Kickin' it up the charts

GAVIN A PARTY A Seminar Summary

This Week.....

It's Seminar Fever! Even as we recover from the biggest Gavin gathering yet, the Country Radio Seminar is ready to take over the Opryland Hotel in Nashville.

CRS's 25th gathering comes at a time when Country is so hot that questions arise about fragmentation of formats and about what needs to be done (or not done) to keep the momentum going. We pose those questions to some of the nominees for the Gavin Seminar Awards, as well as to the newest prince of the Country charts, John Michael Montgomery, who is most definitely, as his album title says, Kickin' it Up. As for our own 1994 Gavin Seminar, it, too, was kickin'. Keynote Gary Gersh (above), president of Capitol Records, spoke candidly about what it was like to move into the fabled Tower, and what he sees as the diminishing role of radio in record marketing; Bill Walsh (above, right), who knows kickin'—and punting, rushing, blocking, passing, catching, and, most of all, winning—delivered a talk loaded with tips for successful management. Gersh, Walsh, and two other main speakers, as well as many of the panels and all of the Gavin Award winners, are chronicled inside. But so much took place that we'll have to wrap up our coverage next issue, with mucho color photos like the one above, of Mike Joseph (with our Dave Sholin). Joseph, the Top 40 pioneer who created the "Hot Hits" format, received the Bill Gavin Heritage Award.

GAVIN Keynoters Stress Teamwork

The 1994 GAVIN Seminar featured four keynoters: a record label head, a fabled football coach, a Top 40 pioneer and a rap activist. But the speakers had one message in common: the importance of synergy, of working together for a specific goal. Here are highlights of their talks:

Gersh Sends A Message To Radio

“Record companies are waking up to the fact that there are other ways to break music.”

Looking more like the A&R person he used to be than a suit-and-tied executive, Capitol Records president Gary Gersh, in his first industry appearance since his appointment last July, opened the 1994 GAVIN Seminar.

Before a standing-room-only crowd that flowed into an adjacent room, Gersh sent a warning to radio: when record companies formulate ways to break records, radio isn't in the forefront any more. Interactive media, DMX, and CD ROM are only a few of the places record companies are going for exposure. And even though he expressed displeasure with television, 500 future channels notwithstanding—“I have 40 channels at home and I'm thoroughly bored,” he said to loud laughter—if his prediction is true, Gersh is going to have to exercise his trigger finger. With so many channels opening, he said, it's conceivable that record companies—either separately or together—will operate their own video channels.

Despite the choices, Gersh acknowledged, radio is still an important factor. “We can't break new artists without radio,” he said, acknowledging that programmers such as KROQ-Los Angeles' Kevin Weatherly and Z100-New York's Steve Kingston can break records on feeling. “Using your gut,” he said, “what a concept!”

Gersh also used the talk as a way to give attendees a glimpse into his first days as president of Capitol. “It lacked synergy,” he said. “I knew I had to institute real cultural change...I went in and thought things would change in six weeks, but culture takes a long time to grow.”

Bill Walsh Scores with SRO Crowd

Bill Walsh, the former 49ers coach, didn't try to pass himself off as a radio or music person—“Let's pass over those years I spent with NBC,” he said about his stint there as a color commentator—in his keynote speech, presented in association with Jeff McClusky and Associates. But he connected with numerous tips on how to win as a manager.

Addressing an overflow crowd in the Colonial Room, Walsh said that technology and increased competition have brought forth a new generation of “dynamic, younger, more creative, more involved” managers who bring expertise into their jobs.

Walsh pointed to quarterback Joe Montana as “the consummate leader of the 49ers.” But, the coach said, “he rarely said anything to the rest of the team. He was the leader because he was the best at what he did, so people responded.”

To succeed, Walsh said, a manager must be able to:

- “Communicate with everyone you work with,” even if disparate, superstar salaries—whether in sports or the music business—cause bruised egos.

- Plan for contingencies. After losing a critical road game because fans got to him, and “I couldn't think straight,” Walsh began mapping out final scoring drives play by play and put his teams through rigorous practice sessions.

- Prepare for wild swings. “You will be extremely successful one minute and in abject depression the next.” Success breeds problems with employees, said Walsh, who said that after the Niners' first Super Bowl championships, he lost nine players to “drug habits. Some were so euphoric, they could celebrate every day.”

- Know, but don't fear your competition. “The minute you're awed by something someone else has done, you're distracted.”

“Coach Walsh and Gary Gersh were basically saying the same thing,” said Todd Baker, a DJ at KLYK-Longview, Va., clutching a football. “It's synergy. Everybody playing on the same page.”

Baker got his football when GAVIN CEO David Dalton wound up the session by tossing out several souvenir balls. He punted the last one from the stage to the rear of the Colonial Room.

Aren't the Niners looking for a kicker?

George Ware Raps Rappers Of Rap Music

Black music is the preferred music of the whole music world, Rap keynoter George Ware, co-founder of the Association for Rap Music, reminded his keynote audience. But Ware, a college professor and scholar of Black music and radio, was not at the Seminar to brag.

He was here to raise questions, he said, concerning the decline in Black-owned radio stations, the shift of power between black music and the concentration of major labels and distributors, and “the assault on rap.”

Ware, a student activist with SNCC during the '70s who was directly responsible for radio stations to begin hiring black executives, clearly felt strongly about the first two issues, but he concentrated his energy on rap, and he was most vocal about the activities of C. DeLores Tucker, chairwoman of the National Political Congress of Black women, who is lobbying in Congress to exorcise rap music from the First Amendment.

“The last thing we need is someone to bootstrap themselves up on the backs of our people,” he said of Tucker.

Ware's solution echoed the sentiment of attendees in early rap and urban meetings. “We need someone to look at our communities and do something about what's happening. Rap isn't the cause,” he said.

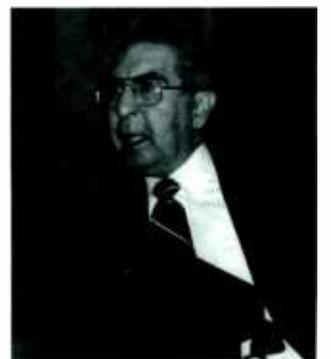

Ware was adamant that African-Americans have to effect change for themselves, and that they first have to go after African-American attackers, who are strong opponents. Ware took names and numbers of all willing attendees, promising to bring them into rap's defensive line.

Mike Joseph Sees No End To Top 40

“Top 40 will always be here.”

That was Top 40 keynoter and “Hot Hits” founder Mike Joseph's prediction. His speech can be summed up by one quote: “There will always be Top 40 because there will always be popular music, and there will always be HITS, HITS, HITS!”

Joseph also called for radio to not disenfranchise the teen audience. “There will always be teens and young adults. Teens made Rudy Vallee, Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra, Elvis, Motown and the Beatles. Teens grow up into adults and that lifetime is getting longer.”

He stressed the need for Top 40 to rediscover its basics and the need to develop its talent. “What happened to the farm system? What has happened to talent?” he asked. Much of it, he said, comes from small and medium markets and needs to be trained. And, he reminded, “Top 40 needs personality.”

Panels: Wall-to-Wall Radio Talk

Alternative, Top 40 Mix it Up

At the Alternative/Top 40 Mixer, host Richard Sands of San Francisco's Live 105 (KITS) poked and prodded the panel of four programmers from Commercial Alternative stations on issues including pigeonholing music and remaining innovative. Although the stations may fall under the same umbrella, it was pointed out that they all have different approaches to music.

One theme that rang through the session was a respect the stations have for naturalness and genuineness, and audiences were given a lot of credit.

"If there's one thing a Modern Rock listener can spot, it's DJs who don't know what they're talking about," said Rick Michaels of WENZ-Cleveland. "Our number one priority for jocks is to educate the listener to what Modern Rock is about without the schtick."

The question "Is Alternative the new Top

Kevin Stapleford

40?" was posed and Kevin Stapleford of 91X-San Diego addressed the dangers that modern music stations face, saying that 91X "is not completely boring like most Top 40 stations." Kevin foresees the possibility of stations drying up and blowing away "when you cut off the supply of up and coming bands or don't keep the established bands as anchors to draw people in."

Leslie Fram of 99X (WNNX)-Atlanta said her station plays Pearl Jam and the Connells "because with music there are no rules."

Kevin Weatherly of KROQ-L.A. described his station as "very tight musically," but added that, "There's a danger in becoming a juke box for the hits and playing only what audiences want to hear."

A question and answer session followed with San Francisco's Live105-San Francisco's Steve Masters providing his annual badgering. "You gotta fuck with it more!" he told the panelists. "All of the sudden put the Circle Jerks on and make people go. Abhhhh!"

A² Jury Still Out On Research

Adult Alternative radio's growing acceptance of research, Mix-Master in particular, was the most apparent feature of 1994's Analog version of the A² Juke Box Jury.

"Five years ago I wouldn't have said, 'sounds good but doesn't research well,'" said panelist Mike Fischer of WNUA-Chicago after panning a song.

But watching what research says isn't the only thing A² programmers do as they move, albeit reluctantly, closer to mainstream promotion techniques. Sales is also a factor, but one that should be used with caution, said panelists. "We have to be very careful correlating sales with what you play on the radio," an attendee warned. "It might not be your listeners that are doing the buying."

When a track by Basia was played for the panel, Paul Goldstein of KOAI-Dallas brought up an interesting but disturbing fact about the care his programming department has to take. "It's (the market) against anything 'foreign,'" he said.

A panelist's suggestion that artists should consider radio when they're in the recording studio stirred the room and elicited a response from Higher Octave artist Craig Chaquico. "It would be dangerous," he said, "for artists to be influenced by charts when they're dealing with something coming from the heart."

A/C: Three Panels, No Waiting

A record number of registrants, more than 180, crowded into the annual A/C Marathon session, which offered three panels in three tidy hours.

The day began with a programmers panel that covered a variety of topics, including how to plan for natural disasters and their disruption of normal broadcasting, and the ideal components of a morning show.

The second hour was panelled by record label execs who address issues ranging from coping with new forms of radio research to crossing their artists into and out of A/C as part of the bigger picture of hitmaking.

The session closed with the annual Juke Box Jury. This year's unanimous winners were "In The Time It Takes" from Beth Neilsen Chapman, "Bluebeard" by Cocteau Twins and "San Francisco Days" by Chris Isaak.

Rap Lyrics: How Hard Is Too Hard?

One of the Seminar's liveliest sessions was the Urban meeting. Lyric Content: Who's Responsible To The Community? There, gloves flew off and "forbidden" words started flying as programmers, industry executives and artists grappled with Urban radio's increasing reluctance to play lyrics considered offensive.

Among other things audience members brought up the charge that mainstream crossover is causing rappers to push the envelope even further. "White kids hanging out at the 7-11 are forcing artists to make their music harder and harder so that it will be accepted by the hardcore audience," one panelist said.

"The other issue is lifestyle," said another. "Some rappers feel that if they sing gangsta rap, they have to become gangsters. That is another reason the music's getting harder."

Programmers Quincy McCoy of WBLS-New York and Albie D. of WPGC-Washington were charged with succumbing to sales pressure in deciding what lyrics to play, a statement that was immediately denied by an audience member. "The reality is that black stations don't get the ad dollars that white stations do."

The solution, all seemed to agree, was a theme that wove itself through both Urban and Rap sessions all day Thursday, "It's all bout how you raise your kids," an attendee said. "Nobody's forcing you to listen to radio."

—BEVERLY MIRE

Civil Wars in Country Radio

Country opened with a "free forum" where programmers spoke their minds on a number of issues. One popular subject was radio wars, which was covered in depth in the later panel. David Vs. Goliath: How To Win Radio Wars Without Bloodshed panel.

Moderator Brad Chambers opened the session with a history of country radio battles. KNCI/KRAK's Larry Pareigis, who was programming WSM when WSIX started coming on strong, admitted that "the WSM experience was painful. If you're a heritage station, you better start attacking your own weak spots early." That sentiment was echoed by the other panelists. KDDK's Steve Hodges, KNAX's Mike Brady and K'NR's Gary Moss. After a discussion of battle methods, Moss wisely pointed out that stations can get so involved in "pissing off the competition" that they lose their focus—serving the listeners. Pareigis agreed, but said slyly, "If you can do something that is very positive for your listenership and country listenership in general, but simultaneously lob a hand grenade into your competition's camp—I'm all for that."

To open the panel, How To Make Your Station "Real." Moderator Tim Murphy, VP of Programming of EZ Communications read from "a valuable management textbook—The Velveteen Rabbit." The classic children's story illustrated the point that a radio station is not "real" unless it means something to the listeners. Management consultant Oren Harari encouraged programmers to take more risks, and to surprise listeners. "When you're all going for the same two to three percent share, you're like a pack of dogs going after a scrap of meat," said Harari. What makes a station "real?" BP Programming's Jay Albright, KJUG/KKJG's Larry Santiago, and KSAN evening personality Karen Dee all took a stab, with Dee speaking of simply about relating to her listeners as friends, something that is often lost in the world of pre-fab liners.

Rockers Rage Against Research

Although the panel, GAVIN Rocks: Evolution of the '90s, offered seven panelists, they stayed quiet for the most part, while members of the audience debated hard rock's acceptance—or lack thereof—on Album Rock radio, in record labels' promotion budgets, and in research.

Radio's reliance on research took a bruising. As veteran programmer Judy McNutt put it, "There are very few records that'll test well. New music has a handicap because it's new." McNutt decried labels that drop a record after a quick stab at airplay, and stations that refuse to incorporate hard rock into Album playlists. She worried that, although the room was packed with nearly 100 people, next year's session might see half as many programmers. Duopolies, she noted, "are eating up jobs."

Ray Gmeiner of Ace Promotion, upset by McNutt's remark, asked her why next year's session couldn't have double the attendees, rather than half.

"The problem," McNutt responded, "is the same as it is about records. It's a

Ronnie James Dio

Judy McNutt

marketing problem. You have to have balls the size of basketballs to stand up to owners and management. It's a viable format." Even duopolies could use hard rock, she said, to couple with Classic Rock stations and grab more of the 18-49 demo.

"So there are some positive signs for the format," she said. "Just not necessarily for the programmers."

One artist—Ronnie James Dio of the resurrected Dio band—spoke on behalf of those who create the music. While labels and radio pass quick judgment on their work, panelist Dio implored, "Don't forget to think of how the artists feel when they put months into the making of an album—and it doesn't get heard on radio anywhere."

—BEN FONG-TORRES

Monkeys Bite, Play Games, Drink Beer

Show Me On The Dolly Where The Monkey Bit You, a session presented by — who else? —Alternative, opened with three stunning acoustic songs from American Music Club's Mark Eitzel. Then the panel, moderated by A&M's Scott Carter, attempted to pre-empt the pesky questions ("How do I get servicing?" "How do I stop people from stealing?") that come up time and again at college radio gatherings.

Carter first presented a nifty pamphlet he compiled to answer those inquiries, then gave the audience their first opportunity to schmooze. After a brief break, the panel recommenced with a game show/contest that included trivia questions and facts that attendees were to have learned while mingling.

Late Friday, American Recordings and GAVIN co-hosted a techno keg party exclusively for college and alternative types featuring music mixed by 23 year-old Gary Richards, a.k.a. DJ Destructo, a.k.a. the vice president of Top 40 promotion at American.

The crowd inhaled two kegs of beer and claimed huge piles of American t-shirts and paraphernalia. Sub Pop and 4-AD sponsored the beer, and Sup Pop's radio promo major domo, Amy Seidenwurm, had Rebecca Gates and Scott Plouf of the Spinanes man the tap of the label's Red Hook keg. Despite the star bartending, 4-AD's Sierra Nevada keg was the first to go dry.

A³: Way of the Dead

The Dead can't dance, but they certainly know how to get millions of loyal fans moving to their music—buying albums, going to concerts in enough numbers to make the Grateful Dead the top box office draws of 1993, and gobbling up enough merchandising—from T-shirts to golf balls—to get the Dead shaking their heads in bemused wonder.

At the A³ Kickoff panel, several Dead employees—Cameron Sears, "manager of sorts," publicist Dennis McNally, small-label and radio liaison Gary Lambert, and Peter McQuaid, merchandising manager—articulated the Dead's philosophy.

"The Grateful Dead always did what they wanted, and that attracts a certain kind of personality," said Sears.

Lambert, who works with Dead bassist Phil Lesh on his monthly music show on KPFA-Berkeley, made a radio analogy: "They've avoided some of the pitfalls that radio fell into. They didn't change formats, and they didn't get locked into a format just because it was working." ("And," moderator Kent Zimmerman added, "they still have the original owners.")

Did the Dead reps have anything to ask radio? Sears spoke up:

"When was the last time you played 'Cosmic Charlie?'"

He drew laughs, but no answer.

McNally offered a final, rallying cry for creative radio. "I don't know if your bosses will let you do this, but I think the Grateful Dead have proven that consistency, flexibility, and cultural plurality works. And, done on a high-quality level, it will get its audience. David Freiberg once said that the Dead are like musically stepping off a cliff. It's brave craziness. It's risky, but that's what made the Grateful Dead work. That and a good guitar player."

CAMPAIGN OF THE WEEK

THE CONSCIOUS DAUGHTERS

Ear To The Streets

Ear To The Streets is the debut album from this Oakland-based female rap group, who tout themselves as one of the only female rap bands who write all their own material. They are the first group to release an album on Scarface Records which is owned by the sometimes-controversial rapper Paris, who formed his own label when he had trouble getting a major to distribute his last album. With its first act, Scarface is seeking to gain a toe-hold in the industry without losing credibility.

LABEL: Scarface/Priority

RADIO: Extensive soliciting and servicing. Custom remotes and IDs available on request. 18-city sales (poster) campaign upon release of the album. Group appeared on Berkeley, Calif.-based Youth Radio's special Solutions: Youth and Violence on February 15. Program was aired over KPFB/FM and KPFA/FM.

TV: Scheduled to appear on SET's Rap City on March 3. Video on The Box and SET. Appeared on CNN.

RETAIL: Serviced with single and full-length. Also serviced with two different posters and flats.

PRINT: Ad schedule running in trade publications including Gavin. Interviews scheduled with various trades.

TOUR: Continuous promo tours. Also involved in extensive radio and retail promotions which include walk-throughs and in-stores with Mom & Pop outlets, chains and one-stops.

While we were at the Seminar we learned that Steve Wyrostok (below) of Zapoleon Consultants will be relocating to San Francisco from Houston sometime in March... And on and on: Former Evergreen Media Corp. vice president of programming and operations, Liz Kiley, has joined THE BOX in the newly-created position director, radio affiliations... WVAQ's Lacy Neff takes on a dual role as he tacks PD to MD... Kevin Davis has exited mornings KLBQ/FM-El Dorado, Ark. to do mornings at KSKG/FM-Salina, Kan. Davis will also be music director and handle promotions. If you're interested in replacing him at KLBQ send that T&R to 1904 W.

Hillsboro, El Dorado, Ark. 71730 or call (501) 863-5121... KKBB-Bakersfield, Calif. has signed off the air permanently. The station is involved in a duopoly sale which will result in a format change. Out as a result are PD/afternoon driver Steve Hoffman (818) 708-1039 and MD/midday personality Craig Marshall (805) 633-9487... New production direc-

WHO AM I?

During an audition in my early days I was so nervous that I couldn't sing any of my own songs, and I once tried out for King Crimson but was turned down. I wrote a song for my friend Billie Jean King, and achieved a lifelong ambition in 1977 when I became chairman of England's Watford Football Club. I'm Sean Lennon's godfather, and an auction of my memorabilia at Sotheby's in London resulted in a seven figure sale. Who am I? See page 11 for the answer...

tor at KDWB-Minneapolis is David Christian, who spent the last two years as creative director at KRXX/FM-Twin Cities... ROTATIONS:

Once again, at the Seminar: A&M's Rick Stone will be re-locating to the company's L.A. office soon. Details to follow... We knew that: Bob Garland (left) has officially been named vice president, promotion for Elektra Entertainment.

He's been on the job since last October. Also at Elektra, Lisa Frank (left) has been promoted to vice president, artist relations/marketing, up from senior director, artist relations/promotion...

Bob Saporiti (left) has been promoted to senior vice president of marketing at Warner/Reprise Records, up from vice president, marketing with international duties. Relativity Records and Lifestyles Records have announced a co-label named Relativity/Lifestyles. The new association will affect all of Lifestyle's artist releases, which Relativity will market and promote... Avenue Records has debuted what they call a new "jazz imprint," Avenue Jazz. The label's first signing is acclaimed bandleader/trumpeter Maynard Ferguson.

keting at Capitol Records and Hall segues from A&R at PolyGram Music Publishing... Maureen Crowe has been appointed to the newly-created position vice president, soundtracks at Columbia. Crowe spent the last five years as an independent music supervisor and worked on films that include The Bodyguard... Steve Doctorow has joined Premiere Marketing Promotions as senior vice president. He comes from Marden-Kane, Inc., where he was avice president and general manager... In Giant Records' black music division, Tse Williams has been named A&R publishg executive, East Coast. "Her (Williams') considerable experience in records and publishing makes her invaluable to Giant's growth and development," said division president Cassandra Mills... The Environmental Awareness Radio Network is looking for participants in its day of environmental programming, April 23, Earth Day. For information call (805) 756-2965 At Rykodisc, Bob Carlton has been appointed to the newly-created position, vice president of sales and marketing. He was most recently national director of marketing for REP Distribution... Jonathan Rifkind has joined Loud Records as vice president promotions and marketing. Before joining the Urban label, Rifkind was director of alternative music, East Coast for Elektra Entertainment... Elm Records will be distributed by Caroline starting March 15... ●

Those at the 1994 Gavin Awards Banquet witnessed consultant Mike Joseph receive the Bill Gavin Heritage Award. Like he did more than several times during during the Seminar, Joseph pleaded with Top 40 programmers to never forget their teen listeners. So what happens when he left the hotel? Mike arrived at the airport and while in the lounge, met a fellow traveler, Mary O'Meara Miller, who was on her way to Maui. Coincidentally, she's from Darien, Conn., not far from Joseph's home in Westport. But the real kicker is Miller's job: home office director, youth marketing, for McDonalds!

Differences with new ownership over the direction of the station forced PD Keith Clark to resign at WJMO (now WZJM)-Cleveland. Look for Clark to market his Channel X concept, which got everyone's attention during the Top 40 crossover panel last weekend. He can be reached at (216) 289-9244.

On his return to Cincinnati with the award as Top 40 large market operations manager/program director of the year in hand, Q102's (WKRQ) Jimmy Steal also got confirmation that his station is now part of a duopoly. While Steal was gone, Q102's owner Great American, came to terms with Secret Communications and purchased crosstown A/C outlet, WWNK (WINK 94.1). It's interesting to note that when Steal arrived in town, WINK was beating Q102 handily, but in the last year has taken some solid hits. In the meantime, Q102 is enjoying its best ARB numbers in five years.

Following months and months of speculation it appears word of a new owner for Radio & Records is about to hit the street at any second. According to an L.A. Times report, New York-based Perry Partners will become the trade's new owners. Will the sale speed up introduction of the publication's on-line monitoring system?

What's Jerry Clifton up to in Las Vegas? There was a lot of convention buzz about the switch at former lite A/C, 94.1 KXTZ. Don't be surprised if the format fools a few people. And will one of the prime candidates for the PD post be swapping one desert for another?

It only made sense that someone well-acquainted with winning GAVIN Awards (four for MD of the year) would announce her new job at the Seminar. Liz Kiley, former operations manager for KKBT (THE BEAT)-Los Angeles, was named director radio affiliations for THE BOX by executive VP Les Garland. Liz will be offering radio stations the opportunity to tie-in with the cable music channel for all types of promotions, advertising, concert sponsorships and local public service campaigns. Kiley (pictured above) says, "I'm looking forward to working with radio stations to form alliances that will take music promotion to new levels—the opportunities are endless."

Just when it appeared that Bill McCown was headed to WNDU (U93)-South Bend, Ind. as PD, talks stalled and the station remains PD-less. Don't expect that to last long, though, as management is reportedly close to disclosing their choice for the job. Any chance he'll be from Wisconsin?

REO Speedwagon guitarist Bruce Hall was all smiles after leaving Superior Court in Los Angeles last Friday (February 18). A jury found in his favor on a claim that accounting firm Ernst & Young did not keep him "informed about financial matters." Hall was awarded $688,000 in damages.

Hot A/C KAYL/FM-Storm Lake, Iowa, moves to a new dial position March 1, going from 101.5 to 101.7 and calling itself, Iowa's Best FM, The New 101.7 KAYL.

Go to a convention and find out your station has been sold. That's what happened to Bruce St. James, PD/MD and afternoon talent at KJYK-Tucson, who also appeared the next day on the Top 40 crossover panel. Both KJYK and soft A/C sister KKLD (THE CLOUD), were purchased for $5.3 million by Apogee Communications, which is owned by Roy P. Disney.

When the Epic promotion staff gathered for meetings in New York City, they had no idea the company would be named Label Of The Year at this year's GAVIN Awards. Seen (center) wearing his priceless WMCA "Good Guys" sweatshirt is Epic VP, promotion Harvey Leeds. To his left, Dave Glew, chairman, Epic Records Group, and Epic VP, promotion Barbara Seltzer. Here they are cheering just in case they won. See—it paid off!

It'll be Alan Jackson instead of Janet Jackson for Hawk Harrison & Marty McFly. The duo is leaving their afternoon gig at POWER PIG (WFLZ)-Tampa to host mornings at Country powerhouse KNIX-Phoenix. POWER PIG PD B.J. Harris is now on the search for both a PM Drive talent and an MD. Send him T&Rs at the station: 4002-A Gandy Blvd., Tampa, FL 33611.

"Hitman" McKay is resurfacing on his home turf, Ocean City, Md. One year after getting the axe at 95.9KHI (WKHI), McKay has formed Ocean City Media. With a local businessman as his partner, McKay, who is president and GM of the firm, has announced the LMA of WRXK (X-107 JAMZ). "Slick" Chris Kelley, former 100KHI MD and PD at WMME/FM-Augusta, Me., will be operations manager. Expect a March 8 kickoff. Those interested in joining X-107's air staff should get off T&Rs quick to: X-107 JAMZ, P.O. Box 1991, Ocean City, MD 21842.

This time Kevin Davis says he's really leaving KLBQ-El Dorado, Ark. He's heading to 99KG (KSKG)-Salina, Kan. as morning personality and will also take on promotion and MD duties. That leaves the morning slot open at KLBQ. Send T&Rs to: KLBQ, 1904 W. Hillsboro, El Dorado, AR 71730.

Geffen Records, Marvel Comics and the Musicland/Sam Goody music chain are sponsoring a "Beavis & Butt-Head Look-Alike Contest" that started on February 1 and runs through February 28. Those participating have to submit a photo of themselves and/or a friend. Details are available at 1,000 Musicland/Sam Goody stores across the U.S. as well as in the new Beavis & Butt-Head Comics, that debuted January 18. The grand prize for the entry that sucks the least will include immortalization by Marvel artists in an upcoming issue of their Beavis & Butt-Head comic, which is expected to surpass the record-breaking sales of the Ren & Stimpy Comic. The album, The Beavis & Butt-Head Experience, out on Geffen Records since November 1993, has been certified platinum and is still selling...

A&M's Damn The Machine recorded Ten Years After's "I'd Love To Change The World" and King Crimson's "Cat Food" to be included on their new CD single "Silence." The single has been released to radio and is charting like a machine. Look for the band to tour the U.S. some more since they're back from an European tour with Dream Theater...

Mint Condition jumped into the opening act slot for Janet Jackson's world tour on February 3 after performing their new hit "U Send Me Swingin'" on the Arsenio Hall Show on February 2. The opening stint on Jackson's world tour gives Mint Condition the opportunity to perform their fusion of R&B, Pop, Soul, Rock and Roll and Jazz to a much wider audience...

Hollywood Records will release a new album, Freedom on March from Yothu Yindi. The band will be touring North America to promote the new album beginning April 7 in Florida. The college-oriented tour will extend from coast to coast, finishing up in Washington on May 15. Yothu Yindi seeks to preserve the sanctity of their 40,000-year-old culture while preaching tolerance and cooperation between all cultures. Most of the material on the new album was written during the most ambitious year of Yothu Yindi's career. It began in New York in 1992 representing Australia at the United Nations' launch of the International Year of the Indigenous People and ended in December by opening for the Grateful Dead in Oakland, Calif. Greenpeace recorded the track "Yolngu Boy" at that concert, using solar energy, for the Alternative NRG Greenpeace compilation album that's just hitting the streets now...

The first major tour of the year in the hard rock/metal category was Souls At Zero and I Mother Earth who stormed through the San Francisco Bay Area with a sold-out show at The Terminator. The new hotspot for hard rock in San Francisco has only had a few shows at the new location at 915 Columbus Avenue, site of Bill Graham's old club, Wolfgang's. It was Hard rock in a cool club. Capitol recording artists I Mother Earth released their debut album Dig in 1993 and have been touring steadily. The current club headlining tour is selling out consistently across the U.S. Dates are confirmed through February with more to be announced...

YES will release Talk, their first new album in nearly three years, on March 22 for Victory Music/PLG. Jon Anderson, Tony Kaye, Trevor Rabin, Chris Squire and Alan White were responsible for creating the most successful YES album to date with 1983's 90125. Produced by Rabin, the new album is a collection of songs said to be "carefully balanced between musicality and technology and furthered by inspiration, energy and imagination." Their new logo was designed by Peter Max, who has also created artwork for the Grammy Awards, the Superbowl and the World Cup for 1994. Following the release of the album, YES will announce the details of a worldwide tour beginning in South

What radio stations did you grow up listening to?

WOXI, WFOM, WSB

Who's the first deejay you remember listening to?

Hugh Jordan. He was with WFOM-Marietta, Ga. He was a former backup singer for Elvis and my band used to play at his club on weekends—Big Hugh Baby's Hop-A-Roonie.

What's the first record you remember buying?

"Green Onions" by Booker T. and the MG's

What was your first music industry job?

Being a roadie groupie for my dad's big band.

Your most memorable Grammy Awards moment?

Best moment:
Bonnie Raitt's sweep—after all those dues she paid—justice prevails.

Worst moment:

Jethro Tull wins the first Hard Rock Grammy.

Your proudest accomplishment to date:

Helping bring the Academy to a position of relevance through MusiCares, Grammy in the Schools, National Coalition for Music Education, archiving and preservation and adding over 5,000 members to NARAS in the last five years.

DJ Muggs of hardcore rappers Cypress Hill was kept from making a public presentation of $10,000 to Fernando Mateo, founder of the "Goods For Guns" program, because he was in a auto accident on his way to the ceremony. Muggs sustained no major injuries and is reported to be recovering at his home. Cypress Hill member B-Real flew from Los Angeles to New York to make the donation in DJ's place. According to B-Real, "All the guys in Cypress Hill have experienced street violence themselves. Our rhymes have described and exposed this violence to bring it to the attention of people to help change things for the better. We are against all violence, especially black on black violence, minority against minority violence, or kid against kid violence."...

Capricorn Records' Ian Moore is still selling out shows and selling records. With the release of his third single, "Harlem," forthcoming, filming of his first video is set to begin in Los Angeles with singer/actor Ice Cube in the director's chair. An avid environmentalist, Moore recently announced his commitment to Greenpeace whereby a portion of ticket sales from various shows on Ian's '94 tour will be donated to them for their various educational efforts. Tour dates are solid through March 2 with a show in Breckenridge, Colorado...

For you folks who aren't happy with your MTV there's hope on the horizon. EMI Music, PolyGram Holding Inc., Sony Software Corp., Ticketmaster Corp. and Warner Music Group have announced plans to form a partnership that will operate an advertiser-supported, 24-hour video music channel to be offered as a basic cable service in the U.S. and Puerto Rico. The channel will seek additional partners, including cable television operations, in the new venture. The launch of the new U.S. channel is anticipated by the fourth quarter of 1994. ●

Micheal Hutchence has recorded the Rolling Stones' "Paint It Black" for an album of Rolling Stones songs being put out by the London Symphony Orchestra

JANET JACKSON

March 1 will mark the fourth anniversary of the beginning of Janet Jackson's first concert tour, the "Janet Jackson Rhythm Nation World Tour" which began in Miami.

BILL MEDLEY

The soundtrack to Dirty Dancing, which included Bill Medley's duet with Jennifer Warnes, "(I've Had) The Time of My Life," has just passed sales of 11 million since it was released six and a half years ago.

BOB DYLAN

The Big Six accounting firm of Coopers & Lybrand has paid Bob Dylan an undisclosed sum for the right to use Richie Havens' version of his song "The Times They Are A Changin'" for their current television campaign.

AERO-SMITH

Between 1980 and 1984 Aerosmith was pretty much a dead issue, but a reunion of sorts took place ten years ago this month when the original players, Steve Tyler, Joe Perry, Brad Whitford, Tom Hamilton and Joey Kramer began rehearsing at a Howard Johnsons in Boston. Those sessions led to their triumphant "Back In The Saddle" reunion tour.

LINDA RONSTADT

Fifteen years ago this month Linda Ronstadt had a hit with Smokey Robinson's "Ooh, Baby Baby."

ONE LIFE TO LIVE

Nine of the ten songs on the One Life To Live album were featured in one episode of the popular daytime soap opera on February 15.

METALLICA

Metallica's Lars Ulrich, the son of a professional tennis player and a native of Denmark, was such a good tennis player himself that he represented his country in European juniors tournaments.

CELINE DION

Celine Dion has been nominated in three of the most significant categories in this year's Juno Awards, (the Canadian equivalent of the Grammys). She's nominated for Best Female Vocalist, Best Single ("Love Can Move Mountains") and Canadian Entertainer of The Year.

JULIO IGLESIAS

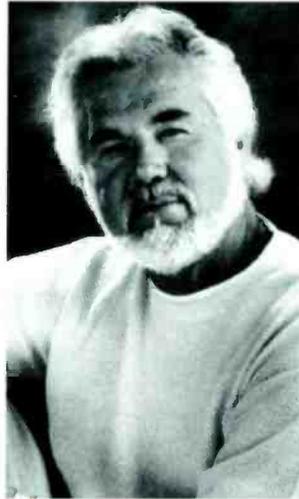

In late 1992 Julio Iglesias saw Ross Perot dancing with his daughter to the Patsy Cline version of Willie Nelson's "Crazy." So impressed was Julio that he's recorded the song and titled his album Crazy.

SQUEEZE

In 1974, east Londoners Chris Difford, Glenn Tilbrook and Squeeze played their first gig.

KENNY ROGERS

Kenny Rogers' next album will be a set of jazz standards produced by David Foster.

Inside Top 40

Intense, fun, educational, inspirational, musical, thought-provoking. Those were some of the words GAVIN Seminar attendees uttered as they left the St. Francis Hotel last Sunday, February 20. This week and next will be devoted to highlighting comments from the various Top 40 meetings.

The consensus from programmers on the "Small/Medium Market" panel was that being promotionally aggressive, both to the audience and the industry will get the labels' attention. The word that came up repeatedly was "relationship."

According to KTRS PD Martha Steele, developing quality relationships with the record community is the best way to insure that small-market stations won't get left out of the promotional mix. Elektra's Tracy Leshay, the lone record company representative on this panel, said her label backs up airplay by making sure product is available. She said that small markets are "a great testing ground," which, when a song proves successful, helps give her and others conviction when taking it to larger markets.

Other topics addressed included divulging the weekly number of spins, something panelist Mitch Cooley and his MD Mark Reid have been doing for quite some time at KQKY-Kearney, Neb. WSBG/FM's Steve McKay agreed that it's the station's responsibility to offer record companies that information. Co-moderator Pete Cosenza, who is leaving KC101 (WKCI)-New Haven next month to join Columbia, broached the subject of how sales and promotion work hand in hand. McKay said "make friends with your sales staff; just remember they're motivated by money." McKay also said he attends sales meetings regularly. Those lucky enough to work for a company like Cooley's, which he calls "extraordinary," is a profit-sharing plan that gives Mitch an added incentive to be a bottom line-oriented PD.

Though some time was spent deciding if Alternative is really the new Top 40, in the end no one seemed to care much. Rick Michaels, PD of THE END (WENZ)-Cleveland made it plain that he hates formatic labels, while KROQ's Kevin

Weatherly refused to get caught up in the debate and said, "KIIS is the Top 40 station in L.A. and KROQ is the Alternative station, but I don't worry about defining it."

When it comes to content, there was general agreement that the audience can see through the hype and the best policy is to be as real as possible.

Getting beyond labeling was also a subject of discussion at Friday's "Mainstream Top 40" discussion, and WPLJ's Mike Preston actually said, "When my station was no longer labeled Top 40 by some in the industry it allowed me and my staff to better focus on just being a good station—now we call ourselves successful." STAR 94's (WSTR) Tony Novia echoed the same feelings, summing things up by saying, "If you're making money and pulling high ratings, you're doing the job."

WAPE's Jeff McCartney spoke to what all the stations on the panel had in common: huge cume. "We can't survive on TSL and need to remember that Top 40 is a cume-driven format," he said.

Q102's (WKRQ) Jimmy Steal brought up the example of his "Time Warp Lunch Hour," when he plays those "Oh Wow" oldies to support the argument that it's crucial to get people to react emotionally when they listen. "If you remember that you can't fail," he said.

Former KHKS-Dallas PD J.J. McKay advised "being listener-friendly and avoid badmouthing other stations." He also gave a great deal of credit for his station's success to his staff, who went out to shake hands and got that personal contact with listeners.

On the subject of duopolies and how they will affect Top 40, McCartney said it has worked out great for him and allowed him to focus on his 18-34 female audience rather than try to spread himself too thin. WKSE's Brian Burns, who is about to encounter the duopoly experience, suggested remaining as optimistic as possible. "With duopolies being relatively new," he says, "it's best to stay open minded. Radio is a business—we should find common ground."

Airplay Analysis

It may have built an initial foundation at Alternative, but it's only taken the Counting Crows a few short weeks to prove "Mr. Jones" a stone cold hit at mainstream Top 40. Tony Novia and Lee Chesnut take it Top 20, showing 26 spins at STAR 94-Atlanta. Skip Carr, PD at WAVT- Pottsville, Penn. is tracking Top Ten sales and requests, reporting 40 plays without any dayparting. Another 50 ADDs indicates everyone is getting the message.

Another entry getting across-the-board acceptance is Big Mountain's "Baby I Love Your Way," charting #8 at 104 KRBE-Houston, based on 29 plays. Bruce Stevens at WBBQ-Augusta, Ga. gives it a nine-point move into his Top 25 and says, "the Reality Bites soundtrack is sold out e-v-e-r-y-w-h-e-r-e!" New on: 98PXY, WINK 104, WPST, XL106.7, HOT 102, WCIL, KISS/FM, WDJX, WYHY, KTRS, KWTX, KIXY/FM, SWEET 98, WKBQ and KGOT.

Witness the beginning of a long-term career for the Crash Test Dummies, who maintain a Number One ranking at KROQ-Los Angeles (30 spins). Twenty-five spins at I-95-Birmingham qualifies it for a 25-17 jump. Their appearance on Saturday Night Live last week came at just the right time. Gee, maybe there's a shot they'll bring back "Superman" someday.

There's an impressive list of ADDs for Tevin Campbell's "I'm Ready," which is showing early chart action at 92Q-Baltimore, B95-Fresno, POWER PIG-Tampa. KISS 108-Boston, HOT 97.7-San Jose and WWCP-Albany, N.Y.

It's full-time play for The Other Two at KX92-Alexandria, Minn., based on what MD Mike Lommen calls its "broad-based appeal." "Selfish" enters their Top 30 on the strength of 21 spins.

At stations where Beck doesn't rank Number One on the phones, he comes in either number two or number three. Nineteen ADDs including: B97-New Orleans, 98PXY-Rochester, KYYY-Bismarck, N.D., WBBQ-Augusta, Q99-Salt Lake City, SWEET 98-Omaha, KROC-Rochester, Minn. and more.

It's easy to figure out why Mitch Cooley and Mark Reid make Alice In Chains' "No Excuses" the week's high debut at KQKY-Kearney, Neb. It's Number One in requests, Number One at retail and is pulling 21 plays. It jumps 8-1 at THE END-Cleveland, getting 30 spins. It's also Top Three at KROQ, with ADDs at: WIFG, WKPQ, WIFX, KZMC, B96.9, 107 WIRX and WCIL. Be on the lookout for one of the catchiest songs of the year to drop on your desk soon. It's from some youngsters out of Miami called The Puppies. The track is titled, "Funky Y-2-C," and it's been picked up by Columbia/Chaos, complete with a slammin' video.

ARTIST PROFILE

FROM: Manchester, England

LABEL: Fontana/Mercury

LATEST SINGLE: "Laid"

CURRENT ALBUM: Laid

JAMES IS: Tim Booth, singer; Jim Glennie, bass; Larry Gott, guitar; David Baynton-Power, drums; Mark Hunter, keyboards; Saul Davies, violin.

ABOUT THE ALBUM: "Laid lives in the dreamy terrain Eno navigated on The Unforgettable Fire. But for all the beauty of that sparse environment, Laid connects so strongly because its beautiful melodies are sung honestly, without a trace of distance."

—Musician

ABOUT THEIR LIVE SHOW:

"Making a strong bid for Yankee recognition, U.K. sensation James made its L.A. debut, and if the sold-out Roxy throng was any indication, the gospel according to James is spreading like wildfire. James is a band to be reckoned with." —Hollywood Reporter

ON THE BAND'S LONGEVITY:

"We've always had this belief in what we do. Almost an arrogance. There were times when it felt like there was no place for us. We'd start feeling down, but then we'd walk into the rehearsal room and songs would appear. Wonderful songs. That's why we kept going. It's why we kept the faith." —Jim Glennie

Inside Urban

I want to thank all of you that participated in the 1994 Gavin Seminar. This year we helped make the gathering one of the biggest and the best ever. The Urban and Rap panel discussions were packed and yielded many good ideas and suggestions, some of which will be future column discussions. Since this was my first Seminar as a staffer, let me tell you it ain't as easy as it looks, but what great fun! I saw so many old friends it was as if we were having a reunion. I also got a chance to make a lot of new friends and an opportunity to meet face-to-face with some people that I've only spoken to on the phone. I had an opportunity to attend some of the showcases that were put on for the conference and if you didn't know, let me tell you, rap music is alive and large and getting much love and respect... Speaking of respect, I had a great time at Thembisa's appointment reception where there were so many well wishers on hand I couldn't keep up with the handshakes and good vibes...On Sunday (February 20), some friends gathered together in my name at Geoffrey's Inner Circle, one of Oakland's best night clubs, where I was feted for my appointment as editor of GAVIN's Black Music Department. I had a night to remember and I would like to thank all those who made the night special for me and my family, including John Austin, Kevin Clark, Geoffrey Pete, Darryl Jenkins and Main Attraction. Thank You all for making me feel special...Calling all program directors and music directors. Check out the Gavin Video magazine #3 for February, hosted by Thembisa and me. I hope you enjoy the flava...Before I forget, thanks again to George Ware, John Austin, Jack Gibson, Sidney Miller, "The Doctor" Jerry Boulding and J. J. Johnson for your help making the 1994 GAVIN Seminar one to remember...Peace, Bill!

Thanks to all who weathered blizzards, earthquakes, rain showers and floods to attend our ninth annual GAVIN Seminar and special thanks to those who made the "Urban lyric content: Who's responsible for the community?" session successful. We packed the room, with the help of Michelle Santosuosso, KKBT-Los Angeles, who moderated the session and coordinated panelists Quincy

PROGRAMMING EXTREME

Recently II D Extreme dropped by the busy WGCI studios to thank program director Elroy Smith for his support of their current single, "Let Me Love You." Pictured surrounding Smith is II D Extreme and MCA's regional promotion person Novice Johnson.

KICKIN' URBAN RADIO INTERNATIONALLY

During Saturday morning's Urban Radio meeting at the 1994 Gavin Seminar, attendees were able to ask questions about all aspects of Urban programming in the U.S. and were given a unique view of cable radio programming in Japan. Pictured l-r: panelists Andre LaTour, Usen Broadcasting, Japan; Guy Black, KKDA/FM-Dallas and Vinnie Brown, WRKS/FM-New York.

McCoy, WBLS-New York; Albie D., WPGC-Washington, D.C. and Michael Martin, WILD 107-San Francisco. Thanks for participating and offering educational insight into the radio biz AND for taking heated confrontation from ignorant individuals. Thanks to Erica Grayson of Sony Music for your A&R knowledge and Karen Mason, eastwest, for your marketing expertise. Thanks to Schoolly D and Jermaine Dupri for your uncensored artist perspective, and to Tyesh Harris, Sony Music, and Lisa Herndon, Terrie Williams Agency, for coordinating artist participation. Your efforts were appreciated. John

New Releases

FOR REAL You Don't Wanna Miss (A&M)

Making their recording debut, For Real is a female quartet whose vocals sizzle. Try to overlook comparisons to En Vogue, because the swinging R&B funk of "You Don't Wanna Miss" showcases For Real's unique and skillful vocal styling.

TEVIN CAMPBELL I'm Ready (Qwest/ Warner Bros.)

Following Tevin's Top 5 single "Shhh" is the title track to his sophomore album. Once again, Campbell works with Babyface and his associate Daryl Simmons to serve up a mid-tempo multi-format hit. This week's most added, out-of-the-box!

QUEEN LATIFAH Just Another Day (Motown)

Queen Latifah delivers a narrative of "another day" in her neighborhood. A laid-back melody accompanies her melodic choruses.

TANYA BLOUNT I'm Gonna Make You Mine (Polydor/PLG)

Freddie Jackson discovered Tanya, whose vocal style is similar to Mary J. Blige, and immediately signed her to his FJJ Productions. Blount works with Steve "Silk" Hurley on her debut single "I'm Gonna Make You Mine." The DJ Eddie F mix is also worth checking out.

COLOR ME BADD Groovy Now (Giant/Reprise)

CMB's Top 10 track "Choose" wasn't released to Urban Rasio, which has been waiting patiently for the group's next single. Finally, we're getting hit with the retro funk sounds of "Groovy Now," which reheats the sex u up theme.

RALPH TRESVANT When I Need Somebody (MCA)

Ralph Tresvant's single "When I Need Somebody" supports his "mack" standing. Tresvant's smooth, confident vocals give this mid-tempoed Jam & Lewis—produced track an automatic mass appeal.

THE MODERN JAZZ QUARTET Bags' Groove (Atlantic Jazz)

The Modern Jazz Quartet consists of musicians John Lewis, Milt Jackson, Percy Heath and Connie Kay. The group recorded this track back in June of '92 at New York's Power Station with guest vocalists Bobby McFerrin and Take 6. Choose between the album version and the edited version, since both create a smooth appeal.

It was great seeing so many A/C radio and record representatives at this year's GAVIN Seminar. It's always nice to meet first-time participants, and see our old acquaintances. CONGRATULATIONS to all our A/C winners (see page 17 for details). And if you missed this year's seminar don't hesitate to make plans in your '95 budget so that you'll be a part of next year's.

Richard Marx maintains his wide lead over all comers except the streaking Mariah Carey who is single-handedly narrowing the gap with her re-do of Nilsson's "Without You" Mariah's 209 stations is already second best in the format, and 98% of last week's players are in quality rotation.

Linda Ronstadt's (above) makeover of the '60s hit "Oh No, Not My Baby" is up a large 13 ranks the past two weeks, #20 to #7. Eighty-eight percent of its 159 players report quality rotations.

Bruce Springsteen's haunting, Oscar-nominated "Streets Of Philadelphia" is now a top ten item with A/C radio. Even without about 60 stations, it's proving itself on the Records which receive the greatest increase in Hit Factor air where played. Check out the latest 21 ADDS like KBLQ, KELO, KXLK, WJBR, WBDX, KLTA and KLWN.

HOTTEST track in the format over the past two weeks is Sting's wonderful perennial valentine, "Shape Of My Heart" which has gone from #35 to #17 in the last nine working days. Two weeks ago its HIT FAC-TOR was 29% and now it's a whopping 73%.

Another strong two-week move is the 14-point leap by Jackson Browne's "My Problem Is You." Its three-fourths HIT FACTOR comes with major rotation commitments from the likes of WSKY, K103, KXYQ, KEYW, WCSO and WSUL.

Last issue's TOP TIP is, as predicted, the format's highest chart debut at #37. Karla Bonoff's "Standing Right Next To Me" is now HIT FACTORED by more than half of all players including WELL, KFOR, KMG, WAHR, WFER, WMT/FM, KXYQ, WLEV and KTID.

The only other debut on the chart this tough holiday week is Chris Walker's (left) wonderful ballad "How Do You Heal A Broken Heart?" A 53% HIT FACTOR makes it happen. Early believers include WTSX, WLDR, WQLR, WOBM, WCKQ and KVIL.

Last issue's RECORD TO WATCH, "When Two And Two Are Five" by The Story (Jennifer Kimball and Jonatha Brooke), moved into CHARTBOUND with 68 total stations, 21 of those new. ADDS this week from WCTW, WHFX, KLSS, KSDN, WJER, KELI, KLOG and KVYN/FM to list a few.

RECORD TO WATCH this week is Big Mountain's (above) "Baby I Love Your Way" with 44 A/C playing. This remake of Peter Frampton's 1976 hit, featured on the Reality Bites soundtrack, is now on a WGMT, WMVA, WZDQ, KOEL, KSCB, WEAL, KMG, and KKR.

New Releases

BONNIE RAITT
"Love Sneakin' Up On You"
 (Capitol)

Bonnie gets up and down with this funky preface to her next album, Longing In Their Hearts. How great it is to have a beat-driven fresh track from one of our format's icons.

CHRIS ISAAK
"San Francisco Days" (Reprise)

One of the most successful entries in this year's A/C Juke Box Jury at our Seminar. This track picks up the usually plodding pace of Isaak's past singles without sacrificing the expressive nature of his vocals.

CLIVE GRIFFIN
"We Don't Know How To Say Goodbye" (550 Music/Epic)

A power ballad from the pen of Diane Warren is presented in a passionate and soaring production.

TEVIN CAMPBELL
"I'm Ready" (Qwest/Warner Bros.)

Tevin may indeed be "ready" for his first certified adult hit. The Babyface composition seems tailor-made for Tevin's coming-out party.

Inside Connections

Big Mountain

This issue's Connections chart is somewhat flat because 86 of a possible 527 playlists were frozen because of the GAVIN Seminar and Presidents' Day. Despite the lack of a fresh list from a sixth of the panel, we still have Big Mountain scoring 59 Top 40 ADDs and Michael Bolton capping A/C with 57 new. Big Mountain's "Baby I Love Your Way" is the only single to share top ten most added status between A/C and Top 40.

Janet Jackson and as half their charts. This week they have only 12 singles in common and only three of Top 40's top ten. Is that a good sign?

GAVIN GO chart activity is highlighted by the new #1, Mariah Carey's "Without You," the new top 10 status for Mr. Big's "Ain't See Love

Melissa Etheridge

Like That," and Melissa Etheridge's #11 for "Come To My Window." Other standouts include the #19 ranking for Little Texas, who's at just #27 on the main chart, and INXS' debut at #32, at least a week ahead of its main chart entry.—RON FELL

Sometimes even we in the business tend to think of the disc jockey as a convenient and inexpensive alternative to complicated machinery. And, conversely, sometimes we believe that well-designed computer automation can successfully reproduce what a disc jockey does.

Admittedly there are stations where you'd be hard-pressed to know whether the disc jockey is live or recorded; but that isn't a triumph of technology so much as a degradation of the "art" of the disc jockey. In fact, since radio is a one-to-one medium supremely above everything else, the only stations where machinery can fully replace a live communicator on the air are ones where the one-to-one relationship has already been compromised.

And a generation of personalities who have been trained to say nothing that isn't written down on a liner card doesn't make winning with live, local radio any easier!

However, the duty of a live personality is to be relatable and topical to the listener on an intimate, one-to-one basis. A listener may not be able to tell (or care) whether a liner-reader is live, in a satellite studio far away, or recorded, but a listener certainly will relate well to someone who is relating to him or her and to the local community!

And, the art of the disc jockey is tying together the various elements that compose a radio show. Cold segues must blend because the music has to do the work all by itself, but when there's a disc jockey involved, even what today's PDs may think of as "train-wreck segues," (which yesterday's Top 40 PDs correctly believed were the reason the format worked as a mass-appeal medium, by dramatizing the variety inherent in the format) can work very well indeed. What provides the transition—and more than that, the glue that pulls together a bunch of songs, recorded spots, time checks, traffic reports, and other miscellaneous audio elements, and makes them into a whole that is greater than its parts is their local disc jockey.

The disc jockey does that with the same technique used in producing recording commercials. The disc jockey reacts to the tempo, energy level, rhythm and content of the music and other elements he or she is surrounded by. And although the air talent is doing the reacting, it sounds to the listener as if the music and other elements are reacting to the disc jockey.

That's why a record intro talkover, if done correctly, is never objectionable to the listener—because it sounds as if the announcer belongs there, and the music is accompanying him or her.

But a talkover done while watching a clock or time can be very objectionable to the listener, since the announcer then seems to be trampling over the music—by ignoring what the music is doing and concentrating on the time left.

Most of the hosts of the national countdown shows voicetrack the programs to save time, but they usually do hear the record intros and exits in their headphones when they voice the parts that will be over music so they can react properly to the music.

As a result of all this, a well-done live disc jockey show is an entity to the listener, with the music and spots just a part of what's going on. That's what keeps listeners tuned in during the commercials. The airperson pulls it together and makes it move and flow. Machines can't do that. Not yet. If we're lucky, maybe not ever. ●

DAVID LEE MURPHY
"Just Once" (MCA)

Murphy co-wrote this cool rockin' song, and judging from his performance last week at the GAVIN seminar, this guy's got the goods. The only new artist featured on the 8 Seconds soundtrack.

BILLY DEAN
"Once In A While" (Liberty)

This ballad was written by Steve Dorff and John Bettis for the 8 Seconds soundtrack, and Billy Dean gives it the full-blown treatment. Those who have seen the film will really appreciate the lyrics.

TOBY KEITH
"I Wish I Didn't Know" (Mercury)

Keith has a soulful groove going; his voice and style are becoming a familiar—and welcome—fixture on the Country charts.

WILLIE NELSON
"Afraid" (Justice)

Moonlight Becomes You, Willie's "follow-up to Stardust" is full of gems like this wonderful version of this classic. Plus, if you can figure out how it works, the CD features a hidden high-tech message from Willie.

KEVIN MONTGOMERY
"Red-Blooded American Boy" (A&M)

At first listen this seems a strange choice for a debut single, but if you listen closer, "Red-Blooded American Boy" can cast a spell. Montgomery has a sweet, vulnerable voice and the song has a nice Steve Forbert/introspective-Springsteen feel

JOHN MICHAEL MONTGOMERY

Kickin' It Up

BY CYNDI HOELZLE

What could be better? It's Valentine's Day, and I'm about to interview John Michael Montgomery. Naturally I have to ask Country's newest heartthrob if he has a valentine. "My sweethearts are all those fans out there," John Michael says with a smile.

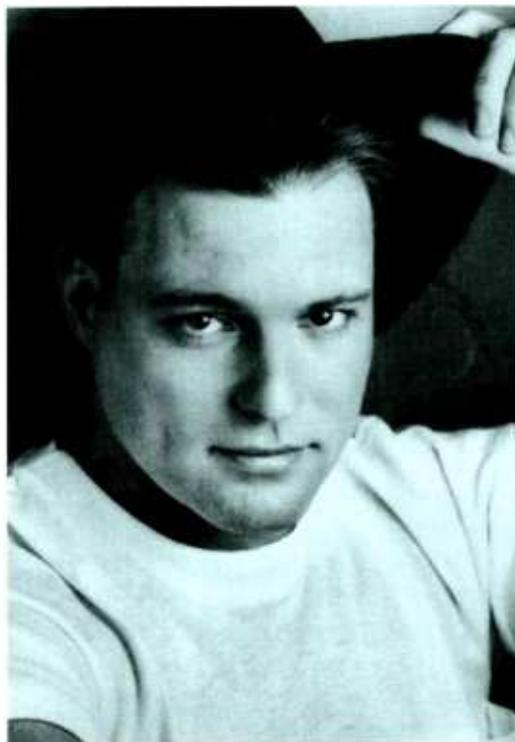

But, if there's no one in his life, how can he sing "I Love The Way You Love Me" and "I Swear" so convincingly?

"I think at 29 I've lived through enough to be able to sing a love song," he says simply. "I've been in love before. I know how good it feels when you're in love, and I know how it hurts when you fall out of love. ('I Swear' is) a real positive, true-love song. It's the kind of song that people in love will identify with. And for those who want to fall in love, I hope it makes them think, 'That's they way I want to be someday.' Being a bachelor, I know that's the way it makes me feel."

While it has been his love songs that have led to his phenomenal success, John Michael didn't want to become pigeon-holed into the "ballad singer" category. So he made sure his new album, Kickin' It Up, included lots of rockin' songs and captured the energy that he creates on stage. "Playing cover tunes in nightclubs made me a versatile singer and entertainer, and I wanted to show a little bit more of the rowdier side of me on this album," he says. "I've played everything from George Jones and Merle Haggard to Lynyrd Skynyrd, Eric Clapton, Bob Seger, and ZZ Top. Yet, I was influenced heavily by Lionel Richie, so I'm always going to sing those beautiful love songs. I hear songs like that and know immediately that I want to cut them."

John Michael has spent half his life performing. He grew up in Nicholasville, Kentucky and began playing with his parents' band when he was 15. He played guitar and sang a bit until his dad decided to retire and John Michael went solo.

He says music was all he ever did, and never considered getting a "real job"—and that sometimes meant sleeping in his car when his honky tonk wages couldn't pay the bills. "Yeah, sometimes I'd sleep in the car when the music just wasn't paying enough and I couldn't afford an apartment, or I ran out of gas," he laughs. "But I was young. It was no big deal. I don't want any sympathy over that at all. I was a young guy, I could sleep on concrete! Those were my 'paying the dues' days."

"I thought I would have to get out of here and go to Nashville and knock on a bunch of doors, and say, 'Hey, let me in, I've paid my dues,' " he continues. "But they came up here to Lexington and knocked on my door and said, 'Let me in.' " In fact, John Michael had created such a buzz in Lexington that Atlantic/Nashville's Rick Blackburn heard it down in Nashville, and went up to see him perform. And that, as they say, was that. Blackburn offered him a contract on the spot.

Of course, John Michael's stage show has changed a bit since those Kentucky nightclub days. Now he's opening for Reba, and has found that the audience is expecting a little more from him than they were when he fronted the house band. "In the honkytonks you have people coming out wanting to meet other people. I always just got up and did what I wanted to do—there really wasn't a whole lot of thinking about it. Now I've got to do more than just step on stage, I've got to be an entertainer. People have paid to come out, they're sitting down—they are watching every little move that I make!"

"A lot of people choreograph their shows," he continues. "The only way I 'choreograph' my shows is song-wise. I play certain songs to make the crowds' mood swing back and forth. It makes my night to look out there and see the fans looking back at me smiling. Right now we only do about 45 minutes, so I have to use my songs to my advantage. The show goes pretty quick. 'Course that seemed long last year when I only had one song!"

His stage show isn't the only thing that's changed for John Michael. In a year that was a little rough for new artists, Montgomery became the only new million-seller in 1993. Atlantic wisely released the smash "I Swear" to radio before Kickin' It Up was available, creating such a demand that the album sold platinum almost as soon as it hit the stores. Last year Montgomery was the only "first-year" artist nominated for the CMA's Horizon Award, and just recently, he picked up an American Music Award for Best New Country Artist, looking surprised and nervous as he picked up his award. "I was tore all to pieces!" he laughs. "I had everything set perfect until I got up there behind the podium and I went all to hell. Then they give you a dummy award, that they use over and over again. I'm walking backstage, thinking it's mine, and all of the sudden this guy's grabbing it, saying he needed it! I said, 'What do you mean you need it? I just won it—it's mine!' Talk about the rookie of the year."

"My music has taken me farther than I ever expected. I really appreciate everybody giving me the chance, playing my music and giving the fans a chance to hear it. It gave me a chance to prove myself. I haven't met a radio person yet that I didn't like and I hope they, in return, think the same way of me. They are a big part of where I'm at today."

"It's all one team," he concludes. "All I want is to be able to go out and do my shows. As long as people are there and they enjoy what I'm doing, I'll be happy. It's that simple." ●

COUNTRY RADIO'S BIG ISSUES

For Country Radio Seminar week, we asked some key programmers (the nominees for the 1994 GAVIN Awards, if you're wondering where we got the list), for their thoughts on some issues facing the Country music community. The questions were (1) Do you think the format will continue to fragment, and, if so, is this a positive trend? and (2) What is the biggest issue facing the Country music industry in 1994? Next week we'll hear it from the record side.

Larry Pareigis, KRAK/KNCI-Sacramento

- I don't know about Country's fragmentation. I think it's just a very broad, accepting slice of the adult music picture. That said, I also think we'll see our first classic Country stations that play nothing but 1986-1991 era music by 1997. (We're living in a golden age of Country now.)
- The fight between those who believe in "new Country" and those who believe in playing a heavy dose of "gold" will continue. Whoever

What A Crying Shame

According to our respondents, the following artists are not getting the airplay they deserve:

1. Clinton Gregory
2. Bobbie Cryner
3. Merle Haggard
4. Neal McCoy
5. The Mavericks

"Clinton Gregory is a hit waiting to happen." — Buddy Owens, KNIX-Phoenix

"I don't understand why Bobbie Cryner didn't get played. She is the best new artist in a long while. And those folks who didn't play the last two Emmylou Harris songs ought to be ashamed." — Bob Moody, WPOC-Baltimore wins will either keep the industry blazing a trail or stop us dead in our tracks.

Bob Moody, WPOC-Baltimore

- In a few markets where Country is the dominant format, an album Country approach may work. Otherwise, I don't think a niche approach is likely to be profitable.
- The biggest issue is greed. There is now more concern over who owns the publishing to a song than over its quality. Full-time songwriters are being passed over so someone involved in the project can make more money. Songs are the key and if this trend continues, we're sunk.

Coyote Calhoun, WAMZ-Louisville

- I think for the most part we've gone about as far as we can go with mainstream Country formats/hot Country/old Country/A-C Country. I mean, what is left? If it keeps fragmenting even more, I don't think it would be a positive trend.

- The biggest issue is what to do with all these records coming out. We have more and more labels, which means more and more artists. Most stations, including ours, have added a few more slots for currents than we previously did, but with so much product out there it is impossible to play it all in a rotation where it's going to get recognized. Also, can we be successful playing so many artists that no one is familiar with yet?

Larry Daniels, KNIX-Phoenix

- If the popularity of country music increases any further, you can count on more fragmentation. Right now there are three viable positions: mainstream, young and oldies-based. Who knows what will come next, but I guarantee, someone is out there working on it this minute!

- The Nashville people continue to develop exciting talent that's fueling radio stations, TNN, CMT, local video shows and the national print media. But, we must continue to have artists who break out of the crowd to become "superstars." Those are the artists who become heroes of the national media. Garth did it, Billy Ray Cyrus did it and as long as artists like that step into the big spotlight, this genre will continue to expand.

Buddy Owens, KNIX-Phoenix

- I believe the format will continue to fragment. There are just too many artists and styles of music for it not to. With young Country, mainstream, oldies-based, and traditional based formats doing so well, there's got to be two or three more under a rock somewhere waiting to be turned over. Plus so many artists who have had success in the past who are just waiting for their turn again...it will happen.

- The biggest issue is how can we keep the music and the fresh, exciting new faces coming?

Greg Cole, WPOC-Baltimore

• I think the fragmenting is more like splintering. From the radio side, this is more competitive marketing-driven than listener-demanded. On the music industry side, Country during all its eras has been pretty self-regulating. Artists too far left or right of center tend to fall away while those closer to the center become part of a new mainstream.

- The biggest issue is getting too comfortable with our current success and losing sight of what brought us to this point: quality songs and honest artistry.

Dandallon, WRKZ-Hershey

• For many years Country music has fragmented and will probably continue to do so, yet it never reaches a danger point. It's like a pendulum that swings and eventually rights itself. Outlaw, urban cowboy, crossover, new traditionalist, etc. have all been positive trends that have added new dimensions to the format. As for the "hot-young" country, this too shall pass and will smoothly blend into this marvelous music called "Country."

- The biggest issue is too much "hot-young" Country. We must stop targeting younger demos who are fickle and without loyalty and pay more attention to the core listener.

Les Acree, WIVK-Knoxville

- No, the format will not continue to fragment.
- The biggest question is: have we stretched what we call Country too far to the rock side? And how far is too far?

No Rockin' Chair

There was absolutely no consensus among programmers about the oldest songs in their library, but the most mentioned names were Patsy Cline and George Strait's "Amarillo By Morning." Other than Patsy the oldest songs were played by WRGA (Johnny Cash's "Ring Of Fire") and KASE/FM (whose library dates back to 1970); KMPS plays nothing released before 1988.

"There's nothing wrong with playing Patsy Cline between Little Texas and John Berry. We do it. And our listeners love it." —Debbi Baker, KFAT-Corvallis

Tim Closson, B105-Cincinnati

- The format will continue to fragment, but it will have a limit. I see basically three types of Country formats, and that will still take time to establish. Beyond that point it would not be a positive trend. Otherwise, we'll become the 50 forms of music that Top 40 became.
- Radio needs to remain fresh, active and exciting while Nashville need to keep putting out killer product with mass appeal.

Tony Thomas, KMPS-Seattle

- Whatever is working is positive. Individual stations that are succeeding are coming from a particular direction. We have given the listener control of their radio by delivering specific music and moods on a regular basis. I don't think today's listener will accept too much of a broad-based approach.

- The biggest issue is not getting so full of ourselves that we forget to keep moving forward with what our listeners want.

Jon Allen, WGNA-Albany

- As more competitors come into each market, there will be more fragmentation. That in itself may not be good but the fact that Country is so strong, making more stations want to switch speaks well for the strength of the format.

- The biggest issue is changing the perception that it's still the format that it was ten years ago, and that Country listeners are low-class, poor and red-necks.

Brad Hansen, KASE-Austin

- The trend toward splintering the format has probably peaked.
- Stations must put a great deal of thought into balancing music rotations and going somewhat deeper into the gold lists.

Don Briscar, WRGA-Rome

- I think we are through the worst of it. With the re-emergence of good songs by artists like George Jones and Merle Haggard and Charley Pride, a good programmer will play good songs and even the Country programmers who limit their library to three to five years will have to play the good songs by the older artists because it is what the listener will want.
- The biggest issue is the failure of programmers to really listen to new music. Programmers show their ignorance by just limiting their playlist to name artists. Programmers need to take control back of their stations from the labels and

Radio Consults Its Crystal Ball

Here are the top five artists who, according to the nation's top programmers, are about to hit it BIG.

1. Rick Trevino

2. Faith Hill

3. Clay Walker

4. John Michael Montgomery

5. Neal McCoy

"I think Rick Trevino could be one of our next huge stars—he's phenomenally talented." — Larry Pareigis, KRAK/KNCI-Sacramento

"The response to Daron Norwood's first single has been huge in our area, and I look for big things from him." — Tony Thomas, KMPS/Seattle consultants and do what they think is best.

Jim Howie, WPCM/Burlington

- The more people that sample our format, the more potential listeners we can accrue.
- The biggest issue is staying focused on our identity. We have developed such a broad base over the past year, we need to protect the people who are the core; otherwise they go away. Can we afford that? I doubt it.

Debbie Baker, KFAT-Corvallis

- I have never felt more strongly about our positioning than I do right now. "Hot Country" is ready to blow up in everyone's faces. Listeners are all mentioning the way that station "Y" is sounding just like station "X." They're tired of the same 30-song playlist they're hearing up and down the FM dial.

John Michael Montgomery

- I think Country stations are going to become much more versatile. The artists coming into today's Country music are much more versatile artists, so radio, in return, will have to become more versatile to be able to handle artists. Because who wants to hear just a hundred traditional country singers all day long? I love hearing 'em, but give me some variety. It's going to more like pop radio was, except it's Country singers singing the music. I think it's great, that's what's going keep Country at the top like it is today.

HIS HOTTEST CHARACTER IS THE PITTS

BY NATALIE DUITSMAN

On the occasion of the CRS, we'd like to reintroduce our favorite character, Earl Pitts.

"Earl Pitts is everyone I knew growing up as a kid in Memphis," says Gary Burbank, the man of many voices. He's talking about one of his favorite voices heard on over 120 stations throughout the country. "I could sit around a table and do Earl Pitts, and they would say, 'What's so funny about that?' They think Earl saying, 'It makes me so sick I could Super Glue my tongue to a fire hydrant and spread Alpo all over my butt and wait for a pack of wild pit bulls to come along and lick it off,' is a pretty nice analogy. They don't realize it's supposed to be funny."

"People have told me that I do 406 voices," he says, "but I just do one voice and make it do different stuff."

"Earl Pitts Uhmerikun" is his full name, he's funny, sarcastic, outrageous, and he's Burbank's most bankable character. Burbank, who is the #1 rated afternoon jock at WLW in Cincinnati, began to develop character voices at a young age, listening to disc jockey Jack Parnell on WHBQ in Memphis. Parnell did characters, so Burbank decided he could put his own character voices to use. "My first radio stint was in 1964, and I tried to do a character named Orville Lawry. It wasn't the best character, but later on during my radio gypsy life, I started doing character commentaries and Earl Pitts developed."

As Burbank has shaped him, Pitts is not just your typical redneck. There's definitely something sinister about him. He's intelligent and has opinions that you may agree with, but never admit. "In reality, Earl's usually right," says Burbank. "The secret is that he has a lax way of arriving at his conclusion. I'm not a guy from Illinois doing a guy from the South's voice. I know these people, and I know people like him that are very intelligent."

Burbank says there are hardly any similarities between him and Earl. "I'm very wimpy," he says, "Earl's a character, and I leave any character I do at work. Yet when I'm performing Earl or writing with my partner in crime Tim Mizak, I'm never out of character. I understand who he is and I become Earl Pitts while I'm playing the part. People have told me that I do 406 voices," he says, "but I just do one voice and make it do different stuff. I've written a piece for a left-handed Hungarian wash woman. I'd say, 'okay, how does a left-handed Hungarian wash woman sound?' Somewhere in my life I'm sure I've run into one, and then it comes out."

Even though Earl is successfully syndicated and has become somewhat of a local hero in Cincinnati, Burbank sometimes underestimates the power of his character. "George Wendt from Cheers asked me to do some improv in Hamilton, Ohio," he recalls. "At first I said no because I felt intimidated. After all, Woody

Harrelson and some very established stand-up comedians were going to perform. But Wendt talked me into it, and there I was in character with my fake belly and mustache looking around at all these big names. They're looking at me like, 'who is this local clown?' I know they're thinking that 'cause I'm was thinking

"I'm not a guy from Illinois doing a guy from the South's voice. I know these people, and I know people like him that are very intelligent."

that too. They introduce George Wendt. Naturally the house explodes, 'Norm!' and I'm wondering if I should just slink out there and stand in the back. Then all of a sudden Wendt announces, 'And Earl Pitts Uhmerikun.' And, as the local newspaper wrote, 'The cheers were ten times stronger than for anyone.' I was flooded; I couldn't believe these people knew who I was. I walked on stage, and if I hiccuped I got huge laughs. I took a step and people would fall over laughing. It proved to me that Earl Pitts could be as powerful on stage as he was on the radio. Since then, I've done a few character appearances like a Pete Rose roast. I'm still very nervous because I'm used to working from a little room. But as soon as I walk out, people go nuts."

New Releases

SWEET SABLE Old Times' Sake (Street Life/Scotti Brothers)

Judging from the picture on the cover, Sable looks like she's too sweet to kick gritty lyrics like "I know you remember how we used to chill back then/smokin' a blunt and sippin' on a Heineken." But this young sister comes across with a strident, gospel-influenced tone. Contrasted with the relaxed feel of producer Nikke Nicole's bass-heavy yet playful tracks, this "hip-hop love song" has the potential to do well on an all-rap show, but it could really go a long way on urban mixshows to smooth out hip-hop's ruffness. The maxi offers versions with or without Nikke Nicole flexin' braggadocious flow, and for all the turntable tricksters, there's an irresistible a capella mix. MC SHAN Pee-nile Reunion b/w Don't Call It a Comeback (Livin'Large)

This onetime Juice Crew member still packs plenty of punch. Shan drops a double dose of the Vitamin C style with this "12", unleashing a hard-n-heavy posse cut along with a high-rolling brag-n-boast jam. "Pee-nile Reunion" teams Shan up with Strong Isle newcomer Diesel, old pro gangsta mack Kool G Rap and the pale faced chat masta Snow. This 4-man jailyard crew kick out the deep, knock-you-upside-the-head type lyrics over a massive bass-n-snare groove. The track comes in a Clean version that's ready for radio, a Dirty version for you late spinners and an a capella made especially for all the mixers. The B-side sees Shan on the resurrection tip, doing what he does best. Tossing off a fly rhyme over the Brand New Heavies "Gimme One of Those", Shan drops lyrics like: "Press your luck a get plucked like lint what kind of damage can yopu do with the I.Q. of an infant?", further proving that while he may have been out of the public eye for some time, he still hasn't lost his touch. —SPENCEDOOKEY

HOW SHAZZY GOT STARTED:

"I was twelve or thirteen. I used to go my boy's house and we'd sit down together and he'd play beats while I watched him. He and his friends would rap and make songs together. Then one day he asked me if I could rap. I didn't know, so I went home and tried it. Next thing I know, I was forming groups and writing rhymes for them."

RODNEY KENDRICK THE SECRETS OF RODNEY KENDRICK (VERVE/POLYGRAM)

Anyone who has seen Abbey Lincoln live in the recent past will know the name and distinctive sound of pianist Rodney Kendrick. And if you haven't or don't, you soon will, or should. There's the obvious nods to Monk and Weston, but there's a whole lot more and it's revealed in The Secrets Of Rodney Kendrick. He's got swing, inventive and aggressive solo lines, supportive and tasty comp chops and a great ear for a supporting cast. Alto saxophonist Kenny Garrett is his usual awesome self—creative, passionate and original. Cornetist Graham Haynes is well on his way to achieving the elusive goal of true originality and identity. Houston Person lends his distinctively soulful tenor sax sound to three of the nine tunes, while bassist Taurus Mateen and drummer Turu Alexander round out the group. Roy Hargrove, himself a new Verve member, gives a riveting performance on "Dig." With guests like Garrett (the real Kenny G) and Hargrove, boy, wouldn't we love to see Kendrick put this band on the road! We've got great tunes, great musicians and a great debut.

KEVYN LETTAU ANOTHER SEASON (JVC MUSIC)

Vocalist Kevyn Lettau has taken another step closer to being Jazz/A2's prime interpreter of pop/samba. Lettau's Brazilian influences dig deeper as she enlists such talents as Dori Caymmi and Rique Pantoja as writing partners on her stirring ode to "Ella" and the churning percussion vehicle, "Foundations Of Humanity" respectively. The cascading guitar solos by Ricardo Silveira on "Summer Dreams" is an instrumental high point, but the main focus is clearly Lettau's maturing vocal presentation. She displays the sweetness of Diana Ross, the crispness of Stevie Wonder and the power of Patti Austin, yet glides to dramatic heights without slipping into the exaggerated gospel-like, in-your-face vocal pitch that so many other contemporary female vocalists do. Another Season is filled with rigorous and challenging material. The instrumentation is skillfully coordinated by husband/producer/drummer Michael Shapiro. Our favorite? How about the jabbing moments of "You Don't Love Me Like You Used To Do?"

ROY HARGROVE & ANTONIO HART

THE TOKYO SESSIONS (NOVUS/RCA)

Since Antonio Hart has almost caught up with his friend and former band-leader Roy Hargrove in total solo recordings, it's apparent that from now on when they meet, co-billing is in order. On The Tokyo Sessions, perhaps Hargrove's last on Novus as he jumps over to Verve, Hart and Hargrove reunite both with each other as well as with two Japanese former classmates from their Berklee School of Music days—bassist Tomoyuki Shima and drummer Masahiko Osaka, who operate deep in the pocket throughout. All past studied tribute sessions aside, Roy and Antonio turn this release into a blow-out, free-for-all session. "Bohemia After Dark" and "The Work Song" feature Hargrove's blistering, cloud-piercing high notes. The band swings like a pendulum and there's plenty of echo in the mix to compensate for the alto sax and trumpet's high-end attack. Hargrove and Hart are so steeped into the early sixties bop sound that many ears would be hard pressed to categorize The Tokyo Sessions as a '90s recording.

THE BENOIT/FREEMAN PROJECT (GRP)

The kings of crescendo and pianissimo join forces on this new collaborative effort. David Benoit and the Rippington's Russ Freeman tap into the same kind of smooth spirit that brought chart-topping success to Fourplay. In fact, that's Fourplay's Nathan East handling bass duties throughout, save for one track. For maximum smoothness, A2 should check out "Smartypants," where Freeman fiddles with guitar octaves a la Lee Ritenour and Ronny Jordan. If the synth and horn accents still intrude, proceed to the cooler. Benoit-penned "It's The Thought That Counts." Benoit remains even-keeled throughout The Benoit/Freeman Project, supplying his amiable, lush fills on grand piano. Freeman gets a little itchy at times, squeezing a few extra notes into his lead guitar lines. A2 should also check out Kenny Loggins' soulful, almost R&B vocal performance on "When She Believed In Me."

ERLEND KRAUSER FLIGHT OF THE PHOENIX (HIGHER OCTAVE)

Times have changed for Adult Alternative. It used to be that doing a faithful rendition of a famous pop song bordered on blasphemy. If last week's A2 Jukebox Jury was any indication, Erlend Krauser's splendid remake of the Doors' "Riders Of The Storm" is A-okay. Krauser's Doors cover is spot-on in rhythm, tempo and keyboard texture. Krauser's guitar style on this and another cover, the Beatles' "Strawberry Fields Forever," is unobtrusive and exudes a stark atmospheric feel. "Samba Boulevard" sounds like the other more commercial tune of the package. While Erlend hangs a few mysterious notes out to dry in the intro, it ultimately weaves itself into a mass-appeal sounding jam.

KITTY MARGOLIS EVOLUTION (MAD-KAT)

In the great tradition of bebop scat singers, Kitty Margolis displays an uncanny ability to be the leading voice while fitting in effortlessly with her supporting cast as an additional instrumentalist. Possessing a warm vibrato, a playful demeanor and a risk-taking edge that separates her from the less-matured and less-inspired, Kitty's personality and tasteful interpretations come through on ballads as well as on scorches. Released on Mad-Kat Records, under the joint leadership of both Kitty and fellow San Francisco singer Madeline Eastman, Evolution features fourteen tracks, running from hop to bossa to blues. Some gems include Kitty and Joe Henderson on "I'm Old Fashioned"; Kitty's tonal crispness on "Anthropology"; and bassist Seward McCain and Kitty on a dripping duet, "You Don't Know What Love Is." There's a tasty A2 "Tristeza De Amar," a breezy "Gone With The Wind" on which Kitty trades fours with Henderson, and a confident rendition of "Where Do You Start." Evolution, currently enjoying a run up the Gavin jazz chart, is the key word when describing Margolis' development as a jazz vocalist.

well-attended A3 meetings. Our thanks to those who made the A3 portion of the GAVIN Seminar a success equal to that of the A3 Strategy Summit, which—by the way—will be held in Boulder one more year on August 18, 19 and 20.

Ten by climbing 18-11), Ben Harper (moving 29-23) and Sam Phillips (11 out-of-the-box adds). Look for future action by Booker T. & the MGs, who previewed half their new album at a smoking live set. Ditto the Mavericks and Junior Brown. Richard Barone, who recently enjoyed a good run on the Grid, was also around. Thanks to all for coming!

In case you missed the meeting, there were major moments at the On The GRIDDle session. This year's mood was even more analytical. Among songs that scored the highest were upcoming and current releases by Peter Himmelman (who barely missed a perfect score), the aforementioned Bruce Cockburn, the upcoming (can't wait!) Paula Cole, Denzil, Fury In The Slaughterhouse, Texas and the unique William Orbit revival.

And so it goes. It pays to maintain a high profile at the GAVIN Seminar. By reflecting the best of today and the exciting aspects of tomorrow, programmers and promotion folk alike are able to stay ahead of their competition as well as experience an extra dimension of this extraordinary format. We thank all of those who went the extra mile to join us. Your participation meant a lot to us.

A³ New Releases

Some Darn Good Music By Some Talented Women

Are you looking to beef up the female music quotient on the A³ horizon? Further on the horizon are some impressive releases by new artists Milla, Paula Cole and the femme-fronted Texas.

LOREENA MCKENNITT
"The Bonny Swans" (Warner Bros.)

One of the most beautiful songs so far this year is an all-out vocal by Loreena McKennitt. On "The Bonny Swans," McKennitt serenades us by stepping out from behind her arsenal of acoustic instruments and singing the daylights out of this traditional adaptation. It's a ballad that should transcend commercial and public radio boundaries. The entire album isn't due for another month, so that gives this song time to become a 1994 adult radio staple.

SAM PHILLIPS
"Baby I Can't Please You" EP (Virgin)

These tracks from the upcoming Martini's And Bikinis album reflect a midpoint between Sam Phillip's lavishly produced Virgin debut and her stark and avant-garde follow-up. On this five-track sampler, Sam visits the extremes—from catchy melodies to progressive intensity. As always, Sam delivers some trippy diversions, beautifully coloring the spectrums between "folk rock" and Hashbury hallucinations.

DOWNY MILDEW
Slow Sky (High Street)

Jenny Homer is the vocalist for Downy Mildew, a "sexually mixed" Los Angeles quintet that casts a quiet spell, weaving elements of the Smiths, New Order and the Sundays into a big adult music picture/tapestry. Alternative-based, the band's guitar work glides so that a song like "Left Foot Down" never gets too dissonant or heavy-handed. Rather, their music updates a psychedelic period beget by the Byrds and the Mamas & the Papas; something cool and harmonic.

Rock Releases

MANTISSA
"Land Of The Living"
(Polydor)

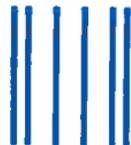

Most of you should have this single and the previous one, "Mary, Mary," and have discovered the likable qualities of this band from down under. Mantissa creates a smooth rock sound featuring steady guitar grooves that glide through slightly funky bass lines that tumble around loose tribal drumming. Already climbing the ladder of success at home in Australia, Mantissa is striving to do the same here with their authentic hard rock sound on "Land Of The Living," which showcases the imaginative guitar riffs of Chris Paine and Chris Collins. Nina Grant's bass and Syd Green's drumming contribute to the task of forming a little niche from which Adam Pringle delivers his mesmerizing vocals. More Mantissa tunes can be found on their latest release, Mossy God, which is sure to appeal to rock listeners, college and commercial.

SHOOTYZ GROOVE
"The Craze"
(Mercury)

The success the Judgement Night soundtrack achieved is proof that listeners dig the combination of rock and rap, and that's why Shootyz Groove are destined to appeal to your listeners with "The Craze." Featuring fast-paced guitars slams against funky back beats, Shootyz Groove develops an energetic sound that includes drum bashing and plenty of vocal yells that bounce off one another. Definitely more rock than rap. "The Craze isn't really rap in the traditional sense but more of a hip hop beat with Beastie Boy-type yelling vocals. This single offers a clean edit and the original version of the song so you don't have to worry about offending anyone even though it takes the fun out of it. Look for the full album sometime in May.

LINEUP:

Alain Johannes, guitars/voice;
bass/voice;
Jack Irons, drums

LABEL: Third Rail/Hollywood

PRODUCER: Pat McCarthy and the band

ALBUM: Eleven

SINGLES: "Let Down (Left Out, Laughed At)," "Reach Out" and "Ava Tar"

ALAIN JOHANNES TALKS ABOUT:

THE EARTHQUAKE: "If I leave the phone for any reason it's because of the aftershocks. When I was a kid I lived in Mexico City for a few years and we used to have those seven and eights. For some reason they used to be more fun. Just since I woke up we've already had five aftershocks in fifteen minutes. First off a few layers in your brain get stripped down and you get into basic survival mode."

THE COVER: "Jack Irons is really into marine life. He has major parts of his body covered with tattoos. Natasha reminds us of a spider with the way she gets around. It seems as if she has more than a couple of tentacles. The turtle image comes up for me a lot. I'm steady but slow-paced. Jack spent many hours on that cover and he'd never done anything like this before. I'm usually the one who doodles."

THEIR NEW SINGLE: "Both Natasha and I sing on this 'Let Down.' It's hard to tell anymore because our voices meld together so well. Natasha and I work on the music and lyrics and the song takes shape when we work on it with Jack. It was a true symbiosis on this album. Natasha's roots are classical piano and composition, the serious training you can only get at the Conservatory in Moscow. She has an amazing ear combined with perfect pitch and the influence of smuggled Jimi Hendrix and Led Zeppelin records."

RADIO: "Actually, it's very exciting. It was a little surprising. We're a very heavy band and play really hard. It's hard to perceive yourself so we didn't know how we'd fit. A little bit of what we do fits everywhere."

EARLY TOURING: "We had a chance early on to tour with Pearl Jam and Soundgarden. When the dust clears people will be able to put the great influence these bands have had on the scene into perspective. It's quite amazing how they've opened things up. I remember even in the '70s when we were listening to all the cool bands then, the charts were still top-heavy with Neil Diamond and Helen Reddy. The rock charts weren't really separate then."

SOUNDGARDEN: "It's really quite amazing and funny too. The guys in Soundgarden were influenced by the band What Is This that Jack Irons and I played in together after he left The Red Hot Chili Peppers. Sometimes I feel things have come full circle. Natasha plays clavier on "Long Time Coming" from their new record. Natasha and I rarely get affected in the way we used to just listened to something and can't function anymore. Their new album effected us that way. It's just unbelievable."

TOURING: "We're going out with Candlebox for three weeks. Then Soundgarden has asked us to go out with them when they go out in April or May. Instead of taking something that wasn't just right for us we held back but now it's starting to pick up again. This record is still really young in my mind and there's so much to cover. It's really strong and balanced. It's been a nice really slow build since we're most concerned about lasting."

MONSTER VOODOO MACHINE State Voodoo/State Control (D-Tribe/BMG)

Canadian rockers Monster Voodoo Machine (Adam Sewell, vocals; Jason Cuddy, guitar; Darren Quinn, guitar; Terry Landry, bass; Dean Bentley, drums and Stacey Hoskin sampler) churn out their version of '90s rock n roll on State Voodoo/State Control. According to the bio, MVM were inspired to create music because there weren't any bands that made music that was compatible to their listening habits. In other words, there wasn't anyone who rocked their world other than themselves. You may already be familiar with the band's monster rock sound from their first single, "Get On With It," which features aggressive drum bashing, vocal sneers and guitar slammin' routs. Combining grizzly guitar riffs with White Zombie-ish vocals wrapped in a cloak of industrial spuzz, Monster Voodoo Machine delivers heavy doses of rioting rock. College radio has already begun experimenting with this and, hopefully, commercial rock will follow. Check out both versions of "Get On With It," "Born Guilty" and "Voodoo." "Temple" and "This Ain't No Small Town" also deserve a listen.

FETISH 69 Antibody (Nuclear Blast)

Hailing from Graz, Austria, home of Arnold Scharenegger, is the metal/industrial band Fetish 69. European bands have been meshing elements of hard rock/metal and industrial music for years, but the style is still just beginning to catch on in this country. Fetish 69's boisterous approach is sure to inspire other industrial metal bands and turn on some new fans. This successful combination, which appeals to both metal and industrial listeners, will do well on college rock radio and should be played on more adventurous commercial rock stations. The band uses heavy guitar hooks that swing along with industrial sampling and vocals that fluctuate between harsh screams and mysterious low snarls. Tracks such as "Pig Blood!" and "Being Boiled" feature slow guitar grinds that crawl over industrially-fixed vocals and sampling. Fast tracks include "Versus Nature," "Stomachturner," "Wrecked Joe" "Hog Ditch" and the title track. If your listeners dig gruesome guitar atrocities, they'll dig Fetish 69.

WHO ROCKED AT GAVIN?

1994 marks the year that the GAVIN Seminar had its first GAVIN Rocks panels. Although there were only two panels, the content and the ideas that were shared were essential for shedding some light on where rock of the '90s is headed and possible techniques that could be used to better promote this format. Different formats of music have traditionally taken the spotlight away from hard rock and metal so it's important to find more creative avenues to get hard music out in the open. Steve Prue of Concrete Management said it best, "Don't bitch about yesterday. There are no rules except ones you make for yourself."

Knowledge is power. Find alternative, cheaper, cooler marketing

"13 Steps Lead Down" (Warner Bros.)

On his latest offering, Elvis Costello moves forward by stepping back into some comfortable shoes, and why not? The angels wanna wear 'em as much as the fans want to hear what over the years has become known as the Elvis Costello "sound." Attraction mainstays Steve Nieve, Bruce and Pete Thomas, as well as Nick Lowe, leave their fingerprints on this track, contributing to its authenticity—I haven't heard Elvis sound so, well, Elvis-like in quite some time, and I have to admit, it feels as good as it sounds. F.Y.I.—Brutal Youth is out on March 8, and there's a Spring tour in the works. Nice to have him—and his sound—back. Oh, and Elvis, thanks for shaving. —LINDA RYAN

LUCY'S FUR COAT
Jaundice (Relativity)

While San Diego has been commonly hailed (by this magazine, even) as "the next Seattle," the area has only recently spawned one huge, Nirvana-sized success story, and most SD residents dismiss Stone Temple Pilots as faux, since they moved to L.A. long ago. Who's next? Well, while many eyes are turned expectantly towards Rocket From The Crypt, I wouldn't be surprised if Lucy's Fur Coat slipped in success' back door. These five guys may have moved onto professional tracks (their bio emphasizes—nay, harps on—exactly how educated and professional they are), but they haven't forgotten how to have fun—the band bashes out Rocket and Stooges-inspired stuff that's revved up and toothy, melodic and catchy, gnarly and snarly. "Treasure Hands" is the single, but I prefer the less Paw-like and more memorable "Super" (and 91X seems to agree with me), as well as "Sensor" (mostly for the cool intro) and "Elementary." This isn't the kind of thing I usually dig on, but seeing Lucy's play "Super" live sold me.

—SEANA BARUTH

Further distancing themselves from former bands (Galaxy 500, the Feelies and the Chills), Luna's sophomore effort reads like the

1. SMASHING PUMPKINS - DISARM
2. GREEN DAY - LONGVIEW
3. THE CHARLATANS - CAN'T GET OUT OF BED
4. BECK - LOSER
5. THE LEMONHEADS - THE GREAT BIG NO

10. THERAPY? - NOWHERE

Door's second album Strange Days. With the pressure off, they relax and explore their own sound, resulting in mellower songs that depart from the tension found in their debut. "California (All The Way)" scratches a VUey riff and undulates on waves of a wah wah guitar. Dean Wareham's offhand vocal delivery steals the show on "Tiger Lily," and lines like "Tiger lily girl standing crosseyed in the corner" nuzzle against the guitar melody in a dreamy daze. "Friendly Advice" begins with an arching guitar solo and gurgling bass until Stanley Demeski's cymbal-stained drums dictate a rock-steady pace. Other highlights include the title track's xylophone and horn section that work against the backdrop of a delayed guitar, the acoustic guitar bounce of "This Time Around," and the forlorn organ that echoes through "Into The Fold." Luna packs a lunch and a punch live, and if their studio stuff sounds subdued to you, they should not be missed on their current tour. —DAVID BERAN

UNCLE JOE'S BIG OL' DRIVER
(Cargo/Headhunter)

I resisted using this lead sentence, but it's just too perfect: Uncle Joe's Big Ol' Driver is the ballsy-est four piece in San Diego, and you'll have to call Robbie at Cargo (619-483-9292) to get the translation. Anyway, as the liner notes point out, Uncle Joe's is an American band, and they cross a mid-'80s Minneapolis sensibility with punk-pop energy and snide style. Although that's not the most original concept ever, Uncle Joe's kicks the butts of pretenders (like the Junk Monkeys and the Goo Goo Dolls) by offering more humor, sincerity and suavity (is that a word?) and less outright apeishness. Groove to: "Don't Go," "Jersey" and "Possible Driving Song." This disc, as the last tune's title attests, would be the perfect complement to a cross-country haul, but somehow I don't think that's what the band's name refers to. —SEANA BARUTH

ABOUT IRELAND: "You get all these people singing about 'Oh, the mountains and the sea and bein' back in Dublin,' but these people live in cities.

Believe me, The Commitments is more like our version of Spinal Tap." —Andy Cairns

ON IRISH BANDS: "Cactus World News. Say that once. How can anybody go up to someone and say, 'Hello. I'm in Cactus World News.' You'd be ashamed of yourself! 'Hello. I'm in Cry Before Dawn!' Why not just say, 'Hello. I want to be Bono?' Have you heard that Negativland record (U2)? Casey Kasem—he's a genius!" —Andy Cairns

ABOUT THEIR MUSIC: "It used to take us a week to write a song because there were so many intricate chord changes. But then we said, 'Hold on, this is rubbish.' We don't want to become the Genesis of hardcore."

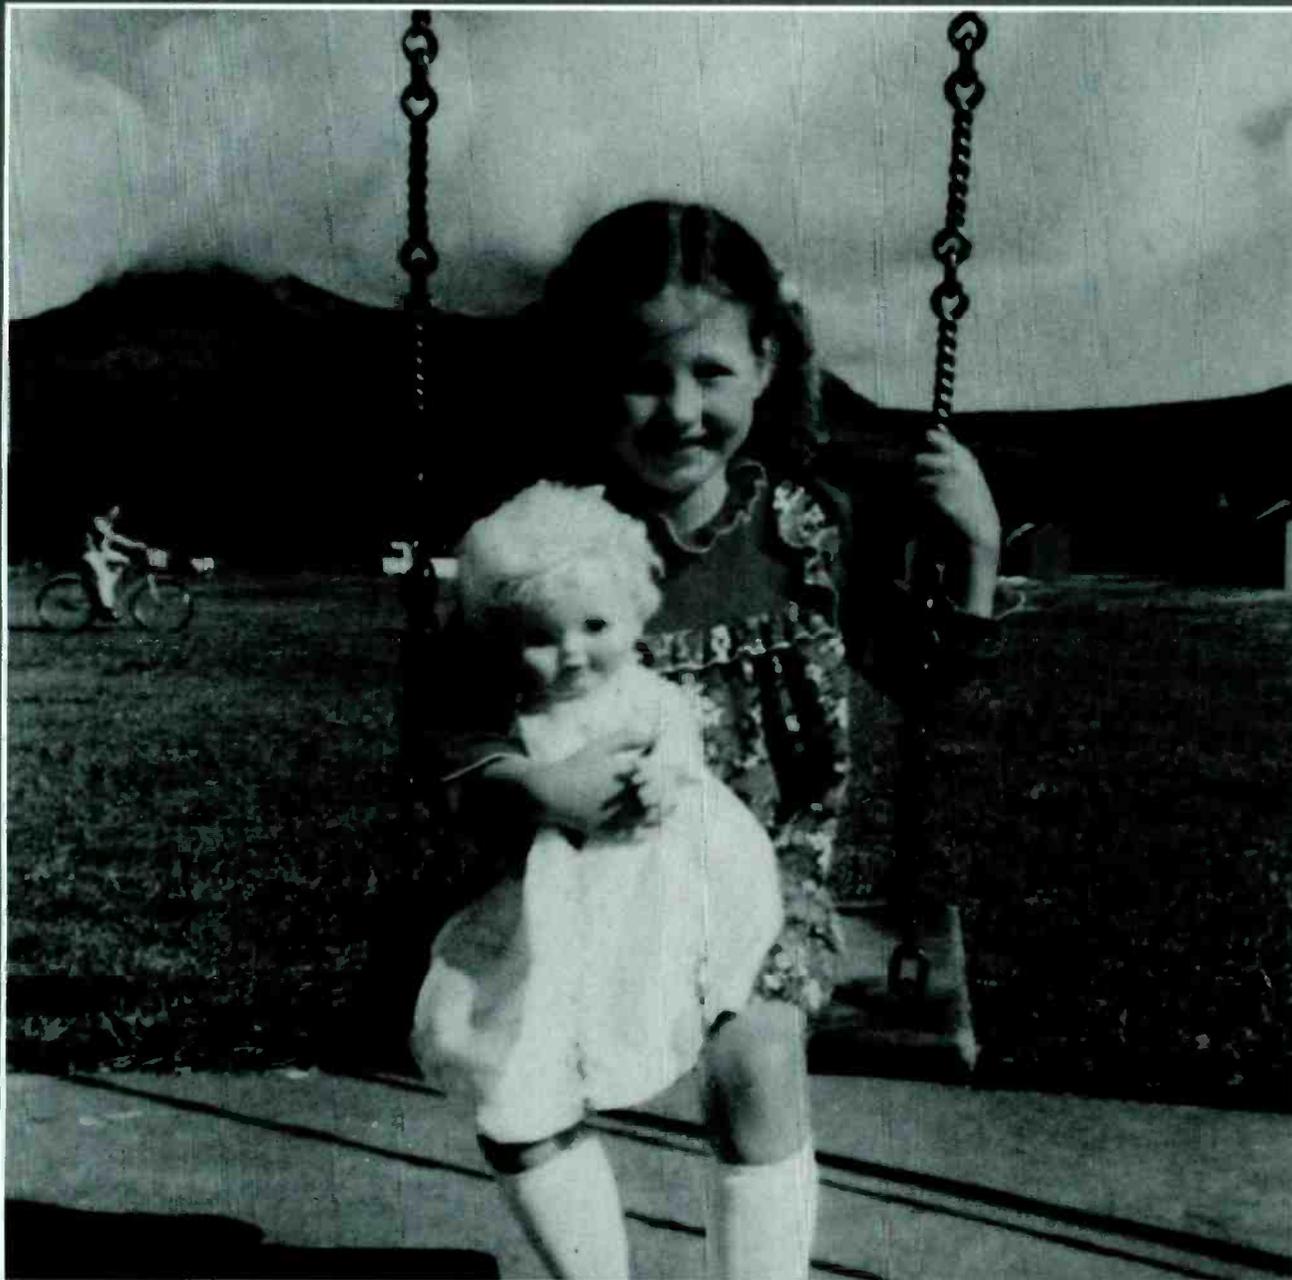

—Andy Cairns

ABOUT "NOWHERE":

"A little over two-and-a-half minutes long, it's bristling with energy and angst, and in possession of an opening guitar riff that is not dissimilar to Rainbow's 'Since You've Been Gone'—only 18 times faster."

When you think of artist breakthroughs, you think of Joshua Kadison. His “Jessie” will be around forever. It took a while, but quality must be nurtured. Audiences have adopted Josh & “Jessie” as their own. Josh has developed a loyal following over the last year with massive radio airplay, television performances, VH-1, MTV and touring.

AND NOW THE BREAKTHROUGH CLASSIC SONG YOU’VE ASKED FOR.

“Beautiful in My Eyes”

From Joshua Kadison

You can start playing it now and all eyes will light up.

P.S. This one won't take so long!
