New Releases

Mick Jagger, "Wandering Spirit" Atlantic/Atl Group Jagger called on Rick Rubin to set the project in motion. The rocking "Wired All Night" is a quick pick for airplay. Many programmers and music types complained "Sweet Thing" was to dancey, but slide "Out Of Focus" on the player and you'll hear Jagger dig into those rock and roll roots with a bit of soul. "Put Me In The Trash" is a kiss my ass, and leave the cash tune. "Use Me" has a funky 70's feel that sucks you in its groove from Lenny Kravitz. "Evening Gown" is a classic Stones-ish flavored swaggering track that could have been on "Let It Bleed" (a ton of sentiment here). "Mother Of A Man" is "mother" of a rocker with a mean little harp. "Think" is a ground pounder with relentless percussion and soulful background vocals. "Wandering Spirit," rocks into the melodic and emotional "Hang On To Me Tonight." There's a good old fashioned feel to "I've Been Lonely For So Long" followed by the different pleasure of "Angel In My Heart" (very cool track reminiscent of "Lady Jane"). "Handsome Molly" is a traditional Irish song with Jagger's touch. Other guest include Flea, Billy Preston, Benmont Tench, and some of the most well known studio musicians around.

Paul McCartney, "Off The Ground" Capitol "Hope Of Deliverance" was perfect to introduce the latest project to a variety of formats. Radio will have the whole CD this week, and there is no doubt AOR will be scanning for tracks. The priority for the next two weeks will be "Hope" so hold back reports for one of the best tracks on the album "Biker like An Icon." The label knows it's a hit. Other tracks to spin include "Off The Ground" (very Fleetwood Mac), the short and strong "Looking For Changes," and the beautiful "I Owe It All To You" (wonderfully written/sweet hook). There's a psychedelic feel to "Mistress And Maid." McCartney tackles the racial issue with "Peace In The Neighbourhood." "Golden Earth Girl" rests peacefully on the ears (a "Maybe I'm Amazed" feel). "The Lovers That Never Were" and "Get Out Of My Way" reaches back to rockabilly roots (good old jammin'). "Winedark Open Sea" may not reach the air waves, but is a beautiful song that deserves attention.

Copperhead, "Copperhead" Mercury Sink into that Lazy Boy, pop open a brew or break the tab off the JD, and get ready for the real thing! Count on Copperhead to quickly rank up there with Molly Hatchet or Lynyrd Skynyrd with kick ass tunes like "Whisky" and the dark tale of "Brown's Gold!" Spend some time with "The Scar" and "Where Will I Be" and you'll quickly realize what AOR has been missing. Copperhead's sound is born and bred not rehearsed or duplicated-it's a feeling! The positive "Keepin' On" is as straight as they come! "Highway" will have you jump starting that Harley and hitting the open road. "Hard Livin'" has a "get-down-and dirty feel" with a mean organ. "Lazy Days" will put you into a day dream while "Not My Tear" knocks the walls down with crushing thunder. "Bom Loser" has some killer riffs with a good story, and should be a radio favorite. The "Freebird" on the album (and anthem-to-be) is "Long Way From Home." Copperhead are the real deal! Groups with this much feeling are touched by the Southern grace of God.

John Campbell, "Howlin' Mercy" Elektra Campbell lays down some of the best blues/rock to hit the airwaves in sometime. Hearing him is one thing, but to see him live is what it's all about. Dig into the rockin' roots of his debut album for Elektra. Songs to run with include the slow and nasty "Down In The Hole," and the rockin' "Look What Love Can Do." Slide into the traditional 7 minutes of "Saddle Up My Pony" or the radio friendly "Firin' Line" (Campbell's growl is stellar). "Love's Name" pulls every emotion from your soul while "Written In Stone" takes you back to the days of Johnny Rivers (with an edge). "Wiseblood" is a perfect display of Campbell's rich playing and "Wolf Among The Lambs" is a perfect way to highlight a deep, true blues/rock album (the first and best of the year so far!).

Phish, "Rift" Elektra Expect the Triple A stations to have a field day with the labels contribution to the H.O.R.D.E. sector of life. Check out "Fast Enough For You" (nice hook), "Hom" (sweet guitar work), the blues/Jazz style of "It's Ice," the beautiful "The Horse" and the groovin' "Silent In The Morning." The latest from Phish doesn't disappoint, but makes a fan want to reach for one more trip with Marley and crew.

The Samples "When It's Raining"

"By far, my most favorite album of the past couple of months is The Samples' No Room on What Are Records?. BCN is having a great response to "When It's Raining," but I like "Another Disaster," "Did You Ever Look So Nice," and just about every other track on this album." - Carter Alan WBCN

Jeff Horn, WRZK, Tallahassee - WOW! You talk about your long honeymoons!! We have been on the air since May of 1992 and the audience continues to impress us. Tallahassee has never had a format like ours to listen to, mainly because owners are afraid and they think that only kids listen — WRONG!! I would say our biggest audience is between 24 and 40. Ya know just maybe the 30"ish" crowd is tired of hearing the CCR's and Chicago's of the world! We have sponsored several shows here: Saigon Kick, Tora Tora, Jackyl, Foghat, Rhinobucket, Lillian Axe, Molly Hatchet since going on the air and this is a great way to see who your audience is and find out what they are "INTO" about the station. We feel "live" rock is a great grass roots thing we can do to help promote bands on our format and combat the non-reporting to R&R thing. Believe me, this format is much more fun to do than a classic format, STREET all the way, you really have to be on top of what's happening. I would like to thank the record companies who realize that it doesn't matter if you report to certain trade publications, BUT whether you PLAY the records, and help sell records. A BIG THANKS TO THE FLORIDA AND ATLANTA LOCALS!! Is Steve Schür of Elektra looking more like Tom Jones everyday or is it just me. Thanks for the time - Keep it locked and Rocked on Z-Rock 106! Phish, "Fast Enough For You," Elektra To get the full effect of the impact of Rift, we ventured into Phish Country (a.k.a the Northeast) for programmer reaction: WKXE's Tim Tobin, "Since we added this song on Tuesday, we've been getting amazing phone response. Phish has an unbelievable following in this part of the country. They're like the Grateful Dead around here. The fans come out of the woodwork. I've had listeners call in telling us that they're going to see Phish in Portland, Maine, 4 1/2 hours away. They have a real fanatical and dedicated following, so this record is obviously going to do very well for us."

WVBR's Spiro Phanos, "We added the album in Heavy. Phish has the strongest following of any band in Ithaca. By far, this is our most requested song and band. Rift will be the one that pushes them further into the mainstream." WRNX's Bruce Stebbins, "It's compelling, different, and it fits our sound. Also, immediate phones. They've played locally several times and have no trouble selling out because this is Phish country."

Sting, "If I Ever Lose My Faith," A&M The first single from the forthcoming Ten Summoner's Tales is such an obvious Triple A record, the only real question was just how high it was going to debut on the chart. The answer: At 4*, it is the highest debuting song on the A.A.A. track chart since its inception. With 31 adds OTB, the question remaining is will it take one more week or two until it's #1?

Big Mountain, "Touch My Light," Quality The numbers (12-11* A.A.A. Album Chart) speak for themselves, and so does the Triple A community: Dal Hunter, WVGO, "We're having a lot of success with it. 'Touch My Light' was our first track. We took our time playing it, and now I wonder why because the reaction here is really big. There's a lot of depth in the CD that could make it a nice, long project for us." Glenn Roberts, KFMU, "This is a great song. The sax is perfect. Quino really knows how to get an audience worked up. They played in Steamboat in December to a sold-out show. In fact, people had to be turned away, so we're bringing them back on the 26th and 27th of this month, and we're looking forward to it. It's easy to play this band. Every time we do, the phones immediately light up. The buzz on Big Mountain is huge. They're definitely going places. They're not a typical reggae band. They've got a modern twist that people are really digging." Jim King, KECH, "Refreshingly different, Jamaican styles."

Boneheads, "Cranium," River Records Since WCLZ's Chad Gilley was the one who originally turned us onto the Boneheads, we felt it only fitting that he share his find with the rest of the Triple A community: "It's a lot easier for us to support our local musicians when they're putting out great records like this. The Boneheads are the best band to come out of Portland, MAINE (the real one), since Knots & Crosses. From the city that brought Devonsquare... it's the Boneheads. Hey, you A&R types, there's a lot of talent up here in the frozen north! The Boneheads, with their rootsy Little Feat-ish approach to rock and roll, stick out from a lot of music that takes itself too seriously. The kind of tight, bluesy rock we don't hear enough of these days. It's time for the Boneheads to find their audience outside of the very appreciative Portland club folks who've enjoyed them for years."

"Sometimes I feel my work is like an ice cube...you can put it in a coke or you can put it in a scotch...it just has an effect, it's hard to say what it's getting at, I'm not sure it's getting at anything but an effect, the effect of cooling your drink, which is an urgent effect, to give comfort."

MO' MUSIC MO' MUSIC MO' MUSIC

Symon Asher, "Have You Heard," Miramar Symon Asher is Curtis Lee Chandler (songwriter, lyricist, guitars and vocals), Rупpi Barnickel (drums), and Martin Sutlovishnu (fretless bass). Since making waves in the Seattle scene, Symon Asher has caught the attention of the Triple A scene: KIOT's Gary Wolter, "You can't beat this band for diversity. Try 'Have You Heard,' or 'The Crucible.' Symon Asher will surprise you with their dynamics." WVBR's Spiro Phanos, "It's good, straight-ahead rock n' roll — meat and potatoes, but definitely interesting. It's a good sounding song with a definite hook." Early adds come from WHPT, WKOC, WKXE, WMVY, WWAY, KFMG, KWVS, KFMU, KIOT, KMTT, KWVS and KXCI.

Paul Brady, "Songs And Crazy Dreams," Mercury Native Northern Ireland singer/songwriter Paul Brady is probably best known to American audiences his duet with Bonnie Raitt on his '91 Trick Or Treat. Now, Mercury/Fontana have released a compilation of songs from four of Brady's previous releases, dating back to 1981. Most of the material on this album has only been available on import, and it is steadily gaining momentum at A.A.A., with adds from WMMM, WCLZ, KSKE, KIOT and WYEP. WMMM's Sybil McGuire commented, "Very strange, but very good. This cut with Clapton is the one that really stood out."

TRIPLE A NOISE

WXRT/Chicago raised $100,000 and over 4,000 toys were collected at the XRT Christmas is for Kids Rock n' Roll Charity Auction and the XRT Christmas is for Kids Concerts which took place in December. This years events nearly doubled the proceeds from previous years. Nearly a hundred items were auctioned, including items donated by U2, Bruce Springsteen, Michael Jordan. Melissa Etheridge performed before two standing-room-only crowds at the Chicago Theater, with her performance broadcast in its entirety as Live XRT Concert Exclusive. A portion of the ticket sales from the shows is being donated to Children's Memorial Hospital, La Rabida Children's Hospital, Wyler Children's Hospital at the University of Chicago and the Christmas is for Kids charity.

WRLT/Nashville has named Brett Schulte Operations Manager. Schulte will work with MD Michael Parks, Exec. Producer John Conlon, and Tuned In Broadcasting President Ned Horton. The new Class A signal is tentatively scheduled for an April sign on.

Rocky Mountain Radio Network is adding another affiliate station, KIDN/Steamboat. The station will be going head to head with Triple A KFMU. PD Glenn Roberts is not planning on making any programming changes though. "The locals will still hang with us. They know us and our music. We'll be out on the streets with lots of promotions, just keeping visible."

Private Music has signed A.J. Croce to an exclusive recording contract. T Bone Burnett and John Simon will produce the label debut for the singer/songwriter/pianist.

Sky Recording artists Flat Duo Jets, forerunners of the Chapel Hill music scene, are currently in Kraptone Studios recording their fourth album.

Top Priority

Brian May, "Driven By You," Hollywood

Brian May could've just sat on his laurels and enjoyed the BAZILLIONS he made during his years with the legendary Queen. But no, he's out and rocking and on tour with Guns N' Roses. Okay, the song is huge! He can sing too! Sure we used to get into fist fights in high school about who was a better guitarist — May, Clapton, Townshend or Harrison. Those debates lasted for days and days until someone would have the audacity to bring up Steely Dan session guy, Denny Diaz, and that would pretty much cause the whole debate to degenerate into some sort of pre/post-pubescent version of Summer Slam II. Today, as adults, we can truly appreciate the greatness of all those players without feeling obliged to pick a favorite. Go ahead! See for yourself!! May will begin his tour with Axl & Co. on Feb 23 and hit the following cities: Austin, Birmingham, Cincinnati, Atlanta, Chapel Hill, Albany, Providence, New Haven, Portland, ME, Hartford, Hamilton, ONT, Amherst, Boston, Iowa City, Fargo, and of course, many many many more!!

Record ^{OF} THE Week

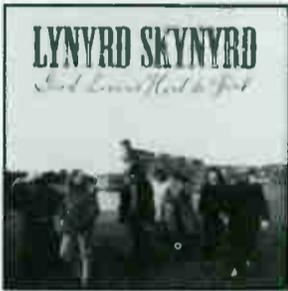

Van Halen, "Won't Get Fooled Again," Warner Brothers

Van Halen's tribute to the Who just blew the doors off this week. Oh c'mon, could we please sound more rock n' roll? Okay. Van Halen fuckin' rocked AOR's world this week!! Number One most added! A Hard Hundred Debut at 4*!! Huge! Massive! Strong to the hoop!! With a performance like that, maybe those rumors about DLR reuniting with the band will finally die off. Okay, so we read the story in Rolling Stone. Requests are already pouring into KIBZ, KICT, KQRC, KRQR, WHCN, WKGB, WKIT, WKLT, WKQZ and WONE. Oh, did we mention VH scored 160, one hundred and sixty, adds? Let's say that again for the folks in the back row — ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY OUT OF THE BOX ADDS!!! Guess they really did get down on their knees and prayed, just like yesterday. The upcoming VH live set will firmly establish VH's second incarnation. Sure, it's been eight years since Sammy hooked up with these guys, but this album will tie it all up in a tidy package. Look out for #1!!!

Hard Acts To Follow

Lynyrd Skynyrd, "Good Lovin's Hard To Fine"/"Out Of Hell In My Dodge," Atlantic

Maybe we were a little surprised at how good this new pair of tunes from Lynyrd Skynyrd really are. We were all set to do the whole Southern Boogie cache of one liners we had left over from other reviews of Good Ole Boy bands. The troika of Gary Rossington, Johnny Van Zandt and Ed King remains from the original combo and that makes for two tunes just as good as their classic work. We're talking tunes up there with "Free Bird," "Gimme Three Steps," "Workin' For MCA," "What's Your Name," and all those tunes that inspired us to go to college and get an education. As a matter of fact, next time we're in Hell, we'll be sure to go up to Beezelbub Budget Rent A Car and get us one o' dem Dodges so that we could get out. Whew. Thank you, Good Night!! But seriously folks, the Skynyrd crew have delivered a steaming hot platter that truly matters. We strongly suggest placing a call to the phone company immediately to install new request lines because this deadly pair are sure to blow them out in a nanosecond. Just remember, we told you first.

Bash & Pop, "Loose Ends," Reprise

Once upon a time there was band called The Replacements. They played rock and roll. Some folks called it "alternative." They were missing the point. The Mats (As true fans called them) played really really loud and after some of their shows many fans needed to seek medical attention. Well, like all good bands they broke up. Leader Paul Westerberg has dabbled in the solo world and Chris Mars released a wonderful solo LP last year featuring a cool tune called "Popular Creeps." Well, it's Tommy Stinson's turn with his new band called Bash & Pop. The only reason not to play this song is if you're thinking about flipping to an A/C format soon. This is pure rock and roll and ready to provide your federally licensed operation with a RATINGS MAGNET. That's right, this song practically writes your call letters down in all those ARB diaries (Even the ones they need to tape those quarters in!!). So, with that added bonus and a built in street credibility attached to this song, this falls into our fave category of music — AUTOMATIC.

Bakers Pink, "Watercolours," Epic

We're sure you've seen the cover of this band's album by now and fully appreciate their place in Rock and Roll history. Not since Jimi posed wit dem nekkid ladies has an album cover so captured the essence of the genre. "Watercolours" is a monumental song. It slowly builds into what could be the year's best single debut. Therefore, we suggest that you don't throw out the full album, like you so often do when cleaning out your OFFICE OF POWER. Between you, us and the lamppost, this band is going to be around for sometime. Get used to them. A fine way to do that is to add this track. Sure it sounds simple, but nothing in life is easy. As a great philosopher once said, "If it were easy, then everybody would be doing it!" So there! Bakers Pink give us a killer hook on this track and to us that spells r-a-t-i-n-g-s m-a-g-n-e-t. Sure we've overused that phrase in the last couple of weeks. Blame it on Dimetapp. Or more precisely Pathtapp (It's cheaper). Okay tough guy/gal, go play this song for the people.

Phish, "Fast Enough For You," Elektra

For hippies nouveau, Phish are probably the best thing since Free Love. So it was with a big steaming chunk of tofu that we got into this latest track. It brought us back to "Whiter Shade Of Pale," or more accurately anyone of those Moody Blues songs you used back in the 70s when you had your "old lady" in the studio. Hey man, let's weave a rug together. Great headband, mama. Let's take a ride in my customized van with that really neat shag rug in the back. Anybody have any Maryjane? (Sorry) But please, please don't go telling your friends that Phish are just a bunch of throwbacks. They aren't. The sound may be reminiscent of days gone by, but their attitude is totally 90s. Sure, we might have felt the need to pull the huka out of the closet, and that should be taken in the best possible way. With the Spin Doctors doing that cover of the Rolling Stone thing, the time for all those H.O.R.D.E. bands is now. So, dust off that poncho of yours and get ready to slap this mother on the airwaves. And besides, there's a democrat in the White House. Party on!

MORE Hard Acts To Follow

10,000 Maniacs, "Candy Everybody Wants," Elektra For those programmers who are used to programming to the 4X4 driving, malt liquor swilling public 10,000 Maniacs may be too high brow. But for the rest of us who enjoy really good music this CD5 of "Candy Everybody Wants, is the musical equivalent of a hat trick in hockey. We're all familiar with the plug track from the Our Time In Eden (You did listen to the whole album, right?) and you'll be pleasantly surprised by the bonus tracks included for your listening pleasure. First up is a cover of Morrissey's (We know some of you COR programmers may not be the biggest fans of Mo', but please try to be open minded) tune about the last town left after they drop "The Big One." Natalie Merchant pulls new meaning out of this song and in turn shows us that she's not just a great songwriter, but a wonderful stylist as well. Also included on the disc is "Sally Ann," originally done by the unfairly overlooked upstate New York combo, The Horseflies. Dig back in your collection and hear the original if you're interested. The EP wraps up with a tremendous version of REM's "Don't Go Back To Rockville," a fitting end to a killer disc. This week, concentrate on the A-side for your musical additions.

The Beauties, "Mother's Finest Son", MCA If you didn't get a chance to digest "Asses" you missed a really good single. Contrary to first guess, the song was a clever, tongue-in-cheek overview of the corporate side of life. But don't despair and don't draft a suicide note. This time another piece of creative music is on your desk and along with it your second chance. "Mother's Finest Son" starts with an acoustic flair that runs its course hitting nearly every possible musical permutation along the way. The song incorporates soft, but solid vocals (with harmony), a Stones-ish drum flavor and electric axe-work too. It even combines an Aerosmith slide guitar and harmonica moment that takes the song to a terrific end that will remain in the brain long after the song is through. The L.A. based band stars Jason Nesmith (Michael Nesmith's son) and a crew of lovely members who manage to evoke real thrills in their latest video (a must-see!). The Beauties are on the road and workin' feverishly. If you missed their Pollack Convention performance on Friday night, you can catch them again on February 11 at the Gavin Convention. Get your tickets now!

Genesis, "Domino," Atlantic There's nothing like live Genesis. We love to hear these boys crank their stuff in front of living breathing fans, because it shuts up all those skeptics. The legendary band proves two things here — that they can play without any studio tricks and that they have living breathing fans. Sure some of you may have forgotten that. Well, here's living proof. We have to admit that we are fans of Phil

Collins' motion picture career and wish him the best, although we truly hope that Genesis never ever ever ever break up. Why? These guys provide us, with great regularity, with tunes that people love. "Domino" is just one of a vast catalogue of in-the-pocket winnaha! CHR could bang this mother all they want, but Genesis is ours! Ours! Do you hear us! Ours! This live version gives the song a little slap and tickle and the world is a better place for it. We forsee happy people hearing this on your station and being thankful. So appreciative in fact that they may be moved to stick a couple of Franklins into an envelope and mail it to your attention. Okay, maybe we're dreaming. But you gotta admit live Genesis is money in the bank.

Jesus Jones "The Devil You Know,"

SBK/EMIRG Is it just us or is it extremely cold in here? Well, that could only mean one thing — The Devil we know is here. Faustian? Well, just the fine single from our buds Jesus Jones. Already all over that "M" thing and on alternative radio, the Jonesters are ready to blow your mainstream booty off. So wake up programming people and add this track, which features the first sitar you've heard since the incidental music from Help!. Hey, they've made HIT RECORDS before, so this one falls into our favorite category — no brainer. Wow, what a time saver. What are you going to do with all that free time? Maybe play this track several times for your own enjoyment? Go ahead, kick back. We won't watch. Hmmm...la...la...DEVIL YOU KNOW!! Now didn't that make you feel good? Thought so. Just watch that really cold ending!! Ouch! Don't let any loser convince you to let this band slip away to those bi-level haircut, accolade pukin', glad handing, free money every hour, Z Q Y F I head CHR competitor. Just keep repeating the "Ratings Mantra," B-E-A-G-G-R-E-S-S-I-V-E!!!

Chris Harford, "Raise The Roof," Elektra New Jersey's Chris Harford teams up with folks from Ween and The Rollins Band on this effort from his Be Headed album. We've been bombarded by buzz on this tyro artist and to be honest, we were quite skeptical. But that's just the way we are. You see, whenever industry types tell us something's great we don't believe them. Well, so much for cynicism. "Raise The Roof" is a huge song. If this doesn't cause major listener response at your FCC licensed operation, maybe you should over modulate and increase your coverage area. Harford sounds like a conglomeration of Captain Beefheart, the Chili Peppers on strong medication (the kind they tell you not to operate heavy machinery on) and Deep Purple meeting the Smithereens and Shriekback for a cup o' joe at the Outer Bridge Crossing. Of course it's up to you, the BIG TIME AOR PROGRAMMER to decide who Mr. Harford's influences are for yourself and that will entail actually listening to this killer song. You need to play "Raise The Roof" over and over and over again. For the good of the country, for the good of your audience.

Big Head Todd And The Monsters, "Broken Hearted Savior," Giant Sometimes we feel like our head is so big because it is so full of dreams (sure we used this line somewhere else in the book, but work with us; it's deadline time!!). Big Head Todd and The Monsters have already proved their adult appeal in the land of Adult Alternative radio so don't complain to us that there's just not enough upper demo music out there to soothe those oh-so-desirable middle-aged crazy listeners out there. Providing just the spice you've been looking for, "Broken Hearted Savior" is bound to turn some heads (Big Ones too) when it hits the airwaves. It's times like this that we wish we were back in the game. Ah! Remember those days? Sales pigs chasing us down the hall begging for just one more remote during Memorial Day Weekend, GMs telling us the "Hey Joe" should be pulled off the station because of its reference to shooting someone. Yes, those were the days! But we were always happy to add a quality tune like this and that made it all seem worthwhile.

New Emphasis Tracks

Eric Clapton "Running On Faith," Warner Brothers Once again we're given the golden opportunity to play a reworked classic from one of the world's greatest guitarists. No, make that artists. "Layla" was a huge hit all over again and "Running On Faith" will undoubtedly be bigger than it was the first time around. Mark our words, a whole new generation will get turned onto the master through this song. For the next few months you'll be hearing this song blasting out of radios of all shapes, sizes and colors. So what are you waiting for? (Oops! Already used that line this week!) MTV's Unplugged has become something of an institution with acts of every persuasion vying for a chance to strut their stuff sans electricity. Well campers, only a chosen few can pull it off with such style as Eric Clapton. We know you knew that already, but we just thought it needed to be put in print. You don't have to be A Suit to realize that adding this tune would be a good idea. Let your freak flag fly and get this one into one of those Heavy rotation things right now!!

Roger Waters, "Three Wishes," Columbia Peter

Boyle stars in the video of this song and that should mean something to you. After all, Joe was one of the most controversial movies of the early 70s. We think that he shouldn't have been killed at the end (Or did he shoot himself, or did he get shot...never mind). As any avid fan of celebrity minutiae knows, Boyle usually assumes the character he's currently playing even when the cameras aren't rolling. In the vidclip he plays the Genie Waters sings about. No! Not Barbara Eden! One of those in-the-bottle really fat guy Genies! Oh. Water creates a mood of desperation here, of course he does. Why else would somebody be looking for a Genie to wish to? Well, maybe to heat up their 74 Nova in a snow storm, but that's another story. "Three Wishes" is a welcomed addition to your playlist packed with style, substance and heritage. So hop on pop and get this nugget added, buddy! We've got three wishes: (1) That it would be Summer already (2) That it would stop being so cold here in the Northeast and (3) That you would add this tune. POOF!

21 Guns, "Walking," RCA Get ready to break the walls down, brother. This blistering numbah from our buddies in 21 Guns is sure to pop your gun with incredible ease. While we're talking firearms, this is like one of those really big guns that Jean Claude Van Damme would use no, no make that Steven Seagal. Yeah, this is like one big action movie of a tune. As a matter of fact, we dressed up in camouflage and ran around Hooterville shooting folks with our paint gun while this ditty played on our Walkman. Okay, we didn't really do that, but if we did that would've been really cool, eh? Scott Gorham brings back the glory days of Lizzy here and who wouldn't want a tune this good on their airwaves? That's right — nobody! Boy, we make your job a lot easier, don't we? Go ahead, hit the links, we'll take care of the shop while you're out. No problem. We won't fire anybody or anything like that. We may go through your desk drawers, but then again who wouldn't? Now that that's out of the way, Rock on! Cock this lethal weapon this week on your competition. Bang!

Impact Tracks

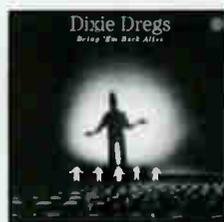

Motorhead, "I Ain't No Nice Guy", WTG (5/18) Once in a while somebody stumbles upon a song that's overlooked by the usual A&R team. We'd like to suggest that such a misstep occurred with "I Ain't No Nice Guy," a SMASH which features Motorhead frontman Lemmy in a collaboration with Slash and the legendary Ozzy Osbourne. The resulting path is leading to nothing short of a miracle (Epic is not actively perusing the single) as the momentum builds from the promo efforts of a determined few including WAAF's Mark Razz who calls the song "our 'Stairway To Heaven,' and KNAC's Greg Steele, a very early supporter.

Soul Asylum, "Somebody To Shove", Columbia (5/147) Nearly 150 AORs are on this rock masterpiece. KAZY was one of the new adds of the week that helped to fuel the Hard Hundred steadfast position of 10*. Also of note are the 11 sets of calls that claimed the Top 5 Phone "true fact" and the 14 rotational increases that made the stat sheets. More than two thirds of the signals on "Somebody" carry the tune in Medium and Heavy slots (as well as perfect pitch). The long-lasting performance of this first single release sparks interest in the remainder of album cuts and foreshadows more good music to come from Grave Dancers Union.

Southgang, "Tug Of War", Charisma (4/29) If KILO is getting Top 5 Phones, we can predict that "Tug" will very likely have the same effect for you. Perhaps this will persuade you? The list of already ons includes KIOZ, KRXQ, WLZR, WRIF and more! Southgang has spread their wings a bit, embarking on a new, more rounded style of writing and performing. The vision is clearer with every add week as AOR embraces the band with fervor.

Dixie Dregs, "Take It Off The Top", Capricorn (3/32) We suggest that you "Take It Off The Top" of the stack, open the jewel box it came in, put your fingers on the CD (but do it carefully!), pull it off the plastic center piece, drop it in the CD player, close the player door, hit the play button, crank up the volume, sit back, enjoy and man the phones! You're gonna make 'em react! The Dregs go to 50* on the Hard Hundred this week on the heels of action from KRXQ, KOMA, WPDH, WHCN, WZLZ and more.

dada, "Dim", I.R.S. (4/31) With well over 160,000 copies of the Puzzle missing, dada is quickly becoming a hot commodity. High sales figures have resulted from airplay of "Dizz Knee Land" and the new release "Dim." WVBR found "Dim" grabbing the official Top 5 Phone spot while WMMM's Pat Gallagher is claiming Top Requests for the band. The Alternative and A.A.A. formats tried dada early and experienced very good results. This week the Hard Hundred move shows a 10 position jump as the album makes its mark at 45*.

Gene Loves Jezebel, "Josephina", Savage (2/50) Debbie Alcocer is playing Gene Loves Jezebel at KISS and she "loves the stuff!" Also adding the single this week are WIXV and WZLZ. Call Phil Marlowe, and he'll tell you WCCC is getting Top 5 Requests (that's if you can get through). A 48-41* move on the Hard Hundred comes behind the new add support and sustained airplay from the early supporters of the single like KQLZ (Heavy), KLLOL, WYNF, WDVE, WMMS, WBCN, KTYD...

Daniel Ash, "Get Out Of Control", Columbia (2/15) If you recall the unbelievable response from rock radio when Love And Rockets released "So Alive" you know what you're in for with "Get Out Of Control." L & R's former lead man, Daniel Ash, has ventured out on his own and produced an album full of fire and energy. "Get" is an upbeat cut with a great groove and fireworks that will have listeners jumping up and down in front of the speakers. WAVF and WMMS are just two of the stations who have increased play on the single.

Overwhelming Colorfast, "She Said, She Said", Relativity (5/21) The Overwhelming response to "She Said, She Said" is becoming more and more evident as KATS, KLCX, WAPL, WEZX and WHEB jump into the add mix for the week. The "gnarly" single incorporates wankin' guitar work in a mixed-up, hard driving grind that rounds out the song impressive enough for even the bored-est of the bored! The cut will knock you out. On the Hard Hundred chart this week we see a terrific move of 89-76*.

HARVEY'S HEADING EAST

Harvey Kojan

Harvey Kojan has been named Program Director at Saga's WNOR/Norfolk, filling the position left vacant when Buzz Knight exited to program Classic Rock WZLX/Boston. "When I first spoke with Steve Goldstein (Saga Exec. VP/Group PD) five years ago, I immediately realized he was one of the sharpest programmers around," commented Kojan. "That's not kiss-ass, it'll-look-good-in-print bullshit — that's the truth. After five-plus years in Los Angeles, my wife and I are ready for a lifestyle change. The birth of our son Kyle 10 weeks ago increased our eagerness to relocate to a more suitable environment for raising a family. So, when Joe Schwartz called, the timing couldn't have been more perfect. WNOR is a well-respected, well-positioned heritage AOR with the staff and resources to maintain its status as Norfolk's preeminent rock station. And Joe's a true mensch. It's an ideal situation all the way around." Kojan has been R&R's AOR Editor since 1987, and his radio experience includes stints at Albany rockers WPYX and WQBK-FM, WGRQ/Buffalo, and MD duties at KLOL/Houston.

LESNICK SIGNS DOUG BURTON

Doug Burton has joined Howard Lesnick's independent promotion company in Detroit. Doug's resume includes promotion duties for SBK and Mercury as a local and national, and a stint with WILS-FM. Doug joins his longtime friend Jim Pemberton in Lesnick's Detroit operation.

BARBIS NAMED PLG EXEC VP

John Barbis

John Barbis has been promoted to the position of Executive VP of the PolyGram Label Group. Barbis, who had been Sr. VP of the company will work closely with PLG President and CEO Rick Dobbis on the overall strategies for the company and the artists on the PLG labels. In making the announcement, Dobbis said, "Johnny has been a key member of the PLG executive group since he and his wife, Edwina, agreed to move to New York. We work very closely on all key strategic issues and no one has more or better relationships throughout the music community. This promotion is recognition of his essential role so far and in the future."

PRIVATE ELEVATES JOHNSON

Ginny M. Johnson

Ginny Meroth Johnson has been upped to Director of National Promotion at Private Music, reporting to the record label's VP/Promotion, Linda Feder. Prior to joining Private Music last year, Johnson served as national director of promotion for a series of boutique record labels. She was also Director of West Coast Operations for Strike Force Management. Feder commented, "We felt that Ginny's experience in various formats would enhance the growth and diversity of Private Music's artists.

Ginny has come through for us and proved her talents on a number of projects, including the success of Jennifer Warnes' singles at AC radio. Her promotion is well-deserved and makes Ginny an official, full-time member of the Private Music family."

THE WEEK IN RADIO

WTKX & WZEW FORM SATELLITE RADIO NETWORK

WTKX/Pensacola and WZEW/Mobile announced the formation of a satellite radio network, the Gulf Rock Network. The simulcast will originate from 'TKX beginning in early Spring, with both stations maintaining local identities for local advertisers and promotions, as well as regional and national advertisers. As for the format, Howard Seaton, GM of the Gulf Rock Network, told Industry Noise that it will be AOR. "Not much different in the way of what we're hearing currently on TK101. Over the course of the past several months, we've been working to bring the two formats closer together. In Mobile, they've been adjusting their music, and I don't think the average listener is going to notice a great difference because a lot of the music is in already in place. It's just a matter of the technical hookup." The staff at 'TKX will basically stay intact, with the final decisions on who's in and who's out at 'ZEW pending. "We haven't decided who will be kept on in Mobile, or in what capacity," stated Seaton. "We will possibly be transferring some staff from Mobile to Pensacola. We've been working together on this project for over a year, so we've been taking steps along the way to make this transition. We're going to be able to combine the best of both heritages of both stations to become a stronger entity." Plans are in the works to expand the Gulf Rock Network to add affiliate stations in the Biloxi/Gulfport and Panama City areas.

EVERGREEN BUYS KLOL

At presstime, we learned that legendary AOR KLOL/Houston and sister outlet KTRH-AM have been sold to Evergreen Media Corporation for $51 million by the Rusk Corporation. Evergreen Chairman/CEO Scott Ginsburg commented, "Houston has been a radio market that Evergreen Media Corporation has wanted to enter for some time. We are absolutely thrilled to be able to acquire these superior AM and FM broadcast facilities." KLOL scored a 4.5 12+ in the Fall '92 Arbitrons. The Irving, Texas based Evergreen owns and operates 9 stations including WLUP AM-FM/Chicago, KKBT/Los Angeles, KMEL/San Francisco, WTOP-AM & WASH-FM/Washington D.C., as well as an LMA and agreement to purchase WFYV/Jacksonville. The sale is subject to FCC approval.

The Jeff Healey Band recently played a live concert for WNEW-FM/New York. Here celebrating the event are (L-R) Arista's Hillare Brosio, 'NEW's Scott Muni, Pat St. John, Healey, band members Tom Stephen and Joe Rockman and WNEW's Dennis Elsas.

It may only be a rumor, but I hear that the Rolling Stones, who have been trying to find a replacement for Bill Wyman, are talking to the Red Hot Chili Peppers' scene-grabbing bassist, Flea. The source says the Chili Pepper and Mick Jagger hit it off when Flea performed back-up on Jagger's solo album. Another report says Muzz Skillings, Living Colour's one-time bass player, has also auditioned for the band. Not true, says Jagger's spokeswoman. "No one's auditioning anyone at this point. Flea played with Mick on his solo album and that's it." Meanwhile, there's a launch celebration for Jagger's new album on February 9th (the American release date), and I hear the Stone himself may, in fact, belt out a couple of tunes for the event. Actually, I know this to be true — why I'm being coy is beyond me. We even know where it's supposed to be — Webster Hall — but Mick's people asked me to keep it under my hat for a minute to prevent rioting in the streets. Or something like that. P.S. In a recent interview, Jagger was asked how he felt about the current climate in England versus America. His response: "I know America has got its problems, but things in England have gotten very peculiar, too. Cher is #1 on the album charts. So what can you say about a country that has Cher as number one?" Stay tuned... Kenny and Marianne Rogers, who are trying life apart, insist they are not even thinking of divorce at this time. The tabloids have been punching away at Kenny for having a roving eye. I won't comment on that, but will say it always seems a miracle when any marriage survives that involves a star like Rogers, whose career keeps him on the road. If anything, Kenny seems busier than ever these days between his concert schedule, his TV appearances (he's got a CBS telepic and an appearance on the Country Music Association special coming up this month) and his business interests. He has a gig upcoming in Las Vegas, engagements at the Grand Palace theater in Branson, Montana, and his new chain of Kenny Rogers Roasters restaurants, at which he plans to make regular personal appearances. He's also working on a another photography book — one that will feature shots of country stars. Rogers was able to get home to Georgia this month to see his 11-year-old son Christopher compete in a basketball game — but only had time for a one day trip...

RADIO RUMBLE

WZNF/Urbana Program Director Greg Farber has exited the station as of Monday (2/1). Greg was with 'ZNF for four years, the last two as PD. He is looking for a future radio gig, and can be reached at (217) 398 6541. No replacement has been named for Farber, and Music Director Ken Davis is acting PD in the interim. Ken will take calls between 9 and 10 Monday mornings, and 2 and 3 Monday afternoons.

KUPD/Phoenix is having such great success with their "Red Radio Payday" contest they have decided to continue it. Every Thursday, from 7a-7p, the audience listens for the song of the hour and then shots a call in to be $100.00 richer. PD Curtiss Johnson told RR, "We asked our listeners 'what they want?', and they told us 'to pay their bill', so we are doing just that!" Now that's what we call forced listening!

with Squires at KKXX before making the defection to KRAB. Chris said, "We are looking forward to his help to continue our winning tradition. He is very dedicated to the overall mission of the station." Music hours remain the same, Tuesday and Friday, 3p-5p. Other changes include the departure of evening personality Madd Maxx who is heading for the mountains in Reno, Nevada to work with KZAK (a Z-Rock affiliate). Mike Bell holds down the 7-Mid slot until further notice.

KIBZ/Lincoln announced that The Animal (Jon Terry) has been elevated to Assistant Program Director and Chief B.L.B. of KIBZ, and will be available for those music calls along with Gabe Baptiste on Thursdays from 10a-2p. PD Baptiste said, "It's great to be working along with the Animal again, and he's ready to rock!" Look for some more news on the horizon with their duopoly and LMA taking place with Rock Steady Inc. In other KIBZ news, Suzette has left the building to tackle an advertising agency career in Lincoln. Gabe mentioned, "We will miss her valuable contributions to the Blaze since day one, and wish her the best!"

KYYS/Kansas City General Manager, Mike Campbell, announced the signing of KY-102 Program Director and morning personality, Larry Moffitt, to a three year contract extension (great news for Harvey Leeds). Mike Campbell said, "Larry has proven not only to be a great program director but an excellent addition to our morning show. It's great to know that Larry will be with KY for the next three years!" Killer dude!! Moffitt said, "I can't think of anywhere I'd rather be working. Our team is in place and we're ready to take KY through the 90's and beyond". Moffitt is a sixteen year industry veteran, having programmed KGGO/Des Moines, KBPI/Denver, as well as running his own successful programming consultancy. In other station news, Ted Nugent took some time to stop by the KY-102 studios for an on-air visit with mid-day rocker Paul Fredrocks. Then it was on to CR Specialties, where 500 loyal Nugent fans and bowhunters stopped by for autographs, a chance to visit with Ted and an live broadcast with KY's afternoon driver, Skid Roadie (below). Listeners had an opportunity to do a little bow shooting at a target that had tickets attached to it for some prime seats that the concert.

KSFX/Roswell is holding a "meet and greet" with some lucky Def Leppard fans in Lubbock TX on February 23. They made it simple for listeners to qualify for the contest, by being the designated caller when they heard a Leppard. The grand prize was a trip for two to Lubbock, dinner for two, a nights stay at a luxurious hotel, and a chance to meet the band. In other promotional activity, 600 people showed up for the station's Laser show with music from Pink Floyd and Led Zeppelin. It was a great turn out considering it was right after the Superbowl. Tony Clayton/MD said, "It was a great showing. We're in Cowboy country and we just caught everyone in the celebrating mood!"

WRFX/Charlotte got the scoop on Ted and the Damn Yankees. Just back from touring in Japan, Nugent hit the airwaves with Allan Handelman on his "East Coast Live" show (a weekly talk show based on WRFX). Ted said, "Everybody knew what I was going to do on stage. Nobody said a word to me about the fire ordinance. we always send an advance preparation for our stage show. They knew it in advance. Two hours after the performance, the Fire Marshall decided to come back to arrest me. I have always supported law enforcement and I'm nationally known for my support of law and order. The cops had to follow the order of the Fire Marshall. They refused to frisk me, they said they would rather frisk their Grandmother. they refused to handcuff me, they said they said they would rather handcuff the Fire Marshall. They then refused to put me in jail and we spent hours talking about ballistics and big game hunting!"

KCQR/Santa Barbara added another sales pro to the staff this week. Traci Claussen takes over as Sales Manager. she hails from KBBY & KKUR/Ventura where she spent two years as Senior AE. Her objectives were greatly summed up, "My goal is to provide the absolute best in marketing ideas targeted to meet individual needs. My philosophy is nothing short of excellence, and the 94 Rock sales team is exactly that!" Shana Campbell also joins the sales staff from KMBY where she worked with Traci. Shana is now an AE and previously worked as a mid-day D.J. at KBBY. In other station news, 94 rock will be giving listeners a chance to hitch a ride on the slopes to Mountain High. Two ski buses will be leaving in early February for a weekend of sun, ski, and fun.

KKMR/Reno is welcoming those Damn Yankees to the Lawlor Events Center over the weekend and giving listeners a chance to win tickets if they can guess the "riff." The audience has to identify the three guitar blasts from Styx, Damn Yankees, Night Ranger, or Ted Nugent to win tickets to the big show. Ted called MD Skip Herman and APD Eric Govan on the air and informed them that he checked the fire codes in Reno and everything was going to be fine. When asked about those bad boys in Jackyl, Herman said, "They'll put on a kick ass rock and roll show and if they get into trouble, we'll be more than happy to bail them out. Hopefully, we can get them out of the 'Ranch' in time for the concert!"

KRAB/Bakersfield PD Chris Squires named "The Real" Bruce Wayne Music Director and moved him up into the 7 to Midnight time slot. Wayne has been at the station about a year and a half and has proved to be a key player since the station flipped to a COR approach about 18 months ago. Wayne worked WMMQ/Lansing has signed Pete McCrea for afternoon drive at the classic rocker. Pete was formerly doing part time swing at WVIC. Since there was already a McCrea on the air in Lansing, Pete will henceforth be known as Pete Conway.

MORE Industrial Noise

WMXU/Starkville reported some shifting this week. OM John Thomas is out and Jim Scott is in. Scott takes over mornings and retains the programming title. He said, "It means a bit more cash in my pocket and much more administrative work. There will be no change in the direction of the station. Things have been going as planned since I took the programming reins in June of last year. We're always going to improve the product, but I feel we're on the right track!" Mike Bishop moves from overnights to evenings and evening personality Uncle Warren shifts over to afternoons.

WZXL/Atlantic City slides APD/MD Steve Raymond to afternoons. He told RR, "We are primed for upward movement in '93. Things just kind of happened for me. I feel we're starting off the new year with a solid team in place!" Music hours have been moved to Wednesday and Thursday 11a-1p. Other changes include the departure of afternoon host Dave Packer who heads to oldies WXOD/Keene, NH. Night time guy (and glad to get off the graveyard grind) Tonto slides into the mid-day position while Nikki Neal moves from weekends/promotion asst. to overnights. Paul Kelly has been promoted to full time production director.

KLLO/Houston names Donna McKenzie afternoon drive host. She joins the station from crosstown classic rocker KZFX. The station has also begun broadcasting "Trafficmaster" Lanny Griffith's "Traffic In Bondage" reports in morning and afternoon day-parts.

WQNY/Ithaca add to their staff of greatness in Upstate New York. Brittin Van Horn will be holding down overnights and comes from Pennsylvania. He worked at WICB/Ithaca for a short stint, so he knows his territory. PD Tracy Summers said, "He's very, very hungry for radio and a very good worker. His attitude is refreshing. Promotionally, the station is gearing up for Valentines Day by qualifying listeners for a chance to win one of three trips. They include a weekend for two at Lake Geneva, Saratoga Springs, or Sayre Pennsylvania. All are beautiful areas with plenty of skiing near by and of course good food for good fuel!"

CKLG/Vancouver's Dean Hill, "Zoo Keeper" for the morning zoo has taken the reigns to head CKLG as Program Director. Fellow Zoo-mates, The Coach, Stu McAllister and Kate Gorman will assist Dean in his programming duties. The new age programming team has brought forth Dana Willard as Promotions Director. Dana draws experience from her past with both LG73 and sister station 99.3 "The Fox." Former director Jody Elle continues to lead the promotions team at CFOX.

WIZN/Burlington has appointed Steve Smith as station Promotion Director. Steve brings 12 years of radio experience to the job, including stints as WTKX Program Director in Pensacola, Florida and as Promotion Director for WZPK in Berlin, New Hampshire. He has worked as a part-timer at the "Wizard" for some time. Smith said, "It's a great opportunity! WIZN is a truly remarkable and unique station, and I'm happy for this chance to contribute to the original rocker's winning reputation!" Steve can be reached Mon-Fri 9-5 at (802)860-2455.

CJXY/Ontario, Canada's 3rd largest rock radio station, launched its first annual "Future Classics" campaign, in search of hot new Canadian rock talent. They are looking for material from South-Western Ontario rock groups. Entry deadline is Friday, March 12th. From all the entries received, 50 quarter-finalists will be selected for on-air playback. 12 semi-finalists will be featured on an upcoming station CD release. 6 finalists will be selected to play on a live tour, and one grand champion will be crowned with over 30 thousand dollars in prizes, including $10,000 in cash, a recording session at the world-renowned Grant Avenue Studio, and a music video production.

WKQZ/Saginaw celebrated winter in style this week with their morning show Marc & Joe. Over 95 men and women participated in the WKQZ Marc & Joe Polar Bear Dip as a part of the annual Tip-up Town Festival. All dippers received free morning show sweatshirts and the chance to sing soprano with the Saginaw Symphony Orchestra. Pictures are worth a thousand words...thumbs up Homer!

Interview

By Bill Hord

KSHE'S JIM OWEN

99 times out of 100, any programmer who takes over a dominant heritage rocker in a much larger market leaves well enough alone. In fact, most opt for an even more conservative direction. Not Jim Owen. Since he succeeded Rick Balis some two years ago, Owen has taken Emmis' St. Louis property in a decidedly different direction. And why not? He got the St. Louis job, thanks to the damage that WKLQ's harder rocking approach did to long dominate WLAV. And he was pulling big numbers with real rock as far back as the mid-'70s in Indianapolis. Now, Ken Anthony and Doug Harris are poised to come at KSHE with what is believed will be a classic high end/low end assault, with twin signal WFXB and KFXB. So, the plot has thickened considerably. We caught up with Jim as he was packing his bags for L.A.....

So, you're headed out to the Pollack convention. What's your objective at a get together like that?

Jim: Well, you learn some things, you put some faces with telephone voices, make some contacts, and end up just shootin' the shit about radio at all kinds of informal sessions. You do end up taking something away from it in that regard.

I'm very interested to see what the assembled throng thinks about what Westwood One is doing at 100.3.

Jim: I've read about it and talked to the Pollack people some about it. I've been really interested to hear it, too. How did it sound to you?

It sounded great. The music is interesting and it sounds exciting. The L.A. record community is certainly keyed up about it. The notion of cross cuming KROQ and KLOS makes perfect sense, don't you think?

Jim: I would think so in that market. Playing the percentages and niching would seem to be a little easier there than in a lot of places.

KSHE is a radically different radio station than when you took over.

Jim: It's a little tougher now. We're a little harder.

Would you say a little, some, or a lot?

Jim: We're a lot harder, but not as hard as a lot of stations. It's a lot harder than a lot of heritage AORs that have been fending off classic stations and have, in essence, become classic stations.

You're situation is especially interesting in that KSHE was formerly pretty darn close to a classic. Yet, with no direct rock competition, you've really hardened up the sound. Usually, 'if it ain't broke, don't fix it' is the operative philosophy in situations like yours.

Jim: There are two wisdoms: 'If it ain't broke, don't fix it,' and there's another side to that, too. A lot of people also put forth that, 'If it ain't broke, break it and see what you can do with the pieces.' You have to look at any situation and anticipate where things are going, why you got some of the numbers you got, and what you have to do to build on them in the future. If you just sit on whatever numbers you've got now, those can become very stale very quickly. And, as we proved in Grand Rapids, those numbers can be taken away very quickly.

Speaking of Grand Rapids, Mike Tinnes and I had a great time reminiscing about the times you two had in Indianapolis. Please step into the Wayback machine and we'll journey back to the mid '70s when you programmed WFBQ.

Jim: They had been an AOR for less than a year.

'If it ain't broke, don't fix it,' and there's another side to that, too. A lot of people also put forth that, 'If it ain't broke, break it and see what you can do with the pieces.'

You were doing some progressive things there, especially in terms of tempo. You were using bands like Road Warrior and the Faith Band, and moved the station from a 6 to a 10 share in the process, only to wind up getting fired by your consultants, Burkhart/Abrams, and the late Lee Michaels, in particular.

Jim: We moved up and beat WNAP for the first time. That was the target station because they had been market dominant the longest. Basically, Lee had to come in and swing the hatchet because I just couldn't get along with the GM. The GM made some mistakes and I made some mistakes and we pissed each other off. And who's got the ultimate leverage? So, we parted ways. That same guy has been GM of a couple of Spanish stations in Los Angeles. We've run into each other at some conventions and laughed about it.

You got axed by Lee Michaels the went across the street and took over Charlie Kendall's disco station.

Jim: We had trashed the disco station by that time to the point where, without saying anything, people were going out and spray painting graffiti on their billboards. We really coalesced a guerilla army without much trying. It was a dead and down radio station. When we walked in and took the thing over, there were no commercials on the air and it was just a piece of junk, literally.

And you made it one of the first much harder rocking CHR's.

Jim: Yes, we came in and called it 'New Rock.' At that time, it was really pretty simple. Dance music was disco and disco was obviously a dead format, so we really didn't need to mess with that. We could come in and play REO and some of the newer rock material, and really make a Top 40 hit format out of what was available.

How did you fare against WFBQ?

Jim: We did pretty well. We got up into the 9's. We beat WNAP again. They were still a big player and their AOR/CHR blend made them sort of all things to all people.

This was long before Bob and Tom?

Jim: Right. WFBQ was in a position at that time where they needed to rebuild. We were just starting to do that when I went across the street, and I ended up taking a lot of people across the street with me.

About that time, you got fired by Burkhart/Abrams again —this time by Dwight Douglas. That was when you decided it was time to head for the north 40.

Jim: I went up to the Charlevoix/Traverse City area and was the station manager up there for a while. It was a group of about four of us who ran the whole damn station by ourselves.

WKLQ was your next stop. I know you took the station in a couple of different directions at first. How was it formatted when you arrived?

Jim: We were more of an Adult CHR than anything else. We built that thing from the ground up. We came in and rebuilt the studio and started from the beginning. But it was just too unfocused. It was difficult to find library material. It just wasn't right.

Then, you took it CHR, and wound up with great numbers you couldn't sell?

Jim: Right. There are a couple of lessons here, the key one being, 'focus, focus, focus.' As an adult CHR, we were just too spread out. Once we turned it into a full-blown CHR, in just one book we took out WGRD, who had been there forever as the big CHR. We had all these huge teen numbers and very respectable 18-34's, but from the time we became the #1 CHR, there was nothing but complaints out of the sales department. Made a ton of Pepsi money, I can tell you that.

How come those guys couldn't sell the 18-34's if you were flush with them?

Jim: The basic problem we had was that 18-34 females was not a real terrific buy at that time. 25-54 females was. We could play in the 25-54 female game, but there were at least one or two stations that usually had bigger numbers than us, and they always saddled our sales people with the idea that we were a teen station. This is a buyer's mentality. Buyers would say, 'Oh, I don't want all those teens.' Yeah, but look at all those 18-34 and 25-54 women we got. 'Yeah, but I don't want the teens.' Well, what difference does it make?

I didn't try to put on a big stage show or dance around a lot. Once everybody got used to the fact that it was going to be a pretty straight ahead game without a lot of bullshit, the reaction was, 'Great! Let's do this.'

If the women are listening.

Jim: That's right. The women are there. The teens are just gravy, so who cares? But you get saddled with that teen image, and it's like a millstone around your neck. We did some research with the idea of, 'Gosh, we've got to be more 25-34. We've got to be 25+, because that's really where we needed to go to make some money. And the 25+ were saying, 'Well, they're a little too repetitive. Sometimes, they talk a little too much.' The kind of crap some research projects throw back at you. So, we broadened the library and did a real nice 'less repetition and less talk' advertising campaign.

That was the start of your effort to unseat WLAV?

Jim: No, not yet. We had the biggest 25-54 book we ever had, and then we got re-attacked by WGRD and Bubba the Love Sponge, the original one. He came in and attacked our nighttime guy and just started trashing him on the air.

And it worked?

Jim: It worked for teens. They started pulling teens over to him. Bubba was on the air saying Danny had AIDS and that his mother did all kinds of sexual things to him.

No, come on!

Jim: Really nasty, careless stuff. We let it go and let it go, and, finally, we decided to mount a campaign to get Bubba blown out. And we did. We mounted it with the advertisers and we mounted it on the air as the rock n' roll airforce. Two weeks later, we got him blown out of town.

How'd you do it?

Jim: The public was already riled up, so we just took the good guy mode. We said, 'We're the good guys, and we don't tolerate this kind of radio.' Grand Rapids is a medium sized town with a very strong religious background to it, Christian reform.

A lot of churches there, eh?

Jim: Yes, and we took the high road. The heat from the advertisers got Bubba blown out. The down side is that we drew a hell of a lot of attention to WGRD and what they were doing there. Then, we found ourselves in a situation where these guys were starting to get some ratings again. The battle had a little bit more parity to it and our choice became: Do we want to go back into battle with these guys, focus the list back on teens — which is where the primary core of any CHR usually is, along with 18-24 females — and just split teens with them? Do we want to take the 30 share of teens we had and split it in two? We decided not to.

What were the key ingredients in your assault on WLAV?

Jim: We had much stronger production values, much more of a sense of fun, much less of a sense of, 'We're the hip AOR and you have to pay attention to us.' We also focused more on up tempo material, and our library was probably half of what theirs was. And we started poking fun at them a little bit at that point.

Obviously, your success at 'KLQ propelled you into the hot seat at KSHE.

Jim: Yes, it was that unseating of 'LAV. There were a lot of people talking about it and I was getting an awful lot of calls. It's a great company and there are a lot of great people there. Most of them are still there. Grand Rapids is a terrific town to live in. When Emmis' Rick Cummings called and said, 'Do you want to talk about KSHE?' it got my attention because of those call letters more than anything else. KSHE has always been a very special radio station with a great reputation. It obviously needed some things that I could bring to the table. It presented a real unique challenge, considering that most of my stuff had been start up and turn around.

What were the most obvious areas that you felt needed improvement when you got on site?

Jim: Well, I think they had done a hell of a job in fighting off the Classic Rock station. KSD had gone at them very strongly. That's Gannett with a lot of money and a good signal. They did a lot of research on the music and put a lot of money into the personalities. It was a very tough battle for a long period of time, and these guys fought off Classic Rock like most of the heritage outlets did in the '80s. When I got there, they were still stuck in the mode of looking at KSD as the prime competition when in reality, KSD was a very inefficient radio station with good cume, but very high turnover and getting a much lower share than they deserved with that kind of cume. They just weren't the place we should have been focussed.

Where should have they been looking, and where did you direct their attention?

Jim: It was more a matter of anticipating where the next attack potential was going to come from. Where might we be vulnerable? Where was the music and the format going? We had to look at St. Louis and say, 'We've done the job here and the Classic Rock station is down. Classic Rock is about a 5 share in the market. That's what these guys got, that's what they're going to get. So, let's look at where the next thing is likely to go and how we can grow into it.' Our obvious area of vulnerability was to stations that could come on and sound newer, fresher, and younger — but were still rock stations.

I imagine there were people around the station who still remembered the legendary hard rockin' battles with Bobby Hatrick and Doubleday's KWK?

Jim: Yes, and what was going on at that time around the country. There were a number of other markets where that same thing we had done to WLAV were happening. We needed to rethink from a different perspective, and that's probably where I was valuable to them. You end up with a lot of sacred cows at this kind of station. People have been there for so long that, sometimes, things just get hung on the station and nobody thinks twice about them, 'We've always done that, so we'll just keep doing that.' And I could actually look at some of these things and say, 'Well, maybe this isn't necessarily broke, but I think I will break this piece right over here.'

Things like Psychedelic Supper.

Jim: Right. A number of features here and there. We kept some of the stuff that researched a lot better. We kept the things that really fit KSHE and tried to get rid of some of the things that didn't necessarily say that it was KSHE, but just sort of got hung on the radio station. For instance, The Lost Classic, The Coffeebreak Classic — things that really tended to take the station off into extreme tertiary musical territory and really put it at risk. Another area we needed to address was the overall presentation of the station. We had to bring it up a few notches and make the delivery a little quicker, a little more modern day — a little less '70s AOR-ish, a little more MTV-ish — and freshen it up in that sense.

The people who have gone through WNEW are fond of referring to the '20 Year Club' and how they ultimately control the action there. How was KSHE to deal with in that regard?

Jim: I raised hell before I even got there. There was a lot of upheaval before I arrived, which really started when Rick Balis left. He had been there for a long time, and he's a rock. He was an extremely steady force and had been a real strong leader for that radio station. So, his leaving had unsettled things somewhat. All of those factors came into play. Here's this guy from this harder rocking station, from a market that nobody from St. Louis had ever heard of. And even though Grand Rapids is an extremely respectable medium-sized market, a lot of people just hadn't paid any attention to it, so they didn't know who I was. And I had some different ideas. We had an afternoon guy named Rich Dalton, 'Radio Rich,' who left the station two weeks after I got there. Rich and I never would have gotten along. He's across the street now at KSD, doing nights for them — and that's fine. We were in a situation where we were not going to agree. Rich got an offer, and we told him he should probably accept it.

Did long termers like John Ulett have a tough time accepting music that was harder and more current?

Jim: First of all, everybody had to get used to me. I'm a pretty straight shooter, and I think that freaked out a few of them at first. I come in and just tell you what we're going to do and here's the direction. I didn't try to put on a big stage show or dance around a lot. Once everybody got used to the fact that it was going to be a pretty straight ahead game without a lot of bullshit, the reaction was, 'Great! Let's do this.' When we started rocking harder, the jocks were into it big time. There was a lot of very positive response from the air staff when the tempo came up, even though a few of their favorite songs might have bitten the dust. Most of them were very happy to be playing in a radio station that had more of a rock sensibility to it, instead of worrying quite so much about more of a yuppie sensibility.

Any generalities that you could pass on regarding how to go from a market the size of Grand Rapids into one the size of St. Louis?

Jim: I've been in radio a long time and done a lot of different things, so it wasn't so much that it was a change of market size. Any time you're in a new situation, you've got to step back and really take a look at things. I went from a station where we were moving like a freight train going 90 miles an hour and mowing everything down in our path. And it was great fun. We were having a terrific time. I had to change my energy level and some of my expectations of movement when I first got here, and that was very frustrating, to say, 'Okay, I'm going to slow down. I've got to watch this thing and observe for a little while, and see where everybody is at.' So, I would recommend patience to anyone who changes to any situation, especially if you're moving into a much bigger market because your competitive market forces are going to be that much stronger. On the other hand, you can't sit around for too long. You've got to get in and start doing some things. Most of the time in radio, if you're aware and you're paying attention, you can make a few mistakes here and there and correct them before they become too disastrous, so it's not all that terrible to say, 'That's not right. Okay, I'll change it back.' You can't be afraid to do that.

It's not like you were just inaugurated.

Jim: No, it's not like being President. Everybody's looking at you, but not that many people are looking at you.

No. You can afford a couple of Zoe Bairds here and there, I suppose.

Jim: Yes, you can screw up a few times and fix them. Sometimes, people in radio get frozen in place and they say, 'If I do that, it might be a mistake.' So what? Make a little mistake every now and then.

As long as it doesn't involve a big money air personality. That seems to be the capital crime. I won't mention any names, but we all know of situations where guys have gone into 'make it or break it' career move opportunities and slipped on a banana skin.

Jim: And that is tough. Working with the personalities can be real difficult. The biggest thing that everybody has to do — and this is what I've really tried to talk one on one with this air staff about — is you need to take a station view. It's like, 'You guys are heritage guys. You bring a lot to the situation. But the station also brings a lot to you. So, let's take an overall station view of this thing, and not be quite so concerned about, "Oh, my God, it's a new guy and I'm a dead man."' Let's look at what's good for the station because most programmers are doing that, too. And that's their viewpoint. If you take their viewpoint, then you'll probably understand what's going to happen.'

I understand when you got there, one of your frustrations was that you felt the need to get these guys out on the street, and the M.O., at that point, was relatively sedentary. Is that true?

Jim: Yes. For a number of different reasons, there was a stance of not going out because it might not be, say, the perfect broadcast. Any time you do a promotion or anytime you go out, of course, it's not going to be perfect. Something's going to go wrong. But it's really much more important to get out in the streets and shake hands and ask for votes, so we definitely started doing that right away. That was one of the bigger things that took some time to push through because they just were not geared for doing that. Since we started doing that, we've been extremely successful at it, and have really spent the last year going everywhere. We've been out on more programming broadcasts, we've gone to more concerts, and have done more different kinds of remotes than they've probably done in the last six or seven years. I think they had just gotten into a habit. They had some good reasons why they couldn't do that anymore. We just had to say, 'Okay, those are good reasons, but not good enough.'

Yes, you can screw up a few times and fix them. Sometimes, people in radio get frozen in place and they say, 'If I do that, it might be a mistake.' So what? Make a little mistake every now and then.

Was there a corporate sense that, sooner or later, you would be under direct attack, as is shaping up now?

Jim: No. Actually, I brought that to their attention because I came from the position where we had directly attacked somebody. And I sat in that market for a long time across the street from WLAV saying, 'Well, it's accepted wisdom that you can't attack 'LAV. They're just too strong. There's just not enough holes.' We did research all through those years that said that there were some holes. And we attacked them successfully. I think anybody can be attacked. How successful you are depends on what happens in the trenches. But it can happen to anybody. That was really the message all the way around, 'It can happen to us, so we need to look at the situation as if it's going to happen to us, and be prepared for it.'

The direction that you've taken the radio station in is unusual for a heritage station in decent shape 12+ and in their target demos, agreed?

Jim: It's unusual for accepted wisdom, yes.

Although, if you look back on what you did in Indianapolis at both radio stations, and you look at the situation in Grand Rapids, it's obvious that you play by your own rules. How was the Pollack organization when you told them that you were going to buck the trend and move in a harder rocking direction?

Jim: All for it. They were very happy that the radio station was going to take a little bit less of a view in the Classic Rock direction, and take a little bit longer view of what the future held for AOR, in general. Everybody realized that in the '80s, you had to fight off the Classic Rock stations. The difficulty comes in stopping doing that and not fighting those guys off anymore. The Pollack people had a real good sense that Classic Rock had pretty much reached its peak. It was where it was going to be, and was not necessarily a comer anymore, and we might want to start looking another way. They were very supportive people. They're very bright people. People like Dave Brewer and Tommy Hedges really know radio and really know what they're doing. They're the kind of people who really like to have a hands on sense of things.

I would think that to Pollack, and to a number of other advisors, that you risk moving to a much less saleable demo with what you're doing.

Jim: Dave Brewer is the primary guy that I deal with there. Dave and I were pretty much in agreement that we could get 25-54 by being an honest to God rock station. Dave had some experience with some other stations doing that, and I had just come from a station where we were doing very well 25-54, and doing very well overall by playing rock. So, we weren't really that concerned about it. We felt we could do 25-54 demos and do saleable demos, and still play rock music. It all depends on doing the proper kinds of research. Research the right demos, and then, focus the sound of the radio station against those demos. We tested this new material against the demos that we were after, that we were going to get the proper saleable demos, and they said, 'Yeah, we love that.' So, at the same time that the station was not playing AC/DC during the daytime, or even Van Halen during the daytime, the research that I did from 25+ Males said, 'Yeah, we'd love to hear that. Absolutely! Play it.' So, we play 'Hells Bells' at eight o'clock in the morning, where before, 'Hells Bells' was played at ten o'clock at night. And it did very well.

Do you feel that when a heritage, big power, big rating, heavy billing operation like yours pushes the edge of the envelope much closer to the straight C.O.R. approach, it pretty effectively counters a competitor's ability to hurt you with a similar approach?

Jim: We'll see. We're on a path that we see in a lot of the research that we've done, and the fact that this radio station has always been known as a rock station. If you continue to define what mainstream rock is, that's what KSHE should be. So, that's where we're going to go. If these guys want to be some type of mixture of hard rock and grunge alternative and that works in this market, then, they will have taught us a lesson.

There's a perception afoot in the marketplace that a lot of your dayparting '75 been modified in anticipation of whatever is coming from Ken Anthony and Doug Harris. Would you say that's the case?

Jim: Not really. I'm not a big fan of dayparting to begin with. We do some, obviously. We do it primarily based on auditorium tests, but we also do some because 'And The Cradle Will Rock' from Van Halen just sounds a little odd at six o'clock in the morning. But there's not that much dayparting that we do. We have made some adjustments to the nighttime, that we were heading toward anyway. All of the adjustments that we've made in the last few months, since the rumors started about all of this, were things that were on the drawing board or were on the table — they were in the schedule to begin with. And although we may have moved the timetable up by a month or two, I've always felt the timetable was about six months behind, anyway.

Does WFXB's Rock AC approach cross come much of your audience?

Jim: No.

You don't feel them at all?

Jim: No.

And you don't think that's going to change?

Jim: I don't think so. They'll probably tweak it some. But we're pretty aware of some of the details of their LMA situation and they really can't do much with it.

As far as their call letter application, I would assume that KSRC had a fairly direct bearing on your recent addition of the 'Solid Rock' moniker?

Jim: Actually, it was on a list of phrases that are used around the country that we had been thinking about. We started using that before the call letters popped up. We threw that on in November, and the call letter application was done in January. Actually, we didn't hear about the call letters until a couple of weeks ago. It was on our list of phrases to use, but we put it in as soon as possible, so that we could own it.

Do you have thoughts on what's going on in Denver now, and were you surprised when the Jacor guys came after KBPI with a much lower end approach, which is, frankly, the last thing anyone expected?

Jim: No, not surprised. Denver is one of those markets that's ultra-niched. Although, I don't get to hear many of those stations on a regular basis, from talking to some people who are familiar with the market, the consensus that I'm picking up was that there was no place else for them to go.

There was Country.

Jim: I think there's a couple of Country stations there.

At the time, there was only one, which is what seemed to make that such an obvious move.

Jim: Well, there's room for another Country station here. But I think some people are reluctant to get out of the rock game. I've talked to some other people around the country who feel that there's more longevity, still, to rock than there is to Country. I guess we'll wait and see.

I was having a conversation with Marty Bender this week, who was quite concerned about what Country is doing to him in Indianapolis. You know how big it is there. And it's not just the 12+, and it's not just the 25-54, but 18 to 24 they're just a share point behind him.

Jim: Oh, boy. That's not happening here. It's 12+, and it's 25-54 here. And it's primarily 35+ in this market. They're doing very, very well. They're hurting the Hot AC and KMOX more than anybody else.

That's how it started in Indy. If you and Anthony get into a real head to head, are you envisioning that could be a problem?

Jim: It's always possible. The Country format right now is the wild card in all these cases. But is it going to grow 18-34? It kind of depends on the market. In Kansas City, the two top stations are Country. Who knows what's going to happen here with that. It has not yet really encroached in that area. Country tends to go through these cycles. I can't remember the guy's name now, but an old time Country programmer in an interview recently said that this is the seventh time that Country has gone through a cycle like this. We all remember the 'Urban Cowboy' thing. I do think Country is very cyclical. It's just as bad as CHR in that regard. So, it's going to have to go through its cycle. We're a rock station, and we're going to keep being a rock station, so we'll just have to go through that. If it's us and these other guys fighting it out, we'll just fight out battle.

What Marty is looking out for is Young Country. The thing that I didn't realize, not being a Country listener myself, is that there's a distinct difference between Hank Sr. and Hank Jr.

Jim: I'm not sure that Country is going to come in and take those demos and keep them for any length of time. I don't really see that happening — but never say never. The more Country niches itself, the more that works in our favor. Any heritage station, even down in the medium markets and some of the smaller markets, that have had underserved demos, or blockbuster shares of demos that everybody looked at and gave them a lot of credit for, should probably be looking at those demos and wondering where they're vulnerable in those places. I'm sure that Ken Anthony is sitting across the street and looking at the 30-some share of 18-34 Males that we've got, and they're saying to themselves, 'Some of those are vulnerable, I'll bet.'

'We'd like a few of those.'

Jim: You get into those double digit numbers in any demo, and there's a real good chance somebody is going to be looking real hard at it.

Is there any Alternative presence in the market?

Working with the personalities can be real difficult. The biggest thing that everybody has to do — and this is what I've really tried to talk one on one with this air staff about — is you need to take a station view. It's like, 'You guys are heritage guys. You bring a lot to the situation. But the station also brings a lot to you. So, let's take an overall station view of this thing, and not be quite so concerned about, "Oh, my God, it's a new guy and I'm a dead man."

Jim: No, there isn't. There's a very small wattage, almost community, volunteer type of station, but it's so block programmed that it's really difficult to tune it in.

You just finished a big Parikhal project?

Jim: Right.

Any revelation from that that you could share, without putting your cards on the table?

Jim: They did a great job for us. I'm really pleased with the information that we got from it. It gave us a real solid idea of who our listeners are and the types of music that they want to hear, and what the value of different types of music are in the market. That's primarily what KSHE is today, the things that we've seen out of that research. Yes, I have some real specific information in there that kind of guides me, as far as some of the rumors I've been hearing about where these guys are going to go. I'm kind of waiting now. It's like, 'Alright, fellas, we know you can talk the talk. Let's see if you can walk the walk.' There's been an awful lot of rumor and very little action up to this point.

Have you heard the supposition that these call letters are not happening?

Jim: Yes. There's a lot of smoke out there. I'll tell you one thing I'll give Ken Anthony a lot of credit for — he knows how to put up a smokescreen. They've really sent out a lot of rumors. They've done a lot of talk. They've put out an awful lot of information, and much of it is meant to misguide and to be smoke. It's kind of fun. It's been fun to deal with it and to sort through it, and I give him credit for that. It's been fun to have somebody who wants to play a little bit.

To me — and this isn't because I've clothed my family now for the better part of a decade with KSHE clothing — your station is known as a marketing mother. You really do merchandise the hell out of Sweetmeat. I can't think of another station that has really made its mark as effectively, unless it's KLOL.

Jim: We're pretty strong with that. And Doug Harris is into it, too. He's going to be the guy who's consulting them in their marketing.

What is the marketing battle ground?

Jim: I don't know where they're going to go with it exactly. KSHE has done an awful lot of stuff here. Obviously, you can always do things bigger. You can always do things more. We'll see what happens. As far as the ratings battle goes, it always boils down to is the music right that's on the radio station. Marketing enhances the package and draws attention to the package. We'll see what they end up with on that. We continue to move on with our marketing. It's no secret in the market right now — we haven't officially announced it, but we're going to do a club. We're opening up a club right next to our building downtown in the Union Station area that's going to be a bar/restaurant.

You're taking over that pool hall?

Jim: Yes, we are, The Power House. We're going to open that up in March. It's making Sweetmeat, and the radio station, in general, almost an icon, which has its own down side.

Will you own and operate?

Jim: No. We're going to franchise our name and our mascot to them. We're going to promote with them.

And thus, indemnify yourself, I suppose.

Jim: Yes, and we're going to get royalties from them. The Hyatt's going to operate it, though. And it will be owned by some other people.

Is that a first?

Jim: As far as I know. I don't think anyone else has done it quite this way. We're not calling anybody looking for advice. We're just sitting around in meetings and trying to make this stuff up, and figuring out what we're going to do with it. It will be interesting. I think it's going to take a lot of man hours from us.

Just stick with lite beer, and you'll be fine. That's my advice because I have a feeling you're going to be hanging around the club a lot. Next on our agenda, the announcement that you're doing Outlaw radio. I'm told, KLOL owns that name.

Jim: They do.

But you're calling your program Outlaw Radio?

Jim: Yes. It's kind of a kinship, really, with their GM Pat Fant. And John Beck has been at the station as the GM since Emmis took over. John's the guy who has guided it through all these things and put all these people in place — starting with Jim Marchyshyn. He's the one who allowed Abigail Pollay to really grow and blossom as a Promotion Director. And he and Pat have been through similar courses in that regard. I think Pat has a real place in his heart for this type of station.

Explain to me, though, how a guy like Doug Harris, who played, I'm told a very active role in that whole Outlaw Radio thing, can't keep it off your station, given his relationship with Fant?

Jim: As far as I know, Doug is in his own business now. He runs his own little shop. And KLOL owns the service mark on Outlaw Radio. Doug doesn't.

And they're willing for you to use it, for the proper consideration, I would assume?

Jim: Well, yeah, it's part of that. And it's part of the idea of heritage radio stations sticking together.

How will what you do as Outlaw Radio relate to what they do in Houston?

Jim: We'll sort that out as we go along. We're not just going to lift it. And I don't think that's what Pat's got in mind as he farms this thing out around the country. He really hasn't done much of that yet. In fact, he's turned some people down. I think this may be the first official usage of the phrase.

Will they provide you with lists, or will they be self-generated?

Jim: Actually, we just had some real basic conversations about it at this point, and I don't think there's been anything like that. We'll do what needs to be done for St. Louis. I haven't met him yet, but I hear really good things about Ted Edwards, and I'm sure I'm going to get on the phone and pick his brain.

The monster morning show is another note-worthy aspect of St. Louis radio. Shortly after Emmis took over, J.C. Corcoran was one of the first major hires who really kicked some serious butt over there.

Jim: The one and only J.C.

He's the boy. I guess it's fair to call your current morning show a work in progress.

Jim: We've been restructuring since I got here. I worked with the former morning man, Asher Benrubi, or Adam Smasher as he is known, in Indianapolis. He's a great guy. Since his departure, Randy Raley has anchored the morning show.

Ever since J.C., they really had hung the morning show on the typical one personality kind of thing — big morning show, big personality, big dollars — all that kind of stuff. We're trying to restructure it into more of an ensemble.

What's your sentiment about the whole value-added thing? As the economy stays in limbo in St. Louis, is that becoming more burdensome to you?

Jim: It's been burdensome for three years now. It's burdensome to everybody. It's something that you have to do. Even Joe Used Car Lot, if he's going to buy time on your station, wants two promotions because he's going to make a $3,000 buy. What you've got to do is work real hard with the sales department to try to keep the promotions as clean as possible. But if you're going to make money these days, you're going to do sales type promotions. One of the things we've been working on in the last year or so is to try to take promotions to the sales department that we can allow them to sell, without garbaging up the sound.

Before they bring them to you.

Jim: Right. We end up in three, four, five meetings a day trying to take something that the Missouri Lottery, or somebody else wants to do, and turning it into something palatable on the radio station.

We talked to Howard a little over a year ago and had some discussions with them. We discussed what the details of the contract were and what the price would be in St. Louis. We got into a little bit of back and forth with them and decided to back away from it.

So, you're constantly looking for creative ways to make something fun, make it imagey, and still do what the client wants to get on the air. There's no way to get around it. Unless you're not going to make money, you have to do it. When we did the Corvette promotion, we gave away a '67 Corvette, and we gave away a brand new ZR1 to celebrate 25 years of the radio station, and it was the first time the station had ever sold remotes. And we did it by taking the cars around. We took the two cars and set up a real nice display, and we sold remotes. The idea was to come down and register for these two cars. That really gave the sales department something to make a lot of money with, and something that they had not had before and was painless. It was a way to take these two beautiful cars out on the street and register people for them. And we did that for month after month, and it worked out pretty well. If you look for things, and you can take them to the sales department — it keeps a lot of people off of your back, because they did end up using a few of those remotes as 'gimmies', value-added things, 'I'll make my buy, but you've got to give me two promotions.'

When Shelly Graffman and Century owned KSHE, all of their properties, including Detroit and Los Angeles, were fairly well known for aggressive, dollar chasing at the record company level. Do you remember that era?

Jim: Yes.

Do you aggressively go after record company bucks and timebuys?

Jim: No, we don't. We'll take them on if we can. The biggest problem we have is keeping the inventory down. We have a ten unit limit, and I fight for that daily. Sometimes, we go a little bit beyond that because we need to.

That is a little odd in this day and time, isn't it?

Jim: Yes. There's so much demand for our inventory, that we could sell twice as many commercials as we've got available. It's not so much that we're out there looking. During most of the year, we're not out there looking for things to fill inventory with. We're looking for ways to get the cheaper spots out, get the more expensive spots in, and I'm looking for ways to keep the inventory down to acceptable limits.

And you're able to hold rate?

Jim: We actually do hold rate in this market. It's a rate whore world, and everybody drops their rate. It's a cost per point world in a lot of ways. You're always fighting that battle. It doesn't really matter where your rankings are, and it doesn't matter that you've got a lot more people than some other radio stations if their cost per point comes in less than yours. So, if they drop their rate far enough, then you've got a problem. But our sales department, and specifically our local sales manager, Matt Saunders, has really been able to force that rate up, to use the strength of KSHE to keep that rate as high as possible under the circumstances. So, yes, we have done a good job of that.

Have you been approached about Grease or Howard anytime recently?

Jim: We talked to Howard a little over a year ago and had some discussions with them. We discussed what the details of the contract were and what the price would be in St. Louis. We got into a little bit of back and forth with them and decided to back away from it.

Do you see that in looking at what's happening around the country? Do you feel that the buzz has cooled a bit?

Jim: A little bit. You still hear a lot of good things from people who are in the business about Howard when they listen to him. I think there's some concern about making money with Howard Stern. Some stations are having some trouble with that. Will it come to St. Louis? Maybe. I couldn't name anybody right now who would pay the freight, who would really bite that bullet and go ahead and do it because you'd have a helluva time making that nut back.

That's a lot of cash. The indemnification is pretty high, too.

Jim: It's a three-year, no-cut deal. You don't like it, take him off the air, but you pay him out.

Final thoughts?

Jim: I think everybody needs to be prepared to be fast on your feet. You need to be prepared to look real hard at everything you're doing on a constant basis. One of the messages that I try to tell people is that change is not a bad thing. Change is a good thing. Change is a learning process. It's not a negative thing. If you change things, it's generally for the good and not for the bad. People expect that. People want you to continually work on keeping their patronage. Our clients pay us with money. Our listeners pay us with time. And time is more valuable than money these days. There are mom and pop businesses all around the country right now that are making money who go pick up your dry cleaning, or go pick up your mail, or go pick up your kids — all these things that normally you would do. I'm going to have the power antenna replaced on my car, but I'm going to have the guy come down to the parking lot at work and do it because I don't have time to go to the place and have it done. Our audience is paying us in time, and we've got to make sure that we are using their currency wisely.

Interview

By Amy Birch

Ann & Nancy Wilson Take The Lovemongers To Heart

Nancy: "(After our last Heart tour) we got a little time off. We had a chance to get home and be human again. We realized that 'Hey, wait a minute, our instincts are good! We need to do something!' Once we got the Lovemongers going we started to feel again...sensing that original excitement of just playing clubs and intimate theatres. Just tearing it all back down. Away from the big mechanical horse of the rock industry. Back down to a personal level. We just knew that's where Heart needed to go next...we have to write all our own stuff again and we have to get out of the bombastic "Bic lighter" kind of coliseum ballad trip and get back to the things that our fans love us for. The really unusual balance between the real, personal, acoustic stuff and the real hard hitting rock!"

Ann, Nancy, Sue Ennis and Frank Cox are The Lovemongers. The Wilson sisters, who are four years apart, met Sue in high school. Ann explained, "We all liked the Beatles—a lot! I guess, to start out with, we were 'Beatles girls'. Nancy and I were already playing guitars and had a formed group... Sue was impressed so we asked her to join us but she was too shy to get up in front of a crowd." Though her role did not bring her to the stage as a teenager, Ennis became an integral part of the Wilson song-writing team. Regarding Sue's Lovemongers role, Ann laughs and says, "She sure seems to be taking to it (the stage) now!"

Frank Cox came into the picture by accident while Ann was looking for a house in Seattle. The Realtors' husband was Frank. Through that connection the four became life-long friends. "He's got this beautiful voice and the first time he sang for Nancy and I we just couldn't believe that this guy was working for a phone company" relates Ann. But Frank hasn't given up his day job. Ann shares, "The Lovemongers don't make very much money... we hardly make any. He has to keep his job!" With such a statement comes the reality, like for many musicians, of "purely for the love of the music". Frank's phone company work schedule is one of the obstacles involved when the band tries to go out on the road. Of even larger concern, as Ann explains, "Nancy and I are still in Heart which is a big thing right there. We don't just take off if Heart has something they're doing (like making a record). We don't just run off on tour with another group."

Despite some difficulty, the group managed to do their thing. The first road trip (and official gig) for The Lovemongers happened "during the Persian Gulf War. In Seattle there were a considerable amount of anti-war feelings and a lot of protest concerts around town. Most of those people knew we enjoyed (acoustic) performing so we were asked to play. We didn't really feel like going up there... just the two of us. We didn't want to be that folksy. Jamming with Sue and Frank for fun in our living room was something we had done for years. It was natural for the four of us to go up and do it together." Of course another important appearance came along with a little help from an interested third party. Director Cameron Crowe (Nancy's husband) helped facilitate The Lovemongers involvement in the box office smash Singles.

If you've seen any of their recent press, you know the motivation for The Lovemongers was the idea that Ann, Nancy, Sue and Frank can do what they do purely for the love of the music and nothing more. I asked Ann if she felt as though reaching that goal wasn't always possible as a part of Heart. Her response was candid. "Well you know, Heart's had a long career and we've been through a lot. We have found ourselves a lot of ups and downs, in amazing situations. Our ideals have been challenged and we've sometimes been pressured to do certain things by record companies." So, the business side of "the business" is always a challenge. Ann said, "Yes it's the same old story. But I'd be lying if I said it's possible to always be exactly yourself for twenty years. It's just not possible."

The careers of Ann and Nancy Wilson are impressive to say the least. Spanning more than two decades, their album list alone includes eleven LP's and Rock The House Live. A hell of a lot of fantastic song writing lies in the Wilson sisters' rock and roll archives ("Magic Man", "Barracuda", "Crazy On You", "Love Alive", "Dog And Butterfly", "These Dreams", "Never", etc.) It's fairly obvious that The Lovemongers project isn't just another notch in the belt for Ann and Nancy. It enables them to steer in a different direction for a little while.

Besides the obvious line up changes, I wondered what Ann found to be the greatest difference between the Lovemongers and her past work with Heart. "It's completely personal. It's really ma and pa as a matter of fact. We don't have a manager. We don't have a booking agent. We don't have a record contract. We hardly make any money. If a person wants us to play a gig they call Nancy's guitar roadie, Scott Olson, and ask him if we still like playing, then he asks us. There's no middle man between us and the people. That's what I like about it. It's just completely down to earth... spontaneous. We don't have an image. We just go up there and wear whatever we happen to feel like wearing. We don't have big hair— none of that stuff." As a Midwest native I used to think I could spot an unnatural doo with no problem so to that I replied, "You never really had big hair." I was slightly disappointed in my keen abilities when she responded, "Well, there was a time when we had extensions, you know." I confess, I had no idea. I was remembering the Heart days that shaped my personal rock existence. The innocence of the Dreamboat Annie cover when Ann and Nancy appeared nearly nude was one of the images that popped into my head. Ann reflected with me saying, "Well, you know, times change people's idea about what they want to look like. It happens naturally. I suppose the way we look in The Lovemongers is just the latest incarnation." We talked more about live appearances.

When asked whether she preferred her mega show experiences over the more intimate club performances, she gave me a slight jab saying, "Right now, I prefer the tiny ones." (I deserved that.) She laughed and continued, "I much prefer the small ones just because you can actually have an artistic experience. You can actually see the people you're playing with and they can actually hear you. And we're not responsible to the big show, the big money, the high ticket price. We can do whatever we want. We always ask a real low ticket price, which is important. We want people to have access to us." Having access to the music that the Lovemongers create is of great concern to the band. Closeness between the audience and a band can be a true bonding and cherished experience for many fans.

Over the years the Wilsons' have been able to induce innumerable emotions through their songwriting talents. Blessed with an uncanny ability to excite and compel through their compositions, I asked if there was some kind of secret to the process. "Well, the trick is inspiration. I imagine how we write the best is the situation where we're all fired up about something." To the contrary, "We write the worst when we feel that we have to write a song people expect us to write— when people turn to us and say 'write another 'Barracuda', that doesn't work with us." In relation to their current material, which includes the work of the Lovemongers CD 5, "There's too much exciting stuff to write about now, too many exciting emotions in our lives to continue with songs about 'someone lying beside you after you've screwed, wondering if you're still going to be there in the morning— You know?' One thing you can always count on when the Wilson sisters are in the mix is great music with integrity and style.

If you're like me, you get the same rush today when you hear "Straight On" and "Magic Man" that you did when the singles were first released. Face it. Their song-writing and live performances are some of the best. That's the kind of magic you're in store for with The Lovemongers. I asked Ann what motivated the group to release their recent EP. "Well, really, we had that song in Cameron Crowe's Singles soundtrack so we played at the L.A. launch party for the movie. A couple of guys from Capitol came up to me and asked me whether we would agree to them releasing some Lovemongers material as an EP." Uh-huh, here comes that record company! "Yeah... and in this case I thought it was good pressure. They said to us, 'can we be allowed to release some of your stuff?' Absolutely! I thought. It was a great idea because it's what Nancy and I have spent the last two years doing a lot of. We just thought other people might like to hear it. People around here love it." Working so closely together on the Lovemongers project is nothing out of the ordinary for the Wilson sisters. They have conducted themselves in the same manner since their musical beginning. I was curious about their relationship.

In addition to all of the great things the music brings to the world, rock and roll is also synonymous with hedonism. Conflict is a never-ending gossip story and you'd think Ann and Nancy would have experienced some kind of turmoil over their lengthy career. But you never seem to hear of problems between the sisters, breaking the traditional sibling rivalry theories. Ann's affection and respect for Nancy were deeply evident when we talked. "Nancy and I grew up doing this. It's not like our relationship is going to fall apart real soon. We just grew up side by side... like two peas in a pod. It's something we both realized a long time ago—we were meant to do it and together. We know how to give each other enough space. When we feel the other one is starting to feel claustrophobic we back off. Sometimes we argue but it's never serious. It's just the kind of thing where you blow out your feelings, the air clears and then it's alright. If it's not alright, you make it alright by talking it through." I put Ann on the spot and asked her to talk about her sister. She came through with flying colors. "I'd say that Nancy is the most whole person I know. She's in balance. She's in touch with herself. She knows herself. She loves people a lot. She gives people a lot of credit. I think she's a great artist. She's a natural. She's an original. In this business you can't just sit back and expect people to love you. There's a lot of behind-the-scenes pushing that needs to take place. A lot of strain is placed on those who push and Nancy is one of them. Because we can be together, sit together so well, and have the family to fall back on it's been great for us." Ann also added, "She'll be a great mother when the time comes. She'll be a natural." Of course that sparked my curiosity and I had to ask, "Will that be soon?" Sharing secrets about the forthcoming Heart project was in the cards too.

We're almost finished. There are 13 songs and we're just finishing up the last three now. It's our most honest album in years. It's much different than the last three albums. There are two songs on this record written by other people. One is by Bob Dylan and the other is by Mutt Lange. I think it's a real return to some of the ideals that we started out with. It's almost like we've come full circle. We've done a lot and we both find ourselves at a time in our lives when the only thing we're interested in being is honest." Ann's perspectives on the state of The Lovemongers as well as Heart, are refreshing and optimistic. Nancy seems to have a similar vision of the present as well as the past.

A role model, idol, and mentor for budding young guitarists (and more mature enthusiasts as well), Nancy Wilson accepts such labels with high regard. "Yeah, it's really cool to be in that position." She had the same initial motivation for playing guitar that Ann shared when she embarked on her singing career in high school. "I just wanted to be like the Beatles. When I went through my teenage years, I never realized there was a stigma attached to the role of being a girl (guitar) player. I didn't see the difference as opposed to being a male player. I think I was lucky in many ways. I didn't have any idea that it was different, odd or unusual in any way. I just went for it. For me, it was just natural. I was on fire about the guitar since I was very young."

Nancy's guitar passion began to surface "when I would hang around in the local music store so I could play 'decent' guitars. A lot of guys would say, 'Wow, I've never seen a girl that could play like you!' That was really the only thing that made me realize I was sort of different. It was great."

As Nancy got older she became more and more aware of her gift by the way she was treated. She started to get the feeling she was not being taken seriously as a player. She states, "You know... you start realizing what's going on when you get a little older. My playing was more like a novelty in a lot of people's minds. I started feeling kind of like a freak because people would really react." The general consensus became, "Wow! I've never seen that before!" As Nancy grew older and her Heart experience began, she gained confidence which also boosted her status as a player.

"When I was 19, we started touring and backing up bands like ZZ Top. That's when Heart began. I remember one of the guys from ZZ Top came up to me after a show and said 'God, you're pretty awesome for a girl on a guitar.' It was the ultimate compliment at first. Later, I thought, ... for a girl?! You couldn't really blame anybody though because I guess it really was kind of... well, it was a novelty. Those were the days when feminism was in its infancy. I think change and acceptance take a long time. I think the longer Heart stuck around as a group, the more people started to see that we were viable, competent writers, players, singers and musicians. We weren't out there waving flags or anything. People just started to realize 'Oh, wow, this is different'. But that's cool. There was just a lag on the respect." In the writing arena, Ann and Nancy Wilson commanded respect from the start.

They began their careers writing separately, but before long the two tried working together. They also brought in some outside help. Nancy explains "We used to write separately most often and then we would piece together ideas. About the time of Dog and Butterfly, we started to sit down together. Dog and Butterfly was just us... one afternoon... sitting around. We also brought in our life long friend, Sue Ennis as a co-writer." The songs have never been a problem for the team. "We would go off on song writing retreats over the weekends. Sue was at Berkeley at the time we began to work seriously together. We finally had the money to take flings so we could afford to fly there and stay at the Mark Hopkins or something. We'd smoke pot and write for the whole weekend".

Our conversation inevitably took a turn in the direction of Nancy's vocals. We talked about the fans, who finally got a chance to hear her voice on a "hit" song in 1985. "It's interesting because I always sang a lead on every album but it was usually the more esoteric type stuff, which tends to be more my favorite kind of song. Singles started to become more important. Rock has gone through so many changes and in the '80s there was such a focus on singles, especially with MTV. The focus shifted to being visual as well as being heard. It was a timing thing where I was feeling ready. I heard the demo of the song ("These Dreams"). Our producer, Ron Nevison, said we should listen to it but that he doubted if it was really for Heart. I flipped out when I heard it. I said 'No, I'm going to sing this'. I knew it from the first time I heard it. It was something I could have written myself. We had to push that song through because it was a switch for us." "These Dreams" did turn out to be a Billboard hit single and Nancy remembers how it felt. "It was a serious thrill when it did that well. It really satisfied the needs that I had been feeling to be out front and to be seen." On the Lovemongers EP Nancy sings lead for "Love Of The Common Man". I asked if this Todd Rundgren song was another one she felt strongly about. "I was never really aware of that song before. I was into him way back, but that particular song hadn't really stuck in my mind. My husband Cameron, who was directing the Singles movies at the time, was trying to help us find a LoveMongers song that we might put in the movie or on the soundtrack. It was his suggestion. We arranged it a lot differently than Todd's version but we found a groove for it. It didn't end up on Singles soundtrack but we kept it in our repertoire. It was one of those Mongers songs with great harmonies and acoustics."

Seattle has given birth to the "Seattle Sound" we have been inundated with for over a year now, and I asked Nancy where she felt the Lovemongers fit in. "It's a rush to be from here right now. When Andrew Wood died, we all got together at Kelly's house. We met the guys from Alice In Chains and Soundgarden along with the remaining members of Mother Love Bone and were shocked and surprised to see how receptive those guys were to us. We ended up jamming that night. We felt included in a peer group that really matters to us. Since then we've all gotten up and jammed with each other. It was a really cool artistic community and a real bohemian thing."

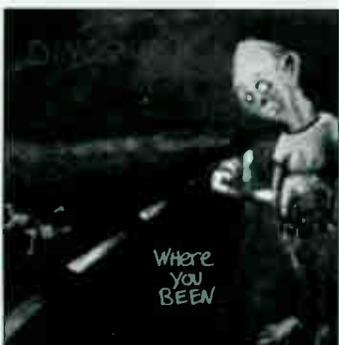

A new Heart album is in the works and I wondered if this new Seattle sound rubbed off on the group. "Yeah, it really has rubbed off on us. It's not really the style as much as the feeling... a really great feeling!"

Dinosaur Jr., "Where You Been?," Sire/WB

Ask that question about Mr. Mascis and get a "duh" look from just about anybody on the planet. J and his agent get the award for best all around exposure, and we cite his involvement with Gas, Food, Lodging and producing the new FIREHOSE record — he's the BMOB with the hat and the guitar. In a town and a format where "disposable" is in danger of replacing "disposition," J. thrashes expectations surely as he embraces them.

Favorite son J made the young girls cry with a cover of "Just Like Heaven" and amazed us with the pop dexterity of Green Mind. Where You Been? sprays the electromagnetic fuzz, but doesn't go overboard on the noise. Lush, symphonic tones emerge in the form of kettle drums, piano and strings, touches that add depth and clarity to "Not The Same," "Out There" and "Drawerings." With a minimal touch, he plays bodacious chunka-chunka riffs in time with solemn chimes. "Start Choppin'" gave Dino the chart's giant step of the week, at 33-20*, with mondo appeal on both sides of the dial. Both Murph and Mike Johnson are in on the fun, but it's J who handles 95% of everything, and Tiffany Anders, who sings with J on "Get Me," sounds an awful lot like Juliana Hatfield (we would have bet the building's heat on it). As usual, this shows off Mascis' impish delight with all things soothing and brash. So if his inner child is expressed so freely, why strap yours into the electric chair of adulthood? Most importantly, he's stayed true to himself, and with that type of integrity, who could relegate Dinosaur Jr to the realm of the tykes with a clear conscience? We're taking bets on "Out There," the blast-introed "On The Way" and the relatively brooding "Not The Same" for potential singles.

Faith No More, "I'm Easy," Slash/Reprise Lionel Richie would feel completely out of place at a Faith No More show, with all those teenagers moshing, etc. But somehow, Mike Patton wears this song like a glove. Well, he's not so comfortable that he'll show up on LITE-FM, but he sucks the essence of this tune right out and spits it back in a way only he can. Some stations have already picked up on this gem and it's proven to be a phone monster. Those listeners who understand the irony (read — those who 'get it') will revel in the beauty of this cover. Still others may experience a slight feeling of discomfort, but that is mostly due to a low I.Q. and watching too many Beverly Hillbillies reruns. Our sources tell us that "Easy" may be stripped onto the band's Angel Dust album, thereby making it an even better value for your entertainment dollar. We look forward to wearing our authentic Commodores velvet jacket while listening to this song on our newly installed 8-track in that '77 El Dorado perched in our driveway. Once again, FNM have given us a song that will strike a responsive chord with the 18-34 demo we hunger for.

Screaming Trees, "Shadow Of The Season," Epic With each Trees article we read, we hope that there's no line like "Who the biggest of them all?" You know, that preoccupation with the Connor brothers gets a little worn, and come to think of it, nobody ever gave Leslie West Buns Of Steel. But that brief digression aside, it's should be no news bulletin that the Screaming Trees are coming closer and closer to breaking big, and "Shadow Of The Season" is a wallop of a song. If this can open the album so splendidly, imagine what its energy could do for your midhour set. Mark Lanegan has never been in better vocal form, and even with all the Morrison comparisons running amuck, he's still our favorite lumberjack heartthrob (check that picture of the glowering, yet sensitive, face in the Rolling Stone interview!). This disc includes an acoustic version of album cut "Winter Song" (check out that Hawaiian slide guitar!) and a rare lead vocal appearance from Van on the non-LP "Maybe." The Sweet Oblivion album is selling steadily, and moving up again on the chart, 22-21*. Think of one band who deserves this success more and we'll mail you the proverbial box of steaks. Added at KDGE, KNDD and KTCL, among others.

Starlings, "That's It You're In Trouble," Atlantic/Anxious "That's It You're In Trouble" is a song with a simple message — that happiness is a state where you are only aware of forthcoming disaster. How's that for cheery? Discimate "Sick Puppy" is just your basic male bonding gone too far story (watch out for the naughty "F" word). That perspective can be easily explained. The leader of Starlings (Make that the Starling), Chris Sheehan has led an action-packed life including seven years as a teen idol in New Zealand's The Exponents and a bout with heroin abuse upon his arrival in London. Totally cool hepcats have been keen on Starlings through their 3 (Or 4 depending on how hip you really want to sound) UK EPs since 1990. The new Starlings Long Player, Valid, is just a tribute to angst in its rawest form with tunes like "Bad Dad" and "Shoot Up Hill." Well, we don't want to get you too hyped on the album yet as there's a single to add this week! Starlings are the latest offering from Dave Stewart's Anxious Records which has once again proved to be daring and innovative.

Ween, "Push Th' Little Daisies" EP, Elektra As anybody with skull orifices could tell you, Ween's new single is out, and already warmly embraced by radio. This song was a cinch for emphasis, with the way it redefines "hook" for the long term memory impaired '90s. Gene and Dean are members in good standing of the New Jersey brat pack, and with this state's insidious way of doing business, don't turn your back on these guys. Pure Guava has captured an audience who love all things annoying and sharp-witted, part of a rich and cultural potpourri from Ren & Stimpy to Frank Zappa. Along with the federally mandated edit, various spots on this latest EP will hit all points in between, highlights must include the Funky Drummer Mix (ingenious sampling finesse), "Mango Woman" (an apparent homage to Marley) and "I Smoke Some Grass (Really Really High)" which brings new depth to vocal intonation. The real scene in town was the Mercury Rev/Ween show at the Academy in NYC. We were here, slaving for your benefit, but, oh, to be a fly on the wall in those dressing rooms. Added at CIMX, KQAL and WDRE.

Ned's Atomic Dustbin, "Walking Through Syrup," Chaos Those nutty conversations continue this week as two more reporters get sticky and add this track. 91X and WDRE join KDGE, KNDD, KRZQ, KTCL, KUKQ, KEDG, KKDJ and WHFS among others this week. You know what they say, "You get an affliction, you gain an addiction." Hmmm. The CD5 features two non-LP tracks

"Prostrate" and a live version of "Swiss Legoland." The band is currently on tour and may be seen in the following cities in the coming weeks — Vancouver, Portland, Seattle, San Francisco (Hmmm), Fresno, Sacramento, Las Vegas, Phoenix, Hollywood and lovely Irvine. With the album holding at 5* on the Nifty Fifty, this track is the cappo di tutti cappi of automatics. "Since we've added this track it's pancakes for everybody!! But seriously this song has a sweet hook," says WDRE's Mike Parrish. We're sure Mike thought that up by himself with absolutely no help from us. However, if he denies all knowledge of making that statement, we'll take credit. For now, put on your wet suit and go for a stroll.

Goo Goo Dolls, "We Are The Normal," Metal Blade/WB Before we say anything about Buffalo, anything at all, it's important to state that sometimes it's easy to peg a band who's got "it." What's "it"? Scientific studies cannot concur, but for our benefit, let's say it's an uncanny ability to make a roomful of yammering penguins quiet. The Goo Goo Dolls are a wonderfully brash trio who have been around for a number of years, sleeping on people's floors, playing bars and clubs of varying degrees of niceness — in general, building a fanbase. Their last album, Hold Me Up, was a spiffy collection of pop ditties, and had a cover of the Plimsouls "A Million Miles Away." With their punk/Replacements predilection, they've had a base on both sides of the Metal/Alternative fence, and are not about to surrender either side, but, can build on that expansive territory. Superstar Car Wash is, simply put, the best album they've put out yet, and the Metal Blade/Warners combo is fully committed. That means the Goos will be in your face for a while to come. They just did a set at CBGBs, will be playing Gavin, and soon most definitely your neck of the woods.

Jellyfish, "The Ghost At Number One," Charisma The much anticipated return of Jellyfish begets this track which combines many of the band's influences. Where Bellybutton touched on the Beatles "The Ghost At Number One" had us reaching back into our Queen catalogue for reference points. We even had a flashback to our pre-teen years and 99X/New York's endless playing of anything by ELO. But that's for us and our therapist to go over later on today. For now, Jellyfish have provided a tune that sounds great on the radio. Sure that sounds trite and contrived, but when was the last time you actually said that out loud and meant it? Well, we mean it and you should take it seriously or else we just might take another slug of this Dimetapp and come and give you the ol' one two, if you know what we mean. We're sure that there will be holdouts on this track, not because of quality mind you, but more because they fear good music. There, we said it come and get us. Nah na na na! Hey don't get spooked by this ghost, Abbott.

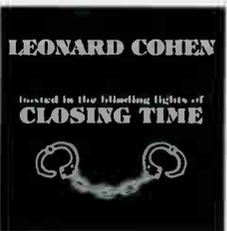

The Jayhawks, "Scrapple" EP, Def American/Reprise A recent appearance on the Letterman program showed that this band is a real priority for Def American, and their performance was of stellar quality. "Take Me With You (When You Go)" is one of our fave songs from the album (but then, all of them are), with its wistful harmonies and soaring guitar solo, a sure fire way to keep the infamous finger from punching another button. This EP, whose title belies its wholesomeness, adds three non-LP tracks to the band's catalog, "Leave No Gold" (churning guitar/drum backbeat that rolls underneath you like a bridge), "Keith And Quentin" (perfect Steinbeck short story material) and "Up Above My Head" (honky tonk piano opening and trade-off vocals between Mark and Gary). The 'Hawks are on the road with the Black Crowes, swinging back East, and this bill is sure to leave you hankering for the wide open road, a thermos of hot coffee and the AM radio turned on. Be sure to check out this lead track on the brand new A.A.A. sampler, Hard Choices Volume #1, along with its other treasures.

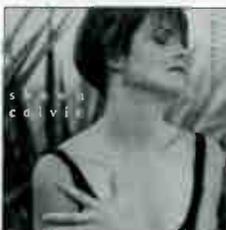

Leonard Cohen, "Closing Time," Columbia

Okay, so one of the first things that people notice about the credits on the album is Rebecca DeMornay's name. As it happens, yes, she is the current beloved of Leonard, and has taken a participatory role in his music. We don't recall seeing him alongside her while being interviewed by Duff on the MTV Inaugural Ball, but then, we couldn't take our eyes off of Tipper's snazzy gown and cape action. Leonard's new album, The Future, is downright forboding, and the chances of it being used in the soundtrack to the New Covenant are slim to none. But that's nothing taken against Mr. Cohen, whose career has never flown according to political or cultural winds. Following the album precursor "Democracy," "Closing Time" is the latest CD single served up. It's a much snappier paced song, with gypsytinted fiddle and layered female vocals, talking about the end of our golden era, in other words, "time to empty your pockets!" The CD single adds an edit that shaves a good two minutes and change off the album version.

Shawn Colvin, "I Don't Know Why," Columbia

The term "singer-songwriter" has many implications, as any musicologist could tell you. But since we are neither of those things, our minute observations will have to do. All that matters at the end of the day is not one's influences, connections on the scene and how they string their guitar — how well you remember a song, and how quickly it gets you into the record store. Shawn Colvin's outstanding Fat City is all over the radio, with depth play abounding, and second emphasis is on the plate. WBRU added the song into Heavy, and A.A.A. stations are among those who can't leave Ms. Colvin alone. Her lofty status among the new school of singer/songwriters is due to her keen sense of mood and melody, and more than one person at her shows has been heard to say "Ahhhh..." That's it, no major statements about life, the universe or profound burden of being hip in an unhip world, just a beautifully worked song sung and played by a musician who can get the message across to a paying audience.

J., "Keep The Promise" A&M This single was delayed to allow the making of a special obscenity-free edit, and even with such language available, some stations added J. a week early. J. is a German rapper, aka Jens Mueller, who finds the whole notion of racial war and neo-nazi activity rather disturbing. Even the title of his first album, We Are The Majority, reminds that it's those middle of the road, dining at McDonalds folks who make up the most of the population here (which may be the really disturbing idea — think, Billy Ray Cyrus, #1 pop record). J. has been highly involved, including writing a newsletter, and the angle of his music is directly related, "Keep The Promise" bears a strong resemblance to the flying noise of Public Enemy ("Fight The Power" — hmmm). One of the catches is the kick in of the melodic static during the chorus, and then listening to the lyrics clinches the argument. The second song is set to a well known piece of writing about the Final Solution. The entire album should make quite an impact at radio, known for its love/hate affair with political statements. Don't let this one pass you by.

CLEARED & PRIMED

To start, here are a couple items already on the way from DGC/Geffen. The song that still burns a star-shaped hole into our scalps is finally getting the single treatment. Sonic Youth's latest is by far from over, and to prove it, this CD5/EP is filled with incentives. The not-found-elsewheres are "The Destroyed Room" (featuring Kim on vocals), the epic-sounding "The End Of The End Of The Ugly" and an acoustic version of "Purr" from a B.B.C. session. "Sugar Kane" was named for an alias Marilyn Monroe used, and the song's looming cloud of electronic thunder holds a power that can only approach the magnetism of that late sex symbol. Yes, it's true what you've heard about the whole A&R deal that Thurston and company have struck with DGC, and that shows how much stock people put in the band's taste in fellow bands. Hmm, or could this work out to be some kind of loopy insider trading parallel universe? Only time will tell, and don't let too much of that pass before you check out "Sugar Kane," CIMX, WDRE, WWCD, KDGE, KNNC and KROQ are already on the ball.... The entire Candy Skins album, Fun?, is the type record that doesn't need a question mark after it. "Wembley" nabbed enough adds to land third Most Added (including KDGE, KKDJ, KNNC, KUNV, WBER, WEQX, WHFS and WXCJ) debuting it at 47* on the chart, there are a host of other songs that qualify for depth play. We heartily recommend "Fun," "House At The Top Of The Hill," and the Byrds-ish "Everything Just Falls Apart On Me."...

The new Wasteland label, a subsidiary of Radioactive, is proud to bring to you an EP from a fresh band called Dig. Runt is their first release, and it's a tumbledry guitar experience. They hooked up with the label via some dates with the Ramones, in their home region of South/Central California. Their music is very close to the delic dabbling of the Smashing Pumpkins; all their tunes are steeped in layers of oozing feedback. As it should these four songs only whet the senses for more — not pointlessly overload them. "I'll Stay High" gets it all going with a spiralling intro, and the vocal hook kicks in straightaway — and the discerning ears might also enjoy "Groundhead." This EP is being focused on college first, and commercial radio will receive this in the next week or so.... A compilation called Soluble Fish is just out from Homestead via Dutch East India. If we could only have a quarter for each compilation that came out in the last six or eight months, then we wouldn't have to keep sending in those sweepstakes forms. Featuring both newer bands like Phreaming Edison, Dogbowl, Empty Box and Wall Drug (named after the South Dakota town known worldwide for their billboards and cheap coffee) and college staples like Beat Happening, Barbara Manning, Thinking Fellers Union Local 282, Unrest and Smackdab, this is something that you won't want to keep locked away from the jocks. They'll be scrambling onto your lap, crawling on you desk, offering to polish your shoes and change the typewriter ribbons, anything to play songs like "Baby We're Really In Love," "Rear End Hernia Puppet Show," "Green" and "Eleanor's Pizza Party."... Def American has licensed the second record, ...Well?, from San Francisco area Swell. This was originally put out on the band's own Psycho-Specific label about a year ago, and was a big hit at college radio, but never really saw the light of day elsewhere. Def American has mastered ...Well? and is getting the band out on a national tour. We, along with Rubin and company, are quite certain that, with a little introduction, folks will be really intrigued by Swell. Their music is extremely spartan, and draws you in like a magnet. Along with the album is a promo-only EP with album track "At Long Last" and four new songs that ought to satiate the stations who already played the heck out of the album. Look for the band to play a club close to you. There's no shortage of whom Swell have been compared to (we think of early Wire and Galaxie 500), your own feedback would be most appreciated....

The legendary Green of Chicago are back with their first full album in two years. The Pop Tarts asks why this band has been always relegated to small labels and small audiences, when they're every bit as good as all the other 70s inspired pop bands out there. One of their more recent efforts, the R.E.M. EP, saw them trading names with those Athens guys who had the nerve to call their album Green. Starting off with "Long Distance Telephone," you can tell Green have been spending lots of time with their Meatloaf records, and there's cues for vintage Alice Cooper and Kiss, as well on "Find Your Way Around," "Ready" and "Skirt Chaser." Overall, an affair that'll take you back to that "Rocky Horror" frame of mind.... Another band with strong ties to the past, but another time, is the Loud Family. Scott Miller formed the Game Theory and both earned both critical fawning and cult followings, and his new band borrows many strengths of Game Theory and builds on them. Plants And Birds And Rockets And Things (on Alias) found a home at many non-commercial signals, such as KCMU, KCPR, KGSR, KTAO, KUCB, WCDB and WWVU, and we expect much more reaction in weeks to come. Miller, disciple of the Big Star/Mitch Easter scene, is strong at bending quirky and clever lyrics and tunes together. This album was produced by Mitch himself, who had a hand with many of the Game Theory records. The other Family members are Jozef Becker (former Thin White Rope), Rob Dunbar Poor, Paul Weineke and Zachary Smith (all former This Very Window), who help realize Miller's songwriting in as solid a musical form as Lolita Nation. Premium examples: "Aerodelia," "Jimmy Still Comes Around," "Take Me Down (Too Hallo)" and the la-la-la inflected "Iverness." One of the latest releases from Dave Stewart's Anxious label, via Atlantic, is the "Deep Blues" soundtrack. This project is the brainchild of Stewart, who has always had a love of the music of the Deep South (read with the vocal inflections of Uncle Remus). This soundtrack reflects the work Stewart put into making the music as authentic as possible, travelling to Mississippi, recruiting among the best musicians around (R.L. Burnside, Booba Barnes, Big Jack Johnson, Lonnie Pitchford) among the genre and working under as realistic conditions as possible. As a result, this record sounds like it was recorded several decades ago and, if it wasn't on crisp clean digital disc, would have us swear that Elvis was still alive, but not in the White House.... Undertow, the second album from the Cliffs Of Dooneen is out, and you should be taking notes. Recorded at the recently rediscovered Ardent Studios, this album contains enough energy to heat our whole building (which would have been nice this week). For those looking for something to accompany "Holyman" should cue up the boisterous "Let Go," the harmonica-tinged "El Diablo," and the riff-heavy "Causeway."... The first single from Nudeswirl is called "F Sharp" and it's taken from their first album, Nudeswirl (on Megaforce). This band from the corners of New Jersey, has earned a reputation for really pleasing the crowd with their set, and there's no telling what they're capable of on the radio front. "F Sharp" delves into the progressive angles of hard rock, a la Jane's Addiction, and its catchy guitar hook and vocal whooping really sinks into the brain tissue after only a couple of listens.... Another single to look out for is from Shriekback's "Psycho Drift." A cleverly titled "Cayenne Sisemen" B-side will reveal its true nature to you with one listen — think back, what single of theirs keeps appearing time and time again?

of the Big Star/Mitch Easter scene, is strong at bending quirky and clever lyrics and tunes together. This album was produced by Mitch himself, who had a hand with many of the Game Theory records. The other Family members are Jozef Becker (former Thin White Rope), Rob Dunbar Poor, Paul Weineke and Zachary Smith (all former This Very Window), who help realize Miller's songwriting in as solid a musical form as Lolita Nation. Premium examples: "Aerodelia," "Jimmy Still Comes Around," "Take Me Down (Too Hallo)" and the la-la-la inflected "Iverness." One of the latest releases from Dave Stewart's Anxious label, via Atlantic, is the "Deep Blues" soundtrack. This project is the brainchild of Stewart, who has always had a love of the music of the Deep South (read with the vocal inflections of Uncle Remus). This soundtrack reflects the work Stewart put into making the music as authentic as possible, travelling to Mississippi, recruiting among the best musicians around (R.L. Burnside, Booba Barnes, Big Jack Johnson, Lonnie Pitchford) among the genre and working under as realistic conditions as possible. As a result, this record sounds like it was recorded several decades ago and, if it wasn't on crisp clean digital disc, would have us swear that Elvis was still alive, but not in the White House.... Undertow, the second album from the Cliffs Of Dooneen is out, and you should be taking notes. Recorded at the recently rediscovered Ardent Studios, this album contains enough energy to heat our whole building (which would have been nice this week). For those looking for something to accompany "Holyman" should cue up the boisterous "Let Go," the harmonica-tinged "El Diablo," and the riff-heavy "Causeway."... The first single from Nudeswirl is called "F Sharp" and it's taken from their first album, Nudeswirl (on Megaforce). This band from the corners of New Jersey, has earned a reputation for really pleasing the crowd with their set, and there's no telling what they're capable of on the radio front. "F Sharp" delves into the progressive angles of hard rock, a la Jane's Addiction, and its catchy guitar hook and vocal whooping really sinks into the brain tissue after only a couple of listens.... Another single to look out for is from Shriekback's "Psycho Drift." A cleverly titled "Cayenne Sisemen" B-side will reveal its true nature to you with one listen — think back, what single of theirs keeps appearing time and time again?

TRACK ACTION

Sting, "If I Ever Lose My Faith In You," A&M (26/26) Der Stinglemeister pulls another Most Added title out of his hat with this TSL magnet. Bellying up to the bar for a tall glass of Sting are 26 reporters including: 91X, KACV (Jamey Karr, Football Hero!), KEDG, KKDJ, KNDD, KNNC, KROQ, WCHZ, WDRE, WFNX, WHFS, and WWCD. All this makes for a beautiful bow for Mr. Sting at 15* on the Faboo Fifty.

The The, "Dogs Of Lust," Epic (7/52) You would probably need one of those Murine Ear Baths if you didn't think that this track is the best thing since the invention of the napkin. That explains a conglomeration of 7 adds on the LP and an impressive move up the Freaky Fifty 7-4*. Start writing those "Thank You" faxes to KROQ (M-H), KUKQ (Ditto), WBRU (Double Ditto), WDST (Triple Ditto) and WWVU (Ditto Ditto Ditto Ditto) for their rotation bumps.

Chris Harford, "Raise The Roof," Elektra (4/7) This is the song everyone and their mother will take credit for finding once our friend from New Jersey becomes huge. Of course only a handful of those taking those kudos will actually deserve them. Write down these call letters and send bottles o' Dom to them when this track comes home to roost: KDGE, KRCK, WDST and WDST. Oh yeah, WDRE, WFNX, KQAL all added this before the box!

Sand Rubies, "Goodbye," PLG (2/19) This radio ready track debuts on the Nifty Fifty at 50*, so it's officially time to take it seriously. Requests are pouring into KUKQ and they're not just from folks jazzed about the return of the Godfather of Alternative Radio, Jonathan Rosen. Keep your eyes peeled for this one on your musical radar.

Blind Melon, "I Wonder," Capitol (2/10) Those wacky conversions are happening for the Melon Men as KUKQ and WDRE pick up on this fresh track. It's only a matter of time before they start to experience the nose bleed of chart success. Also hammering this tune are: KTCL, WDST, WVVV, KMSA, KQAL, KXRK, WBRU and WFNX.

New Fast Automatic Daffodils, "Stockholm," Elektra (4/19) This track has the potential to be a response monster and early request are being reported by WBRU. Debuting at 42*, these Fast Flowers pick up KACV, KDGE, KNDD and WXPB adding to the already impressive list of supporters including: KUKQ, WCHZ, WDRE and WHFS. If you plant it, it will grow (Sorry!).

Dada, "Dim," I.R.S. (3/10) Once you see this band live, you'll be a fan for life. Sources tell us that if you're around San Francisco over the next week or so you may be able to get that once in a lifetime chance. WDRE comes in this week along with KNNC (Paul 25,000 Watt Kriegler), and KUKQ. The phones are ringing at WVVV so answer it already! Moves 17-16* on the Gritty Fifty.

Stereo MC's, "Connected," Gee St/Island/PLG (1/19) Hey, this one is connecting at WDRE, WFNX and WXPB where the telephones are hot. Holding at 18* the track picks up CIMX (Please, Detroit's Modern Rock, to you) and gets increased at KTCL, WEQX and WXPB. KNNC, WDRE and WDRE lead the pack of 7 heavies.

Big Head Todd And The Monsters, "Broken Hearted Savior," Giant (5/16) Sometimes our heads are so big because they're so full of dreams! Well, so is Todd's because it's so full of call letters. BHT gets the nod at CIMX, KCMU, WDST, WEQX, and WXPB this week and is currently enjoying heavy airplay at KBCO and KTAO.

RECORD OF THE WEEK

School Of Fish, "Take Me Anywhere," Capitol They just missed Der Stingle's Most Added total of 26 but two lousy stations, but we made them Record Of The Week anyway. Why? Because the Fish are just plain fun. In case you don't remember, they also enjoyed a huge smash last time around with "Three Strange Days" which some of the lemmings on the AOR side of the fence ACTUALLY PLAYED! Most of the format heavies paid their respects with adds this week including: 91X, CIMX, KEDG, KNDD, KROQ, KRZQ, KUKQ, WDRE, WFNX and WHFS. All that Free Love caused the band to debut at 34* on the Faboo Five-Oh.

BLAH BLAH BLAH

KROQ/Los Angeles got its little hands on the new Depeche Mode album and aired three songs from the long player, Songs Of Faith And Devotion recently, causing an alleged security frenzy at the Bunny Hutch. Sources tell us that full reviews of the album, which is not due for until March, are being posted by DepecheHeads on the Prodigy personal computer network. Sounds like a Code 3 Security Breach to us, but then again publicity is publicity. FYI the first single from the album is called "I Feel You." Modern Rock Live the country's only live Cutting Edge Radio call-in show will officially debut the album on March 1st when the band makes it's first U.S. radio appearance in three years. Interested stations should call Howie Greene at 212-971-1167 for more info on how to link up with this event... 89X CIMX/Windsor-Detroit has adopted a new handle — "Detroit's Modern Rock," so adjust your Filofax accordingly...Forward thinking programmers should check out the Drivin' & Cryin' album for an unparalleled guitar fix. It's not just for those mainstream AOR types. Hey free your mind and maybe the rest will follow...Great to see Lynn Oakes back in action at Chameleon. She's a great promo person (Hey we knew her when!!) and she bakes a fine batch of cookies too!...Speaking of Chameleon, listen to that Whipped Cream single on your desk right now and start making room to add it the week of the 22nd. advance, thanks to our humble sources. Coming to a radio near you soon is the wicked excellent (As we used to say in early 80s Boston, the Seattle of the late 70s) lead track, "Pickin' Flowers For." One word describes the band's big time debut on MCA—SMASH! Kudos to their handler, Jack Isquith...That King Missile just won't stop getting requests wherever it's played...Found some interesting Loscalzo airchecks featuring Chaos Promo God Geordie Gillespie on WNYU's New Afternoon Show with his band Konk circa 1983, he's still the world's best drummer next to Hugo Burnham...Great Screaming Trees profile in the Letterman issue of Rolling Stone. Sounds like deadline night here at the megacabin...Are more digitheads getting hip to the Cutting Edge format? Who knows, but our ear to the ground tells us that some real serious suits are getting ready to pop a big surprise. Stay tuned...Dino Jr.'s J. Mascis is producing the new Tad album...Watch the Tasman Archer record it's got "the goods"...ACRN/Akron names the fast driving Jodin Trocheck PD replacing J.Steve Richardson who's gone on to P/T at CHR WXTQ...Duran Duran are huge again. They've got a really big smash hit with "Ordinary World" and their Acoustic Xmas show for KROQ was so huge that they've scheduled two similar performances in Toronto (Wednesday 2/10) and in New York (Friday 2/12). Cutting Edge Radio's influence counts—USE IT!...The Dickies return this Spring with a new release on Triple X...

Heavy Hitters

Nudeswirl, "F Sharp", Megaforce....

I feel a special allegiance to this talented bunch for a couple of reasons. The most important, of course, being that I really enjoy the dense, guitar heavy atmosphere of their music (their debut has been spinning merrily around in disc and cassette players on both sides of our building since we got the advances). Secondly, they hail from the Garden State. That's right, a few exits up the Turnpike (New Brunswick to be exact) exists a vibrant new group hoping to splash headfirst into the churning and racing alternative/metal radio currents. It sure seems like promising hotbeds of musical activity are popping up all over the continent; even in the most unlikely of places, like New Brunswick (though N.J. is racking up quite a list of celeb hits from Sinatra to Bruce, to JBJ and Trixter to Monster Magnet). Also, it's an important statement for the revamped Megaforce Records, who head into the nineties with a decidedly more diverse roster (they've always had a way of hitting on a few incredible "new" bands too, like Tribe After Tribe, King's X and Nudeswirl, not to mention Metallica and Anthrax before them). Alas, Nudeswirl found their uncanny origins amongst the lineups of such esoteric and exuberant N.J. locals as The Lawn Darts and They Might Be Vaginas (a tribute group to They Might Be Giants). Now congealed into the hypnotic, swirling (the word is virtually unavoidable) and energetic blast of Nudeswirl, members Diz Cortright-guitar, Shane Greene-guitar/vocals, Woody Newland-drums and Christopher "Iggy" Wargo-bass, are innocents amongst this ravenous industry. Hopefully, with their self-titled debut they'll be able to crack through the veneer and really touch some people. The first song metal and alternative radio will get to sample is the hyper thrust of "F Sharp". With distortion raging along a sneaky bass groove, wah-wah riffs grinding and mid to high end vocals tumbling along the flurry of chords and drums (try and envision a cross-section where Tumbleweed meets PiL meets Love On Ice), "F Sharp" rings true, burrows in and latches on quickly. It has an instant, catchy appeal that makes it appropriate for both formats, but this song in particular should help hook the metal portions. There were obviously a lot of cover choices this week, but after much debate we chose the least known of the bunch, but certainly not the least promising. We don't want "Nudeswirl" to get lost in the mix. Besides, this one hits home in more ways than one.

MORE Hard Rock/Heavy Metal

Butthole Surfers, "The 10" Capitol... They've been creating havoc all throughout the alternative/punk realms for years now (I remember Dawn Hood talking about them years back when I first started here), and over the course of several recorded outings, have earned quite a reputation for outrageousness. Now finally, they're coming to the land of "oz" — metal (where they should fit right in). Their twisted humor and bizarre antics bleed into their music, which by the way is a freewheeling ongoing experiment that incorporates everything and anything — the result sounding like a stroke of chaotic genius. One listen to their major label (John Paul Jones produced) debut "Independent Worm Saloon" and you'll know immediately what we mean. In the meantime however, metal radio is (for the first time) being serviced this limited edition (served up on murky brown vinyl), mylar wrapped (how about that elephantitus?), 10" to chew on for awhile. Speaking of chewing, first up is the super short spoken intro called "George Lucas' Chocolate" (eeoooh... a good-hearted nudge that makes you cringe just a little). Actually, that's the beauty of the Buttholes (how weird is that?). They make you feel a bit wobbly around the edges, but when they start cranking, and I mean really cranking... you feel like you've been run over by a freight train going about 200 miles per hour — and you like it! You ask for more. Witness the full tilt grind of "Goofy's Concern". Jammed with amazing sounding guitars and techno vocal effects (watch the profanity). Elsewhere on the record is the wretchedly fetching (for some I guess) "Beat The Press" — a minute and half you might want to miss, but then... who knows. Also included are "Ghandi" and "Nee Nee" (non LP stuff that we're informed are old school Butthole Surfer noise exercises). So here's your introduction to one of the most eccentric and entertaining bands out there (though I'm sure many of you have already "experienced" them at least once before in your lives). If not, boy are you in for the hellcat ride of your lives. Hold on tight, 'cause the full album's coming in a few... and it only gets stranger from here. Their live shows are even more psychotic. Dig in.

Infectious Grooves, "These Freaks", Epic... While the AOR world has just been beginning to wake up to the wonder of Suicidal Tendencies, the metal ranks continue to sit back and shake our heads in true amazement. Not only because it took everybody so long to get ST, but also because (as if their lives weren't busy enough), Mike Muir and Robert Trujillo (along with six string sidekicks Adam Siegel and Dean Pleasants and a revolving door full of drummers), have once again found the time to record another Infectious Grooves album! That's right, a one-off project it turned out NOT to be. The Grooves are prepared once again to dish out another dose of their swingin' dance/funk metallic groove grind via "Sarsippius' Ark" (coming in a couple weeks). Yeah, that reptile pal of yours and mine is back, and amidst the popping bass lines, heavy guitar twang and grinds and Muir's good time growls, Mr. Sarsippius kindly walks you through the process (okay, maybe that wears a bit thin by now, but parts are still pretty entertaining). Anyway, chosen as the first track to radio, appropriately enough is the heavy pulsations of "These Freaks Are Here To Party" (which is surprisingly almost heavier than anything on the current ST record). What's more, it's danceable. Always great musicianship keeps it tight and killer, while the humor wilds freely within the song's confines. Fun? You betcha. After all, what's a party without freaks? Don't forget the Grooves will be touring this year in support of Suicidal Tendencies (nice of them to help out a younger up and comer, eh?). Muir & Trujillo — kind of the Siamese Twins of Suicidal Grooves and Infectious Tendencies. Let's party.

Nuclear Assault, "Something Wicked", IRS... Many have wondered what was up with the long enduring Nuclear Assault. Their's has been a long history (since 1984 actually), one marked by impressive, chart hopping albums like "Handle With Care" and "Out Of Order", plus "Game Over", "The Plague" and "Survive" before them. Always driven by a socio-political conscience, the band successfully managed to combine pointed commentary with plunging heavy riffs and an always fast, aggressive style. Even in his solo efforts with C.I.A., vocalist/guitarist John Connelly carried on that tradition, though expanding his palate somewhat into more diverse musical directions. It shouldn't be too surprising to you then to discover that the Nuclear Assault of the '90s is rather a different beast than we've come to know over the years. Now fully aligned with I.R.S. (they were traded back and forth with Relativity for quite some time) worldwide, the band rises with two new additions to the fold. Remaining in his founding role as drummer is Glenn Evans, but new are guitarist Dave DiPietro (who once played with Evans in local New Jersey mainstay T.T. Quick) and bassist

Scott Metaxas (who many may recall from another Jersey band - Prophet). Of course when the players change, the music can't help but be affected too. In NA's case, there's been a noticeable move towards more variety, which you'll notice immediately upon listening to the title track (which is the first single). While the heavy thick feel of the music remains, there's much more of a "rock" oriented feel throughout. Plus, Connelly's vocals have taken on less of a guttural tonality, and are more in the vein of WASP's Blackie Lawless. This becomes more apparent as you track through the full album (which you'll have by around the 22nd). While some diehard fans may berate the difference, it's important to understand that NA did really need to make a move to keep competitive, and so they have. We'll let the music speak for itself. Remember "...something wicked this way comes"...

Piece Dogs, "Exes For Eyes", Energy... Following up the chart success of Pro-Pain with virtually the same set-up (the album preceded by a three track sampler), Energy hopes to establish and build the Piece Dogs story in much the same way. By the looks of it they're definitely off to a great start as well. The more metallic nature of the Dogs is making them a natural for most of our reporters, especially the less hardcore or death metal inclined. Already, the three song pro has them debuting on the chart at 39* this week (with airplay on over 30 stations, increases at 4 and a couple of new adds helping). Now, the full album from this virtually unknown group is about to land on your desks and we urge you to take a couple of runs through. On first listen it's appealing but the more you listen the more it really begins to sink in. Get past the Stephen Percy vocal similarities and the catchy riffs begin to take hold. Imagine a much heavier sound, not thrash, but certainly not grunge either. This band flails somewhere in between the two, and they do it so well. The Dogs (Greg Anderson-vocals, Mike Grimmitt-guitars/vocals, John Connolly-drums/vocals and Kyle Sanders-bass/vocals) are musically adept and their repertoire includes some groove intensive grinds that may even make the COR kids take a look-see. You're hopefully all familiar with the crunchy "Devil Dog", the atmospheric "Death Chant" and "Ridin' High" by now. Now you can delve into the blasting terrains of "The Outcast", "Mornin Sun Burnin", the churning spirals of "Mentally Sound", the hard kicking "Hatrism" or "High Anxiety". Or for a slice of mood amplifying sensitivity, there's always "Broken Wing". There's plenty of Pieces to go around, so enjoy...

Baker's Pink, "Baker's Pink", Epic... It seems we never go very long when Epic doesn't have at least a handful of bands tearing around the charts (in all formats). In keeping with that tradition, this year they're already doing round-offs and cartwheels with a ton of new releases just hitting or scheduled to p.d.q.. In one package alone I received advances of Arcade, Infectious Grooves, the inimitable Living Colour (with a fantabulously heavy record) and this band. Baker's Pink, a color that'll drive you mad (literally). The music makes me smile — a lot. The more I listened the more I got drawn in... no, they're not metal, more of a hard rocking band in the vein of say, Bad Company meets The Black Crowes with a touch of the Stones for good measure. Thing was, I kept feeling like I'd heard them before, and I couldn't quite figure out what it was. Then we discovered that the band were actually once The Front (remember them) — well no wonder I liked them so much. Well, that doesn't mean in listening to their debut for Epic, you should expect to hear more of the trippy Doors-ish psychedelia drenched rock. The band (Michael Franano-vocals, Mike Greene-guitar, Randy Jordan-bass/vocals, and Shane on drums), have opened a new chapter in their musical tomes, and the music is even richer, fuller and the songwriting as always, quite exceptional. Definitely one of my fave releases so far this year, and lots of others who have heard it, "Baker's Pink" should probably (hopefully) rage all over COR/AOR. Metal ranks should do themselves a favor though and click onto "Euphoria", "Soul Connection" (this should be a single), "Watercolours" or the chugging "Burn On". Enjoy.

Quick Pick

Jesus Lizard/Nirvana, Split Single, Touch And Go....It's certainly not like Nirvana needs any help getting folks attention these days, but it sure is cool to hear as raw and garage

a single as this from them. Yes, everyone's multi-platinum babies are still legit (as witness by the very cool "Incesticide" collection that's now floating around), and they even kept a promise to their friends in Jesus Lizard to release a split single with them. Eh voila! You now should all have before you, complete with tres bizarre but intriguing artwork (the message is quite poignant if you get it), the long awaited split CD single. Featured from the always eccentric and loud Jesus Lizard (Duane Denison, Mac McNeilly, David Sims and David Yow), is the album version (from "Liar" — which is at #26 on Hard Hitters) of "Puss" — overflowing with distortion and exploding guitar riffs it's ripe for metal radio. As for the dynamic trio, Kurt, Chris and Dave headed for the basement (literally, in April of '92) and tossed down "Oh, The Guilt" — full of teeth clenching screams, dirty rhythms — unpolished, stripped to the bone essentials, and it's still ridiculously cool. And this single is the only place it will be available. So it took a few years to make it happen (Nirvana were kind of busy becoming huge)... you've got it now, and you know what to do. Need we really say more?

Single Matters

Screaming Trees, "Shadow Of The Season",

Epic....Now that the world is finally getting a chance to get acquainted with Seattle's beautiful Screaming Trees, it's time to get them cranking with the metal slice again. Y'all had it going pretty well there for a while, then dropped the ball. Yeah I know there's a lot of stuff out there right now, but listen up — here's another chance for you, with "Shadow Of The Season" designated as the new single. And I've got to say that it's absolutely my favorite song on the album — harder, darker, and loaded with biting guitar, not to mention the bittersweet and deep vocals of Mark Lanegan. Also included on the CD pro to accentuate your further listening pleasure are an acoustic version of the deeply reflective and moody, Jack Endino produced, "Winter Song" (done acoustically — it draws out emotion whether you want it to or not) and the previously unreleased "Maybe". This band has a ton of cool extra tracks that seem to keep showing up on singles and compilations. The Trees are finally happening, so don't be the ones to miss out. Chop, chop.

Stone Temple Pilots, "Wet My Bed/Cracker-man/Plush", Atlantic.... STP have been enjoying small but very consistent jumps up the metal charts for months now (while simultaneously making strong headway at COR/AOR mostly with "Sex Type Thing" and now "Plush"). Well, we finally get a second single from the guys (they've just gone Top 20 at metal), after enjoying a lengthy run with the first song. Of course, metal folk have been digging through various tracks on the album "Core", but now we ask you to switch focus to this cool four track CD pro. Featured are two versions of the new emphasis cut "Crackerman" (one includes the wild little intro "Wet My Bed") and also two versions of the stark beauty of "Plush" as done live and acoustically on MTV's Headbanger's Ball (what a voice Wieland has). "Plush" is an amazing song and will no doubt launch them right over the fence of success. As for the harder rocking masses, you should have no problem at all cranking to the groove embellished grinds of "Crackerman" — it's so damn catchy. Good stuff all around. STP have only just started to rise. Watch 'em fly.

Rattlebone, "X-Ray Eyes", Hollywood.... Hollywood's

hard rock groove team have enjoyed a pretty successful run on the metal charts, with first, the single "Society Dog", and eventually, the five song EP (which as you may recall included a cover of the Blue Oyster Cult's "Cities On Flame"). "Panther Sweat" broke a bit more ground, but now with the floods of new material hitting folks where they live (including their labelmates Sacred Reich), a new track is needed to try and resuscitate the project. And so, here comes the hard and crunchy "X-Ray Eyes". A fast paced and snarling song, it's loaded with rough and tumble guitars and a raspy growling vocal charging along top. Do remember to go back and check it out when you get the chance. The band still managed to pick up a couple of increases over CFOX and WDHA way, and are still cranking on close to twenty stations. Hopefully, this song can help sustain the band for a little while longer, and perhaps we'll get a full album from them sometime this year as well.

Chart Xshun

Folks were all a chatter over all the exciting chart moves happening this week. Not surprising as we head into a couple of very heavy release weeks at metal. The Most Added should be quite a turnstile over the new few issues and the chart a veritable roller-coaster as the long time hanger-onners try and maintain their hold amidst the influx of tons of new stuff. Well, as predicted, this week revealed some stunning climbs, among them another 10 spot leap for NYC's Spread Eagle (MCA), following up last week's hop from 30-20* this week they slammed straight into the Top Ten with move to 10*. This with boatloads of increases (some 13 or more stations), five moves into rotation and five new adds, which means Spread Eagle are now soaring on well over 40 stations. That's quite a hellacious start and "Revolution Maker" has yet to fully kick in as the next single.... And then there was Therapy? With the second biggest move of the week, A&M's new prize fighter whips home another large sweep up the charts, moving 13 more from 24-11*. Helping boost our sonic heroes were 9 mighty moves into rotation and 13 hefty and impressive increases. With close to 45 stations now committed to the project there's definitely cause for celebration, especially if the rest of the clan begins to finally get the picture. Keep your eyes peeled on the Top Five for this one in the coming weeks, Therapy? may be the way to break through the stalemate up there, just sit back and think about it.... Perhaps one of the most personally satisfying success stories of the year already, has to be Dream Theater's (Atco/Atlantic). Halfway to gold, selling out tours and still charging up the charts (AOR/COR/Metal) there's no denying the band's time has finally come. This week they continue their rise on Hard Hitters (once again) with a move from 16-12* and easily handle #6 Most Requested. An 8 minute single causing all this stir? Well "Take The Time" is building quite a story all its own too. Justice has been served in this case.... And our Biggest Mover of the week is... Restless' Uncle Slam!

That's right, the hard stuff is certainly making a triumphant comeback on the charts, and one of its most popular couriers right now is Uncle Slam. Pounding steadily along they managed another solid move, this week up 19 from 37-19*. Helping nudge them along were 12 (count 'em) moves into rotation, five new adds, and 7 bigtime increases (including KBPI, WHMH, WKLL and WNYU). "Will Work For Food" may just be a motto the band can soon forget. Watch 'em climb.... Next up on the hit parade are Every Mother's Nightmare (the band, not Steve Prue). Launching consistently upwards, the band now finds their record perched nicely just outside of Top Twenty at 21* following a five spot slide up from 26*. Boosting Arista's boys from Tennessee were 10 moves into rotation and three increases. They're on over 30 stations and just starting to climb.... Also moving up this week were GBH, Tiamat and Kyuss, all enjoying still strong runs with the metal folk. Kyuss, of course, keep the "Green Machine" churning across formats and on the road with Faith No More. They picked up 12 more adds on the single this week, so things are just getting started for them... again.... Lots of debuts this week from Decide, Piece Dogs, At Death's Door II, Gorguts and Flowerhead (now there's a mixed bag of bands if ever we saw one). Of course, the gold star of the week belongs to Hollywood's Sacred Reich, who not only bonged their way to a 25* debut, but also cinched #1 Most Added with 64 new adds (just one station shy of a tie with Flots for the record). All that just on the single and you can just imagine what'll transpire when the full "Independent" album strikes at the hearts of millions. The Most Added was rather tough all the way around this week, with strong showings from Columbia's Circus Of Power (at #2), Metal Blade's Desultror (#3), Earache/Relativity's Bolt Thrower (#4) and in a tie for #5, Century Media's Samael and CMC's The Style Monkees. Coming soon.... On the horizon, new releases from Nudewirl, the Butthole Surfers, Baker's Pink, Living Colour, Jesus Lizard/Nirvana, Nuclear Assault, Infectious Grooves, Sacred Reich LP and tons more....

Metal Filings

Hey, ya know at the front of my list of things that are going on this week is the self-titled Baker's Pink (Epic) LP going for adds. The lead-off track (for those AOR and COR folks) is "Water-colours"... Have you listened to the Nudeswirl (Megaforce) CD yet? I mean really listened to it? Well, how about the first single "F-Sharp" then (it goes for adds February 9th dont'cha know). Just a quick fact for ya, the band allegedly got it's name from a description of a 17th Century witch's orgy - Nudeswirl. Hmmmm, very interesting, just like the music... Also in your hands is the next taste from the Skatenigs (Megaforce). This version of "Chemical Imbalance" can (let me repeat that, can) be played on the radio. So, do it, add it February 8th/9th... You wanna know what else is going for adds February 8th/9th? Huh, do ya? The single "X-Ray Eyes" from Rattlebone (Hollywood) that's what... Hey, did everyone remember that this is the week of the Suicidal Tendencies (Epic) release (on February 12th to be exact) of the 7" hard shaped purple vinyl "I'll Hate You Better"? Ah, what a relief, a break from the traditional smushy Valentine's Day sentiment. Ya gotta love it... Everyone has received the Living Colour (Epic) 4 song cassette sampler now be checking the mail for this week's mailing of the 12" vinyl. Make note that the "Leave It Alone" CD pro will be going for adds February 16th with the full album "Stain" going for adds March 2nd... Mark your calendar for the March 8th add date for the Mighty Mighty Bosstones (Mercury) EP "Ska-Core, The Devil And More"... March 29th is the add date for the first single from Mind Bomb (Mercury). By the way, the single is "Segue" and it heralds from the album "Boom"... Season To Risk (Red Decibel/Columbia) will deliver their goods to the metal community sometime in April. Watch for it... Asphalt Ballet (Virgin) are back on the metal scene with their new vocalist Tommy Dean. The band have set aside April 6th as the release date for their new Greg Edwards produced album "Pigs". Keep your eyes peeled for an advance tape which will feature the first cut from the record "Angry Youth"... So as promised last week, news about the first single from The Fluid (Hollywood). The single "7-14" (which consequently is about Bastille Day) goes for adds April 26th. Remember that... Just a reminder, the new KISS (Mercury) record "Alive III" will arrive on May 4th. This is the band's third live album celebrating their 20th anniversary as one of rock's legendary forces.. When the month of May arrives so will the re-recorded version of Suicidal Tendencies (Epic) entire first album (out originally in 1983) being packaged this time under the name "Still Cyco"... An upcoming release to be on the lookout for is the latest from Seattle rockers TAD (Mechanic/RCA). A tentative release date of May 5th has been set for the J. Mascis (of Dinosaur, Jr. fame) produced album... Rhino Bucket (Reprise) are currently working on new material for their third release. The band are working with the title "Deep In The Bush" with some song titles including "Too Much Talk", "Pain", "I Was Told" and "All Fall Down". The album has been scheduled to arrive sometime later this year... Some news that we here in the Hard metal section are very excited about comes from The Organization. The band (originally called Death Angel but after the departure of frontman Mark Osegueda renamed themselves The Organization) will begin recording it's debut album this very week. YEAH! And ya know, as soon as we get more info you'll get more info... The Sneetches (the band with the single "...And I'm Thinking" that has been added to KITS - Live 105's playlist) plan on releasing a 6 song CD in March. ♦♦♦♦♦ The new Ugly Kid Joe (Stardog/Mercury) video for "Cats In The Cradle" has been added to MTV in regular rotation. The video was directed by Matt Mahurin... In other video news, Stone Temple Pilots (Atlantic) will be shooting their video for "Plush" on Valentine's Day... Work on the first video from Masters Of Reality (Chrysalis/EMI Records) for the song "She Got Me (when she got her dress on)", from the album "Sunrise On The Sufferbus" that is to be released on February 9th, was done with video director Case Niccoli. Niccoli has explained that the clip will be more than a musical performance. It is basically a dramatic Mexican soap opera where they hired Mexican actors and actresses. Don't worry the band will appear in the video in live stretches shown during the soap on TV. Here is a shot of band members drummer Ginger Baker, vocalist and guitarist Chris Goss and bassist Googe chillin' sometime during the dramatic scenes no doubt. ♦♦♦♦♦ So does have ya'll heard that Arcade (Epic) are doing the club tour thang gearing up for the April 6th release of their self titled debut album? Now you have... Circus Of Power (Columbia) are doing some warm-up dates in the Southern California area to coincide with the February 23rd release of their latest material compiled on the album "Magic And Madness". The band will then head off for some East coast dates in March... How very cool. Rage Against The Machine (Epic) has landed the opening slot on the upcoming House Of Pain (Tommy Boy) tour. The tour kicks off March 8th in Dallas, TX with dates booked through March 16th... Rumor has it that Overkill (Atlantic) will be heading over to Europe for some dates beginning March 4th. It is also rumored that Savatage (Atlantic) and Non-Fiction (Grand Slamm) will be joining them. Cool... Alice In Chains (Columbia) will be returning to the United States for a full on tour in the spring... Could it be true? The reunited members of Accept getting together to head out on European roads to satisfy fans? It looks like the band are in the midst of the release of their record "Staying A Life" (their farewell gift to their fans) and the outcry from their fans to see the band live just one more time has convinced them to work on an extended publicity tour which may include live gigs here and there throughout Europe. Stay tuned for more info. ♦♦♦♦♦ Here is one of those stories from the road that thankfully had a happy ending. Awhile back when D.R.I. (Rotten Records) were on the road with the likes of Pro-Pain (Energy Records), Body Count and Exodus (Capitol) their tour bus caught on fire. Apparently when the band were enroute to Los Angeles from Santa Barbara the back of the bus went up in flames. The tour manager called the local authorities from a cellular phone while standing in the middle of the freeway. Band and crew members rushed frantically to save the equipment from becoming toast. In the end, some roadies had suffered minor smoke inhalation but the band did make it to L.A. for their gig. ♦♦♦♦♦ The Second Annual Randy Rhoads Charitable Trust Fund Benefit show was held recently at the Palace in Los Angeles and brought out a slew of musicians and fans alike. The event was co-sponsored by Guitar For The Practicing Musician and KNAC. Highlights of the benefit included a performance of "Play That Funky Music" by CPR (Randy Coven, Mark Hitt and John Reilly) with ex-Rainbow singer Joe Lynn Turner, a Night Ranger performance, a celebrity jam with the likes of Adrian Vandenberg, Tommy Aldridge, James Christian, Rick Serrate, Rudy Sarzo, Phil Colleen and Blues Saraceno covering the Ozzy Osbourne/Randy Rhoads tunes "Crazy Train" and "I Don't Know" and a violin interpretation of another Osbourne/Rhoads classic "Mr. Crowley" by Mark Wood. Other musicians that participated in the event were Mickey Dee and Lemmy (from Motorhead fame who were joined by Pantera's Diamond Darrell and Blues Saraceno in a "Hellraiser" jam), Glenn Hughes, Howard Leese, Lita Ford, David Reece, Carmine Appice, Vinnie Appice, Alex Skolnick, Bruce and Bob Kulick, Jake E. Lee and many more. The Rhoads fund was founded by Dolores Rhoads (mother of the late guitarist) in order to serve aspiring artists who have talent but lack the money necessary to pursue their interests. Over 1,000 attended the benefit which raised over $11,000. If you too want to make a donation send it to: The Randy Rhoads Charitable Trust Fund c/o Dolores Rhoads, 12111 Tiara Street, N. Hollywood, CA 91607. ♦♦♦♦♦ Megadeth (Capitol) have been selected to receive the Genesis Award "Doris Day Music Award" for their album "Countdown To Extinction" and its title song (which addresses the issue of "canned hunts"). The Genesis Awards honor outstanding individuals in the media whose artistry or journalistic integrity have increased understanding of animal issues. The awards are sponsored by The Ark Trust, whose president Gretchen Wyler stated that "Our Awards Committee was genuinely impressed by Megadeth's powerful lyrics which conveyed such a compelling anti-hunting message". Megadeth frontman Dave Mustaine commented "We're flattered and honored to receive this Doris Day Award which The Ark Trust has found fit to bestow on us." Past recipients of the award include Michael Jackson and the Grateful Dead. ♦♦♦♦♦ Congratulations Joanne Grand on your new job at Round The Globe Music. In case you were wondering where T-Ride have been all this time, they have been up in the great white north (of Minneapolis that is) hanging with that manly man from WHMH Ron Stryker. Caught here in a frozen moment are L to R: 3 local contest winners, Ron's significant other, Ron Stryker (WHMH), Dan Arlie (T-Ride), yet another contest winner, Jeff Tyson (T-Ride), Ted Koekstra (Hollywood), Dyana Kass (Hollywood), Jeremy (KOAL) and Eric Valentine (T-Ride).

Heading down the Phoenix way to KZR X was Testament screamer Chuck Billy. He is pictured here promoting the KZR X "get hard" thang with radio rockers Val and K.C.

Sometime, somewhere in the KNAC studios Dee Snider (rock n' roll's Widowmaker) participates in the latest craze - jock throwing. Here Snider shows his form as he gives KNAC jock Laurie Free a lift.

Well, here is proof positive that filming a video (for the song "Independent" dont'cha know) gives one a hearty appetite. Sacred Reich's Dave McClair takes a bite out of Wiley Arnett's straw hat in an attempt to appease his hunger. Hey somebody give that man a Snicker's bar.

The 12-piece Negresses Vertes have often been called the French Pogues. A little before his death, Heleno was spotted in a restaurant in Beirut, Lebanon, where he was dancing on a table with one of the country's most famous belly dancers.

UK Music News

By JONATHAN WRIGHT in London

Suede are set to release their third single "Animal Nitrate" on February 22 via Nude Records. The band, who seem to have been tagged by almost every critic in the UK as the "best new band in Britain," will follow the single with their debut album in March. Produced by Ed Buller, who also worked on the band's "The Drowners" and "Metal Mickey" singles, b-sides to the single are "The Big Time" and "Painted People." Meanwhile, to give an idea of the kind of (justified) hype which surrounds this band, here's Andrew Perry of Select on the new single: "Suede's grimmest guitar thus far scratches and scrawls, at one stage summoning a rough-cut John Barry passage. The chorus, according to my hastily scribbled notes 'dips at the end like a seagull in eyeliner.' You had to be there. You will."

It's been a mixed week for the UK live circuit. First up is the continuing saga of London's Town And Country Club. As reported in recent editions of The Hard Report, the venue is being forced to close in March as its owners Folgate Estates refuse to extend the lease of the club's current managers Maxrose. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Vince Power of the Mean Fiddler Organization who run several London venues, says he would bid for the T&C if it became available. (Folgate say it will continue as a live venue in the future, but under new management.) Power commented, "If the venue was offered to me in an open market situation, I would put an offer in for it. I would only do that if Town And Country are completely out of it. But at the moment, I'm sitting back doing nothing." Meanwhile, Maxrose are continuing their efforts to find a "new" theater. It's understood a bid by Maxrose for the Shepherd's Bush Theater in west London has failed. On a brighter note, The Mean Fiddler Organization's Clapham Grand venue in south London is being allowed to expand its capacity. The theater opened last year with a capacity of 900 and limited opening hours after opposition to the venue from local residents and some members of local government. Now, however, the club is being allowed to open two balconies, increasing capacity to 16,000, and will stay open later. These developments will no doubt come as a relief to the Mean Fiddler Organization who are reported to have spent over £3 million on purchases and renovation of the venue. First show at the expanded venue will be the triple bill of Therapy?, Gallon Drunk and Silverfish on March 16. Outside London, though, there's more bad news with The Waterfront in Norwich, south-east England closing with debts of £368,000. The venue has suffered from financial problems since it opened two years ago, but it's understood the end may have come when the local government of Norwich City Council withdrew financial support after finding the venue's management had underestimated debts by £160,000. There is hope, however, that the venue will reopen under new management later in the year. Finally, the Lemon Grove theater at the University of Exeter, south-west England is curtailing the number of gigs it holds. Students who live in nearby accommodations complained after the venue hosted over ten gigs in one term. A previous agreement stated there should be only six gigs per academic year. Shows by The Senseless Things and Sultans Of Ping FC have been cancelled as a result.

Dead Or Alive singer Pete Burns has been found guilty of criminal damage to two cars, but given a conditional discharge for a year and ordered to pay £1,585,69 in compensation. The court case stemmed from an incident last September when Burns, best known for his band's number one UK hit "You Spin Me Round (Like A Record)," was celebrating a new American recording contract in the street at Notting Hill, west London by demonstrating his live show. According to Burns' lawyer Bernard Carnell, "His act on stage is to leap about, jump over artists and instruments and basically he was saying he had the ability to jump over the car. He not only failed, but had chosen a soft-top car to do so and fell in it." Unfortunately for Burns, all this was witnessed by a passing motorist who called the police. Also unfortunately for Burns, as he tried to free himself from the convertible, he damaged a nearby Volkswagen.

The Jennifers have split up. The Oxford guitar band, who released the critically acclaimed "Just Got Back Today" single via Nude last year, cite problems with the label as the reason for the split. The band claim Nude rejected three lots of demos and that the label owes them money in mechanical royalties.

Julian Cope, who was recently dropped by Island Records amidst a storm of controversy, has announced details of a new album. However, Cope is making sure fans realize "Rite," recorded with his guitarist Donald Ross Skinner, is a 70-minute instrumental album. Cope says the album is "the perfect length for a good meditation, or a decent shag." It's available on mail order only and can be obtained by sending £12.50 (CD) or £8.50 (cassette) to Rite Offer, KAK Ltd, 7 Iveybury Court, Latimer Road, London, W12 6RA. Money orders in sterling should be made payable to KAK Ltd and the offer is limited to two copies per person. Meanwhile, Cope is currently looking for a new record deal. Speaking about Cope leaving Island Records, Island's A&R chief Nick Angel says the label couldn't afford to keep him: "His option on the fifth album came up and that would have been the biggest single payment we'd have given to any artist that year. We said to him, 'Julian, this doesn't make any sense, let's renegotiate.' And he said, 'Fuck off, pick up the option or don't.' We'd have loved to have kept him." Elsewhere, Cope raised £2,500 for anti-fur campaigners Lynx when he raffled his "Cosmic Ass-Hole" microphone stand (you remember, the one that was a bit like a climbing-frame) at the last of his four sold-out London shows last week. The draw was conducted by Cope's alter-ego Sqwubbsy.

It looks as if there could be a bidding war between the organizers of the Reading Festival and the Mean Fiddler Organization to secure the exclusive live presence of top alternative acts this summer. In a bitter dispute last year, Vince Power's mean Fiddler Organization lost the contract to book August's Reading Festival to London's marquee Club. Now, the mean Fiddler Organization are putting together a rival Phoenix Festival at Long Marsden, south England on July 16, 17 and 18. Unsubstantiated reports suggest the Mean Fiddler may have already secured Faith No More and Sonic Youth for the festival. Organizers of both festivals will be anxious to ensure that, in these recession-hit times, if a customer can only afford one festival it's going to be their's. Evidence of this provided by the plans for additional entertainment away from the main stage. At Reading, for instance, there will be an all-night rave at a sports-center near to the festival site, whilst the mean Fiddler Organization are planning to have a fun-fair and a comedy tent at Long Marsden. Finally, the mean Fiddler is also planning a series of one-day festivals at north London's Finsbury Park this summer.

Reports in the UK music press say Morrissey and Prince are planning to work together. Apparently, the two will meet in Los Angeles later this month. Morrissey will be flying to the west coast to attend the Grammy Awards. Elsewhere, April will see the release of a live Morrissey album entitled "Beethoven Was Deaf" (HMV). Recorded in Paris in December and mixed by Bob Clearmountain, the full track-listing is as follows: "You're The One For Me Fatty," "Certain People I Know," "The National Front Disco," "November Spawned A Monster," "Seasick, Yet Still Docked," "The Loop," "Sister I'm A Poet," "Jack The Ripper," "Such A Little Thing Makes Such A Big Difference," "I Know It's Gonna Happen Someday," "We'll Let You Know," "Suedehead," "He Knows I'd Love To See Him," "You're Gonna Need Someone On Your Side," "Glamorous Glue," "and "We Hate It When Our Friends Become Successful."

PolyGram is reported to be in negotiations with Leonard Curtis, the receivers of Factory Records, and Tony Wilson of the bankrupt label. It's understood that the three way negotiations are aimed at relaunching Factory. However, there may be problems over Manchester's Dry Bar and Hacienda Club which Factory has a stake in. PolyGram do not want these to be part of any deal, but the receiver is said to be keen that the Dutch company takes them on.

It's probably a sign of the recession, but Therapy?, Silverfish and Gallon Drunk will spend March on the road together in the UK and all have new releases out to coincide with what's been nicknamed the Bigmoneylooza '93 tour. Therapy? release their "Short Sharp Shock" EP via A&M on March 8. Silverfish offer the "Damn Fine Woman" EP on March 15 (Creation) and Gallon Drunk have a new album via Clawfist "From The Heart Of Town." Should be fun.

Depeche Mode return on February 15 with their first new single in three years. "I Feel You" (Mute) was produced by the band and Flood, Remixes by Brian Eno, Renegade Soundwave, Superreal and Mark Stent will be available as part of a double CD package, also featuring another new song, "One Caress." The band's new album "Songs Of Faith And Devotion," which was recorded in London, Hamburg and Madrid, will follow in March. In the same month, the band begin an eighteen-month world tour.

The Wonder Stuff have begun work on their new album with producer Pat Collier. The band have already recorded ten tracks, but are still planning to record another 16. To get a "live" feel to the sessions, the Stuffies have been demoing songs at their own studio in Tufnell Park, London and then moving to London's Greenhouse Studios for final recording.

With the UK independent scene somewhat quiet at the moment, many UK critics have been turning their attention towards new American music. A band who have benefited are San Diego's Rocket From The Crypt. The band's "Circa, Now!" album has been picking up five star reviews everywhere, despite the fact they've never played the UK.

An artist picking up massive interest at the moment is Jamiroquai. Already picked up by Orenda/Sony, Jamiroquai's blend of funk and soul looks set for crossover success in the mainstream charts. Fronted by 22 year old Jay, the band have just released a single "When You Gonna Learn" and have a debut album set for release this spring.

Belfast's The Adventures return on February 8 with a cover version of The Mamas And Papas' "Monday Monday" b/w "Perfect Day." The band recently signed to Polydor and will follow the single with their debut album for the label, "Lions And Tigers And Bears."

J.D., WONE, Akron

Last week we welcomed Nuno Bettencourt and Gary Cherone to the WONE studios for some electrifying conversation and to perform an acoustic set which was absolutely mindblowing! Very special thanks to Nuno and Gary, plus Mark Tindle and Michael Powers of A&M for making it all happen... Speaking of happening, thanks also go out this week to Richie Sambora of Bon Jovi for taking the time to give us a call and letting us know what's happening with the up and coming Bon Jovi tour. Thanks to Mark DeBosier of Mercury for the help in setting everything up. That's not all... Thanks to Sky Daniels and Doug Hamann of PLG for stopping by with some personal friends, Kevin Kinney and Tim Neilson of Drivin-N-Cryin and for sharing a few moments on the air with us about their forthcoming release, Smoke. It certainly was a very special week here at WONE and to everyone my personal thanks for taking time-out to spend a few minutes with us on the air... Up and coming events include the WONE/Benny's Sports Bar Tuff Man competition, plus the World Of Wheels car show hits the Canton Civic... The Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week is Living Colour's "Leave It Alone".

Morgan, WYNE, Tampa

Well, this certainly is the week for some new kick-ass music. The Van Halen is incredible and blowing out the phones... We've been waiting for the new one by Sting and does it live up to our expectations... The new Drivin-N-Cryin is incredibly cool, something our nighttime listeners can really dig their teeth into... We had such success with dada's "Dizz Knee Land" that we put "Dim" on this week... Def Leppard in town last week. Sold-out, fantastic performance... Metallica in two weeks. The pit awaits me... Hey, sorry if y'all had trouble reaching me last week, but with Steve having a great time at the Pollack Convention, I had a tremendous amount of work to do. I barely had time to squeeze those Tampa Bay Lightning players into my schedule. Till next time....

Lois Todd, KAZY, Denver

Mucho thanks to DeeAnn Metzger and Paul Brown for Keith Richards. Wow! What an incredible show! It's been awhile since I was on my feet for the whole show! Soul Asylum also kicked ass! Nice cover guys! And seein' 'em really sent us over the edge on "Somebody To Shove", so it finally goes in this week!... Drivin-N-Cryin has the goods with "Turn It Up Or Turn It Off" and "Smokin'" Kevin Kinney stopped in this week to say hey! Thanks Dave Barbis! It has been quite the celebrity week what with Jack Russell making his debut as KAZY's first "real" voice. Then Kevin and James and the crew from Dream Theater. By the way, in case you haven't figured it out, this band, Dream Theater, will be humongo! (Of course they already are in our eyes and ears!)... Other "stuff" workin' well here: the live Van Halen is a great "cool" track. Flotsam & Jetsam's "Wading Through The Darkness" is awesome! Check out the interactive video!... Oh, how could I space sayin' thanks to the guys from Asphalt Ballet for stoppin' in too! Good luck y'all ROCK!!

Cathy Faulkner, KISW, Seattle

I'm not a big fan of covers, but I have to admit that I am very impressed with Van Halen's cover of "Won't Get Fooled Again". Respectable effort!... The new Drivin-N-Cryin is rockin! Glad to have it aboard our playlist... Oh, I thought I should let you know that I have one more week left of Jury Duty. If I've been hard to get a hold of, that's why. Jury Duty is a fascinating process (and a great way to get caught up on all my reading). I recommend it to anyone who gets summoned.

Charlie Logan, WLUP, Chicago

Hey NFL, get with it. Michael Jackson? Give me a break. The Loop FM's half-time show at the Ultimate Superbowl party was like the Cowboys - awesome. Drivin-N-Cryin did a great half-time set for us. Thanks to Kevin Kinney, Jim Barber and Billy Cox of PLG. Speaking of the Superbowl, can that Marlee Matlin hold a note or what? Amazing... I saw the future the other night. Mark Curry performed 2 amazing sets at Schuber's here in the Windy City. Incredibly powerful voice, Mark knocked me out. Unfortunately, the album doesn't match the live performance but if you get the chance to catch Mark Curry live, do it. Thanks to Mike Stone of Virgin... Drivin-N-Cryin - "Turn It Up Or Turn It Off" goes on OTB. What a raucous follow up to "Fly Me Courageous". Cheap Trick meets AC/DC, it's obvious Kevin and the boys are having fun. This should be a phone burner... Don Henley's version of the old "Guys And Dolls" tune "Sit Down You're Rockin' The Boat" is pretty interesting. The reggae flavor that opens the song sets the tone and should work really well here at The Loop... Nirvana's "In Bloom" finally goes on this week, this project still has legs and is still selling strong in Chicagoland... Van Halen's gonna get a nasty letter from AT&T, "Won't Get Fooled Again" is blowing out the phone circuits. Very hot, but did they have to sell "Right Now" to, of all products, Crystal Pepsi? Is there any shame?... Sting's new one is a lot less dark and brooding than his last two albums. The upbeat feeling of this record should take it far... 4 Non Blondes goes this week too. If anything from Concrete Blonde has worked for you, then check out "What's Up?" - very happening.

Don Davis, WIOT, Toledo

The Tragically Hip continues to grow! If you program a rock n' roll station and you're not playing T-Hip, maybe a visit to an ear doctor is in order... On the air full-time this week at WIOT: Van Halen's "Won't Get Fooled Again", Drivin-N-Cryin's "Turn It Up...", Testament's "Return To Serenity" and Southgang's "Tug Of War"... "Anybody seen my ball!?" Myrtle Beach here I come! I'm on vacation this week, so direct all calls to Lyn. Have a great week! "Oh %$@* it, let's go to the bar!"

Zeb Norris, KRQR, San Francisco

Boopsie wept a bit, then blew her beautiful nose and gave me a list of scum-suckers I'd need to talk to about her stiffing single. I gave her a hanky for her crocodile tears, and watched her fab figure fade away as she slipped sullenly out of my office. She may be a cruel, sadistic, shallow, silly pop-tart, but she'd always be a hot in my rotations. Look up the word "sucker" in the dictionary and you'll find a portrait of yours truly to illustrate the concept. I left my adds on the machine (Medium for Van Halen "Won't Get Fooled Again" and Peter Gabriel "Kiss That Frog", Light for Sting "If I Lose My Faith" and Drivin-N-Cryin "Turn It Up Or Turn It Off"), put on my happyface tie, and hit the streets. That hurt my fist, so I didn't do it again. Instead, I retrieved my cherished chariot, the '79 Volvo G.T. with the racing stripes that make it soooo fast, and pulled out into the nearly paralyzed traffic flow, headed for the first fool to I needed to talk to about Boopsie's no play problem; Bill Yewlater, PD of Churban Powerhouse KMUD. He's the kind of guy who couldn't hear a train wreck. When two trains had collided on the southern pacific tracks behind his house at 2am, he hadn't found out about it until he saw it in the papers. I hoped he could hear his intercom ring as his assistant buzzed him to let him know I needed to see him. To be continued...

Matt Mangus, WRCN, Long Island

I think a strong case can be made for Extreme as the best band in America today. Saw their great show at the Beacon Theater and Saigon Kick was outstanding too! Those who think they know better constantly put down rock radio for it's lack of creativity, but we've got Extreme and you don't!!

Tom Bass, WPLR, New Haven

So, we're battling winter allergies, a New England cold spell, three losing football teams, and a slump that threatens Connecticut's NCAA basketball tournament chances. But we've had another good book. So life is, all in all, pretty good at the mighty PLR... I continue to be amazed at the staying power of the Spin Doctors disc. Each track is bigger than the one before it. And "Two Princes" was only narrowly bounced from the Number One request slot this week by the much awaited Van Halen release. No end in sight for Pocket Full Of Kryptonite... The Jayhawks CD continues to captivate me, from start to finish... Also, got to love a two-and-a-half minute rock n' roll treasure courtesy of our old friends, Masters Of Reality. Imagine as you just break out of rush hour gridlock and hit the open highway on your way home from a tough day on the job. The road's clear, you're already imagining how that first beer's gonna taste, the radio's turned up loud and "She's Got Me" comes on. Life's little pleasures!... Oh yeah, to all my friends who live and die for the Buffalo Bills, maybe they should form a bowling league or something?

Carl Craft, WCIZ, Watertown

It's great to see a great band jump up the charts. Now that "Courage" is on the air, be sure to set aside time to immerse yourself into the breakthrough album, Fully Completely. Gotta love it when each cut stands out. Say it again, "Play The Hip"... Also on the coolness list is the Dinosaur Jr. single. I went from "I'm not sure", to "Holy shit this is good" in one listen... Big Head what? And the whats? That's Todd, and The Monsters. Music is cool as it's name. Love to share that one, too... Finally, many weeks of Top Five phones, sales out the ying-yang. If you do anything for adults, get a copy of Love And Danger by Joe Ely on MCA. Plug in track five, "The Road Goes On Forever". It's a keeper.

Peg Pollard, KIOZ, San Diego

What a week! I met Keith Richards! What a thrill. Thanks Aggie!... The new Infectious Grooves came in too! If "Freaks" is too much for you, check out their version of "Immigrant Song" - it rips. I would hope the lower-end stations will be all over this record... I went up to Smell-A for the third weekend in a row. At least we flew this time! Thanks to Mercury for a great time, including an UK Joe show (Oh boy they're getting better live!) and a Greta/Animal Bag show. The Bagsters are a very hip band with 3 great singers. (The guitarist & bassist do killer back-ups). They came in our studios on Saturday for an awesome acoustic set and had the fans moshing hard at their show here that night. Very diverse & talented musicians. They played "Wooden Ships" and a pit full of hard cores dug it! It was cool to watch the crowd go nuts when they played "Everybody". We've been on that track for about 13 weeks. Take another listen if you're not sold yet... We tested Imago's Bone Club record ("Everything's On Fire") and got great response, so that's on now... The Ozzy & Lemmy duet is pulling phones, and so is Exodus - "Good Day To Die" is a big song for us... And I really hate to mention Mike Halloran 2 weeks in a row - But congratulations to him and Stephanie. Record geeks - send him another fruit basket!

TI Bryan, WDMA, Dover

What a week! Thanks to Ross (HOW ARE YA!) Zapin & Jimmy Fay for a helluva Thursday night. First the new Page/Coverdale record (this album is gonna be a cooker) and then an absolutely fantastic show from Arc Angels & the Poorboys at Tramps in NYC. Having been a fan of both Double Trouble and Charlie Sexton for a long time, this was a real treat. I swear Stevie Ray was somewhere in the building when Doyle Bramhall II tore in to John Lee's "Dimples"... Thanks also to Paddy Rascona and Sky Daniels for bringing Kevin Kinney & Tom Neilson of Drivin-N-Cryin by to play live. The title track to "Smoke" is great!... 4 Non Blondes blow out the DHA request lines this week! "What's Up" pulled in 5X more calls than any other tune... I'm really digging the new Sting record. Ditto the new one from Phish... I'd love to chat longer, but the new Brian May just got here and so did the McCartney CD! As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you.

Steve Reynolds, WKLL, Utica

Drivin-N-Cryin kicks major ass!!!! You can't turn it up enough for me!!!

Arvette, WRXK, Ft. Meyers

I got to take part in my own focus group last weekend at the Def Leppard show. I'm serious! Let me set the stage fo ya' - It was an "evening with" Def Leppard. Totally awesome!! With a theater in the round stage, lasers, lights and great sound. After about 90 minutes of hit after hit, they go acoustic for a few songs leading into "Bringin' On The Heartbreak". They start doing cover tunes like AC/DC's "Back In Black" and everybody is just singing by now to the top of their lungs. Then Vivian Campbell starts into Metallica. "Enter Sandman" and there it was, the audience went nuts and not only sang the first few lines, but the entire first verse into "Off to never never land"! Age demos from age 13 to at least 49 years old! Leppard themselves were even surprised by us!! This only led to more energy and singing for the rest of this killer show that has to rival ZZ Top and the Rolling Stones as for me and my idea of a really "fun" show... I've also been enjoying my first listen to Wandering Spirit during this small story about life in Ft. Myers lately. Addictive, seductive and yes very sweet and you'll note, another Rick Rubin production. P.S. Yes, I have a tan!

Pat Gallagher, WMMM, Madison

New music this week includes Sting, of course - I can't wait to hear the whole album... We also added another cut from the Paul Weller album, "I Didn't Mean To Hurt You"... dada's "Dorina" is getting phones already, after only a couple days on the air, as is Big Head Todd & The Monsters... When I first heard that Bob Dylan's son had a band, the reaction was, "Not another Nelson or Wilson/Phillips." I couldn't have been more wrong! The Wallflowers are a real band with a great singer and songwriter who just happens to be Bob's son... Top requests this week: dada, Big Head Todd, Mick Jagger, Izzy Stradlin & Elvis Costello... And the winner of the Triple M Super Bowl of Rock And Roll - Indigo Girls! Could it have anything to do with their sold-out concert at the Madison Civic Center this week? Yeah, probably.

Dave Frisina, WAQX, Syracuse

Three words. Masters Of Reality. Two words. Play it. The production is smooth and solid. "She Got Me..." jumps through the clutter and grabs both ears. If you missed their debut on Delicious Vinyl, don't make a bigger mistake with their debut on Chrysalis. Among the new bands looking to make a mark, The Masters are the cream of the crop... Thanks to everyone contributing to our upcoming requestathon and rock auction. Any additional help is greatly appreciated... P.S. The new Coverdale/Page is going to absolutely rule the airwaves.

Mike Luoma, WIZN, Burlington

Well, I hope you did the right, gutsy and adventuresome thing and added Phish's new one "Fast Enough For You" this week. We did!! It's a different tune for the band, and seems to showcase the more introspective and moodier feel of the album itself. Not to say that Rift is a yawner, or too serious or pretentious. When the mood gets too heavy, along come deflators like "Weigh" and "Sparkle". Still, if you've heard of Phish, but only know their last year's breakthrough, "Cavern", "Fast Enough..." may surprise you, pedal steel slide and all. Also, now that we have the whole CD, artwork included, just let me trumpet one more "Bravo!" This is an amazing and mature piece of work from the band, one that grows in new directions yet stays true to the root. There's even a couple singles for the less adventurous who still want to be cool. Try "The Wedge" or "Horn". Aw hell, try the whole thing! 'Nuff said... Things that are not Phish yet still cool: Big Head Todd And The Monsters! Another underground band rises to the surface, out of the wilds of Colorado, with real rock dripping with meaty juices and a full day's supply of vitamin B (for balls!)... Also cool - The Jayhawks are getting Top Five phones! It's great when people begin to latch on to a new band that deserves to be heard, and want to hear more... Also cool - the temperature this morning in northern Vermont. With wind chill figured in, it's around 30 below! Now that's coooool!

Michael Young, WRZX, Indianapolis

Boy, did the Super Bowl suck!! Even the commercials sucked!! Sunday January 31st sucked!!... Looks like another Hysteria/Full Moon Fever in the making. Metallica has certainly achieved near perfect album status. Almost two years after it's release and people still want to hear Metallica! "Don't Tread On Me" will be another monster... Other than that, Testament's blowin' up the phones as well as Megadeth's "Sweating Bullets"... Question Of The Week: I know star masters are the new work out rage, but what ever happened to climbing up and down real steps? Was the fact that it was absolutely free the thing that threw everyone off? Just wondering?! Have a good one!

Tony Baroni, KSKE, Vail

Howyadoin??? (This is not a type-o, I learned this saying in Myrtle Beach, SC. You have to say this phrase all at once). The Rockies are great, so is shredding the pristine Colorado snow! Either on one or two boards... KSKE is bringing dada to Vail for Valentine's Day, and it looks like Big Mountain will be jammin on the best side of the divide the week after! '93 is going to be a great year!... Hot phones: Both Sonia Dada and Thomas Dolby are fighting for the Number One slot. The phone lines are burnin up for each... Running a strong second, is The Cages. If you passed these guys by, give them a second listen. They are being eaten alive by the mountain folk!... Other hot phones: The Tragically Hip and Big Head Todd! KSKE has been a long time supporter of both, in fact, we just did Big Head's concert a month ago... We tried to recurrent the Blind Melon and the listener response was phenomenal. They are back to Number Three in the Mediums... And finally, last but not least, Mick Jagger and Jesus Jones... KSKE's Hot Picks: The Beauties, The Sighs, Animal Bag, Immaculate Fools, Starclub, Sloan, Fleetwood Mac, Kowanko and Tom Cochrane... Well, it's time to call it a day, be good, if you can't, then be ornery! Live, love, learn and prosper!

Chuck Woodford, KBCO, Boulder

First off, let me briefly explain Ginger's condition: As you may or may not be aware, she has just recently emerged from the cataleptic state she always enters whenever she gets word that Paul McCartney has a new record due. She is coming along just fine and we expect a full recovery by week's end. My name is Chuck and, with Ginger's illness, I thought that this would be a great time to introduce myself. I have just inherited KBCO's New Music Show (the 10:00 News) from the very capable hands of Scott Arbough and I felt that you should at least know who it is that you are talking to. I've been at KBCO for two years, primarily relegated to the overnights. Prior to my move to Boulder, I received some of the best practical experience anyone could expect at West Virginia University's College station, WVU (the 380 watt blowtorch of northern West Virginia). My musical tastes run the gamut from Ministry to the Disposable Heroes to Leo Kottke, so I'm open to anything at all that you might want to force down my throat. In fact, I would encourage you to send me whatever you may feel would work in the very open-minded environment that is KBCO. My office hours are Wednesday from 1-5pm (Mountain Time, of course) and I'm way-anxious to chat. That is all. You're dismissed.

Lyle Chausse, CFOX, Vancouver

This is just a quick note to tell you that all metal radio call hours are Mon 9:00 am to 2:00 pm, and Tue 9:00 am to 11:30 am west coast time. Your cooperation is much appreciated. This change is temporary until further notice. Over the past several months here at The Fox, there has been lots going on, if you didn't know already, our new Music Director and Assistant PD is Dave Gaudet. Mike Moreau is the Assistant Music Director. Please call and introduce yourself. 1993 promises to be an amazing year as we celebrate our 25th year of rockin' Vancouver. Watch these pages for more details on what we're up to. Why not phone us and find out how you, and your bands, can get involved? Hey, watch out, it's monster truck season again.

Todd Sciore, WFLR, Pomona

I know it sounds funny, but I just can't stand the pain. Girl I'm leaving you tomorrow...everyone should play this song - AOR, COR, SOD & GBH stations everywhere. I listen to tons of grind/death, but Falth No More is my favorite band... Special thanks to Mert & Billy Milano for chatting live on the air (I still can't believe it!)... I'm looking forward to seeing Biohazard soon... "Sudi" Gaasche must really want me to come to N.Y., she sent me a knife and a gas mask (send a bulletproof vest and I'll consider it!). There is one other thing keeping me out of N.Y. - where is the N.J. Turnpike? I'm serious... Non Roadrunner stuff I've been listening to lately: Desultory, Infectious Grooves advance, Rage Against..., Brutal Truth, FNM. Peace. That's why I'm easy, easy like a Sunday mornin'.

Holly McCormack, WVVX, Chicago

After almost eight years of cranking out the best rock music in Chicago on WVVX, the Scott Loftus show is moving across the town to Y-108 (WYSY 107.9). With this move we have expanded hours - 70 hours of rock, 7 days a week on a stereo signal - and 50,000 watts of power (much improved from 3500 watts). We will continue to provide the Rock Chicago Wants, so be sure to send us your new rock, metal, AOR, alternative, or whatever else is the best new music around. Also, be sure to change your servicing address to: WYSY, 620 Eola Rd., Aurora, IL 60507. Make the change right away because we will be on the air February 1. Thank you for all your support in the past and our success in the future is contingent on your continued support. We are excited about the endless possibilities that this year will hold at Y-108 and we are happy to be able to move into this situation with a large audience base (Number 1 at night in Men 18-24) and we plan to go up - way up from here. So be sure to call us on Mondays and Tuesdays at either 312-280-8080 or 708-851-4600. WYSY looks forward to breaking all the best new artists you bring to us 1993!

Ron "The Metal Maniac" Michels, WRZR, Columbus

Well, there's something I would like to get off my chest. Yes, we are a Z-Rock affiliate in Columbus, Ohio. But this does not mean that we aren't like any other radio station. (No we are not automated). We have local personalities as well as Board Ops, we do promotions and yes, we do giveaways. Yes, I said G-I-V-E-A-W-A-Y-S!!! I'm real tired of hearing, "Well, you're just a satellite station you can't add anything." Oh! Contraire. We have the ability to add music to our local breaks and have done so. We also have local programming on Saturday nights that we are very proud of. "Metal Detector" featuring the best local rock bands in Columbus, Ohio with the host with the most Mark "Z-Man" Adamz. "Off The Beaten Track" exposing our listeners to tracks they haven't heard before and music so fresh the neighborhood dogs will come over to sniff it! With yours truly. So, when you deal with me or any Z-Rock affiliate, please keep in mind that we could be the next ones to break your new band or your next single. There, I've said it... In closing, Cheryl, Susan, Dave, Jon, Uncle Fingers, Ken, Judy, Dianne, Bobby "Blue", Bruce, E.J., Michael, Charles and Leann, Greg, David, Tim, Jesse, Bob, you guys are tiz in my book! Later.

Al Skop, WVCR, Loudonville

Now I know how it must feel to go up and win an award at the Grammys. Those poor schmucks have to go up in front of millions of people and give their thanks to EVERYONE who helped make their dream a reality. If they forget one STINKIN' little person, their career is shot. This feeling really sucks. And I would like to personally apologize to Cristina Galeano and Kristen Risch for leaving them out of the "robust personality" list in WVCR's C.O.R. feature the other week. Geez! What it takes to get off someone's shit list!...

Anyhow, things are going well as we await the return of Animal Bag. If you haven't given this band a try yet, WHAT THE HELL ARE YOU WAITING FOR?! If you like a smart band that cranks like Jackyl, but also has the talent to put on an unplugged set like they did for Albany, then you want Animal Bag like I want Claudia Schiffer. Add Animal Bag today, or you'll be living off animal crackers tomorrow. Take care.

Guy "G-Ster" Giuliano, KZRZ, Phoenix

Yo! From Phoenix where our signal covers Tucson so we terrorize them on a daily basis. We love you "Suzie" at KLPX; keep being rude and crude. It works for me... This week, the "Bradman" debuts "Nuke Or Puke" - not to be confused with "Yank Or Crank"!!... New adds that passed the test: Spread Eagle and live Van Halen... Also, we need thrash tuneage for "Thrash Bash" - send to attention: "Rancid Randy". C-ya.

Gari Calvert, WVCR, Loudonville

After two months of being at the controls of Metal Director here at WVCR, I am finally settling in to this position and I am ready to take my next step in making WVCR one of the strongest and most respected Heavy Metal stations in the United States! Obviously, the best sounding and most requested heavy metal makes it, and those that aren't - don't! Example: Flotsam And Jetsam - check the sales of Cuatro, since it has been in the Top 5 of the WVCR playlist. The Capital District is a lucrative and ever expanding Heavy Metal market - don't pass us up!! I pump the shit out of anything that crosses my desk that sounds good. If the requests are there, holyshit everybody duck!!... Example: Rage Against The Machine - 3 weeks and it's already up to #8 on the WVCR playlist. Hmmm, I wonder what the sales figures are? Does anyone notice a correlation here? HELLO!!! MCFLY!!!!!! How about debut music on this week's playlist? At Death's Door II opens the casket this week at #20 with some killer death covers one added this week by the likes of Death with it's cover of "God Of Thunder" by KISS... Uncle Slam moves up, as does Deicide and Therapy?... Lots of new death metal added for this week - Samael, Sodom, Desultory, Bolt Thrower... Looking forward to upcoming shows - White Zombie, Pantera, Biohazard... Capital Land gets its fix of these heavy metal kings only on the heaviest station in the nation, 88.3 WVCR!!!!!!

Jeffrey Shane, Capitol, 213-462-6252

It is a strange feeling having so many videos on MTV - Paul McCartney, Megadeth, Poison and Blind Melon. Feels like we have some of the best tracks I've had in years. This week you will get the complete McCartney CD. Check out "Biker Like An Icon". This is McCartney month on TV. MTV Unplugged, Tonight Show, Arsenio Hall, Saturday Night Live and a major press conference to announce the tour. This is going to be one of the most amazing months of visibility of any artist in history. Get ready for the blitz!... This Megadeth video is starting to explode at MTV. The radio stations that are already playing this track are getting immediate phones. This is a boogy track that should stand out on your radio station... Now that this week is over, how 'bout Blind Melon on WNEW and KLOS. This is one of those tracks that is not a one listen. It is the kind of track that after one week it starts to stand out on the station. This is one of those artists and songs that will prove itself on the air. Give this track a chance like some of the other bands that took awhile. Remember that Pearl Jam and Soundgarden were not one listen successes. Pearl Jam took almost 6 months or more in most cases... The Poison video continues to get requests at MTV. This week we will go breaker and hopefully break the Top 20. I will say this just once more, please let my band grow up. This music is no longer teen oriented, it is without a doubt just the opposite, adult oriented rock. Isn't this what our format is all about?... Finally, we have a new Great White coming, the title is "Live Is A Lie". Again, this is an amazing ballad. When you hear the remix and edit for the track, you will agree that this is one of the most full sounding tracks you've heard in years. Check this track on the Album Network sampler landing at radio on Feb. 15, #94, track #13. This track is cut by three and a half minutes. The remix is for a much bigger sound... Coming next month is the new Billy Squier, "Angry". This whole project is produced by Mike Chapman. This is a combination that has put Billy rockin' like the old times. Call your local rep to hear the cassette and the first track. Looking forward to seeing everybody at the Pollack Convention!!

Kid Leo, Columbia, 212-833-6632

The Kinks performance at the Pollack convention is now history and historical is the adjective that best describes what went down. Be prepared for the release of "Scattered" in early March from these true rock n'roll Hall of Famers... Soul

MORE Radio Comments

Asylum continues to surge. They're bolting up the Billboard Top 200. Radio airplay is growing at more than a steady clip on BDS and the Keith Richards tour is more than a successful marriage on stage. Our commitment is now becoming your total commitment to the Asylum. You're in for a long stay... Roger Waters' "Three Wishes" is now on your desk. It's the latest from Amused To Death, which has won critical acclaim as his best work since The Wall. Take a gander at the video which features Peter Boyle in the role of the genie... We are set to re-work Toad The Wet Sprocket's "Hold Her Down". In it's initial run, we garnered attention and removed any stigma rock radio had about the band. Now, after two solid tracks that have taken them to over 750,000 units, we are set for Platinum with the most solid rock track from Fear. The message is more relevant than ever. The time is now more than ever for "Hold Her Down"... I'm crying like a banshee about Cry Of Love. Saw 'em live in their native city of Raleigh and they destroyed me and the wall to wall crowd. It's gonna be a hot spring.

Mark Tindle, A&M, 708-298-9411

I'm off to the Pollack Convention this week, so I'll get right to the point. The Gin Blossoms are on the verge of exploding with "Mrs. Rita". It's time to take a serious look at this project. Recent converts include WHEB, KLAQ, WRCQ, WSTZ, WQBZ, WSFL, WKLO, WXUS, KZRR, KCLB, KKEG, KFMX, KFMZ and KFMP... With such a fantastic opening week, there must be something to the new Sting track, "If I Ever Lose My Faith In You". Take a look at all of the call letters and become a part of it!

Dave Lombardi, Warner Brothers, 818-953-3711

Whatta week! The entire Sioux nation adds "Won't Get Fooled Again", making the new Van Halen track easily the week's #1 Most Added. I guess next week we'll be closing this puppy out... Speaking of out, "Rain" by Trouble is now out. I beseech, nay, implore you to give this song your time and your ears this week. An appealing Pink Floyd vibe flavors this tune, and has us hoping that the "Rain" adds will come pouring in. It's time to get into some Trouble!... Spent the weekend in NJ and NY with the Goo Goo Dolls, as the band did sold-out showcases at Maxwell's in Hoboken (ooh! I'm dyin'!) and the legendary CBGB's. The LP, Super Star Car Wash, doesn't appear until later this month, and already the buzz is grow-grow-growing! The Goos will be touring with Soul Asylum come April, and I strongly recommend you see these guys. I will pass on the cliches here; all I'll say is WNEW's Lorraine Caruso planned on staying only for a song or two (because the band went on at 1am at CBGB's!) and she was there through the encores! The band's next date is a Feb. 9 showcase in L.A. - anyone interested should call immediately. Also got to see Vic "I'm A Genie - I Live In That Lamp!" Porcelli; the guy kills me - he was born to work for WB (he could've done voices for the cartoons!) Happy Groundhog Day! I'm out.

David Fleischman, MCA, 818-777-4000

OK, so it's three weeks into the airplay boogie and we've got over 100 stations playing "Courage". The Hip are happening. This is one of the records almost everyone is talking about. The sales are beginning and the requests are starting. If you're not in yet, jump in quick with both hands and both feet. It's going to be a helluva ride... The Flotsam & Jetsam story is pretty strong. When the project first started, F&J broke the record for the most number of adds EVER at metal radio in the Hard Report. The project has been Top 5 at metal for over 4 months. When "Wading Through The Darkness" was tested at WRCN, there was not one single negative call. When KIOZ played "Wading" back in December, it generated Top 5 phones. We're out-of-the-box with over 20 stations including major market stations KIOZ, KRXQ, WXTB, KAZY and KBPI. Sales are close to 1,000,000 units (depending on your definition of close). Won't you join us in breaking this one... If you're looking for adult numbers, then we're looking for you to add Patty Smyth's "No Mistakes". This record and your station will go together like love and marriage, horse and carriage, Romeo & Juliet, etc., etc. Patty has been and will continue to be visible on TV and Patty is available to come and work with your station... Ready for airplay now is The Beauties with "Mother's Finest Son". The band has been out on the road meeting and greeting and acoustically entertaining various and sundry radio personnel across this great country of ours. The response has really been good. NOW...IT'S SHOWTIME...REMEMBER, PLAY THE HIP.

Roger Mayer, Capricorn, 818-990-8903

Unbelievable! The Dixie Dreg's "Take It Off The Top (Medley)" continues to build a strong story for quality rock n'roll. Thanks to every station that came on board and to everybody who felt the power of the Dregs and increased the rotation of "Take It Off The Top". This is great! Those of you who are curiously considering this track can rest assured that it works with the core and it works damn well... Please join us at midnight on February 12 at the Gavin Convention for a full-tilt, in-your-face, body-grinding dance party with 311. The mayhem will take place in the Colonial Room of the St. Francis Hotel, but may not be confined to that general area. Hey, expand-o-face, listen to and play 311's "Do You Right"! Sorry, too much coffee, I guess. Peace.

Jordan Jay Zucker, RCA, 213-468-4000

Greetings to all and to all happy days. The product is flowing here at RCA Records and first up is 21 Guns with their new single, "Walking". Many have seen and met the band, and with the release of this single we are going to put the boys back on the radio... The new Michael Penn single, entitled "Free Time", is finding its way to your desk and then to your CD player. This new remix by Butch Vig really fills the void on many of your playlists... We are looking forward to the end of March for the latest from Bruce Hornsby and we will be keeping everyone aware as to the exact date you will have the product... And still ahead - hold on for "the boys from Texas", ZZ Top, still on the upcoming menu from RCA... Be looking for 700 Miles, as well as Definiton FX. We will be rocking the house in '93. You know where to find me.

Paul V., Warner Brothers, 818-953-3567

Due to wacked fax machine, this is my first dialogue for 1993 (although two others were actually written, but never made it...) So, 1993 looks like a great year to break some new groups. We are pleased as punch for our first week welcome with Dinosaur Jr. (22 R&R adds out-of-the-box!). "Start Choppin'" is as commercial and melodic as J. Mascis has ever been, and this track could be mega! Early feedback from listeners is backing this claim up. KDGE goes to Heavy after one week, and it's WBRU's "Screamer Of The Week". By the time you read this, you will have the brilliant album, Where You Been. Funny. I keep hearing that Dinosaur Jr. could be the Neil Young of Generation X. Listen to this album and you'll hear why... Also in your hands as we speak is another mega-monster-massive new song called "We Are The Normal". Yes, the return of the Goo Goo Dolls! Paul Westerberg gave these guys the words, they wrote the music. The result is incredible!! Add date: February 8. Catch the Goos at The Gavin on Friday the 12th (at The Warfield with Ned's) and on Saturday the 13th, headlining Nightbreak on Haight St. Don't miss it!... Another new group playing at Gavin on Thursday at midnight in the hotel is a bunch of stylin', young dudes called 311 (that's three-eleven). You now possess the single called "Do You Right". Play this one loud, but don't try to categorize it as easy 'cuz that's hard - but what a HOOK!... We've also got a new St. Etienne track called "You're In A Bad Way" (add when you get back from SF) as well as Porno For Pyros, New Order and Swell... See y'all at Gavin. "I want to be good, but good is being simple/Simple is forgetting, I simply can't forget." ILLBCNYA.

Pam Edwards, Columbia, 310-449-2901

Please give more consideration to the new Leonard Cohen song "Closing Time". This artist has a deceptively large and loyal following. Would you believe that he sold close to 10,000 records just last week? That's more than most other records on your playlist. And, he's got the respect of his peers. Don Henley just asked to perform his song at the inauguration, Cohen was absolutely mobbed at the Rock N'Roll Hall Of Fame dinner, and his critical reviews are unsurpassed. Take 4:35 out of your day and give this quality artist some quality listing.

Cathy Burke, W.A.R.? , 212-964-3703

I've always been an Easterner. Grew up in Pennsylvania, went to college in Boston and ever since, I have resided in the godhead of all metropolises, NYC. So, you'd think that this sub-zero wind-chill stuff would be old hat, the norm, running through my blood. Incorrect. Take the last 4 hours. The alarm goes off and Howard Stern is blaring through my skull as he does every morning at 8 a.m. But today, the anxiety of having to emerge from under my layers of blankets and venture out into the 11 cruel-hard-degree-filled world was not a comforting thought. I stuck my toe out. It froze. Consequently, 20 more minutes passed while I cursed the NY State Lottery for not spewing the big payoff in my direction. So, I finally do it, get up, take a 90 degree shower and put on the long underwear. Of course, the only remnants of the plethora of pairs of leather gloves that I have bought in the last 2 years are two unrelated left ones. Comfort takes a back seat to warmth. So, I wrap up like a cast member of "Ishtar" with only the whites of my eyes showing. Luckily, walking to the train is not necessary, just by leaning in the approximate direction, the wind takes care of all transport. Now, let's talk about how long I waited for the downtown N train. When it finally arrives, there's this highly enthusiastic guy calling himself the "subway singer" belting out "Put On A Happy Face" in my ear and 10 additional people begging for money, only 5 of which are legit, but none of which I can resist. (My wimpy conscience resides in serious overdrive, but that's another story). The guy sitting across from me is staring at me in that "this could be the next person I chop up and leave scattered throughout the 5 boroughs" kind of way. And even the never-fails routine of pretending to pick my nose doesn't faze his psychopathic gaze. But, I do escape and finally, after a few more blocks of Wizard Of Oz recreations, I'm here. Of course, before the defrost mechanism in my body kick in, the lovely and talented Jim Lewi embroils me in a debate. It's a good thing that I'm going to the west coast for a few days right about now. Just enough time to hang with some of you at the Pollack Convention and in the tradition of "absence makes the heart grow fonder" (not to mention warmer) to remember how unbelievably much I worship the ground New York City walks on. Because I do. Most of the time. Anyway, play The Samples.

Kid Seth, Atlantic, 212-275-2086

I have been an avid reader of the comments section of this fine trade publication for quite some time now and the one thing that continually irritates me is the lack of literary inspiration some of you suffer from. Thus, I have decided to take a shot at adding some true poetic quality, while at the same time doing what they pay me the big bucks to do. "As the winter thickens and we all wish it was warmer the band called the Starlings release their song "That's It You're In Trouble" to all you darlings. It's really cool and impacts on February 8th so you can add it then. Mick Jagger is already so hot you can melt the ice on it. If that's not enough he'll be hosting Saturday Night Live on February 6th. Finally, we have the genius of the Penis themselves King Missile on tour beginning February 10th and playing the Gavin Convention on the 12th." So much for poetry, but at least I gave it a shot? Later.

Derek Ault, Alligator, 312-973-7736

Play it! Play it! Kenny Neal is next big star on the blues rock horizon. If you don't believe me, just ask Greg Solk over at KFOG or Tom Tueber at WWCD. Highly recommended tracks: "Right Train, Wrong Track" (what a misnomer!) and "Bayou Blood". Your adults really dig that bluesy rockin' sound! Do not ignore this one. Give it a listen, or I might start to cry. And, boy, is that an ugly sight... Little Charlie And The Nightcats are the perfect way to lighten up your playlist with their hilarious and musically deadly blues rockin' boogie. Check out tracks 1-3 for rotations and morning shows. Already on at KFMG, KAVE, KFMH, more... My reaction to Warner Bros' ad for jurassic period dinosaurs Fleetwood Mac is "Why not?" as in why not encourage album radio to live in the past with sub-par, burnt out, overplayed musical feed like "Don't Stop"!?!? Let's just face it, "Yesterdays Gone". There aren't any decent new bands left. Rock-N-Roll is dead! Long live The Mac! Hasta la boobala! Thanks for reading!!

Starvin Marvin, Smash/Island, 312-751-0020

Presence is a great new group from England made up of ex-Cure co-founder Laurence Tolhurst, Chris Yocell (then Jericho), Gary Biddles (Fools Dance), Rob Steen and Alan Burgess. Shipping today is the first Presence single, "Never", from their debut album Presence Inside arriving in stores 3-2-93... Coming soon on Smash/Island Records distributed through ILS are new releases from: Chris Mars, Yello, LaTour and Sheep On Drugs!!

Michelle Robbins, Hollywood, 818-560-5670

So being in Dallas during the Superbowl was quite a lesson in hometown pride - I really feel sorry for any Bills fans that may have been in town. The American Sports Culture. Well, I guess it's culture anyway. But enough about the "Boys"... At this very moment, as you read this, D.D. Wood's single, "Louie Cooper", from her forthcoming debut Tuesdays Are Forever, is on it's way - en route - in the mail - flying by postal wings!! So once you receive it - DO THE RIGHT THING - listen to it, love it, make it your own! BUT WAIT UNTIL 2/22-23 TO ADD IT (cos I know you're gonna...)... And, I know you've been waiting for this - The Fluid have completed Purplemetalflake music and before you know it, you'll have your very own copy to adore! But since you'll want to hear some new songs before March, we've got 'em playin' for all the Gavin attendants to see! Yesiree - Saturday 2/13/93 at the Great American Music Hall - be there or be banished from cooldom forever! (I hate to have to use threats like that - just go to the show!!)

Todd Bisson/Mike Webb, Columbia, 212-833-4511

A couple of years back, I had the pleasure of meeting up with a fellow named Mike Watt - he's of the much revered Minutemen and current conflagration FIREHOSE. There are few things that stick out in memory as more incongruous than the sight of Watt (the Mike is really superfluous) spilling on about the mysteries of all things Masonic in a suite at La Mondrian in Hollywood. If you've never had the pleasure of spending time with him, Watt is best described as a sort of mystical bricklayer who just happens to be able to pick up where Jaco Pastorius left off when it comes to wringing oddities out of a bass guitar. There is absolutely no one like him, and with his compatriots in sound Ed Crawford and George Hurley they make up a truly rare musical entity. Due out in a pair of weeks (February 22 to be exact) is the first song from the second album they've made for Columbia Records. That song is "Blaze". It and the entire album, Mr. Machinery Operator, are produced by J Mascis of Dinosaur Jr. One of this year's many missions will be to bring FIREHOSE to the masses. In this day and age of the superficial, there is nothing more revelatory than the real thing. This band is the real thing. If you need to know more, give Phil Manning at WOXY a call. He'll spell for a bit on the subject... On other fronts, Leonard Cohen probably gets your respect, but if you aren't playing "Closing Time", then don't patronize him... Shawn Colvin's new album is selling plenty, her new song is "I Don't Know Why", please play it a bunch... Mercury Rev are a rare musical find. If you don't get "Carwash Hair", give Robert Benjamin a call... Midnight Oil's new album is due at the end of March, it goes by the name of Earth & Sun & Moon. The first single will be "Truganini", listen for a world premier on Modern Rock Live some time soon. This record is quite simply the best collection of songs the band has ever written.

Artie & Jim, Alert Records U.S., 1-800-772-7640

Well, The Bills used an old Cowboy game plan - unfortunately the Cowboy was George Custer... You should have "Lager And Ale" from Kim Mitchell and Rik Emmett's "Let Love Conquer All" on, near or under your desk by now... Pinheads mistakenly take a left at Ann Arbor and continue to circle Mojave... And remember, a defeat for a local sports franchise is a local talk-radio victory - viva Joe six-pack! Bye now.

Nicole, Chris & Blake, Continuum, 908-709-0011

Groundhog Day has come and gone (but not for Bill Murray in that movie!), six more weeks of winter = six more weeks of skiing!... Ronnie Wood - MTV Unplugged with Rod Stewart - for all you lucky Pollack attendees. How jealous are we that we can't see this live, we can't wait for March to see it on MTV! We're moving right along with "Somebody Else Might" - up ten notches on Album Network and Hard Report with more stations coming in. We're also starting to gather CHR support, so for all you rock-leaning CHRs, don't pass it by! Adds coming in, with positive audience response to nighttime play, so give it a spin. There is a remix on the way - smoother guitars with a funkier beat that you can't resist - we won't let you! If you don't have a copy - give one of us a holler. Hope to be hollering with you soon.

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade, 805-522-9111

Dear friends at commercial alternative radio: This is a great week to keep an open mind. In the mail to you this week are two records from Metal Blade. The first record is the new single from the Goo Goo Dolls. It's co-written by Paul Westerberg and is entitled "We Are The Normal". Personally, I think it's amazing. Give it a listen... Also in the mail next week is a single from the Junk Monkeys entitled "Bliss" with a cover of The Cure's "Boys Don't Cry". This is a power pop band that deserves your attention. If you need anything related to the Goo Goo Dolls or Junk Monkeys, please give me a call.

Jim Neill, Jason Martin & Eric Kayser, Rhino, 310-315-3306

Husker Du was one of those bands that you couldn't use the phrase one of those bands that about. Forget it. Occasionally something matters but usually not. Everything Falls Apart And More is a bizarre reminder of how quickly time passes when you're trying to figure out what that damn nagging feeling is... D.L.Y. Many did, and their kids may never know just how necessary it all was or that when the smoke cleared there was no sign of a cigarette. It all burned up before the letters C and D ever met each other. Now a lot of it's gathered together on these 9 discs like a visit to the New Wave Museum. But if you close your eyes... Blues

Masters Volumes 6-10 out this month. Blues Originals: A disc of original versions of songs pilfered by white guys. Blues Revival: The blues boom of the '60s. Mississippi Delta Blues: Charley Patton, Robert Johnson, Son House, from the birthplace of the blues. Post-Modern Blues: Blues classics lovingly interpreted by Karen Glauber. Roots Of The Blues: Where the shit came from. We'll be doing promotions with high profile blues shows, so if you've got an idea, spill it.

John Butler, Mechanic/Futurist, 212-226-7272

Green's new single, "Hear What You Want To Hear", will be gracing your desk as you read this. Listen to it loud and let your listeners in on this genius trio from deep pan pizza land that is Chicago. The well-spoken guru Ira Robbins called Green "the most worthwhile Kinks-influenced sound since Big Star!" Ask Paul Marsalek and Lin Brehmer at 'XRT and Tommy Lee at WCBR about it. They know! Hey there NewPostAlter-ModRock radio!... Look out soon for Kreator very soon! Not only is this band set to smoke Metal radio, but this record is more than primed for you. Industrometal is born!... Murder Inc... Faves this week: Two Boots Pizza, Goo Goo Dolls at CBGB, Dandelion Fire, Chunky Beef Stew, AT&T. See you at Gavin where you will see the East Coast softball team victorious.

Michael J. Schnapp, Epic, 212-445-5987

And for the love in you all, Suicidal Tendencies gives you the heart-shaped vinyl edition of "I'll Hate You Better" in time for Valentine's Day (I ain't kiddin'). Don't miss Rage Against The Machine with House Of Pain on the road... And speaking of Arcade, they are currently on the road, clubbing it and getting sweaty and ready for their debut LP Arcade in April... By now you should have smiling fuckin' ears, courtesy of Living Colour. "Stain" will be sinking in in March, but "Leave It Alone" in February on vinyl! Once Living Colour's "Stain" sinks in, you're "Stained" for life! One more thing, I can't tell you, but soon, real soon...

Jon Nardachone, Atlantic, 212-275-2135

Stone Temple Pilots - "Crackerman" - Add the baby!... Dream Theater - "Take The Time" - Play the full version!... Sleeze Beez - Raise your middle finger and "Raise A Little Hell"... New Testament and Savatage soon... Overkill I Hear Black even sooner.

"Five Easy Pieces" - the new single from Dirty Looks. Add me Feb. 15th & 16th.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood, 818-560-5670

Damn, #1 Most Added Sacred Reich single, love it! You got it, you loved it, you added it (except for the very few who know exactly who you are), now chart it higher and higher. Considering the smokin' single "Independent", an amazing album to follow on March 1st, a hard as hell vid, and a Pantera tour beginning on March 3rd, I would say that this band will be in your face for good!... Rattlebone's next track "X-Ray Eyes" goes for adds next week, so if you have not paid attention, please do so. The Bone guys are out and about on the road these days and if you wish to hook up with them, let us know... How about that T-Ride record that people just can't get enough of? There is more on the way like a special mix of "Ride", so keep your pants on... The Fluid's special blend of "Spunk Rock" will be at your doorstep on April 26th with a cool little diddy entitled "7/14" from the album Purplemetalflakemusic. What does the title "7/14" refer to, you ask? Bastille Day, of course. Look for an advance from these guys soon. The Fluid have such a unique style that they leave most harder alternative acts looking for an identity - so check it.

Steve Prue, Concrete, 212-645-1360

ADD BUTTHOLE SURFERS - "GOOFY'S CONCERN" NOW!!!! Yeah, so there's a man with elephantitis of the testicles on the cover of the Surfers' EP, this record's got balls, hahahahahahaha, I kill me... Spread Eagle is singing the song of chart topping... can y'all say Top 10? I knew you could. "Devil's Road" and "Revolution Maker" are the paths of sweetness and light - play them, I want hot water!... Circus Of Power cold rockin' your world - louder, harder, faster - "Heaven And Hell"... Can you say buzzing? Can you say Style Monkees? The charts are showing me y'all can. How do you spell radio love? "Gotta Be Heard" and "Ustify" (the lawsuit mix)... What makes small girls faint and grown suits rub their hands together in glee? Dream Theater - this band can do no wrong - almost Top 10, sold-out tour, 200,000+ sold. Can you say Gold in the near future (fingers crossed). Help the boys become huge - let's go Top Five! This in Russ words "is a win-win scenario" (I have an idea what this means, but oh well)... Masters Of Reality is making rumbling noises - pls. don't ignore the sounds of billions of bong hits and impeccable musical talent - "She Got Me"... Dirty Looks is back with a new single - "5 Easy Pieces", Low Pop Suicide full CD adds next week, and pls don't add Quicksand until 3/8. Gotta run, Toxic Tommy is rampaging up and down the halls due to Dallas reigning supreme.

Jessica Harley, Elektra, 212-275-4106

I love my job! I still think this may all be a dream, but as long as nobody wakes me up, I'll be fine. What an incredible first week - Thanks for playing "Don't Tread On Me". Metallica is still selling close to 50,000 records a week and closing in on 7 million. So, if you are asking, "Why a sixth single?", there is your answer. Besides the fact that your audience can never get enough Metallica - so go ahead, play it!... Kyuss picks up KNAC and WRZK this week. The band will be wrapping up their tour with Faith No More later this month and will then hit the road again with more dates in the states. Reaction to the tour has been amazing - this band deserves your attention. Listen to "Green Machine" today!... New releases from Anthrax and Eric Gales coming soon.

E.J. Johantgen, Columbia, 212-833-4989

What the hell is going on here. What we have here is a failure to communicate. Circus Of Power should be one of the biggest bands today. "Heaven & Hell" is only but a teaser to the monster yet to come. If you played (or are playing) Danzig there is absolutely no reason why you can't play COP as well. (Hell, I know they're not as evil, but kick just as much ass). The band will be out and about the southern Cali area the end of February, and make their way to the east coast in March. Crushing... Collision will rip your fucking head off as the opener for Ugly Kid Joe. Maximum Respect is demanded... Alice In Chains on tour in Europe. Feb. 15 is the official add date for the "Rooster". What a masterpiece. Back to the states in April... Warrant on tour... Early forecasting. Top 3 bands on 1993: Cathedral, Monster Magnet, Sleep.

Clarissa Garcia, Def American, 818-973-4545

Okay, Dallas won. Can we move on now? This is the week to add "Rain" by Trouble. Two weeks ago, KNAC added "Rain" and it was #8 in requests. Last week, "Rain" moved to Medium at KNAC and that, my dear, is only the beginning. Add it for yourself and you'll see... Danzig (with special guests, Monster Magnet) will be at the Universal Amphitheatre on Friday, February 12th. The Universal Amphitheatre is new to heavier shows, but the response has been overwhelming... You can do the Flipper Twist! Dial 1-818-973-4545 and ask for me. I'll send out American Grafishy by Flipper direct to your station. Each CD comes in a convenient carrying case and will be packaged in a discreet brown mailer. Place your order today!... Listen to Rockline on February 15th because Dan Baird will be one of the featured artists... Congratulations to Sir Mix-A-Lot on winning Def American's first American Music Award last week... Congratulations also to Sue Stillwagon and Joanne Grand on landing jobs with Hollywood Records and Round The Globe Music, respectively... Last week, Def American and Warner Bros. were invited to a showcase at The Laugh Factory.

MORE Radio Comments

The showcase was somehow connected with In Living Color, but I'm not exactly sure how. Most of the comedians were very funny, but watch for A.J. Jamaal. He was so funny my face hurt from laughing and I couldn't breathe. I wanted him to do his monologue forever because he was great, but I also wanted him to stop because I thought I was going to explode. Speaking of explosions, Happy Valentine's Day, dahlink!

Jesse Lombardi, Restless, 213-957-4357 x224

Uncle Slam nice debuts! Great chart moves! If you are missing the pro, call me right now. Don't be late on this project, you owe it to your audience! Interviews are available now along with autographed posters. The Venice Comes To Your Hood Tour kicks off in April. Thank you to everyone that is supporting these Venice locsters... Dumpster Juice Dumpster Juice Dumpster Juice Dumpster Juice. Dumpster Juice is the first Spanish Fly Records full length release. I really enjoyed what I heard, so I fought for full metal servicing. I hope you all love it like I do! (My neck is on the line). The record is titled That Not So Fresh Feeling to be released the first week in March. They remind me of White Zombie meets Murphy's Law... There are three metal asst. in the Restless Metal Department - Tim, Dave and Joe. They have been leaving messages as if they were me! This may answer the question of "Jesse, I just talked to you and there is a message from you again." Please be nice and treat them well, and if they offend you, don't hold me responsible.

Mark "Psycho" Abramson/Tom Gates, Roadrunner, 212-219-0077

Psycho: I can not believe that I sat there talking to someone 5000 miles away having a discussion on the effect that one small furry mammal has on society in determining the future. I also can not believe that we as a society give a rats ass if a damn groundhog sees his damn shadow. A shining example of where we're headed. Anyway, where we're headed is what we wish to discuss... Gruntruck is headed to the Top 5! This record is still making all new peaks on some trades, I want this record to crush! The band returns from Europe with Pantera (2/20). Then, they will head out to do the US again, dates will follow! Call me for giveaways... Where Biohazard is headed is simple, #1! Already #1 in CMJ, all the other trades are about to follow suit! Biohazard tour is underway and they will play everywhere! Call me for info... Do you play brutal shit? Gorguts, At Death's Door II and Deicide are all getting great phones. Call me for giveaways. Do NOT forget about Fear Factory, they will be doing the west coast with Biohazard and Sick Of It All!... I saw the Goo Goo Dolls this weekend and they kicked ass (as usual) Buffalo style!... Ice Cube... Life Of Agony... Bolt Thrower... Denis Leary... See ya!

Mert Dunne, Megaforce & Crazy Mgmt., 908-972-3456

Well, at least the commercials were worth watching. I'm even a Dallas fan, but I was hoping to get to watch them play football, not just give lessons. OK, I was really watching to see Michael Jackson! Right!... Nudeswirl have finally arrived! The full length and the lead single, "F Sharp", should be on the air by now!... Skatenigs also have a new single, it's a cleaned up version of "Chemical Imbalance". There are two new versions without the poem and without the cussing in the song, so if you have the FCC listening these are OK... MOD! THEY RULE! Nuff said.

Judy/Bill, AIM Metal, 800-275-0091/908-679-9111

Hey girls, Bill got his hair cut and he looks real cool! If you want a picture, send a self-addressed stamped envelope with $1.99 to AIM Metal c/o Bill's Moving Fund. Now let's talk music... Every Mother's Nightmare are doing phone and soundcheck interviews while they are on the road. FYI for all you NYC pervs - the guys will be at Goldfingers on 2/11. Wake Up Screaming is doing great on the charts, keep it moving up. The reaction is great we're telling you. Check out tracks 1, 3, 5 and 6... The Pigface live show reports are pouring in and the general comment has been "They are God-like!!" There is still time to catch them, so don't miss out... The Jesus Lizard are going for adds this week, 2/8th, on their split single "Puss". The guys are also gearing up for their tour with Helmet starting sometime in March... Ugly Kid Joe have started their tour and things are going great! If you desire more info, call here. As you all know, "Goddamn Devil" is the metal track to spin... Therapy? have cool pads! Are you on this record yet? Are you charting this record yet? If no, please get with it. Don't be a nerd - all your peers are spinning it... Spread Eagle's incredible new release Open To The Public is making the request lines explode. The album is full of powerful, heavy hitting tracks that should be played over and over again. The first single is "Devil's Road"... Animal Bag is on the road and on MTV and on your charts! Thanks to all who are supporting the band and if you haven't yet discovered how truly amazing these guys are we would like to ask you to step into the '90s... A lot of you are giving a second listen to Valentine Saloon Super Duper and liking what you hear. Check out "Mindbomb" and "Smothered In Daisies". Give it a spin and let us know what the audience thinks. Until next week, peace.

Munsey Ricci, Skateboard Marketing L.T.D., 516-825-5549

So yo, Every Mother's Nightmare is still moving up. The tour is knocking on your door. Don't miss EMN live. They're gonna rock your socks off. Not to mention, a Goldfingers show. How can you not love that... Nuclear Assault is in your hands. The track "Something Wicked" is by far the best they've done. This new record is unknbnlvble. February 8 & 9th are the add dates. We are doing interviews now. Call us if we did not talk to you yet... The 15 & 16 we have Eric Steel Back For More. The single is "911"... St. Thomas will be on your desk the end of the month. Adds on March 1 & 2nd. Till next week, peace.

Maria "Mom" Abril, Relativity, 718-217-3600

Sick Of It All continue to move steadily upwards towards the kill. Victory shall be ours! The tour begins on the 12th. SOIA will be playing last (usually around 11pm) so you all better be there with bells on! On the east coast, Sheer Terror and Biohazard will be playing. On the west coast, Fear Factory and Biohazard. I'd like to do promotions with all stations in tour markets, so call me and I'll give ya free stuff. What a bargain... Brutal Truth are back from Europe and ready to do more interviews, so you'll be hearing from me on this soon. A 7" with Larceny will be released in the coming months... Bolt Thrower definitely made its mark one week out. "Where Next To Conquer" is the track... People who rule this week: Brian Medlin WXTB, Bob Thomas WBER and Brian WRU. Thanks guys... Overwhelming Colorfast has been bringing in adds consistently, now some actual numbers would be a concept. "Keep Me Hanging On" is the track... Add Contagious on Feb 15, 16. "Larry" is the first single/video. Thanks to all who attended the NY and Boston release parties... Tours to see: Confessor with Non-Fiction and Bolt Thrower headlining. Be there. See ya.

Susan Greenwood, MCA, 818-777-4118

Oh Hi!! So, both Flotsam And Jetsam and Spread Eagle are in the top of the metal charts. AND Mike Rittberg is going to be on Studs!! Isn't life fascinating?!... Anyway, Spread Eagle will be on the road next week. If you want to see or interview this very cool band, call me or Katy Merrick right away!... Flotsam should be on the road by March. Stay tuned for specific dates. Oh, have all you AOR type programmers seen who added Flotsam's "Wading Through The Darkness"? It's very interesting and extremely cool! See ya!

Katt Fish, Rotten Records, 818-331-4151

Heyyy! What's the haps people? We at Rotten are quite busy these days. I guess that some of you know we have a new tour kicked off. First was Testament, second came Body Count and Exodus and now, third, we are headliners. Hey, you know what they say, third time is a charmer. And through it all, Pro-Pain have stuck with us. So look for the men around your area. Thanks goes out to Neil (you are a metal God!!). That's Metal A Mania, RIGHT!?!?! Take care and Peace!! Till next time.

Tina Bennet, Esquire, 516-547-0600

Let me get the personal stuff out of the way first. I have to say a special thanks to Dan Schumaker from KSEZ in Sioux City, IA for the most excellent cow shirt. Dan I'll send you a picture with me wearing the shirt lounging on the cow couch. MOOOO! Plus you're cute!... So, it's back to business. Looks like Widomaker will be hitting the road again on February 9th. Joe Franco, their drummer, broke his foot a few weeks ago and it seems like he made a full recovery. Well, here are dates - Feb. 9th-Daiquiris (Winber, PA), Feb. 10th-Graffiti's (Pitts, PA), Feb. 12th-Harpo's (Detroit, MI), Feb. 13th-Interaction (Stone Park, IL) and Valentine's Day-Roxanne's (Toledo, OH). If you're around go and check them out. Dee and his group are excellent live. But, I saved the best for last. Dee Snider will be in Tampa on Feb. 6th hanging out with Ron Michaels and the guys from WXTB at the Gasperella (hope I spelled it right) Fest. More news next time.

Greg Derbas, Red Light/Grind Core, 708-297-6538

It's time to pull a Ren & Stimpy and pull off the top of your head, toss in copies of Pitch Shifter and Accidental Suicide and flush 'em down. Don't forget to jiggle the handle. Just in case your not a big Ren & Stimpy fan, throw on Pitch Shifter and Accidental Suicide CDs looking for adds now! Don't get left behind, because we've got more coming your way... The long awaited Vital Remains' Let Us Pray and At The Gates The Red Sky Is Ours on your desk at the end of Feb. That's all for now. Call if you need anything.

Michael Rittberg, Metal Blade, 805-522-9111

Thanks to everyone at metal radio for their first week support of our new band Desultory. It's great to see stations and programmers get behind a brand new band so quickly. Personally, I love stations that want to be on the cutting edge of new music. The emphasis track from Desultory is "The Chill Within"... The Cannibal Corpse/Epidemic/Unleashed tour is about to begin. If you want to go, make sure you give me a call. Keep playing Cannibal Corpse and look for 2 unreleased tracks coming your way in mid-March... Other things you should be spinning include: Malhavoc, Epidemic and GWAR (Grammy nominated)... Upcoming releases include: Panic, Anacrusis and Merciful Fate. If you need anything, give me a call.

Casey Kasem, Mechanic/Futurist, 212-226-7272

Hi, this is Casey Kasem, and you're listening to America's Top 40. This week our American Top 40 Special Spotlight Artist is England's GBII, a highly underrated English punk/metal band. GBII has been putting out singles and albums for over 11 years, along with consistent sold-out tours, yet they have never received the recognition they deserve. (That's right - Ed.) That's about to change! Their new CD Church Of The Truly Warped is face smashing, gut busting, leg breaking (let's talk about Grievous Bodily Harm, shall we? - Ed.) and will bring this audience to their knees! (Hey, somebody check Casey for a fever. He never gets this excited! - Ed.) The first (only - Ed.) track spotlighted today on America's Top 40 will be the single, "Pure Greed", a high energy speedfest and you can dance to it! (In the pit, that is - Ed.) After that, America's Top 40 will play Church Of The Truly Warped in its entirety! (Hey, just hold on a minute there Casey! What about this nice Michael Bolton song? -Ed.) I've locked myself in this booth and I'm not coming out! I'm taking over the airwaves! "Leather Coffin" (you're gonna be in one if you don't get out of that booth! -Ed.), "Not Enough Hate", "I Need Energy" and "All For The Cause". Yeah, that's right! The cause is GBII, great tunes, Great Britain's Heros. Soon world domination! (Casey, baby, listen to me you can't do this! - Ed.) Oh, yes I can! Enough of this lame hairball music. I'm gonna give these people a clue, assault the airwaves!... Next up, The Best Of cyberpunk visionaries Voivod, Kreator's bravest, brutal Kreation Renewal and look out for the funky stylings of San Francisco's Mordred with their 6-track EP, Vision. I'm Casey Kasem for America's Top 40.

Missi Callazzo, Megaforce & Crazy Mgmt., 908-972-3456

Nudeswirl! F Sharp should be at your station this week! It is an amazing record! Give it a serious listen and let us know what you think! We are going for adds this week! If you need a copy please give me a call!... Also look for the radio edit of "Chemical Imbalance" from Skatenigs! This is also a great track, and please be sure to listen! Skatenigs are still on tour with the legendary Fear, and will do some headline dates when this tour is complete! Call us for dates! Thanks! Bye!

Cindy Feldman, Feldman Entertainment Group/"Inside Rock", 212-543-0714

I'm now the producer and host of a new music video show on cable called "Inside Rock" - a show totally devoted to the rock and metal scene - that will air on CATV Channel 3 in March. And, I'd love to discuss the program in more detail with all of you, so, call me at 212-543-0714 for the scoop! And, I look forward to working with all of you on some killer promotions again! Thanks for your continued support!
