and they pose some burning questions.

This Week

One of the TV stations here in San Francisco is selling its newscasts with the line, 'You've got questions, KPIX News has answers.' You've probably heard something along those lines where you live. Anyway, this issue, we've got questions and answers. First, there's our Gavin Only panel of Top 40 programmers.

These people have been tipping us, in the What's GOing On column, to what music's happening at their stations. Now, they get their own cover story. They talk radio and music, list faves of '94 (Sheryl Crow's ''All I Wanna Do' is the runaway winner), and ask questions of fellow PDs and execs. Bill Bravo (top) in Key West, Fla., asked Bon Benson, a VP at Jefferson-Pilot, owner of Atlanta's Star 94. 'What makes an aircheck stand out...when you're hiring talent?' Benson's tip: You've got about 30 seconds to make a good impression. In News, it's all in great GAVIN Seminar keynote speaker Strauss (middle) Zelnick, president and CEO of BMG Entertainment

North America. Also, we make three moves reflecting our dedication to keeping pace with country music's growth: a new Nashville office, a new chart, and a new country seminar. And on the Go charts, Jon Secada(above), Freedy Johnston, Martin Page and Dan Hartman are cooking, no question about it.

A little romance. A lot of harmony. One classic song.

Garth and Prince Gavin Salutes Country: In Limited Runs Nashville Office. New

BY BEVERLY MIRE

Now you see them, now you don't.

Adapting a promotional tool used widely in the home video market both Liberty and Warner Bros. Records—are—releasing albums for a limited period of time.

Flush with the success of a McDonald's promotion he took part in that sold three million of his CDs and cassettes, Garth Brooks has okayed a short-term release period for his greatest hits package, due out on Liberty Records December 20. It will be taken off the market by summer.

"Garth wanted to treat it as a special event," says his manager's spokesman Scott Stem. The strategy is designed to spark curiosity and lure new fans who, upon hearing Brooks' hits, will like him enough to buy catalog material.

Also looking to capitalize on consumer curiosity is the former Prince, whose The Black Album is available now but will be taken off the shelves at the end of January.

The artist's motivation is reportedly different than Brooks'. He and his label, Warner Bros. Records, have been embroiled in a sometimes bitter legal battle, and it's reported that the artist wants out of his contract. According to reports, Warner Bros.' senior vice president Bob Merlis has said that the limited release is the result of a compromise.

Brooks fans who are planning to use his album as stocking stuffers will have to stand in line early. Even retailers are disappointed that it won't be available until the 20th.

"It'll sell great, but if stores run out fast there's no chance to reorder before Christmas," says Wherehouse's Bob Bell.

Nashville Office, New Chart, New Seminar

BY BEN FONG-TORRES

In response to country music's spectacular growth in recent years, GAVIN has announced three new ventures:

- A new office in Nashville—the magazine's first branch since its founding 36 years ago in San Francisco;
- A new, country-based airplay chart called "Americana," focused on what GAVIN perceives as a new strand of music not currently covered on most mainstream country stations, and
- A GAVIN Country Seminar, modeled on GAVIN's annual general conference.

GAVIN announced the initiatives at a party last week at ASCAP's Nashville offices. The magazine's own office in Music City will be headed by Country Editor Cynd Hoelzle.

"We're excited to expand our presence in Nashville," said Hoelzle. "Gavix has always been committed to the country music community, and this new office will deepen that commitment."

The "Americana" chart, which will make its debut early next year, will track airplay for artists who, as GAVIN CEO David Dalton put it, "have not been able to find outlets for their music through the increasingly tight mainstream radio format. It's to provide an outlet for more album-oriented and songwriter-based artists."

The artists include legends now finding difficulty cracking country radio, including Merle Haggard and Johnny Cash; singer-songwriters like Lyle Lovett, Jim Lauderdale, Nanci Griffith, and Jimmie Dale Gilmore; country-based artists like Mary Chapin Carpenter, Emmylou Harris, and the Mavericks, and such stalwarts of independent labels as Robert Earl Keen and Alison Krauss.

While mainstream country stations may not be paying attention to many of these artists, they're heard on public radio, alternative, and the more adventurous country outlets.

Associate Editor Rob Bleetstein, who will edit the new section, explained its name. "It's American roots music, with a heritage and a history. 'Americana' is a term that's not musically defined. So it gives us a chance to create a definition."

Bleetstein joins Hoelzle and consulting editor Lisa Smith at GAVIN, which began paying attention to the music soon after its founder, the late Bill Gavin, attended the first convention of the Country Music Association in Nashville in 1958.

Now, the magazine has announced its own conference, with the first GAVIN Country Seminar set for next May in Burbank, Calif., in tandem with the Academy of Country Music awards.

The GAVIN Country Seminar, said Dalton, has no business connection with the ACM, "but we're producing it with their involvement and active encouragement. It adds a dimension to the televised event. For radio people, it makes for a very convenient trip to Los Angeles, to see the awards and get a lot done."

The Country Seminar, said Dalton, "will be smaller and more focused than the average seminar, which will give people an opportunity to get more work done."

GAVIN'S country awards, usually presented as part of the general GAVIN Seminar, will be announced instead at the Country Seminar, set for May 7-9 at the Burbank Hilton.

Strauss Zelnick, BMG Prez, To Keynote Gavin Seminar

Strauss Zelnick, the studio executive-turned multimedia entrepreneur who became president and CEO of BMG Entertainment North America early this year, will be the opening keynote speaker at the 1995 GAVIN Seminar.

"We are delighted to have Strauss as one of our keynotes," said GAVIN CEO David Dalton. "He'll add many insights to the Seminar. He can place radio and music into the context of the much-vaunted information superhighway, with his background in film and software, and, now at BMG, overseeing music and leading the company into movies and other media and entertainment forms."

Zelnick, 37, presides over Bertelsmann Music Group's worldwide music publishing and interactive entertainment as well as it.3 record companies as well as the North American operations of the RCA, Arista, Private Music and Zoo Entertainment labels. Before joining BMG January 2, he was president and CEO of Crystal Dynamics, a small interactive software company in Palo Alto, Calif. that became a leading producer and distributor under Zelnick. While at Crystal Dynamics, he did some consulting work for BMG Entertainment.

Zelnick served as president/CEO of 20th Century Fox from 1989 to 1992, and has also held top executive posts at Vestron Inc. and Columbia Pictures.

The GAVIN Seminar takes place in New Orleans February 15-18, 1995.

Stations Jump Gun on Pearl Jam's 'Vitalogy'

BY JENNIE RUGGLES

Pearl Jam's next album Vitalogy, due out December 6, stirred up a furor well in advance when radio stations, starting with KNDD-Seattle (hometown of the band's lead singer, Eddie Vedder), jumped the gun on Epic Records' official airdate.

KNDD ("The End") played the album nearly two weeks ago and drew a cease and desist order from an attorney representing Epic/Sony. Soon thereafter, KROQ-Los Angeles played the entire album twice on November 17. An hour later, KLOS played Vitalogy. After that, stations all over the country joined in the bold faced defiance of Epic.

"It doesn't really make or break the radio station (KROQ) that they played it prior to the release," says KLOS Program Director Carey Curelop. "But it makes everybody mad at Epic. People who didn't get the record early blamed the label or the promotion rep. They vent their anger somewhere and Epic's the closest dog to kick."

Besides having to field complaints from stations without advance copies of Pearl Jam, Epic may be forced into a rush release and a revised marketing plan. But Stu Bergen, director of Epic's alternative promotion, declined specifics, telling GAVIN, "I don't see how it's anybody's business other than Epic's and Pearl Jam's."

Kevin Weatherly, PD at KROQ, was tight-lipped about the source of the advance copy, but said he thought the early airing boosted his station's reputation

"The bottom line is we're here to do what we feel is the best thing for KROQ listeners, and a Pearl Jam release is a big event," he said. "We've earned a reputation for getting things early and we hope to do more in the future."

Former Bear Sues Mancow for $5M

Mancow Muller, who stirred things up in his time at KYLD (Wild 107)-San Francisco, hasn't taken long to shake up Chicago. The WRCX/FM morning personality drew a $5 million defamation lawsuit Monday (November 28) from former Chicago Bear Keith Van Horne.

The suit, which also names newscaster Irma Blanco and station owner Evergreen Media, came after on-air remarks Muller allegedly made about how Van Horne-coincidentally a fill-in host on Evergreen's WLUP/FM-"attacked" and "threatened to kill" him. Muller had previously commented on battery charges against the former lineman stemming from an incident in October at a suburban gas station.

Van Horne demanded an apology and retraction of the earlier remarks. Instead, the two locked horns outside WRCX's studios, and Mancow reportedly described Van Horne as "violent" and "trained in killing people."

Both Mike Fowler, GM of WRCX, and Larry Wert, GM of WLUP, withheld comment.

Cable Radio Ready To Reach into Cars

BY DAVID BERAN

Cable radio made quick inroads when it debuted in 1990, but it couldn't reach into cars. Now, CD Radio Inc. of Washington, D.C. is pioneering a commercial-free form of digital radio that could be tuned in via satellite and heard from virtually anywhere, including cars.

CD Radio has developed a wafer-sized antenna that would easily fit into cars and provide seamless transmitting, eliminating problems of interference and signal loss.

"There are fragmented audiences out there that aren't being served by broadcast radio," says David Margoles, chief executive of CD Radio.

"We intend to offer people an alternative and let them choose."

Margoles cites CNN and USA Today as good comparisons to the new technology because both are national, and initially were met with resistance. "People wondered what CNN would do to local news, but it hasn't suffered," he told GAVIN. "It expanded the pie instead of taking a huge slice of it, and that's what we intend to do."

The other companies pushing for satellite radio are American Mobile Radio, Digital Satellite Broadcasting and Primosphere. Their main hurdle is the FCC, which has not licensed broadcasting on the S (Satellite) band, and will probably not grant any before mid-1995. Although the NAB has lobbied the FCC to delay satellite radio so that broadcast radio can tap into digital technology, Margoles believes that there are underlying factors for the NAB's resistance.

Margoles feels that there is very little incentive for broadcasters to digitize, and it's an added cost. "The NAB perceives cable radio as a threat to their constituents the same way they opposed FM Radio and the way broadcast television opposed cable."

Margoles doesn't see CD Radio as a threat to commercial radio. "80 percent of the land mass of the U.S. has no radio signal, and we're initially going for the niche markets. Rural America, and ethnic and cultural minorities will be served by satellite radio."

Even after FCC licensing on the S band, it would take CD Radio three years to build a transmitting satellite. The service would operate much the same way cable radio does, offering some 50 channels of specialty formats, 30 of them music.

CD Radio's sole revenue would come from subscriber fees. "Our company is committed not to do advertising," says Margoles. "If we looked for national advertisers like Pepsi we wouldn't have the numbers to compete, and we couldn't advertise locally." Since 1990, CD Radio has spent $13 million and raised nearly $20 million.

KJAZ is Back—On Cable

KJAZ-Alameda, Calif., the pioneer jazz station that went off the air July 31, is back. But it's gone from FM to cable.

The station, born 35 years ago, was sold by owner Ron Cowan to Z-Spanish Broadcasting after an extraordinary public appeal for funds failed to save the station. But Cowan maintained the KJAZ calls and studios, and KJAZ staffers and supporters mounted another fund drive to get the station onto cable systems.

Some $180,000 was raised, Cowan chipped in a $300,000 loan, and on December 1, KJAZ was back on the first of 23 California systems that have agreed to carry the signal.

"We're starting fresh," said Cowan. The DJ lineup includes names familiar to KJAZ listeners, including Jerry Dean, John Rogers, Herb Wong, Bob Houlehan, and Bob Parlocha, whose Dinner Jazz was one of the station's most popular features.

Cowan said he intends to keep the station commercial-free and will instead seek corporate support. "That will give us a classier tone," he said."

The return of KJAZ became a reality when Viacom Cable signed on, hooking the station up to its systems in San Francisco, Marin, the East Bay and four other areas. Combined with other systems, all of them receiving its programming for free, KJAZ will reach north to Santa Rosa and south to Monterey. "That means KJAZ will reach more listeners than ever before, and with studio quality sound," said cable coordinator Erik Blangsted.

As for autobound jazz fans, they'll have to stay with KCSM/FM-San Mateo, itself an excellent jazz station. But, KJAZ engineer Doug Irwin says, "In a couple of years, everyone will probably have miniature receivers in their cars." (See story above.)

The KJAZ signal is also available by satellite coast-to-coast, and, according to Blangsted, systems in New York and Columbus, Ohio, have already signed up. "Efforts to build a national jazz network continue," he said

Jazz Dictionary is A Labor of Love

THE NEW GROVE DICTIONARY OF JAZZ Edited by Barry Kernfeld /St. Martin's Press

BY BEVERLY MIRE

The New Grove Dictionary of Jazz was originally published in 1988 as a two-volume limited edition that cost $350. Now available in one volume for $50, this encyclopedia is a must-have for jazz programmers and music fans.

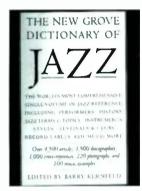

Gathering the information had to have been a labor of love for editor Barry Kernfeld. In addition to detailed profiles of jazz's most influential voices, Kernfeld and his contributors, among many other things, outline jazz styles and terms, explain playing techniques, chronicle the most influential and famous jazz clubs, and list jazz festivals around the world.

A typical entry is Kernfeld's straightforward explanation of circular breathing which he de-mystifies as "often no more than a gimmick," and warns that it is believed to have caused lung ailments in some performers.

His studies of jazz's greatest voices are admirable in their scope. People like Louis Armstrong. Duke Ellington and Nat "King" Cole are described so vividly you feel as if you knew them. This reporter's only criticism of the profiles is that they don't convey the racism many of these incredible artists were subiected to.

There's no quibbling with the entries, as popsters like Kenny G don't show up but musicians such as Frank Zappa are rightfully included. The book's only drawback is the one all volumes of this type suffer from: immediacy. Young artists such as the Harper Brothers and Joshua Redman are not included. But that is most likely due to the book's 1988 publishing date.

The New Grove Dictionary of Jazz is an impressive work. Kernfeld's more than 200 contributors come from all over the world and include names as familiar as critic Dave Marsh.

Another is Leonard Feather, whose Encyclopedia of Jazz first published in 1984, was known as the "jazz bible."

Like Feather's seminal work, The New Grove Dictionary of Jazz is a great read for anyone interesting in exploring the foundation of modern American music.

Stones Roll on Info Highway

The Rolling Stones became the first major rock band to appear live on the Internet, broadcasting 20 minutes of quirky audio and jerky video from a show at the Cotton Bowl November 18.

The trip into cyberspace, made to promote a recent payper-view broadcast on Showtime, gave the Stones a place in computer history, but also resulted in claims from several other bands saying they were the first to play live on the vast computer network. The earlier, but lesser-known bands are Severe Tire Damage, Deth Specula, and Sky Cries Mary.

Meantime, Aerosmith, which last July made a single available for downloading, took a tour of CompuServe, Prodigy, America Online and the Internet chatting with fans and offering prizes, with proceeds from connect fees and merchandise sales going to the Electronic Frontier Foundation, which supports free speech in cyberspace.

Songwriter Boyce Takes Own Life

Tommy Boyce, who with Bobby Hart wrote some of the biggest hit songs of the '60s, is dead. Boyce, who was 55, was found at his home in Nashville November 23 by his wife

Take That Takes Berlin

Take That, the RCA act that hasn't yet made a major dent on American charts, took the MTV European Music Award last week for best group. Mariah Carey won as best female star, Bryan Adams took best male star honors, Aerosmith won for best rock group, and Crash-Test Dummies won as breakthrough artist. Youssou'N Dour and Neneh Cherry won the best song award for "7 Seconds."

Take That, whose album, Everything Changes, has been on the charts in the UK for more than a year, topped the show broadcast from a huge tent in the center of Berlin, with Tom Jones as host.

MTV Europe reaches 61 million homes.

Grace Slick Gets $895,000 for Fire

What had been a horrible year for Grace Slick has brightened considerably. The former lead singer for Jefferson Airplane and Starship, whose home in Marin County was destroyed by fire last year, has settled a lawsuit against the county, and will receive $895,000.

The fire, started after two county workers accidentally touched off a brush fire while welding a gate on nearby county property, burned down not only Slick and husband Skip Johnson's $700,000 home, but destroyed personal property including such rock memorabilia as gold and platinum records and clothing once worn by John Lennon, and a collection of antique dolls.

Carolyn. He apparently died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound, and his wife said that he left a suicide note.

Boyce and Hart had their first hit with "Pretty Little Angel Eyes," a hit for Curtis Lee in 1961, but the duo were best known for their work with the Monkees, writing most of that madefor-TV group's hit records, beginning in 1966. As musical directors for the Don Kirshner-created series, they wrote "The Monkees Theme (Hey, Hey, We're the Monkees)," "Valleri," "Last Train to Clarksville" and "(I'm Not Your) Stepping Stone." Their credits also include Jay and the Americans' 1964 hit, "Come a Little Bit Closer."

As recording artists, Boyce and Hart had a Top 10 hit in 1967, "I Wonder What She's Doing Tonight." In the '70s, they helped round out a partial Monkees reunion tour with Mickey Dolenz and Davy Jones. After splitting with Hart, Boyce moved to England in the late '70s and worked as a producer with Iggy Pop and Meat Loaf.

"Tommy has left a wonderful legacy," said Roger Sovine, vice president of BMI Nashville. "We will miss him, but his music plays on."

Tupac Shot

Tupac Shakur was shot in the head, groin, thigh and hand during a reported robbery attempt outside a New York City recording studio on Wednesday (November 30). As we go to press the 22-year-old rapper/actor is in guarded condition, is conscious and is expected to survive. His manager was shot once in the stomach, but his condition is not known.

According to reports, at lease one of five bullets grazed Shakur's head and doctors were trying to determine how extensive the wound is. "He's conscious, he's alert, he's talking," said Bellevue Hospital administrator Wes Anglin. "His condition is still listed as guarded." "Guarded" is one level below critical condition.

New York City police are reportedly searching for the suspects, who held up Shakur and his 24-yearold manager Freddie Moore in a hallway.

His shooting is one of a series of troubling events for Shakur, who is currently up on a sexual assault and weapons charge. If convicted, Shakur faces up to 32 years in prison. In addition, he's scheduled to serve 10 days in Michigan jail for swinging a bat at another rapper. And he was arrested in April for carrying a loaded pistol.

Two weeks ago in this space we teased that the new PD of Wild 107 (KYLD)-San Francisco might well be a big surprise. Late Tuesday afternoon (November 29) word came down that former KSFO/AM and KYA/FM-San Francisco PD Bob Hamilton has been named to succeed Rick Thomas, Hamilton and Wild 107 GM Bob Visotcky worked together at the oldies outlet before its sale earlier this year. Well-versed in a number of formats, Hamilton programmed KRTH-Los Angeles and oversaw music for the RKO Radio chain before arriving in San Francisco in the mid-'80s. Does this announcement mean the Top 40 outlet is headed mainstream? Visotcky says, "Bob will take a mature approach to a youth audience." As to any possible format flip, he paraphrases 0.J. Simpson by saying, "Absolutely 100 percent no way."

News of Sony co-founder Akio Moritas' resignation paves the way for Sony president Norio Ohga to become chairman. While Sony Music turns record profits, its film operation is hurting. Meanwhile, is there a major announcement coming from the music division next week?

Talk about power, there's nothing botter right now that those saviors of the world, the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers. Now Atlantic has unleashed The Album: A Rock Adventure. Top-of-mind with kids and their parents, stations in several formats are playing around with it. Joe Dawson, PD at Top 40 KLYV-Dubuque, Iowa, tested it the other day and it came back 90 percent positive and familiar. Joe is playing track three, "Go Go Power Rangers." We hear he and MD Scott Thomas have all their Power Ranger moves down and will demonstrate them at the GAVIN Seminar in New Orleans.

Is KROQ-Los Angeles verrry close to naming that new MD? And when they do will the record industry count one less woman among its ranks?

What was Joel Denver doing in New York? Expect full disclosure next week.

Condolences to family, friends and the staff at WKOK AM/FM- Sunbury, Pa. on the untimely passing of PD and afternoon personality Rick Ricigliano. Rick died of a heart attack on Tuesday, November 29 at age 39.

Former WLUM-Milwaukee PD Tony Dee returns to Q96 (KSIQ/FM)- Imperial Valley, Calif. as station manager and says, "It's great to be back home." Tony will also be station manager of country-formatted KROP. "Dangerous" Dan Watson remains PD at Top 40 096.

Will KIXY/FM-San Angelo, Texas MD Jimi Jamm soon be rooting for those Cornhuskers of Nebraska? Will veteran Madison, Wis. programmer and air talent Jonathan Little be announcing his return to radio in the next several days?

Did you notice that photo in last week's People magazine of singer/songwriter Eric Eden with his wife Erin Murphy? Murphy played Elizabeth Montgomery's daughter as "Tabitha Stephens" in the '60s sitcom Bewitched.

Also on the "starwatch": Yes, that was KSAN-San Francisco morning personality Charlie Wilde escorting Exorcist star Linda Blair to the Reba McEntire concert a few weeks back.

Q100 (WQIC)-Lebanon, Pa. OM/PD/morning man Hank Bastian has left the building. Bets are that the Top 40 will change format. Meanwhile, Bastian awaits his next challenge. Reach him at (717) 738-3725.

Weekender Tommy Cage moves into afternoon drive at Q99 (KUTQ)-Salt Lake City, replacing MD Dr. Doug, who exits the station after a three-year stint.

KISS/FM (WRKS)-New York is now officially part of the Emmis chain.

What did the coroner find during the Jeffrey Dahmer autopsy?

Jimmy Hoffa!

Conquering the Fall Ratings Sweep

By John Lund

7 More Areas to Improve Ratings the Last Few Weeks

- •News is locally oriented and relates to the target listener. News talents write creatively in present tense and deliver flawless performances. The information sounds fresh, interesting, informational; it's delivered in an exciting format that stresses the call letters, news position, and contains live reports that sound urgent.
- Music is perfect. Every song played is among the best researched for the target demographic. The current hit roster features only music with the strongest appeal. Playing the best songs most-liked by your target will reinforce audience lovalty.
- •Know your target demo. Live the life group of your listener, and reflect listener "attitude". Each format and station has a unique audience. Know the core as well as those who are casual cumers. Regardless of format specialization, mass-appeal contemporary formats have no political tie or pre-ordained life group. Adult-programmed stations should not be overly experimental on music. Adults generally prefer familiar songs, thus these quotes may reflect the adult audience: "I don't know what I like, I like what I know." Familiarity breeds content!

- Weekends sound as good as weekdays. Weekends cannot become a dumping ground
- for "filler" programs and mediocre deejays. Listeners discover new stations on Saturday and Sunday. Excellent weekend programming is representative of the weekdays and encourages the new sample to become regular station partisans. Thus, weekend talents, syndicated programming. promotion and music must sound as good as weekdays.
- Prevent commercial tune-out. Adjust commercial unit maximums for the ratings sweep with fewer interruptions for better flow and TSL. Be competitive.
- The audio sounds excellent. Distorted, excessively-processed audio may cause listeners to tune away. (CDs. DAT, cable radio have made many listeners aware of how clean audio can be.) Tweak the on-air technical quality to sound clean and fresh.
- · Marketing. In order to garner a larger cume, many elements must be in place, including memorable and impactful utilization of TV, print, outdoor, telemarketing, direct mail, bumper stickers, and local listener involvement. The station should be everywhere — all major events, community activities, and constant sales promotions and personal appearances.

• Uniqueness. Every program element sounds fresh, hip, spirited, targeted to the demo, and local. Local relatability truly reflects the market. You search out promotional opportunities and appearances that capture a unique local awareness.

There is a certain dimension other than music that sets winning stations apart personalities, promotion, marketing, production, and the formatic feel are the vital signs that make top stations unique. Carefully pick your areas of dominance that you have over your competition, and nurture them.

Have a great Fall Sweep, and don't let up on December 14, the last day of the book. Keep up the momentum at least through the 23rd to truly conquer the rating sweep!

Coming up next week — New Year's Resolutions for Program Directors, Sales Managers, and General Managers... Realistic and actionable goals that should help improve the programming focus and station outlook for 1995.

Friends Of Radio

RAMON HERVEY

Company, Los Angeles

Hometown: Chicago

Who do you manage?

Vanessa Williams,
Babyface, Andrae Crouch,
Ex-Girlfriend, Spoken
Word and Qwest recording artist D-Knowledge, former AWB bassist Hamish
Stuart and singer/songwriter Yvette Cason, who is un-signed and touring with Babyface.

What stations do you listen to?

I skip around to keep up with format changes, DJs, etc. For listening pleasure, CD 101.9 in New York, and KACE in Los Angeles format.

What are your proudest achievements?

My early PR efforts for Bette Midler Richard Pryor and Rick James. Rejuvenating the career of Little Richard plus launching and overseeing Vanessa Williams' career after most people had written her off following her resignation as Miss America.

What is your most memorable career moment?

Watching Vanessa
Williams make her acceptance speech after she won the NAACP Image Award for Best New Female Artist.

What artist would you like to work with someday and why?

There aren't any artists I'm dying to work with, but I gravitate toward "artist types": solo, talented, multi-faceted people who have some vision or dream, are marketable, and believe in themselves and in us as a team.

Inside Top 40

I-98 (WILI/FM)-Willimantic, Conn. OM/PD Dave Evan has been involved with radio and music in the northeast since his college days in the late '60s, so he's witnessed many trends and cycles firsthand He programs a station that plays more crossover product than most GO stations, so he's consistently searching for urban/mainstream hits that don't have to be heavily dayparted. He reports that these days those records are hard to find, and claims that since the beginning of the year more and more releases have pushed the limit in terms of lyrics.

Evan cites as examples Brandy's "I Wanna Be Down," Changing Faces' "Stroke You Up" and C + C Music Factory's "Take A Toke."
Evan denies that he's too prudish or too sensitive, saying, "We're having a hard time using some of the hits. Explicit lyrics make it hard for stations like ours to program urban music."

Evan's especially frustrated because he's forced to restrict play on songs with great melodies that otherwise would receive full-time exposure. "The number of plays an urban smash like 'I Wanna Be Down' is getting on major market mainstream is often in single digits or in teens," he says. "I know those plays would increase if it weren't for dayparting restrictions based on lyrics."

Evan points to the massive popularity of a group like Boyz II Men, who can make a statement with "I'll Make Love To You" while not going over the line. Evan's not sure there's a solution to his dilemma, but he's convinced that urban artists should know how far most mainstream programmers can go. If they combine that knowledge with artistic freedom, some big urban hits would be even bigger.

What's GOing On

An overview of early indications from a select panel of GAVIN Only Correspondents

MARTHA STEELE, PD, KTRS-CASPER, WYO. "We added Royal Jelly's 'Ceiling.' 1 love it. It sounds like Duran Duran and it's uptempo! We also added Martin Page's In The House Of Stone And Light, which has such a mainstream sound—the type of music our listeners love. The Rolling Stones' 'You Got Me Rocking' is getting early response. mostly from women 25-30. KAHUNA, PD, KLRZ-LAROSE, LA. "We played 'Runnin' Away' by Nicole on Avenue Records just a few times last week to test it. We added it based on response we got on Make It Or Break It. We're testing Weezer's 'Buddy Holly,' which was getting calls before we aired it due to MTV and alternative play in the

DAVE CHRISTOPHER, PD, KSLY-SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIF. "Corona's 'Rhythm Of
The Night' started out slow, but it's kicking in now. The phones are building. It's a mass appeal pop song that balances all the rock titles out there right now. Toni Braxton's
I Belong To You' is reacting stronger and faster than 'How Many Ways' did. Slick production and a solid song from a superstar artist. It looks like it's headed into the top ten."

COSMO LEONE, PD, KGRS-BURLINGTON, IOWA "I love the new Madonna

('Take A Bow') and Dan Hartman's'The Love In You Eyes'—both should do well for us. Mariah Carey's Christmas release will be hot."

DAVE SHUMAN, MD, ISLE 95 (WJKC)-ST. CROIX, V.I. "We're getting great reaction to the Andru Donalds' record, which is perfect for all dayparts. We just added N II U's 'I Miss You, which eventually will work it's way into number one most played here." PD Beth Ann McBride flashes her personal fave: "So Blessed" from Mariah Carey's Emotions album. It's getting calls after being added three weeks ago. Beth Ann is also high on Sa-Yoko & Beenie Man's version of "Sukiyaki," which she'll send out to anyone who's interested. REX HOLIDAY, PD, WHHT-BOWLING GREEN, Ky. "Big three sales/requests/buzz items are from Corona, the Real McCoy and The Cranberries. Tom Petty's 'You Don't Know How It Feels,' Sting's 'When We Dance' and Aerosmith's 'Blind Man' are coming on fast. Watch out for The Proclaimers' 'Get Ready' from the Dumb And Dumber soundtrack. We played it three times and tracked good response.

Brent Ackerman, PD, KROC/FM-ROCHESTER, MINN. "Madonna's 'Take A Bow' could end up being one of her biggest ballads since 'Live To Tell.' We added the Rolling Stones' 'You Got Me Rocking' because this version really fits the station. We're also doing a big promotion around the tour which arrives here very

JEMINI THE GIFTED ONE Brooklyn Kids (Mercury)

Y'all are bobbin' your head to this and wondering, "who is this cat?" His name is Jemini The Gifted One, and for good reason. This kid comes from Brookyn with a lazy, slinky beat and a lyrical flow not to be slept on. He is named after his sign, and he does have a schizophrenic style: loyal to both old and new school, utilizing production with no geographical ties. Check for it on the EP Scars And Pain. #### ROUNDING UP: Arbitron's New Method

"The driving force behind these changes is to improve the precision of the target demographic cells."

ne of the nice things about writing this column is that I have the opportunity to explore for you some of the minutiae of radio audience measurement that can make a difference in the audience estimates. This article is a pristine example of that.

Arbitron is changing the method by which they round the estimates, effective with the Winter '95 survey. And folks, this can make a difference, particularly in smaller markets where the sample size is minimal. Previously, target audience estimates have had up to 16 rounding points since each target audience that was reported was the sum of the rounded cell estimate. The concern has been that each level of rounding introduces the potential for rounding error.

In radio, audience estimates are projected to the 100s column. In the book when you see a 24 it means that 2400 people were estimated to have been listening. When the estimate is rounded to the 100s, this means that a 49=0 and a 50=100. So, two competing stations can have the same 24(00) except one was really 2351 and the other 2449. Well, I guess we can all live with that rather than try to deal with un-rounded numbers, but how much error are we willing to accept when we do this?

Well, Arbitron thinks we aren't willing to accept too much and is changing the tape that third party processors use to prepare data for stations. They will add 23 new demographic targets and introduce "single point end result rounding." Let me translate this "Arbispeak." This means that each estimate will be rounded only once. Now, each age and sex cell is rounded and then summed up to create target demos. For example, to find out men 18-49, the computer programs add men 18-24 + men 25-34 + men 35-44 + men 45-49 = men 18-49. Starting in winter, this will not necessarily equate. Arbitron will round at men 18-49 and not do a rounding at the cell and add. Can this make a difference? In the extreme example, yes, see the table.

In this example, there is an improvement of 8.3% in the audience estimate and the only thing that has been done is change the method of rounding.

Brad Feldhaus, Arbitron's radio product manager, explained that "the driving force behind these changes is to improve the precision of the target demographic cells." Twenty-three new demographics added to the ones currently on the tape make a total of 44 demographics. The company is also taking a strong stand against any estimate. that is produced that is not on the tape. Third party processors will be required to have a disclaimer printed on any estimate that is produced that is not on the tape: "This audience estimate is a (user's name) modeled estimate produced from Arbitron copyrighted and proprietary estimates. It's not an Arbitron estimate."

Arbitron, in its letter to third party processors such as Tapscan and Strata, states that it "is interested in maintaining the high integrity of its copyrighted and proprietary estimates and data." The change to single point rounding will affect all Arbitron products, but the effect is most strongly felt on third party processors who must change their software to accommodate the changes.

Modifying the rounding procedure will help to reduce rounding error, but it may also help Arbitron market their new software due to hit the market in Winter '95. We wonder if there is a relationship.

COLOUR CLUB "Freedom Words" (JVC)

This is a hip-hop jazz tune with samples of Dr. King's "Free At Last" speech. Ronee Martin's lead and background vocals are outstanding. "Freedom Words" will be a nice addition to tempo-based A/Cs and some quiet storm programs. The sax licks over the simple but strong instrumentation make it easy to use in all dayparts on adult stations. All six cuts on the sampler are tasty, but my pick is the street mix. Upper demos will relate. Call JVC at (213)-878-0101 for a copy. (4:01)

Our Panel of Gavin Only Programmers Talk Top 40, Music, and Philosophy. And They Pose Some Burning Questions

The What's GOing On column, which we kicked off about six months ago, is our idea of a free-flow, free-throw line for a select group of GAVIN Only reporters, programmers who step up to the line each week and tell us what's going on, up, and down at their stations.

Now, with 1994 almost over, we decided to survey some of our key correspondents with questions about the immediate past and the foreseeable future, and about favorite music—both at their stations and in their homes:

- (1) WHAT WERE YOUR THREE FAVORITE SONGS OF 1994?
- (2) WHAT IS YOUR STATION'S GENERAL MUSIC PHILOSOPHY?
- (3) YOUR PREDICTION FOR 1995?
- (4) WHAT DO YOU LISTEN TO FOR PERSONAL ENJOYMENT?

We also asked each group member to pose a question to a fellow program director, and delivered the answer.

While space doesn't allow us to print every answer to every question, their responses should offer more insight into these "up and coming" programmers.

COMPILED BY ANNETTE M. LAI AND DAVE SHOLIN

BRENT ACKERMAN, PD. KROC LM ROCHESTER, MINN

"My three favorite songs of '94 are Sheryl Crow's 'Alf I Wanna Do.' John Mellencamp's 'Wild Nights' and Deadeye Dick's 'New Age Girl.'"

"We generally hold on to songs longer than we have in the past, We'll break new unusic when we think it'll 'fit' our station.

or it we see a buzz happening from other sources, but basically we just pound the hits. We like to do things on our agenda to fit our needs. I'd rather give my listeners a proven hit (step up the recurrents) than add a record just to fill a slot."

"For personal enjoyment I love nothing more than to listen to the sounds and voices of my own family. I don't ever want to get to the point where this business (or anything) consumes me so much that my priorities are mixed up and I neglect the most important things in my life."

BRAD ANDERSON, PD. KSSZ (KISS LM) FARGO, N.D.

"My three favorite times for the year are the Gir Blossoms' (Found Out About You," The Cranberries' (Dreans' and Salt-V-Pepa's (Whatta Man,"

"In a market dominated by the country format (the top three stations here are all country), we're the major source for new contemporary music. While we stick with a lot of research, retail sales reports and logs of request calls, etc., we aren't afraid of breaking new music. Deadeye Dick's 'New Age Girl' was a success story in our market. We were early believers and now it's a large hit here with top sales, I just wish we could find and add several songs like that every month."

"For 1995, I see more and more so-called alternative crossover hits. Top 40 needs a flood of new nursic and artists. It's that time again for a breath of Iresh air: A lot of what I hear from these artists sounds great and our listeners are demanding it more and more."

"This question is for any PD with an eye and an ear to the future:

RICK STACY, PD. KKER PHOENTY BISPONDS

"Top 40 doesn't need to be saved because the stations that are doing it right are doing it well, but there are two areas we have to work on. One is personality, which, with the exception of a tew people, is just about dead and that's going to become a bigger issue as more and more media is available to us. We have to develop high-profile, interesting, lumny and entertaining personalities or what's the point? Secondly, I think we have to get back to a tight and high-frequency rotation, but within those rotations take more chances on more of the edgier music and bring back some excitement to Top 40."

"In my gut, I don't think Top 10 can be a dominant format again, but I do think it can be number one in a lew markets. I think the most we can hope for is to be number one 48:31 women and that's where we dominate now. We can dominate in both 18:21 and 48:31 females. There are too many specialty formats now and we just can't gather enough quarter hours and get that coalition that we used to get."

DAVE BAVIDO, PD. WDEK 4 M DEKALB, Tel.

"My three favorite songs of 1994 are Soundgarden's 'Black Hole Sun,' Terence Trent D'Arby's 'Let Her Down Easy' and ZZ Top's 'Pincushion,'"

"Our general music philosophy is simple—give 'em what they want! More specifically, we try to failor the music for the correct daypart and demo that we're seeking. WDEK is a bit slower than we used to be when it comes to breaking new material. A conscious effort has been made to 'wait' on songs that we deem borderline add material. It proves that when you wait to make sure a song is a hit, the listeners respond."

"Personally, I listen to fold wave," 'Old wave' is 'new wave' when 'new wave' was new; Depeche Mode, New Orden Joy Division.
The Smiths, Ministry and The Cure are some of my tayes," "Here's a question for Chuck Geiger from KWNZ-Reno: When anditioning airchecks of talent looking for work, is the pedigree of your applicant pool acceptable, or do you, like me, have to sift through a million broadcast school graduates to find that one 'diamond in the rough?"

CHUCK GEIGER RESPONDS:

"It's a fittle of both, You've got to properly place and word an ad when you're looking for somebody with good experience. Also, you have to go through the broadcast school graduates because we've been able to hire some people here locally that have turned out to be just awesome. I'd take these people with me if I went to a major market today."

BILL BRAVO, PD. WFOW/FM KIA WISL TIA

"My three favorite songs of the year are fem 2 Fem's 'Waiting In Tangier' Haddaway's 'What Is Love,' and Mariah Carey's 'Without You.'"

"For personal listening enjoyment I enjoy talk radio station WIOD AM-Miami, Their signal is really strong in the Florida Keys and some of their talk show hosts (like Neil-Rogers) are excellent at practicing the art of 'entertaining talk radio.''

"I'd like to address this to Don Benson, corporate VP, operations for Jefferson-Pilot, which owns Star 91 (WSFR)-Atlanta: I've worked my entire seven-year radio career at WEOW FM, where I'm presently PD afternoon drive, I'm now considering a move to the Atlanta area. With my background, how difficult would it be to break into that market? Plus, what makes one aircheck stand out from another when you're hiring talent?"

DON RENSON RESPONDS

"Manta is a hard radio market to break into because it has the smallest amount of stations, which makes it tougher to land a gig. However, I think there's always room for good people and you need to get in the door anyway you can. Once you're in the door, it's amazing how work within the station seems to find you if you're a decent person.

"As far as airchecks are concerned, don't be overly long and put your good stuff near the Iront, People who are bombarded with tapes will wind up listening to only the first few breaks. You only get one chance to make a good impression and it's usually the first 30-seconds of your tape."

SKIP CARR. APD/MD. WAVE POLISVILLE. PA.

"It's hard to pick just three songs for the whole year, so here's four! My 1994 favorites are Primal Scream's 'Rocks.' Sting's 'Nothing 'Bout Me,' Bonnie Baitt's 'Love Sneakin' Up On You' and the Stereo MC's 'Connected.' (Well, it kind of stretched into '949''

"For this market, my philosophy is 'play as much music with as little repetition as possible.' We're the only high-power FM in the region, so people tend to listen to us for LOVG periods of time. If we start repeating the same songs every two to three homs, we hear about it! As far as breaking new music, we pretty much lead the pack, However I think there's a certain fine that we shouldn't cross—and that's in playing too many unfamiliar artists and songs at any one period of time. I get concerned when people ask me, 'What kind of music does your station play?"

"Aside from the fact that my hair will turn more gray, 4 predict that we'll see the continuation of alternative music crossover into the mainstream Top 40 arena. And of course, more '70s music stations will pop up everywhere."

DAVE CHRISTOPHER, PD. KSEA SAN LUS OBISPO, CALIE.

"My fliree favorites of 1994 are Ace Of Base's The Sign." Ini Kamoze's 'Here Comes The Hotstepper' and Shory! Crow's 'All I Wanna Do.'"

"My general music philosophy is to find the biggest songs from the different styles of music that Top 40 encompasses, keep the station very familiar, yet fresh, Maintain a balance of the types of songs, When choosing to take a chance on a song early, do it on a song that brings something unique and fresh to your station."

"I get a lot of satisfaction from listening to my stations and enjoying the finished product that Tve helped build. For a break however, I'll sometimes listen to country stations."

"I have a question for Dave Shakes, OM for K-101 and KMEL. San Francisco. The stations in my Top 40-A C duopoly share a lot of the same music tmore than yours does). What percentage do you think is okay to share, without blurring each station's unique position?"

DAVE SHAKES RESPONDS.

"I don't think of music in terms of arithmetic or percentages. If you feel like there is even a question about this, then perhaps there is a problem, but I wouldn't want to lead you astray with an actual percentage figure."

STEVE GREINSKY, PD, WGRG BINGHAVION, N.Y.

"My three favorite songs for the year are the Counting Crows". Mr. Jones, The Gin Blossoms, Found Out, Mout You, Getually,

"My prediction for 1995 is that downsizing will continue in both radio and records. Having good cars is no longer enough. Those of us in radio must continue growing as business people."

anything by the Gin Blossoms) and Hootie & The Blowfish's 'Hold My Hand.''

"Our music philosophy is do what the listener wants! We keep very good track of our listeners' response to the music. So, if we're not playing something and we're getting calls on it, we investigate—sales plays an important role in our decisions. Tempo has been the number one concern for us this year. Listeners have been very vocal about tempo. That's why certain ballads don't get on the station very fast and don't get the amount of spins that the labels would like. No wimpy music need apply here. Also, a lot of gut feeling goes into whether a song gets played out of the box, or if we wait and see. We're getting on songs much faster now. If a time has our station's bound,' it's got a great shot."

"I listen to WGRG (Power 101), I like it. At night, I used to watch video channels occasionally, but these days, 'Where's the videos?' I can't wait to see a new video channel in 1995."

MIKE GOLLD, PD. KWWW (KW3) WENAIGHTE, WASH,

"My three favorite songs of 1994 are Sheryl Crow's 'All I Wanna Do.' the Rolling Stones' 'Love Is Strong' and Little Texas' 'What Might Have Been.'"

"KW3 has been committed to mainstream Top 40 since the mid-80s. Through thick and occasional thin, we've stayed the course. It's nice to see the format coming back again, 1994 will be our third straight year of double-digit growth and we'll be the number two biller in a ten-station market. I guess this proves that if you believe in something and stick with it, you'll come out on top."

"Personally, 4 spend most of my time listening to radio. The CDs in my hoffest rotation over the past couple of months include: Best Of Sting. Ted Nugent's album, the Stones'

loodoo Lounge and the Lion King soundtrack has been in super stress rotation due to our target in car deno of kids aged two to five."

"My question is for Casey keating of Y100 (WHYI) Miami: Where will your neighbor Jimmy Johnson, be coaching next year."

CASIA KEARING RESPONDS:

"Jimmy Johnson will not be coaching Dallas, He's opening a restaurant in South Beach, Florida and will be selling Barry Switzer tongue sandwiches."

JOH JAMM, MD. KINY/FM SAN ANGELO, TENAS

"My favorite three songs of 1994 are Korell's 'Paradise,' Jocelyn Enriquez's "Tve Been Thinking About You' and Boyz II Men's "On Bended Knee,"

"hi terms of our music philosophy, we simply play the hits for San Angelo and are not afraid to discover new records and expose them. Anything that will put us one up on the competition."

"A prediction for 1995? Top 40 will become more and more affirm-oriented and labels will have to pay heed to stations that are banging album cuts and that are going their own way to best serve their audience. This will not be a grand sweeping change, but a continuing evolution."

"Please ask Brian Burns, PD at WKSE-Buffalo; How do Lget a gig back home in Buffalo? Lmiss the Bills' games and the clubs."

BRIAN BURNS RESPONDS

"By the time you read this, the Bills will probably by five and seven. Bulfalo is an interesting city in that everyone that moves away ultimately returns. However, if you really have a dream of a radio career; you can't limit yourself to one city. To succeed in radio, you have to be prepared to pack your bags and move when the opportunities arise. My advice is to cut the umbilical cord and don't look for the door of happiness that's closing, but look ahead for all the doors of happiness that are opening."

COSMO LLONE, PD. KGRS BURLINGTON, JOWA

"My three 1994 (avorites are Lisa Loeb and Vine Stories' 'Stay,' Sheryl Grow's 'MLI Wanna Do' (we need more uptempo songs like this) and Rosco Martinez's 'Neon Moonlight.'"

"I predict there'll be even more change for both radio and records in 1995.

With more major market personalities becoming syndicated and the talent pool dwindling, more station owners will move to syndicated shows. If record companies don't service 'smaller' stations, they might have trouble breaking more new actists."

"My question is for Scott Shannon, PD at WPLFNew York: When you're programming and doing mornings, you really have to balance your schedule. Please give me an idea of your typical do."

SCOLL SHANNON RESPONDS:

"A great question and I wish I had a simple answer. What I've always done is try to do my morning show prep before I go on the radio and after I get home in the late afternoon. That way, after I get off the air I can devote my time to the problems at the radio station. Our entire morning team is at the station at f:30 in the morning. If you want to work with Scott and fodd (Pettingill, my partner), you have to be here at 4:30. Then we do a quick meeting after the show. The rest of the day I'm program director which lasts, until about 3:00 or 3:30 in the afternoon. I'm also lucky enough to be surrounded by a team of individuals, including Tom Cuddy and Mike Preston, who help me program the station."

STEVE MCKAY, PD. WSBG/FM-STROUDSBURG, PA.

"My three favorite songs for 1994 are the Counting Crows' 'Mr. Jones,' Sheryl Crow's 'All I Wanna Do' and Rosco Martinez's 'Neon Moonlight.'"

"My prediction for 1995 is that downsizing will continue in both radio and records. Having good cars is no longer enough. Those of us in radio must continue growing as business people. We must continue to help our sales departments find ways to make money without compromising the sound of our stations. Program directors are now expected to be marketing specialists. Those who can will and those who can't or won't will be gone."

"For personal enjoyment, I collect airchecks new and old. I find them to be great motivational tools, Eve also been listening to a mix of New York stations, Both WPLJ and Z-100 are sounding great. These are two astounding stations, Also, I like listening to talk radio WABC for a change of pace."

JON NORTON, MD. KYYY/FM BISMARCK, N.D.

"My three 1994 favorites are Green Day's 'Basketcase,' the Counting Crows' 'Mr. Jones' and Shery4 Crow's 'All I Wanna Do.'"

"Y-93's music philosophy is simple: Play the hits for Bismarck/Mandan. Because we have relatively few signals in the market, we can afford to be all things to all people. We target 18:49 adults and with a target that broad, we play a wide range of music. Yet, with careful dayparting and constant attention to music flow and balance, we're doing a good job in satisfying our listeners. During the day, our balance of current/recurrent to gold is 60 percent/40 percent, at night, it increases to 90 percent/f0 percent. Since we have no callout research, we keep up with our listeners' music preferences through retail tracking, requests and by constantly picking their brains when we're out on remote. These tools, along with the fact that PD Bob Beck has been in the market for 12 years, gives us a pretty good handle on the correct music for Y-93 to play."

"My question is for Dave Shakes, OM at K-101 and KMEL-San Francisco: How do you maintain a finn and creative vibe inside the stations you've programmed and what do you think your biggest mistake in radio was?"

DAVE SHAKES RESPONDS:

"Mistake? You mean, my calling Sholin back this morning? Well, I guess I've made some mistakes, but here I am today and I'm pretty happy so I guess they didn't really matter. As far as a creative and fun vibe, I just try to hire people who are self-motivated and happy people and just let them do their thing. Happy people take care of the happy vibe."

DICK O'NEIL. PD. WTNY/FM-WATERTOWN, N.Y.

"My three favorite tunes for 1994 are John Mellencamp with Me'shell NdegeOcello's 'Wild Nights,' Hootie & The Blowfish's 'Hold My Hand' and US3's 'Cantaloop."

"WTNY's general music philosophy is to play well-researched, properly dayparted, slam-dunk monster hits.

"A prediction for 1995? Let's say lower taxes and more alternative hits."

"For personal listening enjoyment, I like classical music and '70s stuff."

"This is a question for Brian Burns, PD at WKSE-Buffalo, N.Y.: Brian, why don't you call anymore?"

BRIAN BURNS RESPONDS:

"Is that the question?! Well Dick, now that I'm one of the social-elite programmers in the metropolis of Buffalo. I just don't have time for you little peons anymore, but send me a tape and resume and my assistant will get back to you. Sholin, what's Dick's phone number?"

DAVE REYNOLDS, MD, WOMZ CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA.

"My three personal favorites for this year are Offspring's 'Self Esteem.' Green Day's 'Basketcase' and Soundgarden's 'Black Hole Sun.'"

"Our music philosophy? Well, if a song is going to be a big hit, it'll transcend most demographics, dayparts and formats. The really great radio stations realize this before everyone else. We try to do the same for our new music—but sometimes it doesn't work."

"I personally enjoy listening to classic rock, I also like to listen to the California airchecks I get from my friend Paul Swanson in Chicago."

"Please ask Rick Gillette at WHYT-Detroit: Now that you've made the greatest Top 40 station in Detroit an alternative station, how far do the ratings have to go down before it affects station revenue and the new format?"

RICK GHLEETTE RESPONDS:

"It's not how low you go, it's how high you aim."

DAVE SHUMAN, MD. ISLE 95 (WJKC)-St. CROIN, V.I.

"My three favorite 1994 tunes are Big Mountain's 'Baby I Love Your Way,' Dawn Penn's 'You Don't Love Me (No No No),' and Sheryl Crow's 'All I Wanna Do.'"

"We are by no means a 'typical' market! Although there are over 4.1 million people in our coverage area, they're on 12 individual islands, giving us both a huge andience and a number of small individual market concerns. Musically, we have to account for 'global' tastes (as the islands are owned by or formerly owned by many different nations, including the U.S.) and play the hits! Being both in the islands, and a tourist travel location, we've chosen to own the reggae/dancehall position, breaking both nationally known and local artists in our regular playlist and exclusively playing reggae and dancehall music 8 p.m. to 12 Midnight, Monday through Friday and Sunday nights, too, National research and trends are important, but our 'ear' and local callout research are the crucial decision makers in our add philosophy."

"Most of time I try to get away from our station in my time off, and play CDs that either had no airplay at all, or no airplay on our station. This allows me to come into work fresh, and perceive our music as a listener, rather than as someone who has heard all 61 weekly plays of our power rotation sones."

MARTHA STEELE, PD. KTRS CASPER, WYO.

"This first question has me stumped, but I'll give it a try: Lisa Loeb and Aine Stories' 'Stay,' Melissa Etheridge's 'Come To My Window' and Deadeye Dick's 'New Age Girl.'"

"My predictions for '95? Well, Michael and Lisa Marie will slip away and get a quiet divorce. As for the industry, it's tough to say. I think the people who are most resistant to change will fall hard. More stations will go satellite than ever before and computer automation will take the remaining jobs. (Gloom and doom, I know.) The good news will be some stations will remain live and will have to be better than ever to compete. I'm happy to say KTRS is one that will not go down without a fight."

"I love music in general, so in terms of my personal music taste, it's easier to tell you what I don't like—country and rap. However, this year my most-listened to CDs were trom Melissa Etheridge, Heart, Don Henley, Jackson Browne, Sarah McLachlan, Sting, Jude Cole and always, the Eagles."

"I'd like to ask another woman program director if their management style is drastically different from their male counterparts? If so, then how?"

LISA MCKAY, PD. WRVQ RICHMOND, VA. RESPONDS:

"I wouldn't say that it's drastically different. The one thing I've noticed is that generally, if someone asks a male programmer a question he just gives them the answer. I usually offer a rationale, which I think to men sounds a lot like justification and doesn't make me look as strong sometimes. However, I think it's important to develop people, so I want them to understand the philosophy behind why we're doing something so that if they're ever in a situation where they need to make a decision, they'll know what the priority and the reasoning behind the initial decision was."

TODD WISE, MD, KBKB FL MADISON, IOWA

"My three favorite songs from 1994 are Liz Phair's 'Supernova,' R.E.M.'s 'What's The Frequency, Kenneth?' and the Beastie Boys' 'Sabotage.'"

"In terms of a prediction for 1995, my biggest concern is for the secondary markets. There are too many small market Top 40-reporting stations that are.

in reality, adult contemporary stations. That's one reason why so many record labels are cutting their promotional people (and mailing lists) from the secondary markets. We have no longer proven to be a valuable commodity to them. Unless the secondaries adopt an attitude that breaks new music and show a willingness to take some chances, this trend will continue. Stations ignoring their 18-34 demo are alienating a large segment of the population who have tremendous buying power. If you don't give them a reason to listen to your station now, do you think they'll listen when they grow up into your current target? Small market programmers need to start leading or get out of the way."

"My question is for Steve Kingston, VP/director of operations for Z-100 (WHTZ)-New York: There are a lot of small market managers who are, to put it nicely, getting up there in years. Sometimes, music programmers find it very difficult getting alternative crossover songs on the air because of this 'generation gap.' How can small market PDs and MDs overcome this obstacle?"

STEVE KINGSTON RESPONDS:

"What PDs need to learn is that radio is a bosiness and my business is dictated by my ratings. If this station sounds great and plays the coolest music on the planet but is low-rated, we don't generate a profit and we can't pay the light bill. I was part of a group that started KRNA-lowa City. What dictated revenue on that radio station was how compatible the sound of KRNA was with the retailers in the market that bought time on the station because there were no ratings. As frustrating as that is, unfortunately you're measured by something whether it be Arbitron or the guy who owns the hardware store down the

"What these PDs and MDs need to find out is why is there a resistance? Why won't their GMs and owners not allow them to play the hits, if those are indeed the hits? If these songs that are mainstream sounding songs and there's resistance, then they need to find out why. If the resistance is coming from business, then they need to take that into consideration. If it's a bias or a prejudice, then they need to look for another job."

ARTIST PROFILE

FROM: Bethel Acres, Oklahoma

LABEL: Columbia

PROMOTION VP: Debi Fleisher

CURRENT SINGLE: "Old Enough To Know Better"

AGE: 25

FIRST MUSICAL INFLUENCE:

Wade's father, Don Hayes, was a professional musician who supplemented his income working as a carpenter. At one point Don landed a record deal with an independent record company and moved his family to Nashville, but the label folded a year later.

BIG BREAK: Through his songwriting partner, Chick Raines, Hayes managed to get an impromptu audition with record producer Don Cook, best known for his work with Brooks & Dunn, the Mavericks and Mark Collie.

ON HIS MUSICAL BEGINNINGS:

"My folks have pictures of me from the age of three with a toy guitar in my hand. I can't even remember a time when I didn't want to do this. I'd drive my parents absolutely crazy, walking around all day singing those country songs."

ON HIS GOALS: "I want to make people feel the way I feel when I hear great records on the radio. You're gonna think this is weird, but hearing George Strait sing 'Milkcow Blue' for the first time brought tears to my eyes because it was so great. I had to pull over to the side of the road. The music and the way his voice sounded made me want to cheer. I want to make people feel that way."

Inside Connections

This week's GAVIN Connections chart comes from the combined playlists of 443 our our stations-227 A.C. 237 Top 40, and 79 Urbans.

Boyz II Men's "On Bended Knee" is #2 and #3 at Top 40 and Urban respectively and it's now joined by A/C with a new ranking of #32 for a three-way chartbuster. The only other threechart winner at the moment is Vanessa Williams' "The Sweetest Days," which is top 25 everywhere.

Seven of Top 40's top eight are also ranked at A/C, but singular standouts at the moment include The Real McCoy at #4 Top 40. Joshua Kadison's "Picture Postcards from L.A." ranked #2 at A/C and K-CI Hailey's "If You Think You're Lonely Now" at #1 Urban. The three records mentioned are ranked only in their current formats with almost no presence elsewhere.

Toni Braxton's "I Belong To You," Mariah Carey's "All I Want For Christmas Is You" and Luther Vandross' "Always and Forever" are the multi-format MOST ADDed. But Madonna's "Take A Bow," based on a Top 40 exclusive actually pulled in the most adds with

On the GAVIN GO chart, Steve Perry's "Missing You" is ranked #20 while just #32 on the main chart. Also of note is the ranking of Amy at #33 and as-yet unranked Top 40.

Lagging the main chart by a large margin is 4 PM's "Sukiyaki," which is just now debuting on the GO at #29, but debuting exclusively on the GO is Freedy Johnston's "Bad Reputation" at #34.

A LETTER FROM JACKSONVILLE

consider Shannon West one of the most original programming minds in the business. Recently she responded to my September 23 column, "Intuition's Role In Research."

"I was really knocked out by what you wrote, because I have seen how an interpretation of research based on only a surface analysis of the findings can lead a station to execute programming policies that look like the statistically correct thing to do, but still leave the station in the Arbitron cellar. I have always had qualms about 'research' because you are asking people to analyze their own behavior, and sometimes on a pretty deep level. Let's face it, most people aren't that introspective; they do what they feel like doing at a given point in time and don't really think about why they do it. So we take very seriously information that is not based on much more than momentary whims...I have been to 17 Al Jarreau concerts for reasons I would not even attempt to figure out, so I can relate. He plays, I go. Quantify that!

If you want to talk to West personally about her comment, or about programming in general, her number is (904) 398-1705.

Lagree completely with West. What you want to determine is better listener behavior, not listener theories. Good research mustbe constructed to reveal behavior, or it is highly suspect. If it is obtained by asking questions, the questions must be set up to allow internal crosschecks for consistency, and to bypass listener. judgment and concentrate on listener behavior. The judgment comes in when it's time to analyze the results, and the judgment is yours not the subjects', nor even necessarily the research firms'.

On a related subject, let me remind you that although today the most universal form of audience research—ratings—are broken out to tenths of a point, they are not sufficiently accurate to justify this. Tenths of a point can separate many stations, so broadcasters place great importance on the relative positions they reveal: tenths of a point permit ad agencies to justify buying one station and not another, which are actually in a virtual tie. But tenths of a point in an average quarter hour share, rating, or even a cume, is really just statistical noise-even in the total-week, 12+ numbers. Sample size doesn't support it. How much more misleading such exactitude is when breaking the data down to specific demographics and dayparts.

To give yourself some perspective when checking out the "trends" section, try rounding the numbers off to the nearest who number for a clearer picture of what the ratings really show. That is, a 5.4 becomes a 5-as does a 4.5.

Although this can occasionally magnify instead of resolve a station's ranking changes (as when a 5.4 becomes a 5, and a 5.5 becomes a 6), I find it really does tend to minimize the panic which all too often accompanies a meaningless ratings change as from a 5.4 to a 4.9. For example, statistically these really are within the margin of error and thus are "the same."

Inside A/C

Former GAVIN Award-winning PD Alan McLaughlin, last heard from while programming KKLD Tucson, has re-surfaced as operations and program director for KISS 100 (WKZS) serving the Portland, Maine

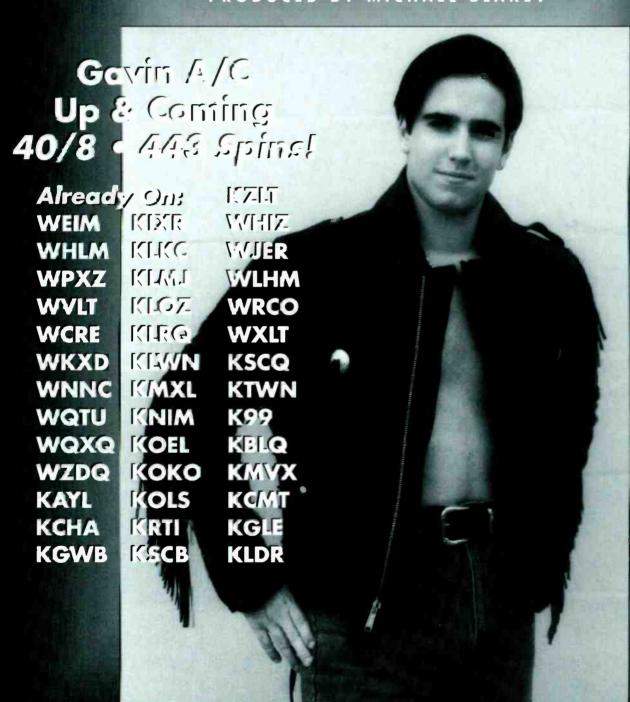

WKOK Selingsgrove, Penn. program director Rick Ricigliano died of a heart attack at the age of 39 on November 28. Our condolences to his family, friends and the WKOK staff on their loss.

There are only two reporting weeks left to Gavin's 1994 schedule. We will take our last A/C reports of the year on Monday, December 12 & Tuesday, December 13. Our last issue will be dated December 16 and then we close for our annual break. We'll re-open for live reports on Tuesday, January 3, 1995.

Because it will be impossible to gather 235 A/C reports between 8 a.m. and 2 p.m that day, we encourage all reporting stations to report at least once via fax between Thursday, December 29 and Monday, January 2 (a Federal holiday). Gavin will publish its first issue of 1995 on Friday, January 6.

#13 to #10 comes with just three ADDs (KOST, KIKO and WLEV), and total spins are only up 80, but 93 of our reporting stations are at three or more plays per day.

On the verge of cracking the top ten is Steve Perry's "Missing You." His first single, "You Better Wait." peaked at #11 on August 26, but this new one is just getting warmed up at #11 and already has 38 more stations than the first one did.

Jon Secada's (right)

"Mental Picture" is another track that's about to exceed levels attained by its predecessor, "Whipped," when it peaked at #14 on October 14. The new one will be there before the holidays, on its way to a single digit fate. It's this week's #2 MOST ADDED with 29 new like KWAV, WITR, WLBC, WFRO, WJTW, WNYR and WHAL.

Two chart weeks under its belt and Dan Hartman's "The Love In Your Eyes" is at #28 with more than half the reporter base playing it. The 120 on it now includes KXYQ, KMGN, KESZ, WLZW, WMGN, WBMX, K-101, K99, WCKQ, WMJQ and WQLR.

THE MUSIC

Look for the pre-holiday shuffle at the top of the chart next week as the current troika come under seige from Grant & Gill and the Vanessa Williams (above). Williams "The Sweetest Days" is the format's HOTTEST track at the moment with a one-week spincrease of 775, bringing its total weekly rotations to 4,224. The Amy & Vince, "House Of Love," has a better spinrate (24.49) than Vanessa (22.12).

Only one new track creeps into the top ten and that's Celine Dion's "Only One Road." The move from Top chart debut this week is the brilliant Boyz II Men (above) single, "On Bended Knee. Isn't that where Custer bought the farm? Anyway, it's premiering at #32 with 26 ADDs and a spins-per-station rate of better than 18 already. Imagine how big this one would be right now if it wasn't still competing for airplay with its predecssor, "I'll Make Love To You," which just happens to be one the most endearing singles of the year.

Only one other debut and that's Carly Simon's poignant"Like A River." It's on at 93 Gavin A/C stations and its rate of play is better than 14 spins a week.

TOP TIP this week is Luther Vandross' 1994 heatwave, "Always and Forever." It's a MOST ADDED with 27 new such as WLZW, JOY 99, WFPS. WSPT, KVIC, KMGN, WMJX, WJBR and WBLG.

Last week's RECORD TO WATCH, Shawn Colvin & Mary Chapin Carpenter's "One Cool Remove," picks up ADDs this week from KLWN, KLZY, KATD, WJER and KOKO. Good spins in already from KATW, WQTU, KLOG, KGY, WAHR, KQMT, KLMJ, KJNO and KMCQ.

This issue's RTW is Patty Smyth's smoother mover, "Look What Love Has Done To Me." It's from the new Arnold Schwarzenegger movie, Junior, so expect serious exposure. Onboard and "expecting" big things are WKSQ, KTMG, WLDR, KESZ, WKWK, WCSO, KOSO, KRNO, WDEF, KOXT, WLIF and WMT. Since the release of the Eagles' album, Hell Freezes Over, we've received numerous reports of play on a variety of tracks, the most popular being "Love Will Keep Us Alive." Other tracks reported include "Wasted Time," "Hotel California" and "The Girl From Yesterday." Gabby Skolnek at Geffen says a CD-Pro of "Love Will Keep Us Alive" will ship on December 13 for those who want to wait.

New Releases

HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS "Little Bitty Pretty One" (Flektra)

A hit for Thruston Harris back in the dark ages of pop (1957), this one was ripe for the pickin' and the guys work it out with a great spirit. Nothing like a safe yet up tempo track to counter all the moody slow pieces out at this time of the year. Gonna be big!!

MADONNA "Take A Bow" (Maverick/Sire/Warner Bros.)

Possibly the most A/C track Madonna's ever released as a single. It's a song about the final encore of a relationship and she's dropping the curtain on a heartbreaker with the help of producer Babyface, who also co-wrote the song and sings backing vocals.

GLADYS KNIGHT "End of The Road" (MCA)

This former #1 by Boyz Il Men is done live by Gladys Knight with associate production by Andre Fischer. who's the husband of Natalie Cole. It remains faithful to the B2M verison, but this one is in concert and just as flawless as a studio take.

K&K'S KRISTMAS KORNER

One of the sure signs a radio format is catching on is getting a Santa sack full of Christmas CDs by Thanksgiving, Jazz and A2 is always good for dozens of holiday discs.
This year we scored an impressive array of Seasons Greetings A3 style.
Last year it was just Bruce
Cockburn singing alone; this year
Cockburn has plenty of company.
Here's a sampling of the best.
file is one more A3 Xmas

MELISSA ETHERIDGE "Happy XMas (War Is Over)/ Give Peace A Chance (Live) (Island)

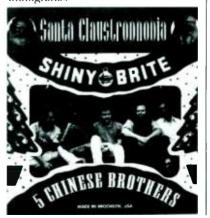

Little did John Lennon know that his 45rpm "Happy XMas (War Is Over) would become one of the true underground Christmas classics of all time. Melissa Etheridge, fresh from doing Janis at Woodstock, enlists her band and an auditorium full of fans to meld "Happy XMas" with "Give Peace A Chance" resulting in a timeless holiday tribute to Lennon.

5 CHINESE BROTHERS "Christmas On Interstate 80" (1-800-PRIME-CD)

If this band wants gig in politically correct San Francisco, they'd better change their names to the Five Asian-American Non Gender Specific Siblings. 5 Chinese Brothers contribute a couple of zany Christmas tunes with a folk/country/rock flavor. 5CB shatter traditional holiday cheer with songs about suicide attempts and spending Christmas in a dreary highway truck stop.

THE POGUES "Fairytale Of New York" (Island)

Get thee to the library and pull out the 1988 Island CD If I Should Fall From Grace With God by the Pogues. This classic duet between Shane MacGowan and Kirsty MacColl is a gnarly argumentative ballad between two homesick Irish immigrants.

KEB' MO' "Jingle Bell Jamboree" (OKeh)

All we want for Christmas is for Keb' Mo' to get the support he needs and deserves. Keb' Mo' affixes his contemporary blues stamp to Christmas morn. What's a Jingle Bell Jamboree? It's quality time kickin' back, going house to house, feeling the Christmas spirit.

GRAHAM PARKER'S CHRISTMAS CRACKER (Dakota Arts)

It's a dreary Yuletime in London, and who better to grouch about it than Graham Parker? On "Christmas Is For Mugs," GP does his shopping on London's East End and at the Camden Town marketplace all with dubious results. Included are three original holiday songs and the demo tapes from which they rose.

THE ROCHES We Three Kings (Ryko)

Not too many acts cite Christmas music as one of their biggest musical influences, but when the Roche sisters first hit the beaches of New York, it the holiday season. We Three Kings is crammed with two dozen carols, both classical and familiar that are friendly to their skin tight harmonies. One of the few discs that transforms tired melodies into high art. There are even two Roche originals; "Christmas Passing Through" and "Star Of Wonder."

BRUCE COCKBURN Christmas Sampler/Christmas (Columbia)

Bruce Cockburn's Christmas Sampler is four tracks from the Christmas album released last year. The bonus track here is "Lord Of The Starfields," a duet with bassist Rob Wasserman. The highlight is still "Mary Had A Baby," a song bound to go down as a perennial A3 holiday favorite.

JERRY JEFF WALKER Christmas Gonzo Style (Ryko)

A fresh set of tracks recorded last May in Austin. In order to get in the mood, Jerry Jeff Walker and his cohorts set up a Christmas tree, fixed turkey dinner, exchanged presents and successfully entered a time warp. Sure enough it worked like a charm as Christmas Gonzo Style breaks away from the pack. This is truly one of this season's best bets mostly because Walker sticks close to the original arrangements and his relaxed vocals fit the spirit like an old pair of jeans. Rest assured, you'll know 12 songs backward and forward. Thanks, Jerry Jeff and friends.

VARIOUS ENLIGHTENED ATLANTIC RECORDS A3 ARTISTS You Sleigh Me/So This Is Christmas (Atlantic)

Sometimes the Christmas promo discs are among the most special. For instance, a slew of Atlantic artists put their heads together for a couple of samplers specifically for A3 and Alternative radio. Between the two, there's an overlap of four artists (Hootie, Victoria Williams, Tori Amos and Juliana Hatfield). A3's You Sleigh Me features the road-weary Billy Pilgrim duo who are never too busy to send their kindest musical regards. Mary Karlzen (who will grace us with a new album in January) checks in with Chuck Berry's "Run Run

THE BEATLES Live At The BBC (Capitol)

With each Beatles release, that golden era (1962-1970) seems to slip further and further into that twilight zone fixed somewhere between romanticism and reality. Live At The BBC wakes you back up and shows how radically both the music and radio business has changed. Surveying these live radio performances shows how radio is now completely at the mercy of polished product. It's like a jukebox with jocks, as opposed to being unpredictable and exciting. While the performances here are a hair dated for power rotation, the performances show a side of the Beatles few Americans are privy to. It's the world's hottest quartet not only playing their own smashes, but covering both their favorite songs and the hits of their day. When the Beatles folded, something died in terms of music seamlessly melding with personality. At their peak (and a tiny radical faction may argue that their peak as a tight quartet is captured here), John Paul, George and Ringo transcended all the age and demographic research gobbledegoop we're forced to wade through these days. Most of the airplay potential can be found on disc two. Dig the "pre-recorded punchin" guitar solo on "A Hard Day's Night." It shows how spot-on these live radio performances really were.

Rudolf." That's Melissa Ferrick commandeering "White Christmas." Juliana Hatfield took things seriously on "Make It Home." Over on the Alternative side, there are dueling versions of "Silent Night" by Bad Religion and Evan Dando on the So This Is Christmas.

CHARLES BROWN Cool Christmas Blues (Bullseye Blues/Rounder)

Charles Brown penned a couple of the most famous R&B Christmas tunes in history—"Merry Christmas Baby" and "Please Come Home For Christmas" and this year he renews his holiday vows by (finally!) releasing a full length pleaser. Cool Christmas Blues is the perfect soundtrack for a late night, lonesome tree trimming party for one. Brown leads us down the R&B path with his swinging blues renditions featuring walking bass, clean guitar chords, call-and-response tenor sax and of course Brown's can't-be-beat blues piano. Swing it!

BUTCH THOMPSON Yulestride (Daring/Rounder)

Stride, ragtime, barrelhouse and boogie-Butch Thompson lays it all on the line using familiar Christmas melody as an emotional map. Asking the musical question, "Did Jelly Roll Morton ever play 'Silent Night?" Yulestride brings to mind another poignant question: Why is Christmas and blues so darned synonymous? Beside the usual emotional risks of lots or no family and friends, there's nothing as bittersweet and melancholy as a familiar Christmas tune (i.e. "Away In A Manger") turned inside-out and knocked sideways with the blues. With lots of up and down tempo, Butch Thompson is a marvel on these solo piano renditions.

SARAH TAYLOR & BILL MUMY "I've Got Some Presents For Santa"/"Holiday Affair" (Rhino)

A ribald Christmas tale by Bill Mumy (yes, the kid from Lost In Space). Vocalist Sarah Taylor mixes the anticipation of Christmas morning with the true spirit of phone sex. Double entendre abounds before things get graphic. "Santa and I share a ciggie/then I help him back into his red suit." Whew!

Jazz/Adult Alternative New Releases

RICK BRAUN CHRISTMAS PRESENT (MESA)

Trumpet player Rick Braun has spent so many Christmas holidays on the road with acts like Rod Stewart and Sade that he talked Mesa/Bluemoon's Jim Snowden into letting him record Christmas Present in anticipation of being home this December 25. It's been a satisfying year for Braun's solo career. His solo disc, Night Walk, spent 6 months on the A2 chart and Avenue Blue (which Braun produced) seems destined to do the same. Christmas Present is rich in brass construction. warm layered keyboard textures and then some. There's pop, bop and classical nuances abound here. We like Braun's fluid recital of "The Christmas Song," His Miles-muted "Jingle Blues" and "O Tannenbaum" could also cross over to jazz radio. A modernized "Little Drummer Boy," the most airplay friendly tune for adult alternative, is triggered by a computerized snare drum loop. Christmas in the modern world.

JOHN TESH A FAMILY CHRISTMAS (GTS)

The Christmas season wouldn't be quite the same without a John Tesh recording project. Tesh's comrade, Charlie Bisharat, co-produced this orchestral set with Tesh, as well as serving as first violinist. A Family Christmas is a mixed bag. Eight tunes feature lush orchestral arrangements with Tesh on grand piano. Two tracks are brass choir pieces, two more are classical guitar recitals. For maximum airplay potential we recommend "Carol Of The Bells" and "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas," which are performed by Tesh's smaller electrified group. Last year's A Romantic Christmas was a big seller as Tesh continues to build a loyal adult alternative fan base.

DAVID LANZ CHRISTMAS EVE (NARADA)

After spending months on the road touring on Lanz & Speer's latest project. Bridge Of Dreams, pianist David Lanz checked into his home studio to record some holiday classics. Eight original compositions are interspersed among standards like "God Rest Ye Merry Gentleman" and "Joy To The World" While Christmas Eve sounds stark in terms of room sound and a noticeable lack of equalization and artificial reverb, "Joy..." retains Lanz's characteristic bravado and sentimentality. For this modest project, Paul Speer acts as engineer and co-producer.

LIZ STORY THE GIFT (WINDHAM HILL)

David Lanz's solo piano record is as spare and secluded as Julliard-trained pianist Liz Story's The Gift is robust and cavernous. For added dimension, Story reunited with acoustic bassist Joel DiBartolo, whose bass notes accentuate her left hand rhythms. Story is an exquisite soloist and a florid improviser, and past solo recordings like Escape Of The Circus Ponies have worn well. Story's classical expertise supplies depth to a traditional English carol called "In The Bleak Mid Winter." As evidenced by economic melodies like Mel Torme's "Christmas Song," Story's classical elegance lends poignancy to everything from hymns to concertos to Tin Pan Alley.

KISS THE SKY "HAVE YOURSELF A MERRY LITTLE CHRISTMAS" (JVC)

For that in vogue chiming, urban-flavored smoothness, check out the Christmas track on Paul Hardcastle's latest Kiss The Sky collection on JVC, Millennium Skyuray, "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas" has Hardcastle's unmistakable soft funk feel and sports a gospel-ized lead vocal by Alison David. Even during Christmas, Hardcastle's the man for blue-eyed A2 soul.

HOUSTON PERSON CHRISTMAS WITH HOUSTON PERSON AND FRIENDS (MUSE)

When chasing that bebop Christmas muse (pardon the pun), how about a beefy saxophone album from Houston Person? There are bursts of emotion and swing as Person tackles such recognizable nuggets as "Blue Christmas" and puts out a bluesdrenched version of Charles Brown's "Merry Christmas Baby," Person uses three different bands, the first being his own touring group with guitarist Randy Johnson, as well as another featuring Benny Green and Winard Harper. The third group highlights drummer Grady Tate, who provides vocal sustenance as well as some slick brush work on the waltzy "Our First Christmas

NATALIE COLE HOLLY & IVY (ELEKTRA)

Natalie Cole puts the yuletide bent on her latest jazz big band project, Holly & Iry. Cole scats her way through a tour de force version of "Jingle Bells." complete with added verses. The big band arrangements are split between John Clayton, Jr. and Alan Broadbent. Arrangement of "The Christmas Song" (arguably the most covered tune on this year's Christmas compilations), is credited to Johnny Mandel and sounds like it's left over from the 1991 Unforgettable sessions. Cole's vocal satin glides effortlessly through these brisk arrangements, and her vocal personality never relinquishes the limelight. Jazz stations should try the medley featuring "Jingle Bell Rock" and "Winter Wonderland" or the blues torch ballad, "Merry Christmas, Baby," For pop sensibility, A2 should opt for the contemporary strains of "No More Blue Christmas."

JIMMY SMITH CHRISTMAS COOKIN' (VERVE/POLYGRAM REISSUE)

With the success of The Master on Blue Note, 1994 has seen a resurgence of Jimmy Smith's '50s-style Hammond organ sound. Over the years we've given warm references to Smith's pioneering Jazz/R&B sound on Blue Note, but have neglected his contributions on Verve. Well, the reissue of Christmas Cookin' should help straighten the record. Five tracks are dense with big band arrangements

Post-Bop compiled by a sample of Jazz intensive reports Commercial Adult compiled by a sample of Adult intensive reports that at times nearly bury Smith's wailing Hammond B-3. Our clear favorite is one of the two bonus tracks, "Baby, It's Cold Outside," a duet between Smith and Wes Montgomery. Grady Tate and Ray Barretto fill out this prestigious lineup, offering a perfect left field jazz oldie for the holidays.

VARIOUS ARTISTS SANTA'S BAG, AN ALL-STAR JAZZ CHRISTMAS (TELARC)

1994 signaled a real emergence for Telarc on the GAVIN jazz chart. Their audiophile recordings with swingmeisters like Ray Brown and Louie Bellson were a real added boost for traditional jazz. Santa's Bag showcases Ray Brown's walking bass on "Let It Snow," and Mel Torme's trademark vocal jive on "Good King Wenceslas." George Shearing fingers an introverted and obscure version of "Away In A Manger." Jimmy McGriff and Hank Crawford team up for a brooding down-and-dirty remake of "Silver Bells," Dave Brubeck joins Gerry Mulligan on a sprite piano/bari' sax duet on "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town." There's lots of "character" as well as "characters" in this package. The set closes with an upbeat foottapper by Louie Bellson called "It's The Time Of The Year," recorded live during last year's Christmas season.

VARIOUS ARTISTS CHRISTMAS BLUES (DENON)

For some real spicy Americana, don't miss this street-smart collection on Savov. Christmas Blues. Drawn mostly from scratchy 78 RPM masters, CB kicks off with an R&B version of "White Christmas" that dates back to 1948 when it was covered by the predoowoopin' Ravens. Also from '48 is a Charlie Parker/Kenny Dorham noodling of "White Christmas" that was actually cut on Christmas night. Many say that when it comes to drive and vigor, live Parker often outstrips the studio recordings. With artists like Bird, the Ravens, the Marshall Brothers and Gatemouth Brown. Christmas Blues is a raw collection of early Savoy works of both beloop and pre-rock 'n' roll R&B.

VAL GARDENA HAVE A VAL GARDENA CHRISTMAS! (MERCURY)

Portland synth duo Val Gardena are poised to follow up their top ten River Of Stone with even more progressive sounds, come February, when their second Mercury CD is released. This sneak preview contains a breezy original holiday ode called "Northern Lights," which comes complete with sampled sleigh bells. Better yet, VG have included a smooth soprano sax cover of "Do They Know It's Christmas? (Feed The World)." One minute snippets of four new tunes and a taped message complete this promo set.

Inside Alternative

Just a little business before the news: Gavix Award nomination ballots went out right before the Thanksgiving break. They didn't go out in the magazine, as per usual, so keep an eye out for a business size envelope from Gavix in your pile of letter mail. And please, send them back to me ASAP!

Also, our last reporting day will be Tuesday, December 13. We will be back in the office and taking your reports on Tuesday, January 3. As always, our deadline for Commercial Alternative reports is 3 p.m., PSD.

Those interested in Gavin's Top 100 Chart for their year-end countdowns should keep a close eye out for the issue dated December 9, as all of the formats will have the charts included therein.

Warning: This was written under the influence of Sudafed. Read at your own risk.

Hope you all had a wonderful holiday—I sure did. I saw a number of excellent shows over the short break, starting with Teenage Fanclub's to-die-for show at the Roxy in Los Angeles. The band, with new drummer (ex-Soup Dragons) Paul Quinn, stormed through a "greatest hits" set, relying heavily on selections from Bandwagonesque. In between old faves were a smattering of new songs slated for the band's upcoming album, as well as covers of The Beatles. Alex Chilton and The Byrds. I've never seen the band sound tighter and be more relaxed on stage. 1995 will be their year.

Opening the show was the very fabulous Los Angeles band Sammy, whose import single has racked up an enormous TSL cume in my office CD player. This is a picture of me in my Sammy T-shirt at Disneyland. Isn't that just too friggin' cute?

Meanwhile back at the farm, The Jesus & Mary Chain, Mazzy Star, Velvet Crush, The Gigolo Aunts, MC 900 Ft. Jesus, The Cranberries, The Pales Saints, The Go Go's and Bikini Kill all came through town over the long weekend—and man, am I tired, Just plain ol' tired, sick and tired and, tired of going to shows, too.

Greetings from South Carolina. Despite my lack of accent, the South is my birthplace, and I chose to devote this year's vacation to Columbia, South Carolina and my high school reunion (ten yearsjust call me mom). The reunion thing was pretty interesting (my small class produced three doctors, beaucoup family types, a Marine, a guy who builds prisons for a living and about 60 salesmen), but my most exciting endeavor was college-not high school-related: I trooped over to the University Of South Carolina and went on the air at WUSC.

It's been a while since I've done a radio show. How long, you ask? Well, let's just say that back in my day about 90 percent of what we aired was on vinyl, so my first challenge was to get accustomed to a CD-oriented set-up. Also, when I was music director at WUSC we were free-form and rotationless. Now, the station has discs in A. B. and C rotation, and even though I'm sure I could've ignored rotation (what's Eric Greenwood gonna do-throw me off the air?), I attempted to play by the rules. It helped that most of the music in rotation was to my taste—Hey Drag City comp and the Terem Quartet were in A, Palace Songs in B and Tulare Dust in C, to name just a sampling.

I have to admit I was pretty surprised by the calls I got on the air. The big response record, was the Luscious Jackson single the DJ before me (thanks, Lee, for letting me do most of your show), played before she let me take over. Then, people I had known when I lived in Cola started to ring up-proving that WUSC's audience is an extremely loyal, long-term one. I also got an out-of-the-blue call from Chicago resident and ex-WUSC music director Andy Uhrich, who seems to be doing auite well.

When I looked at the local band stuff in the main studio cart rack I had to chuckle. Columbia's Hootie And The Blowfish (who, like the Connells and Dillon Fence have long been favorites of the University Of South Carolina student population), were well-represented; one cart, that I think has been around for years, contained an early version of "Hold My Hand."

Other notables: Among the station's legal IDs is one from renowned saxaphonist Bill Clinton; an old friend of mine heard me on the air and promptly drove over to the station to say hi, and I think I broke one of the CD players. Don't tell Eric, okay?

Alright, there's just one news item to recount: MCA's Toby Hood is leaving his position to move back to England. Rumors report that Toby has secured a VJ gig with MTV Europe, although Tobias coyly refused to reveal his plans. I told him that he'd be losing his advantage with the ladies if he returned to Britian where his accent is commonplace, but I guess he figures VJ stardom will make up the difference. Call Toby and say bye—he's a rare fellow.

That's it for this week. By the time you read this, I'll most likely be back in the office with all the gossip that's good to go and then some.

Congratulations to Live 105-San Francisco on another successful listener appreciation party. Dubbed the Yam Jam, their party featured Big Audio, Frank Black (acoustic), Rancid, Frente! and Adam Ant. As usual, a good time was had by all.

Speaking of station events, here's a photo of WWDX-East Lansing's Sandy Horovitz with the band Moist. Moist was just one of the bands (others included 311, Lightning Seeds, Stabbing Westward and The Murmurs) to play the staton's Octoberfest '94, which drew over 15,000 people. (This picture's cute, too, but not as cute as the one with me and Bashful.)

Special thanks to WEQX-Albany's Gary Schoenwetter for sending me a copy of the Fear Into Fuel compilation of Albany bands. Gary says that while the station didn't put the CD out (as many stations have done in the past), WEQX supports the compilation with airplay. He says, "(The track from) Lughead gets great phones. The bands are strong live and the CD has good sales." If you're extra nice, maybe Gary will get a copy for you, too.

I actually unearthed my turntable this week to play some new music in the ever-popular 7-inch format, and I'm damn glad I did. Have you checked out Triple Fast Action, Kittywinder or Sunhead, yet? No? You are seriously lagging, my friend. Rancid, who recently stole the show at Live 105's Yam Jam, are set to appear on MTV's 120 Minutes on December 5. And since it's that time of year, the Top 20 alternative videos for '94 will be aired on December 12, while Best Of '94. Live Performance airs December 19. Now back to regularly scheduled programming:

I was shopping for imports this weekend at Mod Lang Records in Berkeley, and just about every other person came into the store to buy the new Stone Roses single, "Love Spreads." A few adventurous programmers added the track this week, too. Stand up KUKQ, KROQ, KNDD/The End, Rev 105 and CFNY. So here's the rub: I am of the opinion that this particular song isn't anywhere near the best track on the album, so when the domestic single—the better single— gets released in early '94, please don't give Ted Volk a hard time about adding it. Hey, guess what? I'm so sick that I'm actually going to stop writing this nonsense and go home. Lucky VOU.

Everything Is Everything (Elektra)

In 1991 Brand Nubian dropped One For All, a striking debut filled with pop-styled hooks and 5% nation of Islam diatribe. In 1993, the crew (minus Grand Puba) delivered In God We Trust, a sweeping blend of dense, menacing soundscapes and hardcore, clenched fist lyrics. Everything Is Everything continues with the group's distinctive hardline poetics, but shows the trio taking a new musical perspective. The group's own Lord Jamar handles the production chores, proving to be equally adept behind the boards as he is on the mic. This release introduces live instrumentation into the mix as guitar, drums, bass and keyboards are prominally featured on no less than five of the album's 16 tracks. The few samples the group has chosen to use are diverse, ranging from the deep jazz shadings of Chico Hamilton to the soulful pop of Simply Red. Everything is Everything is an engaging blend of laid back funk melded to street soldier lyrics, further establishing Brand Nubian as one of a handful of hip-hop groups that refuse to stagnate.

warpath again with another hip record that's sure to cause a stir at alternative and rock radio. Don't let the Greatest Hits part of the title full you because all the songs were written by Big Chief—the band is being clever. Anyone who's familiar with this innovative band won't be disappointed by the smorgasbord of songs offered on Platinum live Greatest Hits 1969-1999. It's like a variety pack of cerealthere's something for everybody. From the thrashy guitar hooks of "Locked Out" and "Armed Love" to the rap-riddled jazzy rhythms of "M.D. 20/20" and "Bona Fide," (the latter features Schooly D on vocals), to the low-end hard rock grooves of "Lot Lizard," Big Chief demonstrates musical dexterity. If dripping psychedelic swirling guitar chords are your thing be sure to check out "John's Scared" and "Map Of Failure." A must play for your red-eyed listeners. Big Chief's knack for unpredictability and successful mix of different musical styles will keep your playlist fresh and your listeners jivin'.

The Southern States (SpinArt, P.O. Box 1798, New York, NY 10156-1798)

Remember how cool Echo And The Bunnymen's "Going Up" kicked off the album Crocodiles? "Dance of the Lollipop Faeries" does it here, sneaking up from a faint buzz to a glorious din of distortion. The Technical fed is a Richmond, Va. fourpiece that rolls Burundi drumming into Swell Maps/Sonic Youthtype guitars. "Time Bomb" ticks at a grimacing pace, slouches into a slower midsection, then emerges to rock again. "Cartoon Train" hoists flags of grating guitar against a sky of Fraher's restrained vocals, and "Rocket Science" features jibing guitars. Echo And The Bunnymenstyle drumming gurgles through "Milt" and "Airstream" glows with endearing vocal harmonies. These baker's dozen tracks show a heap of promise, and it's hard to spot apparent weaknesses. Get -DAVID BERAN

As I watched the 49ers humiliate the Saints in New Orleans last Monday night I couldn't help but think of the upcoming Gavin seminar, especially as the cameras panned around a few of the clubs in the French Quarter. One of the clubs around that district has agreed to hold a Gavin Rocks showcase on Saturday, February 18. I've already booked one band and have room for three more. If you're interested in showcasing one of your rock bands on Saturday definitely give me a call. Also, I've been issued the official in hotel showcase rates which I will make available to all inquiries...If you haven't received a registration application or information regarding special college rates please let me know...All reporters and label reps should have received a ballot for the 1995 GAVIN Rocks awards which will take place during the convention. There are some disgruntled independent promoters who're peeved that there is no category for independent promoter of the year. Well, this is what Γm going to do. When the ballots are returned and the nominees are drawn there will be another ballot going out to everyone so they can choose the winner for each category. On that ballot there will be a space for you to vote for the independent promotion person of the year. Since there are so few independents that work hard rock and metal, this last ballot will determine the winner rather than the nominee for independent promotion person of the year. Confused? Well so am 1, so give me a call if you need guidance. One final note on the ballots: Get them back to me as soon as possible time is running out!...The only other mention of the 49ers this week comes from WRPS's Brodie Holmen who says, "This is the year the 49ers go. Steve Young's efforts now justify his actions." Of course I agree...I've made some comments in the past about the lack of support for unestablished bands. Not everybody is guilty of this, but I find that some of the Rocks reporters agree that there is too much emphasis put on bands that are not necessarily that great. Metal dude Ron Platzer for WMHW puts it best: "It's time to embrace all styles of hard music, not just the established." I'm still completely baffled as to why some stations give artists 15 plus spins a week for months while other bands are allotted maybe 1 to 5 spins and end up being dropped in a couple of weeks. Maybe someday this strange and vicious cycle will come to and end and more programmers will give artist equalspins...Enough ranting about spins...KATP's Eric Slayter says, "The Hardline t-shirts are done and I know that no one cares," Not true. I'm sure everybody is extremely concerned and have nothing but good wishes for the livelihood of your shirts...J.J. over at KEYJ is illin' which explains the frozen list. If you got a moment you may want to give him a ring...,Mike Depippa at WSOU has absolutely nothing to say this week....Andy Gradel would like you all to know that WGLS is breaking up their 15 hour Sunday night metal show into 3 hour slots. The metal shows are now Monday through Thursday from 11:00 p.m. to 2:00 a.m....Laurie Lehew is the new music director/promotion director at KTSC and will also be calling in metal reports for Rich Green who's exiting the station December 15, All hard rock/metalcalls should be directed to Laurie from now on....With approaching holidays just around the corner Ed like to let you know that the last issue date for GAVIN is December 16, so the last reporting day is Tuesday December 13. Reporting will start again on Tuesday, January 3. I'll mention these dates again in the next two issue so you won't forget....Until next week, keep it hard!

INSULT TO INJURY Point Of This (Century Media)

Century Media decided to jolt metal directors one more time before college radio hibernates for the holidays with the release of Insult To Injury. Hailing from New York, Insult To Injury (James Gibbons, vocals; Kurt Remppel, guitar; Steve Scheluchin, guitar; Kenny Braun, drums; Brian Mckean, bass) went through the usual hassle of finding musicians who were compatible and able to perform in a smooth, cohesive fashion. After four years, the tedious task of forming the current lineup was completed in late 1992. Seething with dual guitars, ferocious bass lines, pummeling drums and ardent vocal yells, Insult To Injury creates a truly impressive metal sound on their debut album, Point Of This, which has the energy and metallic prowess of Pantera, Slaver and Sepultura. Produced by the band and Bobby Gustafson (guitarist on Overkill's first four albums), this CD will keep your metal listeners slammin' and you'll be considered a hero or heroine for playing it. Throw on "Shattered In-The Head" and brace your self for wiry guitar solos layered with shattering drums, Gibbons' fiery vocals and infectious low-end grooves. For more head-banging grinds check out the title track, "The Move," "Self Centered," "Freedom" and "Ruled By Hatred," Most of the lyrics dealwith the inner-self struggles that we all encounter as well as lashing out at the established bureaucracy that is rotting the core of our existence with pettiness, "Catalyst" is an excellent acoustic tune which features hypnotic vocals and a mesh of melodic guitar strums that blossom into intricate harmonies that fade reluctantly away. It's a great song to play if you want to slow down your set. Insult To Injury are representative of rock of the '90s: hard and angry but genuinely talented, with the ability to write non-abrasive songs that would be suitable for adult-oriented radio. That being said, I don't think A/C radio would take a chance with "Catalyst," mostly because of the name, but it sure would be cool if they did.

MONSTER VOODOO MACHINE Defense Mechanism (D-Tribe/RCA)

Canada's Monster Voodoo Machine rock. If you saw them perform at the last Foundations Forum you know what I mean. I've been a fan since I first heard the heavy grooves of "Get On With It," which was from their State Voodoo/State Control EP. With the release of their last album, Suffersystem, which featured 12 guitar raving tracks layered with industrial sampling and other special effects, Monster Voodoo Machine (Adam Sewell, vocals; Terry Landry, bass; Jason Cuddy, guitar Darren Quinn, guitar; Dean Bentley, drums; Stacey Hoskins, samples) made their first impression on rock radio which resulted in many spins and has kept them on the Gavin Rocks chart for the past six weeks. If you're considering dropping MVM from your playlist. think again. The Defense Mechanism EP contains remixed songs from Suffersystem and showcases their extreme industrial inclination. The title track, "Copper Theft (Denial Mix)" and "Inside These Wall (Reapin' Madd Havoc Mix)" are the new mixed tracks and they deserve a good exploratory listen. Also included is the original mix of "Inside These Walls (Salvaged And Recycled). From hiphop grooves to industrial spuzz, Defense Mechanism is a twisted gift from the boys up North. Share it with your listeners.

THE BOUNCING SOULS The Good, The Bad And The Argyle (BYO)

The Bouncing Souls have escaped from New Jersey and are considered extremely alternative. Armed with guitars, bass, drums and vocal yells. The Bouncing Souls (Greg-Anonito, vocals; Pete Steinkopf, guitar; Bryan Kienlen, bass; Shal-Khichi, drums) are attempting to infiltrate rock radio with their 12track CD The Good, The Bad And The Arglye. Alternative-leaning rock radio as well as some metal stations will succumb to the band's '90s punk sound, especially if they're into playing goofy cover songs. Khichi and Steinkopf are the ringleaders of the band, having jammed together since they were 13. Kienlen and Anonito, then 17. were next on the scene, offering their services so the group could successfully cover Ramones' and U2 songs. As time went by not only did the band's sound become more aggressive, they started writing their own songs which resulted in the release a couple of 7 inches and a few EPs. Now on BYO records, The Bouncing Souls have finally released a full length album that's loaded with thrashy tunes like "I Like Your Mom," "Joe Lies" and "Neurotic." Don't be alarmed by the humor that's woven through several cuts—it won't leave scars. Be sure to check out the cover of Bow Wow Wow's "I Want Candy" and "I Know What Boys Like." The Good, The Bad And The Argyle is an interesting listen that college radio will have a lot of fun with. Go crazy.

SEED "Doe"

(Mechanic/Giant)

Rock radio gave Seed modest airplay a while back, but the band never made a huge impact at hard rock/metal radio. If you're a Seed fan, or your listeners like that alternative hard rock sound, here's your chance to give the band another spin. Mechanic and Giant records are looking for adds with "Doe," the new single from their last album Ling. Combining elements of alternative and hard rock, "Doe" rides a wave of swirling guitar melodies and bass-driven rhythms that are directed by cascading vocals. This track would sound good between Offspring and Bad-Religion—or any other band that has a slight alternative edge to itso give either the edited of album version a whirl.

QUEENSRYCHE "Bridge"

(EMI)

"Bridge" is Queenryche's latest single from their latest album, Promise Land. Album and COR stations will find the delicate acoustic guitar rhythms and soothing vocals applicable to their current rock rotations. Hard core metal stations will find this track a little too tame, but should consider giving it a spin or two to cool down a fiery playlist. "Bridge" has got the Zeppelin feel to it, and anyone who enjoys good acoustic strumming should give this one special attention.

HUEY LEWIS & THE NEWS Little Bitty Pretty One (Elektra)

Both Thurston Harris and Bobby Day scored a hit with this tune in 1957. This version is similar in style to the band's cover of "It's Alright" from the Curtis Mayfield tribute album. Instantly recognizable, it's impossible to resist the urge to sing along. It's no surprise that it generates tremendous audience response in concert. Not only is it uptempo, it clocks in at 2:04!

GLADYS KNIGHT End Of The Road (MCA)

Few artists would dare attempt to re-do song that was number one only two years ago. But one would be hard pressed to think of someone better suited to render an interpretation of this '90s classic than this legendary performer. This one rates right up there among Gladys' very best.

WEEZER Buddy Holly (DGC)

"undone-the sweater song," introduced Top 40 audiences to the clever lyrics and fresh sound of Weezer. But this track. which qualifies as this week's Record To Watch, is finding its way onto playlists quickly. This is the one that will bust 'em wide open. Producer Ric Ocasek captures the magic of the music and the video has PDs totally knocked out. Gee. will we ever think of the singer from Lubbock and that TV producer from the Twin Cities in the same way again?

CELINE DION Only One Road (550 Music)

By the time Celine walks down the aisle to marry her longtime manager Rene Angelil later this month, expect this one to be getting the same kind of exposure at Top 40 that A/C has been giving it for weeks. Another powerful entry from one of the finest vocalists on the planet.

PEARL JAM Vitalogy (Epic)

When a band gets as big as Pearl Jam it can fall prey to creating music for an adoring audience, losing its personal vision in the shuffle. Eddie Vedder's lyrics and the band's music avoid this fate, as Vitalogy rings with undiluted vitality. "Last Exit" is an anthemic blast and "Spin The Black Circle" is a chop chop rocker with vintage Vedder vocals. "Not For You" attacks the exploitation of youth, and "Whipping" flexes the band's instrumental muscle. Radio should check out "Better Man's" soulful melody and "Immortality's" solemn grace. Spend some time with this one and watch it bloom.

-DAVID BERAN VARIOUS ARTISTS MoJazz Christmas Album (MoJazz/Motown)

It's been a satisfying growth vear for Molazz, the jazz division of Motown Records, Guitarist Norman Brown's After The Storm has been an A2 success for both radio and retail. Hot bop pianist Eric Reed is poised to deliver his hot second album, and another star on the horizon is funk saxophonist J. Spencer. MoJazz celebrates Christmas with this suave compilation of smooth jazz fixings, including three tunes from Reed, two from Brown, one from Spencer, and a handful from other Molazz artists like Terra Sul and Wayne Johnson.—KEITH ZIMMERMAN

THE BEATLES LIVE AT THE BBC (Capitol)

Back in 1963, when rock 'n' roll on the BBC ("the Beeb") was severely rationed to special programming, the Beatles arrived that year and took advantage of the millions of British listeners on such live shows as Talent Spot. Easy Beat and Saturday Club. Techs hastily hooked up mono (not multi-track) tape machines and could cut five numbers in just over three hours. Live At The BBC, surgically remastered by George Martin, chronicles the Beatles' brash ability to plug in and play, with songs sandwiched between snippets of childish and innocent radio banter.

MARY J. BLIGE My Life (Uptown/MCA)

After a double-platinum debut, Mary J. Blige is back strong. Mary J. wrote most of the songs on My Life, but for spice she restyled Rick James' "Mary Jane" and "All Night Long." My favorite tracks on this excellent set are "I'm Going Down" and "You Bring Me Joy." With the excellent production by Sean "Puffy" Combs, Chucky Thompson, Herb Middleton, and Mr. Dalvin of Jodeci, My Life and Mary J. Blige will surpass double-platinum this time around.

TLC Crazy Sexy Cool (LaFace/Arista)

Crazy Sexy Cool is the second album from Tionne "T-Boz" Watkins, Rozanda "Chilli" Thomas and Lisa "Left-Eye" Lopes, the hip-hop trio known as TLC. This album shows off TLC's considerable growth since their 1992 debut album Oooohhh.... On The TLC Tip, which went triple-platinum. The all-star writing and production team of Jermaine Dupri, Dallas Austin, Sean "Puffy" Combs, Babyface, and Carl "Chucky" Thompson, assembled for Crazy Sexy Cool, and, Lisa "Left-Eye" Lopes also cowrote several songs. This album is funky and for real. It's intimate in its messages and the stories are believable. It's a balance of smooth ballads, hip-hop flavored tracks and original interludes. Crazy Sexy Cool is all of the above -BILL SPEED
