Red-hot Death Row ruler "Suge" Knight walks the Dogg this week and comes away with the Big Bone — a #1 debut for the controversial rapper's label bow. The street-smart manager has not only cashed in on record numbers for Snoop Doggy Dogg, but he's also the man behind Dr. Dre's three million plus selling solo album as he calls the shots for one of hip-hop's hottest record companies. Now if only he could find a way to housebreak us.

On The Cover

Death Row/Interscope/Atl. Group hip-hop hero Snoop Dogg proves his sales bite is as good as his bark... while we provide a convenient pooper-scooper in the form of this cover nod.

Guns Hit Bullseye

Guns N' Roses: They're back.

EMI Up

EMI Music reported record first-half results for the fiscal year 1993-94, with sales growing 27% to $1,175 million and profits up 48% to $136 million.

Attributing the figures to the continued robust performance by Virgin Music Group and an outstanding schedule of artist releases, EMI Music President/CEO Jim Fifeild commented: "We have had a strong first half, artistically and financially, with chart successes from a wide range of local and international artists. Throughout our operations, greater focus and efficiency contributed to the bottom line." (Ed. embellishment: Now I can finally afford to order some of those porcelain dolls on QVC from the Marie Osmond collection.)

MERRY CHRISTMAS FOLKS.

This one's for the record books.

"Biggest buy we ever made and most units we ever shipped on a single record. It may very well have topped 'Illusions 1 & 2' combined."

Larry Webb/Music City Record Dist/Nashville

"The Snoop Doggy Dogg album was the biggest debut of all time at the Warehouse!"

Violet Brown/Warehouse/Los Angeles

"Exceeded every expectation! 30 percent bigger than Pearl Jam 4 to 1 over Guns!!!"

Ron Phillips/Valley Records/Sacramento

"Out-of-the-doghouse bigger than Pearl Jam!"

Ron Simms/Abbey Road/Los Angeles

"It's the absolute biggest first-week record that we've ever had. Ever! You line 'em up... Guns' 'Illusions,' Pearl Jam, 'Bodyguard'... Snoop has blown them all away!"

Lew Garrett/Camelot/Canton

PIC OF THE WEEK

Time To Kick The Habit

This is Jive Promo Domo Jack Satter. And you wonder why some priests pay attention to young boys. Jack IS promotion.

QUICK HITS

The Most Added singles this week at Top 40 are #1 Heart (Capitol), #2 Guns N' Roses (Geffen), #3 Tom Petty (MCA), #4 Lisa Keith (A&M) and #5 Kate Bush (Columbia). Also, Celine Dion (550 Music) continues to grow with album sales building.

WILD CARD

DOMINO OUTBURST/RAL/CHAOS

From LA's Inner city & heading straight for the masses, this hot newcomer strikes big with Top 20 Requests at The Box, an add at MTV, and major market action like 19-14 KMEL, #7 at both LA's KKBT & PWR106, Debut 15 FM102, 22-12 WWKX, 25-18 KKFR and 28-21 WHHH. Adds include WHYT, WJMO, KKSS and WJMH. It's already selling big. Ron Geslin & team are slammin' again!

Virgin Hooks Kaz and Brooks

Kaz Utsunomiya "Ding A Ling" has been named to the newly created post of Executive Vice President A&R and Eric L. "Our Miss" Brooks has been appointed Vice President A&R and President of a new rap imprint at Virgin Records by President/CEO Phil "Drawn And" Quartararo.

Kaz will oversee talent acquisition and recording activities for the entire Virgin Records America roster and hold weekly seminars on the correct spelling and pronunciation of Utsunomiya. Brooks will head a new, yet-to-be-named label for Virgin with a commitment to "rap, hip-hop and street-driven music."

Kaz, who has been with the Virgin organization since 1983, was President of EMI Virgin Music Publishing. Brooks comes to Virgin from Priority Records, where he was Executive Director of Promotion and Marketing. As a musician, he played with Larry Blackmon and 2 Live Crew, among others.

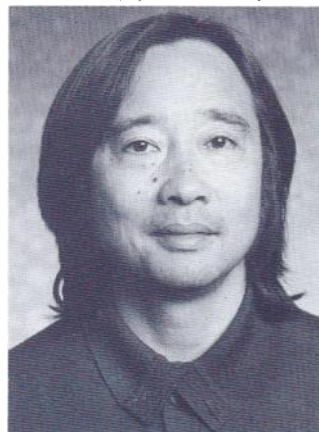

Commented Quartararo: "We're thrilled to have Kaz on board, and will look to him to shape the future of our roster as it continues to grow. (Ed. embellishment: And he's one of the few guys I don't have to stand on my desk to look in the eye.)"

"Eric is totally in touch with music at the street level, and he is able to utilize that expertise in business with tremendous effectiveness." (Ed. embellishment: The guy hustled me for $25 on last week's Dolphins-Cowboys game. Damn that Leon Lett.)

Despite the fact that he has already started his job at Virgin, old habits apparently die hard, and Kaz continued to deny he was taking the job. That wacky, wacky guy.

In other pressing news, legendary Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh remains dead. (Ed Note: Just hadda mention Ho Chi Minh once this issue. Thank you.)

Kaz Utsunomiya: Rising in the West.

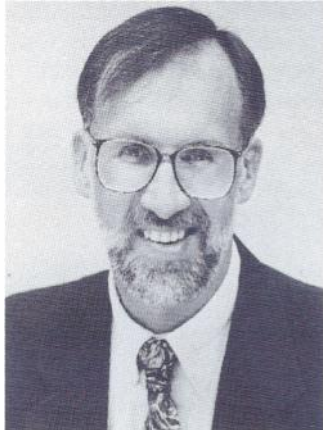

Eric L. Brooks: Thought Ice-T's first name was Lipton.

Sony's Urban Development

Ron "Sub" Urban has been appointed Senior Vice President, Sony Music, by President/Chief Operating Officer Thomas D. Mottola.

Winner of HITS' 1992 award for "Most Riveting Music Business Executive," barely edging out MCA's Zach Horowitz, Urban's duties will include assisting in the management of a broad range of functions in the administrative, creative services, production, advertising and financial areas. (Editor's embellishment: All so excruciatingly boring they couldn't pay any- one enough to do them.)

Ron Urban:
More effective than Sominex.

Urban will work closely with the senior management of Sony Music, including Executive Vice President Michele Anthony as well as the label heads of Columbia and Epic and whoever else at the label can't sleep at night.

Commented Mottola: "Ron brings 20 years of top-notch administrative experience to this position. His expertise in the fields of operations and finance is widely known and respected throughout the recording industry." (What he really meant: He can cut a budget quicker'n you can say Ross Perot.)

Added Urban: "To be able to work closely with Tommy and become a part of the extremely talented management team he has assembled makes for a very gratifying, unparalleled situation." (What he really meant: Hey, this is even better than the stuff the RCA and EMI publicity departments used to make up for me.)

Prior to his appointment, Urban was National Spokesperson for Curing Insomnia.

Two Legends

That's HITS President Special Projects Division and overall legend Charlie Minor, begging industry icon Jerry Moss to please, please please hire him for his new label and get him away from the vermin that infest the Sherman Oaks sewer where he's currently entombed. Jerry opted to talk about the good ol' days at A&M, many of which Charlie can't seem to remember.

What they'd look LIKE IF

YOU WERE ON DRUGS

WB Sr. VP Black Music & Jazz Marketing/Promotion
RAY HARRIS: What the hell are they putting in those bunny pellets, and if anyone gave some to Tevin, there could be a lawsuit.

QUICK HITS

MTV adds this week are Guns N' Roses (Geffen), Boyz II Men (Motown), Tribe Called Quest (Jive), Babyface (Epic), Domino (Outburst/RAL/Chaos), TLC (Arista), Kate Bush (Columbia), Afghan Whigs (Elektra) and Urge Overkill (Geffen). Danzig (American), 10,000 Maniacs (Elektra) and the Breeders (Elektra) receive rotation increases. Tribe Called Quest and Danzig go into Buzz Clip. There are no changes in Buzz Bin.

A Sure Sign Your Career Is Over

Are you an actress wondering when it's time to hang it up and go into cellular phone sales? Simply look at Linda Blair, hanging with mental midget KSOL SF morning man Mancow Muller and understand you've hit rock bottom. How long 'til Mancow's doing mornings in Abilene?

Stern Roll Of The Dice

American Recordings comic Andrew Dice Clay stops by to kiss the collective butts of the Howard Stern show during one of those moments that almost make you forget about "The Adventures Of Ford Fairlaine" — but not quite. ## Iceman Mourned

The great Texas-born, Grammy-winning blues guitarist Albert Collins passed away last Wednesday (24) of lung cancer at the age of 61 in his Las Vegas home.

Collins, the inspiration for such axemen as Eric Clapton and Robert Cray, grew up in Houston's tough Third Ward district with fellow future guitarists Johnny Copeland and Johnny "Guitar" Watson. He became a major fixture on the local club circuit with his trademarked Fender Strat and patented pickless percussive playing style, which earned him the title, "Master of the Telecaster."

Collins' first big hit was 1962's "Frosty," and he went on to record such blues classics as "Don't Lose Your Cool" and "There's Gotta Be A Change," both on his own and with his band, the Icebreakers on the Imperial, Tumbleweed, Alligator and, most recently, Virgin's Pointblank labels. He earned his Grammy in '86 for his collaboration with Cray and Copeland, "Showdown." His latest album was "Collins Mix," released earlier this year.

"It has been a rare privilege to work with someone with so much musical and personal integrity," said Virgin President/CEO Phil Quartararo. "He was special in every way."

Did Dale Pull Trigger?

That's the legendary Roy Rogers and Dale Evans asking Entertainment Tonight's Leonard Maltin (right) if anyone really gives a rat's ass what he thinks about a movie. Roy then looked at the top of Leonard's head and uttered the immortal words, "So that's what happened to Trigger!" That's Rhino's Stephen K. Peeples (l) presenting the couple with a cake and charging them twice the market value for the Rhino box set, "Songs Of The West."

Columbia Presses Larry

"I really miss Larry. It's just not the same since he moved to New York," said our Managing Editor and good friend of the newly promoted Columbia Vice President of Media.

"Yeah, I miss him too," replied his fiancé Jennifer Klein, pulling the blanket over the two of them to avoid the morning chill which permeates the L.A. condo Larry once called home.

Larry Jenkins: Thinks a subway is a sandwich shop.

And with those touching words, Larry Jenkins is officially appointed Vice President Media for Columbia Records by Columbia President Don Ienner, who intends on meeting Larry sometime in '94, and Columbia Vice President/General Manager Fred Ehrlich, who's had a special affection for Lar ever since he got the "two sugars, no cream" routine down.

Jenkins was most recently Vice President Media & Artist Relations at Capitol Records, where he's best remembered for the phrase, "Don't worry Art, they're only rumors."

Prior to that, Jenkins was Senior Director of Publicity at Arista, where he uttered the immortal words, "Of course they're not lip-synching... Fab just moves his mouth funny."

Among Jenkins' responsibilities at Columbia will be finding out what foods Donnie likes and liking them too.

NEAR TRUTHS

BY I.B. BAD, LOS ANGELES

Snoop's record-breaking week provides a nice cap (no pun intended) on '93 for Interscope, which has broken four new platinum acts — Dre, 2 Pac, 4 Non Blondes and Snoop.... As we wind down '93, many labels are re-evaluating their current A&R kingdoms and looking to improve their hands with players who get the immensely successful world of American Alternative/Rock, Rap and Hip-Hop. Look for changes on the horizon.... Many insiders are surprised that the new Guns N' Roses project didn't pull higher sales numbers given the massive first-week digits of the last packages. Speaking of the last album, that's where the new Top 40 single and video is from, prompting the label not to service Top 40 with the new LP. Still, some programmers are playing Guns' rendition of "Since I Don't Have You," which many scream is a smash.... Speaking of Guns, will the band pull the Charles Manson cut from "The Spaghetti Incident" amidst mounting external and internal pressure?... While we're talking about first-week numbers, did you notice 50,000 for the Metallica set, which retails for about $80?... Kaz's move to

Sup?

Jay Boberg: Is Jay rollin'?

Virgin Records leaves a highly coveted vacancy atop of Virgin's publishing company. Who will assume the throne?... What's up with EMI UK top-per Rupert Perry and Duran Duran?... What expensive marketing campaign for a box set has folks inside the label scratching their heads?... Has Jerry & Herb's Rondor closed a joint venture deal ala Interscope with The Atlantic Group?... In the world of management, Vince Neil parts with Rich Fisher and is shopping.... David Lee Roth inks with Steve Barnett and Stewart Young, whose roster includes AC/DC, ELP and Foreigner.... With a BDS-intensive new year pending for indies, Jeff McClusky's management empire is gearing up with US3, Rozalla and Bjork all in play.... Paul Russell, Fred Ehrlich, Burt Baumgartner and Jay Krugman all took the stand for Sony in the George Michael trial, while Brad Hunt testified for the plaintiff. Did he really say under oath that Sony didn't spend enough money on the George Michael project?... EMI Music's impressive recent earnings report placed a lot of emphasis on the equally impressive success of its recently acquired Virgin operations. Said emphasis should go a long way to dispel rumors that Virgin U.S. will be absorbed into EMI North America.... What's up with Jay Boberg? Is he leaving IRS?... Priority re-ups with CEMA for distribution. Meanwhile, look for Metal Blade to ink a distribution deal with the house that Bryan Turner built.... Will Rick Alden still be an indie come the new year or will he jump back into the label fold?... Names in the Rumor Mill: Kevin Gastner, Brad Gelfond, Andy Gershon & Susan Silver.

FAR TRUTHS

BY RACHEL FELDER, NEW YORK

Gangsta Wrap-Up

Sirs:

Rap is not just an innovative form of music (and the only one that is up with the times), it is also a political, social and artistic statement. Rap in the U.S. today is what dancehall reggae is to Jamaica. Although I don't endorse drive-by killings, neither do I urge rappers to become "responsible." To me, gangsta rap is the most responsible form of rap because it expresses reality, which does a service to the ghetto by forcing the established suburbs to wake the fuck up and pay attention to what they are, in fact, economically and forcibly maintaining. Opponents of gangsta rap don't give a fuck about cleaning up those neighborhoods. They just want to deny their guilty consciences the existence of such areas... and keep their kids from knowing how fucked up this nation really is, and how indifferent their own parents are, and in fact the entire Establishment as well, to those who are poorer than they.

If someone tells me the opposition to hip-hop is not based on a foundation of racism, I'll tell them they're too goddamned ignorant to even start to fathom the racist tendencies of the powers-that-be in the U.S. As long as the conditions that breed gangsta rap still exist, I don't want to hear a product of the Oakland ghettos selling fried chicken on TV or fat sopranos with Lennon specs claiming to be "hardcore" and appearing in Run DMC videos alongside Kris Kross to prove it. I'll just keep bumping Compton's Most Wanted, Ice Cube and Ill Mannered Posse.

Peace,
Leighton Woodhouse
Colgate University
Hamilton, N.Y.

Editor replies: Oh.

Godless In Boca

Dear Mr. Trakin:

Enclosed is a recent review of God Rifle's CD from The New Review of Records. This issue was in the "goody bag" provided to all CMJ registrants. God Rifle's reputation, exposure and contacts continue to be increased and enhanced! I will keep you posted on further developments.

Very truly yours,
Audris G. Hampton
Burke & Castle, P.C.
Denver, CO

Mr. Trakin replies: My son sent me your CD and I must say, if you're in the Boca Raton area, we'd love to have you perform for our senior citizens group, but would you consider changing the name to Good Raffle?

Prince of Polyester

Dear Anita:

Hope you're well. We recently had a birthday party for me and the theme was the '70s. Everyone came in costume, including Richard Nixon, Alex of "Clockwork Orange," Patty Hearst as Tania, Earth Wind & Fire and Neil Young. But Tracy as a wild and crazy guy was best. He doesn't know I'm sending this, but if you want to, you could have fun with it.

Take care,
Irma Myers-Donihoo
Sound Warehouse
Dallas, TX

Anita replies: Don't worry, Irma, we've destroyed all the negatives. And he'll never know you sent it.

Beavis & Butt-Head may rip 'em apart and the press may call them Pearl Jam clones, but now that Stone Temple Pilots have sold a gazillion records and performed on Saturday Night Live, even their strongest detractors have to admit they're a force to be reckoned with. Doing the backstage schmooze at SNL were John Sykes, Tom Carolan, Patti Conte, Jason Flom, Bob Kaus, Lisa Gray, Silvio Bonvini, Amiira Ruotela-Largent and husband Lewis, Karen Colamussi and Linda Ferrando. Also there was our own Karen Glauber, who actually got to exchange pleasantries with Tom Cruise (there to see wife/guest host Nicole Kidman, we think). Are we jealous or what?... The night before,

Stone Smash

Stone Temple Pilots:
Lighting up the "Night."

Irving Plaza was packed to see the oh-so-awesome Afghan Whigs. Can we discuss how much of a sex symbol lead singer Greg Dulli is? And how cool his quick rendition of Nirvana's "Rape Me" was? Checking out the band were David Bither, Jon Leshay, Sheri Howell, Patti Hauseman, Scott Byron, Sherry Ring-Ginsberg, Rachel Mintz, Faith Henschel, Dave Sanford and Shelby Meade... We're sorry to hear Sandy Sawotka is no longer at Imago, but we're sure she'll be somewhere great sometime soon... It's almost redundant to say that this week's triple bill of Smashing Pumpkins, Swervedriver and Shudder To Think was packed with moshin' kids. Hanging in the relative calm of the VIP section were Lisa Markowitz, Lauren Zelisko, Joe and Regina Bosso, Amy Finnerty, Steve Martin, Stuart Meyer, Janet Billig, Chuck Bliziotis, Meryl Wheeler, Teresa Ensenat, Mike Gitter (who signed the totally awesome Samian, by the way) and booking agents Kevin Gasser and Lisa Miller... Some of the upcoming CB's anniversary dates we're particularly looking forward to: Helmet (12/11), the Bad Brains (12/12), Sonic Youth (12/14) and the Lemonheads (12/20)... Jonathan Demme's new movie, "Philadelphia," with Tom Hanks and Denzel Washington — featuring a starstudded soundtrack on Epic Soundtrax boasting new songs by both Bruce Springsteen and Neil Young — is heavy, but amazing. And wait until you see and hear the new Wim Wenders movie, "Faraway, So Close," with songs by the likes of Lou Reed... Once again, a mellow diner at Time Cafe inevitably turns industry-spotting central. Among the diners one night this week were Terry Tolkin, Sarah Weinstein, Pete Gambarg and Michele Levan... Records you simply must hear: The new Scrawl album, "Velvet Hammer," on Simple Machines; the gorgeously packaged new Grenadine single and, although we've lauded it before, the Teenage Fanclub's "Thirteen" record. And, while you're holiday shopping, Rollerskate Skinny's import debut, "Shoulder Voices," rules as well — but it should be out domestically on Sire soon... which, if you can stand the wait, definitely doesn't suck.

Severn, MD-born Toni Braxton has been “singing since she could talk.” But because of her strict, religious upbringing (her father is a minister), music always had restrictions. She sang in the church choir and talent shows, but secular music was off-limits. A tenacious Toni still managed to get her musical fill, “sneaking off to watch ‘Soul Train’ whenever my parents weren’t around.”

Tuning in to her love—early '80s R&B—certainly paid off, as Toni, “the first lady of LaFace Records,” has already had two hit songs — “Love Shoulda Brought You Home” and “Give U My Heart” from the “Boomerang” soundtrack — even before the release of her self-titled debut album. Her voice and singing style attracted the famed L.A. Reid & Babyface production team to produce her record and write many of her songs.

Today, the 26-year-old singer is taking a break from filming the Mickey Mouse Club at Disney Studios in Florida to talk about her life and her new album. It's her first time at Disneyworld, and while she's there, she plans to fulfill one of her childhood desires. “I just want to get into the teacup. I've always wanted to as a child, but I've been informed that I'm too big now because it's a children's ride. But I may get my way anyway,” she laughs. She would if she took a page from the book of HITS' never-say-die correspondent “I Once Met A Girl Named” Maria Armoudian.

“I decided to put all of my eggs in this basket and give it a try.”

Didn't you start with your sisters as a singing group?

We were known as the Braxtons. We performed a showcase for Arista Records in February, 1991, but they had just signed TLC, so they didn't need a girl group. They had a female artist position available and offered it to me. I talked with my sisters about it, and they said, “You go do your thing and bring us in later.”

Are you going to bring them on board?

Absolutely. They will be out next year, but I can't say anything else. They're going through contractual things now.

How were you able to attract Arista Records to a showcase?

I met a guy, Bill Petaway, at the gas station where he worked. Bill wrote “Girl You Know It's True” for Milli Vanilli and knew the producer Ernesto Phillips. He had also seen me perform, so he introduced me to Ernesto, and Ernesto put my sisters and me in contact with Arista Records. Before then, I'd been trying for years to be heard. I would sing at the opening of an envelope.

TONI TONI TONI

There was a time when you were studying to become a teacher. What became of that?

I would have been a teacher. I have only one year left to finish my degree. But I decided to put all of my eggs in this basket and give it a try.

Did you also study music?

Sort of. I wasn't sure what I wanted to do, so I studied both elementary education and music in college, although I didn't do very well in music. My mom was an amateur opera singer and taught me theory, but never on paper. It was practical theory. She showed me what to do but not why to do it. So I played music by ear and by memory. I could do that as long as I heard it first. One day, the teacher asked me to play something without hearing it first. That's how she found out. My fingering was all off, too. To this day, I can't read a note of music. I was just going through the motions, even with voice.

Tell me about the songs that you co-wrote on this record.

“Best Friend” is a true story about my best friend dating the guy I was dating. Even though they broke up shortly thereafter, I was devastated. I was hurt by her, but I was much more angry at him because he was older and should have known better. If I saw him right now, I would get in the car and hit him. But that's behind me, and now I'm an adult, interviewing for the position again.

How is the interview process going?

I have found a candidate. Now he has to go through the final screening committee — my dad. I don't want to talk prematurely, but he's a very nice guy and a medical student at Georgetown University. I've known him for a couple of years. I can't say anymore because my dad might not like him.

What about the song, “How Many Ways”?

It's just a happy song. I wanted the album to show various sides of love, not just “Touch me, hold me, feel me.” The song “Breathe Again” is about loss. If this person walks out of your life, you don't know what you're going to do. “Love Shoulda Brought You Home” and “Seven Whole Days” show that love isn't always happy, but I didn't want the album to only reflect sadness, so I wrote “How Many Ways.”

You joked about the completion of the record, saying that it allowed you to take off the boxing gloves. Was recording a confrontational experience?

L.A. and I were fighting a little. He'd say his opinion, and I would disagree. But he won most of the time. We fought over things like choosing the first single and the order of songs on the album, or I may have wanted to sing something over again, and he would disagree. But it was all fun-fighting. In the end, I always apologized and let them do their jobs. ■

POST TOASTED By Ivana B. Adored

IVANA B. SEDATED: The most pressing question of the Thanksgiving weekend was Twilight Zone Marathon or Adams Family Marathon? Spent the weekend "clearing away the wreckage" that is my house, all the while listening to some way-swell advance cassettes for 1994, such as E, Gigolo Aunts, Crowded House, That Dog, Richard Thompson, Mark Lanegan, Levellers, Hoodoo Gurus (new LP produced by Ed Stasium, for a label to be named later), The Grays, Green Day, Ramones, Rusted Root, Luna, The Dentists, St. Johnny and Texas. That's a lot to cram in during the time I wasn't listening to "The Best Of The Left Banke" or ordering extensively from the Tweeds catalog..... Also had a chance to bond with Yon and Armida from KBAC and Mary Moses from KTCL who were all in L.A. with Lisa from ERG to see Blur. Of course, the dinner conversation "deconstructed" into the usual "who would you pay a million dollars to sleep with?" and "who would you most like to see set out on an ice floe?" Their answers will be made available, for a price..... Kevin Weatherly (who added the Counting Crows record because he likes it and because he wanted to and because he can, duh....) suggested that I do a whole column around the proliferation of Top 40 stations "dabbling" in PoMo music. I'd rather wail on the number of alleged PoMo stations who've cut their lists to 20 records! How are amazing records like Morphine, Sun 60, Spelvins, Mazzy Star, Flop, Redd Kross, Kirsty MacColl and Uncle Tupulo supposed to get their shot? What you have are guys who pick through KROQ's list for the "hits," instead of developing a "roster" of core artists for themselves. Hey, do something "dangerous." Add a record because you like it..... How transportive and phenomenal were The The at the Troubador?.....

LORRAINE CARUSO:

Joining The House That Robyn Hitchcock Built!

FOUND OUT ABOUT YOU: We've just been told that Jack Isquith has hired Lorraine Caruso to be his #2 at A&M. For the last bunch of years, Lorraine has been the Music Director at WNEW in New York City, but she's a huge music fan, anyway. Her first responsibilities will include taking credit for the Gin Blossom's "Found Out About You" being a massive PoMo hit, getting 30 stations on the Doughboys record and making sure that A&M still sends her to Jazzfest every year..... "This one's for Johnny."

ERNEST KEMENY SONY MUSIC, L.A.

It's no wonder that our spies caught Ernest in the middle of a siesta - this man never rests! Every and we mean every Sony artist is handled with the same enormous level of intensity, creativity and effort by this Progressive Music Marketing Manager. Plus, Ernie's the King of the Tchatchke, so we always track him down at Sony shows so we can multiply our collection of groovy cassette singles, stickers and other swell swag. Wonder what he'll come up with for Stabbing Westward?

APM PICK

Alejandro Escovedo, "Thirteen Years" (Watermelon): If dreams were horses we would all ride with Alejandro leading the way into the land of benevolence and passion. "Thirteen Years" finds our man using cello and violin to evoke the strong mood of anguish, which prevails throughout most of the LP. But alas, just as things seem to slip into melancholia, the heat gets turned up as Al breaks out the big guns. Assisted by Charlie Sexton on "Losing Your Touch" and brother Will on "Mountain of Mud," the band rocks with a swaggering abandon that makes this LP equal parts tears and sweat. (KC)

BECKY WAGNER WAPS, AKRON

Since going on the air, WAPS has become one of the preeminent public APM stations. We like 'em because they play all the pop stuff we really dig, such as Adam Schmitt, E, Liberty Horses, etc. Plus, our years in the Cleveland/Akron area would've been far more musically coping if we had had a station like WAPS to hear. Becky Wagner is probably far too young to have experienced Akron in its heyday, but she does bear more than a striking resemblance to Rachel Sweet, don't you think?

DORK PICKS

Permanent Green Light, "Against Nature" (Gasatanka): The combined talents of Matt Divine and ex-Three O'Clock member Michael Quercio make for one of the best independent debuts this year. While Quercio's "Summertime" is one of his finest 3-min. pop tunes, Divine's "Something on Me" is of epic rock proportions, showing off his strong Tom Verlaine and Pete Townshend influences. (Chris Carey)

Various Artists, "Chairman of the Board" (Grass Records): Proving that tribute compilations haven't worn out their welcome, this double CD gives an indie-rock nod to Ol' Blue Eyes, while showcasing over 40 underground artists and benefiting NARAL and Rock For Choice. Highlights include the Flaming Lips' haunting version of "It Was A Very Good Year" and Kramer's ultra-psychedelic rendition of "My Way." (CC)

JEFF SPERBER

WBAU, Garden City, NY

Even though Boy Gary is constantly cutting down Adelphi on the Howard Stern show, the music director of their campus station doesn't think that it will have any effect on his social life. Maybe his unsuccessful attempt at hitting on and trying to corrupt the young, beautiful and innocent Sara Gilbert at the Piss Factory/Monsterland show at Brownie's during the CMU convention will give him a clue. At least Jeff (left) can cry on the shoulder of Relativity's Dave Sanford (right).

POMO PICKS

Edited by Karen Glauber

Tony Bennett, "Steppin' Out" (Columbia): Who says Tony isn't PoMo? When the Chairman of the Board endorses you as his favorite singer on earth and you clown around with the Chilis, upstaging even the preposterous RuPaul, you've got the kinda cred that Xers only dream of. The voice that compelled the use of the adjective "silky" steps out with an album that positively glistens with romantic wonder. Cuddle up with your baby and Tony's rendition of George and Ira's apocalyptic "Who Cares," and shine the world on.

Ms-Lum, "Airport Love Song"

(Bar/None): Conceived in a Pittsburgh airport, recorded live to DAT in Hoboken and engineered by Jon Siket (Yo La Tengo), Ms Lum (you decide how to pronounce it) present what may be the freshest, most blithely honest album of the year. Along with the unexpurgated ambient buzzes and pops that accompany this method of recording is the sound of a completely live American pop band creating, destroying and rebuilding their rough-hewn gems in their own noisy, nasally image.

A Tribe Called Quest, "Midnight Marauders" (Jive): On their third album, the Tribe comes correct with smooth grooves, jazzy vibes and rhymes that are, at once, melodic and hard-edged. Phife Dwig, Ali Shaheed, Mohammed and Q-Tip do what they do best—ignore trends and take their music to a new level. Refreshingly, they refrain from rhymes that glorify drugs and guns, and rely solely on their talents as three of Hip-Hop's premiere rappers. Sure to become a staple of any real Hip-Hop collection. (Shannita Williams)

The Killer Shrews, "The Killer Shrews" (Enemy): When Gary Lucas (Captain Beefheart, Gods And Monsters), Jon Langford (the Mekons) and Tony Maimone (Pere Ubu, Frank Black) belt out the anthemic "Don't Let The Bastards Wear You Down," it's immediately apparent that this super-group has come to foment "godless commie pop," as Langford puts it, rather than rest on their ample laurels. Joined in the studio by drummer Steve Goulding (Gram Parker) and vocalist Barbara Manning, the LP brims with a punk rock vitality that almost makes it worth getting out of bed in the afternoon.

POMO MUGS

CHOOSEY STARS CHOOSE CHOICE: At the sold-out Hollywood Palladium "Rock For Choice Benefit," Rage Against The Machine, X, Firehose, Greta and others hung with "Rock For Choice" founders L7, who wore beauty pageant sashes representing four cities where medical clinics were bombed. Audience members signed two giant scrolls to be forwarded to Congress, demanding action to quell anti-abortion violence. Pictured (l-r) are L7's Suzi Gardner and Jennifer Finch, Exene Cervenka, Firehose's Ed Crawford, L7's Dee Plakas, Rage's Zack de La Rocha, Greta's Paul Plagens and Scott Carneghi and L7's Donita Sparks.

AN AUSPICIOUS BEGINNING: Pictured here are the young folk of the industry, the next generation of leaders, who will jump-start American business, carry on the battle for artistic integrity and make the world a better place to live. Okay, so maybe they're just a bunch of obnoxious, semi-literate, drunken punks right now, but one day they'll mature into bitter, semi-literate, drunken industry professionals and make us all proud. Or not.

OVER THE EDGE

Everyone at Geffen can pack up right now and go on vacation till '94. Guns and Beavis debut at numbers 1 & 2 respectively at retail, proving there's life after mass murders and exploding felines. The Manson connection will result in this worthless excuse for a life not only getting royalties from sales, but from the amount of airplay the track is receiving on talk stations across America. We have a list a mile long of where we'd like to see the royalties go, which include anywhere but in his pocket. Metallica "Live" debuts at 6* as well as an increase in sales for "Metallica." Danzig re-enters at 27* and we gotta hand it to American who took a never-say-die approach on this one and it's now starting to pay off. Interesting that with the amount of support it's been getting at the Album Rock level that it took this long to re-enter, but it's also taken that long for MTV to pull "Mother" out of Headbangers and into "Buzz Clip". We'd like to discuss this with Louis Largent, but he must be too busy deciding who he'll throw a bone to by putting their $20,000 video on next Saturday at 1 in the morning. Other re-entries include Tad, who just nailed some upcoming Nirvana dates and Hendrix's MCA release... Airplay debuts from Metallica, which will now also be Top 5 phones for the next millenium; Sleep and Mr. Big... The Organization, who you may remember in their former life as Death Angel, have just released their debut self-titled release thru the Slagel label with guitarist Rob Cavestary picking up the lead vox duties. It's good to see them recovered from both the physical and mental setbacks they experienced from the truck accident that sent them all back to the drawing board in '90. Radio will not be worked until January in order to make sure you guys aren't distracted with things like Christmas, New Year's and the kazillion Bowl Games, tho we're already seeing a few early believers like WXZL... Top Ten Rock at The Box: Rush, Danzig, Suicidal Tendencies, Sepultura, RevCo, Smashing Pumpkins, Primus, Alice in Chains, Morbid Angel, Stone Temple Pilots... Hero of the week: Larry Morris, who's returned to his son's high school to get his diploma... Paw finished their acoustic set at WBCN by uttering every four-letter word they could think of. Colucci has requested A&M's Ken Lucek to deliver Chris Cornell live in Colucci's living room to make it up for the FCC warning..... Mercury's Cheryl Valentine is getting married December 17 on the beach at sunset in Jamaica and none of you are invited, so don't bother asking.

You also won't be invited to Jessica Harley's wedding in Bermuda the following week... King's X's fifth release, "Dogman" is, as is always the case with them, brilliant.

The Guns: All they want for Xmas is visitation rights.

By THELMA and LOUISE

WEASEL O' THE WEEK

STEEV RICCARDO

A&M Records

Los Angeles CA

Does he ever go home? Steev spends so much time living out of his suitcase, it's got its own zip code. Mr. Minister of Good Will and Positive Vibes could rule the world with his smile, not to mention that expense account. Steev-O got his start at Enigma, bounced to Roadrunner, segued to Metal Blade and A&R'd for Michael Douglas at Third Stone. Some of his fave bands over the years include The Neighborhoods, Dag Nasty, Paw, Damn the Machine, Doughboys, Mother Love Bone and Fates Warning. What he loves most about being on the road is meeting new people in every city and visiting every single stinking record store that has a shingle. Just the sight of one his bands getting displayed is reason for a party. Hobbies? Steev's already published one book with another of short stories and poems scheduled for the Spring. An avid Boston sports fan, he makes sure trips back East always include a night at the Garden, afternoon at the Green Monster and of course, being the world's most perfect son, a trip to Mom's house, giving us all the more reason why we love ya.

Mint Condition Is Minty Fresh!

"SWINGIN'" SLAMMIN'!

With influences that run the gamut and a completely individual sound, the Twin Cities' own Mint Condition slam up the charts with the second single from their awe-inspiring sophomore Perspective/ A&M album, "From The Mint Factory." The endlessly funky jazz, soul, R&B, pop and rock n' roll textures send the smash-bound "U Send Me Swingin'" into JAMS stratosphere, orbiting the globe and landing squarely on JAMS ruler J.J. Johnson's head.

In Tampa, FL, WTMP PD Doc Jordann enthused: "Mint Condition sounds like a group that's going to be around for a long time, because they have their own distinctive sound."

KKBT LA MD Harold Austin gushed: "It's already testing, selling and requesting Big Time! Mint Condition delivers a very soulful ballad with tight harmonies and killer production!"

Josie Beal of Shantinique Records added: "These are some talented young brothers who are going places. Do you think they'd take me with them?"

Perspective/A&M's National Director of Promotion and Marketing Iris Perkins noted: "'U Send Me Swingin'" is just what radio and retail have been waiting for."

Here at HITS, we're still waiting for that Pulitzer. Is there a category for "Shameless Groveling?"

MUSIC: Here's more holiday music to check out. First, the re-issues: Reprise presents "Handel's Messiah: A Soulful Celebration" and Perspective/A&M offers Sounds Of Blackness' "The Night Before Christmas: A Musical Fantasy." As for the new stuff, RuPaul's version of "Little Drummer Boy" (Tommy Boy) is really good. "Christmas at Luke's House" (Luke), containing the single, "We Bring You Joy," deserves consideration as does "Spending Our Christmases Together" by the legendary Dells on their own Dells/Way label. As for mainstream music, there's Lisa Lisa with "Skip To My Lou" (Pendulum/Elektra) and George Clinton's "Martial Law" (WB)... RADIO: It seems that a lot of PDs ignore or pay scant attention to the most important programming element besides the music selection—the talent. All talent needs direction. All jocks need to feel that the PD is probably listening. As a PD, my air staff knew they might hear from me at any time with either constructive criticism or praise. Never neglect righteous praise. It gives real meaning to the criticism and vice-versa. Also, choose your words and moderate your tone of voice when communicating with a jock on-air. The idea is not to intimidate to the point of a mental shut-down, but to keep things on track and open. A set of written programming guidelines would help, as would regular (twice per week, once per month, depending) one-on-one air-check sessions. As a jock, I need to know what you want!

THE 411

By J. J. Johnson

RADIO DOPE: Former Perspective/A&M executive Kevin Fleming returns to radio as OM at L.A.'s V103.9. Fleming said the station is gearing up to "get busy." Also at V103.9, ex-KJLH L.A. veteran George Moore is handling weekends and fill-in... Michelle Wright, Donnie Simpson's morning partner on WPGC DC, is now doing a weekend "Fly-Jock" thing at WBLS New York. Her regular shift at 'BLS is the Saturday midday "Thunder Storm"... Houston radio legend Wash Allen is now doing his Saturday night "Dusties Party" for the ABC Radio Network's "Urban Gold" format, in addition to his daily KCOH duties. It's a big remote with Wash supplying personality from Houston and ABC Radio studios in Dallas supplying the music... Ex-KJMZ MD AI B. Badd has been entertaining a number of radio offers but is unable to make a move at this time. It seems he was involved in a Thanksgiving auto accident and will be confined to a Dallas hospital for the next month or so. JAMS' best wishes

The Independent Label Coalition (ILC) held its First Annual Summit at L.A.'s Sheraton Universal Hotel to discuss the state of the industry and the future of independents. King also announced the formation of a Code Of Ethics Committee to protect artists signed to independent labels... IN THE MIX: Yvonne St. John, Rob Simone, Eddie Sims, Jackie Galloway, Big John Monds.

SOFT & WARM

STORM WATCH: This week, our Storm Siren Kandace spent a crisp Fall day with WTCC Springfield, MA MD James Lewis and learned what's keeping his nights warm. James likes the vocals on 7669's "Tick Away" (Motown), and noted: "It's a great mid-evening song to sit back and let time tick away." He called Riff's "There'll Never Be" (EMI/ERG), "A classic remake of Switch's song!" Finally, Mr. Lewis spins Portrait's "Be Thankful For What You've Got," from the "Addams Family Values" soundtrack (Atlas/PLG), because: "It's another great remake and gives you a taste of what to expect from Portrait in '94."... KJLU Jefferson City, MO PD Jory Spears (pictured) recommends Mariah Carey's "Anytime You Need A Friend" (Columbia) and Tony Toni Tone's smash "Pillow" (Wing/Merc.).

FLIX

HEY, JOE, WHERE YOU GOIN'?: Imagine the surprised look on the faces of the citizens of Joe, Montana when Mercury's Joe (center) showed up with the Hi-Five posse at a recent ceremony honoring the renaming of the town after football legend Joe Montana. Never ones to pass up a marketing opportunity, the citizens later named Joe their new sheriff.

THE BUTLER DID IT!: One reason recording costs are sky-high is that artists goof off instead of laboriously slaving away at their craft like the hard workers at HITS. Caught in the act are Mercury artists Vanessa Williams and Jonathan Butler, along with producer Jerry Brown. Butler is seen imitating Eckstine when he got hit with the bill. Williams and Brown were not impressed... 'cause the money's really coming out of their pockets.

SOUL TRAIN BREAKS THE BANKS: Supermodel Tyra Banks is seen brightening up the set of "Soul Train," in addition to giving some semblance of life to deadbeats JT Taylor and "Soul Train" executive producer Don Cornelius. JAMS Editor J.J. Johnson was supposed to be in the photo, but Banks was adamant that this was as low as she'd go.

THREE THUMBS-UP: In a split vote over the hotly debated NAFTA issue, Warner Bros.' Gary O'Neal, Frankie Beverly and Hank Spann vote thumbs-up, so long as their useless jobs don't go south. Voting nay on the issue are KKBT MD Harold Austin, APD Michelle Santosuosso and PD Keith Naftaly who, acting like a real congressperson, just woke up for the vote.

BY LENNY BEER & MICHAEL ST. JOHN

Flash: at presstime it was learned that KGGI Riverside's Mike Marino has nailed down the much-coveted KMEL SF APD job.....The purchase of KKLQ A/F in San Diego by Par Broadcasting is finally complete. Look for the AM to change calls to the legendary KOGO in early '94 with a change from simulcasting the FM to an information and talk lean.... Word out of Secaucus and Z100 has new morning man John Lander scheduled to begin with the New Year. He'll be heard in the interim stunting throughout dayparts. Also congrats to John and wife Patty, who have recently adopted a child. Many wonderers are wondering where morning co-host Ross Brittain fits into the new scenario!!..... HOT97 NY has named MTV's Doctor Dre & Ed Lover as their new morning team..... Also in the Big Apple, PD Shirley Maldonado of WQCD is out.

No replacement is named. MD Steve Williams will continue as record company liaison.... Sports fans in LA are lamenting the probable loss of 24 hour sportstalk KMPC in a sale to Cap Cities/ABC. Most people expect the new owners to move the station to a more "general" talk slant.... Top 40 radio is buzzing again about two new Post Modern crossovers. The Breeders' "Cannonball", which is selling lots of albums and cookin' in the MTV Buzz Bin, and Kate Bush's "Rubberband Girl" with a great first week of radio acceptance and an MTV Add to boot..... Special editor's note: Has 2Pac committed any crimes while you've been reading this column? Hey, just asking!..... B94 Pittsburgh PD Buddy Scott adds OM duties for sister station WQKB.... We hear there's a lot more to the Chris Collins/FM102 Sacramento story than meets the eye. Stay tuned for potential fireworks..... At KGGI Riverside, former KIIS-FM Los Angeles jock Hollywood Hamilton signs on for mornings and ends the station's long search.... WPGC Washington adds Mike Love from WBLS New York for afternoon

Newly named KMEL APD Mike Marino and KGGI Riverside's Bo Corona hang with Motown's Dawn Fox and hot recording act Zane. Isn't that exciting? Is it Christmas holiday yet?

elton john's "true love" is outselling singles from billy joel, jimmy cliff, joshua kadison, phil collins,

john mellencamp, kenny g
prince, gin blossoms

the single is an "airpower" this week on the top 40/adult airplay monitor, and the album "duets" outsold "the one" in its debut week—and is already platinum don't you think its about time you responded to what the public is buying?

oh yeah, and that group shai debuts on the crossover monitor at 35* and picks up 5 more stations—don't forget this band has had 3 straight top 10 singles in case you slept through thanksgiving—tom petty is the most played rock record in the country behind pearl jam and picked up more than 50 stations this week the album is almost platinum and we've sold over 170,000 albums over the counter in the last 2 weeks

thanks for paying attention

MCA.
