunch of blond post-graduates in plaid pants and little shirts with alligators sewn on over the breast pocket stroll around a well-manicured lawn demanding silence so they can hit a miniature ball into a miniature well. Who cares? According to ratings we've seen, absolutely no one. So, why do they clog the airwaves with it? Clearly it's because some fat old network CEO's play the game—and we use that word advisedly.

After viewing its practitioners in "action", we've decided that bowling may not be so repulsive after all. Check that—bowling is still repulsive. We lost our head for a moment. Bowling, which is tied with golf as one of life's dumbest inventions, is also to be found in sports sections. This is astonishing to us and will be to you if you ever see it. It defies description is all we can say, AND it requires special shoes. So does figure skating, but figure skating requires highly skilled athletes while bowling requires no one more talented than my mother who's 83 and boils chicken. But here's one for you: bowling DOES get good ratings. You can look it up. We can't figure out who's watching other than people with tattoos of snakes on their behinds and, as they say, those are the girls!

We quickly swore off golf and bowling as dog-day activities, and began wracking our brain for alternative actions. Listening to long-ignored LPs in our extensive collection seemed like a good idea, so we brought out all of our Gary Lewis & The Playboys material and discovered anew just how great "This Diamond Ring" and "Everybody Loves A Clown" really are. It's incomprehensible that Gary's not available on CD.

We're seriously thinking of starting a new video channel to feature people like Gary, P.J. Proby, The Fireballs and James and Bobby Purify. No kidding—there's an audience for this stuff, and someone's bound to cash in on it, so why not us? Think of all those people who make pilgrimages to Graceland. Think of all those people who watch "Murder She Wrote"! How about the people who pay money to go to Vegas to see Engelbert Humperdink or the sixth incarnation of the Fifth Dimension. It's an untapped audience, and the Gary Lewis' of the world are chomping at the bit for some serious career revival. ●

by Sheila Rene

Awards, Awards: The 12th Bay Area Music Awards were held last weekend and Huey Lewis & The News walked away with three Bammy trophies: Outstanding Group, Outstanding Bassist (Mario Cipollina) and Outstanding Keyboardist/Synthesist (Sean Hopper). Other big winners were: Bobby McFerrin, Outstanding Jazz Album (Simple Pleasures); Carlos Santana, Bay Area Musician of the Year (a write-in category); Chris Isaak & Silvertone, Best Club Band; Joe Satriani, Outstanding Guitarist; Sammy Hagar, Outstanding Male Vocalist. Album kudos went to Metallica whose ...And Justice For All won for Outstanding Debut Album, and Beatnik Beatch grabbed a statue for Outstanding Debut Album. The night was full of great entertainment. Linda Ronstadt gave an extra special performance, and Bay Area musical combinations featured John Lee Hooker and Carlos Santana, Sammy Hagar and Eric Martin, Joe Satriani and the debut of The View, a band that includes members of Journey, the Who and the Tubes...

So you want to be a rock n' roll star? Here's a fun way to put all that energy to good use. Local San Francisco club owner Gilbert Klein has formed a week-long Rock 'n Roll Fantasy Camp designed to give non-professionals the opportunity to polish their musical skills. The camp will be staffed with industry professionals, including celebrity rock star counselors and producers. Participation is limited to 25 musicians (selected on the merit of their demo tape) who will divide into five bands, record in a studio and perform live on stage at the legendary Fillmore—all in one week's time! The $3500 fee comes with a room at The Phoenix Inn, "the" placeto stay when you're touring the Bay Area. The first camp will be held August 20-27 in San Francisco. For more info call (415) 824-4100. Demo tapes should be sent to P.O. Box 460159, San Francisco 94146.

More Elvis: RCA Records has released Stereo '57 (Essential Elvis Vol. 2). Until now, the earliest stereo recording by Elvis was "Stuck On You" but some session tapes were located that date back to 1957. The masters were discovered in the possession of Jerry Lee Lewis' producer Bones Howe. Howe was an engineer in the late '50s and worked on all of Elvis' sessions with producer Thorn Nogar.

Road Warriors: Metal Church has released their third Elektra LP Blessing In Disguise and plan to begin the 1989 touring season in their hometown Seattle. The new lineup features vocalist Mike Howe (formerly of LA's Heretic), guitarist John Marshall, a former Metallica guitar tech, ►

Duke Erickson on bass, Craig Wells on guitar and Kirk Arrington on drums. For starters check out "Fake Healer"... Columbia Record rockers Warrant are moving into Ohio this week, opening for Paul Stanley. The band just completed the filming of a public service announcement for the Motorcycle Safety Foundation, in which they perform their song, "Big Talk."... The Go-Betweens are all set to begin their nine week North American tour in Vancouver, BC, on March 9th in support of their current Capitol/Beggars Banquet LP 16 Lovers Lane.

Video Update: Lita Ford and Ozzy Osbourne finished the video for their duet "Close Your Eyes Forever." Virgin's Gary Moore has shot a video of "Ready For Love" in England with director David Mallet. His March 8th Wembley Arena show in London is sold out... The Roxx Gang will release their next video to MTV this month. "No Easy Way Out" is from their Virgin debut Things You've Never Done Before. The video was produced by Lisa Hollinshead and directed by Nigel Dick, who has also worked magic with Guns N' Roses, Britny Fox and Bullet Boys... Minneapolis-based heavy metal band Slave Raider was shooting their video for "Youngblood" in New York recently when their equipment jeep was stolen. Two chainsaws, which lead singer Chainsaw Caine uses on stage, were in the vehicle. The incident was reported to the police and the jeep and chainsaws were recovered later that same evening. Look for the video—directed by Scott Kalvert and produced by Amy Raskin—on MTV any day now...

The Ramones have returned from a week's worth of concerts in Spain and Dee Dee King, otherwise known as Dee Dee Ramone is getting ready for his solo release March 14 on Sire/Warner Bros. The bassist is releasing Standing In The Spotlight, an LP of "rap 'n roll" songs. The first single will be "German Kid," a story of his 15 year experience as an army brat in Germany. Dee Dee raps in German and Debbie Harry does backup on two cuts. Watch out! The Ramones are shooting a video for "Pet Semetary," the title song from the new Stephen King film. The cut will be on their next album...

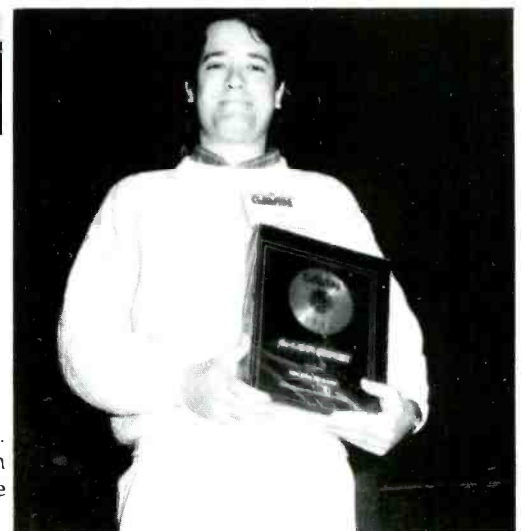

Bits & Pieces: Y&T will head for the studio this week for their second Geffen LP. Guitarist/vocalist Dave Meniketti has been writing with Don Dokken and Ronnie Montrose. The band is still uncertain of the producer... Capitol Records will release an LP from their latest signing, The Hangmen, in April. Paul Lani is mixing the album in Los Angeles now that he has finished the Sea Hags LP... Tune into NBC on March 18th and watch those Living Colour guys work their magic on "Saturday Night Live." Mary Tyler Moore will host the show. ●

THE STARS TALK ABOUT THE FORMAT

During the last several years, The Gavin Report has been lucky enough to be able to talk with many of Country Music's biggest stars. We've found them to be clever and charming, but the common thread we've noticed is an almost fanatical loyalty to Country Music as a format. Here's what a few of them had to say about the music they--and we--love.

GEORGE STRAIT

"From talking to people in radio since I started recording, it seems to me they want to hear music that sounds Country and is Country. They say to me, 'Don't change what you're doing. Keep on sendin' that Country music.'"

STEVE WARINER

"I hear a lot of people talking about the trend of pop acts coming over to Country, and it seems like a lot of people aren't accepting the pop acts as real Country artists. I can understand that from a fan's point of view - Country fans are die hard and very loyal."

VINCE GILL

"If you ask a rock n roller who his favorite Country artist is, he's going to tell you Merle Haggard or George Jones and the traditionalists who are making real honest, wonderful music."

STU COOK (Southern Pacific)

"Country music's been getting kind of a bad rap lately, and it just ain't fair. We would like to broaden the demographics of Country music and get younger people to realize that it's not all about divorce and bars. We'd like to think that we're helping do that in our own unique way."

DWIGHT YOAKAM

"We have turned our backs on pure Country music for so long that it is radical to be pure Country. Absolute adherence to traditional Country forms and production is, ironically, a radical element in Country music. That only illustrates how we have moved from the true form."

EDDIE RABBITT

"It was all Country in the beginning. Elvis, Roy Orbison, Bill Haley, Johnny Cash, Jerry Lee Lewis--they were all Country guys. They weren't cutting what they felt was rock n roll, they were just redefining a section of Country music."

PAUL GREGG (Restless Heart)

"I think it's shocking a lot of people that the Country market is open to a little bit more diversified music than people give it credit for."

RANDY TRAVIS

"Country radio is playing a lot of different types of music and I think that has its good points. Playing so many types of music broadens the listening audience and picks up a lot of people who might not normally have listened. Once you get those people listening, then maybe they'll start liking the traditional type of Country music, which they wouldn't have been exposed to otherwise."

STEVE EARLE

"Once somebody asked me, 'If somebody walked up to you and put a gun to your head and said are you Country or are you rock, what would you do?' I said, 'I'd pull out my gun and blow their head off.' Why is that important? Good rock n roll and good Country have always kind of come from the same place, and some of the best examples of both have been produced by the same artists."

RICKY SKAGGS

"A lot of people in Europe have a distorted vision of Country music. They either think of cowboys and indians or Kenny Rogers and Alabama. What we're doing is such a roots form. They really have an appreciation and admiration for that kind of music."

DAN SEALS

"Country music, from all I've ever seen, has always been the working person's music. I think it'll stay that way. The working person might become a computer operator someday instead of digging ditches, but the music will still reflect what he or she goes through."

LYLE LOVETT

"The fact that I'm getting a chance to do my songs is something I would not have expected from the Country music I knew about a few years back. I don't know if it's a whole movement, but I did find a real openness in Nashville and a real willingness from people to listen to my songs."

JOHNNY CASH

"I've always believed that traditional Country music is the backbone of our business. The trends and fads come and go, but every few years the pendulum swings back to traditional."

JAMIE O'HARA (The O'Kanes)

"In terms of Country music, simplicity and directness is the allure."

BILL LLOYD (Foster & Lloyd)

"Country radio is a broad format right now--it's probably the broadest out there right now. They're playing us and they're playing bluegrass and honky tonk and all different kinds of things."

WAYLON JENNINGS

"I think that Country music gets 'pop-itis' every once in a while. They get in there and try to cut crossover records. The biggest crossover records usually happen by accident and usually have the biggest roots in Country--they're just basic Country records."

K.T. OSLIN

"Country music is very interesting. If you listen to a good station long enough, you're going to find something for everybody. No matter what your age or where you live or what you do for a living, there's going to be something you're going to hear and say, 'Yeah, I like that.'"

MARTY RAYBON (Shenandoah)

"People are worried that Country music is going to fade away or get too sophisticated, but as the old cliché goes, Country music is people music, and it's always gonna be."

RUSSELL SMITH

"I think there's a new audience listening to Country music. I think that's one of the reasons for the diversity that there is now. It's an audience that doesn't like what they hear on rock n roll radio--they don't want to get techno'd out - and Country music is offering them a viable alternative."

BECKY HOBBS

"People want to hear honest music now, we're getting back to the heart and soul of it. What's happening with Country radio is to a large extent what was happening on pop radio twenty years ago."

MONTE WARDEN (Wagoneers)

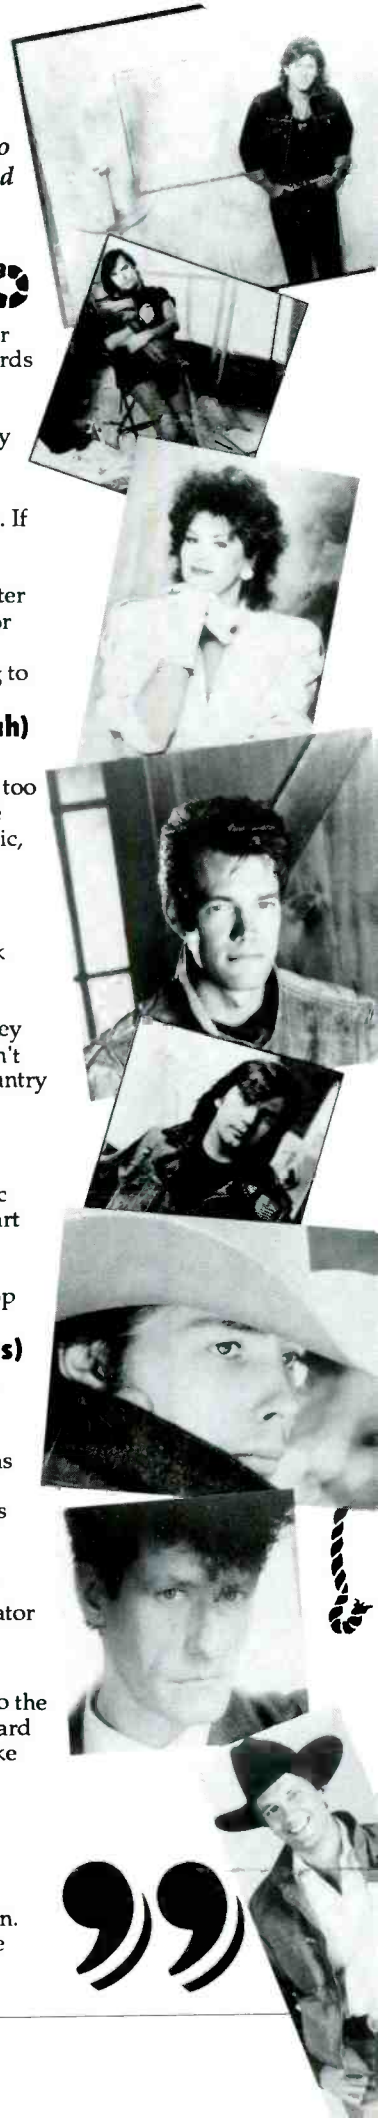

"Country is the finest way people have of expressing themselves. Country's charm is that it always had to meet challenges. First it was considered hillbilly music, then it had the hokey aspect, and now it's fighting its failed attempt to cross-over. Thank God that Nashville has people that want to make dance-floor music, not elevator music."

BUCK OWENS

"The pendulum has swung back to the roots of Country--good straight hard honky tonk Country with folks like Randy Travis, Rodney Crowell, Keith Whitley, Highway 101, Desert Rose and George Strait."

RODNEY CROWELL

"Ultimately, I think I'm Country, and I don't think that's a limitation. In a lot of ways Country has more room to grow than rock does."

INSIDE URBAN

THE FLACK ATTACK

Gavin Cover lady Roberta Flack is doing her share of station visitin' and radio is happy to have her back in the thick of things: eight new adds on the second single from her return album debuts the cut in Up & Coming this week. Shown in Los Angeles (l-r) are KGFJ Program Director Kevin Fleming, Atlantic local promotion rep Rick Nuhn, Roberta Flack, and KGFJ GM/Owner Bill Shearer.

JODY WATLEY made the most noise this week, attracting the attention of many programmers. Her new single debuts in Chartbound (bypassing Up & Coming) and prompted many quotes from the following: Larry Carr, WQIC /FM-Meridian, "It's going to pick up where her last LP left off and go right to the top"; new Mom (see Birth announcements) Victoria Buchanan, WTLC-Indianapolis, called in her report from home where she's taking care of her new baby, with "I'm making Jody my record to watch because we've been waiting for it and here she is with a strong comeback!" Tony Brown, WBLX-Mobile, says, "This new Jody isn't just destined to be an Urban smash, it'll be a crossover hit as well." Andy Henderson, WQKI-St. Matthews, says Jody's new song should "...put her right back into the running for another grammy." K.J. Holiday, WJDY-Salisbury, describes it as "Smokin'...and well worth the wait!" Steve Crumbley, WOWI-Norfolk and WPDQ-Jacksonville, "really" likes

RADIANT - Gimme/Faith
JONATHAN BUTLER - She's Hot
BOBBY BROWN - Rock Wit' cha
MARCUS LEWIS - Say Every Now & Then/With My Eyes
GUY - Piece Of My Love
Z'LOOKE - I'm In Love

it: "The real deal is that 'Real Love' is really good!"

Our second "Most Added" was THE PASADENAS and Lisa Lipps, KACE-Los Angeles, likes "The genuine, different and new sound of this English group." Johnny Walker, KRNB-Memphis, makes it her RTW, saying "It's excellent," and ditto for Sam Brown, WQQK/FM-Nashville, who reports, "They bring back that feeling of the early '70's and the Motown sound." Good acceptance for the new E.U. release: Gerald Tookes, WANM-Tallahassee makes it his RTW, L.D. McCollum, XHRM-San Diego, does too, saying, "Excellent! Excellent! Out of the box requests!" Kevin Morrison, WDXK-Rochester, raves about the WENDY & LISA: "Heavy phones from young females and it seems to be crossing over right out of the box." The new TONE LOC should do as well as the old one: David Starr, KKDA-Dallas, "It's better than 'Wild Thing'," and Tony Lype, WZFX-Fayetteville, says to "Watch it and rock it!" SIMPLY RED gets the nod as our RECORD TO WATCH this week with reports coming in from OC104/FM-Ocean City, WNHC-New Haven, WOWI-Norfolk, WUFO-Buffalo, WXOK-Baton Rouge, WYLD/FM-New Orleans, WYNN-Florence, CBS-Minneapolis, WBLZ-Cincinnati, WCKX -Columbus, WCRX-Chicago, WAPZ-Indianapolis, WTLC-Indianapolis, WZAK -Cleveland, KKDA-Dallas, KACE-Los Angeles, KKFX-Seattle, and XHRM-San Diego. Ciao for now, Betty.

NEW RELEASES by Betty Hollars and John Martinucci

AL B. SURE! - I'm Not Your Lover (Warner Bros.)

Generating early response this week—28 reports and 18 adds—Al B. picks up the pace on this mid-tempo range track produced by Teddy Riley. Slick Rick adds slick rap enhancement.

MICA PARIS - My One Temptation (Island)

At first we thought this was a Warwick/Bacharach production. A couple of stations had the jump on us a few weeks ago, but now everybody has the opportunity for this mass appeal record.

CONSTINA - Are You Lonely Tonight (Columbia)

Constina's voice is breathtaking, accompanied by the mid-tempo rhythm track, and is being well-received by radio.

JODY WATLEY - Real Love (MCA)

Guess who's back and is looking for a real love instead of a new love? Well, 42 of you knew out-of-the-box that Jody Watley has returned with a familiar sound for radio. Produced by Andre Cymone.

STETSASONIC - Float On (Tommy Boy)

Wow! Another rap ballad—how original—unless you have the perfect balladeers like Stetsasonic has in Force MD's—a mix that shouldn't be missed!

AL JARREAU - All Or Nothing At All (Reprise)

We liked this on the first listen, and with each listen after that we realized how perfect this production is by George Duke. Mix Duke and Jarreau and the result is magic.

M.C. TWIX - Devastatin' 2 Yo Ear (IRS/MCA)

This hit the desk this week and we've practically worn the grooves out! Stylistically similar to Eric B. & Rakim, M/A/R/R/S, and Stock, Aitken & Waterman productions. Ch-ch-check it out!

OPEN HOUSE.

REVIEWS

Promises (Epic)

"Time and Tide" and "New Day For You" were merely set-ups for this absolutely magnificent single. BASIA's wonderful sense of melody and rhythm will hit home for those who can grin and tap their toes simultaneously.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

All Is Lost (Warner Bros.)

These former players in Creedence Clearwater Revival, Doobie Bros. and Pablo Cruise have made a new name for themselves in Country Music, yet they've made a pop record which reminds us of Pablo Cruise at their best.

PHOEBE SNOW

If I Can Just Get Through The Night (Elektra)

The beginning of the comeback story of the decade. Phoebe, a long time gone, resurrects her career with a brilliant song delivered with uncommon bravado.

CAROLE KING

City Streets (Capitol)

Here's another lady's voice we've missed for a long time and whose vocal tones are recognized within a second the first listen. The lyric and melody are very Adult-oriented and A/C radio shouldn't pass on this one.

MARCY

Let Them Stare (Elektra)

Most songs that distinguish themselves in our format have indelible melodies and this one is an earful. Set to a classic groove, Marc V and company will raise critical eyebrows with this winner.

MICA PARIS

My One Temptation (Island)

There's a smoky, seductive, soufulness in this song that is brought to the surface by this relatively unknown chanteuse.

GLENN FREY

Livin' Right (MCA)

Nothin' like a born again health nut to ruin your day. If you're not already in shape this one may be hard to listen to. The song gave one couch potato we know a case of aerobic dysentery.

ONE 2 MANY

Downtown (A&M)

The acoustic piano prologue is reminiscent of Bruce Hornsby, but the vocals and production values from this Scandinavian trio are distinctively Euro-pop. Should do well with bright A/C radio.

INSIDE A/C by Ron Fell & Diane Rufer

Despite increasing an average of 29 HEAVY rotation reports each, neither DEBBIE GIBSON nor ANITA BAKER could take even a one point move upward on the chart. That's how strong ROY and MIKE + THE MECHANICS are. Both DEBBIE and ANITA maintain their underlines despite the pending obvious - KENNY G and SMOKEY who leap 10 to 5.

Three new entries in the top ten. The CROSBY, STILLS, NASH & YOUNG, now HIT FACTORed by 91% of its 187 players, is fresh enough to wait out the older records above. The BANGLES, now at number 8, were at 22 only two weeks ago. And BREATHE, no strangers to single digit A/C ranking, have done it again - HIT FACTORing at a healthy 91%.

SURVIVOR's "Across The Miles," despite nominal Top 40 airplay, has proven to be a solid adult record. Nearly ten times as many A/C's are playing it than Top 40's. Adds this week include WNSR, WAEB, WJBR, WKLI/FM, KFQD and WKBX.

With a 20% increase in HIT FACTOR this week (51% to 71%) CARLY SIMON's "Let The River Run" has gone 32 to 20 over the past two issues.

A former A/C pick on January 20th, 38 SPECIAL's "Second Chance" is now on more than half our reporting station and HIT FACTORed by nearly two-thirds. Among this week's 17 adds are KBIG, WGOL/FM, KKJO, KXLK, WEBE/FM, WTUN and KBOI.

KARLA BONOFF's "Tell Me Why" is now HIT FACTORed by half its players and fourteen new A/C's came onboard this week including WLIP, WCVQ, KGLO and KHLT. HEAVY rotation at WSKY, KLDI and KBMG.

By a 50% margin, CHER & PETER CETERA's "After All" wins MOST ADDED over a worthy ROBERTA FLACK. Only ROY ORBISON with 101 first-week adds and NEIL DIAMOND with 75 had better opening weeks so far this year.

JULIA FORDHAM's "Happy Ever After" debuts in our UP & COMING this week. It was picked here on September 16th for your consideration and hit #4 on the Adult Alternative chart on January 27th. It's hard for us to understand the resistance to this fresh debut single when it fits the Adult Contemporary format so well.

The NYLONS remake of "Poison Ivy" went from RECORD TO WATCH last week to debut #36 on the chart. It missed the MOST ADDED category by only one, but had 25 new runners. Among the new are KMCQ, KWUN, KDES, WMRN, WHIZ, WNMB, WKST and KWEB. KLSS and WFAW moved it to a HEAVY rotation along with KYMN and KROC/AM.

This week the RECORD TO WATCH is written, arranged, produced and performed by DINO, "24/7." With 54 total stations he hits the CHARTBOUND section and has 11 ADDS. The new believers are WKBX, WUVU, KBRK, KBYZ, 3WM, WDND, KMTI, KKIQ, KFIV, KASY and KKRK.

The History Of

Country Music

In One Easy Lesson By Cyndi Hoelzle

With all this talk about the future of Country music, we thought it would be helpful to remember the history of the music that has captured the hearts and imagination of millions of people around the world.

We'll start in 1500's, when the first settlers landed in America. They brought with them folk songs, ballads, dances and Celtic fiddle songs from England and Northern Europe. The Puritans preferred simple melodies and harmonies, and although hymns were the main form of expression, secular songs like "Greensleeves" and "Black Jack Davy" could be heard throughout settlements from Massachusetts to Appalachia. The imported folk ballads were tales of love, death, sickness and drama, and this lyrical content is still a basic presence in Country music.

The early communities were isolated, therefore creating many regional styles. In the South, the influence of the slave's field songs was incorporated. The banjo had been brought over from Africa, and the fiddle and dulcimer came with the European settlers. Minstrel, spiritual and mountain music all influenced what was to become Country music.

The process of making Country music a commercial art form began in the 1920's. By 1922, radio stations in both Fort Worth (WBAP) and Atlanta (WSB) were featuring local fiddlers. In 1924 WLS in Chicago began it's immensely popular "National Barn Dance" and a year later WSM in Nashville began broadcasting what became the Grand Ole Opry. Though these radio programs were very successful, the budding record industry did not consider "hillbilly" music to be commercially viable.

The first country musician ever recorded was "Eck" Robertson who recorded several songs for Victor in 1922, the most famous being "Sally Goodin." Uncle Dave Macon was Country's first banjo virtuoso and it's first comic. It was "Fiddlin" John Carson who established the commercial potential for Country music, and is credited with the very first Country record ever sold, "The Little Old Log Cabin in the Lane." Carson was recorded by Ralph Peer, Country music's original A&R genius. It was Peer who realized the potential for white, rural music, and he traveled around the South recording various artists. His Bristol, Tennessee sessions are very important; In the summer of 1927 he recorded both The Carter Family and Jimmie Rodgers, artists who started the first period of commercial growth, thus convincing record executives that there was a market for hillbilly music.

The Carter Family—A.P., Sara and Maybelle—were Country's first supergroup. Maybelle's guitar style was very influential, and songs like "Little Log Cabin By The Sea" and "Single Girl, Married Girl," became big sellers.

The first nationally recognized star in Country music was Jimmie Rodgers. His career only lasted six years, from 1927 to 1933 when he died of tuberculosis, but Rodgers' style was widely imitated. "The Singing Brakeman," as he was known, worked as a waterboy at a railroad station, carrying water to the black laborers. He copied their singing and playing style, and added his trademark "blue yodel." Long before Elvis, here was a white man with a black sound. His country blues "T for Texas," "T.B. Blues," "Blue Yodel #9," and "In The Jailhouse Now" were huge sellers, and are covered by contemporary artists like Merle Haggard and Emmylou Harris.

Roy Acuff is perhaps the most well known of Country music pioneers. He joined the Opry in 1938 and has been performing on it ever since. You can still hear him belt out "Wabash Cannon Ball" most Friday nights in the new Opry House. His voice could never be called great, but it is powerful and is still able to convey the emotion that once made hundreds of women move to Nashville with the hope of becoming Mrs. Roy Acuff. His publishing firm, Acuff-Rose, was the first major publishing house in Nashville.

The next group to gain national attention were the folks who put the Western in Country & Western, the singing cowboys: Gene Autry, Roy Rogers, and Tex Ritter to name a few. At this same time, Western Swing was developing in the dance halls of Texas and Oklahoma. It was a mixture of western music, string band and big band jazz, first popularized by the Light Crust Doughboys and Milton Brown's Musical Brownies. Next to bluegrass, western swing is the most musically complicated form of Country music, and made it technically credible. It's dance music, developed in an urban environment, featuring saxophones, trumpets and trombones as well as traditional Country instruments. In the dancehalls, Bob Wills, Spade Cooley and Hank Thompson competed for the same audiences as Glenn Miller and the Dorsey Brothers. The Western Swing sound lives on today in the music of George Strait and Asleep At The Wheel.

As half of the Monroe Brothers, Bill Monroe was already an established Opry star when he began to experiment with different musicians and styles to get the sound he been envisioning—a mixture of old time mountain fiddling, blues vocals and driving rhythm. In 1945 he found his perfect band, featuring Lester Flatt on guitar and the modern banjo style of Earl Scruggs, and Bluegrass was born. It was something entirely new: traditional music played on traditional instruments, but with a drive and power that had never been heard in Country music. By the early 1950's artists like the Stanley Brothers, Reno & Smiley, Jim and Jesse and the Osborne Brothers were performing their own style of bluegrass. It remains largely a rural music, mainly performed at outdoor festivals. The influence of bluegrass in Contemporary music can be seen in the success of Ricky Skaggs.

In the cities, the dominant post-WWII style was honky tonk. The new populations that moved to the cities to look for work began to gather in local bars to drink and listen to music, and the demands of playing in loud clubs changed the music. Musicians began using electric guitars, drums and pedal steel to cut through the din, and they sang more aggressively, with low-down hard-hitting lyrics to grab the audience's attention.

Hank Williams was the quintessential honky tonk singer. Not only did his life fit the bill—born in poverty, lived in pain, dead at age 29—his plaintive style still defines Country music. His voice was expressive of his sorrows and his songs were simple and true, which is why his music is still popular with modern audiences.

Ernest Tubb, who started his career as a Jimmie Rodgers imitator, is also identified with the honky tonk sound. His "Walking the Floor Over You" is a perfect example of the simple chorus and heavy drums of honky tonk. Tubb did a service to this industry when he insisted that Decca stop using the term hillbilly, which he considered insulting, and instead use "Country."

The 1952 hit "It Wasn't God Who Made Honky Tonk Angels" made Kitty Wells the queen of honky tonk, and Country's first women's libber. The song was an answer to Hank Thompson's "Wild Side Of Life" which describes a good-girl-gone-bad. Kitty had the gall to blame it on the low-down cheatin' man. Although not graced with a beautiful voice, her vocal style is representative of the 1950's hard-edged style. Lefty Frizzell is probably the most graceful of the honky tonk singers. By fusing a voice of great emotional range with unique phrasing, he created a style that has never been imitated successfully. Other honky tonk practioners were George Jones, Ray Price and Hank Snow.

Across town in the black honky tonks R&B was in it's prime. The first white man credited with melding r&b and hillbilly is Bill Haley, a country boy who took black lyrics and toned them down for the white audience. Elvis, Johnny Cash, Carl Perkins and Conway Twitty all followed.

Elvis' first 45 perfectly illustrates the blending of styles. One side is a cover of blues singer Big Boy Crudup's "That's All Right" and the flip is Bill Monroe's "Blue Moon Of Kentucky." Elvis did to Monroe's song what Monroe had done to Jimmie Rodgers' "Muleskinner Blues" a decade earlier: he re-shaped the rhythm to fit a new genre. Buddy Holly, whose band the Crickets included Waylon Jennings, added his Tex-mex influence to rockabilly, and Jerry Lee Lewis, playing like a country singer driven by the devil, took the form to new heights. ▶

"The Nashville Sound" arose as a reaction to all this grindin' and hip-shakin' going on among the youth. This broad category included all the traditional "straight" country singers like Patsy Cline, George Jones, Tammy Wynette, and Loretta Lynn, as well as the crooners. What identified the Nashville sound was the clean, state-of-the-art production and smooth background arrangements that often included string sections and vocal choruses. Patsy Cline is a good example of the early Nashville sound. Her subject matter was country, but her singing style was pop-influenced and her records had great cross-over success. She showed the nation that Nashville could be sophisticated.

Loretta showed them that Country singers could be just as modern and independent as their uptown cousins. Her sound was straight country, but songs like "The Pill," and "Don't Come Home A' Drinkin'" proved that you could be a Country angel and still stand up for your rights. On the other side of the fence, Tammy Wynette espoused the traditional party line, and was the epitome of Southern female virtues. Classics like "D.I.V.O.R.C.E." and "Stand By Your Man," hold up well today. George Jones has the ability to take even mediocre material to the peak of high drama, making him the premier song stylist in Country Music.

The other part of the Nashville sound was the Crooners: Eddy Arnold, Tennessee Ernie Ford, Charley Pride and Jim Reeves. This was pop music designed for city listeners who couldn't get enough of these golden-throated "Country-politans."

Finally, you can't talk about the Nashville sound without mentioning Chet Atkins. He produced many of these sessions, his abilities as a musician allowing him to relate to the artists as no other producer had before. Other influential producers of this time were Owen Bradley at Decca and Don Law at Columbia. The success of the Opry, and the centralization of song publishing and recording in Nashville made the town the center of the Country music industry by the early 1960's.

Bakersfield, CA and Austin, TX arose as the two main alternatives to Nashville. In the 1960's Bakersfield became known as "Nashville West," due to the success of Buck Owens and Merle Haggard, Tommy Collins, Red Simpson and Wynn Stewart. This central California oil town full of re-settled Oklahomans was as far away from Nashville as you could get, and the music made there was dusty, sweaty and more rockin' than the clean, "perfect" sounds of Nashville.

In the 1970's Austin became the new alternative. The term "outlaw," coined in the 1972 Waylon Jennings' song, "Ladies Love Outlaws," was first used as a publicity vehicle for Waylon and Tompall Glaser, but the tag was soon given to anyone who shunned the Nashville system: Willie Nelson, David Allan Coe, Kinky Friedman and Kris Kristofferson. All of the sudden everyone wanted to be an outlaw. Waylon rejected the term, insisting he only wants to do his music, his way.

These days a lot of new Country is coming out of Los Angeles and Austin. Displaced Kentucky boy Dwight Yoakam, The Desert Rose Band, Highway 101, The Lonesome Strangers, Lucinda Williams and Dave Durham operate out of the West Coast. Austin remains a fertile music town, although still not a recording center. The Texas singer/songwriter tradition is stronger than ever. From the old guard—Guy Clark, Joe Ely, Townes Van Zandt and Jerry Jeff Walker—to the new challengers—Lyle Lovett, Nanci Griffith, Darden Smith, The Wagoners, Michelle Shocked and Robert Earl Keen Jr.—all these folks credit Austin for giving them their creative kick in the Levis.

Today's young Country musicians are digging back into Country music's rich past by recording old standards. Two recent examples are Ricky Van Shelton's version of Ned Miller's "From A Jack To A King," and George Strait's cover of Faron Young's "If You Ain't Lovin'." Shelton and Randy Travis can be looked at as a continuation of the line of the Nashville sound; Dwight is bringing back the hillbilly tradition, and has introduced many young fans to the sound of Buck Owens; The O'Kanes can be seen as the direct descendants of The Louvin Brothers. Many acts like Rosanne Cash, Lyle Lovett, Rodney Crowell and K.T. Oslin are developing new styles based on a mixture of traditional Country and the pop sounds they grew up with. In the early eighties the New York Times declared Country music dead. It is now more healthy than ever and all indications point to Country entering another boom period. ●

COUNTRY MUSIC THE HEADS IN

This week the Gavin Report is pleased to salute the 20th Anniversary of the Country Radio Seminar. In preparation we asked some industry leaders, "What is the key issue confronting the Country Music Industry as we enter the '90's?" Their answers are listed here. One of the key concerns seems to be how to attract the baby boom audience. Other subjects touched on include how to keep developing the superstars of tomorrow, getting in touch with your audience, and the tightening of playlists. The answers are varied, thought provoking and they give us all a lot to think about as Country Radio gets ready to enter the next decade.

Industry Leaders

We'd like to thank everyone who participated in this special issue, and here's to another successful Country Radio Seminar! The Gavin Report is proud to be a part of it.

90'S

Speak Out

What Is The Key Issue Facing The Country Music Industry As We Approach The 90's?

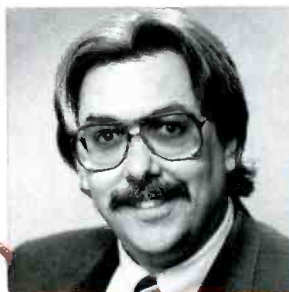

FRANK JONES,
Airborne Records, Inc.

One of the most significant issues facing the Country Music Industry is the area of developing and breaking new talent. With shorter playlists necessitating, in many instances, a criteria of a high trade chart listing to be eligible of airplay, the reality for a new act to obtain exposure becomes increasingly difficult. I am sure record companies and radio would agree that the future must see new blood infused into the mainstream, as historically has been the case. Coming from a radio background, I in no way imply that the record company should assume a stance as to how radio handles it's business, rather that the issue be looked at together for some possible answers that would assist in developing the acts of tomorrow. If this, through a joint effort, might be accomplished I sincerely believe all will benefit in the coming decade.

EDDIE EDWARDS - KAJA -
San Antonio, TX

The main thing that we're going to be faced with is are we going to blow out a whole segment of the older demographic in the format to program and appeal to the record buyers. Only certain age groups buy records, although that could change. That's one of the reasons Country doesn't sell records. We have to get the baby-boomers interested in buying records. They are great radio listeners, but they won't buy. Also, how much personality are we going to put into radio? How hip are we going to make Country radio? That's going to be the question.

LEE LOGAN, OM - KLAN/KNEW -
Oakland/San Francisco, CA

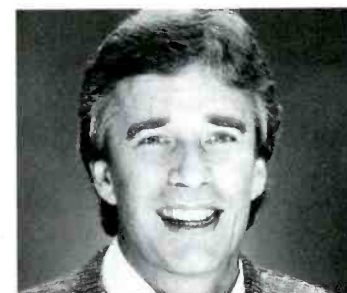

Relatability to the aging baby boomers. We've started this now, there are some new writers and new artists beginning to do this, but we can't stop. In the course of the 1990's baby boomers will be between the ages of 35 and 50. Capturing that group enables our industry to reach out and touch the largest untapped music resource available to us. First of all these people are used to being involved with music. They grew up with music as an integral part of their lives. They cannot relate to today's Urban Contemporary/CHR synthesized, overproduced music form as well as they have in years past. They're looking for something that has a good lyric line and is true music, and Country music fits that bill. However, we've got to make sure that in the process of writing music we are reaching people on a mass appeal basis, not on a regional basis. Look at K.T. Oslin. Her music reaches out and touches everybody within that age group. Today's cowboys are computer hackers. As this sociological change takes place Country music has got to tap into it. If we don't, we're dead. If we do, our industry is going to continue to grow in leaps and bounds.

JACK LAMEIER, CBS

Suppression of creativity is the biggest challenge facing the Country industry. There is an abundance of talent and technique in the studios, both broadcasting and recording, being stymied by overreaction to a "followed trend" mentality.

BOB KINGSLEY,
American Country Countdown

As we head into the 90's, Country music is faced with the same challenge the rest of the nation faces. We're stepping into what promises to be the biggest baby boom ever, and a constant creative objective for this industry is to win this new generation over to what we know is an ever-changing, but always viable format. The tradition and heritage of Country music must once again be passed along to new audiences and artists, with the hope that they will understand what made it great and leave it a little better. Amen.

JOE LADD - KIKK - Houston, TX
The biggest challenge must be to keep programmers from trying to cross over into the A/C format again. I think that cycle's coming again. It's happened many times, and it always weakens us. It strengthens the ~~cume~~ for a while but destroys the core.

MIKE CHAPMAN,
Chapman Consultants

The one thing as we face the 90's is to find the proper mix of music to satisfy both traditionalists and the new folks coming over to Country. Over the past three years we've experienced a 12% loss in audience. Some people, me included, feel that it is due to the large amount of traditionalism coming out of Nashville. We have to strike a balance, not necessarily for sales of records but for Country radio to continue to grow.

BOB YOUNG - WXTU -
Philadelphia, PA

Shrinking local and national dollars is going to be the biggest problem facing Country radio, and radio in general. In a lot of markets you can buy TV for the same price as radio, and when that happens we've all got problems.

TIM CLOSSON - KHAK -
Cedar Rapids, IA

Finding ways to attract new listeners and continue to grow formatly is the biggest issue facing the industry. That includes continued growth in the music industry with new artists and fresh product.

STEVE GARY - KASE/KVET -
Austin, TX

Getting in touch with, and researching your audience—finding their 'on buttons.' It's a real challenge because the Country radio audience is very large. It encompasses a wide spectrum of age groups. For Country radio to stay the favorite radio station for all of those people, you've really got to be careful. The older end of your demographics are interested in the older songs, the older artists. Then you've got your younger listeners which you also want to maintain, and they're interested in what's happening with Country music now—the new artists, the new sounds. So you're trying to program to that broad audience, and that's a big challenge.

COYOTE CALHOUN - WAMZ -
Louisville, KY

In the last few years we've developed artists like the Judds, Randy Travis and Ricky Van Shelton. It's imperative that the Country industry keeps developing good music and superstars for our format. People are with us because they like the music, they like the artists. I also think we need more jock development. At times I get discouraged with what I hear around the country. Outside of the morning guy, at a lot of stations the jocks are just reading the cards verbatim. In some cases management has so little faith in air talent, or in the programming department, that they think that the best way to go about getting good numbers is to play it safe—to do everything very generic and boring. I'm not saying put a wild man in every time shift, but just open up a little bit. Everybody wants to hear a friend. Also, the more we research, the more we know about ourselves as a radio station, the better we're going to be able to program to the wants and needs of the people that live in our communities. As long as we have our research intact, and right on focus, we'll be able to compete with anyone.

BILL MAYNE - Warner Bros.

Major broadcast properties today are in growing numbers being owned and operated by non-broadcasters—primarily by venture capitalists and investment bankers. Thus a lot of properties find themselves in heavily leveraged situations where there is an immediacy for the station to generate revenue. In other words, an investor puts his money in and he expects to get 25% back on that money immediately, rather than sitting back and watching the station build into a long term institution. Therefore, you've got programmers who are under pressure to play it safe. Not only major markets, but even medium and small markets are now becoming much more conservative with respect to exposing new product. At the same time, there are changes going on in the music industry. You have a market where more acts need to be broken, with less likelihood of radio getting that accomplished. It's going to get tougher and tougher to get new acts exposed on the radio.

PAUL LOVELACE - Capitol Records

The problems in record promotion remain fairly constant. Finding artists and producers who deliver product that is acceptable to radio programmers, and packed with emotion that drives the consumer to make the purchase. The three basic steps to a hit project remain the same: tying together the song with the artist's name and face. Also, no statement would be complete if we didn't mention the decrease in radio airplay slots and the increase of competitive product.

GERRY HOUSE - WSIX -
Nashville, TN

We need to avoid the stereotype of Country. That makes me nuts. I hate it when they say "Country & Western." Country music always had that image of sitting on haybales. Now, I sit on haybales, but I enjoy it. There's a fine line between not falling in with the stereotype, and at the same time not losing the purity of the format. It's O.K. to be Rosanne Cash, and it's O.K. to be Randy Travis. I don't know why everybody fights that.

BOB GUERRA - KZLA/KLAC -
Los Angeles, CA

We in the Country music industry must be very careful not to get too far inside ourselves and our music. By that I mean that although it's important for Country music to have it's own identity, it's essential that we allow other expressions of talent to find a place in our business. Although it's good that we've 'gotten back to the basics,' let's not forget that in order for country music to grow beyond it's 'own fans,' artists like Lyle Lovett and K.T. Oslin will help us bring young, non-country fans into the fold.

JACK WESTON - RCA Records
Surviving the onslaught of other entertainment choices. This industry needs to develop more stars (on the airwaves and on records). We cannot afford to die as an industry because we sacrificed entertainment for passive, protective programming that resists freshness and abandons the excitement that built loyalty to this industry. Nintendo did not take the market by storm by being the same as everyone else or by offering the same old software!

LARRY DANIELS - KNIX - Phoenix, AZ

How to enhance the format overall. The music is there: the creativity, the variety of artist types. What is lacking year after year is creativity in the presentation—information, promotions, personalities, contests. Fifteen-in-a-row does not create a station personality because, frankly, the public rarely senses a station personality when they don't even hear the titles and artists mentioned. The format has gone "econo-country," and you can't expect big numbers with a bargain-basement approach.

TED WAGNER - RCA Records

Our product is our people and their music. The key issue is to maximize the business and grow the format. We can do this by continuing to develop such diverse talent as Alabama, K.T. Oslin, Restless Heart, Ronnie Milsap and Keith Whitley, and by continuing to introduce the superstars of tomorrow. After all, their music is our future.

JACK PURCELL - Warner Bros. Records

We've recently seen the effects of shortened playlists. The results have been fewer artists broken and a lot of potentially strong ones overlooked. Every record released cannot be added to every playlist, but total commitment to the "survival of the fittest" theory could lead us back into the same position we were in 5 years ago. Do we close the door and keep the same audience we have or do we continue to bring forth new music and allow the lower demographic to participate along with the upper? As our concern about the nineties grows, we need to take notice of those records without household names on them. There are times when established artists move into the top 10 with records that should not get past top 20. If a playlist only allows for 30 records to be played, then play the best 30 records available. We are all responsible for the resurgence country music has seen over the last 5 years, but as we enter the nineties let's not turn around and close the door that we've all worked so hard to open.

DIANE RICHEY, DIANE RICHEY PROMOTIONS

Aside from the music fragmentation — Contemporary Vs. Traditional, I think we are going to have to face the increasingly alarming issue of formula radio. With radio becoming ever more competitive, some program directors and consultants feel the need to put their stations under a microscope and to dissect the music with new technology and research. What happened to the days when radio and Country music were original and creative art forms? When we dared to break a new act that we felt might just have just the "right stuff"? It's a shame that air talent is not given the opportunity to make their show sound really different anymore. Musically, it is becoming harder to break new acts because playlists are constantly shrinking and some music directors have no authority but to add what is already in the top 30. Personally, I am anxious to hear something fresh and different on the radio. Please, don't feed me the same song every two and a half hours!!!

SHELIA SHIPLEY - MCA Records

In the latter part of the 80's, country radio opened its arms to embrace many new sounds and styles. I think that this has been healthy in making the format interesting to people who never before listened to country radio. I hope radio will continue to be open to those artists whose talent and commitment are strong—whether new or established. My greatest fear for the 90's is that radio will allow consultants to play too great a role in choosing music for their station. Consultants, charts and promoters should be tools to use in deciding what should be added but the ultimate decision should belong to that programmer who knows his market best.

TRISH HENNESSEY - WAVW - Vero Beach, FL

Those of us in the industry need to pay attention to what our listeners want—not the listeners who are plied with donuts and prizes and air-conditioned focus groups, but the ones that wake up and go to bed with our stations daily. My experience has taught me that these people like Patsy Cline as well Reba, Hank Sr. as well as Junior, Lefty as well as Lyle. Whether our listeners wear three-piece suits or hardhats, they want variety, and they're hungry for roots as well as new growth. Many are turned off by jukebox radio stations that play ten songs in a row, with no mention of who they just heard, like foreplay with no satisfaction! Some programmers have a definite prejudice toward "twang." Buddy, twang is what pays your bills, and there had better be some pride in what traditional music means to your audience, or else the format is in trouble. The listeners will tell you, if you will give them your ears. Give the people who find a reason to listen to Country radio, reason to stay. It's exciting, and if it's done with personality and passion there's nothing like it, and we won't have to worry about the future of the music we love.

BILL CATINO - Director of National Promotion, Universal Records

The past few years have been very healthy for many in the industry especially after adjusting to the "Urban Cowboy Craze." I believe Country music will continue its steady growth into the 90's, if radio continues to focus on a broader musical format. The success of new artists like K.T. Oslin, Restless Heart, Skip Ewing, Ricky Van Shelton, Randy Travis, Lyle Lovett and the Judds, shows the acceptance to a wide range of musical styles. This music is reaching the masses and attracting a more youthful audience to the country format. The key is in the balance between traditional and contemporary country to the percentage of oldies programmed. Although oldies are a very important part of the format's success, I don't feel a 70 percent oldies mix is realistic or smart for those programmers looking for long term listeners. My plea for the 90's is that radio broadcasters continue giving their listeners responsible programming, as they have through out the 80's. New artists are the lifeblood of our industry! It's in everyone's best interest to develop the super acts of the future.

RICK HUGHES - MCA Records

From a promotional point of view, I think we need to focus more on the audience's opinions and less on the personal opinions, consultants, and playlists of the competition. We need tools to influence the programming decisions, but they should only be used as tools. I think it would be in everyone's best interest to let the audience have the ultimate decision by way of more record testing and listener research. After all, we are here to cater to the listeners, not dictate what they can and cannot listen to. We need leaders in the 90's, not followers.

NEW RELEASES by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

ROSANNE CASH - I Don't Want To Spoil The Party (Columbia)

This would be an easy choice for "Smash New Record Of The Week." The Lennon/McCartney song will be easily identifiable with your audience, Rosanne's fabulous voice is always a plus, and the combination of the two is unbeatable.

CHRIS AUSTIN - Blues Stay Away From Me (Warner Bros.)

"Blues Stay Away From Me" was written in 1949 and became The Delmore Brothers' signature song. Forty years later, Chris Austin has taken the song and recorded a fine, up-tempo version of it. Now, a trivia question - what record promotion whiz is playing drums on this record? That's right, it's your good buddy and ours, Warner Bros. Jack Purcell!

DAN SEALS - They Rage On (Capitol)

This title cut from his latest LP has been a programmer's favorite since the album's release. With the overwhelmingly positive response we got on the phone this week, it's evident that no LP cut burnout is likely. Background vocals by Baillie & The Boys add a nice touch.

GAIL DAVIES - Waiting Here For You (MCA)

"Waiting Here For You" is Gail's debut single on MCA, and in typical Davies fashion, she wrote and co-produced the song. The first line of the song sets the tone for the record - Gail sings it all alone with a seemingly new found strength and confidence. Welcome back Gail!

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

EAST - HIROSHIMA (EPIC)

Though they're technically third generation Japanese-Americans, Hiroshima mixes a hint of the orient with the power of Western ensemble playing. East offers a choice between large powerful mixes, vocal pieces and soft melodies. Their use of koto and taiko with contemporary electronics allows stations to exploit both a modern sound and an ethnic ingredient. In East's case, opposites attract. An example of the art of extremes happens toward the end of side one when the hard-edged, adventurous vocal "Living In America" segues into the dreamy instrumental voyage "Daydreamer." Other yin/yang examples include the subdued "Streetcorner Paradise" and the aggressive title track, "East." What I like most about East is the choices stations will have in choosing tracks, enabling them to adhere to their particular sonic philosophy and station sound.

LOVE MADNESS - SHERRY WINSTON (HEADFIRST/K-TEL)

This week's Most Added appeals to both Jazz and Adult Alternative Radio—and has Urban/Quiet Storm flavoring as well. "Stride," the opening track, is a subtle flute/vocal duet ideal for both Jazz and AA. Love Madness' more peaceful moments appear via "Anniversary Song" (with the omnipresent guitarist Eric Gale sitting in) and a flute/inboard synthesizer experiment entitled "Love Mission." If I had to put a tag on Winston's flute style I'd say it's almost classical in intonation, much like Hubert Laws during his CTI days. My favorite so far is "Crazy Ladies" with its jagged fusion-style guitar intro. It's the CD's finest uptempo piece and it tests Sherry's melodic and improvisational prowess. For Adult Alternative exclusivity, try "Symphonic Rock Suite #2." Jazz folks will no doubt proceed straight to the set's closer, Horace Silver's classic "Song For My Father."

VANISHING POINT - DON HARRISS (SONIC ATMOSPHERES)

Don Harriss is another turncoat rocker (he was a keyboardist with Pat Travers) turned industrial composer who is making headway with his second project, Vanishing Point. Although Harriss' music is completely computerized, tracks like "Just Around The Bend" and "Morning Glory" have the emotional depth of conventional musical instruments. In fact, the percussion has a wooden sound to the casual listener, especially on the aforementioned "Just Around The Bend." Vanishing Point is another cohesive Adult Alternative effort from Harriss, who admits to composing full projects in a single sequestered environment. Also check out the title track. It recalls the German sound of bands like Neu, Cluster and other Brain Records acts of the seventies.

SWITCHBACK - SCOTT COSSU (WIND-HAMHILL)

Here's a CD I wish I could have played for the Jazz/AA Gavin Seminar Jukebox Jury! Switchback splits evenly between both formats. For every contemplative track like "Sanctuary," "Desert Lightning," "A Child's Eye" and "Infinite Circle," there is more aggressive playing on "Atacama," "Manhattan Underground" and the bluesy "Deja Blues." Pianist Cossu and his guitarist cohort, Van Manakas, recruit hot bassist Lincoln Goines and flutist Dave Valentin fresh from Valentin's recent energetic live recording on GRP. The opening track, "Desert Lightning" is a pleasant uptempo track for Adult Alternative ears, but for an ambitious building composition, try "Beyond The Looking Glass."

McCOY TYNER

REVELATIONS - McCOY TYNER (BLUE NOTE)

Much like Top 40 radio's reluctance to add instrumental records, Jazz programmers sometimes hesitate over recordings that feature a lone solo performer. McCoy Tyner's first unaccompanied piano project in years has its irresistible moments. Hell, if you can squeeze Harry Connick, Jr. by, at least check out the classics like Ellington's "In A Mellow Tone," Coltrane's "Lazybird" and the irrepensible "Someone To Watch Over Me." KPLU's Joe Cohn is right—if we could just get a copy of Sting singing the latter selection from the Ridley Scott film of the same name...

V - RALPH PETERSON QUINTET (BLUE NOTE)

Now here's some sheer energy that shouldn't be missed. As we say in rock n roll, "the drummer is usually the head case." Well, in this case, Ralph Peterson is a modern day, fired-up Art Blakey who directs (but not abuses) one incredible lineup from behind his trap set. The glory of V is that forty percent of the quintet is trumpeter Terence Blanchard and pianist Geri Allen. Might as well admit it folks, Allen is my current co-fave piano player (along with Philippe Saisse), and her musical attitude on V jolts this session in a masterful way. In his liner notes Peterson credits Allen as being "the X factor" that makes V soar with vitality, humor and urgency. It's pointless to isolate tracks—they're all killers. Have mercy and play loud. Peterson is typical of the young, talented, aggressive drummers that are causing major talk in Jazz circles these days.

ANGLES - MICHAEL PEDICIN, JR. (OPTIMISM)

Here's one that's guaranteed to grow on you. Tenor/soprano sax player Michael Pedicin Jr., like Gary Herbig, is an impressive hired gun who has gigged with Bowie (David, that is), Mangione and Grover Washington, Jr. "Another Waltz" opens the CD with a gospel/blues 3/4 swing. Equally significant is the follow-up track, "The Glass Man," featuring Eddie Gomez and Peter Erskine. Consider Michael Pedicin's Angles. The sax player behind all those glorious Philadelphia International/CBS hits deserves a listen just on that merit alone.

FINE YOUNG CANNIBALS

THE REIVERS

"VOICES OF BABYLON" - THE OUTFIELD (COLUMBIA)

The Outfield play the field deeper and deeper. "Voices Of Babylon" is a textural standoff between layers of spacey keyboards and a mountain of floating guitar chords and slicing leads. Like the instruments, the vocals are stacked in layers. This triple-play tape flows like a continuous well-sung and played loop. "EVERLASTING LOVE" - HOWARD JONES (ELEKTRA)

A beautiful moment in popular music! Howard Jones features a cascade of deep bass, creating illusions of guitar and percussion on this magnificent first single from Cross That Line. With Chris Hughes, Ross Cullum and Ian Stanley (who worked magnificently with pop experimenters Wang Chung), Jones keeps a steady hand on the electronics, giving the instruments and voices organic backbones. An outstanding piece of work!

"BRING IT BACK AGAIN" - STRAY CATS (EMI)

Brian Setzer, Slim Jim Phantom and Lee Rocker stage a reunion of sorts. By re-enlisting Dave Edmunds, these Cats are back interpreting the spirit of Eddie Cochran and Gene Vincent. Edmunds is a stickler when it comes to recreating that fifties sound, right down to the twacking snare drum, dirty guitar and spare bass.

"HERE I AM" - LYLE LOVETT (CURB/MCA)

This is the opening song for Lyle's latest roadshow, and if the spoken intro sounds unusual—well, that's because Lyle Lovett is not really of this musical solar system. His

NEW RELEASES

"Large Band" packs a wallop and is developing a "large" following. If you've got him pegged as strictly Country, watch out. He's got a journalism degree and he ain't afraid to use it.

INDIGO GIRLS (EPIC)

Amy Ray and Emily Saliers are the Indigo Girls. Like Phil & Don and Paul & Art, these two sing together as if they share the same heart and hands. Their closeness shows not only in their harmonies, but in how they use their acoustic-based melodies to recall the complexities of adolescence. REM producer Scott Litt keeps things transparent and simple, letting the chemistry of this duo's experiences ring true. I was grabbed by the opening "Closer To Fine." That's REM's Michael Stipe playing a major vocal role in "Kid Fears." On "Tried To Be True," the back-up band is REM with Emily on lead guitar.

IS THIS ALL OF US? - PILGRIM SOULS (COLUMBIA)

Pilgrim Souls are a ragged, rowdy four piece who play their rock n roll with frayed nerve-endings. Hailing from New York City, the Souls most recently toured the Northeast with Ireland's In Tua Nua. Is This All Us? is a ripping dash of rough guitar playing and break-neck vocals. Guitarists Marc Jacoby and Danny Yetnikoff collide with an almost hardcore severity. The band lashes away best on "5:38 To Alcatraz," "2 Lanes" and "Letterbox." My favorite is still the train song, "Train's Gotta Roll On."

AFTER THE WAR - GARY MOORE (VIRGIN)

Guitarist Gary Moore, with the help of his band and singer Ozzy Osbourne, records a piece that will stir up some controversy on the hard rock front. Using a cavernous back-beat drummer similar to John Bonham as well as Kashmir-like strings, "Led Clones" addresses the recent ravaging Led Zepelin's copyright has taken at the hands of younger, less talented metal merchants. Like Jesus in the temple, this song attempts to address a purge of the "house of the holy" from snake oil peddlers and thieves. One hitch, though. What if Gary's record takes off as a result of this anthem? Will he then essentially be joining in on the rape and plunder? Why not give a listen, and let the listeners decide?

"WITCHDOCTOR" - SIDEWINDERS (MAMMOTH/RCA)

From out of the Carolinas, Mammoth Records brings us the hard twang of Tucson's Sidewinders. This "Witchdoctor" has nothing to do with "oo-ee oo-ah-ah ting-tang-walla-walla-bing-bang." Instead this is four minutes of piledriving four piece rock. Turn it up loud and tell it to the witchdoctor.

FLIP-FLOP - GUADALCANAL DIARY (ELEKTRA)

From the same neck of the woods (and same manager) as the brand new Indigo Girls, Guadalcanal Diary venture with a consistent work of flip-flop, sing-song, bam-boom ping-pong. As drumbeats reverberate and dance off the walls, the vocals sound sneakily similar to early Moody Blues or Emerson, Lake & Palmer. But don't worry, Don Dixon sees to it that the music is forceful and hip. If I can remember straight, this is the Diary's rowdiest outing yet. "The Likes Of You" definitely doesn't follow in the steps of label mates 10,000 Maniacs—this baby rocks. Trax: "Look Up!," "Pretty Is As Pretty Does" and "Always Saturday." KZ

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO by Peter Standish

Elvis Costello is dangling at the top as 20% chart points separates him from #4 XTC, and everyone in between is sandwiched equally. XTC looks like it will explode momentarily, judging by the huge response of Patrick Ferrise-WWVU ("We had a successful listening party for our staff and listeners at a local retailer and gave away CD's"), Brian Davis-WDCR, Debbie Klayman-WICB, Marcia "Scuffball" Woytaszek-WSMU ("Tons of calls"), Kim Saade-WRAS ("Monster phones") and Phil Manning-WOXY ("#1 requested"). The release of the full album had an obvious impact for Fine Young Cannibals who are a giant item for Paul Kriegler-KRCK ("#1 seller, sold out at some stores"), Jeanne Atwood-WDST, Rich Robinson-WHTG, Chris Sheppard-CFNY ("#2 requested"), Bruce McDonald-WFNX ("#1 requested"). Robyn Hitchcock is our Top Tip, with a spectacular debut at #16 and combustible response from Andy Miller-WUOG, Bill Gruber-WAPS and Mark Miller-KABL. With so much action on the chart, the Thrashing Doves and Guadalcanal Diary are overshadowed in the headlines, but behind-the-scenes they are clear Top Five challengers. Full Fathom Five and Lyle Lovett pump up the volume, and both could be building a serious assault. Theloni-ous Monster is #1 Most Added. It debuts at #41 and is anticipating a big leap next week. Our Record To Watch is De La Soul, currently pushing the buttons of Greg Vegas-WXCI, Dave Mills-WPRB ("The hottest thing here in three years — gained big publicity in our campus newspaper"), Chris Crowley-WUSB ("Burning up a storm — rap with a twist"), Gary Downs-KUCI, Gil Creel-WTUL, Robbie "HR" Fung-KFSR, Glen Booth-WXYC and Dorothy Stefanski-KXLU. AROUND THE HORN MISC. Josh Rosenthal-WCDB is lobbying the Bong Water single "Porpoise Song" while Bob Weyersberg-WUNH is nominating the Red Temple Spirits album as his pick of the year. Steve Masters-LIVE 105 is hot on these imports; "You're No Good" (the B-side to Elvis Costello's single); "Nude" by Dead or Alive (Japanese import); "Ever Lasting Love" by Howard Jones; "Free Mason" by Boxcar ("Kind of electronic...from Australia and accessible") and the new single from New Model Army "Stupid Questions." Lin Brehmer-WXRT offers his Tip For The Year: "The second song on the first side of Bob Mould's upcoming release." Finally, I'll offer my own tip for mandatory viewing: the new video of Hank Williams Jr. & Sr. single "There's A Tear In My Beer."

Bonfire - NEW MARINES (Chameleon)
Artists who dare to appeal simultaneously to the cutting edge and their more accessible mainstream cousins are susceptible to alienating both parties. They risk sounding too commercial for adventurous programmers, and too adventurous for commercial programmers. The New Marines thread that rare tiny hole where both segments overlap. "Get Right Up" is the best of a healthy pack of well-arranged songs that also includes "Ride On," "Stranger Than A Stranger," and "Radio Shack." Call Chameleon at (213) 973-8282.

Voodoo - THE DIRTY DOZEN BRASS BAND (Columbia)

No artists have walked a finer line than the Dirty Dozen Brass Band. They balance traditional roots with an adventurous contemporary flair. Lovers of unconventional styles of music have long recognized this New Orleans institution. "It's All Over Now" features vocals by Dr. John, and will probably draw most of the initial attention — especially from those just introduced to the band. But give a shot to "Oop Pop A Dah" (with Dizzy Gillespie singing and playing trumpet), the instrumentals "Gemini Rising," "Moose The Mooche" (with Branford Marsalis on sax), "Voodoo," and a cover of Stevie Wonder's "Don't Drive Drunk." With their tapestry of trumpets, saxophones, trombones, percussion and a simple snare drum the DDBB sound unlike anything else you'll hear. They are a shining example of America's rich musical diversity, and Voodoo is certainly one of '89's best!

Tim "Sting" Hyde (PolyGram) with Linda "O'Ryan The Hunter" (KUSF) at the KUSF/Slash Records brunch the day after the Gavin Seminar.

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

EASTERHOUSE - Come Out Fighting
(Columbia)

Songwriter/singer Andy Perry is really a one-man band who called on some musician buddies to assist him on a real scorcher. It's just as powerful as one of Mike Tyson's best knockout punches. Late flash from Boston where Jerry McKenna at KISS108 reports that it won his nightly battle on two consecutive nights, against tough competition. He feels "it's exactly the kind of progressive, uptempo track Top 40 needs right now."

DURANDURAN - Do You Believe In Shame?
(Capitol)

Shifting into a new mode Simon, John and Nick offer a change of pace that is mesmerizing. Is it just me and my assistant Annette Lai, or does the melody of the old hit "Suzie-Q" come to mind when listening to this song?

SAMANTHA FOX - I Only Wanna Be With You
(live/RCA)

You know a song is great when it keeps getting covered over and over again. The Bay City Rollers, The Tourists (Annie Lennox and Dave Stewart's old band) and Nicolette Larson have offered their renditions. The original by Dusty Springfield in 1964 has always been a personal favorite and this Stock Aitken Waterman production tops all that've come around since then.

JIMMY HARNEN W/SYNCH - Where Are You Now?
(WTG/CBS)

Radio continues to revive releases that didn't happen their first time out. Known simply as Synch when it was first issued in 1986, this tasty pop ballad already boasts a HIT FACTOR of 36%! It's top ten at WDFX Detroit, WKTI Milwaukee and KDWB Minneapolis. The big question is—will these guys tour with Sheriff?

HOWARD JONES - Everlasting Love
(Elektra)

"HoJo's" always been a darling of the hip alternative set and it's been awhile since he's found a home in Top 40-land. Here's a bouncy, upbeat appeal for true love that's just right for those who'll be getting spring fever soon.

CHRIS REA - Working On It
(Geffen)

Best remembered for his smash "Fool (If You Think It's Over)" his newest effort is something quite different. Early believers Brian Burns and Gary Franklin at KXXR Kansas City jumped on it as an album track and take it 7-6 this week. An explosive rocker with a hot chorus.

EVAN ROGERS - Call My Heart Your Home
(Capitol)

Though not a household name, Evan's voice should be familiar to millions of Top 40 listeners who heard him as the lead singer of Heatwave. This solo effort, which he co-wrote, co-produced and co-arranged caught my ear right away.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

FINE YOUNG CANNIBALS - The Raw And The Cooked
(IRS/MCA)

When they made their first album, this trio of Roland Gift, David Steele and Andy Cox got as much attention for their name as they did for their music. Connotations of the exotic and primitive overwhelmed reality. But even early on, the FYC's offered substantially accessible pop music. Now with The Raw And The Cooked they've trimmed even the slightest fat and bring the what's left to a quick boil. The FYC's are a band bubbling over with spirit. All the tracks are mixed hot. The percussive elements form the walls of every groove, to be filled to overflowing by the soulful voice of Gift, the clever keyboards of Steele and the punctual guitars of Cox. The album's aftertaste is one of pre modern and post alternative fusion—of Motown and Soho. Everything on the album has an edge to it—sharp enough to cut through the fleshy surface of mere music. The lead single, SHE DRIVES ME CRAZY, is being eaten alive by Top 40 radio even as we speak. DON'T LOOK BACK is a foreseeable single. DON'T LET IT GET YOU DOWN has a raw, Princely jive and I'M NOT SATISFIED, with its slap-happy rhythm machine, may be the best of the rest. It's time to take Fine Young Cannibals seriously, though as a fellow punster I couldn't resist re-titling this album Fit For Human Consumption, Well Done or Guess Who's Coming To Dinner?

“Teardrops”

DAVE SHOLIN PERSONAL PICK

WOMACK & WOMACK - Teardrops

Sam Cooke's daughter Linda met Bobby Womack's brother Cecil when they were just kids. Today Cecil and Linda are husband and wife with a long string of credits that hopefully, will include this song in the near future. Calls have been going through the roof at KISS 108 Boston where it's been most requested for the past two weeks. Also on at PRO/FM Providence. Call me if you can sit still through it or better yet, check your pulse.
