EARLY 1,000 PEOPLE attended the 9th annual Concert Industry Awards held January 30th at the Wilshire Ebell Theatre in Los Angeles. The presentation was hosted by comedian Kevin Meaney.

The evening was a benefit for the Bobby Brooks Foundation and POLLSTAR is very pleased to be able to donate a record $25,000 from this year's event to the foundation.

During the awards show, Universal Concerts also presented the foundation with a check for $75,000 representing the proceeds from a special surcharge it placed on concert ticket sales during 1997.

Complete details on the award winners and scenes from the afterparty can be found starting on page 25 of this issue.

Pietasters Get Swallowed Up By Promoter Beef

Pietasters concert was postponed at the last minute because the venue's capacity was cut in half, according to the band's agent, Stormy Shepherd of Leave Home Booking.

Apparently, Irving Plaza's usual capacity of up to 1,100 was called into question after lawyers from Metropolitan Entertainment informed the New York City Department of Buildings of a capacity error.

That move seems to be part of a bitter battle over booking rights to Irving Plaza which started last year. The sordid details go something like this: Metropolitan was in together. But from mid-November until late January, nobody was scheduling concerts at the venue.

Some say Metropolitan chief John Scher couldn't stomach Delsener/Slater's new position at Irving and stopped booking shows. But Metropolitan reportedly said it hadn't been booking shows because it discovered the aforementioned licensing snag. Either way, Metropolitan is no longer being allowed to book the venue, according to company spokesman Eric Levine. And Metropolitan is suing Irving Plaza and Delsener/Slater for breach of contract.

Delsener/Slater responded to that suit with one of its own, accusing Scher of breach of contract for failing to book the club and for taking negative action against the company. But Delsener/Slater withdrew that action before it went to court. Attempts to obtain a comment from Delsener/Slater were unsuccessful at press time.

Moves are being made to rectify the capacity problem at Irving Plaza but that probably doesn't bring much comfort to Shepherd or her band. "It's just a shame that they had to use the band as a pawn in whatever circumstances they're dealing with," Shepherd told POLLSTAR. "It didn't hurt who they intended to [hurt] and I just think it's dirty pool."

She said though the Pietasters were forced to postpone their Irving Plaza show, the band played a free gig at a record store for more than 400 fans. The Pietasters are scheduled to return to Irving Plaza May 1st, hopefully for a fullcapacity show.

HILADELPHIA-BASED concert promotions company New Park Entertainment filed an anti-trust lawsuit February 1st against Electric Factory Concerts, the Spectrum Arena limited partnership and Pavilion Partners, owner of the Blockbuster Sony Music Entertainment Centre (the E Center) in Camden, N.J.

The suit claims that Electric Factory has an exclusive agreement to book the E Center, effectively shutting New Park out of the area's major amphitheatre. The suit also alleges that "Electric Factory and the Spectrum Arena have entered into an agreement which Fruit of the Loom's CountryFest '98 is going to be held in Nashville this year. The June 20th mega-concert will again be a national network primetime television special. No venue or artists have been announced. The event is being produced by Warner/Avalon. CountryFest '97 drew more than 200,000 to the Texas Motor Speedway last year. Unlike the past two years, Fruit of the Loom is not sponsoring a Country Comfort Tour in '98.

Paris-based MC France now sells approximately 500,000 tickets annually to all types of events including concerts, sports, theatre and museums.

Chancellor Media Corp. and Capstar Broadcasting Corp., an affiliate of investment firm Hicks, Muse, Tate & Furst Inc., have agreed to divide the assets of SFX Broadcasting Inc. and swap several radio stations following Hicks Muse's $1.2 billion acquisition of SFX, according to the Wall Street Journal. Under the $637.5 million asset-division deal, Capstar will exchange 11 SFX stations in Dallas, Houston, Pittsburgh and San Diego for several of Chancellor's small-market and medium-market radio stations. Chancellor will operate the 11 SFX stations pending completion of the swap and will lend Capstar $250 million for the transaction.

Virgin Records filed a breach of contract lawsuit against The Smashing Pumpkins last week. The suit, filed in California Superior Court for the County of Los Angeles, claims that the band delivered only three albums instead of the seven due under terms of its 1991 contract with Virgin. The group is reportedly citing California Labor Code section 2855 which limits personal service contracts to seven years. Virgin reportedly says the same Labor Code section entitles it to recover damages for each album the Pumpkins have not delivered.

Karl Wallinger has successfully severed the tie between his band, World Party, and EMI/Chrysalis Records. Wallinger retains all rights to his entire back catalogue including his recent album Egyptology. The only song to remain under EMI control is World Party's version of the Beatles' "Martha My Dear," which Wallinger recorded for the EMI centenary album. Manager Steve Fargnoli of Pure Management in London is fielding offers.

MTV cut 53 seconds of footage of Madonna playing with her daughter, Lourdes, from the program "Ultrasound," which aired last weekend. But Maddy had second thoughts after she and Lourdes were confronted by thousands of shouting fans recently in Paris.

sic and video-retail chain, according to the Wall Street Journal.

Fifield was long-rumored to succeed Sir Colin Southgate, chairman of predecessor company Thorn EMI PLC since 1989.

However, the EMI board rejected the succession plan that would have elevated Fifield to head of EMI Group. Prior to a recent board meeting, Sir Colin withdrew his backing for the succession plan, people close to the company told the Journal. Apparently, members of EMI's board backed Sir Colin's decision.

The board took no action on a previously prepared new contract that would have made Fifield operating head of EMI through 2002, reporting directly to the board.

EMI issued a statement simply stating that Sir Colin would remain executive chairman and Fifield would continue as chief executive of EMI Music. There was immediate speculation that the board's lack of action might result in Fifield leaving the company. Other observers wondered if the inaction might be related to a long rumored but frequently denied sale of EMI's music assets to Disney or Seagram.

Eufaula Amphitheatre Folly Continues

THE MAYOR OF EUFAULA, Okla., has predicted the troubled Mega Star Amphitheatre will host concerts by this summer, but the project still has several hurdles to overcome. Bondholders in the project have been given until March 16th to approve a scaleddown construction plan for the 27,000-capacity shed on Lake Eufaula outside Oklahoma City.

The deadline was set by a U.S. Bankruptcy Court judge and Mayor Joe Johnson called it "a step toward getting this plan approved." The Eufaula Industrial Authority, which had issued $5 million in bonds for the amphitheatre project, declared bankruptcy in May 1997, listing an estimated $11 million in debts. A state audit and criminal investigation followed and the project was found to be riddled with fraud and mismanagement, leading to several lawsuits. #### Grammy Award Winners

COLK-ORIENTED MUSICIANS were the big winners at the 40th Annual Grammy Awards show February 25th, with Bob Dylan and Shawn Colvin dominating the major categories.

Colvin, along with her collaborator John Leventhal, was honored for the hit "Sunny Came Home," which was named record of the year and song of the year.

Bob Dylan won best album and best contemporary folk album for his critically praised Time Out of Mind release. Dylan's song "Cold Irons Bound" also won the Grammy for best rock performance.

The Dylan family good fortune continued with Jakob Dylan and The Wallflowers winning two Grammys for "One Headlight." The song won best rock performance by a duo or group with vocal and best rock song.

Other big winners of the evening included Sarah McLachlan who won female pop vocal performance honors for "Building a Mystery" and pop instrumental performance honors for "Last Dance."

In the country music categories, Trisha Yearwood was the top honoree. Yearwood received the female country vocal performance honor for "How Do I Live." The song was nominated twice in that category, once for Yearwood's recording and once for the version recorded by LeAnn Rimes. Yearwood also won a Grammy for best country collaboration with vocals for "In Another's Eyes," which she recorded with Garth Brooks. Erykah Badu dominated the rhythm and blues categories with Grammys for female R&B vocal performance for "On and On" and best R&B album for Baduizm.

Puff Daddy & The Family were also multiple winners. "I'll Be Missing You" by Puff with Faith Evans and 112 won best rap performance by a duo or group, and Puff's No Way Out took best rap album honors.

R. Kelly's inspirational song "I Believe I Can Fly" was also a big winner. Kelly won male R&B vocal performance, best R&B song and best song specifically for a motion picture with "I Believe I Can Fly." His performance of the hit, backed by a gospel choir, was one of the highlights of the evening's entertainment.

Other performance highlights included Wyclef Jean and Erykah Badu doing a wonderful - albeit brief — acoustic jam before presenting Colvin with her first award for "Sunny Came Home." Just as Colvin's name was announced, Ol' Dirty Bastard from Wu Tang Clan Another unexpected interruption came during Bob Dylan's performance of "Love Sick." During the song, a man delivered a "Soy Bomb" on stage, which was simply a shirtless man with the words "Soy Bomb" painted on his chest. The man gyrated next to Dylan for about a minute before being escorted off stage. Dylan didn't appear to be bothered by the incident.

It is likely the man was a member of "The Music Militia," an organization that was formed to protest the deterioration of quality in the music business. The "Militia" issued a press release the day of the awards ceremony promising disruption during the event. Its "Anti-Grammy" reports said "It is no longer enough to sit on the sidelines or the couch taking bong hits, and commenting on all the things that suck.... It is time to shake off the distracting and hypnotic haze of ... corporate drivel." Calls to the organization, which appears to be a marketing tool for Transcendent indie record label, were unanswered at press time.

The lively interruptions during the ceremony at Radio City Music Hall may have provided fodder for journalists, but the award winners remained the focus.

Major category winners this year leaned toward critically acclaimed artists and industry veterans; it appears NARAS is trying to stay away from the Milli Vanillitype votes it's been chastised for in the past. Among the winners were Paula Cole for best new artist, Jamiroquai's "Virtual Insanity" for pop performance by a duo or group with a vocal, John Lee Hooker with Van Morrison for pop collaboration with vocals, Radiohead's OK Computer for alternative album, John Fogerty's Blue Moon Swamp for rock album, and James Taylor's Hourglass for pop album.

They All Love New York

ATIONAL ACADEMY OF Recording Arts and Sciences Foundation president Mike Greene symbolically tipped his cap — a New York Yankees cap to NYC mayor Rudolph Giuliani at a pre-Grammy press conference February 24th.

Greene and Giuliani have been going head-to-head since the Mayor accused the NARAS prexy of "threatening the life of a city worker and [going] on a profanity-laced tirade." Greene denies the allegations but, according to the mayor's camp, he offered a "phony apology."

NARAS PREXY Mike Greene takes part in a town hall meeting at Planet Hollywood one day before the Grammy ceremony at Radio City Music Hall.

A spokesperson for the mayor said Greene must still acknowledge his actions. Giuliani, who has been demanding a fuller apology for a week, said he wants Greene to say: "It was wrong of me to curse at her and I didn't mean it that way. It's not going to happen again." If no apology is forthcoming, Giuliani has made it clear he won't mind losing the Grammy event to another city; the mayor had aggressively fought to win back the ceremony from Los Angeles.

Greene apparently won't oblige Giuliani's request for a "fuller" apology. All he would say on the matter as he left the news conference is, "I love the mayor, and I love the city of New York."

Pam vs. Tommy vs. Bret

PAMELA ANDERSON LEE endured living in the center of controversy last week after her husband, Tommy Lee, was arrested for assault and her ex-boyfriend's case involving a sexually explicit tape remained in the news.

Tommy Lee was arrested February 24th on a charge of assaulting his wife. She called authorities and said he had attacked her at their Malibu home. The actress told deputies the two had argued but details of the argument were unknown.

Lee was arrested without difficulty. The 35-year-old Motley Crue drummer was ordered held in lieu of $1 million bail, twice the normal amount for a charge of spousal assault. The bail was set so high because Lee was already on probation for a battery charge stemming from a fight with a freelance video photographer in September 1996 outside the Viper Room in West Hollywood.

After Lee's arrest, Poison frontman Bret Michaels released a statement through Sheen/Michaels Entertainment, saying he would post the $1 million if the Motley Crue drummer agreed to explain why he and Pamela settled with the company that is marketing sex tapes featuring the actress.

Michaels maintains the settlement between the Lees and Internet Entertainment Group of Seattle may ultimately hurt his case against the company.

In that case, a federal judge in Los Angeles recently refused to hold the Internet provider in contempt of court for posting messages about the homemade sex video tape featuring Michaels and Anderson Lee.

A lawyer for Michaels contended that IEG violated last month's temporary restraining order against marketing the tape by describing it on its Web site and in press releases. Some messages said the tape would "soon" be available.

"It's a carrot they are hanging out there to keep their subscribers," attorney Edwin McPherson told U.S. District Judge Dean Pregerson.

IEG lawyer Alan Isaacman argued the messages were simply providing comment on a "newsworthy" case that IEG expected to win.

According to Isaacman, the judge said he tentatively decided there wasn't any contempt by IEG but the restraining order needed to be clarified.

Michaels, who was not in court, had sought $1.5 million from IEG along with $50,000 in legal fees. He reportedly claims in court papers that a bashing campaign the company launched against him has caused him to suffer humiliation on a daily basis and the stress has worsened his diabetic condition.

In January, Pregerson barred IEG from posting the tape on its Web site pending the April trial of Michaels' $90 million lawsuit for infringement of copyright, invasion of privacy, violation of the right of publicity and misappropriation of name and likeness.

Anderson Lee filed a similar $90 million suit February 20th.

The suits, which seek to bar release of the tape, also name Westwood One Radio Network, which syndicates the Tom Leykis radio show. The suit claims IEG gave the DJs copies of the tape and they in turn gave vivid descriptions on the air.

As it is, IEG allows its site's subscribers to view a tape of Anderson Lee having sex with her husband, Tommy Lee. The couple sued the company last year to prevent the showing of that tape but later settled the suit and agreed to permit the sales.

However, the Lees have reportedly filed libel and slander suits against the National Enquirer and TV program "American Journal" for alleged reports that the couple was sharing in IEG's profits from the sale of their sex tape.

ACM Announces Hat Nominations

THE NOMINEES FOR THE 33RD annual Academy of Country Music Awards were announced February 23rd at Universal Studios in Los Angeles. Among those vying for the prestigious "Hat" awards are entertainer of the year nominees Garth Brooks, Brooks & Dunn, Reba McEntire, Tim McGraw and George Strait.

In the top new male and female vocalist categories the nominees are Rhett Akins, Kenny Chesney, Michael Peterson, Sara Evans, Lila McCann and Lee Ann Womack. The top new vocal duet or group award will go to Big House, The Kinleys or The Lynns.

The awards ceremony will take place April 22nd at the Universal Amphitheatre and will be televised on CBS. Newcomer awards hopefuls will perform from Universal Studios Florida during the broadcast.

Foxwoods Scores With Concerts

N ITS RELATIVELY SHORT six-year history, the Foxwoods Resort Casino in Connecticut has become one of the most successful gambling meccas in the U.S. and probably the most active concert venue among casinos. The organization's ability to attract big name artists and hordes of fans has sparked plans to build a new arena at the complex, which is owned by the Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation.

Foxwoods' success in the concert realm can be traced back to the luring of veteran East Coast promoter Frank Russo to the project. For 23 years, Russo promoted many of the major tours that went into Rhode Island and other parts of New England. After selling his concert business to Don Law in 1992, Russo took a few years off before Foxwoods sparked his return to talent buying.

"The only reason why I did it is because they had aspirations of growth in the entertainment area," Russo told POLLSTAR. "Having sold tickets to 60,000-seat stadiums and 16,000-seat arenas, I wasn't really overly excited about going up there. But they wanted to grow.... and they let me do what I wanted to do relative to growing the property."

The prospect was an interesting challenge because of Foxwoods' location. "Foxwoods is in the woods with nothing but trees around it," Russo said. "The closest major markets are Rhode Island, which is one hour away; New Haven, which is an hour away; Hartford is an hour and 15 minutes away; and Boston is better than two hours away."

So how did the complex draw crowds for 218 concerts last year?

Obituaries

Louis Marshall Jones, 84, who performed as the banjo-playin' Grandpa Jones, died February 19th in Nashville due to complications from a series of strokes in January. Jones was a regular on "Hee Haw" from 1968-1993 and was often called the "world's greatest storyteller." Jones was also a musician with a string of hits during the '40s, such as "Mountain Dew," and was a regular performer at the Grand Ole Opry.

Manuel Dewey Clark Jr., 75, better known to fans as Old Joe Clark, died shortly after undergoing abdominal surgery February 20th in Richmond, Ky. Clark's long history as an entertainer spanned several decades, including numerous performances at the Grand Ole Opry, radio, movies, and a stint with Bill Monroe's Blue Grass Boys. Clark was renowned for his hillbilly humor and spirited banjo playing.

Henny Youngman, 91, dubbed the king of one-liners, died February 24th in Manhattan of complications from the flu. Youngman first began delivering his trademark jokes more than seven decades ago in the Catskills. A typical Youngman joke: "A man says to another man, 'Can you tell me how to get to Central Park?' 'No.' 'All right, I'll mug you right here.'" However, Youngman will always be remembered for a line he accidentally delivered before an appearance on radio's "Kate Smith Show" many decades ago, "Take my wife — please."

"We have a very unique approach. We're very hospitable to everyone and people come here because they love it," Russo said. "They're not only going there to go see a concert, but they're there to stay overnight, have a nice meal at one of our great restaurants and go gamble for awhile." Foxwoods just added a third hotel to its complex, bringing the number of rooms close to 2,000.

As it is now, Foxwoods is working with two venues. The 4,000seat Fox Arena has hosted acts like Luciano Pavarotti and Yanni. The complex also has the 1,500-seat state-of-the-art Fox Theater, which has hosted Liza Minnelli, the Moody Blues, David Copperfield and Jay Leno.

The resort casino has become quite the country music haven, as well. "Last year, we did 63 country shows," Russo said. "We are the hottest country location on the East Coast. I don't know any other venue that does 63 country shows." Trisha Yearwood, Reba McEntire, Brooks and Dunn, Alabama and LeAnn Rimes have all played Foxwoods.

The next step for the complex is construction of a new arena — 10,000-capacity or less, Russo said. Right now, plans are in the embryonic stage but Russo said, "By the year 2000, we could conceivably have an arena on the property."

Domestic Violence Rap Calls For Jail Time

BONE THUGS-N-HARMONY rapper Stanley "Flesh-N-Bone" Howse was sentenced February 19th in Los Angels to four months in County Jail for violating probation on domestic violence convictions. The rapper violated probation when he and his brother-in-law allegedly beat up a 64-year-old neighbor over complaints of loud music.

According to Howse's attorney, a municipal judge is allowing the rapper to remain free until some time this month so he can finish recording a new album, the Los Angeles Times reported.

Originally, Howse pleaded no contest to assault and possession of illegal fireworks charges and was given three years probation. But the city attorney's office reportedly asked the judge to jail the rapper for time he did not serve on five previous misdemeanor convictions stemming from charges that he beat up his ex-girlfriend. * Thanks to the Pollstar voters for making us 1997 International Promoter of the Year

The Regional Promoters Association (RPA) is holding its biannual meeting at The Borderline on March 13. The big discussion point on the agenda will be cancellations. At the Leadmill, run by RPA Chairman Graham Wrench, there were 17 shows cancelled last year — out of an annual total of 120. Wrench has organised a panel to bring this important subject to light.

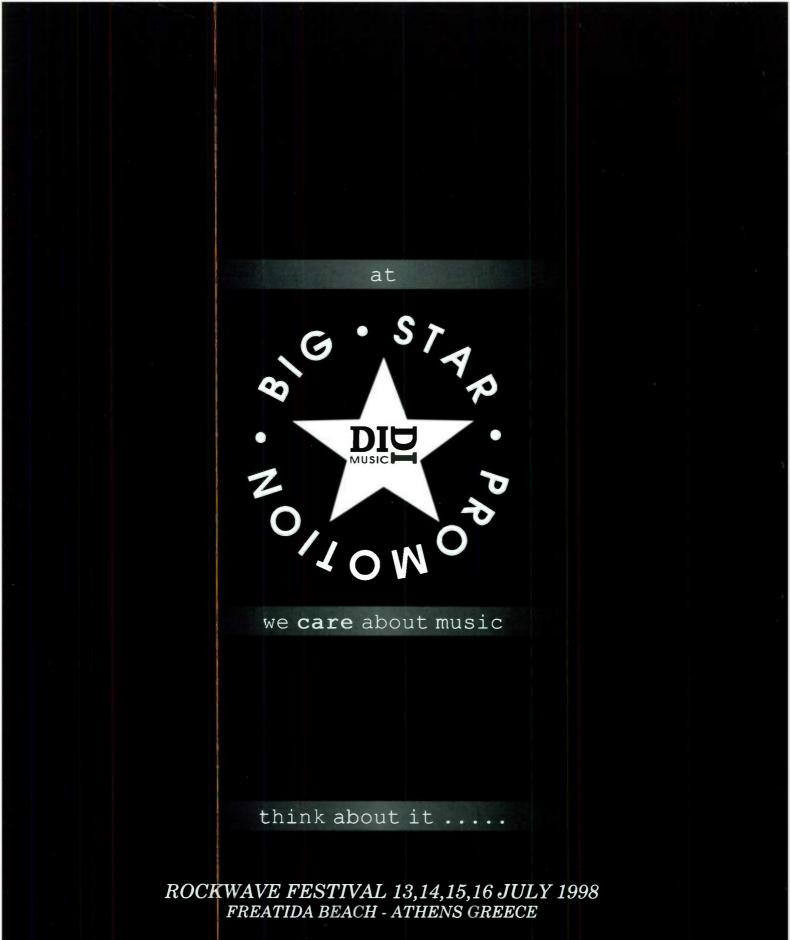

Panel members include managers Adrian Boss, Colin Lester (Wildlife), agents Geoff Meall (The Agency), Paul Taylor (Asgard), record company representatives Rick Lennox (Polydor), David Wibberly (V2) and Simon Harris (EMI), TV booker Andy Holland (Videotech) and plugger Nicky Sussex (Appearing). This meeting will start at 2 p.m., with a band showcase in the evening.

• NIGEL HASSLER AT PRIMARY Talent is finalising the details of "Lilith Fair's" European tour. As the U.K. agent for Sarah McLachlan, Hassler is working with promoters to put together a "Lilith Fair" package that will work across Europe.

The festival will start touring over here in September and because of the season, it will probably be an indoor event. Hassler said he is currently talking to promoters about potential venues. He also added that the bill will try to include one or two national acts per show in each country. Details will be announced in the next few weeks.

promotions team are still confirming headliners. The festival was due to go on sale March 4, but will now be postponed until the second week in March.

A report in last week's NME announced that The Verve will appear with The Charlatans and Texas as co-headliners. However, a spokesperson for SJM, one of the four joint promoters, said that The Verve were just one band on a long list of artists who have been approached but not yet confirmed.

• JOHN GIDDINGS AT SOLO HAS confirmed the first leg of this year's G3 European tour. The line up will feature Joe Satriani, Michael Schenker Group and former Scorpions guitarist Uli Jon Roth.

The tour starts in Dublin at the Point on May 14 and at the moment, the dates run through to May 26, but further shows will be added, said Giddings. He said it is a very unique performance niche, often attracting audiences who might not ordinarily go to concerts but who love seeing guitar heroes do their thing.

• The Lighthouse Family has added more dates to their arena tour of the UK which starts in May. Additional shows have been added in Plymouth, Wembley Arena, NEC Birmingham, and NYNEX Arena, Manchester. Dates in Europe are also selling well and plans for the band to tour Brazil next month are due to be confirmed.

• PLANS FOR THE CONTROVERSIAL Millennium Dome are being released daily it seems. The Dome will provide London with a new venue for the year 2000, but it's not yet clear how live music will fit into the entertainment schedule.

Plans so far have revealed details of a multimedia playground and there are also plans to add a 6,000capacity "baby dome" designed specifically for concerts. But beyond this, there is little news of a major concert agenda for the Dome. However, Peter Gabriel will work on the opening show and he has been commissioned to write music especially for the event.

Other familiar rock'n'roll names working on plans for the Dome include lighting designer Patrick Woodroffe, set designer Mark  Fisher and Roy Morley, formerly a production manager with MCP.

• A WARRANT HAS BEEN ISSUED for the arrest of Mark Morrison after he jumped bail for the seventh time in two months. The singer was due to appear in court in Leicester to be sentenced for sending an impostor to carry out his Community Service for an earlier offence. But he didn't turn up and the court was told that he was in Barbados for "drug rehabilitation".

The judge issued a warrant without bail. Morrison has had a string of court appearances over the last year, concerning charges of possessing an offensive weapon, driving offenses and violent disorder. The next step will be tracking down Morrisson in order to arrest him.

Germany: POPKOMM WILL

celebrate its 10th anniversary this year with the launch of six "premium shows" and additional focus on the live agenda of the conference. The shows will carry special themes relating to the 10-year history of Germany's largest music fair. Although the overall number of shows during the conference will be reduced, there will be a more concentrated focus on newer, emerging bands.

Popkomm's concert booker, Manfred Tari, said, "There are always a couple of shows which seem to generate loads of interest naturally, so with the premium shows, we are just putting the spotlight on the gigs we think will create that kind of buzz."

France: ALAIN LAHANA SAID THAT he really had to fight to get his extra Spice Girls shows but it seems they were worth fighting for. The Marseilles show sold out all 7,500 tickets in one day and the two additional Paris shows sold out within a couple of weeks.

Another good earner for Canal Productions is the Rolling Stones who are also competing for record ticket sales. The first day on sale saw the Stones sell 12,000 tickets which is 30 percent higher than any previous on-sale days.

• THE PRINTEMPS DE BOURGES

(April 14-19) is the first major festival on the calendar and this year it could be an indicator of how other festival bills will work out. Major acts are saving themselves for the summer or outpricing themselves and Bourges booker Fernando Ladeiro said the line-up will feature few big international names this year. He said this is not a failing, but a reflection of what is happening in the market.

"Our philosophy has always been to be a large shop window of what is going on in the music scene in France," Ladeiro told POLLSTAR. "At the moment, rap and techno are stronger and rock is weaker. We do have a lot of international acts, but mostly very new bands such as Mogwai and Space... we have always promoted the stars of tomorrow — U2 played in 1984. And now the public also comes for the festival itself." Full details of the festival will be announced the second week in March.

pattern seen around Europe. Both shows will be playing at the 11,000capacity Ahoy in Rotterdam.

"Lord of the Dance" comes up first in May. Two shows were initially put on sale and by the end of the first day, an additional two had been added. Meanwhile, "Riverdance" will be at the Ahoy for 11 shows in September.

• THE AMSTERDAM DANCE EVENT has been set for October 22-24 this year. The conference is moving to a bigger location, the Felix Meritis, which will suit plans to expand the event, now in its third year. Last year, over 700 people involved in the dance industry attended.

Austria: A NEW MUSIC EXHIBITION has been added to the annual conference tour circuit in Vienna. Euromusic Vienna will take place September 9-13 and is setting itself up as a showcase for products and services both from the domestic market and for international companies.

Located in the centre of the continent, there is potential for the exhibition to attract interest both from the neighbouring German-speaking countries and the Eastern European territories. There will be the usual programme of seminars, workshops and live gigs running parallel to the exhibition.

Euromusic Vienna is being organised by Vienna Fairs and will run concurrently with Austria's largest consumer electronics and home exhibitions. Andrea Egger, part of the organising team, said Austria has not had a significant music industry trade fair until now and the initial response to the event has been very positive so far.

Eastern Europe: THE PAGE / Plant tour of Eastern Europe kicked off in Zagreb. The duo have got together to promote their first new joint album in 20 years. Walking into Clarksdale is out in April and the tour started in the Croatian capital on February 21.

The Multimedia Organisation is promoting five shows in Hungary, Czech Republic, Poland and Bulgaria and is happy to report that it's the first sold-out tour in a very long time.

Other veteran rocker tours coming up in these territories include Judas Priest and Yes.

ASIAN NEWS

Reported by Winnie Chung 852.9020.0873 Fax 852.2911.0402 E-mail: winnie@pollstar.com

• THE CURRENT ASIAN MONETARY woes are causing a major side-effect ir the region's new efforts to combat recorded music piracy. With the exchange rates falling more than 30 percent in most countries in the region, music pirates have stepped into a booming market. Sales of copyr ght music are estimated to have dropped from 20 to 50 percent but sales of pirated goods have shot sky-high.

Officials also blame the huge overcapacity in compact disc manufacturing for their woes. With original compact discs costing US$16 in Hong Kong (up from a previous $13) -- and slightly higher in other Asian countries — lots of music lovers are being sorely tempted by the pirated Top 10 albums such as the "Titanic" soundtrack and Celine Dion records which are going for as little as $4.

In Thailand, an estimated 40 percent of the market comprises pirated goods while in Vietnam, officials estimate the figure to be as high as 99 percent, according to a recent report by Reuters.

Thailand's copyright woes do not end there. A Thai police squad was attacked by a mob during a raid on a Bangkok record store selling the offending goods recently. The team of eight policemen and investigators from the Economic Crimes Division and the Intellectual Property Rights Department had raided the store in Panthip Plaza following a complaint. While some officers were in the store, three officers outside were attacked by seven men. The owners of the store eventually turned themselves in to the police.

• IN VIETNAM, TOO, THE anti-piracy fight ran into a major hitch when confusion arose between the Vietnamese and US authorities over a bilateral agreement signed last year. Vietnam claims it ratified the bilateral agreement on December 26, within the allotted six months after the two sides signed the treaty last June, but says it is still waiting for word from the Americans. But US officials remain mystified and say it appears the two sides have a completely different understanding on how to implement the agreement.

• FATHER-TO-BE MICHAEL

Jackson was back in South Korea recently to attend the inauguration of President-elect Kim Dae-jung. Elizabeth Taylor, who had been expected to arrive with Jackson, cancelled due to health problems.

The singer also took the opportunity to continue talks with Korean company Ssang Bang Wool on a joint venture deal in a ski resort in North Cholla province. He also finalised details for a performance at a charity concert in Seoul in October to raise money for starving North Korean children. More than 50 celebrities have been invited (but not confirmed) to attend the concert, including Celine Dion, Boyz II Men, Whitney Houston and Luciano Pavarotti.

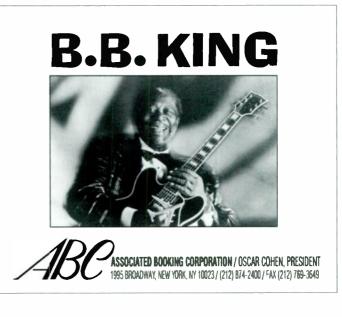

• ANOTHER BIG NAME APPEARING in the region recently was Oasis, which performed one show at the new wing of the Hong Kong Convention Center on February 22. The Gallagher brothers and their cohorts put up a rather tame performance despite their reputation.

Hong Kong was the only Asian stop on the band's itinerary. On the other hand, Australian group Savage Garden is also planning a tour of the region in the next two months but will apparently pass up Hong Kong.

MICHAEL JACKSON ARRIVES in Seoul February 22 to conduct a little business and attend the inauguration of President Kun Dae-jung.

• WORLD-RENOWNED PIANIST AND producer George Winston has embarked on an extensive Asian tour to support his forthcoming Windham Hill release, All The Seasons of George Winston. He is celebrating his 25th anniversary as a recording artist and has re-signed a long term deal with the label. Among his stops on the Asian itinerary will be Australia, Hong Kong (March 8 to 10), Faiwan (March 12 and 13), Japan (March 16 to April 13) and Korea (April 17 to 22). ***

Congrats to Tommy Castro for selling out his headline debut at the Fillmore in San Francisco. His current album, Can't Keep A Good Man Down, was named third best release by Dan Akroyd in the House of Blues Radio Hour's year-end top 10 countdown. Tommy was just re-signed, with his crack unit, for another season as the house band for "Comedy Showcase" which airs weekly on NBC. We still have some isolated avails in late May in the South. He will tour the Midwest and the East in July with general festival avails. Look for West Coast avails in August. 🔊 Coco Montoya is touring nationwide and has general avails. We are looking for West Coast dates for May, Midwest and East Coast offers for July and August. 🖘 After returning from Australia and Hong Kong, Carey Bell will be departing for Europe and Japan in April and May. The reigning "windy city harp master" (Chicago Tribune) will appear on the main stage of the Chicago Blues Festival in June. Carey has Midwest and East Coast avails in June and general festival avails the rest of the summer. 🖘 The Kinsey Report has re-signed with Alligator Records. Look for a new release in July. The band has general festival avails and plans to tour heavily behind the new album. < Australian slide guitar master Dave Hole will return to the U.S.A. in August and has general avails through Labor Day.

It's time for the 1998 edition of the Fat Possum Juke Joint Caravan. The edition features the primitive electric blues of T-Model Ford and his drummer Spam; Elmo Williams & Hezekiah Early, another hill country electric blues duo; and Haskil Adkins, the trailer-dwelling, one-man band from West Virginia's coal mining country. The package (minus Haskil) will be at the Chicago Blues Festival on June 6th. Dates for the complete package are available on either side of Chicago and also later in the festival season. ~ Maria Muldaur, in support of her new CD, tours from April until fall. 🗢 Congrats to Pinetop Perkins on his Grammy nominations. He is available with Steady Rollin' Bob Margolin throughout the summer. Terrance Simien will have new music out in time for the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival. 🔊 Shemekia Copeland has completed her debut CD for Alligator Records. Look for a May release and heavy touring afterwards.

We are proud to announce the signing of SKWZBXX (say Squeezebox). The band hails from Charleston, S.C., but breaks the typical "Carolinas" sound barrier with their seven-piece blend of rock, funk, punk and ska. The Blue Dogs tour through the Rockies and the West before hitting SXSW. Dash Rip Rock is inking a deal with PC Music and prepares for a late April release before hitting the road for a national tour in May. The Gibb Droll Band returns to the Rockies in March and returns East through the Midwest and Great Lakes states. Vallejo is heading into the studio to cut their sophomore release on T.V.T. Records. Look for them to debut new material at SXSW. We hope you have had the chance to speak with our new agent, Brad Broadrick. Brad was the student activities chairman at the Univ. of Mississippi. Brad heads up college, festivals and special event plays for our entire roster.

Mu330 played their 1,000th show February 15th. The band continues to tour non-stop through spring on the Ska Against Racism package and in June in Hawaii / Japan and possibly Australia. Their October release, Crab Rangoon, sold more than 14,000 copies. A greatest hits compilation was released this month and is available in Japan and at shows. Their video of "Tune Me Out" has received airplay on MTV and MuchMusic. MU are shooting another video of "Father Friendly" in March. They are looking for package ideas for August and September before they go back to Europe in October. W.C. Clark received a platinum album last month for the song "Cold Shot," which he co-wrote with Mark Kendrid. Alligator Records has taken the reigns of W.C.'s recording / promotion career and a new album is due out in May. He wishes to play festivals this summer. 🛹 Josh Smith & the Frost have released their third album, Two Damn Cold. With your help, the band might hit 300 shows in Josh's first year of touring since graduating from high school. Avails are in the Southeast in May, the East Coast and Midwest in June and July. Festival dates are still available. Baby Jason & the Spankers continue to tear up the road non-stop and will hit the West Coast in May. 🖘 The Grapes' original members have reformed, renamed themselves Shot! and are accepting offers in the Southeast. ~ The Robert Ealey Band is interested in offers throughout the Midwest and fly-in festivals and dates on the

GIGS BYTES

How do you prevent illegal copies of your product when digital technology enables every copy, whether it's struck from the master or from an umpteenth generation copy, to be identical to the original?

The software industry tried copy-protection schemes, inserting a bit of code in the master disks that wouldn't transfer when someone tried to copy the software to another floppy or hard drive. Now, the entertainment industry is trying its own form of copy protection. An encryption agreement has been announced by five leading computer and electronics manufacturers that, if agreed upon, could allow marketing of copy-safe music and movies over the Web by the end of this year.

The companies, including Sony (www.sony.com) and Intel (www.intel.com), said the proposed encryption system is designed for use with personal computers, digital or highdefinition television sets, digital VCRs, in-home cable boxes and digital video disc or DVD machines. Combining hardware and software, the proposed standard allows one home electronic device to share data with another as long as the proper codes are in place. The standard would not prevent someone from making a copy of a movie from a pay TV service, but without the proper codes, a person would not be able to strike numerous dupes from the original copy. Joining Intel and Sony in making the proposal were Matsushita, Toshiba and Hitachi.

Just how big is the current copyright problem, anyway? According to the International Intellectual Property Alliance, copyright piracy of books, movies, music and computer software cost U.S. companies an estimated $10.8 billion dollars in 1997.

▶ With all the news about encryption, copyright piracy and intellectual rights, it's easy to overlook another area of infringement — sheet music. And sheet music is big business. According to trade publication Music Trades, sheet music sales total an estimated $425 million dollars a year, and as you can guess, it's a bit easier to copy sheet music than it is to make a perfect copy of the latest Van Halen CD. So how do you market sheet music on the Web and prevent unauthorized copies at the same time?

Enter Sheet Music Direct

(www.sheetmusicdirect.com), a service offered by the Hal Leonard Corp. that was unveiled at last month's National Assoc. of Music Merchants (NAMM) convention in Los Angeles. According to the Los Angeles Times (www.latimes.com), Sheet Music Direct offers 500 songs from standards like "Auld Lang Syne" to "Naked" by the Goo Goo Dolls.

One of the biggest problems involved with launching the new site was preventing unauthorized copies being made from the sheet music available for download. Hal Leonard spent more than half a million dollars developing the proprietary software called MusicPage. The program allows the user to print a single copy of the song but does not let the user store a copy on a computer hard drive. Of course, nothing prevents someone from using a copy machine to make multiple copies of the printed sheet music, but you can do that with material purchased through traditional outlets as well.

Another problem was not to undercut those traditional outlets which tend to be small music stores. Stores with Web sites can link to Sheet Music Direct and stores with computers can download the sheet music, sell it to their customers, and collect a percentage of the sale.

Quincy Jones is the driving force behind a new Web site designed to bring the music of South Africa to the world. Qradio.net (www.gradio.net) offers the latest news on SAF artists and even sells their music online.

Qradio.net is also your link for live radio programming from the South African Broadcasting Corp. Currently on the site are Ukhozi FM, South Africa's largest station, and Radio Metro FM, an urban contemporary station. "Far beyond diamonds and gold, South Africa's greatest hidden resource is its music," said Jones. "It has long been my dream to bring the musical talent and culture of this nation to the rest of the world."

1997 AWARDS PARTY

ach year, POLLSTAR invites a different group of professionals representing a cross section of the international concert industry to make the nominations for these awards. The rules are very simple: Nominating committee members may not nominate themselves or any of their clients. This rule effectively removes the pressure of any personal interest or feeling of obligation. None of those making the nominations knew who else had been invited to participate.

Participation does not preclude members of the nominating committee or their clients from being nominated by other members. In order for a nomination to ultimately make the Concert Industry Awards ballot, it must receive several nominations from among the group of industry professionals making selections.

Ballots were mailed out to all POLLSTAR subscribers in early December and voting was completed prior to Christmas.

A very special thanks to the 111 members of this year's nominating committee.

Best New Artist Tour

ERYKAH BADU

ER MUSIC IS A TOTALLY unique blend of jazz, blues and soul from decades ago combined with the hip-hop sounds of today. Erykah Badu's freshman effort, Baduizm, has taken off like a rocket. And the huge demand for Badu's live performance prompted the singer to release a live album only a short time after releasing Baduizm.

Badu played a variety of clubs and small theatres on her 1997 tour and with the help of agent Cara Lewis and the folks at the William Morris Agency, she sold out nearly all of them.

After dropping out of Grambling State University, Badu became the first artist to sign with Kedar Massenburg's new Kedar Entertainment label. Massenburg first heard Badu perform as the opening act for D'Angelo and right away, he knew she was something special. And it wasn't long before other people realized it too.

Also nominated for Best New Artist Tour were Beth Orton, Jonny Lang, matchbox 20, Meredith Brooks, and Third Eye Blind.

Club Tour Of The Year

IONA APPLE'S CAREER really took off in 1997. Her hugely successful tour early in the year was a nightclub talent buyer's dream. But after a round of dates as part of the "Lilith Fair" tour, Apple's skyrocketing popularity allowed her to step up to theatres where she did equally as well.

Apple's debut album, Tidal, helped propel the young singer/ songwriter from unknown to overnight success. But it is her dynamic voice on stage that really captures the essence of this artist.

Booked by Monterey Peninsula Artists, Apple's 1997 touring season saw her play packed venues ranging in size from 250- to 3,200capacity. Her unique style and polished songwriting skills bode well for the future of this talented artist.

Also nominated for Club Tour Of The Year were Ben Harper, matchbox 20, Squirrel Nut Zippers, and The Verve.

turntables and a microphone, along with an award for Small Hall Tour Of The Year. Beck's 1996 sophomore DGC release, Odelay, catapulted this Los Angeles-born musician to otherworldly realms of stardom and success. Beck's creative combination of musical styles and sounds packed audiences in venues ranging from 1,000- to 7,000-capacity across the country.

On his most recent tour booked by ARTISTdirect, Beck provided concert-goers a chance to experience a variety of other musical influences from such supporting acts as Sneaker Pimps, Pavement, and Atari Teenage Riot. The two-time Grammy winning artist has received acclaim from critics and fans alike. And best of all, Beck can deliver the goods in front of a live audience and is one of the handful of newer artists who appears to have real longterm career potential.

Also nominated in this highly competitive category were David Bowie, Jane's Addiction, John Fogerty, Radiohead, and Sarah McLachlan.

1997 AWARD WINNERS

Country Tour Of The Year

GARTH BROOKS

HERE ARE TOURING artists — and then, it seems, there is Garth.

Garth Brooks has done what very few artists in the music industry can or will do; he is able to draw large audiences, put on entertaining shows and maintain ticket prices under $20.

With the support of the William Morris Agency, the Brooks tourmachine in 1997 rolled through 28 cities from coast-to-coast, yet performed a total of 110 shows. Despite his low ticket prices, Brooks had the 6th highest grossing tour of 1997. He was able to meet the demands for his shows by performing several nights in a row at the same venue and drawing sellout crowds each time. His multitude of shows even undermined the effects of scalpers.

The country superstar could easily make much more money by playing fewer shows in the larger venues available in major markets. Instead, Brooks went into places like Sioux Falls, S.D., and played six shows in an 8,000capacity arena. In major markets like Chicago, he did as many as eight arena shows to satisfy the demand for tickets. There's no doubt the concert industry could use a few more Garths.

Also nominated in this category were Alan Jackson and the Reba McEntire / Brooks & Dunn package.

Most Creative Tour Package Major Tour Of The Year

HAT STARTED OUT AS A four-city mini tour in 1996 turned into the hottest touring festival of the 1997 summer season. The "Lilith Fair" tour swept through the U.S. and Canada delivering the music of both established and up-and-coming female artists. It also highlighted and raised funds for women's issues in each local community as it strolled through the landscape.

Largely the vision of Sarah McLachlan, "Lilith Fair" makes a statement about the evolution of women in popular music. "It doesn't exclude men, it simply celebrates women," McLachlan said. "Three years ago, promoters were really scared to put two women on the same bill. We've proved it can be done. This tour is a huge step in the right direction for women's rights, but it isn't a soapbox for extremist feminism."

With a rotating cast of artists which included Paula Cole, Fiona Apple, Mary Chapin Carpenter, The Cardigans, Emmylou Harris, Shawn Colvin, Lisa Loeb, Sheryl Crow, Indigo Girls, Jewel, Joan Osborne, Meredith Brooks, Suzanne Vega, Tracy Chapman and, of course, McLachlan on the bill, "Lilith Fair" brought together the most impressive array of female artists ever presented in one package.

The "Lilith Fair" tour also provided lesser-known acts such as Wild Colonials, Beth Orton, Alana Davis, Jill Sobule, Alisha's Attic, Dar Williams, Kinnie Starr, Lauren Hoffman, Leah Andreone, Lori Carson and Kelly Willis an opportunity to strut their stuff in front of large audiences that would otherwise not be exposed to their music. "The possibility that I could give emerging artists a real platform is a thrill to me," McLachlan said.

"Lilith Fair" was the top-grossing festival tour of 1997 and ranked 16th among the year's Top 100 Tours. An average of 16,893 tickets were sold in each of the tour's 36 cities for an average gross of $455,556.

Helping make McLachlan's vision a reality were agent Marty Diamond and his Little Big Man Booking, and manager Terry McBride of Nettwerk Management. Tour director Dan Fraser was the person responsible for making the logistics work which was no small feat for a traveling show with a continuously changing cast of characters.

Also nominated for Major Tour Of The Year were Fleetwood Mac, Garth Brooks, Rolling Stones, and U2. Nominations for Most Creative Tour Package were Counting Crows / Wallflowers, "Ozzfest," and "Warped Tour."

Music Festival Of The Year

NEW ORLEANS JAZZ & HERITAGE FESTIVAL

HE NEW ORLEANS JAZZ & Heritage Festival started out in 1970 with some 300 musicians performing for a crowd half that size. There were four stages, a handful of craft and food booths and a gospel tent. City officials just wanted to attract tourists during the off season between Mardi Gras and summer.

Today, the festival has developed into a world-renowned event spanning 10 days and welcoming more than 450,000 spectators. Around 4,000 musicians representing a wide range of musical influences play on 12 different stages. Last year, artists like Fats Domino, Clarence "Gatemouth" Brown, and Herbie Hancock were joined by more contemporary acts like Blues Traveler and Better Than Ezra. Aside from music, the festival gives visitors a chance to sample Cajun, Creole,

Caribbean and African foods and also features crafts from many different cultures. Producers

George Wein and Quint Davis have to be given credit for helping develop the festival to its current status as a world class attraction. The festival is now an incorporated, non-profit organization that generates funds for community grants and programs.

Most Creative Stage Production ROLLING STONES

or only did the Stones have the top grossing tour of 1997, they also had one of the largest stage setups ever. Employing a crew of 270 and using 46 trucks and 10 buses, the Stones' production was almost as big as their music.

The stage for the "Bridges To Babylon" tour was designed by Mark Fisher, who also did the sets for "Steel Wheels" and "Voodoo Lounge.""[The stage design] was the sort of imagery of the divine power of kings — a vision of wealth, splendor, richness and incredible opulence, using over the top decoration," Fisher said.

The centerpiece of the $4 million production was a 15-ton telescoping bridge which extended from the stage into the middle of the audience every night. The lighting was designed by Patrick Woodroffe and utilized about 800 individual units including Vari-Lites and Icons. Robbie McGrath was the sound engineer for the exceptional ElectroVoice X-Array PA system. The stage set also included the largest portable Sony JumboTron screen ever lugged on tour. It was supplied by BCC Video.

Also nominated were the stage productions for Metallica and U2.

Nightclub Venue Of The Year

ETH HURWITZ AND partner Rich Heinecke promoted their first show at this Washington, D.C., club in 1981. In 1986, they bought the 9:30 and turned it into a must-play venue for new acts, including thenunknowns R.E.M., Nirvana, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Smashing Pumpkins, and Bush.

Ten years later, the club owners shuttered their original 300-capacity room to move on to a new state-of-the-art building. They bought and completely gutted the old WUST Radio Music Hall to create an improved 9:30 Club while preserving the venue's longstanding character of being at the forefront of new artist development.

In 1997, the 1,200-capacity club reported a whopping 215 shows with a slew of sellouts for up-andcomers including Squirrel Nut Zippers, Erykah Badu, Chumbawamba, Sneaker Pimps, matchbox 20, Third Eye Blind, Sugar Ray and Insane Clown Posse, to name a few. The club also made room in its busy schedule to fit in the likes of The Artist (fka Prince) and Bob Dylan.

Also nominated in this category were Billy Bob's Texas, The Fillmore, House of Blues Chicago, House of Blues New Orleans and Metro in Chicago.

1997 AWARD WINNERS

Theatre Of The Year

RADIO CITY MUSIC HALL

HE HISTORIC RADIO CITY Music Hall in New York's Rockefeller Center got a new lease on life in 1997. The hall's operator, Radio City Productions, was bought by Cablevision through its Madison Square Garden subsidiary. Through that acquisition, RCP was awarded a 25-year lease for the venue and plans for a $25 million restoration are underway. The 5,901-capacity hall has long been celebrated as an architectural triumph. The Art Deco venue was designed and built on a grand scale, from the 24-karat gold leaf of the grand foyer ceiling to the ingenious dynamics of the stage, which is considered by technical experts to be the most perfectly equipped in the world.

The hall was the largest indoor theatre ever built when it first opened in 1932. Since then, more than 300 million people have enjoyed world-class shows, concerts and events at the venue. Many artists still don't feel they have really "made it" until they have played Radio City. Acts that packed the house in 1997 included Kenny G, Toni Braxton, Chris Rock, Erasure, Maxwell and "Lord Of The Dance."

Also nominated in this category were the Beacon Theatre, St. Louis' Fabulous Fox Theatre, Atlanta's Fox Theatre, Detroit's Fox Theatre, Universal Amphitheatre, and the Oakdale Theatre.

Best New Major Concert Venue

N May 7th, New York City's newly renovated Hammerstein Ballroom opened to rave reviews. For venues dedicated to popular music, it is the largest and most expensively refurbished new building to open in the Big Apple in many years.

Housed in The Manhattan Center, Oscar Hammerstein built the venue in 1906 as The Manhattan Opera House. It went through stretches as a dance hall in the '20s and '30s and hosted some rock shows in the late '60s.

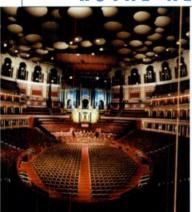

Today's Hammerstein Ballroom takes up the first six-and-a-half floors of The Manhattan Center and boasts a dome ceiling more than 80 feet above ground. It features three elaborate balconies — the first with free-standing seats and the second and third with permanent seating. The venue's current capacity is 3,750, but that will jump to 4,250 when the third balcony, still under construction, is opened.

The wide variety of artists who witnessed the charm of the Hammerstein in its opening months included Chemical Brothers, John Fogerty, RuPaul, George Benson, Radiohead, Nanci Griffith, Wyclef Jean, Jane's Addiction and Levon Helm.

The other nominees were CoreStates Center, Molson Centre and Nashville Arena.

International Venue Of The Year

ROYAL ALBERT HALL

ONDON'S PRESTIGIOUS Royal Albert Hall, dubbed "The Nation's Village Hall" since 1871, prevails in this category for the fourth year in a row. The venue boasts an impressive history, only to be matched by its bright future.

Royal Albert Hall was the brain child of Albert, Prince Consort, husband of Queen Victoria. Its distinctive architecture is a lasting memorial to a remarkable era — a celebration of Victorian vision and creativity as well as technical brilliance.

A founding ambition of the hall was to be "the finest in Europe for seeing, hearing and convenience." Today, that commitment is being adhered to with a £60 million redevelopment underway. The refurbishment will include restoration of the auditorium and gallery, upgrading of backstage facilities, and new public bars and lifts.

World Radio History

The Excent Hotavire . MARCH 2, 1998

The 5,205-capacity multipurpose entertainment venue would make its founders proud as it serves as an exquisite cultural center for hosting the best in pop, rock, jazz and classical music as well as sports and family entertainment performances.

Also nominated for International Venue Of The Year were Ahoy' Rotterdam, Ancienne Belgique, Arena Oberhausen, Palais Omnisports Bercy, Shepherd's Bush Empire, and Wembley Arena.

Best Small Outdoor Concert Venue

RED ROCKS AMPHITHEATRE

HE FOLKS AT DENVER'S Red Rocks have repeatedly offered to retire from this competition. After all, it's downright tough for other venues to compete with such a marvel of Mother Nature, and this is the eighth time the amphitheatre has snagged the prize.

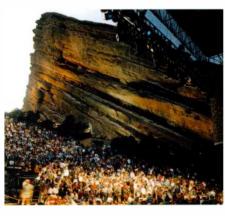

In 1911, Mary Garden, the prima donna, was invited to sing at Red Rocks to prove it was a naturally, acoustically perfect amphitheatre. After singing "Ave Maria" and "Annie Laurie" on a makeshift stage, Garden predicted that thousands would come to hear music at Red Rocks. Boy, was that an understatement.

Today, the 9,450-capacity venue is celebrated not only for its dramatic natural architecture, but for its distinguished musical and cultural events as well. Each summer, 20 to 30 performances take place as spectators nestle themselves between two, 400-foot high red sandstone formations, with a 30-mile panorama of hued plains as backdrop.

Artists who graced the Red Rocks stage for sellouts in 1997 include No Doubt, Dave Matthews Band, ZZ Top, The Allman Brothers Band and 311.

Others venues nominated in this category were Chastain Park

Amphitheatre, Greek Theatre in Los Angeles, and the Wolf Trap Filene Center.

Best Large Outdoor Concert Venue

Carved in the high basalt cliffs overlooking the Columbia River gorge, the lawn-covered terraces of The Gorge amphitheatre make it the hottest destination for concert enthusiasts in the Pacific Northwest. And even though the venue is located several hours from any major market, its unique surroundings prompt hordes of fans to make the drive to the tiny town of George in the center of the state of Washington.

Not only does the venue accommodate patrons with such things as camping facilities and a food plaza, but Mother Nature puts her two cents in as well, providing lovely weather to the tune of more than 310 days of sunshine per year.

Acts that packed The Gorge for an unforgettable concert experience in 1997 included Rush, ZZ Top, Dave Matthews Band, Phish, and "Lilith Fair."

The other nominees in this category were Deer Creek Music Center, Great Woods Center, Pine Knob Music Theatre and Shoreline Amphitheatre.

Arena Of The Year MADISON SQUARE GARDEN

HALK THIS UP AS THE fifth year in a row the world-renowned Madison Square Garden has been honored as Arena Of The Year.

There was a lot of excitement for the New York City landmark in 1997 as it was surrounded by ownership changes and new deals. Early in the year, Hilton Hotels Corp. launched a hostile bid for MSG's half owner, ITT Corp. To stave off that takeover, ITT sold 38.5 percent of its stake in the venue to its partner, Cablevision Systems. That raised Cablevision's share in the venue to 88.5 percent. As part of that deal, the NBC network in turn acquired a 25 percent stake in MSG.

During the ownership hubbub, MSG made a deal to operate the Hartford Civic Center and was awarded a 25-year lease for Radio City Music Hall.

All the while, the 20,000-seat arena kept busy hosting several of the year's largest grossing concerts including Metallica, Phil

Collins, Juan Gabriel, Fleetwood Mac, Puff Daddy and Phish.

Also nominated for Arena Of The Year were America West

Arena, Arrowhead Pond of Anaheim, CoreStates Center, Nashville Arena, Palace Of Auburn Hills, and Rose Garden Arena.

1997 AWARD WINNERS

International Booking Agency Of The Year

THE AGENCY GROUP

HE AGENCY GROUP LTD. was named International Booking Agency Of The Year for the third consecutive year. The prestigious U.K.-based agency, which also has offices in New York City and Toronto, was formed by Neil Warnock in 1980 when he bought the Bron Agency and gave it a new name.

Warnock had worked at Bron since 1973, after serving as director of the contemporary booking department at NEMS Enterprises. Acts that Warnock represented in those early days — including Pink Floyd — remain with him today at The Agency Group.

While the company represents many classic rock acts, it stays current by signing new artists. Contemporary acts on The Agency Group roster include Cornershop, Foo Fighters, Space, Jewel and Mark Eitzel. Joining Warnock in booking these acts are agents Paul Buck, Derek Kemp, Geoff Meall, Nick Shepherd and Russell Warby. The other agencies nominated were Asgard, Fair Warning-Wasted Talent, ITB, Primary Talent International and Solo Agency.

Booking Agency Of The Year MONTEREY PENINSULA ARTISTS

ONTEREY Peninsula Artists has been acknowledged as Booking Agency Of The Year for the fourth sequential year, proving once again that you don't have to be based in New York or Los Angeles to be a major force in the concert business.

Some say Monterey's success comes from the balance of established acts and great new talent. Others insist it must be the clean, coastal air. But the truth of the matter is Monterey wouldn't be the company it is today without its hard working, innovative team comprised of Fred Bohlander, Kevin Daly, Paul Goldman, Chip Hooper, Jonathan Levine, Frank Riley and Dan Weiner.

In 1997, Monterey booked six of the top 50 concert tours — Aerosmith, Phish, Dave Matthews Band, Live, Indigo Girls, and Yanni. The agency also books a slew of other hard working artists. Fiona Apple, Blues Traveler, Portishead, k.d. lang, Paula Cole, Son Volt, Lyle Lovett and Shawn Colvin are just a few of the artists on the extensive Monterey roster. And then there is the agency's affiliated companies — Monterey International in Chicago and Monterey Artists in Nashville.

In a situation where the relationship between agents and talent buyers is usually adversarial, Monterey has created a unique formula for mutual success that has allowed the company and its clients to prosper without compromising their integrity.

Also nominated were APA, The Agency Group, CAA, ICM and William Morris Agency.

Support Service Company Of The Year

ROCK-IT CARGO

HE GLOBE IS SHRINKING. Worldwide tours are expanding. It's difficult to imagine how the concert industry would survive without the likes of Rock-It Cargo.

With more than 20 years of experience and offices around the world, they offer special expertise in what Rock-It calls "boomerang" freight. Since their goods almost always travel on a round-trip ticket, they deliver it, break it down, pack it up and ship it on to the next destination.

The company is known for its hands-on service and quick turnaround time. The staff is always prepared to deal with the one constant in the concert business: the unexpected. That may be why Rock-It has been honored in this category two years in a row. Under the guidance of founder Dave Bernstein, Rock-It has become a massive operation handling everything from international shipping paperwork to loading up freight containers. No wonder so many of the world's biggest acts trust their tours to Rock-It.

Also nominated for Support Service Company Of The Year were Bandit Lites, Clair Bros. Audio, Light & Sound Design, Obie Company and Upstaging.

1997 Award Winners

JAKE BERRY

Road Warrior Of The Year

ELCOME TO THE surrealistic world of Jake Berry. Long before the Rolling Stones tour started last September, Jake was deep into the project, helping formulate the budgets and working on the initial design process. He is responsible for the logistics of the entire "Bridges to Babylon" production and is overseeing it on the road for the entire tour.

So, what does Jake do on his off days? He's in a different universe, handling the day-to-day production of the "Barney's Big Surprise" tour. When he's got a break from "Sympathy for the Devil," he's hearing "I love you, you love me."

Looking at Jake's resume, it's obvious that he's used to weird juxtapositions. He was the production manager on the Stones' "Voodoo Lounge" tour, the advance site coordinator on Madonna's "Girlie Show" tour, and has also had Metallica, AC/DC and Motley Crue as repeat customers.

Jake has spent a good deal of the last couple of years as production manager for family shows including the Disney Fair project and "Nutcracker On Ice."

In other words, they don't call him a road warrior for nothin'.

Also nominated in this category were Dan Braun, Dan Fraser, Keith Keller, D.C. Parmet and Richard "Paco" Zimmer.

Nightclub Talent Buyer Of The Year

RIC HERZ HAS WORKED FOR Metropolitan Entertainment Group since April 1995. He joined the promotion side of the concert business after stints in the agency business at ITG and Entourage Talent.

Working as an agent simply wasn't for Herz. He had started in the business promoting shows while in college at Northwestern and then worked for Jam for about six months.

After relocating to New York City and working as an agent, he realized he hadn't gotten his full dosage of promoting; he always wanted to go back to it and now that he has, he's a lot happier.

Herz is responsible for bringing talent into a myriad of East Coast venues including the new Hammerstein Ballroom. He also books all of Metropolitan's clubs in Buffalo, Rochester, Albany, New Jersey and Vermont.

Herz is also a dedicated father to a purebred mutt named Goldie, who goes to work with him at Metropolitan every day.

Also nominated were Michael Bailey, Rich Levy, Nick Miller, Kevin Morrow, Gary Osier, Annie O'Toole and Don Strasburg.

Independent Promoter Of The Year

SETH HURWITZ

SETH HURWITZ HAS BEEN called the ultimate street promoter. He's been a life-long fan of cutting edge music and, along with his partner Rich Heinecke, he's been able to take acts from the club level to arena stages in his market.

Hurwitz, the man behind the concert promotion company

I.M.P. and the 9:30 Club in Washington D.C., worked with acts like R.E.M. and Pearl Jam when they were just starting out. Building close alliances with those early alternative acts has provided him the opportunity to continue booking acts of that caliber in his market.

In addition to the 9:30 Club, Hurwitz books shows into other facilities in the D.C. market, ranging from Lisner Auditorium to the USAir Arena.

He has very strong opinions and is never afraid to speak his mind. Those traits, coupled with a caustic sense of humor, has earned Hurwitz a reputation as one of the industry's most outrageous — and successful — promoters.

Also nominated were Bill Bass, Danny Eaton, Larry Frank, Doug Kauffman, Julie Lokin and Sue McLean.

1997 AWARD WINNERS

Third Coast Agent Of The Year

BUCK WILLIAMS

Buck INSISTS HE DIDN'T DO anything special last year to earn this award. He wasn't even paying attention to the awards ceremony when his name was announced. "I was out in the lobby talking to Alex Hodges and Michael Chugg when they called my name," he said.

Since he's not in the country music business, Buck never figured he had a chance at this award, which is for Nashvillebased agents. At first, he refused to believe he had won and had to be literally dragged back into the theatre to accept. And when he got on stage, he was speechless.

"We keep the doors open and we keep the acts happy," he said. "The only thing I've done that's special is hire good people." Buck is very hands-on at the agency he started in 1992, overseeing the day-to-day operations and looking at every offer that comes in.

Last year, he was excited to have Chuck Leavell out on the Rolling Stones tour and now, he's looking forward to this summer's Widespread Panic package and the 1999 R.E.M. tour. "I'm fortunate to work with a bunch of cool acts on the cusp of doing something, and that keeps me excited and young," he said.

Also nominated in this category were Bobby Cudd, Rod Essig, John Huie, Keith Miller, Darin Murphy and James Yelich.

Facility Executive Of The Year

s VICE PRESIDENT OF facility sales and marketing at the Rose Quarter in Portland, Ore., Jim McCue stays very busy overseeing the multitude of components that make up this complex.

McCue makes sure things run smoothly at the Rose Quarter's state-of-the-art, 21,000-seat Rose Garden arena and the recently refurbished 12,000-seat Memorial Coliseum. The 38-acre complex also features the 4,000-capacity outdoor Rose Quarter Commons.

The facility complex was developed as an entertainment district that would attract patrons whether or not they were attending an event at one of the buildings. That concept is one of the things that inspired McCue to join the Rose Quarter team.

After only two years in operation, the facility and its key exec have proven that they are a force to be reckoned with. In fact, the Rose Garden was one of the few indoor arenas the Rolling Stones chose for their "Bridges to Babylon" tour.

Also nominated were Alan DeZon, Barry Geisler, Brad Mayne, Roger Newton, and Russ Simons.

Artist Development Executive Of The Year

LARRY WEINTRAUB

ARRY WEINTRAUB GREW UP in California going to big rock shows. Today, as VP of A&R at A&M Records, Larry still spends plenty of time doing what he enjoys the most — going to rock concerts.

While in college at UC San Diego, Larry managed bands, booked concerts and was an assistant manager at a record store. By his second year at UCSD, he was running the concert division and was music director at the college radio station. Since graduating from college, Larry has specialized in the live side of the business because he always wanted to be the one wearing the laminates.

He landed a "real" job in the music business literally right out of college as an assistant at A&M. With a lot of hard work, he was promoted to VP of artist development and artist relations. Although his duties have been expanded, Larry is still totally dedicated to developing acts through extensive road work. It is that belief in the live music business that undoubtedly lead the concert industry to honor his efforts.

Also nominated in this category were Larry Butler, Steve Davis, Liana Huth, Michael Pontecorvo, and Steve Rennie.

997 Award Winners

Personal Manager Of The Year

TERRY MCBRIDE

ERRY HAS BEEN invaluable in the development, implementation and continued growth of "Lilith Fair" and that labor of love brought him many hard-earned accolades last year. It's difficult to believe that he has had time to do anything else, but he remains deeply involved in Nettwerk Productions' family of companies. He founded Nettwerk in 1984 and the name became synonymous with industrial music and bands like Skinny Puppy. Nettwerk has grown to encompass Nettwerk Management, Publishing, Soundtracks and Multi-media, and employs more than 50 people in its Vancouver, New York and London offices. Terry himself manages not only Sarah McLachlan but Barenaked Ladies, Moist, the Devlins and Tara MacLean. As part owner in "Lilith Fair," Terry keeps the festival true to Sarah's vision and spirit while making business decisions that will allow it to grow and flourish in the future.

Terry was obviously thrilled when "Lilith Fair" won the Major Tour Of The Year and Most Creative Tour Package awards but he was absolutely stunned to win an award himself. He was probably the only one who was surprised.

Rene Angelil, Coran Capshaw, Roger Davies, Howard Kaufman, John Paluska and John Silva were also nominees for Personal Manager Of The Year.

International Promoter Of The Year HARVEY GOLDSMITH

F YOU KNOW ANYTHING about the international concert business, you know about Harvey Goldsmith. Harvey refuses to stay in one place or stick to one thing. His talent for innovation and thinking big has defined his career of 30-plus years.

Early on, Harvey created events like the Crystal Palace Garden Parties and staged the 14-hour Technicolour Dream. He went on to do the Concerts for Kampuchea and the London half of the legendary Live Aid show. By that time, it was obvious Harvey had a knack for fundraising on an epic scale. He is now inextricably linked with the Prince's Trust, which helps underprivileged youth, and is actively involved in a multitude of charities and organizations.

Of course, Harvey is a promoter, which means he is constantly in search of new forms of entertainment and new revenue streams. Recently, he has struck gold with "Lord of the Dance," Cirque du Soleil, and touring opera productions.

Harvey has long been both an outspoken critic and defender of the concert business and as he continues to broaden the scope of his operations, he will undoubtedly influence the way the industry develops well into the next century.

The other nominees in this category were Michael Chugg, Jules Frutos, Ossy Hoppe, Barrie Marshall, Tim Parsons, Scumeck Sabottka and Seijiro Udo.

Talent Buyer Of The Year

MELISSA MILLER

ELISSA STARTED HER acceptance speech by praising her teammates at Universal for their hard work and integrity. This is the second time Melissa has won this award and she was also named Nightclub Talent Buyer Of The Year in 1993. On each occasion, she has been eager to share the honor with the people she works with. As Universal Concerts' VP of talent acquisitions, Melissa plays an important part in the continuing success of the Universal Amphitheatre which last year saw sold-out shows by Celine Dion, Beck, Alan Jackson and LeAnn Rimes, Sarah McLachlan, Jane's Addiction, Oasis and others. The Starplex, Blossom and Lakewood Amphitheatres also benefit from Melissa's talent buying skills. Melissa got into the business as the 9:30 Club's office manager in 1987 and was quickly promoted to the GM position there. She had a go at the agency side of the industry working at Triad Artists for six months, but she returned to talent buying, joining Delsener/Slater in 1991. Since 1995, Melissa has worked on making the Universal Amphitheatre a Southern California landmark and has made quite a name for herself in the process.

Also nominated in this category were Ali Harnell, Dave Marsden, Ken Scher, Lee Smith and Anna Zappala.

1997 AWARD WINNERS

Bill Graham Award for Promoter Of The Year

WILSON HOWARD

PIOMOTING CONCERTS IS not just Wilson's job, it's become a way of life. From his early days of providing talent to clubs and fraternities while rooming with ICM agent Terry Rhodes, to competing against and co-promoting with Jack Boyle, to his current 12-year run with Cellar Door, most of his life has been devoted to bringing entertainment to the public.

Wilson says the Promoter Of The Year award is the ultimate honor of his career and he is not about to take all the credit. "Every person every step of the way is important to make every show a great show — from the ticket-takers and sellers to security, to the building managers, to the agents, managers and bands — everyone is important."

Based in the low-key town of Columbia, S.C., Wilson has been able to compete with the best while remaining true to his Southern roots. He currently books or oversees the booking for amphitheatres from Washington, D.C., to Florida, with heavy emphasis on shows indoors and out in the Carolinas.

Arny Granat, Louis Messina, Mitch Slater, Donald Tarlton, Paul Tollett and Irv Zuckerman were also nominated in this category.

Small Booking Agency Of The Year

Bobby Brooks Award for Agent Of The Year

MARTY DIAMOND

OR THE SECOND YEAR IN A row, Little Big Man Booking was honored as Small Booking Agency Of The Year. The team at Little Big Man has proven to the big boys that size isn't everything when it comes to booking a successful tour.

The driving force behind Little Big Man is Marty Diamond, this year's Agent Of The Year honoree. Diamond started the agency in 1994. He had worked at ITG but when the agency's partners Wayne Forte and Mike Farrell split up, Diamond decided to set out on his own.

He asked his longtime associate, Tammy Shin, to join him in his new venture and off they went. They moved into what had been Vernon Reid's guitar closet — literally. With a phone and fax machine, and an abundant amount of enthusiasm, Little Big Man became a reality.

Diamond then brought Larry Webman aboard to help achieve the visions of his artists. In order to do that, Diamond avoids the traditional agency formula of territorial booking. He simply doesn't believe that an agent can successfully fulfill an artist's vision as a part-time, regional participant.

Today, Diamond's team includes Shin, Webman, Nat Farnham and Marnie Wolfford. Together, they represent some of contemporary music's top acts including Tricky, Barenaked Ladies, Our Lady Peace, The Verve, Kula Shaker, and Beth Orton. And in 1997, client Sarah McLachlan became a legitimate commercial success after years of being a critics' darling and a Canadian fave.

The power of great artists, coupled with agents who take a hands-on approach, have made Little Big Man Booking the company it is today. Diamond may have assembled a top notch team, but as his peers acknowledged this year, it takes a notable chief to run an effective tribe. Diamond is that Little Big Man.

Also nominated for Small Booking Agency Of The Year were ARTISTdirect, The Billions Corporation, Howard Rose Agency, The M.O.B. Agency, Pinnacle Entertainment and Red Ryder Agency.

Agents nominated for the Bobby Brooks Award For Agent Of The Year were Chip Hooper, Frank Riley, Carole Kinzel, Rob Light, John Marx, and Mitch Okmin. a

THE CIRCULAR BRIDGE TO BABYLON

> The Rolling Stones'"Bridges to Babylon" tour began its North American run in Chicago and will end there as well with an April 23rd concert at the United Center arena. The band kicked off its tour in Chicago September 23rd at Soldier Field.

The Stones will continue to probe the upper limits of ticket prices by charging $300 for most of the best seats and $150 for a good part of the rest. There will be relatively small numbers of cheaper seats also available for as little as $30 a piece but those are reportedly confined to the back rows in the upper deck.

COMEDY ON WHEELS

> The laughter kicks off March 5th in Cleveland. "The Kings of Comedy" tour is scheduled to deliver the hilarities of comedians Steve Harvey, Bernie Mac, Cedric The Entertainer and Guy Torry to 31 cities across America.

Both Harvey and Cedric currently star on "The Steve Harvey Show" and have made numerous other television appearances in the past. Mac and Torry have appeared in feature films and Torry can be seen on the television show "Good News."

The tour plays mostly on weekend nights and currently has dates running into late August. The concept for the tour was test marketed in three cities during the Christmas holidays. Those dates combined for about 20,000 in ticket sales and that was more than enough for copromoters Southeast Concerts and Contemporary Productions to green-light a full tour for '98

THE ROAD Never Ends

➤ Willie Nelson's first public appearance was in 1937 in his home town of Abbott, Texas. Now, 61 years later, with more than 100 albums to his credit, Nelson hits the road with a tour schedule that would leave men half his age in the dust.

The 64-year-old Redheaded Stranger sets out on the road March 11th in New York City and has an extensive schedule booked throughout the year. Willie will perform in a variety of venue types including clubs, theatres, art centers, casinos, fairs, amphitheatres and resort hotels. Most of his dates are in the U.S., but in May, he travels to Amsterdam to kick off a European stint that includes stops in Germany, Norway and London.

TITANIC TOUR

➤ Sony Music is reportedly planning a short concert tour and television special based on the music from "Titanic." The tour is expected to feature a 20- to 30-minute suite composed by James Horner. The tour will likely stop in only a handful of major markets in the U.S., Europe and possibly Asia.

HOT NEW TOURS

➤ Kenny Wayne Shepherd hits the road March 18th in Oklahoma..... Mary J. Blige and Usher are kicking off a major tour in Detroit on March 25th ..... Oasis will try to be on its best behavior when the group plays South America later this month..... Hot new group Fastball is launching a tour in Chicago on March 6th ..... Paul Revere & The Raiders are starting an extensive U.S. tour on March 13th in Louisiana..... AJ Croce will be playing clubs and festivals starting March 18th ..... The G3 tour will be visiting Europe in May and features Joe Satriani and the Michael Schenker Group..... Curve has a few dates lined up at the end of March and into early April..... The Chieftains start up a tour on March 2nd in Ames, Iowa..... Overkill starts the headbanging on April Fools Day in NYC..... The Mighty Mighty Bosstones have added European dates starting March 26th in London ..... Medeski Martin & Wood are on the road starting March 29th in San Francisco..... George Clinton & The P-Funk Allstars have a short tour starting March 26th in California ..... Galactic and Charlie Hunter are hitting the road together starting March 19th in Mississippi ..... And Taylor Dayne will be playing the casinos starting March 6th in Las Vegas. 🕊

They are also slated ain for the Midtfyns Festival in k in July, and in August, CSH is ed to supply all three sound for the International Festival Sea, a celebration of everything nautical with performances ranging from shanty bands to pop/rock/soul acts, to fully orchestrated scores with that "salty" flavor.

Mike Warren is adjusting nicely to his new digs and is introducing new engineers and crew to the company.

MAKING LIKE TOMBA ► The Agony and the Defeat. Evidently, lighting guru Bob Dickinson decided to catch the spirit of the Olympic games

by wiping out on the ski slopes of Mammoth, Calif., just days before he was due at the Grammys last week. We understand he suffered some shoulder damage. Hope you heal quickly Bobby and next time, leave your pager in the warming hut.

BACK AT RADIO CITY

► Lighting boffin and overachiever Andy O'Reilly made us all proud operating the ailing Dickinson design with 51 VL2Cs, 102 VL4s, 138 VL5s, 45 VL5arcs and 78 VL6s on an Artisan board. We hope Bob had enough Vicodin! The Grammys were broadcast to about 1.5 billion people in 190 countries.

PRODUCTION Resource Group

▶ PRG has broken ground in Las Vegas on its new multimillion dollar full service facility which will house four of the LV-based PRG companies: Scenic Technologies, Cinema/Bash, Thoughtful Designs and Harris Production Services.

The 130,000-square-foot shop should be completed this May According to Jere Harris, president and CEO of PRG, "The new PRG building, as an all-inclusive facility, will offer the full scope of products and services provided by each individual company?

Scenic Technologies LV manufactures scenic and themed environments for the retail and gaming industries, exhibit houses and industrial shows. Cinema Services/BASH Lighting Services provides full-service entertainment lighting for rental and sales as well as contracting labor for the Vegas conventions.

Thoughtful Designs offers consulting for presentation technology for audio, video and show control systems, and Harris Production Services provides production management for shows and projects.

PRG makes up that "collection" of production oriented companies with a roster as prolific as their press releases.

DAVID CARL CHECKS IN

► CD Simpson reported in from the 10th Anniversary APLA Commitment To Live show at the Universal Amphitheater February 12th. Merv Griffin Productions was the executive producer of the annual event which raises money for Aids Project Los Angeles.

Natalie Cole was the headliner and performed a tribute to her brother who lost his battle with AIDS last year. Old David Carl handled the Vari-Lite design (the fact that his initials are reversed in his nickname CD is just one of the appealing quirks of this award-winning Hall of Famer with Vari-Lite roots.)

That being done, CD is off in search of the perfect vodka martini. He's leaning towards the clean taste of Belvedere vodka. That's Simpson, CD Simpson .... always shakin', not stirred. 🕊
