SONY GIVES BAUMGARTNER, SELTZER HIGH LEVEL PROMOTIONS

At Sony Music this week, Columbia's Burt Baumgartner and Epic's Barbara Seltzer each took giant steps up as they were label President Don Ienner. "He has displayed an extraordinary talent for leading and motivating the entire promotion staff, as well as providing the direction in the crucial areas of breaking new artists and crossing-over artists from other formats."

Burt Baumgartner

appointed Senior Vice President, Promotion and Vice President, Singles Promotion respectively.

Baumgartner joined the label in 1978 as Local Promotion Manager in San Francisco. His stops up the ladder include Director, National Album Promotion, Vice President, Singles Promotion and, most recently, Vice President, Promotion. Before joining Columbia he worked in radio at FM 102 (KSFM)-Sacramento and KSJO-San Jose.

"Burt continues to play the strongest role in Columbia's on-going dominance at radio," said Records since 1989. She also worked in Top 40 promotion at Atco Records.

Seltzer has held the position of Senior Director, Singles Promotion for Epic Records since 1989. She also worked in Top 40 promotion at Atco Records.

"Barbara's fierce commitment to our artists and her unparalleled knowledge and understanding of Top 40 radio make her a distinct and emulated leader within the format and our industry," said Polly Anthony, Epic's Senior Vice President, Promotion. "Her tremendous growth as an executive while at Epic has been a direct result of her modern approach to a difficult and challenging marketplace."

NEW SO-CAL ALTERNATIVE OUTLET BOWS

Radio in Southern California—specifically Los Angeles and its broad chain of bedroom communities—has just gotten more competitive. Former-A/C outlets KOCM-Newport Beach and KSRF-Santa Monica have linked up in an effort to barrage Los Angeles metro and its outlying areas with a new concept of Alternative radio.

Kenneth J. Roberts, who previously owned KROQ before selling the original Alternative outlet to Infinity Broadcasting, purchased the stations and will maintain a strong new music philosophy in staffing the two stations, both broadcasting at the 103.1 frequency. Roberts reportedly obtained both signals for $17 million dollars, compared to the KROQ's $45 million price tag.

Judging from station person-

WMMS/GEFFEN SETTLE

Geffen Records has agreed to drop a law suit filed against WMMS-Cleveland for broadcasting a track from the upcoming Guns N' Roses albums prior to the authorized release date. For their part, WMMS agreed to a court order prohibiting further airplay until given the go-ahead by Geffen; they will help the label track down the source of the unauthorized tapes; and, they will pay Geffen an undisclosed sum of money.

"We had no reason to pursue WMMS in court any further as they have agreed to do everything we had initially requested, and I believe they now recognize how serious these issues are to record companies," said label general counsel Norman Beil.

The label, through Beil, also warned stations against playing unauthorized recordings, and promised to seek "maximum statutory and punitive damages and attorney's fees allowed by law. Radio stations should be reminded that all songs from the upcoming (Guns N' Roses) albums are still on the ASCAP restricted list."

IS THIS "DARK SHADOWS" OR WHAT?

Atco recording duo THE REMBRANDT'S played San Francisco last month to a SRO crowd. Prior to showtime, Phil and Danny camped it up with Gavin Publisher Ron Fell and an unassuming Top 40 Associate Editor, Annette M. Lai. L to r: Rembrandt Phil Solem, Ron, Annette and Danny "May I bite your neck?" Wilde.

LISA DOES DALLAS!

A WARM Y100 WELCOME

WAKIN' UP WITH A DAMN YANKEE

WVIC-Lansing, MI listeners were "rock 'n rolled" out of bed when that DAMN YANKEE Ted Nugent hosted the station's morning show. In town for his Second Annual Bowhunters Night, Nugent not only played deejay, but gave listeners some interesting hunting tips, too. Pictured here are Ted Nugent and station PD Kevin Robinson.

POISON PEN AWARDS

Capitol recording group POISON was recently honored with RIAA-certified double and triple platinum awards for "Flesh & Blood." Taking it one step further, label President Hale Milgrim (second from right) presented (l to r) Bobby Dall, Rikki Rockett, Bret Michaels and C.C. DeVille with a pen mounted on a plaque, signifying the achievement of over one million autographs signed.

nel, the targeting of KROQ's current and former listenership is obvious. Original KROQ staffer Freddy Snakeskin has been appointed PD. Also in as MD is former KROQ air talent MD Egil Aalvik, alias Swedish Eagle. The partial air talent lineup includes Raechel Donahue, "Big" Ron O'Brien, and Rob Francis formerly of LIVE105-San Francisco. Howard Freshman, fresh from X100-San Francisco, joins as Director of Marketing and Promotion.

"We feel the Los Angeles market is ready for a change, something new. Just as KROQ emerged in the eighties with new music, as POWER 106 and KIIS/FM supplied a new dance sound, we're ready with a new sound for the nineties," said Freshman.

In describing the station format, the understandably mum Freshman allowed that one third of the music blend "will be music currently not being played (on the commercial) Los Angeles airwaves." He also hinted at a hybrid mix of familiar dance-oriented music as well as music plucked from the European and dance charts.

With the two combined signals, Freshman says that KOCM and KSRF hope to customize traffic, news and commercials "achieving a specific regionality.

"We're excited about the technological ability to regionalize our programming and spots according to which part of the Los Angeles area is tuned in," Freshman added.

Despite the customizing, KOCM and KSRF will simulcast under the same handle. The combined signals debut Friday, May 24th, just in time for the holiday weekend.

"Memorial Day and the whole beach scene is the perfect time for us to launch this new sound," Freshman concluded.

FITZGERALD PROMOTED

Reprise Records Vice President/Director of Promotion Rich Fitzgerald has been upped to Senior Vice President/Director of Promotion.

An eight-year Warner Bros./Reprise veteran, Fitzgerald has been in promotion since 1966, pulling stints at Capitol, RSO and Geffen. Some of the acts he has worked with in his tenure at Warner Bros./Reprise include Chris Isaak, Faith No More, Depeche Mode, the B-52's and Eric Clapton.

"The recent and on-going success of Reprise Records is a direct result of Rich's hard work, enthusiasm and inspiration," said Warner Bros. Board Chairman Mo Ostin. "This promotion is both in acknowledgement of his accomplishments...as well as his continuing leadership in keeping Reprise Records on the cutting edge of music."

GAVIN'S URBAN CONTEMPORARY DEPARTMENT ADDS CROSSOVER CHART

This week marks the debut of a "crossover chart" in our Urban Contemporary section that will track Top 40/Urban crossover activity. Gavin's Urban Contemporary Editor Betty Hollars and Associate Urban Contemporary Editor John Martinucci will take information from selected Top 40 reporters and distill it into a chart of the 30 hottest crossover singles on radio.

"We got overwhelmingly positive response when we discussed this with many of our reporters," said Hollars. "Top Forty and Urban Contemporary research an average of 120 of the same titles each week, so this is long overdue. Thanks to our stations for encouragement. I hope this chart will prove a valuable research tool."

FIELDS GOES NATIONAL

Former KSOL-San Mateo/San Francisco morning personality Tony Fields has taken the National Program Director slot for the 22-station Willis Broadcasting chain.

The Virginia Beach-based corporation has stations nationwide, and, according to Fields, their formats run the gamut from Adult A/C to Adult Urban Contemporary.

Before spending a year at KSOL, Fields was Program Director at WBLZ-Cincinnati and WJYL in his native Louisville.

"I'm glad to be on board," Fields told the Gavin Report. "I'm especially happy to be back in the programming arena. This is a great opportunity to really put my expertise to work."

legendary station—WLAC/AM&FM-Nashville—as Operations Manager.

After spending ten years as MD/APD of KVIL, in 1987 Rhodes moved to Nashville as National Director of A/C for MCA Records. In 1989 he returned to KVIL in his present position.

"My ties to Nashville are very strong," Rhodes said. "To be in a music city such as Nashville, whose call letters are among the most legendary in the nation, is an opportunity I just couldn't say no to."

"Timing is everything in this business," said station General Manager Elizabeth Yoder. "To get someone of Chuck Rhodes' caliber at a legendary station like WLAC is exactly what we need to continue our growth to the top."

WLAC/FM is an A/C outlet, WLAC/AM is all news. Rhodes starts on July 1. Replacing Rhodes at KVIL is Michael Hedges.

RADIO SPECTRUM BROADENS

The year 2000 approaches. Over objections from the Pentagon, the Department of Energy and intelligence agencies, a House committee unanimously voted to open up a large part of the frequencies previously reserved for the government to commercial use.

While the move doesn't endorse any specific technology or elaborate on how the frequencies would be allocated, it makes available a large amount of space allegedly underused by the government.

The Secretary of Commerce has two years to id frequencies, and the F.C.C. has 15 years to define the usage of each frequency.

TWO UPPED AT DELICIOUS

Tosh Acoyya! and Tony Bennett have been appointed to National Promotion positions at Delicious Vinyl.

Acoyya! is now National Director Top 40 Promotion, up from Manager, Promotion. Prior to joining Delicious Vinyl, she worked at Radio Vision International as Regional Sales Representative. Her music business career began in 1984 when she was a disc jockey in Taos, New Mexico.

Bennett, now National Director, Club and Top 40 Promotion was a club reporter and record pool director before working for the label.

Commented company president Michael Ross: "Both Tony and Tosh have been instrumental in the multi-platinum success of Delicious Vinyl, and as we approach a new period in the company's growth, I feel their experience and expanded duties will help break our new artists."

ROUGH TRADE FILES CHAPTER 7

Rough Trade Inc. U.S., which includes a record label, pressing and distribution agreements and distributorships, filed to liquidate their assets last week. The organization's parent company, Rough Trade U.K. Distribution, has gone into "administration," which is the equivalent to Chapter 11 in the United States. All of the corporation's U.S. branches have been given their final paychecks, but the status of the label's bands remains in question.

Susanna Henderson has joined A&M Records as Vice President of East Coast A&R.

Tim Weston is National Director of A&R for Mesa/Bluemoon Recordings.

CAPRICORN BEGINS STAFFING

Hot on the heels of the announcement that Phil Walden is re-starting the Atlanta-based Capricorn Records comes the appointment of Jeff Cook as Vice President, Promotion and Marketing.

Cook has been handling promotion since the mid-seventies, first working for Arista and going on to work at Elektra, where he most recently was Senior Director of Album Promotion. As a performer/songwriter, Cook worked with the late Tommy Bolin and wrote songs recorded by The James Gang, Deep Purple and Motley Crue.

"We're excited to have Jeff Cook with us as we re-launch Capricorn Records," said Walden. "His knowledge and expertise in promotion are second-to-none."

Said Cook, "I'll be eternally grateful to Brad Hunt, Aaron Levy and Bob Krasnow of Elektra for giving me the tools to do this job. I've always felt there was a great need for a record company based in the South, and it appears our timing couldn't be better."

Cook will be based in Atlanta. The Capricorn offices are located at 450 Fourteenth St., N.W., Suite 201, Atlanta, GA 30318. Telephone (404) 873-3918. Fax (404) 874-2204.

Not one to stop at addressing the plight of the homeless (the subject of her hit single, "This House"), High School Sophomore/Capitol recording artist Tracie Spencer (r) recently completed a series of free appearances at 15 high schools around the country as the prize in a national "Make A Difference: Stay In School" contest. In addition to performing, Tracie delivered moving speeches that drove home the importance of education, assuring students that they can make a difference. Here Tracie is shown with a young admirer.

HEAR AND THERE

by Sheila Rene

Guns N' Roses made their first appearance together since Rock In Rio festival at the Warfield in San Francisco on Friday (5/10). After hitting the stage half an hour late, the group ripped through 2+ hours worth of new and old material. This is the first of several club dates before GNR release two new albums, Use Your Illusion I and Use Your Illusion II in July. The whole evening was casual, with band members making it seem as if we were eavesdropping on a rehearsal. Because GNR haven't performed before a live audience in so long, lead singer Axl Rose used a teleprompter. Even though the crowd was unfamiliar with the material they rocked all night. I enjoyed it all, and am looking forward to the release of both albums—and I've heard that there may be a bonus CD of cover tunes...

Hey, all you cats—start packin' for France! "Quincy Jones Presents The 25th Montreaux Jazz Festival," is a 19-day celebration of international musical diversity taking place from July 2 through July 21. Quincy Jones Productions has a three year deal to co-produce the event for the next three years, and it'll be filmed for those of us who can't attend. Among the hundreds of performers scheduled to appear are Anita Baker, the Count Basie Orchestra, James Brown, Miles Davis, Etta James, Carl Perkins, Bonnie Raitt, Wayne Shorter, Sting, Keith Washington, Ray Charles, Ruben Blades, George Benson and Stevie Wonder...

Bits & Pieces: Boston band members Brad Delp and Barry Goudreau have re-emerged with a new band called B-T-Z which stands for "Back To Zero," also the title of one of their new songs. Look for their Giant Records release in late June...Simply Red are at Condulmer Studios in Zermanesa, Italy recording an album for East West America Records that's due out in September. Producing is Stewart Levine, who's responsible for their first three releases...The London Quireboys are looking for a producer to work on their new Capitol album which won't be out 'til 1992. Keyboardist Chris Johnstone has recuperated from the broken leg he suffered in a hit and run accident in Tokyo on New Years Eve...New York's Naked Sun have signed with Noise International and begun recording for a September release...Arista will release the Eurythmics Greatest Hits album and home video on May 28...Huey Lewis & The News kick off their tour on July 4 in Milwaukee...Crowd House are in Los Angeles finishing up their new release with Tim Finn aboard. They recently debuted several of the tunes at a surprise show at Club Lingerie. CH will support the album, due out July 2, with a promotional tour in June and a video shoot. An August/September U.S. tour is in the works...

Sire Records' highly successful 900 Hot line, with proceeds going directly to national and local AIDS service organizations, will continue indefinitely. Their trial run last summer logged over 5,000 calls in less than two months. Once MTV got on the case and announced the new number (1-900-999-SIRE), more phones had to be added. Musical and controversial messages include Ice-T's comments on flag burning and Madonna's safe sex message. Non-Sire artists such as the B-52's Fred Schneider make occasional appearances...Ministry is in the studio self-producing their forthcoming Sire album, The Tapes Of Wrath...Testament's heading for Japan for five dates and then will take some well deserved time off before tackling their fifth album...

Ozzy Osbourne's next album will be titled Say Hello 2 Heaven and will debut in September. The $9 million dollar lawsuit against the Oz in the teenage suicide "Suicide Solution" case has finally been dismissed. In October, Osbourne will be the headliner at Foundations Forum '91 in Los Angeles. As far as we know, he's sticking with his decision to make this the last album and the last tour...

The Screaming Jets controversial new rooArt/Mercury controversial single, "FRC," has gotten the band thrown out of their opening slot for The Divinyls. You'll have to get it and listen to the words to get the full drift. Dave Gleeson, lead singer for the Jets, responded by saying, "I would rather have young people hear a song like "FRC" than see a woman simulating masturbation on stage. Who's moral majority is in force here?" Because of the songs inclusion on the EP, some record chains are refusing to carry it. The full album is due out in July and won't contain the offending track... ●

by Moon Mullins

POTPOURRI

FAN FAIR PROMOTIONS

Last year, revenues from record business in the United States totaled about $6 billion. Nashville generates about 8 to 10 per cent of that, or $600 million, according to the CMA. Many analysts link the success of both Country music and Nashville to the slower ways of middle-aged baby boomers. Savvy marketers have even begun to time promotions and album releases to Nashville festivals like Fan Fair, a week long series of concerts in June—this year June 10-14—sponsored by WSM's Grand Ole Opry and the CMA. Last year, one new act, Canyon, released its album just before Fan Fair, to optimize sales. The record sold out at the event, as a result of Canyon working the crowd of 23,000 who each paid $63 to attend the week-long event.

Many stations set up bus tours to Nashville during Fan Fair, and they report immediate sell-outs.

NO MORE PUTTIN' OFF

When dealing with procrastinators, focus on starting instead of finishing. Procrastinators shudder at the thought of a distant deadline for a large task. Suggested question: "Can you get me an outline by Friday? This will put us on target to meet our deadline two months down the road."

Source: Dr. Neil Fiore, writing in Working Woman.

THE INVISIBLE FRIDAY STAFF

Pay your employees the day before most companies do—for example the 14th and 29th of the month. This eliminates wasted time in bank lines and may mean more people on the job for you.

WALLS AND HALLS

The next time you walk around your office, look at what your walls say about you or your station. Have you used the space effectively as a communication opportunity? Or do your walls represent lost opportunities to position yourself with important audiences.

What to do: Tastefully cover your walls with carefully framed articles about your business. Add charts and graphs that demonstrate your excellence or expertise. Display photographs or illustrations of successful projects. Include citations of merit and awards from professional associations. If your employees have successfully completed a community relations program, showcase the results and the gratitude of the community for the effort.

Use the walls to position your organization. Example: If you want to be known as a station that specializes in community involvement, fill your walls with successful problem solving campaigns.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Probably because I judge a new song more on melody than lyrics, I wasn't too surprised by the results of a just-released study on the effects of lyrics on teens. Over the years, quite a few programmers have told me that whenever they're presented with a new song and told that "It's a great lyric record," they begin to get skeptical. One prevailing notion is that women are more affected than men by what a song is saying. But the real question is whether anyone would stick around to hear the message if the music didn't have strong appeal? What the research, conducted by a team of California psychologists, found was that most of the teens surveyed didn't know and didn't care about the ideas or emotions expressed in well-known songs. They were handed printouts of the lyrics to popular songs they've heard a hundred times on radio and were then asked to interpret them. The answers in this multiple choice quiz bore out the same result virtually every time—few listen closely to a song's lyrics, even when the words are distinct and explicit. Few remembered the words and even fewer understood them. What are the reasons why teenagers like a song? Topping the list were reasons like, "it helps me relax," and the ever-familiar "it's good to dance to." "I want to listen to the words" was at the bottom of the list. Lyrics can take effect at a certain stage in the life of a song, but that point is generally made many weeks after it's established. It's then that listeners make comments like, "Gee, I never knew THAT's what they were singing about." (Dave Sholin)

P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

The Gavin Seminar for Media Professionals has truly become a three-day event; it's no longer safe to plan to arrive Friday, because you'll miss quite a bit. This year, one of the Thursday highlights was a presentation on radio commercial production by Bobby Ocean, voice talent and production man extraordinaire, who makes his living doing both of these in his own studio in San Rafael, just north of San Francisco. (Even if you never heard him on the air at such stations as KCBQ-San Diego and KFRC/AM-San Francisco in the '70s and '80s, you've probably heard his voice on tracks used by many leading stations across the country.)

Bobby talked about the basics of production and copyrighting, and then demonstrated new techniques using digital equipment. About production, he said, "It's not reality, it's hyper-reality: in the world you make, the number one ingredient is 'attitude.' And hand-in-hand with that is ingredient number two, and that's the story you're telling—the script. If you don't know how to write, look into it—it's fun! There's a beginning, a middle and an end." The beginning of a spot tells the listener what it's about, and why it may be interesting to them; the middle contains the expository detail, and the end contains the "call to action" without which the spot remains simply abstract information. The end of a spot activates the listeners and advises them how to convert the information they've received into action. But Bobby advises you "wallow" in production and writing—try things out, don't necessarily go by the "rules"; if you sound interested, they will be interested, and so forth. This is the "transactional analysis principle": You control the listener's reaction toward you and what you're saying, even more on the radio than in person. (If you're interested in pursuing this subject, there's a bestseller on the subject called "Born To Win," available at most bookstores.)

The third ingredient in production is the voice: "That's the first human sound that this idea gets, so this is really the first relatable thing."

Use of music in spots: "The music track is there to emotionally support your message. It's there to add the feeling, and to sustain the feeling." Music can come from CDs, records, tapes—or from yourself, because as Bobby demonstrated, a MIDI keyboard can be used even by someone who doesn't know the mechanics or notation of music, or even how to play an instrument. Such an instrument is a little bit like desktop publishing on computer—it does the hard part after you let it know what you want. For the first time, a production person can create the music he or she needs, or add "sweetening" to prerecorded music tracks. (Bobby uses an "Autotuner" to identify individual notes.)

One of the arts of a production person is putting a script against prerecorded music and, through voice delivery techniques, make the music sound as if it were scored for the message! (If you can do a music talk-up on the air and make it sound as if it belongs over that intro, then you have the necessary skills to create this impression over a music track in the production room.) But with the MIDI keyboard, you can now actually score a voice track you've recorded.

"Why do you use sound effects," Bobby asked. "Well, to help you tell the tale. There's no reason for it otherwise. To punctuate, if it helps to tell the story. Sweeteners: That's the detail work. That's where you cover your tracks. Having built the bookcase, you sand it, or polish it or paint it." Bobby demonstrated the addition of musical stings or stabs to punctuate a recorded production spot...at the ends of sentences or to highlight key words and phrases. He uses the keyboard to create these.

Ocean also pointed out the value of adding equalization (EQ) and compression to a voice track to bring the voice out of the music; since prerecorded music tracks almost always have been compressed considerably in the recording process, the uncompressed voice can lose some syllables under the average music level, making it harder to understand—and music occurring in the "midrange," where the voice tracks lie, can also obscure some of the message. "Compression" is running a voice through a fast level-control device; equalization is tone-balance manipulation that can pull out the midrange (2000 to 4000 Hz or so) where voice intelligibility is. (In stations where there is no budget for the fancy stuff, a $75 Radio Shack graphic equalizer in the output circuit of a reel-to-reel machine can give you the EQ you need; and putting an old peak-limiter in the circuit after the equalizer can add compression. If you introduce this equipment into a tape recorder return line, though, be sure you can switch them out of the circuit easily.)

Bobby set up in the room a selection of the equipment he uses (see diagram): 8-track, 2-track, DAT (Digital Audio Tape), processing equipment, MIDI keyboard, mixer, turntable, sequencer and digital special effects equipment. He demonstrated use of a digital sound processor on voice—stepping the pitch downward, with voice overlaps, for an aggressive, sneering sound all too familiar from many station promos in recent years, with the warning: "Now, don't be doing this too much—the Surgeon General warns that using special effects on the voice may be hazardous to your female demographics. No woman wants to meet a guy who talks like that! They don't care about it; they don't like it at all. They haven't liked it for years."

As for the familiar digitally-sampled "stuttering" effect, also often used in station promos, as a "final warning" Bobby played a perfectly-produced station promo that said, "This, this is the station-, station that stutters, stutters, st-st-st-stutters its posi, posi, p-p-p-p-positioning statements, while the other guy, guy, g-g-guys are p-p-p-p-probably-ably, p-p-p-p-pl-pl-playing, pl-pl-pl-playing music."

In demonstrating the keyboard, Ocean showed how he creates custom music beds and segments, using the technology to set or change key, add or change instruments, create harmonies and rhythms, all without the need to know much about music. Bobby has been creating the fanfares and stagers for the annual Gavin Awards ceremonies for years, using his "hunt-and-peck orchestra," which today is quite affordable for even smaller stations.

He finished by doing a piece of production using music he created himself "from scratch." My description in a column cannot convey the imagination-stimulating qualities of such a demonstration; you had to be there. ■

Ronnie MILSAP

In his brief appearance at this year's Academy of Country Music awards, it was obvious that Ronnie Milsap could hold his own among the current breed of "hunkytinkers" not by wearing tight jeans and a low-slung guitar, but by just being himself. After more than twenty years as an entertainer, Milsap is still making contemporary music, and has earned the respect and love of fans both within and outside the industry.

Milsap started his career in rhythm and blues, making a name for himself in the rough and tumble clubs of Atlanta, and through singles on Scepter Records. After recording for a few labels, he signed on at RCA Nashville in 1973, and concentrated on recording Country music, though as his star rose he was able to mix elements of r&b and jazz into his music. Ronnie's fans know that whatever style of music he's playing, he attacks it with the enthusiasm of one who wholeheartedly loves what he's doing.

Milsap has racked up over 30 number one singles, seven gold albums, and one double-platinum collection, his 1980 Greatest Hits I. The awards he's got hanging on his wall include five Grammys, three ACMs and eight CMA awards, including the prestigious Entertainer Of The Year which he received in 1977. His current album, Back To The Grindstone, has already yielded the hit "Are You Lovin' Me Like I'm Lovin' You."

Not bad for a man born blind in poverty stricken Appalachia. Milsap's recently released autobiography, Almost Like A Song, details with brutal honesty the struggles he has experienced. The book chronicles his abandonment by his mother when he was a year old (A religious fundamentalist, she thought God was punishing her by giving her a blind child). Milsap writes about the loneliness he felt at being sent 400 miles away from home, to the Governor Morehead School For The Blind, at the age of six. He also talks about the personal triumphs of his life, and credits many things on the quality education he received at Morehead. Along with academics, Milsap was classically trained on piano, strings and woodwinds. He was groomed for law school, and even went through a pre-law program, but music kept pulling at him, and Milsap gave in. He declined a full scholarship and started making his living at music. Needless to say, he's never regretted that decision.

Keeping The Fires Burning

by Cyndi Hoelzle

CH: Did you have a certain sound in mind when you did this album?

RM: I'm a Country-based artist here in Nashville, and I'm comfortable with that, but I've done all kinds of things. Fans of mine know that I go out searching and try other things, because first you gotta have fun. Making music is about finding songs that you fall in love with. I cut 18 sides on this project because I was kind of in a quandary about what kind of album it was going to be. It's very eclectic in that there's Country, there's "Since I Don't Have You" which was done with an orchestra, there's the duet with Patti LaBelle, and the Boys Choir of Harlem, and Mark Knopfler plays on a cut. Some things are computerized, and some have a live feel with real musicians in the studio. And I think that says what my kind of music's all about more than anything, because I'm not really in any one place. That will keep me from ever being considered a stylist I guess, because I'm not on shelf number 54 in slot number 9.

CH: Have you felt any backlash from Country programmers over your non-Country stuff?

RM: You know I love radio so much—I'm a radio nut. Usually on the bus I've got a radio in the bunk and I'm spinning that dial and listenin'. If I hadn't been in music as an entertainer making my own records, my second choice would have been to be in radio, or to be close to this business in some way. I'm a fan of the whole broadcasting industry. So I understand these guys, I understand their markets and what they're up against. I've got to say that the folks in radio have always been real fair, and real straight with me. I still call radio stations and disc jockeys, the same as I did fifteen years ago. There have been times when they couldn't play something and they've explained why they couldn't and I understood. The thing that is real neat about Country radio is that folks still like for you to call in, and they like to talk to you, and most likely they'll put you on the air! That doesn't happen at the rock/Top 40 level.

CH: Maybe that's because pop artists don't call the stations.

RM: Is that what it is! That's probably true. The few times in my career when I've had something happening in other formats, I call those stations too! They love that. I guess the artists in Top 40 just don't want to fool with it. But I do, and I don't do it just because someone says, "Hey, if you call this station then such and such might happen." Any excuse to call someone at a radio station or go by a radio station, I'll take it! This business is still radio-driven. It still knocks me out when I hear my music being played on some station.

CH: Did you fall in love with radio as a kid?

RM: Yes. When I was growing up, AM radio really was adventurous. You could listen to Dick Biondi up at WLS in Chicago. Top 40 radio was really cookin' and included some pieces out of Country—they'd play Brenda Lee or Jim Reeves mixed in with all the rockers. WKBW in Buffalo was real popular. I remember one night when I was a kid I was up at three in the morning, listening to KFI in Los Angeles! All the way from Raleigh, North Carolina, 3,000 miles away!

CH: "Back To The Grindstone" sounds autobiographical.

RM: Yeah, it is. Some people have asked, is it really a grindstone, is it really that much drudgery? It's not. The song was written from a writer's point of view. David Loggins, who wrote the song, was talking about how hard it is to write a song that's a masterpiece and then have to turn around and do it all over again. From a performer's point of view, it's often the same thing—if you're playing a string of one-nighters, it doesn't matter to people if you got a standing ovation in Minneapolis, you have to start from scratch all over again, and win over the next crowd. It's not so much a challenge as it is interesting to see if you can do it again. The electricity of the live performance is still the best thing we do. I was talking to Dave about that. He wrote a few verses and we turned the song around a little bit and customized it to my own life. When we do it live in the show right now, it's great.

CH: How did the duet with Patti LaBelle come about?

RM: That song, "Love Certified," was around town last year and the guys that wrote it brought it over to us. It wasn't what folks around Nashville might record. I said I'd love to do it, but that it sounded like something that would work as a duet. Now I had never met Patti, but had been a fan of hers for a long time. I called her and told her that when I was in college in Georgia I used to hang out at this place in Atlanta called the Royal Peacock. At that time Patti LaBelle and The Bluebells had "Down The Aisle" out. I saw her at the Peacock and I've been a big fan ever since. She said, "I wish you wouldn't be telling that, you're going to give both our ages away." She was so sweet. It's easy to see why so many people love her, because she is truly one of the most fun people I've ever been around. We were in the studio together, working and feeling each other's emotions and that's what doing a live duet is all about.

CH: Was the Skyliners song "Since I Don't Have You" a favorite of yours?

RM: Oh yeah. It'd be real easy for me to do a whole album of those kind of songs. After "Lost In The Fifties" came out, and "Happy Happy Birthday, Baby," I had about 15 or 20 things like that in the can, and they probably won't ever go anywhere. Richard Landis really wanted me to do "Since I Found You" and he was responsible for getting arranger Charlie Calello who's worked on all kinds of great records. It's a favorite of mine—I'm so partial to that era. I was in high school during the late fifties-early sixties. Maybe that's the magic of it—something about the music when you were in high school, it just kind of comes back at you. And the kids growing up today, they're gonna find something out of all this that the rest of their lives is gonna keep coming back at 'em. That tells me that music is one of the most emotional things—it makes people feel something.

CH: I read that you were expelled from the music department at Morehead for playing rock and roll...

RM: I sure was. It was February 3, 1959, the day that the crash happened that killed Richie Valens, the Big Bopper and Buddy Holly. My friend, another piano player and myself were kind of holding a wake in our own way, because we were young kids and those singers, to us, represented our generation. I remember playing some really good rock and roll that afternoon instead of practicing my Chopin and Debussy. One of the teachers walked in and said that we were walking on thin ice, and then she officially kicked us out of the music department. We didn't get to enter any of the competitions that spring or go to any of the music festivals. But the following year, when I was a junior, I guess somebody felt sorry for us because they allowed us to form a band. I was playing electric guitar and they let us practice on campus; they actually let us play some fraternity parties! Here I was sixteen years old, playing fraternity parties. That's when I really got hooked on music and entertaining. I stood up there and sang, and when people started carrying on, I knew what I wanted to do!

CH: Do you remember what song you were playing when the teacher caught you?

RM: It seems like we were playing "Great Balls Of Fire." Either that or "High School Confidential." We started off with some Buddy Holly things and worked our way to Jerry Lee. I remember we were really

NEW RATINGS DIARY DEBUTS

SUPERRATINGS SPEAKS!

Yes, since our initial look at this fledgling new radio ratings system two weeks ago, we've gotten more detailed information to share with you. As you can see, a major portion of the material is in the form of the industry's first look at the new radio ratings diary, 1991 model. We also had an exclusive conversation with SuperRadio President Mark Olson, and will let you in on key portions of that conversation.

On with the show!

SuperRadio President Mark Olson has a broadcasting and research background, according to his biography. Formerly with Gannett, among others, and with 13 years polling/market research experience—as well as being a lawyer—Mark's not one to sit idle. And he certainly won't be as he strives "to provide a real alternative to the ratings cartel...a cartel that has controlled the advertising and programming decisionmaking process for far too long."

At least he's being frank about the size of the challenge his firm faces. "We expect to lose money for the first three years," he told us realistically. "However, we're here to stay. We have multi-million dollar backing and have several leading corporations that have invested in our effort." Olson told Gavin that the

DIARY DIFFERENCES

As you examine the SuperRatings diary, reprinted here with Olson's permission, you may spot some notable differences when compared to the Arbitron

SuperRatings war chest exceeds $10 million.

HOW DO THEY DO IT?

If we can assume that Olson and his colleagues are in this for the long haul, then what type of methodology will they be using to extract radio listening data from the public? Quoting from a technical spec sheet Olson sent, it seems that "SuperRatings uses a one-week individual recall survey to gather listening information from from persons 18+." So much for measuring teens or children, apparently.

Of course, as I noted in my column two weeks ago, SuperRatings will capture this adult listening through the use of a diary. You'll note the example diary basically designed in the mid-'60s, with a facelift several years ago. Among some of the major points we noticed were:

- Recall versus real-time recording of listening. In the Super-Ratings version people are asked to recall, or estimate, their hours of radio usage. In the Arbitron diary you're supposed to record listening as it takes place, although there are some who contend it's a recall diary too (perhaps people fill in the diary at the end of the survey week, for example).

- Listing "favorite" or "most listened to" stations (up to five) versus jotting down all the stations one supposedly was exposed to during the diary week.

- Prelisting what Super-Ratings calls "primarily recognizable stations" at the bottom of the first dairy page (versus Arbitron's unaided approach whereby the listener has to supply from memory the identifier of the station he/she was listening to). Two issues come to mind here. First, what identifiers are used, since many stations use logos or other non-exclusive IDs on their than their calls? Second, as their literature notes, "exclusion from the list may be a obtain info that would allow stations to offer advertisers "over 700 additional lifestyle correlations" or custom sales data. It appears that access to this pool of worthwhile sales ammo would be at extra cost over the $7500 yearly fee for six bi-monthly reports (based on 1500 usable diaries monthly).

WHERE CAN YOU WRITE?

There's so much more that we'll need to know and learn about SuperRatings. I've just begun to delve into the technical nitty-gritty of their system, and as more is learned we'll eventually share with you an opinion of the overall service. However, you can begin your own investigation. Super-Ratings can be reached at (818) 967-3333; or you can write them at Box 268, Covina, Calif.

INSIDE URBAN

POWERHOUSE V IS LARGE !!
WUSL/FM (POWER 99FM) Philadelphia, invited 10,000 of their most loyal listeners and friends to the biggest concert of the year—Powerhouse V, held at the Philadelphia Civic Center. Artists included Jeffrey Osborne, Tracie Spencer, Christopher Williams, Tony! Toni! Tone!, Rude Boys, Another Bad Creation (pictured above with POWER 99FM's Pres./GM Bruce Holberg and his son Robert), Boyz II Men, and Michael Bivens of B.B.D. Powerhouse is produced by station PD Dave Allan.

Yes, the new and improved look is here. Hit Factors now include the complete 40 charted records, as it does in our other formats that carry Hit Factors. Due to popular demand, we're expanding our Urban Crossover information to include a chart of the top thirty ranked titles in our crossover research. Top 40 stations being used for Urban Crossover research are: WXKS-Boston, FUN107 (WFHN)-New Bedford, WIOQ-Philadelphia, HOT97 (WHQT)-New York, Z100-New York, WBSS-Atlantic City, WNVZ-Norfolk, WCKZ-Charlotte, POWER98 (WBPR)-Myrtle Beach, Q105 (WRBQ)-Tampa, POWER 96 (WPOW)-Miami, WFMF-Baton Rouge, B96 (WBBM)-Chicago, KXXR-Kansas City, POWER95 (KHYI)-Dallas, WHYT-Detroit, KOY-Phoenix, KKFR-Phoenix, KS104 (KQKS)-Denver, KIIS/FM-Los Angeles, POWER106 (KPWR)-Los Angeles, KGGI-San Bernardino, Q106 (KKLQ)-San Diego, KDON-Monterey/Salinas, B95 (KBOS)-Fresno, HOT97.7 (KHQT)-San Jose, KMEL-San Francisco, KSTN-Stockton, KWIN-Stockton, FM102 (KFSM)-Sacramento. Please check the Blue Book for the new Top 40/Urban Crossover Correspondents' listings of Adds and Ons. Two records in Up & Coming were affected more than any others, but they both debuted on the new "Crossover Chart." They were CRYSTAL WATERS' "Gypsy Woman," which charts at #10 on the new chart and GERARDO's "We Want The Funk," which charts at #17. These are just two indications of the separation of the two formats. COLOR ME BADD hangs out at #1 on the Urban chart another week. LUTHER VANDROSS is just waiting his turn.

NEW RELEASES

TEDDY PENDERGRASS - I Find Everything In You (Elektra)

Teddy isn't letting his #3 charted "It Should've Been You" drop before releasing his next single. "I Find Everything In You" continues to showcase Teddy's vocal range, while showing he can hang with the best of the New Jack swingers. JM

LISA LISA & CULT JAM - Let The Beat Hit 'Em (Columbia)

Lisa, Mike and Spandor smooth their groove out while keeping it funky at the same time. Clivilles & Cole are the producers and the reason for the trio's streamlined sound. This track comes from L.L. & Cult Jam's forthcoming album, "Needle To The Groove." JM

JEFFREY OSBORNE - The Morning After I Made Love To You (Arista)

Ballads seem to be a very strong and comfortable style for Jeffrey, with females going for his sensual pillow talk. Once again Osborne teams up with Barry J. Eastmond, who gave us "Only Human," which reached #4 on the U/C chart. Good ballad. JM

SHIRLEY MURDOCK - In Your Eyes (Elektra)

One of this week's Most Added releases, and after hearing it I can understand why. Roger Troutman produces this track for his former Zapp cohort. Shirley co-wrote and arranged the song with Dale DeGroat. Murdock soars with this song, and her voice gives it the depth and the love to keep you listening. JM

RAY PARKER, JR. - She Needs To Get Some (MCA)

We haven't heard from Ray since '87, probably because he was shopping for a new record deal. Well he's found a new home with MCA and hopefully it will be profitable for both. Ray blends his past sound with today's. Note how he slyly drops in "A Woman Needs Love..." I guess that's what the "some" is that she needs to get! JM

D.J. JAZZY JEFF & THE FRESH PRINCE - Summertime (JIVE/RCA)

The Hip Hop ambassadors of the Philly sound return after a ghostly outing in 1990. Now that parents understand what the Philadelphia natives are about, the Hollywood Prince and J.J. continue to expand their artistic boundaries by dropping a funky 102 BPM bomb BPMs in the form of this mellow Kool And The Gang-influenced track. Fitting for warm weather activities, Will Smith delivers a hardcore intonation over six hyped mixes. Contact Barry Johnson at (213) 468-4007 or Tom Caraba at (212) 727-0016. BAS

PEABO BRYSON

Can You Stop The Rain (Columbia)

Co-written, produced and arranged by Walter Afanasieff of Mariah Carey fame, this label debut for Peabo is an unstoppable adult winner. A classic melody and a slick performance.

RICK ASTLEY

Move Right Out (RCA)

She's two-timed him once too often so Rick is packin' it in, if only to retain his pride. A strong song written with Rob Fisher, with whom Rick wrote his recent number one, "Cry For Help."

JOBETH TAYLOR

If This Isn't Love (Interscope/East West)

This single will be recognizable to the viewers of "As The World Turns." Past records associated with daytime soaps have done quite well with the listening audience. This is Australia-born JoBeth's debut single, and she has vocal help from Jimmy Demers.

KEZA, KFYR, KRDI/FM, KYMN, WFAW, WPHM, KPTL, KYRE and Q92/FM.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, DARDEN SMITH's "Frankie & Sue," debuts in UP AND COMING with 32 AC'ers. DARDEN wrote this basic tune and with acoustic instruments backing it up, his easy vocal is somewhat irresistible. Key adds from WHAI, WSUL, WHLQ, WXLS, KEZA, KSAL, WQLR, KLZY, KCRE, JOY99, KXLE and B100.

INSIDE A/C

by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

MICHAEL BOLTON is proving that #1 is a wonderful thing as he maintains the top spot for a third week. Taking hold of 247 AC'ers and a strong 99% HIT FACTOR.

Doing her, "Rush, Rush" on our AC chart, PAULA ABDUL remains the HOTTEST record of the format and moves to #4 in a short four week period. We can put money on the fact that she'll be the one to dethrone Mr. Bolton.

GLENN FREY is now part of the Top Ten, growing to #7 and crossing the 200 station mark with a strong 86% HIT FACTOR.

Entering our top twenty is SURFACE's "Never Gonna Let You Down" with a total station count of 154. Of the 24 new are CKFM, WFBG, KLSS, KSDN, WDIF, WQLH/FM, KLSQ, KLCY, KCMX and JOY99.

SARA HICKMAN's "The Real Thing" jumps nine slots to #24 and gains in HIT FACTOR by 21%. Grabbing another 21 ADDs, and WILI/AM, KDAO, KSDR, WJON, WDUZ, WJTW, WRDB, KKOS, KITZ, KCMX are among them.

Growing this week to 111 stations is PAT BENATAR's "True Love," which is now up to #25 on our chart. New with KBAU, WAVU, KAYL, KGRC, KLSS, KSDN, WJYY, WHFB, WQXC, KVVQ, B100 with a healthy 65% HIT FACTOR. Moving to a HEAVY rotation are WKBX, KNIM, KWGG, KOKO, KBOL, KCRE, KMCQ, KKRK and Q92/FM.

In only the second week of release, GEORGE MICHAEL's "Cowboys And Angels," our TOP TIP of last week, debuts at #34. Topping PLUS FACTOR with a hearty 32% and a total of 112 ACs. Involved in the 41 new are WELI, WGMT, WBGF, WMXK, KFOR, KQAD, WDUZ, KNVR, KSSY, KXRO, KESZ and K103.

Proving to be the little record that could, MICHAEL W. SMITH's "Place In This World" has found another place in our format. It moved from 39 to 33 and picked up 19 ADDs, with WKLJ, WCEM, WWDE, KLKC, KQAD, WABJ, WMGI, WWGZ, KLOG and K103 among them.

Who would have guessed that R.E.M. and A.C. would fit together. But our format's former RECORD TO WATCH debuts at #35. Their 54% HIT FACTOR gives an increase of 23% from last issue and among the 17 new are WHSY, WOXD, KQKD, KTWA, WCPZ, KSCQ, KRLT, KXRO.

The ESCAPE CLUB's "I'll Be There," last weeks RECORD TO WATCH, is the TOP TIP for this week. Our fourth MOST ADDED, with 51 coming on board, brings their total to one shy of a hundred. E.C.'s ultimate conversion in rotations give them a chart debut in their third week of release. Among the ADDs are WGBE, WILI/AM, WKLJ, WBLG, WXLS,

BIOFEEDBACK

by Ron Fell

•STEVIE WONDER

Though Motown is releasing the soundtrack to the new Spike Lee film Jungle Fever, with songs written by Stevie Wonder, the anxiously-awaited Stevie Wonder solo album (four years in the making) may not be released until the current furor between MCA and Motown is resolved. Could it be that Stevie's set is Motown's attempt at leverage in the debate?

•WHITNEY HOUSTON

Later this year Whitney Houston will co-star with Kevin Costner in the film The Bodyguard.

•VANGELIS

In 1982, Vangelis won an Oscar for the Chariots Of Fire soundtrack.

•DEL SHANNON

The Jeff Lynne-produced album of new Del Shannon material, recorded before Shannon's death last year, will be released shortly on a new record label started by Tom Petty and distributed by MCA.

•PAUL BRADY

Not only does Irish singer/songwriter Paul Brady have his own new album out, but two other songs of his will appear on the soon-to-be-released album by multi-Grammy winner Bonnie Raitt. Bonnie was so pleased with the results that she has chosen one of the songs, LUCK OF THE DRAW, as the title song for the project.

•THE JUDDS

Though Naomi Judd will retire from live performances in November of this year due to chronic hepatitis, she will continue to write songs for daughter Wynonna and plans to pen her memoirs as well.

•C & C MUSIC FACTORY

NEW RELEASES

by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

VERN GOSDIN - I Knew My Day Would Come (Columbia)

It's great to hear a Gosdin song with a happy ending. This is not only happy—it's downright uplifting, complete with gospel imagery and choruses.

NITTY GRITTY DIRT BAND - Mr. Bojangles (Capitol Nashville)

The Dirt Band are releasing a live album, produced by part-time hillbilly T Bone Burnett, to celebrate their 25th anniversary as recording artists. Many listeners will be familiar with this song, which has become a signature song for the band since it's original release in 1970.

DOLLY PARTON - Silver And Gold (Columbia)

Nobody can match Dolly when it comes to singing pure mountain Country ballads and she proves that here, sounding very at home with this beautiful, spiritual song.

MARTY BROWN - Every Now And Then (MCA)

People might already be familiar with Brown from a March profile on "48 hours." He wrote this debut single, and his distinctive voice separates it from the pack.

MARY-CHAPIN CARPENTER - Down At The Twist And Shout (Columbia)

Ahhh-hah! Mary-Chapin, with the help of the good folks of Beausoleil, cooks up an absolutely wonderful cajun dance number. For those of you who just can't get enough there's a longer nightclub dance mix available on a separate CD.

PROGRAMMERS PICK

ALABAMA - Here We Are (RCA)

A great uptempo song looking back on a couple's ups and downs of life and love. Very positive. —Sam McGuire, PD, KNFO-Waco, TX is 615-254-3280 ...Not only does C.C. McCartney have a new syndicated radio program called "Climbing Country" (based on the Gavin Country chart), he's also just finished filming the pilot of his new television series "The New Side Of Nashville," which will be seen on the Outlaw Channel later this year.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

"POUNDCAKE" - VAN HALEN (WARNER BROS.)

Oww! That dental drill intro brings back hard memories of times in the chair. Another cryptic reference to good times and loud, loud music follows as the boys from the planet Halen "pound" it out for five-plus minutes. This is the first track from the upcoming album For Unlawful Carnal Knowledge. Look for a big first week as nobody in hard rockville doesn't like Van Halen or Sarah Lee.

RUMOR AND SIGH - RICHARD THOMPSON (CAPITOL)

I'm all ready to write about the Americanization of Richard Thompson. Then I listen. What turns out to be a true time traveler is a dam burst of material and moods. As a guitarist and a composer, Thompson doesn't limit himself. Rumor And Sigh is a transcontinental cornucopia as Thompson arms his songs with electric, acoustic, American and Euro lineage—whatever it takes to get the point across. Like the lately elusive best of Ry Cooder, Thompson draws on a well of styles and a loving musical expertise. You'd have to go pretty far back into the Thompson catalogue (Shoot Out The Lights with former wife Linda?) to hear an RT entry this strong. Save room on your best-of-the-year list for this one. Richard Thompson on a tear is surely an audio wonder to behold. Among the great ones: "Read About Love," "You Dream Too Much," "I Feel So Good," "Mother Knows Best," the sad "God Loves A Drunk" and an ode to the ultimate Scottish band leader, "Don't Sit On My Jimmy Shands" (as in don't step on my blue suede shoes).

BLOOD ON THE BRICKS - ALDO NOVA (JAMBCO/MERCURY)

A fruitful rock reentry from Aldo Nova. Many remember Aldo from his early-80s rocker, "Fantasy." In his case, instant airplay penetration carried a price. After two thick and heavy disappointing follow-ups, Aldo, rather than succumbing to the wolves, left the business to regain his musical vision. Enter Jon Bon Jovi, whose songwriting and production pushed Aldo and his band straight into the rock nineties. Listen to "Blood On The Tracks," "Medicine Man" and "Modern World" first, then into the concluding "Touch Of Madness" and "Bright Lights." What you get is an orchestration of riffs.

"SMOKESTACK LIGHTNING" - LYNYRD SKYNYRD 1991 (ATLANTIC)

It's a game sometimes, you know? Sometimes you lead the listener, sometimes they lead you. Less often, they demand as certain segments of our Great Society still need Lynyrd Skynyrd. This year's model backs things up on the road with a more than extensive tour. Johnny Van Zant is in his best Ronnie voice. Now banging the skins is Custer, who has worked well in the past with Little America and Steve Earle.

LIVING WITH THE LAW - CHRIS WHITLEY (COLUMBIA)

I admit to being early on this one. So, sorry to the promotional powers that be. It's just that a few selections fell short and Chris Whitley's new music is so much more interesting anyway. Living With The Law is cut from the Malcolm Burn/Daniel Lanois mold of mystical acoustic simplicity. Specifically, Whitley's sound centers around the lonesome sound of a National Dobro guitar, the same tinny tone that Knopfler and Mellencamp have flirted with to pleasing results. If you get an advance peak, check out songs like "Big Sky Country" and the title track. More on all of this later when the official release happens.

WILL T. MASSEY (SIGNAL/MCA)

Hey, I'm no different from your average Joe. We all dream. My particular radio phantasy would be to host a Sunday afternoon New Songwriter Release Show. That way I could catch all the Springsteens, Mellencamps, Hiatts, Rosie Cashes, Shockeds, Lovetts, McMurtrys and the Earles on the way up, in addition to watching the continued influence of the greats like Ochs, Dylan, Willie Nelson and Guy Clark. Live guests on occasion. And I'd feature only a couple of artists each week. Part one could be Peter Himmelman and this, a debut by a Texas-born loner named Will T. Massey. Will T. seems to be shouldering the same dichotomy as the aforementioned greats. That is, he's bursting with the will to communicate while at the same time fighting a wayward, introspective spirit. There you are, the classic American curse that makes for great verses and choruses. See if tunes like "I Ain't Here," "It's Midnight All Day Long," "Send Up The Smoke" and "Coffee Break" don't recall the early works of Bruce's Greetings From Asbury Park or Johnny Cougar's Incident On Chestnut Street.

KING OF FOOLS (IMAGO)

Here's something to bring along next time you buy a set of speakers. King Of Fools brandish an absolutely H-U-G-E mix as Brit singer Roy White balances a fixation between the old American West and the soul of the Thin White Duke. As you'll immediately notice, Bowie's influence is unmistakable. But unlike Major Tom, White isn't stuck inside a space bound tin can. Rather, he prows the mix like a tiger. The last sound you hear on each song is a soaring guitar note decaying into echo-filled atmospheric hyper-space. Take a few listens and see if your mind can infiltrate the ambience. Start with "Pretend It's Over" and "Eat Your Heart Out."

WORLDS IN COLLISION - PERE UBU (FONTANA/MERCURY)

Shazam and break out the smelling salts. Pere Ubu record a rich and accessible pop record with vocals, chords, songs you can tap your feet too, everything, man! In such a context, singer David Thomas' voice sounds vulnerably stunning. Produced by Gil Norton (Pixies, Blue Aeroplanes), Ubu took a year in Cleveland to contemplate Lake Erie and its effects on man-in-the-moon-marigolds. The result is surprising structure, discipline and melody. In order to inhabit the same planet as, say OMD, Ubu developed a "new language and the sounds that would have to come from a more limited specific pop pallet." Or as Thomas himself puts it, "We figured it'd be chicken not to try." Not that Worlds In Collision isn't without its experimental moments. "Turpentine" sounds very much like Beefheart circa Clear Spot—little wonder since the Captain's keyboardist, Eric Drew Feldman, now mans the Ubu keys. Now crank "Oh Catherine" or "I Hear They Smoke The Barbecue" and tell me, "Has this band broken out of the art ghetto or what?"

The big news this week is the folding of ROUGH TRADE—the label that's most synonymous with the word "alternative," giving us bands like THE SMITHS, THE SUNDAYS, THE RAINCOATS, AZTEC CAMERA, YOUNG MARBLE GIANTS and SCRITTI POLITTI—among countless others. To say it will be greatly missed is an understatement. On the bright side, many of the bands are already talking to other labels, and the next time you hear from JERRY RUBINO, he will be talking to you from CHRYSALIS RECORDS.

Speaking of labels picking up cool artists, CHARISMA has just signed CURVE.

As I told you a couple of weeks ago, KRCK has been sold and PAUL KREIGLER is heading down South to greener pastures. It seems, however, that the new station owner is a 'Alternative music junkie' and the format will remain intact. Watch this space for introductions.

It looks as though LIVE 105's resident Limey (one of them, anyway) ROB

FRANCIS is heading out to the new Alternative station in Los Angeles, KSRF, which will be up and running by the time this hits your desk. I think we have a new reporter waiting in the wings! See related story in our News section.

In chart news, JULIAN COPE missed the number one spot by a matter of points. It's anybody's game next week.

PRIMUS takes a ten-point jump from 29-19 this week, with a little help from their supporters at KZSC, 91X, WBER, KCSB, WFIT, KJHK, KUSF, KJQ and others.

Our highest debut (24) and therefore Top Tip comes from SIOUXSIE AND THE BANSHEES, who count CFNY, WRVU, KJJO, WWVU and WDCR among those Adding this week.

'Til next week—LR

ALTERNATIVE NEW RELEASES

THE FAT LADY SINGS - "MAN SCARED" (ATLANTIC)

I've always held the belief that it's the intangibles in life that make it interesting. The same theory holds true with music—the intangibles make it worth listening to. With a sound that for no finite reason is distinctly Irish, The Fat Lady Sings is perhaps one of the most subtle and unobtrusive bands around. Rather than hitting you over the head, The Fat Lady Sings softly pulls you into their wake of believers. A couple of listens to the gentle, rolling sound of their single "Man Scared" should be enough to convince you of the band's capabilities.

LINDA RYAN

what pathetic look at life in America. A song on your lips and a smile on your face. LR

HOUSE OF LOVE - "MARBLE" (FONTANA/MERCURY)

With their latest single, "Marble," The House Of Love let their hair down and show their leaner, meaner side. "Marble" moves at a sexy, grinding pace setting a sullen tone—the perfect foundation for Guy Chadwick's snarling lyrics, "I think you should know/the sky is a liar/and the trees are all wrong/I think you should know." Opaque and glassy, with a colorful, swirling center—just the way a "Marble" should be. Expect the album in two weeks. LR

ELECTRONIC - ELECTRONIC (WARNER BROS.)

After the success of Electronic's debut single, "Getting Away With It," the band's first long player had been anxiously awaited by many. At last the wait is over! As you might expect from Electronic's participants, their sound melds the best parts of the Smiths and New Order into a near-perfect fit. Although the album doesn't have "that Manchester sound" (it does sound a bit like 808 State in some places though), some of the material does deal with life in post-rave Manchester—most obvious is the hard-hitting "IdiotCountry" and the stunning "Feel Every Beat." I find myself gravitating towards those tracks, as well as toward "Some Distant Memory," "Tighten Up" and the re-mixed version of "Get The Message." It's what you've waited ages for—check it out! LR

CROWDED HOUSE - "CHOCOLATE CAKE" (CAPITOL)

Crowded House come exploding back after a long absence with the scathing single, "Chocolate Cake." It sounds as though the boys have been spending some "quality time" in America, reading some of the finer publications this country spits out—The Weekly World News, The Enquirer, etc. Tammy Faye Baaker, Elvis Presley, Andy Warhol and many other celebrities that grace the pages of said magazines on a regular basis parade through the notes of "Chocolate Cake" for a humorous, some

MELT (ARISTA)

Straitjacket Fits are endowed with girded vocal chords and Melt showcases their ethereal sound. "Bad Note For A Heart" begins innocently enough then launches into a chorus drenched with the chiming guitars and reverberating vocals of Shayne

Carter and Andrew Brough. The two vocalists combination spices things up and keeps you guessing who's singing what. "Headwind" races and careens precariously while a piano acts as a guiding rudder. On "Such A Daze" the drums and bass anchor the bottom end and the vocals and guitars take it to the heights. An accurate description of Melt smacks of prepositions—above, beyond, over, through, and right on. DAVID BERAN

A Spy In The House Of Love

"Some bands want to succeed and some bands want to matter...The House of Love looks as if it's shooting for the whole ball of wax. Ambition and seriousness of purpose that inspires a true following," -- L.A. Times

"Only a few bands have continued to provide substantial music into the 90's. Of them, The House Of Love is near the top..." -- Philadelphia Inquirer Joining Crowded House onstage during their "secret" gig at Club Lingerie was the band's producer and ex-Roxy Music guitarist Phil Manzanera. L-R are CH's Nick Seymour, Neil Finn, Manzanera (behind) and Tim Finn—the newest member of the band.

Fat bottomed girls you make the rockin' world go 'round! Atlantic's Graham Hatch and Tod Elmore wandered the streets of New York in search of fat ladies who wouldn't mind mugging for the cameras. Why? To promote their new band The Fat Lady Sings, of course!

It was near wild heaven for a lucky KROQ listener when R.E.M.'s Mike Mills stopped to honor an autograph request while at the KROQ studios. Some people will do anything!

Dave, how was it for you? After a rippin' set at KUKQ's Q-Fest, the Royal Cresent Mob boys hang out for a grope and a grin. Shown L-R are KUKQ's Jonathan Rosen, RCM member "B", Warner's Dave Lombardi and RCM's David Ellison.

During their recent visit to San Francisco, Pop Will Eat Itself's Graham Crabb stopped by the Live 105 studios to visit with all around great guy (and MTV VJ) Steve Masters. Yours truly was there to capture the moment on film.

PEABO BRYSON - Can You Stop The Rain (Columbia)

Magnificent is a word that certainly applies to what deserves to become Peabo's biggest hit yet. Hot producer Walter Afanasieff (Mariah Carey, Michael Bolton) composed the music in addition to contributing his technical expertise. A video as classy as the song itself compliments this powerful release, which was second Most Added at Urban Contemporary Radio last week.

SEAL - Crazy (Sire/Warner Bros.)

KMEL MD Hosh Gureli told me to be on the lookout for this more than a month ago and predicted I'd love it. He got that right, and now this international sensation that's topped the charts in a dozen countries is about to get America crazy all summer. On since January as an import at WIXX Green Bay, it's already Top Ten (8-7) at 104 KRBE Houston, charted 28-24 at POWER 99 Atlanta, on at CKOC Hamilton, ON and WCGQ Columbus, GA, and added at CKOI/FM Montreal. Like nothing else on the air right now.

DAVE KOZ featuring JOEY DIGGS - Nothing But The Radio On (Capitol)

As if the title alone weren't enough to recommend it, this former Top Ten A/C track is connected to a soulful Pop melody, top notch musicianship and a super tasty vocal. Koz's instrumental "Castle Of Dreams" performed well in several markets, paving the way for this follow-up. Music this sweet provides just one more reason to turn the radio on—and keep it on.

HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS - Hard At Play (EMI)

Boy howdy, after the Huey harp solo on the front end of the first track, BUILD ME UP, the guys get crankin' with a fully-flexed anthem that will surely be a show-stopping crowd-pleaser on their upcoming tour. And while nothing else comes close to matching it for drama, the rest of the set reinforces the group's reputation for uncompromising rock. Though the reasons for the group's long absence from the record bins is multi-fold, it may be that the last year was probably the wrong time for this right music. I can only hope that the dance craze in Top 40 and the classic phase in Album Radio have peaked and there's gonna be more of a radio appetite for what Huey & The News have done and are doing once again. If I'm wrong, there's no place for such great tunes as the aforementioned BUILD ME UP, the line-dragging IT HIT ME LIKE A HAMMER, the soul deep doo-woppin' HE DON'T KNOW, the struttin' THAT'S NOT ME, the universal appeal of WE SHOULD BE MAKING LOVE and the boogie woogie TIME AIN'T MONEY.
