Tina Turner, "Undercover Agent For The Blues", Capitol.... The teaser ads have been circulating and we know for a double dipped fact that anticipation for the one and only Burner continues to run high. Her strut and wailing presence have commanded our attention for years and there is no reason to believe that anything is about to slow this train down. True, the tempo may be a bit low slung, but that just means that the payoff is twice as sweet. Catt Stone at WZEW knows which side of his gumbo has file' in it, "It's just natural for us down here to add her. Our heritage audience has always supported that funky rock and roll sound. We think Tina's roots run deep and the audience around here remembers that." So there she stands, trench coat parted ever so slyly, giving the room that slow cool appraisal. She radiates from ground zero like some barely controlled blast of soulful iridescence and even that iceman, Calvin Lew over at Polydor chalks it up as one of his fave records this week. We too, feel strongly that this song is bound to deliver even more on her already well established status as the Numero Uno lady of the rock and roll stage.

Shooting Star, "Touch Me Tonight", Enigma.... Back again and starting out like they never left, these guys are quickly claiming their turf with loyalists and new converts alike. The downbeat sets in like a Trans Am in heat and is, in fact, one of the best freeway tunes we've heard this week. (We'll send the ticket to Kaiser) High end harmonies and some insistently hooking guitars keep things lively throughout and the keyboard underpinning reminds us pleasantly of some of the best post-Quadrophenia Who material. This is a track that is bound to run long and strong against a host of format Champions. That makes this the ultimate fresher for those core intensive sweeps, with KSHE, WLLZ, KYYS and KGGO leading the way when it comes to early activity. Jack Emerson at KGGO offers this bit of wisdom, "Thank goodness their vacation was short lived. Welcome back to one of the Midwest's best rock and roll bands." The time on the beach certainly helped, they sound new enough to matter, while remaining stylistically true to the foundation of the format throughout. No doubt you can drop this in any set and be instantly satisfying to that picky knob scratcher in the front seat.

NRBQ, "It's A Wild Weekend", Virgin.... Our final pick this week comes straight from the ol' emotional solar plexus. I stole that from Bwana. And as a soundtrack for those holiday "run around til you drop" 70mm spectaculars, this one is custom fit. In you stumble from the Labor Day opus, bleary and cheery and full of aches and pains from all the beer, sun and rock and roll. Well, if you're not perfectly primed for a dose of NRBQ then you better get back out there in the sun and fun and don't bother coming in until you've got it right. Kim Alexander at WHCN needs no help in that regard, "Folks who've seen them call them the world's favorite party band. These guys have been defending that title, in a club near you, for nearly 20 years now. On stage, they're magical. If you've seen them, you know. 'Wild Weekend' is the most solid, cohesive, together record they've ever made. I know musical traffic is horrific these days, but please check out NRBQ. These guys have been down in the rock and roll trenches for years, just for the love of it. They're the real thing. Honest." That "Wild Weekend" guitar and drum run just buries the speaker in a joyous celebration of "rooster" picking Rolling Stones, "Steel Wheels", Rolling Stones Records.... Let's talk about a group with nothing left to prove, and doing so anyway. Having been called "The World's Greatest Rock and Roll Band" for going on twenty years and being early inductees into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, "Steel Wheels" didn't have to be this good, but ain't it grand that it is! The figures pretty much speak for themselves - an album debut at 1*, "Mixed Emotions" remaining at 1* on the Hard Hundred, and 2 additional cuts debuting to boot. While praise for the album has been pretty much universal, there are varying opinions as to the strongest track. Bob Ely at KILO observes, "The Stones album is only going to get better after 'Mixed Emotions'. They can lead with a weaker track, then get stronger ... so that's what they do. At this time, 'Rock And A Hard Place' is the best of the rest." Malcolm Ryker at KZLR is also high on the record. "Man, have I been Stoned all week long! The 'Steel Wheels' are certainly in motion with 'Mixed Emotions' and 'Sad Sad Sad' pulling down big phones." With all this airplay and the tour getting under way, the Stones promise to be a hot topic of conversation for months to come. Certainly that's true around the Hard Cabin where the anticipation runs high around the prospect of seeing the lads kick off their American tour. As that deadline timebomb continues ticking it's looking like party time at what has to be the most anticipated tour of the year.

Extreme, "Mutha (Don't Wanna Go To School Today)", A&M.... As we go to print, word comes down from J.B. and the boys that just in time to cure those post Labor Day/Back-To-School-Blues, they've rush-released this new emphasis cut from Boston's own Extreme. Featuring some of the band's best vocal harmonies and an instantly memorable chorus, it's definitely the highlight of their live show and is bound to crank things up on air as well. As usual, KUPD is leading the way by putting this "Mutha" on OTB.

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Herbert Gronemeyer, "Full Moon", SBK.... A tactical surprise this week is this sharp edged rocker from the newly groomed SBK stables. Herbert belongs to the oomlout set. He's a Euro-Rocker with plenty of guitar dynamics running around in his brainpan. This guy just loves the sound of the guitar and studio augmentation only serves to make that all the more clear. Driving down the highway using two lanes and signalling for a third, is the best way to describe it. The guy is all over you and the effect, at peak volume, is unmistakably rock and roll. The English lyrics are a bit of a treat coming as they do from Peter Hammill who stands as one of the great musical minds yet to really break in the States. The collaboration works on all fronts and we believe that a first exposure to the hook is bound to cause a brief shudder of lycanthropy to all but the nerve dead.

Michael Monroe, "Dead, Jail or Rock & Roll", Mercury.... This lead specimen from Hanoi Rocks is enough to make the rabbits stop breeding. No really, the guy is just plain scary. He is also the epitome of what rock and roll, real rock and roll, is all about. You bet he lives the life. For sure, the mix is never below supernova. And, uh-huh, the result is unalloyed joy for those of us who still like to rock with a capital "R". The harmonica and guitar wrap around is a boot mover from the first four bars in and that's only one among the many highlights in this one spin anthem. "My favorite LP is by Mike Monroe," says Fred McFarlin at WRFX and he is certainly among good company on this trip to the park with metal meisters KNAC punching the clock on this one well before the opening gun. The lyric line, co-written with Little Steven, simply will not let up. Who'd want it to? The hook and that little vocal tease Michael employs running up to it, are instant sing-along material with no loss of impact through repeated listenings. And when it comes to repeated listenings of this record, we know whereof we speak. In fact, it's about time for another hit.

Kix, "Don't Close Your Eyes", Atlantic Records.... As the saying goes, "All good things come to those who wait." This looks to be the case for Kix. The band's been honing its chops and building a rabid fan base through more than ten years of touring and the release of four albums. Their latest, "Blow My Fuse", is well over 400,000 units and fast approaching gold. Long a favorite at album radio, the group is set to attract a larger, broader audience with the release of "Don't Close Your Eyes". An earlier believer has been KXBR where Gregg Thomas points out, "The Top 8 at 8:00 runs every night with Bill Clay, and the Kix song has been in there for about 2 1/2 months. The phones just keep ringing for more people to get their Kix." The video is in Breakout Rotation at MTV and CHR is all over the song. Considering the listener response in the past, it only makes sense for the format to get behind this track and help bring the album all the way home.

Dangerous Toys, "Teas'n, Pleas'n", Columbia Records.... Total sales of 300,000+ and a most recent 5 day of 35,000 doesn't sound like a record that's still developing, but that's exactly what we've got. In the last two months this band has created quite a stir at the metal stations, who are already playing multiple tracks off the album. We're just now feeling the impact at AOR, but there's no doubting the results. Mark Davis at KDJK offers a perfect example when he says, "My initial reaction was restraint, but the overall response from both the listeners and the sales makes me realize this is an ideal record for night time airplay." Even more aggressive in his praise is Anthony Alfonsi at WDVE who recommends, "Don't proceed with caution when playing with these toys. Just crank it up and let it rock!" That's sound advice on a record that's already proved its listener appeal and that 72-68* run this week nails the point home. Isn't it time you "Toyed" with this one?

Danger Danger, "Naughty Naughty", Imagine/CBS Records.... Whenever a new label comes on the scene, it's always fun to see what happens with its first release. No hung jury here, all signs indicate that "Naughty Naughty" is definitely going to happen. Currently getting play at 29 reporters, there are some very encouraging signs, especially at retail, that this band is primed to break big. According to Bob Ely at KILQ, "Danger Danger moves to medium. They've exploded in retail sales here this week, largely due to KILQ airplay. We're going to follow this album all the way through." There's also strong retail activity developing in Dallas, Cincinnati and Salt Lake City. The song is in Heavy rotation at KBER, KXBR, and WTPA, and a Top 5 request item at KBER and KWHL. And if that isn't enough, our fearless leader Bwana Bill recently saw the band in performance and came back suitably impressed. Don't let your competition beat you to the punch on this one, it's time to hop on board that 92-84* bound train.

NEW PLAY PRIORITIES

Motley Crue, "Dr. Feelgood", Elektra.... Now that the shrapnel from the single is laying us out, isn't it great to know that the album is staring you in the face? This could be better than a fist full of "E" tickets at Disneyland. At least if you're interested in programming some of the best damn rock and roll to be released from this group, ever. "Everybody wants to know if the Crue is in the stores yet... A heavy and it deserves it!" says Gregg Thomas at KXBR and KRZQ's Daniel Cook joins the conga line, "We're blasting this baby at 7am. Come on AOR, wake up! Drop that daypart and make them feel good all day long." The band has taken a new tone throughout this project and the quality shows in every sharp turn and hemi-drive acceleration being used. A number of very good ears have been working on this one from start to finish and the boys have certainly made a case for recording clean and sober. It's been a year that Vince and the Crue have been in that state and the outcome is one hell of an album. Another poster boy for the "Just Say Wo" move in rock these days, Steven Tyler, is on hand for a number of tracks including "Slice Of Your Pie" and "Sticky Sweet" where he shares mic time with Bryan Adams and Jack Blade. The next single however is bound to be "Kickstart My Heart". This could have been the lead track, it's that strong, and we anticipate a huge showing for it in the coming weeks. The ballad that closes the album, "Time For Change", is another strong airplay contender with background vocals contributed by none other than Skid Row. This is a band that faced the limits of success and excess and made an abrupt about turn for the sake of their lives, more than their careers. All of which has translated into their best record on record. Case closed, pass the nachos.

R.E.M., "Get Up", Warner Brothers.... "Dreams, they complicate my life," says the right honorable Stipe and we are certain he knows the truth of the line. This entire album has been one long delirious labyrinth of half-remembered dreams and memories just slightly, and excitingly out of sync. But if the focus has been inward and, at times, vague in the classic R.E.M. manner, the music has been nothing if not crisp and impressive throughout. This next track comes off as perhaps the strongest rocker yet from the album. The guitars are dense and never rest and the tempo of the tune is ready for even the rockiest daypart. In fact, that musical box-to-guitar bridge may be the most playful moment on the entire album. His eye movement may be a little erratic but the man with the suddenly precise diction can still push many previously hidden buttons vocally. With the tour restarting on the 8th in Indianapolis you can expect a CD Pro that will contain two previously unreleased live tracks, "Orange Crush" and "Turn You Inside Out". Perfect for those weekend blocks and Twofer excursions.

Elton John, "Sleeping With The Past", MCA.... "These songs were inspired by the Soul pioneers of the Sixties and Seventies, whose music meant so much to us." So say Elton and Bernie. Based on the response to "Healing Hands", play at 84 stations with 9 more adds this week, it would appear that people feel inspired by Elton's music as well. "What can you say about an artist who's music is so much a part of our rock and roll heritage. This is the perfect way to get and keep those upper demos during the day", according to WIMZ's Mike Stewart and another demo destroyer, Mark Davis at KDJK, agrees, "If you're having problems with those hard to find 25-45 listeners, this is the perfect solution". The man has been around so long, it would be easy to take him for granted. The thing that prevents that is his ability to create and perform such strong material. This new album is ample proof, with a number of tracks that will be battling for your attention. Early up tempo stand-outs are "Club At The End Of The Street", "Stones Throw From Hurtin'", and the title cut. Then there's "Whispers" and "Sacrifice" if you're in the mood for a ballad. All in all, this is one of Elton's stronger efforts, so expect to be playing various cuts for a long time to come.

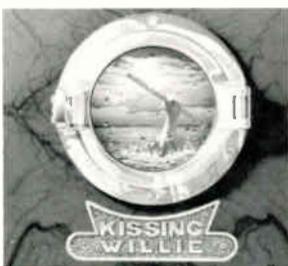

Badlands, "Winter's Call", Atlantic.... Seasons change and with them the time for musical perspectives to shift comes as well. The intro to this song should be enough to prove that Badlands has the goods to play with the big boys. If you needed to be convinced of that than just lock your headphones on ten and get ready to change your mind. The ballad setup is a genuine tuner crooner and will probably keep volume settings wide open as well. And when that guitar chops its way into the mix, it does so in a way that retains every ounce of energy while not pushing that margin over the top. The runs and depth charges are well developed to be sure, but there is nothing so strident or harsh that could possibly cause concern. So break those molds before they start to hem you in. This is prime material for any daypart where 18-24 is part of the equation. Don't pass this one over to your Rock 40 neighbor, it's custom built for them to run right down your throat.

Webb Wilder, "Hybrid Vigor", Island.... The best way to describe the music and attitude of Webb Wilder, the man and the band, is in his (their) own words. "We're basically a rock 'n' roll band who aren't afraid to go out on a limb and saw it off, just for a buzz." The lead track, "Cold Front", has been doing a good job of creating a buzz of its own. The record is on 46 stations with Heavy play at CHEZ, KEYJ, WBAB, WMDK, WROV, and WXRT. There are a number of believers like Jim St. John at KTYD who states - "We upped this one to medium rotation cause it's a great song! No other reason than that. Once we give people a chance to listen and start feeding back information, I'm sure this one will take off." Hey Jim, we agree with you. Not only that, wait until people hear some of the other tracks on the album, like "Human Cannonball" and "Hittin' Where It Hurts". Let's face it, we're all out for a good time, and music with a sense of humor can only help. Paul Marszalek at WMAD has the right attitude. "Webb's music is fun. Webb Wilder himself is fun. We like to have fun. We like to play Webb Wilder." Thanks for those inspirational thoughts, Paul. Now is there anyone else out there who wants to have a good time? If so now is the week to push that 64-62 chart curve along.

IMPACT TRACKS

Jethro Tull, "Kissing Willie", Chrysalis.... Whatta week for the man who makes with the flute. A soaring 120 stations on the first week out and a bruising 18* debut certainly nails any doubt about the viability of this sound. Among a summer of releases redolent with the aroma of recanned supergroup, this one manages to somehow sound the freshest and remain the most identifiable. Not an easy balancing act, but one that has stations like KTXQ, WAQY, KFOG, WAQX, KGB, WNEW, KLOS, KRXQ, KGON, KEZO, WPYX, WGR, KISS, KISW, WEBN and WLUP all along for the ride. Joe Paiano at WRKU has it bang on the head when he says, "Amidst the traffic jam, let us not forget the boys of Jethro Tull who have been here for 20 years. "Kissing Willie" is another soon to be staple from Ian Anderson". And WHJY's Chris Herrmann contributes, "A trademark sound and fully deserving of heavy airplay (unless, of course, you don't care about your 25-34 men)." Phones are already piling up at WPYX, KILQ, WPDH, WNEW and KOZZ with many another switchboard already glowing red hot. Speaking of hot, would somebody please hose off Sylvia Benjamin from WNGZ, "Jethro Tull proves they are and will continue to be a mainstay of Rock Radio.

"Kissing Willie" is an exciting extracurricular activity with me for sure!!" We'll take a raincheck but that 18* debut simply can't wait.

Tears For Fears, "Sowing The Seeds Of Love", Fontana/Mercury.... This record started like wildfire out West last week and the rest of the country is starting to play catch up with 38 new players bringing the total to 161 stations this week. Rapid increases at the rotation-ometer are also the story of the day with WONE, KDJK, KGB, KLBj, KWHL, KZQO and WAOR writing that chapter this week. At WBRU, Karyn Bryant is reporting a big phone surge as well, "Debuting at number one on our request tally. What a wonderful song," while Chris Herrmann at WHJY sees crossover written all over this stylistic romp, "This is about as 'pop' a song as we've played in quite a while, but an undeniable stone cold smash that CHR will soon bang the piss out of." New play this week stacks up deep and wide with KNCN, KLOL, WIBA, WEGR, WBCN, KICT, WAPL, WAAF, KBCO, KPEZ, CILQ and KOMP all joining the parade. At KLCX we track Steve Becker feeling frisky with this one, "The influences may be obvious but this is a song that stands on its own merit. It's a pop/rock masterpiece." And it's making serious moves 21-11* on the Hard Hundred.

Giant "I'm A Believer" A&M.... The station tally on this one has kept up that impressive growth rate with fully a third of the total reporters coming on this week alone. The Giant impact is beginning to spread across the nation with calls like KBPI, WKDF, WLAV, KJJO, KLOS, KRZO, WRXR, WDIZ, WEGR and WYVW adding to that 83 station report card. Phones are already kicking in at KFMQ, KKEG, KQDS and WYBR and this has rapidly become a "sleeping" Giant when it comes to jock reaction, "Our night jock must have stock in Giant. He absolutely loves the record and the rest of the staff is starting to catch the buzz," sez Chris James at WTPA. Few records from first time bands are built from a better blueprint than this one and the radio result is an exclusive core tickler for stations like KATT, KLBj, KLOL, KOME, WAQY, KRQR, WWDC, WEBN, KILO, KISS, KUPD, WKLS, KXFX and KYYS. Once those rotations kick in we can start tracking that mightily impressive 51-39* move into ever higher regions of chart development.

MORE HARD ACTS

Camper Van Beethoven, "Pictures Of Matchstick Men", Virgin.... The ultimate remake of the Summer is still smoldering at a host of stations, with the flame point already being reached by many normally cool and calm personalities. In fact, that looks like Randy Maranz at KDJK bursting into flame over there, "We did well with 'Eye Of Fatima' but you can't resist 'Pictures Of Matchstick Men'." A total of 23 stations couldn't agree more with 91X, WHCN, KJQN, KRZO, KROQ and WXRT out front. At KEYJ in Abilene Mike Wilson is still buzzing on this one, "Camper Van Beethoven has done a great job on 'Pictures Of Matchstick Men' from the guitar to the violin work, this is one hell of a remake." Fans are already proclaiming this to be the track that will put CVB on the map for good and all. That 94* debut this week is bound to get the party rolling for next week.

Flies On Fire, "C'mon", Atco.... A fave among A&R types for some time now, this band has broken loose with a sound that should put them in the big house. The combination of roots energy and modern studio skill makes this one of the most instantly likeable records on the rack today. Had enough? Not likely, with this rim popping delight in the mix you will soon be in the same state of rotational bliss that we find Mike Driver in at KPEZ, "Oh man! This whole album smokes! We started playing 'C'mon' and got instant phones, (really, I'm not kidding). I've been listening to this one at home over and over and I'm hooked. I love the guitar and harmonica work. These guys are going somewhere and hopefully it will include Austin for a show." Among a lot of pretenders, this song rings true to the call with KBOY, WXKE, WDHA, WSHE, KISW, WNOR, KZAP, WLLZ, WLAV and WMAD all reporting a quick yank of the ol' zipper for these talented lads. Chart action shows a 95* debut on the HH.

Love And Rockets, "No Big Deal", RCA.... Into the studio they go and out comes one of the most tactile redux of the last three months. A powerful bass end run becomes almost apocalyptic in the translation and 11 new players are tallied this week with WMAD, WDRE, KZEWE, KTYD, KPEZ, KBOY and 91X joining KJJO, KROQ, KRCK and KJQN, where Mike Summers relates, "It's been a Love And Rockets summer here at KJQ with the band in concert, a huge CD giveaway and it's all paying off. "No Big Deal" is generating massive phones action in all dayparts", and Dominick Milone at WNGZ proudly claims, "Another smash from Love and Rockets". Following a line as long and silken as those well viewed vid limbs, we come to the obvious conclusion, that L&R represents a band with a sound that is pointed square at the future. And this week that future shows a 100* debut that is charted for big growth pronto.

D.A.D., "Sleeping My Day Away", Warner Brothers.... Okay, sure, events come and go in their own hyped and self-absorbed fog, but this gig at the Cat Club was enough to cause mass migration on a scale unseen since the lemmings first took over the beach. From reports, elbows were a bumping, drinks a flyin' and on stage, the babes were a whirl. Even for the practiced band worshippers at the Cat, some of the females present had trouble controlling their dew point. Angularity? It's enough to make an entrepreneur want to open up a sperm bank in Scandanavia alone. From bone structure to song structure, this is evolution on a higher echelon than your normal pop-spinsters. Dust off your Darwin bust and spin these cartoon figures in your next gathering o'ears. Pam Brooks at WPDH gushes, "So you thought you knew what D.A.D. stood for? Na, forget about it. It stands for R.O.O.A.R.R. Relentless Onslaught Of Aggressive Rock And Roll! 'Sleeping My Day Away' assures you won't. It cranks way past ten, and they like it like that."... No less than 19 adds from the likes of KEZO, KQWB, KUPD, WAPL, WEQX, WLLZ, WLVQ and WPLR, moving on the HH at 49-40*.

Enuff Z'Nuff, "New Thing", Atco.... No matter how we can try to distinguish ourselves in the great cerebral matter, some things always apply identically. Oh, hey, higher being, can you come up with an example? Sure oh, please, help us out here. What's one of the most un-cut guitar-laden slices of hookish material heard yet from the house where Matco lives? And if your answer isn't forthcoming fast, go back to the end of the line, your turn is up. The hook presented here doesn't even have to do anything, most people are too busy putting the thing in their mouths themselves. Even if in these late summer weeks, you're despairing for the new episodes of "Married With Children" and other assorted boob tube delight, put the dull knives away and take heart. This album should be on your desk (somewhere) and with just a few listens, you'll be in the hard rock neck of town, where the neighbors aren't too nosy and the rent doesn't keep too many folks away. New at KFMG, KFMX, WSTZ and WXRC. Pulling top five phones at KDJK. On the HH at 50-46*.

Brendan Croker, "No Money At All", Silvertone/RCA.... Yo, you can relate to what this practiced musician is telling you. And as a obliging part of the great music food chain, you can pass it along, untainted, to the pink delicate ears of your audience. And given a spin or two, whether it's test or a more tempered rotation, they'll be cranking the volume up to the proverbial eleven just to catch all the subtle inflections of the guitar work contained therein. Mark Knopfler's made a wise contribution to an already jammin' tune, and, are your synapses just as functional? Let's all get under the communal CAT scan for a right-left brain checkup. But if Mr. Whitecoat sees your chart (with this included), he might be a little kinder when it's time to crank those skull pins down. Added at KEYJ, WBAB, WPLR, WSTZ and WWWV. Increased at KACV, KLCX, WCKW, WDHA, WNGZ and WRCN. Creeping up the HH 56-53* like a uncooperative pair of britches.

James McMurtry, "Painting By Numbers", Columbia.... In a time when the actual craft of composing is sometimes overlooked for the wily art of mu-mmm, marketing, it's a delight to hear a man and a label so committed to his work. The lead track to his debut album has been on the business end of a heck of a lot of hoopin' and hollerin' from folks in the higher atomic weights of the spectrum. You've heard them, you've heard us, now do the most important thing. Put the blessed thing in the playback unit of your choice, and use yah ears, unless any other part of your anatomy strikes your fancy! Be struck (instead) by the adult (!) lyrics, the overtones of youth and the unity of the entire song. The album debuted this week at 32* on the Album Impact chart, so there's some tracks awaiting your investigation. New at KBCO, KUPD, KXRX, WRXR, on the HH at 47-42*.

The Alarm, "Sold Me Down The River", I.R.S..... Another split decision when it comes to big debut tracks this week, and the race will continue hot against all comers when you're talking about this amazing track. Whether you prefer the edit or the full album run, you have to admit that this is about as close to musical nitro as anyone is bound to get. A huge 119 add list this week comes full of support from KRXQ, WKDF, KROQ, KSJO, WSHE, KZAP, KUPD, WFYV, WBCN, KFOG, KISW, KGB, KTYD, KGON, WHCN and KBCO where Doug Clifton is waiting for Rocky Mountain schooner to come in, "The Alarm are on target for the big big breaking point. They were close last time but the new release helps them to turn the corner." Doug's enthusiasm gets a second that emotion from WNEW's Lorraine Caruso, "The Alarm with their anthem style rock is good once again with 'Sold Me Down The River'". And back again to Middle America where WMAD's Paul Marszalek slugs some lemonade and observes, "The Alarm record could be a smash for these guys. A very well put together song." Thanks Paul, time to crush those whippets now. Check that 20* debut and stand back before your eyebrows get singed.

Melissa Etheridge, "No Souvenirs", Island.... The only last member of the Three Digit Club this week is this steamroller of a singer who netted 112 stations first week out and a 26* debut like it was snatching candy from a diabetic. The platinum plated list of calls on this one include KSHE, KSJO, KZEW, WNEW, KYYS, KLOL, WEGR, KGON, KUPD and 91X among many others. At WIZN, Tom Van Sant is getting a clear channel read on his crystal ball, "The Melissa Etheridge tune is a flat out winner from someone who has to be a future top ten performer." Why wait? Avoid the shopping rush. Get on it today and watch those phones start humming. Tim Kelly at KWIC is looking spiffy in the witness chair, "Top phones already. She really tears 'em up down here in Texas. People are still jamming on her last album and the new single is the biggest news to hit this week", while WKQQ's Stacy Yelton comes back from vacation to find that, "This is consistent without being just 'more of the same'. I don't want to go on and on about 'a female troubadour' or 'the feminine voice of rock and roll', because we already know that! The issue here is not 'Best Female' anything. It's that here is a person who gets to the very heart of all of us, and does so with absolute grace and conviction. Okay, I've exhausted myself. More on other music next week."

Jefferson Airplane, "Planes", Epic.... The single improves this week with a 35-21* run and the add list is hefty with CFOX, KZEW, WFYV, KXRX, WFYV, KWHL, WHCN, KTXQ, WKRR, KLPX and KEZE joining up for an Airborne hitch. That makes a total of 113 stations on and the heavy reports are flying thick and fast from folks like WLAV, KBCO, WCCC, KOME, WAQY, KRZQ, WAQX and KFMF. Leaving nothing to chance, the tour is firing up and the reports from out there on the road are encouraging to say the least. Dave Kane at WCMF is one happy camper, "Grace sounded great and the first six songs, (from the band's ancient past), pretty much blew everybody away. The new songs sounded pretty decent as well." With the album about to through some added weight into the game, we can expect more of the same from stations like WNGZ, where Sylvia Benjamin reports, "The phones are already hot for the new Jefferson Airplane." Which should be no surprise given the incredible cachet this generational cuisinart can lay claim to. Few bands have ever reached their benchmark for leaving people staggering from the impact of their live shows, and we hear that the old Jorma/Jack combo is as full of thunder as ever. One thing is certain, that upward mobility factor has everything needed to go the distance.

Molly Hatchet, "There Goes The Neighborhood", Capitol.... The return of Molly Hatchet has been as satisfying to the format as a Dixie beer and some cajun popcorn. A first week outing netted 56 stations in heavy traffic and a 51* debut for the band that has somehow kept all their legendary Southern P&V and much more besides. Among the OTB believers are KMOD, WDIZ, WLVO, WDVE, WLLZ, KPEZ, KZAP, WGR, KXRX, WHCN, KISS, WRXX and KSJO, while KQDS and WFYV are already reporting top five phones for this guitar grinding mofo. David Allen Ross at KMJX proclaims it, "A very strong effort from these guys", likewise Joe Paiano at WRKU who saw the song performed live, "By the first chorus, 12,000 arms were in the air, with crowd reaction of this magnitude I couldn't wait to get the disc. Wouldn't it be nice to have 12,000 listeners give their approval before you add new music this week." The numbers may be different, but the story remains the same down at WDIZ where Lee Randall tells us, "Debuted Molly Hatchet's album this week at a nightclub to 500+ people, including the fire marshall who wanted to see the show." By the time this one is over that asbestos glove will look like toast.

Jason Bonham, "Wait For You", WTG.... There was no doubt in our minds that this song would key on radio bigtime. The number of advance cassette ravers we contacted turned into an impressive 53 reporters this first week out with WDHA, WDIZ, WEGR, KILO, KTYD, KUPD, KXRX, KZAP, KLOL, WLLZ, KMOD, KNAC, KOME and WBCN all getting a taste of that Son of Bonzo magic. Fred McFarlin at WRFX tells us, "Jason Bonham's new project is a phone monster, two plays and we have to add it." With Carter Alan on vacation, Stephen Strick is making the report at WBCN, and he tells us, "Bonham was a natural add for us. The rest of the album is strong too, with quite a bit of diversity. Bonham's own original style comes on real strong." Or to be more blunt about it, there's Chas Mixon at KZEW, "Bonham kicks ass! This is not a Zeppelin clone band but an extension of the Zeppelin legend!". Phones are already kicking in with massive curio-calls and top five phones at WRKI and WPYX, where Joe Moss sums up, "Thank God Jason learned from the best. Dad would be proud." That 55* first week run is bound to get even healthier in the coming weeks.

RAGING SLAB'S

"DON'T DOG ME"  medium rotation!

White Lion, "Radar Love", Atlantic.... "Big Game" is the album that has the well-earned chance of giving this band near immortality. It's those pesky follow-ups that give most groups the heebie jeebies and any cold sweat lost over the making of this album was unnecessary. You wanna talk about gestation periods? "Pride"'s development took a long time to root, but now it's laid that groundwork to make this album's job that much easier. Vito Bratta, ye ol cross-eyed one, is armed with a guitar that will amaze all kinds of fretwatchers in your demos and that Mike Tramp, what a beb, what a singer. "Little Fighter" was effortless as the three letter word in hit-radio and is still going strong in some segments of the market. This cut will definitely connect with those seventies-something dudes who thought this band was just too youth-oriented for them. Gathering up the calls, this week new at KKAZ, KSHE, WIOT, WKGR, WLZR, WRIK, WSHE and WXRC.

Gorky Park, "Bang", Mercury.... Some bands just know how to grab your attention and hold on. With the Moscow Music and Peace Festival just behind them and with a large chunk of the American cable viewer in their collective grasp, they're bound for meatier and beefier radio recognition. So if you're a vegetarian-influenced person, time to push the plate away. Like the best of other import bands weaned on only hoarded stateside records, they've developed an image of our style of rock/pop with that pinch of home that gives them an edge over certain domestic offerings. And with that partially subtitled video on MTV, their proportion of viewer familiarity can only increase exponentially. Watch your request sheets carefully, and with demand like this, there's no way this is bound anywhere but skywards. On at over 50 stations, new air this week at KATT, KFMM, KILQ, KMJX, KZEW, WBAB and WSTZ, Hard Hundred action at 62-56*.

Living Colour, "Glamour Boys", Epic.... These guys have been on the road before anybody in the suburbs even knew about "Vivid" or Living Colour. From just looking at the thousands of screaming kids and adults around us, it seems hard to believe they would ever have problems with generating show attendance, given the ultra-high-octane level of their stage output. Now that yesterday's just kinda faded like a bad dye job, time to look at what's happenin' now... huge requests all around the board, sell-out shows, platinum disc, media exposure everywhere, new CD pro with live cuts, your desk, now, play, play, play. Dammit. With even the CHR's hoppin on the front of this bus, you'd have to be looney not to place them predominantly in your market. On the HH at 70-61*. New at KNCN, KUPD, KZRR, WBAB, WHCN, WWDC and lots more, a total of 11 adds altogether.

Tangier, "Ripcord", Atco.... The follow up to their tantalizing lead track has all the muscle of the last outing and a little more juice at the vocal end. Make no mistake, we thought "On The Line" was a band breaking song with enough of everything to instantly define Tangier as a band to watch... one of those rare debut tunes that really captures a band. This time out we track a meaty bottom end and some flaring guitar runs that will quickly find a home in any AOR mix worth the name. The vocal work remains superb and there won't be many who can fault the structure of that tungsten grade hook. WHTQ, WCMF, KKTX, KBER and WYBR have all begun the dance, now it's your turn to cut in and prep the ground for that HH debut next week.

Winger, "Hungry", Atlantic.... In the space of about one year, this story's become so long it's practically a novel. The setting, the whole country; the leading man and his buds, Kip, Reb, Paul, Rod; the conflict, a debut album that's gone platinum and it still won't stop selling. Whaddaya do? Dish out some more CD pros, this time of "Hungry", one of the more intensely demanding songs on the album. Good choice, but with a selection like this before you, what could be a bad single? Given time, this could have the longevity of the "Hysteria", to borrow from another groundbreaking rock album that just won't die. They're still on tour, eegads (with King's X and Mr. Big too in certain areas), which in itself was one of the key parts of their high profile ingredient list. An even baker's dozen of adds, like KAZY, KBPI, KLOL, KMJX, KRNA, KZRR, WDHA, WRUF and others, too. A leap of 100-83* on the Hard Hundred counts as the biggest chart move of the week, not bad, not bad for a bunch of longhairs. Watch this only be the beginning of another chapter.

ATLANTIC NOTES

↑ Doug Morris

The news out of NYC is big this week with the word that Doug Morris has been named COO of Atlantic in addition to his position as President. The promotion comes after much major point gathering by the label over the last couple of years. In fact Atlantic, always an important part of the music industry, has become one of the single most successful labels on the scene today. The company has surpassed performance standards set back in the glory days with a seemingly unending line of big wins from major acts and debut signings alike. Contrary to the rumors circulating on the heels of this news, Ahmet Ertegun will not be stepping down as Chairman of the label he founded so long ago. If anything, the power structure just gets stronger with this change. Or, as Ahmet put it this week, "It has given me immense pleasure to work closely with Doug for these many years and to see Atlantic achieve its current degree of prosperity. So it is with great personal joy that I am able to acknowledge his accomplishments with this important and meaningful promotion."

PAULIE WOWS 'EM

The setting was the Lyceum Theater in NYC and the collection of industry luminaries was eyebrow deep as far as you could see. It was a rare chance to see one of the most influential men in the history of rock and roll up close, as the man in question announced his upcoming tour of the States and performed for the assemblage. It is notoriously difficult to get a room of industry heavies all that excited about anything. We've pretty much seen it all by now so we can be excused if our capacity for awe is a bit lower than average. However, there was a palpable sense of excitement in the room on this occasion, a real feeling of being at an event that was, all cliches aside, larger than life. There was history on that stage and it was still sounding strong as could be. Paul's six string work was roundly acclaimed as being some of his best and the vocals resonated with more power than might have been expected from a man who hasn't seen the stage for many a year. To the Capitol-ites who made the trip one to remember, our thanks for a shot at a truly remarkable talent. It made our week.

↑ Chrysalis champions in a line up with the Sea Hags in NYC.

ABWH (DE)TOUR

Due to the illness of Tony Levin, the ABWH tour has been postponed until September 4th, when the group will play Los Angeles. Dates affected include Dallas (29th), Bonner Springs (31st), Denver (1st) and Park City (2nd). Tony should be hale and hearty for the remainder of the sweep.

MJI GETS MOTLEY

MJI Broadcasting is giving fans of the Metalshop program a shot at traveling to London to see the Crue at the Wembley Arena. The trip is a co-promote with Levi's and will hinge on a creative design for the Motley Crue logo, as submitted by listeners. As part of the ongoing Crue-sade to make the world safe for great rock and roll, this is bound to generate mucho interest on the streets of your town.

↑ Matt Dillon caught backstage at the recent Pogues show in NYC. Here Matt is doing his best "I'm too rich and famous to worry about how fat and sloppy I look" routine. He does it rather well, don't you think?

NEW POLYDOR ALT ASSIGNATION

A fresh face pops up in the Polydor Alternative Promo office this week. Sean Renet signs on as the new National Director for Alternative Radio at Polydor, based out of Los Angeles. Sean comes over from Motown where National Promotion was his turf. Expect a full announcement in the coming week.

LOU LIMPS A BIT

The Lou Reed tour goes on hiatus this week following an accident in Cleveland where Lou broke his ankle. As a result of the injury Reed will return to New York for a convalescence of about six weeks. Even if this means a break in his critically acclaimed tour, it doesn't mean that he will be inactive. Lou and John Cale are continuing their preparations for "Songs For 'Drella", a musical collaboration in honor of Andy Warhol. By the way, we've been reading Andy's diaries and are moved to query how the most influential artist since the Atomic Bomb hit the scene could spend so much time doing nothing.

MORE SBK STAFFING

A few more faces this week from the realm of SBK. The new VP of Publicity for the label is long time E/P/A pro Eliot Selznick. Eliot had worked with E/P/A since 1978 and had been responsible for many a fine campaign with some of the biggest success stories in the business. The appointment was made by the twin towers at SBK, Martin Bandier and Charles Koppelman. Another announcement this week sees Michele Block joining as Northeast regional rep for the label. Michele had done her share to break acts over at Arista prior to this move and she is roundly proclaimed one of the premiere young talents in the biz today.

DEADLINE STONES

With deadline crashing around our ears and no relief in sight, we may be forgiven for bailing out a little early to catch the opening date of the Rolling Stones US Tour here in Philadelphia. Count on a blow by blow description in these pages as we suit up and hit the floor for some funtime with the most happening band in the land. Check ya next week.

↑ Mike and The Mechanics shown in Los Angeles after kicking off another leg of the cross country tour.

POP REVISITED

With the Summer of '89 reverberating to the dread "W" word we have to think about some of the other great events of the period that are finding new life in the modern day. Chief among these has to be a reconstructed Monterey Pop Festival, scheduled for the end of September. This time around "Pop" stands for "Protect Our Planet" and the emphasis will be on ecological awareness when not totally immersed in music. Among the bands showing up for the event will be David and Linda LaFlamme, Jerry Lee Lewis, Canned Heat, WAR, Country Joe McDonald, Sam Moore, Kenny Rankin and Billy Preston. I'd write more about it but my fringe just caught fire from that last spliff and I have to go jump in a pile of mud to put myself out.

OLYMPIA SUMMIT RECAP

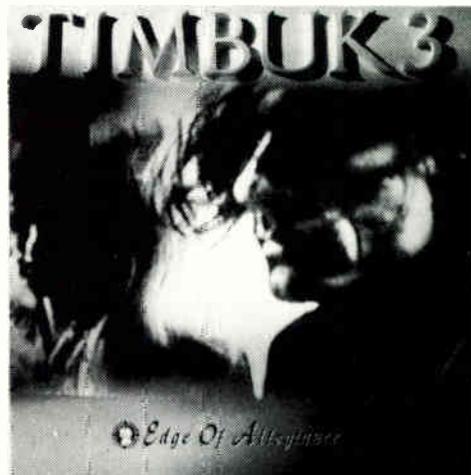

Many thanks to the folks at Olympia for a stimulating weekend in the Rockies spent with some fine upstanding examples of the profession we like to call broadcasting. The think-tank getaway was held in the thin air of Breckenridge, Colorado, a 130-year-old mining town that has been making people fall in love with the phenomena known as "shortness of breath" for many generations. When we weren't huffing and puffing on our way to the endless lines of shops and restaurants, we were engaged in a series of head sessions with, among others, Frank Wood and Randy Michaels of Jacor Communications, Bruce Marr, Charlie West, Dan Halybarton, Gary Bridges and R.D. Steele of Philly fame and, of course, Jim and Jay at Olympia. The trip was a real shot in the collective arm and much needed by this particular camper. We'll see you next year, and yes, we'll pack an extra sweater this time.

ROUGH ROTATIONS

Some changes to report at Rough Trade Records. Nick Cucci has been made Manager at the label following some stellar service in the cause of better records for a more informed America. The new Director of Radio Promotion is Jerry Rubino, formerly with Bar/None Records.

← Guess who's back? Steve Miller has been out on tour for the Summer and has an album near completion as well. This shot was taken at a recent Arsenio Hall appearance.

THE RADIO RUMBLE

KNCN/Corpus Christi surprises almost no one with the news that former KLBJ/Austin musical mainstay Don Gilmore has accepted the post of PD. "Well, it's my turn to thank Ed Levine for heading back East. We're doing the 'Texas Programmer's Shuffle' down here and I couldn't be more thrilled. My three years at KLBJ have been the most fulfilling of my life. I've learned a lot from Clark Ryan, who has the most brilliant radio mind of anyone I have ever met; and from Jeff Carrol, who is the master of street level guerilla warfare. But it's time for this bird to leave the nest. KNCN GM John Marin and Tippie Services GM Dick Delaney have expressed a lot of confidence in me. So I'm going down to Corpus Christi to work as hard as I can and then we'll see how these wings fly." As for Don's replacement in Austin, they are interviewing candidates as we speak. Interested individuals should be proficient in handling both Selector and an In-House research department.

KZAP/Sacramento is shopping for a major Production Director. Money is no object for the right candidate, but you had better be one big time talent. Get your best T&R to Pat Still at KZAP, 298 Commerce Circle, Sacramento, CA 95815.

KBPI/Denver has been getting its share of "On The Block" rumor mongering the past few weeks. Discussion has been hot on the Hard Wire that the property is primed for purchase with Greater Media being the company most mentioned as a possible buyer. In other station news, we hear that KLOS/Los Angeles has been flirting with their morning team, "The O Brothers" for an afternoon slot in LA. Our information sez, "Don't count on it".

↑ WMMS/Cleveland producer Dia spent some time with Billy Squier following his interview at the station. She still has a Rolex shaped bruise on her chin.

KSJO/San Jose sees the return of a familiar face this week now that Dana Jang has been named the new MD. Dana's position will be off-air, with former MD Tim Jeffries maintaining his afternoon drive slot as part of the new deal. Dana has logged many a year in the San Jose market and should prove a valuable assist to that station's drive for the top.

WHTQ/Orlando PD Brian Krysz has made a move along the Florida Interstate that comes as some sorta surprise this week. Brian is the next PD at WFYV/Jacksonville, filling the shoes left vacant when Lex Staley went West. Brian will be sliding in for rock and roll duty as soon as he can get that change of address form figured out.

↑ WRXK/Ft. Myers rambling kinda guy Tom "Sea Bass" Sebastian spent some serious travel time catching three of the tour dates with Ringo Starr as he and his All-Star Band hit the boards. Here we see Ringo giving a wave to that familiar face in the front row. As "Sea Bass" would say, "Cowabunga Duude!" If only his mother knew.

KLOL/Houston makes waves this week with the news that Patty Martin has been brought on board as MD. Patty and PD Ken Anthony were the dynamic duo at KSJO for many a year and it's great to see them back together again. Ken told us, "I'm extremely excited about hiring Patty. She is one of the best music directors in the country and her arrival here is bound to contribute a strengthening force to the KLOL team. If you had any doubts about us being a force to be reckoned with in the 90's, set them aside." Dayna Steele remains APD and Cathy Pletcher Baker (Anderson Bruford Wakeman Howe) has been appointed AMD to work with Patty on developing the local music scene to a greater degree at the station.

↑ WGTR/Miami and Todd Rundgren during an autograph session at a local in-store.

WAAF/Worcester follows up the departure of Harve Alan last week with news that the station will be going Rock40 under the consulted direction of John Gorman. "There are so many big guns out there cutting the ground from under the Adult audience that the station simply has to aim younger if they want to do well", said one market insider. "This isn't really a surprise, we all saw it coming". Nancy Grimes, formerly of WHJY and PRO-FM has been signed as Acting PD with no further staff adjustments expected at this time.

KISW/Seattle morning guy Bob Rivers is back on his baseball hobby horse. This time Bob has sworn to stay on the air until the hapless Mariners win a game. He remained in the studio for an age last year when the Orioles went belly-up and is ready to do more of same this year for the Mariners.

↑ WGIR/Manchester celebrated the anniversary of the Moonwalk with some high altitude broadcasting of their own. Staffers Bill Schultz and Tim Burns went up in this souped up military job from a few wars back and jammed around in their own mock-up of the Apollo 11 trip. When they touched Earth they were immediately slapped into a six week quarantine where they had nothing to eat but Tang and liquid steak.

WKGR/West Palm Beach makes some substantial changes this week with the word the Steve Street is out as PD. Steve had been leaning the station in a Male AC direction, "He was using AC formatics in an AOR environment," said one source, "and when all those great records by the Stones and Aerosmith hit we were about the only station in the nation not playing them." That, evidently was that. A general restructuring of management sees Rich Dickerson signing on as OM with Molly Beard becoming the new GM at the station. Mike Lee will be handling the day to day programming chores and couldn't be happier, "We are making the changes needed to reestablish our credibility as a rock station. Our calls are legendary in South Florida and we intend to give the people here what they expect from a rock station. As a result we have dropped all that K-Rock crap and gone back to our old logo. There are a lot of people here who have been holding their breath through all these changes. We're glad to be back." Some other new faces on the staff include Glen Curtis on middays.

KKZX/Spokane has a new MD replacing Christina Gorton who departed last week. Her name is Vicky McCarthey and she has been with the station for two and a half years. As part of the new staff adjustments Vicky moves into middays, Billy The Janitor mops his way into evenings and Corey Michaels moves from weekends to overnights. Vicky will take music calls Monday through Friday from 9-5pm.

WRFX/Charlotte overnights get a new voice with Tucker stepping up from his weekend position to replace the exiting Marc Garber. Marc is leaving to pursue independent voice work in the market.

KSHE/St. Louis surpassed all expectations this year with their annual blood drive. Over 3,000 pints of blood were raised at the event, which was helped out massively by the Conference Of Unemployed DJ's held in the building next door. What those out of work jocks won't do for a hot dog and some gator aid.

KJET/Seattle former PD Jim Keller is still in the studio with his band The Different Ones, working on a demo. Once that is done he will be seeking further employment in broadcasting. Jim can be reached at (206) 633-5073.

WYMG/Springfield new Production Director Kelly Stevens hails from KFMZ/Columbia where he served in a similar capacity. The station had been without a Production person for the last few weeks, and folks in Springfield are breathing a sigh of relief to have some help in the studio of shame.

WOFM/Chesapeake has made Al Mitchell their new MD this week. Al will continue to perform his evening air duties while working the station turntable into a frazzle.

WRCN/Long Island PD Tom Calderone is getting things together for the 3rd Annual WBNY/Buffalo Alumni Weekend. The event runs October 20th through the 22nd and should prove reason enough to take your own life, as if you needed one. The alumni take over the airwaves of WBNY and generally have a damn good time. Any alumni are encouraged to contact Tom at the station for more information.

WHCN/Hartford scored a double win this year when the Hartford Advocate reader's poll singled them out as Best Radio Station and likewise proclaimed morning guys Picozzi and The Horn the best of the best when it comes to wake-up duties. It was the first time that HCN had unseated perennial favorite WTIC, so the win was twice as sweet.

WROV/Roanoke welcomes Paul Balmer to the team. Paul will be handling evenings at the station while Ellen Flaherty moves into that vacant afternoon drive slot and takes on added duties as AMD. Ellen will be available to the industry Wednesday through Friday from Noon to 3pm. Dave Cowan will continue to take calls Tuesday through Friday 9-11am. No calls on Monday, please.

WRXK/Ft. Myers former MD D-Day is on the lookout for some new opportunities, preferably below the Mason Dixon line. The man has a great set of ears and is top-rated in his market. He can turn in a solid day's work and make the ladies swoon at those remotes. Reach him at (813) 472-2229.

KILO/Colorado Springs is packaging a big promotion around the closing Who date in Dallas on September 3rd. The winners will be whisked off for an all expenses paid trip to Big D for some star treatment at what is being billed "The World's Biggest Party".

WGTR/Miami announces their new relationship with the Pollack Media Group this week. The move from Burkhart Douglas and Associates has been in the mill for some time with "client service" being the reason cited by PD Bill Wise for the move. "We feel the Pollack Media Group can help us continue our battle with our two fine competitors, WSHE and WZTA," said Wise. "Of course, I will not let Jeff Pollack appear in any Epic ads with me. It's in our contract."

WFBQ/Indianapolis is getting together a few hundred friends of race car driver Phil Krueger, who sustained serious injuries at the Michigan 500 earlier this month. The station will be throwing a Get Well Party for Phil, with everyone signing a card about the size of the pits in Indy.

R.I.P

Our condolences to the family and friends of Ron Kittle, the Controller of Warner Brothers Records, who died unexpectedly of a heart attack on August 8th. A WB loyalist since joining the company in 1978, Ron rose up the company ladder by dint of application and hard work. He is survived by his parents, brother and daughter.

Fugazi "Margin Walker" (Dischord)

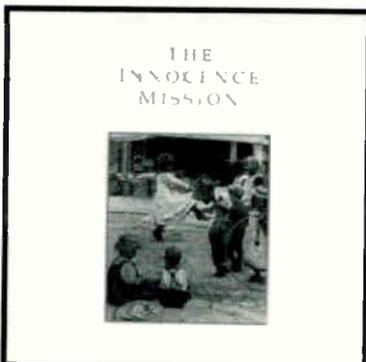

If an official Punk Rock Hall Of Fame existed, Minor Threat would reign supreme as the ones who tore at the establishment with some of the most powerful blasts of the decade. They practically pioneered the genre with rapid-fire slam rock, and Ian MacKaye's loud, angry songs. Anyone who claims to know punk and mourns its demise, but time and energy has given way to Ian MacKaye's uncompromising genius in Fugazi. As the second chapter in what seems like a newly opened book, "Margin Walker" buzzes and grinds like the first EP, as Ian and Guy Picciotto trade off shouts, chants and vocal-mania. It's a musical challenge, a push for action and a clear progression of the outspoken environmental and political views that the fearless leader screamed during his "Salad Days". Once again he's carved out a deep, dangerous blitz of sound on record, and the fact they never give way to commercial ends is ironically, Fugazi's greatest selling point. Song quality outweighs quantity, and each and every one is a bonus track. But if we had to pick just one, the haunting lyrics in "Burning Too" shred just fine. Dischord Records: 3810 Beecher St. NW, Washington, D.C. 20007.

Lancaster, PA is a known for golden-green rolling hills and wide open skies, not for its rock scene. But The Innocence Mission gives the picture post card visuals of their hometown a real life sound dimension. After playing together for seven years the debut album is finally here, a result of the tender keyboard and guitar melodies tenderly woven together in a delicate,

“‘Peace And Love’ is a really diverse album that contains celtic, calypso, pop and punk styles within. I’ve never been as blown away by The Pogues until now. It’s the best music from this band - ever!”

Butch Lazorchak, WVW, Christiansburg

“The Pogues are outside of our usual sound but they offer great texture that gives the station a unique flavor. People want to hear a wide scope of music that includes country, reggae, world music and even euro-folk but it’s up to us to introduce them to great bands like this.”

evocative setting. Led by Karen Peris, whose voice soars with the sweetness and unpredictability of a summer storm, they create music with fairytale charm surrounded by loping rhythms. It's difficult to find a group that can seize immediate attention without playing aggressive songs, but The Innocence Mission's unique, colorful moods and quiet interplay between vocals and instruments speak loud and clear. Gentle acoustics and percussion reach out and paint a gorgeous portrait of a stunning new band on the American rock scene. Produced by Larry Klein, the album captures a subtle blend of ideas and dreams that convey sharp images of love in "Black Sheep Wall" and the spicy bounce of "Curious". "I Remember Me", "Come Around And See Me" and the "Wonder Of Birds" also yield pure, untainted melodies with swiftness and ease. The Innocence Mission's destiny does not fit the demands of rigid mainstream expectations and the natural beauty of their music will surely overcome the status quo.

A.C. Marias "One Of Our Girls" (Mute)

As a ten year underground vet in association with Wire members and with her own musical endeavors, Angela Conway has found unique satisfaction in a solo project as A.C. Marias. An lone creator much like Gordon in Cindytalk, her encompasses an ethereal, new age aura in a similar vein as Dead Can Dance. Her voice floats on placid waves of smooth, sampled sound as she leads you along misty instrumentals that threaten to but never quite take on a solid form. A.C. Marias breathes luxurious, abstract tones with delicate note patterns and comes up with music fit for the Gods. "One Of Our Girls Has Gone Missing" is a pressure cooker of a track (also found on the Mute Sampler "Tonal Evidence"), and the peculiar strings in "Time Was" are a psychedelic surprise. This is art in a vacuum of self-creativity and exploration, and she manipulates your mind into distorted shapes of all sizes. A.C. Marias definitely sees the world from a new angle.

- Life is sweet, and bands like the Sugarcubes guarantee to deliver the musical treat we've been craving for. "Regina" is
- the first single from the band's second domestic LP, "Here Today, Tomorrow Next Week" on Elektra Records. If
- "Birthday" hit right off the bat, than "Regina" is sure to blow you away. How does one aptly describe the breathtaking twists and free-form fun that turns into the unforgettable sounds of the Sugarcubes? Bjork's whimsical cries in the chorus come off like she's shouting in the Swiss Alps, and the music just lifts you up and sweeps away any doubt that the Sugarcubes are one of the most innovative talents on the scene today... Geffen Records announces the return of Fuzzbox, and what a makeover these ladies have had. the first single is "Self", a familiar you done me wrong ditty, reworked with a Bananarama feel and beefed up with a bit of guitar punch. It's hit formula stuff that satisfies the old disco-rock magic in your soul. The B-side includes a dastardly version of Queen's "Bohemian Rhapsody". King me, please and stop the boat I want to jump off... Let's go down and see what's happening on the bayou. Last week we mentioned the first single from The Subdudes, "Any Time". Now the full length Atlantic Records debut LP is in your hands. Being the crossover hounds we are, it's only fitting to mention that the Subdudes are the band to fill a lot of gaps in a multi-format kind of way. The zydeco-cajun-blues-folk-soft rock style they've honed on this album is a feat to behold. Whether you're a little confused or just plain won over by the special jambalaya they offer, there are several different modes with which they get the point across. A little Los Lobos here, a little Bodeans there and a soulful hook, line and sinker should get you started with songs like "Need Somebody", "One Time", "Tupelo" and "Light In Your Eyes". Somehow the magical visions of Love Tractor come into view with the song "Big Chief", a wild spree of twang and clatter that has alternative appeal written all over it. Somehow Subdudes and Summer belong in the same train of thought because of the warm, traditional influence they rely on to pull off this kind of party muzak. It's time to figure the rest out for yourself: Stations like KTAO, KTCL, WBER, WBNY, WHTG, WMDK and WNCS are already well on the way to discovering what makes them tick, tock and rock. KBCO's Doug Clifton adds, "The Subdudes have been a club favorite for over a year now along Colorado's front range. They have a fresh sound that's perfect for adult and alternative stations from coast to coast!"... L.A.'s Flies On Fire got their first taste of stardom as the Winners of MTV's Basement Tapes with their video for "Long Gone Dead", and after a series of live performances in town they were scooped up by Atco Records. Although the cover resembles the INXS "Kick" LP, you can guarantee that its contents are quite far removed from those Aussie pop stars. They pay homage to the tried and true Creedence method of southern fried rock, but the updated, ringing sound they pull out of those hollow-bodied guitars is an immediate call for the cue. One listen to "C'mon" suggests an album radio rocker in an instant, but remember what your mama told you: Share and share alike. "Baptize Me Over Elvis Presley's Grave" is a priceless little trash-ditty for those dedicated Elvis fans and anyone looking for a hoot to boot. "Small Town" unravels into a steamy anthem with grinding guitars and forceful crunch, while "Long Gone Dead" winds up side two with down'n'dirty grit-licks that with a little production saavy, come off tight and focused. Flies On Fire rocks with that fiery substance born where the buffalo roamed, and call to mind a songwriting approach kind of like the wild, wild west's answer to the Rainmakers. If you're looking for a hero, listen to "Not For Long" and the slow bluesy crawl of "Salvation Boulevard".... The steady climb for Lucinda Williams continues, as Rough Trade

Records releases the "Passionate Kisses" single with live recordings on the flip. You may remember reading about Lucinda's fine LP in these pages almost a year ago, as her self-titled album charmed us right out of our cowboy boots. She's not quite country and not quite rock and roll (Donny and Marie would be disappointed), but her pop sensibility is one asset that should take this lady to the far corners of the globe. She writes and performs with honest to goodness edge and saves the glossy perfection for the rest. So if you overlooked Lucinda last time it's not too late to enjoy a mid-tempo gem that will make the airwaves come alive.... "Welcome to my acid house," says Baby Ford on the domestic release of "Children Of The Revolution". This remake was most recently done by the Violent Femmes, but never has it had the dub-beat visions of excess of this version. Baby Ford was one of the instigators of the Acid House movement and he's still plugging away at the mixing board. The "Children Of The Revolution" single is out now on Sire/WB Records, with early reaction from KSJS, KUSF, WFIT, KROQ, KTOW, KUKQ, KUNV, WFNX and WUNH.

Chartstars

To say that the new single from Tears For Fears is a nice surprise could be the understatement of the year. This 80's wave duo takes the pressure to outdo themselves to the max, with a groovy, soulful, modern-psychedelic song that erupts into a real life slice of pop heaven. If you reflect back on the concept of "The Hurting" and flash forward to the present, the band's amazing transformation is hard to believe - But the motto of the story points to a progressive pair of songwriters who will except nothing but the finest sound worth producing. When album rockers go off on an elaborate, technotune such as this it offers a hint of light at the end of that classic rock tunnel. Alternative stations to boost "Sowing The Seeds Of Love" into heavy are 91X, KDGE, KUKQ, WBRU, WDRE and WHTG. Mark Miller at KABL opines, "It sounds like they were locked in a room with 'I Am The Walrus', and I haven't given up on this band as a progressive one because they keep striving for change. 'Sowing The Seeds...' is an interesting song, and we always welcome bands who try to reinvent themselves. Watch out for the Fontana/PolyGram Records release of "The Seeds Of Love" LP near the end of this month.... The Alarm nabs high Airplay debut this week with a 14* entry.

"Sold Me Down The River" is the first single from the band's forthcoming "Change" album on I.R.S. Records. It's a shift in direction for the foursome that came from behind the shadow of U2's success. Now The Alarm takes on a rock'n'roll posture that sounds like it came from the heartland of the ole' USA. KBCO's Doug Clifton thinks, "The Alarm is on target for the big big breaking point. They were close last time but the new release helps them to turn the corner." The #1 Most Added Alternative Track appears at 4* for the high mark too, as over 25 progressive stations take the bait, including Live 105, WDRE, WFIT, 91X, KDGE, WNCS, WMDK, WKXL, KUCI and KTCL.... Making a big move with the arrival of the "Megatop Phoenix" album is B.A.D., from 24-7* Airplay/12-3* Tracks for "James Brown". "Megatop" is the next best thing to the band's debut Columbia Records LP, according to this die-hard fan of the first release. But the new one sends you spinning with a whirlwind of samples, rhythm techniques and cinema-type visual imagery. There's no doubt that B.A.D. is back and better than ever, and depth seekers will find the prize they've been looking for in "Rewind", "Contact", "The Green Lady" and "Around The Girl In 80 Ways". Watch for continued exposure at stations like KJQN, KRCK, KTCL, WBNY, KSJS, KUNV, KUSF, WFIT, WWUH, 91X, KABL, KUCI, WBER, WFNX and WOXY. Carter Alan at WBCN says, "It's great to hear from Mick Jones and Big Audio Dynamite after that very unfortunate illness that the former Clash-mate experienced. We are very happy to see newly scheduled B.A.D. concert dates for the latter part of September, and of course the new 12" 'James Brown', which came in last week. The song is a daring new direction and electronic advance for the band, but just as rhythmic as ever.... While y'all are off seeing the Stones reunion tour, Alternative Radio is nurturing its own newfound discovery, The Stone Roses, a new band of young popsters from the U.K. They get a resounding encore from our cabin, and the LP was a featured pick the week it was released. "She Bangs The Drums" is still the focus track but the view keeps widening with distractions like "Waterfall", "I Wanna Be Adored" and "Elizabeth My Dear". They enjoy that Mighty Lemon Drops hip-factor that surrounded latter on their debut, and now that trend carries on with The Stone Roses' Silvertone Records debut. If you're as fascinated as we are about the elusive appeal this band has, then stick around and see what happens when people start to walk out of stores the album in hand. The Lp moves 19-12* this week and the single 16-12*. Jamey Karr at KACV noticed "Instant acceptance from jocks and listeners alike. Neither can hear it enough. We played them on import and I was really surprised. Sometimes our young crowd shoves this type of sound aside, but not this time!" Early request reports can be found at KACV, WMDK and KUNV.

RECORD OF THE WEEK

Testament, "Practice What You Preach", Megaforce/Atl.... There are some records that you just know are gonna smash anything in their wake and head for higher ground. Well, it only took Johnny Z's boys 2 weeks to enter the chart and seize control of the coveted number one spot. And in the few weeks since, this band as even managed to dislodge the mighty Metallica from the #1 Most Requested spot (which we were beginning to think they'd never surrender up. I thought I was gonna have to start a 1A or something just to be fair to other acts. You know, make James and the guys honorary #1 'til the end of time.) Ahh, but back to the matter at hand. If ever there was justification for an Lp being Record Of The Week, I'd say this band has got it cinched. #1 across the board on all the metal charts, Top Phones everywhere (no wonder the phones company's on strike), a 99* debut on Billboard (they're now up to 84*) and hyperactive sales in excess of 150,000 units... SO FAR! Can't even begin to argue with those statistics, no way, no how. So, what have we to look forward to next from Chuck, Alex, Eric, Greg and Louie? Only one of the raginest mosh-a-thons to hit the open road. We're talkin' Testament on tour with Annihilator and Wrathchild America beginning in October. Too huge for words. You get the picture I'm sure. While your waiting in line for tix, or hey even if you're not, whip out your Walkman and tune into "The Ballad", "Perilous Nation", "Sins of Omission", "Greenhouse Effect" or the ridiculously resplendent "Confusion Fusion" (it's the instrumental). I wonder if they walk on water too?

Fifth Angel, "Time Will Tell", Epic.... It's been a long wait for the newest offering from this Seattle based powerhouse. Their self-titled debut was our first real taste of their prowess at designing melodies and harmony lines within a hard rock structure. By the time we got it however, the record was already almost 2 years old (it was released on Shrapnel and Roadracer in Europe originally, and repackaged and released here after the band signed with Epic). Even so, the gothic sounding metal that assaulted our little metal world, untempered by time, (ex. "Into The Fallout" and the title track), was as fresh and vital as most of the new records released alongside it. The overwhelming response to the Lp carried it as high as #2 on the metal charts, without benefit of even a tour. So now, chapter two in Fifth Angel's story unfolds.... The talent and potential we glimpsed on the debut is now blatantly confirmed within one listen of the new album. While the gothic feel is toned down considerably, there still remains an aura around their songs that projects power and majesty. A lot of that has to do with Ted Pilot's deep and resonant vocals and the explosive musical machine that supports him. New to the fold is lead guitarist

Kendall Bechtal (replacing James Byrd) and supplying the stix action was none other than former member Ken Mary (the drum position at last word remains open). Ed Archer (rhythm guitar) and John Macho (bass) continue their roles with steadfast competence. As for the songs themselves, they range from the commercially viable title cut and "Midnight Love" to the resounding peals of "Cathedral" to the compelling strength of "We Rule", "Feel The Heat" "Angel Of Mercy" and their searing cover of U.F.O.'s classic "Lights Out". There's also a touch of beauty via the ballads "Broken Dreams" and "So Long". Through and through a tremendously consistent and impressive album, more than worth the wait. It could finally be Fifth Angel's "Time". Look for a tour soon as well. Yeeees!

King Diamond, "Conspiracy", Roadracer.... So the wild and wicked tales of horror continue from one of the rock world's most bizarre artists. On this latest release King continues the story of Grandma, Missy and his mother, who we were first introduced to on last year's "Them" Lp. In these new chapters King moves the story to completion with his character's timely death ("Cremation"). And in keeping with his tradion of developing very thorough, yet demonic plots through lyrical content, King serves up 10 more tunes stuffed full of mystical mayhem. Following the opening (and rather pretty I might add) bars of "At The Graves" he launches into his wailing lament "Sleepless Nights" then into "Lies" (which reveals the terms of his "therapy") and "A Visit From The Dead". The saga continues with the hauntingly vivid cut "The Wedding Dream" to "Amon Belongs To Them" and into a instrumental interlude a la King's technically clever guitarist Andy LaRoque. In fact, Andy and fellow guitarist Pete Blakk supply some of the highpoints on this epic. There is more experimentation with different guitar textures - acoustical interludes, jazzy phrasings ("A Visit") as well as some absolutely ripping solos by both. King also seems content to really utilize his impressive range. And while his trademark, piercing falsetto is still the focal point of most of the tracks, he does employ his lower registers, sounding at sometimes more like a thrasher than usual. While "Them" brought this band more to the fore on the metal scene, this album with its increased musicality and depth should really surprise some of KD's most belligerent objectors. Side two features the climatic "Victimized" and the "sort-of" conclusion to one of the most intricate and sordid concepts ever put to vinyl. In a word, intense.

Shotgun Messiah, "Shout It Out", Relativity.... Here's the next big thing to exit the Hollywood Hills by way of Sweden. What we have here are four attitudinal rockers with a penchant for metal rap, and some flashy guitar licks to boot. The lead track from their forthcoming debut Lp, is an anthemic screamer loaded with little rap tirades, some growling choruses, big boomy drums and some well placed "na na na's". And we all know what those can do for a song's popularity, (remember Hurricane's "I'm On To You"?). One thing this song is not, is boring. From the first note, it hammers away with the highly capable axe licks of Harry K. Cody slicing easily through the mix. Bassist Tim Tim and drummer Stixx are adept at keeping it stirred up, with both instruments well represented - the drums just bash! Vocalist Zinny J. San has one of those voices that we're hearing a lot more of - able to travel from raps to screams to growls without so much as a flinch. In fact, they all seem to do some singing or shouting on this one and they all join in on the raps. They sound really animated and like they had a great time recording this song. Actually, if you've had a chance to spy their new vid for this cut, then you can probably tell that these guys are good at having fun. I've heard a couple of other tracks and there's no doubt about it, this band could prove to be a major force in the arena rock circuit. Says WKPX's Amy Downing, "I'd heard them when they were Kinpin and I liked 'em alot then. But, I really like this. They rap it and it sounds great. They have a lot of potential." This week Shotgun dented our Most Added Metal chart, comin' in at #5 and are at Rumbler status. Look for even more heated chart action in the weeks to come. Don't forget the name, they're gonna be around for a while.

Onslaught, "In Search Of Sanity", London/PolyGram.... The demise of Grim Reaper was an unfortunate event, but for Onslaught it was the turning over of a new leaf. From the fallout of that breakup, the band acquired for themselves the stellar vocal talents of Steve Grimmet. And on this release, he returns to the scene with a vengeance and a fury, his voice sounding better than ever. Most of you got a sneak peak at the all-new Onslaught sound when we sent out our Sampler CD. It featured the band's cover of AD/DC's "Let There Be Rock", and while that track did well to set them up, it is the rest that'll put a jolt of electricity through your playlists. The record opens with an ethereal new age sounding piece called "Asylum" then slams headfirst into the title cut, "In Search Of Sanity" - with the emphasis primarily on the crunchy guitar sound. There is actually a very heavy guitar presence throughout this record, with the leads running rather high in the mix. And while the band still retains a tremendous amount of its thrash qualities, it has now also gained some flexibility with the use of more melody lines and the added versatility Grimmets voice represents. "Shellshock"

(an all-out attack), "Lightning War" and "Blood On The Ice" are the thrashiest pieces on the record and filled with jackhammer mosh riffs and drum kicks. Be sure to really check out "Welcome To Dying" which clocks in at just under 13 minutes long. It really showcases this band's "other" side as well as Steve's exceptional voice. Already Onslaught is attacking the airwaves as the album was this week #2 Most Added Metal and looking good for a strong debut on Hard Hitters in the coming weeks.

CHART AX-SHUN

Motley Crue, "Dr. Feelgood", Elektra.... The original L.A. nasties are back with their best effort in years and not surprisingly it's taken the charts by storm. What's most surprising to some, is Metal Radio's exuberant embracing of a band who is now in AOR warpdive (15* Hard Hundred, #3 Most Requested AOR). Good to see that the Crue's metallic following is turning out en masse to give "Dr. Feelgood" the right kind of greeting. Over here on the dark side of the room, Vince, Nixxi, Tommy and Mick aren't doing to shabby either as they made the biggest move up the chart that we've seen in quite some time, up 28 spots from 33-5*. They also nailed #3 Most Requested Metal. With the 12" alone causing these kinds of seismic readings, what can we expect in the next week or two as the full Lp impacts at radio?! Should Testament reinforce their battlements up there at #1? Hmmmm... Those seein' the "Doctor" include: ARN, WHJY, WVCR, KUNV, WGLS, WLFR, WMMS, KGB, Z-ROCK (who are at least 2 tracks deep already), KTEC, WAIF, WERS, WWUH, KISS, WCWP, WHVY, KCPR, KPGA, WBCN, WSOU, KNAC and more.

L.A. Guns, "Cocked And Loaded", PolyGram.... What a pair we have in our Chart Ax-shun section this week, don't you think? Here we have another of those L.A. bad boy bands spreading their down and dirty dealings across these United States. And a banner time it is for these bands. It does this heart good to see such quality material coming from these bands who, let's face it, could have afforded to sit back on their laurels a bit if they'd wanted to. But then again, the competition is getting pretty fierce out there with an influx of new bands seemingly from almost every walk of life. What a year for metal. Anyway, with the album just beginning to hit metal heads where it counts in the last week, the Guns are already seeing more than respectable chart action of their own. Rummaging across my desk from hell, I see that "Cocked And Loaded" fired up the charts with a healthy move up 13 rungs 38-15* while gaining even more new adds at: ARN, KOZZ, KUSF, WERS, WNHU, WVCR and KNAC goes deeper with "Malaria" (they're already on 3 others). Already on the likes of KGB, WCWP, WRFL, WSOU, KFMG, WHMH, WKNC, WNYU, WRTN, WHVY, WLRA, KISW, WLRA and Z-ROCK just to name a few.

FAITH GO ROUND

OMIGOD! I've been witness to one of the greatest shows on earth, second only to the one and only Ryche. It was the whirlwind madness (and brilliance) of Faith No More, live on stage at NYC's Cat Club. Since the record is one of my all-time Top Five's, I was, shall we say, hyper-stressed about seeing these guys live and now know why everyone told me to expect nothing less than a tremendous performance. New vocalist Mike Patton was the ultimate showman, moshing, headbanging, a character in different get-ups with hats (one that clapped even) like I've never seen (the snorkel look was a nice touch, but the rubber, uhm, mammary glands were the tops), and that voice! What an amazing man. (Okay so the female portion of the audience was in a lather - hey, he's a great package and we're only human!) The band sounded note perfect and their instrumental "Woodpeckers From Mars" was the most. In fact, some of the cranium-flouncing activities of those present lent to certain deadline neck aches (but life's hell, eh). You gotta admit, a man who can wear a chest prosthesis like that is more than just mere manhood. Thanks to Jem Aswad from rescuing me from that moshing, dancing mass of humanity and letting me share his chair (we did a good job dancin' it up, while we held that pole up, eh?) Hellos to Mike Jones, Sue Stillwagon, Scott Givens, Missi Callozo, Charity kurz, Cheryl V., Jessica H., Chuck (thanks for holding my jacket) and everyone else who was hanging out with Bet, Jeff and myself. Oh, by the way, Billy Squier seemed to really dig them too. It was worth getting in at 4:30AM on deadline day. LOVE THAT BAND! Go see them. They'll be hooking up soon with Metallica.

Big news in the world of Sue "Elektric" Stillwagon as she informs us of the now official split between Motley Crue and Doc McGhee Entertainment. Seems the schizm that ocured between Doc and the boys over Russia way was just the icing on the cake. Apparently personal conflicts have been brewing for a while now and led to the split. As for the Crue's needing management, never fear, they've stolen away Doug Thaler and he is now personally managing the band.... Faster Pussycat has completed work on the first video from their new Lp and it's for the song "Poison Ivy". Look for it to air hopefully by next week.... And for those of you waiting with baited breath for releases from the two spinoffs from Dokken, The Lynch Mob and Desperado - don't hold your breath. Looks like they'll probably be held for release until the first quarter of next year. Oh, and by the way HAPPY BELATED BIRTHDAY TO MISS SUE STILLWAGON WHO TURNED THE BIG 21 ON AUG. 30! (She's probably gonna kill me for this, but hey, you only live once.... right?!)

-The new Cats In Boots video for their lead cut "Shot Gun Sally" was directed by Paul Rachman (Anthrax, EZO, and Dangerous Toys). We'll keep you informed as to when it hits the screen, but in the meantime keep your eyes and ears peeled for this very hard rockin' outfit that EMI Records is about to unleash on you in a week or so.

-Barren Cross is out on the road again. One of these days, just maybe they'll get over here so we can catch their show. We hear they put on a stunning performance. WHERE THE WILD THINGS ARE

Badlands have been making good on the road with Great White and Tesla. The shows have been selling out and their fans are beginning to recognize them on the street. But not for who they really are... "I had this one girl come up to me and grab my hand and say, 'I've been such a fan of yours since Deep Purple,'" laughs lead singer Ray Gillen. "I said, 'Yeah!' I wasn't even going to bother with it. Another time, the band was out in a club. It was the first time we ever went out as a band. This lady, Lucy Forbes, she's a talent scout for musicians, she comes up to Jake and says, 'You're singer looks so good for his age.' And Jake just shrugs and says 'I guess, yeah.' So she comes up to me and looks closer and then goes back to Jake and says 'Damn! He looks good for his age!' Then all of a sudden, Jake realizes that she thinks I'm Ian Gillen. so Jake says 'How old do you think he is?' and she says 'Well, he's gotta be over forty.'".... "One time we were playing this amusement park in Connecticut," says bassist Greg Chaisson. "And as we're walking to the bus, all these kids are yelling 'Ian! Ian! Come over here!'" I had one of them come over to me and say 'Man! You kick your father's ass!'".... laughs Ray. "I would love to meet Ian Gillan. There's no relationship at all. The first time I heard Ian Gillan was on Jesus Christ Superstar and I said 'Jesus! What a killer voice!'".... "At least Ray gets recognized as Ian Gillan," complains Greg. "We were in Savannah, Georgia, and me and Ray were sitting in some chairs, while the crew was all working. All these girls were coming over and asking Ray for his autograph. So, I'm just kind of sitting there with him in my baseball hat and then Ray goes in the bus. One of these three girls says 'What do you have to do to be a roadie?' so I say well you have to work long hours, not take a shower, and it's not very glamorous. So she says, 'But you get to hang around with the rock stars.' I answer, no the roadies don't get to hang around the rock stars, they've got to work. She goes 'You're hanging around a rock star right now!'"... That's because I ain't a roadie!... "Then what are you?" she asks defiantly... I'm a bass player.... She was so humiliated, she wouldn't leave me alone for the rest of the day. 'I'm so sorry. Sign my shoe.'"... I either get mistaken for a roadie or a bodyguard. I don't mind it, because I can walk after the show in the audience. That's pretty cool, cause we went out together in this amusement park, and the kids wouldn't leave Jake alone. It got to the point where we had to get a guy in a car to drive us to safety.

Ahh. Such is the life to a sprouting rock star. What will it take for Ray to be recognized as himself? What will keep Greg from fading into the crowd? Who will protect Jake E. Lee? I think a seven week enrollment in Sean Penn's school of Star Etiquette will solve any and all problems, so quit your complaining and send in those checks and money orders. No cash please!

Poison is working on new material for their forthcoming record with a tentative release date of next June. In the meantime, to hold your interest, they're releasing a special video collection in time for Christmas. It's titled "A Sight For Sore Ears" and is that special blend of produced video and candid on-the-road footage. Wonder if any of their library of female friends will appear. That would make a nice XXX rating and catapult Poison into supersuperstardom. Hey, look what it did for Robe Lowe. New movies, more buzz on the street, lots of fantasizing, and just plain more intrigue, don't you think? But as singer Bret Michaels goes on to explain, "Our songs are about true emotions and experiences that happen to us. There are no lies and no condescension with us. I'm a musician - not a martyr or some kind of saint. I think the real heroes of today are not rock stars, but some people like social workers and drug counselors who are helping people put their lives back together." Pretty deep, Bret.

STEPPING INTO PSYCHO CAFÉ

It's no secret that it's gotten harder for really talented and unique acts to get signed to quality record deals. That's not saying that there aren't a lot of good bands getting signed, it's just that more often than not, bands that follow a preconceived image or that fit into a specific mold or style (especially one that happens to be doing well), are the ones that get noticed. Luckily, now and then something really special does manage to get through however. Bang Tango, a five piece out of L.A., have taken their brash brand of hard-hitting metal one step further by enhancing it with deep and captivating grooves. Their album is a bright and colorful mixed bag of sounds and textures. It ranges from the raspy moodiness of "Breaking Up A Heart Of Stone" & "Just For You" to the power and drive of "Attack of Life", "Shotgun Man" & "Love Injection" and of course their current hit "Someone Like You" drove them straight to #1 on the metal charts, while the neon drenched video also took hold of MTV (it has yet to let go). Their live shows are something to behold as well. So good in fact, that they got their label deal right off of a live performance - no demo. They've more than proven the wisdom in that. Just listen to the record or catch their show, and you'll see what I mean. Lead vocalist Joe Lesté and bassist Kyle Kyle called to shed some light on the metal groove machine that is Bang Tango and this is how it went....

Chris: Being that you guys have only been together a little over a year (approx. a year and seven months according to Joe), has all the sudden success with the album (#1 on the Metal Charts/Top Requested on MTV/strong sales), come as a surprise to you?

Joe: Um, I don't know (laughs). It's hard to answer that question really 'cause we have that confidence, you know? We believe in what we do so there's no surprise there, but at the same time all that stuff that's happening is surprising.

Kyle: It's exciting having things click like that. It keeps the energy levels up and you from getting bored. From the time we started the band, we were constantly busy playing. Right up until we got signed and recorded the album.

Chris: It's rather unusual though for a band to get signed without benefit of a demo or press package.

Kyle: Yeah, but we just played all the time and not only that, but I was on the phone all the time calling anyone and everyone in this industry just bugging them. It was like, "Oh god, it's him again!".

Joe: Yeah, plus we had interest from this lawyer who kind of helped. He had connections so he got people to come down and see us. It's like, if a band has enough people coming down who have the ability to sign bands, then they can really show what they can do and chances are they just might get signed. Our songs come out really good live.

Chris: Well you seem to have a very good following out on the West Coast, primarily because of your live shows.

Joe: Yeah, and as far as our album's concerned and having the video out, we're really doing good all over. It's really helping us. I almost can't believe it. Our first show was last week in San Jose and it was just incredible.

Kyle: Oh yeah, we played four shows and all of them were sold out. We've had incredible crowds.

Chris: Speaking of the video, that was obviously your first one and it's so amazing, how was it working with Jeff Stein? He's done some pretty exciting stuff.

Joe: It was great, that guy is incredible.

Chris: I was kind of sorry you didn't do one for "Attack Of Life".

Kyle: We wanted to but it was kind of a heavy song. It did well with the harder types, but it's like we already went beyond it with "Someone Like You". They've talked about maybe eventually doing something with it in some live type thing.

Chris: I guess the first thing that attracted me to your record was the name, Bang Tango. It just thought it perfectly described your kind of music.

Joe: Yeah, that's cool. You get a big gold star next to your name (laughs). That's the first time someone actually said that to us. We usually end up saying it to them. You're right though 'cause that's the reason for the name.

Chris: It just always seemed so obvious to me because there's such a groove in your songs, but they also have that punch.

Kyle: Oh geez... man, it's like listening into a mirror. Yeah, I mean when Joe came up with that we wanted it to mean heavy-hitting with a swaying groove attached, you know?

Joe: It's got that sexy side to it and at the same time it's heavy. It's like people say to us, "You guys are the next big thing" and I just go, "Nuh-uh, we're the NEXT thing."

Chris: Well looking at the video and listening to the record, and I guess this goes back to the name Bang Tango, it seems everything you do has a certain intensity to it.

Kyle: You have to really see us live, the whole thing is totally intense.

Chris: I did at the Cat Club, and actually, though I really love the record I thought you came off even better live.

Joe: See, that's the whole point.

Kyle: That wasn't even like listening to us now a year later, because that was the first time we'd played since we did the record. Like 6 months. And it was our first time in New York, and it was the first time we'd even travelled. Right up to these four shows we've been rehearsing - ever since that Cat Club show. There's a lot more energy now, just heads up you know? We hate playing small stages, but the Cat Club was cool.

Joe: Yeah, more like 8 months.

Chris: New York crowds aren't known to be the most friendly either, but I thought you got a really good reaction that night.

Joe: Yeah, it's a tough crowd.

Kyle: Everyone warned us, "Now when you go to New York, you guys are great, but just don't worry or don't be surprised if everyone just stands there." But we got there and people were totally cool. We had a blast in New York, I can't wait to get back there.

Chris: With the success having come relatively quickly with this record, do you feel any pressure to on the next one really outdo it or to really prove yourself?

Joe: No, I don't think so. I mean we do what comes naturally. Like on this album we did whatever we felt like doing. And the whole thing with us is that we're very into the music end of it, the writing, the musicianship and all that stuff. Like right now we've already got some new songs.

Kyle: Yeah, I think bands that worry about stuff like that are the bands that are around for 3 or 4 years and then disappear.

Joe: The bands that have already made a big "pop" hit and are already worrying about following it up with another "pop" hit.

Kyle: Yeah, it's like they finally got that one tune that made 'em happen for four years on the club circuit and now they have to do another album and they're going, "Wait a minute we haven't made any changes".

Joe: A big question that even our producer brought up to us when we were doing the album was "You guys are doing something that's really kind of different, are you nervous and worried that people aren't going to take to it?" We'll feel the same way about our next album, but we're gonna do whatever comes naturally to us.

Kyle: It's almost actually like what you were saying about our first being a surprise, 'cause we never intended to write anything that was gonna be big. I know people say that but it's true because we didn't really expect it. I mean if you listen to "Someone Like You" - it's not your typical radio type song. And pretty much we just went for it and the fact that it's getting played is great and we love it, but we never intentionally tried to direct it towards any medium or commerciality. That's the way we always are.

Chris: Well, the thing about that song is that it's got a hook but it's also, for a "metal" tune, really dancy.

Joe: The same as with "Love Injection". When we play our show I don't stand there and say to the people this is "Love Injection", I say "Lets do the 'Love Injection'" and people just start doing that (breaks into singing the intro bars to this tune) thing. It's very cool.

Chris: You all have imput into the songwriting, where do you draw some of your influences from. There's obviously a touch of the blues running through your material and other styles as well?

Joe: Everybody's into different stuff, Kyle and Tigg and all....

Kyle: I like the Red Hot Chili Peppers and Mission U.K. and things like that.

Joe: Yeah, and I like Billy Idol, The Cult, Elvis Presley.

Chris: Well, Joe a lot of people have compared your voice to Billy Idol's. I can hear some similarities.

Joe: Well, I like Billy Idol a lot, definitely. And I do hear it and more power to it. You know I'm not afraid to admit that. You know if people had said somebody else I might get offended but I look at it like, "Right on, I think Billy Idol's great". Maybe I'll make as much money as he does (laughs).

Kyle: He gets compared to a lot of people and that just shows that his voice is original. Because if you just get compared to one person all the time you can't develop your own sound. Joe gets compared to Billy, Jim Morrison, Steven Tyler, Ian of The Cult, and that's good because people are trying to pinpoint it and that's something they can't quite do.

Chris: Yeah, I remember the first time I wrote about the record, I went on about how your voice just seems to travel up and down and through all different kinds of sounds from song to song.

Joe: Well, see the thing with me is, that I really do believe that variety is the spice of life. Like I listen to Tyler when he does "Draw The Line" or "Nobody's Fault" and he's up there screaching - I think that's killer. But then when Billy Idol and Elvis... see Billy Idol I dig a lot, but I've always been a major Elvis fan. I get the chills when I hear him sing. So, you know it's like there are all these different singers, like Ian from the Cult. I mean I hear all those voices and it's like I don't want to sit there like some people and go, "Man, that voice is cool, god that's really cool" and then just try and maintain that all along. I want it all and so I go for it all.

Chris: Obviously, you are a live band in every sense and that's your preference over studio time?

Joe: Well, I love being in the studio 'cause you get to do all these neat little things, but god, playing live is our life. That's what we love doing. I mean, I'm a little tired now, but come around 5 or 6 o'clock's soundcheck I'm, like "Yeaah, let's go!"

Kyle: It's hard to hate the studio too much, because you're not in there that much. We haven't been in for a year and probably won't be for another few months... or actually six to eight months at least while we're touring, and by then we'll be dying to get back in.

Chris: How long are they gonna keep you out on the road?

Joe: As long as it takes. We're going out with the BulletBoys. We're doing a couple of weeks with them in theaters and stuff. And we're gonna go towards New York and then we're going over to Europe.

Kyle: Yeah, we've got a couple of weeks booked over there on our own.

Chris: On the next record are you gonna go into or try any different musical styles or directions?

Kyle: Disco. Yeah, you know Prince meets Metallica.

Joe: We wanna try... yeah Disco, we want to bring it back - (laughter - as you can imagine)... Actually, it'll just depend on what mood we're in at that time.

Kyle: It's hard to say that even, because just listen to our album it's not even one style as it is.

Joe: Yeah exactly. You have "Attack Of Life", where the kids that like really heavy metal are saying "Goddamn this is killer", and then you've got "Love Injection" which girls and guys who like funky, dancy type stuff are into and then there's "Breaking Up A Heart Of Stone" - if you're into say Billy Idol or whatever.

Kyle: Try putting "Sweet Little Razor" and "Just For You" back to back and then say what the album's feel is. There's a lot of diversity within this record even. So, it's a little hard to begin to know what the next one's gonna be like.

Kyle Kyle

Chris: Coming out of the L.A. scene which kind of gets a bad wrap now and then for all the sound look alikes coming out of there, did you ever feel any pressure to be different?

Kyle: No, we knew we were.

Joe: No, everybody in L.A. knows Bang Tango is a different band. Even people who hear us in different places say, "You guys don't even seem like you're from L.A.."

Kyle: Even the packaging on our record is different... people think it looks very European. That's not even something we considered but it came out with such style.

Joe Lesté

Joe: And just look at our video! We're not like an L.A. band. Like our influences range from U.F.O, The Cult... huh, (he's listening to Kyle murmuring something in the background). Yeah, like when everybody goes right, Bang Tango goes left. Other bands fall into the mold and they follow it. When they said, "Okay guys, we're gonna do this video what are your ideas?", we gave 'em our ideas. Like with Jeff Stein, (who did "Flesh For Fantasy" and "Eyes Without a Face") we said to him, "Look what's going on, everybody's in these big warehouses on these big stages... with hired crowds. We were like, "No way man, our band listens to Siouxsie And The Banshees, The Cure, Mission, you know?"

We love that stuff and we would love to do something like that with a big ballsy edge to it, 'cause that's how we look at our music. We wanted to do a video along those lines. And kids are going "Whoah, it's a new thing" or "It's killer", and it is - it's Bang Tango.

Chris: I was really glad when I saw the video for the first time, because it was so colorful and bright, yet intense.

Joe: That's why people say about us, "You guys are so hard and heavy, but you cross over too."

Kyle: Yeah, like the bands in L.A., either they're straight forward street rock like over-emphasized garage grunge rock, or they're over-emphasized glam rock. We're neither, we're on our own level.

Joe: Yeah, we're on our own trip. Like the Cure record - there's some devastatingly great stuff on that, and Kyle likes "The Passenger" by Siouxsie. We listen to stuff like that and then when Bang Tango goes to write a song, we have all these underground trippy ideas about writing and then it comes out like "Breaking Up A Heart Of Stone" or "Someone Like You". It's got that "drop the guitars out and let the bass and drums speak" type thing. I like to sing in a cool low voice too...

Chris: One of the good things about your lyrics even, is that they aren't your typical, "I Love You, I Love You...yadda yadda" types.

Joe: No way, if I ever write lyrics like that send me a bomb in the mail! I'll never do that. I can't stand cheesy paper-thin bullshit, (starts to sing in low raspy tones... "You're my hot desire, you set me on fire". (Kyle's really likin' this).

Kyle: Or "Satisfaction guaranteed"... (We're all cracking up by now.)

Joe: Or some of those metal bands - (operatic gothic tones for this one) "I'm your knight in shining armor da da da" or "Rock and roll baby in the back seat of my car"... you know, that all went out. We didn't want to insult anyone's intelligence.

Chris: That's great, I mean especially the way women are treated in some of these songs, you know?

Joe: Oh god, I know... (here comes that singing again)... "I got you down on your knees, and you're aimin' to please!" or whatever, give me a break! Oh well...

Chris: And so I think maybe we should end on that note (no pun intended). Are there any last thoughts that you want to express to our readers about anything else in particular.

Joe: Just that we're an honest band and we really put a lot into our music and we hope that everybody gets as much out of it. And I think that it sounds real good on the air when it gets played (laughs)... Oh, and that we can definitely back up what we play.

Yes they can. These five guys are one of the best live acts around and to miss them would be a shame, so don't. Thanks to Joe and Kyle for a very fun and entertaining talk. Also thanks to Charity at Mechanic for setting it up and to Heather at Gold Mountain for making sure it all happened on time. Don't forget to slip inside the "Psycho Cafe" on Mechanic Records - you might not want to come out.

Roland Orzabal of Tears For Fears says "Sowing The Seeds Of Love," on the band's new "The Seeds Of Love" album, was written after the British elections in 1987. "I felt I wanted to write a protest song, but I didn't want to pull from the great pool of resentment and hatred which each of us has," he says. "I wanted my response to be creative, because people fall into the trap of answering materialism with materialism. I wanted to tap materialism on the shoulder and say 'excuse me, but we have a certain lack of spiritualism here.' It's trying to evoke memories of the '60s, when love was revolution."

Squeeze's keyboards player, Jools Holland, is continuing his television career. The BBC has announced its new fall schedule, and Holland will be hosting a new version of the veteran British program "Juke Box Jury". Holland hasn't hosted a regular music program on British television since he was fired by Channel 4 for using a four-letter word on the air, on an episode of "The Tube".

Robert Smith says "Love Song," on the band's current "Disintegration" album, is a "wedding present" to his wife, Mary. The two first met as teenagers and had been living together for about 10 years before they married. "We'd known each other so many years, that we decided that when we'd known each other longer than we hadn't known each other, we'd get married. It took 15 years," Smith says. He says his life is "exactly the same" since he got married, and he's not anticipating children. "Love Song" was also put on the album to provide a change from the rest of the songs on the album. "If that song wasn't on the record, it would be very easy to dismiss the album as having a certain mood. But throwing that one in sort of upsets people a bit because they think, 'This doesn't fit,'" Smith says. "It's taken me 10 years to reach the point where I feel comfortable singing a very straightforward love song. In the past, I've always felt a last-minute need to disguise the sentiments or put a twist on them. It's actually one of the most difficult songs I've had to sing. It's an open show of emotion. It's not trying to be clever. And it's difficult to do because you run the risk of being laughed at. I realized that while we were recording it."

East Germany's Culture League has admitted an Elvis Presley fan club for the first time. Nineteen fans, aged 20 to 48, are in the Elvis Interest Society, which was founded on August 16, the 12th anniversary of the singer's death. The leader of the group, a metalworker named Hans-Juergen Gross, has almost all of the records Presley ever released and has two of his autographs, according to the East German news agency ADN.

Steve Jones' new album, "Fire And Gasoline", features Guns N' Roses' Axl Rose contributing vocals on one track, and also has guest appearances from Motley Crue's Nikki Sixx and the Cult's Ian Astbury.

Big Audio Dynamite drummer Greg Roberts has a solo single just out in England, called "The Right Stuff".

The Birthday Party's Nick Cave has published his first novel, "And The Ass Saw The Angel". The book is about the mute child of a rural family. "The primary literary influence was the Bible, and I worked very closely with it when I was writing," Cave explains. "And since I was around 13, every time I had to look up a word in the dictionary, I would always look through both pages and take out any words that I'd like and I'd put them in my own dictionaries. I wanted to use older words or obscure words." Cave says he had to discipline himself to write the book. "I have got another career, and I had to put aside five months of each year in which I had to get up in the morning, sit down at the typewriter and write the book whether inspiration was there or not." Cave says it took him four or five years to write the book. "What took the longest time of all was the finer editing, trying to whittle out as much of the overuse of the language as possible."

The Psychedelic Furs' next album is called "Book Of Days", recorded with Cure producer Dave Allen. Original Furs drummer Vince Ely is back with the group for the LP, and the band will be touring the U.S. during September.

Elvis Costello and Sinead O'Connor appear on the new album from Irish folk singer Christy Moore. The LP, "Voyage", includes a cover of Costello's "The Deportees Club".

The next album from the Kinks will be called "U.K. Jive". It includes a song called "Days To 1992", about language differences separating the European Community countries that will become more unified as part of an agreement that takes effect in 1992.

Jon Bon Jovi says there will probably be a live album from the band's current U.S. tour.

The Smithereens' next album, "Smithereens Eleven", takes its title from "Oceans Eleven", a 1960 movie that starred Frank Sinatra, Peter Lawford and Sammy Davis Jr.

One of the tracks on the new album from Steve Stevens' Atomic Playboys is "Soul On Ice", about James Brown's imprisonment in South Carolina. "All I can think of is that, when I was growing up, it was all right to look at Elvis Presley thrusting his cock at the camera but we couldn't watch James Brown," Stevens says. "I have some relatives who live where he was busted in South Carolina and it's redneck country and he was a guy who flaunted it with his suits and his jewelry and all this kind of stuff. He said, 'I'm black and I'm proud,' and he's paying for that now. And amazingly, the black community has turned its back on him. I mean, obviously he's been busted on PCP, angel dust and all this, and he's abused his wife, but there must be ways to help the guy out." Stevens says he got the name of his band from the film "Atomic Cafe". "There's a segment where a general gives a speech and says, 'I'm not an atomic playboy.' So I got the band name and started writing material two years ago."

Veteran record producer Arthur Baker has a new album just coming out called "Arthur Baker & The Backbeat Disciples". It features Al Green, Jimmy Somerville of the Communards, Andy McClusky of OMD and Martin Fry of ABC. "I know I'm going to get aggravated because people are bound to say 'Where's all the dance tracks?' But it's not a departure for me, not at all. I can point to every song on the album and show you another track that I've been involved with that's in a similar style," he says.

Public Enemy have received a number of death threats since reinstating Professor Griff. One member of the band was entering their management's New York office when he saw a man in a nearby building pointing a rifle at him. Within minutes, police arrived and the man was arrested. It's believed that the sniper was from the radical Jewish Defense League. Police are said to be worried that trouble could break out between Public Enemy supporters and radical Jewish groups.

Lita Ford has married W.A.S.P. guitarist Chris Holmes.

Jimmy Barnes, Mental As Anything and two of the members of the Eurogliders are on the line-up for a benefit concert in Sydney, Australia in early September to raise money for research into Sudden Infant Death Syndrome. The concert is being put together by Paul Field, singer of the Cockroaches, another band on the bill. His baby girl, Bernadette, died of "crib death" last year. "Research scientists have made some definite progress, but they need more money to continue their vital work," Field says.

Pre-production is about to begin on Poison's next album, which will include a song called "Give Me Something To Believe In". "It was spawned by a personal relationship and it's really emotional," says drummer Rikki Rockett. "I was really depressed when I wrote it -- it's a tribute to a friend of ours we lost over Christmas. His name was Kuno. He was a bodyguard. He had a respiratory problem and he went out drinking and that's how it happened."

Illinois band The Shoes have a new album, "Stolen Wishes", coming out in October. They'd been close to having the record out on Gene Simmons' record label. "Unfortunately, we didn't see eye to eye on the fine print," says Jeff Murphy, singer and guitarist for the group. "We realized about a year ago that we'd better just go ahead and do this ourselves."

Thomas Dolby is working on the next Prefab Sprout album, after having been nominated for a Grammy for his production of "From Langley Park To Memphis". He's also been writing and producing material for Ofra Haza.

A total of 221 people were arrested during the three-day Reading Rock Festival last weekend. Of those arrested, 168 were charged with drug offenses, all but one involving marijuana. Other charges were for minor theft, drinking-related crimes and other offenses. Ninety of those arrested were fined in a special court session the day after the festival. However, there were no major problems at the three-day event, which was in jeopardy because of unruliness in the past three years. New Order's performance was said to be their farewell concert. The Sugarbushes, the Pogues, Pop Will Eat Itself, the Mission U.K., Billy Bragg and the French band Les Negresses Vertes were among the headliners this year.

Elton John and Sting are to headline a charity concert for the Rain Forest Foundation at a Los Angeles mansion November 6. The concert is expected to raise over a million dollars. "It will just be me and him on stage and will be a lot of fun," John says. "Sting has done an awful lot for the foundation and I'm happy to help him raise more."

Dave Stewart had a good time putting on foreign journalists when he gave a press conference in connection with a Eurhythmics concert in Southern France. When asked if the band planned to do any cover versions, Stewart said to expect "Three Blind Mice" and "Custer's Last Stand". He also claimed that he's now broke. "The only reason I stay in Cannes is so I can go to all my rich friends' houses and nick all their furniture." Stewart also said he isn't bothered at all that his wife, Siobhan, is having success with her band Shakespeare's Sister. "Her contract says she has to give me 50 percent of every penny she makes more than I do this year," Stewart claimed.

UK MUSIC NEWS

As reported last week, U2 have been approached to write the music for a new stage version of "A Clockwork Orange", the futuristic novel by Anthony Burgess, which became a 70's cult classic movie, starring Malcolm MacDowell. It has been learned this week that Bono has been offered the lead role of the thug, Alex. A spokesman for Island Records says: "U2 are offered things like this all the time. They are considering the offer of writing music for 'A Clockwork Orange', but it won't be discussed in any detail until January, as they will be on tour until the end of the year." In London this week, there were rumours that part of that tour may entail U2 playing 10 shows at Wembley Arena over Christmas. The group are scheduled to fly out to Australia for live shows this week, although this will depend on the outcome of Adam Clayton's trial for possession of cannabis, as reported in last week's Hard Report. He is due to appear in court in Dublin, September 1st. The New Musical Express understands that a provisional booking has been made for ten nights at London's Wembley Arena, with U2 the favourites to fill the venue for so many concerts. Close sources also claim that the band are planning a special New Year's Eve show in their native Dublin.

Depeche Mode have run into controversy over an advertising campaign for their latest single, "Personal Jesus". Some local British newspapers have already refused to carry an ad, which features the band members with a naked girl, seen from behind. Both the Aberdeen Evening News in Scotland and the Nottingham Evening Post in Northern England have refused to carry the accompanying photo to the ad. In London, the Evening Standard also raised objections, but later relented. The single is released by Mute Records this week and marks their first recording in two years. It was produced by Depeche Mode and Flood and recorded at Logic Studios in Milan, Italy. The bands is currently in Denmark, finishing their next album which will probably be released in the New Year. The B-side features "Dangerous" and an acoustic mix of "Personal Jesus".

Siobhan Fahey, former Bananarama member and Eurythmic Dave Stewart's wife, has now put out sensitive and interesting new material under the name Shakespeare's Sister. In an interview with Melody Maker, she explains: "It's such a personal thing. You're exposing things on a record that you'd never normally discuss with a stranger, that you might discuss with a friend over bottles of wine. It would be nice to have a number one, it would be a cheap thrill, but it has achieved what I wanted to achieve in that we released a record. I am in a privileged position -- I'm signed to a record label, and they've given me money to make a record at a time when it's almost impossible to get signed up. I want to make records that might make people laugh or cry, that people will relate to in their own lives... When I listen to a great record, afterwards I often go into a deep depression and think I'm not fit to wash that person's feet. But on the other hand it's a stimulus to dig deeper -- it shows what can be done... I felt very uncomfortable working in that environment (the later years of Bananarama). They (Stock, Aitken and Waterman) would provide us with a backing track, and suggested a melody, then we'd write the lyric. The final adjustments to the melody would be made, we'd do the vocal, the next thing would be that we would hear when it was mixed. I just felt that if you'd taken our vocals off and put Kylie's (Minogue) on, it would have been a Kylie record... Pete Waterman despises his audience. He's a sort of thinning medallion man. He's frightened of women. And most men who fear women manipulate women to keep them in their place. It's about as productive as all those Fleet Street editors (of the tabloid press) who have all their star birds and page three girls, marketing women in an very one dimensional way." Siobhan enjoyed a recent trip to the Soviet Union: "It was the most amazing experiences I've ever had a real insight into human beings. They've lived their lives in such a repressed and poverty-stricken environment, but the thing that struck me most was how much we had in common, which far outweighed the different circumstances. What I really loved about the people I met in Leningrad is that they use their intellects, they read a lot, they go to art galleries, they write poetry, they paint. That's how they get their excitement -- we turn on bloody "Top Of The Pops" (weekly British chart show). We're all bombarded with this imagery that we're supposed to think is exciting -- and it's not exciting! It's got nothing to do with us. So our minds are just dead." "Sacred Heart" is the debut album from Shakespeare's Sister out now.

The Wedding Present release their new RCA single "Kennedy" September 25th. "It's a bit vaguer than our previous material, hidden in the conspiracy theories that surround the assassination," says singer David Gedge. "It's something that has always fascinated me. In years to come, people will be saying, 'Oh, so it's true, that's what did happen.' But they can't now because many of the people involved are still around and keeping it quiet. It's got a totally different lyrical slant." The 12 inch has two more Wedding Present originals - "One Day This Will Be Yours" and "Unfaithful" - plus a cover of Tom Jones' classic, "It's Not Unusual". The band, former independent heroes, are working on their second album, scheduled for October release.

Simple Minds are furious at London's Wembley Stadium for selling special tickets for their concert there, at twice the usual price. According to "Sounds", two thousand tickets for the newly completed Olympic Gallery have been put on sale for around $50 each! These tickets are under control of Wembley Stadium. A spokeswoman for the promoters stated, "These tickets are not sanctioned by Simple Minds and they have tried to prevent them being sold at this price. But, unfortunately, sale cannot be controlled by the artiste. The seats are, in their view, of poor quality as they are sited beneath the roof of the building and while they may be excellent seats for sports events, we believe these upper balcony seats -- as they are in affect -- should get to the front of the stage." The spokeswoman said that the promoters, MCP, are taking legal action against Wembley Stadium, for breach of contract. A spokesperson for Wembley said that seats in the Olympic Gallery had already been sold for other shows this summer. "These seats offer more comfortable facilities to see the concert. You get a reserved seat with easy bar access and a great view. That's what you're paying for."

David A. Ross, KMJX, Little Rock

Over the weekend, we had our tenth annual outdoor Summerset show featuring the Atlanta Rhythm Section, Delta Rebels and Jimmy Davis Injunction.... Coming up we have a live broadcast of the Who from the Cottonbowl and we're giving away a bunch of tickets so Magic 105 will be well represented in Dallas.... For the Fall, we have many things planned, including an in-store with Skid Row and a meet n' greet with Bon Jovi before the show September 16th.... We're three tracks deep on the Stones and my fave track is "Terrifying".... Also strong efforts from Molly Hatchet and Jethro Tull.

Mike Jones, KISW, Seattle

The last few weeks I have enjoyed some of the most exciting, rewarding moments of my career. Foremost was an interview with Pete Townshend, which was broadcast live from the Tacoma Dome. Being such a diehard fan, I was skeptical about the new Who, but my fears were laid to rest with the opening note. I just hope I didn't jinx Pete by asking him about his health bar through his band on the last note of "Won't Get Fooled Again" leading to a Pete-less encore. Thanks to Atlantic's Robert Lince and Bob Clark for introducing me to rock's ultimate interview subject.... The rain-out of our free Marshall Crenshaw concert was a plus for my listeners and patrons of the Stratocaster Lounge. Marshall played his set live on the air, with the capable assistance of Glenn Burtnick. Thanks to WB's Anderson for helping us get the music to the people, one way or another.... A week later, the BoDeans were rained out as well, so we took the show indoors to Parkers, and unfortunately of our staff were knocked out by the band. Thanks, Michael and Sue, for help above and beyond the call. The weather finally cooperated for the final show in the series featuring Danny Wilde. Hot songs, tight band and a gentlemen to boot. Thanks to our Geffen main man, Marko and Michael.... Awesome live acts I saw over the weekend, the Walkabouts, Terry Lee Hale, Pure Joy, Mudhoney, Nirvana, Cat Butt, Black Super Suckers, Dickless, Variant Cause and the Hangmen. Tonight, Metallica!

Lee Randall, WDIZ, Orlando

This is the week of the debut for the Rolling Stones in Central Florida on WDIZ. Nice touch, strong lyrics from Mick, a versatile Keith and more instruments than we've heard since "Goatshead Soup". Favorite cuts include "Terrifying", "Rock In A Hard Place" and "Sad, Sad, Sad". It's bustin' out. It's bustin'.... Also debuted Molly Hatchet's album this week at a night club of 500+ people, including the Fire Marshall who wanted to see the show. Thanks to Ted Armstrong and Associates along with Capitol Records. They're back. Additional cuts include: "Miss Lucy" and "The Payback". Listen to 'em play 'em. Thanks to Keith Richards for stopping by last week. Nice to meet him for the first time. In the tape deck on the way home tonight it will be Law & Order followed by Raging Slab.

Lorraine Caruso, WNEW, New York

The Christmas rush has already started with amazing summer shows and releases. Although it's good to move forward to the 90's it is really hard to resist the excitement of the Rolling Stones and Aerosmith. The Stones really got it back with "Steel Wheels", showing off tremendous lyrics and brilliant song arrangements. You can put Aerosmith up against any power rock band today and leave them shameless. "Love in an Elevator" makes me feel 16 again remembering what it was like to be a little headbanger.... On the concert scene, Paul McCartney's dress rehearsal was phenomenal.... D.A.D.'s showcase at the Cat Club was quite impressive. This band is sure to be arena material.... On the new release front, Motley Crue has a killer single that will immediately put them back on the map with "Dr. Feelgood" generating top five phones.... The Alarm with their anthem style rock is good once again with "Sold Me Down The River".... Tears for Fears' "Sowing the Seeds of Love" hit me like a ton of bricks.... For the hip progressive music lover, Ziggy Marley should not be ignored. "Who Will Be There" is very accessible and can easily be segued into Eric Clapton!

Steven Strick, WBCN, Boston

Steven Strick here filling in for the vacationing Carter Alan. The past couple of weeks can only be described as musically orgasmic! Aside from the obvious adds last week, there are several other acts with great new songs burning up the airwaves here at WBCN.... Bonham was a natural add for us. "Wait for You" brings back memories of Zeppelin circa 1969. Jason's lead singer on this track sounds dangerously like Robert Plant. The rest of the album is strong too with quite a bit of diversity. Bonham's own original style comes on real strong on the rest of the album. Thanks to Jason Bonham for dropping by the WBCN studios last week.... Welcome back Tears for Fears!! Despite their four and a half year absence, they have once again proved that they are viable not only at CHR but at AOR as well. "Sowing the Seeds" sounds excellent on the radio and is already getting great phone action.... I had a chance to see the Black Velvet Band perform live without their drummer at a real authentic Boston Irish pub this past week. They played a great mini-set. With the popularity of groups like Indigo Girls on the rise, this band fits right into the picture. "Justice" is a powerful tune.... Finally, the Alarm is outstanding! "Sold Me" is a great first track from an album that is chock full of standouts.

Chaz Mixon, KZEW, Dallas

Bonham kicks ass! It's Led Zeppelin of the 90's. This is not a Zeppelin clone band but an extension of the Zeppelin legend! Thanks to Kelly Norris and the rest of WTG for the luncheon with Jason and the opportunity to expose these guys to Dallas/Ft. Worth. They're lovin' it.... Jethro Tull is another must! Ian Anderson continues to amaze me.... The Alarm are a true rock and roll band. "Sold Me" has the goods to break this band into super stardom.... King's X, still one of my favorite new bands, goes to Heavy with their show a week away.... Great phones still coming in or Tora Tora, Aerosmith and Motley Crue.

Joe Anthony, KISS, San Antonio

Tim Parker's in the hot seat! Join us in wishing him the best.... Bang Tango had a sell out with light airplay. Does the audience know something we don't? (you and us).... Ted Nugent's "Fred Bear" moves to Power. Pretty good without a real record out. Ted's new band has to be a powerhouse to follow up on "Fred Bear".... Alice Cooper's "Poison" was top phones 5 weeks in a row.... Bonham is testing well and Raging Slab's "Don't Dog Me" is also testing well.... Maybe more next week!

Mike Ramsey, KLAQ, El Paso

The fourth annual KLAQ bbq was a huge success despite rare drizzling skies. After a day of go cart races, amusement park rides, great food and lots of Coors Light with 5,000 of our rock and roll friends, the Fabulous Thunderbirds made the evening special with a truly fantastic performance. Proceeds went to MDA and you're invited next year.

Tom Van Sant, WIZN, Burlington

I can't remember a time when we've had more heavy adds at WIZN than the last two weeks, but I'm not complaining! The Stones album is simply outstanding, and the folks seem to be gobbling up everything they hear and begging for more.... Jethro Tull and Melissa Etheridge's tunes are flat out winners and future top ten performers.... Y'know, when there's so much meat and potatoes right down the middle superstar product out there, we like to find some good spice record to flesh things out a little. And lo and behold, along comes a John Lee Hooker (with Santana) masterpiece "The Healer". Check it out, it's simply beautiful.

Dave Cowan, WROV, Roanoke

WROV-FM welcomes Paul Balmer to the 7 to midnight airshift. Ellen Flaherty moves from nights to afternoon drive and is named assistant music director. Ellen will take music calls Wednesday to Friday noon till 2 pm. I will continue to take calls Tuesday to Friday 9 to 11 am. No calls on Monday please!

Joe Paiano, WRKU, Youngstown

We first heard "There Goes The Neighborhood" August 12 at our "Two Decades Of Rock" concert when Molly performed it live. By the first chorus, 12,000 arms were in the air, with crowd reaction of this magnitude I couldn't wait to get the disc. Wouldn't it be nice to have 12,000 listeners give their approval before you add new music this week? By the way, many thanks to Jack Snyder at Capitol for all the help at the show.... Amidst the traffic jam, let us not forget the boys of Jethro Tull have been here for 20 years. "Kissing Willie" is another staple in Ian Anderson's file of "Heard Yet Different" from any other rock band approach to the music we love.... Every so often a band with that certain flair rises to the surface, World Trade has captivated my attention and is doing the same with the listeners. Not many records have gained the curiosity of the market so quickly.

Fred McFarlin, WRFX, Charlotte

Some hot hits around here last week surround the Stones "Steel Wheels" CD, seems as though this CD was mailed with PD Jack Daniels' name on it. When the CD arrived Saturday, no one opened it since it was directed to Jack who doesn't work until Monday afternoon. Luckily Jack stopped by the station Sunday morning and found the package. We were probably scooped by everybody in the state. Moral of the story is, with a hot release like the Stones, please make sure it's handed to the proper authorities or at least that we're expecting it.... We're playing the entire CD now. Jason Bonham's new project is a phone monster, two plays and we have to add it.... Steve Stevens' "Atomic Playboys" smokes all the way through and my favorite LP is Mike Monroe.

Randy Maranz, KDJK, Modesto

"Winter's Call" should be the song to break this band. They did with "Dreams In The Dark" but I believe "Winter's" should be the one for this band. They'll be in concert in our neck of the woods in a couple of weeks and these guys cook.... Motley Crue - a smash! THE rock record of the summer.... I like Camper Van Beethoven. They're out of the Bay area, close to our home town. We did well with "Eye Of Fatima" but you can't resist "Pictures Of Matchstick Men" the cover of the old Status Quo song.... Mr. Big's vocal work is done by local boy Eric Martin - when you read this they will have played our area (Friday, Sept 1st) with Winger. They are a Northern California favorite. At KDJK we love Jason Bonham and even though the similarities between them and Led Zeppelin are quite strong, why shouldn't they be when Jason is from the loins of Jon Bonham. It's on and happening at KDJK.... LIVING COLOUR -- need we say more.

Dave Kane, WCMF, Rochester

Saw a couple of great shows recently that are worth tellin' ya about.... Jefferson Airplane flew through last week and left a lot of happy campers in its wake. Grace sounded great and the first 6 songs (from the band's ancient past), pretty much blew everybody away. The new songs sounded pretty decent as well. Then it was off to Toronto for Kim Mitchell at the baseball stadium, and as usual, Kim never disappoints. It's amazing to see how huge he is in Canada but still relatively unknown here in the states. See him in live performance if you can. Many thanks to Tom & Lisa from Alert Music and Joey Vendetta from Q107 for Canadian hospitality. Thanks also to Bruce Moser for being Bruce Moser.

Chris Herrmann, WHJY, Providence

Well, another busy week in record land.... what's a guy to do with all this great music? Play it (eventually). The Rolling Stones obviously get priority status. Our faves are "Rock And A Hard Place", "Sad Sad Sad" and "Terrifying". All three represent some of their best work of the decade and get heavy air this week.... Tears For Fears also get the green light this week - about as "pop" a song as we've played in quite a while, but an undeniable stone cold smash that CHR will soon bang the piss out of.... Jethro Tull returns in fine form with "Kissing Willie" -- a trademark sound and fully deserving of heavy airplay (unless, of course, you don't care about your 25-34 men). We're gonna take a shot on the Questionnaires, for three weeks running, this has been the highlight of the music meeting (and we've only melted down one set of speakers!) This tune has lots of potential to bridge the generation gap with a sound the upper demos love and an attitude our 18-24's will dig.... We also liked the Alarm, Melissa Etheridge, Giant, Jefferson Airplane, Enuff Z'Nuff, Tangier and Living Colour who will all have to spend another week in the holding pattern.... And how 'bout that Molly Hatchet -- just oozing with original musical thought!... See Don Henley if you have a chance (one of the tightest and best sounding bands I've ever heard), and a tip of the top hat to Tom Petty and his Heartbreakers. The Summer tour to support the Summer album of 1989!

Jeff Gillis, WPDH, Poughkeepsie

John Steffanci and the Iceman of the WPDH Morning Crew are scheduled to appear on WWOR Television, Channel 9, Secaucus, N.J. at 12:15 September 4th to present the check to Muscular Dystrophy for over $34,000. The money was raised the weekend of August 18, 19, and 20 with the 5th Annual WPDH/Muscular Dystrophy Roof-A-Thon. The two morning crew members broadcast from the roof of the 7-11 store, Route 9, Wappingers Falls for 51 straight hours to raise the money. The total raised was the station's largest annual total, bringing the grand total raised for MD to over $140,000, and is the largest amount of money raised by a single organization for a single charity in the Hudson Valley.

Stacy Yelton, WKQQ, Lexington

What a pleasant surprise to return from vacation to new music from Melissa Etheridge! I can't wait to hear the whole album. "No Souvenirs" is consistent without being just "more of the same". I don't want to go on and on about "a female troubadour" or "the feminine voice of rock and roll", because we already know that! The issue here is not "Best Female" anything. It's that here is a person who gets to the very heart of all of us, and does so with absolute grace and conviction. Okay, I've exhausted myself. More on other music next week.

Fran Kusula, WEQX, Manchester

Alarm. Melissa Etheridge. D.A.D. ABWH. Stevie Ray Vaughan and Elton John. That's a killer add list!!! Tears For Fears, Indio, Darling Cruel, Hoodoo Gurus and The The's "Kingdom Of Rain" -- tunes our listeners can't get enough of, tunes burning up the request sheets, tunes YOU can't afford to overlook! The Alarm is going to be huge for these guys. We've been playing it since we got the advance cassette in our hot little hands. Don't bother with the edit, you wouldn't want to miss even one minute of this tremendous rocker.... D.A.D. gets the nod this week based on a strong story in development. Could be the Van Halen of the 90's.... Top five phone action for the Hoodoo Gurus this week. We have always enjoyed their tongue in cheek approach to the realities of rock and roll, and the audience is right there with us.... Concert event of the week -- Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers at SPAC. I'm still hoarse from singing, screaming and cheering!!! (Thanks Andi Turco and Jay Miggins!). WEQX was named favorite radio station in the Albany NY based "Metroland Magazine" and arts and entertainment weekly with a reported readership of around 60,000. This is the fourth year running that "Metroland" readers have voted WEQX the best Rock Station!

Dave Ross, KFMU, Steamboat/Vail

KFMU continues the tradition.... The latest Arbitron ratings show KFMU the #1 station overall, including Steamboat and Vail. Our AQH 12+ 6am-Midnight is a 17.3!... The Rockies are full of great new music this week, with The Alarm, Jethro Tull and Melissa Etheridge. Melissa really surprised me. It's the best thing I've ever heard from her, and I'm really looking forward to the new album.... Music that's already doing well here is The Cure. "Love Song" has been the number one most requested song the past four weeks. Don't let Robert Smith's hair and pale skin scare you. It works!... Speaking of The Cure, it reminds me of Elektra, many thanks to Jim Scott for getting me out of the upper-demo mode with a night at Red Rocks and Metallica.

Kathy Aune, KDKB, Phoenix

KDKB recently celebrated its 18th birthday with a weekend long party at a local hotel. When morning guys Tim & Mark noticed that ex-Boston drummer Sib Hashian was celebrating his 40th birthday on the same day, they launched an extensive search for the reclusive percussionist, tracking him down to a small town in Massachusetts. Sib talked for a while with Tim & Mark about his string of tanning salons, his legal battles with Boston and about trimming his one-time beachball sized afro and finished by wishing KDKB a happy 18th birthday.

Kim Alexander, WHCN, Hartford

By now, now doubt, the Virgin Records debut from the coolest band in the universe is on your desk. I'm talking about NRBQ. Folks who've seen them call them the world's favorite party band. These guys have been defending that title, in a club near you, for nearly 20 years now. On stage, they're magical. If you've seen them, you know. (Remember how much fun you jaded industry types had at McGathys' party?) Now, about the record. Listen, I own their catalogue, and I can tell you this -- "Wild Weekend" is the most solid, cohesive, together record they've ever made. I think the guys put more blood, sweat, tears and love into this record than they ever have in the past. I know musical traffic is horrific these days. But please check out NRBQ. These guys have been down in the rock and roll trenches for years, just for the love of it, if you care at all about rock and roll, you owe these guys a shot. They're the real thing. Honest.

Tom Calderone, WRCN, Long Island

Thanks to the gang at WBNY/Buffalo for the invite to judge the Buffalo Battle Of The Bands. The winner turned out to be the Pine Dogs!! We were also entertained by a surprise visit by the one and only Goo Goo Dolls. Gina, Tony, Tony, Rich and the entire WBNY staff should pat themselves on the back for a job well done. A special hello to Tina McMahon from WPDH and Lee Carter Live From London!... Hey, have you heard the new release from Lenny Kravitz? What a strong start. Test it on your new rock show. It'll turn heads. Special thanks to Eddie at Elektra and Dave Ross at RCA for The Cure and Love And Rockets tickets. Also special thanks to Phil at Could Be Wild for the Skynyrd video!!! Hey the South's gonna do it again, and Phil and I are ready! Woowooooo!!!!!!!

Steve Becker, KLCX, Eugene

My initial thought of taking a party bus to see the Who in Vancouver, with me as a chaperone was not exactly the most enticing. To endure a 10 hour ride and the like. However, after seeing a legend from the 11th row, the memory is very satisfying. Thanks to ETS of Toronto for the bus promotion, as the X took two buses to Tacoma, as well as two buses to Vancouver. Our listeners were, needless to say, very happy about their seats. We're looking forward to the Stones in November! By that time I'm sure the entire "Steel Wheels" album will be etched in my brain. Both The Cure and Tears For Fears are pleasant surprises. Motley Crue has grown some funk along the metal way and are jamming with "Dr. Feelgood". As for Tears For Fears, the Beatles influence is obvious. But the Beatles are gone and "Sowing the Seeds of Love" stands on its own merit. It's a pop/rock masterpiece.

Dominick Milone, WNGZ, Elmira

I'll share the spotlight with Sylvia this week. And it's some hot new tunes this week including Airplane, Tears For Fears, Melissa Etheridge, vintage-sounding Jethro Tull, Ten Years After, The Alarm and another smash from Love and Rockets. P.S...thanks to Barbara Balchick of Reprise Records for the tix for Replacements and Neil Young. Also, thank you, Jay Miggins at MCA for all of your help. You're one of the best, dude!

Sylvia Benjamin, WNGZ, Elmira

What a week, what a life! The Replacements are at the top of my list of a list of a must-see live acts. Tight and terrific! Mucho thanks to Barbara Balchick for the opportunity to catch them in concert with Tom Petty (who's no slouch either, eh?) in Syracuse.... Neil Young (a fellow countryman) is as always the master acoustic musician. Thanks again, Barbara!... Phones are already hot on the Airplane and flying with the first single "Planes" and Jethro Tull proves they are and will continue to be a mainstay of Rock Radio. "Kissing Willie" is an exciting extracurricular activity with me for sure!!

Paul Marszalek, WMAD, Madison

I am not the world's biggest Jethro Tull fan but I was pleasantly surprised by this one. "Kissing Willie" demands airplay on the first pass... The Alarm record could be a smash for these guys. A very well put together song... The Rolling Stones continue to amaze with their latest. "Terrifying" is our next pick and is already nabbing top five phones with no problem.... From a commercial standpoint, the re-recording of "No Big Deal" really works. A pleasant surprise for radio from the Nipper crew... Instant phones for "Sowing The Seeds Of Love", a very strong return from Tears For Fears.... Increases this week for both Texas and Elton John.

Mike Wilson, KEYJ, Abilene

The way I figure it, if you're going to do a cover version of a great song this is the way to do it. Camper Van Beethoven has done a great job on "Pictures Of Matchstick Men" from the guitar to the violin work, this is one hell of a remake... I lost interest in Jethro Tull a while ago, but this record has me turning a back over flip. This is the strongest thing I have heard from these guys in years and I can't wait for the entire album to hit my desk.... Big phones already on Alien. The audience is reacting to this track like they have been around for years. An instantly listenable track from some guys that sound like staples for the format already.

Nicki Gardner, KFME, Albuquerque

Joe Cocker's album is a standout effort all the way through! I'm real pleased to get it on the air. Now it's time to cherry pick the single.... The Stage Dolls have been top five phones for us on and off for weeks now. They are definitely a band with tremendous potential for the future... W.A.S.P. may be a slow builder nationwide but locally they are big as they come. I went out on a promotion recently and their album was the first to go time and time again. Some of us in radio may have a negative stereotype about Blackie Lawless but it doesn't extend to our core.

Tim Kelly, KWIC, Beaumont

Melissa Etheridge is getting top phones already. She really tears 'em up down here in Texas. People are still jamming on her last album and the new single is the biggest news to hit this week.... Ten Years After is looking like it's about to break out for us. The older demo is This isn't some pseudo group being manufactured for retail, this is the real thing.... Tears For Fears is sizing up as the big staff favorite right now. Our jocks love this track.

Chris James, WTPA, Harrisburg

Melissa Etheridge has to be my favorite add this week. The lady can do now wrong. In fact, the minute I put this track on the air, I was getting calls from some jazzed listeners. Expect a big run on this one.... Kix has been a strong band for us right from the beginning. They have their own sound and the generate tremendous reaction for us. I'd like to see the rest of the country catch on to these guys.... Poco sounds great on the air. We all knew it was going to be a hit but it's about to take off bigger than anything we could have hoped for.... Alice Cooper hasn't shifted down yet. This is still a mutha when it comes to airplay.... Our night jock must have stock in Giant. He absolutely loves the record and the rest of the staff is starting to catch the buzz.

Anthony Alfonsi, WDVE, Pittsburgh

The Stones are back with a vengeance. From the opening chords of "Sad Sad Sad", the first cut on "Steel Wheels", they set the pace for a fourteen song journey that touches on all the influences that the Stones have had throughout their career. I like "Sad Sad Sad" because it's an out n' out Stones rocker but we added "Rock And A Hard Place" for its many uses of elements. I also like "Terrifying", "Continental Drift" and Keith Richards's vocals on "Slipping Away". One week til the concert, I can't wait... It's great to have Molly Hatchet back with "There Goes The Neighborhood". I've also heard some other stuff off the album and this is a release with a lot going for it.... Danger Danger delivers a good rocker with a lot of ingredients to it.... The Cult gets their hat trick with Edie and Dangerous Toys will definitely be pleas'n through those long nights. Thanks to Joe Reagoso of MCA for all his great help with Tom Petty.

Bernie Bernard, VOA, Washington DC

VOA attended Paul McCartney's press conference in New York last week. Glad to hear he's hitting the road again after all these years! Should be some killer shows. The band sounded great when they played a few tunes at the Lyceum Theater. We produced a special feature in English for our worldwide audience, and many of our 43 language services translated Paul's comments from the Q & A session. VOA listeners in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe particularly love to hear about the Macca. Our Soviet listeners sent us several copies of Paul's "Back In The USSR" LP on the Melodyia label so we'd be sure to play it on the air for them. "Flowers In The Dirt" is still getting good airplay throughout VOA. A big "thank you" to Karen Goodman in Capitol's International Dept for the invite to the press conference.

Joe Moss, WPYX, Albany

The Stones are the world's greatest rock and roll band. "Steel Wheels" is a great album, a nice mix of classic Stones rockers, beautiful ballads and spicy tracks that add a new dimension to the classic Stones sound. The lyrics are great, Mick's never sounded better, the whole band's got their hearts in it. Our phones have been ringing non-stop for Jethro Tull and Melissa Etheridge who has returned with a beautiful new song that's only the tip of the iceberg. The tracks I've heard from "Brave And Crazy" just get better. No sophomore jinx here.... And getting heavy phones for Bonham. Thank God Jason learned from the best. Dad would be proud.... Thanks to Jay Miggins at MCA for a fun time at Tom Petty's show here last weekend. Petty and the Heartbreakers put on a great show and Tom yucked it up backstage, ie. Tom and me. Will you be making any more appearances on the Gary Shandling show? Tom, I sure hope not.... Finally, thanks to Elton John for making the best album he's put out this decade. Elton and Bernie are in rare form, and have written some of their most beautiful songs yet!

Karen Andersen Small, WGIR, Manchester

With all the releases hitting the doorstep I feel like I need a traffic light at my door. "Steel Wheels" is a great rock and roll record with just about every track delivering a one two punch. We'll start with "Sad Sad Sad", "Hold On To Your Hat" and "Rock And A Hard Place".... Got a chance to hear Melissa Etheridge album this one will be a mega hit. Her songwriting has improved tremendously and her performance shine throughout. "No Souvenirs" is a song that you love to have on the radio and on the CD player. It sounds great no matter what.... Today we're getting ready for a little reggae sunsplash as Ziggy Marley and the Neville Brothers (yeah) come to town. We've got a perfect summer evening to do a little "jammin" to the tunes in Veteran's Park.

Dan Thomas, KWHL, Anchorage

Just a quick reminder, new music hours for PD Devan Mitchell are Wed-Fri from 8-10 am., and for MD Dan Thomas Wed-Fri from 10am-2pm. That's Alaska time. Dynamite phones for Alice Cooper and Danger Danger. They're gonna be big! Good phones for them already. It was a pleasure meeting Jay Boberg of IRS. I guess there really are people who believe in what they're selling.... Another record finally receiving some recognition is Bang Tango. Others are starting to hear what KWHL heard seven weeks ago. Hot stuff.

Pam Brooks, WPDH, Poughkeepsie

"Brave And Crazy" is here to prove that Melissa Etheridge is no shot in the dark, and her wealth of talent will continue to inspire your listeners. "No Souvenirs" is the just the tip of the iceberg, so don't get left out!... Three cheers for the Alarm. From the first beat on, it's a non stop, foot-stomping, hip-rockin hit! Who says summer's over? "Sold me Down The River" is going to keep the temperature rising.... So you thought you knew what D.A.D. stood for? Na, forget about it. It stands for R.O.O.A.R.R.. Relentless onslaught of aggressive rock and roll! "Sleeping My Day Away" assures you won't. It cranks way past ten, and they like it like that. Thanks to Al Carolonzo, the Warners crew and D.A.D. for the chance to rock the railing at the Cat Club.... No question about Jethro Tull's staying power. Medium add for "Kissing Willie" and it debuts top five phones here at PDH. The Hudson Valley loves Ian and company, and the sound is always so refreshing that it's no wonder that the listeners response immediately.... Texas is bigger than the whole darn state, damn it. Better late than never, and "I Don't Want A Lover" is sure to prove me right around these parts. Here's to continued support to keep this fine project alive partner, or my holster is going to get hot!

Mark Miller, KABL, Minneapolis

KABL's involvement in Cedarfest '89 was a rousing success. The KABL stage drew thousands of people over the course of the day, showcasing five of Minneapolis's best bands. Special thanks to Jane and Tom at Mainstreet for the giveaways.... Thank you to Sharlotte and the folks at Epic for presenting KABL with a platinum record for Living Colour. It's nice to see that our early involvement with the record was not forgotten.... "The Bridge" compilation brings together some of Alternative Radio's most important artists, performing songs that are Album Radio mainstays. Neither format has an excuse to ignore this very important record.... The Stone Roses are an unexpected pleasure in a sea of sound-alike bands! People really like "She Bangs The Drums" and it has been getting good local press, especially in fanzines.... Boo & Darden's record struck me even more than The Bible album. It's a strong effort on both of their parts and breaks ground that The Bible will probably never cover. Maybe "Evidence" it will help Darden Smith cross over to a new direction.... Exene's album really grew on me. I had high expectations that caught me with repeated listens.... The Red Hot Chili Peppers are #1 with top requests this week, and have threatened this since the record came out. I think "Taste The Pain" and "Knock Me Down" are lyrically powerful and the album hits me in other ways than heavy guitars. In the past they seemed more frivolous, and now the songs are fun but have more meaning.... 54.40 is very popular among the DJs here. It did well instantly, and this record is better than their last American release.... I was very surprised about Tears For Fears' single. It sounds like they were locked in a room with "I Am The Walrus". I haven't given up on this band as a progressive one because they keep striving for change. "Sowing The Seeds Of Love" is an interesting song, and we always welcome bands who try to reinvent themselves.

Cinda Swanson, WRVU, Nashville

Are there enough tribute albums out now?? Speaking of which, that "Bridge" compilation is amazing! What a diverse and incredible collection of artists.... Buffalo Tom is definitely one of the best things SST has put out recently, lovely distortion.... Marc was really impressed by the Ocean Blue record and suggests that DJs go deep into it. Notable debuts on the chart are: "The Bridge", Bauhaus, Cure EP, Ocean Blue and The Fluid.... Unfortunately the Fetchin Bones show was canceled late night since Hope was in the hospital, a problem with her voice/throat.... The Godfathers are playing with Mary My Hope Tuesday.... Well, it was time for it to happen, but I think I was hoping it wouldn't, all the lovely Vanderbilt students are back and the summer is over for all practical purposes. It will definitely be good to have all the regular DJs back and to possibly get some help programming. But I will certainly miss the peace and quiet of working down here at night and all the other wonderful things about summer!

Jim McNeil, WCDB, Albany

The upstate New York music scene is going to be on display for the first annual Albany New Music Expo on November 3rd and 4th. It's a happenin' thing. About 35 bands and 5 clubs will be involved with corporate sponsorship as well. We're inviting all sorts of record people and anybody else involved with the biz. Got any questions, gimme a buzz here at the station.

Mike Summers, KJQN, Salt Lake

As a birthday present for my good friend Jamey Karr at KACV we're adding "Closer To Fine" from Indigo Girls! (Actually, it's simply the right time for us to play this band) Happy Birthday anyway! Other adds include Alarm, Camper Van Beethoven and "Get Up" from R.E.M. It's been a Love And Rockets summer here at KJQ with the band in concert, a huge CD giveaway and it's all paying off. "No Big Deal" is generating massive phone action in all dayparts.

Gina Galli, WBNY, Buffalo

This weekend the 25th, we had our Battle of the Bands upon the battleship USS Little Rock where seven local bands from Buffalo fought it out for the #1 position. Joining us as judges were celebrities such as Hard's own Lee Carter, Caroline's Lisa Paulon, John Di Maio from Relativity and Tom Calderone from WRCN. John and Lisa became close personal car buds and hey, how bout that Neil Young record? Afterwards we went out and partied with Lee, who was the hugger extraordinaire that night. He's so sweet! Tom Calderone and Johnny Depp -- hey, what, separated at birth???? Let's get some photos together... Oh and, by the way, the first place was won by the Pine Dogs, second place Beat City, and third place the Pinheads. And later there was a special appearance by Buffalo zone Goo Goo Dolls. It was wild.

Karyn Bryant, WRBU, Providence

Wow! Debating at number one on our request tally is Tears For Fears' "Sowing The Seeds Of Love". What a wonderful song, it's instantly likeable, and it lights up the phones (obviously). Ted and I want to thank Jill Maxick and Andy Kipnes for the Vaseline and shoehorn treatment - it felt amazing. We hope it was as good for you as it was for us. And speaking of feeling good, we really enjoyed having Joe from Winter Hours stop by our very own studio. He and Clarence Barnes are a whole lotta fun. I've got to get going, Ted and I have to finish planning the festivities for the upcoming promotion known as Rocktember. More details later...

Doug Clifton, KBCO, Boulder

A wealth of great new music to talk about! The Stones album is their best in the past decade. Song for song it's classic Stones.... Everything has been on the air over the weekend! We'll start with "Sad", "Terrifying", and "Sigh" but the tracks will be changing week to week to keep things fresh. My personal favorite is "Continental Drift".... Melissa Etheridge fans in Colorado have been on the edge of their seats waiting for the new release. Now they have "No Souvenirs" on the radio! It's a song that we've been familiar with through her live performances and it's been one of my favorites since I first heard it. We're looking forward to the album release so we can fulfill her fans needs as soon as possible! Listening to Poco took me back through each member's career from Poco on through the 70's and 80's. Richie Furay tells their story in the lead track "When It All Began". His material is the closest to that original Poco sound. Jim Messina sounds just as good as he did on all of those Loggins and Messina releases over the years. It's great to have him back in the studio again. Randy Meisner's vocals take you back to his best days with the Eagles. Rusty Young's been the main voice for Poco throughout their history and he ties it all together. We expect lots of response to this Colorado favorite. Thanks to Zak Phillips, Jeff Laufer and Len Rokoz for the chance to say hello to Richie and Jim at their listening party last night. Hope to see them on stage the next time! The Alarm are on target for the big big breaking point. They were close last time but the new release helps them to turn the corner. Our local sensation over the last year have made the big time with their Atlantic debut this week! The Subdudes have been a club favorite for over a year now along Colorado's front range. They have a fresh sound that's perfect for adult and alternative stations from coast to coast! Listen to "One Time", "Light In Your Eyes", "Got You On His Mind" and "Need Somebody". With everything that's out right now it's easy to overlook new music. Please don't miss a chance to at least listen to Nanci Griffith's "It's A Hard Life". One of the best songs to come out this summer!

Sam Ferrara, KTCL, Fort Collins

Hello important people everywhere. My name is Sam Ferrara and I've been with KTCL for two plus years and am now MD under the superlative guidance of John Hayes. So, I'm on the phone with the always galvanic Joni from Chameleon when she suggests that I contribute something weekly or thereabouts. If you don't already know, KTCL is 15 years old. That alone may not sound like an accomplishment, but the station's format has remained freeform. Our promotions director Chris "Bubba" Adams continues to craft giveaways and contests to coincide with our anniversary. In the last couple of months we've presented shows with Stan Ridgway, Concrete Blonde, MOEV/Xymox, (which we simulcast), George Thorogood, The Beat Farmers, and Bad Brains. We are also presenting a triple bill with the Pixies, Love And Rockets, and The Cure. We were able to give tickets away before they even went on sale (a big deal to fans). In addition, we are going to give away tickets that will admit a lucky few to view the show from "the pit" - the area directly in front of the stage. The show will be at Fiddlers Green (outdoor amphitheater) Labor Day. Early this fall we'll be giving away a trip for two to New York City with all accommodations included - even airfare! The most important factor that we bring in to play is the LISTENER - they appreciate being thanked. I have some thanks of my own to deal out. Thank You Beverly at A&M, Pete and Tom at Rhino, Jim at Elektra, Zak at RCA, and Steve at Columbia. These people have provided much product that we have padded our promotions with. Without them, these promotions would not have been worthwhile. Although I haven't written him off, I'm still waiting for the Elvis "Spike" Costello stuff I ordered from Rich at Warner.... Those Stone Roses sure can set a mood. And who is on the air at WKRP when Johnnie Fever and Venus are not? Yours Radiofully, Sam Ferrara.

Malibu Sue/Robert Greenbaum, WDRE, Westbury

The Hoodoo Gurus were in town last night to give a free concert. The show was presented by WDRE and Record World/Square Circle. Thanks to Texas for coming up to the station. This past week the Connells put on a great show at The Cat Club. Some new stuff on the air this week is the Alarm single, Innocence Mission, Red Hot Chili Peppers and Exene Cervenka's solo project. Thanks also go out to Tommy Stinson from The Replacements for dropping by.... Shreeek of the week - Max Q!

Art Williamson, WOFM, Chesapeake

Concerning the Godfathers, we did a show with them for $2 at the Boathouse with Mary My Hope and they drew about 1,000 folks. After the show they went down to the trendy section of town and jammed with a couple of local bands! It was just like the Eric Clapton beer commercial. You finish a gig and you go have fun somewhere else! The B-52's sold out the Boathouse a week ago with the Royal Crescent Mob opening. USA Today was there filming for the TV show and it was a terrific show.... We are pleased to announce that Al Mitchell has been upped to MD in addition to his evening shift, effective immediately.

P.F., WXVX, Pittsburgh

Camouflage's single is pretty cool. Graham at Atlantic was saying this LP was better than the first and I hope he's right. I liked the first one a lot.... B.A.D.'s "James Brown" is the same old B.A.D. but it's still pretty cool. Why hasn't this band not yet broken big on the U.S. pop charts?.... Red Hot Chili Peppers is not as raunchy as their older stuff but it still has a quirky edge that our audience really likes.... I'm driving to Cleveland tomorrow to see the Cure!

Jamey Karr, KACV, Amarillo

We're planning to be 100,000 watts by November 1st. Everything is on schedule and any ideas to help us promote this will be gratefully accepted.... Hoodoo Gurus' "Come Anytime" has about peaked here, and is currently #2 Most Requested. They've been an automatic add for us since "Bittersweet".... Boo & Darden got instant phones with "(All I Want) Is Everything", which connected immediately with our listeners....

Red Hot Chili Peppers are surprising us with "Knock Me Down". We're getting requests for more songs from this album. There is a high curiosity factor with this band!

Michael Davis, KNAC, Long Beach

"The Who, the end" said the cover of Rolling Stone in fall of 1982, so it must have been a strange dream that I had last Saturday night. The Who at the L.A. Coliseum with 70,000 people. Three hours of Who classics, a view from the roof of the press box which included downtown Los Angeles and even the Olympic torch burning away during the final 30 minutes. I even dreamed the encore included "Hey Joe" and that the set included "Trick Of The Light". The only other thing I can add is a "fuck you" to anyone who ever bad-mouthed the greatest band in rock history. Oh, yes, even pure rock KNAC plays a handful of tunes.... We like the rockers on the Stones record. "Sad Sad Sad" and "Hold On To Your Hat" another strange rock concert dream is set for mid-October. When the Stones and Guns N' Roses play the Coliseum, can't wait.... Big phones, Motley Crue, Alice Cooper, LA Guns, Lizzy Borden and still strong on Bang Tango and Skid Row.

Rosanne Samson, WVCB, Loudonville/Albany

Well, I can't seem to get a word in anywhere. But just let me say this -- Melissa Etheridge is one of the best, if not the best singer/songwriter to find fame and fortune in this past decade. With Stones, Aerosmith and Motley Crue out, our phones have not stopped ringing. How do we tell our listeners that we can't play "Dr. Feelgood" twice each hour??! While I admit I have been somewhat lax in my duties here at WVCB, I hope all of you promoters will continue supplying the great music that has made WVCB the #1 College station in the Capital Region. I only have a few weeks left, to enjoy summer and to be MD here. Hope your skies are sunny and your grass green. Later.

Jeffrey Naumann, Virgin, 213-288-1446

Okay, party breath, get ready for your station to sound like it's having a hell of a good time. The definitive party band NRBQ has its first killer release on Virgin with "It's A Wild Weekend". It's a wild song with a wild guitar solo from a wild bunch of guys getting ready for tour with R.E.M. I love these guys and you and your listeners will too. Add NRBQ and P-A-R-T-Y!... Camper Van Beethoven's "Pictures Of Matchstick Men" should sound and feel like a hit record, gawd, even some of the rock 40's are beginning to buzz about this sucker already. This is one you can even play in light if you don't have the room and I bet you get a lot of calls.... Speaking of calls, here's more proof that you should be playing Roxx Gang. KZEW tested Roxx Gang's "Scratch My Back" against Tangier, Molly "When will they change the cover" Hatchet, Bang Tango, Flies On Fire and Tin Machine, guess who won by a landslide???? Roxx Gang was the winner. And here are the results, Roxx Gang four to one over Molly, Roxx Gang two to one over Tangier, Roxx Gang three to one over Bang Tango and the others didn't get any calls. At least test Roxx Gang at night and you'll see the results as positive as they have been everywhere else.... My favorite LP is from Poco, what veritable suckcaah, and Texas is pretty neat, too. I'm off to Kaulai for a week. Aloha, you Jesus freaks.

Norm Osborne, EMI, 212-603-8668

Wow! Heavy traffic! Yes, folks, you can tell Christmas gets earlier every year. Let's put them all out at once. We're choking ourselves. In the middle of all this madness, EMI has released a new song "Teenage Head" by the Questionnaires. It is produced by Pat Moran whose work with Robert Plant, Lou Gramm, Edie Brickell, lends credibility. This is a track that's got to be a great reaction record, given the chance. Go back and listen to it, it's not average, it's better than that, if fact it's real strong. WHJY's Bill Weston and Chris Herrmann are both strong believers this week, thanks Bill and Chris.... To all those who program metal, get ready for Cats In Boots. It's on its way to you in metal adds on September 11th. This is red hot! "Shot Gun Sally" is the lead track, watch out for this one!

Paul V. and Dave Lombardi, Warner Bros, 818-953-3566

Greetings from ozone depleted Burbank, the place where us East Coast dudes battle the smog every day! This is a dual dialogue from The Warner Brothers, Paul V. and Dave Lombardi, aka V-Man and Super Dave! Basically just two PoMo-promo-mofos here to serve and protect your future of new music! (Have you heard such cliché crap in your life...) Believe it or not, this is our very first dialogue. We even typed it ourselves, huh? Hey, about some of the records. First off, we really want to thank all you programmers out there for Figures On A Beach! We really gave this band a shot and "Accidentally 4th Street (Gloria)" is a real record and it sounds great on the air! Watch for FOAB on tour through September. We're also doing well with Royal Crescent Mob, Martin Gore, Underworld and Baby Ford!!! What? You haven't added Baby Ford? This is what serious beat music sounds like with an ultra-edge, kinda like Ministry does acid on T-Rextacy. "Children Of The Revolution" can work next to guitars or drum machines. So we just got back from five days of drunken promotion hell in Miami at the WEA convention. Where else can you eat a disgusting dinner, but get to watch live performances from kd Lane, 10,000 Maniacs, D.A.D. (way cool), Big Daddy Kane and Aerosmith, who basically rocked the fuckin' house! We also got to check out stuff on deck for release in September, including Jane Child, Julee Cruise, Thompson Twins, Ice T (with Jello Biafra), Les Negresses Vertes, John Cale, Harold Budd, Roxanne Shante and Daniel Lanois! (Wait'll you see the October schedule...) For more info, give us a call at 818-953-3566. Also note that Reprise is now a separate entity unto itself with Peter Standish and Jim (Word!) Dickson taking on the PoMo gack duties. Yes, this is long, but it was worth, dontcah know! Hey, support Greenpeace.

Jackie Tesman, Atlantic, 212-484-6002

If anyone is wondering what a "Subdude" is or who the Subdudes are, wonder no more. They are four incredibly gifted musicians who originated in New Orleans and are now (for quite some time) more than a staple in the state of Colorado. The job of promotion is easy this time around... why? 'Coz all we have to do is let Doug Clifton, John Bradley, Ginger, John Hayes and Chris Adams pour out their passion to all you guys out there who program radio stations. Please listen to these guys, the easiest way to get across what they are all about is not to just talk, you must listen, and see (of course). You will get the opportunity to do so. The 'Dudes will be opening up for Melissa Etheridge in Los Angeles, New York and Chicago (more to be announced) Oh, yes, don't forget to bring your drum because the Subdudes forgot theirs somewhere in New Orleans! "Any Cure" should be added to your playlist next week. Max Q, who? No ifs, ands or buts. "Way Of The World" is exploding at radio. Hot at WFNX, WDRE, 91X, WXRT, KROQ, KJON, KITS, KTCL, KUKQ, KOTR, WBRU, WHFS, WXVX, KACV, WHTG, KDGE... Look for the album to ship on September 11th. Camouflage's "Love Is A Shield" is out! A lot of you got a hold of the import quite early (ouch). Well, guys, it's ours, we want you to play it in Heavy rotation, okay??? "Methods Of Silence", the full album will ship to radio on September 11th. Lots of Atlantic product here and around the corner, we want you to play them all, bye...

Victor Lentini, Chrysalis, 312-275-2244

Kiss this! #1 Most Added, #18 debut - Jethro Tull with "Kissing Willie". There's no need for a reunion tour, they never broke up. The "Rock Island Tour" starts 10/23 in Troy, NY. Your city is next... Stage Dolls are on the eve of Top Ten with a move to 12* on Hard Hundred. Hear "Love Cries" on their debut U.S. Tour which starts Sept. 6th in St. Louis... Ten Years After, yeah baby. 28-23* Hard Hundred. Tour starts soon... Icehouse's "Touch The Fire" is kindling for adds this week. See, no hype just fact.

Jordan Zucker, A&M, 212-826-0477

Just back from our national meetings in L.A. where we were treated to live shows from Indio, Innocence Mission and those crazy guys from Nashville -- Tora Tora. The single "Guilty" should be on your desk real soon... Extreme is on the road and they are alive with "Mutha". This song is perfect the back to school promotions... Giant Giant Giant. Listen to it. Play it. Add it. Millions can't be wrong. See ya.

Michael J. Schnapp, Epic, 212-975-5987

How I spent my summer vacation. Kreator, faster than a speeding bullet. More powerful than a locomotive. Able to leap into 16 Top 5 of metal radio in a single bound. Get ready to get "Extremely Aggressive" with Kreator. Great LP doin' great. Rockin video rockin Headbangers Ball. A tour that will go through October. Kreator's biggest selling and best record to date, and nice dudes too. Alice Cooper, the ultimate dude is "Trash". Lots of traffic out in radioland, but Alice Cooper and his "Trash" record will beat it out like a sleek red sports car. Alice Cooper will "Trash" your listeners. Phones, killer MTV play, he looks great in the video. Speaking of videos, Danger Danger's video for "Naughty Naughty" is added on MTV and on Dial MTV. Remember our favorite phone call is a FREE phone call. 1-800-DIAL-MTV. #13 on the first day of rotation. Yeah MTV and Danger Danger. At the Cat Club last week, we had a Bonham listening and video viewing party, capped off by a Danger Danger performance followed by Jason Bonham and Daniel McMaster (vocalist) of Bonham joining Danger Danger for jam of "Rock and Roll". His dad taught him well. Bonham will be big. Thanks to WTG dudes for the coolness. Comin' soon are more goodies, Fifth Angel new LP. I've heard raves off of the advance tapes, look out for Fifth Angel. It's there... Shark Island is gonna bite your ass off. Shark Island live promo only EP on its way, is simply awesome. Can they play live, fuckin' A! Shark Island will be a name you'll remember, and music you'll love. And if you're "Dirty But Well Dressed" then you're Beau Nasty. The Beau Nasty three-song advance has gotten lots of smiles. These guys can play. Great vocals and guitars! Pow! Gothic Slam. That's all. Gothic Slam. You'll be shocked-Gothic Slam. Be Prepared. S.T. Deja vu. S.T. feels like shit. Suicidal Tendencies. Thanks to all the cool ones out there. Welcome to the 90's!

Alan Oremen, Columbia, 213-556-4990

The Stones have delivered a killer album from beginning to end with "Steel Wheels". There are so many great tracks to mention. But it looks like for now that "Sad Sad Sad" and "Rock And A Hard Place" are definitely leading the pack of secondary tracks that are surfacing behind "Mixed Emotions". Thanks for the #1 track and LP in the country and I have a strong feeling this album is going to be around at the top of the charts for a very long time. The Toys are still kicking major booty. This was one of their best weeks yet with almost 20 killer adds coming in. Please don't forget to play with our toys and give it the play it deserves. Just try it in night rotation. This is another album that's not going to go away so you are gonna have to deal with it... James McMurtry had another quality week with double digit adds. Most everyone I talked with this week is starting to get calls for "Painting by Numbers". If you have listened to the CD you know the true depth of this artist and if you haven't got into it yet please try to find the time. Next song up from the Outfield is "Part of Your Life" which is definitely one of the best tracks from their current album "Voices of Babylon"... Coming soon is brand new Bob Dylan. The first track from "Oh Mercy" will be "Everything is Broken" and it's undeniably his best record in a long while - a stone cold smash. Daniel Lanois handled the production chores down in New Orleans - get ready.

Jay B. Ziskrout, Arista, 212-830-2256

"Order of the Universe" from Anderson Bruford Wakeman Howe continues its steady progress up the charts as the band continues their tour across the continent. This track is a straight-ahead rocker with a great hook that will have your audience saying "YES!"... There certainly is no question that Jeff Healey's "Angel Eyes" has become a bona fide smash. Already a top 5 Billboard single, "See The Light" is past gold on its way to ...? It's interesting to note that there is so much unreported "Recurrent" play on this song at rock radio that the track is listed at 22* on the Monday Morning Replay chart. Don't let your competition (I include, top 40, Rock 40, AC, MTV and VH1) steal this artist from you. If you haven't powered "Angel Eyes" yet, now is the time... Eurythmics have found a new home here at Arista and by mid-week you will find a copy of their latest CD, We Too Are One, on your desk. Take the time to listen to the entire album over the holiday. We're not going for adds until Monday, September 11th.

Graham Hatch, Atlantic, 212-484-8680

You're reading the comments of one happy promo person! And why shouldn't I be -- I've got a load of great projects to take to radio and retail including Subdudes, Camouflage, Max Z., Lt. Stitchie and The D.O.C. And to top it off a $2.00 bet at Yonkers on a horse named Depeche Mode paid $17.50 today (no this doesn't mean I'm going to buy anyone lunch)! Great news to report regarding our newest love thang called Subdudes: somebody slipped a pre-release of their new album to Melissa Etheridge and the next thing we know the Dudes will be opening for her in New York, Los Angeles, Chicago and Toronto! Don't even think of missing these performances. You'll be boasting that you were at these shows next year and it would help if you really were. I think everyone was impressed by Camouflage's newest single "Love is a Shield" and Max Q's first single "Way of the World" and they'll both do it for you again when their album arrives in a few weeks. If you're not already on Camouflage or Max Q yet (and there is only a handful) then you're blowing an opportunity to give your audience not only core artists but brilliant music. So do the right thing.

Calvin Lew, Polydor, 818-955-5260

Among this past week's superstar releases, it's been easy for programmers to pick the hits, but the true heroes this week were Daniel and Max at KRZQ, Paul at WMAD, Jim and Jack at WEZX, Jeff and Chris at WTPA, Frank and Drew at KBAT and Ted and Joe at WCCC. They had the ability to see through the clutter of great music to recognize the future potential in the very unique Darling Cruel. With seven weeks of Active Rotation on MTV and also with key stations like WLLZ, KXRX, WIYY hitting hard with some very good success -- hey, take some time with "Everything's Over". This is the one project that could be your sleeper of the Autumn. Just ask Russ Mottla!... Next week you will receive "Back To The Bullet" CD pro from Saraya. I guarantee you will be floored with all the hooks. You will have two versions to choose from -- the album version and a rock 40 mix/recording. If you've really been paying attention to sales in your marketplace, L.A. Guns' new CD, after one week, is selling Top 10 in many markets, I told you so. Get ready for "Rip And Tear" on September 25. Metal shops now! P.S. We're coming home for World Trade. Hey, my faves from the last two weeks phenomenal releases, Melissa, yeah! Tina Turner, of course! B-52's, Mark Cope is right! And, uh, okay, the L.A. Guns!

Bruce Flohr, RCA, 213-468-4177

The Hoodoo Gurus continue to stay atop the Alternative charts. The excuses are starting to run low at AOR radio. I guess adding a sixth cut from the Stones is better than breaking a new band.... Pop Will Eat Itself is Top Ten. Please ask someone from RCA to take you to their show.... The Stone Roses are about to become the breakthrough band of the year. Watch for a very special tour to be announced soon.... The initial reaction to Michael Penn is amazing. This album contains songwriting that is similar to Costello, Dylan and Lennon. Do yourself a favor and really listen to this new album. Raging Stab is getting dirtier as they travel across the country, check out "Don't Dog Me". Coming soon: The Del Fuegos, Human Drama, Bullet Lavolta and The Primitives. Got to go, the local AOR is playing the new Stones record backwards... now that's exclusive.

Jessica Harley, Megaforce, 201-254-6533

For the third week straight King's X "Over My Head" remains in the Top 10 requests on Dial MTV!!! The video is reacting and retail is steady. This week Billboard has "Gretchen Goes To Nebraska" at 137 and climbing. Special thanks to WLLZ and WTKI for adding "Over My Head" and to KZEW and WIXV for the rotation increases. King's X are currently on the road making their way across the States. Make sure you check 'em out in a town near you... Be on the lookout for the first emphasis track from Icon's "Right Between The Eyes" entitled "Taking My Breath Away". It's hitting your desk this week.

Joni Solomon, Chameleon, 213-973-8282

What a great way to begin the week! It's nice to start a Monday on an up note even before I get on the phones -- thanks to Harvey & Lynn at R&R. I think that the album chart, as opposed to the track chart will work out better for everyone involved. A very wise decision on your part. Thanks! A big huge congratulations goes out to the newly wed Rich Robinson from WHTG! Another one bites the dust, huh? All the best with your new life (wife)... Walking Wounded is off to a great start! On out of the box... KBCO, KSPN, KOTR, KTAO, and KBLE. "Raging Winds Of Time" is the track. Now is the time! New couple on the horizon??? Lisa Paulon and John DiMaio recently spotted (Gina Galli -- my spy!!) rendezvousing in the Buffalo vicinity -- later confirmed by Andrew Chinnici. So what's the poop, guys??? Look for Indian Bingo early next week. Wanna play? Best, etc.

Sarah Haynes, Relativity/In-Effect, 213-212-0801

Shotgun Messiah's debut CD single "Shout It Out" has arrived at Metal and Rock 40 radio, and will hit the desks of AOR this week.... Keep an eye out for Shotgun Messiah's "Shout It Out" video on MTV, which was filmed in the same place as the "Streets Of Fire" motorcycle fight scene and directed by Penelope Spheeris (who also directed "The Decline Of Western Civilization I & II"). Anyone who's going to be in L.A. for the Concrete Foundations Seminar can catch Shotgun Messiah live on Friday, September 22nd at the Palace. See for yourself, this band is going to join Joe Satriani in taking Relativity Records to the top. Speaking of Joe, his new LP "Flying In A Blue Dream" is due out in the middle of October - with (Joe's) vocals on a few of the tracks! Compliments to Arista Records on the "Come As You Are, 'Cause We Are One" bbq at Dave Stewart's house, far from Stone Henge, Hilaire!

Lisa Paulon, Caroline, 212-989-2929

The real thing is coming your way next week. Yes, it's the bad, bad, Bad Brains. This is the band that taught us that incorporating soul, rock, reggae, hardcore, and funk makes for an unbelievable listening experience. These guys are responsible for being a major influence on new rock heroes Living Colour and 24-7 Spyz. The album is called "Quickness" and, for all H.R. fans, was recorded with all the original members. "The Bridge" has continued to receive fantastic response nationally. The phones are amazing on this record. Retail action is hot as well. It came in last week at 24* Album Network Expand-O-Retail... Thanks to Gina Galli at WBNY and Andrew Chinnici at WBER for hanging out with us last weekend. Gina, the battle of the bands was a blast! Just a note of warning to those who are planning a 10 hour trip from hell with John DiMaio from Relativity -- Don't! (Just Kidding).

Jerry Rubino, Rough Trade, 212-777-0100

Before I even get a breath of New York air (?), I get the list of upcoming releases coming your way from Rough Trade. Opal, Steve Kilbey (of the Church), Galaxie 500, The Band of Holy Joy, Feedtime, Einsturzenze Neubauten, Straitjacket Fits and in early 1990 an LP of all new material from The Clean. Busy, yes. Fun, but of course... The project at the moment is Lucinda Williams' 5-track EP featuring "Passionate Kisses". When you talk to "Perfect Radio Record", "Passionate Kisses" is it. Listen to it once or twice, and you'll be running into the studio to get it on ASAP. To those of you programmers looking to grab the upper demos Lucinda is a cinch! Watch for Lucinda Williams on Late Night with David Letterman, October 11. It's still over a month away, but I'll remind you -- often. This appearance makes Lucinda one of only a few indie4 acts to be Letterman.... For those of you wondering, Nick Cucci is now label manager, and can be reached at the same number. There's now three Italians here, watch your step... Congratulations to Trumbull, CT in their Little League World Series Championship. No thanks to the Houston Astros who are putting me through fking hell and aggravation.

Lin Brehmer, stop smiling! This week's Super Segue - "Know Me" by Toad and the Wet Sprocket, "Move Sequence" by Senator Flux and "Passionate Kisses" by Lucinda Williams. Later. Now where do I eat?

Kim White, EMI, 212-603-8664

Red Hot Chili Peppers are the #1 most requested song in the country. After only one week it is also the #1 selling Alternative Retail and the #1 in-store play album of the week! All we have left is to conquer that #1 spot on the almighty chart. We picked WDRE and KITS this week and are well over 50% in hot rotations! "Mother's Milk" is a natural, do your body good... Questionnaires also pick up some excellent reports this week with WNCS, KTAO, KACV and WBER. Andrew Chinnici calls this "by far the most likeable thing I've heard on first listen this year!" Have you heard? Dave Gottlieb is putting together a new band called Burger Down Productions. It will feature several luminaries including our own Chris LaSalle and the superstar on the rise, George Gillespie (aka G Love J of KONK).

Megadon, Amuse America, 212-213-9595

Yeeeah! Just came back from witnessing EZO tear up the Lone Star state. Dallas and San Antonio will never be the same again. Both shows were a great success. Thanks to all at Z-Rock (Tracy Barnes, Matt Wolfe, Mike Paine, Madd Maxx Hammer, Michelle Knight, Tyler and Crankin' Craig) for all the support and for coming out to the Dallas shows and to Matt Wolfe again for explaining to me why many San Antonio girls act the way they do. By the way, if you can avoid it, never make the drive from Dallas to San Antonio. It's five boring hours of the flattest land I've ever seen, and the Dairy Queens are always on the opposite sides of the road from where you need them to be. At least it gave Givens and myself the opportunity to dream up our latest scheme for greatness and world domination, we are going to revolutionize the junk food industry with a new line of junk food you'd have to be pregnant to dream of eating. So look out for new "Fester Fester Boom Boom Chips" at a supermarket near you very soon, right next to the kumquats... Other products will include scrapple-flavored cookies and really demented foods involving squid and eels... More news from the EZO front, the boys are back in Jersey while more dates are set up, so if ya need anything, now's the time to go for the gusto and give me or the Panossian a call. We'll hook ya up as best we can.

Russell Gerroir, Concrete, 212-645-1360

Powermad is no longer a well kept secret. Their first full length LP titled "Absolute Power" is moving up the metal charts by leaps and bounds. Most people are finding success with "Nice Dreams", "Plastic Town", "Slaughterhouse", "B.N.R." and the title track "Absolute Power"... Bruce Dickinson is coming on strong as well. His solo venture "Bring Your Daughter To The Slaughter", which is part of the "Nightmare On The Elm St Part 5" soundtrack, is working its way up the metal charts, too, and playing Bruce is guaranteed to keep the phones ringing... Princess Pang, from the streets of New York to Metal Blade/Capitol Records is the story of their debut LP which is starting to make some waves. The lead track, "Trouble In Paradise" has been met with a positive response and has already landed the band on the metal charts. The video has already been shot so keep watching MTV... One record that has been building well is Vain. The debut LP "No Respect" has been out for a little while now and continues to move nicely up the charts. The tracks that are working best for people are "Beat The Bullet", "Secrets" and "No Respect"... Upcoming projects include D.A.D., Keel, Babylon A.D. and Beau Nasty. If I can help you with any of the above mentioned records, please call and let me know.

Michelle Alberico, Noise Int'l, 212-334-9268

You might remember me from WNHU radio in West Haven, Conn. I'm here at Noise now helping out Stu with Radio Promotions. I hope by now both metal and new music directors have listened to Mordred. This album can fit easily into both formats. Tracks like "The Artist" and "Sever And Splice" for the metal shows and tracks like "Super Freak" and "Everyday's A Holiday" (this is the video track by the way) for the New Music shows. Rage's album will be out on September 19th, and it's called "Secret In A Weird World"... Coroner's album is called "No More Color". Don't forget to go check out Coroner out on the road. Their tour starts next month, anyone needing to find out the dates can give me a call. But for right now I hope everyone will go and listen to Mordred so you can tell me what you think when I call, and if for some reason you didn't receive the record let me know.

Michael Brandvold, DKP Productions, 312-941-3571

I missed a couple of dialogues, but I'm back! I took a short vacation to Great Britain. I was fortunate enough to attend the Milton Keynes Festival, a replacement for the Donington Monsters Of Rock. I saw some great performances by Skid Row, Vixen, Europe and Bon Jovi. The two highlights had to be Skid Row and Bon Jovi. I also witness the UK's version of Wrathchild. As a long time fan, I was very impressed with their live show. Let's hope they can conquer these shores.

Enough of that... What about Defcon!!!! Well, they're in that phase (three?) of writing, showcasing and writing! I'll be attending Concrete's Forum, along with Gary from Defcon. Look us up, we'd love to meet you! Don't forget to check them out on Concrete's Sampler CD and the Chicago Rocker's Compilation CD, which contains a brand, spankin' new tune! P.S. Keep your ears open for Sleeze Beez, these guys are great! (You were right Dave).

Clarissa Garcia, Enigma, 213-390-9969 x215

KING'S X, KING'S X, KING'S X!!! They opened for winger and Mr. Big last night at the Santa Monica Civic Center. The night of the bassists began with the almighty KING'S X. All three are great musicians and Doug has one of the best voices around. I couldn't help but think that ten of fifteen years, we'll get a better idea of the impact band is now making. Jon Sutherland had the nerve to ask if I like the band. Jon, I worship KING'S X -- nuff said. Billy Sheehan and Mr. Big were up next and I was impressed with their decent cover of Humble Pie live. For the first time, I saw a fan playing air bass, not where the bass should be if he had one, but at eye level (?), during Billy's solos. The Kipster followed and I have to say that the idea of Winger doing Hendrix just doesn't fly with me (sorry, Chrisby). They stayed true to the recorded versions of the songs (except "Purple Haze", of course), but I liked "Hangin' On" as well as a few others. Kip has got one of the best stage struts I've ever seen. It was at this show that I actually managed to catch a glimpse of Jim Cardillo for a second time in a month. It can happen, I guess. Tonight, KING'S X will be at Jezebel's. Fates Warning was supposed to open for 'em, but there's been a change of plans. At least, Fates will be at the show. 'Til next week, kids, take care and remember, the KING is coming!

Jill Cohn, Medusa, 213-390-9969

Have you all looked over your shoulder, checked your mail box, and sniffed the refrigerator lately??? "Death Walks Behind You", by Seattle's own Coven is here, and making its presence known loud and clear!! Z-Rock's Mike Pain said it was #4 most requested on his show Headbanger's Heaven after only 3 plays of "Propaganda". Cathy Faulkner from KISW cranked-up "Propaganda" for Seattle, and also interviewed the band on her Thursday night Metal Shop. In addition, Mark from WBNY called up and simply said, "Jill, Coven is god-lee!!" Ok, so you know why I suggested the shoulder and mail box check, and I'm sure you're all guessing the Frigerator check by now. Yes there is food on my mind, and the best selection is the "Pizza Connection" by Miss Daisy. Ok, so it's grittier than most over-produced stuff out today, and yes, it takes more than a couple of listens to get the Pizza trip!! Lets face it, there are enough bands out there that look and sound alike, isn't it time for some originality? Fess-up you guys, Fine wine takes time, Sex is always better on the second try, and at one time, I hated Pizza, and now all I listen to is, "Wishy Washy Man". Ok, nuff said, so I guess I'll talk about Vengeance Rising. Stations are getting into "Human Sacrifice" as well as cranking out "Children of the Light" by Sacred Warrior. I want to say welcome back to Hailey and Mark, and everyone else coming back from Summer break, call me up with your office hours so I can call you. I can't wait to see everyone at the Seminar!!! See-ya.

Cheryl "Attention Starved" Valentine, Metal Blade, 212-645-6208

I am becoming depressed and I don't like it. I've noticed that some of you don't even read my cover letters. For long, hard hours I slave over these letters so that it's enjoyable (or at least humorous) reading. So that you, the promotionally bombarded directors, are not subjected to yet another droning letter of hype. I realized that you don't read my letters when I found you REPORTING Soundgarden. "Louder Than Love"'s release date is Sept 12. I sincerely hope that you've informed your adoring masses of the fact that it cannot be found in stores until that date. I know that you have a lot of really good material to play this summer and I also know that a bulk of it is ours. I look at it this way - our biggest album that was released this year was Archt. Now I'm asking for more of your attention and devotion because we have at least five very important releases out this year at this very second. It's tough, I know and I am asking a lot, but we don't jump down your throats and go out on a limb for shitty bands. These are very viable artists that only you can break. If you want a new band to get response in your market, you have to push for them. For new bands to do well, you have to start with yourselves! The success of Lizzy Borden and Fates Warning depend on you. The breaking of Princess Pang, Heir Apparent and Little Caesar depend upon you. Don't be left in the cold, making bad calls. Push for these bands now do that you can be a crucial part in their success. Please don't leave it up to others to do it for you. Amen.

Stewart Morales, Torrid, 914-664-3885

Gothic Slam! They raged at CBGB's last week. The buzz on this band's live show has always been very strong and last Tuesday, they exceeded everyone's expectations. It didn't matter that most in the crowd were unfamiliar with the band's upcoming Torrid/Epic LP, "Just A Face In The Crowd". The band ruled. Gothic Slam is the live band to see and experience. Mega thanks to all the metal industry types who showed up at the gig. Super thanks to Alexandra and JJ for traveling all the way from Pennsylvania to check it out. Prepare yourselves for the Gothic Slam attack, speaking of live shows, Mucky Pup are currently having a fantastic time in Europe. So far they've sold out the first six shows of their tour at halls with an average capacity of 700. And that's not all, the new Trash Broadway CD singles for "Eyes On You" should be hitting your desks next week. Mainstream proficient hard rock from Torrid? You bet! Trash Broadway can run with the best of them. Give it a shot. I'll be looking for all you Boston rockers at their release party at the Paradise Theater on September 27th. Too cool!

Elisa Casas, Titanium, 212-697-6140

By the time you read this, Badlands' video "Winter's Call" should be in the can and on its way to MTV -- the video shoot went well, despite the usual location problems that plague very video shoot. Thanks for the patience to everyone who came down. The "Winter's Call" promo CD should be on your desk now (as a matter of fact, it should be in serious rotation) and if it isn't, call your Atlantic rep! Call me, call Peggy, call Lea, but make sure you get one! It's got the guitar solo of the year on it. When they performed it live, someone said the crowd reacted like it was Led Zeppelin doing "Stairway To Heaven". Don't miss them. They just confirmed the second leg of the Tesla and Great White tour and L.A. dates with Cinderella. To celebrate the release of their debut album, "Banshee" is going to headline the 9,000 seat Starlight Theater in Kansas City, their hometown. They are huge out there. Look for the emphasis track "Shoot Down The Night" on your desk the week of September 9, and call for advance cassettes.

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce, 201-254-6533

Testament is and always will be #1!!!! Thanks for your ongoing support with Testament. If there is anything in the entire world you need just give me a call and I'll try to help you out. These Bay area rockers are also doing well retail wise and have moved up 15 places in Billboard to 84*!!!!... King's X are on the road. They are one band that you do not want to miss. Their live show is even more astounding then the amazing album. King's "Gretchen Goes To Nebraska" is up to number 137 in Billboard's Top 200 Albums... Icon is on your desk now!!! This album has been three years in the making and contains a special appearance from Alice Cooper on two tracks. Do not let this record slip through your fingers!!! Icon will be huge! Mega-thanks go out to WLF, WCBP, WGLS, WHVY, WSOU, WKNC, WNHU, WJUL, WRTN, WFSE, WHJY, WKPX, WVCS, WWUH, and WWSU for their out of the box support with "Taking My Breath Away". Until then report King's X, Testament and Icon!!!

Peggy Donnelly, Atlantic, 212-484-8127

"Climbin' The Walls" is climbin' the charts. Wrathchild America, the #1 most added record this week. You people rule! Wrathchild America have waited a long, long, long, long time to grace your airwaves. Your tremendous support this first week out is mega-appreciated... Looks like the Savatage record "Gutter Ballet" will make its scheduled release of October 20. Just in time for my favorite holiday. The wonderful people of Atlantic Metal will be distributing a cassette sampler at the Foundations Forum (aka the Concrete Metal convention) which features a track from this upcoming masterpiece. (Hey, don't worry, even if you don't make it to L.A. for the metal festivities, we will send you a cassette upon our return!) This cassette also contains a track from Hurricane Alice, who will be releasing their debut album in January 1990. Not on the cassette, but on the stage September 23rd at Foundations Forum, will be Vicious Rumors. Many of you know Vicious Rumors from their Shrapnel Record releases. Well, Atlantic has them now. The album was just completed and sounds huge! Look for this one in early 1990... Let's talk mail. We sent Winger's "Hungry" CD single to you two weeks ago. If you didn't get it, call us coz we got more. We sent Badlands' "Winter's Call" CD single to you this week. Sorry there is no artwork on the CD, but the music does the talking for these guys. Ray Gillen called to check in earlier this week and told me to tell you that he loves calling people from the road, so if you want to talk to him, call the metal department and give us your office hours, and we'll have him ring you up. We will be sending White Lion's "Radar Love" and Mr. Big's "Wind Me Up" CD singles to you next week... Upcoming releases, Peter Frampton, Banshee and Loudness (Atco) on September 19, Vamp (you've been reading about them) and Fiona (the first single is a hot duet with Kip Winger) on October 10th. Savatage, Ace Frehley (Megaforce) and Overkill (Megaforce) on the streets October 20th. Rush (yes, I said Rush) and Yes (yes, I said Yes) in your hands November 14th. And if you are very, very good, expect a special surprise for your December holiday season... That's all, but they say, Enuff Z'Nuff.

"NAUGHTY NAUGHTY"

Chas Mixon, KZEW

"You should here some of the phone calls I've been getting. I don't think some of the suggestions are legal, but I think they would be a lot of fun. Danger Danger makes 'em feel 'Naughty Naughty' around here."

Gary Palmer, WLLZ

"Danger Danger is hot hot around here. This one definitely gets reaction from the audience!"

Bob Ely, KILO

"We moved 'Naughty Naughty' up in rotation due to the fact that it's a great song! The sales exploded at area record stores, so we'll give people what they want, more chances to get naughty."

Andy Dean, WDHA

"Hailing from the New Jersey area, Danger Danger received immediate attention from WDHA, and after seeing them live in New York last week, I truly believe this could turn into a major national record. The look and the hook are both there."

Anthony Alfonsi, WDVE

"Danger Danger incorporates some of rock's best traditional ingredients that make for a really nice package."
