Kingsley Partners With Jones Media Group

Jones Media Group has partnered with KCCS Productions to distribute Bob Kingsley’s Country Top 40, which debuted last weekend. Kingsley and his KCCS Productions will continue to produce and oversee affiliate relations for the show, while advertising sales will be handled by Jones Media America. Radio Express, whose owner Tom Rounds gave Kingsley his start in the countdown business, will distribute the programs internationally.

JMG will also distribute Bob Kingsley With Today’s Hit Makers, a two-minute weekday spotlight on Country music’s biggest stars. JMG’s Country programming already includes The Lia Show, Danny Wright All Night, GAC’s Classic Country Weekend With Bill Cody and four 24-hour country music formats.

Kingsley’s 27-year run as host of ABC Radio Network’s American Country Countdown ended when it was announced in November that Country artist Kix Brooks would assume hosting duties Jan. 21.

Near the end of his ACC run, Kingsley appeared in approximately 56 of the top 100 markets. His new show debuted in about 38 of the top 100 markets. According to Mediabase 24/7, among the stations that carried Kingsley’s new show but not the guest-hosted ACC were WMZQ/Washington; KMPS/Seattle; KSON/San Diego; WMIL/Milwaukee; KWNR/Las Vegas; KASE/Austin;

Kennedy Rises At CBS Radio/K.C.
KBEQ/Kansas City PD/morning personality Mike Kennedy has been promoted to Dir./Programming for CBS Radio/Kansas City’s four-station cluster, which includes Country KFKF, CHR/Pop KMXV and AC KSRC. He retains his duties as KBEQ PD and will continue to co-host the morning show.

“I’m very excited about my new responsibilities,” Kennedy tells R&R. “I’d like to help unify the cluster’s stations as far as setting goals and accomplishments for the future. We had a good year at KBEQ, and I feel with this new promotion I’ve got plenty of reasons to celebrate.”

Kennedy takes over the position that had been vacant since now-XM SVP/Programming Jon Zellner left the cluster in July 2004. Kennedy will report to CBS Radio/Kansas City GM Herndon Hartley.

New Air Staff Howls For The Wolf/Seattle
Entercom launched KKWF (The Wolf)/Seattle with 10,000 songs in a row on Nov. 30, 2005 and extended its uninterrupted musical interlude with another 5,000 songs on Dec. 22. Yesterday at 5am, after 15,728 tunes commercial-free, The Wolf emerged from the den with new morning personality Fitz — Corey Fitzner — and his partner Tony Russell.

Fitz, newly arrived from overnights at KPLX (The Wolf)/Dallas, had been on the air at a couple of Big D CHR/Pop stations, including KHKZ. Twenty-year Seattle radio vet Mary White, who spent 1998-2003 as part of the Ichabod Caine morning show at Country rival KMPS/Seattle, is The Wolf’s new morning show producer.

Rounding out the rest of the airstaff for PD Scott Mahalick are KCCY/Colorado Springs, CO MD/afternoon driver Valerie Hart, as MD/middays; Clear Channel/Ann Arbor, MI Dir./Ops and WWWW PD Rob Walker, as Asst. PD/afternoon driver; KUPL/Portland, OR night talent Wing Nut, who will handle evenings; and Entercom/Seattle part-timer Will Dixon, who will do overnights.

Big Machine Gears Up New Promo Team
Big Machine President Scott Borchetta will soon field a separate promotion team for his label, which had been sharing a promo staff with Toby Keith’s Show Dog Nashville. The labels have shared promotion and marketing expertise and expenses since their Sept. 1, 2005 launch. According to Borchetta, the two imprints will continue to share marketing. Both labels will continue with Universal distribution.

Borchetta told R&R, “Looking at the 2006 release plans for each label, it became clear to Toby and me that to give all the great artists each of us has signed the attention they deserved, we would need two complete promotion departments.”

Show Dog Nashville promotion is led by VP Denise Roberts, with Southeast regional Tony Morreale, Northeast rep Suzanne Durham, West Coast rep Lisa Owen and Southwest regional Greg Sax, all of whom will continue with Show Dog.

Current Show Dog National Promotion/New Media head John Zarling and Show Dog regional Mandy McCormack will join Borchetta’s new team. All changes will be effective March 31.

CC Flips WMAD To Country

WMAD/Madison switched from Alternative to “96-3 Star Country” at midnight, Dec. 22, 2005, playing 10,000 songs in a row. It’s programmed by Jon Reilly, who is also the PD at Clear Channel CHR/Pop clustermate WZEE (Z104). WMAD’s new positioner is “The biggest hits, the biggest stars.” It will retain the WMAD calls.

Reilly told R&R, “With the research and other things we’ve seen, we felt there needed to be two Country stations in Madison. Plus, our signal is more regional than the other Country station’s, so people will be able to hear us in areas they can’t hear them.”

Reilly will be assembling a complete airstaff. Send your materials to him at jonreilly@clearchannel.com or Clear Channel/Madison, 2651 South Fish Hatchery Rd., Madison, WI 53711. The website is www.963starcountry.com

WWQQ has been the market’s dominant Country outlet; it placed second in the summer 2005 Arbitron with an 8.1 (12+), behind only WZEE’s 9.1.
