JUNE 26, 1992

Top Priority

INXS, "Heaven Sent", Atlantic.... They're back and they're rocking again! After enjoying the pop success of Kick some felt they left rock roots behind. Cynicism will be quickly washed away with their new album Welcome To Wherever You Are (their 8th), co-produced by Mark Opitz (he also twisted the knobs on their 1983 release, Shabooh Shoobah, hence the back to basics vibe). The first single "Heaven Sent" is reminiscent of meteric for the Third of the Third at WKOO of material from Listen Like Thieves and is about as high energy as they come. Tony Tilford at WKQQ had early words, "Sounds like true material that made them great in the first place! This one is definitely made for AOR!" Darrin Arriens at Lazer in Milwaukee chimes in, "They have left their dance feel behind and have come up with a surprisingly hard driving tune!" WRIF's Steve Kostan sums up the radio zeitgeist, "It's great to have INXS back in the realm of AOR. This new single has the feel of their older songs but is turbo charged!" Varoooom!! With a vibe like that, it seems AOR has dusted off the welcome mat for these Aussiel. Greb a Fosters (or if upware on the upware a Wallace Water) and water the mat for these Aussies! Grab a Fosters (or if you're on the wagon, a Wallaroo Water) and watch the request lines burn!

Bonham, "Change Of A Season", Mad Hatter, Epic.... Bonham wins the name recognition game, but that doesn't always insure success. Sure it helped the band get a leg up on their debut release The Disregard Of Timekeeping that went gold domestically and sold one million worldwide. The single "Waiting For You" has been radio's favorite track to date and perked up the ears of many. The band played 200 live gigs before hitting the studio for their sophomore release Madhatter. The group retired to Spain to write the material and recorded the album in England with producer Tony Platt (AC/DC, Free, Buddy Guy). The first single is the melodic "Change Of A Season," where you'll notice the vocals of Daniel MacMaster are hauntingly similar to those of Robert Plant. The band has matured and have accelerated past other bands who started around the same time. It takes many groups a number of albums to sound as comfortable with each other, not to mention tight! The strength of Bonham's percussion adds to the multi-layered flavor of the tune. WQNY's Mimi Griswold hits the nail on the head, "This is the powerful sound that rock radio was built on!" (Marconi does the mambo, huh? -ed.) Dru "The Texas Wrangler" Dawson put it to us this way, "As long as there is interest in Led Zeppelin, there will be interest in Bonham. It's not just Bonham though. The band, as a whole, is solid and they compliment each other very well!" Jessica (no last names please!) at WQBZ put the wraps on things, "Bonham has a big image to live up to, but it's great to see him incorporating his father's knowledge into his work. We are still playing 'Waiting For You' in a recurrent oldies category. He already has a huge fan base that is bound to get bigger with this new effort!"

Soul Kitchen, "Need It Bad", Giant.... We'll bet that Soul Kitchen will remind you of '70s rock gods like Grand Funk Railroad, Humble Pie, and the Guess Who. But then again didn't you get that misty Stones flashback when you had that first eargasm for the Black Crowes? WTPA's Chris James was the first to clue us in and raved about the band a few weeks ago. From that point on we've been driving around with the whole cassette, and yes, the whole album is as strong as this first single. You don't need much convincing to realize this is gonna be a mutha! They are stripped down, bare knuckled southern boogie brawlers that will find a lot of new friends next week. Mark our words!

> Santana, "We Don't Have To Wait", Polydor.... You asked for "classic?" You've got it! "We Don't Have To Wait" is 4:34 of Carlos and crew jammin' at their best. His trademark Latin/R&B influenced rock sound has remained fresh and unchallenged, giving him a unique place in the history books. When Milagro came out, many a programmer thought this was strictly an album for fans. But thanks to this comment from Mimi Griswold/WQNY we're glad to report this cut is for everyone [everybody's everything? -ed.], "It is a very cool and powerful tune from one of the best! His songs have enough levels of diversity that they don't need words. This is a sensible add for any AOR!" Step back and enjoy the master.

Material Issue, "What Girls Want", Mercury.... The Midwest has always been known for tornadoes and straight ahead rock and rollers. The roster consists of Bob Seger, John Mellencamp, The Replacements, and Cheap Trick, to name a few. The newest and one of the most watched groups to hail from this part of the country is Chicago's Material Issue. Their debut International Pop Overthrow spawned the track "Valerie Loves Me" which shot to the top of the alternative charts and was walled-to-walled on MTV. "What Girls Want" follows in the band's next puck and the state Want" follows in the band's post punk pop style and is more of a guitar rocker than its predecessor. WRIF's Steve Kostan told us, "'Valerie' did well for us and sounded like the good material that was around in the early '80s like the Romantics. This new track makes me want to wear the skinny tie without the haircut!" [Whoa! Better watch out for those blue hairs, huh? - ed.] It would be a sad mistake on the part of any programmer to cast this band aside as simply "alternative." Adding this song will not constitute going out on a limb. As John Lennon once said about something totally unrelated to this portioner point is a "soft as will." unrelated to this particular point, it's as "safe as milk." Why can't every add be this easy?

Sass Jordan, "You Don't Have To Remind Me", Impact.... At the rate things are shaping up for Sass, she is becoming one of the most watched and most exciting female rockers to come along in some time. She could probably be called the hardest working woman in the biz too. That cross country promotional tour and opening digs with the Arc Angels has taken her to almost every city in the country. Coming off the Top 5 debut single "Make You A Believer," Sass is pulling back the tempo on this new single, but once again she delivers a hook that sticks to you all day! Steve Kostan at 'RIF in Detroit was this week's undisputed king of unsolicited verbosity saying, "I'm still floating from a great one-two punch of rock and roll with Sass and the Arc Angels! Sass had a slightly temporary line up last time, and wasn't hitting on all 8 cylinders. That has been fixed big time! I look for 'You Don't Have To Remind Me' to become one of the memorable songs of the Summer of '92." Come Tuesday, this should be an automatic, but we just wanted to "remind you!'

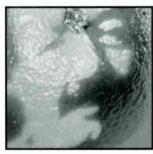

Saigon Kick, "Love is on the Way", Third Stone/Atlantic.... The band has already enjoyed success at metal radio with "Hostile Youth." Now, it's time for the rest of us to get in on the magic. "Love Is On The Way" gives power ballad a whole new meaning. This single displays the band's incredible harmony range as well as their many different levels of playing. Early adds at 8 stations including KBER, KSAQ, WFYV, WRZK, WZZR, WHTQ, WSHE and WXTB tell us that the buzz is already on. Just ask Mike Lee of WZZR, "We are the size when the album first came out, and our jocks were still getting Ton phones two "We put this on the air when the album first came out, and our jocks were still getting Top phones two weeks later. We plugged it into heavy and we're getting ten times the phones on it than anything else we're playing!" [Einstein said it best: Airplay x Rotation/Frequency = Phones -ed.] The Strummer-man at WTKX said, "It's one of the strongest songs of the week!" With early action and an intense street buzz rolling in, Saigon Kick could have the type of summertime success that Skid Row had with "I Remember You." The track debuts on the Hard Hundred this week at 99*, with an impressive early debut on the COR at 46*.

Phish, "Cavern", Elektra.... Bands like Phish are playing to the masses and are part of a new music explosion that is all about touring and jammin' for hours. Sure there are the "Dead" comparisons, but it's more in the company they keep than the sound they create. The belief in their first track "Chalk Dust Torture" was so strong, it was released twice. Reaction has always been strong and positive from radio "Cavern" follows suit audiences.

board action, and wild songwriting. KSFX, WVBR and WIZN have jumped out of the box, and AAA stations will find this to be an automatic. We caught up with Zeb Norris at KRQR (who played the first single) put it like this, "Even though the band isn't from San Francisco, they seem to have the S.F. sound that this city is famous for. 'Chalk Dust Torture' was a great tune, but this song really shows what this band can do!" With most of their education in Jazz, Phish has found a way to combine that with rock and roll, and are out to change the minds of many and turn us all on to something a little obscure. With a few spins and an open ear, you too will be moving to the Phish dance and seeing colorful "pictures of nectar!"

Gun, "Welcome To The Real World", A&M.... Any pro-grammer that gave "Steal Your Fire"

a shot already knows about Gun's straight ahead approach to rock and For those of you who didn't roll. pick up on these Scottish lads, here's your chance to play a band who is strong enough to open for the Roll-ing Stones and Def Leppard. They're currently gearing up for some U.S. gigs and will be pressing the flesh and schmoozing at an AOR near you soon. There's no doubting this is one of the best summers for new rock 'n' roll, and Gun is an act that has been building up quite a following. With so many programmers and music directors screaming about the same-old-material-cloned-hair-bands, "Welcome To The Real World" will convince you that Gun has the ability to transcend this category, and stand on their own. Gun lives up to the name of their sophomore release Gallus which means "The Best." Mixing atti-tude and rock has always made for a potent outcome, and Gun could be a new "welcome" to any playlist!

Henry Rollins Band, "Tearing", Imago.... "Low Self-Opinion" impacted the Metal and Alternative charts a month ago, but saw little success with mainstream AOR and COR stations (sales of the album are approaching 200,000 de-Things spite that limited play). could change for this poet of sorts, with this new single. KISW added the record a week ago and 2 new adds were called in this week including WWTR and WZNS. If you're thinking this may be too hard to deal with, give it a test spin and let your audience be the judge. By now, many listeners are already hip to Black Flag's ex-frontman, and many will recall the Rollins Band was the opening act for last summer's Lollapalooza Tour. Rollins is an artist with the charisma and energy that is comparable to that of a Jim Morrison and the writing ability and spoken word act that can only be described as a post-apocalyptic Jack Kerouac [check him out on the beatnik circuit, it will change your life! -ed]. Rollins and the band will be touring throughout summer hitting over 50 cities, all this after a sold out major market tour. As Rollins puts it, "The great bands did it on the road. Talk to James Brown. The Rollins Band tours with or without an album!" The intensity has only just begun!

Widespread Panic, "Chilly Water", Capricorn.... We have to give credit where credit is due. We first heard this band on WEQX in Vermont one afternoon, and from that point forward, we've felt that Widespread Panic is one of the most overlooked and underrated bands. "Weight Of The World" and "Walkin' (For Your Love)" set the band up in some areas in the Northeast, but for the most part, the band is new to most airwaves. From the thriving Athens music scene, these five improvisational musicians wear their influential colors well. There's a lot of Allman Brothers and Eric Clapton to be found throughout their music, and the album Space Wrangler along with the new single "Chilly Water" are proof of this. Space Wrangler was the band's first independent release and brought them to the attention of Capricorn. "Chilly Water" is pure Widespread Panic with a monster guitar jam. If you're looking for that perfect 25 plus record and group these are the boys that bring it on home plus record and group, these are the boys that bring it on home. Look for them on the H.O.R.D.E. tour with Phish and Blues Traveler.

Lance Keltner, "Light A Candle", East West.... Lance Keltner's no stranger to that part of the Southwest's one-of-a-kind style of playing. He has jammed with Lone Star musicians like Eric Johnson and Van Wilkes, and has been known for his own guitar sound that brought him to the attention of some influential people. Discovered by producer Jack Ponte (Bon Jovi/Alice Cooper) at a New Jersey show, Lance is the label's new boy wonder. With strong songwriting and guitar playing to match (playing since the age of 12) his first single "The Party's Over" was a regional favorite, and was a nice introduction to the format. This second single is a get down and get serious number that opens with an Eric Clapton-esque guitar and slides into Keltner's southern style vocals that lead up to the catchy hook that makes this a solid hit. With those high harmony vocals and polished production elements, there's a ton of crossover potential on this one. Look for "Light" to be a big female record, with enough guts to keep the male listener interested. KFMU adds this week along with earlybirds KATP and KLAQ. If you want to do a talent check on Lance listen to his version of Lee Michael's "Do You Know What I Mean" and then lay "Light A Candle" on your listeners this Tuesday.

Black Sabbath, "Dehumanization", Reprise.... The original masters of Metal return to reclaim their throne on the AOR side as well as the Metal side with the release of Dehumanizer. One thing's for sure, the group has a lot to say about how we're living our lives today. The CD starts off with "Computer God," which has an intro similar to that of Zeppelin's "The Rover" and a nice drop in tempo in the middle which breaks into a blistering guitar jam. Ronnie James Dio belts the true to form dark lyrics of "After All (The Dead)" and then "TV Crimes" delivers its timely message. "Letters From Earth" keeps you tuned because of the lyrics. "Master Of Insanity" shows what Ronnie James Dio and bandmates are capable of accomplishing when they combine all their assets. This is primed for a future single. "Sins Of The Father" is the closest thing to an Ozzy flavored tune and is a great sounding track that fans will love. "Too Late" begins with a nice fade up that glides into a flowing guitar mixed with Dio's outstanding vocals (one of the most recognizable in the biz). This is the power (and we mean power) no-wimps-allowed ballad. "I" has a great story line followed by the last track "Buried Alive" with a slick guitar solo that rounds out a project that has been long awaited and will not disappoint!

Rhino Bucket, "Get Used To It", Reprise .... Work hard, drink lots of beer and play your rock and roll loud. If your lifestyle fits into this category, you're gonna love the pounding release from Rhino Bucket. These masters of three chord rock feel there is enough room for another band that sounds like AC/DC, and so do we. Copying is the best form of flattery (in this case it's almost a crime), but Get Used To It is loaded with rockers like the single "Hey There" and album track "Beat To Death Like A Dog." "No Friend Of Mine" is a mid-tempo gem that makes its way into "The Devil Sent You". "This Ain't Heaven" could be a possible single that reminds you of "The Jack" by AC/DC. "She's A Screamer" and "Bar Time" lay down some nasty licks with some raunchy choruses to match. "Burn The World" is full of speed and starts out like Sammy Hagar's "Three Lock Box." "Ride With Yourself" is a little departure from most of the material on the album, as it wraps up with the balls to the wall "Scratch 'N' Sniff" and the harmonized and bizarre "Stomp" (from the movie Devil And Miss Jones).

Faith No More, "Angel Dust". Reprise... The original title of the album was going to be Crack Hitler but that didn't sit too well with the men upstairs -- so Angel Dust it is. Faith No More is a group that always keeps one guessing, and this new effort does just that. After the success of their last album, one would tend to think that F.N.M. would follow up with a similar styled record. Think again. If anything else, they're stepping out and experimenting, pushing Mike Patton's vocals to the limits. The album opens up with "Land Of Sunshine" that is full of crazed memories of days gone by. "Caffeine" pulls you into the crankin' universe of biting guitarist Jim Martin. We are all familiar with the single "MidLife Crisis" that rolls along and keeps your interest by its twisting infectious groove. "Everything's Ruined" has possible single written on it, and "Malpractice" is a dark and haunting screamer. "Kindergarten" is instrumentally palatable with F.N.M.'s classic way of delivering a hook. "Be Aggressive" is a disturbing piece that hits home if you're a man with a conscience. "A Small Victory" could be another future single and is the most mainstream (if that's possible) track for AOR. "Crack Hitler" and "Jizzlobber" (gotta love the name) are wild and aggressive tracks that play up to the closing number and remake of "Midnight Cowboy." When most bands would be satisfied with just being stable, F.N.M thrives on being disturbingly different.

Hard Report Card

Bono (not the mayor of Palm Springs) and company snag the most added slot this week with a heart stopping 91 adds. Included in the throng of support are: KLOS, KOME, KSHE, KTXQ, WAAF, WHCN, WIYY, WLLZ, WMMR, WNEW, WONE (HARVE!!), WPLR, WYNF and WZZR. ACHTUNG...baby! John Cooper of WPYX on U2, "I think U2's 'Even Better Than The Real Thing' will be their biggest AOR track yet from Achtung Baby." Look at this HH move:  $49-12^{*!!!} \blacklozenge \diamondsuit \diamondsuit \diamondsuit$

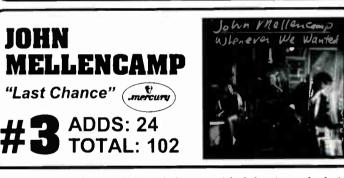

Melissa Etheridge, "2001", (7/96): Missy always brings a warm feeling to our little hearts and this little tune is no exception. This week 7 stations get misty and add it to their airwaves: KXFX, WEZX, WGIR, WJXQ, WRXK, WWTR and WZZO. Ms. Etheridge gets bumped up by WHCN, WROV, WTKX and WWWV. Not just friends and family are requesting as KECH, KLBJ, WDRK, WHCN WIZN

We will admit, however, that the LaBrea Tar Pits are a must-see for anyone who would like to put their life in perspective. Oh! The sad fate of LaBrea Woman!! Hey how about them L.A. Guns? The folks at Pirate, L.A. Guns? The folks at Pirate, WAQZ, WRZK and WXKE all added this week.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$

24 adds is good enough for third most added thanks to the help of: KOME, KOZZ, WEZX, WKGB, WKLS, WLUP and 18 others. Another stellar week is in the bag for Tom Cochrane as he picks up 22 including WNEW, KDJK, KUPD, WWWV, WNOR among others. "No Regrets" is leaving no regrets on airwaves nationwide (and, of course, in Canada). 4 increases along with the new adds add up to a 58-44\* move on the Hard Hundred while Mad Mad World jumped 29-24\* on the Hard LP chart. Ty Banks (KQWB) espoused the virtues of both single and album saying, "I am excited to be on 'No Regrets' by Tom Cochrane this week. Mad Mad World is an album that demands your uninterrupted attention. Never has an album been so atmospheric, so worldly, so vast and so intriguing, while telling so many stories from such a wide array of perspectives. Mad Mad World is and always will be in my home collection. Tom, you have topped yourself (so far!)." So have you, Ty, now please stand up and take a bow.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge b$ ve", (17/162): Although 162 stations strong, Joe managed easy adds at WMMR, KECH, CILQ, WAOR and more to total 17 for this week alone. His updated rockin' version of Gary Wright's surrealistic, '70s sensation has people like Steve Becker of WCGY speaking, "Moving to Heavy this week (and a great reaction record) is Joe Cocker and 'Love Is Alive' (fantastic send-up, I usually hate remakes, this one takes the song to another level)." With Top 5 phones at 11, here's a sure fire hit, even if you didn't like it the first time.  $\diamond \diamond \diamond \diamond \diamond$  Slik Toxik, "White Lies, Black Truth, (8/12): KATP, KJKJ, KFMX, KROK, KZGL, WAQZ, WRZK and WZLZ were listed as new adds this week for

(8/12): KATP, KJKJ, KFMX, KROK, KZGL, WAQZ, WRZK and WZLZ were listed as new adds this weck for Capitol's steadily building metal project. Ron Stryker (WHMH) was in need of a boot in the butt this week and got just what he sought, "Slik Toxik kicks my ass!" If you're looking for a dose of the Hard stuff, inject 10 CC's of Slik Toxik into your musical vein.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$

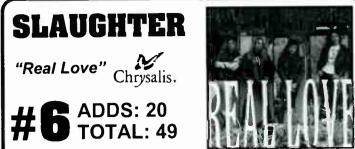

Hey, we're horny too, okay....okay!! Although we prefer antipsychotics ourselves, we'll tell you about this week's NIRVANAMANIA. Adds from KDJK, KUFO, WBAB, WMMS (hi Mike!), WPDH (hi Bill!), and 15 others move yet another track from Nevernind up the HH 21-20\*. About the only thing that's not big about this album is the little baby's peepee. Get out the mop and clean up some lights and this track will explode!!  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$  Galactic Cowboys, "I'm Not Amused", (4/37): You're not amused! For cosmic relief, check out the spacey music banditos searching for the perfect radio waves at KIOZ and three others this week with requests already pouring into KNCN. Whoopi Goldberg for their cosmic relief efforts. Thank the omnipotent cosmos Tor that state of relief. Incidentally, KNCN and KLOL move the track up this time around. HH move is 77-69\* and COR 31-27\*.

Though this sophomore effort is not the overnight sensation "Stick It To Ya" was, don't be too hasty in your judgement. "The Wild Life" has staying power, and "Real Love" is catching on. The track picks up 20 adds including KBER, KFMX, KICT, KISS KLAQ, KLCX, KPOI, KRZR, KUPD, WAZU, WKLQ, WKLT, WLZR, WNCD, WRCN, WWBZ, WWTR, WXTB, WZNF and WZXL. WHMH has Top 5 phone action on this mid-tempo rocker. Progress continues on the charts with a 74-54\* Hard Hundred increase. More good news comes in on the COR chart, as "Real Love" is turning out to be a "real" record with a 24-14\* jump. The album continues its move upward, 53-44\* on the Hard album chart. KLCX's Al Scott threw this in the meat grinder, "The new Slaughter track 'Real Love' makes the cut this week as well. This is a great all daypart record with a killer melody. Way to go, Slaughter!" Slaughter continues their cross country blitz with Ozzy Osbourne. It's a show not to be missed!  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$

Hard Report Card

The Huff Brothers deliver a very solid track from their latest project, one that may find itself a contender in more than one format arena. This follow up to "Chained" lands the #62 slot in its debut on the Hard Hundred. The single also makes its debut on the COR at 28\*, while Time To Burn scorches up the album chart 58-49\* (a breath of fresh air). "Stay" pulls in 20 adds including KAZY, KBAT, KCLB, KEYJ, KIBZ, KJKJ, KLBJ, KLCX, KNCN, KOME, KQRC, KRNA, KRXX, KSQY, KZGL, WHMH, WKIT, WLZR, WNOR and WZZR. KSQY's Jim Kallas laid this one on us, "Giant has yet another winner with "Stay" and the accustic version comes in real handy during the 'Stay' and the acoustic version comes in real handy during the daytime. Watch this band achieve super-stardom real soon!" WONE and J.D. are ready to party down, "On July 4th weekend the very first Akron Rib and Music Festival will take place in downtown Akron as Main Street is transformed into one huge barbecued restaurant. There will be plenty of ribs to sample from over 20 local rib venders, plus musical entertain-ment from Giant!" KJKJ's Michael Cross raved, "The new Giant is the summertime smash of '92! 'Stay' will have the staying power to see this one hang on the playlist for quite awhile!" KAZY's Lois Todd rounds things out, "Finally, if you didn't add 'Stay' this week, make an appointment with your ear doctor -- 'cuz you're deaf!!" ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ ▲ Iron Maiden, "Wasting Love", (16/20): Metal's finest tones things down a bit for their newest single, and comes up with a powerful ballad that showcases Bruce Dickinson's considerable vocal talent. And the addition of guitarist Janick Gers helps flesh out the band (even Eddie looks a little neater these days) and brings more dimension to the project. Case in point, 10 stations report major ringing in the ears including KEZE, KGGO, KLPX, KMJX, KZRR, WEQX, WIOT, WKGB, WKIT and WNEW. 7 rotation increases are reported by KGGO, KZRR, WBCN, WDHA, WKIT, WLZR and WMMS. 12 new adds from KATS, KEYJ, KJOT, KLBJ, KMOD, WEGR, WFBQ, WKOC, WMFX, WYNF and WZZO. The "Doctors" are spinning their way up the charts, 41-38\* on the Hard Hundred, and 41-35\* on the Hard album chart.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$  Firehouse, "Reach For The Sky", (10/83): The "House" is definitely heating up! A total of 83 stations are playing this bonafide rocker, with 10 adds this week from KBAT, KDJK, KGGO, KLPX, KQLZ, WKIT, WLZR, WTKX, WWWV and WXKE. More proof that this sophomore effort isn't encountering any stumbling blocks are the Top 5 phone reaction from KATM, KBER, KILO, KRZR,

WWWV and WXKE. More proof that this sophomore effort isn't encountering any stumbling blocks are the Top 5 phone reaction from KATM, KBER, KILO, KRZR, WAPL, WCIZ, WHMH, WRDU, WXRC and WZZR, and rotation bumps from 9 other stations. If that hasn't convinced you to "reach for" this track, check out the chart action. The single moves 39-36* on the Hard Hundred, breaks the COR Top 10 with a 12-9* jump, and "Hold Your Fire" increases 37-34*. Firehouse continues to ignite audiences, as they pound the pavement with Tesla. ◆ ◆ ◆ ◆ Allman Brothers, "Melissa", (3/71): At the risk of sounding trite and nostalgic, hey, you just don't get anymore legendary than this! The "A" Brothers strong return in the last few years has made that fact all the more clear, and this is a healthy reminder. The track picks up adds from KBOY, KGSR and WGRF, and Top 5 hones are happening at WAVF, WBCN, WCGY, WHCN, and WYNF. The single hangs in at 45* on the Hard Hundred, while the live album steps up a notch 39-38* ◆ ◆ ◆

Faith No More is having a "MidLife Crisis" many men and women would kill for. Success has started to ring in for Reprise's bad boys as the strong single picked up 18 including heavy after heavy (KILO, WMMR, WIYY, KLOL, WBCN, KTYD and more). Top requests came down at PIRATE, WXTB, KXFX and WKLO while increased rotation at 5 produced a 59-47* jump on the Hard Hundred. Angel Dust debuted at 45* on the Hard 60. WRDU's Tom Guild likes the song and feels, "It sounds like a Faith No More record, but it doesn't sound exactly like the rest of their stuff. They are true to their own sound without copying themselves." FNM is shooting up the C.O.R. chart, this week from 21-17*. • • • • •

Lindsey Buckingham, "Wrong", (18/106): Fashion has been mentioned more than once when in the context of Lindsey Buckingham and his latest effort, but you must admit--a black mock turtle neck looks mighty handsome on the boy. Speaking of handsome, it came in black ink this week as "Wrong" drafted 18 more including KLOS, WIOT, WBCN, KXRX and WNOR. Lindsey's unique sound (with the hint of Fleetwood Mac) made increased airplay routine at 5 to include KFOG, KRNA, KBCO, KPEZ and WWEX Michael Vourg at WIOT "wasp't too sure what to think when L was told the new Lindsey WWRX. Michael Young at WIOT "wasn't too sure what to think when I was told the new Lindsey Buckingham was in. But to be honest, it could be the biggest surprise of '92." If you get a chance, check

Buckingham was bumped up 7 from 29-22* (HH) as Out Of The Cradle moved 31-25* on the Hard LP chart. ♦ ♦ ♦ ♦ Rhino Bucket, "Hey There", (6/8): If heavy rock is your ticket, you've got a front row seat with Rhino Bucket. Influenced by AC/DC, they were inspired from the best. The lyrics are hard hitting, and the vocals are raw and determined. Remember "One Night Stand"? Yep. Good stuff. Rmember "Train Ride"? In the words of the band, "It has absolutely nothing to do with trains. But it does have to do with a ride". You'll find the same attitude on the new project and its already appealing to many

After a couple of listens to del Amitri's newest effort, you'll no doubt find yourself returning to the album, and in partic-ular, to this track. It's "warm as whiskey" feel is a del Amitri trademark, and one that has the ability to appeal to a wide cross section of listeners. The charts reflect this, as "Always" steps up 37-28* on the Hard Hundred, and 10-6* on the AAA. steps up 3/-28* on the Hard Hundred, and 10-6* on the AAA. Though the official add date is a few weeks the official add date is a few weeks away, you can't stop music this good. You probably already know this was released in '91 and includes Soundgarden, Mother Love Bone and

Pearl Jam members. MTV has "Hunger Strike" in stress rotation and the buzz is huge on the streets. This is a collaboration of creativity that resulted in some of the most heartfelt and unique music to ever come from these brilliant musicians. KEZE and KTYD already have Top 5 phones on the track and KISW (of course) has it in heavy rotation along with KEZE. Reaction: KLCX's Al Scott, "Musically, this week we added the Temple Of The Dog smash, 'Hunger Strike.' Phones will go nuts on this puppy!" KJKJ's Michael Cross, "Musically, we've been starving for 'Hunger Strike' from Tem-ple Of The Dog! An absolute killer cut from one of my ple Of The Dog! Close", (1/6): Is it just us, or did Pete have a HUGE AOR HIT with his last album? Are you all just ASLEEP? We'll just assume that you had to rearrange your sock drawer this week and just plain forgot to add Pctey's new ef-fort. Hey, why go off on this diatribe when Kate Willis of KCLB is just manic about this situation, "For two years, au-about this situation, "For two years, au-diences across America have been wait-ing for the new Peter Murphy. Well it's here -- and it's good --so why aren't you playing it? 'You're So Close' is among our Top 5 phones after one week of airplay. If you play David Bowie in gold, why not play 'You're So Close' too? This is the type of music Bowie should be making today. And since he isn't, give your audience what they yearn for." We will commend the folks at KFOG for adding this week and give a a big thumbs up to KFMU, WEQX, KCLB, WAVF and WZZR for spinning "You're So Close."  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$

"Man In The Box" is still a major song for many as a recurrent and a supplemental cut in libraries from coast to coast. The in-your-face uniqueness of the song made it ultra appealing, which is the case once again with "Would?" from the Singles soundtrack. Picking up 15 new stations with ease (KEYJ, KSAQ, WOUR, WGIR and more), Alice In Chains whet appetites for future releases. Top 5 phones at WIOT, KGON, KRXX and WTKX coupled with 3 increases make a move of 57-49\* on the Hard Hundred.  $\blacklozenge \diamondsuit \diamondsuit \diamondsuit$  Bruce Springsteen, "57 Channels", (12/158): It may be argued that stations not playing the latest Boss cut have "Nothin' On." That's how good this simple, tongue-in-cheek single is. With 12 new notches in the Springsteen belt, it's time to hike up the pants and suck in the gut for a pcacock strut to the top of the charts. "57" shoots to the top of the charts. from 11-4\*, aiming for #1 in near re-cord time. If the original release of the song isn't quite what you need, the Little Steven mix will fit the bill.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$  Toad The Wet Sprocket, "All I Want", (11/121): Toad The Wet Sprocket has a strange name, there's little doubt about that. But that's the only thing strange about this band. Their songs are encrgetic, smoothly produced and beautifully written. "All" follows suit, as a hit with a great hook, continuing to move up the Hard Hundred. This weck the Toad hops 20-18\* while Fear leaps 23-18\* on the Hard 60.  $\blacklozenge$   $\blacklozenge$   $\blacklozenge$   $\blacklozenge$  James McMurtry, "Where's Johnny", (4/28): Here's an adult spe-

Hey, don't be allergic to a hit, okay?  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$

Another solid week of adds with WBCN and KLOL leading the pack. Increases from KBOY, KDJK, WKLS and seven others move the track 34-30\* on the hunnerd. Phones are ringin' at KBAT, KLBJ, KMMS, WCIZ, WQBZ, WQNY. Jim Kallas of KSQY took time out of his busy day to opine, The Zoo keeps bringing in positive reaction and could go all the way!" They - could - go - all - the - way, heh, heh, heh! Hey, pick up on this now and don't get trapped hanging out to  $dry!! \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$

Look for the single to debut on the Hard Hundred again in the next few weeks as the band gears up for their stadium tour with Metallica next month.  $\diamond \diamond \diamond \diamond \diamond$  Tesla, "Song & Emotion", (7/133): If there's one band out there that plays night after night with "Song & Emotion" it would have to be Tesla. Psy-chotic Supper's success has surprised many, since it was a departure from their first two projects. "Song And Emotion" treads up the HH 19-15\* and 8-5\* on the COR. The phones are strong as KBAT, KBER, KRXX, KSOY, WKOQ and WNCD report Top 5 activity. 26 stations bring up the rotation.  $\bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet$  Roxy Blue, "Luv On Me", (2/5): These are pretty solid days for Geffen as their newst rocking unit is primed and ready for Tuesday's action. ## Impact Tracks

Matthew Sweet, "I've Been Waiting", Zoo (8/20): You've been waiting!?! We've been waiting! It's been three months at the least since we've first been exposed to Matthew Sweet's Girlfriend on such a wide, mass appeal level. So far, he's been the greatest "discovery" on the AOR sphere with its beginnings dated toward the end of last year. Was it just plain reluctancy when he first emerged -- or was it more a case of the jitters, testing the water ever so slowly, until it was absolutely, positively safe to go all the way in? That method was beneficial in the long run, but let's not wait so long this time; "I've Been Waiting" is just the right temperature now at KBCO, KECH, KFMU, WDHA, WHCN, WKIT, WRNX and WRXL. Its debut strike at 81* registers with some immediacy!

Gary Moore, "Story Of The Blues", Charisma (7/101): Seems every time you turn around, Gary Moore's caught sneaking up on you. He manages to cross the 100 station benchmark once again for this sultry song for the majestic season of promise and possibility. His "Still Got The Blues" has been certified legendary; both for its epic effort at radio and for its place in the ever-developing chronicles of the blues. And that soft, deft touch is present once again for his latest foray into the craft which he represents with class and distinction. The legend lives on this week at KISS, KLBJ, WDRK, WEZX, WHEB, WKLQ and WZRR. The story for Gary on the Hard Hundred is 22-21* -- and counting.

Cracker, "Teen Angst (What The World Needs Now)", Virgin (7/111): No

beating around the bush, they know exactly what the world needs now. But they disguise it in such a way that they come off sounding immodest. It's right there in the very first line, but it gets tricky. It goes like this: "I don't know what the world may need/but I'm sure as hell that it starts with me." Forget it, how 'bout a V-8 engine? Or some words of wisdom like la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la? A new Frank Sinatra? Another folk singer? The list goes on -- but it's the music that matters. And it matters at KEZO, KTXQ, KUFO, WBTZ, WJXQ, WQBZ and WTKX this session. No crumbs yet as it holds firmly at 23*.

Flame, "Rain", Giant (6/27): In the realm of cartoons, The Simpsons and Ren and Stimpy are re-writing the rule book. And so it shall be with children's nursery rhymes in the realm of rock radio. Flame is part of that province being touted. Mother Goose and The Brother's Grimm need to be updated for the '90s as well, and we have just the parallel with "Rain", "Rain", don't go away/all the AORs want to come to the airwaves and play. Desperate measures for desperate times. And this is about as desperate as it gets. Hope you understand! KCLB, KLBJ, KOME, KQWB, KRQR and WZZR provide the butane, as it ignites on the HH, 95-86*.

Jesus And Mary Chain, "Far Gone And Out", Def American (4/24): It's been a long process; an evolution in a sense. But it's becoming too long and drawn out. That's the crossover period from the initial Alternative support to the AOR deployment. It's becoming much more prevalent -and it assists in picking up The Jesus And Mary Chain for its latest courting -- but the realization still has some consciences to dawn upon. Let's not get too greedy, though, the need and response times seem to be much more urgent. Their names may be weird, but their music is vital. That can't be argued with at KAVE, KECH, WPDH and WYNF. They sit at 100-92* on the HH.

of pickup trucks, gun racks, hoe downs or any other reference to the good-old-boy way of life you may be entertaining in your imagination about Los Lobos. Because they're irrelevant this time around. AOR-optic music definitely has a place reserved for Los and the Lobos gang. And always will. Just because some fresh new blood is being infused on a more regular basis doesn't mean mainstays of the mainstream have to phased out. Just the opposite is true -- they wear well and fit snugly into its highly demanded time slot. Bear in mind the airplay from KZYR, WBOS and WDHA, along with the increases from KMMS, WGIR, WKXE and WVGO. Its bearings are intact on the HH, 64-57*.

Doc Lawrence, "Come Dry Your Eyes", Chameleon/Elektra (4/8): We don't know where he got his medical degree, but he sure put it to good use in the music industry. And in answer to the timeless question of 'What's up, Doc?,' Lawrence would respond 'Stop Crying!' Now that's a tried and true prescription coming from a consummate professional. Doc Lawrence, the RxPert. But for a more in depth study of the man and his current thesis, please do yourself a favor and at least give this one the opportunity it deserves on the Home Office CD Spinner. KBAT, KFMU, WKIT and WRUF arrive right behind KMMS, WZZQ, KBOY and KFMH. You'll be fighting back the tears.

Babylon A.D., "Bad Blood", Arista (3/58): No, this isn't a topical tune about the plight and plague of our times. It's a traditional rock excursion about purging oneself through whatever indulgent exercises one may need to purify oneself. In this case, we'll leave it up to Babylon A.D. and your own personal thought waves in order to draw your own conclusions. Thumping and pumping seem to come up a lot, though. But the answer may be the song itself. Just let it take you to places you haven't been to in a while, shake off the cobwebs, and allow the good blood to begin flowing. WAQZ, WXKE and WYNF subscribe this week, with a HH bypass, 54-50*.

Delbert McClinton, "Everytime I Roll The Dice", Curb (7/139): Snake Eyes

are not in the cards for Delbert and friends in the near future. With a supporting cast (well chronicled by now) featuring Bonnie Raitt and Melissa Etheridge, there's no way he (or you) can lose. Blow on those bones, rattle 'em around once or twice, and let 'em roll. The gamble's minimal, and the payoff is substantial. As evidenced by his Top 5 phone response over the past six weeks. WXRC's Eric Scott furnishes this fun fact: "28-35-year-olds really like this tune. He's really hitting the AOR charts here." 12-26-year-olds and 36 and over will just have to wait. On the air at KZYR, WHCN and WIMK -- he's in the Top 10 where he belongs.

The Sighs, "Think About Soul", Charisma (4/29): You get the feeling this guy thinks about soul? Well, on the Newsweek cover this past week, they think about Sister Souljah. But that's just irreverent fodder for the masses. But whatever The Sighs thinks about, the style screams killer guitar-driven pop, and the method suggests overt competency -- which makes tons of sense when you consider the production job done by Ed Stasium and the combined skills melded by Bobby LaRoche, Tommy Pluta, Matt Cullen and Tommy Borawski. KBOY, WDHA, WEQX and WKDF Sighs this one up; we're positive you'll like the fit. The HH marks the progress at 87-74*.

INXS. "Heaven Sent". Atlantic We're just as surprised writing up a group whose last few records enjoyed more CHR success than AOR. The winds may change direction this time around, since this new single is a back to roots rocker that is reminiscent of earlier times in the band's history. Look for history to repeat itself, with the band recapturing much of their huge rock oriented audience.

C.O.C. "Vote With A Bullet", Relativity Granted that the band has a major bite to their music, but given the street talk and the video's rotation on Headbanger's Ball, C.O.C. has a lot to say and people are listening. As KRXQ's Pamela Roberts says, "They do get tons of calls as a band and poeple are totallystoked that we're playing them".KNAC has been playing it for 4 months and still get 30 to 40 calls a week.

Bonham, "Change Of A Season", WTG/Epic Though the tempo may not be exactly what most COR stations are into, most will agree it's Bonham and the listeners want to hear it. WHMH wins the "out of the box" award and OM Scott Kluhn put it like this, "People have been calling us for two weeks about this record. Bonham is definitely one of the more important acts developing in the '90s, and we've had it in rotation for two weeks!" Look for a major league debut next week!

Saigon Kick, "Love Is On The Way", Atlantic KBER and KSAQ add this week to help "Love" debut on the COR at 46*. The programmer's track of choice from the album The Lizard, all it takes is just one listen and no more explanation. As Corey KBER Draper sez, "I think it will be huge if people will take it in. No problem with AORs like us. They should be cranking it."

Roxy Blue, "Luv On Me", Geffen San Deigo's Peg Pollard pretty much summed things up, "This is just basic give-the-kids-what-they-want rock and roll!" Scott Kluhn at WHMH believes, "It could be a strong contender for one of the best power ballads of the year!" With Mike Clink (GN'R and Whitesnake) twisting the knobs on Roxy's freshman project, there's not much more to say, but Corey Draper will say it anyway! "We think it's a great song and we moved it up to heavy."

Soul Kitchen, "I Need It Bad", Giant Despite the total mainstream sound of the track, KIOZ is giving the tune some earl spins. With Jeff Wilson's voice (as power packed as Steve Marriot's) mixing things up with the Lush brothers Black Crowe's vibe, this is one to watch.

Rollins Band, "Tearing", Imago Black Flag's ex-frontman impacted the Metal side with his solo effort "End Of Silence" a few months back. Despite minimal airplay, the band managed to sell out a major market tour and is gearing up for another tour throughout the summer. If you shied away from the rough texture of the first single, you may find "Tearing" a bit more focused.

Temple OF The Dog, "Hunger Strike", A&M By all means the biggest buzz record of the week -- and it should be. With members from Pearl Jam, Soundgarden and Mother Love Bone, you can't go wrong. Even though the album was released in '91, many COR stations dipped into it back then. Gregg "L.A.'s Metal Man" Steele is already getting tons of response and says, "This is the perfect marriage of talent. We played some other songs off the album a year ago, and we're giving them another shot!"

Iron Maiden, "Wasting Love", Epic Maiden's most palatable track to date. KSAQ is rotating in heavy with early phones. MTV added the video to "Headbanger's Ball" this week and their tour is bound to be one of the biggest rolling across the States! From Darren Arriens at WLZR, "I had to double check the CD sleeve to make sure I was listening to the right band. This is the perfect tune to prime the audience for our upcoming show." New at 31*.

Adult Alternative Airplay

Tori Amos, "Crucify" Atlantic A little garlic and a lot of talent are the ingredients of Little Earthquakes. Tori's music is the voice of every woman speaking to the soul of every man (although they may not want to admit its brutal honesty), and the hip Triple A-sters have claimed her has their own. Adds from KFOG and WRNX help to elevate "Crucify" to 17* on the chart. This format has always been especially receptive to female artists (thankfully), and we can look forward to a long relationship with this minister's daughter.

Matthew Sweet, "I've Been Waiting", Zoo Matthew Sweet has probably had to wait for a lot of things in his life, like this third solo outing before the masses discovered him. The good news is that he hasn't had to wait for recognition from the world of Adult Alternative. "Girlfriend" had a nice run on the chart, and we can expect the same for "I've Been Waiting," the highest debuting record at 32*. WEQX, KFOG, WVGO, WWCD and KZYR are joined by KBCO, KFMU and WRNX. Those who've already enjoyed a run with this track should check out "Evangeline."

Roger Daltrey, "Days Of Light", Atlantic While the Who may not be synonymous with Adult Alternative, the Who-less Daltry has fit in comfortably at the format (who can forget his solo debut all those years ago with a batch of Leo Sayer tunes). "Days" is the #1 Most Added track this week, and one of those adds came from KEYV, where Jackie Selby commented, "Out of the box, we were thrilled with 'Days Of Light.' Roger has really grown as a writer, and that's evident in this song. He's such a high profile artist for the format, and this song is going to do really well."

Cruel Shoes, "Baltimore Joe", RCA John Palumbo's latest artistic outlet is Cruel Shoes and their eponymous debut album makes a nice shift from Crack The Sky. "Baltimore Joe" hits the chart running at 35* -- thanks to KBCO, KZYR, KTAO, WKXE, KAVE, KEYV, KOPT, KTCZ, KFOG and WHPT. Cruel Shoes has a somewhat familiar sound to Tom Krumm at KAVE, "I really like it because I like Steely Dan. Now that Steely Dan is not around, it's great to have Cruel Shoes. It's not only the sound, but the lyrics that remind me of Steely Dan."

Los Lobos, "That Train Can't Stop", Slash/WB The Triple A community hasn't wasted any time with Kiko, an album that could be the most important complete musical statement of the year. "Reva's House" has reached 5* and is a serious threat to the Indigo Girls' coveted #1 slot. Meanwhile, "That Train" picks up steam from WKXE, KEYV, KTHX, KAVE, WWCD and WVGO, taking this song to 40*. KAVE's most quotable Tom Krumm had this to say, "This whole album sounds great. I like the diversity -- it's not all one sound -- it seems to hit upon many areas, and yet, manages to sound distinctly like Los Lobos."

Michelle Shocked, "Come A Long Way", Mercury The latest track from the eclectic Arkansas Traveler has steadily been climbing the chart and emerges this week at 19*. Dal Hunter at WVGO reminded us to watch for Michelle's must see acoustic tour this summer, and he also added, "We've wanted to play this song for six weeks and we finally have enough room. We know it's going to work great for us. 'Come A Long Way' has a bluegrass bass, but still sounds very modern, getting better with each successive spin. In a nutshell, it's a perfect transition record -- flowing with elements that speak to both classic ears and modern attitude."

On the horizon: Joan Armatrading, Cosmic Free Way, Jump In The Water, The Daou, and give Rodney Crowell another listen.

THE HARD REPORT

WHITE TO MANAGE WW1 NY STATIONS

Richard White has been appointed Station Manager for Westwood One's New York outlets WNEW-AM and WYNY-FM. In making the announcement, Bob Moore, WW1 Executive VP, stated, "I am extremely delighted to have such a charismatic leader as Rich White at our New York properties. I've known Rich for over 10 years and followed his career from his days at Major Market to his tenure with Greater Media. He has always demonstrated an ability to motivate people and increase sales and ratings." "I am, of course, very happy to be joining one of America's foremost broadcasting companies," said White, "and look forward to working with the legendary WNEW-AM, New York's most famous call letters, and WYNY, the nation's most listened-to Country music station. I am also eager to work with Norm Pattiz, Bob Moore, and the talented staff Westwood One has assembled in New York." White has spent more than 20 years in broadcasting, most recently as General Manager of WCTC-AM and WMGQ-FM in New Brunswick, NJ, since April of 1991.

MERCURY PROMOTES TIM HYDE

Tim Hyde has been promoted to Director of Alternative romotion at Mercury Records. The announcement was made by David Leach, Senior VP/Promotion. Prior to this appointment, Hyde was Manager, Alternative Promotion at the label. Before joining Mercury, Hyde spent five years as PD at KUSF. Leach commented, "Tim is very deserving of his His recent promotion. success has been exceptional. His department has done an Mercury as a true leader in the alternative music arena." Hyde stated, "I am grateful to Drew Murray and David Leach for their consistent support of myself and the alternative music format. I look forward to continuing the unprecedented success that Mercury has enjoyed over the past several months. This year has begun with a bang, and I am very excited about the explosions to come."

ISLAND UPS HOWIE MIURA

In other alternative news, Howie Miura has been appointed to the position of Director, Alternative Promotion and Marketing for Island's independent labels. In making the announcement, General Manager Andy Allen said, "Howie is uniquely qualified for this position. His history with our roster, combined with his knowledge of our marketplace and tremendous energy, makes him a welcome addition to our family of independent labels."

founder of Island Records also commented, "Howie's enthusiasm and passion for all types of music makes him perfectly suited for this position at Island. He has a history of breaking down traditional format barriers at radio, which is a key reason why we are so happy to have him here." For the past year, Miura served as the Alternative Promotion Manager for the PolyGram Label Group. Prior to that, he spent two years working in a similar position at Island.

THE WEEK IN RADIO MIAMI BOUND BILL PUGH

WRXL PD Bill Pugh was exiting WSHE/Miami PD Brian Krysz's first choice for the gig -- and as was hinted in last week's Noise, the hire was a done deal as of last Friday. Brian comments, "Bill and I have known each other for a long time. He has always been one of the finer people in the business. When it looked like something might be happening here, even before Dallas, I put together a list of people I'd like to see come in to continue with the great group of people at WSHE -- and Bill by the time of the list".... Apparently, Pugh flew down to Miami late last Thursday, met with GM Gary Lewis and owner John Tenaglia, then on Friday zipped to Orlando for talks and dinner with PD Jim Steele and GM Frank Tenore, and by the time he touched down in Richmond on Monday it was a done deal. How extensive will Pugh's involvement in the Orlando facility be? "That hasn't really been laid out. But Jimmy (Steele) is an intelligent, sharp guy who knows what the game plan is for the way everything works, and that should make things much easier for me." What's the immediate goal? "Getting WSHE from a 3.5 to a 4.0, and from there, to concentrate on specific demos. Obviously, Brian has done a great job, and I would like to go in and just enhance it." Naturally we had to ask if Bill's stim with Atco gives him the inside track in terms of dealing with Record types. "Of course. I already know the game, especially going back into a P1 situation. There is just much more on the line for your call letters to be associated with this or that record. Yes, I can make deals with the best of them, and I can do it without compromising the station"... Finally, how comfortable is Bill with WSHE's more current/rock intensive approach? "When I took over WKDF it was much more Top 40 oriented, courtesy of Smokey Rivers, and WKLS was leaning more lower end when I was there. I agree with the Tom Owens mentality. If the texture fits the station's sound it doesn't matter who or what it is. WEBN adding Toad The Wet Sprocket is a perfect example. I didn't play Ozzy in Richmond, but given the competitive situation with WYGO, how could I? I was looking for stuff I could jam up their ass, and that wasn't Ozzy. Bottom line... I'm just happy to be back in a market with real baseball and football." Paul Shugrue is the interim WRXL PD, with Bill already on site in Miami as you read this.

MARLOWE MAKES THE MOVE!

The story broke right at deadline -- and nobody else has it!! WHJY MD Phil "The Rock And Roll Dick" Marlowe has accepted the Assistant PD/MD job at WCCC/Hartford. We got patched through at 5:05 last Thursday, just a scant fifteen minutes after Mr. Marlowe gave notice, and WHJY's Bill Weston confirmed the rumor. "Phil had decided that he was going to be here for a couple of years. He got married and just bought a house three months ago -- but WCCC came to him, approached

"Phil had decided that he was going to be here for a couple of years. He got married and just bought a house three months ago -- but WCCC came to him, approached him, and met his terms. I always applaud upward moves. It's not a bigger market, but he will have increased responsibilities. He has learned a lot as MD, and I think he can make a difference in the Hartford market"... Phil's outta WHJY after July 10th, so interested, qualified applicants for music/nights are encouraged to whip T&R to Mr. Weston ASAP.

THE WEEK IN RADIO CFNY...THE SPIRIT OF RADIO?

According to Toronto newspapers, CFNY/Brampton fired 8 workers last Tuesday (6/23) including long time staffers Don Berns, Neil Mann, Skot Turner and Rick Charles. The station a loading force in the alternative force in the state of the st station, a leading force in the alternative format in the '80s, has undergone several changes in direction in the last few years. According to a report filed by Toronto Sun columnist Gary Dunford, the station may be headed toward a classic rock format. Canadian radio insiders tell us that the station's owners have filed documents with the CRTC stating CFNY would be making the shift in the immediate future. One report says this could happen as early as Canada Day (July 1), while others point towards August 1. Also raised is the possibility that there will be no alteration. CFNY GM Vince DiMaggio is known for his bottom line oriented style of management and this move could have been a function of budget cutting. Since January 19, people have been terminated by the station. Also on the line are the significant amount of time buys that Canadian record companies have on the station. Most are contingent upon the station's on the station. Most are contingent upon the station's current format and would be jeopardized in the event of a switch to classic rock. Perhaps DiMaggio said it best to Dunford, "If you're looking for any direction change on the air, you'll have to keep listening...Change is a fact of life. What's going to happen will be really interesting to find out. In the meantime, station vet Don Berns (who is an American) is looking for opportunities. 416-843-2709. You may reach him at

No, this isn't a new rendition of the Sgt. Pepper album cover. This photo was taken at Capitol's 50th Anniversary celebration. Can you spot all the past and present Capitol artists? How about Mayor Tom Bradley? Mike Woo? Hale Milgrim? The Eggman? The Walrus?

ANOTHER CAPITOL PHOTO. As more stations add Tom Cochrane's "No Regrets", the more he's allowed out of his native Canada. You know, they love him so much up north that this Canuck is celebrating platinum six times over on his "Mad Mad World" album. Here he is comparing shirts with Capitol's Hale Milgrim. Oh, if you missed TC on his Smithereens tour, he'll be back in August.

MUST'VE BEEN THOSE BUS STOP BENCHES! Hey! It's official Richard Marx has a platinum album! Seen here laughing it up with Richard are Capitol's Jeremy Hammond, Hale Milgrim, John Fagot and Lou Mann. Yes, Hale did hug Richard after this photo. Thank you.

DAY OF THE JACKYL...CONSULTANTS AMUSED, SPOOKED BY STUNT

Geffen Records act Jackyl caused quite a stir recently at a restaurant in their hometown of Marietta, Ga. Lead singer Jesse James Dupree, wielding a chainsaw, carved the band's name into a table chaired by Geffen's George Cappellini, with several industry heavies in attendance. All of this excitement will be part of the band's upcoming video which also includes footage of an impromptu flatbed truck performance at a local K Mort. That performance took place several days earlier in an win be part of the bind a peopling video thick and a local K-Mart. That performance took place several days carlier in an effort to convince K-Mart brass to rack said Jackyl record. As you might expect, Geffen's guests at the restaurant had differing opinions about the incident. Among those in attendance were Joint's Tom Barnes (thumbs down) and Burkhart/Douglas' Greg Gillespie (thumbs up). Both were told by the label that they were being invited to lunch to help out with a training video for Geffen's local staff. Barnes told us, "One of the things that pissed me off, was it was under the guise of helping the new local people, to educate the new guys, otherwise I would have never gone. I had way too many things to do, but silly me, I just wanted to help somebody." Gillespie on the other hand was impressed. "I thought it was a great stunt. We were invited to go to a lunch to discuss the potential for shooting a video for Geffen's field staff on how they could better understand and serve radio." The warm fuzzy feeling of helping mankind quickly disappeared. The band burst into the restaurant, past several people waiting to be seated and began their mischief. When Dupree placed the buzzing tool onto the table it quickly began splintering, with pieces striking Barnes and other patrons. "Little pieces of the formica started nailing people; a little shard hit me in the eye...that shit was really flying! The last thing I want to do is be whiny about promotions, but there was serious potential for major injury." Tom wasn't pleased when Dupree pushed all the just served plates off the table, either, given the fact that his high dollar prescription sunglasses were sitting on same table. Needless to say, a number of customers shared Barnes' concerns. The waitresses, in particular, were totally freaked out. On the other hand, Greg Gillespie thought it was billiant. Here's his take. "The doors fly open, in come these guys with waist length hair, one has a chain saw, it's on and revving. They come to the table, push ever K-Mart. That performance took place several days earlier in an chain saw and carved the word "Jackyl" into the top of the table. Then I noticed the guys with the video cameras. He then picked up the chain saw and said 'We're Jackyl, don't let your daughters buy this record!" Barnes flashed back to the horror, "For the first ten seconds I thought, 'Somebody is going to die and I'm going to see sit here and watch this. It's MacDonald's Part 2.' About 17 seconds into the episode, in walk the cameras, and I realize this is a stunt." Gillespie empathized with Barnes' concern. "When it was all said and done, it suddenly hit me that in today's climate there were probably some people who thought in today's climate there were probably some people who thought this was some sort of Texas Chainsaw Massacre Part Two. I unis was some sort of Texas Chainsaw Massacre Part Two. I guess the band is lucky that some good ole boy or an off duty copy didn't whip out a pistol and shoot someone. The band could be looking at a first album with a dead lead singer." Sounds like just another day in the wacky, madcap world of the music we like to call rock and roll. The site of the incident, The Longhorn Steaks Restaurant, has threatened to sue Geffen. However, a spokesperson for the label thinks it's unlikely, citing the label's feeling that the restaurant "Must have signed some sort of release or the cameras wouldn't have been in there." Calling all cars! Local police have issued a warrant for Dupree's arrest charging him with reckless conduct.

RICK SKLAR, DEAD AT 62

Fans of New York radio were saddened this week by the passing of Rick Sklar. Sklar's 1984 book "Rocking America" How the All-Hit Radio Stations Took Over America" has long been necessary reading to fans of the medium. The book traces his tenure at WABC beginning when he was named program director in 1962. With an air staff that included "Cousin" Brucie Morrow, Dan Ingram and Ron Lundy, WABC became the most listened to station in America. Sklar stayed at the station's helm until 1977 when he was appointed vice president of programming for ABC Radio. WABC went news/talk in 1983. The twilight of his career was spent consulting many stations including his hometown WRCN/Riverhead (Sklar started his career at WPAC/Patchogue) in 1988. At the time of his death, he was serving as vice president for Interep.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To: Bill Hard

From: Nancy Leichter, Station Manager KQLZ/Los Angeles

Regarding your interview with the Program Director of KNAC last week, I would like to leave aside the wishful thinking of Gregg Steele and address your question about Pirate Radio Harley Girls: "You don't have anything like the Pirate Cycle Sluts, whatever you call them?"

The Pirate Harley Girls are part of our promotion department. They are licensed and experienced riders of motorcycles, they pass out prizes at promotions, and are as much a part of the staff as anyone else who works here. I am curious why, and I certainly don't appreciate the fact that, you felt the need to put it on a very derogatory and uncalled for sexual level when referring to them. I feel it hurts your credibility as the editor and associate editor of this publication to do so.

I would appreciate an apology on behalf of the Pirate Radio Harley Crew, as well as every woman in the music industry who was offended by your very sexist comment.

Dear Nancy:

Sure, I'll apologize. Unfortunately, anytime I hear "Harley" and "Girls" in the same phrase, my mind plays a nasty word association game, fast forwarding my brain to the Cycle Sluts From Hell. I guess that's a testimony to the psychological impact of that group's name. I should add that several industry friends I've spoken with have confessed to the same mental short circuit. I must say, though, that no one I surveyed seems to feel that the Sluts' name was chosen in reference to their sexual proclivities, or the region of the planet from which they sprung. It's merely a rock and roll schtick that no one really takes too seriously. But I do realize that the word in question has enormous negative connotations, and if any of your Harley Girls were offended, I do humbly apologize.

But on that note, I'm frankly amazed that Pirate hasn't taken serious heat regarding the name in question. I'm of the opinion that calling a group of grown women "Girls" is a totally sexist form of address in itself. Would you tolerate a business contact of yours suggesting you "call my girl" to set up a lunch? I think not. I'd like to suggest you at least change the name to "Harley Women". I know my wife would tell you it takes a real woman to ride a big bike. She ought to know, since she just sold her Sportster a couple of weeks ago.

Furthermore, as a Harley Davidson (1987 FXST) owner and rider myself, I'd suggest you spend some time getting to know a few Hog aficionados a little better. Given your refined sensibilities, that might make you question just how far you want to take the whole Harley association. Maybe it's a totally different scene in L.A., what with all those unemployed actors cruising around, but most of the bikers I know wouldn't waste more than about two seconds on this debate -- particularly given the assumption that the work attire of choice for your riders probably didn't come from Land's End or The Gap.

But then again, hearing the Andrew Dice Clay drop in that Pirate aired as recently as last Wednesday, ("Hey, I'm sorry I made you clean the bathtub and the toilet, but who did all the work in bed?"), perhaps your personal philosophy is at odds with that of the programming department. In which case, maybe a little in house discussion might be in order.

Please don't interpret my arguments to mean I don't plead guilty as charged. In the stream of consciousness that goes into the interview process I chose my words poorly, and thankfully Mr. Steele provided the correct term for your Crew in the very next sentence. But if you're going to call me out, I think it's important that the station you manage be consistent with your complaint in its on air presentation.

Respectfully,

Bill Hard

Arista founder and chairman, Clive Davis was recently honored by the Friar's Club as their Man Of The Year. The label's artists were on hand to pay their respects and entertain the luminaries in attendance.

WE HEAR YA! Here's the one god Marrone, Hilger and Loscalzo bow to. Yes, it's Howard Stern and rock legend Roger Daltrey during a recent visit.

... and Mr. Davis posed for this shot with Kenny G, Aretha Franklin and Barry Manilow.

EMOTION IN RINGO. Well, we couldn't think of a better way to take in a Ringo show than with the man himself, Bill McGathy. There's Bill on the far left, Ringo in the middle, Rose is way in the back (hi Rose!). There's Binky Phillips (back, right) standing next to WPDH's Mike Harris. We wonder if Motorhead came up in conversation?

MORE GRAMMY NEWS! Entry forms for the 35th Annual Grammy Awards were mailed this week by the Recording Academy (NARAS) to over 700 record and music video companies inviting them to recommend releases that they feel deserve consideration by Recording Academy voting members. The 35th Annual Grammy Awards will be presented in late February, 1993, and will be televised on CBS-TV. These forms -- due back in the Recording Academy's office July 24th, cover recorded product released during the first nine months (beginning October 1, 1991) of the Grammy Awards eligibility year, in the Academy's record-high number of 80 categories. Final three month forms covering July 1st through September 30th releases will be mailed to companies in late August. A similar two-stage entering process for all Recording Academy members will be initiated later in July. All eligible entries received from both companies and members will result in this year's official Entry lists from which nominations, to be announced in mid-January, will be selected by Voting Members. Recording and music video companies which have not received their nine-month Grammy entry forms by the first week of July should contact the Awards Department at the NARAS national office, 303 North Glenoaks Boulevard, Suite 140, Burbank, CA 91502 or call (213)849-1313 or (213)843- 8233. Just thought you'd all appreciate this information. *** Just returned from Aspen, Colorado, from the Second Annual Jazz Aspen Festival. What a great lineup. Don and Dave Grusin, Diane Schurr, Dr. John, Take Six, The Dirty Dozen Brass Band, among others made it a happening event. Aspen is some 8,000 feet above sea level and that had its effect on the performers. Twice during performances by Dr. John and Diane Schurr oxygen tanks and masks were whisked to their request. Schurr seemed out of breath after her third song and made light of her need for the precious air. Breathing heavily into the oxygen mask, her microphone picking up all of it, Schurr quipped, "All this heavy breathing. I bet the journalists will make something of this in tomorrow's papers I'm sure!" By the way, Diane Schurr just signed on with Nutri Systems as their official spokesperson in part of what has been stated as a $3-million deal. You see, Schurr recently lost 100 pounds! and looks great. Also of note -- Global ReLeaf -- which is an organization that travels the world to help create consciousness in people in bettering our environment, had Take 6 in a tree planting ceremony in Aspen. It was a beautiful ceremony which had each of the six members planting a tree in the Aspen Community Arts Center by Rio Grande Park. All told, it was a musical treat for everyone. Of particular interest to the area, my photographer, Dave R. Allocca, and I visited the celebrity homes of Cher, a Mexican styled complex (up for sale), Michael Douglas' Wildcat Ranch which he has yet to build on, Don Johnson and Melanie Griffith's place, a beautiful colonial home and ranch, and Hunter Thompson's humble abode. We were warned not even to approach his home because he's known to come out with shotgun armed and dangerous. It must have something to do with his almost being nominated for Aspen Sheriff in 1970. Boy the guy holds a grudge for a long time doesn't he. Visit Aspen if you can. It'll revitalize your senses.

CONWAY JOINS MAVERICK MUSIC

Industry veteran Lionel Conway has been named President of Maverick Music Publishing. The announcement was made by co-CEO's Freddy DeMann and Madonna. Prior to his appointment, Conway served two years at PolyGram Music Publishing North America, first as President and subsequently Chairman of the division. Conway had previously been President of Island Music Publishing before its sale to PolyGram, a post he held for 22 years. "It's a unique situation for me to be at a music company actually run by music people," remarked Conway. "Naturally, I'm absolutely thrilled to be associated with Maverick and Time Warner." DeMann commented, "Lionel's breadth of experience coupled with his enthusiasm, energy and keen musical instincts made him our first and only choice for this key position at Maverick. We're delighted he's joining us in our new venture."

EMI RECORDS GROUP REINFORCES BLACK MUSIC DEPT.

The EMI Records Group North America has announced it will further strengthen its commitment to black music by welcoming several top executives in the A&R and marketing areas. The three new executives named are Senior Director A&R Dave Gossett, formerly of Mercury Records; Senior Director A&R Gary Harris, formerly of Giant Records; and Alison Ball-Gabriel, who has been promoted within EMIRG to Director, A&R West Coast. Together they will form the Black music A&R staff of the EMI label, reporting directly to Fred Davis, Sr. VP/A&R.

POLYGRAM SIGNS PUBLISHING DEALS WITH INXS AND U2

PolyGram has signed a major music publishing contract with INXS, which gives the label administration rights to the songs on the band's next two albums and to much of their back catalog, including compositions from Listen Like Thieves, Kick and X_Included in the new deal is INXS's ninth album, Welcome To Wherever You Are, which will be released in early August. PolyGram's new publishing deal with U2 gives them exclusive international rights to the band's entire catalog of songs. U2 are already signed to a worldwide recording contract with PolyGram's Island Records. The deal, which takes effect January 1, 1993, gives PolyGram the exclusive copyright to all of U2's existing catalog of songs and to those of their next three albums. The agreement is effective in all countries worldwide, except the UK, Ireland and Japan. In the UK, PolyGram already controls U2's copyrights through its sub-publishing deal with Blue Mountain Music.

Little Richard sang the "Star Spangled Banner" to kick off the Rock and Roll Celebrity Softball Games. Upon finishing the anthem, sources tell us that Mr. Richard began ranting to Jani Lane (Warrant) and his supermodel wife/Star Search spokesmodel Bobbi Brown that it was, "Little Richard who wrote the 'Cherry Pie' my oh my! Wooooooooo!"

Well, life as a rocking roll star does have it s pitfalls. During the Celebrity Invitational Golf Classic, rockers Steve Lukather, Eddie Van Halen and Tommy Lee couldn't decide which promotional caps to wear. Passersby overheard Van Halen saying to himself "the shoes or the strings..."

NIELSON NAMED KDGE CONSULTANT, HANGS A SHINGLE

KDGE/Dallas announced this week that PD Larry Nielson will vacate that position and become the station's consultant. Larry will be pursuing other clients and will maintain an office at KDGE. Nielson commented, "Steve [Allison President/GM KDGE] and I have had a lot of recent discussion about the future course of The Edge and about my personal aspirations. Thankfully, what came out of our meetings is a plan that satisfies the best interests of everyone. I'm happy Steve has given me the opportunity to prove myself on a consulting level." Larry Nielson may be reached at 214-580-9400.

KQPT/Sacramento has named Berger Broadcast Consultants Larry Berger as Program Director at the Adult Alternative station replacing OM Tom Eshbaugh. The Point's GM Henry Grambergu stated, "We're lucky to be able to get someone of Larry's stature. He's been wanting to get back into the operations end of radio, and it's our good fortune to have him here. He's a proven commodity, someone who'll give us great leadership in programming." Berger was PD/OM at WPLJ/New York for 14 years, and later programmed K101/San Francisco and Double 99 (KDBK/KDBQ).

WAQX/Syracuse morning co-host Lisa Walker will be leaving the heritage AOR to accept a similar position with Adult Contemporary WKLI/Albany. 95X PD John Robbins stated, 'Lisa Walker is one of the country's top air talents. Unfortunately for 95X, we were unable to keep her a secret for very long. She was the night talent when I arrived here, and I immediately moved her to PM drive, where she had the best ratings ever. Shortly thereafter, an opening came up in the morning with Dave Coombs, and she jumped on the opportunity to transcend the format and truly set the stage for becoming a great air personality. Lisa added, "I've known Rick Mitchell at WKLI for a long time. It was an opportunity I just couldn't turn down and a chance to really broaden my horizons as an air personality. I am looking forward to the challenges ahead." Although Robbins will join Coombs on the morning show, he is actively considering all options.

In the background Michael Schnapp is demonstrating his overhand technique that won Epic Records the team trophy at the World Famous Rock and Bow!. Wow! Mike Muir's (r) face!! Look at Harvey's shirt...are those little festive petrie dishes or what? Jon Scott (l) is amused.

KYYS/Kansas City Assistant Promotion and Music Director Michelle England has been promoted to Director of Promotion and Client Services, the position vacated when Jim Marchyshyn became OM/Director of Marketing. "Michelle has shown the skill, talent and tenacity needed to help guide KY's sales and promotion efforts into the '90s. We are pleased to have someone of Michelle's caliber to lead the troops into battle," commented Marchyshyn. Music duties have been assumed by Debbie Mitchell, who moves into the newly formed music coordinator position. "We've known that Debbie was a music fanatic," said Marchyshyn, "and this position gives her an opportunity to grow at KY-102, while doing something she loves. Debbie eats and breathes music and will be out in the clubs and at concerts representing KY-102 and looking for the best new music."

WRKI/Danbury's first casualty of the new ownership is morning sidekick Mike Dailey. Mike had been doing mornings at the station for three years, and previously did mornings and news at KOMP/Las Vegas. He is currently looking for a new gig and can be reached at 908-241-2014.

WMMS/Cleveland will begin broadcasting from their new studios on Monday, June 29. The station is moving their offices from the Statler Office Tower, a building they have occupied since 1977. The new address is: 200 Skylight Office Tower, 1660 West Second St., Cleveland, OH 44113-1454. The phone numbers remain the same.

The Jim DelBalzo Interview A Man With So Much To Say There's No Room For An Intro!

How is it that a guy who lives in a million dollar Victorian mansion in Saddle River can work Alice In Chains? Explain that dichotomy to me.

Jim: (Laughs) First of all, I don't know if my house is worth a million dollars. Yes, you do.

Jim: No comment. It's not about anything but the music. If the music hits you, that's what's important. And I could live in a tenement in the Bronx and I'd probably feel the same way. I see my house so sel-dom, it doesn't matter.

You've certainly paid your promo dues in full. Let's recap ...

Jun. Let's recup... Jim: I started out at my little college radio station on Long Island at Hofstra. Then I worked as an intern at Arista Records in '77 and '78. I actually worked in the marketing department for Jim Cawley, who now is GM at Chaos. Then I was the National College Promotion Manager at Polydor from '78 till about '80, or so, and then I was National Album Promotion Manager. I worked with Jerry Jaffe and Bill McGathy. Then they moved me out to Bill McGathy. Then they moved me out to the West Coast the beginning of '81, and they formed the first rock department. It was Jim Sotet and George Meier and was Jim Solet and George Meler and myself, working again with Jerry Jaffe. I loved Southern California so much that I decided I had to get back to New York, and I went to work for Columbia, which I al-ways wanted to do, as a local promotion person. I was local in New York for four years. I think it was '86 and '87 I worked at MTV, and then I came back here as Director in '87. And last year, I was made that probably turns a radio guy off the most is a guy busting his chops about a record that he can't possibly play. That's a mis-take, obviously. I try to be a Program Director for every radio station. There are certain records that just won't fit certain formatic put the time in the program. formats. But at the same time, if there's a record that's right for a radio station, you don't stop until you get the record on.

Is it part of Columbia's M.O. to push harder than anyone else. It certainly seems, in my experience, that you folks love to crank the juice when you think you've got a record.

Jim: You have to. It's an artist's life. It's And if you don't do everything you can to give that individual the best shot you pos-sibly can, you're not serving him properly. Also, you get to be friends with people. In terms of the artists?

Jim: Yes. You want to do it for them. You want to break Chris Whitley because he's your friend. You want to break Alice In Chains because you know that those guys are for real. You want to take Bruce Springsteen to new levels because in your mind he's the best that there is and mind, he's the best that there is and probably ever will be. So, you can't stop when you know that you've got something.

I know that you're close with Bruce, and you're close with Mellencamp, I guess from the Polydor days, eh?.

Jim: John and I got friendly on the second John Cougar record, when I was a little punk at PolyGram and he was this kid who didn't know who to trust being brought at MTV, and then I came back here as Director in '87. And last year, I was made a Vice President. What did you think of The MTV experience?

I was very tough to promote at MTV. Guys would come up with a bunch of radio stations that added a record, and I thought, 'Wait a minute. All you've got to do is mail these radio stations a record, and they'll add it."

Jim: It was really cool. It was kind of fun sitting on the other side of the desk. I was at MTV at a period of time when they were at MTV at a period of time when they were going through an identity crisis. I really enjoyed it, but I had the opportunity to come back to the promotion side of things, and I just felt more comfortable on that side of things. It was real weird to be worked on records. I was very tough to promote at MTV. Guys would come up with a bunch of radio stations that added a record, and I thought, 'Wait a minute. All you've got to do is mail these radio stations a record, and they'll add it. That's no big deal. Show me something that's happen-ing.' I knew promotion so well, I could easily identify the hype from the real thing. One of the reasons why Columbia wanted me to come back was because I was giving them such a hard time at MTV. I think they were happy to get me out of there. were happy to get me out of there

You're certainly one of the best established, most successful, long running players in a career field that kind of eats up people. What do you see as the key building block in a strong recordination relationship? a strong record/radio relationship

Jim: Emotions. You have to be emotional about what you do, be able to temper that emotion with common sense, and be able to get along with people, and then to really like what you do. Too many guys are either unemotional about the music, or they're just so emotional that they're blind to everything else. So, they put off radio guys by expecting them to play records that are totally ridiculous for them. The one thing #### friendship.

And I know you're close to Jon Bon Jovi, and Elvis Costello is another name that comes up.

Jim: Jon and Elvis and Mellencamp are consummate professionals, and you have to respect their artistry. But they're also really great people.

Certainly they appreciate the job that a well run and, ultimately, productive promotion department -- and a guy in your shoes -- can do for them.

Jim: Any friendship is based on mutual respect. If they think I'm a bozo, they're not going to like me.

Could you do management? Does that interest you at some point?

Jim: At some point in time, yes, but not right now. I think that's something that every record person aspires to do.

Let's talk about Columbia's evolution in the marketplace. For many years, Columbia was the superpower. What would you con-sider the peak years?

Jim: Yes. In the '70s and the early '80s, especially.

With Pink Floyd, and Bruce, and all the rest. At what point did you rejoin the label? Jim: '87.

So, you rolled back into the deal with Columbia right about the time when they cooled off.

Jim: Yes. What basically happened was that a lot of the big artists like Loverboy had just ceased to be major players for the format, for whatever reasons. Journey broke up, and I guess people had enough of Men At Work. So, a lot of the big artists were no longer superstars anymore. And it was time to rebuild.

Where was the point at which the releases slowed down so dramatically?

Jim: It was somewhere about '89. I think a lot of it had to do with Don Ienner com-ing in and saying, 'Look, let's just pick quality, and not release everything. Let's just not sign everything. Let's just sign the best.

The gap between Al Teller and Tommy Mot-tola had to be brutal. How was it getting through that period when Tommy was repositioning the company?

Jim: Tommy obviously saw that changes had to be made. Every label goes through periods of time when they're cold. And to be honest, I remember Rap and I standing around and one day we said, 'You know what? We don't have all these heavy duty what? We don't have all these heavy duty bands that we used to have. We've got a bunch of really good bands, but they're new.' It wasn't like some of it happened over night. It wasn't like we suddenly real-ized, 'Hey wait a second! Suddenly, we don't have Journey. We don't have these guys.' It wasn't something that happened from one day to the next. You just realize that a lot of the bands that had made the label a major force in nock radio weren't label a major force in rock radio weren't major forces anymore. So, it came time to develop new ones.

Who do you feel were the pivotal bands in bringing you out of that deep freeze?

Jim: Warrant was the beginning of it. You break Warrant, and it sells close to 3 mil-lion records the first time out, and nearly that many the second time out. Then Alice In Chains came along.

And Warrant, we might add, was Columbia's first foray, really, into the modern hard rock arena.

Jim: I guess that's right. They were probably the first real new generation of hard rockers that we signed.

How much involvement and credence does the label continue to have in the hard rock arena at this point?

Jim: More and more. Obviously, we have a new Alice In Chains record coming out. We have Aerosmith back. Rob Halford, now, is going to be a solo artist, as well as working with Priest. We've signed Circus Of Power, and what I've heard is amazing. And Soul Asylum are a little more left of contor but form all indications. And Soul Asylum are a little more left of center, but from all indications I think they're going to be very, very special. They're been around for awhile, but they're new to this label. There's an Alice In Chains record coming down the pike sometime in the fall. We have Love/Hate, War Babies. We have a bunch of real, credible hard rock bands credible hard rock bands.

Why didn't you work the 'Sap' project harder?

Jim: Because it really wasn't the next Alice In Chains record. It was an artistic statement that they made with some of their friends from Seattle. It was a gap that they wanted to bridge. And after all the work we put into Alice, to come out with this record that wasn't really what people expected of them probably would have been a disservice to the band. If we'd gone to radio with 'Hey this is the next Alice In to radio with, 'Hey, this is the next Alice In Chains record,' they would have been very confused, and rightfully so. Artistically, it was a brilliant piece of work. And I think that as time goes on, people will discover that. We sold an awful lot of CD-5's. I don't know the numbers, but it was very successful. I think you're going to see more and more of that in the future. Just because a band puts something out that's a little different, like 'Sap' was, even though it was a great record, it doesn't necessarily have to be treated with the same fanfare as the next official release.

Would you say that represents a bit of a departure from folks who used to promote everything with a sledgehammer?

Jim: Yes, the label is totally different since Don has been here. We think differently now. You ask anybody at radio the way we go for Toad The Wet Sprocket, or the way we go for an Alice record. There's no less pressure put on records to get played. A lot more care has been paid to artists, and their wishes and their desires, and what's really best longterm for the band. I think a lot of bands get spoiled by labels just beating the shit out of people to play it, when maybe they shouldn't have. a CD or cassette. Radio people will blame the development of other media. However, I think we have to conclude that the product that was being supplied to the public was not what they wanted. If they had what they wanted, they wouldn't have looked for alternatives as readily. Instead of listening to AOR radio, people listen to news/talk and all sports, or they pop in a cassette or CD, as opposed to turning on their local AOR station.

Are you talking strictly upper demos?

Jim: I think that the mentality that alternative music is a lower end type of format is wrong. Alternative music, to me, is people almost 25 to 49. There are definitely low end alternative bands. But then, there are bands like Elvis, and Joe Jackson, and the Talking Heads, Midnight Oil, and the Cure, who are adult bands. Those are bands that should be played to death on AOR radio. The 25 + audience that AOR is looking for wants to hear those bands. And when they don't, they go somewhere else. They're sick of hearing

I think we have to conclude that the product that was being supplied to the public was not what they wanted. If they had what they wanted, they wouldn't have looked for alternatives as readily. Instead of listening to AOR radio, people listen to news/talk and all sports, or they pop in a cassette or CD...

How much do you feel is Sony, as opposed to the players we just named?

Jim: That goes on at a level above me. I think the credit for the success of the label ultimately has to go to Don.

Back to Toad for a second. You've gotten the project to a certain level. What do you do from this point on? What's the game plan to break the record?

Jim: Top 40 is really playing the hell out of this so far. We're doing really well at AOR. We just hope that this track will continue to go as high up as it can. If you listen to this album, you'll hear a bunch of solid tracks. The band is for real, and it's their time to happen.

As the format continues to fragment, do you think that the old days of the across the board AOR smash are obsolete?

Jim: Yes, I do. It's going to have to change. I think it's changing too slow for radio's own good. If you look, a lot of the 'dinosaur' rock stations are starting to take it in the shorts by newer, hipper competitors. And I think that trend is going to continue. If you notice, in the last book, especially, a lot of the almost classic rock stations are starting to really have serious competition that they haven't had before.

It's the fallacy of the whole full service idea. They can't stand the assault of specialized, boutique-type approaches.

Jim: And to some degree, radio has done it to itself. It's been a long process. But I think that over the last ten or twelve years, due, primarily, to callout research, which I feel rewards mediocrity... It all started with John Sebastian back in '78, somewhere around there, that records like the Tarney Spencer Band, and Shooting Star, and The Sherbs. They were big records because they were totally unoffensive and they were comfortable to people. I never thought of rock and roll as something that should be comfortable. Plus, people's listening habits have changed over the last ten years. The public no longer goes home and turns the radio or an alternative --whether it's TV, or a video game, or something else at home -- they'll almost always pick the alternative, even if it's popping in Led Zeppelin and all the classics that rock radio plays as a steady diet. They'll buy a new Cure CD and they'll listen to that in their car. They won't listen to the AOR radio station that leans classic in their market. And until AOR finds a way to get that audience back, they're always going to be fighting with classic rock and Top 40. There's a big audience out there that nobody's locked into.

How big do you think that the COR station approach as a group will be? Stations like Pirate and the Blaze?

Jim: And also, within the heavy metal format or the hard rock format, there's two fragments, too: There's the Blaze, and people like that, who like hair band type acts, and people like Alice In Chains are a little too serious for them, or a little too heavy for them. And then there's the other stations, who aren't interested in the Poison's of the world. And there's KBCO, and then there's WWCD, and then there's WHFS, and then there's 'DRE, and there's KROQ -- the formats are so fragmented, I almost think you should throw out the charts, to some extent, and just make a 25 + chart. There's a lot of records that KBCO has in common with AOR stations. And in some publications, they're not even in the same list. Unfortunately, the charts dictate how we look at things. If it were up to me, I wouldn't even have a track chart anymore. It's album radio. Let's go back to having album charts again. I shouldn't have to be arguing with somebody because he's playing a different track from the Bruce Springsteen record than the one I wanted him to play. I don't do that. Somebody wants to play Bruce, maybe he's not playing '57 Channels' and he's playing 'Gloria's Eyes', fine. You're not going to get an argument from me.

Do you think AOR stations look at album charts?

Jim: No, they don't. That's why I wish we could get back to that mentality of looking at album charts, more. Old rules don't apply. They don't apply in marketing anymore, and they shouldn't apply in radio. Unfortunately, to some extent, they still do. I don't know who the loser is here, and I don't know who the culprit is, either. Certainly, record companies probably have to accept some of the blame. We really need to be fair to the music, and to change the way radio is perceived out there by the public. We have to change almost everything we do. And it's going to take somebody with a lot of balls to do it, but we have to do that because the old rules don't apply. U2 goes to the top of the chart, and two weeks later, it's coming down because it got as high as it can. Now, that's fucked up. That's dumb. Because somebody said, 'Well, we got some research back, and it doesn't look so great. We're going to back it down a little bit. What's the next track?' Why shouldn't that record stay at #1 for eight or ten weeks? We just do things weird. The bigger a record debuts, the shorter the lifespan of that record. That makes no sense at all.

Do you feel, also, as a format, we're much tougher on bands once they've had hits?

Jim: Oh, of course. Look at Bruce. Everybody wants to take a shot. He is selling as many records as he's ever sold, with the exception of 'Born In the U.S.A.', but every newspaper article you pick up talks about the 'slow' sales. I can just tell you, as somebody who's seen that show, if anything, Bruce's artistic appeal, and his artistic merits have never been higher. But it's always easy to take shots at somebody who's on top. Where Bruce is concerned, opinions are like assholes -- everybody's got one. Everybody feels like they have to say something about Bruce Springsteen. They can't let it go. It's human nature that most people would rather say something negative about someone who's achieved as much success as Bruce has, rather than say, 'That guy is just amazing.' There are four or five million people who will say that, but there are a lot of people that just feel it's their obligation to say something negative about somebody who's a major star. I don't know why people are like that, but they are.

Bruce bashing seems especially odd given the fact that the guy has been so low profile for the past five years.

Jim: Nobody asked radio to play those records forever, and ever, and ever, and ever... They chose to do that. We promoted him, yeah, but we didn't tell them to keep playing him for five years the way they did. We're happy that they did that. But then how can they blame Bruce for being oversaturated? Because he went on the 'Born In The U.S.A.' tour that was hugely successful and had one of the most successful albums ever in the record business? Can you blame the guy for that? I don't see how you can. It's not like he sold out. He's making the same music he ever did. Fourteen million people just happened to get it all at the same time.

Paul Rappaport theorizes that industry types--radio especially--really haven't listened to the two albums. Do you agree?

Jim: That's true. Because radio programmers are the way they are -- they all have families; they all have a lot of things going on; they all have nine o'clock meetings with the general manager; a lot of them wear suits and ties now that never did before -their lifestyle has changed. So, unfortunately, they don't have as much time to listen to music. Ask around and you'll find a lot of people haven't listened to "Lucky Town", for instance, but most of the Bruce fans that you talk to will tell you that 'Lucky Town' is their favorite record of the two.

Let's talk about the tour. Big event, in spite of the nay sayers and the doubters.

Jim: They will be silenced very quickly. What are you going to do in the markets? Are you going to do co-promotes or "presents" type things? You've got an AOR, Classic, a CHR and an A/C station that want a piece of the action.

Jim: As I remember, we've never, ever done co-promotes in a marketplace. When you have an artist that appeals to as many formats as Bruce does, it's not fair to any of them to eliminate one of them from the mix. Obviously, AOR stations have supported Bruce the most, so whatever, within reason, that an AOR radio station wants, we'll do our best to give it to them.

Bruce seems much more accessible and willing to get down and dirty on a promotional level than ever before, correct?

Jim: Yes. I don't think you're going to see Bruce Springsteen doing an in-store. He just can't. The numbers would make it impossible. But you may see some special events. And a lot of it is spontaneous with Bruce. All of a sudden, one day, Bruce may say to whoever is there, 'If there's any contest winners out in the audience, why Jim: Yes, because pretty soon, those records that they're playing now are going to get crispy. And unless record companies are feeling real good about the future of rock at AOR radio, they're not going to be so willing to sign new bands. And pretty soon, those sources are going to dry up. The problem with radio in the '80s was that a lot of those bands had hit records that never made it into the library. When John Hiatt puts out a new record now, it's not an automatic. Had they supported an artist with the stature of John Hiatt for the last ten years, it would be.

Who's to blame for the number of #1's at the format that never make it into the permanent library?

Jim: I guess it's research. I don't understand it, to tell you the truth. If you think about all the great songs that just don't get played anymore, I don't really understand. But look at all the bands and the great hits of the '80s that aren't in the library

When you're playing records twice a day, in most cases, being Heavy rotation -- I don't care what Radio & Records says, if you look at BDS, twice a day is Heavy at a lot of radio stations -- it's not enough to generate any kind of sales.

don't you bring them back.' A lot of the stuff, where Bruce is concerned, is spontaneous. Everybody heard that we had contest winners in Los Angeles, and Bruce came out after the show and signed autographs for an hour, and took pictures and talked to them. That was not planned. Bruce just said onstage, 'Give me about twenty minutes, and I'll be out and I'll sign whatever you want.' So, a lot of it is up to him. But as far as giving things exclusively, like co-promotes, we've never done that. And I don't see us doing that. We try to be fair to everybody. But obviously, whatever we can do to take care of the people that have always supported Bruce Springsteen, we're going to do.

How is Columbia feeling about AOR's role in terms of selling records?

Jim: I think we'd all like it to be a little higher profile. When you're playing records twice a day, in most cases, being Heavy rotation -- I don't care what Radio & Records says, if you look at BDS, twice a day is Heavy at a lot of radio stations -it's not enough to generate any kind of sales.

Is that a subject that comes up in the boardrooms?

Jim: I would say it comes up everywhere. When you have a format that as much money is being spent on as is being spent at AOR radio, people expect to see some results from it. And hopefully, some of these new formats of AOR radio will help to sell more records. Anybody that says that AOR radio is selling a lot of records, outside of a few instances, in general, is kissing somebody's ass because it doesn't. There's exceptions to the rules with certain bands -- Alice In Chains, Black Crowes, Pearl Jam, that type of stuff. But as a rule, album radio does not sell a lot of records. Hopefully, it will improve, and I think it will.

Does that give you cause for concern, job security-wise?

Jim: No. It gives me cause for concern longterm for the format about whether it's going to develop into an oldies format, or whether it is going to develop into something more vital and exciting. I think we're at the crossroads right now. I'll always do promotion.

Do you think that radio stations and the AOR stations need record companies to be successful?

anymore. And even in the early '90s. So, what the format has failed to do is bring along the second generation of superstars. There's a handful that has emerged, but not as many as there should. So, what you have now is a real hunger out there for megastars. And you're going to keep having that, as long as the format is rotating records the way they are. I don't even think that you hear that many recurrents on the Black Crowes, and they're one of the biggest bands in the format right now. And there's not that much U2 stuff in the catalogue. Yeah, there's a lot of John Mellencamp, and a couple of other bands. But there's a hundred more artists that you can think of that just should be getting more recurrent airplay that aren't. Besides The Who and besides Led Zeppelin, there's a bunch of real talented people that just never get played anymore. So, when they put out their new records, it's not a big deal anymore. It's just another work record.

This golf addiction of yours. How serious a thing is it for you, in terms of getting airplay? What's the maximum promo guy use of golf?

Jim: Promotion is about relationships. I can go into a town and take a guy out for the customary dinner that he does every week for a year, or I can say, "'Hey, you want to go and play golf today?'" He's going to remember that and enjoy that a whole lot more than sitting there and hearing about stories of things that happened ten years ago.

Like we're talking about in this interview, y'mean? Wait a minute! Don't get personal. Do you talk business when you're out on the links, or do you wait for the 19th hole to go for the close?

Jim: I don't think I have to. Again, it's all about relationships. When I call the guy on Tuesday, it's different. It depends on the person.

A couple of real serious questions. Do you watch golf on television?

Jim: Yes.

What did you think of Tom Kite's chip shot? Jim: Pretty amazing. I'm going out there on vacation. I hope they get out there and hose the greens and cut the grass before I get there.

I'd hate to see anybody get hurt. You and Leo, basically, have the same title. How does that work? Jim: Leo handles different things than I do. Leo handles a lot of the administrative stuff, as well as calling radio. He handles all advertising. And I basically run the promotion end of things. But when it comes to game planning, we all do it together.

And Pam's role in the team?

Jim: It's just that... a team. She's our West Coast presence, and handles all the relevant promotion stuff. We split up the radio stations, and everybody has one person that they keep in touch with. So, she calls a bunch of radio stations, and basically, is our face on the West Coast.

Why do you think there are so relatively few females in high power AOR promotion positions?

Jim: I don't understand, except that people don't look too hard, maybe, for whatever reason. It's a good old boy type of business. I think that's changing. But when I found Pam, I thought she was the best qualified person for the job, and she's proven that. Hopefully, there will be other people out there that will benefit from that. But she's kind of a pioneer. There have been others. Judy Libow was there for a long time, for instance.

Speaking of L.A., your convention style is very different. Whether it's Pollack, or R&R, you usually throw one big event. You don't hang at the other guy's suites. You don't work in the corridors that much, if at all. What's the philosophy behind that?

Jim: It's different personalities. I'm more a one on one kind of guy. I'd rather take somebody that I don't know that well and spend a lot of time with him at a convention. Take him to a nice dinner, hang out with them, as opposed to having 75 of my closest friends for one night. I'm not a big schmoozer. I don't do drugs. I don't drink. I just hang out with a few people. I prefer it that way. Other people have their own styles. I was never one for hospitality suites because you end up having a bunch of people in there you don't care about. And the PD's are out somewhere else having dinner with somebody else. I just find the guys I want to hang out with and hang out with them, and make my appearances where I have to. It's just different styles. I think I get more done that way. It's all about relationships. A lot of these guys, I consider friends. And for me to go to a city and hang out with a bunch of people and not get to see a close friend of mine, who I only get to see a couple of times a year, is silly.

Have you ever gone through CBS corporate training?

Jim: Yes. Awhile back, ten years ago, or something.

Don's style is pretty much the antithesis of that, right?

Jim: Yes. We are not a corporation type corporation. We are a very grassroots type of company. I don't think there are too many pretenses here.

Grab that neck... Now, squeeze!

Jim: Yeah, go for the gusto. If it's real, go for it. (Laughs) But if you know in your heart that you're right, don't take no for an answer.

One of our favorite questions of late is something that Phil Hardy brought up in his interview several weeks ago. Would you prefer to have a record that you're working play 25 times a week on a non-reporting station, or 5 times a week on a reporting station with a 9 share?

Jin: I'd rather have 25 times a week. There's a lot of non-reporting, meaningful radio stations not being promoted by Radio & Records. I'd rather have my record getting the shit played out of it at

'SHE and KY-102 than getting one play a day on a bunch of stations. I'm not a big believer in having to play the chart game I'm more about spreading the word. But I don't give a shit whether a major radio station reports or not. Just play my records, please.

Interview

Do you have any small guys that you look at and deal with that don't report anywhere, per se, but you think matter?

Jim: Yes. There's a station in Richmond, VGO, that I listen to. It's a very cool radio station. I think they matter, and I think

Jim: Oh, yeah. Absolutely. That's why I said that we're not tit for tat kind of guys. If you have no promotion budget, it's a great idea. But I think it's a stupid way to do business. We don't like to do things that way. And it benefits almost nobody. Nobody ever comes to you with great records, except in rare instances in rare weeks. But most of the time, they're all dogs.

What do you do to fire up your staff? You've got more competition than ever out there. You've got tons of worthwhile and competi-

I'd rather have 25 times a week. There's a lot of non-reporting, meaningful radio stations not being promoted by Radio & Records. I'd rather have my record getting the shit played out of it at 'SHE and KY-102 than getting one play a day on a bunch of stations.

they're going to matter more. Although, they're a big radio station, I'd rather have my record played on KY-102, as much as any station in the country. They're a very important radio station. I don't care if they don't report.

Were you there for Harvey's broadside of Larry Moffitt at the AOR panel? Jim: Yes.

And what was your reaction?

Jim: I don't know. I like Moffitt. (Laughs) That's what I told Dave Crowl. I went up when Harvey was talking to him and said, 'Hey, look, I don't know what to say. I like Moffitt.'

You do good business with him, don't you? Jim: He's a good guy. A lot of people have trouble getting in touch with him. But to me, Larry's a friend. To me, that's important. You always support your friends. The guys who are always there for you, and the guys who take care of you, whatever happens, you take care of them.

It seems to me that there might be a percep-tion in some quarters that Columbia buys their way onto the table. But I think you nailed it -- it's more that you're there for your friends and they're there for you.

Jim: Right. We don't do tit for tat type of things. I'm not a tit for tat type of guy. But if one of my friends comes to me and says, 'Look, I really need this". It's done. You don't have to ask twice. At the same time, I know that if I have something that's really important, they'll do it. That's what this business is about. It's not based on, 'I'll give you this CD player if you do this for me.' As I said before, it's relationships. And if a guy is supportive of your artist, and is always fair with you, and a straight shooter -- and it doesn't mean he has to play every record of yours. It just means that he's a straight shooter. The records he's supposed to play, he plays. Larry Moffitt runs a very tight radio station. But when there's a record that's right for him, and it's the right time, he plays it. Gene Jim: Right. We don't do tit for tat type of and it's the right time, he plays it. Gene Romano is a hard guy to get records played on. But when it's right for him, he plays it. Those guys, and a bunch of others, don't have to ask twice.

I have to ask this question, although, it's getting to be a standard, institutional one. What's your feeling on the whole pay for play mentality? Do you see it getting worse?

Jim: If you're a P3 radio station with no promotion budget, it's great. But it's not the way it's supposed to be done. It's not healthy for anybody. First of all, now, thanks to BDS, a lot of the paper adds are gone.

Did you think a fairly high percentage of that bartered airplay was bullshit?

tive records. Are you tough on your guys? Jim: Yeah. I'm tough on myself. Tough is not the word. I just try to stay on top of them to make sure that they're always covering the bases, to make sure that if we're close to a radio station, that they've given it a real push, make sure they've spoken to their guy, and make sure they've gotten in the best shot that they can to get the guy.

And you expect a full report on who they've talked to, where, when and why, and what they said.

Jim: Yes. Not written. I talk to our local Jim: Yes. Not written. I talk to our local guys a couple of times every day on Mon-day or Tuesday, and probably once every other day, just to make sure, 'Did you talk to so and so? What did he say? Do we have a shot.' That kind of thing. Just so I can get a feel for where record's are going to come in because Don asks, and managers ask, 'How are we going to do this week?' Unless I know exactly what's going on, I'm not going to be able to give the right on, I'm not going to be able to give the right answers

And you better have them.

Jim: Yeah, I better have them.

Any special things that are right around the corner for you guys? Any new releases you want to talk about?

Jim: We've got a great Roger Waters record coming out sometime in August. The lead track is called 'What God Wants', and it is a mother. It is just amazing. It's definitely a Roger Waters record. His fingerprint is very obvious. You know what it is from the first note. I think it's going to be a monster.

Any other new things?

Jim: Warrant has definitely made a righthand turn here.

What was with 'We Will Rock You'?

What was with 'We will Note You Jon Jim: That's a song that they've been doing for a couple of years on the road. And unfortunately, somebody decided to put it on this soundtrack, and the only thing that was their timing. They was wrong about it was their timing. They had no way to control that. If you actually listen to the song just on the merits, they do a great version of it.

You think the timing definitely conspired against them?

Jim: Yeah, that was the biggest thing. They've been doing the song for years on the road. Anybody that's seen them would know that. But the new record is real, credible, hard-core rock and roll stuff. And Jani and the guys in the band want to go around the country and talk to as many PDs as they can about where they're going and where they've been.

They realize that their image needs a little clarification?

Jim: Yes. They feel, and I agree, that it's unfair to mark them a hair band like you unfair to mark them a hair band like you would Poison or something like that. Their biggest hits happen to be ballads. But if you look at songs like 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' and '32 Pennies', and even 'Down Boys', those aren't hair band kinds of records. But they've got this image that they deservedly feel is unfair. And Jani wants to go out and tell as many people as he can what the band is up to. We're going to be hitting the road very soon.

Let's review the Chris Whitley, too. viously, I'm a gigantic fan. Judy McNutt, Patty Martin -- tons of people love this guy. Do you feel like the effort and expense on the debut Lp is recoupable?

Jim: I think we proved to the radio world that Chris Whitley is a real talent. Anybody who was at the McGathy party where Chris played had their head snapped around. On a smaller scale, it was kind of like when Bob Dylan plugged in at Newport. People did not expect to hear Chris rock and roll like that hear Chris rock and roll like that.

Tough hall, but I think Chris carried it well.

Tough hall, but I think Chris carried it well. Jim: Yeah. All of a sudden, they heard this guy wailing up there that they didn't expect. That's why we had him play be-cause that was what the second part of his tour was. He went out there and he kicked butt every single night. So, Chris is going to go in the studio, and I think he's going to make a great rock and roll record. He obviously has a lot of credibility out there and he's a great talent. As so often hap-pens with this format, this will be an artist development story. It's not like Top 40, where one record, and you've got a hit. If Chris makes the right record, and I think he will, you're going to see a major star he will, you're going to see a major star there.

Your temper is an integral part of your per-sonality. Does it ever get in the way?

Jim: I don't ever remember having an argument with somebody that wasn't setargument with somebody that wash't set-tled for the better. We're not always going to agree on everything. That's part of my job, I don't agree with everything that radio does, nor do they agree with every-thing I do. But to sit back and let somebody take advantage or make a mistake at the expense of one of our artists, I can't do that.

One of your associates remarked, "Jimmy's the consummate, professional. He knows where all the bodies are buried and he hap-pens to be best friends with a lot of those bodies." Would you buy into that?

Jim: (Laughs) I guess. When you do something for as long as I've done this, you kind of know your way around things.

BILL HARD

An Interview 2 Die 4

Ah...the glory of youth! Some would point to their looks and youthful exuberance as the real thing 2 Die 4, but after a listen to their hook-filled sonic angst, it's the music itself that most will be ready 2 Die 4! Extreme? Maybe. Corny? You decide. Although the music industry is known for its propensity to regularly chew up, digest and spit out young talent, this numercally tagged unit has "Got What It Takes" to graduate well beyond baby band infancy. Though navigating through largely unknown territory, every member of this four-some plus is dedicated to the road ahead. I recently phone linked with the band's ambitious guitar virtuoso Nick Kenny, and, as you'll soon find out..he's a future sixstring star--wise well beyond his years.

My favorite track on the album...do you want to know what it is?

Nick: Yeah, go on.

It's "Deliver Me From Evil".

Nick: Oh really! The funny thing is, everyone picks a different favorite song.

I suppose.

Nick: Which is healthy.

Well, you know what? It's good because it means you have a quality album.

Nick: That's right. Everyone's chosen a different single so far as their favorite. I was so happy with that reaction.

It really is a wonderful album since it is your first-- right?

Nick: Yeah, that's right. It's the first.

Are you seventeen now?

Nick: I was seventeen when I recorded the album. I just turned eighteen.

Oh, you turned eighteen. Well, Happy Birthday!

Nick: Well, it was a few months ago, but thank you anyway.

Where do you call home?

Nick: Oxford, England. That's where I've lived for eighteen years but the last half a year we haven't been there much. It has been pretty hectic.

Did you record the album in the States?

Nick: Yeah. We did the album over here. We spent 10 weeks in L.A. recording in various studios. We came over here and after a week in L.A. on a press tour we got to travel to New York, Detroit, Atlanta...

So you're really getting a chance to see the country.

Nick: Yes. It's great for us. Especially since I want to travel as much as I possibly can.

Well, you're young and full of energy!

Nick: Yeah, it's all new to us. Everything's new and exciting.

At fourteen you were the youngest guitarist ever to play London's prestigious Marquee Club? Would that be equivalent to the Whiskey A Go-Go in the United States?

Nick: Yeah, I guess the Marquee is the equivalent to that or the Roxy or someplace like that.

A tough room to get into, let alone play successfully-- but I heard you were a hit. Do you remember the feeling that you had when you first did it?

Nick: When we first played the Marquee I told my friends, "I'm playing the Marquee!", (they said) "You're playing the Marquee!?" Sometimes it's hard getting gigs at that age you know. I'd do some gigs and I'd turn up and play and we'd do the soundcheck and then the owner of the club would come down and say, "Get these kids out of here! What are they doing in here?!"---"We're the band! We're the band!"

Oh no!

Nick: Playing the Marquee was pretty unbelievable. I liked playing there. I've played there about four times now. The last time we played was probably one of the best gigs I've done.

Were you with the band then...this band, 2 Die 4?

Nick: Yes, it was brilliant.

Did you say it was brilliant?

Nick: Yes.

That's great (laughs). You have tons of confidence. Now what happened as a result? Did the Marquee shows directly propel you into what's happening in your life now?

Nick: Yeah. When I played the shows I was focusing all the time on what I wanted to do. When I played the Marquee it was kind of a bit of realization like "Oh, we're pretty good. We're playing better places." It was a gradual process. It's not like you wake up the next day and say, "Hey, this is what I'm destined for."

How old were you when you picked up the guitar?

Nick: When I started playing I was about 10, I guess but before then I'd always been interested in music. This sounds a bit crazy, but my mom's old guitar, which had three strings on it, gave me my start. My brother and I would do concerts when mom and dad went out. It's been a gradual thing since then.

From the house to the Marquee.

Nick: A year after the Marquee it was like, "This is all I'm gonna do...it's gonna be music." I just wanted to be involved in music. I didn't do any exams, I just concentrated on my music completely.

Are you aware that you've been described as Morgan Creek's Eddie Van Halen?

Nick: (laughs) It's really flattering.

What's made you so good? Is it basically the fact that you just decided to go for it and put all your energies into music?

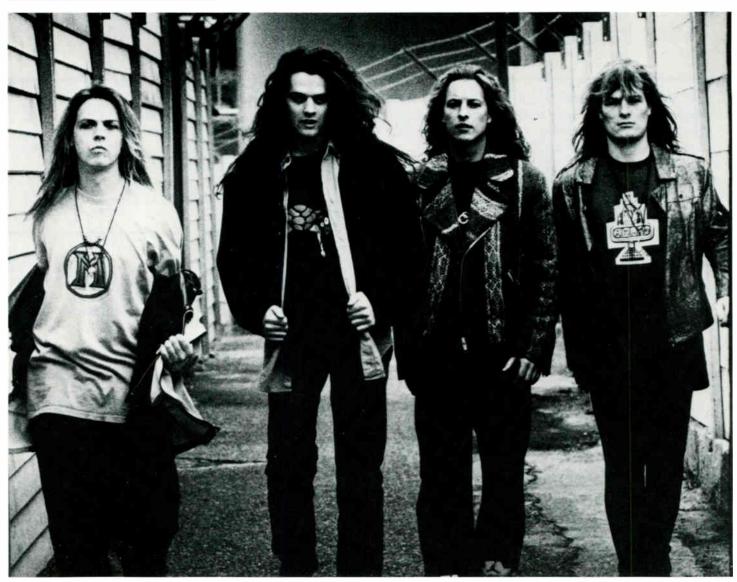

Nick: Yeah.

Did you practice till your fingers bled?

Nick: I did, yeah. Everyone says this, but it's the truth...I'd wake up, play before I could get to school, I'd come home, I'd play. When I first started out, the first five years I guess, I was very much into playing guitar and getting fast, getting good. But now, as I'm growing I'm much more concerned about songs and songwriting and production things--just becoming more of a musician and not just a guitar player, if you know what I mean.

Yes, I do. You're part of the group. More focused on the whole band rather than just yourself.

Interview

Nick: Yeah, I mean the band is the priority while I'm writing tunes.

When were you officially a band that included the four of you and your invisible fifth member? When were you first a band as 2 Die 4?

Nick: This line up has been together for about 2 years. When it started off...it was like just another day. My brother and I have always played together...

Simon, right?

Nick: Yes.

He plays a mean bass.

Nick: He plays a serious mean bass. He grooves!! (laughs) Anyhow, we've always played together. Since...

Since you were in the crib?

Nick: Yeah! (laughs) We'd always play together...fight together. We've always had line-ups, joined local bands, with local musicians and when we turned professional we weren't happy with the singer or the drummer we had at the time. We thought "these guys just can't cut it". We wanted a drummer who could like--swing, groove. And the drummer we had couldn't do that, so we got rid of him. The drummer (we have now) was in a rival band we played with. We were on the same bill with this band many times and we'd known him for years as a friend (even though he was in a rival band). He wasn't happy in what he was doing. We wanted this drummer and he was THE best drummer in Oxford, so we got ahold of him and said, "Look, we're gonna do this. This is what we want to do." And he shared the same vision. We all put our heads together and thought about where we wanted to go and we met on the same level. The next day we needed to get a singer. So, we went about through 200 singers or so. Singers are the hardest thing to find. Somebody with a personality, originality and wanting the same things we wanted.

You put an ad in the paper, right?

Nick: Yes, ads in the press. We put the word out. We got in touch with Andy through a promoter that we had both used who recommended Andy to us. We signed him up and he came down to the first rehearsal, (his first rehearsal I should say), and it just clicked.

So Andy went back home, showed up at work for one more day and basically never went back to the job at The Ford British Motor Company. I love it! And one of his quotes was something like, "There's probably still a moldy sandwich in my locker."

Nick: That's right. It's funny.

I'm sitting here looking at this press photo (all wonderful looking fellows I must say) and if I look really hard, I can see this invisible fifth member (laughs). Now who is he?

Nick: Charlie Francis?! He's a wonderful person. He produced our demos, he's co-written some songs on the album. He basically brought a lot of experience to us because we were all so young. Although, we played so many gigs and had been in so many bands, he brought some experience to songwriting and ideas.

Does he do some sampling and keyboard work too?

Nick: Yes, that's right. We wanted to bring rock music into the '90's, because a lot of music these days is just so stale, everyone's repeating themselves, everyone's singing, "In the heat of the night...burning desire...". You know, I mean it's very tragic, we wanted to step away from that. We listen to so many different types of music. Our music tastes are so varied. The song playing ideas came from listening to different music. I guess I'm trying to say we wanted to modernize everything.

So Charlie was a key figure, helping you become a cohesive band.

Nick: Yeah, helping us get our ideas out in the air and onto the tape. Which is good with the samples and stuff.

How did you come to be signed by Morgan Creek?

Nick: We sent tapes out when we thought they were ready. We sent tapes out to all of the record companies in England, and a few to American record companies. The response was good, but Morgan Creek's response was far superior to anybody elses. They just saw where we were coming from. They didn't want to change the way we looked. They just saw the whole thing. Some of the record companies said, "Oh, you don't look rock enough. You don't wear ripped jeans." We wanted to get away from that. We wanted to be a bit different, that's all. Other people thought the samples, "Ah, it's a bit too different. Guns N'Roses wouldn't do this." Even some record companies when they saw us play they thought we were miming. I guess that's a compliment, I suppose.

Lip syncing and that type of thing?

Nick: Yeah. That was a bit of a let down, but Morgan Creek just got the vibes right away. They were really, really enthusiastic about us. Another plus--we really wanted an American record company. We thought America might be more of an open market for our music. We thought that's the way we might excel, a foot in the door (so to speak).

This is your first album, self-titled, 2 Die 4. The first single officially released, "You Got What It Takes", is receiving good response along with some solid airplay. Did you expect the industry to respond like this?

Nick: We didn't know what to expect. We knew it was good, but we didn't know what would come of it. We were just so eager. We were very confident about the record. You know-- it's a good record. We didn't really know what to expect because it's all so new to us. When I first heard the single on the radio, I said, "Yeah, this is good. This is good".

I think Andy's voice conjures up images of The Cult, and as a band you've been compared to Queen and Van Halen. These are some pretty heavy hitters. Who would you say is your most important influence?

Nick: I guess there wasn't one band. We all have a favorite band, Queen and Van Halen being two of my personal favorites...well, we all like Queen and Van Halen...Aerosmith. They're our favorite rock bands but it's not just rock music we like--any band with good songs. You find good songs in other (types of) music too.

I agree. I totally agree. One night a week, I love a hot bath and some classical music in the background.

Nick: We listen to everything from rap, dance, soul and funk music. There are songs in every walk of life and there are good things in every walk of life. We've remained open to everything we listen to. We find good things in what we want to find.

You have really captured a feeling of energy in the studio. The raw excitement really came through on every track. What did you think of the whole recording experience?

Nick: Oh, it was brilliant. Coming to America was a buzz and then in 10 weeks living together in L.A. was fantastic. The actual recording, waking up every day and going down to the studio to make something which I've bought all my life from other bands...you know what I mean. That was such a rush! Some moments were very intense for me, personally. Just thinking about music so much...it was brilliant. It's such a good feeling for me and for the rest of the guys. We just love it, whether it be recording in the studio, or performing live. We just want to be 100% involved in it.

The public got their first taste of you even before the official release of "You Got What It Takes" with "Emotional Earthquake". You guys didn't waste any time. BAM! you're signed, you came to America, you recorded an album, suddenly you're making a video and you're in a movie. This was a major movie too...Mick Jagger, come on! How did you become involved with the movie Freejack?

Nick: Well, we were recording the album and "Emotional Earthquake" was the first song we finished mixing so we sent it to the record company to listen to, to let them know what we were doing. They passed it on to somebody from the movie company and they thought they could use it in the film. They got really excited about it.

So they used it.

Nick: It's a very simple thing. It's like this is a 10 point bonus for being on a soundtrack. It's good. We didn't know anything about the film, but we thought "Jesus Jones and the Scorpions are going to be on this soundtrack so we're in good company--let's just do it. It's going to put our name out more and we want to reach as many people as possible". We just found another way of doing it.

And then you said, "You know, we're not involved enough with this film thing, let's do a video!" By now millions of MTV viewers have seen shots of you and your instruments free-falling from the A.J. Hackett Bungee Institute in Normandy, France. Who came up with the idea to do that?

Nick: That was Nigel Dick, the director. His inspiration came from this line in the song that says, "Floating on air." He had this vision of people bungee jumping, stunt jumpers going off doing crazy stuff. So he said, "You know -- why don't we do this? It would be much more fun for people to watch the band jumping off." Which it is. He said, "Yeah, it would be much better, you guys could jump and then go off with your guitars. If that actually works, we'll go off with the drums as well." So Diz (the drummer) went off with his drum kit.

I can't believe it! Was he nervous?

Nick: Oh, we were so terrified. We really wanted to do it, but you know, there's nothing like it. It's so terrifying. You stand on the edge 200 feet up and they say, "Don't look down." So, the first thing you do is look down, which is a crazy thing 'cause you just get dizzy. Your life flashes before your eyes and you start thinking of all the wrong things you've done in your life. It's the closest thing you could do to committing suicide, without dying.

That is an amazing line.

Nick: It is such a rush. The first jump I did was head first.

Oh my God! That was the ankle clasp where you're hooked by your ankle and you jump, landing upside down right?

Nick: Yeah, you feel like Peter Pan. The second jump, my brother and I jumped together in tandem, facing each other with it tied around our backs so our feet were free. We jumped down and screamed at each other as we looked down. It was funny. The last jump, I had my guitar. The jump with your feet free is the worst because you go so fast. But jumping head first, you sort of go out and glide a little bit. You go a bit slower, I guess, but jumping just straight down (they call it the elevator jump) you just go so fast. There's no rush like it in the world.

That is outrageous to me. Do they tell you to keep your hands away from the rope and not to grab it?

Nick: No.

Well, a friend told me that when he jumped, the first urge was to grab something, to hold on. It's just a natural instinct. I guess if you were to hang on at the bottom you could really rip your hands up.

Nick: Oh yeah, that's right, but there is a part of the rope you can hang onto which is safe. It's terrifying!

It was a great idea. Definitely a first, I think.

Nick: It beats Tommy Lee's drum kit going upside down, right?

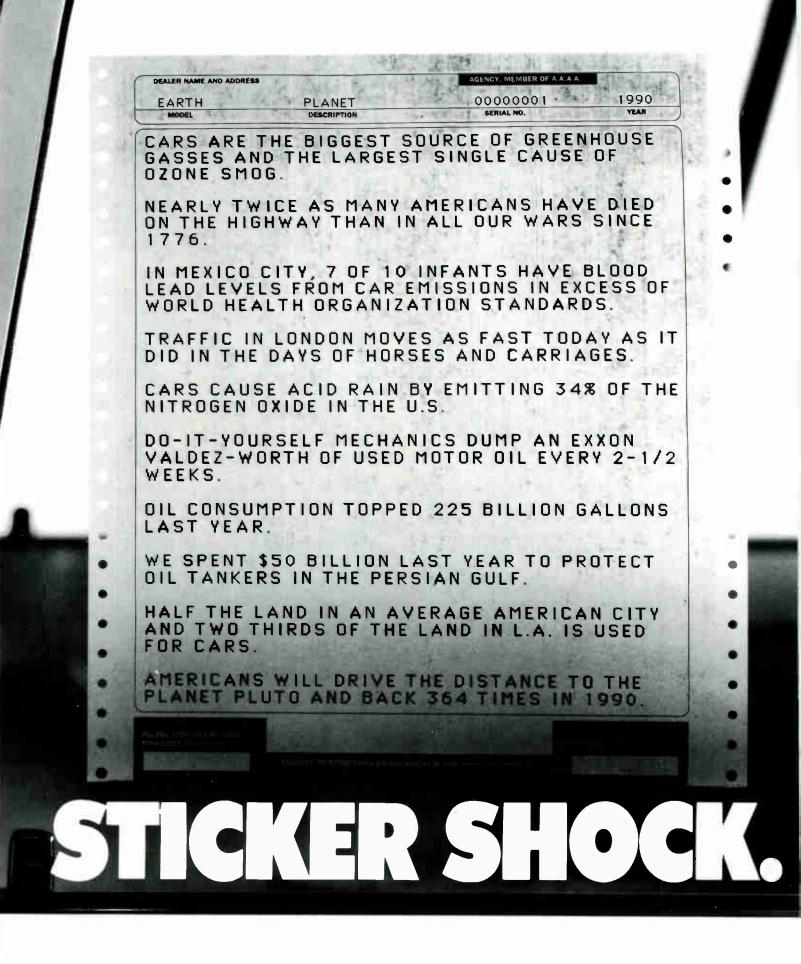

Right, right! (laughs) After your promo tour, you're going to be rehearsing back in Oxford? What, in a garage?

Nick: Yeah. Then we're gonna go back and do a few shows with Love/Hate and a few more dates in England. We're looking for a summer tour to get on over here because we really want to play America and let the people see what we're about live. That's important to us because it's something we love to do -- play live and perform. There's so much energy on stage when we play.

You are definitely full of it! Energy that is.

Nick: (laughs) Right..and we want people to see it!

The B-52's, "Good Stuff" (REPRISE) Can you imagine a Summer blast without the music of The B-52's? Always ready for a party out of bounds, the band is often overlooked when discussions of innovation are bandied about, but those who own a copy of the David Byrne produced "Mesopotamia" (especially the longer import version) will never leave the band out. In reality, The B-52's have always carried a committed, eco-driven philosophy underneath their evolving props of beehives, go-go boots glitz, strobe lights and love shacks. The departure of Cindy Wilson with this release marks the first personnel change since her brother Ricky became one of rock's first Aids casualties. Producers Nile Rogers and Don Was are both back on the team, but "Good Stuff" is no mere cash-in or "Cosmic Thing" platinum plus continuation. Multi-instrumentalist Keith Strickland (the original drummer) has long been the band's secret sonic weapon, and his influence (and ability) is central to the expanded experimentation of tracks like "Dreamland"--- a sure smash, but in no way formulaic. The first single (and title track) has propelled the band to a lofty 7-3* slot on the chart, and you can bet the clubs will be all over "Hot Pants Explosion" instantly. "Bad Influence" takes their quirkiness to another level, which should result in it being an early addiction (listen to the words, "Break out of the mold, before the mold sets in"--hint hint.) Fred shouts that he's, "... going to the store for hot dogs and wine" on the intergalactic-delic "Is That You Mo Dean"--- bound to be an instant fave for those in search of the B's kookie camp personae. The Booker T. organ sound and insistent groove of "Vision Of A Kiss" makes it another track you'll want to treat the listeners with initially. But personally, I'd vote for "Breezin" because to quote Fred, "I don't need a reason, I'm just breezin'." (MM)

Helmet, "Meantime" (INTERSCOPE) New York based Helmet's second album continues in their trademark grundge sound.

Led by former Band of Susans guitarist Page Hamilton, the quartet (Peter Mengede, Henry Bogdan, John Stanier) cranks out an album full of urban angst. Comparisons to Suicidal Tendencies or even Ozzy are inevitable here, especially on "You Borrowed" or on the lead track (and first single) "In The Meantime." Diehard fans will be pleased to know that re-recorded versions of the band's seminal 45 "Unsung" is included on the LP as is a sequel to their anthemic "FBLA" entitled "FBLA II." Other recommended tracks are "He Feels Bad," "Give It," and "Turned Out." Cranking Helmet on the air already are KSJS, KUCI, KUSF, WNHU, WTSR, KGRK, KMSA, KUNV, WCDB and WBER. (JL)

Deee Lite, "Infinity Within" (ELEKTRA) If you can get past the overkill of PC lyrics and images on this sophomore effort, you're in for a helluva time. Lady Miss Kier, Towa and DJ Dmitri churn out 14 ersatz disco classics like "Runaway," "Electric Shock," and "Pussycat Meow" which are destined to please fans of anyone from Sylvester to MC 900 Ft. Jesus. The music is so strong here that you can let the didactic nature of this LP slide right by and enjoy the grooves. (Not to mention the cheesecake pix of LMK, which don't hurt either.) "Infinity Within" could be loosely defined as a concept album. Touching upon practically every politically relevant topic, it's like a set of dogmatic Cliff Notes for the MTV generation. Illustrating this are tracks like the :33 second "Vote Baby Vote," "Ozone" and "Rubber Lover" (about condom use...what else?). Radio friendly tracks are "Ozone," "Rubber," and the CD-only "Love is Everything."(JL)

Singles Going Steady

Sonic Youth, "100%" (DGC) This band proves that it is indeed possible for the inmates to take over the asylum (no pun intended for the DGC/Geffen folks.) Who could have imagined even five years ago that the new single from Sonic Youth was a lock to dominate the radio add column of any commercial format? By single from Sonic Youth was a lock to dominate the radio add column of any commercial format? By the way, stations like WHFS, WBRU and WLAV couldn't wait, and have added the track already. Althe way, stations like WHFS, WBRU and WLAV couldn't wait, and have added the track already. Al-though the band's major label "Goo" baptism found a segment of old fans begging for a return to "Daydream Nation", there was no way anyone could label it a sell-out or compromise. The wang bar drone and squelch, as well as layers of East Village grit will never be shorn from the belly or psyche of Sonic Youth, and for this first taste of "Dirty" the band sounds like a garage engulfed in blue hot flame. Butch Vig breaks their chain of never using a producer, bringing Andy Wallace along for mixing chores, then sets up the microphones for a plunk and peak ride in the red zone. "Can you for-give the boy who shot you in the head, should you get a gun and go and get revenge?" It may not be pretty, but it sure does rock. For a pop slant, try the non-LP "Genetic" on the commercial CD5. (MM)

INXS, "Heaven Sent" (ATLANTIC) The (now) crossformat Aussie hitmaking machine reunite with Mark Opitz, who produced their brilliant breakthrough (third album) "Shabooh Shoobah" (could that really have been n-i-n-e years ago), in a successful bid to "get back" (minus the rooftop concert.) If it takes more than one listen to place this track in power rotation it might be time to start jotting down those 900 numbers on late-night "infomercials." Hutchence sings with the grit of youth, and the guitar/drum interplay at the outset faintly calls to mind The Only Ones' "Another Girl, Another Planet." Hey, if you play The Only Ones first, that's a segue; remember them? (MM)

Suicidal Tendencies, "Asleep At The Wheel" (EPIC)

Although recent years have found the band embraced more readily in Metal/Hard Rock circles, you should never lose sight of their innovative propensity. Starting as another "hardcore" band from Venice in '83, they refused to settle down to rote behavior. A track like "Institutionalized" blazed a trail for everyone from Jourgensen's rebirth of Ministry to Trent Reznor. After which, Muir's extraordinary vocals and songwriting re-defined the boundaries of speed metal. Now Suicidal is coming to everyone's home! "Asleep At The Wheel" is a brilliant psychedelic tinged, magic mushroom ride that could be the Bowie/Ronson Spiders jamming with Jane's Addiction. Forget labels, forget (ill-advised) rules, remember The Alamo and play this very loud (and often!) (MM)

Chris Mars, "Monkey Sees" EP (SMASH/PLG) The

Mats' timepiece took a huge amount of people by surprise with his debut (truly) solo outing. Playing the bulk of the instruments himself, Chris cracked the upper reaches of the chart with "Popular Creeps." The searing "Monkey Sees" is a perfect follow-up choice (already added at KJJO, KTCL, WDRE and WHTG), fuzz drenched guitars locked in a powerful 4/4 controlled frenzy. The more for-ward thinking will use the unreleased "Dawn Dawn" demo, but the smart at every corner of the dial will cue up the cover of "Back Street Girl" (just "punch 13"--- as the liner notes instruct). Chris recorded the track with Golden Smog, a loose batch of Minneapolis' finest, including members of people by surprise with his debut

Urge Overkill "Stull EP" (TOUCH AND GO) There

was a massive feeding frenzy amongst our major label A&R friends to sign Urge Overkill, with Geffen emerging the winner. Small wonder, after hearing their latest effort "Stull." It starts off with "Girl, You'll Be A Woman Soon," (not the similarly titled Gary Pucket & The Union Gap ditty) which footunes Frie Burden Lib features Eric Burdon-like vocals in a cool setting. It's followed up by "Stull (Part I)" which suggests the band has been glued to their Alex Chilton col-lection lately. A true nugget is "Stitches" where the band switches to overdrive (or is that overkill?) and provides a tune to slam to. The rest of the EP delivers the goods with the in-your-face "(Now That's) The Barclords" and the moody "Goodbye to Guyville." Play it now and say you heard it here first.(JL)

Steve Wynn, "Tuesday" (RNA) The fact that Steve's second RNA release ("Dazzling Display") has not been given even a token of its deserved attention is very dis-tressing. The former leader of the tressing. The former leader of the seminal Dream Syndicate is one of our country's finest songwriters, yet is devoid of gimmicks. Oh well, guess we'll just have to wait for those cover versions 5 years from now, right? Slap yourself! Play "Tuesday." This is Steve's "big hit single", it even gets background vocals from Flo & Eddie,

Vickie Peterson (The Bangles) and the immortal Susan Cowsill. Peter Buck and Louis Guetierrez (Three O'Clock) play guitars, and Steve sings a tale that could have been written for ... to quote The Godfather, "... the business we have chosen." (MM)

Peter Case, "Vanishing Act" (GEFFEN) How fitting that Peter Case and Steve Wynn would be this close together in the singles section, each with a second the singles section, each with a second offering from an album everyone should have played in the first place! "Vanishing Act" is a perfect showcase for Peter's ability to make inspiration into something uniquely his own. Here, Case takes the keyboard sound from "Watching The Detectives" and combines the structure of The dB's "Spitting In The Wind" (ch po another "Spitting In The Wind" (oh no, another Splitting in The wind (on no, another segue you can't play anymore.) How can it be that every programmer in the country is chomping at the bit for a copy of the Plimsouls' long awaited "Best Of" CD, yet so few actually listen to the man's (even better) current output? As a sidebar, those on the AAA side should immediately audition "Last Time I Looked" from the re-serviced album, it's better late than never. (MM)

Singles Going Steady

iouxsie & The Banshees, "Face To Face" (WARNER BROTHERS) Although this is the only vocal track from the

Batman Returns soundtrack, it's not "officially" a single. That didn't stop stations like KACV, KDGE (Heavy!), LIVE 105, KKDJ, KRCK, KRZQ (Heavy!), WBRU, WHFS and WWVU who came in with adds immediately. Who better than Siouxsie and the Banshees to collaborate with Danny Elfman on a tune for a Tim Burton film? Batman was never a clear cut superhero (like Superman) until they camped it up for '60s sitcom sake. "Face To Face" is typical Siouxsie, and therefore perfect for a character that began life as The Dark Night. And you gotta love those Cat Woman purrs, at least as much as Budgie's perfect percussive drive! (MM)

The Dead Milkmen "The Conspiracy Song" (HOL-LYWOOD) There are very few constants in life and it's good to see the Dead Milkmen haven't changed. The Philly based clown princes of punk have released this single from their "Soul Rotation" album along with a bonus track, the non-LP cover of "South Bound Saurez."_The single is a bundle of pentup paranoia where everything, of course, is a conspiracy. "Run to the window they're coming to get you/

Run in the basement they're coming t get you," is a repeated refrain throughout the song. The band's rendition of the Zep classic is a little more rewarding than the plug track. It sounds like Plant on helium! Who could ask for more, huh? While far from being an automatic (especially at the grown up stations) The Dead Milkmen have their legion of fans out there who are hankerin' for their unique sardonic style. Give it a spin and make sure you look over your shoulder.(JL)

Necessary Spinning

Former Treat Her Right member Mark Sandman can now be heard with his new band, Morphine on their debut album "Good"_(Accurate Records). If you were a fan of the blues influenced style of THR, give this a spin. If you've ever thought about jumping off a building while listening to Tom Waits this is for you as well.... The Tear Garden are back with the follow-up to their self-titled debut mini LP. The band, a collaboration of cEvin Key (Skinny Puppy) and Edward Ka-spel (Legendary Pink Dots) have just released "The Last Man to Fly" -- a full album available on Nettwerk Records. And what an uplifting effort it is! Check out tracks like "The Run-ning Man" and "Circles in the Sand"

1851 HALVING hit parade 1

(the one little Miss Belinda should have done!!).... The Wedding Present's latest release ("hit parade 1" on First Warning Records) is a compilation of their "single a month" campaign from the first six months of this year. It features the band's A-sides like "Come Play With Me," and their B-side covers of songs such as "Pleasant Valley Sunday" and "Falling (Twin Peaks Theme)." Look for a Brit single a month for the rest of year from these lads! Better than a blender.(JL)

Remake/Remodel

Jeffrey Lee Pierce's mutant version of the blues have evolved dramatically over the course of the nearly dozen years he's been recording. Although The Gun Club was a highly visible fixture in the early '80s, as well as one of the first bands to sign with Chris Stein's Animal Records, the great work of the reformed unit has been largely unavailable here at home. Yet another case of Europe better appreciating our homegrown talent. To help us close the gap, Triple X has released "In Exile", a compilation that was gleaned from 1987's brilliant "Mother Juno" (which was actually available here for a brief time through Fundamental -- even on CD), "Pastoral Hide & Seek" and "Divinity." The lineup on all tracks is: Pierce, Kid Congo Powers and Romi Mori, with drums from Nick Sanderson and Desi. Of the lot, the Robin Guthrie (yes, that Robin Guthrie) produced tracks from "Mother Juno" are the crown jewels, especially the Alice Cooper meets Tim Buckley "Lupita Screams"--- quite possibly one of the greatest ever "lost songs." Although trends and measures continue to display that unique usually equals unheard, Jeffrey Lee Pierce continues to forge a meld of Van and Jim Morrison, Rootboy Slim, Mose Allison and Iggy Pop--emerging with a hybrid, bastard son of Robert Johnson. It's a shame he has to wait for compilations to "officially" get heard at home. The track listing is deep with deserving classics, just cue up "I Hear Your Heart Singing", "The Breaking Hands", "Yellow Eyes", "St. John's Divine" (remix)", "Temptation & I", the Big Star meets Television "Richard Speck", and especially the aforementioned garage band genius of "Lupita Screams." ### Heavy Hitters

Suicidal Tendencies, "The Art Of Rebellion", Epic.... Perhaps this record should be titled "Perpetually In Motion", as the members of Suicidal are some of the most active musicians (Mike Muir and Robert Trujillo in particular) on the scene currently. What with all the side projects (namely Infectious Grooves), tours, videos, etc... they've barely kept still, and somewhere in between all that other stuff even managed to slam home another ST extravaganza. 1990's "Lights, Camera... Revolution" (and the subsequent tour with Queensryche), explored a different side of these multi-faceted individuals and introduced a streamlining trend that has truly come to fruition on their latest project ... as you will hear. It's not surprising, that "Lights" went on to become their most critically acclaimed work and their most successful. That is until now. Surprise y'all! ST's back in the house with a record that should effectively catapult them right over that brimming bin of industry buzz, dead center into the bigtime. Especially since they've gradually over the course of the last couple of albums, been treading closer and closer to the lines of accessibility. Fortunately, with "The Art Of Rebellion", it's been done solely on Suicidal terms. Still rampant with aggressive Mike Muir witticisms and freight train lyricism, this album breaks boldly beyond the strictly speed riff terrain of their first few releases. Now a much more multi-dimensional experience, ST explore terrains that will leave you scratching your head (but your toes no doubt will still be tapping) and saying to yourself, "Now wait a minute, here". Never fear, the transition's a very smooth one, with heavier tracks like "Can't Stop", "Gotta Kill Captain Stupid", "We Call This Mutha Revenge" and "It's Going Down" easily balancing out the more radio friendly numbers like the single "Asleep At The Wheel", "Monopoly On Sorrow" or "Which Way To Free?". The likes of which will truly surprise everyone, with their acoustic, psychedelic, sweeping textures. It's really exciting to see ST stepping out into these kinds of areas, without losing sight of their harder, faster roots. "The Art Of Rebellion" -- an album unfettered by over-commercialization, and loaded with the kind of musicality that could forever emancipate them from their strictly metal standings, without alienating the hordes of fans that have supported them for so long. Now, that is an accomplishment. More power to them.

Helmet, "Meantime", Interscope .... Now that the furor over the much longed for release of the first Helmet single,

("In The Meantime") has subsided and the band is now settled comfortably on the charts (10* this week on Hard Hitters and #7 Most Requested), we can get down to the nitty gritty of what this band is really all about -- the music. And a bunch of you have already gotten to sample the full blown debut album for Interscope, and so have a further understanding and hopefully, an appreciation for the stripped down, bare boned beauty of power groove. Among those who hammered the full LP straight into their playlists this week, were KSJS, KZOK, WDWN, WKNC, WMMR, WQNY, WSOU, WVBR, WXVU and WZMB. Of course, the single is still pounding away all over CFOX, KNGX, KSFX, KVHŠ, WBCN, WBIM, WJUL, WRFL, WSOU, WLRA, WAPI, WGIR, WPSU, WSMU, WVFS, KBPI, KDJK, KIOZ, KISW, KUCI, KUSF, KWUR, WAIF, WBAU, WCWP, WDWN, WFCS, WHMH, WKDU, WKPX, WLFR, WPSC, WRLC, WTPA, WVCR, WXCI, WXTB, WZMB and KNAC. More will succumb, I'm sure, as the other 9 songs begin to infiltrate their worlds. Helmet relinquished nothing on their major label debut. Rather, they offer a full tilt blast of heaviness, blessed with deep engrossing grooves, crushing, complex rhythms played with ease--as if they were simple party tunes (and they are far from it), biting, somewhat cryptic lyrics that scratch home serious, relevant points, and vocals that promise nothing more than the gruffest sincerity. That's the secret of Helmet. No bullshit, no pretension, posing or imaging (a lot like Prong). You'll slam from start to finish -- from the famed and most loved, "Unsung" (catchy tune this one), the level branding of "Ironhead", the bass driven chug of "Turned Out", the gentle bludgeoning of "He Feels Bad", "Better", "Give It", "FBLA II" and "Role Model". It'll sink you.

Black Sabbath, "Dehumanizer", Reprise,... Our first taste of the reformed (the Dio version) Black Sabbath's new album, came via the "Time Machine" track, included on the Wayne's World soundtrack. By the time the first official single, "TV Crimes" hit, anticipation was well on the rise. A strong blast of ethereal meets modern day lyricism met with the still sonic depths of Sabbath grind. A welcome return to the grandeur of the band's "Heaven & Hell" days. And so now here we stand on the brink of the "Dehumanizer". 11 long tracks (two versions of "Time Machine") worth of classic Iommi guitar refrains, Geezer Butler's pounding bass lines, Vinny Appice's stalwart drumming and of course the powerful high ranging growls of Ronnie James Dio. Today's Black Sabbath is prepared to tackle more earthly issues, but still within the dark and ominous tones of their natural stylings, and the wicked pennings of Mr. Dio. "After All (The Dead)" is a reverbs with Sabbath tones from another day. Absolutely awesome. I wasn't absolutely overjoyed at the prospect of another version of Sabbath comin' round, but this record reminded me what it was about the band that so endeared them to so many. What it was, I was forgetting amidst the slew of releases from the "new" Sabb generation (y'know the obviously influenced... you know the ones). Here the originals pound home their rightful quarry of leaden riffs and metal virtuosity. Check out "Computer God", the molten weight of "Letters From Earth", "Sins Of The Father", (almost sounds like Oz at times), the somber tones of "Too Late" and the blasting "I" (could be my fave). A surprising (happily so) great piece of work.

"Singles", Soundtrack, Epic.... Despite the fact that the movie isn't due to open in theaters nationwide until August 28th, the full soundtrack to it is shipping to metal radio a couple months early. That is, you should all now have in your possession one of the most solid and captivating soundtracks of the summer (11 of the 13 tracks are previously unreleased). Let it be known from the start that though set in Seattle, the movie examines interpersonal relationships, not the explosive music scene that has shattered musical standards of late. The groundbreaking swell of music from that region does supply a superb backdrop to the storyline however, and thus the soundtrack proudly boasts some of the Pacific Northwest's best new offerings of late and then some. From the platinum power of Pearl Jam (with "State Of Love And Trust" and "Breath") and the inimitable (and greatly loved) creative unit that spawned them, Mother Love Bone ("Chloe Dancer/Crown Of Thorns"), to the sonic fury of Soundgarden ("Birth Ritual"), Alice In Chains ("Would?"--now at 26* on Hard Hitters), Mudhoney ("Overblown"), the Smashing Pumpkins ("Drown") and the Screaming Trees ("Nearly Lost You" -- from their new LP due out September 8th), to a classic from the one and only Jimi Hendrix ("May This Be Love"). Plus ex-Replacements frontman Paul Westerberg offers up two simply delightful tunes ("Dyslexic Heart" and "Waiting For Somebody"), Chris Cornell doles out a lovely acoustic solo selection ("Seasons"), and The Lovemongers (they should sound quite familiar to you) harmonize a shimmering rendition of "Battle Of Evermore". A fabulous soundtrack and a great movie (from the early reviews I've been hearing) that features some of the above artists in various roles. Check it out when it's finally released, but in the meantime play all that you can from this wonderful soundtrack. Like I have to twist any arms. Seattle -- it's a song away as usual.

Sonic Youth, "100%", DGC .... Point blank, I've never been a Sonic Youth fan. In fact, I've been rather emphatic about it.

Ask Jon Rosenfelder. Anyway, he is directly responsible for coaxing a promise out of me to listen to the new album (produced for the first time, by Butch Vig and mixed by Matt Wallace) with a totally open mind (or as much as possible) and to give him an honest opinion. I can do this. Okay, so I'm on my way in liking this song... I can admit that.

This single in particular had my body moving in cadence with the groove/grind punk flavored rhythms in no time at all. I realize I don't have to like the old stuff to appreciate the new, and if that sounds hypocritical, how many of you didn't "hear" Faith No More or Queensryche, Soundgarden, Extreme, Alice In Chains or Pearl Jam (among a couple dozen others) right off the bat? Besides, the full album is yet to come, and, there's no denying regardless of my opinion, that Sonic Youth is the next in line, the inheritor's of the big bad alternative/metal rush that seems to be in full flight right about now. The swing is definitely towards these kinds of bands, and Sonic Youth have a pretty impressive base already set up. Their "Daydream Nation" LP was a breakthrough, and the single "Teen Age Riot" hit #1 on the alternative charts and took a zillion other honors. So, why not work such a guitar oriented band to metal (since we seemed to be trading bands back and forth like baseball cards so much these days anyway). "100%" is a rather catchy and upbeat song that's actually about violence (an apropos song for the times). Searing, angular guitar lines scrape along a thick bed of bass and drums and vocalist Thurston Moore sings emphatically overhead. Quite enjoyable. So, a new day is dawning here at Hard, and no doubt Sonic Youth are on the verge of a massive rise to even great heights. More on the album later. I'll listen and who knows...

Bonham, "Mad Hatter", WTG/Epic..... The name should certainly not be a new one to anyone involved with music in any capacity (unless you've been under a rock for a few decades), and certainly this band made their mark with the 1989 debut_"The Disregard Of Timekeeping". A gold success here in the U.S. and a million seller worldwide, it set the boys (Jason Bonham-drums, Ian Hatton-guitars, Daniel MacMaster-vocals and John Smithsonbass/keyboards/violin and backing vocals) up pretty well for their second release. So, here almost 3 years later we get the mad cap dash and run of "Mad Hatter". And there were obstacles to overcome. Namely, the Led Zeppelin stigma that dogged them continuously since their formation, though if anyone has a right to do Zep, you gotta feel it's one of their kids. Anyway, the band rose above that and capitalized on the hit single "Wait For You" and the rest was history. This time round, the seasoning that comes from over 200 live shows and some writing isolation (Ibiza, Spain) sparkles through. Of course, it's hard to escape the vocal similarities to Monsieur

THE HARD REPORT

Plant, but even so, Daniel works his voice in some very different directions on "Mad Hatter". Almost sounding like Tora Tora's Anthony Corder or Tesla's Jeff Keith at times. Not bad company. The album is a variegated rockfest, that sprawls raucously into R&B, jazzy little horn sections (the title track), and even a lovely chiming ballad or two (the AOR choice, the lovely "Change Of Season" finstance). Strong guitars and bold brassy bottom section work, all add to the magic and Bonham are back in business. Try on for size, "The Storm", the title track, "Backdoor", "Secrets", "Chimera" (cool song) or "Bing".

Rhino Bucket, "Get Used To It", Reprise .... This straight hitting Los Angeles based rock band, first hit the scene in 1990 with their self-titled debut. It was an album that shocked a lot of people with the undeniable AC/DC similarities (unavoidable actually do to vocalist Georg Dolivo's very Bon Scott-ish vocals), but also managed to do well despite that, especially with the single "One Night Stand". Mostly because Rhino Bucket, (rounded out by Greg Fields-lead guitar, Reeve Downes-bass and Liam Jason-drums) are a pretty solid bunch of musicians, who pull no punches. They play old school rock n'roll and that's something a lot of people still find incredibly appealing in these times of hi-tech alterna-influenced rock. It's actually almost a touch refreshing to just sit back and let a record just crank, and to not have to work at "getting" it. This band plays hard, with a healthy dose of attitude, sexual innuendo and most importantly a big bad crunchy feel. Hard to deny that kind of instant sound. And now they return with their sophomore effort and it's loaded with stomping good time bar-room brawler types. The CD's opening number is kind of self-explanatory ("Beat To Death Like A Dog"), and very rowdy, "Hey There" is a really happening number that could do well across the tracks, "The Devil Sent You" is an all out anthem (many of them are, for that matter). "She's A Screamer", "Burn The World" and "Scratch 'N'Sniff" are all good time tunes, but "Stomp" takes the prize for most uh, unique. Don't be discouraged by the familiar sound. Listen to them strictly as Rhino Bucket and enjoy, or go "Ride With Yourself".

Quick Picks

Bang Tango, "Ain't No. Jive ... Live" EP, MCA .... One of my favorite bands, Bang Tango I've tracked Bang Tango's progress from their debut release, "Psycho Cafe", the "Live Injection" EP and of course their most recent offering, last year's "Dancin' On Coals" (all were released on their previous label Mechanic through MCA). The latter being a record sadly overlooked by com-mercial rock radio. It beautifully documented their amazing progression from L.A. club band to major star act. Maybe their time is still to come. Well, over the years since "Psycho Cafe", the band has spent a lot of time out on the road, improving, creating and churning out one great live review after another. And now while we await a new album from the Tango boys, the label has opted to send out this five song EP which was boys, the label has opted to send out this five song EP which was just fine with me. Included are live versions (some of which was recorded at the Marquee in L.A.) of "Dancin' On Coals" and "20th Century Boy" (yeah, the Marc Bolan song), the breakthrough song that was a regular on MTV, "Someone Like You", the swampy, blues riddled "Midnight Struck" (the last single from "Dancin") and lastly, what is still my favorite Bang Tango song... the very first single from the first album, "Attack Of Life" (the extended 9 minute version with a little Nugent in the mid-(the extended 9 minute version with a little Nugent in the middle). The sound is great and the band is right on the money all the way through. Hopefully, this will hold over Bang T. fans 'til the next one, and with any luck the next time, will usher in the "big" one.

Soundgarden, "Stray Cat Blues" EP, A&M....Many of you have probably already heard about the special retail promotion that A&M and Soundgarden are doing. That is including for a limited time this five song EP with the "Badmotorfinger" album as a double CD set for $13.99. Rather a great deal, eh?

Well, here for your further Soundgarden entertainment is that very same EP, featuring the new emphasis track--"Stray Cat Blues" a extra crunchy and swanky version of that Rolling Stones tune. Is there no song this band can't make their own? Doubt it. Chris sure is proving quite the versatile singer. Just amazing. This could be such a smash at AOR. Also included are a couple of the same songs (still worthy of your attentions of course) that were included on the "Rusty Cage" maxi-CD. Those being Sabbath's "Into The Void", Devo's "Girl U Want" (what a cool version too). Also just to keep things interesting, they've in-cluded a live version of "Slaves & Bulldozers" (a track that's quickly proven one of the shining stars and a common fave from off the "Badmotorfinger" album), and "She's A Politician". A brand spankin' new Soundgarden original. So while the band prepares to hit the highways and biways of America on Lollapalooza II (with a host of other great talent), this should keep you all rocking very nicely. Be sure also to check out the bizarre little message printed on the face of the CD. Lots of early adds already at CFOX, KNGX, WBCN, WFCS, WJUL, WKNH, WRLC, WSOU, WXCI, WZMB.

Sarkoma, "Completely Different" Grindcore... Nice Monty Python intro. The folks over at Grindcore have been shipping out a lot of heavy stuff lately, and this Illinois based outfit is no exception. Sonically, they are fast and very heavy, with rapid fire drum kicks a seeming specialty, but surprisingly and pleasingly they are not of the death metal ilk, that you might be expecting. In fact, they are a bit more progressive in nature, and lead vocalist Brian "Troll" Carter has a rather cool thrash/metal voice, not unlike the raw youthful quality that Death Angel and Flotsam & Jetsam possessed. Backing him up are the equally volatile and intense talents of Aaron Ingram on drums, Tony Crisman on bass, Mike Hillenburg and Stu Jonson on guitars. This is only their debut EP (six songs worth) but they certainly pack a lot of wallop into the almost 20 minutes worth of speed grind and roll. Lyrically, the band seem quite adept and in fact sport a very interesting,

Hard Rock/Heavy Metal

Not overwritten and far from the bare basics, they tackle some very real everyday issues, and they do it well. Quite an impressive piece of work all in all and certainly full of an awful lot of promise. Catch 'em now before they go ballistic. They very well could. Try all six songs. And now for something completely different...

Roxus, "Bad Boys", Savage....Welcome to the first release from Savage Records -- the new label headed by Frank DiLeo

Management (they'll be bringing you the new LP from Saints & Sinners soon too). In case you're wondering, Roxus is a rowdy young bunch of radio ready rockers well versed in the value of a hook. The kind of band AOR/COR stations can't wait to get their hands on. And theirs is a definite melodic one two punch, perfectly tailored for the more accessible amongst us, but there's still enough edge here and there to insure some playability on this side of the fence. Kind of a Bon Jovi musical sensibility meets BulletBoys attitude and swagger. They are the combined skills of talented vocalist Juno Roxas, former Rose Tattoo guitarist Pete Wells, Andy Shanahan on keyboards, Dragan Stanic on guitars, and John Nixon and Darren Danielson who comprise the band's solid rhythm section. Their debut album (produced by Mark Opitz) will be released in early July, but in the meantime, the label is sending out the first track, "Bad Boys" to make the introductions for them. Perhaps a self-descriptive anthem, it has all the punch and pull you'd hope for, plus extra helpings of attitude. It reminded me a lot of Sweet F.A. meets the BulletBoys. A fiery young bunch like this shouldn't have any trouble working their way into the limelight. One to watch.

Alice In Chains, "Would?", Columbia .... Yeah, I realize I wrote the full soundtrack this week, but being that Columbia has been working this track as their own, I feel justified in raving just a bit more about how well the mighty Alice In Chains are doing. And so with that said, allow me to rattle off the necessary stats. The lead single (which features guitarist Jerry Cantrell handling half the vocals) from the Singles movie soundtrack, "Would?" took a hefty leap up Hard Hitters from 38-26* with the help from WPSU who added it this week and KDJK, KVHS and WRLC, who all hiked it up a little higher in their playlists. Of course the song is already spreading far & wide across the nation with thanks to the likes of CFOX, KEYJ, WBCN, WLRA, WPSC, WSOU, KWUR, KZOK, WAPI, WCWP, WHJY, WKDU, WLFR, WVFS, WXCI, WXDR, WZRC, KNAC, WHVY and Z-Rock. Of course many of the previous adds will probably now turn over in favor of the full album (among them WBNY, WVCR, KMSA, KNGX, KUNV, KZAK, KZRX, WBIM, WDWN, WFCS, WGIR, WJUL, WKNC, WKNH, WMMR, WQNY, WVVX and WZMB). Look for the album to rocket up the charts in the next week or two, there's a lot of tremendous stuff on it. Like this.

"Manic Frustration", Trouble. American....Chicago's own Trouble, were at the mercy of a messed up mailing a couple of weeks ago, but you wouldn't know it looking at the numbers now. The EP and the full album are both now hitting radio for all their worth and the results are obvious (of course it helps that this is the band's most amazing record yet). This week "Manic Frustration" strolled breezily up Hard Hitters from 46-22*. This with new adds on the album at KCLB, KDJK, KNGX, KSJS, KVHS, WBCN, WBIM, WEOS, WHJY, WKDU, WKNC, WPSC, WRFL, WTPA, WXCI and WXVU, plus a handful of increases at WHMH, WNHU and WZMB, and super strong support already from WPSU, KZAK, WAIF, WFCS, WGIR, WJUL, WKNH, WQNY, CFOX and WVCR. And let us not forget the 3 song EP that's circulating about too. It's also nailed down some airplay action (it'll all be transferred over to LP credit next week) at WSOU, KUNV, WKNC, WVVX, WZRC and KNAC. The more Trouble the better. Go ahead -- vent your "Fnistration".

Did you know that there is a possibility that Alice In Chains (Columbia), Circus Of Power (Columbia), Junkyard (Gelfen), L7 (Slash/Warner Bros.) and The Obsessed will be taking the stage July 6th in Los Angeles at The Scream Club... This summer's KISS (Mercury) tour has been postponed until they get their stage built... Danzig (Def American) will be opening up on 7 dates of the Black Sabbath (Reprise) arena tour. The guys in Trouble (Def American) will be joining Pantera (Atco) on the road starting August 16th. No other dates or locations are available, so stay tuned here for info as it becomes available... Be watching for Lynch Mob (Elektra) to set out on a club tour in the not-sodistant future.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$  Just in case you haven't heard, Jesse James Dupree (frontman for the Geffen band Jackyl) and crew staged an impromptu concert in front of the local K-mart store. The band stated the reason they chose to back up a flatbed truck and crank it up at the K-mart front door was because the whole time they had been working on their new album they had to worry about what artwork they use and their lyrics, etc. with the concern that K-mart won't carry it. If that incident was not enough, earlier in the weekend Dupree had carried out another "publicity stunt" of his own when, wielding a chainsaw, Dupree entered a local steakhouse and carved the band's name into a table where local radio programmers and Geffen executives were dining. Both stunts have not only given the band much publicity but also a few citations as well.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$  If anyone is interested in trying out for the frontman position in The Four Horsemen you should get a package (consisting of the usual tape and photo together) and send it to: Def American c/o Clarissa Garcia 3500 W. Olive Ave. Suite 1550, Burbank, CA 91505.  $\bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet \bullet$  Just a quick thank you to all the metal types that made their way down to our little pad last weekend -- it was great seeing all of you.  $\blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge \blacklozenge$  Have a nice day. Peace.

The four members of U2 joined about a hundred demonstrators for Greenpeace at a beach near a controversial nuclear fuels treatment plant in Britain. The band road rafts from a Greenpeace ship at sea to a public beach near the Sellafield plant, bringing barrels of mud from the Irish coastline that they said was contaminated by radiation. U2 came to the protest early Saturday morning after a Friday night "Stop Sellafield" concert in Manchester. "It's absurd that a rock group like us has to get involved to bring the facts out," Bono said. "Large companies think they can gag people like us and Greenpeace. They've got away with it in the past but people are turning against that now."

Jesse James Dupree, lead singer of hard rock group Jackyl, took a chainsaw out and attacked a table in an Atlanta restaurant, in an apparent publicity stunt. "It was frightening and people ran," says restaurant owner George McKerrow. "They were scared....It was not funny." Dupree was hoping to attract the attention of radio consultants who were lunching with a representative of Jackyl's record company. "A regular Georgian shouldn't get upset about the smell of gasoline and a chainsaw in a restaurant," Dupree says. "It's hard to believe that people are flipped out over something that silly."

Guitarist Zander Schloos, formerly of Thelonious Monster, has been named the new guitarist for the Red Hot Chili Peppers, replacing John Frusciante. The two bands have had a close association. The Chili Peppers' Flea appeared on Thelonious Monster's "Stormy Weather" album, and the "Bob" mentioned in the Chili Peppers' "Me & My Friends" is Thelonious Monster lead singer Bob Forrest.

The Farm have been signed to Sony Records in an almost-worldwide five-album deal said to be worth over $1.8 million. The deal does not affect their current label (Sire Records) in the U.S. They have a new single, "Rising Sun," just out.

Justin Sullivan, singer for New Model Army, suffered burns to his hands and arms when he was electrocuted on stage during a show in Switzerland. Paramedics who took Sullivan to the hospital say he was technically dead for at least nine seconds.

Mike Scott of the Waterboys is recording a solo album in New York. "I've been doing stuff with Frank Zappa's bass player, a Yugoslavian sitar player, a girl drummer, a Greek clarinet player and Whitney Houston's percussionist," Scott says.

Lou Gramm has rejoined Foreigner and they have already begun working together on three new songs planned for an upcoming "The Very Best Of Foreigner" album. Two members had recently left Gramm's group Shadow King, which released an album last year. Johnny Edwards, who sang with Foreigner on the "Unusual Heat" album, is now working with ex-Ratt guitarist Warren DeMartini.

British band Captain America have had to change their name to Eugenius, following complaints by Marvel Comics. "We are great admirers of Captain America's deeds over the last 50 years and wanted to pay tribute to his courage and strength in our own little musical way," says Eugene Kelly of the group. "To tarnish the name of this great American institution was not our aim. We are deeply sorry to the great man. Marvel comics, however, can..." Captain America have had two top five singles on the British independent charts and opened for Nirvana on a recent European tour.

The Cult and their record label have been sued for $61 million in a New York court by the parents of a Sioux Indian boy pictured on the cover of their "Ceremony" album. Tom and Jennifer Crazy Bear DuBray complain the band used the photo of their 11-year-old son, Eternity, without their permission and that its use "trivializes his religion, culture and spiritual heritage." Ian Astbury of the Cult apparently bought a print of the picture from the photographer. Entertainment Weekly says the photographer took it at a 1984 meeting of Oglala Sioux in North Dakota. Astbury defends the use of the photo by noting that he's been "interested in Red Indian culture ever since I was 12 years old." The video for the single "Wild Hearted Son" sees various pictures go up in flames, including one of Eternity. And a lawyer for the DuBrays says that he now refuses to participate in tribal ceremonies or to leave his house by himself.

The U.S. Supreme Court has left intact a lower court ruling which says the U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigation should open files it collected on John Lennon. The decision rejects an FBI appeal of a 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruling which orders the FBI to provide more detailed explanations of why major portions of files were being withheld.

Albums from Taj Mahal, Muddy Waters, Johnny Winter and Son House are coming as part of Columbia Records' Contemporary Blues Masters Series. The Taj Mahal compilation, "Taj's Blues," features the previously unreleased "East Bay Woman." The other albums, just being released, are "Father Of The Delta Blues: The Complete 1965 Sessions" by Son House; "Blues Sky" from Muddy Waters; and "Scorchin' Blues" by Johnny Winter.

"Hooked On A Beatles Tribute" by Dr. Fink & The Mystery Band is a new album of six medleys of 31 Beatles hits, carrying on the tradition of the "Hooked On Classics" album eleven years ago. Dr. Fink is a former member of Prince's band. He's aided on the album by vocalist Damian Paul and guitarist James Behringer. "Each medley represents a specific era and within the medley there is a chronological sequence," Fink says.

Salt-N-Pepa make their film debut in "Stay Tuned," an upcoming film starring John Ritter and Pam Dawber. They cover "Start Me Up" in their appearance "at a climatic moment" in the film. The film comes out in late August.

French Canadian singer Celine Dion begins her first U.S. tour, opening for Michael Bolton, on July 13 in Los Angeles and continuing through mid-August.

Carter USM are likely to be unable to ever play their British top ten hit "After The Watershed" in a settlement of a lawsuit filed against the band by the Rolling Stones' publishing company. The song has already been deleted from new British copies of the band's album.

Curve drummer Steve Monti and former Luxuria bass player Noko appear on the new album from the Heart Throbs, "Jubilee Twist" (on A&M Records). "The songs explore melody and atmosphere more than the last album," says vocalist Rose Carlotti. "There's more use of space and dynamics. Having produced it ourselves, we felt a lot more personally involved in the making of it, and I think that intimacy and uniqueness of character is reflected in the songs."

Living Colour guitarist Vernon Reid appears on the song "Cabbies On Crack," which will appear on the next Ramones album, "Mondo Bizarro," coming out in September. Joey Ramone decided to write the song after taking a taxi in New York City. "For the guitar solo, Vernon was the perfect choice -- and I've always been a fan of his style," Ramone says. "The day he did it, our elevator was broken, and he walked up 10 flights of stairs with his guitar. He had a good attitude about it. He'd been in the same situation before, so he could relate. He did three takes and just let go."

The Kiss comic book biography (by Revolutionary Comics) is being made available on newsstands, instead of just being sold at comic book and specialty stores. But the San Diego company is issuing a censored version of the book. "We decided to make two separate versions, one for the direct market (comic book stores), and one 'edited' version for mass consumption, which would eliminate certain so-called objectionable words," says publisher Todd Loren. The censored version takes out some dialogue in which Gene Simmons is describing the location of a female fan's tattoo.

The new album from INXS features a track, "Baby Don't Cry," recorded with a 69-piece orchestra. The new LP, "Welcome To Wherever You Are" was produced with Mark Opitz, who produced "Shabooh Shoobah" and was mixed bý Bob Clearmountain.

Martha & The Muffins have a new album coming out this summer in Canada (on Intrepid Records). It's just as well they've changed their name back from M + M, since an R&B duo from South Carolina and Jersey City using the name M&M has a new album coming out called "Get 2 Know Ya Betta" (on Atlantic Records).

Bob Geldof, former lead singer of the Boomtown Rats, and his wife, Paula Yates, are to host a British morning television program. Geldof and Yates are reported to have been given an $18 million contract to host the program. Yates co-hosted "The Tube" with Jools Holland in the 1980s, but this is Geldof's first venture into television presenting.

Prince & The New Power Generation have been going into a west London studio late each night during their series of concerts in the city.

The Canadian Cancer Society has established the Brian MacLeod Fund, in memory of the Vancouver guitarist who had performed with the Headpins and Loverboy, among others. A neon replica of MacLeod's Stratocaster guitar will go to the individual or group that makes the largest donation to the fund by July 31. MacLeod died of cancer in April.

After the success of his movies "Dances With Wolves" and "Robin Hood: Prince Of Thieves," a Japanese record company has reissued a soft rock album recorded five years ago by a group called the Simple Truth that included actor Kevin Costner. The album is called "Roving Boy."

Clannad's "Harry's Game" is being included on the soundtrack to the film "Patriot Games," starring Harrison Ford." The song was the theme to a British television series ten years ago. It will also be included on the band's new U.S. album, "Anam."

The British band Catherine Wheel is not breaking up. Last week, we reported that the Catherine Wheel was splitting up because of "musical differences" -- but the band that is breaking up is a Sydney, Australia, independent band with that name led by Andrea Croft -- and not the U.K. group currently on tour. (We apologize for any confusion caused.)

Three members of Hammer's road crew suffered minor injuries in a shooting at Roosevelt Park in Albuquerque, New Mexico. Members of the crew were having a barbeque at the park when a vehicle pulled up and six to eight shots were heard. Authorities say the shooting was an "internal thing." "Preliminary investigations and interviews with witnesses indicate it was not a drive-by shooting," a source close to the investigation was quoted as saying. "The investigation and interviews indicate there was some sort of disturbance involving those people with Hammer." Police add that their investigation has been hampered because those involved in the shooting have been abusive to their officers and the three shooting victims refuse to be interviewed.

Trial has begun in Rome for two government officials charged with permitting Pink Floyd to play at St. Mark's Square in Venice, Italy, in July 1989. Deputy mayor Cesare De Piccoli and former superintendent of historic buildings Maurizia De Min are charged with approving the show, which attracted 150,000 fans and left 200 tons of garbage in its wake. Historic buildings were also damaged when fans climbed on them to get a better view of the band.

Prefab Sprout are releasing a greatest hits album, two years after their album "Jordan: The Comeback." "Careers have come and gone in the time we have thought about records," Paddy McAloon says. "But it's the only way that we know how to work. It takes us a lot of time to write the songs." McAloon says he's writing mostly ballads for the band's next new album, due out next year. "The new album is in the very early stages," he says. "I've got all the songs we need for it. We'll record it in the autumn and hopefully have it ready for the spring." Guns N' Roses canceled a sold-out concert in Ghent, Belgium, because bass player Duff McKagan was suffering from gastroenteritis and a respiratory problem. A doctor examined him after a concert in Rotterdam, the Netherlands, and told him to rest for a couple of days. McKagan was already feeling poorly after the band played an outdoor concert in Wuerzberg, Germany, in pouring rain.

David Cassidy has recorded a song to help raise money for those affected by the rioting in Los Angeles. Cassidy wrote the song with Sue Shifrin, and it's been performed by the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra and a choir of various community groups. Los Angeles Mayor Tom Bradley was among those who joined the choir for the recording of "Stand & Be Proud," which will benefit the organization Rebuild L.A.

Louisiana Governor Edwin Edwards says he will veto legislation approved by the State House which would make it illegal to sell obscene records to minors. "I have a very serious problem with government at any level deciding what books people can read, what poetry they can read, what songs they can sing," Edwards says. The House approved the measure on a 61 to 29 vote. Retail outlets that sell a record with explicit lyrics could be fined $500 and given six-month jail terms.

Tin Machine will release an album in early August, called "Oy Vey. Baby." It was recorded live in Hamburg, Germany.

The First International Madonna Appreciation Convention is scheduled in Southfield, Michigan, on August 16 --Madonna's 34th birthday. The USA Today newspaper reports that some of Madonna's personal articles will be displayed at a collectibles museum. There will be a look-alike and lip-sync contest and tours of Madonna's childhood neighborhoods, including "the open field of Madonna's first kiss." The 1992 Maddie Awards, for achievement in Madonna mania, are also to be given out at the Madonnathon, sponsored by MLC, a Madonna fanzine.

John Lennon's copy of the 1970 affidavit from Paul McCartney asking for dissolution of the Beatles sold for $18,000 at an auction in San Francisco recently. A gold album given the Beatles for "Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band" went for $23,000 to a New York dealer.

The Lunachicks and Evan Dando of the Lemonheads were on the bill for a Rock For Choice benefit concert recently in Boston.

Chicago will receive a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame on July 24. The band was scheduled to get the award on May 4, but the event was delayed because of the rioting that followed the Rodney King verdict. Songwriter and trombonist Jimmy Pankow says the last Chicago album, "Twenty-One," "didn't really do well at all. I don't think it even went plywood, much less gold or platinum. Frankly, we in the band were overjoyed with the failure of that album, because now our hands are no longer tied....Our niche in radio is gone." Pankow says the next Chicago album may be more R&B-oriented and might be a concept LP. "Whatever we do, I know it's going to be fun," he says. "We want to do an album that sounds the way this band comes across live."

A double-CD boxed set of the last recordings of blues guitarist Elmore James will be released in early August (on Capricorn Records). A live-performance tribute to the late David Ruffin, former leader of the Temptations, will get advance screenings in Detroit, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, Chicago and Atlanta in mid-July. Hall & Oates, Martha Reeves, Bobby Womack, Mary Wilson, the Dramatics and Stevie Wonder are featured on the television show, organized by Detroit attorney Gregory J. Reed. "The Original Temptations: The Ruffin, Kendrick & Edwards Story" is the first time a Motown artist tribute has been produced by an independent company.

Sir Mix-A-Lot says he got the idea for "Baby Got Back" during a video shoot, while he was chatting with a dancer.

Music Now!

"She was saying a lot of the black women had a hard time getting jobs, even from black acts," Mix-A-Lot says. "That's because a lot of the black acts are trying to satisfy the mainstream, and staying away from the thicker waist. So me and (Def American founder) Rick Rubin started talking about writing a song. I think most women think their butts are too big, anyway, so we thought the song would work really well." Mix-A-Lot says most of the criticism of the song has come from "beanpoles." "Obviously, the 6-foot beanpole model types are the first to call it sexist," he says. "But I personally don't like a woman who looks anorexic."

The Hollywood Reporter says Lionel Richie will change record labels after 18 years with Motown Records. The publication says Richie has signed a $30 million recording contract with PolyGram that includes five albums and a greatest hits LP.

A survey of concerts for the first six months of this year finds that the Grateful Dead grossed more than any other artist, with Harry Connick Jr., ranking second and Neil Diamond was third. The Amusement Business magazine Top 25 Boxscore found that concert grosses are up $12 million from last year and attendance is up 660,000. Neil Diamond's 10 nights of sold-out concerts in Sydney, Australia, was the highest-grossing concert stand -- earning $3.7 million with attendance of 114,000.

Hammer's recent concert in Louisville, Kentucky, will benefit people in South Central Los Angeles affected by the May rioting. Hammer's concert helped USA Harvest, a group that has activities in 72 U.S. cities. The organization is now distributing 500,000 pounds of food, and 40,000 pounds has been given to a food pantry named Seedling based in South Central Los Angeles.

Billy Joel was named Champion Of The Environment at a society auction in Bridgehampton, New York, which raised money for the Group Of The South Fork, an environmental group. "I'm a little hesitant about being Champion of the Environment," Joel said. "It's easy for me to recycle. I pay the caretaker to take it to the dump."

A lawsuit has been filed in Washington state, seeking to overturn a state "erotic recordings" law which has went into effect in June. The Washington Music Industry Coalition and the American Civil Liberties Union are behind the lawsuit which seeks to block a law which makes it illegal to sell records with explicit lyrics to minors.

Bryan Adams will headline a series of nine open-air concerts in Canada from mid-August through early September. His "Waking Up The Nation" tour will also feature Steve Miller, Extreme and the Arc Angels. It begins August 14 in St. John's, Newfoundland.

A two-CD compilation of material from the Rascals is being released, featuring 44 tracks from ten of the band's LPs. Remastered versions of the songs are included on "The Rascals: Anthology," which will include a 50-page booklet of photographs and information on band recording sessions as well as quotes from original band members.

Wilson Pickett has been released on his own recognizance after pleading innocent to aggravated assault charges in connection with an accident in which he hit an 86-year-old pedestrian in April. Police say Pickett had a blood-alcohol level over twice the legal limit when his truck hit the man, who has recovered from his injuries. Pickett says the man didn't hear him honk his horn. "The guy walked in the street like a little kid," Pickett says. "The guy walked into the side of the truck."

A 17-track album, called "Barcelona Gold," will be released in late July, in a tie-in with Time Warner, Coca-Cola and NBC Sports. Eight of the songs on the album have not been released -- including Madonna's "This Used To Be My Playground," which is used in her upcoming "A League Of Their Own Film"; "Not Enough Time" from INXS; "The Heart To Climb The Mountain" from Randy Travis; Anita Baker's "How Fast, How Far"; "Don't Tread On Me" by Damn Yankees; "Higher Baby" from DJ Jazzy Jeff & The Fresh Prince; "Old Soldier" from Marc Cohn; and a duet by Jose Carreras and Sarah Brightman of "Amigos Para Siempre." Don Was has convinced Kim Basinger to record a duet with Ozzy Osbourne for the next Was (Not Was) album.

The war of words over Body Count's "Cop Killer" continues, with Ice-T defending the track and criticism of the song continuing. Ice-T says he doesn't have a gripe with all police officers. "I don't have anything against all police. If they were legitimate and not corrupt, I'd probably be a cop. I like things to be right, but they're not," Ice-T says. "I'm singing in the first person as a character who is fed up with police brutality. I ain't never killed no cop. I felt like it a lot of times, but I never did it." Ice-T says he doesn't think the song will encourage people to start shooting police, and the head of the African-American Peace Officer Association based on Southern California agrees. "We, as law enforcement officers, do not take the words to the song 'Cop Killer' literally, but do understand that the unprofessional act of police brutality is the target of the song's lyrics," says Carl McGill, president of the association. A third national record store chain, Sound Warehouse, which has 145 stores in 14 states, has decided to stop selling Body Count's album. New York Governor Mario Cuomo says the song should be condemned by society. "When you're out there screaming...take a shot at a cop, and society allows that to go without protest, then it becomes a significant message and a dangerous one," Cuomo says. Alabama Governor Guy Hunt has asked other governors to join him in efforts against the record, and Sheriff John McDougall of Lee County, Florida, says Ice-T should be prosecuted under a new hate crime law that has taken effect in Florida.

Elton John begins his first U.S. tour since 1988 in Atlanta on August 11.

The Oak Ridge Boys and Ronnie Milsap had the chance to record the smash hit "Achy Breaky Heart," but they never did. Author Don Von Tress, who wrote it, was getting discouraged until he met Billy Ray Cyrus. "After he recorded it, I finally met him. Somebody told him I was a Vietnam vet. He played me a song, 'Some Gave All,' about a Vietnam vet, and sort of won my heart after that." Von Tress, who has been working as a wallpaper hanger for the past eight years, also wrote the current Oak Ridge Boys single, "Fall." "I'm not that prolific. I've written maybe 50 songs in my whole life," Von Tress says. As for "Achy Breaky Heart," he adds, "I just wanted to write a song that took a sort of tongue-in- cheek, humorous look at having a broken heart. Breaking up wouldn't be so bad if your heart wasn't involved."

Keith Richards, Aretha Franklin, George Jones and Bonnie Raitt are included in a Cool Hall of Fame list compiled by Entertainment Weekly for an issue about who and what is cool.

A new site is being sought for an Oxfam benefit concert planned for September in Britain featuring the Cure, the Mission, the Levellers, the Farm and Tori Amos. Officials of the city council in Malvern Hill refused to grant a license for the event.

The next album from Throwing Muses, called "Red Heaven," will be out in August.

A survey conducted by the NAACP's Record Company & Music Video Task Force contends that few blacks are behind the camera for music videos. A survey of the 1,783 music videos produced in the U.S. last year found that, while over a third featured black artists, only eight percent of the total were made by black production companies. The survey found, not surprisingly, that black crew members are more prevalent on videos for black artists.

The Beach Boys have contributed $100,000 to Eye Witness for the Earth, an effort to put video cameras in the hands of environmental groups. The first 25 cameras are to be given to indigenous people and groups in Brazil. Members of the Beach Boys announced the new organization during the Earth Summit at Rio. It's very similar to a recently-launched project backed by Peter Gabriel which seeks to prevent human rights abuses by supplying video cameras. Singer John Oliva has left Savatage because he "no longer enjoyed touring." However, he will continue to work with the band and help write material.

Former Burning Tree bass player Mark Dutton and drummer Doni Grey are working with Izzy Stradlin on his debut solo album, planned for release in October. Cheap Trick drummer Bun E. Carlos and former Rolling Stones keyboardist Nicky Hopkins have also made appearances on the album.

Primus have recorded a cover version of XTC's "Making Plans For Nigel."

Rob Halford of Judas Priest says he's been working for the past six months on material for his planned "extremely heavy" solo album. "I'm constantly inspired and excited by people like Pantera and Corrosion Of Confirmity and Prong and Ministry. They really do it for me," Halford says. "When I see that kind of energy and that kind of attitude, it really excites me. I find that kind of approach very, very invigorating and liberating." Halford still hasn't put together a band for the solo project, but he says Priest drummer Scott Travis may appear on the LP.

Carter USM have recorded covers of the Jam's "Down In The Tube Station At Midnight," Wire's "Mannequin," and Generation X's "King Rocker" for the seven- and 12-inch versions of their latest British single "Do Re Me So Far So Good."

U2 were among protesters who successfully managed to defy a ban on an anti-Sellafield demonstration. As reported in last week's Hard Report, the band have been giving their support to a campaign to prevent British Nuclear Fuels opening a second plant at the Sellafield site in Cumbria, north England. Plans for a full-scale demonstration on June 20 were abandoned after British Nuclear Fuels gained a High Court injunction stopping any public meeting from taking place on their land. In order to get around the ban, U2 were among protesters who sailed to Seascale, Cumbria on the Greenpeace ship Solo. The protesters, dressed in white radiation suits and sunglasses, went ashore at Sellafield via inflatable boats. The night before, U2 played a benefit at Manchester's G-MEX Centre with BAD II, Public Enemy and Kraftwerk to raise awareness about the Sellafield issue. The band then got up at 5am to board Solo. The early rise was essential as protesters landed on beaches, but did not venture past the high tide mark. If they had done so, they would have been on British Nuclear Fuels' land and it was therefore necessary to land at low tide. The protesters' inflatables also carried contaminated mud from around the British coast. Commenting on his and U2's actions, Bono said: "It's pretty absurd that we have to do this. We're a rock 'n' roll band. But, Sellafield 2 (the new plant, scheduled to open this year) increases radiation by 1000 per cent. Someone has got to do something." Bono continued: "The stuffin those barrels is already over 10 times over the limit that BNFL are allowed...So, you cannot take these people at their word. Theyspent 100,000 pounds this week on an advertising campaign saying that they won't allow Sellafield to become a danger to the public. They cancelled a peaceful demonstration because they said they were worried about public safety.-Public safety -- that's just a joke coming from them. These people are responsible for the deaths of innocent children." Bono also commented: "It hink th scared, you have to ask what they've got to hide. Why are they so scared?" Bono concluded: "There are a lot of good causes out there, but this is unique because it really is a chance to have a real impact. I actually don't believe that Sellafield 2 will go ahead. The British Government are smart enough to recognize not just this action but the action that is about to take place at Downing Street. (Greenpeace will be handing in a petition against Sellafield 2 to the British Government on July 1.) Word is that at the highest level, people are very nervous about this. They have just spent two billion pounds on it. Nobody wants to admit it is a mistake. It will be a real scandal when all the facts come out about this. That is all, really, we can do. We are not experts. It is kinda absurd that we have to dress up like complete wankers to make this point." Although police kept a close watch on protesters on the beach, they made no attempt to intervene and stop the demonstration.

Morrissey cancelled his scheduled performance at the Glastonbury Festival on Friday, June 26, but has announced he will perform at the Madness reunion concert at London's Finsbury Park on August 8 instead. James stepped in at the last moment to take Morrissey's place at Glastonbury. Commenting on Morrissey's decision, a spokesman commented: "He tried to fit it in, but he's just not in a position to do it. He's finished the album, Your Arsenal and it will be released on July 27. But now he's in the middle of recording B-sides for forthcoming singles. He did want to do one show and the Madness concert obviously fits his schedule better." Some confusion surrounds the rest of the bill for the Madness show. The Farm insist they will play at the event, but its organizers say the band won't play. Other acts on the bill are Flowered Up and Ian Dury And The Blockheads. Like Madness, the Blockheads are performing specially for the show. One man who definitely won't be playing is Kevin Rowland. Last week there were strong rumours Rowland might unveil his new look Dexy's Midnight Runners at the show, but Rowland has since contacted the New Musical Express to deny this.

The first single from the album will be Danni Minogue's version of The Jackson's "Show You The Way To Go", available via MCA on July

Paul Weller has signed a new deal with Go!Discs. The former Jam and Style Council frontman moves to the label after a period releasing material via his own Freedom High label. Weller's next single "Uh Huh, Oh Yeah" will be released by Go!Discs in August and Weller's first solo album will follow in September.

Captain America have been forced to change their name. The Scottish guitar band were threatened with legal action by Marvel Comics and will now be known as Eugenius. The name-change means the release of their debut album Oomalama will be delayed. Their record company Paperhouse are currently working on new artwork.

Spiral Tribe, the organization who put together the massive illegal Castlemorton rave, tried to stage another party last weekend. The site chosen was the Mud Chute playing fields in London's Docklands region, a site very near the recently bankrupted Canary Wharf project. Spiral Tribe chose the site because they cheekily wanted to pull off a party in an area where it would be easy for police to find them and they also wanted the backdrop of Canary Wharf as a symbol to the idea that criminality can be found within the business and corporate worlds. Lastly, the flashing light on top of the Canary Wharf tower apparently made a great strobe! Spiral Tribe brought in their gear on a forty-ton truck at about 1am on Sunday morning and the rave, attended by 1000, began an hour later. Police, by now alerted to the situation, closed off roads into the region and stopped an estimated 2000 more ravers from attending the event. At about 4am, the police raided the rave and broke it up. Seven arrests were made, but it is believed that Spiral Tribe got away with their equipment. Elsewhere, police stopped people gathering at Stonehenge. For many years, there was a free festival near the site around the time of the summer solstice. In recent years, though, police have clamped down and prevented the festival from taking place. 24 arrests were made.

Killing Joke may reform with their original line-up for a final tour and album. Bassist turned record producer Youth is reported to be the mover behind plans for the band to get together and "show the kids how good the band once were". Talking to Melody Maker, EG Music's Sam Adler commented: "They've all been talking to each other and naturally we'd be delighted if they did it. They were a dynamite band in the early eighties." Youth has been remixing Killing Joke material for a forthcoming compilation of the band's work.

Curve's next single will be a remixed version of "Horror Head", a track from the band's Doppleganger album. Released via Anxious on July 6. the single will also feature three brand new tracks: "Falling Free", "Mission From God", and "Today Is Not The Day".

World Of Twist have split up. The band were recently dropped by Virgin's Circa label, despite scoring a top 40 hit last year with "The Storm". The reason for the split is musical differences.

Brian Eno will give a lecture at London's Sadlers Wells Theatre on July 20. Advance blurb from Eno says: "Curatorship is arguably the big new job of our times. It is the task of re-evaluating, filtering, digesting and connecting together. In an age saturated with new artifacts and information, it is perhaps the curator, the connection-maker who is the new storyteller, the meta-author." Hasn't changed, has he? A new Eno album will be in stores in September.

Cud, who recently played at the New Music Seminar, release their debut album this week via A&M. Asquarius features twelve tracks, including the British hit "Rich And Strange". The album was produced by Jon Langford. Cud's new single next month will be a completely new track not featured on the album.

The Birmingham dance label Network Records have been forced to withdraw The Dreams, an EP by Manchester's Rhythm Quest. Both police and club owners have complained about bad language on the EP. The EP deals with the police's recent clampdown on raves and says the police are: "Evil forces trying to infiltrate our movement." The police are concerned that the record could incite violence, while many club owners have banned the record. Commenting on the EP's withdrawal, Mark Hadfield of Rhythm Quest said: "We were only conveying what every single raver up and down the country has been feeling for quite a long time. There is a growing backlash against heavyhanded tactics in shutting down raves and preventing them from happening."

Rough Trade have announced details of the track listing for the forthcoming Lipstick Traces album. The album is designed as a soundtrack to the American writer Greil Marcus' book of the same name. The album features tracks from such classic punk groups as The Sex Pistols, X-Ray Spex, Gang Of Four, The Slits and The Clash. On a more bizarre note, one track will feature "Marie Osmond reciting Hugo Bell's cabaret voltaire sound Poem Karawane". Elsewhere, Virgin are to re-release the classic X-Ray Spex album Germ Free Adolescents.

John Cooper, WPYX, Albany

After a ton of feedback from listeners, 'PYX 106 is After a ton of feedback from listeners, 'PYX 106 is starting a two hour modern music show every Sun-day evening. Any and all labels with alternative product we'd like to hear what you've got for pos-sible airplay. Send it out ASAP. Jeff Gillis, our promotion director, is set to host the show... I think U2's "Even Better Than The Real Thing" will be their biggest AOR track yet from Achtung Baby... On first listen, I didn't hear the new Roger Daltrey single, but after a few more plays and after seeing him do the song on Letterman, it really kicked in and I find myself humming the tune.

David Allen Ross, KMJX, Little Rock

By the time you read this, I will be on vacation. Man, do I need it... Musically, the Black Crowes continue to kick butt along with, not in any order, Pearl Jam, Ozzy, Tesla, U2... Jeffrey Gaines is getting phones and two new songs we are giving a shot are the Roger Daltrey and the Iron Maiden. Since I'm on vacation, I'll drink another beer in your honor. See ya.

J.D., WONE, Akron
The 4th Annual Akron Mini Grand Prix gets set to roar through the streets of downtown Akron next weekend. This is one highly competitive event, where over 22 cars from area businesses try and capture the checkered flag, plus help raise money for the Arthritis Foundation... Also, up and coming - On July 4th weekend the very first Akron Rib and Music Festival will take place in downtown Akron as Main Street is transformed into one huge barbecued restaurant. There will be plenty of ribs to sample from over 20 local rib fenders, plus musical entertainment from Giant, Donnie Iris And The Cruisers, The Temptations and more... The-Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week is Sonic Youth's "100%"... Special thanks to Gregg Allman for giving us a call before the big show out at Blossom the other night, and to Chris Layton and Charile Sexton of the Arc Angels and to the lovely Sass Jordan for stopping by before their show at the Akron Agora. It certainly was a day which will not be soon forgotten.

Michael Young, WIOT, Toledo

Michael Young, WIOT, Toledo Thanks to Larry Olek of Atco for stopping by last week! Great to see ya again!... I wasn't too sure what to think when I was told the new Lindsey Buckingham was in, but to be honest, it could be the biggest surprise of '92. "Wrong" has all the flare and intensity of the Tango In The Night era, and then some. If you get a chance, check out the entire record. YOU may be surprised... Slowly, but surely, awareness of Sass Jordan is growing in the market. After her show here a few weeks back, sales and interest have doubled. "You Don't Have To Remind Me" grabs your attention and carries you on a four minute blues ride full of emotion. sales and interest have doubled. "You Don't Have To Remind Me" grabs your attention and carries you on a four minute blues ride full of emotion. Great tune worth every bit of consideration in the weeks to come!... Davey Allison took home a big victory up at MIS this past weekend. Long live the Havoline Ford Thunderbird. (Bye, bye Bill, Dale and Ernie. There's a new kid in town). Until next week, have a good one!.

Lois Todd, KAZY, Denver

Lois Todd, KAZY, Denver KAZY's Rocky Mountain Jam was a huge success over the weekend! Sun, suds, babes and Shotgun Messiah, Giant, Arc Angels, King's X, REO and the best guys on Planet Music: Damn Yankees! What a day! Thank you to all who made the event killer like Bruce, Karmen and all you guys at Camel Mgmt., Pablo, you are the greatest!, Bud Prager and Rich at ESP, and Dave, Kenny and Jason with Warner Bros. Kenny sorry about makin' your heart miss a beat when I said KAZY was bangin "Don't Tread On Me" and it was already Number One phones! Don't I wish I could've coerced that tape outta Jack Blades' cute little hands. For all who haven't gotten my drift, the new Damn Yankees kicks ass. And as Michael Cartellone said, "This leaves our debut in the dust!" You are correct, babe! And let me just say that hangin' with Tommy, Tedly, Jack and Michael last week was a eall such genuine people. Love you guys and your wives and families! Have to say the same for all the dudes on the rest of the bill, too and especially Dan and David Huff and Mike and Alan and Mark and Dan, hon, you can call me whatever you want! Finally, if you didn't add "Stay" this week, make an appointment with your car doctor 'cuz you're deaf!! (Don't let that keep ya from crankin' it, tho!) Brew Michaels, KXRX, Seattle

Brew Michaels, KXRX, Seattle

As we X-claimed the first time it was released, Temple Of The Dog's "Hunger Strike" is one of the most emotional and captivating songs ever to come out of the Seattle music scene. If you didn't give this song a try last time around, we encourage you to put your ears to this powerful, well-written and heartfelt piece of music... The entire KXRX staff sends best wishes off to Bob "Beak" Myers, as he embarks on his new career as a coffee peddler in Denver. Bob started his rock n'roll career as a drummer, was one of the first ever Jocks at WEBN drummer, was one of the first ever Jocks at WEBN when it was a Midnight to 6am underground station and spent nearly 2 decades in the record biz at RCA, Virgin and PLG. Next time you're in the Mile High City, stop by Coffee West and grab a latte from the Beak... A final thought: Is banning a record label from your station really anything more than the desperate, shortsighted behavior of a frightened infant? We hope that those of you banned from doing business across the street will remember that the door at The X is open and we are anxious to hear your new music. Thanks.

Ed Levine, WPYX, Albany

When we put 95X on the air in 1978, Ted Musarro was the local Atlantic guy. Teddy was helpful in every imaginable way and became a good friend of Pam and I. Hell, he even made a Lou Sicurrezza trip tolerable. Our thoughts are with his family.

Mike Luoma, WIZN, Burlington

Phish Alert ** Phish Alert ** Even as you read Phish Alert ** Phish Alert ** Even as you read this, one of the most talented, innovative and truly bizarre bands on the scene is returning to the states fresh from their first foray into Europe. Phish is coming back to join Santana on their tour as open-ing act, and will be featured as part of 'The Horde' tour this summer. So, then, no more excuses, get out, see these guys jam, and be forever changed. The shorter shows they'll be performing as part of the two tours will be but a mere morsel of the feast they usually present, due to time constraints, but should still blow you away if you've never seen them. These guys are authentic musicians playing REAL progressive rock, fusing the artistry of the past into a new and greater whole that actually advances the entire genre of what we call rock. You'll hear elements which invite comparisons to everyone from Pink Floyd and Zappa to The Al-Imans and The Dead, yet you can't really pigeon-hole them as sounding like anyone in particular. They are themselves, they are Phish. I've been a fan for years, as the band developed and their following grew. I'm biased as hell, since I know these guys, but the music speaks for itself. Right now, Elektra is servicing and pushing 'Cavern' from their Elektra debut, A Picture Of Nectar. The song features the title of the album in the lyrics. We've had it in rotation for weeks now, due to popular local demand (and due to the fact that when we go to Nectar's now, he gives us free fries and gravy!). This song rocks, from the drive of Fish's pounding drums that open up the tune, to the mid-song gear-shift which brings the album title lyrics bubbling to the surface. Trey's dive-bombing guitar riffs scream across the melody while Page's Hammond swoops and growls, and all the while Mike Gordon keeps it moving with his liquid, or-ganic bass lines. Food for your musical sou!! The bubbling Stone and the New York Times. We need this now, real rock with a surreal edge to cut through all the tired crap put out by well-marketed posers, so, i this, one of the most talented, innovative and truly bizarre bands on the scene is returning to the states

Vic Porcelli, WDHA, Dover

Vic Porcelli, WDHA, Dover The 1992 WDHA Free Summer Concert Series began on June 14 with Sass Jordan. The show was at a swim club and the stage was right in front of an Olympic sized swimming pool! Thanks to Sass and the MCA dynamic duo (Steve and Randy). The series continued June 21 with Billy Falcon. The setting for this one was the sloping lawn of an historic mansion in Warren County. Billy actually called four fans onstage to sing backup vocals on "Power Windows" (very cool!) Thanks to Billy and the Mercury crew (Drew & Scungil!)... Top Five phones this week: ELP, Jeffrey Gaines, Delbert McClinton, Pearl Jam and Lynch Mob... Eargasm Of The Week: The Men's "Church Of Logic, Sin & Love"... Segue Of The Week: Jeffrey Gaine's "Hero In Me" into Elvis Costello's "Let Him Dan-gle". I'm a goner.

Ty Banks, KOWB, Fargo

I am excited to be on "No Regrets" by Tom Cochr-ane this week. Mad Mad World is an album that demands your uninterrupted attention. Never has an album been so atmospheric, so worldly. So vast, so intriguing. While telling so many stories from such a wide array of perspectives. Mad Mad World is and always will be in my home collection. Tom, you have topped yourself (so far!)... Ben Schultz lives!

Jim Kallas, KSQY, Rapid City

Summer has arrived! Which, of course, means the Summer has arrived! Which, of course, means the Black Hills become a madhouse! After doing a week long stint in middays, I've come to the conclu-sion that the new music coming out these days is way too heavy! Don't get me wrong, I like to put the hammer down just as much as the next guy, but it would be nice to have more than 3 records to play during the day! And the real sad thing is most of these crunchers are excellent tuncs! Enough of my these crunchers are excellent tuncs! Enough of my Bill Clinton impersonation, this Cracker tune is HOT!! Makes me wanna cut some cheese!... The Zoo keeps bringing in positive reaction and could go all the way!... We've added "Gloria's Eyes" from The Boss to our arsenal, this could be one of his best songs ever!... Roger Daltrey sounds great on "Days Of Light"... Giant has yet another winner with "Stay" - the acoustic version comes in real handy during the dautime. Watch this hand achieve super stratedom - the acoustic version comes in real handy during the daytime. Watch this band achieve super-stardom real soon!... Sass Jordan is for real. "You Don't Have To Remind Me" is proof positive of that!... Vacation madness is underway at KSKY! I'll be working primarily afternoon drive for the next sev-eral weeks, so catch me if you can! If you can't, look on the golf course at Conclave. Fore!

Tom Bass, WPLR, New Haven

10III BASS, WPLLK, New Haven Spending lots of time with Faith No More's Angel Dust at home. I've got this intern who was always been a big Chili Pepper's fan, as am I. Anyway, when "Epic" got so big, with it's metal/rap fusion, he re-sponded by insisting that Mike Patlon and company were mere Red Hot Chili Pepper wanna-be's. I'm happy to report that my intern is dead wrong!... Jeffrey Gaines is an artist and a vital song writer... King's X deserves to be the biggest band in America, and they may get there yet... Really, there's more good music out that I can possibly talk about right now, and people are starting to line up in my office and glare at me, so perhaps I should run. Catch you next week.

Carl Craft, WCIZ, Watertown

Carl Craft, WCIZ, Watertown Since the first play, The Zoo has been firing up the rock lines and now officially attains Top Five status. With these band members, and a full CD deeply entrenched in my neighbor's ears, the concept of a no-brainer easily takes on new meaning... When thinking of outstanding albums of the year, Mad Mad World will definitely be among them. We've been on this album since early December 1991, with no intentions of stopping in the near future. "Washed Away" scrved as a perfect bridge track garnering Tom Cochrane more sales and exposure in the market. Y'all at Capitol might want to consider promoting this track, but certainly not before we've all had a long and fruitful run with "No Regrets"... The time feels right for Tori Amos.

Linda Woodworth, WZEW, Mobile

Linda Woodworth, WZEW, Mobile Sometimes it takes a band a little longer to gain popularity. Poi Dog Pondering is making a big state-ment in Mobile! Number One on the phones this week is their song, "Be The One". A great sounding song that can fit into every daypart... We're also getting calls for Little Village, Indigo Girls, Sting and Lyle Lovett... We had a great time at the Ex-ploreum Museum of Discovery this past weekend in presenting two exhibits entitled "Venus Unveiled" and "Brainteasers", which includes one puzzle that's never been solved... Adds this week are Annie Lennox' "Precious", The Soup Dragons' "Divine Thing" and Los Lobos' "Reva's House". Have a great week!

Arvette, WRXK, Ft, Myers

Arvette, WRXK, Ft. Myers 96 K-Rock finished off our Spring Book with almost four days commercial free. A 961 song music mara-thon! Our dial position is 96.1, so hopefully this will help prompt listener awareness as we encouraged listeners to "write it down" and "send it in". That is any 9 songs played during the commercial free sweep. Hopefully any diary keeper would also get that final kick to send it in as well!... Musically, some of my favorites this time are Del Amitri's "Always The Last To Know", Allman Brothers with "Melissa" and the new rocker from Rhino Bucket, "Hey There". This time without a major AC/DC album, this project might get off the ground... I'm getting ready to take a vacation. A long one you could say. About a might get off the ground... I'm getting ready to take a vacation. A long one you could say. About a month. When I return, this rock and roll mama will be a mother of 3, believe that, and ready to kick ass again!

Kate Willis, KCLB, Palm Springs

Kate Willis, KCLB, Palm Springs For two years, audiences across America have been waiting for the new Peter Murphy. Well it's here-and it's good - so why aren't you playing it? "You're So Close" is among our Top 5 phones after one week of airplay. If you play David Bowie in gold, why not play "You're So Close" too? This is the type of music Bowie should be making today. And since he isn't, give your audience what they yearn for... Better late than never, I'd like to congratulate Zoo for the awe-some job they did with Matthew Sweet's "Girlfriend". When we added it, way back in March, I really thought the song (great as it is) would stall out in the 30's. Your persistence paid off...great job!... On Sat-urday, we turned our studios over the The House Of Lords for a great acoustic performance and some interesting conversation. If you're going to have a hometown band, it's good to have a great one like The House Of Lords. It was humbling to see Tommy Aldridge blush when he was told repeatedly by listen-ers and air-staff that he is considered one of the best rock and roll drummers around. (Which he is!)... On a final note, I am stunned at the news of Rick Sklar's death on Monday. I'm also feeling a bit sorry for myself for never having had the opportunity to work with him. I do feel fortunate for meeting and talking to him once; and in an Atlantic Suite at Sam no less.

Radio Comments

The funny thing is, Mr. Sklar had already gotten a full night's sleep, showered, and eaten breakfast while the rest of us fools were winding down from the night before. I have enjoyed and learned from his articles and books over the years, and send my condolences to his family and friends.

Al Scott, KLCX, Eugene

Al Scott. KLCX. Eugene Wow! What a great week. Ilad a blast hangin'out with some really cool people! Paul Cioffi from Hollywood Records showed up with a band called The Poorboys. These guys blew me away. They were totally nice and their playing amazed me. They did a really cool acoustic version of their single, "Brand New Amerika". Watch out for these guys!... Tom Starr from SBK also showed up last week. All we did was eat and play Tetris until our eyes fell out... Thanks to Jon Kohl at Elektra for coming by with the latest from Faster Pussycat. He didn't leave me a copy, but, at least he played it for me... Even Potato from Virgin showed up to bug us. Hey, buddy, nice hair!... Erre and I even got to have dinner with ace promotion cool guy, Ray Gmeiner and KUFO programming god, Dave Numme.... Mu-sically, this week we added the Temple Of The Dog smash, "Hunger Strike". Phones will go nuts on this puppy!... The new Slaughter track, "Reat Love" makes the cut this week as well. This is a great all daypart record with a killer melody. Way to go Slaughter!... The Zoo is also proving to be an audi-ence favorite. "Shakin' The Cage" moves up to Medium rotation this week. This song is grabbing major reaction phones. More important than the phones, is how well it sounds in the mix. It adds pure energy to any seque. I think that's probably enough for this week. Hurry up and send every-thing cool to Eric and I. Now leave me alone! AI Skop, WYCR, Loudonville

Al Skop, WVCR, Loudonville

Al Skop, WVCR, Loudonville The station is buzzing over the fact that we are sending people to see Metallica and Metal Church on the Fourth Of July. And while the phones in general are on the increase, people are throwing in their requests, too... Steve Morse is kicking ass on the phone and on the air... People know good music when they hear it; and that's our job. Funny, but I think people are getting tired of songs that are quick and over with before they even have a chance to get into it. That's where TNT comes in: "Purple Mountain's Majesty" is a song that the people are really sinking their teeth into. It's a little on the long side, but, as many of my lady-friendssay, what's wrong with a little length here and there! Later on.

Steve Becker, WCGY, Lawrence

Steve Becker, WCGY, Lawrence Moving to Heavy this week, great reaction records -Joe Cocker and "Love Is Alive" (fantastic send-up, I usually hate remakes, this one takes the song to another level)... Toad The Wet Sprocket's "All I Want" (besides getting inquiries on the name of the group, this song seems to be a smash based on listener reaction)... We also had the American debut of the latest tune from Alvin Lee, "Real Life Blues". It features George Harrison, Clarence Clemmons and Jon Lord... A great compliment to what Gary Moore has been doing of late. The song is available as an import (with a instrumental tune titled "Lost In Love"), understand it will be released stateside sometime in July on Relativity. Definitely be on the lookout for it! be on the lookout for it!

Bobby Cook, WZNS, Dillon

Bobby Cook, WZNS, Dillon "Hey There" Rhino Bucket - "Never mind the AC/DC comparisons, Rhino Bucket is what rock radio needs on the air right now. It's the kinda kick-ass music that goes well with our 'in yer face' attitude! If you don't play this, you're a gutless wimp." "Tearing" Rollins Band - "Rollins Band doesn't just play killer songs, they slam your head to the ground and stomp on your skull with the vicious ferocity and urgency of a rabid wild dog! This shit feels angry, and that's why it works!" Bobby Cook/PD WZNS Dillon, SC... "To Hell With Love" suzanne Rhatigan - "Talk about a bitch with an attitude. Gotta respect her! "To Hell With balls, this is the tune." "Always The Last To Know" Del Amitri - "Del Amitri is a great jam. This will definitely make your adult demos raise an eye-brow." Wendy Gatlin/MD WZNS Dillon, SC.

Chris James, WTPA, Harrisburg

Chris James, WTPA, Harrisburg It's The Men! Once again these guys show up Top Two phones. The song is infectious. It's the new sound of AOR, and it works... As does the Cracker. This one is a homerun. Even the heavy metal heads love this one. It's got the lyrics we can all relate to, and it rocks... The Radioactive Cats continues to do well for us. The sales story has begun to happen as well. If you're looking for that ultimate summer song, this is it. And the CD is full of them... I have to admit I was pleasantly surprised with the Roger Daltrey. This one has the same feel as the Tom Cochrane did, its groove hooks you. In fact, I could see this going CHR... The Faith No More is a powderkeg waiting to happen. This could be the song the summer of '92 is remembered for. You get drawn into this one with the beat and just keep pounding away at it... Finally, favorite new one: The Soul Kitchen. Put the Black Crowes and ZZ Top into a blender and you get Soul Kitchen. It's just real honest rock n'roll. Talk about an instant phone record. phone record.

Michael Cross, KJKJ, Grand Forks

Michael Cross, KIKI, Grand Forks Rock 108 is looking for a full time midday person. Must have 3 years of on-air experience and be willing to work. Not a lot o' money here, but a perfect working condition makes up for it. Great staff, only North Dakota AOR. Come work with great people on the Red River. Send T&R ASAP to Michael Cross, Rock 108, 301 North 3rd #301, Grand Forks, ND, 58203. Losing our afternoon person who's going back to und. position will begin on 8/17... Musically, we've been starving for "Hun-ger Strike" from Temple Of The Dog! An absolute killer cut from one of my favorite albums last year. Good to see A&M come after this - Thanks J.B.!!... The new Giant is the summertime smash of '92! "Stay" will have the staying power to see this one hang on the playlist for quite awhile... And could MCA have picked a better cut off the Sass Jordan CD? No! "You Don't Have To Remind Me" is better than the first track which held on to #1 here for 3 weeks... Personally, I'm diggin' White Zomble on Geffen. "Thunder Kiss '65" is Metallica meets the Doors. Awesome rock n'roll! And, Rock 108 is pounding those supposed "stiffs"... MSG is Top 5 phones after going nowhere nationally. C'mon?! What's the problem breaking this band?... Jamie Kyle is pulling Top 5 phones again this week on "Ragged Heart"... And, RTZ is perched at #3, sales, phones and my CHRs keep me on it (sorry Giant).

Beth Kepple, WKLS, Atlanta

With only three weeks of airplay, The Zoo is our Number One request! I can't wait to see 'em shake it live... Went to NYC for a long weekend of fun and frolic and can't thank Bill & Rose McGathy enuf for introducing me to Ringo Starr before his All-Star show at Radio City Music Hall. Talk about regressing to childhood and having a lifelong dream come true!... My favorite song of the week (and maybe the year): Life, Sex & Death's "Fuckin' Shit Ass" - I wanna play it on the radio!!

Sabrina Saunders, KSKE, Vail

Sabrina Saunders, KSKE, Vail It would be fantastic if I never again heard someone describe a band by saying "It sounds like this band meets that band." Unless of course it's Soundgarden meets Pearl Jam when describing Temple Of The Dog. Hey, there's some validity here. This was Eddie Vedder's (Pearl Jam) and Chris Cornell's (Soundgarden) project last year --I know this because K-SKI was playing it then. "Hunger Strike" is a perfect night track for your audience who loves the heavier alternative - which is an audience that has gotten huge in the last year - so break open your vault and unleash Temple Of The Dog, your listeners will be delighted!... Along with the K-SKI team, I'm gettin' ready for an out-door extravaganza. A weekend of camping and roughin' it in the mountains. We will however, hike over to the rockin' round-up music fest, for Little Feat, Radiators, John Prine, Sawyer Brown, Clint Black and many more! Two days of fun in the sun and two nights of, well that depends on the weather. Ginger Haylat, KBCO, Boulder

Ginger Havlat, KBCO, Boulder

Ginger Havlat, KBCO, Boulder While the press seems bent on thrashing veteran rockers these days, along comes Roger Daltrey with one helluva musical treat. "Days Of Light" grabbed me on the first syllable and kept my feet tapping for the next 3 1/2 minutes. Doesn't this song just make you feel good all over?... Joan Armatrading merits two adds this week from her long-awaited new album. We'll start with "Crazy" and "Cradled With Love", but that is only the start for a current run on a big KBCO favorite... Jump In The Water is a band that leaped from nowhere onto our playlist. I wouldn't want to define what constitutes that "KBCO sound" but this band certainly fits the bill... Other new adds this week: Jerry Giddens (for-merly Walking Wounded, now Walking Tall), U2 (keep those Killer B's coming), Brendan Croker, Matthew Sweet, Glen Frey (the other Eagle), and Buffalo Tom (darn the U.S. Mail is getting slower and slower)... KBCO's 15th Birthday Celebration came to an exciting conclusion last Friday (19th) with a free concert for listeners at the Denver Zoo. Big thank yous to E, The Story, James McMurtry and David Wilcox for their special performances. Also thank you to PLG, Elektra, Columbia and A&M. Holly McCormack, WYYX. Chicago

Holly McCormack, WVVX, Chicago

Holly McCormack, WVVX, Chicago Hey, all you rock-n-rollers out there - I hope that by now you have recovered from NMS: Wish I could have been there!... I just wanted to drop a note letting everyone know how amazing this Love/Hate album is and how it has virtually taken over the 'VVX airwaves. Wasted In America has topped our playlist for the past 7 weeks and "Don't Fuck With Me" (the WVVX special edit, of course) has been our #1 request the past couple of months. When EJ and Bridget send out their own version of the song, definitely check it out 'cuz these guys rock! (And they didn't even pay me to say that!)... Also, I would like to thank Corrosion Of Conformity for stopping by the China Club for a Rock The Vote party after their show at the World. Woody did a hell of a phoner and fortunately we're still on the air and have a few more 'VVX rockers ready to vote!

Tim Fowler, KWUR, St. Louis

Tim Fowler, KWUR, St. Louis Hello! I wish I was in to take everyone's calls, but I'm trying to earn money. I hope to improve on calling people back, but it'll be tough. I'll have to do it from work using my own calling card (read: I'll call you back if I want something, because I have to pay for the call!). I'd like to fax replies to people - it's easier (and cheaper!) for me, albeit less personal and less fun... Say, is it just me or are there death metal bands crawling out of the woodwork? What really surprises me are all the labels that are scrambling for them! It would suck if death metal became popularized and watered down for mass consumption like so many styles before it. For now, though, things are good... Just received new Malevolent Creation, Thanatos, Mercyless and Napalm Death. Add this to bands like Obituary, My Dying Bride, Disharmonic Or-chestra, and Entombed and I'm an extremely happy camper... Oh, by the way, if anyone out there is going to Milwaukee Metalfest, let me know! I'd like to meet ya up there... Hey, Mike Rittberg: Thought Industry and Skrew are both INCREDIBLE!! But I'd push "Charlemagne" instead of "Sympathy For The Devil". And when are we gonna hear new Ana-crusis?

Shawn Williams, WDWN, Auburn

Shawn Williams, WDWN, Auburn Fuck!? Creeper CD - Yes - Hard Report Rumblers, UNSIGNED!! Special shout out to: WEOS, KSJS, WRIU, WFCS, KUCI, WVBR, WSFW, WDWN, WPHD and to all the new stations! We're in the process of doing another mailing - if you would like a CD call me at Max' (607) 272-0279... Also, in Up-state news we have a New Metal Show on WPIID - a 5,000 watt commercial station in Elmira. The show airs Sunday nights 9-mid. Contact Doug Layaw at Max' for servicing and stuff!... To all my label buddies - I'm sorry about difficulties getting in contact with me - but I just got a car, an apartment (finally), and once I get a job I'll have a life - call me at (607) 272-1279!?... Did you pick up the latest High Times - Murphy's Law bought the back cover to thank all their friends and fans - Super Cool!... Holy Moly! Skrew fuckin' rules!... Upcoming Creeper shows with White Zomble - Oh yeah!... Gwar at The Lost Hori-zon? Well, gotta go see what's going on "Live At P.J.'s!" Holy smokes! You F-in Tree Jumper!? Chris Payne, KZAK. Reno

Chris Payne, KZAK, Reno

P.J.'s!" Holy smokes! You F-in Tree Jumper!? Chris Payne, KZAK, Reno So, over the weekend, June 19-20 I witness a gala assortment of rock and roll. On Friday, June 19, I rolled into the Cattle Club to check out two great Bay Area bands. The first was Disorderly Conduct. The "Lords Of Funk Metal" from San Jose ripped the crowd in half. Their style is a lot like Primus, Fungo Mungo and Mordred. They rocked for about 40 minutes. Their gimmick is to count down 1-2-3 and have the crowd respond with "Fuck You", pretty cool. I guess you had to be there to understand the whole concept. Anyway, the headliners for the night, The Organization, absolutely (**kin' ruled! This is the second time I have seen this powerful quartet who you used to know as Death Angel. These guys are so phenomenal! Some label is going to be extremely lucky when they sign these guys. I have written about these guys approximately 4 months ago and they haven't let up since. The next gig this quartet is doing is Saturday July 25 @ One Step Beyond in Santa Clara with Vio-lence. Don't miss them!... Oh, speak-ing of Vio-lence, Saturday June 20 was an historic night for the band I manage from Reno called Wreckage. My boys have played with Pantera, Vi-cious Rumors, Cyclone Temple and now Vio-lence. Wreckage were welcomed with open arms by the nonchalant San Francisco crowd @ The Stone. By the end of their 6 song set, the crowd were very warmed up to Wreckage. As I have mentioned in the past, if any A&R people are interested, feel free to give me a call and I'll be more than willing to send you a press kit along with a copy of their 6 song demo. Wreckage are Reno's premiere thrash band! Not death metal shit! Not techno-speed -????? music!!! We've had label interest from two majors and they know who they are (thank you!) but if you're at all interested, CALL ME! I realize that labels aren't exactly signing "thrash" bands, but these guys are different than most of the other bullshit out there. Who knows, maybe even

Will Geeslin, WRFL, Lexington

Will Geeslin, WRFL, Lexington First of all, a big thanks to everyone for the generous hospitality which was shown to me while I was in New York City, especially Steve Prue and Mike Rittberg who gave up their respective couches to this needy college radio guy... L7 is doing really well and Obli-uary is really popular with the kiddies... If the Spinal Tap show comes within a hundred mile radius, go! It is the most entertaining show I've seen in a long time... Thanks to all involved with the Megadeth interview... For those that still don't know my sum-mer office hours they are: Mondays and Wednes-days from 4:30 to 6:00 pm est. Call 606-257-4636 if you get no answer at the music line. Take care and Tap on!

Ralph Renna, WVCR, Loudonville

The summer of '92 is going to be a hot one in the world of Metal! I see it heating up already with, Danzig How The Gods Kill, well 5 songs of it anyway. Still some Danzig is better than no Dan-Danzig How The Gods Kill, well 5 songs of it anyway. Still some Danzig is better than no Dan-zig! Look for Danzig's new one in a store near you with a tour to follow... Mercyful Fate with "Return Of The Vampire" some tunes you will recognize and some are rare unreleased tracks so if you are a Fatehead, pick it up!... The rawest band in the world Type O Negative are back to show you the Origin Of The Feccs. This is Type O at their best "live". Although the material on it is from Slow Deep AND Hard, it's live and raw. The one killer track to check out is their version of Hendrix' "Hey Joe", appropriately titled "Hey Pete". So, if you have never seen them live, check this disc out.

Tom Gates, WFCS, New Britain

New Music Seminar has come and gone yet again. Thanks to Mike Schnapp for the invite to "Singles" - what a cool flick! Mr. Greenwood thanks Mrs. what a cool flick! Mr. Greenwood thanks Mrs. Greenwood for her southern hospitality. Thanks also to Dyana, Michelle, Prue and Bill Fisher. Chris and Jodie - You know how to throw one hell of a party. Sorry about the glass. It was cool to see or meet the following: Sue Stillwagon, Melissa from WKNC, Christine Minot (badminton queen), Swan and Spread Eagle, Jesse from Capitol and the lovely Cheryl Richardt... WARNING! Think twice before booking your band at the Rock Bar in New Haven. Promotions for the club have been downright poor and the draw has been described as "pathetic". Spread Eagle and the Electric Love Hogs have played to a near empty club because no one, including area metal directors, knew that the show was happening. Ok? Kirk out.

Jim Del Balzo, Columbia, 213-556-4700

Jim Del Balzo, Columbia, 213-556-4700 There's so much going on around here. It looks like Toad will be a huge record. We've sold 30,000 records in the last two weeks. There's over 140 Top 40 stations playing "All I Want". AOR stations are reporting strong phones, great research and the band is packing the house every night they play. This record is coming home all the way. Thanks to the early believers. Now is when you reap the benefits of your early support... The Little Steven mix of "57 Channels" is catapulting this record to the top of the charts. It appears this track will be around for a while... Alice In Chains continues to grow by leaps and bounds. Phones are beginning to light up. This has the appearance of a long-term rock smash in the tradition of "Man In The Box"... On the horizon is a killer track from War Babies called "Cry Yourself To Sleep". This is the track a lot of people fell in love with when the album first care out... Rodney Crowell has made a great new record that is essentially the Who's Who list of rock. We're going for adds on July 6th... Warrant has made a hard rockin' credible rock record. They will be traveling the country and seeing a lot of you face-to-face. See you soon. Dave Lombardi, Warner Brothers, 818-

Dave Lombardi, Warner Brothers, 818-953-3711

Dave Lombardi, Warner Brothers, 818-953-3711 Before we fully turn our attention to new matters, I want to thank the appropriate folks for their support on two extremely important projects here at WB. First of all, a heartfelt thanks to all of you who believed in Altered State and put "Ghost Be-side My Bed" on the air. Most of you got a great response for the song, and you'll be pleased to know that the audience you've created for the band will be well-served in the near future. Altered State played last night for Pirate Radio here in L.A., and three new songs the band played had us real excited with the groudwork we've laid with "Ghost". The new stuff is innovative, aggressive, and exciting, and the band's over all performance has us looking brightly to the future. Special thanks go to the folks at KEZO, WMMS, KILO and Pirate, who really helped us turn the corner with this project - it couldn't have happened without your fervent (and early!) belief in this band and song. And thanks to the stations that continue to support and play "Ghost Beside My Bed", opting to focus on local results rather than concerning themselves with the fading national picture. You guys are setting your-selves up for early success with the next album!... All of you can take a bow for your support of Van Halen's FU.C.K. CD - thanks for giving us a great year with this project!... O.K. - new items: Things to smoke your ears: J&M Chain's "Far Gone And Out", which is what you are if you're missing this trade; Los Lobos' "Reva's House" and the entire Kiko LP, and The Zoo's "Shakin' The Cage" (9 new visitors at the zoo this week).... Coming soon: Great music from Trouble and George Harrison (no, not together!) and a band that's soon to knock you all on your collective ass (if that's possible, I mean, to together!) and a band that's soon to knock you all on your collective ass (if that's possible, I mean, to have a collective ass). Hey, lard! How mush for the house? Gotta love Vic!

aura Curtin, Epic, 212-445-5011

Boy oh boy - Do I feel good - I am all settled in - my new pad is wicked - I am never moving again... Spin Doctors - I am honored and having a great time working a band like this. I love what Greg O'Brien WPDH said, "If you think "Little Miss Can't Be Wrong" is not for you, get the fuck out of radio!" He couldn't be more on the money... Iron Maiden's "Wasting Love" - there is no time to waste with this track just add it - picked up KBPI, KMJX, KNCN, KUPD, KILO, WCMF, KISS, KFMQ, KNAC, KIOZ, KQLZ, WLZR, WRCN, KSAQ, KATT -out-of-the-box, it feels good! Look for Iron Maiden - they're on the road... Firehouse's "Reach For The Sky" - "Kicking Ass"... Indigo Girls' "Let's Go"... Ozzy "You rule"... Pearl Jam - "Holy Shit"... Giant "Stay" - "Great first week"... Bonham "Change Of Season" - going for adds 6/30... Check this one out - Robert Plant - Led Zeppelin - would be proud - we're going to kick some major ass... Social D. - Look for Mike Ness - he-be-on-the-road - what a-show... Just one more thing - How about - what-a-show... Just one more thing - How about the McGathy video?!? You all look M-A-R-V-E-L-O-U-S!!! Till next week!

Andy Dean, Imago, 212-246-6644

Andy Dean, Imago, 212-246-6644 Y'know touring the Napa Valley wine producing area in California is tough! Wineries are open from 10 or 11 am to 4 or 5 pm, so in order to get in a full day, you've got to start early. Which means that by lunchtime at 1 or so, I had already been to three wineries, sampling 5 or 6 varieties at each. Add 85 degree weather to the mix, and I'm walking into the diner with a decent buzz working. Such are the problems of a well-deserved vacation. By the way, the trip up Highway 1 along the Pacific coast is magnificent!... Okay, onto the music - Rollins Band's "Tearing" for adds at AOR this week (6/29). KISW couldn't wait, they came in two weeks ago! WAVF is confirmed for this week! Many alterna-tive stations and most metal shows have supported this record since the day it came out four months ago. 150,000 pieces, 2 sold-out tours, and consider-able MTV support later, now it's your turn. "Tear-ing" will work at AOR, and can break this important artist to a wider audience. Rollins is probably com-ing to (or near) your city this summer, and it truly is something to experience!... Also out and gaining steam is Suzanne Rhatigan's To Hell With Love", added in the past two weeks at KBCO (!), WHTG, added in the past two weeks at KBCO (!), WHTG, WSFL, KATP, KBOY and numerous others. This bluesy and ballsy song will sound great to your 25 + listeners. If you have success with Bonnie Raitt and Mellssa Etheridge, please go back and listen to Suzanne! Suzanne!

Jeffrey Shane, Capitol, 213-871-5733

Leffrey Shane, Capitol, 213-871-5733 By now everyone is aware of the explosion of the Megadeth single. This is not the cut that will go to AOR, but if you're a rocker, you should consider it for night play. This Megadeth project is going to be monstrous... The buzz on the Slik Toxik track "White Lies/Black Truth" is starting to happen. I hope you took the time to read the lyrics of the song printed in my add. Ifelt so strongly about the lyrical content of this track, we printed them for everyone to read. At Capitol, this track is as important as Eric Johnson or School Of Fish. Every once in awhile you get a work record really worth chasing, and this is one of those special tracks... Good start. This is a fabulous follow-up to "Life Is A Highway". Being second most added out of the R&R conven-tion is great, but with all the CHR airplay on "Life", he is no longer a one hit artist. It is amazing how many have found additional tracks to play off this CD. "No Regrets" sounds like an AOR smash to mel... Finally, the Joe Cocker CD will be out in mid-July. There are some classic remakes, but also a tremendous new track called "Now That The Magic Is Gone". This CD is the best mix of old and new songs he has ever released. Tony Gates, RCA, 213-468-4055

If ever you feel the need for a little more elbow room -- go to Texas -- I did -- directly from R&R (smart travel plan...Tone!). What a huge ass state! I mean, I've been there before, but I'm always amazed that you can fly for hours, then drive for hours, make that days, and still be in the same state!! I've got your pan handle right here, baby! Thanks for the hospitality in Dallas, Amarillo, San Antonio, Austin, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa - and I'm going back to cover the rest of the state soon -Antonio, Austin, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa - and I'm going back to cover the rest of the state soon -I wound up in Denver -- congrats to KBCO on their birthday bash at the zoo and good job to KAZY on their mile high mountain jam -- damn!... Mitch Malloy has made friends everywhere he's been (on the road since January) many of you told us you like "Nobody Wins In This War" - the CD single is on site as well as an "unplugged" version with former Eagle, Bernie Leadon, on guitar. The song is beau-tiful, Mitch hits notes most singers only dream about and we're talkin' swell summertime mass appeal music... Initial response to 21 Guns is w-aabout and we're talkin' swell summertime mass appeal music... Initial response to 21 Guns is w-a-a-a-y positive. We're settin up a promo tour with guitar great Scott Gorham. If you'd like him to come to your station, and tell Thin Lizzy stories and share hot new music from 21 Guns, it's a toll free call from happening - (800) 666-2814... Peter Mur-phy is touring and "You're So Close" continues to garner airplay - everybody's bitchin' about conven-tions - I love 'em. See you at the Conclave. Yahooo! Come up to my room and give me some shit!

Def Leppard is off their second #1 AOR track with a tour being planned for late summer early fall... John Mellencamp is on tour as we speak with an "explosive" show planned for the 3rd of July in Indi-anapolis to be broadcast over Westwood One and ABC-TV (consult your local listings). Meanwhile, "Last Chance" continues to climb the charts... KISS is putting together that late summer early fall tour. "I Just Wanna" breaks new ground each week -KOME and KUFO this week... Soup Dragons are on tour with Catherine Wheel into July. It's a great double bill you must see both of these bands live - if it comes within 100 miles of you and you miss it, you lose!!... Material Issue is also on the road touring -with an incredible amount of music coming from this Def Leppard is off their second #1 AOR track with with an incredible amount of music coming from this powerful trio. "What Girls Want" is a great summer-time, roll the windows down and crank it track. On your desk for adds this week! E = MC2.

Paul W. Brown, Virgin, 212-463-0980

Paul W. Brown, Virgin, 212-463-0980 "Teen Angst" from Cracker continues to pull phones, especially where the rotation is healthy. We're selling CDs and cassettes all over the place, and once familiarity is established, this song has begun calling out like a thoroughbred. Those of you not playing this song are missing out on a fabulous programming asset. Those of you barely rotating this all-too-fun song are squandering a fabulous re-source. "Teen Angst" is a smash. Phone activity, sales, research, sold out, totally chaotic. Live dates all point to this. Energize your audience. Give them "Teen Angst". They've probably got it already! Ha!... Now get ready because something remarkable is about to come your way. His name is Mark Curry. This is really out of the blue. He is special and his music will touch you. Deeply... Get ready, and play those damn Spin Doctors, too, you weasels. That is all. all

Kid Seth, Atlantic, 212-275-2086

I don't know about you, but I'm a happy rested Kid today. What a week I had! While all of you (some of you) were at that New Music Seminar thing, I was in Montauk with my family getting a much needed va-cation. I had a wonderful time, but unfortunately my poor daughter Gladys had an awful time with all the mosquitoes and had to spend much time in the cot-tage... Misty, please, I'm sorry about what I said, yet how can I be anything but ecstatic about Lemonheads? I mean, after all, I've got one of the hottest records around. Added this week at CIMX, Live 105, their video on 120 Minutes, and about to embark on a tour that will take them across the country well into August - please understand!... And then there's Tori Amos. Now Misty, I know I've been talking about Tori for months, but with new interest in "Crucify" and increased sales in airplay markets, an MTV Buzz Clip and a fall tour in the works, how can I help but whisper her name in my sleep?... And least we not forget INXS and Uncle Green! "Heaven Sent" will surely be Most Added next week, and with Uncle Green's new track, "A Good Man", and a summer-long tour, I'm sure to go over the top now and again. Just remember, I Love You!! Later. Scott Douglas, Charisma, 310-275-9071 I don't know about you, but I'm a happy rested Kid today. What a week I had! While all of you (some of

let them claim this band. They are yours. Airplay grows by leaps each week on The Sighs and Top 40 gets the record this week. We must develop new acts at this format or continue to play more music by dead people. You decide. Fossil radio? I don't think so... "The Story Of The Blues" from Gary Moore garners Top 5 phones in most markets im-mediately. We've got phones, sales and call-out is coming back positive with upper demo males. ### Lea Pisacane, Atlantic, 212-275-2215

Lea Pisacane, Atlantic, 212-275-2215 Well my God. Watta week on Testament's "Elec-tric Crown". KSAQ, KISS, WLZR and Pirate. I'm reeling. Pleeeeeeeze don't be a wuss. It's not that heavy!!!! Just balls to the wall great rock n'roll guitar God included. Ask these stations why dontcha... Too - we have a smash & a half with this Salgon Klck track "Love Is On The Way". It's an excruciatingly beautiful song by a band with nipple rings and muscles and it's the Number One re-quested song at WSHE/Miami and WHTQ/Or-lando by almost four to one!!!! (The distant sound is a tune you might know called "Under The Bridge") Also - call Mottla - he loves it and he doesn't love just anything ferchrissakes... Tons of other records here are positively making me cream, but I don't wanna overload you and besides I drank way way too much coffee to have more than the attention span of a flea today.

Jim Neill, Rykodisc/Hannibal, 508-744-7678

Most criticisms that can be levied at NMS are more the problems of the critic. I always find it a conve-nient, if logistically challenging, chance to meet radio programmers. This year was no exception. Didn't get to see many new bands this year though cuz we were pretty busy with our own stuff. Sure is sweet to be blown away by your own artists. Both John Trudell And Graffitt Man shows were amaz-ing and the NVC debut of Beb Mould and his new ing and the NYC debut of Bob Mould and his new trio Sugar was relentless. Advance cassettes of the trio Sugar was relentless. Advance cassettes of the Sugar album Copper Blue (an absolute monster and I mean it) go out soon. Any hard-core Bob fans are welcome to call sooner and I'll oblige with priority treatment. Sugar dates in July in GA, NC, DC, MD, NJ, RI, OH, MI, IL, WV. Call for specif-ics... Joey Molland "The Pilgrim" (Badfinger singer/guitarist delivers a fresh new batch of gems that scream for airplay)... Coming in July: Nils Lofgren's "Crooked Line" (a gritty and gorgeous slab from the venerable vet). Marty Willson-Piper's "Spirit Level" (Payoff pitch for Church guitar pope). Soft Boys (Definitive edition re-re-leases of the first 3 albums from Robyn Hitchcock's original combo of cranial pop miners). Soft Boys original combo of cranial pop miners). Soft Boys rarities comp in August.

Michelle Robbins, Hollywood, 818-560-5670

Another NMS here and gone, pretty much the same as it ever was, except that the symposium discus-sions are far more productive than the panels, which usually aren't productive at all. Since I'm the new kid in alterna-town it was cool to put faces to voices and meet y'all. Far and above the most interesting aspect of this schmooze-a-thon was dis-covering that I don't look "alternative" (right, Chuck?). I was (politely) informed that my hair did not quite fit the format. So I'm of course conform-ing immediately by chooping it off into a bob and Chuck?). I was (politely) informed that my hair did not quite fit the format. So I'm of course conform-ing immediately by chopping it off into a bob and dying it black. I guess there's a correlation some-where between hair length and style and success in the alterna-world. I think not!! Pretty sick and lame to enforce any stereotype. So enough NMS, what about my bands?... Ghost Of An American Airman! You folks need to give these Irishmen's new single a serious listening to. If you were able to catch either of their two incredible shows you know why! If you haven't seen them, your missing one of the liveliest events you could ever participate in, so PLAY THE RECORD!!!... The Dead Milk-men on the road and in your face - you've got "The Conspiracy Song" on your desk now, learn it, know it, add it and play it! (We know who you are and where you live - you can't hide). Has "Chef" got your mouth watering yet? How about those phones ringing?... Billy Goat have been let loose - you've got "Bush Roaming Mammals" in your mailbox so what are you waiting for? Check out this disc and give your listeners some food for thought... Speak-ing of which, have you fed the monkey lately? This single's gettin' hungry! Spin this Infectious Grooves track to bring out the animals in your audience (whooaa!! I'm hitting new highs in lame promo geek lines here!) But seriously, check it out. I'm gone. Paul V., Warner Brothers, 818-953-3567

Paul V., Warner Brothers, 818-953-3567 "I got those post New Music Seminar Blues/I'm packin' Visine/ And calling you." Was it as good (or bad) for you as it was for me? Let's light a cigarette together, shall we? Why does the number 750 hurt so much today? About 9 other people know the "iasco" that I'm talking about... On to the present. Great balls of fire, it's The Wolfgang Press! #1, #2 and #3 Most Added last week, and I definitely now know that "A Girl Like You" is truly a smash because Mad Max hates it! Yes! Seriously, this song really feels like a future biggie. You should all have the import single remix on CD, and that's the version to play. Dig it!... Los Lobos are gaining new fans every week. Listen to this album as a whole and you'll understand why it's doing so well. I don't think it's out of line to say that Los Lobos stole the show at the 91X Listener Appreciation Party last week. The crowd absolutely dug them. Quality music for a quality radio format - ours!... What about those Jesus And Mary Chain bootlegs? Can I get one? If you got one, cart it up... Siouxsle And The Banshees on Warner Brothers? Y eah, buddy - on the Batman Returns Soundtrack, and very prominent in the movie itself. The Pro-CD of "Face To Face" ships this week, and we go for adds on June 29. It was co-written by Danny Elfman, by the way. You should make this song as massive as the movie... Finally, it is with great sadness to let you know that a member of our music community passed away last week. His name is Danny Keaton, and he did A&R at Giant, and is responsible for Too Much Joy and Army Of Lovers, to name a few. He was a great friend, and a real passionate fan of music. Danny was a sweet guy with a great sense of humor. We'll miss him very much. Any donations can be made in his name to Aids Project Los An-gels. Mike Mena. EMIL 212-492-1262

Derek Ault, Alligator, 312-973-7736 Dave Hole's The Bottle is certainly taking off for many of you. New rotations checking in from KTHX, Reno, KKZX, Spokane and many more! This blues rocker is going to be huge! Hailing from isolated Perth, Australia, his profile is growing and growing! Upcoming are rave reviews in Spin, Bill-board, AP, Guitar World, Guitar For The Practic-ing Musician and more! He's also on tour with Gary Moore by Gary's request. Take this one seri-ously. If your adult listeners respond to the Win-ters, Vaughans, Moores and Claptons of the world, then they will fill their pants over Dave! Remem-ber, even the aforementioned AOR staples had to start somewhere in terms of name recognition. Why not cultivate a great new talent like Dave and reap the rewards!? Give a spin to tracks 1-4 on Dave's CD (on your desk). Thanks for listening and hey, schaaawingggg it, baby!!!... Upcoming: Lil' Ed And The Blues Imperials' "What You See Is What You Get"! Pavement rules, finally saw them live and really dug the show. the show... Also got the latest Monsterland cas-sette, and am happily groovin' with these rockers... One last disc that must be mentioned - Tear Gar-One last disc that must be mentioned - Tear Gar-den. If you aren't playing this one, you are missing shear genius! It's been a long time since I've been this captivated by an album... Get ready for the latest releases from my trusty label - Willard, grungy loud rockers with their debut album Steel Mill. These guys will be in doing interviews, so if your curiosity has been piqued, talk to the band directly... Third Mind keeps up its plethora of re-leases with Duality by In The Nursery, and Mindfield, a compilation of all nine bands released this year... Don't forget about Front Line Assem-bly, tour to kick off August 8th. Also, a new single coming out soon with remixes of "The Blade" as well as previously unreleased tracks... And how can I end without mentioning Controlled Bleeding. They put on an amazing show at the seminar, and should be playing a few dates in the Northeast. Give me a call and I'll let you know more. Talk to you soon! vou soon!

Loretta Windas & Gary Jay, AIM Marketing, 1-800-275-0091

keting, 1-800-275-0091 Well, here we are, recovering from NMS this week (although by the time this is printed, hopefully that will be in the past tense). I would just like to say, that from a woman's point of view, NMS is NOT as bad as PMS; I'll bet a man designed that shirt! It was great meeting the faces behind the voices on the telephone, seeing some truly awesome up-and-coming talent (Superchunk, Snatches Of Pink), and having a friendly "hello" over a couple cold label, performed a seamless set at Tramp's, and are winding up their tour June 30 in Sioux Falls. Re-member that name!... The Beautiful, meanwhile, begin their tour on June 30 in Houston. Call us for interviews, IDs, tickets, or whatever blows your skirt up... Godflesh still dominates sacred chart territory; thanks to everyone who has supported this record!... Annie Lennox, well, what can I say that isn't being said already by retail numbers?... Jerry Giddens, ex-Walking Wounded, has just released a veritable gem on Dr. Dream called "The Devil's Front Door". Listen, listen, listen... Last but not least, I am having a hard time digesting the "We have too many women on the playlist right now" reason for not playing Ana Christensen. I was in radio myself long enough to know that where there's a will, there's long enough to know that where there's a will, there's a way. On the other hand, I've NEVER heard anyone say "I have too many MALE artists on the playlist right now." See ya.

Jerry Rubino, Radioactive, 212-489-4820

Jerry Rubino, Radioactive, 212-489-4820 Starting with an amazing show down the Jersey shore and the next night at The Academy in N.Y.C., Live embark on a U.S. headlining tour that goes through August 15th. These shows are with support acts Wire Train and Spent Poets. Don't be deceived by bullshit ads running in papers, like The Voice, that makes you believe Live is playing with Melissa Etheridge and Jeffrey Gaines. Live appears larger and bolder then Melissa or Jeffrey. Who's stooping lower, the promoter or the record company? Get a life... "Beauty Of Gray" is the latest gem from Mental Jewelry and the CD-5 includes 4 "live" versions of concert faves. Be sure not to pass up on A House. "I Don't Care" and "Take It Easy On Me" are gaining the ears of programmers, now let's get it on the air... You'll be serviced in late July with a recent NME single of the week, "Endless Art".

John Butler, TVT, 212-979-6410

John Butler, TVT, 212-979-6410 Ben Schultz. Do you know him? Have you taken the opportunity to put his track "In The Light" on the air? 14 reporting stations have and succeded so far in making an impact with this artist at their stations. Why? Because their ears tell them that this kind of record is missing from their airwaves: A strong mid-tempo mainstream AOR track that will attract all demos. They realize that there is more to program-ming their stations with the flavor of the month. C'mon, how many of your hairbands are going to be known by your audience in two months? Not many!! You say: "One song can't be all things." Bullshit Great songs are everything to this format and if you've heard "In The Light", you'd know it was a great song. The Ben Schultz Band is an album project. His album TriAlity is a classy timely artistic work from a real musician. Ben has put years of session work and musical experience to deliver a record that explores what a real guitarist/musician should be able to do: Create vocal tracks and instrumentals that are complete songs with hooks too great to ignore. You've got to remember that Ben has had a crash course in great rock songwriting. Look who he's played, toured, or recorded with - B.B. King, Beck, Bad Co., Small Faces, Stephen Stills, Buddy Miles, Johnny Winter, Stevie Ray Yaughan, Jim Hendrix. Go back into that pile, pick up "In The Light", take the full CD TriAlity home, and let this muther smoke your airwaves. It's that simple.

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic, 212-275-2135

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic, 212-275-2135 There's nothing better than pounding, thrashing, stagediving show like Salgon Kick at the Limelight in NYC. When I got kicked in the head, punched in the groin, and had my underwear ripped out - I just know it doesn't get any better. The NYC crowd went bezerk to all of the tracks from The Lizard, especially "Hostile Youth", "Body Bags", "Freedom" and "God Of 42nd Street". Big things are in store for this band this summer. Mark that!... If yer real lucky, Testa-ment is comin' to your town. The Ritual is Top 5 on just about every metal station and show in the uni-verse. "Electric Crown" wails!... The full Realized Fantasies CD from TNT hits you this week. Check out "Downhill Racet" and "Rain" for new metal tracks... Dream Theater has turned some heads! "Pull Me Under" landed a shitload of adds for an eight-plus minute track. Just goes to show that most of you have a sack!... And how about Helmet? The Meantime CD should have hit the air by now. Kill tracks are "Ironhead", "Unsung", "He Feels Bad" and of course, "In The Meantime"... King's X is still paving the USA on tour. Prisoner is an incredible radio track for both metal and AOR... Really be on the lookout for the brand new 24-7 Spyz CD called Strength In Numbers. Man is it heavy! The lead track is "Break The Chains", which goes for adds on July 6th... One last note - Rush/Mr. Big in Jersey was phenomenal. I actually shed a tear during "Xanadu". Kathie Reed, Geffen, 310-285-2746

Kathie Reed, Geffen, 310-285-2746

Kathie Reed, Geffen, 310-285-2746 Hey metal folk - I'm baaa-aack!! By now you all know that you should be crankin' White Zomble, but did you know that they are touring?! Did you know that they are supporting Pantera on their SoCal dates?! If you didn't, don't feel bad, but please make sure and give me a call so I can update you on all the current Zomble news.... I'm really looking forward to talking to some old friends and making some new ones in radio land, so phone me up! I'd like to congratulate Clarissa Garcia on her aspiring acting (or is it writ-ing) career! When it goes to film, I'd love to be the lighting designer! Speaking of film, Ris & I went to see Batman, I loved the cinematography, but I thought the story was dumb!... Remember this name, "Jackyl", you'll be hearing it a great deal from me this summer!

Sue Stillwagon, Elektra, 708-351-3900

Sue Stillwagon, Elektra, 708-351-3900 Thanks to all the Hard cabin - it was great to see you guys again. Ton 'o thanks to Chrisby & Jodie for their hospitality. When can I move in? Also great to see the NY gang again. God - I miss you guys... Kyuss is showing a strong first week. "Green Machine" is the recommended track from Blues For A Red Sun. This record is raw and pure - it's what grunge is all about. And they aren't another band from Seattle... Lynch Mob is still hanging. "Tie Your Mother Down" is the next track. It should be on your desk within a day or two. George and the band definitely do the song the justice it deserves. It's a great cover... Faster Pussycat! Let me just say - wait until you hear "Body Thief". This song kicks ass! Also, their tribute to Andrew Wood, "Mr. Love Dog", will touch anyone who was ever enthralled with Andy and never knew him or never met him. It makes you want to pull out Shine and Apple and listen to them over and over and over.

Michael J. Schnapp, Epic, 212-445-5987 "SUICIDAL TENDENCIES"

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia, 212-445-1988

New Music Seminar is over and done with. I'm still on the verge of homelessness. It was still a pleasure to meet Melissa from 'KNC and Marna from KUCI. Heavy fucking metal... You know it still seems funny to me that Manic Street Preachers rule and if you don't believe me ask Flea from the Chill Peppers... Love/Hate the legend continues. That's Jizzy Pearl buddy, and don't you forget it... Alice In Chains have this song "Would?" have you heard it? Play it... And lastly I would just like to mention that if you didn't see Goober And The Peas, you ain't lived yet. And Paul Wyndorf is Satan. New Music Seminar is over and done with. I'm still Satan

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade, 718-229-0980

Skrew? No, no sexual connotations involved here. I'm talking about the most intense metal/alterna-tive alternative/metal industrial band you have ever tive alternative/metal industrial band you nave even heard. Give this record a serious listen and dis-cover for yourself what I am talking about. Starting with the cover of "Sympathy Of The Devil" to "Charlemagne" (w/A. Jourgensen) to "Prey Flesh" (w/P. Owen) to the title track, this is one very cool CD... Also in your hands is Thought Industry. These guys have been opening for Skinny Puppy across the states on a tour now w/Godflesh that goes thru mid-July. Check out the track "Third Eye" and see for yourself why this record is #24 at Hard... Gwar continues their "Campain" with Blitzspeer as the new opener and to think that Sleazy P. Martini (Gwar manager and Presidential candidate) is looking like a better choice after what these candidates are saying and not saying. (Dan Reed, where are you when we need you?)... Look for Paradise Lost in about 3-4 weeks... Some final words to a select few that know who you are: "Is there anyone who smiles without a mask?/What's for Paradise Losi in about 3-4 weeks... Some final words to a select few that know who you are: "Is there anyone who smiles without a mask?/What's behind the words -- images they know will please us?/I'll take what's real/Bring up the lights." (Thanks to The Ryche). To those who know how to practice "The Fine Art Of Friendship", I value your friendship and care about you more than you will ever know. Special thanks to Chris and Jodie for your hospitality this past weekend.

Steve Prue, Round The Globe, 212-947-5575

Sieve Frue, Round The Chobe, 212-947-5575 So, in your hands will be the new single produced by Butch Vig (Nirvana, L7) and mixed by Andy Wallace (Slayer, Rollins, Sepultura) from NYC noisesters Sonic Youth - "100%". Don't be afraid of it, this is where metal is heading right now, so add it this week... Valentine Saloon is also in your add pile - Under My Skin EP is produced by Jack En-dino (Soundgarden, Gruntruck) and has a remix by Jamie Stewart of The Cult. No tricks, no bull-shit - just cool rock... Helmet cracks Top 10 this week - full CD is on your desk as we speak - hell, add that too? It was nice seeing Lynn from Inter-scope for 37 seconds at NMS... L7 is still showing good support in the Top 10 - new single: "Pretend That We're Dead". Vid on MTV! Thanks to all who saw them on this leg of the tour - they will be back with Beastie Boys and Babes In Toyland... Shooting Gallery has a new single out - "Teenage Breakdown" - what are y'all waiting for?... KISS is at 5! Revenge is the record that was coming for 8 years. Try "Spit' or "Paralyzed" for a cool follow up to "Unhohy"... Thanks and hello to all I hung with at NMS and assorted related parties, and a thanks to all the bands who rocked my world that week: Babes In Toyland and Rage Against The Machine (good catch, Schnapp!) for example... On a serious note: Those of you spreading bad karma - Don't. We do not need that in the industry. Gotta run.

Jackie Farry, Relativity, 718-217-3600

I've been promising you all that life at Relativity would be getting better for me soon. It should officially improve on July 6th - not only is that the report date for the first Joe Satriani single "Sum-mer Song" - it is also the first day that Maria Abril will be working with me. Many of you know her from Concrete Marketing - Maria will be joining me in the metal marketing and promo dept. primar-ily doing metal radio but doing lots of other things as well... Corrosion Of Conformity are confirmed as guests on the Henry Rollins tour starting July 27th in Florida. Talk to y'all soon.

Clarissa Garcia, Def American, 818-973-4545

973-4545 Trouble: Manic Frustration... Danzig: A Taste Of Danzig III-How The Gods Kill... Sir Mix-A-Lot; Mack Daddy (Mix and posse were on The Arsenio Hall Show on the 19th and performed "Baby Got Back")... The Jesus And Mary Chain: Honey's Dead (JMC was on Late Night with David Letter-man on the 24th)... The Black Crowes: The South-ern Harmony And Musical Companion (tour begins next month). Amidst all that, Batman re-turned this weekend, better than ever. The movie should have been called Catwoman. The Max Shreck storyline is a little weak, but I love and worship Tim Burton's movies. Go see Batman Returns. Returns.

Russell Gerroir, Concrete, 212-645-1360 "Stray Cat Blues" is the new track from Soundgarden! You should all have their new EP, if not, call me. Add it and play it ASAP... "Pull Me Under" is the first track from Dream Theater. These progressive rockers picked up a lot of adds first week out and were very well received. Their live show is also greatly improved, as was evidenced last week when they opened for Iron Maiden at The Ritz in New York City... Megadeth debut 5", very cool! "Skin 'O My Teeth" is the lead track... Faith No More and The Beyond continue to climb the metal charts. Their lead tracks are "Midlife Crisis" and "Great Indifference", respectively... Iron Maiden #1 on all the metal radio charts, thank you! Look for the band on tour if they're coming through Russell Gerroir, Concrete, 212-645-1360 Maiden #1 on all the metal radio charts, thank you! Look for the band on tour if they're coming through your area call me... There's not much left to say about Pantera. Their new video for "This Love" debuted on Headbanger's Ball last weekend. After touring Japan they will be headlining in the states... Capitol Record's Wildside are enjoying a good run behind their new lead track "Hair Of The Dog". This is a band that has the goods live too, when you get the chance check them out. "Til next week, see va.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood, 818-560-6962

I think that you people must be "Hungry" for more, so get ready for T-Ride phase 2. This will include a tour with Shofgun Messiah and Asphalt Ballet, where the band will astound you with their musical prowess, a new single entitled "I, Hunger", chillin' with these fun loving guys up close and personal and relentless calls from your Hollywood metal depart-ment from hell until this record goes Top 10 across the board! Oooohhhh, sounds exciting doesn't it?... Scatterbrain's "Mama Said Knock You Out" is punchin' down the competition left and right, so is punchin' down the competition left and right, so give this new twist on metal/rap a shot. Until next time, I'm out to lunch y'all!

Mark "Psycho" Abramson, Roadrunner, 212-219-0077

ner, 212-219-0077 New Music Seminar has come and gone and I didn't see that much of it (illness sucks!) but it was way cool seeing those who came in. Also, I saw Dispos-able Heroes Of Hipoprisy finally, they were GOD!!... Anyway, Obituary - put it Number 1 right fucking NOW!! I'm getting an ulcer here. You people really don't want me to end up face down in a straight jacket dribbling on myself do you? Well that's where I'm headed watching very, very unwor-thy bands give Obituary a hard time on the charts... Deicide is doing incredible! Keep it up! The tour looks like it may happen this summer, details as they come in!... Add Malevolent Creation. Type O Negative and Mercyful Fate (in that order) on June 29 and 30... Lead cuts: Malevolent Creation - "Eve Of The Apocalypse", Type O Negative - "Hey Pete" (call me if you need an edited version), and any off Mercyful Fate - any... Keep bustin' ass on Sadus and Defiance, they're doing incredible!... I'M GOING OUT OF MY MIND!!... Disposable He-roes Of Hipoprisy... Brutal Truth.... Biohazard... Sick Of It All (new one rules!) See ya. Jessica Harley, "Temple Of The Dog

Jessica Harley, "Temple Of The Dog Fan, 908-679-9111

Fan". 908-679-9111 "Words and music my only tools/Communica-tion/Let's fall in love with music/The only interna-tional language/The driving force in our living." Man of golden words -- Mother Love Bone. The above lyrics are from one of the greatest songs ever written. They are the words of Andrew Wood, former Mother Love Bone lead vocalist. He was perhaps one of the most talented musicians of all time, a star waiting to shine. His life ended abruptly on March 19, 1990. The band's forthcoming album Apple, had not yet been released. Words can not justly describe the pain and sorrow many of us felt. However, a year later all the admiration, love, joy and pain would come alive on an album. The band made up of members from Soundgarden and Mother Love Bone, their name Temple Of The Dog. Many of you received this record, sadly few took notice. On July 6th you will once again have the opportunity to let the Golden Boy shine again. You will expose your listeners to another vital facet of the Seattle scene. Let them discover through the power and beauty of Chris Cornell's vocals and the collaboration of Matt Cameron, Jeff Ament, Stone Gossard, Mike McCreedy and Eddie Vedder just what making music is all about. It comes from their souls to you. Don't just listen, feel it.

Paula Hogan, Century Media, 718-392-8135

8135 New Music Seminar is over, so all excuses of drunke-ness are not accepted!... Question: Why isn't Cro-Mags on your playlist? If you happen to be one of the few, be prepared to experience great pain (after all, I'm the martial arts expert!) All kidding aside, thanks to everyone who has been so supportive of this record. Your caring will be rewarded. The band is currently rehearsing for their first U.S. tour in years so beware! Interviews are still being conducted and giveaways are still available. Also, if you are not aware of the ongoing contest for the limited edition Cro-Mags bomber jacket call now. Don't miss out!... Finally, on your desk should be the sophomore re-leases from Demolition Hammer and Iced Earth (thanks for being so patient)... Also look out for the arrival of Mucky Pup's Century Media debut and the follow-up from death metaller's Unleashed. All this and more from Century Media. It's the summer of fun! Just think how much you can piss people off at the beach, so forget about targeting people with frisbees! This is much more constructive... Quote of the week: "In life, your only living if you move for-ward." I'm outta here. ward." I'm outta here.

Michael Brandvold, Red Light, 708-297-6538

Michael Brandvold, Ked Light, 708-297-6538 In August, Red Light proudly releases No Bones About It from Skull. The band was named after, as Kerrang! put it, "the aerodynamic nature of the Kulick kranium." Bob Kulick, guitarist extraordi-naire, is best known for his work with KISS, playing on several of their records including the legendary KISS Alive II and KISS Killers, as well as with Paul Stanley on his solo album and 89 U.S. tour. Bob has also toured with Alice Cooper (Welcome To My Nightmare) and has contributed his accomplished guitar work to albums by Meatloaf, Michael Bolton, Lou Reed, Tim Curry, Billy Squier, Jon Bon Jovi, Balance, Joe Lynn Turner, Diana Ross, Patti Labelle, John Cale and the list goes on. No Bones About It was recorded in Los Angeles, and was produced by Bob Kulick, Skull bassist Dennis St. James, Mikey Davis (Vinnle Vincent Invasion, W.A.S.P., KISS) and Eddie Kramer (Hendrix, Led Zeppelin, KISS). No Bones About It features songs from the skull-crushing "Breaking The Chains" and "I Like My Music Loud" to the soulful "Loser's Game", to the strutting "Eyes Of A Stranger", prov-ing its commercial appeal while retaining its kick-ass spirit. The album is highlighted by the searing "Gui-tar Commandos", which features both Bob and his brother, KISS lead guitarist Bruce Kulick sharing the solo work... Crowbar's "Subversion", totally bru-tal... Cianide, "The Dying Truth", the darkest music on earth... Sarkoma "Completely Different", truly different!... Going for adds NOW on Cianide and Sarkoma!... Can't get enough on KISS and Skew Sisken!

Nicole Dinkel, Continuum, 908-709-0011

Thanks to Chris and Jodie for letting all us radio types invade their beautiful abode last Saturday - it was really great to see everybody, especially Rob types invade their beautiful abode last Saturday - it was really great to see everybody, especially Rob Tarantino (Roy Tar when playing badmiton), Sue G., Rit, Joanne, Cheryl and it was great to finally meet the camera shy Sue Stillwagon, who makes a mean h'ors d'oeuvre... Now onto business, The Beyond, picking up new adds every week and climbing the charts - play this record! Don't be scared to try something different - yes these guys are alternatively influenced, past tours with the Red Hot Chill Pep-pers and Soundgarden in the U.K. could have that effect on a band. If "Great Indifference" leaves you indifferent, try "Sacred Garden" or "Lead The Blind". They just finished up some dates with Mindfunk and now are back in England, but will be available for phoners... Coming soon - Kid Rock - if you're into the Beastie Boys, this kid's for you. Stay tuned. funed.

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing L.T.D., 516-825-5549

L.T.D., 516-825-5549 Dash from Aversion is starting his telephone inter-views. We're giving metal radio the works. These boys love to work. I guess Skateboard Marketing will keep em busy. The new Slaughter single is in your face. "Reach For The Sky". There is no CD pro. So, work with it off the record. It's for metal only. The Slaughter, Ozzy, Ugly Kid tour is coming your way... Not to mention the Slik Toxik dudes are coming down the north east. We will have some dates soon... This week on your desk is the new Tony Macalpine... The new Lbox Array single "Thrills Behind The Wheel" and Roxus. Till next week. Peace.
