KABRICH LEAVES Q105

"I'm ending the decade the same way I entered it—out of work and looking for someone to give me an opportunity to prove myself," said Q105-Tampa PD Randy Kabrich, who handed in his resignation this week.

It's been quite a year for Kabrich. Beginning in February, with the blessing of Edens' President Michael Osterhout, he spent a few months in a bi-coastal mode working side-by-side with Scott Shannon starting up Pirate Radio in Los Angeles. A few months later, after Pirate made its splash, he settled back in at Q105.

His decision to leave, he says, comes from a desire for a higher position. "Essentially I'm looking for a Station Manager position. I'm leaving here because there isn't a Station Manager's position within this company," Kabrich told the Gavin Report. "I hate to leave," he continued, "but feel it's only fair that the PD at WRBQ can develop a long range goal and carry it out, in light of the new competition. As nothing was available at Edens to help me attain my future goals, I am looking outside the company."

Kabrich, who's been at Q105 for 4-1/2 years, has given a five week notice. He'll be at the station until January 15.

"I feel this is a great company...but hope I can prove myself in upper management and if the opportunity ever presented itself, that Edens would ask me back," he closed.

BOWEN TAKES SHOP TO CAPITOL

Jimmy Bowen has dissolved Universal Records and taken that label's entire roster over to Capitol Records. The new Capitol/Nashville label will combine artists from both companies onto the same roster. The short-lived Universal Records was distributed by MCA. Capitol/Nashville will be distributed through CEMA Distribution.

"By combining these two excellent artist rosters, Capitol/Nashville will immediately become a major contender in the music field," said Bowen whose artist list includes Lacy J. Dalton, Eddie Rabbitt and Larry Gatlin & The Gatlin Brothers Band.

Eleven Universal staff members will accompany Bowen to Capitol/Nashville, and nine existing staff members will remain. Sources within the label say current Capitol Country label chief Jim Fogelson has been offered a consultancy deal, which he reportedly has accepted; producer Jerry Crutchfield is apparently mulling over a proposed production deal.

"Jimmy Bowen makes things happen," said Capitol-EMI Music President and CEO Joe Smith. "His successes at other labels are well known and we expect him to bring Capitol back to the prominence it once enjoyed in Nashville."

Arbitron To Increase Sample Sizes

In a move aimed at stemming broadcaster complaints, Arbitron will increase its radio metro sample sizes by 10% at no additional cost to customers. Arbitron decided to make the move after meeting last week with its Radio Advisory Council. Sample upgrades will start being made in the Fall '90 sweep, and the adjustments will be completed effective with the Fall '91 survey.

Since 1987 Arbitron had, in some markets, been trimming the number of usable diaries received—although trying to stay above the sample goal for each respective market. Nevertheless, stations saw the sample slippage

McNally Goes Live

Pat McNally, popular GM at KFRG (Magic 61) in San Francisco, has been appointed General Manager at Live 105, also in San Francisco. McNally replaces Ed Krampf, who is leaving the station after buying KXPT-Oxnard.

McNally has spent the past three years at Magic 61, bringing the station's ratings up to a respectable 3 share, after the station suffered slumping numbers for two years prior to his arrival. He's also worked at WAVA-Washington and WHN/WAPP-New York.

"LIVE 105 has developed a reputation nationally as an innovative radio station," said McNally. "I look forward to working with the excellent team Ed Krampf set up."

as a cause for concern with regard to reliability. Arbitron's decision should allay that feeling. As Arbitron Vice President Rhody Bosley told Gavin, "We're now going to be back to the '87 sample levels, at no cost to our subscribers. We think that's listening to our customers."

In addition to the announcement regarding sample size growth, Arbitron also saw other key results. According to Bosley, "We're going to offer stations the chance to order, at a nominal surcharge, extra samples for their entire metro. Also, we're adding twenty-one markets to the list of metros measured continuously (48 weeks per year) effective Winter '91. Finally, fifteen markets that previously had just one survey yearly will, effective next Fall, see two sweeps annually. Details as to the markets affected by the last two statements will be forthcoming."

SPECIAL NOTE: Due to a light year-end issue (12/22), the winners of Jhan Hiber's First Annual Research Quiz will be announced in our January 15, 1990 issue.

ROTATIONS

Look for major announcements/promotions for Epic's Polly Anthony and former A&M National Promotion Director Charley Lake. Announcements should come at the beginning of the New Year...No word on who'll replace Mike Bone at Chrysalis—and for that matter, no official word on where Mike's going to land. Wouldn't it be a joke on us if he didn't end up at Disney's new Hollywood Records? But seriously, word has it that Mr. Bone and his phone have been seen in Tinseltown shopping for a Bone Home...The same source that gave us the word on Bone says there'll be bloodletting at the still-young WTG soon. Apparently Dave Urso's the first to go, with more to follow...John Sigler! Are you as good looking as you sound?...Geffen's local San Francisco rep Warren Christensen is in Los Angeles "for the company party," but we hear it may be for good...Vickie Leben has joined RCA Records as Senior Director, National Promotion. She comes from Marketing Consultants...

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Now that 1989 is rapidly becoming history and the year's Top 100 songs are in the record book, we have the opportunity to size up the year musically. How does it compare with the rest of the 1980s and how does it rate on its own? Judging by an unscientific sampling of a handful of Top 40 correspondents, 1989 falls somewhere between a B or, at the worst, a B-. Not too bad, but the comments and grades had quite a range. One major Midwest programmer gave the year a D stating emphatically, "D for disappointing, dull and depressing. The only song Top 40 will play a year from now will be Richard Marx's 'Right Here Waiting.' The rest of the music this year gets a D for disposable." Yet another PD from the Midwest went in the other direction, giving 1989's music an A- due to "better variety in the spring and summer and more mainstream material this year," in addition to "lots of superstar artists reappearing." These two programmers represent the diverse opinions on the subject. The differences support the well-worn axiom, "Beauty is in the eye of the beholder." Objectivity is often difficult when it comes to something, like music, that deserves an emotional, passionate response from those who truly care about it. At the same time, it's important to separate our own feelings from the audience's if they don't concur. I've lost track of the times I heard a song I didn't care for personally, but was destined to be a hit. For better or worse, depending on how you feel about 1989's big winners, these were the songs consumers purchased and listeners asked for or said they liked. New labels starting up in 1990 will offer more opportunity for those who create the music, but will also require music programmers to do more homework, listening and researching releases in this increasingly competitive period. It's only fair to the writers, performers, the music industry and yourself. You owe it to those customers who spend time listening to the daily entertainment menu you provide each day of the year.

Closing out 1989 with the third single release from "Full Moon Fever," TOM PETTY increases his HIT FACTOR 47% to 68% and is well on the way to getting his biggest hit from the album. At WQID Biloxi, MS it takes a 22-15 move and MD Pat McGowan suggests keeping it fresh by playing the live version, which is the last track on the CD version of the album. Also heads into the top fifteen at 95XXX 18-14, WBBQ 21-15, Q95FM 20-13, KYYY 23-15, WQIO 20-15, KFTZ 25-14, 99KG 18-13, WXXQ 20-15, OK95 18-9, KWIN 17-11 and KISS 108 20-15.

Instant reaction is turning into immediate top thirty chart action for EXPOSE who take HOT honors this week and make it look easy. Exploding into the top ten at WIOQ Philadelphia 23-9, they come on strong at Y108 #28, POWER 104 #23, Y97 #25, WNKO #25, KISS 108 #16, EAGLE 106 #26, WPLJ #21, Y106 #27, KKSS #22, FM102 #24, KITY #19, 102QQ #29, Y100 #24, etc.

After just one week POWER 99.9 KHI Ocean City, MD gives ROXETTE a fifteen point jump 39-24! New MD Kevin Ocean reports it #2 in requests and doing especially well 18-34. Adds include KWSS, WTIC/FM, 92X, KZ103, WPFM, Q105, POWER 99, WLXR, WKLQ, WNVZ, KRQ, Z104, LG73, KFFM, KHTT, KOZE, KPXR and WAVA.

Week after week programmers comment about MICHAEL DAMIAN getting excellent research results. That's confirmed again at WBNQ Bloomington, IL, where it moves 19-16 and PD Mike Justin notes, "it's testing extremely well with Women 18-34." Chad Brueske, MD at KXSS St. Cloud, MN, also reports it's testing well in callout and takes it close to the top twenty, 29-21. Goes top fifteen at KFTZ Idaho Falls, ID 19-15 where PD Rich Summers says most requests are adult women. Holds steady at #2 for Y108 Denver.

As expected, PAULA ABDUL corners the MOST ADDED title with just about everyone coming to the party for her sixth release. KSIQ Imperial Valley, CA adds it at #23 and PD Tony Dee says it's been his most-requested tune for the past three days. Top 30 at KRQ, ENERGY 96.5, KXSS, WHYT, KS104, Z100 Portland, KWXX, KDON, Y108, X100, KMEL, KWSS, HOT 97, B94, 102QQ, WNSL, 93QID and KBIU.

WKSQ Ellsworth/Bangor, ME jumps GLORIA ESTEFAN 20-13 after only two weeks. PD/MD Tim Moore reports top five phones, mostly adult female. New on PRO/FM, WIOQ, EAGLE 106, WPLJ, WMME, WWCK, Q95FM, WIOQ, WOVV, POWER 96, Y95, 93Q, KRQ, KZZP, POWER 104, FM102, KYYA and Q105.

HIT FACTOR on FIONA and KIP WINGER reaches 26% making it into the top twenty at KOZE Lewiston, ID 26-19. MD Jay McCall notes confusion at retail with, "people buying Winger's album thinking the song is the latest by the band." He's now emphasizing on-air that it's on Fiona's album. The song's been #1 on his "Top Five At Nine" for the past three nights. John Ford, PD at KWYR Winner, SD, reports a 13-8 gain and logs top five requests nightly with sales kicking in.

Twenty-four new believers in THE COVER GIRLS who are gaining big at WJMX 40-30, 102QQ 29-21, WFMF 29-24, KITY 20-13, POWER 104 28-20, B95 21-15, KMEL 26-22, KZOU 29-21, etc. At KTDR Del Rio, TX—a market 67% Hispanic—PD/MD J.C. Crisp takes it 30-21, getting "top five calls—all female—all ages." Added at KKQV, KGLI, WWCK, KEZY, Y108, KISN, KC101, POWER 96, WRCK, WKPE, KZOR, WWUF and WMMY.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH from D-MOB goes 27-22 at Q106 San Diego and Asst. PD

Kevin Weatherly says it's especially strong with women, both teens and adults. Hot at KMEL San Francisco where it heads into the top fifteen, 21-15. New on KZOU, WCGQ, POWER 98, KISS 108, K106, WHHY, KKXX, KWTX, KITY and KDLK.

KISS 108 Boston charts MARCIA GRIFFITHS 28-20 and MD Jerry McKenna describes it as, "an ADULT dance record—notably adult females," getting calls from offices. There's retail activity on the 12-inch, plus it's researching top ten. Very strong in Washington, D.C. at Q107 12-10 and WAVA 24-20 as well as PRO/FM Providence 31-24 and WIOQ Philly 28-17.

NOTE: Next week's issue will be our last for the year. We'll take a two week holiday break and return re-charged and ready to take reports again on Monday January 8, 1990.

ON MANAGEMENT

by Oren Harari

CUSTOMER SERVICE
EXTENDS TO THE RESTROOM

A local columnist recently castigated public toilets as the scourge of modern urban life. Paying for the privilege seemed utterly degrading to him. I can see his point, and it reminds me of a recent management seminar in which the President of a major chain of nationwide pharmacies said the following:

"We used to have a policy which very explicitly prohibited anyone other than an employee to use the toilet in the store. Imagine—a paying customer who needs to go to the bathroom couldn't do it in any one of our stores—and we talk about customer service! Sure, there's always rationales for such a policy, but they're basically rationalizations for stupidity. Once we realized how stupid our policy was, we junked it. We've even gone a step further. Now we permit anyone—customer or not—to use the facilities. We know we've won over some new customers that way."

I told this story to some colleagues. Boy, did that unleash a storm! Apparently, everyone has their own horror story of a desperate need to use the restroom coupled with a flat "no" or "sorry" by stubborn store owners or managers. Let me share one particular story with you, because it illustrates a basic principle in customer service. It was told to me by a successful professional:

A friend of mine was preparing for a business trip to Moscow. On the day I visited him, he was on his way to pick up some travelers' checks and a videotape which he planned to present as a gift to his Russian host. I accompanied him, and as we approached the bank, I said that I needed to use the men's room; he said he did too. So after he completed his transaction we asked to use a restroom.

"Sorry," said the teller. "We don't have any restrooms."

We were polite and thanked the clerk. We left the bank and only outside did we get our delayed reaction. "What the hell did she mean that there aren't any restrooms?" exploded my friend. "Is she expected to hold it in for eight hours? Where does she go? Sure there's a restroom in there. It's just not for customers! Can you believe that! I've just finished a transaction involving two thousand dollars. I run tens of thousands of dollars from my business weekly through that bank, and they don't even have the decency to let me take a leak. It makes me wonder about this bank."

Interestingly, I'd had the same reaction, and had concluded—perhaps irrationally, but who cares—that I'd never bring my account into that bank.

Also interestingly, both of us were angrier at the bank than at the teller, because we both knew that she was following a policy developed by people who rarely interacted with the average customer or who no doubt had a restroom readily available to them.

Still needing to relieve ourselves, we walked a couple of blocks to the video store. No public toilets, of course, and we knew we'd never get an affirmative if—heaven forbid—we went into any of the stores we were passing. But at the video store, while paying for the video once again we asked to use the facilities. Same answer as in the bank, and on top of that nobody knew where we could find facilities that would accept us.

This time I got pissed off, no pun intended. After reading the riot act to the poor joker who served us,

As employees, how often have we been told to follow directives coming down from out-of-touch management...

I received some sympathy from him and a piece of advice: "Talk to my manager."

Unbelievable. A store clerk did not have the authority to allow two customers who had just made a purchase to use the restroom. He had to get permission from Big Daddy—his twenty-four year old manager who might be persuaded to let two men in their forties go use the head. Talk about powerless employees. Talk about rotten customer service. I see it all the time, in situations that have nothing to do with restrooms.

I think the key is that gentleman's last sentence. The toilet issue illustrates a deeper, more pervasive problem in many organizations: Policies (read "management") which weaken employees to the point that they don't think for themselves and instead rigidly follow counterproductive actions—actions which are either inefficient or actions that are insensitive to customer needs. Think about it. As employees, how often have we been told to follow directives coming down from out-of-touch management-directives we knew were costly, wasteful, or even dumb? As customers, how often have we gotten furious with company insensitivity and bureaucratic delays, only to be told by an employee, "Hey, buddy, I don't make the rules here. I just follow 'em." Exactly.

The results? Cost-inefficiency on one side of the coin, dissatisfied customers on the other. It's a bad coin all around, regardless of whether or not you're inserting it into a pay toilet. ●

HERE AND THERE

by Sheila Rene

Fiona checked in the other day before heading out to rehearsal with her new touring band which features Laura McDonald on bass, Gene Allen on guitar, Allen Hewett on keyboards and Nate Winger (Kip's brother) on drums. Her new album has produced a very popular duet with Kip Winger who helped rewrite the song "Everything You Do (You're Sexing Me)." Kip and Fiona have been friends for some time but it was producer Beau Hill who suggested the collaboration. Hill and Keith Olsen produced Fiona's third album for Atlantic Records, Heart Like A Gun. Although she has had some experience in movies and recently did a stint on MTV, she says of her acting, "It's ok. I'm not interested in acting anymore, not a bit. It's my music that really excites me now. 'Here It Comes Again' was just picked today as the new single and I'm really happy." A club tour will begin in Santa Barbara this month...

Bits & Pieces: Mike Tramp and White Lion had just completed their U.S. and Japanese tour schedule when he learned that he had to have his tonsils removed. He's recouping in Los Angeles and getting ready to begin the next album project...The new Alice Cooper single, "House Of Fire" was written by none other than Ms. Joan Jett who will have her own album on your turntables by January...Laura Branigan is in the studio putting the finishing touches on her new Atlantic album due in February 1990. Richard Perry is producing the cuts at Village Recording, while Peter Wolf is mixing the tracks at Cherokee...That's Flea from the Red Hot Chili Peppers in Back To The Future II, playing Michael J. Fox's school buddy...While the The's world tour is on hold until January 23rd, guitarist Johnny Marr is producing, playing guitar and co-writing with New Order's Bernard Sumner on a project called "Electronic." The upcoming album will feature drummer David Palmer and a guest appearance from the Pet Shop Boys. The first single is likely to be "Getting Away With It"...Dee Snider, ex-Twisted Sister, has begun work on an album with his new group, The Desperados. The band includes former Iron Maiden drummer Clive Burr and former Gillan guitarist Bernie Torme...Tears

For Fears will tour with a 10 piece band in 1990. They kick off their world tour in the U.K. in January. It will take them to "Rock In Rio" in Brazil at the end of January and then to North America by springtime... Aerosmith's first United Kingdom tour in 12 years brought out roaring crowds and sold-out shows. At the Hammersmith Odeon—renamed Aerosmith Odeon for their two shows—Whitesnake's vocalist David Coverdale joined them for a rousing version of the Beatle classic, "I'm Down." Guests on hand for the two nights included Robert Plant, Ozzy Osbourne, Richard Marx, Brian May of Queen and members of Iron Maiden...After the holidays, Anthrax will begin recording their next album. They play next weekend at L'Amour in Brooklyn, billed as "Satan's Lounge Band."...

Another phoner: EMI fixed me up with the vocalist and harmonica whiz from Cats in Boots, Joel Ellis. This guy moved to California and pursued a career in electronic engineering before he made the decision to front his own band comprised of ex-bandmates from Ohio and Texas. "We're already working on the second album even though we have a couple more singles to try out on this debut album," he said. I have a studio in my apartment and just bought a piano today. I'm really excited. The next single is 'Her Monkey' and then I'd like to release 'Whip It Out' and 'Long, Long Way From Home.' Ellis and his band were able to build a huge following in Japan through the rock magazines who sold their music by mail order. They eventually attracted the attention of eleven labels. Guitarist Takashi "Jam" O'Hashi of Seikima II was already a success in Japan. Randii Meers had already done some drumming for Black Oak Arkansas. They were joined by bassist Yasuhiro "Butch" Hatae and now, enter Mark Opitz who produced the album, Kicked And Klawed. "Time was tight, but Mark blew off Easter and his kid's birthday to work with us," beamed Joel. The band just finished a Z-Rock tour and they're being considered for some really big outings in 1990. Ellis was looking forward to a night at LA's China Club where Elton John would perform and Paul McCartney, another big influence, was on the guest list...

Country Christmas: Capitol Records artist Dan Seals will take part in a special three-hour international broadcast on December 15 via The Discovery Channel entitled "Christmas With The Stars: An International Earthquake Benefit." P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

AN '80s RETROSPECTIVE CONTINUES

Last week we began looking back over the 1980s with a review of year-end columns through 1982. In the December 16, 1983 Gavin Report, this column took special note of the continued growth in the use of computers in radio, and the marketing by Sony of its SRF-A100 AM stereo/FM stereo portable radio, which could receive all the AM stereo systems. (The radio did not receive enough support from AM broadcasters and was subsequently discontinued, but Motorola continued placing its C-Quam AM stereo receivers in cars and trucks, thus making their "C-Quam" system the de facto AM stereo standard worldwide.)

S.C.A. development by FM stations, as an additional profit center, received much attention in 1983; and noted in this column as "the two most notable events in programming in the year in my opinion were the return to Top 40 radio, thanks primarily to the relentless efforts of the ageless consultant Mike Joseph, who has been proving for over two decades that basic Top 40 always works, and never goes out of style with the listener—and the decline in Country programming, due entirely to the departure from the format by the stations who hoped to cash in on an 'urban cowboy' fad, and found the fad was dead before their bandwagon even got moving. This prompted the disgruntled departers to announce that the Country audience is in a decline. Ridiculous. Established and responsive Country stations are growing, if anything; Country is about as eternal as Top 40—if it's done right."

Here's an item from Billboard magazine, September 1, 1984: "For the first time in its 26-year history, sweeping changes—including the acceptance of advertising—have come to one of the industry's most respected tip sheets, The Gavin Report... 'We're expanding the report to an average of 40 pages (from its current 27),' explains Gavin Top 40 editor and KFRC personality Dave Sholin, who, along with a group of employees, purchased the paper from founder Bill Gavin last year.

" 'We'll include more features, editorials, interviews and articles,' says Sholin, adding that the changes necessitated a revised policy toward the acceptance of advertising, which was previously forbidden. 'We wanted to grow and give our subscribers more information for their money.' In addition to the aforementioned changes, chart analysis will expand to encompass all music formats. Other than a major hike in subscription prices, advertising provided the only viable financial solution. To that end, marketing consultants Bob and Lou Galliani have been signed to represent the Report." (Later in the '80s, full-color covers were introduced.)

For the last Gavin issue of author George Orwell's dreaded 1984, this column concentrated on the further advance of the digital computer chip in broadcast electronics, and the smashing success of "personality-based Top 40" at WHTZ and KIIS in the United States' first and second biggest markets.

The February 1, 1985, issue of this magazine carried a cover picture of the man who founded the Gavin Report and whose vision had guided it throughout its history, and the sad caption "Bill Gavin, 1907-1985." There was a joint statement from the staff: "Bill's legacy will always be this publication. Bill (Gavin) was a man of impeccable credentials, unquestioned ethics and an obsession for objectivity. Bill Gavin's death comes as an extreme disappointment to any and all who've had the opportunity to know him...Bill Gavin was the patron saint of music radio. It was apparent to all who knew him that he was not in the business to get rich...Bill Gavin took particular pride in helping mold the career ethics of young broadcasters. Bill Gavin takes with him the memories of a good life—a life filled with the enriching experiences of a loving family, caring friends, and good music." His spirit still guides this column, and the publication in which it appears.

In our "Looking Back at 1985" column, the top trend noted was "AM operators falling victim to unreasoning fear...This year we saw stations that were still successful pull the ripcord and make a defensive change—generally, as usual, to their own detriment." This trend is unfortunately still with us. In 1985 an all-weather format bowed in Minneapolis-St. Paul—briefly. We speculated that the perpetrators might have forgotten that to get any "quarter hour shares" they have to keep people listening at least five consecutive minutes in a quarter hour, and that an all-weather format had the potential to have the #1 come in a market—and no average quarter hour shares at all, making it useless as an advertising medium! We may have been right; the format very rapidly disappeared, leaving such service to the NOAA VHF "weather radio" stations around the country.

In the 1986 year-end column, we commented, "If there were a major trend, it would be that the CD ceased being a novelty and now seems on a track towards replacing LP's and perhaps tapes for commercial music releases. With their digital technology, CD's eliminate clicks, pops, hiss, pressing distortion, and [the necessity for] compressed dynamic range..."

Bill (Gavin) was a man of impeccable credentials, unquestioned ethics and an obsession for objectivity.

"No big, trendy, splashy format swept the country in 1986, although the 'format of the year,' based on continuing quiet gains, was probably Urban Contemporary...For daytime AM's, 1986 was the year that all the promised pre/post-sunset broadcasting was finally allowed—with many stations disappointed by the results...Increasing interference on the AM band resulted, as Class IV's concluded their decades-long campaign to increase nighttime power by being allowed 1 kw full time, and the (formerly) 'clear channels' continued to gain new stations in many parts of the country." And 1986 was also the year that the NRSC developed, and the NAB endorsed, the AM pre-emphasis curve ("NRSC-1") which must be adopted by AM stations by summer 1990. 1986 also saw the debut through CBS Labs and the NAB of the "FMX" process of transmitting stereo in more noise-free fashion; but FMX was delayed in acceptance then, as now, by conflicting reports of possible degradation of the FMX-encoded signal in marginal or difficult terrain. Then, as now, "until the matter is resolved and all problems refined out of the system, the FMX process is unlikely to become a standard."

Next week, in 1989's final issue of the Gavin Report, we'll finish our retrospective of the past ten years and bring it right up to the present.

APOLOGY: In last week's column (12/8) a typographical error put 15 billion AM stereo receivers in the vehicles of the United States. The correct number is 15 million. Sorry for any confusion. ●

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

•BILLY JOEL

The reason his current single WE DIDN'T START THE FIRE begins with events in 1949 is Billy was born in May of that year.

•CHICAGO

A totally different mix of Chicago's latest single WHAT KIND OF MAN WOULD I BE appears on "Chicago XIX." The group has yet to shoot a video for the song, but expect to do so in early January.

•NENEH CHERRY

As far back as 1981 Neneh Cherry was recording with a British funk/rock band called Rip Rig & Panic. Neneh's stepfather, jazz trumpeter Don Cherry even recorded some sax solos for the group's 1982 album, "I Am Cold."

•PRINCE

Two years ago this month Warner Bros. pressed more than 200,000 copies of a Prince album which has yet to be released. "The Black Album," as it was to be known in the underground, was canceled at Prince's request. It has been seen in a few record stores for $15.

•TRACY CHAPMAN

Though Tracy's new album, "Crossroads" is available for sale in South Africa, no less than six tracks from the set are barred from South African radio by the country's Censorship Board.

•STYX

Former Styx members Tommy Shaw and Dennis DeYoung are teaming up with rocker Ted Nugent to form a new band called Damn Yankees.

•JANET JACKSON

Janet's latest album, "Rhythm Nation 1814," has sold more than one million copies a month since its late September release.

•BOOKER T. & THE M.G.s

Booker T. Jones, bassist Duck Dunn and guitarist Steve Cropper have agreed to re-form the old Booker T. & The M.G.s for a performance at next month's MIDEM music industry convention in Cannes, France.

•JIMMY BUFFETT

Buffett is currently working on a Broadway-style musical called "Rules Of The Road." Jimmy is writing with Glenn Frey and playwright Larry L. King, whose work includes "The Best Little Whorehouse In Texas."

•DON HENLEY

At the height of The Eagles' popularity in the mid-seventies Henley and Glenn Frey lived in the old Dorothy Lamour mansion in Hollywood. Henley describes the experience as similar to Neil Simon's Odd Couple, with Henley as the tidy housekeeper and Frey as the lovable slob.

•IAN McCULLOUGH

In 1978 McCullough formed a four-man band called THE CRUCIAL THREE and it included Julian Cope. McCullough then formed Echo & The Bunnymen while Cope went on to play in The Teardrop Explodes.

•PAUL McCARTNEY

Ten years ago this month, London was the scene of four nights of concerts for the benefit of the starving people of Kampuchea. Among the participants were The Clash, The Who, The Pretenders, Elvis Costello, Paul McCartney & Wings and McCartney's all-star Rockestra.

•BEACH BOYS

Though an ABC made-for-television movie about The Beach Boys is currently in production, according to their manager Tom Huletter, it was never authorized by the group. Producers will therefore have to rely on Beach Boys music which is no longer controlled by the band. The cast includes many unknowns, but St. Elsewhere's Bruce Greenwood is set to portray the late Dennis Wilson.

•WHITESNAKE

Founding member David Coverdale (ex-Deep Purple) recorded two solo albums in the late seventies, the first of which was titled Whitesnake. It was only after he recorded the two solo albums that Coverdale decided to create a group called Whitesnake. Original members included Micky Moody, Bernie Marsden and Neil Murray.

Twenty years ago this month The Dead shared the bill with the Rolling Stones at the infa-

•DAVE EDMUNDS

Dave's anxiously-awaited Capitol Records debut album "Closer To The Flame" is now set for release in late February.

•LUTHER VANDROSS

Included in Luther's new double "Best Of" album are two-tracks, THE GLOW OF LOVE and SEARCHING, which are actually from the pre-solo days when Luther was a member of the group Change.

HARLEM NIGHTS IN LOUISVILLE

GIRL'S NIGHT OUT IN CLEVELAND

PLEASE NOTE: We are now having our computer check your "this week's playlist" against your "last week's playlist" to check ourselves for coding errors and for possible records that were inadvertently left off the report. We won't be asking you for your drops or recurrents. Instead, we will read to you all the "missing titles" so that you can verify whether they're still on your list or no longer on your list. THOSE OF YOU WHO FAX YOUR LISTS, PLEASE NOTE:

You'll need to show a list at the bottom of your report of the records you are no longer showing on your playlist. The computer will automatically indicate them as dropped if it was on last week and left off this week. To avoid any confusion, indicate ALL heavy, medium, light, extra or added records each week. We do not limit the number of records a station may report. Our computer has an amazing capacity for storing information.

K.J. Holiday, WJDY-Salisbury, says TAMIKA PATTON's "Your Precious Love" is "one of the best treatments of Marvin Gaye's style I've heard. Eric Gable does an excellent job." Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, likes the third CHUCKII BOOKER single, saying "He hasn't failed me yet after two big hits." Jerry Silvers and Edd Nelson, WABD-

Clarksville, are saying the SHIRLEY BROWN & BOBBY WOMACK is getting requests, basically from young adults 25+. Chris Clay, KQXL-Baton Rouge likes the RUBY TURNER, which is our Hot record of the week, debuting on the chart at #37. "Great song, straight out of the mold of Soul II Soul and working in all demographics," says Chris. Earl Boston, WMGL-Charleston, comments on DE LA SOUL: "This new single is as strong as their #1 'Me, Myself & I' and if liked by all demos." Madhatter, WGOK-Mobile, is making SALT-N-PEPA his RTW. "They're trying their hand at singing and rapping and doing a great job of it—going to be a great record," says Mad. Hozie Mack, WFXC-Durham, makes S-N-P his RTW, too. Kenny Green, WRDW-Augusta, likes ARTHUR BAKER & AL GREEN, saying "This is THE record to watch!" Costee McNair, WBIL-Tuskegee, likes SOUL II SOUL, "Hot winner out of the box," and Greg Sampson, WQMG-Greensboro, makes it his RTW this week. Roy Sampson, WXYV/FM-Baltimore (are they related?) says the Soul II Soul is already getting requests there. When asked for his RTW, Michael Tee, WVOI-Toledo, chose the RHONDA CLARK, "Stay Here, Stay Near," and simply said, "I love this song!" We'll be taking calls one more week in 1989, Monday and Tuesday (December 18th & 19th) and then we'll be closed the week beginning December 25th and the week beginning January 1st. (Correction: Last week's Up & Coming has its "" accidentally deleted. They should have been listed on Soul II Soul, Willie Clayton, Seduction, Chill, Chuckii Booker, Salt-N-Pepa, and Fatboys, indicating their first week on the page. Sorry.) Ciao for now. Betty

NEW RELEASES by Brian Samson and John Martinucci

HEAVY D AND THE BOYZ - Gyrlz, They Love Me (MCA)

Heavy's looking for another hit. This third single from Big Tyme should take us well into 1990. He's penned and produced by Marley Marl and the overweight lover. Monogamy still seems to be a question with Heavy D.

C$ MONEY & D.J. CHASE - Ladies Can I Have Your Attention (Trumpet)

First Trumpet they brought us Terry Tate, then baladeer Quincy Patrick and First Lady Jeannette Walker. Now here's Rapsters C$ Money & D.J. Chase. Trumpet Records has expanded into rap with the debut of this dope duo. A funky guitar riff and tip street lyrics pave the way for hip-hop attention.

QUEEN LATIFA - Ladies First (Tommy Boy)

The reigning Queen of rap hails us with her second single from her debut album "All Hail The Queen." This year marks Rap's 10th anniversary, and Latifah and her producer The 45 King collaborates on this single that's out a message for the Divas of Hip Hop.

DOOM - Shake Your Body Down (Profile)

Doom, AKA Clarence Reed's an exclusive Grandmaster Flash project that debut's with this pumpin' Hip House tune. Flash describes Doom as a "talented, versatile diamond in the rough." As Rap enters a new decade, Flash adventures into an expanding format: Hip House. This universal alternative by the Grandmaster could be the prime example of the new cycle of Rap material coming in the 90's.

BAND AID II

Do They Know It's Christmas (Polydor)

A new version of Bob Geldof's '84 original made with the renewed purpose of aiding the people of Ethiopia who continue to die from hunger. Recorded in England just days ago, it features Kylie Minogue, Chris Rea, Cliff Richard, Bananarama and many more concerned singers and musicians.

EDDIE MONEY

Peace In Our Time (Columbia)

Timing is everything. Recorded in September between Tiananmen and Berlin, the song could become an anthem to those who at this very moment are reshaping swords into plowshares.

ALANNAH MYLES

Black Velvet (Atlantic)

This Canadian songstress is a major success at home and now is trying to conquer the U.S. Great bluesy melody with a sultry and salty vocal combine to make beautiful music.

KATHY MATTEA

Where've You Been (Mercury/PolyGram)

If storytelling songs won awards this song would take first place. This tear-wrenching tune should do well with the female demos. In case unfamiliar with Ms. Mattea, she currently won CMA's Female Vocalist of Year award for 1989.

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

Yes, Gavin is open for business and for station reports as usual on Monday, December 18th and Tuesday, December 19th. We'll publish an issue dated December 22nd and then be closed until Monday, January 8th at 8AM.

Two new entries to the top ten, ROD STEWART's "Downtown Train" is now the fourth most-mentioned record in A/C radio with 187 stations in five weeks. Among the new on-bound are KVIL, WMGI, WAIV, KBIG, KBOL, KHLT/FM and KRNO/FM. The other new entry, KAREN CARPENTER's "If I Had You" is up to 84% in HIT FACTOR from its 165 stations. Among the new are WTIC/AM, KROC/AM and WKLI/FM.

Hottest record of the week by a country mile is CHICAGO's "What Kind Of Man Would I Be." A four-week HIT FACTOR of 70% and 23 more ADDS this week including K101, WDAY/AM, KWLO, KXFM, WJBR, WMXC, KVIL, WIHN and KAER.

The CUTTING CREW is carving-out another A/C success story with their latest, "The Last Thing," as it leaps 30 to 23 on the chart and is now in serious rotations from 63% of its players. New for i107.7, KBOL, KO93, KJOY, KNOX, CLEAR107, KOFY/FM, KLWN, KLKC etc.

A/C's highest chart debut is GLORIA ESTEFAN's beautiful ballad, "Here We Are." Opening up at number 30, it'll be in the single digits early next month for sure. It's our number one MOST ADDED with 59 new including KOST, WFAS/FM, K103, KVIL, WALR, WGOL/FM, WJON, WFMK, KXLK, i107.7 and WQTU.

Second highest debut this week is SADAO WATANABE's lovely, "Any Other Fool" (one of sixty-three songs from the pen of Diane Warren currently charted.) Credit PATTI AUSTIN with the sultry vocals and 73% of its 71 stations for quality rotation. Commitments include WAFL, KSAL, KBLQ, WTPI, KSRF, WMT/FM, WJTW, WFMK, KFIG, KFOR and WELW in HEAVY.

No stranger to the A/C chart, KENNY G scores a "live" one with "Going Home." It comes home to roost at 23 more A/C's this week including WTWR, WWDE, WALR, KFYZ, WOKZ, KOFY/FM, WYRY, WAHR and KWEB.

This week's A/C TOP TIP was RECORD TO WATCH last week. JOE COCKER's "When The Night Comes" picked up 45 ADDS qualifying for MOST ADDED column again and making nearly half its airplay new. Significant ADDS from WAEB, WAIV, WRFC, WSKY, WZNY, KFYZ, KEZR, KO93, KTID/FM and B100. HEAVY rotation for KHLT/FM, WRCC, WKLI. This week in Top 40 Mr. Cocker has a top ten HIT and look for upward movement to continue in A/C thru the New Year.

NATALIE COLE returns to form with her new ballad, "Starting Over Again." It just misses being out of MOST ADDED, but any record with 57 ADDS anytime is a record to be reckoned with. Among those already starting are KYJC, WLIP, KHLT/FM, KBIG, WQNY, WAFL, KSGT, WJON, KSNM, KWLO, WTWR, WZNY, WDUZ, WOKY and WTPI.

STEPHEN BISHOP's "Mister Heartbreak" is among the MOST ADDED again this week with 30 new and 89 total. Among the new are WHAI, CKFM, KRKO, WZST, WVMT, WEBE/FM, WQNY, WBLG/FM, KDES and WMTR.

Even though it has been released previously, MICHAEL DAMIAN's "Christmas Time Without You" is the clear holiday favorite of A/C radio. It has been years since a Christmas song has made our MOST ADDED box, but there it is with 35 new including WQTU, WJON, KYMG/FM, KAAK, KXLK, KCMJ/FM, KYRE, KDES, KSRF and KKRK.

The RECORD TO WATCH is ARTHUR BAKER and the BACKBEAT DISCIPLES featuring AL GREEN. With those participants you would expect some kinda sound and let us say you won't be disappointed. Debuting in UP & COMING with a 33 total and among the new 17 disciples are WAFL, CKFM, WRCC, WMT/FM, KAEZ/FM, KKRK, KCRE, KSGT and KCMJ/FM.

JAZZ PROFILE

Confessions of an Art Pepper fan

by Kent Zimmerman

After I strayed off the Jazz path a few years back, two Damascus-like lights pushed me back into the fold. One was the emergence of CD and the realization of how damned great Jazz sounded on these small plastic five inch discs. The music of Sonny Rollins, John Coltrane and Miles Davis—especially their work recorded during the fabulous fifties—sounded like a million bucks. Saxophone Colossus, Workin', Blue Train—oh, the rediscovered joy. Like I said, that was reason number one.

Reason two was Art Pepper. Hearing Art Pepper Meets The Rhythm Section was a bright light that, at first, blinded me. And if you forgive me for barraging you with Biblical analogies, ever since that day I've felt the personal need to extol Art Pepper's underrated virtues to the world. But first, a few confessions.

Even though his later works on the Galaxy label were dutifully serviced to us at the Gavin Report during the late seventies/early eighties, the fire remained unkindled. Nearly five years ago, I walked into an audiophile store to purchase a pair of speakers. Uncomfortable around people who spend fifty dollars for monster-sized speaker wire, I was relieved to be waited on by a salesman who closely resembled a cartoon character—Huckleberry Hound, to be exact. Ultimately, I returned the fru-fru British speakers—my goofy two hundred dollar warriors sounded just great—but on my way out the door, the salesman, knowing that I worked with music, asked me if I had a copy of Art Pepper's Straight Life autobiography, possibly out-of-print at the time. After all of his raps about three thousand dollar sound curtains and super amps, this was the one comment he made that clicked of sincerity. Not long after, my brother called me at home, exclaiming,

"I just bought something that you're not going to believe."

What I heard was a fluid playing style that was fiercely unbelievable. Now I'm a saxophone player—granted, a pretty poor one—but this man was blowing the most consistent, bluesy, melodic, edged, symphonic, soulful, go ahead drag out all the superlatives because they probably fit. Plus, like Miles Davis, he looked cool. That was the bonus part. His name was Art Pepper, a name that seemed to embody the spicy manner in which he performed. Art as in art. Pepper as in pepper. It worked.

Right about that time the book came back in print. I spotted it in a book store in Berkeley. That very weekend my wife's company had sprung for a free weekend condo in luxurious Silverado, a spacious Napa Valley country club, in exchange for a long project she had completed. I packed my Straight Life along with my portable CD player, speakers and the half dozen Pepper CDs. I recall forgetting to pack my underwear. Priority mishaps like that often happen to the Jazz smitten.

Anyway, the book and the music sucked me in and I've never been the same since. That weekend I was an Art Pepper vegetable. I might as well have stayed home. The tennis courts and swimming pools went unused. I stared at the posh food on my plate, in anticipation of getting back to the book and the music. Not that it was entirely pleasant. The book, the stories, Art's nightmarish, self-destructive tendencies were—even by eighties standards—quite shocking and sad. But the music. Oh, the pain that was layered beneath even the happiest of notes, oozing with some kind of genius I hadn't heard since—I can't even recall.

Like a purist, for the next couple of years I stuck to his fifties/early catalogue recordings, collecting whatever solo and sideman recordings I could find. Now the perspective has changed with the release of The Complete Galaxy Recordings box set. Though his writings documented a rebirth in terms of his later work, even after hours of devoted listening to Smack Up, Modern Art and the rest, nothing prepared me for the beauty of this sixteen (!) CD set. As of this writing, I've digested a little less than four hours of this eighteen hour set. And I'm currently circling around within those four hours. I look at it this way. Imagine being a Beatles or a Jimi Hendrix freak and discovering eighteen hours of their finest recorded work. For me, this is an equivalent experience.

High points so far? Besides the artwork and the fine booklet notes written by Gary Giddens—another late Pepper bloomer—so far the music seems infinitely deep. The complete Winter Moon sessions in which Pepper performs live with string accompaniment (a sort of modern Bird with strings motif) are a sonic joy, as the careful mastering of the project truly takes hold in a breathtaking manner. The live Japanese concert footage (as his time ran out Pepper became so prolific you can now measure his music in feet, like film footage) is literally death-defying. There is also the complete tapes recorded at the Maiden Voyage club in Los Angeles, where Pepper seemingly leaves his body on the previously unreleased, unedited version of a composition entitled "Landscape." The off-mike patter between the band members themselves and Art's cryptic MCing gives the material an almost bootleg intimacy, except that the recording quality is startlingly clear. But the absolute capper (so far, anyway) is Art Pepper's versions of "Over The Rainbow" and "Everything Happens To Me."

Both compositions, taken on a higher Jazz plane of appreciation, typify Pepper's newfound lust for music and life. After two stretches in San Quentin, Pepper finally appreciated the concept of freedom, thanks to the unwavering support of his widow, Laurie Pepper. It was her efforts that brought the autobiography and this monumental boxed-set tribute to fruition. And if the long hours were in the tiniest bit thankless, tiring, bringing back possibly sad memories and fears, the awesome performance of "Over The Rainbow" must have made the whole experience completely worthwhile. It is not ironic, then, that Pepper audibly notes that he played the song as a concession to Laurie's belief.

"Everything Happens To Me" is yet another story. If Chet Baker's early vocal versions are definitive versions of the woeful lyrics, then Pepper's live recording here explores the melodic depth of this song, which many consider the most bittersweet ballad of all time. In fact, Pepper, though he rarely performed the piece, considered "Everything" to be somewhat a theme song of his life. And this is why the Galaxy sessions ultimately transcend the Art Pepper of the fifties. On "Everything," Pepper accumulates his entire realm of styles, from sweet to bluesy to traditional to Coltrane-esque, laying the cards on the table and seemingly self-destructing within earshot of both the original club audience and the blessed CD listening environment. It truly is one of the finest moments of recorded music.

URBAN PROFILE

There really is so much more to say about this portion of the Pepper legacy. I haven't even mentioned Pepper's skill as a master clarinetist or discussed his choice of sidemen and the chemistry that resulted. Time spent pontificating could be time spent exploring this desert isle disc collection. Rather, allow me to close-out on a personal note.

*His name was Art Pepper, a name that seemed to embody the spicy manner in which he performed.
Art as in art. Pepper as in pepper.*

A few year's back a close friend was wounded by an armed invader in his Los Angeles home. He suffered some pretty serious gunshot wounds, from which his slow recovery took months. As a recuperation gift, we Fed Exed him all the Art Pepper CDs we could wrangle up. After months of physical therapy and hospitalization, I remember him saying Art Pepper's music "saved his life." Maybe he was exaggerating. Yet maybe there's a healing aspect to the work of this genius. Art Pepper felt that the hard life he lived enhanced the authenticity of his own seamless art. And if I can cop to another quasi-religious metaphor, how about the fact that Art Pepper suffered through a lifetime of self-imposed, luckless tragedy so that a few of us privileged bastards could ultimately be provided with boundless love of music, soul and Jazz devotion. Art Pepper is the instrumentalist who has taught me much about life. To think he is playing and composing somewhere over the rainbow may seem kinda cornball, but I do believe it's true.

And that is my confession. ●

The Silky Soul Of FRANKIE BEVERLY

By Beverly Mire

When I told a few different people that I was going to be interviewing Frankie Beverly, all but one said "Who?" "Who, indeed," I sniffed to myself as I hummed "Look At California" to shaking heads.

I don't mind saying that I was a little perturbed. Here's a man who's been making music for twenty-two—right, 22—years, with a core band that has remained stable all that time—indeed, they moved West together from Philadelphia—has recorded eight albums, seven of which have gone gold, is an Urban radio staple and people say "Who?"

Well, without getting into a tirade about radio's lack of interest in what's going on outside your neat little formats, let me be the one to break the news to you—you've missed some great music!

The easy-going, quick to smile Frankie Beverly has based himself in Oakland, California for a number of years. When he left Philadelphia, he and his band decided not to go for the glitter of Los Angeles. "We're not Los Angeles kind of folks," he laughs. "We're actually ex-hippies, if you will. We're a self-contained band and in that time it was pretty new. But here you had Sly and Carlos Santana, so we figured this was the place to go."

It's possible that Frankie Beverly and his band Maze may have made a bigger splash if they headed for the bright lights and glitter of Southern California. But, on the other hand, his particular brand of smooth, sensual music seems to lend itself better to the slower, less frantic lifestyle of Northern California.

However, the big radio executives are in Los Angeles and New York, and Beverly was playing live gigs without a deal until the late, great Marvin Gaye's sister-in-law saw them perform in a San Francisco club. "This was about seventy-six," Beverly recalls. "She told Marvin she saw a wonderful band that could open up shows for him. She got Marvin's wife to come up and see us. Within the next couple of days he invited me down to his house, took my tape and called record labels on my behalf."

That was the beginning of a friendship that lasted until Gaye's untimely death in 1984. During that time Gaye helped name Beverly's band ("Maze is a puzzle, and we don't stand still"), and went as far as supporting them during the hard times. "I just loved the man so much," said Beverly, painfully, poignantly. "What people don't know is that during those lean years when we weren't doing well, this man sent us checks every month to help us live—he took care of us!"

Beverly's most recent single, "Silky Soul," taken from the album of the same name, pays tribute to the man who helped Maze come so far. It's eerily close to the sound and style of Gaye. Upon listening to "Silky Soul" a few times you think, "This sounds like something Marvin Gaye would do." "It was intentional," says Beverly. "What I was trying to do is make you see him and feel him, and at the same time I wanted you to know this is Maze. That was the hard part. I think I brought that off. I think you do hear me, but wow! You know who I'm talking about."

Most everyone who loved Marvin Gaye's music thought of him as almost supernatural. Now in 1989, he may be further helping his good friend Frankie Beverly. And, it may be a way for Frankie Beverly to help himself overcome the pain of losing Marvin. "I loved him dearly," said Beverly sadly. "When he died...I was in a depressed state for months with a guilt trip that I wasn't the friend I needed to be to him in that time when he needed me. I got over that with the song's help. He would have loved this song, and I'm sure he forgives me." ●

INSIDE COUNTRY

NOTE: Next week we'll take the last reports of the year. The Gavin Report will be closed from December 22nd to January 5th. We'll take your first report of the '90's January 8th.

PROGRAMMERS ARE TALKING ABOUT... Robert Lewis at WKML-Fayetteville is getting good response to Randy Travis' "Walk On Water" lp cut... This week's Record To Watch, Marsha Thornton, is sure stirring up a lot of positive reaction. Kelly Thompson at KMDL-Lafayette reports out-of-the-box calls, Tim Scott at KWPC-Muscataine tells us that after one play calls for the record blew out the downtown phone system, and H. David Allen at KRKT-Albany says it's the hottest record to hit his airwaves all year long, and he's getting immediate requests... Derek James at KYVA-Gallup says that "The Second Week Of Deer Camp" by Da Yooters is pulling in tons of requests... Eddie Rabbitt is racing up the chart for Dave Dom at KASH-Anchorage... Scott Reeves at WKWT-Union

City is getting tons of calls for Marty Stuart's "Me & Billy The Kid" lp cut... Calls for "All I Want For Christmas Is You" by Vince Vance & The Valiants are driving WPOC-Baltimore's Greg Cole crazy... Bill LeCato at WKRE-Exmore is getting good calls for Steven Wayne Horton's "Nothin's Shakin'"... Dave Davis at WWRK/FM-Elberton is getting good response to Ronnie Milsap's "Roll The Dice"... Rusty Hightower at KIKM-Sherman called in his report on his way to a live billboard remote where the station was collecting canned goods and donations for the Salvation Army. It was a mere 22 degrees out, so Rusty had his electric blanket in tow... Lee DeCastro at WQSI-Frederick reported that they, along with sister station WZYQ, had just completed their 15th Annual Christmas Cash For Kids Radiothon. They raised over $58,000, and made arrangements with local retailers to buy toys, blankets and clothes to give to the Salvation Army to distribute to needy families.

STATION HAPPENINGS... Congratulations to KXIA-Marshalltown's Roger Lewis and his wife Kris on the birth of their son David Michael. This future record company VP was born on December 7th and weighed 7 lbs., 6 ozs... Skip Davis has been named Program Director for K92/FM-Destin. He'll continue to handle the Music Director duties, just as he has for the last eight years... Gordy Broshear at KPIG-Watsonville tells us there are some changes underway at KPIG (or, as Gordy calls it, Hog Heaven). Afternoons are now being handled by "Buffalo" Bob Cassidy. Joining Gordy on mornings is legendary newsman Travis T. Hipp. Mid-day personality "Sleepy" John Sandige has purchased a hideous blue camper and is leaving December 15th to tour Latin and South America. Production Director and part-time air talent Paul "The Kid" Keegan will fill Sleepy's slot.

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

MOSAIQUE - GIPSY KINGS (ELEKTRA)

One of last year's surprising successes returns to face the sophomore jinx hurdle. The widespread acceptance of the Gipsy Kings, particularly their successful appearance on Saturday Night Live and their curious appearance on Top 40 radio, is a prime example of how the public can display tolerance toward a wide spectrum of worldly acts. Mosaïque is a tad bit slicker than the Kings' previous groundbreaker. The rhythm section and the band overall is especially tight on their live closer, "Vamos A Bailar." Lead singer Nicolas Reyes still comes on strong vocally, but the rhythmic grinding and churning of the Kings' classical guitars is powerful, exotic and even erotic. Some serious Jazz programmers might find the Kings' fame a bit of a novelty concession. Adult Alternative might find some of their bump and grind a little against the grain. Yet tracks like "Liberte," "Mosaïque," the haunting "Passion" and "Trista Pena" merit serious consideration. On the spicy side our personal faves are "Nina Morena," "Soy" and the aforementioned "Vamos A Bailar." P.S. Bollocks to Time Magazine's Critics' Voice—their Gipsy comments were typically lame and they missed the point, as usual.

LIVE - KENNY G (ARISTA)

Five days of live recording from the fearless leader of the new West Coast Cool School are bookended by a couple of new studio tracks on this deluxe double set package. Like David Sanborn, Kenny G cultivated his success with years of recording and countless tours. Unlike Sanborn, he never really had the advantage of playing behind singers like David Bowie or Paul Butterfield to help bolster his image or audience credibility. Kenny's supporters are more from mass appeal Urban, Top 40 and A/C radio as well as Today and Tonight Show viewers. "Going Home" and "Uncle Al" are both emotive and structured melodic studio pieces. His duet with multi-octaved Top 40 singer/hearthrob Michael Bolton can help put Jazz/AA on an even keel with Top 40 and A/C in the never ending battle for expanded listeners. If Sidney Bechet first popularized the soprano sax and John Coltrane made it a viable creative alternative, then credit Kenny G for carrying it to its highest heights of commercialism and mass appeal.

DEDICATION - ROBIN EUBANKS/STEVE TURRE (JMT/POLYGRAM)

J.J. Johnson, Kai Winding, Roswell Rudd—the trombone has truly risen from the ranks of swing bands and concert orchestras and now enjoys almost its share of Jazz notoriety within the small group concept. But lately, modern band arrangers (such as Carla Bley) have been using trombones as a lead solo instrument in a more nontraditional way. With Steve Turre and Robin Eubanks joining forces, Dedication slices through the novelty factor, and conforming more to the Bop days when pioneers like Lee Morgan and John Coltrane (during his Blue Train days) maximized the instrument to its finer quintet/sextet possibilities. Eubanks and Turre have a magnificent chemistry when it comes to blending tones and as a result, Dedication is a collaborative triumph. Check out its two power tracks, "Red" and "Perpetual Groove." Stylistically, both compositions are poles apart. "Red" is a hat tip to Miles and famous swaggering groove from Kind Of Blue's "So What." Two tracks later the band updates itself with "Perpetual Groove" where our trombone heroes jam madly on a note-for-note tear with a modern syntho-funk-fusion lineup. Rest assured, Dedication smokes, it reacquaints us with the trombone's wholesome, melodic powers.

HIGH HEELS - PAT KELLEY (DENON)

Guitarist Pat Kelley teams with favorite sons Gary Herbig, John Patitucci, David Benoit, Eric Marienthal and many others on a popping, sparkling set of light funk grooves. The set opens with "Jam Box," an uptempo piece driven by percolating sequencers and Pat Kelley's jagged edge electric solos. On "Be Here With Me Tonight" PK tries his hand at singing, and the results are surprisingly satisfactory on this light rocking number. Aside from "Jam Box," Gary Herbig's sax appeal surfaces on the more subdued "Peaceful," while Kelley texturizes with a bevy of acoustic guitar overdubs. On "Midnight Cafe" Eric Marienthal takes over sax duties and David Benoit continues his jazzy ways with samba-style piano fills. Another Jazz/AA high point on High Heels is the closer entitled "The Beholder," a contemplative ballad featuring tradeoffs between Marienthal, bassist John Patitucci and Kelley—all whom admirably furnish the piece with shades of pizzazz and mystery.

SLEEPING CITY - JOE LoCASCIO (OPTIMISM)

Keyboardist Joe LoCascio mixes things up for both Jazz and Alternative Adult by bringing in a talent named Gary Weldon, who doubles on harmonica and trumpet/fluegelhorn. LoCascio centers the "Bill Evans" piece around an eerie duet between his synths and Weldon's mouth harp. In the past LoCascio has played with veteran greats like Chet Baker and Freddie Hubbard, as well as another Houston success Kirk Whalum. Here he takes chances on his tribute to Evans. Such a piece could jolt Jazz listeners (much like a selection by Turtle Island String Quartet) solely because of its odd instrumental couplings. For versatile double format appeal, try the title track, clearly the highlight of the set. Throughout the piece there are many signposts of originality and intrigue, starting with a fine duet between JL's acoustic piano and Weldon's harmonica, culminating in momentous shifts of rhythm and mood.

PRISONER OF LOVE - KENNY GARRETT (ATLANTIC)

Alto saxman Kenny Garrett opens his self-produced Prisoner Of Love with a play-it-straight, romantic crooner entitled "May I Have This Dance?" Garrett, a total musician proficient also on tenor sax, percussion and keyboards, has recently toured and recorded with Miles Davis. Davis' appearance on Prisoner Of Love will no doubt lead programmers to flick straight to "Big 'Ol Head," a funkified, jazzy exchange between Garrett and the master himself. Both players attack the "head" of the song with the kind of panache that recalls Miles in 1970-1972 and his Live Evil and On The Corner days. Bassist Charnett Moffett joins Garrett and a crew of trombone, clarinet and trumpet for an off-beat, Nawlins street corner tropical romp called "Put A Smile On Your Face." For more urbanized marching funk try "Free Mandela," a song whose message could hopefully prove prophetic if you believe the latest rumblings in the news. And wouldn't that be a great holiday gift?

NINE INCH NAILS

TWENTY FIVE ALBUM TRIUMPHS OF 1989

by Kent Zimmerman

It's time to take stock of the year's musical progress, not yet even considering the decade's end. As always, I found myself moaning and groaning as to the fruits of this year's musical crop only to surprise myself once the list was finally assembled. Hell, there's some pretty good music out there! A backpack full of these CDs along with a portable player would get you through many lonely hours on any desert isle. Here are the highs of '89!

1. ACADIE - DANIEL LANOIS (OPAL/WARNER BROS.)

A musical friendship of French Canadian roots and Brian Eno-esque atmospheric so simple it makes us wonder why we tolerate so many complications when it comes to our rock n roll. Daniel Lanois ended up this year's MVP. Pronounced AW-CAW-DEE by Daniel LAN-WAH.

2. TOO LONG IN THE WASTELAND - JAMES McMURTRY (COLUMBIA)

James McMurtry's knack (maybe I should use a different word) for a common yarn combined with John Mellencamp's studio magic makes this debut a righteous example of musical plainspeak. Frankly, I programmed out "Painting By Numbers" and the title track, resulting in a perfect flow of American tales.

3. OH, MERCY - BOB DYLAN (COLUMBIA)

When the master decides to record and write like a master, the results are jewel-like. Daniel Lanois' spare and space-conscious production is the finest foil.

4. THE ICEBERG, FREEDOM OF SPEECH, JUST WATCH WHAT YOU SAY - ICE-T (SIRE/WARNER BROS.)

The man when it comes to rap. "This One's For Me" is the most courageous piece of music recorded all year. Watch what you say. Now go back and re-listen to Curtis Mayfield's Superfly.

5. YELLOW MOON - NEVILLE BROTHERS BAND (A&M)

Daniel Lanois is the first producer to combine the Nevilles' roots with their inherent spirituality. "Sister Rosa" is this year's most inspiring song. A complete "band" performance.

6. STRANGE ANGELS - LAURIE ANDERSON (WARNER BROS.)

It's as if Laurie Anderson put the visuals on the back burner, bound and determined to create music that's first and foremost for the ear. Still, I can't wait for the road show.

7. THE RAW & THE COOKED - FINE YOUNG CANNIBALS (IRS)

An oasis in the parched expanse of Top Forty dance and soul music.

8. AVALON SUNSET - VAN MORRISON (MERCURY/POLYGRAM)

The sequence of "Coney Island" into "I'm Tired Joey Boy" is the best consecutive five minutes of music Van Morrison has recorded in a dozen years. The orchestral and the band material blends together well.

9. NEW YORK - LOU REED (SIRE/WARNER BROS.)

While the social realism of the "street" material hit hard, the concluding "Dime Store Mystery" philosophically questions the many angles of Andy Warhol's death, starting with "why."

10. 9 - PUBLIC IMAGE LIMITED (VIRGIN)

A few weeks after the earthquake I watched PIL perform in a crowd. I was standing underneath the lip of a huge balcony. John Lydon's brilliance made us forget about whether or not the ceiling might crumble. Just kidding.

11. NICK OF TIME - BONNIE RAITT (CAPITOL)

The title track's honest look at aging and passing time was only a prelude to this breakthrough collection of styles.

12. SO MUCH WATER SO CLOSE TO HOME - PAUL KELLY & MESSENGERS (A&M)

As long as Paul Kelly keeps puttin short stories to music with the same high standards, you'll be reading his name here during each year's end wrap up.

13. DANCE ON THE EARTH - EDDIE RAY PORTER (NEW ROSE-FRANCE)

Like Kelly, Eddie Ray Porter, out of our own backyard, tells convincing tales drenched with doubt, alcohol and substance. Lonely and dark stuff.

14. COSMIC THING - B-52's (REPRISE)

You know, I'll bet I'm the only one who prefers them on record. Cosmic Thing swings with honest concern for partying and gray matter brainfood.

15. AUTOMATIC - JESUS & MARY CHAIN (WARNER BROS.)

Back to the form of Psycho Candy. Feedback with a cohesive backbeat is always automatic in my book.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE RADIO by Linda Ryan

TOP 20 ALBUMS OF '89

by Linda Ryan

I couldn't let the year end without acknowledging some of my favorites—it's just the kind of person I am. No science or mathematical formula here, folks. This list represents what albums were hot on my turntable throughout the year. Next week, aside from my and Robert Barone's favorite songs of the decade, the official Top 100 of '89 will be unveiled. But for now...

1. THE JESUS AND MARY CHAIN - AUTOMATIC (WARNER BROS.)

I'm a sucker for a feedback-laden pop song, and The Jesus And Mary Chain are masters. For me, this represents their best work since Psycho Candy. Yahoo.

2. ROBYN HITCHCOCK AND THE EGYP-TIANS - QUEEN ELVIS (A&M)

It's been said that Robyn Hitchcock is the Salvador Dali of the music world. And if it hasn't, then I'm saying it now.

3. PIXIES - DOOLITTLE (4-AD/ELEKTRA)

Q: How many times did I play Debaser? A: Too many times to count!

4. THE STONE ROSES - (SILVERTONE/RCA)

I like these guys so much I buy their imports. One of the best debut bands of the year.

5. XTC - ORANGES AND LEMONS (GEFFEN)

Remember the goose-bumps you got the first time you heard Mayor Of Simpleton on the radio?

6. WONDERSTUFF - EIGHT-LEGGED GROOVE MACHINE (POLYGRAM/POLYDOR)

Some of the best power-pop of the year—and their live show kicks butt.

7. SIDEWINDERS - WITCHDOCTOR (RCA)

Any band that will do a Neil Diamond cover is alright with me.

8. HOTHOUSE FLOWERS - PEOPLE (POLYGRAM/POLYDOR)

One of U2's best discoveries. One of this year's best albums. One of this year's best live shows.

9. THE WATERBOYS - FISHERMAN'S BLUES (CHYSALIS)

It was worth the wait.

10. SONIC YOUTH - DAYDREAM NATION (BLAST FIRST/ENIGMA)

1989 was good for this band. Teenage Riot was the anthem for the Post-Pepsi generation, and Geffen Records took notice.

11. HOODOO GURUS - MAGNUM CUM LOUDER (RCA)

Australia's guitar gurus scored big this one—their best since Stoneage Romeos.

12. DELA SOUL - 3FT. HIGH AND RISING (TOMMY BOY)

Psychedlic hip-hop? Who woulda thought it? Another successful 'newie' of '89.

13. POP WILL EAT ITSELF - THIS IS THE DAY... (RCA)

Inspired by comic books and hip-hop. Grebo is dead. Can U Dig It?

14. MIGHTY LEMON DROPS - LAUGHTER (SIRE/REPRISE)

With the demise of Echo And The Bunnymen, The Mighty Lemon Drops may finally emerge from the shadows.

15. LOVE AND ROCKETS - LOVE AND ROCKETS (BEGGARS BANQUET/RCA)

One of the biggest cross over bands from our format. This was certainly their year. Success story '89.

HONORABLE MENTIONS

REPLACEMENTS - DON'T TELL A SOUL (SIRE/REPRISE)

L.A. GUNS - COCKED AND LOADED (POLYGRAM/POLYDOR)

SWEET BABY - IT'S A GIRL (SLASH/RUBY)

THE FLUID - ROADMOUTH (SUB POP)

YOUNG FRESH FELLOWS - THIS ONE'S FOR THE LADIES (FRONTIER)

ALBUM TRIUMPHS CONT' FROM PAGE 41

16. CHANGE - THE ALARM (IRS)

Though written out of their own Welch pride, the Alarm's enthusiasm contagiously spreads to all nationalities.

17. BIG DADDY - JOHN MELLENCAMP (MERCURY/POLYGRAM)

Deliberately low tech and subdued, Big Daddy contained this year's saddest American portrait, "Jackie Brown."

18. WAITING FOR THE REDBIRD - EASTERHOUSE (COLUMBIA)

This radical Irish idealist wrote the best love song to a Soviet nuclear warhead in the form of this album's powerful title track.

19. MOSQUITO - STAN RIDGWAY (GEFFEN)

More characters dealing with stolen automobiles in Southern California desert communities. Stan Ridgway is still a natural who skillfully evokes loneliness. He should. After all, he is a foxhole-style harmonica player, right?

20. THE SENSUAL WORLD - KATE BUSH (COLUMBIA)

Though—like what's happening with Prince—the rest of the world seems to be catching up with Kate Bush technologically, it's hard to match her skill at story ideas.

21. WESTERN BLOOD - THE SANDMEN (A&M)

This was my favorite "Stones" album of the last five years. Though their live show allegedly falls short, The Sandmen have an effective hold on a modern punky blues rock n roll style.

22. CYCLES - THE DOOBIE BROTHERS (CAPITOL)

"The Doctor" was one of this year's finest rock n roll singles. Then the album stood up with consistent quality. Imagine that!

23. FULL MOON FEVER - TOM PETTY (MCA)

"My sister got lucky and married a yuppie." Yes! Tom Petty in the basement minus the pressure of hit singles produces his biggest seller. Go figure.

24. THE GOOD LIFE - FIRETOWN (ATLANTIC)

So midwestern, so quartet-tight, so packed with great songs, this one is an easy inclusion. Don't let the good life pass you by. It didn't pass me.

25. BUILT TO LAST - GRATEFUL DEAD (ARISTA)

Between Jerry's "Standing On The Moon" and Brent's "Blow Away," this true studio Dead effort (the last one sorta doesn't count since it was recorded somewhat live) is their best in a millennium.

UNCLE KENT'S HONORABLE MENTIONS

MOTHER'S MILK - RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS (EMI)

LEGACY - POCO (RCA)

BRAVE & CRAZY - MELISSA ETHERIDGE (ISLAND)

TIED TO THE TRACKS - TREAT HER RIGHT (RCA)

FREEDOM - NEIL YOUNG (REPRISE)

PUMP - AEROSMITH (GEFFEN)

THE REAL THING - FAITH NO MORE (REPRISE)

STEEL WHEELS - ROLLING STONES (ROLLING STONES/COLUMBIA)

QUEEN ELVIS - ROBYN HITCHCOCK (A&M)

DON'T TELL A SOUL - THE REPLACEMENTS (SIRE/REPRISE)

MR. MUSIC HEAD - ADRIAN BELEW (ATLANTIC)

FLOATING INTO THE NIGHT - JULEE CRUISE (WARNER BROS.)

Next week a demented wrap-up of the eighties and a look into the nineties from the edge of the cliff.

T'WAS "THE BOOK" BEFORE CHRISTMAS

And all through the land
Not a talent was stirring, the jobs were so bland
The tapes and resumes were sent out with care
In hopes some PD would soon catch their flair
The months had gone by with nary a nibble
Except for the call for some all nite gig in Quiggle
And now a year has gone, with another to come
Oh - can there really be a radio Santa Claus, my son?
When high on the transmitter, there arose such a clatter
From some radio jock doing real personality chatter
And I knew in a flash - he MUST be good Cause the PD's all said...he came from WESTWOOD!

To wish all our superstar personalities and talent...
We wish you a very Merry Christmas and stunning success in 1990!

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MILLI VANILLI - All Or Nothing (Arista)
During 1989 this pair became a permanent fixture on Top 40, staying on the chart for virtually the entire year. Recorded in Germany under the skillful guidance of producer Frank Farian, it's got all the necessary and now familiar touches that should keep 'em riding high into 1990.

MICHAEL BOLTON - Solid As Others (A&M)
"Mr. B is downright awesome." (July 14)

JANET JACKSON - Janet Jackson's Rhythm Nation 1814 (A&M)

"Producers Jam & Lewis outdo themselves and Janet expands herself. If there aren't five hit singles out of the twelve tracks, I'm gettin' out of the business." (September 22)

BABYFACE - Tender Lover (Solar/Epic)
"Mr. Babyface excels as a songwriter, producer, arranger AND performer. There are few who do so well in all areas." (July 21)

PHIL COLLINS - ...But Seriously (Atlantic)

"Phil's natural sense of rhythm and melody support some of the most thought-provoking lyric I've heard recently. I lean toward the ballads and other slow songs for their warmth and harmonies—the chord progressions are instant classics." (November 17)

ROLLING STONES - Steel Wheels (Rolling Stones/Columbia)
"Hell's bellers are back makin' exciting music. Collectively these guys are 233 years old, yet they play with the youthful spunk of mere centurians." (September 1)

THE MAGNIFICENT SEVEN OF 1989

Every year at this time I choose seven albums from the current year as my MAGNIFICENT SEVEN. To be so designated, the albums must have an attitude and yet be accessible. They must have some sort of emotional tug, and play well from start to finish. My preliminary long-list was shorter this year than in recent years. These survive:

FINE YOUNG CANNIBALS - The Raw And The Cooked (IRS/MCA)
"...they've trimmed even the slightest fat and bring what's left to a quick boil." (March 3)

DON HENLEY - The End Of The Innocence - (Geffen)
"...acerbically witty with gobs of rock 'n' roll attitude. Henley and co-producer Danny Kortchmar give everything on the album an edge—competitively and otherwise." (June 30)

MICHAEL BOLTON - Soul Provider (Columbia)
"What a voice! Soulful at the appropriate moments and rock
