Lollapalooza '95

The line-up for the main stage for Lollapalooza '95 was confirmed last week. Sonic Youth will headline with Courtney Love's band Hole in the No. 2 position. Rounding out the lineup are Cypress Hill, Pavement, Sinead O'Connor, Beck, the Jesus Lizard and The Mighty Mighty Bosstones. The tour is scheduled to begin just after the July 4th weekend and is expected to run through the third week of August but a specific itinerary hasn't been released. Lollapalooza '95 organizers said they have lined up new events and exhibits for the festival grounds including an expected all-night rave following the live music.

Radio Stations Go Strait To Pre-Concert War

A radio station feud came to blows at a recent George Strait concert in Fresno, Calif., leaving one station PD hurting from a knee to the groin. Both stations, KSKS-FM (KISS Country) and KNAX-FM held pre-concert parties across the street from each other. The dispute was over whether one station had the right to tread on the other's turf; parading around a sign that said the "real" George Strait pre-concert party was across the street. KNAX PD Greg Edwards said his station paid for rights to display its signs exclusively at Selland Arena which was the site of the concert. He therefore seized a sign from the KSKS "party girls" and threw it away. When the girls went to KSKS manager Al Smith and told him they were man-handled by Edwards, Smith got his girls and a sign and headed back to rival territory. Smith said he confronted Edwards telling him that KSKS had every right to be in the arena's parking lot because KNAX only had a permit for inside the facility. Smith said he told Edwards to call the police and if authorities told KSKS reps to leave the premises, they would. When Edwards reached to grab the sign once again, Smith grabbed him and gave him the knee. "I'm not sure what other choice I had other than to just have him slap the girls around and I wasn't going to let that happen," Smith said. Edwards claimed the "party girls" paraded the sign through the arena's lobby but Smith said they were only in the building's parking lot. Later that night, Edwards said he got a rock thrown through his window with the words "Kiss this" printed in big red letters. Smith said he would never condone such behavior and he has been assured by his staff that no employee of KSKS was involved.

Pros On The Move

Premier Talent Agency has promoted Michele Scoleri to agent and she will now be responsible for booking the Southeast. For the past year, Scoleri has been an assistant to Barbara Skydel. Scoleri, who got her start in the business as a founding staffer of the Middle East Club in Boston, is expected to help bolster the agency's presence on the alternative music scene..... Madison Square Garden has snagged ITG's Joel Peresman to fill the vacancy created when Wayne Sharp left for the world of artist management. Peresman ran ITG's New York office which will reportedly remain open although it's uncertain who will be brought in to run it. ITG principal Michael Farrell, who is based in Los Angeles, was unavailable for comment. Peresman starts his new Garden gig on May 1st..... Rob Kahane and Mark Shimmel have dissolved their management company. Kahane will now concentrate on his new Trauma Records label while Shimmel will continue in artist management. Mark Shimmel Management opened its doors last week in the old ICM building in Los Angeles. Among his initial clients are Richard Elliott, Andru Donalds, Sunscreem and Tyler Collins..... Steven Baker has been named president of the Warner Bros. Records label and Howie Klein was formally tapped as president of Reprise Records. Baker, who joined the Bunny in 1978, was most recently VP of product management and Klein was VP/GM for Sire Records. Klein fills a new post at Reprise as that imprint moves towards becoming a fully staffed label. Meanwhile, Lenny Waronker remains as prexy of Warner Bros. Records Inc., parent of the Reprise and Warner labels, but he has already announced plans to leave at the end of his contract — if not sooner. Waronker is rumored to be considering joining former Warner head Mo Ostin in a new label deal. Ostin's consulting contract with corporate parent Time Warner reportedly expires in

\star Artist Profile

Morphine's music, critics say, is similar to its narcotic namesake's effect. The trio's peculiar blend of baritone saxophone, two-string bass and baritone-tuned drums has been called addictive, mesmerizing, hypnotic, hauntingly spare, heartbreakingly cool and darkly seductive.

Morphine began as a "lighthearted experiment in darkness" but the music certainly wasn't lighthearted; it was the band's approach to the music business that was treated with a casual attitude. In a markedly slow-going, laid-back voice, Morphine's singer/bassist Mark Sandman — who's the band's principal songwriter — told POLLSTAR, "We had no commercial aspirations when we began the band. We were perfectly prepared, psychologically, to play one show and be laughed off the stage. We didn't know if people could, [or] would, like the sound that we had discovered."

In trying to experiment with playing slide, Sandman had taken all but one string off his bass. One day, sax player Dana Colley dropped by Sandman's studio and it was during that impromptu jam that the two discovered a distinctive sound. "I'd always admired Dana's playing and always felt he was under-utilized in the bands that he used to play in," Sandman said. "I wanted to work with Dana, and at the same time, I was experimenting with playing bass with a slide. We just put the two together and I started singing and we realized it all blended together in a different kind of way. But it appealed to us so we got a drummer and picked a name and booked a really low-key show [to] try it out."

The Boston-based trio received an abundance of encouragement after that first show and decided to continue working together. Morphine started making its own recordings and by the end of a year, the band had enough material to release an album on a collective Boston label called Accurate-Distortion. After a mailing of CDs, Rykodisc "took the bait" and offered Morphine a deal. "Ryko was one of our first choices. They seemed like creativeflexible-type people who were going to take input from the band and not think that they knew better about every single thing," Sandman said. Ryko rereleased the band's first album, Good, which subsequently was named Independent Album of the Year at the 1992 Boston Music Awards.

Sandman, who was handling the band's management at the time, thinks it's important for the group to have input in business dealings. "We got a manager (Deborah Kline) two Septembers ago. She's a lawyer and she was also running Tang! Records. I was doing the managing myself up until then but when you go out on the road, it's impossible to do both. She'd never managed a band before but ... she's done a great job," he said. But the bassist keeps his hand firmly in the management mix. "We talk five times a day and we go over everything together and, as much as possible, with the whole band."

Keeping a hand in the business is vital to Sandman but keeping the band on the road is tantamount. "The aspect that we like about playing music is playing music," he said. "And if you want to play a lot, you have to move around — tour. That's the thing that we like to do the most and that's the part of the day where we really feel like it's all worth it."

Morphine keeps things interesting by playing a different set every night. The band also debuts works-in-progress in front of its most important critics, the fans. "We try out a lot of new material live. Constantly, [we] throw a song in even before its fully finished. It's impossible to predict how a song is going to resonate for the audience until you try it on them."

Morphine became affiliated with its booking agent Lisa Miller from Vertigo Touring Ltd. about the same time it enlisted a manager. Like with the management responsibilities, the band is very involved in touring decisions. Sandman said, "We tell her what kind of tour we want. That's why we like her because she's been able to do it the way we like to." Booking a tour the way Morphine wants is important because the band doesn't play the traditional concert circuit.

Following its second Ryko release, the 1993 album Cure For Pain (which sold over 300,000 copies worldwide), Morphine spent 13 months on the road, playing regions in a manner that has come to be called residencies — multiple nights in one city at smaller facilities. Sandman said there are a couple of reasons the band doesn't like to play one city per night. "When you're on the road for weeks at a time and you're going to a different city every single day, there's no time to breath. And there's also no time to walk around in an interesting city and meet other people and get a feel for where you are. It's also just a more civilized way to travel," Sandman said. "We're not trying to break any records in how many cities we can play in 'X' amount of days. We're trying to have some quality to our lives. But beyond that, and maybe more importantly, is that it's a lot more fun to play for a smaller room. It's more fun for the band and it's more fun for the audience and it's just a better value all around for everybody."

But the band has no rules. So far, Morphine has played only headline shows except for frequent appearances at European festivals. "We're flexible [but] we've never done any support work with Morphine. I did it a lot in the last band I was in; Billy (Morphine drummer Billy Conway) was in that band too, Treat Her Right, and it's just not that satisfying. It's much more satisfying to play for people that came to see you play. And on the practical side, when you're the support band, that means you get no sound check, no dressing room, no hospitality, short set, people are coming in while you're playing or standing out in the lobby drinking or whatever," Sandman said. "They talk you into it, promoters and agents, because they say, 'Look you'll be playing for all these people.' But I don't think that most of the people could even remember the name of the opening act even if they liked it. It's just one of those things that looks good on paper but having done it, we're much happier doing our own shows."

Morphine plans to stay on the road constantly in 1995. Touring behind its third Rykodisc release, yes, Morphine plans to hit all the markets it did last year, and more. In addition to an extensive U.S. tour, Morphine has some big European festivals coming up this summer including the U.K.'s giant Glastonbury Festival. \bigstar

U.K. News Report

There was no confirmation of TAKE THAT's August arena (London) shows until last week, but by that time all but a few tickets for the ten dates had been sold. Tickets were made available prior to the "official" April 25th on-sale date exclusively to the band's huge fan club numbering over 80,000 - before being released to the rest of the country. Fan club members were allowed four tickets each and scooped up most of the 75,000 tickets available for Earls Court's allocated five nights. At Manchester Arena, it was a similar story, so it can only be a matter of days before more dates are added. Apparently the production will be tailor-made to fit these two venues alone. As they are the largest indoor arenas in the UK, the size of the production means it will be impossible to do a conventional arena tour. Could this mean that Take That are testing the water for some stadium shows in 1996?..... MANCHESTER ARENA announced last week that the local basketball team, the Exide Manchester Giants has chosen the venue as its home for the 1995-96 season. Ogden Entertainment is currently estimating that 130 events will be held at the arena in its first year The annual SOUND CITY week, which took place in Bristol this year enjoyed its fourth successful year. With MCP promoting the core concerts in two venues and numerous other shows happening around the town, over 180 bands played over the seven days. It's an event that aims to bring the music industry and the general public together. It's a good chance for young bands to raise their profile because the spotlight of the national music media becomes focused on the city, and a high percentage of the shows were also broadcast on BBC Radio 1. Two Bristol bands who deserve a prize for the best efforts at self-publicity are Blue Ice and Love is Danger, who took full advantage of making sure there names were everywhere. We'll see if they can now follow up with a record deal. Other new talent tips included Cake, Depot F, Spectrasonic, Dogger and Soda. However, A&R people down from the big city, looking for the next band emulating the so-called Bristol Sound (in the style of local successes Portishead, Tricky and Massive Attack), were disappointed as there was only one noteworthy dance act, Unation. In addition to all the gigs, the accompanying series of Sound City industry panels were well-attended and featured discussions on management, publicity, publishing, sound engineering, and other careers in the music industry. JEF HANLON was present to chair the management panel as the IMF's representative. Hanlon is vice chairman of the IMF, but he is also active as an agent, and as such he has just been appointed the president of the AGENTS ASSOCIATION OF GREAT BRITAIN, which at last gives the contemporary division of the association a stronger representation. The AAGB was founded in 1927 and has a membership of over 400 agents who span the whole spectrum of the entertainment business. However, in the past, key rock and pop agents have been reluctant to join because it was felt the association did not best represent their interests..... The STONE ROSES have split with recently appointed manager Doug Goldstein. Goldstein was only appointed a few months back and no reason has been publicly put forward other than "it didn't work out." But perhaps a band which has survived several years without a manager is in fact, unmanageable? Maybe you don't need a manager when you're keeping a low profile, but career-wise the Second Coming album was not the runaway success hoped for. The band has also changed drummers, which indicates that all is not well in that camp. Currently on tour in Europe, everyone will be watching the Roses headline performance at Glastonbury for some clues as to where the band's future lies PEARL JAM may be on a world tour, but they ain't coming to the UK for a while. The band is represented over here by ITB, and agent Rod MacSween's office indicated that they probably will not get to the UK until 1996 The first few hints at what the READING FESTIVAL bill will look like this year are filtering in. We may see Dave Grohl's band, the Foo Fighters, make its UK debut there and Carter USM are tipped to headline the second stage Other pre-festival tips are Public Enemy and Ice T and Body Count appearing at the PHOENIX FESTIVAL. That event will have a new dimension in this, its third year. The Mean Fiddler Organisation is putting the acoustic "stage" on the road for seven dates at the end of May. Taking part in the "Flight of The Phoenix" tour will be Martin Stephenson, Robyn Hitchcock, Goya Dress, Boo Hewerdine and Heather Nova among others DIONNE FARRIS was in the UK for a couple of showcases last week. But only just! She missed a date in Manchester because the band was one UK work permit short and the band were left stranded in Italy. But luckily the application forms went through in time to get her onto the stage at London's Jazz Cafe The August..... Jeffrey Gaines was named assistant GM of the LMImanaged Nashville Arena which is scheduled to open in the fall of 1996. Gaines most recently was the corporate director of operations at LMI. He has also previously worked at The Summit and as GM of Rainbow Ticketmaster of Houston..... Former Delsener/Slater talent buyer Melissa Miller, who joined the MCA Concerts team in Los Angeles last month, has been named VP of Talent for the nationwide MCA Concerts operation.

Waylon Away On Sunset

L7's Donita Sparks and Dee Plakas came out to see Waylon Jennings at his recent appearance at the House of Blues in West Hollywood. Joining the country legend for a quick Kodak moment are (L-R) L7 tech Brubaker, Jennings' wife Jessi Colter, Jennings, Sparks and Plakas.

Spokane Goes Arena-less For Summer

The Spokane Coliseum faces the wrecking ball this June but before the destruction begins nostalgia seekers have a chance to take home a piece of the 41-year-old building. Items of value are available to those willing to do the dismantling work and hauling. Toilets, stadium seats and like merchandise are being sold to the public by the demolition contractor. The 8,500-capacity arena is suffering from terminal old age with a leaking ceiling, cracked floors and other ailments. It will be torn down and replaced by a parking lot for the new 12,500-capacity Veterans Memorial Arena which is scheduled to open September 15th. The old coliseum officially closed down for good April 18th.

Settling This Estate Won't Be Eazy

The doors to Eazy E's Ruthless Records were locked after a Superior Court judge barred trustees and business associates of the late rapper from entering the premises, according to an April 24th report in the L.A. Times. Litigation to seize control of Eazy's estate started pouring in immediately after the rapper's death from AIDS complications March 26th. The Times said sources on both sides of the battle expect the estate to be inundated by paternity suits as well as litigation from artists and producers seeking funds. For now, payments to artists on the Ruthless label and to the six mothers of Eazy's seven children have reportedly stopped. A court administrator will dive into the stack of cases by first reviewing allegations in a suit brought by former Ruthless employee Mike Klein. The suit questions the legality of Eazy's deathbed-marriage to Tomica Woods and challenges the validity of a trust document the rapper signed days before his death designating Woods and Eazy's former attorney, Ronald L. Sweeney, as co-trustees with several members of Eazy's family. The suit also alleges that Eazy turned half of his company over to Klein in 1992 and that money is now missing from a bank account to which only Woods and Sweeney had access. The Times said rumors are circulating that the marriage and trust document were orchestrated by Woods and Sweeney to help Motown Records gain control of Ruthless. Both Woods and Sweeney have worked for Motown chairman Clarence Avant in the past. Sources reportedly speculate that Eazy's company has a potential $15 million in assets but by the time the estate is dragged through the mound of anticipated lawsuits, much of the money may be sucked into the black hole known as legal fees.

Deals, Deals, Deals

Light & Sound Design in the U.S. and U.K. have been acquired by a management team headed by original LSD founders Nick Jackson, Terry Lee, Tim Murch and John Lobel. The LSD founders had given up operational control when they sold the lighting firm to Christian Salvesen PLC three years ago..... BMG has acquired the remaining 50 percent of the contemporary Christian music Reunion Records label and its related music publishing arm. Arista/Nashville head Tim DuBois will oversee the operation of Reunion Records and its sister label Rode Dog Records. Reunion president/CEO Terry Hemmings will continue in his position and will report directly to DuBois..... The 12-yearold Tacoma Dome will undergo some reconstructive surgery this summer. The roof of the dome will be getting a new outer membrane to replace the original which has started to crack and blister. The estimated $1- to $1.5 million project is expected to be completed by September. The dome will remain open during the repairs..... Steven Spielberg, David Geffen and Jeffrey Katzenberg may be close to finalizing a distribution deal between their DreamWorks SKG studio and MCA Inc. Sources close to both companies indicated last week that DreamWorks would likely retain its domestic distribution rights while giving MCA the rights to the rest of the world. Meanwhile, the Sunday Mirror in London has reported that DreamWorks will cough-up $57 million to buy-out George Michael's recording contract with Sony. (Continued Page 11)

And back at MCA, Edgar Bronfman Jr., Seagram Co.'s CEO, has continued meeting with executives from various MCA divisions but has not revealed whom he would like to run the company. MCA chairman Lew Wasserman and president Sid Sheinberg's contracts with MCA expire in December. Sources suggest Wasserman is close to relinquishing his position for an honorary title and a seat on the Seagram board. Sheinberg is rumored to be under consideration to fill Wasserman's position. And while Michael Ovitz's name continues to be bandied about, the CAA topper has gone on the record to say there have been no talks and no negotiations about his joining MCA. Ovitz is frequently mentioned for every top studio job in Hollywood but they all would probably be a step down on the power rung from where he sits today. However, reports continue to circulate saying Ovitz would join MCA if he received an equity stake of 10 percent. A spokesperson for CAA has nonetheless firmly stated that Ovitz is not leaving the agency. The announcement regarding MCA's top management will reportedly come after Seagram's $5.7 billion acquisition is completed in June.

Anatomy Of An ADA Lawsuit

Dorney Park in Allentown, Pa., is being accused of discrimination once again. A Philadelphia man with electrode implants in his spinal cord is suing the amusement park claiming that its employees mocked him and forced him to "prove" his disability before granting him special treatment. Wayne R. Goodhead said his troubles started in 1993 when he was sent to the park's guest relations office by workers who were unfamiliar with the policy for disabled patrons. The lawsuit claims Goodhead had to pull up his shirt and partially lower his shorts in the presence of employees and visitors to reveal the implants. Goodhead was also required to fill out a form to inform ride operators that he was entitled to courtesies such as going to the head of the lines. But according to the lawsuit, one ride operator refused to look at Goodhead's paperwork, threw him out of line and threatened to have security toss him from the park. Goodhead has accused the park of violating the Americans With Disabilities Act and is seeking compensatory and punitive damages. This dispute comes just days after Dorney Park settled a lawsuit filed by a mentally retarded man who said he was required to undergo an evaluation before boarding a carousel ride.

Bobby Brown Goes Clubin'

Bobby Brown and two companions were arrested and charged with beating a patron of a Disney World nightclub April 26th in Orlando. Witnesses said the fight started when Brown was talking to a woman at the Mannequin nightclub at Pleasure Island when another man, Neil Kelly, tried to break into the conversation. After the woman said she didn't want to speak to Kelly, Brown began arguing with him. Brown's bodyguard, Gary Smith, then punched Kelly in the face knocking him to the ground, according to a sheriff's spokesperson. Witnesses said though Kelly appeared to be knocked out, Brown and his cronies continued punching and kicking him and one broke a bottle over his head. And the fun didn't stop there. Espinosa said while Brown was made to sit in the police car to await transport, he urinated and gouged four-letter words into the upholstery. The three perpetrators were released on $5,000 bail each. If convicted, each faces up to 15 years in prison on felony assault and 60 days on misdemeanor disorderly conduct.

Police Blotter

Snoop Doggy Dogg and three co-defendants pleaded innocent April 25th to misdemeanor drug charges stemming from their December 21st arrest in Lake Charles, La., where deputies found "gleanings" of suspected marijuana in a hotel room they were occupying. Snoop was in Lake Charles for a concert when deputies went to the hotel to serve him legal papers from a New York federal court and an entertainment company seeking money the rapper's promoter allegedly owes. The deputy smelled what he thought was pot smoke coming from the room at the Players Casino Hotel. The deputy contacted narcotics officers who attempted to get someone to answer the door of Snoop's room. When the narcs were told they couldn't enter, they brought back a dope-sniffing dog that indicated there was pot smoke coming from the room. Snoop and three others were led from the hotel in handcuffs, booked and freed on $2,000 bond. A trial was set for June 1st..... The religion-police in Kuala Lumpur arrested a popular Malaysian singer April 21st after she was caught in a hotel room with a member of the opposite sex, her fiancee who is a member of The Commodores. Ithnaini Taib, known by her stage name Anita Sarawak, pleaded guilty to "khalwat" or close proximity, a sexual misdemeanor under Islamic law, and paid the $75 fine. The law prohibits unmarried Muslims from being in a room alone with a member of the other sex. Taib was wearing casual clothes and her fiancee, James Dean Nicholas, was in pajamas when religious policemen raided their room in a luxury hotel. Nicholas, a West Indian-born British citizen who's not a Muslim, was not arrested or fined..... Eddie Van Halen pleaded no contest to attempting to board an airplane with a loaded handgun. Van Halen was detained at the Burbank airport April 7th after an X-ray machine detected the gun in his carry-on luggage. He said he had forgotten the Baretta was in the bag and that he had never been stopped for carrying it since he usually take charter flights. Van Halen entered into a plea agreement with the Burbank city attorney's office, was fined $300 and placed on a year's probation for the misdemeanor offense..... New York comedian Guy Giovia, aka Guy Richards, plead no contest April 19th to charges of cocaine possession, lewdness and disorderly conduct after allegedly holding a pizza delivery woman in Vermont against her will while he was under the influence of cocaine. Giovia apparently asked Tanyia Chandler, 18, for a ride while she was delivering pizzas at Castleton State College. According to a police affidavit, Chandler said while Giovia was riding in her car, he offered her cocaine, made sexual comments and touched her thigh. Chandler told police that Giovia repeatedly grabbed her by the arm and insisted she answer questions, mostly of a sexual nature. Police said when the two stopped the car briefly to get cigarettes at a general store, Chandler managed to drive away. Police later found Giovia locked in a back room of the store where he had retreated to snort more coke and then had refused to leave. Under a plea agreement, Giovia will undergo drug treatment, serve 12-26 months on probation and pay a fine.

Reba Leaves The Centrum Starstruck

Another House That Geffen Built

Entertainment industry mogul David Geffen is going back to college — in name at least. Geffen has donated $5 million to the UCLA-owned Westwood Playhouse, which will be renamed the Geffen Playhouse. Geffen will sit on the theatre's board of directors but the donation came with no strings attached. "...hopefully I get a free ticket," said Geffen, who served as a UCLA regent from 1980-1990. Movie director Gilbert Cates, who is also Dean of the UCLA School of Theatre, Film and Television, said some of the money will go to refurbish the 498seat theatre and bring it up to code under the Americans with Disabilities Act guidelines. The Westwood Playhouse currently operates as a commercial enterprise but as the Geffen Playhouse, it will be a non-profit theatre hosting touring companies and original productions.

Selena Merchandising

As many as 500 "Jane and John Does" have been named in a suit brought by the family of slain Tejano singer Selena. The suit, filed in Texas April 21st under the Buddy Holly Act, resulted in a Texas state district judge making it temporarily illegal to sell any merchandise bearing the name or likeness of Selena. A judge in San Antonio issued a temporary restraining order April 24th that gives Selena's family the right to immediately seize any unauthorized merchandise and to seek damages. The family of the murdered Tejano singer said it has not licensed the use of Selena's trademark, which includes her photograph, name, image, signature and voice, for commercial purposes. Violators of the trademark law face a fine of as much as $1 million and a maximum jail term of 10 years. Selena's death is a tragedy, but it has also been a cash bonanza for quick buck artists looking to exploit her name for profit. Shortly after the singer's March 31st murder, unauthorized memorial merchandise, mostly T-shirts, went on sale. Meanwhile, her legitimate record sales have skyrocketed as four of her albums jumped into the top 100.

Obituaries

Jazz pianist Don Pullen, 53, died April 22nd of lymphoma. Pullen, who once played with Charles Mingus, was known for his percussive playing style, using the backs of his hands and even his elbows. Pullen finished recording his last Blue Note album in March..... Burl Ives, 85, died April 14th at his home in Washington state. Ives, who had been suffering from complications of mouth cancer, was an Academy Award winning actor and a hugely successful folksinger in the '40s and '50s.

It is Tim Reynolds. Thanks to all the promoters from across the country who called about TR3. Once again, Tim was the guitarist on all three Dave Matthews releases and is touring with his new band in support of its new CD.

NANCY CARLIN: Maureen Brennan

We are excited about touring Andy Irvine's East Wind Trio in October. This is the first time he will tour his fusion of Irish and Balkan music anywhere in the world. The other members of the trio include Nikola Parov of Bulgaria and Rens van der Zalm from Holland. Two Andy Irvine tracks were selected for recent major label compilations. One of the East Wind pieces, "Chetvorno Horo," is on the new Atlantic/Celtic Heartbeat Collection and EMI/Hemisphere chose his classic "Plains of Kildare" as the first vocal on the Celtic Graces compilation. /// Ad Vielle Oue Pourra has a busy summer season coming up with concerts and festivals from the Yukon to Normandy. /// Kevin Burke's Open House will also make the festival circuit this summer in Europe and Canada. The band will film a live video in Seattle in July. /// La Musgana's recent tour met with great success and rave reviews in the L.A. Times, Boston Globe and Chicago Tribune. We are booking the band's next tour for early '96. /// Patrick Ball's first album of traditional folk tales, Storyteller, is out on Celestial Harmonies. /// The Welsh band Cusan Tan (with triple harper Robin Huw Bowen) is working on a new album which will be the first Welsh album ever released simultaneously in the U.S. and Wales, /// .Iez Lowe & The Bad Pennies (from the Northeast of England) tour the U.S. for the first time in August and November.

HELLO! BOOKING: Brian Swanson

Minneapolis-based The Billy's have a few avails in the Midwest through the end of July and will then head West to Missoula and South to Colorado before returning to Minnesota in early August. Between The Dates

Because of the Oklahoma City bombing the BLACK CROWES have moved their originally scheduled Oak City date from May 2nd to May 10. In addition, the Crowes will donate all proceeds from the show to local chapters of the Red Cross, Feed The Children, and Salvation Army. The band's label, American Recordings will match the show's proceeds, and the Crowes' booking agency CAA, plus New Orleans-based promoter Beaver Productions will donate their take from the show. And local promoter Howard Pollack of Global Talent Group is also working on a large benefit show for mid-May at the Oklahoma City Fairgrounds. Talent for that show should be announced shortly..... A June 17th show in Wyoming will be the first stop on PEARL JAM's summer tour. The 7,500 tickets for the Casper Events Center sold out quickly as fans dialed ETM's special 800 number that was announced on the Thursday before the weekend on-sale. Boise's BSU Pavilion was supposed to be the tour's opening night, but the venue needed more time to coordinate ticket sales with ETM. Meanwhile, fans can put their name on an e-mail list to receive advance word on when the Pearl Jam 800 ticket number goes online in their markets. Connect with ETM's Internet site at http://www.isp.net/etm/..... Warming up for Lollapalooza '95? Courtney Love "pushed and punched" people in the audience at an April 24th HOLE show in Amsterdam. Love reportedly jumped off stage and ran up into the balcony of the PARADISO club to search for a woman who threw pieces of a chair onstage. When Courtney finally returned to the stage, the audience began throwing beer at the band - and that led to an early end to what had started out as a successful gig. When asked about the incident, Geffen Record's exec Bryn Bridenthal pretty much summed it up with, "Sounds like a typical Courtney Love show."..... Those postponed West Coast dates for R.E.M. have been rescheduled for October and November, and you'll find them in the Route Book ROCK THE ROCKIES is set for May 28th at Denver's Stapleton Airport. Since the festival was planned months before Stapleton finally closed its runways to make way for the new, baggage-beleaguered Denver International Airport, one could say that festival plans were "up in the However, the new airport finally opened, and promoters are air." promising 12 hours of music with Lynyrd Skynyrd, Foreigner, Smithereens, Freddy Jones Band, Jeff Foxworthy, Bad Company, the Charlie Daniels Band, Tanya Tucker, and John Berry. To promote the festival, U.S. Tobacco Sales & Marketing held a nationwide promotion in which fans could send in a coupon requesting a free ticket. So far 273,141 FREE TICKETS have been given out. However, not all those folks are expected to make the trek to Denver. When asked what would happen in the unlikely event all the ticket holders showed up. Steve Hauser of Pace Southeast told POLLSTAR, "Were in trouble." Hauser said they expect about 50,000 fans but can accommodate up to 100,000..... The Boston venue for the STONE ROSES is listed as "THE BOSTON TEA PARTY." Has Don Law resurrected the name of the famous venue that he booked in the 60s? Well, kind of. In order to make the Boston appearance of the Roses special, the event is being advertised as "A Tea Party" with the address for the Avalon Ballroom listed as the site. The Boston Tea Party was a famous East Coast ballroom. During the 60s, the venue hosted acts such as Led Zeppelin, The Who, and The Rolling Stones. Though a different building, the Avalon Ballroom is at the same location as The Tea Party, which was Boston's "place to hang out" during the 60s Want to see THE POINTER SISTERS? You can catch them in the revival of the musical 'Ain't Misbehavin'." See Route Book for the dates The GLEN HELEN BLOCKBUSTER PAVILION in Southern California is wheelin' and dealin' to attract concert goers this summer. Reserved seats for the Bad Company and Ted Nugent show are selling for $15. And if that's too much you can park your cheeks on the lawn for only ten bucks. er bargain shows include $20 (or $10 lawn) for The Beach Boys, and .50 (or $12.50 lawn) for the upcoming tri-bill of REO Speedwagon, etwood Mac, and Pat Benatar.

U.K. News Report

Jazz Cafe was also the venue for DEANA CARTER's headline outing before she returned to the US. She has just finished a support slot on the Jimmy Nail tour. Putting a country act on at the Jazz Cafe was an interesting move, and perhaps a confusing one for the regular cafepunters. But owner, Vince Power, has always been one of the key importers of country music to the UK, and besides, as Carter's agent John Giddings stressed, she is keen to avoid the usual country pigeonholes. She certainly succeeded this time.... New additions to the roster at PRIMARY TALENT include The Mike Flowers Pops, The Watchmen, Procol Harum, Ivy, The Shave, General Public, Janis Ian, Korn, Mondo Grosso, Three Mile Pilot.

Australian News Report

(Sydney) The talk of the Australian industry has been the capture on April 22nd of one of the countries most-wanted fugitives, IAN SAXON, who was arrested by the FBI in San Diego. Saxon escaped from jail in Sydney on March 2, 1993 whilst awaiting trial on drug charges and the alleged laundering of more than $70 million in drug revenues in overseas bank accounts and through the purchase of high-priced apartments and a luxury boat. The reason everyone is so interested is that prior to his arrest, Saxon was a well known figure in the music industry. He was not, as most media outlets would have us believe, a promoter - but had worked for many years as a TOUR MANAGER, dealing with international acts visiting this country. The majority of the tours he worked on were promoted by the Frontier Touring Company but reps from that company have repeatedly said they had no knowledge of Saxon's 'other' life. It is expected that Saxon will be extradited to Australia..... It looks highly likely that DICK DALE will do a club tour of Australia during the late July/early August period. National radio station Triple J is heavily featuring his latest Hightone release and the Pulp Fiction soundtrack to which he contributes a track has sold in excess of 100,000 units in this country..... The DIVINYLS are soon to embark on a lengthy national double-billed tour with JOAN JETT which starts on May 23 and winds it's way around the country till July 11..... Promoter Adrian Bohm is nearing the end of a very successful MICHELLE SHOCKED tour which has included 14 sold out shows. Shocked has been selling her new CDs exclusively at the venues and apparently a number of retail shops have been coming to the shows and trying to purchase large quantities. Keeping up his heavy workload Adrian Bohm is touring Joe Jackson and They Might Be Giants in May. He's also doing a brief club tour with Pat Benatar at the beginning of June..... BIG DAY OUT promoters Ken West and Vivian Lees are none too impressed by the fax circulating from the VIOLENT FEMMES management saying that under no circumstances would they work with the promoters again - even after a number of successful tours. Lees and West have always maintained that they refuse to deal with the Femmes again because of their management. To counter the innuendo Lees and West are circulating two fax's from CHRIS DALSTON, who was then at the William Morris Agency, dated February 10, and February 25, 1994 specifically asking them to look at including the band on the bill for The Big Day out shows earlier this year LIBBY WILSON, who worked with promoter Michael Coppel for an extended period, recently returned to Australia after a sojourn overseas. But she was only here briefly to organise things for a move to New York where she's been appointed VP artist development at Sony Int'I By the time you read this the all important AUSTRALIAN MUSIC INDUSTRY SUMMIT on April 27 where key industry figures meet in Canberra with representatives of the Federal Government, will be over. As of a few days before the gathering it appeared as though Prime Minister Paul Keating would not be attending. A representative from Parliament House told me that it was most likely Keating would be "out of town on the day." Some of the better known industry figures invited to attend the Summit were Molly Meldrum, Michael Gudinski, Chris Gilbey, Simon Young, Michael Chugg, Jenny Morris, Owen Trembath, Rob Hirst, Lindy Morrison, Peter Garrett, Denis Handlin, Kim Frankiewicz, Peter Rix, Barry Chapman, Warren Fahey, Jeremy Fabinyi, Pete Steedman, John Woodruff, Sue Gillard, Frank Falvo, and Phil Dwyer..... On April 20 the Minister for Justice, Mr Kerr, the Industry Minister, Mr Cook, and the Arts Minister Mr Lee, announced a package of measures the AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT hopes will boost the local music industry. It has gained promises from the six major record

CANDELABRAS

For something more than supper with a soundtrack, audiences know Lakewood Amphitheatre is the place to be. Concerts here aren't just background music for mingling dinners, they're major events. With great acts like Aerosmith, Van Halen, Stone Temple Pilots, Allman Brothers, Melissa Etheridge, Lollapalooza, Metallica, Sting, Tom Petty, Rod Stewart and Lynyrd Skynyrd, we've become Atlanta's best venue for Rock'n Roll.

At Lakewood Amphitheatre, artists enjoy every advantage from spacious dressing rooms and superb catering to easy rigging and record-breaking load outs. Fans know they will find superior sound quality, comfortable seating and fantastic service all within a few miles of downtown Atlanta. We're also the only venue in town with safe, simple on-site parking.

Find out how we set the standard instead of the table.
