Jars Of Clay's Cover Space Hogged

Jars of Clay wants to be thought of as a rock band but appearing as Spacehog on the cover of last week's issue isn't exactly what the band had in mind. While many of you might not have noticed, the four gents floating artfully on the April 29th cover were, in fact, the members of Spacehog and not Jars Of Clay. Apologies to both bands for the bonehead mistake, but you have to admit it looked cool even if it was wrong. Anyway, for the record, this is a picture of Jars Of Clay, whose debut album incidentally was certified gold last week. (L-R) Matt Odmark, Charlie Lowell, Dan Haseltine and Steve Mason.

Louis Takes A Pass

After a week of angst, Louis Messina decided April 30th to decline ICM's offer to be the agency's worldwide head of music. "It was a very difficult decision," Messina said. "Jeff Berg and everyone at ICM were just terrific to me. But this (Pace Concerts) is a company I started 20 years ago and Allen Becker is my best friend in the world. The whole Pace organization is the best and it came down to I just couldn't leave this company. I was flattered and very intrigued by the offer. It was a jump ball every day and last week was probably one of the worst in my life. ICM is a great company and their team of agents have the motivation to be winners and that was what got me really excited. The challenge was definitely there. I was honored both for myself and for concert promoters in general, that a company like ICM would think that a promoter has the ability to be on the other side of the fence as an agent. I'm sure ICM will be successful and I look forward to continuing to do lots of business with them."

CAA Tells U2 Thanks But Not Us

CAA has elected to decline U2's offer to partner their 1997 tour with Michael Cohl. The agency notified the band via a letter sent April 12th to U2 manager Paul McGuinness and the band's financial advisor, Ozzie Kilkenny. CAA had originally been partnered with Bill Graham Presents in one of two consortiums the band had identified as finalists and invited to Dublin for formal presentations. "We really thought we had a very positive exchange with the band and felt very good about our meeting," said CAA booking chief Tom Ross. "Then two weeks go by and the winner is a write-in candidate (Cohl) who we were specifically told was out of the race." To everyone's surprise, that decision was then followed by an invitation from McGuinness to partner the tour with Cohl's Next Adventure start-up company. The agency mulled over the opportunity for awhile but was uneasy about dropping BGP as its partner and was frustrated in getting more details on exactly what it would have to commit to. U2 was apparently asking CAA to accept joint liability for the tour which meant that if Cohl withdrew for any reason, CAA would be on the hook for the entire commitment. "The biggest problem was we never wanted to be in the risk business. After all these years as an agent, I didn't want to

Vanessa-Mae

Violinist Vanessa-Mae Vanakorn Nicholson has been called "supernatural," "spectacular," "superb" and "phenomenally talented." At 17, she's also been called a true child prodigy. Those statements are definitely true but soon the world may be calling Vanessa-Mae a world-class performer — one who easily shifts from playing with a philharmonic orchestra to fronting a rock band in an opening slot for the likes of Rod Stewart, Tina Turner or Annie Lennox.

Vanessa-Mae was born of Thai-Chinese parents in Singapore and moved with her family to London when she was four. At five, she started playing the violin and piano and by the time she was eight, people began to recognize her promise. She recognized it too. "That's when I felt in my mind that it looked like music was going to be my profession," Vanessa-Mae told POLLSTAR.

Her musicianship has been compared to Mendelssohn and Mozart and she practically can't get through a sentence without evoking the name of her favorite composer, Paganini, with whom she shares a birthday. Despite the classical comparisons, Vanessa-Mae wants to do for the electric violin what Jimi Hendrix and Eric Clapton did for the electric guitar. She may get her wish.

Vanessa-Mae had recorded three classical albums by the time she was 10 and she's the youngest person in the world to have recorded both the Tchaikovsky and Beethoven violin concerts. But since the first of the year, Vanessa-Mae and her band have been touring to support her debut pop release, The Violin Player, on EMI/Angel Records. She said, "I think we've traveled about 40,000 miles on this tour. We've done over 75-plus concerts in just three months. We went to Taiwan, Hong Kong, Korea, Malaysia and Singapore. We did 12 concerts in Germany; we went to Australia and New Zealand. We did tours in Austria, Holland, Belgium — all over the place in Europe and in the Far East and Australia — so it's just been really really busy."

Though North American audiences haven't been able to catch Vanessa-Mae in concert, she is not a complete stranger. Last year, she generated a lot of attention, going from one American TV show to the next. Appearances on "The Tonight Show with Jay Leno," "Good Morning, America," and "The Today Show" were just the beginning. Other major media coverage included pieces on MTV and in USA Today, Time, Elle and many more.

Print and broadcast can do a lot for an artist but for Vanessa-Mae, standing on the stage, making that personal connection supersedes those mediums. "There's no doubt that television definitely is the most accessible medium; you can be playing in one television studio but it could be broadcast to 25 million people, easily. But at the same time, it's the most disposable medium. Once people come to your concerts, they're there. They've paid money for your tickets. Sure, if they don't like it, they can leave, but at the same time, there's a sense of responsibility for the artist having brought the audience there as well as the audience having actually spent the time and the money to be there themselves. [And] I love playing live in front of an audience because I think that's where they can get the true spirit of the whole performance."

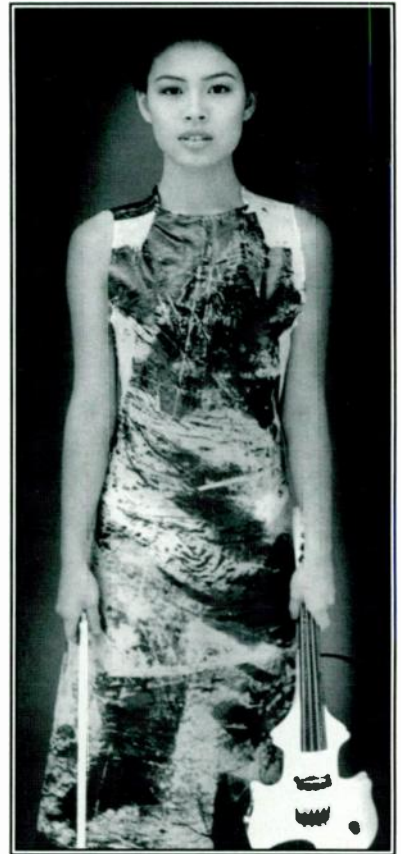

The Violin Player has charted in 25 countries, the single "Tocatta and Fugue in D minor" has landed on Top 20 dance charts and the album has sold more than 1.4 million copies worldwide. Vanessa-Mae is appreciative for that success and what it means, but for her, it's the performance that is so uniquely special. "My style of concerts are very very different from anything else that's been done before, any other violin concert. For the first time, I've incorporated both electric as well as classical violin in my concerts. I have a seven-piece rock band as well as dancers as well as a classical ensemble. And I have a little unplugged section in the middle. I have things from the album, a few cover versions, a few dance numbers, so it's a real fusion. I really have the sense of taking the audience to a real adventure. It's such a compliment and it's so heart-warming when you see that these people, in the end, are dancing and clapping and cheering to [classics] just as much as they're cheering to my jammed up version of "I Will Always Love You" or Michael Jackson's "Black or White."

Since Vanessa-Mae likes to take her audiences on an adventure, showcasing in Times Square late last summer seemed exceptionally appropriate for her techno-acoustic fusion. "That was the first time that I had been to America myself, personally. And professionally, to make a debut like that in Times Square — where people were hanging out of scaffolding, in buildings and on tour busses and I was up there on the big Sony Videotron and so much TV and press was there — was just a great feeling to know that people stopped still, stood in the traffic [and] watched this whole performance. Of all the concerts that I've done, whether they be rock festivals or classical concerts or my own tours, I guess that must have been one of the most special ones for me."

Vanessa-Mae doesn't have a U.S. agent. Right now, her manager in the U.K., Mel Bush, has been handling everything. She said, "I was eager to do things in the pop field and he felt that that was the field he could help me in because he's had 20, 30, 40 years of experience with people like David Bowie, Queen and Wham."

But Vanessa-Mae isn't going to stand still in the pop world for long. "This summer, from the same promoters who did what I call my rock/pop tour, the "Red Hot Tour," have booked me into Austria and Germany to do a classical tour with a classical orchestra, with a program that I wish to choose. So that's really fun for me, going back to the same country in the same year, doing a totally different concert. Alternating them is what I enjoy doing and I never want to give up doing classical tours." Despite that fact, Vanessa-Mae is looking forward to staying on the road with her pop/rock band for quite awhile. Plans for Vanessa-Mae to tour the U.S. in late summer are in the works. ★

Don't look now but more and more of our fellow technical personnel are checking in with us from duties overseas. JAPAN has been firmly established as a viable production destination but now fellow "PACIFIC RIM MATES" are getting in on the action. The anthem is 'Go East Young Man' with major companies setting up offices in SINGAPORE, HONG KONG, and TAIPEI... just a few years ago we thought the "Nashville" satellite offices were exotic. EOGHAN "OWIN" McCARRON of Ronnie Wood fame has been heading up the Ideal Systems Bangkok office for special projects including a music casino with bars and restaurants and some television work as well. Our own JOHN OSBORNE was brought in as the lighting designer and consultant and racked up those frequent flier miles while delving into the Thai culture and idiosyncrasies. STEVE GILBARD of TCI also served as consultant on the sound, lighting and video aspects of the project. What our western technical consultants are finding is a land ripe for major production and theatrical support. The sleeping giant of the East is waking up and wants to rock.

Richard Willis, marketing director for BANDIT LITES points out that their Hong Kong and Taipei offices were originally opened to provide production equipment and support for their clients on their Asian forays. However, in just the past year the "support" aspect escalated into an incredible market for concert technology sales and production expertise. Sounds like they're making out like... well, Bandits.

BOB SCHACHERL, president of High End Systems indicates that their 250% increase in sales in the Asian market in 1995 over the previous year as the greatest motivating factor for increasing their interests in the Far East. High End System's managing director in Singapore, JOHN ADAMS again, reiterates the interest in "well-engineered products with after-sales support on hand." The Singapore HES office just recently acquired another 4500 square feet of space in their Cecon 1 building on Tannery Row in Singapore and has been rocking with groups, Wet, Wet, Wet and Michael Learns to Rock and clubs such as Club Canto and Sparks. The Singapore HES office has also installed High End equipment and products into the national television stations.

The ubiquitous VARI*LITE is ubiquitous in the East as well with current offices in Hong Kong and Japan.....and? One wouldn't really be too surprised to hear of a Vari*lite Hanoi or Vari*lite Tibet.... MIKI SASAKI from the Tokyo office indicates that the spring and the fall are usually the active touring season for major touring acts in Japan but now, all bets are off. Just this past year July and August were the busiest touring season for Vari*lite Asia according to Sasaki and the '96 summer season is already gearing up with such major acts as DREAMS COME TRUE, SOUTHERN ALL STARS, and PRINCESS PRINCESS. Set designer MARC FISHER and LD PATRICK WOODRUFFE are working on MR. CHILDREN with the largest configured automated rig for Vari*lite Asia. MARC BRICKMAN and Vari*Lite's own MIKE OWEN continue their multi-production work with YUMING (Yumi Matsutoya) and ROY BENNETT has designed for "T.R.F." also indicating a trend in Japan toward pulling in world class international production talent into the Japanese domestic realm.

ENGINEERING IMPACT LIMITED, which also serves as the Vari*lite-Hong Kong office, also shows the trend towards a significant production increase with the tours of China by JACKY CHEUNG, ALAN TAM and the Singapore tour of ANITA MUI. Kowloon-based EIL has been providing full set equipment, general lighting, Meyer Sound systems as well as Vari*lites and pyrotechnics. In a sort of turnabout, the Jacky Cheung production has toured the United States, Europe, Australia in addition to 10 provinces of China scheduled for May/June. In addition to importing Western production technology, the East is exporting it's talent as well. Hey, the world is getting smaller. If you are headed

ASIAN NEWS

● With MIDEM ASIA about to be held in Hong Kong from May 13-15, there is a lot happening. This is the second time the music industry conference will be held in this territory. So far, more than 400 exhibitors from 44 countries have registered and the sponsoring Reed Midem organization is expecting more than 3,000 delegates. Seminars on various music industry topics will be held during the day along with a massive trade show including the POLLSTAR stand at M9-M11. In the evening there are plenty of live music showcases being held at major clubs and venues in town.

● China's jazz fusion band TIEN SQUARE will make its first appearance in Hong Kong. The group will be performing at a Midem showcase on May 14 at The Oasis club located in the New World Harbour View Hotel which is one of the hotels adjacent to the Convention Centre where Midem is being staged. The group also performs May 17-18 at Cossack's Vodka Bar (located in The Ritz Carlton Hotel in the Central district of Hong Kong).

● SHAGGY will be touring Asia in May. His first stopover will be a promotional showcase in Malaysia. Then he will be in Hong Kong between May 14-16 and will do a Midem showcase at the Hard Rock Cafe on May 15. After Hong Kong, he will be heading to Singapore, Bangkok, Manila, and Indonesia.

● German quartet WORLDS APART will do their Midem showcase at the Lost City (located in the Tsim Sha Tsui district in Hong Kong) on May 14. They have just come out with a new EMI album Everybody. The title song was released as an advance single while the group was still recording the album and it has already established itself in the charts as a hit.

● John Zorn's New York based jazz quartet MASADA will be on their Southeast Asian tour in May. With their first stop being in Hong Kong, Masada will perform at the Sheung Wan Civic Centre Lecture Hall (located in the Sheung Wan District) from May 17-19. They will then leave for Macau on May 21, followed by China, Taiwan and Japan. John Zorn is the creator of Crossover art form. He established his first record label, Avant, in Japan in 1992 and in 1995, he established another record label, Tzadik, in New York. Both labels are dedicated to releasing albums for Japan and New York avant-garde composers.

● Other exciting showcases for the Midem Asia delegates include CESARIA EVORA from Cape Verde, Senegal, who has just finished her tour in the United States; the SONY PARTY NIGHT will feature Japan's top DJ's such as Jeff Mills, Ishi Ken, and Takkyu Ishino; the Dance Party Night will feature Euro bands such as CAPTAIN JACK and WORLDS APART from Germany, and DOOP from Holland. The National Association of Songwriters from the United States will also host a party night at The Oasis in the New World Harbour View Hotel.

● On the local side, Capital Artists Limited will have their Midem showcase featuring Chinese female artist MAO A MIN, whose second album, produced by San Bao (producer and songwriter in Beijing) and Tony Kiang (the executive producer of Capital Artists Ltd.), is scheduled for release in June. Also scheduled to appear are Singapore artist WILLIAM TANG, Hong Kong artists JOSIE HO and EASON CHAN, trio BLACK BOX and duo MINIMAL.

● In a series of 14 spot ANTI-PIRACY INSPECTIONS, Beijing police seized an estimated 580,000 videos, cassettes, books, CDs and laser discs. According to the Beijing Public Security Bureau, the search was centered around publishing houses and electronics companies. The campaign has been going on for six months and it was the sixth in recent years, due to continued Western criticism of lax enforcement of China's anti-piracy laws. Beijing's municipal government also released new regulations on the registration of publishing houses, book circulation, film and video releases.

● WARRANT was at the KNCO Club at the Kadena Airforce Base in Okinawa, Japan, for one show on April 13. The band performed in front of a sold out crowd of 732 military folks assigned to the base. People began standing in line for tickets at 10:30 p.m. on April 1st even though the ticket windows didn't open until 6 a.m. the next day.

● The singer known as Thailand's Elvis Presley went out like the King himself on May 29. Sakarkin Bunyarit died of a heart attack while watching TV. Besides impersonating Elvis, Bunyarit sang with the popular Bankok group Samsak.

UK NEWS

● The dance community is united with the live industry in outrage at the forced cancellation of the Mean Fiddler Organisation (MFO) and Universe's TRIBAL GATHERING. The one-day dance festival had its license refused on April 24, 10 days before the May 4 event. It is an unprecedented move to prevent an event taking place at such short notice - particularly when in the same week Harvey Goldsmith announced a 150,000 capacity concert in central London. But the organisers plan to fight on and an alternative date and site for Tribal Gathering at the end of June are being considered. At the appeal hearing - which had been postponed twice in the two weeks since the initial license refusal - the MFO and Universe put forward park and ride proposals that would alleviate the traffic problems that were the major stumbling block for the authorities. But the magistrate refused to rule against police recommendations that the event should not take place. The MFO's Melvyn Benn said: "We are going to appeal to the Crown Court on the grounds that in fairness we haven't been given proper grounds for refusal. The only issue is traffic - last year it was very congested but at least 50% of that was because of police mismanagement because they directed us via one route. They mismanaged the roads last year and we have paid the price this year." Dance agent David Levy at ITB says he is "disturbed by the implications" of what has happened. "It's ludicrous that an industry which generates thousands of jobs and raises millions in taxes is subject to such draconian legislation," he told POLLSTAR. "There are huge traffic problems caused by Notting Hill Carnival, Grand Prix, Ascot, concerts at Wembley, football matches, etc. - but it's not okay to dance in a field for one night? The truth is that many authorities still do not see the distinction between the illegal badly-run parties of 1987 and 1988 and today's professional legitimate and fully accountable staged events such as TG." Levy says he supports the organisers 100% and confirmed that his artists will continue to work with them. Benn confirmed that most of the artists on the bill are committed to fitting in with a rescheduled date - possibly June 29 - and the public is holding on to tickets awaiting further announcements.

● The planned WINCHESTER FESTIVAL has dropped out of the summer calendar, despite hopes of filling the date normally occupied by Glastonbury. This event had full backing from the local authorities and had been granted a license, but the lack of major festival headliners has forced the organisers to withdraw their plans. They are planning to stage the event in 1997. Organiser Ray Foulke of Leading Edge says: "We had the rest of the bill in place, but we couldn't get commitment from the headliners we wanted. We came so close this year, we will try again in 1997."

● K.D. LANG started her UK tour in Birmingham where she was the first artist to play The Academy, the National Indoor Arena's "new" 4,000-seat venue. What is in fact a new concert format within the existing NIA, really works as a venue in its own right, and the k.d. lang show was the perfect demonstration of how a cavernous arena can be transformed into an intimate, classy concert hall for the evening. The venue is a necessary addition in Birmingham where there is no facility to accommodate shows between the 2,211 capacity Symphony Hall and the 12,500 NIA and NEC Arena. MCP, who promoted the two lang dates, are also putting on the next two shows at The Academy with Lou Reed and Jackson Browne.

● OASIS drew some 80,000 people to Maine Road in Manchester over the weekend of April 27 and 28.

● THE EAGLES have added another date to their European tour - but it will be the only indoor show on the schedule, at the Nynex Arena, Manchester on August 2.

● Kennedy Street has put a second RAY CHARLES and VAN MORRISON date on sale at Wembley Arena, but precautions had to be taken to start the show a little later. With the show on the same day as the England vs Scotland game in the European Cup at Wembley Stadium, the Wembley team is making sure there's a three-and-a-half hour break between the end of the match and the start of the show to ease congestion.

● Forward Agency Booking (FAB) has taken on a new agent. MATT HEALY was previously a club booker at the Tunbridge Wells Forum and Reading Alleycat.

● The build up to BON JOVI's European tour, which starts in Madrid on June 1, kicked off with the tour sponsors, Volkswagen launching three new car models designed to incorporate Bon Jovi logos and branding.

EURO NEWS

Germany

● The first step towards resolving the German TAX SITUATION has been made, following a meeting between minister Hauser and the two key German promoter associations, the VDK and the IDKV. Gunther Farber, one of the leading opponents of the tax law at the meeting reports that an agreement has been made in principal, to alleviate some of the problems concerning the tax increase which came into effect on January 1 this year. It was agreed that a new ruling would be made whereby bands would be taxed at a rate of 50% of the tour profit with a tax deductible allowance for production costs. Bands would however, have to pay withholding tax and file a tax return at the year-end to claim a tax refund calculated on this basis. While this may not look much like progress, Farber says that taxing 50% of the net profit is better than paying 30.91% (for solo artists) on the gross. The British campaign against the German tax ruling has yet to comment on this change. However, the ruling has not been cast in stone yet. If approved, it will not become law until the end of this year, although part of the agreement is that claims will be backdate-able to January '96.

● The German godfathers of Techno, KRAFTWERK, have signed a new US agency deal with Chris Dalston and Rob Prinz at CAA. Manager Scumek Sabotka at MCT, says the band is currently working on a new album, and is set to go on the road to promote it at the end of this year.

Austria

● The KELLY FAMILY continues to outstrip sales of the big international artists, says Richard Hoermann Konzertagentur. With an audience base of around 5 to 14 years of age, they are one of the biggest selling acts in Austria. While sales for Bryan Adams and Sting are just starting to pick up, the Kelly Family has already sold 30,000 tickets for its June 22 show at the Vienna Stadium. The Irish family of musicians will play only this concert and the 20,000 capacity Innsbruck Stadium on July 4.

Holland

● MOJO CONCERTS, as part of a consortium, has finally secured plans to go ahead with a $15 million entertainment complex. Sited near the new Ajax football stadium in Amsterdam, the development will include a 5,000 capacity arena dedicated to live music, a 3,000-seat movie theatre, musical theatre and an alternative theatre space. Mojo director, Leon Ramakers says the complex is due to open in 1998. Details of the plans and the sponsor involved are being kept under wraps, but it will be a major development for Amsterdam. Meanwhile, Mojo is co-ordinating the entertainment for the opening ceremony entertainment of the 48,000 capacity AJAX STADIUM, which is the first venue in Europe with a retractable roof. The first major international act to play there will be TINA TURNER on September 6 and 7. Turner is expected to sell out both dates after the second show sold 25,000 tickets within days of going on sale. Mojo has not diversified into radio, contrary to the impression given by the new alternative station in Holland. The live band programme on KNIK-FM asked the promoters if they could use the Mojo name and Ramakers says he was only too happy to support the new radio station. But ever-expanding its activities, Mojo is soon to start a magazine promoting its shows.

● Dutch booking agency PAPERCLIP is tipping THE CORDS as the latest indie breakthrough in Holland. The band's new album has been getting good reviews and airplay at home and agent Ruud Berends booked a 20-date club tour of the country in a week due to popular demand, with summer festival appearances still to be confirmed.

Belgium

● The historic FOREST NATIONAL venue in Brussels will start the third phase of its facelift this summer with the refurbishment of the dressing rooms and backstage area. Paul (Boogie Boy) Ambach of Make It Happen, consultant to the board of directors, says the venue has taken into account all the suggestions of the tour and production managers who have passed through, so the aim is to make it as rock-friendly as a historic venue can be. The loading bay has already been increased to accommodate three trucks and there are plans to apply for a bigger license.

● HUGH PHILLIMORE of Sound Advice, booker of the Axiom Beach Rock Festival (formerly Belga Beach) commute more often to Brussels when he starts work with Belgian world music promoters, Jazztronaut, who promote the Audi Jazz Festival. Phillimore will be developing a rock promotion division at Jazztronaut from July onwards as well as continuing to work on the beach festival. Headliners confirmed this year for Axiom (July 20) are the Sex Pistols and Lou Reed, plus Neneh Cherry, the Orb and Leftfield.

Denmark

● The 21st MIDTFYNS FESTIVAL (July 3-7) has been on sale since the new year, but co-founder Nina Faergemann reports that sales have doubled compared to this time last year. Faergemann says they expect a surge in sales the last two weeks before the festival, but the show (attendances are usually around 55,000 each day) is never officially sold out - "We don't operate to a maximum license," says Faergemann. "If we closed the doors, we'd get a negative reaction and then the fences might start to come down." (I wonder if Michael Eavis would think about doing the same for Glastonbury next year?) Midtfyns headliners this year are Blur, Lou Reed, ZZ Top, Suede and Joe Satriani, plus Jackson Browne, Iggy Pop, Echobelly, Whipping Boy, The Kelly Family and over 50 other acts performing on the five stages.

● Meanwhile, the new event on the Danish block, the COPENHAGEN ROCK FESTIVAL (June 14-16) is happy with ticket sales so far. In addition to headliners Prince and Metallica, recent additions to the line-up include Neneh Cherry, Terrorvision, The Mike Flowers Pops and Lynyrd Skynyrd.

Norway

● The NORWEGIAN WOOD MUSIC FESTIVAL celebrates its fifth year on June 18 at Frognerbadet in Oslo. The festival traditionally had a folk-country bias to the billing - featuring Johnny Cash and the Jayhawks in previous years, but this year sees a change, with Van Morrison headlining.

Sweden

● MOTOR is busy with ongoing tours by Whale and Millencolin and dates coming up by Shed Seven, Letters To Cleo, 24-7 Spyz, China Drum and The Posies among others.

● EMA TELSTAR has just completed Scandinavian tours by AC/DC and Helloween and Bruce Dickinson. Big names coming up are Tina Turner, Mark Knopfler, Bryan Adams, Neil Young, Red Hot Chili Peppers, ZZ Top, Eagles, Sex Pistols and Bon Jovi.

● LUGER booking agency has the following artists on the Hultsfred festival line-up: Sick Of It All, Barkmarket, Fireside, Mindjive, Refused, Teddybears and Naked. At Bergslagsrocken, Luger has the bands Samiam, Ignite, Madball, Monster, Starmarket, Mindjive & Refused playing. New Luger signing Cloudberry Jam has just supported Maria McKee at the Gino in Stockholm. The band, which had a run of success in Japan with their last album, return there for 8 shows in July.

Finland

● The market in Finland seems to have picked up this year, which may be why EMA Telstar picked the Olympic Stadium in Helsinki as the only change my business. I long ago made the decision that I wanted to represent the talent and I wasn't ready to change sides to promoting. We are used to working hard to maximize our client's potential," Ross said. "I really respect promoters for being able to accept those kinds of financial risks. In our deal with BGP, they were putting up all of the money and that issue wasn't a concern for us. But if we could potentially be taking 100 percent of the risk, I also didn't feel it was right to only be getting 20 or 25 percent of the potential profits. We asked for more details but all we were able to get was a two-page document which didn't provide enough facts on which to make a decision so we withdrew." The presumption, at this point, is that Cohl still has the U2 tour provided he can come up with the financing. But who knows what bizarre twist might happen between now and when the tour actually launches next year.

Hot Rod Place

Execs from Vancouver's General Motors Place thank Rod Stewart for showing them how to do it in-the-round. Rod's April 15th concert was the venue's first in-the-round configuration. Flanking Stewart (L-R) are the venue's Doug Grover and Tom Anselmi.

United Concerts Faces Union Questions

Concert promoter Jim McNeil was the subject of an unflattering article in the Salt Lake Tribune April 28th. The newspaper's lengthy front page story stated that McNeil added a surcharge (up to 20 percent) to the bill for IATSE union members who worked on shows promoted by his United Concerts. In the article, McNeil defended his billing practices and said he will stop what the newspaper called "inflating invoices." McNeil said the added fees went to cover accounting, check printing, staffing and, in some cases, made him a small profit. "It costs money to do payroll for 400 people," McNeil said in an interview with POLLSTAR. "This [questioning of billing practices] started a year-and-a-half ago," he said. "At that time, I asked a room full of attorneys if we were doing anything wrong and was told there was nothing inappropriate going on. I have the top labor attorney in Utah. No one could come up with anything." McNeil said the article has put him in the position of having to defend a perfectly legitimate business practice. According to the paper, the union last year demanded in writing that McNeil stop using IATSE letterhead for the added fees and he has done so. The Tribune article claimed that while the added surcharge did not go to IATSE, it was sometimes shared with the Delta Center, which McNeil books for shows on a regular basis. "It's a normal thing," McNeil said of his arrangement with the building. "I have a strategic relationship with the Delta Center. I do a lot of business there and we have a relationship that is mutually beneficial." Delta Center GM Scott Williams defended McNeil in the paper and said adjusting the union bill is "a standard procedure in the industry and I would do it, too." The paper, however, referred to McNeil's relationship with Williams not as a professional one, but as "cozy" and a "longtime friendship." McNeil has not been accused of any wrongdoing and the Assistant Salt Lake District Attorney told the paper he was not aware of any formal complaints filed against the promoter. McNeil said the article had been faxed to "everyone" and that several agents who have seen it called him to offer their support. "The response from the agents and from the community has been very positive, very reassuring," he said.

Oakland Says No To Tupac

Plans for a Tupac Shakur concert scheduled for May 4th at the Henry J. Kaiser Convention Center in Oakland, Calif., were aborted May 1st when Oakland's city manager turned down an appeal to issue a permit for the event. Assistant City Manager Lamont Ewell's original rejection of a permit came on the heels of a disturbance at a concert by Tha Dogg Pound last month, according to the San Francisco Chronicle. Ewell said the city would be irresponsible in allowing the concert to take place without first understanding the reasons behind the ruckus at the rap show at Eastmont Mall. Sacramento promoter Jennifer Moore had appealed the decision but City Manager Craig Kocian let it stand. Kocian, who apparently shared concerns over what happened at Tha Dogg Pound show, added that too many police officers would have to be diverted to the convention center and away from other needs in the city. He also said Moore had not presented a parking plan. Moore said the Police Department, which initially denied her request, lead her to believe that she would be granted the permit. Police reportedly deny that they had ever given Moore that indication.

KISS And Make Up

Judging by initial ticket sales, the world is more than ready for the upcoming KISS reunion tour featuring their original classic makeup and costumes. The opening night show scheduled for June 28th at Detroit's Tiger Stadium sold all 38,000 tickets. Seen at the recent NYC press conference to announce the tour are (L-R) Ace Frehley, Paul Stanley, Mercury Records chief Danny Goldberg, manager Doc McGhee, Peter Criss and Gene Simmons.

Concert Cancelled Due To Threats

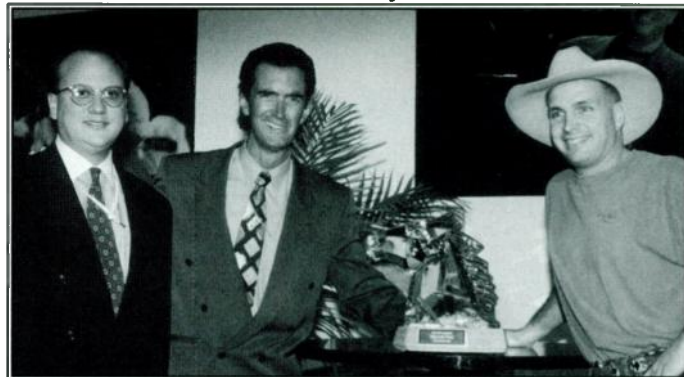

Organizers of a Southern California concert to celebrate the 3,000th birthday of Jerusalem cancelled the event after an unidentified member of their organization received threatening phone calls. "A Musical Salute to Jerusalem" was slated for the Universal Amphitheatre May 29th. But as fighting along the Israel-Lebanon border intensified in mid-April, event organizers at the Maimonides Academy in L.A. chose to call off the show rather than risk being a potential terrorist target. The celebration was to have featured Lionel Hampton, Bill Cosby and Sid Caesar. A Universal Amphitheatre representative said the venue agreed to the cancellation and tickets are now being refunded.

The Liberace Legacy?

Celebrated pianist Van Cliburn has been sued by a man claiming to be his former lover and business associate. Thomas Zaremba, a former Van Cliburn Foundation board member, is suing Cliburn for millions in cash and property. Aside from seeking palimony, Zaremba claims Cliburn exposed him to the AIDS virus during a 17-year sexual relationship which he said ended two years ago. The suit was filed in a Tarrant County, Texas, divorce court April 29th. Zaremba's lawyer, Mike McCurley, said his client does not have the AIDS virus, "But there were specific incidents, where outside their relationship, Mr. Cliburn had sex with others who were HIV positive and later had sex with my client." McCurley said he had no reason to believe Cliburn was carrying the HIV virus. Cliburn's lawyer, Dee Kelly, said the claims are false and that Zaremba has been trying to "collect millions" from Cliburn for the past year and a half. "The suit is the result of Mr. Cliburn's refusal to accede to his improper demands," Kelly said.

Garth Gets That Daum Crystal Horse

The Miami Arena presents Garth Brooks with a Daum crystal horse to commemorate three soldout shows. Brooks set an arena record by selling more than 46,000 ducats in under 48 minutes. (L-R) LMI president John Blaisdell; arena VP/GM Robert Franklin and Brooks.

When Doves Fly

DC Talk dominated the Gospel Music Association's 27th Annual Dove Awards April 25th in Nashville, winning the top award — artist of the year. The trio, made up of Toby McKeehan, Kevin Smith and Michael Tait, is the first group to win the top prize in 15 years. Previous Dove recipients have included more middle-of-the-road gospel artists like Sandi Patty, Amy Grant and Steven Curtis Chapman. But in '96, the rockers ruled. DC Talk also took the song of the year honor. Jars of Clay grabbed the awards for new artist of the year and best short form video for the single "Flood." Other top winners included Point of Grace, which won four awards including group of the year. Anointed took home three awards and the show's host, Michael W. Smith, was named songwriter of the year.

Mind over matter.

Penn State Enters The Bush League

It seems like Bush has grown from a baby band to an arena level act virtually overnight. The 16,000-capacity Bryce Jordan Center at Penn State awarded the band a plaque in appreciation of a remarkable show April 15th. (L-R) Rich Engler of Dicesare-Engler, the venue's Karen Pagani and Bush's Dave Parsons, Robin Goodridge, Nigel Pulsford and Gavin Rossdale.

Fans Still Give A Hoot

Some wondered if a bunch of regular guys from North Carolina could continue the momentum that took them from virtually unknown club act to the biggest record seller of 1995. Well, wonder no more. Fairweather Johnson, the second major label release from Hootie & The Blowfish debuted atop the Soundscan chart, selling more than 411,000 units in its first week at retail — more than double its nearest competitor. No sophomore slump here and that bodes well for the band's upcoming shed tour.

TicketMasterCard

Ticketmaster has set the wheels in motion to create a co-branded credit card with MasterCard. That means consumers who use the Ticketmaster MasterCard will earn credits redeemable for tickets and other entertainment merchandise. TM spokesman Alan Citron told POLLSTAR the company is trying to bring in a variety of partners so customers have plenty of choices when it comes to spending their earnings. "If you want to use entertainment dollars for tickets, we can help you there, but we also want to have partnerships that allow us to offer CDs, videos, possibly travel miles, possibly hotel discounts.... We don't want to limit it." Citron said TM is hoping to kick off the credit card program by fall. He said the company will choose a banking partner over the next couple of months and after that, "it's a matter of how fast we can put the program together."

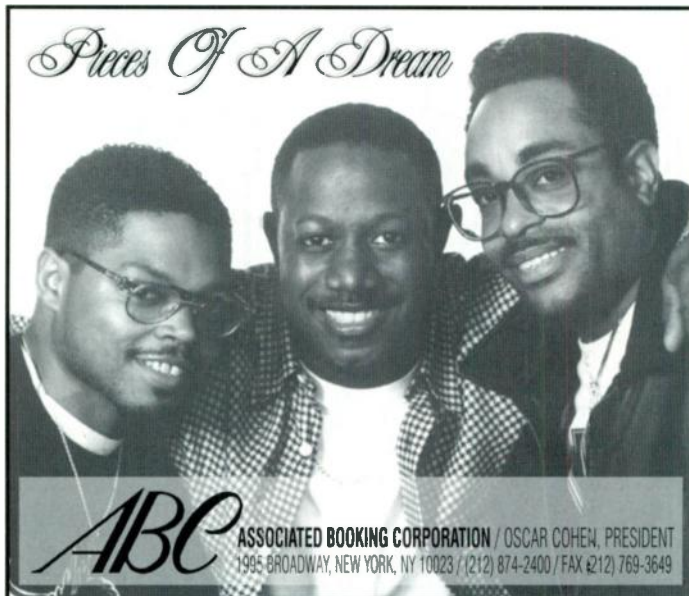

Court Rules Promoters Must Pay For Police

The Connecticut State Supreme Court April 26th ruled that First Amendment rights were not violated when a nightclub was required to pay for police at a rap show. In a 4-3 decision, the high court overturned a trial court's finding that the contents of 2 Live Crew's music was factored into a state police decision requiring officers to man a 1990 concert at The Palace in Stafford Springs. "No lyric or message of 2 Live Crew was ever cited to justify the police presence at the Palace," Justice Robert Callahan wrote for the majority opinion. He wrote that reports of concealed weapons and melees at prior concerts justified the decision to have police at the show. The dispute arose when the state police commissioner at the time, Bernard Sullivan, assigned 15 police officers to the concert. He sought to bill concert promoters close to $2,000 to cover the cost of paying overtime to five of the officers. The club's owner, David Morascini, and the Connecticut Civil Liberties Union sued the state over the issue. Morascini and others who joined the suit said they worried that if the state is allowed to pass along the cost of police protection with few or no limits, then smaller venues could have difficulty staying in business. They also expressed worries that controversial concerts or exhibits could be in jeopardy, with police imposing huge costs simply because they didn't like the content of show. Attorney General Richard Blumenthal said the decision to uphold the state law requiring venues and promoters to pay for police could save taxpayers millions of dollars.

Pros On The Move

Paula Sartorius has joined Metropolitan Entertainment Group as senior director of artist management. Sartorius served eight years with Side One Management where she worked with Luscious Jackson and Los Lobos, both of whom are now managed by Metropolitan.... Former Buddy Lee agent Sol Saffian has formed Entertainment Management Group with Ira Fraitag and Jerry Cohen. The Nashville-based company opened its doors April 29th and has already signed several new artists including The Twinz, Dawn Martineau and Randi Robbins. Telephone is (615) 327-9200.... J. Scavo has sold out and is taking his Sellout Management roster with him to Bill Graham Management's L.A. office as of May 13th. Among the clients moving over are aMiniature, Down by Law, Possum Dixon and Red 5.... Tom Zutaut has appointed Julie Gordon to a top A&R position at his new label, The Enclave. Gordon most recently ran "Gordon's Flash," a tip sheet on unsigned bands and was the founder of the Velvet Rope industry gossip site on AOL.... Jay B. Ziskrout has returned to New York to launch a new company, Scream Inc. Scream's two key businesses are Grita!, a Latin oriented punk and alternative label, and JBZ Media, a marketing company which represents indie labels like Epitaph, Metal Blade and Restless and assists them with establishing themselves in Latin America. Ziskrout, who once was a drummer with Bad Religion and VP Promotion for Arista Records, has just returned from a two-year assignment setting up and running Epitaph Europe in Amsterdam.

Silver Bullet Trailblazer

Legal Grievs

A double-whammy to The Jackson family hit April 30th when Jackson Communications Inc. was ordered to pay $1.6 million to Smith-Hemion Productions, which claims it lost money because Michael Jackson failed to perform at the 1994 "Jackson Family Honors" show in Las Vegas. A U.S. District Judge also threw out a counterclaim brought by the Jackson family, saying the claim should have been filed first in an identical state court case. The counterclaim alleged members of the Jackson family were fraudulently induced into performing at the "Honors."..... David Lee Roth filed a $5 million lawsuit against three Peoria, Ill.-based insurance companies, claiming they failed to fully reimburse him for damage to his home from the 1994 Northridge earthquake. Roth claimed the insurance companies paid only a $350,000 repair bill for a damaged walkway although there was substantial damage throughout the house. Roth's lawyer said Diamond Dave's home has been without heat and the rocker's belongings have been boxed up while he awaits the start of the repairs..... Naughty by Nature frontman Anthony "Treach" Criss has been charged with aggravated assault for allegedly punching a teenager in the face and hitting him with a handgun. "It is alleged that Anthony Criss approached the juvenile, struck him in the left eye and knocked him to the ground, kicking him," police Lt. Robert Kold said. He said, "The juvenile fled into the hallway of the house where the suspect followed him inside and it is alleged that Criss pulled a handgun and struck him in the right shoulder." The 17-year-old boy was treated for injuries and released from an East Orange hospital. Criss' lawyer, Anthony Pope, said the rapper was defending himself when the teenager approached him April 23rd near Criss' home in East Orange. Criss did nothing wrong and does not carry a gun, Pope said. "It seems to be the price to pay for celebrity today," he said. Criss returned to New Jersey last week for a court appearance and posted $5,000 bail. The case is being reviewed to determine if it should be presented to a grand jury or if it should remain in municipal court.

MONSTER TALENT: Gabe Bloom

As most of you may know, I have left Atomic Music Group to form Monster Talent. Both Dean Van Lith and John Finberg have joined me. We would like to thank those of you who have supported us throughout this transition. If you do not have our new information, please give us a call at (818) 787-9282. We are off to a great start with many tours to follow. // GWAR's tour starts May 1st with The Meatmen, Brutal Juice and Wickerman as support. There are still dates open in the Northeast in late May. We are also looking for package ideas for the fall. // Buck O Nine is doing sellout business just about everywhere and will support The Specials June 20th - July 7th. We are looking for package ideas for the rest of the year. // Hepcat has a new album out and will be touring in June with Scofflaws and Mustard Plug supporting. We have dates open in the Northeast. // D.O.A. is out with NoMeansNo thru May and then is looking for support/package situations for summer. // D.R.I. is also looking to package this summer after a very successful tour earlier this year. // Napalm Death starts its tour in June with many dates still available. // Cannibal Corpse will be touring in July and August and we are looking for support acts. // Voivod will be touring again in June and is also looking for support situations. // Testament is on the road doing great business and has summer avails. // Look for The Skeletones on the West Coast in June. Any package ideas? // Tribe 8 has avails in June - July throughout the country. // Butt Trumpet and X-Members are touring the West Coast and Canada in late May - June. X-Members features Gabby from The Cadillac Tramps and has a new record coming out in June on Priority. // The Paladins will be touring in August to support their new live release on 4AD / Warner Bros. // Keep an eye and ear on the following bands: Pitchshifter/Skrew package, Love Nut, Overkill, Youth Brigade, Ultra Bide, Lidsville, One Hit Wonder, The Dickies, Green Jelly, and Seemen.

DIGGER INT'L: Jeffrey Churchwell

Please note our new address is 509 McClure Ave., Elgin IL, 60123. This will be our final move until relocating to warmer parts of the map. The phone and fax numbers remain the same. // Acumen kicks off its spring tour May 2nd in Atlanta and is booked solid until the first two weeks of June. There's avails on the West Coast and Pacific Northwest. Nature will support on all dates. Kudos to Zoo/BMG for an excellent job of promoter support on the Nature dates with Thought Industry this past April. Acumen seeks packaging idea's for the end of June when the band finishes its Canadian dates. // Hayride is doing another series of dates but its new album won't be released until Capricorn Records, which recently ended its distribution agreement with R.E.D., has entered into a new deal. Podunk tours with Hayride and enjoys the full attention of Core Records which is getting action on college radio charts across the country. Following dates with Hayride, Podunk will headline shows across the western half of the country in late June. // English rivetcore veterans Cubanate recent sold-out series of UK club dates earned the band the opening slot for Gary Numan's UK tour. The group will release its final album, titled Barbarosa, through Noise in the U.S. and will shop new material immediately to coincide with U.S. dates in June or July. Cubanate is the biggest industrial powerhouse to come out of the European scene in a decade. // As always, there is something happening in Chemlab's camp. The spring tour was scrapped following the delay of the new album and the simple fact that most of the playing members are scattered throughout the world as hired guns for some of the top names in industrial music. Its various parts have agreed to a general round-up for the month of June for a tour to start in July. A new Chemlab live line-up will contain some of the most recognizable names associated with the entire industrial music movement. As always, Jared and Dylan will remain the core of Chemlab. // Perseverance and good work ethics are finally paying off for Overture Records. Currently, the label has new releases from 20 Dead Flowerchildren and Universal Stomp and has teamed up with Skateboard marketing to promote the new releases from both bands. Overture has demonstrated its commitment to support all dates for the bands with focused and complete tour support and analysis which, at times, can be difficult to obtain when promoting a hard-core show. // Finally, with Digger's latest move, we are dropping several acts from our roster that, although we have provided them with numerous dates, their labels and or management have failed to provide adequate support to ensure our buyers proper attention. We've made a commitment to rep only completely focused and label-backed bands as of June 1st. Digger is seeking new talent and would like to bring another agent into play.

IMN: AnneMarie Martins

International Music Network is pleased to have signed Austin-based singer/songwriter Tish Hinojosa on the heels of her new release for Warner Bros., Dreaming From The Labyrinth. We are now routing an album promotion tour for summer and fall. // A November tour is just about complete for The Guitar Trio featuring Paco De Lucia, Al Di Meola, and John McLaughlin. This legendary trio will release an album on Polygram/Verve just prior to the tour. There are only a couple of avails left. // Brazilian drum troupe Olodum, recently featured in Michael Jackson's video "They Don't Care About Us" will tour from

WORLD SERVICE LTD

September - November with a Warner Bros release. /// We still have some awaits for South African group Mahlathini & The Mahotella Queens' summer tour in July. The group will release its 30-year anniversary record on Shanachie in early June. /// Angelique Kidjo's recent tour was sold-out in almost every major market. She will return in July to perform at the Olympics in Atlanta and is available for other West Coast dates in early September prior to her Asian tour. /// Dates are currently being booked for Baaba Maal from Senegal for February - March 1997, for "Huuu Huur Tu," The Throat Singers Of Tuva for February - March 1997, and Irish supergroup Altan, who will tour on the heels of its new Virgin Records release this November.

ROSEBUD: Mike Kappus

We're currently setting July dates for The Charlie Watts Quintet with Bernard Fowler. The group will play a few key markets with a 20-piece string section backing in support of Charlie's June Virgin release, Long Ago & Far Away. /// Los Lobos' new CD, Colossal Head, is off to a great start. Watch for a high profile for the group throughout the summer in addition to its recent Letterman appearance. The band will work some of its open dates on the Furthur Tour in addition to U.S. and worldwide touring to precede and follow that package. /// J.J. Cale's Guitar Man is out June 25th and we're open to package ideas and special events throughout the summer. /// The Dirty Dozen's Ears To The Wall CD is due July 9th and the band will tour heavily worldwide in support of its debut for Mammoth and first CD with its new configuration and name. /// Ben Harper's audience continues to grow with his own sold-out dates in Europe, Japan and Australia preceding and following his run as support with The Dave Matthews Band in June. /// John Lee Hooker is currently on TV in a Pepsi campaign in the U.S. with a different one scheduled for international airing shortly. He'll play special events on the West Coast as he works on the follow-up to his hit, Chill Out, which recently went gold in Australia. /// After a sellout spring U.S. tour and trip Down Under this month, Loudon Wainwright III will return from London to the U.S. for early and late summer tours behind his Virgin CD, Grown Man. /// We're still setting dates in the summer and beyond for BeauSoleil, The Blind Boys of Alabama, Luther Allison, Robert Cray Band, John Hammond, Ben Harper, John Lurie & The Lounge Lizards, Charlie Musselwhite, Duke Robillard and Tabu Ley Rochereau.

Between The Dates

■ The news was bad enough for the STONE TEMPLE PILOTS when lead singer Scott Weiland reentered rehab to kick his drug problems, forcing the band to cancel three free shows in Chicago, New York and Los Angeles. However, because Weiland was arrested last May for possession of heroin and cocaine, the law has gotten into the act as well. Last year prosecutors said they would drop charges if Weiland completed an outpatient program, but last week his counselors, as well as the rest of the world, learned that he had resumed taking drugs, resulting with Superior Court Judge Elvira Mitchell ordering that he spend four to six months at a drug treatment center. STP is set to be the opening act for the kick-off date of the KISS tour, June 28th in Detroit, which is just two months away. STP's manager, Steve Stewart told POLLSTAR, "I don't know if that (the judge's decision) means he needs to be there every single day. I don't know if he's allowed to go out and do a day or two of work. I will tell you that we will not play a date until he's healthy." Stewart also said that the band is still committed to do the date. "Our band would love nothing more than to play, and it's all a matter of our lead singer's health," said Stewart.

■ CLAY WALKER, who went to the doctor with numbness in his fingers, has been diagnosed with multiple sclerosis. In a statement released through his publicist, Walker said, "This is a lot to absorb, but I think it's important that everybody know that I feel good." Walker plans to tour throughout the summer. Manager Erv Woolsey said, "Clay is in good spirits, has a great attitude, and is relieved to know that the disease can be managed and will have no immediate impact on either his career or his lifestyle."

■ The near perfect weather that greeted the opening weekend of the NEW ORLEANS JAZZ & HERITAGE FESTIVAL turned fickle the following Monday when high winds and rain partially destroyed the roof of the Congo Square stage, plus various signs and crafts booths at the fairgrounds racetrack. Site director Tague Richardson classified the damage as "cosmetic."

■ While browsing the press release from the Montreux Jazz Festival, we noticed that the show scheduled for July 17th is listed as the PHIL COLLINS BIG BAND. No word yet on just "how big" or in what musical direction Collins would be going for what may be his first public performance since announcing his split from Genesis. Another interesting performance at Montreux this year will be DEEP PURPLE on July 9th. It was 25 years ago that Deep Purple went to Montreux to record a live album at a casino, when "Some stupid with a flare gun, burned the place to the ground." With no place to play, the band set up shop in an abandoned hotel, and one of the first songs they recorded was about the fire — "Smoke On The Water."

■ Been holding your breath, waiting for that BRET MICHAELS solo album? So has Michaels. The lead singer for Poison has filed a $20 million lawsuit against Capitol Records. Michaels claims that he has gone to every length to uphold his end of the bargain, and that Capitol keeps pushing back the release.

■ A couple of weeks ago we mentioned that PETER ASHER MANAGEMENT has a web page listing information on its artists. However, we goofed when we listed the actual web address which can be found at <http://www.paminc.com>.

■ After 25 years, New York's Michael's Pub, is losing its Monday Night house band. WOODY ALLEN & his New Orleans Funeral & Ragtime Orchestra are moving their traditional weekly shows from the East 55th Street tavern to the Bar Montparnasse at the posh Le Parker Meridien Hotel on West 57th Street.

■ KENNY ROGERS had a gallstone attack and had to undergo gallbladder surgery April 28th in Athens, Georgia. The Gambler still plans to tour Europe in the fall.

■ THE SHAOLIN MONKS have been added to the main bill for this year's Lollapalooza, making the kung-fu masters the first non-music act ever to play the festival's main stage. Since the tour dates for Lollapalooza have yet to be announced, all we can say is; patience, grasshopper.

eastward, just remember to pack the Jiffy peanut butter and bring some mini-cream puffs to our friend Sumed in Hong Kong.

Spring is in the air and its time to fire up the old BBQ and that is exactly what we did for an old Australian pal of ours, JOHN BASILE from the ROD STEWART crew. Okay, so they don't really say "Throw another shrimp on the Barbie"... just one of those Paul Hoganisms for the Australian Tourism Bureau but who can resist....not I. So we threw a steak on the barbie instead and enjoyed the balmy April afternoon which included a lovely 18 holes with the country club pro and then barking dogs, spelling words and nosey neighbors. This Rod Stewart crew has been out there too long on the "Wide-eyed and Legless" tour having been out since... the Bush Administration... well almost. You know you've been on the road too long when you're happy to eat my cookin' just because it didn't come from room service or the catering truck. I was disappointed to see our local paper slag the concert in a column which was attributed to "No One." What the Fresno Bee called "corny" was actually an accurate chronological representation of 30 years of music. All I can figure is that the mysterious stringer thought they were going to a Mumenshantz show and were surprised to hear a concert from the '70s and '80s with "disco," God forbid. Well, Duh-uh. Rod is great and we love him and he can do disco if he wants to. Sound was by Electrotec, LARS BROGAARD engineer and production manager (over achiever). Light and Sound provided the lighting with director MARTIN McLOUGHLIN and Icon operator DAVE MAXWELL. Video director was MICK ANGER with "BAZ" and DON WHETSEL who also served as stage manager.

Congratulations to WARWICK PRICE of Light & Sound Design for joining the adults of the world with heavy mortgage debts to worry about. Warwick just bought a house in Henderson, Nevada. Say "Hi" to Miss Ross for us and don't forget to send out your change-of-address cards.

JERRY PFAFF of Natalie Cole production managing fame is gearing up to start production rehearsals in June for LINDA RONSTADT with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra featuring Marvin Hamlisch. Jerry is getting the tour started and GRAHAM HOLMES will take over the reigns in mid-July.

One last note... Miss Shiela at A-1 AUDIO as graciously as possible would like you to know their credit is good, the accounts look great, but they have no — nor have they ever had — "Cash."

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: You know you are in England when the beer is really, really good and the bacon is really, really bad.
