TOP PRIORITY

The Unplugged Collection, Volume One, WB

You think you've got problems coordinating sales and programming? Imagine the politics inherent in assembling this nifty collection. But somehow producer Michael Ostin and MTV in-house ace Alex Colletti managed to wade through the red tape, and voila!! Just in time for holiday airwaves and gift giving comes the definitive Unplugged package. And while one might debate the future merit of more of the same, there's no doubting the impact of previously canned material. Humor your local WB rep with Lenny if you must, but for our money, the Costello, R.E.M., Soul Asylum, and of course, Stevie Ray are at least as interesting and valuable. Fact is, if you play any of these songs or artists in regular rotation, live option subs don't come as topically presented as they are here.

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Grant Lee Buffalo, "Lonestar," Reprise

For the uninitiated, Grant Lee put out a wonderful debut early last year. Triple A and Alternative gave it a look, with a mere 20,000 sold stateside — but European sales of a whopping 200K. What the record did accomplish here was spreading the word among their rabid, musically appreciative fan base. Grant Lee Phillips' electric acoustic 12 string booms with the force of a thousand Strats, and given the group's incessant touring (including a steady opening slot with Pearl Jam), the word of mouth on GLB is buzzin' hard. They've just completed a club tour to universal raves, and this second album is already closing in on 100,000 units. On the heels of strong Alternative play on "Mockingbird," it's time for the mainstream to embrace that rare band that embodies true originality and atmosphere. As WAVF's Dave Rossi explains, "'Mockingbird' was humongous for us, and we're already getting tons of feedback on this via the Cutting Edge show. It's a very good song and very different from everything else we're playing".

Plant/Page, "Thank You," Atlantic

More records like this and even deat jammers could program in the big markets. The original comes from the quintessential Led Zep 2, the group's most revered session. Twenty five million people have been married to the tune (at least that's the word in those Vegas drive-throughs), and at least double that number saw the MTV special — with the "Thank You" video remaining in Stress. Plus, the guitar solo really makes the reworked version. As KSHE's Jim Owen puts it, "A wonderful version. It's the return of Led Zep, so how can you lose? There's a very positive feeling about the whole project." With the tour beginning in Atlanta in February, a burring Jimmy Page solo smack dab in the middle of the song, two million albums in the marketplace, and top of the charts performance on "Gallows Pole," could a fargin' follow-up get any more automatic for the people than this??? We thank not.

Stone Temple Pilots, "Unglued," Atlantic

Even if the guys in the band were all snot-nosed brats and your local Atlantic rep just ran over your cat — here's a track you'd be out of your mind not to notch up immediately, as 29 of our reporters already have — and the before the boxers includes KISW, KSJO, WLZR, and WRIF, with KBPI already reporting 21 spins, KUPD 16, and WAAF 40. As if you need more STP stats shoved at you, with "Interstate Love Song" having spent ten weeks in the #1 slot, and the group nailing down three of the top 10 positions in our year end charts. If all of that doesn't move you, bow down to this from Dana Jang. "It has the same kind of intensity as Vasoline. Good follow up track to 'Interstate'".

Widespread Panic, "I Can't Get High," Capricorn

As one might expect from a seasoned road outfit like Panic, coming up with more than a few compelling songs is no big deal. This album's full of them. Trouble is, radio does one at a time. "Airplane" was a nice intro to the LP, no doubt, but now it's time for the album's real rock radio hit. The lyrics will obviously appeal to the 12 steppers in your listening audience (and everyone else), and the music that delivers the message is the essence of this fine band: subtle, swirling Hammond B3, plenty of those trademark Panic swooping guitar lines, and whisky smooth neo-southern vocals that work in any zip code.

KALODNER JOINS COLUMBIA

John Kalodner, Don Jenner and Michele Anthony

Columbia confirmed that former Geffen A&R head John David Kalodner has joined the label as VP/A&R, West Coast. In his new position, Kalodner will have the flexibility to contribute to all realms of Columbia Record Groups, including the new label headed up by Ayeroff and Jordan. "John is the epitome of a great A&R executive," remarked President Don Jenner. "Among his many talents, he possesses the one attribute essential to A&R success: great song sense. He's always had it, and he always will. What John has accomplished in his 20-year career is nothing short of astounding, and he possesses the experience and talent to continue for another 20 years. I have no doubt that John's contributions to our artists and their music, no matter what musical genre, will be invaluable and lead to great success for Columbia."

Sony Music Entertainment Exec. VP Michele Anthony added, "I have known and respected John for many years. He is a music-first executive who brings with him great instincts and a true devotion and dedication to his artists. We couldn't be happier with John's decision to join Columbia, as he not only can continue his long-term working relationship with Aerosmith, but also lend his considerable talents to the signing and development of other new and established artists at the company." Kalodner joined Atlantic's publicity department in 1974, and worked his way over to the A&R department the following year. In 1976, he was named Atlantic's first West Coast Director of A&R. In 1980, Kalodner was invited by David Geffen to join his fledgling label, as its first A&R executive. "I have worked with two of the greatest music people in the world — Ahmet Ertegun and David Geffen — and now I am working for the greatest record company in the world," said Kalodner. "It was always my dream to work for Columbia Records. Don Jenner and Michele Anthony have fulfilled that dream."

MEIBACH NAMED WARNER EXEC. VP

Ina Meibach

Prominent entertainment attorney Ina Meibach has been named Executive Vice President of Warner Music-U.S. Meibach joined The Atlantic Group as Executive VP/General Counsel earlier this year from the law firm of Meibach Epstein & Regis. In making the announcement, President & COO Mel Lewinter commented, "I am truly delighted to welcome Ina to the Warner Music-U.S. family. Along with her legal savvy and creative instincts, she brings a wonderful sense of humor and great warmth to her work. A real people person, she will be involved in all facets of our activities. I have known Ina for many years, and to now have her on the same team is a real privilege."

Chairman/CEO Doug Morris noted "One of the most accomplished and admired people in the music industry, Ina possesses a rare combination of intelligence, integrity and charm. I am fortunate to have had the opportunity to work with her on a number of occasions over the years, and I am thrilled that she has agreed to join us as a cornerstone of our new home here at Warner Music-U.S." Meibach commented on her new position, "The decision to leave my law practice and 'jump to the other side' was not an easy one. I would not have made the move were it not for the opportunity to work alongside Doug and Mel, whom I believe to be two of the most visionary players in the music business today. I am looking eagerly forward to exploring an array of fresh challenges and new ventures in this exciting new post."

LOGAN LEAVES LOOP

Dave Logan

After two years at WLUP-FM, during which the radio station went from a full time AOR to one of the nation's first personality entertainment stations, Dave Logan bids adieu to the Loop and is on his way to his next gig. The station just trended 3.2-3.8, as mentioned in Dave's recent Hard interview, and looks to figure as the dominant male station in the city. Dave's considering a couple of offers, and expects to be back in the game after the first of the year. Wish him happy holidays at (708) 570-0615.

GATES EXITS AIM

Ironically, Dave's former co-hort at WLAV-FM, Tony Gates, this week announced he'd be leaving the Sr. Director of Album Promo gig at Aim Marketing, a post he's held for the past year. Tony's experience also includes marketing at Album Net, two years as RCA's National Album Director, and two years as Programming Coordinator and AM producer at the Loop. Reach him at (805) 499-5231.

QUINN SEGUES TO HOLLYWOOD

Diarmuid Quinn

Diarmuid Quinn has been named Sr. VP/Marketing for Hollywood Records, effective immediately. Quinn comes to Hollywood from Columbia, where he was VP/Marketing since 1992. Prior to his stint at Columbia, Quinn was VP/Marketing for MCA. He began his music business career in 1981 as a CBS Records college rep, eventually becoming Director of Marketing at Epic. Commenting on the appointment, Hollywood Executive VP Bob Pfeifer said, "Diarmuid and I worked together at Epic Records, and I've always been impressed by his professionalism, marketing knowledge and creativity. It's great to have him here."

KSHE'S BARRY GOLDBERG DIES

Barry Goldberg

We're sorry to report that 17 year KSHE veteran Barry Goldberg died at his home in Chesterfield, Missouri on Thursday (12/1), after suffering from cancer. He was 56 years old. Goldberg was a loved and respected member of the KSHE staff, and held positions of Account Executive, Local Sales Manager, Regional Sales Manager and National Sales Manager during his years at the station. Goldberg began his career on the air at KFRU-AM in 1958, while attending the University of Missouri.

In the early '60s, he moved on to KCFM (currently KSD-FM), hosting a late night show. In the mid '60s, Barry held an airshift at WRTH-AM, and later on at KEZK-FM, where he was also an Account Executive. In 1978, he began his long standing radio sales management career at KSHE under Shelley Grafman and Nancy Pool. KSHE VP/GM John Beck stated, "Barry has been a true friend, mentor and teacher to me, our staff at KSHE and to many, many people in and out of the radio/advertising business. He will be missed by all." The staff members of KSHE are finalizing plans for a party to benefit the American Cancer Society in honor of Goldberg to be held on Tuesday, December 6.

"The band itself performed to a sold out crowd for our second anniversary show a few months ago. This song sounded awesome in concert and we're proud to play it on the radio".

Rick Andrews, KZOZ (20 Spins)

"A fabulous rendition of a tough to cover song. This really shows how well Jack Russell can sing. He really belts like Plant in his heyday. I haven't heard anything but positives from people I've played it for, and everyone thinks it's a fuckin' smash. Plus, its a nice complement to all the Page/Plant hoopla".

Mimi Griswold, WKLL (11 Spins)

"Certainly this entire release has been the biggest surprise of the year. Obviously the listeners care about this band. They call for them, they ask for them, and it researches well".

Greg O'Brien, WPDH (16 Spins)

"Great White does justice to this classic song, and it couldn't be more timely, considering all the current interest in Led Zepplin. People are digging it here".

Lisa Kramer

Lisa Kramer has been promoted to VP/International Marketing for Epic. Kramer has spent two years as VP/International Artist Development, following a six-month stint as VP/International Marketing. In making the announcement, Sr. VP Ged Doherty commented, "Lisa's efforts have been invaluable to the ongoing worldwide successes of our established artists, and her commitment and dedication have been crucial to the development of our newest superstars." Kramer is based in New York... Westwood One named Johnny Biggs VP of its International Division. Biggs joins WW1 from Radio Express where he was VP and for the past four years has been working in the international market with radio stations, advertisers and co-producers. WW1 Exec VP Eric Weiss commented, "Johnny is one of radio's most experienced executives in global syndication and we are thrilled to have him on board to oversee our continuing plans for expansion in the international marketplace."... MCA elevated Beth Halper to Manager of A&R. Halper joined MCA in 1993 as an A&R rep. She came to the company from Virgin, where she worked in the art department and as a part-time A&R scout... Andy Schwartz was promoted to National Director, Editorial Services for Epic. Since joining the label in 1989, he has served as Associate Director, Editorial Services. Schwartz' background as a journalist includes six years as editor and publisher of New York Rocker, a national monthly alternative music magazine... A&M designated Emily Wittmann as VP/Video Promotion. Wittmann joined A&M in 1988 as National Director of Video Promotion, and was most recently Sr. Director of National Video Promotion... Blood Records announced that it has added Gina Galli to its full-time staff, in charge of radio promotions and publicity for all of the label's artists. She began her career as MD at WBNY/Buffalo, moving on to become a Sony college rep in Buffalo and Rochester, then an administrative assistant for ABC/Capitol Cities. In '92, Galli joined A&M as Promotions Coordinator. Prior to joining Blood, she was the National Director/Alt Radio Promotion at Round The Globe... Rose Sokol has joined A&M as National Singles/News Release Director. Sokol spent the last seven years with BMG Distribution, beginning in 1987 as Advertising Coordinator, then Singles Coordinator. She then moved to San Francisco as sales rep, later relocating to L.A. in the same position.

Faith No More frontman Mike Patton appears to have been perfecting his technique while the band was in the Bearsville Studios with producer Andy Wallace recording their upcoming Sire/Reprise release, King For A Day...Fool For A Lifetime. This Kodak moment was snapped while new guitarist Trey Spruance, Bill Gould, Bill Bordin, Mike Patton, Roddy Bottum, and Andy Wallace all did their studio time.

The Dave Matthews Band played to a sold-out crowd at NY's Roseland recently, and a bevy of RCA execs hooked up with the band backstage to congratulate them on the success of their major label debut, Under The Table And Dreaming.

RADIO RUMBLE

WBCN Boston has signed a three-year deal with the New England Patriots that gives the station exclusive broadcast rights for the pre-season and regular season games. "This really does mark a new era in broadcasting for the Patriots," said Robert Kraft, Patriots President & Chief Executive. "WBCN will bring an expanded listener base to Patriots broadcasts and by broadcasting in stereo, we will be upgrading the quality of the production." The Patriots will become Infinity Broadcasting's 5th major league NFL team franchise, including the Dallas Cowboys, Philadelphia Eagles, NY Jets, and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

KROQ Los Angeles morning personalities Kevin Ryder and Gene "Bean" Baxter have sent their morning show assistant, "Lightning" to Christmas Island, Nova Scotia, in search of the perfect KROQ Christmas tree. Lightning must travel to Nova Scotia and back to L.A. in time for the KROQ Almost Acoustic Christmas concert on December 10. This is the third year that Lightning has driven to get a perfect tree for the Christmas concerts. In '92, Lightning traveled to Montana. Last year, he drove across the Yukon Territory to North Pole, Alaska. This year, he had to leave before Thanksgiving in order to make the 9,000-mile round trip to Christmas Island in time. Lightning is traveling with Gil, a homeless, toothless KROQ listener. Lightning and Gil originally planned to drive north through California, Oregon, Washington and into British Columbia. They had to alter their route when Gil was refused admission into Canada due to his criminal record. They were delayed by a snow storm in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, while driving east through the U.S. Gil may be left behind in Maine while Lightning cuts down a Christmas tree in Nova Scotia.

X-107 Hawthorne elevated Jack Black (aka Chuck Doud) to Production Director. PD Steve Blatter commented, "Since joining X-107, Jack Black has been instrumental in developing a truly unique sound that has become synonymous with the sound of X-107. As Production Director, I'm confident his contributions will take X-107's commercial and programming related production to new heights." Black will continue his daily on-air program on X-107, weekday afternoons from 3-7pm.

BY BILL HARD

Where were you in '76? Delivering newspapers? Playing Little League ball? Maybe in college? KILO Program Director Rich Hawk was Program Director at KILO. Just think what this Marlboro smokin', 442 drivin' mountain man has seen come and go in the nearly two decades since he signed the station on: Joshua Blardo, Infinity Records, Frank Felix, Walrus, Klaatu, Modality, the Doubleday chain, Mike Harrison, Sex Pistols, the '79-'80 record industry purge, Gary Granger, Skinny tie bands, power pop, Tarney Spencer Band, Sniff 'n The Tears, Shelly Graffman, Hair Bands, KSAN, KMET, WCOZ, KZEW, KPRI, WAPP, WABX, W4, and, of course, Art Phillips. Yep, our man Rich has seen it all fly by — and he's had to reach out and grab the real rock in the process. Kinda makes you think of Neil Young and that fabled Trans Am, doesn't it? Well, it's 1994 and good ol' KILO couldn't be in better shape. New competitors, new ownership, new frequency... Who cares? Nah, none of that matters. Not when you're

Rich Hawk

K I N G O F T H E S P R I N G S

There's no truth to the rumor that you went from your first paper route to being PD at KILO?

Rich: No. Believe it or not, I wasn't born and raised in the Springs. My dad used to manage grain co-op elevators, so we grew up in the wheat belt. I was raised in a small town called Lamar, in the Southeast corner of the state. I came up here after I got out of high school. When I first came here in 1973, I was news director for a while at a station called KIIQ, which is now KIX, and has been many formats since.

Was there any rock n' roll presence in the market at that point?

Rich: KKFM, which was doing the underground rock thing.

I went to college in Denver, and in 1967, there was a pretty good little progressive thing going on up the road. KFML, I believe?

Rich: Complete with the acid report and all that stuff. Yeah, I remember that from hanging around in Boulder in the late '60s.

As I recall, this place was so underground that on Friday nights they would broadcast the names of the supposed narcs in the dormitories.

Rich: It was a pretty strange station. The GM when all of that was going on was Don Zucker, who worked for Mercury Records out of Denver for years.

What was your first paying job?

Rich: A small AM station in Stafford, Arizona, where I was making 350 bucks a month. I was working 8-hour airshifts at night, and three months later they moved me to morning drive. Six months into that job, I peaked. It was a great place to learn because they made you do everything. You did eight or ten commercials, you read the news. I had to read the damn obituaries on the air. You had to play Spanish music, country music, rock music, beautiful music — you know, one of those kind of places. I tell people that want to get into the business, 'Go to a small market and you'll learn how to do everything. You'll work your butt off, but you'll learn.' Especially when you've got to do eight or ten spots a week and work 6 and 8-hour airshifts, six days a week. You'll learn real fast.

Rich: Maybe, if the situation was right. I don't know whether situations like that would be challenging enough for me or interesting for the long-term. I've had almost every position that you can at this station, including the GM job, which is a position I learned to hate.

Was that when your current GM, Lou Mellini, left the station?

Rich: That's when Lou left, yes. We went through GM hell for a couple of years. We had a couple of guys who probably shouldn't have been here, but they were. I was probably one of the few PDs in the country who ever got to fire two GMs.

You actually pulled the trigger?

Rich: Yeah. I got that call from corporate, 'Go get him, fire him, get his keys and walk him out the door.'

How long have you been with KILO officially?

Rich: It was eighteen years in June. When I quit as news director of KIIQ, I came over to this station, which was then KPIK AM and FM. It was a modern country type of thing, and I did that for three months. Then, on a wild hair, I went back to the East coast with nothing and knowing no one. I ended up getting a job in three days working for Plough Broadcasting in Boston. They had an AM/FM combo there, and I worked there for about a year. It was a country AM and a kind of progressive country/rock FM thing. Then, they came in one day and blew everybody away. It was a good learning experience. Everybody was union, so they paid me good money to leave.

Here's your check and don't let the door hit you in the butt.

Rich: Boston is a great town, but it never felt like home to me. I was ready to come back. The guy at KPIK was talking to his dad, and trying to buy the station. He teamed up with another guy named Bob Telmoss, who owned a big furniture store here, and together they worked out a deal to buy the radio station. From that came KILO.

As implied by those famous call letters, was it a hippie/radical station initially?

Rich: That all happened by accident. We applied for several different call letters, and that happened to be one of them that was available. They just gave them to us, and from there we played around with them. For a long time, our first promotion on KILO was giving away a pound of Colombian.

Coffee, we'd assume?

Rich: Things you wouldn't do now, of course.

When did the mega shares start happening?

Rich: In the early '80s, we were at 16 and 19 shares. No one else in the market at that time was in the double digits.

So why did Bob and Charlie sell the station to Bayhackle in '86?

Rich: They bought the station for $400,000 and had a chance to sell it for 3.5 mil a few years later. So, they took the money and ran. Looking back today, I think they both wish they hadn't done that. But then again, I don't think anyone could get that much for a station here now. The Springs is pretty much a boom and bust market. Now, we're back in a boom stage. There's a station on the market that they want 2.5 million for, and I think they'll have a hard time getting it. And it's an FM that is comparable signal wise to us.

I remember seeing an evening news report about five years ago that talked about Colorado Springs having the highest foreclosure rate in the country.

Rich: Today, it's probably one of the lowest ones. I remember a year and a half ago, when vacancy rates were through the roof. Today, you can hardly rent a thing — business building or an apartment.

Why does it fluctuate so much?

Rich: A lot of it has to do with what's happening with the electronic industry and the military. With the North American Air Defense Command, the Air Force Academy, Fort Carson, Peterson Air Force Base and Falcon Air Station, there's a lot going on here military-wise. There's a lot of fear right now that Fort Carson may be closed. That could turn the whole thing around in a matter of months.

That directly impacts your business?

Rich: Yes. Everybody in radio has had a very good year here. In Colorado Springs, there were a couple of years when you were lucky to be operating in the black at all.

What is the top-billing station in the market?

Rich: The country station KCS, or else the LMA of Magic and KKFM.

Does your lack of a sister station put KILO at a strategic disadvantage?

Rich: I don't know. From talking to the agency people in the community, LMAs don't seem advantageous. Consequently, I don't know whether that's meant a lot of dollars to the stations that are LMA'd. It seems one station is always the bread-winner and the other is the bastard child.

The KBPI/KAZY wars are legendary. Have you been involved in that sort of head-to-head, nasty-ass situation yourself before?

Rich: We've had several stations come after us since I've been here, but none of them have succeeded. I've never been in that dirty type of warfare. We've had some wars of our own. The attitude in this market is a little different. People pay attention to their own business, and don't get on the air and do that name-calling thing. But that could happen any day. It depends on who's involved and what they're willing to do on the radio.

What's the closest you've come to having a direct format competitor?

Rich: KKFM has always been our main competitor.

You've had your share of hired guns come after you. Between Bill Betts at KKFM and Doug Sorenson at...

Rich: Sorenson was at what was called The Cat. They came after us, back when we were going through GM hell, and we had some major programming adjustments by the GMs that were in place here that had a very bad effect on the radio station. We've basically been rebuilding since Lou came back a couple of years ago.

Let me guess, they were worried about the hard rock edge, and made you lean more classic?

Rich: Yes. It's always the easy, safe way. And it went against the grain of everything the station has always done. We've always been stick your neck out, take chances, and go for it.

I remember all that skinny tie stuff KILO was playing when Art Phillips was there.

Rich: We went through the modern rock phase, the Elvis Costello era. I remember when we first started playing The Cars, and then 'Breakdown' from Tom Petty, and getting those hate calls, that 'Get that junk off the air!' type response. It's just one of the cyclic phases that this format goes through. It's been going through this alternative thing for a while, which I think will wash out one way or another in a year or two.

What kind of alternative presence is there in the Springs now?

Rich: The alternative that gets played here is mostly on college stations. You have three college stations, KRCC, which is Colorado College, the big fundraising, underwriting station in the town. KETC, the Pike's Peak Community College station, has a great broadcasting department. Most of the people that worked for me over the years came out of there, including Doug Clifton, John Bradley and Art Phillips. The instructor out there worked for me part-time for eight years. He's still out there.

Nice little farm team for the big guy.

Rich: Yes, that's where we develop a lot of our part-timers, and up-and-comers. You have the Air Force Academy station that plays pretty hard-core alternative.

With all the buzz on the format nationally, do you think college/non-commercial is where it'll stay in your town?

Rich: I would tend to think not. I agree with the comments that this is the Top 40 of the '90s and all that. We did have a station come on and go at us, alternative, and the people that had it, KCS, have the #1 country station here. So they get this little FM doing alternative, but they didn't have a clue how to sell it or how to market it on the street or anything. I knew it was just a matter of time before they pulled the plug on it and took it a different route in country, which is exactly what they did. They waited six months and the station was having an impact, and they pulled the plug on it.

How long would you say you have been in your current COR configuration?

Rich: Probably three years now.

How did you determine that the Colorado Springs market was ready for a harder rocking radio station?

Rich: This has always been a pretty hard-rocking market. That's what KILO was from the beginning. This town is a lot different from Denver.

Give me a contrast between those two markets.

Rich: The Springs is a lot more blue collar than Denver is. People here still like to think of Colorado Springs as the small town, even though things are drastically changing. We see that every day with the influx of Californians moving here. Even where I live, 25 miles up the mountain on the north side of Pike's Peak, we've seen tons of Californians and people from other parts of the country in the past year. But people still like to think of this as the small town, and it has that mentality. With all the military and all the colleges here, the 18-24 year-olds like to rock hard. A lot of people grew up with KILO and like to rock hard. I've got 40-year-old women who love Metallica.

How effectively has your heritage allowed you to sidestep those good old low-end agency prejudices?

Rich: With the major agencies, it's not a problem, thanks to Lou Mellini's involvement in the community and all the service organizations we're involved with. But we're in rock n' roll, and that's always going to carry baggage. There isn't a week that comes by that the sales person doesn't walk in here and tell me about a client that they went to and had say, 'Your listeners are all long-haired drugged-out hippies.' That isn't true. In a way, I think it's a good thing.

You're not currently consulted. Larry Bruce worked with the station for a brief period of time. Which do you prefer and why?

Rich: Consultants are double-edged swords. It's great to have somebody who has a good perspective of the industry on a national basis to be able to bounce ideas off of and to get feedback from. That's the good thing about them. I also think they have a real lack of feeling for the market. They don't spend enough time in the market to really know it. They are in for a few days and out. That caused me some conflicts with Larry Bruce. He thought one way and I thought a different way. I knew it was a great thing for the station at that time to be playing Stevie Ray Vaughan and he thought it was a bad thing.

Do you feel that consultants, in general, have an appreciation, feeling and sensitivity for the kind of radio you're doing now?

Rich: I think some of them do. Consultants are going to go in any direction they have to to make it financially.

How is your long-term faith in the kind of radio KILO's currently doing? Is COR here to stay or do you think it's a phase?

Rich: You've been around as many years as I have. I wish I had a crystal ball and could tell you. With alternative turning out to be such a big thing, I don't know how long that's going to last before it merges into one form or another.

Could you incorporate more alternative with impunity?

Rich: That's yet to be seen. I'm not concerned about what they call the music. Does it fit in with what we're doing, does it sound like music that KILO plays? If it does, we'll play it. I've had great luck with Green Day and Offspring. They've been Top 10 retail ever since we started playing them, but on the other hand, I'm not comfortable with having R.E.M. on the radio station. The people at the label — especially my local Denver guy — understand the radio station and understand why we're not playing it. We did put it in when it first came out, and now, it just doesn't feel comfortable for us.

From a record guy perspective, you have a rep as a programmer who is hard to please musically. Do you think that's deserved?

Rich: As many years as I've been doing this, it's pretty hard with the amount of things coming across my desk to hear many things that I say, 'That's killer! Let's get it right on, right now.' I usually have to listen to records several times — a lot more than I used to — to say, 'Yeah, that's a good one, let's play it.'

What's the last one that did that, that you could think of?

Rich: I think the Soundgarden was the best record of the year.

Do you worry that too many Candlebox-sounding records, back to back, could narrow up the format too much?

Rich: That's a good point. We're at the mercy of what's out there to play. What do you do when bands like Candlebox, Alice in Chains and Pearl Jam become so huge? You've got to play them. For a while, we tried to separate those, but it became such a mess, we finally said, 'I don't think it hurts us to play Pearl Jam, Alice in the Chains and the Candlebox.' But the potential of that hurting us in the long run is definitely there, and something we have to keep our eyes on.

Especially reconciling that stuff with library. That's the challenge.

Rich: No doubt. But when you look at the genre or format that we're in, most of the mainstream hard rock type bands have not had much success in the past year. Scorpions, Rush, everyone played them when they came out, but you don't see people throwing them in recurrent and keeping them there. Right now, we definitely take a second look before we decide they're the right 'automatic' for us to play. Recently, we quit doing 'Two for Tuesday.' What a hard decision that was for us, especially after we did away with it once a couple of years ago, and then ended up putting it back on. But it just got to the point that with the new bands, we didn't have the depth of catalogue to continue. We felt it had become bad baggage for us to be carrying around. You went from one day being this bright, up-tempo modern sounding station, and sounding like a classic rocker on Tuesday. With listeners' short attention spans anymore, you've got to do what you do best and do it as much of the time as you possibly can. People don't have time for these ventures into block programming.

What block programming does KIL0 still do?

Rich: One thing we've done that's successful is 'Rock Tonight' on Sunday nights with one of my jocks who's very connected with the local music scene. We bring in a lot of local bands, bands out of Denver, as well as national bands like Kyuss and Sponge. We feature a couple of their tracks and then have them pick a current that we're playing and an oldie. That program has worked well for us. It has brought the station a lot of attention. We get good press from it, and some papers up in Denver run an ad for us for it every week, advertising the fact that bands can send their material down to us and have a chance to get on the radio. Otherwise, we've just gone straight ahead format, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, except for that feature.

Do you do much dayparting?

Rich: We do some dayparting, yes. We try to keep things as open as possible.

Will you play a Corrosion of Conformity in the morning?

Rich: I play Corrosion of Conformity around the clock. That's a great record for us.

Is it my imagination, or do both radio and record types seem to cycle through your region a little quicker than most?

Rich: It's real hard for us to get a pin on local record reps anymore. We get such a big turnover, and there are so many companies that have pulled out in the past year and moved people to Phoenix or Seattle. It's almost to the point where we call it the Denver farm team. A lot of times, I'll get calls from national guys saying, 'My new guy is coming to town, educate him.' In terms of our staff, anytime you're in a medium-sized market like we are, large markets are going to come in and try to cherry-pick your staff. I've had that done so many times that it's part of the game. Right now, my staff is 32 and under. I feel like an old man. These guys were born when I graduated from high school. We have to keep fresh blood in a station like KIL0. I don't think you're ever going to have that dominant morning man who is going to stay in the market forever. It doesn't pay that much money.

Is there a dominant morning guy in the market?

Rich: If anyone dominates, it would be my morning team, and the morning guy at KKFM. He's been here longer than anybody.

You switched frequencies a year ago, right?

Rich: Yeah.

So what was that all about?

Rich: A pain in the ass.

Did the station suffer ratings-wise because of it?

Rich: Actually, the ratings went up. That's a double-edged sword situation, too, because they're doing this to a lot of stations across the country. We fought this for three or four years before it actually became reality. The stations involved that are forcing the change have to make agreements with stations to pay you a certain amount of money to promote the change. So, consequently, we ended up with a lot more money to promote the radio station than we would normally have. It allowed us to do a lot of things that we probably wouldn't have done otherwise.

It's not a mutually agreed upon deal?

Rich: The FCC, after considering all of your objections and all of their reasons for wanting you to change, makes a decision. In our case, they decided 'Yes, you will move.' And then it's up to our legal people and whoever else is involved to make an agreement as to how much money they'll compensate us to promote the change.

What kind of promotional dollars do you spend at this point? How would you rate your expenditures in contrast to the rest of the market?

Rich: We're pretty comparable to the rest of the market.

Do you do much TV?

Rich: We did some TV this year. We don't see a lot of huge marketing dollars put out by radio in the Springs. In the beginning, that's why KIL0 was successful. We came in and started doing all the things radio was doing in the larger markets that was never done here. Everyone became educated as time went by. Everyone does their billboards and their on-air cash giveaways, and TV, even though there's not a lot of TV that goes on here in radio.

They're a good live band, too. How much does playing the market affect your playlist decisions?

Rich: Corrosion of Conformity just played up in Denver last month, and we were the only station that had anything to do with the show. We sent listeners up to the show. In this kind of market, you've got to get them when they are young and just coming up because after they reach a certain point, you'll never see them in this market again. When the Black Crowes were coming up, we had them play here three times. Candlebox played here three times. Will they ever be back? I doubt it.

Are the labels pretty good about following through with promotional support?

Rich: Yes, they're good about that. Especially when we get behind an act like Corrosion of Conformity. We're also really behind Sponge at this point. They are coming and doing a show for us this weekend. We try to get those things going. KIL0 has always been the kind of station to step out on bands like that and take a song like the Corrosion of Conformity and play it 25 or 30 times a week, and the same thing with Sponge. We support the show and get the act in here and make it happen for our listeners when we can.

Do you find the heavily 18-24 military population sells a lot of product for you?

Rich: Those guys go out and buy records, yeah, but one of the things that's frustrating for us is that those people will never be rated in this market. I saw a report a while ago that said we have one of the lowest in tab returns of 18-24 year olds in the country. I don't know if you read the article by Dennis Constantine in R&R this week, where he talked about how the male sampling problems really affect stations like ours and the Triple As he consults. For instance, something like 8.8% of the market here is 18-24 males, and yet the last Arbitron we had a 4 point something return of diaries. You see that every time and just shake your head. We had the same thing with the 25-34s this last Arbitron, too.

What do you make of the The Peak/KBCO battle? Are you surprised that The Peak has come on as strong as it has?

Rich: It's going to be a real struggle for KBCO. John Bradley is a smart guy. If anybody can knock that station off, John can do it. He knows that station inside and out, as well as anybody. I try to listen to both stations on a regular basis, but I have a hard time listening to them. I'm in this business, and a lot of the music they play I don't recognize.

What do you think of KBPI in its current configuration?

Rich: KBPI is running it pretty tight. Bob Richards is being fairly conservative, but they rock pretty hard. He doesn't take as many chances as we do by any means.

Are they rocking as hard as when Betts was there?

Rich: They probably rock as hard, or harder than when Betts was there. I think that the last few months Bill was there he was mainstreaming the station quite a bit, trying to get some of his audience back that had gone over to the classic rock station. So that station changed quite a bit from what it was in the heyday when Bill first went up there — basically it took the market by storm.

What did he do that worked so well?

Rich: Before Bill arrived, I had watched that battle between KAZY and KBPI for so many years. One of the reasons KBCO became such a big ratings monster up in Denver was that KBPI and KAZY both gave it to them. They alienated listeners over and over again by flip-flopping the format. One year one of them would sound like a pop AOR, and the next year they'd be a hard AOR, then they'd be a mellow AOR — and this went on for years. Bill went up there and took it straight ahead and rocked, and no one had done that there for a long time. He did a lot of good things.

Speaking of Bills, you and McGathy have worked together for a very long time, haven't you?

Rich: Bill understands what we're doing very well. He's been in the market and has listened to the radio station. Bill gets things done. Bill takes care of business, sometimes a lot faster than I can get my local Denver guys to take care of business. That's what makes Bill Bill, and what makes him so successful.

Has the musical chairs thing in Denver really been a big problem in terms of the promotional people?

Rich: It has. It isn't anything for those positions to turn over on a yearly basis. Only two guys, Michael Brannan at Warner Brothers and Dick Merckle at A&M, have been there for any length of time. Otherwise, I've got musical chairs going on every year up there. Being here as long as I have, local guys who were in Denver are now national guys, like Naumann and Gmeiner and Linehan, and all those guys. When you know the top, why mess with the middle?

Yeah, and of all the former Denver locals, who deals out the most intense phone calls? Naumann?

Rich: Yeah. I can't imagine what a rookie programmer in this business would do with Naumann. He'd probably tell him 'Kiss my ass.' We've had our run-ins before, but we always come back and we're friends. I've known Jeffrey for 15 years.

Would you consider doing promotion, putting that crusty, sardonic side of you on hold through an entire dinner or lunch?

Rich: No, I couldn't do promotion. What it comes down to is a sales job. I hate sales. I learned a great hate for sales when I was GM here. It's just not my thing. I'm not the kind of person that can go out and kiss people's asses.

You had to put on a suit and all that?

Rich: Yep. Cut my hair, put on a suit, all that stuff. I'm a radio programmer, I'm a music person. Using creativity is what I love to do, and going out on the street and trying to hit up people to spend their money, it's just not my thing.

If you were a promotion guy, how would you work a guy like yourself? How would you handle the Hawkman?

Rich: I'm pretty set in my ways. The guys that have the most success are the guys that come in and lay their product on the table and say, 'Here's what we've got. Give it a listen and see if it will fit in on your station.' I don't have a problem with them calling back and saying, 'You're not playing this record, but this is what is happening on a national basis.' That's always information I'm glad to accept, but it doesn't mean it's going to change my mind either.

What do you think KIL0 does best — looking at the market situation, looking at the national situation?

Rich: KIL0 puts on a good, tight rockin' presentation and has fun with it. I stress that with my jocks all the time, 'Look, if we're not having fun, we're not doing what we should be doing. This is not brain surgery, this is fun. Let's get on and have fun.' We try to project that image at all times.

What do you think you could improve on?

Rich: We can improve in a lot of different areas. We're all doing several different jobs in this market situation. I can be involved any minute or any hour in ten different things in this radio station — from engineering to sitting in the GM's office making personnel decisions. What we have to do is get everybody focused all the time. Make sure that what we're doing is what's working. I tell my staff all the time, 'If we're playing a song that's not working, you're as responsible for that as I am.' We're all involved in that decision-making process. I value my people's opinions, and I call on them a lot. They're all people who are hanging out in the clubs. I don't do that anymore and I need to know what's going on on the street. They are the ones that can tell me.

Live, "Horse," Radioactive Santa Flash came early this year, bringing Triple A the gift of Live in the form of a CD single featuring the hidden track "Horse," and acoustic versions of "Selling The Drama" and "I Alone," custom made for the format. Greg Roberts KFMU, "What a knock-me-over! After I heard 'Horse' for the first time, I immediately picked up the phone and called Fleischman. It's such a neat track, I didn't even hear it on the album itself so it was a real surprise." Dave

Leonard, "I love the acoustic versions. Women keep calling me on it, and my wife loves it. This gives me a chance to play something off the album. I've already gotten good response on it after just playing it a few times." Don Ferrell KRVM, "Live are never a disappointment. They have proven themselves to be one of the foremost bands on the music scene today. Heavy phones for Live here at KRVM." Bruce Ranes WXPN, "These acoustic versions will get a lot of mileage at AAA. Live are going to play here at the World Cafe, performing the acoustic songs and 'Horse,' along with some other surprises. We expect the segment to run early January. We love Live here! It is always a pleasure to work with them."

The Hot Corner

Lyle Lovett, "Just The Morning," MCA We know, there are just too many good songs on the new Lyle Lovett album and you can't decide which one to play next. Consider this a hint: Dean Carlson KMTT, "'Just The Morning' is a perfect song for Seattle with references to the almighty bean (coffee). Lyle did a really cool version live, and we love it and everything he does here." Don

Ferrell KRVM, "When I saw Lyle in concert here in Eugene, he played the song 'Just The Morning' and it stopped the whole crowd in their tracks. It is an amazing song, and the very next morning I added it! This song moves me, and Lyle is absolutely the man." Greg Roberts KFMU, "The bigger Lyle's hair gets, the bigger his popularity, and this track proves it. By the way, has anyone seen Lyle Lovett and Kramer from 'Seinfeld' together?" Steve Cole KSPN, "As with much of the rest of the album, it is a moody piece that draws you in as a little emotional drama is played out. Many of the vignettes on the album seem to end too soon, just as you're getting into them; this is the longest piece on the album at 4 1/2 minutes. Time for me to at least heat up my cup of coffee, and have a couple of sips." Jon Peterson WCBF, "Mellow, introspective, but never boring. This thoughtful, toe-tapper chugs away with a great hook and a nice 'live in the studio' feeling."

Fear of Falling, "Tree," Soh Records Tree, the third album release in four years by Fear of Falling, is a set of appealing pop rockers, featuring soaring vocals, melody hooks, and an uplifting, rolling beat. The album begins with a stage-setting instrumental, "Don't Get Me Started," leading to "The City of Hope," an impassioned lover's plea, and the upbeat, celebratory "So What If I Am." One of the strangest and most interesting cuts is "Saint Valentine's Day," using voice synthesizers and heavy bass feedback to create hellish images. The band consists of Simon Quiss (guitar, vocals), Steve Lanni (vocals, guitar), Bruce DiBiscegli (bass, vocals) and Rob Savoy (drums). They will start a three-week tour of the U.K. and Germany in the beginning of the year, and look for them on tour on the Eastern Seaboard over the next few months. For more information and a copy of the album, call Soh Records at (201) 438-0007 (and look for the track "Vavo" on Rubino's next BLAST sampler).

HEAR THE BUZZ?

It's Boxing Gandhis! Hard Triple A Albums 38* (288 Spins!)

"Boxing Gandhis prove that funk is a real live breathing force. The record is contemporary, it's relevant, and our listeners say it sounds great on the air. And if you don't believe that funk doesn't matter anymore, ask Apple Computers why they put George Clinton up front."

Mike Elcessor, WYEP/Pittsburgh

I've got a hair appointment in two minutes, haven't eaten all day, my lunch is in front of me, and yet I'm willing to drop everything to rave on, and rave loud about exciting soul stylings of Boxing Gandhis. Already a huge hit here at KSPN, and only the tip of the iceberg with 'If You Love Me,' and 'Stranded' the early faves. Thank God for people with the foresight of Bud Harner."

Single Spotlight

Widespread Panic, "Can't Get High." Capricorn Sybil McGuire WMMM, "This is my favorite track on the album, and we've been playing it since the beginning." Shawn Taylor WWAY, "We are playing a couple of cuts off the album, 'Airplane', and 'Ain't Like Grand.' We've been on it since the beginning of September, and we love it. We will be on the third cut over the holidays. Widespread Panic is very popular here, with great phones." Ian Taylor WKVT "The whole album is hot! Widespread Panic should definitely get the attention that they deserve." Mike Richter KBXR "The project for us is working very well. I really like the album. To me, this is probably their best to date. This could very well be the project of '95." Dave Leonard WKZE, "This is great stuff! Widespread Panic rocks." Dean Carlson KMTT "Unbelievable show here in Seattle! They played for three hours. 'Can't Get High' is a great song live, it gives us another side of Widespread Panic."

Yuletide Offerings

You Sleigh Me So This Is Christmas. Atlantic Leave it to the jolly folks at Atlantic to get us into the spirit of the season. They gathered some of the artists together from their impressive roster for a couple of CDs, and they've come up with some eclectic versions of traditional favorites. Hootie & the Blowfish do an outstanding cover of "The Christmas Song" that only Nat himself could top. Bad Religion bring "Silent Night" to life, occasionally slipping into a "My Sharona" riff. One of our longtime favorite artists, Mary Karzen (who is about to release her stellar Atlantic debut to Triple A), contributes a spirited "Run Run Rudolph." Victoria Williams adds a quirky "Have Yourself A Merry Little Christmas" to the mix, and Melissa Ferrick does an emotional version of "White Christmas." Rounding out the shining mix is Tori Amos' now classic "Little Drummer Boy," Billy Pilgrim with "Let It Snow," Collective Soul's "Blue Christmas," multi-talented Daniel Johnston (who is also responsible for the cover art) with "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer," Evan Dando's acoustic "Silent Night," "25th December" by Everything But The Girl, "Make It Home" by Juliana Hatfield, and Jill Sobule's "Xmas Song", an ironic look at a family Christmas gathering in the '90s.

Melissa Etheridge, "Happy Xmas (War Is Over) Give Peace A Chance." Island Melissa Etheridge has had a golden year. Her album, Yes I Am, sold over a million copies, she blew them away at Woodstock '94, and her seemingly non-stop tour continues to be sold-out. Covering John Lennon's Christmas classic is the perfect way for her to end this impressive year. There are few artists who can do justice to the song, but Melissa's impassioned vocals are a custom fit. It is an obvious pick for this and every other format for years to come.

Bruce Cockburn, "1994 Christmas Sampler." Columbia Christmas wouldn't be Christmas without Bruce Cockburn planting visions of sugarplums in our heads. The latest yuletide contribution from the Prince of Triple A came to us in the form of a sampler containing some old releases and some new ones. The first track is a 30-second acoustic, "Joy To The World," followed by a gospel sing-along, "Mary Had A Baby." "I Saw Three Ships," with its rich textured accompaniment, is followed by his wonderful minstrel-like version of "God Rest Ye Merry Gentleman." The final track is the beautiful, rolling "Lord Of The Starfields."

"Miracle On 34th Street." Fox While we still think that the re-make of "Miracle On 34th Street" starring David Hartman (of "Good Morning America" fame) is absolutely the best movie of all time, we do admit that the soundtrack to this current film is abundantly superior to that of the '70s classic. After all, it features one of Triple A's preeminent artists, Sarah McLachlan, singing a haunting and beautiful rendition of Gordon Lightfoot's "Song For A Winter's Night." Other gems on this noteworthy album include Natalie Cole doing her famous version of "Jingle Bells," Ray Charles swinging through "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town," and even Elvis Presley singing "Santa Claus Is Back In Town."

Graham Parker, "Christmas Cracker." Dakota Arts Graham Parker brightens the cold winter days of December with a trio of songs on Christmas Cracker, all featuring excellent backing musicians. "Christmas Is For Mugs", done in the classic Parker folk ballad style, is a melancholy, black-humored song filled with that clever British wit and sardonic lyrics. "New Year's Revolution" is a direct, We-Are-The-World appeal to do more to improve our world than "sing those old sweet songs," with the important message being to "make it forever a New Year's revolution of love." "Soul Christmas" is a light-hearted R&B duet with Nona Hendryx, fantasizing a Christmas gathering with the likes of Sam and Dave, Mary Wells, James Brown, etc.

Jerry Jeff Walker, "Christmas Gonzo Style." Rykodisc Jerry Jeff Walker brings his "gonzo" style to the Christmas season with a good-time rendition of some traditional favorites. He does an excellent straight-up version of "I'm Dreaming of a White Christmas," with wonderful use of pedal steels. "I'll Be Home For Christmas" is another heartfelt song handled with care, and there's a catchy honky-tonk rendition of "Walkin' In A Winter Wonderland." Of course, Jerry likes to have fun, and there are plenty of those songs, including some aimed at the younger set ("Santa Claus Is Coming To Town", "Jingle Bells," "Frosty The Snowman"). The signature "gonzo" style is evident in "Here Comes Santa Claus," "Jingle Bell Rock," and his special cowboy version of "The Twelve Days Of Christmas." The album ends with a jolly chorus of "We Wish You A Merry Christmas."

"A Live Christmas Extravaganza." DEKO Music From our neck of the woods, this live album benefits the Community Food Bank of New Jersey. For the past few years, musicians have put on an annual "Christmas Extravaganza" at the famous Stone Pony in Asbury Park, and the best of these performances have been captured on the album. The impressive roster includes Marshall Crenshaw, Syd Straw, Willie Nile, The Health & Happiness Show, Tommy Conwell, Mindy Jostyn, and Glen Burtnik, and a rockin' spin on classics like "Winter Wonderland," "Christmas Twist," "Run Rudolph Run," and "Boogie Woogie Santa." If you need a copy of the CD, call Alan Douches or Mike Cleary at DEKO (201) 928-0980.

The Roches, "We Three Kings." Rykodisc The Roches are re-releasing their popular Christmas album, We Three Kings. Featuring their unique three-part harmonies, the sisters sing 24 songs of the season, ranging from religious hymns ("Away In A Manger," "O Little Town Of Bethlehem") to playful winter songs ("Sleigh Ride," "Frosty The Snowman"). Highlights include "Jingle Bells," sung in round fashion, "Good Kings Wenceslas," a pleasant acoustic version, and "We Three Kings," the title cut, featuring western-style acoustic guitar and a haunting intro.

Natalie Cole, "Holly & Ivy." Elektra If you like your Christmas music sweet and pure as the driven snow, Natalie Cole's Christmas release, Holly & Ivy, is the perfect solution. The album begins with the happy "Jingle Bells," followed by the joyful "Caroling, Caroling." The tone lowers for a reverent rendering of "The First Noel," which leads to a poignant love song, "No More Blue Christmas." The horns come to life for the "Christmas Medley" a swingtime/jazz rendition of "Jingle Bell Rock/Winter Wonderland/Little Drummer Boy/I'll Be Home For Christmas." The album continues in this vein, including old favorites "Joy To The World," "Silent Night," and a powerful version of the classic her father brought to life, "The Christmas Song."

Saffire -
the Uppity
Blues Women

"Old, New, Borrowed and Blue"

Alligator Records

Rich Gordon, WXRX Rockford, IL

"Old, New, Borrowed and Blue" is the fourth release by Saffire - the Uppity Blues Women on Alligator. With this collection of songs, these blues women pay tribute to "the artists who've helped influence our unique style of the blues." Ma Rainey, Jelly Roll Morton, Mama Thorton, Bonnie Raitt, Lonnie Mack are just a few of the many credited as influential. This disc features some fine acoustic blues. Close your eyes, set the way back machine for a journey into the past and enjoy the ride. These are the kind of songs you imagine hearing in a dance hall with a brothel upstairs. Favored with some very tasty originals, the Uppity Blues Women bring you back to the 90's with songs with real bite. These ladies do their thing with a definite attitude...a blues attitude and it shows in the delivery of these gems. This effort marks the debut of the very talented Andra Faye McIntosh on acoustic bass, mandolin, guitar, fiddle and vocals. The song selection covers all the bases with some interesting surprises. I was impressed by the Lonnie Mack tune "Falling Back in Love with You." The harmonica on "Life Goes On" truly captures the moment. The piano work throughout this CD is simply outstanding. Hats off to Sam Fishkin for the excellent job he did in recording the disc. There is only one thing better and that's the live performance of these tunes. When the Uppity Blues Women come to your area, you have to make the date.

Debbie Davies

"Loose Tonight"

Blind Pig Records

Rich Gordon, WXRX Rockford, IL

From the opening guitar on track one, this disc kicks. "Loose Tonight" is the second release from Debbie Davies on Blind Pig Records. A strong second effort, Debbie shows that she learned well from the years of playing with the late great Albert Collins. No longer in the background, she fronts a tight band that delivers smokin' blues. Her straightforward approach holds nothing back; this is the real thing. Add the Miami Horns, some great harp work from Greg "Fingers" Taylor and season with a band that cooks and you end up with a CD that sizzles. This blues woman cuts thru all the fluff with a fresh direct delivery. Her strong vocals compliment her playing for the complete blues package. These eleven songs will help establish Debbie Davies as one of today's great blues players.

Kelly Joe
Phelps

"Lead Me On"

Burnside
Records

Jonny Meister, host of "The Blues Show" on WXPB Philadelphia and WKHS Worton, Maryland

Kelly Joe Phelps plays the blues with a magical, almost crystalline beauty. In the past three months, Phelps' album "Lead Me On" on the Burnside label has made the phones ring in my air studio more than any record in recent memory. Burnside Records recently contacted me to say that they have been getting half a dozen calls a day just from my listeners about Phelps. The object of this mini-phenomenon is a soft-spoken resident of the Pacific Northwest who plays a lap steel guitar with his left leg up on an old wooden wine box called a "stomp box" for percussion. Fred McDowell's influence is clearly evident, but in Phelps' hands the rough, back country style acquires a gem-like luster. Phelps is a highly spiritual — if not overtly religious — person, and it is that spiritual essence that drives both his own compositions and his covers of old songs by Skip James, Joe Calicott, and others. He prefers exploring the mysteries of existence to the ups and downs of romantic love. His songs find him asking for guidance from God — or someone like him — or wandering around at midnight looking for his grave. When Phelps does get into romantic love, he chooses poetic material such as Joe Calicott's 1930 "Fare Thee Well Blues" and imbues it with a sparkling quality that brings out new dimension in the song. (Check out the original on Yazoo's new "Mississippi Masters" CD.) "Lead Me On" is a must for every blues program that plays any acoustic or country blues at all, and, even if you don't usually play country blues, this disc is more than worthy of being the exception to the rule.

Programmer Spotlight

Peter Simon

host of the syndicated "Peter Simon's Blues Jam"

You've had a tremendous first year for your show. You're now working with some top-notch stations in some great markets. Tell us about your success. Are you surprised?

Any time that you take two hours and feature the blues, you can't be surprised about success. I like to think that the quality of the program along with the quality of the people and stations involved are what constitute our success. You're only as good as your weakest link.

What's your show like? A feature-filled extravaganza!!!

There are only four generic songs per hour, the rest are involved with features like, "Who Took What From Whom," "Blues Artist Of The Week," "Blues From The Attic," "New Blues Spotlight," "Jamming On A Subject" and "Axehandler Of The Week."

Do you have a typical listener?

Other than men and women 18-49, our listeners have a wide range of backgrounds, from doctors to sod layers.

Do you have any programming tips to share?

Have fun with it and play it from the heart.

What are your upcoming plans?

We've got some great promotions coming up in '95. We are looking to add more artist interviews and I'm looking forward to the network opportunities on the URBC 3 in January.

How can a station find out more about your show?

Favorite power tool?

Apple Mac Pro Tool with a 2 gig drive.

Call Charlie Brandt or Dan Forth at MediaStar International (212)764-0505, or call me at (614)237-BLUE.

Blues Blackboard

Dave Johnson

host of the nationally-syndicated "Blues Deluxe" radio program

The Buddah Heads will probably do for you what they did to me: elicit an initial "not bad," and then proceed to leave you hungry for more. Take it from an experienced BH listener, go directly to cuts five and six on your initial listen. "Brother Cain" is a strong starter (I would have made it cut #1!) and "House of Shame," which follows, vies for one of the better slow blues numbers that I've heard in some time.

Queensryche, "Bridge" (EMI)

Over the past few years Queensryche has emerged as one of those acts that fans can rely on to consistently release quality material - even if we have to wait a long time for it. The latest release, Promised Land, is no exception and even with "I Am I" still getting tons of airplay, the latest single "Bridge" has been getting rave reviews from COR radio since the album came out. Some of the 27 early birds who are already on it include KBER, KZAK, KILO, WHMH, KUPD, WVCR, and WAAF, whose Ron Valeri tells us "We've been on it for weeks, and with an instant phone response, it's an obvious hit! This is not a bridge track, it's the real thing!" Matching his excitement is Joe Bevilacqua of WDZR who also "played 'Bridge' when we first got the album, we caught the strong lyrics immediately, this is my favorite track on the album!" The powerful emotions that are conveyed within this song would tug at the heart of anybody, but the compelling melody and the vocal harmonies are what ultimately pull in the listener. The multi-demographic appeal of Queensryche is the trump card for the band and was the aspect that ultimately appealed to Sherry McKinnon of KICT who "likes very much the wider daypart appeal" of "Bridge". If you haven't crossed the bridge yet on this phenomenal track, now is the time.

Stone Temple Pilots, "Unglued" (Atlantic)

We've lost track of the number of weeks that "Interstate Love Song" has been at #1 on the COR chart, but at this point it becomes obvious that Stone Temple Pilots are here to stay and judging by requests and sales the listening audiences out there in radioland clearly want to hear them. The newest song will keep your audience unglued - just like it did when they played it live this summer - and brings us back to the sharp churning guitars that first brought them attention with "Sex Type Thing". "Unglued" is a quick, unpretentious, and aggressive song that will immediately shoot into your head, and apparently is starting up the charts with airplay at 17 stations already. It doesn't seem like a tough choice, at least to Darren Johnson of KEZE who assesses that "This is the year that they broke out of the pack, with that success 'Unglued' got instant consideration." Another station that is impressed is WBTZ whose Troy Hanson comments that, "They are a cool band, and Purple is a phenomenal record. This is an easy pick for next week." "No-brainer" is the term to use on this one.

Dink, "Green Mind" (Capitol)

This is one new band that we know couldn't escape your attention, because you had to pull out your sunglasses to gaze upon the neon green artwork, but hey it should be no problem to find the single among a pile of CDs. Hailing from Kent, Ohio, which is nearby Cleveland, the band created their own following with their quirky style, edgy riffs, and pessimistic yet fun attitude. By creating their own 5 song EP, they sold 10,000 copies and garnered airplay on WENZ in Cleveland, it was those efforts that sparked the major label interest. The poppy, techno laden manner will liven up any music set, so don't let Alternative be the only ones to enjoy their unique angle on things. Troy Hanson at WBTZ described Dink as "pretty funky, very interesting" and decided to step out early on their original sound. So stay alert for soon you will see "Green Mind"'s popping up all over the place as Dink infiltrates the airwaves.

Page/Plant, "Thank You" (Atlantic)

No one ever thought it would happen, but when Robert Plant and Jimmy Page sat down for the performance that would end up as the No Quarter release, they not only paid tribute to their past, but created a keepsake for the future. There is something magical about watching those two legends perform together, and with AOR and COR jumping on a variety of different tracks, one that seems to have risen to the top is "Thank You" a remake of a Zeppelin classic that Ron Valeri of WAAF calls "better than the original". Sherry McKinnon also hopped on "Thank You" right away stating that, "We have touched many songs on the album, but we played that song right away." With increases this week at KIOZ, KISS, WHMH, WLZR, WRCN, WRZK and WXKE and four new adds, this soft acoustic musical journey can go into any daypart to mesmerize the listener with its dreamy quality. With the heritage stronger than British Royalty and this rare performance, your audience will surely thank you when you play this song!

PHOTOS

It looks like KNAC had a big party and we weren't invited! Actually all these fun-loving people were all smiles because they were hanging with Epic's latest discovery KoRn, who are getting rave reviews from all who see and hear them! Having way too much fun in this picture are Malcolm Ryker (KNAC); Cheryl Valentine (Epic); Jonathan Davis, David, and J. Munkey Schaffer (KoRn), Val Serrano (KNAC); Paul Pontius & Erik Jarvi (Immortal Records); and Remy (KLOS).

Well, it looks like Malcolm Ryker of KNAC is travelling in style with his Harley Davidson and showing it off to Jonathan Davis from KoRn. We were impressed!

METAL Pick

Demon Knight, Tales From the Crypt Soundtrack (Big Screen/Atlantic)

Just when you thought that the year was going to slip out quietly without any more major releases, think again, because Atlantic is sending us a killer movie soundtrack, this time for Demon Knight, the first full length movie release to come from the Tales From The Crypt series. You would think that Halloween would be the most likely time to unleash their horrific fables onto the unsuspecting public, but with the huge cult following that Tales From the Crypt enjoys, any time of the year is ideal to bring the film into the mainstream. Leading the way is a soundtrack that will leave metal radio torn as to which song to play rather than wondering if they should play it. Featuring new music from the Melvins, Sepultura, Rollins Band, Megadeth, Biohazard, Machine Head, and Ministry, plus a remixed version of the intense Pantera track, "Cemetery Gates". All of the songs give you the feeling of imminent danger, but each artist conveys this menace with their own flair. The Megadeth donation, "Diadems", is a slower paced crunching snarl, with a melody that holds enough compelling hooks to make the song more than worthy enough for inclusion on Youthanasia, but instead was held out for Demon Knight. One of the most anticipated releases of next year is the upcoming Ministry offering, but for a chipper holiday surprise you can give your listeners an advance peek at their new material with "Tonight We Murder", a diabolical assault from Jourgensen's unstoppable machine. As one of the most promising new acts of the year, we are glad to see Machine Head included here with what seems to be the title cut of the movie - "My Misery (Demon Knight)" - which is chock full of chunky grooves and the commanding vocals of Robb Flynn. Another popular choice will be the contribution from Biohazard with "Beaten", another angry street-ready song straight from their world and (judging by the huge response to them this year) straight onto your airwaves. So, while the holiday season commences, most people will be hearing tales of sugar plums and eight tiny reindeer, we will be enjoying Tales From the Crypt, or at least the music that Demon Knight brings us.

TOP Picks

Biohazard, "After Forever," Nativity in Black (Columbia)

What better combination can there be than having one of this year's biggest performers - Biohazard - translating a song from one of the godfather's of heavy metal - Black Sabbath. The latest offering from Nativity in Black is their Brooklynized version of the Sabbath classic about death and the after-life, "After Forever". The Nativity In Black tribute not only highlights the career of a groundbreaking band, but also showcases some of the biggest names in hard rock, and Biohazard has been one of the most visible artists this year, appearing on artists panels at both Foundations and New Music Seminar, touring with Pantera, House of Pain and now, on their own headlining tour, and exposure at both radio and MTV. This single offers three versions of the song: the original LP version, an edited version of the original, and the shorter video edit. The tandem vocals and grinding rhythms that are characteristically Biohazard, dominate the song but the essential personality of the song is preserved, making "After Forever" a fitting tribute.

Testament, "Dog Faced Gods" (Atlantic)

This has been a year in which a lot of the crunch has been put back into music, and Testament has led the pack. After some time off from recording (the band did spend quite a bit of time touring), and a few line-up changes, adding James Murphy on guitars and John Tempesta on drums (who has since been replaced by John Dette), the electrified version of the band came raging back with Low. The response from metal radio was unanimous and steadfastly positive from the start, as their top ten standing will attest to. The newest track for you to spin is "Dog Faced Gods", one of heaviest choices from Low, with Chuck Billy utilizing both the guttural strength and the powerful resonance of his voice. Also included on this single are two covers - the first of which is the Aerosmith classic "Draw the Line", and the second is of the obscure Scorpions track "Walls of Charon" - to give you even more programming options as they near your town on their current tour with Downset and Red Square Black in tow. Don't wait any longer, if your listeners want their Testament (and we think they do) then move "Dog Faced Gods" onto your show right away!

50 Lashes, Harder (Dr. Dream)

Now that the major release schedule has slowed down a bit for the holiday season, some of the talented music from the independent labels that has been slipping through the cracks is now starting to get some attention. One of those bands is 50 Lashes, who have been able to pull in adds at 21 stations and airplay at KIOZ, WBAU, WBZT, WEOS, and WWVU. Hailing from the Bay area, this band has not only spent years gigging together but they have grown together, and with their punk attitude and thrash style complete with infectious crunch grooves and double time rhythms, they have already found many new fans. Some of the catchier picks include "Real Bad Days", "This World", and "D.D.A.", so if you are tired of looking for a hard hitting new band don't punish yourself, put 50 Lashes on your playlist instead.

METAL Filings

At the top of your list of things to do today would have to be to add Demon Knight, the Tales From the Crypt soundtrack (courtesy of the Atlantic Records Metal Department) today! The disc features the likes of Sepultura, Rollins Band, Megadeth, Biohazard, the Melvins, Machine Head, and Ministry, plus an amazing remixed version of Pantera's "Cemetery Gates"... Chuck Billy and Co. aren't gonna let metal radio listeners have a quiet holiday, not with the arrival of the Testament (Atlantic) three song CD-pro. The disc features emphasis cut "Dog Faced Gods", along with covers of Aerosmith's "Walk the Line" and the Scorpions' "The Walls of Charon". Add 'em, then play 'em today... In case your station happens to be one of the few who haven't already given substantial air-time to some cuts from Nativity in Black (Columbia), then you need to make sure and make room for the Biohazard version of "After Forever". The tune arrives in threes — the CD-pro contains the radio edit, the LP version and the LP/beep version — and is ready for air-play, so add it December 2nd and 3rd... Arriving in stores just in time for the gift giving season is the Mighty Morphin Power Ranger's The Album: A Rock Adventure. The CD or cassette is available from Saban's Cool Kids Records/TW Kids and features eleven songs from the #1 kid show in America. Quick — get you or your favorite kid a copy of the record today... For those of you are into either the Interview With A Vampire movie or the Guns N' Roses remake of the Rolling Stones' "Sympathy For The Devil" heard at the end of the flick, you can pick up your very own copy of the soundtrack (put out via Geffen Records) December 20th... By the way, Sacred Reich (Hollywood) are continuing to work on their follow-up to Independent in their hometown of Phoenix, Arizona... Make a note that the Animal Bag (Mercury) single, "Stupidity", will make an appearance for metal radio play in January of '95, with the full length disc to follow in February... For your information, Eleven (Hollywood) are currently completing their studio time for their next recording. A sample of the new stuff will be heard in early '95... Metal radio will be serviced the new harder rockin' Extreme (A&M) album, Waiting For The Punchline, in February of '95. The first single taken from the album is "Hip Today", which is slated for service and air-play in January... Into Another will be heading to Seattle in the coming weeks to record their debut disc for Hollywood Records with producer Rick Parashar (of Pearl Jam, Temple Of The Dog, Blind Melon fame). Word has it the band, and the label, are shooting for an early spring release of the material. Keep your eyes peeled for the arrival an Into Another 7" (courtesy of Revelation Records) that will benefit PETA (that would be People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals). The vinyl will contain outtakes from Ignaurus and a remixed version of "Poison Fingers"... It looks like L.A. Guns (A&M) return to the metal front in March (tentatively) with the release of the Vicious Circle album. More on that at a later date... This is the deal, Monster Magnet (A&M) have finished their next record and it's called Dopes To Infinity. The band recruited Alan Molder to mix the project. The first single to come from the disc will be "Teenage Negasonic Warhead" — yes, the same song found on the S.E.W. soundtrack but a much more polished version of it — and, it will arrive as part of a 4 song EP prior to the March 28th release of the full length album. Got all that?!... Finally, Seaweed (Hollywood) are hiding out in a cabin in Washington writing material for their new record. 🤘🤘🤘🤘 On the touring front, the final date of the extraordinary Stabbing Westward (Columbia) and Killing Joke (Zoo) double billing is December 7th in New York City at Irving Plaza. Be there, or be square... Fates Warning (Metal Blade) and Dream Theater (EastWest) wrap up their current tour with stops December 5th in Tempe, Arizona; December 6th in Las Vegas, Nevada; the 8th in Santa Ana, California; and finally, on the 9th in Hollywood, California... If you are like me and happen to be into the four-some known as Live (Radioactive), then you will glad to know that the band have booked shows in Pennsylvania — December 6th in Lancaster, the 14th in Allentown, and on the 15th in Pittsburgh... Look for KoRn (Epic/Immortal) to wander 'round through the month of December on a thirteen date tour with the Deftones. Shows have been booked from a December 2nd kick off in Sacramento, California until a show on the 17th in San Diego, California... As part of their never ending, high energy tour, DGeneration (EMI) have embarked on the southern portion of their winter tour. Shows run throughout December — F.Y.I. the Hard tour guide has all the dates and cities... Be sure and catch a sneak peak of Souls At Zero (Energy) as they wander stateside throughout the month of December, from the 9th to the 31st to be exact. Flip to the tour guide for more specifics. Remember now, the band have new stuff arriving early on in the new year, featuring the stixmanship of newest member Jamie Miller... If you happen to be into the Skatenigs (Red Light) and in the New York/Philadelphia area, then you should check the band out as they drop by J.C. Dobbs in Philly on December 3rd, before heading up to the Limelight in NYC on the 4th... Monster Voodoo Machine (D-Tribe/RCA) continue their industrial strength trek thru' the states with shows booked December 6th in Salt Lake City, Utah; the 7th in Denver, Colorado; the 18th in Phoenix, Arizona; and finally, on the 21st with a stop in Corona, California. Make a note that Fear Factory (Roadrunner) will be joining them on the shows the 18th and 21st... A couple shows featuring Planet Hate (Energy) and Dead Orchestra (Chokehit) have been booked for a December 16th stop in Syracuse, New York and a December 17th showing in Erie, Pennsylvania... Tesla (Geffen) have made plans to travel to Europe in January of '95 to debut their Bust A Nut material live, then head back to the states for a U.S. tour in early March. If you can't wait until then to get some visual Jeff Keith and crew stimulation, the band have put the finishing touches on their new video for "Need Your Lovin'". Look for it to air on your favorite video channel... In other television type news, Hole (DGC) are scheduled to drop by and perform on Saturday Night Live December 17th — with George Foreman hosting the show. 🤘🤘🤘🤘 Just so you know, Mike Melbye (of KIBZ/Lincoln) has a friend who is starting a local fanzine based in Minneapolis, Minnesota called Monsters. To get them info on your band or to write guest reviews call Robert Gregg at (612) 379-7055...

I just have to tell ya that Monster Voodoo Machine rule! We caught the band as they stopped in Philly for a show with Pigface and they rocked our world. It was cool hanging with the guys, and ultra cool to see Steve, Lauren, Mark, Greg, Michelle, and Co. You, too, can catch the Voodoo Machine as they travel the rock road. 🤘🤘🤘🤘 C-ya. Peace.

Yes folks, it WDBM's Dave Ciancio again, this time striking one of the metal poses that made the KISS-meister Gene Simmons famous. That's right, this is the face of rock n' roll at it's finest, right here in the Hard report courtesy of that wild and crazy guy up in East Lansing, Michigan.

In the midst of their current trek across the states with Pungent Stench and Acid Bath, Brutal Truth members Kevin Sharp and Dan Lilker joined Earache's own Meg MacRae in the WMWM studios for some quality time with radio type Derek Kouyoumjian.

Our final Kodak moment was taken when Into Another took control of the WMWR studios during Koob's two hours of metal mayhem. Brewski's abound for Tony Bono, Richie Birkenhead, Hollywood's Dyana Kass, Drew Thomas, WMWR's Ray Koob and Peter Moses.

Okay, we're assuming that Into Another's Richie Birkenhead wasn't really going to serve eyeball for dinner when the band gathered with WGLS' Andy Gradel and his friend (known only to us as the Wonderstud) recently in Philly.

ALTERNATIVE PICK

SMASH

S*M*A*S*H, "Oh! Ovary," Vernon Yard/Hut

Coming out strong from England, this band has been receiving considerable attention over the past year. Members of the English underground scene that has recently swelled to massive levels, S*M*A*S*H has become press faves as their brand of hard, quixotic pop has grabbed hold of the British psyche. Part of this stems from their 65-date British tour early this year, playing the small clubs and charging the cheap admissions. In fact, Billy Corgan caught one of their gigs and was so enamored with the band that a day later the band opened for the Pumpkins at their gig at the Astoria. You might be familiar with the band's EP, which was released here in the States over the summer. The band blends humor and attitude along with a totally acerbic musical punch.

ALTERNATIVE CHOICE

Golden Palominos, "Little Suicides," Restless

So, what next for the band with a rich history and reputation for musical artistry and progression? Well, how about a beefy KROQ add, and floodgates about to be opened? Pure, their seventh record, follows the lead introduced in last year's This Is How It Feels, maintaining the emphasis on atmospheric and lush (though subtle) musical arrangements. A highly sensual record that borders on the spiritual, Pure also features the same prominent players as the last record, who add their talents to producer/percussionist Anton Fier's vision: Bill Laswell on bass, Bootsy Collins on rhythm guitar and Nicky Skopelitis on 6- and 12-string guitars. A gripping, ethereal track that will take your listeners where "Fade Into You" left off.

Dead Hot Workshop, "River Otis," Seed

The latest offering from the fine, fine folks at Seed is one that explores the singer/songwriter realm, and does so with a total sense of warmth and endurance. Hailing from Tempe, Arizona, the band was formed when guitarist Steve Larson wanted to hook up with a singer/songwriter, and he found a top-notch one in Brent Babb. The pair played as a duo and in several bands before hooking up with the rhythm section that makes up today's lineup. Their music is touching and thoroughly human, with a solid grasp on song structure and sheer emotion. Of the six songs on the EP, three are country-inflected ballads, three are high-charged rockers — our favorites include "Rise Of Decline" and "Mr. S.O.B." Incidentally, the nude guy on the cover is the late Doug Hopkins, whose alter ego was "Otis."

BLAH BLAH BLAH

BLAH

No one lost their job this week. At least not as far as we know. Hey, it's a start.... Looks like Mike Osborne has turned in his resignation at WBRU, effective February.... Don't forget to send in your year-end surveys this week. If you didn't get one faxed to you, please call us and let us know. We'll get one right out to you. As always, we aim to please, as service is our byword.... Let's talk phones: the immense Ween grows and grows — "Voodoo Lady" is closing in on 400 spins this week, with #1 phones at WHTG for four weeks and KEDJ, number two phones at WDRE for two weeks, top 5 phones at LIVE 105, KEDG, KXRK, WEQX, KLZR, KTOZ, KTCL, WBER, WRXQ, and X107. Q101 is raging all over "Push Th' Little Daisies," giving it 24 spins last week with Top 5 phones honors. Another reaction record: Dink's "Green Mind," with great phones at Q101, Live 105, WOXY, and KNNC. Their appearance on the Pop Will Eat Itself/Compulsion tour has been one of the driving forces.... Nice to have Xanax 25 stop by the office the other day, as we were entertained by an acoustic set by vocalist Jaik Miller. Their very cool record, Denial Fest, is coming in January.... Porno For Pyros played a surprise gig at L.A.'s Dragonfly Club on Tuesday the 29th. The secret show turned out to be the worst kept secret in the city, as the 400 person club filled to capacity an hour and a half before they took the stage. Their first show since Woodstock included nine songs (four of which were off the new record) and the closer, Iggy Pop's "I Got A Right".... "Deep Shag" is Luscious Jackson's propeller into immensity. Believe it.... On the KROQ front, Kevin & Bean have compiled their 5th annual Christmas album to benefit the Starlight Foundation of Southern California. Included are highlights from last year's Acoustic Christmas concerts with the Violent Femmes, Tony Bennett, Bad Religion and the Smashing Pumpkins. Celebrity contributors include Geraldo Rivera, Barry White, Ed McMahon, Bobcat Goldthwait, and Cindy Crawford sucking erotically on a candy cane for one minute. In other news, Lightning, Kevin & Bean's assistant, has been sent to Christmas Island, Nova Scotia in search of the KROQ Christmas tree. Along with Gil, a home and toothless KROQ listener, Lightning left before Thanksgiving in hopes of getting back in time for the Christmas shows.... Tour Dates: Bad Religion/Samiam: 12/5-6 Vancouver; 12/11 San Bernardino; 12/12 Bakersfield; 12/13 Santa Cruz; 12/14 San Francisco; 12/16-17 Los Angeles; 12/18 San Diego. Hootie & The Blowfish: 12/7 New Britain; 12/8 Rochester; 12/9 Indiana, PA; 12/10 Charlts'vle, VA; 12/16 Washington, DC. Frente!: 12/5 Tallahassee; 12/6 Gainesville; 12/7 Charlotte; 12/9 Savannah; 12/10 Chapel Hill; 12/13-14 New York; 12/15 Providence; 12/17 Asbury Park. Dillon Fence: 12/5 Minneapolis; 12/7 Madison; 12/8 St. Louis; 12/9 Chicago; 12/10 Toledo; 12/11 Cincinnati; 12/12 Cleveland; 12/14 Albany; 12/15 Burlington; 12/16 New York; 12/17 Washington, DC; 12/18 Baltimore. Black Train Jack/Sick Of It All: 12/8 Wichita; 12/9 St. Louis; 12/11 Cleveland; 12/12 Detroit; 12/13 Pittsburgh; 12/14 Boston; 12/15 Northampton; 12/16 New Haven; 12/17 Providence; 12/18 Syracuse.

Blur, "End Of A Century", (Food, U.K.) The new EP from Blur packs three tracks that will tickle your fancy. The title track "End Of A Century" is catchy, pop sounding guitars and a slight hint of the classic Billy Bragg. There's also "Red Necks" which Blur sing with a western accent and poke fun of "Them Darn Cowboys"... and of course they include the twangy guitars to give it a full western effect. The CD5 will please Blur fans and is a nice addition to add to your Christmas EP collections.

Shed Seven, "Never Again", (Polydor, U.K.) This a very exciting song from this British band. A very accessible track for alternative radio. "Never Again" is reminiscent of the early days of The Cult and Gene Love Jezeble. Yet, Shed Seven define their own unique sound that is very pleasant (especially with so many records sounding alike these days). The EP features the title track, "Ocean Pie" and two others, however "Never Again" takes the tea and crumpets on this one!

Echobelly, "Close... but", (Rhythm King, U.K.) It's another great single from Morrisseys fave new band... featuring lead vocalist Sonya Madan. The four track EP packs an abundance of catchy, melodic, guitar tracks. "Close... but" is sure to be embraced by all programmers that appreciate good fresh music and this single is certainly a great Christmas gift you can share with your listeners.

Twangling, "Three Fingers In A Box", (Pukka, U.K.) No this is not a tribute album to Jeffrey Dahmer or anything sick like that. In fact, it's a dance track that is trendy, a bit repetitive (like most dance records are) but is based upon an English tea snack. Yes, we Europeans have to write about just everything... so if you like to eat your snacks and sing about them too, "Three Fingers In A Box" will do just right for you!

Braindead, Give Me Something Hard I Can Take To My Grave, (Oblivion, U.S.A.) These former Wax Trax industrial gods have released their latest effort. The album features ten tracks that will wet your appetite for penetrating noise that will reach all regions of your musical pores. Check out "The Sands Will Come Again", "Where The Pavement Ends" and "Bakersfield". If you enjoy true to the roots industrial noise then Braindead will refresh your mind and bring it back to life.

THE HARD REPORT

Would a week really be complete without a Pinfield picture? Here are Love Spit Love's Richard Butler and Richard Fortus, shown flanking the man himself.

"It's SUCH an honor to meet you." "Excuse me, you're blocking the bar."

L7 recently stopped by WMMS — here are the band's Dee Plakus and Donita Sparks with the station's Spaceman Xcott and Doug Kubinski.

David Crosby may be released from a Los Angeles hospital just two to three weeks after undergoing his liver transplant, according to Dr. Ronald Busuttii, the leader of the transplant team at the UCLA Medical Center. But the speed at which Crosby received a donated liver has raised questions about whether he got one more quickly because he's well-known. Over 2,000 people die every year in the U.S. awaiting organ transplants. "It does leave some of us who've lost someone with the idea that maybe if we'd had a well-known name, our loved one would've received an organ," says Judy Bradley of Bloomfield Township, Michigan, whose husband died in 1992 after waiting over two months for a liver transplant. Crosby was on a waiting list for 39 days before he received the transplant, according to a hospital spokesman. Others have questioned whether Crosby should have been given an organ because of his admitted use of drugs which destroyed his liver.

Over four years after GWAR leader David Brockie was arrested after a performance in Charlotte, North Carolina, a club owner has canceled a planned appearance by the band. Adel Nasrallah, owner of the heavy metal club Jeremiah's, says he was told by a local Alcohol Law Enforcement agent that the show "would cause problems." "I was looking forward to it," Nasrallah says. "But, you know, they said it was going to be trouble. It's better to sleep without headaches." Despite the cancellation of the Charlotte show, GWAR were still planning to play a show in nearby Carrboro.

The Rolling Stones plan a European tour next summer that will include 19 cities in 14 countries. The dates in Europe will include shows in Paris, London and Berlin. The band announced the dates from Palm Beach, Florida. "We had a day off and there was nothing else to do," Mick Jagger explained. The concerts next summer are expected to be the last of the Stones' tour, which will next stop in Mexico, South America and South Africa. The Rolling Stones are playing a few comparatively smaller cities on the European leg — including Sheffield, England; Montpellier, France; Bale, Switzerland; Gijon, Spain; and Werchter, Belgium. There are four concerts scheduled for Germany, including Berlin, Hanover, Cologne and Hockenheim. Only European journalists were invited to the announcement, to avoid a "circus-like" atmosphere. The European tour will be sponsored by Volkswagen, which will introduce a Rolling Stones special edition car next year.

Matt Johnson has undergone an appendectomy, after he complained of stomach pains and thought he had food poisoning. Johnson's illness delayed production of a video for "I Saw The Light," the first single from The The's upcoming album of Hank Williams tunes.

The Cranberries will have a CD-ROM out in February, called "Doors And Windows." The release, which will accommodate five different computer formats, will include six songs not included on the band's two albums. The package was originally intended as a promotional tool to showcase the band.

Don Henley says too much shouldn't be read into his recent comment in Billboard magazine that some of the things that broke up the Eagles "have not gone away." Henley says he was in a pessimistic mood when interviewed by the magazine. "That morning I was informed...that my home on Mulholland Drive — the house that I painstakingly built over a period of three years and have lived in since 1979 — would have to be completely demolished because of extensive earthquake damage." Henley says the Eagles reunion tour has seen "some occasional strife...but it has certainly been nothing out of the ordinary or anything that wasn't expected at the outset."

The Go-Go's plan a tour in support of the "Return To The Valley Of The Go-Go's" album. However, guitarist and keyboardist Charlotte Caffey is expecting a child in February, so former Bangles member Vicki Peterson will fill in for her.

Singer Dusty Springfield is reported to be winning a battle against cancer. She's undergone radiotherapy and chemotherapy in Britain after finding a lump in her breast earlier this year. She's expected to recover enough to continue working on a new album early next year. Neil Tennant of the Pet Shop Boys is among those who have sent messages of support to Springfield, who was recording a new album in Nashville when she became ill.

Col. Bruce Hampton has a compilation album of his earlier material just out (on Landslide Records) called "Strange Voices." He's expecting to begin recording new material soon with his new band the Fiji Mariners, which includes pianist Dan Matrazzo, an original member of the Aquarium Rescue Unit. "It's different," Hampton says. "More Mideastern scales, you might say....And it's still evolving. We've only been together with the drummer for about two months. We don't know where it's gonna lead, just make an educated guess and go out into the dark."

Jeffrey Gaines says he decided to cover Peter Gabriel's "In Your Eyes" because of the song's words. He says he never liked the production of the record, but was forced to listen to it while driving one night with a female friend who had fallen asleep on his lap, pinning his arm so he couldn't change the radio station.

King Crimson has recorded its first album in over ten years. The new line-up includes bass player Trey Gunn and percussionist Pat Mastelotto. The new King Crimson plans to tour next year after releasing the album. A six-song EP called "Vrooom" is already out overseas.

REM's next tour, which begins in January in Australia, may be the band's last. "I don't think we're ever going to do this again," guitarist Peter Buck says. He says he remembers telling singer Michael Stipe, "I don't think I'm ever going to do this again. I'm done." Even two years ago, if you'd asked me, I would have bet we'd never play onstage again together, other than benefit shows now and again."

Attorneys for Canadian band the Barenaked Ladies have sent a letter to the Art Gallery of Ontario claiming infringement of their rights. They object to t-shirts which feature three nude impressionist masterpieces with the caption "Rare Naked Ladies."

Sinead O'Connor is at the top of the list of the worst-tressed people put out by Remington. Lisa Marie Presley ranked seventh and Madonna ranked ninth on the list. Madonna also placed second on the best-tressed list.

Carly Simon, Aretha Franklin, Toni Braxton, Vince Gill and Amy Grant have agreed to appear on the ABC-TV special "Christmas At Home With The Stars," which will air on December 17.

Urge Overkill begin recording a new album next month in Philadelphia. It'll again be produced by the Butcher Brothers. The band has a cover of Neil Diamond's "Girl You'll Be A Woman Soon" on the "Pulp Fiction" soundtrack.

Morrissey is set to release a new EP in January, produced by Steve Lillywhite. A video for the title track has been filmed in a gym in London.

Founding Eagles bass player Randy Meisner has formed a new band called Meisner, Rich & Swan.

The first Beatles record to be played on the radio has sold for $17,200 at a London auction. A copy of "Love Me Do" played by the now-defunct Radio Luxembourg was purchased by Mikel Barsa, a music industry professional from Madrid. The selling price set a record for a commercially-available recording. The disc was a promotional copy signed by Paul McCartney, whose name was misspelled "McArtney" on the songwriting credit on the single. DJ Tony Prince, who inherited the single when Radio Luxembourg ended English broadcasts and divided up its record library, wrote McCartney, who confirmed that Radio Luxembourg was the first radio station to play a Beatles record. "There is no doubt of the authenticity of this special record," Prince said. At the same auction, a 1958 single by Ron Hargrave called "Latch On" sold for over $3,000.

A puppet version of "Peter & The Wolf" narrated by Sting has won an international Emmy Award for the British Broadcasting Corporation. The television program won the performing arts prize at the awards program in New York.

Mick Jagger's wife, Jerry Hall, has been chosen for a new ad campaign for a perfume from designer Thierry Mugler.

An Irish band has a new hit record in Britain with a cover of the Osmonds "Love Me For A Reason." The single from Boyzone, from Dublin, presages an Osmonds revival in England. The band's "Crazy Horses" is to be re-released at the end of January with a greatest hits album being reissued in March.

Eddie Vedder says "Immortality" on the new Pearl Jam album wasn't inspired by the suicide of Nirvana lead singer Kurt Cobain. "It's not about Kurt," he says. "Nothing on the album was written directly about Kurt, and I don't feel like talking about him, because it (might be seen) as exploitation. But I think there might be some things in the lyrics that you could read into and maybe will answer some questions or help you understand the pressures on someone who is on a parallel train." Vedder says "it's not hard to be a rock star. What's hard is trying to stop playing the game...to try to treat people fairly and with respect."

Songwriter Tommy Boyce, who co-wrote many of the Monkees' hits, shot himself to death in Nashville at age 55. Boyce's wife, Carolyn, found him in the living room of their apartment. She'd been sleeping in an upstairs bedroom. Boyce left a note, but police would not disclose its contents. Boyce and songwriting partner Bobby Hart wrote "The Monkees Theme (Hey, Hey, We're The Monkees)," "Last Train To Clarksville," "I'm Not Your) Steppin' Stone," "Valleri," and "Words," among others. The two also had their own hits as a recording act, including the 1967 top ten "I Wonder What She's Doing Tonight." Boyce and Hart also wrote Jay & The Americans' 1964 top five hit "Come A Little Bit Closer." Boyce was born in Charlottesville, Virginia, and moved with his family to Los Angeles while a child. His father, a minister, taught Boyce to play guitar. His songwriting success began in 1959 when Fats Domino had a top ten hit with Boyce's song "Be My Guest." Boyce also authored the 1961 Phil Spector-produced hits "Pretty Little Angel Eyes" and "Under The Moon Of Love" by Curtis Lee. Boyce moved to England in the late 1970s, working with Iggy Pop and Meatloaf, but moved back to Tennessee, where he'd maintained residences in Nashville and Memphis. In a recent issue of Rolling Stone magazine, REM's Michael Stipe said, "The Monkees and the Banana Splits meant a lot more (to me than the Beatles). That was the stuff I knew and loved."

The Spanish Benedictine monks who had a chart-topping album worldwide are releasing a second LP, "Canto Noel." The Spaniards have sold five million copies of their "Canto Gregoriano." Both albums of Latin chants were recorded 20 years ago.

MUSIC NOW!

By Mike Cooper

Boyz II Men have tied the record for the longest-running number one single of the rock era with the ballad "I'll Make Love To You," which has spent 14 weeks at the top. Whitney Houston spent 14 weeks at number one two years ago with "I Will Always Love You." The band is only the third artist in chart history to replace itself on the chart at number one — only Elvis Presley and the Beatles have previously done so. Their new single "On Bended Knee" has replaced "I'll Make Love To You" on the latest singles chart. "I'll Make Love To You" has sold over 1.8 million copies — making it the year's biggest-selling single.

Victoria Williams says she's considering moving away from Los Angeles with her husband Mark Olson of the Jayhawks. She says the California heat may be aggravating her multiple sclerosis. The couple did some house-hunting in Seattle, but haven't decided if that's where they'll move. "We've looked in different towns whenever we're there," she says. "Mark's from Minnesota, so we looked in Minneapolis. And we figured out that like temperature-wise, (Seattle) is probably the best place for me."

Carla Olson, formerly of the Textones, has a new album out called "Whirlwind," which features former Go-Go's member Kathy Valentine.

A federal court judge in Denver, Colorado, has issued a temporary restraining order to the Grateful Dead's production and merchandising companies, banning the sale of bootlegged items outside the Dead's shows in the city. The band had gone to court claiming trademark infringement and loss of income. "In view of the importance of trademark law in this country, the plaintiffs would suffer irreparable injury if this order were not granted," Judge Zita Weinshienk ruled in a lawsuit naming "Does 1-500" as defendants.

Jimmy Page and Robert Plant have always liked Moroccan music, leading them to mix it into songs on the "Unleaded" album. "By last year I was completely obsessed with Morocco and with the potential of working alongside another culture and another musical sensitivity," Plant says. "Morocco is a living, pulsating entity which is changing rapidly all the time. But there are parts of Marrakesh that carry on as they have done for a thousand years. And the music is a reflection of all that, of all times and all religions, and of all the natural expectations and conditions of the people who live there. It's amazing, it's pumping, it's furious, it's anxious, it's happy, and it's far more real than anything you'll ever experience in a western city."

"7 Seconds," by Youssou N'Dour and Nina Cherry won the award for best song at the first MTV European Music Awards, given out in Berlin. The track beat out Blur's "Boys & Girls," Aerosmith's "Cryin'," Bjork's "Big Time Sensuality" and Beck's "Loser." Take That won for best group, while Bryan Adams and Mariah Carey won for best male and female star. The Prodigy won for best choreographed performance while Aerosmith were named best rock group. Gun's British single "Word Up" won the award for best sleeve, while the Crash Test Dummies won for Best Breakthrough Group. Mark Pellington won the award for best director for his clip for "Hobo Humpin' Slobobabe" by Swedish group Whale. European MTV viewers voted for the nominees by phone.

Kylie Minogue launched National AIDS Awareness Week in Australia in advance of World AIDS Day December 1. "One of the biggest hurdles we still need to knock over in the fight against HIV and AIDS is prejudice and fear," Minogue said. "I hope...that the events taking place over the next week will break down even more of the barriers and spread the message of understanding and human kindness. That's why we need AIDS Awareness Week. Everyone in Australia needs to be reminded that HIV and AIDS affects us all." A series of events around the country included a free rock concert in Adelaide.

Robert Cray took a break from working on his band's ninth album to play with the Rolling Stones during their pay-per-view concert in Miami. It was the first time Cray has played with the Stones as a group.

A song written by former Monty Python member Eric Idle is being released as single next month. The theme to "One Foot In The Grave" features television star Richard Wilson over a techno beat. The song comes from a Christmas special that will air on BBC television in England. Wilson had the highest-rated Christmas program last year.

Tom Jones, Queen Latifah and country singer Lorrie Morgan will co-host the American Music Awards which will air on ABC-TV on January 30.

Food Processing magazine has chosen Linda McCartney's line of "Home Style Cooking" as the Best New Food Products of 1994. McCartney says she's "thrilled" by the honor.

Megadeth singer Dave Mustaine says he used to deliver newspapers at the same time he was playing in bands. "Listen to music loud enough to make you sterile. Then get in and throw papers," he says of the routine. "Get home at six in the morning, put on eye blinders and try to sleep. What a horrible way to survive."

Dread Zeppelin capped off the "Doo Dah Parade" Thanksgiving weekend in Pasadena, a parody of the Rose Parade that takes place a little over one month later.

Billy Joel had to cancel a concert in Australia because he was suffering from laryngitis. The concert was the last of three in Brisbane. A spokesman for the venue said Joel's throat was "so swollen, he can't swallow."

A Florida woman has been charged with child neglect by authorities who say she and her husband left three children — ages 2, 4 and 6 — at home alone while they went to a Rolling Stones concert in Tampa. The couple, from south Florida, were arrested when they returned to their hotel. The six-year-old had gone to the hotel's front desk asking for help because the younger children would not go to bed. Kathie Cote defends the couple's action. "I'm sure that people who don't know us would think it was a very selfish thing to do and very careless, but it wasn't," Cote says. "They might say, 'How can you leave a 6-year-old girl with three younger kids?' But she is really mature." Mrs. Cote says the daughter offered to watch the other kids so that she wouldn't have to hire a babysitter. Her husband, Craig, says "it happened to be a bad night out of a million."

An Elvis Presley page on the Internet has been removed at the request of the singer's estate. The Elvis Home Page, based in a computer at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, apparently included pictures of copyrighted postcards

Courtney Love says she and her late husband, Kurt Cobain, agreed to a suicide pact the day after their daughter was born. Cobain brought a gun to the hospital, Love says in an interview in Rolling Stone magazine. "I held this thing in my hand. And I felt that thing that they said in 'Schindler's List': I'm never going to know what happens to me. And what about Frances? Sort of rude. 'Oh, your parents died the day after you were born.'" Love says she talked Cobain out of killing himself that day, but he continued to be suicidal. "I lived with someone who said every day he was going to kill himself," she told the magazine. "He hated everything, everybody. Hated, hated, hated." Love says two-year-old Frances Bean misses her father. "On some nights, she cries out for him and it freaks me out," Love says.

Colonel Tom Parker says he has rejected all offers to write a book about Elvis Presley. "You know what they want — dirt," Parker says. "I'm not a dirt farmer." Parker has endorsed a book by Presley's former road manager, Joe Esposito, called "Good Rockin' Tonight, 20 Years on the Road and on the Town with Elvis Presley." Parker, former manager of Presley, will be honored in Las Vegas by the Showmen's League of America on December 7.

The new Sparks album, "Gratuitous Sax & Senseless Violins," already out in Europe (and previously mentioned in Rock Around The World) will get a U.S. release in mid-March. Song titles include "Frankly Scarlett, I Don't Give A Damn" and "Now That I Own The BBC."

A pregnant Edie Brickell reunited with her old band, the New Bohemians, for two Dallas shows benefitting the four-year-old daughter of a murdered friend. About 700 people paid $25 each to see the performance by the group, which broke up in 1992. Brickell is expecting a second child by Paul Simon in March.

"I'm obsessed with crocodiles and getting eaten by one," Tori Amos says. "When I hear that someone's been eaten by a crocodile or shark, I just get all goopy. I start salivating. I'm fascinated by it. If I had to get tortured by a human being or eaten by a crocodile, I'd take the croc any day of the week. The reason is that it's not personal. You were lunch."

PBS-TV will air a documentary on the making of "A Hard Day's Night" next year, marking the 30th anniversary of the Beatles film. Phil Collins will narrate the special. He was a 12-year-old extra in the original film.

The New York Daily News says MTV canceled plans for a David Bowie "Unplugged" show after learning he would only perform more recent material and would not play his classic hits. MTV claims Bowie was "never scheduled to do an 'Unplugged' in the first place."

Yoko Ono went to Palm Beach, Florida, for the opening of an art exhibit featuring her work with art by the late Keith Haring. Some of the proceeds of sales of their works will benefit two south Florida hospitals.

Garth Brooks has a greatest hits album being released for a limited time. It's not known how long the 18-song CD, called "Garth Brooks: The Hits," will be available.

Snow has almost finished his second album, but he may not be able to get a visa to enter the United States because of his felony convictions. A single called "Si Me Them No No Me" is out in advance of the LP, which is due in February.

The Stone Roses are planning to return to the UK live scene next spring, according to a report in the "New Musical Express." Although there has been no official confirmation, the paper quotes a "source" as saying: "They can't wait to do gigs. They are just working out when it will happen. Spring is the most likely. They are looking at doing special shows instead of an ordinary tour, which will keep to the Roses' tradition" (In the past, the band has tended to play one-off "events" rather than conventional tours). There is no news of any possible foreign dates. Elsewhere, the Roses have finished the video to accompany the new single "Love Spreads." It features clips of the band from the last three years recording their forthcoming album The Second Coming. A 12-inch single of "Love Spreads" will feature a new track entitled "Groove Harder" on the b-side. New Order is again at the center of rumors that the band may be close to splitting up. The latest speculation follows the launch party for the recently-released The Best of New Order. Stephen Morris and Gillian Gilbert, who recently married in Manchester at a service which was not attended by either Bernard Sumner or Peter Hook, did not go to the party at Manchester Roundhouse. Although official sources continue to insist the group has not disbanded, there are no plans for New Order to work together next year. New Order's last live date was their headlining appearance at 1993's Reading Festival. Simple Minds will return in January with a new album. Good News From The Next World will be available on the 30th via Virgin. It's the band's thirteenth album and will be promoted with a March tour of the UK and Ireland. Ian McNabb has recorded a live album with Crazy Horse. Due in stores early next year, the LP will feature material from a show at London's Kings College. McNabb will play three UK dates in December. Meanwhile, McNabb is a guest reviewer in this month's edition of "Mojo," appropriately considering the latest in Reprise's series of Neil Young CD re-releases. McNabb concludes: "They are minor LPs in Young's canon (Journey Through The Past, Time Fades Away, On the Beach, American Stars N' Bars, Hawks and Doves and Re-Ac-Tor), but listening to them now there's a character, warmth and integrity that, sadly, I don't hear in Counting Crows or much else in 1994. Compared to Neil Young, we're all just pissing in the wind"....David Bowie has purchased a painting by official Bosnian war artist Peter Howson. "Croatian and Muslim" shows a rape carried out by two men and was at the center of media attention earlier in the year when London's Imperial War Museum refused to exhibit the picture. Instead, curators opted for more "peaceful" paintings. Bowie is believed to have paid around $27,000 for the painting and commented: "The whole war has been about cruelty and humiliation and that is what this portrait portrays. I don't like it — I think that's an inappropriate word — but it is a very powerful and obviously important work." Elsewhere, Bowie's "Minotaur" series raised approximately $24,000 in a charity auction of paintings and sculptures by rock stars to benefit humanitarian aid for Bosnia. Overall, though, the quality of work in the "Little Pieces From Big Stars" auction (which included contributions from the likes of Bono, George Michael and Shane MacGowan) was criticized. Duran Duran's Simon Le Bon has been successful in a British High Court case against the tabloid newspapers "The Daily Express" and "The Daily Star." Both papers claimed Le Bon had an affair in Rome. Le Bon will receive damages and costs. U2 is in London working on new material with Brian Eno. However, it seems unlikely the band is working on a new album. Instead, reports suggest U2 is recording material for a film soundtrack. Elsewhere, Bono has given away a vasectomy operation! The operation was bought for the singer by his wife at a charity AIDS auction, but Bono turned down the chance of surgery after listening to an Irish phone-in show where a woman said that she and her husband wanted no more children but couldn't afford a vasectomy. Bono helped them out by donating the operation. Ice-T is at the center of a controversy after the announcement he will front "Baadass TV," a new show to be broadcast by Channel 4 network. Perhaps inevitably, objections to Ice-T presenting the program have centered on the rapper's 1992 single "Cop Killer." A Conservative Member of Parliament, David Shaw, commented: "People like this shouldn't have any public support." Police chiefs from around the country have also criticized Channel 4 and there have been several calls for "Baadass TV" to be banned. A spokesperson for Channel 4 responded: "This is quite sad. It's just another Tory MP desperate to get his name in the newspapers. He should come and watch the program before making knee-jerk comments." "Baadass TV" will be broadcast on December 23. Bjork is reported to be working with classical percussionist Evelyn Glennie in a London studio. The duo met when Glennie guested on Bjork's "Unplugged" project in September. Elton John is to have an album of tracks recorded between 1969 and 1970 released by RMP. However, Reg Dwight's Piano Plays Pop does not feature original material. Instead, it's a collection of cover versions originally recorded for a series of albums entitled Top of the Pops. These recordings, which were sold at a budget price, were compilations of cover versions of recent hits performed by session musicians. Mark Stratford, who put the album together, commented: "We're selling this as a fun item, but you can take it quite seriously. There are some really good versions with Elton on lead vocals and sparse arrangements. There are also about three duets." Featuring about 20 tracks, Piano Plays Pop will be packaged in a '70s-style sleeve which will feature a cover photograph of a girl with none too many clothes on — a feature of the original Top of the Pops series. Elton John fans helped Stratford identify the tracks the superstar performed on and they include "In the Summertime," "Yellow River" and "Spirit in the Sky." However, despite such artists as Rod Stewart, David Bowie and Gary Glitter having also contributed to the series, there are no plans for any more similar albums. A few singers and musicians will no doubt be relieved to find Elton John was the one figure to record enough tracks to justify an entire album. Blur has begun work on a new album. With Parklife having sold over one million copies, the band has been recording demos. Blur is currently touring Japan. Madness may sue Midland Bank over a recent television advertising campaign. The commercials show Midland customers singing "Is That Too Much" to the melody of Madness's hit "It Must Be Love." Although the band didn't write the song — it was originally recorded by Labi Siffre in 1972 — Madness thinks the version used in the commercial is too close to their arrangement. They also claim the advertisement copies their video style. However, a spokesperson for Midland Bank commented: "We have the rights to the song and we've not copied anyone's style. We don't see there is a problem"....Jimmy Page and Robert Plant continue to attract massive UK press attention with their No Quarter project. The December issue of "Mojo" features interviews with both Plant and Page, and Led Zeppelin bassist John Paul Jones. Asked by the magazine's Mark Ellen if he was invited to work on No Quarter, Jones comments: "It's very odd. I mean, we get on fine and all that, but they just decided to do it without saying anything to me at all." Ellen continues: "Presumably if they'd asked you, it would have made it 'the official Led Zeppelin reunion.'" Jones: "Yeah, but it is, isn't it? They're doing Led Zeppelin songs. What else would anybody think it would be? I mean I don't obviously mind what they do but it was odd reading about it in the papers. I've got plenty to do so I'm not bothered, but I thought it was a bit discourteous of them not to at least inform me. I seem to have 'disappeared.'" Plant and Page give their version of why Jones was not involved to journalist Mat Snow in the same magazine. Plant: "Apart from the fact that it would be virtually Led Zeppelin and the next person you start talking about is Jason Bonham, which is just so cheesy and ridiculous, the fact is our thread was this North African thing, was India, was the Howlin' Wolf riffs. We focused together on those mutual points, so rather than confuse the issue, let's see what we've still got. So, it's nothing at all personal. It's just that at this point in time you've got to get a quick result to see if it's worth it." Page: "We were gaining so much momentum from the loops and working with Charlie (Jones, bassist) and Michael (Lee, drummer) that, quite honestly, I for one wasn't thinking John Paul Jones. I was thinking about what we were getting together between the two of us and the rest of the band. It was its own thing before all of that started to become an issue." Plant goes on to express his admiration for the projects Jones has worked on and says: "Maybe we'll all get together again somewhere down the line"....Edwyn Collins, former singer with Orange Juice, who has just released a new album Gorgeous George, has been giving "Vox" magazine his opinion on the so-called New Wave of New Wave: "People with no real knowledge of history. Instead of copying the actual punk groups — The Clash, Pistols, Buzzcocks — they're associating themselves with the plastic punks. It's death warmed up. I was shocked by S*M*A*S*H's "I Want To Kill Somebody." The lyrics made Jimmy Pursey (Sham 69) look like Rimbaud. It's nonsense." Sex Pistols drummer Paul Cook features on Gorgeous George and former Suede guitarist Bernard Butler recently guested with Collins at a London show. Oasis will release their next UK single "Whatever" via Creation on December 19. The track is eight minutes long and the first new studio recording by the band since they worked on the album Definitely Maybe. Featuring a string quartet, the song was arranged by Noel Gallagher. B-sides have yet to be announced. Elsewhere, Liam Gallagher has told a European magazine he has been taking glue since he was 14. Suede has announced details of a major UK tour for January and February. The tour will feature the band's first London date (aside from fan club shows) for around 18 months. A single "New Generation" will be released to coincide with the dates. B-side tracks will probably be live material. Suede is currently on tour in Europe... There has been criticism of the police after the Riverside Club in Newcastle, Northeast England was raided on November 12. Around 100 police were involved in the operation; 21 people were cautioned for possession of drugs, 12 people were arrested on charges ranging from drunk and disorderly to dealing and police say they seized around $4,500 worth of drugs. However, a variety of people, from club-goers to parents, have spoken out against authorities, saying the Riverside is one of the safest venues in the area... Wayne Kramer, former guitarist with MC5, has pulled out of a London show following the death of Fred Sonic Smith. Kramer had been due in the UK to promote his The Hard Stuff album... Pete Murphy is recording a new album. The former Bauhaus frontman is working with producer Pascal Gabriel (EMF, Jimmy Sommerville, Inspiral Carpets, etc.), leading to speculation he may be heading in a more pop-oriented direction... Roger Taylor's latest UK single is the title track from his album Happiness?. The former Queen drummer is currently touring the UK... "Q" magazine celebrates its 100th issue this month. Although the magazine has sometimes been the subject of criticism for what some perceive as an unadventurous editorial policy, it's difficult to overstate the success of the publication. When it launched in 1986, the music magazine market was dominated by the weekly music press of the "New Musical Express," "Melody Maker" and "Sounds," and such teen magazines as "Smash Hits." "Q" radically changed UK perceptions of what a rock publication could be. A measure of its success is the fact there are now four glossy music publications on UK news stands: "Q" itself, "Mojo" (which deals largely with rock history and takes a serious look at the culture surrounding it), "Vox" (similar to "Q," although dealing with a slightly larger cross-section of younger bands) and "Select" (aimed at a younger MNE/student audience). Having established itself as a niche publication, "Q" quickly went on to become seen as almost a mainstream style magazine because of its upmarket readership profile, 200,000 copies per month, as well as consistently attracting advertising from such firms as car manufacturers, drinks companies and perfume companies. The magazine has also been successful in attracting the biggest stars for interviews. Largely because it avoids the kink of abuse the UK weeklies habitually throw at artists (while still retaining a healthily cynical reviews' section to balance things out), figures such as Paul McCartney, Prince, Madonna, Sting, Bruce Springsteen, Elton John and David Bowie have been happy to talk to "Q." As for the future, according to "Q" editor Danny Kelly, the magazine is likely to change subtly. Talking to "The Guardian" newspaper this week, Kelly commented: "I would concede that we don't write about bands who haven't sold very many records, but that's changing. For instance, many people saw 'Mojo' as infringing on our territory, but we found it an amazingly liberating experience. After all, until last year we were perceived as covering the CD reissue, baby-boomer generation, but now that other magazines are moving into that market we can stretch out into other areas, take chances on covering indie-related bands like The Cranberries which we might not have covered before." In the meantime, "Q" sells more than "Melody Maker" and the "New Musical Express" combined. While the Adult Alternative isn't a familiar one to people outside the music business in the UK, it could be that "Q" is cornering one part of this growing market. Finally, "Q" held its annual awards last month. Taking place at London's Park Lane Hotel. The opening address was given by Labour Party leader Tony Blair (how times have changed) who noted, "Rock -n- roll is not just an important part of our culture, it's an important part of our life. It's an important industry; it's an important employer of people; it's immensely important to the future of this country. In Parliament, you can have debates about all sorts of industries and people will think it entirely normal. If you had a debate about the music industry, they'd think it rather strange, but that actually just shows how far Parliament is behind the times." The "Q" Awards winners in full: "Q" Merit Award: U2. "Q" Inspiration Award: The Kinks, Best Act In The World Today: REM (Also shortlisted: Crowded House, Pink Floyd, U2, Neil Young), Best Live Act: Pink Floyd (Also shortlisted: Blur, Crowded House, Dasis, Therapy?), Best Album: Blur: Parklife (Also shortlisted: Counting Crows: August And Everything After, Dasis: Definitely Maybe, Pink Floyd: The Division Bell, REM: Monster), Best Songwriter: Morrissey for Vauxhall And I (Also shortlisted: Sheryl Crow for Tuesday Night Music Club, Adam Duritz of Counting Crows for August And Everything After, Chrissie Hynde of The Pretenders for Last Of The Independents, Brad Roberts of Crash Test Dummies for God Shuffled His Feet and Paul Weller for Live Wood), Best New Act: Dasis (also shortlisted: Jeff Buckley, Counting Crows, The Cranberries and Crash Test Dummies), Best Producer: Stephen Street for Blur's Parklife and The Cranberries Everyone Else Is Doing It. So Why Can't We (also shortlisted: David Gilmour for Pink Floyd's The Division Bell, Steve Lillywhite for Morrissey's Vauxhall And I, M People for Elegant Slumming, John Reynolds, Tim Simenon, Phil Coulter and Sinead D' Connor for Universal Mother and Rick Rubin for Johnny Cash's American Recordings and Tom Petty's Wildflowers), Best Compilation Album Or Re-Issue: Tougher Than Tough: The Story Of Jamaican Music (also shortlisted: Paul Simon: American Heartbeat Box Set and The Who: 30 Years Of Maximum R&B)... Blur is working with the Canine Defence League on the charity's annual 'A dog is for life — not just for Christmas' campaign. Blur's Parklife sleeve features a picture of two racing greyhounds and new billboards for the album will bear the charity's message. Blur has sponsored a retired greyhound for a year and the CDL has told the "New Musical Express" they are "thrilled" by the band's involvement. According to a spokeswoman: "We'd like to get involved with Blur and maybe have CDL stand at some of their gigs, although we wouldn't take any dogs to the gigs because Blur's music would make them too nervous..." Madonna's video for the single "Take A Bow" has been criticized by animal rights' groups. The video features footage of a bullfight shot in Spain, with a story line revolving around Madonna falling for a matorador. A spokesperson for The World Society for the Protection of Animals told the "New Musical Express": "It's sick, I thought Madonna was sad but not this sad. Words can't express our utter disgust. We won't call for the video to be banned because people have the right to make up their own minds whether they are prepared to watch it. But it's inconceivable that anyone should make a video which effectively promotes this barbaric activity. It's a big, big mistake..." Radiohead, who has been out of the public eye of late as they complete a new album, has announced details of a one-off UK show. The band will perform in their hometown of Oxford on February 12. The band's second album will be in stores early next year and a UK tour for the spring is currently being finalized... The Rolling Stones' 1995 European tour will mark the 30th anniversary of their first jaunt around the continent. The Stones have announced two UK stadium dates for July, as well as shows in France, Sweden, Italy, Finland, Norway, Denmark, Holland and Belgium. Shows in Germany, Austria, the Czech Republic, Portugal and Switzerland will shortly be confirmed. Last week, Keith Richards commented on the mammoth Voodoo Lounge tour: "On any given night, we're still a damn good band. I got news for you — we're still a bunch of tough bastards. String us up and we still won't die..." The Cranberries have pledged their support to the continuing campaign against the recently enacted Criminal Justice Bill which many feel curtails human rights within the UK. Advertisements for the band's new single "Ode To My Family" (Island) give the phone number to two civil liberties groups actively fighting the bill, the Freedom Network and Liberty. A spokesperson for Liberty commented: "The Cranberries are probably the highest-profile group to support the campaign and we are obviously delighted..." Ice-T could be prevented from entering the UK because of an investigation by the British Home Office, the Government department responsible for granting immigration visas. With the Conservative Member of Parliament David Shaw calling for a ban on T's forthcoming "Baadass TV" show for the Channel 4 network, senior civil servants have contacted the rapper's UK representatives asking for biographies and CDs... EMF has recruited the help of British actor and comedian Stephen Fry for their forthcoming album. Fry, the star of Kenneth Branagh's "Peter's Friends," has recorded a poem and an introduction for the band's forthcoming album Cha Cha Cha. Fry and EMF guitarist Ian Dench first met when Fry saw the band play at London's Astoria three years ago... The Charlatans UK singer Tim Burgess has criticized the band's Up To Our Hips. Speaking to "Melody Maker," Burgess commented: "We all decided that we hated the last LP. No, don't put that... it was a really good start to get to where we're going now. There are things like "Feel Flows" and "Can't Get Out Of Bed" on the last LP that we really thought were all right and that's the sort of standard that we want to reach and surpass." The Charlatans are currently working on a new album with Steve Hillage at the production helm. Set for release via Beggars Banquet in February, a new single "Crashin In" b/w "Back Room Window" and "Green Flashing Eyes" will precede the album in late December/early January. Elsewhere, Burgess has contributed vocals to a track on the forthcoming album from The Dust Brothers. "Delik" will feature on the dance act's debut, due for release in March... The Berlin European MTV Awards were marred by an incident in Gdansk, Poland. With 600 people gathered to watch a live broadcast of the awards in a hall, a molotov cocktail was thrown, reportedly killing two and injuring 200. At the awards themselves, those honored included Aerosmith, Youssou N' Dour and Neneh Cherry, The Prodigy, Bryan Adams and Mariah Carey. Tom Jones was the host for the evening, while George Michael performed "Jesus To A Child," a new song. ... Ned's Atomic Dustbin was forced to cancel a date at Northampton Roadmenders on November 21 after bassist Alex was robbed twice in two days. On the 20th, the luckless Alex had his bag stolen from the band's tour bus. On the 21st, his house was broken into. The Ned's had to pull out of the date to allow Alex home to secure his home.

LARRY MAC, KUKQ, 602-838-0400

Our adds this week are Superchunk (Which got in on a coin toss) "Shallowend," Stone Roses "Love Spreads," an important single, the Jesus Lizard's "Queen For A Day", and Samiam "Step Son." A record I think you should check out on Seed Records is another group out of Phoenix called Deadhot Workshop and their EP River Otis. Big following in Phoenix, and many people see them following in the footsteps of the Gin Blossoms. They are Jangle Pop, but darker. My fave on the CD is "Rise of Decline." Check it out, give it a couple of spins, and wait for their new CD to come out in '95.

TJ BRYAN, WDHA/DOVER

I don't know when Geffen plans on working Gods Street Wine to rock radio, but why wait? "Nightingale" has been on the air at DHA for 12 weeks now and has been performing fantastically. I had the pleasure of seeing these guys live for the first time last week, and I was very impressed. If Phish is the next Dead, then G.S.W. is the next Phish, only better. The album "1.99 Romances", is filled with great songs, stellar musicianship, and more hooks than a fly fishing convention. Give God Street Wine a shot. I think you'll like 'em. Vitalogy is fantastic, right now "Immortality" is my favorite song. Or maybe "Not For You." Or "Better Man." Or "Bugs." Or "Satans Bed." I think you get the idea. Keep your eyeballs peeled for a holiday CD called A Live Christmas Extravaganza. Recorded the last two years at the Stone Pony in Ashbury Park, Glen Burtnik assembled an amazing line-up for his holiday concerts. Among the guests on the disc: Tommy Conwell, Marshall Crenshaw, Willie Nile, Syd Straw, Graham Maby, and lots more. And finally, I leave you with two words: Pete Drobe. 'Nuff said. As always, it's been business doing pleasure with you.

ERIN CARMEN/WONE AKRON

High on life and ready to rock!! OK, so I'm not the biggest Green Day fan (do I stand alone?) but, "When I Come Around," I will let you know. OK, I've come around, this tune is really cool!!...Tell me "You Don't Know How it Feels" to get tons of requests for Tom Petty!! You mention the word "joint" and you have everyone addicted!!...Megadeth's new album is killer!! Dream Theater rocks!! Love ya!!

DAVE DOUGLAS, KIBZ/LINCOLN

A couple of recent success stories to tell you about. First, the day before Thanksgiving The Blaze brought Foghat to town. Admission was two cans of food, and was the place packed! We collected 1000 pounds of food for needy families in Lincoln. Foghat put on a great show and we can't thank them enough for making the event a huge success. Then, just five days later, The Blaze brought Helmet into Lincoln for a Blaze Listener Appreciation show. A low ticket price and broadcasting the show live on the air brought in a huge audience. What makes this even more remarkable is that we received our first snowfall of the year that day, complete with road closures and accidents. But Helmet packed them in and rocked our world! A big thank you to Michael Papale at Interscope for helping make this happen. Also, thanks to Jessica Harley at EEG for arranging Sick Of It All as the opener. It was a Thanksgiving musical feast we will long remember.

JOHN LELAC & KEVIN KLINE

KTOZ, SPRINGFIELD

Happy Holidays from your Springfield friends. Hope everyone's Thanksgiving was fabulous. Ours was definitely a memorable one here at Channel Z. Over the holiday we treated Channel Z listeners to an exclusive rebroadcast of the concert event of the year, Woodstock '94. In conjunction to our broadcast, we gave away Woodstock collectible paraphernalia all weekend long. These incredible packages included the Woodstock '94 double CD, a Woodstock '94 book and a Woodstock '94 video tape. The Channel Z listeners were crazier than the mud people trying to win. Only Snoopy would be happier with this much Woodstock. A tremendous amount of thanks to Carl Bader, Loraine Caruso, Jack Isquith and everyone else at A&M for helping make Woodstock '94 an everlasting memory for the Channel Z devoted. Monday ended our Christmas trip to New York promotion. The winners will fly to New York to see the Z-100 Christmas Concert and be in the audience during the taping of the Goon Stewart Show. After meeting Goon Stewart backstage Friday and spending the weekend in New York, they'll see the sold out show at Madison Square Garden Monday. Amongst the many great acts are: Green Day, Weezer, Sheryl Crow, Toad The Wet Sprocket and Indigo Girls. Listeners had to watch the Goon Stewart Show and wait for the Channel Z logo to appear (that signified the Channel Z mystery guest). Over the next three weeks we qualified three listeners every morning who could name the mystery guest. Our winner was a young lady who practically fell into cardiac arrest after her name was drawn. Excited would be a huge understatement. Thanks to Kim Poole and Steve Tipp and everyone at Reprise as well as Loraine Caruso and the kind folks at A&M. With the Christmas season already on us, we are still in desperate need of some vintage Christmas tunage. Any old Christmas discs you may have laying around that you could send our way would be greatly appreciated. Have a wonderful week.

ROB NICHOLSON & JULIE HOYT

CHANNEL Z, AUGUSTA

Hello to everyone! Hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! Things were great around here. Since we're all transplants, we had Thanksgiving at our Promotions Director Matt Jones' house. Everything was fine until Julie unluckily discovered that morning man Kevin Howard's sweet potatoes were anything but fresh. But we cleaned up the mess and still had a fabulous time! We're really sorry if you missed our Gala Birthday Bash Wednesday night! What a blast!! Most all of Augusta and her surrounding areas were there to celebrate our second birthday, including the Godfather of Soul himself, James Brown! The food was fantastic, the drinks were bottomless, and the crowd was totally into it. James did some breaks for us in his unmistakable James-speak as well. Of course, the hangovers were just as monumental as the party! We gave away the Cranberries with our Thanksgiving turkey this week as well. To be more exact, we sent some lucky folks to see them, M.C. 900 Foot Jesus, and the Gigolo Aunts in New York City by way of Steve Leeds at PLG! Thanks bunches big guy! The callers were nuts! We are kicking off our 12 concerts of Christmas this week with a show from G. Love & Special Sauce. We are totally excited about having these fellas in town, and all of Augusta seems to be awaiting the show with baited breath. We'll update you on that next week. Until then, take care and Happy Christmas Shopping!

GREG HILS, WNCW/SPINDALE

WNCW, Spindale, NC is proud to announce that WNCW now has translator service to Knoxville, TN at 96.7 FM. This latest translator was put together by a friendly broadcast engineer in Knox County who wanted better reception for his community. WNCW is proud of the support we have seen from it's faithful listeners who have financed translator projects already in Greenville, SC (93.7 FM), Charlotte, NC (100.7 FM) and now in Knoxville. Listener-funded translators are in the works for Boone-Beech Mtn., NC and for the Southern Mountain Communities of Highlands-Cashiers.

BRUCE WARREN, WORLD CAFE

We love little records!!!! That's the spirit of rock and roll...Indie-rock - in all its glorious wonder - be it jazz of hip-hop or folk of lo-fi - is what this great country was built on. Sun Records, Specialty, Philly-Soul, Motown, Cameo-Parkway (hey, remember the Twist?)...the list goes on and on...and as we enter the last month of the year and discuss some of the best records of 1994 it's important to remember that new records by Willy Porter, 22 Brides, Jack Logan, Kathy McCarty, Greg Brown, and others are what make this format so exciting. Sure, the American Music Club and Jeff Buckley records have ruled my life for the past many months, but indie-rock lives, even in triple A world...speaking of little records....Chris Von Sneider's Big White Lies on Heyday is one most delicious power-pop record that's sure to delight you upper-demotyped...We suggest "Mindreader" or Chris's cover of Bread's "Everything I Own".....In the 'sometimes we like jazz' category come two of the best jazz releases of 1994. In Other Words is the new album from the Teodross Avery Quartet on GRP; Avery is a new school traditionalist who plays sax. Just in his early 20's, Teo is a force to be reckoned with (ya hear that Branford!)...And don't miss drummer Leon Parker's debut on Epicure called Above and Below. Parker's melodic style of playing is unique and his cover of Monk's "Bemsha Swing" will blow your mind.....Don't know much about country blues guitarist Kelly Joe Phelps, but his album Lead Me On is pure and ethereal. It's on Burnside Records in Portland and all you acoustic blues fans out there should check it out. This week we raise our glasses to Chuck Slomovitz, Bonnie Slikin, Todd Rundgren, Todd Sievers, Robbie Lloyd at Alias, Greg Seese, and Jeff Suhy for signing the Ass Pony's whose debut Electric Rock Music is real alternative rock, just like the Pixies were once...We're out like the Eagles...and remember - Oz didn't give nothing to the Tin Man that he didn't already have...

RANCID RANDY & FREEZE/

XBDT RADIO SONORA

Hola! This is Freeze Fresquez. I would like to welcome Rancid Randy to the family of Radio Sonora. Hey all of you cowboys from hell (cowgirls, too...)! I hope it was a killer but safe weekend for all!! Now to business: a big right-on to Warner rep Tod Galli for a great Biohazard night. A heartfelt "way to go" to Freeze Fresquez for being upped to Program Coordinator duties. I would like to thank Sherry/Energy, Jason/Rex, Joe/Capricorn, Sudi/McGathy, Jim/Alert for the professional and fun conversations we had, you guys made my first week a damn enjoyable one! Bands that blow me away: Megadeth, Prong, Slayer and Testament to name a few. Happy belated b'day to Epic ace Brian Lima, I miss ya, dude! Till next time, I'm outa here, time to go have fun at XBDT!!

DUG, WPUP/ATHENS

Hi. I planned some sort of discourse on the futility of life that had several allusions to Masada, Henry D. and Harlan Ellison, but I figured that would probably peg the meter on pretensionmeter. So fuckit. Spent the Thanksgiving time with family. That, of course, was the reason for the planned discourse. Check out the new Jesus Christ Superstar thingy coming out to Atlanta. Indigos, Five-Eight, Lay Quiet Awhile and tons of others (including the Feed and Seed Marching Abominable). It rocks. A lot. I'm going to be throwing some tracks into the local/regional category as soon as I decide which ones are my faves. Early bets say What's the buzz, with (por supuesto) Lay Quiet Awhile. Have you listened to their new CD Delicate Wire yet? Why not? Donkey interview Thursday. Big Band meets rock meets Atlanta. Cool. Crabdaddy interview Friday. Cool local stuff. And Karen asked me. And how can I refuse that Scottish accent. I have bruises all over my legs due to the Die Toten Hosen CD. I had to stop after Gary Gilmour's "Eyes" for fear of actually hurting myself. It goes in next week. Definitely. Adds are kind of light this week 'cause I'm kind of phasing in some local Christmas music. Mostly the fun stuff, like Labrea Stomper's "Grinch" and Pron Orchid's old parody of Tom Waits and Peter Murphy singing together... We think the house next door is dealing drugs. Too many people going in and out all hours...Oh well. I think I've drained everything out of my skull now. I'm going to go away now.

LEA PISACANE, ATLANTIC RECORDS 212-275-2215

I know I haven't written since William Burroughs was a pup but big events deserve big reactions and this is one. "Billboard's" year-end results: #1 Album Rock Track Artist: Stone Temple Pilots (they're on Atlantic); #1 Album Rock Track: "Shine" by Collective Soul (they're on Atlantic); #1 Album Rock Tracks Label: Atlantic; #1 label: The Atlantic Group. Jeesh...I need a shower after that one and I didn't even go into Modern Rock, Singles, Rap, Hot A/C, R&B, Reggae or Country! (I'll give ya a hint-#1). Everyone in this biz knows there are good years and bad years. This was a fucking tremendous one. Excuse us while we bask.

DAVE LOMBARDI

WARNER BROS. RECORDS 819-953-3726

Got to spend some time with Russ Mottla in NYC before Thanksgiving. We had Candlebox and the Flaming Lips in town for 3 sold out shows at Roseland, and CBox played Letterman, Wed. night. I was interested to learn in my conversations with Russ that there was actually resistance on some fronts to an "AOR guy" entering the hallowed halls of the alternative format. I'm glad to see Russ back at the helm, and I'm really excited about how he'll imprint WDRE, and I thought hiring him was a near brilliant move. He was actually part of the genesis of the alternative format, helping to put a heritage station (WLYN, now WFNX) on in the Boston market. And above all, he's a music guy, one I'm quite sad to see out of the rock format. Why there would be any problem for anyone with him programming any alternative station is beyond me. We're talking about a format that, arguably, as a whole, follows the lead of a former pop programmer, and I doubt if many people will stand up and defend the artist development CHR provides. I know quite a few rock programmers who get behind new bands and support them until other formats (including alternative) catch on. Need I mention

THE HARD REPORT

Candlebox, Pearl Jam, Alice in Chains, Spin Doctors, etc.? I guess so. Wake up, alternative world! You get to deal with one of rock radio's best (we still have a few more...but leave them to us!), and you'll get to learn why so many rock promoters are smiling about this format's revitalization. I'd love to tell you about the Gods Child 37ft. Tour, because Ritch Bloom drove the damn thing (it was an RV, a g-damn 37 foot RV) beautifully and we did bring it to radio in San Diego, but the band cancelled that show and high winds and physics aborted any travel north of L.A. You had to see this thing, though! I'm out.

SCOTT DOUGLAS, VIRGIN, 212-332-0418

Gilby Clarke is smoking the phones everywhere. That's the earliest qualitative information that I can give you. KUPD, KEGL, KSJO, and WRCN (From just a test rotation) are all not just getting phones, they're getting big phones. Holidays or no holidays. Gilby Clarke is a Virgin artist to whom we are committed. And, you've got room to move now. Rolling Stones' "Sparks Will Fly" is obvious. Between the pay-per-view last weekend, the "Beverly Hills 90210" plotline, and your airplay...the buzz is hotter than ever on the Stones. Happy Holidays, thank you very much. Smashing Pumpkins has gone platinum with Pieces Iscariot. A million records. This record is selling through at the counter in the biggest retail season in 4-5 years. There must be a reason...what other research do you need? When someone (and it ain't just kids) plunks down 15 or 16 bucks, that's a vote. That is no 1-5 scale on a call-out phone call. That is hard cash. You figure it out. Simple Minds has given us a brilliant album which you'll receive a few days after the holidays. It's called She's A River and already has a great buzz among those who have heard it. Enough.

KIM LANGBECKER, COLUMBIA

A wacky week to say the least - Dahmer getting the old eye for an eye treatment and 911 operators who could give a shit! What a country! Thank God for great music! Every week we have been telling you about how CDC is coming through. From great research at Q104 and KISW to a tremendous BDS move 34 to 23*! We are now over 600 spins with 9 new stations this week including WPDH, WTUE, WUFX, WWCT, WZZO, KCLB, KWBR, KUGR, WRKR — With over 100 stations and a profile on all accounts that continues in growth pattern (sales, requests, research, etc.). For this not to be on your playlist would be just plain wacky! We have outlasted all of the objections placed before us, now it's time to come to the party! Let "Albatross" fly! Now on to yet another developing success story - "Dignity" by the man. His MTV Unplugged has been changed to Wednesday, December 14th from 8:00-9:00 PM ET/PT. "Dignity" is the 13th most requested record in the country with new adds this week from WBLM, KEZE, WRDU, WZZR, and WXQR. Now over 100 stations. "Lost For Words" continues it's roll snagging another 12 stations with over 500 spins. How can you go wrong with this song? Next on the musical menu the record that is taking programmers by storm - "Got Me Wrong." This Alice In Chains track is already at 200 spins, up 80 from last week and 9 new stations give this the nod including WBCN, WIYY, KSJO, KRZR, KZRR, and WROC. Don't forget, this is on the Clerks soundtrack. Fat Tuesday's "Winterstorm" will officially come after the first of the year on January 9th. Listen now. For you alternative leaning folks, check out Big Audio "Waiting For A Song" and get ready for the ready-to-wear soundtrack which will contain a brand new Rolling Stones track.

JEFF COOK, CAPRICORN, 404-873-3978

Hey, I've got a unique idea...take the time to hear me out, okay?! Instead of adding a 5th or 6th track by a superstar artist, drop in a hit by a developing one, so that while everyone is listening to hear the heavy hitters you can break an act that's your's alone in your market!! We all know that every station in your town is playing the same hit records. If you want a track that will stand up with the best of the best, spin "Take The Time" by the Freddy Jones Band. This band is ready to bust through. "In A Daydream" was a hit where it was played - coast to coast, and the band has toured non-stop since the release of the disc over a year ago. This one requires very little thought. Everyone knows Ian Moore works very hard, but this is ridiculous! The day he finished the southern leg of the Stones tour, he accepted ZZ Top's European Tour!! So, guess who won't be home for Christmas? Which is all the more reason to play "Satisfied" 'cause this guy ain't stoppin' until he's got the world convinced!! Widespread Panic - "Can't Get High" is coming January 2nd, just in time for your New Year's Resolution list. Please sit down with it over the holidays. They've just finished a national tour and were on "Good Morning America" last week - so, your audience knows who this band is. Play it now!

ROGER MAYER

CAPRICORN RECORDS, 404-873-3978

Wow...where has this year gone! It has been a great one for all of us at Capricorn and we all look forward to the next. 311 tore the roof off of The Palace last week and you weren't there!! Thanks to Larry Mac from KUKQ for his nice words last week about 311. Larry, you are absolutely right, this is one of the most exciting young bands around. We all have full confidence that 1995 will be the year that radio "gets" 311 and 311 gets the huge attention they have earned and deserve. You can tap into the 311 phenomenon by tossing "Lucky" on the air and seeing what happens. Chances are you're missing the boat on the Freddy Jones Band's "Take The Time." Don't let this one pass you by. Put quite simply, "Take The Time" is a multi-demo mutha that can work day and night for you. Peace.

KEVIN YOUNG, MOIST

CHRYSALIS/EMI RECORDS 212-492-1812

And the Moist tour continues...Nebraska: Last week began innocently enough in Omaha at a KRRK sponsored show at the Ranch Bowl where Moist first discovers the sublime pleasures of bowling, and encounters a local legend in the person of the meanest waitress in the world who serves up, in addition to unremitting sarcasm, equal portions of hostility and tequila with the kind of delicacy and compassion unique to hailstorms, flash floods, and household appliances that having once tasted human blood, can never be trusted again. Thanks to Eric and Mike for coming out to the gig that night to support Moist. Arizona: After an ever-so-relaxing night drive, hurtling nonstop at unlikely speeds down tricky roads, mostly airborne and screaming in fear, we arrive in Phoenix at the Electric Ballroom where the band and crew, still giddy from their recent introduction to the savage art of bowling, take advantage of a sudden moment of divine inspiration and re-invent the game using large rocks and an unlucky drummer on roller-blades. After the show, we join with folks from local record stores and KUPD radio and attempt to violate as many of Arizona's unusual liquor laws as possible before heading out to ....New Mexico: Back in the bus, once again airborne and screaming, we play our traditional mid-November game of tag with a brutally persistent and typically nasty early-winter storm that was waiting for us somewhere in the vicinity of Flagstaff, Ariz., guzzling double martinis and getting blind mean drunk in anticipation of our arrival. Luckily, we arrived in Albuquerque mostly unharmed, just in time to launch ourselves heaving and twisting onto the stage at the Golden West on Route 66. This week: Colorado, Ohio, and a drummer's gleeful revenge.

MARK FISCHER

ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2085

News flash...Hootie and The Blowfish, "Let Her Cry" has jumped 30 chart spaces and has increased nearly 500 spins in one week of airplay. There are eight stations requesting Hootie including WLWQ, WRFX, WEGW, WAVF, WRKI, WSFM, WDHA, and WWBR. The album sound scans another 30,000 units. If you haven't discovered "Let Her Cry" yet, please do so before the holidays. We have every indication that "Let Her Cry" is a bigger record than the smash, "Hold My Hand." Also this week, the number one most added record at Rock Radio was Page/Plant's "Thank You." I would like to thank Rock Radio for steering us toward "Thank You" from this incredible duo. 1995 is going to be the year for Page/Plant. Stay tuned for special announcements in the coming weeks. Alert!!! KLOS, Los Angeles adds Bad Religion's "Infected." Interesting! Before I sign off, Samiam's "Capsized" is raising it's head above water. Some of you are getting great test feedback. In fact, KEGF, Dallas added it this week. If you haven't checked Samiam out, all I can say is, "Thin Lizzy of the '90s". Enjoy!!

DYANA KASS

HOLLYWOOD RECORDS 818-560-5670

Are you wondering what's going on at Hollywood? I will use the dialogue forum to give you all the 411 on the talent pool and what is in store for '95. Eleven, currently in the studio in their home of Los Angeles, are concocting the best sounds this trio has ever laid down. Expect a taste in early '95. Into Another will be whisked away to Seattle in the weeks to come to record their Hollywood debut with Rick Parashar (Pearl Jam, Temple of the Dog, Blind Melon) producing. An early spring release could be in the stars! Seaweed are holed up in a cabin in Washington writing their masterpiece to unleash upon you and Sacred Reich continue work on their next hard hitter as well in their hometown of Phoenix in the months to come. More news is on the way, thanks for being patient and remember, it will be well worth the wait!!

CHARLES SLOMOVITZ, VIRGIN RECORDS

Alright then, you Jesus Freaks, X-Mas is coming (no pun intended). Lots of great Virgin records will be under the trees...Smashing Pumpkins, Cracker, Bryan Ferry, Sam Phillips and Massive Attack advance tapes. Coming to your stations early Jan., the new track from Simple Minds "She's A River" from their world-wide release "Good News From The Next World." The response from set-up has been amazing...most people think this record will be a multi-format mega monster...Let's make sure core alternative radio closes and leads the pack! Massive Attack is back with their second release Protection. Dig into your advance tapes and love this record over the holidays...the lead track, "Protection," comes mid-January...Other new releases to watch for...at AAA: Danny Tate "Nobody's Perfect" and John Lee Hooker. "Chill Out" Native American music is very great. Check out "Sacred Spirit." Any station who plays Chant or Enigma will love this record. Commercial Indie Rock freaks beware...(Kurt, Matt, Gary, Robert, Parrish, Jeff Clark, Sandy) Virgin is releasing a new album from Royal Trux. Another 1995 treat, Small Factory, "Last Time We Talked" already heard and waiting for single: WFNX, WDRE, WHTG, WMMS, WEQX, WCBR, WORLD CAFE, WBRU, REV 105 (already on it!) and more...stay on top of the street! I am off to Europe to hang with Massive Attack, Neneh Cherry, Urban Dance Squad, The Auteurs, Toni Halliday, and my backpack...look out for postcards...see ya in 1995....Chuck.

CHRIS WOLTMAN

COLUMBIA PROMOTION, 212-833-8505

Corrosion of Conformity...the move on the BDS charts says it all 34 to 23!!! Things couldn't feel better on "Albatross" with moves like that, they're hard at work on the road. The upcoming Megadeth tour and research that is starting to come back is great. (On the sales side we took a 16% increase on COC's "Deliverance"...I think it's all starting to come together. I hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving...keep in mind for some records out there, the charts may be a little funky due to the fact that many stations did special programming through last week. The obvious effect - currents don't get as much airplay and certain records may skip a beat this week. Pink Floyd's "Lost For Words" - look at the stations where we are Top 10: WIYY, WLWQ, WDVE, KQRS, (where the research has been huge), WRDU, KQRC, KYYS, and too many others to mention. Another great week this week as "Lost For Words" continues an unbelievable roll for Floyd. The "Unplugged" from Dylan was truly amazing and December 14th you will all get to see for yourselves. In the meantime let's continue the roll on "Dignity". Alice In Chains' "Got Me Wrong" almost 200 spins in BDS. Already on at KLOS, WLZR, WAAF, WZAT, K10L, and more. Make sure you put on the Clerks soundtrack and check it out.

WAYNE PIGHINI

ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2112

Hey, it's been a few weeks, so lets begin promptly. No more Atlantic releases until January 10th when we come at you with Tales From the Crypt presents: Demon Night. This soundtrack includes songs from Ministry, Megadeth, Sepultura, Pantera, Melvins, Biohazard, and many more. January 24th marks the street date for the Jerky Boys Soundtrack. This is the soundtrack from the movie due to hit the big screen late this winter. Artist include Coolio, Green Day, Collective Soul, Wu-Tang Clan, Tom Jones, Helmet and many others. Also mark February 14th down on tour calendars because that's when the Led Zeppelin Tribute Album hits the shelves. Cracker, Stone Temple Pilots, Rollins Band, 4 Non Blondes, Helmet and a Robert Plant/Tori Amos duet all appear. Seems like we'll need a holiday rest for these beauties! In the meantime, remember Hootie and the Blowfish continues to go nuts. The Bad Religion/Samiam tour continues until the holidays and resumes in '95. Testament will also be in the clubs until the new year. In earth-shattering news, Liz Phair will be out doing a two-week promo tour (radio, press, and in-stores). This will already have started by the time you read this. Melvins are in Europe and Victoria Williams will be playing selected dates and venues.

E.J. JOHANTGEN

COLUMBIA 212-833-4989

Godflesh is coming on strong! By the time you read this Justin and Benny will have leveled Roseland! The video for "Crush My Soul" is complete. And yes it is a little disturbing! But what's really disturbing is the fact that some of you dudes still are not playin' em. Whatsupwitdat!?!? CDC, ya know you love em! Sponge is beginning to get one hell of a reaction. Detroit's finest are spreading rock city cheer this holiday season! Keep playing "Plowed." The gift that keeps on giving? Nativity in Black continues to dominate! There will be CD pro of Biohazard's After Forever - edits and all in your stockings in about a week. Peace love and vegetable rights.

JON NARDACHONE

ATLANTIC, 212-275-2135

Trivia time!!! Which January 1995 soundtrack sports this super-heavy lineup of bands! Megadeth, Sepultura, Pantera, Melvins, Rollins Band, Ministry, Machine Head, Biohazard, Filter, and the Gravediggaz?!?!?!? Yes, it's "Demon Night," the upcoming "Tales From The Crypt" horror flick.... This isn't the Airheads soundtrack!!!! This thing is so goddamn awesome, it'll deafen the rest of 1995! Testament "Dog Faced Gods" is the heaviest single Atlantic has ever released! Other new stuff, STP "Unglued," Page/Plant "Thank You," Power Rangers...for 1995, Collective Soul "Gel," Bad Religion "Infected," new Skid Row etc.

DAN 'SPIT' FITZGERALD

COLUMBIA METAL RETAIL 212-833-4289

With Christmas creepin' up on ya, just keep in mind that I'll kiddies everywhere will be out in full force lookin' to spend those ducats. This year, instead of recommending the easy sell, do the right thing, and turn that kid onto something new, something different or something obscure. Being a retailer, you get to hear all sorts of cool shit that in many cases never gets the exposure that many bands deserve. So, if you've recently heard something that floors ya, tell the world! There's plenty to go around.

STEPHANIE PENSYL FOR MIKE SCHNAPP

EMI RECORDS 212-492-1812

No he's not on the O.J. jury, but he is stuck in a meeting and he wanted me to let you know that: High on the 39th floor of EMI Rocks NYC, D Generation stopped by to say goodbye as they depart for Texas to kick off a month of tour dates with Gilby Clarke. You saw them at McGathy, now see them set fire to your hometown! Catch them now and in a year you can say you saw them when they first broke out! Call us here at 212-492-1812 for tickets and interviews! And, did you know that when the first few momentum-building riffs of "No Way Out" are aired, your listeners automatically lean over and turn up the radio to hear a full frontal D Generation guitar attack? They do! You should know that. Queensryche's Promised Land LP is providing you all with thousands of collective hours of quality metal programming. 100% guaranteed to sound amazing on the radio! Try on the "I Am I"/"Damaged" medley for size. It fits great! And, it has the good Schnapp-keeping seal of approval. Moist is checking in from their first dizzying U.S. tour. Who else goes from Denver to Cleveland to Buffalo over three days just to keep their fans panting for more "Push"? See Kevin Young's guest dialogue in these very pages for more tales on the road. And if you're getting maniacal phone calls and requests by the ton, you must be playing Butt Trumpet! The only question is, which instant-reaction underground smash are you playing? "I'm Ugly and I Don't Know Why," "The GrindCore Song," or perhaps "I Left My Flannel In Seattle"? We might have some edits of some tracks available if you beg for them. Call us, and I know we'll all be happy, happy, happy! Also, send Schnapp some 8-tracks...he likes them but I don't know why!

CHERYL VALENTINE

EPIC METAL, 212-833-5987

I'm very happy to say that life is one big bowl of pitless cherries! Now that I'm all large and fluffy like an overstuffed down pillow from all that Thanksgiving turkey and mashed potatoes, I'm ready to pound my ears with even more helpings of KoRn. When speaking with Leigh Taylor (WPMR) the other day, we discussed how each of us listen to KoRn every day. She said that she continues to find something new and different on the CD that she hadn't heard the numerous listens before. I asked her if she found the part where Jonathan grits his teeth yet and she replied with, "Now I gotta listen to it again today." Hey, thought I'd let you in on that little conversation of ours... Prong just finished their headlining tour leaving many (including me) bruised and battered in their wake. The shows were packed and Prong was dead on! God bless 'em...By now, some of our L.A. and S.F. buds have found out how awesome XC-NN is live! If you haven't seen them, make a point of doing so. Have you received your Devil Head record yet? If you haven't, please call us right away so that you can experience the mind of Brian Wood...We've got West Coast KoRn tour dates. This band is worth ditchin' dates for.

JOHN BUTLER

SILVERTONE RECORDS 212-620-8798

New Chris Duarte leaders (You really don't want to be a follower, do you?) come aboard this week. They include Jessie and Paul at WMMO, Bill and Tony at Radio One, others and excellent moves at KMTT-Seattle, KSCA-LA and KBCO-Boulder. Speaking of Colorado, Chris and Co. hit the ground running with, count em', nine dates in the Ski state 12/7BW-3, Steamboat, 12/8 Linden's, Fort Collins, 12/9 Herman's Hideaway, Denver, 12/10 Tres Hombres, Woodland Park, 12/11 Nick's Vail, 12/12 Double Diamond, Aspen, 12/13 Fox Theater, Boulder 12/14 Alligator Lounge, Breckenridge, 12/19 Fly Me To The Moon, Telluride. So get in some great skiing and blistering live shows. Chris has consistently ruled with sales directly from airplay and it's time his record was spun for your audience. When Pat Gallagher & Sybil McGuire call to say, "We have to front sell this record because every time we play it so many people call that want to know who it is, we run out of phone lines. The reaction is instant!" something real is happening. Get over yourself and play "Borrowed Love," "Big-Legged Woman," or "My Way Down" now! Buddy Guy practically taught Stevie Ray Vaughn how to play the guitar from the way Stevie used to listen to Buddy's records. Buddy's newest "Slippin' In" could slice twenty year old salami. Heroic singing and wicked guitar make this the perfect AAA and Rock record. Spin "Shame, Shame, Shame" and "Please Don't Drive Me Away" for a progressive rock radio fest of phone action. See the man strut live on the John Stewart Show on Dec. 2, Saturday Night Live on Dec. 10, Conan O'Brien on Dec. 15, and Letterman on Friday Dec. 16. See you on the phones!!

SMITTY

EPIC METAL, 212-833-5988

Okay, so I'm on vacation, the first real one in three years, and what do I do? How about a road trip to Providence to see Prong? How about getting caught in the pit and losing my watch and my silver bracelet? How about having a great time with Ryan from WHUS, Derek from WMWM, Steve from WZBC and Jeff from WSMU? (Sorry about being so late and the shitty Chinese food, guys!!) How about the tremendous Jaegermeister hangover followed by another night of Prong (At the Limelight in New York)? Three days of vacation gone along with several thousand brain cells (and what, I get paid for this too...?) Anyway, I'm back. And guess what? KoRn is now top 5 everywhere! 8 weeks of top 10 adds at CMJ alone! Can't say I didn't tell you so!? Right now "Christmas Song" should be marking this holiday season with your adds December 5th and 6th. KoRn is doing a small string of local dates out West, check the tour calendar for specifics...Speaking of Santa, Fight's "Christmas Ride" should also be rising up your playlists...Fight's new album should be out before Spring 1995. Please call me, if even for a second, so I can give you some holiday greetings and abuse...CCCC-YYYYAAAAA!

TOM GATES, ROADRUNNER, 212-219-0077

It's no hype. Type O Negative has a viable Modern Rock song with "Christian Woman." Ask X96, who has helped us to triple Salt Lake sales in one week with 15 spins! A thought: How many other records pass the 150,000 sold mark (Bloody Kisses is #5 Heatseeker) over 16 months after release? Currently on tour with Danzig, this Type O will play to thousands of people in Boston, Philadelphia, Columbus, Detroit, Indianapolis, Cleveland and Chicago. Where will your listeners be? They won't be at home watching Aaron Spelling shows, that's for sure.

MEG MACRAE

EARACHE RECORDS, 212-343-9090

The Brutal Truth us that Jeffry Dahmer is dead but the Pungent Stench still remains. Sick, sick, sick...Just caught a couple of Brutal Truth/Pungent Stench/Acid Bath shows in N'Awlins and Houston. Don't mess with Texas folks - have to say the show was a wild one! The Abyss in Houston is definitely one of the coolest clubs, the promoters there rule (Chris & Sean - you are the best!). Thank to Wes and Bill from KPFT for all the pre-show support 'n' promotion and for comin' down to the show and hanging out - you guys rule, too! Bliss from the Pain Teens added her "special touch" to the event so not only were all three bands killer but it was quite a spectacle overall. Flaming baton twirlers, go-go dancers, S&M gear, Kevin (Brutal Truth) being whipped on stage during Pungent's set - if that's not a damn fine reason to keep charting Brutal Truth then just wait 'til you see 'em live. Unbelievable!... Who wants Tootsie Rolls? You do! You do! OK all you log lovers - are you playing the shit outta Fudge Tunnel or what? If your answer is no, then we really gotta talk...the Godflesh show last night was godly - do not miss this band when they come through your town! And all the more reason to keep spinnin' 'em.... Look for the new Bolt Thrower and Pitch Shifter remix album in January - the new year's looking good so far. Don't forget to check out Brutal Truth at the Limelight on Jan. 1st...C-Ya!

MARIA "MOM" ABRIL

METAL BLADE RECORDS 805-522-9380

Attention! Attention! Mercyful Fate's Time commands your attention. "Nightmare Be Thy Name" should round off your holiday festivities nicely. Don't forget the King Diamond Christmas song...new KD album on the way. Fates Warning "Pale Fire" and "Monument" have been the mainstays throughout the Dream Theater/Fates Warning tour. Generation and Clawfinger are in stores now. Joey Vera has made an excellent video for "Having A Bad Day" and I'll try to get it out to you as soon as I can. New in '95: Grip Inc (Dave Lombardo), Broken Hope, King Diamond, X-Cops. For all your sadistic metal needs...The Blade.

GREG DERBAS

PAVEMENT MUSIC, 708-916-1155

Ah, yes, the end of the season is near. If you feel it necessary to give me a gift this year, I'm sure you know what I want. Really I'm not asking for much, just B-thong and New Idol Son to be in your Top 10. Both bands will be on tour in the new year. New Idol Son is gearing up for a show with the "O" and we will be pulling in B-thong from Sweden this Feb. Solitude Aeturnus will be the first record of the year, with a major tour to happen soon after. Advance tapes are in, so call if you're worthy. Expect some amazing discs from Pavement in the New Year. Unfortunately I'm forbidden to let you know now. Also expect something new from Crowbar in April. Let me know if you're leaving permanently, I'll keep in touch.

JONATHAN OBERA

EPITAPH RECORDS 213-413-7353

Jonny not Jimmy!!! For those of you who don't know, James Barnes, former National Radio/Video promotions, is now batting for HITS magazine, heading up the metal section. Good luck James! James can be reached at (818) 501-7900. And me you ask, I can be reached at ph: (213) 413-7353 fax: (213) 413-9678. The Offspring's third single "Gotta Get Away," is off to a great start, 42 stations are all over this, moving it up to #21 on BDS. NOFX is wrapping up their national tour with Ten Foot Pole and Face to Face in support slots. This is a killer show that shouldn't be missed: 11/29 Melbourne, 11/30 St. Petersburg, 12/2 Houston, 12/3 Austin, 12/4 Dallas & 12/7 Tucson. The Offspring will return from their first European tour (including dates in Spain, Italy, France, and England) at the beginning of December to hit the West Coast for two weeks of five shows: Hollywood, San Diego, Palo Alto, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, & Utah. Face to Face and Guttermouth will be alternating support slots. Had a chance to catch Pennywise live in Irvine. Talk about an amazing show! Egad's, we're talking 1,500 plus angst-ridden youth swirling in unison to Pennywise's pulsating vibe. Birdseye view, full on spin cycle. Last (but not least) on the live circuit, Gas Huffer on the road with The Cramps, now there's a pair. Hey check Gas Huffer's new release, "One Inch Masters," this CD is brilliant — if you don't have it give me a call. The Red Aunts are in the studio laying down tracks for their new LP, it's gonna be a doozie! C-Ya

LOUIS HEIDELMEIER

SONIC UNDERGROUND, 800-347-6642

Okay... So maybe it's not as good as that other Florida native's new one but, Miami's Naked Rhythm has delivered one of my Top 10 Albums of the year. You'll know why real soon! Overdose is going Top 15 on every metal chart by the time their nationwide tour starts January 5th. They will soon have the sales and the name recognition of the bands keeping them out of Top 10. The Spudmonsters are on the Overdose tour, along with Skrew and Engines of Aggression. "Ace of Spades" and "Beer" are being played everywhere. Forte is touring from Phoenix to Florida with Noisy Forest opening. Go see why we're so excited! Mystic "Perpetual Being" and Baphomet "Betrayed" are both getting phones before they're finished being played. Play them and find out for yourself! (Tip of the hat to you adventurous ones who listen past track one). Call me if you don't have them. Can't wait till you know why I love Naked Rhythm!

JOHN SCOTT

T.J. MARTELL FOUNDATION 808-826-7304

Thanks to Columbia Records' Jim Del Balzo for his heartfelt comments regarding the health of his mom and the help she received through the wonderful work of the T.J. Martell Foundation. I have said many times before that this charity is a family foundation and sometimes you don't realize it until it strikes close to home. None of this would be possible without our great contributors and volunteers. The more we fight, the closer the cure. Here's to our health.

DENNIS CONSTANTINE & JASON PARKER

CONSTANTINE CONSULTING

303-440-5470

We hope you had a good Thanksgiving holiday. Here at Constantine headquarters, we were feasting on seitan turkey with yeast gravy. Yum Yum. Happy Holidays! The Arbitrend news from the Constantine stations was good this week. The Arbitron gods were smiling and we were thankful. Actually, the increases have been the result of a lot of hard work and restructuring that has been happening at stations. KBCO increased in Denver from 4.4 to 4.6 (12+), and is 4th 25-54. KTCZ (the Cities' 97 Minneapolis) is showing nice come increases. KMTT (the Mountain in Seattle) increased 3.0 to 3.4 (their highest number ever!) and went 4.5 to 5.0 with 25-54's. WXLE (XL 104.5) in Albany showed a strong increase 1.2 to 1.6, and 2.1 to 2.9 with 25-54. In Los Angeles, FM 101.9 is also showing steady growth. Congratulations to everyone on some great trendage. The new Beatles album, Live at the BBC (Capitol) will arrive at stores this week. It features 56 songs on a double disc, 32 of which are previously unreleased tracks! It's a fascinating look at the Fab Four - and it should be a big seller over the Christmas holidays. It could make for an interesting radio show. Our favorites on the album: The Lennon-McCartney song "I'll Be On My Way," the Ray Charles cover "I Got A Woman," the Coasters song "Young Blood," Arthur Alexander's "A Shot of Rhythm and Blues," Buddy Holly's "Crying, Waiting, Hoping," Eddie Fontaine's rockabilly "Nothin' Shakin,'" the Swingin' Blue Jean's "Hippy Hippy Shake," the cover of Ann Margaret's "I Just Don't Understand," and Chuck Berry's "I Got To Find My Baby." Former John Hiatt guitarist Sonny Landreth is back with his second solo album on Zoo called South of I-10. You should have received a 4 song CDPro called Exit 103A this week. "Shootin' For the Moon" is the first single, and is a rocking number with some great guitar work and backing vocals by Mark Knopfler. Also, "South of I-10" and a cover of the Neville Brothers' "Congo Square." Both sound good to our ears. As a former singer for Arrested Development, Dionne Farris is steeped in funk and hip-hop roots. On her debut solo album, Wild Seed—Wild Flower (Columbia), she combines those elements with pop, blues, and soul to give us a compelling sound. The lead track is "I Know," an anthem of sorts. Other intriguing tracks include "Reality," "Passion," "Don't Ever Touch Me (Again)," and "Human," as well as a bluesy cover of the Lennon/McCartney classic "Blackbird." Let this album get under your skin and you may not be able to get it out of your CD player. A soundtrack that has some good music on it is Dumb & Dumber (RCA). Most interesting is the Crash Test Dummies covering XTC's "The Ballad of Peter Pumpkinhead." The track features Ellen Reid on lead vocals, not Brad Roberts. Others to sample are a cover of "Hurdy Gurdy Man" by the Butthole Surfers and the Proclaimers singing the Temptations' "Get Ready". Pearl Jam's Vitalogy (Epic) holds some great tracks for AAA radio. "Nothingman" and "Immortality" seem to be the early favorites. The former is an acoustic ballad, and the latter is more intense. Also getting some early airplay is "Betterman," a dark and noisy number. "Pulp Fiction" is one of the most talked about movies of the year, and now MCA has released a soundtrack album. One of the songs featured is "If Love Is A Red Dress (Hang Me In Rags)" by Marie McKee. This is quite a vocal performance from the former Lone Justice singer. It is sleepy and acoustic, but quite compelling. IRS has released a dark Christmas song called "Fairytale of New York" by Kirsty MacColl & the Pogues. This one will put a different spin on the holiday cheer, which I think is needed at times during this season.

JOHN PERRONE

TVT-WAX-TRAX RECORDS, 212-979-6410

Is it me or has Christmas stuff been out in the store before Halloween? The holiday season is starting earlier every year. Anyway, let's just get to the music! We've told you about them and we'll keep at it until you listen. Catherine is here and they're not going away. With some incredible shows here in NYC this past week, you cannot ignore this band. Their debut, Sorry, is kickin' all over the place and the band will be hitting the West coast this month with dates in L.A., San Francisco, Seattle and Portland. If you want to be on the list, give me a call. Catherine is doing interviews. They're pretty funny guys. It makes good radio...Chris Connelly's third solo record should be in your paws by now. Shipwreck is a poetic record. One that if you pass up, you will definitely be missing something special. Heavy at WRAS this week! This record just proved what a dynamic artist Chris Connelly is. Check out "What's Left But Solid Gold?" and "Meridian Afterburn"...Everyone will be getting the college only Black Box Sampler. This is some of the best stuff on the box set including Meat Beat Manifesto, KMFDM, Sister Machine Gun and 1000 Homo DJs!! Enjoy. If you would like to purchase the slipcase version of the box for cheap, call me for more details. What else to say, but if you are not playing any of the above records...Get it done!!

MARK MARSHALL

ROTTEN RECORDS 909-624-2332

The new limited-edition Acid Bath Edits disc should be crawling across your desk just as you read this. You'll discover 4 radio-friendly songs edited from their full-length CD. When the Kite String Pops, produced by D.R.I.'s Spike Cassidy. All artwork and type is done by your favorite Nightstalker, Richard Ramirez.

Keep an "eye" out for it. If you didn't get your copy, call us! All hearts are aflutter as thousands have witnessed our "swamp rats" from the Bayou Country in clubs across America. Come meet the hard-working Rotten crew at the Acid Bath show at Las Palmas Theatre in L.A. on December 8th and Showcase Theatre in Corona on December 10th. Those of you anxiously awaiting the furor of D.R.I. unleashed can catch them on their Live CD coming in January. A li' something to spend your Christmas gift bucks on in the New Year. Happy Holidays!!

GINA GALLI

BLOOD RECORDS 610-293-9200

Day of Reckoning "I'm Not A Strong Swimmer" continues to hold strong as they build in radio support and recognition. DOR was recently featured on WDRE's "Left of Center" as well as "The Local Edge," WDRE in Philadelphia's local music show. We also had a chance to pop in the studio of WCWP in Brookville, NY before their recent CBGB's show, and while there DOR recorded a live acoustic version of "Run," now featured in power rotation. DOR is always happy to stop by a station while out on their travels. They're out playing a slew of club dates and will continue on the road into '95. Definitely take the time to check them out at the following venues: 12/7 Albany, NY, 12/8 Providence, RI, 12/9 Burlington, VT, 12/10 New Paltz, NY, 12/14 New London, CT, 12/15 Norwalk, CT, 12/17 Baltimore, MD (w/ Dillon Fence), 12/21 New York, NY.

So yo, the year is over next week. Can you believe Christmas is almost here? Oh well, I can't wait for some time off to chill. So the Body Count, it rules the airwaves. Groovezilla will kick your ass, dig on this band. Leviathan will have a new single coming in January. Megadeth is still the reigning kings. You love this band. Overdose is reacting everywhere it goes on. Monster Voodoo Machine's Defence Macanism (EP) is in your face, do it now. Samiam has some new tracks you can work with, dig on it. Sick of It All are the kings of NYHC. Give it up for them, you love this record. W.A.S.P. is still in your face. Do some tracks of this record. Til next week, Cya.

Greetings my fellow music industry brethren. First, I would like to say thanks for the incredible support of Exit-13's Ethos Musick and Hypocrisy's The Fourth Dimension. (GF) Both are kicking serious ass, keep up the momentum, drive these suckers up the charts! The new package should be in your oh-so-eager little hands, or it will be shortly. Add: Incantation's "Mortal Throne of Nazarene," Pyogenesis's "Waves of Erotasia" and "None" by Meshuggah. Please play these until your listeners beg for mercy and ask for more. Pungent Stench and Incantation are on the road, (is) interviews are available at the shows. For those of you who haven't turned in your questionnaires: What? Are you nuts?! I need those!! (coming!) Video people: call me, I'm doing video promotions now as well as my other stuff. Anybody still want giveaways? I got 'em, just call.
