A Depressingly Memorable New Year's Eve Show

Indie promoter Sason Parry of Cool World Productions says he was forced to turn away thousands of paying customers to his New Year's Eve all-night festival due to poor staffing at the Cow Palace. By filing an administrative claim letter with the State of California, he has taken the first step toward bringing legal action against the suburban San Francisco facility. Parry says the event was designed to accommodate up to 20,000 people but because of poor advance sales, the Cow Palace prepared for only a fraction of that. Parry said, without consulting him on the night of the show, Cow Place officials announced via the public address system and outside marquee that the event was sold out. About 6,000 people had reportedly been admitted by that time, but Parry claims more than 10,000 were turned away due to the facility's action. "As far as I'm concerned, when the Cow Palace prematurely decided to announce that my show was sold out, they bought the remaining 12,000 tickets still available for my crowd," Parry said. Cow Palace CEO Michael Wegher told POLLSTAR that he couldn't comment on any litigation because he said, "We haven't seen any suit or any action or claim that's been filed." As to the accusations Parry has brought against the Cow Palace, Wegher said, "I can just say that there's a disagreement as to what transpired on New Year's Eve."

Gato Barbieri Heart Surgery

Jazz saxophonist Gato Barbieri underwent triple bypass surgery at George Washington University Hospital March 24th. Barbieri was admitted to the D.C. hospital with chest pains and was rushed into surgery that same day. He had just played a gig at Blues Alley the night before. Barbieri's agent, Bruce Nichols, said the operation was a complete success and that his client was scheduled to be released from the hospital March 31st. All concert dates through early May are being rescheduled. Barbieri is expected to resume working around the end of May.

BMG Reaches Inside For New RCA Records Prexy

Following a five month search, BMG's Strauss Zelnick has announced the appointment of Robert Jamieson as president of RCA Records. Jamieson joined BMG in 1991 and had been prexy and GM of the company's Canadian division. Previously, Jamieson was executive VP of PolyGram Holdings in New York. He also had an extensive career at CBS Records in a variety of executive positions in the U.S., Europe and Australia. He fills the post made vacant by Joe Galante's move back to Nashville. A veritable who's who of the music business had been rumored for the post in recent months.

Never Give This Guy Real Bullets

To honor the release of "Whereabouts Unknown" on Blutarski/Ripe & Ready Records, Mojo Nixon went on a rampage in Los Angeles. After deploying a U.S. Army assault vehicle to take him to an in-store at Tower Records on Sunset, Nixon commandeered it for a quick cruise by Geffen Records. Mojo unsuccessfully demanded that they "Bring Me The Head of David Geffen."

According to ABC, The Pyramid has yet to sign a deal with Ticketmaster and that may be opening the door for some big alternative acts to come in and perform. Since its opening last December, the venue has only been used for basketball games. However, according to a facility spokesperson, The Pyramid was designed to be a multi-purpose facility. Negotiations are currently underway with a number of promoters and acts to fill The Pyramid's summer concert series. ABC is a partnership between former Goldenvoice partner Bryan Meckelborg and former Long Beach Associated Students administrator Ed O'Dell.

Jersey Could Hear The Sounds Of Silence

In a bitter dispute with restaurant owners over annual fees for playing copyrighted music, ASCAP is threatening to stop issuing licenses in New Jersey. That could mean silence everywhere live or recorded music is usually heard in the state including restaurants, nightclubs, concert halls, stores and even hold-music on telephones. The 750,000-member National Restaurant Association and its state affiliates, working as the Music Licensing Coalition, are leading the charge against the current licensing system. They say ASCAP, BMI and SESAC charge "arbitrary and capricious" licensing fees and that proprietors are forced to contract with all three agencies because it's difficult to know which one licenses which songs. Legislation that restaurant owners are pushing N.J. Governor Christie Whitman to sign would require music licensing agencies to provide information to clients to inform them what they're paying for and whether the rates are reasonable. That includes a list of every member and every song for which the proprietor holds rights. The nonprofit, 65,000-member ASCAP says the rules would be so costly that it could not collect enough fees to pay its artists. ASCAP chairman and songwriter Marilyn Bergman said, "What songwriters earn from ASCAP licensing of our music is the largest single source of our income." And a lawyer for ASCAP, I. Fred Koenigsberg, said a printed list of all ASCAP songs would be a stack of paper 5 feet high. ASCAP recently won a judge's permission to pull out of New Jersey if Whitman signs the bill. That would make it illegal for businesses to play the nearly 4 million songs in its repertoire — and it would be difficult to play any music while making sure not to include an ASCAP-licensed song. Violators could face lawsuits from ASCAP, according to Koenigsberg. But Koenigsberg stressed that ASCAP would prefer that Whitman veto the bill and help the parties compromise. Bergman said, "Unfortunately, [ASCAP's] offers to negotiate have been consistently rejected." Since the New Jersey bill was introduced last June, similar ones have been submitted in 16 other state legislatures. Both BMI and ASCAP have been fighting furiously against the growing number of state bills (now approaching 20) trying to limit their activities. Legislatures in Virginia and West Virginia recently passed music licensing bills, both requiring that composer and song lists be filed with the state and updated periodically. An ASCAP spokesperson said everybody is looking to New Jersey to see what happens.

SPONGE

Sponge has managed to soak up a topnotch business team to stand behind it. The Detroit-based quintet signed to Columbia/Chaos and has since moved over to Jeff Ayeroff and Jordan Harris' WORK Group label. International Creative Management and Innovative Talent complete the business team for this band that seems to have come out of nowhere.

Sponge, as it exists, today is a relatively new group. The band members, Vinnie (he doesn't use a last name), Mike Cross, Joey Mazzola, Tim Cross and Jimmy Paluzzi, came together a little over two years ago. But Vinnie, the Cross brothers and Mazzola once were in Loudhouse, a band signed to Virgin Records. Loudhouse released one record on Virgin but was dropped during a Virgin house-cleaning. The "Sponge Story" seems to intentionally leave out the Loudhouse beginnings so one can only assume that's when the band came together with their manager, Stuart Griffen at Innovative Talent.

Vinnie told POLLSTAR that it was Griffen who helped Sponge get its deal with Columbia. "Our management was pretty instrumental in getting us hooked up with the right people that would listen to the stuff," Vinnie said. "You know, A&R people that would come out and see the band."

But Vinnie said getting a deal with a major label wasn't foremost on the minds of the band members. "We really didn't have any idea that we might get signed," Vinnie said. "We had no idea what we were gonna do with the [demo] tapes when we recorded them. We were like, 'Wow. Let's put this stuff down on tape.' And then eventually, we had enough on tape and we started playing it for people. And we got a pretty good reaction," he said.

With the current resurgence in independent minded acts, Sponge deviates from that path and lauds its big business associations. "A lot of people are so overwhelmed by what they perceive as huge corporate [entities]," Vinnie said. "I think if you have the right people working with you ... it's nothing to be so afraid of. It's worked out real well for us."

Vinnie said people often ask him if Sponge considered going the indie route rather than seeking a contract with a major like Columbia. "I never wanted to do that chic, or what appears to be chic, indie kind of thing," Vinnie said. "I think bands tried to do that for a long time and at the end of the day, a lot of these bands just want to get signed by a major. So ... just cut to the quick and get signed by a major. I'm not at all, like, I have regrets that we signed with a major," he said. "I didn't see [signing to an indie] as a necessary tool that we needed to have in order to get momentum for a major or get momentum in a marketplace or anything like that." Vinnie said that he can see through a lot of bands that strive for indie chic. "I understand what the motivation is so I kind of see right through that. I'm kind of glad we didn't do that because it just seems kind of phony," he said.

The members of Sponge feel they've developed a good relationship with the business people they work with. In fact,

Vinnie tells a story of when ICM's Bill Elson flew to Detroit to see Sponge. "We definitely needed somebody to come in and take care of our bookings. We actually had a great meeting with Bill Elson, which was cool. He came into Detroit. It was wild, you know. He came to rehearsal one day just to hang out. I go, 'Wow.' That means a lot, you know, [to have] somebody like that just to hang out with us and have dinner, whatever, just chill," Vinnie said. "It makes it more of a personal thing." ICM's Andy Somers and Brian Greenbaum handle the day-to-day with Sponge. "It just seems like it worked out real well. It was real comfortable right from the beginning. So, it's very cool," Vinnie said.

The band is also pleased with the switch to WORK. Not that they weren't happy at Chaos, Vinnie said, but WORK seems to be operated more like a full-fledged label as opposed to just a promotions department. "I think there's a little more leadership now at the WORK label," he said.

Now that all the pieces are in place for Sponge, the band plans on spending a great deal of time on the road. Sponge is currently on a bill with Live and Love Spit Love that's playing colleges. Vinnie said, "I think it's a great call to [play] these type of [college] venues. I love playing in clubs [but] it's just a little different atmosphere. It takes you out of the club for a minute. It's a little refreshing."

Following the dates with Live, Sponge was expected to hit the road as support for The Cult but that tour was cancelled at the last minute. Sponge will tour Europe very soon but due to the sudden cancellation of The Cult tour, specifics are still up in the air.

Now that the band's first release, Rotting Piñata is working its way up the charts, Sponge has one thing to say to the people who run the industry in which the band makes its living: "We want to embrace them all. We do not fear them." And the public certainly is embracing Sponge. The video for the first single, "Plowed," is a buzz clip on MTV and sales are approaching 100,000 units. And at radio, "Plowed" is making big waves with cross-genre ads on rock and alternative formats.★

Reckless Deer Avoidance

Tim McGraw was charged with speeding and reckless driving following an accident March 22nd that left his passenger with minor injuries. The Tennessee Highway Patrol blamed the wreck on excessive speed, saying McGraw's car rounded a curve too fast and skidded off a road in rural Williamson County, south of Nashville. McGraw's publicist blamed the accident on a deer she said darted in front of the singer's Lexus. Department of Safety spokesperson Anthony Kimbrough said, "We're not saying there wasn't a deer. We can only base our investigation on what evidence is there ... and there was no deer." McGraw faces a hearing on the citations May 5th.

Less Than Two Months Till Opening Night

Despite what it looks like in the picture, construction of the new Molson Amphitheatre in Toronto is apparently right on schedule. Bryan Adams is scheduled to open the facility on May 18th. The new 16,000-capacity MCA Concerts Canada shed announced the names of a number of acts last week that will perform during its debut season. Among the acts are Alan Jackson, Jimmy Buffett, Luther Vandross, R.E.M., Sarah McLachlan, and Vince Gill.

Pros On The Move

A former agent's assistant with Variety Artists in California, Mark Kodenski has moved back to his hometown of Baltimore to start Pure Entertainment. The new company will function as an affiliate of Variety Artists and Kodenski will be able to book Variety's clients into colleges and performing arts centers on the East Coast. The deal with Variety is non-exclusive and Kodenski is free to book other acts as well..... Nancy Sullivan Skinner has been named executive director and CEO of PACT, Inc., the governing body of Ruth Eckerd Hall in Clearwater, Fla. She replaces Elissa Getto, who vacated the position last June. Skinner is currently the managing director of the Gusman Center in Miami. She assumes her new position May 1st..... Four top film agents at ICM were fired last week after it was discovered they were planing to leave the agency to start their own operation. The L.A. Times reported that David Greenblatt, Tom Strickler, Ariel Emanuel and Richard Rosen plan to form the Endeavor Agency. But when ICM discovered on March 28th that client files had been taken by the agents from their respective offices, the agency quickly fired all four and issued a company-wide e-mail calling the taking of files "an act of trespass and in furtherance of a concerted and illegal plan," the Times reported. Greenblatt, Strickler and Emanuel, who came to ICM in 1992 when InterTalent folded, have denied any improprieties.

Short Items Of Note

The new Colorado State Fair Events Center in Pueblo was scheduled to open April 2nd with George Strait and Lari White christening the stage for the debut concert at the 8,000-capacity venue..... Box Office Management International (BOMI) presented its 1995 award winners during the 16th Annual BOMI Conference and Exhibition in San Diego. Pat "Sunshine" Tucker of the Fox Theatre in Atlanta won box office manager of the year honors. Box office of the year went to the Orlando Centroplex office staff. And a new award, the spirit award, presented for enthusiasm, friendship, participation and cooperation to colleagues and to the industry, went to Susan Santi, Director of Tickets, Orchestral Association/Chicago Symphony Orchestra..... The Academy of Country Music has announced the nominees for its nightclub and talent buyer (Continued Page 11) awards. Competing in the nightclub category are Billy Bob's in Fort Worth; Crazy Horse Steak House & Saloon in Santa Ana; and Grizzly Rose in Denver. The talent buyer nominees are Gil Cunningham of Don Romeo Agency; George Moffett of Variety Attractions; and Bob Romeo of Don Romeo Agency. Winners in these two categories will be announced the last week of April although the other ACM "Hat" awards won't be given out until the televised show on May 10th at the Universal Amphitheatre.... The odd coupling of Julia Roberts and Lyle Lovett appears to have come to an end. The couple issued a statement March 28th saying they had agreed to a legal separation after 21 months of marriage. No reason was given for the split.... A judge in New Mexico signed a temporary restraining order March 17th prohibiting country singer Lynn Anderson from coming in contact with her former boyfriend. Songwriting mentor Ralph Williams filed the motion saying that Anderson has plagued him with harassing telephone calls and threats since the end of their 12-year relationship one year ago. He said Anderson has threatened to kill him and herself as a result of the breakup. "Court order or not, we've been going to dinner and those sorts of things," Anderson said. "It's hard to legislate against love." Williams denied Anderson's claim. "We are not together. I've been trying to live in peace ... she's in another world," he said.... The executive director of the South Carolina chapter of the ACLU is angered about vehicle searches, some of which were targeted at Grateful Dead fans, and he's looking for a suitable challenge to take to court. Sheriff's deputies said they arrested 23 people at an Interstate 77 drug checkpoint, most for drug and alcohol violations. Many were headed to a three-night Grateful Dead stand in Charlotte. The Rock Hill Herald reported that those who tended to be searched included people with out-of-town license plates wearing Grateful Dead clothing. Bates said, "Police officers seem to think that a Grateful Dead sticker on a car is probable cause to conduct a search. These kids are being treated like they've got no constitutional rights at all."

Piece Of Cake For Capricorn

The members of Cake and their support staff party it up at San Francisco's Bottom Of The Hill club to send off the band's latest release, "Motorcade Of Generosity." Back row (L-R) Absolute Artists' Blaine Kaplan and Bruce Solar, Capricorn's G. Scott Walden, Cake's Greg Brown, Absolute Artists' Sheri Sternberg, Cake's Vince DiFiore and Absolute Artists' Brad Stewart and Dave Schwartz. In the front row (L-R) are Cake manager Bonnie Simmons and band members John McCrea, Victor Damiani and Todd Roper.

Counterfeit Ticket Crack Down

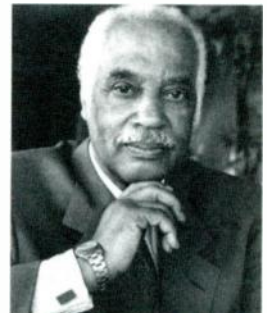

The Long Beach Arena teamed up with Ticketmaster in a recent effort to crack down on ticket fraud. TM deployed 12 people to inspect every single ticket that entered the facility during its two-day Bob Marley Day Reggae Festival. According to arena spokesman Mike Kelly, the strategy made an enormous difference. "We discovered over 900 bad tickets at the doors on the first day and the word must have got out because we only came across about 90 on the second day," he said. The Long Beach Police Department was also brought in and together with building security, an additional 600 counterfeit tickets were discovered and several arrests were made.

Obituaries

Gangsta rapper Eazy-E, 31, died March 26th at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center in Los Angeles just 10 days after revealing he had full blown AIDS. He was hospitalized February 24th for what he thought was asthma. Eazy, whose real name was Eric Wright, was a former drug dealer who claimed to have fathered seven children by six different women. It is assumed that he contracted HIV through heterosexual promiscuity. Eazy's former group, N.W.A., sold millions of albums and his Ruthless Records label produced and supervised several other best selling rap acts as well. After learning about his condition, Eazy put out an announcement March 16th to warn "all my homeboys and their kin." He said in a statement read by his attorney, "I've learned in the last week that this thing is real and it doesn't discriminate. It affects everyone." Eazy's newlywed wife and 1-year-old son have both tested negative for the HIV virus.... Television producer and personal manager Rick Bernstein, 51, died at his L.A. home March 3rd after a short bout with pancreatic cancer. At the time of his death, he represented comedians like Steve Landesberg, Mike MacDonald and Jeff Dunham. Bernstein's management and production firm with partner Howard Lapedes, Bernstein/Lapedes Management, remains in business and all clients who were represented by Bernstein will continue on with the company.... The founder of the Concord Jazz Festival, Carl Jefferson, 75, died March 29th of liver cancer. Jefferson started the jazz festival in 1969 at a local park and it developed into an international event. Jefferson also formed Concord Jazz Records 23 years ago. The company collected 40 Grammy nominations and won eight before Jefferson sold it last December.

ROSEBUD AGENCY: Mike Kappus

Thanks to Pete Angelus, Rob Prinz at CAA and The Black Crowes for extending The Dirty Dozen (formerly The Dirty Dozen Brass Band) as support for the balance of The Black Crowes' 12-week U.S. tour. The Dirty Dozen's five-man horn section has been joining The Black Crowes on stage for show closers on a regular basis. // John Lee Hooker's new Chill Out album is making waves worldwide having spent its first three weeks of release in the top ten in France. Several other major European territories are selling in the top 20 as the video for the title track featuring Carlos Santana gets heavy airplay across the continent. The video just began airing this week in the U.S. on VH-1 and the record is top ten at AAA radio on several U.S. charts. Now, basically retired from touring, an April 6th "Tonight Show" appearance with Santana represents Hooker's only performance plans with the possible exception of special events in California. // Charlie Musselwhite just won Best Blues Album of The Year honors at this year's Bay Area Music Awards and leads the nominations for the W.C. Handy Awards with five. // The Blind Boys of Alabama featuring Clarence Fountain just appeared on the House of Blues TV show with Solomon Burke guesting. Prior to an extensive tour schedule with the group running into early 1996, Clarence is starring in a new version of "The Gospel at Colonus." The play is in the midst of a sold-out six-week run at the ACT Theatre in Seattle. // We're currently booking tours for all of the above except John Lee Hooker as well as The Robert Cray Band, The Dirty Dozen, John Hammond, Duke Robillard, Loudon Wainwright III, Los Lobos, and BeauSoleil avec Michael Doucet.

PIEDMONT TALENT: Steve Hecht

Most of our artists routing is now pretty well defined around the summer festivals. Terrance Simien has Texas and Midwest dates open in June and mid-July. There's late June avails in the Northeast and New England. We will be on the East Coast again in early August. // Sugar Blue will have his second Alligator CD out in May. Look for Florida and the East Coast in June and the West Coast in mid-late July. // The Fat Possum Mississippi Juke Joint Caravan tour with R.L. Burnside, Junior, Kimbrough and David Thompson is pretty well booked up for the first leg of the tour in May. Select June and July dates are open. They will be on the West Coast in September. // Rory Block's tenth Rounder CD is now out and there's select avails this summer. Look for another cross country tour to run from late August until mid-September. // Atlantic/Code Blue artist Sherman Robertson has June dates in Florida and Texas before heading up the East Coast in July. After a brief trip to Europe in August, there will be Midwest avails. // Little Charlie and the Nightcats have some July and August dates open. The response to their new Alligator CD, Straight Up, has been great. They will be available in Texas and the Southeast in the fall. // James Harman is finishing up his next Black Top release. Look for Southwest dates in June and a cross-country tour in July. // August will find James working California and the Northwest. // Johnny "Clyde" Copeland has East Coast and Great Lakes dates open in June and July. Look for some dates out West in September. // Congrats to Maria Muldaur on her latest W.C. Handy Award nomination. A few May dates are still open. She has avails in July in the Northeast and in August on the West Coast. // Steady Rollin' Bob Margolin will have a new Alligator release this summer. Check the Route Book for his schedule. He backs up Billy Boy Arnold on Billy's forthcoming Alligator CD and they make a natural package.

OZARK TALENT: Steve Ozark

We're proud to announce the addition of veteran agent Jeff Shibley. Jeff brings Walking On Einstein to our artist roster. // Monkey Meet just finished recording its third album, Brother to Brother, which is scheduled for release May 1st. Available are June to August. // MU330 just completed a three-month tour and has Midwest avails in May while the members rehearse new material for their next album. // Floyd's Funk Revival continues to smoke college towns and major cities across the states having sold 6,200 demo tapes during the past nine months of touring. FFR's new disc, Creamy, is due April 20th. Avails are in July and August. // W.C. Clark will record his next album in July and still has a few June and August avails in the U.S. and Canada. // The great Vassar Clements is available for summer and fall dates.

KEITH CASE ASSOC.: Lee Olsen

We are very pleased to announce the new addition of Gillian Welch and David Rawlings to our roster. Gillian, who has been making waves on the Row as a songwriter, signed with Almo Irving as a staff writer shortly after she came to town and is now ready, with partner David, to explore the concert and festival markets this summer. We have general avails through the summer and are looking for support April 14th and 16th in the Midwest; April 29th, June 16th and August 8th in the Southeast; and September 1st and 3rd in California where she'll be performing at the Strawberry Music Festival in Yosemite.

Between The Dates

The current Route Book itinerary for THE ROLLING STONES lists dates through August 19th, but there are indications that the tour might be much longer, perhaps stretching into next year. Reuters reports that Mick Jagger told an Australian press conference, "We're looking at people offering us shows for 1996 at the moment." There are also rumors that the band will come back to the U.S. for a short run of dates before year's end. The Stones have a month off after the Australian / New Zealand leg of the Voodoo Lounge tour, and it's expected that decisions about the future will be made during the break..... There's still time to hire the babysitter. Cover story SPONGE, which was set to go out with The Cult, will have to make other plans, since that tour has been cancelled. Dates may be rescheduled for summer..... WYNONNA's first concert date since the birth of her child is set for February 2, 1996, at the Universal Amphitheatre. There's added significance to that date, but that news won't be announced for several more weeks..... Next year marks the 20th anniversary of BOSTON's debut album, and the new tour is the first for Tom Scholz and company since Reagan was president. Original singer, BRAD DELP, has rejoined the band and will share lead vocals with Fran Cosmo, who sang on the latest album, Walk On. See this week's Route Book for dates..... Back in 1982, Apple Computer co-founder, Steve Wozniak, came up with the idea of a music festival where fans could not only see the biggest artists of the day, but also browse the latest in hi-tech gizmos. He called it the US Festival, and the majority of fans that went to the three day event in Glen Helen Regional Park, ignored the cyber stuff, and focused on the stage action. Now, The William Morris Agency, Lollapalooza co-producer Marc Geiger, and trade show management firm Kathleen Kaiser & Associates are betting that people will find interactive CD-ROMS, video games, 3-D animation and virtual reality as exciting as today's top alternative music artists. INTERSECTION '95 will debut this fall in a seven-city major-arena U.S. tour. Plans call for futuristic pod-like hands-on terminals and giant video screens broadcasting the latest CD-ROMS, animation and games, Internet demos, and video gaming competitions. Last year's Lollapalooza featured morphing and virtual reality exhibits and was more successful than organizers had anticipated. Marc Geiger said, "Where last year's Lollapalooza was 80% music, 20% high-tech, Intersection '95 will be 80% high-tech, 20% music."..... Cancel those plane reservations to Iowa, the 25th anniversary celebration of the WADENA ROCK FESTIVAL looks like it ain't gonna happen. Organizers were promising a much tamer day than the 3 days of pot smokin' and skinny dippin' that took place in the small farm town in 1970, but the locals just weren't buying it. A referendum decided the concert's fate with the final tally being 95 for and 97 against. Wadena has a total population of 236. One of the concert organizers, Jerod Miller said that they are exploring sights outside of the town limits. "We're going to go forward with it. It's part of Wadena's history."..... Two April JAMES BROWN concerts scheduled to take place in Ho Chi Minh City have been cancelled by the Vietnamese authorities, saying that the hardest working man in show biz would conflict with government plans to celebrate the communist victory over South Vietnam..... NANCY SINATRA is making the news and it has nothing to do with her shoes. Frank's daughter has released a new album, has tour plans for May, and has done some nude pics for Playboy..... While Nancy bares all, a clothed LA TOYA JACKSON sparked a riot among customers of Al's Diamond Cabaret, a bottomless joint in Reading, Pennsylvania. Patrons had paid $20 each, expecting to see Michael's older sister bare all. When Jackson left the stage in the middle of her routine, the crowd began yelling, "Refund! Refund," and started throwing beer cans and bottles at the stage. Police were called to disperse about 40 angry show-goers from the parking lot. Jackson's spokesperson, Leonard Fink, told POLLSTAR, that the show was not billed as a La Toya Jackson strip tease, but there was a crowd of people trying to "egg her on." According to Fink, Jackson said to the crowd, "You want me to take it off, don't you?" She then said, "I'll be back in a few minutes." According to Fink, that's when the trouble started. Jackson did return to the stage and tried to finish her performance. She had planned on a one month tour of clubs, but cancelled the entire tour after opening night because of "security reasons." Fink said that La Toya's club tour was supposed to have her interact with strip shows already planned and staged by the venues. At Al's Diamond Cabaret, Jackson followed the local strippers, taking the stage with some men, who she whipped and manacled. However, at no time was Jackson supposed to appear au naturel. Manager and husband Jack Gordon claims it was all just a misunderstanding. "When she strips," said Gordon, "she gets the big bucks."

U.K. News Report

(London) BOB DYLAN arrived in the UK last week for his most extensive tour in nearly 30 years and has been filling venues to the bursting point around the country. Stories of him not sound checking and only arriving at the venue five minutes before showtime are probably par for the course, but I wonder if promoters ITB really expected the reported audience demographics to span the ages of 14 to past retirement age.... Further to all those nasty rumours about slack ticket sales for The Artist Formerly Known As PRINCE, a fax from Sony Signatures, the new merchandising licensee for the artist, was very keen to point out that sales of the custom designed products did very well on the artist's recent tour. Items were priced between £2 and £400, but they didn't specify how many £290 tour jackets they sold.... The stage-shy PORTISHEAD has sold all but a few tickets for its first full UK tour in May. Booked by Clive Underhill-Smith at VAT, the band will be playing venues of around 1,200 capacity and transforming them into cabaret-style clubs.... Continuing to assert its profile on the new band circuit, MCP is promoting a tour of new British talent, sponsored by UK music paper, the MELODY MAKER (MM). The MM is obviously keen to match the success of the Brat Bus tour, sponsored by rival paper, the NME, earlier this year. This first "MAKER SHAKER TOUR" will tour the talents of noisy boys from Northern Ireland, Schtum, My Life Story, Goy Dress and Drugstore in a countrywide club package. MM will continue this direct involvement with the live scene by sponsoring a night of indie music at the LAII club in London once a month, to be promoted by Metropolis.... On the subject of packaging, agent Mike Greek at Fair Warning Wasted Talent pointed out one very happy Brit package he booked into Europe with Paul Buck at Asgard. Greek's band, DODGY, which has successfully (and almost incessantly) worked the UK market is now co-headlining a tour with Buck's THE LIGHTNING SEEDS. On their own the bands would probably only pull crowds of 100 maximum, but as a package, they are doing 400 a night, which is good business for Europe. Greek has also finally succeeded in pulling BUSH away from a hectic American schedule to come home to the UK for a one-off club date on April 11th as part of a European tour. The music press here is just starting to take note that this band is big in America and it surely won't be long before we see an about-face of popularity (in the style of the belated British success enjoyed by the Cranberries and Radiohead) and a sudden championing of another homegrown talent.... The record company establishment has been shocked by the outcome of a recent copyright lawsuit, which acknowledges the copyright of a new arrangement of an old song. Two record company directors have been accused by a High Court judge of a "deliberate campaign of piracy." Chairman Steve Mason and director Sean Sullivan of PINNACLE RECORDS (the UK's largest indie distributor) were accused of infringing the copyright of ZYX Music in Germany, in the case of the 1992 number one hit by KWS, Please Don't Go (a cover of the 1979 KC and the Sunshine Band hit). Network Records released the record, which topped the charts for five weeks, grossing over £700,000. However, ZYX claimed that the KWS release copied a disco version of the track, arranged by Roberto Zanetti, which was released a week later and also distributed by Pinnacle. Although Network accepted that the record was an infringement, following a musicologist's report, the company claimed it was unaware of the other arrangement at the time of release. The judge's harshest words were for the Pinnacle directors, whom he said had knowingly taken the risk. Both companies are planning to appeal against the ruling.... The Mean Fiddler Organisation has opened a new venue called the CROSSBAR, which will feature primarily club nights and djs with a late licence. This keeps the quota of MFO venues in London at seven, following the closure of the POWERHAUS.... INXS frontman MICHAEL HUTCHENCE has had a bit of a run in with the police after he reportedly came to blows with one of the hordes of paparazzi, who have been dogging him the past week or so. He has been in and out of the tabloids as speculation mounted over his alleged affair with Bob Geldof's wife, TV presenter Paula Yates, and the resulting split with his girlfriend, model Helena Christensen. He was released on bail after questioning.

Australian News Report

Whilst tickets have sold extremely well, they were still available for the second Sydney concert (on April 2) five days before the date. There are strong rumours that they'll do at least one in-store appearance whilst in Australia. Undoubtedly that will be at a Brash's store as the national chain is a sponsor of the tour. Sydney-based THE CRUEL SEA were finally announced as the Australian support for the Stones less than 10 days before the start of the tour. The Sydney Morning Herald's Richard Guilliat has done some research into claims that as far as Australia is concerned the Stones' jaunt is "the world's biggest rock tour." He points out that four months after tickets began selling for the Voodoo Lounge tour, only two of the shows in this country have sold out. The 1986 tour by DIRE STRAITS played to twice as many people as the Stones will: BILLY JOEL attracted more fans in Sydney; and MADONNA played three concerts each at the Melbourne and Sydney Cricket Grounds in 1993, compared with The Stones' two. Still Stones promoter PAUL DAINTY claims that they have sold more tickets than any other rock act in Australian history. "It's bullshit," says one rival promoter when asked about the claim. "They ain't even in the ballpark." Dainty told the SMH that the Stones would sell more tickets than Madonna, explaining that the seating arrangements on the Voodoo Lounge tour enabled them to pack more fans into the stadiums. He also said that comparisons with Dire Straits were invalid because the group performed in concert halls. "No one in this industry compares outdoor stadium tours to indoor tours," Dainty told the SMH. "If the Rolling Stones charged $40 a head and played the Melbourne Tennis Centre, my guess is we could play to three million people." Even at the Stones' press conference upon arrival in Melbourne their worldwide promoter MICHAEL COHL quoted Dainty as saying they had sold "more tickets for this tour than any tour in the history of Australia." Dire Straits played to 860,000 people on their 1987 tour and Madonna performed to 340,000 in 1993. If the Stones sell out all their concerts, which they probably won't, it's hard to see them attracting more than 300,000 people. Interestingly the Voodoo Lounge tour is still being heavily advertised on television and newspapers. There were full page ads in Melbourne papers the day before the first of the two concerts in that city. Dainty is sticking to his claims, saying that ticket sales had topped $30 million before the Stones arrived in the country. If that's the case the tour would outstrip the $26.5 million grossed by Madonna and the $27 million grossed by Dire Straits. "I think there's a lot of professional jealousy out there," Dainty says.... I'm told that SHERYL CROW has cancelled the Adelaide and Perth dates scheduled for her first Australian tour in April. Ticket sales have been solid but not spectacular with a second Sydney date announced recently.... The tres busy Frontier Touring Company have announced May dates for British quartet ROACHFORD which follows on from their promotional tour last year.... Former Wall Of Voodoo singer ANDY PRIEBOY makes his fourth visit to Australia for the Alternative Nation festivals. He will also be doing a string of club dates.... Adrian Bohm, who's been one of the busiest promoters this summer has announced a JOE JACKSON tour for May.... SHAVER's planned April tour of Australia has been postponed to August/September to enable the band to perform at two huge country music festivals as well as do club dates.... GUY CLARK and son Travis flew out of Australia on March 26 after a successful national club tour which amongst other things resulted in his new Dublin Blues album being the highest debut on country radio formats the week before.... LOU REED is the latest addition to the Alternative Nation '95 festival over the Easter break. Reed will perform solo and the promoters have stressed that their will be no additional dates beyond the Sydney, Melbourne and Brisbane shows.... There's a little bit of confusion happening in Australia with both the 'original' JAMES TAYLOR and U.K acid jazz combo the JAMES TAYLOR QUARTET in the country at the same time. Sweet Baby James is playing the Entertainment Centre circuit whilst the JTQ are in small theatres.... The AUSTRALIAN MUSIC MANAGER'S FORUM continues its battle for local bands to not only be included on the bills with international acts but suitably promoted. They're currently circulating the results of a phone check to venues and promoters of 22 international acts (including shows by the Violent Femmes, James Taylor, Indigo Girls, Cranberries, Bryan Ferry, and Harry Connick Jr.) touring these shores and found almost none of them had any information on who the Australian support act would be.... SHOCK DISTRIBUTION has picked up the rights to the truly cool American label HIGHTONE which boasts the talents of some very cool acts.

The music will never stop

The Blockbuster-Sony Music Entertainment Centre in Camden, New Jersey is the first of its kind anywhere in the world. The $56,000,000 project, near the Ben Franklin Bridge facing the Philadelphia skyline, will be a facility with true flexibility.

This summer, Pavilion Partners and the State of New Jersey will debut the convertible version of the Entertainment Centre. The configuration will feature 7,000 enclosed seats and a lawn area for at least another 18,000 patrons. The 25,000 capacity makes the Entertainment Centre one of the largest music facilities in North America.

But when summer ends, the music doesn't. Utilizing breakthrough technology, the Pavilion will be totally enclosed to accommodate different capacities of 1,600, 3,500 and 7,000 patrons. The first 20 center rows will be removable allowing for 1,000 patrons to utilize a general admission floor.
