THE "OTHER" BOSS

Legendary industry veteran Bruce Lundvall will be making sure Springsteen's not the only one hearing the chants of "Bruuuuce" come Grammy night, when the Blue Note chief accepts plaudits as the man who signed Norah Jones. His discovery of the chart-topping singer-songwriter, who is expected to cart home several awards this Sunday night, caps a career of achievements for the music maestro, the least of which is undoubtedly this HITS Contents appearance.

MOST PLAYED

#1 Missy Elliott (Goldmind/Elektra/EEG), #2 Kid Rock f/Sheryl Crow (Lava/Atlantic/Atl G), #3 Smilez & Southstar (ArtistDirect), #4 Red Hot Chili Peppers (WB), #5 Tim McGraw (Curb), #6 Lil' Kim (Queen Bee/Atlantic/Atl G) #7 Faith Hill (WB), #8 Sixpence None the Richer (Reprise), #9 Emerson Drive (DreamWorks) and #10 Jessica Andrews (DreamWorks).

While this week's HITS Album chart is filled with sales prompted by Valentine's Day, the top slot is once again reserved for a guy who expresses his love by blowing away the competition.

Shady/Aftermath/Interscope rap sensation 50 Cent shot an arrow in the air, and it landed at #1, with remarkable second-week sales of 801k, a less than 1% drop from his huge opening, giving hip-hop's newest superstar 1.6 million units moved in less than two weeks. Can you say "humongous"?

Virgin Entertainment Group's Jerry Suarez can, but just barely: "Valentine's Day is traditionally a huge week for record sales, and this year proved to be no exception. The 50 Cent phenomenon continued virtually unabated. It's hard to recall a record that decreased so little in its second week of release."

Open Wide/Columbia/CRG's Dixie Chicks stayed at #2 with 161k and a 49% increase. Blue Note's Norah Jones (#3, +39%), Lava/Atlantic's Kid Rock (#4, +23%) and Epic/SMS's Chicago (#5, +55%) all topped 100k, collectively replacing chocolate, roses and Hallmark cards as this year's fave Valentine's Day gifts.

Debating MCA Nashville cowboy George Strait (#6), Arista's Avril Lavigne (#7, +22%), Mercury/IDJ's Shania Twain (#8, +57%), Epic's J.Lo (#9) and GM/Elektra's Missy Elliott (#10) rounded out the Top 10.

Just outside the Top 10, J Records' Rod Stewart (#11) and 143/Reprise boy crooner Josh Groban (#12) registered romantic sales gains of 79% and 90%, respectively.

Continued Suarez: "Almost everything was up from last week—not only some obvious titles like Dixie Chicks, Norah Jones and Chicago, but also Rod Stewart and Josh Groban."

MCA Nashville's Vince Gill (#13) and Aware/Columbia Grammy nominee John Mayer (#14) partially owed their high chart debuts to Cupid as well.

In all, 36 of the Top 50 boasted sales increases of 35% or more, notably Blackground/Universal's Aaliyah (#15, +48%), Capitol's Coldplay (#20, +39%), UTV's Elton John best-of (#32, +93%) and WB's Faith Hill (#35, +92%).

Here's looking forward to Mother's Day, Father's Day and Secretary's Day.

Car Hits HITS

They said it would never happen, but after an unknown motorist rammed his/her car into the front door of the HITS Sherman Oaks cesspool, the losers who bring you this loathsome rag actually learned what a hit is. The jury's still out on whether it was a deliberate act of wrath or vengeance, but word is Martin Bashir has already secured documentary rights, valued in the low three figures. The boarded-up HITS building has stood vacant since the incident last Tuesday night (not that anyone would notice), except for Marc Pollack (pictured), who keeps trying to find the door.

WILD CARD

SMILEZ & SOUTHSTAR ARTISTDIRECT

This Orlando-based duo is hitting it big with their debut album, which mixes underground hip-hop with a little bit of pop. Garnering strong phones and callout stories, "Tell Me" is crossing from Rhythmic to Top 40 behind tons of momentum. Multi-format airplay at KIIS, Z100, WKSC, WKST, WIHT, WDRQ, KPWR, KYLD, WKQI, KHKS and more. Mike Whited and the ArtistDirect promo team are taking these freestylers to the top of the Pop chart.

Zapin Is DreamWorks' Expanding Man

Just don't call him Elephant Boy.

Ross "The Boss" Zapin has been tapped to oversee the combined Rock and Modern Rock promotion departments at DreamWorks Records, while continuing to look after the label's video promotion activities.

As part of his duties, he is now required to pick up the check if he invites Howard Stern to dinner for his birthday.

The appointment was announced by DreamWorks Records' "Herrrrree'sssss" Johnny Barbis, to whom Zapin reports.

Said Barbis: "Ross has done an outstanding job of raising awareness of our artists at radio. He's shown real leadership in not only getting songs played, but in looking after the overall development of artists' careers. Ross has worn two hats at DreamWorks for a while now, getting impressive results in both the radio and video arenas, so we have no doubt he will excel in his increased responsibilities as head of our recently combined Rock and Modern Rock promotion efforts. He's every bit as articulate as Beetlejuice in pitching records to radio and TV."

The N.Y.-based Zapin will maintain his role as DreamWorks' chief liaison to MTV Networks and other major video outlets, insisting that VJ Martha Quinn always takes his calls.

Zapin formerly spearheaded the company's Modern Rock promotion efforts, in addition to his video promotion duties.

Zapin remarked: "I must thank Johnny Barbis for this tremendous opportunity to grow in my career at DreamWorks. He has shown the kind of support and creativity that you dream of in a boss—at most labels I'd never have the freedom to do all the things I've done on Johnny's watch. I'm also extremely grateful to my team members in the department, Matt

Smith and Jeff Gillis. These guys are critical in making sure we get the job done. [DreamWorks Records principal executive] Michael Ostin, too, has been very important in my forward movement at DreamWorks. He has shown great faith in my abilities from day one. With this incredible group working alongside me, I'm looking forward to major success for our artists in 2003. Now, can I get a Baba-booye!?"

Zapin: Barbis catches up on his Zs.

Lisa Marie "Lights" Up Radio

Her new record's anything but a hound dog.

Lisa Marie Presley is proving to be more than just a tabloid sensation, as the radio reception to "Lights Out," the first single from her eagerly awaited Capitol album, To Whom It May Concern, would have made her famous daddy proud.

It was the impetus of label President Andy Slater that put the project back in the fast lane after the singer was originally signed to Glen Ballard's Java label, distributed by Capitol at the time.

Slater said, at first, he couldn't "find the artist in the record," but immediately responded to Presley's lyrics. "She's not afraid to face the real issues of her life. When I met her, she radiated the kind of charisma it takes to be a successful recording artist. It was just a matter of finding the right context sonically. And I always loved the music of her father, Jerry Lee Lewis."

Elvis and Priscilla's little girl, who was 9 when her father died in 1977, apparently has enough talent to offset the tabloid headlines generated by her brief marriages to Michael Jackson and Nicolas Cage.

"Lights Out," produced by Slater, has scored several big-market adds since hitting radio Feb. 10, including N.Y.'s Z100 and WPLJ and L.A.'s KIIS and KYSR. The album lands at retail April 8.

Label Sr. VP Promotion Dan Hubbert donned his white spangled jumpsuit and raved about a recent promo tour that took Lisa Marie to Atlanta, Boston, Dallas, Houston, L.A., N.Y. and S.F.: "We wanted to have her in the marketplace talking about the record, to introduce her to radio as an artist and songwriter. People realize this record can stand on its own."

The video was delivered to various outlets this week and immediately added by VH1.

"Lights Out" deals directly with her legacy ("Someone turned the lights out there in Memphis/That's where my family's buried and gone"). Lisa Marie shows her sass in the expletive-charged rocker "S.O.B" ("I'm just a son of a bitch no matter what you say"). These two, along with "The Road Between" and "Nobody Noticed It," both dealing with romantic loss, make up the four-song sampler sent to media earlier this month with an EPK. Presley collaborated with producer Eric Rosse (Tori Amos), Slater, Ballard, Cliff Magness and first husband Danny Keough on the album.

"The record is about her and from her," says label product manager Sharon Lord. "When you talk to her, you can see who she is and what she's about. The next step is to have her play live."

Among the setup elements:

■ L.A. Times Calendar, Rolling Stone cover.

■ Diane Sawyer ABC prime-time special first week in April.

■ Performance on ABC's Good Morning America day of release (4/3), interview on Prime Time Live that night.

■ Cable/network TV ad campaign starting April 3.

■ AOL streams "Lights Out" to half a million, with MSN, Launch campaigns upcoming.

■ First run of CD enhanced with video.

Lisa Marie Presley: A chip off the old rock.

HITS LIST

A Blatant Rip-off of a Good Magazine

WHAT WEASELS ARE WEASELING ABOUT THIS WEEK

- 1 50 CENT: Newest hip-hop hero won't have to Die Tryin' to Get Rich—his second week adds another 800k-plus. When you want Eminem-like numbers, go to the source.
- 2 DOUG MORRIS: Big Q4 plus '03's first mega-sales story add up to Universally admirable numbers for longest-running Big Five boss. Crisis? What crisis?
- 3 R. KELLY: Jive artist's new album benefits from the best marketing campaign this side of Michael Jackson, resulting in a piping-hot Chocolate. Can it do 700k?
- 4 ANDY LACK: No Lack of anticipation in Sonyland, as troops anxiously wait for new topper to program their future.
- 5 EMINEM: Mr. Everything agrees to perform on Grammys, makes dollars from 50 Cent, scores Oscar nod, with 8 Mile about to hit on DVD. Can he negotiate with Iraq now?
- 6 BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN: The tension may be Rising, but the smart money's on Bruce to become Grammy's Boss this Sunday.
- 7 NORAH JONES: "Don't Know Why" this prestigious word-of-mouth phenom shouldn't wind up with an armful of Grammys.
- 8 TOM FRESTON: His Real World is better than yours. MTV head contributes to Viacom's impressive bottom line. Is he next in line if Mel doesn't stay?
- 9 KID ROCK: Lava/Atlantic rap-rocker has plenty to Crow about—and who wouldn't feel Cocky, hitting the Top Five with a 2001 album?
- 10 JACKO: Pillow talk turns to deal talk, as former King of Pop becomes tabloid culture's hottest property. What's next, an "All Jacko, All the Time" cable channel?

The adds this week at BET are Li' Kim (Queen Bee/Atlantic/AtG), Eminem (Shady/Aftermath/ Interscope), Nas (Columbia/CRG), Ginuwine (Epic) and India.Aire (Motown/Universal).

TWO GUYS TALK GRAMMYS

Beer and Trakin Flap Their Lips, Drool, Blow Smoke

You wanna know who'll win big at Sunday night's Grammy Awards, don't you, Bunky? Who do you think we are, Mistress Cleo? But our lack of prescience and brain cells won't stop certain HITS staffers from foisting their opinions on you, our reader. Take it away, pinheads.

LENNY BEER: I want to deal with this whole issue of Norah Jones and whether there will be a sweep. Everyone's claiming that Bruce Springsteen will win Album of the Year. I'm a giant Springsteen fan, but if I had to take five Springsteen albums to a desert island, this wouldn't be one of them. I can see lifetime achievement victories, but not in a year when Norah Jones is so strong. Steely Dan and Bob Dylan both won for albums that were clearly not their best. In those years, there wasn't a real dominant record, though, like Norah, who has captured the zeitgeist this year.

ROY TRAKIN: Well, no one's talking about Bruce sweeping. Norah certainly appears the front-runner for Record of the Year, Song of the Year, Best New Artist, Best Pop Vocal Album and Best Female Pop Vocal Performance. The only reason I say Springsteen has a shot at Album and possibly Song is because the show's in New York City and the album deals so much with the aftermath of 9/11.

BEER: But the voters aren't all in New York City. There will be a lot of votes from Nashville for the Dixie Chicks and a lot from St. Louis for Nelly and probably a few from Detroit for Eminem. I also wouldn't be surprised if there were a lot of votes from Nashville for Norah as well. My point is, Springsteen is the favorite for Album of the Year, but I don't see him winning it. He does win Male Rock Vocal Performance and Rock Album of the Year, though.

TRAKIN: So you're feeling a Norah Jones sweep is on the boards, like Alicia Keys last year.

BEER: Yes, although I'm still angry Alicia wasn't nominated for Best Album of the Year last year.

TRAKIN: So Norah wins both Record of the Year and Song of the Year?

BEER: Yep.

TRAKIN: You don't feel "The Rising" itself has a shot as Song of the Year?

BEER: Norah.

TRAKIN: I guess we don't have to discuss Best New Artist?

BEER: Norah. In Best Female Pop Vocal, you have Norah Jones against the almost-unbeatable Grammy perennial Sheryl Crow. If Norah doesn't win this category, then Mike Greene may still somehow be involved with the voting.

TRAKIN: Pop Performance by Duo or Group. Do you feel Bowling for Soup has a shot here?

BEER: I don't care who wins in this category.

TRAKIN: Jon Bon Jovi won't like hearing that.

BEER: Pop Collaboration with Vocals? Hard to vote against Sheryl Crow here, though where's "It's So Easy" from?

TRAKIN: Can Avril Lavigne avoid a shutout?

BEER: Best Female Rock Vocal could be the one category where Avril wins for "Sk8ter Boi," but she will have to beat Crow, even if it is for a song, "Steve McQueen," that no one's heard—especially Steve. How about Male Pop Vocal Performance? You have Elton John, Sting, John Mayer, James Taylor and Craig David.

TRAKIN: Well, you have three Academy favorites in Elton, Sting and Taylor. Maybe they split the geezer vote and Mayer gets in, as Paul Grein predicted. But I have to say Taylor feels like the favorite in this category.

BEER: I'll take Sting. How 'bout Rock Performance for a Duo or Group?

TRAKIN: Grein thought the Spider-Man track has the best shot here, although Coldplay has been steadily building good momentum in the marketplace.

BEER: I'm going with Coldplay.

TRAKIN: Yeah, I like them in the Alternative Music Album category, too, over Beck, Elvis Costello, Clinic and Soundtrack of

Our Lives. OK, so let's recap. Norah Jones wins Album of the Year, Record of the Year, Song of the Year, Best New Artist, Best Pop Vocal Album, Best Female Pop Vocal Performance. In other words, all six of the categories she's nominated in. And I take it Producer of the Year has to be Arif Mardin, then.

BEER: The battle here is an interesting one against Dr. Dre, but I'm going with Arif. We haven't done R&B and Country. Are you a f***ing racist? What about Contemporary Blues Album? One of my Top Five albums of the year is in this category, Solomon Burke.

TRAKIN: That should be a shoo-in... Can't wait to see Solomon make his way to the stage to accept it. What's your pick for Country Album? Dixie Chicks or Alan Jackson?

BEER: I'll go with Dixie Chicks. What about R&B Album of the Year?

TRAKIN: Grein thinks the Academy will make up for its shutout of India.Arie last year.

BEER: Her performance on American Dreams as Nina Simone was superb. I think India.Arie will win, but I feel both Raphael Saadiq and Remy Shand made better albums.

TRAKIN: Rap album should be a romp for Eminem, even if he doesn't win in any of the major categories.

BEER: You really think he's going to beat out Petey Pablo? I want to vote for the Jazz album first. I'll take Natalie Cole over Patti Austin, Etta Jones and Luciano Souza. I'm also picking Johnny Cash for Contemporary Folk Album.

TRAKIN: How about Best Polka album?

BEER: I always think Jimmy Sturr is tough in this category.

TRAKIN: What about my man Eddie Blazonczyk and his incredible Versatones?

BEER: He may not win, but he'd be tough in the ACC.

TRAKIN: He might have a shot if he bought a vowel.

As New-Artist Debuts Go, 50 Cent Stacks Up

In its first full week of release following a massive, 806k debut on only four days of sales, 50 Cent's Get Rich or Die Tryin' (Shady/Aftermath/Interscope) has held up incredibly well, dipping less than 1% to 801k. That's roughly 89,000 albums for each of the nine bullet holes in the Queens rapper's unusually resilient body.

Of course, the sales period for Get Rich represented on this week's chart is seven days compared to only four days last week, but any way you slice it, selling over 800k two charts in a row looks mighty good in these trying times.

Indeed, 50 Cent now has the distinction of having the highest first-week sales for a debut album by a new artist since they started counting. At 806k, he edges out previous record-holder Snoop Doggy Dogg, whose Doggystyle wowed observers in 1993 by selling 803k in its first week. Previous runner-up Ricky Martin, whose 2000 debut moved almost 661k in its first week, is now bumped to third place.

Only two albums of any kind had higher first weeks last year: Shania Twain's Up! at 874k and Eminem's The Eminem Show at 1.3 million. And in the case of 50 Cent co-producer/label owner Eminem, that 1.3 million was really a "second week," coming after the album's release date was moved forward to Memorial Day weekend, and the resulting two-to-three-day sales flurry caused the album to chart at #1 on sales of 311k the previous week.

Looking back even further, only two 2001 albums had first weeks higher than 50 Cent's: Creed's Weathered at 887k and NSYNC's Celebrity at 1.8 million. Of course, back in the heady days of 2000, before the Internet ruined everything, five albums had million-plus first weeks: Backstreet Boys (1.6m), Limp Bizkit (1.0m), Eminem (1.7m), NSYNC (2.4m) and Britney Spears (1.3m).

Fingerett Pointing

Lenny:

Congratulations on your On Records story, "Finding the Up in Down."

I remember almost 30 years ago, while working at KQRS Mpls, before a performance/ broadcast of the late, great Steve Goodman, the Elektra regional and national reps having an argument when Steve broke in and said, "You know, guys, who could be luckier than us? We've just had a great dinner and we're about to play music live on the radio."

I've never forgotten that moment of optimism. Whenever things seem bleak, I often recycle that concept. Your article was wonderful. I was especially pleased to read the challenge you put to our friends in radio about their role as cultural gatekeepers.

We (they) need to be reminded, occasionally, of the responsibility we all have to reflect the public's interests, rather than deflect the onslaught of any particular shift in our cultural leanings. Thanks for reminding us the future is as bright as we allow it to be and that positive thinking yields positive results.

Now that's responsible journalism...and who'd have ever thought you guys could be accused of that?!!! Take care.

On the Warner Music Group front, those in the know saying if there is a deal to be made, EMI is the buyer. AOLTW top-per Richard Parsons doesn't view music as crucial to the conglom's future and would probably part with WMG for about $3 billion, insiders say. That said, one theory on how EMI might purchase WMG involves the sale of either EMI Publishing or Warner/Chappell, either of which, most believe, would fetch about $2 billion. That leaves $1 billion for EMI to raise, most likely through a private placement led by alternative-investment powerhouse The Blackstone Group. Some observers saying BMG would be a better fit for EMI, but EMI reportedly would rather make a deal with AOLTW... Speaking of Bertelsmann, some BMG insiders whispering that there may be some truth to the latest Smellie/

Schmidt-Holtz scuttlebutt. These observers noting that if Schmidt-Holtz were to take the RTL television gig, it wouldn't necessarily mean the end of his music run... Wonderers wondering what impact the ongoing Michael Jackson media circus will have on his recently troubled recording career. The ratings are great, but has it all gotten too weird for consumers? What ever happened to Jackson's settlement negotiations with Sony?... Speaking of Sony, insiders saying any fiscal or personnel changes Andy Lack intends to make will go down before Sony's April 1 fiscal year-end, in order to get any losses out of the way and on the current year's books. Meanwhile, Incubus' suit to get out of its Epic deal prompting some musings that the band's growth may have been stunted through a string of bad management decisions... Chatter that an organizational schism is in the works at ArtistDirect that may end with the company dividing the operations of ArtistDirect Records under Ted Field and the company's iMusic and other online assets under Marc Geiger. Insiders say each division feels it would have an easier time raising capital without direct connections to the other, as some internal finger-pointing spills onto the street... Names in the Rumor Mill: Eric Nicoli, Roger Ames, Lou Pearlman, Chris Wright, Walter Yetnikoff, Trudy Green and Steve Rennie.

BEAT'S ME

BY ROY TRAKIN

PAZZ & JOP OR PISS & JIZZ? Even chief Poobah Robert Christgau himself is beginning to realize the Village Voice's annual exercise in democracy, featuring the weighted votes of 695 music critics for the best albums and singles of the year, is becoming increasingly irrelevant. The Dean kvetched mightily about the results of this year's just-published poll, which was topped by semi-populist, semi-obscure, corporate bohos Wilco, Beck and Flaming Lips. Fearing the worst, Bob wondered aloud why his own marginally even more semi-obscure bohos, like his own tied-for-#1 pick the Mekons (who finished #37), DJ Shadow (#18) and Orchestra Baobab (#112), didn't finish higher. No matter how elitist you are, the fun of pop music is in seeing what you like become popular, thereby ratifying your own taste. Which is why, in the final analysis, he must admit to a grudging admiration for Missy Elliott, Timbaland and the Neptunes. You're overthinking it, Bob. Still, the neat cross-referencing interface at www.villagevoice.com, allows you to check the ballots of all 695 voters... Meanwhile, several alternative weekly candidates have emerged in L.A., including ex-Mayor Richard Riordan's Examiner, to grab the $750k the court has required New Times Media and Village Voice Media to pay for any legitimate start-up in the antitrust proceedings spurred by the agreed-upon closing of alt papers in L.A. and Cleveland...

STONED AGAIN: Legendary Rolling Stones manager/producer Andrew Loog Oldham, whose two-part autobiography, Stoned and 2 Stoned, are two of the best books written on the subject, returns from his self-imposed exile in Bogota, Colombia, to make a rare appearance at the New Music Reporter Convention at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel, March 14. Yours truly will be on hand to moderate a panel that also features Beatles engineer Geoff Emerick... Atlanta Journal-Constitution pop critic Bill Wyman has joined National Public Radio in Washington, DC. E-mail him at wyman@well.com and tell him the ex-Stones bassist still wants his name back... Best-selling novelist Stephen King wrote the liner notes to Columbia's new Ramones tribute album, which features an EC Comics-inspired cover by Rob Zombie, who co-produced the record with Johnny Ramone. PUB-A-DUB-DUB: Veteran exec Ronnie Lippin has nabbed PR duties for the upcoming Lollapalooza festival, reuniting colleague Jean Sievers with the groundbreaking tour, which she worked on in its glory days with Heidi Robinson at American... Serena Gallager has been brought in as publicity head at Universal Records from Motown to work with Jamie Roberts...

(The HITS management wants you to know that Roy Trakin's column is Roy Trakin's column and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of HITS.)

CRITICS' VOX POPULI

WILCO: Tops in Pazz & Jop, but fall short of Dean's List.

MINI MUGS

CONFESSIONS OF A DANGEROUS MINI-MUG: TV game-show producer, songwriter and CIA assassin Chuck Barris drops the bombshell that he was an undercover HITS reporter in the late '80s as he marks the release of the Domo Records soundtrack to George Clooney's hit film, Confessions of a Dangerous Mind, based on his autobiography. Barris then revealed he and Rip Taylor were the same person to Gong Show candidates (l-r) Domo President Eiichi Naito, Sr. VP Business/Legal Affairs Howard Sapper, Barris and VP A&R/Operations Dino Malito.

SMELLING THE ROSES: The legendary Ray Charles welcomes winners of the third annual Sir Charles Blues Lab Blues Off to his studio to record tracks with him and a reunited Guns N' Roses. The L.A.-area students were victors in a battle of the bands sponsored by the non-profit organization, which provides a chance for young people to learn the blues in after-school activities. Charles then told the following how delighted he was to finally meet Axl Rose (l-r) student Derrick Bell, Charles, Dave Kushner and GNR members Duff McKagan, Matt Sorum and Slash.

TUNING IN: Elektra artists AM Radio perform songs from their July release at L.A.'s Troubadour. The band is managed by Weezer's Rivers Cuomo, who locked the group in a closet for six months, feeding them only bread and water. Pictured before being bought by EMI are (l-r) the band's Joe Higgins, Brice Soderberg & Rowan Roberson, Elektra Sr. VP A&R Howard Benson, AM's Kevin Ridel & Jason Moore and Cuomo.

WHEELS & DEALS

BY RODEL DELFIN

THE HORSE FINALLY COMES IN: The hotly contested bidding for the Crush-repped The Bronx finally comes to an end, as the Orange County band inks with Island Def Jam hitters Jeff Fenster and Rob Stevenson. You'll recall that the derby started back in fall '02; weasels first stuck their noses in by e-mailing the band, who sent back hilarious replies. One label playa, who felt the buzz early and sought a demo, sent an e-mail "requesting the ROCK." Days later, the rep received a package—containing an actual rock. Not surprisingly, after The Bronx played their second show ever at the Troubadour, weasel pursuit went into high gear—resulting in nine deal proposals. And just this week, as the band inked their IDJ contract, pub proposals were hitting the Crush fax machine, unbeknownst to the band and management. Thus was the pub derby kicked into gear... Jesse Harris, Grammy-nominated writer of Norah Jones' "Don't Know Why," which is up for Song of the Year, inked a deal last week with Verve. It's hard to believe that the Mike McKoy-repped Harris, who inked with Nate Krenkel at Sony/ATV Publishing some time ago, remained in play for as long as he did... Just before the Presidents' Day weekend and the East Coast blizzard, KIIS-FM (L.A.) added the current Australian hit "Do It With Madonna" by The Androids, who are without a U.S. label, leading weasels into hot pursuit and prompting offers over the weekend. At presstime, the band is rumored to be finalizing a deal. This one will probably be over by the time you read this... Rick Sales at Sanctuary Management picks up the Henry Root-repped Escape From Earth for management. See below for the band's upcoming showcase... You should know about two shows in New York on the Monday (2/24) after the Grammys—the 22-20's at the Mercury Lounge at 7 p.m. and Mesh STL at CBGB's at 9 p.m. Don't miss out. In L.A. on that same night, Flying Tigers alumnus Ryan Martin will host an open showcase at his North Hollywood rehearsal space for his new band, Hope Republic. Do some homework to learn the time and place... Lots of chatter about the John Greenberg/Sean E.-repped Bullets 'N Octane, as the band rocked label showcases in NYC this week... In the pub world, lots of momentum building on the Peter Malkin/Nick Sciorra-repped White Light Motorcade. The group released its debut on Octone/J and is getting great U.K. press and strong specialty play... Not going to the Grammys? Then watch the event at the Davis, Shapiro, Lewit, Montone & Hayes/MTV party at Pressure, Sunday (2/23) in NYC. Open bar and free eats... On the SXSW tip, here's our lineup for the HITS/Militia Group/Nitro showcase: Up Syndrome, Copeland, Divit, Rocket Summer, Acceptance and Instruction. It's on Wed., March 12 at Spill on 6th Street... BUZZIN': Tom McRae, Jade McQueen and Fallout Boy... Hit me up: brotherxx@earthlink.net.

THE ATARIS:

Columbia rockers show game by nabbing MTV "Buzzworthy" and MTV2 for "In This Diary."

DARREN EGGLESTON:

Just when you thought there were no new jobs, this promo vet is a few weeks from a new gig. Is that why he's been singing "I got 'The Music' in me?"

LINKIN PARK:

WB chart-toppers "crawling" back to where they "Belong," as new single hits Monday (2/24) to big buzz.

BOB EDWARDS:

This former OM for WRDU/WDCG nabs the coveted PD gig at KQRC Kansas City and joins APD/MD Don Jantzen. Get that man a plate of ribs!

JENN LANCHART:

Beggars/Matador Dir. of Radio Promotions cannot only get you tickets for SRO Interpol shows, but also has Electric Six's "Danger! High Voltage" coming in early March; tour w/The D4 starts at SXSW.

DAVE HILL/PD WIYY, Baltimore

As the Northeast digs out from the blast that dumped up to four feet of snow, Dave Hill pokes his head through the whiteout to comment on the El Nino he whips up in every market he programs. In his first book as PD at legendary Baltimore Rocker WIYY, he took the station 3.5-4.6 12+ (fall 2002). He and APD/MD Rob Heckman are also celebrating the #1 men 18-34 (13.0) and men 25-54 (9.1) as well as #2 persons 18-34 (9.2). Before leaving for 'IYY, Dave attained #1 persons 18-34 as PD at WQBK Albany with a "bold, in-your-face programming style, or as I called it, 'the Animal House of radio.'" He put Dee Snider on mornings while holding the PD reigns at WMRQ Hartford. He also worked in the programming department at 99X Atlanta and was MD at renowned Atlanta college station WRAS circa 1992. Adds Dave: "There's an incredible wealth of talent in the WIYY staff and their dedication is reflected in these great ratings."

post toasted

BY IVANA B. ADORED

COME BACK HOME: As much as I crave spending February sweeps glued to the television, the Interpol tour has motivated me to hit the road and visit PoMo radio stations, with the band in tow. The first week has been fascinating (this adjective is on loan from Ted Volk). Here's what I know: People care deeply about music. It defines them. Their allegiance to a genre or individual band makes them instantly part of a community of like-minded fans. This, unfortunately, is rarely measured in record sales and research. How, then, does a programmer reflect the passion of the enthusiasts without alienating his mainstream listeners who require a level of familiarity and comfort in their radio experience? Obviously, "balance" is critical, but of equal or greater importance is the need for the on-air staff and those involved in musical decisions to be in touch with the burgeoning underground. KNDD MD Seth Resler is out every night seeing bands (thanks, Seth, for also taking me to see Daredevil. Of all the movies I've seen, it was definitely one of them). Seth is living the life of The End's audience, especially with his newly acquired Xbox, and was the first to "hear" the Evanescence song as the smash it's quickly become.... Being around the Live105 team is a privilege. Since Sean Demery's arrival, the station has revisited its "roots" as an important cultural force in San Francisco. One of Sean's priorities was to empower his staff, allowing Aaron Axelsen the freedom to be the musical savant that he is, while also encouraging the on-air jocks to be spontaneous and involved. When I can sit across from Sean, discussing Jean Luc-Ponty "depth tracks" from our youth, as 100 listeners file into an off-site performance studio for an Interpol Live105 session, I'm ecstatic for the future of

INTERPOL:
Suited for success

the format.... We paid a visit to KROQ yesterday afternoon. The band was truly nervous—it's KROQ, after all! It couldn't have been a better experience for them, which is yet another reason why KROQ is an extraordinary station. Here's a relatively unknown band (by commercial radio standards) being made to feel like their visit was the most important event of the day (even though we interrupted the music meeting). Many programmers won't even emerge from their inner-sanctum offices when a band drops by. Without the music, the station is just a vehicle for selling widgets.... Seeing all of the adds this week for the new White Stripes single, "Seven Nation Army," is more invigorating than the two-liter bottle of Diet Mountain Dew I needed to get my aging, sleep-deprived, gravity-stricken ass out of bed this morning. Stations that have never played the White Stripes added this single out-of-the-box!.... Does immediate acceptance of this new White Stripes single signify a shift in the mainstream? One week might not be considered a trend, but factor in these other successes, like the new AFI single being added this week at WOCL, WXTM and WMFS, or The D4 finding PoMo love from KXTE and WLUM? When Lynn McDonnell can pull in KROX, WBJX, WLRS, CIMX and KTEG on The Used in the same week that WHFS adds The Soundtrack of Our Lives, KXTE adds Trapt and KXRR, WMRO, WZNE, KRZQ and KSYR add Johnny Cash, this indicates a seismic change! Of course, without the SMASHES, playing all of our favorite fringe records would be the sound of one hand clapping. Or our "personal jukebox" as Tom Calderone used to call it. Hearing a new one-listen hit for the first time is thrilling. It's the veritable needle-in-the-haystack that keeps us all on our toes. The Ataris' "In This Diary" has generated that kind of excitement from everyone. The song is nearly closed out at PoMo, including new adds from Y100, KPNT, 91X, KXRR, KMYZ, WXTM, KNRK, WSUN and lots more! Columbia has an amazing band, The Raveonettes, joining the Interpol tour next week. Guess where I'll be????.... Epic has a bounty of PoMo hits right now. Chevelle have unseated the Foo Fighters for the coveted #1 spot on the HITS PoMo chart; Audioslave's "Like A Stone" should be renamed "Like a Smash," as the band leaps to #3 on the chart; Revis' "Caught in the Rain" is an example of a one-listen hit, prompting much love this week, including KDGE, KRBZ, WRMZ, WZNE and a dozen more. Jacqueline and J.J. also pulled in a spectacular Y100 add on Mudvayne and lots of new Pearl Jam love. I'll let Erika fill you in on the rest of this week's milestones—I need a quick nap before tonight's Interpol show. Lucky for you, reading this column has already put you to sleep... Erika here: Just a few more tidbits while Ivana is napping. I am only here to help. *grin* What's going on with (hed) Planet Earth, you ask? Well, let me tell you. New adds this week from KNRK, WJRR, KSYR, WCYY and WEEO make "Blackout" a perfect addition to your snowstorm (or for all you WestCoasters—your sunshine!). "Life Goes By" from Special Goodness might be just what the doctor ordered. Pat from Weezer joins his pal Atom from Rocket From the Crypt for this little slice of shoe-gazing pop. KROQ knows what's good for them and added it last week. This week those trend-setters added Liam Lynch's "United States of Whatever," a song 91X has been spinning for weeks and WPLY actually played LAST YEAR... I am sure my time is just about up, but before I go let me throw in a few bands I love for those of you who forget that I'm just a few pages away...Hot Hot Heat, Electric Six and Brand New. There you go. Now on to your regularly scheduled broadcast. Over and out. SONG TO HEAR: Linkin Park's "Somewhere I Belong"..... PEOPLE TO WATCH: Rob Goldklang, Darren Eggleston, Steve Nice, Jeremy Smith, Jaime Cooley, Phil Manning, Paul Kriegler, Gary Spivack, Alan Galbraith, Russ Schenck, Howard Leon and Gaby Skolnek.

JACK DEVOSS MD/WWCD Columbus

One reason Columbus PoMo station CD101 is often among the first to add the coolest new records is that Jack DeVoss is among the most musically aware MDs in the format. His personal tastes run the gamut: "First and foremost, there's the Clash," he says. "Also Neil Diamond, the Velvet Underground and Johnny Cash (with whom I share a birthday)." And, while being early champions of acts like Interpol, the D4 and Watershed is vital to pleasing the station's core audience, Jack stresses the importance of "not alienating the cume." Consequently, they are never far from a time-tested track by core artists like U2, Pearl Jam or RHCP. However, when asked to elaborate further on why the station has dominated the Columbus PoMo market for so long, Jack is typically enigmatic: "I am a member of a race of immortals who have lived among you for centuries. We wait for the time of the gathering when we'll be assembled to fight for the prize. There can be only one." Jack's clearly seen Highlander one too many times.

beauty school drop out

BY ERIKA STRADA

DANGER! HIGH VOLTAGE: I think we can all say lately that we've had "just one of those days," shake our heads solemnly while slinking out the door to climb into bed and hope that the sweet dreams will rejuvenate our spirits to face the next day. It certainly doesn't happen often, but with all of us putting in longer hours and trying to make every second count, we also must remember what inspires us each day. Yep—that's right, the music...I am lucky enough to be reminded more than I could tell you in one short column, but my ideal example is the reason I am doing what I do—Neil Finn. Sometimes it seems so simplistic, and I almost feel foolish, but then I get to pop in a Neil CD and listen to those lyrics, and I am flooded with a rush of emotions too complicated to decipher. Last week I had the privilege of seeing Neil, along with a posse that included Nettwerk's Rae Cline, KSYR's Chris Patyk, Virgin's Jenni Sperandeo and Brien Terranova, Nicole from HITS, my fella Glen (who was experiencing me in full dorkasaurus mode) and my San Jose friend Diane. Yes it was lovely, yes it was inspiring and yes I was an uber-Geek. But it's OK, I felt GREAT. I must also thank a few people: KCRW's Nic Harcourt and Ariana Morgenstern for inviting me to the Village Recorder for a special Morning Becomes Eclectic session with Neil (followed by a Paul Weller taping!), Buddy Deal from Elektra for making sure I got to see Rhett Miller (accompanied by the masterful Jon Brion) croon his way through a bubbly and energetic set of pop perfection, and to Wherehouse's Bob Bell for wanting to keep the rumors alive. *grin* Now, what is it that inspires you this way? It can really be the simplest of things, like hearing your favorite song on the radio, getting a station to add a song you truly feel passionate about or getting to slip in a favorite tune before your shift is up. A recent e-mail from Lynn Barstow recalled how he decided he was going to break format and play "PDA" from Interpol. Why? Because he wanted to hear it right then. KROQ's add last week of "Bandages" from Reprise's Hot Hot Heat practically made me jump out of my chair and do the cabbage patch. Scary thought indeed. But whatever it may be that inspires you, may you find it and cherish it and may it help you through one of those rough days. Now onto some other happenings...

BRAND NEW:
Germ free!

Phantom Planet is going to take over the world one day soon. Seeing them recently at the El Rey, I was really blown away. The new songs were marvelous, and the energetic crowd was sucking the life out of me (but in a GOOD way!). Opening the show was none other than Sign of the Fox. You know that feeling when you go see friends perform and pray that they are good enough to not have to use one of those classic Ivana lines like, "Of all the bands I've seen, you were definitely one of them," or something equally as ambiguous. But no need, Sign of the Fox were fantastic and the crowd was most appreciative. A few Phantom Planet pals to be on the lookout for are The Like and Rooney (Violet from WZNE is in love with the bass player after seeing them open up for the magnificent Donnas!). Speaking of WZNE, they made a smart move last week and added "Jude Law and a Semester Abroad" from Brand New (KFSD and KWOD this week) with one of my favorite lines: "I hope the next boy you kiss has something terribly contagious on his lips." Classic (as Steve Nice or Brian Corona might say). Check out the phones stories from WBRU, WEDG (#1 phones forever) and WPGU (#2 phones after 30 spins), and what's next, you ask? A tour with Finch, followed by some Static Lullaby and Hot Rod Circuit dates and then the WARPED TOUR! This is a real band, and just what the kids asked for...make sure you check them out. Did I mention that KRZQ's darling Mat Diablo once toured with them? Which reminds me of my recent visit to the Vans store (I got the cutest black pair of sneakers with a pink stripe), where I was surrounded by TV monitors playing "PDA" followed by "Bandages." I guess you people are really good at keeping a pulse on what the kids are listening to! *grin* Everyone is clamoring for "Seven Nation Army" from The White Stripes, easily grabbing this week's most added honors. I think the consensus is that this song was made for radio. Please, no one tell Jack White that! I'm sure it will be the same next week for the other band that has a love affair with radio—Linkin Park. Everything I have heard is that they've done it once again. Hooray! I remember when those tykes made their way through our office, and look at them now. Watch the same thing happen with Sodalburn... Now let's talk specialty shows for a moment. These dandy little blocks of tunes dedicated to discovering all that is new is a very important tool for programmers. You can find many of the current playlists filled with songs that had their start on the radio here. Check out this week's #3 band, The Ataris, who had spent weeks topping the chart while gathering commercial airplay—along with this week's MTV "Buzzworthy" and MTV2 airplay! Way to go! The #1 band this week is the mighty Massive Attack, with a little chunk of freshness to cool the airwaves. A strong debut at #6 from Eric Schmidt's favorite new record, the superb Supergrass. After recently speaking to Eric, we would like to make special mention of his brilliantly coined phrase "mall-punk," which he has been using to describe the Blink 182s and Good Charlottes of the world for AGES. Sorta like those other popular gated-community rock or three-car-garage rock...all fabulously descriptive! Former specialty charters The Walkmen have made good by exposing themselves to millions in a new Saturn commercial. Apparently, those crazy kids at WHFS were watching TV, because they added "We've Been Had" last week. Watch for more exciting things ahead for this StarTime band. Now it's time to say goodbye...until next week hugs and kisses!

between a rock and a hard place by JOHN LENAC

GRAMMIFIED: Everyone and their brother (and a few sisters) went for the PD gig at KQRC after Neal Mirsky's departure last month. Bob Edwards is the big winner, coming from the OM post at Mainstream Rocker WRDU and Top 40 WDCG Raleigh. Bob will be getting his daily dose of KQRC APD/MD Don Jantzen starting 3/10 and tells me he's very excited about the new opportunity. My last programming gig was in Kansas City. When you go shmooze Bob and Don, bring them some Gates Bar-B-Q—you'll score big points... Epic is off to a tremendous start on the smash from Revis. KEGL, WRIF, KIOZ, KUFO, KQRC and WNOR are just a handful of the stations that added "Caught in the Rain," as Cheryl and Adan secure the #1 Most Added spot. Next week, they'll have Audioslave's "Like a Stone" Top 10 as the band dives into the first week of their headlining tour. The announcement of their inclusion on the Lollapalooza bill and the impact of "Like a Stone" airplay shot Audioslave sales way up... The official OZZfest lineup of KoRn, Disturbed, Marilyn Manson and Chevelle on the main stage, with TRUSTcompany, Unloco, Grade 8, Memento, Cradle of Filth, Shadow's Fall, Killswitch Engage, Nothingface, Hotwire and Twisted Method among the second-stage bands will make for 14 hours of continuous, angst-ridden rawk with some lawn tickets going for only $10. Smart move in a summer filled with huge tours all competing in a recession... Unloco has been touring relentlessly for years and has played more than 150 shows since they finished their new album. Gaby and Raymond did their part with the first single #2 Most Added. WRIF, WXTB, KATT, WNVE, WQBK and KRZR are among all of the "Failure" adds. WRXR's Boner entered his last year in the demo this weekend (celebrating his 34th birthday on 2/15) and screamed: "Unloco's new song is a fuckin awesome tune" when I called to get details on any debauchery he partook in that evening... KRXQ's Pat Martin agrees with me that now is the time for (hed) PLANET EARTH to break wide-open. He was raving about their new one: "'Blackout' is one of the freshest song on the radio. It's just a fun listen." Our friends at KEGL, KATT and WJXQ think so, too, and added it, leaving just a few holdouts for Warren and Michelle to grind... "The new Cold is amazing" has been on the lips of many programmers as the first single from their third album comes in at #3 Most Added... Everyone is also excited about the new Linkin Park. "Somewhere I Belong" sounds like a big-ole smash to me, but—what else would you expect from these guys?... The Daredevil ST had another great week at retail as more and more rockers realize that "Bring Me to Life" from Evanescence is a hit. KUPD, WIYY, WNOR, WBBB, WTPT, KPOI, WQXA, WXQR, KICT and KHTQ have all added it. WBBB PD Andy Meyer feels the passion: "The chick-rock thing doesn't usually work here, but this is different. The response on this stellar song has been phenomenal." Brian Rickman at WXQR/WKZQ was also freaking about the reaction from his airplay. He just hired Lu Valentino for APD/MD/afternoon drive duties at WXQR. Lu rocks! I had dinner with her and McFeele a few months ago while she was still at KUPD and every time my sarcastic fuck self threw a jab at her, she hit me right back... Congrats are also in order for Universal's Aaron Scott for his bump from L.A. Regional to Associate National Director of Rock Formats. He, Howard and Suzanne have Godsmack's "Straight Out of Line" on a collision course for #1... Saliva is still holding that spot with "Always," while more early "Rest in Pieces" adds drop, including WNOR, WNVE, WTPT and WKLQ... Tim and Jon at KRQC and Valorie and Meegan at WGIR are the latest to add AFI's hit, "Girl's Not Grey." Don't overthink this one... Oleander's first Sanctuary single debuts with new adds at KISS, WCCC and KDOT. KRFR's Alex Quigley has been kicking ass in Bakersfield and says: "The hook from Oleander's 'Hand Off the Wheel' is the catchiest one I've heard so far this year"... Atlantic's Project 86 is also ramping up at #35 with new adds at KUFO, WLZR and WRUF... Former HITS freak (and the biggest Rush fan walking the earth) Mark Gracious and some of our other L.A. pals in Sign of the Fox just completed their debut record and rocked a killer set last week... Outta space and yank... Later...

BY MIKE MORRISON

NIGHT AND YOU IN BLUE HAWAII: Michele Clark's "Sunset Sessions," which this year took place on the Kona Coast of the big island of Hawaii, offered many highlights beyond the obvious good times and relaxation inherent in a high-end resort. The live debut of the Thorns, an APM super-group featuring Matthew Sweet, Shawn Mullins and Pete Droge, was indeed a treat, their CSN-like harmonies made all the more ironic by Mullins' crack, "This is our first gig." I was moved to interject, "...and we're scared shitless!" in reference to the comment made from the stage during CSNY's Woodstock set, but thankfully restrained myself. Later in the evening, we feasted on a bunch of new Pete Yorn music during a late-night performance attended by R.E.M.'s Peter Dinklage, who popped over from his island home on Kauai for the occasion. Rain forced us indoors on Friday, where WTTN PD Brad Holtz was like a proud papa introducing Jennie DeVoe, who's been making noise in Indianapolis ever since she was "retired" after winning 10 straight nights in the 'TTS Cage Match. Edwin McCain demonstrated why he is considered one of the great storytellers in APM. John Eddie's Springsteen-influenced romp & roll was as celebratory in the Fairmount Orchid Grand Ballroom as it was last week at the L.A. House of Blues. But it would be tough to match the once-in-a-lifetime intimacy of the Jack Johnson solo acoustic performance that closed-out Friday evening. For an artist who generally shies away from industry functions, Jack was gracious and charming, effectively expressing heartfelt gratitude to a group of programmers who've been wildly supportive of his music. This led to a late-night Jacuzzi session featuring WXRV MD Dana Marshall, WOKI PD Shane Cox and KMTN's Fish who, along with just-named Or Music promo weasel Jason Fisher, supplied the various libations ;=). Saturday, after a long day by the pool, we were back outside for another four-band showcase led by Feel, who'll follow up their Top 20 track of last year with "Got Your Name on It," impacting next week (2/24). KPRI GM Bob Hughes was especially eloquent in his introduction of Steve Poltz, one of the forefathers of San Diego's vibrant singer-songwriter scene. Rosanne Cash and the global rhythms of Ziggy Marley rounded out a weekend which also included inspired sets by critics' darling Jesse Malin, as well as Wil Seabrook, Vessica Pisces and Colin Blades. Props to Michele and her staff (especially Meg MacDonald and Christi Stevens) for putting together a world-class event. And congratulations to KTBG PD John Hart, who arrived with his girlfriend Leslie Swank and, after a whirlwind ceremony Saturday morning, left with his bride!! Who says APM conventions lack romance?... Other awesome stuff that took place this week: Patty Morris, despite some top-notch partying in Hawaii, brought in the Jayhawks' "Save It For a Rainy Day" #1 Most Added with 28 combined adds, including KMTT, KTCZ, WXRT, WMMM and KRVB. Jo Hodge, who was also among the heavy revelers this weekend, scored #2 Most Added with "Taxi Ride," from Tori Amos' latest, landing, among others, WXRV, KPRI, KENZ, WRLT, WFUV and WXPN... Benson and Haley made Lisa Michelson's week by adding not one, but two of our favorite records: Jason Mraz and Rhett Miller!! KFOG also hit Norah Jones' "Come Away With Me," which is now Top 15 Mediabase. (Three adds in one week at KFOG??? Pinch me, I must be dreaming.)... Team Rounder closed a couple of big ones on Kathleen Edwards' "Six O'Clock News" in KMTT and WRLT... KGSR stepped out early on Lucinda Williams' "Righteously," as did WFUV... Finally, thanks to Brian Burns at KCTY for giving Dar Williams a shot and adding "I Saw a Bird Fly Away"... Otay, I'm off to attend the first of two sold-out Interpol shows here in town. Their Turn on the Bright Lights CD is eerily reminiscent of Low-era Bowie, Ultravox and Joy Division, artists who, in the late '70s, gave real meaning to the term New Wave. It's worth seeking out if your station (or personal taste) leans in that direction... hitsmm@aol.com...

JAYHAWKS:
No "Rain" on their parade!

rock2k picks

EDITED BY KAREN GLAUBER

The Music, The Music (Capitol): Anyone looking for a fresh fix of Britpop psychedelia along the lines of The Stone Roses need look no further than this Leeds foursome, who whip up a gripping mix of tripped-out guitars spiked with the occasional synth oscillation. Amid the resulting heavy atmospherics, familiar blues riffs sometimes reveal themselves, while a nasty slide solo here or flanged dobro there suggest a nod to Led Zeppelin's bluesy bent. Meanwhile, single "Take the Long Road and Walk It" takes a page from Cream's "Crossroads," further expanding the historical vibe, as does singer Robert Harvey's metal-inspired vocal on groover "The Truth Is No Words." Taking it to the next level. (JO)

Richard Ashcroft, Human Conditions (Hut/Virgin): The former Verve frontman is far too contemplative to write a simple love song; he seeks a larger context. On "Science of Silence," from the middle of Ashcroft's second solo album, he intones, "We are on a rock, spinning silently/Won't you please get close to me?"—and that couplet sums up the theme of the record. On Human Conditions, Ashcroft is part refined soul man, part Celtic shaman, and he puts across the dense verbiage with an incantatory fervor that draws on the Van of Astral Weeks and the Marvin of What's Goin' On? His mesmerizing vocals, set off by elegant orchestrations over unhurried grooves, keep the vibe percolating, from the metaphysical-epic opener "Check the Meaning" to the closing "Nature Is the Law," graced by a heavenly chorale arranged and sung by Brian Wilson. (BS)

Massive Attack, 100th Window (Virgin): This U.K. band helped shape the contours of modern electronic pop and practically invented trip-hop; Window shows they're still pushing the envelope. The new disc melds disaffected voices, minimalist beats, roiling, dubby bass lines and frosty keyboard textures into a sonic evocation of this tense era. Sinead O'Connor contributes vocals on three tracks, notably the hypnotic "Special Cases," while Horace Andy and Robert "3D" Del Naja assay the narcotic, dystopian funk of "Butterfly Caught," among others. With most of these moody tracks extending well beyond the seven-minute mark, Window ain't no disco party. But for those "orange-alert" days, it's just the ticket. (SG)

We're A Happy Family: A Tribute to the Ramones (Columbia/CRG): On this labor of love conceived and carried out by Andy Gould, ex-manager Gary Kurfirst, Johnny Ramone and Rob Zombie, 15 bands prove how hard it is to improve upon perfection. Metallica must slow down to catch up to "53rd & 3rd," Kiss' "Do You Remember Rock 'N' Roll Radio" shows what they'd sound like if they could write a hook, and by accenting the other beat, the Chili Peppers turn "Havana Affair" into a brooding, mystery dance. But it's the Pretenders ("Something to Believe In"), Pete Yorn ("I Wanna Be Your Boyfriend") and newcomers Rooney ("Here Today, Gone Tomorrow") who nail the romantic heart at the core of the bruddas' comic-book nihilism by inscribing their own epitaphs onto punk's Rosetta Stone. (RT)

rock2k mugs

DON'T DREAM IT'S OVER: Seen at the Village Recorder in L.A. after taping a segment for Morning Becomes Eclectic, Paul Weller, Neil Finn and KCRW's Nic Harcourt attempt to catch their breath after a spirited hour's debate over the more demanding aspects of being a dreamy singer-songwriter with a legendary past. Before Finn could conclude the session with the ceremonial Offering of the Kiwi Fruit, however, Axl Rose emerged from the studio where he's been holed up since 1993 long enough to pull both him and Weller in to guest on Chinese Democracy. "My tour's on the rocks and I can't find Buckethead," Rose explained, "So I decided to do some sensitive shit. Can you help?" Rumors that the pair contributed vocal tracks to a new Guns 'N' Roses song called "Buddy, Can You Spare Some Credibility" have not been confirmed.

REMAIN CALM: While visiting with members of Trapt and posing for a densely populated photo that could only be described as "Headstrong," WARQ PD Gina Juliano hastened to remind everyone that the exits were clearly marked and easily accessed. "There is no need to panic," she advised while demonstrating deep breathing techniques. "There's no reason we can't all get out if we behave in an organized fashion." After everyone safely dispersed, Trapt's Chris Brown asked Juliano if she would consider doing crowd control full-time on the road with the band. "Never underestimate the power of suggestion," he said. "People get nervous around us." Seen managing their feelings are (l-r) Warner Bros.' Keith Rothchild, WARQ's Moose, WB's Heather Luke, the band's Simon Ormandy, Juliano, the band's Peter Charell, Brown and Aaron Montgomery, WARQ promotions director Cindy Johnson and MD Dave Farra.

HE WAS GONNA BE (500 MILES): Back when The Proclaimers (pictured, back) had a hit and the world had yet to hear the name Monica Lewinsky, young WOXY PD Phil Manning (front-l) was a happy-go-lucky, easy-breezy sort who could laugh it up with the best of them, including the folksy Scots brothers themselves. In this photo, snapped more than 10 years ago, Manning and his kid brother yuck it up with Charlie and Craig Reid, whose effusive good humor really could really light up a room. "Argh kinna yar bloosty," said Charlie, only to have his sentence finished by Craig with a resounding "Moosh auld skint wad laith!" After a good chuckle, Manning replied, "Yeah, and your mom wears Army boots," which had everyone rolling on the floor. Since that time, Manning made his way to the PD gig at KNDD. This is the last known photo of him smiling.

YOU FEEL ME?

by Liz Montalbano

WACKO? So, I finally got to watch the Michael Jackson thing last night. I viewed the one with Martin Bashir and taped the other one to watch this evening. I have to say that I'm not sure what the big deal is. I really think Jackson's getting a raw deal here. I don't think he's as crazy and dangerous as the media is making him out to be. I do think that he's eclectic though, very. But not dangerous. First of all, it's got to be hard to be Michael Jackson. With all the childhood abuse and dysfunction he's experienced, I don't blame him for being a little off. Ever wonder what you'd be like if you'd been through even half the shit he has? I think he's the object of such close observation and under such mass scrutiny, you're bound to find something you don't agree with or like about him. I bet, if I had a camera up your ass, I'd find something less than appealing. Don't you think? So he calls his baby Blanket. It's a pet name. I was called Lizzy Tisch when I was little. Calvin Broadus was called Snoopy when he was young and look how long that stuck. And talk about profitable. I really do believe that he was showing Blanket to his fans innocently. And it wasn't as dangerous as folks are making it out to be. Everyone's acting like he's Madelyne Toogood, for Christ's sake. I really do believe he's a loving father and a lovely person. So his kids are covered with masks to protect them from the media. Do you blame him? Can you imagine being the most famous entertainer in the world? What would that be like? The one thing, though, that I think has dug him real deep is the kids sleeping in his bed deal. But just think about it for a minute; the man went through such hell in '93 with the molestation suit, you think he would publicly admit to allowing kids to sleep in his room if he was actually touching them? And he's so damn adamant about the innocence of it all that you have to believe him. As nutty as it sounds, I think Michael is a lot of things, but not a child molester. I think our society is so caught up in sensationalism, that you can't believe half the shit you hear anymore. My point here is very simple—just leave him alone already. The same thing goes for R. Kelly. Now, I know this situation is a little different because there's real live footage involved. But the press really needs to leave him alone. Let him have his day and it'll all come clean in the wash. Everyone was so adamant about protesting and banning his music and shit. Look, he's had the #1 airplay single in the country and just dropped an album that may well take the #1 spot away from 50 Cent next week. It will definitely surpass initial expectations. You know why, folks? Because he's an icon and his music is timeless. And great music can transcend just about anything. What I'm getting to here with Michael and Robert is to stop selling our architects short. Everyone in life has issues. Stop immediately believing everything you hear. And stop being so quick to judge. K, I'm done preaching. Records that I think are gonna go the distance? 1) Nas' "I Can." This will be at least a Top Five record for Columbia. New airplay this week from KBFB, KBXX, KKBK, KQXX, KQKS, KSFM, WPGC, KVEG, WQSL and WZBZ. 2) Clipse's "Ma, I Don't Love Her." This had a slow start at first because many folks couldn't get off of "Grindin'" and "When the Last Time." And the video for "Ma" hadn't hit yet. But now that it's all over BET and starting to stick its head up on MTV, it's really beginning to translate to radio. In solid rotation at KBBT, KBOS, KDON, KMEL, KSEQ, KSFM, KXJM, KZZP, WERO, WJHM, WJMN, WMBX, WNVZ, WPGC and WWKX. 3) Nivea's "Laundromat." What a great success story this young lady has created for herself. Strazza continues to entertain great airplay gains, as the single pulls in early phones at some key stations. New airplay from KBXX, WJHM and WMBX this week. Don't sleep. 4) Snoop Dogg's "Beautiful." I say this because the hook is so strong. It's pulling in Top 10 phones all over the West Coast as the video impacts BET and more and more folks on the East Coast become believers. Watch this single come together as the video gains exposure. 5) Tyrese's "How You Gonna Act Like That." This was starting to fizzle a minute ago, but it seems to have kicked into full gear lately. Research has determined its fate. Airplay gains are very solid the past two weeks as the single approaches Top 10 on the charts. J Records has really done a fabulous job with it. Great work on the part of Michael Williams. K, that's it for me. But before I go, I need to point out the incredible week Gary Marella had on Brian McKnight. "Shoulda, Woulda, Coulda" was Most Added in the format, pulling in heavy players like KUBE, KXJM, WPOW, WZMX, KMEL, KYLD, KBBT, KKFR, KSFM and a slew of others. Could it be a hit? Thanks for hugging me over the weekend, Robert. I'm hugging you back. Chocolate Factory is the shit. Hit me at eliz0315@aol.com. Never forget.

MICHAEL JACKSON:
Blanket him.

RO SHOT

THE MAGIC OF MEET 'N' GREETs, PART 3,761: WXYV/Baltimore PD Thea Mitchem (c) hangs with IDJ's Dru Hill, who expressed their relief at visiting a station with indoor plumbing. The band also enjoyed Mitchem's command of the English language, a refreshing change from their previous stop, where a programmer told them how many spins they'd gotten the previous week by stomping his left front hoof multiple times.

MVP

J.D. GONZALEZ
PD / KBBT / SAN ANTONIO

With much of the eastern U.S. spending the first part of the week digging out from a crippling blizzard, there's little doubt that it's winter in America. Another indication it's still winter is the fact that Fall books continue to arrive. And, as such, we continue to spotlight the winners. This week, our MVP shout goes out to HBC's Regional VP-Programming, J.D. Gonzalez for his work at KBBT in San Antonio. The year's most important ratings period shows the station moving 6.7 to 7.4 for P12+—a move that puts it back into first place in the market! J.D.'s recipe for success includes almost equal dominance in both men and women within the P18-34 target demo. And lately, this recipe is cropping up in additional markets. Most recently, following the company's acquisition of the Simmons properties in Albuquerque, J.D. lent his talents to the relaunch of KKSS. Given this combination of corporate programming duties and the day-to-day responsibilities of KBBT, it's no wonder J.D. didn't have time to take our call this week. Then again, that happens to us repeatedly. So, what's everyone else's excuse?? Hey—just asking...

RHYTHM NATION

by Mark Feather

VALENTINE'S WEEK: It's hard to believe that it's now been two Valentine's Days in a row that I've not been involved in a serious relationship. And you know what? Well, that sucks! Thankfully, though, there is a possibility emerging on the horizon, and, meanwhile, I had plenty of stuff filling up my schedule to take my mind off the calendar... It started on Wednesday, when MCA's Troy Marshall stopped by the HITS cesspool with hot hip-hop duo Field Mob. As one of the guys has a striking resemblance to Tyrese, it wasn't long until my partner (also currently relationship-less), Liz Montalbano, had moved into flirting overdrive (but who could blame her?). While that was going on, Troy and I discussed how big this "Sick of Being Lonely" (hmm...interesting; a somewhat thematic title, no?) record has become. It's now nearly Top 10 in airplay, was just added to MTV and has picked up new adds at radio recently from the likes of B96, KZZP and KPWR.

And how about these stories as far as research goes: Top Five at WHHH, Top 10 at KSFM, and Top 15 at KBXX? That's very impressive. Now, even as the airplay begins to decay somewhat at those stations that recognized this song's hit potential early, almost the entire rest of the panel has begun to embrace these guys from just outside of Atlanta. If you haven't yet, I'm left to wonder why not. Clearly, the record is a hit... So, I was just mentioning a romantic "possibility" a few sentences ago, and I want to confirm that, yes, his name is Jay and you might have picked up a mention or two about him over the space of the last couple of columns. Very cool, super-attractive and the person I spent my Wednesday evening with, as both of us felt that the pressure of a Friday-night Valentine's date this early on was probably not such a good idea... Meanwhile, Thursday evening was supposed to be spent on a date with someone else, but he canceled, and I ended up having drinks in West Hollywood with my friend Christian.

After a stop at The Abbey, we ended up at Micky's, where I witnessed firsthand via the dance floor what my radio friends have been telling me for weeks—this B2K & P. Diddy thing just will not die! "Bump" continues to pack the floor and rule the airwaves, even as its follow-up is this week's Most Added record at the format, piling up a ton of quality reports in its official impact week, including KBMB, KGGI, KQKS, KTTB, KYLD, WJHM, etc. Concurrently, there is already significant airplay on this track at great stations like KUBE and WZMX, while a new edition of the pandemonium! CD (containing "Girlfriend," three other new tracks and a DVD) is being released to retail. Congrats to Team Epic on a job well done with these four talented young men. As for my night at Micky's, would you believe that I ended the evening with a super hot black man that I'd been eyeing for months? It's feast or famine, apparently... Speaking of attractive black men, Ginuwine stopping by Sherman Oaks was definitely the highlight of my Friday at work. He was jazzed that his video for "Hell Yeah" just got the nod for airplay at MTV, and was also proud of the great people who assisted him on his forthcoming CD—names like Tweet, Snoop Dogg and Blu Cantrell. The Senior hits the street April 8. Be ready for it, and be ready for the current single to finish coming home at radio in short order... Which brings us to Valentine's night and cocktails with fellow single person Enrique Ongpin from Interscope. We called our night out "singles awareness night," though seeing all the couples together made me keep thinking of Jay. No matter, though, as Enrique and I were having a fine time by ourselves, thank you very much. We eventually ended up in Rage, where my friend DJ Paul E has recently started a popular Asian-themed night. The main room plays his great mix of house, while upstairs they're kicking hip-hop and R&B. Being a house kinda guy, I didn't spend much time upstairs, but when I did pass through on one occasion, I witnessed the room absolutely going off to this new Nas track from Lisa Ellis and Columbia. "I Can" is showing all indications that it's a developing smash: new adds this week from majors including KBFB, KPTY, WNVZ, KQKS and WHHH, Top 10 phones at both WLLD and KWYL and great early callout at WJMN. But equally as important, and as good as my evening was with Enrique, how cute was it that just after midnight, Jay surprised me with a visit to the club, as well? He didn't stay long because he was tired, but he did make a special trip out on Valentine's Day just to see me... I'd tell you more, but I'm outta space for the week, and feeling pretty good about my romantic prospects for once. So, until next week, when further info may be divulged—C-ya...

NAS:
"I Can" conquer radio.

HOT SHOT

MUHAMMAD SPEAKS: WMXD Detroit's Jamilah Muhammad is exactly the sort of industry professional who can attest to the importance of HITS Magazine in her daily activities. "I usually grasp the magazine by the corners, like so," she explained. "Then, I carefully slide it under my dog's ass. Five minutes later, it's in the garbage...and I can get back to reading Billboard. Thanks, HITS!"

Urban AC/"DC."

SUPE-URB

DERRICK CORBETT
WQQK • Nashville

This week we look to the country music capital for our shout-out. Derrick "DC" Corbett has only been at WQQK for a little over six months—but he's already making his presence felt, as the station jumps from 5.3 to 5.9 P12+ in the fall arb. Though still getting settled in, he has this to say: "This station has been in the market for over 20 years, so most of the listeners have grown up listening to WQQK. Our segue to the Urban AC format was a smooth move, because the listeners have matured—so the station is maturing right along with them." He also attributes his success to the tremendous talent of his air staff—a staff that was able to transition seamlessly from mainstream to adult programming. Meanwhile, several HITS employees made a seamless transition from loafing to napping today...

BUSY BUT GOOD: Last week was really busy, but it was okay because it was full of good stuff. First of all, Field Mob came by the office, and for anyone who hasn't met these guys, they are great! They're so full of energy, and they have a great sense of humor. I don't know how this group has managed to be around this long without having more success. Their current single, "Sick of Being Lonely," is the first from their second album. I think this is the first record of theirs I've heard, and it's hot. It's currently #8 on the chart and still growing. Congratulations to Azim Rashid and Benny Pough from MCA... In addition to being Valentine's Day, Friday was my birthday, and guess who came by that day? Ginuwine! I've known him for several years, ever since my good friend Tammy Tisdell worked for Sony 550 when Ginuwine first started with the "Pony" single. It was really great to see him, and he sang "Happy Birthday" to me with the rest of the office. How awesome is that? His current single, "Hell Yeah," is rapidly climbing the charts, and I'm very happy for him and the Epic people. Nice work, Rodney Shealey, David Lawrence and Kathy Moore.

GINUWINE:
Happy Birthday to me.

For all the ladies out there who, like me, are a tad bit disappointed because the single is not a love song/ballad, know that, according to Ginuwine, the next single will be just that. I can't wait for either that or the album... The office also got me a birthday cake from Cheesecake Factory (yum) on Friday and the boyfriend brought me flowers. That night the boyfriend cooked me dinner and we had a great evening. Saturday night was time to celebrate with the girls, and boy did we celebrate. We started out the evening at the bar at the W, which was very cute. No boys for the single ladies, though, so we decided to roll. The next stop was the Knitting Factory, but that was way too young and ghetto, so we didn't even go inside. My girls Lauren Wirtzer from Def Jam and Anette Sharvit, who works for Rapahel Saadiq, convinced us that the place to go was in the Valley. The Valley? If you say so... Off we went to a place called Clear, and it was really cute. Good looking out, Lauren and Anette! We had a great time, and then we went to Anette's for more cocktails. And as you can probably tell, cocktails were the theme of the evening. Thanks to all of my friends for making my birthday weekend so great: Stacy Young, Niki Benjamin, Angela Martinez, Liz Montalbano and Caprice... Enough about my birthday. The big news in music this week is the Grammys, and I can't wait to watch them. There are some really interesting nominations, so let's just hope there's no more snow so all the artists can get there. I really don't think I'm up to any serious predictions, so I guess we'll wait to talk more about it next week... The new R. Kelly album streets this week and I can't wait to see how it does. Retail is reporting that he should have a very big first week, and he clearly has a huge hit, but his personal problems over the last year or so make it very hard to forecast the end result. The real question is how those problems will affect the album at the end of the day. We'll have to wait and see. The new album is called Chocolate Factory, and it's fantastic. It'll have to do pretty well to unseat 50 Cent, who'll no doubt be having a pretty good third chart week himself... Ken Wilson from J records has been doing an amazing job with the Tyrese single, "How you Gonna Act Like That," which is up 241 spins this week and #6 on the charts. He's also setting up the new Heather Headley single, "I Wish I Wasn't," which is a great record and a new Lyric single called "Hot & Tippy." The Mario single, "C'mon," is up 190 spins as it moves up 10 slots to #37, and the video is just starting. I saw the video (it's great), and I really think it's going to help the record. Also don't miss the new Busta Rhymes and Mariah Carey featuring The Flipmode Squad, "I Know What You Want," which is blowing up at radio all across the country. They have several early adds, including WGCI, WPHR, WPWX, WJZD, WQHH, WJMI, KRRQ and KPRS. The record is also Top 5 callout at WGCI and Top 10 requests at WUSL... Congrats to CC McClendon who is being honored by the Impact Record Pool this week. Hellos: Gita Williams, Gloria Fitts, Nicole Sellers and Akil Taffe.

IN THA MIX

by Ricky Leigh Mensh

SNOW JOB... I remember talkin' to a bunch of my friends from back East that had moved out here to LA LA Land before me about what it was like & all that when I decided to come here in '93. Y'all know I'm a DC boy to the core; born & raised & spent the first 30 yrs. of my life there. Luvved tha snow. Couldn't wait 'til ski season so I could hit tha powders (yeah, & that one, too) from Liberty to Mt. Orford outside Montreal. But I also fancied myself a sun bum & once I had the chance to live in the warmer climate of SoCal, I said to myself, why not, right?! My friends said I'll miss the change of seasons, to which I'd reply, yeah, but I'm tired of what they change into. As American is about to try to get me to NYC this morning for the Grammys, the better food, etc., I'm feelin' more homesickness than usual after spending this past weekend catchin' 'alotta coverage of the blizzard that just hit you all in the Northeast. As fuckin' crazy as it sounds, my friends were right. I do miss it. It's a part of who I am. As there's a certain tough-

For all my friends in the Northeast...

ness that comes w/dealing w/this kinda ordeal, I miss how it also brings people together in a way only those who go thru it truly understand. & plus, seeing the Nation's Capitol, Manhattan, etc., blanketed in snow is SO beautiful. While most here bitched about the rain last week, I was luvvin' it. My friend Doctor Dre (VWPR) might have a different opinion after blowing out his snow-blower trying to attack a four-foot snowdrift @ the end of his driveway. Dre: "Who hires those geniuses to be snowplow drivers? Where'd they get their licenses? If I see that sonuvabitch who keeps piling up all that snow in my driveway, I'm snowjacking his truck! Nuff said!" So even tho my man Dre doesn't currently share my snow sentiments, to all my friends in the mix back East, enjoy it cuz all this sun ALL THA TIME ain't always what it's cracked up to be. And to me, that wasn't the only "snow job" happenin' the past few days. Call me "King Segue." Had the chance to watch the "Living with Michael Jackson" piece a few times courtesy of VH1 & then the Dateline version & ya know what? This DJ's two cents is the guy is really just a grown kid who, like me & millions of others, had a nasty-assed father that really fucked up his childhood. He just has the resources to extend his adolescence as long as he wants. That's his business & he's harmless. Has he done things we all could agree are different than what we'd do? No doubt. As trite as the argument is, things become trite 'cuz they're true & the truth is it's "Sweeps Week" and TV folks will always bend over backwards to feed us whatever BS captures the masses 'til the next hot story emerges. As I said last week, Michael's helped millions thru his charities & those of others & is probably guilty of no more than allowing too many schmucks like Bashir to come into his life to fukk w/him. Tell me that guy's not a pompous, self-indulgent asshole just tryin' to get his "15 minutes." Michael, if ya wanna be presented properly, get somebody like Ted Koppel to talk to ya on camera. Ted's brilliant, humble & he's already rich & famous & doesn't need you to help him make his name. The press luvz to fukk w/ta music business, doesn't it? Take the tragedy that just happened in Chi-town. By the time you read this, part of the blame will be attributed to the fact that Epitome was playin' hip-hop & we ALL know that verse too well, don't we?... Steve "Miggedy" Maestro (WGCI): "Of course, it was tragic and didn't have to happen that way... What was peculiar to me is that the club is used to outbreaks, so for all the nights it had to happen, it had to happen when one of my DJ's is spinnin. That was crazy...and it's really sad. I hope something good comes out of this travesty as a community...not just of Black people, but all people, because we all have to live together." On this week's Commercial Radio Mix Show DJ Conference Call, we have a new set of verses that's risen to #1 & that's Epic's Dave McPherson & crew's man GINUWINE. The Call also welcomes new pix Choppa and Talib Kweli. Look for Jonell/Redman, Nick Cannon, Sarai, Bugsy & Snake and Bonecrusher, who just got picked up & will be worked by Arista's crew of Carolyn "Tha Baz" BazBaz, Steve "DJ Nice" Bartels, Lionel "South Beach" Ridenour, CC, et al...Congratz again to Em, Paul Rosenberg, Dre & Steve Berman, Nino, Step, Black, et al., @ Interscope on their big score w/50 Cent. & how would you like to be whoever @ Columbia let him & Alicia Keys go after years on the label? In fairness to them, every label has been thru it, but hey, if you're gonna do it, do it big, right?... The shitty state of our industry claims another very talented veteran, Brian "DJ Fly" Samson, who exits ArtistDirect after they eliminated the West Coast Nat'l. Xover position. Call Brian @ (310) 989-1057/cell or (323) 878-1100/office & take him out to Wiener Factory on Ventura for a nasty hot dog & fries w/that shake... & yes, HITS was hit by some drunk in his car last week, tho contrary to published reports on hitsdailydouble.com, it had nothing to do w/me, food or my ex-fiancee.. Don't look for Sr. Awards Coord./ Urban Music for the Recording Academy Alan Foster to be holdin' any bowling victory parties @ the Joint in LA anytime soon after the way that he & his band were treated there recently before, during & after their performance. ANYBODY that's even just met Alan KNOWS it gets no finer than him as a person & a professional. I'm w/ya my man; I ain't fukkin w/em anymore, either or @ least til they do you right... Doin right: The Jimmy Kimmel Show, by bringin' hip-hop back to late-nite TV in a truer way than Leno or Letterman. Credit Kimmel & former Jimmy Iovine understudy Scot Igoe, who's bookin' the musical talent... Please add Mr. Brett Etre from MTV Films to your mailing lists if you're interested @ havin a shot to get your stuff into an upcoming film. Bret, who was part of the crew that brought you Carmen, gets his mail @ 2600 Colorado Ave., Santa Monica, CA 90404. He's a Celtic/Patriots fan like his boy Justin Prager (MTV). Feel sorry for both of them. Thank U... Gotta tell U again cuz everyone that's got one can't stop watchin' it & neither can all the folks they're playin' for: EBC's Rucker Park 2002 (MELEE Entertainment)... One of the mix fam's best sports shittalkers, MTV/The Wake-Up Show's Sway, may have seemed quiet of late, but that was until he ran into one of the mix community's biggest supporters over the years, Eric Brooks, in Atlanta during All-Star Weekend. The subject turned to a few elbows they've exchanged on the courts in the past w/Sway claimin' dominance over Mr. Brooks. "E" Brooks: "That's bullshit! I reigned on him! They say 'it never rains in Southern California,' 'cept when Sway steps on MY court!" What say you, Sway?... Just tryin' to keep ya warm...

Here's wishin' many gold statues this comin' Sunday for Mr. Saadiq, his producers Jake & the Phatman along w/Alan Foster (far right).

Steve "Miggedy" Maestro

"When the great ones meet the 'street' greats in a classic battle of good vs. better, then you have the Entertainer's Basketball Classic DVD... It's more than just a name."

Sonny D KKUU

50 Cent f/Nate Dogg
"21 Questions"
Shady/Aftermath/Interscope

"It's a dope record. THAT'S how you use Nate Dogg cuz most people don't know how. It's a cool-ass track, man, a prime example of how East Coast artists can work with a West Coast artist the right way."

Ron Love WJHM

Sarai
"Pack Ya Bags"
Epic

"Fellas, keep this in ya crate... Be ahead of the game becuz the ladies will come and ask for this record. A refreshing track—different from the 'same-ole, same-ole,' so get on it!"

Wolf D WLYD/XM Satellite

Toni Braxton
"Let Me Show You the Way"
Arista

"Females dig the shit outta this record! It sounds great in the mix and it's perfect for regular rotation... Do your listeners a favor and blaze this one!"

Mecca Music Choice

Clipse
"Ma, I Don't Love Her"
Star Trak/Arista

"The hook, 'Ma, I don't love her,' got me from the needle drop! I love how the Clipse sound is coupled with the Neptunes. It's just ridiculous—very ghetto, very street... I suggest you play it cuz it's a hot song for girls, the Clipse's first song with a message for the women."

DJ Cobra KOHT

Ginuwine f/Baby
"Hell Yeah"
Epic

"The man who told you to ride his Pony is back with some more heat, which is guaranteed to make the most sophisticated enthusiast pop a collar. With the support of the Birdman and company, this song is definitely going to get some major play in the mix show."

DJ 007 KXHT

Beenie Man f/Sean Paul
"Bossman"
Virgin

"I love reggae! I play it more than anybody in Memphis besides Lucious Ice. The beat is crazy and drew me to it immediately. Sean Paul is so hot right now that when you have Sean Paul and Beenie Man together?... Forget it!! It's 'OV,' which we say out here when it's OVER!"

Steve Maestro WGCI

Skillz
"Rap Up 2002"
MCA

"Hands down, the best freestyle of the year! It works in my mix because it has the Common beat from 'Come Close'—which worked really well for us out here anyway. And if you like the real hip-hop, Skillz is definitely representing on the lyrical tip."

RERAP

BY MARK PEARSON

As the NARM confab approaches, we had a chance to talk with Prexy Pam Horovitz about the many changes the convention is going through. After this year, NARM will be moving to August (San Diego '04), the new "summit" format being used throughout the rest of the year on an "as-needed" basis. Horovitz is understandably proud of the success of last fall's summit. And she agrees that the singles issue probably has ultimately had the most traction. After that event, every one of the majors has addressed retail's pleas for singles to make a comeback. "We've been really encouraged by the receptiveness of all of the companies to at least talk about it. They've been very willing to look at the economics, the timing, the cannibalization and charts issues." Copy protection was obviously also a hot-button issue. How workable is it? How to label it? Look for the rest of Horovitz' comments on everything from how much more music will be included in this year's convention (product presentations are back) to the revitalized trade show, in the upcoming special HITS NARM issue... The huge sales gains on DVD movies has been one of the few bright spots in the world of entertainment retail. But retailers generally have still been slow to embrace DVD music video product. The #1 selling title in any given week is usually around some 4-5,000 pieces. A respectable number, no doubt, but hardly enough to light the world on fire. Last fall's Paul McCartney tour DVD sold some 60k the first week, buoyed by a terrific marketing campaign. But how many DVD music titles will coincide with the entire DVD being aired on national TV during the fourth quarter? But, it would do retailers a service to notice that Columbia had two titles last week that did great business with no national specials. The Dixie Chicks sold a whopping 50k and John Mayer sold some 22k of longform DVD music titles. Both pieces had very normal drivers, such as hit singles. Dixie Chicks have one single, "Landslide," working at Pop formats and another, "Traveling Soldier," starting up at Country. Mayer has a massive hit in "Your Body Is a Wonderland," segueing nicely to "Why Georgia." Not that the Saturday Night Live appearance hurt the Chicks, either, but these are two DVD titles that are selling because they are the right acts with the proper marketing set-up. Just thought it was worthy of mention.

HACHING RECORDS

by Bobbil Hoch

A big "get well soon" goes out to Reprise's Alex Coronfly, who is recovering from a bad fall he took last week. He will be working at home for the next two months; don't make him laugh or he'll need to take more morphine. Alex is still pounding away on the phones about SixPence None The Richer and Deuce Project's "Stone Cold." SixPence is getting huge spins at WBNS, WMBZ, KRSK, KMHX, KLLY, WQAL, WTSS, WLNK and WVRV, to name a few. Closeout adds include WZPL and WALC. Alex and Maverick's Ken Lucek are teaming up to deliver Deuce Project. Ken and the guys stopped by last week to sing a couple songs and sounded fantastic. They are off and running at WKRO, WBNS, KRSK, KALZ, KLCA, KLLY, KNEV, KOSO, KVUU, WJLK and WKDD. New at WSNE and WRFY... Michelle Babbitt has a home run on her hands with Jason Mraz's "The Remedy." Prior to the official add date of 2/24, the song has major momentum and is exploding with early airplay. New this week at WPLJ, WTMX, KLLC, WSSR, WMAD, KPEK, KVUU and WKDD, among others...

Columbia's Pete Cosenza had a solid first official week on Chantal Kreviazuk's "In This Life." New at WOMX, WVOR, WMAD, KZPT, KVUU, WCDA and KCDU. Already on KALC, WQAL, KZON, KPEK, KMXB, KAMX, KALZ and WTSS... Big callout continues for Wind-up's Stereo Fuse at WZPL, KALC, KRSK, WTMX, WCDA, WSSR and WBNS. Lori Holder-Anderson checks in with #2 overall, #1 18-24 females and #3 18-34 females at ratethemusic.com. She is also working with RCA Music Group's Cheryl Khaner and Adrian Moriera to deliver The Calling's "For You" (from the Daredevil soundtrack). Leading the way at KPEK, KOSO, WTIC, KBBY, WXLO, KVUU, KNEV and WMC. New at WWZZ, KFBZ and WINK. Cheryl and Adrian are also all about David Gray.

Feelin' Good.

I was able to attend a stop on his sold-out national tour and he was fabulous. Already on WWZZ, KPEK, KLLY, KRSK, KEZR, WBMX, KLLC, KMXB, WTMX, QOMB and KAMX... Exploding in callout: RCA Label Group's Kellie Coffey. Females love this song. Butch Vaughn and Cheri Lynn Martin are building a great story. It's new at KSII and WINK and working great at WKRO, KURB, WSNE, WWMX, KFMB, WTIC, KMHX, WCDA and KQIS... You really should spend more time with Artemis's Susan Tedeschi. She is such a talent. Mitch Mills checks in with airplay from WKRO, WBMX, KMXB, WTSS, WXLO, WSNE, KURB and KMHX. New at WMC... TVT's Charlie Foster continues to get solid callout stories on Pay The Girl from WKRO, WMC and QOMB... WB's Debbie Cerchione keeps charging with Faith Hill. Solid callout everywhere, including WZPT, WRMF, WLNK, WVMX, WTIC, WKDD and WSNE... Sturdy rotation continues for Jive's Bowling For Soup at WMBZ, KIZS, KALC, WOZN, WZPL, KPEK, KLLC and KZZO, to name a few. Tom Cunningham checks in with top requests at WMBZ and WOZN... On your desk now: "Can I Walk With You" by Universal's India.Arie, impacting 2/24. Dave Reynolds is ready to get your airplay... Take time out for Vanguard's Peter Stuart. Leading the way at WTIC, KAMX, WKDD, KVUU, WHYN, KPEK, WRFY, KALZ, KFBZ, WXLO and WSSR... First-week Most Added honors go to Virgin's Robbie Williams with "Feel." Danny Cooper and Jason McFadden closed out KALC, KEZR, KLLY, KNVQ, KAMX, KFMB, KLLC, QOMB and WKRO. From the soundtrack How To Lose A Guy In 10 Days comes Keith Urban's "Somebody Like You," which is getting top requests at WTIC. Also on the soundtrack is Luce's "Good Day," which KZZO hit this week. Nettwerk's Tom Gates continues to get huge callout at WTMX and WVRV... Epic's Jo Hodge and Kevin Powell keep scoring big requests for Celine Dion at KURB, WMBZ, WSNE, WVMX, WKDD and WMMX. Macy Gray's "When I See You" had another great add week, including KMHX, WVRV, QOMB, WLIR, KQIS and KZPT. Pearl Jam's "Thumbing My Way" is on your desk now and new at WQAL and KMXB... Capitol's Lisa Marie Presley is everywhere, saturating TV, radio and magazines. Mark Rizzo had another solid week on "Lights Out," including adds at KAMX, WMBZ, WRVE, WHYN, WNNK and WTSS. "Volvo Driving Soccer Mom" by Everclear is a fun song that will get immediate reaction... IDJ's Mike Easterlin has a bigger story each week in Bon Jovi. Great rotation at WPLJ, KRSK, WTMX, WTSS, KMXB, WZPL, KEZR, WPTE and WOZN. Theory Of A Dead Man's "Make Up Your Mind" is impacting 3/3... Did you see the awesome spin increase on Counting Crows "Big Yellow Taxi"? They had a kickass chart move, garnering top spins at KYSR, WVMX, KKPJ, WMYX, WVRV, WZPL, KRSK, WTIC, WPTE, KSTP, WBNS and KMXB. Closing out at WTMX, WVMX, KBBY, WALC and WVMX... I must say another big congrats to Arista's Etoile Zisselman for holding the Top chart position for weeks and weeks with Avril Lavigne's "I'm With You" and "Complicated," not to mention "Game Of Love" by Santana f/Michelle Branch. She has set a record and deserves big props! Meanwhile, Santana feat. Musiq holds down good spins at KMHX, KNEV, KAMX, KLCA, KSII and KYIS. Records I love: Fleetwood Mac, Rachael Ferris, Lifehouse and Dana Glover... See ya...

Pop Go The Weasels

by Billy Bored

Here's hoping that all the love & camaraderie that happens Grammy night helps keep you warm in frigid NYC... We continue to have warm feelings for Lucy Woodward's debut which is connecting quickly at CHR & Hot AC for Atlantic's Andrea, Danny & Pamela. They're positioned to debut at Top 40 as Kid Rock f/Sheryl Crow sets to move Top 5. FYI: The Donna's ROCK!... Congrats to Universal's Val & Dave who explode 3 Doors Down into CHR's Top 15. Now the format's discovering what we've been saying for weeks, "Miss You" by Aaliyah, is researching SMASH... The CHR love-fest for Smilez & Southstar, moves their debut into the Top 30 for ArtistDirect's Mike Whited...Arista's Steve, Joe & Margaret-Ann have spins for Blu Cantrell f/Sean Paul growing at a fast clip at Top 40 & next TLC's obvious Pop hit "Damaged" impacts 2/24...Amanda Perez's "Angel" is proving to be a Top 40 hit for everyone playing it. Virgin's Hilary, Jason & Danny will take this one Top 10 followed by Stacie Orrico's "Stuck," which sets to debut at CHR... IDJ's Ken, Mike & Erik debut Bon Jovi's "Misunderstood" at Top 40 as the band's Target TV Campaign helps to solidify their hit & speaking of hit, we guarantee Daniel Bedingfield's "If You're Not The One" is going Top 10. Write it down & remember where you read it... Epic's Joel & Tommy set to take Jennifer Lopez f/LL Cool J to #1 at Top 40, with B2K f/P Diddy poised to follow. Solid CHR close-out on Celine Dion continues for one of the best sounding songs on the radio, & Ginuwine blows-out in first week Top 40 add action..."Can't Nobody" stop Columbia's Walk, Leipsner & Glassman, who are all about closing Kelly Rowland quickly at Top 40, as they march the Dixie Chicks toward the CHR Top 10 & DF Dub toward the Top 20... Daredevil goes #1 at the box office & Wind-ups Lori Holder-Anderson takes The Calling with a great video featuring Daredevil film footage & hand feeds it to the huge MTV "TRL" audience, as Guy Zapoleon's Promo Squad research indicates "For You" has #1 CHR potential. Did you notice the abundant rotation increases for Stereo Fuse has turned the spins positive again on "Everything?" How long have we been telling you THIS IS A GUARANTEED HIT... And we make you the same promise for Kellie Coffey's "When You Lie Next To Me." All you have to do is play it! RLG's Butch Vaughn & Cheri Lynn Martin are not about being most added, they are about giving Top 40 radio a proven hit... Mark Landis is in the house & turns in a solid opening add week for Big 3 Records' Prymary Colorz "If I Could Change." Put this one in your battles and watch what happens... Elektra's Reese, Lewis & Starr quickly debut "The Remedy," by Jason Mraz, at Hot AC with a bunch of early Top 40 action from on the ball Programmers... Jive's Joe Riccitelli moves JC Chasez up in spins inside the CHR Top 15, & Bowling For Soup is blowing up the phones everywhere they get played... On the subject of phones, RCA/J's Palmese & Bergin are screaming "Big Requests" for O Town's "I Showed Her." This one sounds like a smash to us...Big ups to Interscope's Romano & Lopes for taking T.A.T.U. to 5000+ spins inside the CHR Top 10 & if you ain't on 50 Cent yet, your Programming abilities ain't worth a dime!... Singer/actress Taryn Manning & Boomkat move their "kiss-off" classic Top 30 at CHR as DreamWorks' Leben, Tuggey & Barbis turn up the heat on Cooler Kids... Capitol's Hubbert, Green & Baker have Lisa Marie Presley excited about her debut "Lights Out," & she's on the phone & in person at Top 40 & Hot AC stations coast to coast. Music We Love: Good Charlotte, Sixpence None The Richer & All American Rejects.

Hilary Shae: She's Stuck.

SAY MY LONG NAME: HITS' Tricia Bock Berman Jessica Parker Stuart Masterson (l) only spends 10% of her time at the office. The other days are spent hiding in foliage in various parts of the country. Here she's seen with Columbia artist Kelly Rowland (Destiny's Child) and WDRO's Keith Curry.

THE LAST TEMPTATION, HOPEFULLY: Y100's Rob Roberts (c) took a break from auditions for the show, Are You Hot? He explained, "I've got a great shot. I'm sexy as hell & the camera loves me." IDJ artist Ja Rule & the label's Ken Lane posed for this & then laughed. A lot.

Set-Up Box

Sherri Trahan & Mitch Mills New School.

According to Guy Zapoleon's Promo Squad research, Sugarcult's "Bouncing Off The Walls" is potentially a Top 10 CHR hit! Their album "Start Static," has sold 225K to date & fans of Sugarcult's shows are ravenous! Ultimatum's Sherri Trahan & Mitch Mills from Artemis plan to bounce this Punk/Pop puppy right on the air at Top 40 radio on 2/24. And with perfect timing it's now the featured song in commercials for Will Ferrell's new movie Old School. Bounce baby bounce!

Cindy Levine-Baker Right???

Coldplay's smash "Clocks," from their million selling sophomore album, was Top 10 at PoMo, is Top 10 at Modern Adult & Top 20 at Hot AC. These Brits hit it BIG in America with "Yellow" in summer 2000. They're current U. S. tour is sold-out, the New York Philharmonic Orchestra backs their performance on the Grammys 2/23 & they have two nominations including Best Alternative Album. Surely smart CHR Programmers will gladly give Capitol's Cindy Levine-Baker the add on 2/24!

"Despite all of the drama surrounding R. Kelly right now, you have to give it up to him. He remains one of the most gifted artists that I will ever hear in my lifetime. The 'Ignition-remix' is an all out smash that I'm glad to be able to play on B-96."

—Erik Bradley/MD, B96/Chicago

"R. Kelly's 'Ignition-remix' has ignited with HOT 99.5s Audience. It's top 10 phones and top 5 potential. Just put the key in the ignition and hold on to the wheel tight. Remember hands at 10 and 3 o'clock."

—Albie Dee/MD, WIHT/Wash DC

"Forget what you've heard. Forget what you think you know and remember how it use to be...this is classic R. Kelly!!!"
