Futuristic New Ticketing System Unveiled

Details of a new high-tech event ticketing company were unveiled earlier this month at the ILMC in London. The ETM Entertainment Network is the creation of Peter Schniedermeier and David Cooper and promises several bold innovations. Cooper is a former tour accountant and founder of Fox Information Systems, a major concert industry software developer. Schniedermeier's background includes stints with the Ticketron, SEATS and BASS ticketing operations. If the system can deliver what it promises, it may be part of the answer for groups like Pearl Jam which is searching for alternatives to Ticketmaster. There are three basic components to the ETM ticketing system. An automated telephone system capable of handling several thousand calls at once is designed to sell tickets without the aid of human operators. Tickets will also be sold through the Internet's World Wide Web. But the most interesting development is the ETM interactive kiosks, which the company plans to roll out by the thousands starting later this year. Each ATM-like kiosk will have a touch screen computer monitor which can display available tickets on seating charts, accept credit card payments and print tickets. The computer screens will serve as event advertising vehicles when not being used for purchases. All tickets will be uniquely barcoded and portable scanners at the venue will record each ducat as it is surrendered for admission. The system reportedly will not allow for duplication while providing an instant drop count. The ETM system also has the ability to print each customer's name on the ticket at the time of purchase if desired. One of the major benefits also being touted is the ability to gather extensive demographic information from each transaction. The telephone system also records the number of customer calls turned away due to sellouts so that a more accurate determination of the potential for adding extra shows can be discerned. The entire ETM system is also designed to allow fan club priority reservations or sales of artists merchandise. Schniedermeier and Cooper claim to have secured major financial backing from unnamed high-tech or communication company(s). Assuming the money is there to sustain a lengthy and highly competitive battle and the technology works as well in the real world as it did in its impressive demo in London, the ETM system may well be the first serious challenge to Ticketmaster's dominance of the market since the demise of Ticketron.

Where's The Ugly One With The Jewel?

Laurie Anderson returns to the road with a multi-media concert event that has been three years in the making. "The Nerve Bible Tour" is scheduled to cross North America with dates booked through mid-April. Greeting the artist backstage at the Wiltern Theatre in Los Angeles are (L-R) Keith Naisbitt, William Morris Agency; Anderson; Marsha Vlasic and Peter Grosslight, WMA; manager Linda Goldstein; and Wamer Bros. veep Larry Butler.

A New Shed On The Boards For Virginia Beach

The Virginia Beach Planning Commission unanimously voted to support a plan to build a $15 million, 20,000-seat amphitheatre in southern Virginia Beach, away from the resort city's busy oceanfront. But residents bordering the proposed site of the project asked the commission to delay rezoning the property until they have more time to investigate the city's plans. The City Council has scheduled a March 28th public hearing on the issue.

Back To Back In Waco

A Day One In The Country

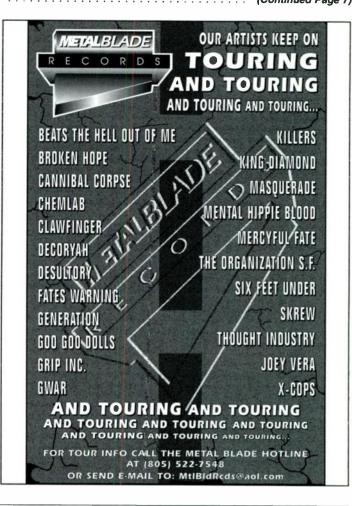

ABC-TV's "Day One" is reportedly laying the groundwork for a broadcast that will investigate why the country music business has apparently turned its back on veteran artists. According to a report in R&R, an ABC News crew managed to secure an interview with one major label head by telling him they wanted to talk about the tremendous success of his label. But when anchor Forrest Sawyer arrived, the questioning was a bit more pointed than the label chief had expected. Sawyer reportedly asked, "Why did [the business] just spit out all of the artists who helped get country to this point? Don't you owe them something?" The label exec said "Day One" didn't want to hear that the changes in country music were all part of a natural evolution of the business and is a non-issue. Reportedly, several artists were interviewed for the piece including Tammy Wynette, Waylon Jennings and Johnny Cash. No air date has been set.

Houston Wants The Bayou Downtown

Houston city officials unveiled plans to convert the Albert Thomas Convention Center, which has been closed for business since 1988, into a western-theme entertainment facility. The 150,000-square-foot, $22 million Bayou Place is projected to open in August 1996 and will be anchored by a Denim & Diamonds nightclub. The two-story complex will house 13 nightclubs and four restaurants. In addition to Baltimore developer David Cordish, key participants in the project include Graham Brothers Entertainment of Odessa. The Graham Brothers own and operate Dallas Alley, which contains many of the same clubs planned for Bayou Place. The old convention center was built in 1965 and is located in the culturally rich theatre district. However, the conversion to an entertainment facility, conceived to give downtown Houston an economic boost, 🔺 Insider News Briefs is not boding well with neighbors. And though Mayor Bob Lanier said, "Bayou Place will add vibrance and life to the downtown area," he and council members have criticized Cordish's deal, which was originally made with former Mayor Kathy Whitmire. Lanier and council members question the deal's favorable terms to the developer. The 60-year lease arrangement requires Cordish to pay the city $50,000 in rent each year plus 25 percent of the profits after a reasonable management fee is extracted. If the project is 65 percent occupied, Cordish would receive about $900,000 annually from parking fees. If the actual revenues aren't that high, the city will make up the difference. The Cordish Co. has developed similar complexes in Salt Lake City, Detroit, Niagara Falls, and Charleston, S.C.

Artist Profile 📥

Jayhawks

The Jayhawks' Mark Olson spoke with POLLSTAR just prior to jetting off for a showcase at South by Southwest, which will be followed by a quick stint in Holland. The band then returns to the States to support Tom Petty through May 6th. Olson, who shares guitar, vocal and songwriting duties with partner Gary Louris, said the band is really looking forward to going out and supporting its new American Recordings release, Tomorrow The Green Grass. "It looks like a pretty good run," Olson said.

The Jayhawks aren't nervous about opening up for an arena-level act. "We went out with the Black Crowes so I feel like we at least know what we're doing on that level," Olson said. "It's a lot different [from headlining clubs.] We've done some arena shows where the crowd was incredible. That usually is in your smaller towns. In the bigger cities, [the audience] is definitely there to see the headlining act. And you kind of have to work them. It's more of a pulling them in kind of thing, while your own shows are more like a celebration. People are there to hear you. You play your songs and you have a good time and they're excited to hear the stuff."

Olson, Louris and bassist Marc Perlman make up the core of The Jayhawks. Perlman met Olson in the mid-'80s and in 1985 Louris joined them and The Jayhawks officially hatched, you could say. The band released two indie projects prior to getting signed to American in the early '90s. So, what keeps a band motivated after being together 10 years and seeing other acts rise quickly to the top? Olson said, "We've always written songs and we've looked forward to recording them and then putting them out as records. Making great records, that's been our goal. I think that's what keeps us going."

Olson said The Jayhawks would like to hasten their recording schedule. The band has released two records on American, Hollywood Town Hall, in the spring of '92, and the 1995 release. "We'd like to make more records and we're going to try and do that. We've been on a schedule that's been a little bit lagging behind, considering some of the material that we have."

The Jayhawks are also motivated by the challenge of selling music that is closer to the country-folk rock that dominated the early '70s than the sound of the '90s. "We're not playing music right now that is the "in thing" necessarily," Olson said. "We've been doing this thing we're doing with harmonies and melody, and we've been trying to get it across to people. It's taken awhile but we've always felt like we've seen a progression, where there's more people getting into us. And we feel like our music is getting better and better." Olson said even The Jayhawks' live shows are improving. "I think we've been playing better live than we ever have."

Olson, Louris and Perlman, along with keyboardist Karen Grotberg and drummer Tim O'Reagan who complete The Jayhawks line-up, have never talked about compromising their sound in an attempt to gain mass acceptance. Olson said, "We've always just played the songs that sound good to our ears. As far as the records we've put out, there's been songs that we've written that are a little more adventuresome in some ways but we've left them off the records just because they drew a lot of attention to themselves." Olson said it is more important to make a record with songs that sound good together. Though they do pull out what he called the "adventuresome" songs on stage. "We have a couple of whacked out tunes that we play live but it never really crossed our minds [to change our overall sound] and I think that shows up on our records," he said.

Once the band's first release on American was recorded, the time came for The Jayhawks to build a business team. Frank Riley from Monterey Peninsula Artists is the bands' responsible agent. Mindy Glasberg at Borman - Moir Entertainment takes the point on management responsibilities. "We wanted to get an organization made up of people that got things working together," Olson said. He said The Jayhawks needed people that they could rely on and people they could work with. "As things have come around, I think we've made the right decision. It seems to be going, at this point, where we operate now in a really good way. People know each other and we know where we're going and that's nice. It's not like some new thing where you're trying to figure it out. It's like, 'Here's what's gotta be done, let's do it,' kind of thing."

Critics are saying that the new release, Tomorrow The Green Grass, will be what it takes to finally push the band beyond critical and core-fan success. Moving toward that mainstream appeal is important to The Jayhawks. "Part of why we go on the road and why we do the things we do is because we want to make that connection with people and move it to a place beyond that. We've experienced playing live, in front of big audiences, where people seem to be really into us, like when we toured with the Black Crowes and when we tour on our own in Europe." Though a mass acceptance is important, Olson said that's not for the band to decide. "We just made the record. Now we're going to go out and play it. If that stuff comes about, great. There's really nothing we can do about that now, except just go out and play."

Recently, The Jayhawks played a gig at the NARM Convention that went really well, Olson said. And the band also played at the House of Blues in New Orleans during the Gavin Convention. That show, which can be seen on an upcoming "Live at the House of Blues," kicked off after 1:00 a.m. on a Mardi Gras night and Olson said it was wild.

Cheap Love Blooms In The Desert

The members of Loverboy celebrate after playing a sold-out show with Cheap Trick at the Star of the Desert Arena in Stateline, Nev. Say What?

Mayor Vincent Cianci of Providence, R.I., has been accused of calling the stage manager for the touring production of "Hello Dolly!" a "faggot." Cianci said, "Anybody who knows me knows how ridiculous this accusation is." He said, "It's like someone asking you, 'When's the last time you beat your wife?' It looks bad just denying what never happened." Stage manager John Salvatore said the incident occurred March 8th at the Providence Performing Arts Center where the musical was playing. He said he saw Cianci smoking by the stage door and told him to go outside because the musical's star, Carol Channing, is allergic to smoke. "As he was walking out, he called me a "(expletive) faggot" and then I heard laughter," Salvatore told the Providence Journal Bulletin. The incident prompted Channing to issue a statement denouncing the mayor and to refuse a city proclamation she was to receive. Cianci said Salvatore has confused him with another man. For one thing, he said he quit smoking two years ago. He also said he saw the group of men that were involved in the incident. "I'm waiting for my driver to open the car door when [Salvatore] comes outside and says, 'I'm not a faggot,'" Cianci said. "Apparently, the people called him that but they were already around the corner by the time he came out." Cianci said the accusation distressed him because of his stand on gay issues. He has been a supporter of gay rights legislation, has marched in gay pride parades and was scheduled to cut the ribbon to open a new home for people with AIDS last week.

They Were Badger-ed For Tickets

John Michael Montgomery's March 9th concert at the Dane County Memorial Coliseum in Madison, Wis. went clean in two days and that made happy campers out of (L-R) arena manager Ray Ritari; promoters Herb Frank, Chris Moore and Fred Frank from Frank Productions; and Montgomery.

Soul Train Awards

The ninth annual Soul Train Music Awards presentation was telecast March 13th from the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles. Hosted by Patti La Belle, Anita Baker and Kenny "Babyface" Edmonds, the Don Cornelius produced event honored the best in R&B, soul, rap, jazz and gospel. Barry White, Anita Baker and Boyz II Men were among the double winners at the awards show. And Snoop Doggy Dogg, who was preved that his Doggystyle album wasn't nominated last year, took home honors for best rap album this year. Diana Ross was presented with the Heritage Award for her career achievement and Queen Latifah received the Sammy Davis Jr. Award for entertainer of the year. Other winners included Brandy, R. Kelly, Aaron Hall, Norman Brown, and Sounds of Blackness..... The evening was married, however, by a fatality at one of the aftershow parties. A man was beaten to death during the Death Row Records party at the El Rey Theatre and Nightclub. The L.A. Times reported that police cleared the venue following the fight in which Kelly Jamerson, 28, was knocked to the floor and then apparently kicked and stomped by several unidentified people. No arrests have been made and details of what caused the fight are unclear.

MCA Makes Chess Move

MCA Records recently presented the Blues Heaven Foundation with a $50,000 check to go toward providing a permanent home for the organization founded by the late blues legend Willie Dixon. The Foundation is dedicated to promoting and celebrating the history of the blues with educational programs, grants, and support of blues artists through health care and royalty recovery programs. The original Chess Records building in Chicago will be restored to house the Foundation. Pictured at the presentation are (L-R) MCA Music Entertainment Group's AI Teller; Dixon's widow and foundation prexy Marie Dixon; and daughter Shirley Dixon, who is a veep of the Foundation.

Short Items Of Note

Bill Berry remained, at press time, in a Swiss hospital following brain surgery March 3rd. A spokesperson for R.E.M. said the band's drummer is doing well and is on the road to recovery. So far, R.E.M.'s dates in the States stand firm though the March and April dates in Europe and the UK have been indefinitely postponed..... Green Day frontman Billie Joe and his wife Adrienne recently became the parents of a baby boy whom they have named Joseph..... Charlotte Caffey of the Go-Go's and her husband, Jeff McDonald from Redd Kross, are the parents of a little female bundle of joy born February 21st. Astrid Charlotte McDonald was welcomed home from the hospital by a phone call from one of rocks most famous babies, Frances Bean Cobain, who apparently can say "Congratulations!" When not changing diapers, both of Astrid's parents are writing music for new releases. A new Redd Kross album on Mercury and a solo Caffey record are due out this year and a Go-Go's disc is planned for next year..... When Mo Ostin and Lenny Waronker decided to leave Warner Bros., some of the label's high profile acts were expected to follow suit. But last week, it was announced that Neil Young, the first major artist the Bunny doomsayers had predicted was headed for a new home, has re-signed to Reprise Records for a five-album deal..... The sixth annual Rhythm and Blues Foundation Pioneer Awards program, March 2nd at the Hollywood Palladium, was hosted by past Pioneer Award recipients Jerry Butler and Martha Reeves. The Foundation paid tribute to Inez and Charlie Foxx, Cissy Houston, Illinois Jacquet, Darlene Love, The Marvelettes, The Moonglows, Lloyd Price, Arthur Prysock, Mabel Scott, Booker T. & the M.G.'s, Junior Walker and Baby Washington. Fats Domino received the Foundation's Ray Charles Lifetime Achievement Award. Cash awards to the R&B giants totaled $220,000.

T-Bone Is Off The Grill

Da Lench Mob member T-Bone, aka Terry Gray, was acquitted of murder charges March 9th. Gray was facing a Superior Court jury in California in the February 1994 shooting death of Herbert Battle and the wounding of Lashawn Townsend. The two were shot at a bowling alley in the Athens area, which is about 12 miles south of downtown Los Angeles. Witnesses had said they saw the rapper run into the bowling alley and shoot the victims. But Gray maintained it was a case of mistaken identity. "I think police were going after rap and using me as a way to do it," Gray said. Da Lench Mob's label, Priority Records, stood behind the rapper 100 percent and it posted his $1.5 million bail. Gray was the second member of the Da Lench Mob to be charged with murder. In a separate incident, DaSean Laron Cooper was convicted of murdering a man after a house party in the Athens area. Cooper was sentenced to 29 years to life for that crime.

concealed microphone when he delivered the package to Deal. She accepted the package, signed for it and complained it was a day late, police said. A few hours later, police obtained a search warrant. The search of Deal's home produced items containing traces of heroin, according to detective Tom Lubonovic. The judge now must decide if Deal's arrest and the evidence seized in the raid violated her Constitutional rights. Deal's lawyer questioned whether his client knew what was inside the package when she was arrested. If convicted of the one count of drug abuse, Deal could spend up to 18 months behind bars.

It Wasn't A Landslide, But A Victory Is A Victory

The March 7th advisory election that decided the fate of promoter Zev Buffman's proposed entertainment complex in Temecula, Calif., passed by just 46 votes clearing the way for the $81.5 million project. The Old Town Entertainment Center, to be built in the Riverside County town of Temecula, will include a 2,200seat opera house, two cabaret theatres and a 5,000-seat arena. Construction is scheduled to begin at the end of this year and most of the project is expected to be completed by late summer of 1996. A study estimates the project will pump about $3.7 million into the city's economy, create up to 2,500 jobs and bring as many as 1.4 million visitors a year.

She Doesn't Take American Express

A New York judge ruled that American Express violated the rights of the Ronettes' lead singer, Ronnie (Spector) Greenfield, when it used the song "Be My Baby" in a television commercial. State judge Ira Gammerman said Amex's ad agency, Ogilvy & Mather, failed to get proper permission to use the song. The judge's decision only applies to Greenfield. He did not decide whether the rights of the other two members of the group were violated because a dispute over whether they actually performed on the 1963 hit song is being litigated elsewhere. Greenfield, Estelle Bennett and Nedra Talley Ross sued Amex and its ad agency for $2.2 million in damages. The case now goes to trial for decisions on other issues including whether the singers are entitled to damages. A spokesperson for Amex said the suit is "much ado about nothing" since the commercial ran for only a short time years ago. The ad agency claims it got permission to use the song from Phil Spector International. But that wasn't enough. Spector produced the record and is the ex-husband of Ronnie Greenfield.

Legal Griefs

James Brown's wife, Adrienne, withdrew a domestic violence accusation against her husband March 9th. At Ms. Brown's request, an Aiken County, S.C., magistrate dismissed the charge that was to be heard only one week later. The charge was brought last December after Ms. Brown said the couple argued and Mr. Brown shoved her, causing her to fall and cut her lip. It now looks like the "Godfather of Soul," who filed for divorce shortly after the scuffle, will have no legal problems to keep him from making scheduled performances in Ho Chi Minh City on April 8-9..... Aretha Franklin's $1 million suburban Detroit home was placed under a $489,525 tax lien by the Internal Revenue Service February 14th. The IRS said the lien was for individual income taxes that Franklin failed to pay..... Two more people have been charged in the June 10th disruption of a remote Howard Stern broadcast in Cleveland. An employee of rival radio station WMMS-FM, promotions director Heidi Klosterman, was indicted March 13th along with a friend, Greg Smith, on charges including disrupting a public service. Klosterman could get up to nine years in prison and Smith faces 31/2 years. Another WMMS employee, William Alford, pled guilty last September to cutting the wires and is awaiting sentencing.

Hi-Five Founder Murdered

William Walton, 27, was found shot to death early March 13th in East Waco, Texas. Walton formed the group Hi-Five in the late '80s and composed the demo song that got the group a deal with Jive Records. Police found Walton slumped in the driver's seat of his 1995 black Jeep Cherokee. He had apparently been hit once in the head by a bullet fired through the driver's side of his vehicle. Investigators said they did not have a suspect and robbery did not appear to be a motive.

THE BRANCA AGENCY: Bill Branca

As was reported in a recent issue, The Branca Agency is pleased to announce it has entered into a joint venture with the Pyramid Entertainment Group. The Branca Agency now has an office in New York and, together with Pyramid, we are packaging music and comedy tours. We are also pleased to announce the exclusive signing of comic/actor Eddie Griffin. Eddie is a proven film star and can be seen in the current film release, "Walking Dead." We are currently planning a 30-city summer tour staring Eddie Griffin and FrezLove from Def Comedy Jam. /// Also, we are pleased to announce that the Russell Simmons Def Comedy Jam tour is doing great business since the start of the 1995 trek in February. We will be touring through the end of the year and are looking to play more secondary markets. /// Also, starting in May, Joe Torry and Adele Givens, who are two of the hosts of the current HBO Def Comedy Jam, will be touring together in a special "Best of Def Comedy Jam" package. /// In addition, our new client, Ricky Harris, the other host of HBO Def Comedy Jam, will take over the reins of hosting the tour with Kid Capri as the musical D.J. The tour also features four comics from the HBO television show. It's a winner. Also be aware that Kid Capri is available for club and college dates that do not conflict with the "Def" tour. /// And congratulations to Chris Rock for winning the award for best comedy special at this year's cable ACE Awards. This has translated into consistent sell-out performances in Chris Rock's club tour.

P.O.W.: Terry Rindal

We are pleased to announce the addition of Dean Swett to our staff. Dean is a 22-year industry veteran and comes to us from Minneapolis. He will be handling clubs and colleges east of the Rockies. /// Currently, we are working on the following tours for the spring: Black Uhuru is starting the third leg of its current U.S. tour in April with a special emphasis on school dates. /// Bootsy Collins is just completing a very successful tour of Europe and will be starting the second leg of his U.S. tour in late April. He has been a smash hit everywhere. /// There are still one or two holes available on the Golden Palominos tour in April. The band's new record has been burning up the CMJ charts. /// Fattburger's new CD debuts on the contemporary jazz charts at #18 with a bullet. The band will be on the road in late April on the East Coast. /// Kilawea's newest is also moving briskly with April avails on the East Coast as well, /// We are looking for Paul Kelly dates on the West Coast for April. He is out supporting his new release, Wanted Man. /// The Skatenigs will be looking for West Coast dates in April and will be touring through the end of the summer. /// Zachary Richard will be available starting in late April and will be touring for the summer. /// David Wilcox continues on his endless tour. /// The Spanic Family is out touring to support its latest release which is currently #10 on the Americana radio chart.

DIGGER INT'L: Jeffrey Churchwell

Greetings in this new year from all at Digger. Monster Voodoo Machine finishes its national tour in support of Marilyn Manson March 11th. We seek to support for May and beyond. /// To coincide with Clay People's new release in early April, the band will begin a full-length national tour with Acumen in support. Acumen's new release is out now on Fifth Column. We are still seeking offers on the West Coast for the third week of May. This is an excellent guitar oriented industrial package. Triple XXX artist Cradle of Thorns will likely be added to West Coast dates and head to the Midwest to finish with Clay People and Acumen for the final week of May. /// We welcome Hi-Fi and the Roadburners to Digger. On Victory Records, this rockabilly band, with a big dose of swing thrown in, is one of Chicago's top draws. The band looks to begin trekking through the U.S. in May and is looking to support. /// TVT artist Juster has completed a new disc and will tour pending the release of Columbia/Tri-Star's new film, "Bad Boys," in which the band has a cut on the soundtrack. We are open to all ideas for this band. /// Spongehead heads to Europe for a month starting March 27th and will return in early May. We're looking to then do a quick two weeks on the East Coast before going into the studio. /// We're really excited about Crawl's new album on Olympic/Pavement out in April. Crawl already debuted at number one on Metal Maniac's writer's choice on the sole basis of the advance tape. This futuristic industrial/metal crossover looks to support in May and June. /// Thought Industry is holed up in the studio working on its third album for Metal Blade. /// Just a reminder that although our phone number is still the same, our address has changed to 714 Wing Street, Elgin, Illinois, 60123.

BSO: Brad Simon

Popular as ever, platimum children's recording artist Joanie Bartels was profiled on ABC's "Good Morning America" on February 21st. Joanie will be touring extensively this spring, summer and into the fall. Check this week's Routebook for avails in your area. /// Third time pick by "TV Guide" for the best children's programming, Rory, star of The Learning Channel's "Rory & Me" (seen twice daily at 8am and 11am ET/PT) will be bringing her special blend of rock, jazz, pop, blues and oldies to venues across the U.S. in 1995. Don't miss this newest kids TV star. Check for routing avails in this week's Routebook. /// Nelson Rangell will, once again, be in the spotlight this April with the release of his sixth GRP album, Destiny. GRP is tremendously behind this album and has designed a very aggressive and enthusiastic marketing plan. I'm sure you will agree that it is Nelson's greatest album ever and with plenty of support from GRP, it's the perfect time to book him. It's your Destiny to be a stop on the 1995 Nelson Rangell tour! Check Routebook for avails and call for additional information and a prerelease cassette of Destiny.

FREE WORLD MUSIC: Char Eberly

Between The Dates

THE ROLLING STONES canceled plans for a three-city Asian tour, scheduled for April, because Hong Kong couldn't guarantee the availability of its stadium. Officials refused to grant permission for Hong Kong Stadium until they conducted noise-level tests in early April. The locals started complaining about noise problems from stadium events shortly after the new venue opened and it has been largely unused for many months. "If we lose Hong Kong out of the Asian tour, it's just not a viable thing for us to do it financially," said Dale Rennie of Midas Promotions. Tickets had not gone on sale and the dates in Hong Kong, Singapore and Manila had never been officially added to the band's schedule..... Last week we reported that the return of THE GRATEFUL DEAD to Highgate, Vermont, depended on whether Missisquoi Valley Union High School moved the scheduled date for graduation ceremonies from June 16th to June 9th. Since then, the MVU board has met, and approved the date change. Concert promoter Jay Strausser of All Points Booking has not yet reached an agreement with the Franklin County Field Days Committee, which holds the lease to the site. Committee treasurer Wynn Paradee, said "It' looks very positive. We want them back." There's a first time for everything, and after being a songwriting team for over 25 years, the first in-store album signing appearance for ELTON JOHN and BERNIE TAUPIN is scheduled to take place Monday night March 20th at the stroke of midnight at the Tower Records store on the Sunset Strip in West Hollywood. The signing will celebrate the release of Elton's new album Made In England, which is scheduled for release that day. To accommodate the expected 3,000 fans, Tower is arranging for Made In England to be prepurchased with a coupon, prior to the in-store signing, and will issue wristbands starting at 8:00 a.m. on the 20th. The actual line-up for the signing starts at 9:00 p.m. After Elton's upcoming stadium tour with Billy Joel is completed, expect him to continue with his own world tour, starting in Europe in late spring / early summer and moving back to the States by late summer / early fall It wasn't a "pocketful of kryptonite," but it was green. Chris Barron, lead singer of the SPIN DOCTORS, gave a pocketful of cash to his old high school in New Jersey. The Spin Doctors did a benefit concert at Princeton High to raise money for the school choir's trip to Europe. When he was a high school student, Barron traveled with the choir to the 1984 Vienna Youth and Music Festival..... The best quote of the week has to be from MELISSA ETHERIDGE. While taping an MTV Unplugged segment, Etheridge was joined by BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN for a duet on Springsteen's "Thunder Road." Entertainment Weekly quotes Etheridge saying the moment was a dream come true. "I use to sing Springsteen songs at the top of my lungs when I was a kid because he was singing about a girl — and I could relate." In a related story, MTV issued a cease and desist order to New York City radio station WPLJ-FM for playing a copy of the song. The station immediately complied. Whether or not a single is released will probably be up to the lawyers for the artists' respective record labels..... LIZA MINNELLI, fresh from hip replacement surgery, is set to go back on the road in June. Originally, the singer/dancer/actress was scheduled to tour in April, but doctors insisted on more recuperation time. Check Route Book for the first rescheduled dates 1,500 radio contest winners will join MADONNA for Madonna's Bedtime Story Pajama Party. All guests are required to wear their best jammies to the event, taking place at Webster Hall in New York City. The party will be broadcasted live on both radio station Z-100 and MTV. As to rumors about an upcoming US tour, Maddy's management company, DeMann Entertainment, would only say, "Nothing has been released.

U.K. News Report

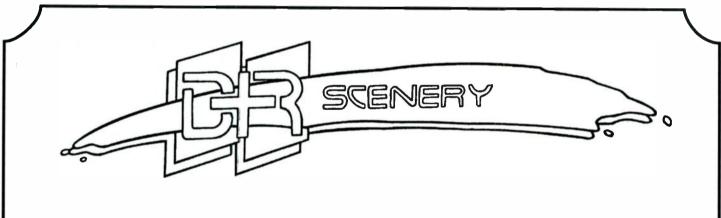

Following on from their US tour, PAGE and PLANT will (London) embark on their first European tour together in 14 years. The 23-date tour starts at Paris Bercy on June 6 and ends on July 25 at Wembley Arena. So far, promoter ITB has only put four UK dates on sale, at Glasgow SECC, Sheffield Arena, NEC Birmingham and Wembley. It will be interesting to see how fast they flew out of the box offices..... Meanwhile, the tour by the artist "formerly known as PRINCE" (T.A.F.K.A.P.) is shrouded in rumours and confidentiality contracts which landed on contractor's desks this week. The word is that although initial sales went well enough to add extra shows, ticket sales have now slackened considerably after the tour's inauspicious start; some are also saying that the production has been cut from 14 to six trucks and that a strict economy regime has been laid down on the crew. Well, of course, this is all doing the rounds on the grapevine and being denied by those who are allowed to comment, but a curious press release from Sheffield Arena provided further food for thought. It seems that due to a "production change" for the March 17th show, 1,500 cheap standing tickets were released for sale. Normal ticket price is £24.50 or £21.00, while the "special" price is £15. Sounds like a "past sell by date" reduction, to me. The best reports of his UK visit are of the aftershow party at the London Astoria, where Prince came on stage at about 3AM and played for an hour and a half, during which he jammed with George Benson and Chaka Kahn..... WET WET WET have been setting more records around the country. The Wets will be the first band to play the MANCHESTER ARENA at the venue's grand opening show on July 25th. The band have also scored a box office record at SECC in Glasgow with a sixth night going on sale last week. The SECC will be the Scottish band's hometown gig, so perhaps its not surprising that The Wets are the first act in the history of the venue to play a six-night run, beating the likes of Eric Clapton, Take That, Phil Collins and Dire Straits who have all played multiple nights there in recent years. If this extra show sells out, 48,000 fans will see the band at the SECC. Add to this the fact, that the release of the latest single "Julia Says", will be Phonogram's largest ever ship-out of product in its history, and The Wets seem to be generating a lot of big numbers. In total they have added an extra five shows to the sold out summer tour The STONE ROSES have managed to settle the long-running dispute with former manager GARETH EVANS out of court last week. The band split acrimoniously with Evans in 1991 and were manager-less until the recent appointment of Doug Goldstein of Big FD. A court hearing had been scheduled to take place on 13th March, but the two parties agreed to settle on an undisclosed sum only days prior to the hearing. Both sides have declined to comment..... LAURIE ANDERSON will be over for six dates in May, her first shows here in five years. The tour, promoted and booked by Asgard, follows the release of a new live album, Stories from the Nerve Bible, and the live shows look like they will be the traditional Anderson concoction of multimedia and outlandish imagery The LONDON SUEDE are not letting up too much on their touring schedule. The band is heading off around Europe in April and returns to the UK for two rarified shows in May, one at the Royal Albert Hall (rapidly carving its own unique niche in the indie rock circuit) and the Blackpool Empress Ballroom. The band is also tipped to play Glastonbury..... And those fresh new legends, those purveyors of sartorial indie pop, MENSWEAR, embark on their first real tour on April 11. The band created much hype and not a little indignation a few months back when they attracted 33 A&R men to their first gig and eventually signed to London Records offshoot, Laurel, for a large but secret sum. This fuss was all on the strength of a handful of shows, barely as many songs, and a babble of hype that championed them as the leaders of that new mod revival (which lasted all of a couple of weeks, if I remember correctly ...). But will the tour manager be able to fund a wardrobe person to keep those creases tight and haircuts justso?.... CELINE DION has been toppled from her five week run at the top of both singles and album charts by BRUCE SPRINGSTEEN, whose Greatest Hits compilation album steamed into first place. Although she still has the number one single spot, she was double chart-topper for long enough to join the ranks of Elvis Presley, The Beatles and Cliff Richard who are only other artists to hold both spots for five consecutive weeks.... THE MAVERICKS have announced their long-awaited UK debut at the end of April. The band plays three UK dates, in London, at the Shepherds Bush Empire, at the Glasgow Pavilion and Manchester University MONSTER MAGNET play their first UK club dates here in three years in early April at the end of a two month European tour.

Australian News Report

(Sydney) The line-up has been announced for the sixth annual EAST COAST BLUES FESTIVAL which is held at the New South Wales town of Byron Bay over the Easter break. Aside from a massive Australian bill, international visitors include Mick Taylor's Blues Allstars, Michelle Shocked, John Hammond, Margie Evans, Rockin' Dopsie Jr.'s Zydeco Twisters, Billy Joe Shaver, Guitar Shorty and Michael Hill's Blues Mob..... PEARL JAM were joined onstage by the Red Hot Chili Peppers' FLEA at the band's March 10 concert in Sydney. Apparently Eddie Vedder came onstage towards the end of the concert with a banner announcing it was bass player JEFF AMENT's birthday. Flea appeared as did a birthday cake. Ament blew out the candles, then someone pushed it in his face and a cake fight broke out. According to one review, "Flea, slipping and sliding on bits of cake and mimicking Neil Young's strained falsetto, sang a truly woeful version of "The Needle And The Damage Done." Then Flea and Vedder duetted on an exuberant version of Pete Townshend's "Let My Love Open The Door" which ended with them both falling over on the slippery stage." BOY GEORGE was here earlier this month for an appearance at the world famous Sydney Gay & Lesbian Mardi Gras..... SLASH arrives in Australia on March 14 for a promotional trip surrounding his Slash's Snakepit project. There's no gigs but there is talk of a possible tour later..... Word's around that JOE JACKSON will be touring Australia later in the year..... This column can exclusively reveal that the replacement for MICHAEL SMELLIE is not MICHAEL GUDINSKI - that was the really silly rumour to top all rumours doing the rounds last week. The person taking over the running of BMG in Australia is JAMES GLICKER who has apparently risen through the company at a meteoric rate. Prior to accepting this position, Glicker was BMG's head of Classics Marketing in New York. The appointment was revealed to key BMG executives on March 10 According to a reliable source the current (and, for some reason, highly secret) MARKET SHARE of major Australian record companies looks like this: Sony Music 27%, PolyGram 25%, EMI 20%, Warner Music 12%, and all others (BMG, Festival, Shock, etc) is under 10% As part of their on-going commitment to developing the next generation of young workers within the Australian music industry, the AUSMUSIC branch in NSW, with the support of Frontier Touring and Stageline Production have managed to secure training placements for STUDENTS currently in the AUSMUSIC Basic Industry Skills Certificate Course on the PEARL JAM concerts in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane and Canberra. The trainees experience all aspects of behind-the-scenes production from sound, lighting, staging and sometimes even merchandising from an observation and hands-on involvement level. According to Wane 'Swampy' Jarvis, the local production manager for the tour: "It would be good to get the trainees to be on hand from 8 a.m. so they can get the full benefits of being involved from start to finish on a major concert set-up." Last week BRASHS PTY LTD announced the purchase of Adelaide music products retailer, the Adelaide Rock Shop Well known American manager MIKE LEMBO will be in Australia April 2-8., travelling with JULES SHEAR whom he manages. Lembo, who operates Mike's Management, was formerly the American manager of The Church and has taken over looking after the affairs of Died Pretty in that territory So, you want to know what's going on with Australian indie label Summershine Records now that owner JASON REYNOLDS has left to work for Sub Pop? Well, Reynolds is currently setting up a base for Summershine in Seattle. Locally the label will be handled by label manager David Vodicka There's already been a strong response from Australian companies to Export Music Australia's MIDEM ASIA trade fair presence. Albert Productions was first off the mark with both Fifa Riccobono and Robbie Williams from the London office committing to work from the stand. Asia Pacific Marketing's Randy Babble and an associate will be there as will Castle Communications' John Evans and MCA Publishing's Peter Hebbes. Pacific Advanced Media who created the gf4 and Boom Crash Opera CD-ROMs is sending Peter Higgs. Warren Fahey from Larrikin Entertainment will also be there This one's been rumoured for awhile but it's now official that following a career spanning 18 years in the BMG group of companies, in both records and publishing, JIM SHIPSTONE will be stepping down as managing director of BMG's music publishing operations in Australia on June 30. Mitchell Rubin, who currently works for BMG in New York, will take his place as of July 1..... ROSELLA MUSIC is proud of their commitment to furthering Australian songwriters with the recent signing of a number of Aboriginal composers: INDijjjNUS, Nudju Gudju, Tribal Journey, and Mark Atkins.

WE STAY HOT

52 WEEKS A YEAR

The '95 concert season is really cooking at Universal Amphitheatre. In just the first three months we've served up some sizzling performances... Stevie Wonder, Pat Metheny Group, Travis Tritt & Jeff Foxworthy, Def Comedy Jam, Emmanuel, Jon Secada, Sarah McLachlan, Randy Travis and Sammy Kershaw, Ana Gabriel, The Cranberries and Aids Project Los Angeles' Commitment to Life Awards.

And we're fired up for more. The Academy of Country Music Awards live broadcast, Tom Jones, Gladys Knight & Gerald Levert, Mary J. Blige, Linda Ronstadt, Reba McEntire, Rocio Durcal, The Highwaymen, Yanni and lots of other hot acts are already booked into our year round season.

Our recipe for success? Take a fabulous indoor venue and mix with no curfew, no sound restriction and no seat more than 150 feet from the stage. Add flexible show times and sixteen permanent dressing rooms and you'll see why Universal Amphitheatre is the venue of choice for Southern California.

Grill us for the facts but don't delay... our 1995 Subscription campaign deadline is Friday, March 24.
