Pugh To Sr. VP At Columbia

Well-known industry vet Eddie Pugh has been promoted to Senior Vice President, Black Music and Jazz Promotion, Columbia Records.

Pugh has been with the label since 1986, when he joined as Local Promotion Manager, Mid-Atlantic Region. He was promoted to his previous position, Vice President, Black Music and Jazz Promotion in 1988. Pugh began his industry career in 1971 as a local promotion manager for WEA Distribution.

"With half a lifetime of R&B and rock 'n roll promotion experience to his credit, Eddie has become one of the most respected figures in the industry," said label president Don Ienner. "He consistently delivers top results for our artists, and inspires his staff to do the same."

Over 40 people gathered at Manhattan's Caffe Cielo recently to celebrate the 80th birthday of independent promoter Moe Preskell. As you can see, Moe had no trouble blowing out the candles. Seated l-r: Sophie Preskell; Moe; Lou Levy.

Staff Changes Begin At KSFO/KYA

Although new general manager Ed Krampf won't officially start at KSFO/KYA-San Francisco until 1/28, changes have begun at the oldies outlet, recently purchased by First Broadcasting. Program Director Bob Hamilton has been replaced by Dave Anthony, formerly with KCBS/FM-Los Angeles.

"The changeover from KSFO/KYA from King Broadcasting to First Broadcasting happens on Monday (27)," Hamilton told the Gavin Report. "And when that happens the entire management team at the station will be let go, and a new regime will be coming in. At that time I will be reverting back to my consultancy, Hamilton Communications, will be able to get more involved with the stations I'm working with, and I'll be looking for new ones. After seven glorious years and leaving with a great fall book I feel very good. I wish the new management great success. My friends can reach me (415) 435-3480."

"I'm very impressed to be joining up with a brand new radio company (KSFO is First's first purchase)," said Anthony. "I've heard nothing but great things about Ed Krampf. I've been at underdog stations forever, and have helped knock off the top dog. This is the first time I'm actually at the top dog and will be fighting the underdogs."

In the past, Anthony has programmed stations that include KDWB-Minneapolis and KZZP-Phoenix.

Bishop Skips up to RCA VP

This week Skip Bishop was promoted to Vice President, Pop Promotion, RCA Records, up from National Director, Pop Promotion.

Bishop, who's been with RCA for six years, has held a variety of promotion positions for the company.

THE SECOND ANNUAL INFORMAL NO HOST PRESEMINAR GATHERING

Date: Wednesday February 12

Time: 8:00 PM

Place: Q Club, San Francisco

Address: 61 Golden Gate Avenue

Remember last year's gathering?

Same idea, different place. A little closer to the hotel—walking distance, in fact. Well—maybe it's a medium-long walk, so come with a friend. Or take a cab. It'll be a cheap ride.

The Q Club has been called a pool player's dream of paradise by San Francisco Chronicle columnist Herb Caen. It has recently been restored to its original deco elegance, and 37 ivory-inlaid antique tables await you. Get acquainted with other folks attending the seminar over a friendly game of pool, billiards or snooker. Free pool time courtesy of BreakThru.

This gathering isn't format-specific. Everybody welcome!

Q Club phone number: 452-9643

Butch Waugh, Senior Vice President, National Promotion. "Skip has proven to be an outstanding national promotion person, he has a tremendous knowledge of the current marketplace, and has the ability to stay focused on the week to week challenges that this position demands. This promotion is truly deserved."

"I am dazed with excitement about being given this expanded opportunity," said Bishop of his promotion. "RCA is a family of young, innovative talent and the positive energy here is infectious."

Album Rock K-Zapped In Sacramento

After booming Album Rock for twenty-three years, KZAP-Sacramento has changed call letters to KNCI and is programming a Country format.

According to current programmer, Chris Miller, the switch is in response to "a changing market place, and the economic climate." The former KZAP's closest competitor, KRAK/FM just jumped 9.4 to 11.4 while KZAP suffered a 2.7 to 2.4 blow. Both Miller and general manager Tom Weidle are still with the station, but seven disc jockeys were fired. KNCI's parent company, Nationwide Communications, flew personalities in from its other stations to fill-in.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

In early December, this column highlighted remarks by Erma Zandel of Xtreme Inc., who found in her research around the country that "radio isn't as important to young people as it once was." She concluded that "kids want to be in charge of what they're listening to." It's clear that when a general interest magazine like Newsweek features a cover story on fiber optics, which it did about a month ago, that the interactive age is upon us.

No one knows this better than Les Garland,

VP/Programming of the Jukebox Network, a television channel that puts the audience in charge. Ms. Zandel's comments hit home with him and elicited this response in a letter he sent me recently. Garland writes that while "George Lucas did indeed produce the most accurate of period films ever with 'American Graffiti', those teenagers who cruised around listening to Wolfman Jack typically had only one radio station that played music appealing to the 12-24 crowd. And, those were AM radio stations.

"1962 preceded 'fragmentation' and the programming theory of 'super serving' a specific target audience. 1962 preceded youth culture music on the FM dial. 1962 preceded the Walkman. 1962 preceded the 8-track, the cassette and the CD. 1962 also preceded the launch of music videos on television in a 24-hour presentation to become a worldwide phenomenon called MTV: Music Television. Music, whether it's just heard or seen, remains a priority with the 12-24s around the world. It is the DELIVERY of the music to the audience that has drastically changed in the past thirty years!"

Garland agrees that today's young audience wants to be in control of what they see and hear. "It's so true. Witness the button pushing that occurs today in radio listening habits. These days, people program their entertainment to their own time convenience whether it be by making their own compilation cassettes from CD tracks—the VCR—the television remote control, or even the Nintendo game! The JUKEBOX receives nearly 600,000 requests monthly, with a potential viewing audience of 13 million homes. These are hundreds of thousands of people screaming, 'I want what I want—now!' JUKEBOX users are 39% teens 12-17, 39% 18-24s and 23% 25-34s, averaging 20 years of age with a user base that's 46% male and 54% female."

Putting the current day in proper perspective, Garland closes by stating "Thirty years before 1962, radio presented 'live' music. Now, thirty years after 1962, we chuckle that in '62, music was predominantly only on the AM band. In 2022, I'm sure people will get a chuckle out of the JUKEBOX technology, too. Maybe it's time for Lucas to consider a period film taking place in 1981 portraying a group of teens hanging around at night watching Martha Quinn."

There's a general consensus among programmers and many in the music industry that NIRVANA is more than simply another hit record. It's made the kind of impact on Top 40 that will earn it a place in history. HIT FACTOR races from 61% to 76%, showing huge gains at 95XXX 23-13, POWER 99 21-14, WDDJ 28-18, WJAT/FM 19-10, WIXX 23-18, KIXR 31-23, KUBE 19-16, KSTN 29-19, KQIX/FM 22-13, etc. Top Ten at WAPE 3-1, WLFX 1-1, WILI/FM 3-1, KEGL 3-1, KC101, 6-4, Z102 4-1, OK95 3-1, ZFUN 4-2, etc.

Early vibes are positive for PAULA ABDUL, who winds up in the top twenty at Z100 New York, WYHY Nashville, WDJX Louisville, WEOW/FM Key West, FL, TOWER 98 Toledo, WVIC Lansing, WIFC Wausau, KHHT Minot, ND, KDLK Del Rio, TX, KTUF Kirksville, MO, KTMT Medford, OR, Q96 Imperial Valley, CA, KLUC Las Vegas, B94 Pittsburgh and more!

WXLC Waukegan/Chicago, IL created their own mix of THE DOVES "Beaten Up In Love Again" and APD/MD Jym Geraci reports it "explodes 36-29, pulling number two phones—the demos range and we get reaction everytime it's played." Also strong at WNKO Newark, OH 14-9, KJLS Hays/Great Bend, KS 32-24, WNNO Wisconsin Dells, WI 28-21 "top ten requests—women 18 plus," KGWY Gillette, WY 23-18, KAGO Klamath Falls, OR 26-16 and KONG Lihue, Kauai 33-17. New on: WBBQ, WJMX, WQGN, POWER

102, WDEK, KIXY, KFTZ and WHDQ.

After only a week of airplay, THE WILLIAMS BROTHERS are generating calls at stations like

TOWER 98 Toledo, where MD Terri McCormick says it's showing up in their "All Request Lunch Hour." ADDED at: WBXX, KEWB, MIX 107.5, KISN, WGBQ "it's headed Top Ten for us," Z97, KISS 108, KDWB, CK105, KAFX, KGLI, KGGG, WIAL, Y94, KXKT, WNVZ, WXTQ, etc.

Off to a great start, THE KLF debuts in the top twenty at #19 for WYHY Nashville. Other hot debuts at Y95 #24, KEGL #30, B96 #28, WIOQ/FM #26, KYYA #25 and KS104 #23. ADDED at: Q102, EAGLE 106, FUN 107, CKOI/FM, KKFR, 104 KRBE, KXXR, WCIL, XL93, WHHT, POWER 99, WAVA, KJYK, KISM and KOYE Laredo, TX where PD Steve Chase says it's "top fifteen on the phones after just two nights of airplay—leaning 18-24 so far."

Propelled by early chart strength on the West Coast, MINT CONDITION boasts a 26% HIT FACTOR. Top Ten at KMEL 6-5, KSTN 19-5 and KHTN Merced, CA 12-7 where PD Eddie Monson and MD Pete Jones explain that that, "We first felt it would be a great Hispanic record here in the West, but now we realize there's no limitations on it—it's still getting top five calls after a month of play." ADIDs include: KPSI, WHYT, WBXX, KISS 108, WXLC, KEEZ, KEEP, Q96, KZZO, WNNO, KFMC, WXTQ, WZST, etc.

It was a logjam that prevented CHRIS CUEVAS from moving up at XL93 Grand Forks, ND. Even though it held 6-6, APD/MD Rick Acker says it "looks strong for number one here in a couple of weeks." Rick exclaims, "You have to be out of your mind not to play this song! It's number one at retail and on the phones—simply our most explosive song." Hot at WYHY 33-17, B96 97-5, WRCK 33-26 "top ten calls," WJMX 37-29, TOWER 98 17-14, KJLS 3-1, KTDR 19-14, B95 10-4, POWER 102 18-10, KCAQ 23-17 and HOT 97.7 6-5. New on: HOT 102, WBBQ, KKFR, KFFM, KIXY, WZOU, WNVZ, WXLC and WQGN.

The most requested track at B96 Chicago is a NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK import, "If You Go Away." Also added at: POWER 96, Q106, KISS 108 and KQMQ.

Talk with you next week. The Country Crew

STEVE WARINER - The Tips Of My Fingers (Arista)

There were some great versions of this song recorded back in the '60s by the likes of Bill Anderson, Roy Clark and Eddy Arnold, but Steve's rendition could be the best yet. Vince Gill's back-up harmonies are an added treat. (And we thought it was the Three Steve Tour back again!)

MARTY STUART - Burn Me Down (MCA)

"Touch me, turn me on, and burn me down"—You can't get much more direct than that. Marty lets the message smolder while the song blazes outta control.

HANK WILLIAMS, JR. - Hotel Whiskey (Capricorn/Warner/Curb)

Ole' Bocephus certainly hasn't lost his touch as he shows on the first single from his new album Maverick. Hank's at his best on autobiographical songs, and fortunately his life is so interesting that listeners never tire of hearing different versions of the Hank Jr. story. Don't miss Clint Black's cameo at the end of the song!

THE REMINGTONS - I Could Love You (With My Eyes Closed) (BNA Entertainment)

Oh, those heavenly harmonies! This is the kind of song that instantly makes you feel happy and thankful that Country radio has embraced vocal groups like this.

SAMMY KERSHAW - Don't Go Near The Water (Mercury/PolyGram)

Kershaw injects this song with loads of character. It's full of great images that portray the excitement and passion of first love.

MOLLY AND THE HEYMAKERS - Mountain Of Love (Reprise)

Sounds like Molly and the boys might have hit on something here. They pump new life into this song (a hit for David Houston in 1963, and later for Charley Pride).

CLINTON GREGORY - Play, Ruby, Play (Step One)

Those of you asking for uptempo songs sure got your requests answered this week. Gregory demonstrates that he can handle a driving country rock song as well as ballads and honky tonkers. What's next for this talented singer? It seems he can do whatever he sets his mind to.

INSIDE URBAN

MOTOWN PLATINUM SMILES

For the past six months, Boyz II Men have been entrenched in the Top 20 of both the Urban and Top 40 charts. They've been joined there by labelmate Shanice Wilson, who USA Today names "one of the hottest artists to watch in 1992." Shown here at the Motown offices are (l-r): BTM's Wanya Morris and Nate Morris; Shanice Wilson; BTM's Michael McCary and Sharon Stockman.

Our Top Tip, THE CHILL DEAL BOYZ' "Make Ya Body Move" picked up new adds at KKFX-Seattle, KMJQ-Houston, WABD-Clarksville, WKKV-Milwaukee, WKYS/FM-Washington, D.C., WYLD/FM-New Orleans, and WZAK-Cleveland, and is on at eighteen other stations. Jeff Gill, KJLH-Los Angeles, likes JOE PUBLIC's "Live and Learn" and says "It's a positive record with a message, and as an added bonus, they play their own instruments." Jeff also says MINT CONDITION's "Pretty Brown Eyes (Breaking My Heart)" is getting good requests. Costee McNair, WBIL-Tuskegee, likes MARC NELSON's "Count On Me" saying, "Great follow-up to his first release and it has great potential." Kimberly Kaye, WFKX-Jackson, makes PRINCE's "Diamonds & Pearls" her hottest entry saying, "We had requests for this cut while we were playing 'Insatiable' and it's now our most requested single."

Hollywood Higgins, KRUS-Ruston, agrees saying, "It's Prince at his best." Stan Boston, WNHC-New Haven, makes GLENN JONES' "I Here I Go Again" his RTW saying, "If this is what the ballads are going to be like in 1992, we're in for a good year!" Greg Sampson, WQMG-Greensboro, likes C'VELLO's "Turn You On" and says, "This guy is hot—definitely going to be a trekkie!" Big Daddy Gilford, WYBC-New Haven makes X-CLAN's "Fire & Ice" his RTW saying, "Nice new release from this up and coming group with an album on its way." Neal Scoggins, KMZX-Little Rock, likes BEBE & CECE WINANS' "It's O.K." and says, "This is my uplifting song of the week." Tom Reddick, KKFX-Seattle, makes TLC's "Ain't Too Proud To Beg" and SMOOVE's "(Meanwhile) Back At The Ranch" both records to watch—he "couldn't decide between two slammin' and jammin' cuts." Ciao for now, Betty

NEW RELEASES

by John Martinucci

SMOKEY ROBINSON - I Love Your Face (SBK)

Veteran singer/songwriter Smokey Robinson takes the term K.I.S.S. to heart with a 2:34 followup to "Double Good Everything." Smokey's vocal style and dramatic production is, on this ballad, simplicity at its best.

PATTI AUSTIN - I'll Be Waiting For Your (GRP)

Patti's sweet vocals are prominent on this mid-tempo composition (written by James "D-Train" Williams) with an addictive hook that features background vocals by James Ingram, Michael McDonald and David Pack.

SURFACE - ...A Nice Time Of Lovin' (Columbia)

The ballad machine is cranking out another charttopper. Conley, Townsend and Jackson have the formula that many balladeers would pay big bucks for. "...A Nice Time For Lovin'" is part of a "Best Of Surface" package that covers the trio's six years together.

BE BE & CE CE WINANS - It's O.K. (Capitol)

Be Be & Ce Ce sing about support and forgiveness for those who have strayed into temptation but want to get out. This brother and sister's beautifully intertwined vocals create a comfortable feeling through verses like, "Somehow, things will work out just you wait and see...if we just believe."

ATLANTIC STARR - Masterpiece (Reprise)

Atlantic Starr slows it down to a ballad. Creating another Cupid's arrow hit are the Lewis Brothers, who gave us "Secret Lovers," "Always" and "My First Love." "Masterpiece's" sweet sentiments will become even more requested during Spring wedding season.

ALBUM CUTS

LUTHER VANDROSS - I'm Gonna / I Who Have...

Ask anyone who the greatest living Country singer is and you're likely to hear the words "George Jones." Jones is recognized worldwide as one of Country music's greatest vocal stylists, and you can hear his overwhelming influence echoed in the voices of just about every Country singer who has ever worn a hat.

For four decades Jones has given us of songs of despair and loneliness. His intense, moaning vocals wring every ounce of pain out of the melodramatic songs that are his trademark. Although he is also known for honky-tonkers like "The Race Is On" and "White Lightning," it's his ballads of end-of-the-world anguish that have made the biggest mark. He continues to record such songs: from 1960's "She Thinks I Still Care," to 1974's "The Grand Tour," 1980's monster hit "He Stopped Loving Her Today," up to "You Couldn't Get The Picture," the first single off his 1991 MCA debut. As one fan once said, "To hear George Jones sing is like watching a grown man cry."

Jones on-record misery was often mirrored in his personal life, providing decades of dirt for the gossip pages. Jones was born and raised in east Texas and first picked up a guitar at the age of nine. He later moved to Beaumont, and after a stint in the Marines, made his first recording for Starday, a local label owned by Jack Starnes and Jones' mentor Pappy Daily. His first big hit, "Why, Baby, Why" came in 1955. He moved to Mercury in 1957, where he earned the nickname “The Possum.” “I used to wear my hair in a crewcut, and on the White Lightning album the picture of me was a side view. I guess I did look like a possum with a turned-up nose,” George explains. “Either Ralph Emery or T. Tommy Cutrer started calling me ‘possum’ after that and it just got around.” Jones moved from Mercury to United Artists and Musicor in the 1960s before signing to Epic in 1971. It was at Epic that he began a long association with producer Billy Sherrill, who was also producing Jones’ wife at the time, Tammy Wynette.

Jones’ well-publicized marriage to Wynette is something that still fascinates his fans. Known as “Mr & Mrs. Country Music,” George and Tammy recorded and toured together, even continuing to record hit duets years after their breakup. It was after their split in 1975 that George began a bad spiral downward. He earned the nickname “No Show Jones” for the many concert dates he missed, absences which were blamed on drunken binges. After reportedly becoming addicted to cocaine in the ’70s, Jones fans and friends watched as he headed toward self-destruction, wondering how long “No Show” would last. He was accused of acts of violence, and dragged to court for missing concerts. In 1982, footage of Jones being arrested after a high speed chase—kickin’, screaming, and apparently intoxicated—was shown on national television.

Most folks credit George’s fourth wife Nancy with saving his life. Jones agrees. “I owe Nancy just about everything. She’s really helped me and stuck with me through a lot of hard times. Of course we had a lot of fans and people praying for us, and we did a couple of things right. We went into the hospital and got our thinking cap back on. The low point was when I got so sick and messed up back in the late seventies and very early eighties. I’m just glad to get out of all that mess and know there’s a real world out there.”

“I try to advise the younger artists about the things they can run into on the road, about hitting the juke too much and getting on the other hard stuff. It’s so easy to stray . . .”

Though Jones is understandably reluctant to dwell on the dark days of his past, he is quick to offer advice to new artists, to help them avoid the same traps. “I try to advise the younger artists about the things they can run into on the road,” George draws. “About hitting the juke too much and getting on the other hard stuff. It’s so easy to stray, even more so today because the world’s wide open. Once you get out there and get a little success, and you’re working a lot, it starts getting you down. You get fatigued and it’s very easy to start drinking and looking for something to give you energy and pep you up a little when you go on stage. These things happen real, real easy. The (artists) that I’m around, I try to say a few things about it because they know my past. I try to tell ‘em, ‘you might have to learn the hard way, but I hope you don’t.’ Especially Mark Chesnutt, who’s a real close friend of mine. I really admire him and try to talk to him now and then. Not that he’s doing anything wrong,” Jones is quick to add, “but it’s so easy to get into that.”

For awhile after his rehabilitation, George decided to steer clear of songs that glorified the honky tonk lifestyle. “I got away from doing bar and drinking songs. I think it was because I straightened up and quit all that stuff, and I was trying to show a new image.” Yet his new album contains the Max D. Barnes/Max T. Barnes song “Honky Tonk Myself To Death.” “Yeah,” Jones says, “we’ve started back doing a few because you need something uptempo on your albums, something happy and a little stupid. We picked ‘Honky Tonk Myself To Death’ because it was really a cute little song.”

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

Ron Fell is attending Midem this week. Associate Editor Diane Rufer brings you the following...

Seminar update:

We're only one week away from January 31, the discounted pre-registration deadline. Take advantage of this special rate and receive three days of various format sessions, keynote speakers and special artist showcases. Don't delay!!

This week GEORGE MICHAEL and ELTON JOHN maintain their #1 position in A/C and pick up #1 status on our Top 40 Chart as well. The sun is definitely shining brightly for these two chaps.

On our top spot's doorstep is AARON NEVILLE's "Somewhere, Someday." Will next issue find the door open for our #1 artist of '91?

DAN HILL has reached Top Five with "I Fall All Over Again." Now on 187 stations and new with KKOR, KORQ, WEBS and KEZR.

Moving up five slots and into the Top Ten is EDDIE MONEY's "I'll Get By." New this week at WHFM, WKWK/FM, WZNY, KOEL, KTRR and KEZR, helping to bring his total to 178 stations.

BETH NIELSEN CHAPMAN gains another 16% in HIT FACTOR from a strong turnover in rotations. BETH's "I Keep Coming Back To You" is earmarked for a Top Ten position. New this week for KLSS, KROC/AM, KCMJ/FM, KWAV/FM, etc.

The HOTTEST single of the week is PAUL YOUNG's "What Becomes Of The Broken-hearted." The impressive HIT FACTOR of 48% is a 28% increase in one week, and moves this record fifteen slots to #20. On 182 A/Cs and our third MOST ADDED with the help this week of 52 stations. To list a few: WELL, WKGW, WKLJ, WMXT, WVAF/FM, WJON, WHMS, WTPI, KDMX/FM, KBOI, KKIS, KVYN/FM and B100.

I'm hearing that ERIC CLAPTON's "Tears In Heaven" has become a sentimental favorite with our programmers, and it moves to #21 this week. There's a 23% PLUS FACTOR and it was ADDED at 27 more A/Cs. Amid the new are CKFM, WLLH, WXPS, WMXB, WZNY, KLTA, KMXV/FM, WDLB and WYCO.

Last week's Top Tip was a safe bet. In it's second week of release, MICHAEL BOLTON's "Missing You Now," featuring KENNY G, debuts almost halfway up the chart at #22. With 172 total stations in such a short time, there's no question where this single is headed.

Our second highest debut, AMY GRANT's "Good For Me," is the MOST ADDED single in this issue. Going for her fourth consecutive Top Ten, AMY was ADDED at 62 stations. New with WEIM, WOBM/FM, WCEM/FM, WFFX/FM, WMTZ, WXVL, KFYR, KQLS, KYMN, WQLH/FM, KKLD, KBOL, KYMG/FM and KTID.

Last issue's RECORD TO WATCH, was TINA TURNER's "Way Of The World," which now totals 73 stations and moves into CHARTBOUND with a 20% HIT FACTOR. Among the 35 new are WGMT, WZNY, KFYR,

DESMOND CHILD duet with MARIA VIDAL

Obsession (Elektra Entertainment)

All I could say after my first listen was "I love it." Mr. Child teams up with Maria Vidal for a duet that's irresistible and compelling. Along with Desmond, Burt Bacharach is credited with creating this beautiful song that will receive immediate play on most A/C stations.

SMOKEY ROBINSON

I Love Your Face (SBK)

Simplicity is the only word to describe this single. It's two minutes and thirty-four seconds of Smokey at his best. This sentimental ballad will be a must add to any "love songs" program.

PEABO BRYSON

Lost In The Night (Columbia)

This follow-up single to Peabo's Top Ten hit "Can You Stop The Rain" is another classic performance. The fabulous arrangement and production is from Walter Afanasieff and Barry Mann. A must play for every A/C.

RICHARD MARX

Hazard (Capitol)

Richard's attention to the narrative reminds me of songs from the past like "Ode To Billie Joe" and "The Night The Lights Went Out In Georgia." The intriguing storyline shows Richard's creativity has no boundaries on this follow-up single to his #1 A/C hit "Keep Coming Back."

PATTI AUSTIN

I'll Be Waiting For You (GRP)

From her new "Carry On" CD, there's a line-up of influential artists on this song, but the emphasis is on Ms. Austin's delivery and the infectious chorus. Background vocals from The Trinity which consists of Michael McDonald, James Ingram and David Pack.

EVERYTHING BUT THE GIRL

Understanding (Atlantic)

Tracey Thorn writes and vocalizes about what's needed for a couple to stay together while others fall apart. We can thank Ben Watt, Tracey's partner, for giving this love song such a nice, light-hearted sound that's very appealing.

KMJC/FM, WHIZ, Q92/FM and KRNO/FM.

Moving into the RECORD TO WATCH position this week is PRINCE and the N.P.G. with "Diamonds And Pearls" which fits perfectly in this category. Debuting in UP AND COMING with 34 A/Cs and ADDED this week with WMBA, WBLG/FM, WSSY, WXVL, KSCB, WRCO, KBHT and KBLQ to list a few.

The man who helped George pick the songs on his MCA debut is Kyle Lehning, known for his work as Randy Travis' producer. (Jones first met Lehning when he and Randy recorded the duet "A Few Ole' Country Boys.") After two decades of working with Billy Sherrill, Jones admitted that the new arrangement took a little getting used to. "It was great working with Kyle," George says. "But the first session was a little odd—I was used to being with Billy Sherrill for so many years. I didn't know Kyle that well, and I surely didn't know any of the pickers." He says that the two songs recorded in that session were a wash and didn't make the album, but by the next session things really started rolling. Lehning agrees. "I think we both were (nervous). It's always a little more pressure doing something with somebody who's had such a tremendous effect on the whole industry. It really was a terrific opportunity and experience for me, to work with one of the icons of Country singing. I couldn't have asked for better from him—He really worked hard on the record."

George seems happy with the move to MCA. "It's a whole new way they do business now than what I was used to for years. It's a whole new ballgame." It's obvious that Jones is a different man these days, happy and in control. He's enjoying his role of Living Legend and elder statesman, and doesn't seem to mind talking about the old days. Jones laughs when asked if he's heard Tammy's new project with the British dance band The KLF. "I heard she was in England to do a rap album. I can just hear her now saying, (starts to rap) 'D-I-V-O-R-C-E becomes a-final today' Actually." George admits, "I can not imagine Tammy Wynette doing rap music."

At 60 years old, Jones is still working the road as hard as ever, although he admits, "I am getting up to that age where I don't need to be working every week. My wife promised me when we got our bills paid off I could slow down!" In the same breath he expresses an interest in working with Garth Brooks, who, he said, "promised me he'd put me on a show one of these days." He seems to take the adulation of folks like Brooks, Alan Jackson, Mark Chesnutt and Randy Travis in stride. "It's a good feeling, and a big honor that a lot of the new artists admire me a little.

"A lot of my hopes have been fulfilled in the last few years." Jones continues. "Now that we've got a lot of new Country artists that are bringing traditional Country music back it sure has made me happy. I've been very lucky. I've had some great fans, and without them I couldn't do anything. I guess the good Lord blessed me with something." ●

ON MANAGEMENT

by Oren Harari

THE MYTH OF MARKET RESEARCH, PART 2

Two weeks ago we introduced the new format of my biweekly column. In an effort to double the relevance, I'm planning on devoting this space to responding to your questions, concerns, beefs, problems, ideas—you name it. If you'd like to comment on any of your thoughts, send them over to me or Beverly Mire, c/o the Gavin Report. Our fax number is (415) 495-2580.

Last time, I had the pleasure of responding to a couple of great questions posed by Eric Marshall (formerly of WSIX-Nashville) about research. Beware the perils and pitfalls of research—that was the message last time. Today I'll take on Eric's third question, which is:

Why do so many managers place so much emphasis on what a consultant has to say?

Answer: Because managers are looking for a magical, risk-free, politically safe, painless, quick fix solution. Here's what I mean:

Times are tough. A colleague remarked that nowadays the world of business is in a state of "permanent whitewater." Market realities in the world of radio include turbulence, unpredictability, constant overwhelming advances in technology, information overload, intense and multiplying competition from other stations and other entertainment sources, fickle listeners with absurdly short attention spans, egocentric maniacal artists, frenetic salespeople running for their lives, employees with their own weird idiosyncrasies and, for many stations, owners who are heavily leveraged with debt and care only about the short-term Arbitron and financial numbers.

How does anyone cope with all that madness, much less a poor, beleaguered general manager or program director? There are no simple answers, and I hope that over the next months (years?) this column will continue to help you focus a strategy and organization and leadership style that will allow you to thrive in this environment.

But for now, let me reiterate: There are no simple answers. Anyone who tells you otherwise is a liar or a fool. There is no one simple technique, technology, model, concept, idea or individual who will quickly and painlessly solve your problems and allow you to push in the cruise control button and watch the ratings effortlessly go up and up.

Unfortunately, there are too many owners. GMs or PDs (let's call them "managers") who are looking for the magical quick fix, and there are plenty of snake-oil salesmen out there who are ready to service such fantasies. Like drowning men grasping at straws, managers believe they can avoid the whitewater by subscribing to a gimmick that someone calling himself a consultant suggests will save them.

Even when the manager isn't looking for the quick fix, but just feels overwhelmed, and even when the consultant is sincere and honest, a potentially corrupt marriage can emerge. All too often, managers look for Superman (someone different, stronger, wiser) or the Lone Ranger (someone to come in, solve the problem and ride away). With great naive hope, managers attribute super-hero status on the consultant: Please solve my problems for me, or at least give me something with which I can cover my rear end when I have to answer to my boss or the shareholders. Even worse, sometimes the consultant believes that he or she is Superman.

And that's why so many managers place so much emphasis on what a consultant has to say. From a decision-making point of view, they subscribe to the myth that there's a magic solution out there that a Superman called a "consultant" knows. From a political point of view, they can use the consultant's recommendations to absolve themselves of responsibility for bad news. From a traditional point of view, when you've got a problem, look for the Lone Ranger; it's the great American way.

You may not believe this, but I'm not trashing consultants: I'm one myself. Consultants can help you with fresh, new, unbiased perspectives, but they can't do the work for you. No individual can solve your problems; your problems and opportunities go with the territory of management. Moreover, there are no quick, painless, riskless fixes. Here's what a good consultant will and won't do:

- He won't automatically plug your problems into his model or system. If he's fixated on his model or system, dump him. A good consultant will get to know your station intimately, and he'll care about it as something more than just a meal ticket, and he'll customize everything he does for you.

- She won't do the work for you. Beware the consultant who says, "Let me do some research for you and I'll write a report." Unless she wants you to be actively involved in doing the research, dump her. Too many consultants fit the definition of somebody who takes your watch, tells you what time it is, and then bills you.

- He won't play it politically safe; rather, he'll encourage and help you to break paradigms, try new bold things, take risks, endure pain and have the patience to see it through. Beware the consultant that wants to do safe traditional vanilla things. Doubly beware of someone who tells you not to try anything until he does yet more research for you (see #2 above, and my last column on the pitfalls of research).

- She won't act like you're working for her; on the contrary, she'll act as if you're her valued customer, which you are. And as a customer, you not only expect to be treated with great respect and courtesy, but you also want to see evidence that her services have been valuable to you. Ask her how you'll know that her services are worth the money you're shelling out. It's called "price-value." If you're not being treated as a valued customer, dump her.

- Most important, he'll work with you as a partner, teaching you how to make decisions, not simply feeding your decisions. When he leaves, you should feel stronger, more confident, and have more skills to navigate through the whitewater successfully. Otherwise, you just blew a bunch of money.

Whitewater is exciting for those who know how to paddle the rapids. Today's business environment calls for new rules, because it's a new game. Those managers who are ready to play the new game, and are willing to give up old habits and practices and learn new ones, are the ones who will thrive. Good consultants can help. But you, the manager, are the one whose pluck, creativity and business skills will guide the station through the rapids.

Thanks again, Eric. I'm looking forward to the next comment from one of you out there.

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

TONE LOC - Mean Green (Delicious Vinyl) Warning: Do not operate heavy machinery while under the influence of this song. Teaming up with label mate Def Jef, Tone Loc pays his tribute Mother Nature with this, the second single from "Cool Hand Loc". Laid over a slow, fat groove with a funky bassline, Loc's raspy lyrics sound almost too appropriate for this song. I wonder how many "mean greens" it took to get his voice to stay the way it is? Give Lamar Algee a call at (213) 465-2700 for your copy on clear green wax. K-WOO

FREEDOM OF SOUL - Caught In A Land Of Time (Word/Epic) What happens when you combine ministry, music and mixing? You get FREEDOM OF SOUL—a twosome who develop Hip-hop to new biblical proportions. It's Peace and D.J. Cartoon who spread the word in an interesting clash of styles. Check out "Freedom Of Soul," "This Is Love," and "Can't Hold Back" for a sample flavor of these heaven-bound sounds. The age of Gospel Hip-hop hath begun. Contact Troy White at (212) 445-4950. BDA

PUBLIC ENEMY - By The Time I Get To Arizona (Def Jam/Columbia) On the crest of last week's national holiday (Not!) and controversial video, Public Enemy release their commentary on the Arizona hold-out. It's classic P.E. that accurately portrays their anger at the status quo. Slammin' samples and a profoundly important sound solidify the message. A PSA with Chuck D and Flavor Flav is included on the CD single. Available everywhere except Arizona. Contact Bobbito at (212) 420-0790. BDA

RENAISSANCE - Twist Da Cap (Krazie Noise) So far 1992 has brought us some serious no bull**** flavor. Continuing this richness is the group called Renaissance. Dropping innovative word play and a hyped up chorus, this trio has all the elements that could break them larger than Rock Steady. Hailing from the Big Apple, Victor Padilla, Eric Mc Clister, and Anton Pushansky, aka Renaissance, loop up the Jazz spice of Patrice Rushen's "Remind Me." This track has across the board potential, so don't sleep on this guaranteed hit! Contact Sam Bates at (510) 548-3203. BAS

DAMN ANOTHER RAP GROUP - Hold That Thought (Libra Records) Re-freshing dope music brings harmony to the eardrums! Straight out of Harlem comes the funky debut of D.A.R.G. This track relies on a fat bassline, as Swift and DJ Mutilator take an abstract approach by using word association and metaphors. The concept might be confusing in certain areas of the country, but the original flava should hit for the hardcore B-Boys. My pick of the week. Contact Ed Chisolm at (212) 798-0438. BAS

LITTLE SHAWN - Hickeys On Your Chest (Capitol) At 106 BPMs, Hitman Howie Tee lays the beats down for the comical debut of Little Shawn. Taken off the forthcoming album "The Voice In The Mirror," Shawn records a lyrical proposal to the divas he seeks to slice and dice. Shawn comes off on the dialogue skills, but the beats and samples get repetitive after the second chorus. Humorous flava and sexual references gives the record a chance for commercial radio. The video is extra-hype, a must see enjoyment. Contact Malik or Jeff House at (213) 851-6588. BAS

N.W.A. - Appetite For Destruction (Priority) The boyz from the hood drop another bomb. Second release from the platinum album "NIGGAZ4LIFE," this track once again features Dre's tight production under the ghetto tales of Ren and Eazy. The hypnotic noise and dope breaks make this flawless arrangement an instant $$ at retail and radio. Already added at KCMU-Seattle, KUOP-Stockton, and WNHU-West Haven, CT. Contact Ern at (800)235-2300. BAS

P.D. NOTEBOOK

by Eric Norberg

MORE RADIO GRIPES ABOUT RECORD PROMOTION

Continuing with the responses to my December 6 column, "Music Promotion Pressure," here are three more letters from radio people in the United States, none of whom will be identified, for their own protection and/or to generalize the comments made:

A program director in the midwest writes: "I would like to share with you one of my strangest encounters. The incident took place about a year ago. I spoke with a (record company) representative on the phone, and she was working a certain song which I had listened to but was on the fence about. It was one of those songs that needs to be listened to several times, which is what I told her. During the conversation I expressed some interest in record promotion and she told me how she got into the business. I told her I was originally from (city) and she explained that she knew a jock there at a radio station that I might like to contact. The next week, she called back about this song, and I told her that after listening to it some more I didn't think it was right for our station. At that point, she became irate; she just couldn't believe that after all the 'information' and 'help' she had given me that I wasn't going to play her song. Needless to say I was stunned. It was like I was supposed to reward her with an add because she gave me some information." He adds, "obviously, not all record promoters are like this. As with most things, one bad apple can give the whole bushel a bad name..."

A program director elsewhere in the country writes: "When I first began reporting to Gavin I was called by each record label and by independent promoters. All were very nice and offered to be helpful in any way I needed. After a week or two of calls, some of the promoters tried pressure tactics, and tried to intimidate me to play some songs. Among the comments were, 'what do I have to do to get any of my records on your station,' 'I thought we were friends,' 'you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours,' and 'I am very disappointed in you.' I've had them yell at me and hang up the phone. I understand that many music directors succumb to this type of intimidation, and would want to add the record to get back on the 'good side' of the label, but the opposite is true of me—I will delay adding a song after verbal abuse... My advice to any Music Director who faces pressure from promoters is not to allow yourself to be intimidated. The promoter will either stop calling you or will stop the heavy-handed pressure. There are more good promoters than bad ones, and they are a helpful resource in selecting music to add.

"In reference to your paragraph on payola: While I was interviewing for a job once, a group PD asked if I would add a song if the record company promised a free concert or large promotion. My answer was no. He then asked, 'what if it would be beneficial to the station to have the concert? Couldn't you add it at night?'—!!! If a radio station does add a song for that reason, it shows the record company that this station will add any song if the right button is pushed. [Ed. Note: It's also illegal.]

Today's music charts can be manipulated by aggressive promotional people, and radio stations which add music or report music for the wrong reasons. A good Music Director will play songs which are right for the station and market! Many of our biggest hit records haven't done much elsewhere, and many national number one songs elicited little or no response in this market. If you feel a song is right for your station, yet it's doing poorly on the charts, play it anyway... and never play a song that's wrong for you just because it's doing well on the charts. The same promoter who would throw a fit if I didn't add his record the first week almost always does get 50 to 60 adds the first week on all his records—because he's found 60 music directors he can scare and intimidate. If you are one of them, you are doing a disservice to the industry."

And one more letter from a Program Director: "The article brought back memories of my initial experiences with music promotion people. A few self-imposed guidelines have helped me in dealing better with promotion reps, and in fact other sales people who call on me.

"First, and perhaps foremost, these people are just trying to do their job... Be honest with the people who call on you. You don't have to be mean. Just honest. If the song isn't what you're looking for, doesn't fit the demographic, doesn't fit with the rest of your list, tell them up front. Don't let a promotion rep sour you on a label... It's counterproductive for us in radio to bite the hand that feeds. They may have a record next time which can be used to great advantage by the station.

"Don't expect a promotion person to understand the intricacies of your market. The majority of the time you'll know if a song will work for you. These folks who call you each week may not even have heard of your city of license, and they may not look forward to calling you, but they're required to.

"I have been very impressed with at least 90% of the record reps I have spoken with. I wish I could print a list of all the wonderful people I hear from each week, because their labels should know what a great relationship they have built with our station. The other 10% will not be calling too much longer; they just don't get the results the labels want.

"One warning about a promotional technique; Ron Fell of the Gavin Report assured me I'm not the first person to experience this one. This past fall we were playing a song on an independent label. We'd only been playing the song for two days in light rotation when we started getting requests to play it more often. It was an O.K. song, but not one I would expect to generate 'phones.' My curiosity got the best of me, so when these 'listeners' called in to request this particular song, they were transferred to my office. From the first caller, I was aware that the people were not calling from within my market. I would ask them simple questions like where they were calling from (they picked towns in our state where our signal doesn't reach), what personalities on our station they most enjoyed listening to, and so on. The experience was entertaining and educational.

"The radio and record industries need each other; we don't have the same goals, but we still need to work together to accomplish our individual goals, and I whole-heartedly agree with your assessment, 'people of integrity will be remembered by people of integrity.'"

I appreciate the comments received from radio people on this subject. I still invite record company input on the same subject. In the meantime, we'll push on to another important subject next week: How familiar are you with your radio station's "Public Inspection File?" ●

BABES IN THE WOOD - MARY BLACK (CURB)

While bumming around Dublin for a few days last month, one of our favorite pastimes was thumbing through the Irish Traditional section in the Virgin and HMV mega-stores. Rest assured, there were quite a few titles in the Mary Black section, and one of her gigs in London was advertised months in advance. She is a worldly talent indeed, a tad more earthy than Enya. Black embodies the spirit of Dublin in the sense that her talent is steeped in ancient (yet street-wise) tradition coupled with a gnawing need to be progressive and visionary—a simultaneous glance at antiquity and timeless modernity, if you will. At the very least, all Adult Alternative should be playing the title track and "Might As Well Be A Slave." We're attracted to the hymn-like passion of "Bright Blue Rose," "Adam At The Window" and "The Thorn Upon The Rose." On tracks like the pleading "Prayer For Love" and many of the ones previously mentioned, Black relies on a squeeze box, traces of fiddle, and sweet but tight background vocal harmo-nies to give off their devout Celtic spark. Excellent vocal AA fare. In my opinion, if Joyce and Yeats were alive today they'd be drinking to Mary Black and the Pogues. Enough said.

WHATCHA GONNA DO FOR THE REST OF YOUR LIFE - DIRTY DOZEN BRASS BAND (COLUMBIA)

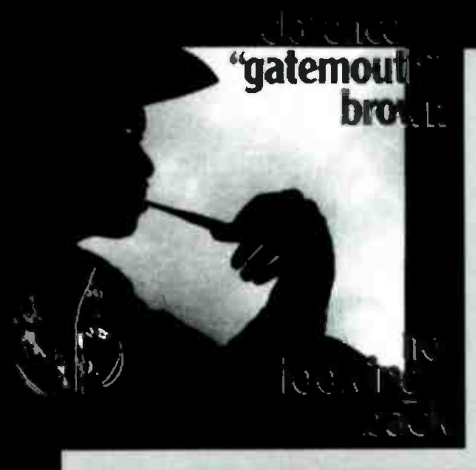

Though I'm not an authority on their earlier works, this sounds like Dirty Dozen Brass Band at their very best. Bypassing Elvis Costello's well-intentioned crossover path, DDBB is back where they sound best, two sonic steps from the street. That's not to say that they sound like your average street corner outfit. Au contraire. Especially on the six part suite titled "The Lost Souls (Of Southern Louisiana)," the band's arrangements are orchestral and ambitious. (Note that they wisely indexed the movements during the CD mastering process.) Kirk Joseph plays his sousaphone as if it were a string bass (check out that bottom on "Charlie Dozen"). The remainder of the brass voices contribute their complicated parts with targeted accuracy. With Raymond Weber's vicious drumming on the opening "Use Your Brain," the Brass Band are at their swingin'est and deadliest. While Whatcha Gonna Do has the band going back to their brass tacks, "second-line bucking jumping" basic best, the "Lost Souls" suite creates a vital centerpiece for those smart enough to take the disc home after hearing on-air burners like "Charlie Dozen," the reggaed "Dominique" or the aforementioned "Use Your Brain." Whew!

TIME AFTER TIME - OSCAR PETERSON (PABLO)

More magnificence from the ten-fingered wonder of the world. Time After Time is culled from a 1986 gig at the Westwood Playhouse in Los Angeles. Though the album features Joe Pass with a rhythm section consisting of Dave Young and drummer Martin Drew, the core medley of "Who Can I Turn To" into "Without A Song" into a tear-jerking version of 1947's "Time After Time" is primarily Peterson alone. While "solo piano" today conjures up visions of tranquility, even though the tempos are slow Peterson still burns. However, on this set the bluesy, six minutes long

"Soft Winds" may be a more reasonable air-play alternative.

INEVERYMOMENT - NELSON RANGELL (GRP)

This Russ Freeman production is explosive in every way, even on a soprano sax ballad such as "Golden." Like on his chart-topping Rippington events, Freeman, here with Rangell, takes no prisoners. In Every Moment begins on a risky note that pays off when the listener is introduced via "One World Spirit" to a shower of flutes and piccolos. On the second track, "N.Y./L.A.," a full six minutes passes before a single sax is heard. By "Map Of The Stars" they return, and if AA plays it, it might be the edgiest flutes ever heard on the format. "Boomtown" is more GRPish experimentation with hip-hop rhythms, featuring a keyboard collision between Freeman and Chuck Loeb. "Someday" features lyrics and vocals from Syreeta Wright, In Every Moment's only vocal moment. Obviously IEM is aimed at AA and its many tributaries and philosophies. Don't be fooled by the low key black and white photography. In Every Moment is In Everyone's Face. Not for the mellow, faint of heart or purist. Edgy and aggressive.

EVERY ACT OF LOVE - WILLIAM AURA & FRIENDS (HIGHER OCTAVE)

Synthesist William Aura steers his music closer to a multi-kulti vision, straying, once and for all, from the blissful pastures of New Age. "Let Yourself Go" is a beat-oriented piece featuring some flute fingering that conjures up some swell images of opulent tropical beaches. Moods shift heavenward on the slightly spacey "Spirit Rising," but again Aura relies on a more commercial Adult Alternative approach with saxophonist Gary Meek. Those still pining for Aura's lushness and heart-tugging piano melody need only to proceed to the title track. Here he programs his keyboard into a baby grand and underscores tasty, romantic lines with sentimentally-fueled sheets of soprano sax lines. "Maya," with its cascades of thinly veiled reggae riffs, could rival "Spirit Rising" as Aura's most upbeat, airplay-conducive track on this, his fifth Higher Octave release. Top ten bound? Wouldn't surprise us.

"After a promising start for the Adult Alternative format in Boston, it's great to have a FRESH new sound to start 1992. One listen to the track LET YOURSELF GO and we had to add it immediately!"

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

THE AMERICAN IN ME -
STEVE FORBERT
(Geffen)

With the mood of the country shifting more toward its own domestic identity, could Steve Forbert's American songs be timed any better? The American In Me is a splendid collection of 'merican tales. Those of us who remember Steve when he was hailed as the New Christ of New York Late-Seventies Folk already know that he waivers beautifully between the roles of bandleader and intimate songwriter. New songs like "If You're Waiting On Me," "Born Too Late" and "Baby, Don't" serve the band format nicely as the lyrics are never overpowered by the ensemble. After that, it's cellophane city, so to speak. A song like "You Cannot Win 'Em All" has a stunning transparency that a lot of programmers and listeners can relate to. The American In Me seems to deal with a lot of grown-up issues, like adapting to responsibility as well as evaluating our place in American society. I believe the derogatory term is yuppie, but it's much deeper than that. Right now we're the folks footing the bill for an American Dream mortgaged and run amuck. When you watch a movie like, say, Grand Canyon, then hear a record like this, you get the eerie feeling that we're all sharing the same life experiences. Great record.

"THE SAD SONG OF THE WIND" -
JULES SHEAR
(Polydor/PLG)

Now that we're on the subject of songwriters, howabout one of the best. I ran out of fingers listing my favorite songs, both Jules Shear's own renditions as well as OPV (other people's vehicles). Mercifully "The Sad Sound Of The Wind" comes from a brand new set that features Jules front and center with a snappin' band. In other words, he's back as a solo and plugged in as well. There are few folks that can better combine verse and chorus. Here's the proof right here. I like the longer, "guitarier" version.

"LEAD ME TO THE WATER" -
DANNY TATE
(Charisma)

This is the first "sip" of Danny Tate's new album. Tate is another songwriter who is no stranger to writing within the rock mode. Recently he has supplied winners for Lynyrd Skynyrd, Jeff Healey Band and Johnny Van Zant, to name just a few. "Lead Me To The Water" features his back-up band (former A&M artists Giant, currently on Epic) in full wail.

"INTO THE FIRE" -
SARAH McLACHLAN
(Arista/Nettwerk)

A real breakthrough album for twenty-three year-old Sarah McLachlan, who hails from Halifax, Nova Scotia. "Into The Fire" is presented here with two mixes. The opening edgier and bassy entry is mixed by John Fryer, who has twiddled the knobs of Jesus Jones, Love & Rockets and the Cocteau Twins. Following that is the original album mix. Both treatments flatter the song from a woman who seems destined to join the upper echelons of rock/progressive expression.

"MURDER, TONIGHT, IN THE TRAILER PARK"/
"BLACK EYED MAN" -
COWBOY JUNKIES

Here's a gruesome tale you may not be expecting from the Cowboy Junkies. While the Junkies remain true to their stark style, you may also be surprised by the energy and edge they exhibit this time around. "Black Eyed Man" is the other side of the coin altogether. Again, not the mellow fare you may expect—more of a lonesome Country groove. On both trax, singer Margo Timmins internalizes some dark images.

"GROW OR PAY" -
(Warner Bros.)

D.A.D get a little closer to that live, pile-driving concert sound, only on "Grow Or Pay" they throw in a few surfy guitar licks. These Danish rockers gave it a hard go a couple years back on their American debut. This one seems so right, sort of a dreamy and rockin' sonic mix between Chris Isaak and Def Leppard.

"(SHARE A LITTLE) SHELTER" -
NUCLEAR VALDEZ
(Epic)

Nuclear Valdez consist of vocalist Froilan Sosa, an imaginative and Guitar World-acclaimed guitarist named Jorge Barcala and rhythm section Juan Diaz and drummer Robert LeMont. This quartet draws from their heritage, only subliminally using Latin ingredients in a rock context, opting for a melting-pot American rock attack. "(Share A Little) Shelter" is percussive, slightly dancey and thoroughly rockin'.

PURE - MIDGE URE (RCA)

Pure is Ure one hundred and eighty degrees opposite his work with Ultravox. While Ultravox explored the use of synths back when new music was New Music, Pure takes a new World view. With the tremendous use of percussion, Ullian Pipes (by Chieftain Paddy Moloney, no less), tin whistles and African-sounding singers, Midge Ure gives his music a global spin. As always, the mixes are massive. The single (already scoring well on our Commercial Alternative Sub-chart) sounds similar to what one may expect from artists like Johnny Clegg & Savuka. There's still plenty of music that reflects Midge's Scottish roots, a land where his stardom is seemingly limitless. Trax: "Cold, Cold Heart," "Sweet 'n' Sensitive Thing" (love that "Panic In Detroit" bridge) and "I See Hope In The Morning Light" for starters.

ALTERNATIVE INSIDE

BY LINDA RYAN

I still haven't quite recovered from last Sunday's NED'S ATOMIC DUSTBIN show. Neither has the San Francisco Fire Marshall, who kept a keen eye on the overly packed club. The band played a few new songs, which they promise will be recorded for a new album just as soon as they get back from Australia.

PRIMUS' version of the XTC classic "Making Plans For Nigel" is making quite a presence at radio. The CD5 will be in stores come March, and until then, you can see the Bay Area's best on tour with—gulp—RUSH.

If you've managed to git yer paws on a copy of THE WONDER STUFF's double CD for "Welcome To The Cheap Seats," then you've noticed WHTG's MATT PINFIELD on the inside cover. Apparently someone was filming Matt while telling the story of how bassist PAUL CLIFFORD almost got his head blown off by a boarder patrolman in Mexico. Nice one.

Baltimore, MD, is currently being plagued by a string of arson fires and at least one person—WJZ news reporter Paula Tutman—thinks there might be a connection between the fires and the lyrics to the MC 900 FT. JESUS song, "While The City Sleeps." WHIFS' BOB WAUGH, who was interviewed for the news piece, called any connection between the song and the recent arson incidents "ludicrous." He went on to say that, "The City Sleeps" inspires about as much arson as Steven King's 'Firestarter' or the movie 'Backdraft'... And 'Helter Skelter' was responsible for the demise of Sharon Tate."

MC 900 FT. JESUS' MARK GRIFFIN, in a statement faxed to us at Gavin, responded to the charges:...My intention was to present the listener with a series of vivid images as seen through the eyes of this person. Nothing more, nothing less. To interpret this song as a glorification of the joys of arson is to entirely miss the point. But what really concerns me is this: Saying that a pop song can exacerbate a social problem is like saying that your bathroom mirror makes your acne worse...People are responsible for their actions.

Pop songs are NOT mind control."

KUKQ's annual BIRTHDAY BASH is starting to take shape and I thought I'd let you in on a few early details. This year's Bash will be brought to you by the hardworking folks at KUKQ and MTV. The two day concert festival, which will take place at Compadre Stadium, features some of the hottest acts of our format. We're talking NIRVANA, TEENAGE

FANCLUB, LUSH, SOCIAL DISTORTION, CONCRETE BLONDE, HENRY ROLLINS and lots more. April 10 and 11—be there!

If you haven't heard already, SPINAL TAP will be appearing at this year's GAVIN SEMINAR. I said—SPINAL TAP will be there! Most excellent.

This has certainly been quite a year for SBK's MIKE MENA. Add a new set of V.P. stripes to his growing list of accomplishments... Another guy movin' on up is RCA's BRUCE FLOHR, who eases into a new Senior Director position at the label. Congratulations to both of you.

Congratulations also go out to MARK FODIATUS. A victim of the cutbacks by Atlantic Records, Fodiatus has resurfaced at AAM, in New York. You know you'll be getting a call from him soon.

New singles by TEENAGE FANCLUB and U2 have added to the artists' point totals, and in U2's case, has made enough of an impact to give them back their bullet. Ditto URBAN DANCE SQUAD. The combination of new singles and tours have breathed new life into both the SIOUXSIE AND THE BANSHEES and THE SHAMEN projects.

Favorite tunes on my CD player: BIG STAR's "September Gurls," SOCIAL DISTORTION's "Bad Luck," L.A. STYLE's "James Brown Is Dead," DIED PRETTY's "Sweetheart" and can I just say—as I hit the repeat button—what an awesome tune "Come Alive" by ORCHRESTRA JB is. I hope you all add it this week. At least listen to it, O.K.?

Sincere condolences to Harry Levy who lost his mother to cancer this week. Our thoughts are with you.

ORCHESTRA JB - "COME ALIVE" (EAST WEST)

Without a doubt, this is the coolest release of the week. "Come Alive" will not only go down in history as being the only dance record to feature harmonica, it also stands as one of the few songs that can charm my butt onto the dance floor—no easy task, I assure you. If the gently oscillating house beats don't seduce you, chances are the harmonica (the kind you'd hear in a Clint Eastwood flick) will. Then again, it might be the sultry divas that drive this one home. In any case, it's enough to make this track positively deadly. Can you say, "Bigger than Enigma?" LINDA RYAN

THE SUGARCUBES - "HIT" (ELEKTRA)

Oh my! The Sugarcubes have got a bonafide "hit" on their hands. (Hey, whaddaya want, blood?) This heavy bass groove and Einar's up front horn—not to mention the sample/scratch intro—might make a few listeners wonder whether or not their trusty DJ has announced this one correctly. But the minute Bjork opens her mouth to sing, that signature Sugarcubes' sound immediately puts all doubts to rest. Their last album was a bit disappointing, but it looks like The Sugarcubes are well on the road to recovery. As quirky as ever but a bit more directed. I like this one a lot, but more importantly—your listeners will love it! LR

SARAH McLACHLAN - "INTO THE FIRE" (ARISTA)

I have a feeling this song is going to turn a large number of you into bona fide Sarah McLachlan fans and most likely, it will turn the lady into a star. "Into The Fire" highlights Sarah's dynamic vocal range, which has always been her strong suit. With this release, other things seem to have clicked as well—I mean, the girl's got a song—a genuine pop smash. And hey, if Sinéad O'Connor can do it, so can Sarah McLachlan. Give it a spin and tell me—is it my imagination, or is this a hit? LR

LUSH - SPOOKY (4-AD/REPRISE)

Alright, an entire album! Lush has returned with a new album, and it's about time I say. Forerunners of the much talked about "scene that celebrates itself," Lush was just about to become a fond but distant memory when Spooky arrived. Once again, the Cocteau Twins' Robin Guthrie has a hand in production and as you might expect, the swirling mass of sound is as tangible as it is ambient. For me, Lush is at their best when there's an actual pop song in the midst of all the sound, and thankfully there's quite a few excellent pop songs to choose from on Spooky. I particularly like "Laura," "Untogether," "Superblast," "For Love" and "Monochrome." Pick yer poison. Now then, when do they tour? LR

THE ORIGIN - BEND (VIRGIN)

I suppose the difference between The Origin's last album and this new one could be likened to early Beatles vs. the sound of The Beatles in the late '60s. If you're expecting more of the same Smiths kinda pop as per the last album—forget it. There are some bouncy pop songs on Bend, but for the most part the material is more introspective—more grown up. It might have something to do with the band relocating to San Francisco and moving into a flat in Ashbury Heights, near Haight Street. There are a few songs on the album that sound like they've been written and influenced by Mary and Juana—well-known in the Haight/Ashbury scene if you follow my oh-so-clever drift. Anyway, I like the bouncy "Waiting," "Jumping To Fall," the let-it-all-hang-out-ness of "Yes I Want," "Bonfires Burning" and two beauties, "Never Again" and "Giving It All." See them in person at this year's Gavin Seminar! LR

MURDER, TONIGHT, IN THE TRAILER PARK

COWBOY JUNKIES - "MURDER, TONIGHT, IN THE TRAILER PARK" (RCA)

Now here's an interesting premise for a song—sort of a "Night The Light Went Out In Georgia" for the '90s. Chances are, stations on the Gavin panel that appeal to a more adult audience are already playing this one. For those ultra hip, ultra cool modern rock stations, give this one a spin 'cos it's a good story-song—plain and simple. LR

DEFINITION OF SOUND - "MOIRA JANE'S CAFE" (CARDIAC)

"Moira Jane's Cafe" is the follow up to the band's very excellent and shamefully overlooked single, "Wear Your Love Like Heaven." Like De La Soul or PM Dawn, Definition Of Sound's frame of musical reference includes classic pop songs from our past, which allows them to hop-scotch over labels like "Rap" or "Alternative." "Moira Jane's Cafe" is a catchy song built around a "Let It All Hang Out" guitar riff and delivered in DOS's distinct vocal style. Check it out and be prepared to groove! LR

BIG STAR - a little BIG STAR (RYKODISC)

Culled from Big Star's 3rd, Big Star Live, and I Am The Cosmos are sixteen luminaries that sparkle in the firmament. The live version of "You Get What You Deserve" oozes with threadbare honesty. "I Don't Know" and "I Got Kinda Lost" are a pair of rockers that feature desperate Alex Chilton vocals while all instruments swerve with abandon. "You And Your Sister's" meditative acoustic guitar and brooding strings match the song's plaintive mood. Imagine Billy Preston sitting in on harpsichord and you'll get the flavor of the previously unreleased "Psychedelic Stuff." A bass drum hops like a kangaroo and a euphoric guitar is the perfect companion for Chilton's psychedelic musings. Exhibit A as to why the Replacements paid tribute by proclaiming "I'm in love/What's that song?" Look for the soon-to-be-released box set containing unabridged versions of all three CDs. DAVID BERAN

The stars came out for Live 105's acoustic "Green Christmas" benefit for Greenpeace. The Wonder Stuff's Miles Hunt admired Chris Isaak's performance as well as his nifty red suit. Suited up l-r are: Chris Isaak, Miles Hunt and Isaak's skins-master, Kenny Dale Johnson.

Seeking asylum—and a new label—members of Soul Asylum sign on the dotted line with Columbia Records/Sony Music. There's way too many people in this shot to name, and that's O.K. What you really need to know is that the cute ones are in the band.

HEAR AND THERE

By Sheila Rene

You're not going to believe the new Joe Cocker album. First of all, he ROCKS! Joe's Capitol album is due for domestic release by March, but it's already gained Gold status in Europe. There's talk about the title, Night Calls, being changed by the time it hits our shores. Cocker's cover of Gary Wright's "My Love Is Alive" is perfect and it'll be the first single to hit the top. There are also covers of Beatles and Elton John tunes...

Carlos Santana has signed a multi-album recording deal with Polydor/PLG Records and it calls for the formation of Santana's own record label, Guts & Grace, and gives him the freedom to sign and develop acts. The first album, tentatively titled Milagro, is scheduled for release in the spring. Carlos will co-arrange and co-produce with longtime friend and bandmember, keyboardist Chester Thompson...

VH-1 has some cool new programming scheduled to begin on March 8. Specifically, a show called "Rock N Roll Cities" will showcase artists who got their start in such music hotbeds as San Francisco, Austin, Memphis, Detroit and Seattle. The spotlight shines on Austin personalities first, with Texans Don Henley, Kris Kristofferson, Willie Nelson, Joe Ely, Jimmie Vaughn, The Sexton Brothers and Michelle Shocked...

Bits & Pieces: Metal Blade Records has signed the San Francisco-based band, Epidemic. Recording of their debut disc has already begun in Palo Alto, with producers Mike Martin and Eric Dodd manning the dials...Those Bay Area rockers, Babylon AD, are currently cutting their newest Arista album in Hollywood with veteran producer Tom Werman. Look for the album by April...Hollywood Records released the cassette single of Queen's "The Show Must Go On"/"Bohemian Rhapsody" on January 13. The label plans to donate all proceeds to the Magic Johnson Foundation to commemorate the passing of lead singer Freddie Mercury...

George Michael's new Columbia album, Extended Play Thing or EPT, is set for an April release. With titles like "Crazy Man Dance," "Happy" and "Fantasy," it's obvious this record is about "dance" music and the club community. Proceeds from George's next maxi-single recorded on the "Cover to Cover" tour (the Stevie Wonder classic "I Believe [When I Fall In Love]) are being donated to various AIDS, education and children's organizations in the U.S., U.K. and Canada...

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

VANESSA WILLIAMS - Save The Best For Last (Wing/Mercury) Every artist needs that "career record," and while Vanessa is by now accustomed to chart success, this effort takes her to a whole new level. It deserves to become her biggest hit to-date and it's well on the way with Top Ten status at Y95 and Q106. Those listing it top twenty so far include KSTN, KMEL, KJYK, KHTN and B95.

RICHARD MARX - Hazard (Capitol) Skilled at writing Pop rockers and love songs, this second release from Rush Street showcases Richard Marx's brilliance as a storyteller. Guiding us on tale of small town alienation and misunderstanding, he concocts a script about two lovers that could someday wind up on the big screen.

ERIC CLAPTON - Tears In Heaven (Reprise) Pretty easy to hear why this song from the soundtrack of "Rush" is exploding on the A/C chart. Clapton and co-writer Will Jennings succeeded in crafting a song that can best be described as emotionally gripping, especially in light of the tragic circumstances surrounding the untimely loss of Clapton's young son last year.

TERRI NUNN - Let Me Be The One (DGC) Though it didn't become their biggest hit, I recall reviewing Berlin's 1983 release, "Sex (I'm A...)," now considered an Alternative radio classic. Nearly a decade later, lead vocalist Terri Nunn makes her solo debut with a song that's much more suited to Top 40 and that features the production know-how of David Z.

NIA PEEPLES - Kissing The Wind (Charisma) Boundless energy is what Nia's always projected on television, so it's no surprise to hear her do exactly the same on her latest single. To her credit she puts a bit of a Rock edge on this follow-up to last year's Top Ten hit, "Street Of Dreams." Look for her on the cover of Gavin in two weeks.

ONE 2 ONE - Peace Of Mind (Love Goes On) (A&M) Those that like their Pop music with a twist of Folk are in for a real treat. This combination of message and melody comes courtesy of a singing and writing twosome from Canada—Leslie Howe and Louise Reny. Leslie also handles duties as producer/arranger and with music like this, the pair are setting out to do their share in filling the void for bright new Pop music.

MARKY MARK AND THE FUNKY BUNCH - I Need Money (Interscope)

In the sixties we had Barret Strong proclaiming, "The best things in life are free, but you can give 'em to the birds and bees—I need money." Thirty-two years later in the midst of a recess—oops, let's make that economic downturn, okay?—comes much the same message, but communicated nineties' style via Rap. Marky's mass appeal rap style fits easily with the sample of The O'Jays 1974 hit, "For The Love Of Money."

KIX - Tear Down The Walls (Atco/EastWest America)

Potential theme song for ABC's hit comedy, "Home Improvement"? Hardly. But this hard rockin' outfit from Baltimore hammers home their words and music in a power ballad that has a solid melody as its foundation.

MASSIVE ATTACK - Be Thankful For What You Got (Virgin)

William De Vaughn may have only struck gold once, but he did it big time with this tune in 1974. Though it seems almost an impossible task to improve on the original, this tastefully crafted cover is a first-rate production that does exactly that.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

MUSIC FROM THE MOTION PICTURE RUSH-ERIC CLAPTON (WARNER BROS.) Ironically, this is the best Eric Clapton album released in a very long time. The instrumentals and three vocal performances, coupled with a stellar, intense acting job by Jason Patric makes Rush an intriguing package. Like the soundtrack, Rush the movie creeps up on you two days after you see it. Not only is Patric and Jennifer Jason Leigh a mean acting ensemble, but the inclusion of Gregg Allman (who utters but two lines) was a stroke of casting genius.

But it's the music that keeps peering its head above the horizon, toeing the line between background and foreground. Ultimately it's more pleasant to enjoy the record without all of those movie needle close-ups. "Tears In Heaven" is already a hot rush on the Album charts. Yet there's still more ammo, with "Help Me Up" followed by the long bluesy "Don't Know Which Way To Go" (featuring Buddy Guy). "Preludin Fugue" is the instrumental standout.
