R.E.M. Now Departing Gate 95

Okmin Leaves FBI For The MOB

After more than four years at F.B.I., Mitch Okmin left the agency January 17th to start his own company, The Mitch Okmin Booking Agency. Okmin's debut roster includes Acetone, The Blue Aeroplanes, Ecoteur, No Doubt, His Name is Alive, Kristin Mooney, Pusher, Red House Painters, The Spanking Violets and The Suburbs. Okmin also expects The Boo Radleys, Dread Zeppelin, Pale Saints and Peter Himmelman to follow him although F.B.I. may fight to keep several of the acts on its roster. Okmin got his start in the music business when he spent nine months in 1987 working in the Triad mailroom. That was followed by two years as an assistant to Marc Geiger and one year assisting Frank Riley. You can get connected with the MOB by calling (310) 202-0757 or fax (310) 202-8391.

A Theatrical No-No At Yo-Yo Show

A 7-foot-tall, ground-based lighting tree loaded with two rows of theatrical lights tipped over injuring three people moments before cellist Yo-Yo Ma was to perform at Yale University's Woolsey Hall January 19th. Two of the injured were taken to the hospital and treated for head cuts. Despite the incident, the show went on with the 18-time Grammy award winning cellist taking the stage about 40 minutes late.

The Concert Industry Awards Party

Tickets are selling fast for the February 4th Concert Industry Awards Party at the House Of Blues in West Hollywood. With the CIC's Reinventing The Business seminar (see schedule on page 3) long since sold out, it now appears that, for the first time in its six year history, the awards party will also sell out. The Ogden Entertainment sponsored party begins at 7 p.m. with food, drink and no-holds-barred power schmoozing of the GA room. In addition to Jambalaya, corn bread and Mississippi catfish bites, the HoB menu will also include Bangkok Thai Sticks with spicy peanut sauce, turkey, pastas, fajitas, a variety of desserts and much more. The awards show hosted by Bobcat Goldthwait will start at about 8:45 p.m. The list of awards presenters is still being finalized but we are pleased to announce that Graham Nash will present this year's Bobby Brooks Award for Booking Agent Of The Year. The awards show will be followed by two showcase performances. MCA Records is presenting Todd Snider and Virgin Records is showcasing

Hunts Man Searches For Appeal

Pat-down searches that were made by a private security company at a Neil Young concert held at the University of Utah's Huntsman Center in 1991 were, once again, found to be legal by an appeals court. Both federal and state judges have concluded that the searches were not illegal because they were not a state action. Attorney Brian Barnard, who continues to appeal the case, argued that university involvement made the searches a state

Todd Snider

Todd Snider is this blond-haired surfer looking dude whose music takes you by surprise. You would think a Southern California alternative or Seattle grunge sound would come from his band's debut, Songs For The Daily Planet. But the only thing alternative about Snider's sarcastic songs is the fact they are an alternative to the surplus of tunes recorded by sound-alike bands that make up a large portion of the contemporary music world.

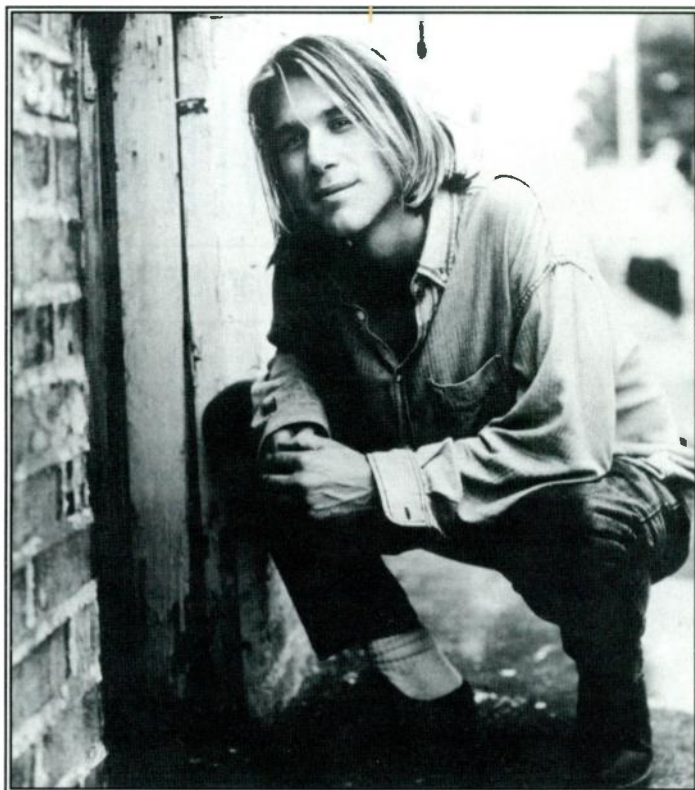

Snider's debut on Margaritaville Records/MCA demonstrates a style of southern-tinged rock that you could plain and simply say is folk. Others would call it country. Comparisons to Snider's musical and lyrical style can be as varied as Bruce Springsteen meets Bob Dylan meets Steve Earle. But comparisons are neither accurate nor fair yet they do help get across the essence of Snider's genre-blending sound without the benefit of actual audio-bites. Snider's music is the kind of stuff that might be too twangy for some rockers and, at the same time, too rockin' for some country fans, which is a difficult place to start. But that's where Snider and company started — and they started without any expectations for fame.

Despite wanting to learn how to play guitar, Snider never intended to be a musician by profession. "I went and got a guitar because I wanted to know how to play the guitar, not because I wanted to be a rock dude in a rock band," Snider said. "And I made up songs because I wanted to have songs to sing, not because I wanted to make records that sold a bunch. And I still sing songs because I like to communicate and play with my band, not because I've decided that I'm going to be a singer and that's what I need to do. It's not a very goal oriented thing for me."

When pressed about how a guy who never pursued a recording career ended up with a major label deal, Snider is left practically speechless in his humility. "I wish I knew the answers to these kinds of questions," he said. "I make up songs and I sing. I really don't think about business. Maybe that's why things are going well. I just let them happen to me."

Snider's guitar playing and songwriting led him and his band down the trail to Nashville even though he hadn't deliberately pursued that path. "I was playing the guitar for six months maybe when it started to be my trade. I did that in Texas and then I went to Memphis and played in clubs there for a long time. I ended up staying in Memphis [even though] I was headed towards Nashville which I decided to never do." Though the singer doesn't actually live there, Snider's business is based out of Music City including his manager, Lynsey McDonald of Magnolia Way, and his agents Steve Hoiberg and Tim Kyne from Monterey Artists.

Snider told POLLSTAR he and his band never thought their music would be able to find a home on radio. "Everybody told me that unless it had a really soft verse that went into this screaming chorus, nobody cared." But that observation was wrong. The first single, a sneak track called "Talkin' Seattle Grunge Rock Blues," has surfaced on radio stations across the country. The song, with its "herd mentality" message coupled with its simple guitar, harmonica and vocals, is a perfect example of Snider's ability to observe tidbits in pop culture and turn them into songs that cleverly touch your ear, your intellect and your funny bone. Snider's insightful lyrics move across one's brain like pictures from the American scrapbook with an Americana soundtrack to match. The 28-year-old songwriter takes a look at his generation and the world around him and puts his wise ass observations into songs that defy categorization.

Some artists are warned about recording music that can't easily be put into a genre or radio format. As a matter of fact, Snider had signed a six-month development contract with another major recording company but was dropped because he wouldn't burn his bridge between country and rock. "They just thought I either needed to rock or twang or shut up." Having people say they don't know where to put Snider's music is a compliment in this artist's book. "I suppose if that ends up harming us in the long run, I don't [mind]. We're still going to be thankful that we made the music that we did."

And Snider is thankful for all the people that lined up behind his career. The folks at Margaritaville are high on his list of those to receive kudos, as is MCA's Bruce Hinton and Tony Brown, who with Michael Utley produced Snider's record. "They've just totally supported me doing whatever I want to do," Snider said. "I don't know what has possessed them to do this or why they've decided to trust me for some God-forsaken reason but they are and I'm having a good time."

Snider is on a club tour until the end of March and has some irons in the fire for something bigger later in the year. He and his band will perform a showcase set at the upcoming Concert Industry Awards party at the House of Blues in Los Angeles February 4th. No one at POLLSTAR was really familiar with Snider at the time MCA Records made their deal to showcase him at the awards party. But a subsequent listen of his debut CD resulted in a near instantaneous recognition that this was an artist of true talent and someone who deserved broader recognition. ★ action. He has also objected to the policy of targeting only certain music fans for searches. "If you were to go to a Lawrence Welk concert, you wouldn't be frisked," Barnard said. "It's a presumption that given your taste in music, you must be a criminal." Barnard, who sued the university, the manager of the Huntsman Center, promoter United Concerts, and the security firm, Contemporary Services Corp. is continuing to appeal the case.

The Lovely Ms. Crow Flies In Canada

MCA Concerts Canada's Jason Miller gets the hug others can only dream of from Sheryl Crow following her sold out December 19th concert at the Commodore Ballroom in Vancouver. Crow had just been presented with a double platinum award for sales in Canada, her first double platinum to date.

The Bunny Hop

After a week filled with reports of shake-ups at the top of Warner Bros., Danny Goldberg announced January 24th the long rumored executive changes at the company. Steven Baker, who is currently VP of product management, will become Warner Bros. president. Sire VP/GM Howie Klein will become the president of Reprise, and senior VP of creative services Jeff Gold will move into the GM position at Warner Bros. Reprise senior VP, director of promotion Rich Fitzgerald will assume GM duties at Reprise. Goldberg had to move quick to squelch rumors of a major purge transpiring at the Bunny following the departure of senior VP/GM of black music Benny Medina and VP/GM of jazz and progressive music Ricky Schultz. Goldberg, reportedly responding to a Hollywood Reporter story, issued a memo January 13th to assure his executives and staff that large employment cuts are not forthcoming. Goldberg also demanded and received a retraction from the publication which had reported that major cuts were expected as part of a Bunny exec overhaul.

David Cole

David Cole, 32, died January 24th due to complications arising from spinal meningitis. Cole and his partner, Robert Clivilles, were at the forefront of the 90s dance music scene. The duo received Grammy album of the year honors last year as producers of The Bodyguard soundtrack. Cole and Clivilles also made up the core of C+C Music Factory, which won 28 awards during its existence including five American Music Awards and two MTV Video awards. Cole and Clivilles also produced recordings by Whitney Houston, Mariah Carey and many others. Cole first teamed with his partner playing keyboards live as Clivilles mixed the music at dance clubs in New York. They went on to record a gold record for A&M's Vengeance Records with their girl group Seduction but would always return to their roots, making regular appearances behind the boards at the hottest Gotham nightspots.

No Sweat On New Year's Eve

After taking the heat for a failed New Year's Eve concert, UIC Pavilion officials are taking measures to make sure that promoters who rent the Univ. Of Illinois-Chicago facility in the future have the financial resources to put on the show. The issue surfaced after a New Year's Eve concert was canceled when headliner Keith Sweat did not take the stage because of problems with getting paid by promoter Reggie Norman of Concord Entertainment. UIC Pavilion spokeswoman Toshiye Yokota told POLLSTAR there was a secondary problem with the labor unions getting paid, as well. She said the equipment wasn't in place for Sweat to perform and everything was at a standstill before the plug was pulled. Though the other acts on the bill, Blackstreet, Silk and Aaliyah, played, the venue still ended up giving refunds to everyone. And Yokota said the venue, rather than the promoter, ended up taking care of the numerous complaints from unhappy concertgoers. She said, "Whenever there's a complaint about the quality of the show, we refer [concertgoers] to the promoter. And in this case, many people wanted to speak to somebody to get some kind of satisfaction. Apparently, [Norman] was inundated with calls and so he disconnected his phone and was virtually impossible to reach by the general public." Since Norman made himself unavailable, Yokota said the venue felt obligated to compensate the public. She said, for

 NEC ARENA, SYMPHONY HALL AND NATIONAL INDOOR ARENA ARE ALL MEMBERS OF THE NEC MANAGEMENT GROUP

U.K. News Report

(London) The seemingly never-ending saga of WEMBLEY's financial woes has taken an interesting turn with the recent revelations in The Sunday Times, that the bid on the table from American investors Apollo, is in fact backed jointly by the SONY/BLOCKBUSTER/PACE partnership. If this bid is ultimately accepted it would cause quite a stir. The Sony/Pace partnership already operates the 60,000 capacity National Bowl at Milton Keynes, which competes for most of the same outdoor shows as Wembley. It would also place the control of the UK's foremost outdoor concert venue in the hands of an American company, which, in terms of nostalgia alone would ruffle a few feathers - the stadium is an icon in British soccer. Add to this a deep rooted suspicion harboured by British promoters and venue operators, that American venue management companies ultimately want to shift the balance of power in the UK market and promote shows directly in our venues, and you can see how the plot thickens with this latest bit of news..... The ROLLING STONES have gone on sale with a second Wembley and are about to announce a third one in the not too distant future, I am told..... Meanwhile, "the artist formerly known as PRINCE" has finally decided to tour the UK. A March arena tour went on sale two weeks ago. Despite coming very close to appointing John Giddings at Solo ITG as agent last year, the appointment of CAA in the US means the tour has been booked directly and is being co-promoted by Barry Clayman, Harvey Goldsmith and Danny Betesh. Seven additional shows have been added since the tour was announced - it's selling really fast, even with tickets priced at £27.50. Apparently European audiences will be the first to hear new material from his controversial "Gold Experience" album - the word is that he will stay on the road until Warners "liberate the album" contractually..... We are barely into 1995 and there have already been a few interesting upheavals. Primary Talent has lost its second hot agent in 12 months with the departure of IAN HUFFAM to ICM Fair Warning / Wasted Talent. Huffam takes 18 acts with him, including Blur, Nick Cave and The Bad Seeds, Youssou N'Dour, Jesus Jones and the subject of this week's media hype, Menswear. Huffam says: "I had been at Primary for a long time and I was excited by the new possibilities of the set up at FWWT and my artists were as well." It is a hefty blow to the Primary team which lost David Levy to ITB last year. Some say Primary's potential to attract new bands, particularly from the US, is being eroded as other agencies are gaining strength from transatlantic partnerships and the enlarged rosters this gives them. There is a fair amount of speculation as to what steps Primary will take to reinforce its position in the agency world. Will they do a US deal and with whom...? STEVE HEDGES, joint managing director, is not giving any clues but he did say: "It was sad to see Ian go after eight and a half years. I think he developed well within our structure. Headhunting agents and corporate acquisitions seem to be growing issues in the agency world. An agent can build up a roster of acts as the "visible" end of a whole team of people within an agency and then expect to be able to leave when he gets a better offer, taking those clients with him. This doesn't seem fair to the other people in the office - who've probably worked equally as hard on those acts - or the company itself which is perceived to be "taking a knock," when it should be being congratulated for providing the basis for the development of those artists." In the meantime, new signings at Primary are Misty Oldland and Secret Life, represented by Dave Chumbley, The Clementines, signed by Andy Wooliscroft and Ben Winchester has just taken on new Island act, Tricky..... It's awards season again, with the BRIT NOMINATIONS now public property. The ceremony takes place on 20th February, with confirmed live appearances from Madonna and Elton John, who is up for a "Lifetime Achievement Award."..... We also just had the NME-sponsored BRAT AWARDS, started last year as a scathing alternative to the BPI-organised, high-profile Brits. Curiously, both awards have nominated many of the same artists, so who's more alternative now? Blur won the NME's best album and single of the year categories and Oasis took the best new band award and best single, with Paul Weller figuring as best solo artist. All three are nominated for Brits too. The NME also sponsored a seven-date Brat Bus Tour leading up to the awards, showcasing new talent around the country..... OASIS have already made plans for their first arena experience. They play a one-off date at Sheffield Arena on April 22, which sold out in a week. It's a pretty big step, when you consider that a year ago they were virtual unknowns..... Other arena tour announcements include FOREIGNER and the DOOBIE BROTHERS, who are playing six dates around the UK, promoted by MCP..... The Riverman-Brixton Academy partnership future shows, the venue will require promoters to post a performance bond or letter of credit. For now, Yokota said the venue is taking no legal action against Norman. She said, "We're trying to straighten out our financial relationship with him and we're giving him some time to do that."

You Might Be A CAA Agent If...

It's time for another celebration since this party for comedian Jeff Foxworthy was to honor the recent gold certification of his Warner Bros. album, "You Might Be A Redneck If..." Since the photo was taken, the album has gone platinum. Back row (L-R) Mike Smardack, Outback Artists; John MacDonald, Cellar Door Concerts; John Huie, CAA; and manager J.P. Williams, Parallel Entertainment. Seated (L-R) Rod Essig, CAA; Pamela "Gregg" Foxworthy; Jeff Foxworthy; and Debbie Shaler, Parallel Entertainment.

Pros On The Move

After more than five years with Madison Square Garden, Wayne Sharp is leaving his VP position to go to work for Wilkins Management. Sharp said that he's done about everything he could dream of doing at the Garden and the offer to go into artist management with Ann Marie Wilkins would've been tough to turn down. Sharp will be working with all of Wilkins' clients including Harry Connick Jr. and Branford Marsalis. He leaves the Garden on February 17th and starts his new job in Boston on the 20th..... Chris Dalston has joined the agent roster at CAA's Los Angeles office where he is responsible for international tour bookings. Previously, Dalston spent seven years at Triad Artists and then went on to become VP of international bookings at William Morris where he worked for the last two years. Dalston has considerable experience booking Europe, South America and Southeast Asia and his hiring is expected to mean that CAA will be booking more of its clients on a worldwide basis..... Randy Garelick has been named a VP at Left Bank Management's new NYC office where he will be in charge of the touring department. Garelick has spent the past two years at Metropolitan Entertainment..... Barry Bell has been made a VP at Premier Talent Agency. Bell has been with Premier since 1977 and is the responsible agent for Bruce Springsteen among other acts..... Jeffery Chelesvig has been named GM of the Des Moines Civic Center following the retirement of Gordon Smith after 11 years with the venue. Most recently, Chelesvig was GM of the Bayfront Center in St. Petersburg..... Jeff Cohen has been hired as the new music and marketing director for the El Mocambo club in Toronto. Cohen previously worked for The Agency..... Former F.B.I. agent Rick Shoor and his partner Bob Waxman have launched Buzzsaw Records, a new indie label in NYC..... Jon Leshay has been named senior VP of special projects at Columbia Records in New York. He was most recently senior VP of promotion at Elektra.

While My Bank Account Gently Weeps

George Harrison is suing his longtime business manager accusing him of living the high life at the former Beatle's expense. The $25 million suit claims Denis O'Brien "enriched himself and lived on a lavish scale at Harrison's expense, buying yachts and villas in various parts of the world, while Harrison suffered enormous losses." The suit, which was filed January 20th in Los Angeles Superior Court, says O'Brien subjected Harrison to "massive economic risks and losses" during their 20-year partnership. Harrison's lawyer said the entertainer didn't check up on O'Brien's activities because he relied on and trusted him.

Numb Newton

A federal judge approved a plan to get Wayne Newton out of bankruptcy. Under the plan, unsecured creditors who are owed more than $22 million will receive between $2.3 and $3 million over five years, beginning in five years. And the IRS agreed to allow Newton to pay $49,000 per month in owed taxes over the next four years. "I'm numb," Newton said after the January 20th hearing. "We couldn't be more thrilled."

Privatizing The Garden State

The New Jersey Highway Authority is moving forward with the taking of bids from private companies to operate its 10,802-capacity Garden State Arts Center. Officials say the change would be the most significant privatization yet undertaken by the state of New Jersey. Representatives from nearly two dozen companies including Six Flags, Metropolitan Entertainment, the Marriott Corp. and Spectacor Management Group were on hand for a mandatory conference January 23rd to discuss possible bids for the takeover and improvement of the facility. Ideas for the arts center, which "has now become a dinosaur" since its opening in 1968, can range from building a new amphitheater or expanding the existing one, running both the amphitheatre and adjacent reception center, operating just one, or keeping things the same. A spokesperson said the Authority wants the successful bidder to take control of the complex for the 1996 season. The deadline for submitting bids is February 24th.

Burning Down the House

"Please let me touch the buttons that blow up the bombs," Bobcat Goldthwait muses while fondling the pyrotechnics control box at last year's Concert Industry Awards party at Madison Square Garden. Bobcat wouldn't agree to host this year's event unless we promised it too would be an explosive evening. Just hope we can keep the fire department at bay while letting the Bobcat run wild. We wouldn't want the House of Blues to face the same fate as Jay Leno's couch. Seen with Bobcat is J.D. Addison from Pyro Dreams.

Shaken But Stylistic

The Stylistics' week-long engagement at The Blue Note in Osaka was interrupted as they got caught in the tragic earthquake that recently rocked Japan claiming the lives of more than 5,000 people. Following their opening night show, the members of the group were asleep in their fifth floor hotel rooms when the quake hit. Though the Osaka Blue Note is just 30 miles from the epicenter, it was not severely damaged and the group resumed playing January 18th, the day after the quake. Stylistics singer Russel Thompkins said there was a whole different feeling in the club that night. "I have never felt so close to an audience in all my life," he said.

Dr. Dre Delays His Day

A Los Angeles judge gave Dr. Dre a one-month reprieve on starting his five-month jail sentence for drunk driving and probation violations. Judge Paula Mabrey postponed the date to February 10th to allow Dre to wrap up production on a music video. However, Judge Mabrey denied a request to have the rapper serve his time at a privately run halfway house. Dre will serve a work-release sentence which will allow him to work outside the jail on weekdays between 8 a.m. and 6 p.m. Dre pled no contest to drunk driving charges last year after leading authorities on a high-speed chase through Beverly Hills and Los Angeles in his Ferrari. The conviction was also in violation of his probation from a 1993 battery conviction and marked his third misdemeanor conviction since 1991.

Short Items Of Note

Michael Farrell has relocated International Talent Group's West Coast office to the 15th floor of the 9000 Sunset building. The new telephone number for ITG is (310) 247-0680 and fax (310) 247-9538..... Eugene Haslam and Randy Lanctot, the owners of Zaphod Beeblebrox in Ottawa, have taken over the lease on the building which houses the club many in the industry knew as Barrymore's. The 500-capacity club is closed for renovations but is scheduled to reopen in April..... The Metropolitan King County Council approved a legislation-request package January 17th to help the county pay off the Kingdome's $51 million repair bill. The county will ask the state for authority to collect an additional $6.5 million a year in taxes, rebates, and redistributions of various state funds. The tax moves could increase prices to concerts, Seattle Mariner games and other stadium events. The damage to the Dome came last July when four acoustical tiles fell prompting an overhaul of the ceiling..... The Jam Productions special events division received the 1994 Gala Award for best event entertainment concept with a budget over $30,000. The award, presented by Special Events Magazine, was for the company's production of the Chairman's Opening Night Gala for World Cup USA94..... Ever wonder what happened to Jim Halsey? The man who used to own the largest country music booking agency in Nashville can be found today teaching courses as head of the Music Business Department at Oklahoma City University. He recently returned from the Middle East where he taught a week long extension course at the HED Music College in Yehud, Israel. Halsey sold his company to William Morris several years ago and has kept a relatively low profile ever since..... In an unprecedented move last week, Bob Dylan and Neil Diamond moved their entire catalogues of work to the SESAC musical performing rights society, one of the three performing rights organizations recognized by U.S. Copyright Law. Both Dylan and Diamond were previously affiliated with ASCAP, which, along with BMI, has dominated the performing rights business. The affiliation with two such established songwriters signals the revitalization of what SESAC is calling a new era in licensing that will offer songwriters, artists/writers, composers and publishers a third alternative..... Decker out in his colonial stage garb with black, feather-trimmed three-cornered hat, Paul Revere, of Paul Revere and the Raiders, showed up at the Ada County Treasurer's office in Boise to pay a three-year delinquent tax bill. The musician missed his $9.91 payment on a 3,000-square-foot parcel of land in Boise. With late charges, the bill grew to $533. Jeff Huber, who handles Revere's real-estate, said the 1991 bill just got buried under paperwork. The entertainer showed up January 18th at the treasurer's office with a $10 bill in hand (to cover the original bill) before leaving to get on a plane to Hawaii to resume his tour with the Raiders.

But Could They Have Helped The Bolts?

Island Founder Returns To Jamaica

Chris Blackwell and PolyGram have announced plans to launch the first major record label to be based in Jamaica in three decades. In 1962, Blackwell moved his Island Records from Kingston to London and PolyGram acquired the label in '89. PolyGram has reportedly agreed to invest $1 million for 49 percent of the new company. Blackwell will retain about 15 to 20 percent of the venture with the rest reportedly going to Jamaican investors through a $1 million private placement.

The Mobile Teen Rap

City officials in Mobile, Ala., changed their minds about booking Willie D for a free teen concert when they discovered the nature of some of the lyrics the rapper sang with his former group, the Geto Boys. The city's executive administrator, Al Stokes, was prompted to investigate the artist after receiving a phone call from a local reporter. Stokes found the following lyrics sung by Willie D: "Her body's beautiful, so I'm thinkin' rape. Shouldn't have had her curtains open so that's her fate. Slit her throat and watch her shake." Local radio station WBLX booked Willie D to perform at one of its youth concerts which are part of a series known as Teen Jamz. The station sends letters to record companies asking for acts coming through the area to headline its Teen Jamz shows. Station VP/GM David Clark said, "In the future, we won't leave it to the discretion of record companies."

Paying The Publicist For The First Time

Robert Goulet and his wife were ordered January 23rd to pay $6,100 to settle a pay dispute with a publicist. The Goulets were accused of failing to pay $30,000 to publicist Michael Sterling but after three days of testimony, the judge ruled that Sterling had received $14,500 and the Goulets only owed him another $4,900. The Las Vegas District Court judge also ordered the Goulets to pay $1,200 in attorney fees. Sterling had claimed he entered into a one-year agreement in 1991 to work for Robert and Vera Goulet. However, Vera Goulet claims that she and her husband hired Sterling for only a five-week period in the summer of '91. She said Sterling agreed to work as a publicist for the limited engagement of the "Together Again, for the First Time" stage show at the Aladdin Hotel which featured Goulet, Debbie Reynolds, Donald O'Connor and Rip Taylor. The Goulets' attorney said Sterling had proposed a one-year contract but the couple rejected it. Sterling had claimed the Goulets owed him about $7,000 for early termination and he also claimed he was owed $100 per diem for about 70 days of work.

Between The Dates

Tickets went on sale for R.E.M.'s first North American tour since 1989 last week. Some venues experienced a buying frenzy while others posted very good but not gee-wiz spectacular numbers. In Kansas City the Sandstone Amphitheatre date sold out in one hour, beating a record previously held by Metallica. Ted Mankin, of Cefar Door Southeast, which is promoting or co-promoting several dates, including Anaheim's Arrowhead Pond and Inglewood's Great Western Forum told POLLSTAR that sales were "excellent." Anaheim sold out its first date, and quickly added a second. At press time that date was close to selling out. The Great Western Forum also added a second date but neither was completely sold out. The third date in the Los Angeles basin, at Glen Helen Blockbuster Pavilion, sold all its reserved seats but still had plenty of lawn seats available. With a capacity of 35,000+, Glen Helen is one of the biggest sheds in the country, so it may take a while to fill up that hill.... TOM PETTY & THE HEARTBREAKERS, along with VH1, made music biz history by offering tickets for their upcoming tour via television before selling them through traditional outlets. VH1 claims that over 500,000 phone calls were placed in the first fifteen minutes of their January 13th broadcast. About 400 tickets per venue were made available to callers, after which the remaining tickets were put on sale through Ticketmaster outlets.... THE ROLLING STONES had to move "on down the line" to the smaller Pacaenbu Stadium when the scheduled Sao Paulo, Brazil venue, Morumbi Soccer Stadium was closed due to cracks in the foundation. To accommodate the 150,000 fans who had bought tickets for the two Morumbi dates, a third show was added for January 30th.... Management for "the other one," John Paul Jones, has issued a statement to remind concert goers that the upcoming PAGE / PLANT tour is not a Led Zeppelin reunion tour. The press release issued by Opium (Arts) Ltd. states that Jones will not be on any Page / Plant dates despite "... increasing speculation and some misleading advertising..." It was at the Rock & Roll Hall Of Fame induction ceremonies where Jones performed with his old bandmates, mentioning that they had "finally found his number.".... It certainly wasn't your normal Spring Break kind of attraction. In fact one fan who was nibbling pate and sipping Moet & Chandon champagne described LUCIANO PAVAROTTI's Miami Beach performance before 120,000 fans as "a civilized Woodstock." There were 8,000 seats sold at $50 to $2,500 each for the beach event, while an estimated 112,000 people watched for free from boats anchored just off shore or from farther back on the sand.... MICHAEL JACKSON, the self-proclaimed "King Of Pop," is now the son of King Nana Amon Ndoufou IV of the African kingdom of Sanwi in Ghana. King Ndoufou met Jackson three years ago in Sanwi, and made him a Sanwi king. According to the kingdom's traditions this also makes Jackson his son. Jackson played host to his "father" in Los Angeles last weekend.

Australian News Report

(Sydney) On January 23rd, Hole's COURTNEY LOVE was put on a $A500 one-month good behaviour bond after appearing in a Melbourne court. She had been arrested by Victorian Police after allegedly abusing staff and other passengers on a flight from Brisbane to Melbourne the day before. Love was charged soon after the Qantas flight landed, but was granted bail so she could appear at the January 22nd BIG DAY OUT concerts. She was also strip searched at the airport. She faced charges of abuse and intimidation stemming from her refusal to abide by the flight crew's request for her to take her feet off the bulkhead during the flight. In court, Love's counsel, Trevor McLean, said the confrontation was a misunderstanding arising from Love's physical condition - she was suffering back pain and a high temperature. Magistrate Robert Kumar took into consideration Love's guilty plea and her cooperation with police and did not record a conviction..... There was another spot of bother in Melbourne the week prior to Hole's Big Day Out show when the band did their own performance. James Young of 3RRR (a college style radio station) got hold of the BAND'S RIDER - which included condoms and boxer shorts and decided to broadcast the contents plus include them in a magazine column. The promoters retaliated by removing Young and all the radio station and magazine staff from the guest list. All, except Young, were eventually reinstated..... And more Hole trivia news. During their Sydney stay Courtney Love, was accompanied by EVAN DANDO, when she went shopping at the hip inner city book shop Ariel. Love purchased $A300 worth of books including Marina Warner's From the Beast To The Blond, Mick Mercer's Gothic Rock, a book of caricatures called Sex And Drugs And Rock'n'Roll and a Tank Girl comic. Dando bought two books including one by Graham Greene..... Aside from the myriad of visitors already confirmed, tours being rumoured at present include SHERYL CROW (May), JAMES BROWN (April/May), SUICIDAL TENDENCIES (May), and JERRY SEINFELD (June). Given Seinfeld's profile, his tour is being hotly contended with at least three promoters vying for the contract. The last time ROXETTE visited these shores in 1991 they sold out the 12,000 seat Sydney Entertainment Centre. This time around, on January 21st, the same venue was only two-thirds full for promoter Paul Dainty..... Dainty will be more pleased with BRYAN FERRY sales, with a third Sydney concert now on sale for next month at the State Theatre..... French hardcore psychobilly band, the HAPPY DRIVERS, have postponed their February tour of Australia until later in the year - most likely September..... The book agency/promotions firm PREMIER ARTISTS (the biggest in Australia) has announced a March tour by THROWING MUSES. This will be the band's second tour of this country although Kristin Hersh has also toured her solo to promote the Hips And Makers album. Special guests for all dates are The Fauves..... Garry Van Egmond Enterprises has announced a late March / early April tour by JAMES TAYLOR which will play mostly lyric mode venues at major centres average 5,000 - 6,000 capacity..... Reviews have been extremely mixed for the start of R.E.M.'s world tour. The most scathing was from the Sydney Morning Herald's influential critic Bruce Elder who wrote: "The problem was that from 9:05 until 10:25 the entire performance verged on the unforgivable. The lighting was just plain silly, the sound was beneath contempt, the film clips they used were pretentious and pointless and Stipe's stage persona when it wasn't being downright phoney was characterised by a kind of dreary, lackadaisical approach which saw him singing entire songs with his back to the audience..." Elder did concede that things picked up at the end and "for about 15 minutes R.E.M. showed how good they really could be - and they were amazing." The conclusion? "On the basis on this shoddy performance, the only fair conclusion is: on record R.E.M. are one of the greatest contemporary bands; in live performance they're about as interesting as...Englebert Humperdink." Guess he didn't like it, huh?..... Peter Korda has announced that he has GEORGE BENSON returning to Australia in February to headline the annual Leeuwin Estate Winery Concert on the banks of Western Australia's Margaret River. The event sold out within two weeks with around 6,000 people expected to attend the concert under the stars on February 11th..... In his role as manager of international marketing at Sony Music, JOHN WATSON had one hell of a time in the week beginning January 23rd. In between keeping tabs on SILVERCHAIR's Big Day Out appearances, he had to find 48 hours to fly to Rome and back. Why? Because TINA ARENA has been made one of four European priorities for Sony and Watson was required to attend a meeting of the heads of marketing for all of Sony Europe..... As reported in this column last year MUSHROOM PUBLISHING held a songwriters conference at Michael Gudinski's Mount Macedon property - and already it's starting to show results. James Blundell is currently recording Earth And Sea, a new album, in Nashville for EMI and it's tipped that it could feature as many as four of the songs composed during the gathering..... As of Australia Day (January 26) Australia's youth radio (read college) radio network, TRIPLE J, will be heard through seventeen regional stations ranging from Cairns to Coonabarabran and Kalgoorlie. More regional stations will be added throughout the year.

THE MOLSON AMPHITHEATRE

IN THE HEART OF THE CITY ON TORONTO'S WATERFRONT

In May of 1995 Toronto will open the doors on a brand new amphitheatre to showcase top of the line concerts and touring shows. Located in the heart of the city, The Molson Amphitheatre is situated on the waterfront within the parklands of Ontario Place. With a stage view of Lake Ontario, this new facility will replace the existing in-the-round Forum with a $15 million state-of-the-art 16,000 seat venue.

This scenic setting, located minutes from the best hotels in downtown Toronto, offers direct access to major highways and comes equipped with an outstanding array of inhouse services and facilities. Drawing from a population of over 4 million in Southern Ontario, The Molson Amphitheatre will become Canada's premier outdoor concert facility.
