A MILLION THANKS.

... TO A MILLION PEOPLE

CHEMICAL

For over 60 years, The Radio City Christmas Spectacular has been the pride of New York City during the holidays. That's why Time magazine calls Radio City "The Capital of Christmas!" And this year, once again, more than a million people attended the Christmas Show! So we'd like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make another Christmas our best ever. From the Rockettes to the Mayor...from our stagehands to our sponsor, Chemical Bank...from New York's Finest to our fine staff, we've got a million reasons to give a million thanks.

We also extend our heartfelt thanks to the folks who helped make The Radio City Christmas Spectacular in Branson so spectacular. And we're looking forward to Christmas in South Carolina, where a new Radio City Christmas Spectacular will debut in Myrtle Beach.

Concert Industry Awards

The 1995 Concert Industry Awards Party was a rousing success with nearly 1,000 people packing the Santa Monica Museum Of Flying. The presentation was hosted in hysterical fashion by Elayne Boosler and the post-party entertainment included three paintings by Denny Dent. The event was a benefit for the Bobby Brooks Foundation, and with an assist from MCA Concerts, POLLSTAR is pleased to be able to donate $12,680.20 to the organization. The foundation will also receive additional funds from the sold-out CIC / Bobby Brooks Open golf tournament which was planned for January 31st at the Malibu Country Club. The Music Industry Golf Association, which organized the event, was forced to cancel it when two inches of rain fell that day. The registrants were offered refunds but nearly all elected to donate the money, which will be split between LIFEbeat and the Bobby Brooks Foundation. Complete details on the award winners and pictures from the party begin on page 18.

RIAA Says No Way To Amway

The RIAA filed suit against Amway Corp. and a number of its top distributors for copyright infringement and unfair competition. The plaintiffs include Arista Records, BMG Music, Capitol Records, EMI Christian Music Group, MCA Records, Motown Records, PolyGram Records, Solar Records, Sony Music Entertainment, Virgin Records America and Zomba Recording. The suit was filed in U.S. District Court in Orlando and involves 108 counts of copyright infringement on 57 recordings. Most of the songs involved were hits from major artists including Michael Jackson, the Beatles, Whitney Houston, Gloria Estefan and Michael Bolton. Many more counts of infringement are expected to be added to the complaint. As it stands, the suit could seek $11 million in statutory claims under the Copyright Act. If the plaintiffs seek compensatory damages, that amount will soar. The RIAA began its Amway investigation about two years ago when the alleged violations were first brought to the association's attention. According to RIAA chairman Jason Berman, Amway distributors have been using the bootleg sound recordings in motivational and promotional video tapes without authorization from the record companies. These tapes are then sold to lower level Amway distributors for around $25 each. The videos are also allegedly used to promote other (Continued Page 4)

The Book's Got To Be In The Picture

Ian Copeland had a noble ulterior motive for attending the 7th annual Concert Industry Awards Party. Copeland sold 50 autographed copies of his autobiography, "Wild Thing," during the soiree and donated $250 of the proceeds to the Bobby Brooks Foundation. (L-R) Michael Wood of F.B.I., POLLSTAR's Becky Caraveo, Leroy from Lebanon, Brent Smith of F.B.I. and the mystery hand of book promotion.

commercial ventures such as conventions, selling Amway products and recruiting new Amway distributors. Reportedly, some of the defendants attempted to acquire licensing rights but when those requests were denied, the songs were used anyway. "The record companies' properties are blatantly exploited to help convey Amway's 'rag-to-riches' theme — without their permission and without compensation," Berman said in a press release. Amway had not been served with the suit at press time and therefore could not comment.

The IRS Makes Things Less Than Rosie

Jacks Sugar Shack in Los Angeles hosted a benefit for Roale Flores February 11th. During Rosie's recent five week tour, her former agent was slapped with a lien by the IRS and her tour deposits placed in trust. The benefit was designed so the rockabilly performer could pay her band. The night was a big success and even Dwight Yoakam chipped in with a pair of autographed boots for auction. Backstage after the show (L-R) Dave Alvin, Jann Browne, Queen of Rockabiliy Wanda Jackson, Big Sandy and Flores.

Snoop Dogg Emerges Victorious

Snoop Doggy Dogg and former bodyguard McKinley Lee were acquitted of murder February 20th. The verdict came on the seventh day of jury deliberation. The following day, the jury acquitted Snoop of a separate charge of accessory after the fact and then deadlocked on a charge of voluntary manslaughter. The jurors said they had deadlocked 9-3 in favor of acquittal on the manslaughter charge and Superior Court Judge Paul Flynn declared a mistrial on that count only. Prosecutors did not say if they would seek a second trial on the manslaughter charge. The judge set a status conference for March 18th and reduced the bail for Snoop and Lee from $1 million to $100,000 each. Their electronic monitors were removed but the judge warned that failure to appear in court would mean jail time. Some jurors sought autographs from a quiet, reserved Snoop Dogg. Throughout the trial, Snoop's celebrity had been an issue and the jury had been warned against being swayed by the defendant's popularity. After the trial, juror Rickey Sewell told the Los Angeles Times, "We didn't do a rap star any favors. We just did what the instructions of the court told us to do. If they were guilty, I would have voted for guilty. But I always believed that the defendants acted in self-defense.'

MCA Completes Interscope Deal

MCA Music Entertainment Group has officially acquired 50 percent of Interscope Records in a deal reported to be worth $200 million. At the same time, MCA has found a way to avoid the lyrical controversy that Time Warner faced before it sold its 50 percent stake of Interscope back to founders Ted Field and Jimmy Iovine for $115 million last year. TW shareholders and political activists criticized the lyrics and attitudes of some Interscope acts - especially the gangsta rappers. TW was concerned the bad publicity could impede passage of pending telecommunications legislation — since signed into law — that was vital to its huge cable interests. The current deal allows MCA to not release any specific music the company deems objectionable. Such music would be manufactured, distributed and marketed through unrelated third parties and MCA will earn no profit. Such is the case with Interscope/Death Row's charttopping Tupac Shakur. The rapper's latest expletive-laced record, All Eyez on Me, which captured the No. 1 spot on the nation's pop chart selling more than 565,000 units last week, is being distributed by PolyGram. Despite the gangsta rap controversy, five major record companies reportedly attempted to buy ..... (Continued Page 10)

MICHAEL JACKSON was in town for the BRIT AWARDS show at Earls Court, where he made his first "live" (actually it was lipsynched) TV performance since 1979. But it's more likely to be remembered for the minor scandal which was swiftly edited from the TV highlights of the show. Jackson put on a full MJ stage extravaganza (reportedly at a cost of £1 million). But while he was swinging his way across the audience in a hydraulic lift, mischievous PULP frontman JARVIS COCKER invaded the stage to mimic Jackson's performance. He was removed by Jackson's security as quickly as possible and was subsequently arrested, following allegations that he had assaulted several members of Jackson's dancing entourage of children. Cocker was released on police bail the following day. Sony issued a statement saying: "Michael Jackson respects Pulp as artists, but is totally shocked by their behaviour and utterly fails to understand their complete lack of respect for fellow artists and performers. His main concern is for the people that worked with him and the fact that children should be attacked. He feels sickened, saddened, shocked, upset, cheated, angry but is immensely proud that the cast remained professional and the show went on despite the disgusting and cowardly behaviour of the two characters that tried to disrupt it." It is not clear whether further action will be taken. Jackson was also presented with a special Artist of a Generation award.

PULP started their UK arena tour the night after the Brits. In a public response to the incident, Cocker denied the allegations and demanded an apology from Jackson saying: "My actions were a form of protest at the way Michael Jackson sees himself as some christ-like figure with the power of healing. The music industry allows him to indulge his fantasies because of his wealth and power. People go along with it even though they know it's a bit sick. I just couldn't go along with it any more. I didn't make physical contact with anyone as far as I recall. I certainly didn't push anybody off stage. I find it very insulting to be accused of assaulting children. All I was trying to do was make a point."

• Meanwhile, it was business as usual at the Brit Awards, where OASIS got the official pat on the back with awards for Best Group, Album, and Video (for "Wonderwall"). Other Brit Award winners included: Alanis Morissette for best international newcomer, Bon Jovi, for best international group, Bjork for best international female artist, Prince for best international male artist, Paul Weller for best British male artist, Annie Lennox for best British female, Supergrass for best British newcomer, Massive Attack for best dance act and Take That for best single (for "Back for Good"). David Bowie was presented with a lifetime achievement award.

• OASIS have rocketed to STADIUM STATUS with the announcement of their biggest gig to date at Main Road football ground in Manchester on April 28. The show - a co-promotion between MCP and SJM, promptly sold out all 39,000 tickets available in less than four hours. A second show on April 27 has been announced and tickets are due to go on sale February 26. This is said to be the final date of the band's European tour.

Harvey Goldsmith had no sooner confirmed one EAGLES date at WEMBLEY STADIUM - and put it on sale for real this time - than a second was added only three days later. At the moment they are scheduled to play Wembley on July 13 and 14 in an all-seated, side-on format. It will be the first stadium rock show to use an all-seater side-on configuration and the capacity will be 50,000 per night. A third Eagles show has also gone on sale at the Alfred McAlpine Stadium in Huddersfield on July 10.

In the wake of the teenage trauma spawned by TAKE THAT's untimely retirement, the Samaritans' helpline has set up a special phone line to give advice to devastated fans of the boy band. Meanwhile, it looks like GARY BARLOW will carry on where the band left off with a solo album and tour reportedly being planned for late summer.

CLIVE BANKS has ended his four-year management relationship with SIMPLE MINDS.

The ILMC looms ahead this week with over 500 people set to attend. ILMC head honcho MARTIN HOPEWELL says the event officially sold out within three weeks of the invitations going out at the beginning of January - before the panel chairmen had even registered. Taking place at the Intercontinental Hotel in London from March 1-3, the theme for the ILMC will be the industry's responsibility to new talent. GRAHAM WRENCH from the Sheffield Leadmill club will chair the panel Interscope, mainly because of its hot rock roster. The Journal spoke with record industry veteran Bob Buziak who suggested that so many companies were interested in Interscope because the label is building a rock catalog that will "sell for the next 15 years, in this country and in foreign markets." The Interscope roster includes Bush, Primus, Deep Blue Something, Toadies and BLACKstreet, as well as Nine Inch Nails through a joint venture with TVT Records. The company also distributes Dr. Dre and Snoop Doggy Dogg through Death Row Records. Interscope has about three percent of the domestic market, reportedly propelling MCA Music from sixth to fourth in U.S. music sales behind Warner, Sony and Polygram. MCA, which is 80 percent owned by Seagram Co., reportedly has an option to acquire the rest of Interscope in three to five years.

The Promoter Was Glowing With Glee

During a February 13th stop at the CoreStates Spectrum in Philadelphia, Electric Factory Concerts' Larry Magid (L) and the Spectrum's John Page (R) presented Bob Seger with a brick that will be laid in the walk of fame at the new CoreStates Center arena which is scheduled to open in September.

And Now The Legal Misery Begins

A 21-year-old concert-goer is suing two members of the Canadian band Misery, T-Birds nightclub in Portland, Maine, the New York company that reps the band and the Ohio-based manufacturer of a prop that exploded during the show. The devise was supposed to create smoke and a burst of light during the September 7th show. When it exploded, it blew up the stage and injured a dozen people. The suit came one month after two members of the Ottawa-based band pleaded guilty to assault and were fined $200 each. The two musicians, Stuart Ellis and Miguel Spires, deny responsibility for the explosion and have filed a counterclaim against T-Birds, seeking damages for injuries and emotional pain. T-Birds owner Peter Hamlin had no comment.

Thorn EMI Demerger Fuels Sale Rumors

Thorn EMI formally announced last week it will split its EMI Music Group and Thorn rentals businesses into two separate companies. The split could be finalized by the end of the year. Both companies are expected to be traded publicly. Music industry watchers speculate the demerger could make EMI Music a prime target for purchase. EMI Music includes the Virgin, Capitol and EMI record labels. According to the Wall Street Journal, possible suitors include the Walt Disney Co., Rupert Murdoch's News Corp., and Seagram Co. The latter would probably sell its interest in Time Warner to come up with the cash needed to add EMI to its newly acquired MCA operation.

Simply London

Slick Rick Gets Partial Freedom

Rapper Slick Rick, who has been serving a 10-year sentence for attempted murder since 1991, has been placed in a work release program. Rick — real name Ricky Walters — now spends two nights a week at a state facility in New York City and lives the rest of the time with his mother and 6-year-old son. The rap music pioneer is reportedly preparing to make an album. Rick's next parole hearing is in December 1997. Rick went to prison after shooting his cousin, whom he had suspected of theft.

Winnie The Pooh And MJ Too

Brazilian police arrested a reputed drug lord who played host to Michael Jackson and Spike Lee during their video shoot in a Rio slum. The 24-member police unit apprehended Marcio Amaro de Oliveira February 18th in the Dona Marta shantytown, the Jornal do Brasil newspaper reported. Local authorities fumed over reports that the film crew paid the slum's kingpin to provide security. Amaro de Oliveira told police that reports claiming Americans paid him to film in Dona Marta were wrong. Lee admitted that producers paid "somebody" for permission to film in the shantytown but said he didn't know if that somebody was a drug trafficker. MJ and Lee came to Dona Marta February 11th to shoot a video sequence for MJ's song about poverty, "They Don't Care About Us." Rio politicians saw the project as unwanted bad publicity and one unsuccessfully filed a lawsuit to try to stop the filming. From Brazil, MJ flew to England for an appearance at the Brit Awards (see page 8). When he went walking through a London square February 18th wearing his trademark hat, red fleece jacket and black surgical mask, one street performer must have thought it was too good to be true. A fire-eater at the Covent Garden Piazza mistook the King of Pop for an impostor and removed his mask. When he realized he had unmasked the real MJ, he complained that the superstar was taking away his business. MJ then gave the street performer a "substantial financial contribution," a Sony rep said. MJ apparently took to the city like a regular tourist. He bought a Winnie the Pooh lunch box, posed with fans and admired his own wax likeness at the Trocadero Rock Circus.

national finals of the MasterCard ACTS competition and celebrity addresses by Ken Kragen, Faith Hill and Greg Louganis. The NACA convention has traditionally featured college touring mainstays without major record deals during its showcases but this year, a new "Breakthrough Artists Showcase" has been added to the schedule. The national recording acts featured will be Blessid Union of Souls, Bonepony, Marcus Hummon and Orbit. A committee which included some music industry representatives choose the four acts and their alternates, Sister Machine Gun, The Caufields and Bill Miller.

Getting Stomped In Seattle

Jam Productions and Seattle Landmark Association (SLA) thank percussion group Stomp for breaking ticket sales records at the Moore Theatre in Seattle January 9-21. The group, which originated off Broadway in New York, played to capacity crowds during its entire two-week run. Pictured along with the cast of Stomp are (L-R front) Jam's Buddy Sokolik and Steve Traxler, Stomp tour manager Bill Ferry, and SLA's Chip Wilson and Josh LaBelle.

Another Fabulous Jackson Family Project

The Board of Works in Gary, Ind., voted unanimously to rescind a decision to lease city-owned property to a development group that wants to build a theme park devoted to the Jackson family. Mayor Scott King reportedly supports a park devoted to the entertainment family but said the lease was based on conflicts of interest and other legal complications. He reportedly said the park's developers, 6594 Development Foundation, are former Gary Mayor Thomas Barnes and other city officials who negotiated the lease while Barnes was still in office. State law prohibits outgoing city officials from doing business with the city for one year after leaving office, King said. The lease was approved December 27th by the outgoing Barnes administration. Apparently, the city council approved the lease soon after King took office on January 1st. When King vetoed the lease, the council overrode his veto and the mayor responded by ordering the Board of Public Works to refrain from entering into the lease. King also questioned the not-for-profit status of the group, saying the state law allows non-profits more freedom to obtain agreements with municipalities, but said the group had not obtained tax-exempt status. Further, King said the land is on a designated flood plain that cannot be developed. Brian Oxman, the L.A. lawyer representing much of the Jackson family --though not Michael or Janet - said he disagreed with the action and, "It's time for the mayor and I to have a serious talk."

An Ignorant Lack Of Service

The U.S. Justice Department reached agreements February 15th with two Louisiana nightclubs that had refused service to blacks. The owners of La Poussiere in Breaux Bridge and C'est Ma Vie Lounge in Broussard both agreed to stop illegally discriminating. The clubs' practices came to the attention of authorities last year after La Poussiere denied entrance to a black assistant U.S. attorney and C'est Ma Vie turned away a black teacher, who notified police. The Justice Department filed lawsuits against both clubs, which will be settled if judges accept the proposed deals which call for employee training in civil rights and local advertising stating the venues don't discriminate.

Brownie McGhee

Blues guitar legend Brownie McGhee, 80, died of stomach cancer February 16th at Summit Hospital in Oakland, Calif. McGhee preserved and popularized the finger-picking blues style of the Piedmont area of the Carolinas. Walter Brown McGhee and his longtime partner Sonny Terry were major figures in the folk revival of the late 50s and early 60s.

nnual Concert Industry Awards Party

1995 Nominating Committee

Each year POLLSTAR invites a different group of professionals representing a cross section of the concert industry to make the nominations for these annual awards. The rules are very simple: Members of the nominating committee may not nominate themselves or one of their clients. This rule effectively removes the pressure of any personal interests or feelings of obligation. And until tonight, none of those making nominations knew who else had been invited to participate.

Participation does not preclude members of the nominating committee or their clients from being nominated by other members. In order for a nomination to ultimately make the Concert Industry Awards ballot, it must receive several nominations from among the group of industry professionals making selections.

Ballots were mailed out to all POLLSTAR subscribers on December 4th and voting was completed at the end of that month.

A very special thanks to the seventy members of this year's committee.

Dear Gary B, Gary S, and all our friends at POLLSTAR,

On behalf of The Board of Directors of THE BOBBY BROOKS FOUNDATION, I would like to congratulate POLLSTAR on a most successful Concert Industry Consortium II. It is through both the dedication of our friends at POLLSTAR, and the support of those who attended the POLLSTAR Awards Gala and pledged the Golf Tournament, that THE BOBBY BROOKS FOUNDATION has made great progress with the 1995 opening of the first BOBBY BROOKS ACADEMY at The Harold Wilson Middle School in Newark, New Jersey.

I am extremely proud to be part of an industry that continually demonstrates long term commitment and high standards. Your hard work, generous donations and friendship have kept Bobby's memory alive.

I will look forward to seeing you all at our next fundraising event on March 25, 1996 at 6:00 p.m. for the 4th annual BOBBY BROOKS "OSCAR NIGHT AT CAA" celebration. This year's event offers an automatic chance to win two First Class tickets to Hawaii on NORTHWEST AIRLINES, a BUDGET car rental and hotel accommodations at THE SHERATON PRINCEVILLE HOTEL for a fun-filled and fabulous five night ISLAND GETAWAY!!!!

Again, I would like to extend my deepest gratitude for your invaluable efforts. It means so much to us.

Best New Rock Artist Tour

When this South Carolina band first drew the attention of the concert industry, the public was still asking, "What's Hootie?" Today, just a bit more than a year later, everyone - including many who are totally out-of-touch with contemporary music - know exactly who and what Hootie & The Blowfish is.

With their strong touring history, Dean Felber, Soni, Darius Rucker and Mark Bryan were bringing in $1,000 a night playing frat parties around the Southeast even before the band was signed to Atlantic Records.

Hootie & The Blowfish kicked off '95 playing clubs but by year's end, the band was able to sell out a 20,000-capacity amphitheatre with no problem.

Hootie is booked by Monterey Peninsula Artists which provides the perfect, non-suit style for this band. The group handled all of its business in-house until very recently. In addition to the four players, Hootie considers manager Rusty Harmon an equal partner in the project.

Also nominated were Alanis Morissette, Bush and Foo Fighters.

The Charlie Hunter Trio, based in the San Francisco Bay Area, has come to be known for its hybrid jazz style which is made up of fancy fretwork and melodic post-bebop jazz backed by funky grooves.

The notable thing about this trio, besides the unique eight-string guitar Charlie plays (five guitar strings and three bass strings), is its ability to Best New NAC / Jazz Artist appeal to younger listeners who traditionally favor alternative music.

Charlie, who was a member of the innovative hip-hop act Disposable Heroes of Hiphoprisy, did however release his first album on Les Claypool's (Primus) Prawn Song label, so the alternative connection is definitely there. And the Charlie Hunter Trio (now signed to Blue Note) toured on the second stage of Lollapalooza in '94.

The exposure from that tour helped build market awareness with promoters which was essential when Joe Brauner of APA decided to tour the band in '95 outside of mainstream jazz clubs. Going into alternative rooms, playing with a wide variety of artists and being marketed as an acidjazz alternative act appears to have been the right formula for success.

Also nominated were Cesaria Evora and Craig Chaquico.

As the support act for last year's extensive Boyz II Men tour, Atlantic recording artist Brandy spent most of her time on the road while her teenage peers were hanging out at the local mall.

Best New Rap / Dance Artist Tour

Her personal motto of "All things are possible" proves that nothing is out of reach for this 16year-old R&B singer.

Brandy has garnered a No. 1 hit, a multiplatinum album, landed a television show and received a plethora of awards nominations along with the accolades that came during the lengthy U.S. tour in support of Boyz II Men. That tour and other dates booked by ICM led to a vocal collaboration with Boyz' Wanya Morris. Brandy also collaborated with Lenny Kravitz for a track on the "Batman Forever" soundtrack.

She has been using her new-found celebrity to help young people pursue their education and recently participated in an all-star benefit concert for Urban Aid/LIFEbeat at Madison Square Garden.

The other nominees were D'Angelo, Montell Jordan and The Notorious B.I.G.

-Alison Krauss & Union Station

Best New Country Artist Tour

Alison Krauss & Union Station, booked and managed by Denise Stiff at Keith Case & Associates, made such an impact in '95 that few people actually realized that Alison has been singing with the group for nearly 10 years.

Despite the band's history, last year was definitely the year that the world came to know Alison Krauss & Union Station. The band managed to keep its bluegrass fans while expanding its reach to include country and pop music fans.

Alison and the band swept a gaggle of awards shows in '95. Alison won all four CMA Awards for which she was nominated: female vocalist, single, vocal event and the Horizon Award for most promising new artist. At the International Bluegrass Music Awards, Alison reclaimed her tiara when she was named Entertainer Of The Year - an award she first received in 1991.

David Lee Murphy, Terri Clark and The Tractors were also nominated.

እ Reba McEntire

Most Creative Stage Production

Reba McEntire's stage productions have come to be known as some of the most innovative in the business.

With the guidance of manager Narvel Blackstock and tenacity of agent Mike Allen, the country music superstar has proven she is more than simply a singer - she is a first class live entertainer with a stage production to match.

Tour production manager Brian Leedham, who has worked with Rod Stewart and Jimmy Buffett among others, came to the Starstruck camp from Pace Concerts.

Leedham works closely with set designers Larry Hitchcock and Tom Strahan, who are in their fifth year of working with Reba. Strahan and Hitchcock's most obvious use of technology was a video wall made up of 32 40-inch projection modules that could be configured in various ways.

Tait Towers engineered and built the wall.

Joining the top-notch production team is Peter Morse who has used his keen eye to design lighting for the King of Pop and now, the Queen of Country. Morpheus Lights was general lighting contractor, Showco provided the sound and Future Sonics helped develop the wireless and hardwired monitor system.

Other nominees were Nine Inch Nails, R.E.M., and the Rolling Stones overseas tour.

After childhood success came and went, 21year-old Alanis Morissette exploded onto the music scene in '95 with her hit single "You Outta Know."

Club Tour Of The Year

Not long after radio fans got to know her, concert-goers began showing equally enthusiastic support. With a tour that didn't start until summer, Alanis' first few headlining shows at tiny clubs (185-350 average) did great business and it wasn't long before she had stepped up to sell-outs at 3,000-capacity theatres. Rob Light at CAA is the agent behind Alanis' steady touring triumphs.

Critical acclaim came Alanis' way as quickly as the public's admiration. With six Grammy nominations and more than 4 million copies of her Maverick Records debut sold, this Canadian-born singer/songwriter has made everyone forget her teenage disco diva days.

Also nominated were 311, Collective Soul, Foo Fighters and Rusted Root.

When the Virginia-based Dave Matthews Band started making an impression on the concert business, pop radio and MTV didn't even know the band existed. But with a tour history that could rival any established act's, the band with the grass roots following finally broke through to the mainstream and is currently being embraced by the masses.

The Dave Matthews Band kicked off last year playing in facilities that only held about 1,500 people but by year's end, the band had moved up to much larger facilities, playing to more than halfa-million fans in '95.

Booked by Chip Hooper at Monterey Peninsula Artists, the DMB worked more than 100 days last year, continuing the heavy road warrior philosophy that helped turn the band into the formidable attraction it is today.

Also nominated were Blues Traveler, Bush, Natalie Merchant and Primus.

🛞 The H.O.R.D.E. Festival

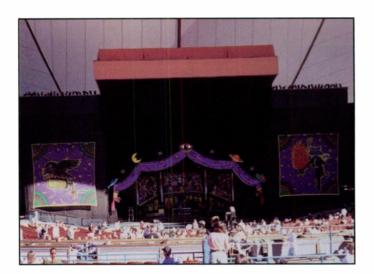

Most Creative Tour Package

The 1995 "Horizons of Rock Developing Everywhere Festival," coordinated by Dave Frey and John Popper and booked by CAA, grew to be one of the premier touring packages of the year.

Last year, The Black Crowes, Blues Traveler and Ziggy Marley & The Melody Makers held down the headline positions with an assortment of other hot new acts filling out the bill. H.O.R.D.E. has become known as a tour that can give great exposure to artists who are serious about touring.

Among the artists who were boosted significantly by some H.O.R.D.E. appearances was relative unknown Joan Osborne.

The tour played mostly 10,000- to 20,000capacity venues including stops at many major amphitheatres.

Other packages nominated were David Bowie / Nine Inch Nails, Live / P.J. Harvey / Veruca Salt, Lollapalooza '95, and REO Speedwagon / Fleetwood Mac / Pat Benatar.

Major Tour Of The Year

When hell froze over, the Eagles hit the road, band mates wrote songs together and the group's 1995 tour made the record books as the most lucrative reunion in concert business history.

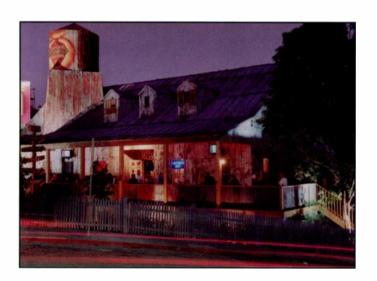

Don Henley, Glenn Frey, Joe Walsh, Timothy B. Schmit and Don Felder proved to be a major bright spot on the touring landscape. The Eagles' "Hell Freezes Over" tour generated an incredible $63.3 million in '95 ticket sales in North America. The band's average gross for its 58 shows in 46 cities was about $1.4 million.

In the course of playing to nearly one million fans in '95, the tour stopped at facilities ranging from the 56,000-capacity Mile High Stadium in Denver to the 8,750-capacity Mobile Civic Center in Alabama. Long-time Eagles manager Irving Azoff and William Morris senior exec Peter Grosslight coordinated the tour.

Also nominated were Page / Plant, R.E.M., and the Rolling Stones overseas tour.

For the second year in a row, the House of Blues in West Hollywood won the honor for Nightclub Venue Of The Year. Talent buyer Kevin Morrow saw to it that the acts that stopped at the HoB in '95 were a virtual who's who of not only blues artists, but artists in all genres of music.

🛞 House Of Blues

Nightclub Of The Year

The delta-inspired restaurant and live music venue opened its doors in May of 1994 and immediately became the premier nightspot in Los Angeles. In '95, the state-of-the-art live showroom not only continued its reputation as "the place to be" but improved on it.

The Sunset Strip club, with lead investors including the Harvard Endowment Fund, Dan Aykroyd, Jim Belushi and Aerosmith, was the third in the chain developed by Hard Rock Cafe cofounder Isaac Tigrett. The flagship House of Blues opened in Cambridge, Mass., in 1993 and the coming years will see new clubs opening in several additional markets.

Also nominated were the 9:30 Club, Billy Bob's Texas, Electric Factory, Grizzly Rose and Metro.

This is the second straight year the Universal Amphitheatre has won this award. Jay Marciano, Larry Vallon, Alex Hodges, John Van Zeebroek, Melissa Miller and company did SRO shows with an eclectic mix of acts including Stevie Wonder,

Theatre Of The Year

Jon Secada, Raffi, Ana Gabriel, the Cranberries, Yanni, Reba McEntire, and Live.

The venue staff stays in touch with its huge and diverse community and the shows it hosts truly reflect the interests of the Southern California melting pot. From mariachis to moshers, the facility has hosted it all.

For years now, the 6,251-capacity Universal has been a favorite with major artists who could easily play an arena but prefer multiple nights in the smaller, more intimate building with its stateof-the-art production facilities.

Also nominated were the Beacon Theatre, the Fox Theatre in Atlanta, the Fox Theatre in St. Louis, Radio City Music Hall, Sunrise Musical Theatre, and the Palace Theatre in Louisville.

Molson Amphitheatre

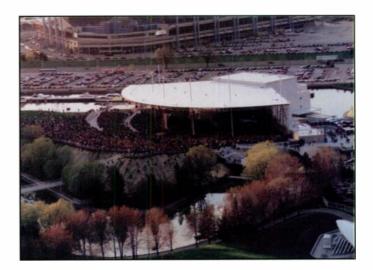

Best New Major Concert Venue

During its inaugural season, the Molson Amphitheatre hosted 30 concerts and more than 300,000 ticketholders en route to totally dominating the summer concert market in Toronto.

The venue is owned and operated by MCA Concerts Canada and MCA Concerts President Jay Marciano attributes a major part of the venue's immediate success to its "extraordinary partner," Molson Breweries.

Bryan Adams kicked off the debut season and set the tone for the successes to follow. R.E.M., Hootie & The Blowfish, Megadeth, Engelbert Humperdinck, Queensryche, Barry Manilow, Jimmy Buffett, and the Gipsy Kings were but a few of the acts who played The Molson during its historic first year.

The 16,000-capacity venue is situated on an island in the Ontario Place parklands and the lawn seating offers a spectacular view of the Toronto cityscape.

Also nominated were the FleetCenter, General Motors Place, Meadows Music Theatre, Nissan Pavilion at Stone Ridge, the Rose Garden Arena, the Rosemont Theatre, and Blockbuster Sony Centre at the Waterfront.

The Royal Albert Hall has been immortalized in a Beatle's song, become a home away from home for Eric Clapton, and has now won two consecutive International Venue awards. It has become a bastion in the rock concert business, a feat that would no doubt surprise its builders.

In 1897, Queen Victoria placed the first stone for the London venue. The domed Hall is a memorial to the queen's prince consort and has always attracted royalty - both the real thing and the rock 'n' roll kind.

Along with Eric Clapton's multinight run, the Albert Hall also hosted shows ranging from the Black Crowes to Cyndi Lauper during 1995. With a capacity of 5,205, the venue also serves as a sports arena, conference venue and multipurpose entertainment center.

The other venues nominated were Bercy in Paris, Festhalle in Frankfurt, NEC Arena in Birmingham, Nynex Arena in Manchester, Singapore Indoor Stadium, Sydney Entertainment Centre and Wembley Arena & Stadium.

Once again, Red Rocks has proven it's hard to beat Mother Nature. The geological wonder has aced this category six out of the past seven years. The acoustics are outstanding and the setting is simply breathtaking, which is why many artists – 🎯 Red Rocks Amphitheatre

Nestled in grassy terrain high above the Columbia River gorge in George, Wash., The Gorge amphitheatre offers a unique concert-going experience. Best Large Outdoor Concert Venue

The amphitheatre's surroundings certainly contribute to its popularity, but The Gorge has a lot more going for it than landscaping. Numerous renovations have been made since MCA Concerts Northwest bought the shed in 1993. The audience area was improved, access roads were upgraded and better backstage accommodations were added.

The Gorge is located in a rural area several hours drive from any major market. But the distance apparently doesn't matter as fans flocked to the 18,500-capacity venue during 1995 to see the likes of Tom Petty, R.E.M., Page/Plant and many other major acts.

Also nominated were Great Woods Center, Molson Amphitheatre, Shoreline Amphitheatre and the Walnut Creek Amphitheatre.

🛞 Madison Square Garden

Arena Of The Year

The venerable Madison Square Garden has scored its third award in a row in this category. Not ownership changes nor blizzard conditions could tarnish the building's prestige.

In 1995, the Garden hosted several major shows that generated serious ticket sales. Six Elton John concerts brought in a total gross of more than $3 million. A three-night run by R.E.M. grossed more than $2 million. And Eric Clapton, Phish and Page/Plant each brought in more than $1 million.

Former ITG agent Joel Peresman leads the topnotch concert team at the Garden along with Concerts Director Salvadore Urdanavia and Executive VP of Entertainment/Marketing Susan Denison. The overall management of MSG comes from Dave Checketts.

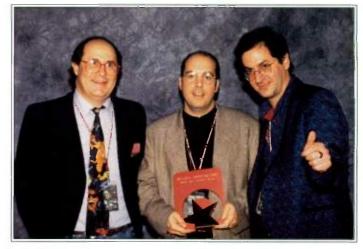

Arenas in other markets may put on more shows, but it's still true that many artists don't feel they've really made it until they've headlined this NYC institution.

Also nominated were the America West Arena, Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim, Palace of Auburn Hills, and the United Center.

🛞 Leave Home Booking

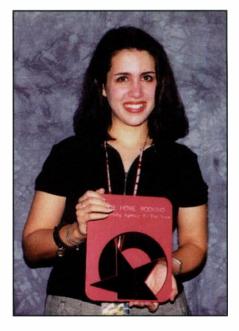

Small Booking Agency Of The Year

Leave Home Booking is the result of the hard work and dedication Stormy Shepherd has put into the concert industry since she was a teenager. Leave Home started in the basement of Stormy's parent's home in 1989. She promoted all-ages shows in Salt Lake City while attending high school and managed a few local bands as well.

She continued her concert career in college at the University of Utah as noon-time concert coordinator and gradually worked her way up to the college's concert chair position.

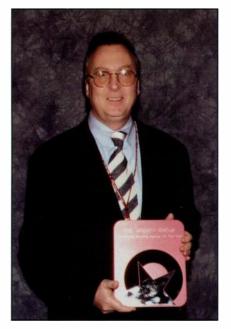

Stormy paid her way through school working for a local record store and doing publicity and radio promotion for indie hardcore label Revelation Records. From there, she said she "went on as many van tours as time would permit and drove, sold merchandise and saw as many clubs and promoters as possible."

Leave Home Booking became a full-time occupation for Stormy when The Offspring took off in 1994. Though her success with bands like The Offspring, Rancid and NOFX has thrust her into dealing more with mainstream promoters and venues, Stormy's independent, punk rock mentality hasn't changed.

Others nominated were Artists & Audience, Chief Talent, Little Big Man Booking, Pinnacle Entertainment and Progressive Global Agency.

The Agency Group was born when Neil Warnock bought out the Bron Agency in 1980 and gave it a new name.

In 1967, Neil joined NEMS Enterprises where eventually, he was booking bands like Pink Floyd. He brought the majority of artists he represented at NEMS with him when he joined Bron in 1973.

Some of the artists that stayed during Bron's transition to The Agency Group, like Pink Floyd and Deep Purple, remain with the company to this day. At the same time, the agency has stayed current by signing new artists like Foo Fighters, Edwyn Collins, Moist, Pizzicato Five and Stabbing Westward. On the job booking those acts are agents Derek Kemp, Geoff Meall, Russell Warby and Paul Buck.

Faced with U.S. agencies opening offices in the U.K., The Agency Group became the first U.K. agency to successfully open a U.S. office in 1993. That operation, which is run by Steve Schenck and Steve Martin, is also enjoying a great bit of success.

The other nominees were Asgard, Fair Warning - Wasted Talent, International Talent Booking, Leighton-Pope Organization, Primary Talent International, and Solo - ITG.

Concert Industry Award Winners 1995

The cool clean coastal air that blows beyond mainstream concert industry hubs may be the secret weapon that inspires the folks at Monterey Peninsula Artists to remain a driving force in the music business. Or perhaps it's the close-knit team of agents bursting with creative booking strategies that keeps MPA on top. Either way, the amount of talent on the agency's roster is overwhelming and the hot new acts just keep coming.

- 😸 Monterey Peninsula Artists Booking Agency Of The Year

With seven clients among the Top 50 Tours of 1995, MPA saw talent it signed just a year earlier, like Hootie & The Blowfish and the Dave Matthews Band, develop into huge concert attractions. Other MPA acts on that list of top 50 artists were Yanni, Melissa Etheridge, The Doobie Brothers, Blues Traveler and Phish.

Fred Bohlander and Dan Weiner founded Monterey Peninsula Artists in 1975. Today, they have respected and well liked agents Paul Goldman, Chip Hooper and Frank Riley on the job handling Monterey's impressive client roster. The agency also has its country offshoot, Monterey Artists in Nashville and its Chicago-based Monterey International operation to concentrate on the jazz, blues and world music market.

Also nominated were CAA, ICM and William Morris Agency.

Kevin Morrow has only been eligible for this award for two years and he's won it both times.

Kevin joined the House of Blues in 1994 after running the Falk & Morrow Talent Agency for 10 years. He also had his own management company where his clients included Pops Staples, Charlie Musslewhite, the Paladins and the Blind Boys of Alabama. With that background, he was a natural to book the HoB in West Hollywood.

Kevin had some talent buying experience before he got his current gig. He promoted his first concert when he was 17. It took place on his mother's front lawn and attracted 1,500 people as well as the Costa Mesa Police Riot Squad. He's refined his tactics since then, but Kevin still knows how to pack 'em in.

Also nominated were Jodi Goodman, Seth Hurwitz, Ken Phebus, Nick Miller and Gary Osier.

Tour Manager Of The Year

For the second year in a row, Stuart Ross was recognized for the work he's put into making Lollapalooza the successful, award winning tour it has become. With multiple stages and umpteen acts to deal with, keeping such a show on the road is obviously no small feat. Though Stuart has put much of his time and energy into Lollapalooza over the past five years, he also provides a variety of services for several other touring acts.

He's worn many hats during his music industry career including those of a personal manager, tour manager, tour accountant, tour director and tour coordinator. He's worked with acts such as Maynard Ferguson, Leon Redbone, Missing Persons, Tom Waits, Thomas Dolby, George Benson, Stray Cats, Richard Marx, The Church, Elton John, Bob Newhart and Jane's Addiction. He has also served as a tour consultant to Nine Inch Nails.

Back in 1988, Seth Hurwitz won the Nightclub Talent Buyer Of The Year award for his work at his 9:30 Club. The scope of his endeavors has increased since then and his I.M.P (It's My Party) promotion company promotes several acts who have moved up to theatres or arenas. He is also the promoter of record in the D.C. market for the Lollapalooza tour.

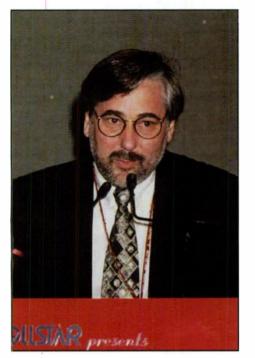

The relationships Seth has built with bands are evident in the caliber of shows he promotes. That is matched only by his ear for music which has lead him to book into the 9:30 Club every act that ever went on to play the Lollapalooza tour's main stage.

Seth still maintains his street credibility, taking chances on new acts and sticking by old friends. The arena-size Smashing Pumpkins was the first band to play his newly relocated 9:30 Club, which he swears (endlessly) is the finest club ever built.

Also nominated were Carl Pennington, Doug Kauffman, Jeff Fortier, Jesse Morreale, Steven Harris, Steve Moore, and Sue McLean.

Third Coast Agent Of The Year

Rod Essig was thrilled nearly to tears to be voted this year's Third Coast Agent Of The Year. And he has certainly put in the time and energy that it takes to become what he calls a "22-year overnight success" story.

Starting in 1973 in Minneapolis, Rod served as vice president and co-owner of Variety Artists International. He and the company relocated to Los Angeles in 1985 where he continued to build his reputation in the business.

Since 1993, he's been enjoying life in Nashville working at CAA and helping build that office into one of the most formidable operations in Music City. His clients include Joe Diffie, Ty Herndon, Barbara Mandrell, Tim McGraw, Randy Travis, Wynonna, Rhett Akins, Daryle Singletary, and 4-Runner.

Also nominated in this category were James Yelich, John Huie, Keith Miller, Rick Shipp and Tony Conway.

-🛞 Brad Mayne

Facility Executive Of The Year

As general manager of the arena fondly known as the Pond, Brad Mayne oversees Ogden Entertainment Services' 30-year contract with the city of Anaheim to run the 19,400-seat, $120 million Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim.

Mayne started working for Ogden in 1989 and signed on with the Pond as project coordinator during its construction phase. He was named GM as soon as the building needed one. During 1995, he saw the Pond host successful shows by some of the biggest artists on tour.

The need for Brad's expertise does not end with concerts. The Pond is home to five professional sports franchises and attracts a number of family shows and sporting events.

Also nominated were Bob Machen, Bob Rice, Bob Williams, John Croley, Michael Marion and Peter Luukko.

🛞 Larry Butler

Artist Development Executive Of The Year

For the second year in a row, Larry Butler's efforts to assist concert promoters in breaking Warner Bros. touring acts has been acknowledged by the industry. It's also an honor he is quick to share with the entire Bunny staff ranging from Carl Scott to Jo Ttanna.

Larry began his music industry career managing, booking and playing in Ohio bar bands during high school and college. That segued into a series of tour manager gigs in the '70s with bands like Randy Newman, Ry Cooder and Isaac Hayes.

He joined Warner Bros. in 1979 when he landed what he calls the "coveted" college artist development manager job. He says it was a series of unrelated events that in 1991, led him to his current position of VP artist relations.

Also nominated in this category were Andy Kaulkin, Jay Faires, Larry Weintraub, Michael Goldstone, Steve Davis, Steve Kleinberg and Vince Bannon.

🛞 John Paluska

Personal Manager Of The Year

John Paluska is just a manager at heart. And he's a faithful one-band man too. He began managing Phish in 1988 during his senior year at Amherst College and after all these years, the band remains his sole client.

Phish is the only band John's ever managed and according to him, it's probably the only band he'll ever manage. And all of his attention to detail helped Phish build itself into one of last year's top 20 touring attractions.

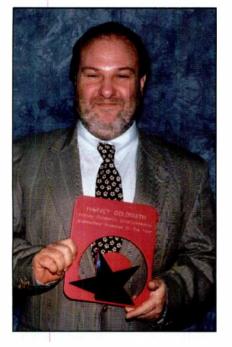

John recently relocated his Dionysian Productions from Boston to Burlington, Vt., to be closer to his band. It will be from that rural outpost that he'll help chart the course of the band which some have annointed keepers of the live concert spirit exemplified by the Grateful Dead.

Also nominated were Bill Curbishley, Cliff Burnstein and Peter Mensch, Jim Guerinot, Jefferson Holt, John Silva and Peter Freedman.

Concert Industry Award Winners 1995

🛞 Harvey Goldsmith

Since putting on his first gigs in the '60s, Harvey has made a name for himself in the concert industry as one of the U.K.'s top promoters.

But glitter and gold aside, Harvey had made use of his talents during the past several decades to raise funds for many worthy causes. In fact, his name has become synonymous with The Prince's Trust concerts, which raise money to help the country's underprivileged youth. He was made vice chairman of the Prince's Trust Management International Promoter Of The Year

Board in 1993. Some U.K. agents fear he might soon be knighted by the Queen and they will have to call him Sir Harvey.

Harvey has also been one to demonstrate creative promoting, recently putting the Cirque du Soleil into the Royal Albert Hall and getting Woody Allen to play with his jazz band for the first time in England.

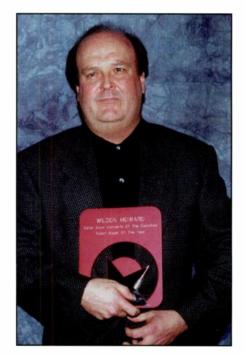

Also nominated in this category were Barrie Marshall of Marshall Arts, U.K.; Leon Ramakers of Mojo Concerts, Netherlands; Marcel Avram from Mama Concerts & Rau, Germany; Michael Coppel of Michael Coppel Presents, Australia; Michael Gudinski & Michael Chugg from Frontier Touring, Australia; Phil Rodriguez of Water Brother Productions, Brazil; and Tim Parsons from MCP Promotions, U.K.

Talent Buyer Of The Year

Wilson Howard joined Jack Boyle's Cellar Door company 10 years ago but his relationship with the organization goes back even further. As far back as 1974, Wilson was promoting concerts in the South. Even though he worked for another company, he co-promoted many shows with Cellar Door.

His familiarity with the business and its people has earned him great respect throughout the region. From his South Carolina headquarters, Wilson takes the point on booking talent for the Nissan Pavilion at Stone Ridge in Bristow, Va; the soon-to-be-opened Virginia Beach Amphitheatre; Walnut Creek Amphitheatre in Raleigh, N.C.; Blockbuster Pavilion in Charlotte, N.C.; and the Paladium at Paramount's Carowinds, also in Charlotte.

Also nominated were Charlie Blum, David Marsden, Ed Micone, Jay Marciano, Steve Hauser and Vince Longo.

1995 Concert Industry Awards Party

Dave Matthews Band manager Coran Capshaw (L) shuns the spotlight but was caught on film with Matt Need of Carl's Garage and Shawn Radley from Don Law.

Paul Wehrley (L) of Miller Brewing, Randy McElrath from Cellar Door and his wife Peggy admire Denny Dent's completed works of art.

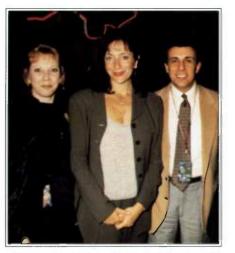

Jon Humphrey from Bill Silva Presents and his wife Sandy flash their San Diego smiles for friend and agent Robert Norman from ICM.

Atlantic Records' Steve Davis discusses the label's successful year with Andy Gould from Concrete Management and Ron Laffitte of Elektra Entertainment.

The Crown Group's Victoria Weaver with Marla Hoicowitz of Ticketmaster and Frank J. Russo of Pequot Entertainment.

POLLSTAR's Gary Smith spends his evening trying to cool down Fire Marshall Tom Riegner's fear of overcrowding.

ICM's Andy Somers (L) says hello to Bill Vuylsteke (R) of Provident Financial Management and his wife, Eleanor.

Concert Industry Award Winners 1995

Bill Graham Award For Promoter Of The Year

He may try to duck out of the limelight, but that didn't stop the industry from giving Jack Boyle the Bill Graham Award for the third year in a row.

His entertainment industry story dates back more than 30 years when an enterprising young man took $1,100 he won in a poker game and turned it into an interest in a neighborhood bar. That bar turned into three bars and in 1965, Jack made his first move into the national concert business with a Fats Domino show. In 1971, he left the bar business behind and moved full force into the concert business.

Today his Cellar Door Concerts empire has seven offices in six states - South Carolina, Virginia, Florida, Michigan, Wisconsin and Georgia and, in an egalitarian move, each is run by people who are equity partners.

Others nominated were Alex Cooley, Don Law, Gregg Perloff, Irv Zuckerman, Larry Magid, Paul Tollett and Ted Mankin.

🛞 Rob Light

Bobby Brooks Award For Agent Of The Year

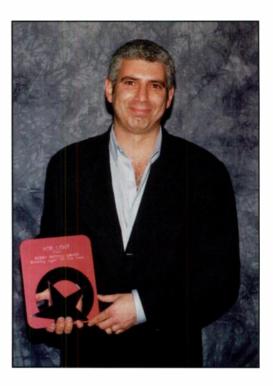

This is the fourth time since 1986 that Rob Light's peers have named him agent of the year.

He started his music industry career as the concert chairman at Syracuse University. Fresh out of college in 1978, Rob joined ICM in a mailroom training position. He was out of the mailroom in two weeks and was made a full agent the next year.

It was in 1984 that Tom Ross invited Rob to help launch CAA's fledgling music division. Rob helped to turn the agency's initiative into the thriving success it is today.

He is the responsible agent for stars such as Janet Jackson, Ozzy Osbourne, Bon Jovi, Bob Seger, Alanis Morissette, John Mellencamp and Green Day. Rob was also the agent for the record-setting Barbra Streisand tour.

Others nominated in this category were Bob Lawton, Buck Williams, Chip Hooper, Dan Weiner, Jonathan Levine, Kevin Gasser, and Stormy Shepherd.

INT'L MUSIC NETWORK: Chip Tingle

We are extremely proud to announce the reunion tour of The Guitar Trio featuring Paco de Lucia, Al Dimeola, and John McLaughlin in North America. The tour begins on the West Coast November 1st and routes east through November 25th. /// Good luck this week to our Grammy Award nominees. The Yellowjackets are nominated for the ninth time, this time for best contemporary jazz performance for their Warner Bros. release, Dreamland. /// Legendary gospel group The Mighty Clouds Of Joy are up for best contemporary gospel performance. /// Downbeat Magazine's Triple Crown winner for artist, album and tenor player of the year, Joe Lovano, is up for yet another Grammy, this time in the large ensemble jazz category for his Blue Note collaboration with Gunther Schuller, Rush Hour. Joe's new release, Quartets -- Live at the Village Vanguard, has just hit the streets, again on Blue Note. /// South African Mbaquanga superstars Mahlathini & The Mahotella Queens are out for festivals in June and July. /// Africa's shining stars, Angelique Kidjo and Salif Keita still have a few remaining avails for their respective tours in March and April. Angelique's fifa and Salif's Folon...the Past have just been released on Island/Mango to very enthusiastic response. /// The Brazilian powerhouse percussion troupe Olodum will tour this fall. There are still scattered avails. /// The Sabris Brothers were featured on the cover of Billboard two weeks ago, picked as Pakistan's foremost Qawwli group. They're out in October of this year. /// Gospel/R&B/jazz powerhouse The Sounds Of Blackness will tour throughout the year. The 20-member ensemble has just returned from a successful South American tour opening for Stevie Wonder. /// And we're proud to announce the signing of the rising star of the Celtic world, Seamus Eagan. He is accepting festival and club work for this summer.

GBA: Geoffrey Blumenauer

The Strawberry Alarm Clock with Spencer Davis has added former Buffalo Springfield drummer Dewey Martin to its line up, kind of a Strawberry Jam. The band's tour kicks off on the West Coast April 13th. /// "An Evening With The Composer" is the new tour title Rick Roberts, (ex-Firefall/Flying Burrito Bros.) is working under. He is responsible for hits like "You Are The Woman" and "Just Remember I Love You" and is based in Colorado. /// The Etouffee Band, centered mostly in the Northwest, performs a hot mix of Louisiana Cajun mixed with a lethal dose of the blues. /// Big Brother & The Holding Co., contains all original members (except Janis of course), are S.F.-based and have immediate avails.

Between The Dates

■ Icelandic singer BJORK reportedly went bjerk and attacked a journalist representing a Thai television station at the Bangkok airport last week. Reporter Julie Kaufman told Reuters, "All I said was 'Welcome to Thailand' and she (Bjork) just hit me, lost control and went crazy." Kaufman also said she was stunned by the attack and watched as Bjork was led away by her bodyguards to a waiting vehicle. Kaufman also said that the singer called the following day to apologize for the incident saying that she was under pressure from the press. Bjork, who was in Bangkok for an all-day concert gave the locals something more than her music — footage of the attack was shown on one of Bangkok's TV stations.

■ While aspiring musicians are always looking for a "little exposure," singer-songwriter KRISTILOCKWOOD took the phrase literally as she strolled down Music Row February 14th wearing nothing but a smile, brown cowboy boots and a cowboy hat. Lockwood admitted that the stroll was strictly for publicity because after three years of pounding on doors no one had paid any attention to her songs. "I didn't know what else to do, and I really wanted to get some exposure," she said. Well, walking around Nashville butt-naked will certainly get some people's attention and in that sense it worked. After several complaints, Nashville police issued Lockwood a citation for indecent exposure and then escorted her home.

Doctors say the use of aspirin irritated an ulcer and caused the gastrointestinal bleeding that forced TAMMY WYNETTE to be hospitalized two weeks ago. Wynette became weak while traveling through Oklahoma on her way to an engagement in Laughlin, Nevada. At press time Wynette was expected to be released from Oklahoma City's Integris Baptist Medical Center "any day now," and plans to be back on stage in time for her March 9th concert in Myrtle Beach.

The royal honeymoon for The Artist Formerly Known As PRINCE took place in Hawaii, where TAFKAP and the new Mrs. performed three shows at the Neil Blaisdell Center the weekend after the Valentine's Day wedding. Plans were for TAFKAP and Mayte to marry in France, but the couple couldn't meet the French residency laws in order to be married in that country. So the ceremony was switched to Minneapolis, where even as flowers were being delivered to the church a TAFKAP spokesperson was still insisting that the wedding was going to take place in Paris. Although the symbol guy had dropped the Prince moniker a few years ago, the marriage license was reportedly made out to Rogers Nelson (his given name) and Mayte Jannel Garcia. Details of the wedding were posted on the official TAFKAP web page at http://www.thedawn.com, and included the info that TAFKAP and Mayte were soulmates before being born upon this earth, and that the purple one first saw Mayte when her parents came to see him perform in Germany. Upon seeing her, he turned to Rosie Gaines and said, "look Rosie, there's my future wife."

YES will perform two special shows in San Luis Obispo, California on March 5 & 6 at the 900 seat Fremont Theatre. A live album will be drawn from the concerts, and no other dates are expected at this time. The latest incarnation of the band is that of their mid 1970s lineup — Jon Anderson, Chris Squire, Steve Howe, Rick Wakeman and Alan White.

discussion on developing new artists. Former MCA managing director STUART WATSON will lead an examination of the record company perspective on this subject. MARCEL AVRAM and ANDREW ZWECK will chair the panel on the relationship between government and live music which will include discussion on the new German tax legislation in "Big Brother is F***ing you!". PETER GROSSLIGHT of William Morris will chair the sponsorship session "Your Company Logo Here?" and French promoter JULES FRUTOS will lead the session on marketing, "Selling Out In The Show Business". The Sunday morning breakout meetings include a new record company session chaired by EMI's MARK COLLEN, plus one for the agents - "The Booking Ring-Round 2."

■ Wembley has presented MARSHALL ARTS with its annual award for Top Promoter of the Year. Marshall Arts won on the strength of promoting sell-out shows by Rod Stewart and Janet Jackson as well as R. Kelly. This year Marshall Arts will promote two Tina Turner shows at Wembley Stadium.

Australian News Report

Following up on her December dates in Australia with The Eagles, Frontier Touring have announced an April headlining tour for MELISSA ETHERIDGE.

■ New Sony Music signings HUMAN NATURE have been confirmed as supports for Celine Dion's upcoming national tour.

Two new Sony acts from the States, GROOVE THEORY and DOGS EYE VIEW, are both in Australia towards the end of February for promotional tours.

■ INXS have taken on new management and signed a world-wide recording contract with Mercury Records. All agency representation remains the same. Michael Hutchence and Andrew Farris have spent the majority of the last three months writing and the band are currently talking to a number of producers with a view to begin recordings a new album before Easter. The band have appointed PAUL CRAIG of Sound Management Associates in London to become their world-wide manager. Craig has worked with INXS since the 1988 Kick album campaign as their European management rep. On his appointment Craig said: "Having worked and been friends with INXS for over 7 years, I am extremely excited about becoming their world-wide manager. INXS are one of the biggest groups in the world and they are

Adrian Bohm has announced that SANDRA BERNHARD will do a second Sydney performance of her "Excuses For Bad Behaviour" show on March 1 at the State Theatre.

■ Not too surprisingly, with a FEDERAL ELECTION coming on March 2, both major parties have started dangling carrots in front of the music industry. According to various reports, the Australian Labor Party has talked about the expansion of youth radio network Triple J into any area that has a population greater than 3,000. Added to this there's promises that they'll give support to the network to enable them to tour and record bands from regional areas. Then there's $2 million to develop the J's World Wide Web site. That comes to around $12 million earmarked for Triple J. The ALP has also come up with other potential vote capturers in the development of the Music Industry Development Assistance Scheme (MIDAS) which will be done with AUSMUSIC.

■ The LIBERAL PARTY have promised a $3 million Contemporary Music Export Fund aimed at helping Australian artists to tour internationally. The Coalition say they will give priority to improving copyright laws and making sure that the bucks flow back to the appropriate people. Included in the new legislation would be laws bringing cable TV operators into the existing network for recording and publishing royalties. The Libs would also make sure there were rulings for a minimum level of local content for Pay TV and Free-To-Air operators.

SILVERCHAIR are now back in the States supporting the Red Hot Chili Peppers. From there the band travel to the U.K., Europe and Japan before returning to Australia mid-March. They'll be playing a one-off show in Sydney on April 9 which has been described by their record company as "their last for ages."

ABC Country and Sony Music have announced that they are sending six performers to FAN FAIR in Nashville where they'll perform at a Country Music Australia Showcase on June 10 at the Ace Of Clubs. Making the trip are Lee Kernaghan, Gina Jeffreys, Jane Saunders, Troy Cassar-Daley, Tommy Emmanuel and Rick Price.

Two Sydney shows for DAVE ALVIN and CHRIS SMITHER have been announced. They'll be at The Basement on April 1-2. The duo will perform at Melbourne's Continental Cafe on April 3-4. These will definitely be their only Australian performances outside of the East Coast Blues Festival with the duo playing solo and together.

The rumour mill is working overtime with the speculation that EMMYLOU HARRIS and DANIEL LANOIS will be touring Australia within the next couple of months. The word is that if the tour goes ahead the promoter will most likely be Michael Coppel.

The rumour mill has been working overtime with speculation about the relationship between CEO BARRY CHAPMAN and the TRIPLE M network, not to mention future programming on the stations. The initial word was that if the ratings don't improve, Chapman, who moved to Triple M six months ago, might be out of a gig. Not so says Chapman who claims to have a three year no-out contract with Triple M owner Austereo.

Sony Music Australia is claiming to be the first territory in the world to deliver OASIS a simultaneous number 1 album (What's The Story) Morning Glory and number 1 single ("Wonderwall"). Tour petitions are filling fast on the counters of music retailers all around the country but at this stage there's no announcement of any local dates.
