TOP PRIORITY

Pearl Jam, Vitalogy, Epic

The most highly anticipated album release of the year has arrived, and here's the radio readout: Carey Curelop/KLOS, "An unbelievably good record, exceeding any expectations I had because of past material. Street reaction is rabid"... Marty Bender/WFBQ, "It has three good songs for us, just like the last one did"... Steve Blatter/X107, "The best to date. Definitely the most radio friendly material yet. I think it's probably five or six deep in terms of stuff that can work on the radio. Reaction has been awesome. People are digging it, man"... John Cooper, WPYX, "Outside of the disaster that's the single, I think this is as strong as their first one. The album's close to ten out of ten stars". In terms of tracks, "Better Man" picked up 58 adds/conversions, if only due to the import familiarity factor. There are those like Cindy Bennett at KLOL who think this will be their biggest song yet. "Corduroy" (KIBZ, KLOL, KLOS, KUPD, WLLZ, KISW, KSJO, WFBQ, WYYY, WLLZ, WNOR WRDU), "Nothingman" (WBAB, WFBQ, WKLS, WLUP, WRIF, KSJO, WNOR) and "Not For You" all check in with around 20 official adds, with the first two the clear programmer picks to click. Also be aware of some action on "Immortality". Updating "Spin The Black Circle", check 16 increases, 29 decreases and 17 drops, with "Tremor..." up on 38, down on 35, dropped at 8 and the same at 16.

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

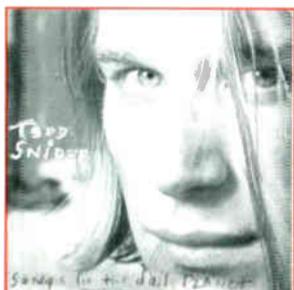

Danzig, "Cantspeak," American

When a track gets Dana Jang excited, you know it's wax to watch time. And though you might not realize it, when the D-Man sez, "A unique sound. Should have broader appeal", that's the comment equivalent of a pissed off postal worker's lunch hour. New adds include KEGL, KIOZ, KSJO, WXTB and KRRK. Jump back. Already on's include KIBZ, KISS, KLBZ, KLOS, KUPD, WBTZ, WNCD, KILO, KISW, KLPX, KMOD and WAXQ. Chartwise, dig the 65* Hard Hundred debut, with COR coming through with a 38* new entry. This will be Glen's biggest multi format item to date, so realize your advantage when you move early.

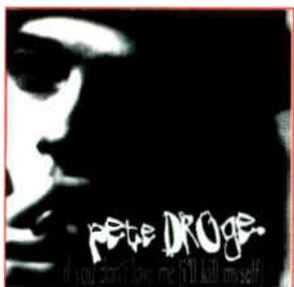

Green Day, "When I Come Around," Reprise

Forget any format fit problems you might ascribe due to the first two tracks more punked out posture. As big as the first two were, this will be bigger. You hear "one listen" banded about constantly, but rarely is the third track from a multi platinum band such a snap to assimilate. The live/studio combo pro picks up 35 adds this week, with KBPI, KQRC, KRRK, KSJO, KUPD, WJRR, WLLZ, KLOL, WKLQ, X107, KIOZ, and WAVF already on board. It's also significant to note that both WXTB and WAAF both report 30+ spins at this juncture. 94-66* on the Hard Hundred, debut 40* COR. With the holiday slow down already in effect, nothing's more important than serious attention here.

Todd Snider, "Alright Guy" b/w "Talking Seattle Blues," MCA

Remember when "album radio" went two tracks deep on deserving debut artists? That hasn't happened since practically the seventies, arrowpeople, but this week Mr. Snider scored what has to count as a coup. Two, count 'em, two tracks debut on the Hard Hundred, the first time that's happened since plays per week became reality. "Talking Seattle Blues" checks in at 90*, with KLPX, KRRK, WEGR, WJRR, WKLQ, and WRDU fronting 9 adds, as "Alright Guy" nails down the 100* slot, courtesy of new air at KYYS, WHCN, WIXV, KICT and a couple more, with WFBQ, WTUE and WZZR all increasing play, and super indicator WAVF already reporting 23 spins. As we've said — and these stats indicate — Mr. Snider is an uncommonly compelling cross format performer. Spin the album over a turkey sandwich later this week and see if you don't agree.

Pete Drobe, "If You Don't Love Me," American

Speaking of new bands, any debut performer able to sustain over mere weeks these days has done well. Mr. Drobe, we remind you, has been charted in some form since early summer, and still continues to build nicely. You've got to be impressed with this week's action: added at five, 19 increases, including KRRK 9-20, WDVE 4-14, WKLS 4-10, WCCC 19-21, WHJY 5-14, and WDHA 10-12. Ongoing action includes 25 spins at WAVF, WMMR 12, WNOR 13, DC101 10, and WSHE 17. 44-37* on the Hard Hundred. Believe in making those pesky baby bands earn their slot? For Pete's sake, give this hard working boy a break!

SONY PROMOTES POLLY ANTHONY

Polly Anthony

Polly Anthony has been named President, Sony 550 Music, and Sr. Vice President, Epic Record Group. "Polly's contribution to the growth of Epic Records Group and Sony Music has been consistent and substantial," said SME President & COO Thomas D. Mottola. "While each phase of her career has revealed new facets of Polly's talents, they all share the same constant: creative growth. She has proven time and again her ability to take artists, and now labels, to the next level. I applaud this appointment." Anthony has served as GM of Sony 550 Music since the label's inception in October 1993. Epic Chairman David

Glew commented on the appointment. "When you are fortunate enough to have an executive of Polly Anthony's capabilities, you draw on that expertise for the benefit of the entire company. It is my honor to be able to provide Polly with new creative and executive challenges and opportunities for growth." Prior to heading Sony 550 Music, Anthony served as VP/Promotion for Epic from 1990 to 1993. She joined CBS Records in 1978, in the West Coast Promotion Department of Portrait Records, and became Manager, Adult Contemporary Promotion for Epic in '81. Named Associate Director two years later, in '84, Anthony rose to Director, National AC/Trade Liaison, becoming Director of National Promotion in 1987. In '88, she was brought to NY as VP/Pop Promotion, and was named Epic's Sr. VP/Promotion in 1990. Epic President Richard Griffiths stated, "Polly's great success with Sony 550 Music has been multiplatinum and multicultural. She and her staff have taken Celine Dion to superstar status while establishing a collection of synthesized pygmy chants — the Deep Forest project — as a worldwide phenomenon. They have established Des'ree as one of the most exciting 'must see' new acts this year, and set the stage for Eve's Plum and Germany's Culture Beat to break through to new audiences in 1995. And this from a label barely a year old. Polly is one of Epic's great assets."

John Knapp

KNAPP EXITS SONY 550

In other Sony 550 Music news, Director of Alternative Promotion John Knapp has vacated his position with the label. Knapp has been with the label since its startup over a year ago. Prior to joining Sony, he was Music Director at WYYY in Baltimore.

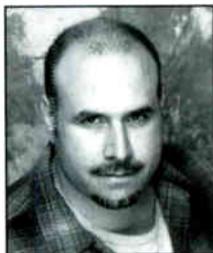

VIRGIN ELEVATES DELANEY

Tommy Delaney

Virgin announced the appointment of Tommy Delaney to National College Promotion Manager, working out of the label's NY office. Delaney was previously with Atlantic Records' Progressive Marketing department, and began his industry career with WSOU-FM in South Orange, NJ, as Music Director. Sr. VP/Promotion Michael Plen commented on the promotion, "Tommy's in-your-face promotion style makes him the obvious follow-up to Chuck Slomovitz. In tandem with our alternative department, he'll break many acts for Virgin. He's a fantastic promo man."

TERZO RETURNS TO COLUMBIA

Nick Terzo

Nick Terzo rejoined Columbia as VP/A&R, based in New York. In making the announcement, Columbia President Don Ienner commented, "Nick was the first A&R executive I hired when I came to Columbia in 1989. Among his many accomplishments, he brought me the music of Alice in Chains and introduced Columbia and Sony Music to the band's and Nick's attorney, Michele Anthony. I couldn't be more thrilled that he has chosen to come home to Columbia." Terzo returns to Columbia following a stint at Hollywood, where he served as VP/A&R from July 1993 through July 1994. "It's good to be back," said Terzo, "reunited with people I respect and can continue to learn from." Terzo began his career a decade ago working with promoter Bill Silva and Avalon. In 1988, prior to his association with Columbia, he became Director of Membership for ASCAP.

UNI NAMES THREE VPS

Denise Fanelli

Jim Weatherson

Rich Grobecker

Denise Fanelli, Jim Weatherson and Rich Grobecker have each been promoted to Divisional VP/Uni Distribution, each responsible for coordinating all sales and marketing activities for their respective divisions. Fanelli joined Uni in 1991, as Regional Sales Manager, Southern California. In '93, she was promoted to Regional Branch Manager, West Coast. Prior to Uni, Fanelli spent 19 years with CBS/Sony. Weatherson joined Uni in 1986 as a Sales Rep in Dallas. In '88, he was promoted to Branch Manager, Southwest, and earlier this year, was promoted to Sales Manager, Central Division. Grobecker is a 16-year veteran of Uni, having joined the company in 1978 as a Sales Rep in Albany. In '86, he was named Branch Manager, Boston. In 89, Grobecker was promoted to Regional Branch Manager, Northeast, and earlier this year, to Sales Manager, Eastern Division. Bob Schnieders, Exec. VP/Sales & Marketing, commented, "These three individuals have demonstrated excellent management skills over the years and will now become even more important components in the growth of Uni Distribution in their expanded roles."

LAJESKI NAMED GRAMMY EXEC. DIRECTOR

Glen Lajeski, Sr. VP/Artist Development, MCA, has been named Executive Director of the 1995 Los Angeles Grammy Host Committee. "We launched a search for the perfect candidate who could plan and coordinate events and work with artists, sponsors and all the community organizations. We realized we had the perfect person here at MCA Records," said Richard Palmese, MCA President and Co-Chair of the Host Committee. Lajeski commented on his appointment, "It will be a busy but exciting few months leading up to the March 1 Grammys and all the pre-events which will be planned. I'm excited about this challenge and about having the Grammys back in Los Angeles in 1995." Lajeski has been with MCA for 11 years, and was the first head of the artist development division.

Imago President Terry Ellis served as the chairman at the First Annual Wine and Music Afficionado dinner/benefit, where a selection of wines, dinners, and wine-related holidays were auctioned off, with the proceeds going to the T.J. Martell Foundation. Attendees included: Tony Martell, Chairman, T.J. Martell Foundation; Richard Griffiths, Pres. Epic Records; Terry Ellis, Pres. Imago Recording Co.; Tom Silverman, Chairman, Tommy Boy Records; Joe Smith, Industry Exec.; and Floyd S. Glinert, Pres. T.J. Martell Foundation.

RADIO RUMBLE

WLUP-FM / Chicago premiered a new rock talk show, "Rock Tonight," on Sunday (11/20). "Rock Tonight" is hosted by the Chicago Tribune's rock critic Greg Kot, and co-hosted by The Loops' Bob Heymann, and features local and national rock news, in-studio guests, and a significant amount of listener interaction and participation. The show will air Sundays from 7-9pm.

WRCX / Chicago morning man Mancow Muller has been hit with a one-day suspension for taunting former Chicago Bear Keith Van Horne, now interim overnight host on sister station WLUP-FM. In song parodies and on-air tirades, Muller has been ridiculing Van Horne over his recent altercation with a motorist and his female companion. Van Horne is pressing for an on-air apology and retraction from Muller.

WXRK / New York announced that K-Rock's Hungerthon '94 raised over $450,000. Proceeds will benefit World Hunger Year and their innovative program "Reinvesting in America," which discovers, publicizes and helps fund grass-roots programs and national policies dealing with hunger in America. K-Rock VP/GM Tom Chiusano commented, "This was the most successful Hungerthon yet! Thank you to Carlos Santana and Santana Management, Leslie West of Mountain and everyone at Delsener/Slater Enterprises for a fabulous concert at the Beacon... to all the volunteers who gave of their time... to the incredible staff here at 92.3FM K-Rock and, most important of all, to our corporate sponsors and every listener who made a contribution...so that we can make a difference. For myself, Pete Fornatale, Bill Ayers and the spirit of Harry Chapin, thank you!"

10 Years of New York 'Hard Rock'

BY BILL HARD

The Hard Rock Cafe New York is located in the heart of the Apple's music biz district on 57th Street between Broadway and 7th Avenue. That's right down the block from MTV, which is around the corner from Virgin and MCA, and down the street from Sony. It's no wonder rock megastars and other celebs can always be sighted there chompin' barbecued chicken and smoked ribs (besides, with the Hard Rock Cafe Express Card for VIPs, they can always get a table without a wait. That is, unless they work for Imago).

The Hard Rock Cafe New York celebrated its 10th Anniversary this past fall. An important milestone — not only because the Hard Rock, since its inception has been a focal point for NYC's social and music scene, but because in 1984 the Hard Rock introduced to America its displays of priceless rock music collectibles.

Simply put, the Hard Rock Cafe has the world's greatest collection of rock iconography. Really... nobody does music memorabilia like the Hard Rock. Some observers like to call it the "Smithsonian of rock music." Still others have waited in awe at Sotheby's and Christie's rock auctions while the HRC's VP Creative Director Steve Routhier and crew gobble up the choicest goodies. As Routhier says, "It's the only living museum of Rock N' Roll in the Universe." What about Cleveland's fledgling Rock N' Roll Hall of Fame? Too little, too late, perhaps? "They are going to have a much harder time than they imagine," adds Routhier. "It's harder and harder to get what I'd call historically important items because we've bought a lot of them." Besides, the fries aren't nearly as good.

Walk into any Hard Rock and you'll see great rock memorabilia. Stroll into the New York location, which Routhier decorated, and you'll see one helluva mind-blowing collection that includes Jimi Hendrix's Fender Strat (played on the Electric Ladyland LP), Bo Diddley's trademark Gretsch "Box" electric guitar, Brian Jones' signature white Vox "teardrop" electric guitar and Billy Joel's Yamaha electric grand piano used during his tour of the USSR. The 250-item New York archive also includes plenty of cool Beatles and The Who stuff, and even Natalie Wood's wool tunic and panties worn in the film, "The Great Race." But don't get excited. They used a body double.

The recent 10th Anniversary festivities included a month-long series of special events and benefits dedicated to food, fun and Rock N' Roll. Kicking things off in late September was a star-studded premiere of the world's most famous frog's latest album, Kermit Unpiggid; in mid-October, Bianca Jagger hosted a benefit for the Rainforest Alliance with a record release party and performance by Joe Walsh; in late October, WNEW broadcast live from the Hard Rock with interviews and live performances featuring a heady line-up of rock artists including the Smithereens, Melissa Etheridge, Lou Reed and Bon Jovi. To top it all off, the Queen of Soul, Aretha Franklin, performed a knock-out show at Carnegie Hall on November 3rd, followed by a gala reception at the Cafe with special guest Bette Midler. The Aretha show benefitted the NY Chapter of the National Academy of Recording Arts & Science's Music Education program as well as the Aretha Franklin Scholarship Awards, a Detroit-based music education program established in honor of Aretha's father. In addition, Hard Rock Cafe and NARAS will launch an ongoing Grammy in the Schools program with LL Cool J and others to give public school children the opportunity to visit Hard Rock Cafe and meet top stars and record company executives. Imagine: lunch with Danny Buch!

True to its motto, "Love All, Serve All," the Hard Rock has donated their services to many prominent entertainment industry charities, including New York causes such as The Child Abuse Prevention Program, The Boys' Choir of Harlem; and national charities, including People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals (PETA), ECO (Earth Communications Office), The Kristen Ann Carr Fund, The TJ Martell Foundation, Nordoff-Robbins and LIFEbeat.

Hard Rock Cafe International has taken an active role in the highly successful Signature Series Program, which enlists superstars to design T-shirts with the proceeds to benefit a charity of their choice. The ongoing project has featured designs by Elton John, Don Henley, John Lennon, Peter Max, Jerry Garcia, and John Mellencamp, and has raised in excess of $2 million thus far.

So much for the liner card/PR portion of our program. Now a surprisingly candid conversation with the Hard Rock's CEO Art Levitt, who segged over from — get this title — VP and GM of Pleasure Island, Disney World's nighttime entertainment theme park. During his tenure there, Art was credited with re-engineering the park, strengthening its relationships with the entertainment industry and bringing it to profitability.

In addition to guiding the Hard Rock's continuing success, Levitt has advanced the company's philosophy of Save the Planet through a wide ranging public service program. Under Art's auspices the Hard Rock rock recently raised more than $750,000 for the Elton John Aids Foundation and more than $600,000 for Don Henley's Isis Fund through the sales of special limited edition Signature Series T-shirts, available exclusively through the Hard Rock Cafe.

Keeping his finger on the pulse of popular culture is obviously high on Art's agenda. Witness his opening line...

The
New York
Hard Rock opened in September, 1994.

ART LEVITT

Art: Have you seen Pulp Fiction? Not to get off the subject, but I thought it was fantastic.

It wasn't violent enough, that's my only complaint.

Art: And they didn't use enough obscenities. I loved the film. It was an interesting character portrait, a sort of expose on society. It had a great sense of humor, but was really violent and upsetting in parts.

You mean like when Travolta came out of the bathroom at Thurman's house to find her overdosing on the couch with blood and snot pouring out of her nose? Or when they jabbed that giant hypodermic into her chest to re-start her heart?

Art: Beyond hysterical, that scene. For the past three months, people have been walking into my office with little red dots marked on their chest, saying that if there's a problem you know where to hit 'em.

You're obviously a pretty loose fellow, although your resume looks to lean a bit to the right. How big a stretch was it for you to go from Disney to the Hard Rock, personally?

Art: It was no stretch emotionally, in terms of the excitement I knew the Hard Rock was going to give me. It was a stretch in terms of the challenge of keeping the Hard Rock creative and cutting edge throughout the world. When you open in Beijing, you've got to focus not only on the incredible physical difficulties of opening in a market like that, but also what it's going to do creatively to the culture of the concept. Everyone is different, and as we open new foreign Hard Rocks, we have to focus on the creative effects they'll have on the U.S. Hard Rocks.

When a McDonald's opens in Moscow, it's news. When a Hard Rock opens in Beijing, do you feel that's a story of the same caliber?

Art: I'm not sure I would compare the two from a social point of view. The Hard Rock opening in Beijing is bigger news of a different sort. It's the fact that rock n' roll culture had been permitted to come to Beijing, and that the Hard Rock is living up to its vision of, 'Love all, serve all.' And we did get something like 24 minutes of coverage on CNN with that opening.

When I mentioned McDonald's, it wasn't in the context of a food service enterprise as much as it was the exporting of American culture a la Levi's, Marlboro's etc. What do you serve in Beijing?

Art: The same basic menu. We try to provide good Southern diner fare. American food, great value for your money and big portions. We couldn't go to Beijing and have Chinese food. We have a couple of Chinese appetizers, but essentially the Hard Rock is about an American icon, an American experience. We have high standards to ensure that we have a consistent, quality product everywhere.

And how do those darn Beijingers do it?

Art: They do it very well. Initially, they had a lot of difficulties with everything from food supplies to memorabilia, but I think they've overcome that. Anytime you open in a foreign country, you have natural difficulties. It takes a while to learn the local customs and traditions. We stumble a little bit when we do it, but that's part of the growth process.

When you opened in New York 10 years ago, were there similar difficulties?

Art: I wasn't with the company then, but I know from conjecture. The difficulties were different because it was America. It was our home court, so we knew more about how to manage those problems.

I was in London in '78 for the CBS convention, and the Hard Rock was the only place where you could get a decent burger and a cold — thank you very much — beer. I thought they did a great job of emulating the culture back home.

Art: You let me know when you go back, I want to make sure it's still living up to those standards.

Bonnie Raitt and James Taylor at the New York Hard Rock

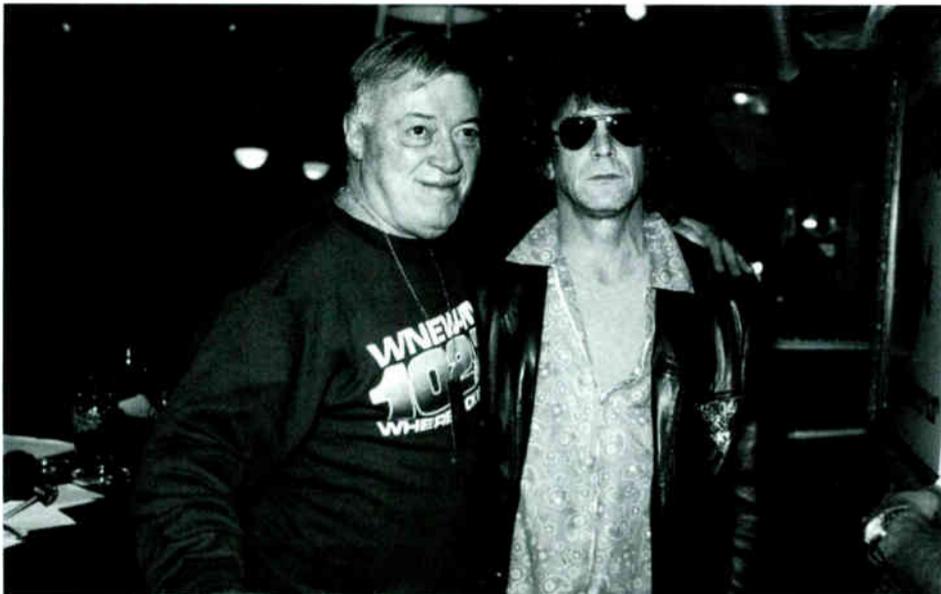

In terms of competition, things are much different than they were in 1984. You're at the ten year mark, you have the Harley Davidson Cafes capitalizing on the momentum of that particular brand, and the Planet Hollywoods of the world nipping at your heels; how do you maintain your edge?

Elton John shows off his artwork featured on the Hard Rock's Signature Series T-shirt. The proceeds from the sale of this limited edition T-shirt benefited the Elton John AIDS Foundation.

Aretha Franklin celebrated the Hard Rock's 10th anniversary with a benefit concert at Carnegie Hall. President and CEO of Hard Rock International, Art Levitt, escorts the Queen of Soul.

WNEW radio legend Scott Muni and Lou Reed celebrated the Hard Rock's 10th anniversary with a live interview from the restaurant.

Art: We'll have more, too. The marketplace is more competitive, and the most important thing for us is to focus inward and stay true to what the Hard Rock experience is all about — a great rock n' roll experience, quality at all costs, and exceeding our customers' expectations at every level. We are willing to do whatever it takes to live up to those commitments. And we have to stay topical. We had Hootie & The Blowfish perform at the Miami Hard Rock. I suppose a couple of months ago, it would have been more cutting edge because now they have become big stars. We have to keep focusing on new talent. Record companies and labels come to us and say, 'We have a new hot band, and we'd love to do a release party.' We have to do things like that to stay true to what we're known for.

When you have imitators doing a clearly sub-standard job in terms of the cuisine, the locale and the whole mindset, do you feel the public can discern that difference?

Art: Yeah, there's no question that if there's a Hard Rock knock-off, people can tell from the quality — from the three levels of brass that we put on the railings, to the service, to the food, to the music, to the video, to the overall experience. The public knows the difference absolutely.

Can we expect to see a lot more theme restaurants along those lines?

Art: Absolutely, that's a real trend right now. The world is becoming a more and more competitive place in terms of entertainment. Now, they have buses in different cities with neon designs and videos and advertising. Entertainment is becoming a bigger and bigger piece of our lives, and the themed restaurant business is going to grow and thrive.

What did you think of the restaurant in Pulp Fiction?

Art: I thought it was very hip, very fun.

I thought that it was pretty cool, too. Have you ever been to Ed Debeevicks?

Art: It's fantastic. Rich Mellman, who was the conceiver of that, is an absolute restaurant genius. He's a creative genius, but he's also a restaurant genius.

Are there any other theme-driven restaurants you are particularly fond of?

Art: There's one in L.A. called Dem Bones that's really cool, which nobody else in the world has probably ever heard of, but it has great beef ribs.

I ate lunch there with Barry Lyons a few weeks ago. He's the last man in the record business who still eats red meat.

Art: It's this little dumpy place that has picnic tables?

Yeah, and it's about 92 degrees inside? That's the one.

Art: It's unbelievable. The other one that is really great, if you ever go to Spain, is the Museum Of Ham. All it has is ham hanging around the whole restaurant, and you sit there and order your slices.

Have you been to The House Of Blues?

Art: Yes, I have. Genius. We do some stuff with blues, too, and we find it to be very successful.

Do you see that getting bigger?

Art: Sure. We had B.B. King perform at the Beijing opening, and it was wildly successful. It's a very popular genre of music.

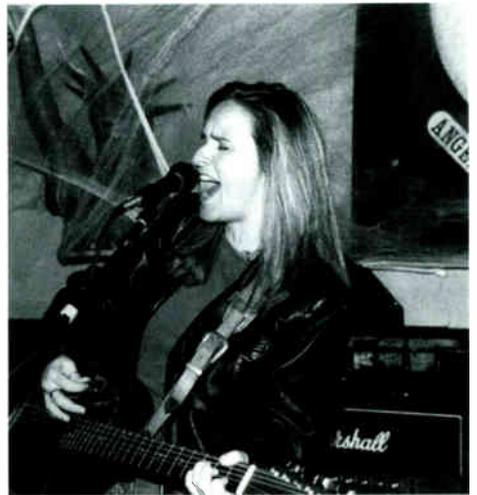

And you think it will get more so?

Art: Yes, it seems to me that blues is continuing to grow.

How does the rock n' roll brain trust determine the acts worth supporting?

Art: We take a lot of chances. It's a fine mix between the classics, the big hits now and the new cutting edge — the 'Maybe we'll be stars, maybe we won't be.' We do a whole cross-section musically, too. In New York, for example, we're about to do a couple of things with some Latin music like Celia Cruz.

I know you're very involved on that level in Miami.

Art: It won't be just Miami though. Latin/jazz flutist Nestor Torres and Celia Cruz are doing record release parties here in New York. In Miami there's a heavy Latin influence, the same as in San Antonio, where we're opening. My response to your question is that we'll have a broad range, not just classics or hard rock. We're also going to do some things with some Tejano music. In the past, we've done stuff with reggae and hard rock.

You don't deal with rap much though, do you?

Art: We do some things with rap. Bobby Brown is a big fan of ours and has done a lot of stuff with us. We did something at the New York Hard Rock with L.L. Cool J. Shaq just had his record release party at the Hard Rock in Orlando. Our basic focus is rock n' roll, but we do have an opportunity to showcase a whole variety of music, whether it's rap or gospel or country. We believe that's our responsibility and our mission. We had Vince Gill performing at the Hard Rock in Nashville. We've started building full performance stages. We did that in Nashville and we're doing that in San Antonio. You lose table seating, but you gain a stage. We're about music and the music experience, and encouraging new and breaking bands. We encourage some of the classics, too, but we're promoting listening, experiencing, testing, and trying all different types of music.

The Nashville location has started kicking far more serious butt than you expected right away, right?

Art: In terms of business, yes. I had a vision for Nashville, which went far beyond dollars and sense. I thought it was such a unique, culturally creative community, that the Hard Rock had to be there from a music point of view. And it's proven to bear fruit. We've developed additional relationships and made a lot of friends in Nashville. Hopefully, we're contributing to the whole Nashville music scene. From a business perspective, it's exceeded our projections in a big way.

How do you counteract Orlando's numbing effect on your psyche, given the pace of the towns that your outlets are in?

Art: I travel a tremendous bit, 70% of my time, and I love the environment. I love nature, and in Orlando you can get away from the theme parks very easily. From a lifestyle perspective, it offers beautiful land and lakes. You sort of create your own excitement there.

Do you have kids?

Art: I don't have kids, but I have a wife and two dogs. I just had my one year anniversary last week.

Happy anniversary! Hey, take her out to the Hard Rock.

Art: That's just what she's looking forward to.

Yeah, a night out on the town with the boss.

Art: She loves to travel with me. We do a country a day, and by the end of the trip she's ready to check into a hospital.

That's why I always stick with bottled beer on the road.

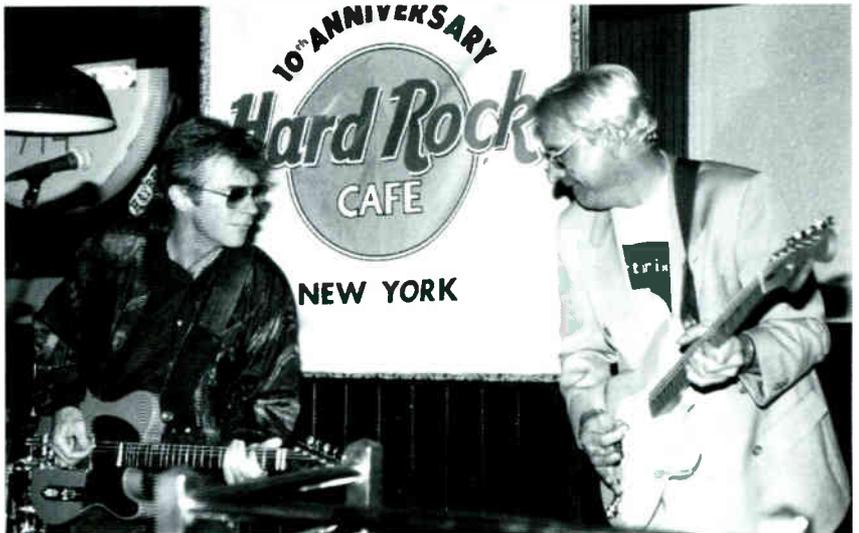

Art: In Asia, we went through 10 countries in 11 days.

How many Asian locations do you have?

Art: We have seven now.

And where are they?

Art: Beijing, Kuala Lumpur, Jakarta, Bali, Taipei, Hong Kong and Singapore. That's it for right now, but you never know where a Hard Rock is going to pop up.

Dave Edmunds and Joe Walsh celebrated the 10th anniversary.

Keb' Mo', "A Little Mo." Okeh/Epic We couldn't let the year go by without putting one of the best new artists of the year on the cover, and this recently released EP featuring our new favorite Xmas tune ("Jingle Bell Jamboree") gave us the opportunity to do just that. Dean Carlson KMTT, "Keb' Mo' is incredible live, in the studio, and on the CD. We have had great response on the two tracks that we've played, and we are anxious to throw on the Christmas stuff. When he performed here in Seattle, he received an amazing response. Keb' Mo' will be an artist that will definitely be around in the future." Bob Terrill KCSU, "Anybody who missed Keb' Mo' the first time around, here's another opportunity. This is real easy blues for a station that doesn't usually play any. We have had it in heavy for a real long time, and our audience can't seem to get enough of it." Greg Roberts KKR, "The re-release of the Keb' Mo' brings Keb to the forefront of the Triple A format. It's fantabulous, bright — it's just a great record. He will prove himself, and in time, he will become a staple of the format. And we still love Todd Snider." Bruce Ranes WXP, "Keb' Mo' has been a favorite since the summer, we are getting incredible audience reaction. Keb' Mo' is the real deal." Jon Peterson WCBE, "Keb' Mo's music is direct, raw and visceral, as he makes old time American music sound fresh and completely contemporary."

The Hot Corner

Various Artists, "Live From Woodstock '94," A&M Twenty-seven performances were selected for Woodstock '94, a 2-CD, 150 minute representation of the recent festival of mud. Four of the tracks celebrate vintage '69 music, including Traffic's "Pearly Queen" and Crosby, Stills & Nash reprising "Deja Vu." Bob Dylan, who missed the first Woodstock, does a rousing rendition of "Highway 61," while Joe Cocker reprises his signature "Feelin' Alright." Hard rock and metal are well represented on the album, but there's room for a handful of AAA artists as well. The album starts with an excellent set of performances, beginning with Live and "Selling The Drama," followed by Blues Traveler with "But Anyway" and Melissa Etheridge belting out the single "I'm The Only One." Other notable tracks are the Cranberries' "Dreams" and Sheryl Crow with "Run Baby Run." The album closes with Peter Gabriel doing an extended version of his concert staple, "Biko."

Shelter, The Best of Contemporary Singer-Songwriters, Putumayo Shelter is a 2-CD, 28-track compilation of the "Best of Contemporary Singer-Songwriters," featuring both new and established artists, with a portion of the proceeds going to benefit the homeless. While some of the tracks by established artists are familiar, such as Shawn Colvin's "Another Round of Blues" and Joe Henry's "King's Highway," many are from earlier albums and may be new to most listeners. Nanci Griffith contributes "Spin on a Red Brick Floor," a lively country/folk tune from A Very Blue Moon. Mary Chapin Carpenter sings a melancholy, "It Don't Bring You" from State Of The Heart, and John Gorka goes back to I Know for "Blues Palace." Rising stars like Freedy Johnston ("The Lucky One") and Sarah McLachlan ("Shelter") also feature great tracks from earlier albums. Every track on the album is solid, but some of our other favorites include Kristen Hall's "Too Long Running," Dougie MacLean's "Ready For The Storm," and Cheryl Wheeler's "Orbiting Jupiter."

WXPN / Philadelphia has signed a long-term agreement with Constantine Consulting. "One of the things that excites me most about consulting radio stations is the challenge that each one presents," said Dennis Constantine. "I love to brainstorm and help with creative solutions to each station's individual needs. WXPN is the only full-time Adult Rock public radio station in the country, and I'm eager to find ways to make the station big in the minds of Philadelphia radio listeners." Newly-appointed PD Kim Alexander added, "I think a number of people hear the word 'consultant' and think of 80's 'McRadio.' Dennis chooses to concentrate on what's unique and what's strong about an individual station and integrate that with his overall knowledge of Triple A radio. Our entire staff is eager to begin working with him." Among the things that Constantine will be working on first is to help the station with its program line-up. "We're going to shuffle things about a bit," said Constantine. "Right now, Sunday is full of block programming. I think listeners need to connect with WXPN on Sundays, so we're going to look at every show and weigh its values. Public Radio is an interesting challenge because it depends on listener financial support for its livelihood. I have some ideas about how to raise money for the station in new and interesting ways. If we can have new sources of cash flowing into the station, then we can cut back or eliminate the on-air fundraising, which can be a major tune-out for listeners."

KUNC / Greeley earned Best Station and Best Announcer awards at the annual meeting of the Public Radio Program Directors (PRPD) Association in Seattle last week. Julie Amacher, KUNC MD and morning host, was selected Announcer of the Year, marking the third time in five years she has won the award. Julie is the only announcer in the country to have won more than once. She shared the award this year with David Roden of WNIN/Evansville. KUNC's Best Station award is its fourth in the past five years. "KUNC is the one station in the country that has consistently won the award, and it's really an unheard of record in public radio," said Scott Williams, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the PRPD. "One of the things that really distinguishes them is their combination of local and national programming, and their service to the Colorado community. Julie Amacher is recognized as the best announcer in public radio now, and winning three awards is a remarkable record."

WCBE / Columbus will present the WCBE Member Appreciation Concert at Ludlow's on Wednesday, December 7, featuring performances by Willy Porter, Sally Fingerett, 22 Brides and Mary Adam 12. Admission is free to WCBE members and their guests. "This concert is our way of saying thank you to the people who make this station work," said PD Norm Beeker. "The artists are all donating their time to make this night a celebration of great music, and Ludlow's is even donating the room to the station. It's a great example of the cooperative nature that makes WCBE happen. This is our chance to give back to those people who make it all possible."

FM101.9 / Los Angeles (KSCA) and The Hard Rock Cafe have joined together to present the First Annual "fm 101.9 Unwrapped" benefiting the Toys For Tots Foundation. The L.A. and Newport Beach Hard Rock Cafe will play host to a very special holiday season concert to be held at 7:00 on December 1st and 2nd. Featured performers include dada, Wild Colonials, Lowen & Navarro, and Dillon O'Brian. To obtain admission into the concert, the public will be asked to bring a new "unwrapped" toy to the event. KSCA Director of Advertising and Promotion, Robert Lyles, commented, "KSCA along with the Hard Rock Cafe and the Toys For Tots Foundation are committed to making a difference in the lives of many disadvantaged Southern Californians this year. We encourage everyone to come out to the Hard Rock Cafe and enjoy some great music and put a smile on a child's face at the same time." In addition to bringing toys to the event, there will also be toy drop-offs located at Rampage clothing stores. The goal is to collect over 1,000 toys which can then be distributed around the city to children who might not otherwise have the chance to celebrate the holidays with a new toy. "We're very excited to join forces with fm 101.9 for this very special event," said Hard Rock Cafe Founder and President Peter Morton. "Events such as these allow the Hard Rock Cafe and the music industry the opportunity to do something good for the community, and it's great to have a radio station like fm 101.9 come to town to join us in creating a great new tradition."

WXRT / Chicago announced the release of QN XRT: Live from the Archives, Volume 2, an exclusive collection of previously unavailable live concerts and in-studio performances XRT has broadcast over the years. This year's CD features recordings by Talking Heads, Bob Marley and the Wailers, Lou Reed, Buddy Guy and the BoDeans among others. Net proceeds from the release of the CD will benefit the XRT Family Support Program at Chicago House, which provides high quality housing and case management services for individuals with AIDS or HIV, and the Chicago Abused Women's Coalition, an organization which provides a variety of social services to abused women. The limited edition CD will be released on Tuesday, November 29, and will be available at various music retailers in the Chicagoland area at a suggested retail price of $11.95. Little Village Records

(800) 65-BLUES

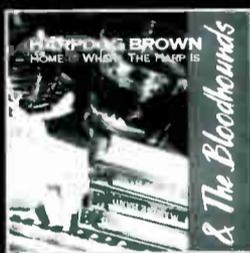

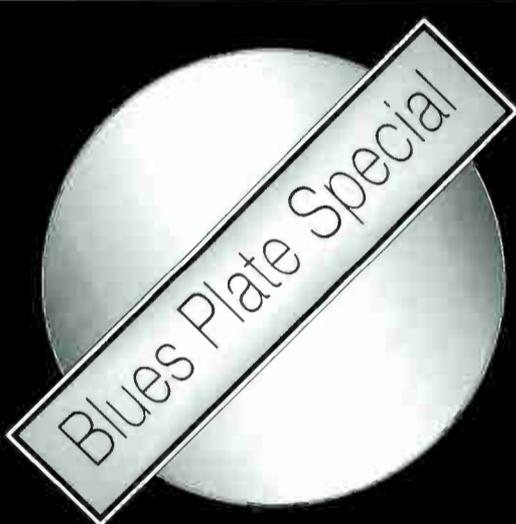

It's been pretty hectic lately what with moving from Detroit to L.A. Fortunately, there have been some nice surprises. I went cruising down Ventura Boulevard last week and discovered an unpretentious record store called Little Village. They had just relocated and had gotten high praise from "Southland Blues" magazine. Not being able to pass up a good record store (especially if it specializes in blues and jazz), I went in and found more vinyl than CDs (rare these days) and Bob "Hurricane" Hanan behind the counter. I got talking with him and found out he also runs the Little Village record label. On my way out, he slipped me a copy of Little Village Records latest release Long Distance Call from The Top Jimmy Lineup. Top Jimmy Lineup has been a fixture on the Hollywood blues scene for ages: 250 pounds of raw emotion in overalls; ripping it up with Memphis and Chicago-style blues. Long Distance Call is the follow-up to the now-legendary 1988 release Pigus Drunkus Maximus album with former cohorts The Rhythm Pigs. Produced by X bassist John Doe, Long Distance Call was recorded totally live—no overdubs—and sounds just like you'd hear it in performance. Invest the time. Make the call (it's an 800 number even) to Bob Hanan at Little Village Records and find out for yourself. Even Van Halen knows: in 1984, they wrote "Top Jimmy cooks, Top Jimmy swings."

Monkey Hat Records

Steve Curley/KMCO, The Dalles, Oregon

One of my favorite bands in the Northwest is Little Bill & the Blue Notes out of Seattle. Little Bill and the boys mix up blues and r&b into a real enjoyable groovin' gumbo that will remain in your CD player for a long time. Little Bill Englehart has been at this for quite some time. He had a couple of hits in the early 60's and has continued playing bass and singing in his gravelly voice, which is just a real treat to listen to. The Blue Notes are seven pieces and feature three horns along with Pat Hives on keyboards (his B-3 is just excellent). Six of the ten cuts are penned by Little Bill. The cover songs ("Standin' on Shaky Ground", "Next Time You See Me", "I've Got A Dream To Remember" and an excellent, slower "Three O'Clock In The Morning") are top notch. For originals, "Thangs Gone Be", "What It Shall Be", and "When I First Get Up" are groovin' numbers that let your spine slip into the boogie mode. And the slower "Like A Friend" and uptempo "Comin' Home" shine with great horn work. Actually, the horns and B-3 shine throughout the whole disc. It's a shame that this band is relatively unknown outside of Seattle. They don't tour much, and this CD (their third) is not nationally distributed. Since every deejay should have Shades at their fingertips, do yourself a favor and call Monkey Hat Records for a copy (206) 774-7503.

Harpdog Brown & The Bloodhounds

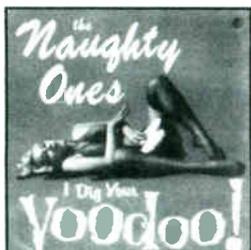

Home Is Where The Harp Is

Candlelight Records

Bob Ancheta, Host of Sunday Night Blues,

92.3 KGON, Portland, OR

If you don't already know, the Pacific Northwest is a hotbed for blues artists. There are more blues night clubs in Portland now than in its entire history. KGON hosts a 4-day Blues Festival every July 4th, and one of the highlights at last summer's show was Harpdog Brown & The Bloodhounds. Their new CD, just released, Home Is Where The Harp Is, is a true Pacific Northwest blues masterpiece. Harpdog stands up there with Charlie Musselwhite & Paul Butterfield. They live in Vancouver, B.C., just 5 hours north of Portland, and they're already a headliner in Portland nightclubs. They were just awarded a Muddy Award for Best N.W. Recording on Nov. 2, 1994. Harpdog Brown & The Bloodhounds are the real thing. Call Candlelight Records for your copy at (503) 226-3538. Ask for Steve Shore.

I Dig Your Voodoo

Star 104 Blues Revue

KBEY Eureka/Garberville

Until I saw them in Austin, I'd never heard of The Naughty Ones. Maybe you haven't either. Well, this is one cooking band! I was in town for South-By-Southwest, the yearly Austin Musicfest-Cum-Conference, and the Continental Club was my third stop of the night. As I walked in, the band broke into "Oh Babe!" the Louie Prima tune later covered by Wynonie Harris, and they performed it with panache. Their superior musicianship was easily evident - solid guitar, sax, bass and drums. Vocalist Ted Roddy displayed relaxed control throughout the evening, as the band mowed down several styles of music with aplomb. A loosely-clad lady danced with the band, then moved behind a back-lit screen for "Boulevard Of Broken Dreams," while Roddy shifted from shouter to crooner, stroking a pair of bongos on a stand. The next number, "Harlem Nocturne," confirmed my fandom - saxophonist Michael Sweetman dropped nuances like names while Mike Korpi's guitar work reflected his own virtuosity without emphasizing it. The evening blurred into a cavalcade of musical moods - "She Walks Right In," done to perfection; Thelonious Monk's "Well You Needn't" - a grooving jazz instrumental. Anchored by Dave Wesselowski's supple bass and longtime Austin drummer Mick Buck, The Naughty Ones not only put on a great show (the backlit screen had venetian blinds on some numbers, and rare, almost charming early strip films ran on monitors), but their CD, I Dig Your Voodoo does the band ample justice. So check out the beatnik-sex-nightlife schtick of The Naughty Ones - here's one band you need to hear.

HOLLY MCCORMACK

Dream Theater, "Caught in a Web" (Elektra)

"This is a band that definitely have a core of partisans that really want to hear their music," according to KSJO's Dana Jang, who described the Dream Theater appeal to his listeners, "and this song is even hookier than 'Lie'". He is not alone in that sentiment, with seven more adds this week, and eleven increases including KIOZ, KISS, KISW, KNCN, KRZR, KZRZ, WBZT, WDZR, WKLL, WVCR, and ZRock. There is no question that the musical talent is there, with the ability of Dream Theater receiving consummate critical acclaim from all circles, and the fact that on every subsequent tour they are filling bigger and bigger venues points out the fact that they have an ever increasing audience. The only thing left to consider is the hook of the song itself, and with the intricate absorbing melodies of "Caught in a Web" to catch your ear there seems to be no reason not to join the other stations caught in the Dream Theater web who buoyed their hefty COR debut at #36 this week.

Offspring, "Gotta Get Away" (Epitaph)

As the year draws to a close, and we begin reflecting on some of the biggest success stories of the year, the prophetic release - Smash - from Offspring is a leading candidate for not only a breakthrough artist, but also for the top album. With both "Self Esteem" and "Come Out and Play" still getting considerable radio and MTV airplay, the newest track to grace your insatiable listeners with is "Gotta Get Away", laden with chunky chords and a quirky melody. Despite the fact that punk is known for its anger, the jovial tone of Offspring can lighten up any worn out Holiday shopper. With early airplay coming in at KIBZ, WAAF and KISW, the current tour with Rancid to keep their profile high, and album sales shooting past the 2 million that have already clicked past the register, these punkers from Orange County, California should see their names high on the charts well into next year.

Veruca Salt, "Seether" (Minty Fresh/DGC)

As the lines between Alternative and COR radio continue to blur, you have in your hands the first track from the highly anticipated release American Thighs. You may have heard "Seether" already, since it's been all over Alternative radio and is getting a hefty rotation in MTVs gilded Buzz Bin, but if you haven't we will fill you in. The voice of singer Louise Post has a very child-like quality to it, but the vibrant beat of the song belies the devilish lyrics contained within it. This Chicago band landed at DGC after a major bidding war that gave the band a huge (apparently 7 digit) deal, and it seems to be paying off already with their major label debut lodged into the #1 spot on the Heat Seekers chart with over 11,000 units sold last week. They are currently on tour with Hole (showcasing some of the most talented female rockers in the business) and on December 1 they will return to the Windy City for a sold out Q101 charity show. With early COR airplay at WKLL, WNCD, WXTB, KRAB, and KRRK, and the sales figures to back it up, the expectations are high for Veruca Salt.

Pearl Jam, "Better Man" (Epic)

It was pretty obvious that the Pearl Jam record hit this week with adds flying everywhere on the AOR and COR charts - 138 adds in all between the variety of tracks. It is refreshing to see "album" start to creep back into Album Oriented Rock, but with all of the different songs getting play, "Better Man" was the clear winner with 58 adds overall - 13 of those coming from COR stations including KICT, KILO, KIOZ, KISS, KRAB, KRRK, KRZR, KUFO, KUPD, WKLL, WKLQ, WNCD, and WXTB. The song flows over an emotion laden river of melodies, at first very soft and touching, and eventually picking up steam and oozing an emphatic compassion. With the vinyl hitting this week and the excitement for the major release building, Vitalogy will easily be one of the hottest selling CDs this holiday season, and with their sincerity combined with mainstream appeal, any COR station not giving a major amount of spins to Pearl Jam will clearly be left in the dust.

ADD DATE NOVEMBER 21

Produced by Sick of It All and Billy Anderson. Management: Steve Martin, Maria Manila. The Atlantic Group Division of Atlantic Recording Corp. ©1994 Atlantic Recording Corp. A Time Warner Company

When down in the Lone Star state the boys in Savatage always make a point of hanging out at the local Planet Hollywood. This time some of it looks like the folks from the Eagle in Dallas joined the 'Tage for the party! Pictured (L-R) are Johnny Lee Middleton (Savatage); Jon Nardachone (Atlantic); Zachary Stevens (Savatage); Cindy Scull (KEGL); John Oliva and Alex Skolnick (Savatage)

With the University of Nebraska topping the college football polls, those ingenious folks down at the Blaze teamed up with Sigma Chi Fraternity to boost school spirit and raise some money for a good cause. If you will recall the recent game between rivals Colorado and Nebraska they took the occasion to charge $1 for three bashes of a Buffalo decorated beater of a car. Pictured here are Tim Sheridan and Jon "The Animal" Terry from KIBZ, holding the mighty mallet!

Nothing like the cheery faces of the lads in Type O Negative to brighten up the holidays! Found with a couple of days off on the Danzig tour, Type O Negative teamed up with Q104.3 to play two sold out shows at L'Amour in Brooklyn, and we can attest that the shows were amazing. Pictured (L-R) are: Doug Sjonvall (WAXQ); Kenny Hickey and Peter Steele (Type O Negative); Lark Logan (WAXQ); John Kelly (Type O) In front: Paul Coady (VWAXQ).

Q104, The New York Post, and the Tri-State Jeep Eagle dealers teamed up to give away a 1995 Eagle Talon ES1 over a six week promotion. In the picture below we see Q104's Trent Tyler buried in the 16,000 entries that they received along with Hamilton Salazar, also from Q104.3.

METAL Pick

Monster Voodoo Machine, "Defense Mechanism" EP (D-Tribe/RCA)

If you haven't had a chance to be exposed to the sonic fury of Monster Voodoo Machine, then now is your chance with the latest EP featuring "Defense Mechanism", off of the album Suffersystem, along with some remixed versions of additional tracks. But quite honestly, we wouldn't understand why it would take anyone this long to realize that the molten, fiery brew that they create is one of the most refreshing things to hit metal radio in a long time. With a steady climb up the Hard Hitters chart - up to #15 this week - obviously most of you have tapped into the energy of the release already, including stations like CFOX, KIBZ, WRFL, WZBC, WARC, WDCR, WHJY, WKNC, WLF, WZMB, KDJK, KISS, KNDI, WDBM, WHMH, WRLC, WSOU, WVVV, WWSP, KATP, KLOL, WCWP, WGLS, and WSGR. Hailing from Canada the members of Monster Voodoo Machine (Adam Sewell - vocals; Terry Landry - bass; Jason Cuddy - guitar; Darren Quinn - guitar; Dean Bentley - drums; Stacey Hoskins - sampler) took to the old fashioned way of getting their name out, which was non-stop touring of every nook and cranny in the Great White North. All of that work to develop the underground market not only put them in front of new faces and solidified their performance, but they also attracted the attention of Prong and former Killing Joke member Paul Raven, who produced their State Voodoo/State Control EP, an offering that pulled in a considerable amount of airplay in the beginning of the year and introduced the band to a whole new audience with their unique blend of crunching grooves and industrial flavorings. Sure there are plenty of heavy industrial acts such as Ministry, Nine Inch Nails, and more recently Drown, but the significant difference in Monster Voodoo Machine is that they don't let the machine take over the music. The latest choices from Suffersystem is the track "Defense Mechanism", a cyber expedition as cool and unforgiving as the frozen tundra in the northern reaches of their native Canada. Also included are two remixes of "Inside These Walls" - one which focuses on the luxuriant, pummeling riffs, and the other more on the sampling - and a percussive mix of "Copper Theft". The band is starting to make some inroads into the U.S. market, and are currently doing some live dates with Pigface, and will be playing some shows on their own before the end of year. In addition to this EP, after the first of the year, metal radio will be receiving some remixes done by Biohazard and KMFDM, so you will have plenty of options to keep this release fresh on your airwaves. So in this holiday season continue to break down some of musical boundaries and build up your "Defense Mechanisms"!

TOP Picks

Insult II Injury, Point of This (Century Media)

Hailing from the streets of New York, Insult II Injury possess much of the street-smart groove prevalent in the New York Hardcore scene, but they have a much more metallic stance than the other punk inspired bands, with non-stop pummeling riffs and a more melodious vocal line. In the songs on Point of This, you will hear similarities to bands like Overkill, Sacred Reich, and particularly Metallica, but you will also notice that they are able to forge their own style from the powerful mold that they originated from. Point of This was produced by Bobby Gustafson, who was the Overkill guitarist for their first four albums, and his experience helped the band bring out their intense guitar sound. Some of the songs that could start an instant mosh pit include the title track which kicks off the album with a very "Breadfan"-ish riff, "Freedom" highlighted by the ear-catching harmonics and the "Fist-Pumping Understand!" rally cry, "Ruled By Hatred", and "The Move", which features Pro-Pain's Gary Meskill on vocals. With 22 stations already adding Insult II Injury to the airwaves, we expect to be seeing (and hearing) much more from this band throughout the new year.

Flesh, Flesh (Colorblind)

With the new Extreme record coming just around the bend, you can trick your listeners, or at the very least warm them up with this release from Flesh, which features the soulful singing of Nuno's brother Paulo Bettencourt. They also have developed their own following in the fertile Boston scene with their infectious funky rhythms and melodies that both rock hard and make you want to dance. While this is their first release, the response has been warm so far with 13 adds this week at KLOL, KMSA, KNDI, WFSE, WHFR, WKLL, WLFR, WMHB, WMWM, WSGR, WSUP, WVVV, and WZMB, but with fans like Dan Reed and Jeff Scott Soto, it comes as no surprise that buoyant songs like "Weight of the World" and "Think Too Much" would get a good response on the airwaves. Produced by Nuno Bettencourt and engineered by Bob St. John, the debut release shows that Flesh have begun to put together the pieces of their puzzle, with a bright future ahead of them.

Bouncing Souls, The Good, The Bad, and The Argyle (BYO)

With a name as energetic as the Bouncing Souls, and an album title as crazy as The Good, The Bad, and The Argyle you know that what you find inside will be nothing short of unconventional. Originating in the New Jersey college punk scene, they were raised on the sounds of bands like 7Seconds, NOFX, Bad Religion, and apparently, also spent some time listening to Bow Wow Wow because included on this release are outlandish covers of "I Want Candy", and "I Know What Boys Like". For more of their conventional fury-in-your-face guitars and frantic drum beats, treat your CD player and your audience to "I Like Your Mom", "Deadbeats", and "Neurotic". The Bouncing Souls have been fortunate enough to hook up on tours with Rancid, Green Day, Offspring, and they are currently on the West Coast with 7Seconds and Youth Brigade, which will put them right in front of the growing punk fanbase. With the overwhelming impact that the underground scene has made on the mainstream this year, it's now our job to look back to the street level bands that will soon be rising to the top, and Bouncing Souls could very well find their fun irreverent style sitting on the launching pad before they know it.

METAL Filings

After climbing their way to a bulletted #15 spot on the Hard Hitters chart, Monster Voodoo Machine (D-Tribe/RCA) are geared and primed for more radio play with the arrival of the "Defense Mechanism" EP. Add it today... Make room on your playlist for the current hits on the Insult II Injury (Century Media) disc. Fourteen of you made room last week (making it the number one most added record), the rest of you should follow their lead... As you are reading this, the new Incantation (Nuclear Blast) album, Mortal Throne Of Nazarene, is on its way. Remember that the band are currently traveling stateside with the likes of Grave (Metal Blade) and Fear Of God (Pavement)... Arriving in the same package as the Incantation, will be the Pyogenesis (Nuclear Blast) album, Waves Of Erotasia, and Meshuggah's None. Look for it... Have I told you about the Testament (Atlantic) "Dog Faced Gods" three song CD (featuring two ruddy unreleased covers) that is set for arrival the 29th of November? I have, nevermind... Set to debut in the metal ranks is the upcoming Tales From The Crypt soundtrack, courtesy of the Atlantic Records metal department. Bands found on the record include Pantera, Machine Head, Biohazard, Clutch, Melvins, White Zombie, Megadeth, Sepultura, Ministry and the Rollins Band... Keep spinning the Fudge Tunnel (Earache) disc, The Complicated Futility Of Ignorance, through the holidays, then in January you will receive Hate Songs In E Minor to dirge up your playlist for '95... The Pitch Shifter (Earache) remixes (courtesy of Therapy? and Biohazard) will be on the way to you by January 24th... Did you know that Skid Row (Atlantic) are currently holed up in a Vancouver studio recording their follow-up to Slave To The Grind with producer Bob Rock? Look for the final product, what is said to the hardest punk/metal almost ever, to splatter on your air-waves in March of '95... A.C. (Earache) look to early '95 to deliver their Top 40 Hits to the metal community for mass consumption. 🐛🐛🐛🐛 Savatage (Atlantic) will record their first live record ever while they are touring in Japan this month. The line-up on the album will be as follows: Zachary Stevens - vocals, Alex Skolnick - guitars, Jon Oliva - keyboards, Johnny Lee Middleton - bass, and Jeff Plate - drums. That's right, Steve Wacholz is no longer with the band, he has left to attend aviation school. Anyway, the album is due out in February of the new year... Insult II Injury (Century Media) are traveling the rock road on the current M.O.D. (Energy) and Pro-Pain (Energy) musical extravaganza. Turn to the Hard tour guide for specific cities and dates... The final three dates on the current Smashing Orange (Radioactive) U.S. swing are November 28th in San Diego, California; the 29th in Los Angeles, California and December 5th in San Francisco, California... Glazed Baby (Red Decibel) will be joining Gwar (Metal Blade) and Buzzov-en (Roadrunner) on their December 1st show in Hampton, Virginia, before they jaunt up to New York, New York for a December 2nd show with Slughog at CBGB's. Then, they will head to the University of Connecticut for a gig December 9th with Candy Machine... If you look to February of the new year you will find that Bad Religion (Atlantic) will be resuming their U.S. touring (after they take a much needed winter break after their current tour with the Supersuckers (SubPop) and Samiam (Atlantic) comes to a halt). Nothing has been confirmed yet, but word is the band will gigging 'round the southern tier and in the middle part of the states. 🐛🐛🐛🐛 Did everyone receive the flyer announcing the Epic metal contest where you identify the partial album cover and win the lyrics to the band's current single? What happens is you identify the band, then send it along with your name and address to: Cheryl Valentine, Epic Records, 550 Madison Ave., Rm. 2129, New York, NY 10022-3211 and you might be the random winner of the original lyric sheet written by the artistic lead singer himself. If you would rather fax your entry send it to: (212) 833-8307... P.S. Remember to fax back your year end wrap up by Tuesday, December 6th to (609) 654-6854. 🐛🐛🐛🐛 Peace.

This head and shoulders shot was taken when Savatage's Zachary Stevens took a break during the band's romp across the country and joined Atlantic's Jon Nardachone at the KZRX studios for some quality time with Nick Katz and the Hit Man. Apparently, a good time was had by all.

No, folks Gene and Peter didn't stop by the WDBM studios this past Halloween, it's really Dave Ciancio and his assistant Chris Childers (a.k.a. Gravitar). And, according to the KISS impersonators themselves, the only thing that really needs to be said about the foto is "Kiss our ass!"

And, saving the best for last — here's our own Bulls fan Holly McCormack standing next to, sharing space with and gathering the coolies of her basketball hero Scott Williams (ex of the Chicago Bulls now of the Philadelphia 76ers.) Hmmm - Holly used to live in Chicago, now she lives near Philly. Coincidence? We think not!

DON'T BELIEVE THE HYPE!

It's perhaps a little boastful to remind you that not to mention that and we'd be remiss not to tell you that

HOOTIE & THE BLOWFISH

but perhaps the biggest HYPE/TRUTH of them all is that

ALTERNATIVE PICK

Underworld, "Dirty Epic," Wax Trax!/TVT

All the rage across the pond, Underworld are built on the concepts of mind-expansion and confounding the expected. With dubnobasswithmyheadman (their third release under the Underworld moniker), the band turns techno into a rock and roll experience, replete with guitars and (at times) an intense focus on the vocals. Melody Maker calls this record "the most important album since The Stone Roses and the best since Screamadelica." Obviously more suited to the format's dancier stations, the track has the potential to break beyond, especially when considering the song's amazing video.

ALTERNATIVE CHOICE

Luscious Jackson, "Deep Shag," Grand Royal/Capitol

If it seems like we've been raving about this band for a good year plus, that's 'cause we have. Our faves had a healthy run at the format with "City Song," and smart money is on the band breaking big, and soon (they're rumored to be opening for REM on the upcoming tour). For the second course off Natural Ingredients, we're offered more hazy melodies over a knowing, brooding, lazy groove. The girls epitomize the concepts of confidence and style, delivered with a healthy dose of subtlety and absolute savoir-faire. Check out the massive remixes on the CD-pro. Succumb to their embrace.

Soundtrack to Dumb And Dumber, RCA

The latest in the stream of soundtracks to come across your desk is from a sure to be hit movie, featuring the genius of Jim Carrey. The lead track is Pete Droge's "If You Don't Love Me" (you all know how we feel about this track), and includes the great Gigolo Aunts tune "Where I Find My Heaven," and offerings from Echobelly, the Butthole Surfers (covering Donovan's "Hurdy Gurdy Man") and Deee-Lite doing a version of Hot Chocolate's "You Sexy Thing." And by the way — don't feel bad if you weren't one of the four people living not thanked in the liner notes. There's bound to be a new Revenge of the Nerds out sometime soon; maybe we'll all grace that one.

BLAH

Another axe falls in the world of Alternative Promo, and we're sad to say that, this time, 550's John Knapp is the victim. John's a straight shooter with a keen understanding of both sides of the format and pronounced ears for the music. Buzz him at home at (310) 476-2721.... When will this stop?... WXPN announces their signing with Constantine Consulting, who will revel in raking in those taxpayer dollars.... How 'bout that Capitol? Mazzy Star has just been certified Gold, and the Beasties are Platinum-plus. Mazzy's "Halah" is raging hard at the format (with plays at over 25 stations), and the Dink track is well on its way. Have you heard this Big Chief record? Through the glut of recent hard rock releases, this one sets itself apart from the herd, with amazing reaction potential... Still strong showing from Roadrunner's Type O Negative — the record is getting requests like crazy, is over 200,00 records sold, and in the second slot of Danzig's tour. A perception-twisting record in the hard rock vein.... Are we the only ones (save Steve Leeds and Jonathan L.) who thinks the Deus record is brilliant?... STP's "Unglued" goes for adds this week... Q101 recently held its "Spelling Contest," and it awarded $10,000 to East Leyden High School in Franklin Park, Illinois, whose students painted a huge "Q101" on their football field, formed by 600 students. Five second prizes of $1,000 were also awarded. The winners were chosen from over 150 entries.... LIFEbeat kicks off its largest fundraiser of the year on World AIDS Day, December 1, with Counter AID. Among the notables participating in the event, manning retail store counters in the fund-raising effort are Michelle N'Degeocello, Dignable Planets, 4 Non Blondes, Johnette Napolitano, White Zombie and the cast of Kids in the Hall.... WBRU has announced the line-up for their Acoustic Christmas Jam on December 15. Included on the bill are: Big Audio, The Go-Go's, Evan Dando, Frente!, Love Spit Love, Lightning Seeds and Black 47. Some of the proceeds will benefit A Wish Come True and another charity to be announced.... In label hirings, Roze Braunstein has been appointed to the position of Manager of National Radio Promotion for Mute Records. Roze joins Mute Records from Real World/Caroline Records where she held the position of Promotion/Publicity Manager, and Virgin announces the hiring of Tommy Delaney as National College Promotion Manager.... Caroline Records has just added East Bay band (and Counting Crows favorite) Engine to its roster. Engine's unique brand of noisy pop is drenched in dark, theatrical humor and their infectious squalls of sonic energy have earned them a loyal following on the west coast. They will be playing three New York shows in December and their debut album release for Caroline is expected in April of 1995.... Tour Dates: Danzig: 11/28 New York; 11/29 Baltimore; 12/1 Providence; 12/2 Boston; 12/3 Philly; 12/5 Detroit; 12/6 Indianapolis; 12/8 Dayton; 12/9 Chicago; 12/10 Milwaukee; 12/11 Denver. Biohazard/Stompbox/Unsane: 11/28 Dallas; 11/29 San Antonio; 11/30 Austin; 12/1 Houston; 12/2 New Orleans; 12/3 Memphis; 12/4 Pensacola; 12/6 Tampa; 12/7 Orlando; 12/8 Ft. Lauderdale; 12/9 Jacksonville; 12/10 Atlanta; 12/11 Charleston, SC; 12/12 Charlotte, NC. Joe Jackson: 11/28 New York; 11/30 Boston; 12/2 Toronto; 12/3 Detroit; 12/5 Minneapolis; 12/6 Chicago; 12/8 Denver; 12/10 Salt Lake City. Melissa Etheridge/Pete Droge: 11/29 Memphis; 11/30 Cincinnati; 12/1 Cleveland; 12/2 Pittsburgh; 12/3 Hampton, VA; 12/4 Bethlehem; 12/6 New York; 12/7 Baltimore; 12/8 Washington, DC; 12/9 Atlantic City; 12/11 New Haven; 12/12 New York. Sugar: 12/1-2 Austin; 12/5 Denver; 12/8 Tempe; 12/9 Los Angeles; 12/11 San Francisco; 12/13 Portland; 12/14 Seattle.

The Go-Go's recently paid a visit to KROQ and the Kevin & Bean Morning Show. Here they are, shown looking for a copy of their single in the studio. As of press time, they were still looking.

That Slomovitz guy sure gets around, don't he? Here he is with Ben Harper and CD101's Marketing Director Randy Mallory.

Dino Valenti, who joined Quicksilver Messenger Service as lead singer in 1970, has died at age 57. Valenti, whose real name was Chester Powers, underwent brain surgery a few years ago, according to his sister, Kay O'Gara. Valenti wrote the song "Get Together," which was a big hit for the Youngbloods.

Cynthia Lennon has recorded a version of Mary Hopkin's "Those Were The Days" for release early next year. Chris Normal produced the track by Lennon, the first wife of the late John Lennon. "Cynthia was a bit apprehensive at first but everything turned out just fine," Norman says.

Even though they made a big deal about auditioning prospective drummers by accepting computerized sound files through an on-line service, Cinderella decided not to recruit the grand-prize winner of that competition. Instead, they've brought in Ray Brinker, formerly of Barefoot Servants. Cinderella auditioned 24-year-old Kevin Conway of Scranton, Pennsylvania, but instead opted Harrisburg native Brinker. Cinderella released an album this month called "Still Climbing." They plan a national tour early next year.

Mitch Mitchell, drummer for the Jimi Hendrix Experience, has settled a High Court lawsuit in England against publishers of a book called "Crosstown Traffic." Mitchell had contended that the book written by Charles Shaar Murray made him out to be a racist. Publishing company Faber & Faber issued a statement saying Mitchell was not a racist and never racially abused Jimi Hendrix. It's not known if damages were paid after the publishers issued their statement in open court.

Students at the London School of Economics have elected Mick Jagger as honorary president. Jagger defeated international terrorist Carlos the Jackal and Mother Teresa in the poll of students. Jagger, who failed to finish his economics classes at the college in the 1960s, will get to speak to students at a future date because of his election. South African President Nelson Mandela and former hostage Terry Waite have received similar awards from the school in the past.

Aerosmith plan to make themselves available for conversation on four different on-line computer services December 4 through 7. The "Cyberspace Tour" will benefit the Electronic Frontier Foundation, an anti-censorship computer organization.

A new book as yet unpublished in the United States includes essays by Bono of U2, Stephan Malkmus of Pavement and a short story by Thurston Moore of Sonic Youth. "Idle Worship," out in Canada and overseas, was edited by journalist and musician Chris Roberts. Bono's essay talks about being "star struck" by Frank Sinatra. The essay by Malkmus is called "Vedder As Merton: 2001," and describes a future where Eddie Vedder has quit Pearl Jam to become a hermit studying Mormon and Shaker history. The book also includes a play by Mark E. Smith of the Fall and an ode to Patti Smith by Kristen Hersh of Throwing Muses.

The Eagles resume touring in January in support of their "Hell Freezes Over" CD, which debuted at number one on the Billboard album chart with over 266,000 units sold. The "Hell's Going To Freeze Over" tour was delayed because of Glenn Frey's health problems. The album includes four new songs recorded in the studio, including the current single "Get Over It." The reunion may not be without its problems, however. Don Henley told Billboard magazine that "some of the things that broke us apart years ago have not gone away."

Members of the Velvet Underground, except for Lou Reed, reunited in Pittsburgh for concerts at the Andy Warhol Museum. John Cale, Sterling Morrison and Moe Tucker improvised 90-minute sets while images from Warhol's early silent movies were projected. Reed declined to participate in the concerts inspired by Warhol's work with the band. The Velvet Underground met at Warhol's Factory and Warhol was listed as co-producer of their first album. Tucker says Reed is unlikely to perform again with the rest of the band. "We were supposed to do MTV Unplugged, but we had arguments over who was going to produce it. Lou wanted to produce, but I didn't want anyone in the band who was that close to it to do it," Tucker says. "Lou was very perturbed. Everything was contingent upon him producing for MTV. I guess we're friends, but we're not playing together and frankly, I can't see it happening again."

"I'd like to point my finger at them and say, 'Look at this, look what I've done. What do you think of me now?'"

CARTER ALAN, WBCN/BOSTON

After 13 weeks, Live "I Alone" continues to build - spreading to all corners of our audience. The band's name has become a household word and we're eyeing the album for the next track. Meanwhile, the acoustic version from MCA is a nice gift. "Selling the Drama" from Woodstock sure rocks the house, too. This band deserves a multi-platinum award for Throwing Copper. I think it's in their grasp. Big requests continue to come in for the Cranberries "Zombie," although in a few weeks I fear the big burn is gonna come on strong. Meanwhile, we're hoping that the band's recently postponed concert will be rescheduled in December on the tail end of the group's U.S. swing. Letters to Cleo rocks on the Melrose Place soundtrack, "Here & Now" sounding great from that release as well as the just-released Cleo debut album. The band is from Boston and sports some fine teeth on this first national single. We also love Aimee Mann's effort on the Melrose album, too. Finally, Pete Drobe is kicking in big time after his single. The phones are good and the song rocks! The comedy value of the hook doesn't hurt either. Ditto with Todd Snider "Talking Seattle Grunge Rock Blues," which everyone digs.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW/SEATTLE

Type O Negative "Black #1" has been number 1 phones since October 17th. I think that says it all. Also, there is a Seattle band that received excellent write-ups in the trades around their debut release L.O.V.EVIL. The band is Second Coming. Received Top 5 phones at KISW with "M.T. Your Guns" which is now in Medium rotation. They have completely sold out of stock in the Northwest and pack the clubs every time they play. Interested in checking them out call Curtis Crawford at 206-322-2154 ext 11. They would be happy to send you a copy when they get more CDs printed. I'm going Christmas shopping now.

LARRY MAC, KUKQ/PHOENIX

First of all, I'd like to thank the members of Sinister Dane, and 311 for dropping by the studios last week. They both put on a fantastic show here. If you haven't caught either band yet live, you don't know what you are missing! PIGFACE! PIGFACE! PIGFACE! Jonathan L. says "their latest CD Notes From The Underground is merely an extension of this awesome conglomeration of genius musicians, and by the way their recent Phoenix performance will be my favorite club performance of 1994." Our adds this week: Lords Of Acid "Out Comes The Evil," Electrafixion "Zephyr," Guided By Voices "I Am A Scientist," and Pigface "Asshole." One of my faves this week is one that will be reconsidered in next week's On Air Live Monday Morning Music Meeting. It is a band out of L.A. called Scattered Few. Their song is "Dreams" check it out... From the great desert Southwest where the temperature at the outdoor Tool show this weekend was 39 degrees...Brrrrr... See ya.

JAY SISSON, WIXV/SAVANNAH

It's about time for someone to poke fun at those self-indulgent, self-absorbed, flannel-shirted, heroin-shooting Seattle grunge musicians, and Todd Snider is just the man to do it!

ED TRUNK, WDHA/DOVER

Had some great live in the studio guests the past few weeks on the "Hard Show." New Jersey's own Pride & Glory played a few great shows in the area over the past few weeks. The band's drummer, Brian Tichy, stopped by after a return flight from Japan to update everyone on P&G. Brian grew up listening to the hard rock program here on 'DHA, something that made me feel very old! Also had my favorite new band, D Generation live in the studio. Great guys, a phenomenal CD and a killer live show. make them the band to watch for in '95. Their brand of honest no frills street rock is a refreshing change. Thanks to Schnapp and Stephanie for bringing the guys by. Also had a great phoner live on the air with hometown boys Skid Row. After three years, they are at work as you read this, in Canada, finishing up Subhuman Race. Sebastian Bach and Snake took time out from recording with Bob Rock to fill New Jersey in on their progress. The real treat came when Sebastian played part of a new tune called "Frozen" over the phone line. The record sounds super-heavy, and the guys plan on touring in January!

CHRIS MCKEE, 99.7/CHARLOTTE

Happy holidays to all our friends both in radio and records...hope you have a super Thanksgiving and hope your X-mas/New Year is most excellent! Got a Hootie and the Blowfish show coming up this week. Gonna play golf with the boys before the concert...I wonder if they gamble???? I'll fill you in on the results next week. We're in on the latest from REM and Tom Petty this week — great stuff we think! See ya!!

CARL CRAFT, WCIZ/WATERTOWN

Last week was a sad week here at 'CIZ-FM...it was the first week without Tim Stephens, who has moved on to a larger market. Tim was one of the original staff at the station when it flipped to rock and roll over six years ago. Over those six years he has worn many hats, but none more important to me personally than friend. Even though I know we'll meet up at shows and speak from time to time, we will really miss Tim around the station on a daily basis. His humor and passion for radio are unparalleled. Tim Stephens is truly one of the best human beings in the radio business today. On the musical front, I had the opportunity to check out Pete Drobe again recently...another great show. If you've thought that he wouldn't "stick" check it out again. Necktie Second is a great album (and by the way they sped past me on the New York State Thruway after the show, they're eager to share the music with more people...so check out the band live!). When you do see them, ask 'em to play "Dear Diane", it's not on the CD, but it's a great tune.

JOHN LENAC & KEVIN KLINE

KTOZ/CHANNEL Z

Whew!!! That is a collective sigh of relief being breathed from the entire Channel Z staff and Springfield community after our first annual Mid By Midwest Showcase. Over fifteen hundred people packed two separate bars over two nights to witness this-all out regional musical extravaganza featuring a dozen of the Midwest's finest bands. The bands sounded great and the energy level was extremely high. One would have thought that there were record reps in the audience with such a high energy, but we know better than to think that. All of you must be wondering how the event went, so here is a brief synopsis of the two evenings festivities. Thursday night rocked. Then Friday came and it rocked too. Brief enough for you? A little more detail you say? How about the world famous Radio City

Music Hall Rockettes being in the house Thursday night? The girls, currently in Branson, Missouri for Christmas shows, were listening to Channel Z and decided to make the journey up for the evening to hear some great Midwest music. Friday was more of the same. Great crowds, great bands, and great music. The bands involved were very complimentary of Channel Z, for hosting the event and for playing their songs in regular rotation for two weeks. They thoroughly enjoyed playing for such enormous crowds. The bands, as well as the community are anxious for next year's festival, which promises to be bigger and better. In the meantime look for the Mid By Midwest commemorative compilation tape to hit your desk. It consists of the twelve songs we played on the air during the weeks leading up to Mid By Midwest. Finally, as it is the holiday season, we are in desperate need of some Christmas music. Please send us whatever Christmas tunage you have available. We thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.

THE TINK OF WWUD/DELAWARE

Why hello there! The place: Philly. The bands: Cro Mags/Life of Agony. The words to describe the event are all superlative adjectives. The Thank You's: Marni, a most gracious RoadRunner host. John Joseph put together the Cro Mags for their swan song performances and it was nothing short of marvelous. I was lucky enough to get photographic proof of the gig, thanks to the man himself. They did indeed shine like a star that night. Life of Agony has kept its average 100% total satisfaction with this last time in my city for a while. They told me that the band was busy putting new stuff together for the follow-up CD. The performance I'm sure even won over more fans; how can I know this, you may ask. I was sitting in front of a kid who was there that night for the first band. He kept asking his bud, who the hell is L.O.A.? Well, at the end of the night, he was up off his ass, cheering for more-more. That's how I knew.

SLAMMIN' SHAWN CASEY KZZK, Z-ROCK

Hello, and welcome to Slammin's World! As I write this, I'm mentally preparing for tonight's Biohazard show. The pit will be mine! After all, I earned the name Slammin' after surviving the Metallica pit, without any broken bones or blood loss! So, watch out, Portland. I got a pair of size 10 books with your name on 'em! I gotta say KZZK is truly kicking ass! It's Z-Rock baby, need I say more? A barrage of monster shows have made their way to Oregon. To name just a few; Yngwie, Wicked Maraya, Great White, Gilby Clarke, Ace Frehely, COC, GWAR and Biohazard. Wait a minute, I'm not done yet. Coming soon, the Stones, Killing Joke, Dream Theater, Danzig with Type O Negative and Godflesh and the Offspring. Promotions? Yeah, we got 'em. We couldn't call ourselves a radio station without airing "The Album Network's" "Road to Promised Land" special. Then we kicked-off the holidays with Laserdeth, a laser show featuring "Youthanasia." But wait, there's more! (I love using that line) Stay tuned for upcoming news on KZZK's New Year's Eve blow-out bash! Well, I'm outta here, 'cuz I'm Doug...anyway! Remember I have a weekly spotlight show, so I can't play your stuff if I don't have it! Send me more music now! My call hours are Thursdays 11-1pm (that's West Coast time) so give me a buzz, we'll do coffee talk. Broadcasting live from the pit...I'm Slamming Shawn Casey, Good night!

DUG, WPUP/ATHENS

Why do people always freak when I say I'm going to my grandparents' for Thanksgiving because my grandfather won't live another year? Should we just pretend he's healthy? Is my entire family weird? Or do we just face up to the idea of mortality better than everyone else? My personal opinion is that since we killed animals for dinner as often as we did we reminded ourselves that everything dies. Being able to look out the window and see vultures every day of the week helps, too. City-fucks just don't have the advantages of country living. Sugar plays tonight with Jack Logan opening. Happy something or other. I'm going to go away now.

JIM DEL BALZO, COLUMBIA RECORDS 212-833-7029

The research is beginning to come back on Corrosion of Conformity and the news is astounding. "Albatross" is researching like a power at WAXQ and KISW, two of the only stations that have been playing it long enough to have any valid research back. Not only is it testing for these folks but listeners to the mainstream rockers in New York have also responded positively. "Albatross" is lighting up the phones in Charlotte, Seattle, New York, Colorado Springs, Austin, Lincoln, Corpus Christi, as well as quite a few other markets. The band begins a three month tour with Megadeth in January. In the meantime, they're packing clubs wherever they go. We had another great week on C.O.C. this week with over 10 more new adds including KSHE, KATT, WRXR, WKGB, WRCQ, WZBH, KBPI, WBZX among others. If you like to rock you should be playing this already. Last week, Bob Dylan totally blew away two audiences during "Unplugged" tapings. Bob is singing better than ever and put on two of the most incredible versions of "Dignity" that included Brendan O'Brien on keyboards. Watch for Dylan "Unplugged" to air December 15th on MTV. "Dignity" continues to develop into the biggest Dylan record in a decade. If you're not playing this, take a second look quickly. Pink Floyd's "Lost For Words" is shaping up to be another Top 5 smash from Division Bell. Major research coming back on this track already. If you ever wonder if all the time and energy the record industry spends raising funds for the T.J. Martell Foundation is worth it... wonder no more. My mom was diagnosed with terminal cancer in September and her doctors in Florida gave her three to six months to live. They said they'd make her comfortable. She flew to NYC to see Dr. James Holland at Mount Sinai, who heads the T.J. Martell team. Following a very complicated operation, my mother is cancer-free and is now back in Florida! These doctors are absolutely amazing and someday the life they save could be yours or somebody you love. Whatever I can do to help the T.J. Martell Foundation, I will gladly do. I recommend you do the same. I want to personally thank Tony Martell for all his help.

DAVID FLEISCHMAN, MCA RECORDS

So many Todd Snider stories. So little space. at AAA/PAR/Adult Rock (choose one), the project is the hottest debut project out there. Big phones at KMTT, KKRK, KMMS, KFMU, WNKU, WVAY, KPIG, KOZT, KSPN, KXPT, KEKO, WERX, WRSI. At AOR radio, Todd already has a Top 5 requested record at WXTB, WFBQ, WAVF, KLPX and WZMT. It's Top 10 at WJRR, WZZR, KLOL, with most stations getting phones every time the record is played. And if this isn't enough, the above mentioned phone activity is happening on two different tracks, "Talkin Seattle Grunge Rock Blues" and

"Alright Guy." "Wow" you say! Guess what else, "Joe's Blues" is a Top 5 requested track at KMTT. That's three tracks getting Top 5 phones by an artist no one ever heard of 100 days ago. This is an incredible story by anyone's standards. And there's more. There is a strong solid airplay at alternative radio, with "Talkin' Seattle" already getting Top 5 requests at 99X/Atlanta (#1 phones), KPNT (#1 phones) and WZRH. Between the time these comments are written and when they're read, there will be even more stories as they're coming every day from every part of the country and from different formats. Unless you completely blew your nose out in the '80s, you ought to be able to smell this one. If you're looking for an artist whose music will get audience reaction, whose music will make you think and whose music will make you smile, just like Santa, Todd is "the man."

KEVIN YOUNG, MOIST, CHRYSALIS/EMI

At last count, the mighty Moist touring machine (a huge lumbering green thing consisting of five musicians, 12 bags of laundry, two thousand pounds of gear and dried sweat, held together by rubber bands and shared nightmares) has lost at least 4 days of the past week to the unexpected, somewhere between St. Petersburg, Florida and Grand Rapids, Michigan... We find that usually the unexpected can be defined one of two ways: 1) As a cunningly sadistic practical joke devised out of petty spite for the purpose of exacting revenge—such as, having the shirt your singer has worn for the past week straight fastened to your head with rolls of duct tape while you sleep; Or 2) As a small mischievous figure that hides in the shadow of a random event, giggling inanely and brandishing a large electric hedge trimmer, looking to make nasty with touring rock bands... Early this week the unexpected manifested itself after a successful show at the Georgia Theater in Athens, the tour was cut short. Left with several days off, Moist moved into rehearsal and promotion mode: handing out stickers, scrambling to find a gig in Detroit before Friday, and heading to Atlanta to see the folks at 99X for music, conversation, and a brief meeting with Spacehost about the future security of the galaxy. After an evening rehearsal in Atlanta and a lovely dinner of raw potatoes and Gatorade generously provided by our management, we jump back in the big green thing, plug in the Entertainment Center, and re-enter the real world just in time to meet with John Bolio of WTUE and Johnny Metal in Dayton, Ohio... With a gig booked at the Ritz, Moist charges Detroit like a drunken wino that's just been tagged with a Tabasco enema. After interviews with WRIF and WHYT, Moist sneaks up on an unsuspecting audience at the Ritz where singer David Usher force-feeds the band tequila, draws blood, loosens teeth and buys us all a monster hangover that's lasted nicely all the way to Grand Rapids, Chicago, and now as we hustle towards the Midwest, barely sane and cursing daylight at every opportunity... Thanks to everyone in Detroit at 89X, WRIF, and WHYT for supporting us through the venue change and the resulting tequila slamfest. P.S. Christy, we're sorry Mark ruined your birthday and he's going to pay for it this week in Omaha, Nebraska...

DIANE GENTILE, ARISTA RECORDS

If you're around NYC this weekend, be sure to check out The Bogmen at Roseland on Saturday with The Radiators. It's sure to be jam-packed. The Cranes' new album is selling about 1000 units a week. This band did a world tour with The Cure a few years ago.

They are currently enjoying a strong buzz at college radio with a top 10 album at the format!! The Tractors are selling 50,000(!) plus a week from their current hit single "Baby Likes To Rock It." You may want to look back at your Christmas song collection and pull out "The Santa Claus Boogie" and "Swinging Home For Christmas" off the 2-song CD we sent you last December from The Tractors. Sarah McLachlan's album is deep with vibrant, emotional tracks that make it one of those "must have" CDs. If you listened to both the No Alternative CD and her album Fumbling Towards Ecstasy, you should have heard "Hold On," one of Sarah's most powerful tracks. If you haven't paid attention yet, you're behind. The album is approaching platinum. So, before you go gobble gobble, listen to Sarah, The Cranes and The Tractors...and have a rockin' weekend.

ACTION SCHNAPPTION, EMI RECORDS 212-492-1812

For every action, there's a reaction! When you play Butt Trumpet, people will react and sing along! Have a Butt Trumpet sing-a-long party...yeah... you and all your friends singing "Clusterfuck," "I'm Ugly and I Don't Know Why!," "I Left My Flannel In Seattle" and the classic "Ode to Dickhead." Can't you imagine that! Sing a happy tune... a Butt Trumpet ton! Action! Moist are on the road (see Kevin Young's dialogue). The Moist fellas are slammin through the U.S.A. as they "Push" themselves to the limit. Catch Moist playin' live through the end of the year. Action! D Generation are NYC's own punks of rock! "No Way Out" sounds great on the radio!! You must play "No Way Out" by D Generation on the radio to fully understand this. D Generation will be touring through the end of the year so be warned! Action! Queensryche are planning to tour and will bring "Promised Land" to you! "I Am I," "Damaged" and "Disconnected" and a host of other killer Queensryche tunes are jammin' on the airwaves near you! Keep rockin' Queensryche! Action! Bloodline are still tourin' and Milla will be on the road with Toad the Wet Sprocket. Be there, I will! Plenty o' action! And bring your 8-tracks out for heavy reaction!

KIM LANGERBECKER, COLUMBIA

Back from a whirlwind trip to points north (California) and south (New Orleans) and very excited to not get on a plane for a while - thank you very much! I must absolutely say a big thank you to all the fine folks along the way including Bill Betts and Pat Martin, Dana Jang and The Nasty Man (How are the razor blades, babe?), Bill May and Sterling, Kenny Mann (How is the hangover comin? You are a madman!) Beaver Brown and Jeff Riedel, Marty Griffin, Wayne Coy and Clark Taylor, Jose Diaz and Chris White (How is the bat? Thanks for the great wine!) and last but certainly not least E. Curtis Johnson. COC rocked big-time in New Orleans to over 600 people. If you are not convinced yet you have to be totally uninspired and I suggest you call the fine folks at KISW, Q104, KIBZ, KZRX, KNAC, KSJO, KNCN, WXRC, KTAL, KLBK who have been getting top 5 phones. Not to mention the sales increases all across the board. AT #34 on the BDS chart with over 500 spins. We are on over 90 stations with 11 new this week including WBZX and SHE. If you want research, yes we have research. Q104 reports it as the #7 best testing record, #2 from the bottom in burn and #4 from the bottom in dislikes and it is testing well with WNEW listeners. These guys are the goods! See them now in clubs packed to the brim or after the first of the year with my other heroes - Megadeth!! Bob Dylan just completed what I understand was an incredible Unplugged in NYC coming off a stellar performance in New Orleans at The House of Blues - SRO!! Lots of naysayers are changing their minds after seeing how this record reacts with their audience. We pick up 8 more stations bringing the total to over 100 and spins increase to over 400. Request action - yes, that's what I said - at WHCN, WJXQ, KZOZ, WKLT, KGKL. Have a little dignity for your Thanksgiving. Just when you thought Pink Floyd couldn't release another great record they turn around and give you "Lost for Words." Yes, this may be down tempo, but the listeners just hear great music. Up 140 spins at the BDS level bringing the total to 550. And with little prompting on our part, Alice in Chains "Got me Wrong" is surfacing across the country off of the "Clerks" soundtrack. Over 100 spins with airplay at KLOS, KISW, Q104, KNAC, WLZR, KILO, KZRR, WAAF, KCAL, KRRK, WZAT, and WDZR. Official add date isn't until the 28th!! Soul Asylum continues to grow now at almost 600 spins. And it is starting, slowly but surely the believers are raising their hands for Fat Tuesday - "Winter Storm." Timing is perfect and if you haven't listened yet, shame on you!! Take it home over the Thanksgiving Holiday and bond with this record. I hope everyone has a tremendous, safe, and happy holiday! Please remember to give time if you have it to those less fortunate. It will come back tenfold.

JOHN BUTLER

SILVERTONE RECORDS 212-620-8798

Well, Thanksgiving is again upon us. Time for cranberry sauce stains on Grandma's dentures, football games that put us to sleep faster than the turkey and scales that have mysteriously disappeared from the bathroom. Also time for many of us to get to some music we've had a hard time gettin' to. Chris Duarte had been such a tremendous and steady story at AAA. "Texas Sugar Strat Magik" has made a home at this format with Chris's strong musical sense and powerful guitar wizardry. Success stories abound at stations like WHPT in Tampa who had Chris realize how strong a reaction record this has and has seen not only Top 5 requests the past two weeks but sales double in that time. Steve Cormier at WIZN has had a development story happening in beautiful Burlington, VT too! 3 weeks into the record and a show has helped affirm WIZN's commitment to this fireballer and goes a long way to show rock radio that Duarte will clear your plates in January. "Borrowed Love" and a cover of Leon Russell's "Big-Legged Woman" have been our keys at AAA. Many thanks to both Steve and Bob for helping us make the ripples in the rock water grow even larger. Buddy Guy has two top 5 AAA records and two grammys for each of those releases. Could it be any wonder that his latest "Slippin' In" is destined for critical and radio greatness? Many of you at rock radio have made your audiences aware of what true great music the blues is by sharing Clapton with them. You owe them the opportunity to hear where all of that silver string mastery and influence came from. Play "Slippin' In." Your family is waiting at the table for you.

Let's get back to the important business of exposing Mr. Joe Stump to all of the unfortunate unknowing. Joe's bombastic "Night of the Living Shred" is still kicking open doors. Joe is currently doing selected East coast dates. We will let you know when he comes to your area. Take care.

MEG MACRAE

EARACHE RECORDS, (212)-343-9090

This week has not been a good one for me and machines. First the ATM machine ate my card, leaving me lost and penniless on the corner. (I hate my bank) and today my computer crashed (again) and I lost a whole week's worth of work. Yes, I seem to have stalled on the on-ramp to the information superhighway. But I did just see Interview With The Vampire and the new Star Trek movie comes out this week so it hasn't been all bad. (No ATM would dare eat Captain Picard's card.) ...So Brutal Truth has begun their trek across this great nation of ours with Pungent Stench and Acid Bath in tow. Call me for interviews, dates (tour dates, that is) and guest lists-n-all that good stuff. Thanks to all o' your smart dj's out there who are charting BT, but we're not done yet-let's get higher (no pun intended)!...Now for those of you who aren't playing Fudge Tunnel, you have a lot of explaining to do. What's the matter with you? Come on, it'll make you feel good. I promise. Everybody's doing it and you want to be cool don't you?...How 'bout Godflesh? This band will kick yer lil' ass (heh, heh, she said ass) from here to Texas, so I trust you are playing them...a lot! And if yer not, you will have to answer to myself or the Lord of Metal at Columbia...Well that's enough peer pressure from me this week. Live long and prosper and beware of hundry ATM's. Have a happy turkey hollyday...

So yo, the Thanksgiving day is over and 3 weeks left to radio for the year. Are you stoked about it? I am big time. Well check it out, Body Count is in your face. Dig on the re-mixes because you love it. Leviathan is way cool, you know you dig this record. So jam it heavy for the next 3 weeks. Groovezilla is kickin' your ass. Let this record do its thing. There will be a tour. Megadeth is in your face. You will repent for 1 week if you droo it. Overdose is making a killing with radio. Do it up heavy for the death fans. Monster VooDoo Machine is doing great on the road. See them live because you'll love it. Samiam is on the road - don't miss them live. The show at Roseland kicked ass. Sick Of it All is in your face, don't let my boys down. See the show when it's in town. W.A.S.P. has 2 new tracks on the record. Yes the re-mixes are way more crunchy. Till next week, Cya.

I keep her shoes. Sometimes I look at them. And I think about the sound her heels made on the wood floor. And I think about all ten perfect little toes. And I think about how if she were alive, the shoes will be too small for her. And if she's dead, they'll fit just right.
