Horn of Plen-ty

Virgin Sr. VP Promotion Michael Plen heads back east to the Apple to rejoin his old pal Phil Q. and head up the combined forces of the label's promo team. This consolidation of power should result in a strong effort to break new artists and sustain the success of established stars. The promotional sparkplug and self-proclaimed Attack Hamster was like a duck out of water in mellow Cali. Now, when he runs down those mean NYC streets muttering to himself, he'll be right at home... just as he is on this HITS' Contents page.

On The Cover

Jon Secada answers the question, "Do You Believe In Us?" with a resounding "No" after this HITS cover shot.

A black and white photograph of Eric Eden sitting on a ledge. He is wearing a dark jacket over a light-colored shirt and dark pants. He is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

Is That Our Vice President, Or A Small Soap Dish?

DANNY DOES IT AGAIN!!!

DCC Takes Off

PolyGram's Digital Compact Cassette is off and running, with more than 100 pre-recorded titles being shipped this week and Philips Consumer Electronics hardware going on sale in Japan.

Several hundred thousand DCCs representing 500 titles have already been produced at PolyGram's Dutch duplicating factory for shipment to the European, American and Japanese distribution centers of the world's major record companies, including BMG, EMI, MCA, PolyGram and Warner Bros. These will start to appear in retail outlets along with DCC player/recorders over the next two months in France, Germany, the Netherlands, Japan, the U.K. and U.S.

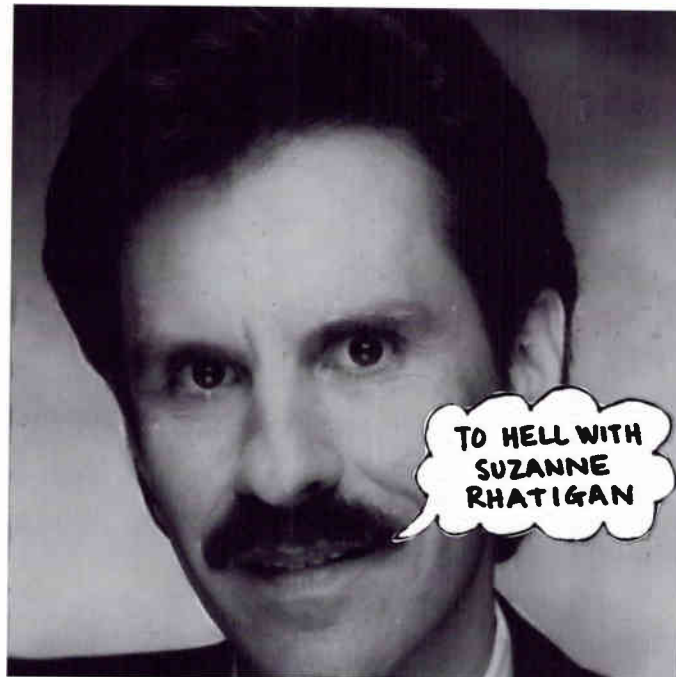

According to the company, the new DCC hardware provides CD-quality sound plus a combination of features including digital recording, direct track access and text information display, previously unavailable on recordable music systems. The music system can play new digital DCCs as well as the old analog cassettes. Yeah, but can it play 78s, eight-tracks and vinyl?

Royal Treatment

Queen: "Greatest Hits" is EXPLODING!!!

Advertisement

If he keeps talking, George Bush will end up voting for Clinton.

Yes folks, our Vice President has done it again. Amidst unemployment, poverty, homelessness and an unchecked AIDS epidemic, Vice President Dan Quayle is using his valuable TV sound bytes to publicly side with a Texas murderer who is claiming he killed a state trooper because he was listening to 2Pac's "2pacalypse Now."

The murderer's widow has filed a civil suit against Time Warner, Atlantic and Interscope.

"The alleged murderer was listening to a record that said killing cops was OK," said Danny who met with the killer's daughter.

Now, why would Danny get involved in such an incredibly stupid case? Try this explanation — 2pac is on Interscope. Interscope is owned by Ted Field. Last week, there was a massive gala Hollywood fundraiser for Bill Clinton that raised $1million. That fundraiser was held at Ted Field's house. Now do you get it?

"Once again, we're faced with an irresponsible corporate act," said Danny. "There is absolutely no reason for a record like this to be published."

PIC OF THE WEEK

Don't They Have Anything Better To Do?

A&M Goddess-like chanteuse Suzanne Vega and A&M President Al Cafaro attempt to stomach our Sixth Anniversary waste of paper moments before Al was informed that Suzanne was a recording artist on his label. Main question remains which makes Suzanne sicker — our magazine... or Al's hand on her shoulder.

Quick Hits Mel & Bob's Sony Rise

MTV adds Prince (P. Pk/WB), Mary J. Blige (Up-town/MCA), TLC (La-Face/Arista), Damn Yankees (WB) and KWS (Next P/London/PLG). Rotation increases go to Eric Clapton (Reprise), Firehouse (Epic), Hi-Five (Jive), Bad Company (Atco/EW/Atl. G) and En Vogue (Atco/EW/Atl. G). There are no changes in Buzz Bin.

In a pair of upper-level management changes at Sony Music Entertainment, Mel "Low Yellow" Ilberman has been named to the newly created position of Corporate Executive Vice President, Sony Music Entertainment and President, Sony Music International, and Robert "Those Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days Of" Summer becomes Corporate Executive Vice President, Sony Music Entertainment, it was announced by the company's chairman Michael "Row Your Boat Ashore" Schulhof.

Mr. Ilberman will have responsibility for managing Sony Music Entertainment's worldwide network of subsidiaries, joint venture companies, licensees and shiatsu parlors, while Summer will be in charge of developing new business opportunities in areas of the world where the Corporation is not presently represented and will serve on a variety of international government and trade councils. He is currently looking to start a chain of fast-food sushi franchises in Borneo.

Commented Schulhof: "Sony Music Entertainment is fortunate to have executives with the depth of experience of Mel Ilberman and Robert Summer. (Ed. translation: Who else can I play bridge with?) Now because of the rapid growth of the global music market and our ambitious strategic goals,

Mel Ilberman: We love his diner.

we want to broaden our management team in these areas. (Ed. translation: They're giving me all their frequent flier miles.) These moves will strengthen our ability to optimize performance in existing international markets as well as expand into new developing overseas markets. (Ed. translation: In fact, we just shipped three million yo-yo's into Tanzania.)"

Ilberman has been Sony Music's Executive VP since 1989. Before that, he was Sr. VP and Executive Assistant to the President at Sony Music. He was Executive VP at PolyGram Records and GM of CBS Songs before that.

Summer has been President, Sony Music International since 1986. He came to the company from nearly 30 years at RCA Records, where he served in a variety of positions, including President, President/CEO of RCA/Ariola International and Missionary.

WILD CARD

PRINCE
PAISLEY PARK/WB

The Purple One is back and he's funk'n' up a storm. Just named WB's newest Vice President, he's packin' the biggest deal in music business history & coming off one mega-successful album with a new set jammed with jammin' jams. Stu Cohen & staff are smokin' hot with the Yankees, kd lang and more. Now comes Prince, Madonna & REM, which is definitely what we'd call more!

Roach Smokes At MCA

Raoul Roach "Clip" has been appointed Sr. Vice President, A&R, Black Music Division at MCA Records by the label's Black Music Division President "A Penny Saved Is A Penny" Ernie Singleton. Roach, who comes to the company from his post as VP A&R for Qwest Records, will be responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations of MCA's Black Music Division A&R department while avoiding any contact with Raid pest spray.

Commented Singleton: "Raoul is one of the most qualified and reputable A&R executives in the business today. His years of experience have proven his ability to develop successful artists across a broad spectrum of musical styles, from rap to R&B to dance to pop, with the same kind of flexibility that has been a key factor in the ongoing success of MCA's own Black Music roster. Plus, he multiplies like crazy and scurries under the table whenever I turn the light on in his office."

Roach entered the music business in 1980 as a booking agent. In 1982, he became part of Wynton Marsalis' management team and two years later, joined Quincy Jones Productions as an assistant to Quincy. He was hired by Elektra in 1987 as National Director, Black Music A&R, where he signed Shinehead and Pete Rock & C.L. Smooth and helped develop the careers of Anita Baker, Howard Hewett, Keith Sweat and Lisa Fischer. As VP A&R for Qwest Records, he signed Keith Washington and Herbie Hancock, provided A&R direction for Tevin Campbell and The Winans and helped supervise the music and soundtracks for "Boyz N' The Hood" and Spike Lee's upcoming "Malcolm X."

What's In Poe Cat's Kitty?

The incredibly talented Hi-Five are granted an audience with industry God/trade-sheet publisher Bobby Poe "Cat" (the well-fed guy in the center), who wowed the crowd with the legendary line, "Hey Junior, rustle me up another Jack Daniels & soda." Talk about music industry lore. Pictured (l-r): 92Q's Randy Ross, Hi-Five's Treston Irby, Jive Promokingpin and trade shot vet Jack Satter, Poe Cat, Hi-Five's Roderick "Pooh" Clark, Tony Thompson and Marcus "Mac" Sanders and Jive's Michael Patt.

Who Are You Calling Pinhead?

While at the MTV awards, Network Ruler Tom Freston (r) escapes with the only person in attendance who wasn't a boob-jobbed, penis-implanted, demo-toting, ticket-sleazing, too-cool-for-words, actress-model-anything, rock-star-wanna-be, who works days at Bob's Big Boy. Tom is seen discussing moving next year's awards to the Rose Bowl.

Two Debut Strong!

Two new albums that hit the street this week debuted in the Top Ten on HITS Top 50 Singles chart. Public Enemy's "Greatest Misses" (Def Jam/Columbia) comes in at a solid #6, once again confirming the band as one of the very few rap acts that can repeat. Also scoring big out of the chute is the "Greatest Hits" package from Queen (Hollywood), which includes "Bohemian Rhapsody."

Nauseatingly Cute Baby Photo Of The Week

Like father, like son. This is young Logan Light, son of CAA agent/geek Rob Light. What is it about nauseating young parents that makes them want to take pictures of their kids going to the bathroom? Can't you just see mommy and daddy saying such stupid things as, "Look at how absolutely adorable our big boy looks." Puke central folks — time to beat daddy senseless. Understandably, young Logan's role models are the Menendez brothers.

Sony Music Convention -- People Were Breathing

Sony Music held its annual convention in beautiful Toronto, which not only served as a fine host city, but was also useful in teaching all the Top 40 promotion losers that Canada is a country. Pictured jockeying to be closer to the warmth and personality that IS Paul Smith — Photo one (l-r): Sony Music

Quick Hits

The Most Added singles of the week at Top 40 radio are #1 The Heights (Capitol), #2 Damn Yankees (WB), #3 Roxette (Reprise), #4 Extreme (A&M) and #5 Trey Lorenz (Epic). Mary J. Blige (Uptown/MCA) continues to grow and spread behind huge sales.

Goddess Meets Crud

New Imago artiste Suzanne Rhatigan discovers the ugly world of radio promotion, including the familiar ritual of being pawed by a bunch of testosterone-blinded, penis-driven, self-important Top 40 radio geeks. Naturally, WIOQ Philly MD Glenn Kalina doesn't fall into that category — NOT!

Jeff Gets Street

That's ERG's Barrio Boyzz accosting Enemis Broadcasting CEO Jeff Smulyan (c with tie) and his banker Seymour (r) during one of those moments when a Chief Executive has to tolerate the folks who produce the drivel that his station force-feeds to the American public so the station can get ratings and sell advertising to corporations who make profits and donate a portion of them to political candidates who will, in turn, become elected officials who can use their powers to authorize covert operations in small Latin American countries that will enable the corporations to safely exploit that country's vast pool of incredibly cheap labor. God bless America.

Victor's A Schnook

Little did Elektra local Promo moron Victor Lentini know that, when he descended into the Caribbean for an incredibly cheesy, self-promoting vacation trade shot, he'd encounter legendary Arista Sr. VP Manufacturing & Production Milton Sincoff. Besides being much smarter than Victor, Milton's neck offers him much greater buoyancy in the water.

NEAR TRUTHS

By I. B. Bad, Los Angeles

Yes folks, some people were talking about something other than Giant this week.... Hard to get a handle on the situation at Virgin/Charisma. Are the layoffs over? Are there more jobs to go? Answers to come. Amidst all the consolidation, the company continues to search for a West Coast GM and a W.C. Artist Relations pro.... Speaking of Charisma, major interest in former Promodomo Bob Catania. Expect word on a landing pad soon.... Meanwhile, what a difference two years make. It was just 24 months ago that we were writing about a executive vacuum — a shortage of qualified executives for available posts. Quite a different situation exists these days as supply is exceeding demand, subsequently forcing salaries down.... Interesting to note that the announcement of Mel Ilberman's ascension within Sony mentions that Ilberman will be setting up a “management succession plan” — including his own.... Also very interesting to note that Michael Greene and NARAS still have a hold on the Shrine Auditorium for this year's Grammy ceremony. Has MTV's experience caused jitters in Burbank over the massive Forum.... One East Coast company restructuring their Marketing world. Look for some eye-catching appointments outside of the old-boy network.... Look for Dell Furano to jump to Sony to form and helm a new merchandising company when his current deal is up.... Major buzzing around Frank Dileo. What's going on?... Ken Kragen getting the collar for Helen Kushnick's exit from “The Tonight Show.” Will it also cost her the management of client Jay Leno?... Talk about trends. Among the successful lawyers who jumped into the label fray in the past couple of years — Peter Paterno, Michele Anthony, Fred Davis, Bob Flax and Allen Mintz.... One executive's move to restructure is sending many folks scurrying for the classifieds.... Undeniable winner of the Summer tour sweepstakes is Triad and Lolapalooza. Meanwhile, the agency continues to rule the Post Modern/Metal roost, with a roster chock-full of future big-timers.... Great week for Ted Field and Interscope. Marky Mark debuts strong, Nine Inch Nails flies out of the box, Field scores a glowing L.A. Times cover story on the eve of his Hollywood who's-who fundraiser for Bill Clinton, and Vice President Danny Quayle attacks Field on prime time TV. It doesn't get any better than that.... Odd pairing of the year has to be Bruce Hornsby and new managers Burnstein & Mensch.... Finally, industry vet and LIFEbeat founder Bob Caviano succumbed to AIDS on Tuesday. Contributions can be made to LIFEbeat, 810 Seventh Ave. N.Y. N.Y. 10019.... Names in the Rumor Mill: Rosemary Carroll, Jon Landau, Step Johnson, Frank Weber & Paul Russell.

HITS 1, Apartheid 0

Dear Sir/Madam,

The title of your publication was given to me by a contact in the States. I have not seen a copy and would appreciate it if you could forward one for my perusal as well as your annual subscription rates in American dollars to post Air Mail to South Africa.

Kind regards,
Kevin Munnik
Radio Good Hope Stereo
Cape Town, South Africa

Sir/Madam replies: You must have us mixed up with National Geographic. We've decided to make an exception in our longstanding support of the UN trade embargo mainly because you're the first South African to actually write to us. The price for a one-year HITS subscription includes the mineral rights to a Johannesburg diamond mine and an all-expenses-paid weekend for two in Sun City to see Frank Sinatra.

Stiff Upper Lippin

Dear Roy:

I have a knack for calling when you leave the office or are on the phone with another call waiting.

So, I'm resorting to modern methods of communication like this FAX (did I just date myself again?)

Will Ackerman (Gang of Seven, Windham Hill) will be in Los Angeles next week. Do you want to send someone to our office to interview him for the piece we discussed?

Good. I thought so. A good time would be about 2:00 p.m.

Thanks,
Ronnie Lippin
The Lippin Group
LA, CA

Roy replies: Sorry, Ronnie, but the dog just ate my FAX. What was it you were saying?

Portnow's Complaint

Dear Lenny:

Hope all is well. I'm enclosing a press release and photo of Zomba's latest expansion in Nashville, where we just acquired a building which will house our publishing, equipment rental and recording studio operations. It's a terrific facility and we're really proud to be expanding in that market. As always, I appreciate your help and coverage, which is really important to us.

Neil Portnow
Zomba Enterprises, Inc.
Hollywood, CA

Lenny replies: Wow, Neil, all that and outdoor plumbing, too!! Can't wait for that first duet between KRS-1 and Tammy Wynette on the rap/country classic, "I Want To Break Every Bone In Your Body Except Mine."

Infantilism

David:

This is a cute baby — OK, maybe not a baby, but a really cute toddler. Since you refuse to end the nauseatingly cute baby feature, I figure you should use Sam's picture. He is the son of Tracy Gershon (Sony/Tree Music in Nashville) and her husband Steve Fischell (producer in Nashville). Maybe soon you'll come up with an idea for a new feature section. At least you could bring back Juan and Orlando.

Heather Irving
Mercury Records
New York, N.Y.

David replies: He's adorable, Heather, but were the first words out of his mouth, "Gabba Gabba Hey"?

CAMERON CROWE'S JUST ONE OF YOUR TYPICAL MULTI-FACETED RENAISSANCE GUYS — ROCK 'N' ROLL JOURNALIST (FOR ROLLING STONE, AMONG OTHERS) TURNED SCREENWRITER (FOR "FAST TIMES AT RIDGEMONT HIGH — BASED ON HIS OWN BOOK) TURNED DIRECTOR (FOR "SAY ANYTHING" — FOR WHICH HE ALSO WROTE THE SCREENPLAY). OH, YEAH — HE PLAYS A LITTLE GUITAR, TOO. NOW CROWE'S TURNED HIS SIGHTS TOWARDS SEATTLE, THE SETTING FOR HIS LATEST FEATURE, "SINGLES" (AND YES, HE WROTE THE SCREENPLAY FOR THIS ONE, TOO). OF COURSE, NOW SEATTLE IS THE CITY ON THE LIPS OF EVERYONE WHO

TIME FOR A CUP OF JOE AND A DOUGHNUT WITH "SINGLES" DIRECTOR CAMERON CROWE BY GILLIAN GAAR

AS THE CROWE FLIES: "Singles" director Cameron Crowe (r) relives his rock adolescence with Seattle cronies (l-r): Soundgarden's Chris Cornell, Pearl Jam's Jeff Ament, Matt Dillon and Alice In Chains' Lane Staley.

THINKS THEY KNOW ANYTHING ABOUT WHAT'S HIP IN ROCK 'N' ROLL. BUT REST ASSURED, CROWE'S NO BANDWAGON JUMPER. YOU MIGHT HAVE DETECTED TUNES FROM NORTHWEST COMBOS SOUNDGARDEN AND MOTHER LOVE BONE IN "SAY ANYTHING," RELEASED IN 1989. CROWE HAS AN EVEN CLOSER TIE TO THE NW THEN MOST, BEING MARRIED TO NACY WILSON OF HEART, A BAND WHO EPITOMIZED THE "SEATTLE SOUND" WHEN THEY FIRST ARRIVED ON THE MUSIC SCENE IN THE MID-'70S. IN BETWEEN WORK ON SCORING THE FILM (WITH THE REPLACEMENTS' PAUL WESTERBERG), CROWE DECIDED TO WASTE SOME TIME IN HIS HECTIC SCHEDULE AFTER AN L.A. SCREENING OF THE FILM WITH HITS' OWN ONE-PERSON SEATTLE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, KURT COBAIN'S FEMALE DOPPELGÄNGER, GILLIAN "WON'T YOU PARK HER" GAAR.

How'd the screening go?
It went really well. We got a good reception and the music was sounding good. It's always tough, especially when it's raining, to get people to come out, fill out their cards and everything.

What's "Singles" about?
Six characters who live in an apartment house in Seattle, how their lives intersect and how they're basically a disconnected family of single people. It's about people finding connections in their life and taking care of each other. It's kind of a collage.

They don't all end up happily married with kids, do they?
No, they don't. No one gets married.

Oh, that's even better! Is it also clearly set in Seattle, and not just Seattle pretending to be some other city, as is usually the case?

It's very definitely Seattle. "Say Anything" was supposed to take place in Seattle, too.

Why Seattle, other than the fact you live here?
I just always liked the environment in Seattle. It's been a passion of mine to do a whole movie based there for a long time.

When did you film?
March, April and May of '91. It took a little longer than we thought. There are about 250 scenes — I just wanted to approximate the whole experience of when you're single, and the town feels like it's your town, and you go out and meet 20 people in one night and maybe you'll meet 'em again, but probably not. And so there are all these people that basically whiz by, especially at the beginning of the movie. To incorporate all that stuff took forever. Where were some of the places that you filmed?

We were at the Off Ramp, the OK Hotel — that's the place where Bridget Fonda works, it's called the Java Stop. And we were on Capitol Hill — that's where the apartment house is. It was a blast.

Did you get the Space Needle in there, too?

No, I wanted to avoid the Space Needle, except for one scene that I won't tell you about, but you'll know when you see the movie! It ended up popping up in a couple other scenes. It's really hard to avoid, isn't it?

Well, I like the scene in "The Parallax View" where they throw the guy off the top of the Space Needle at the beginning of the film.

That's pretty cool. One of the characters makes a video and she appears along with the Space Needle in an interesting way.

And, of course, Elvis was on the Seattle Center grounds in "It Happened at the World's Fair," though I haven't seen that film so I don't know if you can see the Space Needle in it. How did you choose the specific places?

Most of all, I just wanted to use the environment and do it in a way that didn't feel like we were exploiting the city. And I thought that there were a lot of really good actors up there — not all of them professional. Many of them were musicians, and I wanted to use some of them. I thought Tad was a really great character, and he gets a big laugh in the movie.

Did you know MTV wouldn't accept one of Tad's videos? Which one? "Wood Goblins"? I think it was because of the chainsaw and the way Tad looked.

Yeah, Tad's a unique guy! He's funny in this movie, though.

Who are some of the other Seattle people that turn up?

Soundgarden and Alice in Chains play. Chris Cornell is in a scene, and [Mudhoney singer]

"[MATT DILLON] PLAYS A CHRIS CORNELL WANNABE."

Mark Arm's in there, too. So's Gus Van Sant. Matt Groening was going to make it up but he didn't! Ann and Nancy — the Lovemongers — are in there. And Pearl Jam plays Matt Dillon's band.

He's in a band?

Yeah, he's in a band called Citizen Dick. He plays a Chris Cornell wannabe.

Is it Matt's real voice, too?

Yeah, the one time you hear him sing it is his voice. He got all the way into it. He hung out with Eddie [Vedder], Stone [Gossard] and Jeff [Ament]... they went out in New York together and had a "bonding experience!"

And that was before Matt had even committed to the part. He really got what the character was supposed to be. There's a great scene with the band where they get a review in the local paper. They're having a band meeting and Jeff says, "Hey, check this out, a review of our record!" He starts reading it and Matt goes, "Hey, wait a minute, I don't want to hear anything negative, OK?" And then there's this interminable time while Jeff and Eddie look for something positive in the review to read him. Then it's like, "...other than that, there was able backing from Stone, Jeff and drummer Eddie Vedder." Of course, in the year since we've filmed, the whole atmosphere's changed so much that Citizen Dick probably would be signed by a major label!

When the movie comes out, people will think it's capitalizing on the Seattle scene when actually it was filmed about a year before it took off.

That's why we're trying to get the movie out sooner rather than later. I do feel a little bit like, "Geez, I knew that one or two of these bands might break out, but I didn't expect it to be Nirvana and especially for them to be that huge!" I thought Soundgarden would be the band that would happen first. And I didn't think it would happen so soon. I wanted the movie to have a real private kind of feel to it. It's constructed to be a musical experience, but one that was off the beaten path. Now you get people going, "Oh, it's about Seattle? How trendy."

Just think about those soundtrack sales!

I didn't even want to do one for this movie. Music has become a much exploited commodity by the film world. But this movie was set up from the start so that we had creative control of the music. And there's a lot of scoring stuff done by Chris Cornell and Paul Westerberg that all seemed to come from the right place. Cornell has a real talent for doing instrumental stuff. It just feels so much better than situations where you plaster stuff in at the last minute so someone can put out a soundtrack album.

Musically, this movie was a labor of love, so I'm anxious to get it out there before too much more time goes by.

What kind of music are you listening to these days?

I like guitar-based stuff, and on top of that, R&B and funk. For me, the emergence of groups like Soundgarden and Pearl Jam is great because I like hard rock that goes toward the melodic side. I'm part of that whole generation which came up on Cheap Trick, Kiss and Black Flag. A lot of the bands that are coming out now have all those influences in 'em, so I'm a happy guy.

Have you left journalism completely behind now that you're doing movies?

No, no. Actually, I'm doing an article for Rolling Stone on the making of the movie based on the journal I kept. And I want to do more of that. I really like doing liner notes, and I write short stories. I'm trying to get a collection together to be published. For me, the whole thing flows from writing. It's the hobby that became a job that is still a hobby, y'know? And my heart is really still with writing about music — that's how I got started. Music and journalism is like my first language. Trying to write screenplays is like speaking Spanish or something. Directing is about serving the writing. It sounds bogus to say it, but it's really true. The act of writing is really satisfying. Sometimes it's really frustrating... but when you get done, it's a good feeling. ■

"I'M PART OF THAT WHOLE GENERATION WHICH CAME UP ON CHEAP TRICK, KISS AND BLACK FLAG."

POST TOASTED By Ivana B. Adored

ROMEO IN BLACK JEANS: The events of the past week have resulted in such intense sensory overload that my Fabulon mood ring has turned permanently "clear" from exhaustion. I mean, whoever woulda thunk that one day I would be "hosting" the PoMo record release party for the new Television album at Casa Ivana. It kinda made sense. Richard Lloyd and I are old friends (in the real sense not Lonn-sense of the word), but I didn't know Tom Verlaine, one of my all-time musical heroes! We bonded. I gave him my copies of "The Triumph Of Vulgarity" and "Everything You Wanted To Know About The Music Business," and his cigarette butt is still in my planter. I'll never water that plant again.....On to the next musical hero: Jimmy Webb playing at the Hollywood Roosevelt Hotel. I told him about Urge Overkill's version of "Wichita Lineman" and he was surprised and flattered to hear that the PoMo crowd (no, he didn't say "PoMo crowd") appreciates his songs.....I didn't get to meet Neil Young (another hero), but his acoustic show was a veritable feast of favorites. James (as in the band, not as in Joyce, Taylor, Henry, or "At 15") opened and were ever so swell.....Forgive this unusual display of self-indulgence, but I can't be cavalier about going to see Springsteen tape MTV's "Unplugged." In this case, as well as in most cases, Krim is my true hero, not only for the ticket, but for introducing me to Cameron Crowe. Cameron payed me the ultimate compliment. He said I was a geek. I think I have to see "Singles" again. Best line of the night: Since Lonn Friend introduced me to Jon Bon Jovi (guilty pleasure), he asked me to bring him over to meet Cameron Crowe. I asked Lonn if he knew Cameron, to which he replied, "Of course, he's a big fan of mine!" The mind boggles.....As you read this, Jonathan L.'s new station KFMA is "on the air," in an FM kinda way. Leah Miller has taken the helm at KUKQ, promising all-Posies radio.....Gene Sandbloom is the new MD at KROQ. Most recently a Top 40 big shot at the other tip-sheet in the (818) vicinity, Gene hates alternative music, but his overwhelming desire to escape working in the same building as Brian Boyd has driven him to this desperate career move.....What I Adore: Nine Inch Nails (Trent Reznor is the musical genius of the 90's), Eugenius, Gary Lucas, The Sundays, Chris Harford, and some band called R.E.M.

TODD BISSON SONY RECORDS, NYC

Still reeling from the privilege of seeing Springsteen tape MTV's "Unplugged," paying tribute to Todd, the head PoMo geek at Bruce's label seems appropriate. OK, so Todd had absolutely nothing to do with our getting into the show, but what else would you expect from a registered Republican? We'll overlook Todd's political impotence because at least he knows that Soul Asylum is the best live band on the planet, and we know that he is our best source for tickets. Grovel, grovel.

POMO PICKS

Edited by Karen Glauber

Michael Penn, "Free-For-All" (RCA): Sophomore slump? I don't think so. In fact, Michael Penn's fiercely anticipated follow-up should gain him the recognition and stature reserved for lyricists such as Elvis Costello, Graham Parker and Suzanne Vega. "Seen The Doctor" may be the first hit single ever that mentions Dorothy Lamour, and "I'm breathing but it's become a chore" is the "Romeo in black jeans" stop-what-you're-doing-stare-at-the-radio-in-wonderment lyric, but "Coal," with it's "Solisbury Hill"-esque feel is the highest pinnacle of this LP.

The Jayhawks, "Hollywood Town Hall" (Def American): One visit to this Town Hall and it's obvious why these guys from Minneapolis are quickly topping everybody's "hip list" as the best new band in the land. One fact stands tall and clear, this impressive combo can write a relentlessly killer song. Using Neil Young as an obvious starting point, the Jayhawks travel through impassioned tales of broken sidewalks, broken hearts, lost love and redemption, throwing in bits of the Everlys and Gram Parsons along the way. (Keith Chagnon)

Ocean Colour Scene, "Ocean Colour Scene" (Fontana/Mercury): With psychedelic overtones worthy of Pink Floyd's finest, and the melodic disposition of bands like Big Star and the Left Banke, this midland foresome's debut is as hard-too-catagorize as their name suggests. Simon Fowler keeps things from not getting oh-so kaleidoscopic with his engaging vocal style. Check out Alison Moyet on "Giving It All Away," the beautiful flute on the single, "Sway," and my fave, the gorgeously haunting "Justine." (Meredith Chinn)

Tom Waits, "Bone Machine" (Island/PLG): His first album of entirely new work in nearly five years, produced by himself with half of the songs co-written by wife Kathleen Brennan, "Bone Machine" is a collection of dark, poetic stories embellished by strange minimal instrumentation, all recorded in a shed. Waits did most of the rhythms himself, and employs his collection of old metal and farm junk to create the chilling drum sounds, especially on "Goin Out West." Les Claypool and Keith Richards guest on the album, two fitting contributors to this ominous masterpiece of uneasy listening. (John Harnish)

POMO MUGS

MEATY, BEATY, BIG AND BOUNCY: It's knowing how to treat artists like they're big and important, even before they've made any contribution to your profit-sharing, is why these guys command the big titles, big bucks, and the big mentions in Lonn's column. Big Beat's Steve Greenberg and Atlantic execs Craig Kallman and Danny Goldberg took some time off to take Scottish band Eugenius on a tour of all the places the legendary Bay City Rollers visited on their last American stop-over. You should have seen their faces when they visited The House of Plaid. It was enough to bring a tear to our bonny eye.

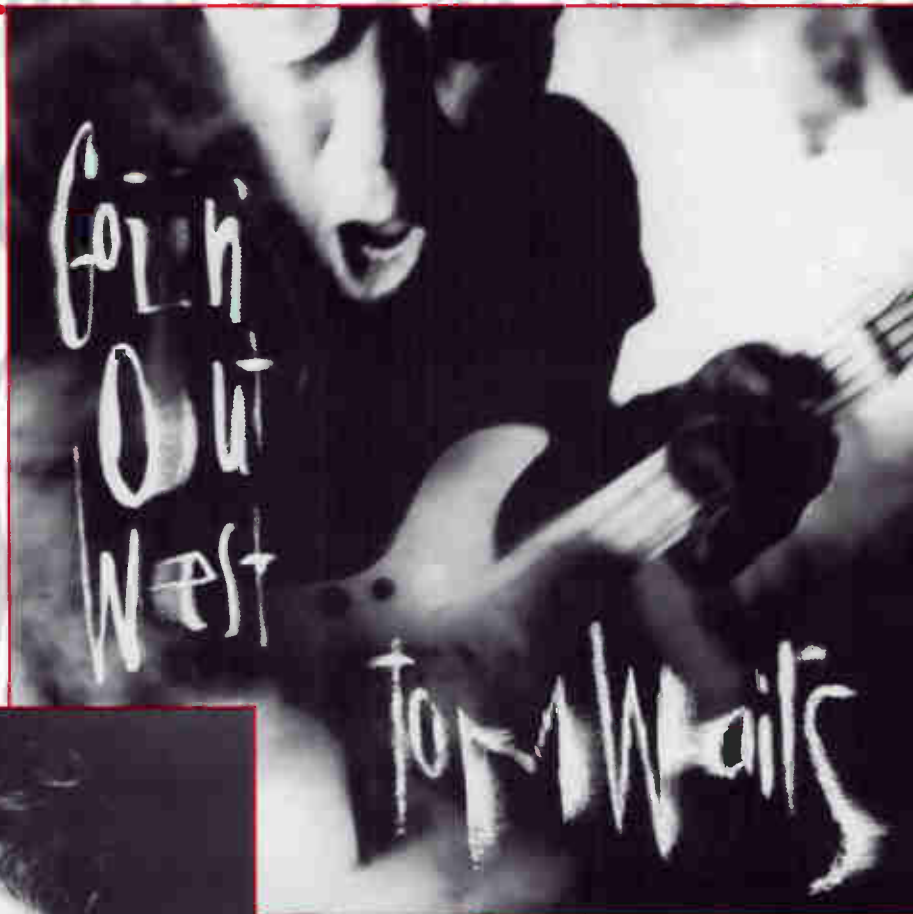

NEIL HARRIS GETS STROKED: After extolling the many virtues of their main booster, ex-'HITS' hack/London Records flunky Neil Harris (especially his creative uses of trail mix during foreplay), LA-based buzz band Wax got a little excited and had to hide their lower torsos behind this convenient slab of wood. And all Worlds End producer Daniel Rey got from the band was the leftover food from drummer Luomis' beard and a live Dead tape from Ithaca, 1978. Some young bands don't know the meaning of gratitude.

HAPPY HAPPY, JOY JOY: When you're an international superstar everybody wants to share their personal hygiene secrets. Here explaining the benefits of daily flossing to Sinead O'Connor, Mike Mena shows off the results of all his hard work. Relieved that she doesn't have discuss anything silly like politics or artistic integrity, or other heavy topics about which Mike knows nothing, Sinead waits patiently for the Xanax to take effect.

PEDDLE TO THE METAL

FRIEND TO ALL

I've spent the last four days absorbing, consuming, feeling and understanding Peter Gabriel's "Us." Last night, Richie Sambora, a fellow two-decade Gabriel disciple, and I barricaded ourselves in A&M's Studio C, cranked up the big monitors and slipped away to a place only Gabe could take us. Gary Gersh, humble thanks for bestowing this one on me early. Be comforted in knowing this is a landmark effort. So deep, many may not get it, but so brilliant, it may well rank as one of the most important rock masterpieces of the '90s. There, I've kissed the frog... Have you RSVP'd yet for the RIP Party Oct 9? You best hurry... The Great Bearded A&R guru agrees with me: Bon Jovi has made a superb record. "Keep The Faith" explodes on radio Oct. 8, with the LP to follow the first week of November... Love/Hate has been dropped by Columbia, but they haven't broken up. Reports are a new guitarist has added a needed "cool" to the quartet... Giant has dropped their edgiest act the Beautiful. This band could happen with a strong A&R hand. Interested moguls call Paul Yeskel at 908-679-9111... Trixter's "Bald" CD cover and promo campaign is great. At least one pop metal outfit is conscious of the Doc Marten-and-flannel marketplace and subsequently has its tongue firmly in cheek... Cameron Crowe's piece in the new Rolling Stone is penetrating. Those embroiled in the Mother Love Bone controversy should read it for perspective... There is definitely a buzz on for Stone Temple Pilots' "Sex Type Thing." Play it!... Congrats to Motorhead for snaking the opening slot on the GN'R/Metallica L.A. stadium dates... Nikki Sixx played me nine new Mötley tracks last week. They're deep, dark, very different and very ambitious. John Corabi's vocal passion is awesome and Sixx's lyrics have never been more reflective. The Crüe hit Vancouver with Bob Rock in November to work on the album, tentatively titled "'Til Death Do Us Part"... Speaking of heavy shit, Trent Reznor's liner notes for NIN's "Broken" EP are cutting. They are also evident of the autonomy Interscope has afforded this gifted artist and his art... Is Anthony Kiedis wearing Shelley Duvall's "Popeye" wig in the new Chili Peppers video?... "Am I Ever Gonna Change?" is the album track from Extreme's stellar new LP. Though it's part of the opus, it stands alone powerfully on radio. I played it last week and the studio exploded... Three weeks to Pebble Beach. Be still my Yonex... Friend out...

OVER THE EDGE

Based on the terrific reaction that Megadeth's Trent Reznor remix of "Symphony" is getting at both metal and alternative stations, it's obvious this is yet one more positive step towards the metalalternative format. We think it's a great idea and look forward to more bands whose music now dictates multi-format exposure at metal, alternative and those Album stations that are brave enough to play something more adventurous than the Eagles. And speaking of Trent, the NIN "Nothing" EP is all there is until March with the exception of a video for "Happiness in Slavery"... Metal formats allow us to flex our muscles and stretch the boundaries of what can be played here and possibly nowhere else both musically and lyrically, giving us the freedom to release the majority of whatever we want to consenting radio and retail. That same freedom allows us to recommend our choices to radio just as radio has the choice of what or what not to play. An artist who releases a record whose choice of subject matters and/or album art are so offensive that two different covers have been created (different artwork, one with lyrics and one without), anticipates a resistance at both an airplay and retail level. The new Metal Blade Cannibal Corpse release of "Tomb of the Mutilated" is such a record. Its subject matter, unfortunately, deals with what's going on everytime another serial killer strikes and it's important to note this is the same subject matter that creates long lines at movie theatres and best sellers in bookstores. The release is already enjoying reorders at retail and we know that whether or not it became a Peddle Pick maybe wouldn't make a bit of difference... but that was our choice... Chante Moore Delivers A...

"PRECIOUS" TREASURE!

Who is Chanté Moore? Folks won't be saying that for long. This Silas/MCA newcomer is exciting listeners with a smooth n' sultry sound made for lovers of solid pop n' soul. Boasting beauty, an exquisite voice and stunning songwriting talent Moore's debut "Precious" is a treasure-trove of musical gems.

Already abuzz is Frank P. Barrow, PD at KRIZ in Seattle, WA, who says: "Chanté is a hot female talent destined to be a hit! Don't let this one slip b'ya." Over in Baltimore, MD, Stan Jacobs, MD at WXYV, says Moore is a winner: "The more we play, the more they request, especially among our male listeners." Mychael Starr, MD at WENN Birmingham, AL, is also hot for more Moore: "She looks good, sounds good, and can't miss. A hit!"

On the retail tip, Josie Beal of Shantiques in Detroit, MI, shouts out that "Precious" heralds an artist with a big future: "Tell the divas to watch out! Chanté is on the scene!"

Louil Silas, Jr., President/CEO of Silas Records, feels Chanté has the power: "Chanté is an excellent vocalist, a talented songwriter, and a true artist with the potential to be called a diva. I'm proud that she is the first release on Silas Records."

Listen up. You won't be satisfied 'til you get plenty more of her "Precious" stuff.

And plenty less of this meaningless drivell.

Research is one of the great Boo! words of our time, right up there with death and taxes, but it need not be. To research a record's appeal or your listener's needs is simply to find out what's up. To observe people in the act of listening is research. To ask folks what they want to hear is research. Do we need this? Of course! One of the big problems I've encountered in dealing with research — specifically focus groups — is in properly interpreting what people say. Often, they'll say anything — and mean it! For example, let's say you're the PD on a straight-ahead Urban outlet playing mainstream R&B and a little rap. You hire a research firm and observe a focus group or two. For the most part, they dig your station, but one or two of them think it would be just perfect if you'd throw an esoteric jazz hour or their favorite public affairs show in the middle of afternoon drive. These are sincere responses from real people, but they're wrong — your listeners are not going to tolerate a departure of this nature. What's the solution? Don't go into a research situation blind. Nor should you be blinded by it. If your station doesn't have the big budget, perhaps a visit to the reference section of your local library would be a good place to start... Musically speaking, Big Bub's "I Don't Mind" (Atco/EW/AG), Mad Cobra's "Flex" (Columbia) and Portrait's "Here We Go Again" (Capitol) are all slammin'! And Sade's new single, "No Ordinary Love" (Epic), may be the best from her yet. Later.

By J.J. Johnson

RUMBLE IN THE JUNGLE ROUND II: Insiders in the camp of Q102's Zulu are hinting that the truce with Power 99's Colby Colb is off. Reason being at a recent Philly record function at the Ritz, rap artist E, of CEB (signed to Ruffhouse; it's members include Cool C & Steady B) stepped to Zulu on a gangster move. But how does Colby fit into this? Once again, when will rap artists figure out violence doesn't get your record on...well in most case it doesn't. Coincidentally, the single scheduled to drop by CEB is, "Get The Point!"... YG AKA YOUNG GUNS: Straight outta Mt. Vernon are YG. Are they the East Coast answer to NWA? At least some think so when it comes to attitude. Furthermore, why are they out to bust a 'so-called' famous re-mix/Producer's Grill?... CHEMISTRY ADDITION: Darryl Lockhardt came to Chemistry replacing Jamison Grillo who jumped to Tommy Boy. Darryl comes from a short stint at Cardiac where he handled National Rap Promo duties... THE UNTOUCH-

WORD!

ABLES?: So what's up with Pete Rock, CL Smooth and Dave "Jam" Hall? The buzzing rumor says the trio is dissatisfied and wants to leave Untouchable Entertainment. Mmmm.... ILL LABELS CORRECTION: It's not called Ill Records, but Ill Labels. They are handling 12" that are going through independent distribution. Even though initial singles will be released on Ill, the artists (and their future projects) are signed to Def American: look for Art of Origin, and Pretty Tone Capone at retail October 6th... NEW SISTA ON THE ROCK: Motown's/BIV 10 street promoter/rap director Stephen Henderson is gearin' up for the East Coast Family's first female rapper, TAM-ROCK. Word has it Yo-Yo makes a guest appearance on the soon to be released LP... Next up: October ushers in the Rap Symposium with 'honorary keynote speaker' Tim Dog (not!)... And a shout out to Richelle Davis at Class and Sash Video Promotions and the baby of the bunch Fruit Punch. 1-4-all-4-1. Peace.

DOWN WIT'...

MIXTRESS BECKY: Jocking for WAGH since it came on-air in '88, Mixtress Becky handles "Quiet Storm" as well as the 7 p.m.-Midnight mega-mix rap show, the #1 and 2 rated programs in Columbus, GA. Says Becky: "People overlook true ratings gold when they neglect recurrents and classic rap. We've added them to the show and soared in the Arbitrons, especially upper demographics such as males 25-49... Many people assume I'm not a DJ when they see me, because I'm tall, thin and blonde. One guy with whom I had only spoken over the phone looked at me like I was a Martian when we met at Jack the Rapper. I've been a mixer for 12 years and I can out-battle most of the gentlemen who step to me. Music belongs to everyone. Just open your eyes." On the strength.

SOFT & WARM

STORM WATCH: Our Mysterious Mistress, Kandace Taylor, is on the make again. This week, we head towards Ada, MI, where our beloved Love Goddess meets up with WKWM PD Lee Cadena. Lee says George Duke's "No Rhyme No Reason" on WB "is the shit!" On the menu for our aural digestion (gulp): the ever-jazzy sounds of Joe McBride and his "Twilight" track on Heads Up; two tracks from (pictured) Ronnie Jordan (sleeping single, "After Hours" and smooth player "Sunny Smile") on 4th & B'way; and the simply soulful "So Easy" from Kiss the Sky on Motown. Those may be the songs of the week, but 4th & B'way's Virgil Simms is still the man most likely to get our attention just cuz. Summer's Audi and so are we. See ya in seven.

Nature provided the inspiration.

She created the music.

Lonette McKee

Watch The Birds

from her album "Natural Love"

As a child, nature captured her imagination. Growing up, she nurtured this creativity as a performer and later received a Tony nomination. Though she gained popularity in such films as "The Cotton Club" and "Jungle Fever," she never lost her affinity with the nature of music. Now, that passion and intimacy have been expressed in her exciting new single and Spike Lee-directed video, Watch The Birds. Watch for it on BET's Video Soul, Midnight Love and Soft Notes.

WHEELS & DEALS

By Steve Pross

My jaw dropped when I walked into L.A.'s Club Lingerie last week and saw 27 A&R and publishing bigwigs in one room to see Australia's Horsehead. Who was responsible for this unprecedented large turnout? The obviously well-respected attorney Jonathan Ehrlich. Among those attending who weren't stroked in last week's column were Patrick Clifford, Jeff Aldrich, Marla McNally, Emily Kaye, Dave Novik, Janet Thompson, Paul Kremin, Art Ford, Rhonda Call, Barry Squire, Judy Stakee, Danny Strick and Dennis Cohen. Of course, Peter Philbin was the first to leave. Even he knew that watching the Dodgers find another way to lose was far more interesting than seeing the rest of this Australian bar band's set... Mass sightings of A&R types were also reported at the Mexican wedding hall Monaco in North Hollywood last week. The reason was Sandy Robertson's newest publishing acquisition, Glory Chain. Matthew Aberle and I agree on this one, but what I want to know is what Irving thinks... Few members of the A&R community turned up for the artistically disappointing "Dimensions Of Dallas" showcase weekend. Among those that got to use their expense accounts in the land of the Deep Ellum were Tom Storms, Mitch Brody, Keith Bailey, Benji Gordon, Nigel Harrison and Kurt Denny... Ran into Maverick's Guy Oseary at the free outdoor Pearl Jam show in Seattle. Was he in the Northwest to catch Imij?... Add Michael Goldstone, Anna Statman and Pierre Vuprag to the list of lemmings making the trek to San Diego to see Drive Like Jehu... Enjoyed Rick Parker's new band, The Lazy Stares, at English Acid... After antique shopping in Ventura, Hugo Burnham and some other players were spotted at the My Sisters Machine show. However the real player in the move to extricate this Seattle act off Caroline wasn't even there... The Cramps. More to come... American Psycho, the band fronted by ubiquitous MTV v.j. Steve Isaacs, have a new demo... Is Caroline's Keith Wood starting his own label to be distributed by Virgin? If so, who replaces him at Caroline?... Congratulations to Human Drama frontman Johnny Indovina as he bails from L.A. for the Hollywood N.Y. scout post... Fred Davis hires Karen Durant for the EMI West Coast urban slot... Eleven manager Steffo Mitakides can no longer be contacted at NEM... Publicist Steve Martin is now moonlighting as an A&R consultant for Maverick in New York... Apologies to all those whose names were spelled incorrectly in last week's column. It wasn't my fault. Honest!... I'm available every weekday after BET's "Rap City" is over for gossip, gripes and news at (310) 281-9618. Buzz Bin: Stevie Salas, Massive, Mean Tangerine, Alison Donald.

Goldstoned

With the lemmings in San Diego.

The Heights

Title
"The Heights"

Label
Capitol

From Aaron Spelling, of "Melrose Place" and "Beverly Hills 90210" fame, comes this new Fox TV series about "young members of the working class who pursue their hopes and dreams playing in a neighborhood rock band." Like the Commitments and the Monkees, the group makes the crossover, with "a sexy lead singer who works as a garage mechanic," "a sax player who's a dispatcher for a beer distributor," the "affluent, beautiful" female guitarist, the bassist who runs a pool hall with his dad, "the creative keyboardist obsessed with street sounds," the drummer and his pregnant girlfriend... you get the idea. Sounds like real life, huh? Several of the cast have played in bands, like singer Shawn Thompson, drummer Ken Garito, bassist Alex Desert and keyboardist Zachary Throne.

Suggested Cuts

The single/video "How Do You Talk To An Angel" is exploding at Top 40.

Comments:

Said suicidal TV talk show host Dick Cavett: "The most electrifying debut I've heard in... What I was saying?"

Mark Curry

Title
"It's Only Time"

Label
Virgin

This shy, soft-spoken 24-year-old acoustic troubadour from Sacramento has a raw, bluesy singing style that is as galvanizing as it is unique. A self-proclaimed "regular guy with a guitar, a dog and some songs" he insists are about "getting hurt and growing up," Curry shows off his streetwise, gallows humor tempered by a childlike naivete on this debut effort. His years playing in a variety of rock bands, which ranged from deathcore metal to gutter funk, infuses his performing style with an aggressive, angry-young-man sensibility. His material is filled with self-doubt and personal loss conveyed with a dry-eyed candor on such tracks as "Nothin' At All," "All Over Me" and the first single, "Sorry About The Weather," a searing look at the ills plaguing modern society that suggests — in spirit — a '90s version of Marvin Gaye's "What's Going On."

Suggested Cuts

"Sorry About The Weather" is using its Buzz Bin status to leapfrog onto pop radio.

Comments:

Said Cavett: "This record is like a shock to the system. Who were we talking about?"

BREAKOUTS

Hot new or resurging albums as reported by the nation's leading record merchandisers

The big guns keep blasting as everyone is positioning themselves for the big Fall to Christmas buying season. Public Enemy tops the list with the "Greatest Misses" set, closely followed by the Queen "Greatest Hits" package.

Marky Mark is back and out of the chute quickly with a hit single leading and Michael Penn is scoring big from Post Modern play. Also note the Randy Travis hits packages, both just out and selling well.

RERAP

By Mitch Perliss

Lots of heavy label presence in L.A. last week with both the Wherehouse and Musicland-West having their annual conventions, the Tower Anaheim Grand Re-Opening and the NARM Wholesale meetings down in Orange Country. New Yorkers who made the trek out to the coast included Sony's Paul Smith, Craig Applequist and Jon Birge. Columbia's Rich Kudolla, Mercury's Jeff Brody and RCA marketing maven Rick Bleiweiss... Is it true that the nation's leading music retailer with no mall presence has decided not to carry the new Extreme CD because the group didn't show up at a scheduled grand opening in-store autograph session and did an in-store at a competitor instead?... And what distribution topper was not allowed to give his speech during a recent retail convention because speakers from the labels he distributes went over their allotted time?... The Royal Crescent Mob, no longer on Sire, are distributing their own CD of a concert recorded live at Bogart's. The product is being handled exclusively by Campus Records and can be purchased by calling Jim Dawson at (614) 771-9222... Navarre has made the following announcements regarding new personnel in their indie distribution division: Carole Glaser tapped as Product Development Manager, acting as a liason between designated distributed labels, their field sales force and the company's customer base; Cindy Chinn moving from Seattle as Mid-west Regional Sales Mgr. with former Tower buyer Diana Young taking over her position. Former Strawberries Ass't. VP Jeff Cohen was named New England Regional Sales Mgr. based in Boston and former Schwartz Bros. and Malverne exec. Joseph Del Medico appointed Mid-Atlantic Regional Sales Mgr. Other appointments included Nancy Fogelman as Southern Regional Sales Mgr. and Sue Manns as the Mid-East Regional Mgr. based in Cleveland... Lots of companies sponsored walkers at last week's AIDS Walk in L.A., with one of the biggest signs (and contingents) from Music Plus... The same stores (read mass merchants) which refuse to carry certain rap product also refused to carry the Magic Johnson/Arsenio Hall AIDS tape "Time Out." Maybe if they got their heads out of the ground they'd realize that they're doing more of a disservice to their customers and society in general by not carrying the product. AIDS is real, guys... Note to Al Davis: Perhaps bad music selection is why the Raiders are 0-3. Each time they have the ball, a different artist is programmed between plays. In last week's loss to the Browns, the only Raider touchdown was scored during repeated playings of Billy Ray Cyrus' "Achy Breaky Heart." Of course they didn't score during three different drives when Wilson Pickett songs were on the PA.

Achy Breaky Raiders

MINI MUGS

STAIRWAY TO HELL: Jason Bonham (second from r) of WTG/Epic act Bonham tries to relax in his dressing room after his band's recent show at the Universal Amphitheatre in L.A. only to be surrounded by the following bunch of executive freeloaders, who ripped off his all-access laminates and forced him to recount old Led Zepplin stories, like that time in Seattle with the mudshark (l-r): The Promotion Dept. President Kenny Ryback, Kiss' Gene Simmons, Bonham and WTG President Jerry Greenberg.

MEATING HER NUMBER ONE FAN: Sire/WB recording artist k.d. lang (l) tells actress Kathy Bates (c) how much she loved her in "A League of Their Own," before Warners L.A. Promo rep Chris Crist informed her she wasn't Rosie O'Donnell backstage after the singer's recent SRO performances at the Universal Amphitheatre in Los Angeles. (Editorial Embellishment brought to you by the National Beef Council: The three then slaughtered a herd of cattle and cooked steak dinners over an open grill.)

BULL SESSION: Columbia Records recording artist and famed trumpeter Wynton Marsalis (l) tells Chicago Bull MVP Michael Jordan (r) how much he enjoyed his old jump-blues records shortly before discovering the basketball star had a buzzer in the palm of his hand. The occasion was the Michael Jordan Foundation/Ronald McDonald Children's Charities Celebrity Gold Championship Dinner in Chicago, where everyone loaded up on Big Macs, shakes and fries and donated the change to such charities as the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Special Olympics, National Cancer Society and the Starlight Foundation.

Most discussed story of the week was the passing of PWR99 Atlanta VP/GM Bill Phippen, who lost his long battle with cancer. Phippen spent much of his time in his final weeks holding meetings with many of his former radio friends. We spoke to some of his former colleagues who told us the following: WPLJ NY's Scott Shannon - "Bill was the sales manager of WQXI in Atlanta when I was there in the seventies and we've remained good friends since. Phip was loved and respected by everyone that ever came in contact with him." WRVQ Richmond's Steve Davis, who worked with him at Power - "He was a man who deeply loved this business, and one who loved all the people in it. I was glad to have spent some time with him recently, he will be missed." Don Benson Exec VP Burkhart/Douglas, who worked with him at WQXI - "Bill was the consummate people person, immensely supportive and loyal. He was always encouraging his staff to be better and believe in themselves. Bill was a GM who sold his station with passion and heart. I'll miss him." Steve Rivers PD WXKS Boston who worked with him in Phoenix - "I only worked with him briefly, but we always managed to stay in touch. He was the kind of person who was always first to congratulate me on a new position or success. His smile and warmth will be greatly missed." Marc Driscoll Independent Production - "Bill was an absolute gentleman with a great understanding for radio as it is today. I hope that he puts on the greatest station heaven has ever heard." IT'S REAL FOLKS!

RETAIL & RADIO O-"BLIGE" MARY J.!!

Cover Story

The first day of fall came this week, though you'd never know it by the temperature at MCA, as the label soared to even higher airplay and sales heights.

Mary J. Blige

Mary J. Blige moved over 175,000 albums in the last 5 days making her the biggest selling new artist in the street. No stranger to radio, Mary J. secured adds this week at Z100, KRBE and MTV, in addition to maintaining her top 5 most requested standing at THE BOX.

Bobby Brown, following the path led by his #1 success at Urban, saw his "Humpin' Around" single hit platinum this week. With his appearance on "Saturday Night Live" this weekend his next single "Good Enough" already on over 30 stations 3 weeks in advance of the release, there is no doubt that Brown is due to stake his claim at the top of the charts for months to come.

Patty Smyth hit the 250,000 album sales mark this week to go along with her gold single for "Sometimes Love Just Ain't Enough." With 5 weeks atop the AC charts, the #1 slot at Hit Radio seems eminent.

Rhythm Syndicate shot down another half-dozen stations including 92Q, KKSS, and KZIO. With top 10 requests at KS-104, POWER PIG, WOKI, KGOT, KKRK, and top 30 single sales to match in Denver, Knoxville and Lincoln, this Syndicate appears to be highly organized.

Certainly much hotter than the non-existent baseball pennant races, SHAI has swept across the country faster than a brush fire with adds this week at KMEL, KS-104, WCKZ and KSOL in addition to existing airplay at WPGC, KBXX, WIOQ and KUBE - this is the hottest BUZZ amongst programmers in the know, and is still a week away from official top 40 adds.

The Ramones launched into their initial CHR week with sales over 100,000 albums, a top 10 alternative hit, and 7 adds including KWOD.

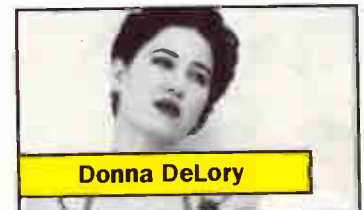

With this much going on and hits in the wings from Elton John, Donna DeLory, E.Y.C., Bell Biv DeVoe, and Trixter, is it any wonder that industry experts everywhere are admitting openly that MCA stands for Major Chart Activity!!!!!!
