Mad Season, Above, Columbia

Few albums these days are worth listening to from beginning to end. This is one of them. Done as a side project while Alice In Chains writes for a new record, the Layne Staley-headed material is brooding and eerie, yet relentless and powerful. Aside from "River Of Deceit," check out "Wake Up," "Long Gone Day," "Lifeless Dead" and "I Don't Know Anything." Mad Season is a '90s supergroup with serious depth that's gonna deliver. 62 stations are hopping aboard the album, and the first single, "River of Deceit," cops 47 including DMX, KDKB, KEGL, KIOZ, KISS, KLOL, KLOS, KQRC, WAAF, WBZX, WDIZ, WIYY, WLLZ and WXTB. The track also debuts 67* on the Hard Hundred and grabs the 49* spot on COR. "River" is also tied for second Most Added honors. Is there more? You bet your facial fuzz there is — number 2 Most Added at Alternative with 19 first week adds. KDKB's Paul Peterson: "I like it because it takes care of all of our alternative leaning listeners and melds well with the classic material, too. Not just a wall of sound like so much of the other alternative leaning records out there. Very hypnotic." Next? WDRK's Addison Wakeford: "If that isn't a smash record I'll be really surprised. It's familiar enough sounding that almost anyone can pick up on who it is, and it works day and night." On to WAXQ's Vinny Marino: "This record is extremely important. It's as close as we're going to get to AIC until Layne and the group finally get to work." And finally, WRXK's Austin Keyes: "Brilliant. It's reliable, it's relaxed. It's the voice we've counted on hearing for a long time."

HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Jeff Buckley, "Last Goodbye," Columbia

If ever an artist and accompanying record was ready to break out big from beneath the toil of the trenches, Buckley's got the record and the credibility. Produced by Andy Wallace (Paw, White Zombie and Soul Asylum), "Last Goodbye" has begun to develop at Alternative Radio with stations like KROQ and 99X making room. MTV is banging it as a Buzz Clip and now rock radio is beginning to take notice. Note the big bangers at KLOS and WMMR, with WAVF and KRRK also spinning this one out of the gate. The track holds strong at 17* on the Triple A chart, and the album ain't no slouch either with the 31* spot on the Triple A album chart.

Monster Magnet, "Negasonic Teenage Warhead," A&M

Walking on the trippy side of the retro fence, or should we say tripping on the retro side of the walking fence, Monster Magnet manage to catapult into the mix of the '90s maelstrom with the musical equivalent of an acid trip with "Negasonic Teenage Warhead." The hypnotic, faded-out guitar and the psychedelic groove of the Magnet sound power the song along, while the kaleidoscope of other musical sounds gives "Negasonic" the spice needed to make it a standout rock radio track. KLOS and WAAF join those already spinning the track (K100, KISW, KLPX, KUPD, KZAK, WAXQ and WDZR) bringing the station total to 9. With a totally cool video gearing to make a Music Television debut, now would be the perfect time to turn on the lava lamp and delve into the mind meld that is Monster Magnet.

MORE... HARD ACTS TO FOLLOW

Better Than Ezra, "Good," Elektra/EEG

"Good" gets even better this week with 8 new adds at some key players including KEYJ, KICT, KKEG, KQRC, WDIZ, WIXV, WRUF and WZZR. Strong increases at KEGL(15-20), KLOS(11-15), KZAK(12-15), KZRR(7-9) and X107(26-28). Nice move on the AOR front, too, with a bolt from 87 to 77* on the Hard Hundred. Showing good crossover action as well with a 15 to 11* move at Alternative. KQRC's Doug Sorenson had this to say, "Paul Brown's got a hit. It's Elektra's answer to Pearl Jam. We really like the sound of this good, solid record." Dave Rossi at WAVF: "Probably my favorite song on the air right now. Instant recognition with men, women and children calling right away. One of those rare records that went from light to heavy in one week for us." An anomaly maybe for most records, but obviously not this one!

Our Lady Peace, Naveed, Relativity

"Bearer of good news," the Middle Eastern translation of the album's title is fitting Relativity's style these days. Stats alone speak for the first single from this Canadian bunch. 55 believers are playing "Starseed" and 11 new stars add this week including KFMZ, KRZR, WAPL, WRIF, WTUE, WZZR and KFMZ. 15 stations increase this week's spins: check out KILQ(15-17), KLOS(13-15), WXTB(22-25), and WAAF(11-22). The track jumps 54-42* on the Hard Hundred and 31-26* on COR.

"Starseed" also picks up 5 new Alternative adds and cruises to 33* on the Alternative chart. Back to KQRC and Mr. Sorenson: "I added 'Starseed' last week. It sounds really good. Based on the sound of the record it really fits where we needed it." Depth tracks, you say? Plenty. Look out for "Naveed," "Hope" and "Dirty Walls" to cull from now or at a later date. Naveed hits the stores March 21st, and don't forget OLP's guest spot on the "Jon Stewart Show" and upcoming Beavis and Butthead video appearance. Huh, huh, huh-huh.

Skid Row, "Into Another," Atlantic

Down and out these guys are not. "Easy Street" might be a more appropriate moniker for Sebastian and the boys. 21 add "Into," including KATT, KEGL, KEZO, KISS, WHJY, WLZR, WPDH, WRXK and WXRC. Skid checks in with a 99* debut on the Hard Hundred. The ever-quotable Dale Miller from KATP: "Top 5 phones and it hasn't even been a week yet. Instantly into heavy here — they've been missed and this is a tremendous song." WDRK's Addison Wakeford is on the bandwagon: "Good record!! I was very surprised. I thought they had dropped off the face of the earth. I don't have to daypart that record at all. I spiked it a couple of times at night and got incredible phones."

Stiltskin, "Inside," Elektra/EEG

Legend has it that Rumpel and the Stiltskin clan were originally rock and rollers. But ever since that sleeping curse was incanted upon poor Rumpel the band would never get off the ground. But centuries later the Stiltskin surname survives with nothing resembling any sleeping disorder whatsoever. It's obvious that music has always been in their blood with evidence pointing at 24 total stations featuring 'em including 14 adds this week. KEGL, KLBJ, KRZR, KUPD, WAAF, WBZX, WKDF and WKQZ all got Inside this week and KATP also increases 10-17. "Inside" also debuts at the 98* notch on the Hard Hundred. Dale Miller at KATP espouses: "Seeing great phones on that already. One of those reaction records they only have to hear once." WAAF's Ron Valeri told us, "A great, hard alternative record. Kind of a refreshing twist on the whole London invasion. A heavy song coming from England. Whoda think it?"

Chris Duarte, "My Way Down," Silvertone

The momentum on this track keeps gaining with "My Way Down" cracking the Hard Hundred top 40 at 38*. 53 are in with 11 new adds this week. Finding their way down this week were KICT, WEGR, WMMR, WNCD, WSHE and WROV. Chris is also increasing his way at KISS(8-9) KRZZ(17-22) WCMF(25-28) WDHA(9-13) WGLF(14-21) and WXKE(17-22). Texas Sugar Strat Magik holds its own as well, moving 38-35* on the Album Chart. Again to KATP's own Dale Miller: "Top 5 phones here at KATP. You would expect that in Texas, but this is Texas blues rock that can work anywhere."

Warrant, "Family Picnic," CMC

It's no doubt that Warrant warrants serious consideration for that niche sound you've come to expect, respect and covet for your station from this band. This is grown up "Cherry Pie" to bring along for the Picnic. Stations playing "Family" total 14, with 3 new adds this week. KATT, KRZZ and WRZK brought the ant and roach killer this week while KMOD, KZAK, WHMH, WNCD and WOZN all increased. Warrant moves 99-97* on the Hard Hundred. KATP's Dale Miller can't be stopped: "It's much like Skid Row. Their fans have obviously missed these guys. They have a big following out there and the song is tremendous. They didn't come back with a couple wimpy songs. This one's great and the reaction is reflecting that."

NEWS

Bill Hard & Lisa Riegel

NAGARYA'S NEW VIRGIN REP

Longtime WKDF APD/MD John Nagarya is jumping to the other side of the fence and joining Virgin as their new Denver rep. Jeffrey Naumann welcomed Nagarya to the Virgin fold saying, "I won't say that I'm thrilled that he's joining Virgin because I will never use the word 'thrilled.' I will say that we're happier than pigs in shit that we got John Nagarya, who we think is going to be one of the hardest working promotion people in the business." "KDF PD Kidd Redd added, "He should be good at it...he's been getting my deaf ass to play records for years." Redd wasted no time in filling Nagarya's chair, promoting midday personality Sheri Sexton to MD, who commented, "I'm friggin' ecstatic to be an active part of the monstrous KDF Programming Department — Kidd Redd is desperately in need of a woman's touch (musically, I mean). Now if I can only find my new desk under all of Nagarya's Motley Crue stuff...and hey, what's the @$%& ABBA album doing here?" Sheri's music call hours are Wednesdays and Thursdays from 2:30 to 5:30. And in the "yougottabekidding" department, Kidd Redd is going to take calls on Wednesdays from 1:30-3:30.

COLUMBIA PROMOTES WOLTMAN & LANGBECKER

Chris Woltman

Chris Woltman has been promoted to Director, National Album Promotion, and Kim Langbecker to Associate Director, National Album Promotion, West Coast for Columbia. Woltman has served as Associate Director, Album Promotion for the label since 1993, following a year as Columbia's Local Promotion

Kim Langbecker

Manager in Cleveland. He began his career in music as a CBS Records college rep at Ohio State University, and in 1989, began a year as an account service rep at the Sony Music Distribution New England Branch. In 1990, he moved to Cleveland as Local Promotion Manager for EMI. Since early '94, Langbecker has been Columbia's Local Promotion Manager for the Phoenix/Denver region, working out of the L.A. and Southwest branches of Sony Music Distribution. She joined Columbia after 4 1/2 years at Atlantic, where she was Local Promotion Manager for the Detroit and Cincinnati markets.

BOB WALTON THUNDERS INTO TAMPA

Bob Walton

Former WRDU PD Bob Walton has been tapped for programming duties at new Classic Rocker WTBT, Thunder 105.5 FM in Tampa. The station, formerly WGUL, switched formats from Big Band to Classic Rock last Tuesday (3/14), when the station was taken over by new owners, Citicasters, whose other properties include WXTB and WTSP Channel 10. "We feel that the classic rock purists are not adequately served in the Tampa Bay area," stated President/GM Dan DiLoreto. "This will be the outlet for the 25 to 54 year old Tampa Bay male to hear Led Zeppelin, Pink Floyd, The Rolling Stones, and all of the great bands of the '60s, '70s and early '80s." Walton commented on his new PD post, "I'm grateful to have worked with some of the best in the business at WRDU. The opportunity to come to Tampa and work with Dan DiLoreto, Greg Mull, and Citicasters is just fantastic. I'm looking forward to expanding the Citicasters empire — this is going to be fun, they wouldn't have it any other way."

BOB BITTENS EXITS WHCN

Bob Bittens

We're sorry to report that 16-year station veteran Bob Bittens has relinquished his programming position at WHCN/Hartford. With Liberty's impending acquisition of WHCN coming on the heels of their recent format change at WYSR from AC to Alternative, it's a safe bet that the broadcast company has more surprises in store for the Hartford market. Bittens started at WHCN in 1979, doing overnights six days a week. A year later, he moved up to middays and MD, and then on to APD in the mid-'80s, and PD in January '87. At presstime, there was no official statement from Liberty on Bittens' exit or who will fill the vacated position.

RCA RESTRUCTURES ALTERNATIVE PROMOTION DEPT.

Ron Poore

Nick Bull was promoted to Director, National Triple A/West Coast Alternative Promotion for RCA, and Ron "Jetson" Poore has joined the label as Director, National Alternative Promotion. In making the announcements, VP/Rock Promotion Dave Lonca commented, "Losing Lisa Worden to KROQ was a tough pill to swallow until I realized that while Nick was heading up our Triple A department, he could also take on alternative promotion. He was capable of so much more, so we gave him more. The next task was to find the right person to sit by my side here in New York. After a long, tedious process, my gut led me to 'Jetson,' and he and Nick immediately grabbed hold of our Dave Matthews Band project, as well as our 'Dumb and Dumber' soundtrack, making our 'spin stories start to soar." Prior to the promotion, Bull was Manager, National Adult Alternative Promotion. Before joining the label, he was a research editor for Hits, a singles buyer for Tower Records in L.A. and LP buyer for Licorice Pizza in L.A. Prior to his appointment, Poore held a similar position at Imago, and before that, he held promotion positions at both Chrysalis and Atco.

Nick Bull

You'll notice we've shown two pictures of Nick Bull — the California Surfer Dude Nick and the Punk Nick. Please fax Lisa at (609) 654-9179 and tell us which Nick look you prefer. Votes will be tallied and the winner will be announced in next week's Triple A section.

SONY TAKES CONTROL OF SW NETWORKS

Sony Software Corporation has acquired the equity in SW previously held by Warner Music Group, and is now the Networks sole owner. SW Networks was formed in the Summer of '94 as a joint venture between Sony Software and Warner Music Group. It creates highly targeted, niche oriented radio programming and combines satellite, digital cable and on-line computer services to form the multimedia network. "Sony's unwavering support has allowed us to accomplish the impossible — SW has launched five long-form programs and one 24-hour network in less than a year," said Susan Solomon, President & CEO of SW Networks. "By the end of the year, we will have launched an additional four long-form programs and two more 24-hour networks. Sony's broad base of financial, technological and creative assets, together with their unique take on multimedia innovation, make them an ideal strategic parent for SW. We are tremendously pleased that Sony has decided to increase its level of participation in the company." Sony Corp. Exec. VP Jeff Sagansky commented, "In its start-up phase, SW Networks has surpassed all expectations. The company's initial success confirmed for us that the network is in a position to act as a catalyst to integrate radio into the multimedia universe. The acquisition of Warner's stake in SW guarantees Sony a unique position in the new media landscape." Sony Corp. President/CEO Michael Schulhof added, "In terms of vision, SW Networks' plan to merge new media communications with traditional broadcast is very much in keeping with Sony's overall strategy of successfully combining entertainment and technology. As it became clear that the company was quickly realizing that integration, we became increasingly determined to acquire complete rights to SW. We are convinced that this acquisition insures Sony's place in the vanguard of both radio and new media."

Zeb Sez...

by Lisa Riegel

Having spent close to two decades in radio, Zeb Norris has been there and done that. You name it — free-form at KTYD in the mid-'70s, Gold/CHR in the early '80s, AOR in the late '80s, and now Triple A at WXLE in Albany. We figured this multi-format kind of guy could shed some light on the unsolved mysteries of the medium, so we decided to venture into Zeb's world...

Before we talk about 'XLE, lets go back to the good old wild west days, starting with your first radio gig at KTYD.

Zeb: I was at KTYD from '76 to '82. Actually, when I was still going to high school in Santa Barbara, I met Jim Trapp when he was doing late nights there. He called himself 'Mr. Infinity' on the air.

That fits.

Zeb: Yeah, at the time, he had hair down to his waist. Now, he doesn't have any. We became friends, and I would hang out with him on his all-night show. I would answer phones and pull records and help him with his illicit activities. That's how I got interested in becoming a jock. Before I moved to Santa Barbara, I grew up in the San Francisco area, listening to KSAN. I dug it. I thought it would be a cool way to make a living, but I had no idea how to go about getting in. Once I made friends at a station, it opened a window of opportunity for me. I started out there helping Jim out. Then they started a contest where listeners could become announcers and get an hour on the air. You entered the contest by putting together a list of songs you would play, so I found out who the judges were and I put one of each of their favorite songs in my list, and Voila! I won, and I got to be on the air. A couple of weeks later they called me up and asked if I would be interested in doing fill-in work. I started out being the emergency late-night fill-in guy. By the time I left, six years later, I had been the production director and music director.

That's a pretty smooth start, right out of high school to a hip station in California.

Zeb: KTYD was great. The station was free-form, and Santa Barbara was a beach town full of beautiful women. I was playing whatever I wanted and getting paid for it, and I couldn't die from having sex. It was truly a wonderful period of time. After I left KTYD, I joined Trapp at an AM station. He had left about a year before I did. We did a Gold/CHR hybrid at KXXN, a tiny AM day-timer. Even though we only had 500 watts and were a day-timer, we still beat the established AM Top 40 station in our target demo of 18-34 in our first book. But the station was severely mismanaged, so it wound up going off the air.

Was it difficult adjusting to a limited Top 40 playlist after cutting your teeth at a free-form station.

Zeb: The last year I was at KTYD, it was not free-form. After they blew Trapp out, it pretty much stopped being free-form. Even the last year he was there, it wasn't really free-form. In order to get some consistency, Trapp had instituted a system that involved everyone on the staff being in the music meetings on a rotating basis. Everybody had their input as to what to play, but then you had to consistently play it throughout your show. The ratings were fine, but he had a difficult time getting along with the GM at the time, so they blew him out. From KXXN, I went to Sacramento where I did 'Rock of the '80s' at the Rick Carroll consulted station KPOP, which was a hoot. But they went CHR, which I hated. Then, I went to KZAP, 'Zeb Norris at K-ZAP playing ZZ Top and Led Zeppelin.' I was there for nine months. Then I went to an AM station in Tacoma, and worked with Trapp again at a CHR/Gold hybrid, KAMT. It was a little less severely mismanaged than the previous AM station, but in the same ballpark. That didn't last all that long. Then I went to KSJO for two-and-a-half years, '86 to '88. Then I went to KRQR. I started out as a weekender, and within a couple of months, I was doing their late nights, and I got the MD job a couple of years before I left.

And now we get to WXLE. At last count, there were about 57 rock stations in the Albany market, right?

Zeb: That number is pretty close. Actually, there are 7 1/2. We're not the half, I'll tell who is in a second. There's us, the Triple A; there's 'PYX, which is mainstream AOR; the River, which is essentially Male A/C; there's 'QBK, which used to be Classic Rock, and is now The Edge. The way they're doing The Edge, though, it's not really an Alternative format as much as it is a COR format. They're playing Aerosmith, and Rolling Stones and Jimi Hendrix, which I'm sure the other Jacobs Edge stations are not. Then there's 'DRE, or the Underground Network now.

What do you think about 'DRE's change to Underground?

Zeb: I thought it was more a threat to our demographic before. I think they'll be effective 12-24. I don't see them doing any damage above that.

It's a much different station than it was a couple of months ago, with a lot more harder-edged, unfamiliar music.

Zeb: Mottla seems to think that's the way to go. He's a very bright programmer, so I hesitate to say that he's wrong. On the other hand, playing hits never hurts. I know he's felt that way in the past, when he was doing AOR in Baltimore. He was the only AOR programmer who was playing 'Achy Breaky Heart' because his research told him he could. I'm wondering why he's not more research-oriented in this. Then again, if you're playing gobs of new music, and you wait around for research, you're no longer on the cutting edge. Texturally, I think they're aiming much lower than they were before. I'm not concerned with them. They came in and had a 1.1, and they dropped to a 0.9. With their signal limitations, I don't think they're going to get much beyond that. There's not much crossover with us anymore. Before, they used to play some of the '80s stuff that we play — Talking Heads, Police, U2. I don't hear any of that anymore. The limitation here is that they are 3,000 watts.

I think we've gotten to 5 of 7 1/2 stations.

Zeb: Then there's Modern Rocker 'EQX. They're not physically in the market, they're in Vermont. They have 50,000 watts and are on top of a mountain, so they get into the market with their signal. They promote within the market pretty effectively. They have some heritage here. Gary Schoenwetter just took over as PD, and within just a couple of weeks, he's improved the station quite a bit.

At one point a couple of years ago, they were reporting to both Triple A and Alternative. They've taken a different direction in the past year.

Zeb: That's the case. They're Alternative, and given the direction Underground has gone, they're more of an upper demo Alternative. They're still definitely Alternative. They'll play some stuff that crosses over with us once in a while, like Melissa Etheridge. There is some justification for thinking of her as an Alternative artist. Not a whole lot, but some. The days they reported both was when Jim McGuinn was there. At that time there were only three rock stations in town.

Okay, that was six...

Zeb: Then there's the Z-Rock affiliate, and the Westwood One '70s format, which is the half. They will play 'Only Rock n' Roll' into 'We Are Family' by Sister Sledge. You get some rock n' roll in there.

How do you counter program against 7 1/2 stations?

Zeb: That's a good question. When I first got here, my concern was less programming against all the other stations in town as much as simply making this station as good as it could be at what it is trying to be. I didn't worry about finding the station's niche here. There simply isn't a lot of space left open. I figured if I did as good a job as I possibly could, and made the station as attractive as I could, that would be the way to go. Now that 'QBK dropped Classic Rock and went lower end, there's more of an opening for a station that is targeting upper demos and is contemporary at the same time. Both the River and 'PYX play very little new music. 'PYX plays maybe two new songs an hour, and the River plays one recurrent an hour. I'm playing four or five currents an hour, and trying to make sure that the tone and texture is appropriate for the 25+ audience.

What are your feelings on familiarity versus exclusivity in the format?

Zeb: Familiarity is key to programming any station successfully. There are two different groups within the Triple A reporting family. There are the non-profit stations which tend to play more exclusive music and don't worry about familiarity. Their goal is different. Their goal is to super-serve a niche so well, that they convince the audience to give them money. That's not my goal. My goal is to have such a big audience that advertisers give me money. To do that, I definitely utilize familiar music — R.E.M., U2, the Beatles, Rolling Stones, Fleetwood Mac, the Eagles, Gin Blossoms, Toad the Wet Sprocket. If it's a hit, I'm going to be looking at it. That doesn't mean I'll play any old thing, but I will certainly look at it. On the other hand, it's just as important to have my exclusive artists pop up on a frequent basis to differentiate myself from other stations. Some of these are actually familiar, like Joni Mitchell. No one else in the market plays her. Elvis Costello — I can't recall hearing Elvis even on the Alternative stations. Todd Rundgren has got a big fan base here. Both are keys to succeeding as a commercial Triple A station and you have to mix them up.

Some of the commercial Triple A stations seem to be tightening up their playlists a little bit. What are your rotations versus the Alternative rotations?

Zeb: My rotations aren't approaching the Alternative stations. My hits run every seven hours. My mediums run about every 14 hours, and my lights every 20-21 hours. Alternatives seem to be using Top 40 formatics. When I did 'Rock of the '80s' as consulted by Rick Carroll, our hits were coming up every four hours. He was a big believer in Top 40 formatics. Many Alternative programmers these days are, too. It's important to rotate your music enough to gain some familiarity. Anybody who knows the formula for reach and frequency realizes that it takes about 70 plays before your audience hears a song three times. On the other hand, I don't want to be a Top 40 station. I don't think that's what my audience wants. They're looking for variety, and if you're playing songs very frequently, you can't play the same number of songs. I don't rotate my music as much as many Alternatives. Not all Alternatives have the same philosophy on this. 'EQX doesn't rotate their stuff every four hours either. They're probably at about five to six hours on their hits. Record companies certainly want you to play their songs as frequently as possible, but they also want you to play everything that they put out. And that just doesn't compute. If you're rotating things hot, you have less space for other pieces. I consider myself moderate in both ways. I like fairly hot rotations so things can become familiar, but I like a fairly long list, so that I'm interesting and fresh.

Having worked in several formats, have you experienced a noticeable difference in the way labels work AOR and CHR as opposed to Triple A?

Zeb: They're certainly a lot more willing to come up with promotions and more anxious to get their records on CHR because of increased spins. I haven't noticed that much difference between AOR and Triple A that wouldn't make as much sense as the difference between being in a P1 and P2 market. In San Francisco, I got wined and dined an awful lot. But not that many people come out to Albany.

The biggest difference that I hear about is that some labels tend to throw everything and anything at Triple A.

Zeb: That's definitely true. I get far more CDs than I could ever listen to, even if that was my only job. Unfortunately, I'm doing twelve other jobs, so it's difficult for me to listen to it all. On the other hand, the major labels are giving us our own national people, who understand the format and the differences between the stations and do a good job of working the stuff. I'm thinking particularly of Warner Bros., Atlantic, Arista, Columbia, Mercury, RCA and Elektra. All of the nationals for those labels are well-informed people who do a good job. That's very reassuring.

With so much music coming in, how are you able to pick out the really outstanding independent releases or small label releases. How do you ensure you don't miss a really good record like Willy Porter's Dog Eared Dream? I think that's a problem everyone in the format is dealing with — as I look at the stack that I haven't listened to yet this week.

Zeb: I know, it's a three-foot stack. Frankly, I know I'm missing stuff, and that's always frustrating. I rely on charts. I read a lot in the music press, Musician, Rolling Stone. I talk to a lot of other people, programmers, record company people, some of the independents whom I trust, and people at the trades. When trade people call me up for quotes, I say, 'What have you heard that's good?' I'm not shy about playing lesser known artists and labels. I just want to find the good stuff. It is a big challenge to find it without spending an inordinate amount of time on lesser material.

What are your feelings on getting singles before the album?

Zeb: I'm willing to play ball with the record company's strategy when it comes to a single, as long as I feel the single is appropriate for me. If it isn't, there's no way I'll play it. A good example is 'Zombie' by the Cranberries. This was a good song, which worked great for Alternative and sold an awful lot of records for them. Unfortunately, it wasn't texturally appropriate for my station, so I held out and waited until I got the whole album. Once I got it, I started banging 'Ode To My Family,' which has turned into an equally big single. I feel safe talking about this record because I had this conversation with Sky at the CMJ panel. If he had given me something earlier that was texturally appropriate for my station, I would have played it. But I am not in the position to play something that is inappropriate.

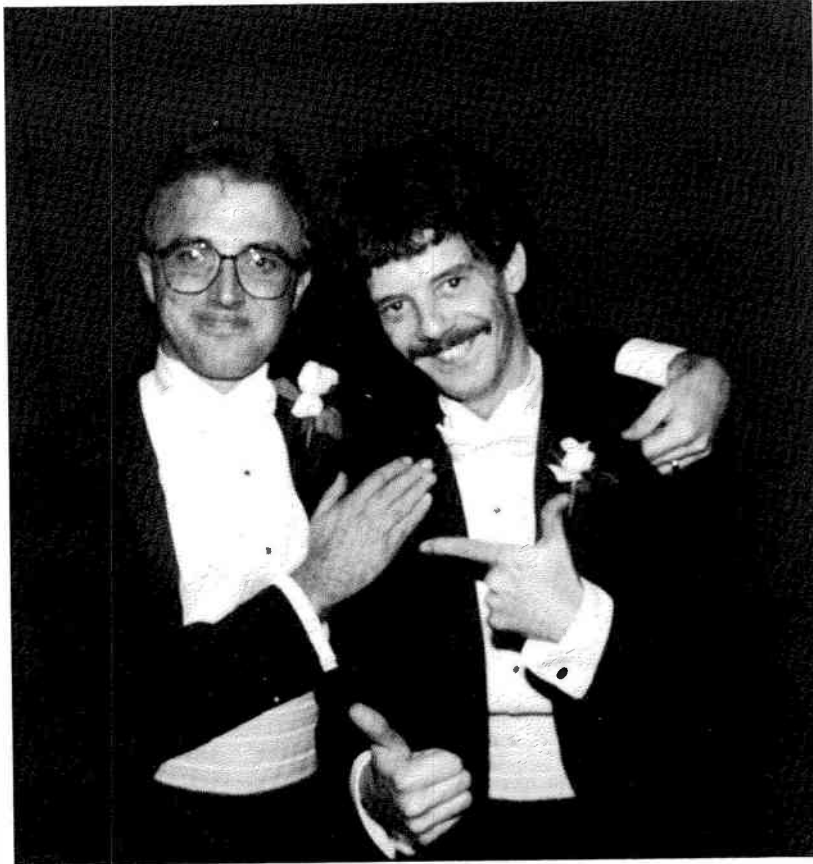

simply because that's all the label wants me to play. When Atlantic put out 'Sweet Thing' by Mick Jagger, they also put out 'Don't Tear Me Up' on the same single. That worked out well, because 'Sweet Thing' sucked, and 'Don't Tear Me Up' was brilliant.

In a market with so many rock stations, is there a constant struggle for co-presents?

Zeb: Yeah, it is a struggle. Most of the time, nobody gets it because there are so many stations vying for it. There are a lot of neutral shows here, and in those cases, it falls to me to make the show my own through on-air promotional activity. We don't present everybody, but we welcome everybody. From Tony Bennett, to the New York Philharmonic to Lyle Lovett, we welcome them all. I have as many artists come by as possible to do in-studio performances and on-air interviews. Some stations are less willing to do that. 'PYX doesn't have much interest in interviews at all. They have worked out well for me. We've had some pretty significant artists come by. Stewart Copeland was here for an hour a couple of days ago. He was a joy to talk to. We've had the Freddy Jones Band come by. They were opening up for Widespread Panic at a show that was actually an 'EQX show. Through my contacts, I was able to get them to come by and they played on the air. It was great. A lot of people get upset if a presents goes to another station. I sympathize with them, but if you work hard enough, your audience will believe you are presenting the show even if you aren't. I try not to get upset about neutral shows. I will get upset if the show goes to another station that I don't think should get it. I fought tooth and nail to get a Tori Amos show that was coming here to remain neutral, and I wound up succeeding. Tori ended up doing an interview with us and doing one with 'EQX. It worked out well for both stations. It worked out well for the promoter, too; it was a sold out show.

Do the stations in town engage in any on-air radio wars?

Zeb: The River seems to talk a lot about what they don't do that other stations do, 'They don't do contests, they don't talk over the songs. They don't have a funny morning show. They don't do this, they don't do that.' I always thought that telling people what you don't do isn't as valuable as telling them what you do. They seem to be a very researched radio station. I'm sure they are just identifying the big negatives that they don't want to get into. They are the only ones that seem to take any shots on the air. They seem to have stopped doing that lately. They've been tremendously successful, so it is hard to knock them too much.

Morning shows have always been a challenge for Triple A stations. You're part of the morning show at 'XLE, right?

Zeb: I do the morning show with my partner, Paul Cashin. He really carries the show to a large degree. He's a great sports guy, a solid news guy. Because of all the things I do at the station, it is the incredible no-prep morning show. A lot of times, he pulls the show along. We have really good chemistry, and that makes a big difference. The reasons Triple A morning shows tend to be problematic is that programmers have this attitude that Triple A is some sort of shrine, where the music comes first, and we can't have any fun. That's ridiculous. That's their own limitation that they are placing on it. You can have just as entertaining a morning on a Triple A as on any other format. You just have to do it in a way that is suitable for your station and your audience. That's true for any station. The most outstanding example is in Seattle, where Chris Mays has Crow and West on the air. That team has a lot of heritage in the market and they are funny guys. They are adult, topical, well-prepped, and they haven't had to adjust very much to be suitable for Triple A. She's reaping some significant rewards as a result of hiring them. She's also incredibly gutsy to fire her husband to make room for them. That seems to have worked out better for him, though, he has a better gig now that is better paying. It's working well all around. I'm a big fan of Chris Mays. What she has done with the morning show there is going to tell people that you can be entertaining in the morning without sacrificing your values as a Triple A.

That seemed to be a running theme at the New Orleans convention, that Triple A needs to stop taking itself so seriously and start having fun.

Zeb: That depends on who you talk to. There are two schools within the Triple A panel — the non-commercial school and the commercial school. The commercial school does need entertaining morning shows. The non-commercial school sometimes plugs in, All Things Considered. They can go ahead and take themselves seriously, and indeed they need to super-serve their audience so well that the audience wants to give them money. For the rest of us, it is important not to take ourselves too seriously, and feel comfortable having a good time. That's what an audience wants out of a good radio station, more than any particular style of music, is to feel good.

The format seems to be leaning towards more upbeat types of music, as opposed to the more —

Zeb: Strum and bum?

Exactly.

Zeb: An interesting thing happened when I first started working here. Dennis Constantine and I started talking about KTYD, and when he was putting KBCO on the air, KTYD was one of the stations he modeled it after.

At KTYD, we were a free-form station, we played a lot of rock, fusion jazz, a lot of singer-songwriters. While on the one hand we serviced all the fringes, we still played mainstream music. A lot of the people who initially got into Triple A, rejected everything about mainstream music, to their own detriment. I don't have any problems playing a hit, I just don't want to play an unrelieved string of hits. After KRQR went Classic Rock, I was bored because it was nothing but Classic Rock. I don't have anything against great classic songs, I just don't want to hear seven in a row. To me, the key things about Triple A that make it attractive as a programmer and a listener are variety and the ability to play a lot of new music. You just have to keep mixing it up.

Are you still consulted by Dennis Constantine?

Zeb: We are in negotiations. Dennis was instrumental in bringing me to the station, and instrumental in shaping all aspects of the station. Recently, we went through a reorganization and budget trimming process. We're in the process of renegotiation with Dennis. We hope to continue to work with him, but at this point, we're on hiatus as we work this out.

Have you been watching

what's been going with 'BCO and The Peak?

Zeb: Absolutely.

What's your take on the situation?

Zeb: It's extremely interesting. There are a number of factors at play there. Judy McNutt is a capable programmer who has made some changes that she hasn't had a chance to see the up-side of yet. She's only had a chance to see the down-side of them. The Peak is a very well-programmed station. It's easy to understand what they are doing, because it doesn't have as wide a variety as what Triple A is. It's basically a Modern Rock station with a higher percentage of Gold. I look at it as a Modern Rock station with an AOR format structure, rather than a CHR one, which so many modern rocks are. Also, 'BCO suffers from people liking what is new better. The Peak is having a honeymoon, and 'BCO is suffering as a result.

Do you think it is more a function of what The Peak is doing right, and not necessarily what 'BCO is doing wrong?

Zeb: Yeah, that is true to some degree.

Also, so many people left 'BCO, and that left some uncertainty in people's minds. Denver is a too huge a market to not have its own alternative, so certainly, there were a lot of shares waiting for that. There's a station in Fort Collins, but that is not the same as an actual Denver station.

And with people like Ginger Havlat going to The Peak, they had some instant heritage.

Zeb: That's right, they had some heritage on the air right away.

Do you think 'XLE would be vulnerable to a Peak-type attack?

Zeb: I don't think we would be. For one thing, since I've been aware of The Peak, I utilize the '80s gold library. There are 2 1/2 Alternatives in this market already, 'EQX, 'DRE and The Edge. I don't see the space for them formatly. On the other hand, there is not enough space for the stations that are already here. Who knows? Being aware of The Peak's success, I have tried to program this station to minimize that window of opportunity for anybody out there.

Do you do much research?

Zeb: No, we don't. We're a relatively humble station. We operate on 6,000 watts. We have a very small, tight crew, but not a big budget. I don't have a research budget at this time. We are looking forward to making an exciting announcement in the future regarding our abilities in the market.

You wear several different hats at the station, but I know you want to mention some of your staff, also.

Zeb: I have an absolutely solid staff here. My Production Director and midday guy, Tom Robinson, does an excellent job. He's got an awful lot to do with a five hour show and all the production as well. He does a great job with a basic studio. Jeff Berger has a lot of experience in the market, and has a lot of success building up the afternoon drive ratings. My evening guy, Chris "Citrus" Marks, joined the station straight out of broadcast school and enjoys the highest weekday ratings on the station, which is unusual for a Triple A station to do that well in the evening. He is also my Assistant MD. Overnights are handled by Lee Messina. He's real solid as well. He also does the jazz show. He's got a real adult presentation, almost an NPR flair to him. Weekends are very strong for us because our signal problems are less of a problem for people in their homes than in concrete office buildings. We have tremendous weekend numbers, and the weekend staff is partly responsible for that. We have an acoustic show on Sunday mornings, that is our highest rated show. It pulls a 10 share 25-54. That's programmed by a woman named Mary Winans who does a fantastic job. Loretta Heagerty is my Promotions Assistant and really helps hold the office together. I realize I've been fairly effective in terms of getting publicity for myself, but I wouldn't want to not give credit where it is due to the other people on the staff because they have been doing a tremendous job in a stressed environment. We don't have all the tools we would like to have.

Were most of the staff in place at the station when you came in?

Zeb: They were all here. I didn't bring anybody new in. That's been something I'm quite proud of. I've seen programmers come in and blow people out just because they want their own crew in. I don't think that's very humanistic.

Did they have any trouble adjusting to the Triple A format?

Zeb: They were already doing Triple A for a couple of months before I got here. No, Triple A is a format that jocks love. It means more variety, more flexibility, more interesting material. As a jock, I would rather do this than any other format. I also wanted to mention my GM Jack Foley. I haven't had a partnership like this since Trapp. He's a young guy, a year or so older than me. We're having a lot of fun working together. I also utilize his expertise as a broadcast person in some of my programming concerns. He has a background in television before buying the radio station here. It's fun to work with him. One of the things that prevented me from getting into programming before was a certain shyness in dealing directly with management on a day-to-day basis. With Jack, it is a real pleasure.

How about the advertisers? Your sales staff really has to understand the format to bring advertisers in.

Zeb: And they do. Our conversion rate — our share of the dollars in the market versus our share of the ratings is roughly 2.9 — which is tremendously high. It's a small sales staff, but they know how to sell the qualitative. Since we're a smaller station, we do a lot of local advertising. These people can see the actual results when we do a remote. We pack the place. We recently did a free skiing night at a local ski resort and we had the highest turnout. They had done it with a lot of stations for a lot of years. This was the highest turnout they had ever had. One of the advantages with Triple A is that your audience is a foreground audience. They are more likely to be paying attention to what you are saying during the breaks because they are more likely to be paying attention to the music.

Do you feel positive about the future of Triple A?

Zeb: Absolutely. The current state of AORs, with a growing number of them going to a younger 18-34 stance, means that there is a tremendous window of opportunity for Triple A to be less of a niche format and more of a mainstream format for the 25+ audience. I hope that people see that window of opportunity and seize it before Male A/C stations prevent that from becoming a possibility.

After spending most of your life on the west coast, was it difficult acclimating to the east coast? How different are the market-places?

Zeb: Tremendously different. Any market is tremendously different from the San Francisco Bay area. All markets are unique, but that is a particularly unique series of markets because the TSA includes San Jose, which is a larger city than San Francisco. People are a lot more conservative lifestyle-wise here. Not necessarily politically, but in terms of their lifestyle. And yet, sometimes it is not that different from Sacramento. Albany is the capitol of New York, and Sacramento is the capitol of California. Both are markets I've worked in now. The towns have a higher degree of sophistication than they might were they not the capitol because of the state workers, lawyers, legislators and so on. They also have better economies than they might otherwise because of the steady flow of state money. It's been interesting. I was looking for an adventure and I got one when I moved out here. On the other hand, since I work at the station an average of twelve hours a day, I'm not as familiar with the area as I might be. One thing that has made this move a lot easier than it might have been is my wife, Deb Lowry, who is a fantastic person. A one-person support system for me. I could not have done it without her. Zeb and Deb. We didn't do it on purpose.

TRIPLE ACE

Matthew Sweet, "100% Fun," Zoo If the release of Sweet's stellar 100% Fun isn't enough to make you start dotting your "I's" with happy faces, then get ready for a special treat. The wonderful wizards at Zoo are about to bestow upon the Triple A community a sampler, Sweet In Low, that not only includes some of the best cuts on the new album — "We're The Same," "Walk Out," and "Everything Changes" — but it also has some sweet live versions of "Someone To Pull The Trigger" and "Cortez The Killer." Also included in Sweet In Low are AAA favorites "Time Capsule," "I've Been Waiting," and "Girlfriend." Mike Richter, KBXR "This particular project has a great deal of promise for Matthew Sweet. 100% Fun is just that." Jason Parker, Constantine Consulting, "Matthew Sweet has put out another solid album filled with power-pop nuggets. Staying very true to form, 100% Fun is guitar heavy and very well produced. The consensus seems to be that "We're The Same" is the track to watch, but there are many other good ones, including "Everything Changes," "Walk Out," and "Smog Man," to name a few.

THE HOT CORNER

Linda Ronstadt, "Feels Like Home," Elektra/EEG A wise man once said something to the effect that, "Linda Ronstadt hasn't exactly done anything to increase her hipness factor over the last several years." Well, we can't really argue that point. For some time now, Ronstadt has devoted her talents to exploring her musical roots and various orchestral styles. But we should also never forget that, even though she's been absent from the scene lately, Linda Ronstadt was one of the first women to be recognized and respected as an important artist in the very male dominated field of rock music, and she opened the door for many of today's Triple A female artists. So, when we heard her cover of "The Waiting" for the first time, we realized that Ronstadt doesn't need to prove her hipness to us. Her voice will always be recognized and her style will always be her own, and Triple A listeners will always welcome her back. Bruce Stebbins WRNX, "We were pleased with a lot of the cuts on this album. This is a strong effort, and Triple A should embrace this artist. We added this right into heavy rotation. Triple A listeners who have been wondering what Linda Ronstadt has been up to can listen to this album and find out." Zeb Norris WXLE, "Don't let your preconceptions make you too cool for the room. We've been playing the haunting cover of Roy Orbison's 'The Blue Train' and getting a solid, positive response."

Graham Parker, "12 Haunted Episodes," Razor & Tie Kick back, relax and enjoy a haunting ride with Graham Parker. Creatively stagnant, Parker spent most of the summer of '94 writing tunes that would all eventually be scrapped. Facing these artistic doldrums, a discouraged Parker happened to read an article in Guitar Player Magazine on using open tunings. Voila! An open G tuning and a capo to move up and down the neck were the answer to all of his problems. Upon this discovery Parker hacked out 12 Haunted Episodes in no time at all. Consistently melodic and very interesting, Parker's Razor & Tie debut is a totally satisfying listen. Check out "Disney's America," "See Yourself" and "Loverman" — three of the cuts that are still haunting us. We haven't slept since.

SINGLE SPOTLIGHT

Steve Forbert, "It Sure Was Better Back Then," Giant/Paladin

As soon as you hear those unforgettable raspy vocals, there's no doubt in your mind that Steve Forbert has returned. The first single from the soon to be released Mission Of The Crossroad Palms is an upbeat, dynamic tune that's highly emotive and charged with plenty of attitude. With his classic narrative lyrics, Forbert weaves a tale of a retired railroad man remembering the hardships of his work and the torment of his youth, who eventually comes to realize that he actually misses that time in his life. It's a somewhat weighty topic with a guitar-driven pop melody that Forbert blends into a sonic success. WRLT and The World Cafe couldn't wait for the official add date, which is March 20.

Jewel, "Who Will Save Your Soul," Atlantic

Wow! Seemingly coming out of nowhere, Jewel has burst onto the music scene causing countless heads to spin with her fervent and powerful vocals. Her simple musical arrangements coupled with introspective lyrics convey a feeling of vulnerability, yet at the same time, her songs are forceful and commanding — not traits usually found in the average 20-year old. This is a woman who obviously has a lot to offer our format, and we've got a feeling she's going to be around for a long time. Mike Boberg WVXU, "We've gotten really good response on it already. Killer pipes! For a woman as young as she is, she can definitely belt out the tunes. During our recent fund drive, we had copies of both the advance CD and the full length, and they got snatched up pretty quickly, so there's a lot of people out there who are starting to catch on to Jewel." Dan Reed WNKU, "I'm totally in love with her. Anyone with ears can hear it. 'Who Will Save Your Soul' is a good song, very catchy and natural. I've never heard of her before, but this song just came out of nowhere and hit me over the head. It was one listen for me."

Mad Season, "Above," Columbia

Mad Season — musicians for all seasons. These guys from Seattle will not stop working. They have helped create a scene that has completely changed the face of music. Just like the Energizer Bunny they keep going and going... The eerie, moody vocals that resonate throughout the entire record are provided by none other than Alice In Chain's Layne Staley. Equally impressive as Staley's vocals are Pearl Jam's Mike McCready (guitar), John Baker Saunders (bass) and Barrett Martin on percussions. Points of pleasure include "Wake Up," "River Of Deceit," "I'm Above" and "Lifeless Dead." Heck, that's unfair. Every track on this release is a pleasurable one. Don't make your listeners mad this season! Pop it in and hit play.

Till The Night Is Gone, A Tribute To Doc Pomus, Rhino

When we talked with radio last week, most programmers had only received the Rosanne Cash/Los Lobos single, but those two songs generated enough interest in the album for the #2 Most Added spot this week. Steve Cole KSPN, "Seldom has a songwriter exerted such a powerful and lasting presence on the music scene as has Doc Pomus. The scope of his influence is both reflected and memorialized by eclectic and heartfelt renditions of his many hits on Till The Night Is Gone A Tribute to Doc Pomus. The initial Cash and Los Lobos contributions are great as always. Can't wait for the rest of the album." Jody Denberg KGSR, "All I have is the single, but we love Rosanne, and we love this song. One listen will show you where the song 'Live For Today' was ripped off from." Greg Roberts KFMU, "Rosanne Cash is in fine form, and Los Lobos does so much for 'Lonely Avenue.'

When you're working with great songs to begin with, it's hard to ruin them, and these artists just add so much to the songs." Jon Peterson WCBE, "Don't burn out on the tribute thing yet, because this is the best one. Most tributes rely on their star power, whether or not the artists have a feel for the music. This new album has stars and a connectedness to the material. As always, Los Lobos can do no wrong, while Rosanne Cash puts a contemporary spin on a classic jam." Ian Taylor WKVT, "We added the sampler. Doc Pomus' music is always worthy of airplay." Jeff Bieri KRCC, "Yet another tease from the record labels. When I'm hungry, I like to bite into a full-length and sit down for a music feast. I only have two songs to nibble on, so I'm looking forward to the full album meal with the Doc Tribute.

Deadeye Dick, "A Different Story," Ichiban Records

The story is — Deadeye Dick! These guys are dripping with Triple A and crossover potential. Deadeye Dick has already had incredible success with their fun-loving first single "New Age Girl," on both their own release and as prominently featured in the soundtrack to the film Dumb And Dumber. But the band has more substance than a one-hit wonder, and A Different Story has a few more untapped resources that are radio ready. An efficient strip-mining operation of this record would produce such precious gems as "Marguerite," "Anyone," "Different Story" and the musically Beatlesque "Lucky One." Don't miss! Target your listeners with a "deadeye." pull back on your bow and shoot this one right through their speakers and into their heads!

Warner Music Group threw their post-Grammy bash at the Parkinson building in L.A. Among the attendees were Motley Crue, Jackson Browne, Lady Kier, Nan Vernon, David Sanborn, and Triple Ace Freedy Johnston, who was spotted mingling with Elektra Entertainment Group Chairman/CEO Sylvia Rhone.

THE LOCAL BEAT

Kid Leo Columbia Records

Let me begin by quoting my Great Uncle Vito: "Don't set the table if you don't intend to stick around for desert." Now before you question my sanity and more, that old family saying has a lot of meat to its matter. I have heard and empathized with complaints from AAA programmers that their commitments to and beliefs in artists go unrecognized when those said artists break big and the time for spoils to be handed out comes 'round. That is not fair. That is not just. But there is a rational if not rightful reason for that scenario. Like it or not, this business feeds on the moment. Instantaneous gratification is "Standard Operating Procedure" in our industry.

AAA too often will jump on artists, nurture them and then back off them just as their record/song takes off on other levels/formats. You do it because you say it is "burnt." The truth is, it's just starting to cook. Take advantage of what you've worked to establish. Make sure you realize the full value of an artist/song you've developed. In other words... "stick around for desert."

J. Mikel Elcessor WYEP/Pittsburgh

WYEP completed the most successful fundraiser in the station's history on Tuesday, March 7, 1995. Terminating the membership drive three full days ahead of schedule, 2,684 individuals from WYEP's listenership pledged $134,158. The last membership campaign in September of 1994 generated, by comparison, $120,608 from 2,405 individuals. This is an 11% increase in dollars raised from listeners. WYEP's total subscribing membership has now cracked the 7,100 mark.

This tremendous showing of support for WYEP comes in close proximity to the station's relocation to Pittsburgh's South Side and its emergence as the city's leading supporter of local music and the regional arts community. WYEP's unqualified stance as an enthusiastic and energetic ally of the creative community — and the audiences that seek the work of this body — has positioned the station as an organization that can speak with great authenticity as a resource for everyone in the Pittsburgh area. These factors, the station's history as an arts-friendly entity and the programming that has emanated from this philosophy, were cited by new members on numerous occasions as their reasons for giving.

WYEP's long-standing commitment to rethinking and reconstituting public radio development/funding/audience relations paradigm continued with the latest membership campaign. Special premiums, the CDs, concert tickets and lifestyle packages that have long been a staple of public radio fundraisers as incentives to simulate giving, were completely eliminated. This radical shift in the fundraising model was initiated to improve the communication of the station's worth to the potential member. This action helped to create an environment where new public radio listeners could easily understand the value-for-value relationship that lies at the heart of public media membership. The speed of the response demonstrated the power of a clear message delivered in an atmosphere that was not cluttered by chatter about merchandise.

The success of this membership campaign, particularly when viewed as part of a steady, ongoing growth pattern at the station, is a clear indication that Pittsburgh is eager to support a contemporary music station and is willing to invest in the future of the regional arts community.

Greg Roberts KFMU/Vail

This past weekend KFMU traveled east to Denver for the annual Colorado Broadcasters Association Awards, and received Medium Market Station of the Year for the state. This is the second year in a row that KFMU has brought home the hardware as Station of the Year. In 1994, KFMU was voted Small Market Station of the Year in the state.

Judging is based upon submitted entries in fields ranging from programming, production and sales. It truly took a team effort to repeat as Station of the Year. PD Greg Roberts also brought home the award for Medium Market Personality of the Year for the morning show he hosts with partner Greg Bell. Other first places that led to the overall victory included Best On Air Promotion, Best Public Service Campaign, Best One Time Entertainment Program, and Best Lifestyle Feature Program. "We can only look towards a three-peat next year," said GM Ward Holmes. "I am very proud of my staff and their efforts to continue the excellent traditions of KFMU."

In order to improve communication between XPN and record folks, we now have voice mail! (How high tech!) The new music number is (215) 898-0099. The old numbers are no longer operational. The new XPN Music Call hours are Tuesdays 10am-12noon and Thursdays 10am-12noon. MD Bruce Warren and myself will most likely split the calls on both days. If you can't get us, now you can leave a message! Thanks for your patience while we worked this out. Looking forward to speaking with you!

KFOG's CD Live From The Archives sold out 12,000 copies in just six weeks, making it one of the highest-selling releases of the season. THE HARD REPORT by Dave Johnson, host of the nationally-syndicated "Blues Deluxe" radio program. More musical anomalies for the blues front: Check out the latest cover of "You Really Got a Hold On Me" from Mike & the Mechanics (the new album is Beggar on a Beach of Gold, Atlantic). For some country flavored blues, track the New Riders of the Purple Sage re-do of "You Can't Judge a Book By It's Cover" from a 1982 L.A. concert. It's now out on CD under the novel title of "Live" (Avenue label). And as I mentioned on a just-produced "Blues Deluxe" program, who would have ever thought that we'd be featuring "Hootie & the Blowfish"? Well, listen to their cover of Led Zeppelin's "Hey, Hey, What Can I Do?" from the new various artists Zep tribute, "Encomium" (Atlantic). More new items not to be missed: Jason & the Scorchers (the band that George Thorogood "discovered" ten years or so ago) is back with a new album A Blazing Grace (Mammoth). Listen for a killer track. Listen for a killer track. "Legalize Our Love", from A Hundred Lovers, the new release from Austin-based Timbuk 3 (High Street). Finally, from the "new and improved" reissue department, in no particular order: The Meters Anthology (Rhino), the Marshall Tucker Band's Best of the Capricorn Years (K-tel), the Who's Live At Leeds with mucho extra tracks and great remastering - thanks MCA! Last, but certainly not least, Steven Winwood (Spencer Davis Group, Blind Faith, Traffic) finally gets an overdue 4-CD box set, The Finer Things (Island). Steve already sang like a veteran when he was in his teens. Then, he got even better!

Music Unlimited

HOLLY MCCORMACK

COR CUTS

Pearl Jam, "Not For You" (Epic)

Despite the fact that the members of Pearl Jam have been keeping a relatively low profile this year, especially in the touring department, they continue to rack up song after song on the charts: they currently have three songs on the COR chart including the latest single "Not For You". A straight ahead rocker with a driving beat and a subdued yet memorable rhythm to highlight Vedder's emotive vocals, the song debuted this week at #35* with 145 spins including eight adds at KBPI, KILO, KZAK, WDZR, WHMH, WKLQ, WRZK, and WVGR. On their past two releases, the band has consistently proven their ability to sell records - millions of them at that - without the normal pump primers of touring and MTV videos, showing both the appeal to your listeners and their songwriting abilities. Pearl Jam can do no wrong in the eyes of their fans, and they are a band who will be around for years to come. So despite the pleading strains of the chorus, this track definitely is for you.

Monster Magnet, "Negasonic Teenage Warhead" (A&M)

This band has been an underground and Hard Hitters favorite for years, solidifying their viability with their last release Superjudge. As a result, the response to the approach of their newest release Dopes to Infinity has been met with great anticipation. Judging by the early response at COR, the excitement is building here as well, with early adds at WAAF, KILO, KISW, KSJO, KUPD, KZAK, Q104, WDZR, and Z Rock for the soaring and psychedelic sounds of "Negasonic Teenage Warhead". A firm believer included Joe Bevilacqua of WDZR who exclaims that "Monster Magnet is going to be huge! They have made the record of their career - this is their Badmotorfinger. I love it - the song explodes out of the speakers." While they may have one foot planted in the retro culture, it is updated with an intensity and in the compelling vocals of Dave Wyndorf to set them apart from just about everything on the radio. With a strong commotion stirring in their fanbase, at radio, and at their label, you can expect Monster Magnet to be making some major waves in the coming year.

Our Lady Peace, "Starseed" (Relativity)

This release has come out of the box very quickly at radio with the magic combination of a tantalizing guitar based track with an infectious, pop laden melody, and emotive vocals. As a result, "Starseed", from the band Our Lady Peace, has already climbed up to #26* on the chart with two new adds at KRZR and WDZR plus massive spins on stations like WXTB, Q104, KILO, WAAF, WKLQ, KISW, and KUPD. Some other excited programmers include Steve Funk at KZAK who describes "Starseed" as "right on the mark, it sounds good enough on the air to get me excited", and Rob Hunter of KILO who called it a "good middle of the road, straight ahead rocker: we like it." Also on is Z Rock, whose Pat Dawsey "liked it when I heard it on the air on another station. If I liked it that much before knowing who it was, I'm sure going to play it!" With this impressive collection of satisfied programmers and a song so memorable it grabs your ear and won't let go, the obvious conclusion to us is that "Starseed" will be a hit!

LAST FALL AND ON INTO THIS FIRST QUARTER, WE HAVE SEEN AN ONSLAUGHT OF MAJOR IMPACT RELEASES THAT MAY HAVE CLOGGED UP THE CHARTS A BIT BUT MAKES FOR GREAT HARD ROCK RADIO. UNFORTUNATELY, THE DOWN SIDE TO THAT IS THE FACT THAT IT BECOMES INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT TO BREAK A NEW ARTIST. WITH A LOT OF SUPPORT FROM BOTH THEIR LABEL AND FROM HARD HITTERS RADIO STATIONS, THE GRINDING SOUNDS OF KORN HAVE NOT ONLY MADE THEIR MARK, THEY HAVE BEEN IN THE TOP 5 FOR MONTHS, INCLUDING SPENDING A WEEK AT #1. PROBABLY BECAUSE OF THEIR COMPLETELY UNIQUE STYLE AND RIVETING, EMOTIONALLY DRAINING SONGS, THEY HAVE A STRANGLEHOLD ON THE TOP REQUESTS, AND HAVE BEEN THERE FOR 4 WEEKS STRAIGHT. KORN ARE ALSO BECOMING CONTENDERS FOR THE ROAD WARRIORS OF THE YEAR, CURRENTLY FINISHING UP A TOUR WITH SICK OF IT ALL AND WILL BE HEADING OUT WITH DANZIG AT THE END OF THE MONTH. THE INTENSE AND INTROSPECTIVE PERFORMANCE BY VOCALIST JONATHAN DAVIS IN BOTH HIS LYRICS AND HIS SINGING IS ONE OF THE MOST INTRIGUING ASPECTS OF THE BAND, AND HE TOOK SOME TIME OUT OF HIS EXHAUSTING TOURING SCHEDULE TO TALK ABOUT KORN, THEIR BACKGROUND, AND GIVE US A PEEK INTO WHAT MAKES HIM TICK.

I have heard a variety of stories as to the origins of your name, so I thought I would go straight to the source: where did the name KORN come from?

Jonathan: We got it from, when I was at a party where there were a lot of homosexuals, and one of them was telling a story about how they were having oral sex, and one guy ended up with corn on his tongue. It's a sick story, so in Bakersfield you could go around and just say 'corn' to people, and they would totally get sick. And when we were trying to come up with a name, one of the guys just goes 'corn' and we're all like 'Yeah!'. So we did it.

What kind of reaction did that get from the people who knew the origin of the name?

Jonathan: Either people would laugh or just say 'Ugh'. It was funny because we named the band after it. I liked it. We just thought 'Wow, that's kinda weird.'

According to your bio, you weren't into rock music before you hooked up with the rest of the band. What kind of music were you into?

Jonathan: I was into classical, old school hip hop, dance music and stuff like that.

With those origins, what made you join a band that was as intense and heavy as this one?

Jonathan: I had never heard it before, never experienced it. I was basically like 'Oh, wow!' and then I just started doing it. I probably would have been listening to rock all this time if I could have heard it, and knew it could sound like that.

In a way, that's good. Everything about the band sounds different, but your vocal style stands out the most, it's like a constant catharsis. In every song, you're just squeezing out so much emotion. Do you have personal demons you're trying to get rid of?

Jonathan: I like to call it my therapy session. I'm letting out all of the pain that is balling up inside me—that everyone has inside of them. Now I have this chance to get it out. That's what's beautiful about the shows, people come out, and everyone ends up feeling a lot better-the music should be like that. But now it's over saturated with politics, and it's cool if you're really into that, but music is something we like to listen to as an escape, and not hear about the politics: that's what the music's for.

Do you write most of the lyrics for the band?

Jonathan: Yeah, I do all of the lyrics.

I know a lot of them are intentionally vague. Are some reactions to things around you? Or something you've experienced yourself?

Jonathan: Our songs are about experiences, and things that I've experienced. It's the only thing I can write about and be true about - I can't be faking them.

Can I ask you about a couple songs? 'Blind,' what's that about?

Jonathan: You know, it was just in my head. I knew many of the nursery rhymes and what they were, or what they seemed to be, they all had different meanings and they weeded their way into all of these children's books, and it seemed really sick. And people had no clue what they mean, but it goes that way with anything, because now they are watching TV and playing video games and it's total destruction and they're laughing. It's totally displacing their fears, they're watching cartoons and people are saying 'Oh my God, I can't believe they're showing kids this.' It's not surprising that kids are shooting each other these days. So, it's basically about that.

What made you pick the nursery rhymes that you did?

Jonathan: The ones that just sounded evil. I read them and thought 'Fuck, that's sick', like the 'Ring Around The Rosie' one is about the Black Death (in London), and then 'One Two Buckle My Shoe' sounds very incestuous. "One, two buckle my shoe", is like bending over, 'Three, four

Jonathan: I'm half Scottish - and I've learned to play almost all of the instruments in Dad's music store and that was the last one, it was the hardest. So I thought, 'This is going to be really rad!' It was a challenge and I just did it, I just learned how to play them, it still challenges me to this day. I love them. It's beautiful, they sound like home, just godly. It hits you in the soul. I love them.

I was really impressed with what you did in one record, which it takes most bands a lifetime to search for. You have a unique style. There are these trend things, thrash, or punk, or alternative. You guys have this music that is so hard to describe because you can't compare it to anything.

Jonathan: Yeah, we're so proud of that, and those guys have been playing together for years, so they had all that time to get all the shit out of their system, and I don't know what I did, I got them to play from the heart. And they

Jonathan: That's about my reality - you know how people tell you to do this and you go, 'No, I gotta do it this way'.

How about 'Clown?'

Jonathan: That's about some little idiot skinhead. We were playing a trade show/convention at this club and a skinhead comes up and starts flipping me off, and told me to go back to Bakersfield. He was friends with another band, and liked punk rock, and I guess we were out in his territory or something.

I have got to ask you about 'Shoots and Ladders.' I never realized nursery rhymes could be so warped. Where did you get the idea to piece together these nursery rhymes in such a wacky way?

shut the door,' then 'Pick up sticks and lay them straight,' and all that. And then 'Mary had a Little Lamb' and 'Bah Bah Black Sheep' are just so basic, I had to do that. That was my baby song, I loved it.

It got instant reaction at radio stations. Especially with the bagpipes in the beginning. I love bagpipes. You're trained in them, aren't you?

Jonathan: Yeah, I started playing them in high school, I wanted to use the bagpipes in a song. Then Brian and I wrote that song, and we had the band get together to try it out, and I said, 'Wait a minute, we could use bagpipes in this.' It totally, perfectly worked.

Why did you pick up the bagpipes to begin with?

just started doing it, I mean they already had the foundation laid, it was just for them to break down the barriers and play with their true feelings and let their personalities come out.

I read a lot of the songs were written within two weeks after you joined the band.

Jonathan: Oh yeah, they were, and they are incredible songwriters! It's so weird because when Fieldy plays his bass, if you knew him, that's totally his personality. Everybody's personality comes out on this record. Little David he's such a perfectionist and that's how he plays drums. It's so weird. And they influence each other. Fieldy is into hip hop, Brian's into R.E.M. and Phil Collins, and we just have all this weird music that we listen to. They all come from different backgrounds. I don't know how we came up with it. It definitely works.

It just kind of clicked, huh?

Jonathan: It clicked. We never listen to any of these heavy bands to influence us. We just kick back drink beers and have fun writing. And then I take it home and write my lyrics and that's it.

What did KoRn sound like before you joined the band?

Jonathan: It was more thrashy. They were LAPD, and had a deal with Triple X. They got off there, the singer quit, then they picked up Brian about three months before me. It was basically Munkey, David and Fieldy in the band, and then they got Brian and called the band Creep, and then I got in. We liked it, it was so perfect, we all got along and were so connected. As soon as I got with them it was like I had been with them forever. It was really meant to be. I took the microphone, they played a song, and I sang it all the way through and I had never heard it before.

Had you ever sung in any band before?

Jonathan: I sang in a band before that, it was called Sex Art. I was trying to learn how to sing, I have only been singing about two years.

You're classically trained aren't you? Anything besides singing or bagpipes?

Jonathan: Yeah, actually, I never took any singing lessons, I taught myself. But like violin, trumpet, and clarinet I took lessons, one or two lessons and then taught myself the rest, when I was growing up in my Dad's music store.

How does your dad like the band's music?

Jonathan: Oh, he loves it, he's really proud of me. It feels good. He had toured and stuff before and never made it. He told me, 'You shouldn't try this, it's a hard road, and you'll be rich one month and poor the next.' He always told me that. And now that we've become a success, he's so excited, he's told all his friends.

Pulling out pictures, bringing out the videos.

Jonathan: All the pictures, videos, it's really cool.

You don't think of heavy intense bands having moms and dads. Do your parents come out to watch you play?

Jonathan: At the Bakersfield shows, my mom and my step-dad come out and my Dad, also - I had the whole family there. They all stayed in a huge crowd in the back, they weren't on stage or in the pit! They loved it.

What is Bakersfield like as opposed to growing up in L.A.?

Jonathan: Oh, the place is hell there's nothing to do. It's like walking into a Steven King book, I swear. Crazy kids, they're weird, but everyone's really into music. And that's the only thing, listening to music and getting into trouble.

Is the whole band from that area?

Jonathan: Yeah, I was the only one born and raised there, everyone was born and raised somewhere else and came there when they were really, really young. So, essentially, yes.

What is the southern California scene like for a band like yours? I know there is the Sunset Strip thing, and the punk thing. Did KoRn fit in, or did you make a scene of your own?

Jonathan: We created a scene of our own, because we get all kinds at our shows: we get hip hop kids, the punk kids, the metal kids, regular kids who wear their cowboy hats and roll their shirts up. It's real neat to see some of these hard-core shows with all these kids that bash the hell out of each other, but our shows aren't really like that. They go crazy, they're going off but everybody respects each other, and loves each other. I really like that. It's a cool kinda show, the whole package. That's what I love about it. It's not like they'll knock each other down and trample over heads. If someone is down, they'll pick him up.

Have you noticed that vibe following you around the country?

Jonathan: We just played Phoenix, our first date there and we sold everything out, and we had 700 kids there. It was cool as all hell. A big pit and everything, also like when we went to New York and played the Roseland, it was scary, because I heard that New York crowds were really tough. But it was positive and all these kids were going haywire, but there were no fights or people bashing each other. I have that positive vibe, you just get all the frustration out of your body.

How long did it take for you guys to before you hooked up with Epic and Immortal?

Jonathan: It was about three months. We were playing like crazy, about three shows a week, just building our following. And it worked. We had a lot of labels looking at us, but the guy from Immortal, he went to about eight shows before he even introduced himself to us. And everybody there is really down, they're going to put the time into us, they really care about us. It's been perfect, they've been nothing but nice to us.

Switching gears a bit, I understand you were recently sent to Paris, how was it?

Jonathan: It was incredible, we went there for some press. It was the most beautiful place I've ever seen. I went to the Louvre and saw all of the art. The Mona Lisa was incredible, I sat there and just went 'Oh, wow, it's the Mona Lisa'. I don't know what it is about that painting. They sent me and Munkey over there for one day. We had a day out there flying, and then on the day off we went to the Louvre, we went there at like ten in the morning, and then we had jet lag so bad we had to crash out. The next day we had press from ten to eight at night, so we only could go to a club. And then we had to get on a plane early the next morning.

You were probably really burnt out from that.

Jonathan: Oh God, I got back to the states and was like 'Ohhh' and I had to go to bed for awhile.

What was it like being an autopsy assistant? I read that in the bio.

Jonathan: It was incredible. I liked it. It was a big buzz hearing how other people die. I almost passed out the first time, but I got used to it.

Do you have any interesting stories from that?

Jonathan: Oh, I could go on forever! One time I was taking the colon out, and I felt this hard thing, I cut through, and pulled out a double dildo out of somebody's butt. It was stuck up there when he died; he was shot or something. It was crazy, it's a sleazy world out there. It was the last thing I thought I'd find up there. There are some crazy things out there, a lot of sick people. Weird things happen.

When hearing about the OJ thing, did you see anything of that caliber?

Jonathan: Oh yeah, and worse, once we had to deal with someone run over with a steam roller.

What made you decide to do that?

Jonathan: I'm fascinated with the human anatomy, how the body works. It's cool to be able to cut it open and see what is inside, feel the organs, and figure out why did this person die or what went wrong? It's neat, the whole process. It's really complicated, there's so much involved.

How much training did you have to have?

Jonathan: It was all on the job, I went through a basic health class in school and then you pick what job you want to do. Then you have to go for an interview and all that, and then they place you. They went to all of the high schools in the area. It's a cool thing, not everybody can do it. If you can do it, it's definitely worth it to be there.

Do you miss it at all?

Jonathan: I prefer what I'm doing now, but every once and a while I go back to get my fix. It's a rush, because I'm cutting somebody open, I'm taking a knife and ripping their guts out. You have to get a rush from that. Some people that I say that to think it's sexual, but it's not, I just like doing it.

One of the first things I noticed about the band, when you played at the Foundations Forum, with the moves you do, you seem like a contortionist on stage. How do you get your body to move like that?

Jonathan: I have no idea, I just get into this state and I hardly remember anything after the show. I just let my body go. I'm in my own world.

White Zombie, "Super-Charger Heaven" (Geffen)

When you spend your formative years in the seedy, sleazy underbelly of New York's Lower East Side, engrossed with subculture horror movies and loud music, you can only imagine what kind of beast would arise from that combination. Fortunately for us, that concoction was born as White Zombie, the most horrifically powerful bands to hit the metal scene - ever. With their developmental influences written on their proverbial sleeve - the larger than life persona of Kiss, and the bewitching grooves and huge riffs of Black Sabbath - they add to the recipe their own unmistakable White Zombie flair. When their 1992 release La Sexorcisto Devil Music Vol. 1 hit metal radio (can you believe that it has been that long?) the response was immediate and huge. Thanks to mammoth tracks like "Thunder Kiss '65", "Black Sunshine", and "Welcome to Planet Motherf**ker" and a touring schedule that would make most bands wince in pain at the thought. Their hard work paid off as the band became an instant core artist at any metallic leaning station, up there with artists like Pantera and Metallica, even before the ravings of Beavis and Butt-head catapulted them into the mainstream. The band took a well deserved break after all their touring, but with an almost three year gap between releases - with the exception of tracks contributed to the Beavis and Butt-head, Airheads, and Nativity in Black collaborations - the audience has been anxiously anticipating their return with Astro Creep 2000. The first morsel of terrorizing musical chaos from the Zombies is "Super-Charger Heaven", a pulsating ride that picks up where "Black Sunshine" left off and accelerates to a supersonic level with White Zombie patented bass-driven rhythms, plenty of raucous samples, and Rob Zombie's hoarse yet melodic vocals. One of the most unique qualities of their music is the fact that it will hit you as hard as a cannonball to the face, while at the same time leave you swaying to their possessed groove. No wonder it's labeled (by both the band and others) as devil's music. All of us at hard rock radio can rejoice, because the infectious and enthralling "Super-Charger Heaven" will hold onto your brain (and the charts) like a vice grip. Buckle up for the ride.

face to face, Big Choice (Victory/A&M)

Okay, so Big Choice has been on the street for a few weeks now, that doesn't mean that this full length from face to face doesn't deserve a spotlight now. Not strangers to the fast-paced punk rock scene, face to face first emerged from southern California with their debut album, Don't Turn Away, and then in 1994 with the over it EP. Since then, due largely in part to extensive touring, they have become one finely tuned musical machine: complete with lightning-fast licks, angry vocals and gale-force percussive beats. Their melodic, solid style of punk rock is best represented in tunes like "Struggle", "You Lied" and in the bonus tracks, "Disconnected" and "Bikeage". Nine Hard reporters have already discovered the talents of this tight-knit group, with new adds at WFCS and WSOU, and top five phones reported at WCDB. If any of the other punk bands of late have worked for you, face to face definitely will too.

Various Artists, Northwest Post Grunge (Elemental)

In the wake of the grunge sound of you know where, comes a staple for fans of the diverse northwest sludge rock sound in the Northwest Post Grunge compilation. The sampler, featuring bands from Washington, Oregon and Idaho, contains material exclusive to the package from seventeen of the area's most contemporary and promising artists. The dirgy, syrup-y music made famous in recent years is in full gear here, with offerings from those still romping in the musical hotbed like Artis the Spoonman, Hitting Birth (who have recently inked a deal with Capitol Records), Built To Speed, Rhino Humpers and Dirt Fishermen. We realize the record was shipped out to some of you awhile back, but a new servicing has been made possible by those at Elemental Records, and with seventeen different variations of the ever-popular alterna-rock sound, you really can't go wrong.

Monster Magnet, Dopes To Infinity (A&M)

While their last two releases, Superjudge and Spine of God, went along way to establishing them in the hard rock format, the latest opus from the eclectic minds of Monster Magnet has the potential to explode with the force of the bomb pictured on the "Negasonic Teenage Warhead" artwork. The twelve songs on Dopes To Infinity are a celestial journey through a universe filled with fazed laden riffs, melodies and warm robust sounds that harken back to the psychedelic culture of the '60s far more effectively than any bell bottom donning teenagers. Their extended musical jams and aggressive-edged delivery will appeal to the heavier segment of your audience, while the unique, ethereal pace of the album will provide a change of pace so effective it will entrance anyone listening. The title track kicks off the release with a churning riff and melody brought down from the firmament, and the trip doesn't slow down with the sitar covered Middle Eastern feel of "All Friends and Kingdom Come", the grinding delivery of "Ego, The Living Planet" and the concise, take-to-the-skies flight of "I Control, I Fly". There is a compelling quality to each and every song on this acid trip of a musical offering, which makes choosing what to play the only difficult decision for you. In fact, enough of you have been spinning "Negasonic" to boost the band up into the Top 10. So, prepare to enter the charismatic and prolific minds of Dave Wyndorf and Monster Magnet.

Thorn, Bitter Potion (Roadrunner)

After spending enough time in outfits that displayed their influences of the past, the members of Thorn (John Jesse - vocals/bass; Roy Mayorga - drums/programming; Stephen Flam - guitars) decided to take a leap into the future with their gritty vocals, bludgeoning rhythms, middle eastern textures, and futuristic samples. First releasing material in 1994, Thorn hit the New York scene with the EP She Rises Like the Sun, a hard to find 1,000 copy issue. Now hooking up with Roadrunner for their debut full length - Bitter Potion - the three song EP featuring the first focus track "Pacing" has found some fans at Hard Hitters radio. The single is already getting spins at KVHS, WFSE, WCDB, WMHB, WSOU, CFOX, KUSF, WCWP, WFCS, WKLL, WKPX, WNYO, WPSU, WWVU, and WZMB thanks to its eerie atmosphere, alternating tempos, and catchy samples. With the full length offering a choice of songs with hammering deliveries and electronic flavorings, plenty more airplay is to be expected.

Steve Vai, Alien Love Secrets (Relativity)

While most guitarist live and die by showing off their speed and technical prowess (which can be tedious after awhile for non musicians), Steve Vai has always been gifted with the ability to inject character and personality into his songs. The latest release, Alien Love Secrets, is back to the form that made him so popular on his breakthrough Passion and Warfare release, the ingenious guitar ditties that surpass soloing and create moods. The album opens with the high spirited "Bad Horsie", as it grinds and squeals its way through like a stallion racing through an open field. Next up is the flashy, upbeat and jazzy intricacies of "Juice", with the other highlight "Ya Yo Gak", which features his fretwork playfully sharing the spotlight with his son's verbiage. Despite the fact that adds are this week, the interest has been high, and some stations - including KTOZ, KTSC, WHMH, KUNV, WKTA, WVXU, and WXZR - have already begun broadcasting some of the best kept Alien Love Secrets! But these tunes aren't anything that you should keeping a secret, as Vai produces here some of the most intriguing guitar work in recent memory. If you appreciate any kind of musicianship (and we think you do) don't miss out on this.

Big Hair, The Pickle Farm (Energy)

Words don't come easy when describing this band, but with an eccentric style like this, it seems reasonable to expect some kind of reaction from your audience when they hear this band's music. They combine off-beat rhythms and quirky melodies a la Primus, but with more upfront guitars and a folksy tinge from the violin. Hailing from Rochester, NY, singer/bassist Tod claims that the band

"wanted to do something completely different from the typical punk/metal outfits we'd previously played in." They got their wish, creating a frolicking funhouse of diverse styles on their debut offering The Pickle Farm. A name like Big Hair may spark flashbacks of the self indulgent Sunset Strip scene of the '80s, but banish those thoughts from your mind as this band have as much in common with that scene as CBGB's. Having played with bands such as Primus, firehose, Ween and Alice Donut, along with playing conventions such as CMJ, Foundations, and New Music Seminar, Big Hair has an audience as diverse as their music. If you are searching for some music with a completely different twist, then you may want to head down to the farm: The Pickle Farm.

Clawhammer, Thank The Holder Uppers (Interscope/AG)

Thank The Holder Uppers, the musical conglomeration that recently crossed your desk from Clawhammer, is eleven tracks filled with fiery vocals; where guitar tricks run rampant and are fueled by the powerful bass/drum combination. The red hot addition of sax and harmonica, not to mention the discerning use of a keyboard, gives this album the spice necessary to make it a metal radio stand out. The abstract sounds that radiate from these six eclectic musicians could be compared to the sounds of J. Mascis on a bad trip - listen carefully or you might miss one of the many crafty nuances found in tracks like the uplifting "Sweaty Palms", the AC/DCish "Bums On The Flow" or the southern flavored "Each Hit". With such ingenious song titles and fluctuating song structure, how can you exclude a band with this much creativity? 10 stations, including CFOX, KDUR, KNDI, WFSE, WNYO, WSGR, WSUP, WTSR, WVCB, and WWSP, have already welcomed Clawhammer into their musical fold, how 'bout the rest of you?

Coroner, Coroner (Noise)

It has been some time since we heard from the metallic triumvirate known as Coroner, but in the European metal circles, they are still a big draw. They are led by the ever-expanding guitar abilities of Tommy Baron, whose style alternates between intricate classically influenced fretwork to chugging riffs and powerful rhythms. While they are best known for their work on the 1991 release Mental Vortex which saw play at both metal radio and on Headbanger's

Ball, this is actually their sixth full length release, dating back to 1987. Considering the time that Coroner first hit the scene, the gritty and guttural vocals of Ron Royce were a premonition of the rising from hell death metal vocals of today. On the latest self-titled release, Royce's vocals are still rough and powerful, with some added distortion that gives them a visionary feel over the solid percussion of Marquis Marky. Whether you're a fan of their past or not, songs like "Divine Step", "Der Mussolini", and "Masked Jacky!" will easily fit in many a metal radio playlist.

Ultrahead, Definition: Aggro (Shiro Records)

Before receiving this record it was described to us simply as powerful - as strong as that word is, it is an understatement. But Los Angeles based Ultrahead pummel, thrash, hammer, and pound their way into your mind with an assault so intense once you've listened to all eleven grinding tracks you won't be sure what hit you. The crushing mixture of fast, aggressive guitar and a steady, pulsating drum beat, are funnelled through the vociferous vocals and leave you feeling like you've just experienced a bit of anything that has been proclaimed as part of the darker side. To use words like hatred, malice or anger would only weaken the intent of the lyrics: listen for yourself to tracks like "And God" (the emphasis cut), "Face Down", "75" and "Pleasure" to find the meaning or intentions Ultrahead have to offer. If there is any doubt that the metal contingent will accept this record, you need to know only this - what is found on Definition: Aggro is raw, pent up aggression captured on tape and offered in it's purest, most tenacious form.

Extreme Noise Terror, Retro-bution (Earache)

While this may be the first release of the U.K. band Extreme Noise Terror to hit the States, they have been creating quite a few shock waves in their native land. The dual vocals of Dean Jones and Phil Vane (to double the pounding on your senses) originally formed the band in '85, and with their faster than a speeding bullet tempos and not for the faint at heart approach, they have been bulldozing audiences ever since. They have done performances on the infamous Peel sessions and released a variety of independent releases that frightened the mainstream media, including the BBC who banned ENT from a performance with KLF. Their latest offering, Retro-bution, will leave a smile on the face of any station who likes their music really heavy, with blinding and battering rhythms that grind their way into your skull, especially on songs like "Subliminal", "Think About It", and "Lame Brain" (can you hear "Four Horsemen"?). So, for those of you who enjoy terrifying your listeners, it is Retro-bution time with Extreme Noise Terror.

Other shows have been booked from New Orleans to New York to San Diego. In more Monster Magnet (A&M) news, the New Jersey band just wrapped up work on their brand new, totally cool video for "Negasonic Teenage Warhead". The clip is said to contain all the essential elements of the best visual acid trip - ever... In other video news, Grip, Inc. (Metal Blade) have chosen "Ostracized" as the track for their upcoming mini-movie. The clip will be shot in Dallas with Film Xero... Faith No More (Slash/Reprise) have completed their video for "Digging The Grave". Look for it to be on television soon... Gwar (Blatt) (Blatt) (Blatt) gather to the... Some video releases... Death Is Just The Beginning III (Nuclear Blast/Relapse) will be out in May? Interestingly enough, Slash has come up with yet another way to show off his 300-plus collection of snakes - on Slash's SnakeCam on the World Wide Web Page of Geffen Records Internet site (<http://geffen.com>). Yes, that's right - you can check out the guitarist's collection of reptiles as you surf the 'net. Apparently, two video cameras have been installed in the snake house that will take still photos of the serpents every two minutes, allowing you to check 'em out 24 hours a day. Also available on the Internet site will be photos, sound samples, a bio and tour dates for Slash's side project, the Snakepit... Did you know that the Danzig 4 album is the hands down winner as the most stolen CD of all time! It's true. According to American Recordings' Dave Gargarino approximately 50-60,000 copies of the Danzig records have been pilfered by fans of the band. Due to the smaller than normal size of the original packaging, the CD didn't fit into the standard size plastic holders made for display at retail stores presumably making it a target for Danzig fans. Vital information this week - Eric Slayter has resurfaced this week at KAKS/Amarillo, the 100,000 watt Z-Rock affiliate in town. The phone number for the station is (806) 353-3500 and Eric's office hours are Mon-Wed from 10am-1pm... Last but definitely not least, Stuck Mojo (Century Media), who held down the number three most added position last week with 37 adds, had their record release party in Atlanta last weekend and it was a raging success. The party was held at the club Masquerade, which has a maximum capacity of 1500, and we were told that well over the legal limit of people were at the show, and that it was oversold by a couple of hundred tix. And, that's not even including the 250 or so people who were turned away. Wow! Look for the band to move onward and upward (from their chart debut at #39*), as they travel the rock roads on tour and prepare to take over the television waves as well with their video for "Not Promised Tomorrow". Go Flyers! Peace.

Yes, folks, we are continuing our photographic coverage of KISW's metal director Belinda Simmons. This week the lucky gal is snuggling in close with towel clad Biohazard type Billy Graziadei.

ON THE COVER

Mother May I, "Meet You There," Columbia

Upon first listen to this band's debut full-length effort, it's the quality of the songs that will instantly impress. With bright, warm guitars and a unflinching power-pop ethic throughout, Mother May I's material is infused with honesty and truth. The band pulls no punches in the delivery and maintains a musical balance throughout. You won't find many superfluous bells and whistles on this record, as the material is direct, aiming straight for the gut. No gimmicks or sugary, manufactured selling points here, as the band is as real as it gets. "Meet You There," with its textured melodies and bare bones guitar crunch, is destined to become a favorite among pop lovers and beyond.

CHOICES

Archers Of Loaf, "Harnessed in Slums," Alias

The band is on the cusp of hugeness, as last year's "Web In Front" did much to introduce this indie favorite to the masses. And all signs seem to be in order, as the band's constant touring (this time out with the Flaming Lips and Weezer), combined with a very good possibility of a Lollapalooza appearance, provide for some maximum visibility over the next few months. Vee Vee has already shipped 35K before the street date, a number that's pretty insane for an indie. Listen to Boy Troy at FNX: "Before you dive into the new Archers Of Loaf single "Harnessed In Slums", go back the icky Mettle cd and listen to "Web In Front". After you've fallen in love with THAT the first listen, come back to "...Slums". Ah, now you've got it... Enjoy!"

Mad Season, Columbia

Layne Staley. Mike McCready. Barrett Martin. The band made their national debut on Pearl Jam's "Self Pollution Radio Special," as they performed two songs live. "River Of Deceit" hit hard its first week out, with well over 20 stations already on. A couple of programmers made a point of telling us their feelings of the record. WKOC's Dal Hunter says, "The song works amazingly well on the air. At first I was concerned about the tempo, but it flows right with the station. Reaction is strong so far. This is probably the most melodic thing the audience has heard Layne Staley do." And KRRK's Matt Markle remarks, "It's amazing what sobriety will do for you. Give this haunting record more than one listen. The audience knows what's going on with these guys and there's a huge interest in Alice In Chains. Instant phones on this one."

General Public, "Rainy Days," Epic

It's safe to say that the band's revival is in full effect, what with the success of "I'll Take You There" and all. But that was just a taste, we're sure, as the band is set to release their first album of new material in nine years. Rub It Better, produced by Jerry Harrison, features ample doses of palatable pop reggae the masses are eager to swallow up. A welcome addition to playlists as Spring hits us this week.

In perusing the music industry rule book we keep stashed in the file cabinet by the door, we came across this nugget of info: "In the event of a convention, thou shalt not work, nor attempt to even fake it, during the week before and after said convention." So that's the reason for any above normal apathy you may have encountered over the past week, just in case you were wondering.... Thomas Westfall is going to be heading up the Zoo Alternative Promotion Department as Senior Director. He'll now be helming the Matthew Sweet effort at Alternative, and will be looking forward to the forthcoming efforts of Tool, Flowerhead and Nature. He'll be relocating to L.A., starting work in the next couple of weeks.... Sleeper's "Delicious" got a fat, juicy 91X add last week, further testimony to the band's viability.... You really should be hip to "Answers" by hHead, as it is simply a great song from a way cool band. It's getting some nice college play, and the band is currently in the midst of their first U.S. tour, and are about to embark on the road with The Tragically Hip and the Goo Goo Dolls.... KROQ's Kevin and Bean received the Starlight Foundation's President's Award for their continued involvement with the foundation.... The Mighty Mighty

Bosstones were confirmed for Lollapalooza last week.... Hard Report Alternative Assistant Earl Gardner leaves us after a year and a half of dutiful service, partly to concentrate on his college radio station, WBZC-FM, which has just hit the airwaves. The 7,500 watter could use all the servicing and back catalogue they can get, as it has 60 hours a week of AAA programming and 16 hours of Alternative. Send music to Earl at WBZC-FM, Burlington County College, County Route 530, Pemberton, NJ 08068.... Tour Dates: The Verve Pipe/The Imposters: 3/27 Still Water, OK. 3/28 Memphis; 3/29 Birmingham; 3/30 Columbia, SC; 4/4 Big Rapids; 4/5 Grand Rapids. Royal Trux: 3/31 Chapel Hill; 4/1 Atlanta; 4/2 Nashville; 4/4 Houston; 4/6 Dallas; 4/7 Austin. Samiam: 3/21 Myrtle Beach; 3/22 Charleston; 3/23 Columbia; 3/24 Wilmington, NC; 3/25 Norfolk; 3/26 Washington, DC; 3/28 Philly; 3/29 Long Branch, NJ; 3/30 New York; 3/31 Hoboken; 4/1 Boston; 4/2 Providence. Victoria Williams: 3/20 Athens; 3/21 Atlanta; 3/22 Chapel Hill; 3/23 Washington, DC; 3/25 New York; 3/26 Philly; 3/27 Boston; 3/29 Toronto; 3/30 Chicago; 3/31 Columbia, MO; 4/1 Minneapolis.

The wonderful Cake hooked up with Ian Moore and his band at the Bottom Of The Hill in San Francisco for their record release party. Standing (l to r): G. Scott Walden, Michelle Meisner and Bryan Thompson, Capricorn; Greg Brown and Todd Roper, Cake; Roger Mayer, Capricorn; John Strickland, RED; Vince DiFiore, Cake; Michael Ehrenberg, Capricorn; Bonnie Simmons, manager. Neil Young has re-signed with his record label (Reprise Records) in a five-album deal said to be worth eight figures. Young was reportedly thinking about leaving because several executives had left the label and his contract had expired late last year. "I can't tell you how thrilled I am to be doing business with Neil Young," says Warner Records chairman Danny Goldberg. "He's an extraordinary artist who for 30 years has remained on the cutting edge of contemporary music. Neil Young is so current he's even out there jamming with Pearl Jam." Young is currently recording an album with Pearl Jam for their record label (Epic Records).

The Spin Doctors played a benefit concert at lead singer Chris Barron's old high school in Princeton, New Jersey, to help the school's choir raise money for a trip to England and France in April. The Spin Doctors raised $10,000 after expenses from the show at Princeton High School. When Barron was a student at the school in 1984, he traveled with the choir to the Vienna Youth & Music Festival.

Melissa Etheridge says it was a dream come true when she got the chance to sing "Thunder Road" with Bruce Springsteen during a recent taping for "MTV Unplugged." "I used to sing Springsteen songs at the top of my lungs when I was a kid because he was singing about a girl — and I could relate," Etheridge says. Playing with him was "like someone reached into your brain, plucked out your most secret fantasy and gave it to you."

Author Gavin Edwards has written a book called "Scuse Me While I Kiss This Guy and other Misheard Lyrics," which is about some of the strange interpretations people have given to the words of different songs. Some people thought the Rolling Stones' "Beast Of Burden" said "I'll never be your pizza burning." Other examples cited by Edwards include the Beatles singing "the girl with collitus goes by" instead of "the girl with kaleidoscope eyes" in "Lucy In The Sky With Diamonds," and Bachman-Turner Overdrive's "Takin' Care Of Business" as "baking carrot biscuits."

Former Easybeats lead singer Stevie Wright is reportedly dying from kidney failure and also has Alzheimer's Disease. Australian magazine New Weekly also says Wright has lost all of his teeth following methadone treatment from heroin addiction. His female companion, Fay, says Wright's addiction caused him to hallucinate that it was the 1960s. "I can't tell you how heartbreaking it is," she says. "At first I used to sit him down, and try to convince him that it was 1995. But he would just rant and rave and tell me he had a concert to do." Wright, who lives in a shack on the beach in New South Wales, also developed a phobia of water. "No-one ever calls," Wright says. "(Singer/song-writers) Vanda and Young used to, but they gave up. I guess I have become too much of an embarrassment. I don't think I have long to go."

Green Day won four Bammies at the 18th annual Bay Area Music Awards given out in San Francisco. The band won for outstanding group and album ("Dookie"), while drummer Tre Cool and bass player Mike Dirnt won in their musician categories. Adam Duritz of Counting Crows was named outstanding vocalist, while the Crows' "Mr. Jones" won for outstanding song. Neil Young won the award for Bay Area musician of the year, and Rancid's "Let's Go" won for debut album or EP. The Melvins' "Stoner Witch" won in the category of hard-music album or EP. Penelope Houston won for best female vocalist. Craig Chaquico won the award for independent album or EP with "Acoustic Planet," and Charlie Musselwhite won in the blues album category for "In My Time." Carlos Santana won the guitarist award, while Booker T. Jones of Booker T. & The MG's won the keyboardist-synthesist award and Clarence Clemons won for reed-brass. Green Day's Mike Dirnt was the only member of his band who attended the event. "We all drew straws to see who'd come up to get these awards and I'm here, so you know I lost," he said, when he accepted the best bass player award. "We got into music to get away from people who win awards." Matt Malley of Counting Crows was the only member of his band to attend the show. Chaquico, Rancid and Clemons also didn't make it.

Die Cheerleader will have an album out next month called "Son Of Filth," produced by Henry Rollins.

The traditional squabbling has already begun between the mayors of New York City and Los Angeles over who should host the Grammy Awards next year. A decision is expected before the end of the month.

Canadian band Big Sugar plans U.S. and European concerts in conjunction with the release of the album "500 Pounds," which was released in Canada in 1993. The group, which has been nominated for a Juno for best new group, includes frontman Gordie Johnson, Kelly Hoppe on harmonica and saxophone, Garry Lowe on bass and Stich Wynston on drums. "This is the most finalized line-up I've had in a number of years," Johnson says. "This group of guys has been the first line-up where the members have been an integral part of the sound of the band. Prior to that, the guys I worked with basically had to do whatever I said. Which is cool and everything, but I wanted musicians in the band who could lend something new to it." Johnson says Big Sugar isn't a blues band, as it's sometimes called, and he objected when his Canadian record label wanted to nominate the group in a blues category. "I didn't want any part of it," Johnson says. "I didn't think that was accurate. We don't play in those clubs. I don't want to see our albums in those racks. I mean, they don't put Led Zeppelin in the blues section, do they? There are bands out there who make it strictly their business to play blues, and they work very hard at it. It's harder for them because it's a more fractured market. So why not nominate someone who's more deserving of that distinction? I was glad not to be included in that category." While Johnson appreciates Led Zeppelin and Jimi Hendrix having blues roots, he says the latest Eric Clapton album "mystifies" him. "If you're Eric Clapton, you've opened up so many doors for so many other musicians, you've hit so many people with the blues, you've come up with a voice that's entirely, uniquely your own. And at this stage in your career, why do you release an album of cover tunes, covering the solos, even, note-for-note? Why would you do that? The more I think about it, the more angry I get."

The Rolling Stones have canceled plans to perform in Singapore, Manila and Hong Kong in April because one of the concert dates was in jeopardy. Neighbors of the Hong Kong Stadium have been complaining about noise levels and local authorities would not approve the concert until sounds tests were conducted in early April. A concert promoter said that if the Hong Kong date was canceled it would cause him to lose money on the three-city Asian tour.

Randy Newman's first musical comedy, "Faust," will premiere this fall in La Jolla, California. The La Jolla Playhouse has announced that "Faust" will be part of its six-play season. The sane playhouse presented a cabaret based on Newman's tunes in 1984 called "Maybe I'm Doing It Wrong." A "Faust" album is "almost finished but not necessarily releasable," according to Newman's record label. It features vocals from Bonnie Raitt, Elton John, Linda Ronstadt, James Taylor, Don Henley and Newman.

Blues musician John Lee Hooker says Madonna asked him to work with her on a record. "Madonna called me and said, 'I love that funky music you play,'" Hooker says. "She wanted me to play guitar on her album but I couldn't do it at the time."

In the latest issue of Rolling Stone magazine, Cranberries lead singer Dolores O'Riordan says she's no Sinead O'Connor, even though they're both Irish women singers. "What I do is so different," she says. "I might have been singing before she ever sang — who knows? It's not like I'm going to sing because somebody from up the road got there first because she's a few years older than me." The Cranberries' second album, "No Need To Argue," has sold over five million copies around the world.

Peter Gabriel says he now creates music differently because of technological advances. "Each time a piece of equipment emerges there are new ways of approaching things. It really opens up the way we work," he says. "For example, before the programmable drum machine, I was relying on my ability to communicate rhythm ideas to the drummer and on his ability to interpret what I wanted. As an ex-drummer, that was sometimes frustrating to me."

Janis Joplin's song "Mercedes Benz" is now being used to sell the German luxury automobile in a television commercial. Joplin wrote the song with a friend, songwriter Bob Neuwirth, in a tavern in between shows in 1970, the same year she died of a drug overdose. Michael and Laura Joplin, Janis' brother and sister, have now sold the rights to the song to Mercedes' marketers. "People are looking at the '60s with new eyes, trying to understand that part of their own heritage," Laura Joplin says. "I think this commercial is part of that reflective and kind of emotionally-resolving time where you can accept the craziness and the wildness and the desire and the pushing and change that was part of the '60s, but you can also accept the '90s and where society has come. To me, the Mercedes Benz commercial is special and unique in that it allows us to celebrate the song on its own terms and it also allows us to celebrate a great car on its own terms, without any attempt to say that the song is saying you should have one or anything. It's really just enjoying the image of Mercedes and the image that Janis had and enjoying the little ironies of life." Laura Joplin notes that her sister Janis drove a Porsche and lived in a nice house. "She accepted the pleasures of money," she says. "She had an ironic sense of humor. I think that this commercial is clearly in keeping with the spirit of her and the times and music." The Joplins, who manage Janis' publishing company, agreed to sell Mercedes a one-year license to the song, but they would not disclose terms of the agreement. "That's personal," Laura Joplin says. "I think Janis understands that business is business and that this is a great commercial. It has all the characteristics of good art and it's certainly a positive support for the song."

Willie Nelson will participate in an April 1 rally protesting a giant hog farm near Unionville, Missouri. The Missouri Rural Crisis Center objects to Premium Standard Farms raising up to 50,000 hogs in Lincoln Township. The company has sued the township for almost $8 million, objecting to zoning laws that would prevent it from doubling the size of its operation. "Factory farms are threatening rural communities — the residents, their family farms, their way of life and our environment," Nelson said in a statement.

Bruce Springsteen came on stage to sing "The Tracks Of My Tears" as Soul Asylum played a New York City club.

James Taylor begins a U.S. tour in October in New Haven, Connecticut. The tour will include dates with the Pittsburgh, Houston and Detroit Symphony Orchestras.

Carly Simon's 18-year-old son, Ben Taylor, has covered the Beatles' "I Will" for the soundtrack of the film "Bye Bye Love." Simon says Ben, who looks and sounds a lot like his father James Taylor, is more interested in being an organic farmer than a professional musician.

A magistrate in Aiken County, South Carolina, has dismissed a domestic violence charge against James Brown at the request of Brown's wife, Adrienne. Mrs. Brown had filed the charge in December saying she was shoved, fell and cut her lip in a scuffle. Brown filed for divorce a few days later. Mrs. Brown appeared before the magistrate asking that the case not be heard. Brown is still on probation after serving two years for aggravated assault and failure to stop his car for a police officer. The Browns' divorce is still pending.

A state judge in New York City has ruled that American Express violated the rights of Ronettes lead singer Ronnie Greenfield by using "Be My Baby" in a television commercial without getting permission to use the group's vocals. State Judge Ira Gammerman ruled in a case involving only Greenfield, because there is a pending lawsuit over whether Estelle Bennett and Nedra Talley Ross actually performed on the 1963 song. An attorney for American Express called the lawsuit "much ado about nothing" because the commercial only briefly ran on television. The court case will now proceed to determine whether the singers are entitled to damages. The Ronettes had sued American Express and its advertising agency for $2.2 million in damages. The group has filed an interim motion for summary judgement claiming the defendants violated their rights under a Screen Actors Guild contract, even though they obtained permission from Phil Spector International Inc., which owned the recording and copyright.

Atlanta Rhythm Section vocalist Ronnie Hammond is in stable condition in the intensive care unit of the Medical Center of Central Georgia in Macon, Georgia. Hammond, who is in his mid-40s, has a history of heart problems.

CBS Television executives are upset at the speech delivered by Michael Greene, president of the National Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences during the Grammy awards. CBS asked Greene not to deliver the five-minute speech in favor of government funding for the arts and reportedly removed the speech from the TelePrompTer. In the speech, Greene criticized efforts to cut funding for the National Endowment for the Arts, the Public Broadcasting Service and National Public Radio, saying "our proud legacy of jazz, blues and virtually all other forms of indigenous American music is being threatened. They say it's a matter of money. Yet it costs taxpayers about a dollar a year to keep jazz, blues, folk and classical music on the public radio airwaves, and for the arts endowment to bring theater, dance and music to communities across America." He also asked viewers to call a telephone number (800-651-1575) to generate telegrams of support to Congress. A CBS spokeswoman said the speech violated network policy. "We do not take advocacy positions on controversial issues," she said. Greene says CBS executives did their best to prevent him from delivering the address, but "in a momentary lapse of artistic patriotism, it came out of my mouth." NARAS says there were over 40,000 phone calls to the 800 number after the speech resulting in more than 20,000 telegrams.

Merv Griffin and Wink Martindale are among the celebrities who sing country songs on "Golden Throats 3: Sweethearts Of Rodeo Drive" (on Rhino Records). The LP includes a French version of Lorne Greene's "Ringo," John Davidson doing "Hey Good Lookin'" and Buddy Ebsen singing "Your Cheatin' Heart." The album also features two versions of "I Walk The Line" — one by Leonard Nimoy, the other by Telly Savalas.

Bruce Springsteen says he's undecided about when he might finish work on a new album. "I have about 16 or 17 songs that I have been working on at intervals over the past year," he says. "Right now, they are just sitting there. The songs have tended to be pretty quiet...mostly acoustic material. I'll know in the next couple of months whether I am going to pursue finishing that record or do something else." Springsteen says he doesn't have any plans to tour for a while. "I would want some new music to tour with," he says. Springsteen adds that "Secret Garden" on the new greatest hits album is about "the unknowability of people in general." "I wrote it very quickly, one of my men-and-women songs," Springsteen says. "The record I was working on (last year) touched on that...how difficult it is to know even ourselves. We live with a very limited scope of our own identities unless we are pushed or pressed into moments when we surprise ourselves either pleasantly or shockingly in some fashion." "Murder Incorporated" was actually written in 1982, when Springsteen was working on the "Nebraska" album. He says it's about "the idea is that murder has been incorporated into the society very systemically, a system that basically has set itself up so that violence is one of its byproducts. The whole idea of a constant class of disenfranchised people seems to be accepted as the price of doing business. That's what the song is about, and it is probably more relevant now than when I wrote it."

Paul McCartney says the first line of the Beatles song "Yesterday" was originally "Scrambled eggs, oh my baby how I love your legs." Instead, he changed it to, "Yesterday, all my troubles seemed so far away." McCartney says "Yesterday" remains his favorite Beatles song. It's also been played on the radio over six million times since 1965, more than any other song in history. "I like 'Here, There and Everywhere,' too, and 'Hey Jude,' 'Fool on the Hill' and 'Let it Be,'" McCartney says. "But 'Yesterday' is such an obvious favorite because it's the biggest song ever."

Anthrax, Helmet and the Mighty Mighty Bosstones played a Los Angeles concert to benefit the AIDS charity group LIFEbeat. "It's a stereotype that a band like Anthrax wouldn't get involved," says lead guitarist Scott Ian. "We're all human beings, and some people have more compassion than others. That shouldn't have anything to do with the type of music you make."

Terry E. Gray of the rap group Da Lench Mob has been acquitted of murder charges in connection with a 1994 shooting at a bowling alley in Los Angeles. One man was killed and another wounded in the incident. Gray contends he was a victim of "mistaken identity." "I think police were going after rap and using me as a way to do it," he says.

The Kellogg Company has objected to Seattle steel band the Toucans filing for a trademark for their name. The company says it's afraid that the band will cause confusion with Toucan Sam, the cartoon character used to promote its Froot Loops cereal. The company proposes to settle with the Toucans, formed by college students in 1988. Under the terms of the agreement, the Toucans would not be allowed to sell cereal, mention Kellogg or the name Sam, or use a bird that resembles Toucan Sam. If the band ever uses a talking toucan, it could not have a British, New Zealand or Australian accent. The band is willing to agree to those conditions, but doesn't want to drop its trademark application.

George Clinton has formally presented a collection of memorabilia to the Rock & Roll Hall of Fame & Museum which will open later this year in Cleveland. The items will be part of an exhibit about Clinton, and his 1970s groups Parliament and Funkadelic. Clinton's donating a Funkadelic flag poster, an Uncle Sam top hat, a long white fur coat and blue-and-white platform boots he wore in 1977, and gold records and promotional photos. Clinton toured the site of the museum before he made the donation.

Madonna, in an apparent attempt to boost the progress of her film career, has joined the William Morris Agency for representation. Her last two films, "Body Of Evidence" and "Dangerous Game," didn't do very well at the box office. Madonna is planning to tour this summer and then will begin shooting her scenes for "Evita," being directed by Alan Parker.

Producer John "Jellybean" Benitez says he realized he'd made it in the music business when he hung up on Paul McCartney in the mid-1980s. Benitez says McCartney had called to ask him to remix "Say, Say Say," but Benitez assumed it was a friend playing a joke and he hung up the phone. McCartney had his agents call Benitez again.

An Australian university is offering a new course about popular music called "From Elvis To Madonna." The first-year credit class at the University of Queensland has 150 students enrolled. The school hired three Elvis Presley impersonators to launch the music department course, being taught by former student Michael Faragher. He says the course is "an outreach to music and non-music students, offering them a chance to broaden their outlook."

Barry White, Anita Baker and Boyz II Men each won in two categories at the Soul Train Music Awards show.

A jury in Miami has ruled in favor of Luther Campbell, Luke of the rap group 2 Live Crew, in a lawsuit filed by his former girlfriend. Nelda Parinas claimed that Campbell secretly recorded their phone sex conversations and used them on the album "I've Got Shit On My Mind." Her lawsuit asked for a percentage of sales on the album, but jurors concluded that she forfeited her right to any royalties when she signed a disclaimer on December 18, 1991.

Clinton's donating a Funkadelic flag poster, an Uncle Sam top hat, a long white fur coat and blue-and-white platform boots he wore in 1977, and gold records and promotional photos. Clinton toured the site of the museum before he made the donation.

Madonna, in an apparent attempt to boost the progress of her film career, has joined the William Morris Agency for representation. Her last two films, "Body Of Evidence" and "Dangerous Game," didn't do very well at the box office. Madonna is planning to tour this summer and then will begin shooting her scenes for "Evita," being directed by Alan Parker.

Producer John "Jellybean" Benitez says he realized he'd made it in the music business when he hung up on Paul McCartney in the mid-1980s. Benitez says McCartney had called to ask him to remix "Say, Say Say," but Benitez assumed it was a friend playing a joke and he hung up the phone. McCartney had his agents call Benitez again.

An Australian university is offering a new course about popular music called "From Elvis To Madonna." The first-year credit class at the University of Queensland has 150 students enrolled. The school hired three Elvis Presley impersonators to launch the music department course, being taught by former student Michael Faragher. He says the course is "an outreach to music and non-music students, offering them a chance to broaden their outlook."

Barry White, Anita Baker and Boyz II Men each won in two categories at the Soul Train Music Awards show.

A jury in Miami has ruled in favor of Luther Campbell, Luke of the rap group 2 Live Crew, in a lawsuit filed by his former girlfriend. Nelda Parinas claimed that Campbell secretly recorded their phone sex conversations and used them on the album "I've Got Shit On My Mind." Her lawsuit asked for a percentage of sales on the album, but jurors concluded that she forfeited her right to any royalties when she signed a disclaimer on December 18, 1991.

REM have cancelled the indoor part of their UK tour as a result of illness of drummer Bill Berry. The band have also been forced to cancel shows in Switzerland, France, Holland, Germany, Finland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark and the Czech Republic. Stone Roses or anything." The band have been working at a south London studio... The Gigolo Aunts have remixed "Where I Find My Heaven" for a mid-April single release via Fire. The track has recently been featured as the theme tune to the BBC2 television network sitcom "Game On."... Menswear, Pulp and Shampoo's Carrie are reported by Melody Maker to have become involved in a mass brawl after Shampoo's recent London show. Witnesses say the trouble started when Menswear singer Chris was being "lip-py." He was assaulted by another man and other people intervened to try to stop the trouble. Chris suffered cuts and bruises as a result of the incident... INXS frontman Michael Hutchence is rumored to have married his long-time girlfriend Helena Christensen. At the time of going to press, the story had not been confirmed, but the Australian newspaper The Daily Telegraph Mirror has reported that the couple were married either in Italy or at their villa in the south of France. Members on INXS are said to have flown in from all over the world to attend the ceremony. Friends of Hutchence and Christensen, a 26 year-old model, have denied the story... The Lightning Seeds' mainman Ian Broudie has been talking to Loaded about the differences between the band's sound in the studio and in a live setting. Broudie says: "I always thought that I wrote garage pop songs. In the studio, I used loops and technology to stop the records from sounding retrospective. But, when I play live, I am quite happy for them to sound like garage pop." Broudie also reveals the secret of his success as a producer (his credits include Echo And The Bunnymen, The Fall and Terry Hall): "I get on well with all the bands who are supposed to be awkward."... The artist formerly known as Prince has been speaking to the New Musical Express. The superstar explains his name-change from Prince to Symbol as follows: "I got whole new mindset when I became Symbol. I can't explain how I feel now compared to then. I don't want to destroy the mystique by revealing everything. And if people come to see me just to hear 'Purple Rain' then I'm sorry. I'm playing these (new) songs now. I'll play Prince songs occasionally. I just want people to understand who I am. See, you go away and tell people I am stupid. I want people to understand. The only thing I care about is your journalistic ability. Your ability to articulate." Symbol is still not allowing journalists to tape interviews or take notes while he is talking. Elsewhere, Dave Rowntree of Blur recently appeared at the Brit Awards ceremony with "Dave" written on his face, a reference to Symbol's habit of going out in public with "slave" written on his face... Suede, shortly to tour in Japan and Thailand, have been recording new material in Los Angeles. The band hope to release at least some of the tracks by the end of the summer...The Essential Music Festival in Brighton on the south coast of England will run from May 26-28. Saturday 27 May will see the event hosting a day of funk and jazz with the likes of Mica Paris, MC Solar and Incognito. Sunday 28 will feature reggae from Linton Kwesi Johnson and Junior Reid. Carter USM and Gene are believed to be the major alternative/indie bands lined up for the festival. Organizers will be confirming other artists over the coming weeks...Stuart Moxham, formerly with the influential Young Marble Giants, has just released a new album. "Cars In The Grass" is available via Vinyl Japan...Peter Murphy, former frontman with Bauhaus and Dalis Car, returns with a new album "Cascade" (Beggars Banquet) on April 24. The album was heavily influenced by time Murphy has spent living in Turkey in recent years. According to the singer, he moved to that country because: "I set out to burn bridges, to give myself a feeling of freshness and vitality. That burning of bridges went as far as — potentially — accepting that I'd finished in the music business. It was a purging period — making a clean break. The splitting up of the band (his former backing group 100 men), although as much for economic reasons as any, seemed to be an appropriate part of that. I wanted to put myself in the position where I psychologically freed myself from being in that album/tour cycle and being Peter Murphy. Perceptions of such things can change one's hopes and desires and motivations." After this period of reconsideration, Murphy wrote the album with Paul Statham. Pascal Gabriel produced the project, while former Brian Eno and Jon Hassell collaborator Michael Brook also contributed guitar to some tracks. Lead single is "The Scarlet Thing In You."...Renegade Soundwave will release a dub album "The Next Chapter Of Dub" via Mute on April 24. The 15-track album from the duo is preceded by a new single "Brixton" this month...William Orbit, the acclaimed producer, has launched a new label N-Gram Recordings. According to the Bass O Matic and Strange Cargo Man, "N-Gram is fertile ground for experimental music. I've been working on four separate projects, all to be released by the summer. I am excited by the diversity of these albums and by the many paths they have led me to follow. The next step is to invite more talent into the label. There are a lot of artists that I would like to work with." The next release from N-Gram will be "Spirit," the debut album from cellist Caroline Lavelle. Orbit first heard Lavelle on a Massive Attack b-side and the album sees her singing for the first time. In the past she has worked with The Cranberries, Nigel Kennedy, Ride and Siouxsie And The Banshees. Lavelle says of Orbit: "Myself and William are very similar. We have a very lively friendship."...John Otway will release 'Premature Adulation,' his first album of new material for over 12 years, on April 4. Most famous for his collaborations with Wild Willy Barrett in the heyday of punk. Otway recently clocked up his 2,000th live show. Of his career, which has seen a massive contrast between periods of success and obscurity, Otway says: "I've always had this horrid optimism that's never gone away; always believing that huge success is just around the corner. It definitely is. I've started so I'll finish. It's just taking longer to finish than I expected."...Wet Wet Wet's Marti Pellow says it's fine by him if people want to enjoy an "intimate moment" with a sound track provided by one of the band's songs. Speaking to Loaded, though, Pellow also says he would not consider it himself: "Certainly not. I can honestly say that I've never gone down on a woman while a Wet Wet Wet song was playing. That would be pretty fucking egotistical. In a way, we've already had our way with our songs by the time they're released. We've already shared an intimate moment with them. Using them to have sex would be overdoing it a bit."...Suede, New Order, Blur, The Jesus And Mary Chain and The Stone Roses are amongst bands who feature on a new compilation "Unlaced." (EMI) Somewhat usually, the album has been released in association with those eternally hip pieces of footwear, Dr. Marten's boots...Stereolab have a new EP "Amorphous Body Study Center" released via Duphonic on April 3. The six-track release was recorded for a New York exhibition by the artist Charles Long. There are plans for the exhibition to be shown in Germany and the UK this year...The Beatles' BBC recordings are again seeing the light of day with previously unreleased b-sides featuring on a single "Baby It's You." Although the lead track was available on the "Live At The BBC" album, the b-sides — "I'll Follow The Sun" (November 1964), "Devil In Her Heart" (August 1963) and "Boys" (June 1963) — were not included on the double-platinum set. The single is set for release via EMI on March 20...Terence Trent D'Arby has been talking to Music Week about his forthcoming album "Vibrator," available on April 17. The album has a rawer sound than 1993's "Symphony Or Damn" and D'Arby says: "The direction is not necessarily what I want or don't want but more a sense of where I'm going. I've always trusted and followed that sense and not analyzed things intellectually. As soon as I'm ready to go into the studio, it's almost like this complete curtain of detachment falls down. It's like an organic process." D'Arby's appearance is radically changed: he has cut off his dreadlocks and dyed his hair blonde...Simple Minds' Jim Kerr has been talking to Vox about some people's perception of the group as a grandiose stadium band. The singer says: "No one made us go the root we did. It was what we wanted and I offer no apologies for it. And so we can't be surprised at some people's perceptions of us, given that the only time they may have seen us on TV was against a backdrop of millions at Live Aid of Mandela Day." Kerr, though, continues: "Simply Red play stadiums as well, but you never see any footage of them doing so — they're always in clubs or small venues."...Menswear will release their debut single "I'll Manage Somehow" b/w "Second Hand" via Laurel on April 3. Only 5,000 copies of the single will be available. Even without their debut release in stores, Menswear have already been featured on the cover of Melody Maker and recently signed to Polygram/Island Music...Sleeper's Louise Wener has criticized the feminist writer Lucy O'Brien. O'Brien said women should demonstrate at Sleeper shows as a protest against Wener's anti-feminist remarks. Speaking to the New Musical Express, Wener commented: "O'Brien says that feminism is about equality and so it should be. Why then do the likes of O'Brien set themselves up as our self-appointed protectors? Women are not some endangered species cowering in the corner, who, but for Lucy O'Brien, would collapse in the face of hordes of marauding men. Stereotyping women as victims is no better than characterizing half the population as fit only for the kitchen sink and maybe worse. For most women this is preposterous. But for O'Brien to suggest that this view represents some form of attack on women is a mindless slur." Sleeper's new single "Vegas" b/w a cover of The Pretenders' "Hymn To Her" and the previously unreleased "It's Wrong Of You To Breed" and "Close" will be released on March 20. The lead track features saxophone from Blur's Graham Coxon.

DEAN CARLSON/KMTT, SEATTLE

Greetings from coffee central... a big thank you goes to Tim Dalbeck at Atlantic for helping us put together the first annual KMTT Hootie and The Blowfish Celebrity Golf Tournament. The band joined our morning team, Crow and West, along with some very happy Mountain listeners for an afternoon of rain and golf. Speaking of Atlantic Records... we went ahead and tossed four tracks from Encomium onto the Mountain airwaves... the Sheryl Crow and Hootie get the biggest response although I think the Stone Temple Pilots and Big Head Todd are the coolest of the bunch. I can't believe nobody covered "The Crunge"... The Boxing Gandhis would've done it justice. We made room for Danny Tate and Jann Arden... Two very strong songs that fit perfectly with The Mountain... and call us crazy but we really dig the Buckshot LeFonque... it's simply beyond classification, and it jams. Top 5 Phones include Del Amitri, Dar Williams, The Cruel Sea, Chris Duarte and for about the 16th week in a row... Blue Rodeo.

JONATHAN L., LARRY MAC ALLISON STRONG KUKQ, PHOENIX

Thanks to Lara Hill (A&R Elektra Records) we now have a Phoenix edition of Subterranean Soundwaves as heard on KCRW Los Angeles. Thanks Lara, your show is being well received by our musically adventurous listeners. This morning's Monday Morning Music meeting reaped double adds for both Ted Volk and Zak Phillips of Geffen/DGC, who conferenced and called us live on the air to work us on a couple of records. Matt Pollack called in from the East Coast to go head to head with Larry Mac on the subject of hardcore, and darling man that he is, ended up with a double for East West/Elektra! And can you imagine his muscles of persuasion when he walked down the hall with the only copy of the new White Zombie record make light of the fact that he actually "beat" us to a record, and to make an impassioned plea for their new sound. Hey, here's a new way of getting an "appointment" (not really) to work us on one of your favorite projects. On Monday Morning, simply pick up the phone and call us at 602-345-5935 between 10:30 and 12:00 pm Arizona time. Of course it is advised that you leave us a voice mail message at 602-225-8912 the week prior to the meeting so that we can determine if we have the cd in question, and will have it on hand in the studio to pop in a cd player at the time of your live call in.

CATHY FAULKNER, KISW, SEATTLE

I just returned from Las Vegas and the grand opening of the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino. I am currently suffering from a severe case of whiplash from spotting all the celebrities in the place. I have stories for days, feel free to call for the dirt... Jack Nicholson is GOD! Or, simply watch MTV for a bird's eye view of what I witnessed. On the gambling side, I could use some practice at

THE HARD REPORT

Blackjack but didn't lose my shirt or my money. Ann Eason...you are the best. Thanks for tagging along. On the home front, Belinda Simmons and I would like to send our thanks to Debi Lipetz and Epic Records for bringing KoRn by to co-host Metal shop. KoRn have an open invitation to return anytime! The visit was awesome. Their all age show with Sick Of It All and Orange 9MM this past Sunday was incredible. The kids have KoRn on their mind...you should put KoRn on the radio for them to enjoy. Finally, I know it's only March, but Mad Season Above is the album of the year. We were honored to play the entire record for our audience. From beginning to end, Above is passionate, personal, poignant and perfect! Get ready to go deep on this one

BRUCE WARREN, WORLD CAFE

1. It Came From Memphis - Robert Gordon (Faber & Faber Publishers) A perfect companion to Peter Guralnick's Last Train To Memphis, Gordon exposes the underbelly of Memphis and finds the poisonous slime oozing out of Elvis's overweight myth.
2. Chris Botti - First Wish (Verve) - From a late night train Miles blows cool, morning has broken, and Edie Brickell lends a helping melody.
3. Moby - Everything is Wrong (Elektra) - A blue print for the future of techno. Nuff said.
4. Joan Osborne - Relish (Mercury) - Not since Janis Joplin has a woman taken the blues, turned them inside out and into a truly unique sound.
5. Jamiroquai - The Return of the Space Cowboy (Work) - Remembrances of Steve Wonder's Songs In the Key of Life and Sly Stone's There's A Riot Goin' On. Somebody hand me a towel.
6. The Highwaymen - The Road Goes On Forever (Liberty) - Never mind the Fab Four reunion. Johnny, Willie, Kris, and Waylon are back in the saddle and riding high. Will country radio play this.
7. The Graduate - Starring Dustin Hoffman - From a modern day perspective, the Graduate is a prototype for the slacker films of the 90's. A reckless anti-hero adrift in a sea of too many decisions with no reason to make any. I wish that could happen to me.
8. Oasis live at The Theatre of Living Arts (Philly, March 7) During their hour plus din of melodic ecstasy fest, they launched into "Live Forever" and that golden moment of meaningfulness grabbed my spine. Soaked in noise, Liam singing "gonna live forever" in all its revered splendor, and I realized why I love rock n' roll.
9. Vince Bell - Phoenix (Watermelon) - T-Bone Burnett writes in the liner notes that this is "other wordly" music. Surrealistic grace hasn't sounded this beautiful since Willis Alan Ramsey.
10. Quote of the week: "If your lot in life is to be a waiter, don't set the table unless you intend to stick around for dessert." -

JOHN LENAC & KEVIN KLINE KTOZ-CHANNEL Z, AUGUSTA

Can you believe SXSW in this week. That is so groovy. Wait, did somebody say groove? Yes, groove is in the heart...in the heart of the midwest. Channel Z kicked off our live Saturday night broadcast over the weekend with a massive gathering at local watering hole, American Pie. Channel Z broadcast live from 8 to midnight from the club with a packed house enjoying a great Channel Z dance mix provided by DJ Trev. But, as with all successful endeavors, we are striving to make this even bigger and better. We need some product for this to happen. Anything you could spare that we could display on the air (did we mention BDS detections) would be greatly appreciated. Also, over the weekend, we aired "Private Sessions" with Sarah McLachlan. In conjunction with this, we also gave away the Canadian import CD-ROM and the "Private Sessions" video to our Sarah crazy Channel Z fans. We had the Sarah touchtones working overtime and the phones were H-O-T. Weekend winners were also qualified for 20 tickets to see Sarah live in St. Louis on March 25. Thanks to Charlie Foster and Arista for supplying us and the Channel Z faithful with all the Sarah we could handle. Saturday morning, tickets went on sale for upcoming concerts with Black Crowes and Big Head Todd and the Monsters/Dave Matthews Band. Channel Z was present at both line parties, getting the throngs of fans stirred up into a massive pre-concert frenzy. Channel Z fans sure do love their live music and ticket sales were brisk for both upcoming shows. We love having visitors stop by the station and last week we were fortunate to have three. Thanks to Priority's Christy Roberts, who looked resplendent in her purple Mickey Mouse sweat-shirt, and to RCA's Randy Kemp, who is extremely excited about Dave Matthews playing Springfield and DGC's Loren Cornelious, who told us about a flight he took inside of an arena, for stopping by. This was also a Matthew Sweet win it before you can buy it Modern Music Monday. Along with the new CD 100% Fun, we also gave away tickets to the show for Monday night over the weekend. No pun intended, but the weekend was "Sweet." Not only was the weekend 100 percent fun, Monday nights packed house at the Regency had a blast with Matthew Sweet's show. Thanks to Matthew for coming by the station to chat with John on the air, and signing autographs for listeners "On The Balcony." Thanks also to Bill Burrs, Mary Divney and everyone at Zoo for the tickets and their help. We need your help. Our Sunday night "Blues Alternative" show is in need of some new Blues tunes, or any catalog material you'd like exposed. Please send any music to us in care of Bert Smith, the host of our Blues show. (KTOZ-FM, 309N. Jefferson, Suite#340, Springfield, MO). Also, we are starting a top five countdown every Friday evening on the most watched local news station in town. KYTV our NBC affil-

SHARON SCHIFINO, WHJY

A+M has a new release out by the band Del Amitri. Now, some of you might remember "Kiss This Thing Goodbye" from their debut release in the states, others may recall "Just Like A Man" off their last record Change Everything, and many of you may just vaguely remember their name. That's too bad. Del Amitri have a songwriting and musical style that's absolutely captivating. They can throw a ballad at you that manages to be tender and emotional without being the least bit sappy. And then they'll just all out rock for the pure fun of it! Their last two releases are all time favorites of mine. Del Amitri is not a band you're going to want to slam to, nor are they going to have you swaying in your tie-dye t-shirts. But, if you let them, they'll put you in a good mood, or make you realize what a shit you'd been to let that one great guy/girl get away, mostly, they're going to let you relax and enjoy the fact that there are still great rock bands out there that don't need a novelty hook or screaming guitar to get people to listen to them. Even if only for your personal listening pleasure, make it a point to find "Twisted" in that never-ending pile and give it a chance. (Yeah, Yeah, I'll get down off my soapbox now!)

MIKE LUOMA, WIZN, BURLINGTON

At about four in the afternoon the National Weather Service changed the forecast from freezing rain, sleet and rain to all show; four to eight inches during the upcoming night! The wet snow was falling heavily by six, piling up quickly. We had some cancellations to report, but the concert was on for eight o'clock: Live and Sponge kicking off their tour with a show at Burlington's Memorial Auditorium. Despite the weather, the young crowd jammed in, filling the auditorium to capacity, about 2600. Sponge got a late start, but soon entranced the crowd. I stood up above the balcony in the back watching the band and the crowd, as the sea of bodies (and backwards baseball caps) bobbed and throbbed in the time with the tunes, surging as Sponge launched into "Plowed", but not losing intensity as the band kept rolling with about five more times. Sponge's longer than usual opening set was the first sign all was not right. At set break I caught up with Drew Ferrante, from The Work Group, and Diane Monk, of MCA, who filled me in on some bad news: Live's drummer Chad was stuck in a holding pattern above Logan in Boston — the surprise snowfall had shut down Burlington's airport. They were scrambling back stage trying to figure out what to do. I popped backstage; it was chaotic, but the show would go on. Ed Kowalczyk came out with an acoustic and began the show. After the first tune he explained the problem, begged the crowd not to kill him, said they'd try to do something special, and asked the crowd to give him credit for having the balls to come out by himself to face the crowd. He then launched into a solo acoustic set featuring a couple of songs from Throwing Copper and some newly written tunes. He was joined by the rest of the band (bass and guitar) for more familiar stuff, and then they brought out their booking agent (so they said) to play drums. They jammed on two Hendrix classics giving us a kinda sloppy "All Along the Watchtower" and a tighter, ballsier "Hey Joe." For the only encore, Ed came out and, accompanied only by bass and his acoustic guitar, sang "I Alone"; a fitting final cut. There were a couple people who asked for their money back; 2 out of 2600! The rest of us enjoyed a strange, magical and unique night of music that had our phones lighting up for Live ever since. They've also promised to come back and play us a show with their drummer, once the show melts!

GUY DARK/WHDQ, CLAREMONT

Thanks to MCA's Diane Monk and Drew Ferrante from the WORK group for our meet and greet when Live played in Burlington last week. The show was decidedly different because the drummer was not in the house! Due to a snowstorm in the Burlington area, he was stranded at the airport in Boston. Undaunted, the band did "unplugged" versions of their originals (a great opportunity to plug their MTV appearance in April), some Vic Chestnut covers, and were later joined by other musicians to play "Hey Joe" and "All Along The Watchtower." On the NBC show "Homicide: Life On The Street" last week, there was a character named Chris Novoselic!

RECKLESS ERIC & JULIE HOYT CHANNEL Z, AUGUSTA

Greetings from Augusta, Georgia! Only 3 weeks and counting for the Masters Tournament and we can't wait! Man, we had a huge week and weekend here. Last Friday, we packed over 900 folks in for a show with Bush and the Murmurs, with over 300 that we had to turn away. It sure was nice to finally meet John Cole from Interscope. Don't miss this show when it comes through your town. A big thank you to John Cole and James Bishop from Interscope and to Jeff Davis and Gary Spivack from MCA for making this happen. You guys were right! Also, we had a huge win-it-before-you-can-buy-it-weekend with the new Collective Soul and Matthew Sweet, which are great new releases from both of these artists. Thanks to Michael Prince from Zoo and to Todd Elmore and Myra Simpson from Atlantic for coming to the table with those. We also spent a great deal of the weekend previewing the brand new Led Zeppelin Tribute CD. I think we can all agree that it is fantastic! We were also lucky enough to get a visit from our homeboy Rob Nicholson, he dropped in for a couple of days to spread his sunshine on us for a bit. Thanks big guy! That covers it for now. Sure are looking forward to seeing everyone in Austin for South by Southwest this week! Eric's gonna throw down at golf, so watch yourself!

ERIC THE KORn INFECTED KMSA, GRAND JUNCTION

Two more days! Or is that 15? It's both! I could just sit and count off time 'til we hop in the car and make that little 250 mile jaunt to Denver to see KoRn, but as things would have it I'm just too darn busy. This evening we will be challenging one of the local country stations to a basketball game to raise fundage for us. I believe I said "One of the local country stations." I am fortunate enough to live in a town that has four country stations. Did I ever mention that I live in hell? So it's been a year since I took over as Metal Director at KMSA. Looking back, it doesn't even seem that long. I guess time really does fly when you're having fun! If I thanked each and every one individually who has helped me, guided me, or just was cool to work and shoot the shit with over the past year, I would probably fry this computer, and this mag would look like a NYC phone book. Instead of individual thanks. I'll just say thank you all so much! You know who you are. Special thanks do go out to Tramp, the man who wore these shoes before me. If he didn't believe in me, you probably wouldn't be reading this. As I type this, I am groovin' to the new MaJ Season CD. Hav you checked it out yet? Very, very cool!!! What else is there to say? For once I'm at a loss, so it's off to the fax machine! Later from HELL!!

DUG BROWN, WPUP, ATHENS

Well, if we neglect the topic of barbed wire this past week-end rocked. Kelly cooked dinner and we had a chance to sit and talk for the first time in years. (The piercing salon is going well, but her love life sucks as bad as mine...) Later, at the coffee house, another old friend from WUOG days came over and started singing folk songs to me. (If you didn't know, I did the folk show at UOG for three years.) We had a great time singing incredibly depressing Irish songs. Yes, I sang in a public place. Surprised me. Jason and the Scorchers dropped by for an interview Friday night. This makes me happy. I go see Victoria Williams Monday. Bliss. I realized yesterday that I've forgotten to add Suddenly Tammy. Seems like I was the only person other than WZRH who did anything with the last album. I don't see anyone doing anything with this one. Do I have to do everything? It's good. Play it or admit you don't actually care about music at all.

FREEZE FRESQUEZ XEQC, SONORA

Just an update, we've dropped our call letters XBDT and picked up sister Radio Sonora calls XEQC. Also music calls will be taken Monday and Tuesday 9-5p mountain, on our US rockline 1-602-392-7333. Rancid Randy, and I will continue doing our hard-rock block programming over XEQC. Our station is four hours south of Phoenix, in the beautiful beach town of Puerto Penasco (Rocky Point) Sonora, Mexico. We're proud to bring American rock-n-roll south of the border, especially now during a killer spring break-it's really crazy here! Thanks to all record industry reps who have supported our programming! Hot tracks aired for Spring Break; Megadeth, Van Halen, L.A. Guns, Led Zeppelin Tribute (see playlist in metal section for full list). From the sea of Cortez - Addios!

TINK, WVUD, DELAWARE

Why hello there! So many gigs (shows) have I witnessed since our last get together here in print. First off I am not bringing up the word beads for any reason whatsoever - nuff said. The Mighty Mighty Bosstones played to a packed house at the Troc. Many thanks go out to Brian McEvoy for those tix and a very special vote of thanks to Dickie and the other lads for standing still long enough to get in a couple of trade shots with The. And didn't Megadeth come into town the next night after their Letterman appearance. I spoke with Dave & Marty for my soon to be released video show. E.J. Xnoybis got me in the doors and I did a long substantive video interview with Reed, Corrosion of Conformity Mullen. He's just as nice now being from a large over the top band as he was before. Marni the Roadrascal came through for me on those very hard to get a hold of "Divine Alcoholics '95" after show passes. I hope I speak for the other stations in expressing our gratitude for getting us in out of the cold to see the phenomenal BioMachinelayer show. Oh yes! Biohazard, Machine Head, and Slayer all did their best on that prigid Philly night. Mercyful Fate also came through town and decimated another audience even though King had health problems just as Tom Araya did. I must admit being quite pleased at the quality of these shows.

CARL CRAFT, WCIZ, WATERTOWN

"Help, I'm losing currents and I can't get up. Michael Jordan is going back to basketball? Makes me wanna bet that Ross Perot is going to run for President again. I've been "Goo Gooed" and I like it.

CHRIS WOLTMAN

COLUMBIA RECORDS, 212-833-8505

Tis' the season....Mad Season's "River of Deceit" jumps all over radio this week with over 60 stations including KUPD, KLOS, WRCX and WXTB. It's the first track on a release that is filled with brilliant music and songwriting. I can't tell you how many people have commented on how great it is to hear Layne....there's lots more to come. C.O.C.'s "Clean My Wounds" is down to the close out stage. This week WEBN, WHJY and WZTA are a few majors that will help drive this track Top 10. The most important thing to point out is perhaps the most simple...where "Clean My Wounds" is really played, this record sells. In Detroit Top 50 sales; in Seattle Top 60 sales; in Milwaukee, Toledo, Grand Rapids Top 100! If you're still one of the few not playing this track then realize the above - where this record is really played, this record really sells. Also, the early research looks great with feedback like Top 10 25-

34 at KQRC. Jeff Buckley "Last Goodbye" - if it all comes down to the music then I can only hope that you have spent some time with Jeff's debut release Grace. The story on "Last Goodbye" is that Alternative Radio is developing with stations like KROQ and 99X. MTV has committed to Buzz Clip rotation and not it's time for Rock Radio to get involved. This is truly an amazing track from a guy who is an amazing singer and songwriter...The official date on "Last Goodbye" is this week. KLOS, WMMR, WAVF, KRRK are a few who couldn't wait. Bruce Springsteens "Murder Incorporated" - I guess the sales last week speak for themselves. The record sounds great on the air as it climbs into the Top 10. That's it for now.....

DAVE LOMBARDI

WARNER BROS, 818-953-3726

I'm very interested in how well Alternative radio is embracing Encorium, the Led Zeppelin tribute. I remember the day when the Alternative world (not just radio; I'm also referring to record people) would use Led Zeppelin as an example of the kind of classic rock band that Rock radio just couldn't seem to give up. Of course, the point was that the rock format was so mired in its past and so unwilling to give up those glories that it couldn't fathom supporting new artists (unless those artists were making records that sounded like they could've been released in the seventies). So how does an album of Led Zeppelin covers find a home at Alternative radio? Is it an admission by the format and its practitioners that Led Zeppelin is deserving, still, of all the attention it gets? That the band's songs really are that timeless? That Led Zeppelin was and continues to be an influential and important band, and the Alternative format wants its piece of that legacy? Or maybe it's just that 4 Non Blondes brings something to "Misty Mountain Hop" that Led Zeppelin just didn't. The bottom line is, times have changed. A few years ago, when I was involved with the Alternative format, it would've been decidedly uncool to admit to having Zeppelin or Kiss records at home, or to admit liking them. Now, with the current crop of great new rock bands (yes, that includes those alternatively-marketed but embraced by rock as well and sometimes first) admitting that they were, and are, influenced by Led Zeppelin, Kiss and Cheap Trick some of those classic rock songs are good and we used to listen to them, too. This reaffirms that the lines between the Rock and Alternative formats are extremely blurred, and that, once again, imaging and marketing aside, these two worlds are not that far apart. In fact, they're much closer than the Alternative format would like to acknowledge. Coming soon: The new Rock format, comprised of stations that currently report Rock lists and stations that currently report Alternative. Just check out R&R's take on the matter a few weeks back. I'm out.

CAPRICORN, 800-289-7625

Things are really jumping at Capricorn these days - we're juggling several records at several formats and it's working! Widespread Panic just broke into the Top 25 at AOR - Sonia Dada was the #1 Most Added everywhere at Adult Radio and Cake made an auspicious debut at New Rock. What does this mean? It means you should've listened to all three of these by now. No matter what format you're programming, chances are your competition is playing one of these records - so, don't let things drop - keep our records spinning - it's time for you to juggle a few more Capricorn titles onto your station! Also, keep a hand free for "Texas Skies" by the Freddy Jones Band - the new track from their new self-titled album.

SCOTT "LO/JACK" DOUGLAS

VIRGIN, 212-332-0418

SXSW may be the most fun and truly musical event out there..hello to all the old friends! I wish I was coming down there...I am so blue. On the eight day, God created Austin, you know. Then on the ninth day, he was full of the devil and created the Rolling Stones! I Go Wild is building quite little story and is an outstanding way to close down the Voodoo Lounge!!! This fall, the Stones are delivering an acoustic album of their best tunes and following it up with a tour of smaller, more intimate arenas. The 15-20,000 seaters (as intimate as it gets with the Stones). MTV has embraced I Go Wild in stress rotation beginning now...a true testament to the demographic potential record. The Rolling Stones are far from over my friends we all be over before they are. Gilby Clarke's "Johanna's Chopper" is top 5 phones at WSHE in Miami after only a week!! I'm telling ya, this record is more than pure vanilla rock and roll. I think it smells like a call-out record. It has an edge, it has hooks, it has melody. And I think Gilby is the best song writer of his peers. Yeah, yeah, yeah...we acknowledge a lack of universal success on his first two singles at AOR. Records like those just don't work everywhere the same. But Gilby's records have reacted, called-out and sold in a very respectable number of markets. Consider the individual song. Simple Minds roll into the top 5 with "She's A River." Next for this album is "And the Band Played On." Probably the cooker on the record. Might as well start warming up now...the Simple Minds are back and a mass appeal force to be reckoned with! King Crimson. Dinosaur. (Adds on 4/10) You read it here first, now hear it from your favorite Virgin. You'll laugh, you'll cry, it's a wild rollercoaster ride and fun for the entire family!! Welcome to our latest Virgin, John Nagarya (ex-APD at WKDF, Nashville) to the Denver market. John brings a wealth of radio, research and musical experience with him. Plus, he's never short of an opinion. That's why we love him...Lo/Jacks (you wanna know what that is?...call me and I'll tell you!!) to the following: Randy Chambers, The Baker, Mike Childs (good luck, my friend), the Iceman, Danny Tate, and Mark Stevens (what do mean? what have you heard?).

WAYNE PIGHINI

ATLANTIC RECORDS, 212-275-2112

I want to thank everyone who came out to the Skid Row show at Irving Plaza in New York last weekend. The excitement over the new record, Subhuman Race, is immense. The new Collective Soul record is out and already buzzing. We all know the potential this band has at radio and the sales counter. I have a feeling you will all hear songs off of this record before it's done. As overwhelming as the reactions have been to the aforementioned records, the Led Zepppelin Tribute album feedback far outweighs the rest. Whether it be Hootie and the Blowfish, Sheryl Crow, or Cracker, people just can't get enough. The new Julianna Hatfield record is due in just two short weeks with MTV already on "Universal Heart Beat." If you still haven't listened to the new Tragically Hip record, then you truly missing out on one of the best records so far this year. Day For Night has been out for about three weeks with a Saturday Night Live appearance scheduled for March 25th. The U.S. tour opens March 27th in St. Louis. Check out what hundreds of thousands of Canadians have already discovered. Jewel soundscans over 1,000 pieces in her first week with no heavy radio play and no video. This story is spreading on word of mouth. Pieces Of You, the debut LP, will explode when these outlets kick in (and they will). Samiam is still on tour and the Victoria Williams tour whoops it up starting on the 19th of March. Props to "The Dominator", Dominick Hasek. He is the best in the game...

KIM LANGBECKER, COLUMBIA

Life just doesn't get much better. It's almost 80 degrees. I'm going to Cabo for four days on Thursday and KLOS adds Jeff Buckley! How cool is it to turn on three radio stations in LA and hear this incredibly gifted artist! We've been revving you up for weeks now and the pay-off is now. The alternative picture has been developing and MTV and VH-1 are both embracing this artist. Airplay cities include Los Angeles, Boston, Providence, Philly, Washington, Detroit, Cincinnati, Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, St. Louis, San Diego, Phoenix among others. He's critically acclaimed making it to many music magazine year end lists with little airplay. He's been receiving rave reviews at his shows across the country and Robert Plant and Jimmy Page tried to lure him on their tour with Robert saying He is one of the best artists he has ever heard! "Last Good Bye" is on your desks now! Put it in your Cd player and I dare you to take it out. COC continues it's roll despite some heavy competition. We are up to 738 spins and our request action continues to grow coming in top 10 Most Requested again for the fourth week in a row! We pick up WEBN, WHJY, and WLLZ this week among others. The sales story grows every week coinciding with the airplay story. Stellar Markets are NYC, LA, Boston, Dallas, Detroit, Cleveland, Seattle, Denver, Milwaukee, and Grand Rapids. New tour info coming soon! It would appear that spring is the Mad Season! I had so many industry folks call me this week to say what a great record River of Deceit is! I love that! Wait till you hear the album which is already blowing out the doors across the country as we speak! Number 2 most added everywhere! The Mike Watt tour will be starting up soon with a cast of characters TBA and "Against the 70's" pick up another 12 stations this week. BDS is up 147 to 381 and the sales story is awesome selling over 10,000 the first week! If we ain't got it, you don't need it. I'm on the road next week headed to the rain soaked bay area! Dana, I'm gonna kick your butt on the F-18 so watch out!! See ya round the margarita bar!!

DYANA DASS

HOLLYWOOD RECORDS, 818-560-5670

I'm sure that there has been a major void in your lives without new tunes from your friends at Hollywood but never fear...fresh sounds will be in route soon! Eleven, who have finished their newest entitled "Thunk" are currently breaking in a new drummer so they can come and invade your hometown with their aggressive, progressive, melodious and truly cerebral blend of music. Into another are finishing up in their home of NYC on their first release for us tentatively entitled Seemless. These "D.I.Y."ERS (that's "do it yourself" for all of you nouveau "punk rockers") are taking great strides musically and lyrically but still maintaining that unique quality that defines them. Seaweed are at Bad Animals Studio in the northwest with Adam Casper who has worked with some of "Flannel Town's" finest. Did you catch their rip-pin' show at SXSW? More new music to be announced soon so stay tuned!

JON NARDACHONE

ATLANTIC, 212-275-2135

The most important record at any rock format right now is Encomium, A Tribute To Led Zepppelin!!! In the history of rock radio, no band has ever created the Rollins Band, Helmet, Stone Temple Pilots, and Blind Melon paying homage to the most visible and mightiest band to ever hit the stage... "Give the people what they want!!"

JOHN BUTLER

SILVERTONE RECORDS, 212-620-8798

Rock, radio, and Duarte, Oh my! Many supporters this week as more than ten take the Chris Duarte "My Way Down" Ice Tea Plunge!! Ahhh! Feels so good! It would feel good to you if you knew what your friends like Bill Pugh, Drake Hall, Greg Ausham, Joe Show, Dave Kane, Pam Brooks and ton o' others are hearing back from their audiences; "We want more Duarte" A sound missing from today's rock radio in a big way and one that your audience needs. Do you think they don't like straight ahead, pedal slamming rock anymore? That sound may not be vogue right now in a lemming like music environment but Duarte's success is testament that Modern Rock and Rock and co-exist at rock radio. From the success WBCN had to KLBZ's top 5 phones, it fits. It's been proven time and time again that great songs cross all types and flavors of the month. Listen again and put "My Way Down" on the air. No one's been disappointed that they did. John Mayall is out on the road in support of his brilliant release "Spinning Coin" now on progressive/adult/AAA/per charts everywhere. Check out the ragtime feel of "No Big Hurry" and the meaty saxophones on Jim Lauderdale's feel of "When The Devil Starts Crying", "Ain't No Breakman" no on over 50 stations and growing. I'll be calling you with dates on when you can see the father of British blues! Big Sugar hits SXSW with a showcase at Maggie Mae's Thursday night, March 16 at 11pm. This will be a record that people at every format will love. Trust is a good thing.

BRIAN MCEVOY

MERCURY RECORDS, 212-333-8458

Things are heating up at Mercury after a little lull in the action. Everyone who hears the new Catherine Wheel wants to put in on the air immediately. The ad date for Hard Rock/Core/Roar is now 5/1. Look for Catherine Wheel to play the McGathy party in June. Everybody will get to see how great they are. I got to catch the new Ugly Kid Joe line-up live. The new drummer Shannon is one of the best drummers in the business. Any doubt about Ugly Kid Joe will be put to rest when you hear the new record Menace to Sobriety. The new single "Tomorrow's World." Crank this baby up and play it loud. One of the founding members of the punk movement, the Circle Jerks, are returning with a new record. If you loved these guys, they are back and better than ever. The guitar player for Bad Religion, Greg Heston is a full member of the band. Wait until you here the track with Debbie Gibson doing vocals on. Finally, Kerbdog is blowing off the opening slot to the Megadeth tour to go in and record their follow up to their debut LP (one of the top Hard Rock Records of last year). Look for the record to be out by the middle of the summer and the band to come over and do a full American tour.

TOMMY DELANEY

VIRGIN, 212-586-7700

Tommy Delaney, "The only person in New York that is laughing instead of crying about Jordan's Return to Hoops." Okay let's buy a big bag of tissues for John Perrone at TVT, Gary Jay at AIM, and Jason Linn at Atlantic for all of that insipid whining that is going on about MJ. Hey, the way I see it, if you didn't let the speechless wonder Starks shoot you out of game 7, you wouldn't be sobbing now. Anyway, come on people now, join hands, start a LOVE TRAIN, and give Urban Dance Squad it's due. The dutch quartet is back at its' most virile (ooh, SAT word, 75 cents for me) as they deliver the most balls out (Nardachonism) record of their storied career. Since they were abandoned and left for dead three years ago, (much like Oswald Cobblepot) the band has been working on refining the sound that they started 5 1/2 years ago. They are back with Persona Non Grata, a record filled with enough rock to impress Marion Berry (Barry?). Yes, gone are the days when you were better off drinkin' than smokin' the rock...Get It Done!! Check the "Demagogue." Look and learn from this track. Need more? "Good Grief", "No Honestly" and "Self-Sufficient Snake." All power cuts designed to raise the fuckin' roof. Gee, I can't remember when I've been so into a record...oh that's right, it was Gamma Ray. Instead of playing God, put this baby on the air and let the music freaks decide...betcha it reacts, thousands of pinkpoppers can't be wrong...Special note to Warner B.: Break the Goo Goo Dolls now or give them to somebody who will. You have one of the records of the year. Hello, WSOU. Yes, I'd like to make a request. Sure. Can I hear the new TLC song? Sure, be up real soon. Only a few more months before I can start givin' Cowboy camp updates, cantcha just wait!!!

Hello Sunshine! Hello Spring and Summer tours! We know you are psyched for the upcoming Queensryche tour since the requests for tickets, promotions and giveaways have already started flooding the Schnapp office. We love this! As the arrival of the Queensryche Promised Land tour becomes imminent in your town, planning is the key! And that also means to please confirm all dates, venues, and resources with us before announcing any specific promotions. To what your audience's appetite for Queensryche the "arrival" of the new & updated Road To Promised Land Radio-only CD is for the week of March 27...Mmmmmhhmm...Something just feels good when you look at your SoundScan Wednesday morning and notice that Butt Trumpet are moving 1,000 pieces a week over the counters of this great country! And you radio folks an feel even better when you know your airplay that's selling their debut LP Primitive Enema! Lessee: airplay in Boston, over 200+ a week sold in Boston; airplay in Seattle, over 1,500 sold in Seattle; airplay in New York, major sales in New York; airplay in New Haven, major sales in New Haven; airplay in Philly, major sales in Philly...you get the idea. You DO get the idea! Butt Trumpet's "I'm Ugly and I Don't Know Why" has the beautiful effect of requesting and selling wherever it's played. It's a matter of downright aesthetics! ...Also, be on the lookout for the debut LP from the Dwellers soon...and speaking of beautiful things, we caught Bloodline live at Wetlands last week doing "Dixie Peach" and "Stone Cold Hearted" and had so much fun that Schnapp boogied and woogied his way right into the NYC street and...you guessed...another cabbie with a big dent in his hood from trying to drive where Schnapp was already standing. We are not making this up, as honest as 8-tracks!

This past week, Smitty was on vacation and Brian Lima was enjoying Lifebeat's second annual Board Aid festivities. And me? I continued to spread the love on KoRn, Oasis, Satchel, Pearl Jam and the upcoming Fight record. As you read this, I'll be on the road with KoRn helping convert the masses into the frenzied folk that we readily identify with. This week's KoRn news includes an add for "Blind" at KIOZ and continued play on KISW. Tired of all the new, trendy bands cluttering up your playlist? Break that shit up and put in a band that doesn't conform to the norm and completely represents that elusive Generation X populous...Satchel continues to test, request and sell off of WAAF's 34+ spins per week. Pearl

Jam's latest single to blaze on is "Not For You"...Oasis last week sold in excess of 17,000 pieces - 'The only day of the year on which a tornado touchdown has not been reported somewhere in the US is January 16.'

So, you wanna rock? Have we got the record for you. KMFDM NIHIL will split your spinal cord in two, put goose bumps on your skin and maybe even blow your head off. The masters are back with vengeance. This record is gonna be everywhere, you will not escape it. No excuses on this one like "I gave it to my RPM or Metal person." They got their own copy!! So just make life easy for yourself and kick it loud. We gave you KMFDM v. Pig as a tease and now you have it all. Remember, none of the song on KMFDM v. Pig are on NIHIL. Check out "Terror", "Ultra" and "Flesh." I look for them to tear up the road in May!! I will have some limited edition vinyl for this one, so give me a call. The mayhem is just beginning! Also, Die Warzau Engine is pick up. Don't miss the boat on this one. Check out Muck...Still out on the road; Catherine with Hole and then Letters To Cleo. Look for them in your town. They be in the midwest and heading east. Call for tickets and interviews...Coming to a cd player near you: EBN, Spookey Ruben, Fledgling and Juster...A final note: Playoffs are around the corner, are ya down with the orange and the blue? Gary at Aim is! Jeff and Corey at McGathy are! Tommy at Virgin...who cares!!

Easter's only about a month away, Peter Cottontail's getting ready to deliver the Easter eggs. Why, there he goes now, looking so fluffy and cute, hopping down the road on his merry way...and there's my Camaro, doing about 90 m.p.h., with my "I kill rabbits for fun" bumper sticker. Sound brutal and violent? Well, it is, just like our new package! Gorefest's brutal Erase and the sonic violence of Kataklysm's Sorcery should be in your hands by now, add dates in the package! Also in your package are details about our big, HUGE, Gorefest contest, check it out and give me a call if you want to participate! And, last but not least, our new catalog is in there as well. Yes!! It's finished!! How about Meshuggah? How about #1 at KSDB? Also in the top 5 phones! Andrew Sample rules!! So does James Mitchell, Corpsegrinder and Spooze at WMUL. Why? Because Amorphis is #1 there and #4 phones there as well, that's why. I think these statistics speak for themselves, hint, hint. Keep spinning Incantation, Pyogenesis, Brutality, and our mind warping sampler, Release Your Mind. By the way, I really do like rabbits...with a little ketchup.

PAULA KOPKA

NOISE RECORDS. 310-289-2515

Get ready for one of our most anticipated releases — Coroner! You'll need to get your ears checked if you don't get this release. The add date for Coroner is March 20th and songs to check out include "The Favorite Game", "Serpent Moves" and the adventurous "Grin (No Religion Remix)." Who says cover songs aren't cool? The Beatles and Hendrix take on a new twist with Coroner's musical touch (if Jimi were alive he definitely would want to spark one during Coroner's live version of "Purple Haze"!). Skyclad keeps on growing at radio — if you haven't added these guys yet, the time has come! Cubanate picked up 8 more adds last week and was 6th Most Added at metal radio. Cubanate supporters include WTPA, WSOU, KFMX, KUSF and DMX. Cubanate's "Body Burn" will live on your play list and make your listeners happy — so add it now. Call me if you need anything.

MARIA "MOM" ABRIL/MELODIE MINGO

METAL BLADE. 805-522-9380

Grip Inc. has more than proven itself to be worthy of being the top of every single play list in the USA dammit. Power Inner Strength is the godfather of all albums. Spin "Savage Seas" and "Monster Among Us" as staples. Numero uno kids, think numero uno. Killers Menace To Society fits in well around Machine Head and Pantera. Hint. "Think Brutal" has had success with phone response Mercyful Fate should still be on peoples spin list. Clawfinger all you suckas out there! Coming soon Broken Hope's new LP, Repulsive Conception. It comes complete with a cover of Twisted Sister's "Captain Howdy" which just rules! If you haven't gotten Goo Goo Dolls music yet and wish to play it, call Brian or Linnea at Warner Bros 818-953-3692. "Only One" is the stylin single. I'm sick this week. Feel bad for me. Play my music. Sigh...

RUSS MILLER

ROCKWORLD RECORDS. 212-996-2727

I had an exciting weekend. Blaze Bose from KWWC was in NYC for the first time and I got to show her the town along with a few familiars (IE: Munsey(Oy Scumbag!), Chainsaw (Piss off you bastard!), and Anya (A lovely jewel from AIM)). Yes, we were a motley bunch. Can you just imagine the dinner conversation. We went to the Comedy Central/Young Ones/Motorhead party and then did the village crawl. Needless to say we Imbided much merriment after a few cocktails Chainsaw revealed something very interesting to me. Apparently, quite recently he had a sordid homosexual affair with a well know celebrity (to remain nameless). Anyway...on to business and business is good! Sex Love & Money is going strong (charts: *14FMD, 15*HARD, 15*GAVIN, 17*CMJ, 20*ALBUM NET). We're getting geared up for the big show in NY with Dirty Looks, April 15th at The Wave. By the way, the new Dirty Looks video is hilarious (PC, what's that?). One Hit Wonder has another great week with over 200 stations on. People are telling me that their name would be true except every song on this record is a hit! Let me however, particularly suggest "Where's the World", "Clocks" and "Therapy Lounge." Bad Seed will be on your desk, in your face, in your mind soon, and you will be all over it I'm sure!!

PAM EDWARDS

THE WORK GROUP. 310-449-2203

We're up to 13,000 units a week now on Sponge and headed for the Top 10 with "Plowed" ... who said perseverance doesn't pay off? Sponge is on the road now with Live and every show is a sell-out. We're getting ready to blow out the new Chris Whitley. Please get your work buddy to play "Oh God, My Heart Is Ready" for you because it's pure genius. You'll be playing it in about a month on your airwaves...we've got lots of early believers on this one!! Now it's back to WORK!

DENNIS CONSTANTINE/JASON PARKER

CONSTANTINE BROADCAST CONSULTING
330-440-5470

I'll be at the SXSW Conference in Austin this week, and part of the AAA Panel on Friday morning. You can reach me in Austin at the Sheridan (480-8181) or at KGSR (472-1071). Throw some beads at me mister...oops wrong convention. Some may question Annie Lennox's decision to put out an album of covers at this point but one listen to Medussa (Arista) and that thought will flee from your mind like Howard Leon flees from wide open spaces. "Train In Vain" is my favorite track on the CD. Eminently funky and seductive, this one will stop your listeners dead in their tracks. Matthew Sweet has put out another solid album filled with power pop nuggets. The consensus seems to be that "We're The Same" is the track to watch, but there are many other good ones, including "Everything Changes", "Walk Out" and "Smog Man" to name a few. You may remember Susan Werner from her short set at one of the breakfasts at the last A3 summit here in Boulder. It is clear to everyone who hears Werner that she is an emerging talent. You should have a 3 song CDPro that contains the title track, which is a nice electric folk song and show off Werner's talent for lyric writing. The other two songs are "St. Mary's of Regret" an acoustic ballad, and "Man I Used To Love" a swinging jazzy tune. Chris Smither's last two albums are masterpieces of songwriting but didn't get much attention from radio, possibly because they are mostly solo material. However, he has moved to Hightone records and put out an album with bass and drums that blows me away. Up On The Lowdown should finally get Chris the attention he deserves. "Link Of Chain" is the highlight of this stellar CD. Smither's guitar line sounds like stride piano, and his gravelly voice will send chills down your spine. Other tracks to consider are "What Was It You Wanted", "Can't Shake These Blues" and the title track. Jewel Kilcher is quietly making fans of every programmer that has heard her. Her stream of consciousness songwriting and uncluttered musical arrangements may take a while to grow on you, but grow they will. "Who Will Save Your Soul" is the lead track from Pieces Of You (Atlantic). With Neil Young's former backing band The Stray Gators and Jewel on guitar, this one has really gotten under my skin. Guitarland (PRA Records) is a nice sounding instrumental album from guitarist Time Pierce. With a long line of session credits including Springsteen, Joan Armatrading, Crowded House, Roger Waters and more. Pierce is as accomplished as they come. Pay special attention to the edits of "I Made It So" and the title track. Charlie Sexton's new album Under The Wishing Tree (MCA) has taken many people by surprise, and it's one of our favorites around Constantine Central. Check out "Everyone Will Crawl", "Sunday Clothes" and "Broken Dream", which are all worthy of airplay. Mad Season is a Seattle grunge-rock supergroup. With Layne Staley from Alice In Chains and Mike McCready from Pearl Jam, this one's sure to be big with the Generation X hipsters. But beyond that, "River of Deceit" from the album Above (Columbia) is a great tune! It's definitely a moody piece of music, but it is very enjoyable. Take equal parts Delbert McClinton and Blues Traveler and you have "Sweet Goddess of Love and beer" the debut single from Popa Chubby's Booty and the Best (Okeh/550 Music). This song is just plain fun and the forthcoming album has much music to play with. You may already be playing "Texas Skies" by the Freddy Jones Band from the Constantine New Music Sampler: Music To A Muse. Now is has been officially released by Capricorn, in anticipation of their re-release of the Freddy Jones Band, the first independent release from FJB. This song has that groovy Allman Brothers' feel to it and is a perfect song to usher in sunny springtime weather. Suddenly, Tammy's self titled major label debut is on the way from Warner Bros. "Hard Lesson" the first single is a driving up tempo tune propelled by piano and bass and the vocals of Beth Sorrentino. The band has a devoted following from their indie releases and this one should put them on the map on a number of formats.

So SXSW is all over by now. I'm not there yet but I know you'll know what I'm saying when you read this. So check out D.O.P.E. because they're way cool. I.C.U. has 3 dates in New York the end of this month, check that out. The L.A. Guns tour is doing real well. The band is heading to Europe then back to tour the states again. Misery Loves Co kicked ass at radio. Dig on this band, they are way powerful. Monster Voodoo Machine is in your face. You love this band, you love the tunes. Orange 9MM and Sick Of It All are kickin' ass on the road. The venues are doing 90% on tickets, we love that. Dig on Universa Stomp. They are way heavy to the point where they're on steroids. Till next week, I'm outta here, cya.
