Together Again

Between them, WEA's Henry Droz and CEMA's Russ Bach will be carving up the world as they've divvied up the charts at their respective distribution confabs in Chicago and Dallas. And while Droz and the troops should be gloating over landing six albums in the current Top Ten, Bach and the gang'll be toasting #1's by M.C. Hammer, Vanilla Ice, Wilson Phillips and Sinead O'Connor since last year's meet. Of course, both gatherings will feature grown men in party hats tossing TVs out of their Motel 6 windows and skinny-dipping in the pool. At least that's what we do at these things.

tinues to build moving from #42 to #37, and is now selling singles! Extreme takes a ten point jump to #29, showing signs of another major smash for them. And just like a Rap record, Metallica debuts at #44, with huge single sales!

METALLICA MADNESS!!!

Motown Bolts

In case you were in a coma last week, here's a summary of the latest events in the Motown/MCA rift.

•Motown President /CEO Jheryl Busby announces that the company has terminated its distribution and service arrangement with MCA and its UNI Distribution company. Earlier in the year, Motown filed a lawsuit charging MCA with failure to perform its contractual obligations for distribution and Pop radio promotion. MCA later countersued.

•Busby stated he "very much regretted that the relationship between Motown and MCA had reached this point."

•According to an MCA Music Entertainment spokesperson: "It would be inappropriate to comment on matters before the Motown operating committee. However, MCA's position is that we have a long-term agreement with Motown that extends years beyond September 8 and we intend to vigorously enforce all of MCA's rights under that agreement."

•Whatever the outcome of these actions, please rest assured of one fact: A lot of lawyers will make a lot of money off this one.

Jesus Rises Again

Jesus Jones: Their new single is real, real, real!!!

Poly Sees Gilders

PolyGram reported increased earnings for the six months ended June 1991, claiming a 24.6% increase in net sales over the same period last year. In addition, the Dutch conglomerate reported a 30.4% increase in income from operations, a 24.1% boost in Net Income and a

23.5% increase in Net Income Per Share. According to a PolyGram release, "North American operations are close to break-even and should achieve a profitable position by year-end." According to Poly Ruler Alain Levy, "Yaaaaaaahooooo!!!"

Sinking Lips

A Chicago judge refused to allow a proposed settlement to the class action lip-synch lawsuit brought against Arista Records and parent company BMG by disgruntled Milli Vanilli fans. BMG had offered the 10 million buyers of the group's CDs, tapes, albums or singles between $1 and $3 in discounts on any future label purchases. Judge Thomas O'Brien rejected the proposal, believing it was not right that people who were victims of a scam had to go out and buy another recording to receive compensation.

It doesn't take that good a crystal ball to see that Metallica's new Elektra release is headed straight to the top of the charts, challenging labelmate and current #1 Natalie Cole. This week, with less than 10% of accounts reporting sales for the Monday-released project, the self-titled album debuts at #38 on the HITS Top 50 Albums chart. We're talking sales bonanza.

Three guesses where it will be next week.

After one-day sales of 7,000 at Strawberries, the chain's Jeff Cohen gurgled, "It's the one-day sales record-breaker of all time!!!" Good gurgling, Jeff.

Tower's famed Sunset Blvd. location had 350 people waiting in line for an hour before the project went on sale. Tower's Anaheim, CA, location sold 440 units in the first hour. RTI one-stop blew through 8,000 units in one day.

OK, only two guesses where it will be next week.

"Elektra set the record up brilliantly," spewed Co-Manager Peter Mensch, whose Mets really suck. "All the parts are really coming together. MTV is really banging it while it's breaking one-day sales records at the major chains."

OK, one guess where it will end up next week.

PIC OF THE WEEK

THIS Is What The Fuss Is About?

Here it is folks, the cover graphics for the new Tin Machine project as it appears all over the world — except the United States. It seems the same society that elected David Duke to public office is now worried over the effects this art may have on our young. Go figure. Anyhow, here it is in all its pornographic splendor — maybe the moralists are just jealous.

Quick
Hits

MTV action this week is slight, with just one add: Prince's "Gett Off" (Paisley Park/WB) and one rotation increase: School Of Fish's "3 Strange Days" (Capitol). In other MTV news, Abraham Konowitch continues his search for a personality. (Ed Note: Perhaps we should resign ourselves to the fact he's never had one.)

WILD CARD

MARIAH CAREY
(Columbia)

We can't imagine one good reason for any station in America to avoid this record this week. It's got great tempo, is instantly sing-along and is just GREAT. And, surprise of all surprises, it's not the 97th choice from her debut album, but the first from her new album shipping in Sept. Smart marketing by Columbia, smart choice by us and it'll make Burt look like a genius. Gotta like it!

Elektra-fied Chameleon

Chameleon and Elektra have entered a joint venture between the two companies, with Chameleon Records being exclusively distributed by Elektra Entertainment, it was announced by Chameleon Entertainment Chairman/CEO Dan Pritzker and Elektra Entertainment Chairman Bob Krasnow.

Former RCA head Bob Buziak will helm the day-to-day operations of the new company as President/COO for Chameleon Entertainment, while ex-Arista and Island executive Bill Berger has been tapped as President of Chameleon Records.

Said Pritzker: "I can't imagine a finer situation than to be involved with the finest record company and the best distribution network in the world. (Translation: Help, I think my lips are stuck to Henry Droz's butt.)"

Added Krasnow: "Chameleon Records is a company uniquely positioned to take advantage of Mr. Pritzker's dedicated and passionate feelings about music. (Translation: Does this mean I get in-room free movies at any Hyatt in the country?)"

Love & Joy

Here's A&M's Amy Grant (r), looking absolutely thrilled to be hanging with Extreme's Gary Cherone, who looks absolutely thrilled in one of those shots that publicists love to send out to show how much harmony and happiness there is among the label's diverse but successful roster. Puhleeze. Rest assured that in reality, these two people repulse each other. Thank you for your time.

Bob Buziak: He's got a lizard up his sleeve.

Bill Berger: Comes with fries and a shake.

Riveting Contest Gets Gnarly Wedding Daze

Lots of riveting developments in this week's "Most Riveting" contest. Let's get you up to date.

You'll remember that Capitol's Mr. Personality, Executive Vice President Art Jaeger sweeps Round One.

He awaits the winner of Round Two which pits Attorney/Author/Dynamo Don Passman against WB legal eagle and the man who loves to litigate, David Altschul.

Well, despite attempts to throw the contest by someone who will go nameless.....

Passman and Altschul receive two votes each — Passman received his votes from family members while Altschul scored votes from Murray Gitlin and Mel Lewinter. Meanwhile, one dynamic (Ed Note: Zzzzzz) write-in candidate charges to an unexpected and shocking write-in victory. We're talking about Arista personality powerhouse Roy Lott (Ed Note: Zzzzzzz.) This leads us to our new matchup and our new question:

Who's More Riveting? Roy or Mel

CALL NOW!!

This week's matchup puts the incredibly charismatic Arista Executive VP Roy Lott (Ed Note: Zzzzzz) against a man who can best be described as well, as beefcake — Sony Executive VP and personality mogul Mel Ilberman. Which one of these icons of personality can make a run at Jaeger?

The Roy & Mel Hotline

Pee-wee's Plea

Pee-wee Herman has mailed in a plea of innocent to the charge he exposed himself in an adult movie theater in Sarasota, his attorney

Richard Gerstein said. The written plea means neither the comic nor his lawyers have to show up in court for the arraignment.

GRAHAM ARMSTRONG'S SHERMAN OAKS

"Ahem, this photo really Phils up the book," chuckled our own thirst-quenching tonic of turbulence and JAMS Editor Graham Armstrong, who takes our buddy and Capitol recording artist Phil Perry to yet another Sherman Oaks landmark, L'Express, where the food sucks and the help treats you like crap, but at least you're being trendy while you're suffering. Where in Sherman Oaks will Graham take us next time? Stay tuned.

They Belong Together

That's Ron Reagan Jr. (c) with Lyndah McCaskill and Michelle Morgan of Bytches With Problems and Bushwick Bill of the Geto Boys on their way over to Ron Sr. and Nancy's house to chuckle over the good ol' days of secret arms for hostages deals. The event is the new "Ron Reagan Show," which can best be described as Richard Simmons meets Morton Downey.

Boingo Does Batman Too

Danny Elfman will reteam with director Tim Burton on the soundtrack for "Batman II." The two are also working together on an animated musical called "A Nightmare Before Christmas," which won't be in theaters until Christmas '93. Elfman has just finished scoring another film, "Article 99." His long-time band Oingo Boingo will release one more best-of project on MCA next month before announcing a deal with a new label, for which they will begin recording an album in December slated to come out next Spring. Said Danny: "I can't talk right now because I'm too busy." Whatta workaholic!

U2x2

The new U2 album, the first studio recording from the Irish band in more than four years, will be released in two separate CD packages. One will be a shrink-wrapped jewel-box without a longbox for which PolyGram will pass along reduced packaging costs with special incentives for retailers who order it. The second will be an environmentally friendly digitrac package for those outlets who choose to stock a longbox style container. A rare, collector's-only third alternative will be wrapped in last week's "Rerap" column.

Chastity Belts

Second generation pop stars continue to proliferate. Add 21-year-old Chastity Bono to the list, as the daughter of Sonny & Cher has inked to Geffen Records. She's already got a big fan in her dad, who said, "She's got a great voice, good phrasing and the ability to write. There's no way she won't succeed. Cher and I are two of the most tenacious people I know, so if Chastity is a combination of each of us, her career should be unstoppable." And she can sing both parts to "I Got You Babe."

Yet Another Stupid Radio Shot

In honor of the anniversary of the King's death, we're happy to present this photo of KLUC Las Vegas Morning guy Mike O'Brien (l) and an Elvis impersonator standing by a headless statue of the King in an incredibly stupid shot that demonstrates conclusively that we were really low on photos to run this week. It's moments like these that make you wish that gene-splicing was a common practice.

Goody Mourned

It's the end of an era. Retail legend Sam Goody passed away last week. The founder and namesake of the Sam Goody chain sold his New York and Philadelphia area stores to the American

Can Company in 1978. The outlets were later merged into Musicland, expanding to 330 locations nationwide. The company kept the founder's names on those stores.

How Many Lame Childhood Stars Can You Put On One Page?

OK folks, overlook loser Star 94 radio geeks Jim Morrison, Dan Blankowski, Ron Stadler, Tony Novio and Bill Cahill and try to find the following child stars in these three photos: Butch Patrick (Eddie Munster), Brandon Cruz (Eddie from "The Courtship Of Eddie's Father") and Barry Williams (Greg Brady). Folks, you may have envied these kids when they were young, affluent and had the world on a platter, but look how they've turned into dysfunctional adults who have nothing better to do than hang out at stupid radio stations. Thanks, we needed that.

Quick Hits

The Most Added singles this week at Top 40 are #1 Bob Seger (Capitol), #2 Bad Company (Atco), #3 Jesus Jones (SBK), #4 Steelheart (MCA) and #5 Karyn White (WB). Salt-N-Pepa (Next Plateau) is starting to buzz again with their latest.

AIRHEAD

MOTOWN AND BUSBY ARE ON THE REBOUND...

WHO WILL BE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARDS?

Carlos Collared

Carlos Santana will perform a free anti-drug concert in Houston as part of his guilty plea to marijuana possession charges. The 43-year-old rock guitarist was nabbed at the city's Intercontinental Airport in June by customs agents who found him devouring Twinkies and shouting "No Rain!" to passers-by, then discovered 5 grams of pot in his suitcase. In addition to the benefit show, Santana was placed on probation for six months, ordered to give $100 to charity and the rest of his ounce of the hein goob to the Houston Police Department.

Hair, Hair, The Gang's All Here

That's Kiss' Paul Stanley (l) and Eddie Money (r) hanging with the incredibly legendary Tony Bennett in a photo that not only fills up white space in this rag, but also serves as an excellent advertisement for Cy Sperling's Hair Club For Men. Naturally, Tony had never heard of either rocker, but was happy to pose for this photo since they're two of the only people who definitely make HIM look good.

Morrow Becomes Elektra

Joe "I Can't Wait Until To" Morrow "Because I Get Better-Looking Every Day" has been pumped with helium and lifted to the position of Vice President Urban Marketing and Promotion for Elektra Entertainment, it was announced by Ruben "Cube" Rodriguez, Senior Vice President Urban Music for the company. Joe was previously Sr. National Director Urban Marketing and Promotion, based in Los Angeles. When he heard the new job would require him to move to New York, he broke down and cried. "Does that mean I have to sell my Malibu beach house?," he sobbed.

Morrow has been with Elektra since the inception of its Urban Division in 1978. Prior to his tenure at the label, he was with Capitol Records for 11 years.

Said Morrow: "The challenges presented by Elektra in the past have motivated me to achieve a standard of excellence. (Translation: Otherwise my butt woulda been outta here a long time ago.) Working under the leadership of Ruben Rodriguez adds an exciting new challenge for the future. (Translation: I know how to blow smoke with the best of 'em.) I am blessed with a staff that shoots for the stars and is not satisfied unless that goal is achieved. (Translation: Most of 'em are space cadets.)"

Joe Morrow: To Morrow, it's just another day.

HITS

NEAR TRUTHS

By I. B. Bad, Los Angeles

Yes folks, the much-murmured-about Aerosmith to Columbia deal is indeed done, with the folks at Sony Music providing a textbook display of aggressive dealmaking '90s style. Key players in this scenario were Sony topper Tommy Mottola, Donnie Ienner and Michele Anthony, while John Branca handled legal chores for the guys from Boston. This is the same caliber deal that Janet and Michael received (and that the Rolling Stones will receive), and it sends out a very definite message to the music community.... And howabout the Motown/MCA situation? Tonguewaggers are wagging their share of questions. Will MCA seek a temporary restraining order against Motown? Will they wait until a deal is struck and then sue? Is Boston Ventures trying to negate the current distribution deal in their efforts to receive maximum price in their attempt to flip the company? Will MCA, with its major reputation for massive litigation under the old ownership, walk away from this one as new owner Matsushita tries to avoid a splashy public David vs. Goliath confrontation? Or will the two sides kiss and make up? And how about perspective suitors for Motown? Most-talked-about are Poly, Time-Warner and EMI — which one will make a deal for Motown without an equity stake? Time-Warner has previously said no equity, no deal. Will it make an exception in this potentially profitable case? Will the company that does strike a deal with Motown indemnify it against legal action? Wheew. Stay tuned.... Hey, let's not forget that rash of BMG rumors, as chatters are chattering over possible changes at the conglom on a worldwide level. Talk revolves around Rudi Gassner, who runs BMG's very successful International arm, but has no responsibility for North America. Will worldwide topper Michael Dornemann, who has limited record industry experience, relinquish his active role in the U.S. and bring in Gassner in some capacity? Meanwhile, all other rumors about BMG U.S. appear moot until these questions are answered.... Across the Atlantic, Sony UK and topper Paul Russell are looking at the possibility of Stone Roses-type litigation by one UK superstar. Said superstar was previously believed to be prepared to settle out of court with the company, until said deal was kaboshed by Sony Intl. topper Robert Summer. Many believe that if the artist wins this one, all UK recording contracts will be subject to challenge. Obviously, labels in the U.S. are standing with pen in hand, awaiting the outcome of this one.... Names in the Rumor Mill this week: Bill Battison, Tony Dimitriades, Elliot Goldman, John Lack and Heinz Henn.... and the beat goes on.

FAR TRUTHS

By Danny Fields, New York

The eternally luminescent Tony Bennett was honored at a most special soiree at Tatou, where Columbia/Legacy celebrated the release of his must-have 4 CD boxed set, "Forty Years: The Artistry of Tony Bennett." 87 tracks of sheer mastery. Tony and his trio actually performed a five-song set, to the enrapturement of the elite gathering, which included such giants as Sammy Kahn, Regis Philbin and Robin Leach!! Tommy Mottola, Don Ienner and Legacy's Jerry Shulman presented the great man with a special platinum album, commemorating the worldwide sale of 30 million units. Other members of the Sony sultanate on hand were Michelle Anthony, Mary Ellen Cataneo, Michelle Mena, Fran DeFeo, Ron Piccolo, Steve Berkowitz, Kevin Gore, a dazzling Mel Ilberman, Jay Krugman, Rich Yaffa and Don DeVito. Partygoers munched and crunched on shrimp and corn fritters, mushroom caps with Maryland crabmeat and asparagus tips, and smoked filet mignon with horseradish... RCA chartered a luxurious yacht to celebrate its success in the dance market. Floating on the Hudson were such glorious artistes as N-JOI, Tony Moran, Arthur Baker, Wendell William and Chocolate Chip. Radio was represented by KMEL's Hosh Gureli, HOT97.7's John Christian, WQXA's Kip Taylor and HOT 97's Joel Salkowitz and Kevin McCabe. Label Nipperbas included Joe Galante, Butch Waugh, Ric Aliberte, Geary Tanner, Joe Hecht, Rannie Marie Reggie, Ron Howie, David Glaes, Claire Mercuri, Dorothy Carvello and Marilyn Lipsius. Catering was provided by BMG secret weapon Ann Dedmon, who supplied smoked turkey and prosciutto for make-your-own heros... A&M A&R VP Susan Hen-

Alpertmosses on hand included Wayne Isaak, Richie Gallo, Chuck Blizotis, Lauren Zelisko, Carol Earle and Julie Panebianco in wiggy platinum tresses... Capitol chose Syracuse for a dinner in honor of newly-signed L.A. rockers XYZ, in support of their album. "Hungry." Group members Pat Fontaine and Marc Diglio were escorted by capitolists Dominique Leomporra, Mitch Satalof, Tony Chalmers and Lisa Gilman, who belied the LP title by supping on pasta with calamari and a b-day cake for Marc... Atlantic held a listening party for Julian Lennon's "Help Yourself" disc under the coordination of local rep Steve Klein at SIR Studios, where one and all dined on a sumptuous cheese and veggie spread. Hit & Run mgmt.'s Sherry Gordon-Martinelli joined hot Lantics Mary Timmons, Susan Swan, Maria Malta and Regina Joskow in the hosting chores.

"KISS MY LOVE GOODBYE"

PolyGram Label Group

Produced by Michael James Jackson. Mixed by David Thoener. Management: Left Bank Management

This radio veteran began his broadcasting career at the Lyndon State campus station in Lyndonville, Vermont, before seguing to Colorado, where he worked in Gunnison and Pueblo. His first PD gig was at 96KISS in Nashville, then he programmed Q94 in Bakersfield, California, before coming to KGGI in Riverside as PD in July, 1988. Three years later, he's OM, just hired new PD Bob West and had a sensational book. The guy's entitled to stop and smell the roses — even if all he wants to do is talk about Bob — but an ill wind that blows no good in the form of HITS' radio Jezebel Connie "Francis" Breeze was enough to send him scurrying for the air freshener.

You recently hired Bob West as PD, but the station was doing quite well even before he arrived. What prompted the move?

This is pretty much the same staff I inherited when I first came here three years ago. In a town where we don't have much direct Top 40 competition, people tend to get complacent. Although we get some competition from the L.A. stations, we've been #1 here for awhile now. I think the station needed a shot in the arm, and Bob West has definitely done that.

Bob does a midday shift and you do afternoons. Isn't it unusual for both a station's PD and OM to be on-air?

We're in a recession now, as you know. I was an off-air PD until we hired Bob, and then I went back on to do a shift for budgetary reasons. In order to hire someone like Bob — and pay him what he's worth — I had to make some adjustments. The other side of that is, because of Bob, the staff has a new vision and a new energy.

Bob is known as a creative programmer and a real motivator. You've given him a real opportunity to do both here.

Bob is an extremely talented programmer. I knew he was available and, in fact, had plans to move back to town. He was an interim PD here awhile back. He was raised in Ontario, so he knows this Hispanic market like nobody else. I kept that in mind when, at the beginning of the year, our ratings started to slip, and the staff started to drag. I had done all I could to motivate them, and it wasn't working. It got to the point where

NO relation to AL

I had to re-evaluate my strengths and weaknesses. I realized I had to make a change. My own staff was calling me Mr. Anal Retentive... to my face! During the interview with Bob, it became overwhelmingly obvious he was the answer to our creative problems. Of course, I had some problems letting go of some of my power, but Bob is a much more talented programmer than I am, so I feel much better about it.

"My own staff was calling me Mr. Anal Retentive... to my face!"

The combination of a left brain and right brain person can be pretty volatile.

But, for us, it works! Just look at our last book. We've doubled our numbers. We went from 4.9 to 8.7 25-54. It's the highest rating the station has ever had. The key is to have an appreciation for the other's talents and differences.

Those numbers are pretty amazing considering you compete against L.A. stations.

But KGGI has a hometown relationship to its listeners the L.A. stations can't match. Obviously, that's why we're #1. The L.A. stations come out here once in a great while, but they really don't call the Inland Empire home.

Of course, just because a song works in L.A. doesn't mean it will work in Riverside.

That's right. We really service an audience that we feel is ignored in L.A. — adult Hispanics. Also, Bob's doing an oldies show at noon that is just exploding.

What's your goal now that you've done so well in your first book under a new PD?

We've never done that well twice in a row, so that's our next project. We want double digits all the way across the board. In our opinion, KF had some numbers that were too high here. They shouldn't have numbers like that with our audience. If I can accomplish that, and keep some sort of rein on Bob, I'll be happy. I mean, you should see this guy. Every week, management says, "Help! He's going crazy!" And I say, "Don't worry, I've got him under control." But, he really is going crazy!

A New Perspective

When A&M CEO and Prez Al Cafaro announced the deal with Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis to form their new label, Perspective Records, he spoke about the pair's "rare combination of [being] successful businessmen and artists." Forming Flyte Time Productions in Minneapolis in the mid-'70s on top of their impressive roles in the seminal group the Time, Jam & Lewis have indeed proven themselves to be two of the most prolific, talented and profitable young entrepreneurs in the business, with over 50 Top Ten Black singles, 20 Top Ten Pop singles and more than 30 gold and platinum records to their credit. The list of writing and producing awards is endless but perhaps two of the most telling honors they've received recently reflect just what they are all about. The two were given the Heritage Award at the NAACP's 1990 Image Awards and were named National Entrepreneurs of the Year by Inc. magazine. Perspective's historic and superb first release, "Sounds of Blackness: the evolution of gospel," by Sounds of Blackness, offers a significant insight into Jimmy and Terry's vision. Jam and a very quiet Terry Lewis sat down at the Chaplin Lot for a tête-à-tête with HIT's own soulman-on-ice, "Don't Play With My Joe-Joe" Medwick.

What does it mean to have your own label?

Jimmy Jam: Personally, it gives us the opportunity to work with acts that maybe another label wouldn't work with. It gives us a chance to expand our creative scope. It's a move to give all the writers and producers we have on staff an opportunity to do the same thing — to go out and find things that they like. Our operating style could be called the family style. I like to say, we don't have good people behind us, we have good people right with us. We're not a big company, but many of our philosophies are shared by A&M, which is one of the reasons that we're here. It's a smaller operation and everybody knows what everyone is doing. That's the way we like it.

What have you learned from your experience with Flyte Time that has helped you launch and operate Perspective?

Jimmy: We were fortunate in that we started out as artists and entrepreneurs because no one would hire us, so we had to make our own work. We would go out, rent a place to play and send out flyers. We basically had to be businessmen early in our careers. That taught us music and business go together. This is a learning experience for us because running a label is a little bit different than just handing the projects in and forgetting about them. Now, we see the project through the process of selecting album covers, videos, directors... every aspect of the marketing. We couldn't have better people help us than Jerry Moss and Herb Alpert. In many ways, we see parallels between their relationship and mine and Terry's. Your first release, "Sounds of Blackness: the evolution of gospel," is such an ambitious and beautiful project, one that reflects your promise of presenting a wide range of music.

Jimmy: The Sounds of Blackness has been part of our growing up. We always heard them, but were never really in the position to do anything for them. They did a show a few years ago which was basically a celebration of Martin Luther King's life. We decided right then that we wanted to work with them, so we got in contact with the group and started talking about doing an album and placing it somewhere. When our label deal came through, it just made sense that this would be our first act, because it does really show what the label is about.

"In many ways, we see parallels between [Herb Alpert and Jerry Moss'] relationship and mine and Terry's."

What advantages and disadvantages are there to keeping the operation in Minneapolis?

Jimmy: To us, there are no drawbacks. With the modern age of technology, FAX machines and jet airplanes, we really feel close to both coasts. It's played an important role because being in a creative business, wherever you are happy is where you're going to create. Minneapolis has been home for us for a long time. We're happy there. It's nice being away from the hoopla of New York and L.A. We're kind of isolated up there and we like it.

Will running a label in any way hinder your prolific writing and production output?

Jimmy: Hopefully, it's not going to get in our way.

One of the reasons we waited so long to do a label deal was we decided we were not ready to cope with the day-to-day running of a record company. We felt we still had some growing to do — we just wanted to write songs and produce. Even when the A&M deal came up, we still really were not ready to do it. Herb told us, "Do what you want to do, and when you're ready, we're ready." We do realize there will be a little less writing and production time but we're at the point now where we're willing to give a little bit of that up to help bring along some other new writers and producers and just watch over what they are doing. Because that's the future. We were fortunate in our careers that we had a guy named Prince who said, "Hey, watch what I do, here's the way to do it." Now, we are in a position to do that for other people.

I think we can definitely play an important part in history, just from the point of being black entrepreneurs — just as Motown did it, just as Philly International did it. Those are great history lessons to look to for inspiration and knowledge. Hopefully, what we're doing and what La & Face, Teddy Riley, Russell Simmons and Clarence Avant are doing represent the latest examples of that tradition. I think it's important that the way the deals are structured now, we actually own equity in our music. We are happy to be part of that — now our job is to make it work. For us, all that really means is doing what we've always done — writing and producing the songs — except now, we are really, truly a part of what we do.

So you can make some money while you're at it.

Terry Lewis: [Laughs.] And mo' money and mo' money!

Current favorites as chosen by members of all segments of the music industry

Jesus Jones sneaks by to win the section with their 2nd single, last week's Wildcard. Next up is the latest from Bob Seger and Top 40 is showing early signs of support. The new cut from Bad Co. also scores big and could prove to be their 2nd hit off the current project. Michael Learns to Rock gets lots of 1st week picks at radio and should do well. Venessa Williams continues to develop at the crossover level with mainstream stations coming to the party.

POST TOASTED By Ivana B. Adored

CRY LIKE THE RAINSTORM HOWL LIKE THE WIND: Life totally sucks, blows chunks, bites the big one, and that's just so far this morning....The few crumbs of pleasure I've derived from the swirling cesspool of my fetid existence came from seeing the blindingly brilliant Jimmy Webb perform with Van Dyke Parks (and with Harry Nilsson in attendance), and then going to see the Dictators and the way-fab Lunachicks. The Jimmy Webb/Handsome Dick Manitoba juxtaposition was sensory overload like I hadn't experienced since I saw Ted Nugent and Amy Grant on the same night....From "Someone left the cake out in the rain..." to "My favorite part of growing up is when I'm sick and throwing up." Whew!....Do either one of these seminal entertainers have a recording contract? I think not. (therefore, I am not?).....After six months, there's a NEW #1 PoMo LP! That's right, the as of yet-to-be released Chris Stamey LP has debuted at #1! on word-of-mouth interest alone! But seriously, Siouxsie and the Banshees have unseated R.E.M. after a Ugandan Cage Match between Kim White and Jimmy D. Will "Kiss Them For Me" be a pop hit? It should be....Speaking of hits, Robyn Hitchcock debuts at #15, on the strength of out-of-the-box sales and airplay of "So You Think You're In Love," which WILL be a hit! As hard as it for you goons to be creative, please try to "creatively visualize" the Hitchcock as a hit. Thank you Lenny.....James finally racked up enough PoMo sales points to debut at #24! Just in time for them to headline the "Reading Festival" before an expected crowd of 40,000 plus! Gee, I'd love to be there. Hey, isn't travel an acknowledged antidote for severe depression?.....Now that Deirdre O' Donoghue is off the air at KCRW, I'll have to go to Austin to find listenable radio. Hooray for KGSR! What will happen when the new "alternative" station, helmed by KRCK's Paul Kreiger goes "on-the-air" in that market? Guess I'll be moving to Austin!...Want to know who ISN'T getting the MCA PoMo Promo gig? Buy an ad and I'll tell you everything I know....Can you believe that John Sykes, the President of a Major record company, takes time out of his busy day to send me upcoming Chrysalis music! With a personal note too! I love this guy....To no one in particular: In the words of the aforementioned genius Harry Nilsson, "You're breaking my heart, you're tearing it apart, so fuck you."

Ivana is the human embodiment of Jim McDermott's worst nightmare. It all started when he was elevated to the dizzying heights of being the boss of each and every PDR employed by PGD (PolyGram Group Distribution). Little did Jim realize that some of his reps had been pre-programmed by Ivana to be perpetually inquisitive, leaving him feeling hopelessly paranoid and (bluntly) caught with his pants down.

POST MODERN

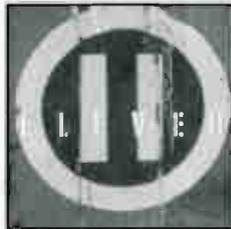

POMO PICKS

Edited by Karen Glauber

Katydid, "Shangri-La" (Reprise): Fans of their Nick Lowe produced debut (Hi Jamie!) will be delighted with the evolution of this wonderful band on their latest effort. Newcomers will be immediately struck by Susie Hug's crystalline voice and the symmetry of Adam Seymour's harmonies and jangly guitar with their clever, personal lyrics. Ian "Mr. Lightning Seed" Broudie produced "Seesaw" and "Always," two songs that really and truly could be HITS! Here's to the Katydid! Now, you go and experience "Shangri-La" for yourself.

Eleven, "Awake In A Dream" (Morgan Creek): From past members of the 'Peppers and What Is This comes a debut for those who desire quintessential L.A. PoMo, complete with the obligatory funk backbone, gardens of love, and a lead singer who has a lot of "avante garde" influences. Despite derivations, and production that often neutralizes the impact of this "power trio," the band retains an original and soulful identity, grooving smooth through "You Are Mine," and waxing anthemic on "All Together." Yep, this one goes to "11." (DD)

Mr. Bungle, "Mr. Bungle" (Warner Bros.): We're not supposed to reveal that Mr. Bungle is Les Claypool's "other" band. It'd be shameful if media scum like us concentrated on lead singer Chris Isaak. Like, isn't that beside the point? Mr. Bungle's debut is one fine fuckin' slab 'o' noise—who cares about the singer's history with the Residents? Songs like "My Love Is A Fist," "The Girls Of Porn" and "My Ass Is On Fire" speak for themselves. Is the world ready for Boz Scaggs' latest with singer Mickey Thomas? I've got Faith that it is. (HL)

Metallica, "Metallica" (Elektra): PoMo record of the summer, no question! It'll smash the pumpkinheads, melt the seas of cheese, take you a lot higher than nirvana, and is a whole lot more massive than a pitching attack from Sid Fernandez. So strap yourself in, put on your virtual reality glasses, and imagine it's just you, an AK-47, and Dan Quayle in a dark, deserted alley. Or picture yourself in a boat on a river with a six-pack and the Barbi Twins, playing strip parchesi while the wind blows gently through your hair. None of these experiences will compare to listening to this record real fuckin' loud. (MF)

POMO MUGS

WHY, BECAUSE I LIKE THEM: For as long as the term "PoMo" has existed, kiddies of all ages have scratched their dandruff-coated scalps and asked, "Just what IS PoMo, anyhow? Like, what's the criteria?" The answer, dear readers, is simple. PoMo is anything I say it is. I have the power. Are the Merchants Of Venus PoMo? Of course! I adore them, and that's all that matters. I raise, and don't you forget it. Now if I could only get my house back...

PEARLS BEFORE SLIME, PT. 1: Are Chris Whitley and the Crash Test Dummies PoMo? Mais oui! Just look at them. Oh, excuse the inclusion of Crash Test member Brad Roberts' A&R geek and live-in-love-slave Ken Friedman. (Novices will note that Ken's eyes are closed, which is what most folks in this business say about his ears). These guys make me swoon and they're welcome to stay at my house as soon as I get the locks changed.

PEARLS BEFORE SLIME, PT. 2: We love to run shots of PoMo legend Marshall Crenshaw! Here we see him inking a two year deal with BMI's Mark Fried (who ought to investigate growing a beard like ASCAP's Tom DeSavia—that face is too gruesome even for this piece of kitty litter). In Mark's letter he mentioned spending "quality time" with me. Refresh my memory, Marky. Did we compare SAT scores while gulping down Thorazines? Oh well, it doesn't matter. The absence of BMI ruler Frances Preston from this publicity shot means you won't have a gig next week, and you know I don't talk to unemployed industry losers. But if you're an unemployed musician, feel free to stay at my house as long as you want. Need a loan? No problem.

KARYN KONQUERS!

When Karyn White wants to get "Romantic," everybody stands at attention.

When the losers at this mag try it, people contemplate moving to a foreign country.

The track caused instant pandemonium in Radioland, scorin' the Most Added title and grabbin' serious rotations. "We were on it from DAY ONE!," boasted the dynamic duo of Chuck Atkins and Dave Wynter, PD & MD of St. Louis powerhouse KMJM, the only men in radio who admit to knowing Graham Armstrong. "The combination of Karyn's vocals and Jimmy Jam & Terry Lewis' production is WORKIN'! It's magic."

The Flyte Tyme team has done an unbelievable job with Karyn's spectacular voice on "Ritual Of Love"'s varied tracks. The uptempo JAMS scream SMASH, and the ballads will rule Quiet Storm for a LONG time.

Sit back and watch it fly!

SUMMER GLADNESS: The mercury's goin' through the roof, sweat is flyin', and the uptempo JAMS are the only way to beat the heat. The airwaves are crawling with catchy, slammin' tracks, and we couldn't be happier. What could be better than Vanessa Williams and Karyn White battling for dominance on car radios everywhere? Both these monster JAMS have had the industry buzzing for the past few weeks, and both have the momentum necessary to go all the way.... THE NUMBERS, PLEASE: What do Capitol's dynamic duo Be Be & Ce Ce Winans, Lisa Lisa & Cult Jam, Gladys Knight, Vesta and Shirley Murdock have in common? Chart domination! 'Nuff said.... NEW JACK ATTACK: The revised S.O.S. Band comes back charging with

"Sometimes I Wonder," and grab this week's Most Added crown, just beating out RCA's Gene Rice, whose remix of "You're A Victim" seems to have everybody smilin'. But you'd be a fool to count out new tracks from Jodeci, Marc Nelson, Boyz II Men, Small Change, Johnny Gill, Donna Summer or Bell Biv DeVoe, all records with the power to take it to the hoop.... GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN: Society Hill Records has released "Are We So Far Apart?," a track by the late Ronnie Dyson (featuring Vicki Austin). This JAM scored very well out-of-the-box, and the company plans to also release a tribute LP, which Ronnie recorded before his untimely death last November. May his soul rest in peace and his songs live on forever. Later.

GO SEE THE DOCTOR: V103 goddess Carol Blackmon has all the luck! Here she gets to hang with NBA legend "Doc" Rivers, while we can only fantasize about meeting such famous sports legends. We recently had visions of dancing with Bo Jackson in purple tutus, but then the nurse came in to give us our thorazine.

HOW MANY JOHNSONS DO YOU SEE IN THIS PICTURE?: We see three, but there's no way any one of 'em are "Magic." David Johnson, his two sons, RCA crooner Giorgio and his boy gathered at posh L.A. eatery Chasens (naturally, they wouldn't let us in) to celebrate the formation of their CEMA-distributed label, Three-"D" Records, which will provide all you lucky folks with musical joy for a long time to come. Look for their first release, a duet between Milli Vanilli mainman Rob Pilatus and funk legend Rick James, sometime in mid-September.

TOO BLACK, TOO STRONG?: Michael "Militant Mixin'" Moore has temporarily exited Smogtown's KJLH. Could it be because his uncompromisin', mind-expandin' mix show was just TOO DAMN HARD? Moore regularly mixed the latest beats with overlays of Farrakhan and Malcolm X, a lethal combination that many listeners thought was all that, and gained respect throughout the whole hip-hop nation. In his absence, the hard side is being held up by KXLU's Mike Nardone, who kicks some serious flavor on Saturday nights.... KJMZ Dallas rapmaster Russ Parr will be givin' Cowville folks a sneak preview of the much-hyped Tim Dog/Ice Cube collaboration with an in-studio interview with the two.... Vanilla Ice has cut an answer record to 3rd Bass' smash "Pop Goes The Weasel," called "Home Run." Think it's gonna be all that?... Those nutty schoolteachers in 2 Live Crew are makin' headlines again, with the rulers at Atlantic asking to have their name taken off Luke & Co.'s latest Disneyland epic "Sports Weekend." The question now seems to be who's gonna distribute it? One thing that's certain is the abundance of fun that will be had at their Jack The Rapper hospitality suite, with performances by Professor Griff, PRE-C.I.S.E. MC, Jiggie Gee and the usual jiznoid-arousing antics. You know a good boy like moi won't be there! I'll be chillin' in my hotel listening to V103 mixmaster Ryan Cameron's all-star rap lineup, with D.J. Quik, Chubb Rock and Cube all threatening to rock the mic live.... What West Coast rapper gets the knucklehead-of-the-week award for perpetratin' violence at the recent KMEL jam? This nonsense ruins it for all of us!... Look for the folks at Giant to live large with the pop/rap flavor of "I Wanna B Ure Lover," the new single from New Jack City alumni F.S. Effect.... East-West is said to have the inside track on scoopin' up EPMD posse members Das EFX. ON THE QUIET TIP: Darryl Musgrove & Jackie Paul. Peace.

ME SO BORED: It's great to see Miami schoolmates Vanilla Ice and Luther Campbell reunited again. After all, both have become incredibly rich and successful since those hard days on the streets, puffin' blunts and gettin' into serious trouble. Yep, Ice's life in the land of the thong makes a job here look like a stroll through the park. We'd also like to take this opportunity to alert y'all to a large parcel of Sherman Oaks swampland that we have for sale. Real cheap!

I'M GONNA DOG YOU OUT: *Compton's citizen-of-the-year Tim Dog, pictured here getting inducted into the Zulu Nation by Afrika Islam with his new pal Ice Cube, can't wait to come to L.A.! He's looking forward to taking in the palm trees, Disneyland and partying with the folks from N.W.A., who really enjoyed his touching ode to their hometown, "F*ck Compton." In fact, they have organized a parade for him on Compton Blvd., complete with a brand-new convertible so the citizens can show him how they really feel about the song. Anyone want to join him in that ride?*

WHY DID THE A&R PERSON GET HIT BY A TRAIN?: He didn't see it coming! Ba-dum-pum.... Look for a pretty impressive line outside the East Coast Giant offices following the departure of Brian Koppelman. There's some real interesting names being thrown around here, folks.... Will there be changes in store for Mercury's Heather Irving myu pronto?... What label's creative geniuses are more than a little unhappy that the promotion department seems to be calling the shots when it comes to roster evaluation and pruning?... Will the folks at Capitol snag ex-Gang Of Four bassist Dave Allen's World Domination label, whose roster of aggressive young bands and PoMo veterans includes an all-original-member reunion

The powers-that-be at RCA have decided to release L.A. combo Thelonious Monster, who have just completed their new Joe Hardy-helmed LP, from their deal with the label. Call Danny Heaps if you're interested in pickin' 'em up.... The coolest thrash/pop band on this planet, Buffalo's Goo Goo Dolls, are putting the finishing touches on the lead track from "Nightmare On Elm Street 95: Freddy's Dead"... Those nutty folks at Zoo have inked wickedly funny L.A.-based combo Green Jello, best described as the bastard sons of a liaison between Gwar and the Partridge Family.... L.A. thrash kings Excel have finished their new Caroline LP with Masters of Reality guitar-slinger Daniel Rey manning the faders.... The best examples are 2 Frenchmen's "Back Planet" — a fierce update of the B-52s' "Planet Claire," and the uncredited "Tainted Cash," an intense blend of Son Of Bazerk and Meat Beat Manifesto topped with the vocal track from Soft Cell's "Tainted Love." The label sports Bart Simpson spouting, "I wasn't there, I didn't do it, you can't prove anything!" Title
"The Ghosts That Haunt Me"

Label
Arista

Formed to blow off steam at a local watering hole in their native Winnipeg, this fivesome — vocalist/guitarist/songwriter Brad Roberts, keyboardist/vocalist Ellen Reid, mandolin player Benjamin Darvill, bassist Dan Roberts and newcomer Mitch Dorge on drums — cut their teeth by performing an eclectic mix of cover songs — everything from Alice Cooper to Lyle Lovett and the Roches. The band's debut album shows them fusing those disparate influences into a unique, rootsy but thoroughly PoMo blend, with contrapuntal harmonies and hypnotic acoustic melodies. With Cowboy Junkie Margo Timmons a big fan, an irreverent Replacements cover ("Androgynous") and the sardonic irony of tracks like "At My Funeral," you've got the makings of a cult classic.

Suggested Cuts

"Superman Song" has a noble tradition of predecessors like the Kinks and Donovan in its quest for Top 40 success.

Comments:

Guest analyst is released American hostage Edward A. Tracy, who commented, "It sure beats those Cat Stevens records they made me listen to 24 hours a day."

Bob Seger

Title
"The Fire Inside"

Label
Capitol

This fresh-faced newcomer hails from Michigan, where he's developed quite a reputation as a heartland rocker. Hey, who are we kidding? Seger's been missing in action since his 1986 multi-platinum smash "Like A Rock" LP, though he had a #1 single in "Shakedown" from the "Beverly Hills Cop II" soundtrack the following year. The new album features his longtime collaborators the Silver Bullet Band and cameo appearances by Joe Walsh, Bruce Hornsby, Patty Smyth and Roy Bittan, among others. Producers included Barry Beckett, manager Punch Andrews and Don Was. There are a pair of Tom Waits tunes, while the entire effort is laced with country and blues influences. Hey, if this guy keeps at it, he shows a lot of promise. He might even be the next Bob Seger.

Suggested Cuts

"The Real Love" is classic Seger, an album rock anthem which appears headed for Bob's customary crossover Top 40 niche.

Comments:

Said Tracy, "It's kinda nice to know some things never change. Even Detroit's better than Beirut."

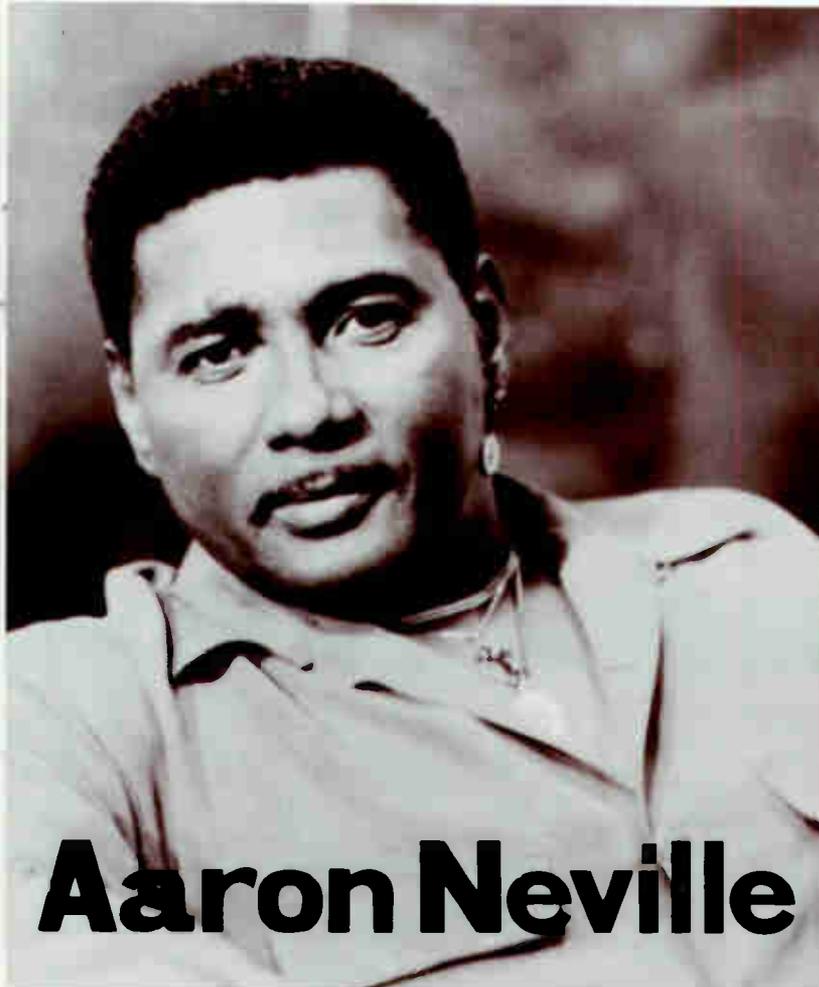

"RADIO-READY SMASH!"

"ALREADY BREAKING MAJOR RETAIL!"

"TOP TEN ALTERNATIVE, R&B, PROGRESSIVE and CLASSICAL!"

"PHONES BIGGER THAN ELVIS!"

SOMETHING TO TALK ABOUT

Produced by Don Was and Bonnie Raitt Management: Danny Goldberg, Ron Stone and Jeffrey Hersh for Gold Mountain Entertainment.

WAVELENGTH

by Lenny Beer & Mike Murphy

Let's see, "the R thing" has the WYST story we ran last week and the Gerry D. story we ran last month, hence we've decided to skip a week to let them catch up.... Speaking of WYST Balt. now called 92Q starting 8/16 at 4 PM, they have hired Dan Vallie bud, Jeff Balentine, from WGTZ Dayton. Jeff is replaced by Kevin Kenney, most recently from K92 Roanoke. Kenney was out of work and is replaced by no one.... Unconfirmed at presstime: Todd Fisher resigns at B104 Baltimore. Is he heading to KOY Phoenix?.... Todd Pettengill on air at MOJO under the moniker Ross London. Scott & Ross?.... Bubba The Love Sponge to HOT97 Chicago for moms. Also GM Kevin O'Grady has resigned with Tom Tradup interim.... Jefferson Ward from WKSS Hartford official as OM at WIOQ Philly.... McClusky org now in management with Rick Cooper helmed dance act Or-N-More. Watch this one sweep the Midwest.... Bob Seger & Bad Company Most Added at Top 40. Queen explodes AC. What is this whole Classic Rock thing, anyway?.... Longtime Top 40 Q104 in Gadsden switches to Gold-based AC, hence they will add the same records as Top 40.... WJMO Cleve now known as Jammin' 92, the Party Pig.... Ten year morning vet Dr. Chris Evans out at KC101 New Haven. Contact John Scott for $$$ opening.... KG95 Sioux City PD Danny Anderson out. MD Kevin Collins handling interim.... WYCR York denies format change.... KRNQ Des Moines PD Chuck Knight exits for PD slot at WENS Indy.... Doug Collins upped to PD at KLYV Dubuque.... Look for HOT999 Allentown to go oldies with Jeff Pollack.... WJMX Florence names Dave Allen PD.... Q101 Meriden MD Jay Randall exits for HOT95 Jackson.... Grant Tressel out as PD at KTMT Medford.... Brian Christopher, who excelled as PD at KIX106 Birm before format change, doing part-time at PWRPIG Tampa and available at 813-969-2109.... Congrats to KTFM San Antonio's Ross Knight and wife Margaret on the birth of Mariah Michelle, 8/13 and to KRQ Tucson's John Peake and new bride Lisa Sherrod on nuptials.

8/10.... Blowin' In The Wind: Russ Allen, Cat Thomas, Jo Jo Kincaid & Pete Cosenza.... And here's Philly bound Mr. Ward, who would be smart not to carpool with Lenny Dykstra.

addictive love

Urban radio's had a taste of the first single from Grammy-winners BeBe and CeCe Winans, and it's played non-stop. Now they're going to get you addicted to their new single and video "Addictive Love." And it'll be an easy habit to break.
