Madonna: $60 Million Maverick

Add Maverick to the description of self-described singer/actress/sexual provocateur Madonna. The pop superstar this week signed a seven-year record company/music publishing/television/film/merchandising/book publishing agreement with Time Warner. The terms of Madonna's contract extend her exclusive recording agreement with Sire Records, with her records being released under the banner Maverick/Sire Records.

Madonna's $60 Million price tag is equalled only by Michael Jackson, who signed a deal for roughly the same amount with Sony Music last year. Their contracts differ in that Jackson's is an outlet for his own creative output while Madonna intends to discover new talent.

Maverick will be run by both Madonna and her manager/partner Freddy DeMann. The company will have its own A&R and national and regional promotion departments. Marketing, sales and local promotion will be handled by Warner Bros. and Sire Records. "Freddy and I, the Maverick staff and the Time Warner divisions are dedicated to making this enterprise a vehicle to entertain as well as enlighten, provoke and naturally, make a profit." said Madonna with typical candor. "Maverick stands for the perfect marriage of art and commerce." In an interview with the New York Times, Madonna called the new company an "artistic think tank."

Freddy DeMann and Madonna began their business association in 1983. DeMann's own company, DeMann Entertainment, represents artists that include Lionel Richie, the diVinyls and The Smithereens. He once managed the Jacksons and takes credit for helping bring together Michael Jackson and Quincy Jones.

American Media Buys Two AM/FM Combos

The Long Island, New York and San Francisco-based American Media has agreed in principle to purchase Parker Communications stations KTCJ/AM-KTCZ/FM in Minneapolis-St. Paul and KAHI/AM-KHYL/FM in Sacramento, California. Dollars exchanged weren't disclosed, but it's been reported that the deal will be based on debt assumption. The sale is expected to be completed by early summer.

American Media execs have already met with staffers at KTCZ, which is a Gavin reporter. The Album station simulcasts with KTCJ/AM. Early indications are as expected: no changes are anticipated. Although American Media owns stations in multiple formats, Album isn't one of them.

"These radio stations have everything we were looking for and serve two of America's best radio markets," said American Media co-principal Art Kern. "Both Minneapolis and Sacramento have been on our 'wish list' for many years."

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Last week (Gavin 4/17), WBXX Battle Creek, MI OM Joe Dawson shared a detailed account of how he found himself taking his station to #1, only to wind up forced to change format.

This week, Joe offers his thoughts about the area that Top 40 needs to focus on in order to maintain upper-demo strength. Joe argues it "will be harder and harder to sell Top Forty as a computer-driven jukebox that simply shuts up and plays the hits outside of Morning Drive. People have become too sophisticated to believe positioning statements from disc jockeys whose only show prep is to be breathing at the time they read them.

"However, this does open a window of opportunity that has been shut for a long time on most Top Forty stations. PERSONALITY! In 1992, the only reason someone would turn on the radio instead of putting in a tape is to be informed and entertained. Personality radio has been proven to attract adults and keep them for long periods of time. It wasn't so long ago that Top Forty had 'stars' on all day long. Remember Larry Lujack doing Afternoons on WCFL, complete with all the bits that made his show a tune-in instead of just trying to eliminate tune-out?

"Try this test: Dial 1-212-555-1212 and ask the operator to name one deejay in New York City, outside of Morning Drive. I think you know what the answer will be. And if a person that lives in New York, the biggest market in the U.S., can't do that, how will this test play out in Peoria, Illinois?

"If we want Top Forty to continue on as a viable format that will attract 25-54s, the answer is not to edit the music—after all, that's what people come to us for. If you don't play the hits, then change the music format. Play the hits, but develop the personalities that realize radio is not a jukebox—it's show business!

"Program directors need to pry themselves away from their computers and go to the front line—the control room. Develop new talent. It's a shame that the most identifiable radio personalities like Rush Limbaugh, Paul Harvey, Howard Stern and Steve Dahl, to name a few, are not in Top Forty. Encourage experimentation and fun on the radio, and promote and market good personality radio. Create tune-ins—this is the key to the future."

HIT FACTOR surge of 49% to 74% for DEF LEPPARD reflects the power of this band. Retail action is anything but surprising, and they're too hot for even Dance-leaning Top 40s like WPGC Washington, D.C., to ignore. MD Albie D. has put together the "Dee Fresh Knockout Mix" of "Let's Get Rocked," which also got ADDED at KS104 Denver. Contact Albie for your copy at (301) 441-3500. Those showing huge gains include WZYQ 23-18, WTCF 16-12, WNSL 20-11, WBBQ 19-9, WUVA 26-12, WXLC 20-14, KHHT 24-15, WZOQ 21-12, KSKU 23-15, B98 32-22, KLIS 20-11, KISM 22-14, KYRK 24-16, KCHH 25-17 and KPKY 18-8.

Each week, TOM COCHRANE turns another big corner and this was one of his biggest. NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Brian A. Samson

LITTLE SHAWN - The Voice In The Mirror (Album) (Capitol) As one of the largest underground art forms continues to saturate the music industry, Rap has taken itself to a level where artists, as well as labels, must conceptualize and research the marketplace. No longer exists the typical Rap consumer. Exemplifying this change is the versatile flava of Little Shawn's "Voice In The Mirror." With the Howie Tee influence, Little Shawn presents a tasteful offering for every Rap consumer across the nation. L.S. injects enthusiastic personality and lyrical skills into each track giving him the broad acceptance of Rap fans and purists. Don't let "Hickeys" mislead you about Shawn's musical direction, as this debut album should change the doubtful Rap fan's mind. My favorite pick "That Girl." Recommended tracks: "Funky, Funky Rhymes," "Why Ya Gotta Act That Way," "I'd Love 2" (Urban Radio hit). Contact Jeff House or Malik Levy at (213) 851-0576. BAS

NEW RELEASES

by John Martinucci

VANESSA WILLIAMS - Just For Tonight (Wing/Mercury)

Heavy hitter Vanessa Williams is now battling three for three number ones from The Comfort Zone album, and is eyeing the top of the Urban/Contemporary chart with her fourth. "Just for Tonight" is co-written, produced and arranged by Keith Thomas, who gave us "Save The Best For Last." The ballad has Vanessa's beautiful vocals pleading for one more night of romance before she and her (ex)lover call it quits. JM

THE ISLEY BROTHERS FEATURING RONALD ISLEY - Sensitive Lover (Warner Bros.)

The return of Ernie's wailing guitar and Ronald's passionate vocals recall the early days of The Isley Brothers while sounding fresh. Ronald Isley and partner Angela Winbush co-wrote and co-produced the sexy "Sensitive Lover" for The Isleys, which is lifted from their new album, Tracks Of Life. JM

EUGENE WILDE - How About Tonight (MCA)

It's been about three years since we've heard from Eugene. "How About Tonight" is the title track from his upcoming album. Mr. Wilde's romantic side is showcased on this mid-tempo jam produced by Jon Nettlesby and Terry Coffey (Keith Washington). Instant adds at WBLX-Mobile, AL; WPEG-Charlotte, NC; WGCI/FM-Chicago, IL; WTLZ-Saginaw, MI; WQQK-Nashville, TN; WVOI-Toledo, OH; WRNB-Minneapolis, MN; WWDM-Columbia, SC; WMVP-Milwaukee, WI. JM

HAMMER - This Is The Way We Roll (Capitol)

This man continues to fuel Urban Contemporary stations with material that's radio friendly. Kickin' the third release from his Too Legit To Quit, Hammer takes us down the path of some of his accomplishments. JM

ROXANNE - Ya Brother Does (Select)

Roxanne ("The Real" one they tell me) is back to speak for ladies. She spells it out for the homeboys that can't, and is ready to step to the one who can (or does). This cut should do well on Urban mixshows. K-WOO

INSIDE URBAN

Four of the hottest teens meet The World's Oldest teenager Boyz II Men joined host Dick Clark on the "American Bandstand 40th Anniversary Special." The show, which will air on ABC-TV May 13, looks back at the past forty years and features performances from current hitmakers Luther Vandross, Gloria Estefan, James Ingram and Sheila E.

Yo Yo Yo Lil' Tev is not saying 'goodbye' to his #1 position. It's his second week there. However, the talented "Funky Divas" are hot on his tail sitting at #3 just waiting to heist the crown. EN VOGUE picks up two new adds—from WBLS-New York and WCOW/AM-Long Island—to keep their momentum going.

Last week's Most Added record, Michael Jackson's "In The Closet," is this week's highest debut at #27 (right behind Jermaine) Michael's HOT status boasts an additional 13 stations on his second week out, including WILD, WPEG, WRKS/FM, KRUS and WGCI/FM. Last week's Top Tip, Good 2 Go's "Never Satisfied," and Record To Watch, Peabo Bryson's "Shower You With Love," are both in Chartbound this week—Peabo with nine new stations and Good 2 Go with five. Watch for their crossover potential.

This week's Record To Watch, Patti La Belle's gospel-sounding ballad "When You've Been Blessed (Feels Like Heaven)," reaches eight new believers: KBMS, WNHC, KMZX, WMVP, KMJJ, WGOK, WRKS/FM, WBIL—don't be surprised to find her on the chart next week.

The phone buzz this week was the return of Lionel Richie (note who grabs the top Most added spot), who is our Top Tip and also manages to debut in Chartbound. Richie's first new song in five years has this hit sound that makes his absence seem brief. Stan Boston, WNHC-New Haven, says, "Lionel was gonna make it worth our wait with this multi-format smash." "Initial response has been good" comments Andy Henderson, WQKI-St. Matthews, SC. "It's tearing up the phones at WJDY," raves Paul Butler, "It's good to have him a back." Watch for some singles that are out and simmering but haven't start to boil...Das EFX's "They Want EFX," Sir Mix-A-Lot's "Baby Got Back" and Club Nouveau's "Oh Happy Day."

Thanks to all the reporters for early reporting and making my week easy while Betty was on vacation, and for not making me be a dentist in getting your playlist info. Keep it comin'. Peace, John

every kinda people

This classic track shines with a great new remix. Taken from "addictions" volume 2, the second collection of hit music from Palmer's Island years.

"I like this remix, particularly the acoustic guitar figure. It's from the 'Double Fun' album. Just to reiterate: Gene Page, who arranged songs for Solomon Burke and later orchestrated Barry White amongst others, provided the glorious strings and Eric "E.T." Thorngren re-mixed.

The portent of the lyric, which I changed, was too political for me though nowadays I tend to get religious feedback from strange organizations who are always harping on about how positive the song is. I suppose so. It's a firm favorite in my live set anyway."

REVIEWS

by Diane Rufer & Ron Fell

SIMPLY RED

For Your Babies (Atco/EastWest America)

The ultimate Mother's Day record delivered with loving sentimentality by Mr. Hucknall. It should be next to difficult to call yourselves an Adult station and not play this one.

WILSON PHILLIPS

You Won't See Me Cry (SBK/ERG)

From the soon-to-be-released album, "Shadows And Light," there is little doubt that MOST ADDED is a breath away for this trio of chartbusters.

ROBERT PALMER

Every Kinda People (Island)

Reminiscent of his "Mercy Mercy Me (The Ecology)" this gem from his 1978 "Double Fun" album has been remixed and revitalized—an antidote to the ballad blahs.

CHER

When Lovers Become Strangers (Geffen)

Cher interprets another Diane Warren composition about loss of love between two people and how it's time to let go.

MICHAEL BOLTON

Steel Bars (Columbia)

Michael pumps it up on this song co-written with an unlikely collaborator, Bob Dylan. We'd pay big bucks to hear Dylan sing this.

INSIDE A/C

by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

On the strength of a 36-station increase in HEAVY rotation reports, BONNIE RAITT takes the top of the chart from KATHY TROCCOLI. BONNIE and KATHY dominate the chart this week.

The fastest single in the format, HOWARD JONES' "Lift Me Up," moves #31 to #15 to #7. HIT FACTOR has increased from 28% two weeks ago to 80% today. Whew!!

PAULA ABDUL's "Will You Marry Me?" up 14 ranks in the last two weeks, is on the verge of the Top Ten. HIT FACTORS at 82% (a 20% increase) and ADDs from CKFM, KCRE, KLSS, KOEL, KRGR, KSTP/FM, KWAT, WKGW and WBDX/FM.

A three-week HIT FACTOR of 52% for CELINE DION earns her a #20 on the chart. Averaging 56 ADDs a week, it should see the magic 200 next issue. New this week for KSSK, K103, KPAY, WTPI, WKWK/FM, KWAV/FM, WWDE, WGMT, KTID and WSTU etc.

With nearly identical stats as CELINE, AMY GRANT stands revved at #21 with only two less station commitments. New to AMY this week are KBIG, WZNY, KRNO/FM, WOBB/FM, KKLD, WSYE/FM, WHSY/FM and KFOR.

Now on over 100 A/C stations, "Guardian Angel" by BAND OF ANGELS is now at #27, with a 65% HIT FACTOR. Among stations reporting good rotations are KVVN/FM, KLWN, KBOL, KAAK, KKUZ, WFRO, KLOG, WTTR, WBLG/FM and KPTL.

Last week's TOP TIP, EDDIE MONEY's "Fall In Love Again," debuts at #34 and is second MOST ADDED with 55 new including WAHR, WQLH/FM, WTCB, WZNY, KXLK, WSKY, WJBR/FM and WELI.

Making her first of probably many A/C chart appearances is WYNONNA. A third the format and a 56% HIT FACTOR create the debut at #36. Already of WEIM, WABJ, WBDX/FM, WRVA, KESZ, WMT AM&FM, KKLD, WAHR and WZNY.

GENESIS' "Hold On My Heart" scores a fabulous 109 ADDs (second best performance by any record this year), and almost twice as many as the next one in line.

Our RECORD TO WATCH last week, BILLY DEAN's "Only The Wind," now has 32 A/Cs playing and a 40% HIT FACTOR. The stations that blew in this week are WNNC, KCHA, KMAN, KOKO, KTLB/FM, KZLT, WABJ, WQLR and KBMG.

This week's RECORD TO WATCH, k.d. lang's "Constant Craving," debuts in UP & COMING in its first week. Among the 35 stations filling their appetite are CKFM, WHAI, WXPB, WBLG/FM, WSKY, WXVL, KRDI/FM, WFRO, KKLD, KSTR/FM, KITZ and K103.

REBA McENTIRE - The Night The Lights Went Out In Georgia (MCA)

Programmers have been asking for this to be released as a single since the For My Broken Heart album came out. Reba puts downhome drama into Vicki Lawrence's 1973 hit.

B.B. WATSON - Say Goodbye (BNA Entertainment)

Bad Boy Watson gets to show off his songwriting on this midtempo song.

RICKY SKAGGS - From The Word Love (Epic)

This sweet song doesn't sound like a Skaggs song at first, but his clear voice soon takes over and makes the most of the beautiful lyrics.

ASLEEP AT THE WHEEL - (Get Your Kicks On) Route 66 (Arista)

Ray Benson and the Wheel are celebrating the 66th anniversary of Route 66 by touring cities along "The Mother Road." This live recording captures the free-wheelin' spirit of the band.

LORRIE MORGAN - Something In Red (RCA)

What a great song! One close listen to the lyrics and you're hooked. A favorite cut from her current album--this could be one of her best yet!

P. D. NOTEBOOK

KAMIKAZE RADIO

Pardon me if I step on a few toes, but to me one of the most irritating and stupid promotional ideas I know of for radio is the "fewer commercials" approach. To begin with, if you are a good programmer, the listeners will define your station in the way you want them to—in thirty years of research, I have never seen "commercials" turn up as a consistent, actual irritant to the audience. If you ask the audience, they will call them "negative," but drawing an intellectualized response like this cannot tell you about actual behavior (which is the main pitfall with hook-based music testing, too). And actual behavior shows that everyone, even teens, listen to the station that offers them what they want—or what you convince them they want—regardless of commercials.

Remember how Bill Drake decimated more traditional forms of Top 40 in the 1960s? His catch phrase was "plays more music." The audience didn't know they wanted "more music," until it was presented as an advantage in this way, and it worked. It continued to work when his stations—and more importantly the stations that imitated his and had much looser commercial limits—became successful, and began carrying a full commercial load. The music was the "positive"; commercials were not perceived as an irritant, even by teens, because they were getting "more music"—even though by then the competition actually had more music, because they had much less business, and thus fewer commercials!

It's been said before, and I'm here to say it again. Radio is an insubstantial medium; it is what it is perceived to be. So if you persuade your listeners that commercials are bad, and for that reason you have fewer of them, they will be negatively impacted every time you run one, even if you only do it once or twice an hour. You then risk tune out with each spot, every time one runs in a way you wouldn't if you had never made an issue of commercials. And when somebody else comes along and plays fewer commercials, you are then "hoist on your own petard"—they beat you on your own playing field. Even if the audience stays tuned, you have trained them to take a hostile attitude toward the sponsor's message! That reduces your ad response and decreases repeat business!

At this point you may say, "Yes, but the audience understands that we have to run a few commercials in order to stay in business, so they are more tolerant of them than you think, Eric." Unfortunately, your listeners don't understand our business the way you do. You would be amazed how many people—adults as well as kids—have no clear idea why stations run commercials. If you don't believe me on this, be the host the next time a school tour goes through your station, and ask the kids why they think stations run commercials. If they say they have no idea, or offer the thought that they get paid for them and therefore must be greedy, ask them how they think a radio station makes money and stays in business. I think you'll be surprised. Since radio is financed by commercials, it makes no sense to present them as a negative to the listener. Sooner or later your listeners are going to perceive you as breaking your promise to them if you do. You'll have self-destructed just like the World War II pilots—and for a cause no more noble.

But if you really think commercials, in reasonable numbers, have no other role in contemporary radio besides revenue, consider that stations that play few or none of them historically have not done well. In fact, going back to Bill Drake, and his "29-in-a-row" music sweeps when there were no commercials, when he began his assault on the established personality Top 40s in Los Angeles, his competition together accounted for 50% of the L.A. radio audience. When he'd won, KHJ had only 15% of the L.A. radio audience, and his competition together accounted for only 10% more. The audience did buy the idea they wanted "more music," but when KHJ won on that premise, the audience found the result more boring than Top 40 used to be, and the mass audience largely disintegrated into audiences for niche formats.

Def Leppard, celebrating their Number One album Adrenalize, have decided on a new guitarist. Vivian Campbell, will fill the spot left by the tragic death of Steve Clark. Campbell will be a full-time card-carrying member who hails from Belfast. An extremely underrated musician, Campbell was a member of the original Dio, then joined up with Whitesnake, followed by the Riverdogs and most recently played with Lou Gramm's band Shadow King. His live debut was at the Freddie Mercury Tribute Concert at Wembley held on April 20. The band embarks on a huge world tour that's currently in the planning stages...

Hot on the heels of making Australian history with the 100,000 fans for "Concert For Life," INXS announces the first single from their new Atlantic album, Welcome To Wherever You Are on June 2. "Heaven Sent" goes to radio by mid-May and it's touted as being experimental and freewheelin'...

Multi-platinum-selling artists, the Black Crowes drew a crowd of over 60,000 last weekend, when they headlined the Third Annual Great Atlanta Pot Festival, in their hometown. This was their first major U.S. concert appearance since last summer. NORML (National Organization for the Reform of Marijuana Laws) raises money and awareness for the legalization of marijuana. Their new album, The Southern Harmony and Musical Companion, which is reportedly better than their last five-times platinum album, is set for release May 12...

Singer/songwriter/producer and Blues guitarist Rick Vito, (ex-Fleetwood Mac), performed three sets at the Mint in Los Angeles last week. The show was attended by the usual critics, music luminaries and notable fans including Mick Jagger, complete with entourage. Vito's debut solo project was recently released on Modern/Atlantic Records. Stevie Nicks appears on the album and can be heard on his first single, "Desiree." Tour plans are in the works...

W. Axl Rose was forced to "get out of town," causing an April 10 cancellation of a Guns N' Roses show in Chicago. Shortly before showtime at the Rosemont Horizon Arena, the JAM Productions promoter warned GNR that officers from the Cook County Sheriffs Department were coming to arrest the band's lead singer and extradite him to St. Louis, MO. They planned to enforce a bench warrant posted by the St. Louis City Prosecutor who had issued a $100,000 bond against Rose for four misdemeanor charges stemming from a riot last July at the Riverport Performing Arts Center. "It's unusual, to say the least, for anyone to be extradited over misdemeanor charges," commented a GNR management representative. "It smacks of celebrity persecution. We understand they planned to arrest Axl imminently, thus preventing the show anyway. We apologize to the fans for this and hope they will understand when they hear what we were up against." Tickets were refunded in Chicago as well as Auburn Hills, MI. The show will be rescheduled...

Bits & Pieces: Bob Mould of Husker Du fame has signed with Rykodisc and plans to release his third solo album in August...Ex-Tears for Fears member Roland Orzabal stopped by the Gavin recently for a quick visit. He just became a father for the first time, and says he's being inspired by more down-to-earth subjects. Recording of his new material begins at the end of April for PolyGram...Danzig has commissioned H.R. Giger, the renowned set and creature designer for the "Alien" movie, to paint the cover artwork for their new album, How The Gods Were Killed. Giger has also painted album covers for Debbie Harry, ELP and the Dead Kennedys...On May 12 Bay Area-based rockers, Flame will release their debut album on Giant Records. They recorded at Philo's Ranch, located in a remote section of Mendocino County, CA. Although the band had to live in scorpion and bat infested cabins while recording, the album only took four months with the help of producer Bill Wray. Flame members Phillip Andrew Sullivan, vocals; Denis Bostok, drums; guitarist Billy Harvey and bassist Steve Smith are currently being managed by Bud Prager and Michael Renault of ESP Management (Bad Company, Foreigner, Damn Yankees)...Street date for the new Morgan Creek Records movie soundtrack, "White Sands" is May 12. Artists featured on the album include Dwight Yoakam, Patrick O'Hearn, Little Feat and Jimmie Wood & the Immortals. The movie score was written and performed by O'Hearn, noted multi-instrumentalist and scoresmith, known for his work with Frank Zappa and Missing Persons, as well as his own Adult Alternative solo albums... ●

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

POTATO RADIO - KING & MOORE (JUS-TICE)

A quirky duo. Nancy King scats and Glen Moore scratches an acoustic bass with much tongue-in-cheek humor and eccentricity. With a support cast that includes saxophonist Bennie Wallace and former ECM pianist Art Lande, King & Moore are a couple of odd ducks. Like Holly Cole at times, King & Moore are offbeat, and as rooted in cleverness as they are in virtuosity. The rule of Potato Radio is to never, ever clutter up the sound with traditional jazz or pop production. King and Moore frequently pair off as bassist and vocalist, with the other participants offering only the sparest of accompaniment. Some of the moments are so offbeat they border on the bizarre, such as "Your Love," the adaptation of an anonymous Sanskrit poem. "Chromatic Blues" is a sax and bass duet that could have been lifted from either an Eric Dolphy gig or a Tom Waits session. "Crooked Road" is a barely serious spoof based on Pat Metheny's "Last Train Home." More remotely traditional moments include a scat version of "I Got Rhythm." I agree with the schpeil on the record company poop sheet that reads: "This record will appeal to the buyer who likes Tuck & Patti, David Lynch movies, Monty Python and Sarah Vaughan." That just about describes what you're in for with Potato Radio.

PRESENT TENSE - BOBBY WATSON (COL.)

Since leaving Art Blakey's fold during the early part of the eighties, Bobby Watson has headed Horizon, an outfit known to top a Gavin Jazz chart or two. As a mature thirty-eight year-old (something I can say having turned 39!), Watson has experimented his way into being regarded as one of the premier alto players treading the boards. Whether Present Tense is a "solo" flight or his Horizon days are behind him is somewhat irrelevant. It, as the title explicitly connotes, just is. Featuring drummer Victor Lewis and a band that rivals even a Marsalis ensemble, Present Tense is a roomy, exploratory delve into both soaring and disciplined expression. "Monk He See, Monk He Do" is every bit as quirky as its namesake. "The Mystery Of Ebop" is a busy yet paced composition that constantly changes tempo and temperament, three letters beyond Bebop. It is a threatening showcase for drummer Lewis until Watson steals the song with a zebop solo workout. Bassist Essiet Essiet (Essiet Squared?) contributes "Bush Song," something destined to become a campaign melody. Not! Also check out "Dex Mex." While it may be a play on words, it is shimmering, a track that aptly represents Bobby Watson's sheer sense of power and beauty.

PONTIUS PILATE'S DECISION - DELFEAYO MARSALIS (NOVUS/RCA)

Frankly, Pontius Pilate's Decision wasn't something I was looking forward to sorting through, partly because of the sheer depth of the concept and slightly because of Delfeayo Marsalis' reputation as a successful if not dogmatic producer. But, like you would any Biblical epic, you have to admire this collection for his epic appetite. Also, as with any Easter time epic, you have to look past the costumes and the cast and at the man and the central message. As Delfeayo himself admits, even as a youngster, life was "a balance of love and foot-in-your-booty. In most cases, that's the same thing." Like Wynton, Delfeayo never takes the easy route. Instead, he wraps sensuality around a Biblical theme, i.e. "Adam's Ecstasy; Eve's Delight," which features a nuts & bolts ensemble of D.M.'s "trambone," brother Branford, Kenny Kirkland, Tain Watts and bassist Bob Hurst (who does a tremendous job of carrying the groove). You can probably appreciate this work on many levels, while getting into the theology as deeply as you care to. While there is a built-in spirituality to the compositions, and there's equal bite and meanness to the soloing, Marsalis' tramboning aspires toward J.J. Johnson, whom he describes as "pretty much like Art Tatum was on the piano." In other words, don't let the heavy Afro-Biblical classicist graphic presentation scare you away. There are just as many finger-popping/toe tapping moments as there are contemplative pipe-puffing, cranial-scratching challenges. In other words, even "Barabbas" swings, even though Delfeayo equates the Biblical rascal to today's David Duke.

CAPTAIN AMERICA -
"FLAME ON"
(PAPERHOUSE U.K.)

Because Captain America is Kurt Cobain's newest fave band, and because he's nice enough to rave about them in almost every interview he does (he does a lot of interviews!), there are probably quite a few of you who have heard about this band. Finding any of their singles (there are at least two) to actually hear this Scottish band is another story. "Flame On" is a noisy pop gem that many will liken to the crazed underbelly of fellow countrymen, Teenage Fanclub. But despite any similarities in the music, Captain America have managed to forge out a sound all of their own, thanks in part to Eugene Kelly's distinct vocals. (If they sound familiar, it's because he used to be in The Vaselines—a group Nirvana pays homage to in many of their live shows.) One of the best imports I've managed to find in quite a while. LINDA RYAN

(DEDICATED/RCA)

One of the stand-out tracks on the band's album, A Violent Impression, "Step Up" has been re-recorded and given a crisper, heavier edge for radio. If you've been lucky enough to see This Picture play live, you'll notice how this version of "Step Up" shines a brighter light on certain elements—the taut guitars and the fat bass—that are quite dynamic in a live setting. While you're at it, take a listen to "Hey Mr. Caterpillar"—a track I find myself playing over and over again. LR

(FICTION/ELEKTRA)

To say The Cure has a fondness for songs in minor keys is like saying the Pope is just a little Catholic. On their latest album, Wish, The Cure tighten the reins, giving us one helluva a sad, wistful, romantic, blissful trip. I've been a fan of this band since I was in diapers (well, high school anyway), and some of my favorite Cure songs are on Wish. Considering all the "classic" songs The Cure has given us in the past dozen plus years, that really says something about the strength of this album. I love the wistful finality of "Letter To Elise," the fool-in-love vibe of "Friday I'm In Love," the acoustic flavored "Doing The Unstuck," the blistering "Cut," and "From The Edge Of The Deep Green Sea." I feel a sigh coming on. LR

"GALILEO" (EPIC)

After a bit of a hiccup with the last album, the new single "Galileo" puts The Indigo Girls back on the radio track. The song explores the past—and how it effects us in the present. Taken literally, reincarnation could be the theme, but that's kind of easy. I mean, the idea that this generation is paying for mistakes of the past is an equally valid interpretation—one that makes me wonder (on the day that the U.S. Supreme Court judges are looking to uphold Pennsylvania's stringent, oppressive abortion laws), how the decisions we make today, the rights we give and take away, will effect future generations. Food for thought. LR

WIRE TRAIN -
"STONE ME" (MCA)

It sounds as though Wire Train have been passing the buds with World Party—which might not be too far from the mark considering both bands shared guitarist Jeff Trott for a time. "Stone Me" is a trippy groover resplendent in wah wahs and shuffle beats. If it sounds like it has that "British-indie" vibe happening, then I've described it right on target. Give it a spin. Groove on it, man. LR

SOMETHING HAPPENS -
"SUFFER IT"
(CHARISMA)

With a flurry of crashing guitars, Ireland's Something Happens sets the tone for their new single, "Suffer It"—a rough and tumble pop song on par with the power and energy this band displays in their live shows. The popelements of their hit, "Hello, Hello...Petrol" are still intact—only tougher. One of the nice surprises of the week—check it out. LR

CHRIS MARS - HORSESHOES AND HANDGRENADES (SMASH/PLG)

Two things I never expected: (1) That Chris Mars, former Replacements drummer, would be the first member of that defunct outfit to release a solo record, and (2) that that record would be any good. But just as Tommy Stinson kind of busted loose on the 'Mats' B-side "Satellite," Chris Mars has proven that Westerberg, while the mid-eighties finest songwriter, was not the Replacements' only talent. Horseshoes And Handgrenades does recall the chugga-chugga of the 'Mats' last several discs, but Mars' sound boasts a fresh enthusiasm that's been lacking in his former band's studio efforts for quite some time. The single is "Popular Creeps," which gets better with every listen, but pay special attention to "Get Out Of My Life," "Don't You See It," and "Before It Began" while you're checking out the rest of the record. Horseshoes and Handgrenades—in an open environment where few of "my" records are well-received—proved an office favorite. Color me impressed. SB

IN RIBBONS
(4AD/REPRISE)

Last year's addition of guitarist/vocalist Meriel Barham dealt this English band a stacked hand and they take full advantage of it here. "Throwing Back The Apples" is the perfect blend of everything that makes the Pale Saints shine. Rough, serrated guitars pair with marble-smooth vocals and the cymbal-ridden drums add a third dimension. Graeme Naysmith's moaning, sireny guitar in "Hairshoes," "Shell's" melodic glockenspiel and Barham's lulling vocals in "Feather Frame" are just a few of the gems buried in Ribbons. If ethereal female voices shake your rug, check into "Baby Maker's" background vocals and the echoing refrain at the tail end of "Liquid." It's hard to imagine

by Linda Ryan

It's 11 a.m. and The Charlatans' pin-up boy/frontman Tim Burgess is on the phone for yet another interview, and although the entire band is in Los Angeles shooting the video for their current single "Weirdo," Tim's the lone soul who's been indentured into press duty. The rest of the band, Tim enviously explains, are "strolling about trying to find a few bargains."

So while bassist Martin Blunt, drummer Jon Brookes, keyboardist Rob Collins and the band's newest member, guitarist Mark Collins comb Melrose, Tim and I talk about the most important thing in his life at the moment—The Charlatans.

The Charlatans' story really begins in 1990 with the release of their second single, "The Only One I Know," which cracked the British Top Ten and put the band on the musical map. While some critics cried "foul" and branded them as a second-rate Stone Roses, the band carried on, winning over fans and critics alike.

At the height of their popularity last year, original guitarist John Baker decided he'd had enough of the nomadic touring life and called it quits. Not wanting to experience the numbing, endless hours of auditions, the band found its newest member, Mark Collins, through a mutual friend.

Tim offers, "We were all really upset when John left. When Mark came in, we were already friends so we were quite comfortable with him. And he came up with some really good ideas as his confidence grew.

"We were really worried at first, but people keep commenting on the guitar and that's a good start. In fact the last two songs we wrote ("I Don't Want To See The Sights" and "Ignition") are the first two on the album. Mark settled in and came up with some really good guitar riffs. To be truthful," he confides, "we're very lucky to get the right person in the group after what we considered the right person in the group left."

The new album, Between 10th And 11th, can be seen as a rite of passage of sorts—not only have they avoided the "sophomore slump" that so many groups fall prey to, The Charlatans have also outlasted the Manchester craze that helped them into the spotlight.

Whether or not the band fully realize it, there was a lot riding on this album. Surprisingly, neither Tim nor the rest of the band felt any pressure while recording.

"In the end, the only judgement that you've got is whether you're really pleased with it," Tim offers. "There wasn't any record company pressure or press pressure or anything like that. The people you've not got to disappoint are the people who enjoyed the first album. Our fans are the only people we thought about, and of course they're going to like it, 'cos I think it's brilliant."

O.k. so there's not much room for humility in The Charlatans' camp, but this is a band who've called their own shots from day one. For better or worse, The Charlatans will stand or fall by their own design.

"When we first signed to Beggars Banquet," Tim explains, we wanted to be able to choose our own destiny and not let it be rubbish (maniplated) by anybody else. We do things that represent us. Whether it's good or bad, it's still honest and that's quite important to us."

This do-it-yourself philosophy applies to all aspects of the band's career—from choosing producers to making their own videos. Tackling these subjects one at a time, the band, as mentioned earlier, were in Los Angeles to shoot—or should I say, reshoot—the video for "Weirdo." Why does the band need a new video for the American audience?

"Our last one wasn't very good," Tim replies non-chalantly, "and we wanted to improve it. MTV Europe played it 20 odd times a week, but I don't know if that was 'cos of the video or 'cos of the song. We weren't pleased with it even if MTV were. It was a bit bumpy.

"We always do the videos ourselves. We get a cameraman in to translate our ideas into his camera—sometimes they're great and sometimes they're not. All of our videos—whether they're good or not—have at least been amusing."

For the American version of "Weirdo," the band have opted to work with Sam Bayer who has worked with Nirvana, The Candyskins and P.I.L. Although they still find it difficult to turn their work over to someone else, Tim says it's the challenge of doing something new that sold the band on the idea of using a proper director.

For audio direction, the band elisted the help of Flood, whose work can be heard on songs from the likes of U2, Nine Inch Nails and Depeche Mode.

"I think Flood's girlfriend really liked our first album (Some Friendly)," Tim confesses. "When we asked him to do a remix of a track called "Opportunity" (from Some Friendly), I think she talked him into it. We got on really well and we just asked him if he'd do the album.

"It's good to have an intermediate person when there's five people squabbling at each other," he laughs. "He was good to bounce ideas off of—we'd just shout out our ideas and Flood would be in the middle of it all making sure we got the best ideas down. I've got a lot of respect for 'im and I think it's vice-versa."

Critical consensus has been that the new album, Between 10th And 11th, is quite an achievement for the Northwich band, a sentiment that Tim echos. "When it was finished, we knew this album was a lot stronger than the first one, and we're really pleased with the job we've done."

However, he grudgingly acknowledges that, for the most part, it's now up to record company to get people to listen to the album and judge it on its own merits—a fact that makes Burgess decidedly uncomfortable.

"At first," he starts, "it's impossible to hand stuff over to other people. After you get to know some of them and gain their trust, you become less precious about it. But it's still hard."

The idea of printing his lyrics on the album was equally hard for Tim. "It's the same idea. I mean, you don't know how hard people are going scrutinize it. I'm confident with it 'cos it means something to me, but to a lot of people it's just gobblegook.

"I didn't want the lyrics printed—it was Martin, our bass player, who wanted it. So we struck a deal—I let him print the lyrics and I got to choose the actual cover design for the album. I'm happy now that we printed them because people seem to be responding quite well. I mean, I don't know if I'd do it on every release, but it's a nice idea for this one."

On the subject of his lyrics Tim continues, "I quite like the words on this one, but I think it's only me who can make any sense of them. I don't think the rest of the group can either. Do they make any sense to you?"

I mumble helplessly for a few seconds. "Very fluid...stream of consciousness...one line doesn't necessarily connect with the next."

Tim rescues me from further humiliation with his laughter. "Ha ha ha. I have a theory about stream of consciousness," he begins. "What you really mean when you say that is that I don't know what the fuck I'm on about! Ha ha ha. And I guess it's true. It's the way I talk, so it's pretty honest. And, I mean, I do get confused in conversation a lot so, erm, it's realistic."

"It's like putting a big bunch of bananas on the cover," he continues. "People think we're just trying to confuse them for the sake of it. But it's our own perversity that makes us not want to be part of the obvious."

One thing that is obvious is the band's commitment to their fans. Once again it's was the fans who were the main concern when The Charlatans began planning their current tour. When asked about trying to secure a spot the much-coveted Lolaploozza tour, Tim hesitates.

"I don't know if I want to be part of any circusy sort of thing again," he says, referring to the band's appearance in the first Gathering Of The Tribes. "I think it'd be really easy for us to do something like that, but I don't know. I always like to see my favorite groups in a more intimate place. I think the people who want to see us at this point in time would prefer to see us in a smaller environment."

A thought occurs to me and I grin like an idiot. This is a band who isn't afraid of hard work. They'd rather play in smaller places and build a strong following than blitzkrieg across the country with performances in large venues. I didn't think there was a band out there who still believed in doing things the old-fashioned way—hard work and lots of sweat.

He continues good naturedly, "At this moment in time we'd like to remain quite singular. I want us to continue where we left off last time but I think we've got to walk before we can run. I don't know how we'd be in a huge place right right now. But I can guarantee we'd be pretty much excellent in an intimate environment."

The pretty much excellent Charlatans are on tour now. Get intimate with Tim Burgess and the band when they come to your town! ●

5 quick quotes . . .

About the album title: "I always find coming up with titles quite exciting because they have no reflection on the rest of the record. It could've easily been called Between Here And There or Between Top And Bottom, really. It's just in the middle. Direct. Between."

About the Dead Dead label on which the band's first single, "Indian Rope" first appeared: It has nothing to do with us anymore. It's Steve our manager's label now. He started it so we could put something out, and after we got signed he kept the name and the label. I think in England people think The Charlatans are directors of Dead Dead Good, and that's just not the case."

About the word "Weirdo": "I think the word is quite English, actually. It's either so American or so English that the Europeans don't understand it. They haven't got a clue what it's about in Italy. Or France or Germany. It's like a non-word. It's not in the dictionary."

About the single "Me In Time" that was released in Britain but doesn't show up on the album: "That was the first song we wrote with Mark. We just thought the new stuff we were writing was better."

About the first show the band did with its newest member, Mark Collins: It was in Glasgow, and not only was it Mark's first show but it was the first show we'd played in quite some time. It was really mad. It was only advertised the day before and it sold out instantly. Some of the songs just really collapsed—we all forgot the words to "The Only One I Know."

NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

HOTWIRED - THE SOUP DRAGONS (BIG LIFE/MERCURY)

As on Primal Scream's acclaimed Screamadelica, the Soup Dragons (who actually came first) reinvent their own rock n roll by lifting from different movements—starting with dance, industrial, acid house and backbeat rock—and psychologically transposing what we learned about music and freedom in the sixties into the language of the nineties. Hotwired is rare and original, a dozen trax strong, almost all of them vital. Having brought themselves up through the Glasgow/UK independent dance underground, the Dragons know what it's like to start anew. After debuting in 1985, they released their first album effort on Sire in 1987. After leaving the label, the Soup Dragons rejuvenated themselves by reactivating their own label, starting again from scratch. After a recent successful tour with INXS, the 'Dragons sold about 600,000 units of their 1989 effort Lovegod worldwide with over half of them bought and paid for here in the States. Given enough decibels, Hotwired is easy to spot. Sometimes it can be gritty and outside, sometimes soupy and poppish, but it's usually grungy and seldom uninteresting. By remaining guitar-driven, the Soup Dragons retain believability as a stage band. Notice I haven't tried to describe their sound. I'd rather leave that to you. Things get going strong with "Divine Thing" (the single) and the opening "Pleasure." But don't stop there. The deeper in you go, the more interesting and distorted the looking glass becomes, especially on "Forever Yesterday" into "No More Understanding."

HOLY SMOKE - PETER MURPHY (BEGGARS BANQUET/ RCA)

It's only when you get this sucker home that you realize how finely crafted it is. Holy Smoke, what a band! With a history of surrounding himself with great players—most notably Bauhaus cum Love & Rockets—Peter Murphy calls his new band The Hundred Men, and on Holy Smoke, they play like a hundred men. Magnificently recorded, this collection reeks of time and effort. My favorite track, "You're So Close" begins with Murphy's loooooo and closely-miked voice providing a high vaulted ceiling. When the band kicks in at fifty-eight second mark, all hell breaks loose. The opening "Keep Me From Harm" begins on a splendid note, "Health is all I'm asking for/love is all I need/hope is what I'm asking for/lay me down to sleep." But the simplicity ends there, as Holy Smoke is an elaborate treat, richly recorded and thought out, and is especially thick past the halfway point. This should serve as an ample successor to Peter Murphy's previous Gavin Alternative Number Ones.

"LULLABY" - BLACK VELVET BAND (ELEKTRA)

Though you'd never know it, one third of the Black Velvet Band is Maria Doyle Kennedy, whom you might remember from the hit movie, The Commitments. Performing "Lullaby" is far different from singing a soul cover, cooing and wooing behind husky Andrew Strong. There's more finesse here, with twanging guitars replacing raw horn arrangements. Still, it doesn't sound too much like Dublin, does it?

DAZZLING DISPLAY - STEVE WYNN (RNA/RHINO)

It's just about time for all of the artists who were glued in front of the TV during the Gulf War to start including war songs on their new albums. Originally written with REM's Peter Buck as a mandolin piece, "Dazzling Display" is just such a title track. Steve Wynn sums up the public's response this way; "And the people did rejoice/Lit up in a single voice/And they began to dance about." Not all of Dazzling Display is TV-induced. Quite the opposite. Wynn is a literate sort, deeply influenced by writers like Hubert Selby, Jr. and James Elroy, film director Woody Allen and world events like the fall of Romanian dictator Ceausescu. Hard to believe this is only Wynn's second solo effort, so dedicated was he to his Dream Syndicate band. But he's much better on his own. The opening "Drag" is—well—dazzling. Beautiful strings on "When She Comes Around" as well.

"GALILEO" - INDIGO GIRLS (EPIC)

The last person you'd expect to sign on as a producer for the Indigo Girls is Peter Collins, who previously worked with Queensryche, Alice Cooper and Rush. "Galileo" is a tribute to those who theorize, challenging popular beliefs, i.e. Galileo's "night vision" versus the Church. Yes, that's Jackson Browne chiming in the background toward the end. From the upcoming album Passage Of Rites, or is it Rites Of Passage?

"THE BALLAD OF PETER PUMPKINHEAD" - XTC (Geffen)

XTC has always had a super-strong Alternative base. In addition, those who were around during the early "new wave" explosion are already longtime fans. That's why XTC, at their strongest, have the potential to cross from strictly Commercial Alternative to Album Radio. What's next? Top Forty? This is a "ballad" with a message, although not a happy one. In the end, Peter gets burned at the stake because of, like Galileo, his unpopular questioning. Too bad, but then again, XTC always sound their best when cloaked in powerful cynicism. Part of being an XTC fan is seeing which producer they hire. This time it's Gus Dudgeon, best known for his work with Elton.

GOT LOVE IF YOU WANT IT - JOHN HAMMOND (POINTBLANK/ CHARISMA)

Just weeks ago, Atlantic re-released onto CD John Hammond's I Can Tell mixed with bits of the classic Southern Fried. With this a companion piece, you get the best of Hammond's swampy past (with guitarist Duane Allman) and a close look at what he's up to now. Produced by J.J. Cale, Got Love If You Want It has an intimate, mellow tinge. Onstage, Hammond can muster up a terrific sense of rhythm, playing the one-man blues band role like a racehorse. Here, he's infinitely more relaxed. On "Driftin' Blues" with John Lee Hooker, Hammond slows up and gets down to the bottom line denominator—faithful interpretations of Blues standards. Also: "I've Got Love If You Want It" and "You Don't Love Me."

STEVE WYNN- DAZZLING DISPLAY (RNA/RHINO RECORDS)

Back in the days of wine and roses when Steve Wynn was with Dream Syndicate, the band was so cool that I never even wondered what any of their names were. Nowadays, when free agency reigns and solo projects/homers are the thing to hit, I'll give any fraction of a late great band an ear. Wynn's offhand vocal style sets the tone on "When She Comes Around" and perfectly cadent lines like "She leans over the windowsill" fuse with a guitar that slowly warbles. "A Dazzling Display" churns with distorted guitars accompanied by a Peter Buck-plucked mandolin. By the time "Halo" wafts in like a warm breeze, I'm completely inducted into Wynn's world and my disbelief is expelled. The song commands attention with a suspenseful moog organ, violin, and exotic drums. Buck sits in on five cuts and other guests include John Wesley Harding and Susan Cowsill, but Wynn is the compelling force behind this appropriately titled display. DB

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

MICHAEL BOLTON - Steel Bars (Columbia)
It was only a matter of time before this track got the nod as a single. Totally captivating in concert, the song, co-composed by Michael and Bob Dylan, received tremendous crowd reaction and was a highlight of Michael's performance during his recent "Time, Love And Tenderness" tour. Besides, Annette and I agree that it's our favorite song on the album, okay?

SOCIAL DISTORTION - Bad Luck (Epic)
Overnight sensation? Hardly. This foursome from Orange County in Southern California has been around for more than a decade and are now set to infiltrate the Top 40 mainstream since establishing a beachhead at Alternative and Album radio. Written by Mike Ness, who fronts the band, this song is the antithesis of sterile, formula pablum, capturing instead the true rebellious spirit of Rock N' Roll. Distinct, commercial and absolutely the spring/summer song of '92.

WILSON PHILLIPS - You Won't See Me Cry (SBK/ERG)
Clearly the photos of Wendy, Chynna and Carnie make the statement that this trio has grown and matured a great deal since their debut a little over two years ago; but the truest indication, of course, is the music. Their magnificent harmony intact, Wilson Phillips puts a more sophisticated edge on this long-awaited follow-up, produced and co-written once again by Glen Ballard.

LINEAR - T.L.C. (Atlantic)
Though their first hit "Sending All My Love" became a national hit in early 1990, we began tracking that tune by these three Floridians nearly a year before. Hopefully this time around, "Steele," "Riot" and "Bang" won't have to wait quite as long to make their chart moves, thanks to this instantly likeable Pop melody.

COLOR ME BADD - Slow Motion (Giant/Reprise)
One of the more memorable moments in an otherwise forgettable Grammy telecast was the a capella performance of CMB and Boyz II Men. It makes no difference whether it's fast, medium or slow, these guys have proven their singing talent is real, winning over more and more followers with each release.

C'VELLO - Dangerous (Rendezvous/RCA)
Welcome a four-member group from New Orleans who derive their moniker from the last name of brothers Kevin and Tracy C'Vello. The pair tastefully produced this tune penned by Kevin, and enhanced with multi-format accessibility.

TRUTH INC. - The Very Best Of Me (Interscope)
Doing the very best is especially important in the extremely competitive music arena. Just ask Terry Coffey and Jon Nettlesbey, the force behind this seven-member contingent. As writers and producers of hits by Miki Howard, Howard Hewett and Keith Washington, they've made a sizeable dent on Urban Contemporary radio playlists over the past several years. Their desire for honesty is not reflected by their name, but is evident in their production and writing style as well. Expressed perfectly in this highly relatable and truthful debut.

ALBUMS by Ron Fell

HOWARD JONES - In The Running (Elektra)
The title of this set implies an ability to survive while competing—in life and on the charts. Howard Jones is a talented songwriter, singer and multi-instrumentalist with instincts beyond mere survivability. His writing consistently deals with the fractured and incomplete nature of relationships and the fragile threads that connect us all. The lead single, LIFT ME UP, may be the set's most positive moment as we're soon caught up in such worldly woes as mental illness and Armageddon in a Mad Max environment. And, it's often done in a Jackson Browne-like presentation. The bottom line is hardly political, but nonetheless it's provocative and not for subconscious listening. It's foreground stuff with wake-up potential. I like LIFT ME UP, FALLIN' AWAY, THE VOICES ARE BACK, EXODUS and TWO SOULS. Among the guest participants are Little Feat's Richie Hayward and Sam Clayton, along with David Lindley, Clare Fischer and Midge Ure.
