CD PROBLEMS SOLVED

Pirate Ship Changes Course

KQLZ/FM-Los Angeles is abandoning the identifier "Pirate Radio" as it augments its album rock-based format with more contemporary rock programming. After going "jockless," (except in morning drive) and plugging "No name, no hype, just great music," the station will debut as "100.3."

Management hopes the move will "add new life to the station's programming." Joining the outlet as consultant is Tom Barnes of Jon Sinton & Associates. Barnes said of the change, "The term 'alternative' doesn't mean much anymore because basically it's just the most popular form of music with our target demographics. There's nothing alternative about it."

"It's a very exciting time for us," said Station Manager Nancy Leichter. "The initial response to the expansion has been very positive, and we feel we will maintain the audience we already have while adding new listeners who are disenchanted with what they're currently hearing on other radio stations."

Pyramid Restructures Research Division

Pyramid Broadcasting's research arm has a new name—Broadcast Architecture—and a new CEO—Frank Cody. Joining Cody in the executive suite is Brian Stone, who is a general partner in the firm's parent company, KISS Limited Partnership, which, along with Atlantic Radio comprises the Boston Radio Group. The restructuring follows the departure of Owen Leach, who will announce future plans later this month.

According to the Pyramid Managing General Partner Rich

Balsbaugh, Broadcast Architecture will continue to service Boston Radio Group and selected clients.

Along with Leach, Cody formed the Princeton-based company in 1987. They became affiliated with Pyramid in January of 1988.

"What began as an in-house research and marketing service has grown to include clients throughout the country and overseas," said Balsbaugh. "We fully intend to support and expand the services of Broadcast Architecture, and are thrilled to have Frank and Brian leading that effort."

GAVIN'S SAMSON BITES THE APPLE

The Gavin Report's Rap Editor, Brian Alan Samson, left the fold this week to join Mercury Records as National Director of Marketing for Rap and Alternative Black Music.

Brian joined us as an intern almost six years ago, while he was still attending San Francisco State University. After he graduated in 1989, Brian began working here full time while holding down a weekend air shift at Q97 (KSJQ)-Modesto.

Always on the cutting edge, Brian foresaw Rap's popularity and debuted the format's section in 1990. Through his dialogue with everyone from mixshow deejays to retailers to record company executives, Brian built the Gavin Rap chart into the most accurate and respected in the business.

"Gavin taught me how the industry works," Samson said upon leaving. "When you're an editor, everything revolves around you, so I learned about radio, retail and records. I'm grateful to the staff at Gavin for the opportunities I was given and I'll miss them a lot. This is something I couldn't pass up, and fortunately, we'll still be working together."

ALL GARTH, ALL THE TIME

After playing every Garth Brooks' song ever put to vinyl, WMXP/FM-Pittsburgh has settled into a Country format. The former dance-leaning Top 40, recently LMAd with ex-crosstown rival, EZ Communications' B94, made the switch on January 6. Until then, WDSY was the only Country outlet in town.

"We didn't see the sense in having two stations with similar formats," said Tim Murphy, EZ's Vice President of Programming, who engineered the change. "Besides, we thought there shouldn't be any market in America with only one Country station!"

Joining the station as PD is Bill Macky, who has been transferred

Knee Returns to EMI

After just two months as the Northern California Columbia Records rep, Kevin Knee has been wooed back to his former place of employ, EMI Records Group. He rejoins the label after being offered a vice presidency. His title will be Vice President, Pop Promotion, West Coast.

"Nothing could make me prouder than seeing one of our stars rise to the top," said Daniel Glass, Executive Vice President/General Manager. "Kevin was clearly instrumental in the breakthrough of Arrested Development, Jeffrey Gaines and Jon Secada. We're happy he's back with us."

Knee, who will re-locate to Los Angeles, said, "This is the opportunity of a lifetime. From Charles (Koppelman, label chief), Daniel (Glass) on down through the ranks, support has been overwhelming."

Stairs Moves to San Diego

Programmer Bill Stairs has moved from San Francisco to San Diego where he's accepted the OM post at KFMB/AM. Stairs began his radio career in that city almost twenty years ago, when he worked at KSEA. He was most recently program director at K-101 (KIOD)-San Francisco.

"We had a very short list of people around the country who could do this job," said station Vice President & General Manager Paul Palmer. "Full Service AM is the most challenging format there is. Bill is incredibly bright, talented and he knows how to win."

Three Marketing Execs Named At Elektra

Elektra Entertainment marked the New Year by naming Ellen Darst, James Henke and Jeff Jones Senior Vice President of Marketing and Development, Vice President of Product Development and Vice President of Marketing respectively.

Darst was most recently Director at Principle Management, Inc., where she marketed the records and tours of U2. She began her career at the Boston branch of WEA in the early seventies. She worked in Warner Bros. Artist Development from 1978-1982.

Henke comes from Rolling Stone where he was Vice President and Editorial Director of the magazine's Music Projects Division. He was a Music Editor there for eight years.

Jones was Vice President of Marketing at PolyGram where he worked with such artists as U2, Melissa Etheridge and Tom Waits. He also spent 13 years at CBS as a marketing director.

ATCO/EASTWEST BECOMES

As of January 1, Atco/EastWest Records became EastWest Records.

In a short release, the company said, "We believe this name truly serves to convey the refined sense of direction we intend to pursue in the '90s and beyond."

The EastWest logo will not change.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

The consensus from everyone so far is that 1993 doesn't feel a whole lot different than 1992, but that's to be expected. However, change is certain, and with a new administration in Washington, it's reasonable to expect that a somewhat different mood will creep into America's consciousness over the next several months.

While the pundits make their predictions, it's important to remind ourselves what remains constant in Top 40, year in and year out. For starters, how about that all-important "E" word—Entertainment! Stations and personalities willing to set themselves apart from soundalike competitors always seem to enjoy success. And it goes deeper than simply motivating a staff of talented, intelligent professionals. The imagery radio provides, especially with the state-of-the-art audio toys now available, is limitless.

Top 40's inherent spark and sizzle continues to offer the best staging area possible for a wide range of sounds and concepts. Radio's ability to create fantasy by word, sound effect or music is tailor-made for Top 40.

Finally, of course, there's the music. While it's true that some hit songs vary from market-to-market, there's also a universal consensus on much of what is described as "Pop music." Pop stands for popular—but with whom?

The measure of a true Top 40 hit is that it's popular with lots and lots and lots AND lots of people. Tastes in music may change, and identifying the most popular songs in contemporary culture is what Top 40 programmers continue to do.

In the final analysis, it's the public that always makes the hits and Top 40 radio that always plays them.

Whoa! Lots of chart momentum over the holiday break for a number of artists, so we'll highlight some of the most noteworthy. DAN BAIRD is among the big movers with Top Ten stats at WPST Trenton, NJ, WRCK Utica, NY, WAPE Jacksonville, FL, WHHT Bowling Green/Glasgow, KY, WSTO Evansville, IN, Z104 Madison, WI, KGGG Rapid City, SD, KLYK Longview, WA and KYVA Billings, MT. SOLVING CD PROBLEMS

It was way back in my "1986 In Review," run on December 12 of that year, that I first commented that the emergence of CD posed two problems for radio: I said: "First it elevates listener expectations of audio quality to well beyond anything modern broadcasting, AM or FM, can deliver. Fortunately, the majority of the population doesn't seem able yet to really tell the difference." That statement remains correct, although it is significant that audio processing continues to become more and more sophisticated and there is a movement toward a more "unprocessed" sound (while still processing) in radio today.

I further wrote: "Second is that CDs, when they exemplify the enormous dynamic range of which they are capable—that's the ratio of the softest to the loudest sound—can sound worse than regular records on the radio, since no station's compression/limiting equipment was designed to crunch such a dynamic range."

This comment drew a protest from Rhett Downing, a corporate engineer from Gallup, New Mexico, who felt I had overstated the problem. And indeed, for the most part, pop and rock recordings released on CD in the years since have been pre-compressed in dynamic range by the record companies, and haven't shown much more dynamics than the vinyl and styrene records that preceded them.

Probably the enormous bass on many CDs have given stations more problems, since, frequently, consumer receivers can't reproduce it, making the station sound weak and distorted. (Many stations roll off the bass below 60 to 80 Hz to avoid the problem, and to permit higher modulation of the audio which can be heard by most listeners.)

But recently I've found that more and more CD singles have very soft beginnings and endings—15 to 30 db lower than the maximum level. This happens particularly with ballads. For stations playing CDs directly on the air, two problems arise. One is that many audio processors do not adequately bring up audio that's as much as 30 db down, and the other is that when a deejay talks over an intro or close, the music level must be fairly strong underneath if it's to be heard.

Some of these opens and closes are so soft that it proves necessary not only to open the pot all the way, but to crank the master pot as well in order for that portion of the music to be heard on the air. I'm all for having the air staff watch their levels, but having to turn up the master pot to do it is ridiculous and it forces changes in the mic level too, since the master ratio of music to voice remains.

The easy answer is to cart the CDs, and many stations do. We've discussed some of the pros and cons of that in recent columns. But I question whether such a wide dynamic range is necessary on a consumer pop recording? It only achieves the desired effect if heard at a relatively loud level, and in a relatively quiet environment. That is not how the majority of people listen to the radio—or even their CD player!

But if a record company or an artist concludes that such a wide dynamic range is warranted, I suggest that the enormous unused capacity of "pro" CD singles allows adding a track that is "broadcast processed" to parallel each standard track on the single. That way, the music can be heard on the air the way it should be, and the record company (or artist) will control the broadcast dynamic range reduction which otherwise would be done haphazardly—and differently by every station! I submit that thought to record companies for consideration—just for those recordings that do have a very wide dynamic range.

According to a number of stations, an unrelated reason for CDs to be dubbed to cart is to improve reliability. Any station that plays CDs directly on the air is familiar with the skipping that can occur when a CD is dirty or badly damaged. The Denon CD cartridge system was devised to address that problem, although I understand that smoking in the control room can damage the CD surface, even if it's inside the plastic case—and the CD laser/lens system inside the player as well—enough to cause dirt-related skipping.

Fortunately, most stations ban smoking in the studio area because those same airborne tar and smoke particles can gum up computers and solid-state electronics, and can even damage and destroy disk drives, all of which increasingly are part of the modern control room.

However, for those stations playing CDs without protective shells and having problems with skipping due to dirt accumulating on the playing surfaces from routine handling, the answer may be establishing a procedure that requires that all CDs are run through a disk cleaning device before being inserted in the CD player every time. (Discwasher makes one—check with your broadcast supply house for the brands available, and the cost.)

Stations making this procedure standard policy have told me that it seems to solve most of the skipping problems they had been experiencing. ●

Hello 1993! Boy, am I glad we're starting out this new year with a lot of hope from Hope, Arkansas! Everything feels different in a positive way. The year's-best awards are already being given out, starting with President-elect Bill Clinton being named Time magazine's Man of the Year...

I love awards shows, and January begins with Michael Jackson receiving the Silver Anniversary Entertainer of the Year Award from the NAACP the 18th. Jackson has been set to open the American Music Awards show January 25 and then he'll do halftime at the Super Bowl...

Bits & Pieces: The star of the new film about Billie Holiday has been announced. The role goes to Miki Haris, Madonna's back-up singer, who looks and sounds a lot like Lady Day. The $20 million movie is scheduled to begin filming in February...Finally some news from Robert Plant. He's re-signed with Atlantic Records and plans to finish a new album in time to be released in the late spring or early summer...Emerson, Lake & Palmer are set to kick off the second leg of their North American tour on January 13 in Canada. This part of the tour will be accompanied by a new live album on Victory Music/PLG and a 75-minute home video, both to be released at the end of January...

My last interview in 1992 was with Liz Larin, who hails from Detroit and whose previous band, Rebel Heels, debuted in 1988 on Atlantic Records. Her new album, Test Your Faith, is also on Atlantic. Producer/manager Al Nalli helped Liz put together a compelling album of ten rockers. Most of the tunes were written or co-written by Larin, who definitely has a way with words. The first single, "The Color Red," which is all about the clash between passion and compulsion, hits Album radio on January 21. Other standout cuts are "Banner," "Letting Go," "Revelation" and "Freedom." This one sounds like a multi-format hit to me...

The Country Music Association has announced that a two-hour CBS television special commemorating the organization's 35th anniversary will be aired during the first quarter of 1993. Alabama, John Anderson, Suzy Bogguss, Brooks & Dunn, Joe Diffie, Mark Chestnutt, Rodney Crowell, Delbert McClinton, Travis Tritt, Ricky Van Shelton, Glen Campbell, Emmylou Harris, Lyle

Lovett & The Large Band, Lorrie Morgan, Lee Roy Parnell, Reba McEntire, Vince Gill, Willie Nelson, Wynonna Judd, Little Texas, Kenny Rogers and Pam Tillis are some of the artists joining the star-studded telecast...

Jeff Beck is starting out the new year with the announcement of two releases for Epic Records. On January 12 Epic Soundtrax will release Frankie's House, a collection of instrumentals composed and performed by Beck and Jed Leiber for the Australian Broadcasting Company-produced mini-series which will run on the Arts & Entertainment Network on February 21 and 23. It stars Iain Glen and Kevin Dillon as freelance photojournalists Tim Page and Sean Flynn, who covered Southeast Asia at the height of the Viet Nam War. Also coming from Beck this spring will be Crazy Legs featuring the Big Town Playboys. It's a tribute to the music of '50s rocker Gene Vincent and his band The Blue Caps, whose original lead guitarist was the late Cliff Gallup. Produced by Stewart Coleman, the album will contain versions of "Cruisin'," "Race With The Devil," "Red Blue Jeans," "Five Feet of Lovin'," "Woman Love" and thirteen more Vincent classics... ●

NEW HIP HOP RELEASES by Kelly Woo

EDITORIAL SHOUT OUT

Happy New Year! The Gavin Rap department is back in full swing and the first and phattest shout out goes to Brian Alan Samson who has made the journey from the Gavin Report to New York to take on the position of Director of Marketing and Promotions for Rap and Alternative Black Music at Mercury Records. Give him a congratulatory shout at (212) 603-7955. The other power move honors for the new year go to G-Man, formerly of Epic Records. You can now find him over at Flavor Unit Records preparing for the label's first release, "Roll Wit Tha Flava" which features the Flavor Unit Posse. Give G-Man a call at (201) 333-4883. A power move of another sort is taking place over at A&M Records as they announce the birth of a new division devoted solely to Rap, Tuff Break Records is being headed by Evan Forster. He's looking for acts to sign so give him a call at (213) 469-2411.

The '93 Gavin Rap Forum will be in full effect on Thursday, February 11. Panels include: 3rd Annual Rap Jukebox Jury; The Power Of Pools; The Overcrowded Rap Market; One Nation

Under A Different Groove, Examining Regional Flava; Understanding The What's And Why's Between The Lines Of Rap Trades; Step To The Mic And Spill Out Ya Cranium (open forum). Registration fees for Thursday ONLY will be $150.00 before February 1 and $175.00 after that. Full registration fees for the entire weekend, which includes the cocktail party and the awards banquet, will be $295.00 before February 1 and $335.00 after, so start making your plans. Besides the '93 Gavin Rap Forum on Thursday, outside promoters are lining up an entire weekend of Raptivities and showcases, including the Second Annual 3 on 3 Basketball Tournament sponsored by Steve Rifkind Co. For more information on the basketball tournament, call Jason Ricks at (213) 653-5881 or Bobbito at (212) 420-0790. For Gavin Seminar registration information, call (415) 495-8684. Here's to making 1993 the phattest year in Hip-hop from me, Ivan, Rod and the newest member of the Gavin Rap crew, Janien Harrison. K-WOO

HEAVY D. & THE BOYZ - Who's The Man? (Uptown/MCA)

The Hevster is back in a serious way. This lead-off single from his upcoming album, "Blue Funk," is no joke, and leaves his cameo appearances with other artists in the dust. It's a perfect follow-up single to the bonus cut, "You Can't See What I Can See" (which was not released on his "Peaceful Journey" album), and it hits with authority over a cool Steve Miller loop. The dope production is headed by Tony Dofat who has also worked with Rough House Survivors. Sure to be a winner in clubs and it's a must for mixshows. Contact Brute or Rob at (800) 622-4668.

GANG STARR - Flip The Script (Chrysalis/ERG)

Taking no prisoners in '93, Gang Starr is flexing mad skills with "streetwise poetry and turntable wizardry." Guru lets loose his verbal assault over the jazzy keyboard licks the duo has come to be known for. You may want to hit the remix by Premier for the X-tra thick bassline. Don't forget to flip the 12" for one of the phattest cuts off the Trespass soundtrack. The Large Professor remix of "Gotta Get Over" has got to be the sureshot of the month. Contact Harry Fobbs at (212) 492-1241.

INSIDE URBAN

Happy New Year to those of you I didn't get to speak to this week, hope your holidays were safe and merry! And for those of you who forgot to report because they thought it was next week—"We're Ba-a-a-ack."

As you might remember from last issue (12/11/92), Freddie Jackson's remake of "Me And Mrs. Jones," Ce Ce Peniston's "Crazy Love" and Heavy D. & The Boyz' "Who's The Man" were the three Most Added records. After the holiday break Freddie got enough airplay and eleven new adds, making him this week's highest debut (#23) and our Urban "Hot" record. Among some of the stations adding him are WUSL/FM-Philadelphia, PA, WVKO-Columbus, OH, WILD-Boston, MA and KMJQ-Houston, TX. Ms. Peniston moves from her debut at the bottom of Up & Coming, to the top of Chartbound and she now awaits chance to make the chart. She picked up some of her fourteen adds at KKBT-Los Angeles, KJMZ-Dallas, TX, V103-Atlanta, GA and WUFO-Buffalo, NY. Besides making Most Added last issue, Heavy D. grabbed Top Tip and adds at WABD-Clarksville, TN; WPEG-Charlotte, NC, WVCR/FM-Albany, NY and WBLS-New York. On to the Chart!

This year's first #1 goes to Whitney Houston's "I Will Always Love You" as it moves 4-1, while her two-timin' (#1) hubby, Bobby Brown, heads south to #8. Portrait holds steady at #2 with After 7's "Baby I'm For Real" waiting for either spot after moving 5-3. Because of the holiday break the chart will show rather large jumps as a result of the missing weeks—thus upward movers in the Top 10 consist of Hi-Five (17-5), (19-6) for Mary J. Blige, Boyz II Men (10-7) and the Funky Divas of En Vogue turn it up with a (20-9) move and all will keep moving. Debuts to the chart, along with Freddie Jackson (#23), are Michael Cooper's "Shoop Shoop" at #33, Positive K's "I Got A Man" (#36), Tisha Campbell's "Push" (#37) and Jacci McGhee's "It Hurts Me" (#38). Check out this week's Top Tip and Record To Watch: Arrested Development's "Mr. Wendal" (Top Tip). Arrested Development is riding high on the success with their previous two releases, "Tennessee" and "People Everyday" and they debut on Up & Coming with 19 new stations.

The RTW, Digable Planets' "Rebirth Of Slick (Cool Like Dat)" is a slick and laidback groove that's cool to the ear—their debut to Up & Coming brings this trio 22 stations so far. Peace, John.

GAVIN SEMINAR '93's KEYNOTE EVENT

Spalding SG Gray

Presents Gray's Anatomy

BY KEITH AND KENT ZIMMERMAN

If anyone can empathize with the creative plight of a radio or music person, it's Spalding Gray. After performing fourteen monologues, Gray knows first hand about both the adrenaline rush and the loneliness of dialogue being fed spontaneously into a microphone.

Best known for his films, Swimming To Cambodia, directed by Jonathan Demme (Silence Of The Lambs, Stop Making Sense), and Monster In A Box, Spalding Gray takes the craft of structured recollection and performance art to its riskiest heights. Calling his work "poetic journalism," Spalding has vented his creative spleen not only by performing his one-man works, but also by writing and acting in a collection of films as diverse as The Killing Fields, Straight Talk and the upcoming King Of The Hill, directed by Steven Soderberg, best-known for his work on sex, lies and videotape.

But the task closest to Gray's anatomy is Gray's latest monodrama, titled appropriately, Gray's Anatomy, which he will be performing in its earliest and most fertile stage at the Gavin Seminar on Friday, February 12, at 3:00 p.m. at Theatre On The Square. Remotely similar to last year's Gavin keynote presentation, Rick Reynolds' Only The Truth Is Funny, Gray's works are based in truth, though his manipulation of that truth is known to be uniquely astounding.

If you're interested in boning up on some of Spalding's past projects, we strongly recommend viewing (or reviewing!) the video of Swimming To Cambodia and listening to the CD audio presentation of Monster In A Box, available on Will Ackerman's splendid label, Gang Of Seven. You'll find that whether it be film, CD or live theater, Spalding Gray's sense of detail is indeed amazing.

KZ: Gray's Anatomy—the newest work you'll be debuting at the Gavin Seminar—is your fourteenth monologue, three of which have become film features. These aren't something you just sit down and write like a script.

SG: That's right. I don't write my monologues. I have an outline and let them evolve. The stories are in my head like a film. I see them as I'm speaking them; what I'm doing is speaking my memory. Then, of course, that turns into hyperbole, some cutting and minor fiction. It's a patchwork—a cross between art and reportage. I refer to it as poetic journalism.

KZ: Will Gray's Anatomy vary from performance to performance?

SG: Right now, radically! But not after six months. Gray's Anatomy is only eight performances old. When we were in Albany in early December, we did two quite different evenings back-to-back. Now someone in the audience who watched both shows might remember something they liked from the first performance that wasn't included the next night. They may or may not notice the cuts. Whole chunks get taken out or edited. I may rearrange some parts to different places that are more appropriate. For instance, if there are two poignantly heavy sections in a row, Renee Shafransky, my director, will lift one and put it into a lighter section. The challenge is adjusting it and making it musical in mood. It starts as memory and turns more and more into art and music, in the sense of rhythm. We're working on it now and trying to get it more complex and layered.

KZ: Does the audience dictate the flow?

SG: Of course. They're responsible for the way it's shaped by the way in which they pay attention and focus in. I'm writing with them. I've been performing live for thirty years and, to me, doing my monologues is like dancing. I can take more chances in front of an audience than I can sitting alone in my room. I won't say that I'm a born performer, but I first went onstage in 1959 and discovered that I was more comfortable there than I was offstage. For me the fear is here, alone in a room, not in front of people. What that discovery has to do with is really a psychoanalytic issue. I've never done a monologue on that!

KZ: The last time we saw you was in October, 1991. You seemed at the crossroads between finishing your book, Impossible Vacation, and committing Monster In A Box to film.

SG: Gray's Anatomy didn't even exist a year ago. Monster In A Box was at its ripest point then, it was into its third year and needed to be retired. I had to get off the treadmill. I was on a roll with Monster because it was in such demand. What got me off the treadmill was making the film version. Now it's coming out on video, signalling a closure to stop performing it live. It's a good closure, because not all of my monologues get that far. Now three have graduated from stage to film to video release: Swimming To Cambodia, Monster In A Box plus Terrors Of Pleasure, which was made into an HBO special.

KZ: What inspires a Spalding Gray monologue?

SG: There's always a turbulent bright light blinking in the middle of all these monologues. In Swimming To Cambodia, it was dealing with my first feature film role in exotic Thailand. Terrors Of Pleasure, which followed, was more comic relief that centered around me buying this house in the Catskills. I didn't know what Monster In A Box sprang from. When I first performed it in Woodstock and Albany, it was under the title Reports From My Life. Renee, as the director, began to see the "reports" were evolving around this huge book project, a 1900 page tome. So we added that to the stage. It became a prop, then the anchor for what was coming and going.

KZ: How would you describe Gray's Anatomy as we will see it on February 12 at the Gavin Seminar?

SG: Gray's Anatomy revolves around an operation I had on my left eye—actually, not only the operation, but the build-up to it. There's the realization that, for the first time in my life, at age fifty, something has happened to me that's irreversible. I have to deal with whether to go directly to a medical doctor and have him perform micro-surgery and cut into my eye or go back to my Christian Science roots and fiddle around with alternatives—which I did somewhat, but I think I always did it with a foot in the doctor's office. I never got into a leap of faith situation. Gray's Anatomy deals with the operation and getting married as a result.

KZ: Are we in for any surprises?

SG: I'm still really researching it! In fact, I tell you this now, even though I'm not committed yet because I'm dry in the mouth with fear about it: A travel magazine is sending me to the Philippines on January 16 to explore psychic surgeons, the ones that operate on you with their bare hands. It could be all tricks, or not tricks—either one frightens me. I'm concerned because I don't want to go all the way over there and be the victim of a hoax. The woman I'm dealing with on this trip has been there about eight or ten times and totally believes. She tells me that if I go with a doubtful attitude, nothing will happen. What a double bind I'm in! I don't know how to dispel my doubt. I've heard about tumors removed and cures that are phenomenal. But I've always doubted—ever since I renounced Christian Science. This may or may not play into Gray's Anatomy when I perform it for you in February. Another reason I'm thinking about going to the Philippines is that I have a story about a psychic surgeon in the monologue.

"I've always felt that God is in the details."

KZ: Is there an official premiere date scheduled?

SG: I'm trying to be more open, but what I'm not doing is rushing this monologue. Lincoln Center has asked me four times to open it there in January. Their producer saw the first performance in Long Island and immediately wanted to book it. I really had to pull back. I just felt it wasn't complex and dramatic enough. So it's growing.

KZ: It sounds like we'll be seeing Gray's Anatomy at a percolating stage.

SG: The early stages of my monologues are always more interesting because I'm working it out with the audience. Then, after a while, after several performances, it gets too ripe. It gets very pat—like entertainment—where I know where all the laughs are and I go for them. I settle into it and it becomes comfortable. That's fine in the sense of making a living, as long as I know when to let it go by getting it published or filmed.

KZ: Do you have any major influences from radio?

SG: Radio is my major influence. I grew up with it. As I've often said in lectures, I didn't get a TV until I was eleven years old. Then television literalized my imagination and spoiled it. With radio I made up an image of what Ozzie and Harriet's house looked like. It was an amalgamation of my fantasy and somebody's house down the street. As soon as it came on television, it literalized and was no longer my house. It was fascinating, but I didn't like it. Because I was a Christian Scientist, I would stay home from school because my mother couldn't prove that I wasn't sick. I would stay home and listen to the radio all day. I'd go right through the soap operas into Sgt. Preston, into Baby Snooks. I was glued to the radio when I was a very young boy. I had a ham radio and a crystal set too, so I could listen on earphones. My mother used to forbid any kind of mystery or horror shows because a

NEW RELEASES

by Lisa Smith & Cyndi Hoelzle

MARY-CHAPIN CARPENTER - Passionate Kisses (Columbia)

Amen, sister! We couldn't be happier that this song is being heard on the airwaves. Chapin throws herself into Lucinda Williams' anthem.

MARK CHESNUTT - 'Ol Country (MCA)

Another intriguing tale from Chesnutt's Long Necks and Short Stories album.

PAM TILLIS - Let That Pony Run (Arista)

Though Pam didn't write this song, it follows the theme of her earlier "One Of Those Things," showing a woman taking control of a painful situation. It's a beautiful, mature way of looking at a breakup, and Pam gives it her usual flair.

GEORGE STRAIT - Heartland (MCA)

This is a sure thing. The theme from Strait's Pure Country—fitting with the character he played in the film—is a bit more bombastic than his usual offerings but no less appealing.

KATHY MATTEA - Standing Knee Deep In A River (Dying Of Thirst) (Mercury)

Mattea just gets better and better in her role as Country's beautiful philosopher. Her voice floats over this song's gorgeous, hard-hitting lyrics.

PALOMINO ROAD - Why Baby Why (Liberty)

This four-member band, who have been on tour with Billy Ray Cyrus, chose to revive George Jones' 1955 hit for their debut. "Why Baby Why" was Jones' first hit, and it sounds like it could be Palomino Road's as well.

Programmer's Pick

RADNEY FOSTER - Nobody Wins (Arista)

From Del Rio, Texas, 1959, one of the strongest albums of last year, comes one of the most promising entries of '93. Three and a half minutes of hook-infested, rockin' Country glory, brimming with plenty of snap, crackle and power pop! Almost Beatle-esque in its inspired production, complete with a wonderfully textured-layered sound and just the right amount of powerful background belts from Radney's pal Mary-Chapin Carpenter, "Nobody Wins" is everything a great song should be. A sure cure for the winter blahs!!

—Jim Asker, PD/MD, WFLS-Fredericksburg

Todd Mooring takes over as the label's new Gavin rep... Congratulations to the folks at KIQK-Rapid City who celebrated their first anniversary on the air on January 7.

COUNTRY HAPPENINGS...Happy New Year! We have a lot to catch up on from the last few weeks, so here goes...Congratulations to all our Gavin Award Country Nominees listed in this weeks issue. Don't forget, the winners will be announced during the Gavin Seminar on Saturday night, February 13. Hope we see you there...While we're on the subject of the Gavin Seminar, congratulations to KASE/KVET-Austin's Steve Gary and KRKT-Albany's H. David Allen, the winners of our Gavin Video Magazine 3 contest. Steve and H. David will both receive free registrations to the Gavin Seminar...There've been a couple of changes on our reporting panel. KWPC-Muscataine and WHEW-Ft. Myers are no longer Gavin Country reporting stations, and we are now using KBUF-Garden City's FM sister station, KKJQ, instead of KBUF...We've had some additions to our reporting family in the last few weeks. WKSU-Urbana/Springfield's Russ Shafer and his wife Stephanie are the proud parents of baby twin girls, Sadie Jean and Shelby Charlene, born on December 9. And WXXQ-Rockford's Michael Weis and his wife Jeanie announced the birth of Olivia Elaine on December 22. Congratulations to you all...More congratulations to WYII-Williamsport's Casey Brooks on her engagement...On New Years Day, WXNP "Mix Jams" in Pittsburg switched over to "All Garth, All The Time" programming in anticipation of their new Country format. Vice President of Programming for EZ Communications, Tim Murphy, is at the helm of the new Country outlet which signed on as "K-BEAR." The Program Director will be Bill Macky, who will also handle the midday air shift...Step One Records' Mike Anderson has been promoted to Southeast Regional for the label.

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

HAPPY NEW YEAR!! We hope you had a safe and happy holiday season. To start 1993 here is our first list of new A/C correspondents, in alphabetical order. Please look for full information on these stations in our blue Gavin Handbook guide.

KAMX-Albuquerque, NM	WASL-Dyersburg, TN
KDCK/FM-Dodge City, KS	WCDA-Albany, NY
KHTT-Santa Rosa, CA	WCSO/FM-Portland, ME
KTDY/FM-Lafayette, LA	WEAI-Jacksonville, IL
KXRO-Olympia, WA	WHCO-Sparta, IL
KXXO-Aberdeen, WA	WKOK-Selinsgrove, PA
WAFY-Middleton/Frederick, MD	WZDQ-Jackson, TN

A great #11 to #5 holiday move for PEABO BRYSON & REGINA BELLE's "A Whole New World." Its HEAVY rotation nearly doubled (from 65 to 124), and only 12 stations on it before Christmas aren't playing it in quality rotations.

CELINE DION's earth-mover, "Love Can Move Mountains," leaps #14 to #6 with a better than 100% increase in HEAVY rotation (39 to 81). Among the half dozen mountain "ears" to ADD it are KBIG, KTDY/FM, WIVY/FM and WFAS/FM.

Unstoppable FLEETWOOD MAC moves #37 to #22 to #11, with only seven records being played at more stations. The 13 newest include B100, KKOR, WTRR and WSTU.

From CHARTBOUND to #31 to #15 for MICHAEL JACKSON's "Heal The World." Look for this one to be near or at the top of the chart about Super Bowl time when Michael sings this song to the television world on at halftime.

Last issue's TOP TIP, CATHY DENNIS' "Irresistible," is proving just that to A/C radio. More than 60% of the format is already onboard including a healthy 38 new this week.

With a 36% increase in HIT FACTOR and a format-leading 65 ADDs, PATTY SMYTH debuts at #26. Count among the ADDs since the last week we KSTP/FM, WRQX, KMXX, WJLK, WKWK/FM, WWDE and KEYI.

Opening with a awesome 44% HIT FACTOR is NEIL YOUNG's instant classic, "Harvest Moon." Of the stations on it before this week 74% are HIT FACTORing.

Mary-Chapin Carpenter

PASSIONATE KISSES

from the platinum album
"Come On Come On"

-Included in People Magazine's "Best of Song" Top 10 list:

"Sassy, soulful and smart as a whip, Carpenter outdoes herself in this graceful collection of confessional-pop and Nashville rock. If Thelma and Louise had lived to tell, it might sound something like this."

-Time rates it in their "Top 10 Best Music of 1992" list:

"In this mature, play-it-till-it-wears-out album . . . her melodies are resilient: her lyrics bear a trace of Ivy League irony and of paying attention in poetry class- and these days, isn't that nice? But nice doesn't get in the way of Carpenter's ingratiating artistry. She's a good girl gone better."

-Listed in The New York Times music critics' Top 10 list:

"With a sensible understated voice and plain-spoken songs from the border of rock, country and pop, Mary-Chapin Carpenter zeroes in on the small triumphs and sweeping changes of adult life."

strict Christian Scientist was against anything that would put dark thoughts in your mind. I would listen secretly in my inner sanctum. I was a radio junkie.

KZ: So you enjoyed perceiving images via the radio.

SG: It was the most productive way to imagine. You get the words and sound effects, then you build this whole world automatically in your imagination. I do think that film and television stultify and literalize. An interesting thing that I heard from a critic in Houston about my films Monster In A Box and Swimming To Cambodia was that they were "cinema of the head." He pointed out that you were going into this movie theater to see a film so you already expect to have a lot of images—literalized illustrations of text. You don't get it from my films, so what you start to do is make your own film while you're watching a film of someone talking in a movie theater. You see the layers of that? There are no other films like it. Because you're in a movie theater, as opposed to live theater, you're already even more conducive to image-making because you're so conditioned. I think when my films work for people, they do so in a complicated and interesting way. The people are seeing an inner film and manufacturing it in a theater. Skull Cinema.

KZ: Since your monologues are heavily based on real life, do you ever live out things just for the sake of material?

SG: When I do that, it doesn't work. That's why I'm nervous about this Philippines trip. I'm usually serendipitous. If I'm hanging out in a particular situation, anything can happen. I don't know how it's going to apply to my art, but that's usually the best place for me to be—relaxed and not looking. If I go out and try to plan a project, it's less effective because I simply don't know what's going to work.

KZ: Where did you get your observation skills? You have such a detailed curiosity.

SG: In 1976 I started keeping a journal, a diary I wrote in every morning about the previous day. I wrote just one page per day for seven years and never missed a morning. To some extent it developed that muscle, but it also showed me it was there. I have a rather vivid imagination and a good recall for detail. I can see a kind of film in my head. I've always felt that God is in the details. I'm writing an article for GQ now. In writing, I've discovered that when I talk about being at this health spa in Malibu and drinking herbal tea, it makes a difference whether it's Sleepy Time or Hibiscus versus just herbal tea. As soon as you name something for me, it has power. I've always discovered simply that the more detailed I am, the more rounded I feel in the experience. Details help me relive events in my recollections better in a Proustian way.

KZ: The Killing Fields really got your film career rolling.

SG: Once I had done that film, I had enough credentials to get an agent in Hollywood and do other work. The most satisfying film acting I've done happened last August. I was in St. Louis with Steven Soderbergh's new film called King Of The Hill. It's going to be a beautiful period piece with costumes and old cars, an autobiographic look at a thirteen year old boy growing up in St. Louis during the Depression. I've seen some of the rushes. I did some very good scenes with Elizabeth McGovern and the boy, who's played by Jesse Bradford. My previous roles have usually been more comic, but this character is very sad, with more weight and in-depth tragedy.

KZ: Do you consider your monologues therapeutic?

SG: The therapeutic aspect is the individual dramatization in the sense that I am able to yell, shout and tell the story. Whenever I'm in any social situation and I'm quiet too long and haven't told a story to someone, I feel like I'm smothering. The need to shape hysteria is personal and it gives me a sense of being. That's the therapy from monologues. That's why I do workshops at Esalen. I'll be down there again in April and I'll take on fifteen people. You can see how it works for someone to tell their own half-hour life story; they suddenly realize they're on this earth making their own history. We're all so used to just being in touch with the history of celebrities. Nobody who isn't famous is allowed to have an autobiography or a biography. People don't get a chance to tell their story to an audience unless there's an agenda like Pro-Choice, a Twelve Step Program or tropical rain forests.

KZ: Do you consider yourself psychologically fragile?

SG: It's not that I'm fragile, I'm just making constant drama and my therapist thinks I should really slow down and experience boredom. But I'm frightened because I don't know how to make a living from boredom. I'm terrified of it. If I like it, then I might have to move to San Francisco. ●

NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

"THE DEVIL YOU KNOW"
- JESUS JONES
(FOOD/SBK/EGR)

Wow! The first song of 1993 hammers its way to the forefront after thirty seconds of digital dulcimer. After that it's curtain time as drums, guitars et al make their dramatic entrance. Jesus Jones, principally Mike Edwards, walks the fine line between rock, rave and melody beautifully. In many ways the Joneses epitomize the challenges of making music into the twenty-first century. They play the studio as much as their instruments. "The Devil You Know" is their best work to date.

"STAND" - POISON
(CAPITOL)

In the past, Poison has had big success on both radio and MTV. "Stand" (especially on the longish LP version) combines electricity, acoustic wood and gospel. Given the time to stretch out, Poison plays some gospel singing against some rock n roll lead guitar. Thematically similar to Sly Stone's "Stand," Poison should see across-the-dial action on this one.

INCESTICIDE - NIRVANA
(DGC)

Incesticide brings the world up to date on Nirvana. Before Never Mind, tcame these tracks; a vivid collection of Sub Pop gems, Euro

John Peel and Mark Goodier BBC sessions. What's so interesting about Incesticide is that before Nirvana became a household word, they had a damn respectable "indie" career going on both sides of the Atlantic. On songs like "Molly's Lips," "Sliver," "Son Of A Gun" and the opening "Dive," you see how little the band has compromised since climbing aboveground. In addition, Kurt (the blond one) uses the liner note slot as—to quote Ross Perot—a bully pulpit. There's some stern prose that sets the record straight as to the actual highs and lows the band has felt since hitting pay dirt. Most of it has to do with giving fellow musical compatriots a helping hand, some of it has to do with some of the nasty repercussions fame brings. All of this makes Incesticide an extremely interesting package, a Trojan Horse of harsh realities.

"SHE GOT ME (WHEN SHE GOT HER DRESS ON)" - MASTERS OF REALITY (CHRYSALIS)

I first heard this on an advance tape before the holidays and loved it then. On a proper CD, it sounds even better. You may have heard Masters Of Reality when they bounced around a few years ago, but you've never heard them like this. A power trio, guitarist/vocalist Chris Goss and bassist Googe have enlisted the help of a new drummer, none other than Ginger Baker, who's played in a few power trios during previous lives. His flim/flammy bounce gives the Masters' grunge a lilting rockabilly injection. I love both those precious Baker tom fills as well as that "Radar Love" high-way cruise groove. Killer tune.

"WINTER" EP - TORI AMOS (ATLANTIC)

Tori Amos' Little Earthquakes album was one of 1992's success stories. Starting as a collection of seed songs, the album blossomed with the help of a successful tour and a collection of cleverly marketed CD EPs that expanded her stage, radio and retail repertoire. More importantly, the album has tapped into a progressive fan base that's willing to grow with the artist. "Winter" is an expansion of the experiment that worked. Debuting as Y Kant Tori Read, the music was heavily technical. By dropping most of the digital baggage and stripping the songs to their acoustical core, Tori Amos has reached an accord with integrity. "Winter" expands on her vulnerable acoustic quest.

"IF I CAN'T CHANGE YOUR MIND" - SUGAR (RYKO)

I call this power jangle, all the melody of REM blended with the power of Husker. Part of why Sugar has been so successful is the fine balance between power noise and Bob Mould's aloof vocals. While there is a potential for intensity (given Mould's past work), it's the restraint at work here that makes the difference. It's a power ballad that could be played at 10 but sounds better at 3. Sugar makes the transition into '93.

"LONELY ME LONELY YOU" - NAKED SOUL (SCOTTI BROS.)

As American regions explode, the pride of Costa Mesa, California throws their entry into the ring. Led by Las Vegas refugee Mike Conley, Naked Soul may at first invite comparisons to the Replacements. After a few listens, those comparisons fall by the wayside as Naked Soul becomes a no-frills, no-crapola three piece. "Lonely Me Lonely You," "Windows" and "In The Sky" are plainspeak American gems.

THE GREAT PRETENDER - FREDDIE MERCURY (HOLLYWOOD)

It's easy to read Freddie Mercury's untimely demise into his music, especially in this lineup of solo performances that looks to have been pieced together posthumously. I remember "Love Kills" when it was originally issued as part of the Metropolis soundtrack. Instead of the Giorgio Moroder and Arthur Barrow's synthesizers, "Love Kills" is given a harder guitar treatment. The funkier drumming gives this solo side a different temperament than any of Mercury's work with Queen.

INSIDE ALTERNATIVE

by Linda Ryan

I hope that everyone came back from their holiday safe and sound, rested and ready to work. Right. There are lots of new and exciting goings on to catch up on, so here goes.

SBK's MIKE MENA will officially segue into the A&R department, trading one set of VP stripes for another, on January 15. Mena was responsible for bringing both JESUS JONES and BLUR to the label and was a key player in the first rights of refusal deal SBK made with the red-hot Creation label, which brought SLOWDIVE and ADORABLE into their fold. The Alternative promotion department is now fully in the capable hands of HILLARY LERNER.

RCA's BRUCE FLOHR and finance Bridget will tie the knot in San Luis Obispo on January 30th. Best of luck (to her!) and may there be nothing but happiness in your future.

Speaking of getting married, WFIT's MEGAN THOMAS got hitched over New Year's weekend. She and her husband are moving to Boston, so if there're any stations out there who'd like to add a talented, Aussie-accented lady to their staff, here's your chance! As soon as the newlyweds find a place and get a number, I'll let you know.

Have you heard that PIRATE RADIO is changing their name and programming attitude? They've been using the slogan "NoName...No Hype...Just Great Music" and will now be known simply as 100.3. Along with this, the station will adopt a more Alternative-leaning programming philosophy and a new consultant: TOM BARNES of Jon Sinton & Associates.

If all that's not enough to make your head spin, how 'bout this:

A New Chapter Begins...

this year's Gavin Seminar is only five weeks away and promises to be quite an entertaining and educational one.

Music veteran MAX TOLKOFF (WFNX) has agreed to host the first of our Commercial Alternative panels. He will bring his knowledge—and the knowledge of a few station owners (yes, the owners!) and Program Directors to the Seminar this year.

KFMA's JONATHAN ROSEN and PLG's STEVE LEEDS will reprise their New Music Seminar moderating roles at this year's Gavin confab. Once again, record companies and Commercial radio representatives will meet in separate rooms and make an agenda. This agenda will then be presented at an "all-attended" meeting. It's a great way to succinctly address the issues each faction feels is most important to the development of our format. For College Radio, there will be a private, closed door session for College radio delegates only. This will be your time to create your own agenda and/or air problems in an informal setting with plenty of sympathetic ears and hopefully a few words of wisdom.

There will also be a panel devoted specifically to the problems of Sexism and Racism in College Radio.

Back by popular demand this year is the Artist panel. There are quite a number of talented people coming in to provide the entertainment for the Seminar this year, so this panel should be an exciting one. Once again, more details to follow on all panels, showcases, the softball game, etc.

The release of their new single, "Man On The Moon" has given R.E.M. enough steam to capture number one, once again. Congratulations on the first number one of the New Year! See ya later. LINDA RYAN

JESUS JONES - "THE DEVIL YOU KNOW" (SBK/ERG)

Most of you have been living with this track for the past couple of weeks, but just in case you've been buried under a huge stack of holiday mail (I can't think of another reason for not jumping on this one right away!), let me assure you "The Devil You Know" is all that you hoped Jesus Jones' follow-up would be. The unusual intro (it sounds like a sitar, but you never know with Jesus Jones) gives way to a radio-friendly pop song that is nothing like anything they've done before, yet at the same time has Jesus Jones written all over it. One listen and you'll know what I mean. On a slow reporting week, "The Devil You Know" was Most Added by a long shot. Another Alternative/Top 40 success story? I think so! LINDA RYAN

THE POOH STICKS - THE WORLD IS TURNING ON EP (ZOO ENTERTAINMENT)

The three offerings on this EP have been culled from The Pooh Stick's soon-to-be-released album, Million Seller. Although "The World Is Turning On" is the lead tack, you won't want to stop listening there, as each song on this EP reveals a little bit more about The Pooh Sticks—and that's all the more to love. With inspirations rooted in late sixties/early seventies pop, it's not surprising that The Pooh Sticks deliver fun, spirited songs that win you over instantly. I dare anybody not to sing along to "The World Is Turning On." Ditto "Susan Sleepwalking." And "Rainbow Rider" has the kind of lush harmonies that would make The Hollies/CSN green with envy. Hopefully the band will make the journey from Wales to tour for this album because The Pooh Sticks' live show is something to experience firsthand. LR

BELLY - "FEED THE TREE" (4AD/REPRISE)

I took the Belly tape home with me over the holidays and oh my God, is this album cool! You'll have to wait a couple of weeks for the whole thing, but that's okay because "Feed The Tree" is solid enough to hold you over, and is a logical introduction to the album. There are very few who can resist Tanya Donnelly's siren-like voice and that heavy, melodic bass, but when they're combined with a song as charming and catchy as "Feed The Tree," it only spells success—as in a major hit. And that's only the beginning. "Feed The Tree" is the start of something big—really big. LR

NAKED SOUL - "LONELY ME, LONELY YOU" (SCOTTI BROS.)

With it's ringing guitars and pounding drums, "Lonely Me, Lonely You" is a pop-rocker in the tradition of early Replacements or Soul Asylum—a heavy compliment, to be sure! Frontman Mike Conley, who honed his rock n' roll chops in the punk band MIA, says that Naked Soul has "a lot of melody and a big guitar sound. That's what we're all about. It's the spirit that makes it interesting." Straight from the horse's mouth! "Lonely Me, Lonely You" is a highly charged radio charmer waiting to happen. Find your copy and turn it up! LR

CHRIS KOWANKO - KOWANKO (MORGAN CREEK)

Drop the air guitar/power chord mentality for singer/songwriter Chris Kowanko's debut album. Wry wit, mixed metaphors with poetic chasers, and flooring humor crowd Kowanko's lyrics giving contemporary giants in the genre (Robyn Hitchcock, Suzanne Vega, Jonathan Richman) stiff competition. "One Too Many Times" combines acoustic and electric guitars in a bouncing resolution not to be "taggin' along on a leash/your panting man." "Vigilante's" poignant piano and strings echo the feelings of a lonely woman trapped in a destructive relationship. Electric guitars (the only instrument Kowanko doesn't play himself) blare on "Co-Star," "Turn Me Down" features an intoxicatingly melodic guitar. If you're an Alex Chilton/Robyn Hitchcock fan who admires the demands of singing/songwriting, don't pass this up. DAVID BERAN

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

Time to play catch up with some music released over the holiday break. The following are already up and running, but they missed getting ink while we were gone:

STARCLUB - Hard to Get (Island/PLG) Don't waste any time hearing this one. In high rotation at home and in the office for more than a month. Debuts top thirty on the Alternative chart.

SPIN DOCTORS - Two Princes (Epic) Just try sitting still listening to one of the most exciting bands to arrive during '92. Truly Rock of the '90s.

BON JOVI - Bed Of Roses (Jambco/Mercury) A true-life story sung from the heart. Jon tells how he came to write it in an exclusive Gavin interview appearing later this month.

ROBERT DOWNEY, JR. - Smile (Epic) It's not often Charlie Chaplin's music gets heard these days. Actor and star of the much heralded film "Chaplin" turns singer on an innovative arrangement of this classic melody.

Now for the first official batch of picks for 1993:

WHITNEY HOUSTON - I'm Every Woman (Arista) From Dolly Parton's songbook to Chaka Khan's, Whitney has the range and the talent to do whatever she pleases. It's a safe bet a #1 single and #1 album is helping "The Bodyguard" do even bigger business at the box office. This re-make of Chaka's 1978 hit charts top fifteen at HOT 97-New York and Q106-San Diego, and is generating lots of early airplay around the country.

R.E.M. - Man On The Moon (Warner Bros.) Those bored with stale, tired storylines need to give this one a listen. Mr. Stipe and his Athens, GA collaborators give the cerebrum a work out on Automatic For The People and this track easily rates as one of the album's highlights. Here's further proof of music's ability to transport the mind through word and melody.

POISON - Stand (Capitol) Rejuvenated after a two-year hiatus, Poison kicks off the New Year with a message full of the same sincerity and spirit they put into "Something To Believe In." Richie Zito's stellar production, the band's musicianship and a dynamic piece of music makes this tune a standout.

TREY LORENZ - Photograph Of Mary (Epic) From being known as Mariah's back-up singer, Trey stepped out of the shadows last year and into the well-deserved solo spotlight. This follow-up track is another winner propelled by those "nah-nah-nah's" sure to sound familiar to those who will recall one of Elton John's early hits, "Take Me To The Pilot."

JON SECADA - Angel (SBK/ERG) Nothing like making a debut album and racking up two massive Top 40 and A/C hits to get a solo career underway. This former Miami Sound man called on Gloria Estefan to co-write the Spanish lyrics to this latest entry, which should give Jon his third straight chart success.

BOBBY BROWN - Get Away (MCA) This must be the first time a husband and wife both have new releases on this page in the same week. A neighbor in her mid-thirties saw me wearing my "Bobby" hat last week, and she stopped to let me know she "looves" his music. It's easy to understand why he's developed into a superstar. On tour with Mary J. Blige and TLC, he appears in Oakland next month on the same weekend as the Gavin Seminar.

BAD BOYS BLUE - Save Your Love (Zoo) An international trio comprised of two members from the U.K. along with an American partner, they are based in Germany. But in any language, this is pure Pop music. B96-Chicago was first to report action on this hot uptempo production, taking it Top Ten in a month with heavy request and strong callout results.

VANESSA WILLIAMS Duet With BRIAN McKNIGHT - Love Is (Giant/Reprise) Man, does this pair sound great together or what? A tasty duet from from the soundtrack of "Beverly Hills, 90210," that just feels right around this time of year. Early chart activity at B95-Fresno 16-14, KDON-Monterey/Salinas 32-30, plus ADDs at: KTFM, KCAQ, POWER 102 and KHTN.

SAIGON KICK - All I Want (Third Stone/Atlantic) It was a ballad that first got these rockers exposed to Top 40 audiences. Now, they pick up the pace with a melodic track featuring a strong hook that's easily accessible for Pop radio.
