David Lee Roth, "She's My Machine," Reprise Though Dave has repeatedly demonstrated his dexterity in a myriad of musical approaches, it's his full on originals that endure, a la "Just Like Paradise". Now, Dave's got a who new addytood, as we say in Philly. New label, new hotshot producer (Nile Rogers), and guess what? He's back to that signature guitar driven sound that put him on the map in the first place. The obligatory "women as drainage" motif is appropriately understated for the '90s, and his collaboration with old friend/guitar whiz Terry Kilgore borrows a lot more from the blues, than the bombastic hammer-on style that Steve Vai specialized in. Most of all, the hook's fast acting and totally radio friendly. Just ask Q104.3's Vinnie Marino. Or maybe John Cooper at 'PYX, "The high point of the week. Sounds great on the radio". From WRCN's Kevin Thompson, "I think it's a great record. A return to Van Halen."

HARD ACTS To follow

Collective Soul, "Shine," Atlantic WJRR/Orlando's Steve Robertson got this no-name disc in the mail, put it on the Six O'Clock News, and to his surprise, the lines lit up. That never happens. Then people began calling the station and describing the song. Steve directs the inquiry calls to Rising Storm Records in Atlanta, and while that was going on, local Orlando retail was also feeling the buzz. Once Rising Storm got distribution, Bingo, Peaches picks it up and gets instant #2 sales behind Pearl Jam, and ahead of Snoop Dog, STP, etc. Next, WJRR does a benefit show at a small club, drawing the biggest crowd ever at the venue. Oh, have we told you Steve's brother is in the band? Just kidding. No hidden agenda on this story folks. The group was great live, with "Blitzkrieg" how Robertson described the reaction to "Shine". All of this based on WJRR's exclusive air-play. Make a long story short: Atlantic reps Rick Brown and Kim Stevens heard it, four days later Prez Doug Morris inked the deal, and your local rep knows where you live. Thanks for the Remix, Doug. Nice improvement.

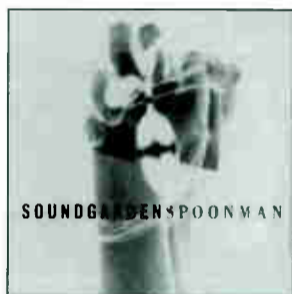

Smashing Pumpkins, "Disarm," Virgin Jeffrey Naumann has long stated that this would be the track to add another million units to the Pumpkins' total sales, and we'll second that supposition, no problem. As WAAF's Ron Valeri, on the track a couple of months now, proclaims, "Huge!! Requests and retail". Yo, Ron, how about the "too alternative" tag? "Alternative" is a misnomer now, is how I'd address that" sez Ron. From Mimi Griswold, WKLL, "This will be a top ten across the board smash from them". WVVV's Stevie Lynn agrees, "This track is taking off in a big way. Everybody is calling for them, with major phones for everything we've done from them. In fact, already top 5 phones on 'Disarm'. With retail cruising strong at the 2 mil mark, Alternative all over it, and Top 40 primed for a good run, wouldn't it be a drag if you had to call in playlist proctologist? Call it out. You'll see.

October Project, "Bury My Lovely," Epic AOR programmers consistently overlook active records due to tempo bias. The Crash Test Dummies "Superman" is a case in point. At the point that 75% of the twenty or so mainstream AORs playing that tune had top 5 phones, adding two more stations a week was a pull. And look at the Dummies now. When you consider the October Project, it's important to put that bias aside. In this case, "Bury" is anything but passive. You've probably read about WXPN's amazing success with the record, but don't think this is a regional phenom. Frinstance, after 99X Atlanta picked up the track, it sparked enough interest for the group to sell out the Roxy. Shortly thereafter, the CD became the second best seller at Tower Records and fifth best at Atlanta CD. Simply put, though the music is, as described by the Boston Globe, "airy and transporting", the heraldic hook is exceptionally compelling. The band is on tour with the Crash Test Dummies with dates next week in Augusta, Athens, Nashville, New Orleans, and Texas, with the new video by hot-shot director Josh (Pearl Jam, Alice, STP) Taft sure to add further fuel to the fire.

Soundgarden "Spoonman," A&M The long-awaited follow-up to the 1991 million-selling "Badmotorfinger" album jams 15 songs and over 70 minutes of music onto one CD. "Superunknown" seems certain to ensure Soundgarden's place in the pantheon of Seattle bands. "Spoonman" debuts at 29* on the Hard Hundred, debuts at 9* on the COR chart. It's the second most-added track of the week with 79 stations. "People know at this point how strong, how important, Soundgarden was in the whole development of the Seattle sound phenomenon," says John Duncan at WLZR. "Instant phones, great songs," reports Stevie Lynne at WVVV. "Already spotted them on our request sheets." "It's awesome," adds David Rossi of WAVF. "It totally takes Soundgarden to a whole other level. They're realizing their potential." Phil Marlowe at WCCC says the new album is "more down to earth, more melodic and easier for the majority of programmers out there to latch onto." "It's just freakin' excellent," observes KSQY's Jim Kallas. "I had high expectations for Soundgarden, and they surpassed every one of them," says KDJK's Jeff Reidel. "We think it's going to be monstrous, with the recent success of Pearl Jam," says Jim Naylor at KRFD. "Not just another grunge record," says Jay Sisson at WIXV. "I think it puts them in the ranks of some of the more well-known Seattle bands." "It'll probably be top five phones by the time I tally it up next week," says WKLL's Mimi Griswold. "It's very radio-friendly, as is the whole album. Following on the heels of Alice In Chains, Soundgarden might not be so scary."

CATCH THE MEAT PUPPETS ON TOUR WITH BLIND MELON

ALAN PARSONS "Oh Life (There Must Be More)," ARISTA The "Try Anything Once" album was a pleasant surprise, despite the absence of former collaborator Eric Woolfson and his vocals. And this track is a deceptive song, as offbeat as it is untraditional.

Debuting at 100* on the Hard Hundred, "Oh Life" has five adds this week including KEZE, KQWB, KSEZ, WPDH and WRUF. "Oh Life, 'ain't it great!", says Scott Steele of WRUF. "It's a great day to be alive, especially with Alan Parsons around." What makes this album fresh is that Parsons has co-written material with guitarists David Pack and Ian Bairnson. The hook to this song doesn't reveal itself immediately, but quietly emerges. While Parsons' now recording under his own moniker, let's not forget how the Alan Parsons Project has paved the way for a number of contemporary AAA acts.

BROTHER CANE, "Hard Act to Follow," VIRGIN Kevin Thompson at WRCN says this is the track with "the hook from heaven." "If I had a hook like that, then went fishing, I'd catch 'Jaws.'" Thompson says. "I've been championing them since the beginning." The figures back him up — 19-16* on the Hard Hundred, 20* on the COR singles chart. Seventh most-added this week, with 19 new reports including WAQX, WEGR, KATS, KCLB, KQDS, KSJO, WAAF, WLAV, WONE and WOUR. Touring with Aerosmith has only increased this band's credibility. "West Michigan loves 'em," says WMRR's Guy Perry. "They've been here two times in the last four or five months, and they're selling." "Surprisingly, the third track seems to be the charm," says John Cooper at WPYX.

CRY OF LOVE, "Too Cold in Winter," COLUMBIA "Cry Of Love is not a band that has been created and perpetuated by hype and media," says guitarist Audley Freed. "We are about music — not image." This group of four young musicians from North Carolina has another good week on the Hard Hundred, moving 43-28*, and rising 46-33* on the COR chart. Thirty-one adds this week including KOME, KSHE, WLZR, WRIF, WRUF and WUFX, making the track fourth most-added. The band's been on the road since the release last year of its debut album "Brother." It's a tribute to the success of this band's stripped-down rock that they've had the balls to go to radio with a track that fades in. Michael Cross at KJKJ says Cry Of Love are his favorite band. He's been on their track since December 6. "It's always 30-below here," he says. "A year ago, I knew I was gonna play it."

THE BAND, "Remedy," PYRAMID Classic albums from The Band, like "Stage Fright" and "Cahoots", still sound as fresh today as they did when they were released, and the new album further emphasizes that their music is timeless. Three adds this week including KEZE, WROQ, with WVVV increasing play this week to heavy. There's also heavy play at KFMH. "Remedy" debuts at 99* on this week's Hard Hundred and goes to 26* at AAA. Even though The Band is often imitated, nobody comes close to the sound of this band, largely due to Levon Helm's vocals, hooks, homespun wit and insight. "Anyone who's been a fan of the band from before will be a fan of this song," says Gary Allen at KEZE. "Remedy" is good stuff," says Kevin Walsh at WVVV. "We're in the south and the people here love it. It's catchy. Good to have them back."

BUFFALO TOM, "I'm Allowed," BEGGARS BANQUET/EASTWEST You've got to like a guy as sincere as bass player Chris Colbourn, who told Rolling Stone magazine last fall that "our moms are a big influence on us. My mom would love it if we still rehearsed in her basement." "I'm Allowed" has "the kind of sound that really grows on you," says Jim Naylor at KRFD. "We had really good luck with 'Soda Jerk.'" The album, described by one reviewer as "mood swings and social commentary with a beat," is 49-45* on the Hard alternative chart. "I'm Allowed" goes 60-52* on the Hard Hundred this week, with eleven adds including KEZE, KQDS, KQWB, KRFD, KRNA, WFYV, WHDQ, WKIT, WRCQ, WXRC, and WZZR. "It's got the alternative grunge edge," says Chris Kellogg at KFMZ. "There's a big base out there. It's fresh-sounding and hip. The phones are kicking in. If you had any success with the first one, play this one. It slowly builds and becomes more addictive." This Massachusetts band just got back from playing Japan for the first time, touring with the Lemonheads.

ELVIS COSTELLO, "13 Steps Lead Down," WB Costello debuts at 12* on the AAA chart, 21* at alternative, and 44* on the Hard Hundred. Third most-added with 34 new stations, including WBAB, WBLM, WMMR, WNEW, WPDH, WPLR, WPYX, WRDU and WZZO. Few developments have created such anticipation as Elvis Costello joining forces with his original band, the Attractions, including keyboardist Steve Nieve. "13 Steps" is our first look at the "Brutal Youth" album that features 15 new Costello songs, co-produced by Mitchell Froom. This is the first time Costello & The Attractions have recorded together since 1986's "Blood & Chocolate." "He's captured the sound of the Attractions at their best," says WRDU's Tom Guild. "Elvis sounds best when he's the most pissed-off. And he sounds pretty pissed on this record." "It's his best thing in years," says Jim McGuinn of WEQX. "Sounds like vintage Costello." "Pretty cool," chimes in WCIZ's Carl Craft. "Glad we're playing it," says KRFD's Jim Naylor. "Sounds like his older stuff, the things I grew up on, but kinda fresh." Costello and the Attractions are to embark on an extensive tour this spring. This is the most talked-about Costello project in years.

BLUE MURDER, "We All Fall Down," GEFEN There's a good phone story on this track with 51 stations, and a tour that starts the beginning of March. The record is reacting where it's being played — it's already most-requested at KBER, KICT, WHTF, WXTB and KTAL. Adds this week include KBAT, KNAC, WSHE and WMRR, helping the track go to 46* on the Hard Hundred this week, and 27* on the COR chart. "A good solid record," says WKLL's Mimi Griswold. "John Sykes obviously knows what he's doing," she says. "It's one of those good, solid, fit-the-format kind of things." The "Nothin' But Trouble" album should make serious inroads, being fresh, easy rock & roll that's easy to program. This is the perfect record to balance the glut of '70s-styled music (Peter Frampton, ZZ Top, Cry Of Love, Counting Crows) and alternative grunge that exists right now.

THE CONNELLS, "74-75," TVT We say it again, this track has one of best nostalgic female hooks on the radio. It moves 100-96* on the Hard Hundred this week, with three adds (KFMH, KSFY and WRUF). Beautifully arranged, the song really moves gracefully. There's a huge emotional pay-off in the hook, as the band's basically singing about a state of mind in '74-'75. Think about how much of your target audience relates to that decade gone by. The lyrics make it an incredible 35+ record, while the music makes it for anyone who's driven by melody. Clearly this is one of the best North Carolina bands, and they've been touring extensively. Any station in the East or South should take a hard look at this band, and for people in other regions this is the perfect chance to give a deserving band a push. "It's huge eight weeks later," says David Rossi of WAVF. "Top five phones every week and selling." Jim McGuinn at WEQX has been on the track for ten weeks. "It's a lot like the Judybats, being simple," he says. "It's a really well-written song." Tony Clayton of KSFY likes the "great mellow beat that flows." There's heavy airplay at KFMG, KSKE, WAVF, WEQX, WKOC. Belinda at KEZE says it's the chorus that makes the difference. "I was surprised that I like it so much," she says.

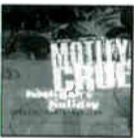

"We played W.A.S.P.'s 'Hold On To My Heart' on Friday and by Saturday we were getting Top 5 phones. I moved it into heavy and it's exploded to #1 phones!"

- Dale Miller, KATP

John Hiatt, "Buffalo River Home," A&M J B Brenner thinks this is the best song on the record and we won't disagree. The female backing vocals on chorus are gorgeous and it's got tons of emotion, a huge hook, and even a little Indian motif. It is about Indians, isn't it? Sixteen adds this week, including WHCN, WHJY and WMMR. The track debuts at 74* on the Hard Hundred and goes 47-33* at AAA. "You gotta love a guy who performs in a plaid shirt and work-boots and isn't pawning off Seattle grunge on you," says Pam Brooks at WHCN. "He's just giving you fun straight from the heart of a rock & roll man. We love John Hiatt."

Motley Crue, "Hooligan's Holiday," Elektra You have to look seriously at a track that debuts at 6* on the COR chart, and at 21* on the Hard Hundred. This is the most-added track of the week with 97 stations, and it's already most-requested at nine, including KEZE, KICT, KILO, WHTF, WIXV, WRCN, WTKX, WTPA and WXTB. "Already number one phones," says KMJX's David A. Ross. "Top phones and no negatives," says Dale Miller at KATP. Brian James at WBLM's had "number one phones out of the box." "It's very strong Motley Crue. Fans are embracing it." Jay Sisson saw number two requests at WIXV after only a few spins. "People seem pretty receptive to it," he says. "Top five phones at WRCN after the first play," Kevin Thompson notes. Yeah, the Vince Neil fans are vocal about missing him, but they seem to be greatly outnumbered. Some fans like John Corabi's voice better, others are being attracted by the Skinny Puppy mix. "It's great, like they are starting over in '94," says WTKX's Strummer. "John's voice sounds great, and it will be just in time for spring break." "In my opinion, they sound better now than they did with Vince Neil," says Rick Maybee of WRXL. "Corabi was a great choice for lead vocalist," Belinda of KEZE believes. "Sounds like Aerosmith to us — not your typical one-two-beat song from the Crue." "This was the make or break record and I believe they're going to make it," says WAAF's Ron Valeri. "It's a whole new band," adds KSFX's Tony Clayton. "It does not sound like a Crue sound to the traditionalists, but it's still got that same kick-ass attitude," says Mimi Griswold at WKLL. "Corabi has definitely got the goods."

W.A.S.P., "Hold On To My Heart," Capitol The band that the PMRC loves to hate debuts at 97* on the Hard Hundred, with five adds, KATP, KEZE, KFMZ, KQWB, and KRRK. An album three years in the making, "The Crimson Idol" is a rock opera about Jonathan Aaron Steel, a young man rejected by his parents and whose brother dies. A crimson guitar then comes into play. "We put it in on Friday and by Saturday we were getting top five phones," says KATP's Dale Miller. "I've moved it into heavy. It's exploded into a number one record." "This is a song I'm gonna have to add," says Michael Cross at KJKJ. "According to the New Music Line, this track tested 94 percent positive from my audience." Chris Kellogg at KFMZ says this is a track "in the power ballad tradition," the type of record KEZE's Belinda says she usually hates. "This one is really good," Belinda says. And maybe when you listen to "The Crimson Idol," you can see if "Chainsaw Charlie" reminds you of any record executives you know.

Meat Puppets, "Backwater," London/PLG After 14 years of being considered an alternative band, it's only fair this group is getting its shot at mainstream success with a commercial record that doesn't indulge in the strange twists of earlier LPs. "If you had told me back in 1985 that someday they'd be on AOR I would have laughed," says Jim McGuinn of WEQX. "This is awesome for mainstream. They're still doing what they've always done. They're quirky, cool, weird, everything that's beautiful about rock & roll." David Rossi's moved the track to heavy and opened the dayparts at WAVF because of the top five phones the track's been getting. Perhaps it's a bit early to say this, but we think this is, thus far, the most significant alternative cross-over record at the two-week mark. Gaze at these statistics: 38-26* on the Hard Hundred, 41-25* on the COR chart, and the album goes 21-17* on the alternative chart. Thirty-one adds this week include KIOZ, KISS, KLLO, KRXQ, KSJO, WAAF, WDIZ, WHCN, WJRR, WRIF and WXTB. "Backwater" is already most-requested at two stations, WAVF, WTPA. Phil Marlowe at WCCC calls the Meat Puppets "another alternative band that's come up through the ranks and is deserving of some mainstream airplay." Ron Valeri of WAAF likes the "infectious guitar hook," and Chris James at WTPA thinks "it will jump 10 notches a week 'til it gets to number one." Currently touring with Blind Melon, the Meat Puppets play dates this spring in Europe with Nirvana and Soul Asylum. Belinda at KEZE really likes the opening guitar hook. "Just the riff grabs you right off the bat," she says, "ditto those great harmonies. Sounds great on the air."

Tool, "Prison Sex," Zoo They've just begun a three-month U.S. tour after dates in Europe, so people who saw them on Lollapalooza last year can bring their friends to see 'em this time. The buzz is that "Tool are the next big thing." Chart moves include 36-34* on the Hard Hundred, with six adds this week: KEYJ, KLPX, KQWB, WKLC, WRIF and WSTZ. Heavy airplay is being reported by KEZE, KIBZ, KISW, KNAC, KZRX, WAAF, WVCR, WVVV. When a mainstream station like KLOS bangs "Sober," then you're foolish not to play this track if you perceive yourself as even just slightly adventurous on the hard-rock side. "What a great tune and a great band," says Kevin Walsh at WVVV. "A kick ass song. The phones are ringing off the hook. Here's a band that can manage to get play on both "Headbanger's Ball" and "120 Minutes," with the "Prison Sex" video which was produced by Adam Jones and Tool and is set in a bizarre, nightmarish world. A tool is always handy.

John Mellencamp, "Baby Please Don't Go," MCA John Mellencamp goes in the way-way-back machine to an early R&B classic which reeks of tremendous soul. It's from the soundtrack to the Nick Nolte movie "Blue Chips," which also includes some fabulous catalogue tracks like John Lee Hooker's "Money," Slim Harpo's "Shake Your Hips," and Al Green's "Let's Stay Together." The track debuts on the Hard Hundred at 60*. "This has always been a good song," says John Cooper at WPYX. "Now it's in capable hands." "I like it," says WTPA's Chris James. "This type of blues is something we can deal with." "It's kinda cool," says Marty Bender at WFBQ. "A good song. I think he does a nice job." Mellencamp's last album started quietly but came on strongly over a long life. When a track like "When Jesus Left Birmingham" can get airplay, that speaks well of an artist. Programmers seem to agree as "Baby" is sixth most added this week with 22 adds, including WBAB, WHCN, WNEW, WPYX and WZZO.

Tori Amos, "God," Atlantic She's a startlingly expressive singer, already 2* on the Hard AAA chart. She moves 87-76* on the Hard Hundred, with six adds this week, including KCQR, KEKO, KEYJ, WBAB and WHDQ. "God" is already most-requested at KRNA and WEQX. "For a rock & roll LP in the market, Tori's new effort once again is in the top 15," says Chris James at WTPA. Riki Hofberg of WMMR is also struck by Amos' keen arrangements, skillful and dynamic piano-playing on her new 12-song disc. "A wonderful artist, huge sales," Hofberg says. "God" is working real well for us."

RICK BALIS TO PROGRAM KSD-FM

Karen Carroll, VP/GM of EZ Communications' classic rocker KSD-FM/St. Louis, this week announced former KSHE and WLUP PD

Rick Balis as her station's new Program Director. Balis spent 11 years in the St. Louis market at KSHE, programming the station from 1984 to 1991, during which the station achieved the highest ratings in its history. "What a coup for KSD-FM!" was Carroll's comment. "When KSD went on the air as the classic rock station in St. Louis, its number one competition was Rick Balis at KSHE. His expertise, knowledge, and integrity make him one of the industry's top Ops Managers. Rick is a major part of EZ Communication's continuing investment to make a great radio station bigger than life." EZ owns KYKY-FM in St. Louis, and purchased the KSD stations in September 1993. The combined stations are now second in the market, billing approximately 20% of the radio dollars in St. Louis. Says Balis, "I have been waiting for the right opportunity to make my re-entry to programming. EZ Communications, KSD-FM, and the Midwest - St. Louis in particular - is an ideal combination." Reach Rick at KSD starting February 21st.

THE APPLE'S NEW MUSIC DIRECTOR

Congratulations to WNEW-FM's newly confirmed Music Director, Amy Winslow. Comments WNEW's new Program Director Ted Edwards, "After communicating with Amy over the phone in the weeks before I arrived, and working with her in the few weeks since I've been here, it was obvious that she was the one for the job. Beyond that, she is so well loved by the radio and record community that there would have been hell to pay if Amy hadn't been my choice." Amy started at NEW as an intern in 1987, and has since been a music assistant to MD Lorraine Caruso, then became Assistant MD, and the Programming Coordinator. Winslow comments, "This is an exciting time for us. We've got a new PD, a new morning show, and the challenge of facing a new rock radio station in the market. I'm thrilled to be a part of the station in this capacity."

DEREK OLIVER NAMED EASTWEST VP/A&R

Derek Oliver

Derek Oliver has been promoted to VP/A&R for EastWest America, up from Sr. Director of A&R. In making the announcement, Chairman/CEO Sylvia Rhone commented, "Throughout much of the '80s, Derek's enthusiasm and knowledge made him one of England's pivotal rock journalists. It is those same qualities, combined with an intense commitment to his artists, which has made him an exceptional A&R person and a major contributor to the growth of EastWest America. It gives me great pleasure to announce Derek's well-deserved promotion." Oliver began his career in 1980 as a journalist for the U.K. publication Melody Maker. He moved to Kerrang! at its inception in '82. In 1987, Oliver joined Atlantic Records in the U.K. as A&R Manager. Moving to the U.S. in 1990, he was named Director of A&R at Atco.

KRNA, Inc. Acquires KQCR

KRNA, Inc. in Cedar Rapids has reached an agreement to purchase crosstown KQCR-FM, pending FCC approval. KRNA President/GM Eliot A. Keller stated, "We're very excited about the opportunity to build on the accomplishments of KQCR/Q103. We believe this common ownership will enhance the radio market in this area." Executive VP/Ops Manager Robert K. Norton, Jr. explained, "We're looking forward to the radio programming challenge which buying Q103 represents. This will give us a chance to serve another segment of radio listeners in the Cedar Rapids/Iowa City area." VP/Sales David M. Kelch added, "We have a tradition of exceptional customer service and we plan to build on that tradition." Kelch is also Sales Manager of KRNA.

Jay Marciano has been named to the position of President, MCA Concerts, Inc., succeeding Marc Bension, who has resigned to pursue other opportunities. Marciano was previously Sr. VP/MCA Concerts Canada. As President, Marciano will be responsible for overseeing the Universal Amphitheater and MCA Concerts' other venues. He will also oversee concert events in Colorado and the Southwest, Canada and the Pacific Northwest...

RADIO RUMBLE

W AQZ/Cincinnati tapped Matthew Harris for programming duties at the Alternative station.

K CRQ/Santa Barbara announced several staff changes — afternoon drive personality Kelly Cox has added Production Director duties to her 2-7pm shift. Cox has been with the station for four years, and prior to that, was at KOME/San Jose. The 7-midnight airshift is now occupied by Cris Cohen, who segues from KLSX/L.A. to join KCQR as air and production talent. Cohen was producer for Jim Ladd's evening shift at KLSX for two years, and had been driving up the coast for weekend on-air duties at KCQR for six months before being tapped for the weeknight shift. Morning news voice and sidekick David Jay has also been promoted to full-time status at KCQR, adding production duties to his role as part of the "Matthew in the Morning" show. PD Tom Van Sant commented on changes, "It's exciting to reward the hard work of three dedicated players and promote from within. Kelly, Cris and David are all talented, hard working radio pros with potential to improve."

X 107/Hawthorne gave their listeners a chance to save their butt during the X107 "Oh Shi_, I Almost Forget" weekend. With only three days to go till Valentine's Day, the station gave away gifts including lingerie and boxes of candy to listeners who waited until the last minute to go shopping, only to find themselves snowbound. "There's been so much snow and ice this winter that dates such as Valentine's Day would be the last thing on many people's mind," said Promotion Director Bill Hesselberg. "So, we wanted to bail out our listeners who forgot, or who were snowbound during the weekend and couldn't get to the store to buy something for their sweetheart."

K EGL/Irving is inviting its listeners to catch greased hogs as part of The Eagle's Harley Davidson motorcycle giveaway. Eagle midday jock Russ Martin will demonstrate proper hog catchin' techniques. "I've been working with a greased hog on my TV show for more than four years," said Martin. "This shouldn't be any problem." The Greased Hog Catching Contest will take place on February 17, and names will be drawn from the audience for participation in the contest. The first five participants to catch a hog will each get a key that could turn the ignition on a 1994 Harley Davidson Fat Boy.

W WIZN/Burlington celebrated ten years of rock with a grand finale which included the governor, Dr. Howard Dean, declaring the day Wizard Day in the state of Vermont. George Thorogood live at Burlington's Memorial Auditorium, capped off a 3 month birthday concert season including the Tragically Hip, Jethro Tull, Robert Cray, Big Head Todd and Allgood. The 10th Birthday Celebration was also the unveiling of The Magic Bus, a full-bus add in WIZN colors — black, gold and purple.

▲ Putting your Sports Director (Chick McGee) in a chipmunk suit and having him come out of a toilet on Groundhog Day is a pretty typical radio event, however, getting Dick Vitale to call the event is worthy of a little publicity. ▲ A Billboard With A Brain — The new KZOK-FM "Talking" Billboard features an electronic LED panel which displays the artist and song title being played on 102.5 FM simultaneously as it's played on-air, and station information which is shown during commercial breaks.

"In the power ballad tradition, W.A.S.P.'s 'Hold On To My Heart', it's great!"

Having grown up at his parent's ski lodge in the Mountains of Vermont, you might think that Ned Horton's goals might have leaned toward Olympic Gold in the downhill, or at least trolling for the best of what the ski lodge had to offer. But, no, even as a child, young Ned could be found in the basement of the lodge, running his imaginary radio station. His dream became a reality in 1989 when, as co-owner of Tuned In Broadcasting, he purchased WRLT/Nashville, "Radio Lightning," changing the station's format from Lite AC to Triple A. A few years later, Ned purchased a then floundering monthly hard rock music magazine called Metro. He quickly revamped the format of the magazine to reflect the sound of WRLT, changed the name to Bone, and expanded distribution to nearly 45,000 throughout the state of Tennessee and beyond. Not one to rest on his laurels, Ned's latest entrepreneurial endeavor was the purchase and start-up of Alternative WRLG in Nashville, which officially began broadcasting the format at the beginning of February, after simulcasting WRLT from mid-October. We caught up with the owner/publisher/PD after a rare getaway weekend ...

I hear you were vacationing in Vermont this past weekend.

Ned: I spent the first 18 years of my life there. This weekend, it was just getting away, doing some skiing and skating — all the things that we don't do in Tennessee.

What a great place to grow up. So, how did you migrate from Vermont to Nashville?

Ned: Radio!

That brings me to my first question. You're co-owner of Tuned In Broadcasting, owners of Triple A WRLT and now Alternative WRLG in Nashville, you're the publisher of Bone magazine — how did this all get started?

Ned: I started in my basement when I was a little kid, with my imaginary radio station. I was always in love with radio. I used to try and listen to WLS out of Chicago when I was home in Vermont scanning the dial. I was a radio junkie as a kid. I went to school in Maine and got started in radio in Maine, right out of college radio. The first radio station I worked for actually sounded like my college station, it was WTOS up in Skowhegan, a really eclectic rock station. Then, I worked in Portland for about four years and the group that I was working for started buying radio stations around the country. They sent me to a station in upstate New York for awhile, and then to Tennessee, and then they went out of business. I was always looking to get into the radio business for myself, so I set out to buy the station that I was running.

And that was WRLT?

Ned: Yes.

How long have you owned the station?

Ned: The process started in about the fall of '89, and it's still an ongoing thing. The new station just went on the air October 9th, and that took about two years. Once I bought the construction permit, I had to go through all kinds of legal hurdles to get on the air. It was an interesting experience, building a station from the ground up. And it was just a few weeks ago that we started separate programming. We had been simulcasting to expand the coverage area for 'RLT. We still simulcast during the day, but at night we break away and do straight new rock programming for nights and overnights.

What was the format of 'RLT when you first started there?

Ned: When I first got to town in early '87, it was a 'Lite' station — John Denver, The Carpenters.

What drew you to the Adult Alternative format?

Ned: I've always just loved radio. I loved college radio. I had been working in CHR for a number of years trying to learn all the radio programming rules I could. And I never really understood why this type of radio couldn't work commercially. I was looking at examples like KBCO in Denver and KINK in Portland — these were commercial stations that had become tremendously successful. I just didn't understand why more markets didn't have interesting radio stations like that, that were built around the music. But most larger markets were void of that type of radio and everything seemed to be going in the direction where all radio was sounding alike. Everyone was using the same research and it was just getting boring. It was almost going backwards, 'Hey, I've got an idea, let's just play all the oldies. Let's play classic rock,' and researching it even further.

Did you do any research before you made the decision to take WRLT Triple A?

Ned: No. At that point in time, we really had no dollars to research and no time to do it. It was a Class A radio station that was kind of thrown in my lap and I was told, 'Here, come over and fix it. Fix the sales effort.' I told them that we wouldn't be able to make any sales headway until we have at least some sort of definable market niche. At that point, we really had nothing to lose. We were a soft AC, 'Lite-100,' trying to compete in a Top 50 market, with 3,000 watts and a sketchy signal that doesn't cover all eight counties. You have to do something different with that type of facility. To me, it seemed like the perfect opportunity to do a different type of radio station. We're here in Music City, and if there's a place that should be open to different types of music, it should be here. A lot of people make their living from music — they play music, they write music, they love music. And in order to do something with this signal and make it work in this market, doing a different type of radio seemed to make sense, rather than being a fourth AC, or being another Country station of some sort.

Where you consulted by SBR right from the beginning?

Ned: No. I guess we were doing the format for about a year and a half to two years, and I read that SBR had gone out on their own, so I immediately sent them my business plan. At the time, I was still in the process of raising money, and it was about eight months later that we hooked up. They had the experience to make the format work. I knew what I wanted to do and in a lot of ways we were doing it, but I needed some extra resources to help pull it all together and educate the staff and put things in finer focus.

Was it difficult finding a staff that understood the format and had the ability to execute it?

Ned: Definitely. That was the toughest thing, dealing with, or trying to find a Program Director. From my perspective, being the entrepreneur, starting this thing and having a vision of what I wanted it to be, I needed to pay attention to a lot of things on the business side and the marketing side. Being able to just hand it over to a programmer was difficult because everyone had their own idea. It was almost like letting someone loose in the playground with them thinking, 'Hey, this is great, no rules!'

And letting them loose with your toys.

Ned: Exactly. And what they wanted wasn't necessarily what I wanted, so I ended up losing the first two PDs, having to can both of them. They were taking the station into troubled waters that, as far as I was concerned, were directly against where I wanted the station to go. There weren't a lot of examples of framework out there, at least at that point, that you could show somebody. If you start at a CHR station, there are a lot of examples you can point to — 'These are how many currents we play. This is how our clock works. This is what our gold library looks like.' But if you are starting an eclectic radio station, there really are no clear definitions of how it should sound.

You can't draw a diagram for this format. The marketplace dictates the direction and the sound of a station, and that really can't be duplicated in another marketplace.

Ned: A lot of it is based on the sales position that you want to take in the marketplace and what's going on with your competition. I definitely wanted a more adult feeling radio station, one that was going to target the discriminating music fan out there, so that our sales efforts could target those types of advertisers. We were looking for more of a discriminating, affluent audience. If I had to have a small market share, I would want it to be that audience, as opposed to the audience attracted to the more adventurous, younger, new rock leaning sound. There is an audience position for that, but I didn't feel that the sales position there would help us.

Did the advertisers take a long time to buy into the format?

Ned: Our biggest problem was that we were a low power facility and had a history of turnover, as far as ownership and format, which is one of the reasons that I didn't change the call letters. We were WRLT for 'Lite,' and when we came on air we became Radio Lighting, 'From Lite to Lightning, the difference is striking.' We actually made a gradual transition, if you can believe it, over a couple of months. We started putting in interesting music, which sounded like it could've fit the Lite format, Shawn Colvin, and a lot of the folkier acoustic stuff. That was about a two month period, and then, with a bang, we pulled out all the other Light AC stuff and launched the new format on March 5, 1990.

You obviously have the formula down. The ratings nearly doubled from the Spring '93 book to the Fall book. What changes took place during that time that accounts for the ratings increase?

Ned: I think that a lot of it was visibility in the marketplace. We do the magazine, and the distribution was really starting to kick in. The magazine developed a lot more visibility, which just sells the radio station. The artists that are covered in the magazine and the ads that we have in the magazine for ourselves really added an extra dimension to educate people about what the station is doing. The other thing we did, which was a very adventurous undertaking that paid off in the long run, was a nineteen week outdoor concert series. Live, free shows in the streets. We worked it out with a local catering company and a local concert promoter, a kind of joint venture. We got permission from the mayor's office and closed down the street every Thursday afternoon and did live shows. We put up stages and sound equipment. We've had everyone from Zachary Richard to the Judybats perform. We had Maynard Ferguson around the 4th of July. We would draw up to 4,000 people for these shows. It would usually kick off about 5:30-6:00pm, and run till around 9:00. It's done in other markets, but the station got a lot of recognition, and a lot of awareness because we were doing all the work, we were booking all the bands. Most of them were bands that we play. And it was fun. It gathered a lot of attention for the event, and subsequently the radio station. The magazine and the promotions, those two things had a lot to do with bringing us a new cume. And working with SBR, we just continually fine tuned the sound so that it's a little more consistent and people know what to expect when they tune over here. With the team that we've got in place, we're making it sound better.

You've now assimilated a programming and music staff that you're comfortable with?

Ned: We really don't have a Program Director. I'm the Program Director. We have a great team. Michael Parks is the Music Director for WRLT. He moved here from San Diego in '93, and he's been a big addition to the staff. David Hall is working with Michael. David joined us from the classic rock station, WGFX. Heather Lose now handles New Rock. John Conlon is our Executive Producer. John's the one who oversaw producing the outdoor concert events that we did, which were called 'Dancing In The District.' There's an area down here by the river called the Warehouse District. We moved here a couple of years ago, and we're right on the street. There's a lot of restaurants and nightclubs down here. It's more of an entertainment district than anything. The Hard Rock Cafe is moving in this spring. Opryland just renovated a couple of buildings, and they're putting in a country dance hall. It's an entertainment district.

Are you starting to see a resurgence in the club scene in Nashville?

Ned: We have a pretty healthy club scene here. There are a lot of great local rock bands and singer/songwriters. There are a lot of talented people here.

I interviewed Ashley Cleveland last year, and she told me that everyone in Nashville is a songwriter. The guy who pumps your gas is a songwriter, the guy who fills your prescriptions is a songwriter.

Ned: You call on a media buyer at an ad agency, or an account executive at an ad agency and they're songwriters on the weekend. Everybody here has a 'day job,' and then they are songwriters on the side. Half my staff are songwriters. The people who live here love music. Nashville is just so much more than Country, it really is an industry town. Even though they play in Country sessions during the week, they probably play in a rock band on the weekend, or at least enjoy listening to rock music or different types of music.

How do you handle country music on your station? Do you integrate it at all into your playlist?

Ned: A little bit, probably more than most Triple A stations. We played cuts from both Wynona Judd albums. Mary-Chapin Carpenter was one of the first artists that we played on the station when we segued from AC, and that was really before she made it big in Country. Rosanne Cash and a lot of the artists that are now being marketed to the stations that are Triple A, we were playing them four years ago. Wynona Judd is one that most stations outside of Country didn't play, although, she got some AC play.

Before we go into the startup of the Alternative station, I want to talk about your music magazine, Bone. How did that get started?

Ned: I've always been interested in print. I've always been interested in other ways to market the radio station and to educate people more about the music. There's only so much that you can say about a record on the air. Listeners should know, for example, who Patty Larkin is. They know it's great guitar work and a nice song, but you can only tell them so much on the air. And a lot of these artists are not getting covered by the local newspaper. So, there was a monthly music magazine that had been floundering around for about seven years, having its ups and downs, and I purchased it and revamped it. It was more of an underground, hard rock publication. We upgraded it and brought on two topnotch publishing experts to run it — an editor and a graphics person and worked together great as a team — and they began changing the magazine to reflect the quality that the radio station puts forth. In essence, it's like another franchise in this market. This magazine stands on its own — a separate entity. It has its own awareness, its own credibility, its own fans. We can package them together and they cross-promote each other. An artist comes in to visit the radio station and does an on-air interview, and then walks down the hall to do a magazine interview and take pictures. It works out well.

Both the magazine and the station are in the same building?

Ned: Yes, we have two floors in the building here downtown.

Are any of the radio staff also on staff at the magazine?

Ned: Yes. The editor of the magazine does a Sunday jazz show now. One of the assistant editors for the magazine is now hosting the New Rock show at night on FM94, Heather Lose. Sometimes, they come into the company through one side and end up working for both, or one ends up being a segue to the other side.

How many full time employees do you have on staff at the magazine?

Ned: The magazine staffs three full time, and a lot of part timers, free-lancers and contributors.

Did you have a hard time finding quality writers?

Ned: Not really.

I guess you wouldn't in a city where everyone is a writer.

Ned: I think that it really helped that this station had bought the magazine because the station had already developed a reputation for putting out a quality product, and it attracted a lot of writers and photographers and folks that thought that this publication could really be something, and they wanted to throw their hat in the ring for consideration.

I know that publishing a magazine is a full-time job, and running two radio stations requires a lot of time and attention — how do you manage it all? How do you divide your time?

Ned: It's like the old saying, 'You only have to work half the days, just pick which 12 hours you want to work.' It's a lot of work, but since it's all revolving around music, it's a labor of love. We have a great staff here, a great team, and we seem to get through problems pretty easily. Everyone is willing to pitch in. Everyone wears a lot of different hats here and they can help out when one area needs some extra attention. It's just basically setting up good systems and having good people at the top of the departments that can understand the goals of the company and what we want to get out of the product. There's a lot of trust, going both ways, to make it all work.

Are you going to change the tone of the magazine at all to reflect the new station? Is there going to be an Alternative section added?

Ned: We're still exploring that. There's a lot of cross over between Triple A and New Rock. For example, one of our recent covers was Johnette Napolitano of Concrete Blonde, and obviously she gets played on both formats. There are a lot of artists out there like that.

That was the cover where she was dressed like a nun. That was great. Did your photographer take that picture?

Ned: No, she sent us that picture. I got some flack for that, but it definitely caught your attention. I don't know if you are aware of this, but one of the things that we are doing, and are looking to do more of, is in essence lining up affiliates for the magazine. We're doing two versions — one that's a Nashville version with the radio station's logo on the front, and the other version we do for a statewide record chain, Cats Records, and they're in Memphis, Chattanooga and Knoxville. So, we do two versions. Our version has WRLT/Nashville, and their version has ads for their record store chain, so it almost becomes their in-house publication, the way that Tower Records has Pulse. So, I've been sending the magazine out to other Triple A stations, hoping that at some point we would have another radio station in another market become an affiliate of the publication and distribute the publication in their market. We've been getting a lot of feedback from new rock stations wondering if we could do a new rock slanted edition. That's something that we're discussing, but we haven't committed to doing it yet.

What's your distribution now for the magazine?

Ned: Close to 45,000 statewide, and half of that goes into Nashville. They're distributed free through restaurants, nightclubs, record stores, grocery stores, etc. It's distributed like a free Alternative Weekly, but this is a monthly and it's all music.

Does the advertising staff of the magazine cross over into the radio station, or is it two separate entities?

Ned: I have one salesperson that is dedicated to print sales, but he sells some radio, too. The radio staff sells print when it makes sense. The radio sales folks that have a lot of experience have a hard time warming up to print, it's just another tool for them. The magazine really needs someone that's going to concentrate on print and can get excited about the publication.

When you initially took the magazine over, it was called Metro. Why did you change the name to Bone, and where did that name come from?

Ned: Metro was the old name, and it just carried a lot of baggage with it and it wasn't a very interesting name. And we were going statewide, so Metro didn't seem to make sense. It didn't say anything about music. We were looking for a name that said something about music. So, we searched and searched and searched and came up with hundreds of names, and none of them seemed interesting. Then Bone came up, and it was just an interesting name. It looks good on a T-shirt, and we figured that we could develop a fun image around it and more memorable one.

How long had the Alternative station, WRLG, been in the works before it actually came through?

Ned: Two years.

Was that a goal that you had when you first got into ownership? When you bought 'RLT, was starting up a companion Alternative station something that you also had in mind for the future?

Ned: No. When I was originally purchasing the construction permit, I was really looking for a way to do this Triple A format in Nashville and wasn't sure that I'd be able to purchase the FM100 frequency, so I started looking around for other channels and came up with this one and was able to buy it from the person that was awarded the original construction permit. Then the fun began — trying to get a tower site, trying to get clearance from the local zoning commission, get FAA clearance, get FCC approval for different things that we needed to do. So, as things were unfolding, we really wanted to wait and see how the coverage was when we got it on the air and how it was going to dovetail with the coverage that we already had. We knew that it would cover Murfreesboro, which is about 30-35 miles outside of Nashville and is home to Middle Tennessee State University which has 17,000 students, a significant factor in that area where the station is. Their college station is all jazz, so for the last year at least, we've been planning to do this special night programming to kind of test the waters and see how New Rock flies.

Overnights, you carry The Exxitt?

Ned: Overnight is The Exxitt, which is satellite-delivered. From 7:00pm to midnight, Heather Lose hosts a show, which pretty well mirrors what The Exxitt playlist looks like, except we localize it a little bit to suit our needs and to reflect some of the response that we're getting and bands that might be coming through the area. During the day, we simulcast WRLT.

How hard edged do you get with the Alternative at night? Give me some examples of some artists that would never be on 'RLT that are on the Alternative station.

Ned: Tool, Bad Brains, Eve's Plum.

What kind of response have you been getting so far?

Ned: We're getting great response. A lot of it is from that Murfreesboro area because I think that they are the people that had tuned over and were using that channel to pick up 'RLT, and they love it.

We're going to have to do some promotion and marketing to educate the rest of the market that this mix of music is out there. You can pick up the new signal, I'd say in 60-70% of Nashville proper. We're still working on doing some improvements. We're going to raise the tower some more. We hope to get a power increase, and when that happens we should have an even better coverage of Nashville. And that might be as soon as the next six months.

And then will you go full time with the Alternative?

Ned: We just want to monitor it and see what kind of response there is. We want to do whatever best suits the needs of the market and will help the company the most. If it's bringing new listeners to the Triple A format during the day and a new audience at night, we might just leave it. If it looks like the New Rock audience is really banging on the door and wants more, then we'll definitely flip it full time, if that's what makes sense.

I'm guessing that if the college people were listening to jazz, then they are starved for some good Alternative music.

Ned: I don't think that they were listening to the jazz station. I think that they were listening to their CD players. It's funny how many responses we see on the log: 'Moved here from DC, loved WHFS,' or 'Used to listen to 91X in San Diego, The End in Cleveland, or 99X in Atlanta.' People that have moved to the area, who were aware that this type of radio was out there, and are ecstatic that it's here in Nashville. One of the things that we didn't talk about, Lisa, is when I first came here in '87, we changed from the Lite format to Alternative, 'Rebel 100.' It was an Alternative in '87 and '88. So, the station had a history of Alternative programming sandwiched around the two dreaded Lite phases.

How was the market reaction to Rebel 100?

Ned: It was great. Rebel was very popular. But it was more of a 16-30 format, and this was before New Rock charts were out there. It was tougher to sell to advertisers. Toward the end of Rebel's existence in 1988, artists like Tracy Chapman and Melissa Etheridge were starting to hit the scene and we were graduating to a more adult approach. Then the station was sold, and the new owners didn't want a rock station, so they changed it back to Lite. So, when I got a chance to do it again, I started out with the more adult approach, a la KBCO.

Are you the sole owner of Tuned In?

Ned: No, I have a partner, who lives here in Nashville. He runs his own business.

Is he in the radio business, or just a music lover?

Ned: Just a music lover, a believer in what we are doing.

Do you have any plans now to expand to other stations or other markets?

Ned: I think we have our hands full! The biggest plans for expansion are through the magazine. It's so difficult to buy a radio station and begin building one. Those two experiences are going to be enough for me for quite awhile. But the publication should be an easy entry into a lot of markets, especially if you're hooked up with another radio station.

Do you do much writing for the magazine?

Ned: I wish I could, but I don't have the time. Both my parents are writers, and I was always a writer for college and high school publications. I kind of come from a media family. I would love to, but just have my hands full.

I think having your hands full is an understatement. How did you ever manage to get some vacation time in?

Ned: I have a consultant that comes in once a month that's helping me with the sales and management. He's been telling me for six months, 'The next time I come in, you just get out of here,' so that's what I did. I went to the home state.

Do your parents still live out there?

Ned: Yes.

Do they still have the lodge?

Ned: No, they sold that about 1970, and now they raise Christmas trees and write. They run their business out of their home, an old farm on the hills overlooking the green mountains and the Adirondacks.

Now that the Triple A format is growing so rapidly and picking up a lot of attention from the record labels and media, why do you think that major markets, like New York and L.A., haven't picked up on it?

Ned: Well, I still think that owners and investors would look at it as a risk. It's tough to get a hold of a signal in New York City, for example. The other thing is, it's not a canned format. We just had our classic rock station change to The Arrow, are you familiar with that?

Yes, I've been reading about it over the past couple of months.

Ned: 'All rock and rock oldies.' Owners jump on stuff like that. If it's prepackaged, and it's got a list of oldies that you can just slap on the air and attract some listeners, they love that stuff. This is much more labor intensive. It requires a lot more thinking and caring — developing the station from the ground up. It's not a quick solution where you just throw it on the air. Hopefully, there are more investors and owners warming up to this kind of approach. They waste so much effort jumping on something like The Wave or something like that, that you don't know how it's going to prove itself in the long run. I definitely think this approach has proven itself, and the KBCOs are testament to that, as are WXRT, KINK — the stations that have proved that you can carve out a niche and make it work.

Owners really need to understand the format, and be patient with it and let it grow and develop an audience. As you said, it's not a quick fix. Did you ever reach a point where you got discouraged with the format?

Ned: No. I love radio and I always wanted to be in radio, owning and running a station, and I prefer to run it the way that I want to. I'm not going to jump on Arrow or some Top 40 alteration just because I think it will work. I want to be proud of the product that I put out of here, and I firmly believe that if the product is good enough, then people will come, advertisers will come. One of the questions you asked me was what happened in '93 to help us with our success. I think a lot of it is just synergy in the industry with publications like yours, record labels and radio people recognizing that this works, that you can do this and be successful. We were probably on the forefront of this latest wave of stations that were launching this approach. We came on air in the beginning of '90, and then KGSR in Austin came on shortly after that. In the last year and a half, there has been a whole slew of stations that have jumped on board and started serving their markets. As this has been happening, there are charts to look at, there are consultants. It doesn't take as much hard work as it did four years ago to put the type of sounds on the air that we want. And we can get feedback from other people and other markets through the trades or record labels. And we're getting better product. We're not having to work as hard to search for different and interesting music to put on the air.

Did you have a hard time getting record labels to recognize the viability of the station and the format at first?

Ned: Yes, we did. At that time, we were looking for music everywhere. Then, everyone wanted to put us in the category with New Rock, and we're not. They were pushing bands to us that just didn't fit the sound that we wanted to put out in this market.

How is the airplay translating into retail?

Ned: I know that we're selling tons of records in the market. The labels realize that this Triple A audience has money and they spend it entertaining themselves, including buying lots of CDs and going to lots of concerts. They're passionate about a lot of things, and music is a big part of their life.

What are some of the biggest sellers in the market for the format?

Ned: Shawn Colvin did well. You mentioned Ashley Cleveland, she sold real well, the first album sold well, too. The BoDeans and Counting Crows are still doing real well. We have our own rack at Tower Records. It's something that they initiated because so many people came in saying, 'There is this song that goes like this... I heard it on FM100.' So, they put an end aisle up with our logo over it, and they get our playlist and they try to stock it with our most played CDs so that the people can just go right there and do their selecting because otherwise, they're sending them all around the store — blues, folk, rock.

That's an encouraging sign for the format.

Ned: I'm real excited by what's going on in the industry. It would have been hard to predict a couple of years ago that there would actually be charts and some support for the format. I guess that I had resigned myself to the fact that there were only going to be a few of us that really wanted to do this type of radio. It's really a gas to be able to talk to other owners and operators and talk to the artists that are touring and visiting all of these other stations. I feel like part of a family now, not a fool on a hill somewhere.

TRIPLE ACE

Bruce Cockburn. "Listen For the Laugh" Columbia We've gotten to the point with Bruce Cockburn where we expect his albums to be nothing less than brilliant, and once again, that's exactly what he's delivered. Judy Denberg KGSR, "We listened to the whole cassette, and it's brilliant. I can't wait to get the CD." Bob Terrill KCSU, "This is pure Cockburn. If you don't know who he is, give it a listen and see if you can tell who produced it. (Hint: T Bone Burnett)." Steve Cole KSPN, "Cockburn comes out rockin' on 'Listen For The Laugh.' This core Triple A artist has always been one of KSPN's favorites. We just opened it up out of the box and should be in the studio in the next 20 minutes. Rock on Bruce!" Jason Parker KRVM, "Wonderful rock n' roll for Bruce Cockburn. The single is great because it's upbeat and it's wonderful to start with. The rest of the album is mellow, and it should go over fantastic in this town."

THE HOT CORNER

Sacred Sources, "Live Forever," Guts & Grace/Cohiba Carlos Santana's collection of unreleased live recordings is the first in his anthology series, Sacred Sources. Triple A has been onto this album for awhile: Jason Parker KRVM, "It's just a collection of gems. The Marvin Gaye stuff will blow people away because he's incredible as a live act.

Also Stevie Ray Vaughan will instantly make a phone ring." Steve Cole KSPN, "Great concept. A big thank you to Carlos Santana for sharing his private collection. Stevie Ray Vaughan's 'Riviera Paradise' is generating huge phone response. The Bob Marley selections are among the finest Marley recordings in existence." Richard Murphy KSKE, "Friggin' awesome! Hot phones on Stevie Ray's last performance, and Bob Marley and Hendrix. In fact, this album is burning up the phones." Greg Roberts KKRK, "We've been playing it since Christmas. It left me speechless. It was one of those things where you can't play just one track for your audience, you have to feature the whole thing."

Sam Phillips, "Love And Kisses," Virgin The full album, Martinis and Bikinis, isn't due out for another couple of weeks, but the EP is getting so much attention, we thought it deserved a mention: Jody Denberg KGSR, "We've always liked Sam's work, and hopefully, the third time will be a charm. Now that T Bone Burnett has got a hit record (Counting Crows), maybe this will be the charm for the long tall Texan." Ginger Havlat KBCO, "We love Sam Phillips. 'Baby I Can't Please You' sounds like it could have been on her stellar album, the Indescribable Wow. Our audience should eat it up." Jason Parker KRVM, "It rocks more than the last one and has great thoughtful lyrics." Steve Cole KSPN, "Her first two albums are popular favorites, both with staffers and our audience. 'Baby I Can't Please You' sets a promising tone for another block buster album." Rick Williams KKDJ, "Baby, I Can't Please You" was an automatic at KKDJ. This stuff is truly wonderful, not unlike Ms. Phillips herself. It made me go home and listen to Revolver. Beatlesque arrangements and superb songwriting; if you can't tell I really, really like Martinis and Bikinis. And Sam."

What's Happening On The Cafe

Tue. 2/22: In the studio with Tara Key On her solo album Bourbon County, Tara comes off like an indie-rock Lucinda Williams. Taking time off from her band Antietam, she performs songs that both Neil Young and Velvet Underground fans would love

Wed. 2/23: Susan Werner in the studio. Check out this new Philly singer/songwriter who folk music queen Christine Lavin calls "the fastest rising new star in the folk world." We don't want to say (again) "WE TOLD YOU SO!"

Fri. 2/25: John Hiatt visits the Cafe for an in-studio performance... What happens when a normally un-plugged artist plugs in then un-plugs again? That's what happens when John Hiatt performs acoustic versions of songs from his latest album, Perfectly Good Guitar

Sat. 2/26: Encore in-studio performances from the BoDeans and the Cowboy Junkies

Young Dubliners, "Rocky Road," Scotti Bros. Nearly every track on this record picked up Triple A adds, with the majority leaning toward "Last House On The Street," and Black & White." But the Gaelic sounding "Rocky Road to Dublin" will no doubt be the centerpiece of St. Patrick's Day playlists. Colter Langan KMMS, "Love the first track. It's a must for all stations, especially around St. Patrick's Day. It out-Irishes the Pogues Track 4 sounds perfect for Triple A radio. It doesn't necessarily have the Irish edge to it, but it's a straight ahead pop song." David Anderson KQPT, "This is definitely a band to watch, reminiscent of DelAmitri. They're a band with lots of potential." Richard Murphy KSKE, "This is a fresh album from a great band.

We'll play it a lot more as we get closer to St. Patrick's Day." Greg Roberts KKRK, "One of the most refreshing sounds to come out of my CD player in a long time!" Rick Williams KKDJ, "After the first couple of listens, I knew that this was something that we could deal with. It fits right in."

S Smashing Pumpkins, Disarm, Virgin It may seem hard to believe that the Smashing Pumpkins could get any bigger than they already are, but "Disarm" could very well be the biggest track off of their already multi-platinum Siamese Dream release. If you don't believe us, ask your fellow programmers: Ron Valeri of WAAF raves, "...it's huge: huge requests, huge retail", and Mimi Griswold of WKLL predicts, "...that will be a top 10 across the board smash for them." The song accentuates Corgan's piercing vocals, with the backdrop of a light, yet powerful, blend of acoustic guitars and orchestral strings and percussion. The haunting flow of this track pulls in the listener and you will see an instant reaction on the phones. WXTB, WXZL, KRRK, WIYY, and WRZX among others are already on this, so in order to save your "breaker station" reputation, get on this amazing track right away.

D uff McKagan, Man In The Meadow, Geffen Gathering the likes of Slash, Matt Sorum, Gilby Clarke, Jeff Beck, Sebastian Bach, Lenny Kravitz, and Dizzy Reed is an achievement in itself. But gathering these musical heavyweights, writing and recording Believe In Me, all while on a marathon worldwide tour with Guns N' Roses is a Herculean task that most could not accomplish. "Man In The Meadow", the newest single from Duff McKagan's debut solo release, is a mid-tempo party rocker great for night-time airplay. The title track enjoyed a successful run at COR and on MTV, and with Duff's popularity (both with and without GNR) it's a guarantee that many of your listeners will want to blast this one.

F ight, Immortal Sin, Epic After a successful run at COR with "Little Crazy", Epic has another gem from War of Words in your hands now: "Immortal Sin". We realize that you have been briefed on this track previously, but since the official time to add this track is now, we felt that a friendly reminder (nudge, nudge) was in order. "Immortal" is a slow, heavy, anthemic track and if you can recall Mr. Halford's past history with anthems (ie: "Another Thing Comin'"), you will quickly realize the benefits of working this track into your rotation. The infectious riffs and Halford's snarls grab with such a hold that you will surely be stomping around your office within minutes. For the more adventurous, also included here is the heavier tolerance mix of "Immortal Sin" and two remixes of "Vicious" which certainly can add some spice to your airwaves. WBTZ, WVCR, KSPQ, and KZRZ have already jumped on, so give into the temptation of sin and watch the fun begin.

"I'm surprised I like W.A.S.P.'s 'Hold On To My Heart' so much because I hate ballads—but this one is really good. Play it and watch the phones light up!"

• Belinda, KEZE

CURRENT ORIENTED ROCK

WASP, Hold On To My Heart, Capitol The Crimscri. ldo. WASP's first studio album since The Headless Children, is a critically acclaimed concept album named by Kerrang! magazine as one of the top concept albums of all time. The U.S. release of the record was accelerated by the success overseas of the LP and a successful stateside club tour. "Hold On To My Heart", the power ballad now under consideration, stands out from most so called power ballads because it draws its power from more than the music itself. The subject matter - not just another typical boy meets girl love song - deals with the emotional anguish of being surrounded by success and "people", but still feeling completely alone. The tone of the song reflects the desperation in the character, and the sadness is piercing. Many stations didn't waste any time and have already hopped on this one including WWBZ, KBER, WVCB, KRRK, KATP, KQWB, KEZE and KFMZ. Dale Miller of KATP claims, "We put it in on Friday and by Saturday we were getting Top 5 phones!". This is clearly an impact record that deserves an extra listen.

Metal Pick

SOUNDGARDEN SPOONMAN

Soundgarden, Spoonman, A&M
 This one little tidbit of Soundgarden may not be enough to satiate all of you that are chomping at the bit for new material, but you'll just have to wait - not for much longer though. While we all impatiently sit by the mailbox, we have a fantastic selection off the forthcoming Superunknown release to whet our appetites for the time being. "Spoonman," named for a Seattle artist, has a smoother, warmer, tone than anything previously released by them, more in the ilk of Temple of the Dog. Chris Cornell's vocals, while still hitting those characteristic, piercing heights, come down to a polished, content tone. The vocals are accentuated by the massive, off-beat percussion of Matt Cameron and Ben Shepherd, and the soft guitar web spun by Kim Thayil. You've gotta love the bongos! Soundgarden has had a long history with metal radio ranging back from the Loudy Than Love, SST, and Sub Pop days, to the impact of Bleed From Me, which came crashing through a sonic assault on "Jesus Christ Pose." If you were lucky enough to see the Foundations convention performance just before the release, and watch Chris Cornell hanging on the lighting rigs (or if you've seen any Soundgarden show for that matter), you know the intensity of their live performance. Despite having a mellow feel, "Spoonman" is able to reach that intensity level that is so much a part of this band. With the past record selling over one million copies, three Grammy nominations, and a long run as an MTV Buzz Clip with "Outshined" (which is still getting considerable airplay as a Beavis & Butthead favorite), it looks like the year of Soundgarden, and this album is poised to break them through the roof, and this is the song that could do it. And the folks, such as ourselves, at metal radio can keep jammin' them heavy on the air and reminding the uneducated masses just where their roots are.

The Wildhearts, Earth vs. The Wildhearts, EastWest Listening to the full length release, Earth vs. The Wildhearts, is more fun than being a five-year-old at Disney World. This English fourpiece (formed by ex-London Quireboy Ginger and his mates Stidi, Danny, and CJ) have obviously downed their share of bitter and lagers, and this album sounds like a street party gone out of control. The "Suckerpunch" EP has been in your hands for a couple of weeks now and a few of you, including WMWM, KEYJ, and KMSA jumped on this right away. We aren't quite sure what the rest of you are waiting for, because the light-hearted nature of "Caffeine Bomb" - a lightning fast, incomprehensible roller coaster ride, with short breaks to keep you honest; "Love U Til I Don't" - a sarcastic love (not!) melody that ends on a riff-o-rama that would fit comfortably in any Metallica song; and of course "Suckerpunch" - with its fuzzed out verses, provides a break from all of the somber atmosphere and subject matter on the airwaves today. An FCC warning, however, to listen to each track before you toss it on. But other than that, grab a beer (or six), kick back, and have a party with The Wildhearts!

Circle of Dust, Brainchild, R.E.X. Music Has entered the industrial thunderdome. Ministry, KMFDM, and Nine Inch Nails had best beware because Circle of Dust, this New York City four piece that includes Scott Albert as the, well, brain child of this project. While playing with New York thrashers Immortal, Albert became fascinated with electronic music, sequencing, and samples. A friend who was a DJ on a weekly industrial show helped expand this knowledge, but Albert was not ready to give up the heavy guitar sounds of his thrash days. The collision of the two is the industrial speed metal sound of Circle of Dust. Just check out the guitar intro on "Prayers of a Dead Man" that stretches out to a robotic groove, and "Cranial Tyrant", the opening track which sounds like a wall of riffs running through a sawmill. They already enjoy early adds from metal programmers raving about this release including WCDB, WDWN, WKLL (John Lovely insists that this ranks with Ministry), WLF, WMWM and WRZR. Radio stations aren't the only ones playing this either. MTV Sports and Fox's "Music Scoop" have both used music from Brainchild on their shows. If great industrial speed is your cup of tea, this is a record you can't miss!

Grave, "And Here I Die... Satisfied", Century Media In your hands now is a limited edition EP from Grave, which contains a collection of songs that encompass their entire career. "Black Dawn", a rare demo track from 1986, travels at a furious speed, with knock-you-out pummeling riffs in the classic death metal form. Two tracks, "Day of Mourning" and "Inhuman", are remixed from their debut Into The Grave, and "Tremendous Pair" was an unreleased track originally done for a Century Media compilation. The title track, the only new track on the EP, has a fairly safe, melodic intro, and kicks in with Jorgan Sandstrom's evil growl, then drowns you with wave after wave of butchering guitars (courtesy of Jorgan and Ola Lindgren), and is nailed into place with Jensa Paulson's drums. Grave has gone through some personnel changes, losing their bass player while on tour with Massacre in '92. They recovered by fusing into a tightly knit three piece, and this EP is a warm up to their next full length release due out in May (on Century Media.) Those of you who enjoy death metal at its finest (as KZRX, WHJY, WFCS, WDWN, WEOS, and WVVV have already shown they do) slip this fierce appetizer on the air.

QuickPick:

The Spudmonsters

The Spudmonsters, Stop The Madness, Massacre This band has a warped sense of humor. I guess if you're from Cleveland though, do you have a choice? Think back to the mid-80s - remember the first time you heard S.O.D.? That may have been the first time you heard something that heavy and laughed your ass off all at the same time. This band will take you back to that day with songs like "Death Sucks", "Beer", and "10 Lbs. Of Sh*t In A 5 Lb. Bag", all of which clock in under 2:30 long.

Also check out "I'm Not Guilty", which is held together with a catchy hook and rhythm combination. The Spudmonsters showcase their hard-core background with an off-the-wall live show honed to perfection by opening for the likes of Biohazard, Pantera, D.R.I. and Slayer. Already pulled into the Stop The Madness crusade are KUNV, WAIF, WBAU, WEOS, WFSE, WMWM, WPSU, and WVCR. What exactly The Spudmonsters are searching for remains to be seen, but it will be a wild and crazy ride.

Mantissa, Mossy God, Polydor This Melbourne, Australia five piece (Adam Pringle - vocals; Chris Paine - guitar; Nina Grant - bass; Chris Collins - guitars; and Syd Green - drums) have enjoyed a great amount of success in the land down under, including a feature in the Australian Rolling Stone magazine, plus tours with the Red Hot Chili Peppers and Jane's Addiction. They hope to continue this success in the U.S. with their funky, tribal sound that is accented with a bluesy tinge provided by the female background vocals of Grant, and are the perfect compliment to Pringle's soulful croon. Terry Date, the production guru who has turned the knobs for Soundgarden, Pantera, and Screaming Trees, handled the board duties for Mossy God and fattens up the groove. In addition to the singles, "Mary, Mary" and "Land Of The Living", check out the psychedelic, phased, sea-saw ride of "Station" or "Next State Of Mind" with all of its dreaminess and flavor. Now, you have a variety of tracks to choose from. Explore and enjoy.

SingleMatters

Life Of Agony, "Through And Through", Roadrunner After a previous go around with this track a few months back, those in the label offices decided to throw it back out thinking that maybe some of you didn't get the impact of this emotionally charged song the first time. The band have firmly planted themselves in the Top 10 of the Album Chart (at #7, to be exact) and are currently perched in the 23rd position of the Spins Chart, meaning that with a song built around the double bass kick, vocal power stemming from the gut, and straight ahead guitar work - not to mention, tempo changes flowing into melodic vocal harmonies sewn in to create the depth of the tune - the re-adding of this track should catapult the band upward and onward. And, we like that.

take a rock n' roll stroll beginning with a March 8th gig in San Francisco, California... Look for Dig (Radioactive) to warm up the audiences on an upcoming leg of the Blind Melon (Capitol) tour. The first show of this double bill is March 10th in Milwaukee, Wisconsin... Chemlab (Metal Blade) are gonna be opening up for KMFDM (TVT/Wax Trax!) on a cross country tour starting in April... Eleven (Hollywood) are using their current dates with Candlebox (Maverick) to warm up for an upcoming headlining club tour. The shows will kick off in March... Dates for the Pitch Shifter (Earache) and Carcass (Earache/Columbia) U.S. tour are forthcoming. Take note that this is the first ever tour on American soil for Pitch Shifter and the first ever headlining tour for Carcass. Very cool... Look for Broken Hope (Metal Blade), Unleashed (Century Media) and Demented Ted (Pavement) to share the stage on a whirlwind tour starting April 14th in New York, New York... Keep your eyes peeled for Meathook Seed (Earache) to fill the opening slot on a limited American tour... Sleep (Earache) are heading back out onto the road in March... Anthrax (Elektra) have made arrangements to head back out on the road sometimes in mid-April... Stressball (Pavement) have been tapped as the show-openers on the upcoming Genitorturers (I.R.S.) tour that kicks off in April. Henry Rollins is co-starring in his first big screen appearance with Charlie Sheen in The Chase. Rollins plays a cop in pursuit of kidnapper Sheen and his victim, Kristl Swanson. The flick is set for a March 4th release... When you tune into future episodes of MTV Sports listen for snippets of Pitch Shifter (Earache) tunes from their recent release, "Desensitized". Unbelievable as it may seem, Pantera (EastWest) are heading out on a promo tour beginning at midnight March 21st/22nd in Dallas, Texas. The band will be traveling to 10 different cities in 7 days doing in-stores... Those in the SST Records' offices are looking to fill a full time publicist position in their promotions department. Good writing and grammar skills are required. Send your resume with a cover letter viz fax to (310) 430-7286, or mail it to: SST Records Publicity Position, attn. Greg Ginn, Box 1, Lawnsdale, California 90260... In a bit of industry musical chairs, Bill Mierzejewski is the new National Director of Radio Promotion at Mechanic/Futurist. Eric LeMasters also fills a new chair as he will be handling Retail and Marketing for Mechanic/Futurist. Ta ta for now. Peace.

Hanging with Z-ROCK's own Ward Cleaver are members of Green Apple Quick Step as they take a breather from their studio duties. Sharing space are Dan, Bob, Mari Anne, Steve and Ty.

While waiting for their brews in a local bar, Al Hodge and Mark Talsmo, members of Tungsten, posed pretty with Pavement Music Prez. Mark Nawara.

Metal Filings

What's up? Coolness you need to know about includes the fact that The Wildhearts (EastWest) handed over their full length LP and are goin' for adds now - February 21st and 22nd. You went for the "Suckerpunch" EP, now drop the "Earth Vs. The Wildhearts" disc in the player and let your listeners in on the band's super punk sound... Ya know, if the Life Of Agony (Roadrunner) cut "Through And Through" was good to your station last time it will work for ya this time too! Go ahead and put it back in your playlist February 21st and 22nd... Adds for The Poor (550 Music) hard-drivin' single, "More Wine Waiter Please", is February 28th. The track is taken from the Paul Northfield produced, eleven track upcoming release, "Who Cares?" LP... The full Sass Jordan (MCA) album, "Rats", is gonna be shipped to metal radio this very week. Adds are for February 28th and March 1st with the emphasis trax - "Damaged" and "Slave"... Sarsippius and those infecto-amphibians in Infectious Grooves (550 Music) are back with the ten song, "Groove Family Cyco", album. The title track is the first heading to metal radio... Those in the Mercury Metal offices have sent word they are re-working the Mighty Mighty Bosstones "Ska-Core, The Devil, And More" with the emphasis on the "Summer Down" song. Give it another whirl... Anyone wanting to give the Animal Bag (Mercury) acoustic EP a few spins on the air give Cheryl Valentine a call, she'll hook ya up... March 15th marks the arrival of the Phantom Blue debut record, "Built To Perform", on Geffen Records. The album contains twelve trax... Rollins Band (Imago) return to the metal front this spring with the release of the "Weight" full length. The album was recorded over a four week period of time in a log cabin. Rollins says of this unusual studio setting, "We were looking for a setting that was different than the usual studio set P that feels like making music in a dentist's office. For us, the studio has never been a conducive environment." The record is the first with bassist Melvin Gibbs and was produced by Theo Van Rock (the band's soundman)... Look for a Souls At Zero (Energy) EP to land on your desk sometime in the near future. The disc should contain 2 original songs, 2 covers and a demo or two thrown in for good measure... Scott "Wino" Weinrich has done it again, this time with the release of The Obsessed (Columbia) album, "The Church Within". This 13 track album will, no doubt, launch this band into the stratosphere - where they belong. Look for it in early March... A new A.C. (Earache) - previously called Anal C*nt - record is due out in late April. The Tina Morrissey produced, 58 song (no kidding!) album will be called "Everybody Should Be Killed"... Energy Records' new band, Larva - Roger Guimond, Todd Youth, George Musa, Michael McDermott - are set to deliver their debut disc, "Waiting For Daybreak". The album, which was produced by Youth, hits the streets April 26th. Be prepared... A spring release is set for the Skatenigs' Red Light Records debut disc, "What A Mangled Web We Leave". The band are recording it as you sit reading this... It looks like the new Slayer (American) album is set for a May 24th release... Dave Uhrich (Red Light) drops back in on the metal scene with his sophomore effort, "Fretnotized"... Brutal Truth (Earache) have taken up residence in a Vermont cabin to write material for their next album. This will be the first with their new drummer - Rich... June 14th marks the release of a new full length album from Danzig (American)... Sacred Reich (Hollywood) are in the process of writing stuff for their new record. Songs have already been written (apparently due to the collaboration of frontman Phil Rind and stixman Dave McClain), with plans on entering the studio next month... Flotsam & Jetsam (MCA) are currently writing songs for their next studio album. Word is that the band should begin recording in May. Surgery (Amphetamine Reptile) will be rockin' and rolling on February 24th in Cambridge, Massachusetts; on February 25th in New York, New York; on February 26th in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; on February 27th in Baltimore, Maryland; and March 1st on Washington D.C. He raised his hands, above his head and said, "You have the wrong man." In 1975, Paul Hill, a twenty-one year old man from Northern Ireland, was sentenced to a lifetime in prison for pub bombings in Britain. It was the longest such sentence by a British court. As the years were taken from him, Hill could do nothing but hold onto his innocence. Fifteen years later, including four years in solitary confinement, Hill was set free when the British government finally admitted that officers lied at the original trial. It might not have happened without the help of family, friends, and Amnesty International.

at, "Shame," Fiction/November
The latest incarnation of the band (whose 1989 Sell Me A God was extremely well received) shows them embracing a more outwardly guitar pop sound rich in texture and broad in dimension. For years the band was the only artist on Fiction besides the Cure, and their live show was renowned as a most unique and entertaining blend of musical energy and force. Under this new agreement with November Records, Shame is available in the States and the initial reaction has been extremely positive. "Shame" possesses an edgy rawness purveyed both by the song's thal guitars and singer Ange Dolittle's pungent vocals. Instantly likable and full of angry buoyancy, we're predicting this one to have a healthy run at the format. Early believers include KACV, KBAC, KMBY, WOST, WLAV, and KUNV.

Enigma, "Return To Innocence," Virgin
Breaking ground in 1991 with the platinum-selling single "Sadness Part 1," and multi-format presence with last year's "Carly's Song," Enigma stretches its musical bounds even further with the release of The Cross Of Changes. Enigma's main creative center, Michael Cretu, took three years to produce the record, and his meticulousness is shown in the tremendous detail and precision present in the record. The vocal interplay between Sandra and the male voices lies over some intense instrumentation. The track comes in at #4 Most Added this week and a healthy debut at 36*.

Soundgarden, "Spoonman," A&M
And you thought "Outshined" was big. How huge will THIS record be. It's insane. The first time we heard this a couple of months back, we were blown away, as you undoubtedly will be as well. Actually, it's the bongos that do it for us. Powerful and impeccably produced, Superunknown is a cohesive, high-impact release that promises to bring untold millions to the band and their

Label: A bit of trivia: the opening riff to the song appears briefly in "Slingshot."

CHOICE

ALTERNATIVE

Bad Religion, "American Jesus," Atlantic It looks like the band is finally starting to get the attention it deserves. With the success of "Struck A Nerve" (even, to some extent, at the AOR level) opening doors for the band at radio, positive sales results have been realized and the band's fervent following has continued to grow. This track displays all the elements of the band that give it its identity — reality and grit delivered with an angst-filled punch. Added at KMBY and WRLG.

Blur, "Sunday Sunday," Food/EMI After a healthy run at the format with both "Chemical World" and, to a lesser extent, "Turn it Up," Blur is set to make their presence felt once again with the latest track. Playful, humorous and evoking a carnival-like atmosphere, this is signature Blur-style pop that's instantly recognizable and loved by hoards. Look for them to land on these shores to tour again later this spring.

Machines Of Loving Grace, "Perfect Tan," Mammoth/Atlantic It seems like this band took the format by storm when the record came out last fall. Following a very strong showing for the band at radio over the past few months with "Butterfly Wings," the band is set to make some noise again with their follow-up. Hard edged and stout, the band's sound equals reaction and success on the airwaves. Already doing well at KEDJ.

GOODS

by Sat Bisla

Bark Psychosis, "A Street Scene", (Circa U.K.) An ambient — alternative record that certainly sounds like a picturesque street scene. Reminiscent sound and vocal presence of John Marsh from The Beloved. Looking for a relaxing, low-tempo track? This could be what you're looking for.

Direkt, "Two Fatt Guitars", Delorme Remix (UFG, U.K.) Definitely a mix show record. A groovy house track with the ever familiar guitar hook from Chic's "LaFreak". An intense record with a great beat and recognizable hook that will even have grandmother and grandfather shaking it on the dance floor.

Therapy?, "Nowhere", (A&M) A great track from this Irish trio. Raging guitars and fierce drums with aggressive vocals makes this a perfect track for any modern rock lover. This is not just another thrashing guitar record. Therapy? has rhythm and a sound that you can really sink your teeth into. This is the most explosive thing to come out of Ireland since the IRA!!!

Enigma, "The Eyes Of Truth", (Virgin, Germany) Finally, an honest, down to earth record that emits emotion and exuberance. Michael and Sandra Cretu (Enigma) are truly one of the greatest musical geniuses of our time. If you're dealing with crooked politics and politicians (aren't they all supposed to be crooked?) this track may open their eyes to "The Eyes Of Truth". The now domestic LP is an incredible album with many great compositions that really bring out feelings, emotions, and the positive human spirit.

Al Kooper, Rekooperation, BMG From the Royal Teens to the Blues Project, Blood, Sweet and Tears, numerous solo albums and dozens of session gigs with everyone from Jimi Hendrix to Bob Dylan and Trisha Yearwood, Al Kooper has done it all. Well not quite everything — he hadn't done an instrumental album until now. "Rekooperation" is Al's return to recording under his own name after a 12 year hiatus. The 13-song set of instrumentals shows the keyboard whiz at his most mellow, covering standards like "After the Lights Go Down Low," revamping material from the rock arena, such as Richard Thompson's "When the Spell is Broken" and Chuck Berry's "Johnny B. Goode" and taking sassy soul-blues grooves like "Soul Twisted," "Honky Tonk" and "Clean Up Woman" into a classy, jazzy kind of space. Kooper is a master of the pop-rock keyboard, but he also plays guitar on a couple of cuts. Sidemen include drummer Anton Fig, guitarist Jimmy Vivino, pianists Johnnie Johnson and Dick Hyman, saxophonist Hank Crawford and the Uptown Horns.

Barbara Lynn, So Good, Bullseye Blues In the '60s Barbara Lynn was a Texas twister, her guitar lines twirling around her sexy voice in live shows throughout the South and in opening spots for Smokey Robinson and the Miracles, Ike and Tina and Stevie Wonder. On record she took to the charts with several tunes, and hit the #1 spot with a song she wrote "You'll Lose A Good Thing," which has become a classic. Now with her three children grown, Barbara Lynn is back in action with her first Bullseye release, "So Good." It's a 10-tune set of breathy, soulful songs, three of them penned by Lynn. Her "You're The Man" is a funky love lullaby, "So Good" has that Caribbean feel that you often find mixed in with blues in bayou country, and "This Is The Thanks I Get" is sweet rockin' soul. Backing her are album producer Ron Levy on organ and the South Central Rhythm System, who also play behind Smokey Wilson on his new Bullseye release. The bluesy-est cuts in the set are Lynn's covers of Jimmy McCracklin's "Payback" and B.B. King's "Sweet Sixteen."

Rev. Billy C. Wirtz, Pianist Envy, Hightone The tattoo-ed, polyester-clad preacher has a new party record out, and this time it's live, blues fans. There's a 15 minute version of his classic, "Roberta," for the DJ who has to walk the dog around many blocks. The rest of the tunes are more reasonable in length, but no less wacky in lyrical content. "Butt For The Grace" is one of Wirtz's bizarre family stories set to boogie woogie piano so holy that you almost believe this guy is a spiritual leader, like maybe a whorehouse saint. Wirtz also displays his crazy finger work on "Mennonite Surf Party." In "The King Gets A Day Job," he reveals the connection between Elvis the King and Barney the dinosaur; "Margarita Hell" is Wirtz's hysterical story of what happens when a musician with a mind as convoluted as his is asked to play Jimmy Buffet; and "Mama Was A Deadhead" is the Rev.'s homage to the Grateful Dead. The caper of the side-splitting take on culture and romance is "4th Wife Blues," Wirtz's final tune in the trilogy of songs to his ex-wife Roberta. It's all classic Wirtz, who we've grown to love over his previous four releases, made even more wild and wonderful by the presence of a live audience. Don't let the screwy track listing on the sleeve and back of the jewel box deter you, as the Rev. says, it's Satan's effort to waylay his missionary work.

An Ash Wednesday call from Black Top Records' Mindy Giles included a glowing report on the

New Orleans House of Blues, which opened in late January. Mindy says the club in the French Quarter is both high-tech and downhome, and the prices are reasonable. As for the music Mindy heard during Mardi Gras, bayou piano pounder Marcia Ball, who played Tipitina's on Mardi Gras, was the uptown ruler....A House of Blues syndicated television series is in the works. Featured will be bands videotaped at the House of Blues clubs and segments on the history of the blues. Helping pull the series together is big guns producer Brandon Tartikoff. A sequel to the Blues Brothers film, Blues Brothers II, is also being planned by the House of Blues....West Side guitar legend Otis Rush has a new album that is scheduled to be released by Mercury Records in early March. The session was produced by John Porter, producer for Buddy Guy's two Silvertone releases. Rush is currently putting a band together to take on tour behind the disc....Later this year Rhino Records will release a tribute to songwriter and singer Doc Pomus. Among the artists covering Pomus' marvelous songs are Aaron Neville ("Save the Last Dance for Me"), Los Lobos ("Lonely Avenue"), John Hiatt ("A Mess of Blues") and B.B. King ("Blinded By Love")....Black Top goes to the movies: Look for the following Black Top recording artists in new films and/or on soundtracks: Anson Funderburgh and the Rockets with Sam Myers play a blues band (gee, how creative) in the soon-to-be-released "China Moon" and are also featured on the soundtrack. Zydeco artist Lynn August has two tunes on "The Pelican Briel" soundtrack, and saxophonist Grady "Fats" Jackson, who passed away Jan. 18, appears in "Twist of Fate," which is set to be released later this year....Terrance Simien's summer European tour will include two WOMAD dates, one in England and another in Spain. □

The Stereo MC's' "Connected" was named Best Album at this year's Brit Awards given out in London, where the band was also named Best British Group. Bjork won awards for Best Newcomer and International Female Solo Artist, while Crowded House were named Best International Group. Gabrielle was named Best British Newcomer, and Take That's "Pray" was voted Best Single and Best Video By A British Artist. Brian Eno was voted Best Producer at the awards program intended to highlight the best achievements in pop music in Britain over the last 12 months. Lenny Kravitz won the award for International Male Solo Artist. Kravitz, currently in Australia, sent his regards via satellite. Sting, who's also in Australia, won the award for Best British Male Solo Artist, while Dinah Carroll won for Best British Female Solo Artist. In a new category this year, M People won for Best British Dance Act. This is the first time the Brit Awards used a new voting system which expanded the list of this year's nominees. Van Morrison won an award for outstanding contribution to the British record industry. The award was presented on stage by former Beirut hostage John McCarthy, who says that one of the things he remembers the most from his years of captivity is his fellow hostage, Brian Keenan, singing Morrison's songs. Despite all the attention they've received, Suede, East 17 and Apache Indian all failed to win Brit awards.

Siobhan Fahey, formerly of Bananarama, suffered leg injuries in an auto accident near her home in North London. Fahey totalled her Fiat Pianda which collided with a Ford Granada while she was driving to visit friends. Fahey had to get around on crutches until her bruised kneecap healed.

Paul Simon sang with Philip Glass and Natalie Merchant gave a solo performance at a concert at Carnegie Hall in New York to celebrate Tibet's New Year. The show was a benefit for the Tibet House of New York and was also intended to call attention to the suppression of Tibetan culture and religion. Richie Havens, Edie Brickell, the Roches and Allen Ginsberg also performed at the show. Merchant performed the 10,000 Maniacs tunes "These Are Days" and "I'm Not The Man," but confessed she was terrified to be performing alone.

Duran Duran cover Led Zeppelin's "Thank You," and the Pretenders do a version of Bob Dylan's "Forever Young" on the soundtrack to the Joe Pesci movie "With Honors," coming out in late March. Belly has recorded Tom Jones' "It's Not Unusual" for the soundtrack, which will also feature new songs from Mudhoney and Lindsey Buckingham.

Bryan Adams' manager has criticized the Juno awards in Canada after Adams was completely left out of the nominations this year. "The errors and omissions in this year's nominations proves, once again, that those in charge are ridiculously out of touch and committed to foisting their idea of what constitutes talent on an already disbelieving Canadian public," says manager Bruce Allen. He says it "screams of disrespect" that Adams, David Foster, Bruce Fairbairn and Bob Rock were not nominated this year. "What is even sillier is that it shows a complete lack of showmanship. People watch the Junos to be entertained and star power is usually what is foremost in the minds of award show producers. These buffoons just don't get it."

Jimmie Dale Gilmore covers Mudhoney's "Blinding Sun" on a single (on Sub Pop Records). The flip will feature Mudhoney playing Gilmore's "Tonight I'm Gonna Go Downtown." There will also be a CD EP that features Gilmore and Mudhoney playing Townes Van Zandt's "Buckskin Stallion Blues."

Paul McCartney and George Harrison have denied a report by a London newspaper that the three surviving Beatles plan to play a show in Central Park later this year. McCartney says the report by the Mail on Sunday newspaper is "rubbish." The newspaper said that John Lennon's sons, Julian and Sean, would join McCartney, George Harrison and Ringo Starr for a concert to be televised worldwide. The report said each of the former Beatles would receive almost $30 million for the show. "There's as much chance of a Beatles reunion as reheating a souffle. When John was alive, there was a possibility. But without John, it will never happen," McCartney says. The Mail on Sunday quoted an unidentified source as saying the concert was being backed by "an extremely wealthy, eccentric American." The report also said McCartney chose New York for the concert because Lennon was murdered there in 1980. "There will never be a Beatles reunion as long as John Lennon remains dead," Harrison says. Another London newspaper, the Times, has reported that two promoters are trying to get the remaining Beatles to play together live. The Times said Sidney Bernstein is reportedly ready to offer the band $25 million to play at the Woodstock 25th anniversary concert taking place this summer. Raymond Foulk, director of a festival on the Isle of Wight, has agreed to match any offer made by U.S. promoters. "My information is that the remaining members of the Beatles do not want to play in America, but (in) Britain," the Times quotes Foulk as saying. Even Mark Chapman, convicted of the murder of Lennon, doesn't think there will be a Beatles reunion. "It won't work without John," he's told his biographer, Jack Jones, who regularly visits him in prison.

Vernon Reid of Living Color plays guitar on a version of Curtis Mayfield's "Stare & Stare" featured on the upcoming album from MC 900 Ft. Jesus.

Simon LeBon of Duran Duran has been taking painkillers every day since throwing his back out a few months ago. Fans at a Duran Duran show in Manchester, England, were concerned when LeBon took the stage looking tired and sick. LeBon's mother in law, Patricia Parvaneh, says LeBon suffers "constant pain." "It's no wonder he's suffering with all the movements he has to go through during his performance on stage," she says. "He is suffering a lot and has been on painkillers. But he is determined that his back trouble will not interfere with the tour."

David Lee Roth says his upcoming album, "Your Filthy Little Mouth," is autobiographical. "Your Filthy Little Mouth" as a title has probably all the obvious innuendos, but I think there is a politician in there," Roth says, adding the new LP is based on personal observations he's made since living in New York City for the past two years. "Song for song, these are people that I either know or have become, living in the inner city. Or perhaps simply people that I can see through my window. I'm going through my artist in a loft phase. It's a little bit of a completion of a circle here. A hardwood floor and two big windows. The ambition was to mix a little Henry Miller with my Huckleberry Finn."

Primal Scream's "Give Out But Don't Give Up" album is now slated for release in mid-April.

The Chainsaw Kittens release a new album called "Pop Heiress" in March (on Mammoth/Atlantic Records). The 12 songs on the band's third album were produced by John Agnello, who's worked with Dinosaur Jr. and Screaming Trees.

Crowded House will begin a two-month, 41-city tour on March 15 in Phoenix, Arizona. The band plays a benefit concert for Amnesty International in Wellington, New Zealand, later this month.

Grateful Dead guitarist Jerry Garcia married California filmmaker Deborah Koons on Valentine's Day. The wedding took place at Christ Episcopal Church in Sausalito, with 12th-century Gregorian music. Only about 70 people were invited to the ceremony. Garcia met Koons about 20 years ago, reportedly at a Dead concert. This is Garcia's third marriage. He already has four daughters.

Michael Bolton has been making personal apologies for a recent concert at Rosemont Horizon in Chicago which started two hours late and was cut short. Bolton's been calling fans who wrote to his record company to complain. Michele Stockman told Entertainment Weekly, "I'm sitting at home and suddenly the phone rings and this voice says, 'Hi Michele. It's Michael Bolton.'" Bolton says he doesn't want to be misunderstood by fans. "I get enough bullshit from the critics," Bolton says.

Being from Norway, it's only natural that a-ha should play at one of the Olympics-related parties in Lillehammer. "In a way we feel a sense of duty toward taking part in this event, but duty in a positive sense. The Olympics are important for the very reason that so many nations gather in one place," says lead singer Morten Harket. "The Olympic Games are not just a sporting event, they are a meeting place for countries and people from around the world."

Three former members of the Eagles reunited for a show in Aspen, Colorado, to benefit Grassroots-Aspen Experience, a non-profit organization that brings young people to Aspen from their inner-city homes. It was the first time Glenn Frey, Don Henley and Joe Walsh had reunited since 1980. They played old Eagles songs like "Lyn' Eyes," "Heartache Tonight" and "Desperado" at the Double Diamond Club.

The title song of Bonnie Raitt's upcoming album, "Longing In Their Hearts," is based on a poem written by her husband, actor Michael O'Keefe. Raitt says she'd like to get her father, John Raitt, to join him in concert. "I'm threatening to kidnap him and take him out on tour with me this summer, bring him to Radio City a couple of nights," Raitt says.

A telephone survey by Entertainment Weekly magazine found that 68 percent of people have never heard of Blind Melon. Of the 31 percent who did know the name, 44 percent believe the band will be a flash in the pan and 25 percent had no prediction on the group's future. Blind Melon have just begun a college tour in an attempt to "return to their roots."

Former Yardbirds member Jim McCarty has completed a new LP. "The album I've just finished is nothing like the stuff I was doing for the Yardbirds in the '60s. You change, grow up." McCarty says he's skeptical about talk the Beatles are recording new music. "I hope they don't write anything new," he says. "Even though Beatles music changed through the years....It wouldn't work. It wouldn't have real energy....How can you compete with the dead?"

Ted Nugent, at his World Bowhunters Family Conservation Rally and Hunters' Concert in Phoenix, last month, spoke out strongly against gun control. "There's only one gun law necessary in this country. Put the second bullet in the same hole as the first bullet," he said. "I think (U.S. Attorney General) Janet Reno is Castro's girlfriend....Janet Reno is for reducing our capability of defending ourselves with proper, state-of-the-art weaponry, and Janet Reno can kiss my ass."

Gibby Haynes of the Butthole Surfers is working on an anti-drug film for the D.A.R.E. program. The film will also feature Johnny Depp. Haynes had been slated to produce a new album from Rev. Horton Heat, but Al Jourgensen of Ministry is now handling that task.

Sara Hickman will release a new album called "Necessary Angels" this May (on Discovery Records). Hickman bought back the rights to the record after her former label (Elektra Records) decided to pass on the LP. Hickman is featured on a CD from a new group called Domestic Science Club.

Elastica, who are being labeled part of the "new wave of new wave," have made the British top 20 with their second single "Line Up." The band's led by singer-songwriter-guitarist Justine, who is good friends with Blur and who played in a very early version of Suede. "I don't think that any of the bands we're being compared with are anything like us," she says. "I've been to see most of them and heard most of them on record, and I think the links, musically, are very, very tenuous. I can understand why we're being compared to the new wave movement, but I think the 'new wave of new wave' is a bit of a silly term, and you can just imagine in five years the 'new wave of new wave of new wave.'" Justine says Elastica's been inspired by the Buzzcocks, the Stranglers, Wire and Blondie.

The Cramps will release a new album in June on a new label (Medicine/WEA).

This won't technically be the first Cramps release on the label. When the band played CBGB's as part of the venue's 20th anniversary, the band distributed pressings of a tape of their first-ever show at CBGB's. Five hundred of the 12-inch picture-discs, in a sleeve also covered with pills, were given out to everyone that bought a ticket for their show. The discs have already become collectors' items.

The Outlaws took a few years off after their former record label wanted them to become more "new wavey," according to Hugh Thomasson of the band. "They wanted us to use synthesizers and stuff like that and tried to get us to rewrite our songs," he says. "I said this just does not sound like the Outlaws. I mean our fans expect our music to be a certain way and they're the people who've brought us to where we are. It just wasn't right and I wrote I would never get into this situation again." The Outlaws put out an album last fall called "Hittin' The Road — Live!" The band's line-up includes B.B. Borden, formerly of Mother's Finest, and former Foghat members bass player Jeff Howell and guitarist Billy Davis. The band is also working on its first new studio album in seven years. "It hasn't got a title yet, but I was thinking of calling it 'Outlawed,'" Thomasson says. The LP will include a previously unreleased song co-written by Thomasson with the late Ronnie Van Zandt of Lynyrd Skynyrd. "I was looking through all my old notebooks and I came across this song I had started with Ronnie in 1977 and never finished," he says.

R.E.M. are to receive Rock The Vote's first annual Patrick Lippert Award "for inspiring a new generation of young people to become part of the political process." The award is named after Rock The Vote's executive director, who died last July of an AIDS-related illness. MTV is sponsoring the Rock The Vote award in New York City on February 28.

Bruce Hornsby participated in the "Jackson Family Honors" television special which will air (on NBC-TV) on February 22. The program, at the MGM Grand Arena in Las Vegas, was a benefit for the Los Angeles Earthquake Relief Fund. Prices for tickets to the concert were cut at the last minute because of meager sales.

Buffalo Tom are just back from touring Japan for the first time. They were opening for the Lemonheads. "It was really weird seeing the Lemonheads in their full, new 'Beatlemania' mode," says bass player Chris Colbourn. "The young girls in front screaming...and there was a little bit of the fainting thing going on."

Teenage Fanclub say they're frustrated at how their career has advanced in the U.S. "All the videos and promotional things we've done in America have been really bad," says bass player Gerry Love. "It was make-up and big lights and a rented crowd. It was very embarrassing for us to do that. I got the impression that the people who were coming to see us were the MTV crowd. It's a bit frustrating sometimes trying to play music to people like that." Love says the band felt it had to sign with a major label to get exposure in the U.S. "The indie label we were on, Matador, gave us absolutely no money — nothing. We really had to sign to a major, and the downside of that is the way they've marketed us. I don't think DGC really knows how to market us as a band."

Chris Isaak and his band Silvertone have just begun a tour of Asia, including dates in Hong Kong, Bali, Indonesia and Singapore. "I imagine it'll be a lot like Kansas," Isaak said before he left the U.S. "And somebody told me you can't chew gum in Singapore or spit on the street. But that's OK, I went to a really good kindergarten, and they taught me all those things there."

The Shoes release a new 12-track album later this month on their own (Black Vinyl) label, called "Propeller." The LP features Mike Zelenko of Material Issue.

Randy Newman and Aaron Neville have agreed to perform at "Shake, Rattle & Give," an earthquake benefit concert scheduled for the Universal Amphitheatre in Los Angeles on March 6. Guns N' Roses are reportedly ready to play a separate stadium show to help earthquake victims.

Jonathan Richman is releasing an album of his songs in Spanish, with a title that translates as "Jonathan, You're Getting All Emotional." "I just think Spanish goes really well with my songs," he says. "Spain is the best place sometimes in the world in terms of audiences. The United States, Spain and Japan are my three places...and Greece." The LP includes Spanish versions of songs like "The Neighbors," "UFO Man" and "You Can't Talk To The Dude." "It's not a mariachi record," Richman says. "It's not a Spanish-sounding record, although there's an instrumental which is strictly Spanish. A guy named Manuel De and we do a guitar duo."

The Rolling Stones are finishing work on their new album in Los Angeles over the next couple of months. They reportedly are checking out the possibility of a stadium tour starting in August.

Don't call Green Apple Quick Step a grunge band just because they come from Seattle. "First of all, I really don't know what a grungy sound is," says vocalist Ty Willman. "Maybe Mudhoney would be grunge. As far as Pearl Jam is, they're just good music. Or can you call Lenny Kravitz grunge? I think it's more of a fashion statement. It's more personal, like the new Mazzy Star or Bjork. I'm into just creating good music, playing, trying my hardest and enjoying myself as much as I can."

Skinny Puppy keyboardist and drummer cEVIN Key is recovering from fracturing his kneecap and left arm in an accident during the shooting of a film called "Doom Generation." Key also suffered severe lacerations on his face and leg, requiring almost 30 stitches. In a scene in which Key fights on the hood of a car, his spotters failed to catch him before he crashed to the ground. The accident has put recording of a new Skinny Puppy album on hold indefinitely.

The Charlatans release their "Up To Our Hips" album in March, produced by Flood and featuring new guitarist Mark Collins. It's the third album from the British band.

John Mellencamp has covered the blues standard "Baby Please Don't Go" for the soundtrack to the upcoming Nick Nolte film "Blue Chips."

Yes will release a new album, "Talk," in late March (on Victory Music/PLG). It will be the first album from the five-member group in almost three years. "Talk," produced by Trevor Rabin, also marks the unveiling of a new logo created for the band by Peter Max. Yes plan a worldwide tour beginning in May in South America, with North American dates this summer.

Pantera release a new album in the second half of March called "Far Beyond Driven," which includes a cover of Black Sabbath's "Planet Caravan." The LP comes out in vinyl a week before the CD and cassette versions, with special artwork on the vinyl version. "It's fucking heavy," says singer Philip Anselmo. The LP is being described as "stand-up thrash in a sea of flaccid rock." "If you think about how much heavier 'Vulgar Display Of Power' was than 'Cowboys From Hell,' that's how much heavier 'Far Beyond Driven' is from 'Vulgar,'" says co-producer Terry Dale.

Nine Inch Nails begin a world tour in March in support of their new album "The Downward Spiral."

The Rollins Band releases a new album in April called "Weight," produced by the band's soundman Theo Van Rock. "We didn't want to use an outside producer for this album," Rollins says. "Theo has been the only soundman this band has ever had and he knows the sound inside and out. He knows when we do a good take and he knows how the band should sound. There's no one else who could have done it." The LP is the first to feature new bass player Melvin Gibbs, formerly of Defunkt. The Rollins Band is touring Brazil and Japan this month.

The Soup Dragons are to release a new album in late spring or summer called "Hydrophonic." The LP features Lynval Golding and Neville Staples of the Specials on the track "Rest In Peace."

The Scorpions' "Under The Same Sun" has been chosen for the closing scene of Steven Seagal's upcoming movie, "On Deadly Ground," which stars Michael Caine.

Whitfield Crane of Ugly Kid Joe, Danny Boy of House Of Pain and Schooly D will appear at "Board Aid," in Big Bear Lake, California, on March 8. The event, being organized by the Beatle Boys, is intended to increase teenage awareness about AIDS.

The new Meat Puppets album, "Too High To Die," has an extra unlisted track at the end. It's a new version of "Lake Of Fire," a song that was originally on the "Meat Puppets II" album.

Blue Oyster Cult release a new album soon (on Atlantic Records). It's been five years since the band put out the "Los Imaginos" album. Three original members of the band remain in the line-up including vocalist Eric Bloom and lead guitarist Donald "Buck Dharma" Roeser. Former Rainbow drummer Chuck Burgi has joined the group. BOC are expected to tour this summer. They'll also have a greatest hits album out on another label (Herald/Caroline Records).

The Clarence Hotel in Dublin, Ireland, partially owned by U2, hosted a recent wedding reception for Gavin Friday and Renee O'Reilly. There are plans to open the hotel's basement club, The Kitchen.

Elvis Costello is writing the music for a new BBC series by author Roddy Doyle called "The Family."

Over The Rhine will go into a studio next month to record their third album (for IRS Records).

Louisville band Crain have an album called "Heater" just coming out.

Al Kooper says his new album, "Rekooperation," came out even better than he'd expected. In the liner notes to the LP, Kooper says he wanted to reflect "the heroes of my childhood," mentioning artists like the Meters, Booker T & The MG's, Willie Mitchell, Duane Eddy and Jimmy Smith, among others. "Turning 50, I've begun to worry about the fate of this music," Kooper says. "People should know this stuff. I witnessed it at a very young age in New York, and I want to pass it on before I leave the planet. I am frightened this music will die with me and my contemporaries."

"An Evening Of Yes Music Plus," recorded live in California in 1989, will soon be released (on Herald/Caroline Records). The LP, with original artwork by Roger Dean, will include two hours of Yes music performed by Jon Anderson, Bill Bruford, Rick Wakeman and Steve Howe. There are also plans for a new solo album by Wakeman.

Mark Lanegan of Screaming Trees says his new solo album, "Whiskey For The Holy Ghost," was a long time in the making. "I started it in '92 and planned to get it done in a week," Lanegan says. "I finally finished up this August, but that was for a lot of different reasons. At one time when I was prepared to finish it, I couldn't go into the studio because of financial difficulties with Sub Pop. Another time I couldn't sing. Then I was on the road for over a year (with Screaming Trees). I used my breaks from that tour to fly to New York and attempt to finish it again." Lanegan says the record doesn't sound at all like he'd originally envisioned. "I think it sounds amazingly cohesive for how it was made." The Screaming Trees are already in the studio working on a new record. "It's sort of vague work, but we're working all the time. This is our work, we figure why not do it all the time? It's not the type of work most people do forever, so, while you're doing it you might as well do it as much as you can, I guess. No sense in waiting."

Widespread Panic singer JB is trying to start a record label with Johnny Sandlin. Dave Schools of Widespread Panic says is to "absorb the bands that have no commercial potential but that are great anyway."

Run DMC, MY Lyte, Heavy D, Das EFX, Pete Rock & CL Smooth and Silk are to perform at a March 18 "Goods For Guns" concert at the Beacon Theater in New York City. Admission to the show will be a gun, part of a gun buy-back program that began in New York City in December.

Rapper 2Pac Shakur has been convicted of assault and battery on music video director Allen Hughes, who had fired Shakur six months earlier because of his violent tendencies. Shakur did not testify during the six-day Los Angeles Superior Court trial concerning the incident which took place in March of last year. The prosecution introduced a video tape of Shakur bragging about the attack on MTV. He is to be sentenced on March 10 and could be fined $3,000 and given a six-month jail term. Jurors took only about an hour to convict him of one count each of assault and battery. Shakur is facing trials in Atlanta and New York on other charges. He was also convicted last August in Los Angeles of possessing a loaded and concealed pistol at a nightclub and was sentenced to two years probation and 45 days working on a freeway maintenance crew.

A federal court jury in Denver, Colorado, has ruled that Michael Jackson did not take his "Dangerous" song from a songwriter who had sued him for copyright infringement. Jurors deliberated about three hours before reaching a verdict in the case. Crystal Cartier had claimed she sent him a demo tape with a song she wrote called "Dangerous" in 1990. Jackson sang parts of his song in court as he testified in the case for about 50 minutes.

A U.S. House Energy & Commerce subcommittee has heard more testimony about explicit rap lyrics. "People are complaining, yet no one in the industry seems to be listening and taking the complaints seriously," said U.S. Congresswoman Cardiss Collins of Illinois. "I encourage the industry to take greater responsibility in this area." Record industry executives also appeared before the subcommittee. One said recordings were only judged by whether they were "true to the artist's vision," while another pointed to the "parental advisory" label on some discs. "Because this pornographic smut is in the hands of our children, it coerces, influences, encourages and motivates our youth to commit violent behavior — to use drugs and abuse women through demeaning sex acts," said DeLores Tucker, chairwoman of the National Political Congress of Black Women.

A firm that owns marketing rights to Barry Manilow's name filed a lawsuit against KBIG-FM in Santa Ana, California, after the station ran promos on the air promising not to play any Manilow songs. The station withdrew the announcements after the lawsuit was filed by an entertainment firm. "It was never our intention to upset Barry Manilow at all," says station manager Kari Johnson Winston. "I frankly thought that, since we were saying where he is played, that that would be a positive, but he was unhappy about it." He says the station wanted to differentiate itself from another radio station playing soft rock music.

Police in Redford, Michigan, say four young men from Detroit snatched a woman's purse and then fatally shot her companion because they needed money for a 2 Live Crew concert. The four were arrested a few minutes after the incident.

The Cure's former drummer and keyboard player Lol Tolhurst has begun a High Court action against The Cure's frontman Robert Smith and manager Chris Parry (who also heads the band's label Fiction). Tolhurst parted company with The Cure in 1989 and is contending a deal he made with Smith and Parry in 1986. He claims the deal was unfair, giving Smith and Parry an unfair share of the band's profits. Tolhurst's lawyer Kevin Garnett claimed in court that, from 1978 through to the signing of the 1986 deal, Tolhurst and Smith had been treated as equal partners. He also said Tolhurst had signed the agreement without proper advice. Tolhurst also put a 60-page document before the court which contained allegations about his treatment from other members of The Cure. Tolhurst says the other members taunted him, using, for instance, a computer he bought the band to make up caricatures of him which were then pinned on the wall. However, Smith and Parry say Tolhurst had the deal explained to him in full. They also allege he had no input into the "Kiss Me Kiss Me Kiss Me" and "Disintegration" albums and that it was therefore unfair he should continue to earn more than other members of the band. Further, they claim Tolhurst drank heavily and that this caused problems within the band. Tolhurst, though, says all the band drank heavily and that, at one stage, Smith and Simon Gallup were drinking five bottles of wine a night each, while he was drinking only two and some beer. Tolhurst also alleges Smith was highly critical of musical errors amongst other members of The Cure without applying the same standards to himself. The case, which is expected to last for around six weeks, continues.

Snoop Doggy Dogg's first ever British show at London Equinox, The Empire on February 10 attracted many hundreds of fans who were unable to get into the venue. An estimated 2,000 were locked out and milled around London's famous Leicester Square. Police, who lined the pavement outside the venue and searched many for drugs or weapons, claimed there was little trouble and only one arrest, despite the fact a number of fans with valid tickets were locked out due to a large number of forged tickets. Snoop took the stage at 1:40 AM and informed at the end of the show: "Make peace when you go out, cos I wanna come back in two weeks". (A show at the London Brixton Academy is expected to be confirmed soon.) The heavy police presence was probably partly explained by extensive tabloid reporting of Snoop's murder charge. Earlier in the week, Snoop was asked to leave the Kensington Milestone Hotel. EastWest say the hotel thought Snoop staying there might damage its reputation.

The Government may pull back from plans to stop Student Unions from funding live shows. As reported in last week's Hard Report, many have been concerned that these proposals would damage the British music industry by reducing the number of live venues virtually overnight. However, last week there was a closed meeting between officials from the Government and Lorna Fitzsimmons, President of the national Union of Students. At the meeting, it is believed the officials informed Fitzsimmons that the Government is to reconsider proposals to restrict Student Unions to funding such "core" activities as sports and catering.

The Brits, the British music industry's annual awards event, were held at London Alexandra Palace on Monday February 14. Hosted by Elton John and RuPaul, the event was broadcast the following night by the ITV network. The winners were as follows: British Male Solo Artist - Sting; British Female Solo Artist - Dina Carroll; British Group - Stereo MC's; British Dance Act - M People; British Newcomer - Gabrielle; British Single - Take That with "Pray"; British Album - The Stereo MC's with "Connected"; British Video - Take That with "Pray"; British Producer - Brian Eno; International Male Solo Artist - Lenny Kravitz; International Female Solo Artist - Bjork; International Group - Crowded House; and Soundtrack - "The Bodyguard". A special Services To Music Award went to Van Morrison. The veteran Northern Irish singer, who has hardly come across as a friend of the industry in the past, accepted the award personally. In a video segment, Sting, Elvis Costello, Bono, Peter Gabriel, John Lee Hooker, Bob Dylan and Bob Geldof all played tribute to the singer/songwriter. Morrison also performed live and was joined by former Pogues frontman Shane MacGowan for a version of "Gloria". Other artists who appeared were: Pet Shop Boys (joined by the 180 strong Llanelli Male Voice Choir), Dina Carroll, Bon Jovi, Bjork, Stereo MC's, PJ Harvey, Take That and Meatloaf.

The Stone Roses second album may not be released until late summer. It was widely believed "The Second Coming" would be in stores on May 9. However, rumors now circulating suggest the band have completed only four instrumental tracks. Geffen have denied the reports. A single "Love Spread" is still scheduled to be in stores for April.

Therapy? declined to accept a "Gong" from the Irish rock magazine Hot Press last week. The award was for the video to the band's "Screamager" single, but advance publicity had said Dublin band Sack would receive the award for a video to their "What Did Christmas Ever Do For Us?" (which cost less than $50.00 to make). Therapy? manager Gerry Hartford told the audience at the awards ceremony: "Following the controversy surrounding the award the band have decided to give it to Sack." Organizers say the incident was caused by a misunderstanding. Other controversy came when U2 won the award for Best Band. The Edge accepted the award with Adam Clayton and mimed to words spoken by Bono. Bono was hiding under a table and the incident was, presumably, a reference to the British Government's reporting restrictions in Northern Ireland. These mean that the words of figures such as Sinn Fein's Gerry Adams, who is alleged to have links with terrorists, cannot be heard on television or radio. Instead, British broadcasters will often substitute a reading of the same words spoken by an actor. Elsewhere, U2 have won an out of court settlement against an Irish newspaper The Sunday Independent. The band began a libel action after an October 1990 report claimed they had behaved badly in a Dublin restaurant and had demanded special treatment because of their stardom. The band launched their action after the newspaper refused to print an apology and say all money received will go to establish a fund for young musicians working in Dublin. Last week, The Sunday Independent printed a front page apology.

Nirvana have been rebuffed in their attempts to give money to a British rape crisis center. The band's offer is believed to have stemmed from misunderstandings of "Rape Me", a recent hit single. Rape Crisis, who help and counsel victims, turned down the offer at their recent Annual General Meeting.

Courtney Love has been talking to Caitlin Moran of Melody Maker. Speaking about some of the unflattering press coverage she has received, Love says: "I dunno, people just - there's this insane attitude about women which really fucks me and my plans up. All that shit about me and Kurt - 'She's just a money grabber gold digger bitch whore slut.' I went through all that shit and pain and inconvenience of being pregnant for nine whole fucking months because I wanted some of his beautiful genes in there, in that child. I wanted his babies. I saw something I wanted and got it. What's wrong with that? What is so fucking bad about getting what you want?"

The Pogues could be about to split. Accordion player James Fearnley and mandolin player Terry Woods are reported to have left the band already. The New Musical Express says that long running friction within the band became worse after former Pogues singer Shane MacGowan and former Clash man Joe Strummer joined the band for a London show prior to Christmas. The paper quotes a "source close to the band" as saying: "Shane only got up there because Strummer was going up. In fact, the session only increased tensions within the band." The Pogues' benefit for the ANC at London Hackney Empire on February 28 could be their farewell show.

The future of the Phoenix Festival is again in doubt. As reported recently in The Hard Report, the Phoenix, which takes place in July close to Stratford-Upon-Avon in the Midlands of England and last year featured the likes of The Black Crowes and Sonic Youth, looked set to go ahead when local government granted a license despite violence between security and some festival goers last year. However, local residents are now trying to stop Phoenix. They have begun legal action to stop the event.

Elvis Costello And The Attractions have announced July dates in the UK, their first together for eight years. The band are also rumored to be close to confirming an appearance at June's Glastonbury Festival in southwest England. A first single from the forthcoming "Brutal Youth" album, "Sulky Girl" b/w two new non-album songs "Idiophone" and "A Drunken Man's Praise Of Sobriety", will be released by WEA on February 21.

Blur have finished work on their new album. The album's provisional title is "Park Life" and it is scheduled to be released via Food in May. Guests on the project include actor Phil Daniels who contributes vocals to the proposed title track and Laetitia of Stereolab who sings on "Juswu'a La Fin". A single "Girls And Boys" b/w (on different formats) "Magpie", "People In Europe", "Anniversary Waltz" and "Peter Panic" will be in stores on March 7. Blur will tour the UK through May with Sleeper in support.

Zu could become one of the surprise successes of 1994. Formed from the ashes of Tabitha Zu and fronted by the same singer Mel Garside, Zu also features bassists Paul Godfrey and drummer Adam Woods. A recent low-key London show suggested a sound which is almost a British version of Throwing Muses, but also has a power all its own. Zu's debut EP "Apart" is released this month via Echo Records.

Vinyl Japan, one of Britain's smaller independents, but still an influential one, releases "What Do You Want A Japanese To Do?" on March 7. The album features tracks from such artists as Slingbacks, Thee Headcoatees, Johnny Dee, Saturn V and Northern Picture Library. The label's other album in the coming weeks is from the critically acclaimed St. Christopher with an album "Love You To Pieces".

A memorial concert for Mick Ronson, who died last year of cancer, will be held at London Hammersmith Apollo on April 29. Names so far confirmed are Glen Matlock (formerly of The Sex Pistols), former Rolling Stone Bill Wyman, Def Leppard's Joe Elliott, Queen's Roger Taylor, former Clash man Mick Jones and longtime sidekick Ian Hunter, who worked with Ronson in both Mott The Hoople and on a solo basis.

The Advance Party Network lobbied Parliament last week in protest at Government proposals to outlaw raves and make a "traveling" lifestyle (many who run sound systems and raves live in buses rather than a house or flat) more difficult. The organization is a loose alliance of people who run sound systems. They were joined by members of Charter 88, a group concerned the Government clampdown on travellers has wider implications for civil liberties. Advance Parties spokeswoman Debbie Smith commented: "We give them street cred, they give us respectable cred."

Mike Williams Jr., WMHB, Waterville

Greetings from the great white north! Thanks to everyone who helped out with our "Heavy Metal Against Hunger" food drive back in December. (You should have received our thank you card, featuring stunning photos of our metal staff.) It was a huge success and we're already planning for next year. The metal staff was treated recently to the only two metal shows to come to Maine in the past year. (Don't laugh, it's true!) Lillian Axe and Annihilator rolled into Portland, November 23. A helluva show! Lillian Axe rocks! Last week was Raging Slab and Stick. A great show, Stick just blew me away! Local act Twisted Roots is soon to be touring the entire Northeast. Check 'em out! I'm playing the new Tamplin disc. Is this really being overlooked by the industry? This album is a killer! Want to say hi? Contact Metal director Mike Sr. (A.K.A. Crusty Old Lobster) Thanks Prue! At 207-872-3686. Yes, he is my dad. He's 46, I'm 22. I'm curious, are we the only father and son metal team out there? Let us know! A special thanks Mr. Boob, at FMUB, for setting me straight, upon my inquiring about reporting to his mag, that he doesn't take low power, low life college radio stations. What an attitude! Hell, I think I need an adjustment! Be back to keep all of you up on what's happening in the land of pine trees and Snow. Think Spring, later.

Peg Pollard, KIOZ, San Diego

With my recent promotion and engagement, I've received many, many bottles of champagne and even a fruit basket. Thank you all so much for your gifts and cards! Things are groovy here in San Diego with lots of changes on our list this week. It's called "research". Hard to argue with! Grin & bear it. I think the new Motley Crue is hot. Looking forward to hearing the rest of the CD is San Francisco this week. "You" from Candlebox, "No Excuses" from Alice In Chains, Cracker "Low" and Nirvana's "All Apologies" tested through the roof for us. Big surprise! Our best "upcoming" track was "No Groovy" from Stick. Hope to see a bunch of you in San Fran. if not this weekend, next for the Sammy Hagar dinner!

J.D., WONE, Akron

The-Pick-Hit-To-Click-Of-The-Week...Soundgarden "Spoonman".

Carter Alan, WBCN, Boston

Jeffrey Gaines has returned to the road, performing a series of coffeehouse gigs to get back in the swing of things now that his second album is finished and ready to come out this Spring. The singer/song-writer/guitarist was his usually candid self up onstage here in Boston last week with a powerful armful of new songs, the hits from the first album and, of course, what has become his signature - Peter Gabriel's "In Your Eyes". Jeffrey said to expect to see him playing electric and fronting a band when he hits the promo and tour circuit to support that upcoming album. Much of the release will be in that very rocked-up "Headmasters Of Mine" vibe from last year. Buffalo Tom's "I'm Allowed" is a slow-building monster of a song. Innocent at first, it grows stormy and defiant, angry and triumphant. Safe bet for best track on their album, this makes a standout single. Commercial gem award goes to Alice In Chains for "No Excuses" - what a song! After back to back hits from Dirt "Rooster" and "Down In A Hole", both heavy bumper-type metal blues thangs, this lighter, slightly psychedelic single is completely refreshing. It adds a whole new musical facet to this already impressive group. Bruce Springsteen's "Streets Of Philadelphia" has re-ignited interest in the legendary rocker's classic catalogue here at WBCN. Much of that music has been on the back burner here for nearly two years following the overkill and burn from his simultaneous two-album release. With the mega-winner still very much with us here in the east, it's great to pull out "10th Avenue Freeze Out" once again!

Jack Daniels, PD, KSQY, Rapid City

After 11 years of reporting our playlist to R&R magazine, we received notice this past week that the publication would no longer include us in their panel of reporters. The reason given for this termination was because the Metro Rapid City survey area only has 85,300 persons (which by the way, KSQY owns a 16.2 AQH share 12+...the 4th highest AQH share of any AOR station in America. The Metro Rapid City area consists of two counties, Pennington and Meade. Arbitron also surveys the surrounding 15 counties (TSA) bringing the total amount of persons to 157,900 (of which we own a 19.5 AQY share persons 18+). KSQY broadcasts from the black hills of South Dakota. Our tower is located high atop Terry Peak and from 7500 feet takes our 100,000 watt signal into an additional 35 counties outside the TSA. This signal, said to one of the biggest in North America, reaches an estimated 275,000 people. Not to mention the 3.5 people who come here every year to visit Mount Rushmore, to attend the Sturgis Motorcycle Rally or any of the countless other things to do in the Black Hills. But still, the fact remains that R&R will only monitor Metro populations over 100,000. We have already run two CHR formats out of Rapid City over the past two years and now are the only contemporary station playing New Rock in a 400 mile radius. We have been an aggressive new music station since our beginning and have helped break hundreds of new bands at the time they needed it the most...out of the box. My question is, "Is it people who buy music in the Midwest?" And just exactly how accurate can a chart be that does not include some very established AOR stations in the heartland of America? (Hey, let's check and see what's happening in Fargo, that should tell the whole story!) The positive part of this whole travesty is that I have received calls from every major record company telling me that this will make no difference in how they view KSQY and it's continued ability to sell records. We'll see.

Mike Luomas, WIZN

Got the chance to check out Dude Of Life last week, a band led by the dude himself, an old friend of Trey Anastasio of Phish. In fact, Trey is one of the guitarists for Dude Of Life, and Jon Fishman of Phish sits in on drums. They played at Nectars, so it was a real buzz to see Trey and Jon back on the stage where it all began for Phish so long ago. The place was predictably packed to the gills, with many a familiar face from the "old days". Trey and I got a chance to do some catching up after the first night's show. He's really pumped about their new album, which they recorded on the left coast with producer Paul Fox. According to Trey, there are some interesting surprises in store, including some pretty amazing guest musicians. Can't wait 'til we've got some new Phish to groove to! That's for the future: as to the now, Soundgarden's new one goes right in this week: Wow - holy psychedelic heavisoity, batman! "Spoonman" will pave the way for Soundgarden to follow down the path blazed by fellow Seattle-ites Pearl Jam. I'm no metal head, but my love for Led Zep instills in me a love for well done heaviosity like this stuff. I'm really looking forward to the full Superunknown to see how these folks have grown.

Cathy Faulkner, KISW

The new Soundgarden is phenomenal! After all their hard work and brilliant material to date, they are way overdue! 1994 will be the year of Soundgarden. I am also proud to predict that they'll be the 4th Seattle band to debut at #1 on Billboard. First it was Nirvana, then Pearl Jam, most recently Alice in Chains...now Soundgarden. I guess people are not really as tired of Seattle as they pretend to be. I would like to thank everyone for their involvement in this year's KISW Rock Radiothon. Between donations for requests and bids on auction items, KISW raised over $16,000 for Comic Relief. All the money raised stays right here in Seattle to help our homeless.

"massive phone melt down
...instant reaction...infectious!"

Larry Mac, KZRX, 602-848-7738

Soundgarden's "Spoonman" on the air for five minutes and the phones literally explode wanting to here more of the Superunknown CD... Alas we can only wait... Vince should have stuck with Crue... Cause they aimed for the nineties and hit with a bull's-eye... Jon Corabi's vocals have definitely added a harder bluesy edge to the Vinceless Crue... My two favorite new bands on the block... Dandelion and Lucy's Fur Coat... Check out "Behind My Back" from the Tempe band beats the hell out of me on Metal Blade... Looks like Trent Reznor is ready to kick your ass cause "March of Pigs" by Nine Inch Nails is definitely gonna cause a stir... Until next time out...

Valorie Knight, KQRC, Shawnee Mission

Motley Crue is back with a vengeance! It's been awhile since only a few spins of a record garnered the #1 requested spot! Our listeners love "Hooligan's Holiday" and they're so hungry for more... Thanks to Paul Brown for the sneak preview! Several months ago, I went to a show and happened to catch the opening band Damn the Machine. I'll never forget my reaction when they played an amazing cover of Ten Years After's "I'd Love to Change the World". I thought... geez, if they ever put that song on a record... well they did, and my reaction was the same. A couple spins on the air got the same response from the listeners. The lyrics seem to fit even better today than they did originally... So what the hell, we added it. Call it crazy, but it sure sounds good!

Al Scott, KRQC, Monterey

Hi everybody and welcome to my space! As usual things are just as awesome as ever here on the Monterey Bay Peninsula. Had a nice road trip to San Jose last Saturday night to see Rush at the new arena. What a great show! Thanks to Pamela and Alicia at Atlantic for the tix! Couple of very cool tunes hit the K-ROCK airwaves this week. First there's this new Motley Crue! This "Hooligan's Holiday" track is already grabbin' phones! The reaction is 100% positive! John Corabi brings his own style to this project and it works in a big way! The long awaited Soundgarden finally got here! Have you heard this monster yet? "Spoonman" really grabs you! Talk about a first listen record! Music like this is what makes my job so easy. My listeners want to hear this! Let's hear it for the "Spoonman"! That just about does it for me. Send Eric and I everything that doesn't suck and hurry up and leave me alone! See ya!

Jeff Horn, WRZK, Tallahassee

Big thanks to the greatest promotion man in history - Dave Garbarino, of Geffen for his help with Aerosmith! Thanks also to Elena Teune of Virgin for the help with Cracker. Cry Of Love did a Z-Rock show and was excellent! Great new tunes on the list: The Soundgarden is a smash, it may take a few spins to wash the Vince out but the new Motley Crue is a hit! Another band getting good early phones is Dandelion, Richie T. Nice call!

John Nagarya, MD, WKDF

Points of Interest:

1. Why is it taking A&M so long to get off their ass and place someone at the head of the Hard Rock dept? Their New York rep should already have that gig!
2. Those of you criticizing the new Motley Crue are bonafide idiots! You shouldn't even be programming or consulting or what ever it is you pretend to do between coffee breaks! If I, being a long time hard core fan, can accept and dig the change, then the members of your audience can too. Except your brainless quacks won't give them enough credit to do it! You're the same spineless bastards that would have whined if they came out with a repeat of "Dr. Feelgood" instead of moving firmly into the nineties, which they have done! Thank god people didn't have your mentality when Bon Scott died! And if you don't think that comparisons valid then that's more proof that you have lost touch!

3. "Hard Act To Follow" by Brother Cane is our fastest reacting track from this band yet! This isn't my opinion that's a fact derived from our call out research! This band is going to be around for quite awhile, so get used to dealing with them! And if you get the change check them out on the Aerosmith tour, do so, this package is three hours of pure entertainment! (Now if the CEMA reps will do their fucking jobs and get product into the stores this album will go gold, at least!

TJ Bryan, WDHA, Cedar Knolls

Soundgarden will rule 1994! "Spoonman" is absolutely amazing. It warms the cockles of my heart to know that Big Head Todd is fast approaching gold, and 'DHA has been there for the entire ride as "It's Alright" goes in this week. It warms the cockles of my liver to get the new Crue in. This is an entirely new band that will have to be set up that way. This is not your father's Motley Crue! It warms the cockles of my spleen to see phones starting for other tracks from Counting Crows, Smashing Pumpkins, Candlebox, and the Screamin' Cheetah Wheelies. It warms the cockles of my uvula to see Possum Dixon doing well for us after seven weeks. Now it's time for the rest of AOR-land to jump on "Watch The Girl Destroy Me". It warms the cockles of my appendix to see Sheryl Crow pulling down number one phones this week. It warms the cockles of my cockles to use the word cockles seven times. As always, it's been a business doing pleasure with you.

E. Heather Lose, WRLG, Nashville

So I haven't had heat, power, or hot water at my apartment for almost 6 full days now. I'd be really grumpy about it, but Glen and I have been camping out at Mom and Dad's house. Can't wait till things get back to normal. Otherwise, life is grand. It's been great saying hello to all you groovy record people! In case you missed last week, my music hours are 3-5 CST. More and more folks getting clued in to WRLG. Bad Religion sounding better each spin. Stoked to finally add Rage this week - they've been my heroes since the Shamrock days in LA, and with MTV play should explode. Meat Puppets working well, as is Alice In Chains and Buffalo Tom and Smashing Pumpkins. And here comes Mazzy Star, out of left field! Opal went under-recozged, let's make sure that doesn't happen again. Beck still running hot. Wish my faucets were...

Doug, WRFC, Athens

I survived the Accused Day. I also managed to bitch enough on the air that a caller asked "are you ok?" I considered this a success. Just finished interviewing Green Apple Quick Step, on Fat Tuesday and the day that their new single is released. This was fun. Kristin Hersh is a Goddess. Interviewed Tad yesterday. Fun. Their filming a TV movie about Ty Cobb, the old baseball star, across the street. One of the members of Green Apple Quick Step is named after him, if you like trivia. The coffee is too strong and tastes bad. I think I need more.

Jeffrey Naumann, Virgin

The ultimate smash from the most successful Grammy nominated rock band is now primed and ready to go immediately on your airwaves. It's "Disarm" from the Smashing Pumpkins. Here's the facts: "Disarm" is already on over 60 Top 40s, in exclusive Buzz Clip on MTV for five weeks, in Power rotation on every alternative station on the planet, already Before The Box on more than 20 album rockers. "Disarm" comes from their huge, monstrous CD, Siamese Dream, which has sold over 2 million units. The Smashing Pumpkins will be part of the Lollapalooza tour this summer. Fellow jesumasters, let me ask you, does it make any sense not to play this great band? In case you've played "Cherub Rock" or "Today," the ones that did still are. Remember, Virgin holds all the stones. "Beside You" from Iggy Pop is the "Candy" of 1994. Caesar must rest now.

Mark Fischer, Atlantic, 212-275-2085

Week two: And Tori Amos has found some believers. Great radio stations like WBAB (Long Island), KTCZ (Minneapolis), KEYJ and KCQR all found "God" and added it. Surprise Surprise, sales week two are 48,123 and counting. How many more weeks do we need to find "God"? If you missed Tori Amos on Jay Leno Friday night, call me, I will send you a copy of this amazing rock performance. MTV just upped the video into buzz bin. Be smart, don't fight a record that is reaching out to your listeners. Collective Soul's debut track "Shine" is in your hands and already on many stations playlists (WJRR, WDIZ, WROQ, WAVF, WKZQ, KTYD, KCAL). I LOVE RECORDS WITH A NATURAL BUZZ. This is a pure and simple smash! King's X start their with Scorpions, and in April with Pearl Jam! "Dogman" continues to convert as more and more stations get bit. Looking ahead, pay close attention to a band that is new to the Atlantic ranks, The Charlatans. "Can't Get Out of Bed" has just started at Alternative, but will soon ship AOR as it begins to scream for your attention. I'm out of here to enjoy my first good weather week in NYC. I may actually get to dress like a normal person.

Lea Pisacane, Atlantic Records, 212-275-2215

Once upon a time, there was a bunch of guys called Collective Soul who got rejected by every major label in America but, because the existence of talent was never in question, they said, fuck this noise and pressed it them selves. Through the morass of other records out there, their song "Shine" somehow got airplay, first at WJRR in Orlando. Lo and behold, within 32 1/2 seconds of the record going on the air, it was #2 most requested at night and Top 5 all day long. WDIZ soon added "Shine" just from the calls they were getting off WJRR's airplay. Major phones. Records were gotten into stores because somebody's Uncle Mario had a U-Haul. Store reports began to read as follows - "#2 seller behind Pearl Jam", "#3 seller behind Alice In Chains and John Michael Montgomery", "Major requests - all demos", "Top 5 seller all through December and January". Adds ensued at WKZQ, KTYD, KCAL, WXQR and more. Within 4 days of the call coming from Doug Morris, Atlantic had Collective Soul's "Hints, Allegations and Things Left Unsaid". Y'know the whole concept of "ears"? As in, she's got great ears, or he has no ears? Well this has nothing to do with that. This record has already done what people on both the radio side and the record side want a record to do. "Shine" by Collective Soul...as close to a sure thing as yer gonna get.

Pam Edwards, Columbia Records, 310-449-2901

Here's a great story about how we're continuing to break Dandelion "Under My Skin". Last week KISW had their annual COMIC RELIEF pay-for-play Radiothon and Columbia sponsored a play on Dandelion. KISW got immediate positive phones. In fact, one listener liked it so much that he bid to hear Dandelion played again. After the second day, the phones lit up again and even the sales department visited Cathy Faulkner's office to find out "who this great new band was"! Gratefully, Steve Young and Cathy saw the response and decided to give this band an official add this week. In fact, this happened with another label's song, too! Given the chance to hear some great new music, their listeners responded. Also, KISW does a great job of front and back selling all of their new music so their listeners can hook into what they're hearing. Give Dandelion a grass roots shot like KISW did, and I think you'll be pleasantly surprised.

Jessica Harley, Elektra Entertainment,

The Afghan Whigs 'Gentlemen' new this week at WTUE, KICT, KRRK, WKZQ, WVVV, KUGR & KAOI...moved into active rotation on MTV! Sales in the last 10 days over 4,000 across the counter! Get rid of the label "Alternative" because What is Alternative anyway? It's an overused word that so many ABUSE in order to neatly place an artist in a category. I think if more time was taken listening to music there would be far less lame excuses about being too "Alternative"! take a look at the top 30 R&R chart or any Rock chart - I bet 10 to 15 of the artists fit that "Alternative" category a mere year or two ago. Music's not about labels it's about emotions and power and whatever it means to the person that's listening.

Scott Douglas, Virgin, 214-714-4509

"Disarm" is the new cut out for adds this week from Smashing Pumpkins. This band has absolutely the most active audience I have seen in some time. They have sold out nearly every show they've played. They have sold 2 million records! "Disarm" has been in a heavy rotation on MTV for the last five weeks. And, they will be on the Lolapalooza tour this year. No matter the flavor of your station...this cut will fit it. It's brilliant! Brother Cane "Hard Act To Follow" is growing...and growing! This may be the most obvious song on the album. These guys have been working their asses off all year long...touring relentlessly, shaking hands, and kissing babies. This cut will bring them right on home! They are out touring with Aerosmith and bringing the house down everywhere they play! Just rotate this record...it will work!

Cracker won't die! Believe it or not, this record is just beginning to kick in a lot of markets after several months out! MTV is giving "Low" very healthy rotation to help your familiarity scores and it is really calling out-everywhere! Lenny Kravitz "Spinning Around Over You" hasn't been out there long enough to call out stories, but, it is reacting on the phones. Watch for more Lenny tour dates this summer. Colin James "Cadillac Baby" has been rocking the blues shows all over. I bet if you just played it a couple of times in mid-days, your phones would light up. There is a great buzz on this album. You'll have the whole thing domestically next week. Lastly, Iggy Pop "Beside You" will be arriving on your desk in the next couple of weeks. Lisa Germano (You know her from Mellencamp's records and tours) sings with Iggy on this cut. It's easily the most mass appeal cut Iggy has had since "Candy". Check it out...adds on 3/7. Thanks, that's the Scott Douglas show...

As I raced down the Garden State Parkway at approx 80 MPH, with new Pantera, Kyuss, and Godspeed music blazing in the tapedeck, my close personal companion turned and yelled through the smokey haze "Jon, it's 35 degrees outside...Why in the world are we going surfing?!?" "Because", I replied "The sun is shining, the waves are bitchin', I just bought a new wet suit, and...King's X is everywhere". At that point I just turned up Phil Anselmo's healthy howl and ignored my friends whimpering...Not to be redundant, but King's X is the shit!!! "Dogman" is the most successful "metal/rock radio" record of 1994...The numbers and reaction prove it! If you're not playing King's X, you're an ass!!! How about the reaction to Jawbox and Unsane...Nothing to hit the road with Entombed, and King's X is out with Scorpions then Pearl Jam...Call me for your Surgery advance and keep raging with Melvins metal! "Lizzy" is the rock radio cut!!!! Coming soon. "The Crow".

Geez - I haven't written one of these things in a while now, have I? So how are ya??? Happy Happy I hope! By now you've received Johnny Gale's Gale Force...and of course you've Listened to Track #1 "Boom Boom"...an awesome rockin' version of the John Lee Hooker tune! Check it out AOR...and for those with a Blues Show...ya can't miss this one!! Now, I gotta tell ya...Due to my decision to further my education, I may have a class during your music call hours...especially those on the west coast (please don't feel neglected!). If you need anything, my direct line is 914-935-5247 or if you're hooked up on-line, E-mail me. Prodigy: RJCD84B. Compuserve: 73534, 516. America On-line: Meg666. I'll be talkin' to ya! Cheers!

We're sitting in our radio bunker jamming out on the new Peach and Fudge albums! These puppies are hot! Both bands will be touring up the wazoo for weeks this spring/summer, so watch for "Southside Speedway" by Fudge and "Siesta" by Peach this April 1! Just around the corner is HEX, the atmospheric avant-garde album from London-based Bark Psychosis. Also real soon: Quique - the genre-breaking bridge between sonic guitar explorations and ambient-house soundscapes album from Seefeel.

Adrian Belew gets ready for a busy appearance at SxSW, and a killer national tour... There'll be plenty of fresh, cutting edge Astralwerks music this spring - new Future Sound Of London, Transformer 2, Barramundi v/a compilation, and loads more...For a true peak at the rock of the 90's try the Re/Search: Incredibly Strange Music compilation. Does anyone know if there's really going to be an Aliens vs. Predator movie this year?

Dateline: Lillehammer. Cashing in on the opportunities of our trash tabloid culture, we've retitled the debut Angelfish cd5 from "Heartbreak at Hate" to "The Ballad of Jeff & Tonya". CD decals are on the way. P.S. If you're playing Clue '94 this whodunnit is solved: Miss Harding, with the lead pipe, at the ice rink. Man of the week: John Chaney.

Dennis Constantine,

Okay, are we done with the ice storms on the East Coast? I lived on the East Coast for 26 years, and I've never seen anything like what we've had this Winter. Yee-ghads.... I guess the Groundhog knew what he was saying when he said we'd have another six weeks of Winter. Okay, now. Bring on the Spring! Peter Frampton. Did you ever think you'd hear this name again after the embarrassing "I'm In You?" Believe it or not, he has made a wonderful new record. You're probably thinking I've really flipped now, but listen to "Out of the Blue." The song is getting good response at KQPT. Rob Wasserman. This is a very bizarre collection of songs. But what would you expect from the Grateful Dead? There is a bit of inspiration, however. Check out the Bruce Hornsby track "White Wheeled Limousine." It's on Rob Wasserman's Trios (MCA). NRBQ, "A Little Bit of Bad" (Rhino). This is a hit song. For years, I've been listening to NRBQ songs recorded by other folks. And when I pulled out the original version by the band, there was something about the performance and the recording technique that left something to be desired. However, they have hit on the head with this one. A great album all the way through. Smash! John Mellencamp. "Baby Please Don't Go." from the soundtrack of the basketball movie, Blue Chips (MCA). Is this really the same guy who recorded "Jack and Diane?" He's matured, and is making the best music of his career. This haunting cover of the Van Morrison 60's song will get top phones. Fury in the Slaughterhouse. Don't let the name of this band, or the cover art work scare you away. There's some wonderful music on the disc. "Every Generation Got Its Own Disease" is a thinking person's song...and don't we got thinking persons listening to Adult Rock radio? For a giggle, check out the opening drum sample on their cover of the McGuinness-Flint song, "When I'm Dead and Gone." Fury in the Slaughterhouse, Mono (RCA). The tribute to Curtis Mayfield (Warner Brothers) is very cool. Check out Bruce Springsteen's haunting version of "Gypsy Woman." Eric Clapton rocks on "You Must Believe Me." B.B. King does "Woman's got Soul," blues-style. Good stuff.

With over 115,000 copies out the door, The Connells are showing radio that there is no longer a reason to consider them a "college band". A Hard Hundred debut and support from stations such as WKZQ (I promised Johnny not to mention the phrase "hot phones" so pretend you didn't hear it), WNNX, QMF2, WQNY, WRDU, KEZE, KFBD, WRUF, KFMH, KOCD, WAVF, WRLF, etc. are making "74-'75" a familiar voice on the airwaves (not to mention all of the Virtually Alternative and Adult Rock support The Connells have had!) The band is currently doing a tour of the Southeast, doing their best to escape all of this funky weather, and then late March, early April sees them starting another bout across the country. Talk to you soon, and if you haven't listened to "74-'75" yet, you are later than late.

I just got home from traveling with Ian Moore and we heard Counting Crows everywhere. That is just great radio music. Good job Alan and Warren! Speaking of great radio music...the next Ian Moore track will be "Harlem". With an accompanying Ice Cube produced video, this rocker is certain to keep Ian's star shining brightly at rock radio. The Ian Moore tour continues through the West to big, enthusiastic crowds and Ian's usual rave reviews. Thanks to Beaver Brown and all at KDJK for really priming the pump and rolling out the red carpet for Ian. The Big Head Todd/Freddy Jones Band tour is about to kick off in Colorado. This great bill will then make its way all over the West. We all know what a super band Todd And The Monsters is, so, of course, we're very excited to have the Freddy Jones Band grace the same stage. Here's an open invitation to come on out and hear the FJB...we know you'll be duly impressed. 311 is in the studio. Peace.

Dyana Kass, Hollywood Records,

I'm back from my gaunt with Eleven opening for Candlebox and words cannot describe how much Eleven rocked the house! Lucky attendees even got to hear a couple of new tunes to tantalize their eardrums. Now let's discuss tantalizing your listeners with our new single on the metal side "Let Down". This song got those crowds movin' and groovin' and it will do the same for your audience. To get involved with breaking a band, radio needs to be committed to the project as a whole not just the first single so show a different side of this group and go one cut deeper. If you forgot to add "Let Down" on the 14th, we will happily take adds on the 21st and cards and flowers will also be accepted to make up for your forgetfulness on not adding this truly cool tune. You will thank me for ranting and raving all this time about Eleven when things start to blow up and people, they are heating up currently! For those of you looking for a more mass appeal track try "Reach Out" a definite crowd pleaser! Until next week, my raving will now come to a close.

Linnea Nan, Warner / Reprise Metal,

Linnea phoned in her dialogue today and it went something like this. Dio Dio Dio Rip Mind Strip Mind. Tad, Green Apple Quickstep, Morbid Angel - Yes. We're shipping the new Altered State track next week... See you at Gavin or it was nice seeing you at Gavin... Biohazard, Atomic Opera... Happy Birthday Abe Lincoln. Brian.

Coven, on your desk now, clear away your lunch and look for it! Pop it in your CD player and check it out! In my attempt to be politically correct "radio impact date" will be Monday, February 28. Once again,

Monday, February 28. That's 1994. With their truly twisted, satirical lyrics, sledge-hammer like rhythms and neck breaking crunch, Coven's "Boneless Christian" will have you laughing hysterically while bashing your head against the wall! Coven is not death metal, they are an aggressive thrash band who poke fun at black metal. Here's some lyrics for you from the title track, "Boneless Christian", "We could feed every Christian to the hungry and the homeless but before you do you'd better make sure they're boneless, and as I fired up the barbecue I made a suggestion, you bring the chips and I'll bring the Christian." Hahahahahahaha! Yea these are almost the same comments as last week, it's called reinforcement. Also a big happy 16th birthday to my beautiful sister, Meg!

Sue Stillwagon, Zoo, 213-468-4225

The Varga CD pro for "Greed" will be on your desk by the end of the week. In April, Varga will be going on tour with Greta and Shootyz Groove for about 18 dates in the upper Midwest and East Coast. Dates will follow soon. Course of Empire is building nicely at metal radio. The response has been incredible. They are on tour right now with Machines of Loving Grace. It's a must see show. On a side note, the new Soundgarden is, well... wow! This record is going to be hard to ignore. Kinda like TOOL.

Susan Greenwood, MCA Records,
818-777-4118

Oh hi! So Sass Jordan is on the East Coast this week doing all kinds of festive promo stuff...are you participating in your market? You should be. The full CD of Rats will be shipped this week...so be looking for it. Voivod's "The Nile Song" is doing extremely well. Thanks to all of metal radio for their continued support on Voivod...look for them to be back on the road very soon. Dig on the road with Blind Melon starting March 10th in Milwaukee! Ramones tour starts March 8th in San Francisco...

Tom Gates, Roadrunner, 212-219-0077

Trivia: 38,969 students were suspended from school in New York City last year. Of those suspended, 5,759 were due to assaults, weapon possessions, sex or drug offenses. Scary, huh? Toto, we're not in Kansas anymore. In other reality-based news, Die Monster Die is doing dynamite! East Coast dates are coming, phone interviews are available and give-aways are flowing. This CD will grow on you...and your listeners. Nailbomb, the side project Max Cavalera (Sepultura) and Alex Newport (Fudge Tunnel), should be arriving to you any day now. Point Blank is very raw and really reflects this duo's early hardcore/punk influences. Take a listen - you'll be surprised. The Moon Seven Times' 7=49 will be released in March and You're Not Alone from Black Train Jack isn't far behind. Call me!

Matt Young, Earache Records,

They say it would never last. Three stoners, a road crew, four Green amps, five sleeping bags and two and a half pounds of pot all in a revamped diaper delivery truck for eight weeks. They made it! Sleep are officially rulers of the road! The clubs were packed thanks to everyone that supported the band! The "Dragonaut" video should be on the MTV soon. Play "The Aquarian". Pitch Shifter is kicking all kinda butt on the charts. "Diable" is the song for you. The tour with Carcass starts the first week of March and will include a secret surprise guest. Old will be Doing Radio interviews this week! Call me ASAP! Jim Plotkin and Allen Dubin would love to share a "Happy Tantrum" with you. Do yourself justice, listen to cut #9 "Scorpionic" on Scorn's new one,

Colossus. You will be instantly amazed. Do not be afraid of the hard core flava of Blood From Soul. This record is totally unprecedented! NYHC and British goth industrial. (Say that ten times real fast) Sick of it All + Napalm Death = Blood From Soul! Play it! Benny Hill has been resurrected with a guitar in the form of Lawnmower Deth. God Bless Earache! 212-DIE-9090

James Lewis, James Lewis Marketing, 310-820-4006

More new music is coming your way - look for The Blazers and their new album title Short Fuse. It was produced by Cesar Rosas, guitarist for Los Lobos and it holds many surprises. A name that might be familiar, Rory Block, also has a tasty album ready to hit the airwaves and a lot of you seem to be really excited about it. Smokin' Joe Kubek and Vance Gilbert have both found some new homes and seem to be garnering a lot of interest. Everyone should have Sacred Sources 1 - Live Forever by now. Listen to the Bob Marley and Stevie Ray Vaughn tracks which are getting the most feedback. Dee Carstensen has a beautiful album on her hands that really deserves some attention. Don't miss the boat on this one. The most recent releases from Antone's/Dos are coming from Pat McLaughlin and Doyle Bramhall. You may recognize Doyle's name as he wrote many tunes for the late-great Stevie Ray Vaughn including "The Hunter" and "Change It". Stephen Bruton has tour dates set for various cities in California and Colorado - don't miss him live! You'll thank yourself later. Karen Farr is continuing to bubble right under our charts...we're almost there! Go back to "Shadowland" and "Wintertime". Thanks!

David Kane's, Them Jazzbeards,
1800-772-7640

It's too far rockin' to be just jazz. Far too smart to be jazz-rock. Far too subversive to be new age. Way too urban to be world music. It's the soundtrack for "Highballs, Lowballs, and Presbyterians," new from Alert Music. Your welcome!

Jay Dee and Anne Leighton, Trapeze, 718-881-8183

Years ago at Castle Donnington, Twisted Sister's singer Dee Snider told then-Whitesnake guitarist Mel Galley, "When is Trapeze getting back together?" Well, Mr. Snider was real happy to discover Mel and vocalist/bassist Glenn Hughes and drummer Dave Holland are back in rock and roll action together, especially when Mel called Dee's show on WRCN to invite everyone to Trapeze's first American date at the Tribute To Ray Gillen. Thank you Dee for a great interview—you are "Heevull!" Also thanks to our other friends in radio for promoting the show—WDHA's Ed Trunk, WXRK's Howard Stern and Boy Gary, WNEW fm's Ian O'Malley, WBAB's Fingers, SOU, WARY and others. Lots of thanks to all the musicians who showed up to play—Joe Lynn Turner, Warrant's Jani Lane, Dave DiPietro, Chip Z'Nuff, Noel Redding, Paul Pesco, Trixter, TM Stevens, Tal Bergman and many others—you are the music. Also hi to Ray's mom, Amy—who spread a lot of love to everyone. Trapeze will be touring the states March 13—May 1 in support of the rerelease of their classic albums, You Are The Music, We're Just The Band and Medusa with a very special appearance March 20 at SXSW in the Backroom. And you're invited.
