What's It Like Out There on the Information Superhighway?

A hot Wired session is one of many Picks to Click at the 1994 GAVIN SEMINAR

This Week.....

It sounds like hype (and so it is!), but the 1994 GAVIN SEMINAR is shaping up to be the biggest and widest-ranging one yet. To give you a sneak preview of the three-day event that's now just three weeks away, we surveyed the Gavin editors and asked them to pinpoint anticipated highlights. They include a Top 40/Alternative mixer moderated by Live 105's Richard Sands (above), a panel on Country's radio wars, a riveting keynote from George Ware, an anticipated "bitch session" in Alternative, and a Mixmaster audience-testing technology that—who knows?—could become its own bitch session!

Another sure pick to click at the Seminar is the high-tech highway session we're doing with Wired magazine. Sometimes, things feel every bit as dizzy as our cover shot, taken from Electronic Arts and A&M's new 3DO game, Road Rash, which mixes games with videos from bands like Therapy? and Soundgarden. 'Way! For the whole schmeer, check out the Seminar agenda on Page 36. In News, the top story is, once again, Michael Jackson. We get industry response to his out-of-court settlement. The ARROW Oldies format shoots beyond CBS Radio for the first time. We manage to catch up with Dick Clark (above, right) still "America's Oldest Teenager" at 64, and check out the marketing strategies for the sudsy compilation, One Life to Live: The Best of Love. Among the best on the GO Chart are the Breeders, Mariah Carey (above, left), and Terence Trent d'Arby.

Jackson Settles, Industry Reacts

BY BEVERLY MIRE

"We'd love to be playing his music; whether or not the guy's a pervert, his music is still unreal," says Isle 95-St. Croix music director Dave Shuman.

Michael Jackson reached a settlement last week (reportedly between $15 and $20 million) with the 14-year-old boy who accused him of sexual molestation, but the case is far from closed as far as radio is concerned. Because there's no clear-cut answer to Jackson's guilt or innocence, programmers have to weigh whether playing his music is a plus or a minus.

"As it stands now, we're not going to stop playing his music," says Angela Perelli, interim program director at A/C station K-101 in San Francisco. "He's our most popular artist of all time."

Isle 95's Shuman says the 20 Jackson tracks the station has in its library have been "on hold" since November, but the allegations had nothing to do with his becoming persona non grata on the station. When he cancelled his concert in Puerto Rico, Jackson cost Isle 95 listeners considerable amounts of money. "We're not so much into the moral issue," says Shuman. "We set it up so over 800 people could go over to Puerto Rico for $500 each. Michael cancelled the concert 39 hours before the show, and we had 48-hour penalties. We became the official 'Michael Jackson refund station.' We do as little as we can to remind listeners of that incident."

Because some feel the payoff is an admission of guilt while some stick to the tenet "innocent until proven guilty," KHMX-Houston is proceeding cautiously. "We're putting together a man-on-the-street inquiry," said music director Rich

Anhorn. "As for his future, it all depends on his next record. I think there'll be more interest in his music than ever before. People will want to know what he's doing."

KDON-Salinas program director Michael Newman agrees with Anhorn. "We've gone back and forth on this," he told GAVIN. "We've gotten no negative calls. With future recordings, we'll take them on quality. And this may blow over; time heals."

Some personalities take the issue personally, since Jackson was part of their formative years, and was an inspiration. "I stand by Michael," says KMEL-San Francisco morning personality Renel. "I'm very emotional about this; I want to believe in human decency. I and so many other African-Americans grew up with Michael and feel a connection with him. We'd see him on television and believe that we could get a piece of the American dream too."

In conversations with programmers around the country, one thing was universal: Jackson's music stands apart from the controversy. To a person, they seem to agree with Jackson's family, who said, "This is between Michael and his attorneys."

Arrow Hits Music City

The arrow hit the mark in Nashville—in theory, anyway. Classic rocker WGFX/FM-Nashville, which went off the air on January 7, re-emerged on January 23 with the CBS-owned "Arrow" format, which features oldies from 1965 through the mid-'80s.

The Dick Broadcasting-owned station contracted legally with CBS to use the "Arrow" slogan, but that's all they get for their money. "We are just allowing them to use the name," says Rod Calarco, vice president of CBS Owned FM Stations. "We're not supplying programming."

CBS's "Arrow" catapulted KCBS/AM-Los Angeles from 21st to 13th in the ratings race and quickly spread to three other CBS stations. WGFX's version will be put together by the Seattle-based The Research Group.

WGFX Owner/GM Steve

Dickert says the station will adopt Arrow's conservative approach, with a few notable exceptions. "The distinguishing factor is that we won't play any bubblegum, doo-wop, Motown or disco," he says. There'll be "major amounts of Beatles," as well as tracks from classic '60s and '70s artists such as the Animals and Three Dog Night.

WGFX's "Arrow" isn't that far away from where it was before it went off the air on January 7 because of a damaged transmission line. "We are different by only two or three songs an hour," Dickert admits. But he likes the adjusted format's comfort level. "There's clearly so much we can play. We have a large, safe library of approximately 1,000 titles," he says.

And an increasingly popular name.

An Uzi for a Janet Jackson

The idea of turning guns in for concert tickets (GAVIN, November 26, 1993) has caught on big-time. Reba McEntire is the latest to join in, offering tickets to her ular in various major cities, sponsored initially by ticket agencies and radio stations.

Before and around Christmas, BASS Tickets, which offered a pair of tick-a five-day period, with many of the weapons being surrendered in exchange for tickets to Lakers games.

In Atlanta, four buybacks sponsored by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference netted 1,700 weapons, while a similar campaign in Dayton, Ohio, drew 1,000 guns in one day, all in exchange for $35 cash or $50 of food coupons. In New York, 317 guns were turned in for $100 certificates at Toys 'R Us in 60 hours, prompting NAACP executive Ben Chavis to say that "every city needs a toys-for-guns program."

In Los Angeles, the campaign drew a wide range of weapons and motives. According to one police officer, the owner of an Uzi-like weapon, claiming it cost $350, accepted a pair of Janet Jackson tickets.

"I had a feeling he was going to scalp them," the officer said.

ets for any concert or sporting event in the San Francisco Bay Area in exchange for a gun, drew more than 300 weapons in three cities.

Soon after, Los Angeles' TicketMaster sponsored a similar program and pulled in more than 400 guns over

"I'm not anti-guns. I'm anti-killing," said McEntire.

The country star joins a slew of exchange programs that actually began five years ago in Denver, but have recently become popular in various major cities, sponsored initially by ticket agencies and radio stations.

Howard: Like a Rolling Stern

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

In an interview with Rolling Stone magazine, Howard Stern charged conservative Senator Jesse Helms with sabotaging his entering the Atlanta radio market and continued to blame the FCC for, as the magazine put it, holding back his career.

"Without a doubt," said Stern. "I would have been on in about 300 markets already if it weren't for the FCC."

As he has on his morning show, Stern said he doubted he could outlast a bureaucracy like the FCC. "They're going to...wear me down," he told interviewer Rick Marin. "And the way they do it is they hit the company I work for. They're doing it in a bald, underhanded way that's completely unconstitutional." Stern's show has drawn more than $1.2 million in indecency fines against Infinity Broadcasting and various stations who carry his program.

"The whole message," said Stern, is "Fire Howard Stern." He spoke of Infinity planning to buy a station in Atlanta, with Stern's show as part of the format. "And Jesse Helms said point-blank, 'You'll never buy that station in Atlanta unless you agree not to put on Howard Stern.'" " "

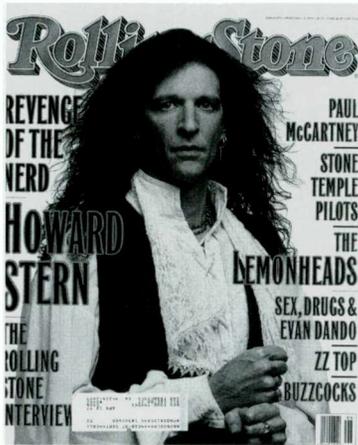

Stern admitted that he had no proof of Helms' intervention. "I know it went down," he said.

In the cover story interview, entitled "Revenge of the Nerd," Stern talked about being driven by fear of old DJ stereotypes: "I'm still scared," he said, "of the image of the old-time announcer showing up at bar mitzvahs and handing out pictures and balloons. I've tried to elevate the role of disc jockey to somewhere beyond circus clown and carnival barker."

He rationalized his fixation on the size (or lack thereof) of his private parts as "great radio. Because it's someone being honest about their fears and emotions."

But great radio, he says, doesn't mix with TV. While he's chomping for a chance to go after David Letterman and Jay Leno—both of whom he disparaged in the interview—he opposed one reported concept: videotaping his morning show for airing, edited, as a TV show. "There's a certain intimacy with radio that people like," he said. "They like that there's not a camera on them. They tend to admit more and be more open. It would kill me if women came in and couldn't be naked in the studio anymore. It just wouldn't be right. I couldn't get up in the morning."

Besides, he added, his contract with Infinity Broadcasting runs another two years, so he isn't about to give radio up for television.

In one of many candid moments, Stern said that the real Howard Stern is the man on the air, not the more reserved, conservative family man at home. "When I'm on the radio," he said, "I can be exactly what I am and say exactly what I feel. I really feel I'm role-playing in real life. But I can get on the radio and be who I feel I am inside. In real life, I sit and hold back all the time. I hate that. But you can't function in real life if you go around telling people what you think."

Open House at Westinghouse?

Despite its recent radio purchases, including KKHI AM/FM-San Francisco, Westinghouse Electric is the subject of industry talk that the company might sell a stake in its broadcast unit.

In a profile of CEO Michael Jordan in Barron's, whose story describes the company as "a financial disaster for three years running," the chief executive was described as sounding doubtful about selling off Westinghouse's broadcast properties, including 16 radio and five television stations. "He would obviously prefer to expand such a treasured asset," wrote reporter

Jay Palmer. "But Jordan didn't rule out a sale, nor did he frown on the possibility of selling a stake in the broadcast unit into today's red-hot market for initial public stock offerings."

Jordan, who recently announced cost-cutting plans, including the selling off of some operating units and a ten percent cutback on employees, sounded upbeat about increasing earnings in the next few years, and he predicted a rebound for the broadcasting arm, which provides Westinghouse with some of its largest earnings.

"With the economy recovering, sales are picking up," he said. "At the same time, the FCC rule changes which allow us to own up to four stations, two FM and two AM, in a single market, offer terrific opportunity."

"On one hand, we are now free to explore the potential of sales growth through acquisitions; on the other we can dramatically improve margins by merging back offices in one market into one unit. Where we have TV stations in the same market as all-news radio stations, we are able to save a lot by combining news-gathering efforts."

Elvis P., Phone Home

Although Elvis has left the building, he continues to be spotted on everything from postage stamps to personal checks. Now, the King can be found on phonecards—prepaid telephone calling cards—introduced by the World Telecom Group, Inc. under their AmeriVox line.

Prepaid cards have caught fire in Europe and Asia. When overseas phone companies began releasing limited editions of cards featuring famous athletes and pop stars, they caught on as collectibles. Customers pay in advance for a card with a predetermined usable telephone time value, and their low rates beat those of all the major phone companies.

With this licensing agreement the World Telecom

Group feels that the domestic market is poised to explode. "They do monthly sales figures at the end of January, but all indications have the Elvis card breaking records," says Todd Erickson, senior account director at World Telecom's publicity arm Hill and Knowlton, Inc.

The Elvis cards comprise a set of 20, and offer customers $170 worth of calling time. "Elvis is the first truly collectible card they've done, so this has become a measuring rod," says Erickson.

The addition of a 12" vinyl picture disc featuring a rare interview with the King makes the cards a draw for recording fans as well as Elvis fans worldwide.

Country took a shelling in Portland, Ore., where KKRZ/AM&FM dropped to 7.5 and KWJJ/AM&FM took a big dive, 8.8-6.7. Full Service KEX/AM seems to be the beneficiary: it went up three-plus shares. Urban posted big gains in Memphis, where WHRK/FM and WDIA/AM each bettered themselves by at least a point.

Dick Clark Gets Rocked, but Rolls On

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

David Letterman had some bad news last week about Dick Clark. "You know, he's the host of 'Miss USA' and 'Miss Teen USA,'" said Letterman, "and he's been dropped. Yeah, they had to. It was getting embarrassing. Dick Clark was starting to look younger than the contestants."

Dick Clark, the unflappable one, sounded tired and shaken. We were talking on the day after the earthquake, and his Burbank building had taken a minor hit.

"All three floors are standing," he said. "It's just the jumble inside. It looks like a hundred vandals came in and turned this place upside down."

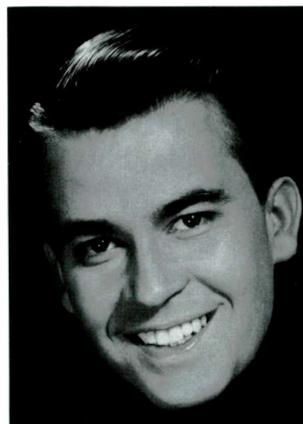

Despite that, Clark, whose zillion jobs include hosting the syndicated radio shows, Countdown America and Rock, Roll & Remember, did one show that morning, and was on his way to do the other after our chat.

He was on the phone to talk about another of his creations—the American Music Awards, which airs Monday, February 7, and which he will be producing for the 21st time since he and ABC-TV came up with the show in 1974 as an alternative to the Grammys. The idea was simplicity itself. Where the Grammys were voted by the industry, the new awards would be voted by record buyers.

"It's evolved into the second most-watched awards show on the air," he told GAVIN, "second to the Oscars." And Clark believes it helped push the onces-taid Grammys into recognizing more contemporary artists.

"We were a little more modern than the Grammys, and we were beating the daylights out of them in the ratings. In order to drag themselves into the 20th Century, they had to get with what's going on. They're much better now."

Dick Clark: Young in the late '50s; slightly less young in the '90s

But, just as the Grammys have grown, so have the American Music Awards, which began with five awards each in three categories: Pop/Rock, Soul/R&B, and Country. Now, there are AMAs for Heavy Metal/Hard Rock, A/C, and Rap/Hip-Hop as well.

"This is one of those rare moments in television," said Clark, "that it's three hours when you get 70 million people to sit down and sample the whole plate. On radio, you wouldn't dare play a Gin Blossoms record and follow it with Snoop Doggy Dogg. Here, we're going to do it, and the audience will stay there and, in fact, accumulate."

Clark tried to figure out why. "It must be—I'll say to my wife, 'What the hell is a Snoop Doggy Dogg?' Then I see it. 'Ah, that's what they're talking about.' But I wouldn't do that 24 hours a day and break up a format."

Gin Blossoms and Dogg will perform on this year's show, as will Whitney Houston, Meat Loaf, Rod Stewart, Toni Braxton, Brooks & Dunn and Michael Bolton. "We've got a duet with Vince Gill and Gladys Knight," said Clark. "That should be a highlight. And there are a couple of special awards—to Whitney Houston and Rod Stewart—and tributes to Diana Ross, Frank Sinatra and the Beatles—this will be that day, 30 years ago, that they appeared on the Ed Sullivan show. There's a whole mess of stuff."

The same could be said of Clark's amazing, four-decade long ride through the entertainment world, with Clark firmly in the driver's seat through most of the trip.

He began modestly, in the late '40s with DJ and newscaster jobs in radio and TV in Syracuse and Utica, New York. "I was the Walter Cronkite of Utica," said Clark, who was making $52.50 a week. But soon after he took over the hosting of American Bandstand in 1956, he was a star, and by age 30, he was a millionaire, busily building an empire of radio, television, and film production companies while hosting game shows and specials on every major network. (On radio, said Clark, a co-founder of the Unistar Network, "there'll be an announcement of some other activities coming up.")

Earlier this month, his dick clark productions showed up strong in a chart of entertainment companies' performances in the stock market, with a jump from 3.50 to a current 7.50.

"I haven't the vaguest idea what's going on there," said Clark. "We've had a very good year; we've diversified. We're not just in television now. We're in the corporate presentation business; we've got a skin-care line; we're in the restaurant business." (Dick Clark's American Bandstand Grill, which opened in Kansas City, will soon spread to Reno, Indianapolis, and Columbus.)

But his first loves remain music and television, and he is still hoping to achieve a goal set long ago: to produce a prime-time series.

"That's in the works," he said. "We're holding our breaths for a show that involves a couple of teen idols, father and son. It's Frankie Avalon and Michael Damian, it's a very funny piece written by the Blossom guys. We did a pilot script for CBS and I'm hoping and praying that they'll order it."

If not, Clark will still be busy, doing every radio and TV show he can, and even the occasional commercial with Ed McMahon.

Does Dick Clark, now 64 and a millionaire many times over, really need such gigs?

"It's fun," he says.

Even though "Mr. Ed" Lambert wore his Niners jersey to Texas Stadium for last weekend's NFC Championship game, his team's loss didn't stop him from nailing down the APD/MD gig at KHKS-Dallas. After ironing out a few last-minute details, the deal was done late Tuesday (January 25). Ed's replacement at Z104 (WZEE)-Madison is John Michaels, who leaves KZIO-Duluth after a nine and a half year stint. Michaels starts February 7. As for Lambert, he's spending almost as much time in front of TV cameras as he does on radio. Look for him doing his Elvis impersonation sometime in early February on ABC's America's Funniest People. And just last week a crew spotted him at the San Francisco Steak House in Big D, and he was interviewed after admitting to being a 49er fan!

The departure of John Michaels wasn't the only news around Duluth. In nearby Hibbing, Minn., WTBX PD Bill Klaproth turned in his resignation to accept the same post at WDBR-Springfield, Ill., replacing Jim Moore, who will exit. Klaproth, a three-year veteran starts February 7. Those interested in the WTBX PD job should send their T&Rs to Jeff McCarthy at WIXX-Green Bay, Wis. The KZIO PD slot got filled quickly by afternoon drive talent James Baker, who recently arrived from WNVZ-Norfolk. Baker's first order of business is finding new morning and nighttime personalities. He's also searching for two weekenders. Send a T&R to: 1105 E. Superior Street, Duluth, MN 55802.

Quake talk continues to dominate most conversations and rightly so. The stories are strange, frightening and sad, and none are funny. While most everyone was sleeping at the time, the quake struck while producer Chuck Plotkin was in the Sony studios working with Toad The Wet Sprocket on mixes for their upcoming release. It was pitch black until an alarm went off and the shining light displayed the damage. What did Bob Clark, national field manager for Atlantic do? He went for his radio, turned it on and actually got an EBS message explaining what had happened and offering advice about what to do. Bob says, "After hearing the EBS test all these years and running them when I was in radio, I can now say it really does work."

To make sure no one goes thirsty, many stations collected water and rushed it to those in need. Seen here are Doug Parker, promotions director of B95 (KBOS)-Fresno, Calif. next to the approximately 50,000 gallons that listeners brought by during an around-the-clock live broadcast. Meanwhile, KDON-Monterey/Salinas filled a Mayflower moving truck with water and delivered it to the Salvation Army in Van Nuys. Taking a "water break" are KDON jocks Marc Dominguez and Sherry Knight.

Kudos to the many stations who have helped earthquake victims in Southern California. There are so many, but here are just a few we've heard about: ★ B100, KFMB/AM and KFMB-TV (Channel 8) in San Diego raised more than $500,000 in cash and relief supplies, which the Salvation Army says is the "largest disaster relief effort in the history of San Diego."

✱ WXTQ-Athens, Ohio is taking bids for a trip to the Bahamas with monies being sent to Los Angeles relief efforts.

✱ WQPW-Valdosta, Ga. filled a plane with food and water donated by their listeners.

✱ KQID (93QID)-Alexandria, La. is locking up their morning show until they raise $6,600 (or 6.6 thousand).

Get well wishes to Brian Garvin, PD at KDOG-Mankato, Minn. who's recovering from quadruple bypass surgery. He's reportedly doing alright at this point, but won't be back at the station for a month or so. Those who would like to send a card can do so by writing KDOG at P.O. Box 1420, Mankato, MN 56001.

Will Alliance Broadcasting announce the purchase of KYA/FM-San Francisco any day now? Alliance owns crosstown Oldies competitor KFRC AM & FM. If it happens, market insiders predict a format flip at one of the properties, possibly Hot A/C or Alliance's highly successful Young Country.

In the wake of Steve Wall's recent departure at Z90 (XHTZ)-San Diego, Lisa Vasquez was promoted to operations manager and Jeff Nelson was named music co-ordinator. Some are wondering whether owner/GM Victor Diaz will appoint a PD or leave the position vacant.

Stu Smoke has left KQIZ-Amarillo, Texas and all the station will say is that he's relocated to Jackson, Tenn. No replacement has been announced yet.

Also in the Lone Star State, Robert Elfman, APD/MD at KIXY-San Angelo and Top 40 Gavin Award nominee, is the new PD at KMGZ-Lawton, Okla., effective February 1. Nighttime talent Jimmy Jam, a/k/a James Colin, is now MD with PM driver Jeff Deaveraux shifting to middays and getting APD stripes. PD Mike Steele is searching for a hot afternoon personality. Send that T&R immediately to KIXY, P.O. Box 2191, San Angelo, TX 76902.

J.J. Elliott, MD and night personality at KCGQ (Q99FM)-Cape Girardeau, Mo. (Rush Limbaugh's hometown), tacks on the APD title as well.

BABY NEWS! Gavin congratulations to Jack Silver, program director of KCLX-San Diego and wife, ex-Geffen national singles director, Karen Sobel-Silver on the January 21 birth of their second son, Alexander Aaron Silver.

Changes comin' down at KS104 (KQKS)-Denver, where Steve Perun is the station's new consultant, replacing Gary Berkowitz.

Also, word from the Mile High City has former KS104 PD Stacy Cantrell leaving her promotion post at Mercury to re-enter radio in an operational role with Noble Broadcasting.

99.1 KGGI-San Bernardino taps Sonia Jimenez as its new music/research director. Sonia began as an intern at FM102 (KSFM)-Sacramento and became research director as well as assistant to PD Dave Ferguson.

Sin-Drome's Linda Fine leaves to join new label Avenue Records, home of War and soon, Sly Stone.

And who says it doesn't pay to be a "Daydream Believer?" Just when everyone finally gave up all hope, this bit of startling news shakes the music world: The Monkees are getting back together for a European/U.S. tour! In the mid-'80s, Davy Jones, Peter Tork and Mickey Dolenz hit the road together. This time around, Mike Nesmith has agreed to jump back on board the "Last Train To Clarksville."

Is it true that everyone who calls 1-800-BOB-BITT gets cut off?

SHO-TALK

Capitol Records will begin the year-long celebration of the 30th anniversary of The Beatles on February 7 by releasing a new boxed set of four Beatles films on video. The MPI Home Video collector's set will include The Beatles: The First U.S. Visit, A Hard Day's Night, Help! and Magical Mystery Tour. In early 1964 the fresh Liverpool popsters took New York by storm and ultimately conquered the world. Look for many special events throughout the year in honor of The Beatles' influence on our universe...

The Dead Milkmen

Producer/composer/arranger David Foster has garnered seven Grammy nominations, making him this year's top nominee. Foster now ties Quincy Jones as the most-nominated individual in a single year in non-performing, non-classical categories. An eight-time Grammy winner with 34 total career nominations to his credit, Foster has been honored in five separate categories. The 36th Annual Grammy Awards ceremony will be broadcast live from Radio City Music Hall in New York on March 1.

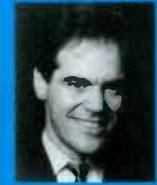

One of the wittiest and most adventurous bands is The Dead Milkmen. Today they're celebrating their new Hollywood Records' album Not Richard, But Dick by heading your way with their "Dick Is Coming" tour. The album was produced by the band and Jon Jupfer, and you gotta love tunes like "Leggo My Ego" and "Let's Get Baby High." The video for the single "Punk Rock Girl," from their album Beetzebubba, was a heavy rotation hit at MTV and is currently being featured in an episode of MTV's Beavis and Butt-Head. The band is scheduled to perform at Slim's in San Francisco during the 1994 Gavin Seminar...

Capitol's I Mother Earth were one of the great bands to emerge in 1993. They melded the '60s and '90s in such an infectious way, and you should try and catch them when they play your town. Their focused aggression comes out in rare form "live" and in your face. The Toronto-based quartet are on the road with their new album, Dig. You'll dig it!!!

P.D. NOTEBOOK BY ERIC NORBERG

COUNTRY CONTROVERSY

I received two letters from country programmers in response to a letter printed in my column November 26, 1993. The anonymous writer felt that stations are putting too much emphasis on formats that are perceived as the latest fashion. They also questioned the legitimacy of a format that plays "pop country crossover" music.

In response, KWWR/FM-Mexico, Miss. program director Chuck Thomas commented on Top 40's recent decline in ratings shares. "I believe the audience is not leaving Top 40, I believe Top 40 is leaving its audience. The popularity of the oldies format these days is, I think, because of the direction that Top 40 has taken. The oldies played today reflect the original Top 40 format: It was music that was easy to understand, didn't always have to have deep political or sociological meanings, and above all was easy to sing along to. I defy anyone to 'sing along' with any rap song. Top 40 today is slanted too strongly toward the Urban sound for the average Top 40 listener...I am not defending Hot Country, because we are not Hot Country—and I believe that the current Hot Country mix of a Top 40 jock playing country music will eventually turn off new Country listeners—as these Hot Country stations lean farther and father away from core country. And I think if Top 40 moves back more toward the less urban and more mass-appeal music forms of the past, and take a hint from oldies' popularity, I think Top 40 can soon recover."

Shortly after I received Chuck Thomas' letter, another point of view arrived from Russ Shafer, program director of WCLT/FM-Newark, Ohio.

"1. The writer asked, 'Is Top 40 really losing its listeners to this format?' and my answer is yes, in droves. And Top 40 is also losing listeners to other formats, too, which are doing a better job of producing a quality product and serving their listeners."

"2. The writer made the statement that 'Hot Country is safe radio at its best (or worst, depending on how you look at it).' Is this person for real? I believe Top 40 is the format responsible for the creation of 'four in a row with no talk' and 'more music with less talk' positioning. I would have to assume that the letter writer has never heard stations like Young Country in Dallas/Forth Worth, K-Duck in Little Rock, or the Big Dog in Denver. These stations are aggressive marketers who aren't afraid to try new ideas that are listener-focused. And there are many other successful Hot Country stations all across the nation that are simply in tune with their listeners' wants and needs in their respective markets and aren't afraid to be fun and entertaining.

"3. The writer made the statement, 'the retail store that has used our station exclusively for years is now on the Country station down the street.' Is he or she frustrated and angry that a business person wants to cover all potential customers with his advertising dollars, or does he/she feel there should be some loyalty from the business because the Top 40 station has so graciously accepted the

"I believe the audience is not leaving Top 40, I believe Top 40 is leaving its audience."

business' money over the years, and now the station is having to hustle just as hard for less money?"

Russ concludes by advising the anonymous letter writer, "open your eyes to the world around you and don't spend so much time complaining about the success of others; improve and upgrade yourself and your radio station instead of slamming our format for its success."

Thanks to both Chuck and Russ. Your comments are always welcome here too. And you'll be welcome at the 1994 GAVIN SEMINAR February 17-19, where Top 40 and Country programmers will be joining colleagues from other formats to chart radio's future. ●

Inside Top 40

It seems that whenever some innovative form of programming or technological twist is emerging, Frank Cody is nearby. Having relatively little or no fear of the unknown, Cody admits he has "frequently been paddling against the stream." Together with partner Owen Leach, he guided the development of the WAVE format in the mid-'80s.

In late 1987, Cody and Leach formed Broadcast Architecture. Though the company is described as a research/consulting firm, their newest piece of technology has less to do with research than it does analysis. Called Mix-Master, it is quickly getting the attention of key programmers in a number of formats and is revolutionizing the auditorium test concept. Cody, who is CEO of Broadcast Architecture, says, "I always felt that music research has been very far from a natural process. I think when we ask people to make an intellectual judgment about something they're responding to emotionally, we're asking them to make a leap, in other words, to do our work for us."

As for the term "music test" Cody says it's exactly what it implies: a tedious experience likened to taking an SAT test. "The idea behind Mix-Master," he says, "was to tap this emotional response and allow people to say how they felt while providing the feedback in a non-verbal fashion." Holding the device in their hand, respondents simply turn a dial left or right to express how much they like or dislike a particular song.

In the warmup, participants are asked what they do when they hear a song they really like on the radio. Invariably, everyone in the room shouts, "Turn it up." We tell them that's the emotion we want to capture with Mix-Master," Cody says. Though he acknowledges that unfamiliar titles generally score lower than familiar ones, the degree of like and dislike varies quite a bit. But, Cody says, "the real breakthrough here is content analysis and the effect of various categories we play. It's how better to weave the music so we can please the audience. but at the same time sell through this new music and showcase it in order to bring various come groups into our station."

Cody compares running a radio station to running for office and says the Mix-Master technique has been used by politicians, namely George Bush (in his first campaign) and Bill Clinton, to find out which issues voters were most interested in. That would seem to make it very useful for non-music formats as well. "Radio, like politicians, has to build coalitions," he says. "You have to be able to bring various groups of people together to establish a come and then, of course, quarter hours. We need to find out what they have in common and are willing to put up with. Then we can weave these come groups together, pleasing one, going over to another and then back to your core, establishing a subconscious pattern that people can lock into so that at any one moment you're satisfying your core, but at the same time, reaching out to other coalitions. You're always being inclusive rather than exclusive. Mix-Master has the ability to visually put that in front of everybody. Seeing the flow of my radio station is what programmers find so intoxicating."

Analyzing the content of morning shows, testing TV spots, positioning statements, even local production elements, is possible. Cody says each study is designed by the goals set by management. "It may be stretching TSL, attacking your number one competitor or cleaning up an eroding TSL," he says.

As for whether respondents are burned out on certain songs, Cody says he looks to programmers to interpret that on their own, using their knowledge of the station and market. How the music industry will use Mix-Master technology remains to be seen, but Frank is quick to point out it's not meant to replace A&R or tell labels what to do. "But it can help them pace releases or tell them what's driving the career of an artist," he says.

What Cody finds most exciting is that this empowers talented programmers. "It's not something that kills music," he says, "it's pro music and pro programming."

Those attending GAVIN '94 next month will get to view Mix-Master first-hand in a special session Saturday morning, February 19.

Airplay Analysis

More than twice as many Top 20 reports on Ace Of Base's "The Sign," which is 1994's fastest mover so far. At this rate, it will surpass "All That She Wants" by the time the final tally is in.

Meat Loaf's "Rock 'Roll Dreams Come Through" is heating up fast for Martha Steele and Dave Collins at KTRS-Casper, Wyo. Martha reports, "lots of calls after only a few weeks." Jumps 35-22-14 on the GO Chart.

Larry D. at XL106.7-Orlando pop US 3's "Cantaloop" into the Top 20 and says he is tracking lots of calls, especially at night. Larry adds that "even adults like it." New on: WTBX, WABB, STAR 94, WCIL, KRRG, B95, KKFR and WLTV.

Go Chart Most Added

MARIAH CAREY (78)

ETERNAL (42)

MR. BIG (33)

Early play on Salt-N-Pepa featuring En Vogue's "Whatta Man" has built an impressive chart profile and a huge surge in new reported airplay, pointing to it becoming a huge mass appeal hit. "Whatta Man's" biggest airplay growth is in the northeast, west, mid-Atlantic and southeast regions, but it's sure to spread.

Jodeci's "Cry Over You" takes over Number One honors at WHYT-Detroit and moves into the Top Ten at HOT 97-New York with 43 spins. It's also close to Top 20 at KLUC-Las Vegas with 48 plays with ADDs at: Z93, WAVT, WERZ, KLYV, KRRG, KISF, KKXX, HOT 97.7, KJ103, KTUF, KIXY/FM and KDON.

When your calls are WWZZ, playing a new ZZ Top track is a natural. PD Clay Gish treated his listeners to it every hour on his afternoon show the first day it hit the street. Clay reports, "It's doing great." Those who include rock in their mix are jumping on "Pincushion" fast.

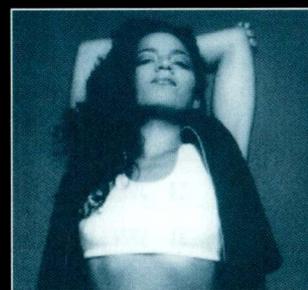

Before deciding your list is ballad-heavy and you can't ADD anymore, check with some of the programmers playing Little Texas. Larry Thomas at WIQQ-Greenville, Miss. confirms what Q102's Jimmy Steal has been saying for weeks: "Women love it." "What Might Have Been" is exploding for Larry, who debuts it at #21. New on: Z106.7, WBEC/FM, WWKF, WWCP, WEYQ, WINN, WQCY/FM, Z102, KONG, KBUS, V100, KQKY and KLAZ.

Twenty-five spins for James' (above) "Laid" at THE END-Cleveland is good for a number eight ranking. Close to going Top Ten at KROQ-Los Angeles, these Alternative mainstays are about to crack Top 40 big time. ADDs at: KLYV, WRKY, WAOA, SWEET 98, Z102, KFMI, KDUK, ZFUN, WLTV and KKEZ.

If you don't already have a copy of Beck's "Loser," get one fast! 99X-Atlanta and KROQ-Los Angeles take it to Number One, and soon a lot of other stations will be doing the same. On fire at Z100 and THE END, with ADDs on 104 KRBE and WKBQ. It should be obvious in about 30 seconds that this is a hit. If not, just play it. Your audience will decide for you.

The Editors See a Wealth of Potential Highlights

The way GAVIN's editors see it—and they should know; they came up with most of the main events—three days won't be enough for the 1994 GAVIN Seminar.

But three days it is—February 17-19 in San Francisco—and, with the wealth of panels, showcases, presentations, keynotes, parties and surprises being planned, it was hard to get the editors to name just the one or two events they were most looking forward to; what would make this Seminar stand out from all the ones before.

For GAVIN CEO David Dalton, who's gone to more than his share of industry conferences, memories are many, varied, and often savored on the plane ride home.

"For most people," he figures, "it's the small intangibles: meeting an old friend or former colleague, a unique live showcase, a chance conversation that led to a new idea, or perhaps a single observation from a keynoter or panelist that one can draw upon for years to come.

"At the GAVIN Seminar," he says, "a perennial favorite is the Friday night Cocktail Party," the definition of a great mixer. "And there are many radio and record executives around the country who value their GAVIN Awards, selected by their peers and handed over at the Saturday evening banquet as the climax to the whole event."

Looking at five sheets of poster paper on an office wall, each filled with Seminar schedules, Dalton picks three "absolute standout events."

"The prospect of future technology possibilities will be featured prominently, notably in the session steered by our friends at Wired magazine. Helping to set the tone for the whole event, Capitol Records' president Gary Gersh will make a distinctive impact as our opening keynote speaker. And Bill Walsh, the celebrated football coach, who's being presented by GAVIN in association with Jeff McClusky & Associates, will rouse everyone into a 'winning' frame of mind."

Here's what the editors have to say about the Seminar, and what, three weeks from now, they look forward to delivering as part of the best GAVIN Seminar yet.

DAVE SHOLIN, TOP 40 EDITOR:

"There are a lot of potential highlights, but I'll pick just two. First, there's the Top 40/Alternative meeting of the minds where I think the Alternative stations are gonna say, 'What's really happening? Are you getting into our territory? Are you prostituting this format?' There are some stations that are very successful that have taken this music, and Alternative sees it as the watering down, the splintering of their music. Alternative's gone in different directions, and one of them is Top 40. Z100 is one of the ones being most talked about because it's successful. They play Mariah Carey, but they also play a lot of Pearl Jam and Nirvana. They're more commercial, and they're putting a tighter spin on it. So the question from Alternative is, 'Are they taking our audience?'"

"And the mainstream Top 40 session will be different this year. There'll be a panel discussion, one of the questions being 'Is there actually still a mainstream Top 40?' And it'll be followed by a keynote commenting on what he's just heard and adding his own thoughts. And the keynoter is Mike Joseph, who was there in the beginning, who invented the Hot Hits thing, and is there now. And we've got a great panel: Jeff McCartney from the APE in Jacksonville, J.J. McKay from KISS in Dallas, Tony Novia from Star 94 in Atlanta, Jimmy Steel of Q102 in Cincinnati and Mike Preston of WPLJ."

LINDA RYAN, ALTERNATIVE EDITOR:

"Jonathan L, who used to be the program director at KUKQ in Phoenix is going moderate Jonathan L's Group Therapy for Small and Medium Alternative Markets. This is the first time we're having a session for small and medium markets, and I think it's long overdue. We'll be talking about getting tours into the smaller markets and securing time buys for smaller markets.

"Another thing we'll touch on is the perception that when industry insiders think Alternative they think of KROQ, 91X and WDRE. They forget there's an in between in the United States, and there are a lot of good stations that sell records in small markets. It's going to be a little bit of a bitch session, but rightly so because small and medium markets are being slighted.

"I expect other highlights will be our first Alternative/Top 40 panel, which will be hosted by Richard Sands, program director at Live 105-San Francisco. It's way the industry is moving. On paper, stations like 99X in Atlanta, which is a GAVIN Top 40 station, and KROQ in L.A., which is an alternative station don't look very different, so we'll find out if there is a difference in philosophy and how we got to where we are. I know we're going to be dealing with what happens when there's more than one alternative station in the same market.

"I hope Top 40 programmers will attend because I would say this is the future of Top 40."

RON FELL, A/C EDITOR:

"One of the sessions I'm most looking forward to is the one being presented by Wired, one of the hippest, most cutting-edge magazines in the consumer world right now.

They're going to lead us from this point forward in terms of all the high tech communications hardware and software, things like Internet and the information superhighway. It'll certainly be enlightening for everybody because we see how fast things are happening right now.

"After the Wired session is a double-header. John Lund, a leading consultant, will conduct a session for programmers on how to recruit and develop air talent, especially in the adult, A/C spectrum. That's going to be followed by one from the talent side, with Don Anthony on how to find your career path, get a good job and hold onto it.

"And on Saturday, we'll have our annual A/C marathon; we'll start at 9:30 a.m. and run 'till about one o'clock. We'll talk about the too-broad definitions and expectations of A/C and what I see as an obsessive use of research, but, as always, we'll deal with whatever issues are current, and we'll grab panelists right out of the audience, including programmers, music directors and record executives."

INTELLIGENT HOODLUM

Street Life b/w
Mad Brothers Know His Name
(Tuff Break/A&M)

Few lyricists weave tales of struggle and circumstance better than Tragedy, and Street Life is another example of tight message music that engages your ear and your consciousness. This maxi-single offers two additional remixes. The "Return of the Life" mix freaks the Minnie Riperton sample recently popularized by A Tribe Called Quest in a way that distinguishes Tragedy's version: Riperton's voice haunts lyrics about a suicidal young mother: "Pick up the baby and give him his last kiss/Hit the bathroom and slit your wrist/Love is life and life is love/Just enough strength to jump in the tub/And as your blood runs down the drain/Another poor soul full of sorrow and pain." Skeff Anselm kicks in with sinister bassline punctuated with spicy horns, making for a gritty remix to "Mad Brothers Know His Name".

BLACK MOON
I Gotcha Opin b/w Killin' Every Nigga (Nervous/Wreck)

Buckshot Shorty's attitude on the mic is nuttin' nice, y'all. He relaxes for this one, and just rolls over a buttery track with yet another of the group's signature murky basslines accented by faint strings and mood for days. Definitely somethin' for the ride, or any smoothed-out mix set. The B side keeps it flowin' with more lyrical affirmations from Buckshot on a silky no-nonsense jam with mad crew on whispery backup and a shadowy piano splash. A must-peep, know whum' sayin'?

STAND UP AND BE COUNTED

Mercury Records president Ed Eckstine was in Los Angeles recently to present Brian McKnight with a gold record for his self-titled debut album. McKnight was recently nominated for an NAACP Image Award and he also received a Grammy nomination for "Best Pop Performance by a Duo or Group" for his duet with Vanessa Williams, "Love Is." Pictured (l-r): Ed Eckstine, Mercury Records president; Brian McKnight; manager Herb Trawick, Trawick Co.

Meanwhile across town, a reception was held for BeBe & CeCe Winans, who were the guests of honor at an event held to congratulate the duo on their album Different Lifestyles reaching platinum status. Celebrating with the siblings are some songbird friends. Pictured (l-r): BeBe Winans, Rachelle Ferrell, Darryl Cooley, CeCe Winans and Tevin Campbell.

New Releases

INTRO

Ribbon In The Sky (Atlantic)

What has been a very popular album cut from Intro's debut album is finally a single. The remake of Stevie Wonder's 1982 "Ribbon In The Sky" is a strong slow jam weighted by Intro's musical influence.

MARIAH CAREY

Never Forget You (Columbia)

It's pretty hard not to like Mariah Carey's music. This track has been released especially for Urban Radio and it's this week's Most Added out-of-the-box. "Never Forget You" was co-written by Mariah and Babyface, and the two worked with Face's associate Daryl Simmons to produce a ballad that puts you into a sentimental mood before you can say "I like this."

ME'SHELL

NDEGEOCELLO
If That's Your Boyfriend (Maverick/Sire/Reprise)

Damn. Talk about a record with a memorable hook. Me'shell speaks in a informed tone that sounds funky under the contemporary blend of R&B/jazz/hip-hop. The sassy delivery flaunts infidelity. The "album edit" and "Tiramisu mix edit" are my favorite versions.

COLIN ENGLAND

Sorry Seems To Be The Hardest Word To Say (Motown)

Challenged by a remake, Colin England delivers a stylish and passionate song about reconciliation. With a little help from producer and labelmate Tim Miner, England adds his soulful re-touches and jazz treatments to the Elton John standard resulting in a classic he can call his own.

RIFF

Baby It's Yours (EMI/ERG)

Riff releases the follow-up to "Judy Had a Boyfriend," and this time the guys are coming off on the smooth side. This sultry ballad has already received adds from WZAK, WWDN/FM, KYEA, KJMS and KJLH.

HAMMER

It's All Good (Giant/Reprise)

Struttin' a new look and new label deal, Hammer delivers a rap acknowledging his previous dealings were 'all good' since he got paid. It's surrounded by his familiar crowd chant and a heavy dose of familiar beats.

SUDDEN CHANGE

Comin' On Strong (eastwest)

These three ladies from New Jersey discovered they shared another passion besides dance—it was music. Sisters Linne and Jessie Modestin, joined Katia Pinard to create a fresh groove, fueled by their love for smooth R&B driven by hip-hop.

ARTIST PROFILE

GEORGE CLINTON

BIRTHDATE: July 22

CURRENT RESIDENCE: On the mothership...or in Michigan

CURRENT SINGLE: "Martial Law"

CURRENT ALBUM: Hey Man...Smell My Finger

LABEL: Paisley Park/Warner Bros.

MUSICAL INFLUENCES: Sly Stone, Motown, Beatles, Doo-Wop Era

LAST RECORD YOU BOUGHT: House Of Pain

TOP 3 PARTY JAMS OF ALL TIME: "Atomic Dog," "Knee-Deep," by Parliament/Funkadelic and "What I Say" by Ray Charles

FAVORITE RECORD (BY SOMEONE ELSE): "A Riot Goin' On" by Sly Stone.

IF I WASN'T A RECORDING ARTIST: I'd be a Hairdresser.

IT'S SAID: "...to his monster new star-studded Hey Man...Smell My Finger on Prince's Paisley Park label, Clinton has stayed one step ahead of the competition, steadfastly refusing to play the hit-single sell-out game which has reduced virtually all of his one-time competition to either "where are they now?" psychic scrap heap trivia oblivion, bozo Vegas/Elk's Lodge revival act status, or Jesus-freak civic "respectability."

HE SAYS: "I promise to funk, promise to keep its promise if you'll keep the funk."

KENT AND KEITH ZIMMERMAN, JAZZ, A² AND A³ EDITORS:

Keith: "We kind of invented the whole Juke Box Jury concept, which is basically a blown-up music meeting, with all programmers as the jury. But this year, we've got new and improved ways of doing immediate evaluations of what we're playing. We have analog Juke Box Juries for the Jazz and A2, and then we're gonna have our digital Juke Box Jury—that's the Mixmaster, which is computerized research that uses electronics to quantify a listener's emotional response to music, but also to other things they hear on the radio."

Kent: "We're not going to just discuss research; we'll do it. We'll use Seminar attendees as our sample base, and not just radio people. We'll break down the results between male and female, radio and record. It's gonna be very controversial; it'll jar a lot of the artists in attendance, but it's a very popular innovation that's being used by radio right now. We're not necessarily endorsing it; what we're trying to do is show how it works so people are aware of its existence."

Keith: "Even though we'll be using Jazz and A2 on it, the Mixmaster is a general session."

"Another good event is our one-on-one with Joel Dorn, the jazz producer, on reissues, about remastering and finding the formative jazz gems. What it's like to put together these ambitious, high-quality reissues that Rhino is doing with him."

Kent: "We're also going to have a panel about mixing idioms. The hottest topic with jazz and progressive music now is influences, including street, hip-hop, pop, and, obviously, the rap influences in the music. There's funk and jazz, acid jazz, ambient jazz... You've got some people who are very precious about jazz tradition and feel it's being encroached on, and you have those who like jazz becoming more street-oriented by bringing in the contemporary elements. We'll have several artists on the panel."

BILL SPEED, URBAN AND RAP EDITOR:

"I'm excited about having George Ware here (See Thembisa Mshaka's remarks, below).

"And, of course, there's 'Urban Renewal,' which is the name of one of our panels, and stands for what we're doing for the next eight weeks or so. It's to let the industry know of our renewed commitment to Urban, first of all. Secondly, the panel will survey the state of affairs in Urban radio. We'll have a record exec, a program director, and a couple of personalities to signify that.

"And I'm looking forward to seeing the Mixmaster research technology. That's something all formats will have to be aware of, and I'm certainly gonna steer my guys to it. That's just a matter of being involved with research, it's just something they need to know. Whether or not they incorporate it is another story, but most of them will come out of sheer curiosity."

THEMBISA MSHAKA, RAP ASSOCIATE EDITOR:

"I expect hip-hop to flourish at the Seminar in terms of panels, speakers and performers, and I expect us all to learn a lot, enjoy ourselves tremendously and network effectively.

"Rap's keynoter is George Ware, the premier speaker on black music. He's a scientist, an educator, a human rights activist, a music industry executive and more. He's a founding member of the Black Music Association and The Association for Rap Music (ARM). We're looking forward to George Ware giving us a riveting keynote on black music's current state of affairs.

"I'm especially looking forward to everyone feeling GAVIN's re-commitment to black music as evidenced by the appointment of Bill Speed and me. Along with our marketing representative John Austin, we are creating a united front."

CYNDI HOELZLE, COUNTRY EDITOR:

"The country portion of the seminar has been expanded. Registrants can expect more panels and showcases spread out over three days.

"With all the new country stations signing on last year, one of the biggest gripes we heard from radio was the intensity of the radio wars raging in so many markets. We decided to devote some time to this sticky issue, and we're hoping that in the session David vs. Goliath we can frankly discuss these problems without bloodshed.

"How to Make Your Station Real" will deal with the aspects of programming, other than music, that make listeners relate to your station. The session will feature an innovative way for registrants to 'eavesdrop' on listeners attitudes toward radio in general. This year we're also having a 'free forum' where programmers can talk about whatever's on their mind in an informal atmosphere.

"We're bringing back our annual acoustic luncheon by popular demand. Many programmers point to Billy Dean's performance at GAVIN as the turning point in his career. This year we will be featuring Atlantic's Kieran Kane, new Mercury act The Wiggins, BNA's Jesse Hunter and David Gates (yes, formerly of Bread).

"In addition, we've got some hot evening showcases planned. The Mavericks will perform Friday night, and guitar-wiz Junior Brown will tear it up Saturday night."

SEANA BARUTH, ALTERNATIVE ASSOCIATE EDITOR:

"First and foremost we have a really great showcase that's happening Thursday featuring Overwhelming Colorfast, The Meices and Lucy's Fur Coat.

"Earlier Thursday we'll have a panel for first time convention-goers. We haven't got a name for it yet, but I'm sure it will have a creative title that includes the word 'virgin.'

"Throughout the Seminar we're going to explore and critique college radio's response to the Alternative mainstream explosion.

"On Friday we're going to have a college shindig from 3:45 to 5 p.m., before the GAVIN cocktail party.

"This year GAVIN is providing more for college radio and I really think our panels will give GAVIN and college radio more opportunity to explore common ground.

SHEILA RENE, GAVIN ROCKS PROFILES EDITOR:

"I'm very much looking forward to the two GAVIN Rocks panels we're putting together this year and I think the most exciting thing that will come out of this is that everybody will be involved from the first moment on. We're going to introduce everybody and then start taking questions so everybody will have a chance to get things off their chests and to ask our specialists questions.

"Specifically we have Michael Lee, program director of KRZZ, as a moderator for our Saturday panel. Guests will include Linnea Nan from Warner Bros., Dave Downey from Capitol Records, Tramp from KMSA, Steve Crew from Concrete Marketing, a member of Biohazard, Ray Gmeiner from Ace Promotions and Judy McNutt. It's going to be a lot of fun.

"Rob Fiend will co-moderate a session with Muzie from Skateboard Promotion. The panel includes Matt Pollack from eastwest, Ron Quintana from KUSF, Sue Naramore of Geffen, Cyndee Maxwell from R&R and Cyndy Skull from KNAC. Rocker Ronnie James Dio will sit on that panel along with a couple of radio execs, Dave Muni from KUFO and Mike Solari from KOME.

"We're looking forward to getting everyone jazzed up about how they can win by programming their station with harder music."

ROB FIEND, GAVIN ROCKS ASSOCIATE EDITOR:

"I'm especially looking forward to meeting our current reporters and potential new reporters, and programmers who are interested in current rock. I'm hoping our panels will promote rock and metal, and help get it out into the mainstream.

"I expect to find out why current rock isn't being programmed on the radio as much as I feel it should. I hope we'll break down the stereotype that this type of music doesn't generate sales, which we know is not true.

"I think ultimately we'll find out how we can promote this music into the mainstream so we won't have to rely on college radio." ●

Inside A/C

With 36 new HEAVY rotation reports, Phil Collins' "Everyday" goes to the top of the chart. Added this week at KSTP/FM, KLTA, KSSK/FM and KSEQ.

Richard Marx will soon be #1 with "Now And Forever." The track is on more A/Cs than even Phil Collins. Fifty percent of all Marx's play is already in HEAVY.

Nothing new in the top ten, but Heart (above), at #11, is but a heart-beat away with "Will You Be There (In The Morning?)" Eighty-two percent of all play is now in quality rotation and the 16 newest players include WBDX, WLMX, WRQX, WMJQ, KDMX and KCRE.

Another large move for Dolly and James' "The Day I Fall In Love." This week's #20 to #14 move comes with a 22% increase in HIT FACTOR. Doing well for KOST, WMT/FM, WAHR, KFOR, WFRO, K103, KVIL, KLSY and WTPI.

After just two weeks on the chart, Rick Astley's "The Ones You Love" is at #22 and has become to format's hottest two-week move. In the past two weeks 58 A/Cs have ADDED it and HIT FACTOR has gone from 10% to 59%.

Excellent second chart week for Aaron Neville's "I Owe You One" and Robbie Dupree's "Walking On

Records which receive the greatest increase in Hit Factor

All three CHARTBOUNDS are sure shots to debut next week and we'd expect Linda Ronstadt's (left) "Oh No, Not My Baby" to lead the way. Out-of-the-box ADDs from 66 stations set a solid pace.

The Gin Blossoms "Found Out About You," last issue's RECORD TO WATCH, moved from the top of UP AND COMING to a chart debut at #36 with a 53% HIT FACTOR from only 68 total stations. Among the ADDs WCSO, WHFX, KGWB, KZLT, WFRO, KTHO, KGY and KMXV.

Water." Aaron's #35 comes with 21 new like K103, KSGY, WLZW, WHLM, KCRE, KLSS and KGLE. Robbie's roster expands by another 10 including WSUL, WNUY, WHFB, KGLE, KCCR, KQDJ, WCRA, KOEL and WHCO.

Top debut is Darden Smith's "Little Victories" with a 48% HIT FACTOR and 11 new including WQTU, KFMO, WLET, KBOL, KWXX. The single leads the format in HIT FACTOR increase with a gain of 33% this week.

This issue's RECORD TO WATCH is K.T. Oslin's (above) "Feeding A Hungry Heart," which tops UP AND COMING with 42 A/Cs playing. New at 16 stations with WCTW, WTSX, WMSQ, KLKC, KSDN, KGLE, KLZY and KBOL among those.

New Releases

STING

"Shape Of My Heart" (A&M)

Another brilliant piece from Sting's Grammy-nominated album, Ten Summoner's Tales. It's a song about dealing from the bottom of a stacked deck in a game of metaphor.

JACKSON BROWNE

"My Problem Is You" (Elektra)

This track, co-produced by Don Was, is a back-handed love song about some poor fellow who's caught-up in a waiting mode.

CHERYL WHEELER

"Almost" (Rounder/Philo)

A lyrical gem about being close, yet no cigar. The elegant solo acoustic piano of Kenny White is wonderful support for a singer and a song of "must listen" quality.

ROBERT PLANT

"If I Were A Carpenter" (Es Paranza/Atlantic)

This track from Plant's Fate Of Nations album was ear-marked for A/C since its release. This Tim Hardin song was originally sung by Bobby Darin in 1966, it hit the top ten. This history should repeat itself.

TRAVIS TRITT

"Take It Easy" (Giant/Warner Bros.)

The first Eagles hit, (written by Jackson Browne and Glenn Frey), gets the Tritt treatment as his contribution to Common Threads, the all-star Eagles cover volume. As spirited and hip as the original.

KIKI EBSEN

"Half A Chance" (Sin-Drome)

After hitting top 20 with her debut single, Kiki comes back with a strong follow-up full of hooks that give her more than half a chance of eclipsing her first success.

BILL MEDLEY AND

DARLENE LOVE

"(You're My) Soul And Inspiration" (SBK/ERG)

The classic comes around again in the form of a soundtrack to the popular soap opera One Life To Live. This time Darlene Love replaces Bobby Hatfield as Medley's partner.

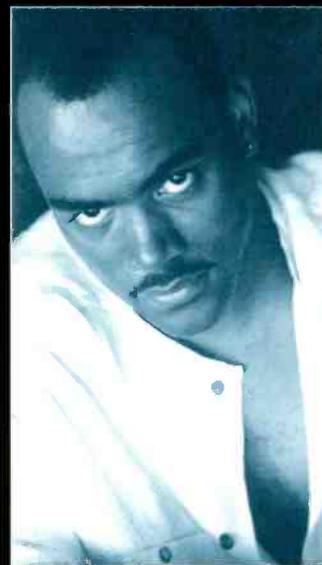

DAVID BROZA

"Somebody Make Me Laugh" (November)

A gentle acoustic challenge to be moved in song. It's as easy going and pleasant as pop songs get.

Dear Diary Part IV: How To Bounce Back

BY NATALIE DUITSMAN

John Lund, President of the Lund Consultants, Inc. located in Millbrae, California, contributed his analysis and advice to Part III of the "Dear Diary" series. As we wrap up, Lund continues with his thoughts on what he would do to bounce back from a job loss.

Write a Terrific Resume

The purpose of a resume is not to get me hired; the goal of a resume is to get me considered and interviewed. The personal meeting with the prospective manager is what will get me hired. Therefore, I don't write a five page resume, with my life story, including every station I've worked for and every reference I know.

Instead, my resume will be succinct, hard-hitting, and read like a one-page advertisement for me. Like a good salesman, I will use my computer to customize my resume to the specific needs of the prospect. Matching my benefits to the manager's needs will land me an interview. Stations want their PD to have experience, bring in new ratings, and be sales-oriented.

My resume will highlight my last three jobs and the ratings and money benefits I provided each. For instance, I increased TSL by 30% in my most recent job (not mentioning that the share declined), and created and implemented a first-quarter Grammys promotion resulting in $16,000 of new revenue and four new-to-radio accounts. I'll keep details sketchy; I want my future employer to call me or see me in person and ask for specifics.

Work the Network

I will talk to every acquaintance to learn of new opportunities and become a skilled networker. I'll respond to every trade ad, even at stations that may be larger than my qualifications would suggest or in a region of the country I'm less interested in. Selling me to a station will come from making contacts, and the more calls I make, the stronger the impressions I'll make.

Close on the First Interview

My impressive resume and persuasive calls get me the interview, but this moment of glory will not last for more than an hour. The interview is my chance to impress the prospective GM, dazzle him or her with my intelligence and capabilities, find out the manager's goals and match my skills to them. I will be positive about my past employers and situations (remember to never burn bridges), and take notes on what is needed and what's important to the employer.

I'll present a number of "trial closes" during the course of the meeting, i.e., "With the book starting in March, would you like me to start next Monday?" "We need a sales generating audience promotion on the air immediately, which I will execute my first week," etc. If I can't get an agreement to hire me during the interview, I will write a "thank you" letter that summarizes the key points of the interview, again matching skills to needs, sharing new ideas pertinent to the station's problems, and ask to be appointed PD. Money should not be a factor yet; everything's negotiable.

First Day on the Job

This time I will do it right. I will know the specific goals that the manager wants accomplished and maintain a strong focus on them. I'll work to increase ratings and assist sales with ideas and support to improve revenues. I'll conduct ratings and programming reviews and provide strategic assistance like my job depends on it. It does.

I'll write "thank you" notes to my network of radio contacts and every station manager who considered me, and maintain regular contact with these people. As my talents grow, so will the market size of my stations. I may be working with these contacts some day.

In the months ahead, I will learn as much as I can about the areas that affect programming excellence—marketing, sales, research and ratings, talent development, music selection, and every other aspect of programming. I'll tap into my network of contacts, the station's consultant, trade publications, the GM, and attend conventions to learn more about this profession. I'll be the most "user friendly" PD this management team has experienced.

From this day forward, I become a better program director.

Inside Connections

Urban where it's #12 and #20 respectively.

Even in the Most Added category there are no apparent connected records except the New Mariah Carey, "Without You" which easily is the week's Most Added record in all formats, pulling an heroic 225

#38 on the main.

Top debuts on the GO are Terence Trent D'Arby's (below) "Let Her Down Easy" at #33 and Mr. Big's newest, "Ain't Seen Love Like This," at #34, both debuting a week ahead of main chart status.—RON FELL

This week's Connections chart represents the collective research of 513 stations that reported this week to either or Urban, Adult Contemporary or Top 40 at GAVIN.

The connections between charts is at a modern day low, as only one single is charted in all three formats and that is the old Mariah Carey, (above) "Hero." The new Janet Jackson, "Because Of Love" looks good at both Top 40 and Adds. Only the Eternal single, "Stay," gives Mariah a run for her money as it/they score 69 Adds this week.

On the GO chart, the big news is Meat Loaf's "Rock and Roll Dreams Come Through" which is at #14 on the GO and #20 on the main. Other highlites include Melissa Etheridge's "Come To My Window" which has come to #25 on the GO while just now debuting at

So like every year I go to the Gavin Seminar O.K.? And like as soon as I register, I'm handed this really cool canvas bag filled with like all this really cool stuff alright? And every year I like think, "Hey! There are over 800 radio programmers here! I should have put my CD or cassette or T-shirt or whatever in the bag."

I should have called Bob Galliani at (415) 454-6161

It's not too late...call today!

New Releases

TRISHA YEARWOOD
"Better Your Heart Than Mine"
 (MCA)

Doesn't Trisha just keep sounding better? She gives labelmate Wynonna a run for her money in the "soulful sister" category with this song. Incidentally, those are the writers, Lisa Angelle and Andrew Gold, on background vocals.

DUDE MOWREY
"Somewhere In Between"
 (Arista)

This is such a great sounding two-step, you could almost miss the wisdom of the lyrics. But you can't possibly miss Dude's stone country voice.

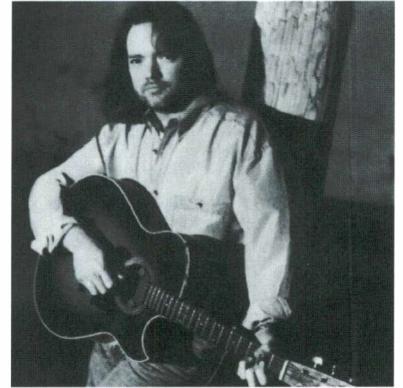

TRACY LAWRENCE
"If The Good Die Young"
 (Atlantic)

Whoever pitched this song to Tracy Lawrence is a genius. It's seems custom made for him, and he tears into it.

CARLENE CARTER
"I Love You 'Cause I Want To"
 (Giant)

This has been a favorite from Little Love Letters. Carlene and co-writer Radney Foster have come up with a romping, stomping good time. How can you resist it?

JOHN BERRY
"Your Love Amazes Me"
 (Liberty)

Those of you who have seen John Berry perform know that he really connects with an audience with his emotional delivery. He shows his stuff with this soulful ballad.

DOUG SUPERNAW
"Red & Rio Grande" (BNA Entertainment)

Supernaw wrote this song while he was living in Nashville and missing his Texas home. You can hear that Lone Star longing in every line.

MERLE HAGGARD
"In My Next Life" (Curb)

It's wonderful to hear Hag back at it, and once you listen to this song, you'll be sold. It's the kind of breathtakingly sad song that Max D. Barnes (Chiseled In Stone) has perfected.

Just like stardust, moonlight becomes you.

Not since the multi-platinum
"Stardust" has an album captured the quintessential
Willie.

BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE
featuring JIMI HENDRIX
"Rilly Groovy" (Continuum)
Acid ambience mixed with "authorized" Hendrix samples gets A³ curiosity play.

A³ New Releases

TORI AMOS
Under The Pink (Atlantic)

An easy call here as Tori Amos continues to take over the turf that only a decade ago belonged solely to Kate Bush. Armed with a Bosendorfer and a lot of clever ideas, Under The Pink is arty, vulnerable, strong and exceedingly mainstream-friendly. "Past The Mission" and "Cornflake Girl" (our two favorites) display just how well Tori combines her quirky persona with a welcome sense of underproduction. Since her transformation from the electric Y Kant Tori Read to the more acoustic Tori Amos, here's an artist who commands grandiose creative attention with class and understatement.

ALICE IN CHAINS
Jar Of Flies (Columbia)

That's right. Alice In Chains on A³. Whatever it is that Layne Staley is into (we all have our suspicions), it's kept Alice In Chains one step ahead of the grunge police. With a beautiful open-strummed style, Alice In Chains supplies the near perfect progressive ingredient for adult radio starting with the opening "Rotten Apple." Captured during a week's recording in Seattle last September, the band's current direction is spare and hypnotic. "Nutshell" nods to an illustrious sway while the harmonically strange "I Stay Away" is augmented by a string quartet. Our clear favorites are "No Excuses" and "Don't Follow," percussive pieces that threatens the turf of R.E.M. If, like us, you felt Pearl Jam threw A³ a bone with one acoustic-based song, cheer up. Alice In Chains offers up the entire steak.

KEVN KINNEY
Down Out Law (Mammoth)

As Drivin' N Cryin' move their tent from the Island label back to Geffen, leader Kevn Kinney follows his heart with a front porch acoustic solo debut. Just Kevn and his guitar, songs like the opening title track and "Midwestern Blues" have a coffee-housed one-on-one feel. The concluding "A Beatnik Haight Street Kerouacian Ripoff In E" is a stand-up bass-powered poem that pictures the Haight Street we know, love and frequent. Cappuccino High!

SUE FOLEY
Without A Warning (Antone's)

You kinda have to see Sue Foley perform live to get the entire picture. She sings with the vulnerability of Rickie Lee Jones and plays guitar with the blues fury of T-Bone, Buddy and Stevie. After sending off a tape to Texas from her native Canadian abode, Sue Foley hot footed it to Austin in the doorstep of blues maverick Clifford Antone. Live in trio, Foley gives the tight-jeaned ladies in the audience a rare opportunity to whop, holler and bang their heads like we gents are prone to do. Sue shatters the male/female barrier by escaping the blues singer diva role, maintaining hardline twang status. She's a guitar star of the future.

SARAH MCLACHLAN
Fumbling Towards Ecstasy
(Nettwerk/Arista)

Building an impressive discography of albums, singles and live sides, Sarah McLachlan has lived comfortably and creatively before there was ever an A3 format. Consequently, Sarah finds herself nestled in the right place at the right time in terms of adult radio. With her best work recently recorded and a fine band groomed and ready, Sarah McLachlan is qualified to do battle on one of the more competitive arenas of radio. As always, Sarah's music personifies a communal spirit with her band, who provide subtle accompaniment to songs like "Possession," "Good Enough" and "Elsewhere."

COLIN JAMES
And the Little Big Band
(Virgin-Canada)

From the Texas plains to the streets of Vancouver, blues swing is alive and well. With a few other A's already jumping on the import version of Colin's latest, I couldn't help getting in a dig or two myself. Featuring the Roomful Of Blues horn front, Colin James has recreated that T-Bone Walker-styled hippy hippy shake. Like the title implies, this is a "little big band" that blasts and pows. The opening "Cadillac Baby" gets things rolling with a wild introduction. That's organist Chuck Leavell cheesing it out on "That's What You Do To Me." Eventually Colin's bluesfest will hit us stateside. Until then, finagle an import or check out this vicious line-up at the upcoming 1994 Gavin Seminar in February.

ARTIST PROFILE

BOBBY MILITELLO

FROM: Buffalo

LABEL: Positive Music

LATEST RELEASE:

...Easy To Love

BOBBY SAYS: "I wanted a record I could hand to somebody and say, 'This is what I play like!' Easy To Love is even better than our first record—better tunes, hipper arrangements and we're burning on the solos. Everything was recorded direct to two-track with no overdubbing. We were getting hot cuts right away."

PREVIOUS RECORDS:

Besides two solo jazz records, I've been on 40 records as a sideman, including six Maynard Ferguson albums and three Dave Brubeck albums. I've been with Dave Brubeck for eleven years. I had my own R&B album on Motown in 1983 called Blow. I was Bobby M. before Kenny G. was Kenny G.

MOVING TO BUFFALO: "I lived in L.A. from 1983 to 1993, then I decided to move back to Buffalo. I got caught up in making money rather than furthering my career. When I got back I wanted to put out something that was unpretentious, just me blowing like I do in a club."

FUTURE PLANS: Appearing on upcoming Jeff Jarvis Quintet release on Positive, currently producing the mayoral inaugural ball in Buffalo.

Jazz/Adult Alternative New Releases

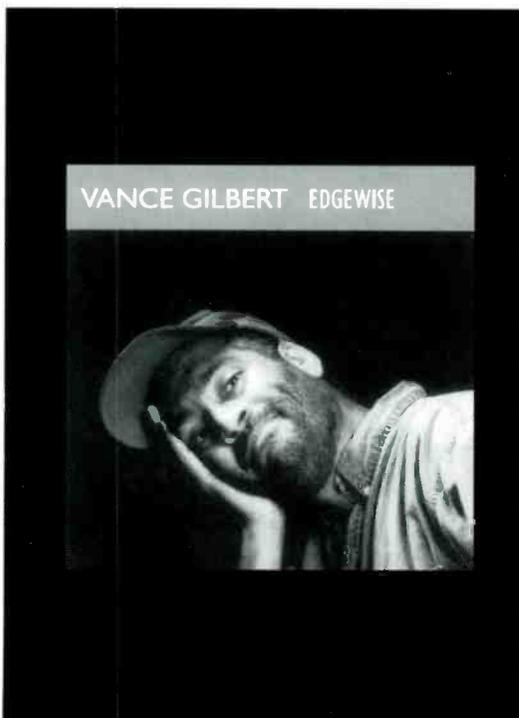

EDDIE JEFFERSON THE JAZZ SINGER (EVIDENCE)

He pioneered what Lambert, Hendricks and Ross popularized, he opened the door for singers to do more than sing and scat over a tune's melody, he wrote lyrics that were often poignant without being sappy, and he was an extraordinarily talented vocal acrobat. And, as Leonard Feather observed in 1976, "The contribution of Eddie Jefferson to the development of vocal jazz, though literally unique, has remained for many years in unjustifiable obscurity." With The Jazz Singer, a reissue on Evidence, we have an 18 track collection of some of Jefferson's finest, including Miles Davis' universal standard, "So What." A brief history of Jefferson's lyric setting to recorded, improvised solos and melodies, is included in the liner notes along with a few of Jefferson's own anecdotes for some of the tunes. While I am not familiar with many of the vocalists who cite Jefferson as a primary vocal influence, it's evident that some of the best have certainly ingested his body of work (see Betty Carter's inflections and falsetto on "Moody's Mood For Love"). Some favorite cuts include "So What," "Now's The Time," "A Crazy Romance (The Preacher)" and "I've Got The Blues (Lester Leaps In). —JASON OLAINÉ

TOM SCOTT
REED MY LIPS (GRP)

Reed My Lips is Tom Scott's most intriguing record. True, the title cut spotlights a collaboration between Scott and Grover Washington, Jr. But equally interesting is Scott's re-entry into the '70s-style jazz/funk that's currently kicking up such a storm with the acid jazz crowd. The title cut features some sample loops (complete with scratchy vinyl noises), chunky wah-wah guitar rhythms and prowling Hammond organ. Also check out Scott's duet with Robben Ford on "Every Day And Every Minute." The booming bassline, vibraphone accents and Barry White-like croons recall classic black cinema soundtracks of the '70s like Superfly and Shaft. Scott, an early master at mixing pop, jazz and funk in his own right, delivers a real street-sounding production for jazz/A². After all, who could be more musically street-wise than the guy who gave us the soundtrack from the cult movie Taxi Driver?

CHARLIE HUNTER TRIO (PRAWN SONG/MAMMOTH)

"This ain't jazz, man." "What? These cats are playing something different—for a change—and it swings! This stuff is raw, man. And I will call it jazz." This exchange might have been overheard at a recent gathering of so-called jazz critics checking out the debut release from the Charlie Hunter Trio. Taking what they will from the realms of jazz, funk and hip-hop, CHT blends a fresh mix of improvised and structured original music that defies simple categorization. Led by Charlie Hunter's synchronized talents as bassist/guitarist (see last week's issue for Jazz/A2 Profile), CHT is amoeba jazz—a creature dependent upon each cell, pushing, prodding and cooperating to survive. Tenor saxophonist David Ellis, a Berkeley and Berklee product, provides burnished melodies and searching solos while Jay Lane, formerly with Primus, sizzles and snaps on the traps. This album is not spick-and-span clean; it's rawness, though, is part of its appeal. Shunning all overdubs, this debut was co-produced by Less Claypool (of Primus) in his basement studio for just over a hundred bucks. Like listening to Stanley Jordan, at times it's hard to believe Charlie's the only one playing a chordal instrument (save one track with acoustic bassist Miles Perkins). "Fables Of Faubus" and "Mule" are two such examples of fine solo work. For jazzers with no taste for anything but straight bop swing, CHT offers up the jagged "Faffer Time," a Caravan-ish romp with congas and trumpet on

"Dance Of The Jazz Fascists," odd-key rhythm changes on "Rhythm Comes In 12 Tones," and a Latin swing, "Live Oak." As good as all these are, hell yeah, I'd call that jazz. Man, "Fred's Life" and "Funky Niblets" are bad. When Ellis comes in off the break on the former, they just bit—and the kids in the clubs can relate. —JASON OLAINE

Inside Alternative

Don't ya hate it when your friends travel and you have to spend the next few weeks hearing about everything little thing they did and seeing all their crappy, out of focus photos? I'll spare you the kangaroo/koala/record shopping speech and skip right to the photo—which is perfectly in focus. Shown here after their sold-out show in Sydney are (l-r) Died Pretty's frontman Ron S. Peno, keyboardist John Hoey choking the life out of GAVIN's Linda Ryan, guitarist Brett Myers, bassist Robert Warren and Columbia's Mark Kordelos.

While down under, I had a chance to check out Caligula's big chart-toppin' hit, "Tears Of A Clown"—yea, that one. I saw the band a few years ago—they sounded like P.E. meets Ministry. This new single, however, sounds more like Ned's Atomic Dustbin, proving that you really do mellow with age.

Speaking of imports (I feel like Sat Bista. Hi, Sat!), one that's particularly rockin' my world at the moment is from Sweden's Stakko Bo, whose "Here We Go" single is reverberating down the halls this very moment. It's on PolyGram, so I imagine it'll eventually find its way across the pond.

Others sockin' it to me: The Daisies' "Aeroplane Day," The Charlatans' "Can't Get Out Of Bed," Therapy's "Nowhere," Died Pretty's (them again?) "Harness Up," Alice In Chains' (yes, I really do like it) "No Excuses," The Dentists' album, Behind The Door..., and the What It Is volume of the Luv & Haight compilations.

In station news, WUOG-Athens is finally back up and running—at an amazing 26,000 watts! Dana's new office hours are 3-6 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays.

KROQ-Los Angeles' Kevin Weatherly got the hell out of L.A. last weekend and headed south to Atlanta. Seems he's a rabid Dallas Cowboys fan and scored himself tickets to the Super Bowl. 'Course, it would've been a much better game if the 49ers were playing. I guarantee it.

Speaking of KROQ, the station has established a relief fund for earthquake victims. Anyone wanting a Lots going on at CIMX-Detroit since Michelle Denome left a couple weeks ago. Liz Janik is interim music director until further notice, and Murray Brookshaw is program director not only of CIMX, but of CKLW AM and FM as well. I don't know how he's going to find the time to do all that. Will Vince Canoga be lending an official helping hand sometime soon?

A few seminar epiphanies for you: There will be a Whenjagitin gathering-type-party at 8 p.m. on Wednesday evening at the Cafe du Nord—2170 Market Street (btwn. Sanchez and Church). A flyer invitation is on its way. Please remember to bring it with you, or they'll make you pay a cover charge on the way in. Capitalists.

We teased you with a bit of this information last week: Jonathan L has agreed to host a session at this year's 1994 GAVIN Seminar. Going under the working moniker Jonathan L's Group Therapy For Small/Medium Alternative Markets, this session will focus on the problems radio stations in small/medium markets face—hence the very catchy title. We know you'll agree that a session of this kind is long overdue, and we hope you'll come with specific problems and/or solutions to share.

SLOWDIVE "Alison" (ERG)

It's taken a while, but Slowdive's latest finally sees the domestic light of day. Good thing too, because at its peak, Mod Lang Records in Berkeley was selling upwards of 15 import albums a week! Although "Alison" retains Slowdive's ethereal, otherworldly sound, it's easily the most accessible single the band has released to date. Couple that with the fact that Slowdive has cultivated an active—almost rabid—fan base, and you get this kind of phenomenal sales story. Count Live 105, among the early supporters. Now it's your turn. —LINDA RYAN

ALICE IN CHAINS "No Excuses" (Columbia)

Oh, man, this one's excellent! And 'tho I don't count myself among the legions of Alice In Chains fans, "No Excuses" is a damn fine song. A bouncing bass and bongos are the driving force behind this one, lending a warm, acoustic vibe to the plucky, psychedelic/electric background. Not exactly the heavy rock sound you expect from Alice In Chains—it's more like A.I.C. meets R.E.M.—but a curveball every now and then keeps things fresh. I like what I hear, and so do most of the "big guns" who came in early this week—KROQ, WHFS, 91X (where it's already requesting), KKND-The End and Q-101 for starters. Expect just about everybody else this week. —LINDA RYAN

SARAH MCLACHLIN "Possession" (Arista)

The lady with the beautiful voice returns with a haunting beauty about obsessive love, written from the point of view of a disturbed fan. "Possession's" dark theme is the perfect playground for McLachlin's floating, glass-like vocals, which lend an air of desperation to the song. I make it sound very serious and ghastly; Sarah McLachlin makes it sound beautiful. —LINDA RYAN

MEAT PUPPETS Too High To Die (London/PLG)

Folks talk about how bad music sucked in the 80s, and for the most part they're right. But there were wildflowers of sheer inventiveness, and the Meat Puppets were one of them. Who could forget the first time they heard the soothing hybrid of intricate melodies dashed with uncompromising punk? Butthole Surfer Paul Leary never forgot, and he produced these 13 tracks, citing the Pups' debut seven-inch as the reason he's in a band. "Violet Eyes" kicks things off with bee-in-a-jar angry distorted guitar and patent, sinuously twisting Curt Kirkwood vocals. Guitar, bass and drums compliment each other perfectly on "Never To Be Found," and the trio ethic emerges with the effortlessness of a rising cake. Background vocals bob on "Severed Goddess Hand's" memorable chorus, and "Things" smooth harmonies fuse with meditative lead vocals. "Why's" simple guitar progression mutates into a Spanish-tinged sequence, and "Evil Love" rocks to a steady beat tempered by a forlorn guitar. Complete lyrics bring this formerly oblique world into focus for a glimpse of how confoundingly great Kirkwood's lyrics are. Look for the band to tour and prove why groups like Nirvana and Pearl Jam gush about them. —DAVID BERAN

7" Spotlight

LOU BARLOW (SUB POP) and

THE GRIFTERS

"HOLMES" b/w "JUNKIE BLOOD" (DARLA)

On the back cover of his new 7", Lou Barlow, gape-mouthed, looks like he's been caught with something, uh, exposed. In the grooves of this little record we find that in fact he has. Barlow, one-third of Sebadoh, is known for his confessional songwriting, but for some reason (the pared-down presentation? the solo environment?) these five tracks are more revealing than anything he's done with his band. On "I Am Not Mocking You," the first cut, Barlow relies on vocal melody to carry his song/fragment, and supports his poetry with only some random tinkering. Here, he is typically open and emotional, but with the second and third songs, "Survival" and the keyboard-backed "Helpless Heartbreak," he edges into too-painful territory, which makes it difficult for an outsider to stay with him (I can never stand to watch people embarrass themselves on TV, either). Thankfully, side two's insights into Barlow's psyche seem less naked and stark, perhaps because they're accompanied by more substantial instrumentation, perhaps 'cause they're pretty pop. So yeah, I'd recommend starting with my fave, "Dirty Mind," and its follow-up, "Forever Instant" when you listen to this one.

The Grifters, who've made a name for themselves as the Kings Of Almost There, have released another couple of tunes on 7", "Holmes" and "Junkie Blood." I could assert that their music mirrors our time—somewhat deconstructed and chaotic, kind of pessimistic and vaguely incomplete—but I won't, because the Grifters got soul (something I'm not sure the '90 have reclaimed) and 'cause I suspect the band would flinch if evaluated in such an inflated or cultural context. Anyway, "Holmes" is loud and spuzz-soaked; its reluctant groove, which peeks through every now and again, never becomes an all-out melodic force, but the gnarled vocal, flatulent guitar noise and the late addition of a lazy wailing lead is more than enough to hold you. "Junkie Blood" is a dreamier (but still disjointed) aural experience, but it's not as gripping as its flip. —SEANA BARUTH

FREAKWATER FEELS LIKE THE THIRD TIME (THRILL JOCKEY, P.O. BOX 1527, PETER STUYVESANT STATION, NEW YORK, NY 10019)

In Freakwater, Eleventh Dream Day's Janet Bean blends voices with songwriter Catherine Erwin; on its third record, the band blends country (and other) classics with hillbilly-inspired originals. The result, a largely acoustic offering, manages a rare feat: a precise balancing of tribute and re-invention, Erwin and Bean's harmonies provide Freakwater's backbone, as the song's simple arrangements and sparse instrumentation leave the vocalists room to soar. The tunes are certainly solid, but their beautiful interaction—Bean high, Erwin low—is the essence (for me at least) of Freakwater's appeal. There ain't all that much more to say, 'cept Feels Like The Third Time is the freshest blast of full-proof country I've heard in weeks. Fave tracks include: "Forgettable Song," Nick Lowe's "You Make Me," and Woody Guthrie's "Little Shoes."

NICE

APPLE PIE (FEEL GOOD ALL OVER #69, P.O. BOX 148428, CHICAGO, IL 60614)

This one takes up right where last year's Feel Good All Over #11 left off, and there's no sign of a letdown on Nice's sophomore effort. "Anything is possible, it's easy to amuse," Susannah Stuart-Lindsay sings on "Cassandra Nova," and it's an accurate description of the music. A laid-back, angstless VU/Dream Syndicate sensibility slurs through this baker's dozen tracks. "Cassandra Nova's" deep bass is countered by a jangly guitar that sprawls and squirts lofty chords. The simple minor chord progression of "On My Back In The Madhouse" achieves a lingering sensation, and Randall Lee's subdued vocals frame the song perfectly. Stuart-Lindsay sings with carefree conviction on "Total Moon" as Jo Packers drums color in a grooving off-beat. "My Perfect Fire's" guitar is reason enough to dig into Apple Pie. Lee strums an infectious melody and provides background sax, then sings effusive praises to the object of his desire. The final two tracks, "Fucked Around," and "Now" cut loose and rock out more, but this doesn't seem to be the band's strong suit. This is a record that will grow on you, and puts Australia's Nice in a class of their own. —DAVID BERAN

FIRST SINGLE: "Dogman"

PRODUCER: Brendan O'Brien (Pearl Jam, Stone Temple Pilots, Black Crowes, Red Hot Chili Peppers)

DOUG PINNICK AND TY TABOR

TALK ABOUT:

TIME OFF: "We started writing at the very end of '92. We only toured three months on the fourth album, King's X. We had planned to tour all year but we ended up cancelling the whole tour because we had the business of finding new management and we had a fan club that had to be reworked."—Ty Tabor

THE PRESSURE FACTOR: "I don't remember any pressure. Sure, Atlantic was disappointed that we didn't continue touring. If they're going to work an album the band needs to be out touring so they are working as a team. At the same time they understood our situation and we had no choice but take time to fix it."—Ty Tabor RADIO: "We're getting great feedback on this first single, and we ended up getting 73 stations in the first week out. That's a really good start especially now since almost all Album stations have switched over to classic album and there are less new slots available on American radio than ever before. To get more adds ever at the worst time ever is much more of a great sign of how our album will do.

—Ty Tabor

RECORDING: "We really did what we wanted to do this time. Brendon came in and added to the project because he was heading in the same direction we were. We're really happy with what he did. We wanted that energy and that live, in-your-face kind of thing. His mixing is clear even though some of the songs are really trashy."

—Doug Pinnick

THE WRITING: "I'm proud of the writing on this album and I'm afraid of it at the same time. I didn't take time to try to make things artistic. I was going through some hard times so I let it all out in the music and I'm happy that I was able to use that outlet. On the other hand, it scares me because I didn't want people to know everything about me. The album is not real specific but I bared my whole soul. The song "Pretend" pretty much says it all."

—Doug Pinnick

THE ALBUM'S DIVERSITY: "For me personally, the bluesy stuff on the album is really more of a return to our roots. In our minds we're getting more basic and back to more of what we're all about but never really stripped it away to such a simple form. We just wanted this one to be more straight ahead and more gutsy, but it was really letting some things come out that we built on when we were learning how to play."

—Ty Tabor

TOURING: "I've cleaned my closet, painted the walls and answered the piles and piles of mail that's accumulated over the last couple of years so I'm ready. We're rehearsing right now for our first date with the Scorpions on Valentine's Day in El Paso."

—Doug Pinnick

"We'll be in California in late February/March with the Scorpions. We're doing about a month in the U.S. and then they're going to Mexico for two weeks. At the end of that time they'll decide whether or not they'll extend their American tour. If they extend it, it's my understanding that we'll be continuing with them. It's a great privilege to get to tour and meet our fans."

—Ty Tabor

Hard Rock Releases.....

BLACK SABBATH Cross Purposes (IRS)

No one except Led Zeppelin has influenced or inspired rock bands like Black Sabbath. From 1969 to the present, Black Sabbath have delivered cutting-edge metal, and with the release of Cross Purposes, the band remains consistent. Guitarist Tony Iommi, drummer Bobby Rondinelli and bassist Geezer Butler have joined forces with Dean Martin's favorite vocalist, his own son Tony. This is Martin's fourth album, and it proves once again that he can fill predecessors' (Ozzy Osbourne/Ronnie James Dio) shoes with his unique foreboding vocals that add to the massive sound Sabbath displays. Cross Purposes has a mature approach and a contemporary rock sound that covers Sabbath's many moods and social grandeur, it will appeal to Album radio. Stand out tracks include: "Psychaphobia," "Cross Of Thorns," "Cardinal Sin" and "Dying For Love." After years of persecution at the hands of commercial radio and the media, Black Sabbath has been accepted into the mainstream where they belong. Give it a spin and look for them touring with Motorhead.

—SHEILA RENÉ

DIO Strange Highways (Reprise)

Ronnie James Dio has just released his latest masterpiece Strange Highways, which not only rocks but quells any rumors about him reuniting with Black Sabbath anytime soon. Make sure your seatbelt is fastened and prepare yourself for a turbulent ride through a maze of heavy metal guitar riffs and thunderous rhythms that will sweep you into the fast lane. Dio is an angry man and he uses Strange Highways to express his disgust with society's rapid deterioration of and the negative effect it's having on our youth. It's been six years since Dio's last release but that hasn't stopped him from delivering a very current-sounding album which boasts an aggressive style that we haven't heard since the Sabbath days. Teaming up with fellow Black Sabbath alumni, drummer Vinny Appice, World War III guitarist Tracy G and Dokken's Jeff Pilson on bass, Dio achieves colossal metal rock that's intelligently orchestrated and it has such a full sound that it's easy to lose yourself in its vastness. "Evolution" is the focus track but listen to the entire album. My picks include "Pain," "Jesus Mary & The Holy Ghost," "One Foot In The Grave," "Hollywood Black" and "Strange Highways." The current rock sound mixed with classic early DIO will make Strange Highway acceptable to commercial rock radio, especially those Album stations that are beginning to program harder rock.

UNSAINE Total Destruction (Matador/Atlantic)

If your looking for something aggressive, New York's Unsaine is the answer. Using fast tribal drumming schemes with crunchy guitar rhythms that grope around dominant bass vibes, Unsaine creates an angst-riddled heavy rock sound that will attract listeners who're into Jesus Lizard, Stick and Tad. Guitarist Chris Spencer uses his scratchy vocals to enhance the band's grittiness by straining them through a megaphone, while bassist Pete Shore and drummer Vincent Sigorelli's efforts keep things unpredictably rakish. Total Destruction is a fitting name for this album since Unsaine tend to wreck havoc on each cut, with mean guitar swirls coming out of nowhere attacking and melodies like a swarm of angry bees. College radio has already jumped on this with ten GAVIN Rocks stations adding it, making it the fifth most added record this week. "Body Bomb," "Broke," "Road Trip," "Trench," "455" and "S.O.S." make the must-listen to list.

MONSTER VOODOO MACHINE
"Get On With It"
(D-Tribe Records)

Swooping down from Canada is an unprecedented band that specializes in delivering original hard rock that'll add spice to any show. Monster Voodoo Machine (Adam Sewell vocals, Terry Landry bass, Jason Cuddy guitar, Stacy Moskin sampler, Darren Quinn guitar, Dean Bentley drums) have a sound of their own which makes it difficult to compare them to any other band or to place them in one category. The single "Get On With It" is fast-paced, showcasing hard-edged guitar riffs that bounce along head slamm'n' bass grooves, severe drumming and slicing vocals that enhance the aggressiveness. If your station prides itself on playing the latest hard rock it's essential to add this to your list. The B-side is an industrial version of "Get On With It" called the "Buck Naked Mix" (no relation to San Francisco's legendary Buck Naked) which features the band's versatile techno sampling skills while still retaining a heavy guitar presence. The fresh sound of "Get On With It" reflects the band's reason for forming in the first place: to play music they like because no one else did. This is just a taste of what's to come. Look for the full album, due out sometime this summer.

THE WILDHEARTS
Suckerpunch
(Eastwest)

What would happen if Jan & Dean or the Beach Boys, The Monkees, The Ramones, Motorhead and Metallica were forced to write songs together? The result would sound a lot like the U.K.'s Wildhearts. Combining strict harmonies with some serious guitar slams and crazy melodies, The Wildhearts deliver a complex rock sound with such diversity that they will attract alternative, hard rock and metal listeners. From the singalong melodic "My Baby Is A Headfuck" and "And The Bullshit Goes On," to the vicious guitar licks of "Shut Your Fucking Mouth And Use Your Fucking Brain" and "Sucker Punch" (the focus track), The Wildhearts feature innovative songs that make a very interesting listening experience. Check them out.

BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN Streets Of Philadelphia (Columbia)

Come Oscar time we might well be watching The Boss accept an award for this compelling entry from the soundtrack of Philadelphia. At last week's Golden Globes, it won for "Best Song" and those who've seen the film say it sets the mood while it plays during the opening scenes. The accompanying video is sure to help take it over the top.

NIRVANA All Apologies (DGC)

When a band demonstrates their ability to grow and expand musically when following a major success, it speaks to their longevity. If Nirvana's In Utero album is any indication, their future looks very bright. Of course, it's been a huge hit at Alternative stations. Kurt Cobain is in top form, expressing the feelings and style of '90s America.

LAUREN CHRISTY Steep (Mercury)

British-born songwriter and singer Lauren Christy brings a unique quality to her self-penned ballad which adult audiences are bound to find appealing. Her voice, wrapped around this melody, has a soothing quality that's intoxicating.

MITCH MALLOY Tumbling Down (RCA)

Making the transition from fierce rocker to mellow balladeer, Mitch issues a tasty pop treat from a forthcoming album titled, Ceilings And Walls. Expect both A/C and Top 40 to embrace this track.

BAHA MEN Oh Father (Atlantic)

A handful of programmers will testify to the power of Baha Men, having had success with their biggest hit to-date "Back To The Island," as well as a follow-up, "Gin And Coconut Water." Now they have their best chance yet of scoring big with a tune for a new Touchstone film, My Father The Hero, opening later this week.

SUN 60 Hold On (Epic)

Like their name implies, the duo of David Russo and Joan Jones are a bright new force in contemporary music. They have a fresh approach to singing and songwriting that is captured on this intriguing release.

Albums

RAMONES Acid Eaters (Radioactive)

Cover albums by established bands are sprouting up everywhere (Guns N' Roses, upcoming Duran Duran), but this is one of the more welcome ones to these ears. The Ramones leave their power chord trademark on everything they touch, and this gathering of a dozen '60s classics is no exception. The Amboy Dukes' "Journey To The Center Of The Mind" howls with gleeful abandon as a way-out guitar leap frogs over the meaty bass line. Pete Townshend lends background vocals to "Substitute," and Joey Ramone does justice to Mick Jagger on "Out Of Time," which includes the original's xylophone. Our heroes cook with fire on the Yardbirds' "The Shape Of Things To Come," injecting boundless energy and throbbing guitars into the classic. The haunting, regretful tone of the Animals' "When I Was Young" comes through, and the Byrds' "My Back Pages" chugs with adrenalin-drenched guitars. Next, we'll have the Grateful Dead doing a record of punk standards with the Ramones as consultants.

One Life To Live - The Best Of Love (SBK/ERG)

A great idea. Here's a compilation of new music made specifically for the soundtrack to the ageless daytime soap, One Life To Live. A significant number of love songs might have gone unnoticed were it not for their appearance as backing themes to the relationships between lovers on the addicting serializations. Put together by executive producers Linda Gottlieb and Jay Landers, this volume will bring back recent tender memories and/or yet-to-come moments of bliss on the soap. I'm told that Chris Walker's performance of "Teach Me How To Dream" has already had its moments, as characters Marty and Suede "wrote" the song (don't tell David Foster and Dean Pitchford) before Suede's tragic death. Bill Medley and Darlene Love's version of "(You're My) Soul and Inspiration" is just out as a single, and I'd expect others, like "From This Day On" by Brenda Russell and Howard Hewett, "The Way That You Love Me" by Wendy Moten, or the new version of Jimmy Webb's "All I Know" by the married-in-real-life couple Michael McDonald and Amy Holland.

CE CE PENISTON Thought 'Ya Knew (A&M)

This former beauty queen struck gold with her 1992 debut effort, and CeCe Peniston's sophomore release, Thought 'Ya Knew, promises to exceed that accomplishment. Funky beats and soul-filled ballads make this 14-cut project a winner. Outstanding tracks include the first single, "I'm In The Mood," the pop-infused "Hit By Love" (the track I listen to over and over), the hip-hop and jazz-flavored "I'm Not Over You" and the independent-woman anthem "Through Those Doors" (reminds me of Gloria Gaynor's "I Will Survive.") Also noteworthy are the Brian McKnight-produced "Forever In My Heart" and the tender "If You Love Me, I Will Love You." Spend some time with this album; CeCe's got some musical gems to be discovered. —ANNETTE M. LAI

TORI AMOS Under The Pink (Atlantic)

Tori Amos finds a song in the darndest places. Cornflakes, waitresses and deities all share the subject matter. With the observation powers of a fly on the wall, Tori, like an invisible angel, detaches herself and gives us a tour of her world. Being in the acoustic medium gives Under The Pink a certain integrity that grounds the character no matter how electrically eccentric the music becomes. Best bets: "God," "Past The Mission" and "Cornflake Girl."

IN THE NAME OF THE FATHER - Music From The Motion Picture (Island)

Daniel Day Lewis' latest role is the best thing flickering on movie screens across the country. With music from Hendrix to Thin Lizzy playing a vital role in the film's power base, the soundtrack is worth singling out if only for the concluding Sinead O'Connor song, "You Made Me The Thief Of Your Heart." As Bruce Springsteen did on the Philadelphia Soundtrack, O'Connor steals the show. —KENT ZIMMERMAN

DEEP FOREST (550 Music/Sony)

The Deep Forest project will not die! In its infancy an inside favorite among musicians, it continues to sell briskly as more formats, including Top 40 and A³, explore its exotic musical terrain. "Sweet Lullaby," with its Pygmy chant samplings, churns out a soulful World Beat groove that's plenty catchy enough to create a mass appeal hit. Like Clannad's enduring "Harry's Game," Deep Forest has enjoyed national exposure as the soundtrack for some national television spots. —KEITH ZIMMERMAN
