30 Percent Dip

Rock Concert Business Reeling from Recession

The risky business of rock concerts and tours has turned horrific, with business down between 25 and 30 percent during the first half of 1991 compared with the same period last year, according to recent reports.

Pollstar magazine, which tracks concert revenues, blamed the ongoing recession, high ticket prices and dearth of superstar acts on the road for the downturn.

In the first six months of 1990, the top 100 concerts grossed $110 million, the magazine noted. This year, the comparable figure is $76 million.

According to the North American Concert Promoters Association, ticket sales are down 30 percent from last year.

Even hard rock bands with loyal audiences, such as Poison and Iron Maiden, have cancelled shows or ended tours early. Guns N' Roses, whose tour has been the season's most controversial, lost money on early dates.

One problem, said Pollstar Editor Gary Bongiovanni, is ticket prices. He noted that bands like Bad Company, Damn Yankees and Warrant lowered prices below the industry average—Warrant was asking around $13 a seat—and did good business.

Meantime, Electric Light Orchestra Part II staged a European tour early this year with a $3 million production featuring backup by the 80-piece Moscow Symphony Orchestra, digital sound, and a hydraulic spaceship. When ELO II does its U.S. tour beginning next month, however, the Russians aren't coming, and the originally planned $35 ticket price will be lowered.

Some bands—mostly notably the Grateful Dead, whose fan base seems impervious to economic or musical trends—have prospered. (In the first six months of the year, the Dead sold $22.6 million in tickets.) But more, among them R.E.M., Dire Straits, and New Kids On The Block, have chosen to stay home.

Which, unfortunately, is what more and more pop music fans appear to be doing. In the age of video, according to some promot-

FCC Heats Up KROQ Pot; Sets Hearing on Hoax

The FCC has set a formal hearing for July 30 to gather testimony about a murder confession hoax concocted by two disc jockeys at KROQ-FM-Los Angeles.

The Commission conducted an informal investigation into the when did they know it?

The FCC subpoenaed several KROQ employees, including Operations Manager Trip Reeb and PD Andy Schoun, for the closed hearing, which is similar to a grand jury proceeding and will involve testimony under oath and the subpoena of evidence.

The hoax took place in June, 1990 on KROQ's morning show, hosted by Gene ("Bean") Baxter and Kevin Ryder. They broadcast a telephone call from a man who told them he had killed his girlfriend. The anonymous caller turned out to be a DJ in Arizona, Doug ("the Slug") Roberts, who now works at KROQ.

The "confession" drew the attention of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, which later said it spent ten months investigating the case. Before the hoax was uncovered, the call was broadcast on the syndicated TV show, Unsolved Mysteries, and generated some 400 "leads."

The case was cracked after hoax and said, in a hearing order, that what it had learned "raises substantial questions" about station owner Infinity Broadcasting Corporation and its "activities and control as they relate to the broadcast, the response and the licensee's exercise of control over KROQ-FM's operations." In short, what did management know, and Roberts was hired by KROQ six months after his call to Baxter and Ryder. A listener reportedly recognized Roberts' voice as that of the hoax caller and tipped the police. In April, Baxter and Ryder fessed up, apologized on the air and were suspended for five days each. Along with Roberts, they were ordered to pay a $12,170 bill sent to KROQ by the Sheriff's Department and to perform 149 hours of community service.

After the FCC inquired into the incident, Infinity filed a 152-page response. "Infinity conducted a thorough investigation and concluded there was no management involvement in the murder hoax," said Dennis Corbett, an attorney for Infinity.

If the FCC comes to a different conclusion, options range from a light scolding—the issuing of an admonition—to a $25,000 fine and revocation of the station's license.

Soho SquareSony U.K. Jumps into Pan-European Market

Sony Music U.K. has announced a new label, Sony Soho Square, and named its A&R Chief Muff Winwood as Managing Director.

Though based in London, Sony Soho Square will have a pan-European accent. According to Paul Russell, Chairman of Sony Music U.K., the label can sign English-language acts from anywhere in Europe, and Sony's sister companies on the Continent will be encouraged to refer acts with long-term potential to the new label.

Sony Soho Square's first signings are from England, but, said Russell, "They will sign talent wherever it comes from. There are no boundary restrictions."

The promotion of Winwood moves him away from A&R, where, in a 13-year stretch, he signed Wham! with George Michael, Basia, Sade, Terence Trent D'Arby, Prefab Sprout, Alison Moyet and Paul Young,

Return to Sender

KUFX ("The Fox")—San Jose, CA sent out 220,000 letters, signed by GM Ed Krampf, asking people to sample the new Classic Rock station and let him know what they thought. 21,752 sent back the reply cards, which, at a 9.5% return rate, is more than double the average for a direct mail response. Above, the mail doesn't cramp Krampf's style.

Under Winwood, the label's A&R Director is Lincoln Elias, and Diane Young will serve as A&R Manager/Talent Scout. Sony Soho Square hopes to have a roster of about 12 acts within two years, with several being from Continental Europe, according to Russell.

Azoff's Giant Plans in Tampa

Irving Azoff's Azoff Entertainment Company and Robert Geddes' Eric/Chandler Entertainment plan to build a 12,000-seat concert facility in downtown Tampa, FL.

Azoff, who with Geddes currently operates Irvine Meadows, a major outdoor concert facility in Southern California, will spend some $25 million to build the MusicDome, which will have a convertible roof. The hall will be located on Tampa's downtown waterfront.

ers, artists are getting so much exposure by television that fans are less interested in seeing them perform live.

To increase interest, some promoters have revived the old idea of package tours. A combo of Bell Biv DeVoe, Johnny Gill, and Keith Sweat did well this year, and several packages, including Club MTV, Clash of the Titans (with Megadeth, Anthrax and Slayer), and the Gathering of the Tribes were trotted out in recent weeks to mixed results. The Tribes show cancelled after three concerts, but the Lollapalooza Festival, organized and headlined by Jane's Addiction and running 12 hours, is a hot ticket in tepid times.

The industry will also keep its collective fingers crossed when Van Halen hits the road in August, and it will watch what happens next year, when such acts as Genesis, Pink Floyd, U2, Bruce Springsteen, and John Cougar Mellencamp are expected to hit the road.

KODJ Switches to KCBS/FM

CBS Radio is enjoying Top 10 rankings for its owned-and-operated Oldies stations in New York, Boston, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

But in Los Angeles, KODJ is 21st in the spring Arbitron's 12+ rankings, its 1.9 (up from 1.6) well below rival KRTH-FM's 3.6. In the Birch, KODJ dipped from 1.7 to 1.4.

In a move to boost KODJ's numbers, CBS changed the station's call letters to KCBS-FM on July 12.

"The CBS call letters have an enormously strong identity for the Oldies format," said Rod Calarco, VP, CBS Owned FM Stations. "The station will build on its existing strength and be even more identifiable in the market.

"CBS" is already being used by the network's TV affiliate, KCBS-TV, by its New York Oldies outlet, WCBS-FM, and by its San Francisco News station, KCBS-AM. KCBS-FM was also used for years in the Bay Area before that station became KRQR (The Rocker) in 1982.

The call letter switch is the only change being made, said VP/GM Dave Van Dyke. "Our air staff is strong, the music fits the market and our new identity will bring all the elements together."

New Broadcasting Museum Set to Open

The Museum of Television and Radio, four times the size of its predecessor, the Museum of Broadcasting, is being rushed to completion for its scheduled opening on September 12.

The museum, at 25 West 52nd Street in New York, is being built on land contributed by the late William S. Paley, former chairman of CBS and founder of the museum. The building itself is costing some $50 million.

Inside the 17-story, 72,000 square-foot museum, visitors will find some 25,000 television programs, 15,000 radio programs and 10,000 commercials from 70 years of broadcasting history.

KMEL Summer Jam Doubles the Slams

KMEL-FM—San Francisco, which last year raised some $188,000 for various community groups with its all-day Summer Jam concert, plans to go one better this year: it will stage two concerts on successive days.

The shows, at the outdoor Shoreline Amphitheater in Mountain View, CA on August 3 and 4, will feature some 25 acts. The first show includes Hi-Five, Boyz II Men, Keith Washington, 3rd Bass, Paris, Another Bad Creation, Digital Underground, and Too Short. The next day, performers include Heavy D & The Boyz, Color Me Badd, DJ Quick, Oaktown's 3-5-7, C+CMusic Factory, Salt 'N Pepa, Tara Kemp, and Brand Nubians.

Proceeds will go to a variety of local groups involved in fighting street violence and drug abuse.

INSIDE TOP 40 by Dave Sholin

Since the beginning of the year, in conversation after conversation with PDs around the country, one word keeps coming up—polarization! On this page in early March, former WZOU PD Steve Perun cited the split in teen and adult tastes in music as a major reason few Rock records are now heard on Top 40. A few weeks ago I called Chuck Knight, PD of KRNQ Des Moines, to get his feelings about changing perceptions of Midwest stereotypes and the conversation turned to the subject of polarization. Chuck explained, "When you stop and think about lifestyle, there is such a difference between a 22-year old who's still in that college lifestyle and a 27-year old who's been out in the world for four or five years. Music preferences are going to vary as much as lifestyle." In focus groups, Chuck hears people say, "I used to listen to that station in high school, but my musical tastes have changed." Programming by the motto, "familiarity breeds content," he dayparts what research determines to be polarized records. Chuck adds that it's not only the changing attitudes and tastes causing a split, but older audiences also tend to be less aware of current music. In discussing the issue of polarization, few can be more emphatic than Dene Hallam, PD at 93Q (KKBQ) Houston. "In my opinion," says Dene, "this is the biggest generation gap between parents and kids since The Beatles/British Invasion. I see so many sub-groups (inside Arbitron demos), with totally different musical tastes, it's frightening." Dene "truly believes that a 35-year old is much more like a 25-year old, as opposed to a 25-year old being like a 15-year old." It's his experience that Top 40 needs to "uncover more dollars targeted for 12-24s. Clubs have become major accounts for our station and additional support from record companies sure would help." But while Dene admits, "the word 'polarized' is overused," he is adamant that, "it's absolutely happening in 1991, creating a terrible dilemma for Top Forty programmers."

Top 40 has long sought out those records which appeal to the widest cross section of the public, and rarely has a release fit that qualification more than NATALIE COLE with NAT "KING" COLE. Having just attended her performance in San Francisco, I witnessed an audience ranging in age from twenty to sixty, whose response was phenomenal to a truly "Unforgettable" show. Conventional wisdom would say a song like this is not compatible with today's brand of Top 40 radio—well, so much for conventional wisdom. Exploding at WBBQ 36-26, Y95 21-11, KOYE 37-30, WCKZ 32-26, WKNE 14-4, KMEL 15-9, KHTR 29-19, KSTN 21-14, Q106 15-12 and Z102 27-16. HEAR AND THERE

by Sheila Rene

If you're wondering who's flying through the window in those "Terminator 2" TV ads, we can answer it here. Lead singer of Little Caesar, Ron Young, gets the old heave-ho from Arnold Schwarzenegger in a pool room sequence in the opening scene. Young rolled off the car hood to rush off to film a live concert with the newest band member, former David Bowie guitarist Earl Slick. The footage is for an upcoming ABC-TV special, "In Concert '91," which will be aired in August. Little Caesar is writing and recording demos now for their new DGC release while placing tunes in several movies. Their new track "Down To The Wire" is in the Patrick Swayze/Keanu Reeves film, "Point Break" and two old songs, "Wrong Side Of The Tracks" and "From The Start", show up in John Hughes' upcoming film "Dutch" starring Ed O'Neill from "Married With Children." ...

Bits & Pieces: The Los Angeles chapter of the Black Rock Coalition celebrated their third anniversary with a showcase. The theme for this year's performance was "Tunnel Vision Crackdown...The Liberation of True Black Music." Founded in 1985 by Living Colour guitarist, Vernon Reid, writer Greg Tate and film producer Konda Mason, the BRC is a united front of politically progressive Black artists and supporters whose primary goals are to educate the public regarding the history of Rock N' Roll. This year's show featured newly signed Chrysalis artists Follow For Now, Frija, Blakasaurasmex, Jason Luckett and Mother's Finest, who were presented with a Lifetime Achievement Award. In August Rykodisc will release a 10-song compilation, The History Of Our Future featuring BRC artists J.J. Jumpers, Michael Hills Bluesland, The Good Guys and PBR Streetgang...Last week Hollywood Records released the entire Sacred Reich catalog as well as a three-song maxicassette containing brand new material. The new release is called A Question and includes a cover of Fear's punk anthem, "Let's Have A War" plus a song from The American Way album, Who's To Blame. Look for them on their U.S. tour with Sepultura, Napalm Death and Sick Of It All. A winner!...Rock The Vote has been added to the Lollapalooza Festival. Working with the League of Women Voters, RTV plans to organize voter registration drives at each of the 20 tour dates with up to fifty volunteers registering voters. In addition, they'll kick off the "Dear President" postcard campaign supporting voter registration reform and the National Voter Registration Act of 1991 (Senate Bill 250) also known as the Motor Voter Bill. The bill would permit U.S. citizens 18 years or older to register to vote when they renew their driver's license...Simply Red will release their fourth album and first for EastWest Records America on October 1. Lead singer Mick Hucknall and producer Stewart Levine are currently mixing Stars at Conway Studios in Los Angeles...Next week I'll include highlights from an interview with RTZ's Brad Delp. The band is riding high with the first single from their upcoming Giant/Reprise album. "Face The Music," garners the #2 Most Added slot on the Gavin Album chart. They tied for Top Tip the same week with the Fabulous T-Birds new single "Twist Of The Knife." ...

So far the packaged tours (Operation: Rock and Roll, Gathering Of The Tribes), haven't been selling as briskly as we'd like to see. Critics are charging the actual venues and poor booking is to blame, while I contend it's merely the economy. The "Gathering of Tribes II" in San Francisco seemed to attract individual groups who came just to see their favorite band(s) and not to enjoy the wonderful variety of the day. Texas was represented by two very talented bands, Kings X and Johnny Law. The Bay Area's Primus really ignited the crowd as did Fishbone and X. This was a great show if you were into studying the current scene. The big draw on the midway was an artist who was shaving heads, and was surrounded by 50 to 100 onlookers all day. The following Sunday's "Operation Rock and Roll" didn't sell out either, but everyone was there to enjoy every single act on the bill and to party with fellow hard rockers. The audience got into the mood right away with Metal Church and Dangerous Toys and accelerated with Motorhead. All three of these bands presented material from their new albums still in contention on the charts. Alice Cooper really warmed up the night with a smashing stage set and lights to match the red-hot new material from Hey Stoopid along with those wonderful standards. The night belonged to Judas Priest who continue to charge up an audience like no other act and drew material from all their albums. Chants of "Priest, Priest, Priest," ensued after each pyrotechnic twist. Local guitar whiz Joe Satriani jammed with the Priest on their encore, "Painkiller." A very strong show for those fans who came out to be part of the tribe...

A warrant has been issued by the Los Angeles City Attorney's office for the arrest of Dr. Dre (aka Andre Young) of the Rap group NWA. According to STR Public Relations, Dre was angry that a video piece on Ice Cube, a former member of NWA, was inserted into a segment of the national Rap music show "Pump It Up." Producer Jeff Shore inserted the piece when the show featured NWA back in January. At a Speak Easy party for BWP, Dee Barnes, host of Fox's "Pump It Up," was chatting with Fred Brown of Black Steel Management when Dre's bodyguard reportedly punched Doug Young, an employee of Priority Records, and held off the crowd as Dre picked up Dee by the front of her shirt. He grabbed her by the hair and ear, then began slamming her face and body repeatedly. When his attempt to throw her down some stairs failed, he kicked her in the ribs, and as Barnes ran to the restroom Dr. Dre followed her inside, grabbed her by the hair and continued to punch her in the back of the head. It was at this point that Dre's bodyguard grabbed him, and the two ran from the building. A $20 million suit has been set by Barnes for punitive damages and $2.75 million for general damages. Barnes reportedly received various threats warning her to refrain from going public with the facts of this incident. Even though she's concerned about her own safety and that of her family, the motivation to pursue this matter comes from a concern for other women who might find themselves in potentially violent situations.

FILL IN THE BLANK

WE GOT STUPID ANSWERS BECAUSE WE ASKED RADIO GUYS STUPID QUESTIONS.

Many of the fine broadcasters who appear in this column do so because they have responded to a form I've sent them. The form will traditionally include two essay questions and three to five fill-in-the-blank questions such as Name _____ and Call letters _____. A recent form featured the question, Astrological Sign _____. The responses I received were both captivating and revealing.

JAMIE STEWART at KUBQ in Lagrande lists his astrological sign as "Caffeine Crossing". It's possible that too much caffeine induced him to believe this was funny.

RICH VARGO from WZOM/Defiance, OH says his sign is "A clenched fist with one finger aimed at the stars." We're not clear on the source of Rich's anger but we do advise parents to tell their kids he's pointing out cloud formations.

BRUCIE BUMCHUCKLES of WLXR/La Crosse, WI has never been a well man. It shouldn't surprise anyone that his Astrological Sign is "Children at Play," which may be a new-age way of saying "Toys in Attic."

BANANA & MEL in the morning at KMYZ/Tulsa list their sign as "Dweezil." We think they're very confused. They meant "Moon Unit".

CLAM CHOWDER from KOTR/Cambria tells us his Astrological Sign is "Stop," so we will.

WYKZ/Hilton Head's MARK ROBERTSON lists "Jewish" as his sign. So I guess his moon is in sacrifice and his sun is in guilt.

From KISR/Ft. Smith, AK LARRY McKAY informed us that his sign is "Hairball," which seems really, really gross until we get to Tupelo, MS's BILL HICKOCK at Sunny 93 who claims that his Astrological Sign is "Feces." Eeeeeew.

CLINT McELROY at WRVC/Huntington was born under the sign of "Herpes The Love Bug" and WSNX/Muskegon, MI's JOJO GERARD (no relation to Rhoda's husband) was born under "Brutus the Muskie," which must have been especially painful for their mothers.

WNCD'S ROD LAWLESS in Youngstown,

OH reports that his Astrological sign is "Bright Neon". The only problem is that a couple of the tubes are burnt out so people think it says: "Bite on."

STEVE COOK at WXCL in Peoria, IL regrets to inform us that, "None of my stars connect." This is not a good sign, Steve, if you'll please pardon the pun. You should make an appointment to have your stars connected immediately. There's a new strand-by-strand method that leaves little scar- very ring.

On our next questionnaire, we asked radio personalities to list their hobbies. The responses we received indicate that our nation's airwaves are in some highly unstable hands.

When he gets some time to himself, STEVE COOK from WXCL/Peoria, MI likes to "Study lint." In fact, his lint collection is the talk of Peoria, which, from what we understand, is why so many people are marching off to go there...or was Pretoria the marching song? *Please write if you get this joke.

Don't show this to LAURI ALLEN's boss at KKYK/Little Rock, AR because her hobby is "Trying to look busy at work and trying to convince management that reading 'Rolling Stone' is an important element of 'show prep.'" Hey, if the boss walks by while you're reading this, tell him it's a mild sedative.

MARK ROBERTSON from WYKZ in Hilton Head, SC says his hobby is "Answering these little survey sheets." And you know, Mark, the passion with which you're pursuing your hobby is paying off. You have just achieved your second mention in this column alone.

SHAWN WILDE from KZOO in Missoula, MT lists his hobby as "Staying awake." Hey, it makes a wonderful hobby, or, in President Reagan's case, an occupation.

From MICHAEL BURNS at KBAM in Longview, WA we hear that his hobby is "Searching high and low for Jake, the alligator man's illegitimate brother Jerry." Michael, a lot of people are worried about you. Check yourself into some place clean and quiet with a friendly staff that's licensed to administer strong narcotics.

WADA/Shelby, NC's BOB MORGAN informs us that his hobby is "Counting the ear hairs of the elderly." Bob, count some brain cells. You may be a load short and eligible for a refund.

TOM CLIFTON from WXOQ in Selmer, TN lives a rich, full life. His hobbies include: "Fondling groupies, kicking cats, slapping old ladies and cussing rug rats." He is deeply loved by the three or four people in his community that he hasn't offended yet.

WIOV/Lancaster/Reading is the home of a radio man calling himself DR. MARK DANIELS. Is this how he's able to perpetrate his hobby of "Door-to-door gynecology?" Doesn't anyone ask to see his degree? And where do you call for test results?

My final survey question is... How would you end this column?

Please complete and turn your paper in to Weezy: Fax # (213) 467-9540. Jam I must!

Warned not to drink the water, KBAM/Longview's MICHAEL BURNS consumed enough tequila to believe whomever told him this outfit worked for him.

CONTINUING THE STRONG ISLAND HIP HOP TRADITION

The flavors all started with a man by the name of Bill "Mr. Bill" Stephney. With the introduction of the "Mr. Bill Show" to WBAU's Long Island airwaves in 1982, Hip Hop found a brand new outlet. With a policy of giving demos airplay, along with a general respect for the music, Bill's love for Hip Hop was apparent. "Nobody else was doing it (a rap show). It was great to be able to take the music you grew up with and apply it to radio," says Stephney. As the one time Program Director, he helped pave the way for the others to come. Little did Mr. Bill know that he was setting in motion a chain of events that would make WBAU famous forever.

Bill went on to become Vice-President of Marketing and Promotions at Def Jam in 1986 under Russell Simmons. Around the same time (the mid 80's), the "Spectrum Mix Show" was wreckin' on the weekend. Chuck D (hosted) along with Hank Shocklee, Terminator X, and Keith Shocklee all had the commercial Rap shows on the other side of the dial nervous. From this show came the world famous Public Enemy and the body movin' Bomb Squad. Both Chuck D and Hank Shocklee now have their own record labels (P.R.O. Division and S.O.U.L./MCA) as a result of their proven ability to make platinum albums. Included in this circle is someone who could never be forgotten, Flavor Flav (Public Enemy), who also had a show on WBAU called the "M.C. Flavor Show" (it had plenty of it).

The next 'BAU brother to get his props was Dr. Dre. His show "The Operating Room" was one of

BAU-LONG ISLAND,

Hip Hop's first comedy Rap shows. With musical commentary and comical episodes, Dr. Dre carved a lasting niche in Monday night radio. In 1989 Dre joined MTV as a co-host for Yo! MTV Raps, a show that's garnered some of the highest ratings the network has ever seen. Now Dre is on radio (WBLS-New York) bringing back the "Operating Room" with his partners Ed Lover and T-Money. Industry talk is that their show is about to be nationally syndicated.

The most recent WBAU alumnus in the hot seat is current Gavin Radio Rap reporter Wildman Steve. Having just been included on the album "Terminator X and the Valley of the Jeep Beets," Steve is ready to follow the example of those who came before him.

Starting with the news department Steve worked his way into an airshift. Steve worked a jazz show on Sundays with Steve. In '87 Dr. Dre (Yo! MTV busy outside of WBAU, so he felt that if Dre left there would be a help out. Dre taught me a lot about handed the show over to me."

With a signal that spills into oughs, Steve attracts national and lo-abroad. "I try to make WBAU a lished and up & coming artist. In the show, we still continue to play demo

With a definite eye towards the Hip Hop, Wildman Steve's show is a vital ingredient in the recipe of success for WBAU. "I think that as long as Rap artists don't let the record companies change what they're trying to do, Hip Hop will continue to expand and grow," says Steve.

For those hungry for Rap and Hip Hop with true flavor and soul, tune into the now legendary WBAU. Dinner is served. ■

After fifteen years of recording Pop and Soul songs, Natalie Cole has taken time out from the most contemporary of music to pay tribute to the timeless standards made famous by her father, Nat "King" Cole with the recent release of "Unforgettable With Love" as her debut for Elektra Entertainment.

Having already established herself as an award-winning singer in her own right, Natalie has taken great pride in the selection and performance of songs an older generation would consider essential to her father's musical legacy.

I talked with Natalie the week this album was released to unanimous critical acclaim. Since the interview, the album has gone on to become one of the country's best selling albums while the single, "Unforgettable" (a digitally created duet with her father) has reached the number one position on the Gavin Adult Contemporary chart.

Nat

RF: The reaction this album is receiving must put you on cloud nine. Are you pleased?

NC: Very pleased! I wasn't really sure just what the reaction would be, because the nature of the business is so unpredictable. I knew that there are a lot of hard-core fans of my dad who would love this, but I really didn't know what the general reaction would be. But I was hoping that it would be exactly what it is.

RF: How long did it take to put this project together?

NC: This happened so quickly, and I think it's probably because of the kind of people that were working on the project. The music gave us a serious edge—we all knew the music was great. Everybody was of the same mindset. We knew we weren't going to be using any technotronics, or synthesizers. We also knew we had to get the best players in the city. We had to get the best arrangers, ones who could hold on to the essence of the music but give it a contemporary edge. So it was just like putting a team together, and everybody knew what they had to do. (Arrangers) Johnny Mandel and Bill Holman came over, and everything just clicked. We began the sessions on January 15 and were finished on April 22.

RF: Was there a special reason this project ended up on Elektra?

NC: Tragically, my previous record company, EMI, was very lukewarm on this subject. When I first signed with Manhattan (which then became part of EMI) three years ago, Bruce Lundvall was heading it. We talked about this project, and even though it was not a part of my contract, it was something that I really wanted to do. Of course my manager and I had talked about it years before that. As far as I'm concerned it really wasn't a big deal; I knew it would happen one of these days because it just should have been part of my career. When Bruce Lundvall left it really broke my heart because he's a music lover, and one of the most knowledgeable executives in that position, and I found him very encouraging. But then he left and became General Manager of Capitol, so I didn't have that liaison. I broached the subject to the people that came in afterward, but they felt I should be coming in off of a huge hit record before I tackled a project like this. I never agreed with that. After "Everlasting" and "Good To Be Back," which were moderately successful, I was ready to at least discuss more seriously the idea of doing this tribute album. I was in the process of working on another "commercial" album for EMI when I just said to my manager, "I feel like I'm spinning my wheels, let's do some talking to some other people." Ironically enough, Bob Krasnow was someone that we had spoken to about three or four years ago. At the time he was lukewarm on signing me, which is why I ended up going to EMI. When I went to him again, he was on a hospital bed in New York recovering from hip surgery, and he almost jumped out of the bed when I told him about this. He said, "Jesus, of course we should do this, you should have done this already! Put that commercial album on hold and do this one."

RF: At that same time, about four years ago, Elektra was having tremendous success on the Linda Ronstadt series of Nelson Riddle albums, with very little airplay.

NC: Bob Krasnow didn't come in until after that, but certainly we're all aware of how successful and well-known that project became. I remember when Linda came out with that album, I was devastated. Absolutely devastated. One, bit of heat from Jazz purists when he first moved toward Pop music. Do you see any similarity?

NC: One of the reasons I did not start off my career doing my father's music is because I would not have been able to depart and go to R&B and Pop. I think that that would have been the kiss of death. For my dad to go from what everyone considered serious, quality (Jazz) to the Pop mainstream because Nelson Riddle was so close to my father, and I had had opportunities to work with him before, and we had talked about doing this kind of an album before he died. So I was really torn up when he passed away, and I just didn't know how I could get something like this done, because I really put a lot of my faith in Nelson. Great credit goes to Tommy LiPuma, David Foster and Andre Fischer who all agreed on who could give us that same magic that Nelson had in all of his arrangements—people like Johnny Mandel and Michel LeGrand.

RF: You talk about this album as being a career detour for you. Your father took a little was at that time considered the kiss of death. That's why he received such criticism.

RF: Which songs on this collection meant the most to your father?

NC: "The Very Thought Of You," was a song that he really liked. I know he liked "Lush Life" and "Straighten Up And Fly Right" which was his own composition. My mother's and dad's favorite song was "Our Love Is Here To Stay." My mother used to sing that song to me when I was little.

RF: As your dad was drifting more and more into Pop, there were some songs that were very big for him that he wasn't particularly thrilled with, like "Ramblin' Rose," and "Those Lazy-Hazy-Crazy Days Of Summer."

NC: I don't think he liked them too much. I intentionally left those off because I personally don't feel that they were as much as a representation of his career as other songs. They stick out like sore thumbs. "Those Lazy-Hazy-Crazy Days of Summer" and "Ramblin' Rose" came at a point where he had already established his career.

RF: You pushed this disc almost to the time limit—seventy-three minutes. What songs did we miss because of the limitations of the compact disc?

NC: I wanted to make the album a little more international by including some of his great Spanish hits. The other song that's not on there is a trio song called "At Last." I don't know yet what's going to happen to that song. "Cottage For Sale" is at least on the other side of the single, but "At Last" is kind of still floating in oblivion.

RF: A few years after your father's death, you were going to school at the University of Massachusetts. What did you expect to be doing with the rest of your life?

NC: I majored in Psychology.

INTRODUCING A LABEL
THAT PUTS ITS RELEASES
THROUGH A RIGOROUS
TWO-STEP APPROVAL PROCESS.

BNA isn't just a new country label from BMG. It's a whole new way of marketing country music.

Instead of just introducing an artist and hoping he's a hit, we test consumer response to our music beforehand. By letting true country music fans listen to it and tell us what they think.

Which means what BNA releases has a better chance of being a hit. Because it's already been proven.

And that's a whole lot better than just the same old song and dance.

STATION HAPPENINGS...WAXX-Eau Claire's Tim Wilson reports that the WAXX Country Jam '91 was a huge success. Over 20,000 people endured the heat to attend the three day event, which included performances by Marie Osmond, the Texas Tornados, the Oak Ridge Boys, Neal McCoy, Marty Stuart, Lee Greenwood, Waylon Jennings and many more...Rick Stevens returns as PD/MD at KRRV-Alexandria. Michael Bailey takes over the overnight shift...Please note: WDMV-Pocomoke City is no longer a Gavin Country reporting station...Rick James is the new PD/MD at KQIL-Grand Junction. He will take music calls Tuesday-Friday from 10AM - Noon (MT)...Don Gillespie is the new PD/MD at KTRW-Spokane...KMIX PDEd Nickus gave us the low down on the latest line-up at the Modesto station: Midnight-5:30—Dawn Sanford; 5:30-10AM—Dave Benton; 10AM-

3PM—Greg Edwards; 3PM-7PM—Easy Ed (Nickus) and 7PM-Midnight—Joe Jones...Rick Candea tells us that KILT/AM in Houston will now be known as "6-10 AM, Rodeo Country" and play traditional Country from the '60s to today. While they will retain the KILT call letters and continue simulcasting with KILT/FM during AM drive and from Midnight-4AM, the rest of the day will be spent making "an alternative Country music station that will reflect, year 'round, the same sense of community and involvement and pride that we feel every rodeo season."...When WDSB-Dover PD Randy Hooker, morning man Marc Fisher and local singer/songwriter Paul Gibson penned the lyrics to "Women"—a response to the Forester Sisters song "Men"—they were sure it would just be a morning show comedy bit. Since then, it's been recorded by a professional lead vocalist. After getting permission from the writers of the song "Men", "Women" by Paul Gibson & Fish Hook is being sold in record stores throughout Delaware and in parts of Maryland and New Jersey, with proceeds benefitting an area family crisis center. They've also been featured on TNN's VideoPM...KVOX-Fargo's Scott Winston reports that the Garth Brooks/Trisha Yearwood concert at the Red River Valley fair set an all time attendance record of over 14,000 people. Scott adds that the KVOX

VERN GOSDIN - The Garden (Columbia)
No wonder they call him "the voice." When he's got material this strong, just try and stop the goosebumps. With the exception of Jones, no one out there can sing a sad song like Vern. This one takes a sorrowful turn on the gospel song, "I Come To The Garden Alone," and Vern sings it to the heavens.

RICKY SKAGGS - Life's Too Long (To Live Like This) (Epic)
Ricky produced this single along with Mac McAnally and it smokes. It's the first single off his upcoming album, My Father's Son, and there is no doubt Ricky enjoyed himself while recording this one.

HANK WILLIAMS, JR. - Angels Are Hard To Find (Warner Bros./Curb)
Hank Jr. sends up this pagan prayer to the accompaniment of a weeping steel guitar.

THE BELLAMYS - All In The Name Of Love (Atlantic)
The Bellamys are making Atlantic proud these days. This time it's with a pretty song with slight spiritual overtones.

PROGRAMMER'S PICK

JOHNNY CASH - Wanted Man (Mercury)
"Wanted Man" combines the excitement of the legendary Johnny Cash of the 60's with the high quality sound of the 90's. It puts fun back into the air. Don't be afraid of this song...For the old Johnny Cash fans it will rekindle that old flame and for the new Cash fan "Wanted Man" will make a major impact.
H. David Allen, MD - KRKT Albany, OR crew had a great time when Garth invited them onstage for a rendition of "Friends In Low Places"...On July 4th, WFMS-Indianapolis hosted the Indiana Hoosier Hero Homecoming Celebration. There was a military parade, a pageant, and a Memorial Service which was hosted by morning man Charlie Morgan. As the official welcoming station, WFMS was the only radio station allowed to participate in the events.

What a Country.

Country Radio, that is. Programming that speaks from the heart. Calls a spade a spade. Country stations know how to treat their listeners like Family. And just as no two Families are identical, no two Country stations are exactly the same. So why broadcast a cookie-cutter pre-produced National Countdown show that doesn't sound like your station or reflect your market?

Now you can feature a customized Countdown Show that's on your stations' wave length. All the hits. Illuminating and authoritative interviews with chart-topping Country artists. Insights from the likes of Randy, Winona, Barbara...and Willie! Plus all the latest info on major Country music tours and special events. So, what makes Plain-Wrap so different from all the rest of the Countdowns out there? It's simple. Your air personality hosts the Show. The Countdown matches your clock. Your stop-sets. Your music sweeps — even your own local chart. You maintain complete control of your station's unique sound.

Sign-on with the Plain-Wrap Country Countdown today. It just might put some distance between you and the Posse. Offered on a market-exclusive basis from Premiere Radio Networks. Call your marketing representative today at (213) 46-RADIO. That's (213) 467-2346.

INSIDE A/C by Diane Rufer and Ron Fell

With 39 additional HEAVY rotation reports this week BRYAN ADAMS leaps to the top of the chart. Ninety-five percent of all players are reporting HEAVY rotation.

At a #17 to #9 to #5 pace, ROD STEWART's "The Motown Song" should easily be a #1 A/C track in August. Though still 40 stations away from unanimous, it nevertheless is HIT FACTORed by 91% of its players.

LENNY KRAVITZ has his first top ten A/C record as "It Ain't Over 'Til It's Over" moves #15 to #9 while clearing more than 200 stations. Among the 26 new this week are KEZR, KTDY/FM, KBOI, KATW/FM, KFYZ, KLCY/FM and WQHQ/FM.

Hottest track in the format is MICHAEL BOLTON's "Time, Love And Tenderness." Its HIT FACTOR has climbed from 35% to 79% in the past two weeks, while climbing #34 to #11 on the chart.

AARON NEVILLE's "Everybody Plays The Fool" is up #27 to #18 to #12 with three-fourths of his players HIT FACTORing and 16 new this week including WBDX/FM, WKYE, KELO/FM, KSSK/FM, KZMG, WIHN, KXLK, WDUZ and WSUL.

A 27% increase in HIT FACTOR by HUEY LEWIS AND THE NEWS' "It Hit Me Like A Hammer" was the best in the format. The track is halfway up the chart after just two weeks of numbered status. Its 33 ADDs include KLSI/FM, WMYX, KLCY/FM, WNSR/FM, WZNY and KRNO/FM.

Up from #28 to #21, CHICAGO's lovely ballad, "You Come To My Senses" is now HIT FACTORed by 72% of last week's players and that doesn't count another 27 ADDs from the likes of JOY99, KSBL, KCMJ/FM, KLCY, WFPS and WFBG.

Highest debut is KENNY G's soundtrack centerpiece from "Dying Young." It debuts at

BETTE MIDLER

The Gift Of Love (Atlantic)

A safe Bette. This song, written by Susanna Hoffs with Steinberg and Kelly, is a straight forward ballad that will keep on giving.

SHELBY LYNNE duet with LES TAYLOR

The Very First Lasting Love (Epic)

A majestic love song that sounds like an absolute adult appealer. Ms. Lynne and Mr. Taylor sing it with timeless duet magic.

PHIL PERRY

Amazing Love (Capitol)

Phil Perry's elastic vocal chords and the track's monster bassline and crisp percussion make for a devastating combination on this wonderful track.

IONI MITCHELL

Night Ride Home (Geffen)

The open road, far from the overkill and overload, is the subject of this piece that celebrates a special evening in typical Mitchell style.

BILLY DEAN

Somewhere In My Broken Heart (SBK)

This is one of the sweetest tunes we've heard in a long time. Billy's singing is crystal clear and filled with a pure sound of emotion. Once heard it will surely become a favorite.

#34 with 84 stations and a 44% HIT FACTOR. New this week at B100, KRNO/FM, KIZZ, KEZA and WAHR etc.

Our TOP TIP is an A/C natural, BETH NIELSEN CHAPMAN's "All I Have." It was the format's MOST ADDED with 42 including WTPI, WQLH/FM, KPAY, WFFX/FM, WRFC, WAFL, WJCL/FM and WJON.

Last issue's RECORD TO WATCH, TOM PETTY and the HEARTBREAKER's "Learning To Fly," gathered 17 new stations with WKYE, WPXZ, WNMB, KSCB, WQLR, Q92/FM, KCMX and B100 among those. Note that of the 53 total flyers on air with this tune, 45% are HIT FACTORing and on our Top 40 side TOM and the crew are charted at #25.

My first desire, when I was about twelve or thirteen, was to be a doctor. After my father died I wanted to be a research scientist. I wanted to knock down the walls of cancer, but as it turned out, much to my dismay, I wasn't very good in science! So I then settled for Child Psychology, and I found that to be very interesting. My mother and I had many discussions about opening clinics, one on the East Coast, one on the West Coast. I was going to use music as part of the therapy. But I didn't have a great desire or passion to be a singer. I did think of leaving school once when I was eighteen to go with a singing group, but my mother quickly quelled that idea. When I got out of college and started singing, this agent came and had heard of us. I was embarrassed to tell my mother, "Mom, instead of going to grad school, I think I'm going to be on the road."

RF: Were you considered a novelty, as Nat Cole's daughter?

NC: Yes, that was definitely blazoned across my chest, and because of what I was singing, I was definitely a novelty. First of all, I was a black girl with white backup musicians and we were singing Rock, doing a lot of Jimi Hendrix, Jefferson Airplane, Crosby, Stills and Nash, Tina Turner stuff. We'd throw in a couple of Top Forty things but we'd always rearrange them. So, we were not a typical Top Forty lounge act—we had a little bit of an edge. My musical knowledge at that time was eclectic—I liked to do a lot of different things, so that kind of made us stick out.

RF: Did having the degree in Child Psychology turn out to be beneficial in being a parent?

NC: It's been very helpful. Before I even had children I found myself using psychology in my work. In greeting people and getting to know people. People are very impressionable—there is a way to approach people that can be much more gentle than the way human beings usually approach one another. Now that I've got four children running around, it's helpful—but it's still not that great!

RF: When I was growing up mental things. It was very soothing, I love that music.

RF: Can I gather that this is a detour rather than a whole change in career course for you?

NC: I think that I owe this music a little time. I don't think that I'm going to be doing this forever. But because I've been wanting to do this album for such a long time, and now that I'm finally doing it, it feels really good. That's one of the reasons I've decided to not do any of my Pop stuff 'til sometime next year. But I do plan on writing and getting back into R&B and Pop.

RF: Didn't you sing "Unforgettable" in your live show to tapes of your father?

NC: Yes. We had a big reel-to-reel offstage with my dad's voice on it and they muted the music behind him, and then they would put a click track in the conductor's headphones. So there'd be a live orchestra on stage, and he would conduct according to the click track. We were so happy it worked, and the audience would always freak out.

RF: I read you once did an album of your father's songs with Johnny Mathis?

NC: Yes, although actually it was Johnny's album, we did about four songs every night at cocktail time my parents would play records by your father, Frank Sinatra, George Shearing...

NC: Exactly! My parents did the same thing. Five o'clock cocktail time, they'd put on The Jackie Gleason Orchestra and Dinah Washington. A lot of band and orchestra instru-together. It was never released here, only in Europe. He was doing a live show for the BBC in London and I was a guest on the show. We did a medley. Johnny and I also did a tribute to my father's music with the Boston Pops several years ago on PBS. So this has been a long time coming. ●

by Eric Norberg

I
 In every programming situation where I have been able to set pay policy for the airstaff, I have always set up a single pay scale. In this system, each staff member earns the same starting salary and everyone receives a salary increase of specific percentage at the end of each year of employment. Since people join the airstaff at different times, the individual air people may be making different amounts at any given time, but the pay scale is the same for everyone. The reward for the morning shift, for example, is getting that shift, not getting paid extra to do it. (I usually only hire people I feel could do any shift and start all new staff members on the all-night shift, promoting each person to another shift when the next person is hired and placed in all-nights.)

This may seem like an odd approach. I have always felt that unequal pay scales tend to prevent "team spirit" among the airstaff, leading to jealousies and cliques which are destructive to the goals of any radio station. At stations where I did not have the authority to set the pay scale, the morning personality always earned significantly more than everybody else, the afternoon person was paid more than the mid-day person and all daytime airstaff made more than the evening personality, etc...

Now, to my surprise, I find that what I have always practiced is the latest thing in management! In an article titled "Incentivise Me, Please" from this year's May 27th issue of FORBES magazine, authors Dana Linden and Vicki Contravespi report on the views of the 90-year-old American economist W. Edwards Deming. Credited with "practically inventing" the "Japanese system" after World War II, he taught the Japanese about the relationship between quality and economic ascendance under the sponsorship of the U.S. government. (Winning the "Deming Prize" today is perhaps the highest honor in the Japanese business community.)

The authors of the article tell us that "Deming would pay every employee—right up through the chief executive—a straight salary or wage. Those in the same job would be paid roughly the same; some differences would be created by seniority, since everyone would get annual raises. Those raises would be uniform, not based on merit. Such a system, he argues, would encourage teamwork rather than encourage superstars.

"The one acceptable bonus plan to Deming is profit-sharing. But every employee would get an equal share. The chief executive getting the same bonus as a factory worker? 'Well, why not? Certainly,' says Deming, looking astonished by the question.

"How would people be rewarded? Some would be promoted, which would bring a hike in pay. Exceptionally poor performers would be transferred into new jobs." (Or fired!)

The authors go on to note that "Though many people are familiar with some of Deming's ideas [about quality control and delivering value to customers], few are aware that an integral part of his method is eliminating the pay-for-performance compensation plan that American business people swear by. His reasoning?

"'You cannot measure performance...' says Deming. 'Merit pay is not merit pay. Differences may be caused by the system. It's rewarding the circumstances. Same thing as rewarding the weatherman for a pleasant day.'"

Taking the thought further, I am personally opposed to ratings-based pay for the Program Director. All now-existent rating services have margins of error that are greater than the usual movement of a station from book to book—which, again, amounts to rewarding (or penalizing) a P.D. for circumstances which may not have any relationship to how the station is actually doing with its audience. If a good book could get you a raise, a bad book could get you fired. In both cases it is possible that station didn't really undergo any significant change in it's audience, it may have been affected solely by statistical noise coming from the composition of each ratings sample.

I also agree with Deming's bonus argument; if the airstaff is performing as a team, any bonus should be shared among the airstaff. At a proportionately lower level, I would even include station part-timers with sufficient tenure in the bonussing. Returning to the article:

"[Deming says] bonuses and merit pay can never be set fairly. 'Ranking people is one of the evils. You put it down there: Demoralization. This country was built on cooperation,' he says. 'People could work as hard as they wished. They helped each other. Now they dare not cooperate. If I am inept on the job, I'm an asset to you. Helps you to get a better rating.'

"Deming argues that management by the numbers sabotages the company, by directing employees' efforts toward a few narrow goals. 'The top salesman may be ruining the company,' says Deming. 'He gets higher commissions because he is selling a bigger machine than the customer needs. The customer finds out he doesn't need that machine. In the long run, the company gets a bad name.'

Change "machine" to "radio spot package," and the statement applies just as well to some radio station situations I have encountered. And how many P.D.'s have worked with Sales Managers who always hired sellers who were less competent than themselves? Such managers live in fear of displacement by their sales staffs as the station's overall sales suffer. The Sales Manager is supposed to manage a team, not compete with their staff for sales!

To say the least, this article will be met with some controversy, however I welcome your thoughts, stories and reactions to the various thoughts presented in today's column. Write me c/o The Gavin Report! ■

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

ESTE MUNDO - GIPSY KINGS (ELEKTRA MUSICALIAN)

The new Gipsy Kings CD has a cavernous, thunderous ring to it. We checked to see if the loudness button on the amplifier pressed by mistake. The Gipsy's foot stamping, hand clapping and whirling five classical guitar frontline pushes as much air from the speakers as any Van Halen music we've heard. However, if Nicolas Reyes' impassioned vocal wail pushes your sound meters a bit too much into the red, start with the more accommodating instrumental tracks like "Lagrimas" and "Ternuras." Then turn up the heat with "Furia." A vocal piece like "Mi Vida" is restrained, yet still lives up to the inflamed, down-on-one-knee fervor that attracts listeners to the Gipsys. On the other hand, if the Kings' romantic thrust is nary a problem, turn it up and start at track one and work out.

FROM ONE CHARLIE... - CHARLIE WATTS (CONTINUUM)

Rock folks agree that the very base of the Rolling Stones sound is those interlocking, syncopated drum/rhythm guitar riffs derived from a seemingly inborn cueing system between Keith Richards and his drummer Charlie Watts. Watts' dependable, anchor-like presence is something any bandleader would kill to have. As rock scholars also know, Charlie's craft springs from his deeply rooted love for Bop and Jazz. From One Charlie... is seven pieces culled from a ten inch vinyl release celebrating the genius of Bird and the re-release of a children's book that Watts wrote, illustrating Parker's appeal to younguns. To do so musically, Watts brought in British alto sax player Peter King to compose five new songs and rearrange two Bird chestnuts, "Relaxing At Camarillo" and "Bluebird." King's "Terra De Pajaro" even acknowledges Bird's string section Verve years, so From One Charlie... is a complete tribute in our play book. Continuum releases this special project Stateside with a handsome box presentation, plus the quaint, slim volume that the music co-honors.

HAUNTED BY REAL LIFE - SCHASCLE (REPRISE)

Newcomer Schascle (pronounced Chess-el) is a soul survivor on the new faces vocal front. You can even hear the faintest tint of a gospelized Diana Ross if you listen close enough to "Haunted By Real Life" and the swelling choir-powered "Freedom." Schascle is from the new breed of power belters as America is fawns over attractive, soaring female singers like Whitney Houston and Mariah Carey. On that note, Alternative Adult might also want to sample the tribal flavored "Garden Of Love." The song builds to stirring heights. "You're Not Yourself Anymore," the closing ballad, is an arresting collaboration with super-producer Patrick Leonard (of Madonna fame) on grand piano and requires full orchestration. Check out how Schascle's towering voice winds down to a purring flicker by the last few notes. Session heavies like Paul Jackson Jr., Paulinho da Costa and John Patitucci take part.

HAUNTED BY REAL LIFE

Legendary producer Jerry Wexler called her "One of the best soul singers I've seen in a long time." But HAUNTED BY REAL LIFE isn't soul music. It's music that will remind you of a time when what really mattered was a song that meant something and a voice that believed it.

JAZZ NEW RELEASES

PLEASURE SEEKERS - ANDY LAVERNE (TRILOKA)

There's a lot of pleasure for Jazz listeners of all persuasions on pianist Andy LaVerne's latest project. For us, it's the producer/engineer team of Steely Dan's Walter Becker and Roger Nichols. We can't praise Becker enough, for he always adds something sonically extra to any session he presides over. Saxophonist Bob Sheppard, fresh from his own sweet Becker production on Windham Hill, handles the lucid woodwind duties. Drummer Dave Weckl adds some sparkling, modern drum undercurrents. Also borrowed from Chick Corea's band is bassist John Patitucci. Currently based in LA, LaVerne is a consummate composer as well as soloist. Stints with Lee Konitz, Stan Getz—for whom he wrote a symphony piece—and Eddie Daniels attest to his ability to lead a band through a seamless, no-frills performance. Post Boppers might try the hardened "Parisian Thoroughfare" or "By Name Only." For breezier uptempo tastes, how about the opening title track or the bouncy, flute happy "Chestnuts?"

AFTER DARK - KEN NAVARRO (POSITIVE MUSIC)

After Dark is the latest batch of tunes recorded by Ken Navarro at the nation's capital. Navarro's style of guitar play is steeped in the nylon classical genre, even when he switches over to steel strings on the fluttering, ringing "Along The Way." His syntho arrangements bear a similarity to Lyle Mays. "It Only Happens Once" is nicely dotted with electronic percussion programming that's goes down smooth. Again, Navarro guitar riffs tintinabulate precisely with his electronic keyboard accents. Jon Ozment's acoustic piano lends the song considerable credibility and structure. Another favorite track is the sentimental, tugging serenade titled "Waiting For Melissa."

FOR THE FIRST TIME - ANTONIO HART (NOVUS/RCA)

Fresh from a degree at Berklee, Roy Hargrove's alto sax cohort, Antonio Hart, climbs down from the bandstand to record his first set of sides as a leader. The first song that will grab major bop aficionados is the stomping, hard swingin' "Big H.M." It's the only song on the disc that co-features Hart's trumpet pal, Hargrove. Hart then embarks on his own adventures with a band guided by piano vet Mulgrew Miller. "Del Sasser" is an intoxicating, double octave swirl of frontal boppish assault. Hart introduces trumpet player Thomas Williams, also from Hart's native Baltimore. "Self Evaluation" and "K.Y.H." are two originals. The former is a rousing bebop rhythmic and note-ridden obstacle course. Hart blazes through it effortlessly. The latter savors a unique blend of reggae and bop and features some silky alto/tenor combo lines. Check out the crashing finale composition by Kenny Dorham entitled "Straight Ahead." It's a whirlwind tribute to the daze of Bebop swing.

JAZZ - CLEO LAINE (BMG CLASSICS)

Hey, wait a minute. Check out some of the names who popped in for Cleo Laine's latest rootsy songfest: veterans Gerry Mulligan, Toots Thielemans and Clark Terry plus bright new talents Mark Whitfield and Jane Ira Bloom. Whitfield trades a few Wes-styled eights with Terry's famous splattering trumpet on "Just A Sittin' And A Rockin'." Mulligan—ever as cool as his World Pacific days—is bad to the bone on his own composition "Walking Shoes." Most important, Cleo's latest is finally something traditional Jazz fans can enjoy. Laine's four octave, robust contralto is brimming with color, whether she's riotously scating in the upper reaches of "It Don't Mean A Thing" or crooning low as a bourbon with no ice on "Midnight Sun." If you enjoyed Mathis' guide to Ellington, Cleo's Jazz with fit your menu too.

IN OUR STYLE - DAVID MURRAY & JACK DEJOHNETTE (DIW)

David Murray has made more solid airplay and creative inroads in one year with his three rapid fire DIW releases than the last few years combined. Now Murray is back to his free jazz ways again after waxing some ballads on the last two DIW discs. In Our Style is Murray and drum master Jack DeJohnette sequestered in a lofty New York studio for a couple of days and just rippin' His wide leaps, harsh dissonances and bluesy honks strays from his Ballads opus when he blew us away with "Valley Talk," still easily this year's most hauntingly beautiful Jazz ballad.

ALBUM NEW RELEASES

BY KENT ZIMMERMAN

PLAY - SQUEEZE (REPRISE)

Here's a refreshing concept. A long-together musical unit not releasing an album that returns to their roots (read: their most commercially successful effort). When writers evolve and revolve their craft as have Glen Tilbrook and Chris Difford, sometimes it doesn't make any sense at all to backpedal. Play is a pleasingly complex selection of songs that also happens to be their best effort since the alcohol-soaked Sweets From A Stranger. A whole slew of songs revel in themselves and their ability to spin in and out of verse/chorus/verse/chorus mediocrity. For instance, on the opening "Satisfied," the easy dramatic exit would be to portray the couple as either happy or sad. Instead they internalize their satisfaction the same way our actual thoughts irrationally stray. The construction of the other songs is fascinating in other ways as well, which makes Play an ideal album for radio, particularly commercial Alternative, who will give this album a real Jane Fonda workout. Producer Tony Berg (who's working quite a lot lately) delivers his buddy Bob Clearmountain to the party. Together this team presents an unabashed display of sophistication wrapped around a silly cross-pollinated play a la Samuel Beckett and Thornton Wilder. Our Town Waits For Godot. Hence the title, you baseball knuckleheads. Trax include "The Truth," "Walk A Straight Line," "Crying In My Sleep," "House Of Love" and my fave, "Sunday Street." "There Is A Voice" darkly concludes this dense, dozen song package.

"ALL OUR DREAMS ARE SOLD" - PROCOL HARUM (ZOO ENTERTAINMENT)

This is one of the more exotic reunions if only because in their youth, Procol Harum always seemed older than their tender "Pale" years. It's been twenty-one years, folks, since this key line-up made music together on Salty Dog. Having heard a few gigantic "roughs," let me warn you all that there are some powerful moments to savor. "All Our Dreams Are Sold" is just the tip of the iceberg for Gary Brooker, Matthew Fisher, Robin Trower and Keith Reid. RIP original drummer Barrie "B.J." Wilson who single-handedly invented dramatic British phrase drumming. Big Country's Mark Brzezicki and bassist Dave Bronze handle rhythm responsibilities. Welcome back Procol.

RETURN TO ZERO - RTZ (GIANT/REPRISE)

While Tom Scholz flails away somewhere on a madman's quest for perfection, vocalist Brad Delp and guitarist Barry Goudreau musta got tired of sitting on the sidelines taping open Boston royalty checks. Why not Return To Zero? We all dream of it. The music contained herein does differ from Boston despite Delp's identifiable vocals and Goudreau's scratchy fretwork. RTZ is airy yet compact, tight as opposed to roomy. Delp still sandwiches his harmonies real tight. Goudreau still screams and flanges. But drummer David Stefannelli plays a crisp, trebly snare. Also RTZ isn't nearly as keyboard shy. Eleven songs contribute to simple pleasures including "Face The Music," "All You've Got" and "Rain Down On Me." If RTZ successfully dodges a retaliatory Scholz overshadow, they can easily become one of Album Radio's big '91 stories.

THE GLOBE - BIG AUDIO DYNAMITE II (COLUMBIA)

More BAD English working class ingenuity. Not many folks redefine exactly what a band is, but Mick Jones seems to be continuing on that course, even redefining what BAD does and is. On The Globe, the audio collage gets bigger and bigger, digestible both in bite-sized bits or via the full-length documentary. Time spent explaining only takes time away from digging a groovin' track like "The Globe" featuring Gobblebox and Siphon the Human Beatbox. That's Spike "Panty Man" Lee sampled, isn't it? Love this!

"NOBODY SAID IT WAS EASY" - THE FOUR HORSEMEN (DEF AMERICAN)

The label that has its finger severely on the artery of Gringo guitar rock comes up with what sounds like a natural winner. Long-haired and bearded (yeah, a little like Molly Hatchet from Hell), these guys happen to rock hard and sing like birds. Handclaps, chuck berry riffs and a wicked guitar solo, the Four Horsemen seem to have a direct playbook. Go long, cut right. Touchdown.

THE NEIGHBORHOODS (THIRD STONE/ATLANTIC)

Previously and partially reviewed inside these pages as Hoodwinked, the elongated major label version shows the 'Hoods as true middleweight contenders. Excellent rockers like "Hangin'" and "Prettiest Girl" show why this band of survivors are still vital New England favorites, major label or no. In fact, "Prettiest Girl" sold 10K as a 7 inch single, a medium thought of as doornail dead. Aerosmith guitarist Brad Whitfield guitarist produced this one, giving it a million dollar shine.

WIDESPREAD PANIC (CAPRICORN/ WARNER BROS.)

Lots of mixed signals from the South as to just what their music now represents. Has it lost its regionality? Are they playing better Southern boogie on Long Island? Perhaps it's redefined themselves? If that's happened, then Athens has replaced Macon as the capitol of Southern rock n roll with dozens of bands including REM and now Widespread Panic currently in bloom. Chosen as the band to revive the newly re-launched Capricorn label, WP confuse matters by drawing equally from the Allmans, the Dead and Camper Van Beethoven. All across the nation, where this unit toured as an indie band, loyal fans are affectionately called Spread Heads. This sophomore etching (the first one came out on Atlanta's Landslide label) samples progressive and downhome roots like nobody since—well, uh—the early Allmans' Fillmore recordings. First there is a mountain, then there's Widespread Panic. Weird trax include "Walkin' (For Your Love)," Van Morrison's Bangadove "Send Your Mind," "Barstools And Dreamers" and "Rock." The more you listen, the more intriguing this all sounds.

indie import

LOVE CHILD - OKAY? (Homestead, P.O. Box 800, Rockville Center, NY 11571-0800)

In order to better understand the character of this particular love child, we might try to identify its parents. But Love Child, a N.Y.C. trio with a debut disc, Okay?, seems to have sprung fully-formed from the forehead of their regional scene, incorporating legendary influences (Sonic Youth, Yo La Tengo) while moving towards the childish pop, rattle, and punk of genre-mates and Hoboken transplants Sleepyhead. Okay?'s twenty-one charmingly underproduced tracks are all on the brief side—many under two minutes—and are often deceptively simple. Most of my favorite cuts feature Rebecca Odes' breathy, sweet vocals: "He's So Sensitive," a blithe, flat little pop song, touts the virtues of foregoing macho for mushy. With "Cigarette Ash," Love Child creates a case for the superiority of the three-piece, as they endearingly use space as an element of equal importance to guitar, bass or drums. "Things I Noticed" recalls the Talking Heads meet House Of Large Sizes (gosh, I'll sure take any excuse to mention that band), "Nice Toes" provides a litmus test for true love, "Escalator" makes great use of a descending chord pattern and bassline. Also check out the very cool "Church Of Satan." SEANA BARUTH

THE BARKING TRIBE-SERPENT GO HOME (Rykodisc, Pickering Wharf, Bldg C, Salem, MA 01970)

The bite of these baker's dozen songs is every bit as fearsome as their bark. "Pretty In Print" blasts off with a stammering drum beat, the urgency of two guitars, and a manic bee-in-a-jar bass line. Kerry Pate's unobtrusive vocals are easy to underestimate, but their rough edge blends well with the cringing guitars. "God Knows What To Do" is an all out assault that clangs with the rapture of two full-tilt guitars. The Tribe turns to funk and finds a welcome departure on "Damn It To Hell." "City Streets" is an acoustic sojourn that rounds things out by painting a picture of city life without any judgmental intrusions. The detached observer "wants a great big kiss in paradise," and we can't help but get caught up in the neon web of night life he describes. DAVID BERAN

WILD BRIDES - GAMOPHOBIA (Rock 'Em, Sock 'Em, c/o Notable Talent, 1122 Lincoln Ave., San Rafael, CA, 94901)

It's Saturday in suburbia, and the Wild Brides are on the loose. On this new release, Gamophobia, this four-woman, one-man band make a firm commitment to raunch and roll. Extensive live touring (opening for the likes of Chris Isaac and NRBQ) has filled out their artfully hard sound. The album's opener, "Consumer Hell (Nice Cup Of Coffee)" brings a certain Maxwell House jingle into the melody. "Saturday In Suburbia" is a good time rock and schlock anthem, while a zany cover of "These Boots Are Made For Walking" closes the disc. Clever guitar work, sprightly vocals, and sheer insanity make these Wild Brides (and one groom) worth marrying. The honeymoon continues... BRETT DURAND ATWOOD

ALTERNATIVE INSIDE

BY LINDA RYAN

You'll notice there are quite a few BIG jumps on the chart this week. All the frozen reports last week produced a conservative chart, so the big jumps are really the result of two weeks worth of moves. With the exception of three stations that froze this week, the entire panel contributed new reports, so what you see here is what's going on out there.

BRETT MILANO, formerly of RHINO RECORDS, has taken the Publicity Director gig at ALIAS RECORDS. He can be reached at (818) 506-0967. Welcome aboard, Brett!

And speaking of jobs, RELATIVITY is looking for a SW Promotion Manager. If you're interested, please send your resume (no calls please) to SARAH HAYNES—c/o Relativity Records, 20525 Manhattan Pl., Torrance, CA 90501.

Forget the rumors about ROCKVILLE filing Chapter 11. The very solvent company will be releasing albums by UNCLE TUPELO and Japanese cult faves SHONEN KNIFE shortly.

Bands, managers, A&R types—here's one for you. This year the NEW SOUTH MUSIC SHOWCASE, held October 2-6, will be opening its showcase doors to talent based outside the land of Dixie. Interested parties should send their entry tapes (along with $10.00) to: New South Music Showcase, PO Box 17825, Atlanta, GA. 30316. Deadline is July 31—so hurry!

San Francisco faves THE

MONKS OF DOOM hit the studio to begin work on an album for MOIST RECORDS/BAITED BREATH PRODUCTIONS, scheduled for release in the Fall.

ture the rawness of their early years while maintaining a clean, uncluttered sound. It's this balance—the combination of old sounds and new insights—that lies at the heart of World Outside. Listen to the dazed spaciness of "Valentine," the immediacy of "In My Head" (second single? Top 40 crossover?) and "There's A World" and you hear all the elements come together. A definite bright spot in this band's rich history. LINDA RYAN

THE NEIGHBORHOODS (THIRD STONE/ ATLANTIC)

After a decade as a Boston-based, popular East Coast bar band, the Neighborhoods have a major label deal (Third Stone/Atlantic), a producer who knows how to maximize their potential (Brad Whitford of Aerosmith), and an album that, if justice is served, should make them the mega-stars they could be. Basically, the 'Hoods' fourth, eponymous vinyl is a reworking (minus three songs) of their last effort for Emergo, Hoodwinked, except this disc includes a re-recording of the bands' first-ever Ace Of Hearts' single, "Prettiest Girl," as well as "Pure And Easy" from their 1987 Reptile Men LP. "Prettiest Girl" still sounds fresh and appealing—a hard rock ballad begging for a big-budget video and power rotation on MTV. Core members David Minehan and Lee Harrington wrote all the material for this release; drummer Carl

Coletti makes his first appearance here as Mike Quaglia's replacement. Check out the single, "Roxanne," "Love Holiday," and the "Don't Fear The Reaper"-inspired, "Nancy." SEANA BARUTH

BLUE TRAIN - "ALL I NEED IS YOU" (ZOO ENTERTAINMENT)

Here's one that probably will appeal to both your younger and older demos. On this particular track, Blue Train work within a Squeeze meets INXS context—which should translate into heavy phones for you Commercial Alternatives. Machine-driven with an acoustic heart, "All I Need Is You" is a punchy, hook-laden debut offering from this English quartet. Give it a spin. LR

VOICE OF THE BEEHIVE - "MONSTERS AND AN- GELS" (LONDON/PLG)

It's been a while since we've heard from Tracey and Melissa—and it sounds like the girls have done a bit of growing up in their time away. And while the little-girl-lost vocals and dead-on harmonies still dominate "Monsters And Angels," the "silly" side to their approach has given way to a more serious side, which makes for a nice change of pace. It also makes this one impossible for radio to ignore or put into the "novelty" category. Can't wait for the album and a tour! LR

MARY'S DANISH - CIRCA (MORGAN CREEK RECORDS)

L.A.'s Mary's Danish offers seventeen jewels that obsess and binge on madness beneath their glittering exteriors. "Yellow Creep Around" initiates us into a world where "insanity lies in the cold sheets beside you." The punchy rhythm peppers us with blows while a chorus of harmonies bleeds so beautifully that we forget there's been a bizarre accident. A saw squealing guitar immediately draws us into the folds of the single "Julie's Blanket (pigs heads snake face)." Gretchen and Julie's alluring vocals make this track grotesquely compelling. The beginning of "7 Deadly Sins" is unspectacular, but once the lid is torn off a memorable chorus kicks in. The girls sing "My rationale is black, my rationale is blue" as if their lives depended on it. With its acoustic guitar and fluid tom toms, "Bombshell" is a successful departure from the electrified sound that Mary's Danish peddles. The middle becomes overgrown with sax and an electric guitar, but by the end we've come full circle back to the sparse sounds we started with. Circa is danceable, but not in a Soul Train way. More like Soul Gurney. DAVID BERAN

THE WANNADIES - THE WANNADIES (MNW RECORDS)

Male/female harmonies are The Wannadies strong suit and most of these songs deal in a violin as wild card. The lead vocal on "Together" pour forth smoothly as a scratchy violin tumbles about. As with every song, exceptional backup vocals come into the chorus right on time and the solo perspective dissolves in the wake of various voices. "How Beautiful Is The Moon" is anchored by a lulling, rockaby bass line while male/female vocals combine to sing "I Need You." This gender blending works well in the setting of the moon, which always seems to illuminate people's other halves. "Smile's" infectious chorus slaps echoing backup vocals over the leads like snug fitting gloves. The best example of The Wannadies' vocal prowess is "The Beast Cures The Lover," which conclusively punctuates this effort with an exclamation point. Chorus combinations are flawless and the revelation is that they make it sound so easy. DB

PERSONAL PICKS

SINGLES by Dave Sholin

NATURAL SELECTION featuring NIKI HARIS - Do Anything (East West America)
Getting out of town and hearing a song for the first time on radio is a reminder of how we heard music before getting into the biz. Shortly after landing in the Twin Cities for the Upper Midwest Conclave, I tuned in KDWB and along comes a tune that got my attention real quick. Initially played on WLOL, it's been on "KD" for the past several months and still climbing 14-12. The influence of fellow Minneapolis music maker Prince is fairly obvious, and it's no surprise the early buzz makes it this week's RECORD TO WATCH. Sounds like a natural.

BETTE MIDLER - The Gift Of Love (Atlantic)
As a singer Bette has clearly demonstrated she is capable of tackling just about any song. But recent mega-hits like "Wind Beneath My Wings" and "From A Distance" have established her prowess when it comes to extracting every ounce of emotion from heart wrenching ballads. Authored by Billy Steinberg, Tom Kelly and Susanna Hoffs, here's the latest demonstration on how to induce deep sighs.

HENRY LEE SUMMER - Till Somebody Loves You (Epic)

In the Hoosier State they love their basketball and of course, Rock 'n Roll. Coming off his two biggest Top 40 hits, "I Wish I Had A Girl" and "Hey Baby," Indiana-born and bred Henry Lee hooks up with Michael Bolton and Diane Warren and the threesome put together his finest Pop performance to-date. Bolton also does double duty as background vocalist.

GERARDO - When The Lights Go Out (Interscope/EWA)

Romeo and Don Juan better make room for their nineties counterpart—Gerardo. If the ladies love him now, just wait 'til they hear this third release and check out his under-the-cover moves on the video. New Dr. Freeze mix enhances an already strong entry.

LATIN ALLIANCE featuring WAR - Low Rider (On The Boulevard) (Virgin)

If the barrio ever had an anthem, this is it! Even though the original version by War is sixteen years old, the song hasn't lost an ounce of hipness. But just to insure it's totally up-to-date this fresh production utilizes the talents of Mellow Man Ace, Kid Frost and MC Alp. The cruisin' song for summer.

WEST END GIRLS - Not Like Kissing You (A&M)

From North of the border, this former #1 Canadian release is fueled by a sweet and innocent vocal arrangement and sing-along melody. On the BP scale (that's "Bouncy Pop"), this track rates a "10."

ANIMAL LOGIC

ANIMAL LOGIC - II (I.R.S.)

This trio of superb, credentialed musicians,

(Deborah Holland, Stanley Clarke and Stewart Copeland) prove that the first Animal Logic project was not a lark, but the commencement of a rather serious, durable collaboration. At times a rockin' combo, at others a fluid, lite Jazz ensemble, Animal Logic is a band of textured expressions of discordant melody and thoughtfully constructed lyric. Three tracks set an obvious pace to the set: the title track, ROSE COLORED GLASSES (probably the most Pop-ish song), LOVE IN THE RUINS (DOCTOR DEAR DOCTOR), and I WON'T BE SLEEPING ANYMORE. I'm impressed with how clean a sound the group gets. The trio's instruments of choice are voice, drums and bass, but occasional splashes of keyboards and guitars from hired guns fill-out the sound just enough. Animal Logic is an intelligent adult alternative yet with a Rock credibility.
