SPIN DOCTORS, "CLEOPATRA'S CAT," Epic Has it really been two years and nine months since the release of the album Pocket Full Of Kryptonite? Though it took months and months for "Little Miss Can't Be Wrong" to get going, the Doctors have sustained almost constant exposure in the time since. "Little Miss" peaked at #2 on the Hard Hundred in August 1992, "Jimmy Olsen's Blues" hit the HH top ten at the end of 1992, and how many zillions of times did we all hear "Two Princes" all over the radio? Now the New York rock & roll quartet, that was 1992's biggest success story, is back with their new Turn It Upside Down album set for mid-June. That title doesn't lie. Expecting more of the same from the good Doctors? No way. Formula this ain't, a la how AIC followed up with their change of pace, or Mellencamp's "Wild Night" treatment. Don Was, who's got Bonnie Raitt, Rolling Stones, the Backbeat Soundtrack and Texas currently on the street, does a fine job of melding scat vocals, blues guitar riffs, and a very beat rhythm section into what's ultimately a more polished sound. Those elements were all there before, if you think about it. Isn't this the "Two Princes" chord progression backward and slower? The Spin Doctors will be out on the road this summer and they're even rumored to be on the Woodstock anniversary bill.

Hard Acts To follow

BONNIE RAITT, "LONGING IN THEIR HEARTS," Capitol "Longing" now resides at 13" on AAA chart, with 1376 spins to back it up. Triple A picked this from jump street, lavishing far more attention and air-play on this clearly superior track. Bonnie's actor hubby Michael O'Keefe, who writes poetry as a hobby apparently left the lyrics layin' around, and Bonnie was only too happy to turn it into a delightful slide driven little ditty about matrimony's mental meanderings. Notice how the intro note for note's that ultra catchy "Best Part Of Waking Up" Folger's jingle. You can also talk about Levon Helm's involvement, and though it's not quite the hardest track on the album, it is the hookiest. With Top 15 play on "Love Sneakin' Up On You", album sales past the 600,000 mark, and Bonnie's tour beginning on July 8th you have more than enough compelling reasons to add immediately.

3RD MATINEE, "I DON'T CARE," Reprise If you read last week's AAA interview, you know this incarnation is former Mr. Mister founder Richard Page teamed up with Toy Matinee prime mover Patrick Leonard. "We were going to call it 2nd Matinee and then we thought that 3rd Matinee sounds better," says Mr. Leonard. "Better" is how this new aggregation sounds to us. Though Mr. Mister was much maligned, Page is obviously a super talented vocalist and songwriter—not to mention his fly fishing talent. We think this track's atmospheric and the George Harrison-influenced chorus is as interesting as any adult targeted track on the street, with Leonard's touch lending an almost Steely Dan meets Michael Penn aura to what could have easily been an overly pop project. Goes to show that after producing Madonna anything's easy.

YES, "Walls," Victory/PLG Ever wonder what the Everly Brothers would sound like onstage with Yes? Jon and Trevor do make sweet music together, this time with no goal other than a hook so big it has its own zip code. Christ, this thing could go fifteen rounds with "Winds Of Change". That always means CHR attention, and this time they'll get plenty of AC exposure as well. That's probably why 19 Hard reporters haven't waited, including five this past week. Airplay's increased at six stations, including KGGO, KSHE, KSPQ, WGIR, WIMZ and WOZN, all good for a 70" position this week. "Another fine one," says TJ at WDHA. Sales of the Talk album are now past the 321,000 mark, and the band will be going on a 30-date tour roundabout North America.

BON JOVI, "GOOD GUYS DON'T ALWAYS WEAR WHITE," 550 Music "Keep The Faith," "You Give Love A Bad Name," "Bad Medicine," "Wild In The Streets." From that list one could safely say that when Jon, Richie, Tico, Alec and David rock they consistently get results. Not to demean their ballad prowess, but it's their grittier side that you guys prefer, and here's a face full of it. The pieces all fit nicely, with Richie's signature guitar solo a black hat special all the way. "Good Guys" comes from the soundtrack to the upcoming movie "Cowboy Way," which stars Kiefer Sutherland and Woody Harrelson and opens on June 3.

THE HATTERS, "DIG THE RIBBIT," Atlantic Formed in Philly in 1988 and now based in New York City, the Hatters have made their mark with blazing live performances, playing the same club circuit as the Spin Doctors. In fact, they share the same manager. Hi Dave! "Dig The Ribbit" is a slice of slippery humor about a (surprise!) frog. "Damn, this thing is exploring for us. It's been top-five phones for three weeks now," says Dave Rossi at WAVF. "It's in heavy rotation and it's selling in every store. Plus, I just think it's a very cool summertime kinda groove Phish-type record." Gosh, we think Dave's pretty darn cool, too, since we were also able to use that quote in Lea's ad. And like the Miracle Grow spot sez, if it wasn't true Dave wouldn't say it. "We're really happy with the album," says bass player Jon Kaplan. "The playing is good enough to interest musicians, but the songs and arrangements are strong enough to grab anyone who just loves to rock."

©1994 REPRISE RECORDS. MINDING IS A WASTE OF TIME.

Dig, "Unlucky Friend," RADIOACTIVE Dig are back for seconds with a track that's been edited to take out that nasty f-word. Instead they inserted the word

"Pissin'". Only kidding. "Believe" just dropped out of the top 20 just a few weeks ago, after spending the first quarter of this year on the Hard Hundred. "Believe" also got Buzz Clip support from MTV for about the same period of time and was a top 15 track on the Hard Report Alternative chart. Sales of the band's album are almost at the 200,000 mark. KIOZ's already leading the way on "Unlucky Friend." Rock & Roll Peg sez, "This was my first pick off the CD, I'm glad we finally got the edit!"

GEORGE THOROGOOD, "Killer's BLUZE," ERC There was a time when blues guitar music was considered such an unsaleable commodity that Jimi Hendrix' record company made him take the straight 12-bar blues track "Red House" off the Are You Experienced? album. We're sure glad times have changed. If they hadn't, George Thorogood's "Bad To The Bone" might never have been the breakthrough track that it was. Now Thorogood's gone back to that killer slide-guitar blues approach for "Killer's Bluze," the third track from his current album. "Bluze" already has three adds — KQWB, WXKE and WZZR, and Thorogood will be out on the road with ZZ Top this summer.

Stabbing WESTWARD, "Nothing," COLUMBIA They're stabbing upward on the Hard Hundred, where they move 91-79*, and they debut at 49* on the COR chart. Here's a band that's already toured with groups like Paw, Prong, Therapy?, the Cocteau Twins and Course Of Empire. They've been out there breaking the boundaries between alternative, dance, industrial and metal music. Their impressive first album has immediately drawn phones where it's been played. We're already seeing 15 reporters on the track, including KISW and KRXQ, who are new this week. Four stations have increased rotation — KMOD, WBTZ, WNCD and WXRC. COR stations are picking up on this record and getting reaction.

"Nothing" was the first video from the band's debut album, Ungod, and went to number two on the Alternative video charts. B-Side describes the Ungod album as "a powerful unified whole." The band is currently on tour with Depeche Mode & Primal Scream.

TEXAS, "Fade Away," MERCURY I don't need a lover, just a new album from Texas. Yeah, that's it! An album called Ricks Road. And put a rollicking R&B track on it, and call it

"Fade Away." The band's hometown of Glasgow, Scotland, has always been a working class city with soul. In fact, so soulful is this band that they invited Sister Rose of Sly & The Family Stone to make a vocal appearance on the Ricks Road LP. Already the new album has sold over 100,000 copies, and the band goes out on tour with James next month. Isn't there a Rick James joke in here somewhere? The album has already been top 15 on the Hard AAA album chart and now, "Fade Away" is just getting started, as WXRC gets behind the track. Job done. Go home. Twenty-five-year-old Sharleen Spiteri is the group's charismatic singer and guitarist, but think of these guys as a band...a band as big as Texas.

Dixie DREGS, "Shapes Of Things," CAPRICORN The Dixie Dregs have always stood alone at the pinnacle of musicianship, thanks to the sheer brilliance of their playing abilities. Jeez, who'd wanna live up to a lead line like that? But the Dregs are up for the challenge. Here is a group of "musician's musicians" who have always blended rock, funk, country, classical, bluegrass and you-name-it into a wonderful mix of powerful, yet soulful music. Now they've come Full Circle, with their first new studio album in 12 years. "Shapes Of Things" is, of course, a cover of the Yardbirds' 1966 hit. What, you never heard of the Yardbirds? Ask your parents about them, or give Jeff Cook, J.B. or Linehan a call. It's the perfect follow-up to the Dregs' last AOR success, "Medley (Take It Off The Top)" from the Bring 'Em Back Alive LP.

Elvis COSTELLO, "Sulky Girl," WARNER BROTHERS Here's a man who's been on the Letterman show twice in six weeks, most recently last Thursday night, during one of Letterman's shows from Los Angeles. Costello's touring until the middle of June while this second track from his current album goes out on the radio. And who better to comment on "Sulky Girl" than the Music Director of the station which managed to single handedly chart the track at R&R. Says Amy Winslow, "I'm friends with his mom and we did what we had to do". Costello's up to sales of 300,000 on his current album.

U2, "All I Want Is You,"
URCA It's been a few months since "Stay" stuck it to the Hard Hundred, so it's perfect timing for this new offering from Ireland's best (After Van, that is). Originally on Rattle & Hum, this track has never been worked. And it comes from the "Reality Bites" soundtrack album that went gold in a week and has spawned hits at all formats — Alternative, adult contemporary and CHR with tracks from Big Mountain and Lisa Loeb & Nine Stories. KLOS started playing this U2 track and quickly bumped it to top ten airplay, prompting a new surge in album sales. This could be the track that pushes "Reality Bites" pass the platinum mark. If you're bothered by the song's length, we suggest you fade it out after the 3:50 mark, and if you wo (fade).

BACKBEAT SOUNDTRACK, "Money,"
Virgin It's the trousers. The tight trousers. From the soundtrack to the movie about the Beatles' early days in Hamburg comes this Don Was-produced track. As per Ringo's dialogue with Don, the mindset here is that no one is trying to copy the Beatles here, just recreate some of their brash energy, and that this alternative supergroup has — albeit on a track familiar to one and all. Even if they're too young to remember the original song, they'll have seen the video on MTV or have seen the honest and gritty movie about the Beatles' early days in Hamburg and Liverpool. Sales of the soundtrack are already at 100,000, even though the cult classic to be has been out less than a couple of months.

SOUNDGARDEN, "Black Hole Sun,"
A&M We're telling you about this track a week early, so be on the lookout for the CD single in the coming days. But we gotta commend A&M on a brilliant marketing strategy. Arranging the best solar eclipse for the rest of the century just before shipping this track to radio is pretty heavy, don't you think? Maybe that annular eclipse is the reason 66 stations are already on "Black Hole," or that 15 stations put this disc up in their air. But we don't think astronomical phenomena can explain Soundgarden's 37-30* move on the Hard Hundred or that 16-14* move at COR. "Black Hole" is already most-requested at seven stations — WAOR, WBTZ, WCIZ, WKLL, WRCQ, WVCB, WZMT, with 23 stations reporting airplay increases. Soundgarden, who reign over the hard rock scene along with their Seattle-area brethren Pearl Jam, begin a tour in Vancouver on May 28. Just don't look at them directly or permanent damage could result.

MOST ACTIVE

DAVID BYRNE, "Angels,"
Luaka Bop/Sire/WB David went into the studio with only four musicians and no bongos in sight. But he saw "Angels." Programmers we've talked to seem happy to see Byrne going back in more of a Talking Heads direction. The head Head has the fourth-most added song of the week, picking up 34 stations, and he ranks at 30 on the AAA chart. "Cool as hell," says WCIZ's Carl Craft. "Some old Talking Heads going through his head." But it's what's in Carl's head that we're really curious about.

FRANCIS DUNNERY, "American Life In The Summertime,"
Atlantic Life in the summertime looks downright deluxe for the ex-Robert Plant guitarist as his debut solo outing continues to build momentum. The infectious pop grooves of this track help it to inch ever higher on the Hard Hundred, up to 81*, with spins on 18 stations. "It's doing very well," says Dale Miller of KATP. "It's building each week." Adds come in from KEYT, WCIZ, WIYY and WRZX, with increased spins on KATP, KMOD, KSPQ, WHEB and WRUF. "I really like the hell out of it," says Chuck Robson of KSPQ. "He's whacked," says Greg O'Brien. "He's one crazy Scotsman."

Pink Floyd, "Take It Back,"
Columbia The rumor on the street is that Nostradamus has predicted that Montreal Stadium will collapse during a Pink Floyd concert in 1994. And the band plays there later this month. If it happens, we promise all the details. In the meantime, we're not taken aback to see 13 stations add "Take It Back" this week. After all, it's already getting top five phones at six stations, including WAOR, WOZN, WXKE and WKQZ. Those chart numbers look good, too — 19-13* on the Hard Hundred, 30-17* at COR and a number 19 placing at AAA. This is the only love song on the album, an ode to the paranoia that can accompany even the happiest moments. We had to laugh when we read that a music magazine down under suggested The Division Bell could be retitled "Wish You Were An Animal On The Dark Side Of The Wall."

TRAFFIC, "Here Comes A Man,"
Virgin Here come some single-digit chart positions. A 10-8* move on the Hard Hundred and 4* at Triple A. Forty-one stations increase airplay on Traffic this week, while top-five phones are being seen at KCLB, WKIT, WRFX, WSHE, WSTZ and WZNF. "You can't go wrong with it," says Dayna Steele at KLOL. "It sounds great. Upper demos gotta love it." "It's got the great elements of Winwood with the classic Traffic sound," says Phil Marlowe at WCCC. "The keyboards are totally recognizable." "It's pulling phones," says KATP's Dale Miller. "It's soulful, great vocals, an excellent groove." "Close your eyes and you'll swear it was made 20 years ago," says Brian James at WBLM.

JOHN MELLENCAMP, "Wild Night,"
Mercury John pays tribute to Irish rock legend Van Morrison with this souped up version of "Wild Night." Dance artist Me'Shell NdegeOcello adds vocals and an ultra-groovin' bass line to push this one over the edge. Ninety-nine adds this week, including WMMR, WNEW and WBCN, give the track a 64* debut on the AOR chart with a debut at 73* on the Hard Hundred. "The audience is liking it," says Greg O'Brien at WPDH. "An interesting peek into the forthcoming LP," adds T.J. at WDHA. "It's a great re-interpretation. He has rebuilt the song and she is a great addition," says Tom Guild at WRDU. A summer tour is slated to hit the road in July.

CRY OF LOVE, "Carnival,"
Columbia So far, three successive top AOR tracks for the pride of Raleigh, North Carolina. Don't you love it that a group inspired by the great bands of the '70s like Bad Company has now enjoyed early exposure to rival their idols? Now "Carnival" comes to town, picking up 15 adds and seeing early increased airplay at KJKJ, KZOZ, WLZR and WNCB along with debuting at 100* from the Hard Hundred. "It's a track we've been spiking for the last year and a half," says Michael Cross at KJKJ. "Cry Of Love is our most-played band in 1993." And as fans like Michael are well aware, there are more quality tracks to come.

GREEN DAY, "Longview,"
Reprise Color Green Day rosy red as "Longview" moves up to 35* on the Hard Hundred. Sixty-three stations are on the track, with 11 adds and 26 increases to go with a buzz MTV clip. "The younger demos are going ape-shit," says Scott Steele at WRUF. "It's the number-one seller in our buzz bin," adds Mimi Griswold at WKLL. "Forty-six in five days. People are buying it on the strength of one record." With over 350,000 albums sold, Green Day is already rolling in the green. "It's a good record," says Chuck Robson at KSPQ. "It's picking up - getting calls at night." Top five phones come in at KILO, KRAB, WBLM, WCCC and WDRK, to go with heavy play at WRZX and WAAF, among others.

MOTHERLAND, "Rumor,"
550 Music Jason Bonham returns to the airwaves with a new sound that owes more to some of his dad's '70s rivals than to Zeppelin itself. Teamed with Brother Cane producer Marty Frederickson on lead vocals and rhythm guitars, Jason and Co. grab 13 adds in its debut week, including KNAC, KZRZ and WLZR. Frederickson pitches in with producer Ron St. Germain to help give Motherland an up to date sound. Says Steve Funk at KZAK, "After one listen I find it intriguing."

ROLLINS BAND, "Liar,"
Imago Don't wimp out! Play Hank! Eleven adds! Increased airplay at KIOZ, KRXQ, KUPD, WAAF, WBTZ and WKLL! Top-five phones at KZRZ and WBTZ! Adrenaline! Anger! Rollins! In your face! A 74-72* move on the Hard Hundred! A COR chart jump from 48 to 43*! Touring with Therapy? in the northeast and midwest! The Rollins Band's last record, The End Of Silence, still sells about 2,000 copies a week, even though it came out over two years ago! Woodstock! Jonathan at WIYY calls this "the song of his fucking career." "Kickin' ass request wise," says Larry Mac at KZRK. "It's doing very well," reports Mimi Griswold at WKLL. "Attitude and balls." Rollins recently hosted "120 Minutes"! The Rollins Band will soon perform live on "120 Minutes"! Anton Corbijn (Nirvana, U2, Depeche Mode) directed the video for "Liar" in the desert near Lancaster, California! Rollins is painted cherry-red all over in the video! We're not lying! Put "Liar" on the air!

THEE HYPNOTICS, "HEAVY LIQUID," AMERICAN Thee chart positions look nice — 84-74* on the Hard Hundred and a debut at 47* on the COR chart. "I think that their name says it all," says Beaver Brown at KDJK. "It's very hypnotic and heavy." WNCD's Dom Nordella calls this "a beautiful funky laid-back rocker with some of the best guitar noise I've heard in a long time." Mimi Griswold at WKLL likes the "very ballsy sound. It's got the licks of Zeppelin and Sabbath." Twenty-two stations are pouring "Heavy Liquid," with increased airplay at KEZE, WBTZ, WIZN and WTKX, and four new adds.

ALICE IN CHAINS, "I STAY AWAY," COLUMBIA You have "No Excuses" not to add this follow-up to their recent chart topper. Alice In Chains is tied for #8 Most Added this week as 18 stations come on board including KLOS, KOMP, KSHE, WBCN, WIYY, WLZR, and WMMS. "I Stay Away" moves 36-27* on the Hard Hundred and is a bulleted number nine on the COR chart. KEZE reports top-five phones and 23 stations have increased their airplay this week. They may have had to wait for their success a little longer than their Seattle brethren Nirvana and Pearl Jam, but they have made up for lost time with the major impact that both Dirt and now the Jar of Flies EP has made on rock radio. Their darkly hypnotic sound is unique to almost anything else that is barking for your attention, and they have the ability to be a core artist at rock radio for years to come.

STUTTERING JOHN, "I'LL TALK MY WAY OUT OF IT," ATLANTIC Here's the man who asked Raquel Welch, "Are they drooping yet?" The guy who had the balls to ask Tommy Lasorda, "How much do you want to bet that Pete Rose is gambling again?" Maybe "Talk" will become the theme song for Howard Stern's New York gubernatorial campaign. But there's something here for more than the Libertarians. And there's a great video with famous bass players and non-bass players getting auditioned. Eight adds this week, bringing the station total to 13 with increased airplay at KEGE and WBTZ.

SASS JORDAN, "(PISSIN') DOWN AGAIN," MCA "We get two or three calls every time we play it," says Beaver Brown at KDJK. "It's soulful, bluesy, ballsy."

Sass debuts at 57* on the Hard Hundred this week. "Can I watch?" asks Dave Jackson at KKEG. "This song has more moods than a mood ring," says Scott Gentle at WFYV. "Sass is pissin' on everyone else this week," adds Scott Steele at WRYF. "She's still on the high road easy." A total of 43 stations are playing the follow-up to Sass's four straight top ten tracks. She's out on the road to support the airplay. WRCQ's getting top-five phones and 16 stations increase airplay this week.

TOAD THE WET SPROCKET, "FALL DOWN," COLUMBIA Though Toad has prospered via multi format action, rock radio really seems to feel more of an exclusive franchise this time around. Witness the 50* Hard Hundred debut and 7* AAA chart positions. There are also twenty adds and 24 stations reporting airplay increases — everything you need for a bully blastoff. "A real strong effort," says Joe Moss at KATS. "One of the strongest tunes on the LP," says Scott Steele at WRUF. John Cooper at WPYX calls it "fantastic," while David Rossi at WAVF says simply, "It's a smash."

GREAT WHITE, "SAIL AWAY," ZOO They're sailing up the Hard Hundred, moving 96-53* this week, and debuting at 40* on the COR chart. Who would have thought we'd hear acoustic guitars, cellos, congas or saxophones on a Great White release? "They dropped their hairspray bottle along the way and started to rock & roll again," says Jarred at WBLM. "Sail Away" is one of the best grooves since 'No Excuses.' I love it." "I'm way impressed," adds Michael Cross at KJKJ. "I like the new sound a lot." Jay Philpott at WNOR describes "Sail Away" as "honest, real bluesy and dreamy." If you haven't sat down with Great White's seventh album and played it all the way through, you should. It flows like a single song, and you'll hear Clarence Clemons on the last three tracks. Great White are tied for #8 Most Added this week with 18 new reports. "Sail Away" is getting top-five phones at KILQ, increased airplay at 22 stations, and airplay at a total of 43 stations.

BOZ SCAGGS, "SOME CHANGE," VIRGIN Boz makes some change on the Hard Hundred, climbing 57-55* and holding on to the number two spot on the AAA chart. There are lots of compliments for the album and for this remixed version of the title track. "A real good bluesy sound from Boz," says Michael Cross at KJKJ. "A return to the Steve Miller era." "The upper demos are responding," notes Dale Miller at KATP. "Reminds me of John Mayall." Six adds, including KATS, KLBJ, KQWB, WLLZ and WXRC, bring the station total to 39 this week. Ten stations increase airplay this week.

ROB RULE, "SHE GETS TOO HIGH," MERCURY They get higher and higher each week, no easy task in this traffic. Please note the 47-37* advance, this week on the Hard Hundred and a 39-38* COR move. New believers this week are KATT, WHTF, WIYY, WKLL, WRXX, WTUE, and WXKE with increases at WAPL, WGIR, WIXV, WIZN, WOUR, and WRIF. The amount of spins grew from 419 to 597. "A fucking great song, a smash," says Carl Craft from WCIZ. "A great summer song that really grows on you," says Guy at WHDQ. "This one builds with every play," adds Dale Miller at KATP. Twelve adds this week.

THE GRAYS, "VERY BEST YEARS," EPIC "If you have the Grays coming to your town be prepared for an excellent display of musicianship, songwriting and performance," say Rob Nicholson and Julie Hoyt at Channel Z. The Grays are a group of seasoned musicians who deliver a polished performance on their debut album Bo Sham Bo. Fourteen stations are on the track, including the two adds this week. There's increased airplay at WRUF and WRXX and "Very Best Years" is bulleted at 78* on the Hard Hundred.

LIVE, "SELLING THE DRAMA," RADIOACTIVE "Doing great, good phones," is the progress report from WAVF's (here he is again!) David Rossi. "Sounds great on the air." Greg O'Brien at WPDH says it's "got testicles hanging down by the ankles." "We put it on the battle at 8:00," says Rob Norton at KRNA. "It kicked ass after five nights." Produced by the band with Jerry Harrison, "Selling The Drama" is #6 Most Added this week, picking up 22 new stations and debuts at 58* on the Hard Hundred. Live are now on a U.S. tour with Vic Chestnut and Angelfish, after a brief delay because of an illness of one of the members in the band.

CHEAP TRICK, "YOU'RE ALL I WANNA DO," WARNER BROTHERS No dirty tricks here, just a vintage Cheap Trick track with a big sound and a bigger hook.

"You're All I Wanna Do" makes big gains bounding up the Hard Hundred to 64* and jumps onto the COR charts at 65*. Thirty-three stations have picked up on the track, with 8 new adds including KRZR, KSEZ, KSPQ, KZDZ, WCGY, WHMH, WOZN, and WXKE, and 10 more boosted their rotations including KATP, KEZE, KJKJ, WAPL, WKIT, WLZR, WSTZ, WUFX, WXRC, and WZNF. The Tricksters are drawing heavy play at WUFX and WXRC, among others.

THE ALLMAN BROTHERS BAND, "NO ONE TO RUN WITH," EPIC Run with these figures: 13-7* on the Hard Hundred, a debut at 44* on the COR chart and the number six spot on the AAA chart. Also note Top-five phones at 11 reporting stations, including WKIT, WRFX, WSHE and WXKE. It's a true return to form by this band, which seems energized by producer Tom Dowd, who oversaw the band's earliest efforts. "It sounds like the summer of '76 all over again," says Tim Travis at WDIZ. TJ Bryan describes the track as "Bo Diddley jamming with the Dead on revival," while Carl Craft at WCIZ says "Buddy Holly Bo Diddley Deadaphies it." Dave Jackson at KKEG says simply "it's brilliant." Four adds bring the station total to 109 and an incredible 45 stations up their rotations on "No One" this week.

MOTHER STATION, "PU THE BLAME ON ME," EASTWEST You'll have no one to blame but yourself if you don't hear this hit early. This out and out rocker moves up to 47* on the Hard Hundred, with adds by WIMZ, WKQZ, WRXX, and WZZR to bring the total to 48 stations on the track. The band continues to draw kudos. "This is right up our alley," says Vinny Marino at WAXQ. "It sounds cool," adds Greg O'Brien at WPDH. The track gets increased spins from 14 stations, including KLOS, KRXQ, WKLL, WZMT, WZXL. The self-proclaimed "Soul Bitches" look like they're on their way with this one.

Music Noise

DATELINE: DENVER

As if "The Stand" mini-series didn't have Boulder enough on the American public's mind this week, the following Denver/Boulder radio developments had the industry equally abuzz. First came word that eleven-and-a-half year KBCO veteran Doug Clifton had resigned as PD. To do what? Actually, no specific plans were announced, but word from inside the building had Doug feeling that he'd reached his peak at the station and was ready for a fresh, new challenge. Knowing Doug, of course, that's as political a statement as he'd ever issue. Next came word that a new 100KW station — still without final calls, a staff, a format or air date — will be signing on with nearby Evergreen as the city of license. Gosh, do you think those two developments might somehow be connected? The same sources indicated to Noise that Ray Skibitsky, of SBR fame, (and a former KBCO GM himself) would be playing a very active role in setting things up for the Evergreen Communications Company, performing basically as acting General Manager, while continuing his official involvement with Messrs. Bradley and Rahn. Alternative is the most talked about direction for the new property, a format that, properly executed and marketed, could impact heavily on what many consider to be the second most competitive rock radio market after Phoenix. But then again, if Clifton's at the controls, serious Triple A leanings could be anticipated as well. At this point, the only stone unturned in this scenario involves who Doug might be taking with him, and the smart money has that news at the top of Noise next week.

TRIPLE A GETS AN EINSTEIN

Dave Einstein

Dave Einstein has been named to the newly created position of Director of Rock Promotion for Mercury, responsible for all promotion efforts to Triple A stations nationally. Einstein was promoted from National Rock Manager, a position he held since 1991. Sr. VP/Promotion David Leach commented, "I couldn't be happier about Dave's promotion. With his experience, expertise and passion for this music, he's the perfect man to head our efforts at the Adult Rock format. Along with A&R providing us the great music, Dave will take Mercury and our artists to even greater successes." VP/AOR Promotion Drew Murray offered, "Having someone as talented as Dave Einstein in house made him the obvious choice for the job. We want to make a serious investment in Adult Rock, and who better than Dave, who's respected in the community for both his radio experience and his promotion skills." Prior to joining Mercury, Einstein was with RCA as Local Promotion Manager for the Mid-Atlantic area, and has also served time with WHFS in Washington, DC. "I'm extremely excited about this opportunity," said Einstein, "and I'm looking forward to helping address the Adult Rock format with Mercury. There are a lot of our artists who should be involved with Adult Rock, and hopefully, I'll be able to lend my efforts to be a conduit for that. I'd like to thank both David Leach and Drew Murray for this opportunity."

THE U.S. MAIL DELIVERS... BUT NOT TO WXRT

If you've spotted a mailman walking around Chicago wearing a Possum Dixon T-Shirt and reading the latest edition of Billboard, chances are that was U.S. postal carrier Robert Beverly. According to the Chicago Sun-Times, for the past year, Beverly, whose route included WXRT, has been "selectively" delivering the mail to the good citizens of Chicago, while keeping all kinds of goodies — including CDs, T-shirts and other sundry items that were addressed to Norm Winer and Patty Martin — for himself. The missing mail was discovered after firefighters responded to a fire at Beverly's condominium. Investigator's said the mail was found scattered "in almost every room of Beverly's condo and included hundreds of compact disc packages and CD mailing containers stored in postal bags, pouches, tubs and trays." A federal warrant was issued by the U.S. Attorney's office against Beverly, who, according to friends and relatives, is currently vacationing in Bermuda with his wife. None of the "missing" mail was damaged by the fire, but it's being held by the U.S. Attorney's office as evidence and will not be released until after Beverly is apprehended. WXRT's Programming Department commented on the events, "Now you know what we mean when we say we've never received your CD!"

ROGERS & COWAN PROMOTES O'CONNOR TO EXEC. VP

Maureen O'Connor

Maureen O'Connor has been promoted to the position of Executive Vice President of entertainment public relations firm Rogers & Cowan, Inc. "Maureen's outstanding performance working with all genres of music has been an integral part of Rogers & Cowan's recent expansion of the music unit," commented CEO Tom Tardio. "We are committed to continuing our aggressive growth in all areas of entertainment. Maureen's solid reputation as one of the industry's top music publicists will continue to be pivotal in our achievement of that goal." O'Connor joined Rogers & Cowan in 1992 as a Senior VP. Prior to that, she held a similar position at Sollers/Roskin/Friedman for five years.

ESTRADA NAMED HOLLYWOOD A&R REP

Kevin Estrada

Hollywood Records Executive VP Bob Pfeifer announced the promotion of Kevin Estrada to A&R Representative. Estrada first joined the label two-and-a-half years ago as part of the Metal Promotion Department. Prior to that, he was Music Director with on-campus radio station KLA at the University of California. Pfeifer commented on the appointment, "Having worked with Kevin in his capacity within the Metal Promotion department, I've been impressed with his enthusiasm, energy and musical knowledge. I know I can count on him to help us shape our artist roster into one of the best in the business."

Ooz Jelly

Zoo Entertainment has entered into a joint-venture agreement with recording artists Green Jelly under the name Ooz Jelly Entertainment. The agreement includes funding a state-of-the-art digital video and audio production facility, as well as an array of multi-media ventures with the band including CD-ROM and video games. One of the first projects will be developing and producing a TV pilot for MTV. Zoo President Lou Maglia commented, "From the very beginning, Green Jelly's wide ranging creative abilities were the basis for Zoo's commitment. The audio-visual aspect to their creativity was the early foundation for over two million single, CD, cassingle, long-form home video and video single sales around the world. The creative concept of Green Jelly can't be restricted to home video and records. It's too big. This venture opens up the entire group to multi-media ventures and television shows that will fully express their creativity. It's a very exciting venture. You have a state-of-the-art facility that will not only accommodate the band's needs for their musical talents, but work with outside interests in all stages of audio and video production. There are no boundaries for what the band can do." Bill Manspeaker, leader of Green Jelly and GM of Ooz Jelly added, "The support, both financially and emotionally, Lou has given us is immense. We've taken great steps to have the top level equipment at Ooz Jelly Entertainment, and invest in what is going to be the future of the video and multi-media industry. When Green Jelly started we thought beyond records and now our ideas are finally becoming a reality."

Pictured (l-r): Steven Shanear, Green Jelly; Lou Maglia; Bill Manspeaker; Kevin Coogan, Ooz Jelly; Sam Valkonen, VP/Bus. Op, Zoo; Scott Vanderbilt, VP/Bus. & Legal, Zoo.

K KLQ/San Diego added two members to its airstaff. Mike Esparza will begin doing the 10pm-2am airshift on May 16. Mike joins Q106 from KWSS/San Jose, and has formerly worked at KFXX/Tucson, KWAV/Monterrey-Santa Cruz, SLY-96FM/San Luis Obispo, and the N.S.E. Radio Network. Also joining the part-time ranks from cross-town XHRM/92.5 is Jack Broady. Jack will work weekends and swing shifts.

W LUP-FM/Chicago announced several weekend programming changes. Beginning Sunday (5/15). Loop veteran Wendy Snyder will host "The Loop Sound Check," featuring music from artists who will be playing in the area, including interviews, music and reviews. "I'm excited to be back in the music end of radio," said Snyder, "and I'm hoping that 'Sound Check' will become a one-stop shop for concert info." Snyder will also continue to cover news and traffic on "The World According to Garry Meier." Also changing is "Sound Opinions," a critical look at music hosted by Chicago Sun-Times' Jim DeRogatis and The Reader's Bill Wyman. The show is expanding to three hours on Sunday nights at 9pm.

W estwood One and E! Entertainment are developing a new programming service for radio, which will offer WW1 affiliates access to up-to-the minute entertainment news, including interviews with celebrities from film, television, music and sports. How long has the station been in the planning stages?

Kevin: Basically, it started out as a concept before KJ104 went off the air. We were given the luxury, or an unusual circumstance, where we were actually told that the format was changing about six weeks before we went off the air.

Wow... That's something rare.

Kevin: Yeah, and it made for a really nice departure in the marketplace. We got tons of attention and an unbelievable show of support, and it was also really fair to the staff and to the jocks, the people that believed in the music. They did a really professional job of not bad mouthing the situation, which I think that some people would have the inclination to do, and really just tried to make it the best station that they could, and the station went out with a 5.8.

How has it done since, as a Country station?

Kevin: It's hovered around where it was as a New Rock station — around a 2-3 share. And at this point, we have two AMs here that we bought and our AM is doing better than KJJO, which is kind of interesting. It's our nostalgic AM format.

Do you have a hand in programming that station?

Kevin: Not really. I meet with their program director, Reed Hagan, once a week. He does a fabulous job, and it's just a super cool station. In fact, it's probably my favorite radio station in this market next to REV 105. The story is, we tried to buy a radio station and it was pretty difficult in the market. There weren't any stations available, it took about a year, and then all of a sudden, on two consecutive days, three different stations came out that we had been working on independently. One was an FM in a southern suburb, 105.1, and that covered about 70% of the metro area, and the other two AMs covered the rest of the metro area. We knew that it would be weird but decided to buy all three, and were going to simulcast on all three with our goal still being complete FM coverage. One of those AMs was KLBB, this really cool nostalgic format that happened to be for sale, so we bought it and signed the purchase agreement. But a lot of people had really mixed feelings from day one like, 'This is my favorite radio station.' We felt like we were taking away something in the community that was really needed. I mean, nobody really serves the older audience the way KLBB does in such a warm, friendly way. We also found that a lot of New Rock listeners listened to KLBB too. It was unbelievable, every single person that I talked to... I was like, 'Yeah, we bought three stations, we're going New Rock; we bought WTCX in Lakeville, we bought KBCW in Anoka,' and then, I would almost mumble it, 'And we have KLBB.' Their basic response was, 'No, you can't change KLBB,' and I was like, 'I'm sorry, it was for sale, somebody else would've done it and they could've turned it into a country station.'

Minneapolis, always considered one of the most musically active cities in the country, has suddenly showed itself as being a fertile radio market as well.

And, since May 1st, things will never be the same in the Twin Cities.

That day marked the arrival of "Revolution Radio," an event highly anticipated by members of the alternative community and the industry at large. Months in the planning, "Rev 105" will strive to bring high levels of creativity to the airwaves, smashing the status quo and general preconceptions that seem to surround commercial alternative radio in 1994. In our feature piece this week, we meet the man leading the revolution, Program Director Kevin Cole.

by spiro phanos

Did the response surprise you?

Kevin: What surprised me was how across the board that response was. I knew that I liked it, I knew that my friends liked it, but everybody I talked to liked it. We started thinking about it here, and we thought, 'Why do so many people tune into this?', in part, because it's really fresh — but I also think, in a weird way, it's another form of Alternative music, because it's not their parents music, it's their grandparent's music. It just worked out in a really fun way. A month later, WLOL in Cambridge agreed to sell us the station at 105.3, so suddenly we had four stations. The two FMs covered the whole Twin Cities as well as way beyond, so now we cover a nice chunk of mid-Minnesota with KLBB, and actually triple its reach because we are simulcasting it on the other AM. That was a little shift in focus for us, but it's one that we are really happy about, and KLBB is successful as well.

Kevin: This all happened in November and December, and the transactions took place this year.

A lot of FCC red tape too, I bet.

Kevin: Yeah, but you know, that went really smoothly. We cleared every station in the time, within those windows that they lay out for you. Our lawyers were really good.

Tell me about KJJO, where you were Music Director. When did it go off the air?

Kevin: Around Labor Day of '92. What happened was, Brian Turner, who was ad hoc creative director and did morning drive at 104, and who is a real visionary — he's got that vision thing going — shopped the concept of the format with two former Operations Managers from 1104, Tony Powers and Jack Smith. At that time, I was involved with the grassroots organization to keep the modern rock awareness up and keep the support going for 104. I maintained contact with BT and it was sort of implied that if something happened we would hook up. Over time, Tony took the job at Channel Z, and BT and Jack found an investor in Jim and Susan Cargill; who used to listen to KJ104, really liked it, really missed it, and wanted to keep the format back on the air in the Twin Cities. So they got together and had some talks. This was around December now.

The National Alternative Network wasn't formed yet?

Kevin: No.

And Spin radio was being produced independently?

Kevin: Well, at this point, Spin Radio didn't exist yet, not the commercial show. But the Spin Radio Network, which was produced by someone else out in New York, was aired on 90 college stations. So,

REV 105

So, how much of a space in time was there between getting the 105.1 frequency and the 105.3?

Kevin: A month to six weeks is when 105.3 decided to sell. We initially were going to go on between March 1 and April 1 and then that threw our plans back another month, to May 1.

When were the stations actually bought?

Hard Interview

how did all this happen (laughs)? When we formed we had two goals — one was to bring our vision of the new rock format back to the Twin Cities, and the other was to produce a number of specialty shows for syndication for the U.S. and nationally. A couple of the shows were based on a few specialty shows that I did at KJ104 and a couple of them were just ideas that we thought were right for the times, like a New Rock show for CHR, and a new rock show for AOR. We wanted to do both of those things, and Jim and Susan thought that it was a good idea. They really believed in it. Early in '93 we made four demos that BT took out to the Gavin convention... Is this getting boring yet?

Not at all.

Kevin: Morgan Church, now in charge of the National Alternative Network, made the Spin connection. We were interested in possibly supplying shows to Russia, and he found out that Spin had an interest in Russia as well. This started a dialog between their special projects coordinator Bruce Eldridge and Brian, Jack, Morgan and myself. They heard our demo, really liked it, and after several meetings of feeling each other out, we decided to work together. One concern was with us being in Minneapolis, but we realized that it was actually an advantage because it gave us two bases to work from. We first worked out a deal to do just the Spin Radio Network, the college show, and that became really successful. We've taken it from 90 stations to 291 stations. It's a half hour weekly show that runs semesterly.

Are you involved with the production personally?

Kevin: Yeah, I produce and host. We've got great engineers; Chris Sattinger and Carl White add a pretty exciting dynamic to it. It's really fast.

Does Spin Radio still take up a lot of your time relative to programming the station?

Kevin: Yeah, it does. Right now the Spin Radio Network show is done until next fall, so there was a period of time where I was doing the Spin Radio Network and Spin Radio, which is the commercial show. The Spin Radio Show grew out of our relationship with Spin Magazine. After we got the college show up and going and things were rolling pretty smoothly, we talked about a commercial show and decided to do a collaboration and just roll it out and see what happened. It was basically the pages of Spin magazine coming alive on the radio. Spin Radio is quite different from the Spin Radio Network, which is a lot of indie bands and exclusive music. Spin Radio, the commercial show, is really an interesting mix of cool, exclusive new music, artist interviews, always an exclusive track or two — whether they perform in our studio or not — as well as new artists, a couple of indie bands each week and some social commentary or content pieces that come from the writers and editors of Spin magazine. It's a really great way to reach the Spin demo and have a tie-in with a cool national magazine. We've had great response to Spin Radio.

How has getting service been? Everyone has been cool I imagine.

Kevin: It's been pretty good, though some labels took longer than others. I made a real wish list for each label. I asked for a lot of records, because I really wanted to be able to play a wide variety of music. Also, there are so many different ways that we could use something, like the Spin show, so I asked for a lot. Some of the labels were like, 'Wow, what are you asking for all this stuff for? We have a starter kit that has 50 releases.' We got good service overall, and certain people came through right away, like Dawn Hood and Lori Blumenthal who instantly sent orders in that were big. The support has been really great.

I guess some of the library is made up of staffers' personal copies as well.

Kevin: Yeah, it is. When we first formed the National Alternative Network Brian Turner brought about 400 CDs from home, and I constantly bring stuff in as well. It's at the point where we're leaving stuff here and working it into the system, and we'll replace it somehow later. But yeah, a lot of personal library is here, Shelly Miller has brought a ton of local music to us. She used to host the local show at 104, so she had boxes of singles. I think that's probably fairly typical of a start up station. Everyone just sort of pitched in, even some of the local reps were really great, some of them bringing their own records from home down for us.

What did you look for in your air talent and how did you go about getting them?

Kevin: That was really interesting. I got a lot of demo tapes from all different types of people, and what I wanted was people that sounded really fresh, that knew the music and had a really normal, natural delivery, and would be really believable. It was kind of an interesting dilemma, because I was going for somewhere between your college radio and your kinda pro-sounding jock. I think that the format is still so young that...

There aren't too many icons.

Kevin: There are some really big names out there, but I was looking for people who didn't have that totally slick pro sound, yet were still professional. I also really wanted to hire locally, because I felt that would make a really good statement to the community here.

Plus, since the community is so aware, not only musically but in terms of its surroundings in general, I think that having people who weren't familiar with the area would almost be insulting to the listeners.

Kevin: Yeah, I agree. If people were mispronouncing the names of some of the suburban cities, that would be as bad as mispronouncing Husker Du in a way; which I've heard in the past, but not on our station. We're going to be adding more and more production elements, and I really believe that every air talent should develop their own personality, as the music is dayparted and changes during the course of the day, sort of try to fit the personality of the jocks to the time slots. I want there to be some personality and have their own passion for the music come through.

I think it definitely adds to the soul of a radio station and, from what I gather, I think that's what you really wanted to put on the air. Capturing the soul of the city.

Kevin: That's true.

I heard that you also solicited colleges directly for air talent.

Kevin: Yeah, and I really ended up with a staff that I think is really great. They're really talented and if they're lacking any experience or skills, that will come with time. Stick them on, give them a week on the air at 4-5 hours a day, and they'll be flowing, everything will be cool. That seems to be working out. I'm really proud of them.

How about the morning show? What kind of a stance did you want to take with it?

Kevin: I wanted to take a very music intensive stance that really communicated with people as well. Our overall belief is that we don't want to underestimate the intelligence of our audience, we don't want to take them for granted; we want to communicate with them, we want it to be a dialogue, instead of talking at them. So for mornings, I wanted someone very natural and believable. Brian Oake, our morning person, was working at Radio K.

You heard him on the college station?

Kevin: Yes, and I knew that I wanted to hire him immediately the second that I heard him. I thought that he would be great for our mornings. He was very relaxed, very calming, he knew the music, he had a great voice, and he really had that unique ability to make people feel comfortable and communicate. It's basically music intensive, but he does news and his own little commentary.

Are you on the air?

Kevin: I do a couple of specialty shows. I do a new release show that features a lot of imports and indies and local music. Plus I do a show on Sunday night called

"Rock And Roll Wing Ding", which is a two hour free form rock & roll show that kind of goes all over the place: from the Ramones to the Trashmen into the Suicide Commandos - who were a real seminal local band - new music from Madder Rose into the Magnolias, a local band, into Slim Harpo, Hazel into X into Jawbox. That kind of stuff. Then, I do Spin Radio and I host this dance mix show, but the music is programmed by John Tasch who is a local DJ. We let the club DJs do this every other week.

Do you still spin at First Avenue?

Kevin: I still work there, but I've sort of put myself on sabbatical while putting this together. I was working every Friday and Saturday, then I cut back to every other Saturday and then I cut Fridays out. I haven't worked there for a couple of months because I've been so busy with the station, and the station has been so creatively fulfilling.

What kind of stance did you want to take with the name "Revolution Radio"?

Kevin: We thought that the name was pertinent on many different levels. First off, we felt that it was a really cool name to begin with. We also thought that just shortening it to The Rev or what we did, Rev 105, where you got The Revolution thing implying change, would work as well. We also liked how the name "revolution" implied change. For us it meant a really positive change, where a lot of times the word Revolution might sound like a conflict or a domination type of thing, but for us it just meant doing things differently in a cooperative, open way. We also liked how the word "evolution" comes out of the word "revolution," and how revolution also means spinning, so it can revolve and evolve. Then we liked the rev, or 'rev it up', so we felt we could do some cool plays on that. We're going heavily with "Revolution Radio" and "Rev 105", let's just see, that's how we are going to present ourselves, and I'm sure there will be some sort of endearing name that the general public and our listeners can live with.

How do you feel about the word 'eclectic'?

Kevin: I love the word eclectic. I think that you need to find a balance, and I want our radio station to really be alive, have create sparks and really be foreground entertainment that really jumps out of the radio, where you can have those surprises that make people go 'Oh wow' and have their jaws drop.

So basically, one of the prime objectives of the station is keeping the listeners on their toes, challenging them.

Kevin: We really believe that people want to be challenged and that doesn't mean turning them off or making challenges difficult. I think that people want to hear a variety, they want it to be fresh, and they want to be stimulated. There are ways to do that and maintain that balance of comfort. I know that is a real personal programming challenge, and a challenge for the whole staff here, but that's what we're going to try and do. We are in a great situation here, that's what our owners want, they believe in it, and they understand that it might take longer. It's not a quick cash in situation, everybody here really believes in and loves music and Minneapolis is a really, really cool city. It's got a really, I believe, one of the most knowledge music bases out there.

Hard Interview

What's interesting about the Twin Cities is that, for the longest time, the town's musical force revolved around record stores instead of radio.

Kevin: It has always been such a retail driven market. When KJ104 went on the air, it was really interesting, because a lot of people were insulted that there was now this radio station that was trying to tell them what was cool, and they knew what was cool all along, and they had done all the work themselves. At one point in time, I heard there were more cool indie stores here per capita than any other city, and there is still a ton of really good stores. We've got "Let It Be," "Orfolkjokeopus," "Garage D'Or," "Roadrunner," "Aardvark" and you have some hip chains too, like "Northern Lights" and "Tidal Wave." And personally, I've had ten years of retail experience here, so I really got to witness what people were like from an over the counter type of thing. You can't really stereotype who the core is here. There's a wide variety of people who like a wide variety of music and there is such an incredible local scene here too.

And I'm sure that you're very supportive of the local acts.

Kevin: Yeah, we are going to be really supportive of it. Right now we are playing at least one local song an hour, and that's not going to change.

What has the reaction been on a local band level? Have you been inundated with tapes and 7"?

Kevin: Yeah, and I expect that to get really hot and heavy as it develops, but we've had an incredible response from the local music community, which is really nice. We've had overwhelming response so far, which has been really, really nice, because I'll admit, prior to going on the air, I started thinking, 'God, are we crazy?' We're going to be pretty adventurous here, and we're doing something really different. And then the second it went on the air and I could hear it, I felt really good about it.

I want to get your opinion on the view that, as many believe, the alternative format has somewhat staled.

Kevin: Well, it's become so marketable now. We're in a situation where we are trying to do something else, which is really a luxury. And we certainly represent one theory of programming this type of music whereas sort of the trend right now is more of the CHR version, and that's certainly showing to be really successful. It might not be very interesting, but it's really successful. My feeling is though, that it might backfire on itself down the road a little bit.

If it hasn't already, in some cases.

Kevin: It's a unique opportunity for us, and we think that it's going to work, in spite of sort of what is going on nationally, the CHR-ization of the format. Our intention is to create a station that is more diverse and adventurous and interesting and really develop that loyalty. We'll be around for years to come, and we're doing it because we believe in it, and ultimately I think that that's going to be one of the things that really makes it work.

Are you at all concerned about setting a national trend? Or is it still way too early to think about that?

Kevin: Well, that's not really an objective, but if it happens, that would be really awesome. If what we do is successful, and can inspire more diversity and adventure in programming, then that certainly would make me happy.

Tell me about the owners.

Kevin: Jim and Susan just really believe in creating a really great radio station. They are really into communicating and working within the community, and that's something that we really want to do as well. It's great to have that kind of support from the top. The whole company as a whole is great because it's all filtered down with this sort of open way of working and an unified approach overall. It's a really great team. One of the experiences that I learned at KJ104 was that I realized how important it is to have a solid sales staff. And we have a great sales manager in John McMonagle who really understands the music and the format and can sell. Then we have a really great promotions person, who has had a lot of experience, Annie Miners, since it's important for us to be out in the community and doing believable things, things that mean something to people. We've got a green team, similar to Live 105's, and we'll be doing environmental things, and other community-oriented events.

How has the Edge reacted to the station?

Kevin: To be honest, I'm so busy still putting this together, I don't know, it seems that they are positioning themselves as playing more variety than they were before. Our feeling is really one that champions the listener. All along when we put this whole thing together in the initial days before there was any other stations, we felt that at some point in time there would be competition, so it didn't surprise us. We would've liked to be the first ones out, but them getting a couple months jump really isn't that big of a deal and really negates itself anyway. We really went on organized and prepared, which I'm really proud about. But our feeling is, there is room for two. We really are dramatically different, and it's the best possible situation for the listener, because there is a choice. They can listen to Rev 105, they can listen to The Edge, they can listen to Radio K, the college station that went on in October, then there's Cities 97 as well. Now this has become a really exciting market.

How much will the competitive nature of the market control what you program?

Kevin: I personally am going to try to not let it control any of it. I know that may sound really naive, but what I want to do is create a really great radio station and stick by what we believe in, and just let it work.

What about in terms of promotions? Do you think that's going to be a big point of contention between the stations and the labels?

Kevin: That's probably going to be a problem that some labels are going to feel uncomfortable with. I would hope that labels make shows neutral, in the case of a situation where we are both playing something. I would just expect us to be treated the same way that they're treated and vice versa.

So you're not positioning yourselves against them?

Kevin: No.

How important are ratings to you?

Kevin: We really care about how we rate ourselves personally, about how we feel at the end of the day and how we feel about the job we did. Oh, did you mean those other ratings? Those are important, too. Obviously we have to be able to sell our concept and our format, and our ratings are an essential part of this. But there is a lot more to it than that. Listener loyalty and response, not to mention the quality of our audience, is high. It's a very proactive audience, one that advertisers want to reach. With a strong sales staff, you can sell this format. We're very optimistic.

How active has your media campaign been?

Kevin: We implemented a print campaign before we went on the air. The "Revolution" thing was really great because it gave us a lot of fun angles to play with. We came out with a print ad in the alternative weekly that just said, 'You say you want a Revolution.' It didn't say anything other than that. It was just an ad. The next week it said 'The Revolution is coming', and then, 'This time the Revolution will not be televised' and finally 'The Revolution is here'. That was a fun teaser thing, and we really had incredible word of mouth happening. A lot of the staff is pretty well connected within the community, so there was a good buzz on what was going on, and there was a number of articles prior to our going on the air that have all been really positive. The awareness level was pretty high. We went on and hit the streets with handbills in the record stores — we want to be really involved in the community in that sense — and we are doing an 8 page supplement that's our own publication that comes out in the alternative weekly, and it's called the Revolution Radio Tipsheet. That's going to serve as a promotional vehicle at first, but eventually it will evolve into its own thing.

Tell me about the depth of the library.

Kevin: That's where the speciality shows play a pretty big role, because we cover a lot of ground.

Specialty shows air daily?

Kevin: Yeah, like last night I was playing Slim Harpo and Buddy Holly and Jonathan Richman, but I was keeping it current with Green Day and a lot of new music as well. During the normal programming, we are pretty deep at this point. We have 1,700 songs in the library, which is a good start, but I still feel that we have a long way to go.

What about things like reggae and Motown?

Kevin: Yes. That kind of stuff I will just slip in out of the blue. For Mother's Day, we played Isaac Hayes' "Shaft" because 'He's a bad motha.' Some real subtle kind of Mother's Day things like that, or I'll play James Brown "Mother Popcorn"; it was a good excuse to play something cool that people weren't expecting.

What about rap?

Kevin: On Friday nights, we have a hip hop/acid jazz/funk show called "Bumper to the Bone," and right now in current rotation we have the new Arrested Development and the Fugees, along with some older things like A Tribe Called Quest and others. There's room for that in what we are doing.

What's your list of currents like?

Kevin: 55 currents right now. And also, I went right on with 60 recurrents and those are songs that have come out in the last year and a half since KJ104 went off the air, that haven't been played by any other stations, so I'm playing them as recurrents to sort of get people familiar with them quickly. So that's making that plus the 55 news, that's a lot of new stuff. We're probably about 60% current.

Does it change much during the day? How heavily do you daypart?

Kevin: I think that dayparting is crucial. The station sounds the most familiar in the morning, and as the day develops it gets harder, and maybe more rockin or noisy. During the day it's real listenable, not any less, I mean, people could listen to it in their offices, but it's not any less adventurous. It's just not as noisy.

Do you touch on much of the low-end AOR/COR stuff, things that have crossed over?

Kevin: We are playing Alice In Chains, I don't know if Rollins is or Soundgarden or Pearl Jam, of course. Are they low-end crossover?

Hard Interview

That's what they tell me.

Kevin: (Laughs) Maybe they'll tell me too.

Has your contact with the labels been real heavy up to now?

Kevin: Yeah, but things have been really crazy with getting the start-up on the air. We'll be taking calls Wednesdays and Thursdays.

What do you look for in a new record?

Kevin: That's sort of an interesting thing, and kinda hard to articulate because what we do is just listen to it, and if we like the song we play it. Obviously our personal tastes are there, and that's hard to define.

Who's involved in the decision making when it comes to new music?

Kevin: Right now it's myself and Shelley Miller, she does mid-days here, and she's Assistant Music Director. She helps out tons with music and programming. We don't have official titles yet. Chris Hodapp, he helps out with music and programming as well. Shelley was at KJ104, she did nights there and hosted the local show and then she went to 'EQX, and came back when we got this thing going. She also hosts the Radio Perimeter, which is another syndicated show that we do. Then, what I eventually want to do is work with each of the jocks individually after we're up and running and have calmed down a bit. I'd like to have their input into the music as well as sort of tailoring a little bit of their shifts, so that they're unique to them. We're trying to have it as open as possible.

What locally, in terms of artists, have you been real into lately?

Kevin: Right now in regular rotation for us is Fat Tuesday, and Hovercraft, Arcwelder and Fauna. Those are all in just our current regular rotation.

You know, one record I adored that was severely overlooked was the Hang-Ups record.

Kevin: Ah, that song "Waiting." That's in recurrent for us, so that's getting two plays a day, so that's light recurrent basically. We also have Joe Henry with some of The Jayhawks playing with him, and Sugar of course.

So, are you going to try and cultivate the station as kind of almost, I don't want to say a hangout, but kinda leave an open door to the local musicians?

Kevin: Sure, absolutely. We have a great situation here, to be able to build a station from scratch really allowed us to create a power plant the way that we wanted it, so we have an unbelievable on-air studio that is so impressive. It's on the sixth floor of a building right down town, a block and a half from the First Avenue night club, with windows overlooking downtown, so it's really airy, and it's got a great feel. We have an FM production room, we have our syndication production room, and we have a recording studio as well.

Really? How many tracks?

Kevin: It's a 32-track, and that will be ready to go in about a month. We did over 200 interviews in less than a year for the Spin show and Radio Perimeter and for syndication, and we did a lot of exclusive things with artists coming in and playing.

So you'll integrate the two like, if someone is coming to do something for Spin, you'll get them on the air as well.

Kevin: Yeah. This is a great thing where someone like Kristen Hersh could play live on the air, then we could use it as well on any of our syndicated shows and we could also get a great recording. We really looked into the future here, as we're really working on our syndication too, maybe expanding that or the Spin show. This might sound really stupid, but we all just really love music a lot.

Believe me, it doesn't sound stupid. You wouldn't believe the number of people in this format for whom music has become just fodder.

Kevin: It's so weird to even preface saying something like that with 'It may sound stupid,' but to have Kristen Hersh come in, who I absolutely love and play us a new song that we haven't heard yet is so fulfilling and to be able to get that on a syndicated show that airs on 42 commercial stations and have it be an awesome knock out track and being able to play it on the air, and being able to do a cool interview, that's the coolest thing in the world. That just sort of leads me into the people involved here. We just an incredible, unique situation where there's people that just love music and different types. I mean, we have Peter Jesperson who can hardly sleep at night when he thinks about what he is going to play on his shows. He's so connected and so tapped that for music lovers his show is absolutely critical listening. Then Tuesday night we do our local show, but that's not a lip service show, it's really in depth. We're really committed, we play one local song an hour, and the local show is just a way where we can do more live stuff. Tomorrow, Fat Tuesday is coming in, last week, John Eller and Chris Lynch came in and they played in the studio, and what I'd like to do with our recording studio as well is have a half hour weekly show where a band comes in and actually sets up a full electric set and does a half hour live, so like the Suburbs come in or whoever.

Yeah, I hear that they're going strong again.

Kevin: They are so huge in this market, and they might not be anything in other places, but I can't tell you how huge they are. They'll play four nights at First Avenue in a row and sell them all out. Then Tuesday night, Mike Wolf from Amphetamine Reptile, who also works at First Avenue, does a show from 1 to 2 in the morning after the bar gets out called "True Crime Radio" is what I see as a continuation of the club, so I am kind of spinning off that. Wednesday night we do "Counter Revolution", we do new releases, imports, indies, major labels, so we will go deeper than however deep we are on going on whatever new release we might happen to be playing as well. "Spin Radio" is on Thursday night at 9, Friday night at midnight is the "Industrial Revolution" which is one hour hosted by Jamie Gumm, one hour of just hard, industrial music, and then, this is spinning off on the club kind of thing, after that is "Bumper To The Bone" which is just really cool hip hop/acid/jazz/funk/disco from the '70s and '80s. "Depth Probe" is on Saturday night from midnight to 2, and that's house/techno/trance/ambient. Sunday in the morning at 7, we do a show called "New Dimensions Radio" which is out of San Francisco, and I think that mostly non-commercial stations air it, I think that we are one of two commercial stations that air it. It's an interview show with the leading edge, cutting edge thinkers in the area of spirituality. "New Dimensions Radio" is about spirituality, science, philosophy, healing, and new thinking. We also have "Rock and Roll Wing-Ding," which is a two-hour free-form rock and roll show that I do Sunday nights, and we end the week with "Moonlight Meditations," a two-hour atmospheric and moody show. The debut show featured a rare interview with Liz Fraser from the Cocteau Twins.

How big a role does news play in the station? Does it at all?

Kevin: Not a lot yet, we'll get more into that as we get more rolling here. We do a couple of, what we call "Short Form Programming Alterna-Views", we do an environmental minute that we run throughout the day, and we do another one minute piece that's called "Revolution In A Minute" that we program just like we would music, so it comes in between the songs and it's a piece that is just a thought-provoking bit of social commentary. We are developing these short-form pieces and others for syndication as well.

Do you look at anyone else in terms of radio? Stations you admire, programmers that you look at...

Kevin: I certainly do look just to find out what's going on. I might miss a song or something. I know that I like WHTG, and WHFS, and WFNX, those are some stations that I really like, and conceptually, I like what they're doing up at Woodstock/Poughkeepsie. I like their philosophy, and what I have heard about it. I try and look at everybody, because I hate being burnt on something where you don't listen to a song, or you think that you have an opinion of something before you hear it. That's like really the worst thing that you can do. You know how much music there is, and we play a lot of indie bands too, so there are a lot of records to listen to in a week, so I think that it's really crucial to pay as much attention as you can to what everyone is doing. What it does for me, if I see a title that I haven't heard, it will make me go listen to it, especially with a station like WHTG, or 'HFS or 'FNX. Every market is different.

What's up with the St. Paul Saints? I hear pretty good things about their league.

Kevin: They took it last year.

Are you going to tie the station in with the team at all?

Kevin: Well, KLBB, our AM, is broadcasting the Saints games, so there is a natural tie-in there, and we are going to tie it in with the FM as well. So we definitely support the St. Paul Saints. We love them, they are really fun. The Northern League is very much a renegade professional baseball league. We would like Rev 105 to be like the Saints. Fun and exciting.

In what way?

Kevin: Well, Mike Veeck is one of the owners, and he's like a fireball, he has so much energy and he makes it really fun. They do some totally wacky things, there is a designated K-Man, and if that person strikes out at any of his at-bats, the whole stand gets like two liters of Coke. It's a certificate that you get at the end of the game, so everyone is standing up and taunting him. It's really been a great thing for us here, because the Twins play indoors at one of the most sterile parks around.

What happened to the old park?

Kevin: That's now the Mall Of America.

Talk about symbolic.

Kevin: Yeah, exactly. Although I want to take bands out to the Mall Of America and do some interviews. They have an indoor amusement park. I think that it would be really cool to interview Urge Overkill on the roller coast-

Pete Droge, "Straylin Street," American "Who is this Pete Droge guy?" was the question of the week in the Triple A community. He's a 25-year-old singer/writer from Seattle who's played in mostly marginal bands since his teens. He performed at the South by Southwest in '93, opened a couple of shows for Neil Young and caught the attention of producer Brendan O'Brien, who brought Droge to American to record his debut album, Necktie Second. Oh, and one other thing — the guy's got a voice that won't quit and his songwriting talents have Triple A buzzing: Dal Hunter WKOC, "There is a soulful quality to his voice, I can't believe that such a strong voice like his comes out of such a baby face. This sounds like big potential." Steve Cole KSPN, "Excellent new tune from a promising new artist. On 'Straylin Street,' Pete Droge's voice sounds uncannily like Lynyrd Skynyrd's Ronnie Van Zant. And since we continually get so many Skynyrd requests, I'm sure Mr. Droge will achieve instant popularity with our audience, which isn't to say that there isn't a lot of originality and feeling apparent on the track. Great tune!" Brad Hockmeyer KTAO, "'Straylin Street' by Pete Droge is gorgeous. Sounds great on the air, and is an immediate staff favorite."

THE HOT CORNER

The Hot Corner

David Byrne, "Angels," Warner Bros. David Byrne takes the #1 Most Added slot this week as he returns to his roots and the edgy, flamboyant style that Triple A grew up on. Greg Roberts KKRV, "This is hot. It's Talking Heads all over again." Steve Cole KSPN, "David Byrne returns to his jangly ways with 'Angels,' a song that sounds like it might have come from a Talking Heads album released between Fear Of Music and Remain In Light. The old nervous and edgy David Byrne we know and love, is back." Jeff Hansen WERU, "I am looking forward to hearing the whole album. David Byrne will definitely be a quick add if the album is as good as the single." Abby Goldstein KERA, "I really like this record. This is definitely some good music." Greg Hils WNCW, "'Angels' captures all of the weirdness and fun that made the Talking Heads great." Brad Hockmeyer KTAO, "Great to hear the Talking Heads sound on the new David Byrne single. Instant calls on this one." Jim Olsen WRSI, "It's nice to have a rock n' roll song from David that sounds like the Fear Of Music era from Talking Heads."

Terry Evans, "Blues For Thought," Virgin Evans steps out from his role as session vocalist (for artists including John Fogerty, Ry Cooder and John Lee Hooker) and into the spotlight with his hip, soulful solo debut, produced by his buddy Ry Cooder. Jon Peterson WCBE, "Terry Evans nails it down with a record full of killer blues, R&B and soul-flavored stylings. The rootsy rhythm section of Jim Keltner and Hutchinson is in-your-face when necessary, while Ry Cooder provides the guitar genius for both the rocked-up and more subtle moments." Brad Hockmeyer KTAO, "This is the hippest release out now. Trouble finding a cut? Play it all!" Sybil McGuire WMMM, "It's fun, it's funny... it's blues with a sense of humor! Definitely check out the track, 'Natcha Bone Lover.'" Jeff Hansen WERU, "We immediately added this into our blues specialty program, and it's working real well." Jim Olsen WRSI, "This is a beautiful, soulful blues record with lots of guitar work from Ry Cooder."

Spin Doctors, "Cleopatra's Cat," Epic *It would have been easy for the Spin Doctors to make Pocketful of Kryptonite Part II, throw in a couple of "Little Miss Can't Be Wrong" and "Two Princes" clones, achieve instant chart-topping success and sell another zillion records. But when have the Spin Doctors ever taken the easy route? Don Was wears the producer's cap on this eccentric tune, effortlessly synchronizing funk and blues with scat vocals. Greg Roberts KKRV, "This is incredible, it's the cat's meow! We popped it into afternoon drive and it went instantly into heavy. The phones were light-in' up! We had to wear asbestos gloves to answer the phones because it was so hot!" Oal Hunter WKOC, "How can you resist the great funk groove of this record? It's totally infectious and easily transmittable." Sybil McGuire WMMM, "I really like this. The Spin Doctors are known to be more AOR, but this one is an automatic light. It's quirky, it's got depth and it's interesting. It may be rougher edged for the more adult Triple A listeners but it's cool!"*

Robin Trower, "20th Century Blues," V-12 Records Remember sitting around with your friends, wearing bell-bottoms, burning incense, smoking pot and listening to Procol Harum on the 8-track? What were we thinking? At least our taste in music was impeccable. While Robin Trower has progressed from his Procol Harum days, his latest solo project, 20th Century Blues, is an album that the Triple A community can still relate to. Steve Cole KSPN, "I've always been a huge Robin Trower fan since the early Procol Harum days, and although most of his recent solo albums lean towards AOR, there have always been a couple of tracks that have fit in perfectly with our format. On the new release, early possibilities seem to be 'Precious Gift' and 'Secret Place.' With his recent co-production and playing on the latest Bryan Ferry album and current tour, Robin seems to be stepping into a period of high productivity. More, Robin, more!" Greg Roberts KKRV, "It's nice to see an artist who the upper demos can relate to, come back with a strong record. The upper demos will definitely recognize the name."

He voted for Gary Hart...and still does in every election. His favorite color is gray and he eats cheese pizza. Joey Ramone gave him his first beer in 1983 and he still has not finished it. He loves dogs, hates his neighbors, and watches "All My Children" everyday. His favorite band of all time is Queen. He missed his high school prom due to his date having something better to do. Yet he and his friend Bob drove by and looked in the window to watch everyone else having fun...he still talks about it, then begins to sob. He once hung out with Harrison Ford in Portland (well...the guy looked like him) and they talked about ancient history and ate cheese pizza. He fears the great open outdoors, rap music, clowns, onions, balding, that show with those little twin girls, Fresno, running out of gas on the freeway and his own hair. Otherwise, he's normal. (Ed. note: We'll be the judge of that, Don.)

Buddy Guy

I understand you're in Chicago this week. I imagine you spend a lot of time there with your club, Legends.

Buddy: Yeah, I do. Actually, from the beginning of the year until now, yeah, the club has held me down for a lot of one-nighters. The club is keeping me busy, but I also have two teenagers.

Having two teenagers pretty much defines busy. Let's talk about the studio album that you're working on. It's a project that you're doing with Double Trouble?

Buddy: Half of it I did with Double Trouble and the other half I did with my group. I never usually comment on my records before they come out because for years I didn't do too well with them. But people around me say that it's a pretty good album, especially with Double Trouble and my group. They think that it's a pretty good cut.

You're also in the process of recording a live album with G.E. Smith?

Buddy: Right, we start that next week.

Will that be recorded in your club?

Buddy: Some of it in New York. We're doing two days in New York and two days in my club. When I signed with Silvertone, they told me that I had to do a live album because I think that they had heard Eric Clapton comment that you need to see me live to know what I'm all about. When Eric speaks, a lot of people listen, so they wanted me to do this live album. I have a lot of fun playing live because I don't get too serious and I just relax more when I'm playing live. I have a tendency to feel like I don't care what I do, as long as I get smiles on the faces. So maybe they wanted to capture some of that.

Is this your first live album?

Buddy: Not really, but in a way, I feel like it is. Now, I can have it my way of playing, which is more relaxed. When I signed with the label, they told me 'You play and we support.' They still give me more freedom than I've ever had in my life, and I think I'm more relaxed.

Will your band also be playing on the live album, or is it just the Saturday Night Live Band?

Buddy: No, it's just the Saturday Night Live Band. As a matter of fact, I did the Saturday Night Live show about a year and a half ago, and some of my record people were there, and they said, 'Man, that sounded so great!' I had so much fun with those guys. They are wonderful people to be work with. When you run into musicians like that, it just seems like they bring the best out in you. I'm hyped up about it. I can't wait. I just hope that I don't get too excited and not play well.

You've been playing guitar for going on four decades now, but since the release of Damn Right I've Got The Blues and then *Feels Like

Rain, critics have been saying that you are at your peak, creatively speaking. Do you feel like you're at your peak, or is it that people are finally recognizing that you've been good all along.

Buddy: I could answer you yes on both of the questions. For example, before I signed with Silvertone, someone called up one of the big radio stations here, where a lot of the disc jockeys are my friends, and they said, 'Buddy Guy?' I thought that he had retired. How old is he? About 90 years old? (Laughs) I still think that I have a lot to learn and a lot I could do. A lot of years passed me by that I did not have the opportunity to let people hear what Buddy Guy was doing. As long as I have good health, I hope I can get some of that out. I will never be the 28 and 30-year-old man I once was.

Is the blues genre experiencing a resurgence, or has it always been there and been strong, and people are finally waking up and recognizing that it is a viable format?

Buddy: Right, I think that it's always been here, but people weren't waking up to it. Because of people like the late Stevie Ray Vaughan, and Bonnie Raitt, and John Lee Hooker came out with The Healer — I think that's when a lot of people said, 'Wow, I didn't think that this stuff would be successful.' Record companies are just like any other business, if they can't make money off of you, they forget you, and you can understand that. But, just like a grocery store or a clothes store, if you don't put the product out, you won't make a profit. Some of the best musicians that I ever heard were blues players, but we were always locked into a dark room and nobody knew about it. The British had to come over here in the '60s and let America know who Muddy Waters and Howlin' Wolf were. When the Rolling Stones came over here, they were doing a television show, 'Shindig,' and they wouldn't go on unless they also brought on Howlin' Wolf and Muddy Waters. The 'Shindig' people said, 'Who is Howlin' Wolf and Muddy Waters?' And they said, 'You mean to tell me you don't know who Muddy Waters is? That's who we named ourselves after, one of his records,' which was Rolling Stone. Since I met Eric and Beck and Keith and all these guys, I found out that they shake on those records.

Just about anyone who has picked up a guitar has pointed to you as their inspiration. Who inspired you?

Buddy: I would have to say B.B. King, Muddy Waters, Howlin' Wolf. I could see B.B. and T-Bone every once and awhile, but I could never see Muddy Waters. I wanted to try to learn it all, and thank God that I did because I learned how to play Muddy Waters and the late great Miles Brothers, and Robert Lockwood. I just wanted to be a musician. I couldn't be Muddy Waters, I couldn't be The Wolf, I couldn't be anybody, but if I learned how to play it all, maybe something might come out of it.

How difficult is it to run a night-club in Chicago and also keep up with a recording career?

Buddy: If I didn't have some great people running the club for me, it would be very difficult. I don't just look at the club as being an owner looking for a profit and things like that. Most of the great blues players, like Muddy, weren't discovered in their living room, they were playing in clubs. In most big cities, there were no good places where you could hear this music because they can't support it. There's an awareness about drinking and driving now and it's hard for club owners. I just think that there should be a place where some young people can be heard, seen, talked about, while they play and learn, and that's why I started the club. A lot of people pat me on the back and thank me for that. I got patted on the back by Muddy, and I'm very proud to be able to hold onto that, because I don't go to the bank with no club, it's almost impossible. It feels pretty good, though, when these kids come up, and say 'How did that sound, Mr. Guy?'

Who are some of the people who played in your club?

Buddy: I've had some of the Stones come by, I had David Bowie come by and play. I've had quite a few movie stars and football players drop in from time to time.

What other cities are supportive of the blues?

Buddy: House Of The Blues, which is think is owned by one of the guys from the Hard Rock, that opened in Boston, and one in New Orleans, which I just played a couple of weeks ago. I've been approached by some people to open a club in another city, and I haven't closed my books on that. I know when I came to Chicago, if I had just stayed in a room and played my guitar, nobody would ever know who Buddy Guy is. I walked into a famous club called Seven Or Eight Club — and at that point in time, they had a million clubs and two million musicians. Everybody had a place to play and everyone could see them and talk about them, and all that's gone. I admire the people that hold onto a club that has live entertainment because it's not easy, and I am speaking from experience.

When you go to those cities, do you find the audience just as receptive as in Chicago?

Buddy: I think that if you play well, they get to know you, they will respond to you. It took me a long time to do that because it's just like a good meal in a restaurant, you would never know how it's going to taste until you go there and eat it. I think that music is the same way. Hopefully, in some of the other cities, people will feel the same way that I feel, and that will give me a big boost to help to keep the blues alive, because there's not many of us left after Muddy Waters and all these people have passed away. You have myself, Junior Wells and a few more of us trying to keep this thing going and with my club. Hopefully, if I do decide to open another one in New York, Boston or wherever else, it will help some other young people grab it and carry on farther.

Are there more young musicians getting involved in blues?

Buddy: Since I've been kind of successful with my two albums, I see quite a few more now.

Who have you seen that is especially promising?

Buddy: I love Derek Truck out of Florida. He plays slide guitar. I saw him in South Carolina about a month and a half ago. I've been watching him for about 4 to 5 years. I saw this kid come on the stage and it was storming and raining in Florida and the way he played, I looked around and said, 'Jesus Christ!' Please go see him if you ever get a chance. I think that his manager told me that they do have a record contract with him. If you come to Chicago to my club, Monday is open to the young people. We have a list at the door, and if you can play anything at all, you sign your name. I just sit there and watch. I can't wait to get there tonight at 6:00 so that I can get my seat.

Is it this week that you're working on the live album, or is it next week?

Buddy: Next week. I'm in Atlanta Friday, and Arkansas Saturday, then I fly into New York and I think that we start on it there on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday.

How much time do you spend on the road?

Buddy: This year, they let me off the first of the year, which is almost impossible, because every time some of my friends or people I used to play for find out that I am off — I don't like saying no, so I'm there for them. So, I've been doing the festivals and going back and helping someone out that I think needs help, whatever I can do, because I needed help all of my life — and still need it sometimes — and I had Eric and Beck and so many people help me. So, there is no end to this thing, as long as I am in good health and get to spend some time with my family, then the rest of it, I go and give back. That's the way that I look at it.

S Columbia Records was just minding their own business, monitoring the growing prosperity that Chicago based Stabbing Westward was having at both metal radio and alternative radio and waiting for the right time to approach AOR/COR radio with their innovative sound when the calls started coming in. Tons of calls from Q104 and KEZE listeners flooded in since both stations had tried out the record early and were seeing a big response. They began spreading the word and the results are just beginning to pour in - new adds at KISW and KRXQ, with spins and requests coming in at WAAF, KIOZ, WXTB, WBTZ, WNCD, and WRZK, plus, it is testing well at The Blaze and QFM. The passionate vocals coupled with cutting guitars and an electronic touch that adds the spark to separates them from other songs on the air. Steve Funk of KZAK comments that "it has enough melody to overcome the industrial side to it". It's a great crossover track that really knows how to rock on the air and is great live - already they have toured with Prong and Therapy?. "Nothing" has already debuted on the COR chart so expect this novel group to light up your phone lines and blaze a trail up the chart.

T The upbeat mayhem of The Wildhearts has already caught fire in Europe where this English quartet, formed by Ginger (former London Quireboys member), are household names and are now in the midst of a huge European tour. Word is that they'll be the next big British export to the States if only a fraction of that success is repeated here. They have taken the first steps with a debut on the COR chart courtesy of their steady upward climb as they win over new believers each week. Good phones are coming in on WIYY and WXTB, with spins increasing at WAAF, KIBZ, KISW, KRXQ, WBTZ, and WDRZ where Joe Bevilacqua raves that this is "an infectious pop punk track that will fit in well with a lot of COR classics. After a 6 or 7 spin test one week we got phones the next week. We're up to 16 or 17 spins a week now with top 5 phones, and still going!" This is type of song that will keep you going all day, a fun track that could wake you up and have you bouncing around the room. With the serious tone of the world today, a good suckerpunch is just what the doctor ordered!

Live "Selling the Drama" Radioactive With a Top 5 alternative record, a sold out headlining tour after numerous tours with Blind Melon and Big Audio Dynamite, and a debut on the Billboard chart at #38, you would think that they would be close to reaching the limits of their audience potential. But with Live, that is not the case. With new adds at KICT, and WHMH to go along with tons of airplay at KEZE, KUPD, WIYY, and WRZX they have begun to work their way into the hard rock world of COR radio. "A tremendous song," says J. Davis Holmes of KUPD, "it instantly grabs you and is getting good phones for us." This young band (the average age is 22) show a great deal of musical maturity on "Selling The Drama" borrowing a bit from the R.E.M. school of thought, but adding their own edge which makes it work at COR. This memorable song coupled with the heavy sales and strong base at alternative gives you plenty of reasons to sell the drama on your station.

CANDLEBOX

By Mike Cooper

They're another band from Seattle, but different from the others. They're the first rock band signed to Madonna's Maverick label, and they were signed just months after finishing their first demo tape, which featured over a half-dozen songs.

They're Candlebox. They sold out the initial run of 600 copies of their cassette demo in less than two months, started landing gigs in the Seattle area, then a record label bidding war ensued.

They took their name from the phrase "boxed in like candles" in the Midnight Oil song "Tin Legs And Tin Mines."

"It's been pretty much a whirlwind," says drummer Scott Mercado. "It's been really quick. Keep in mind that we've all been playing in other bands for the last 10, almost 20 years, on our own, so it's been a very quick education on the music business and touring and everything."

In September 1992, nine months after the band formed, Candlebox played at a Bunbershoot Festival showcase, which led to a showcase gig in Los Angeles.

"We had been invited to Los Angeles in November to play a showcase by EMI. And at the same time, we were talking to Capitol, Epic and Geffen," vocalist Kevin Martin says.

"A couple of labels were keeping in touch with us. A Maverick (Records) guy (A&R representative Guy Oseary) just happened to stumble into the show. He was there to see another band that evening, a band called Eleven. He happened to come early while we were playing. So it was again one of those instances of an accident. I mean, a lot of things have happened by accident for this band, and that was one of them."

Apparently, Oseary was impressed enough with Candlebox's energetic show to put them in the studio to record their debut self-titled album. Martin says the band's label never tried to cash in on the Seattle connection. "Well, I think they wanted to avoid it as much as possible," Martin explains. "I mean, they didn't want to be considered a label that was hopping onto the Seattle bandwagon. They were more interested in marketing the music and getting people to hear the songs rather than the city. It's rather ironic that being from Seattle we would sign with a label that wasn't really interested in Seattle. They were interested in getting some strong bands on the label that were really kind of different and kind of ethereal."

Martin says the band had to go to Los Angeles to get club bookings and get noticed by record labels because Seattle had too many well-known bands. "It was like being an outcast in a society that doesn't want you," Martin says. "Nobody (in Seattle) wanted us to play their club, because they didn't know who we were, and if you didn't have a draw, they would lose money. Everything was happening so quickly in Seattle, and we were a new band — nobody had heard of us — and there are only three clubs that are worth playing."

Martin adds that the band was never part of the Seattle "scene." "It's kind of strange," Martin says. "The bands that have been successful from Seattle so far, you know, Pearl Jam, Nirvana, Soundgarden, Alice In Chains, Screaming Trees, those bands, they've all been around Seattle for the past six or seven years in one way or another. Candlebox, the four of us, we had our projects and stuff, and people we would jam with. But it was never really as noted or as noteworthy as Green River or Mother Love Bone or Malfunktion or something like that. It's a really small clique up there, and for us to be a part of it was not something we really wanted, or I should say, to be a part of it is not something we wanted. We were more into doing our own thing, and when the four of us finally got together, it was something that was really great. We had a good time, and we weren't worried about opening up for Soundgarden or hanging out with Stone Gossard or Jeff Ament from Pearl Jam or something like that. It wasn't really our scene. So when we mention not being a part of it, it's more so by choice. We really didn't want to be."

"All those bands basically were SubPop bands," Martin says of the other groups that started in Seattle. "We kind of never really got into the SubPop thing. I mean, we're more straight-ahead rock & roll than a lot of those bands are. We're not really into the punk side of Nirvana or the really heavy side of Soundgarden or the deep side of Alice in Chains. We're just kind of a rock & roll band, I guess."

Vocalist Kevin Martin and drummer Scott Mercado formed a band called Uncle Duke in May 1991. Guitarist Peter Klett joined in September of that year, while bass player Bardi Martin (not related to vocalist Martin) joined in December.

"So in that regard, I guess it has been fast, even though it's kind of the life we've always wanted," Mercado says. "It hasn't changed us that much. We just have to adapt to all these new things rather quickly. We had to change managers in the beginning because we found we needed somebody with more experience. We have a tour bus now for the band. So far so good."

The band's headlined its own club tour with Greta, and gone on the road with Living Colour and Rush.

"Rush have been really good to us. And it's always great with them because they're really supportive and really cool guys," Mercado says. "Everywhere we've gone we've gotten really good reception. I think with the exception of L.A., everyone else loves us. We didn't really think much of it, but a couple of the crew and the band told us that the audiences have been really receptive to us, so I guess that's good."

Candlebox are a band that would prefer to tour on their own. "With the arena gigs with Rush, it's kind of cool because everything is catered," he says. "We don't have to worry about anything because everything's done for us, everything from loading to all the food. We really save money on the food, you know. We have three full meals a day, and they're catered, so it's no problem. On the other hand it is a lot of fun to headline, too, because everybody's there for us, and the crowds are a lot more dynamic and crazy, you know. So I'd say I'd give the edge to touring alone. It's a different kind of thing when you're with a big band opening up."

Mercado describes the band's live show as "a lot of bodies flying around. A lot of high energy. All the guitar stuff. Peter's a great guitar player. I think you can look forward to a great live show without too many special effects."

Mercado says the band's sound comes because of its collaborative songwriting. "Well, we all kind of write the songs," he says. "Kevin writes the lyrics. Typically, Peter will come in and jam on like a lick or something for a while, and then the rest of us will come in and kind of arrange it. So I guess Peter is kind of the catalyst but we all write the songs pretty much."

"I know Kevin relates from personal experiences, relationships he's been in, girlfriends, friends, family," Mercado says. "He seems to draw from that a lot. In a way, I think it's kind of cool and admirable that he does that because we're not really much of a political band. Not because we're anti-politics or anything, but just because maybe other bands do it better or maybe more successfully. I guess."

"I've always felt as I was growing up, I was always losing things, losing parts of my life that I wanted to hang onto," Kevin Martin says. "My grandmother was one part of my life. I was really, really close to her. And when she died that was kind of, I don't know, it really still affects me in a weird sort of way. She was a really, really big influence on me, on how to treat people and understanding your parents and stuff like that. She was just a really honest person. So that's one of the things I talk about on the album."

"Peter will sit at home at night and just play and play and play," Martin says. "And all of a sudden, he's got this song done. Pete, Bardi and Scott will jam on the melody, and I'll sort of improvise the lyrics to it. I'll let the music affect me lyrically, and it just brings certain things out — memories or whatever. It's more like the music creates a feeling for the band and in me, and that's what I sing about."

Candlebox admit being influenced by Led Zeppelin, Jimi Hendrix, Soundgarden and Pink Floyd.

"Well, you know, just by nature we've got like a typical sound on AOR," Mercado says. "A typical sound might be Van Halen or Rush — I don't mean that in a negative way — but the peculiar thing to me is that you don't have a typical alternative sound. It's weird to me how Juliana Hatfield and Soundgarden can be considered alternative. So I think alternative has a very wide kind of meaning. As far as we're concerned, I would say that we're just a rock band. It's not like we...we're like either way, I guess. We've been called alternative, marketed as alternative and also marketed as AOR, but I think we're just a rock band. I don't think you need to get any more technical than that."

"I don't like music that's candy cane crap," Martin says. "It doesn't stimulate you. People, they want to know what you've been through or what you're doing. That's why when you drive by an accident, everybody slows down. They want to see what happened. If you're honest with your music and your lyrics and your soul, people tie into that. They grab ahold of it because they want to be a part of it. I have a lot of things that I want to say, and I figured the best way for me to voice my opinion was through music, because everybody needs it and everybody wants it."

Martin says he can only write songs when he's depressed. "You've got nothing playing on your emotions when you're happy," he says. "Happy feelings don't make good songs. I need a little turmoil in my life to write a good song. And people want to know they're feeling what everyone else is feeling."

"I think people are more into emotion now. They're more into real things. They don't want to be told make-believe stories. They want to know what's happening. They want to know what's going on. They want themselves to be able to talk about it."

"'Far Behind' is a song about losing friends to heroin," Martin says. "You know, I've lost a couple of friends to the addiction. 'You' is a song about breaking through your own personal addiction, whether it's a relationship or a chemical or alcohol. I had a problem with drugs when I was 18, so that song is a song to myself, saying that I don't need this anymore. It's time for me to grow out of this. 'Change' is a song about making decisions in life and sticking to them. In whatever path you choose to take, that's your decision and you're the only person that can change that. You're the only person who creates your destiny. No one else has done it for you, and you can't blame anybody else for it. Quit pointing your finger at everybody else and take responsibility for it. That could have been brought on by a couple of relationships that I've had."

"You" is "a personal therapy thing for me," Martin says. "It's just a way for me to talk about being kicked out of my house and other things to people I don't know. I just started spitting the words out in the studio when we recorded that, because I was just thinking about things. That's how Pete's playing affects me. I never thought I would meet someone that I could just draw on like that. He would play a chord, and I would just start thinking about things. It's really weird."

"Change" touches on tenderness, love, rage and indecisiveness. "To me, it takes you through the changes you go through in a day, how a day in my life goes up and down all the time," Martin says. "It talks about being prepared for what comes your way. It's like the decisions that you make, you better be able to back them up, because there's no changing what you've already done."

Martin credits his bandmates with helping to direct his lyrics. "The music kind of opened me up to talk about things that I'd never really talked about," he says. "It's kind of a therapy in a weird sort of way because I don't sit down and write lyrics out. I can't do it. So I figure if I sing about something while the music's playing, that's the inspiration for the idea behind the song, and I let it take control of me, and that's where I get my lyrics from. Again, it's the band, it's the music that's moving me."

Between 1985 and 1990, singer Martin played drums for local bands of varying styles. He hooked up with Mercado in mid-1991 for the Uncle Duke band after he had settled into being a singer and lyricist. After the band formed, the four knew they were on to something.

"We started writing like three songs in the first week," Martin says. "It was really, really strange because that doesn't happen a lot...It was coming way too easy. Pete came to us with like three songs, three melodies and Bardi came with two. I came with a lot of vocal ideas, and Scott, being the drummer and working with me for a while before starting Candlebox, we had a feel for one another. So when Pete and Bardi came in with these ideas, it was just kind of, I mean (stuff) started happening immediately. We had nine songs three months later."

"I think the main thing is we were all kind of doing the same thing from ages 14 and on up, just playing our instruments and learning the music and learning different types of music," he says. "When we got together as Candlebox, we just incorporated all those years of experience and checking the boundaries of different music; all that combined kind of created the Candlebox sound. So I think it's been five or six years of really just experiencing life and learning about music and that side of what's going on with Candlebox."

After Klett joined the band, they knew had something unique. "When Pete walked into our studio, it was an entirely different feel immediately," Martin says. "I don't know what he does for the band. I've tried to figure it out, but he's very confusing personally. I think he brings a lot of the mystique to the Candlebox sound. The way he plays, the chords he plays — his style of writing is different from most writers."

Almost a year to the day after the group came together, it was signed to a contract for two albums with an option for seven more. Candlebox Band recorded the album at the London Bridge Studio in Seattle, with producer and friend Kelly Gray, who had brought Klett into the band and produced the band's original demo.

"Kelly brings a lot of security to us. He's very open and honest and doesn't put pressure on the band," Martin says. "He doesn't do anything negative, and he's very supportive and diplomatic about the things he says to us."

Mercado says he's not worried about the sophomore Candlebox album. "No, not really," Mercado says. "At least, I'm not. I don't think the band should worry about that, because I think that as long as you keep your emotion high with what you're doing, I don't think there's really too much to worry about."

And what about the band's relationship with Madonna, their record label boss? "First of all, I should say that the label has been great to us," Mercado says. "It's just a fantastic label. They've given us the freedom to make the album we wanted to make, plus support to stay out on the road for a long time."

And Madonna herself? "We met her, hung out in New York with her. She's really cool, really laid back. We hung out, but we never really talked that much about the band. We talked about everything under the sun, so we finally got that out of the way, because we've been signed over a year on her label and never met her. It was good hanging out with her."

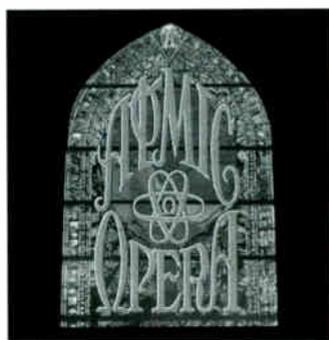

Martin expects more "real, honest rock" on the band's next album, as the band continues to have success with songs that emphasize emotions, not rhymes.

"It feels so good to go into a show and have people cheer when you go on stage," Martin says. "It's what I've wanted since I was a little kid."

Metal Pick

Atomic Opera, For Madmen Only (Collision Arts/Giant)

This Texas four piece is melded together with the most unusual of circumstances, pulling together members with different influences, circumstances, and abilities to churn out a release that is both hypnotic and powerful; a layered cauldron and a cutting razor. The leader of the band, vocalist Frank Hart, has a degree in literature and as a result, the songwriting is a two step process that is unified in the end. "All of my lyrics are written separately as poems, the music is written at a totally different time and may come from a totally different place ... the lyrics and music can each stand alone." To find a musician to complement his poetic lyrics, Hart looked to an accomplished blues guitarist - which didn't work out - but the guitarist's son, Jonathan Marshall was a seventeen year old powder-keg of six string gusto - and instantly landed a gig in the band. Dummer Mark Poindexter and Jonas Velasco on bass round out the band. From either a listen to the CD or a viewing of the video "Justice" you get the impression that this is a pack of potency that would explode at any second if it weren't for the dynamic presence of Hart controlling the direction. The first single, "Justice," has been quickly embraced by metal radio with increases at KIBZ, KQAL, KUNV, KZRO, WKNC, WMHB, and WWSP, plus top five requests at WKNC. The full length release, For Madmen Only, arrived in your hands this week, and many of you didn't waste any time adding that into your playlist, with Atomic Opera grabbing 23 adds for #3 most added (including adds at KISS, KISW, KNDI, KQAL, WHMH, WKLL, WKNC, WVCB, and WVXU) plus a debut on the Hard Hitters chart at #41. The opening cut, "Joyride", kicks off the CD with churning riffs that make up the thick melody to compliment the pensive lyrics, and "Achilles' Heel" slithers along at a resolute pace that sinks into your brain. With Sam Taylor at the production helm, the comparisons to King's X are inevitable, but on "I Know Better", the melodious bass lines that take over the song will intrigue any fans of those fellow Texans. Jave Patterson of KISS goes on further to say that "Atomic Opera is a great band - it's Sam Taylor's signature sound. Tight Texas "power rock", they are King's X and Galactic Cowboys together in one band! Are they this intense live?" This debut release, For Madmen Only, may be designated for the deranged, but judging by what we hear and the early response at radio, it would seem insane not put this on the air!

BEASTIE BOYS

Beastie Boys - "Pretzel Nugget EP" (Capitol) Ever since the Beastie Boys broke through the rock/rap barrier with '86s "Fight For Your Right To Party", the Beastie Boys have been given the all time thumbs up signal from all formats including metal (after all Kerry King was in that video), and while they seemed to disappear for awhile with some time off and the eclectic Paul's Boutique, they came screaming back with 1992s Check Your Head. The distorted guitars, warped vocals, and the sonic beats were a wall of sound that any one in hard rock could not resist. Not only have they been ahead of their time in music, but also fashion. The oversized clothes worn by the hip hop community and the "vintage" clothes enjoyed in the so called grunge look have been a part of the Beastie's wardrobe for years. On this sampler from the upcoming Ill Communication release, they continue with the effects laden sounds, sprinkled with razor guitars and emphatic raps on the lead single "Sabotage". Also on this EP are some shorter punked out jams, a funky ditty in "Futtermans Rule" and a guest appearance from QTip of A Tribe Called Quest on "Get It Together". Just off the Some Old Bullsh*t re-release, you may not have expected new material so quickly, but we aim to please, and this will do the trick. This bag of pretzel nuggets should provide plenty for you to snack on until you get ill. Ill Communication that is.

Orangutang, "A Chunk Of ..." EP (Imago) This Boston based band have the advantage of coming out of a growing and competitive Boston music scene, which will increasingly hone their playing abilities. They also have the advantage of being managed by Warren Entner management, who have had huge success the past few years with Rage Against the Machine, Faith No More and L7. The band is comprised of two Baltimore natives, Christian Days and Joe Klompas, a Boston scene veteran in David Steel, and Todd Perlmutter, a drummer who had previously toured with rapper MC SHAN, and was the first live drummer to ever tour with a rap act. With that intriguing background and the EP Rewards of Cruelty under their belt, they are preparing to warm you up for their full length release, Dead Sailor Acid Blues, with this metal only sampler featuring three songs from the album plus a bonus track. Looks like the chunk in "Bigger Chunk" came out of a marshmallow with their thick, mesmerizing dirge. The feedback intro and sonic blast of "Daddy Raw", the sinister hook of "Sweet Lemon Maureen" and the non album bonus track "Mr. Cimbalista" are additional options for metal radio on this sampler. Be sure that you don't monkey around and spend some time with Orangutang today!

Dog Eat Dog, All Boro Kings (Roadrunner) It's time to bring out the milk bone underwear because it is definitely a dog eat dog world out there (to paraphrase Norm from Cheers). This seven-piece band hailing from Jersey first graced us with the EP Warrant (not to be confused with the Warrant LP Dog Eat Dog), and now have returned with their first full release, All Boro Kings. Their funky but hard edged style is delivered with a hip hop flair and has seen some band enhancement since the EP; including the addition of a horn section, which produces a similarity to those plaid wearing boys in the Mighty Mighty Bosstones; and some help from friends like rappers Solid Ground and Bad Brain Darryl Jenifer. Currently, the Dogs are out on tour in Europe with Biohazard, which should put them in front of big crowds and hopefully bring in a slew of new fans, with a U.S. tour sure to follow. The focus track is "No Fronts", an upbeat tune with bouncy lyrics and booming horns, but there are many options to pick from including the mighty guitars of "Who's The King" and the groove of "Strip Song". After a few spins on the air, Dog Eat Dog will have your listeners chasing the Chuck Wagon and running for the dog biscuits.

Blackthorne, Afterlife (CMC International) While most of you probably haven't heard of Blackthorne, the members that comprise this band each have compiled resumes that would befit a supergroup. Graham Bonnet first gained U.S. notoriety with Rainbow having sung on the hit songs "Since You've Been Gone" and "All Night Long" (which Blackthorne re-vamps on this release). Bonnet also played in Alcatraz (with Yngwie Malmsteen and Steve Vai), MSG, and Impellitteri. Bob Kulick may be best known through his brother Bruce Kulick of KISS, but Bob actually played with KISS on KISS Alive II, Unmasked, and with Paul Stanley on his solo project. He also played on Alice Cooper's Welcome to My Nightmare tour and most recently with Blackie Lawless and WASP on The Crimson Idol. Not to be forgotten, drummer Jimmy Waldo played with Bonnet in Alcatraz, in early Quiet Riot and Pretty Maids. Now that we know these guys are more than credible musicians, take a listen to the new release Afterlife, which has already made waves in Europe and Japan since it was intentionally released overseas first. Their specialty is blasting out straight ahead power metal filled with screaming guitar hooks, pounding non-stop drums, and belting vocals. The title track (which will be the first video) is a good one to check out, along with the compelling melody of "We Won't Be Forgotten", and the frantic pace of "Hard Feelings". If you miss the blast of the classic metal pioneers, Afterlife should be in your stereo and on your air.

Quick Pick:

Pungent Stench - Club Mondo Bizarre (Nuclear Blast) This death metal band who has specialized in shocking many with their tongue-in-cheek gore lyrics and brutal delivery in the past has changed its direction and actually embraced the concept of melodies in their songs, without giving up one ounce of intensity. The subhuman vocals of Martin Shirenc still remain, to go along with thick guitar grooves that are not only very memorable, but ferocious with the hearty drums of Alex Wank to pulse the rhythm. This Austrian band has been releasing albums since 1990, but the conscious songwriting and increased accessibility will open up new doors and new fans. Currently residing at a steady #32 on the Hard Hitters chart, and with heavy airplay at KWUR, WYNU, WSMU, WXPL, KSJS, WBAU, and WKLL, it seems that many of you agree with that sentiment. Some who may have had preconceived notions about what this release would sound like, a closer listen is emphatically recommended.

Facepuller, Auditory Surgical Techniques (BangOn/Cargo) What we always enjoy here at the metal department is a release that we can crank up loud! This would be one of those releases. This Vancouver band (Brent Facepuller - bass/vocals; Brad Facepuller - drums; Ian David Lee Facepuller - guitar; gee, they must be brothers) explore the areas of break-neck speed on a musical level with frenzied guitars, pounding drums and angst ridden vocals. The short song lengths also aid in keeping the tempo as fast as a Formula 1 race car, but much safer. It doesn't feel safe though, the overwhelming sensation of careening out of control takes over with every listen, especially on tracks like "1-900" and "Nuha". For some short, but sweet, lethal blasts of noise, check out Facepuller and you won't be disappointed.

HARD HITTERS

Metal Filings

What's up? With summer just around the corner the heat is turning up on the metal front. Scorchin' new stuff to spin includes the Dog Eat Dog (Roadrunner) LP, All Boro Kings. The ten track, Jason Corsaro produced album goes for adds on May 16th and 17th... Not meaning to be repetitious but I had to remind everyone that the entire Skatenigs album, What A Mangled Web We Leave, has finally arrived on your desk... Chicago's own Cyclone Temple (Monsterdisc) drop back in on the metal world with their single "My Lonely Friend". The CD-pro goes for adds on May 23rd and 24th. The cut comes from the upcoming full length disc of the same name - that, by the way, will be in stores on June 7th... Did I mention that the new Sepultura (Epic/Roadrunner) single, "Slave New World", will now be going for adds May 23rd/24th. I did? Nevermind... Make room for the Therapy? (A&M) cut, "Die Laughing", on your playlist May 23rd and 24th. The b-side of the CD-pro is a cover of The Membranes'

"Tatty Seaside Town"...

The forthcoming Seed (Giant/Futurist) album contains the three songs that you will get on the Doe EP. Go ahead and add the CD (featuring "Doe", "Tortoise Shell" and "Fortune") on May 23rd and 24th... May 31st brings Fear, Emptiness, Despair from Napalm Death

(Earache/Columbia). Take heed — you have been warned... Fear Of God (Pavement) deliver the Mark Pinske produced and engineered Toxic Voodoo LP on June 7th. The band added second guitarist Chris Kalandras in September of '93 and signed with Pavement Music in January of '94 before entering Pro Media Studios in Gainesville, Florida to record the album... A few changes have been made and the first Suicidal Tendencies (Epic) single, "What You Need's A Friend", will not be arriving on May 31st but has been pushed back for June 6th/7th adds instead. — Quick, write that down. — Which also means that the album's release date has been moved back - look for Suicidal For Life to settle on the shelves June 14th... I mistakenly told you that the KISS (Mercury) tribute album was scheduled for a May 31st arrival when in fact it is set to go for adds June 6th. Sorry 'bout the error... When Alice Cooper's (Epic) record, The Last Temptation, lands in the record stores on June 7th rush right out a grab your very own copy cuz only the first 40,000 of 'em will be specially packaged with the first edition of the Neil Gamen comic book... In case you haven't heard there is new Helmet (Interscope) material on the way! Arriving sometime in June will be the Betty full length LP... Mercury's latest signee Downset have signed up for June 13th radio wave play with "Anger", the first cut to be taken from their debut disc... Pavement Records have signed Headlock and Solitude Aeternos to their artist roster with both bands handing over new material in the summer months. Look for the albums in late July and early August respectively... Zoo Entertainment will be distributing the brand spanking new Killing Joke tunes found on the Pandemonium album. The record, recorded with all original band members and produced by Jaz, has been given an August 2nd street date... Barkmarket's (American) Dave Sardy is one busy guy. First he is doing studio time with Cop Shoot Cop, producing their newest industrial haze. Then, Sardy will join producer Rick Rubin at the boards to engineer the next record from the Red Hot Chili Peppers (yes!). All of this while putting the finishing touches on a new EP from his own band. The five song EP, Lardroom, is slated for a July 19th unveiling and contains such trax as "I Drown", "Dig In" and "Little White Dove". Oh yeah, I almost forgot, Barkmarket are also on the road with shows booked through the fourth of June when the band stop in Austin, Texas. Whew! The Paw (A&M) tour itinerary includes the final dates booked with Green Apple Quick Step (Giant) on May 16th in Champaign, Illinois; May 17th in Milwaukee, Wisconsin; the 18th in Madison, Wisconsin; the 19th in Davenport, Iowa; May 20th in Des Moines, Iowa; the 21st in Lincoln, Nebraska; the 22nd in Sioux Falls, South Dakota; and the 28th in Seattle, Washington...

Time is running out to catch Infectious Grooves (Epic) on their current road show. Look for the funky ones to stop in Norfolk, Virginia May 14th; in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on May 16th; in New York, New York on May 17th; in Boston, Massachusetts on May 18th; in Detroit, Michigan on May 20th; and in Chicago, Illinois on May 21st all before stopping in Minneapolis, Minnesota on May 22nd... According to the word cruising the grapevine Motley Crue (Elektra) have signed on the Ramones (Radioactive) and Type O Negative (Roadrunner) as the show openers on the first leg of their U.S. summer trek. Then, the Butthole Surfers (Capitol) and Type O Negative round out the bill on the second leg of the road trip. Stay tuned for dates and/or more info... Although dates haven't been set in stone it looks like The Poor (550/Epic) will be warming up the audiences on the upcoming Scorpions (Mercury) touring extravaganza. Climb aboard and buckle in as the double bill lambastes the states from June 6th (in Memphis, Tennessee) to July 13th (NYC)... Take note of the changes in the Soundgarden (A&M) tour dates. New or changed shows include the Thursday, June 6th show in Montreal, Quebec; the Thursday, June 23rd gig in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and the Friday, June 24th show in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Check the Hard Tour Guide for more info... Mutha's Day Out (Chrysalis/ERG) and Greta (Mercury) are traveling the highways of America on a tour running from May 20th (doin' the gig thang in Mutha's home state of Arkansas - Little Rock, that is) until May 31st when the duo stop in Los Angeles, California... Green Day (Reprise) fans rejoice! The band have been added to the Lollapalooza main stage lineup filling the opening slot on the second half of the musical journey... The Rollins Band (Imago) have taken their heated brand of metal to the road in support of Weight; with shows running from mid-May on - look for 'em to take the stage at the Woodstock Festival on August 13 and 14... Bummer that it is, Sepultura (Epic/Roadrunner) won't be playing on the Florida Pantera (EastWest)/Biohazard (Warner Brothers) dates cuz they will be rockin' the house at Donnington and Dynamo. Former WZMB Music Director Chainsaw has moved to New York City and is officially starting at

Mechanic/Futurist on May 18th. Mr. Saw is replacing Bill Mierzejewski in the Metal Promotions Department. It was great to see Dave Downey and meet Jason DiMarco as we ventured into Philly to be a part of the I Mother Earth religious experience. And thanks to Chris for the Compulsion fix and Mexican food! ***** My final comment this week concerns the adorable kitty cat found on the Compulsion (Elektra) Boogie Woogie EP. A few of you were concerned about the kitty's welfare considering in the photograph it has a rope attached to a brick tied around its neck. Well, we have been informed that Sooty (the cat) is alive and well rescued by a passer-by after his owner had thrown him into the river Thames in London. The band chose the image of the cat "as a graphic illustration of the vulnerable and voiceless who are being abused, humiliated and brutalized," and feel that you can "replace the brick, tied around the victim's neck and intended to drag them down, by whatever oppression you like: poverty, sexism, racism, ignorance, homophobia..." So you see, the band support both animal and human rights and will continue to use the artwork as a "shocking reminder of the brutality we can all be reduced to." Over and out. Peace.

News compiled by Jodie Fabricus

We are quite impressed that Diane Vinikour got Crowbar's Kirk Windstein and Pantera's Phil Anselmo to stand still long enough to huddle in close enough for a Kodak moment. Even more impressive is that they both look happy about it.

We give this sinister shot of Anthony Savar of WDWN and Lars Rosenberg of Entombed the big thumbs up. Let the party begin.

This metal assembly shared some quality time before the camera-person insisted that Lonn Friend, Alice Cooper, and Eleven's Natasha Schneider and Alain Johannes assume the gratuitous photo op pose. And we're darn glad they did.

IMPORTED

By Sat Bisla

Seal, "Prayer For The Dying", (ZTT U.K.) After a two year hiatus, this highly acclaimed British songwriter/performer is back with another SMASH HIT. The new single is a great track that will no doubt crossover from Alternative to many other formats. With meaningful vocals and a haunting melody, "Prayer For The Dying" will also be a song for the living. Look for the club mixes and a domestic U.S. release in several weeks. Already getting massive airplay at KISS FM in London, England.

Blur, "Girls And Boys", Pet Shop Boys Remixes, (Food, Holland) Finally, Blur are back with a multi-format hit that will appeal to both males and females alike thanks to a helping hand from the Pet Shop Boys. The remixes have that mass pop appeal that was present in their 1990 hit "There's No Other Way". The Dutch import features a radio edit and 12" dance mix that are just "kickin"...along with a track called "Magpie" and an instrumental titled "Anniversary Waltz".

Scarlet, "I Really Like The Idea", (Warner, Europe) This female artist brings out another refreshing sound to excite more than just the radio...it'll excite your listeners. A great alternative record that will appeal to other formats (as did the Cranberries). Catchy, melodic and the upbeat guitars add a respectful edge that give this a record a sense of being more than just another female record. Scarlet maybe the secret hit of 1994.

Clawfinger, "Warfair", (EastWest, Germany) Watch out American radio this band is on the attack...with raging guitars, aggressive drums and vocal presence to send chills down your spine. Yes, Europe's Clawfinger get it and get it good...definitely in the same line as your Rage Against The Machine, Nine Inch Nails, Ministry, etc. A must play Hard-edged track to educate your listeners and your staff. This is not a one hit wonder band...this band is for real! Expect "Warfair" by Clawfinger to explode in your market soon.

Killing Joke, "Millennium", (Big Life, U.K.) When I first heard this record it really threw me off... I thought it was a really cool, undiscovered grunge band from Seattle. Definitely no way near the sounds of the modern rock classics "80's", "Sanity", etc. Killing Joke are back with a 1994 alternative rock hit that will no doubt impress their many fans of the past and present. This track will no doubt be talked about record for a long time to come but more importantly Killing Joke are back with a musical vengeance. The import cd 5 features five different mixes to satisfy the needs of everyone.

big change in radioland this week features Alex Luke taking off for St. Louis and the APD/MD gig at KPNT. Says Alex, "I'm excited about the opportunity to work with Jim McGuinn and work in a market where the format is still developing." Alex will take a rare week off and start doing mornings on May 31st... Green Day has been added to the main stage line-up for Lollapalooza. They're scheduled to take the opening slot on the second half of the tour, which begin in early July. By the way, the record has already sold over 350,000 copies... The line-up for KROQ's Weenie Roast has been made official. The event is on Saturday, June 11 at the Irvine Meadows Amphitheater, and bands appearing include Afghan Whigs, Beck, Candlebox, Counting Crows, Frente!, Green Day, James, Offspring, Pavement, Pretenders, Rollins Band and the Violent Femmes. Proceeds are going to Heal The Bay and AIDS Project Los Angeles... Have no doubt that the Francis Dunnery record will explode all formats... WOXY is looking for bands to play their "A Day In Eden" music festival. The event will be on June 25th, with an attendance of about 5,000 people expected. Give either Phil or the Julies a call... WIIZ raised $1000.00 for the American Red Cross this week. Arista donated one of Sarah McLachlan's acoustic guitars, which served to help the cause... Still more stations come in this week who realize the immensity of the Blur record... The End in Seattle will be celebrating the arrival of "The Who's Tommy" when it opens in Seattle for 16 performances on Thursday, May 19th. On the eve of opening night, the station will host a pre-Tommy party which will feature the band from the show. 100% of the proceeds will benefit the programs and services of the Northwest AIDS Foundation... For those of you not already hip to the digital cable radio thing, you might be interested in getting in touch with David Sloan over at International Cable Technologies, where the alternative format is fully in place. The phone number is (310) 444-1744... Excuse the brevity, for the banks of the Potomac beckon. We'll give you the whole skinny on the HFStival next week. Until then, here's some pictures we truly, sincerely, genuinely hope you enjoy.

Robert Plant has covered two Moby Grape songs for his next solo album. But there's a dispute over who should get song royalties for the old San Francisco band. Former Grape manager Matthew Katz owns the rights to the name. According to San Francisco artist manager Herbie Herbert, Katz has been receiving royalties for the band's compositions since 1973. "The settlement negotiated with Katz in 1973 may not be valid," Herbert says. "As a result of that agreement, some of the musicians who recorded the masterful Moby Grape debut, one of the great albums of the psychedelic era, have been left destitute. Bob Mosley, the singer, is living in a dumpster in San Diego. He's mentally incapacitated, and he was a ward of the state when the 1973 settlement was entered into. The same goes for Skip Spence, who is in a mental institution in Santa Cruz. Spence was a founding member of the Jefferson Airplane and one of the Grape's main songwriters. There's no denying his talent." Herbert has initiated a lawsuit against the label that recently issued a Moby Grape boxed set.

In an interview with Rip magazine earlier this year, Kurt Cobain blamed journalists for emphasizing his drug use in their articles about Nirvana. The June issue of the magazine quotes Cobain as saying he was tired of being asked about his heroin use. "They realized I was vulnerable about that subject, took advantage of it and wrote every single fucking article about that subject," Cobain said. "I've talked for hours with journalists about all kinds of positive things, all kinds of things I enjoy and love about being in rock & roll. And it's never printed. Even at the height of our explosion we were all trying to get those things across, talk about other bands we like and stuff. But we're at the mercy of the journalist and the journalist is at the mercy of the editor, and they want to sell the dirt." Cobain said he was feeling less pessimistic as he was getting older, but added, "I'll never lose all of my pessimism. I still have to be cautious, numb myself. I still have to be sure that our tour manager has a chat with the security before a show to make sure they don't strong-arm the kids, not to let any sleazy types back who look like they're on drugs."

James, Fleetwood Mac, the Scorpions, the Moody Blues, Santana and Gary Glitter have recorded new tracks for a compilation called "Soccer Rocks The Globe" just coming out (on Mercury Records). The album will also include the official theme song of the 1994 World Cup tournament, "Gloryland," performed by Daryl Hall with Sounds Of Blackness. James have recorded their British hit "Low, Low, Low" as "Goal, Goal, Goal" for this LP. Fleetwood Mac have recorded a new version of "Blow By Blow," and Gary Glitter has updated his classic hit for "Rock & Roll '94 (Parts I & II)." The Moody Blues and Santana are contributing new songs while a Tears For Fears b-side called "New Star" will also be included.

Chrissie Hynde, lead singer of the Pretenders, claimed a few years ago that she had firebombed a McDonald's and she encouraged others to do so. But now, she admits she isn't so much of an environmentalist. "This year I'm Chrissie Hynde the rock star," she says. "Anyway, we've fucked up here on this planet. We can't save it now. We can't even arrest the situation. Even if we could, we're not doing anything about it. It's too late to clean up the water and the air and the ozone layer and bring back the animals." Hynde now says "the principle of life is to enjoy it."

Michelle Shocked is currently without a record label and her new album "Kind Hearted Woman" is only available at her concerts. "It was recorded with one microphone, just voice and electric guitar," she says. Referring to her very first album, Shocked says the new one is "kind of like 'The Texas Campfire Revenge.'" Shocked says she's tried to distance herself from her debut album ever since it was released, even though it was the record that brought her to the attention of the British music scene. She says the album was recorded on a Sony Walkman with dying batteries so her voice sounded too high and fast. She now calls the LP "The Texas Campfire Thefts." Shocked says her new album is full of "very personal songs. There's a song about a mid-wife who delivers a stillborn baby; a song about a farmer waiting for a crew to come in and harvest his crop, and if they don't get there he'll be ruined; a song about a woman trying to keep her homestead going...."

When the Rolling Stones play the University of Texas Memorial Stadium in October, fans won't be able to drink or smoke. The university has a policy against smoking and drinking at the stadium. "There will not be beer sales," says Ed Sharpe, UT vice president for administration and public affairs.

Melissa Etheridge says she plans to play a tribute to Janis Joplin at the Woodstock II festival taking place August 13 and 14 in Saugerties, New York. "It will be fun," she says. "I'll do a Joplin number to pay tribute, and be on my way." Neil Young, Metallica, Public Enemy and the Red Hot Chili Peppers are also expected to be on the bill.

San Francisco band the White Trash Debutantes has invited figure skater Tonya Harding to join the band. The group, which includes a 78-year-old grandmother and three male cross-dressers, says it is talking with Harding's attorneys. "We promised her that we were serious (and) that there was no mockery being made of her," says lead singer Ginger Coyote. "She is now looking at her career options and the White Trash Debutantes is one of them." The band has written a song called "Don't Mess with Tonya Harding." The group hopes Harding will join them at an alternative music festival on May 14.

By Mike Cooper

Violent Femmes singer Gordon Gano says the band's new album, "New Times," has "the greatest variety of anything we've put out." The band recorded the album while trying to leave its former label, because they felt they were not being effectively promoted. "All the lawyers were talking and trying to work out things," Gano says. "Meanwhile, we just decided we're going to go ahead and make music so we'll be ready with something when all this stuff eventually gets figured out." The new self-produced album features drummer Guy Hoffman, formerly of the BoDeans, who uses a trap set, like his predecessor Victor DeLorenzo. "A lot of it tends to rock a little harder because I'm using sticks and a kit instead of brushes and a snare drum," Hoffman says.

The Recording Industry Association of America opposes a rating system for rap records. "While a voluntary ratings system may be appropriate for motion pictures, its application to sound recordings would be both inappropriate and impractical," Hilary Rosen, president of the Recording Industry Association of America, told a Congressional committee. "Virtually every recording that has been the target of public controversy...has a voluntary parental advisory on its cover."

The former Prince plans to convert a former nightclub in Miami Beach into a Glam Slam disco. He already has clubs with that name in Los Angeles, Minneapolis and Tokyo. He's also opened a store in London that sells memorabilia and other merchandise, including jewelry and scented products. A cotton tour jacket is available for $300. A time capsule, including a guitar, has been placed under the store, which he spent $150,000 renovating.

Shaun Cassidy is leaving the cast of the Broadway show "Blood Brothers," which also features David Cassidy and Petula Clark. Cassidy plans to work on the screenplay of a syndicated television movie called "Midnight Run For Your Life" which will air the week of June 6. Clark is expected to leave the cast when "Blood Brothers" begins a U.S. tour in Dallas in August.

Two men are traveling around the South producing a play featuring the music of the Everly Brothers called "Dream, Dream, Dream." The play began an initial run of six weeks in Gate City, Virginia, then traveled to Roanoke, Virginia, and Kingsport, Tennessee, before returning to Gate City. Now it's opened for a run in Knoxville, Tennessee. "Nobody doesn't like it," says actor K.C. Wilson, who co-wrote the production with Jim Baker. "It deals with the important things in life. Like dating and dressing well." The two hope to take the play off-Broadway in New York after testing it on the road some more. "Some people have seen the show 14, 15 times," Baker says. "We had a call today from Kingsport from a couple that are coming to see the show for the 22nd time."

Dick Dale says he's tired of being called the "King of the Surf Guitar." "I have not given up on surf music. I have taken it into unknown territory, a higher dimension," Dale says. "Once they put you in the top ten of the alternative rock charts, you are no longer surf." Dale's current album, "Tribal Thunder," is his first in about ten years. "For the first time in the history of me recording, I was sounding like I sound on stage," he says of the new record. "I tell people, 'When you buy 'Tribal Thunder,' you're going to throw every other Dick Dale record away.'" Dale says he wrote the album because of his "anguish over the total destruction of the earth by people who just don't care about environmental things. The earth is not the pure, beautiful blue marble it was before. I wrote 'Esperanza' on the record after I went up on a high plateau in Mexico and watched how they raised their children, teaching them their heritage, how to respect their parents. They were happy. They grow their own food. They don't use all that DDT stuff. But they see the sky darkening in the distance, and they don't know why. It's the smog coming from Mexico City, the most terrible in the world along with L.A."

A California rapper is making another attempt to push his "Rodney King Blues." Larry Morris says he wrote the song while watching television reports during the 1992 Los Angeles riots. Radio stations showed little interest in the single when he first released it in that year.

Little Feat will replace Bob Weir and Rob Wasserman at the Seventh Annual RiverBlues Festival in Philadelphia.

Judy Collins is working with actor Harvey Keitel on a UNICEF children's book about the war in the former Yugoslavia. The two recently visited U.N. centers throughout the region collecting art and writings from Bosnian children. The book, being published in the fall, will benefit U.N. relief programs. Collins also plans to release a song about the war, with proceeds going to UNICEF.

Paul McCartney's wife, Linda, is now promoting a line of mealless frozen foods. Linda McCartney's Home Style Cooking is getting initial distribution in the mid-western United States from a manufacturing plant in Fairmont, Minnesota. At a press conference in St. Louis, Linda said, "I'm doing this for the animals and the environment." The Paul McCartney fan club newsletter includes vegetarian recipes as well as news about McCartney's music.

A group of 1,322 guitarists has set a new record for the greatest number of guitarists ever to play together at one time. The guitarists, who played outdoors in Vancouver, played three chords from the Bachman-Turner Overdrive hit "Takin' Care Of Business" for 68 minutes and 40 seconds. Randy Bachman, formerly of BTO and the Guess Who led the line-up. The old record for a gathering of guitarists was 545. They had played "Hang On Sloopy" for 45 minutes.

Bob Dylan recently quietly donated $20,000 to the Page Park School for handicapped children in Rockford, Illinois. Dylan read a newspaper story about the school having trouble raising money for a playground, and a few days later, a Federal Express envelope arrived with a note and check from Dylan.

2Pac Shakur has been charged with two probation violations in connection with his most recent arrest on charges of carrying a concealed weapon. Shakur could be given a 1 1/2-year jail term and fined $3,000 for the probation violations. Shakur was arrested in late April after police found a loaded semi-automatic pistol and marijuana in his car. The incident took place less than a couple of weeks before he was supposed to begin serving a 14-day jail term for his conviction of beating someone on the set of a music video last year. Shakur is currently serving a 15-day jail term for attacking a former employer on the set of a music video.

Willie Nelson was arrested on marijuana possession charges when police found him sleeping in the back seat of a car parked along a service road off Interstate 35 in Hewitt, a suburb of Waco, Texas. Sergeant Mike Cooper of the Hewitt police department says a roach was in the car's ashtray and a bag of marijuana was found elsewhere in the car. Police say Nelson said he was on his way to his home near Austin when he stopped for a nap because of poor weather. "It was foggy and the weather was bad, so I pulled over on the side of the road to sleep, and the policemen found me there in the back seat. They found a roach in the ashtray," Nelson says.

Ruben Blades ran a distant third place in the Panamanian presidential election, garnering just over 17 percent of the vote. Blades had been using music as part of his campaign, playing a song called "Pablo Pueblo" about the empty promises of politicians. Critics had accused Blades of being a political novice, but he had support from some Panamanians who idolized him for his rise to stardom as a salsa musician and actor. He'd also been criticized for failing to fight the dictatorship of General Manuel Noriega. "While he was singing in the comfort of Hollywood, many Panamanians were suffering torture and imprisonment," says Juan Luis Correa, an editor of the La Prensa newspaper. "Now many people resent the idea that he wants to return to pick up the winning prize." Blades says he'll make another run for the presidency in the 1999 elections in Panama. "If you all didn't give me the job of being president, I will have to keep working. I have been unemployed for eight months now," Blades said after the election.

Cliff Richard is delaying for a year his plans for a musical based on the novel "Wuthering Heights." Richard was to have taken the lead role of the "Heathcliff" musical, which was to have opened in Britain in November. At the venues where the musical had been scheduled, Richard will instead play concerts celebrating his 35 years in pop music.

Fudge Tunnel don't like to tour, and bass player Dave Ryley makes no bones about it. "I wish I knew why we were on tour. We just sort of seemed to slip into it. People put pressure on you to tour...so you grit your teeth and you go out and do it and hate every minute of it," Ryley says. "It's just one (night) after another, playing the same songs — it might as well be to the same people — it's horribly repetitive and dull. You spend most of your time waiting for something, which isn't fun. So you wait and you smoke cigarettes and you smoke too many cigarettes and you feel ill. So you try to have another cigarette and that does the trick, and then you feel ill again." Ryley also isn't bragging about being on a major label (Columbia Records). "The bigger you get, the more you notice that most of the people that buy your records and come to your shows are complete idiots and half of them are the people that you were singing about in the first place," he says. "We like to do things that people don't expect us to do, sometimes just for the sake of doing that. We'll actually go out and do something that we would never have considered putting on an album were it not for the fact that nobody else would ever had imagined us doing it."

Verve, the British independent band, have lost a battle with Verve, the American jazz label, and will change their name to The Verve for American releases. The band had offered to change their name to Verv, but this proved unacceptable to the record company. The band will travel to the USA, where they will perform on the Lollapalooza tour, next month. They are also about to begin work on a new single provided drummer Pete Salisbury, who recently broke his ankle, is fit enough to work.

Prince made an unexpected appearance at the official opening of his London New Power Generation store. The singer recently released his "The Most Beautiful Girl In The World" single via a German independent distribution company after a dispute with Warner Brothers. Edel licensed the single territory by territory in Europe and worked with Music For Life in the UK. Music For Life, who specialize in one-off releases, were rewarded with a number one hit.

Teenage Fanclub are working with former Soup Dragons drummer Paul Quinn. Quinn has been rehearsing with the band in Glasgow. However, it is still unclear whether he will be a permanent replacement for Brendan D'Hare, who recently quit Teenage Fanclub. No reason has been given for O'Hare's departure. Elsewhere, Teenage Fanclub and Frank Black are said to be working together on a live session for John Peel's BBC Radio One Network show. Finally, Teenage Fanclub are set to play the Tennents Live! Festival, which takes place on July 30 and 31 at Strathclyde County Park, Scotland. Other bands confirmed are Bjork, The Levellers, House Of Pain, Primal Scream, Del Amitri, The Saw Doctors and Yothu Yindi.

Deacon Blue are to split up. Next week, the band will play their final show in Glasgow. Rumors suggest the split has been caused by disagreements between the band and their record company Columbia. The label recently re-released Deacon Blue's first single "Dignity" to promote a "Greatest Hits" album, a decision which angered the band. Drummer Douglas Vipond is the only member to announce his future plans. He will become a children's television presenter in Scotland.

Madness are to follow up 1992's Madstock concerts with a similar event in London's Finsbury Park on August 6. In 1992, the band played two shows in front of a combined audience of around 60,000. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Madness guitarist Chrissy Boy says the band have been working on new songs. However, they seem unlikely to feature any of the new material at Finsbury Park. According to Chrissy: "Maybe we'll do it but after that you get people asking you to record it."

The Hackney Homeless Festival, a London event to draw attention to the plight of the homeless, ended in violence between festival-goers and police. The clashes came about after police arrested a man outside the Robinson Caruso pub, near to the festival site in north London. Police say a mini-riot followed and that they were showered with bricks and glasses. Seven officers had to be treated for cuts and bruises. 30 people were arrested on public order charges. However, some witnesses claim the police overreacted. Steve Skinner told the New Musical Express: "I saw one guy, who asked them (the police) why they were doing this, got jabbed with a baton. I saw a woman in a wheelchair, who was obviously very distressed, being wheeled around roughly by a policeman. It was completely unprovoked." Elsewhere, police praised the festival itself, which they said was "well-organized". The Levellers, Back To The Planet, The Orb's Alex Paterson and Fun-Da-Mental all performed at the event which was attended by 30,000 people.

Mike Scott of The Waterboys has been working with former Doll By Doll leader Jackie Levin. The pair have been collaborating on songs for an album "Clay Jug". Scott contributes vocals to two tracks. "Clay Jug" will be released via Cooking Vinyl in July.

Suede are working on a new album. The band are currently in a studio in Kilburn, West London, recording with Ed Bueller, who produced their album "Suede". The album is expected to be in stores in September and rumors suggest the new material may follow the style of Suede's recent "Stay Together" single.

The Human League have signed to EastWest. The band are working on an album in Sheffield, north England. Producer is Ian Stanley who produced The Pretenders' latest album. The album should be released late this year.

Ace Of Base singer Jenny Berggren was threatened in her home on April 27 by an attacker armed with a knife. The intruder was 21 year old Ace Of Base fan Manuela Behrendt. Berggren's mother was injured, suffering cuts to her hands, in a scuffle which followed Behrendt's alleged break in. Reports suggest Behrendt had travelled to Sweden to get Berggren's autograph and that she had been spotted "stalking" around the Berggren family home earlier on the day of the incident.

Snap Records, the Swedish alternative label, have changed their name to Soap Records. The label was forced into the move after the techno band Snap! threatened legal action. In 1992, the label had approached Snap!'s record company, BMG and received permission to use the name. It appears a subsequent move by BMG to obtain exclusive rights to the name Snap was not relayed to Snap/Soap. It is estimated Soap may have to pay up to $30,000 to amend artwork and advertisements.

Manic Street Preachers will return on May 30 with a double a-sided "Faster/PCP" (Epic). The band are currently working on a new album. Recently, they played in Thailand. Performing in Bangkok, the band were somewhat surprised to find the ceiling of the venue collapsing. Surveyors had to be consulted before the building was declared safe for a second show.

Mick Jones of Big Audio (previously Big Audio Dynamite) has not died, despite reports to the contrary. Jones is reported to have found the story funny. Last week, Jones performed at the London Hammersmith Apollo Mick Ronson memorial concert alongside such artists as Gary Brooker, former Sex Pistol Glen Matlock, Ian Hunter, Bill Nelson, Steve Harley, Roger Taylor, Captain Sensible, Def Leppard and Roger Daltrey.

The Levellers are continuing their campaign against the Criminal Justice Bill. As previously reported in The Hard Report, many fear the legislation, which could shortly become law, will give the police draconian powers. It would, for instance, clamp down on such groups as squatters and new age travellers, effectively pushing them further to the margins of society by making facets of their lifestyles illegal. The Levellers are reported to be behind a forthcoming massive advertising campaign against the bill. The Advance Party, a group which represents sound systems, are also said to be planning a billboard campaign - the legislation could outlaw many raves. Last weekend, over 20,000 people marched on London's Trafalgar Square to oppose the Criminal Justice Bill. Many musicians and figures from the music industry attended the event.

The Cranberries will play at the Fleadh 94, a festival of Celtic music which will take place in London's Finsbury Park this summer, despite a knee injury which has been severely restricting singer Delores O'Riordan's movements. The injury forced the band to cancel a tour with Crowded House. The Cranberries are currently in the British singles charts with "Dreams" (Island).

Led Zepplin fans will hold a convention from May 21-22. Taking place at London's Royal National Hotel, the event will give Zep obsessives the chance to see an exhibition of memorabilia, take part in a charity auction and see rare videos.

DUG, WRFC, ATHENS, GEORGIA,

Lots of stuff happened this week, not even counting everyone's threats to use me as the virgin sacrifice at the late Mayday party. I came closer to qualifying than anyone else there. What a comment on my social life...

Collective Soul did a phoner with us last week. Seems their cousins go to UGA and (of course) will listen to nothing but us. The cousins set the whole interview up because they thought it would be cool. It was... The Jazz Butcher has a new CD. I'm happy. Oh, so happy. Unfortunately I had already made my ads for the week and can't squeeze it in. I'm unhappy. So unhappy. Pat Fish is a cool guy and can talk for a long time about dolphins and tuna... I helped a friend move yesterday. I now have lots of bruises from a bizarre sofa accident. No, this doesn't involve any changes in the status mentioned in Paragraph 1... Umh, the Stand is cool. I'm going to go way now... Dug's answer of the week: The Jazz Butcher.

MARK FISCHER, ATLANTIC RECORDS,
212-275-2085

Life rules! Collective Soul is No. 1! Hallelujah! Rock radio can take all the credit for this one, you guys heard it, played it, and the rest is history. Enjoy the weeks ahead, it only gets hotter! And speaking of hot, I can finally talk about that record I was sworn to secrecy about, Stone Temple Pilots. The album which includes "Big Empty" (which is now in conjunction with "The Crow" soundtrack. Confused? Don't be.) Is arriving with great fanfare to retail June 7th and yes, radio will have an intense track to rock everyone's world with. "Vaseline" is the title of the first official cut to hit radio. The album was produced by Brendan O'Brien in an unprecedented fourteen days. No sophomore jitters for these guys. Be aware. Tour dates are eminent. I just returned Monday from a promo tour with Francis Dunnery. For those of you who have ignored this record you are ignoring a major star. I am not full of shit when I say that Francis Dunnery is probably the most prolific songwriter Atlantic is currently promoting. Make a point to listen to this record. Francis told me himself, he wanted to make a record that didn't sound like anything else. Is that not the spirit of rock-n-roll. Listen, to "American Life In The Summertime", "King Of The Blues", "New Vibration" and "Good Life". Call me and tell me I'm screwed if this is not an artist that your listeners will gravitate to. The influences are so diverse its scary! And as Francis would say in his new learned Texanese "You've got a pretty mouth, boy!!"

SCOTT DOUGLAS, VIRGIN, 212-586-7700

What is alternative in May of 1994? I'm gonna make the same point this week that I made a few weeks ago. Look at the top of the BDS Rock Monitor chart this week. 1) Collective Soul (I can't hear this record loud enough or often enough) 2) Pink Floyd 3) Pearl Jam 4) Soundgarden 5) Meat Puppets 6) Alice In Chains 7) Smashing Pumpkins 8) Allman Brothers 9) Sammy Hagar 10) Traffic 11) Candlebox 12) Pink Floyd 13) Stone Temple Pilots 14) Aerosmith 15) Pretenders. That's enough. This is rock and roll Today. It's not Alternative, it's not classic! It's NEW! There are certainly classic artists in there and there certainly are bands in there that were once perceived as alternative. Do you remember when Pink Floyd was "Alternative"? This is rock radio today and all of these artists can be heard on the same radio station. Upper demos are being deluged with press and television appearances by these artists. Just because a guy or girl turns 30 doesn't mean they don't want to hear new hit artists. They are curious and want to feel "hip". Give them what they want. I heard the best example of how to program all these artists this week on WEBN, Cincinnati. They went from Marshall Tucker Band into Smashing Pumpkins "Disarm" with a breaker in between that said "It's not a classic...yet...new stuff on WEBN...deal with it..." Pretty fuckin' cool, I think. Thanks...that's the Scott Douglas show.

JIM DEL BALZO, COLUMBIA RECORDS,

Now that all the pertinent publications are in a monitored of plays per week mode, it's important that PD's get a quick course in interpreting the charts. Anyone who's worked with the BDS charts over the past 2 years knows that these charts, like the stockmarket, go up and down and hardly ever in a straight upward direction. For example, a band appears on Rockline and plays their new track. That next week there's an artificial bump of around 75-100 spins. The next week those spins disappear and an otherwise healthy record ends up having a lousy number of total play loses it's bullet. That record's not over, but some uninformed people may think so... If several "quick rotating" stations have A-Z weeks or special programming during a holiday period, that will play havoc with the charts. If people don't pay attention as to why things happen, once again the uninformed could prematurely kill a record... One other situation comes to mind. In the event of a major album debut (i.e. Pink Floyd) where several cuts from an album get played very, very heavily the first few days, the additional plays on such a record will have an adverse affect on other currents already on the air... The point I'm trying to make is that it is incumbent on each decision maker at every radio station to realize that the charts have many things that effect them. Merely moving backwards on the chart may not mean a thing when it comes to knowing the "health" of any particular track.

DIANE GENTILE, ARISTA RECORDS

AOR WMMMS/Cleveland just added Sarah McLachlan's "Possession". You care about male listeners, so look at this: Call-out on KNNC/Austin - #1 Best researching track (males/females), Men 18-24 #4 best, Men 18-34 #6 best. As the well spoken Graham Hatch from Arista stated, "For those who say this is only a 'chick' record, get a grip!" The track is a hit at Modern Rock radio! The video is getting banded on both MTV & VH-1. Last week she appeared on David Letterman. The album Fumbling Towards Ecstasy is #58* on the Billboard Top 200 and ranks Top 20 in Detroit, Chicago, Memphis, Austin, Springfield/IL, Sacramento. It's a big story...and getting bigger every day!.. Something like the Crash Test Dummies. Second CTD track is "Afternoons And Coffeespoons". CD Pro is on your desk. Adds - Now. Early leaders: a slew of Modern Rock stations and WPLR, WCCC, WBAB, WAVF and more. The band is on the road and absolutely turning heads... Take a look at Triple A & Modern Rock charts in 3 weeks and watch what happens with the new single from The Church! Stick is now on WKDF, WLZR, KNCN, KRAD and other COR/ROAR station. Airplay/tour combination is impacting sales. "Grind" rocks. Next up for release - This Picture. It's a good time out there for new music...and we've got it!

PAM EDWARDS, COLUMBIA, 310-449-2901

"I don't want it - I don't need it - but I can't stop myself!" Get used to this chorus from Stabbing Westward's "Nothing", because it's pulling major phones everywhere it's played. Here's the facts and just the facts: at WXTB (15 BDS spins this week) it's already #5 most requested! Other BDS spin highlights include Q104/NY (29), KIOZ/San Diego (9), KEZE/Spokane (12), WAVF/Charleston (9), WAAF/Worcester (25), WQFM (8) and about 100 others! This is the week to "officially" go for it so don't be shy! On the purely gut level side, this is the kind of band that makes your station sound exciting and fresh. At all the early believers, "Nothing" is already working (most put it on as a test and had to add it after the overwhelming positive phones they got) so it ain't so risky to give this a shot!

SHARON IOFFE, ARISTA RECORDS,
212-830-2144

Last week, Stick did a free show for the wonderful people of New York City and our newest station on the block, Q104. Can you say hundreds? Yes, there were many a black leather clad individuals at this show. Even a few suits from the surrounding midtown area emerged to see what this amazing live band was all about. They came out afterwards and signed at least 100 autographs if not more. New York City loves Stick! And most of you do, too. In just a few short weeks you'll find an ep called Full Frontal Nudity, Stick Live in LA at the Whiskey. The power and force of a Stick show on plastic for you to share with your listeners. And don't forget, Stick is still on the road with I Mother Earth throughout May. I saw the show in Philadelphia and it makes for an amazing double bill. Don't miss it!.. Coming at you this summer is the Airheads Soundtrack featuring incredible tunes from Motorhead (with Ice T and Whitfield Crane), White Zombie, Paw, Prong, Anthrax and more!.. You guys are gonna eat this one up. Muzza Chunka is still doing live dates around the country, so call for the usual tour stuff... New office hours? Going off the air? You want tickets or interviews for Stick? Call me and play "Grind"! Seeyalaterbye.

AMY IO BIRCH, RELATIVITY RECORDS,
609-983-9107

Hi everybody! It's been too long since you've seen my words in this fine publication... I must thank WTPA, WKLL, WUFX and Phil Marlowe at WCCC for your tremendous commitment and support to a great rock band, Lucy's Fur Coat! "Treasure Hands" is the real deal. Also I want to thank Guy Dark at WHDQ and Rich Russo at WZXL. This band is comin'!. And remember, it ain't Relativity B.S., it's BDS! Check your rock monitor... Peter Frampton's world tour starts in June, prepare yourself!

LINNEA NAN, WARNER/REPRISE
818-953-3692

Sunday I went to preview the Elvis stuff going on the block next month in Vegas. Next month I beg you all send Money! I must own the hair of Elvis. Enough of fantasy. Here's reality... Biohazard Biohazard Biohazard. Keep doing the right thing with Tales From The Hard Side! If you didn't get your vinyl call us now! I have a few left and once these are gone that's it!.. DIO dates. I've got 'em! Kickin' off May 29th with Love/Hate & Godspeed! Look out!.. Atomic Opera so far so good! I do encourage you to spend time with the full CD For Madmen Only and keep turning your listeners on - Just got the new L7 advance "Hungry For Stink". It's very cool! Ultra fast, Nasty, Hard & Punk. More to follow - Yes, the Jesus Lizard "Show" soon!.. P.S. Strip Mind isn't looking for a drummer anymore!

JEFF COOK, CAPRICORN, 404-873-3918

Now that Album Oriented Radio has been declared dead, I thought I'd take a moment to talk to you about some depth tracks from Capricorn. Ian Moore's third track "Harlem" continues to gather airplay and increased spins everywhere it's being played. If you want to know the "real deal" on "Harlem" pick up the phone and call anyone that's playing it!.. The latest convert to "In A Daydream" by The Freddy Jones Band is WAVF in Charleston (this is the second track they've played). Just take a look at their numbers and you'll see why they believe in going deep!.. In the "Everybody's gotta start somewhere" department: Vigilantes Of Love "Welcome To Struggleville" track continues to collect adds and fans. The full CD ships May 17th - check out "Vel", "Babylon", "Resume" and "Last To Know". Adult radio should find plenty to play here!.. In the coming up department: get ready for The Dixie Dregs first track "Shapes Of Things" from the new CD Full Circle! We guarantee Rock Radio will get phones on this track. But if you're an AOR station...maybe.

CHERYL VALENTINE, EPIC METAL,

"You - light up my life..." Whatever happened to Debbie Boone? If you have a Ms. Boone sighting, be sure and report it to 1-800-SEEK-DEB... Infectious Grooves are waiiin' and they're on tour! Catch them in the act now as they have a "Tendency" to be chameleons... Motherland's first single "Rumor" is off to a crushing start! You'll get to hear the entire "Peace 4 Me" album by its release date on June 7... Prong is the shit. Period. End of discussion. While we await their Stateside return, pummel "Whose Fist" until folks can sing it backwards and forwards. They'll be headlining some shows on their way to pick up the Sepultura and Pantera tour starting (for Prong) on July 9 in beautiful Vancouver... The Poor will be drinking "piss water" beer before you know it! We've got them coming up to open for the Scorpions' tour beginning June 9... Alice Cooper's album The Last Temptation will be in your face on June 7. Now you can hear the entire record, understand the concept and play the livin' daylight out it!! Sepultura will be hittin' the American pavement on June 14 when they begin the Pantera tour (Biohazard's playin' with us for two plus insane weeks). Unfortunately the boys will be unable to play the two Florida shows as they'll be jamming in front of a good half a million people at all the European festivals - Donnington, Dynamo, etc... Question of the week: Does anyone still have The Wild Dogs (Enigma Records) as a Metal Recurrent?

ION NARDACHONE, ATLANTIC,
212-275-2135

Six weeks ago I stated that "The Crow" Soundtrack would be the biggest soundtrack of this decade thusfar... Thanks to Metal, Rock, and Alternative airplay on STP's "Big Empty", "The Crow" soundtrack is all that and more... FYI. STP's new single, "Vaseline" will hit radio on May 25th for reports on May 31st!! Sprint with this... Surgery is on the road now. Call me for guestlists now!! Godspeed is touring Europe with Black Sabbath and Cathedral... Collapsing Lungs are on the road with Infectious Grooves... Also on tour is Stuttering John, King's X and soon STP and Rust!... New music from Savatage (with Alex Skolnick), Overkill, Testament, and Ted Nugent in the works.

MICHAEL SCHNAPP, EMI RECORDS,

We love live shows. We live for live shows. We love New York City, where you can see so many different show and have all the fun you want. Just this month (I think) I've seen D-Generation, Nine Inch Nails, Rollins, Johnny Cash, Pantera, Pearl Jam, Genitorturers, Eric Clapton, the WAXQ Q104.3 party, King's X, Mutha's Day Out, Anthrax, Fight, Prong, Moist, The High Times Magazine party (what a night!), Murphy's Law, Hunk, Mudhoney, Mutha's Day Out (again), the usual street busts that we watch, Tree Dude (the NYC bum that'll dance for your change), and the eclipse (great light show!). Call us here at The EMI Records Group and we'll out on a show for you... Have you hugged your Mutha?

This week, I would like to leave you all with a few deep thoughts. Never wrestle with a pig. You both get dirty and the pig likes it. There is always one more imbecile than you counted on. All things being equal, fat people use more soap... Records have come and gone and Eleven lives on!!! Tour begin and end but not every band is going on tour with Soundgarden. Singles go for adds but Eleven's "Heavy" hits on May 23rd and 24th for all you metal types... Bands get signed daily but not all can fuck up shop like The Mighty Seaweed. Did you catch these guys live? In parting, I must close by saying not one shred of evidence supports the notion that life is serious.

JEFF APPLETON, 550 MUSIC,

First, let me thank all the fine radio folks who played our first Rock Radio release The Poor! The track "More Wine Waiter Please" is still getting tons of airplay after 12 weeks. Because of the buzz, which you started, The Poor will be opening the upcoming Scorpions tour. Just about the time the tour starts (June 9th) we will be going for airplay on the new track "Tell Someone Who Cares"... Strong first week on Motherland "Rumor" with out of the box adds from KNAC, WLZR, KISW, KILO, KEZE to mention a few. For those of you who don't know, the band includes Jason Bonham, and Marty Fredrickson who produced the Brother Cane record... This week look for the new Bon Jovi track "Good Guys Don't Always Wear White" from the movie Cowboy Way. It most definitely rocks! Going for adds this week... Coming soon for adds the week of May 30th is Peter Dinklage "With You", it's already been a number one track at adult Alternative and is being played at a dozen Alternative stations. His tour is selling out and is receiving rave reviews... On the Alternative side of things, besides Peter Dinklage, the new Eves Plum track "Die Like Someone" is out for adds this week. KWOD and KTCL already added it. This band is ready to bust wide open. We have sold over 10,000 albums in the past 2 months. They'll be on the road with Dig this month. Also coming is new music from Popinjays, Velvet Crush and an amazing artist, Des'ree... By the way, anybody seen Cousin Randy?

GREG DERBAS, PAVEMENT MUSIC,
708-916-1155

Fear Of God, "Toxic Voodoo", is the next gut wrenching release from Pavement Music. In your hands June 7th with a tour to follow... Other summer releases include: Headlock, never heard of them before. Oh, believe me you will. Also on the front is something new from Solitude Aeturus... Tours are still in action for Demented Ted, on the west coast with Unleashed and Broken Hope... Stressball in the midwest with the Genitorturers, and Crowbar's headlining tour with opening act Varga... Interviews, ID's and tickets are still available for selected shows. Going to the big bash in NY, fill me in.

TOM GATES, ROADRUNNER, 212-219-0077

Black Train Jack! You're Not Alone is cranking. H a n d o u t s is 2:50 of pure pop-funk fun (ask Bill Hanson at WHTF) and "The Struggle" is just plain great. Black Train Jack is not the band to watch...they're the band to play. A summer tour will be announced soon and Northeasters can see them in New York with Infectious Grooves on 5/17, in Providence on 5/21 and Boston on 5/28... The aura of Moon Seven Times is spreading. Why is it that people who listen to Z=49 are instantly smitten with warm feelings?... Die Monster Die will return from Europe late this month to tour the US. Dog Eat Dog - All Boro Kings. Have you listened to it? Big dilemma of the week: Do I watch The Stand or Melrose Place?

DAVE MAC, MANAGER RADIO PROMOTIONS, GUITAR RECORDINGS, 914-935-5241

Ah, the sounds of the seashore. The hum of steady train service. Fresh seafood. Interstates that look suspiciously like parking lots. New York is like no other area of the country, and I am proud to be back in the area, courtesy of Cherry Lane Music, and a smart little record company called Guitar Recordings, and Guitar Acoustics. We are poised to make some noise. It's great fun to wonder aloud about the potential of this company. The people here love music. They take care of their artists. I look forward to turning you on to great music. There are some exciting things on the way... Right now, a New York band with strong Florida connections called The Fenwicks is on the burner, with a record called "Member of No Tribe". The title track is our lead-off to commercial radio. You'll find yourself hooked like a fish... We are continuing the pursuit of the legendary Sy Klopps and the record Walter Ego. Fill the void in your heart left when you found out the Loch Ness Monster photo was rigged. Pin-up the Sy Klopps photo on your bulletin board, and stare at the monster's eye while the CD's on in your office. Hear the monster jam, with players like Neil Schon, Gregg Rolie, Ross Valory of Journey, Kee Marcello (Europe), Prarie Prince (The Tubes), Norton Buffalo and other, on classics like "Born Under a Bad Sign", "Jesus Just Left Chicago", and a smoldering version of "Key to the Highway"... Johnny Gale storms through the radio on WTPA in Harrisburg, with his new release "Gale Force", rockin' blues for Blues Shows on Rock Stations. Get yours today, featuring a Hooker classic "Boom Boom", with enough metal fire to get the young'uns, and enough groove and respect for the form to engage the classic rocker. Let me know 'bout you Blues Shows... And call if you need product. We're sharpening our system, and want to add you all to our database. Thanks for the help so far, and keep us turned in.

JILL & JEANNIE, RED LIGHT RECORDS
DEATH SQUAD, 708-297-OKFU

Hello, hello. Tour dates this week guys so pay attention! Dpressor doin' a few dates with Malevolent Creation. 5/22 (Dpressor record release party) Chicago, 5/29 Des Moines and 5/30 in Minneapolis. They are also going to Europe in August... Sarkoma will also be playing a town near you! 5/15 Omaha, 5/16 Kansas City, 5/17 Wichita, 5/18 Denton, TX, 5/19 Ft. Worth, 5/20 Dallas, 5/21 Amarillo, 5/23 Austin, 5/26 Tulsa, 5/27 Lincoln, 5/28 Des Moines. If you are in any of these cities call me right now to book interviews and get your free tickets to the show! More to come... Skatenigs and Sarkoma are kicking ass thanks so much!... We've got posters, t-shirts and these neat S&M kits comin' your way. Thanks for your support! Call me!

CHUCK P. & JOHN PERRONE, CAROLINE
RADIO, 212-989-2929,

"Can you dig it? I knew that you could!" Ahhh, Saturday Night Fever, one of the best comedy movies ever made. Anyway, we got records and we got tours so, here we go...First off, Peach is out on the road supporting their tours, debut, "Siesta". They'll be heading through Texas, Florida and the rest of the south this month. Give us a call for tix or interviews. This record kicks! Check out "Dead Soldier's Coat" and "Lord of Less". Remember, you got a former member of the Posies in the band... Also, Fudge has their second one out now, "Southside Speedway". What a tour they are on! First they went out with the Buzzcocks and now triple bill with Vanilla Trainwreck and Five-Eight. They will also be down South playin' all over the place. Check out "Shirts & Skins" and "Car Stereo Blast-Off"... Hey kids! Wake up! Adrian Belew's Here is a great record, done by a great musician. If you not familiar with Adrian, you can check out some of his guitar work on the new Crash Test Dummies and Nine Inch Nails records. He will be on a national tour in June and July... Some of you should just be receiving the Seefeel Quique record (Quique is Welsh for shit). It is a cross between My Bloody Valentine and the Cocteau Twins. Check out "Plainsong"... For all you RPM reporters, there will be an Aphex Twin remix of "Time To Find Me" in June. All RPM reporters should have the Transformer 2 "transformations" by now... Also, coming your way from Astralwerks, Future Sounds of London, Tehnomancer IV, Howze D'Dyno-mite, and Excursion in Ambience: The Third Dimension. Vinyl will be available... Enough about music, it's the NBA Playoffs and I have two things to say. First, "Let's Go Knicks!" and "Ding Dong, Shaq is gone"!.. A message from Chuck, "Don't fear the Reaper!"

DAVID T., LEVIATHAN RECORDS, 404-463-1009

It is very encouraging to see the response to Imperium's "Too Short A Season" and the lead track "Chemical Dreams"! It has moved all the way up to #26 on Hard Report's Spins Chart and is charting on everyone's list somewhere. Once again I would like to suggest the 1st track on the CD "Silenced". This track really is what the band is about, Power, Dynamics and Melody. These progressive metal masters are currently in Europe writing material for their next release and touring constantly. We will have some big announcements here at Leviathan in short order. Don't turn that channel. Till next.

RICH WALL, RADIO PROMOTION FOR RIGHTEOUS BABE RECORDS, BUFFALO, NY,
716-885-5200

Ani Di Franco's new release "Out of Range" should have arrived at your stations by now. Please take a listen, and for the people that need focus tracks they are tracks 3. "Letter to a John", 9. "Out of Range (Electric)", and 12. "The Diner." This is Ani's 6th release on her very own Righteous Babe Records Independent label. This one features the addition of electric guitars and percussion added to Ani's already rockin' acoustic sound. She is currently on tour on the West Coast along with Percussionist Andy Stockansky so please call me with any Guest List requests because we want you all to see her. P.S. Check out this month's "Option" Magazine for Ani feature in article on "New Folk Renegades".

MATT YOUNG, EARACHE RECORDS,
212-343-9090

The "Morbid Florist" EP was just the beginning. A.C. is ready to make their Earache debut! "Everyone Should be Killed" is the newest offering from the Boston experts on abrasive audio. 58 songs of pure A.C. You should be playing "Song #8". Give it a listen (I mean more than ten seconds worth)!. Pitch Shifter rocks. Give the "NIB" some more play. The perfect cure for the Post finals depression syndrome is a healthy dose of Disgust. Crank out "Mother Earth" for instant relief... That cool looking sampler you all have contains unreleased Godflesh... The new Napalm Death is fucking mint! Wait till you see the video for "The Plaque Rages". Full length in stores on the 31st. God Bless Earache! 212-DIE-9090.

MARIA "MOM" ABRIL, METAL BLADE RECORDS, CA, 805-522-9111.

So many shows, so little hearing left as it is. I saw the beauty we call Chemlab last Friday. They were amazing. If you haven't seen them on this KMFDM tour then you, my friend, are lame. Their new LP "Ten Ton Pressure" will be out this summer... GWAR will be annihilating what is now Los Angeles on Friday the 13th and the day after Broken Hope is in town. My head's spinnin' and my ears are ringin'!. Here's the GWAR lip...play "Jack The World" and "Saddam a Go-Go" or we'll have to hurt you. Metal Blade is a scary label you know. Headbanger's Ball & Beavis and Butthead are spinning "Jack The World" every week so you have ample chance to see it. If you're still not playing this record, wake up and smell reality... GWAR is the #2 independent sound-scan release, right behind. Cannibal Corpse that's right folk's... Numero uno indie release is The Bleeding. "Staring Through The Eyes Of The Dead" will be airing on MTV within the next two Saturdays and the band is on the road for two months starting May 27th in Long Island, NY... Beats The Hell Out Of Me and Skrew are in your hot lil' hands. Hopefully you'll know what to do. Hint: press play. Many times a day. Over & over. The tracks are "Behind My Back" and "Picasso Trigger" respectively... Coming your way: Epidemic 7" Lament, Mercyful Fate ep The Bellwitch, Desultory LP Bitterness and as early as July...new Fates Warning!.. On the road: Broken Hope, GWAR, Cannibal Corpse, Chemlab, Sloppy Seconds and Thought Industry with Type O Negative. Wish you were me, dontcha? Mom outtahere.

SHERI SINCLAIR, ENERGY RECORDS,
800-235-5678

Just a quick little note, before I take off to witness the madness behind the making of "The Truth Hurts". If you still haven't given Larva an ear, then I suggest you hurry. Don't be the last to realize this is a really good record. New believers need to be thanked—KNDI, WBAU, WKLL, WCDB, WRFL and WKLQ... This has been a crazy week. Dead Animal Heads, Hornets In The Sheets and Insomnia. Hope all is well. Give me a call, we shall chat. XOXO...

E.J. JOHANTGEN, COLUMBIA, 212-833-4989

Yes it's coming soon. Hang in there kiddies. The full-lengths from Napalm Death and Stompbox will be in your hot little hands very soon. If there's anyone who can't wait ring me up and I'll sort 'cha out... Carcass "No Love Lost" is a rock and roll smash! To define it would be well, un-American! They just finished a sold out tour of Japan and will be here stateside in July. Be prepared to worship!.. If you still have yet to watch the truly genius Obsessed Documentary do yourself a favor, check it out... Wino & Co. are doin' Europe with Pronk. And don't forget a healthy portion of Entombed... Jeeze that new Helmet's brutal.

MARNI HALPERN, ROADRUNNER RECORDS,
212-219-0077

Dog Eat Dog's new release All Boro Kings is going for adds May 16th and 17th. The concentrated single is "No Fronts". We hope you enjoyed your little treat that came with this CD. You deserve it! For those who did not add Black Train Jack yet, check out "What's The Deal". Sick Of It All is featured on this particular track... Sepultura heads out with Pantera and Biohazard starting June 14th in Mass. Sepultura's new single "Slave New World" will be going for adds on May 24th and 25th... Also, Life Of Agony's new single "This Time" along with a live B-side for "Through and Through" will be going for adds on May 24th... Type O Negative will be heading out with Motley Crue and The Ramones this summer.

and then The Butthole Surfers should be taking over for the Ramones on the second leg of this tour. Max an Alex should be available for more interviews in June for Nailbomb. Keep on jamming on this record! Call us for more info., we want to set up interviews with the Cynic boys. Good Luck to all my friends who are graduating. I'll miss you!

ION GRIMSON, WARNER BROS. RECORDS,
615-748-8000

Warner/Reprise Progressive-Nashville has move our offices. The following address and above phone and fax are my new contacts: Fax: 615-214-1653, Phone: 615-748-8000. Warner/Reprise, 20 Music Square East, Nashville, TN, 37203.

SUE STILLWAGON, ZOO ENTERTAINMENT,
213-468-4225

George Peppard has died. Sadness. At least he has left us "Breakfast at Tiffany's". I'll forget that he was part of the A-Team... Solar eclipse. Whoa! We in Los Angeles missed it, though, due to the wonderful ocean layer hovering over our city all morning... Rangers win! That's what the Capitals go for beating the Penguins. Revenge is sweet. Now, go Sharks!.. Happenin' Zoo records include Varga, Tool, Course of Empire and Great White. Are you playing your recommended daily allowance?.. On the horizon, very cool music from Killing Joe...very cool music. Ciao, bella.

MARK "PSYCHO" ABRAMSON, ROADRUNNER RECORDS, 212-219-0077X207

Type O Negative. 3 months. 65 dates. Opening for Motley Crue! Also featuring either The Ramones or The Butthole Surfers depending on where you are. All you people waiting for the story to get bigger, it just got bigger! And "Christian Woman" now! What's the matter? Do you not want another 5 phones reaction song?

MUNSEY RICCI, SKATEBOARD MARKETING LTD, 516-825-5549

Yo the Dio tour dates are here. I love that and you know you love that. Check the trades for the listings, we have tickets. Dig on the single "Jesus Mary and the Holy Ghost"... Black Sabbath might be coming back to the states for a summer tour. Dig on "The Hand That Rocks The Cradle" and "I Witness"... Imperium is selling records out the door, this band from Holland has almost no commercial airplay. Only metal specialty is doing it. Check out this record in a big way, it's going to grow on you... The Love/Hate camp is heading out on the road with Dio. The movement is growing upward. It's in your face so dig on it big time... The full length Skatenigs and Sarkoma will be in your hands this week. We should have some tour plans for both this summer. Till next week, Cya!

DENNIS CONSTANTINE, BROADCAST CONSULTANT, 303-440-5470

The surprising news of the week is that Doug Clifton has decided to leave KBCO to pursue other interests. I've thoroughly enjoyed working with Doug these past thirteen years, and will miss our interaction. I wish him and his wife Laurie health and happiness. The search for a new KBCO PD now begins... Willie Deville has put together a moody mix of New Orleans music, featuring such luminaries as Dr. John, Zachary Richard, and David Hidalgo. The single "All In The Name Of Love", is a great tune, and a good introduction to the album Backstreets Of Desire (Forward/Rhino). Then try "Jump City", "Voodoo Charm", "Even While I Sleep", "Lonely Hunter" and the two covers "Hey Joe" and "Come To Poppa"... "Wild Night" the single from John Mellencamp's new Dance Naked (Mercury) album is the second Van Morrison cover Mellencamp has given us recently. Me'shell Ndege'ocello helps him out with the vocals. Check out that funky bass line!.. Crying At The Circus (7 Records) is the debut album from Lloyd Paul. His dark, brooding music and emotional lyrics belie his age (40 years), and are a testament to the 25 year it took jim to release his debut. The focus track is "Black Cadillac", but I am more partial to "Let Another Tear Fall", "She's Always There" and "Sarafina"... When we first listened to David Byrne's new single "Angels", we thought he had remade "Once In A Lifetime". The album is another masterpiece from one of the most creative voices in our format. It sounds more like Uh-Oh and less like his Latin flavored material. Give a listen to "Back In The Box", "Sad Song", "Lilies Of The Valley", and "Nothing At All". By the way, lyric of the week honors go to Byrne for this line from "My Love Is You" - "Sometimes, dear, you say I'm an asshole/sometimes you're an asshole too/even though we're filled with imperfections/I don't think any less of you."... Epic teased us a bit with "Touch Me Fall", the Indigo Girls single from Swamp Ophelia (Epic). The buzz was that Amy and Emily had changed their style. What with Queensryche producer Peter Collins at the board, we were all wondering what direction the album would take. Well, apart from "This Train Revised", which is another hard-hitting track, the album is quintessential Indigo Girls. Every track is playable, but my favorites are "Fugitive", "Reunion", "The Wood Song" and "Dead Man"... Toni Childs' new album The Woman's Boat (DGC) arrive this week. Toni's voice is as captivating as ever - there are some wonderful sound textures on the album. Listen to the title track, as well as "Wild Bride", "I Just Want Affection", and "Long Time Coming", all of which are in the style of her previous albums. For more hard hitting material, its "Predator" and "Lay Down Your Pain". There's also a nice duet with Peter Gabriel called "I Met A Man"... Now that we've had a chance to live with "No One To Run With" it's time to dig deeper into the Allman Brothers Band album Where It All Begins (epic). As you do, you'll swear Duane is back from the grave - its obvious that Warren Haynes has studied his predecessor's slide playing. Standouts include "All Night Train", "Everybody's Got A Mountain To Climb" and "Soulshine". If you want a classic Allman Bros., epic jam, check out all nine minutes of "Back Where It All Begins"... Marvine Etzioni, former bass player for Lone Justice, is back with his second solo release, Weapons Of The Spirit (Restless). The title track sets the mood for close to an hour of great songwriting. Marvin gives us such gems as "Weapons Of The Spirit", "Temple & Shrine", "That's Powerful Stuff", "Kingdom Within" and "Children Of Eden"... Pete Droge is a songwriter from Portland, Oregon who has been plugging away for years. "Straylin Street", the first track from Necktie Second (American), combine's Pete's mature songwriting, Brendan O'Brien's clean production, and some sweet harmony vocals... Jah Wobble is back with Take Me To God (Island). The lead track, "The Sun Does Not Rise" features Oloores O' Riordan of the Cranberries. The mixture of heavy drum programming, calypso and Irish undertones, and O'Riordan's sweet vocals really works. This is a great up-beat tune that you will be singing all day after hearing it.

JAMES LEWIS MARKETING, CA, 310-820-4006

"And so the story goes...a hot new disc that you should be spinning comes from Jimmy Lafave. This is Texas rock and Highway Trance finds a new home at KGWY, KKRK, KTAO and WERU... Storyville is doing great...a lot of you want another track and are going to #5 which is "Wings Won't Let Me Fly"... Pat McLaughlin is on tour with the Subdudes...here are some upcoming dates: 5/17 LA (@ the brand-spanking new House of Blues), 5/18 San Juan Capistrano, 5/19 Sacramento, 5/20 Santa Cruz, 6/2 Nashville, 6/17 Birmingham and 6/30 Chicago... Doyle Bramhall is also on the road and some of his shows include 5/26 Taos, 5/27 Colorado Springs, 5/28 Denver and 5/31 Vail... Boomers—we know most of you played this as an import and it's now available domestically. Be looking for mid-June tour dates. Over and out!"
